Introduction to the NKJV Foundation Study Bible

As its name implies, the NKJV Foundation Study Bible is designed to provide a foundation for Bible study. It is intended for both beginning and experienced students of the Scriptures who want a Bible that contains the key features of a study Bible in a convenient, compact, and concise form.

- The full text of the New King James Version is used, in a format that shows paragraphs, poetry, and other special formats. Based on the time-honored King James Version, the NKJV is preferred by many Bible readers for its unparalleled accuracy, beauty, and clarity. The NKJV uses up-to-date English while maintaining the literary quality of the KJV.
- Concise study notes are based on the notes originally prepared for The NKJV Study Bible, providing succinct comments on passages of Scripture.
- Theological notes draw attention to the most important doctrinal content of the Bible. These notes are signified by a bold roman heading followed by a dash. They are indexed in the back of the Bible both by title and by location.
- New King James Version translators' footnotes offer clarification and information about original language texts.
- In-text subject headings help to organize and illuminate Bible reading and study.
- Words of Jesus are printed in red to assist identification.
- Book introductions give background information about each of the Bible's 66 books.
- Cross-references direct attention to other passages for further study of words and concepts in Scripture. Conceptual cross-references are indicated by square brackets.
- A concordance provides an alphabetical listing of important passages by key words.
- Full-color maps of Bible lands are included in the back of the Bible.

Preface to the New King James Version®

Purpose

In the preface to the 1611 edition, the translators of the Authorized Version, known popularly as the King James Bible, state that it was not their purpose “to make a new translation . . . but to make a good one better.” Indebted to the earlier work of William Tyndale and others, they saw their best contribution to consist in revising and enhancing the excellence of the English versions which had sprung from the Reformation of the sixteenth century. In harmony with the purpose of the King James scholars, the translators and editors of the present work have not pursued a goal of innovation. They have perceived the Holy Bible, New King James Version, as a continuation of the labors of the earlier translators, thus unlocking for today’s readers the spiritual treasures found especially in the Authorized Version of the Holy Scriptures.

A Living Legacy

For nearly four hundred years, and throughout several revisions of its English form, the King James Bible has been deeply revered among the English-speaking peoples of the world. The precision of translation for which it is historically renowned, and its majesty of style, have enabled that monumental version of the word of God to become the mainspring of the religion, language, and legal foundations of our civilization.

Although the Elizabethan period and our own era share in zeal for technical advance, the former period was more aggressively devoted to classical learning. Along with this awakened concern for the classics came a flourishing companion interest in the Scriptures, an interest that was enlivened by the conviction that the manuscripts were providentially handed down and were a trustworthy record of the inspired Word of God. The King James translators were committed to producing an English Bible that would be a precise translation, and by no means a paraphrase or a broadly approximate rendering. On the one hand, the scholars were almost as familiar with the original languages of the Bible as with their native English. On the other hand, their reverence for the divine Author and His Word assured a translation of the Scriptures in which only a principle of utmost accuracy could be accepted.

In 1786 Catholic scholar Alexander Geddes said of the King James Bible, “If accuracy and strictest attention to the letter of the text be supposed to constitute an excellent version, this is of all versions the most excellent.” George Bernard Shaw became a literary legend in the twentieth century because of his severe and often humorous criticisms of our most cherished values. Surprisingly, however, Shaw pays the following tribute to the scholars commissioned by King James: “The translation was extraordinarily well done because to the translators what they were translating was not merely a curious collection of ancient books written by different authors in different stages of culture, but the Word of God divinely revealed through His chosen and expressly inspired scribes. In this conviction they carried out their work with boundless reverence and care and achieved a beautifully artistic result.” History agrees with these estimates. Therefore, while seeking to unveil the excellent form of the traditional English Bible, special care has also been taken in the present edition to preserve the work of precision which is the legacy of the 1611 translators.

Complete Equivalence in Translation

Where new translation has been necessary in the New King James Version, the most complete representation of the original has been rendered by considering the history of usage and etymology of words in their contexts. This principle of complete equivalence seeks to preserve all of the information in the text, while presenting it in good literary form. Dynamic equivalence, a recent procedure in Bible translation, commonly results in paraphrasing where a more literal rendering is needed to reflect a specific and vital sense. For example, complete equivalence truly renders the original text in expressions such as “lifted her voice and wept” (Gen. 21:16); “I gave you cleanness of teeth” (Amos 4:6); “Jesus met them, saying, ‘Rejoice!’” (Matt. 28:9); and “Woman, what does your concern have to do with Me?” (John 2:4). Complete equivalence translates fully, in order to provide an English text that is both accurate and readable.

In keeping with the principle of complete equivalence, it is the policy to translate interjections which are commonly omitted in modern language renderings of the Bible. As an example, the interjection behold, in the older King James editions, continues to have a place in English usage, especially in dramatically calling attention to a spectacular scene, or an event of profound importance such as the Immanuel prophecy of Isaiah 7:14. Consequently, behold is retained for these occasions in the present edition. However, the Hebrew and Greek originals for this word can be translated variously, depending on the circumstances in the passage. Therefore, in addition to behold, words such as indeed, look, see, and surely are also rendered to convey the appropriate sense suggested by the context in each case.

In faithfulness to God and to our readers, it was deemed appropriate that all participating scholars sign a statement affirming their belief in the verbal and plenary inspiration of Scripture, and in the inerrancy of the original autographs.

Devotional Quality

The King James scholars readily appreciated the intrinsic beauty of divine revelation. They accordingly disciplined their talents to render well-chosen English words of their time, as well as a graceful, often musical arrangement of language, which has stirred the hearts of Bible readers through the years. The translators, the committees, and the editors of the present edition, while sensitive to the late-twentieth-century English idiom, and while adhering faithfully to the Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek texts, have sought to maintain those lyrical and devotional qualities that are so highly regarded in the Authorized Version. This devotional quality is especially apparent in the poetic and prophetic books, although even the relatively plain style of the Gospels and Epistles cannot strictly be likened, as sometimes suggested, to modern newspaper style. The Koine Greek of the New Testament is influenced by the Hebrew background of the writers, for whom even the gospel narratives were not merely flat utterance, but often song in various degrees of rhythm.

The Style

Students of the Bible applaud the timeless devotional character of our historic Bible. Yet it is also universally understood that our language, like all living languages, has undergone profound change since 1611. Subsequent revisions of the King James Bible have sought to keep abreast of changes in English speech. The present work is a further step toward this objective. Where obsolescence and other reading difficulties exist, present-day vocabulary, punctuation, and grammar have been carefully integrated. Words representing ancient objects, such as chariot and phylactery, have no modern substitutes and are therefore retained.

A special feature of the New King James Version is its conformity to the thought flow of the 1611 Bible. The reader discovers that the sequence and selection of words, phrases, and clauses of the new edition, while much clearer, are so close to the traditional that there is remarkable ease in listening to the reading of either edition while following with the other.

In the discipline of translating biblical and other ancient languages, a standard method of transliteration, that is, the English spelling of untranslated words, such as names of persons and places, has never been commonly adopted. In keeping with the design of the present work, the King James spelling of untranslated words is retained, although made uniform throughout. For example, instead of the spellings Isaiah and Elijah in the Old Testament, and Esaias and Elias in the New Testament, Isaiah and Elijah now appear in both Testaments.

King James doctrinal and theological terms, for example, propitiation, justification, and sanctification, are generally familiar to English-speaking peoples. Such terms have been retained except where the original language indicates need for a more precise translation.

Readers of the Authorized Version will immediately be struck by the absence of several pronouns: thee, thou, and ye are replaced by the simple you, while your and yours are substituted for thy and thine as applicable. Thee, thou, thy and thine were once forms of address to express a special relationship to human as well as divine persons. These pronouns are no longer part of our language. However, reverence for God in the present work is preserved by capitalizing pronouns, including You, Your, and Yours, which refer to Him. Additionally, capitalization of these pronouns benefits the reader by clearly distinguishing divine and human persons referred to in a passage. Without such capitalization the distinction is often obscure, because the antecedent of a pronoun is not always clear in the English translation.

In addition to the pronoun usages of the seventeenth century, the -eth and -est verb endings, so familiar in the earlier King James editions, are now obsolete. Unless a speaker is schooled in these verb endings, there is common difficulty in selecting the correct form to be used with a given subject of the verb in vocal prayer. That is, should we use love, loveth, or lovest? do, doeth, doest, or dost? have, hath, or hast? Because these forms are obsolete, contemporary English usage has been substituted for the previous verb endings.

In older editions of the King James Version, the frequency of the connective and far exceeded the limits of present English usage. Also, biblical linguists agree that the Hebrew and Greek original words for this conjunction may commonly be translated otherwise, depending on the immediate context. Therefore, instead of and, alternatives such as also, but, however, now, so, then, and thus are accordingly rendered in the present edition, when the original language permits.

The real character of the Authorized Version does not reside in its archaic pronouns or verbs or other grammatical forms of the seventeenth century, but rather in the care taken by its scholars to impart the letter and spirit of the original text in a majestic and reverent style.

The Format

The format of the New King James Version is designed to enhance the vividness and devotional quality of the Holy Scriptures:

- Subject headings assist the reader to identify topics and transitions in the biblical content.
- Words or phrases in italics indicate expressions in the original language which require clarification by additional English words, as also done throughout the history of the King James Bible.
- Oblique type in the New Testament indicates a quotation from the Old Testament.
- Prose is divided into paragraphs to indicate the structure of thought.
- Poetry is structured as contemporary verse to reflect the poetic form and beauty of the passage in the original language.
- The covenant name of God was usually translated from the Hebrew as LORD or GOD (using capital letters as shown) in the King James Old Testament. This tradition is maintained. In the present edition the name is so capitalized whenever the covenant name is quoted in the New Testament from a passage in the Old Testament.

The Old Testament Text

The Hebrew Bible has come down to us through the scrupulous care of ancient scribes who copied the original text in successive generations. By the sixth century A.D. the scribes were succeeded by a group known as the Masoretes, who continued to preserve the sacred Scriptures for another five hundred years in a form known as the Masoretic Text. Babylonia, Palestine, and Tiberias were the main centers of Masoretic activity; but by the tenth century A.D. the Masoretes of Tiberias, led by the family of ben Asher, gained the ascendancy. Through subsequent editions, the ben Asher text became in the twelfth century the only recognized form of the Hebrew Scriptures.

Daniel Bomberg printed the first Rabbinic Bible in 1516–17; that work was followed in 1524–25 by a second edition prepared by Jacob ben Chayyim and also published by Bomberg. The text of ben Chayyim was adopted in most subsequent Hebrew Bibles, including those used by the King James translators. The ben Chayyim text was also used for the first two editions of Rudolph Kittel's Biblia Hebraica of 1906 and 1912. In 1937 Paul Kahle published a third edition of Biblia Hebraica. This edition was based on the oldest dated manuscript of the ben Asher text, the Leningrad Manuscript B19a (A.D. 1008), which Kahle regarded as superior to that used by ben Chayyim.

For the New King James Version the text used was the 1967/1977 Stuttgart edition of the Biblia Hebraica, with frequent comparisons being made with the Bomberg edition of 1524–25. The Septuagint (Greek) Version of the Old Testament and the Latin Vulgate also were consulted. In addition to referring to a variety of ancient versions of the Hebrew Scriptures, the New King James Version draws on the resources of relevant manuscripts from the Dead Sea caves. In the few places where the Hebrew was so obscure that the 1611 King James was compelled to follow one of the versions, but where information is now available to resolve the problems, the New King James Version follows the Hebrew text. Significant variations are recorded in the New King James translators' notes.

The New Testament Text

There is more manuscript support for the New Testament than for any other body of ancient literature. Over five thousand Greek, eight thousand Latin, and many more manuscripts in other languages attest the integrity of the New Testament. There is only one basic New Testament used by Protestants, Roman Catholics, and Orthodox, by conservatives and liberals. Minor variations in hand copying have appeared through the centuries, before mechanical printing began about A.D. 1450.

Some variations exist in the spelling of Greek words, in word order, and in similar details. These ordinarily do not show up in translation and do not affect the sense of the text in any way.

Other manuscript differences such as omission or inclusion of a word or a clause, and two paragraphs in the Gospels, should not overshadow the overwhelming degree of agreement which exists among the ancient records. Bible readers may be assured that the most important differences in English New Testaments of today are due, not to manuscript divergence, but to the way in which translators view the task of translation: How literally should the text be rendered? How does the translator view the matter of biblical inspiration? Does the translator adopt a paraphrase when a literal rendering would be quite clear and more to the point? The New King James Version follows the historic precedent of the Authorized Version in maintaining a literal approach to translation, except where the idiom of the original language cannot be translated directly into our tongue.

The King James New Testament was based on the traditional text of the Greek-speaking churches, first published in 1516, and later called the Textus Receptus or Received Text. Although based on the relatively few available manuscripts, these were representative of many more which existed at the time but only became known later. In the late nineteenth century, B. Westcott and F. Hort taught that this text had been officially edited by the fourth-century church, but a total lack of historical evidence for this event has forced a revision of the theory. It is now widely held that the Byzantine Text that largely supports the Textus Receptus has as much right as the Alexandrian or any other tradition to be weighed in determining the text of the New Testament.

Since the 1880s most contemporary translations of the New Testament have relied upon a relatively few manuscripts discovered chiefly in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Such translations depend primarily on two manuscripts, Codex Vaticanus and Codex Sinaiticus, because of their greater age. The Greek text obtained by using these sources and the related papyri (our most ancient manuscripts) is known as the Alexandrian Text. However, some scholars have grounds for doubting the faithfulness of Vaticanus and Sinaiticus, since they often disagree with one another, and Sinaiticus exhibits excessive omission.

A third viewpoint of New Testament scholarship holds that the best text is based on the consensus of the majority of existing Greek manuscripts. This text is called the Majority Text. Most of these manuscripts are in substantial agreement. Even though many are late, and none is earlier than the fifth century, usually their readings are verified by papyri, ancient versions, quotations from the early church fathers, or a combination of these. The Majority Text is similar to the Textus Receptus, but it corrects those readings which have little or no support in the Greek manuscript tradition.

Today, scholars agree that the science of New Testament textual criticism is in a state of flux. Very few scholars still favor the Textus Receptus as such, and then often for its historical prestige as the text of Luther, Calvin, Tyndale, and the King James Version. For about a century most have followed a Critical Text (so called because it is edited according to specific principles of textual criticism) which depends heavily upon the Alexandrian type of text. More recently many have abandoned this Critical Text (which is quite similar to the one edited by Westcott and Hort) for one that is more eclectic. Finally, a small but growing number of scholars prefer the Majority Text, which is close to the traditional text except in the Revelation.

In light of these facts, and also because the New King James Version is the fifth revision of a historic document translated from specific Greek texts, the editors decided to retain the traditional text in the body of the New Testament and to indicate major Critical and Majority Text variant readings in the translators' notes. Although these variations are duly indicated in the translators' notes of the present edition, it is most important to emphasize that fully eighty-five percent of the New Testament text is the same in the Textus Receptus, the Alexandrian Text, and the Majority Text.

New King James Translators' Notes

Significant textual explanations, alternate translations, and New Testament citations of Old Testament passages are supplied in the New King James translators' notes.

Important textual variants in the Old Testament are identified in a standard form.

The textual notes in the present edition of the New Testament make no evaluation of readings, but do clearly indicate the manuscript sources of readings. They objectively present the facts without such tendentious remarks as "the best manuscripts omit" or "the most reliable manuscripts read." Such notes are value judgments that differ according to varying viewpoints on the text. By giving a clearly defined set of variants the New King James Version benefits readers of all textual persuasions.

Where significant variations occur in the New Testament Greek manuscripts, textual notes are classified as follows:

NU-Text

These variations from the traditional text generally represent the Alexandrian or Egyptian type of text described previously in "The New Testament Text." They are found in the Critical Text published in the twenty-seventh edition of the Nestle-Aland Greek New Testament (N) and in the United Bible Societies' fourth edition (U), hence the acronym, "NU-Text."

M-Text

This symbol indicates points of variation in the Majority Text from the traditional text, as also previously discussed in "The New Testament Text." It should be noted that M stands for whatever reading is printed in the published Greek New Testament According to the Majority Text, whether supported by overwhelming, strong, or only a divided majority textual tradition.

The textual notes reflect the scholarship of the past two centuries and will assist the reader to observe the variations between the different manuscript traditions of the New Testament. Such information is generally not available in English translations of the New Testament.

THE OLD TESTAMENT

THE FIRST BOOK OF MOSES CALLED GENESIS

► AUTHOR: Nowhere in the Book of Genesis is the author named. Although the events of the book end 300 years before Moses was born, the rest of the Bible and most church historians attribute the authorship of Genesis to Moses. Both the Old and New Testaments have many references to Moses as its author (Ex. 7:14; Lev. 1:1–2; Num. 33:2; Deut. 1:1; Dan. 9:11–13; Mal. 4:4; Matt. 8:4; Mark 12:26; Luke 16:29; John 7:19; Acts 26:22; Rom. 10:19). Both early Jewish and Christian writers name Moses as the author.

► THEME: After the initial story of the world's creation, Genesis (beginnings) covers two basic subjects: God and man. God creates man. Man disobeys God and alienates himself from God. Genesis is the story then of the subsequent interactions between God and man that bring them back together into a right relationship. As such, the book points to the beginnings of the way of change, of restoration, and of a new way of life. Genesis sets the tone for the rest of the Bible with clear teaching on following God's call, believing in His promises, and being obedient to His commands. The main characters who dominate the story are the patriarchs: Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and Joseph.

The History of Creation

1 In the <sup>a</sup>beginning <sup>b</sup>God created the heavens and the earth. <sup>2</sup>The earth was <sup>c</sup>without form, and void; and darkness was* on the face of the deep. <sup>d</sup>And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters.

<sup>3e</sup>Then God said, <sup>f</sup>“Let there be <sup>g</sup>light”; and there was light. <sup>4</sup>And God saw the light, that it was good; and God divided the light from the darkness. <sup>5</sup>God called the light Day, and the <sup>h</sup>darkness He called Night. So the evening and the morning were the first day.

* 1:2 Words in italic type have been added for clarity. They are not found in the original Hebrew or Aramaic.

1:1 Creation—Biblical revelation begins with a simple, strong, and sublime affirmation. Instead of arguing the existence of God, it declares that the very existence of the universe depends on the creative power of God. The world we live in was created by God and belongs to Him. His absolute ownership requires our faithful stewardship of all things.

1:1 In the beginning. No information is given to us about what happened before the creation of the physical universe, though John 1:1 speaks of this time. It is possible that the rise, rebellion, and judgment of Satan transpired before the events of this chapter. God. This standard Hebrew term for deity Elohim is in the form called the plural of majesty or plural of intensity. In contrast to the ordinary plural (gods), this plural means “the fullness of deity” or “God—very God.” Furthermore, the use of the plural allows for the later revelation of the Trinity (see 11:7; Matt. 28:19; John 1:1–3).

1:3 Let there be light. These words express a principal theme of the Bible: God bringing light into darkness (see Is. 9:1–2). Here, God produced physical light. The New Testament records God sending His Son to be the light of the world (John 8:12), bringing release from the spiritual darkness of bondage to sin. In the end, there will no longer be any darkness at all and we will be face to face with the source of light (Rev. 21:23).

1:7 divided the waters. The description of upper and lower waters is somewhat mysterious; it has been theorized that this is simply a reference to the division between the water of the seas and rivers on the surface of the earth and the water vapor which is part of the atmosphere.

<sup>9</sup>Then God said, <sup>14</sup>“Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together into one place, and <sup>15</sup>let the dry land appear”; and it was so. <sup>10</sup>And God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering together of the waters He called Seas. And God saw that it was good.

<sup>11</sup>Then God said, “Let the earth <sup>12</sup>bring forth grass, the herb that yields seed, and the <sup>13</sup>fruit tree that yields fruit according to its kind, whose seed is in itself, on the earth”; and it was so. <sup>12</sup>And the earth brought forth grass, the herb that yields seed according to its kind, and the tree that yields fruit, whose seed is in itself according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. <sup>13</sup>So the evening and the morning were the third day.

<sup>14</sup>Then God said, “Let there be <sup>15</sup>lights in the firmament of the heavens to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs and <sup>16</sup>seasons, and for days and years; <sup>17</sup>and let them be for lights in the firmament of the heavens to give light on the earth”; and it was so. <sup>16</sup>Then God made two great lights: the <sup>18</sup>greater light to rule the day, and the <sup>19</sup>lesser light to rule the night. He made <sup>20</sup>the stars also. <sup>17</sup>God set them in the firmament of the <sup>21</sup>heavens to give light on the earth, <sup>18</sup>and to <sup>19</sup>rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. <sup>19</sup>So the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

face of the firmament of the heavens.” <sup>21</sup>So <sup>22</sup>God created great sea creatures and every living thing that moves, with which the waters abounded, according to their kind, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. <sup>22</sup>And God blessed them, saying, <sup>23</sup>“Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.” <sup>23</sup>So the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

<sup>24</sup>Then God said, “Let the earth bring forth the living creature according to its kind: cattle and creeping thing and beast of the earth, each according to its kind”; and it was so. <sup>25</sup>And God made the beast of the earth according to its kind, cattle according to its kind, and everything that creeps on the earth according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

<sup>29</sup>And God said, “See, I have given you every herb that yields seed which is on the face of all the earth, and every tree whose fruit yields seed; <sup>30</sup>to you it shall be for food.

1:11–12 seed . . . kind. God not only created plant life; He also set in motion the process that makes plant life reproduce.

1:14 for signs and seasons. Some have mistakenly viewed these words as a biblical basis for astrology. The signs in this case relate to phases of the moon and the relative positions of stars that mark the passage of time from the vantage point of earth. The two words form a pair that may be translated seasonal signs.

1:16 He made the stars also. This is a remarkable statement. In the ancient Middle East, other religions worshiped, deified, and mystified the stars. Israel's neighbors revered the stars and looked to them for guidance. In contrast, the biblical creation story gives the stars only the barest mention, as though the writer shrugged and said, And, oh, yes, He also made the stars. Such a statement showed great contempt for ancient Babylonian astrology (Ps. 29:93).

1:24 living creature. This expression contains the word sometimes used for the soul, but the word can also mean “life,” “being,” “living thing,” or “person,” depending on the context. The same phrase is used for man in 2:7.

1:26 in Our image. Since God is spirit (John 4:24), there can be no “image” or “likeness” of Him in the normal sense of these words. The traditional view of this passage is that God's image in man is in specific moral, ethical, and intellectual abilities. A more recent view, based on a possible interpretation of Hebrew grammar and the knowledge of the Middle East, interprets the phrase as meaning “Let Us make man as Our image.” In ancient times an emperor might command statues of himself to be placed in remote parts of his empire. These symbols would declare that these areas were under his power and reign. So God placed humans as living symbols of Himself on earth to represent His reign. This interpretation fits well with the command that follows—to reign over all that God has made.

1:28 fill the earth and subdue it. The word translated subdue means “bring into bondage.” This harsh term is used elsewhere of military conquest (Zech. 9:15) and of God subduing our iniquities (Mic. 7:19). Since this direction was given before the fall, it appears that the need to subdue the earth is not because of sin but because God left part of the arranging and ordering of the creation as work for mankind to do. Whatever the case, subdue does not mean “destroy” or “ruin.” It does mean to “act as managers who have

<sup>30</sup>Also, to <sup>f</sup>every beast of the earth, to every <sup>g</sup>bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, in which there is life, I have given every green herb for food; and it was so. <sup>31</sup>Then <sup>h</sup>God saw everything that He had made, and indeed it was very good. So the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

2 Thus the heavens and the earth, and <sup>a</sup>all the host of them, were finished. <sup>2b</sup>And on the seventh day God ended His work which He had done, and He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had done. <sup>3</sup>Then God <sup>b</sup>blest the seventh day and sanctified it, because in it He rested from all His work which God had created and made.

<sup>4d</sup>This is the history* of the heavens and the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens, <sup>5</sup>before any <sup>p</sup>plant of the field was in the earth and before any herb of the field had grown. For the LORD God had not <sup>f</sup>caused it to rain on the earth, and there was no man <sup>g</sup>to till the ground; <sup>6</sup>but a mist went up from the earth and watered the whole face of the ground.

Life in God's Garden

whom He had formed. <sup>9</sup>And out of the ground the LORD God made <sup>o</sup>every tree grow that is pleasant to the sight and good for food. <sup>10</sup>The tree of life was also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and <sup>q</sup>evil.

<sup>18</sup>And the LORD God said, “It is not good that man should be alone; <sup>x</sup>I will make him a helper comparable to him.” <sup>19v</sup>Out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air,

the authority to run everything as God planned.” This command applies equally to male and female.

2:2 He rested on the seventh day. God did not rest because of fatigue, but because of His accomplishment. God is never weary (Is. 40:28–29). The verb translated “rested” is related to the word for Sabbath, which means “rest.” God’s rest on the seventh day showed that He was satisfied with the work He had done.

2:4 the LORD God. This is a significant term. The word translated God is the same word as in 1:1. The word translated LORD is the proper name of God, Yahweh (or Jehovah; see Ex. 3:14–15). The God of chapter 1 and the LORD God of chapter 2 are one and the same.

2:6 mist. The precise meaning of this word is uncertain. Obviously it refers to some manner of irrigation before the Lord brought the cycles of rain into being.

2:7 the breath of life. Although God created light with a mere word (1:3), He created man by fashioning a body out of mud and clay, transforming the clay into something new, and then breathing life into it. This “breath of life” is something which only God can bestow. Medical knowledge enables doctors to keep a human body “alive,” keeping the heart pumping and the vital organs functioning, but it does not enable them to keep or to call back the breath of life. Some have speculated that the “breath of life” is the human soul, but later on, animals are also described as having the “breath of life” in their nostrils (7:22), which would seem to indicate that this is simply a reference to the miracle of living, breathing flesh.

2:15–17 The First Covenant—In biblical times the purpose of a covenant was to establish an agreement between two persons or groups. The elements of a covenant included a promise on the part of one person and the conditions that needed to be fulfilled on the part of the other person in order for the promises to be carried out by both parties to the covenant. The Edenic covenant is the first covenant mentioned in the Bible. God gave Adam a place in His creation and charged him with the responsibility of caring for the garden. The only condition in the covenant was that Adam could not allow himself to eat of the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil or he would die. This covenant was terminated by Adam’s disobedience which also resulted in man’s spiritual and physical death. God then established a new covenant with Adam in Genesis 3:14–21.

2:17 shall surely die. These emphatic words are made of two forms of the verb meaning “to die.” The point is not that the guilty person would drop dead on the instant, but that death would surely happen—there is no escape (Heb. 9:27).

2:18 It is not good. Until this point, everything in creation was very good.

2:19 to see what he would call them. In giving each and <sup>2</sup>brought them to Adam to see what he would call them. And whatever Adam called each living creature, that was its name. <sup>20</sup>So Adam gave names to all cattle, to the birds of the air, and to every beast of the field. But for Adam there was not found a helper comparable to him.

And flesh of my flesh;
She shall be called Woman,

The Temptation and Fall of Man

3 Now <sup>a</sup>“the serpent was <sup>b</sup>more cunning than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said to the woman, “Has God indeed said, ‘You shall not eat of every tree of the garden?’”

<sup>2</sup>And the woman said to the serpent, “We may eat the ‘fruit of the trees of the garden; <sup>b</sup>but of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God has said, ‘You shall not eat it, nor shall you <sup>d</sup>touch it, lest you die.’”

<sup>4e</sup>Then the serpent said to the woman, “You will not surely die. <sup>5</sup>For God knows that in the day you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.”

<sup>6</sup>So when the woman <sup>i</sup>saw that the tree was good for food, that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree desirable to make one wise, she took of its fruit <sup>g</sup>and ate. She also gave to her husband with her, and he ate. <sup>7</sup>Then the eyes of both of them were opened, <sup>h</sup>and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves coverings.

animal its name, Adam demonstrated his right as God’s agent (1:26–28), the one set in place as lord of the created order.

2:20 helper comparable to him. Some have felt that calling the woman man’s helper indicates that she is inferior in value, but this is far from true. In fact, the term “help” is used to describe God Himself, when He comes to our aid. The word “helper” indicates role, not value or position. The helper Adam needed was not merely a servant or a slave, nor another man exactly like himself. He needed a complement, equal in value and with the same intelligence, personality, spirituality, and ethical and moral sense; but with different qualities and a different role, a helper who could join with him in his work of subduing the earth.

2:21 He took one of his ribs. God’s use of Adam’s rib was fitting. He might have started over with dust and clay. But by using a part of Adam himself, the identification of Adam with his partner would be ensured. As Martin Luther observed, God might have taken a bone from a toe, and thus signified that Adam was to rule over her; or He might have taken a bone from his head to indicate her rule over him. But by taking a bone from his side, God implied equality and mutual respect.

2:24 one flesh. This phrase suggests both a physical, sexual bonding and a lifelong relationship. They are still separate persons, but together they are as one (Eph. 5:31). In the New Testament, Jesus refers to this text as the foundation of the biblical view of marriage (Matt. 19:5). A married couple functions as “we,” rather than “me and you.” They are a new unit, separate from the family units they each came from. This does not mean that they will no longer relate to their extended families, but that their “one flesh” is a unit distinct from either family.

3:1 the serpent. With no introduction, Satan appears in the garden of Eden. This is the first clue in Scripture of creation outside the one Adam and Eve experienced. It is interesting to note that Eve expressed no surprise at the serpent speaking to her in intelligible language.

3:3 You shall not eat it, nor shall you touch it. Some interpreters suggest that the woman was already sinning by adding to the word of God, for these words were not part of God’s instructions in 2:17. Scripture, however, always refers to the eating of the fruit as the sin, and never comments on Eve’s addition. Her words reflected the original command well enough, and indeed they would have ensured that the command would be kept.

3:5 you will be like God. God’s fullness of knowledge was only one of the superiorities that set Him apart from the woman. But the serpent combined all of God’s superiority over the woman into this one audacious appeal to her pride.

3:6–7 Sin’s Consequences—At first Adam’s sin does not appear to be all that significant. All he did was take a bite of some fruit. But Scripture takes it very seriously. Adam’s sin was one of disobedience and rebellion. God told Adam not to eat the fruit of the “tree of the knowledge of good and evil” under penalty of death (2:17). That action of eating the fruit changed Adam’s whole nature as well as his relationship with God. Adam became a sinner and as such he died. His spiritual death was immediate, the physical death progressive. Adam, who began the human race, then became the source of sin for the world. We

<sup>10</sup>So he said, “I heard Your voice in the garden, <sup>k</sup>and I was afraid because I was naked; and I hid myself.”

<sup>11</sup>And He said, “Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you that you should not eat?”

<sup>13</sup>And the LORD God said to the woman, “What is this you have done?”

The woman said, <sup>m</sup>“The serpent deceived me, and I ate.”

<sup>14</sup>So the LORD God said to the serpent:

“Because you have done this,
You are cursed more than all cattle,
And more than every beast of the field;
On your belly you shall go,
And <sup>n</sup>you shall eat dust
All the days of your life.

Between you and the woman,

“I will greatly multiply your sorrow and your conception;

<sup>17</sup>Then to Adam He said, “Because you have heeded the voice of your wife, and have eaten from the tree <sup>v</sup>of which I commanded you, saying, ‘You shall not eat of it’:

And <sup>y</sup>you shall eat the herb of the field.

Till you return to the ground,

For out of it you were taken;

<sup>22</sup>Then the LORD God said, “Behold, the man has become like one of Us, to know good and evil. And now, lest he put out his hand and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever”—<sup>23</sup>therefore the LORD God sent him out of the garden of Eden <sup>d</sup>to till the ground from which he was taken. <sup>24</sup>So <sup>e</sup>He drove out the man; and He placed <sup>f</sup>cherubim <sup>g</sup>at the east of the garden of Eden, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of <sup>h</sup>life.

are all sinners by nature because Adam sinned (Rom. 5:12–14). We inherit sin from Adam in our natures in the same way we inherit many of our physical characteristics from our parents. Sin is a universal part of our spiritual inheritance.

3:14–21 The Covenant with Adam—The Adamic covenant is the second covenant God made with man. It sets forth conditions that will be in effect until the curse of death is lifted (Is. 11:6–10; Rom. 8:18–23). In Christ’s death and resurrection we have the beginning (firstfruits) of the lifting of the curse. The ultimate lifting of the curse will happen as Christ establishes His final reign on earth.

3:14 to the serpent. The Lord turned first to the serpent and brought judgment upon him. God did not excuse the woman because she was deceived, but He did bring the harsher judgment on the one who had deceived her.

3:15 Christ—This passage is sometimes referred to as the “preaching of Messiah in the garden of Eden,” because it introduces the One who will deliver mankind from the power of the Tempter. The seed of the serpent, those of the human race who choose evil and thus give themselves into the control of the Evil One, would hate and destroy the Seed of the woman, who was Jesus Christ. But in that very act, Evil condemned itself. Jesus rose triumphant from the grave, having paid the blood atonement for the sin of the world and conquered death forever. Thus the Seed of woman crushed the head of the serpent.

3:16 your sorrow and your conception. The woman’s joy in conceiving and bearing children would be saddened by the pain of it. desire . . . rule. The word desire can also mean “an attempt to usurp authority or control” as in 4:7. The last two lines of this verse could be paraphrased, “You will now have a tendency to try to dominate your husband and he will have the tendency to act as a tyrant.” Each strives for control and neither lives in the best interest of the other (Phil. 2:3–4). The antidote is in the restoration of mutual respect and dignity through Jesus Christ (Eph. 5:21–23).

3:17–19 Cursed is the ground . . . In the sweat of your face. Humans sometimes tend to look upon work itself as a curse, but it is important to remember that work in itself is part of the “very good” creation. The curse on the ground simply means that work is now painful and tiresome toil instead of the pure satisfaction that it was designed to be. to dust you shall return. The word of God was sure: God had stated that they would certainly die (2:17). Now they were served notice concerning the process of aging and decay that was already at work (5:5; 6:3).

3:22 tree of life. Adam and Eve apparently had free access to this tree before the fall, and by continuing to eat its fruit they would live forever. The penalty for sin was not instant death, but banishment from this tree and eventual death and decay. One day this tree will be planted anew and its fruit will be for the healing of the nations (Rev. 22:2).

Cain Murders Abel

4 Now Adam knew Eve his wife, and she conceived and bore Cain, and said, “I have acquired a man from the LORD.” <sup>2</sup>Then she bore again, this time his brother Abel. Now <sup>a</sup>Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground. <sup>3</sup>And in the process of time it came to pass that Cain brought an offering of the fruit <sup>b</sup>of the ground to the LORD. <sup>4</sup>Abel also brought of <sup>c</sup>the firstborn of his flock and of <sup>d</sup>their fat. And the LORD respected <sup>e</sup>Abel and his offering, <sup>5</sup>but He did not respect Cain and his offering. And Cain was very angry, and his countenance fell.

<sup>6</sup>So the LORD said to Cain, “Why are you angry? And why has your countenance fallen? <sup>7</sup>If you do well, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin lies at the door. And its desire is for you, but you should rule over it.”

He said, <sup>g</sup>“I do not know. Am I <sup>h</sup>my brother’s keeper?”

<sup>13</sup>And Cain said to the LORD, “My punishment is greater than I can bear! <sup>14</sup>Surely You have driven me out this day from the face of the ground; <sup>k</sup>I shall be <sup>l</sup>hidden from Your face; I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond on the earth, and it will happen that <sup>m</sup>anyone who finds me will kill me.”

The Family of Cain

<sup>19</sup>Then Lamech took for himself <sup>s</sup>two wives: the name of one was Adah, and the name of the second was Zillah. <sup>20</sup>And Adah bore Jabal. He was the father of those who dwell in tents and have livestock. <sup>21</sup>His brother’s name was Jubal. He was the father of all those who play the harp and flute. <sup>22</sup>And as for Zillah, she also bore Tubal-Cain, an instructor of every craftsman in bronze and iron. And the sister of Tubal-Cain was Naamah.

“Adah and Zillah, hear my voice;

Wives of Lamech, listen to my speech!

For I have killed a man for wounding me,

Even a young man for hurting me.

4:3 Cain brought an offering. Genesis does not explain how the practice of sacrificial worship began, but it is clear that Adam and Eve’s two sons understood the custom. Some people assume that Cain’s offering was unsuitable because it was not a blood offering, and blood is required for the forgiveness of sins (Heb. 9:22). But nothing in this chapter indicates that Cain and Abel were coming to God for forgiveness. Their sacrifices were acts of worship, and as such a bloodless offering was not necessarily inappropriate (see Lev. 6:14–23). Apparently the deficiency was in Cain’s heart, not in the actual offering. Abel’s offering was “more excellent” than Cain’s because of his faith in the Lord (Heb. 11:4).

4:8 killed him. The murder was stunning in its lack of precedent, its suddenness, and its finality. Jesus spoke of this ghastly event as a historical fact (Matt. 23:35).

4:17 Cain knew his wife. The identity of Cain’s wife has long been a source of puzzlement and argument to the readers and critics of the Book of Genesis. Some have postulated that God created other humans outside of the garden of Eden, but the Scriptures give no such indication, and in fact Adam refers to his wife as “the mother of all living” (3:20). It makes the most sense to assume that Cain married one of his sisters. While this idea seems repugnant to us today, it must be remembered that Adam and Eve’s children had a near perfect gene pool, and there would not have been any genetic complications with close intermarrying. God’s strict prohibition against siblings and other close relatives marrying did not come until much later (Lev. 18); even Abraham’s wife Sarah was his half sister. Enoch. The fact that Cain named a city after his son indicates the rapid and dramatic increase in population.

A New Son

<sup>25</sup>And Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son and <sup>a</sup>named him Seth, “For God has appointed another seed for me instead of Abel, whom Cain killed.” <sup>26</sup>And as for Seth, <sup>v</sup>to him also a son was born; and he named him Enosh.* Then men began <sup>w</sup>to call on the name of the LORD.

The Family of Adam

<sup>6</sup>Seth lived one hundred and five years, and begot Enosh. <sup>7</sup>After he begot <sup>j</sup>Enosh, Seth lived eight hundred and seven years, and had sons and daughters. <sup>8</sup>So all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years; and he died.

<sup>9</sup>Enosh lived ninety years, and begot Cainan.* <sup>10</sup>After he begot Cainan, Enosh lived eight hundred and fifteen years, and had sons and daughters. <sup>11</sup>So all the days of Enosh were nine hundred and five years; and he died.

<sup>12</sup>Cainan lived seventy years, and begot Mahalalel. <sup>13</sup>After he begot Mahalalel, Cainan lived eight hundred and forty years, and had sons and daughters. <sup>14</sup>So all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years; and he died.

and had sons and daughters. <sup>17</sup>So all the days of Mahalalel were eight hundred and ninety-five years; and he died.

The Wickedness and Judgment of Man

6 Now it came to pass, “when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and

4:25 Seth. While it is certain that Adam and Eve had other daughters, and possibly other sons as well, the death of righteous Abel and the banishment of their firstborn, Cain, had left them with no one to carry on their line for good and for the promise of the Messiah. Seth is specifically mentioned among Adam and Eve’s children because it would be through his descendants that the Messiah would come. His name is related to a Hebrew verb meaning “to place” or “to set” for he was appointed to take this special place in the plan of God.

4:26 men began to call on the name of the LORD. These words can hardly mean that only now did people begin to pray to God. Rather, the verb call means “to make proclamation.” That is, this is the beginning of preaching, of witnessing, and testifying in the name of the Lord (12:8).

5:3 one hundred and thirty years. The long lives of the people of the early chapters of Genesis have led to considerable speculation. One suggestion is that these ages were possible because of tremendously different climate and environmental conditions that were in effect before the flood.

5:5 and he died. God created humans for eternity; if Adam and Eve had not disobeyed, they would have lived forever. There is a profound sadness in Adam’s death, for it reminds us of Adam’s mortality—and hence our own.

5:21–24 for God took him. Only Enoch and Elijah were taken by God without experiencing death (2 Kin. 2:11). This was both a testimony of Enoch’s deep faith in God (Heb. 11:5–6) and a strong reminder at the beginning of biblical history that for God’s people, there is life in God’s presence after our physical bodies have died.

daughters were born to them, <sup>2</sup>that the sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they were beautiful; and they <sup>b</sup>took wives for themselves of all whom they chose.

Noah Pleases God

6:2 sons of God . . . daughters of men. This passage is very difficult to interpret. Some believe that the "sons of God" were the men of the righteous line of Seth, while the "daughters of men" were Cain's offspring. This does not account for the fact that their offspring were giants, men of extraordinary size and talents; it is also problematic in that it assumes that Cain's descendants were universally more sinful than Seth's descendants. Since Noah was the only descendant of Seth who was considered righteous, this is obviously not accurate. A second view is that the "sons of God" were angelic beings. The phrase "sons of God" is used elsewhere in Scripture to refer to angelic beings (Job 1:6), but it seems impossible since angels in heaven do not marry (Matt. 22:30). It may be, however, that these "sons of God" were some of the rebellious angels who had joined Satan (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6); they took on human form (as Satan was apparently able to take on the form of a snake), and out of perverted lust, seduced human women. The problem with this theory is that verse 4 says that these unions produced children. Nothing in the rest of Scripture would indicate that angels reproduce, or that a spirit being could mate with a human being. Nor is there any reference to half-man/half-spirit beings. Whichever view one settles on, it is clear that what happened here was corrupt and one of the reasons for the flood.

6:11 corrupt. The verb translated corrupt has the idea of being ruined, spoiled, or destroyed. Sinful people were bringing ruin to the world that belonged to the living God (Ps. 24:1).

6:11–13 Disobedience.—In the beginning, God pronounced His creative work good. But with the entrance of sin and decadence on the scene, the world became corrupt in His sight. It was not merely

The Ark Prepared

that some individuals or groups had corrupted their ways, but a matter of pervasive perversity. Because sin is repugnant to His holiness, God declared His purpose of destroying both mankind and the earth he had polluted. Defying God's will affects our environment as well as ourselves. Judgment for disobedience is only averted through repentance and fresh submission to God.

6:14 ark. The word ark simply means "box." The same word is used for the box in which the baby Moses was placed in the Nile (Ex. 2:3), and for the gold-covered chest which contained the stone tablets of the covenant (Ex. 25:10). We usually picture Noah's ark as a huge ship, with curved bow and stern, but it was very likely more like a large box. It was not designed for navigation, but simply to stay safely afloat.

6:15 cubits. A cubit was supposed to be the measurement of a man's forearm, from the tip of the bent elbow to the fingertips. This is naturally a somewhat imprecise measurement, but it is generally considered to equal about 18 inches. Hence the ark was about 450 feet long, 75 feet wide, and 45 feet high.

6:17 I Myself. The Hebrew text places significant emphasis on the personal role of God in the ensuing storm.

6:18–19 covenant. This is the first time the word covenant is used in the Bible. The details of this covenant shall go into the ark—you, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives with you. <sup>19</sup>And of every living thing of all flesh you shall bring <sup>b</sup>two of every sort into the ark, to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female. <sup>20</sup>Of the birds after their kind, of animals after their kind, and of every creeping thing of the earth after its kind, two of every kind <sup>c</sup>will come to you to keep them alive. <sup>21</sup>And you shall take for yourself of all food that is eaten, and you shall gather it to yourself; and it shall be food for you and for them."

The Great Flood

the earth. <sup>11i</sup>In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, on <sup>k</sup>that day all <sup>l</sup>the fountains of the great deep were broken up, and the <sup>m</sup>windows of heaven were opened. <sup>12n</sup>And the rain was on the earth forty days and forty nights.

were given after the flood (9:9). Here, in the midst of judgment, the Lord stooped down to meet the needs of His servant (Ps. 40:1; 113:6) and to enter into a binding oath with him.

7:9 they went into the ark to Noah. The gathering and cooperation of the animals must have been arranged by God. It appears that after Noah and his wife and sons entered the ark, the animals followed of their own accord.

7:11 fountains of the great deep . . . windows of heaven. Until this time, no rain had fallen on the earth, but it was watered by a mist (2:5–6). This description of the first rain portrays a thundering, catastrophic event, accompanied by violent upheaval of the earth's crust and geysers of water bursting from the depths. The violence and the amount of water involved are more than enough to account for many peculiarities of the earth's surface, such as the formation of the Grand Canyon. The flood also explains the enormous quantity of fossilized remains of plants, animals, and shellfish that are buried in layers of rock over the entire surface of the earth and even on the tops of mountains.

7:16 shut him in. The Lord who had drawn them now closed the door on them. That shut door was a symbol of closure, safety, and God's deliverance.

7:19 the high hills under the whole heaven were covered. This explicit declaration, accompanied by the assertion in verse 21 that every living thing died, makes it clear that this was no localized event, but in actuality a worldwide catastrophic flood (see 8:5). Jesus affirmed the historicity of the "days of Noah" when he compared them to the end days (Matt. 24:37–38; Luke 17:26–27). Peter similarly used the story of Noah and the flood as a pattern for the final judgment (1 Pet. 3:20; 2 Pet. 2:5; 3:5–6).

Noah's Deliverance

8 Then God <sup>a</sup>remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the animals that were with him in the ark. <sup>b</sup>And God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters subsided. <sup>2c</sup>The fountains of the deep and the windows of heaven were also <sup>d</sup>stopped, and <sup>e</sup>the rain from heaven was restrained. <sup>3</sup>And the waters receded continually from the earth. At the end <sup>f</sup>of the hundred and fifty days the waters decreased. <sup>4</sup>Then the ark rested in the seventh month, the seventeenth day of the month, on the mountains of Ararat. <sup>5</sup>And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains were seen.

<sup>6</sup>So it came to pass, at the end of forty days, that Noah <sup>g</sup>opened the window of the ark which he had made. <sup>7</sup>Then he sent out a raven, which kept going to and fro until the waters had dried up from the earth. <sup>8</sup>He also sent out from himself a dove, to see if the waters had receded from the face of the ground. <sup>9</sup>But the dove found no resting place for the sole of her foot, and she returned into the ark to him, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth. So he put out his hand and took her, and drew her into the ark to himself. <sup>10</sup>And he waited yet another seven days, and again he sent the dove out from the ark. <sup>11</sup>Then the dove came to him in the evening, and behold, a freshly plucked olive leaf was in her mouth; and Noah knew that the waters had receded from the earth. <sup>12</sup>So he waited yet another seven days and sent out the dove, which did not return again to him anymore.

<sup>13</sup>And it came to pass in the six hundred and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, that the waters were dried up from the earth; and Noah removed the covering of the ark and looked, and indeed the surface of the ground was dry. <sup>14</sup>And in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dried.

God's Covenant with Creation

Seedtime and harvest,
Cold and heat,
Winter and summer,
And <sup>r</sup>day and night
Shall not cease.”

9 So God blessed Noah and his sons, and said to them: <sup>a</sup>“Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth.* <sup>2b</sup>And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be on every beast of the earth, on every bird of the air, on all that move on the earth, and on all the fish of the sea. They are given into your hand. <sup>3c</sup>Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you. I have given you <sup>d</sup>all

*9:1 Compare Genesis 1:28

8:14 the earth was dried. After more than a full year, the waters had returned to their place (7:11). As in the beginning, God brought the waters of earth into their place (1:9–13). The flood began in Noah’s 600th year, in the 2nd month, on day 17 (7:11) and ended in Noah’s 601st year, in the 2nd month, on day 27 (8:14).

8:20 an altar. This is the first mention of sacrificial worship since the days of Cain and Abel (4:3–5); yet we may assume that the principle of sacrificial worship was perpetuated through the line of faithful people (ch. 5).

8:22 While the earth remains. The words of this verse are a poem of powerful effect. These words might easily have become a song of faith, the response of the people of God to the promise He made (v. 21). Later in Israel’s history, the prophets recalled God’s great promise to Noah (Is. 54:9–10).

9:1–19 God’s Promise to Noah—Only when we think of God as Creator, as well as Redeemer, can we begin to understand His covenant of redemption as being related to the covenant of creation (Gen. 1:26–30; 2:15–17). God doesn’t abandon His creation. On the contrary, though evil has corrupted it, He graciously (for it is undeserved) establishes a covenantal relationship with Noah’s descendants as well as with every beast of the earth. This note of universality is given further expression by Hosea (2:18) and Jonah (4:11). When Paul encourages Roman believers about struggles in this life, he reminds them that they are not alone, but assures them that the whole creation also groans and suffers, eagerly anticipating that final

By man his blood shall be shed;

He made man.
<sup>7</sup> And as for you, <sup>1</sup>be fruitful and
Bring forth abundantly in the earth
And multiply in it."

<sup>8</sup>Then God spoke to Noah and to his sons with him, saying: <sup>9</sup>"And as for Me, <sup>m</sup>behold, I establish <sup>n</sup>My covenant with you and with your descendants* after you, <sup>10</sup>and with every living creature that is with you: the birds, the cattle, and every beast of the earth with you, of all that go out of the ark, every beast of the earth. <sup>11</sup>Thus <sup>1</sup>I establish My covenant with you: Never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of the flood; never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth."

<sup>12</sup>And God said: <sup>q</sup>"This is the sign of the covenant which I make between Me and you, and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations: <sup>13</sup>I set <sup>r</sup>My rainbow in the cloud, and it shall be for the sign of the covenant between Me and the earth. <sup>14</sup>It shall be, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the rainbow shall be seen in the cloud; <sup>15</sup>and <sup>s</sup>I will remember My covenant which is between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh; the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh. <sup>16</sup>The rainbow shall be in the cloud, and I will look on it to remember <sup>t</sup>the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth." <sup>17</sup>And God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant which I have established between Me and all flesh that is on the earth."

Noah and His Sons

He shall be to his brethren."

<sup>26</sup>And he said:

<sup>c</sup>"Blessed be the LORD,
The God of Shem,
And may Canaan be his servant.

- <sup>27</sup> May God <sup>d</sup>enlarge Japheth,

<sup>28</sup>And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years. <sup>29</sup>So all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years; and he died.

Nations Descended from Noah

10 Now this is the genealogy of the sons of Noah: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

* 9:9 Literally seed

redemption from the curse of sin. The promise given here is to never destroy the earth again by flood (v. 11). The rainbow is then a testimony of the existence of this promise.

9:4 blood. This restriction gets more attention in Leviticus (see Lev. 17:11–12). Blood represents the animal's life. It may be used in sacrifice, for all life belongs to the Lord.

9:6 image of God. Sin did not destroy man as the image of God. God values human life more highly than animal life because only humankind possesses God's image.

9:9 covenant. This is the second occurrence in Genesis of the important concept of covenant (6:18). God promised that He would establish His covenant with Noah and here He accomplished this great work.

9:26–27 Shem. Shem was given precedence over his brothers. Eber and Abram were descended from Shem (11:10–30), so Shem's blessing is ultimately a blessing on Israel.

9:29 and he died. Noah's death was the end of an era. Only he and his family spanned two worlds, that of the earth before and after the flood. His long life (950 years) gave him opportunity to transmit to his many descendants the dramatic story that he had lived out with his family. Peoples in places and cultures the world over have memories and stories of a great flood in antiquity. The details differ, but the stories remain.

The Tower of Babel

11 Now the whole earth had one language and one speech. <sup>2</sup>And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land <sup>u</sup>of Shinar, and they dwelt there. <sup>3</sup>Then they said to one another, "Come, let us make bricks and bake them thoroughly." They had brick for stone, and they had asphalt for mortar. <sup>4</sup>And they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower <sup>v</sup>whose top is in the heavens; let us make a <sup>w</sup>name for ourselves, lest we <sup>u</sup>be scattered abroad over the face of the whole earth."

<sup>5e</sup>But the LORD came down to see the

10:2 The sons of Japheth. The listing of Japheth's descendants is briefer than the others. Among the persons and peoples mentioned is Javan, an ancient name for the Greek people. It is thought that many of Japheth's descendants migrated to Europe.

10:6 The sons of Ham. Cush is the ancient name for Ethiopia; Mizraim is a name for Egypt.

10:7–11 Nimrod. Like Lamech the descendant of Cain, Nimrod's infamy was proverbial. His territory was in the lands of the east, the fabled ancient cities of Mesopotamia. The prophet Micah would later use the name Nimrod to describe the region of Assyria, which would come under God's judgment (Mic. 5:5–6).

10:21–24 Eber. This is the name that gives rise to the term Hebrew, which is first used of Abram in 14:13. Eber descended from Shem, the one of Noah's sons who was appointed to carry on the messianic line. Abram was a direct descendant of Eber.

10:32 the families of the sons of Noah. Although not every ancient people group is listed in this "Table of the Nations," its clear teaching is that all the varied peoples of the earth, no matter of what land or language, are descended from Noah.

11:2 the land of Shinar. This is the region of ancient Babylon in Mesopotamia (10:10).

11:4 Pride—God divided the human race into different language groups because they had refused to obey His command to fill the earth, and had become united for an evil purpose. This does not mean that God wants the world to remain divided. Christ came city and the tower which the sons of men had built. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD said, “Indeed <sup>a</sup>the people are one and they all have <sup>a</sup>one language, and this is what they begin to do; now nothing that they <sup>b</sup>propose to do will be withheld from them. <sup>7</sup>Come, <sup>c</sup>let Us go down and there <sup>c</sup>confuse their language, that they may not understand one another’s speech.” <sup>8</sup>So <sup>d</sup>the LORD scattered them abroad from there <sup>d</sup>over the face of all the earth, and they ceased building the city. <sup>9</sup>Therefore its name is called Babel, <sup>e</sup>because there the LORD confused the language of all the earth; and from there the LORD scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth.

Shem’s Descendants

two hundred and seven years, and begot sons and daughters.

Promises to Abram

12 Now the <sup>a</sup>LORD had said to Abram:

“Get <sup>b</sup>out of your country,
From your family
And from your father’s house,
To a land that I will show you.

to reconcile the world to God (2 Cor. 5:19), and when we are in Christ we are not only reconciled to God, but to one another (Eph. 2:11–19). The unity God destroyed by judgment at Babel was restored by grace on the Day of Pentecost. On that day people from different nations came together to hear the gospel in their own languages.

11:7 let Us go down. The plural “Us” in this passage is similar to the language of 1:26–28. The plural pronoun emphasizes the majesty of the speaker.

11:9 Babel. There is a pun in this name that no Hebrew reader would miss. The verb for confuse sounds similar to the name of the city. confused . . . scattered. Because of their pride and arrogance, God scattered the peoples of the earth and confused their language, but one day peoples of all languages and cultures will unite to celebrate the grace of God’s risen Son, lifting their voices together in praise of the Lamb (Rev. 5:8–14).

11:10–25 the genealogy. This genealogy shows that Abram was a descendant of Noah through Shem, just as Noah was a descendant of Adam through Seth. It is interesting to note that while the people mentioned in this genealogy lived to be very old, they did not reach the great ages of the peoples before the flood. Instead, their lives appear to be growing progressively shorter.

11:28 Ur of the Chaldeans. For generations, scholars have believed this to be the famous Ur located near the ancient delta in the Persian Gulf where the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers flow together. More recently, some scholars have noted the tablets at Ebla that speak of an Ur in the region of north Syria and suggest that this is the city of Haran’s death.

11:29 Sarai. The name Sarai means “princess,” implying a person of noble birth. Later we learn that Sarai was Abram’s half sister (20:12).

12:1 LORD. Even though the name Yahweh (translated LORD) is not explained until Exodus 3:14–15, it is used here to make it clear to the readers that this was the same God who later formed the nation of Israel, and who was the Creator (2:4).

12:1–3 God’s Covenant with Abram—The covenant with Abram is the first covenant that pertains to the rule of God. It is unconditional, and depends <sup>4</sup>So Abram departed as the LORD had spoken to him, and Lot went with him. And Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. <sup>5</sup>Then Abram took Sarai his wife and Lot his brother's son, and all their possessions that they had gathered, and <sup>i</sup>the people whom they had acquired in <sup>j</sup>Haran, and they <sup>k</sup>departed to go to the land of Canaan. So they came to the land of Canaan. <sup>6</sup>Abram <sup>l</sup>passed through the land to the place of Shechem, <sup>m</sup>as far as the terebinth tree of Moreh.* <sup>n</sup>And the Canaanites were then in the land.

<sup>7</sup>Then the LORD appeared to Abram and said, <sup>o</sup>"To your descendants I will give this land." And there he built an <sup>p</sup>altar to the LORD, who had appeared to him. <sup>8</sup>And he moved from there to the mountain east of Bethel, and he pitched his tent <sup>q</sup>with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; there he built an altar to the LORD and <sup>r</sup>called on the name of the LORD. <sup>9</sup>So Abram journeyed, <sup>s</sup>going on still toward the South.*

Abram in Egypt

<sup>10</sup>Now there was <sup>a</sup>a famine in the land, and Abram <sup>u</sup>went down to Egypt to dwell there, for the famine was <sup>v</sup>severe in the land. <sup>11</sup>And it came to pass, when he was close to entering Egypt, that he said to Sarai his wife, "Indeed I know that you <sup>w</sup>are <sup>x</sup>a woman of beautiful countenance. <sup>12</sup>Therefore it will happen, when the Egyptians see you, that they will say, 'This is his wife';

and they <sup>x</sup>will kill me, but they will let you live. <sup>13</sup>yPlease say you <sup>z</sup>are my <sup>z</sup>sister, that it may be well with me for your sake, and that I* may live because of you."

<sup>14</sup>So it was, when Abram came into Egypt, that the Egyptians saw the woman, that she was very beautiful. <sup>15</sup>The princes of Pharaoh also saw her and commended her to Pharaoh. And the woman was taken to Pharaoh's house. <sup>16</sup>He <sup>t</sup>"treated Abram well for her sake. He <sup>b</sup>had sheep, oxen, male donkeys, male and female servants, female donkeys, and camels.

<sup>17</sup>But the LORD <sup>u</sup>plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife. <sup>18</sup>And Pharaoh called Abram and said, <sup>d</sup>"What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife? <sup>19</sup>Why did you say, 'She is my sister'? I might have taken her as my wife. Now therefore, here is your wife; take <sup>her</sup> and go your way." <sup>20</sup>eSo Pharaoh commanded <sup>his</sup>men concerning him; and they sent him away, with his wife and all that he had.

Abram Inherits Canaan

13 Then Abram went up from Egypt, he and his wife and all that he had, and <sup>q</sup>Lot with him, <sup>b</sup>to the South.* <sup>2c</sup>Abram was very rich in livestock, in silver, and in gold. <sup>3</sup>And he went on his journey <sup>d</sup>from the South as far as Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai, <sup>4</sup>to the <sup>e</sup>place of the altar which he had made there at first. And there Abram <sup>f</sup>called on the name of the LORD.

only on God who obligates Himself in grace, indicated by the unconditional declaration, "I will." The Abrahamic covenant is also the basis of other covenants and it promises blessings in three areas: (1) national—"I will make you a great nation," (2) personal—"I will bless you and make your name great; and (3) universal—"in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed." The Abrahamic covenant is an important link in all that God began to do, has done throughout history, and will continue to do until the consummation of history. God blesses Abram and all his descendants through the Messiah, who is Abram's progeny and provides salvation for the entire world. 12:2–3 I will bless you. There are seven elements in God's promise to Abram. The number seven is often used in Scripture to suggest fullness and completeness. 12:7 To your descendants. The land of Canaan was a gift to the descendants of Abram. God owned the land (Ps. 24:1); it was His to do with as He pleased. The people of Canaan had lost their right to occupy the land due to their awful depravity (see 15:16). Thus God declared that this land would become the land of Israel (15:18–21; 17:6–8).

12:8 called on the name of the LORD. This was not a private prayer but a public proclamation. Abram was telling others about the Lord.

12:11 woman of beautiful countenance. Sarai's physical beauty was remarkable considering her age. She was ten years younger than Abram, or about 65 (12:4; 17:17).

12:13 my sister. Sarai was Abram's half sister, the daughter of his father but not of his mother (20:12).

12:17 the LORD plagued Pharaoh. This is the first example of the cursing and blessing element of God's promise (see 12:2–3).

flocks and herds and tents. <sup>6</sup>Now <sup>g</sup>the land was not able to support them, that they might dwell together, for their possessions were so great that they could not dwell together. <sup>7</sup>And there was <sup>h</sup>strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. <sup>1</sup>The Canaanites and the Perizzites then dwelt in the land.

Lot's Captivity and Rescue

13:7 The Canaanites and the Perizzites. As in 12:6, the point of this phrase is that the land was already populated; Abram and Lot did not come into an empty region but had to compete for land for their rapidly growing herds and flocks.

13:14–17 This section forms part of the set of texts that set the stage for the Abrahamic covenant (see the list at 15:1–21). This section builds on 12:1–3,7, the passage in which God first gave His great promise to Abram.

14:3 the Valley of Siddim. This valley is most likely submerged under the waters of the Dead Sea today.

14:14 three hundred and eighteen. The fact that Abram could find this many fighting men from among his own servants is an indication of the great wealth and honor that the Lord had given him (12:2–3).

them by night, and he and his servants <sup>a</sup>attacked them and pursued them as far as Hobah, which is north of Damascus. <sup>16</sup>So he <sup>b</sup>brought back all the goods, and also brought back his brother Lot and his goods, as well as the women and the people.

Abram and Melchizedek

Who has delivered your enemies into your hand."

And he <sup>j</sup>gave him a tithe of all.

<sup>21</sup>Now the king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the persons, and take the goods for yourself."

only what the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men who went with me: Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their portion."

God's Covenant with Abram

<sup>2e</sup>But Abram said, "Lord GOD, what will You give me, <sup>f</sup>seeing I go childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?" <sup>3</sup>Then Abram said, "Look, You have given me no offspring; indeed <sup>g</sup>one born in my house is my heir!"

14:18 Melchizedek. This name means "my king is righteous." Melchizedek was a contemporary of Abram who worshiped the living God. He is described as the "king of Salem," an older, shorter name for Jerusalem. The word is based on the root from which the word shalom (peace) comes. Melchizedek is a mysterious figure, apparently appearing from nowhere, and with no explanation of his family or background. He is a priest of God Most High, even though there is no indication that he is of Abram's family or even a descendant of Shem. The writer of Hebrews compares Melchizedek with another priest, the Lord Jesus Christ (see Heb. 5:9; Ps. 110:4).

14:20 blessed be God Most High. When we bless God, we acknowledge Him as the source of all our blessings (Ps. 103:1–2). tithe. This is the first mention of tithing in the Bible. Even though there is no record of tithing as a command until much later (Deut. 14:22), the concept of a tenth belonging to God was apparently known. Abram's gift indicates that he considered Melchizedek a true priest of the living God; in giving this gift Abram was giving to the Lord.

14:22 the LORD, God Most High. Abraham identified Yahweh, translated here as "the LORD," with the most high God for whom Melchizedek was priest. This is a clear statement that he and Melchizedek worshiped the same God.

15:1–21 This section is one of the texts that present the Abrahamic covenant (see 17:1–22; 18:1–15; 22:15–18; 26:23–24; 35:9–15; compare also 12:1–3,7; 13:14–17).

15:2 Eliezer of Damascus. This man had the honor of being Abram's heir because Abram and Sarai had no child of their own. Some have wondered if Eliezer is also the unnamed servant of Abraham who went on the quest for a wife for Isaac (24:2–5).

15:6 he believed. Almost ten years had passed since the original promises were given. As Abram grew older and still had no children, it was natural for him to wonder how the promises could be fulfilled. In answer to Abram's questions, God, who had revealed Himself in word, and who had faithfully protected him and sustained him, again pledged His word of promise. Abram believed and his faith was accounted to him as righteousness. Some have thought that in Old Testament times people were saved by their good deeds rather than by faith, but this idea is mistaken. Abram was not saved because of righteous living or obedience, but by believing in God and so being declared righteous by Him. The only valid work is the work of faith (John 6:28–29; James 2:2).

15:9 Bring Me. Abram prepared the sacrifice, but God enacted the sign (v. 17). This emphasizes the unilateral, unconditional nature of the covenant.

Hagar and Ishmael

now, the LORD <sup>e</sup>has restrained me from bearing children. Please, <sup>f</sup>go in to my maid; perhaps I shall obtain children by her.” And Abram <sup>g</sup>heeded the voice of Sarai.<sup>3</sup> Then Sarai, Abram’s wife, took Hagar her maid, the Egyptian, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife, after Abram <sup>h</sup>had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan.<sup>4</sup> So he went in to Hagar, and she conceived. And when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress became <sup>i</sup>despised in her eyes.

<sup>5</sup>Then Sarai said to Abram, “My wrong <sup>be</sup> upon you! I gave my maid into your embrace; and when she saw that she had conceived, I became despised in her eyes. <sup>j</sup>The LORD judge between you and me.”

She said, “I am fleeing from the presence of my mistress Sarai.”

You shall call his name Ishmael, Because the LORD has heard your affliction.

15:12 horror . . . darkness. These two words give great emphasis to the meaning “an overwhelmingly dark terror.” This kind of reaction to the indescribable holiness of the Lord (Is. 6:3; 40:25) is natural—Abram was about to experience the presence of the Almighty. This was a moment of profound dread and holy awe.

15:13 four hundred years. Moses wrote down the story of Abram’s life from the vantage point of the generation who fulfilled this prophecy (Ex. 12:40–42).

15:17 between those pieces. This last element has profound implications. In solemn agreements between equals (parity treaties), both parties would pass between the bloody pieces of slain animals and birds. The symbol would be evident to all: “May I become like this if I do not keep my part of the agreement.” But Abram was not to walk this grisly pathway. Only God made the journey in the symbols of smoke and fire. The fulfillment of the promise of God to Abram, the Abrahamic covenant, is as sure as the ongoing life of the Lord.

15:18 this land. God’s promise to Abram included his descendants and the Promised One, the Seed of Genesis 3:15. But the promise also included the land of Canaan. God removed the people of Israel from the land of Canaan several times, but He never revoked His everlasting promise (17:8). The promise will be fulfilled in its fullness when Jesus Christ returns (Is. 9:1–7). the river of Egypt. The “river of Egypt” may refer to the Nile, or it may be what is called today the Wadi el Arish, a smaller watercourse at the natural boundary of Egypt and the land of Israel. the River Euphrates. This is the northern arm of the Euphrates in Syria.

15:20 Rephaim. A people of unusually tall stature; they are called giants in 2 Samuel 21:15–22 (see Num. 13:33; Deut. 2:11; 3:11).

16:2 go in to my maid. This seems to have been an accepted practice in the ancient Middle East. If a woman was unable to bear children, she might use her servant as a surrogate mother, and adopt the child as her own.

16:11 Ishmael. The name Ishmael uses the divine name El, and means “God hears.”

The Sign of the Covenant

17 When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD <sup>a</sup>appeared to Abram and said to him, <sup>b</sup>"I am Almighty God; <sup>c</sup>walk before Me and be <sup>d</sup>blameless. <sup>2</sup> And I will make My <sup>e</sup>covenant between Me and you, and <sup>f</sup>will multiply you exceedingly." <sup>3</sup> Then Abram fell on his face, and God talked with him, saying: <sup>4</sup> "As for Me, behold, My covenant is with you, and you shall be a <sup>g</sup>father of many nations. <sup>5</sup> No longer shall <sup>h</sup>your name be called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; <sup>i</sup>for I have made you a father of many nations. <sup>6</sup> I will make you exceedingly fruitful; and I will make nations <sup>j</sup>of you, and <sup>k</sup>kings shall come from you. <sup>7</sup> And I will <sup>l</sup>establish My covenant between Me and you and your descendants after you in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, <sup>m</sup>to be God to you and <sup>n</sup>your descendants after you. <sup>8</sup> Also <sup>o</sup>I give to you and your descendants after you the land <sup>p</sup>in which you are a stranger, all the land of Canaan, as an everlasting possession; and <sup>q</sup>I will be their God."

<sup>9</sup> And God said to Abraham: "As for you, <sup>r</sup>you shall keep My covenant, you and your descendants after you throughout their generations. <sup>10</sup> This is My covenant which you shall keep, between Me and you and your descendants after you: <sup>s</sup>Every male child among you shall be circumcised; <sup>11</sup> and you shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskins, and it shall be <sup>t</sup>a sign of the covenant between Me and you. <sup>12</sup> He who is eight days old among you <sup>u</sup>shall be circumcised, every male child in your generations, he who is born in your house or bought with money from any foreigner who is not your descendant. <sup>13</sup> He who is born in your house and he who is bought with your money must be circumcised, and My covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant. <sup>14</sup> And the uncircumcised male child, who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that person <sup>v</sup>shall be cut off from his people; he has broken My covenant."

17:4 covenant. While the peoples who descended directly from Abram (the nation of Israel, the Midianites, Ishmaelites, and Edomites) were certainly numerous, Abram was "father of many" in a much broader sense yet. The message of the New Testament reveals that God's promise to Abram is to be fulfilled in the community of faith in every nation. The promise was so certain that his name was changed to Abraham, as an everlasting reminder of God's gracious covenant. Furthermore, the emphatic "as for Me" underscores the identity of the all-sufficient God who takes the initiative for establishing the covenantal relationship. This relationship is both spiritual and personal, anticipating the divine pledge, "and I will be their God." The wonder of it all is that we who believe in Jesus Christ are part of that "multitude of nations" who share in the faith of Abraham "who is the father of us all."

17:5 Abram . . . Abraham. This name change is significant. Abram means "exalted father," Abraham means "father of many"—a direct reflection of his new role.

17:8 the land . . . an everlasting possession. The promise clearly included the Israelite people and the land of Canaan. The two are linked in the language of the covenant in chapter 15. Even though God removed Israel more than once from the land, He promised them ultimate possession of Canaan.

17:13 circumcised. Circumcision in and of itself did not make people acceptable to God. It was meant as a tangible symbol of God's covenant in their lives, as an outward sign standing for the inward reality of a thorough commitment to God. In the New Testament, the apostle Paul speaks of having a "circumcised heart," pointing to the fact that a circumcised body means nothing if the heart is not in accord (Rom. 2:25–29).

17:15 Sarai . . . Sarah. Both names come from the same root, meaning "princess." No explanation is given for the change in Sarah's name, but like the name change from Abram to Abraham (vv. 4–5) the new name accompanied a new relationship with God.

“said to God, “Oh, that Ishmael might live before You!”

<sup>23</sup>So Abraham took Ishmael his son, all who were born in his house and all who were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham’s house, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskins that very same day, as God had said to him. <sup>24</sup>Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. <sup>25</sup>And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. <sup>26</sup>That very same day Abraham was circumcised, and his son Ishmael; <sup>27</sup>and <sup>j</sup>all the men of his house, born in the house or bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

The Son of Promise

18 Then the LORD appeared to him by the <sup>a</sup>terebinth trees of Mamre,* as he was sitting in the tent door in the heat of the day. <sup>2b</sup>So he lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, three men were standing by him; <sup>c</sup>and when he saw them, he ran from the tent door to meet them, and bowed himself to the ground, <sup>3</sup>and said, “My Lord, if I have now found favor in Your sight, do not pass on by Your servant. <sup>4</sup>Please let <sup>d</sup>a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree. <sup>5</sup>And <sup>e</sup>I will bring a morsel of bread, that <sup>f</sup>you may refresh your hearts. After that you may pass by, <sup>g</sup>inasmuch as you have come to your servant.”

They said, “Do as you have said.”

<sup>13</sup>And the LORD said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh, saying, ‘Shall I surely bear a child, since I am old?’ <sup>14</sup>Is anything too hard for the LORD? <sup>15</sup>At the appointed time I will return to you, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.”

And He said, “No, but you did laugh!”

Abraham Intercedes for Sodom

17:19 Isaac. The name Isaac means “laughter” (see 21:1–6).

18:1 the LORD appeared. This was the fifth time the Lord appeared to Abraham since he came into the land of Canaan (12:7; 13:14–17; 15:1–21; 17:1–22).

18:2–3 three men. Verse 1 states that the Lord appeared to Abraham, then the next verse refers to “three men.” It seems clear from verses 1, 13, and 17 that one of the three was the Lord Himself, and from 19:1 on the other two are referred to as angels. Apparently all three were in human form, and were able to eat the meal that Abraham had prepared. Many have speculated that this was an appearance of the preincarnate Christ.

18:19 For I have known him. Some translations say, “I have chosen him.” The language speaks of the intimate relationship which motivates the Lord to accomplish His purpose in Abraham (22:12).

him.” <sup>20</sup>And the LORD said, “Because <sup>w</sup>the outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their <sup>x</sup>sin is very grave, <sup>21</sup>I will go down now and see whether they have done altogether according to the outcry against it that has come to Me; and if not, <sup>22</sup>I will know.”

<sup>27</sup>Then Abraham answered and said, “Indeed now, I who am <sup>i</sup>but dust and ashes have taken it upon myself to speak to the Lord: <sup>28</sup>Suppose there were five less than the fifty righteous; would You destroy all of the city for lack of five?”

So He said, “If I find there forty-five, I will not destroy it.”

<sup>29</sup>And he spoke to Him yet again and said, “Suppose there should be forty found there?”

So He said, “I will not do it for the sake of forty.”

<sup>30</sup>Then he said, <sup>j</sup>“Let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak: Suppose thirty should be found there?”

So He said, “I will not do it if I find thirty there.”

<sup>31</sup>And he said, “Indeed now, I have taken it upon myself to speak to the Lord: Suppose twenty should be found there?”

So He said, “I will not destroy it for the sake of twenty.”

<sup>32</sup>Then he said, “Let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak but once more: Suppose ten should be found there?”

<sup>k</sup>And He said, “I will not destroy it for the sake of ten.” <sup>33</sup>So the LORD went His way as soon as He had finished speaking with Abraham; and Abraham returned to his place.

Sodom's Depravity

19 Now <sup>a</sup>the two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and <sup>b</sup>Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he rose to meet them, and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground. <sup>2</sup>And he said, “Here now, my lords, please <sup>c</sup>turn in to your servant’s house and spend the night, and <sup>d</sup>wash your feet; then you may rise early and go on your way.”

And they said, “No, but we will spend the night in the open square.”

<sup>5</sup>Now before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both old and young, all the people from every quarter, surrounded the house. <sup>6</sup>And they called to Lot and said to him, “Where are the men who came to you tonight? <sup>7</sup>Bring them out to us that we <sup>f</sup>may know them carnally.”

<sup>8</sup>So <sup>g</sup>Lot went out to them through the doorway, shut the door behind him, <sup>9</sup>and said, “Please, my brethren, do not do so wickedly! <sup>10</sup>See now, I have two daughters who have not known a man; please, let me bring them out to you, and you may do to them as you wish; only do nothing to these men, <sup>11</sup>since this is the reason they have come under the shadow of my roof.”

<sup>12</sup>And they said, “Stand back!” Then they said, “This one <sup>13</sup>came in to stay here, <sup>14</sup>and he keeps acting as a judge; now we will deal worse with you than with them.” So they pressed hard against the man Lot, and came near to break down the door. <sup>15</sup>But the men reached out their hands and pulled Lot into the house with them, and shut the door. <sup>16</sup>And they <sup>17</sup>struck the men who were at the doorway of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they became weary trying to find the door.

Sodom and Gomorrah Destroyed

<sup>12</sup>Then the men said to Lot, “Have you anyone else here? Son-in-law, your sons, your daughters, and whomever you have in the city—<sup>a</sup>take them out of this place! <sup>13</sup>For we will destroy this place, because the <sup>b</sup>outcry against them has grown great before the face of the LORD, and <sup>c</sup>the LORD has sent us to destroy it.”

do righteousness and justice. One idea in two words—“genuine righteousness.”

19:2 my lords. This is a greeting of respect for special visitors.

19:5 know them. This term usually refers to sexual relations between a man and a woman (4:1); here it is referring to homosexual activity, which God has declared is an abomination (Lev. 18:22).

<sup>21</sup>And he said to him, “See, <sup>e</sup>I have favored you concerning this thing also, in that I will not overthrow this city for which you have spoken. <sup>22</sup>Hurry, escape there. For <sup>f</sup>I cannot do anything until you arrive there.”

morning to the place where <sup>l</sup>he had stood before the LORD. <sup>28</sup>Then he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain; and he saw, and behold, <sup>m</sup>the smoke of the land which went up like the smoke of a furnace. <sup>29</sup>And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God <sup>n</sup>remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when He overthrew the cities in which Lot had dwelt.

The Descendants of Lot

<sup>30</sup>Then Lot went up out of Zoar and <sup>o</sup>dwelt in the mountains, and his two daughters were with him; for he was afraid to dwell in Zoar. And he and his two daughters dwelt in a cave. <sup>31</sup>Now the firstborn said to the younger, “Our father is old, and there is no man on the earth <sup>p</sup>to come in to us as is the custom of all the earth. <sup>32</sup>Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we <sup>q</sup>may preserve the lineage of our father.” <sup>33</sup>So they made their father drink wine that night. And the firstborn went in and lay with her father, and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose.

<sup>34</sup>It happened on the next day that the firstborn said to the younger, “Indeed I lay with my father last night; let us make him drink wine tonight also, and you go in and lie with him, that we may preserve the lineage of our father.” <sup>35</sup>Then they made their father drink wine that night also. And the younger arose and lay with him, and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose.

19:16 the LORD being merciful to him. This is the whole point of the story. God could have destroyed the city of Sodom with no word to Lot or Abraham (18:17). But because of His mercy, God’s angels grabbed Lot and his family and brought them forcibly to safety. In this passage, Lot appears weak, indecisive, and unsure of whether he really wants to be rescued. However, the New Testament speaks a good word for Lot’s character, calling him a “righteous man” and telling us that he was grieved by the sin he saw in Sodom and Gomorrah (2 Pet. 2:6–8).

19:23–26 brimstone and fire. This may be simply a supernatural judgment on the cities, but some have also theorized that the fire and brimstone which “rained” down on them may have been from a volcanic eruption. In any case, it is clear that the destruction was a judgment from God, and that it was under His control.

19:26 pillar of salt. Near the Dead Sea, which is believed to now cover the site of Sodom and Gomorrah, there are numerous rock salt formations, including pillars about the size of a human. Jesus referred to the fate of Lot’s wife as a historical fact (Luke 17:32).

19:36–38 Moab . . . Ben-Ammi. The shameful act of incest led to the births of two sons whose descendants (the Moabites and the Ammonites) would greatly trouble Israel.

Abraham and Abimelech

<sup>4</sup>But Abimelech had not come near her; and he said, “Lord, <sup>j</sup>will you slay a righteous nation also? <sup>k</sup>Did he not say to me, ‘She is my sister’? And she, even she herself said, ‘He is my brother.’ <sup>l</sup>In the integrity of my heart and innocence of my hands I have done this.”

<sup>8</sup>So Abimelech rose early in the morning, called all his servants, and told all these things in their hearing; and the men were very much afraid. <sup>9</sup>And Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, “What have you done to us? How have I offended you, <sup>s</sup>that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done deeds to me <sup>t</sup>that ought not to be done.” <sup>10</sup>Then Abimelech said to Abraham, “What did you have in view, that you have done this thing?”

father’s house, that I said to her, ‘This is your kindness that you should do for me: in every place, wherever we go, <sup>aa</sup>say of me, ‘He is my brother.’”

Isaac Is Born

Hagar and Ishmael Depart

<sup>9</sup>So the child grew and was weaned. And Abraham made a great feast on the same day that Isaac was weaned.

20:2 She is my sister. The complete truth told in such a way as to deceive or mislead is still a falsehood. Abraham’s words were true: “She is my sister,” but the message he intended to convey was false: “She is not married to me.” His intent was deceit and the consequences he reaped were the same as if he had directly lied. A man speaks the real truth when he speaks the truth in his heart (Ps. 15:2).

20:3 God came . . . in a dream. Presumably, Abimelech was a pagan king. Yet God warned him of the wrong he was about to commit. This is another instance of the protective care that the Lord gives His people (31:24; Num. 22:12–20).

20:12 indeed she is truly my sister. Later the law would prohibit the marriage of people so closely related, but in the early years of the earth it was apparently acceptable for half siblings to marry (see note at 4:17).

21:1 And the LORD visited Sarah as He had said. The Bible stresses that the Lord causes conceptions; that children are a gift of the Lord (Ps. 127:3). The verb visit is an extraordinary choice here, indicating that the Lord entered directly into the affairs of His people.

21:3 Isaac. Isaac means “He (God) is laughing (now).” At one time Abraham and Sarah had both laughed at the improbability of having a son in their old age

Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, <sup>m</sup>scolding. <sup>10</sup>Therefore she said to Abraham, <sup>n</sup>“Cast out this bondwoman and her son; for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, namely with Isaac.” <sup>11</sup>And the matter was very displeasing in Abraham’s sight <sup>o</sup>because of his son.

A Covenant with Abimelech

of his army, spoke to Abraham, saying, <sup>a</sup>“God is with you in all that you do. <sup>23</sup>Now therefore, <sup>b</sup>swear to me by God that you will not deal falsely with me, with my offspring, or with my posterity; but that according to the kindness that I have done to you, you will do to me and to the land in which you have dwelt.”

Abraham’s Faith Confirmed

22 Now it came to pass after these things that <sup>k</sup>God tested Abraham, and said to him, “Abraham!”

And he said, “Here I am.”

(17:17; 18:12); now with the birth of the promised child their laughter took on a happier meaning.

21:12 listen to her voice. As painful as the situation was, God confirmed that Sarah was right that Ishmael would have to leave. Only Isaac was the child of promise, the one through whom the covenant would be fulfilled. This complicated situation was part of the price Abraham had to pay for trying to bring about God’s promises in his own time. Nevertheless, God is merciful and He did not abandon Hagar and Ishmael.

21:17 God heard. What wonderful words these are! There is no pain of His people that He does not see or hear about (Is. 40:27–28; Heb. 2:10,18; 4:15). Even though Ishmael was not the son of promise, God still had His hand on his life.

21:23 kindness. This exceedingly important term, sometimes translated loyal love or lovingkindness is often used in the Psalms to describe God’s character. Here we see its proper context in a binding relationship. The term basically describes covenant loyalty (24:12).

21:27 covenant. This is a binding agreement between two equals, similar to today’s business contracts.

21:28–31 seven ewe lambs . . . Beersheba. The Hebrew number seven is similar in sound to the verb meaning “to swear” (v. 24). Thus Beersheba would be the well where they swore and the well of the seven ewe lambs.

21:34 the land of the Philistines. The name Palestine comes from the word for Philistine.

<sup>3</sup>So Abraham rose early in the morning and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son; and he split the wood for the burnt offering, and arose and went to the place of which God had told him. <sup>4</sup>Then on the third day Abraham lifted his eyes and saw the place afar off. <sup>5</sup>And Abraham said to his young men, “Stay here with the donkey; the lad* and I will go yonder and worship, and we will <sup>f</sup>come back to you.”

<sup>6</sup>So Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and <sup>g</sup>laid it on Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife, and the two of them went together. <sup>7</sup>But Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, “My father!”

And he said, “Here I am, my son.”

Then he said, “Look, the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?”

<sup>8</sup>And Abraham said, “My son, God will provide for Himself the <sup>h</sup>lamb for a <sup>i</sup>burnt offering.” So the two of them went together.

<sup>9</sup>Then they came to the place of which God had told him. And Abraham built an altar there and placed the wood in order; and he bound Isaac his son and <sup>j</sup>laid him on the altar, upon the wood. <sup>10</sup>And Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slay his son.

<sup>11</sup>But the <sup>k</sup>Angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said, “Abraham, Abraham!”

So he said, “Here I am.”

<sup>12</sup>And He said, <sup>l</sup>“Do not lay your hand on the lad, or do anything to him; for <sup>m</sup>now I know that you fear God, since you have not <sup>n</sup>withheld your son, your only son, from Me.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Abraham lifted his eyes and looked, and there behind him was a ram caught in a thicket by its horns. So Abraham went and took the ram, and offered it up for a burnt offering instead of his son.

<sup>14</sup>And Abraham called the name of the place, The-LORD-Will-Provide;* as it is said to this day, “In the Mount of the LORD it shall be provided.”

The Family of Nahor

22:5 worship, and . . . come back to you. Abraham’s comment to his servants is a significant avowal of his faith in God. Even though he was going to sacrifice his son, he was confident that they both would return.

22:8 God will provide. Abraham’s faith in God’s promise is shown in his response to a very real and terrible test. Many times this is seen as a test of the quality of Abraham’s love for God—who would he choose, God or his son? However, there is no sign that Abraham made this mistake. He knew beyond a shadow of doubt that Isaac was given to him directly by God, the son of promise. Therefore it was right that he should love his son of promise as a gift from God. God’s covenant said that a great nation would descend from Isaac, therefore it would be so. Abraham’s test was not “whom do you love most?” but “do you really believe Me?” The answer was a resounding, “Yes!” Abraham carried his faith to the knife edge on his son’s flesh. God had promised, and it would be so, even if Isaac had to be raised from the dead to make His words come to pass (Heb. 11:17–19).

22:9 bound Isaac his son. Surely Isaac could have struggled or run away at this point, but there is no evidence that he did so. Apparently Isaac’s faith and trust both in God and in his father was sufficient to stand the test.

22:14 The-LORD-Will-Provide. As God provided a ram to take the place of Abraham’s son, so one day He would provide His own Son to take our place. Some believe that Mount Moriah later became part of the city of Jerusalem, and was the site of Solomon’s temple.

22:17 bless . . . multiply. In the Hebrew, this is stated by doubling the verbs, a Hebrew idiom that powerfully emphasizes the certainty of the action.

22:18 seed. Here this is a grand play on words. The seed was Isaac, and by extension the Jewish nation.

Sarah's Death and Burial

23 Sarah lived one hundred and twenty-seven years; these were the years of the life of Sarah. <sup>2</sup>So Sarah died in <sup>a</sup>Kirjath Arba (that is, <sup>b</sup>Hebron) in the land of Canaan, and Abraham came to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.

<sup>3</sup>Then Abraham stood up from before his dead, and spoke to the sons of <sup>c</sup>Heth, saying, <sup>4d</sup>"I am a foreigner and a visitor among you. <sup>e</sup>Give me property for a burial place among you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight."

<sup>5</sup>And the sons of Heth answered Abraham, saying to him, <sup>6</sup>"Hear us, my lord: You are a mighty prince among us; bury your dead in the choicest of our burial places. None of us will withhold from you his burial place, that you may bury your dead."

<sup>7</sup>Then Abraham stood up and bowed himself to the people of the land, the sons of Heth. <sup>8</sup>And he spoke with them, saying, "If it is your wish that I bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and meet with Ephron the son of Zohar for me, <sup>9</sup>that he may give me the cave of <sup>a</sup>Machpelah which he has, which is at the end of his field. Let him give it to me at the full price, as property for a burial place among you."

<sup>12</sup>Then Abraham bowed himself down before the people of the land; <sup>13</sup>and he spoke to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, saying, "If you will give it, please hear me. I will give you money for the field; take it from me and I will bury my dead there."

<sup>14</sup>And Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him, <sup>15</sup>"My lord, listen to me; the land is worth four hundred <sup>j</sup>shekels of silver. What is that between you and me? So bury your dead." <sup>16</sup>And Abraham listened to Ephron; and Abraham <sup>k</sup>weighed out the silver for Ephron which he had named in the hearing of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, currency of the merchants.

<sup>17</sup>So <sup>l</sup>the field of Ephron which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field and the cave which was in it, and all the trees that were in the field, which were within all the surrounding borders, were deeded <sup>18</sup>to Abraham as a possession in the presence of the sons of Heth, before all who went in at the gate of his city.

<sup>19</sup>And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah, before Mamre (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan. <sup>20</sup>So the field and the cave that is in it <sup>m</sup>were deeded to Abraham by the sons of Heth as property for a burial place.

A Bride for Isaac

<sup>5</sup>And the servant said to him, "Perhaps the woman will not be willing to follow me to this land. Must I take your son back to the land from which you came?"

<sup>6</sup>But Abraham said to him, "Beware that you do not take my son back there. <sup>7</sup>The LORD God of heaven, who <sup>i</sup>took me from my father's house and from the land of my family, and who spoke to me and swore to me, saying, <sup>k</sup>'To your descendants' I give this land,' <sup>l</sup>He will send His angel before you, and you shall take a wife for my

Specifically the Seed was one descendant of Abraham, Jesus the Messiah.

23:13 I will give you money for the field. Abraham would not have been offering "money" as we think of it today; minted coins were not invented until at least 650 B.C. Instead, trading was done by barter, or with precious metals by weight.

23:15 What is that between you and me? The dialogue in this chapter gives a wonderfully detailed example of the bargaining process of the day. Abraham clearly understood Ephron's generous statement as a politely phrased way of setting his price.

23:20 Field . . . cave . . . were deeded to Abraham. It is interesting to note that the only piece of the Promised Land that Abraham ever personally possessed was this field and cave to bury his wife.

24:2 the oldest servant. Some have thought that this might be Eliezer of Damascus, the one who had been named as Abraham's heir before the births of Ishmael and Isaac.

24:3 the daughters of the Canaanites. This was not an issue of racism, as is sometimes thought—it was theological. The Canaanite peoples worshiped the false gods Baal and Asherah (Deut. 7:3).

son from there. <sup>8</sup>And if the woman is not willing to follow you, then <sup>m</sup>you will be released from this oath; only do not take my son back there.” <sup>9</sup>So the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and swore to him concerning this matter.

<sup>18</sup>So she said, “Drink, my lord.” Then she quickly let her pitcher down to her hand, and gave him a drink. <sup>19</sup>And when she had finished giving him a drink, she said, “I will draw water for your camels also, until they have finished drinking.” <sup>20</sup>Then she quickly emptied her pitcher into the trough, ran back to the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels. <sup>21</sup>And the man, wondering at her, remained silent so as to know whether <sup>a</sup>the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not.

<sup>b</sup>nose ring weighing half a shekel, and two bracelets for her wrists weighing ten shekels of gold, <sup>23</sup>and said, “Whose daughter are you? Tell me, please, is there room in your father’s house for us to lodge?”

24:12 O LORD God of my master Abraham. This language does not mean that the servant himself did not believe in God. The servant was making his appeal on the basis of God’s covenant loyalty to Abraham.

24:15 Providence—Abraham sent his servant to choose Isaac’s bride, confident that his servant would be led by the Lord and that in God’s providence he would make the right choice. The servant prayed for very specific guidance, and God sent him Rebekah. He was impressed not only with her physical beauty, but also with her kind, generous, and hospitable character. His decision was confirmed when her parents gave their consent and she agreed to return with him. Today we must remember to seek the Lord’s guidance and trust in His providence just as Abraham’s servant, Rebekah, and her family did.

<sup>39</sup>rAnd I said to my master, 'Perhaps the woman will not follow me.' <sup>40</sup>sBut he said to me, 'The LORD, 'before whom I walk, will send His angel with you and prosper your way; and you shall take a wife for my son from my family and from my father's house. <sup>41</sup>uYou will be clear from this oath when you arrive among my family; for if they will not give her to you, then you will be released from my oath.'

<sup>42</sup>vAnd this day I came to the well and said, 'O LORD God of my master Abraham, if You will now prosper the way in which I go, <sup>43</sup>wbehold, I stand by the well of water; and it shall come to pass that when the virgin comes out to draw water, and I say to her, 'Please give me a little water from your pitcher to drink,' <sup>44</sup>xand she says to me, 'Drink, and I will draw for your camels also,'—let her be the woman whom the LORD has appointed for my master's son.'

<sup>45</sup>y'But before I had finished <sup>z</sup>speaking in my heart, there was Rebekah, coming out with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down to the well and drew water. And I said to her, 'Please let me drink.' <sup>46</sup>And she made haste and let her pitcher down from her shoulder, and said, 'Drink, and I will give your camels a drink also.' So I drank, and she gave the camels a drink also. <sup>47</sup>Then I asked her, and said, 'Whose daughter are you?' And she said, 'The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcham bore to him.' So I put the nose ring on her nose and the bracelets on her wrists. <sup>48</sup>zAnd I bowed my head and worshiped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, who had led me in the way of truth to <sup>aa</sup>take the daughter of my master's brother for his son. <sup>49</sup>Now if you will <sup>b</sup>deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me. And if not, tell me, that I may turn to the right hand or to the left.'

earth. <sup>53</sup>Then the servant brought out <sup>i</sup>jewelry of silver, jewelry of gold, and clothing, and gave them to Rebekah. He also gave <sup>j</sup>precious things to her brother and to her mother.

<sup>54</sup>And he and the men who were with him ate and drank and stayed all night. Then they arose in the morning, and he said, 'Send me away to my master.'

<sup>56</sup>And he said to them, 'Do not hinder me, since the LORD has prospered my way; send me away so that I may go to my master.'

<sup>57</sup>So they said, 'We will call the young woman and ask her personally.' <sup>58</sup>Then they called Rebekah and said to her, 'Will you go with this man?'

And she said, 'I will go.'

'Our sister, may you become

The servant said, 'It is my master.' So she took a veil and covered herself.

24:50 The thing comes from the LORD. It appears that the family of Bethuel and Laban also worshiped the living God, or at least acknowledged Him along with other gods (see 31:19; Josh. 24:2).

24:60 they blessed Rebekah. These words are not mere sentiment, nor are they a magical charm, but a prayer for God's blessing on her life. gates. The possession of the gates of one's enemies meant power over them (22:17).

24:67 he loved her. The love of Isaac for Rebekah is a wonderful fulfillment and illustration of God's original purpose for marriage. Realizing it was not good for man to be alone (2:18), the Creator graciously created Eve, a helper for Adam. God Himself then performed history's first wedding. Isaac and Rebekah serve not only as a lovely example of godly marriage, but also as a beautiful picture of the love between Christ and the church in the New

Abraham and Keturah

Abraham's Death and Burial

The Families of Ishmael and Isaac

Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. <sup>16</sup>These were the sons of Ishmael and these were their names, by their towns and their settlements, <sup>o</sup>twelve princes according to their nations. <sup>17</sup>These were the years of the life of Ishmael: one hundred and thirty-seven years; and <sup>p</sup>he breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people. <sup>18a</sup>(They dwelt from Havilah as far as Shur, which is east of Egypt as you go toward Assyria.) He died <sup>q</sup>in the presence of all his brethren.

Two peoples shall be separated from your body;
One people shall be stronger than <sup>a</sup>the other,

Testament. Rebekah, like the church, loved her bridegroom without first seeing him (compare Gen. 24:58 with 1 Pet. 1:8). Like the church, Rebekah was prayed for by her bridegroom (Gen. 24:63; Rom. 8:34). Isaac, having previously been presented for offering on Mount Moriah (Gen. 22:1–14), was content to await the arrival of his bride. He was an early portrayal of the Son of God who now awaits the arrival of His bride in heaven (Heb. 10:12–14).

25:1 took a wife. In 1 Chronicles 1:32, Keturah is described as Abraham's concubine. It is not really known exactly what position she had in Abraham's household, or when the relationship began. Her sons had a status similar to that of Ishmael, Abraham's son by Hagar (ch. 16), but without Ishmael's particular blessing (16:10–16).

25:2 Midian. This son was the father of the Midianites, some of whom later bought Joseph from his brothers (37:28,36).

25:11 God blessed. God blessed Isaac because He had already established "an everlasting covenant" with him (17:19; Heb. 11:17). Later God renewed the covenant with Isaac personally (26:2–5).

25:21 pleaded. The Hebrew verb here indicates that Isaac prayed passionately for his wife. For examples of passionate prayer, see Ex. 8:30; 2 Sam. 21:14; 24:25. 25:25 Esau. This name sounds like the Hebrew word that means "hairy."

25:26 Jacob. The Hebrew word that means "heel" sounds similar to the name Jacob. The name may mean either "he who grasps at the heel (of another)" or "He (the Lord) is at his heels (is his protector)."

Esau Sells His Birthright

<sup>29</sup>Now Jacob cooked a stew; and Esau came in from the field, and he was weary. <sup>30</sup>And Esau said to Jacob, "Please feed me with that same red stew, for I am weary." Therefore his name was called Edom.*

<sup>31</sup>But Jacob said, "Sell me your birthright as of this day."

So he swore to him, and <sup>l</sup>sold his birthright to Jacob. <sup>34</sup>And Jacob gave Esau bread and stew of lentils; then <sup>m</sup>he ate and drank, arose, and went his way. Thus Esau <sup>n</sup>despised his birthright.

Isaac and Abimelech

26 There was a famine in the land, besides <sup>a</sup>the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to <sup>b</sup>Abimelech king of the Philistines, in Gerar.

had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked through a window, and saw, and there was Isaac, showing endearment to Rebekah his wife. <sup>9</sup>Then Abimelech called Isaac and said, "Quite obviously she is your wife; so how could you say, 'She is my sister'?"

Isaac said to him, "Because I said, 'Lest I die on account of her.'"

25:30 Edom. This name means "red." The nickname is here connected to the red stew for which he traded his birthright; many have speculated that Esau may have had ruddy skin, or even red hair since the name stuck and even became the name of his land and the nation of his descendants (36:8).

26:1 Philistines. The Philistines are thought to have come to the coastland of Canaan following their defeat by the Egyptians around 1200 B.C. The Egyptians called them the "Sea Peoples"; they were apparently Greek peoples who migrated eastward (see 1 Sam. 4:1; 2 Sam. 5:17).

26:3 bless you. The Lord fulfilled His promise to Abraham concerning Isaac (17:19). He established His everlasting covenant with Isaac, just as He had with Abraham.

26:7 sister. Rebekah was Isaac's close relative, but she was not his sister (she was his first cousin once removed). Isaac was even more deceitful than his father Abraham (20:2,12).

26:12–13 blessed. God's special work for Abraham was extended to the son.

its name Sitnah.* <sup>22</sup>And he moved from there and dug another well, and they did not quarrel over it. So he called its name Rehoboth,* because he said, “For now the LORD has made room for us, and we shall <sup>23</sup>be fruitful in the land.”

<sup>23</sup>Then he went up from there to Beersheba. <sup>24</sup>And the LORD <sup>a</sup>appeared to him the same night and said, <sup>b</sup>“I am the God of your father Abraham; <sup>c</sup>do not fear, for <sup>d</sup>I am with you. I will bless you and multiply your descendants for My servant Abraham’s sake.” <sup>25</sup>So he <sup>e</sup>built an altar there and <sup>f</sup>called on the name of the LORD, and he pitched his tent there; and there Isaac’s servants dug a well.

<sup>28</sup>But they said, “We have certainly seen that the LORD <sup>j</sup>is with you. So we said, ‘Let there now be an oath between us, between you and us; and let us make a covenant with you, <sup>29</sup>that you will do us no harm, since we have not touched you, and since we have done nothing to you but good and have sent you away in peace. <sup>k</sup>You are now the blessed of the LORD.”

<sup>30</sup>So he made them a feast, and they ate and drank. <sup>31</sup>Then they arose early in the morning and <sup>m</sup>swore an oath with one another; and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.

<sup>32</sup>It came to pass the same day that Isaac’s servants came and told him about the well which they had dug, and said to him, “We have found water.” <sup>33</sup>So he called it Shebah.* <sup>n</sup>Therefore the name of the city is Beersheba* to this day.

Isaac Blesses Jacob

27 Now it came to pass, when Isaac was <sup>a</sup>old and <sup>b</sup>his eyes were so dim that he could not see, that he called Esau his older son and said to him, “My son.”

And he answered him, “Here I am.”

<sup>2</sup>Then he said, “Behold now, I am old. I <sup>c</sup>do not know the day of my death. <sup>3a</sup>Now therefore, please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field and hunt game for me. <sup>4</sup>And make me savory food, such as I love, and bring it to me that I may eat, that my soul <sup>e</sup>may bless you before I die.”

<sup>5</sup>Now Rebekah was listening when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt game and to bring it. <sup>6</sup>So Rebekah spoke to Jacob her son, saying, “Indeed I heard your father speak to Esau your brother, saying, <sup>7</sup>‘Bring me game and make savory food for me, that I may eat it and bless you in the presence of the LORD before my death.’ <sup>8</sup>Now therefore, my son, <sup>i</sup>obey my voice according to what I command you. <sup>9</sup>Go now to the flock and bring me from there two choice kids of the goats, and I will make <sup>g</sup>savory food from them for your father, such as he loves. <sup>10</sup>Then you shall take it to your father, that he may eat it, and that he <sup>h</sup>may bless you before his death.”

26:25 called on the name of the LORD. Isaac followed the practice of his father (12:8). At this altar Isaac not only prayed to the Lord, he also affirmed the reality of the living God in this special land (12:8; 21:33).

26:34 Hittite. Because the Hittites believed in many different gods, Esau’s marriages were unacceptable for one belonging to God’s covenant family.

27:4 my soul. This phrase is simply a substitute for the personal pronoun “I.”

27:8 obey my voice . . . what I command you. Rebekah certainly appears calculating and devious in this passage, but God had told her before they were even born that the younger son would have precedence over the older (25:23). He had not, however, told her to make sure that it happened, and the results of her deception were family strife and the loss of her younger son.

And he said, “Here I am. Who are you, my son?”

<sup>19</sup>Jacob said to his father, “I am Esau your firstborn; I have done just as you told me; please arise, sit and eat of my game, <sup>a</sup>that your soul may bless me.”

<sup>20</sup>But Isaac said to his son, “How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son?”

And he said, “Because the LORD your God brought it to me.”

<sup>21</sup>Isaac said to Jacob, “Please come near, that I <sup>r</sup>may feel you, my son, whether you are really my son Esau or not.” <sup>22</sup>So Jacob went near to Isaac his father, and he felt him and said, “The voice is Jacob’s voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.”

<sup>23</sup>And he did not recognize him, because <sup>a</sup>his hands were hairy like his brother Esau’s hands; so he blessed him.

He said, “I am.”

<sup>25</sup>He said, “Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son’s game, so <sup>r</sup>that my soul may bless you.” So he brought it near to him, and he ate; and he brought him wine, and he drank. <sup>26</sup>Then his father Isaac said to him, “Come near now and kiss me, my son.” <sup>27</sup>And he came near and <sup>k</sup>issed him; and he smelled the smell of his clothing, and blessed him and said:

“Surely, <sup>t</sup>the smell of my son
Is like the smell of a field
Which the LORD has blessed.

<sup>28</sup> Therefore may <sup>u</sup>God give you
Of <sup>v</sup>the dew of heaven,
Of <sup>w</sup>the fatness of the earth,
And <sup>x</sup>plenty of grain and wine.

And nations bow down to you.
Be master over your brethren,
And <sup>z</sup>let your mother’s sons bow down to you.

<sup>a</sup>Cursed be everyone who curses you,
And blessed be those who bless you!”

Esau’s Lost Hope

<sup>30</sup>Now it happened, as soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, and Jacob had scarcely gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting. <sup>31</sup>He also had made savory food, and brought it to his father, and said to his father, “Let my father arise and <sup>b</sup>eat of his son’s game, that your soul may bless me.”

So he said, “I am your son, your firstborn, Esau.”

<sup>33</sup>Then Isaac trembled exceedingly, and said, “Who? Where is the one who hunted game and brought it to me? I ate all of it before you came, and I have blessed him—<sup>c</sup>and indeed he shall be blessed.”

<sup>34</sup>When Esau heard the words of his father, <sup>d</sup>he cried with an exceedingly great and bitter cry, and said to his father, “Bless me—me also, O my father!”

<sup>36</sup>And Esau said, <sup>e</sup>“Is he not rightly named Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times. He took away my birthright, and now look, he has taken away my blessing!” And he said, “Have you not reserved a blessing for me?”

<sup>37</sup>Then Isaac answered and said to Esau, <sup>f</sup>“Indeed I have made him your master, and all his brethren I have given to him as servants; with <sup>g</sup>grain and wine I have sustained him. What shall I do now for you, my son?”

<sup>38</sup>And Esau said to his father, “Have you only one blessing, my father? Bless me—me also, O my father!” And Esau lifted up his voice <sup>h</sup>and wept.

fatness of the earth,

And of the dew of heaven from above.

<sup>40</sup> By your sword you shall live,
And <sup>j</sup>you shall serve your brother;
And <sup>k</sup>it shall come to pass, when you become restless,
That you shall break his yoke from your neck.”

Jacob Escapes from Esau

<sup>42</sup>And the words of Esau her older son were told to Rebekah. So she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said to him, “Surely your brother Esau <sup>o</sup>comforts

27:18–29 Falsehood—Jacob may have felt justified in deceiving his father, since Esau had already sold him the birthright. Esau had clearly demonstrated his contempt of the position (including the spiritual responsibility) which was his by right, while Jacob valued and desired it. However, lofty purposes and aspirations cannot justify deceit and trickery. We must be content to leave the fulfillment of God’s promises in His hand and wait for His time.

27:29 peoples serve you. Isaac predicted that Jacob’s descendants would obtain supremacy over himself concerning you by intending to kill you. <sup>43</sup>Now therefore, my son, obey my voice: arise, flee to my brother Laban <sup>v</sup>in Haran. <sup>44</sup>And stay with him a <sup>q</sup>few days, until your brother's fury turns away, <sup>45</sup>until your brother's anger turns away from you, and he forgets what you have done to him; then I will send and bring you from there. Why should I be bereaved also of you both in one day?"

And make you <sup>h</sup>fruitful and multiply
you,

That you may be an assembly of peoples;

Abraham,
To you and your descendants with you,
That you may inherit the land
<sup>j</sup>In which you are a stranger,
Which God gave to Abraham."

<sup>5</sup>So Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went to Padan Aram, to Laban the son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau.

Esau Marries Mahalath

<sup>6</sup>Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Padan Aram to take himself a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, "You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan," <sup>7</sup>and that Jacob had obeyed his father and his mother and had gone to Padan Aram. <sup>8</sup>Also Esau saw <sup>k</sup>that the daughters of Canaan did not please his father Isaac. <sup>9</sup>So Esau went to Ishmael and <sup>l</sup>took <sup>m</sup>Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, <sup>n</sup>the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife in addition to the wives he had.

Jacob's Vow at Bethel

<sup>16</sup>Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, "Surely the LORD is in <sup>d</sup>this place, and I did not know it." <sup>17</sup>And he was afraid and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven!"

28:9 Mahalath. This daughter of Ishmael is probably the same woman as Basemath (36:3). Her name means "dance."

28:10–15 Jacob's Dream.—The ladder of Jacob's dream reminds us of Jesus' words about the angels

Jacob Meets Rachel

29 So Jacob went on his journey <sup>a</sup>and came to the land of the people of the East. <sup>2</sup>And he looked, and saw a <sup>b</sup>well in the field; and behold, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks. A large stone was on the well's mouth. <sup>3</sup>Now all the flocks would be gathered there; and they would roll the stone from the well's mouth, water the sheep, and put the stone back in its place on the well's mouth.

And they said, "We are from <sup>c</sup>Haran."

And they said, "We know him."

And they said, "<sup>f</sup>He is well. And look, his daughter Rachel <sup>f</sup>is coming with the sheep."

<sup>8</sup>But they said, "We cannot until all the flocks are gathered together, and they have rolled the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep."

<sup>13</sup>Then it came to pass, when Laban heard the report about Jacob his sister's son, that <sup>l</sup>he ran to meet him, and embraced him and kissed him, and brought him to his house. So he told Laban all these things. <sup>14</sup>And Laban said to him, <sup>m</sup>"Surely you <sup>are</sup> my bone and my flesh." And he stayed with him for a month.

Jacob Marries Leah and Rachel

grace after cheating his brother out of the blessings of Isaac. Indeed, he was already suffering by being banished from the fellowship of his family. Nevertheless, God mercifully confirmed the covenant promises made to Abraham and Isaac concerning the land and the descendants. His words, "I am with you and will keep you" speak of God's personal presence for protection and guidance, anticipating Jacob's return to the land, so that all the promises might be fulfilled. Surely the grace of God goes far beyond our small expectations.

28:22 a tenth. Jacob promised to give a tenth of his possessions to God. Abraham had given the same proportion to Melchizedek, the priest of the most high God. Later the Mosaic law required giving a tenth to God (Deut. 14:22).

29:5 son. This term is being used in a loose sense. Nahor was actually the grandfather of Laban (22:20–23; 24:15,50).

29:6 Rachel. This name is a term of endearment meaning "ewe lamb."

29:21–25 Deception—Many times we see God's prohibitions as mere taboos. We somehow imagine that God says no just because He can, instead of acknowledging both His goodwill towards us, and His wisdom. God does not merely prohibit lying so in our country, to give the younger before the firstborn. <sup>27</sup>Fulfill her week, and we will give you this one also for the service which you will serve with me still another seven years.”

<sup>28</sup>Then Jacob did so and fulfilled her week. So he gave him his daughter Rachel as wife also. <sup>29</sup>And Laban gave his maid <sup>30</sup>Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as a maid. <sup>31</sup>Then Jacob also went in to Rachel, and he also <sup>32</sup>loved Rachel more than Leah. And he served with Laban <sup>33</sup>still another seven years.

The Children of Jacob

30 Now when Rachel saw that <sup>42</sup>she bore Jacob no children, Rachel <sup>43</sup>envied her sister, and said to Jacob, “Give me children, <sup>44</sup>or else I die!”

son. <sup>57</sup>Then Rachel said, “With great wrappings I have wrestled with my sister, and indeed I have prevailed.” So she called his name Naphtali. <sup>58</sup>

<sup>70</sup>But she said to her, <sup>71</sup>“Is it a small matter that you have taken away my husband? Would you take away my son’s mandrakes also?”

And Rachel said, “Therefore he will lie with you tonight for your son’s mandrakes.”

<sup>72</sup>When Jacob came out of the field in the evening, Leah went out to meet him and said, “You must come in to me, for I have surely hired you with my son’s mandrakes.” And he lay with her that night.

<sup>73</sup>And God listened to Leah, and she conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son. <sup>74</sup>Leah said, “God has given me my wages, because I have given my maid to my husband.” So she called his name Issachar. <sup>75</sup> because He can, it is because it is destructive. Jacob learned through experience that trickery and deceit bring complicated and painful consequences. False dealing destroys trust in a relationship, and once trust has been broken it is difficult, if not impossible, to entirely restore it.

29:31 unloved. God was kind to Leah in her predicament. Even though she was the unloved wife, it was through her son Judah that the messianic line was carried out.

30:14 mandrakes. This is a plant which was regarded as an aid to conception. Its aroma was associated with lovemaking (Song 7:13).

These three verbs emphasize conception as a gift from God.

Jacob's Agreement with Laban

<sup>25</sup>And it came to pass, when Rachel had borne Joseph, that Jacob said to Laban, <sup>s</sup>“Send me away, that I may go to ‘my own place and to my country. <sup>26</sup>Give me my wives and my children <sup>u</sup>for whom I have served you, and let me go; for you know my service which <sup>v</sup>I have done for you.”

<sup>27</sup>And Laban said to him, “Please stay, if I have found favor in your eyes, for I have learned by experience that the LORD has blessed me for your sake.” <sup>28</sup>Then he said, <sup>w</sup>“Name me your wages, and I will give it.”

<sup>29</sup>So Jacob said to him, <sup>x</sup>“You know how I have served you and how your livestock has been with me. <sup>30</sup>For what you had before I came was little, and it has increased to a great amount; the LORD has blessed you since my coming. And now, when shall I also <sup>y</sup>provide for my own house?”

And Jacob said, “You shall not give me anything. If you will do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep your flocks: <sup>32</sup>Let me pass through all your flock today, removing from there all the speckled and spotted sheep, and all the brown ones among the lambs, and the spotted and speckled among the goats; and <sup>z</sup>these shall be my wages. <sup>33</sup>So my <sup>a</sup>righteousness will answer for me in time to come, when the subject of my wages comes before you: every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the lambs, will be considered stolen, if it is with me.”

<sup>34</sup>And Laban said, “Oh, that it were according to your word!” <sup>35</sup>So he removed that day the male goats that were <sup>b</sup>speckled and spotted, all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had some white in it, and all the brown ones among the lambs, and gave them into the hand of his sons. <sup>36</sup>Then he put three days’ journey between himself and Jacob, and Jacob fed the rest of Laban’s flocks.

chestnut trees, peeled white strips in them, and exposed the white which was in the rods. <sup>38</sup>And the rods which he had peeled, he set before the flocks in the gutters, in the watering troughs where the flocks came to drink, so that they should conceive when they came to drink. <sup>39</sup>So the flocks conceived before the rods, and the flocks brought forth streaked, speckled, and spotted. <sup>40</sup>Then Jacob separated the lambs, and made the flocks face toward the streaked and all the brown in the flock of Laban; but he put his own flocks by themselves and did not put them with Laban’s flock.

<sup>41</sup>And it came to pass, whenever the stronger livestock conceived, that Jacob placed the rods before the eyes of the livestock in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods. <sup>42</sup>But when the flocks were feeble, he did not put them in; so the feeble were Laban’s and the stronger Jacob’s. <sup>43</sup>Thus the man <sup>d</sup>became exceedingly prosperous, and <sup>e</sup>had large flocks, female and male servants, and camels and donkeys.

Jacob Flees from Laban

31 Now Jacob heard the words of Laban’s sons, saying, “Jacob has taken away all that was our father’s, and from what was our father’s he has acquired all this <sup>a</sup>wealth.” <sup>2</sup>And Jacob saw the <sup>b</sup>countenance of Laban, and indeed it was not <sup>c</sup>favorable toward him as before. <sup>3</sup>Then the LORD said to Jacob, <sup>d</sup>“Return to the land of your fathers and to your family, and I will <sup>e</sup>be with you.”

30:25 own place. Even though Jacob had lived for twenty years with Laban’s family, he had not adopted that place as his own. He never forgot that the promise and covenant of God were for the land of Canaan, and he knew that he must return.

30:27 blessed. God had promised to bless others through Abraham’s descendants (12:2–3). Now God blessed Laban through Jacob.

30:37 rods of green poplar. Just what significance these sticks hold is unknown. Some have theorized that they were simply symbols of Jacob’s faith in God. Whatever the case, God blessed Jacob by causing Laban’s stock to give birth to speckled and spotted young.

31:7 deceived me. Jacob had surely lived up to his name, deceiving his old father and tricking his brother out of the birthright. But in Laban he met his match, and tasted some of his own medicine. The consequences of dishonesty reach both ways. Because of his own trickery, Jacob had to flee from his home. He apparently never saw his mother again, and bore speckled. And if he said thus: <sup>14</sup>The streaked shall be your wages,<sup>15</sup> then all the flocks bore streaked. <sup>16</sup>So God has <sup>m</sup>taken away the livestock of your father and given them to me.

<sup>10</sup>“And it happened, at the time when the flocks conceived, that I lifted my eyes and saw in a dream, and behold, the rams which leaped upon the flocks were streaked, speckled, and gray-spotted. <sup>11</sup>Then <sup>n</sup>the Angel of God spoke to me in a dream, saying, ‘Jacob.’ And I said, ‘Here I am.’ <sup>12</sup>And He said, ‘Lift your eyes now and see, all the rams which leap on the flocks are streaked, speckled, and gray-spotted; for <sup>o</sup>I have seen all that Laban is doing to you. <sup>13</sup>I am the God of Bethel, <sup>p</sup>where you anointed the pillar and where you made a vow to Me. Now <sup>q</sup>arise, get out of this land, and return to the land of your family.’”

Laban Pursues Jacob

<sup>26</sup>And Laban said to Jacob: “What have you done, that you have stolen away unknown to me, and <sup>z</sup>carried away my daughters like captives taken with the sword? <sup>27</sup>Why did you flee away secretly, and steal away from me, and not tell me; for I might have sent you away with joy and songs, with timbrel and harp? <sup>28</sup>And you did not allow me <sup>a</sup>to kiss my sons and my daughters. Now <sup>b</sup>you have done foolishly in so doing. <sup>29</sup>It is in my power to do you harm, but the <sup>c</sup>God of your father spoke to me <sup>d</sup>last night, saying, ‘Be careful that you speak to Jacob neither good nor bad.’ <sup>30</sup>And now you have surely gone because you greatly long for your father’s house, but why did you <sup>e</sup>steal my gods?”

<sup>36</sup>Then Jacob was angry and rebuked Laban, and Jacob answered and said to Laban: “What is my trespass? What is my sin, that you have so hotly pursued me? <sup>37</sup>Although you have searched all my things, what part of your household things have you found? Set it here before my brethren and your brethren, that they may judge between us both! <sup>38</sup>These twenty years I have been with you; your ewes and your female goats have not miscarried their young, and I have not eaten the rams of your flock. <sup>39</sup>That which was torn by beasts I did not bring to you; I bore the loss of it. <sup>i</sup>You required it from my hand, whether stolen his relationship with his father and his only brother was broken. Lying not only harms the liar, but it also affects those he lies to. Because of Laban’s trickery, Jacob was saddled with an unloved wife, quarreling sons, and constant domestic strife.

31:19 idols. Laban’s family may have been polytheistic (believing in many gods), as Abraham’s father Terah evidently was (Josh. 24:1–3). Considering the evidence of verses 25–50 it seems likely that they worshiped Yahweh along with other “lesser gods.” In this culture, the possession of the idols was the right by day or stolen by night. <sup>40</sup>There I was! In the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night, and my sleep departed from my eyes. <sup>41</sup>Thus I have been in your house twenty years; I <sup>k</sup>served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock, and <sup>l</sup>you have changed my wages ten times. <sup>42m</sup>Unless the God of my father, the God of Abraham and <sup>n</sup>the Fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely now you would have sent me away empty-handed. <sup>o</sup>God has seen my affliction and the labor of my hands, and <sup>p</sup>rebuked you last night."

Laban's Covenant with Jacob

<sup>43</sup>And Laban answered and said to Jacob, "These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and this flock is my flock; all that you see is mine. But what can I do this day to these my daughters or to their children whom they have borne? <sup>44</sup>Now therefore, come, <sup>q</sup>let us make a covenant, <sup>r</sup>you and I, and let it be a witness between you and me."

<sup>51</sup>Then Laban said to Jacob, "Here is this heap and here is this pillar, which I have placed between you and me. <sup>52</sup>This heap is a witness, and this pillar is a witness, that I will not pass beyond this heap to you, and you will not pass beyond this heap and this pillar to me, for harm. <sup>53</sup>The God of Abraham, the God of Nahor, and the God of their father <sup>v</sup>judge between us." And Jacob <sup>w</sup>swore by <sup>x</sup>the Fear of his father Isaac. <sup>54</sup>Then Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain, and called his brethren to eat bread. And they ate bread and stayed all night on the mountain. <sup>55</sup>And early in the morning Laban arose, and <sup>y</sup>kissed his sons and daughters and <sup>z</sup>blessed them. Then Laban departed and <sup>a</sup>returned to his place.

Esau Comes to Meet Jacob

32 So Jacob went on his way, and <sup>a</sup>the angels of God met him. <sup>2</sup>When Jacob saw them, he said, "This is God's <sup>b</sup>camp." And he called the name of that place Mahanaim.*

<sup>6</sup>Then the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, "We came to your brother Esau, and <sup>h</sup>he also is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him." <sup>7</sup>So Jacob was greatly afraid and <sup>i</sup>distressed; and he divided the people that were with him, and the flocks and herds and camels, into two companies. <sup>8</sup>And he said, "If Esau comes to the one company and attacks it, then the other company which is left will escape."

<sup>9</sup>Then Jacob said, <sup>k</sup>"O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, the LORD <sup>l</sup>who said to me, 'Return to your country and to your family, and I will deal well with you': <sup>10</sup>I am not worthy of the least of all the <sup>m</sup>mercies and of all the truth which You have shown Your servant; for I crossed over this Jordan with <sup>n</sup>my staff, and now I have become two companies. <sup>11</sup>Deliver me, I pray, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau; for I fear him, lest he come and attack me <sup>o</sup>and <sup>p</sup>the mother with the children. <sup>12</sup>For <sup>q</sup>You said, 'I will surely treat you well, and make your descendants as the <sup>r</sup>sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.'" of the principal heir. Rachel probably did not steal the idols in order to worship them, but because they represented ownership of her father's property.

31:44 covenant. This instance of a covenant was an agreement between two equals.

31:49 Mizpah. This name means "outlook point," a place to keep watch. God above had His eyes on both men to make them keep their covenant.

31:53 The God of Abraham. The wording in Laban's oath suggests that Abraham, Nahor, and their father Terah all worshiped the same One True God. Joshua records the fact that Terah at least worshiped other gods as well (Josh. 24:1–3). It is possible that they were henotheistic—worshiping God not as the only God but as the most important and powerful among many.

32:11 Deliver me, I pray. Jacob did not pray in generalities. He named his concerns openly, and concluded with another appeal to God's promises. Christians

Wrestling with God

But he said, <sup>y</sup>"I will not let You go unless You bless me!"

He said, "Jacob."

And He said, <sup>c</sup>"Why is it that you ask about My name?" And He <sup>d</sup>blessed him there.

Jacob and Esau Meet

33 Now Jacob lifted his eyes and looked, and there, <sup>a</sup>Esau was coming, and with him were four hundred men. So he divided the children among Leah, Rachel, and the two maidservants. <sup>2</sup>And he put the maidservants and their children in front, Leah and her children behind, and Rachel and Joseph last. <sup>3</sup>Then he crossed over before them and <sup>b</sup>bowled himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.

<sup>4</sup>But Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, <sup>d</sup>and fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept. <sup>5</sup>And he lifted his eyes and saw the women and children, and said, "Who are these with you?"

So he said, "The children <sup>e</sup>whom God has graciously given your servant." <sup>6</sup>Then the maidservants came near, they and their children, and bowed down. <sup>7</sup>And Leah also came near with her children, and they bowed down. Afterward Joseph and Rachel came near, and they bowed down.

And he said, "These are <sup>g</sup>to find favor in the sight of my lord."

<sup>10</sup>And Jacob said, "No, please, if I <sup>h</sup>have now found favor in your sight, then receive my present from my hand, inasmuch as I have seen your face as though I had seen today can likewise base their prayers on God's proven character and His promises in the Bible.

32:24 a Man wrestled with him. Some believe that the Man who wrestled with Jacob was the preincarnate Jesus Christ. Others believe the Man was the Angel of God (21:17; 31:11). In any case, Jacob wrestled with a manifestation of God (vv. 28–30), and because of God's mercy he survived.

32:28 Israel. Before Jacob wrestled with the angel, his name, "one who supplants," described a man who was deceitful in character. Afterwards he was given the new status of a champion, "one who strives (or prevails) with God," or "prince with God."

32:30 God face to face. The dramatic name ("face of God") given to the location shows the awesome nature of the encounter. Here God's messenger in human form was the same as God Himself, a fact which Jacob recognized to his amazement. In Hebrew thought, the penalty for seeing God face to face was death (Ex. 33:20), yet Jacob had passed through such an experience and had survived.

the face of God, and you were pleased with me. <sup>11</sup>Please, take <sup>1</sup>my blessing that is brought to you, because God has dealt <sup>2</sup>graciously with me, and because I have enough.” <sup>3</sup>So he urged him, and he took it.

<sup>13</sup>But Jacob said to him, “My lord knows that the children are weak, and the flocks and herds which are nursing are with me. And if the men should drive them hard one day, all the flock will die. <sup>14</sup>Please let my lord go on ahead before his servant. I will lead on slowly at a pace which the livestock that go before me, and the children, are able to endure, until I come to my lord <sup>15</sup>in Seir.”

<sup>15</sup>And Esau said, “Now let me leave with you some of the people who are with me.”

But he said, “What need is there? <sup>16</sup>Let me find favor in the sight of my lord.” <sup>16</sup>So Esau returned that day on his way to Seir. <sup>17</sup>And Jacob journeyed to <sup>18</sup>Succoth, built himself a house, and made booths for his livestock. Therefore the name of the place is called Succoth.*

Jacob Comes to Canaan

The Dinah Incident

<sup>5</sup>And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter. Now his sons were with his livestock in the field; so Jacob <sup>7</sup>held his peace until they came. <sup>6</sup>Then Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to speak with him. <sup>7</sup>And the sons of Jacob came in from the field when they heard it; and the men were grieved and very angry, because he <sup>8</sup>had done a disgraceful thing in Israel by lying with Jacob’s daughter, <sup>9</sup>a thing which ought not to be done. <sup>8</sup>But Hamor spoke with them, saying, “The soul of my son Shechem longs for your daughter. Please give her to him as a wife. <sup>9</sup>And make marriages with us; give your daughters to us, and take our daughters to yourselves. <sup>10</sup>So you shall dwell with us, and the land shall be before you. Dwell and trade in it, and acquire possessions for yourselves in it.”

<sup>11</sup>Then Shechem said to her father and her brothers, “Let me find favor in your eyes, and whatever you say to me I will give. <sup>12</sup>Ask me ever so much <sup>13</sup>dowry and gift, and I will give according to what you say to me; but give me the young woman as a wife.”

33:20 he erected an altar there. The name Jacob gave this altar reflected his mature faith in “God, the God of Israel.” The God of Jacob’s fathers was now Jacob’s personal God, for He had fulfilled His promises and protected him (28:13–15).

Jacob's Return to Bethel

35 Then God said to Jacob, "Arise, go up to <sup>a</sup>Bethel and dwell there; and make an altar there to God, <sup>b</sup>who appeared to you <sup>c</sup>when you fled from the face of Esau your brother."

<sup>2</sup>And Jacob said to his <sup>d</sup>household and to all who were with him, "Put away <sup>e</sup>the foreign gods that are among you, <sup>f</sup>purify yourselves, and change your garments. <sup>3</sup>Then let us arise and go up to Bethel; and I will make an altar there to God, <sup>g</sup>who answered me in the day of my distress <sup>h</sup>and has been with me in the way which I have gone." <sup>4</sup>So they gave Jacob all the foreign gods which were in their hands, and the <sup>i</sup>earrings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under <sup>j</sup>the terebinth tree which was by Shechem.

Death of Rachel

<sup>16</sup>Then they journeyed from Bethel. And when there was but a little distance to go to Ephrath, Rachel labored in childbirth,

* 35:7 Literally God of the House of God

* 35:8 Literally Terebinth of Weeping

34:25 killed all the males. Jacob's sons were correct that God did not want them to intermarry with the pagan Canaanite families. According to later Levitical law, they were even correct that rape was punishable by death. However, their treacherous pretended friendship and the massacre of all the men of Shechem, along with their greedy looting of all the Shechemites' goods, was clearly not a justifiable execution of justice, and God condemned their violence and anger (49:5–7).

35:2 foreign gods. Jacob's command included the idols that Rachel had stolen (31:22–35) as well as any idols among his servants. These were not gods Jacob himself had been worshiping, but he had apparently been allowing others in his household to do so.

35:10–12 Israel shall be your name. The renewal of God's covenant with Jacob was introduced by confirming Jacob's change of name to Israel, the one who "wrestled with God and prevailed." The promises made to Abraham and Isaac were once again repeated, underscoring the continuity of the covenant. Furthermore, a rather significant phrase is added, "be fruitful and multiply," which incorporated the creation ordinance, thus exhibiting the continuity with the covenant of creation. The covenant Lord is the God of creation and of redemption.

35:16 Ephrath. This is an alternative name for the region around Bethlehem (v. 19; 48:7; Ruth 1:2; Mic. 5:2). The King of Glory would one day be born near the birthplace of Benjamin (Matt. 2:1).

and she had hard labor. <sup>17</sup>Now it came to pass, when she was in hard labor, that the midwife said to her, "Do not fear; you will have this son also." <sup>18</sup>And so it was, as her soul was departing (for she died), that she called his name Ben-Oni;* but his father called him Benjamin.* <sup>19</sup>So <sup>b</sup>Rachel died and was buried on the way to <sup>c</sup>Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem). <sup>20</sup>And Jacob set a pillar on her grave, which is the pillar of Rachel's grave <sup>d</sup>to this day.

Jacob's Twelve Sons

Now the sons of Jacob were twelve: <sup>23</sup>the sons of Leah were <sup>g</sup>Reuben, Jacob's firstborn, and Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun; <sup>24</sup>the sons of Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin; <sup>25</sup>the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's maidservant, were Dan and Naphtali; <sup>26</sup>and the sons of Zilpah, Leah's maidservant, were Gad and Asher. These were the sons of Jacob who were born to him in Padan Aram.

Death of Isaac

The Family of Esau

the land of Canaan, and went to a country away from the presence of his brother Jacob. <sup>7g</sup>For their possessions were too great for them to dwell together, and <sup>h</sup>the land where they were strangers could not support them because of their livestock. <sup>8</sup>So Esau dwelt in <sup>i</sup>Mount Seir. <sup>j</sup>Esau is Edom.

The Chiefs of Edom

<sup>15</sup>These were the chiefs of the sons of Esau. The sons of Eliphaz, the firstborn son of Esau, were Chief Teman, Chief Omar, Chief Zepho, Chief Kenaz, <sup>16</sup>Chief Korah,* Chief Gatam, and Chief Amalek. These were the chiefs of Eliphaz in the land of Edom. They were the sons of Adah.

<sup>17</sup>These were the sons of Reuel, Esau's son: Chief Nahath, Chief Zerah, Chief Shammah, and Chief Mizzah. These were the chiefs of Reuel in the land of Edom. These were the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife.

The Sons of Seir

35:27 Jacob came to his father Isaac. After more than 20 years of exile Jacob finally visited his father. Sadly, his mother Rebekah was probably dead since she is not mentioned.

36:12 Amalek. Esau's grandson Amalek founded a people that later would trouble the Israelites (Num. 14:39–45).

and Dishan. These were the chiefs of the Horites, the sons of Seir, in the land of Edom.

The Kings of Edom

36:40–43 Esau was the father of the Edomites. Although Esau was not the heir of God's everlasting covenant with the family of Abraham, God still blessed his family and made them into a nation.

37:1 a stranger. The Lord had promised that this land would become a permanent possession of Abraham's family (12:7). To the third generation, that promise was still not realized. Jacob and his family were still aliens in the land.

37:2 a bad report. Since Joseph in general demonstrated his integrity (see ch. 39), he was probably not slandering his brothers, but accurately reporting some negligence on their part.

37:3 a tunic of many colors. This is the traditional translation. The Hebrew phrase may simply mean a garment with long sleeves. The robe was certainly distinctive in some way, and probably costly.

The Chiefs of Esau

Joseph Dreams of Greatness

37 Now Jacob dwelt in the land where his father was a stranger, in the land of Canaan. <sup>2</sup>This is the history of Jacob.

Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brothers. And the lad was with the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives; and Joseph brought a bad report of them to his father.

<sup>3</sup>Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age. Also he made him a tunic of many colors. <sup>4</sup>But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him and could not speak peaceably to him.

<sup>5</sup>Now Joseph had a dream, and he told it to his brothers; and they hated him even more. <sup>6</sup>So he said to them, "Please hear this dream which I have dreamed: <sup>7</sup>There we were, binding sheaves in the field. Then behold, my sheaf arose and also stood upright; and indeed your sheaves stood all around and bowed down to my sheaf."

37:4 hated him. Because fallen and unregenerate man hates God, he displays hatred in his relations with others. The hatred of Joseph's brothers is attributed primarily to the love which Jacob had for his youngest son. As a result of their hatred the brothers were not able to speak kindly to Joseph, and the hatred led to a plot to kill him. Jesus remarked that the world's hatred of His people is a reflection of hatred against Himself (John 15:18). Love is the leading characteristic of the godly as hatred is the mark of the worldly person.

indeed reign over us? Or shall you indeed have dominion over us?" So they hated him even more for his dreams and for his words.

<sup>9</sup>Then he dreamed still another dream and told it to his brothers, and said, "Look, I have dreamed another dream. And this time, <sup>a</sup>the sun, the moon, and the eleven stars bowed down to me."

<sup>10</sup>So he told it to his father and his brothers; and his father rebuked him and said to him, "What is this dream that you have dreamed? Shall your mother and I and <sup>b</sup>your brothers indeed come to bow down to the earth before you?" <sup>11</sup>And <sup>c</sup>his brothers envied him, but his father <sup>d</sup>kept the matter in mind.

Joseph Sold by His Brothers

<sup>12</sup>Then his brothers went to feed their father's flock in Shechem. <sup>13</sup>And Israel said to Joseph, "Are not your brothers feeding the flock in <sup>e</sup>Shechem? Come, I will send you to them."

So he said to him, "Here I am."

<sup>14</sup>Then he said to him, "Please go and see if it is well with your brothers and well with the flocks, and bring back word to me." So he sent him out of the Valley of Hebron, and he went to Shechem.

<sup>15</sup>Now a certain man found him, and there he was, wandering in the field. And the man asked him, saying, "What are you seeking?"

37:21 Let us not kill him. Reuben, as the firstborn son and principal heir, had the most to lose if Joseph's dreams came true. Yet Reuben intervened to spare Joseph's life. This was something of a contrast with his earlier wicked actions (35:22).

37:25 Ishmaelites. The Ishmaelites of this passage were wandering traders. The name (referring to descendants of Ishmael, the son of Abraham and Hagar) is loosely equivalent with the name Midianite (Midian was another son of Abraham, by Keturah). Probably the families of the two half brothers had a strong alliance and were so closely associated that the names became interchangeable (v. 28).

37:28 twenty shekels of silver. The standard price for a slave in later Israelite law was 30 shekels of silver.

37:29 tore his clothes. Tearing one's clothes was a common expression of grief and dismay. Reuben's grief was genuine feeling for his younger brother mixed with fear that he, the oldest brother, would be blamed.

Judah and Tamar

So she said, "What will you give me, that you may come in to me?"

So she said, "<sup>u</sup>Will you give me a pledge till you send it?"

<sup>18</sup>Then he said, "What pledge shall I give you?"

So she said, <sup>v</sup>"Your signet and cord, and your staff that is in your hand." Then he gave <sup>w</sup>them to her, and went in to her, and she conceived by him. <sup>19</sup>So she arose and went away, and <sup>x</sup>laid aside her veil and put on the garments of her widowhood.

<sup>20</sup>And Judah sent the young goat by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive <sup>y</sup>his pledge from the woman's hand, but he did not find her. <sup>21</sup>Then he asked the men of that place, saying, "Where is the harlot who was openly by the roadside?"

And they said, "There was no harlot in this place."

<sup>22</sup>So he returned to Judah and said, "I cannot find her. Also, the men of the place said there was no harlot in this place."

38:1–30 At first glance it appears that the story of Judah and Tamar is an intrusion into the story of Joseph, but it is here for a reason. It provides a stunning contrast between the morals of Judah and Joseph. It illustrates the further disintegration of Jacob's family. If this process continued, Jacob's family, the family of promise, would become like the people of Canaan.

38:8 to your brother's wife. In order to maintain the family line and the name of the deceased, it was the custom in ancient times for the dead man's brother to marry the widow and father a child that would carry on the man's family. This is called levirate marriage, from the Latin word meaning "husband's brother." The custom became part of the Mosaic law (Deut. 25:5–10; Ruth 4:1–12).

38:15–18 Fornication—God designed sexual relations to be enjoyed exclusively within the framework of marriage: one man, for one woman, mutually committed for life. Outside of this framework, all sexual relations are sin. This is not because God wants to deprive His people of pleasure, but because He wants to protect them from the painful and destructive consequences of sin. Sexual union is not only a union of the body, but of the whole person (1 Cor. 6:15–20). Illicit sexual relations defile the temple of God, breed both physical and social disease, and serve as a source for many other sins.

38:18 signet. This was an ancient means of identification. The signet was distinctively etched in stone, metal, or ivory. To confirm a business transaction, or make an order official, the signet was pressed into soft clay, leaving its distinctive impression. Basically, Judah gave Tamar the equivalent of a modern credit card.

<sup>25</sup>When she was brought out, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, “By the man to whom these belong, I am with child.” And she said, <sup>26</sup>“Please determine whose these are—the signet and cord, and staff.”

Joseph a Slave in Egypt

39 Now Joseph had been taken <sup>a</sup>down to Egypt. And <sup>b</sup>Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, <sup>c</sup>bought him from the Ishmaelites who had taken him down there. <sup>2a</sup>The LORD was with Joseph, and he was a successful man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian. <sup>3</sup>And his master saw that the LORD was with him and that the LORD <sup>e</sup>made all he did to prosper in his hand. <sup>4</sup>So Joseph <sup>f</sup>found favor in his sight, and served him. Then he made him <sup>g</sup>overseer of his house, and all that he had he put under his authority. <sup>5</sup>So it was, from the time that he had made him overseer of his house and all that he had, that <sup>h</sup>the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the LORD was on all that he had in the house and in the field. <sup>6</sup>Thus he left all that he had in Joseph's hand, and he did not know what he had except for the bread which he ate.

Now Joseph <sup>i</sup>was handsome in form and appearance.

<sup>8</sup>But he refused and said to his master's wife, <sup>k</sup>“Look, my master does not know what is with me in the house, and he has committed all that he has to my hand. <sup>9</sup>There is no one greater in this house than I, nor has he kept back anything from me but you, because you are his wife. <sup>10</sup>How then can I do this great wickedness, and <sup>l</sup>sin against God?”

38:26 She has been more righteous than I. Judah, one of the heirs of the everlasting covenant with the living God, was put to shame by a Canaanite woman. To his credit, Judah confessed his sins.

38:29 Perez. Perez was in the lineage of David, and eventually Jesus the Messiah (Ruth 4:18; Matt. 1:3).

39:2 The LORD was with Joseph. This key phrase of this section is repeated (vv. 21,23). This phrase indicates that God cared for, protected, and blessed Joseph.

39:4 found favor. Joseph's life illustrates the principle that one who is faithful in little will be given charge over much (Matt. 25:21; 1 Cor. 4:2).

39:5 the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house. God blessed Potiphar's house because of Joseph, just as He had blessed Laban because of Jacob.

39:9 sin against God. Joseph rejected the solicitation to sin, regarding it both as a wicked act of treachery against his master, and as a defiling and rebellious act before a holy God. Because Joseph's conscience was bound by God and His truth, he was able to resist this evil suggestion more than once. Pleasing God was more important to Joseph than engaging in the pleasures of sin for a season. His fear and reverence of God was the directing power of his life.

The Prisoners’ Dreams

<sup>5</sup>Then the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were confined in the prison, <sup>d</sup>had a dream, both of them, each man’s dream in one night and each man’s dream with its own interpretation. <sup>6</sup>And Joseph came in to them in the morning and looked at them, and saw that they were sad. <sup>7</sup>So he asked Pharaoh’s officers who were with him in the custody of his lord’s house, saying, <sup>e</sup>“Why do you look so sad today?”

So Joseph said to them, <sup>g</sup>“Do not interpretations belong to God? Tell them to me, please.”

<sup>9</sup>Then the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, “Behold, in my dream a vine was before me, <sup>10</sup>and in the vine were three branches; it was as though it budded, its blossoms shot forth, and its clusters brought forth ripe grapes. <sup>11</sup>Then Pharaoh’s cup was in my hand; and I took the grapes and pressed them into Pharaoh’s cup, and placed the cup in Pharaoh’s hand.”

<sup>12</sup>And Joseph said to him, <sup>h</sup>“This is the interpretation of it: The three branches <sup>i</sup>are three days. <sup>13</sup>Now within three days Pharaoh will <sup>j</sup>lift up your head and restore you to your place, and you will put Pharaoh’s cup in his hand according to the former manner, when you were his butler. <sup>14</sup>But <sup>k</sup>remember me when it is well with you, and <sup>l</sup>please show kindness to me; make mention of me to Pharaoh, and get me out of this house. <sup>15</sup>For indeed I was <sup>m</sup>stolen away from the land of the Hebrews; <sup>n</sup>and also I have done nothing here that they should put me into the dungeon.”

<sup>16</sup>When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph, “I also was in my dream, and there were three white baskets on my head. <sup>17</sup>In the uppermost basket were all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, and the birds ate them out of the basket on my head.”

Pharaoh’s Dreams

41 Then it came to pass, at the end of two full years, that <sup>a</sup>Pharaoh had a dream; and behold, he stood by the river.

* 39:23 Literally his hand

39:20 into the prison. Surprisingly, Potiphar did not simply kill Joseph outright. It is possible that knowledge of Joseph’s character (or his own wife’s character) caused him to suspect that the story was not wholly true.

39:21 mercy. This word can be translated loyal love (Ps. 13:5). God faithfully kept His promises by staying with His people (12:1–3; 50:24).

39:23 the LORD made it prosper. Because of God’s blessing, everything Joseph did prospered (Ps. 1:1–3).

40:8 interpretations belong to God. Joseph not only announced his faith, he then quickly acted upon it. Joseph had received dreams and visions as a younger man, and he had understood their meaning (37:5–11).

40:22 he hanged the chief baker. Pharaoh was clearly a ruthless ruler who rewarded those who served him well, but destroyed those he perceived as threats.

river. <sup>18</sup>Suddenly seven cows came up out of the river, fine looking and fat; and they fed in the meadow. <sup>19</sup>Then behold, seven other cows came up after them, poor and very ugly and gaunt, such ugliness as I have never seen in all the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup>And the gaunt and ugly cows ate up the first seven, the fat cows. <sup>21</sup>When they had eaten them up, no one would have known that they had eaten them, for they were just as ugly as at the beginning. So I awoke. <sup>22</sup>Also I saw in my dream, and suddenly seven heads came up on one stalk, full and good. <sup>23</sup>Then behold, seven heads, withered, thin, and blighted by the east wind, sprang up after them. <sup>24</sup>And the thin heads devoured the seven good heads. So I told this to the magicians, but there was no one who could explain it to me."

41:8 magicians. The Hebrew term is related to the word for stylus, a writing instrument. Thus the magicians were associated in some manner with writing and knowledge, no doubt of the occult. wise men. These were a class of scholars associated with the courts of the ancient Middle East. They were either functionaries of pagan religions, or merely observers and interpreters of life.

41:14 shaved. Egyptian men not only shaved their faces, but their entire bodies and heads. Egyptian officials scorned the "hairy" Canaanites, including the Hebrews (43:32). While he lived in Egypt Joseph apparently adopted the dress and manner of the Egyptians.

41:16 God. Joseph praised the power of the living God in the pagan court of Pharaoh. He would not take any credit to himself, nor did he try to use the situation to plead for his own release.

41:32 God, and God. Joseph made it clear that he was speaking about the one God, not the numerous false gods that filled the Egyptian court, or Pharaoh himself who was believed to be a god (22:1; 42:18).

grain under the authority of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities. <sup>36</sup>Then that food shall be as a reserve for the land for the seven years of famine which shall be in the land of Egypt, that the land may not perish during the famine.”

Joseph's Rise to Power

<sup>37</sup>So the advice was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of all his servants. <sup>38</sup>And Pharaoh said to his servants, “Can we find such a one as this, a man in whom is the Spirit of God?”

<sup>39</sup>Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Inasmuch as God has shown you all this, there is no one as discerning and wise as you. <sup>40</sup>You shall be over my house, and all my people shall be ruled according to your word; only in regard to the throne will I be greater than you.” <sup>41</sup>And Pharaoh said to Joseph, “See, I have set you over all the land of Egypt.”

<sup>46</sup>Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt. <sup>47</sup>Now in the seven plentiful years the ground brought forth abundantly. <sup>48</sup>So he gathered up all the food of the seven years which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities; he laid up in every city the food of the fields which surrounded them. <sup>49</sup>Joseph gathered very much grain, as the sand of the sea, until he stopped counting, for it was immeasurable.

<sup>50</sup>And to Joseph were born two sons before the years of famine came, whom Asenath, the daughter of Poti-Pherah priest of On, bore to him. <sup>51</sup>Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh: “For God has made me forget all my toil and all my father's house.” <sup>52</sup>And the name of the second he called Ephraim: “For God has caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.”

<sup>53</sup>Then the seven years of plenty which were in the land of Egypt ended, and the seven years of famine began to come, as Joseph had said. The famine was in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread. <sup>54</sup>So when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread. Then Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, “Go to Joseph; whatever he says to you, do.” <sup>55</sup>The famine was over all the face of the earth, and Joseph opened all the storehouses and sold to the Egyptians. And the famine became severe in the land of Egypt. <sup>56</sup>So all countries came to Joseph in Egypt to buy grain, because the famine was severe in all lands.

Joseph's Brothers Go to Egypt

42 When Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, Jacob said to his sons, “Why do you look at one another?” And he said, “Indeed I have heard that there is grain in Egypt; go down to that place and buy for us there, that we may live and not die.”

<sup>3</sup>So Joseph's ten brothers went down to buy grain in Egypt. But Jacob did not send Joseph's brother Benjamin with his brothers, for he said, “Lest some calamity befall him.” And the sons of Israel went to buy grain among those who journeyed, for the famine was in the land of Canaan.

41:38 in whom is the Spirit of God. Even if he did not follow God himself, Pharaoh was at least acknowledging that Joseph was extraordinarily wise, and that the power of his God was obvious in his life.

41:39 discerning and wise. Joseph is an illustration of the instructions Paul gave Colosse: “Walk in wisdom toward those who are outside” (Col. 4:5). Pharaoh recognized that Joseph's wisdom was not the ordinary powers of a clever man, but something unique and outside of himself. Joseph was wise because he listened to God, not just because of his extraordinary intelligence and perspicacity. God's wisdom is moral. It discerns between good and evil. It is seen through prudence in secular affairs and comes through personal experience with the Lord.

41:45 Zaphnath-Paaneah. This Egyptian name probably means something like “the god speaks and lives.” Asenath. This name means “belonging to (the goddess) Neith.” Poti-Pherah. This name means “he whom Ra (the sun god) gave.” Even though his father-in-law was the priest of a pagan god, Joseph and Asenath's sons were worshipers of the Lord, not Ra. 42:4 Benjamin. Jacob still played favorites, but this time there is no mention of jealousy among the other brothers as there had been before (37:8).

<sup>8</sup>So Joseph recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him. <sup>9</sup>Then Joseph <sup>h</sup>remembered the dreams which he had dreamed about them, and said to them, "You are spies! You have come to see the nakedness of the land!"

<sup>10</sup>And they said to him, "No, my lord, but your servants have come to buy food. <sup>11</sup>We are all one man's sons; we are honest men; your servants are not spies."

<sup>13</sup>And they said, "Your servants are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and in fact, the youngest is with our father today, and one is no more."

And they did so. <sup>21</sup>Then they said to one another, <sup>n</sup>"We are truly guilty concerning our brother, for we saw the anguish of his soul when he pleaded with us, and we would not hear; <sup>o</sup>therefore this distress has come upon us."

The Brothers Return to Canaan

<sup>29</sup>Then they went to Jacob their father in the land of Canaan and told him all that had happened to them, saying: <sup>30</sup>"The man who is lord of the land <sup>x</sup>spoke roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country. <sup>31</sup>But we said to him, 'We are honest men; we are not spies. <sup>32</sup>We are twelve brothers, sons of our father; one is no more, and the youngest is with our father this day in the land of Canaan.' <sup>33</sup>Then the man, the lord of the country, said to us, <sup>y</sup>'By this I will know that you are honest men: Leave one of your brothers here with me, take food for the famine of your households, and be gone. <sup>34</sup>And bring your <sup>z</sup>youngest brother to me; so I shall know that you are not spies, but that you are honest men. I will grant your brother to you, and you may <sup>aa</sup>'trade in the land.'"

42:6 bowed down before him. God fulfilled the dreams He gave to Joseph at the age of 17 (37:5–11).

42:9 You are spies. Joseph set out to learn whether his brothers had changed for the better. Would they betray each other when under pressure?

42:18 I fear God. Joseph gave his brothers a clue about who he was.

42:22 Did I not speak to you. Joseph's brothers were fearful because they knew they were guilty before God and that they deserved any punishment that God might choose to send. They must have been troubled by feelings of guilt for years, and even though they did not realize who Joseph really was, they immediately attributed their troubles to their guilt.

42:25 money. This refers to a certain weight of silver. Coins had not been invented at this time.

and you want to take <sup>a</sup>Benjamin. All these things are against me.”

<sup>37</sup>Then Reuben spoke to his father, saying, “Kill my two sons if I do not bring him <sup>b</sup>back to you; put him in my hands, and I will bring him back to you.”

Joseph's Brothers Return with Benjamin

43 Now the famine was <sup>a</sup>severe in the land. <sup>2</sup>And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the grain which they had brought from Egypt, that their father said to them, “Go <sup>b</sup>back, buy us a little food.”

<sup>7</sup>But they said, “The man asked us pointedly about ourselves and our family, saying, ‘Is your father still alive? Have you <sup>f</sup>another brother?’ And we told him according to these words. Could we possibly have known that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down?’”

<sup>8</sup>Then Judah said to Israel his father, “Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go, that we may <sup>g</sup>live and not die, both we and you and also our little ones. <sup>9</sup>I myself will be surety for him; from my hand you shall require him. <sup>10</sup>If I do not bring him <sup>b</sup>back to you and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever. <sup>11</sup>For if we had not lingered, surely by now we would have returned this second time.”

in your hand the money <sup>h</sup>that was returned in the mouth of your sacks; perhaps it was an oversight. <sup>14</sup>Take your brother also, and arise, go back to the man. <sup>15</sup>And may God <sup>i</sup>Almighty <sup>j</sup>give you mercy before the man, that he may release your other brother and Benjamin. <sup>k</sup>If I am bereaved, I am bereaved!”

<sup>19</sup>Now the men were <sup>p</sup>afraid because they were brought into Joseph’s house; and they said, “<sup>q</sup>It is because of the money, which was returned in our sacks the first time, that we are brought in, so that he may make a case against us and seize us, to take us as slaves with our donkeys.”

<sup>24</sup>But he said, “Peace <sup>u</sup>be with you, do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your father has given you treasure in your sacks; I had your money.” Then he brought <sup>v</sup>Sim-eon out to them.

43:8 Send the lad with me. Judah promised that he would keep Benjamin safe. Judah had changed tremendously (38:1). Instead of leaving the family, he protected his brother and was concerned about his father’s welfare.

43:23 Your God and the God of your father. Surprisingly, the steward expressed his own faith in the God of Joseph and Jacob.

43:26 bowed. For the second time (42:6) the brothers of Joseph bowed down to him, just as his dreams had predicted (37:5–11).

<sup>29</sup>Then he lifted his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, <sup>30</sup>his mother’s son, and said, “Is this your younger brother <sup>31</sup>of whom you spoke to me?” And he said, “God be gracious to you, my son.” <sup>32</sup>Now <sup>33</sup>his heart yearned for his brother; so Joseph made haste and sought somewhere to weep. And he went into his chamber and <sup>34</sup>wept there. <sup>35</sup>Then he washed his face and came out; and he restrained himself, and said, “Serve the <sup>36</sup>bread.”

<sup>37</sup>So they set him a place by himself, and then by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves; because the Egyptians could not eat food with the <sup>38</sup>Hebrews, for that is <sup>39</sup>an abomination to the Egyptians. <sup>40</sup>And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his <sup>41</sup>birthright and the youngest according to his youth; and the men looked in astonishment at one another. <sup>42</sup>Then he took servings to them from before him, but Benjamin’s serving was <sup>43</sup>five times as much as any of theirs. So they drank and were merry with him.

Joseph’s Cup

44 And he commanded the <sup>45</sup>steward of his house, saying, <sup>46</sup>“Fill the men’s sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put each man’s money in the mouth of his sack. <sup>47</sup>Also put my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the sack of the youngest, and his grain money.” So he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken. <sup>48</sup>As soon as the morning dawned, the men were sent away, they and their donkeys. <sup>49</sup>When they had gone out of the city, and were not yet far off, Joseph said to his steward, “Get up, follow the men; and when you overtake them, say to them, ‘Why have you <sup>50</sup>repaid evil for good? <sup>51</sup>Is not this the one from which my lord drinks, and with which he indeed practices divination? You have done evil in so doing.’”

<sup>52</sup>So he overtook them, and he spoke to them these same words. <sup>53</sup>And they said to him, “Why does my lord say these words?

Far be it from us that your servants should do such a thing. <sup>54</sup>Look, we brought back to you from the land of Canaan <sup>55</sup>the money which we found in the mouth of our sacks. How then could we steal silver or gold from your lord’s house? <sup>56</sup>With whomever of your servants it is found, <sup>57</sup>let him die, and we also will be my lord’s slaves.”

<sup>58</sup>And he said, “Now also let it be according to your words; he with whom it is found shall be my slave, and you shall be blameless.” <sup>59</sup>Then each man speedily let down his sack to the ground, and each opened his sack. <sup>60</sup>So he searched. He began with the oldest and left off with the youngest; and the cup was found in Benjamin’s sack. <sup>61</sup>Then they <sup>62</sup>tore their clothes, and each man loaded his donkey and returned to the city.

<sup>63</sup>So Judah and his brothers came to Joseph’s house, and he was still there; and they <sup>64</sup>fell before him on the ground. <sup>65</sup>And Joseph said to them, “What deed is this you have done? Did you not know that such a man as I can certainly practice divination?”

<sup>66</sup>Then Judah said, “What shall we say to my lord? What shall we speak? Or how shall we clear ourselves? God has <sup>67</sup>found out the iniquity of your servants; here <sup>68</sup>we are, my lord’s slaves, both we and he also with whom the cup was found.”

<sup>69</sup>But he said, “Far be it from me that I should do so; the man in whose hand the cup was found, he shall be my slave. And as for you, go up in peace to your father.”

Judah Intercedes for Benjamin

<sup>70</sup>Then Judah came near to him and said: “O my lord, please let your servant speak a word in my lord’s hearing, and <sup>71</sup>do not let your anger burn against your servant; for you are even like Pharaoh. <sup>72</sup>My lord asked his servants, saying, ‘Have you a father or a brother?’ <sup>73</sup>And we said to my lord, ‘We have a father, an old man, and <sup>74</sup>a child of his old age, who is young; his brother is <sup>75</sup>dead, and he <sup>76</sup>alone is left of his mother’s children, and his <sup>77</sup>father loves him.’ <sup>78</sup>Then you said to your servants, <sup>79</sup>‘Bring him down to me, that I may set my eyes on him.’ <sup>80</sup>And

43:32 an abomination. This word can indicate the strongest revulsion, something that might cause physical illness (46:34). The Egyptians (who carefully shaved their entire bodies) may have been repulsed by the “hairy” Hebrews.

44:15 can certainly practice divination. This curious verse is not very clear in meaning. Clearly a God-fearing man like Joseph who knew that only God can interpret dreams and visions (40:8) would not have been one to dabble with the occult. He may just have been trying to frighten his brothers by appearing to know things supernaturally (this would certainly have been backed up by his uncanny knowledge of their birth order in 43:33).

44:17 go up in peace to your father. Joseph was testing his brothers again, to see if they had changed in their attitude to the son of their father’s favorite wife. Would they leave Benjamin a slave in Egypt as they had Joseph?

we said to my lord, <sup>a</sup>"The lad cannot leave his father, for if he should leave his father, his father would die." <sup>23</sup>But you said to your servants, 'Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you shall see my face no more.'

<sup>24</sup>"So it was, when we went up to your servant my father, that we told him the words of my lord. <sup>25</sup>And <sup>r</sup>our father said, 'Go back and buy us a little food.' <sup>26</sup>But we said, 'We cannot go down; if our youngest brother is with us, then we will go down; for we may not see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us.' <sup>27</sup>Then your servant my father said to us, 'You know that <sup>s</sup>my wife bore me two sons; <sup>28</sup>and the one went out from me, and I said, '<sup>t</sup>"Surely he is torn to pieces"; and I have not seen him since. <sup>29</sup>But if you <sup>t</sup>ake this one also from me, and calamity befalls him, you shall bring down my gray hair with sorrow to the grave.'

<sup>30</sup>"Now therefore, when I come to your servant my father, and the lad is not with us, since <sup>v</sup>his life is bound up in the lad's life, <sup>31</sup>it will happen, when he sees that the lad is not with us, that he will die. So your servants will bring down the gray hair of your servant our father with sorrow to the grave. <sup>32</sup>For your servant became surety for the lad to my father, saying, '<sup>w</sup>If I do not bring him back to you, then I shall bear the blame before my father forever.' <sup>33</sup>Now therefore, please <sup>x</sup>let your servant remain instead of the lad as a slave to my lord, and let the lad go up with his brothers. <sup>34</sup>For how shall I go up to my father if the lad is not with me, lest perhaps I see the evil that would come upon my father?"

Joseph Revealed to His Brothers

45 Then Joseph could not restrain himself before all those who stood by him, and he cried out, "Make everyone go out from me!" So no one stood with him <sup>a</sup>while Joseph made himself known to his brothers. <sup>2</sup>And he <sup>b</sup>wept aloud, and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard it.

<sup>am</sup> Joseph; does my father still live?" But his brothers could not answer him, for they were dismayed in his presence. <sup>4</sup>And Joseph said to his brothers, "Please come near to me." So they came near. Then he said: "I <sup>am</sup> Joseph your brother, <sup>d</sup>whom you sold into Egypt. <sup>5</sup>But now, do not therefore be grieved or angry with yourselves because you sold me here; <sup>e</sup>for God sent me before you to preserve life. <sup>6</sup>For these two years the <sup>f</sup>famine has been in the land, and there are still five years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvesting. <sup>7</sup>And God <sup>g</sup>sent me before you to preserve a posterity for you in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance. <sup>8</sup>So now it was not you who sent me here, but <sup>h</sup>God; and He has made me <sup>i</sup>a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a <sup>j</sup>ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>"Hurry and go up to my father, and say to him, 'Thus says your son Joseph: God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not tarry. <sup>10</sup><sup>k</sup>You shall dwell in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near to me, you and your children, your children's children, your flocks and your herds, and all that you have. <sup>11</sup>There I will <sup>l</sup>provide for you, lest you and your household, and all that you have, come to poverty; for there are still five years of famine.'

<sup>12</sup>"And behold, your eyes and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see that it is <sup>m</sup>my mouth that speaks to you. <sup>13</sup>So you shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that you have seen; and you shall hurry and <sup>n</sup>bring my father down here."

<sup>16</sup>Now the report of it was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, "Joseph's brothers have come." So it pleased Pharaoh and his servants well. <sup>17</sup>And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Say to your brothers, 'Do this: Load your animals and depart; go to the land of Canaan. <sup>18</sup>Bring your father and

45:1–4 Real Love—A profound comparison can be made between the life of Joseph and the life of Christ. Both Joseph and Jesus were persecuted unjustly (Gen. 37:11–28; Matt. 26:59). Both were lost to their brothers for a while (Gen. 45:1–15; Rom. 10:1–4). Both later forgave and restored their repentant brothers (Gen. 45:1–15; Zech. 8:1–8).

45:3 I am Joseph. Joseph must have said this in Hebrew, finally dropping the ruse of the interpreter (42:23).

45:5 God sent me. God often permits the wicked to carry out their evil plans in order to fulfill some larger purpose He has for the objects of their violence and cruelty. Since it is not possible for us to see the whole picture from God's perspective, we must exercise faith and believe that the God of all the earth will do right and that all things do work together for good to those who love God, who are called according to His purpose. Joseph was able to freely forgive his brothers partly because he recognized that their sin had been turned by God into something good.

45:10 You shall dwell in the land of Goshen. This was God's plan. He had told Abraham that his descendants would live in a foreign land (15:13–16).

your households and come to me; I will give you the best of the land of Egypt, and you will eat <sup>19</sup>the fat of the land. <sup>19</sup>Now you are commanded—do this: Take carts out of the land of Egypt for your little ones and your wives; bring your father and come. <sup>20</sup>Also do not be concerned about your goods, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.”

<sup>21</sup>Then the sons of Israel did so; and Joseph gave them <sup>21a</sup>carts, according to the command of Pharaoh, and he gave them provisions for the journey. <sup>22</sup>He gave to all of them, to each man, <sup>22a</sup>changes of garments; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred <sup>22b</sup>pieces of silver and <sup>22c</sup>five changes of garments. <sup>23</sup>And he sent to his father these <sup>23a</sup>things: ten donkeys loaded with the good things of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain, bread, and food for his father for the journey. <sup>24</sup>So he sent his brothers away, and they departed; and he said to them, “See that you do not become troubled along the way.”

<sup>25</sup>Then they went up out of Egypt, and came to the land of Canaan to Jacob their father. <sup>26</sup>And they told him, saying, “Joseph is still alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt.” <sup>26a</sup>And Jacob’s heart stood still, because he did not believe them. <sup>27</sup>But when they told him all the words which Joseph had said to them, and when he saw the carts which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit <sup>27a</sup>of Jacob their father revived. <sup>28</sup>Then Israel said, “It is enough. Joseph my son is still alive. I will go and see him before I die.”

Jacob’s Journey to Egypt

46 So Israel took his journey with all that he had, and came to <sup>a</sup>Beersheba, and offered sacrifices <sup>b</sup>to the God of his father Isaac. <sup>2</sup>Then God spoke to Israel <sup>c</sup>in the visions of the night, and said, “Jacob, Jacob!”

And he said, “Here I am.”

<sup>3</sup>So He said, “I am God, <sup>d</sup>the God of your father; do not fear to go down to Egypt, for I will <sup>e</sup>make of you a great nation there. <sup>4</sup>I will go down with you to Egypt, and I will also surely <sup>f</sup>bring you up again; and <sup>h</sup>Joseph will put his hand on your eyes.”

the carts <sup>j</sup>which Pharaoh had sent to carry him. <sup>6</sup>So they took their livestock and their goods, which they had acquired in the land of Canaan, and went to Egypt. <sup>8</sup>Jacob and all his descendants with him. <sup>7</sup>His sons and his sons’ sons, his daughters and his sons’ daughters, and all his descendants he brought with him to Egypt.

46:2 Israel . . . Jacob. The fact that these names are used interchangeably indicates that the earlier negative connotations of the name Jacob had faded (31:11; 32:28; 35:10).

46:11 Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. These sons of Levi became the founders of the Levitical families (Ex. 6:16–19). Aaron and Moses descended from Kohath (Ex. 6:20–25).

Jacob Settles in Goshen

<sup>28</sup>Then he sent Judah before him to Joseph, to point out before him the way to Goshen. And they came to the land of Goshen. <sup>29</sup>So Joseph made ready his chariot and went up to Goshen to meet his father Israel; and he presented himself to him, and fell on his neck and wept on his neck a good while.

<sup>31</sup>Then Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, "I will go up and tell Pharaoh, and say to him, 'My brothers and those of my father's house, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me. <sup>32</sup>And the men are shepherds, for their occupation has been to feed livestock; and they have brought their flocks, their herds, and all that they have.' <sup>33</sup>So it shall be, when Pharaoh calls you and says, 'What is your occupation?' <sup>34</sup>that you shall say, 'Your servants' occupation has been with livestock from our youth even till now, both we and also our fathers,' that you may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians."

47 Then Joseph went and told Pharaoh, and said, "My father and my brothers, their flocks and their herds and all that they possess, have come from the land of Canaan; and indeed they are in the land of Goshen." <sup>2</sup>And he took five men from among his brothers and presented them to Pharaoh. <sup>3</sup>Then Pharaoh said to his brothers, "What is your occupation?"

And they said to Pharaoh, "Your servants are shepherds, both we and also our fathers." <sup>4</sup>And they said to Pharaoh, "We have come to dwell in the land, because your servants have no pasture for their flocks, for the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. Now therefore, please let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen."

<sup>5</sup>Then Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, "Your father and your brothers have come to you. <sup>6</sup>The land of Egypt is before you. Have your father and brothers dwell in the best of the land; let them dwell in the land of Goshen. And if you know any competent men among them, then make them chief herdsmen over my livestock."

<sup>9</sup>And Jacob said to Pharaoh, "The days of the years of my pilgrimage are more hundred and thirty years; few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and they have not attained to the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage." <sup>10</sup>So Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.

46:34 every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians. God used the racial and ethnic prejudice of the Egyptians as a way of preserving the ethnic and spiritual identity of His own people. Jacob's family was already intermarrying with the Canaanites (ch. 38) and was in danger of losing its identity as the people of God.

47:5–6 Pharaoh. There is some uncertainty concerning the identity of this pharaoh. Many believe he was Amenhotep I of the eleventh dynasty. Prior to his reign Egypt had suffered political and economic chaos for 200 years. Irrigation and building projects fell into ruin, and civil war raged. But Pharaoh Amenhotep was able to reunite Egypt, rebuilding the country and developing world trade. One of the reasons for his success no doubt stemmed from the fact that he was a generous man as we are told here. Not only was he generous to his own people, but he was kind to Israel. God had already promised to bless those who blessed the descendants of Abraham (Gen. 12:3). The lesson is clear. If a pagan king can experience

God's blessing for his generosity, how much more can born-again believers know the riches of heaven for their generosity? Solomon reminds us of this principle: "The generous soul will be made rich" (Prov. 11:25).

47:8 How old are you? Pharaoh's question suggests that the long ages of the patriarchal family were truly exceptional, even for this period. Jacob's final 147 years (47:28) were fewer than the 175 years of Abraham (25:7) and the 180 years of Isaac (35:28), but still a significant age.

brothers, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of <sup>a</sup>Rameses, <sup>a</sup>as Pharaoh had commanded. <sup>12</sup>Then Joseph provided his father, his brothers, and all <sup>a</sup>his father's household with bread, according to the number in their families.

Joseph Deals with the Famine

<sup>13</sup>Now there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very severe, <sup>t</sup>so that the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan languished because of the famine. <sup>14u</sup>And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, for the grain which they bought; and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.

<sup>15</sup>So when the money failed in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, "Give us bread, for <sup>v</sup>why should we die in your presence? For the money has failed."

<sup>16</sup>Then Joseph said, "Give your livestock, and I will give you bread for your livestock, if the money is gone." <sup>17</sup>So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for the horses, the flocks, the cattle of the herds, and for the donkeys. Thus he fed them with bread in exchange for all their livestock that year.

<sup>18</sup>When that year had ended, they came to him the next year and said to him, "We will not hide from my lord that our money is gone; my lord also has our herds of livestock. There is nothing left in the sight of my lord but our bodies and our lands.

<sup>19</sup>Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants of Pharaoh; give us seed, that we may <sup>w</sup>live and not die, that the land may not be desolate."

I have bought you and your land this day for Pharaoh. Look, here is seed for you, and you shall sow the land. <sup>24</sup>And it shall come to pass in the harvest that you shall give one-fifth to Pharaoh. Four-fifths shall be your own, as seed for the field and for your food, for those of your households and as food for your little ones."

<sup>25</sup>So they said, "You have saved <sup>a</sup>our lives; let us find favor in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants."

<sup>26</sup>And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt to this day, that Pharaoh should have one-fifth, <sup>b</sup>except for the land of the priests only, which did not become Pharaoh's.

Joseph's Vow to Jacob

<sup>27</sup>So Israel <sup>c</sup>dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions there and <sup>d</sup>grew and multiplied exceedingly. <sup>28</sup>And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. So the length of Jacob's life was one hundred and forty-seven years. <sup>29</sup>When the time <sup>e</sup>drew near that Israel must die, he called his son Joseph and said to him, "Now if I have found favor in your sight, please <sup>f</sup>put your hand under my thigh, and <sup>g</sup>deal kindly and truly with me. <sup>h</sup>Please do not bury me in Egypt, <sup>30</sup>but <sup>i</sup>let me lie with my fathers; you shall carry me out of Egypt and <sup>j</sup>bury me in their burial place."

And he said, "I will do as you have said."

<sup>31</sup>Then he said, "Swear to me." And he swore to him. So <sup>k</sup>Israel bowed himself on the head of the bed.

Jacob Blesses Joseph's Sons

48 Now it came to pass after these things that Joseph was told, "Indeed your father is sick"; and he took with him his two sons, <sup>a</sup>Manasseh and Ephraim. <sup>2</sup>And Jacob was told, "Look, your son Joseph is coming to you"; and Israel strengthened himself and sat up on the bed. <sup>3</sup>Then Jacob said to Joseph: "God <sup>b</sup>Almighty appeared to me at <sup>c</sup>Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me, <sup>4</sup>and said to me, 'Behold, I will <sup>d</sup>make you fruitful and multiply you, and I will make of you a multitude of people, and <sup>e</sup>give this land to your descendants after you <sup>f</sup>as an everlasting possession.'

47:20 the land. Pharaoh's ownership of all the land of Egypt would one day lead to gross abuses of power (see the Book of Exodus).

47:29 deal kindly and truly with me. In other words, "demonstrate to me the utmost covenant loyalty." Jacob showed his vigorous faith in God's promises by asking to be buried in the land promised to his descendants.

<sup>5</sup>And now your <sup>a</sup>two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, are mine; as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine. <sup>6</sup>Your offspring whom you beget after them shall be yours; they will be called by the name of their brothers in their inheritance. <sup>7</sup>But as for me, when I came from Padan, <sup>h</sup>Rachel died beside me in the land of Canaan on the way, when there was but a little distance to go to Ephrath; and I buried her there on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem)."

And he said, "Please bring them to me, and <sup>i</sup>I will bless them." <sup>10</sup>Now <sup>j</sup>the eyes of Israel were dim with age, so that he could not see. Then Joseph brought them near him, and he <sup>k</sup>kissed them and embraced them. <sup>11</sup>And Israel said to Joseph, <sup>l</sup>"I had not thought to see your face; but in fact, God has also shown me your offspring!"

The God who has fed me all my life long to this day,

from all evil,
Bless the lads;
Let <sup>s</sup>my name be named upon them,
And the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac;
And let them <sup>t</sup>grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth."

Ephraim, it displeased him; so he took hold of his father's hand to remove it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head. <sup>18</sup>And Joseph said to his father, "Not so, my father, for this one is the firstborn; put your right hand on his head."

<sup>19</sup>But his father refused and said, <sup>v</sup>"I know, my son, I know. He also shall become a people, and he also shall be great; but truly <sup>w</sup>his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his descendants shall become a multitude of nations."

<sup>20</sup>So he blessed them that day, saying, <sup>x</sup>"By you Israel will bless, saying, 'May God make you as Ephraim and as Manasseh!'" And thus he set Ephraim before Manasseh.

Jacob's Last Words to His Sons

And listen to Israel your father.

My might and the beginning of my strength,
The excellency of dignity and the excellency of power.

<sup>4</sup> Unstable as water, you shall not excel,
Because you <sup>d</sup>went up to your father's bed;
Then you defiled it—
He went up to my couch.

<sup>5</sup> "Simeon and Levi are brothers;

And in their self-will they hamstrung an ox.

And their wrath, for it is cruel!

48:5–7 Ephraim and Manasseh. As firstborn, Reuben should have received a double portion of the inheritance, but he had forfeited his birthright by his sins (35:22). By adopting Ephraim and Manasseh as his own sons, Jacob gave the double portion to Joseph.

48:22 one portion above. Jacob promised Joseph that he would one day return to the land of Canaan. The promise was fulfilled after Joseph's death (50:24–26).

49:5–7 Simeon and Levi. This prophecy was fulfilled when the Israelites settled in the Promised Land. Simeon's allotment was scattered within the larger portion of the tribe of Judah, and Levi's allotment was scattered cities throughout the land (Josh. 21).

49:10 scepter. With these words, Jacob predicted that a royal line would rise from Judah’s descendants. Shiloh is an obscure word, probably meaning “the one to whom it belongs.” In other words, Judah’s descendants would be the rulers of Israel until the coming of “Shiloh,” the One to whom all royal authority belongs. In this context, Shiloh, like “the Seed,” is a reference to the coming Messiah.

49:11–12 wine . . . blood. The imagery in this verse describes the warfare that the Messiah will wage to establish His reign (Ps. 2; 110; Rev. 19:11–21).

49:24 Shepherd. The image of God as a shepherd occurs many times in Scripture. This term would have had great significance for a family of shepherds. God shepherded and cared for their families just as they shepherded and cared for their own flocks. God is the one Good Shepherd (Ps. 23; John 10).

49:28 the twelve tribes of Israel. Jacob’s blessings are prophecies about the destiny of each tribe. Some of the blessings are obscure, but the blessings on Judah and Joseph are clear prophecies from God

Jacob's Death and Burial

<sup>29</sup>Then he charged them and said to them: "I am to be gathered to my people; <sup>30</sup>bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, <sup>31</sup>in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre in the land of Canaan, <sup>32</sup>which Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite as a possession for a burial place. <sup>33</sup>There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife, <sup>34</sup>there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife, and there I buried Leah. <sup>35</sup>The field and the cave that is there were purchased from the sons of Heth." <sup>36</sup>And when Jacob had finished commanding his sons, he drew his feet up into the bed and breathed his last, and was gathered to his people.

50 Then Joseph fell on his father's face and wept over him, and kissed him. <sup>2</sup>And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father. So the physicians embalmed Israel. <sup>3</sup>Forty days were required for him, for such are the days required for those who are embalmed; and the Egyptians mourned for him seventy days.

<sup>4</sup>Now when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spoke to the household of Pharaoh, saying, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, please speak in the hearing of Pharaoh, saying, <sup>5</sup>'My father made me swear, saying, "Behold, I am dying; in my grave which I dug for myself in the land of Canaan, there you shall bury me." Now therefore, please let me go up and bury my father, and I will come back.'" they mourned there with a great and very solemn lamentation. <sup>11</sup>He observed seven days of mourning for his father. <sup>12</sup>And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning at the threshing floor of Atad, they said, "This is a deep mourning of the Egyptians." Therefore its name was called Abel Mizraim,* which is beyond the Jordan.

<sup>13</sup>So his sons did for him just as he had commanded them. <sup>14</sup>For his sons carried him to the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, before Mamre, which Abraham bought with the field from Ephron the Hittite as property for a burial place. <sup>15</sup>And after he had buried his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers and all who went up with him to bury his father.

Joseph Reassures His Brothers

<sup>16</sup>When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "Perhaps Joseph will hate us, and may actually repay us for all the evil which we did to him." <sup>17</sup>So they sent messengers to Joseph, saying, "Before your father died he commanded, saying, <sup>18</sup>'Thus you shall say to Joseph: "I beg you, please forgive the trespass of your brothers and their sin; for they did evil to you." Now, please, forgive the trespass of the servants of the God of your father.' And Joseph wept when they spoke to him.

Death of Joseph

* 50:11 Literally Mourning of Egypt

about their destinies (compare Moses' blessing of the tribes of Israel, Deut. 33).

50:5-6 swear. Bound by an oath, Joseph requested leave to bury his father in Canaan in a place ready for his remains. It seems today that we do not take vows as seriously as Joseph took his promise to his father, and everything from casual promises to solemn marriage vows are broken with little remorse. Honoring vows, both in small matters and significant, honors God because He asks us to put away lying and speak truth (Eph. 4:25). Broken vows result in broken hearts and ruined relationships, blasted memories, ineffective lives and testimonies. Even a foolish or wrong vow cannot be lightly set aside, but must be repented of before God. We must learn to promise wisely, and honor our promises faithfully.

50:20 God meant it for good. God transformed the one hundred and ten years. <sup>23</sup>Joseph saw Ephraim's children <sup>u</sup>to the third generation. <sup>v</sup>The children of Machir, the son of Manasseh, <sup>w</sup>were also brought up on Joseph's knees.

<sup>24</sup>And Joseph said to his brethren, "I am dying; but <sup>x</sup>God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land to the land

50:24 to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. This phrase is the standard way of referring to God's covenant with Abraham's family (50:24; Ex. 2:24; 3:16). The recital of the three names reaffirms the certainty of the promise and God's commitment to fulfill it.

50:25 carry up my bones. Hundreds of years later,

Moses would keep the Israelites' oath by taking Joseph's bones with the people into the wilderness (Ex. 13:19). Finally, Joshua would bury the bones of Joseph at Shechem (Josh. 24:32).

THE SECOND BOOK OF MOSES CALLED EXODUS

► AUTHOR: Exodus has been attributed to Moses since the time of Joshua (cf. 20:25; Josh. 8:30–32), and there is a great deal of both internal and external evidence that supports Moses as the author. The claims in Joshua are backed by similar testimony from Malachi (4:4), the disciples (John 1:45), Paul (Rom. 10:5), and Christ (Mark 7:10; 12:26; Luke 20:37; John 5:46–47; 7:19,22–23). Portions of the book itself claim the authorship of Moses (ch. 15; 17:8–14; 20:1–17; 24:4,7,12; 31:18; 34:1–27). The author of Exodus must have been a man familiar with the customs and climate of Egypt. Its consistency of style points to a single author and its ancient literary devices support its antiquity.

► KEY VERSES: Ex. 19:5–6

► THEME: The main character of Exodus is clearly Moses. God gives him the job of leading the exodus from Egypt. Moses also takes on the job of establishing, at God's direction, the essential elements of the Jewish patterns of life and worship. He is simultaneously God's designated representative of the people to God and God's messenger and representative to the people. The critical events in Exodus are the Passover and the giving of the Ten Commandments. The remainder of the Old Testament continually refers back to God's deliverance of Israel from Egypt and the law as delivered at Sinai. In these events God's identity and purpose is revealed. There are many signs and wonders of His power. Aspects of His nature and His expectations of the people also become increasingly clear.

Israel's Suffering in Egypt

* 1:5 Literally who came from the loins of • Dead Sea Scrolls and Septuagint read seventy-five (compare Acts 7:14).

1:2–4 The sons are listed according to their mothers and their ages. Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun were all sons of Leah. Benjamin was the son of Rachel. Dan and Naphtali were sons of Bilhah, the maid of Rachel. Gad and Asher were sons of Zilpah, the maid of Leah (for each son's birth, see Gen. 29:31–35; 35:16–20,23–26).

1:8 a new king. This king did not remember Joseph, his privileged position in the older pharaoh's administration, his administrative skill that saved the Egyptians from starvation, and his enrichment of the pharaoh's treasury. This pharaoh was probably one of the Hyksos kings who descended from foreign invaders. Ethnically they were a minority in Egypt, and they may have perceived the growing numbers of Hebrews as a personal challenge.

1:11–22 to afflict them. Long before the sons of Israel came to Egypt, Abraham received a remarkable revelation from the Lord (Gen. 15:13–16): his descendants would be strangers in a foreign land and would be enslaved and oppressed for four hundred years. "In all their affliction He was afflicted" (Is. 63:9). At the point when Israel's afflictions became unbearable they cried for help, and God responded in faithfulness to His promise.

1:11 Pithom and Raamses. These storage cities are mentioned according to the names by which they

with their <sup>b</sup>burdens. And they built for Pharaoh <sup>k</sup>supply cities, Pithom <sup>l</sup>and Raamses. <sup>12</sup>But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were in dread of the children of Israel. <sup>13</sup>So the Egyptians made the children of Israel <sup>m</sup>serve with rigor. <sup>14</sup>And they <sup>n</sup>made their lives bitter with hard bondage—in mortar, in brick, and in all manner of service in the field. All their service in which they made them serve was with rigor.

Moses Is Born

were known in later times. The Pharaoh Ramses (whose name presumably relates to the name of one of these cities) was not yet in power.

1:15 king of Egypt. This king was probably not the Hyksos king alluded to in verses 8–14. This king, perhaps Thutmose I (c. 1539–1514 B.C.), ruled Egypt when Moses was born (2:1–10). Hebrew midwives. The names of these women (Shiphrah—“beautiful one,” and Puah—“splendid one”) are preserved in this account because they were godly women with a courageous faith. At the same time, the names of the pharaohs—the “important” people of the day—were omitted.

1:17 feared. The Hebrew term for “fear” is the word regularly used for piety, obedience, and the true worship of God (20:20; Gen. 22:12).

2:2 bore a son. This was not their first child; both Miriam and Aaron were older than Moses (v. 4; 7:7).

2:6 one of the Hebrews’ children. A Hebrew baby would have been circumcised on the eighth day. Although circumcision was practiced in Egypt, it was not done to infants. Upon unwrapping the infant’s clothing, the women would have seen his special mark.

<sup>7</sup>Then his sister said to Pharaoh’s daughter, “Shall I go and call a nurse for you from the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for you?”

<sup>8</sup>And Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Go.” So the maiden went and called the child’s mother. <sup>9</sup>Then Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Take this child away and nurse him for me, and I will give you your wages.” So the woman took the child and nursed him. <sup>10</sup>And the child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh’s daughter, and he became <sup>i</sup>her son. So she called his name Moses,* saying, “Because I drew him out of the water.”

Moses Flees to Midian

* 1:22 Samaritan Pentateuch, Septuagint, and Targum add to the Hebrews. * 2:10 Literally Drawn Out

2:10 Because I drew him out. In Hebrew, the name Moses means “he who draws out.” In this manner, Moses’ name can refer the reader to the living God, who is the true Deliverer, and also to Moses, who was used by God to deliver the Israelites from the Red Sea (chs. 14–15). The one who was drawn out of water would be the means of drawing the Israelite nation out of water.

2:11 when Moses was grown. The years of Moses’ experience in the pharaoh’s court are not detailed. Yet Stephen, the New Testament martyr, reported the long-held and surely accurate tradition: “Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and deeds” (Acts 7:22). The

this way and that way, and when he saw no one, he <sup>a</sup>killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand. <sup>13</sup>And <sup>w</sup>when he went out the second day, behold, two Hebrew men <sup>m</sup>were fighting, and he said to the one who did the wrong, “Why are you striking your companion?”

Moses at the Burning Bush

<sup>4</sup>So when the LORD saw that he turned aside to look, God called <sup>h</sup>to him from the midst of the bush and said, “Moses, Moses!”

And he said, “Here I am.”

<sup>6</sup>Moreover He said, “<sup>i</sup>I am the God of your father—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” And Moses hid his face, for <sup>j</sup>he was afraid to look upon God.

training Moses received was the best education the world had to offer at the time. He would have learned three languages: Egyptian, Akkadian, and Hebrew. When Moses came into the presence of Pharaoh to demand freedom for his people, he was no “uneducated slave,” but had received an education on a par with the king’s.

2:15 the land of Midian. This is the region of the Sinai Peninsula and Arabian deserts where the seminomadic Midianites lived (for the Abrahamic origin of this people group, see Gen. 25:1).

2:16 the priest of Midian. This man appears to have been a foreigner who had come to worship the true and living God.

2:18 Reuel. Reuel is also called Jethro (4:18).

2:19 An Egyptian. Moses apparently still dressed and spoke as an Egyptian, rather than as a Hebrew.

2:22 Gershom. Gershom means “a stranger there.” Moses was doubly removed from his land. He and his people, the Israelites, were strangers in Egypt, and now he was estranged even from his people.

2:23 the king of Egypt died. The death of Pharaoh (likely Thutmose III, who died about 1447 B.C.) meant that Moses could return to Egypt (4:19).

3:1 Horeb. This alternate name for Mount Sinai means “desolate place.” Yet because of God’s appearance on the mountain, this desolate place would become holy. Usually the site of this mountain is identified as Jebel el-Musa, a mountain in the southern Sinai Peninsula.

3:2 Angel. The word angel simply means “messenger” (Mal. 1:1). In the Old Testament, the term “the Angel of the LORD” is used numerous times, and is identified with God as well as being distinguished from Him. In this passage, having mentioned that the Angel of the Lord appeared to Moses, it is immediately established that it was the Lord Himself (v. 4).

3:6 the God of your father. God identified Himself as the God worshiped by Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. In announcing these names, the Lord was assuring Moses that the covenant He had made with them was still intact.

Egypt, and have heard their cry <sup>7</sup>because of their taskmasters, <sup>8</sup>for I know their sorrows. <sup>8</sup>So <sup>1</sup>I have come down to <sup>9</sup>deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up from that land to <sup>10</sup>a good and large land, to a land <sup>11</sup>flowing with milk and honey, to the place of <sup>12</sup>the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites. <sup>13</sup>Now therefore, behold, <sup>14</sup>the cry of the children of Israel has come to Me, and I have also seen the <sup>15</sup>oppression with which the Egyptians oppress them. <sup>16</sup>Come now, therefore, and I will send you to Pharaoh that you may bring My people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt.”

<sup>17</sup>But Moses said to God, <sup>18</sup>“Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?”

<sup>19</sup>So He said, <sup>20</sup>“I will certainly be with you. And this shall be a <sup>21</sup>sign to you that I have sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall serve God on this mountain.”

<sup>22</sup>Then Moses said to God, “Indeed, when I come to the children of Israel and say to them, ‘The God of your fathers has sent me to you,’ and they say to me, ‘What is His name?’ what shall I say to them?”

<sup>23</sup>And God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM.” And He said, “Thus you shall say to the children of Israel, <sup>24</sup>‘I AM has sent me to you.’” <sup>25</sup>Moreover God said to Moses, “Thus you shall say to the children of Israel: ‘The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is <sup>26</sup>My name forever, and this is My memorial to all generations.’” <sup>27</sup>Go and <sup>28</sup>gather the elders of Israel together, and say to them, ‘The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared to me, saying, <sup>29</sup>“I have surely visited you and seen what is done to you in Egypt; <sup>30</sup>and I have said <sup>31</sup>‘I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, to a land flowing with milk and honey.’”’ <sup>32</sup>Then <sup>33</sup>they will heed your voice; and <sup>34</sup>you shall come, you and the elders of Israel, to the king of Egypt; and you shall say to him, ‘The LORD God of the Hebrews has <sup>35</sup>met with us; and now, please, let us go three days’ journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.’”

Miraculous Signs for Pharaoh

4 Then Moses answered and said, “But suppose they will not believe me or listen to my voice; suppose they say, ‘The LORD has not appeared to you.’”

<sup>2</sup>So the LORD said to him, “What is that in your hand?”

He said, “A rod.”

<sup>3</sup>And He said, “Cast it on the ground.” So he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from it. <sup>4</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Reach out your hand and take it by the tail” (and he reached out his hand and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand), <sup>5</sup>“that they may <sup>6</sup>believe that the <sup>7</sup>LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you.”

<sup>6</sup>Furthermore the LORD said to him, “Now put your hand in your bosom.” And he put his hand in his bosom, and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous, <sup>7</sup>like snow. <sup>8</sup>And He said, “Put your hand in your bosom again.” So he put his hand in his bosom again, and drew it out of his bosom, and behold, <sup>9</sup>it was restored like his other flesh. <sup>10</sup>Then it will be, if they do not believe you, nor heed the message of the <sup>11</sup>first sign, that they may believe the message of the latter sign. <sup>12</sup>And it shall be, if they do not believe even these two signs, or listen to your voice, that you shall take

3:14 I AM WHO I AM. The One who spoke to Moses declared Himself to be the Eternal One—uncaused and independent. Only the Creator of all things can call Himself the I AM in the absolute sense; all other creatures are in debt to Him for their existence. But in addition, God the Creator declares His relationship with the people of Israel. The future tense of the Hebrew verb related to God’s name is used in verse 12: The I AM will be with His people. Thus God declares His covenantal relationship with Israel by His name.

3:15 The LORD. LORD in capital letters is the form translators have chosen to represent the Hebrew name YHWH (also transliterated Yahweh, or Jehovah). The Hebrew word meaning “I Am” used in verse 14 is very similar.

4:6–7 leprous. The term leprosy included a wide variety of skin diseases.

water from the river* and pour it on the dry land. †The water which you take from the river will become blood on the dry land.”

<sup>10</sup>Then Moses said to the LORD, “O my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither before nor since You have spoken to Your servant; but ‡I am slow of speech and slow of tongue.”

<sup>11</sup>So the LORD said to him, §“Who has made man’s mouth? Or who makes the mute, the deaf, the seeing, or the blind? Have not I, the LORD? ||Now therefore, go, and I will be ¶with your mouth and teach you what you shall say.”

Moses Goes to Egypt

<sup>18</sup>So Moses went and returned to ¶Jethro his father-in-law, and said to him, “Please let me go and return to my brethren who are in Egypt, and see whether they are still alive.”

4:19 who sought your life. God promised Abraham that those who persecuted Israel would be judged (Gen. 12:3), and it is clear from history that God fulfilled His promise. In Exodus 14, the Egyptians attempted to destroy the Israelites by driving them into the Red Sea, but instead were drowned themselves. Those who threw Daniel to the lions were devoured by those same beasts (Dan. 6). Haman plotted to destroy all the Jews in Persia, and ended up signing his own death warrant (Esth. 7). “The LORD preserves all who love Him” (Ps. 145:20).

4:21 Pharaoh. This pharaoh was most likely Amenhotep II (c. 1447–1421). I will harden his heart. Some interpret these words to mean that God would confirm what Pharaoh had stubbornly determined to do. In the first five plagues, the hardening was attributed to Pharaoh (7:13,22; 8:15,19,32; 9:7). Then for the sixth plague, God hardened a heart that had already rejected Him (9:12). Others insist that God had determined Pharaoh’s negative response to Moses long before Pharaoh could harden his heart. These interpreters point to this verse and to 9:16, in which God says that He raised up Pharaoh for the purpose of demonstrating His power.

4:24 sought to kill him. The precise meaning of this passage is unclear. Apparently someone in Moses’ family was not circumcised, despite God’s command. It is possible that Moses had kept one of his sons uncircumcised in order to please his Midianite family. (The Midianites practiced adult male circumcision at the time of marriage, rather than infant circumcision as the Hebrews did.) Moses’ neglect of the sign of God’s covenant was very serious, especially for the future leader of God’s people.

First Encounter with Pharaoh

5 Afterward Moses and Aaron went in and told Pharaoh, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel: ‘Let My people go, that they may hold <sup>a</sup>a feast to Me in the wilderness.’”

<sup>10</sup>And the taskmasters of the people and their officers went out and spoke to the people, saying, “Thus says Pharaoh: ‘I will not give you straw. <sup>11</sup>Go, get yourselves straw where you can find it; yet none of your work will be reduced.’” <sup>12</sup>So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble instead of straw. <sup>13</sup>And the taskmasters forced them to hurry, saying, “Fulfill your work, your daily quota, as when there was straw.” <sup>14</sup>Also the officers of the children of Israel, whom Pharaoh’s taskmasters had set over them, were <sup>k</sup>beaten and were asked, “Why have you not fulfilled your task in making brick both yesterday and today, as before?”

<sup>20</sup>Then, as they came out from Pharaoh, they met Moses and Aaron who stood there to meet them. <sup>21</sup>And they said to them, “Let the LORD look on you and judge, because you have made us abhorrent in the sight of Pharaoh and in the sight of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to kill us.”

Israel’s Deliverance Assured

<sup>22</sup>So Moses returned to the LORD and said, “Lord, why have You brought trouble on this people? Why is it You have sent me? <sup>23</sup>For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in Your name, he has done evil to this people; neither have You delivered Your people at all.”

6 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh. For <sup>a</sup>with a strong hand he will let them go, and with a strong hand <sup>b</sup>he will drive them out of his land.”

<sup>2</sup>And God spoke to Moses and said to him: “I am the LORD. <sup>3</sup><sup>c</sup>I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, as <sup>d</sup>God Almighty, but by My name <sup>e</sup>LORD* I was not known to them. <sup>4</sup>I have also established My covenant with them, <sup>e</sup>to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, <sup>h</sup>in which they were strangers. <sup>5</sup>And <sup>i</sup>I have also heard the groaning of the children of

5:2 Who is the Lord. Later these words would haunt Pharaoh (12:31–32). Meanwhile, Pharaoh believed himself to be a god in his own right, and certainly felt no need to cave in to the demands of a god who claimed to be the champion of his slave labor force.

5:7–9 Let them go and gather straw for themselves. It is easy to rationalize our cruel treatment of others when it is in our selfish interest to do so. We often hear “Pharaoh’s reasoning” about minority peoples or people on welfare today. Of course laziness and discontent is a genuine problem for some who are on welfare, or who feel oppressed (just as it is for some who were born into wealth and privilege), but too often we turn off the concern we should have for the poor and oppressed with the comfortable conviction that somehow they deserve their problems. If we continue in this attitude, we may be sure that God will judge our sin. God cares deeply for the weak, the poor, and the downtrodden; if we are genuine disciples we will share His concern.

5:23 speak in Your name. It seems that Moses expected Pharaoh to cave in as soon as he heard the use of the Lord’s name Yahweh (3:13–15; 5:1). Yet God had warned Moses that Pharaoh would do the opposite (3:19; 4:21).

6:4 My covenant. This is a reference to the Abrahamic covenant celebrated in Genesis (Gen. 12:1–3; 15:12–21; 17:1–16; 22:15–18).

Israel whom the Egyptians keep in bondage, and I have remembered My covenant. <sup>6</sup>Therefore say to the children of Israel: <sup>7</sup>I am the LORD; <sup>8</sup>I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, I will <sup>9</sup>rescue you from their bondage, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with great judgments. <sup>10</sup>I will <sup>11</sup>take you as My people, and <sup>12</sup>I will be your God. Then you shall know that I am the LORD your God who brings you out <sup>13</sup>from under the burdens of the Egyptians. <sup>14</sup>And I will bring you into the land which I <sup>15</sup>swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; and I will give it to you as a heritage: I am the LORD.<sup>16</sup> So Moses spoke thus to the children of Israel; <sup>17</sup>but they did not heed Moses, because of <sup>18</sup>anguish of spirit and cruel bondage.

The Family of Moses and Aaron

<sup>25</sup>These are the same Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said, Bring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their <sup>26</sup>armies. <sup>27</sup>These are the ones who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Israel from Egypt. These are the same Moses and Aaron.

Aaron Is Moses' Spokesman

6:14–27 their fathers'. The family history of Moses, Aaron, and Miriam is important because all of Israel's future priests would come from this family.

7:1 your prophet. As Moses was the prophet of the Lord, so Aaron became Moses' prophet. Aaron would speak for Moses, for a prophet was the "mouth" of the one who sent him.

7:3 I will harden Pharaoh's heart. It was a part of God's plan that Pharaoh would be inflexibly stubborn, thus setting the scene for God to deliver His people by powerful signs and wonders.

the LORD commanded them, so they did. <sup>7</sup>And Moses was <sup>n</sup>eighty years old and <sup>o</sup>Aaron eighty-three years old when they spoke to Pharaoh.

Aaron's Miraculous Rod

The First Plague: Waters Become Blood

Behold, I will strike the waters which are in the river with the rod that is in my hand, and <sup>c</sup>they shall be turned <sup>d</sup>to blood. <sup>18</sup>And the fish that are in the river shall die, the river shall stink, and the Egyptians will <sup>e</sup>loathe to drink the water of the river.”

<sup>19</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Take your rod and <sup>f</sup>stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their streams, over their rivers, over their ponds, and over all their pools of water, that they may become blood. And there shall be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in <sup>g</sup>buckets of wood and <sup>h</sup>pitchers of stone.’” <sup>20</sup>And Moses and Aaron did so, just as the LORD commanded. So he <sup>i</sup>lifted up the rod and struck the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh and in the sight of his servants. And all the <sup>j</sup>waters that were in the river were turned to blood. <sup>21</sup>The fish that were in the river died, the river stank, and the Egyptians <sup>k</sup>could not drink the water of the river. So there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

The Second Plague: Frogs

8 And the LORD spoke to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD: ‘Let My people go, <sup>n</sup>that they may serve Me. <sup>2</sup>But if you <sup>b</sup>refuse to let them go,

7:7 eighty . . . eighty-three. These men had already lived as long as the average lifetime of our day before their principal life work had begun. Moses and Aaron each lived another forty years as leaders of the nation of Israel.

7:9–10 Miracles—A miracle could be defined as the temporary suspension of some natural law (like turning a staff into a snake), or the manipulation of natural forces (such as weather) over which humans ordinarily have no jurisdiction. We tend to look for miracles only for their immediate results (healing, retribution, etc.), but in the Bible miracles are always for a “sign.” The focus isn't on the actual miracle, but on the supernatural as a sign of God's working in the situation. This is clearly seen in the miracles of Jesus. If His purpose had just been physical healing, He would have set up a clinic and systematically healed everyone. Instead, His miracles were for a sign, to let people know who and what He was (John 20:30–31).

7:11 wise men . . . sorcerers . . . magicians. The king's wise men were his counselors, men of learning and insight. In ancient times, the “wise men” of a court were often associated with occult practices. The power of these men may have been in trickery and sleight-of-hand illusions, or demonic power. Later the royal courts of Israel had wise men (1 Kin. 4:34; Prov.

25:1), but the black arts of sorcery, divination, and astrology were forbidden (Deut. 18:9–14).

7:12 his rod . . . serpents. The text does not say whether this was a genuine transformation or a trick of Pharaoh's evil sorcerers. Whatever the case, their serpents were no match for the serpent of God's sign.

7:15 to the water . . . the river's bank. Pharaoh went to the waters of the Nile not to bathe but to be empowered. Pharaoh's bath in the Nile was a sacred Egyptian rite connected to his claim of divinity. The plague on the waters of the Nile was a direct attack on the Egyptian religion.

7:23 turned and went into his house. Pharaoh showed his utter disdain for the revelation of God's power and his complete lack of concern for the suffering of his own people.

behold, I will smite all your territory with frogs. <sup>3</sup>So the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into your house, into your <sup>4</sup>bedroom, on your bed, into the houses of your servants, on your people, into your ovens, and into your kneading bowls. <sup>4</sup>And the frogs shall come up on you, on your people, and on all your servants.””

<sup>8</sup>Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, <sup>h</sup>“Entreat the LORD that He may take away the frogs from me and from my people; and I will let the people <sup>i</sup>go, that they may sacrifice to the LORD.”

<sup>9</sup>And Moses said to Pharaoh, “Accept the honor of saying when I shall intercede for you, for your servants, and for your people, to destroy the frogs from you and your houses, that they may remain in the river only.”

<sup>10</sup>So he said, “Tomorrow.” And he said, “Let it be according to your word, that you may know that <sup>i</sup>there is no one like the LORD our God.” <sup>11</sup>And the frogs shall depart from you, from your houses, from your servants, and from your people. They shall remain in the river only.”

<sup>12</sup>Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh. And Moses <sup>k</sup>cried out to the LORD concerning the frogs which He had brought against Pharaoh. <sup>13</sup>So the LORD did according to the word of Moses. And the frogs died out of the houses, out of the courtyards, and out of the fields. <sup>14</sup>They gathered them together in heaps, and the land stank. <sup>15</sup>But when Pharaoh saw that there was <sup>l</sup>relief, <sup>m</sup>he hardened his heart and did not heed them, as the LORD had said.

8:7 the magicians . . . with their enchantments. We do not know how or in what quantities the magicians produced frogs, but doing so hardly helped the situation. Clearly the power they had was not strong enough to counteract the plagues God sent.

8:8 called for Moses and Aaron. Note that Pharaoh did not turn to his magicians to relieve the land of the frogs.

8:15 Instability—The action of this Egyptian pharaoh is a case study in instability. He gave permission for the people to go and then changed his mind more than once. He alternated between denying the power of God and actually admitting his sin. Pharaoh was a rebel against God, tossed about by his own lack of integrity. Believers can take warning from Pharaoh's behavior. The apostle James informs us that a double-minded man is unstable in all his ways (James 1:8). But stability isn't something we

The Third Plague: Lice

<sup>16</sup>So the LORD said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Stretch out your rod, and strike the dust of the land, so that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.’” <sup>17</sup>And they did so. For Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod and struck the dust of the earth, and <sup>n</sup>it became lice on man and beast. All the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

<sup>18</sup>Now <sup>o</sup>the magicians so worked with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they <sup>p</sup>could not. So there were lice on man and beast. <sup>19</sup>Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, “This is <sup>q</sup>the finger of God.” But Pharaoh's heart grew hard, and he did not heed them, just as the LORD had said.

The Fourth Plague: Flies

achieve by sheer willpower. Real integrity and stability come from the security of our relationship with God.

8:18 the magicians . . . enchantments . . . but they could not. Perhaps the lack of announcement meant they had no time to prepare. The magicians could not duplicate God's work, further proof that this was no trick, but the hand of God.

<sup>26</sup>And Moses said, “It is not right to do so, for we would be sacrificing <sup>a</sup>the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God. If we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, then will they not stone us? <sup>27</sup>We will go <sup>b</sup>three days’ journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to the LORD our God as <sup>c</sup>He will command us.”

The Fifth Plague: Livestock Diseased

<sup>6</sup>So the LORD did this thing on the next day, and <sup>f</sup>all the livestock of Egypt died; but of the livestock of the children of Israel, not one died. <sup>7</sup>Then Pharaoh sent, and indeed, not even one of the livestock of the Israelites was dead. But the <sup>g</sup>heart of Pharaoh became hard, and he did not let the people go.

The Sixth Plague: Boils

<sup>8</sup>So the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Take for yourselves handfuls of ashes from a furnace, and let Moses scatter it toward the heavens in the sight of Pharaoh. <sup>9</sup>And it will become fine dust in all the land of Egypt, and it will cause <sup>h</sup>boils that break out in sores on man and beast throughout all the land of Egypt.” <sup>10</sup>Then they took ashes from the furnace and stood before Pharaoh, and Moses scattered them toward heaven. And they caused <sup>i</sup>boils that break out in sores on man and beast. <sup>11</sup>And the <sup>j</sup>magicians could not stand before Moses because of the <sup>k</sup>boils, for the boils were on the magicians and on all the Egyptians. <sup>12</sup>But the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh; and he <sup>l</sup>did not heed them, just <sup>m</sup>as the LORD had spoken to Moses.

The Seventh Plague: Hail

<sup>13</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Rise early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh, and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews: “Let My people go, that they may <sup>o</sup>serve Me, <sup>14</sup>for at this time I will send all My plagues to your very heart, and on your servants and on your people, <sup>n</sup>that you may know that there is none like Me in all the earth. <sup>15</sup>Now if I had <sup>q</sup>stretched out My hand and struck you and your people with <sup>r</sup>pestilence, then you would have been cut off from the earth. <sup>16</sup>But indeed for <sup>s</sup>this purpose I have raised you up, that I may <sup>t</sup>show My power in you, and that My <sup>u</sup>name may be declared in all the earth. <sup>17</sup>As yet you exalt yourself against My people in that you will not let them go. <sup>18</sup>Behold, tomorrow about this time I will cause very heavy hail to rain down, such as has not been in Egypt since its founding until now. <sup>19</sup>Therefore send now and gather your livestock and

8:26 the abomination of the Egyptians. Moses employed the ethnic and cultural sensibilities of the Egyptians to free the Israelites (Gen. 43:32; 46:34). The sacrificial animals of Israel would include sheep, something the Egyptians regarded as detestable.

9:11 for the boils were upon the magicians. The reference to the hapless magicians is almost humorous. Not only were they powerless, but they also suffered from the plague.

9:16 for this purpose I have raised you up. God used Pharaoh’s stubbornness and disobedience to demonstrate His power. Pharaoh was not only an evil ruler in a powerful state; he was an evil man, ungodly, and unrighteous. Pharaoh set himself up as a god who maintained the stability of his kingdom. The Lord’s judgment on him was an appropriate response to this fraud.

9:17 you exalt yourself. Pharaoh was behaving like the king of Tyre (Ezek. 28:1–10) and Satan, whom the king of Tyre emulated (Ezek. 28:11–19).

9:19 gather your livestock. The fact that God was judging Pharaoh does not mean that He was unmerciful. The Lord could have destroyed Pharaoh and his people in a moment (v. 15), but instead He warned them of the calamities about to befall them. Apparently some of the Egyptians took the word of the Lord seriously.

all that you have in the field, for the hail shall come down on every man and every animal which is found in the field and is not brought home; and they shall die.””

<sup>29</sup>So Moses said to him, “As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will <sup>g</sup>spread out my hands to the LORD; the thunder will cease, and there will be no more hail, that you may know that the <sup>h</sup>earth is the LORD’s. <sup>30</sup>But as for you and your servants, <sup>i</sup>I know that you will not yet fear the LORD God.”

<sup>31</sup>Now the flax and the barley were struck, <sup>j</sup>for the barley was in the head and the flax was in bud. <sup>32</sup>But the wheat and the spelt were not struck, for they are late crops.

<sup>33</sup>So Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh and <sup>k</sup>spread out his hands to the LORD; then the thunder and the hail ceased, and the rain was not poured on the earth. <sup>34</sup>And when Pharaoh saw that the rain, the hail, and the thunder had ceased, he sinned yet more; and he hardened his heart, he and his servants. <sup>35</sup>So <sup>l</sup>the heart of Pharaoh was hard; neither would he let the children of Israel go, as the LORD had spoken by Moses.

The Eighth Plague: Locusts

10 Now the LORD said to Moses, “Go in to Pharaoh; <sup>m</sup>for I have hardened his heart and the hearts of his servants, <sup>n</sup>that I may show these signs of Mine before him, <sup>2</sup>and that <sup>o</sup>you may tell in the hearing of your son and your son’s son the mighty things I have done in Egypt, and My signs which I have done among them, that you may <sup>p</sup>know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>3</sup>So Moses and Aaron came in to Pharaoh and said to him, “Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews: ‘How long will you refuse to <sup>q</sup>humble yourself before Me? Let My people go, that they may <sup>r</sup>serve Me. <sup>4</sup>Or else, if you refuse to let My people go, behold, tomorrow I will bring <sup>s</sup>locusts into your territory. <sup>5</sup>And they shall cover the face of the earth, so that no one will be able to see the earth; and <sup>t</sup>they shall eat the residue of what is left, which remains to you from the hail, and they shall eat every tree which grows up for you out of the field. <sup>6</sup>They shall <sup>u</sup>fill your houses, the houses of all your servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians—which neither your fathers nor your fathers’ fathers have seen, since the day that they were on the earth to this day.’” And he turned and went out from Pharaoh.

<sup>8</sup>So Moses and Aaron were brought again to Pharaoh, and he said to them, “Go, serve the LORD your God. Who are the ones that are going?”

<sup>9</sup>And Moses said, “We will go with our young and our old; with our sons and our daughters, with our flocks and our herds we will go, for <sup>we</sup> we must hold a feast to the LORD.”

<sup>10</sup>Then he said to them, “The LORD had

9:27 I have sinned. This was a stunning admission for such a proud man. Sadly, these words of contrition would not hold. Pharaoh repeated them later (10:16–17), only to take them back in the end.

10:1 I have hardened his heart. Three verbs are used in Exodus to describe God’s hardening of Pharaoh’s heart. Usually the verb meaning “to make hard” is used (4:21). In 7:3 the verb “to make stiff” is used. Here the Hebrew verb that means “to make heavy” or “to make insensitive” is used.

10:3 refuse to humble yourself. Pharaoh’s pride was his undoing. He believed himself to be a god and paraded himself like one. God resists the better be with you when I let you and your little ones go! Beware, for evil is ahead of you. <sup>11</sup>Not so! Go now, you who are men, and serve the LORD, for that is what you desired.” And they were driven <sup>m</sup>out from Pharaoh’s presence.

<sup>16</sup>Then Pharaoh called <sup>t</sup>for Moses and Aaron in haste, and said, <sup>u</sup>“I have sinned against the LORD your God and against you. <sup>17</sup>Now therefore, please forgive my sin only this once, and <sup>v</sup>entreat the LORD your God, that He may take away from me this death only.” <sup>18</sup>So he <sup>w</sup>went out from Pharaoh and entreated the LORD. <sup>19</sup>And the LORD turned a very strong west wind, which took the locusts away and blew them <sup>x</sup>into the Red Sea. There remained not one locust in all the territory of Egypt. <sup>20</sup>But the LORD <sup>y</sup>hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not let the children of Israel go.

The Ninth Plague: Darkness

<sup>21</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>z</sup>“Stretch out your hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, darkness which may even be felt.” <sup>22</sup>So

Moses stretched out his hand toward heaven, and there was <sup>a</sup>thick darkness in all the land of Egypt <sup>b</sup>three days. <sup>23</sup>They did not see one another; nor did anyone rise from his place for three days. <sup>c</sup>But all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.

<sup>25</sup>But Moses said, “You must also give us sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God. <sup>26</sup>Our <sup>f</sup>live-stock also shall go with us; not a hoof shall be left behind. For we must take some of them to serve the LORD our God, and even we do not know with what we must serve the LORD until we arrive there.”

Death of the Firstborn Announced

11 And the LORD said to Moses, “I will bring one more plague on Pharaoh and on Egypt. <sup>a</sup>Afterward he will let you go from here. <sup>b</sup>When he lets you go, he will surely drive you out of here altogether. <sup>2</sup>Speak now in the hearing of the people, and let every man ask from his neighbor and every woman from her neighbor, articles of silver and <sup>c</sup>articles of gold.” <sup>3d</sup>And the LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover the man <sup>e</sup>Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh’s servants and in the sight of the people.

10:12–16 Repentance—In Exodus 9 and 10 there are two vivid examples of “foxhole religion” recorded for us. This kind of “faith” freely acknowledges the person and power of God during a terrible crisis, and then promptly forgets all about Him when the danger passes. Just like little children, we want to avert punishment by saying, “I’m sorry, I’m sorry!” and then go about our business as usual. God is not interested in empty “I’ve sinned” confessions. Only true repentance from the heart is acceptable to God.

10:20 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart. See 3:19; 4:21; 5:2; 7:3,13–14.

10:22 thick darkness. This calamity was another direct attack on the Egyptian religious system. They worshiped many gods, but none so much as the sun. An enshrouding darkness that lasted three days was a clear statement that their gods, their Pharaoh with his supposed control of nature, and all Pharaoh’s counselors were, in reality, helpless before the God of Israel.

10:27 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart. See 3:19; 4:21; 5:2; 7:3,13–14.

11:3 favor. After all that had happened, we might suppose that the Egyptians would have universally hated the Hebrews. Instead, most of the people felt positively towards them, even Pharaoh’s own servants.

behind the handmill, and all the firstborn of the animals. <sup>6h</sup>Then there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, <sup>i</sup>such as was not like it before, nor shall be like it again. <sup>7</sup>But against none of the children of Israel <sup>k</sup>shall a dog move its tongue, against man or beast, that you may know that the LORD does make a difference between the Egyptians and Israel. <sup>8</sup>And <sup>l</sup>all these your servants shall come down to me and bow down to me, saying, 'Get out, and all the people who follow you!' After that I will go out." <sup>m</sup>Then he went out from Pharaoh in great anger.

<sup>9</sup>But the LORD said to Moses, <sup>n</sup>"Pharaoh will not heed you, so that <sup>o</sup>My wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt." <sup>10</sup>So Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh; <sup>p</sup>and the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

The Passover Instituted

12 Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, <sup>2a</sup>"This month shall be your beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year to you. <sup>3</sup>Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying: 'On the <sup>b</sup>tenth of this month every man shall take for himself a lamb, according to the house of his father, a lamb for a household. <sup>4</sup>And if the household is too small for the lamb, let him and his neighbor next to his house take it according to the number of the persons; according to each man's need you shall make your count for the lamb. <sup>5</sup>Your lamb shall be <sup>c</sup>without blemish, a male of the first year. You may take it from the sheep or from the goats. <sup>6</sup>Now you shall keep it until the <sup>d</sup>fourteenth day of the same month. Then the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it at twilight. <sup>7</sup>And they shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and on the lintel of the houses where they eat it. <sup>8</sup>Then they shall eat the flesh on that <sup>e</sup>night; <sup>f</sup>roasted in fire, with <sup>g</sup>unleavened bread and with bitter herbs they shall eat it. <sup>9</sup>Do not eat it raw, nor boiled at all with water, but <sup>h</sup>roasted in fire—its head with its legs and its entrails. <sup>10</sup>You shall let none of it remain until morning, and what remains of it until morning you shall burn with fire. <sup>11</sup>And thus you shall eat it: with a belt on your waist, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. So you shall eat it in haste. <sup>i</sup>It is the LORD's Passover.

11:7 a difference between the Egyptians and Israel. The institution of the Passover accentuated this great distinction. The Lord in His mercy protected His people even as He executed judgment on those who opposed Him.

11:9–10 wonders. We tend to think that if God would only send a miracle, people would have to believe. Sadly, history shows that this is not true. Often those individuals who have seen God's mightiest miracles have responded by displaying a total lack of faith. Pharaoh had all the proof one could want of who God was, and did not believe. The Pharisees saw a man raised from the dead, and wanted to kill both the man and his healer (John 11:53; 12:9–11). God desires us to believe His word by faith, and not be dependent on supernatural and external signs and wonders. Miracles are signs, just as the creation itself is a sign of God's power and authority (Rom. 1:19–20), but a person whose heart is hardened toward God will not be any more impressed with a miracle than with a sunset.

12:1–14 The Passover—There was only one Passover. The Passover feast has always been one of the primary elements of Jewish religious tradition and is their way of remembering the "pass over" by the Lord, sparing the people of a visit by "the destroyer" (v. 23). By celebrating it, Jews remember one of the key elements of their history. It points to their national identity and to their deliverance as a community of faith. One could say that it was a defining moment of their faith. For the Christian, the event clearly foreshadows the cross of Christ. He is our Passover Lamb who delivers us from death by taking it all on Himself.

The parallels between Exodus 12 and the Christian communion service are noteworthy (1 Cor. 11:23–26).

12:2 your beginning of months. This month, called Abib in 13:4 corresponds to April/May and is also called Nisan. The Hebrew people began to mark time in relation to the time of their departure from Egypt.

12:5 without blemish. Sacrifice was not a way to get rid of unwanted animals. Only the very best lambs were suitable. The Passover lamb sacrificed for the Israelites was meant as a picture of the coming death of the perfect, sinless Savior, Jesus Christ.

12:8 unleavened bread . . . bitter herbs. The Passover meal is full of symbolism, the unleavened bread reminded them that the first Passover was eaten in haste, ready for flight. The bitter herbs were a reminder of the bitterness of the slavery from which they were rescued.

12:12 I will pass through . . . I will execute. The repetition of the pronoun "I" emphasizes that God did this, not an angel or some other agent.

12:13 sign. The term "sign" can mean a reminder, memorial, or symbol, as it does here, or a miracle that points to the power of God.

For whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, <sup>16</sup>that person shall be cut off from Israel. <sup>16b</sup>On the first day there shall be <sup>16c</sup>a holy convocation, and on the seventh day there shall be a holy convocation for you. No manner of work shall be done on them; but that which everyone must eat—that only may be prepared by you. <sup>17</sup>So you shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread, for <sup>18</sup>on this same day I will have brought your armies <sup>19</sup>out of the land of Egypt. <sup>21</sup>Then <sup>22</sup>Moses called for all the <sup>23</sup>elders of Israel and said to them, <sup>24</sup>“Pick out and take lambs for yourselves according to your families, and kill the Passover lamb. <sup>25a</sup>And you shall take a bunch of hyssop, dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and <sup>25b</sup>strike the lintel and the two doorposts with the blood that is in the basin. And none of you shall go out of the door of his house until morning. <sup>26</sup>For the LORD will pass through to strike the Egyptians; and when He sees the <sup>27</sup>blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, the LORD will pass over the door and <sup>28</sup>not allow <sup>29</sup>the destroyer to come into your houses to strike you. <sup>30</sup>And you shall <sup>31</sup>observe this thing as an ordinance for you and your sons forever. <sup>32</sup>It will come to pass when you come to the land which the LORD will give you, <sup>33</sup>just as He promised, that you shall keep this service. <sup>34</sup>And it shall be, when your children say to you, ‘What do you mean by this service?’ <sup>35</sup>that you shall say, <sup>36</sup>‘It is the Passover sacrifice of the LORD, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt when He struck the Egyptians and delivered our households.’” So the people <sup>37</sup>bowed their heads and worshiped. <sup>38</sup>Then the children of Israel went away and <sup>39</sup>did so; just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

The Tenth Plague: Death of the Firstborn

The Exodus

12:29–33 the LORD struck all the firstborn. In the Passover we have a summary of God’s eternal plan of salvation. Jesus, the final sacrifice, was killed at the time of the Passover feast; His blood provides salvation from eternal death. Note some similarities between the first and final Passover: (1) the blood of an innocent sacrifice must be shed, (2) the sacrifice must be blameless, and (3) the shed blood must be applied by faith.

12:29 and all the firstborn of livestock. Though not nearly as awful as the death of firstborn children, the death of the livestock was a blow to the Egyptians economically. These deaths were also attacks on the power of their gods (v. 12).

12:32 and bless me also. At last Pharaoh capitulated (10:9,26). The death of his son—and the deaths of firstborn sons everywhere—must have shattered him to the core of his being.

pushing the family silver into their hands. Far from wanting to keep the Israelites in bondage, the rest of Egypt couldn’t wait to get rid of them.

12:37 Rameses. The reference to Rameses most likely relates to the store city Raames, mentioned in 1:11, perhaps Tel el-Maskhuta further to the east. six hundred thousand men. This number of men would hundred thousand men on foot, besides children. <sup>38</sup>A <sup>b</sup>mixed multitude went up with them also, and flocks and herds—a great deal of <sup>c</sup>livestock. <sup>39</sup>And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they had brought out of Egypt; for it was not leavened, because <sup>d</sup>they were driven out of Egypt and could not wait, nor had they prepared provisions for themselves.

Passover Regulations

indicate a total population of perhaps three million men, women, and children (Num. 1:46).

12:38 mixed multitude. Apparently a number of Egyptians and perhaps other non-Hebrews joined the flight out of Egypt. Some of these people later caused trouble when things did not go as smoothly as expected (Num. 11:4).

12:39 unleavened cakes. The symbolism in this has to do with the haste of their departure, not (as some have supposed) that there is something evil in leaven itself. If leaven were intrinsically evil, the Israelites would have been forbidden to eat leaven at any time. In the New Testament, leaven is often used as a symbolic way of speaking about sin, but again, leaven in and of itself is not evil.

12:40 four hundred and thirty years. If the Exodus took place around 1446 B.C., Jacob’s arrival in Egypt would have been around 1876 B.C.

12:46 nor shall you break one of its bones. Not breaking the bones of the lamb foreshadowed Jesus’ death. None of the Savior’s bones were broken, even though He suffered a horrible death (Ps. 34:20; John 19:33–36).

13:1–22 Consecrate to Me. Before the dramatic story of the crossing of the Red Sea there is a record

<sup>50</sup>Thus all the children of Israel did; as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did. <sup>51</sup>oAnd it came to pass, on that very same day, that the LORD brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt <sup>p</sup>according to their armies.

The Firstborn Consecrated

13 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2a</sup>“Consecrate to Me all the firstborn, whatever opens the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and beast; it is Mine.”

The Feast of Unleavened Bread

of foundational institutions that the Lord gave to Israel. These are: (1) the consecration of the firstborn (vv. 1–2); (2) the Feast of Unleavened Bread (vv. 3–10); and (3) the law concerning the firstborn (vv. 11–16). This is followed by the Lord’s command to the Israelites to travel in an unexpected direction (vv. 17–22).

13:9 sign. A similar commandment is found in Deuteronomy 6:8. Jews would fasten a small box containing passages of Scripture to their foreheads or arms during prayer, to serve as a memorial. The physical symbol was designed to be a reminder of the inner reality of making God’s law the guiding rule of all we do.

on your hand and as a memorial between your eyes, that the LORD's law may be in your mouth; for with a strong hand the LORD has brought you out of Egypt. <sup>10n</sup>You shall therefore keep this ordinance in its season from year to year.

The Law of the Firstborn

<sup>11</sup>"And it shall be, when the LORD <sup>a</sup>brings you into the land of the <sup>b</sup>Canaanites, as He swore to you and your fathers, and gives it to you, <sup>12a</sup>that you shall set apart to the LORD all that open the womb, that is, every firstborn that comes from an animal which you have; the males shall be the LORD's. <sup>13</sup>But <sup>a</sup>every firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb; and if you will not redeem it, then you shall break its neck. And all the firstborn of man among your sons <sup>a</sup>you shall redeem. <sup>14i</sup>So it shall be, when your son asks you in time to come, saying, 'What is this?' that you shall say to him, <sup>a</sup>"By strength of hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. <sup>15</sup>And it came to pass, when Pharaoh was stubborn about letting us go, that <sup>a</sup>the LORD killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man and the firstborn of beast. Therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all males that open the womb, but all the firstborn of my sons I redeem.' <sup>16i</sup>It shall be as <sup>a</sup>"a sign on your hand and as frontlets between your eyes, for by strength of hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt."

The Wilderness Way

<sup>17</sup>Then it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God did not lead them by way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, "Lest perhaps the people <sup>a</sup>change their minds when they see war, and <sup>a</sup>return to Egypt." <sup>18</sup>So God <sup>a</sup>led the people around by way of the wilderness of the Red Sea. And the children of Israel went up in orderly ranks out of the land of Egypt.

The Red Sea Crossing

<sup>5</sup>Now it was told the king of Egypt that the people had fled, and <sup>a</sup>the heart of Pharaoh and his servants was turned against the people; and they said, "Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us?" <sup>6</sup>So he made ready his chariot and took his people with him. <sup>7</sup>Also, he took <sup>a</sup>six hundred choice chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt with captains over every one of them. <sup>8</sup>And the LORD <sup>a</sup>hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued the children of Israel; and <sup>a</sup>the children of Israel went out with boldness. <sup>9</sup>So the <sup>a</sup>Egyptians pursued them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, his horsemen and his army, and overtook them camping by the sea beside Pi Hahiroth, before Baal Zephon.

<sup>10</sup>And when Pharaoh drew near, the children of Israel lifted their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians marched after them. So they were very afraid, and the children of Israel

13:13 firstborn of a donkey. Donkeys were unclean animals, and could not be used as a sacrifice. Instead they were redeemed with a lamb. Similarly, a firstborn son was redeemed. God would never allow human sacrifice. Later the Lord claimed the Levites for Himself in exchange for the firstborn sons of the people (Num. 3:40–51).

13:18 way of the wilderness. The route the Israelites traveled from Egypt to Canaan has been disputed. The traditional route has the people moving in a southerly direction along the western shore of the Sinai Peninsula until they reached Mount Sinai in the far south central region of the peninsula. Red Sea. This translation comes from the Septuagint (the Greek translation of the Old Testament); the Hebrew phrase means "Sea of Reeds." This phrase may refer to the ancient northern extension of the Red Sea. Many believe that it was one of the marshy lakes of the region.

13:19 the bones of Joseph. The story of the last wish of Joseph and his death is found in Genesis 50:22–26.

<sup>m</sup>cried out to the LORD. <sup>11n</sup>Then they said to Moses, "Because there were no graves in Egypt, have you taken us away to die in the wilderness? Why have you so dealt with us, to bring us up out of Egypt?" <sup>12o</sup>Is this not the word that we told you in Egypt, saying, 'Let us alone that we may serve the Egyptians'? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than that we should die in the wilderness."

<sup>19</sup>And the Angel of God, <sup>y</sup>who went before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud went from before them and stood behind them. <sup>20</sup>So it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel. Thus it was a cloud and darkness to the one, and it gave light by night to the other, so that the one did not come near the other all that night.

The Song of Moses

15 Then <sup>a</sup>Moses and the children of Israel sang this song to the LORD, and spoke, saying:

"I will <sup>b</sup>sing to the LORD,
For He has triumphed gloriously!

* 14:25 Samaritan Pentateuch, Septuagint, and Syriac read bound.

14:11–12 Why. This marks the first of ten episodes of Israel's unbelief, beginning at the Red Sea, and concluding at Kadesh Barnea (Num. 14:22). Because of these ten events an entire generation was prevented from entering the Promised Land. The New Testament book of Hebrews recalls these events, using the Promised Land as a picture of heaven and warning that disobedience and unbelief will still keep people out of the final land of "rest" (Heb. 4).

14:13 the salvation of the LORD. The Hebrew word for salvation comes from a term that has to do with room or space. The people were under great pressure, squeezed between the waters before them and the armies of Pharaoh behind them. Salvation relieved the pressure in a most dramatic way.

14:19 Angel of God. The term "Angel of God" is an alternative expression for the angel of the Lord. The pillar of cloud is later strongly associated with the Lord Himself (33:9–11).

14:25 the LORD fights for them. This was the confession the Lord demanded; word spread widely that the Lord fought for the Israelites.

14:31 the people . . . believed the LORD. The same wording is used of Abraham's saving faith in Genesis 15:6 (see also Rom. 4). The people were transformed spiritually even as they were delivered physically.

The Song of Miriam

20 Then Miriam "the prophetess, "the sister of Aaron, "took the timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her "with

15:2 My father's God. The Israelites had worshiped, believed, and obeyed. Today, Christians are part of Abraham's line because they also believe, obey, and worship the same God (Gal. 3:6–7). Many faithful believers have preceded us.

15:3 The LORD is His name. Other supposed gods had secret names that only guilds of priests knew. By knowing a god's secret name, a priest supposedly had special access to that god. But the living God had made His name known to all, and salvation is found in His name alone.

15:11 Who is like You? Many times, the Bible uses the language of incomparability to describe the true God. In a world in which there are many supposed gods, the Lord is unique. He alone is God. He is not just better than other gods; there are no other gods. No person, god, or thing can be compared to the one true God (Ps. 96:4; Is. 40:25–26; Mic. 7:18).

15:18 The LORD shall reign forever and ever. Ultimately, the salvation of Israel from Egypt points to the coming reign of the living God on earth over His redeemed people.

This victory song ends with the assertion of the eternal rule of the Lord, promising the kingdom of God rather than the conquering of neighboring lands. Its emphasis is spiritual, not material. Now that deliverance from slavery in Egypt had been accomplished, the Hebrews would be formed by God into a nation which was designed to be a witness to the rest of the world of God's character and authority.

15:20 prophetess. Although there is no record of women serving as priests in ancient Israel, women did serve as prophetesses (Deborah, Judg. 4:4; the

Bitter Waters Made Sweet

There He <sup>b</sup>made a statute and an ordinance for them, and there <sup>c</sup>He tested them, <sup>26</sup>and said, <sup>d</sup>“If you diligently heed the voice of the LORD your God and do what is right in His sight, give ear to His commandments and keep all His statutes, I will put none of the <sup>e</sup>diseases on you which I have brought on the Egyptians. For I am the LORD <sup>f</sup>who heals you.”

<sup>27g</sup>Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve wells of water and seventy palm trees; so they camped there by the waters.

Bread from Heaven

16 And they <sup>a</sup>journeyed from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came to the Wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and <sup>b</sup>Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they departed from the land of Egypt. <sup>2</sup>Then the whole congregation of the children of Israel <sup>c</sup>complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. <sup>3</sup>And the children of Israel said to them, <sup>d</sup>“Oh, that we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, <sup>e</sup>when we sat by the pots of meat and when we ate bread to the full! For you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger.”

wife of Isaiah, Is. 8:3; Huldah, 2 Kin. 22:14). As a prophetess, Miriam spoke authoritatively from God. However, it is apparent that neither she nor Aaron had the level of intimacy with God that Moses had.

15:24 complained. The people’s recent deliverance from the Egyptian armies makes this complaint seem fickle and a true test of God’s mercy. We are like the Israelites far too often, turning from praise to complaint at a moment’s notice.

15:27 Elim. Elim means “place of trees.” The wells and palms of this oasis would have been a welcome relief from the barren wasteland.

16:1 Wilderness of Sin. The location of this wasteland is uncertain; its position between Elim and Sinai depends on the location of Mount Sinai. (The name Sin has nothing to do with the English word “sin.”)

16:5 twice as much. Gathering extra food on the sixth day would allow for the Sabbath rest (v. 25).

16:10 the glory of the LORD. This is one of the grand appearances of God recorded in Exodus. We do not know exactly what the people saw in the cloud, but the sight certainly made them aware of God’s majestic and somewhat ominous presence (Ps. 97:2–5).

<sup>14</sup>And when the layer of dew lifted, there, on the surface of the wilderness, was <sup>a</sup>a small round <sup>w</sup>substance, as fine as frost on the ground. <sup>15</sup>So when the children of Israel saw it, they said to one another, “What is it?” For they did not know what it was.

And Moses said to them, <sup>x</sup>“This is the bread which the LORD has given you to eat. <sup>16</sup>This is the thing which the LORD has commanded: ‘Let every man gather it <sup>y</sup>according to each one’s need, one <sup>z</sup>omer for each person, according to the number of persons; let every man take for those who are in his tent.’”

<sup>22</sup>And so it was, on the sixth day, that they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each one. And all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses. <sup>23</sup>Then he said to them, “This is what the LORD has said: ‘Tomorrow is <sup>c</sup>a Sabbath rest, a holy Sabbath to the LORD. Bake what you will bake today, and boil what you will boil; and lay up for yourselves all that remains, to be kept until morning.’” <sup>24</sup>So they laid it up till morning, as Moses commanded; and it did not <sup>d</sup>stink, nor were there any worms in it. <sup>25</sup>Then Moses said, “Eat that today, for today is a Sabbath to the LORD; today you will not find it in the field. <sup>26e</sup>Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, there will be none.”

<sup>27</sup>Now it happened that some of the people went out on the seventh day to gather, but they found none. <sup>28</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, “How long <sup>f</sup>do you refuse to keep My commandments and My laws? <sup>29</sup>See! For the LORD has given you the Sabbath; therefore He gives you on the sixth day bread for two days. Let every man remain in his place; let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.” <sup>30</sup>So the people rested on the seventh day.

<sup>32</sup>Then Moses said, “This is the thing which the LORD has commanded: ‘Fill an omer with it, to be kept for your generations, that they may see the bread with which I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.’”

Water from the Rock

16:14 a small round substance as fine as frost on the ground. There have been many attempts to explain manna as a naturally occurring substance that still might be found in the desert, suggesting that it was some kind of plant or animal secretion. However, it is clear from the wording of these verses that this was not so. The description of the manna was necessary precisely because it was not a naturally occurring substance, or something they had ever seen before (Num. 11:1–15).

16:15–18 God’s Provision—It is easy to think we trust in God and believe He will supply all of our needs when we have food, shelter, and clothing. It is more difficult when the food is low, the clothing has disappeared, and there is no money to pay the rent. Sometimes God allows us to be in this kind of position so that we will have to learn to consciously rely on His providence. When we really place our lives in His hands, we will experience a depth of relationship which is worth far more than all the security in the world. 16:19 Let no one leave any of it. The Israelites’ daily dependence on manna was an act of faith in God’s provision.

16:26 Six days . . . the Sabbath. The characteristics of manna were a built-in reminder of the importance of the Sabbath day in the life of the people of Israel.

16:31 coriander seed . . . honey. Apparently the manna was very tasty. It must also have been very nutritious since it was the staple of the Israelites for a full generation.

16:32 to be kept for your generations. This pot of manna was not only a reminder of God’s miraculous provision, but a miracle in itself since it did not spoil as did the extra manna Israelites gathered for themselves.

the people contended with Moses, and said, "Give us water, that we may drink."

So Moses said to them, "Why do you contend with me? Why do you tempt the LORD?"

<sup>3</sup>And the people thirsted there for water, and the people <sup>4</sup>complained against Moses, and said, "Why is it you have brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our <sup>5</sup>livestock with thirst?"

<sup>5</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, <sup>6</sup>"Go on before the people, and take with you some of the elders of Israel. Also take in your hand your rod with which <sup>7</sup>you struck the river, and go. <sup>8</sup>Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock in Horeb; and you shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it, that the people may drink."

And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel. <sup>9</sup>So he called the name of the place <sup>10</sup>Massah* and Meribah,* because of the contention of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, "Is the LORD among us or not?"

Victory over the Amalekites

hands, one on one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun. <sup>13</sup>So Joshua defeated Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

Jethro's Advice

18 And <sup>1</sup>Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that <sup>2</sup>God had done for Moses and for Israel His people—that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt. <sup>3</sup>Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took <sup>4</sup>Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her back, <sup>5</sup>with her <sup>6</sup>two sons, of whom the name of one was Gershom (for he said, <sup>7</sup>"I have been a stranger in a foreign land")* <sup>8</sup>and the name of the other was Eliezer* (for he said, "The God of my father was my <sup>9</sup>help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh"); <sup>10</sup>and Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to Moses in the wilderness, where he was encamped at <sup>11</sup>the mountain of God. <sup>12</sup>Now he had said to Moses, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons with her."

<sup>13</sup>So Moses <sup>14</sup>went out to meet his father-in-law, bowed down, and <sup>15</sup>kissed him. And they asked each other about <sup>16</sup>their well-being, and they went into the tent.

* 17:15 Hebrew YHWH Nissi * 18:3 Compare Exodus 2:22 * 18:4 Literally My God Is Help

17:7 Is the LORD among us. The people had seen God's power in the plagues, the Exodus, the crossing of the Red Sea, and the provision of manna. Every day they saw the pillar of His presence. We can wonder at their lack of faith until we look at our own weakness.

17:8 Amalek. The people of Amalek were descendants of Esau, and thus relatives of the Hebrews (Gen. 36:12). Their attack on Israel was unprovoked. The Israelites—and the Lord—regarded this attack as particularly heinous (vv. 14–16).

17:14 Write this. Some people allege that the first five books of the Old Testament were not actually written down until centuries after Moses' death. Others concede that Moses may have written certain small sections, such as the one to which this verse seems to refer (24:4). However, strong tradition supports the assertion that Moses really wrote all of the first five books (except for the account of his own death); ancient Jews, including Jesus, referred to this portion of the Scripture as "the books of Moses."

17:16 the LORD has sworn. This Hebrew phrase is somewhat obscure, but appears to mean "Surely there is a hand on the throne of the LORD." In this phraseology, the Creator of the universe is pictured as seated on His throne while raising His hand in a solemn oath. It is a fearful thing for the wicked to fall into the hands of the just and righteous Judge of the universe.

18:6 her two sons. Zipporah's two sons stayed with Moses and became part of the families of Israel. However, the subsequent history of the family of Gershom involved a return to idols and inappropriate priesthood (Judg. 18:30).

18:7 bowed down, and kissed him. The ancient Middle Eastern acts of bowing and kissing were not acts of worship, but signs of respect and reminders of obligations between two people.

And Aaron came with all the elders of Israel <sup>q</sup>to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law before God.

<sup>13</sup>And so it was, on the next day, that Moses <sup>r</sup>sat to judge the people; and the people stood before Moses from morning until evening. <sup>14</sup>So when Moses' father-in-law saw all that he did for the people, he said, "What is this thing that you are doing for the people? Why do you alone sit, and all the people stand before you from morning until evening?"

<sup>15</sup>And Moses said to his father-in-law, "Because <sup>s</sup>the people come to me to inquire of God. <sup>16</sup>When they have <sup>a</sup>a difficulty, they come to me, and I judge between one and another; and I make known the statutes of God and His laws."

<sup>17</sup>So Moses' father-in-law said to him, "The thing that you do is not good. <sup>18</sup>Both you and these people who are with you will surely wear yourselves out. For this thing is too much for you; <sup>u</sup>you are not able to perform it by yourself. <sup>19</sup>Listen now to my voice; I will give you counsel, and God will be with you: Stand <sup>v</sup>before God for the people, so that you may <sup>w</sup>bring the difficulties to God. <sup>20</sup>And you shall <sup>x</sup>teach them the statutes and the laws, and show them the way in which they must walk and <sup>y</sup>the work they must do. <sup>21</sup>Moreover you shall select from all the people <sup>z</sup>able men, such as <sup>a</sup>fear God, <sup>b</sup>men of truth, <sup>c</sup>hating covetousness; and place such over them to be rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. <sup>22</sup>And let them judge the people at all times. <sup>d</sup>Then it will be that every great matter they shall bring to you, but every small matter they themselves shall judge. So it will be easier for you, for <sup>e</sup>they will bear the burden with you. <sup>23</sup>If you do this thing, and God so commands you, then you will be able to endure, and all this people will also go to their <sup>f</sup>place in peace."

Israel at Mount Sinai

19 In the third month after the children of Israel had gone out of the land of Egypt, on the same day, <sup>j</sup>they came to the Wilderness of Sinai. <sup>k</sup>For they had departed from <sup>l</sup>Rephidim, had come to the Wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness. So Israel camped there before <sup>m</sup>the mountain.

18:11 Now I know that the LORD is greater. Jethro's words imply that he had once regarded the Lord as one among many gods, or perhaps as the principal deity over the lesser. Here he declares full faith in God as the supreme Deity.

18:21 covetousness. Jethro's five qualifications for judges are similar to the qualifications for elders in the New Testament (1 Tim. 3:1–13). In particular, the men recommended by Jethro were to be God-fearing and haters of dishonesty. As such they would not be susceptible to bribery, and justice would not be perverted. God takes no bribes (Deut. 10:17), so neither must a judge. A bribe blinds the eyes. Human justice must reflect divine justice, which is impartial (Rom. 2:11). 19:5–8 God Gives His Covenant—The covenant with Moses is the second covenant that pertains to the rule of God. It is different than the Abrahamic covenant in that it is conditional. It is introduced by the conditional formula "if you will indeed obey My voice . . . you shall be a special treasure to Me." This covenant was given to the nation Israel so

These are the words which you shall speak to the children of Israel.”

<sup>7</sup>So Moses came and called for the “elders of the people, and laid before them all these words which the LORD commanded him. <sup>8</sup>Then <sup>o</sup>all the people answered together and said, “All that the LORD has spoken we will do.” So Moses brought back the words of the people to the LORD. <sup>9</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, “Behold, I come to you <sup>n</sup>in the thick cloud, <sup>a</sup>that the people may hear when I speak with you, and believe you forever.”

So Moses told the words of the people to the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to the people and <sup>v</sup>consecrate them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their clothes. <sup>11</sup>And let them be ready for the third day. For on the third day the LORD will come down upon Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people. <sup>12</sup>You shall set bounds for the people all around, saying, ‘Take heed to yourselves that you do not go up to the mountain or touch its base. <sup>s</sup>Whoever touches the mountain shall surely be put to death. <sup>13</sup>Not a hand shall touch him, but he shall surely be stoned or shot with an arrow; whether man or beast, he shall not live.’ When the trumpet sounds long, they shall come near the mountain.”

<sup>16</sup>Then it came to pass on the third day, in the morning, that there were <sup>u</sup>thunderings and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain; and the sound of the trumpet was very loud, so that all the people who were in the camp <sup>v</sup>trembled. <sup>17</sup>And <sup>w</sup>Moses

<sup>24</sup>Then the LORD said to him, “Away! Get down and then come up, you and Aaron with you. But do not let the priests and the people break through to come up to the LORD, lest He break out against them.” <sup>25</sup>So Moses went down to the people and spoke to them.

The Ten Commandments

20 And God spoke <sup>a</sup>all these words, saying:

that those who believed God’s promises given to Abraham in the Abrahamic covenant (Gen. 12:1–3) would know how they should live. The Mosaic covenant in its entirety governs three areas of their lives: (1) the commandments governed their personal lives (Ex. 20:1–26); (2) the law governed their social lives particularly as they related to one another (Ex. 21:1–24:11); and (3) the ordinances governed their religious lives so that the people would know how to approach God (Ex. 24:12–31:18). The Mosaic covenant did not replace the Abrahamic covenant. It was added alongside the Abrahamic covenant so that the people of Israel would know how to live until “the Seed,” Christ, comes and makes the complete and perfect sacrifice. The Mosaic covenant was never given so that by keeping it people could be saved, but so that they might realize that they cannot do what God wants, even when God writes it down on stone tablets. The law was given that man might realize that he is helpless and that his only hope is to receive the righteousness of God by faith in Jesus (Gal. 3:17–24).

19:16 the sound of the trumpet was very loud. Amazingly, one of the heavenly visitors played the trumpet rather than someone in the camp of Israel

(compare Is. 27:13; 1 Cor. 15:52; 1 Thess. 4:16). No wonder they trembled (20:18–19).

19:18 the LORD descended. Even though we know God is everywhere, language such as this gives us a greater appreciation of His merciful grace.

20:1 And God spoke. The following words of God are known as the law of Moses, but this is only because they were delivered to the people from God through Moses, not because Moses invented them.

20:1–17 The Ten Commandments—The first four Commandments (20:1–11) lay out the basics of the relationship with God. God is not a mere abstraction or figment of imagination. He is the God who spoke dramatically to the patriarchs and continues to speak to us. Our responsibility is to have a relationship with nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your cattle, <sup>o</sup>nor your stranger who is within your gates.

- 7 <sup>j</sup>“You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD <sup>k</sup>will not hold him guiltless who takes His name in vain.

<sup>11</sup>For <sup>p</sup>in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it.

- 12 <sup>q</sup>“Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be <sup>r</sup>long upon the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

15 <sup>v</sup>“You shall not steal.

17 <sup>x</sup>“You shall not covet your neighbor’s house; <sup>y</sup>you shall not covet your neighbor’s wife, nor his male servant, nor his female servant, nor his ox, nor his donkey, nor anything that is your neighbor’s.”

Him whereby we explicitly recognize Him, listen to what He says and then obey. What He wants isn’t all that complicated. He is the Creator and Master of the world, as we know it. Any view of God that makes Him less, falls short of what is required to make the relationship between God and man work. For example if God is not the creator and sustainer of the world, then the perspective of Genesis 1:28 and our responsibility as stewards of His creation don’t make much sense.

The last six Commandments (20:12–17) give us the basics for living—with our families, our neighbors and our communities. Disregarding and disobeying any of these commands leads to the breakdown and possible destruction of those relationships. The relationship between a parent and a child can only go downhill if the basic respect for the parent has not been created and maintained. Adultery clearly has enormous potential to destroy a marriage because it creates distrust where trust should be. Trust is one of the foundational blocks of the marriage relationship.

While many would like to say that these Commandments are limiting, confining and outdated, in reality, they provide the basis for a society to function harmoniously. Only when a culture places limits on itself, is it able to prosper. Followed correctly, these Commandments provide safety and freedom, the same way a fish functions best within the confines of water. In the water it lives and prospers. On land it dies.

20:3 no other gods. God is not to be viewed as one god among many, or even as the highest among many. He is the one and only.

20:4 not make . . . any likeness. This command has often been misunderstood as a prohibition against all kinds of art. In fact, God used many “likenesses” of created things to beautify His tabernacle, including carved images and woven pictures. The prohibition was not against art, but against attempting to “picture” God. Any statue, icon, painting, or image of any sort which is meant to be a representation of God can only detract from His glory. God does not want

His people to worship a picture of “what He might look like.” He wants all our worship for Himself alone.

20:5 a jealous God. In other words, He has a zeal for the truth that He alone is God, and He is jealous of any rivals.

20:6 showing mercy to thousands. The contrasting of the phrases “third and fourth generations” (v. 5) with “thousands” demonstrates that God’s mercy is greater than His wrath. The lingering effects of righteousness will last far longer than the lingering effects of wrath.

20:7 in vain. Using God’s name in vain is trivializing His name by regarding it as insignificant, trying to advance evil purposes by coaxing God to violate His character and purposes, or even simply using it thoughtlessly, without any attempt to realize of whom we are speaking.

20:8–11 Remember the Sabbath day. The word Sabbath means “rest.” The command to rest and remember the Lord on the seventh day goes back to the pattern set at the time of creation (Gen. 2:2–3).

20:12 Honor your father and your mother. The term “honor” means “to treat with significance.” Many times we equate “honor” with “obey,” but in fact the two are not synonyms. Adult children or children of ungodly parents can find ways to honor when they cannot in good conscience obey.

20:14 adultery. God regards the sanctity of marriage as a sacred trust similar to the sanctity of life (v. 13). The marriage relationship is a symbol of God’s faithfulness to us.

20:16 false witness. This command is an essential foundation for a just and effective judicial system.

The People Afraid of God's Presence

<sup>20</sup>And Moses said to the people, <sup>e</sup>"Do not fear; <sup>f</sup>for God has come to test you, and <sup>g</sup>that His fear may be before you, so that you may not sin." <sup>21</sup>So the people stood afar off, but Moses drew near <sup>h</sup>the thick darkness where God was.

The Law of the Altar

<sup>22</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, "Thus you shall say to the children of Israel: 'You have seen that I have talked with you <sup>i</sup>from heaven. <sup>23</sup>You shall not make anything to be <sup>j</sup>with Me—gods of silver or gods of gold you shall not make for yourselves. <sup>24</sup>An altar of <sup>k</sup>earth you shall make for Me, and you shall sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, <sup>l</sup>your sheep and your oxen. In every <sup>m</sup>place where I record My name I will come to you, and I will <sup>n</sup>bless you. <sup>25</sup>And <sup>o</sup>if you make Me an altar of stone, you shall not build it of hewn stone; for if you <sup>p</sup>use your tool on it, you have profaned it. <sup>26</sup>Nor shall you go up by steps to My altar, that your <sup>q</sup>nakedness may not be exposed on it.'

The Law Concerning Servants

21 "Now these are the judgments which you shall <sup>a</sup>set before them: <sup>2b</sup>If you buy a Hebrew servant, he shall serve six years; and in the seventh he shall go out free and pay nothing. <sup>3</sup>If he comes in by himself, he shall go out by himself; if he comes in married, then his wife shall go out with him. <sup>4</sup>If his master has given him a wife, and she has borne him sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself. <sup>5c</sup>But if the servant plainly says, 'I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free,' <sup>6</sup>then his master shall bring him to the <sup>d</sup>judges. He shall also bring him to the door, or to the doorpost, and his master shall pierce his ear with an awl; and he shall serve him forever.

<sup>7</sup>"And if a man <sup>e</sup>sells his daughter to be a female slave, she shall not go out as the male slaves do. <sup>8</sup>If she does not please her master, who has betrothed her to himself, then he shall let her be redeemed. He shall have no right to sell her to a foreign people, since he has dealt deceitfully with her. <sup>9</sup>And if he has betrothed her to his son, he shall deal with her according to the custom of daughters. <sup>10</sup>If he takes another wife, he shall not diminish her food, her clothing, <sup>l</sup>and her marriage rights. <sup>11</sup>And if he does not do these three for her, then she shall go out free, without paying money.

The Law Concerning Violence

<sup>12g</sup>"He who strikes a man so that he dies shall surely be put to death. <sup>13</sup>However, <sup>h</sup>if he did not lie in wait, but God <sup>i</sup>delivered him into his hand, then <sup>j</sup>I will appoint for you a place where he may flee.

20:20 His fear. God did not want His people to live in terror of Him, as though He were an irrational, uncontrolled, violent force, ready to be unleashed on innocent people without provocation. Rather, God wanted His people to respect the obvious hazards of wanton sin. Appropriate fear of God in this sense would make them circumspect, reverent, obedient, and worshipful, so that they might not sin.

20:26 your nakedness. The pagan worship of the Canaanites involved sexually perverse acts. Nothing obscene or unseemly was permitted in the pure worship of the living God.

21:1 the judgments. Also translated "ordinances," this word describes God's response to a specific action, something like an umpire's call. The judgments of God set forth here are responses to specific situations; the Ten Commandments are more general laws, a code for living rather than a response to a certain problem.

<sup>26</sup>"If a man strikes the eye of his male or female servant, and destroys it, he shall let him go free for the sake of his eye. <sup>27</sup>And if he knocks out the tooth of his male or female servant, he shall let him go free for the sake of his tooth.

Animal Control Laws

<sup>28</sup>"If an ox gores a man or a woman to death, then <sup>a</sup>the ox shall surely be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be acquitted. <sup>29</sup>But if the ox tended to thrust with its horn in times past, and it has been made known to his owner, and he has not kept it confined, so that it has killed a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned and its owner also shall be put to death. <sup>30</sup>If there is imposed on him a sum of money, then he shall pay <sup>a</sup>to redeem his life, whatever is imposed on him. <sup>31</sup>Whether it has gored a son or gored a daughter, according to this judgment it shall be done to him. <sup>32</sup>If the ox gores a male or female servant, he shall give to their master <sup>a</sup>thirty shekels of silver, and the <sup>a</sup>ox shall be stoned.

<sup>33</sup>"And if a man opens a pit, or if a man digs a pit and does not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls in it, <sup>34</sup>the owner of the pit shall make it good; he shall give money to their owner, but the dead animal shall be his.

<sup>35</sup>"If one man's ox hurts another's, so that it dies, then they shall sell the live ox and divide the money from it; and the dead ox they shall also divide. <sup>36</sup>Or if it was known that the ox tended to thrust in time past, and its owner has not kept it confined, he shall surely pay ox for ox, and the dead animal shall be his own.

Responsibility for Property

22 "If a man steals an ox or a sheep, and slaughters it or sells it, he shall

<sup>14</sup>"And if a man borrows anything from his neighbor, and it becomes injured or dies, the owner of it not being with it, he shall surely make it good. <sup>15</sup>If its owner was with it, he shall not make it good; if it was hired, it came for its hire.

Moral and Ceremonial Principles

21:24 eye for eye, tooth for tooth. Here we encounter the best known statement of the "law of retaliation." The idea here is not to foster revenge, but to curtail it. The natural, sinful human response is "a head for an eye, a jaw for a tooth, an arm for a hand." This law says "no more than eye for eye, tooth for tooth."

22:1-4 the sun has risen on him. There is a difference between struggling with an intruder at the moment when he is caught red-handed, and hunting him up in order to kill him later on. The law made a distinction between self-defense and murder as retaliation.

Justice for All

The Law of Sabbaths

<sup>10n</sup>“Six years you shall sow your land and gather in its produce, <sup>11</sup>but the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie fallow, that the poor of your people may eat; and what they leave, the beasts of the field may eat. In like manner you shall do with your vineyard and your olive grove. <sup>12o</sup>Six days you shall do your work, and on the seventh day you shall rest, that your ox and your donkey may rest, and the son of your female servant and the stranger may be refreshed.

<sup>13</sup>“And in all that I have said to you, <sup>p</sup>be circumspect and <sup>q</sup>make no mention of the name of other gods, nor let it be heard from your mouth.

Three Annual Feasts

<sup>14r</sup>“Three times you shall keep a feast to Me in the year: <sup>15s</sup>You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread (you shall eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month of Abib, for in it you came out of Egypt; <sup>t</sup>none shall appear before Me empty); <sup>16u</sup>and <sup>v</sup>the Feast of Harvest, the firstfruits of your labors which you have sown in the field; and the Feast of Ingathering at the end of the year, when you have gathered in the fruit of your labors from the field.

22:18 You shall not permit a sorceress to live. The Bible does not record any executions of sorcerers or sorceresses, but it does recount the deadly consequences of false worship (ch. 32; Num. 25).

23:1 false report. Malicious talk is everywhere condemned in Scripture (see James 3:1–12).

23:3 show partiality to a poor man. God’s support of the poor did not overrule His justice. Here God anticipated that some would use poverty as an excuse for greedy, even criminal activity.

23:11 rest and lie fallow. Letting the land rest allowed the poor to glean any produce that might grow during the fallow year. It also gave the land time to rejuvenate for greater productivity in subsequent years. The year of rest was an act of faith, for the Israelites would have to trust God to meet their needs.

The Angel and the Promises

before you, until you have increased, and you inherit the land. <sup>31</sup>And <sup>u</sup>I will set your bounds from the Red Sea to the sea, Philistia, and from the desert to the River.* For I will <sup>v</sup>deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and you shall drive them out before you. <sup>32w</sup>You shall make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. <sup>33</sup>They shall not dwell in your land, lest they make you sin against Me. For if you serve their gods, <sup>x</sup>it will surely be a snare to you.”

Israel Affirms the Covenant

24 Now He said to Moses, “Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, <sup>a</sup>Nadab and Abihu, <sup>b</sup>and seventy of the elders of Israel, and worship from afar. <sup>2</sup>And Moses alone shall come near the LORD, but they shall not come near; nor shall the people go up with him.”

<sup>3</sup>So Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD and all the judgments. And all the people answered with one voice and said, <sup>c</sup>“All the words which the LORD has said we will do.” <sup>4</sup>And Moses <sup>d</sup>wrote all the words of the LORD. And he rose early in the morning, and built an altar at the foot of the mountain, and twelve <sup>e</sup>pillars according to the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>5</sup>Then he sent young men of the children of Israel, who offered <sup>f</sup>burnt offerings and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen to the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And Moses <sup>g</sup>took half the blood and put it in basins, and half the blood he sprinkled on the altar. <sup>7</sup>Then he <sup>h</sup>took the Book of the Covenant and read in the hearing of the people. And they said, “All that the LORD has said we will do, and be obedient.” <sup>8</sup>And Moses took the blood, sprinkled it on the people, and said, “This is <sup>i</sup>the blood of the covenant which the LORD has made with you according to all these words.”

23:17 Lord God. Here two names for God, Adonai (translated as Lord), and Yahweh (translated as God), are used together. This expression emphasizes God’s sovereignty.

23:20 Angel. The statement “My name is in Him” (v. 21) shows that this messenger is the Angel of the Lord, who is none other than God Himself; with the promise of His presence and protection comes the warning “obey His voice,” for the Lord is a holy God who cannot dwell in the presence of sin. Obedience is the evidence of reality of the covenant relationship. The Angel of the Lord “encamps all around those who fear Him” (Ps. 34:7).

23:26 suffer miscarriage or be barren. God reminded His people that He was the one who controlled reproduction—not the fertility cults of the pagan Canaanites.

24:6 blood. This blood anticipated the death of the coming Messiah, Jesus. His blood could do what the blood of bulls and goats could never accomplish; His death opened the way for direct communication with God (12:7; Rom. 3:23–26; Heb. 10:4,10).

24:8 the blood of the covenant. Just as their houses were protected from the Passover by the sign of blood (ch. 12), now the people were brought into a covenant relationship with the Lord with a sign of blood. This is a picture of our own relationship with God, brought about by the blood of Jesus (1 Pet. 1:2).

On the Mountain with God

<sup>9</sup>Then Moses went up, also Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, <sup>10</sup>and they <sup>1</sup>saw the God of Israel. And there was under His feet as it were a paved work of <sup>2</sup>sapphire stone, and it was like the <sup>3</sup>very heavens in its clarity. <sup>11</sup>But on the nobles of the children of Israel He <sup>4</sup>did not lay His hand. So <sup>5</sup>they saw God, and they <sup>6</sup>ate and drank.

<sup>12</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>7</sup>“Come up to Me on the mountain and be there; and I will give you <sup>8</sup>tablets of stone, and the law and commandments which I have written, that you may teach them.”

<sup>13</sup>So Moses arose with <sup>9</sup>his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up to the mountain of God. <sup>14</sup>And he said to the elders, “Wait here for us until we come back to you. Indeed, Aaron and <sup>10</sup>Hur are with you. If any man has a difficulty, let him go to them.”

Offerings for the Sanctuary

25 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, that they bring Me an offering. <sup>3</sup>From everyone who gives it willingly with his heart you shall take My offering. <sup>4</sup>And this is the offering which you shall take from them: gold, silver, and bronze; <sup>5</sup>blue, purple, and scarlet thread, fine linen, and goats’ hair; <sup>6</sup>ram skins dyed red, badger skins, and acacia wood; <sup>7</sup>oil for the light, and <sup>8</sup>spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense; <sup>9</sup>onyx stones, and stones to be set in the <sup>10</sup>ephod and in the breastplate. <sup>11</sup>And let them make Me a <sup>11</sup>sanctuary, that <sup>12</sup>I may dwell among them. <sup>13</sup>According to all that I show you, that is, the pattern of the tabernacle and the pattern of all its furnishings, just so you shall make it.

The Ark of the Testimony

<sup>14</sup>“And they shall make an ark of acacia wood; two and a half cubits shall be its length, a cubit and a half its width, and a cubit and a half its height. <sup>15</sup>And you shall overlay it with pure gold, inside and out you shall overlay it, and shall make on it a molding of <sup>16</sup>gold all around. <sup>17</sup>You shall cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in its four corners; two rings shall be on one side, and two rings on the other side. <sup>18</sup>And you shall make poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold. <sup>19</sup>You shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, that the ark may be carried by them. <sup>20</sup>The poles shall be in the rings of the ark; they shall not be taken from it. <sup>21</sup>And you shall put into the ark <sup>22</sup>the Testimony which I will give you.

24:9–17 God of Israel. This vision of God was a great privilege. The elders of the people saw God standing on a structure resembling a transparent sapphire platform, which emphasized His grandeur. Blue was one of the colors favored by some members of ancient Near Eastern royalty. God’s glory is the manifestation of all His divine characteristics, including power and holiness, which for Israel were represented by the billowing consuming fire (Heb. 12:29).

24:12 Come up to Me. Only Moses could draw near to God at that time. Today, we are all called to draw near to God through Jesus (see Heb. 4:14–16).

25:2 everyone who gives it willingly. God does not need the gifts of His people, but He desires us to give to Him as an expression of true worship.

25:9 the pattern. The language of these verses suggests that there is a heavenly pattern that the earthly tabernacle was designed to resemble (see v. 40; 26:30; 27:8; Acts 7:44; Heb. 8:5).

25:10 ark. In contrast to the idolatry of Israel’s neighbors, the shrine of the living God had no likeness or idol of any sort (20:2–6). cubit. This measurement was represented by the length of a man’s arm from elbow to extended middle finger. The commonly accepted estimate for the cubit is eighteen inches. Therefore, the ark was about four feet long and two and one quarter feet wide and high.

25:17 mercy seat. This English phrase translates a Hebrew noun derived from the verb meaning “atone for,” “to cover over,” or “to make propitiation.” The mercy seat was the lid of the ark, the place where God’s spirit rested.

the Testimony that I will give you. <sup>22</sup>And <sup>a</sup>there I will meet with you, and I will speak with you from above the mercy seat, from <sup>b</sup>between the two cherubim which are on the ark of the Testimony, about everything which I will give you in commandment to the children of Israel.

The Table for the Showbread

<sup>23a</sup>“You shall also make a table of acacia wood; two cubits shall be its length, a cubit its width, and a cubit and a half its height. <sup>24</sup>And you shall overlay it with pure gold, and make a molding of gold all around. <sup>25</sup>You shall make for it a frame of a handbreadth all around, and you shall make a gold molding for the frame all around. <sup>26</sup>And you shall make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings on the four corners that are at its four legs. <sup>27</sup>The rings shall be close to the frame, as holders for the poles to bear the table. <sup>28</sup>And you shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be carried with them. <sup>29</sup>You shall make <sup>c</sup>its dishes, its pans, its pitchers, and its bowls for pouring. You shall make them of pure gold. <sup>30</sup>And you shall set the <sup>d</sup>showbread on the table before Me always.

The Gold Lampstand

<sup>31a</sup>“You shall also make a lampstand of pure gold; the lampstand shall be of hammered work. Its shaft, its branches, its bowls, its ornamental knobs, and flowers shall be of one piece. <sup>32</sup>And six branches shall come out of its sides: three branches of the lampstand out of one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side. <sup>33a</sup>Three bowls shall be made like almond blossoms on one branch, with an ornamental knob and a flower, and three bowls made like almond blossoms on the other branch, with an ornamental knob and a flower—and so for the six branches that come out of the lampstand. <sup>34a</sup>On the lampstand itself four bowls shall be made like almond blossoms, each with its ornamental knob and flower. <sup>35</sup>And there shall be a knob under the first two branches of the same, a knob under the second two branches of the same, and a knob under the third two branches of the same, according to the six branches that extend from the lampstand. <sup>36</sup>Their knobs and their branches shall be of one piece; all of it shall be one hammered piece of pure gold. <sup>37</sup>You shall make seven lamps for it, and <sup>e</sup>they shall arrange its lamps so that they <sup>f</sup>give light in front of it. <sup>38</sup>And its wick-trimmers and their trays shall be of pure gold. <sup>39</sup>It shall be made of a talent of pure gold, with all these utensils. <sup>40</sup>And <sup>g</sup>see to it that you make them according to the pattern which was shown you on the mountain.

The Tabernacle

26 “Moreover <sup>a</sup>you shall make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine woven linen and blue, purple, and scarlet thread; with artistic designs of cherubim you shall weave them. <sup>2</sup>The length of each curtain shall be twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits. And every one of the curtains shall have the same measurements. <sup>3</sup>Five curtains shall be coupled to one another, and the other five curtains shall be coupled to one another. <sup>4</sup>And you shall make loops of blue yarn on the edge of the curtain on the selvedge of one set, and likewise you shall do on the outer edge of the other curtain of the second set. <sup>5</sup>Fifty loops you shall make in the one curtain, and fifty loops you shall make on the edge of the curtain that is on the end of the second set, that the loops may be clasped to one another. <sup>6</sup>And you shall make fifty clasps of gold, and couple the curtains together with the clasps, so that it may be one tabernacle.

<sup>7b</sup>“You shall also make curtains of goats’ hair, to be a tent over the tabernacle. You shall make eleven curtains. <sup>8</sup>The length of each curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; and the eleven curtains shall all have the same measurements. <sup>9</sup>And you shall couple five curtains by themselves and six curtains by themselves, and you shall double over the sixth curtain at the forefront of the tent. <sup>10</sup>You shall make fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is outermost in one set, and fifty loops on the edge of the curtain of

25:22 I will meet with you. God dwells with His people in the space-time reality in which He created them, and communicates with them in the language with which He endowed them. He is not aloof and He is not silent. His words are an extension of Himself and reflect His nature. They are altogether pure and without blemish, and they are fully authoritative. At the same time, His words reach out to man and are rooted in love, issued from the mercy seat. He speaks them Himself or has them spoken by His authority. He preserves them. He writes them or has them written under His superintendence. God is the ultimate Author of His own Word. This Word is and remains His living and abiding Voice.

25:29 pure gold. All of the implements for making bread were also to be costly and wonderfully designed to physically represent their holiness. They were “set apart” to God.

25:30 the showbread. Twelve loaves representing the twelve tribes of Israel were placed in two rows with six loaves in each row (Lev. 24:5–9). It was called showbread because it was placed symbolically before the face of God.

25:39 talent. A talent weighed about 75 pounds.

26:1 tabernacle. The word tabernacle simply means “tent.”

the second set. <sup>11</sup>And you shall make fifty bronze clasps, put the clasps into the loops, and couple the tent together, that it may be one. <sup>12</sup>The remnant that remains of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the back of the tabernacle. <sup>13</sup>And a cubit on one side and a cubit on the other side, of what remains of the length of the curtains of the tent, shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle, on this side and on that side, to cover it.

four sockets of silver. <sup>33</sup>And you shall hang the veil from the clasps. Then you shall bring <sup>h</sup>the ark of the Testimony in there, behind the veil. The veil shall be a divider for you between <sup>i</sup>the holy place and the Most Holy. <sup>34j</sup>You shall put the mercy seat upon the ark of the Testimony in the Most Holy. <sup>35k</sup>You shall set the table outside the veil, and <sup>l</sup>the lampstand across from the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south; and you shall put the table on the north side.

The Altar of Burnt Offering

27 “You shall make <sup>a</sup>an altar of acacia wood, five cubits long and five cubits wide—the altar shall be square—and its height shall be three cubits. <sup>2</sup>You shall make its horns on its four corners; its horns shall be of one piece with it. And you shall overlay it with bronze. <sup>3</sup>Also you shall make its pans to receive its ashes, and its shovels and its basins and its forks and its firepans; you shall make all its utensils of bronze. <sup>4</sup>You shall make a grate for it, a network of bronze; and on the network you shall make four bronze rings at its four corners. <sup>5</sup>You shall put it under the rim of the altar beneath, that the network may be midway up the altar. <sup>6</sup>And you shall make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with bronze. <sup>7</sup>The poles shall be put in the rings, and the poles shall be on the two sides of the altar to bear it. <sup>8</sup>You shall make it hollow with boards; <sup>b</sup>as it was shown you on the mountain, so shall they make it.

The Court of the Tabernacle

27:9–18 court of the tabernacle. The courtyard separated the ceremonies of worship from common areas. It was arranged to keep people and stray animals from wandering into the tabernacle. Entering the tent could only be a deliberate act.

The Care of the Lampstand

Garments for the Priesthood

garments which they shall make: <sup>h</sup>a breastplate, <sup>i</sup>an ephod, <sup>j</sup>a robe, <sup>k</sup>a skillfully woven tunic, a turban, and <sup>l</sup>a sash. So they shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother and his sons, that he may minister to Me as priest.

The Ephod

<sup>9</sup>“Then you shall take two onyx <sup>n</sup>stones and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel: <sup>10</sup>six of their names on one stone and six names on the other stone, in order of their <sup>o</sup>birth. <sup>11</sup>With the work of an <sup>p</sup>engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, you shall engrave the two stones with the names of the sons of Israel. You shall set them in settings of gold. <sup>12</sup>And you shall put the two stones on the shoulders of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel. So <sup>q</sup>Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD on his two shoulders <sup>r</sup>as a memorial. <sup>13</sup>You shall also make settings of gold, <sup>14</sup>and you shall make two chains of pure gold like braided cords, and fasten the braided chains to the settings.

The Breastplate

<sup>15</sup>“You shall make the breastplate of judgment. Artistically woven according to the workmanship of the ephod you shall make it: of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen, you shall make it. <sup>16</sup>It shall be doubled into a square: a span shall be its length, and a span shall be its width. <sup>17</sup>And you shall put settings of stones in it, four rows of stones: The first row shall be a sardius, a topaz, and an emerald;

27:20 pure oil of pressed olives. All that was used in the tabernacle and sacrifices must be pure and without blemish in order to honor God’s holiness. the lamp to burn continually. The oil for the lampstand was the gift of the children of Israel. It had to be pure oil, as a symbol of our need to call upon the Lord from a pure heart (2 Tim. 2:22). The lamps were to burn continuously, a reminder of the perpetual need of the sinner for the light of God’s word, “a lamp to my feet and a light to my path” (Ps. 119:105).

28:3 all who are gifted artisans. This expression literally means “those who are wise at heart.” The same expression is used of the skillful women who did the weaving (35:25).

28:5–14 ephod. The ephod has been described as a cape or vest made of fine linen with brilliant colors. Its two main sections covered the chest and back, with seams at the shoulders and a band at the waist.

28:16 span. The span was determined as the length from the tip of the thumb to the tip of the small finger on an outstretched hand. It is generally estimated as nine inches, or half a cubit.

this shall be the first row; <sup>18</sup>the second row shall be a turquoise, a sapphire, and a diamond; <sup>19</sup>the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst; <sup>20</sup>and the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper. They shall be set in gold settings. <sup>21</sup>And the stones shall have the names of the sons of Israel, twelve according to their names, like the engravings of a signet, each one with its own name; they shall be according to the twelve tribes.

Other Priestly Garments

<sup>31w</sup>"You shall make the robe of the ephod all of blue. <sup>32</sup>There shall be an opening for his head in the middle of it; it shall have a woven binding all around its opening, like the opening in a coat of mail, so that it does not tear. <sup>33</sup>And upon its hem you shall make pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet, all around its hem, and bells of gold between them all around: <sup>34</sup>a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe all around. <sup>35</sup>And it shall be upon Aaron when he ministers, and its sound will be heard when he goes into the holy place before the LORD and when he comes out, that he may not die.

HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

Aaron and His Sons Consecrated

29 "And this is what you shall do to them to hallow them for ministering to Me as priests: <sup>a</sup>Take one young bull and two

28:30 the Urim and the Thummim. These translated Hebrew words mean "Lights" and "Perfections." Together their names may mean "perfect knowledge" or a similar idea. It is not known exactly what the Urim and Thummim were, or how they were used. Some have suggested that they were two stones used for the casting of lots.

28:42 trousers. The command to wear trousers protected the modesty of the priests. Given the sexually preoccupied worship of Israel's neighbors, this provision was decidedly countercultural.

29:1–9 hallow them. The outward purification process was used to symbolize the inward purity which was demanded of the priests of Israel, the intermediaries between the people and their holy God. Obviously the priests were not perfectly pure; it was only God's gracious act of accepting blood sacrifices that allowed the priests to stand in His presence on behalf of the people. The outward washings of the priests showed that they were doing everything possible to live their lives in the way they rams without blemish, <sup>2</sup>and <sup>b</sup>unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil (you shall make them of wheat flour). <sup>3</sup>You shall put them in one basket and bring them in the basket, with the bull and the two rams.

had been commanded by God. Likewise, in the New Testament era, the only reason that Christians can stand before God as believer-priests is because God graciously accepts Christ's sacrifice on behalf of our sins.

29:9 consecrate. The verb translated consecrate in this verse literally means "to fill one's hand." A king was handed a rod as the symbol of his political power; so the hand of the priest was filled with spiritual power.

29:18 burnt offering. Aaron and his sons needed to offer sacrifices for themselves as much as for their fellow Israelites (Heb. 5:1–4).

29:24 wave offering. This offering made it clear that everything was owed to God, but some was received back as God's gift (Lev. 7:30; 10:14).

when he enters the tabernacle of meeting to minister in the holy place.

The Daily Offerings

29:40 ephah . . . hin. One-tenth of an ephah was about two quarts; one-fourth of a hin was about one quart.

29:45 dwell among the children. Man is God’s special creation, created in His image and likeness. A part of that image and likeness is the uniqueness of personality that allows communion with God. He did not create a race of robots but rather endowed man with a will so that he might choose fellowship with God. In Israel, fellowship with God centered in the tabernacle and especially in the mercy seat which symbolized His presence. Today, believers have fellowship with God through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. In eternity He will dwell in the midst of His people more fully than ever before.

30:7 sweet incense. Burning incense was a privilege restricted to those who were allowed to approach God.

30:9 strange incense. The incense offered to God was to be made from a special recipe consecrated to be used only in the worship at the tabernacle. No other incense was acceptable.

30:10 atonement. The sacrificial blood of the sin

<sup>43</sup>And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle <sup>x</sup>shall be sanctified by My glory. <sup>44</sup>So I will consecrate the tabernacle of meeting and the altar. I will also <sup>y</sup>consecrate both Aaron and his sons to minister to Me as priests. <sup>45</sup><sup>z</sup>I will dwell among the children of Israel and will <sup>a</sup>be their God. <sup>46</sup>And they shall know that <sup>b</sup>I am the LORD their God, who <sup>c</sup>brought them up out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell among them. I am the LORD their God.

The Altar of Incense

30 “You shall make <sup>a</sup>an altar to burn incense on; you shall make it of acacia wood. <sup>2</sup>A cubit shall be its length and a cubit its width—it shall be square—and two cubits shall be its height. Its horns shall be of one piece with it. <sup>3</sup>And you shall overlay its top, its sides all around, and its horns with pure gold; and you shall make for it a molding of gold all around. <sup>4</sup>Two gold rings you shall make for it, under the molding on both its sides. You shall place them on its two sides, and they will be holders for the poles with which to bear it. <sup>5</sup>You shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold. <sup>6</sup>And you shall put it before the <sup>b</sup>veil that is before the ark of the Testimony, before the <sup>c</sup>mercy seat that is over the Testimony, where I will meet with you.

offering (Lev. 16:18) was applied to the incense altar to indicate that even this article needed cleansing to preserve its ideal holiness because of man’s willful or accidental sin. The Hebrew word for “atonement” involves the covering or canceling of sin, resulting in the offender being reconciled to God. Without blood being shed there can be no forgiveness (Heb. 9:22). The atonement made annually for this small altar is a reminder that everything in God’s service must be holy to the Lord (Zech. 14:20).

make atonement upon it throughout your generations. It is most holy to the LORD.”

The Ransom Money

<sup>11</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>12h</sup>“When you take the census of the children of Israel for their number, then every man shall give <sup>i</sup>a ransom for himself to the LORD, when you number them, that there may be no <sup>j</sup>plague among them when you number them. <sup>13k</sup>This is what everyone among those who are numbered shall give: half a shekel according to the shekel of the sanctuary <sup>l</sup>(a shekel is twenty gerahs). <sup>m</sup>The half-shekel shall be an offering to the LORD. <sup>14</sup>Everyone included among those who are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering to the LORD. <sup>15</sup>The <sup>n</sup>rich shall not give more and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when you give an offering to the LORD, to make atonement for yourselves. <sup>16</sup>And you shall take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and <sup>o</sup>shall appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of meeting, that it may be <sup>p</sup>a memorial for the children of Israel before the LORD, to make atonement for yourselves.”

The Bronze Laver

The Holy Anointing Oil

two hundred and fifty shekels of sweet-smelling <sup>w</sup>cane, <sup>24</sup>five hundred shekels of <sup>x</sup>cassia, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, and a <sup>y</sup>hin of olive oil. <sup>25</sup>And you shall make from these a holy anointing oil, an ointment compounded according to the art of the perfumer. It shall be <sup>z</sup>a holy anointing oil. <sup>26a</sup>With it you shall anoint the tabernacle of meeting and the ark of the Testimony; <sup>27</sup>the table and all its utensils, the lampstand and its utensils, and the altar of incense; <sup>28</sup>the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the laver and its base. <sup>29</sup>You shall consecrate them, that they may be most holy; <sup>b</sup>whatever touches them must be holy.* <sup>30c</sup>And you shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, that they may minister to Me as priests.

The Incense

Artisans for Building the Tabernacle

31 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2a</sup>“See, I have called by name Bezael the <sup>b</sup>son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. <sup>3</sup>And I have <sup>c</sup>filled him

30:12 ransom. The idea is to pay a price for one’s life. The Israelites had to acknowledge that their lives were from God and governed by Him by giving Him an offering of money.

30:19 wash their hands and their feet. The continual washing was symbolic of the need to be cleansed from sin regularly.

31:3 filled him with the Spirit of God. We often think of the “filling of the Spirit” only in connection with Acts 2, but passages such as this one help us to see the continuity of God’s work among His people through the ages. In this case, the Spirit empowered uniquely gifted people to design and build a tabernacle befitting a holy and magnificent God.

According to all that I have commanded you they shall do.”

The Sabbath Law

<sup>12</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>13</sup>“Speak also to the children of Israel, saying: <sup>p</sup>‘Surely My Sabbaths you shall keep, for it is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations, that you may know that I am the LORD who <sup>q</sup>sanctifies you. <sup>14</sup>’You shall keep the Sabbath, therefore, for it is holy to you. Everyone who profanes it shall surely be put to death; for <sup>r</sup>whoever does any work on it, that person shall be cut off from among his people. <sup>15</sup>’Work shall be done for <sup>s</sup>‘six days, but the <sup>t</sup>‘seventh is the Sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death. <sup>16</sup>’Therefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations as a perpetual covenant. <sup>17</sup>’It is <sup>v</sup>a sign between Me and the children of Israel forever; for <sup>w</sup>in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day He rested and was refreshed.”

<sup>18</sup>And when He had made an end of speaking with him on Mount Sinai, He gave Moses <sup>x</sup>two tablets of the Testimony, tablets of stone, written with the finger of God.

The Gold Calf

Then they said, “This is your god, O Israel, that <sup>m</sup>brought you out of the land of Egypt!”

31:18 the finger of God. This verse underscores the divine origin of the law. Scholars of religion have long spoken of Israel’s religious ideas as its unique contribution to civilization, much as the Greeks developed philosophy and the Romans displayed a genius for organization and empire-building. Yet such a comparison misses the point of Scripture. The Bible speaks not of the genius of Israel, but of the finger of God. The Ten Commandments were not the product of man, but the revelation of the Lord.

32:1–35 The Gold Calf—The story of the Israelites’ worship of the golden calf reveals both the unfaithfulness of the Israelites and God’s great mercy. Even though the people had so quickly broken their promise to obey Him, God forgave their sin and began again with them.

32:2–3 golden earrings. These were part of the treasure from Egypt that should have been used for building the tabernacle (35:20–29).

32:4 a molded calf. This was an ominous worship symbol. Not only were the cow and the bull worshiped in Egypt, but the bull was a familiar embodiment of Baal seen in Canaan. It appears that the worship of the Lord had been blended with the symbols of Baal and other fertility gods. In this one scene, the people broke the first three of God’s commandments.

have seen this people, and indeed it is a stiff-necked people! <sup>10</sup>Now therefore, <sup>11</sup>let Me alone, that <sup>12</sup>My wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them. And <sup>13</sup>I will make of you a great nation.”

<sup>14</sup>Then Moses pleaded with the LORD his God, and said: “LORD, why does Your wrath burn hot against Your people whom You have brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? <sup>15</sup>Why should the Egyptians speak, and say, ‘He brought them out to harm them, to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth’? Turn from Your fierce wrath, and <sup>16</sup>relent from this harm to Your people. <sup>17</sup>Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, Your servants, to whom You <sup>18</sup>swore by Your own self, and said to them, <sup>19</sup>‘I will multiply your descendants as the stars of heaven; and all this land that I have spoken of I give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.’” <sup>20</sup>So the LORD <sup>21</sup>relented from the harm which He said He would do to His people.

<sup>22</sup>And <sup>23</sup>Moses turned and went down from the mountain, and the two tablets of the Testimony were in his hand. The tablets were written on both sides; on the one side and on the other they were written. <sup>24</sup>Now the <sup>25</sup>tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God engraved on the tablets.

“It is not the noise of the shout of victory,
Nor the noise of the cry of defeat,
But the sound of singing I hear.”

<sup>28</sup>So it was, as soon as he came near the camp, that <sup>29</sup>he saw the calf and the dancing. So Moses’ anger became hot, and he cast the tablets out of his hands and broke them at the foot of the mountain. <sup>30</sup>Then he took the calf which they had made, burned it in the fire, and ground it to powder; and he scattered it on the water and made the children of Israel drink it. <sup>31</sup>And Moses said to Aaron, <sup>32</sup>“What did this people do to you that you have brought so great a sin upon them?”

<sup>33</sup>So Aaron said, “Do not let the anger of my lord become hot. <sup>34</sup>You know the people, that they are set on evil. <sup>35</sup>For they said to me, ‘Make us gods that shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.’ <sup>36</sup>And I said to them, ‘Whoever has any gold, let them break it off.’ So they gave it to me, and I cast it into the fire, and this calf came out.”

32:14 the LORD relented. Here is a wonderful example of the interaction of faithful intercessory prayer and the purpose of the Lord. He uses our prayer combined with His own determination to make His will come to pass.

32:25–26 were unrestrained. Obedience to God is many times just the opposite of “what everybody else is doing.” Humans are very prone to giving in to peer pressure at the crucial moment. We often care more about what those around us think than about what God thinks. Aaron and the other Levites fell into this trap initially, but when Moses gave them another chance to say where their loyalties really lay, they chose the path of obedience. Even though almost “everybody was doing it,” they were willing to say, “No, this is wrong. We were wrong.” The Levites were not innocent, but God blessed them for their repentance and their obedience. 32:27–28 his brother... his companion... his neighbor. This terrible massacre is hard for us to reconcile with our feelings, but we must realize that sin is loathsome, and deserving of death. The Levites were used by God to execute His judgment in this instance, but they were not given general authority to kill sinners.

32:32–33 blot me out of Your book. Like Paul many centuries later, Moses could almost wish himself to be cursed, if by being so he could secure the salvation of his people (Rom. 9:3).

The Command to Leave Sinai

33 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Depart and go up from here, you <sup>a</sup>and the people whom you have brought out of the land of Egypt, to the land of which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, <sup>b</sup>“To your descendants I will give it.” <sup>2c</sup>And I will send My Angel before you, <sup>d</sup>and I will drive out the Canaanite and the Amorite and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite. <sup>3</sup>Go up <sup>e</sup>to a land flowing with milk and honey; for I will not go up in your midst, lest <sup>f</sup>I consume you on the way, for you are <sup>g</sup>a stiff-necked people.”

<sup>4</sup>And when the people heard this bad news, <sup>h</sup>they mourned, <sup>i</sup>and no one put on his ornaments. <sup>5</sup>For the LORD had said to Moses, “Say to the children of Israel, ‘You are a stiff-necked people. I could come up into your midst in one moment and consume you. Now therefore, take off your ornaments, that I may <sup>j</sup>know what to do to you.’” <sup>6</sup>So the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by Mount Horeb.

Moses Meets with the LORD

<sup>7</sup>Moses took his tent and pitched it outside the camp, far from the camp, and <sup>k</sup>called it the tabernacle of meeting. And it came to pass that everyone who <sup>l</sup>sought the LORD went out to the tabernacle of meeting which was outside the camp. <sup>8</sup>So it was, whenever Moses went out to the tabernacle, that all the people rose, and each man stood <sup>m</sup>at his tent door and watched Moses until he had gone into the tabernacle. <sup>9</sup>And it came to pass, when Moses entered the tabernacle, that the pillar of cloud descended and stood <sup>n</sup>at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD <sup>o</sup>talked with Moses. <sup>10</sup>All the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the tabernacle door, and all the people rose and <sup>p</sup>worshiped, each man in his tent door. <sup>11</sup>So <sup>q</sup>the LORD spoke to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. And he would return to the camp, but <sup>r</sup>his servant Joshua the son of Nun, a young man, did not depart from the tabernacle.

The Promise of God's Presence

<sup>12</sup>Then Moses said to the LORD, “See, <sup>r</sup>You say to me, ‘Bring up this people.’ But You have not let me know whom You will send with me. Yet You have said, <sup>s</sup>“I know you by name, and you have also found grace in My sight.” <sup>13</sup>Now therefore, I pray, <sup>t</sup>“if I have found grace in Your sight, <sup>u</sup>show me now Your way, that I may know You and that I may find grace in Your sight. And consider that this nation is <sup>v</sup>Your people.”

<sup>17</sup>So the LORD said to Moses, <sup>b</sup>“I will also do this thing that you have spoken; for you have found grace in My sight, and I know you by name.”

<sup>19</sup>Then He said, “I will make all My

32:34 in the day. This may refer to the day of the Lord, proclaimed by later prophets (Joel 2; Zeph. 1).

32:35 stiff-necked. Contrary to popular belief, God did not choose the Hebrew people because of their righteousness or willingness to serve Him (Deut. 9:7). In fact, one of Israel's besetting sins was obstinacy (vv. 3,5), and God saw them as a rebellious and stiff-necked people. The opposite of being obstinate is to have a “circumcised heart” (Deut. 10:16). Such a heart is inclined to obey the Word of God. God's presence with His people was in response to His covenantal promise: if they obeyed Him they would be His “special treasure” (Ex. 19:5).

33:6 stripped themselves of their ornaments. These ornaments were probably associated with the idolatrous worship of the golden calf. Their removal was a mark of genuine repentance and renewal.

33:8 all the people rose, and . . . stood. In contrast to their former wickedness, the people now responded reverently to the living God.

33:11 his servant Joshua. The word translated servant here does not mean slave, but rather a minister, one who does spiritual service.

33:17 I know you by name. God's grace was accompanied by His intimate knowledge of and care for Moses.

Moses Makes New Tablets

34 And the LORD said to Moses, <sup>a</sup>“Cut two tablets of stone like the first <sup>b</sup>ones, and <sup>b</sup>I will write on <sup>c</sup>these tablets the words that were on the first tablets which you broke. <sup>2</sup>So be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself to Me there <sup>c</sup>on the top of the mountain. <sup>3</sup>And no man shall <sup>d</sup>come up with you, and let no man be seen throughout all the mountain: let neither flocks nor herds feed before that mountain.”

<sup>4</sup>So he cut two tablets of stone like the first ones. Then Moses rose early in the morning and went up Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him; and he took in his hand the two tablets of stone.

head toward the earth, and worshiped. <sup>9</sup>Then he said, “If now I have found grace in Your sight, O Lord, <sup>n</sup>let my Lord, I pray, go among us, even though we <sup>o</sup>are a <sup>o</sup>stiff-necked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us as <sup>p</sup>Your inheritance.”

The Covenant Renewed

<sup>10</sup>And He said: “Behold, <sup>q</sup>I make a covenant. Before all your people I will <sup>r</sup>do marvels such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation; and all the people among whom you <sup>s</sup>are shall see the work of the LORD. For it is <sup>s</sup>an awesome thing that I will do with you. <sup>11</sup>Observe what I command you this day. Behold, <sup>u</sup>I am driving out from before you the Amorite and the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite. <sup>12</sup>Take heed to yourself, lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land where you are going, lest it be a snare in your midst. <sup>13</sup>But you shall <sup>v</sup>destroy their altars, break their <sup>w</sup>sacred pillars, and <sup>x</sup>cut down their wooden images <sup>14</sup>(for you shall worship <sup>y</sup>no other god, for the LORD, whose <sup>z</sup>name is Jealous, is a <sup>z</sup>jealous God), <sup>15</sup>lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they <sup>aa</sup>play the harlot with their gods and make sacrifice to their gods, and <sup>ab</sup>one of <sup>ab</sup>them <sup>ac</sup>invites you and you <sup>ad</sup>eat of his sacrifice, <sup>16</sup>and you take of <sup>ad</sup>his daughters for your sons, and his daughters <sup>ae</sup>play the harlot with their gods and make your sons play the harlot with their gods.

33:22–23 My hand. The use of words such as hand, back, and face is a way of describing God, who is Spirit, in terms familiar to humans.

34:6 merciful and gracious . . . abounding in goodness and truth. God is overwhelmingly gracious. John’s description of the coming of Jesus echoes this passage, describing the Messiah as “full of grace and truth” (John 1:14,17). To see Jesus is to see the Father (John 1:18).

34:7 forgiving iniquity. God is a God of unlimited grace, mercy, and forgiveness. But man is not automatically forgiven—He will by no means leave the guilty unpunished. We receive forgiveness from God only when we repent and seek reconciliation with Him. The second covenant with Israel (34:10) included relief from the judgment of the people’s sins to allow them to be taught their need and seek forgiveness.

34:15 play the harlot. This is probably more than a figure of speech. Unfaithfulness to the Lord was often manifested in sexual rites with temple prostitutes

34:16 take of his daughters for your sons. The quickest way for the Israelites to become corrupted with the false worship of the Canaanites would have been to marry into it.

<sup>27</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write <sup>r</sup>these words, for according to the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel.” <sup>28s</sup>So he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he neither ate bread nor drank water. And <sup>t</sup>He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Commandments.*

The Shining Face of Moses

<sup>29</sup>Now it was so, when Moses came down from Mount Sinai (and the <sup>v</sup>two tablets of the Testimony were in Moses’ hand when he came down from the mountain), that Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone while he talked with Him. <sup>30</sup>So when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, <sup>w</sup>the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him. <sup>31</sup>Then Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned to him; and Moses talked with them. <sup>32</sup>Afterward all the children of Israel came near, <sup>w</sup>and he gave them as commandments all that the LORD had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. <sup>33</sup>And when Moses had finished speaking with them, he put <sup>x</sup>a veil on his face. <sup>34</sup>But <sup>y</sup>whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with Him, he would take the veil off until he came out; and he would come out and speak to the children of Israel whatever he had been commanded. <sup>35</sup>And whenever the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses’ face shone, then Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with Him.

Sabbath Regulations

35 Then Moses gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together, and said to them, <sup>a</sup>“These are the words which the LORD has commanded you to do: <sup>2</sup>Work shall be done for <sup>b</sup>six days, but the seventh day shall be a holy day for you, a Sabbath of rest to the LORD. Whoever does any work on it shall be put to <sup>c</sup>death. <sup>3d</sup>You shall kindle no fire throughout your dwellings on the Sabbath day.”

Offerings for the Tabernacle

Articles of the Tabernacle

<sup>10k</sup>“All who are gifted artisans among you shall come and make all that the LORD has commanded: <sup>11l</sup>the tabernacle, its tent, its covering, its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets; <sup>12m</sup>the ark and its poles, <sup>with</sup> the mercy seat, and the veil of the covering; <sup>13</sup>the <sup>n</sup>table and its poles, all its utensils, <sup>o</sup>and the showbread; <sup>14</sup>also <sup>p</sup>the lampstand for the light, its utensils, its lamps, and the oil for the light; <sup>15q</sup>the incense altar, its poles, <sup>r</sup>the anointing oil, <sup>s</sup>the sweet incense, and the screen for the door at the entrance of the tabernacle;

34:28 forty days and forty nights. A person can survive without food for weeks, but no one can go entirely without water for more than three or four days. This fact has been used to cast doubt on the truth of this passage, but we must recall that there is no reason to think that God could not keep His servant hydrated in any way He chose.

The Tabernacle Offerings Presented

<sup>20</sup>And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses. <sup>21</sup>Then everyone came <sup>w</sup>whose heart was stirred, and everyone whose spirit was willing, and they <sup>x</sup>brought the LORD’s offering for the work of the tabernacle of meeting, for all its service, and for the holy garments. <sup>22</sup>They came, both men and women, as many as had a willing heart, and brought <sup>y</sup>earrings and nose rings, rings and necklaces, all <sup>z</sup>jewelry of gold, that is, every man who made an offering of gold to the LORD. <sup>23</sup>And <sup>a</sup>every man, with whom was found blue, purple, and scarlet thread, fine linen, and goats’ hair, red skins of rams, and badger skins, brought them. <sup>24</sup>Everyone who offered an offering of silver or bronze brought the LORD’s offering. And everyone with whom was found acacia wood for any work of the service, brought it. <sup>25</sup>All the women who were <sup>b</sup>gifted artisans spun yarn with their hands, and brought what they had spun, of blue, purple, and scarlet, and fine linen. <sup>26</sup>And all the women whose hearts stirred with wisdom spun yarn of goats’ hair. <sup>27</sup><sup>c</sup>The rulers brought onyx stones, and the stones to be set in the ephod and in the breastplate, <sup>28</sup>and <sup>d</sup>spices and oil for the light, for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense. <sup>29</sup>The children of Israel brought a <sup>e</sup>freewill offering to the LORD, all the men and women whose hearts were willing to bring material for all kinds of work which the LORD, by the hand of Moses, had commanded to be done.

The Artisans Called by God

<sup>30</sup>And Moses said to the children of Israel, “See, <sup>f</sup>the LORD has called by name Bezael the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah; <sup>31</sup>and He has filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom and understanding, in knowledge and all manner of workmanship, <sup>32</sup>to design artistic works, to work in gold and silver and bronze, <sup>33</sup>in cutting jewels for setting, in carving wood, and to work in all manner of artistic workmanship.

<sup>34</sup>“And He has put in his heart the ability to teach, in him and <sup>g</sup>Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. <sup>35</sup>He has <sup>h</sup>filled them with skill to do all manner of work of the engraver and the designer and the tapestry maker, in blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine linen, and of the weaver—those who do every work and those who design artistic works.

36 “And Bezael and Aholiab, and every <sup>i</sup>gifted artisan in whom the LORD has put wisdom and understanding, to know how to do all manner of work for the service of the <sup>j</sup>sanctuary, shall do according to all that the LORD has commanded.”

The People Give More than Enough

<sup>6</sup>So Moses gave a commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, “Let neither man nor woman do any more work for the offering of the sanctuary.” And the people were restrained from bringing, <sup>7</sup>for the material they had was sufficient for all the work to be done—indeed too <sup>p</sup>much.

Building the Tabernacle

<sup>8</sup>Then all the gifted artisans among them who worked on the tabernacle made ten curtains woven of fine linen, and of

35:31–35 Spirit of God. The work of the Holy Spirit is often thought to have begun at Pentecost (Acts 2), but in fact the Holy Spirit of God was at work long before that time. The Old Testament shows that He was active in creation (Gen. 1:2; Job 33:4). The Spirit came upon men for prophetic utterance (1 Sam. 10:10) and for all divine revelation (2 Sam. 23:2). Men were endowed for special functions by the power of the Holy Spirit (Ex. 31:3; Judg. 11:29; 13:25; 14:6). Bezael is a good example of a man indwelt by the Spirit of God in the Old Testament (37:1–9).

36:8—37:29 Servant—Not only ability was required for service in building the tabernacle. God also wanted willing hearts (36:2). Even if we do not feel blue, purple, and scarlet thread; with artistic designs of cherubim they made them. <sup>9</sup>The length of each curtain was twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; the curtains were all the same size. <sup>10</sup>And he coupled five curtains to one another, and the other five curtains he coupled to one another. <sup>11</sup>He made loops of blue yarn on the edge of the curtain on the selvedge of one set; likewise he did on the outer edge of the other curtain of the second set. <sup>12</sup>Fifty loops he made on one curtain, and fifty loops he made on the edge of the curtain on the end of the second set; the loops held one curtain to another. <sup>13</sup>And he made fifty clasps of gold, and coupled the curtains to one another with the clasps, that it might be one tabernacle.

boards and their sockets—sixteen sockets of silver—two sockets under each of the boards.

<sup>35</sup>And he made a veil of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen; it was worked with an artistic design of cherubim. <sup>36</sup>He made for it four pillars of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold, with their hooks of gold; and he cast four sockets of silver for them.

<sup>37</sup>He also made a screen for the tabernacle door, of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen, made by a weaver, and its five pillars with their hooks. And he overlaid their capitals and their rings with gold, but their five sockets were bronze.

Making the Ark of the Testimony

37 Then Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood; two and a half cubits was its length, a cubit and a half its width, and a cubit and a half its height. <sup>2</sup>He overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside, and made a molding of gold all around it. <sup>3</sup>And he cast for it four rings of gold to be set in its four corners: two rings on one side, and two rings on the other side of it. <sup>4</sup>He made poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold. <sup>5</sup>And he put the poles into the rings at the sides of the ark, to bear the ark. <sup>6</sup>He also made the mercy seat of pure gold; two and a half cubits was its length and a cubit and a half its width. <sup>7</sup>He made two cherubim of beaten gold; he made them of one piece at the two ends of the mercy seat: <sup>8</sup>one cherub at one end on this side, and the other cherub at the other end on that side. He made the cherubim at the two ends of one piece with the mercy seat. <sup>9</sup>The cherubim spread out their wings above, and covered the mercy seat with their wings. They faced one another; the faces of the cherubim were toward the mercy seat.

that we are particularly good at anything, we must remember that every talent we possess, no matter how small, is a gift from God. He gives us these gifts so that we will have something to give back to Him. We should look at ourselves, not saying, "I don't have any great skill, I'll just sit and watch," but rather, "Here's what I have—where shall I start?"

37:1–9 Bezalel. Bezalel carefully reproduced the pattern given to Moses (25:10–22). Obviously this pattern wasn't just a "design suggestion" from God.

Each detail had to be just like the plan because each part was a symbol or reminder of their relationship with God, His character, and His holiness.

Making the Table for the Showbread

<sup>10</sup>He made <sup>a</sup>the table of acacia wood; two cubits was its length, a cubit its width, and a cubit and a half its height. <sup>11</sup>And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made a molding of gold all around it. <sup>12</sup>Also he made a frame of a handbreadth all around it, and made a molding of gold for the frame all around it. <sup>13</sup>And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings on the four corners that were at its four legs. <sup>14</sup>The rings were close to the frame, as holders for the poles to bear the table. <sup>15</sup>And he made the poles of acacia wood to bear the table, and overlaid them with gold. <sup>16</sup>He made of pure gold the utensils which were on the table: its <sup>d</sup>dishes, its cups, its bowls, and its pitchers for pouring.

Making the Gold Lampstand

<sup>17</sup>He also made the <sup>e</sup>lampstand of pure gold; of hammered work he made the lampstand. Its shaft, its branches, its bowls, its ornamental knobs, and its flowers were of the same piece. <sup>18</sup>And six branches came out of its sides: three branches of the lampstand out of one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side. <sup>19</sup>There were three bowls made like almond blossoms on one branch, with an ornamental knob and a flower, and three bowls made like almond blossoms on the other branch, with an ornamental knob and a flower—and so for the six branches coming out of the lampstand. <sup>20</sup>And on the lampstand itself were four bowls made like almond blossoms, each with its ornamental knob and flower. <sup>21</sup>There was a knob under the first two branches of the same, a knob under the second two branches of the same, and a knob under the third two branches of the same, according to the six branches extending from it. <sup>22</sup>Their knobs and their branches were of one piece; all of it was one hammered piece of pure gold. <sup>23</sup>And he made its seven lamps, its <sup>h</sup>wick-trimmers, and its trays of pure gold. <sup>24</sup>Of a talent of pure gold he made it, with all its utensils.

Making the Altar of Incense

<sup>25</sup>He made the incense altar of acacia wood. Its length was a cubit and its width a cubit—it was square—and two cubits was its height. Its horns were of one piece with it. <sup>26</sup>And he overlaid it with pure gold: its top, its sides all around, and its horns. He also made for it a molding of gold all around it. <sup>27</sup>He made two rings of gold for it under its molding, by its two corners on both sides, as holders for the poles with which to bear it. <sup>28</sup>And he made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold.

Making the Anointing Oil and the Incense

<sup>29</sup>He also made <sup>k</sup>the holy anointing oil and the pure incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the perfumer.

Making the Altar of Burnt Offering

38 He made <sup>a</sup>the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood; five cubits was its length and five cubits its width—it was square—and its height was three cubits. <sup>2</sup>He made its horns on its four corners; the horns were of one piece with it. And he overlaid it with bronze. <sup>3</sup>He made all the utensils for the altar: the pans, the shovels, the basins, the forks, and the firepans; all its utensils he made of bronze. <sup>4</sup>And he made a grate of bronze network for the altar, under its rim, midway from the bottom. <sup>5</sup>He cast four rings for the four corners of the bronze grating, as holders for the poles. <sup>6</sup>And he made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with bronze. <sup>7</sup>Then he put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, with which to bear it. He made the altar hollow with boards.

Making the Bronze Laver

Making the Court of the Tabernacle

<sup>9</sup>Then he made <sup>c</sup>the court on the south side; the hangings of the court were of fine woven linen, one hundred cubits long. <sup>10</sup>There were twenty pillars for them, with twenty bronze sockets. The hooks of the pillars and their bands were silver. <sup>11</sup>On the north side the hangings were one hundred cubits long, with twenty pillars and their twenty bronze sockets. The hooks of the pillars and their bands were silver. <sup>12</sup>And on the west side there were hangings of fifty cubits, with ten pillars and their ten sockets. The hooks of the pillars and their bands were silver. <sup>13</sup>For the east side the hangings were fifty cubits. <sup>14</sup>The hangings of one side of the gate were fifteen cubits long, with their three pillars and their three sockets, <sup>15</sup>and the same for the other side of the court gate; on this side and that were hangings of fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three sockets. <sup>16</sup>All the hangings of the court all around were of fine woven linen. <sup>17</sup>The sockets for the pillars were bronze, the hooks of the pillars and their bands were silver, and the overlay of their capitals was silver; and all the pillars of the court had bands of silver. <sup>18</sup>The screen for the gate of the court was woven of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and of fine woven linen. The length was twenty cubits, and the height along its width was five cubits, corresponding to the hangings of the court. <sup>19</sup>And there were four pillars with their four sockets of bronze; their hooks were silver, and the overlay of their capitals and their bands was silver. <sup>20</sup>All the <sup>d</sup>pegs of the tabernacle, and of the court all around, were bronze.

Materials of the Tabernacle

<sup>29</sup>The offering of bronze was seventy talents and two thousand four hundred shekels. <sup>30</sup>And with it he made the sockets for the door of the tabernacle of meeting, the bronze altar, the bronze grating for it, and all the utensils for the altar, <sup>31</sup>the sockets for the court all around, the bases for the court gate, all the pegs for the tabernacle, and all the pegs for the court all around.

Making the Garments of the Priesthood

39 Of the <sup>a</sup>blue, purple, and scarlet thread they made <sup>b</sup>garments of ministry,* for ministering in the holy place, and made the holy garments for Aaron, <sup>c</sup>as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Making the Ephod

<sup>6</sup>And they set onyx stones, enclosed in settings of gold; they were engraved, as signets are engraved, with the names of the sons of Israel. <sup>7</sup>He put them on the shoulders of the ephod as <sup>g</sup>memorial stones for the sons of Israel, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Making the Breastplate

<sup>8</sup><sup>h</sup>And he made the breastplate, artistically woven like the workmanship of the ephod, of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and of fine woven linen. <sup>9</sup>They made the breastplate square by doubling it; a span was its length and a span its width when doubled. <sup>10</sup>And they set in it four rows of stones: a row with a sardius, a topaz, and an emerald was the first row; <sup>11</sup>the second row, a turquoise, a sapphire,

* 39:1 Or woven garments

38:22–23 Responsibility—No higher tribute can be paid than “Well done—you’ve finished.” Bezalel and his assistant, Aholiab, were called, Spirit-endowed, and commissioned for one work and one work alone. Neither of these individuals ever became celebrities, but God does not measure our effectiveness in His kingdom work by how many times we make the headlines in the local media. God cares about whether we obey Him faithfully, not whether other people approve of us. It is easy to make verbal commitments that sound really good, but God isn’t looking for fine words. He complimented Bezalel and Aholiab on finishing their assignment, not on their fine start or their good intentions (39:43).

38:24 All the gold. The weight of all the gold used in the work may have been about a ton. The talent weighed about 75 pounds, and equaled 3,000 shekels. 38:25 the silver. The quantity of silver was enormous, about 7,000 pounds.

38:26 a bekah for each man. The census of Numbers 14:6 puts the number of men over the age of 20 at 603,550.

38:27–28 the sanctuary. Although the tabernacle was a tent, it was not a makeshift dwelling. It was a glorious shrine that symbolized the presence of the living God in the midst of the people.

38:29 bronze. About 5,000 pounds of bronze were used.

and a diamond; <sup>12</sup>the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst; <sup>13</sup>the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper. They were enclosed in settings of gold in their mountings. <sup>14</sup>There were <sup>15</sup>twelve stones according to the names of the sons of Israel: according to their names, engraved like a signet, each one with its own name according to the twelve tribes. <sup>15</sup>And they made chains for the breastplate at the ends, like braided cords of pure gold. <sup>16</sup>They also made two settings of gold and two gold rings, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate. <sup>17</sup>And they put the two braided chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breastplate. <sup>18</sup>The two ends of the two braided chains they fastened in the two settings, and put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod in the front. <sup>19</sup>And they made two rings of gold and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on the edge of it, which was on the inward side of the ephod. <sup>20</sup>They made two other gold rings and put them on the two shoulder straps, underneath the ephod toward its front, right at the seam above the intricately woven band of the ephod. <sup>21</sup>And they bound the breastplate by means of its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue cord, so that it would be above the intricately woven band of the ephod, and that the breastplate would not come loose from the ephod, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Making the Other Priestly Garments

•HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

<sup>31</sup>And they tied to it a blue cord, to fasten it above on the turban, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The Work Completed

<sup>32</sup>Thus all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting was <sup>t</sup>finished. And the children of Israel did <sup>u</sup>according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses; so they did. <sup>33</sup>And they brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent and all its furnishings: its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets; <sup>34</sup>the covering of ram skins dyed red, the covering of badger skins, and the veil of the covering; <sup>35</sup>the ark of the Testimony with its poles, and the mercy seat; <sup>36</sup>the table, all its utensils, and the <sup>v</sup>showbread; <sup>37</sup>the pure gold lampstand with its lamps (the lamps set in order), all its utensils, and the oil for light; <sup>38</sup>the gold altar, the anointing oil, and the sweet incense; the screen for the tabernacle door; <sup>39</sup>the bronze altar, its grate of bronze, its poles, and all its utensils; the laver with its base; <sup>40</sup>the hangings of the court, its pillars and its sockets, the screen for the court gate, its cords, and its pegs; all the utensils for the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of meeting; <sup>41</sup>and the garments of ministry,* to minister in the holy place: the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and his sons' garments, to minister as priests.

<sup>42</sup>According to all that the LORD had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel <sup>w</sup>did all the work. <sup>43</sup>Then Moses looked over all the work, and indeed they had done it; as the LORD had commanded, just so they had done it. And Moses <sup>x</sup>blessed them.

The Tabernacle Erected and Arranged

39:32–43 so they did. Because it was so important in God's plan for His people, both in the wilderness and today, the tabernacle had to be constructed in exact accordance with the divine pattern. It was the place where His glory would actually dwell and where they could meet Him. Because they had done just as the Lord had commanded, "Moses blessed them." A mood of celebration pervades these verses. One can sense the pride of accomplishment coupled with the reverence for all of these holy objects.

40:2 first month. This was the month of Abib, also called Nisan (12:2; 13:4). The tabernacle was

ark of the Testimony, and partition off the ark with the veil. <sup>4e</sup>You shall bring in the table and <sup>f</sup>arrange the things that are to be set in order on it; <sup>g</sup>and you shall bring in the lampstand and light its lamps. <sup>5h</sup>You shall also set the altar of gold for the incense before the ark of the Testimony, and put up the screen for the door of the tabernacle. <sup>6</sup>Then you shall set the <sup>i</sup>altar of the burnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting. <sup>7</sup>And <sup>j</sup>you shall set the laver between the tabernacle of meeting and the altar, and put water in it. <sup>8</sup>You shall set up the court all around, and hang up the screen at the court gate.

tabernacle, <sup>u</sup>hung up the veil of the covering, and partitioned off the ark of the Testimony, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The Cloud and the Glory

40:20–21 the Testimony . . . the mercy seat. The Testimony was the stone tablets of the Ten Commandments (25:16). The mercy seat was the cover of the ark (25:17–22).

40:34 cloud . . . glory. When the Lord came near in 19:20, the people were terrified, but this time they were overjoyed. The glory of the Lord filling the tabernacle demonstrated His presence with the Israelites, His significance to them, and His awe-inspiring wonder.

40:35 the cloud rested above it. God is not "far away in heaven," occasionally looking at the earth. He lives among His people, and He desires to communicate with them (John 1:14).

40:38 the cloud of the LORD. The Book of Exodus ends with the picture of the gracious God hovering protectively over His people. He allowed His presence to be felt and seen.

THE THIRD BOOK OF MOSES CALLED LEVITICUS

► AUTHOR: Moses is declared to be the author of Leviticus fifty-six times within the book. External evidence supporting the authorship of Moses includes (1) a uniform ancient testimony, (2) parallels found in the Ras Shamra Tablets dating from 1400 B.C., and (3) the testimony of Christ (Matt. 8:2–4 and Lev. 14:1–4; Matt. 12:4 and Lev. 24:9; Luke 2:22).

► TIME: c. 1405 B.C.    ► KEY VERSES: Lev. 20:7–8

► THEME: Leviticus is God's guidebook for His newly redeemed people. It shows them how to worship and live holy lives. The instructions for the sacrificial system point to a holy God and what He requires from people who would serve Him. The laws of holiness and sanctification provide basic instructions for living in a community. Together the two groups of laws are a framework for relationship between God and man. Blessings result from obedience to these laws and discipline is the result of disobedience.

The Burnt Offering

1 Now the LORD <sup>a</sup>called to Moses, and spoke to him <sup>b</sup>from the tabernacle of meeting, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: “When any one of you brings an offering to the LORD, you shall bring your offering of the livestock—of the herd and of the flock.

1:1–17 offering to the LORD. Leviticus continues the Exodus narrative of the dedication of the tabernacle by indicating how the liberated Israelites are to worship their God. This book deals with the voluntary sacrifices for thanksgiving, communion, or cleansing from sin. These offerings from the herd or flock represented the labor and financial investment of the owner, and were a continual reminder that a price always has to be paid for sin.

1:3 burnt sacrifice. The “burnt sacrifice” was the only offering that was entirely consumed on the altar. It foreshadows the total sacrifice of Christ on the cross, as well as representing wholehearted, unreserved worship where nothing is withheld or left over. It reminds us that nothing must be held back for ourselves; it all belongs to Him. male without blemish. Offering a perfect animal was a real sacrifice, not just “something they didn't really need or want.” These perfect animals were valuable for breeding or for sale. The principle still holds. God's people are to offer their best, of their own free will, and with joy.

1:4 he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt offering. Each worshiper brought his or her own offering and laid his own hand on the animal's head. No one could send another to act on his behalf. In the same way, no one today can send someone else to accept Christ's atonement for him; we must each come to Christ ourselves, acknowledging our own sin before Him.

1:9 sweet aroma. Never does Scripture represent God as eating the offerings brought to Him, as the pagan gods were thought to do. When a sacrifice was done in faith with a free will, it was accepted by the Lord as desirable, or sweet.

blemish. <sup>11p</sup>He shall kill it on the north side of the altar before the LORD; and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle its blood all around on the altar. <sup>12</sup>And he shall cut it into its pieces, with its head and its fat; and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire upon the altar; <sup>13</sup>but he shall wash the entrails and the legs with water. Then the priest shall bring it all and burn it on the altar; it is a burnt sacrifice, an <sup>q</sup>offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.

The Grain Offering

<sup>4</sup>And if you bring as an offering a grain offering baked in the oven, it shall be

unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or unleavened wafers <sup>g</sup>anointed with oil. <sup>5</sup>But if your offering is a grain offering baked in a pan, it shall be of fine flour, unleavened, mixed with oil. <sup>6</sup>You shall break it in pieces and pour oil on it; it is a grain offering.

<sup>7</sup>If your offering is a grain offering baked in a <sup>h</sup>covered pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil. <sup>8</sup>You shall bring the grain offering that is made of these things to the LORD. And when it is presented to the priest, he shall bring it to the altar. <sup>9</sup>Then the priest shall take from the grain offering <sup>i</sup>a memorial portion, and burn it on the altar. It is an <sup>j</sup>offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD. <sup>10</sup>And <sup>k</sup>what is left of the grain offering shall be Aaron's and his sons'. It is most holy of the offerings to the LORD made by fire.

2:1 oil . . . frankincense. Olive oil was a primary part of the diet and a prominent symbol of blessing and prosperity. Frankincense was a costly incense from South Arabia and East Africa, an imported luxury that would have to be bought with money. By including frankincense, as well as the animals and grain they could raise on their land, every aspect of Israel's wealth was made a part of the offerings to God.

2:3 shall be Aaron's and his sons'. A significant portion of the priest's daily food came from this part of the grain offering. Only the consecrated priests were allowed to eat it, and only within the tabernacle.

2:8–9 priest. There were always two individuals involved when the ancient Hebrew brought his sacrifice to God. One was the offerer himself and the other was the officiating priest, who was the "bridge builder" between men and God. Jesus, as a better priest and a better sacrifice, once for all time bridged the gap between God and man, and through Him we can have direct access to God, to confess our sins and receive forgiveness.

2:11 leaven. Leaven and honey were prohibited because both cause fermentation, which represents corruption.

2:13 salt of the covenant of your God. Salt was to be used in every grain offering. This was a reminder of the covenant that God had made with Israel at Sinai, and was a symbol of faithfulness to God and His covenant. There is an old saying, "he has eaten my salt," which means that you have taken someone into your home, given them shelter, food, and hospitality. The idea of the "salt" of God's covenant was well understood.

The Peace Offering

<sup>9</sup>Then he shall offer from the sacrifice of the peace offering, as an offering made by fire to the LORD, its fat and the whole fat tail which he shall remove close to the backbone. And the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails, <sup>10</sup>the two kidneys and the fat that is on them by the flanks, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove; <sup>11</sup>and the priest shall burn them on the altar as <sup>n</sup>food, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

the tabernacle of meeting; and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle its blood all around on the altar. <sup>14</sup>Then he shall offer from it his offering, as an offering made by fire to the LORD. The fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails, <sup>15</sup>the two kidneys and the fat that is on them by the flanks, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove; <sup>16</sup>and the priest shall burn them on the altar as food, an offering made by fire for a sweet aroma; <sup>q</sup>all the fat is the LORD's.

The Sin Offering

4 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Speak to the children of Israel, saying: <sup>a</sup>"If a person sins unintentionally against any of the commandments of the LORD in anything which ought not to be done, and does any of them, <sup>b</sup>if the anointed priest sins, bringing guilt on the people, then let him offer to the LORD for his sin which he has sinned <sup>c</sup>a young bull without blemish as a <sup>d</sup>sin offering. <sup>4</sup>He shall bring the bull <sup>e</sup>to the door of the tabernacle of meeting before the LORD, lay his hand on the bull's head, and kill the bull before the LORD. <sup>5</sup>Then the anointed priest shall <sup>f</sup>take some of the bull's blood and bring it to the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>6</sup>The priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of the blood seven times before the LORD, in front of the <sup>g</sup>veil of the sanctuary. <sup>7</sup>And the priest shall <sup>h</sup>put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of meeting; and he shall pour <sup>i</sup>the remaining blood of the bull at the base of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>8</sup>He shall take from it all the fat of the bull as the sin offering. The fat that covers the entrails and

3:1 peace offering. The Hebrew word for "peace" means "wholeness, completeness, soundness, health." When a person possesses all of these attributes, he is at peace. The peace offerings were a time of celebrating and enjoying the gift of peace with God. Yet it was only after Christ's death and resurrection, when He became our perfect peace offering (Col. 1:20) that we could really have perfect peace with God. The sacrifices had to be made over and over, but Christ's death was once, for all time.

3:3–4 two kidneys, and the fat that is on them . . . the fatty lobe. The fat was one of the most prized portions of the meat, and the kidneys were considered the seat of the emotions. The liver was an essential organ for telling the future in the pagan cultures surrounding Israel. Giving all of these things to God symbolized giving Him the best, giving Him the hopes, dreams, and desires of life; recognizing that He alone has control of the future, and that He will reveal it in His own way, at His own time.

3:5 upon the burnt sacrifice. The peace offering normally followed the burnt offering, which was entirely consumed on the altar. Being reconciled to God through the burnt offering, the worshiper was in a position to fellowship with God. Repentance and reconciliation must always come before genuine fellowship.

3:9 the whole fat tail. The tail of the Palestinian broad-tailed sheep is almost entirely fat and can weigh more than 16 pounds. This explains its special mention in the regulations for offering the fat of the sheep.

all the fat which is on the entrails, <sup>9</sup>the two kidneys and the fat that is on them by the flanks, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove, <sup>10</sup>as it was taken from the bull of the sacrifice of the peace offering; and the priest shall burn them on the altar of the burnt offering. <sup>11</sup><sup>k</sup>But the bull's hide and all its flesh, with its head and legs, its entrails and offal—<sup>12</sup>the whole bull he shall carry outside the camp to a clean place, <sup>l</sup>where the ashes are poured out, and <sup>m</sup>burn it on wood with fire; where the ashes are poured out it shall be burned.

<sup>13</sup>Now <sup>n</sup>if the whole congregation of Israel sins unintentionally, <sup>o</sup>and the thing is hidden from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done something against any of the commandments of the LORD in anything which should not be done, and are guilty; <sup>14</sup>when the sin which they have committed becomes known, then the assembly shall offer a young bull for the sin, and bring it before the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>15</sup>And the elders of the congregation <sup>p</sup>shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before the LORD. Then the bull shall be killed before the LORD. <sup>16</sup><sup>a</sup>The anointed priest shall bring some of the bull's blood to the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>17</sup>Then the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, in front of the veil. <sup>18</sup>And he shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar which is before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of meeting; and he shall pour the remaining blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>19</sup>He shall take all the fat from it and burn it on the altar. <sup>20</sup>And he shall do <sup>r</sup>with the bull as he did with the bull as a sin offering; thus he shall do with it. <sup>s</sup>So the priest shall make atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them. <sup>21</sup>Then he shall carry the bull outside the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bull. It is a sin offering for the assembly.

bring as his offering a kid of the goats, a male without blemish. <sup>24</sup>And <sup>v</sup>he shall lay his hand on the head of the goat, and kill it at the place where they kill the burnt offering before the LORD. It is a sin offering. <sup>25</sup><sup>w</sup>The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering. <sup>26</sup>And he shall burn all its fat on the altar, like <sup>x</sup>the fat of the sacrifice of the peace offering. <sup>y</sup>So the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

<sup>27</sup><sup>z</sup>If anyone of the common people sins unintentionally by doing something against any of the commandments of the LORD in anything which ought not to be done, and is guilty, <sup>28</sup>or <sup>q</sup>if his sin which he has committed comes to his knowledge, then he shall bring as his offering a kid of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin which he has committed. <sup>29</sup><sup>b</sup>And he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill the sin offering at the place of the burnt offering. <sup>30</sup>Then the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger, put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour all the remaining blood at the base of the altar. <sup>31</sup><sup>c</sup>He shall remove all its fat, <sup>d</sup>as fat is removed from the sacrifice of the peace offering; and the priest shall burn it on the altar for a <sup>e</sup>sweet aroma to the LORD. <sup>f</sup>So the priest shall make atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.

4:11–12 the whole bull. Burning the whole bull ensured that the priest did not profit in any way from his own sin or the atonement for his sin. Carrying it outside the camp was another way of symbolizing the seriousness and pollution of sin.

4:13–21 the whole congregation. Interestingly, not only individuals bring a sin offering to God, but the whole congregation as well. We are used to thinking of individuals coming under conviction and repenting, but how can a whole community come to this way of thinking? A congregation or community can begin to realize that they have misrepresented God, or fallen short of their God-given responsibilities, and together repent and ask for forgiveness, even though the members repenting may not have been the actual people who made the bad decisions that created the problem. Groups need to turn around and redirect their actions, just as much as individuals do,

The Trespass Offering

5 <sup>1</sup>If a person sins in <sup>a</sup>hearing the utterance of an oath, and is a witness, whether he has seen or known of the matter—if he does not tell it, he <sup>b</sup>bears guilt.

<sup>2</sup>Or <sup>c</sup>if a person touches any unclean thing, whether it is the carcass of an unclean beast, or the carcass of unclean livestock, or the carcass of unclean creeping things, and he is unaware of it, he also shall be unclean and <sup>d</sup>guilty. <sup>3</sup>Or if he touches <sup>e</sup>human uncleanness—whatever uncleanness with which a man may be defiled, and he is unaware of it—when he realizes it, then he shall be guilty.

<sup>5</sup>And it shall be, when he is guilty in any of these matters, that he shall <sup>h</sup>confess that he has sinned in that thing; <sup>6</sup>and he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD for his sin which he has committed, a female from the flock, a lamb or a kid of the goats as a sin offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin.

<sup>7</sup>If he is not able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring to the LORD, for his trespass which he has committed, two <sup>i</sup>turtledoves or two young pigeons: one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering. <sup>8</sup>And he shall bring them to the priest, who shall offer that which is for the sin offering first, and <sup>k</sup>wring off its head from its neck, but shall not divide it completely. <sup>9</sup>Then he shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, and the <sup>l</sup>rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar. It is a sin offering. <sup>10</sup>And he shall offer the second as a burnt offering according to the <sup>m</sup>prescribed manner. So <sup>n</sup>the priest shall make atonement on his behalf for his sin which he has committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

<sup>11</sup>But if he is <sup>o</sup>not able to bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons, then he who sinned shall bring for his offering one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a sin offering. <sup>12</sup>He shall put no oil on it, nor shall he put frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering. <sup>13</sup>Then he shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it <sup>p</sup>as a memorial portion, and burn it on the altar according to the offerings made by fire to the LORD. It is a sin offering. <sup>13s</sup>The priest shall make atonement for him, for his sin that he has committed in any of these matters; and it shall be forgiven him. <sup>14</sup>The rest shall be the priest's as a grain offering."

Offerings with Restitution

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>15u</sup>"If a person commits a trespass, and sins unintentionally in regard to the holy things of the LORD, then <sup>v</sup>he shall bring to the LORD as his trespass offering a ram without blemish from the flocks, with your valuation in shekels of silver according to <sup>w</sup>the shekel of the sanctuary, as a trespass offering. <sup>16</sup>And he shall make restitution for the harm that he has done in regard to the holy thing, <sup>x</sup>and shall add one-fifth to it and give it to the priest. <sup>y</sup>So the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of and this is one of the ways that God changes whole societies.

5:3 human uncleanness. Body fluids, a person's waste, and contact with a corpse were all causes of uncleanness. The ancient Israelites knew nothing about microbiology, but God, who knows everything, gave them laws that prevented disease and made them distinct from their neighbors.

5:4 swears . . . and he is unaware of it. Certainly a person would know when he makes a vow, but he might not be immediately aware of how rash his vow is, or that the long term consequences are undesirable. Whether the vow was made with good intentions, but not carried out, or made with wicked intentions, but not carried out, the person who made the vow is still responsible to repent of his foolishness when he becomes aware of it.

5:7 two turtledoves. Part of the purification offering was burned on the altar, and part was not burned. When offering birds, the worshiper brought two in order to accomplish this.

5:11 one-tenth of an ephah. This was approximately two quarts.

5:13 The rest shall be the priest's. Part of the offering was burned on the altar, as was part of the animal sacrifices. The rest belonged to the priests, as did the remainder of the animal sacrifices brought by ordinary citizens, except for their burnt offerings.

5:15 commits a trespass, and sins unintentionally . . . trespass offering. This refers both to the objective responsibility of a sinner for his or her actions and the subjective feeling of guilt experienced by the sinner. The offering righted the wrong of the offense and cleared the conscience of the sinner.

5:15—6:7 person commits a trespass. The trespass offering covers both offenses against God (5:15–19) and against people (6:1–7). The offense may be unintentional, or quite deliberate, but regardless of the motive, such actions make the perpetrator guilty. The quickest way to mend relationships with God and with fellow human beings is to honestly admit our guilt and wrongdoing, pay back or repair where we can, and ask forgiveness of those we have sinned against. This responsibility cannot be side-stepped.

6 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup>“If a person sins and <sup>3</sup>commits a trespass against the LORD by <sup>4</sup>lying to his neighbor about <sup>5</sup>what was delivered to him for safekeeping, or about a pledge, or about a robbery, or if he has <sup>6</sup>extorted from his neighbor, <sup>7</sup>or if he <sup>8</sup>has found what was lost and lies concerning it, and <sup>9</sup>swears falsely—in any one of these things that a man may do in which he sins: <sup>10</sup>then it shall be, because he has sinned and is guilty, that he shall restore <sup>11</sup>what he has stolen, or the thing which he has extorted, or what was delivered to him for safekeeping, or the lost thing which he found, <sup>12</sup>or all that about which he has sworn falsely. He shall <sup>13</sup>restore its full value, add one-fifth more to it, and give it to whomever it belongs, on the day of his trespass offering. <sup>14</sup>And he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD, <sup>15</sup>a ram without blemish from the flock, with your valuation, as a trespass offering, to the priest. <sup>16</sup>So the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD, and he shall be forgiven for any one of these things that he may have done in which he trespasses.”

The Law of the Burnt Offering

<sup>8</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>9</sup>“Command Aaron and his sons, saying, ‘This is the <sup>10</sup>law of the burnt offering: The burnt offering shall be on the hearth upon the altar all night until morning, and the fire of the altar shall be kept burning on it. <sup>11</sup>And the priest shall put on his linen garment, and his linen trousers he shall put on his body, and take up the ashes of the burnt offering which the fire has consumed on the altar, and he shall put them <sup>12</sup>beside the altar. <sup>13</sup>Then <sup>14</sup>he shall take off his garments, put on other garments, and carry the ashes outside the camp <sup>15</sup>to a clean place. <sup>16</sup>And the fire on the altar shall be kept burning on it; it shall not be put out. And the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order on it; and he shall burn on it the <sup>17</sup>fat of the peace offerings. <sup>18</sup>A fire shall always be burning on the <sup>19</sup>altar; it shall never go out.

The Law of the Grain Offering

<sup>14</sup>This is the law of the grain offering: The sons of Aaron shall offer it on the altar before the LORD. <sup>15</sup>He shall take from it his handful of the fine flour of the grain offering, with its oil, and all the frankincense which is on the grain offering, and shall burn it on the altar for a sweet aroma, as a memorial to the LORD. <sup>16</sup>And the remainder of it Aaron and his sons shall eat; with unleavened bread it shall be eaten in a holy place; in the court of the tabernacle of meeting they shall eat it. <sup>17</sup>It shall not be

5:17 though he does not know it, yet is he guilty. Ignorance does not make an offense harmless. The offender was still guilty and bore responsibility for his sin. He might also be troubled in conscience, though he might never learn the exact nature of his offense. This raises the concept that a person can be aware of a break in his fellowship with God, without being sure what caused this break.

5:18 erred and did not know it. This was not a sin of rebellion, but one for which the offender earnestly desired to atone, though he did not know what it was.

5:19 he has certainly trespassed against the LORD. The fact that the priest declared him forgiven, and the peace of conscience that the worshiper had, declares that he was indeed guilty of some trespass; it was not his imagination. It is possible for a Christian to have an overactive conscience that keeps the believer in a constant state of anxiety about unknown sins. It is good to remember that God knows all about this, and if we confess our feelings of guilt, He will either show us our true guilt and grant us forgiveness and a clear conscience, or show us the error in our thinking regarding what He expects from us.

6:5–6 restore. Restitution and a one-fifth fine were evidence of genuine repentance. Then the offender could bring the ram for the trespass offering and be forgiven for the sin of swearing falsely in God’s name. Jesus preserved this order for the person who remembered at the altar that he had offended his brother (Matt. 5:23).

6:10 trousers. The breeches were linen trousers that prevented immodest exposure as the priest ascended and descended the altar ramp. This modesty communicated to the Israelites that human sexuality could not influence God. That idea was a central feature of Baal worship, which continually tempted the Israelites. The priests of Baal would use obscene gestures and actions in the pagan worship of their depraved god.

6:13 fire shall always be burning. There are at least three reasons the priests are instructed to keep the fire burning. The original fire on the altar came from God, perpetual fire symbolized perpetual worship, and perpetual fire was a reminder of the continual need for atonement and reconciliation with God.

I have given it as their portion of My offerings made by fire; it is most holy, like the sin offering and the trespass offering. <sup>18</sup>All the males among the children of Aaron may eat it. <sup>19</sup>It shall be a statute forever in your generations concerning the offerings made by fire to the LORD. <sup>20</sup>Everyone who touches them must be holy.”*

<sup>19</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>20</sup>“This is the offering of Aaron and his sons, which they shall offer to the LORD, beginning on the day when he is anointed: one-tenth of an <sup>21</sup>ephah of fine flour as a daily grain offering, half of it in the morning and half of it at night. <sup>22</sup>It shall be made in a <sup>23</sup>pan with oil. When it is mixed, you shall bring it in. The baked pieces of the grain offering you shall offer for a sweet aroma to the LORD. <sup>24</sup>The priest from among his sons, <sup>25</sup>who is anointed in his place, shall offer it. It is a statute forever to the LORD. <sup>26</sup>It shall be wholly burned. <sup>27</sup>For every grain offering for the priest shall be wholly burned. It shall not be eaten.”

The Law of the Sin Offering

<sup>24</sup>Also the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>25</sup>“Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, ‘This is the law of the sin offering: <sup>26</sup>In the place where the burnt offering is killed, the sin offering shall be killed before the LORD. It is most holy. <sup>27</sup>The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it. In a holy place it shall be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>28</sup>Everyone who touches its flesh must be holy.* And when its blood is sprinkled on any garment, you shall wash that on which it was sprinkled, in a holy place. <sup>29</sup>But the earthen vessel in which it is boiled <sup>30</sup>shall be broken. And if it is boiled in a bronze pot, it shall be both scoured and rinsed in water. <sup>31</sup>All the males among the priests may eat it. It is most holy. <sup>32</sup>But no sin offering from which any of the blood is brought into the tabernacle of meeting, to make atonement in the holy <sup>33</sup>place,* shall be <sup>34</sup>eaten. It shall be <sup>35</sup>burned in the fire.

6:20 half of it in the morning . . . half of it at night.

The idea of a morning and evening appointment with God is ancient. It is a precious privilege, open to every believer because Jesus opened the door into the presence of God when He died on the cross for our sins.

6:22 a statute forever. This grain offering and the burnt offering were sacrificed daily—with some interruptions, most notably during the exile—until the destruction of the temple in A.D. 70. Even in the periods of Judah’s worst apostasy, the evidence suggests that the daily offerings continued, though often for incorrect or inadequate reasons (Is. 1:10–17; Jer. 7:8–15; Mic. 6:6–8).

7:1–7 trespass offering. The guilt or trespass offering was “most holy,” showing how seriously and carefully God considers the acts of reparation made by His

The Law of the Trespass Offering

<sup>7</sup>‘Likewise *α*this is the law of the trespass offering (it is most holy): <sup>2</sup>In the place where they kill the burnt offering they shall kill the trespass offering. And its blood he shall sprinkle all around on the altar. <sup>3</sup>And he shall offer from it all its fat. The fat tail and the fat that covers the entrails, <sup>4</sup>the two kidneys and the fat that is on them by the flanks, and the fatty lobe *α*attached to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove; <sup>5</sup>and the priest shall burn them on the altar *α*as an offering made by fire to the LORD. It is a trespass offering. <sup>6</sup>Every male among the priests may eat it. It shall be eaten in a holy place. <sup>7</sup>It is most holy. <sup>8</sup>The trespass offering is like the sin offering; there is one law for them both: the priest who makes atonement with it shall have it. <sup>9</sup>And the priest who offers anyone’s burnt offering, that priest shall have for himself the skin of the burnt offering which he has offered. <sup>10</sup>Also *α*every grain offering that is baked in the oven and all that is prepared in the covered pan, or in a pan, shall be the priest’s who offers it. <sup>11</sup>Every grain offering, whether mixed with oil or dry, shall belong to all the sons of Aaron, to one *α*as much as the other.

The Law of Peace Offerings

people. The priest was to eat it in a holy place. It was his to eat, as part of God’s provision for him, but he was to remember where it came from. The price of atonement has never been cheap in God’s eyes, even when it was as incomplete as the offering of a goat or lamb.

Fat and Blood May Not Be Eaten

The Portion of Aaron and His Sons

shall bring the offerings made by fire to the LORD. The fat with the breast he shall bring, that the <sup>v</sup>breast may be waved as a wave offering before the LORD. <sup>31</sup>And the priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the <sup>x</sup>breast shall be Aaron’s and his sons’. <sup>32</sup><sup>b</sup>Also the right thigh you shall give to the priest as a heave offering from the sacrifices of your peace offerings. <sup>33</sup>He among the sons of Aaron, who offers the blood of the peace offering and the fat, shall have the right thigh for his part. <sup>34</sup>For <sup>y</sup>“the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering I have taken from the children of Israel, from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and I have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons from the children of Israel by a statute forever.”

7:34 the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering. This present was a contribution to the officiating priest as his portion of the peace offerings for thanksgiving. The offering was waved before the Lord as an acknowledgment that He is the giver of all gifts.

8:6–13 Purification—Moses carried out the Lord’s command (Ex. 29:4) by purifying Aaron and his sons for the priesthood. The purification process began with an outward washing of water which symbolized an inward purity. The believer today also shows he <sup>g</sup>put the tunic on him, girded him with the sash, clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod on him; and he girded him with the intricately woven band of the ephod, and with it tied the ephod on him. <sup>8</sup>Then he put the breastplate on him, and he <sup>h</sup>put the Urim and the Thummim* in the breastplate. <sup>9</sup>And he put the turban on his head. Also on the turban, on its front, he put the golden plate, the holy crown, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>10</sup>Also Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it, and consecrated them. <sup>11</sup>He sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times, anointed the altar and all its utensils, and the laver and its base, to consecrate them. <sup>12</sup>And he <sup>k</sup>poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him, to consecrate him.

8:8 the Urim and the Thummim. These were the sacred lots used to determine the will of God. What they looked like and how they were used is not known. Apparently, the high priest phrased questions so the answers would be yes, or no, depending on how the lots came up.

8:12 anointed him. The high priests of Israel, beginning here with Aaron, were anointed, as were the kings of Israel (1 Sam. 10:1; 16:13) and at least one of the prophets (1 Kin. 19:16). Jesus combines in His person the offices of High Priest, King, and Prophet, so He is the Anointed One, which is the meaning of the names Messiah (Hebrew) and Christ (Greek).

The Priestly Ministry Begins

9 It came to pass on the <sup>a</sup>eighth day that Moses called Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel. <sup>2</sup>And he said to Aaron, “Take for yourself a young <sup>b</sup>bull as a sin offering and a ram as a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD. <sup>3</sup>And to the children of Israel you shall speak, saying, “Take a kid of the goats as a sin offering, and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, as a burnt offering, <sup>4</sup>also a bull and a ram as peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD, and <sup>a</sup>a grain offering mixed with oil; for today the LORD will appear to you.”

<sup>5</sup>So they brought what Moses commanded before the tabernacle of meeting. And all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD. <sup>6</sup>Then Moses said, “This is the thing which the LORD commanded you to do, and the glory of the LORD will appear to you.” <sup>7</sup>And Moses said to Aaron, “Go to the altar, <sup>i</sup>offer your sin offering and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself and for the people. <sup>8</sup>Offer the offering of the people, and make atonement for them, as the LORD commanded.”

<sup>8</sup>Aaron therefore went to the altar and killed the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself. <sup>9</sup>Then the sons of Aaron brought the blood to him. And he dipped his finger in the blood, put it on the horns of the altar, and poured the blood at the base of the altar. <sup>10b</sup>But the fat, the kidneys, and the fatty lobe from the liver of the sin offering he burned on the altar, as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>11</sup>The flesh and the hide he burned with fire outside the camp.

<sup>18</sup>He also killed the bull and the ram as <sup>p</sup>sacrifices of peace offerings, which were for the people. And Aaron’s sons presented to him the blood, which he sprinkled all around on the altar, <sup>19</sup>and the fat from the bull and the ram—the fatty tail, what covers the entrails and the kidneys, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver; <sup>20</sup>and they put the fat on the breasts. <sup>q</sup>Then he burned the fat on the altar; <sup>21</sup>but the breasts and the right thigh Aaron waved <sup>r</sup>as a wave offering before the LORD, as Moses had commanded.

<sup>22</sup>Then Aaron lifted his hand toward the people, <sup>s</sup>blessed them, and came down from offering the sin offering, the burnt offering, and peace offerings. <sup>23</sup>And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of meeting, and came out and blessed the people. Then the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people, <sup>24</sup>and <sup>t</sup>fire came out from before the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the fat on the altar. When all the people saw it, they <sup>u</sup>shouted and fell on their <sup>v</sup>faces.

The Profane Fire of Nadab and Abihu

8:35 so that you may not die. This statement was a reminder that it is dangerous to approach God carelessly, without reverence, or ignore His instructions. Two of Aaron’s sons failed to heed this warning and died (ch. 10).

9:4 the LORD will appear to you. The purpose of all worship is to fellowship with God. The sacrifices were not an end in themselves; they allowed the worshiper to meet with God without being destroyed. The Israelites looked forward and we look back to Christ’s atonement, which made the way for us to come freely into God’s presence.

9:15 the goat, which was the sin offering. This goat was offered for atonement of the people as a general acknowledgment that they would always need to make things right with God before they could worship Him, and is referred to again in ch. 16. The bull for the sin offering (4:14) was for a specific sin, rather than dealing with sin nature (that is, our ability to sin).

9:22 Aaron . . . blessed them. The ultimate function of the priests was to bless the people. The purpose of the priest’s sacrifices was to cleanse the priests so they could bless the people, and the purpose of the people’s sacrifices was to cleanse the people to receive this blessing from God.

10:1–2 profane fire. Aaron and his sons served the Lord as high priests in the worship of the tabernacle. They had been properly appointed, purified, clothed, had not commanded them. <sup>2</sup>So <sup>d</sup>fire went out from the LORD and devoured them, and they died before the LORD. <sup>3</sup>And Moses said to Aaron, “This is what the LORD spoke, saying:

‘By those <sup>e</sup>who come near Me
I must be regarded as holy;
And before all the people
I must be glorified.’”

So Aaron held his peace.

<sup>4</sup>Then Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said to them, “Come near, <sup>f</sup>carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp.” <sup>5</sup>So they went near and carried them by their tunics out of the camp, as Moses had said.

<sup>6</sup>And Moses said to Aaron, and to Eleazar and Ithamar, his sons, “Do not uncover your heads nor tear your clothes, lest you die, and <sup>g</sup>wrath come upon all the people. But let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the LORD has kindled. <sup>7</sup>You shall not go out from the door of the tabernacle of meeting, lest you die, <sup>f</sup>for the anointing oil of the LORD is upon you.” And they did according to the word of Moses.

Conduct Prescribed for Priests

anointed, and ordained. Initially they did everything that the Lord commanded through Moses. But when Nadab and Abihu disobeyed God in the very performance of their duties, the Lord swiftly punished them with a consuming fire. Being blessed with a thriving ministry is no excuse to go off and do things our own way. God doesn’t take such actions lightly, and neither should we.

10:3 By those who come near Me . . . I must be glorified. Although this passage refers specifically to the priests of Israel, it is still a good concept for all believers. We are close to God, we remember that He is holy, that He paid a great price to redeem us, and it is our purpose to glorify Him.

11:3 chewing the cud. Ruminants, like cows, sheep, goats, deer, and antelope, eat only plants, mainly

Foods Permitted and Forbidden

11 Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying to them, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, saying, <sup>a</sup>“These are the animals which you may eat among all the animals that are on the earth: <sup>3</sup>Among the animals, whatever divides the hoof, having cloven hooves and chewing the cud—that you may eat. <sup>4</sup>Nevertheless these you shall <sup>b</sup>not eat among those that chew the cud or those that have cloven hooves: the camel, because it chews the cud but does not have cloven hooves, is unclean to you; <sup>5</sup>the rock hyrax, because it chews

the cud but does not have cloven hooves, is unclean to you; <sup>6</sup>the hare, because it chews the cud but does not have cloven hooves, is unclean to you; <sup>7</sup>and the swine, though it divides the hoof, having cloven hooves, yet does not chew the cud, is unclean to you. <sup>8</sup>Their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch. <sup>9</sup>They are unclean to you.

<sup>9a</sup>These you may eat of all that are in the water: whatever in the water has fins and scales, whether in the seas or in the rivers—that you may eat. <sup>10</sup>But all in the seas or in the rivers that do not have fins and scales, all that move in the water or any living thing which is in the water, they are an abomination to you. <sup>11</sup>They shall be an abomination to you; you shall not eat their flesh, but you shall regard their carcasses as an abomination. <sup>12</sup>Whatever in the water does not have fins or scales—that shall be an abomination to you.

Unclean Animals

carries part of the carcass of any of them <sup>i</sup>shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening; <sup>26</sup>The carcass of any animal which divides the foot, but is not cloven-hoofed or does not chew the cud, is unclean to you. Everyone who touches it shall be unclean. <sup>27</sup>And whatever goes on its paws, among all kinds of animals that go on all fours, those are unclean to you. Whoever touches any such carcass shall be unclean until evening. <sup>28</sup>Whoever carries any such carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening. It is unclean to you.

<sup>29</sup>These also shall be unclean to you among the creeping things that creep on the earth: the mole, the mouse, and the large lizard after its kind; <sup>30</sup>the gecko, the monitor lizard, the sand reptile, the sand lizard, and the chameleon. <sup>31</sup>These are unclean to you among all that creep. Whoever <sup>k</sup>touches them when they are dead shall be unclean until evening. <sup>32</sup>Anything on which any of them falls, when they are dead shall be unclean, whether it is any item of wood or clothing or skin or sack, whatever item it is, in which any work is done, <sup>l</sup>it must be put in water. And it shall be unclean until evening; then it shall be clean. <sup>33</sup>Any <sup>m</sup>earthen vessel into which any of them falls <sup>n</sup>you shall break; and whatever is in it shall be unclean: <sup>34</sup>in such a vessel, any edible food upon which water falls becomes unclean, and any drink that may be drunk from it becomes unclean. <sup>35</sup>And everything on which a part of any such carcass falls shall be unclean; whether it is an oven or cooking stove, it shall be broken down; for they are unclean, and shall be unclean to you. <sup>36</sup>Nevertheless a spring or a cistern, in which there is plenty of water, shall be clean, but whatever touches any such carcass becomes unclean. <sup>37</sup>And if a part of any such carcass falls on any planting seed which is to be sown, it remains clean. <sup>38</sup>But if water is put on the seed, and if a part of any such carcass falls on it, it becomes unclean to you.

of the rabbit, and like the rabbit, appears to chew constantly, but it is not a true ruminant, nor does it have a hoof.

11:7 the swine. The swine is the best known of the unclean animals. We know now that pigs can pass some diseases to humans, and that inadequately cooked meat is one way these diseases are transferred. Pigs were sacrificed to pagan deities, and God was carefully steering His people away from these corrupted cultures.

11:8 their carcasses you shall not touch. In the case of these unclean animals, eating their meat or touching their dead bodies caused an Israelite to be unclean, or ritually impure. However, touching a live animal did not make the Israelites unclean, and they were allowed to use camels and donkeys as beasts of burden.

11:11–12 abomination. The phrasing is careful, deliberate, and repetitive to remove any possibility of finding any exception anywhere. Abomination is a stronger word than unclean, and implies not just avoidance, but repulsion.

11:20 creep on all fours. This phrase is an idiom for crawling on the ground, as insects do on their six legs. Many insects move about in filth and eat refuse.

11:21 jointed legs above their feet. The joints are the enlarged third legs of locusts and grasshoppers that enable them to leap. Locusts and grasshoppers do not live in filth or eat dung; they eat only plants.

unclean until evening. <sup>40</sup>He who eats of its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening. He also who carries its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening.

<sup>41</sup>And every creeping thing that creeps on the earth shall be an abomination. It shall not be eaten. <sup>42</sup>Whatever crawls on its belly, whatever goes on all fours, or whatever has many feet among all creeping things that creep on the earth—these you shall not eat, for they are an abomination. <sup>43</sup><sup>a</sup>You shall not make yourselves abominable with any creeping thing that creeps; nor shall you make yourselves unclean with them, lest you be defiled by them. <sup>44</sup>For I am the LORD your <sup>c</sup>God. You shall therefore consecrate yourselves, and <sup>d</sup>you shall be holy; for I am holy. Neither shall you defile yourselves with any creeping thing that creeps on the earth. <sup>45</sup>For I am the LORD who brings you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. <sup>e</sup>You shall therefore be holy, for I am holy.

<sup>46</sup>This is the law of the animals and the birds and every living creature that moves in the waters, and of every creature that creeps on the earth, <sup>f</sup>to distinguish between the unclean and the clean, and between the animal that may be eaten and the animal that may not be eaten.”

The Ritual After Childbirth

12 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, saying: ‘If a <sup>a</sup>woman has conceived, and borne a male child, then <sup>b</sup>she shall be unclean seven days; <sup>c</sup>as in the days of her customary impurity she shall be unclean. <sup>3</sup>And on the <sup>d</sup>eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised. <sup>4</sup>She shall then continue in the blood of her purification thirty-three days. She shall not touch any hallowed thing, nor come into the sanctuary until the days of her purification are fulfilled.

<sup>5</sup>But if she bears a female child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her customary impurity, and she shall continue in the blood of her purification sixty-six days.

<sup>8</sup><sup>h</sup>And if she is not able to bring a lamb, then she may bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons—one as a burnt offering and the other as a sin offering. <sup>i</sup>So the priest shall make atonement for her, and she will be clean.”

The Law Concerning Leprosy

13 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying: <sup>2</sup>“When a man has on the skin of his body a swelling, <sup>a</sup>a scab, or a bright spot, and it becomes on the skin of his body *like a leprous* sore*, <sup>b</sup>then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons the priests. <sup>3</sup>The priest shall examine the sore on the skin of the body; and if the hair on the sore has turned white, and the sore appears to be deeper than the skin of his body, it is a leprous sore. Then the priest shall examine him, and pronounce

* 13:2 Hebrew saraath, disfiguring skin diseases, including leprosy, and so in verses 2–46 and 14:2–32

11:44–45 be holy. Our Lord calls us to personal holiness, and holy living can only come from a life which spends time with the Lord, meditating on who He is, seeking His power to be like Him. We will make mistakes and sin all of our lives, which God never does; when He asks us to be holy because He is holy, it is a goal that we grow toward. Even though we never finish, we still overcome many, many areas of sin, and this growth shows others that we serve a holy God, because they see His characteristics in us.

12:2 conceived, and borne a male child... unclean. The child did not cause the mother to be unclean. God had ordained and blessed childbirth from the beginning, even before the sin in the garden (Gen. 1:28). It was the blood and other fluids in childbirth that made the mother ritually unclean for a period of time, just as other bodily fluids caused people to be unclean.

12:4 blood of her purification thirty-three days. There is a practical as well as a ceremonial aspect to these instructions. The eighth day marked the end of the mother's uncleanness with regard to everyday objects and activities; she would no longer make them unclean by touching them. But her personal uncleanness continued. This corresponds with the medical characteristics of childbirth, and the need for special care and rest for the mother. (There is no reason given why this period is double with the birth of a female child.)

12:8 if she is not able to bring a lamb. Mary, following the birth of Jesus and the days of her purification, went to the temple in Jerusalem and offered a pair of doves because she was poor. be clean. The law of purification after childbirth demonstrates that all aspects of human existence are touched by sin. Childbirth itself is not sinful, and having children was one of the good commands that the Lord gave Adam and Eve in the garden. Yet pain in childbirth was one of the curses of the fall, and this time of purification can be viewed as a reminder that humans are still dealing with a sin nature that needs God's mercy and purification.

13:2 a man. The Hebrew word for “a man” means “human being,” that is, anyone.

him unclean. <sup>4</sup>But if the bright spot is white on the skin of his body, and does not appear to be deeper than the skin, and its hair has not turned white, then the priest shall isolate the one who has the sore seven days. <sup>5</sup>And the priest shall examine him on the seventh day; and indeed if the sore appears to be as it was, and the sore has not spread on the skin, then the priest shall isolate him another seven days. <sup>6</sup>Then the priest shall examine him again on the seventh day; and indeed if the sore has faded, and the sore has not spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only a scab, and he <sup>a</sup>shall wash his clothes and be clean. <sup>7</sup>But if the scab should at all spread over the skin, after he has been seen by the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen by the priest again. <sup>8</sup>And if the priest sees that the scab has indeed spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is leprosy.

then the priest shall isolate him seven days; <sup>22</sup>and if it should at all spread over the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a leprous sore. <sup>23</sup>But if the bright spot stays in one place, and has not spread, it is the scar of the boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

<sup>24</sup>“Or if the body receives a <sup>h</sup>burn on its skin by fire, and the raw flesh of the burn becomes a bright spot, reddish-white or white, <sup>25</sup>then the priest shall examine it; and indeed if the hair of the bright spot has turned white, and it appears deeper than the skin, it is leprosy broken out in the burn. Therefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a leprous sore. <sup>26</sup>But if the priest examines it, and indeed there are no white hairs in the bright spot, and it is not deeper than the skin, but has faded, then the priest shall isolate him seven days. <sup>27</sup>And the priest shall examine him on the seventh day. If it has at all spread over the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a leprous sore. <sup>28</sup>But if the bright spot stays in one place, and has not spread on the skin, but has faded, it is a swelling from the burn. The priest shall pronounce him clean, for it is the scar from the burn.

<sup>29</sup>“If a man or woman has a sore on the head or the beard, <sup>30</sup>then the priest shall examine the sore; and indeed if it appears deeper than the skin, and there is in it thin yellow hair, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a scaly leprosy of the head or beard. <sup>31</sup>But if the priest examines the scaly sore, and indeed it does not appear deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, then the priest shall isolate the one who has the scale seven days. <sup>32</sup>And on the seventh day the priest shall examine the sore; and indeed if the scale has not spread, and there is no yellow hair in it, and the scale does not appear deeper than the skin, <sup>33</sup>he shall shave himself, but the scale he shall not shave. And the priest shall isolate the one who has the scale another seven days. <sup>34</sup>On the seventh day the priest shall examine the scale; and indeed if the scale has not spread over the skin, and does not appear deeper than the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean. He shall wash his clothes and be clean. <sup>35</sup>But if the scale should at all spread over the skin after his cleansing, <sup>36</sup>then the priest shall examine him; and indeed if the scale has spread over the skin, the priest need not seek for yellow hair. He is unclean. <sup>37</sup>But if the scale appears to be at a standstill, and there is black hair grown up in it, the scale has healed. He is clean, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

13:11 shall not isolate him. Isolation, or quarantine, was for the purpose of protecting the community until a diagnosis was reached. In this case, the patient was already diagnosed as “unclean,” which meant he had to live outside the camp (v. 46).

<sup>40</sup>"As for the man whose hair has fallen from his head, he is bald, but he is clean. <sup>41</sup>He whose hair has fallen from his forehead, he is bald on the forehead, but he is clean. <sup>42</sup>And if there is on the bald head or bald forehead a reddish-white sore, it is leprosy breaking out on his bald head or his bald forehead. <sup>43</sup>Then the priest shall examine it; and indeed if the swelling of the sore is reddish-white on his bald head or on his bald forehead, as the appearance of leprosy on the skin of the body, <sup>44</sup>he is a leprous man. He is unclean. The priest shall surely pronounce him unclean; his sore is on his head.

The Law Concerning Leprous Garments

unclean. <sup>52</sup>He shall therefore burn that garment in which is the plague, whether warp or woof, in wool or in linen, or anything of leather, for it is an active leprosy; the garment shall be burned in the fire.

<sup>53</sup>"But if the priest examines it, and indeed the plague has not spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in anything made of leather, <sup>54</sup>then the priest shall command that they wash the thing in which is the plague; and he shall isolate it another seven days. <sup>55</sup>Then the priest shall examine the plague after it has been washed; and indeed if the plague has not changed its color, though the plague has not spread, it is unclean, and you shall burn it in the fire; it continues eating away, whether the damage is outside or inside. <sup>56</sup>If the priest examines it, and indeed the plague has faded after washing it, then he shall tear it out of the garment, whether out of the warp or out of the woof, or out of the leather. <sup>57</sup>But if it appears again in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in anything made of leather, it is a spreading plague; you shall burn with fire that in which is the plague. <sup>58</sup>And if you wash the garment, either warp or woof, or whatever is made of leather, if the plague has disappeared from it, then it shall be washed a second time, and shall be clean.

<sup>59</sup>"This is the law of the leprous plague in a garment of wool or linen, either in the warp or woof, or in anything made of leather, to pronounce it clean or to pronounce it unclean."

The Ritual for Cleansing Healed Lepers

14 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>"This shall be the law of the leper for the day of his cleansing: He <sup>a</sup>shall be brought to the priest. <sup>3</sup>And the priest shall go out of the camp, and the priest shall examine him; and indeed, if the leprosy is

* 13:47 A mold, fungus, or similar infestation, and so in verses 47–59

13:45–46 clothes shall be torn . . . mustache. These actions were signs of mourning, for chronic skin diseases isolated the patients from life and family as if they had died. It is easy to see how leprosy became a metaphor for sin. Like serious skin diseases, sin is dangerous and ultimately fatal, often difficult to diagnose, and incurable without God's intervention.

13:47 leprous plague. This would include any mold, mildew, or other fungus growths on clothing.

13:50–58 priest shall examine the plague. The procedures for diagnosing a problem with a garment were similar to those for diagnosing human skin ailments. The fact that a garment was considered worth saving after a piece had been torn out of it was an economic consideration, reflecting the value of cloth.

14:1–9 cleansing. It is likely that the sprigs of hyssop were tied to the cedar with the scarlet thread. With that in one hand and the living bird in the other, the priest would dip them all in the blood and water mixture in the pottery bowl and shake them over the head of the person to be cleansed. It may seem like a rather messy procedure, but being purified from sin has never been a tidy process. In the end, it took Christ's death on the cross to cleanse His followers. The bird which was released is a reminder of the real freedom and joy that any forgiven sinner experiences.

14:2 He shall be brought to the priest. The priest was responsible for the diagnosis, and he was the one who administered the sacrifices and rituals that celebrated the return of the person to the community healed in the leper, <sup>4</sup>then the priest shall command to take for him who is to be cleansed two living and clean birds, <sup>b</sup>cedar wood, <sup>c</sup>scarlet, and <sup>d</sup>hyssop. <sup>5</sup>And the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel over running water. <sup>6</sup>As for the living bird, he shall take it, the cedar wood and the scarlet and the hyssop, and dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water. <sup>7</sup>And he shall <sup>e</sup>sprinkle it <sup>f</sup>seven times on him who is to be cleansed from the leprosy, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird loose in the open field. <sup>8</sup>He who is to be cleansed <sup>g</sup>shall wash his clothes, shave off all his hair, and <sup>h</sup>wash himself in water, that he may be clean. After that he shall come into the camp, and <sup>i</sup>shall stay outside his tent seven days. <sup>9</sup>But on the <sup>j</sup>seventh day he shall shave all the hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows—all his hair he shall shave off. He shall wash his clothes and wash his body in water, and he shall be clean.

put it <sup>j</sup>on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. <sup>15</sup>And the priest shall take some of the log of oil, and pour it <sup>k</sup>into the palm of his own left hand. <sup>16</sup>Then the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and shall <sup>l</sup>sprinkle some of the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD. <sup>17</sup>And of the rest of the oil in his hand, the priest shall put some on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the blood of the trespass offering. <sup>18</sup>The rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed. <sup>19</sup>So the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD.

of Israel. Jesus was aware of these laws when He touched the leper and healed him, and then directed the leper to show himself to the priest (Matt. 8:4).

14:4 cedar wood, scarlet, and hyssop. Cedar is both durable and resistant to decay, scarlet is a reminder of blood, and hyssop is an aromatic herb used for flavor, fragrance, and medicine. Each of these items would have been a reminder of the blood that cleansed, the decay that was stopped, and the sweetness of good health.

14:5 running water. This is literally "living water," water from a spring or stream rather than water from a cistern, vessel, or pool. Living water symbolizes life. Jesus told the woman at the well to ask for living water (John 4:7–14).

14:9–32 shave . . . wash. What is termed leprosy was apparently a number of skin diseases which were infectious, and thus were an apt picture of sin, which also corrupts the flesh, and is spread through social contact. The picture of isolating, analyzing, and finally cleansing these skin diseases is similar to the process of recognizing, repenting, and being forgiven for sin. Blood is necessary in both cases, and in both cases the touch of the Holy Spirit, symbolized by oil, is present.

14:10 the eighth day. The eighth day was the day of circumcision for a newborn male, and the cleansed person was starting again, almost like being born again into the community.

14:21–32 if he is poor. God's legislation for Israel showed special concern for the poor. In these sacrifices the poor Israelite still had to bring a lamb for the trespass offering, but for the sin offering or burnt offering he was allowed to bring turtledoves or pigeons. The grain offering was reduced from three-tenths to one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour.

The Law Concerning Leprous Houses

<sup>33</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying: <sup>34d</sup>“When you have come into the land of Canaan, which I give you as a possession, and <sup>e</sup>I put the leprorous plague* in a house in the land of your possession, <sup>35</sup>and he who owns the house comes and tells the priest, saying, ‘It seems to me that there is <sup>i</sup>some plague in the house,’ <sup>36</sup>then the priest shall command that they empty the house, before the priest goes into it to examine the plague, that all that is in the house may not be made unclean; and afterward the priest shall go in to examine the house. <sup>37</sup>And he shall examine the plague; and indeed if the plague is on the walls of the house with ingrained streaks, greenish or reddish, which appear to be deep in the wall, <sup>38</sup>then the priest shall go out of the house, to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days. <sup>39</sup>And the priest shall come again on the seventh day and look; and indeed if the plague has spread on the walls of the house, <sup>40</sup>then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which is the plague, and they shall cast them into an unclean place outside the city. <sup>41</sup>And he shall cause the house to be scraped inside, all around, and the dust that they scrape off they shall pour out in an unclean place outside the city. <sup>42</sup>Then they shall take other stones and put them in the place of those stones, and he shall take other mortar and plaster the house.

<sup>43</sup>“Now if the plague comes back and breaks out in the house, after he has taken away the stones, after he has scraped the house, and after it is plastered, <sup>44</sup>then the priest shall come and look; and indeed if the plague has spread in the house, it is <sup>g</sup>an active leprosy in the house. It is unclean. <sup>45</sup>And he shall break down the house, its stones, its timber, and all the plaster of the house, and he shall carry them outside the city to an unclean place. <sup>46</sup>Moreover he who goes into the house at all while it is shut up shall be unclean until <sup>h</sup>evening. <sup>47</sup>And he who lies down in the house shall <sup>i</sup>wash his clothes, and he who eats in the house shall wash his clothes.

<sup>48</sup>“But if the priest comes in and examines it, and indeed the plague has not spread in the house after the house was plastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed. <sup>49</sup>And <sup>j</sup>he shall take, to cleanse the house, two birds, cedar wood, scarlet, and hyssop. <sup>50</sup>Then he shall kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water; <sup>51</sup>and he shall take the cedar wood, the hyssop, the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times. <sup>52</sup>And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird and the running water and the living bird, with the cedar wood, the hyssop, and the scarlet. <sup>53</sup>Then he shall let the living bird loose outside the city in the open field, and <sup>k</sup>make atonement for the house, and it shall be clean.

The Law Concerning Bodily Discharges

14:54–57 the law for any leprous sore. The uncleanness of leprosy required action. If it could not be removed, the thing that carried the uncleanness had to be removed from among God's people. In the same way, the uncleanness of sin requires action, but God has provided an infinitely stronger remedy through the blood of Christ.

any man has a discharge from his body, his discharge is unclean. <sup>3</sup>And this shall be his uncleanness in regard to his discharge—whether his body runs with his discharge, or his body is stopped up by his discharge, it is his uncleanness. <sup>4</sup>Every bed is unclean on which he who has the discharge lies, and everything on which he sits shall be unclean. <sup>5</sup>And whoever <sup>b</sup>touches his bed shall <sup>c</sup>wash his clothes and <sup>d</sup>bathe in water, and be unclean until evening. <sup>6</sup>He who sits on anything on which he who has the <sup>e</sup>discharge sat shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening. <sup>7</sup>And he who touches the body of him who has the discharge shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening. <sup>8</sup>If he who has the discharge <sup>f</sup>spits on him who is clean, then he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening. <sup>9</sup>Any saddle on which he who has the discharge rides shall be unclean. <sup>10</sup>Whoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until evening. He who carries any of those things shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening. <sup>11</sup>And whomever the one who has the discharge touches, and has not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening. <sup>12</sup>The <sup>g</sup>vessel of earth that he who has the discharge touches shall be broken, and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

garment and any leather on which there is semen, it shall be washed with water, and be unclean until evening. <sup>18</sup>Also, when a woman lies with a man, and there is an emission of semen, they shall bathe in water, and <sup>m</sup>be unclean until evening.

<sup>28</sup>But <sup>p</sup>if she is cleansed of her discharge, then she shall count for herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean. <sup>29</sup>And on the eighth day she shall take for herself two turtledoves or two young pigeons, and bring them to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>30</sup>Then the priest shall offer the one as a sin offering and the other as a <sup>q</sup>burnt offering, and the priest shall make atonement for her before the LORD for the discharge of her uncleanness.

15:18 bathe in water . . . unclean. God's plan from the beginning includes sexual intercourse between a man and his wife; this is not sinful in God's eyes. The uncleanness and requirements of washing were a ritual cleansing, a reminder of the holiness of God, not a prohibition of intimate relationships.

15:19 woman . . . discharge. There are rules for cleansing, but no sacrifice was required. Menstruation was not regarded as sinful.

15:25–27 blood for many days. If a woman had a flow of blood at any time other than her normal monthly period, or if this was unusually long, her uncleanness continued the whole time and passed to all she touched. The woman with a hemorrhage who touched Jesus secretly (Luke 8:43–48) was in this situation.

15:28–30 cleansed of her discharge. The woman was to bring the smallest allowable sacrifice for the atonement of sins she may have committed during the period of her uncleanness.

The Day of Atonement

16 Now the LORD spoke to Moses after <sup>a</sup>the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they offered profane fire before the LORD, and died; <sup>2</sup>and the LORD said to Moses: “Tell Aaron your brother <sup>b</sup>not to come at just any time into the Holy Place inside the veil, before the mercy seat which is on the ark, lest he die; for <sup>c</sup>I will appear in the cloud above the mercy seat.

<sup>15s</sup>“Then he shall kill the goat of the sin offering, which is for the people, bring its blood <sup>t</sup>inside the veil, do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it on the mercy seat and before the mercy seat. <sup>16</sup>So he shall <sup>u</sup>make atonement for the Holy Place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions, for all their sins; and so he shall do for the tabernacle of meeting which remains among them in the midst of their uncleanness. <sup>17</sup>There shall be <sup>v</sup>no man in the tabernacle of meeting when he goes in to make atonement in the Holy Place, until he comes out, that he may make atonement for himself, for his household, and for all the assembly of Israel. <sup>18</sup>And he shall go out to the altar that is before the LORD, and make atonement for <sup>w</sup>it, and shall take some of the blood of the bull and some of the blood of the goat, and put it on the horns of the altar all around. <sup>19</sup>Then he shall sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times, cleanse it, and <sup>x</sup>consecrate it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.

<sup>20</sup>“And when he has made an end of atoning for the Holy Place, the tabernacle of meeting, and the altar, he shall bring the uncleanness was on keeping God’s tabernacle undefiled. Ceremonial laws in regard to natural impurity seem strange to us, because these ceremonies were made obsolete by the perfect sacrifice of Christ. But in the Old Testament one form of blasphemy was the defilement of sanctuary worship by certain forms of ceremonial impurity.

16:2 come at just any time. This refers to the arrogant attitude in which Aaron’s sons had approached to offer unauthorized sacrifice. God is holy, and must not be approached carelessly. After Christ opened the way for all believers to approach God at any time, it is perhaps easy to forget that we still approach with reverence and awe. It was because of the terrible price of the cross that we have this privilege, not because God has suddenly become casual.

16:6 for himself. After atoning for himself the high priest could offer the sacrifice to atone for the people. The author of Hebrews places great emphasis on this point in discussing the superior priesthood of Jesus, who did not have to offer a sacrifice for Himself before He could be the sacrifice of atonement, one time for all people (Heb. 7:26; 9:11–28; 10:19–22).

16:15–19 the goat . . . for the people. Aaron offered the goat for the people, and the other actions involved in this sacrifice made it clear that the sins of the people had a defiling effect on the tabernacle. If not removed, the sins would have caused the ministry to be ineffective in atoning for the people.

The Sanctity of Blood

17 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to Aaron, to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them, ‘This is the thing which the LORD has commanded, saying: <sup>3</sup>“Whatever man of the house of Israel who <sup>n</sup>kills an ox or lamb or goat in the camp, or who kills it outside the camp, <sup>4</sup>and does not bring it to the door of the tabernacle of meeting to offer an offering to the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD, the guilt of bloodshed shall be <sup>p</sup>imputed to that man. He has shed blood; and that man shall be cut off from among his people, <sup>5</sup>to the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices <sup>c</sup>which they offer in the open field, that they may bring them to the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, to the priest, and offer them

* 16:33 That is, the Most Holy Place

16:21 Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat. Sending the goat into the wilderness was a public ceremony. Everyone could see Aaron symbolically placing the sins of the people on the goat's head. All of the ways that people could offend God were placed on the head of the goat, which took them away from the camp, away from the people, away from God.

16:22 goat shall bear on itself. This is the origin of the common expression “scapegoat.” The goat was not guilty of the sins, but he bore them anyway, allowing the guilty to escape the consequences of their sins. In Jesus' bearing the sins of the human race, and in His death outside the city (outside the camp), He fulfilled this annual ritual of the Day of Atonement. Not only was Jesus the perfect High Priest, He was the perfect Sacrifice.

16:29 In the seventh month. The Day of Atonement fell between mid-September and mid-October.

16:29–34 The Day of Atonement—This whole process of animal sacrifice seems foreign to us. There is no enjoyment in seeing an animal killed. Special underwear and extra washings do not fit our religious experience. It is easy for us to wonder why this was necessary. What is the big deal anyway? The primary reason we have trouble with this is that we have such a superficial understanding of sin and God's attitude toward it. We tend to think of sin as a kind of correctable mistake, easily taken care of. Why be so upset about it?

The Day of Atonement pointed the Israelites to the seriousness of sin. They were able to see that sin was an affront to God that had to be dealt with. It is like cancer. If it is not treated, death is the ultimate consequence. At its core, sin is rebellion against God. This ceremony stood as a permanent reminder of these truths. It pointed to God's holiness, to the drastic measures needed to deal with sin. Our souls are to be cleansed thoroughly and the sacrifices on the Day of Atonement accomplished this cleansing for the Israelite community. As such it was the most important day in the Jewish religious calendar.

17:5 sacrifices . . . in the open field. Such sacrifices were strictly forbidden. All sacrifices were to be clearly and unequivocally made to God alone, and in His way.

Laws of Sexual Morality

18 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: <sup>a</sup>‘I am the LORD your God. <sup>3b</sup>According to the doings of the land of Egypt, where you dwelt, you shall not do; and <sup>c</sup>according to the doings of the land of Canaan, where I am bringing you, you shall not do; nor shall you walk in their ordinances. <sup>4d</sup>You shall observe My judgments and keep My ordinances, to walk in them: I am the LORD your God. <sup>5</sup>You shall therefore keep My statutes and My judgments, which if a man does, he shall live by them: I am the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>None of you shall approach anyone who is near of kin to him, to uncover his nakedness: I am the LORD. <sup>7</sup>The nakedness of your father or the nakedness of your mother you shall not uncover. She is your mother; you shall not uncover her nakedness. <sup>8</sup>The nakedness of your <sup>e</sup>father’s wife you shall not uncover; it is your father’s nakedness. <sup>9f</sup>The nakedness of your sister,

17:7 to demons . . . played the harlot. Pagan deities in the form of goats, like satyrs, were a part of the cultures surrounding the Israelites. Israel’s worship of other gods, and God’s attitude toward it was likened to the way a husband would feel if his wife became a prostitute. This was a picture of betrayal that the Israelites could understand. statute forever. Because this was a permanent rule, it becomes clear that it was not an injunction against slaughtering animals for meat, but referred to sacrifices. When Israel’s worship was centered in Jerusalem, some families lived more than a hundred miles from the temple. They could not have traveled so far to kill animals for meat, although they did make the journey for sacrifices.

17:10 any blood. Eating blood was forbidden in the strongest possible terms.

17:13 cover it with dust. Blood was to be treated respectfully, and covering it with earth was a token of burial.

18:2 the LORD. This is the translation of the name for God, sometimes called Yahweh, the name by which God revealed Himself to Moses (Ex. 6:2–8). In using this name, God was basing His claim to the Israelites’ devotion on His willingness to reveal Himself to them, to redeem them and to be their God.

18:4 My judgments . . . My ordinances. “Judgments” refers to judicial decisions involving situations that might not be addressed in the statutes. “Ordinances” are decrees, laws, and acts of a permanent nature.

18:5 if a man does, he shall live. God gave the law as a means of life on all levels—physical, moral, spiritual, and relational.

18:6 None . . . anyone who is near of kin . . . uncover his nakedness. This term covers cases such as incest between father and daughter and between brother and full sister, even though they are absent from the following list. To uncover someone’s nakedness is to have sexual intercourse with that person.

18:7 The nakedness of your father . . . you shall not uncover. The point of this passage is that committing incest with the wife of one’s father is symbolically to uncover the father’s nakedness too, because the two are one flesh through marriage.

18:8 father’s wife. Even if your father’s wife is not your mother, it is still wrong to have sexual relations with her. In Israel at that time multiple wives or concubines were still part of society, as well as a second wife coming into the family through death or divorce of the first wife.

18:9 your sister. Though this may seem redundant, God wanted to make it abundantly clear that a sister who did not share the same pair of parents as her the daughter of your father, or the daughter of your mother, whether born at home or elsewhere, their nakedness you shall not uncover. <sup>10</sup>The nakedness of your son's daughter or your daughter's daughter, their nakedness you shall not uncover; for theirs is your own nakedness. <sup>11</sup>The nakedness of your father's wife's daughter, begotten by your father—she is your sister—you shall not uncover her nakedness. <sup>12</sup><sup>a</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's sister; she is near of kin to your father. <sup>13</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister, for she is near of kin to your mother. <sup>14</sup><sup>b</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's brother. You shall not approach his wife; she is your aunt. <sup>15</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law—she is your son's wife—you shall not uncover her nakedness. <sup>16</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of your brother's wife; it is your brother's nakedness. <sup>17</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her <sup>c</sup>daughter, nor shall you take her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness. They are near of kin to her. It is wickedness. <sup>18</sup>Nor shall you take a woman <sup>d</sup>as a rival to her sister, to uncover her nakedness while the other is alive.

<sup>30</sup>Therefore you shall keep My ordinance, so <sup>a</sup>that you do not commit any of these abominable customs which were committed before you, and that you do not defile yourselves by them: <sup>b</sup>I am the LORD your God.<sup>1</sup>

Moral and Ceremonial Laws

19 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup><sup>a</sup>Speak to all the congregation of the children of Israel, and say to them: <sup>a</sup>You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy.

<sup>5</sup><sup>f</sup>And <sup>f</sup>if you offer a sacrifice of a peace offering to the LORD, you shall offer it of your own free will. <sup>6</sup>It shall be eaten the same day you offer it, and on the next day. And if any remains until the third day, it shall be burned in the fire. <sup>7</sup>And if it is eaten at all on the third day, it is an abomination. It shall not be accepted. <sup>8</sup>Therefore brother was still off limits. This would cover husbands of multiple wives and illegitimate children. Sexual sin is serious with long reaching consequences, and it is clearly forbidden within the family.

18:20 with your neighbor's wife. Adultery is forbidden in Exodus 20:14 and its penalty is given in Leviticus 20:10.

18:21 your descendants . . . to Molech. God forbids child sacrifice right along with incest. This is destructive behavior with far-reaching consequences, and all followers of the Lord will abhor it as God does.

18:22 lie with a male. Homosexuality here is labeled an abomination, something detestable to God both ritually (as a part of the Canaanite religion) and morally. To abominate something is to be repulsed by it, and when God is repulsed, it is a clear message that homosexuality is not part of His plan for human relationships.

18:23 any animal. Bestiality is labeled a perversion, something out of the natural order and a defilement. It, too, was a feature of some of the religions of Israel's neighbors.

18:24–30 defile. The land had become so defiled by the perverted practices of the Canaanites that it was vomiting them out. For that reason, the land would be available to Israel to settle. The Israelites, however, needed to be careful to live as God's holy people, or the land would vomit them out as well.

19:3 keep My Sabbaths. The weekly Sabbath was an acknowledgment that not everything depended on the Israelites' efforts. It was an acknowledgment of God's lordship and His grace.

19:5 peace offering. The peace offering was a free-will offering.

everyone who eats it shall bear his iniquity, because he has profaned the hallowed offering of the LORD; and that person shall be cut off from his people.

<sup>9e</sup>When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap the corners of your field, nor shall you gather the gleanings of your harvest. <sup>10</sup>And you shall not glean your vineyard, nor shall you gather every grape of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the poor and the stranger: I am the LORD your God.

<sup>11h</sup>You shall not steal, nor deal falsely, nor lie to one another. <sup>12</sup>And you shall not swear by My name falsely, nor shall you profane the name of your God: I am the LORD.

<sup>13i</sup>You shall not cheat your neighbor, nor rob him. <sup>m</sup>The wages of him who is hired shall not remain with you all night until morning. <sup>14</sup>You shall not curse the deaf, nor put a stumbling block before the blind, but shall fear your God: I am the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>You shall do no injustice in judgment. You shall not be partial to the poor, nor honor the person of the mighty. In righteousness you shall judge your neighbor. <sup>16</sup>You shall not go about as a talebearer among your people; nor shall you take a stand against the life of your neighbor: I am the LORD.

<sup>17s</sup>You shall not hate your brother in your heart. <sup>t</sup>You shall surely rebuke your neighbor, and not bear sin because of him. <sup>18u</sup>You shall not take vengeance, nor bear any grudge against the children of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD.

not let your livestock breed with another kind. You shall not sow your field with mixed seed. Nor shall a garment of mixed linen and wool come upon you.

<sup>20</sup>Whoever lies carnally with a woman who is betrothed to a man as a concubine, and who has not at all been redeemed nor given her freedom, for this there shall be scourging; but they shall not be put to death, because she was not free. <sup>21</sup>And he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, a ram as a trespass offering. <sup>22</sup>The priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering before the LORD for his sin which he has committed. And the sin which he has committed shall be forgiven him.

<sup>23</sup>When you come into the land, and have planted all kinds of trees for food, then you shall count their fruit as uncircumcised. Three years it shall be as uncircumcised to you. It shall not be eaten. <sup>24</sup>But in the fourth year all its fruit shall be holy, a praise to the LORD. <sup>25</sup>And in the fifth year you may eat its fruit, that it may yield to you its increase: I am the LORD your God.

19:10 for the poor and the stranger. Providing for the poor and the alien who could not own land was a priority in ancient Israel. The generosity of God's people was rooted in God's generosity toward the Israelites.

19:16 talebearer. A talebearer is one who is not only a gossip, but one who is actively seeking to destroy another's reputation.

19:17 hate . . . in your heart. Jesus addressed this principle in the Sermon on the Mount (Matt. 5:21–24).

19:18 take vengeance. Vengeance belongs to God (Deut. 32:35); His vengeance is entirely just. It is easy for human vengeance to be carried out too zealously, leaving the by-products of bitterness and hatred. Instead, we are to do good to those who hate us and pray for those who persecute us (Matt. 5:44). love. The word "love" is first found in Genesis 22:2, where God told Abraham to offer up his son whom he loved as a burnt sacrifice upon Mount Moriah, and the first mention of love in the New Testament is God proclaiming that Jesus is His beloved Son (Matt. 3:17). Family love is something people find easy to understand. Even if it is not very strong in one's nuclear family, the longing for love shows us that we understand what it is to be. To take this love one step further, that a parent would allow a child to die for the good of others, stretches the concept of love. And yet it is that very love that caused God to send His Son to die for the whole world.

19:20 a woman . . . a concubine. The slave woman had a low social standing and few rights, and may not have had the freedom to cry out when approached sexually. Therefore, she remained guiltless. Because she was a slave, the man escaped death, but remained guilty before God. Atonement was necessary for him to receive forgiveness.

19:26 divination. God, and not a demon or impersonal force, is all powerful and directs the future. Practicing divination reveals a lack of trust in God to bring the best in the future in His timing.

19:27–28 beard . . . cuttings in your flesh . . . nor tattoo any marks. The human body was designed by God to be beautiful. Disfiguring the body for the dead, or as a sign of mourning, is dishonoring to God. Some disfiguring was a part of pagan religions, and was forbidden to God's people for any reason.

19:29 cause her to be a harlot. Sexual relations are sacred. Forcing a daughter to violate that sanctity defiled her against her will.

<sup>33</sup>“And <sup>d</sup>if a stranger dwells with you in your land, you shall not mistreat him. <sup>34e</sup>The stranger who dwells among you shall be to you as one born among you, and <sup>f</sup>you shall love him as yourself; for you were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

<sup>37h</sup>“Therefore you shall observe all My statutes and all My judgments, and perform them: I am the LORD.”

Penalties for Breaking the Law

20 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2a</sup>“Again, you shall say to the children of Israel: <sup>b</sup>“Whoever of the children of Israel, or of the strangers who dwell in Israel, who gives <sup>c</sup>any of his descendants to Molech, he shall surely be put to death. The people of the land shall <sup>c</sup>stone him with stones. <sup>3a</sup>I will set My face against that man, and will cut him off from his people, because he has given <sup>d</sup>some of his descendants to Molech, to defile My sanctuary and profane My holy name. <sup>4</sup>And if the people of the land should in any way hide their eyes from the man, when he gives <sup>e</sup>some of his descendants to Molech, and they do not kill him, <sup>5</sup>then I will set My face against that man and against his family; and I will cut him off from his people, and all who prostitute themselves with him to commit harlotry with Molech.

19:31 mediums . . . familiar spirits. In principle this is no different than divination. Its practice involves consulting the spirits of the dead, or other spirits, both of which are strictly forbidden. It demonstrates lack of faith and rebellion against God and His ways.

19:35–36 injustice in judgment, in measurement. Injustice in legal transactions or in business are equally wrong. God is just and generous, and His people are to be the same.

20:2–5 gives any of his descendants to Molech . . . put to death . . . stone him. The penalty for child sacrifice, whether carried out by an alien or a citizen of Israel, was death, either carried out by the justice system or by God Himself. Children are a trust and blessing from God, and killing them in a pagan ritual is a wickedness that God will not overlook.

20:8 who sanctifies you. To be sanctified is to be “set apart.” The worshiper was set apart to God, from all other allegiances.

20:9 His blood shall be upon him. This statement assured the executioners that they were not guilty of shedding the offender’s blood.

Regulations for Conduct of Priests

21 And the LORD said to Moses, "Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them: <sup>a</sup>None shall defile himself for the dead among his people, <sup>2</sup>except for his relatives who are nearest to him: his mother, his father, his son, his daughter, and his brother; <sup>3</sup>also his virgin sister who is near to him, who has had no husband, for her he may defile himself. <sup>4</sup>Otherwise he shall not defile himself, being a chief man among his people, to profane himself.

20:21 takes his brother's wife. It may be assumed that this passage refers to taking his brother's wife while his brother is still living. Deuteronomy 25:5–10 gives a fairly detailed directive for a brother marrying his brother's childless widow and giving the firstborn the name of the dead brother, so that his family line will be maintained.

21:5 not make any bald place . . . cuttings in their flesh. These were pagan customs, and all Israel was forbidden to observe them (19:27).

21:9 profanes herself by playing the harlot. Prostitution, the ultimate promiscuity, was the opposite of holiness, the ultimate faithfulness. The daughter was to reflect her father's holiness to God.

21:22 He may eat. Physical defect did not imply a moral defect. The person afflicted was to receive his food as the other priests did, from the sacrifices.

house as in her youth, she may eat her father’s food; but no outsider shall eat it.

<sup>14</sup>And if a man eats the holy offering unintentionally, then he shall restore a holy offering to the priest, and add one-fifth to it. <sup>15</sup>They shall not profane the holy offerings of the children of Israel, which they offer to the LORD, <sup>16</sup>or allow them to bear the guilt of trespass when they eat their holy offerings; for I the LORD sanctify them.”

Offerings Accepted and Not Accepted

<sup>17</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>18</sup>“Speak to Aaron and his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them: <sup>19</sup>“Whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, who offers his sacrifice for any of his vows or for any of his freewill offerings, which they offer to the LORD as a burnt offering—<sup>19a</sup>you shall offer of your own free will a male without blemish from the cattle, from the sheep, or from the goats. <sup>20b</sup>Whatever has a defect, you shall not offer, for it shall not be acceptable on your behalf. <sup>21</sup>And <sup>w</sup>whoever offers a sacrifice of a peace offering to the LORD, <sup>x</sup>to fulfill his vow, or a freewill offering from the cattle or the sheep, it must be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no defect in it. <sup>22y</sup>Those that are blind or broken or maimed, or have an ulcer or eczema or scabs, you shall not offer to the LORD, nor make <sup>z</sup>an offering by fire of them on the altar to the LORD. <sup>23</sup>Either a bull or a lamb that has any limb <sup>too long</sup> or too short you may offer as a freewill offering, but for a vow it shall not be accepted.

22:3 all your descendants throughout your generations. This statement made the restriction as broad as possible in any one generation, and as broad as possible through all time. cut off from My presence. The individual was not executed or banished from the community, but was permanently barred from ministering as a priest.

22:7 it is his food. The sacrifices brought by the Israelites were a major part of the daily provisions of the priests.

22:8 dies naturally or is torn by beasts. An ordinary Israelite was unclean until evening if he ate such animals (17:15–16), but a priest was not to eat them at all. 22:11 buys a person . . . he may eat. Strangers, guests, and hired servants were forbidden to eat of the holy gifts, but slaves and their children were considered as a part of the priest’s family, and could eat of the consecrated food.

22:18 strangers in Israel. Resident aliens in Israel were permitted to worship God with the Israelites, and were subject to the same regulations about sacrifices.

22:21 it must be perfect to be accepted. This is a very clear directive, yet the prophet Malachi addressed the problem of defective sacrifices in his day (Mal. 1:7–14). God called that “despising” His name.

31<sup>i</sup>“Therefore you shall keep My commandments, and perform them: I am the LORD. 32<sup>j</sup>You shall not profane My holy name, but <sup>k</sup>I will be hallowed among the children of Israel. I am the LORD who sanctifies you, 33<sup>m</sup> who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD.”

Feasts of the LORD

23 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 2<sup>a</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘The feasts of the LORD, which you shall proclaim to be <sup>a</sup>holy convocations, these are My feasts.

The Sabbath

3<sup>b</sup>“Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, a holy convocation. You shall do no work on it; it is the Sabbath of the LORD in all your dwellings.

The Passover and Unleavened Bread

4<sup>c</sup>“These are the feasts of the LORD, holy convocations which you shall proclaim at their appointed times. 5<sup>d</sup>On the fourteenth day of the first month at twilight is the LORD’s Passover. 6 And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to the LORD; seven days you must eat unleavened bread. 7<sup>e</sup>On the first day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no customary work on it. 8 But you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD for seven days. The seventh day shall be a holy convocation; you shall do no customary work on it.”

The Feast of Firstfruits

9 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 10<sup>a</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: <sup>a</sup>“When you come into the land which I give to you, and reap its harvest, then you shall bring a sheaf of <sup>a</sup>the firstfruits of your harvest to the priest. 11 He shall <sup>b</sup>wave the sheaf before the LORD, to be accepted on your behalf; on the day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it. 12 And you shall offer on that day, when you wave the sheaf, a male lamb of the first year, without blemish, as a burnt offering to the LORD. 13 Its grain offering shall be two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil, an offering made by fire to the LORD, for a sweet aroma; and its drink offering shall be of wine, one-fourth of a hin. 14 You shall eat neither bread nor parched grain nor fresh grain until the same day that you have brought an offering to your God; it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

The Feast of Weeks

15 And you shall count for yourselves from the day after the Sabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering: seven Sabbaths shall be completed. 16 Count <sup>a</sup>fifty days to the day after the seventh Sabbath; then you shall offer <sup>a</sup>a new grain offering to the LORD. 17 You shall bring from your dwellings two wave loaves of two-tenths of an ephah. They shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven. They are <sup>b</sup>the firstfruits to the LORD. 18 And you shall offer with the bread seven lambs of the first year, without blemish, one

22:31 commandments. As Christians, it is important to understand the relationship between grace and law. A focus on the law without grace leads to rule oriented life, where our actions may be decent enough, but our heart is hard toward God. But if the focus is only on grace, we may be without the guidelines necessary to keep us from just doing what is right in our own eyes. Certain directives are given to us because even when we are born again, we are not all wise. The best way to balance all of this is to consider the whole counsel of God by reading and seeking to understand the whole Bible.

23:3 Six days shall work be done. Work was given to the human race in the garden of Eden. It is one of the ways humans bear the image of God, and is not a curse on the race. Even after the fall it remains God’s good gift. a Sabbath of solemn rest . . . in all your dwellings. The regular seventh day of rest is for our refreshment, and a day of solemn, joyful worship. It was not to be observed only in the sanctuary, it was to be celebrated in every household. The writer of Hebrews (ch. 4) calls belief in the saving work of Jesus, “entering His rest,” and compares that to the Sabbath rest.

23:5 fourteenth day of the first month. This month would fall between mid-March and mid-April. The Passover celebrated Israel’s exodus from Egypt (Ex. 12:1–28).

23:6–8 Feast of Unleavened Bread. This festival immediately followed Passover, and later in Israel’s history, it involved pilgrimages to the central sanctuary; first in Shiloh, and later in Jerusalem.

23:10 sheaf of the firstfruits. This bundle of the first harvested barley belonged to God as a special offering, acknowledging God’s provision for the harvest.

They shall be as a burnt offering to the LORD, with their grain offering and their drink offerings, an offering made by fire for a sweet aroma to the LORD. <sup>19</sup>Then you shall sacrifice <sup>1</sup>one kid of the goats as a sin offering, and two male lambs of the first year as a sacrifice of a <sup>2</sup>peace offering. <sup>20</sup>The priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits as a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs. <sup>21</sup>They shall be holy to the LORD for the priest. <sup>22</sup>And you shall proclaim on the same day that it is a holy convocation to you. You shall do no customary work on it. It shall be a statute forever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

<sup>22a</sup>When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap the corners of your field when you reap, nor shall you gather any gleanings from your harvest. You shall leave them for the poor and for the stranger: I am the LORD your God."

The Feast of Trumpets

The Day of Atonement

<sup>26</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>27a</sup>Also the tenth day of this seventh month shall be the Day of Atonement. It shall be a holy convocation for you; you shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire to the LORD. <sup>28</sup>And you shall do no work on that same day, for it is the Day of Atonement, <sup>29</sup>to make atonement for you before the LORD your God. <sup>29</sup>For any person who is not <sup>30</sup>afflicted in soul on that same day shall be cut off from his people. <sup>30</sup>And any person who does any work on that same day, <sup>31</sup>that person I will destroy from among his people. <sup>31</sup>You shall do no manner of work; it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings. <sup>32</sup>It shall be to you a sabbath of solemn rest, and you shall afflict your souls; on the ninth day of the month at evening, from evening to evening, you shall celebrate your sabbath."

The Feast of Tabernacles

<sup>37a</sup>These are the feasts of the LORD which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire to the LORD, a burnt offering and a grain offering, a sacrifice and drink offerings, everything on its day—<sup>38b</sup>besides the Sabbaths of the LORD, besides your gifts, besides all your vows, and besides all your free-will offerings which you give to the LORD.

<sup>39</sup>Also on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have <sup>40</sup>gathered in the fruit of the land, you shall keep the feast of the LORD for seven days; on the first day there shall be a sabbath-rest, and on the eighth day a sabbath-rest. <sup>40</sup>And <sup>41</sup>you shall take for yourselves on the first day the fruit of beautiful trees, branches of palm trees, the boughs of leafy trees, and willows of the brook; <sup>42</sup>and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God for seven days. <sup>41</sup>You shall keep it as a feast to the LORD for seven days in the year. It shall be a statute forever in your generations. You shall celebrate it in the seventh month. <sup>42g</sup>You shall dwell in booths for seven days. <sup>43</sup>All who are native Israelites shall dwell in booths, <sup>43</sup>that your generations may <sup>44</sup>know that I made the children of Israel dwell in booths when <sup>45</sup>I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God."

23:24 In the seventh month. This holiday falls in mid-September. It was a reminder of God's goodness, which was expressed in the covenant, and asked God to continue to remember that covenant.

23:26–32 Atonement—The Day of Atonement was a time to set aside all the thoughts and actions that typically fill the day and consider one's relationship with God. This was to be a time of humbleness, which would preclude any self-righteousness or merely comparing oneself with others. It was a time to remember that even people who want to follow God need to have their lives realigned with Him. Christians regularly take time to think of these things as they remember the Lord's death until He comes again, with the bread and the cup of communion.

23:27 Day of Atonement. The day was not given this name in chapter 16, but this was the day of all days, when complete atonement was made for all Israel.

23:40 boughs of leafy trees. The leafy tree is thought to be the myrtle.

Care of the Tabernacle Lamps

24 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2a</sup>“Command the children of Israel that they bring to you pure oil of pressed olives for the light, to make the lamps burn continually. <sup>3</sup>Outside the veil of the Testimony, in the tabernacle of meeting, Aaron shall be in charge of it from evening until morning before the LORD continually; it shall be a statute forever in your generations. <sup>4</sup>He shall be in charge of the lamps on <sup>b</sup>the pure gold lampstand before the LORD continually.

The Bread of the Tabernacle

The Penalty for Blasphemy

be put to death. All the congregation shall certainly stone him, the stranger as well as him who is born in the land. When he blasphemes the name of the LORD, he shall be put to death.

<sup>23</sup>Then Moses spoke to the children of Israel; and they took outside the camp him who had cursed, and stoned him with stones. So the children of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

The Sabbath of the Seventh Year

25 And the LORD spoke to Moses on Mount <sup>a</sup>Sinai, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When you come into the land which I give you, then the land shall <sup>b</sup>keep a sabbath to the LORD. <sup>3</sup>Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard, and gather its fruit; <sup>4</sup>but in the <sup>c</sup>seventh year there shall be a sabbath of solemn <sup>d</sup>rest for the land, a sabbath to the LORD. You shall neither sow your field nor prune your vineyard. <sup>5</sup>What grows of its own accord of your harvest you shall not reap, nor gather the grapes of your untended vine, for it is a year of rest for the land. <sup>6</sup>And the sabbath produce of the land shall be food for you: for you, your male and female servants, your hired man, and the stranger who dwells with you, <sup>7</sup>for your livestock and the beasts that are in your land—all its produce shall be for food.

The Year of Jubilee

<sup>8</sup>And you shall count seven sabbaths of years for yourself, seven times seven years; and the time of the seven sabbaths of years shall be to you forty-nine years.

24:19–20 eye for eye. This law is also found in Exodus 21:23–25. Its purpose is not to require the injured party to inflict equal bodily harm on the one who had injured him, but to restrict him from inflicting greater harm than he received.

24:22 the same law. These laws are repeated here in order to answer the question of whether these laws apply to non-Israelites. The answer is yes, they also apply to the stranger in the land.

25:5 shall not reap. Reaping and gathering for storage and selling were not permitted. However, harvesting for daily needs was allowed.

<sup>9</sup>Then you shall cause the trumpet of the Jubilee to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month; <sup>10</sup>on the Day of Atonement you shall make the trumpet to sound throughout all your land. <sup>10a</sup>And you shall consecrate the fiftieth year, and <sup>9</sup>proclaim liberty throughout all the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a Jubilee for you; and each of you shall return to his possession, <sup>10a</sup>and each of you shall return to his family. <sup>11</sup>That fiftieth year shall be a Jubilee to you; in it <sup>10a</sup>you shall neither sow nor reap what grows of its own accord, nor gather the grapes of your untended vine. <sup>12</sup>For it is the Jubilee; it shall be holy to you; <sup>10a</sup>you shall eat its produce from the field.

<sup>13a</sup>In this Year of Jubilee, each of you shall return to his possession. <sup>14</sup>And if you sell anything to your neighbor or buy from your neighbor's hand, you shall not <sup>10a</sup>oppress one another. <sup>15m</sup>According to the number of years after the Jubilee you shall buy from your neighbor, and according to the number of years of crops he shall sell to you. <sup>16</sup>According to the multitude of years you shall increase its price, and according to the fewer number of years you shall diminish its price; for he sells to you according to the number of the years of the crops. <sup>17</sup>Therefore <sup>10a</sup>you shall not oppress one another, <sup>10a</sup>but you shall fear your God; for I am the LORD your God.

Provisions for the Seventh Year

<sup>18a</sup>So you shall observe My statutes and keep My judgments, and perform them; <sup>10a</sup>and you will dwell in the land in safety. <sup>19</sup>Then the land will yield its fruit, and <sup>10a</sup>you will eat your fill, and dwell there in safety.

Redemption of Property

<sup>25a</sup>If one of your brethren becomes poor, and has sold some of his possession, and if <sup>10a</sup>this redeeming relative comes to redeem it, then he may redeem what his brother sold. <sup>26</sup>Or if the man has no one to redeem it, but he himself becomes able to redeem it, <sup>27</sup>then <sup>10a</sup>let him count the years since its sale, and restore the remainder to the man to whom he sold it, that he may return to his possession. <sup>28</sup>But if he is not able to have it restored to himself, then what was sold shall remain in the hand of him who bought it until the Year of Jubilee; <sup>29</sup>and in the Jubilee it shall be released, and he shall return to his possession.

<sup>29</sup>If a man sells a house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within a full year he may redeem it. <sup>30</sup>But if it is not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house in the walled city shall belong permanently to him who bought it, throughout his generations. It shall not be released in the Jubilee.

Lending to the Poor

25:10 return. This word could also be translated “liberty.” It meant specifically that all debts were canceled, all Israelites who had sold themselves into slavery were freed, and all the land reverted to its original owners, from the time the land was divided by Joshua. The same phrase occurs in Isaiah 61:1, the passage Jesus read in the synagogue in Nazareth at the beginning of His earthly ministry. Jesus declares liberty to all who have lost their inheritance and become slaves to sin.

25:11 Jubilee. The fiftieth, or jubilee year, followed a Sabbath year of rest, so this meant that there were two years of rest in a row for the land.

25:17 fear your God. Fear of God includes respect of man, who is God's highest creation. A deep respect of the life of man, who is created in God's image and likeness, is stressed in Scriptures. This text prohibits taking advantage of or oppressing others, and for the Christian there is the added reminder that we are not to injure those “for whose sake Christ died” (1 Cor. 8:11).

25:23 sojourners with Me. The principle governing all of these laws was that the land did not belong to Israel; it belonged to God.

you shall <sup>h</sup>help him, like a stranger or a sojourner, that he may live with you. <sup>36i</sup>Take no usury or interest from him; but <sup>i</sup>fear your God, that your brother may live with you. <sup>37</sup>You shall not lend him your money for usury, nor lend him your food at a profit. <sup>38k</sup>I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan and to be your God.

The Law Concerning Slavery

<sup>39a</sup>And if one of your brethren who dwells by you becomes poor, and sells himself to you, you shall not compel him to serve as a slave. <sup>40</sup>As a hired servant and a sojourner he shall be with you, and shall serve you until the Year of Jubilee. <sup>41</sup>And then he shall depart from you—he and his children <sup>l</sup>with him—and shall return to his own family. He shall return to the possession of his fathers. <sup>42</sup>For they are <sup>m</sup>My servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt; they shall not be sold as slaves. <sup>43n</sup>You shall not rule over him <sup>o</sup>with rigor, but you <sup>p</sup>shall fear your God. <sup>44</sup>And as for your male and female slaves whom you may have—from the nations that are around you, from them you may buy male and female slaves. <sup>45</sup>Moreover you may buy <sup>q</sup>the children of the strangers who dwell among you, and their families who are with you, which they beget in your land; and they shall become your property. <sup>46</sup>And <sup>r</sup>you may take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them as a possession; they shall be your permanent slaves. But regarding your brethren, the children of Israel, you shall not rule over one another with rigor.

who bought him: The price of his release shall be according to the number of years, from the year that he was sold to him until the Year of Jubilee; it shall be <sup>s</sup>according to the time of a hired servant for him. <sup>51</sup>If there are still many years remaining, according to them he shall repay the price of his redemption from the money with which he was bought. <sup>52</sup>And if there remain but a few years until the Year of Jubilee, then he shall reckon with him, and according to his years he shall repay him the price of his redemption. <sup>53</sup>He shall be with him as a yearly hired servant, and he shall not rule with rigor over him in your sight. <sup>54</sup>And if he is not redeemed in these years, then he shall be released in the Year of Jubilee—he and his children with him. <sup>55</sup>For the children of Israel are servants to Me; they are My servants whom I brought out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

Promise of Blessing and Retribution

- 26 <sup>a</sup>You shall <sup>a</sup>not make idols for yourselves;
neither a carved image nor a sacred pillar shall you rear up for yourselves;
nor shall you set up an engraved stone in your land, to bow down to it;
for I am the LORD your God.
- 2 <sup>b</sup>You shall keep My Sabbaths and reverence My sanctuary:
I am the LORD.
- 3 <sup>c</sup>If you walk in My statutes and keep My commandments, and perform them,
- 4 <sup>d</sup>then I will give you rain in its season, <sup>e</sup>the land shall yield its produce, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit.
- 5 <sup>f</sup>Your threshing shall last till the time of vintage, and the vintage shall last till the time of sowing;
you shall eat your bread to the full, and <sup>g</sup>dwell in your land safely.
- 6 <sup>h</sup>I will give peace in the land, and <sup>i</sup>you shall lie down, and none will make you afraid;

25:44–46 permanent slaves. The fact that God made laws to govern the current practices of slavery does not mean that He approved of slavery. He made laws about divorce, too, but He also said that He hates divorce.

26:1 engraved stone. A sacred pillar was a stone or wooden column erected to represent a pagan god or goddess. It was not a likeness, but a symbol. Together, the four terms used in this verse cover all the possibilities for pagan images.

26:4–5 rain in its season . . . threshing . . . time of vintage . . . sowing. Not only will God provide the rain when needed. He would provide abundant harvests. The grain harvest was finished by early to mid-June, and the grape harvest began about two months later. Having two months to thresh the grain indicated a large harvest. Likewise sowing could not occur until after the first rains softened the ground, usually in mid-October. A two-month grape harvest would be a bumper crop. This is the first of the three blessings from God.

26:6–10 peace in the land. Neither animal nor human adversaries would be successful against

- 7 You will chase your enemies, and they shall fall by the sword before you.
- 8 <sup>l</sup>Five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight; your enemies shall fall by the sword before you.
- 9 'For I will <sup>m</sup>look on you favorably and <sup>n</sup>make you fruitful, multiply you and confirm My <sup>o</sup>covenant with you.
- 10 You shall eat the <sup>p</sup>old harvest, and clear out the old because of the new.
- 11 <sup>q</sup>I will set My tabernacle among you, and My soul shall not abhor you.
- 12 <sup>r</sup>I will walk among you and be your God, and you shall be My people.
- 13 I <sup>am</sup> the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that you should not be their slaves; I have broken the bands of your <sup>s</sup>yoke and made you walk upright.
- 14 'But if you do not obey Me, and do not observe all these commandments,
- 15 and if you despise My statutes, or if your soul abhors My judgments, so that you do not perform all My commandments, but break My covenant,
- 16 I also will do this to you:
I will even appoint terror over you, <sup>t</sup>wasting disease and fever which shall <sup>u</sup>consume the eyes and <sup>v</sup>cause sorrow of heart.

- And <sup>w</sup>you shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.
- 17 I will set <sup>x</sup>My face against you, and <sup>y</sup>you shall be defeated by your enemies.
- <sup>z</sup>Those who hate you shall reign over you, and you shall <sup>a</sup>flee when no one pursues you.
- 18 'And after all this, if you do not obey Me, then I will punish you <sup>b</sup>seven times more for your sins.
- 19 I will <sup>c</sup>break the pride of your power; I <sup>d</sup>will make your heavens like iron and your earth like bronze.
- 20 And your <sup>e</sup>strength shall be spent in vain; for your <sup>f</sup>land shall not yield its produce, nor shall the trees of the land yield their fruit.
- 21 'Then, if you walk contrary to Me, and are not willing to obey Me, I will bring on you seven times more plagues, according to your sins.
- 22 <sup>g</sup>I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, destroy your livestock, and make you few in number; and <sup>h</sup>your highways shall be desolate.
- 23 'And if <sup>i</sup>by these things you are not reformed by Me, but walk contrary to Me,
- 24 <sup>j</sup>then I also will walk contrary to you, and I will punish you yet seven times for your sins.
- 25 And <sup>k</sup>I will bring a sword against you that will execute the vengeance of the covenant;

Israel. This is the second of the three blessings from God.

26:11–13 I will walk among you. The third blessing was the promise of His presence within Israel, actively walking among them and looking out for their welfare.

26:12–13 be your God. The image in these verses is a dramatic one, reminding the Israelites that God would be their intimate associate continually. He would walk with them, support them in times of difficulty and danger, and abundantly provide for both their physical and spiritual needs. To be God's people meant that the Israelites had to obey God's laws scrupulously, to be holy as God is holy, and to be a witness of God among the pagan nations.

26:14–15 not observe all these commandments. As with the blessings, the curses are presented in an "if-then" format.

26:16–17 terror . . . wasting disease and fever. Fear, illness, poor harvest, and enemies in the land would be God's first attempts to draw Israel back to Himself.

26:18–20 heavens like iron. The second series of curses were characterized as "seven times more." Rain was essential to the whole nation, both the fall and spring rains.

26:19 pride of your power. The pride of power will often cause a person or nation to trust in its own strength and accomplishments rather than to submit to God and give Him the honor and glory. The punishment for this pride was drought—skies like iron, with not even a hint of rain. This can be true on a personal level as well as a national level if one forgets that it is God who has given the position of significance. Then the iron heavens make it seem as if prayers are not heard, and the parched spirit cries out for God's touch again.

26:21–22 seven times more plagues. The third series of curses are again increased "seven times," so that the land is plagued with wild beasts that attack both their children and their domestic animals.

26:23–26 a sword . . . pestilence . . . hand of the enemy . . . eat and not be satisfied. The fourth series of curses are also increased "seven times." When enemies invaded the land, the people living in unwalled villages fled to walled cities, and if the city was besieged, the overcrowding created prime conditions for epidemics and famine.

eat you up.
- 39 And those of you who are left <sup>b</sup>shall waste away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands;
also in their <sup>c</sup>fathers' iniquities, which are with them, they shall waste away.
- 40 <sup>1</sup>But <sup>d</sup>if they confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers, with their unfaithfulness in which they were unfaithful to Me, and that they also have walked contrary to Me,
- 41 and that I also have walked contrary to them and have brought them into the land of their enemies;
if their <sup>e</sup>uncircumcised hearts are <sup>f</sup>hum-

- 42 then I will <sup>h</sup>remember My covenant with Jacob, and My covenant with Isaac and My covenant with Abraham I will remember;
I will <sup>i</sup>remember the land.
- 43 <sup>j</sup>The land also shall be left empty by them, and will enjoy its sabbaths while it lies desolate without them;
they will accept their guilt, because they <sup>k</sup>despised My judgments and because their soul abhorred My statutes.
- 44 Yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, <sup>l</sup>I will not cast them away, nor shall I abhor them, to utterly destroy them and break My covenant with them;
for I am the LORD their God.
- 45 But <sup>m</sup>for their sake I will remember the covenant of their ancestors, <sup>n</sup>whom I

26:29 eat the flesh of your sons . . . daughters. The fifth and final curse, "seven times for your sins," was cannibalism. This actually happened centuries later during a siege of Samaria, and later still in Jerusalem (2 Kin. 6:28–29; Lam. 2:20; 4:10).

26:30 high places . . . idols. The high places and images or incense altars were dedicated to the worship of pagan gods.

26:33 scatter. This threat was fulfilled in the Babylonian exile of 587–536 B.C.

26:36–37 faintness into their hearts. Survivors would not enjoy relief or peace of mind after escaping the disasters. They would still be timid, even when no one pursued them.

26:38–39 perish among the nations. Having been exiled to foreign lands, the people were not to think they were beyond God's punitive reach.

26:42 My covenant. God's covenant with the patri-archs took precedence over the covenant at Sinai

(Gal. 3:15–18). Even when Israel violated the Sinai covenant, God honored the patriarchal covenant.

26:44–45 I will not cast them away . . . remember the covenant. Ultimately, God's character is grace, mercy, love and redemption. On that basis, God would remember the covenant and redeem them because He is God.

brought out of the land of Egypt <sup>o</sup>in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God: I am the LORD.<sup>v</sup>”

Redeeming Persons and Property Dedicated to God

27 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: <sup>a</sup>“When a man consecrates by a vow certain persons to the LORD, according to your valuation, <sup>3</sup>if your valuation is of a male from twenty years old up to sixty years old, then your valuation shall be fifty shekels of silver, <sup>b</sup>according to the shekel of the sanctuary. <sup>4</sup>If it is a female, then your valuation shall be thirty shekels; <sup>5</sup>and if from five years old up to twenty years old, then your valuation for a male shall be twenty shekels, and for a female ten shekels; <sup>6</sup>and if from a month old up to five years old, then your valuation for a male shall be five shekels of silver, and for a female your valuation shall be three shekels of silver; <sup>7</sup>and if from sixty years old and above, if it is a male, then your valuation shall be fifteen shekels, and for a female ten shekels.

<sup>8</sup>But if he is too poor to pay your valuation, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall set a value for <sup>c</sup>him; according to the ability of him who vowed, the priest shall value him.

<sup>9</sup>If it is an animal that men may bring as an offering to the LORD, all that anyone gives to the LORD shall be holy. <sup>10</sup>He shall not substitute it or exchange it, good for bad or bad for good; and if he at all exchanges animal for animal, then both it and the one exchanged for it shall be <sup>d</sup>holy. <sup>11</sup>If it is an unclean animal which they do not offer as a sacrifice to the LORD, then he shall present the animal before the priest; <sup>12</sup>and the priest shall set a value for it, whether it is good or bad; as you, the priest, value it, so it shall be. <sup>13e</sup>But if he wants at all to redeem it, then he must add one-fifth to your valuation.

<sup>14</sup>And when a man dedicates his house to be holy to the LORD, then the priest shall set a value for it, whether it is good or bad; as the priest values it, so it shall stand. <sup>15</sup>If he who dedicated it wants to redeem his house, then he must add one-fifth of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall be his.

<sup>16</sup>If a man dedicates to the LORD part of a field of his possession, then your valuation shall be according to the seed for it. A homer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver. <sup>17</sup>If he dedicates his field from the Year of Jubilee, according to your valuation it shall stand. <sup>18</sup>But if he dedicates his field after the Jubilee, then the priest shall reckon to him the money due according to the years that remain till the Year of Jubilee, and it shall be deducted from your valuation. <sup>19</sup>And if he who dedicates the field ever wishes to redeem it, then he must add one-fifth of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall belong to him. <sup>20</sup>But if he does not want to redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed anymore; <sup>21</sup>but the field, <sup>a</sup>when it is released in the Jubilee, shall be holy to the LORD, as a <sup>b</sup>devoted field; it shall be <sup>c</sup>the possession of the priest.

<sup>22</sup>And if a man dedicates to the LORD a field which he has bought, which is not the field of his possession, <sup>23</sup>then the priest shall reckon to him the worth of your valuation, up to the Year of Jubilee, and he shall give your valuation on that day as a holy offering to the LORD. <sup>24k</sup>In the Year of Jubilee the field shall return to him from whom it was bought, to the one who owned the land as a possession. <sup>25</sup>And all your valuations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: <sup>l</sup>twenty gerahs to the shekel.

<sup>26</sup>But the <sup>m</sup>firstborn of the animals, which should be the LORD's firstborn, no man shall dedicate; whether it is an ox or sheep, it is the LORD's. <sup>27</sup>And if it is an unclean animal, then he shall redeem it according to your valuation, and <sup>n</sup>shall add

27:2–8 by a vow . . . shall value. While people could dedicate themselves or their children to the Lord (1 Sam. 1:11,22) only the Levites were allowed to serve God as priests. Therefore, those others vowed in service to the Lord had to be redeemed, and the value of his service was given to the sanctuary.

27:8 too poor. Fifty shekels might have represented about four years' earnings. If a person was too poor to pay this price, the priest set a price that the person could pay.

27:14–24 dedicates. Consecrating or dedicating property to the Lord, and then buying it back with cash if one wants to use it for oneself is a curious idea to modern people. We tend to consider dedication of something to God as using it in a way that pleases Him, and the line between “God’s” and “mine” may be very fuzzy. We are familiar with offering praises or tithes to God as worship, but think of the way we handle property as “good” or “poor” stewardship. A passage like this reminds us that we are not to be casual in worship. Are we offering it to God or not? Is it His, or do we want it back at no cost to ourselves?

one-fifth to it; or if it is not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your valuation.

<sup>28o</sup>Nevertheless no devoted offering that a man may devote to the LORD of all that he has, both man and beast, or the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed; every devoted offering is most holy to the LORD. <sup>29p</sup>No person under the ban, who may become doomed to destruction among men, shall be redeemed, but shall surely be put to death. <sup>30</sup>And <sup>q</sup>all the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORD's. It is holy to the LORD. <sup>31r</sup>If a man wants at all to redeem any of his tithes, he shall add one-fifth to it. <sup>32</sup>And concerning the tithe of the herd or the flock, of whatever <sup>s</sup>passes under the rod, the tenth one shall be holy to the LORD. <sup>33</sup>He shall not inquire whether it is good or bad, <sup>t</sup>nor shall he exchange it; and if he exchanges it at all, then both it and the one exchanged for it shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.”

27:28 devoted offering. Devoting a possession was a stronger act than dedication. Nothing devoted could be redeemed; persons devoted (under the ban) were to be put to death. No private citizen would have had the power to put himself or anyone else “under the ban.”

27:31 redeem any of his tithes. For a person living a distance from the sanctuary, it may have been more practical to redeem the tithe than to bring the crops to the sanctuary.

27:32 under the rod. Sheep and goats were inspected when they passed under the rod that the shepherd placed across the entrance to the fold. This was a time to determine if the animals were under any distress from disease or injury, and was also the time that some of them were set aside for the Lord.

THE FOURTH BOOK OF MOSES CALLED NUMBERS

► AUTHOR: The Jews, Samaritans, and the early church testify to Moses' authorship. Several New Testament passages attribute events cited from Numbers to Moses (John 3:14; Acts 7: 13; 1 Cor. 10:1–11; Heb. 3–4), and there are more than eighty claims within Numbers that state that the Lord spoke to Moses (1:1). Numbers 33:2 says that Moses recorded their journeys at the Lord's command. As an eyewitness who kept detailed records, and the central character of the events in the book, no one was better qualified to write this book than Moses.

► KEY VERSES: Num. 14:22–23

► THEME: At Sinai, this newly resurrected nation of Israel receives its laws, its system of sacrifices, and its national charter. The people then should be ready to take the next step into the Promised Land, but they aren't. Numbers largely has Israel in a holding pattern. While the book records further steps taken in organizing the nation, its central narrative is that of the refusal of the people to go into Canaan. But God still doesn't give up on His people. He continues to discipline them in an effort to have a new generation ready to fulfill His plan. In this context Numbers points to God's sovereignty, His patience, and His desire to bless His people.

The First Census of Israel

1:1 Wilderness of Sinai. The setting of the Book of Numbers is the wilderness. Not only did the Israelites live in the wilderness, but they as a nation were traveling through a time of spiritual emptiness. They were starting all over in their relationship with God after a time of slavery. The empty wilderness kept them dependent, and kept them from being numbered, according to the number of names, every male individually, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war: <sup>23</sup>those who were numbered of the tribe of Simeon were fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war: <sup>39</sup>those who were numbered of the tribe of Dan were sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

distracted with the normal affairs of caring for land and animals.

1:44–46 all who were numbered. The number of able-bodied men who were at least twenty years old would indicate a population of between two and five million, including the women, children, and older or infirm men who were not counted in this census.

1:50 the tabernacle. The term tabernacle points to the temporary and portable nature of the tent.

The Tribes and Leaders by Armies

2 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying: <sup>2a</sup>“Everyone of the children of Israel shall camp by his own standard, beside the emblems of his father’s house; they shall camp <sup>b</sup>some distance from the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>3</sup>On the east side, toward the rising of the sun, those of the standard of the forces with Judah shall camp according to their armies; and <sup>4</sup>Nahshon the son of Amminadab shall be the leader of the children of Judah.” <sup>4</sup>And his army was numbered at seventy-four thousand six hundred.

<sup>34</sup>Thus the children of Israel <sup>n</sup>did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses; <sup>o</sup>so they camped by their standards and so they broke camp, each one by his family, according to their fathers’ houses.

2:1–2 by his own standard. A person’s identity was not only derived from his or her tribe, but also from his or her place in relation to the tabernacle. This is a chapter on design and order; it speaks to the importance of knowing one’s duties in relation to the holy and living God.

2:3–9 On the east side, toward the rising of the sun. The east side was the favored side, facing the rising sun. The Israelites were not a seafaring people; in effect they turned their backs to the sea, so the word for “back” could mean “west” or “the sea.”

2:17 tabernacle . . . the Levites in the middle. In the line of march the tabernacle was in a central position—a symbol not only of Israel’s protection of the holy objects, but also of the presence of God among His people.

The Sons of Aaron

The Levites Serve in the Tabernacle

Census of the Levites Commanded

to the word of the LORD, as he was commanded. <sup>17p</sup>These were the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. <sup>18</sup>And these are the names of the sons of <sup>q</sup>Gershon by their families: ‘Libni and Shimei. <sup>19</sup>And the sons of <sup>r</sup>Kohath by their families: ‘Amram, Izeahar, Hebron, and Uzziel. <sup>20u</sup>And the sons of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites by their fathers’ houses.

<sup>21</sup>From Gershon came the family of the Libnites and the family of the Shimites; these were the families of the Gershonites. <sup>22</sup>Those who were numbered, according to the number of all the males from a month old and above—of those who were numbered there were seven thousand five hundred. <sup>23v</sup>The families of the Gershonites were to camp behind the tabernacle westward. <sup>24</sup>And the leader of the father’s house of the Gershonites was Eliasaph the son of Lael. <sup>25w</sup>The duties of the children of Gershon in the tabernacle of meeting included <sup>x</sup>the tabernacle, <sup>y</sup>the tent with <sup>z</sup>its covering, the <sup>a</sup>screen for the door of the tabernacle of meeting, <sup>26b</sup>the screen for the door of the court, <sup>c</sup>the hangings of the court which are around the tabernacle and the altar, and <sup>d</sup>their cords, according to all the work relating to them.

3:1–10 sons of Aaron. The priests had privileged access to God. In the New Covenant this is no longer confined only to a particular group of God’s people. All Christians comprise God’s new temple and constitute “a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ” (1 Pet. 2:5).

3:5–10 Aaron and his sons. The Levites could care for the holy things, but only the priests, who ministered in the tabernacle, drew near to God. Only the high priest entered the Most Holy Place.

3:11–13 I sanctified to Myself. God is directly involved in redemption. When God redeemed and saved His people, it was by His own person.

the Levites, with oversight of those who kept charge of the sanctuary.

Levites Dedicated Instead of the Firstborn

3:38 keeping charge. "Keeping charge of the sanctuary" was committed to a particular group of people, and no one else was to intrude on that task. Believers, as part of the body of Christ, also have certain duties. These roles are not rigid, but they are definite, planned, and created by God for the good of the whole church. The teamwork of the whole body creates a harmonious whole, and if one fails in his duty, the whole team suffers (1 Cor. 12).

3:40–42 Number all the firstborn males. When God passed over the homes of the Hebrew families who had obeyed His commands in the Passover (Ex. 12:23–51), He declared the surviving firstborn Hebrew children—and also the firstborn of animals—to be His. The animals were sacrificed, the firstborn were redeemed (paid for), at first by the Levites who took the place of all the other firstborn, and

Duties of the Sons of Kohath

Duties of the Sons of Gershon

even to fifty years old, you shall number them, all who enter to perform the service, to do the work in the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>24</sup>This is the <sup>y</sup>service of the families of the Gershonites, in serving and carrying: <sup>25z</sup>They shall carry the <sup>a</sup>curtains of the tabernacle and the tabernacle of meeting with its covering, the covering of <sup>b</sup>badger skins that is on it, the screen for the door of the tabernacle of meeting, <sup>26</sup>the screen for the door of the gate of the court, the hangings of the court which are around the tabernacle and altar, and their cords, all the furnishings for their service and all that is made for these things: so shall they serve.

Duties of the Sons of Merari

Census of the Levites

little things is the best preparation for greater trusts. Mary, the mother of Jesus is an example of this. Her response to the angel when she was told that she would be the mother of Jesus was, "Behold the maid-servant of the Lord . . ." (Luke 1:38). She had found favor in the way she conducted her daily life, and God chose her for a unique and blessed role.

5:3 not defile their camps . . . I dwell. Ritual purity was important because God wanted the Israelites to remember that He lived among them. They needed to think of Him walking around in the camp and live in such a way that there was not something offensive for God to discover.

5:6 unfaithfulness against the LORD. Not only did God deal with ritual impurity, He was also concerned about how the people treated each other. To label sin as "acting unfaithfully" kept the real issue right in front. When we mistreat our fellow citizens, God

Ceremonially Unclean Persons Isolated

Confession and Restitution

Concerning Unfaithful Wives

5:12 wife goes astray. The wife belonged to her husband. If she was unfaithful, she could be stoned. the spirit of jealousy comes upon him and he becomes jealous of his wife, although she has not defiled herself—<sup>15</sup>then the man shall bring his wife to the priest. He shall <sup>o</sup>bring the offering required for her, one-tenth of an ephah of barley meal; he shall pour no oil on it and put no frankincense on it, because it is a grain offering of jealousy, an offering for remembering, for <sup>p</sup>bringing iniquity to remembrance.

"Then" the woman shall say, "Amen, so be it."

in a book, and he shall scrape them off into the bitter water. <sup>24</sup>And he shall make the woman drink the bitter water that brings a curse, and the water that brings the curse shall enter her to become bitter. <sup>25</sup>Then the priest shall take the grain offering of jealousy from the woman's hand, shall <sup>w</sup>wave the offering before the LORD, and bring it to the altar; <sup>26</sup>and the priest shall take a handful of the offering, <sup>x</sup>as its memorial portion, burn it on the altar, and afterward make the woman drink the water. <sup>27</sup>When he has made her drink the water, then it shall be, if she has defiled herself and behaved unfaithfully toward her husband, that the water that brings a <sup>y</sup>curse will enter her and become bitter, and her belly will swell, her thigh will rot, and the woman <sup>z</sup>will become a curse among her people. <sup>28</sup>But if the woman has not defiled herself, and is clean, then she shall be free and may conceive children.

<sup>29</sup>This is the law of jealousy, when a wife, while under her husband's authority, <sup>a</sup>goes astray and defiles herself, <sup>30</sup>or when the spirit of jealousy comes upon a man, and he becomes jealous of his wife; then he shall stand the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute all this law upon her. <sup>31</sup>Then the man shall be free from iniquity, but that woman <sup>b</sup>shall bear her guilt."

The Law of the Nazirite

6 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: 'When either a man or woman consecrates an offering to take the vow of a Nazirite, <sup>3</sup>to separate himself to the LORD, <sup>4</sup>he shall separate himself from wine and similar drink; he shall drink neither vinegar made from wine nor vinegar her faithfulness. It is obvious if a woman is pregnant, but it is not obvious who the father is. By bringing the whole sorry problem to God, the Israelites could be sure of justice.

5:15 bring his wife to the priest. Determining if a woman had been unfaithful to her husband, when she had not been caught in wrongdoing, was more difficult than detecting skin diseases. But because God was in the camp, the issue could be resolved by the priest, in the presence of God. Again, it reminded the Israelites that nothing was hidden from God.

5:18 bitter water that brings a curse. This was not a magic potion, but dust from the floor of the tabernacle and holy water. The woman held in her own hands the grain offering for jealousy. These things reminded everyone that they were standing in the presence of God, and that it was He who would determine if the woman bore any guilt.

5:21 your thigh rot and your belly swell. These words speak symbolically of a miscarriage (of an illegitimate child) if the woman was pregnant, and the inability to conceive again. In the biblical world, a woman who was unable to bear children was regarded as being under a curse; in this case it would have been true.

5:31 woman shall bear her guilt. Throughout the Bible God compares idolatry with marital unfaithfulness, so it is clear that this is a subject that touches close to the heart of every man and woman. God is faithful to His people, and they are to be true to Him. In the same way, as a daily picture of this faithfulness, the husband and wife are to be true and faithful to each other. The law recognizes the volatility of unfaithfulness, provides a limit to unjust accusations, and underlines the seriousness of the moral lapse that comes with adultery. A guilty woman would indeed bear her guilt, but a faithful woman would be exonerated.

6:1–8 Self-Denial—To serve God by abstaining from legitimate things is the Christian's privilege today as well. It is not that God is looking for sacrifice, but He is looking for a willing heart that will lay aside the good to spend time on the best.

made from similar drink; neither shall he drink any grape juice, nor eat fresh grapes or raisins. <sup>4</sup>All the days of his separation he shall eat nothing that is produced by the grapevine, from seed to skin.

before the LORD and offer his sin offering and his burnt offering; <sup>17</sup>and he shall offer the ram as a sacrifice of a peace offering to the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread; the priest shall also offer its grain offering and its drink offering. <sup>18</sup>Then the Nazirite shall shave his consecrated head at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and shall take the hair from his consecrated head and put it on the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace offering.

<sup>21</sup>This is the law of the Nazirite who vows to the LORD the offering for his separation, and besides that, whatever else his hand is able to provide; according to the vow which he takes, so he must do according to the law of his separation."

The Priestly Blessing

<sup>26</sup> The LORD lift up His countenance upon you,

And <sup>28</sup>give you peace."

Offerings of the Leaders

7 Now it came to pass, when Moses had finished <sup>2</sup>setting up the tabernacle, that

6:21 the law of the Nazirite. Not to be confused with a Nazarene (one from Nazareth), the Nazirite vows were practiced both in the Old and New Testament. It is likely that John the Baptist was a Nazirite, probably all of his life.

6:23 bless the children of Israel. This special blessing shows the love and mercy of God toward His chosen people. God's keeping power, His shining personal presence, His eye contact, and His own peace would be a blessing that would mark the Israelites as belonging to God Himself, and they would be called with His name.

7:1 when Moses had finished setting up the tabernacle. This phrasing places the events of this chapter before the taking of the census in chapters 1–4. The tabernacle was completed on the first day of the first month of the second year. The census began one month later.

7:1–11 brought their offering. The tabernacle from the beginning to the end was constructed and furnished by willing hearts and hands. God wants us to give to His work because we are eager to, not because we are required. Jesus directed, "Give, and it will be given to you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over" (Luke 6:38). We can never outgive God.

he <sup>b</sup>anointed it and consecrated it and all its furnishings, and the altar and all its utensils; so he anointed them and consecrated them. <sup>2</sup>Then <sup>c</sup>the leaders of Israel, the heads of their fathers' houses, who were the leaders of the tribes and over those who were numbered, made an offering. <sup>3</sup>And they brought their offering before the LORD, six covered carts and twelve oxen, a cart for every two of the leaders, and for each one an ox; and they presented them before the tabernacle.

<sup>4</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>5</sup>"Accept these from them, that they may be used in doing the work of the tabernacle of meeting; and you shall give them to the Levites, to every man according to his service." <sup>6</sup>So Moses took the carts and the oxen, and gave them to the Levites. <sup>7</sup>Two carts and four oxen <sup>d</sup>he gave to the sons of Gershon, according to their service; <sup>8</sup>and four carts and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the authority* of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. <sup>9</sup>But to the sons of Kohath he gave none, because theirs was <sup>e</sup>the service of the holy things, <sup>f</sup>which they carried on their shoulders.

male lamb in its first year, as a burnt offering; <sup>22</sup>one kid of the goats as a sin offering; <sup>23</sup>and as the sacrifice of peace offerings: two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Nethanel the son of Zuar.

young bulls, the rams twelve, the male lambs in their first year twelve, with their grain offering, and the kids of the goats as a sin offering twelve.<sup>88</sup> And all the oxen for the sacrifice of peace offerings were twenty-four bulls, the rams sixty, the male goats sixty, and the lambs in their first year sixty. This was the dedication offering for the altar after it was anointed.

Arrangement of the Lamps

8 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2a</sup>“Speak to Aaron, and say to him, ‘When you <sup>a</sup>arrange the lamps, the seven <sup>b</sup>lamps shall give light in front of the lampstand.’” <sup>3</sup>And Aaron did so; he arranged the lamps to face toward the front of the lampstand, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>4c</sup>Now this workmanship of the lampstand was hammered gold; from its shaft to its flowers it was <sup>d</sup>hammered work. <sup>e</sup>According to the pattern which the LORD had shown Moses, so he made the lampstand.

Cleansing and Dedication of the Levites

7:89 heard the voice. The tabernacle is referred to as the “tabernacle of meeting,” because it was here that the Lord communicated with His people. Moses knew that it was the Lord he was hearing, and he took that word very seriously. The Word of God is still something that God’s people can hear, usually through the Bible, sometimes in creation (Rom. 1), and sometimes through the work of the Holy Spirit. This is usually a strong impression that God wants you to pay attention to something, wait, change a decision, or pray. The leading of the Holy Spirit will never contradict Scripture, so it is exceedingly important for believers to maintain a familiarity with the Bible, so they can know God and hear Him.

8:10–12 shall lay their hands on. The sons of Israel who laid their hands on the Levites in this ancient symbol of dedication were showing their support for and agreement with the special role that the Levites had been set aside for. This would be an event that everyone could look back on and remember as an important, solemn time of dedication and asking for God’s blessing.

8:16 wholly given to Me. The Hebrew words for this phrase are an emphatic doubling: “given, given.”

8:19 no plague. God’s holiness would not bear an improper approach. But in His mercy He provided the protective hedge of the Levites, to keep the Israelites from coming near the sanctuary in an unauthorized way, and thus causing a plague.

The Second Passover

9 Now the LORD spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying: <sup>2a</sup>"Let the children of Israel keep <sup>a</sup>the Passover at its appointed <sup>b</sup>time. <sup>3</sup>On the fourteenth day of this month, at twilight, you shall keep it at its appointed time. According to all its rites and ceremonies you shall keep it." <sup>4</sup>So Moses told the children of Israel that they should keep the Passover. <sup>5</sup>And <sup>c</sup>they kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month, at twilight, in the Wilderness of Sinai; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did.

<sup>6</sup>Now there were certain men who were <sup>d</sup>defiled by a human corpse, so that they could not keep the Passover on that day; <sup>e</sup>and they came before Moses and Aaron that day. <sup>7</sup>And those men said to him, "We became defiled by a human corpse. Why are we kept from presenting the offering of the LORD at its appointed time among the children of Israel?"

<sup>8</sup>And Moses said to them, "Stand still, that <sup>f</sup>I may hear what the LORD will command concerning you."

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>10</sup>"Speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'If anyone of you or your posterity is unclean because of a corpse, or is far away on a journey, he may still keep the LORD's Passover. <sup>11</sup>On <sup>g</sup>the fourteenth day of the second month, at twilight, they may keep it. They shall <sup>h</sup>eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. <sup>12</sup>They shall leave none of it until morning, <sup>i</sup>nor break one of its bones. <sup>k</sup>According to all the ordinances of the Passover they shall keep it. <sup>13</sup>But the man who is clean and is not on a journey, and ceases to keep the Passover, that same person <sup>l</sup>shall be cut off from among his people, because he <sup>m</sup>did not bring the offering of the LORD at its appointed time; that man shall <sup>n</sup>bear his sin.

<sup>14</sup>And if a stranger dwells among you, and would keep the LORD's Passover, he must do so according to the rite of the Passover and according to its ceremony; <sup>o</sup>you shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger and the native of the land."

The Cloud and the Fire

8:24 From twenty-five years old. According to 4:3, the Levites were to be thirty years old, which seems like a contradiction to this passage. It is possible that the difference reflects a time of apprenticeship.

9:1 the first month of the second year. This phrasing places the events of this chapter before the taking of the census. (See note at 7:1.)

9:1–5 keep the Passover. When the first Passover was celebrated in Egypt, the command was given to commemorate it throughout Israel's generations (Ex. 12:14). This would be the second time that the Israelites had observed this special commemorative event. Passover had greater significance than any Israelite of that day could imagine, however wonderful the exodus events were. Redemption from Egypt was a picture of greater redemption yet to be, when the blood of Christ would speak of better things than the blood applied to the doors in Egypt. Christ is now our eternal Passover (1 Cor. 5:7).

9:12 nor break one of its bones. It is fitting to remember that when the Savior was crucified as our "Passover Lamb," none of His bones were broken (John 19:36).

9:15–23 the cloud. The cloud was a dramatic symbol of the active presence of God with His people, hovering over them in protection, moving ahead of them for direction, and coming near at night as fire for comfort in the darkness.

above the tabernacle a few days: according to the command of the LORD they would remain encamped, and according to the command of the LORD they would journey.<sup>21</sup> So it was, when the cloud remained only from evening until morning: when the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they would journey; whether by day or by night, whenever the cloud was taken up, they would journey.<sup>22</sup> Whether it was two days, a month, or a year that the cloud remained above the tabernacle, the children of Israel would remain encamped and not journey; but when it was taken up, they would journey.<sup>23</sup> At the command of the LORD they remained encamped, and at the command of the LORD they journeyed; they kept the charge of the LORD, at the command of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

Two Silver Trumpets

10 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup>“Make two silver trumpets for yourself; you shall make them of hammered work; you shall use them for calling the congregation and for directing the movement of the camps.<sup>3</sup> When they blow both of them, all the congregation shall gather before you at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.<sup>4</sup> But if they blow only one, then the leaders, the heads of the divisions of Israel, shall gather to you.<sup>5</sup> When you sound the advance, the camps that lie on the east side shall then begin their journey.<sup>6</sup> When you sound the advance the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side shall begin their journey; they shall sound the call for them to begin their journeys.<sup>7</sup> And when the assembly is to be gathered together, you shall blow, but not sound the advance.<sup>8</sup> The sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets; and these shall be to you as an ordinance forever throughout your generations.

<sup>9</sup>“When you go to war in your land against the enemy who oppresses you, then you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets, and you will be remembered before the LORD your God, and you will be saved from your enemies.<sup>10</sup> Also in the day of your gladness, in your appointed feasts, and at the beginning of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; and they shall be a memorial for you before your God: I am the LORD your God.”

Departure from Sinai

9:23 At the command. Like the children of Israel, our existence often seems to us like a wilderness. Most often we want to move, to do, to know. Without waiting and following God's directions, His Word, His plan, we miss His best, and lessons are lost or delayed. How blessed to wait for God's direction, to obey Him in both stops and starts in all of life! No words spoken, no money spent, no job taken, no engagement ring given or received, without knowing we will be keeping God's charge.

10:2 two silver trumpets. The two silver trumpets were different from the curved ram's horn trumpets (Lev. 25:9). Made of hammered silver, these instruments were straight with a flaring bell, like the post horns of medieval Europe. Since they did not have valves, they would have been played like a bugle.

of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan.

<sup>28b</sup>Thus was the order of march of the children of Israel, according to their armies, when they began their journey.

<sup>29</sup>Now Moses said to <sup>c</sup>Hobab the son of <sup>d</sup>Reuel* the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are setting out for the place of which the LORD said, 'I will give it to you.' Come with us, and <sup>f</sup>we will treat you well; for <sup>g</sup>the LORD has promised good things to Israel."

<sup>30</sup>And he said to him, "I will not go, but I will depart to my own land and to my relatives."

<sup>31</sup>So Moses said, "Please do not leave, inasmuch as you know how we are to camp in the wilderness, and you can be our <sup>h</sup>eyes.

<sup>32</sup>And it shall be, if you go with us—indeed it shall be—that <sup>i</sup>whatever good the LORD will do to us, the same we will do to you."

Let Your enemies be scattered,

And let those who hate You flee before You."

<sup>36</sup>And when it rested, he said:

"Return, O LORD,

To the many thousands of Israel."

The People Complain

11 Now <sup>a</sup>when the people complained, it displeased the LORD; <sup>b</sup>for the LORD heard it, and His anger was aroused. So the <sup>c</sup>fire of the LORD burned among them, and consumed some in the outskirts of the camp. <sup>2</sup>Then the people <sup>d</sup>cried out to Moses, and when Moses <sup>e</sup>prayed to the LORD, the fire was quenched. <sup>3</sup>So he called the name of the place Taberah,* because the fire of the LORD had burned among them.

<sup>10</sup>Then Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, everyone at the door of his tent; and <sup>n</sup>the anger of the LORD was greatly aroused; Moses also was displeased. <sup>11</sup>So Moses said to the LORD, "Why have You afflicted Your servant? And why have I not found favor in Your sight, that You have laid the burden of all these people on me? <sup>12</sup>Did I conceive all these people? Did I beget them, that You should say to me, <sup>o</sup>'Carry them in your bosom, as a <sup>p</sup>'guardian carries a nursing child,' to the land which You <sup>q</sup>'swore to their fathers?' <sup>13</sup>Where am I to get meat to give to all these people? For they weep all over me, saying, 'Give us meat, that we may eat.' <sup>14</sup>I am not able to bear all these people alone, because the burden is too heavy for me. <sup>15</sup>If You treat me like this, please kill me here and now—if I have found favor in Your sight—and <sup>r</sup>do not let me see my wretchedness!"

The Seventy Elders

* 10:29 Septuagint reads Raguel (compare Exodus 2:18). * 11:3 Literally Burning

10:29 Reuel. Also called Jethro (Ex. 3:1), Reuel was the priest of Midian who befriended Moses and gave his daughter Zipporah to him as his wife.

11:1 complained. Murmuring and complaining demonstrated a lack of trust in God's plan, provision, and judgment. Such attitudes are no more pleasing to God now than they were then, although He does not discipline complainers with fire from heaven.

11:4 mixed multitude. The presence of a mixed multitude, or rabble, indicates that there were people in the camp who had escaped from slavery or poverty in Egypt, but were not Israelites. They seem to have been the instigators of dissatisfaction, who made discomfort an excuse to agitate rebellion against God. God's people have always had the responsibility to keep their ears tuned to God's voice instead of the voices of the unbelievers around them.

11:10 weeping. Instead of thankfulness, the Israelites complained against what they had been given and asked for more. This is a serious sin (Ps. 78:17), and in response God chastened them. We ought to learn from the example of the Israelites in the wilderness and make thankfulness our lifestyle (Phil. 4:4).

whom you know to be the elders of the people and <sup>w</sup>officers over them; bring them to the tabernacle of meeting, that they may stand there with you. <sup>17</sup>Then I will come down and talk with you there. <sup>x1</sup>I will take of the Spirit that is upon you and will put the same upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, that you may not bear it yourself alone. <sup>18</sup>Then you shall say to the people, ‘Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat meat; for you have wept <sup>y1</sup>in the hearing of the LORD, saying, “Who will give us meat to eat? For it was well with us in Egypt.” Therefore the LORD will give you meat, and you shall eat. <sup>19</sup>You shall eat, not one day, nor two days, nor five days, nor ten days, nor twenty days, <sup>20z</sup>but for a whole month, until it comes out of your nostrils and becomes loathsome to you, because you have <sup>a</sup>despised the LORD who is among you, and have wept before Him, saying, <sup>b</sup>“Why did we ever come up out of Egypt?”’”

<sup>21</sup>And Moses said, <sup>c</sup>“The people whom I am among are six hundred thousand men on foot; yet You have said, ‘I will give them meat, that they may eat for a whole month.’ <sup>22d</sup>Shall flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, to provide enough for them? Or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to provide enough for them?”

<sup>23</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, <sup>e</sup>“Has the LORD’s arm been shortened? Now you shall see whether <sup>f</sup>what I say will happen to you or not.”

<sup>24</sup>So Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD, and he <sup>g</sup>gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people and placed them around the tabernacle. <sup>25</sup>Then the LORD came down in the cloud, and spoke to him, and took of the Spirit that was upon him, and placed the same upon the seventy elders; and it happened, <sup>h</sup>when the Spirit rested upon them, that <sup>i</sup>they prophesied, although they never did so again.*

<sup>26</sup>But two men had remained in the camp: the name of one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad. And the Spirit rested upon them. Now they were among those listed, but who <sup>j</sup>had not gone out to the tabernacle; yet they prophesied in the camp. <sup>27</sup>And a young man ran and told Moses, and said, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.”

<sup>29</sup>Then Moses said to him, “Are you zealous for my sake? <sup>l</sup>Oh, that all the LORD’s people were prophets and that the LORD would put His Spirit upon them!” <sup>30</sup>And Moses returned to the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

The LORD Sends Quail

Dissension of Aaron and Miriam

12 Then <sup>a</sup>Miriam and Aaron spoke <sup>b</sup>against Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married; for <sup>c</sup>he had married an Ethiopian woman. <sup>2</sup>So they said, “Has the LORD indeed spoken only through <sup>d</sup>Moses? <sup>e</sup>Has He not spoken through us also?” And the LORD <sup>f</sup>heard it. <sup>3</sup>(Now the man Moses was very humble, more than all men who were on the face of the earth.)

<sup>4g</sup>Suddenly the LORD said to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam, “Come out, you three, to the tabernacle of meeting!” So the three came out. <sup>5h</sup>Then the LORD came down in the pillar of cloud and stood in the door of * 11:25 Targum and Vulgate read did not cease.

11:26 Eldad . . . Medad. These two men prophesied, even though they had not joined the other elders at the tabernacle. They were not obedient, but neither were they presumptuous, and the Lord showed that He still wanted them as leaders.

11:34 Kibroth Hattaavah. The place was called “Graves of Craving,” for the greedy people buried there.

11:35 Hazeroth. This place of rest is called “Enclosures.”

12:5 the LORD came down. The language of this verse is more directly physical than usual. God came down, stood, and then called Aaron and Miriam forward.

God’s presence had been in the camp, but this was apparently distinctly more direct.

the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam. And they both went forward. <sup>6</sup>Then He said,

- "Hear now My words:
If there is a prophet among you,
I, the LORD, make Myself known to him <sup>i</sup>in a vision;
I speak to him <sup>j</sup>in a dream.
Even <sup>o</sup>plainly, and not in dark sayings;
And he sees <sup>p</sup>the form of the LORD.
Why then <sup>q</sup>were you not afraid
To speak against My servant Moses?"

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, "If her father had but <sup>w</sup>spit in her face, would she not be shamed seven days? Let her be <sup>x</sup>shut out of the camp seven days, and afterward she may be received again." <sup>15</sup>So Miriam was shut out of the camp seven days, and the people did not journey till Miriam was brought in again. <sup>16</sup>And afterward the people moved from <sup>y</sup>Hazereth and camped in the Wilderness of Paran.

Spies Sent into Canaan

13 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2a</sup>"Send men to spy out the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the children of Israel; from each tribe of their fathers you shall send a man, every one a leader among them."

12:8 face to face, even plainly. These verses speak of the completely intimate relationship that God had with Moses.

12:16 the Wilderness of Paran. Paran had been the destination of the people since they set out from Mount Sinai. The journey had been marred by discontent, complaining, and rebellion.

13:16 Joshua. Hoshea means "salvation." Joshua means "the Lord saves." Moses may have changed Joshua's name to emphasize that it was the Lord, not any particular leader, that they were dependent on. Jesus is another form of the name Joshua.

of Paran, at <sup>a</sup>Kadesh; they brought back word to them and to all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land. <sup>27</sup>Then they told him, and said: "We went to the land where you sent us. It truly flows with <sup>a</sup>milk and honey, <sup>b</sup>and this is its fruit. <sup>28</sup>Nevertheless the <sup>c</sup>people who dwell in the land are strong; the cities are fortified and very large; moreover we saw the descendants of <sup>d</sup>Anak there. <sup>29</sup>The Amalekites dwell in the land of the South; the Hittites, the Jebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the mountains; and the Canaanites dwell by the sea and along the banks of the Jordan."

<sup>30</sup>Then <sup>e</sup>Caleb quieted the people before Moses, and said, "Let us go up at once and take possession, for we are well able to overcome it."

<sup>31</sup>But the men who had gone up with him said, "We are not able to go up against the people, for they are stronger than we." <sup>32</sup>And they gave the children of Israel a bad report of the land which they had spied out, saying, "The land through which we have gone as spies is a land that devours its inhabitants, and <sup>f</sup>all the people whom we saw in it are men of great stature. <sup>33</sup>There we saw the giants* (the descendants of Anak came from the giants); and we were <sup>g</sup>like grasshoppers in our own sight, and so we were <sup>h</sup>in their sight."

Israel Refuses to Enter Canaan

14 So all the congregation lifted up their voices and cried, and the people <sup>i</sup>wept that night. <sup>2</sup>And all the children of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron, and the whole congregation said to them, "If only we had died in the land of Egypt! Or if only we had died in this wilderness! <sup>3</sup>Why has the LORD brought us to this land to fall by the sword, that our wives and <sup>j</sup>children should become victims? Would it not be better for us to return to Egypt?" <sup>4</sup>So they said to one another, <sup>k</sup>"Let us select a leader and <sup>l</sup>return to Egypt."

Moses Intercedes for the People

<sup>11</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses: "How long will these people <sup>n</sup>reject Me? And how long will they not <sup>o</sup>believe Me, with all the signs which I have performed among them? <sup>12</sup>I will strike them with the pestilence and disinherit them, and I will <sup>p</sup>make of you a nation greater and mightier than they."

<sup>13</sup>And <sup>q</sup>Moses said to the LORD: <sup>r</sup>"Then the Egyptians will hear it, for by Your might You brought these people up from among them, <sup>s</sup>and they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have <sup>t</sup>heard that You, LORD, are among these people; that You, LORD, are seen face to face and Your cloud stands above them, and You go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and in a pillar of fire by night. <sup>15</sup>Now if You kill these people as one man, then the nations which have heard of Your fame will speak, saying, <sup>16</sup>'Because the LORD was not <sup>u</sup>able to bring this people to the land which He swore to give them, therefore He killed them in the wilderness.' <sup>17</sup>And now, I pray, let the power of my Lord be great, just as You have spoken, saying, <sup>18</sup>'The LORD is longsuffering and abundant in mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression; but He

13:27 flows with milk and honey. This phrase brought visions of pleasure and plenty to the Israelites. Canaan was a good land, a land with pasture for sheep and goats, with orchards and vineyards. The orchards and beekeeping went hand in hand, and thriving orchards meant honey. This was a land that was already developed and prospering.

14:3 our wives and children should become victims. Not only did the Israelites complain against Moses and Aaron, they dishonored God, saying that He would heartlessly bring them to a place where they would die along with their wives and children.

14:11 How long. This chapter records perhaps the saddest and most far-reaching event in the history of Israel, surpassed only by the crucifixion of their own Messiah. The miracles performed in the Exodus did not convince the Israelites of God's trustworthiness, and the miracles of Christ did not convince the leaders of the day that He was the promised Messiah (Matt. 16:1–4).

<sup>20</sup>Then the LORD said: “I have pardoned, <sup>20a</sup>according to your word; <sup>21</sup>but truly, as I live, <sup>21b</sup>all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD—<sup>22c</sup>because all these men who have seen My glory and the signs which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have put Me to the test now <sup>22d</sup>these ten times, and have not heeded My voice, <sup>23</sup>they certainly shall not <sup>23e</sup>see the land of which I swore to their fathers, nor shall any of those who rejected Me see it. <sup>24</sup>But My servant <sup>24a</sup>Caleb, because he has a different spirit in him and <sup>24b</sup>has followed Me fully, I will bring into the land where he went, and his descendants shall inherit it. <sup>25</sup>Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwell in the valley; tomorrow turn and <sup>25a</sup>move out into the wilderness by the Way of the Red Sea.”

Death Sentence on the Rebels

<sup>26</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, <sup>27a</sup>“How long shall I bear with this evil congregation who complain against Me? <sup>27b</sup>I have heard the complaints which the children of Israel make against Me. <sup>28a</sup>Say to them, ‘As I live,’ says the LORD, ‘just as you have spoken in My hearing, so I will do to you: <sup>28b</sup>The carcasses of you who have complained against Me shall fall in this wilderness; <sup>29a</sup>all of you who were numbered, according to your entire number, from twenty years old and above. <sup>30m</sup>Except for Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun, you shall by no means enter the land which I swore I would make you dwell in. <sup>31n</sup>But your little ones, whom you said would be victims, I will bring in, and they shall know the land which <sup>31o</sup>you have despised. <sup>32</sup>But as for you, <sup>32a</sup>your carcasses shall fall in this wilderness. <sup>33</sup>And your sons shall <sup>33b</sup>be shepherds in the wilderness <sup>33c</sup>forty years, and <sup>33d</sup>bear the brunt of your infidelity, until your carcasses are consumed in the wilderness. <sup>34</sup>According to the number of the days in which you spied out the land, <sup>34a</sup>forty days, for each day you shall bear your guilt one year, namely forty years, <sup>34b</sup>and you shall know My rejection. <sup>35w</sup>I the LORD have spoken this. I will surely do so to all <sup>35x</sup>this evil congregation who are gathered together against Me. In this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.”

<sup>36</sup>Now the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land, who returned and made all the congregation complain against him by bringing a bad report of the land, <sup>37</sup>those very men who brought the evil report about the land, <sup>37a</sup>died by the plague before the LORD. <sup>38</sup>But Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh remained alive, of the men who went to spy out the land.

A Futile Invasion Attempt

<sup>39</sup>Then Moses told these words to all the children of Israel, <sup>39a</sup>and the people mourned greatly. <sup>40</sup>And they rose early in the morning and went up to the top of the mountain, saying, <sup>40a</sup>“Here we are, and we will go up to the place which the LORD has promised, for we have sinned!”

<sup>41</sup>And Moses said, “Now why do you transgress the command of the LORD? For this will not succeed. <sup>42c</sup>Do not go up, lest you be defeated by your enemies, for the LORD is not among you. <sup>43</sup>For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and you shall fall by the sword; <sup>43a</sup>because you have turned away from the LORD, the LORD will not be with you.”

<sup>44e</sup>But they presumed to go up to the mountaintop. Nevertheless, neither the ark of the covenant of the LORD nor Moses departed from the camp. <sup>45</sup>Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who dwell in that mountain came down and attacked them, and drove them back as far as <sup>45a</sup>Hormah.

* 14:18 Exodus 34:6, 7

14:19 Pardon . . . I pray. This passage records the divine testing of Moses. God was not speaking lightly when He offered to smite the Israelites and start over with another group, new descendants from Moses. But Moses needed to know his own heart about the Israelites. As frustrating as they had been, they were still a living history of the mighty hand of God, and Moses did not want the story of their rescue to end with annihilation in the wilderness. Moses’ response was what God wanted to hear, and in passionately and humbly asking for their pardon, Moses had no room for bitterness toward the people who were so difficult to lead.

14:23 they certainly shall not see the land. God pardoned those who turned against Him, but there was a price to pay. They would not see the land that they had complained was impossible to possess.

There is often a lifelong consequence to sin, even with forgiveness.

14:45 Hormah. The name of this place is very apt; it means “utter destruction.”

Laws of Grain and Drink Offerings

15 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2a</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When you have come into the land you are to inhabit, which I am giving to you, <sup>3</sup>and you <sup>b</sup>make an offering by fire to the LORD, a burnt offering or a sacrifice, <sup>c</sup>to fulfill a vow or as a freewill offering or <sup>d</sup>in your appointed feasts, to make a <sup>e</sup>sweet aroma to the LORD, from the herd or the flock, <sup>4</sup>then <sup>f</sup>he who presents his offering to the LORD shall bring <sup>g</sup>a grain offering of one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed <sup>h</sup>with one-fourth of a hin of oil; <sup>5</sup>and one-fourth of a hin of wine as a drink offering you shall prepare with the burnt offering or the sacrifice, for each <sup>i</sup>lamb. <sup>6</sup>Or for a ram you shall prepare as a grain offering two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with one-third of a hin of oil; <sup>7</sup>and as a drink offering you shall offer one-third of a hin of wine as a sweet aroma to the LORD. <sup>8</sup>And when you prepare a young bull as a burnt offering, or as a sacrifice to fulfill a vow, or as a <sup>j</sup>peace offering to the LORD, <sup>9</sup>then shall be offered <sup>m</sup>with the young bull a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil; <sup>10</sup>and you shall bring as the drink offering half a hin of wine as an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>“Thus it shall be done for each young bull, for each ram, or for each lamb or young goat. <sup>12</sup>According to the number that you prepare, so you shall do with everyone according to their number. <sup>13</sup>All who are native-born shall do these things in this manner, in presenting an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD. <sup>14</sup>And if a stranger dwells with you, or whoever is among you throughout your generations, and would present an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD, just as you do, so shall he do. <sup>15a</sup>One ordinance shall be for you of the assembly and for the stranger who dwells with you, an ordinance forever throughout your generations; as you are, so shall the stranger be before the LORD. <sup>16</sup>One law and one custom shall be for you and for the stranger who dwells with you.”* saying, <sup>18p</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When you come into the land to which I bring you, <sup>19</sup>then it will be, when you eat of <sup>q</sup>the bread of the land, that you shall offer up a heave offering to the LORD. <sup>20</sup>You shall offer up a cake of the first of your ground meal as <sup>a</sup>a heave offering; as a heave offering of the threshing floor, so shall you offer it up. <sup>21</sup>Of the first of your ground meal you shall give to the LORD a heave offering throughout your generations.

Laws Concerning Unintentional Sin

<sup>22</sup>“If you sin unintentionally, and do not observe all these commandments which the LORD has spoken to Moses—<sup>23</sup>all that the LORD has commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day the LORD gave commandment and onward throughout your generations—<sup>24</sup>then it will be, <sup>u</sup>if it is unintentionally committed, without the knowledge of the congregation, that the whole congregation shall offer one young bull as a burnt offering, as a sweet aroma to the LORD, <sup>v</sup>with its grain offering and its drink offering, according to the ordinance, and <sup>w</sup>one kid of the goats as a sin offering. <sup>25x</sup>So the priest shall make atonement for the whole congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them, for it was unintentional; they shall bring their offering, an offering made by fire to the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their unintended sin. <sup>26</sup>It shall be forgiven the whole congregation of the children of Israel and the stranger who dwells among them, because all the people did it unintentionally.

<sup>27</sup>“And <sup>y</sup>if a person sins unintentionally, then he shall bring a female goat in its first year as a sin offering. <sup>28z</sup>So the priest shall make atonement for the person who sins unintentionally, when he sins unintentionally before the LORD, to make atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him. <sup>29a</sup>You shall have one law for him who sins unintentionally, for him who is native-born among the children of Israel and for the stranger who dwells among them.

* 15:16 Compare Exodus 12:49

15:2 When you have come into the land. These words may seem inappropriate following God’s punishment for disobedience. But His overall purpose had not changed, and the children would enter the land the parents had rejected.

15:5 wine. The wine was poured out on the altar in an accompaniment to the burnt offering. It was another way of giving freely back to God that which the worshiper valued. Paul refers to himself as being poured out like a drink offering (2 Tim. 4:6). There is a sense of being finished, emptied of himself, and physically spent, as he does his final work. In the same way, the wine was emptied for God; it was used up. It was not waved, nor was a portion saved for the priests.

15:19–21 offer up a heave offering. By holding up the very first produce from a harvest, or the first cake made from the first grain of the season, the worshiper thanked God as the giver of all good gifts.

Law Concerning Presumptuous Sin

<sup>30b</sup>But the person who does anything presumptuously, whether he is native-born or a stranger, that one brings reproach on the LORD, and he shall be cut off from among his people. <sup>31</sup>Because he has <sup>c</sup>despised the word of the LORD, and has broken His commandment, that person shall be completely cut off; his guilt shall be upon him.”

Penalty for Violating the Sabbath

<sup>35</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>f</sup>“The man must surely be put to death; all the congregation shall <sup>g</sup>stone him with stones outside the camp.” <sup>36</sup>So, as the LORD commanded Moses, all the congregation brought him outside the camp and stoned him with stones, and he died.

Tassels on Garments

Rebellion Against Moses and Aaron

16 Now <sup>a</sup>Korah the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, with

<sup>8</sup>Then Moses said to Korah, “Hear now, you sons of Levi: <sup>9</sup>Is it <sup>k</sup>a small thing to you that the God of Israel has <sup>l</sup>separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to Himself, to do the work of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to serve them; <sup>10</sup>and that He has brought you near to Himself, you and all your brethren, the sons of Levi, with you? And are you seeking the priesthood also? <sup>11</sup>Therefore you and all your company are gathered together against the LORD. <sup>m</sup>And what is Aaron that you complain against him?”

<sup>12</sup>And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, but they said, “We will not come up! <sup>13</sup>Is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of <sup>n</sup>a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, that you should <sup>o</sup>keep acting like a prince over us? <sup>14</sup>Moreover <sup>p</sup>you have not brought us into <sup>q</sup>a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us inheritance of fields and vineyards. Will you

15:30–31 presumptuously. Moses spoke of unfaithfulness when he reminded the people of their presumption at Kadesh (Deut. 1:43). Their presumption was overstepping the limits of what God allowed, and doing it defiantly. If they had trusted God, they would have been happy to do things His way. Christians need to be on guard, lest they too be guilty of presumptuous sin. Consider the words of David, “Keep back Your servant also from presumptuous sins” (Ps. 19:13).

15:39 follow the harlotry. A harlot is a prostitute. Prostitution of the heart is unfaithfulness to God, in the same way that prostitution is unfaithfulness to the sanctity of marriage.

16:1 Korah. Korah was already set aside in a special position; he was a Levite. His sin was greater than jealousy of his cousins, the priests. He had set himself against God, and led others to do the same.

16:1–3 they rose up. Churches, organizations, marriages, and homes can all be affected by complaining, by rebelling against those whom God has appointed to lead. Great blessing and joy and guidance come from turning such feelings over to God and obeying Him and those whom He has designated.

put out the eyes of these men? We will not come up!"

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses was very angry, and said to the LORD, "Do not respect their offering. I have not taken one donkey from them, nor have I hurt one of them."

<sup>16</sup>And Moses said to Korah, "Tomorrow, you and all your company be present before the LORD—you and they, as well as Aaron. <sup>17</sup>Let each take his censer and put incense in it, and each of you bring his censer before the LORD, two hundred and fifty censers; both you and Aaron, each with his censer." <sup>18</sup>So every man took his censer, put fire in it, laid incense on it, and stood at the door of the tabernacle of meeting with Moses and Aaron. <sup>19</sup>And Korah gathered all the congregation against them at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. Then the glory of the LORD appeared to all the congregation.

<sup>22</sup>Then they fell on their faces, and said, "O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and You be angry with all the congregation?"

<sup>25</sup>Then Moses rose and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the elders of Israel followed him. <sup>26</sup>And he spoke to the congregation, saying, "Depart now from the tents of these wicked men! Touch nothing of theirs, lest you be consumed in all their sins." <sup>27</sup>So they got away from around the tents of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram; and Dathan and Abiram came out and stood at the door of their tents, with their wives, their sons, and their little children.

<sup>28</sup>And Moses said: "By this you shall know that the LORD has sent me to do all these works, for I have not done them of my own will. <sup>29</sup>If these men die naturally like all men, or if they are visited by the common fate of all men, then the LORD has not sent me. <sup>30</sup>But if the LORD creates a new thing, and the earth opens its mouth and swallows them up with all that belongs to them, and they go down alive into the pit, then you will understand that these men have rejected the LORD."

<sup>31</sup>Now it came to pass, as he finished speaking all these words, that the ground split apart under them, <sup>32</sup>and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, with their households and all the men with Korah, with all their goods. <sup>33</sup>So they and all those with them went down alive into the pit; the earth closed over them, and they perished from among the assembly. <sup>34</sup>Then all Israel who were around them fled at their cry, for they said, "Lest the earth swallow us up also!"

<sup>36</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>37</sup>"Tell Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, to pick up the censers out of the blaze, for they are holy, and scatter the fire some distance away. <sup>38</sup>The censers of these men who sinned against their own souls, let them be made into hammered plates as a covering for the altar. Because they presented them before the LORD, therefore they are holy; and they shall be a sign to the children of Israel." <sup>39</sup>So Eleazar the priest took the bronze censers, which those who were burned up had presented, and they were hammered out as a covering on the altar, <sup>40</sup>to be a memorial to the children of Israel that no outsider, who is not a descendant of Aaron, should come near to offer incense before the LORD, that he might not become like Korah and his companions, just as the LORD had said to him through Moses.

Complaints of the People

<sup>41</sup>On the next day all the congregation of the children of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron, saying, "You have killed the people of the LORD." <sup>42</sup>Now it happened, when the congregation had gathered against Moses and Aaron, that they

16:24 Get away. The Lord was giving the people a chance to show to whom they really had allegiance: God, or Korah and his followers.

16:32 all the men with Korah. The whole families of Dathan and Abiram were swallowed up, but some of Korah's descendants did not follow him, and were not destroyed. Some of them contributed a considerable number of psalms (see Ps. 42). God is always merciful, even when dealing with the flagrant troublemakers.

16:37 pick up the censers. Just as He spared the relatives of Korah who were not in rebellion, so, also, did He save the censers. They were holy because they had been dedicated to God, but they would not be used as incense burners again.

16:41 complained against Moses and Aaron. Incredibly, even after watching the dramatic destruction of the rebels, the congregation blamed the very leaders who had pleaded for the Lord to spare the rest of the congregation (v. 20). Obviously the people still strongly identified with Korah and his followers, and did not comprehend what they had just witnessed. Witnessing the destructiveness of sin does not always make people wake up and change their ways.

turned toward the tabernacle of meeting; and suddenly <sup>a</sup>the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared. <sup>43</sup>Then Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of meeting.

<sup>44</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>45</sup>“Get away from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment.”

And they fell on their faces.

<sup>46</sup>So Moses said to Aaron, “Take a censer and put fire in it from the altar, put incense on it, and take it quickly to the congregation and make atonement for them; <sup>a</sup>for wrath has gone out from the LORD. The plague has begun.” <sup>47</sup>Then Aaron took it as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the assembly; and already the plague had begun among the people. So he put in the incense and made atonement for the people. <sup>48</sup>And he stood between the dead and the living; <sup>c</sup>so the plague was stopped. <sup>49</sup>Now those who died in the plague were fourteen thousand seven hundred, besides those who died in the Korah incident. <sup>50</sup>So Aaron returned to Moses at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, for the plague had stopped.

The Budding of Aaron’s Rod

<sup>6</sup>So Moses spoke to the children of Israel, and each of their leaders gave him a rod apiece, for each leader according to their fathers’ houses, twelve rods; and the rod of Aaron was among their rods. <sup>7</sup>And Moses placed the rods before the LORD in <sup>e</sup>the tabernacle of witness.

<sup>10</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, “Bring <sup>g</sup>Aaron’s rod back before the Testimony, to be kept <sup>h</sup>as a sign against the rebels, <sup>i</sup>that you may put their complaints away from Me, lest they die.” <sup>11</sup>Thus did Moses; just as the LORD had commanded him, so he did.

<sup>12</sup>So the children of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, “Surely we die, we perish, we all perish! <sup>13</sup>Whoever even comes near the tabernacle of the LORD must die. Shall we all utterly die?”

Duties of Priests and Levites

18 Then the LORD said to Aaron: <sup>a</sup>“You and your sons and your father’s house with you shall <sup>b</sup>bear the iniquity related to the sanctuary, and you and your sons with you shall bear the iniquity associated with your priesthood. <sup>2</sup>Also bring with you your brethren of the <sup>c</sup>tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, that they may be <sup>d</sup>joined with you and serve you while you and your sons are with you before the tabernacle of witness. <sup>3</sup>They shall attend to your needs and <sup>e</sup>all the needs of the tabernacle; <sup>f</sup>but they shall not come near the articles of the sanctuary and the altar, <sup>g</sup>lest they die—they and you also. <sup>4</sup>They shall be joined with you and attend to the needs of the tabernacle of meeting, for all the work of the tabernacle; <sup>h</sup>but an outsider shall not come near you. <sup>5</sup>And you shall attend to the duties of the sanctuary and <sup>i</sup>the duties of the altar, <sup>j</sup>that there may be no more wrath on the children of Israel. <sup>6</sup>Behold, I Myself have <sup>k</sup>taken your brethren the Levites from among the children of Israel;

16:48 he stood between the dead and the living. Aaron stood between the living and the dead to stop the plague—just like the Savior, who stands in the gap between life and death.

17:12 we perish. The Israelites were overshadowed by despondency. Aware of God’s righteous judgments against their constant grumbling, they were gripped by fear. They knew they were guilty, they knew that God would punish them, and the warm light of peace had left their lives. When this happens, let us remember that there is still one way back into the sunshine. Repentance leads to the happy experience of the remission of sins and peace with God (Luke 24:47).

17:13 Shall we all utterly die? Finally the people realized that God had revealed His will through His miraculous actions among them. They suddenly saw their presumption and God’s opinion of it.

18:1 bear the iniquity related to the sanctuary . . . priesthood. The priests stood as intermediaries between God and man. If the people had no advocate before the Lord, they would die in their offenses. The priests had a formidable responsibility, for if they did not do their job, the whole community suffered.

Offerings for Support of the Priests

<sup>11</sup>“This also is yours: <sup>v</sup>the heave offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Israel; I have given them to you, and your sons and daughters with you, as an ordinance forever. <sup>w</sup>Everyone who is clean in your house may eat it.

shall be yours, just as the <sup>h</sup>wave breast and the right thigh are yours.

<sup>19</sup>“All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer to the LORD, I have given to you and your sons and daughters with you as an ordinance forever; <sup>i</sup>it is a covenant of salt forever before the LORD with you and your descendants with you.”

<sup>20</sup>Then the LORD said to Aaron: “You shall have <sup>j</sup>no inheritance in their land, nor shall you have any portion among them; <sup>k</sup>I am your portion and your inheritance among the children of Israel.

Tithes for Support of the Levites

The Tithe of the Levites

<sup>25</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>26a</sup>“Speak thus to the Levites, and say to them: ‘When you take from the children of Israel the tithes which I have given you from them as your inheritance, then you shall offer up a heave offering of it to the LORD, <sup>p</sup>a tenth of the tithe. <sup>27</sup>And your heave offering shall be reckoned to you as though it were the grain of the <sup>q</sup>threshing floor and as the fullness of the winepress. <sup>28</sup>Thus you shall also offer a heave offering to the LORD from all your tithes which you receive from the children of Israel, and you shall give the LORD’s heave offering from it to Aaron the priest. <sup>29</sup>Of all your gifts you shall offer up every heave offering due to the LORD, from all the best of them, the consecrated part of them.’ <sup>30</sup>Therefore you shall say to them: ‘When you have lifted

18:19 as an ordinance forever. The priests lived off the produce of the land as God provided for them through the gifts of His people. Instead of inheriting land, God was their inheritance. They would be well supplied as long as the people were faithful, and this would be a good incentive to the priests to be responsible.

up the best of it, then the rest shall be accounted to the Levites as the produce of the threshing floor and as the produce of the winepress. <sup>31</sup>You may eat it in any place, you and your households, for it is <sup>a</sup>your reward for your work in the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>32</sup>And you shall <sup>a</sup>bear no sin because of it, when you have lifted up the best of it. ### Laws of Purification

19 Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, <sup>2</sup>“This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD has commanded, saying: ‘Speak to the children of Israel, that they bring you a red heifer without blemish, in which there is no <sup>a</sup>defect <sup>b</sup>and on which a yoke has never come. <sup>3</sup>You shall give it to Eleazar the priest, that he may take it <sup>c</sup>outside the camp, and it shall be slaughtered before him; <sup>4</sup>and Eleazar the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger, and <sup>d</sup>sprinkle some of its blood seven times directly in front of the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>5</sup>Then the heifer shall be burned in his sight: <sup>e</sup>its hide, its flesh, its blood, and its offal shall be burned. <sup>6</sup>And the priest shall take <sup>f</sup>cedar wood and <sup>g</sup>hyssop and scarlet, and cast them into the midst of the fire burning the heifer. <sup>7</sup>Then the priest shall wash his clothes, he shall bathe in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp; the priest shall be unclean until evening. <sup>8</sup>And the one who burns it shall wash his clothes in water, bathe in water, and shall be unclean until evening. <sup>9</sup>Then a man who is clean shall gather up <sup>i</sup>the ashes of the heifer, and store them outside the camp in a clean place; and they shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel <sup>j</sup>for the water of purification;* it is for purifying from sin. <sup>10</sup>And the one who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until evening. It shall be a statute forever to the children of Israel and to the stranger who dwells among them.

<sup>11k</sup>“He who touches the dead body of anyone shall be unclean seven days. <sup>12</sup>He shall purify himself with the water on the third day and on the seventh day; then he will be clean. But if he does not purify himself on the third day and on the seventh day, he will not be clean. <sup>13</sup>Whoever touches the body of anyone who has died, and <sup>m</sup>does not purify himself, <sup>n</sup>defiles the tabernacle of the LORD. That person shall be cut off from Israel. He shall be unclean, because <sup>o</sup>the water of purification was not sprinkled on him; <sup>p</sup>this uncleanness is still on him.

<sup>20</sup>“But the man who is unclean and does not purify himself, that person shall be cut off from among the assembly, because he has <sup>v</sup>defiled the sanctuary of the LORD. The water of purification has not been sprinkled on him; he is unclean. <sup>21</sup>It shall be a perpetual statute for them. He who sprinkles the water of purification shall wash his clothes; and he who touches the

19:2 red heifer. The animal sacrificed for making the waters of purification was different than sacrifices for sins or thanksgivings. It was a female, not a male, its color was specified, it was killed outside the camp, and cedar and hyssop, used in purification ceremonies, were added to the burning heifer.

19:9 the water of purification. It is not that this water was “magic,” but it was prepared in obedience to God’s commands, and was an outward symbol of the inner work that God does to remove impurity. It is important to recognize that the rituals and celebrations were designed by God to create an awareness in His people of their spiritual needs, and ultimately to prepare them for Christ. All of the washings and sacrifices were still powerless to change hearts. That is a spiritual work done by God alone.

19:20 does not purify himself. The issues of uncleanness were so serious that the one who applied the waters of purification became unclean also. Refusing to accept the need for cleansing was not just the act of an uncouth person who didn’t care about germs. Every time someone dies, it is a reminder that death came into the world through sin (Rom. 5:12–14). The ritual for cleansing was a way of addressing the fact that it was sin that made this happen: the world is not the way God created it to be, and humans are in continual need of being reconciled to their Creator.

Moses' Error at Kadesh

20 Then<sup>a</sup> the children of Israel, the whole congregation, came into the Wilderness of Zin in the first month, and the people stayed in <sup>b</sup>Kadesh; and <sup>c</sup>Miriam died there and was buried there.

<sup>10</sup>And Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly together before the rock; and he said to them, <sup>n</sup>“Hear now, you rebels! Must we bring water for you out of this rock?” <sup>11</sup>Then Moses lifted his hand and struck the rock twice with his rod; <sup>o</sup>and water came out abundantly, and the congregation and their animals drank.

<sup>12</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, “Because <sup>p</sup>you did not believe Me, to <sup>q</sup>hallow Me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them.”

<sup>13r</sup>This was the water of Meribah,* because the children of Israel contended with the LORD, and He was hallowed among them.

Passage Through Edom Refused

<sup>18</sup>Then <sup>b</sup>Edom said to him, “You shall not pass through my land, lest I come out against you with the sword.”

<sup>19</sup>So the children of Israel said to him, “We will go by the Highway, and if I or my livestock drink any of your water, <sup>c</sup>then I will pay for it; let me only pass through on foot, nothing more.”

*20:13 Literally Contention

20:1 in the first month. No year is associated with this month; most likely it is the fortieth year, the end of the sojourn in the wilderness.

20:2 no water. Having no water was the subject of the first crisis that the Israelites had on their journey out of Egypt (Ex. 17). The same problem, forty years later, provokes the same ingratitude and anger from the people.

20:11 struck the rock twice. The first time God brought water from the rock, He asked Moses to strike it. This time He asked Moses to speak to it. In his anger at the Israelites’ attitude, Moses spoke roughly to the Israelites and struck the rock. Even Moses could mess things up by responding in anger.

20:11, 23–24 because you rebelled. Up to this point, Moses’ obedience had been impeccable. It may seem that his anger was so understandable that God was overly harsh in His discipline of Moses. But Moses was the only representative of God to the people. It was only with Moses that God had spoken face to face, and Moses had a grave responsibility to only communicate what God actually said. Moses’ attitude was displeasing to God, and his actions went beyond what God had directed. Anger and presumption are still two quick ways to break our fellowship with God. 20:13 Meribah. This is the same name that was given 40 years earlier to the location of the first water crisis (Ex. 17:7). The word means “contention.”

20:14 your brother Israel. The Edomites were descendants of Jacob’s brother Esau. Because of this relationship, Moses had a special basis of appeal, and for the same reason, the Israelites were not to fight the Edomites.

Canaanites Defeated at Hormah

21 The <sup>a</sup>king of Arad, the Canaanite, who dwell in the South, heard that Israel was coming on the road to Atharim. Then he fought against Israel and took some of them prisoners. <sup>2b</sup>So Israel made a vow to the LORD, and said, “If You will indeed deliver this people into my hand, then <sup>c</sup>I will utterly destroy their cities.” <sup>3</sup>And the LORD listened to the voice of Israel and delivered up the Canaanites, and they utterly destroyed them and their cities. So the name of that place was called Hormah.*

The Bronze Serpent

this worthless bread.” <sup>6</sup>So <sup>f</sup>the LORD sent <sup>g</sup>fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and many of the people of Israel died.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, “We have <sup>h</sup>sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD and against you; <sup>i</sup>pray to the LORD that He take away the serpents from us.” So Moses prayed for the people.

<sup>8</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>k</sup>“Make a <sup>l</sup>fiery serpent, and set it on a pole; and it shall be that everyone who is bitten, when he looks at it, shall live.” <sup>9</sup>So <sup>m</sup>Moses made a bronze serpent, and put it on a pole; and so it was, if a serpent had bitten anyone, when he looked at the bronze serpent, he lived.

From Mount Hor to Moab

“Waheb in Suphah,*

The brooks of the Arnon,

<sup>15</sup> And the slope of the brooks
That reaches to the dwelling of <sup>p</sup>Ar,
And lies on the border of Moab.”

<sup>16</sup>From there they went <sup>r</sup>to Beer, which is the well where the LORD said to Moses, “Gather the people together, and I will give them water.” <sup>17</sup>Then Israel sang this song:

All of you sing to it—

<sup>18</sup> The well the leaders sank,
Dug by the nation’s nobles,

And from the wilderness they went to Mattanah, <sup>19</sup>from Mattanah to Nahaliel, * 21:3 Literally Utter Destruction * 21:14 Ancient unknown places; Vulgate reads What He did in the Red Sea.

21:5 loathes this worthless bread. As the psalmist later observed, “How often they provoked Him in the wilderness, and grieved Him in the desert!” (Ps. 78:40). In their contempt of the food, the people were actually spurning God who had given them this food. It is a sharp reminder to believers to do all things without grumbling (Phil. 2:14) so the glory of the Lord will be evident to those who are watching.

21:8 fiery serpent . . . when he looks at it, shall live. Jesus pointed to this stunning image in His dialogue with Nicodemus (John 3:14–15). Jesus was nailed to the cross, and those who look at it—who realize, “the cross is the price for my sins”—will receive eternal life. Each Israelite who looked at the bronze snake knew that the snake bites were the penalty for his own sinful attitudes. In both cases, only God has the cure.

King Sihon Defeated

<sup>21</sup>Then <sup>v</sup>Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying, <sup>22w</sup>"Let me pass through your land. We will not turn aside into fields or vineyards; we will not drink water from wells. We will go by the King's Highway until we have passed through your territory." <sup>23x</sup>But Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his territory. So Sihon gathered all his people together and went out against Israel in the wilderness, <sup>y</sup>and he came to Jahaz and fought against Israel. <sup>24</sup>Then <sup>z</sup>Israel defeated him with the edge of the sword, and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, as far as the people of Ammon; for the border of the people of Ammon was fortified. <sup>25</sup>So Israel took all these cities, and Israel <sup>a</sup>dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon and in all its villages. <sup>26</sup>For Heshbon was the city of Sihon king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and had taken all his land from his hand as far as the Arnon. <sup>27</sup>Therefore those who speak in proverbs say:

"Come to Heshbon, let it be built;
Let the city of Sihon be repaired.

<sup>28</sup> "For <sup>b</sup>fire went out from Heshbon,
A flame from the city of Sihon;
It consumed <sup>c</sup>Ar of Moab,
The lords of the <sup>d</sup>heights of the Arnon.

You have perished, O people of <sup>f</sup>Chemosh!

He has given his <sup>g</sup>sons as fugitives,
And his <sup>h</sup>daughters into captivity,
To Sihon king of the Amorites.

<sup>30</sup> "But we have shot at him;
Heshbon has perished <sup>i</sup>as far as Dibon.
Then we laid waste as far as Nophah,

King Og Defeated

Balak Sends for Balaam

* 21:20 Hebrew Jeshimon * 22:5 That is, the Euphrates • Or the people of Amau

21:21 king of the Amorites. The Amorites were one of the peoples that God had commissioned Israel to destroy (Ex. 33:2; 34:11).

21:21–24 Saying No to God—A stubborn "no" to an innocent and reasonable request can produce a counter-reaction. It is not that it is wrong to ever say "no," but the key fault on the part of the Amorites was a hard-hearted refusal to consider a request that would cost them nothing to grant. With God's wisdom, we need to consider our words carefully, and "if it is possible, as much as depends on you, live peaceably with all men" (Rom. 12:18).

21:27–32 people of Chemosh. This song begins with a recital of the earlier victory of the Amorites over the people of Moab and their god Chemosh. After defeating Sihon and the Amorites, Israel became a formidable threat to Moab. The Amorites were pointing out that the Moabites' god did not help them. Now that the Amorites had been defeated, it was clear that the God of Israel was greater than the gods of both the Moabites and the Amorites.

22:5 Balaam. Balak hired Balaam to destroy Israel by spiritual means. He thought that Balaam could cause Israel's "gods" to stop protecting them.

22:6 he whom you curse is cursed. The reality is that Midian departed with the 'diviner's fee in their hand, and they came to Balaam and spoke to him the words of Balak. <sup>8</sup>And he said to them, <sup>9</sup>"Lodge here tonight, and I will bring back word to you, as the LORD speaks to me." So the princes of Moab stayed with Balaam.

<sup>9k</sup>Then God came to Balaam and said, "Who are these men with you?"

<sup>10</sup>So Balaam said to God, "Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent to me, saying, <sup>11</sup>'Look, a people has come out of Egypt, and they cover the face of the earth. Come now, curse them for me; perhaps I shall be able to overpower them and drive them out.'"

<sup>12</sup>And God said to Balaam, "You shall not go with them; you shall not curse the people, for <sup>13</sup>they are blessed."

<sup>13</sup>So Balaam rose in the morning and said to the princes of Balak, "Go back to your land, for the LORD has refused to give me permission to go with you."

<sup>14</sup>And the princes of Moab rose and went to Balak, and said, "Balaam refuses to come with us."

<sup>15</sup>Then Balak again sent princes, more numerous and more honorable than they. <sup>16</sup>And they came to Balaam and said to him, "Thus says Balak the son of Zippor: 'Please let nothing hinder you from coming to me; <sup>17</sup>for I will certainly <sup>18</sup>honor you greatly, and I will do whatever you say to me. <sup>19</sup>Therefore please come, curse this people for me.'"

<sup>18</sup>Then Balaam answered and said to the servants of Balak, <sup>19</sup>"Though Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, <sup>20</sup>I could not go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do less or more. <sup>21</sup>Now therefore, please, you also <sup>22</sup>stay here tonight, that I may know what more the LORD will say to me."

<sup>20</sup>And God came to Balaam at night and said to him, "If the men come to call you, rise and go with them; but <sup>21</sup>only the word which I speak to you—that you shall do."

<sup>21</sup>So Balaam rose in the morning, saddled his donkey, and went with the princes of Moab.

Balaam, the Donkey, and the Angel

<sup>22</sup>Then God's anger was aroused because he went, <sup>23</sup>and the Angel of the LORD took His stand in the way as an adversary against him. And he was riding on his donkey, and his two servants were with him.

<sup>28</sup>Then the LORD <sup>29</sup>opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?"

<sup>29</sup>And Balaam said to the donkey, "Because you have abused me. I wish there were a sword in my hand, <sup>30</sup>for now I would kill you!"

<sup>30</sup>So the donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not your donkey on which you have ridden, ever since I became yours, to this day? Was I ever disposed to do this to you?"

And he said, "No."

God's blessing on Israel could not be tampered with. It is important to remember that the Creator God is the source of all blessing and that no evil can stand against God's blessing and protection.

22:8 as the LORD speaks to me. Balaam speaks of the Lord as if he were intimate with Him. No doubt he had heard of the Lord, and no doubt the Lord did give him the words to say when Balaam looked at the Israelites. But Balaam did not give the Lord God any greater place in his own life than he gave to pagan gods, as is evidenced by his subsequent actions.

22:18 the LORD my God. This is not a confession of faith on Balaam's part, but a bold and false claim to be a medium of Israel's "god." Balaam was motivated by greed, not by a desire to please the Lord (2 Pet. 2:15; Jude 11).

22:22 God's anger was aroused because he went. God had given Balaam permission to go, after he asked the second time, and yet God was angry. This is a little puzzling, but if we remember that God is not whimsical, it makes sense. God had already told Balaam "no," and when Balak's leaders came to him again, Balaam came to God again, saying in essence, "but now there is a lot of money and power available, so let me run this by You again . . ." He was treating the Lord as if He were any little demon god, who is appealed to by money and divination rituals. Balaam did not comprehend that he was dealing with the real, powerful, awesome, and almighty God, until he encountered the angel with his drawn sword. God had a plan, and He was going to use Balaam to sabotage Balak's plans in a way that would definitely communicate to Balak exactly who the Israelites' God was, and what His plan was for His people. But Balaam needed to understand that it was the Lord who was in charge, not Balaam and his divination methods.

<sup>31</sup>Then the LORD <sup>y</sup>opened Balaam's eyes, and he saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the way with His drawn sword in His hand; and he bowed his head and fell flat on his face. <sup>32</sup>And the Angel of the LORD said to him, "Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Behold, I have come out to stand against you, because your way is <sup>z</sup>perverse before Me. <sup>33</sup>The donkey saw Me and turned aside from Me these three times. If she had not turned aside from Me, surely I would also have killed you by now, and let her live."

<sup>34</sup>And Balaam said to the Angel of the LORD, "I have sinned, for I did not know You stood in the way against me. Now therefore, if it displeases You, I will turn back."

<sup>35</sup>Then the Angel of the LORD said to Balaam, "Go with the men, <sup>b</sup>but only the word that I speak to you, that you shall speak." So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

<sup>36</sup>Now when Balak heard that Balaam was coming, <sup>c</sup>he went out to meet him at the city of Moab, <sup>d</sup>which is on the border at the Arnon, the boundary of the territory. <sup>37</sup>Then Balak said to Balaam, "Did I not earnestly send to you, calling for you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not able <sup>e</sup>to honor you?"

<sup>38</sup>And Balaam said to Balak, "Look, I have come to you! Now, have I any power at all to say anything? <sup>f</sup>The word that God puts in my mouth, that I must speak." <sup>39</sup>So Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kirjath Huzoth. <sup>40</sup>Then Balak offered oxen and sheep, and he sent some to Balaam and to the princes who were with him.

Balaam's First Prophecy

<sup>41</sup>So it was, the next day, that Balak took Balaam and brought him up to the <sup>g</sup>high places of Baal, that from there he might observe the extent of the people.

23 Then Balaam said to Balak, <sup>a</sup>"Build seven altars for me here, and prepare for me here seven bulls and seven rams."

<sup>2</sup>And Balak did just as Balaam had spoken, and Balak and Balaam <sup>b</sup>offered a bull and a ram on each altar. <sup>3</sup>Then Balaam said to Balak, <sup>c</sup>"Stand by your burnt offering, and I will go; perhaps the LORD will come <sup>d</sup>to meet me, and whatever He shows me I will tell you." So he went to a desolate height. <sup>4e</sup>And God met Balaam, and he said to Him, "I have prepared the seven altars, and I have offered on each altar a bull and a ram."

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD <sup>f</sup>put a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, "Return to Balak, and thus you shall speak." <sup>6</sup>So he returned to him, and there he was, standing by his burnt offering, he and all the princes of Moab.

"Balak the king of Moab has brought me from Aram,
From the mountains of the east.

<sup>h</sup>"Come, curse Jacob for me,
And come, <sup>i</sup>denounce Israel!"

<sup>8</sup> "How <sup>j</sup>shall I curse whom God has not cursed?

And how shall I denounce whom the LORD has not denounced?

<sup>9</sup> For from the top of the rocks I see him,
And from the hills I behold him;
There! <sup>k</sup>A people dwelling alone,
<sup>l</sup>Not reckoning itself among the nations.

Or number one-fourth of Israel?
Let me die <sup>n</sup>the death of the righteous,
And let my end be like his!"

<sup>11</sup>Then Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? <sup>o</sup>I took you to curse my enemies, and look, you have blessed them bountifully!"

<sup>12</sup>So he answered and said, <sup>p</sup>"Must I not take heed to speak what the LORD has put in my mouth?"

Balaam's Second Prophecy

<sup>13</sup>Then Balak said to him, "Please come with me to another place from which you may see them; you shall see only the outer part of them, and shall not see them all; curse them for me from there." <sup>14</sup>So he brought him to the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, <sup>q</sup>and built seven altars, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

<sup>15</sup>And he said to Balak, "Stand here by your burnt offering while I meet* the LORD over there."

* 23:10 Or dust cloud * 23:15 Following Masoretic Text, Targum, and Vulgate; Syriac reads call; Septuagint reads go and ask God.

23:5 the LORD put a word in Balaam's mouth. Even though Balaam was not a true servant of God, the words that Balaam spoke were truly God's blessing.

23:7–10 took up his oracle. The words that Balaam spoke, however unwillingly, certainly affirmed God's providence for the nation Israel. It is curious how the Lord used a mercenary and devious diviner to clearly speak the blessing on Israel, but that too was a part of God's providence. Balaam was claiming to speak for the Lord; the Lord would make sure that Balaam indeed spoke for Him.

a word in his mouth, and said, "Go back to Balak, and thus you shall speak." <sup>17</sup>So he came to him, and there he was, standing by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab were with him. And Balak said to him, "What has the LORD spoken?"

Listen to me, son of Zippor!

<sup>19</sup> "God<sup>t</sup> is not a man, that He should lie,
Nor a son of man, that He should repent.

Has He <sup>u</sup>said, and will He not do?
Or has He spoken, and will He not make it good?

<sup>20</sup> Behold, I have received a command to bless;

Nor has He seen wickedness in Israel.
The LORD his God is with him,

He has <sup>z</sup>strength like a wild ox.

<sup>23</sup> "For there is no sorcery against Jacob,
Nor any divination against Israel.
It now must be said of Jacob
And of Israel, 'Oh, <sup>a</sup>what God has done!'

<sup>24</sup> Look, a people rises <sup>b</sup>like a lioness,
And lifts itself up like a lion;

<sup>c</sup>It shall not lie down until it devours the prey,
And drinks the blood of the slain."

<sup>25</sup>Then Balak said to Balaam, "Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all!"

<sup>26</sup>So Balaam answered and said to Balak, "Did I not tell you, saying, <sup>d</sup>'All that the LORD speaks, that I must do'?"

Balaam's Third Prophecy

<sup>27</sup>Then Balak said to Balaam, "Please come, I will take you to another place; perhaps it will please God that you may curse them for me from there." <sup>28</sup>So Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, that <sup>e</sup>overlooks the wasteland.* <sup>29</sup>Then Balaam said to Balak, "Build for me here seven altars, and prepare for me here seven bulls and seven rams." <sup>30</sup>And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bull and a ram on every altar.

24 Now when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not go as at <sup>a</sup>other times, to seek to use sorcery, but he set his face toward the wilderness.

<sup>3d</sup>Then he took up his oracle and said:

"The utterance of Balaam the son of Beor,

The utterance of the man whose eyes are opened,

<sup>4</sup> The utterance of him who hears the words of God,
Who sees the vision of the Almighty,
Who <sup>e</sup>falls down, with eyes wide open:

Your dwellings, O Israel!

Like aloes <sup>g</sup>planted by the LORD,
Like cedars beside the waters.

<sup>7</sup> He shall pour water from his buckets,
And his seed shall be <sup>h</sup>in many waters.

"His king shall be higher than 'Agag,
And his <sup>i</sup>kingdom shall be exalted.

<sup>8</sup> "God<sup>k</sup> brings him out of Egypt;
He has strength like a wild ox;
He shall <sup>l</sup>'consume the nations, his enemies;

He shall <sup>m</sup>break their bones

And as a lion, who shall rouse him?'"*

<sup>p</sup>"Blessed is he who blesses you,
And cursed is he who curses you."

<sup>10</sup>Then Balak's anger was aroused against Balaam, and he <sup>q</sup>struck his hands together; and Balak said to Balaam, "<sup>r</sup>I called you to curse my enemies, and look, you have bountifully blessed them these three times! <sup>11</sup>Now therefore, flee to your place. <sup>s</sup>I said I would greatly honor you, but in fact, the LORD has kept you back from honor."

<sup>12</sup>So Balaam said to Balak, "Did I not also speak to your messengers whom you sent to me, saying, <sup>13</sup>'If Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the word of the LORD, to do good or bad of my own will. What the LORD says, that I must speak'?" <sup>14</sup>And now, indeed, I am going to my people. Come, <sup>t</sup>I will advise you what this people will do to your people in the <sup>u</sup>'latter days."

Balaam's Fourth Prophecy

- <sup>15</sup>So he took up his oracle and said:
 “The utterance of Balaam the son of Beor,
 And the utterance of the man whose eyes are opened;
<sup>16</sup> The utterance of him who hears the words of God,
 And has the knowledge of the Most High,
 Who sees the vision of the Almighty,
 Who falls down, with eyes wide open:
<sup>17</sup> “I see Him, but not now;
 I behold Him, but not near;
<sup>w</sup>A Star shall come out of Jacob;
<sup>x</sup>A Scepter shall rise out of Israel,
 And batter the brow of Moab,
 And destroy all the sons of tumult.*
<sup>18</sup> “And <sup>y</sup>Edom shall be a possession;
 Seir also, his enemies, shall be a possession,
 While Israel does valiantly.
<sup>19</sup> <sup>z</sup>Out of Jacob One shall have dominion,
 And destroy the remains of the city.”
<sup>20</sup>Then he looked on Amalek, and he took up his oracle and said:
 “Amalek was first among the nations,
 But shall be last until he perishes.”
<sup>21</sup>Then he looked on the Kenites, and he took up his oracle and said:
 “Firm is your dwelling place,
 And your nest is set in the rock;
<sup>22</sup> Nevertheless Kain shall be burned.
 How long until Asshur carries you away captive?”
<sup>23</sup>Then he took up his oracle and said:

“Alas! Who shall live when God does this?”

- <sup>24</sup> But ships shall come from the coasts of <sup>a</sup>Cyprus,*
 And they shall afflict Asshur and afflict <sup>b</sup>Eber,
 And so shall Amalek,* until he perishes.”

<sup>25</sup>So Balaam rose and departed and returned to his place; Balak also went his way.

Israel's Harlotry in Moab

24:17–19 I see him, but not now: . . . a Star shall come out of Jacob. This poetic language clearly refers to the Messiah. The pagan Balaam had a vision of the coming of the Hebrew Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ. He was visible from afar, He was like a star, radiant and beautiful. And He is the victor over His enemies, including Moab—the nation that hired Balaam to curse Israel.

24:19 dominion. At this point Balaam should have repented of his involvement with Balak. It was clear that the Lord God was in control, not Balaam, and that the Lord's curses were not for hire. This should be a great encouragement to believers in our day, because we can trust in a God who has promised to bless those who trust in Him. Our God will not change His mind and forget those who have put their faith in Him.

24:22 until Asshur carries you away captive. Assyria was Assyria. This nation did take the rebellious Northern Kingdom of Israel captive in 772 B.C.

25:1–3 commit harlotry. Right on the edge of the Promised Land the Israelites had shown unfaithfulness to God again. It was not just that they had illicit sex with women outside their nation. They had participated in the licentious worship of the Baal of Peor. Worshiping idols on the side is not just a little slip, like eating between meals. They had enough information to know how seriously offended God would be, and they just did not care. Such behavior is always likened to adultery, and this was something that God rebuked His people for repeatedly (Is. 1:21; Jer. 3:1; Ezek. 16; Hos. 2:5).

25:1 the women of Moab. What the men of Moab could not do, the women were able to accomplish. They trapped the Israelite men in sexual immorality and false worship. The principal instigator of this sorry affair was none other than Balaam (31:16). Perhaps the most sobering aspect is the fact that the Moabites were descendants of Lot, through his daughter's incestuous relationship with her father, after their long sojourn in Sodom (Gen. 19). Sexual perversion had a long history in this group.

25:4–5 fierce anger of the LORD. This was the most serious challenge to God's authority yet. The people had been seduced into joining the worship of Baal. And it was Baal worship that they had been sent to Canaan to eliminate.

<sup>7</sup>Now <sup>1a</sup>when Phinehas <sup>m</sup>the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose from among the congregation and took a javelin in his hand; <sup>8</sup>and he went after the man of Israel into the tent and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her body. So <sup>n</sup>the plague was <sup>o</sup>stopped among the children of Israel. <sup>9</sup>And <sup>p</sup>those who died in the plague were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>10</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>11a</sup>"Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned back My wrath from the children of Israel, because he was zealous with My zeal among them, so that I did not consume the children of Israel in <sup>1b</sup>My zeal. <sup>12</sup>Therefore say, <sup>s</sup>"Behold, I give to him <sup>1c</sup>My covenant of peace; <sup>13</sup>and it shall be to him and <sup>4b</sup>his descendants after him a covenant of <sup>an</sup>everlasting priesthood, because he was <sup>w</sup>zealous for his God, and <sup>x</sup>made atonement for the children of Israel."

<sup>14</sup>Now the name of the Israelite who was killed, who was killed with the Midianite woman, was Zimri the son of Salu, a leader of a father's house among the Simeonites. <sup>15</sup>And the name of the Midianite woman who was killed was Cozbi the daughter of <sup>y</sup>Zur; he was head of the people of a father's house in Midian.

The Second Census of Israel

The children of Reuben were: of Hanoch, the family of the Hanochites; of Pallu, the family of the Palluites; <sup>6</sup>of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Carmi, the family of the Carmites. <sup>7</sup>These are the families of the Reubenites: those who were numbered of them were forty-three thousand seven hundred and thirty. <sup>8</sup>And the son of Pallu was Eliab. <sup>9</sup>The sons of Eliab were Nemuel, Dathan, and Abiram. These are the Dathan and Abiram, <sup>9</sup>representatives of the congregation, who contended against Moses and Aaron in the company of Korah, when they contended against the LORD; <sup>10a</sup>and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up together with Korah when that company died, when the fire devoured two hundred and fifty men; <sup>10b</sup>and they became a sign. <sup>11</sup>Nevertheless <sup>1b</sup>the children of Korah did not die.

<sup>19k</sup>The sons of Judah were Er and Onan; and Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. <sup>20</sup>And <sup>1b</sup>the sons of Judah according to their families were: of Shelah, the family of the Shelanites; of Perez, the family of the Parzites; of Zerah, the family of the Zarhites. <sup>21</sup>And the sons of Perez were: of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Hamul, the family of the Hamulites.

Inheritance Laws

27 Then came the daughters of Zelophehad the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, from the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph; and these were the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. <sup>2</sup>And they stood before Moses, before Eleazar the priest, and before the leaders and all the congregation, by the doorway of the tabernacle of meeting, saying: <sup>3a</sup>"Our father died in the wilderness; but he was not in the company of those who gathered together against the LORD, in company with Korah, but he died in his own sin; and he had no sons. <sup>4</sup>Why should the name of our father be removed from among his family because he had no son? <sup>c</sup>Give us a possession among our father's brothers."

Joshua the Next Leader of Israel

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses spoke to the LORD, saying: <sup>16a</sup>"Let the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, set a man over the congregation, <sup>17a</sup>who may go out before them and go in before them, who may lead them out and bring them in, that the congregation of the LORD may not be like sheep which have no shepherd."

<sup>18</sup>And the LORD said to Moses: "Take Joshua the son of Nun with you, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand on him; <sup>19</sup>set him before Eleazar the priest

27:1–5 the daughters of Zelophehad. In ancient Israel, women did not inherit land. Yet because their case made sense, Moses took the issue to the Lord.

27:7 speak what is right. Justice was done to women regarding inheritance because Moses took the case to God, and His truth was used as the foundation for the decree. Only as we base our decisions in life on God's truth, as expressed in the Bible and in Jesus Himself, will we be acting in truth. Any other way can bring injustice and decisions regretted because they spring from error.

27:18 Holy Spirit—Joshua was "a man in whom is the Spirit." In the Old Testament, only a few people had the Holy Spirit. It was not until after Jesus' resurrection that the Holy Spirit indwelt every believer. The way that God speaks to the heart of man, apart from the written Word, has generally been through the quiet voice of the Holy Spirit. Joshua apparently was a man led by the voice of the Spirit of God. He is not pictured as seeing visions or being led by angels, yet his leadership was effective and faithful.

Daily Offerings

28 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Command the children of Israel, and say to them, 'My offering, <sup>a</sup>My food for My offerings made by fire as a sweet aroma to Me, you shall be careful to offer to Me at their appointed time.'

<sup>3</sup>"And you shall say to them, <sup>b</sup>"This is the offering made by fire which you shall offer to the LORD: two male lambs in their first year without blemish, day by day, as a regular burnt offering. <sup>4</sup>The one lamb you shall offer in the morning, the other lamb you shall offer in the evening, <sup>5</sup>and <sup>c</sup>one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a <sup>d</sup>grain offering mixed with one-fourth of a hin of pressed oil. <sup>6</sup>It is <sup>e</sup>a regular burnt offering which was ordained at Mount Sinai for a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD. <sup>7</sup>And its drink offering shall be one-fourth of a hin for each lamb; <sup>f</sup>in a holy place you shall pour out the drink to the LORD as an offering. <sup>8</sup>The other lamb you shall offer in the evening; as the morning grain offering and its drink offering, you shall offer it as an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.

Sabbath Offerings

<sup>9</sup>And on the Sabbath day two lambs in their first year, without blemish, and two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with oil, with its drink offering—<sup>10</sup>this is <sup>g</sup>the burnt offering for every Sabbath, besides the regular burnt offering with its drink offering.

Monthly Offerings

<sup>11</sup>At the beginnings of your months you shall present a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year, without blemish; <sup>12</sup>three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with oil, for each bull; two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with oil, for the one ram; <sup>13</sup>and one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour, mixed with oil, as a grain offering for each lamb, as a burnt offering of sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD. <sup>14</sup>Their drink offering shall be half a hin of wine for a bull, one-third of a hin for a ram, and one-fourth of a hin for a lamb; this is the burnt offering for each month throughout the months of the year. <sup>15</sup>Also <sup>h</sup>one kid of the goats as a sin offering to the LORD shall be offered, besides the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Offerings at Passover

<sup>16</sup>On the fourteenth day of the first month is the Passover of the LORD. <sup>17</sup>And on the fifteenth day of this month is the feast; unleavened bread shall be eaten for seven days. <sup>18</sup>On the <sup>i</sup>first day you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work. <sup>19</sup>And you shall present an offering made by fire as a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year. <sup>20</sup>Be sure they are without blemish. <sup>21</sup>Their grain offering shall be of fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths of an ephah you shall offer for a bull, and two-tenths for a ram; <sup>22</sup>you shall offer one-tenth of an ephah for each of the seven lambs; <sup>23</sup>also <sup>j</sup>one goat as a sin offering, to make atonement for you. <sup>24</sup>You shall offer these besides the burnt offering of the morning, which is for a regular burnt offering. <sup>25</sup>In this manner you shall offer the food of the offering made by fire daily for seven days, as a sweet aroma to the LORD; it shall be offered besides the regular burnt offering and its drink offering. <sup>26</sup>And <sup>k</sup>on the seventh day you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work.

Offerings at the Feast of Weeks

<sup>26</sup>Also <sup>l</sup>on the day of the firstfruits, when you bring a new grain offering to the LORD at your Feast of Weeks, you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work. <sup>27</sup>You shall present a burnt offering as a sweet aroma to the LORD: <sup>m</sup>two young bulls, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year, <sup>28</sup>with their grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths of an ephah for each bull,

Offerings at the Feast of Trumpets

29 <sup>1</sup>And in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work. For you <sup>2</sup>it is a day of blowing the trumpets. <sup>3</sup>You shall offer a burnt offering as a sweet aroma to the LORD: one young bull, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year, without blemish. <sup>4</sup>Their grain offering shall be fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths of an ephah for the bull, two-tenths for the ram, <sup>5</sup>and one-tenth for each of the seven lambs; <sup>6</sup>also one kid of the goats as a sin offering, to make atonement for you; <sup>7</sup>besides <sup>8</sup>the burnt offering with its grain offering for the New Moon, <sup>9</sup>the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings, <sup>10</sup>according to their ordinance, as a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

Offerings on the Day of Atonement

<sup>11</sup>On the tenth day of this seventh month you shall have a holy convocation. You shall afflict your souls; you shall not do any work. <sup>12</sup>You shall present a burnt offering to the LORD as a sweet aroma: one young bull, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year. <sup>13</sup>Be sure they are without blemish. <sup>14</sup>Their grain offering shall be of fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths of an ephah for the bull, two-tenths for the one ram, <sup>15</sup>and one-tenth for each of the seven lambs; <sup>16</sup>also one kid of the goats as a sin offering, besides <sup>17</sup>the sin offering for atonement, the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

Offerings at the Feast of Tabernacles

You shall do no customary work, and you shall keep a feast to the LORD seven days. <sup>19</sup>You shall present a burnt offering, an offering made by fire as a sweet aroma to the LORD: thirteen young bulls, two rams, and fourteen lambs in their first year. They shall be without blemish. <sup>20</sup>Their grain offering shall be of fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths of an ephah for each of the thirteen bulls, two-tenths for each of the two rams, <sup>21</sup>and one-tenth for each of the fourteen lambs; <sup>22</sup>also one kid of the goats as a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

29:1–40 holy convocation. This chapter regulates offerings to the Lord during the three sacred festivals of the seventh month: the Feast of Trumpets, the Day of Atonement, and the Feast of Tabernacles. The Feast of Trumpets marked the beginning of Israel's civil year. It was a day of preparation for the next two celebrations. The Day of Atonement was a solemn day on which sins were confessed and special sacrifices made for the holy place, the priests, and the people. The Feast of Tabernacles was a time of rejoicing.

29:1 a day of blowing the trumpets. The celebration of the Feast of Trumpets involved blowing ram's horns. Later this festival became identified with the New Year festival.

29:11 offering for atonement. The Day of Atonement, or Yom Kippur, was regarded as the most holy day of all. Leviticus 16 describes it as a day of fasting, rather than feasting.

29:12 feast to the Lord seven days. The celebration of the Feast of Tabernacles, or Succoth, included both sacrifices and eight days of "no work." In later years Israelites lived in tents or booths during this celebration, to commemorate the years that their ancestors lived in tents in the desert.

The Law Concerning Vows

30 Then Moses spoke to "the heads of the tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying, "This is the thing which the LORD has commanded: <sup>2b</sup>If a man makes a vow to the LORD, or *c*swears an oath to bind himself by some agreement, he shall not break his word; he shall *d*do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth.

<sup>3a</sup>Or if a woman makes a vow to the LORD, and binds herself by some agreement while in her father's house in her youth, <sup>4</sup>and her father hears her vow and the agreement by which she has bound herself, and her father holds his peace, then all her vows shall stand, and every agreement with which she has bound herself shall stand. <sup>5</sup>But if her father overrules her on the day that he hears, then none of her vows nor her agreements by which she has bound herself shall stand; and the LORD will release her, because her father overruled her.

<sup>9</sup>Also any vow of a widow or a divorced woman, by which she has bound herself, shall stand against her.

<sup>10</sup>If she vowed in her husband's house, or bound herself by an agreement with an oath, <sup>11</sup>and her husband heard it, and made no response to her and did not overrule her, then all her vows shall stand, and every agreement by which she bound herself shall stand. <sup>12</sup>But if her husband truly made them void on the day he heard them, then whatever proceeded from her lips concerning her vows or concerning the agreement binding her, it shall not stand; her husband has made them void, and the LORD will release her. <sup>13</sup>Every vow and every binding oath to afflict her soul, her husband may confirm it, or her husband may make it void. <sup>14</sup>Now if her husband makes no response whatever to her from day to day, then he confirms all her vows or all the agreements that bind her; he confirms them, because he made no response to her on the day that he heard them. <sup>15</sup>But if he does make them void after he has heard them, then he shall bear her guilt."

Vengeance on the Midianites

31 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2a</sup>"Take vengeance on the Midianites for the children of Israel. Afterward you shall *b*be gathered to your people."

30:2 If a man makes a vow. The key issue is clear: One who makes a vow shall not break his word. Vows that are made to the Lord must be carried out.

30:3 if a woman. In Israelite culture, an unmarried woman was under the protection of her father. If she made a vow, she might bring her father into an obligation that he did not want to fulfill, or could not fulfill. The same was true of a married woman (v. 6). Her vows would involve her husband, so the husband or father had to agree to the vow.

31:2 Midianites. The Midianites were descendants of Abraham and his wife Keturah, but were not part of the covenant that God had with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

<sup>3</sup>So Moses spoke to the people, saying, “Arm some of yourselves for war, and let them go against the Midianites to take vengeance for the LORD on <sup>c</sup>Midian. <sup>4</sup>A thousand from each tribe of all the tribes of Israel you shall send to the war.”

Return from the War

<sup>12</sup>Then they brought the captives, the booty, and the spoil to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the children of Israel, to the camp in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from Jericho. <sup>13</sup>And Moses, Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders of the congregation, went to meet them outside the camp. <sup>14</sup>But Moses was angry with the officers of the army, with the captains over thousands and captains over hundreds, who had come from the battle.

all the young girls who have not known a man intimately. <sup>19</sup>And as for you, <sup>q</sup>remain outside the camp seven days; whoever has killed any person, and <sup>r</sup>whoever has touched any slain, purify yourselves and your captives on the third day and on the seventh day. <sup>20</sup>Purify every garment, everything made of leather, everything woven of goats’ hair, and everything made of wood.”

<sup>21</sup>Then Eleazar the priest said to the men of war who had gone to the battle, “This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moses: <sup>22</sup>Only the gold, the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin, and the lead, <sup>23</sup>everything that can endure fire, you shall put through the fire, and it shall be clean; and it shall be purified <sup>s</sup>with the water of purification. But all that cannot endure fire you shall put through water. <sup>24</sup>And you shall wash your clothes on the seventh day and be clean, and afterward you may come into the camp.”

Division of the Plunder

<sup>32</sup>The booty remaining from the plunder, which the men of war had taken, was six hundred and seventy-five thousand sheep, <sup>33</sup>seventy-two thousand cattle, <sup>34</sup>sixty-one thousand donkeys, <sup>35</sup>and thirty-two thousand persons in all, of women who had not known a man intimately.

31:7–16 Unfaithfulness—Moses was ordered to campaign against the Midianites because of their wicked involvement in the seduction of Israel (25:17–18). He was angry with the officers of the army because they had not carried out the Lord’s directive concerning the women who had caused Israel to act unfaithfully toward the Lord. There was no excuse for the officers’ unfaithfulness. The plague that followed the seduction of Israel should have been enough to make them aware of the great responsibility they had to obey God’s directives.

31:27 divide the plunder. The division of the plunder, or booty, among those who had gone to war and those who had not, set a standard for future battles. The proportion that was regarded as the Lord’s also became a standard.

<sup>36</sup>And the half, the portion for those who had gone out to war, was in number three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep; <sup>37</sup>and the LORD's tribute of the sheep was six hundred and seventy-five. <sup>38</sup>The cattle were thirty-six thousand, of which the LORD's tribute was seventy-two. <sup>39</sup>The donkeys were thirty thousand five hundred, of which the LORD's tribute was sixty-one. <sup>40</sup>The persons were sixteen thousand, of which the LORD's tribute was thirty-two persons. <sup>41</sup>So Moses gave the tribute which was the LORD's heave offering to Eleazar the priest, as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>48</sup>Then the officers who were over thousands of the army, the captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, came near to Moses; <sup>49</sup>and they said to Moses, "Your servants have taken a count of the men of war who are under our command, and not a man of us is missing. <sup>50</sup>Therefore we have brought an offering for the LORD, what every man found of ornaments of gold: armlets and bracelets and signet rings and earrings and necklaces, <sup>51</sup>to make atonement for ourselves before the LORD." <sup>52</sup>So Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from them, all the fashioned ornaments. <sup>53</sup>And all the gold of the offering that they offered to the LORD, from the captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels. <sup>54</sup>(The men of war had taken spoil, every man for himself.) <sup>55</sup>And Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tabernacle of meeting as a memorial for the children of Israel before the LORD.

The Tribes Settling East of the Jordan

32 Now the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of livestock; and when they saw the land of <sup>a</sup>Jazer and the land of <sup>b</sup>Gilead, that indeed the region was a place for livestock, <sup>2</sup>the children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spoke to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the leaders of the congregation, saying, <sup>3</sup>"Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, <sup>c</sup>Nimrah, <sup>d</sup>Heshbon, Elealeh, <sup>e</sup>Shebam, Nebo, and <sup>f</sup>Beon, <sup>4</sup>the country <sup>g</sup>which the LORD defeated before the congregation of Israel, is a land for livestock, and your servants have livestock." <sup>5</sup>Therefore they said, "If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants as a possession. Do not take us over the Jordan."

<sup>6</sup>And Moses said to the children of Gad and to the children of Reuben: "Shall your brethren go to war while you sit here? <sup>7</sup>Now why will you <sup>h</sup>discourage the heart of the children of Israel from going over into the land which the LORD has given them? <sup>8</sup>Thus your fathers did <sup>i</sup>when I sent them away from Kadesh Barnea <sup>j</sup>to see the land. <sup>9</sup>For <sup>k</sup>when they went up to the Valley of Eshcol and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, so that they did not go into the land which the LORD had given them. <sup>10</sup>So the LORD's anger was aroused on that day, and He swore an oath, saying, <sup>11</sup>"Surely none of the men who came up from Egypt, <sup>m</sup>from twenty years old and above, shall see the land of which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, because <sup>n</sup>they have not wholly followed Me, <sup>12</sup>except Caleb the son of Jephunneh, the Kenizzite, and Joshua the son of Nun, <sup>o</sup>for they have wholly followed the LORD." <sup>13</sup>So the LORD's anger was aroused against Israel, and He made them <sup>p</sup>wander in the wilderness forty years, until <sup>q</sup>all the generation that had done evil in the sight of the LORD was gone. <sup>14</sup>And look! You have risen in your fathers' place, a brood of sinful men, to increase still more the <sup>r</sup>fierce anger of the LORD against Israel. <sup>15</sup>For if you <sup>s</sup>turn away from following Him, He will once again leave them in the wilderness, and you will destroy all these people."

<sup>16</sup>Then they came near to him and said: "We will build sheepfolds here for our

32:8–13 Thus your fathers did. To discourage obedience of God's orders and so prevent His people from entering upon the full enjoyment of the promises is a serious sin. Let us never forget that without an obedient faith, it is impossible to please God (Heb. 11:6).

livestock, and cities for our little ones, <sup>17</sup>but <sup>a</sup>we ourselves will be armed, ready to go before the children of Israel until we have brought them to their place; and our little ones will dwell in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land. <sup>18</sup><sup>a</sup>We will not return to our homes until every one of the children of Israel has received his inheritance. <sup>19</sup>For we will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan and beyond, <sup>b</sup>because our inheritance has fallen to us on this eastern side of the Jordan."

<sup>31</sup>Then the children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying: "As the LORD has said to your servants, so we will do. <sup>32</sup>We will cross over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, but the possession of our inheritance shall remain with us on this side of the Jordan."

Israel's Journey from Egypt Reviewed

near Migdol. <sup>8</sup>They departed from before Hahiroth* and 'passed through the midst of the sea into the wilderness, went three days' journey in the Wilderness of Etham, and camped at Marah. <sup>9</sup>They moved from Marah and <sup>k</sup>came to Elim. At Elim were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees; so they camped there.

and died there in the fortieth year after the children of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, on the first day of the fifth month. <sup>39</sup>Aaron was one hundred and twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor.

Instructions for the Conquest of Canaan

<sup>50</sup>Now the LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from Jericho, saying, <sup>51</sup>"Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: <sup>g</sup>"When you have crossed the Jordan into the land of Canaan, <sup>52</sup>then you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, destroy all their engraved stones, destroy all their molded images, and demolish all their high places; <sup>53</sup>you shall dispossess the inhabitants of the land and dwell in it, for I have given you the land to <sup>h</sup>possess. <sup>54</sup>And <sup>i</sup>you shall divide the land by lot as an inheritance among your families; to the larger you shall give a larger inheritance, and to the smaller you shall give a smaller inheritance; there everyone's inheritance shall be whatever falls to him by lot. You shall inherit according to the tribes of your

33:53 for I have given you the land to possess. It was God's land, and He had transferred it from the Canaanites to the Israelites. Though the land was promised to the nation as a gift, it did not come into the possession of the people without their involvement. Israel had to drive out the inhabitants, destroy their high places, their figures, stones, and molten images. Still, the land was God's gracious gift to His people. In spite of all of our striving, we have only what we receive from the hand of the Lord.

The Appointed Boundaries of Canaan

to the half-tribe. <sup>14q</sup>For the tribe of the children of Reuben according to the house of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of Gad according to the house of their fathers, have received their inheritance; and the half-tribe of Manasseh has received its inheritance. <sup>15</sup>The two tribes and the half-tribe have received their inheritance on this side of the Jordan, across from Jericho eastward, toward the sunrise.”

The Leaders Appointed to Divide the Land

<sup>29</sup>These are the ones the LORD commanded to divide the inheritance among the children of Israel in the land of Canaan.

Cities for the Levites

35 And the LORD spoke to Moses in <sup>a</sup>the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho, saying: <sup>2b</sup>“Command the children of Israel that they give the Levites cities to dwell in from the inheritance of their possession, and you shall also give the Levites <sup>c</sup>common-land around the cities. <sup>3</sup>They shall have the cities to dwell in; and their common-land shall be for their cattle,

The city shall be in the middle. This shall belong to them as common-land for the cities.

<sup>6</sup>Now among the cities which you will give to the Levites you shall appoint <sup>6a</sup>six cities of refuge, to which a manslayer may flee. And to these you shall add forty-two cities. <sup>7</sup>So all the cities you will give to the Levites shall be <sup>7a</sup>forty-eight; these you shall give with their common-land. <sup>8</sup>And the cities which you will give shall be <sup>8a</sup>from the possession of the children of Israel; <sup>8b</sup>from the larger tribe you shall give many, from the smaller you shall give few. Each shall give some of its cities to the Levites, in proportion to the inheritance that each receives."

Cities of Refuge

<sup>16a</sup>But if he strikes him with an iron implement, so that he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death. <sup>17</sup>And if he strikes him with a stone in the hand, by which one could die, and he does die, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death. <sup>18</sup>Or if he strikes him with a wooden hand weapon, by which one could die, and he does die, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death.

35:29–34 statute of judgment. The practice of blood vengeance was common in the ancient Near East. Divine law was formulated to control and limit blood vengeance in Israel (vv. 9–34). God's Word differed significantly from the surrounding cultures. The difference of practice was due to Israel's unique view of man created in God's image. These directives regarding blood vengeance are referred to here as a "statute of judgment," coming from a word meaning "to engrave." The Word of God was written, given to govern and direct their conduct "in all their dwellings." We can be truly grateful that the revelation of God comes to us in a permanently accessible form.

35:30–34 Whoever kills a person. The people were not to confuse accidental manslaughter with premeditated murder.

Marriage of Female Heirs

of Israel according to the word of the LORD, saying: <sup>g</sup>“What the tribe of the sons of Joseph speaks is right. <sup>6</sup>This is what the LORD commands concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, ‘Let them marry whom they think best, <sup>h</sup>but they may marry only within the family of their father’s tribe.’ <sup>7</sup>So the inheritance of the children of Israel shall not change hands from tribe to tribe, for every one of the children of Israel shall <sup>i</sup>keep the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers. <sup>8</sup>And <sup>j</sup>every daughter who possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel shall be the wife of one of the family of her father’s tribe, so that the children of Israel each may possess the inheritance of his fathers. <sup>9</sup>Thus no inheritance shall change hands from one tribe to another, but every tribe of the children of Israel shall keep its own inheritance.”

36:5–13 only within the family of their father’s tribe. This beautiful example of concern for fair treatment of Zelophehad’s daughters, consideration for the well-being of the tribe, and obedience to Moses’ decision is a happy ending to this book that is so full of hard-heartedness and disobedience.

THE FIFTH BOOK OF MOSES CALLED DEUTERONOMY

AUTHOR: Numerous external and internal evidences support the authorship of Moses. The Old Testament attributes Deuteronomy to Moses (Josh. 1:7; Judg. 3:4; 1 Kin. 2:3; 2 Kin. 14:6; Ezra 3:2; Neh. 1:7; Ps. 103:7; Dan. 9:11; Mal. 4:4), and there is evidence from Joshua and 1 Samuel to indicate that these laws existed in the form of codified written statutes that influenced the Israelites in Canaan. Christ quoted Deuteronomy when He was being tempted (Matt. 4:4,7,10) and attributed it to Moses (Matt. 19:7–9; Mark 7:10; Luke 20:28; John 5:45–47) as do the more than eighty citations of Deuteronomy in the New Testament. Internally, the book includes about forty claims to Moses as the author (1:1–5; 4:44–46; 29:1; 31:9,24–26). The political and geographic details of Deuteronomy indicate a firsthand knowledge of the events.

KEY VERSES: Deut. 30:19–20

THEME: Deuteronomy is a series of addresses that Moses gives to the nation of Israel just before it enters the Promised Land. In many ways it can be seen as the coach's speech given to a team just before it takes the field. The book reviews and reiterates what has been taught in the previous books of Moses in the same way that a coach's last instructions contain a review of the basic game plan and what has been covered in practice. The purpose of that speech is to focus on what to do and then create the motivation to carry it out. For the Israelites much of the previous instruction was somewhat hypothetical. Many of the laws assumed the occupation of the land. Now, as they stand looking over the Jordan River, they're within reach of moving from the hypothetical to the real and practical. God has renewed His marvelous covenant with them. Now is the time to live up to its requirements.

Israel's Refusal to Enter the Land

<sup>19</sup>"So we departed from Horeb, <sup>t</sup>and went through all that great and terrible wilderness which you saw on the way to the mountains of the Amorites, as the LORD our God had commanded us. Then <sup>u</sup>we came to Kadesh Barnea. <sup>20</sup>And I said to you, 'You have come to the mountains of the Amorites, which the LORD our God is giving us. <sup>21</sup>Look, the LORD your God has set the land before you; go up and possess it, as the LORD God of your fathers has spoken to you; <sup>v</sup>do not fear or be discouraged.'

<sup>22</sup>"And every one of you came near to me and said, 'Let us send men before us, and let them search out the land for us, and bring back word to us of the way by which we should go up, and of the cities into which we shall come.'

tribe. <sup>24x</sup>And they departed and went up into the mountains, and came to the Valley of Eshcol, and spied it out. <sup>25</sup>They also took some of the fruit of the land in their hands and brought it down to us; and they brought back word to us, saying, 'It is a <sup>y</sup>good land which the LORD our God is giving us.'

<sup>26z</sup>"Nevertheless you would not go up, but rebelled against the command of the LORD your God; <sup>27</sup>and you <sup>a</sup>complained in your tents, and said, 'Because the LORD <sup>b</sup>hates us, He has brought us out of the land of Egypt to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us. <sup>28</sup>Where can we go up? Our brethren have discouraged our hearts, saying, "The people are greater and taller than we; the cities are great and fortified up to heaven; moreover we have seen the sons of the <sup>d</sup>Anakim there."

<sup>29</sup>"Then I said to you, 'Do not be terrified, <sup>e</sup>or afraid of them. <sup>30</sup>The LORD your God, who goes before you, He will fight for you, according to all He did for you in Egypt before your eyes, <sup>31</sup>and in the wilderness where you saw how the LORD your God carried you, as a <sup>f</sup>man carries his son, in all the way that you went until you came to this place.' <sup>32</sup>Yet, for all that, <sup>h</sup>you did not believe the LORD your God, <sup>33i</sup>who went in the way before you <sup>i</sup>to search out a place for you to pitch your tents, to show you the way you should go, in the fire by night and in the cloud by day.

The Penalty for Israel's Rebellion

<sup>34</sup>"And the LORD heard the sound of your words, and was angry, <sup>k</sup>and took an oath, saying, <sup>35i</sup>'Surely not one of these men of this evil generation shall see that good land of which I swore to give to your fathers, <sup>36m</sup>except Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him and his children I am giving the land on which he walked, because <sup>n</sup>he wholly followed the LORD.' <sup>37o</sup>The LORD was also angry with me for your sakes, saying, 'Even you shall not go in there. <sup>38p</sup>Joshua the son of Nun, <sup>q</sup>who stands before you, he shall go in there. <sup>r</sup>Encourage him, for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.

1:13 wise, understanding. The qualities of the leaders reflect the attributes of God. Wisdom is the ability to judge fairly and understand and make wise use of facts. Discernment or understanding is the ability to find the hidden or obscure aspects of a situation.

1:20 Amorites. The Amorites were one of the groups Israel encountered in their approach to the Promised Land. This term is often a general designation for the Canaanites.

1:26–28 you complained. An attitude of complaining and criticism toward the circumstances in our lives keeps us from seeing God's hand in the situation. Our situation may indeed be difficult, but God has promised that He will never leave us nor forsake us. Paul said that he had learned how to be content in every circumstance. He made it a habit to give thanks in all things, and knew how to be contented with little, and how to be contented with much. He knew that he could do anything through Christ, who gives us strength (Phil. 4:13).

1:28 the Anakim. The Anakim were an ancient people known for their great size (Num. 13:28).

<sup>41</sup>Then you answered and said to me, <sup>w</sup>We have sinned against the LORD; we will go up and fight, just as the LORD our God commanded us.' And when everyone of you had girded on his weapons of war, you were ready to go up into the mountain.

<sup>42</sup>And the LORD said to me, 'Tell them, <sup>x</sup>Do not go up nor fight, for I am not among you; lest you be defeated before your enemies.'" <sup>43</sup>So I spoke to you; yet you would not listen, but <sup>y</sup>rebelled against the command of the LORD, and <sup>z</sup>presumptuously went up into the mountain. <sup>44</sup>And the Amorites who dwell in that mountain came out against you and chased you <sup>a</sup>as bees do, and drove you back from Seir to Hormah. <sup>45</sup>Then you returned and wept before the LORD, but the LORD would not listen to your voice nor give ear to you.

<sup>46b</sup>So you remained in Kadesh many days, according to the days that you spent there.

The Desert Years

2 <sup>a</sup>Then we turned and journeyed into the wilderness of the Way of the Red Sea, <sup>b</sup>as the LORD spoke to me, and we skirted Mount Seir for many days.

them with money, that you may eat; and you shall also buy water from them with money, that you may drink.

<sup>7</sup>For the LORD your God has blessed you in all the work of your hand. He knows your trudging through this great wilderness. <sup>8</sup>These forty years the LORD your God has been with you; you have lacked nothing."

<sup>8</sup>And when we passed beyond our brethren, the descendants of Esau who dwell in Seir, away from the road of the plain, away from <sup>h</sup>Elath and Ezion Geber, we <sup>i</sup>turned and passed by way of the Wilderness of Moab. <sup>9</sup>Then the LORD said to me, 'Do not harass Moab, nor contend with them in battle, for I will not give you <sup>j</sup>any of their land as a possession, because I have given <sup>k</sup>Ar to <sup>k</sup>the descendants of Lot as a possession."

<sup>16</sup>So it was, when all the men of war had finally perished from among the people, <sup>17</sup>that the LORD spoke to me, saying: <sup>18</sup>This day you are to cross over at Ar, the

1:39 your children, who you say will be victims. The most outrageous of Israel's complaints against God was that He had wanted their children to die (Num. 14:31). But the Lord demonstrated His love and faithfulness to His people by protecting those younger than 20 so that they could inherit the land.

1:44 Hormah. This name means "destruction," and probably refers to a site south of the Amorite hill country by Kadesh Barnea that was later called by that name.

2:7 God has blessed. The Israelites could not have survived forty years in the wilderness without the miraculous provision of God. That care has been an inspiration and encouragement to God's people throughout history. Those who receive God's bounty with a thankful heart find that it is enough, no matter how difficult the circumstances, and those who complain never recognize His blessing at all.

2:8 we turned and passed by way. The Israelites turned away from the way of the Red Sea, on which these cities were located and turned to the wilderness of Moab, which was the area east of Moab (Num. 33:44). 2:9 Ar. Ar is a synonym for the region of Moab. The Moabites were related to the Israelites through Lot (Gen. 19:37).

2:13 Zered. The brook of Zered was east of the Dead Sea at the border between Edom and Moab.

2:15 hand. The term "hand" suggests God's personal involvement both in acts of deliverance (Ex. 15:6) and in chastisement.

<sup>20</sup>(That was also regarded as a land of giants;* giants formerly dwelt there. But the Ammonites call them ‘Zamzummim, <sup>21</sup>“a people as great and numerous and tall as the Anakim. But the LORD destroyed them before them, and they dispossessed them and dwelt in their place, <sup>22</sup>just as He had done for the descendants of Esau, <sup>23</sup>who dwelt in Seir, when He destroyed <sup>24</sup>the Horites from before them. They dispossessed them and dwelt in their place, even to this day. <sup>25</sup>And <sup>26</sup>the Avim, who dwelt in villages as far as Gaza—<sup>27</sup>the Caphtorim, who came from Caphtor, destroyed them and dwelt in their place.)

King Sihon Defeated

for me, until I cross the Jordan to the land which the LORD our God is giving us.”

<sup>31</sup>“And the LORD said to me, ‘See, I have begun to <sup>32</sup>give Sihon and his land over to you. Begin to possess it, that you may inherit his land.’ <sup>33</sup>Then Sihon and all his people came out against us to fight at Jahaz. <sup>34</sup>And <sup>35</sup>the LORD our God delivered him over to us; so <sup>36</sup>we defeated him, his sons, and all his people. <sup>37</sup>We took all his cities at that time, and we <sup>38</sup>utterly destroyed the men, women, and little ones of every city; we left none remaining. <sup>39</sup>We took only the livestock as plunder for ourselves, with the spoil of the cities which we took. <sup>40</sup>From Aroer, which is on the bank of the River Arnon, and from <sup>41</sup>the city that is in the ravine, as far as Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us; <sup>42</sup>the LORD our God delivered all to us. <sup>43</sup>Only you did not go near the land of the people of Ammon—anywhere along the River <sup>44</sup>Jabbok, or to the cities of the mountains, or <sup>45</sup>wherever the LORD our God had forbidden us.

King Og Defeated

3 “Then we turned and went up the road to Bashan; and <sup>2</sup>Og king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle <sup>3</sup>at Edrei. <sup>4</sup>And the LORD said to me, ‘Do not fear him, for I have delivered him and all his people and his land into your hand; you shall do to him as you did to <sup>5</sup>Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon.’

<sup>6</sup>“So the LORD our God also delivered into our hands Og king of Bashan, with all his people, and we attacked him until he

2:23 Avim . . . Gaza . . . Caphtorim . . . Caphtor. The Avim lived in villages between the Jordan and the Mediterranean coast. Gaza was a Philistine city on the Mediterranean coast. The Caphtorim were a group of tribes that came by sea to the coasts of Canaan and Egypt. Caphtor is possibly the same as Crete (Gen. 10:14).

2:24 River Arnon. The river Arnon was the traditional border between Moab and Ammon.

2:26 Wilderness of Kedemoth. This desert within the territory of Sihon was located on its eastern border, east of the Dead Sea.

2:32 Jahaz. Jahaz was located north of Kedemoth (Is. 15:4).

2:34–35 utterly destroyed. By the law of the ban, every living thing, human and animal, was to be put to death. Sometimes, as in this case, the Lord permitted the Israelites to take livestock and property as spoil, and sometimes the Lord permitted the women and children to be spared. Canaanite idolatry had reached such abominable levels that the Lord was not willing to put up with it any longer. He intended to put an end to it, and also to prevent the Israelites from being corrupted by the Canaanites.

2:36–37 Aroer . . . Gilead . . . Jabbok. Aroer was a city on the northern bank of the river Arnon at the border between Sihon and Moab. Gilead was the northern boundary of Sihon. Jabbok was the river Jacob crossed on his way back to Canaan (Gen. 32:22). 3:1 Bashan . . . Og. Bashan was the region east of the Sea of Galilee. The territory of Og may have extended south of the river Yarmuk into Gilead.

had no survivors remaining. <sup>4</sup>And we took all his cities at that time; there was not a city which we did not take from them: sixty cities, <sup>4a</sup>all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan. <sup>5</sup>All these cities were fortified with high walls, gates, and bars, besides a great many rural towns. <sup>6</sup>And we utterly destroyed them, as we did to Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children of every city. <sup>7</sup>But all the livestock and the spoil of the cities we took as booty for ourselves.

<sup>11a</sup>For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of the giants.* Indeed his bedstead was an iron bedstead. (Is it not in Rabbah of the people of Ammon?) Nine cubits is its length and four cubits its width, according to the standard cubit.

The Land East of the Jordan Divided

<sup>12</sup>And this land, which we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which is by the River Arnon, and half the mountains of Gilead and Pitis cities, I gave to the Reubenites and the Gadites. <sup>13a</sup>The rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to half the tribe of Manasseh. (All the region of Argob, with all Bashan, was called the land of the giants.* <sup>14a</sup>Jair the son of Manasseh took all the region of Argob, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and <sup>1a</sup>called Bashan after his own name, Havoth Jair,* to this day.)

<sup>15</sup>Also I gave Gilead to Machir. <sup>16</sup>And to the Reubenites and the Gadites I gave from Gilead as far as the River Arnon, the middle of the river as the border, as far as the River Jabbok, <sup>17a</sup>the border of the people of Ammon; <sup>17b</sup>the plain also, with the Jordan as the border, from Chinnereth as far as the east side of the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea), below the slopes of Pisgah.

<sup>18</sup>Then I commanded you at that time, saying: 'The LORD your God has given you this land to possess. <sup>2a</sup>All you men of valor shall cross over armed before your brethren, the children of Israel. <sup>19</sup>But your wives, your little ones, and your livestock (I know that you have much livestock) shall stay in your cities which I have given you. <sup>20</sup>until the LORD has given rest to your brethren as to you, and they also possess the land which the LORD your God is giving them beyond the Jordan. Then each of you may return to his possession which I have given you.'

<sup>21</sup>And I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, 'Your eyes have seen all that the LORD your God has done to these two kings; so will the LORD do to all the kingdoms through which you pass. <sup>22</sup>You must not fear them, for the LORD your God Himself fights for you.'

Moses Forbidden to Enter the Land

3:8 Mount Hermon. Mount Hermon is in the mountain range in the north between Canaan and Lebanon.

3:9–11 Sidonians. The Sidonians were Phoenicians, a well-known ancient seafaring people.

3:10 Salcah. Salcah was a city located at the eastern border of Bashan.

3:11 bedstead. "Bedstead" could also be translated sarcophagus, that is, stone coffin. Rabbah. Rabbah was on the site of Amman, the capital of modern Jordan. cubit. The ordinary cubit is about eighteen inches. Nine cubits is about thirteen feet, and four cubits is about six feet.

3:14 Geshurites . . . Maachathites. The Geshurites lived east of the Sea of Galilee and south of Mount Hermon. The Maachathites were descended from Abraham's brother Nahor.

3:17 Chinnereth. Chinnereth is another name for the Sea of Galilee.

3:23–25 pleaded with the LORD. Moses was a man of prayer and a man of God. He had repeatedly interceded with God for the rebellious Israelites, and God had answered those prayers. Yet this request of Moses to enter the Promised Land was answered with a decided "no," and with the command not to mention the matter again. We usually don't know why God says "no" to things that seem not only reasonable, but right and good to us. It is hard to give thanks for the answer we did not want, but we must learn that "no" can also be the hand of our loving Heavenly Father. Most of the time we won't see, this side of heaven, how grateful we ought to be for the "no" of God.

3:24 O Lord God. The Hebrew word for "Lord," or "Master," is followed by the personal name of God (Yahweh, here translated "God"). The respect and humbleness in calling God "Master," the long companionship revealed in calling God by the covenant name, and the pleading, just to see the Promised Land, poignantly speak of Moses' longing.

Moses Commands Obedience

4 “Now, O Israel, listen to <sup>a</sup>the statutes and the judgments which I teach you to observe, that you may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers is giving you. <sup>2b</sup>You shall not add to the word which I command you, nor take from it, that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you. <sup>3</sup>Your eyes have seen what the LORD did at <sup>c</sup>Baal Peor; for the LORD your God has destroyed from among you all the men who followed Baal of Peor. <sup>4</sup>But you who held fast to the LORD your God are alive today, every one of you.

<sup>5</sup>“Surely I have taught you statutes and judgments, just as the LORD my God commanded me, that you should act according to them in the land which you go to possess. <sup>6</sup>Therefore be careful to observe them; for this is <sup>d</sup>your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples who will hear all these statutes, and say,

‘Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.’

<sup>7</sup>“For <sup>e</sup>what great nation is there that has <sup>f</sup>God so near to it, as the LORD our God is to us, for whatever reason we may call upon Him? <sup>8</sup>And what great nation is there that has such statutes and righteous judgments as are in all this law which I set before you this day? <sup>9</sup>Only take heed to yourself, and diligently <sup>g</sup>keep yourself, lest you <sup>h</sup>forget the things your eyes have seen, and lest they depart from your heart all the days of your life. And <sup>i</sup>teach them to your children and your grandchildren, <sup>10</sup>especially concerning <sup>j</sup>the day you stood before the LORD your God in Horeb, when the LORD said to me, ‘Gather the people to Me, and I will let them hear My words, that they may learn to fear Me all the days they live on the earth, and that they may teach their children.’

<sup>11</sup>“Then you came near and stood at the foot of the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire to the midst of heaven, with darkness, cloud, and thick darkness. <sup>12</sup><sup>k</sup>And the LORD spoke to you out of the midst of the fire. You heard the sound of the words, but saw no form; <sup>l</sup>you only heard a voice. <sup>13</sup><sup>m</sup>So He declared to you His covenant which He commanded you to perform, <sup>n</sup>the Ten Commandments; and <sup>o</sup>He wrote them on two tablets of stone. <sup>14</sup>And <sup>p</sup>the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that you might observe them in the land which you cross over to possess.

Beware of Idolatry

3:29 Beth Peor. This was a pagan site dedicated to Baal of Peor (Num. 25:3–5) and was the scene of Israel’s first disastrous encounter with the sexually centered worship of Baal (4:3).

4:1 listen. The exhortation to listen includes an encouragement to obey (4:9; 5:1; 6:3–4).

4:6 in the sight of the peoples. By living in obedience to God, Israel would become a countercultural force, showing the way of God in both society and government.

4:9 your children. One of the purposes of the family is to pass on from generation to generation the acts of God among men. In times where the written record did not exist, or where people could not read, the wonderful acts of God were repeated in stories and conversations. With the Bible readily available, we don’t have to rely on our memories alone to recall the things that God has done, but we are still responsible to make these things known to our children. It is also important to tell our children about the times that the Lord has answered our prayers, convicted our conscience, and blessed us with His peace. The best role model a child can have is a parent whose heart is centered on the Lord.

4:12 heard . . . but saw no form. The Lord revealed His glory to the Israelites, but they saw no visual image other than darkness and fire. They did hear God’s voice, however (v. 15). This verse reminds us that God is Spirit (John 4:24).

4:15–19 you saw no form. There was no way of describing or giving shape with any image to the experience of God’s presence at Sinai (Ex. 20:18). Since Israel had not seen the form of God, they could not represent Him in any way. Although people were created in the likeness of God (Gen. 1:26–27), no image created in human likeness could represent God, nor could any animal or the majestic heavenly

<sup>25</sup>“When you beget children and grandchildren and have grown old in the land, and act corruptly and make a carved image in the form of anything, and <sup>i</sup>do evil in the sight of the LORD your God to provoke Him to anger, <sup>j</sup>I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that you will soon utterly perish from the land which you cross over the Jordan to possess; you will not prolong your days in it, but will be utterly destroyed. <sup>27</sup>And the LORD <sup>k</sup>will scatter you among the peoples, and you will be left few in number among the nations where the LORD will drive you. <sup>28</sup>And <sup>l</sup>there you will serve gods, the work of men’s hands, wood and stone, <sup>m</sup>which neither see nor hear nor eat nor smell. <sup>29</sup>But from there you will seek the LORD your

God, and you will find Him if you seek Him with all your heart and with all your soul. <sup>30</sup>When you are in distress, and all these things come upon you in the <sup>n</sup>latter days, when you <sup>o</sup>turn to the LORD your God and obey His voice <sup>31</sup>(for the LORD your God is a merciful God), He will not forsake you nor <sup>p</sup>destroy you, nor forget the covenant of your fathers which He swore to them.

<sup>32</sup>“For <sup>q</sup>ask now concerning the days that are past, which were before you, since the day that God created man on the earth, and <sup>r</sup>ask <sup>s</sup>from one end of heaven to the other, whether any great thing like this has happened, or anything like it has been heard. <sup>33</sup>Did any people ever hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as you have heard, and live? <sup>34</sup>Or did God ever try to go and take for Himself a nation from the midst of another nation, <sup>t</sup>by trials, <sup>u</sup>by signs, by wonders, by war, <sup>v</sup>by a mighty hand and <sup>x</sup>an outstretched arm, <sup>y</sup>and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes? <sup>35</sup>To you it was shown, that you might know that the LORD Himself is God; <sup>z</sup>there is none other besides Him. <sup>36</sup>Out of heaven He let you hear His voice, that He might instruct you; on earth He showed you His great fire, and you heard His words out of the midst of the fire. <sup>37</sup>And because <sup>b</sup>He loved your fathers, therefore He chose their descendants after them; and <sup>c</sup>He brought you out of Egypt with His Presence, with His mighty power, <sup>38</sup>driving out from before you nations greater and mightier than you, to bring you in, to give you their land as an inheritance, as it is this day. <sup>39</sup>Therefore know this day, and consider it in your heart, that <sup>e</sup>the LORD Himself is God in heaven above and on the earth beneath; there is no other. <sup>40</sup>You shall therefore keep His statutes and His commandments which I command you today, that it may go well with you and with your children after you, and that you may prolong your days in the land which the LORD your God is giving you for all time.”

bodies. The Israelites could know God’s creation, His power, and His character, but they would have to be satisfied to know Him without any visual image.

4:24 a consuming fire . . . jealous. God is free to destroy disobedient and rebellious people. Israel had witnessed His righteous anger during the wilderness journey as well as in Canaan (Num. 16; Heb. 12:19). “Jealous” means that God will tolerate no rivalry or unfaithfulness. This word can also be translated zealous. God is zealous for His holiness.

4:26 heaven and earth. All creation would act as God’s witness against a rebellious and obstinate people. God’s invisible attributes, His eternal power and divine nature are all clearly seen in creation (Rom. 1:20), so that man is without excuse. The creation belongs to God just as much as man does, and God uses it for His eternal purposes, one of which is to stand as a witness to the disobedient.

4:27 scatter you among the peoples. This is a prophetic warning of the exiles that would take place in 722 and 586 B.C.

4:40 that it may go well with you. The promise of blessing in the land was conditional—it required obedience.

Cities of Refuge East of the Jordan

<sup>41</sup>Then Moses <sup>g</sup>set apart three cities on this side of the Jordan, toward the rising of the sun, <sup>42h</sup>that the manslayer might flee there, who kills his neighbor unintentionally, without having hated him in time past, and that by fleeing to one of these cities he might live: <sup>43i</sup>Bezer in the wilderness on the plateau for the Reubenites, Ramoth in Gilead for the Gadites, and Golan in Bashan for the Manassites.

Introduction to God's Law

The Ten Commandments Reviewed

5 And Moses called all Israel, and said to them: "Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgments which I speak in your hearing today, that you may learn them and be careful to observe them. <sup>2a</sup>The LORD our God made a covenant with us in Horeb. <sup>3</sup>The LORD <sup>b</sup>did not make this covenant with our fathers, but with us, those who are here today, all of us who are alive. <sup>4c</sup>The LORD talked with you face to face on the mountain from the midst of the fire. <sup>5d</sup>I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to declare to you the word of the LORD: for <sup>e</sup>you were afraid because of the fire, and you did not go up the mountain. He said:

<sup>6 f</sup>I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

<sup>11 k</sup>*You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not hold him guiltless who takes His name in vain.*

<sup>12 l</sup>*Observe the Sabbath day, to keep it holy, as the LORD your God commanded you. <sup>13m</sup>Six days you shall labor and do all your work, <sup>14</sup>but the seventh day is the "Sabbath of the LORD your God. In it you shall do no work: you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your cattle, nor your stranger who is within your gates, that your male servant and your female servant may rest as well as you. <sup>15o</sup>And remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God brought you out from there <sup>p</sup>by a mighty hand and by an outstretched arm; therefore the LORD your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.*

<sup>16 q</sup>Honor your father and your mother, as the LORD your God has commanded you, <sup>r</sup>that your days may be long, and that it may be well with <sup>s</sup>you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

5:6–21 Commandments—The Ten Commandments are the basis for holy living—not just a list of rules, but an explanation of what God expects of us. Loving God comes first. Setting aside a day to focus on God is essential for maintaining this relationship. The way we feel about God will affect the way we feel about people, and this will have a direct effect on how we treat others. Even though these three ideas summarize the Commandments, it is also essential to examine each individual command and think about how it applies to our lives. It is not easy to faithfully obey these simple statements.

5:11 take . . . in vain. Taking the name of the Lord in vain refers to the abuse, misuse, blasphemy, cursing, or manipulation of the Lord's name. Something "vain" is empty or without value, significance, or meaning.

5:12 the Sabbath. The primary significance of the Sabbath was that it belonged to the Lord.

21 <sup>x</sup>“You shall not covet your neighbor’s wife; and you shall not desire your neighbor’s house, his field, his male servant, his female servant, his ox, his donkey, or anything that is your neighbor’s.”

22 “These words the LORD spoke to all your assembly, in the mountain from the midst of the fire, the cloud, and the thick darkness, with a loud voice; and He added no more. And <sup>y</sup>He wrote them on two tablets of stone and gave them to me.

The People Afraid of God’s Presence

23 “So it was, when you heard the voice from the midst of the darkness, while the mountain was burning with fire, that you came near to me, all the heads of your tribes and your elders. 24 And you said: ‘Surely the LORD our God has shown us His glory and His greatness, and <sup>z</sup>we have heard His voice from the midst of the fire. We have seen this day that God speaks with man; yet he <sup>b</sup>still lives. 25 Now therefore, why should we die? For this great fire will consume us; <sup>c</sup>if we hear the voice of the LORD our God anymore, then we shall die. 26 <sup>d</sup>For who is there of all flesh who has heard the voice of the living God speaking from the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived? 27 You go near and hear all that the LORD our God may say, and <sup>e</sup>tell us all that the LORD our God says to you, and we will hear and do it.’

28 “Then the LORD heard the voice of your words when you spoke to me, and the LORD said to me: ‘I have heard the voice of the words of this people which they have spoken to you. <sup>f</sup>They are right in all that they have spoken. 29 <sup>g</sup>Oh, that they had such a heart in them that they would fear Me and <sup>h</sup>always keep all My commandments, <sup>i</sup>that it might be well with them and with their children forever! 30 Go and say to them, “Return to your tents.” 31 But as for you, stand here by Me, <sup>j</sup>and I will speak to you all the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments which you shall teach them, that they may observe them in the land which I am giving them to possess.’

32 “Therefore you shall be careful to do as the LORD your God has commanded you; <sup>k</sup>you shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. 33 You shall walk in <sup>l</sup>all the ways which the LORD your God has commanded you, that you may live <sup>m</sup>and that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days in the land which you shall possess.

The Greatest Commandment

6 “Now this is <sup>a</sup>the commandment, and <sup>b</sup>these are the statutes and judgments which the LORD your God has commanded to teach you, that you may observe them in the land which you are crossing over to possess, <sup>2b</sup>that you may fear the LORD your God, to keep all His statutes and His commandments which I command you, you and your son and your grandson, all the days of your life, <sup>c</sup>and that your days may be prolonged. 3 Therefore hear, O Israel, and be careful to observe it, that it may be well with you, and that you may <sup>d</sup>multiply greatly <sup>e</sup>as the LORD God of your fathers has promised you—<sup>f</sup>a land flowing with milk and honey.”*

* 6:3 Exodus 3:8

5:18 adultery. Adultery was a betrayal not only of a commitment, but of a relationship. Anyone who treated marriage lightly would also treat his or her relationship with God lightly.

5:21 covet. This command deals specifically with an attitude, rather than an action. Covetousness is self-centered dissatisfaction, which does not reflect loving concern for the well-being of others. Loving God and loving others are closely connected (Matt. 22:37–39).

5:22 wrote them in two tablets . . . gave them. The two tablets were two complete copies of the law. Usually two copies were made of ancient Middle Eastern treaties. One was retained by each of the contracting parties. But God gave both copies to Moses, signifying that God Himself would be with the Israelites. God and the Israelites kept their copies in the same place because they lived together.

5:25–26 why should we die . . . LORD our God. The Israelites’ fear was an important part of understanding their sin and need for help in meeting the requirements of God. The living God is powerful, great, and holy, and He wants us to be like Him, so each sinner needs to realize the need for God’s mercy.

5:29 heart in them. The people were impressed with what they saw and heard, but their hearts were unchanged.

6:2 fear. The fear of the Lord includes awe for His greatness and holiness, love for Him, and submission to His will. Initially, the fear of God may involve fright, knowing that God has the right to punish us for our sins. But when we look at His holiness and love, there is a joy in knowing God, who not only sees us for who we really are, but helps us to be who He wants us to be.

6:3 God of your fathers. God was their God, generation after generation, and He expected them to follow Him, from generation to generation as well.

Caution Against Disobedience

<sup>10</sup>“So it shall be, when the LORD your God brings you into the land of which He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give you large and beautiful cities <sup>n</sup>which you did not build, <sup>11</sup>houses full of all good things, which you did not fill, hewn-out wells which you did not dig, vineyards and olive trees which you did not plant—<sup>o</sup>when you have eaten and are full—<sup>12</sup>then beware, lest you forget the <sup>p</sup>LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. <sup>13</sup>You shall <sup>q</sup>fear the LORD your God and serve Him, and <sup>r</sup>shall take oaths in His name. <sup>14</sup>You shall not go after other gods, <sup>s</sup>the gods of the peoples who are all around you <sup>15</sup>(for <sup>t</sup>the LORD your God is a jealous God “among you), lest the anger of the LORD your God be aroused against you and destroy you from the face of the earth.

<sup>20a</sup>“When your son asks you in time to come, saying, ‘What is the meaning of the testimonies, the statutes, and the judgments which the LORD our God has commanded you?’ <sup>21</sup>then you shall say to your son: ‘We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, and the LORD brought us out of Egypt <sup>b</sup>with a mighty hand; <sup>22</sup>and the LORD showed signs and wonders before our eyes, great and severe, against Egypt, Pharaoh, and all his household. <sup>23</sup>Then He brought us out from there, that He might bring us in, to give us the land of which He swore to our fathers. <sup>24</sup>And the LORD commanded us to observe all these statutes, <sup>c</sup>to fear the LORD our God, <sup>d</sup>for our good always, that

* 6:4 Or The LORD is our God, the LORD alone (that is, the only one)

6:4 Hear, O Israel. This verse is the celebrated Shema, the basic confession of faith in Judaism (Matt. 22:37; Mark 12:29; Luke 10:27). The first word, “hear,” is the Hebrew word shema. The people are to hear and respond properly to God. He is their God, and He alone is the Lord.

6:4–9 Passing on the Faith—In the days leading up to the end of Moses’ leadership, he laid out the essentials of raising a family to follow God. Moses knew that these instructions were a foundational element in Israel’s future. The only way the Israelites could maintain the land they were going to possess was to make sure that the faith would be passed on to each succeeding generation. Nothing has changed. Today we need to heed the same instructions.

In a family’s life the teaching of God is to be a constant, daily effort. God is to be made a part of everyday life. It is the responsibility of a parent to be constantly looking for opportunities to teach children about God’s instructions for living. God’s instructions should be like clothing. They should be put on the minute we get up and kept on all day. They are to be our constant companions. Sharing our faith should be a natural part of daily communication with our children. We should also remember that these instructions come in the text subsequent to the command to love God with all of our heart and soul and strength. How else can we love Him better than by obeying and following Him and teaching our children to do the same?

6:5 shall love. Moses repeatedly exhorted the Israelites to respond to God’s love with devotion. God commanded His people to choose Him with all their being, and in the process to deny all other supposed deities.

6:8–9 hand . . . frontlets . . . doorposts . . . gates. In later years the Jews interpreted these instructions by wearing phylacteries (boxes containing Scripture) when they prayed. They attached a small vessel called a mezuzah, which contained these verses, to the doorpost. The purpose of this whole passage is to emphasize that God’s ways are to be a part of our conversations, our homes, and every activity. They are to be as close to us and as visible as our hand or our forehead.

6:20–24 your son asks. The answer to the Israelite child’s question would include four components: we were slaves in Egypt, the Lord brought us out with a mighty hand, He gave us land, and we have a challenge to responsible action. This is a powerful teaching tool, and one that applies to all Christians. We are to teach our children that we were slaves to sin, the Lord Jesus brought us out with a mighty hand, He has given us a Kingdom, and we have a challenge to responsible action.

A Chosen People

7 “When the LORD your God brings you into the land which you go to <sup>a</sup>possess, and has cast out many <sup>b</sup>nations before you, <sup>c</sup>the Hittites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Canaanites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than you, <sup>2</sup>and when the LORD your God delivers <sup>d</sup>them over to you, you shall conquer them and utterly destroy them. <sup>e</sup>You shall make no covenant with them nor show mercy to them. <sup>3</sup>Nor shall you make marriages with them. You shall not give your daughter to their son, nor take their daughter for your son. <sup>4</sup>For they will turn your sons away from following Me, to serve other gods; <sup>5</sup>so the anger of the LORD will be aroused against you and destroy you suddenly. <sup>6</sup>But thus you shall deal with them: you shall <sup>h</sup>destroy their altars, and break down their sacred pillars, and cut down their wooden images,* and burn their carved images with fire.

<sup>9</sup>“Therefore know that the LORD your God, He is God, <sup>o</sup>the faithful God <sup>p</sup>who keeps covenant and mercy for a thousand generations with those who love Him and keep His commandments; <sup>10</sup>and He repays those who hate Him to their face, to destroy them. He will not be <sup>q</sup>slack with him who hates Him; He will repay him to his face. <sup>11</sup>Therefore you shall keep the commandment, the statutes, and the judgments which I command you today, to observe them.

Blessings of Obedience

<sup>12</sup>“Then it shall come to pass, because you listen to these judgments, and keep and do them, that the LORD your God will keep with you the covenant and the mercy which He swore to your fathers. <sup>13</sup>And He will <sup>r</sup>love you and bless you and multiply you; <sup>s</sup>He will also bless the fruit of your womb and the fruit of your land, your grain and your new wine and your oil, the increase of your cattle and the offspring of your flock, in the land of which He swore to your fathers to give you. <sup>14</sup>You shall be blessed above all peoples; there shall not be a male or female <sup>t</sup>barren among you or among your livestock. <sup>15</sup>And the LORD will take away from you all sickness, and will afflict you with none of the <sup>u</sup>terrible diseases of Egypt which you have known, but will lay them on all those who hate you. <sup>16</sup>Also you shall destroy all the peoples whom the LORD your God delivers over to you; your eye shall have no pity on them; nor shall you serve their gods, for that <sup>v</sup>will be a snare to you.

<sup>17</sup>“If you should say in your heart, ‘These nations are greater than I; how can I dispossess them?’—<sup>18</sup>you shall not be afraid of them, but you shall <sup>w</sup>remember well what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt: <sup>19</sup><sup>x</sup>the great trials which your eyes saw, the signs and the wonders, the mighty hand and the outstretched arm, by which the LORD your God brought you out. So shall the LORD your God do to all the peoples of whom you are afraid. <sup>20</sup>Moreover the LORD your God will send the hornet among them until those who are left, who hide themselves from you, are destroyed. <sup>21</sup>You shall not be terrified of them; for the LORD your God, the great and awesome God, is among you. <sup>22</sup>And the LORD your God will drive out those nations before you <sup>z</sup>little by

7:1 Hittites . . . Girgashites . . . Amorites . . . Canaanites . . . Perizzites . . . Hivites . . . Jebusites. The Hittites came originally from Asia Minor (Gen. 23:10). The Girgashites are an unknown people (Gen. 10:16; 1 Chr. 1:14). The Amorites were the native population of Canaan that had settled in the mountains. The Canaanites were the native population that had settled in the coastland, the Perizzites were the native population that had settled in the hill country, and the Hivites were the native population that had settled south of the Lebanon mountains. The Jebusites (perhaps an offshoot of the Hittites) were the native population settled near what later became Jerusalem. 7:2 covenant. Covenant refers to any treaty with the Canaanite nations that might undermine God’s covenant with Israel.

7:22 little by little. God’s plan was that the land would be conquered in two stages. The first was a broad, rapid conquest under Joshua, and the second was a gradual, area by area conquest.

You shall utterly detest it and utterly abhor it, <sup>d</sup>for it is an accursed thing.

Remember the LORD Your God

8 “Every commandment which I command you today <sup>a</sup>you must be careful to observe, that you may live and <sup>b</sup>multiply, and go in and possess the land of which the LORD swore to your fathers. <sup>2</sup>And you shall remember that the LORD your God <sup>c</sup>led you all the way these forty years in the wilderness, to humble you and <sup>d</sup>test you, <sup>e</sup>to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep His commandments or not. <sup>3</sup>So He humbled you, <sup>f</sup>allowed you to hunger, and <sup>g</sup>fed you with manna which you did not know nor did your fathers know, that He might make you know that man shall <sup>h</sup>not live by bread alone; but man lives by every word that proceeds from the mouth of the LORD. <sup>4i</sup>Your garments did not wear out on you, nor did your foot swell these forty years. <sup>5i</sup>You should know in your heart that as a man chastens his son, so the LORD your God chastens you.

<sup>6</sup>“Therefore you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God, <sup>k</sup>to walk in His ways and to fear Him. <sup>7</sup>For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, <sup>l</sup>a land of brooks of water, of fountains and springs, that flow out of valleys and hills; <sup>8</sup>a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey; <sup>9</sup>a land in which you will eat bread without scarcity, in which you will lack nothing; a land whose stones are iron and out of whose hills you can dig copper. <sup>10m</sup>When you have eaten and are full, then you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land which He has given you.

<sup>11</sup>“Beware that you do not forget the LORD your God by not keeping His commandments, His judgments, and His statutes which I command you today, <sup>12n</sup>lest—when you have eaten and are full, and have built beautiful houses and dwell in them; <sup>13</sup>and when your herds and your flocks multiply, and your silver and your gold are multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied; <sup>14o</sup>when your heart is lifted up, and you <sup>p</sup>forget the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage; <sup>15</sup>who <sup>q</sup>led you through that great and terrible wilderness, <sup>r</sup>in which were fiery serpents and scorpions and thirsty land where there was no water; <sup>s</sup>who brought water for you out of the flinty rock; <sup>16</sup>who fed you in the wilderness with <sup>t</sup>manna, which your fathers did not know, that He might humble you and that He might test you, <sup>u</sup>to do you good in the end—<sup>17</sup>then you say in your heart, ‘My power and the might of my hand have gained me this wealth.’

<sup>18</sup>“And you shall remember the LORD your God, <sup>v</sup>for it is He who gives you power to get wealth, <sup>w</sup>that He may establish His covenant which He swore to your fathers, as it is this day. <sup>19</sup>Then it shall be, if you by any means forget the LORD your God, and follow other gods, and serve them and worship them, <sup>x</sup>I testify against you this day that you shall surely perish. <sup>20</sup>As the nations which the LORD destroys before you, <sup>y</sup>so you shall perish, because you would not be obedient to the voice of the LORD your God.

8:3 man shall not live by bread alone. Humans have a spiritual nature that can be satisfied only by the spiritual nutrients of God’s word. Jesus used these words to rebuke Satan when Jesus was tempted in the wilderness (Matt. 4:4; Luke 4:1–4). proceeds from the mouth of the LORD. The Bible is valuable because it is the word of God. It is inspired by God not only in the sense that it is relating true events, but because God knows the kinds of things that people need to know to follow Him in a world of sin, uncertainty, and death. God’s word is man’s only wisdom and hope. When people study it, rely on it, and apply it, the word will prove to be both wise and right. For God is as good as His every word, and God’s every word is as good as the One from whom it comes.

8:16 test you, to do you good. Through the whole experience in Egypt and the wilderness, the Lord was leading His children into decisions that would bring out their true nature. Difficult as the tests were, the Lord knew what was necessary to reveal to the Israelites not only His character, but theirs as well.

8:17 My power. Moses warned the people that prosperity and wealth often lead to an exaltation of self and a rejection of God.

nations greater and mightier than yourself, cities great and fortified up to heaven, <sup>2a</sup>a people great and tall, the <sup>a</sup>descendants of the Anakim, whom you know, and of whom you heard it said, 'Who can stand before the descendants of Anak?' <sup>3</sup>Therefore understand today that the LORD your God is He who <sup>b</sup>goes over before you as a <sup>c</sup>consuming fire. 'He will destroy them and bring them down before you; <sup>e</sup>so you shall drive them out and destroy them quickly, as the LORD has said to you.

<sup>4</sup>"Do not think in your heart, after the LORD your God has cast them out before you, saying, 'Because of my righteousness the LORD has brought me in to possess this land'; but it is <sup>g</sup>because of the wickedness of these nations that the LORD is driving them out from before you. <sup>5h</sup>It is not because of your righteousness or the uprightness of your heart that you go in to possess their land, but because of the wickedness of these nations that the LORD your God drives them out from before you, and that He may fulfill the <sup>i</sup>word which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. <sup>6</sup>Therefore understand that the LORD your God is not giving you this good land to possess because of your righteousness, for you are a 'stiff-necked people.

<sup>7</sup>"Remember! Do not forget how you <sup>k</sup>provoked the LORD your God to wrath in the wilderness. 'From the day that you departed from the land of Egypt until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against the LORD. <sup>8</sup>Also <sup>m</sup>in Horeb you provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry enough with you to have destroyed you. <sup>9n</sup>When I went up into the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I stayed on the mountain forty days and <sup>o</sup>forty nights. I neither ate bread nor drank water. <sup>10p</sup>Then the LORD delivered to me two tablets of stone written with the finger of God, and on them were all the words which the LORD had spoken to you on the mountain from the midst of the fire <sup>q</sup>in the day of the assembly. <sup>11</sup>And it came to pass, at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant.

<sup>12</sup>"Then the LORD said to me, <sup>r</sup>"Arise, go down quickly from here, for your people whom you brought out of Egypt have acted corruptly; they have <sup>s</sup>quickly turned aside from the way which I commanded them; they have made themselves a molded image.'

<sup>15y</sup>"So I turned and came down from the mountain, and <sup>z</sup>the mountain burned with fire; and the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands. <sup>16</sup>And <sup>a1</sup>I looked, and behold, you had sinned against the LORD your God—had made for yourselves a molded calf! You had turned aside quickly from the way which the LORD had commanded you. <sup>17</sup>Then I took the two tablets and threw them out of my two hands and <sup>b</sup>broke them before your eyes. <sup>18</sup>And I <sup>c</sup>fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all your sin which you committed in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger. <sup>19d</sup>For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure with which the LORD was angry with you, to destroy you. <sup>e</sup>But the LORD listened to me at that time also. <sup>20</sup>And the LORD was very angry with Aaron and would have destroyed him; so I prayed for Aaron also at the same time. <sup>21</sup>Then I took your sin, the calf which you had made, and burned it with fire and crushed it and ground it very small, until it was as fine as dust; and I <sup>f</sup>threw its dust into the brook that descended from the mountain.

9:4–6 to possess this land. The conquest of Canaan was both a judgment on the wickedness of the native population and a promise fulfilled to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob (Gen. 15:18–21). The land was a gift of grace, not a gift given because of the merits of the Israelites.

9:7 Do not forget. In addition to remembering the grace of God, the people also had to remember how vulnerable they were to apostasy (1:6–3:29).

9:9 nor drank water. A person cannot go more than approximately three days without water and survive. God supernaturally preserved Moses during the forty days.

9:10 finger of God. The Ten Commandments were written on stone by the hand of God. This visual picture of God writing His words is so personal. There is another time that God writes on tablets, and that is on the tablet of the human heart (2 Cor. 3:3). This, too, is intensely personal and life changing. In the end, His followers can only put the words of the stone tablets into effect after the Spirit of the living God has written on their hearts.

9:19 the LORD listened to me. For Moses' prayer, see verses 26–29. Daniel's prayer for the nation resembled Moses' intercession (Dan. 9:3–23).

you from Kadesh Barnea, saying, 'Go up and possess the land which I have given you,' then you rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and <sup>k</sup>you did not believe Him nor obey His voice. <sup>24</sup><sup>i</sup>You have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you.

<sup>25</sup><sup>m</sup>Thus I prostrated myself before the LORD; forty days and forty nights I kept prostrating myself, because the LORD had said He would destroy you. <sup>26</sup>Therefore I prayed to the LORD, and said: 'O Lord GOD, do not destroy Your people and <sup>n</sup>Your inheritance whom You have redeemed through Your greatness, whom You have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand. <sup>27</sup>Remember Your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; do not look on the stubbornness of this people, or on their wickedness or their sin, <sup>28</sup>lest the land from which You brought us should say, "Because the LORD was not able to bring them to the land which He promised them, and because He hated them, He has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness."<sup>29</sup> Yet they are Your people and Your inheritance, whom You brought out by Your mighty power and by Your outstretched arm.'

The Second Pair of Tablets

10 <sup>a</sup>'At that time the LORD said to me, <sup>b</sup>'Hew for yourself two tablets of stone like the first, and come up to Me on the mountain and make yourself an <sup>c</sup>ark of wood. <sup>2</sup>And I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke; and <sup>b</sup>you shall put them in the ark.'

<sup>3</sup>'So I made an ark of acacia wood, hewed two tablets of stone like the first, and went up the mountain, having the two tablets in my hand. <sup>4</sup>And He wrote on the tablets according to the first writing, the Ten Commandments, <sup>c</sup>'which the LORD had spoken to you in the mountain from the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly; and the LORD gave them to me. <sup>5</sup>Then I turned and <sup>c</sup>came down from the mountain, and <sup>e</sup>put the tablets in the ark which I had made; <sup>f</sup>and there they are, just as the LORD commanded me.'

from the wells of Bene Jaakan to Mose-rah, where Aaron <sup>g</sup>died, and where he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered as priest in his stead. <sup>7</sup><sup>n</sup>From there they journeyed to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of rivers of water. <sup>8</sup>At that time <sup>i</sup>'the LORD separated the tribe of Levi <sup>h</sup>to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, <sup>k</sup>to stand before the LORD to minister to Him and <sup>l</sup>to bless in His name, to this day. <sup>9</sup><sup>m</sup>Therefore Levi has no portion nor inheritance with his brethren; the LORD is his inheritance, just as the LORD your God promised him.)

<sup>10</sup>'As at the first time, <sup>n</sup>I stayed in the mountain forty days and forty nights; <sup>o</sup>the LORD also heard me at that time, and the LORD chose not to destroy you. <sup>11</sup><sup>p</sup>Then the LORD said to me, 'Arise, begin your journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land which I swore to their fathers to give them.'

The Essence of the Law

<sup>12</sup>'And now, Israel, <sup>q</sup>what does the LORD your God require of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways and to <sup>r</sup>love Him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, <sup>13</sup>and to keep the commandments of the LORD and His statutes which I command you today <sup>s</sup>for your good? <sup>14</sup>Indeed heaven and the highest heavens belong to the <sup>t</sup>LORD your God, also the earth with all that is in it. <sup>15</sup>The LORD delighted only in your fathers, to love them; and He chose their descendants after them, you above all peoples, as it is this day. <sup>16</sup>Therefore circumcise the foreskin of your <sup>u</sup>heart, and be <sup>v</sup>stiff-necked no longer. <sup>17</sup>For the LORD your God is <sup>w</sup>God of gods and <sup>x</sup>LORD of lords, the great God, <sup>y</sup>mighty and awesome, who <sup>z</sup>shows no partiality nor takes a bribe. <sup>18</sup><sup>a</sup>He administers justice for the fatherless and the widow, and loves the stranger, giving him food and clothing. <sup>19</sup>Therefore love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup><sup>b</sup>You shall fear the LORD your God; you shall serve Him, and to Him you shall hold fast, and take oaths in His name. <sup>21</sup>He is your praise, and He is your God, who has done for you

9:26–29 I prayed. Moses took God's judgment seriously. Nevertheless he asked God for what he felt was important. He appealed to God's faithfulness, mercy, and honor. It is always all right to beseech the Lord for what seems right to us from our point of view, but as we pray, we remember that God knows more than we do, and we can trust Him to take the best course of action.

10:3 acacia wood. The acacia or shittim tree is still found in the Sinai peninsula, but in smaller numbers than when the Israelites passed through. Some varieties produce an attractive, highly figured hardwood.

10:19 Therefore love the stranger. God's good provision for their own needs should have motivated the Israelites to love the stranger among them. To love and provide for the disadvantaged was in fact following God's example.

Love and Obedience Rewarded

11 “Therefore you shall love the LORD your God, and keep His charge, His statutes, His judgments, and His commandments always. <sup>2</sup>Know today that I do not speak with your children, who have not known and who have not seen the chastening of the LORD your God, His greatness and His mighty hand and His outstretched arm— <sup>3</sup>His signs and His acts which He did in the midst of Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to all his land; <sup>4</sup>what He did to the army of Egypt, to their horses and their chariots: <sup>5</sup>how He made the waters of the Red Sea overflow them as they pursued you, and how the LORD has destroyed them to this day; <sup>6</sup>what He did for you in the wilderness until you came to this place; <sup>7</sup>and what He did to Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben: how the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, their households, their tents, and all the substance that was in their possession, in the midst of all Israel— <sup>8</sup>but your eyes have seen every great act of the LORD which He did.

<sup>8</sup>“Therefore you shall keep every commandment which I command you today, that you may <sup>a</sup>be strong, and go in and possess the land which you cross over to possess, <sup>9</sup>and <sup>e</sup>that you may prolong your days in the land <sup>f</sup>which the LORD swore to give your fathers, to them and their descendants, <sup>g</sup>a land flowing with milk and honey.” <sup>10</sup>For the land which you go to possess is not like the land of Egypt from which you have come, where you sowed your seed and watered it by foot, as a vegetable garden; <sup>11</sup>but the land which you cross over to possess is a land of hills and valleys, which drinks water from the rain of heaven, <sup>12</sup>a land for which the LORD your God cares; <sup>i</sup>the eyes of the LORD your God are always on it, from the beginning of the year to the very end of the year.

<sup>13</sup>“And it shall be that if you earnestly obey My commandments which I command you today, to love the LORD your God and serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul, <sup>14</sup>then <sup>j</sup>the LORD will give you the rain for your land in its season, <sup>k</sup>the early rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your grain, your new wine, and your oil. <sup>15</sup>“And I will send grass in your fields for your livestock, that you may <sup>l</sup>eat and be filled.” <sup>16</sup>Take heed to yourselves, <sup>m</sup>lest your heart be deceived, and you turn aside and <sup>n</sup>serve other gods and worship them, <sup>17</sup>lest <sup>o</sup>the LORD’s anger be aroused against you, and He <sup>p</sup>shut up the heavens so that there be no rain, and the land yield no produce, and <sup>q</sup>you perish quickly from the good land which the LORD is giving you.

11:1 keep His charge. Loving God is in response to His love for us. We are directed to love God, but God first demonstrates His love for us. He rescued the Israelites from slavery to the Egyptians; He rescues us from slavery to sin (Rom. 6:20). Our first response is to return this love He has shown us. Our second response is to keep His commandments, to do the things He says to do. Love oils the wheels of obedience and makes obedience a blessing, not a burden.

11:9–12 not like the land of Egypt. Agriculture in Egypt depended on irrigation, the annual flooding of the Nile.

encouraged the sprouting of seed and new growth. The late rain brought crops to maturity.

blessing and a curse: <sup>27</sup>the blessing, if you obey the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you today; <sup>28</sup>and the <sup>i</sup>curse, if you do not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside from the way which I command you today, to go after other gods which you have not known. <sup>29</sup>Now it shall be, when the LORD your God has brought you into the land which you go to possess, that you shall put the <sup>b</sup>blessing on Mount Gerizim and the <sup>c</sup>curse on Mount Ebal. <sup>30</sup>Are they not on the other side of the Jordan, toward the setting sun, in the land of the Canaanites who dwell in the plain opposite Gilgal, <sup>m</sup>beside the terebinth trees of Moreh? <sup>31</sup>For you will cross over the Jordan and go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you, and you will possess it and dwell in it. <sup>32</sup>And you shall be careful to observe all the statutes and judgments which I set before you today.

A Prescribed Place of Worship

12 <sup>a</sup>These <sup>a</sup>are the statutes and judgments which you shall be careful to observe in the land which the LORD God of your fathers is giving you to possess, <sup>b</sup>all the days that you live on the earth. <sup>2c</sup>You shall utterly destroy all the places where the nations which you shall dispossess served their gods, <sup>d</sup>on the high mountains and on the hills and under every green tree. <sup>3</sup>And <sup>e</sup>you shall destroy their altars, break their <sup>f</sup>sacred pillars, and burn their wooden images with fire; you shall cut down the carved images of their gods and destroy their names from that place. <sup>4</sup>You shall not <sup>f</sup>worship the LORD your God <sup>with</sup> such <sup>things</sup>.

<sup>5</sup>But you shall seek the <sup>g</sup>place where the LORD your God chooses, out of all your tribes, to put His name for His <sup>h</sup>dwelling place; and there you shall go. <sup>6i</sup>There you shall take your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the heave offerings of your hand, your vowed offerings, your freewill offerings, and the <sup>j</sup>firstborn of your herds and flocks. <sup>7</sup>And <sup>k</sup>there you shall eat before the LORD your God, and <sup>l</sup>you shall rejoice in all to which you have put your hand, you and your households, in which the LORD your God has blessed you.

<sup>15</sup>However, <sup>you</sup> may slaughter and eat meat within all your gates, whatever your heart desires, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which He has given you; <sup>the</sup> unclean and the clean may eat of it, <sup>of</sup> the gazelle and the deer alike. <sup>16u</sup>Only you shall not eat the blood; you shall pour it on the earth like water. <sup>17</sup>You may not eat within your gates the tithe of your grain or your new wine or your oil, of the firstborn of your herd or your flock, of any of your offerings which you vow, of your freewill offerings, or of the heave offering of your

12:1–4 altars . . . pillars. The sacred pillars were monuments dedicated to one of the gods. They represented the power of fertility. The poles refer to the altars dedicated to the goddess Asherah, who was frequently associated with Baal.

12:5 seek. Whatever one seeks is the object of one's desire and devotion. Once they were settled in the land, the different tribes would be spread out, but they would still find God in their midst, in the place that God chose. This place was to be the object of their desire, God Himself the object of their devotion.

12:6 sacrifices. The Hebrew word for sacrifice always designates the offering of an animal. The contribution of the hand was one which the priest lifted up to signify that it was a gift to the Lord (Ex. 29:27; Lev. 7:34). The priest took his share and the worshiper and his family ate the rest. A votive offering was made in the fulfillment of a vow (Lev. 7:16; Num. 6:21). A free-will offering was voluntary (Ex. 35:27–29; Lev. 7:16).

12:7 eat . . . rejoice. The communal offerings were to be eaten and enjoyed by those who offered them. It was a time of celebration before the Lord.

12:8 whatever is right in his own eyes. In the wilderness the people did not develop a common focus on the Lord. Moses challenged the new generation to act with common faithfulness and obedience.

12:17 eat within your gates. Aspects of God's worship were designed for community celebration, and were not to be done in the privacy of the home.

<sup>20</sup>“When the LORD your God <sup>v</sup>enlarges your border as He has promised you, and you say, ‘Let me eat meat,’ because you long to eat meat, you may eat as much meat as your heart desires. <sup>21</sup>If the place where the LORD your God chooses to put His name is too far from <sup>w</sup>you, then you may slaughter from your herd and from your flock which the LORD has given you, just as I have commanded you, and you may eat within your gates as much as your heart desires. <sup>22</sup>Just as the gazelle and the deer are eaten, so you may eat them; the unclean and the clean alike may eat them. <sup>23</sup>Only be sure that you do not eat the blood, <sup>x</sup>for the blood is the life; you may not eat the life with the meat. <sup>24</sup>You shall not eat it; you shall pour it on the earth like water. <sup>25</sup>You shall not eat it, <sup>y</sup>that it may go well with you and your children after you, <sup>z</sup>when you do what is right in the sight of the LORD. <sup>26</sup>Only the <sup>a</sup>holy things which you have, and your vowed offerings, you shall take and go to the place which the LORD chooses. <sup>27</sup>And <sup>b</sup>you shall offer your burnt offerings, the meat and the blood, on the altar of the LORD your God; and the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out on the altar of the LORD your God, and you shall eat the meat. <sup>28</sup>Observe and obey all these words which I command you, <sup>c</sup>that it may go well with you and your children after you forever, when you do what is good and right in the sight of the LORD your God.

Beware of False Gods

<sup>29</sup>“When <sup>d</sup>the LORD your God cuts off from before you the nations which you go to dispossess, and you displace them and dwell in their land, <sup>30</sup>take heed to yourself that you are not ensnared to follow them, after they are destroyed from before you, and that you do not inquire after their gods, saying, ‘How did these nations serve their gods? I also will do likewise.’ <sup>31e</sup>You shall not worship the LORD your God in that way; for every abomination to the LORD which He hates they have done to their gods; for <sup>f</sup>they burn even their sons and daughters in the fire to their gods.

<sup>32</sup>“Whatever I command you, be careful to observe it; <sup>g</sup>you shall not add to it nor take away from it.

Punishment of Apostates

13 “If there arises among you a prophet or a <sup>a</sup>dreamer of dreams, <sup>b</sup>and he gives you a sign or a wonder, <sup>2</sup>and <sup>c</sup>the sign or the wonder comes to pass, of which he spoke to you, saying, ‘Let us go after other gods’—which you have not known—and let us serve them,’ <sup>3</sup>you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams, for the LORD your God <sup>d</sup>is testing you to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul. <sup>4</sup>You shall <sup>e</sup>walk after the LORD your God and fear Him, and keep His commandments and obey His voice; you shall serve Him and <sup>f</sup>hold fast to Him. <sup>5</sup>But <sup>g</sup>that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death, because he has spoken in order to turn you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of bondage, to entice you from the way in which the LORD your God commanded you to walk. <sup>h</sup>So you shall put away the evil from your midst.

<sup>6i</sup>“If your brother, the son of your mother, your son or your daughter, <sup>i</sup>the wife of your bosom, or your friend <sup>k</sup>who is as your own soul, secretly entices you, saying, ‘Let us go and serve other gods,’ which you have not known, neither you nor your fathers, <sup>7</sup>of the gods of the people which are all around you, near to you or far off from you, from one end of the earth to the other

12:30–31 take heed . . . that you are not ensnared.

For forty years the basic sin which kept Israel out of Canaan was unbelief. However, once they settled in the Promised Land, the sin that eventually drove them out was idolatry. Idolatry is not only bowing down to a stone or wood image of a god; idolatry takes place every time our trust for our well-being is placed on something that is not the one true God. In the end, idolatry is the ultimate form of unbelief. It mocks God, because it imitates the dependence that people should have on Him, choosing a powerless placebo for the living God. The Lord would remove the temptation of the Canaanite nations, but the Israelites must not become curious and imitate the practices of the vanquished peoples. Calling it a snare was a warning that the temptation to copy would be hidden, a trick, something that would catch them unaware.

13:1–2 a prophet or a dreamer.

Both prophecy and dreams were legitimate forms of revelation.

13:3 testing you. The revelation of God through Moses was the test of any sign or message. When the message deviated from God’s prior revelation, Israel had to discern false teaching.

13:5 put away the evil. Discipline, punishment, and testing were God’s means of keeping His people pure.

end of the earth, <sup>8</sup>you shall <sup>h</sup>not consent to him or listen to him, nor shall your eye pity him, nor shall you spare him or conceal him; <sup>9</sup>but you shall surely kill him; your hand shall be first against him to put him to <sup>m</sup>death, and afterward the hand of all the people. <sup>10</sup>And you shall stone him with stones until he dies, because he sought to entice you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. <sup>11</sup>So all Israel shall hear and <sup>n</sup>fear, and not again do such wickedness as this among you.

<sup>12</sup><sup>a</sup>“If you hear someone in one of your cities, which the LORD your God gives you to dwell in, saying, <sup>13</sup>“Corrupt men have gone out from among you and enticed the inhabitants of their city, saying, “Let us go and serve other gods”<sup>1</sup>—which you have not known—<sup>14</sup>then you shall inquire, search out, and ask diligently. And if it is indeed true and certain that such an abomination was committed among you, <sup>15</sup>you shall surely strike the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying it, all that is in it and its livestock—with the edge of the sword. <sup>16</sup>And you shall gather all its plunder into the middle of the street, and completely <sup>p</sup>burn with fire the city and all its plunder, for the LORD your God. It shall be <sup>q</sup>a heap forever; it shall not be built again. <sup>17</sup>So none of the accursed things shall remain in your hand, that the LORD may <sup>s</sup>turn from the fierceness of His anger and show you mercy, have compassion on you and multiply you, just as He swore to your fathers, <sup>18</sup>because you have listened to the voice of the LORD your God, <sup>t</sup>to keep all His commandments which I command you today, to do what is right in the eyes of the LORD your God.

Improper Mourning

14 “You are <sup>a</sup>the children of the LORD your God; <sup>b</sup>you shall not cut yourselves nor shave the front of your head for the dead. <sup>2</sup>For you are a holy people to the LORD your God, and the LORD has chosen you to be a people for Himself, a special treasure above all the peoples who are on the face of the earth.

Clean and Unclean Meat

13:9 your hand shall be first. The relative or friend who brought the charge would lead in the capital punishment of the one who suggested idolatrous practices. With unforgettable words, Jesus emphasized the severity of this offense. Such a person should not have been born (Matt. 18:6–7).

13:13 serve other gods. Falling away from the truth is apostasy. Sometimes this can be fairly subtle, and that is why the word “enticed” is used with this concept. God clearly lays out a test that will always separate the truth from the lie. If someone says, “Let us go and serve other gods . . .” we know that the speaker is not from God. Our hope is in Christ alone. People do not recognize that they are going after “other gods” because they do not know the one true God. This is why it is so important to faithfully study the Bible, for in it all of the character and actions of God are revealed. We will not be fooled by the counterfeit if we are familiar with the genuine.

13:17–18 turn from the fierceness of His anger and show you mercy. This seemingly harsh judgment of evil was an act of obedience. God required the punishment of evildoers so that immoral practices would not spread throughout the land. God would bless the Israelites, and bless the land, but not while the evil practices were still going on.

14:2 God’s Plan and Israel—The modern-day student of the Bible may well ask why so much of Scripture is taken up with the history of a single nation. Certainly many Christians wonder why one nation should be called “God’s chosen people.” The answer to this question is bound up in God’s purpose for Israel. When God promised Abraham that he would become the father of a great nation, He also promised that He would bless all peoples through that nation (Gen. 12:1–3). Therefore Israel was to be a channel of blessing as well as a recipient. Even their deliverance from Egypt was at least partially designed to show other nations that Israel’s God was the only true God (Ex. 7:5; 14:18; Josh. 2:9–11). It was further prophesied by Isaiah that the Messiah would bring salvation to the Gentiles (Is. 49:6). The Psalms contain many invitations to other nations to come and worship the Lord in Israel (Ps. 2:10–12; 117:1). Ruth the Moabitess is an example of a foreigner who believed in Israel’s God.

It is clear that God’s promise to Abraham to bless the whole world through him is still being fulfilled. The life, ministry and death of Jesus Christ and the existence and influence of the church today, all came about through God’s choice of Israel. All those the church wins to Christ, whether Jew or Gentile, enter into these great blessings channeled through Israel.

Tithing Principles

<sup>22h</sup>"You shall truly tithe all the increase of your grain that the field produces year by year. <sup>23o</sup>And you shall eat before the LORD your God, in the place where He chooses to make His name abide, the tithe of your grain and your new wine and your oil, of <sup>p</sup>the firstborn of your herds and your flocks, that you may learn to fear the LORD your God always. <sup>24</sup>But if the journey is too long for you, so that you are not able to carry the tithe, or <sup>q</sup>if the place where the LORD your God chooses to put His name is too far from you, when the LORD your God has blessed you, <sup>25</sup>then you shall exchange it for money, take the money in your hand, and go to the place which the LORD your God chooses. <sup>26</sup>And you shall spend that money for whatever your heart desires: for oxen or sheep, for wine or similar drink, for whatever your heart desires; you shall eat there before the LORD your God, and you shall <sup>r</sup>rejoice, you and your household. <sup>27</sup>You shall not forsake the <sup>s</sup>Levite who is within your gates, for he has no part nor inheritance with you.

<sup>28i</sup>"At the end of every third year you shall bring out the <sup>a</sup>tithe of your produce of that year and store it up within your gates. <sup>29</sup>And the Levite, because he has no portion nor inheritance with you, and the stranger and the fatherless and the widow who are within your gates, may come and eat and be satisfied, that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hand which you do.

Debts Canceled Every Seven Years

15 "At the end of <sup>a</sup>every seven years you shall grant a release of debts. <sup>2</sup>And this is the form of the release: Every creditor who has lent anything to his neighbor shall release it; he shall not require it of his neighbor or his brother, because it is called the LORD's release. <sup>3</sup>Of a foreigner you may require it; but you shall give up your claim to what is owed by your brother, <sup>4</sup>except when there may be no poor among you; for the LORD will greatly <sup>b</sup>bless you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess as an inheritance— <sup>3</sup>only if you carefully obey the voice of the LORD your God, to observe with care all these commandments which I command you today. <sup>6</sup>For the LORD your God will bless you just as He promised you; <sup>c</sup>you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow; you shall reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over you.

Generosity to the Poor

<sup>7</sup>"If there is among you a poor man of your brethren, within any of the gates in your land which the LORD your God is giving you, <sup>d</sup>you shall not harden your heart nor shut your hand from your poor brother, <sup>8</sup>but <sup>e</sup>you shall open your hand wide to him and willingly lend him sufficient for his need, whatever he needs. <sup>9</sup>Beware lest there be a wicked thought in your heart, saying, 'The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand,' and your <sup>f</sup>eye be evil

14:21 not boil . . . in its mother's milk. Unlike the Canaanites who boiled young goats alive in the milk of their mothers as a sacrifice to fertility gods, Israel was to practice a more humane method of animal sacrifice.

14:22–29 tithe of your grain. The tithe was to be enjoyed in the presence of the Lord, unless the people had come from a great distance. Then they could exchange it for silver and purchase food and drink with it in Jerusalem.

14:25 money. Money refers to uncoined silver. Coins were not struck until the Persian era.

15:1 every seven years. God taught His people to think in cycles of holy time: six days of work, the seventh to rest; six years of business, the seventh of giving freedom to the poor; six years of agricultural cultivation, and the seventh to let the land lie fallow (Ex. 23:10–13; Lev. 25:1–7).

15:7–15 a poor man. Israel's uniqueness in the ancient world is seen in the laws which connect a right relationship with God and worship of Him with interpersonal relationships. If you love God, you will also treat others well. God is intensely interested in the poor, and it is the responsibility of His people to imitate His concern. The story of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:30–37) is both the simplest and the most profound picture of how this concern works out in real life.

15:7 not harden. The people's attitude toward the

The Law Concerning Bondservants

<sup>12</sup><sup>a</sup>'If your brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, is <sup>b</sup>sold to you and serves you six years, then in the seventh year you shall let him go free from you. <sup>13</sup>And when you send him away free from you, you shall not let him go away empty-handed; <sup>14</sup>you shall supply him liberally from your flock, from your threshing floor, and from your winepress. From what the LORD your God has <sup>blessed</sup> you with, you shall give to him. <sup>15</sup><sup>a</sup>You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you; therefore I command you this thing today. <sup>16</sup><sup>a</sup>And if it happens that he says to you, 'I will not go away from you,' because he loves you and your house, since he prospers with you, <sup>17</sup>then you shall take an awl and thrust it through his ear to the door, and he shall be your servant forever. Also to your female servant you shall do likewise. <sup>18</sup>It shall not seem hard to you when you send him away free from you; for he has been worth <sup>a</sup>a double hired servant in serving you six years. Then the LORD your God will bless you in all that you do.

The Law Concerning Firstborn Animals

sacrifice it to the LORD your God. <sup>22</sup>You may eat it within your gates; <sup>a</sup>'the unclean and the clean person alike may eat it, as if it were a gazelle or a deer. <sup>23</sup>Only you shall not eat its blood; you shall pour it on the ground like water.

The Passover Reviewed

16 <sup>a</sup>'Observe the <sup>a</sup>month of Abib, and keep the Passover to the LORD your God, for <sup>b</sup>in the month of Abib the LORD your God brought you out of Egypt by night. <sup>2</sup>Therefore you shall sacrifice the Passover to the LORD your God, from the flock and <sup>c</sup>'the herd, in the <sup>d</sup>place where the LORD chooses to put His name. <sup>3</sup>You shall eat no leavened bread with it; <sup>e</sup>seven days you shall eat unleavened bread with it, that is, the bread of affliction (for you came out of the land of Egypt in haste), that you may <sup>f</sup>remember the day in which you came out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life. <sup>4</sup><sup>a</sup>And no leaven shall be seen among you in all your territory for seven days, nor shall any of the meat which you sacrifice the first day at twilight remain overnight until <sup>b</sup>morning.

<sup>5</sup><sup>a</sup>You may not sacrifice the Passover within any of your gates which the LORD your God gives you; <sup>b</sup>but at the place where the LORD your God chooses to make His name abide, there you shall sacrifice the Passover <sup>c</sup>'at twilight, at the going down of the sun, at the time you came out of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>And you shall roast and eat it in the place which the LORD your God chooses, and <sup>d</sup>in the morning you shall turn and go to your tents. <sup>8</sup>Six days you shall eat unleavened bread, and <sup>k</sup>on the seventh day there shall be a sacred assembly to the LORD your God. You shall do no work on it.

The Feast of Weeks Reviewed

<sup>9</sup><sup>a</sup>'You shall count seven weeks for yourself; begin to count the seven weeks from the time you begin to put the sickle to the grain. <sup>10</sup>Then you shall keep the <sup>1</sup>Feast of Weeks to the LORD your God with the tribute of a freewill offering from your hand, which you shall give <sup>m</sup>as the LORD your God blesses you. <sup>11</sup><sup>a</sup>You shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant, the Levite who is within

The Feast of Tabernacles Reviewed

<sup>13p</sup>“You shall observe the Feast of Tabernacles seven days, when you have gathered from your threshing floor and from your winepress. <sup>14</sup>And <sup>q</sup>you shall rejoice in your feast, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant and the Levite, the stranger and the fatherless and the widow, who are within your gates. <sup>15</sup>Seven days you shall keep a sacred feast to the LORD your God in the place which the LORD chooses, because the LORD your God will bless you in all your produce and in all the work of your hands, so that you surely rejoice.

Justice Must Be Administered

<sup>21a</sup>“You shall not plant for yourself any tree, as a wooden image, near the altar which you build for yourself to the LORD your God. <sup>22b</sup>You shall not set up a sacred pillar, which the LORD your God hates.

17 <sup>c</sup>You shall not sacrifice to the LORD your God a bull or sheep which has any blemish or defect, for that is an abomination to the LORD your God.

<sup>2b</sup>“If there is found among you, within any of your gates which the LORD your God gives you, a man or a woman who has been wicked in the sight of the LORD your God, <sup>e</sup>in transgressing His covenant, <sup>3</sup>who has gone and served other gods and worshiped them, either <sup>d</sup>the sun or moon or any of the host of heaven, <sup>e</sup>which I have not commanded, <sup>4</sup>and it is told you, and you hear of it, then you shall inquire diligently. And if it is indeed true and certain that such an abomination has been committed in Israel, <sup>5</sup>then you shall bring out to your gates that man or woman who has committed that wicked thing, and <sup>6</sup>shall stone <sup>h</sup>to death that man or woman with stones. <sup>6</sup>Whoever is deserving of death shall be put to death on the testimony of two or three <sup>i</sup>witnesses; he shall not be put to death on the testimony of one witness. <sup>7</sup>The hands of the witnesses shall be the first against him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. So you shall put away the evil from among <sup>j</sup>you.

<sup>8k</sup>“If a matter arises which is too hard for you to judge, between degrees of guilt for bloodshed, between one judgment or another, or between one punishment or another, matters of controversy within your gates, then you shall arise and go up to the <sup>l</sup>place which the LORD your God chooses. <sup>9</sup>And <sup>m</sup>you shall come to the priests, the Levites, and <sup>n</sup>to the judge there in those days, and inquire of them; <sup>o</sup>they shall pronounce upon you the sentence of judgment. <sup>10</sup>You shall do according to the sentence which they pronounce

16:13–15 Feast of Tabernacles. The harvest festival was a time to celebrate God's goodness, and to remember how He cared for them when they lived in tents in the wilderness. Today this celebration is called Succoth, from the Hebrew word for booths.

16:19 not pervert justice. The foundation for a just and honest application of law in human society is God Himself. God entrusts rule to men who function in His place in dispensing justice. To pervert this justice with favoritism or bribes is to malign the character of God, and that is a sin that God always deals with sooner or later.

17:2 transgressing. The Hebrew verb for transgressing is used elsewhere to indicate the crossing of a border or stream. Here the word is used to indicate “crossing over” the boundaries that God had set for His people.

17:4–6 inquire diligently. An investigation, rather than gossip, determined the truth of any report of idolatry. There must be two or three witnesses for a person to be condemned to death.

17:7 hands of the witnesses . . . first. The witnesses participated in the stoning of the guilty because they were responsible for the person's condemnation. Jesus' words about throwing the “first stone” referred to this practice (John 8:7).

17:8 degrees of guilt. This refers to cases of manslaughter or murder—that is, accidental or intentional homicide.

So you shall put away the evil from Israel. <sup>13</sup><sup>a</sup>And all the people shall hear and fear, and no longer act presumptuously.

Principles Governing Kings

<sup>14</sup>“When you come to the land which the LORD your God is giving you, and possess it and dwell in it, and say, <sup>a</sup>“I will set a king over me like all the nations that are around me,” <sup>b</sup>you shall surely set a king over you <sup>c</sup>whom the LORD your God chooses; <sup>d</sup>one <sup>e</sup>from among your brethren you shall set as king over you; you may not set a foreigner over you, who is not your brother. <sup>16</sup>But he shall not multiply <sup>f</sup>horses for himself, nor cause the people <sup>g</sup>to return to Egypt to multiply horses, for <sup>h</sup>the LORD has said to you, <sup>i</sup>“You shall not return that way again.” <sup>17</sup>Neither shall he multiply wives for himself, lest his heart turn away; nor shall he greatly multiply silver and <sup>j</sup>gold for himself.

17:12 acts presumptuously. It is presumptuous to ask for judgment and then to refuse to follow the verdict of the priests. It is both asking them to take the weight of the decision and then willfully disregarding that decision.

17:13 hear. To hear is to respond and obey.

17:14 a king. The regulations that follow anticipate the request that the Israelites would make for a king. At the time of Moses the Israelites were unique among nations. God Himself ruled them through appointed leaders, but there was no king.

18:10–12 pass through the fire . . . witchcraft. Each of the activities that the Lord forbids in this passage come under the category of occult activities. Passing through the fire was sacrificing a son or daughter to learn about the future or seek favor with a supposed deity. Divination, witchcraft, sorcery, casting spells

The Portion of the Priests and Levites

18“The priests, the Levites—all the tribe of Levi—shall have no part nor <sup>a</sup>inheritance with Israel; they shall eat the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and His portion. <sup>2</sup>Therefore they shall have no inheritance among their brethren; the LORD is their inheritance, as He said to them.

<sup>3</sup>“And this shall be the priest’s <sup>b</sup>due from the people, from those who offer a sacrifice, whether it is bull or sheep: they shall give to the priest the shoulder, the cheeks, and the stomach. <sup>4</sup>“The firstfruits of your grain and your new wine and your oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep, you shall give him. <sup>5</sup>For <sup>c</sup>the LORD your God has chosen him out of all your tribes <sup>d</sup>to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons forever.

<sup>6</sup>“So if a Levite comes from any of your gates, from where he dwells among all Israel, and comes with all the desire of his mind <sup>e</sup>to the place which the LORD chooses, <sup>7</sup>then he may serve in the name of the LORD his God <sup>f</sup>as all his brethren the Levites do, who stand there before the LORD. <sup>8</sup>They shall have equal <sup>g</sup>portions to eat, besides what comes from the sale of his inheritance.

Avoid Wicked Customs

and interpreting omens, mediums, spiritists, and necromancers (those who call up the dead) are all part of the demonic realm, an attempt to bypass God in foretelling and controlling the future. These activities are detestable to God and should be to His followers as well.

A New Prophet Like Moses

<sup>15p</sup>“The LORD your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from your midst, from your brethren. Him you shall hear, <sup>16</sup>according to all you desired of the LORD your God in Horeb <sup>q</sup>in the day of the assembly, saying, “Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, nor let me see this great fire anymore, lest I die.”

<sup>17</sup>“And the LORD said to me: <sup>s</sup>“What they have spoken is good. <sup>18t</sup>I will raise up for them a Prophet like you from among their brethren, and <sup>u</sup>will put My words in His mouth, <sup>v</sup>and He shall speak to them all that I command Him. <sup>19w</sup>And it shall be that whoever will not hear My words, which He speaks in My name, I will require it of him. <sup>20</sup>But <sup>x</sup>the prophet who presumes to speak a word in My name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or <sup>y</sup>who speaks in the name of other gods, that prophet shall die.” <sup>21</sup>And if you say in your heart, “How shall we know the word which the LORD has not spoken?”—<sup>22z</sup>when a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD, <sup>q</sup>if the thing does not happen or come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD has not spoken: the prophet has spoken it <sup>b</sup>presumptuously; you shall not be afraid of him.

Three Cities of Refuge

19 “When the LORD your God <sup>a</sup>has cut off the nations whose land the LORD your God is giving you, and you dispossess them and dwell in their cities and in their houses, <sup>2b</sup>you shall separate three cities for yourself in the midst of your land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess. <sup>3</sup>You shall prepare roads for yourself, and divide into three parts the territory of your land which the LORD your God is giving you to inherit, that any manslayer may flee there.

<sup>4</sup>“And <sup>c</sup>this is the case of the manslayer who flees there, that he may live: Whoever kills his neighbor unintentionally, not having hated him in time past—<sup>5</sup>as when a man goes to the woods with his neighbor to cut timber, and his hand swings a stroke with the ax to cut down the tree, and the head slips from the handle and strikes his neighbor so that he dies—he shall flee to one of these cities and live; <sup>6a</sup>lest the avenger of blood, while his anger is hot, pursue the manslayer and overtake him, because the way is long, and kill him, though he was not deserving of death, since he had not hated the victim in time past. <sup>7</sup>Therefore I command you, saying, “You shall separate three cities for yourself.”

<sup>8</sup>“Now if the LORD your God <sup>e</sup>enlarges your territory, as He swore to <sup>f</sup>your fathers, and gives you the land which He promised to give to your fathers, <sup>9</sup>and if you keep all these commandments and do them, which I command you today, to love the LORD your God and to walk always in His ways, <sup>10</sup>then you shall add three more cities for yourself besides these three, <sup>10b</sup>lest innocent blood be shed in the midst of your land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, and thus guilt of bloodshed be upon you.

<sup>11</sup>“But <sup>if</sup> anyone hates his neighbor, lies in wait for him, rises against him and strikes him mortally, so that he dies, and he flees to one of these cities, <sup>12</sup>then the elders of his city shall send and bring him from there, and deliver him over to the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die. <sup>13b</sup>Your eye shall not pity him, <sup>k</sup>but you shall put away the guilt of innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with you.

Property Boundaries

<sup>14l</sup>“You shall not remove your neighbor’s landmark, which the men of old have set, in your inheritance which you will inherit in the land that the LORD your God is giving you to possess.

18:15 raise up for you a Prophet. A true prophet came from the Lord; no one could become a true prophet by self-will or desire.

18:22 shall not be afraid of him. These words of warning for discerning a false prophet were also words of comfort. If the prophet did not come from God, there was no need to become anxious about whatever he might predict.

19:3–4 divide into three parts. The cities of refuge were intertribal cities. Anyone from any tribe could flee to the city that was closest to him.

19:6 avenger of blood. The avenger was possibly a relative commissioned by the elders of the city to execute justice. This Hebrew word is sometimes translated kinsman redeemer, and in this verse means “protector of family rights.” This individual also stood up for the family to redeem property and persons. The glory of Israel was that its Avenger and Kinsman Redeemer was God Himself (Is. 41:14).

19:9–13 keep all these. The people of Israel were about to enter a land where they would be exposed to ideas and practices in the name of religion that God says are an abomination. The temptation to imitate would be great, but they must not do so. The believer is not different from his world for the sake of difference, but because he must not imitate the things that are inconsistent with a life of fellowship with a holy and just God. Copying the ways of the ungodly not only grieves the Lord, but it mars the picture He is making of Himself in the lives of those who follow Him.

19:14 remove your neighbor’s landmark. Removing a landmark was far more than moving a stone. It

The Law Concerning Witnesses

<sup>15m</sup>“One witness shall not rise against a man concerning any iniquity or any sin that he commits; by the mouth of two or three witnesses the matter shall be established.

Principles Governing Warfare

20 “When you go out to battle against your enemies, and see <sup>o</sup>horses and chariots and people more numerous than you, do not be <sup>b</sup>afraid of them; for the LORD your God is <sup>c</sup>with you, who brought you up from the land of Egypt. <sup>2</sup>So it shall be, when you are on the verge of battle, that the priest shall approach and speak to the people. <sup>3</sup>And he shall say to them, ‘Hear, O Israel: Today you are on the verge of battle with your enemies. Do not let your heart faint, do not be afraid, and do not tremble or be terrified because of them; <sup>4</sup>for the LORD your God is He who goes with you, <sup>d</sup>to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.’

<sup>5</sup>“Then the officers shall speak to the people, saying: ‘What man is there who has built a new house and has not <sup>e</sup>dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man dedicate it. <sup>6</sup>Also what man is there who has planted a vineyard and has not eaten of it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man eat of it. <sup>7</sup>And what man is there who is betrothed to a woman and has not married her? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man marry her.’

<sup>8</sup>“The officers shall speak further to the people, and say, <sup>g</sup>“What man is there who is fearful and fainthearted? Let him go and return to his house, lest the heart of his brethren faint* like his heart.’ <sup>9</sup>And so it shall be, when the officers have finished speaking to the people, that they shall make captains of the armies to lead the people.

<sup>10</sup>“When you go near a city to fight against it, <sup>h</sup>then proclaim an offer of peace to it. <sup>11</sup>And it shall be that if they accept your offer of peace, and open to you, then all the people who are found in it shall be placed under tribute to you, and serve you. <sup>12</sup>Now if the city will not make peace with you, but war against you, then you shall besiege it. <sup>13</sup>And when the LORD your God delivers it into your hands, <sup>i</sup>you shall strike every male in it with the edge of the sword. <sup>14</sup>But the women, the little ones, <sup>j</sup>the livestock, and all that is in the city, all its spoil, you shall plunder for yourself; and <sup>k</sup>you shall eat the enemies’ plunder which the LORD your God gives you. <sup>15</sup>Thus you shall do to all the cities which are very far from you, which are not of the cities of these nations.

<sup>16</sup>“But <sup>l</sup>of the cities of these peoples which the LORD your God gives you as an inheritance, you shall let nothing that breathes remain alive, <sup>17</sup>but you shall utterly destroy them: the Hittite and the Amorite and the Canaanite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite, just as the LORD your God has commanded you, <sup>18</sup>lest <sup>m</sup>they teach you to do according to all their abominations which they have done for their gods, and you <sup>n</sup>sin against the LORD your God.

<sup>19</sup>“When you besiege a city for a long time, while making war against it to take it, was changing a property line and in effect cheating some family out of the inheritance of land that God had given them.

*20:8 Following Masoretic Text and Targum; Samaritan Pentateuch, Septuagint, Syriac, and Vulgate read lest he make his brother's heart faint.

19:15 by the mouth of two or three witnesses. Requiring two or three witnesses was a safeguard against the dangerous lies of an individual.

19:21 life shall be for life, eye for eye. The law of retribution established the principle that the punishment should not exceed the crime.

20:5–7 build a new house . . . planted a vineyard . . . betrothed to a woman. Each of these activities represents a time of planning and preparation that has not yet been fulfilled. The Lord graciously acknowledges that it is right for people to have a chance to enjoy the fruits of their labor before they risk their lives for the nation.

20:8 fearful and fainthearted. Unlike the previous situations, the fearful and fainthearted endanger their fellow soldiers. The number of warriors was not as important as the army's belief that God was fighting for them.

20:17 utterly destroy. This was not just a symbolic war; the entire Canaanite population was to be destroyed.

20:18 lest they teach you. The principal concern of the Lord was for the welfare of His people. The Canaanite population in the land was like a deadly tumor eating away at the body. If the tumor was cut

The Law Concerning Unsolved Murder

21 <sup>a</sup>"If anyone is found slain, lying in the field in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess, and it is not known who killed him, <sup>b</sup>then your elders and your judges shall go out and measure the distance from the slain man to the surrounding cities. <sup>c</sup>And it shall be that the elders of the city nearest to the slain man will take a heifer which has not been worked and which has not pulled with a yoke. <sup>d</sup>The elders of that city shall bring the heifer down to a valley with flowing water, which is neither plowed nor sown, and they shall break the heifer's neck there in the valley. <sup>e</sup>Then the priests, the sons of Levi, shall come near, for <sup>f</sup>the LORD your God has chosen them to minister to Him and to bless in the name of the LORD; <sup>g</sup>by their word every controversy and every assault shall be settled. <sup>h</sup>And all the elders of that city nearest to the slain man <sup>i</sup>shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley. <sup>j</sup>Then they shall answer and say, 'Our hands have not shed this blood, nor have our eyes seen it. <sup>k</sup>Provide atonement, O LORD, for Your people Israel, whom You have redeemed, and do not lay innocent blood to the charge of Your people Israel.' And atonement shall be provided on their behalf for the blood. <sup>l</sup>So you shall put away the guilt of innocent blood from among you when you do what is right in the sight of the LORD.

Female Captives

<sup>10</sup>"When you go out to war against your enemies, and the LORD your God delivers them into your hand, and you take them captive, <sup>11</sup>and you see among the captives a beautiful woman, and desire her and would take her for your wife, <sup>12</sup>then you shall bring her home to your house, and she shall <sup>13</sup>shave her head and trim her nails. <sup>14</sup>She shall put off the clothes of her captivity, remain in your house, and <sup>15</sup>mourn her father and her mother a full month; after that you may go in to her and be her husband, and she shall be your wife. <sup>16</sup>And it shall be, if you have no delight in her, then you shall set her free, but you certainly shall not sell her for money; you shall not treat her brutally, because you have <sup>17</sup>humbled her.

Firstborn Inheritance Rights

<sup>15</sup>"If a man has two wives, one loved <sup>k</sup>and the other unloved, and they have borne him children, both the loved and the unloved, and if the firstborn son is of her who is unloved, <sup>16</sup>then it shall be, <sup>17</sup>on the day he bequeaths his possessions to his sons, that he must not bestow firstborn status on the son of the loved wife in preference to the son of the unloved, the true firstborn. <sup>18</sup>But he shall acknowledge the son of the unloved wife as the firstborn <sup>m</sup>by giving him a double portion of all that he has, for he <sup>n</sup>is the beginning of his strength; <sup>19</sup>the right of the firstborn is his.

The Rebellious Son

out, the body could live. No one could thrive in that land as a follower of God as long as the Canaanites were there.

21:1–9 anyone is found slain. Although the people were innocent of the act and of any knowledge of the actual death of this individual, the elders must still ask the Lord for forgiveness for the shedding of innocent blood. An honest attempt must be made to find justice and to say, "We know this was wrong." God is teaching His people about an active social conscience in this passage. When we know that an innocent party has been wronged we are not to turn our backs and say that we are not involved. Even the simple act of publicly saying that such action is not pleasing to God is effective in reminding those who hear that God sees all and will judge the perpetrators of sin at some point.

21:15 two wives. Polygamy was commonly practiced in the cultures of the ancient Middle East and was assumed in the law of Moses. It is apparently something that God allowed, as He did divorce (Matt. 19:3–9), but from the beginning it was not that way.

21:16 firstborn. A father was expected to show consideration for the firstborn child, regardless of his attitude toward the child's mother.

Miscellaneous Laws

<sup>22</sup>"If a man has committed a sin <sup>1</sup>deserving of death, and he is put to death, and you hang him on a tree, <sup>23</sup>his body shall not remain overnight on the tree, but you shall surely bury him that day, so that <sup>4</sup>you do not defile the land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance; for <sup>4</sup>he who is hanged is accursed of God.

22 "You <sup>a</sup>shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep going astray, and hide yourself from them; you shall certainly bring them back to your brother. <sup>2</sup>And if your brother is not near you, or if you do not know him, then you shall bring it to your own house, and it shall remain with you until your brother seeks it; then you shall restore it to him. <sup>3</sup>You shall do the same with his donkey, and so shall you do with his garment; with any lost thing of your brother's, which he has lost and you have found, you shall do likewise; you must not hide yourself.

<sup>4b</sup>"You shall not see your brother's donkey or his ox fall down along the road, and hide yourself from them; you shall surely help him lift them up again.

<sup>5</sup>"A woman shall not wear anything that pertains to a man, nor shall a man put on a woman's garment, for all who do so are an abomination to the LORD your God.

<sup>6</sup>"If a bird's nest happens to be before you along the way, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs, with the mother sitting on the young or on the eggs, <sup>c</sup>you shall not take the mother with the young; <sup>7</sup>you shall surely let the mother go, and take the young for yourself, <sup>d</sup>that it may be well with you and that you may prolong your days.

<sup>8</sup>"When you build a new house, then you shall make a parapet for your roof, that you may not bring guilt of bloodshed on your household if anyone falls from it.

Laws of Sexual Morality

<sup>13</sup>"If any man takes a wife, and goes in to her, and <sup>i</sup>detests her, <sup>14</sup>and charges her with shameful conduct, and brings a bad name on her, and says, 'I took this woman, and when I came to her I found she was not a virgin,' <sup>15</sup>then the father and mother of the young woman shall take and bring out the evidence of the young woman's virginity to the elders of the city at the gate.

<sup>16</sup>And the young woman's father shall say to the elders, 'I gave my daughter to this man as wife, and he detests her. <sup>17</sup>Now he has charged her with shameful conduct, saying, "I found your daughter was not a virgin," and yet these are the evidences of my daughter's virginity.' And they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city. <sup>18</sup>Then the elders of that city shall take that man and punish him; <sup>19</sup>and they shall fine him one hundred shekels of silver and give them to the father of the young woman, because he has brought a bad name on a virgin of Israel. And she shall be his wife; he cannot divorce her all his days.

22:1–4 Kindness—In the same way that God cares for us, we are to care for others. If we see a kindness that we can do for another, we are to do it cheerfully and willingly. Receiving an act of kindness is heartwarming; doing such an act is a great joy.

22:8 parapet. The parapet was a low wall around the edge of the roof. The rooftop was used as an extra room, and if the home owner did not provide safety measures, he would be responsible for any accidents.

22:11 wool and linen . . . together. These restrictions were a reminder that the Hebrews were not a mixed people. They were separated to God and they were not to mix with other nations, nor were they to mix two kinds of animals, grain, or fabric. It was part of the concept of purity that governed every aspect of life.

22:14 brings a bad name on her. Charging her indicated a public accusation. Virginity was highly regarded, for if the legitimacy of children was disputable, inheritance rights and positions in family would also be disputed. It is easy to determine the mother of a child, for pregnancy is obvious, but determining the father of the child was a matter of trust that the wife was faithful to marriage vows.

Those Excluded from the Congregation

23 “He who is emasculated by crushing or mutilation shall <sup>24</sup>not enter the assembly of the LORD.

<sup>3b</sup>“An Ammonite or Moabite shall not enter the assembly of the LORD; even to the tenth generation none of his descendants shall enter the assembly of the LORD forever, <sup>4c</sup>because they did not meet you with bread and water on the road when you came out of Egypt, and <sup>4b</sup>because they hired against you Balaam the son of Beor from Pethor of Mesopotamia,* to curse you. <sup>5</sup>Nevertheless the LORD your God would not listen to Balaam, but the LORD your God turned the curse into a blessing for you, because the LORD your God <sup>6</sup>loves you. <sup>6f</sup>You shall not seek their peace nor their prosperity all your days forever.

<sup>7</sup>“You shall not abhor an Edomite, <sup>8f</sup>for he is your brother. You shall not abhor an Egyptian, because <sup>8b</sup>you were an alien in his land. <sup>8</sup>The children of the third generation born to them may enter the assembly of the LORD.

Cleanliness of the Campsite

<sup>9</sup>“When the army goes out against your enemies, then keep yourself from every wicked thing. <sup>10</sup>If there is any man among you who becomes unclean by some occurrence in the night, then he shall go outside the camp; he shall not come inside the camp. <sup>11</sup>But it shall be, when evening comes, that <sup>11b</sup>he shall wash with water; and when the sun sets, he may come into the camp.

<sup>12</sup>“Also you shall have a place outside the camp, where you may go out; <sup>13</sup>and you shall have an implement among your equipment, and when you sit down outside, you shall dig with it and turn and cover your refuse. <sup>14</sup>For the LORD your God <sup>14b</sup>walks in the midst of your camp, to deliver you and give your enemies over to you; therefore your camp shall be holy, that He may see no unclean thing among you, and turn away from you.

Miscellaneous Laws

<sup>15</sup>“You shall not give back to his master the slave who has escaped from his master to you. <sup>16</sup>He may dwell with you in your midst, in the place which he chooses within one of your gates, where it seems best to him; <sup>17</sup>you shall not oppress him.

<sup>17</sup>“There shall be no ritual harlot<sup>n</sup> of the daughters of Israel, or a <sup>18</sup>“perverted* one of the sons of Israel. <sup>18</sup>You shall not bring the wages of a harlot or the price of a dog to the house of the LORD your God for any vowed offering, for both of these are an abomination to the LORD your God.

23:1 emasculated. An emasculated man had had all or part of the sexual organs removed. This was done to men who were put in charge of harems to prevent sexual relations with the women. It was also a pagan practice. Genital mutilation was prohibited in Israel.

23:17 harlot . . . perverted. The cult prostitute was used for the worship of the Canaanite gods and goddesses of fertility. They believed that having intimate relations with the cult prostitutes (either male or female) would bring fertility to their families, fields, and herds. This debased system of worship was one of the reasons God had decided to utterly destroy this group of people.

23:18 wages of a harlot . . . price of a dog. God did not need or want money earned by such practices that He called abominations. “Dogs” does not refer to the animal. It is still insulting in the Middle East to call a person a dog, and “dogs” are listed with sorcerers, immoral persons, murderers, idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices lying, as those who are outside the heavenly city (Rev. 22:15).

Law Concerning Divorce

24 “When a <sup>a</sup>man takes a wife and marries her, and it happens that she finds no favor in his eyes because he has found some uncleanness in her, and he writes her a <sup>b</sup>certificate of divorce, puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house, <sup>2</sup>when she has departed from his house, and goes and becomes another man’s wife, <sup>3</sup>if the latter husband detests her and writes her a certificate of divorce, puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house, or if the latter husband dies who took her as his wife, <sup>4c</sup>then her former husband who divorced her must not take her back to be his wife after she has been defiled; for that is an abomination before the LORD, and you shall not bring sin on the land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

Miscellaneous Laws

<sup>5d</sup>“When a man has taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war or be charged with any business; he shall be free at home one year, and <sup>e</sup>bring happiness to his wife whom he has taken.

<sup>6</sup>“No man shall take the lower or the upper millstone in pledge, for he takes one’s living in pledge.

<sup>7</sup>“If a man is <sup>f</sup>found kidnapping any of his brethren of the children of Israel, and mistreats him or sells him, then that kidnapper shall die; <sup>g</sup>and you shall put away the evil from among you.

<sup>8</sup>“Take heed in <sup>h</sup>an outbreak of leprosy, that you carefully observe and do according to all that the priests, the Levites, shall teach you; just as I commanded them, so you shall be careful to do. <sup>9</sup>Remember what the LORD your God did <sup>i</sup>to Miriam on the way when you came out of Egypt!

23:21 vow. A vow was purely voluntary, and not necessary for the development of godliness. But if a vow was made, it must be kept.

24:1–4 a certificate of divorce. Marriage was instituted by God (Gen. 2:24). It was intended to be a union of one man and one woman for life. And yet, the Mosaic law allowed divorce, even though God said through His prophet Malachi (Mal. 2:16) that He hates divorce. When the Pharisees were asking Jesus about divorce, Jesus explained that it had not been so designed in the beginning, but “because of the hardness of your hearts” Moses had allowed it. Then Jesus raised the standard set by Moses, saying that those whom God had joined, no man should separate. With the death and resurrection of Christ, all believers receive the Holy Spirit, and it is at this point that hard hearts are changed.

24:4 defiled. Returning to her first husband after an intervening marriage might have placed the woman in the same position as an unfaithful wife.

24:6 millstone. A pair of millstones was used for grinding grain into flour. The flour was ground between two stones, and to deprive a household of the use of one of the stones was to deprive them of the necessities of daily life.

24:8 leprosy. Leprosy refers to a variety of infectious skin diseases. The disease known today as leprosy, Hansen’s disease, is different from the diseases described here.

25 “If there is a <sup>a</sup>dispute between men, and they come to court, that the judges may judge them, and they <sup>b</sup>justify the righteous and condemn the wicked, <sup>2</sup>then it shall be, if the wicked man <sup>c</sup>deserves to be beaten, that the judge will cause him to lie down <sup>d</sup>and be beaten in his presence, according to his guilt, with a certain number of blows. <sup>3e</sup>Forty blows he may give him and no more, lest he should exceed this and beat him with many blows above these, and your brother <sup>f</sup>be humiliated in your sight.

Marriage Duty of the Surviving Brother

<sup>5h</sup>“If brothers dwell together, and one of them dies and has no son, the widow of the dead man shall not be married to a stranger outside the family; her husband's brother shall go in to her, take her as his wife, and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her. <sup>6</sup>And it shall be that the firstborn son which she bears <sup>i</sup>will succeed to the name of his dead brother, that <sup>j</sup>his name may not be blotted out of Israel. <sup>7</sup>But if the man does not want to take his brother's wife, then let his brother's wife go up to the <sup>k</sup>gate to the elders, and say, ‘My husband's brother refuses to raise up a name to his brother in Israel; he will not perform the duty of my husband's brother.’ <sup>8</sup>Then the elders of his city shall call him and speak to him. But if he stands firm and says, ‘I do not want to take her,’ <sup>9</sup>then his brother's wife shall come to him in the presence of the elders, <sup>m</sup>remove his sandal from his foot, spit in his face, and answer and say, ‘So shall it be done to the man who will not <sup>n</sup>build up his brother's house.’ <sup>10</sup>And his name shall be called in Israel, ‘The house of him who had his sandal removed.’

Miscellaneous Laws

<sup>13p</sup>“You shall not have in your bag differing weights, a heavy and a light. <sup>14</sup>You shall not have in your house differing measures, a large and a small. <sup>15</sup>You shall have a perfect and just weight, a perfect and just measure, <sup>q</sup>that your days may be lengthened in the land which the LORD your God is giving you. <sup>16</sup>For <sup>r</sup>all who do such things, all who behave unrighteously, are an abomination to the LORD your God.

Destroy the Amalekites

<sup>17s</sup>“Remember what Amalek did to you on the way as you were coming out of Egypt, <sup>18</sup>how he met you on the way and attacked your rear ranks, all the stragglers at your rear, when you were tired and weary; and he <sup>t</sup>did not fear God. <sup>19</sup>Therefore it shall be, <sup>u</sup>when the LORD your God has given you rest from your enemies all around, in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess as an inheritance, that you will <sup>v</sup>blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven. You shall not forget.

25:3 Forty blows. Later Jewish law restricted the number to forty minus one (2 Cor. 11:24) to make sure that the authorities remained within the set limits.

25:4 not muzzle an ox. Muzzling kept the animal from eating while it worked. Later the apostle Paul used this law as a principle for providing a living for those who spend their lives preaching the gospel (1 Tim. 5:18).

25:5 dies and has no son. The firstborn son of the marriage would be acknowledged as the legal son of the dead brother. Taking a brother's widow as a second wife provided her with care, and preserved the name, position, and inheritance of the dead brother.

25:7–10 does not want to take. Legally the brother-in-law was bound to keep the family name alive. His unwillingness to do so was a public issue, involving the elders of the community. The removal of the sandal was a sign of giving up of one's rights, and spitting was a strong act of public contempt.

25:19 blot out the remembrance. The Amalekites would in effect come under the same ban as the Canaanite nations. The fact that they did not fear God made them a stumbling block to any nation that was following God.

Offerings of Firstfruits and Tithes

26 “And it shall be, when you come into the land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, and you possess it and dwell in it, <sup>2a</sup>that you shall take some of the first of all the produce of the ground, which you shall bring from your land that the LORD your God is giving you, and put it in a basket and <sup>b</sup>go to the place where the LORD your God chooses to make His name abide. <sup>3</sup>And you shall go to the one who is priest in those days, and say to him, ‘I declare today to the LORD your* God that I have come to the country which the LORD swore to our fathers to give us.’

<sup>4</sup>Then the priest shall take the basket out of your hand and set it down before the altar of the LORD your God. <sup>5</sup>And you shall answer and say before the LORD your God: ‘My father was <sup>c</sup>a Syrian,* <sup>d</sup>about to perish, and <sup>e</sup>he went down to Egypt and dwelt there, <sup>f</sup>few in number; and there he became a nation, <sup>g</sup>great, mighty, and populous. <sup>6</sup>But the <sup>h</sup>Egyptians mistreated us, afflicted us, and laid hard bondage on us. <sup>7</sup>Then we cried out to the LORD God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our voice and looked on our affliction and our labor and our oppression. <sup>8</sup>So <sup>i</sup>the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and with an outstretched arm, <sup>k</sup>with great terror and with signs and wonders. <sup>9</sup>He has brought us to this place and has given us this land, <sup>l</sup>“a land flowing with milk and honey”;* <sup>10</sup>and now, behold, I have brought the firstfruits of the land which you, O LORD, have given me.’

“Then you shall set it before the LORD your God, and worship before the LORD your God. <sup>11</sup>So <sup>m</sup>you shall rejoice in every good thing which the LORD your God has given to you and your house, you and the Levite and the stranger who is among you.

<sup>12</sup>“When you have finished laying aside all the <sup>n</sup>tithe of your increase in the third year—the year of tithing—and have given it to the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, so that they may eat within your gates and be filled, <sup>13</sup>then you shall say before the LORD your God: ‘I have removed the holy tithe from my house, and also have given them to the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, according to all Your commandments which You have commanded me; I have not transgressed Your commandments, <sup>n</sup>nor have I forgotten them. <sup>14a</sup>I have not eaten any of it when in mourning, nor have I removed any of it for an unclean use, nor given any of it for the dead. I have obeyed the voice of the LORD my God, and have done according to all that You have commanded me. <sup>15</sup>Look down from Your holy habitation, from heaven, and bless Your people Israel and the land which You have given us, just as You swore to our fathers, <sup>s</sup>“a land flowing with milk and honey.”’*<sup>16</sup>

A Special People of God

<sup>16</sup>“This day the LORD your God commands you to observe these statutes and judgments; therefore you shall be careful to observe them with all your heart and with all your soul. <sup>17</sup>Today you have <sup>t</sup>proclaimed the LORD to be your God, and that you will walk in His ways and keep His statutes, His commandments, and His judgments, and that you will <sup>u</sup>obey His voice. <sup>18</sup>Also today <sup>v</sup>the LORD has proclaimed you to be His special people, just as He promised you, that you should keep all His commandments, <sup>19</sup>and that He will set you <sup>w</sup>high above all nations which He has made, in praise, in name, and in honor, and that you may be <sup>x</sup>a holy people to the LORD your God, just as He has spoken.”

The Law Inscribed on Stones

26:5 Syrian. This is a reference to Jacob, whose parents’ ancestral home was in Syria (Gen. 24:1–10).

26:8 mighty hand . . . outstretched arm. God with His own hand demonstrated His power to the Egyptians and delivered the Israelites. The idea of God rescuing His people with His mighty arm is repeated in Isaiah 62 and 63.

26:10 I have brought. When the worshiper made a statement of what he was doing (see v. 13), he was taking responsibility for the items he was presenting to the Lord, not just blindly following a set form.

26:15 Your holy habitation. People direct their prayers to heaven, acknowledging at the same time that God is everywhere (Is. 66:1–2). Heaven most often refers to the dwelling place of God and the holy angels. Heaven is the place from which Christ came when He came to earth and He returned there after He was resurrected (Acts 1:11). One day He will come from heaven back to earth (Matt. 24:30) and heaven will ultimately be the home of all believers (1 Pet. 1:4). Heaven is the place where the will of God is perfectly done, so it is a place of hope and inspiration.

26:16 with all your heart and with all your soul. This is a regular emphasis in Deuteronomy. God wants obedience, but He wants it to be the obedience of the engaged heart and mind.

27:7 peace offerings. Many of the sacrifices had to do with sin, repentance, and making things right with God. This particular sacrifice was a time to be thankful and to rejoice in the good care of God.

27:11–13 Mount Gerizim . . . Mount Ebal. Mount Gerizim, the mountain of blessing, is usually covered with vegetation. Mount Ebal, the mountain of cursing, is a barren peak. The visual contrast made a memorable object lesson.

27:26 confirm all the words of this law by observing them. All of the actions listed in the curses are contrary to the law, as explained in the Book of Leviticus.

28:1–9 diligently obey. This passage repeatedly emphasizes the Israelites' responsibility to obey. God had already saved them from slavery, made them His people, promised to be their God, and to give them a land to dwell in. But the blessings would only come with Israel's obedience. Sadly, Israel failed again and again to follow God. It was only after Christ that the followers of God could have the new Spirit which enabled them to obey from the heart (Rom. 7).

28:15–19 Disobedience—The price of disobedience is always more than one can imagine in the beginning. It is not only the loss of peace or blessing, great as that may be, but there is also the loss of all that might have been. In God’s plan the obedience is for the benefit of the follower of God, for the benefit of those who are watching and are influenced by this follower, and for the kingdom of God. If the follower disobeys, he may see how his actions affect himself, but he cannot know what other blessings are lost in the wider sphere of his own influence. It is a terrible thing to find oneself in the position of working against God.

28:20–57 cursing, confusion, and rebuke. Disobedience brings suffering, and this suffering often spills over onto other people, even into future generations. The suffering is a wake-up call, something that is meant to remind the disobedient that they are living against God, and that they need to repent, turn to God, and ask for help. The problem is, that often the disobedient have a skewed idea of who God is and what He desires, so they blame God and become more rebellious. There is another kind of suffering as well. This is the suffering of the innocent, as in the

28:30 betroth a wife . . . build a house . . . plant a vineyard. Each of these momentous events of life were reasons to be excused from service in the army (20:5–7), yet if the Israelites were disobedient, life itself would prevent them from realizing the fruits of their labors.

28:52–57 besiege you at all your gates. Moses forewarned the people of the terrible stresses of sieges (2 Kin. 6:24–31; Lam. 2:20; 4:10). The horrors of hunger

The Covenant Renewed in Moab

29 These are the words of the <sup>a</sup>covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which He made with them in Horeb.

<sup>2</sup>Now Moses called all Israel and said to them: <sup>b</sup>“You have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and to all his servants and to all his land—<sup>3</sup>*c*the great trials which your eyes have seen, the signs, and those great wonders. <sup>4</sup>Yet <sup>d</sup>the LORD has not given you a heart to perceive and eyes to see and ears to hear, to this very day. <sup>5</sup>*e*And I have led you forty years in the wilderness. <sup>f</sup>Your clothes have not worn out on you, and your sandals have not worn out on your feet. <sup>6</sup>*g*You have not eaten bread, nor have you drunk wine or similar drink, that you may know that I am the LORD your God. <sup>7</sup>And when you came to this place, <sup>h</sup>Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan came out against us to battle, and we conquered them. <sup>8</sup>We took their land and <sup>i</sup>gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Manasseh. <sup>9</sup>Therefore <sup>j</sup>keep the words of this covenant, and do them, that you may <sup>k</sup>prosper in all that you do.

<sup>10</sup>“All of you stand today before the LORD your God: your leaders and your tribes and your elders and your officers, all the men of Israel, <sup>11</sup>your little ones and your wives—also the stranger who is in your camp, from <sup>l</sup>the one who cuts your wood to the one who draws your water—<sup>12</sup>*t*hat you may enter into covenant with the LORD your God, and <sup>m</sup>into His oath, which the LORD your God makes with you today, <sup>13</sup>*t*hat He may <sup>n</sup>establish you today as a people for Himself, and that He may be God to you. <sup>14</sup>*u*just as He has spoken to you, and <sup>v</sup>just as He has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

29:10–15 The Covenant Renewed—As Israel reached the plains of Moab, anticipating their entrance into the Promised Land, it was important for the people to review and renew their covenantal relationship with God. So Moses summoned the people together and challenged them to keep the covenant that God had established with their forefathers. The essential terms of the covenant gave Israel the stone and silver and gold); <sup>18</sup>so that there may not be among you man or woman or family or tribe, <sup>19</sup>whose heart turns away today from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations, <sup>20</sup>and that there may not be among you a root bearing <sup>21</sup>bitterness or wormwood; <sup>22</sup>and so it may not happen, when he hears the words of this curse, that he blesses himself in his heart, saying, 'I shall have peace, even though I follow the <sup>23</sup>'dictates' of my heart'—was though the drunkard could be included with the sober.

this land? What does the heat of this great anger mean?” <sup>25</sup>Then people would say: ‘Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them out of the land of Egypt; <sup>26</sup>for they went and served other gods and worshiped them, gods that they did not know and that He had not given to them. <sup>27</sup>Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against this land, <sup>28</sup>to bring on it every curse that is written in this book. <sup>29</sup>And the LORD <sup>30</sup>uprooted them from their land in anger, in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day.’

<sup>29</sup>“The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but those things which are revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law.

The Blessing of Returning to God

30 “Now <sup>1</sup>it shall come to pass, when <sup>2</sup>all these things come upon you, the blessing and the curse which I have set before you, and <sup>3</sup>you call them to mind among all the nations where the LORD your God drives you, <sup>4</sup>and you <sup>5</sup>return to the LORD your God and obey His voice, according to all that I command you today, you and your children, with all your heart and with all your soul, <sup>6</sup>that the LORD your God will bring you back from captivity,

* 29:19 Or stubbornness

Promised Land and prosperity in their possession of it, but only on the condition of their obedience and willingness to walk in God's ways.

29:18 heart turns away. To be in the position of once having known the way of the Lord, and then to have turned and followed a path of disobedience and rebellion is a miserable position. It is the cause of great heartache for the faithful ones who see it happening. The backslider becomes more and more hardened against God, and it will ultimately affect a wider and wider group of people. There is no security or safety while persisting in a course of flagrant and continuous rebellion. root bearing bitterness or wormwood. Tolerance for idolatry and pagan practices would always corrupt the community, and therefore the covenant relationship with God.

29:24–28 Why has the LORD done so. The lesson of faithless Israel would become known among the nations, even as the deliverance of Israel was to be known by them.

29:29 Revelation—Revelation may be defined as that process by which God gives to us truths that we would not otherwise know. The details of the creation story in Genesis 1 and 2 are an example of general revelation. In that man was not created until the sixth day, there was no human to even write about creation until after it happened. God revealed the creation facts to Moses. All created things have an innate knowledge of their Creator through creation itself.

We know God spoke to the human authors of our Bible. We are not sure exactly how it happened, but Scripture gives some examples of specific revelation. God's call to Samuel was in an audible voice he mistook for Eli's (1 Sam. 3). Often God spoke through angels such as when Gabriel was sent to tell Mary she would give birth to the Messiah (Luke 1:26–37). On other occasions it appears that God spoke directly to a man, as He did to Noah (Gen. 6) and Moses through the burning bush (Ex. 3). On still other occasions God communicated through dreams or visions as He did with the wise men (Matt. 2:12) and Peter (Acts 10).

One of the most important ways God reveals Himself to people in Scripture is through encounters where God takes on human form called a theophany or Christophany. In Genesis 32 Jacob wrestled with God, and in Joshua 5 Joshua encounters a commander of the Lord's that most Bible students take to be a preincarnate Christ.

30:1 when all these things come upon you. God had allowed Moses to foresee Israel's future apostasy and God's dispersal of the people among the nations. Hundreds of years later, these verses must have been both sad and encouraging to the Israelites as they saw the time of their dispersal.

He will prosper you and multiply you more than your fathers. <sup>6</sup>And <sup>i</sup>the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your descendants, to love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live.

<sup>7</sup>Also the LORD your God will put all these <sup>j</sup>curse on your enemies and on those who hate you, who persecuted you. <sup>8</sup>And you will <sup>k</sup>again obey the voice of the LORD and do all His commandments which I command you today. <sup>9l</sup>The LORD your God will make you abound in all the work of your hand, in the fruit of your body, in the increase of your livestock, and in the produce of your land for good. For the LORD will again <sup>m</sup>rejoice over you for good as He rejoiced over your fathers. <sup>10</sup>If you obey the voice of the LORD your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in this Book of the Law, and if you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

The Choice of Life or Death

<sup>11</sup>“For this commandment which I command you today <sup>n</sup>is not too mysterious for you, nor is it far off. <sup>12o</sup>It is not in heaven, that you should say, ‘Who will ascend into heaven for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?’ <sup>13</sup>Nor is it beyond the sea, that you should say, ‘Who will go over the sea for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?’ <sup>14</sup>But the word is very near you, <sup>p</sup>in your mouth and in your heart, that you may do it.

<sup>15</sup>“See, <sup>q</sup>I have set before you today life and good, death and evil, <sup>16</sup>in that I command you today to love the LORD your God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commandments, His statutes, and His judgments, that you may live and multiply; and the LORD your God will bless you in the land which you go to possess. <sup>17</sup>But if your heart turns away so that you do not hear, and are drawn away, and worship other gods and serve them, <sup>18r</sup>I announce to you today that you shall surely perish; you shall not prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Jordan to go in and possess. <sup>19s</sup>I call heaven and earth as witnesses today against you, that <sup>t</sup>I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing; therefore choose life, that both you and your descendants may live; <sup>20</sup>that you may love the LORD your God, that you may obey His voice, and that you may cling to Him, for He is your <sup>u</sup>life and the length of your days; and that you may dwell in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give them.”

Joshua the New Leader of Israel

31 Then Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel. <sup>2</sup>And he said to them: “I <sup>a</sup>am one hundred and twenty years old today. I can no longer <sup>b</sup>go out and come in. Also the LORD has said to me, <sup>c</sup>‘You shall not cross over this Jordan.’ <sup>3</sup>The LORD your God <sup>d</sup>Himself crosses over before you; He will destroy these nations from before you, and you shall dispossess them. <sup>e</sup>Joshua himself crosses over before you, just <sup>f</sup>as the LORD has said. <sup>4g</sup>And the LORD will do to them <sup>h</sup>as He did to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites and their land, when He destroyed them. <sup>5i</sup>The LORD

30:6 circumcise your heart. God’s intentions for His people have always been for the whole person to respond to Him. Outward symbols, such as circumcision, were always intended to be the mark of an inner reality, the heart that was tender to the Lord.

30:10 this Book of the Law. A reference to the Book of Deuteronomy. all your heart . . . all your soul. An open heart in the presence of God through the law creates a dynamic of “life” and “blessing” (v. 19).

30:11 not too mysterious for you. This is not a task that is hard to understand.

30:12–13 not in heaven . . . beyond the sea. Obeying God’s law is entirely within the reach of the average person.

30:14 very near you. The revelation of God, unlike any other book, makes the truth of immediate importance to the reader.

30:18 today. Moses establishes here the best pattern for the preaching of the Word of God. Responses to God should not be delayed. Assuming that there will be a later day to respond to Him is dangerous thinking.

30:19 life and death. Biblical teaching is remarkable for the clarity with which it presents the great issues that demand decision. Either we love the Lord and walk in His ways, or we turn from Him to worship idols. We can choose life or death, blessing or cursing. God takes no pleasure in the misery of sinners, but urges us to choose life for our good and the good of unborn generations. The Lord has spoken, and we cannot plead ignorance. and your descendants. The present generation’s choice always determines the direction of future generations.

31:2–3 You shall not cross over this Jordan. Moses spoke regretfully of God’s refusal to permit him to enter the Promised Land, yet he continued to make the most important point of all. The leadership of God Himself would not cease with Moses’ death.

will give them over to you, that you may do to them according to every commandment which I have commanded you. <sup>6</sup>Be strong and of good courage, <sup>7</sup>do not fear nor be afraid of them; for the LORD your God, <sup>8</sup>He is the One who goes with you. <sup>9</sup>He will not leave you nor forsake you.”

<sup>7</sup>Then Moses called Joshua and said to him in the sight of all Israel, <sup>8</sup>“Be strong and of good courage, for you must go with this people to the land which the LORD has sworn to their fathers to give them, and you shall cause them to inherit it. <sup>9</sup>And the LORD, <sup>10</sup>He is the One who goes before you. <sup>11</sup>He will be with you. He will not leave you nor forsake you; do not fear nor be dismayed.”

The Law to Be Read Every Seven Years

Prediction of Israel's Rebellion

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>15</sup>“Behold, the days approach when you must die; call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tabernacle of meeting, that <sup>16</sup>I may inaugurate him.”

So Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves in the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>15</sup>Now <sup>16</sup>the LORD appeared at the tabernacle in a pillar of cloud, and the pillar of cloud stood above the door of the tabernacle.

<sup>19</sup>“Now therefore, write down this song for yourselves, and teach it to the children of Israel; put it in their mouths, that this song may be <sup>20</sup>a witness for Me against the children of Israel. <sup>21</sup>When I have brought them to the land flowing with milk and honey, of which I swore to their fathers, and they have eaten and filled themselves <sup>22</sup>and grown fat, <sup>23</sup>then they will turn to other gods and serve them; and they will provoke Me and break My covenant. <sup>24</sup>Then it shall be, <sup>25</sup>when many evils and troubles have come upon them, that this song will testify against them as a witness; for it will not be forgotten in the mouths of their descendants, for <sup>26</sup>I know the inclination <sup>27</sup>of their behavior today, even before I have brought them to the land of which I swore to give them.”

<sup>24</sup>So it was, when Moses had completed writing the words of this law in a book, when they were finished, <sup>25</sup>that Moses

31:12–13 Obeying God—Because the Israelites had no Bibles, they had to come together to listen to God's word as read by a priest from a scroll. The laws were to be read to the whole assembly including women and children. No doubt memorization was important as a way of impressing the laws on the minds and hearts of the people. But it was not the end. The expected end result of hearing was obedience. Obedience to the Word of God is the only way that the child of God can please God in the new life. “But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves” (James 1:22).

31:16 play the harlot. This expression speaks both of spiritual adultery and physical acts of sexual immorality that were performed in association with the worship of Baal and Asherah, the gods of Canaan.

31:22 Therefore Moses wrote. Psalm 90 is also attributed to Moses, and perhaps Psalm 91. Both psalms are logical meditations for these last chapters of Deuteronomy.

commanded the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying: <sup>26</sup>“Take this Book of the Law, and put it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there <sup>was</sup> as a witness against you; <sup>27</sup>for I know your rebellion and your <sup>stiff</sup> neck. If today, while I am yet alive with you, you have been rebellious against the LORD, then how much more after my death? <sup>28</sup>Gather to me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their hearing and call heaven and earth to witness against them. <sup>29</sup>For I know that after my death you will <sup>become</sup> utterly corrupt, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you. And <sup>evil</sup> will befall you <sup>in</sup> the latter days, because you will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger through the work of your hands.”

The Song of Moses

<sup>30</sup>Then Moses spoke in the hearing of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song until they were ended:

- 32 “Give <sup>ear</sup>, O heavens, and I will speak;
And hear, O <sup>earth</sup>, the words of my mouth.
<sup>2</sup> Let <sup>my</sup> teaching drop as the rain,
My speech distill as the dew,
<sup>d</sup>As raindrops on the tender herb,
And as showers on the grass.
<sup>3</sup> For I proclaim the <sup>name</sup> of the LORD:
<sup>4</sup> He is <sup>the</sup> Rock, <sup>h</sup>His work is perfect;
For all His ways are justice,
<sup>i</sup>A God of truth and <sup>without</sup> injustice;
Righteous and upright is He.
<sup>5</sup> “They<sup>k</sup> have corrupted themselves;
They are not His children,

- Because of their blemish:
A <sup>perverse</sup> and crooked generation.
<sup>6</sup> Do you thus <sup>deal</sup> with the LORD,
O foolish and unwise people?
Is He not <sup>your</sup> Father, who <sup>ought</sup> bought you?
Has He not <sup>made</sup> you and established you?
<sup>7</sup> “Remember<sup>a</sup> the days of old,
Consider the years of many generations.
<sup>r</sup>Ask your father, and he will show you;
Your elders, and they will tell you:
<sup>8</sup> When the Most High <sup>divided</sup> their inheritance to the nations,
When He <sup>separated</sup> the sons of Adam,
He set the boundaries of the peoples
According to the number of the children of Israel.
<sup>9</sup> For <sup>the</sup> LORD’s portion is His people;
Jacob is the place of His inheritance.
<sup>10</sup> “He found him <sup>in</sup> a desert land
And in the wasteland, a howling wilderness;
He encircled him, He instructed him,
He <sup>kept</sup> him as the apple of His eye.
<sup>11</sup> <sup>x</sup>As an eagle stirs up its nest,
Hovers over its young,
Spreading out its wings, taking them up,
Carrying them on its wings,
<sup>12</sup> So the LORD alone led him,
And there was no foreign god with him.
<sup>13</sup> “He<sup>v</sup> made him ride in the heights of the earth,
That he might eat the produce of the fields;
He made him draw honey from the rock,
And oil from the flinty rock;

32:7 Remembering the Works of God—The Bible’s revelation of God’s work in the past provides an informative and exciting panorama of centuries of divine activity toward man.

First, it gives man an education in truths unknowable apart from divine revelation. For example, the creation of man described in Genesis 1 and 2 answers man’s most basic questions: “Who am I?” and “Where did I come from?” The only way we can get this information is from God Himself.

Second, the Bible sets forth a significant body of historical evidence for the truth and validity of the Christian faith. These evidences include fulfilled prophecy, the miracles of Christ, and Christ’s death and resurrection. The believer’s faith is thus grounded in historical events and is much more than just “a leap in the dark.”

Third, the Bible records examples to help present-day Christians. Israel’s failures and the consequences that resulted are used by the New Testament writers as lessons. Believers are urged to avoid grumbling, as Israel did (1 Cor. 10:10–11), and the deviant behavior of Sodom and Gomorrah (2 Pet. 2: 4–9). Paul is said to be a living example for believers to follow

(1 Cor. 4:16; 11:1), as is Jesus’ humility in the midst of suffering (1 Pet. 2:21).

Fourth, the Bible provides encouragement for Christians in their life and witness. If God could use an adulterer and murderer like David, then God can surely use a struggling Christian today if that person has David’s passion for the Lord. Likewise, if God saved Saul of Tarsus, the chief enemy of the early church (Acts 9:1–31), He can certainly save the people with whom Christians daily share their faith.

32:12 the LORD alone. Deuteronomy is an extended argument against idolatry and paganism. Clearly the Israelites had no reason to abandon the God of grace and love, who had given them all they needed.

- 14 Curds from the cattle, and milk of the flock,

 With the choicest wheat;
 And you drank wine, the <sup>a</sup>blood of the grapes.
- 15 <sup>a</sup>But Jeshurun grew fat and kicked;
<sup>b</sup>You grew fat, you grew thick,
 You are obese!
 Then he <sup>c</sup>forsook God who <sup>d</sup>made him,

- 16 <sup>f</sup>They provoked Him to jealousy with foreign gods;
 With abominations they provoked Him to anger.
- 17 <sup>g</sup>They sacrificed to demons, not to God,
 To gods they did not know,
 To new gods, new arrivals
 That your fathers did not fear.
- 18 <sup>h</sup>Of the Rock who begot you, you are unmindful,
 And have <sup>i</sup>forgotten the God who fathered you.
- 19 <sup>a</sup>And<sup>j</sup> when the LORD saw it, He spurned them, Because of the provocation of His sons and His daughters.

 Devoured by pestilence and bitter destruction;
 I will also send against them the <sup>r</sup>teeth of beasts,
 With the poison of serpents of the dust.
- 25 The sword shall destroy outside;
There shall be terror within
 For the young man and virgin,
 The nursing child with the man of gray hairs.
- 26 <sup>s</sup>I would have said, "I will dash them in pieces,
 I will make the memory of them to cease from among men."
- 27 Had I not feared the wrath of the enemy,
 Lest their adversaries should misunderstand,
 Lest they should say, <sup>t</sup>"Our hand is high;
 And it is not the LORD who has done all this."
- 28 "For they are a nation void of counsel,
 Nor is there any understanding in them.
- 29 <sup>u</sup>Oh, that they were wise, that they understood this,
That they would consider their <sup>v</sup>latter end!
- 30 How could one chase a thousand,

 Unless their Rock <sup>w</sup>had sold them,
 And the LORD had surrendered them?
- 31 For their rock is not like our Rock, <sup>x</sup>Even our enemies themselves being judges.
- 32 For <sup>y</sup>their vine is of the vine of Sodom
 And of the fields of Gomorrah;

32:15 Jeshurun. Jeshurun, a pet name for Israel, means "uprightness." This part of the song contrasts what Israel should have been (upright) and what they became (rebellious). he forsook God. A nation or a person who has forsaken God is godless. Because God is the source of blessing, peace, joy, wisdom, and comfort, they have also forsaken all of these attributes. One would think that that would be enough to drive people back to God. But persistence in willful disobedience and willful ignorance of God's ways creates a kind of blindness and deafness that makes people unwilling to turn back. At this point God sometimes hides His face, and they experience greater misfortunes.

32:17 demons. Scripture makes it clear that the false gods do not exist as such, and this passage identifies the power behind these gods: demons. It is important to remember this, especially in this era of multiculturalism, when many voices protest the exclusiveness of Christianity.

32:29 consider their latter end. In this great prophetic song Moses longs for the nation of Israel to turn to God and repent of its wickedness. As history proved, there was continual need for Israel to repent and turn back to God. They did abandon their covenant with God, but God did not abandon them, although He let them reap the consequences of their disobedience. Moses was not the last prophet to long for their repentance, and we can only guess at the heavenly joy Moses felt on the Mount of Transfiguration, seeing Jesus the Christ, who would finally redeem the people (Mark 9).

- 34 'Is this not <sup>b</sup>laid up in store with Me, Sealed up among My treasures?
- 35 <sup>c</sup>Vengeance is Mine, and recompense;
 Their foot shall slip in due time;
<sup>d</sup>For the day of their calamity is at hand,
 And the things to come hasten upon them.'
- 36 <sup>e</sup>For<sup>e</sup> the LORD will judge His people
<sup>f</sup>And have compassion on His servants,
 When He sees that their power is gone,
 And <sup>g</sup>there is no one remaining, bond or free.
- 37 He will say: <sup>h</sup>'Where are their gods,
 The rock in which they sought refuge?
- 38 Who ate the fat of their sacrifices,
 And drank the wine of their drink offering?
 Let them rise and help you,
 And be your refuge.
- 39 'Now see that <sup>i</sup>I, even I, am He,
 And <sup>j</sup>there is no God besides Me;
<sup>k</sup>I kill and I make alive;
 I wound and I heal;
 Nor is there any who can deliver from My hand.
- 40 For I raise My hand to heaven,
 And say, "As I live forever,
- 41 'If I whet My glittering sword,
 And My hand takes hold on judgment,
 I will render vengeance to My enemies,
 And repay those who hate Me.
- 42 I will make My arrows drunk with blood,
 And My sword shall devour flesh,
 With the blood of the slain and the captives,
 From the heads of the leaders of the enemy."

- 43 "Rejoice,<sup>m</sup> O Gentiles, with His people,*
 For He will <sup>n</sup>avenge the blood of His servants,
 And render vengeance to His adversaries;
 He <sup>o</sup>will provide atonement for His land and His people."

<sup>44</sup>So Moses came with Joshua* the son of Nun and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people. <sup>45</sup>Moses finished speaking all these words to all Israel, <sup>46</sup>and he said to them: <sup>p</sup>"Set your hearts on all the words which I testify among you today, which you shall command your <sup>q</sup>children to be careful to observe—all the words of this law. <sup>47</sup>For it is not a futile thing for you, because it is your <sup>r</sup>life, and by this word you shall prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Jordan to possess."

Moses to Die on Mount Nebo

<sup>48</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses that very same day, saying: <sup>49s</sup>"Go up this mountain of the Abarim, Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, across from Jericho; view the land of Canaan, which I give to the children of Israel as a possession; <sup>50</sup>and die on the mountain which you ascend, and be gathered to your people, just as <sup>t</sup>Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people; <sup>51</sup>because "you trespassed against Me among the children of Israel at the waters of Meribah Kadesh, in the Wilderness of Zin, because you <sup>v</sup>did not hallow Me in the midst of the children of Israel. <sup>52w</sup>Yet you shall see the land before you, though you shall not go there, into the land which I am giving to the children of Israel."

* 32:43 A Dead Sea Scroll fragment adds And let all the gods (angels) worship Him (compare Septuagint and Hebrews 1:6). * 32:44 Hebrew Hoshea (compare Numbers 13:8, 16)

32:35 Vengeance is Mine. Only God who is completely just can judge and make right all the wrongs committed (Rom. 12:19–20).

32:36 have compassion on his servants. God will discern between the righteous and the wicked (Mal. 3:16).

32:39 God's Sovereignty—In his final words to the Israelites, Moses reminds them where they came from. Their history could not be written without God being in the central position. Their future, likewise, was intimately tied to God. To think otherwise would be folly (Deut. 32:28–29). The basic point is that no matter how you want to look at it, God is in charge. That was the most basic fact in the Israelites' situation.

God's sovereignty is also the central fact in ours. It is not always easy to affirm it. We would much rather see ourselves as the central controlling force in our lives. Most of us simply don't like being told what to do or how to live. The problem is that the whole history of man teaches us that when God's laws are not followed, disaster ensues. When we put ourselves in charge, sooner or later we pay the price.

A whole generation of Israelites failed to understand God's sovereignty. As a result, they died in the desert, never having arrived at the Promised Land. While it is true that they lived out their lives, they surely missed out on what could have been. That fact is the basic backdrop for Moses' last words to the new generation, as they approached the Promised Land. We dare not ignore the lesson.

32:43 Rejoice, O Gentiles. The Gentiles are invited here to join in worship of the living God. All through history there have been a few who accepted this invitation (such as Ruth), and it was fulfilled in Christ (Rom. 15).

Moses' Final Blessing on Israel

33 Now this is <sup>a</sup>the blessing with which Moses <sup>b</sup>the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death. <sup>2</sup>And he said:

- <sup>c</sup>"The LORD came from Sinai,
And dawned on them from <sup>d</sup>Seir;
He shone forth from <sup>e</sup>Mount Paran,
And He came with <sup>f</sup>ten thousands of saints;
From His right hand
Came a fiery law for them.
- <sup>3</sup> Yes, <sup>g</sup>He loves the people;
<sup>h</sup>All His saints are in Your hand;
They <sup>i</sup>sit down at Your feet;
Everyone <sup>j</sup>receives Your words.
- <sup>4</sup> <sup>k</sup>Moses commanded a law for us, <sup>l</sup>A heritage of the congregation of Jacob.
- <sup>5</sup> And He was <sup>m</sup>King in <sup>n</sup>Jeshurun,
When the leaders of the people were gathered,
All the tribes of Israel together.
- <sup>6</sup> "Let <sup>o</sup>Reuben live, and not die, Nor let his men be few."
- <sup>7</sup>And this he said of <sup>p</sup>Judah:
"Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah,
And bring him to his people;
<sup>q</sup>Let his hands be sufficient for him,
And may You be <sup>r</sup>a help against his enemies."
- <sup>8</sup>And of <sup>s</sup>Levi he said:
<sup>t</sup>"Let Your Thummim and Your Urim be with Your holy one,
<sup>u</sup>Whom You tested at Massah,
And with whom You contended at the waters of Meribah,
- <sup>9</sup> <sup>v</sup>Who says of his father and mother, <sup>w</sup>'I have not <sup>x</sup>seen them';
<sup>y</sup>Nor did he acknowledge his brothers,
Or know his own children;
For <sup>z</sup>they have observed Your word
And kept Your covenant.
- <sup>10</sup> <sup>z</sup>They shall teach Jacob Your judgments,
And Israel Your law.
They shall put incense before You,
<sup>a</sup>And a whole burnt sacrifice on Your altar.

- <sup>11</sup> Bless his substance, LORD,
And <sup>b</sup>accept the work of his hands;
Strike the loins of those who rise against him,
And of those who hate him, that they rise not again."
- <sup>12</sup>Of Benjamin he said:
"The beloved of the LORD shall dwell in safety by Him,
Who shelters him all the day long;
And he shall dwell between His shoulders."
- <sup>13</sup>And of Joseph he said:
<sup>c</sup>"Blessed of the LORD is his land,
With the precious things of heaven,
with the <sup>d</sup>dew,
And the deep lying beneath,
<sup>14</sup> With the precious fruits of the sun,
With the precious produce of the months,
<sup>15</sup> With the best things of <sup>e</sup>the ancient mountains,
With the precious things <sup>f</sup>of the everlasting hills,
<sup>16</sup> With the precious things of the earth and its fullness,
And the favor of <sup>g</sup>Him who dwelt in the bush.
Let the blessing come <sup>h</sup>'on the head of Joseph,
And on the crown of the head of him who was separate from his brothers.'<sup>k</sup>
- <sup>17</sup> His glory is like a <sup>i</sup>'firstborn bull,
And his horns like the <sup>j</sup>'horns of the wild ox;
Together with them
<sup>k</sup>He shall push the peoples
To the ends of the earth;
<sup>l</sup>They are the ten thousands of Ephraim,
And they are the thousands of Manasseh."
- <sup>18</sup>And of Zebulun he said:
<sup>m</sup>"Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out,
And Issachar in your tents!
<sup>19</sup> They shall <sup>n</sup>call the peoples to the mountain;

* 33:16 Genesis 49:26

33:1 Moses the man of God. In spite of his failure at the waters of Meribah Kadesh, Moses is noted here and throughout the Bible as "the man of God."

33:4 commanded a law for us. God chose Israel alone to receive His instructions, yet the law was ultimately for His whole creation, as Jesus demonstrated when He broke down the wall between Jew and Gentile (Rom. 3–7).

33:9–10 they have observed Your word. The Levites were keepers of God's word, even when it meant drawing their swords against their own brothers (Ex. 32:25–29). This is a degree of testing that most believers will never experience, but Jesus promised that the world would hate His followers, and they would experience opposition even from their own families (Matt. 10:22). It is not easy to be a follower of God in a world of sin and death, but the Christian may be assured that as he walks in obedience to God's truth, God "always leads us in triumph in Christ" (2 Cor. 2:14).

<sup>20</sup>And of Gad he said:

“Blessed is he who <sup>p</sup>enlarges Gad;
He dwells as a lion,
And tears the arm and the crown of his head.

<sup>21</sup> <sup>a</sup>He provided the first part for himself, Because a lawgiver's portion was reserved there.

<sup>r</sup>He came with the heads of the people;
He administered the justice of the LORD,
And His judgments with Israel.”

<sup>22</sup>And of Dan he said:

“Dan is a lion's whelp;

<sup>23</sup>And of Naphtali he said:

“O Naphtali, <sup>t</sup>satisfied with favor,
And full of the blessing of the LORD,
<sup>u</sup>Possess the west and the south.”

<sup>v</sup>“Asher is most blessed of sons;

And in His excellency on the clouds.

<sup>27</sup> The eternal God is your <sup>b</sup>refuge,
And underneath are the everlasting arms;

<sup>c</sup>He will thrust out the enemy from before you,
And will say, ‘Destroy!’

<sup>e</sup>The fountain of Jacob <sup>f</sup>alone,
In a land of grain and new wine;
His <sup>g</sup>heavens shall also drop dew.

<sup>j</sup>The shield of your help
And the sword of your majesty!
Your enemies <sup>k</sup>shall submit to you,
And <sup>l</sup>you shall tread down their high places.”

Moses Dies on Mount Nebo

34 Then Moses went up from the plains of Moab to <sup>a</sup>Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is across from Jericho. And the LORD showed him all the land of Gilead as far as Dan, <sup>2</sup>all Naphtali and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea,* <sup>3</sup>the South, and the plain of the Valley of Jericho, <sup>b</sup>the city of palm trees, as far as Zoar. <sup>4</sup>Then the LORD said to him, <sup>c</sup>“This is the land of which I swore to give Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your descendants.’ <sup>d</sup>“I have caused you to see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there.”

* 34:2 That is, the Mediterranean

33:22 lion's whelp. This may refer to the small size of the tribe of Dan. Though Dan's land inheritance was close to Judah by the coastal plains, the tribe would not be able to keep their inheritance because of the hostility of the Philistines. Therefore, the Danites would one day migrate to the region of Bashan, south of Mount Hermon (Judg. 18).

34:1–2 Moab . . . Jericho . . . Western Sea. Moab was where Moses had given Israel an explanation of the law and led them in a covenant renewal. Jericho was the first city in Canaan to be conquered. The sea is the Mediterranean.

34:6 no one knows his grave. If his burial place had been known, some people would have been tempted to make it a shrine and possibly have begun to worship there.

34:9 Joshua . . . full of the spirit of wisdom. Joshua was the leader chosen to succeed Moses, and God filled him with the spirit of wisdom. But there was another, a prophet like Moses, who would be greater even than Moses. That other was the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 3:19–26).

THE BOOK OF JOSHUA

► AUTHOR: Jewish tradition seems correct in assigning the authorship of this book to Joshua himself. The unity of style and organization suggest a single authorship for the majority of the book, with the exception of three small portions that may have been added after Joshua's death: Othniel's capture of Kirjath Sepher (15:13–19); Dan's migration to the north (19:47); and Joshua's death and burial (24:29–33). However, Joshua 24:26 makes this clear statement: "Then Joshua wrote these words in the Book of the Law of God."

► TIME: c. 1405–1398 B.C.

► KEY VERSE: Josh. 11:23

► THEME: In the Book of Joshua, the Israelites are commanded to destroy everything and everybody so that they can take full possession of the land. The transition of leadership is from Moses to Joshua. A nomadic people attaches themselves to given tracts of land, and a nation is formed from a wandering tribe as the conquest is completed in 21:43–45. We also see how a failure to carry out God's plan completely lays a foundation for future problems.

God's Commission to Joshua

1 After the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, it came to pass that the LORD spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' assistant, saying: <sup>2b</sup>"Moses My servant is dead. Now therefore, arise, go over this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them—the children of Israel. <sup>3c</sup>Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon I have given you, as I said to Moses. <sup>4d</sup>From the wilderness and this Lebanon as far as the great river, the River Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and to the Great Sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your territory. <sup>5e</sup>No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life; <sup>6a</sup>as I was with

Moses, so <sup>g</sup>I will be with you. <sup>h1</sup>I will not leave you nor forsake you. <sup>6i</sup>Be strong and of good courage, for to this people you shall divide as an inheritance the land which I swore to their fathers to give them. <sup>7</sup>Only be strong and very courageous, that you may observe to do according to all the law <sup>j</sup>which Moses My servant commanded you; <sup>k</sup>do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may prosper wherever you go. <sup>8l</sup>This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but <sup>m</sup>you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success. <sup>9n</sup>Have I not commanded you? Be strong

1:1 the servant of the LORD. In the Hebrew Scripture this is a special title given only to Moses, Joshua (24:29; Judg. 2:8), David (Ps. 18:title; 36:title), and the Messiah (Is. 42:19). the LORD spoke to Joshua. God spoke directly to Joshua encouraging him and urging him to obey all the law. True success cannot occur apart from knowing God personally and doing His will.

1:7–8 Perseverance—A successful mission in the service of the Lord is dependent upon courage, meditation and obedience. Keeping God's words in our hearts molds our character and guides our footsteps.

1:8 Meditating upon God's Word—Helping people become prosperous and successful is big business. Late night infomercials point to a plethora of techniques for getting rich. Everyone wants to be wealthy. Everyone wants to be successful. These kinds of feelings are particularly strong when starting a new endeavor as Joshua was. At the very beginning of Joshua's leadership of Israel, God lays out for Joshua His key to success, meditating on God's word. Meditate upon the Word of God by rehearsing it in thought over and over in order to understand its implications for the situations of life. The meditation process results in changed thinking, because God's thoughts can literally become our thoughts. Then we are more likely to do what God wants of us. As we live in sync with God's plan for our lives, it follows that we will be more successful and prosperous than if we ignore His teachings.

People spend a large part of their lives in obtaining an education and working at a career in order to be prosperous and successful. Scripture points to itself as the primary means toward that end.

and of good courage; <sup>o</sup>do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.”

The Order to Cross the Jordan

<sup>10</sup>Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying, <sup>11</sup>“Pass through the camp and command the people, saying, ‘Prepare provisions for yourselves, for <sup>o</sup>within three days you will cross over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess.’”

<sup>12</sup>And to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh Joshua spoke, saying, <sup>13</sup>“Remember <sup>o</sup>the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, ‘The LORD your God is giving you rest and is giving you this land.’ <sup>14</sup>Your wives, your little ones, and your livestock shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side of the Jordan. But you shall pass before your brethren armed, all your mighty men of valor, and help them, <sup>15</sup>until the LORD has given your brethren rest, as He gave you, and they also have taken possession of the land which the LORD your God is giving them. <sup>16</sup>Then you shall return to the land of your possession and enjoy it, which Moses the LORD’s servant gave you on this side of the Jordan toward the sunrise.”

<sup>16</sup>So they answered Joshua, saying, “All that you command us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go. <sup>17</sup>Just as we heeded Moses in all things, so we will heed you. Only the LORD your God <sup>s</sup>be with you, as He was with Moses. <sup>18</sup>Whoever rebels against your command and does not heed your words, in all that you command him, shall be put to death. Only be strong and of good courage.”

Rahab Hides the Spies

2 Now Joshua the son of Nun sent out two men <sup>a</sup>from Acacia Grove* to spy secretly, saying, “Go, view the land, especially Jericho.”

So they went, and <sup>b</sup>came to the house of a harlot named <sup>c</sup>Rahab, and lodged there. <sup>2</sup>And <sup>d</sup>it was told the king of Jericho, saying, “Behold, men have come here tonight from the children of Israel to search out the country.”

<sup>3</sup>So the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, “Bring out the men who have come to you, who have entered your house, for they have come to search out all the country.”

<sup>4</sup>Then the woman took the two men and hid them. So she said, “Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they were from. <sup>5</sup>And it happened as the gate was being shut, when it was dark, that the men went out. Where the men went I do not know; pursue them quickly, for you may overtake them.” <sup>6</sup>(But <sup>f</sup>she had brought them up to the roof and hidden them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order on the roof.) <sup>7</sup>Then the men pursued them by the road to the Jordan, to the fords. And as soon as those who pursued them had gone out, they shut the gate.

<sup>8</sup>Now before they lay down, she came up to them on the roof, <sup>9</sup>and said to the men: <sup>g</sup>“I know that the LORD has given you the land, that <sup>h</sup>the terror of you has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land <sup>i</sup>are fainthearted because of you. <sup>10</sup>For we have heard how the LORD <sup>j</sup>dried up the water of the Red Sea for you when you came out of Egypt, and <sup>k</sup>what you did to the two kings of the Amorites who were on the other side of the Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom you <sup>l</sup>utterly destroyed. <sup>11</sup>And as soon as we <sup>m</sup>heard these things, <sup>n</sup>our hearts melted; neither did there remain any more courage in anyone because of you, for <sup>o</sup>the LORD your God, He is God in heaven above and on earth beneath. <sup>12</sup>Now therefore, I beg you, <sup>p</sup>swear to me by the LORD, since I have shown you kindness, that you also will show kindness to <sup>q</sup>my father’s house, and <sup>r</sup>give me a true token, <sup>13</sup>and <sup>s</sup>spare my father, my mother, my brothers, my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death.”

<sup>14</sup>So the men answered her, “Our lives for yours, if none of you tell this business of ours. And it shall be, when the LORD has given us the land, that <sup>t</sup>we will deal kindly and truly with you.”

* 2:1 Hebrew Shittim

1:18 be strong and of good courage. Joshua’s task was not an easy one, for not only must he deal with the ungodly inhabitants of the Promised Land, he must also provide leadership for his own fearful and complaining people.

2:1 Rahab. Rahab was a Canaanite prostitute, yet out of all the populace of Jericho, only she reached out to the living God, and He in turn saved her (6:25).

2:4–6 Where the men went I do not know. Rahab lied to the men searching for the Israelite spies, and Joshua praised her, as did the apostle James and the writer of Hebrews (Heb. 11:31; James 2:25). Throughout both the Old and the New Testament, the commands of God forbid lying, the prophets condemn it, and godly people avoid doing it. Scripture does not address Rahab’s sin, but it does praise her for her faith in God. Christians have struggled for centuries over whether lying to save an innocent person’s life is acceptable. There does not seem to be a clear-cut answer, but Rahab did her best with the knowledge she had to protect the Israelite men.

<sup>15</sup>Then she <sup>u</sup>let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was on the city wall; she dwelt on the wall. <sup>16</sup>And she said to them, “Get to the mountain, lest the pursuers meet you. Hide there three days, until the pursuers have returned. Afterward you may go your way.”

<sup>17</sup>So the men said to her: “We will be <sup>v</sup>blameless of this oath of yours which you have made us swear, <sup>18</sup>unless, when we come into the land, you bind this line of scarlet cord in the window through which you let us down, <sup>x</sup>and unless you bring your father, your mother, your brothers, and all your father’s household to your own home. <sup>19</sup>So it shall be that whoever goes outside the doors of your house into the street, his blood shall be on his own head, and we will be guiltless. And whoever is with you in the house, <sup>y</sup>his blood shall be on our head if a hand is laid on him. <sup>20</sup>And if you tell this business of ours, then we will be free from your oath which you made us swear.”

<sup>21</sup>Then she said, “According to your words, so be it.” And she sent them away, and they departed. And she bound the scarlet cord in the window.

<sup>22</sup>They departed and went to the mountain, and stayed there three days until the pursuers returned. The pursuers sought them all along the way, but did not find them. <sup>23</sup>So the two men returned, descended from the mountain, and crossed over; and they came to Joshua the son of Nun, and told him all that had befallen them. <sup>24</sup>And they said to Joshua, “Truly <sup>z</sup>the LORD has delivered all the land into our hands, for indeed all the inhabitants of the country are fainthearted because of us.”

Israel Crosses the Jordan

3 Then Joshua rose early in the morning; and they set out <sup>a</sup>from Acacia Grove<sup>a</sup> and came to the Jordan, he and all the children of Israel, and lodged there before they crossed over. <sup>2</sup>So it was, <sup>b</sup>after three days, that the officers went through the camp; <sup>3</sup>and they commanded the people, saying, <sup>c</sup>“When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, <sup>d</sup>and the priests, the Levites, bearing it, then you shall set out from your place and go after it. <sup>4e</sup>Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure. Do not come near it, that you may know the way by which you must go, for you have not passed this way before.”

So they took up the ark of the covenant and went before the people.

<sup>7</sup>And the LORD said to Joshua, “This day I will begin to <sup>h</sup>exalt you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, <sup>i</sup>as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. <sup>8</sup>You shall command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, saying, ‘When you have come to the edge of the water of the Jordan, <sup>k</sup>you shall stand in the Jordan.’”

<sup>9</sup>So Joshua said to the children of Israel, “Come here, and hear the words of the LORD your God.” <sup>10</sup>And Joshua said, “By this you shall know that ‘the living God is among you, and that He will without fail <sup>m</sup>drive out from before you the <sup>n</sup>Canaanites and the Hittites and the Hivites and the Perizzites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Jebusites: <sup>11</sup>Behold, the ark of the covenant of <sup>o</sup>the Lord of all the earth is crossing over before you into the Jordan. <sup>12</sup>Now therefore, <sup>p</sup>take for yourselves twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man from every tribe. <sup>13</sup>And it shall come to pass, <sup>q</sup>as soon as the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of the LORD, <sup>r</sup>the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of the Jordan, that the waters of the Jordan shall be cut off, the waters that come down from upstream, and they <sup>s</sup>shall stand as a heap.”

<sup>14</sup>So it was, when the people set out from their camp to cross over the Jordan, with the priests bearing the <sup>t</sup>ark of the covenant before the people, <sup>15</sup>and as those who bore the ark came to the Jordan, and <sup>u</sup>the feet of the priests who bore the ark dipped in the edge of the water (for the <sup>v</sup>Jordan overflows all its banks <sup>w</sup>during the whole time

*3:1 Hebrew Shittim

2:16 Get to the mountain. The pursuers had gone down to the Jordan River (v. 7), logically supposing that the spies would be returning to their camp on the eastern side of the river. The only hills near Jericho are to the west, in the opposite direction from the Israelite camp, and further into the land of Canaan.

3:4 two thousand cubits. Two thousand cubits was more than half a mile. God was serious about the people showing due respect for the ark of the covenant.

3:9 Inspiration—God conveyed His message by means of words spoken by a specific, chosen person. He descended to the human level and through humanity spoke His word of absolute truth.

3:13 Lord of all the earth. The term “Adonai,” translated “Lord,” means “master.” It refers to the fact that God is indeed the Sovereign of the entire universe.

3:15 Jordan overflows. God did not merely slow the great river to a trickle during a time of drought; He of harvest), <sup>16</sup>that the waters which came down from upstream stood still, and rose in a heap very far away at Adam, the city that is beside <sup>x</sup>Zaretan. So the waters that went down <sup>v</sup>into the Sea of the Arabah, <sup>z</sup>the Salt Sea, failed, and were cut off; and the people crossed over opposite Jericho. <sup>17</sup>Then the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the midst of the Jordan; <sup>a</sup>and all Israel crossed over on dry ground, until all the people had crossed completely over the Jordan.

The Memorial Stones

4 And it came to pass, when all the people had completely crossed <sup>a</sup>over the Jordan, that the LORD spoke to Joshua, saying: <sup>2b</sup>“Take for yourselves twelve men from the people, one man from every tribe, <sup>3</sup>and command them, saying, ‘Take for yourselves twelve stones from here, out of the midst of the Jordan, from the place where <sup>c</sup>the priests’ feet stood firm. You shall carry them over with you and leave them in <sup>d</sup>the lodging place where you lodge tonight.”

<sup>4</sup>Then Joshua called the twelve men whom he had appointed from the children of Israel, one man from every tribe; <sup>5</sup>and Joshua said to them: “Cross over before the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of the Jordan, and each one of you take up a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, <sup>6</sup>that this may be <sup>e</sup>a sign among you <sup>f</sup>when your children ask in time to come, saying, ‘What do these stones mean to you?’ <sup>7</sup>Then you shall answer them that <sup>g</sup>the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it crossed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. And these stones shall be for <sup>h</sup>a memorial to the children of Israel forever.”

<sup>8</sup>And the children of Israel did so, just as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones from the midst of the Jordan, as the LORD had spoken to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them to the place where they lodged, and laid them down there. <sup>9</sup>Then Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests who bore the ark of the covenant stood; and they are there to this day.

<sup>10</sup>So the priests who bore the ark stood in the midst of the Jordan until everything was finished that the LORD had commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua; and the people hurried and crossed over.

stopped the waters when the river was high. This is significant because it makes the point that a great miracle was involved.

3:16 Adam. Adam was a city about 18 miles north of Jericho. The Sea of Arabah is another name for the Dead Sea, into which the Jordan flows from the north. The Dead Sea is the lowest place on earth, 1,286 feet below sea level. The phrase “Salt Sea” is added to the name because the sea has no outlet and loses its water by evaporation. The concentration of salt and other minerals is so high that nothing can live in it.

4:10 the people hurried and crossed over. This is a flashback; 3:17 and 4:1 have already told of the crossing over. The purpose is to look back and reflect upon the people’s obedience.

4:14 the LORD exalted Joshua. God is once again proclaiming Joshua as the man He has chosen to take Moses’ place as leader of His people.

4:16 Testimony. In this sense, a “testimony” is a reminder. The ark contained the two stone tablets on which the Ten Commandments were written, reminding people of God’s covenant and His law.

4:21–24 Fear of God—The Scriptures are full of stories of the acts God performed that built up the respect of the people for Him. The awesome things God did were told to each new generation to develop respect for who God is. This miracle was performed you shall let your children know, saying, <sup>a</sup>“Israel crossed over this Jordan on <sup>r</sup>dry land”; <sup>23</sup>for the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before you until you had crossed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red Sea, <sup>s</sup>which He dried up before us until we had crossed over, <sup>24</sup>that all the peoples of the earth may know the hand of the LORD, that it is <sup>u</sup>mighty, that you may <sup>v</sup>fear the LORD your God forever.”

The Second Generation Circumcised

5 So it was, when all the kings of the Amorites who were on the west side of the Jordan, and all the kings of the Canaanites <sup>a</sup>who were by the sea, <sup>b</sup>heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan before the children of Israel until we* had crossed over, that their heart melted; <sup>c</sup>and there was no spirit in them any longer because of the children of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>At that time the LORD said to Joshua, “Make <sup>d</sup>flint knives for yourself, and circumcise the sons of Israel again the second time.” <sup>3</sup>So Joshua made flint knives for himself, and circumcised the sons of Israel at the hill of the foreskins.* <sup>4</sup>And this is the reason why Joshua circumcised them: <sup>e</sup>All the people who came out of Egypt who were males, all the men of war, had died in the wilderness on the way, after they had come out of Egypt. <sup>5</sup>For all the people who came out had been circumcised, but all the people born in the wilderness, on the way as they came out of Egypt, had not been circumcised. <sup>6</sup>For the children of Israel walked <sup>f</sup>forty years in the wilderness, till all the people who were men of war, who came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they did not obey the voice of the LORD—to whom the LORD swore that <sup>g</sup>He would not show them the land which the LORD had sworn to their fathers that He would give us, <sup>h</sup>“a land flowing with milk and honey.”* <sup>7</sup>Then Joshua circumcised <sup>i</sup>their sons whom He raised up in their place; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not been circumcised on the way.

<sup>8</sup>So it was, when they had finished circumcising all the people, that they stayed in their places in the camp <sup>till</sup> they were healed. <sup>9</sup>Then the LORD said to Joshua, “This day I have rolled away <sup>k</sup>the reproach of Egypt from you.” Therefore the name of the place is called <sup>l</sup>‘Gilgal’* to this day.

<sup>10</sup>Now the children of Israel camped in Gilgal, and kept the Passover <sup>m</sup>on the fourteenth day of the month at twilight on the plains of Jericho. <sup>11</sup>And they ate of the produce of the land on the day after the Passover, unleavened bread and parched grain, on the very same day. <sup>12</sup>Then <sup>n</sup>the manna ceased on the day after they had eaten the produce of the land; and the children of Israel no longer had manna, but they ate the food of the land of Canaan that year.

The Commander of the Army of the LORD

<sup>13</sup>And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, <sup>o</sup>a Man stood opposite him <sup>p</sup>with His sword drawn in His hand. And Joshua went to Him and said to Him, “Are You for us or for our adversaries?”

<sup>14</sup>So He said, “No, but as Commander of the army of the LORD I have now come.”

And Joshua <sup>q</sup>fell on his face to the earth and <sup>r</sup>worshiped, and said to Him, “What does my Lord say to His servant?”

<sup>15</sup>Then the Commander of the LORD’s army said to Joshua, <sup>s</sup>“Take your sandal off your foot, for the place where you stand is holy.” And Joshua did so.

The Destruction of Jericho

6 Now <sup>a</sup>Jericho was securely shut up because of the children of Israel; none went out, and none came in. <sup>2</sup>And the LORD said to Joshua: “See! <sup>b</sup>I have given Jericho into your hand, its <sup>c</sup>king, and the mighty men of valor. <sup>3</sup>You shall march around the city, all you men of war; you shall go all around the city once. This you shall do six days. <sup>4</sup>And seven priests shall not only for the purpose of getting the Israelites across the Jordan. It was also a sign to all peoples of the power of God.

5:2 the second time. The generation that left Egypt had been circumcised. However, that generation had died in the wilderness and for some reason they had neglected to circumcise their children, the generation which would enter the Promised Land.

5:6 milk and honey. The land God had promised to Israel was no wilderness, but a land that was fertile for both crops and cattle, and ready to provide for them and supply all their needs.

5:15 Take your sandal off. The command for Joshua to remove his sandal was practically identical to the command Moses received at the burning bush (Ex.

3:1–6). Joshua was confronted with the living God, just as Moses had been (Ex. 33:9–11).

6:3 all around the city once. The city of Jericho measured less than half a mile in circumference, so the march would have been completed quickly.

bear seven <sup>d</sup>trumpets of rams' horns before the ark. But the seventh day you shall march around the city <sup>e</sup>seven times, and <sup>f</sup>the priests shall blow the trumpets. <sup>g</sup>It shall come to pass, when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, that all the people shall shout with a great shout; then the wall of the city will fall down flat. And the people shall go up every man straight before him."

<sup>6</sup>Then Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD." <sup>7</sup>And he said to the people, "Proceed, and march around the city, and let him who is armed advance before the ark of the LORD."

<sup>8</sup>So it was, when Joshua had spoken to the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the LORD advanced and blew the trumpets, and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them. <sup>9</sup>The armed men went before the priests who blew the trumpets, <sup>g</sup>and the rear guard came after the ark, while the priests continued blowing the trumpets. <sup>10</sup>Now Joshua had commanded the people, saying, "You shall not shout or make any noise with your voice, nor shall a word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I say to you, 'Shout!' Then you shall shout." <sup>11</sup>So he had <sup>h</sup>the ark of the LORD circle the city, going around it once. Then they came into the camp and lodged in the camp.

<sup>13</sup>Then seven priests bearing seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD went on continually and blew with the trumpets. And the armed men went before them. But the rear guard came after the ark of the LORD, while the priests continued blowing the trumpets. <sup>14</sup>And the second day they marched around the city once and returned to the camp. So they did six days.

<sup>15</sup>But it came to pass on the seventh day that they rose early, about the dawning of the day, and marched around the city seven times in the same manner. On that day only they marched around the city seven times.

<sup>16</sup>And the seventh time it happened, when the priests blew the trumpets, that Joshua said to the people: "Shout, for the LORD has given you the city! <sup>17</sup>Now the city shall be <sup>i</sup>doomed by the LORD to destruction, it and all who are in it. Only <sup>k</sup>Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all who are with her in the house, because <sup>l</sup>she hid the messengers that we sent. <sup>18</sup>And you, <sup>m</sup>by all means abstain from the accursed things, lest you become accursed when you take of the accursed things, and make the camp of Israel a curse, <sup>n</sup>and trouble it. <sup>19</sup>But all the silver and gold, and vessels of bronze and iron, are consecrated to the LORD; they shall come into the treasury of the LORD."

<sup>20</sup>So the people shouted when the priests blew the trumpets. And it happened when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that <sup>o</sup>the wall fell down flat. Then the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city. <sup>21</sup>And they <sup>p</sup>utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, ox and sheep and donkey, with the edge of the sword.

<sup>22</sup>But Joshua had said to the two men who had spied out the country, "Go into the harlot's house, and from there bring out the woman and all that she has, <sup>q</sup>as you swore to her." <sup>23</sup>And the young men who had been spies went in and brought out Rahab, <sup>r</sup>her father, her mother, her brothers, and all that she had. So they brought out all her relatives and left them outside the camp of Israel. <sup>24</sup>But they burned the city and all that was in it with fire. Only the silver and gold, and the vessels of bronze and iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD. <sup>25</sup>And Joshua spared Rahab the harlot, her father's household, and all that she had. So <sup>s</sup>she dwells in Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

<sup>27</sup>So the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame spread throughout all the country.

6:6–21 Zeal—Crossing the Jordan marked the beginning step in the fulfillment of God's promise to give His people the land of Canaan. Immediately the task of conquering Jericho loomed before them. The Lord appeared to Joshua reminding him that God Himself was in charge and the presence of the Holy One assured victory (v. 2). The plan for Jericho's capture was a test of Israel's zeal for the Lord and seems to have been designed to instill the lesson that submission to God's directives was key to victory. How different Israel's history would have been if they had continued to carry out God's plans fully and zealously! God calls us to the same level of obedience today.

6:26 Cursed . . . before the LORD. Joshua's curse found dramatic fulfillment many centuries later when Hiel of Bethel laid its foundation and rebuilt its gates at great personal cost (1 Kin. 16:34).

Defeat at Ai

7 But the children of Israel committed <sup>a</sup>a trespass regarding the <sup>b</sup>accursed things, for <sup>c</sup>Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi,* the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accursed things; so the anger of the LORD burned against the children of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>Now Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Beth Aven, on the east side of Bethel, and spoke to them, saying, "Go up and spy out the country." So the men went up and spied out Ai. <sup>3</sup>And they returned to Joshua and said to him, "Do not let all the people go up, but let about two or three thousand men go up and attack Ai. Do not weary all the people there, for the people of Ai are few." <sup>4</sup>So about three thousand men went up there from the people, <sup>a</sup>but they fled before the men of Ai. <sup>5</sup>And the men of Ai struck down about thirty-six men, for they chased them from before the gate as far as Shebarim, and struck them down on the descent; therefore <sup>a</sup>the hearts of the people melted and became like water.

The Sin of Achan

<sup>10</sup>So the LORD said to Joshua: "Get up! Why do you lie thus on your face? <sup>11</sup>Israel has sinned, and they have also transgressed My covenant which I commanded them. <sup>k</sup>For they have even taken some of the accursed things, and have both stolen and <sup>l</sup>deceived; and they have also put it among their own stuff. <sup>12m</sup>Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because <sup>n</sup>they have become doomed to destruction. Neither will I be with you anymore, unless you destroy the accursed from among you. <sup>13</sup>Get up, <sup>o</sup>sanctify the people, and say, <sup>p</sup>Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, because thus says the LORD God of Israel: "There is an accursed thing in your midst, O Israel; you cannot stand before your enemies until you take away the accursed thing from among you." <sup>14</sup>In the morning therefore you shall be brought according to your tribes. And it shall be that the tribe which <sup>q</sup>the LORD takes shall come according to families; and the family which the LORD takes shall come by households; and the household which the LORD takes shall come man by man. <sup>15</sup>Then it shall be that he who is taken with the accursed thing shall be burned with fire, he and all that he has, because he has <sup>r</sup>transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he <sup>s</sup>has done a disgraceful thing in Israel."

<sup>16</sup>So Joshua rose early in the morning and brought Israel by their tribes, and the tribe of Judah was taken. <sup>17</sup>He brought the clan of Judah, and he took the family of the Zarhites; and he brought the family of the Zarhites man by man, and Zabdi was taken. <sup>18</sup>Then he brought his household man by man, and Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, <sup>u</sup>was taken.

<sup>19</sup>Now Joshua said to Achan, "My son, I beg you, <sup>v</sup>give glory to the LORD God of Israel, <sup>w</sup>and make confession to Him, and <sup>x</sup>tell me now what you have done; do not hide it from me."

* 7:1 Called Zimri in 1 Chronicles 2:6

7:6–9 Suffering—Joshua's prayer was one of despair. Why had God allowed their defeat? Whenever tragedy strikes it is hard to understand why God allowed it to happen to us. In this case it is clearly explained. Achan had greedily taken what was banned by God. Through his sin the whole camp was guilty of deception and thievery. There are other reasons, not related to sin, for God's permission of tragedy. Sometimes people suffer in order to fulfill a sovereign purpose not immediately apparent.

7:9 Your great name. Joshua is aware that there is an even larger issue at stake: God's reputation.

7:10–15 Israel has sinned. God had consistent standards for both Israel and the Canaanites. He had ordered Israel to destroy Canaan because of their sin. He could not allow Israel to accommodate sin and corruption, even that of only one man.

7:13 until you take away. The relationship between obedience and blessing is well illustrated here. Israel would have no further successes until the sin had been uncovered.

7:19 give glory to the LORD ... tell me now what you have done. We too dishonor the Lord when we hide our sins, and we honor Him when we confess them.

of silver, and a wedge of gold weighing fifty shekels, I coveted them and took them. And there they are, hidden in the earth in the midst of my tent, with the silver under it.”

<sup>22</sup>So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent; and there it was, hidden in his tent, with the silver under it. <sup>23</sup>And they took them from the midst of the tent, brought them to Joshua and to all the children of Israel, and laid them out before the LORD. <sup>24</sup>Then Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, the silver, the garment, the wedge of gold, his sons, his daughters, his oxen, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent, and <sup>25</sup>all that he had, and they brought them to <sup>26</sup>the Valley of Achor. <sup>25</sup>And Joshua said, <sup>26</sup>“Why have you troubled us? The LORD will trouble you this day.” <sup>27</sup>So all Israel stoned him with stones; and they burned them with fire after they had stoned them with stones.

<sup>28</sup>Then they <sup>29</sup>raised over him a great heap of stones, still there to this day. So <sup>30</sup>the LORD turned from the fierceness of His anger. Therefore the name of that place has been called <sup>31</sup>the Valley of Achor* to this day.

The Fall of Ai

8 Now the LORD said to Joshua: <sup>2</sup>“Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed; take all the people of war with you, and arise, go up to Ai. See, <sup>3</sup>I have given into your hand the king of Ai, his people, his city, and his land. <sup>4</sup>And you shall do to Ai and its king as you did to <sup>5</sup>Jericho and its king. Only <sup>6</sup>its spoil and its cattle you shall take as booty for yourselves. Lay an ambush for the city behind it.”

and it will come about, when they come out against us as at the first, that <sup>8</sup>we shall flee before them. <sup>9</sup>For they will come out after us till we have drawn them from the city, for they will say, <sup>10</sup>‘They are fleeing before us as at the first.’ Therefore we will flee before them. <sup>11</sup>Then you shall rise from the ambush and seize the city, for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand. <sup>12</sup>And it will be, when you have taken the city, <sup>13</sup>that you shall set the city on fire. According to the commandment of the LORD you shall do. <sup>14</sup>See, I have commanded you.”

<sup>9</sup>Joshua therefore sent them out; and they went to lie in ambush, and stayed between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai; but Joshua lodged that night among the people. <sup>10</sup>Then Joshua rose up early in the morning and mustered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai. <sup>11</sup>And all the people of war who were with him went up and drew near; and they came before the city and camped on the north side of Ai. Now a valley lay between them and Ai. <sup>12</sup>So he took about five thousand men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the city. <sup>13</sup>And when they had set the people, all the army that was on the north of the city, and its rear guard on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley.

<sup>14</sup>Now it happened, when the king of Ai saw it, that the men of the city hurried and rose early and went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at an appointed place before the plain. But he <sup>15</sup>did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city. <sup>16</sup>And Joshua and all Israel <sup>17</sup>made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness. <sup>18</sup>So all the people who were in Ai were called together to pursue them. And they pursued Joshua and were drawn away from the city. <sup>19</sup>There was not a man left in Ai or Bethel who did not go out after Israel.

* 7:26 Literally Trouble

7:25 stoned him with stones. Achan and all that he had were brought out and stoned. This seems like a severe punishment and one that is hard to understand. But it illustrated God’s firm insistence on holiness. God could not tolerate the sin Achan had committed and He had to deal with him. It is a sobering thought for us, to remember that often our sins do not affect only ourselves, they also cause others to stumble and fall. We deserve punishment as severe as Achan’s, but Jesus Christ took over our penalty and through His blood we can be reconciled to God.

8:1 Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed. The sins of Achan had broken the special relationship God had established with His people, but God had not abandoned them.

8:7 the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand. Israel was completely dependent on God for their success.

8:12–17 Wisdom—The name Ai means “ruin” or “heap.” Unlike Jericho, Ai was not a walled city, to Israel it was just a rubble heap. It looked so easy, especially after their resounding victory at Jericho, that they set out to attack without asking for the Lord’s direction. In facing tasks that seem well within our powers, we also often forget to ask for the Lord’s help. Wisdom in the believer’s life demands persistence in depending on the Lord’s strength and direction in little problems as well as the big ones.

So they left the city open and pursued Israel.

<sup>18</sup>Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Stretch out the spear that is in your hand toward Ai, for I will give it into your hand.” And Joshua stretched out the spear that was in his hand toward the city. <sup>19</sup>So those in ambush arose quickly out of their place; they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand, and they entered the city and took it, and hurried to set the city on fire. <sup>20</sup>And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and behold, the smoke of the city ascended to heaven. So they had no power to flee this way or that way, and the people who had fled to the wilderness turned back on the pursuers.

<sup>21</sup>Now when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city and that the smoke of the city ascended, they turned back and struck down the men of Ai. <sup>22</sup>Then the others came out of the city against them; so they were caught in the midst of Israel, some on this side and some on that side. And they struck them down, so that they <sup>k</sup>let none of them remain or escape. <sup>23</sup>But the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.

<sup>24</sup>And it came to pass when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness where they pursued them, and when they all had fallen by the edge of the sword until they were consumed, that all the Israelites returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword. <sup>25</sup>So it was that all who fell that day, both men and women, were twelve thousand—all the people of Ai. <sup>26</sup>For Joshua did not draw back his hand, with which he stretched out the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. <sup>27</sup>Only the livestock and the spoil of that city Israel took as booty for themselves, according to the word of the LORD which He had <sup>n</sup>commanded Joshua. <sup>28</sup>So Joshua burned Ai and made it <sup>a</sup>a heap forever, a desolation to this day. <sup>29</sup>And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until evening. <sup>a</sup>And as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his corpse down from the tree, cast it at the entrance of the gate of the city, and <sup>r</sup>raise over it a great heap of stones that remains to this day.

Joshua Renews the Covenant

the servant of the LORD had commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the Book of the Law of Moses: <sup>t</sup>“an altar of whole stones over which no man has wielded an iron tool.”* And <sup>u</sup>they offered on it burnt offerings to the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings. <sup>32</sup>And there, in the presence of the children of Israel, <sup>v</sup>he wrote on the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he had written. <sup>33</sup>Then all Israel, with their elders and officers and judges, stood on either side of the ark before the priests, the Levites, <sup>w</sup>who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, <sup>x</sup>the stranger as well as he who was born among them. Half of them were in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, <sup>y</sup>as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded before, that they should bless the people of Israel. <sup>34</sup>And afterward <sup>z</sup>he read all the words of the law, <sup>a</sup>the blessings and the cursings, according to all that is written in the <sup>b</sup>Book of the Law. <sup>35</sup>There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded which Joshua did not read before all the assembly of Israel, <sup>c</sup>with the women, the little ones, <sup>d</sup>and the strangers who were living among them.

The Treaty with the Gibeonites

9 And it came to pass when <sup>a</sup>all the kings who were on this side of the Jordan, in the hills and in the lowland and in all the coasts of <sup>b</sup>the Great Sea toward Lebanon—<sup>c</sup>the Hittite, the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite—heard about it, <sup>2</sup>that they <sup>d</sup>gathered together to fight with Joshua and Israel with one accord.

* 8:31 Deuteronomy 27:5, 6

9:3 Gibeon. Gibeon was relatively close to Ai, and about five miles northwest of Jerusalem.

9:6 We have come from a far country. Israel was allowed to make treaties with cities that were far away (Ex. 34:11–12; Deut. 20:10–18). If the Gibeonites had been telling the truth, a treaty with them would have been permissible.

<sup>8</sup>But they said to Joshua, <sup>i</sup>“We are your servants.”

And Joshua said to them, “Who are you, and where do you come from?”

<sup>9</sup>So they said to him: <sup>k</sup>“From a very far country your servants have come, because of the name of the LORD your God; for we have <sup>l</sup>heard of His fame, and all that He did in Egypt, <sup>l</sup>and <sup>m</sup>all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan—to Sihon king of Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who was at Ashtaroht. <sup>l</sup>Therefore our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us, saying, ‘Take provisions with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and say to them, “We are your servants; now therefore, make a covenant with us.”’ <sup>l</sup>2 This bread of ours we took hot for our provision from our houses on the day we departed to come to you. But now look, it is dry and moldy. <sup>l</sup>3 And these wineskins which we filled were new, and see, they are torn; and these our garments and our sandals have become old because of the very long journey.”

<sup>l</sup>6 And it happened at the end of three days, after they had made a covenant with them, that they heard that they were their neighbors who dwelt near them. <sup>l</sup>7 Then the children of Israel journeyed and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were <sup>p</sup>Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kirjath Jearim. <sup>l</sup>8 But the children of Israel did not attack them, <sup>q</sup>because the rulers of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD God of Israel. And all the congregation complained against the rulers.

<sup>l</sup>9 Then all the rulers said to all the congregation, “We have sworn to them by the LORD God of Israel; now therefore, we may not touch them. <sup>l</sup>20 This we will do to them: We will let them live, lest <sup>r</sup>wrath be upon us because of the oath which we swore to them.” <sup>l</sup>21 And the rulers said to them, “Let them live, but let them be <sup>s</sup>woodcutters and water carriers for all the congregation, as the rulers had <sup>t</sup>promised them.”

<sup>l</sup>24 So they answered Joshua and said, “Because your servants were clearly told that the LORD your God <sup>x</sup>commanded His servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you; therefore <sup>y</sup>we were very much afraid for our lives because of you, and have done this thing. <sup>l</sup>25 And now, here we are, <sup>z</sup>in your hands; do with us as it seems good and right to do to us.” <sup>l</sup>26 So he did to them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, so that they did not kill them. <sup>l</sup>27 And that day Joshua made them <sup>a</sup>woodcutters and water carriers for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD, <sup>b</sup>in the place which He would choose, even to this day.

The Sun Stands Still

10 Now it came to pass when Adonizadek king of Jerusalem <sup>a</sup>heard how Joshua had taken <sup>b</sup>Ai and had utterly destroyed it—<sup>c</sup>as he had done to Jericho and its king, so he had done to <sup>d</sup>Ai and its king—and <sup>e</sup>how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were among them, <sup>l</sup>2 that they <sup>f</sup>feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, like one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty. <sup>l</sup>3 Therefore Adonizadek king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, Piram king of Jarmuth, Japhia king of Lachish, and Debir king of Eglon, saying, <sup>l</sup>4 “Come up to me and help me, that we may attack Gibeon, for <sup>g</sup>it has made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel.” <sup>l</sup>5 Therefore the five kings of the <sup>h</sup>Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, <sup>l</sup>6 gathered together and went up,

9:14 did not ask counsel of the LORD. Significantly, the Israelites did not ask God’s advice about making peace with the Gibeonites, contrary to God’s explicit instructions to Joshua (Num. 27:21).

9:18 Questioning—The congregation rose up and complained to their leaders about making the treaty with Gibeon because they knew the leaders had not consulted the Lord. There is a time to confront leaders, specifically when they sin or when they act in their own wisdom without asking for God’s direction. When the leaders appear to be traveling down the wrong path, the people can always ask respectfully, “Have you consulted the Lord about this? Did you get an answer?”

9:20 the oath which we swore. Oath taking and swearing was serious business. To take an oath was to give a sacred and unbreakable promise to do a certain thing. Because of the unbreakable nature of an oath, the covenant the Israelites made with the Gibeonites could not be revoked, even though it was obtained under false pretenses.

they and all their armies, and camped before Gibeon and made war against it.

<sup>12</sup>Then Joshua spoke to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel:

<sup>13</sup> So the sun stood still,
And the moon stopped,
Till the people had revenge
Upon their enemies.

<sup>u</sup>Is this not written in the Book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and did not hasten to go down for about a whole day. <sup>14</sup>And there has been <sup>v</sup>no day like that, before it or after it, that the LORD heeded the voice of a man; for <sup>w</sup>the LORD fought for Israel.

<sup>15x</sup>Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

The Amorite Kings Executed

<sup>16</sup>But these five kings had fled and hidden themselves in a cave at Makkedah. <sup>17</sup>And it was told Joshua, saying, “The five kings have been found hidden in the cave at Makkedah.”

<sup>18</sup>So Joshua said, “Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and set men by it to guard them. <sup>19</sup>And do not stay there yourselves, but pursue your enemies, and attack their rear guard. Do not allow them to enter their cities, for the LORD your God has delivered them into your hand.” <sup>20</sup>Then it happened, while Joshua and the children of Israel made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they had finished, that those who escaped entered fortified cities. <sup>21</sup>And all the people returned to the camp, to Joshua at Makkedah, in peace.

<sup>22</sup>Then Joshua said, “Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings to me from the cave.” <sup>23</sup>And they did so, and brought out those five kings to him from the cave: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

<sup>24</sup>So it was, when they brought out those kings to Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said to the captains of the men of war who went with him, “Come near, put your feet on the necks of these kings.” And they drew near and <sup>z</sup>put their feet on their necks. <sup>25</sup>Then Joshua said to them, <sup>a</sup>“Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed; be strong and of good courage, for <sup>b</sup>thus the LORD will do to all your enemies against whom you fight.” <sup>26</sup>And afterward Joshua struck them and killed them, and hanged them on five trees; and they <sup>c</sup>were hanging on the trees until evening. <sup>27</sup>So it was at the time of the going down of the sun that Joshua commanded, and they <sup>d</sup>took them down from the trees, cast them into the cave where they had been hidden, and laid large stones against the cave’s mouth, which remain until this very day.

10:10 the LORD routed them. Despite Joshua’s presence with his warriors, it was God who gave the victory, and God who received the credit.

10:13 the Book of Jasher. This piece of literature is mentioned again in 2 Samuel 1:18, confirming what is said here. Nothing else is known of the Book of Jasher; it is not part of the Bible, and no known portion of it has survived.

10:14 the LORD heeded the voice of a man. Any person can gain God’s attention in prayer. God may answer our pleas by saying no, but we can be certain that He always listens and answers. This incident was remembered as being like no other because God said yes to a request which He otherwise always answers no: He actually stopped time to allow the Israelites to finish the battle.

10:24 put your feet on the necks of these kings. Putting one’s foot on a slain enemy was a declaration of victory. In Psalm 110:1 the Lord said, “I [will] make Your enemies Your footstool” (see also Ps. 8:6). God also speaks of placing Jesus’ enemies under His feet (1 Cor. 15:25–27). Ancient sculptures show Assyrian kings doing this to their vanquished enemies.

10:25 be strong and of good courage. Joshua encourages the people with the same words God used to encourage him (1:6,9; 10:8). God’s words, written for us in the Bible, are the best form of encouragement we could have.

Conquest of the Southland

<sup>28</sup>On that day Joshua took Makkedah, and struck it and its king with the edge of the sword. He utterly <sup>e</sup>destroyed them*—all the people who were in it. He let none remain. He also did to the king of Makkedah <sup>f</sup>as he had done to the king of Jericho.

<sup>29</sup>Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, to <sup>g</sup>Libnah; and they fought against Libnah. <sup>30</sup>And the LORD also delivered it and its king into the hand of Israel; he struck it and all the people who were in it with the edge of the sword. He let none remain in it, but did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.

<sup>31</sup>Then Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, to Lachish; and they encamped against it and fought against it. <sup>32</sup>And the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, who took it on the second day, and struck it and all the people who were in it with the edge of the sword, according to all that he had done to Libnah. <sup>33</sup>Then Horem king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua struck him and his people, until he left him none remaining.

<sup>34</sup>From Lachish Joshua passed to Eglon, and all Israel with him; and they encamped against it and fought against it. <sup>35</sup>They took it on that day and struck it with the edge of the sword; all the people who were in it he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

<sup>36</sup>So Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, to <sup>h</sup>Hebron; and they fought against it. <sup>37</sup>And they took it and struck it with the edge of the sword—its king, all its cities, and all the people who were in it; he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon, but utterly destroyed it and all the people who were in it.

<sup>38</sup>Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to <sup>i</sup>Debir; and they fought against it. <sup>39</sup>And he took it and its king and all its cities; they struck them with the edge of the sword and utterly destroyed all the people who were in it. He left none remaining; as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir and its king, as he had done also to Libnah and its king.

The Northern Conquest

11 And it came to pass, when Jabin king of Hazor heard these things, that he <sup>q</sup>sent to Jobab king of Madon, to the king <sup>r</sup>of Shimron, to the king of Achshaph, <sup>2</sup>and to the kings who were from the north, in the mountains, in the plain south of <sup>s</sup>Chinneroth, in the lowland, and in the heights <sup>t</sup>of Dor on the west, <sup>3</sup>to the Canaanites in the east and in the west, the <sup>u</sup>Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Jebusite in the mountains, <sup>v</sup>and the Hivite below <sup>w</sup>Hermon <sup>x</sup>in the land of Mizpah. <sup>4</sup>So they went out, they and all their armies with them, as many people <sup>y</sup>as the sand that is on the seashore in multitude, with very many horses and chariots. <sup>5</sup>And when all these kings

* 10:28 Following Masoretic Text and most authorities; many Hebrew manuscripts, some manuscripts of the Septuagint, and some manuscripts of the Targum read it. * 10:40 Hebrew Negev, and so throughout this book

10:30 the LORD. Here again we are reminded that the Lord was Israel's warrior. As He fought for them, we too can trust Him fully to fight for us. Indeed, He fought the ultimate fight for us on the cross, to set us free from death forever. We can also trust Him to be with us in the day-to-day fight against evil and sin.

10:28–43 Fervor—All of Israel was zealous to do just as the Lord commanded, and the success they experienced was attributed to the Lord. But how can such destruction be regarded as honoring to God? The Bible gives reasons for the wiping out of these peoples, and these reasons are in accord with the tenor of the whole Bible. The Canaanites were guilty of extreme wickedness (Deut. 7:2–11; 20:16–18). God is completely holy, and He therefore cannot tolerate sin. Sin must be judged. He is also patient. For many years the Canaanite sin did not justify annihilation. But that time did arrive, and it came in the time of Joshua. Israel was a tool in the hand of God to judge the wickedness of those nations. Leviticus 18 is a gruesome list of their evil actions, including incest, adultery, child sacrifice, homosexuality, and bestiality. The Canaanites brought God's judgment on themselves by their own sins. Canaan was not destroyed without plenty of warning. God is never unjust. They were a thoroughly debased society, hostile to all God's ways (Deut. 9:4–5). The most sobering reflection is that now, today, many of those wicked sins listed in Leviticus 18 are present in our society. God's judgment in the last day will be complete indeed.

11:4 very many horses and chariots. In this time in history, horses were used for pulling chariots which accompanied the infantry and carried a rider with a bow or a supply of spears. The enemy of Israel came well armed and with many soldiers to fight—but it made no difference. Again God defeated Israel's had met together, they came and camped together at the waters of Merom to fight against Israel.

<sup>6</sup>But the LORD said to Joshua, <sup>i</sup>“Do not be afraid because of them, for tomorrow about this time I will deliver all of them slain before Israel. You shall <sup>k</sup>hamstring their horses and burn their chariots with fire.” <sup>7</sup>So Joshua and all the people of war with him came against them suddenly by the waters of Merom, and they attacked them. <sup>8</sup>And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, who defeated them and chased them to Greater <sup>l</sup>Sidon, to the Brook <sup>m</sup>Misrephoth,* and to the Valley of Mizpah eastward; they attacked them until they left none of them remaining. <sup>9</sup>So Joshua did to them as the LORD had told him: he hamstringed their horses and burned their chariots with fire.

<sup>12</sup>So all the cities of those kings, and all their kings, Joshua took and struck with the edge of the sword. He utterly destroyed them, <sup>p</sup>as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded. <sup>13</sup>But as for the cities that stood on their mounds,* Israel burned none of them, except Hazer only, which Joshua burned. <sup>14</sup>And all the <sup>q</sup>spoils of these cities and the livestock, the children of Israel took as booty for themselves; but they struck every man with the edge of the sword until they had destroyed them, and they left none breathing. <sup>15</sup>As the LORD had commanded Moses His servant, so <sup>r</sup>Moses commanded Joshua, and <sup>s</sup>so Joshua did. He left nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

Summary of Joshua's Conquests

Jordan plain*—the mountains of Israel and its lowlands, <sup>w</sup>from Mount Halak and the ascent to Seir, even as far as Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon. He captured <sup>x</sup>all their kings, and struck them down and killed them. <sup>18</sup>Joshua made war a long time with all those kings. <sup>19</sup>There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, except <sup>y</sup>the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon. All the others they took in battle. <sup>20</sup>For <sup>z</sup>it was of the LORD to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that He might utterly destroy them, and that they might receive no mercy, but that He might destroy them, <sup>a</sup>as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>23</sup>So Joshua took the whole land, <sup>e</sup>according to all that the LORD had said to Moses; and Joshua gave it as an inheritance to Israel <sup>f</sup>according to their divisions by their tribes. Then the land <sup>g</sup>rested from war.

The Kings Conquered by Moses

12 These are the kings of the land whom the children of Israel defeated, and whose land they possessed on the other side of the Jordan toward the rising of the sun, <sup>h</sup>from the River Arnon <sup>i</sup>to Mount Hermon, and all the eastern Jordan plain: <sup>2</sup>One king was <sup>c</sup>Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon and ruled half of Gilead, from Aroer, which is on the bank of the River Arnon, from the middle of that river, even as far as the River Jabbok, which is the border of the Ammonites, <sup>3</sup>and <sup>d</sup>the eastern Jordan plain from the Sea of Chinneroth as far as the Sea of the Arabah (the enemy. God limited the size of the Israelite army so they would not be depending on military strength, but rather on Him.

11:8 Greater Sidon, to the Brook Misrephoth. Great Sidon was a Phoenician city on the Mediterranean coast, and Misrephoth was south of it. The defeat of the Canaanites described here shows them fleeing in all directions.

11:16–12:24 Zeal—Joshua and the people served as the instruments of divine justice and fulfilled the word spoken to Moses concerning the gift of the land of Canaan. The list of the defeated kings who had banded together against Israel bears testimony to the zeal of Israel for God and the obedience and faithfulness of Joshua. As Christians we can eagerly anticipate the final outcome of world history, when the “kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ” (Rev. 11:15).

11:20 to harden their hearts. The people whose hearts God hardened were not good people, but people already committed to doing evil.

<sup>6m</sup>These Moses the servant of the LORD and the children of Israel had conquered; and <sup>n</sup>Moses the servant of the LORD had given it as a possession to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh.

The Kings Conquered by Joshua

Remaining Land to Be Conquered

13 Now Joshua <sup>a</sup>was old, advanced in years. And the LORD said to him: “You are old, advanced in years, and there remains very much land yet to be possessed.

<sup>2b</sup>This is the land that yet remains: <sup>c</sup>all the territory of the Philistines and all <sup>d</sup>that of the Geshurites, <sup>3e</sup>from Sihor, which is east of Egypt, as far as the border of Ekron northward (which is counted as Canaanite); the five lords of the Philistines—the Gazites, the Ashdodites, the Ashkelonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also <sup>e</sup>the Avites; <sup>4</sup>from the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that belongs to the Sidonians <sup>5</sup>as far as Aphek, to the border of <sup>f</sup>the Amorites; <sup>6</sup>the land of <sup>g</sup>the Gebalites,* and all Lebanon, toward the sunrise, <sup>7</sup>from Baal Gad below Mount Hermon as far as the entrance to Hamath; <sup>8</sup>all the inhabitants of the mountains from Lebanon as far as <sup>h</sup>the Brook Misrephoth,* and all the Sidonians—them <sup>m</sup>I will drive out from before the children of Israel; only <sup>n</sup>divide it by lot to Israel as an inheritance, as I have commanded you. <sup>7</sup>Now therefore, divide this land as an inheritance to the nine tribes and half the tribe of Manasseh.”

The Land Divided East of the Jordan

no inheritance; the sacrifices of the LORD God of Israel made by fire are their inheritance, <sup>x</sup>as He said to them.

The Land of Reuben

<sup>15v</sup>And Moses had given to the tribe of the children of Reuben an inheritance according to their families. <sup>16</sup>Their territory was <sup>z</sup>from Aroer, which is on the bank of the River Arnon, <sup>a</sup>and the city that is in the midst of the ravine, <sup>b</sup>and all the plain by Medeba; <sup>17c</sup>Heshbon and all its cities that are in the plain: Dibon, Bamoth Baal, Beth Baal Meon, <sup>18d</sup>Jahaza, Kedemoth, Mephath, <sup>19e</sup>Kirjathaim, <sup>f</sup>Sibmah, Zereth Shihar on the mountain of the valley, <sup>20</sup>Beth Peor, <sup>g</sup>the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth Jeshimoth— <sup>21h</sup>all the cities of the plain and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, <sup>i</sup>whom Moses had struck <sup>j</sup>with the princes of Midian: Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, who were princes of Sihon dwelling in the country. <sup>22</sup>The children of Israel also killed with the sword <sup>k</sup>Balaam the son of Beor, the soothsayer, among those who were killed by them. <sup>23</sup>And the border of the children of Reuben was the bank of the Jordan. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben according to their families, the cities and their villages.

The Land of Gad

Half the Tribe of Manasseh (East)

<sup>29s</sup>Moses also had given an inheritance to half the tribe of Manasseh; it was for half the tribe of the children of Manasseh according to their families: <sup>30</sup>Their territory was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and <sup>t</sup>all the towns of Jair which are in Bashan, sixty cities; <sup>31</sup>half of Gilead, and <sup>u</sup>Ashtaroth and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were for the <sup>v</sup>children of Machir the son of Manasseh, for half of the children of Machir according to their families.

<sup>32</sup>These are the areas which Moses had distributed as an inheritance in the plains of Moab on the other side of the Jordan, by Jericho eastward. <sup>33w</sup>But to the tribe of Levi Moses had given no inheritance; the LORD God of Israel was their inheritance, <sup>x</sup>as He had said to them.

The Land Divided West of the Jordan

14 These are the areas which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, <sup>a</sup>which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel distributed as an inheritance to them. <sup>2</sup>Their inheritance was <sup>b</sup>by lot, as the LORD had commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes and the half-tribe. <sup>3</sup>For Moses had given the inheritance of the two tribes and the half-tribe on the other side of the Jordan; but to the Levites he had given no inheritance among them. <sup>4</sup>For <sup>d</sup>the children of Joseph were two tribes: Manasseh and Ephraim. And they gave no part to the Levites in the land, except <sup>e</sup>cities to dwell in, with their common-lands for their livestock and their property. <sup>5f</sup>As the LORD had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did; and they divided the land.

Caleb Inherits Hebron

<sup>6</sup>Then the children of Judah came to Joshua in Gilgal. And Caleb the son of Jephunneh the <sup>g</sup>Kenizzite said to him: “You know <sup>h</sup>the word which the LORD said to Moses the man of God concerning <sup>i</sup>you 49:5–7). But later the Levites showed their faithfulness to the Lord (Ex. 32:25–28) and were promised a blessing (Deut. 33:8–11). Instead of land, the sacrifices of God would be their privileged inheritance.

13:22 Balaam the son of Beor. Balaam was a pagan fortune-teller who had been hired by Balak, king of Moab, to curse the Israelites in the wilderness (Num. 22–24).

14:6 Caleb . . . the Kenizzite. The Kenizzites were a non-Israelite group descended from Esau through Kenaz (Gen. 15:19; 36:11,15,42). It seems that Caleb, one of the most faithful to God of his time, was just a generation removed from a non-Israelite family. Although the Jews are indeed God’s chosen people, He loves and honors anyone who obeys His commands.

and me in Kadesh Barnea. <sup>7</sup>I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD <sup>1</sup>sent me from Kadesh Barnea to spy out the land, and I brought back word to him as it was in my heart. <sup>8</sup>Nevertheless <sup>k</sup>my brethren who went up with me made the heart of the people melt, but I wholly <sup>l</sup>followed the LORD my God. <sup>9</sup>So Moses swore on that day, saying, <sup>m</sup>“Surely the land <sup>n</sup>where your foot has trodden shall be your inheritance and your children’s forever, because you have wholly followed the LORD my God.” <sup>10</sup>And now, behold, the LORD has kept me <sup>a</sup>alive, <sup>pas</sup>as He said, these forty-five years, ever since the LORD spoke this word to Moses while Israel wandered in the wilderness; and now, here I am this day, eighty-five years old. <sup>11a</sup>As yet I am as strong this day as on the day that Moses sent me; just as my strength was then, so now is my strength for war, both <sup>r</sup>for going out and for coming in. <sup>12</sup>Now therefore, give me this mountain of which the LORD spoke in that day; for you heard in that day how <sup>s</sup>the Anakim were there, and that the cities were great and fortified. <sup>t</sup>It may be that the LORD will be with me, and <sup>u</sup>I shall be able to drive them out as the LORD said.”

<sup>a</sup>Then the land had rest from war.

The Land of Judah

15 So this was the lot of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families:

Akrabbim, passed along to Zin, ascended on the south side of Kadesh Barnea, passed along to Hezron, went up to Adar, and went around to Karkaa. <sup>4</sup>From there it passed <sup>e</sup>toward Azmon and went out to the Brook of Egypt; and the border ended at the sea. This shall be your southern border.

And the <sup>f</sup>border on the northern quarter began at the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan. <sup>6</sup>The border went up to <sup>g</sup>Beth Hoglah and passed north of Beth Arabah; and the border went up <sup>h</sup>to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben. <sup>7</sup>Then the border went up toward <sup>i</sup>Debir from <sup>j</sup>the Valley of Achor, and it turned northward toward Gilgal, which is before the Ascent of Adummim, which is on the south side of the valley. The border continued toward the waters of En Shemesh and ended at <sup>k</sup>En Rogel. <sup>8</sup>And the border went up <sup>l</sup>by the Valley of the Son of Hinnom to the southern slope of the <sup>m</sup>Jebusite city (which is Jerusalem). The border went up to the top of the mountain that lies before the Valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the Valley <sup>n</sup>of Rephaim<sup>2</sup> northward. <sup>9</sup>Then the border went around from the top of the hill to <sup>o</sup>the fountain of the water of Nephtoah, and extended to the cities of Mount Ephron. And the border went around <sup>p</sup>to Baalah (which is <sup>q</sup>Kirjath Jearim). <sup>10</sup>Then the border turned westward from Baalah to Mount Seir, passed along to the side of Mount Jearim on the north (which is Chesalon), went down to Beth Shemesh, and passed on to <sup>r</sup>Timnah. <sup>11</sup>And the border went out to the side of <sup>s</sup>Ekron northward. Then the border went around to Shicron, passed along to Mount Baalah, and extended to Jabneel; and the border ended at the sea.

14:10–11 Thankfulness—God’s Word is as dependable as its author. His promise to Caleb waited forty-five years for fulfillment, but His blessing was sure. Caleb’s view of all God’s goodness to him resounded with thankfulness. Being silently thankful is important—God knows our hearts—but thankfulness should also be expressed with words of praise and glorification for the giver of all good things.

14:14 he wholly followed the LORD God of Israel. Caleb’s wholehearted devotion to God was never a question, even in the wilderness. In the Bible, people are sometimes rewarded in this life for their faithfulness to God, but not always (Heb. 11:32–40). The believer’s ultimate blessing will come in eternity. Those who set their hope on that promise will lose nothing, whatever they suffer in this life.

15:1–12 the lot of the tribe. The boundaries of Judah in southern Canaan are described in detail. These details may at first seem uninteresting, but they serve to underline the fact that this passage is talking about real people, in a real place, in a real time in history.

Caleb Occupies Hebron and Debir

The Cities of Judah

Ephraim and West Manasseh

15:13 Word of God—Caleb was not afraid to face the giants of Hebron because he knew God would be with him. In the same way, we as Christians need not fear the "giants" we face in spiritual battle. God will be with us also. His resources are more than sufficient to overcome the hosts of darkness which confront us in this world (1 John 4:4).

15:63 with the children of Judah. Judges 1:21 repeats this verse almost verbatim, except that it says Benjamin, not Judah, failed to drive the Jebusites out of Jerusalem. Jerusalem sat astride the boundary between Judah and Benjamin. In the early period, Jerusalem did not belong strictly to either tribe. The tribe of Judah later captured the city from the Jebusites (Judg. 1:8), and from then on it was considered a city of Judah.

The Land of Ephraim

<sup>6</sup>And the border went out toward the sea on the north side of <sup>i</sup>Michmethath; then the border went around eastward to Taanath Shiloh, and passed by it on the east of Janohah. <sup>7</sup>Then it went down from Janohah to Ataroth and Naarah,* reached to Jericho, and came out at the Jordan.

<sup>10m</sup>And they did not drive out the Canaanites who dwell in Gezer; but the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites to this day and have become forced laborers.

The Other Half-Tribe of Manasseh (West)

17 There was also a lot for the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the <sup>a</sup>firstborn of Joseph: namely for <sup>b</sup>Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, because he was a man of war; therefore he was given <sup>c</sup>Gilead and Bashan. <sup>2</sup>And there was a lot for <sup>d</sup>the rest of the children of Manasseh according to their families: <sup>e</sup>for the children of Abiezer,* the children of Helek, <sup>f</sup>the children of Asriel, the children of Shechem, <sup>g</sup>the children of Hephher, and the children of Shemida; these were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph according to their families.

<sup>3</sup>But <sup>h</sup>Zelophehad the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but only daughters. And these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. <sup>4</sup>And they came near before <sup>i</sup>Eleazar the priest, before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the rulers, saying, <sup>j</sup>“The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers.” Therefore, according to the commandment of the LORD, he gave them an inheritance among their father’s brothers. <sup>5</sup>Ten shares fell to <sup>k</sup>Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which were on the other side of the Jordan, <sup>6</sup>because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance among his sons; and the rest of Manasseh’s sons had the land of Gilead.

<sup>10</sup>Southward it was Ephraim’s, northward it was Manasseh’s, and the sea was its border. Manasseh’s territory was adjoining Asher on the north and Issachar on the east. <sup>11</sup>And in Issachar and in Asher, <sup>o</sup>Manasseh had <sup>p</sup>Beth Shean and its towns, Ibleam and its towns, the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, the inhabitants of En Dor and its towns, the inhabitants of Tanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns—three hilly regions. <sup>12</sup>Yet <sup>q</sup>the children of Manasseh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities, but the Canaanites were determined to dwell in that land. <sup>13</sup>And it happened, when the children of Israel grew strong, that they put the Canaanites to <sup>r</sup>forced labor, but did not utterly drive them out.

More Land for Ephraim and Manasseh

<sup>14s</sup>Then the children of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, “Why have you given us only <sup>t</sup>one lot and one share to inherit, since we are <sup>u</sup>a great people, inasmuch as the LORD has blessed us until now?”

<sup>15</sup>So Joshua answered them, “If you are a great people, then go up to the forest country and clear a place for yourself

17:3–6 Zelophehad . . . had no sons but only daughters. This account serves to show again the theme of the Book of Joshua—that God is faithful to keep His promises. Joshua also was faithful to carry out the commands of God concerning His promise through Moses for the daughters of Zelophehad (Num. 26:33; 27:1–11).

there in the land of the Perizzites and the giants, since the mountains of Ephraim are too confined for you.”

<sup>16</sup>But the children of Joseph said, “The mountain country is not enough for us; and all the Canaanites who dwell in the land of the valley have <sup>v</sup>chariots of iron, both those who are of Beth Shean and its towns and those who are <sup>w</sup>of the Valley of Jezreel.”

<sup>17</sup>And Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph—to Ephraim and Manasseh—saying, “You are a great people and have great power; you shall not have only one lot, <sup>18</sup>but the mountain country shall be yours. Although it is wooded, you shall cut it down, and its farthest extent shall be yours; for you shall drive out the Canaanites, <sup>x</sup>though they have iron chariots and are strong.”

The Remainder of the Land Divided

18 Now the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together <sup>a</sup>at Shiloh, and <sup>b</sup>set up the tabernacle of meeting there. And the land was subdued before them. <sup>2</sup>But there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes which had not yet received their inheritance.

<sup>3</sup>Then Joshua said to the children of Israel: “How long will you neglect to go and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers has given you? <sup>4</sup>Pick out from among you three men for each tribe, and I will send them; they shall rise and go through the land, survey it according to their inheritance, and come back to me. <sup>5</sup>And they shall divide it into seven parts. <sup>6</sup>Judah shall remain in their territory on the south, and the <sup>e</sup>house of Joseph shall remain in their territory on the north. <sup>6</sup>You shall therefore survey the land in seven parts and bring the survey here to me, <sup>f</sup>that I may cast lots for you here before the LORD our God. <sup>7</sup>But the Levites have no part among you, for the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance. <sup>8</sup>And Gad, Reuben, and half the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan on the east, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them.”

<sup>8</sup>Then the men arose to go away; and

Joshua charged those who went to survey the land, saying, “Go, walk <sup>g</sup>through the land, survey it, and come back to me, that I may cast lots for you here before the LORD in Shiloh.” <sup>9</sup>So the men went, passed through the land, and wrote the survey in a book in seven parts by cities; and they came to Joshua at the camp in Shiloh. <sup>10</sup>Then Joshua cast <sup>h</sup>lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD, and there <sup>k</sup>Joshua divided the land to the children of Israel according to their divisions.

The Land of Benjamin

18:1 Shiloh. Shiloh was about 15 miles northwest of Jericho. Here the Israelites set up the tent of meeting (Ex. 26). This remained an important religious center for several hundred years (Judg. 18:31; 1 Sam. 1:9) until the taking of Jerusalem in David’s day.

18:3 Unfaithfulness.—The seven tribes yet to be settled seemed to have little desire to receive their inheritance and were rebuked for their half-heartedness. They had easily defeated the Canaanites, but they had not followed up on their victories and taken possession of all the land. This laziness was disobedience to God and showed lack of faith in His promises. In our own lives it is fatally easy to begin a work that God sets before us, and then slack off in our faithfulness before it is finished. The believer’s inheritance is reserved in heaven, and cannot be bought by any work of our own. However, God requests holiness of living on our part, and His commands must be obeyed.

along toward the north side of Arabah,* and went down to Arabah. <sup>19</sup>And the border passed along to the north side of Beth Hoglah; then the border ended at the north bay at the "Salt Sea, at the south end of the Jordan. This was the southern boundary.

<sup>20</sup>The Jordan was its border on the east side. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, according to its boundaries all around, according to their families.

Simeon's Inheritance with Judah

The Land of Zebulun

<sup>10</sup>The third lot came out for the children of Zebulun according to their families, and the border of their inheritance was as far as Sarid. <sup>11</sup>Their border went toward the west and to Maralah, went to Dabbasheth, and extended along the brook that is "east of Jokneam. <sup>12</sup>Then from Sarid it went eastward toward the sunrise along the border of Chisloth Tabor, and went out toward <sup>h</sup>Daberath, bypassing Japhia. <sup>13</sup>And from there it passed along on the east of <sup>i</sup>Gath Hephher, toward Eth Kazin, and extended to Rimmon, which borders on Neah. <sup>14</sup>Then the border went around it on the north side of Hannathon, and it ended in the Valley of Jipthah El. <sup>15</sup>Included were Kattath, Nahallal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem: twelve cities with their villages. <sup>16</sup>This was the inheritance of the children of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.

The Land of Issachar

The Land of Asher

The Land of Naphtali

Aznath Tabor, and went out from there toward Hukkok; it adjoined Zebulun on the south side and Asher on the west side, and ended at Judah by the Jordan toward the sunrise.<sup>35</sup> And the fortified cities are Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Chinnereth,<sup>36</sup> Adamah, Ramah, Hazor,<sup>37</sup> Kedesh, Edrei, En Hazor,<sup>38</sup> Iron, Migdal El, Horem, Beth Anath, and Beth Shemesh: nineteen cities with their villages.<sup>39</sup> This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families, the cities and their villages.

The Land of Dan

Joshua's Inheritance

<sup>49</sup>When they had made an end of dividing the land as an inheritance according to their borders, the children of Israel gave an inheritance among them to Joshua the son of Nun.<sup>50</sup> According to the word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked for,<sup>2</sup> Timnath Serah in the mountains of Ephraim; and he built the city and dwelt in it.

<sup>51</sup>These were the inheritances which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel divided as an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. So they made an end of dividing the country.

The Cities of Refuge

20 The LORD also spoke to Joshua, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Speak to the children of Israel, saying: <sup>a</sup>"Appoint for yourselves cities of refuge, of which I spoke to you through Moses, <sup>3</sup>that the slayer who kills a person accidentally or unintentionally may flee there; and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood. <sup>4</sup>And when he flees to one of those cities, and stands at the entrance of the gate of the city, and declares his case in the hearing of the elders of that city, they shall take him into the city as one of them, and give him a place, that he may dwell among them. <sup>5</sup>Then if the avenger of blood pursues him, they shall not deliver the slayer into his hand, because he struck his neighbor unintentionally, but did not hate him beforehand. <sup>6</sup>And he shall dwell in that city until he stands before the congregation for judgment, and until the death of the one who is high priest in those days. Then the slayer may return and come to his own city and his own house, to the city from which he fled."

<sup>7</sup>So they appointed Kedesh in Galilee, in the mountains of Naphtali, Shechem in the mountains of Ephraim, and Kirjath Arba (which is Hebron) in the mountains of Judah. <sup>8</sup>And on the other side of the Jordan, by Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer in the wilderness on the plain, from the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead, from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan, from the tribe of Manasseh. <sup>9</sup>These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel and for the stranger who dwelt among them, that whoever killed a person accidentally might flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood until he stood before the congregation.

Cities of the Levites

21 Then the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites came near to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua the son of Nun, and

19:50 Commandments—The account of the distribution of the land began with the recognition of Caleb's faithfulness to God. The conclusion recognizes Joshua as one who also believed God. Joshua's extreme service and faithfulness was rewarded by the Lord's command. When we delight to obey the word of the Lord, He also delights in giving us the desires of our hearts (Ps. 37:4).

20:3 accidentally. God's laws made allowance for motive and intent, just as modern criminal codes distinguish unintentional killing from murder. The avenger of blood was a close relative who was the "protector of family rights." (Ruth 3:13 and 4:1 translate the word used here for "avenger of blood" as "close relative.") God did not give license to take revenge however. He has clearly reserved that task for Himself alone (Deut. 32:35; Is. 34:8; Rom. 12:19). God's provision of these cities of refuge put a limit on private acts of vengeance.

20:7–8 appointed. The cities of refuge were evenly distributed so that none was more than a day's journey from any part of Israel's land.

to the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the children of Israel. <sup>2</sup>And they spoke to them at <sup>c</sup>Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, <sup>d</sup>"The LORD commanded through Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with their common-lands for our livestock." <sup>3</sup>So the children of Israel gave to the Levites from their inheritance, at the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their common-lands:

its common-land, and Mephaath with its common-land: four cities;* <sup>38</sup>and from the tribe of Gad, <sup>1</sup>Ramoth in Gilead with its common-land (a city of refuge for the slayer), Mahanaim with its common-land, <sup>39</sup>Heshbon with its common-land, and Jazer with its common-land: four cities in all. <sup>40</sup>So all the cities for the children of Merari according to their families, the rest of the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities.

The Promise Fulfilled

Eastern Tribes Return to Their Lands

22 Then Joshua called the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh, <sup>2</sup>and said to them: “You have kept <sup>a</sup>all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, <sup>b</sup>and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you. <sup>3</sup>You have not left your brethren these many days, up to this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God. <sup>4</sup>And now the LORD your God has given <sup>c</sup>rest to your brethren, as He promised them; now therefore, return and go to your tents <sup>and</sup> to the land of your possession, <sup>d</sup>which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side of the Jordan. <sup>5</sup>But <sup>e</sup>take careful heed to do the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, <sup>f</sup>to love the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways, to keep His commandments, to hold fast to Him, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul.” <sup>6</sup>So Joshua <sup>g</sup>blessed them and sent them away, and they went to their tents.

<sup>9</sup>So the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to <sup>i</sup>the country of Gilead, to the land of their possession, which they had obtained according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

An Altar by the Jordan

21:43–45 which He had sworn. Again we see the nature of our God—not only did He keep every promise, He also guaranteed that His people would have rest.

22:5 Perseverance—Past victories do not lessen the responsibility for present faithfulness. Joshua impressed upon the people, especially the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh (because they would be living in isolation from the rest of Israel), the urgent need to continue to zealously serve God. Our zeal for the Lord cannot cease because a crisis has passed. There is no certificate of discharge from the army of Christ.

22:11–12 have built an altar. The Bible does not reveal why this altar was built until the events have developed into a full-blown crisis. God had commanded Israel not to offer burnt offerings or sacrifices at any location except the tabernacle (Lev. 17:8–9) and not to worship other gods (Deut. 13:12–15). The punishment for violating both laws was death. This was why Israel gathered together to go to war against the three apparently erring tribes.

to the children of Reuben, to the children of Gad, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, <sup>14</sup>and with him ten rulers, one ruler each from the chief house of every tribe of Israel; and <sup>15</sup>each one was the head of the house of his father among the divisions* of Israel. <sup>15</sup>Then they came to the children of Reuben, to the children of Gad, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them, saying, <sup>16</sup>“Thus says the whole congregation of the LORD: ‘What <sup>17</sup>treachery is this that you have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that you have built for yourselves an altar, <sup>18</sup>that you might rebel this day against the LORD?’ <sup>17</sup>Is the iniquity <sup>19</sup>of Peor not enough for us, from which we are not cleansed till this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD, <sup>20</sup>but that you must turn away this day from following the LORD? And it shall be, if you rebel today against the LORD, that tomorrow <sup>21</sup>He will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel. <sup>22</sup>Nevertheless, if the land of your possession is unclean, <sup>23</sup>then cross over to the land of the possession of the LORD, ‘where the LORD’s tabernacle stands, and take possession among us; but do not rebel against the LORD, nor rebel against us, by building yourselves an altar besides the altar of the LORD our God. <sup>24</sup>Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? And that man did not perish alone in his iniquity.’”

descendants may speak to our descendants, saying, ‘What have you to do with the LORD God of Israel?’ <sup>28</sup>For the LORD has made the Jordan a border between you and us, you children of Reuben and children of Gad. You have no part in the LORD.” So your descendants would make our descendants cease fearing the LORD.’ <sup>29</sup>Therefore we said, ‘Let us now prepare to build ourselves an altar, not for burnt offerings nor for sacrifice, <sup>30</sup>but that it may be<sup>a</sup> a witness between you and us and our generations after us, that we may <sup>31</sup>perform the service of the LORD before Him with our burnt offerings, with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings; that your descendants may not say to our descendants in time to come, ‘You have no part in the LORD.’” <sup>32</sup>Therefore we said that it will be, when they say this to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may say, ‘Here is the replica of the altar of the LORD which our fathers made, though not for burnt offerings nor for sacrifices; but it is a witness between you and us.’ <sup>33</sup>Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn from following the LORD this day, <sup>34</sup>to build an altar for burnt offerings, for grain offerings, or for sacrifices, besides the altar of the LORD our God which is before His tabernacle.”

<sup>30</sup>Now when Phinehas the priest and the rulers of the congregation, the heads of the divisions* of Israel who were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh spoke, it pleased them. <sup>31</sup>Then Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh, “This day we perceive that the LORD is <sup>32</sup>among us, because you have not committed this treachery against the LORD. Now you have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the LORD.”

22:16–18 treachery. This is sometimes translated “trespass” and is the same word used to describe Achan’s sin (7:1). No one can sin in isolation. If the tribes east of the Jordan were indeed sinning, then the entire nation would feel the effects, as in the case of Achan.

22:23–28 we have done it for fear. The tribes to the east of the Jordan were afraid that geographical distance would isolate them and in time cause the Israelites west of the Jordan to reject them. Thus they built the altar to help prevent the existing unity from being lost. The eastern tribes were careful to label the altar for what it really was—a replica to serve as a witness for future generations.

22:30–31 Prudence. Jumping to conclusions can bring one to the brink of disaster. While their motives were good (maintaining purity), they did not stop to find out what was really going on. This incident provides us with a good example of the importance of communicating before we act. Even when we are dealing with a case of serious sin (as the western tribes thought they were), the first reaction should be to try and persuade the sinner to repent and return to the Lord.

Joshua’s Farewell Address

23 Now it came to pass, a long time after the LORD <sup>a</sup>had given rest to Israel from all their enemies round about, that Joshua <sup>b</sup>was old, advanced in age. <sup>2</sup>And Joshua <sup>c</sup>called for all Israel, for their elders, for their heads, for their judges, and for their officers, and said to them:

“I am old, advanced in age. <sup>3</sup>You have seen all that the <sup>d</sup>LORD your God has done to all these nations because of you, for the <sup>e</sup>LORD your God is He who has fought for you. <sup>4</sup>See, I have divided to you by lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from the Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, as far as the Great Sea westward. <sup>5</sup>And the LORD your God <sup>f</sup>will expel them from before you and drive them out of your sight. So you shall possess their land, <sup>6</sup>has the LORD your God promised you. <sup>7</sup>Therefore be very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, <sup>8</sup>lest you turn aside from it to the right hand or to the left, <sup>9</sup>and lest you <sup>g</sup>go among these nations, these who remain among you. You shall not <sup>h</sup>make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause anyone to <sup>i</sup>swear by them; you shall not <sup>j</sup>serve them nor bow down to them, <sup>k</sup>but you shall <sup>l</sup>hold fast to the LORD your God, as you have done to this day. <sup>9p</sup>For the LORD has driven out from before you great and strong nations; but as for you, no one has been able to stand against you to this day. <sup>10a</sup>One man of you shall chase a thousand, for the LORD your God is He who fights for you, <sup>11</sup>as He promised you. <sup>11s</sup>Therefore take careful heed to yourselves, that you love the LORD your God. <sup>12</sup>Or else, if indeed you do <sup>l</sup>go back, and cling to the remnant of these nations—these that remain among you—and <sup>m</sup>make marriages with them, and go in to them and they to you, <sup>13</sup>know for certain that <sup>n</sup>the LORD your God will no longer drive out these nations from before you. <sup>14</sup>But they shall be snares and traps to you, and scourges on your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land which the LORD your God has given you.

<sup>14</sup>Behold, this day <sup>1</sup>I am going the way of all the earth. And you know in all your hearts and in all your souls that <sup>2</sup>not one thing has failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spoke concerning you. All have come to pass for you; not one word of them has failed. <sup>15</sup>Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all the good things have come upon you which the LORD your God promised you, so the LORD will bring upon you <sup>3</sup>all harmful things, until He has destroyed you from this good land which the LORD your God has given you. <sup>16</sup>When you have transgressed the covenant of the LORD your God, which He commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed down to them, then the <sup>4</sup>anger of the LORD will burn against you, and you shall perish quickly from the good land which He has given you.”

The Covenant at Shechem

24 Then Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to <sup>a</sup>Shechem and <sup>b</sup>called for the elders of Israel, for their heads, for their judges, and for their officers; and they

* 22:34 Septuagint adds and half the tribe of Manasseh.

23:3 He who has fought for you. This is a reminder that the land belonged to the Lord and that He gave it to Israel.

23:10 One man of you shall chase. The power seen in God’s people was so dramatic it had to be miraculous.

23:12–13 Duty.—Certain outlines of duty are imposed on all mankind (Mic. 6:8). We know that one man’s specific duty may differ from another’s, but all share a single common requirement: all must give account before God of what they have done or left undone. The church cannot decide how well each person is performing; there is no “spiritual commitment meter” to give an exact rating of each person’s fulfillment of duty. Each person is responsible to maintain his or her own spiritual life.

23:12–13 make marriages with them. Years later, Solomon ignored this command and proved how destructive the sin of being unequally yoked could be (1 Kin. 3:1; 11:1–8; 2 Cor. 6:14).

23:16 perish . . . from the good land. This warning saw its most dramatic fulfillment when Judah was carried into Babylon because of its repeated rebellion against God (2 Kin. 25). The saddest thing is that Israel’s rebellion began almost immediately. God lovingly gave them every good thing, but when they disobeyed, they had to be punished.

24:1 Shechem. Shechem was a site of ancient religious significance and covenant making going back to Abraham’s day (Gen. 12:6; 33:18–20).

presented themselves before God. <sup>2</sup>And Joshua said to all the people, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel: <sup>d</sup>“Your fathers, including Terah, the father of Abraham and the father of Nahor, dwelt on the other side of the River* in old times; and <sup>e</sup>they served other gods. <sup>3</sup>Then I took your father Abraham from the other side of the River, led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his descendants and <sup>g</sup>gave him Isaac. <sup>4</sup>To Isaac I gave <sup>h</sup>Jacob and Esau. To <sup>i</sup>Esau I gave the mountains of Seir to possess, <sup>j</sup>but Jacob and his children went down to Egypt. <sup>5</sup><sup>k</sup>Also I sent Moses and Aaron, and <sup>l</sup>I plagued Egypt, according to what I did among them. Afterward I brought you out.

<sup>6</sup>Then I <sup>m</sup>brought your fathers out of Egypt, and you came to the sea; and the Egyptians pursued your fathers with chariots and horsemen to the Red Sea. <sup>7</sup>So they cried out to the LORD; and He put <sup>n</sup>darkness between you and the Egyptians, brought the sea upon them, and covered them. And <sup>o</sup>your eyes saw what I did in Egypt. Then you dwelt in the wilderness <sup>p</sup>a long time. <sup>8</sup>And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, who dwell on the other side of the Jordan, <sup>q</sup>and they fought with you. But I gave them into your hand, that you might possess their land, and I destroyed them from before you. <sup>9</sup>Then <sup>r</sup>Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose to make war against Israel, and <sup>s</sup>sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you. <sup>10</sup>But I would not listen to Balaam; <sup>t</sup>therefore he continued to bless you. So I delivered you out of his hand. <sup>11</sup>Then <sup>v</sup>you went over the Jordan and came to Jericho. And <sup>w</sup>the men of Jericho fought against you—also the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. But I delivered them into your hand. <sup>12</sup><sup>x</sup>I sent the hornet before you which drove them out from before you, also the two kings of the Amorites, but <sup>y</sup>not with your sword or with your bow. <sup>13</sup>I have given you a land for which you did not labor, and <sup>z</sup>cities which you did not build, and you dwell in them; you eat of the vineyards and olive groves which you did not plant.”

away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the River and <sup>d</sup>in Egypt. Serve the LORD! <sup>15</sup>And if it seems evil to you to serve the LORD, <sup>e</sup>choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether <sup>f</sup>the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the River, or <sup>g</sup>the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell. <sup>h</sup>But as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.”

<sup>16</sup>So the people answered and said: “Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods; <sup>17</sup>for the LORD our God is He who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, who did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way that we went and among all the people through whom we passed. <sup>18</sup>And the LORD drove out from before us all the people, including the Amorites who dwell in the land. <sup>19</sup>We also will serve the LORD, for He is our God.”

<sup>22</sup>So Joshua said to the people, “You are witnesses against yourselves that <sup>p</sup>you have chosen the LORD for yourselves, to serve Him.”

And they said, “We are witnesses!”

<sup>23</sup>Now therefore,” he said, <sup>q</sup>“put away the foreign gods which are among you, and <sup>r</sup>incline your heart to the LORD God of Israel.”

<sup>24</sup>And the people <sup>s</sup>said to Joshua, “The LORD our God we will serve, and His voice we will obey!”

24:13 a land for which you did not labor. This fulfills the promise given to Moses in Deuteronomy 6:10–11. The land was a gift from God to His people. In a similar sense, He has given us another gift for which we did not labor. The gift of salvation, through Jesus Christ, cannot be bought or paid for; it is graciously given from a loving God to those who will accept it.

24:15 as for me and my house. Joshua’s famous words show the stand we must take—on the side of the living God.

Death of Joshua and Eleazar

THE BOOK OF JUDGES

► AUTHOR: Although the author of Judges is anonymous, Jewish tradition contained in the Talmud attributes Judges to Samuel. Samuel lived during the time the book could have been written, and he was a principal character in the transition to the next phase. He would have been aware of the events that occur in the book. Samuel certainly was the crucial link between the period of the judges and the period of the kings. His prophetic ministry clearly fits the moral commentary of Judges, and the consistent style and orderly scheme of the book points to a single compiler.

► TIME: c. 1380–1045 B.C.

► KEY VERSES: Judg. 2:20–21

► THEME: During the Book of Judges, the land wasn't fully conquered. There was political chaos. The Israelites appeared to live mostly in the land between the cities of the Philistines, who dominate them much of the time. Two common phrases occur in the book: The first is the Israelites "did evil in the sight of the LORD." The second is "everyone did what was right in his own eyes." In the midst of this situation God raises up judges, who in addition to playing the role of adjudicator, also provide leadership in pulling the tribes together to fight the unconquered nations. Most are reluctant. Nevertheless, God is able to use them and demonstrate His power through these individuals.

The Continuing Conquest of Canaan

1 Now after the <sup>a</sup>death of Joshua it came to pass that the children of Israel <sup>b</sup>asked the LORD, saying, "Who shall be first to go up for us against the <sup>c</sup>Canaanites to fight against them?"

<sup>3</sup>So Judah said to <sup>e</sup>Simeon his brother, "Come up with me to my allotted territory, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and <sup>f</sup>I will likewise go with you to your allotted territory." And Simeon went with him. <sup>4</sup>Then Judah went up, and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand; and they killed ten thousand men at <sup>g</sup>Bezek. <sup>5</sup>And they found Adoni-Bezek in Bezek, and fought against him; and they defeated the Canaanites and the Perizzites. <sup>6</sup>Then Adoni-Bezek fled, and they pursued him and caught him and cut off his thumbs and big toes. <sup>7</sup>And Adoni-Bezek said, "Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off used to gather scraps under my table; <sup>h</sup>as I have done, so God has repaid me." Then they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

<sup>8</sup>Now <sup>i</sup>the children of Judah fought against Jerusalem and took it; they struck it with the edge of the sword and set the city on fire. <sup>9</sup>And afterward the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who dwelt in the mountains, in the South,* and in the lowland. <sup>10</sup>Then Judah went against the Canaanites who dwelt in <sup>k</sup>Hebron. (Now the name of Hebron was

1:1 Now after the death of Joshua. Judges begins as the Book of Joshua does, with reference to the death of the previous leader. Yet no new leader was commissioned to lead Israel after Joshua. The tribe of Judah was designated to lead in the fight against the Canaanites, the first hint of the fulfillment of Jacob's prophecy (Gen. 49:8–12).

1:3 Judah . . . Simeon. History bound the tribes of Judah and Simeon together. They were descended from the same mother (Gen. 29:33–35), and Simeon had inherited land in Judah's territory (Josh. 19:1,9).

1:6–7 thumbs and big toes. To cut off a warrior's thumbs and big toes would prevent him from ever engaging in battle again, besides subjecting him to pain and humiliation.

1:8 Jerusalem. Jerusalem was captured and burned, but not settled. The complete conquest and settlement of Jerusalem was not accomplished until David's day (2 Sam. 5:6–10).

1:10 Hebron. Hebron, about 20 miles southwest of

<sup>12n</sup>Then Caleb said, "Whoever attacks Kirjath Sepher and takes it, to him I will give my daughter Achsah as wife." <sup>13</sup>And Othniel the son of Kenaz, <sup>o</sup>Caleb's younger brother, took it; so he gave him his daughter Achsah as wife. <sup>14p</sup>Now it happened, when she came to him, that she urged him* to ask her father for a field. And she dismounted from her donkey, and Caleb said to her, "What do you wish?" <sup>15</sup>So she said to him, "Give me a blessing; since you have given me land in the South, give me also springs of water."

And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

him, "Please show us the entrance to the city, and <sup>f</sup>we will show you mercy." <sup>25</sup>So he showed them the entrance to the city, and they struck the city with the edge of the sword; but they let the man and all his family go. <sup>26</sup>And the man went to the land of the Hittites, built a city, and called its name Luz, which is its name to this day.

Incomplete Conquest of the Land

<sup>27g</sup>However, Manasseh did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shean and its villages, or <sup>h</sup>Taanach and its villages, or the inhabitants of <sup>i</sup>Dor and its villages, or the inhabitants of Ibleam and its villages, or the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages; for the Canaanites were determined to dwell in that land. <sup>28</sup>And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites under tribute, but did not completely drive them out.

<sup>29i</sup>Nor did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites who dwelt in Gezer; so the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.

<sup>31i</sup>Nor did Asher drive out the inhabitants of Acco or the inhabitants of Sidon, or of Ahalab, Achzib, Helbah, Aphik, or Rehob. <sup>32</sup>So the Asherites <sup>m</sup>dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not drive them out.

<sup>33n</sup>Nor did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh or the inhabitants of Beth Anath; but they dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land. Nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath were put under tribute to them.

<sup>34</sup>And the Amorites forced the children of Dan into the mountains, for they would not allow them to come down to the valley; <sup>35</sup>and the Amorites were determined to dwell in Mount Heres, <sup>o</sup>in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim;* yet when the strength of the Jerusalem, was where Abraham settled and built an altar (Gen. 13:18).

1:16 the Kenite. The Kenites were Midianites, descendants of Abraham's son by Keturah (Gen. 25:1–4).

1:18 Gaza . . . Ashkelon . . . Ekron. Israel was not able to hold these cities for long. By Samson's day, all three were in Philistine hands again (14:19; 16:1; 1 Sam. 5:10).

1:21 Unfaithfulness—This verse duplicates Joshua 15:63 almost exactly, except that in Joshua the tribe of Judah is held responsible. Jerusalem lay on the border between Judah and Benjamin; either or both tribes were responsible for driving out the Canaanites. Their failure to do so was not because the task was too hard, but because they did not really take God's commands and promises seriously. Jerusalem was not claimed for Israel until David came, a man who trusted the Lord for his victories and obeyed

His word. Victories for the Lord are won only through faith.

1:22 Bethel. Bethel means "house of God." It was a site with an honored history, beginning with Abraham's first sacrifice to God (Gen. 13:3–4) and Jacob's revelation from God there (Gen. 31:13).

house of Joseph became greater, they were put under tribute.

Israel's Disobedience

2 Then the Angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said: <sup>a</sup>"I led you up from Egypt and <sup>b</sup>brought you to the land of which I swore to your fathers; and <sup>c</sup>I said, 'I will never break My covenant with you. <sup>2</sup>And <sup>d</sup>you shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land; <sup>e</sup>you shall tear down their altars.' <sup>f</sup>But you have not obeyed My voice. Why have you done this? <sup>3</sup>Therefore I also said, 'I will not drive them out before you; but they shall be <sup>g</sup>thorns in your side,* and <sup>h</sup>their gods shall be a <sup>i</sup>snare to you.'" <sup>4</sup>So it was, when the Angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voices and wept.

<sup>5</sup>Then they called the name of that place Bochim;* and they sacrificed there to the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And when <sup>j</sup>Joshua had dismissed the people, the children of Israel went each to his own inheritance to possess the land.

Death of Joshua

<sup>7k</sup>So the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD which He had done for Israel. <sup>8</sup>Now <sup>l</sup>Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died when he was one hundred and ten years old. <sup>9m</sup>And they buried him within the border of his inheritance at <sup>n</sup>Timnath Heres, in the mountains of Ephraim, on the north side of Mount Gaash. <sup>10</sup>When all that generation had been gathered to their fathers, another generation arose after them who <sup>o</sup>did not know the LORD nor the work which He had done for Israel.

Israel's Unfaithfulness

<sup>16</sup>Nevertheless, <sup>z</sup>the LORD raised up judges who delivered them out of the hand of those who plundered them. <sup>17</sup>Yet they would not listen to their judges, but they <sup>aa</sup>played the harlot with other gods, and bowed down to them. They turned quickly from the way in which their fathers walked, in obeying the commandments of the LORD; they did not do so. <sup>18</sup>And when the LORD raised up judges for them, <sup>b</sup>the LORD was with the judge and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; <sup>c</sup>for the LORD was moved to pity by their groaning because of those who oppressed them and harassed them. <sup>19</sup>And it came to pass, <sup>d</sup>when the judge was dead, that they reverted and behaved more corruptly than their fathers, by following other gods, to serve them and bow down to

*2:13 Canaanite goddesses

2:1 the Angel of the LORD. The Angel of the Lord appears as God's representative here, speaking authoritatively to the people about their covenant disobedience.

2:2 you shall make no covenant. God's commands to make no covenants with pagan nations and to tear down their altars are found in Exodus 23:32; 34:13; Deuteronomy 12:3.

2:8–10 Joshua . . . died. Most likely the reference to Joshua's death in 1:1 is placed chronologically, and this subsequent passage has been inserted by the author out of sequence. It is a "flashback" that leads into the second major section of the book, emphasizing the spiritual downfall of the nation after their leader was gone.

2:13 Ashtoreths. Ashtoreth was a female fertility goddess and a goddess of love and war, closely associated with Baal (10:6; 1 Sam. 7:4; 12:10).

2:15 as the LORD had sworn. God had promised to deliver Israel into the hands of its enemies if the people forsook Him (Deut. 28:25; Josh. 23:13).

2:18 Pity—God is compassionate toward His people at all times. But God had given notice to His people (Deut. 28) that if they disobeyed Him, and did not live according to the covenant, then He would have to discipline them. However, if they did live according to the covenant, then He would bless them as a nation. Throughout Judges the pattern occurred that when the people forgot God another nation would come down upon them as an act of judgment from God. When the nation turned to God, He also would turn and "hear" and "pity" them and bring deliverance. God had not forgotten them when they were in trouble, but He wanted that trouble to cause them to turn to Him.

them. They did not cease from their own doings nor from their stubborn way.

The Nations Remaining in the Land

3 Now these are <sup>a</sup>the nations which the LORD left, that He might test Israel by them, that is, all who had not known any of the wars in Canaan <sup>2</sup>(this was only so that the generations of the children of Israel might be taught to know war, at least those who had not formerly known it), <sup>3</sup>namely, <sup>b</sup>five lords of the Philistines, all the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites who dwell in Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal Hermon to the entrance of Hamath. <sup>4</sup>And they were left, that He might test Israel by them, to know whether they would obey the commandments of the LORD, which He had commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

Othniel

into the hand of <sup>h</sup>Cushan-Rishathaim king of Mesopotamia; and the children of Israel served Cushan-Rishathaim eight years. <sup>9</sup>When the children of Israel <sup>i</sup>cried out to the LORD, the LORD <sup>j</sup>raised up a deliverer for the children of Israel, who delivered them: <sup>k</sup>Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother. <sup>10</sup>The Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel. He went out to war, and the LORD delivered Cushan-Rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand; and his hand prevailed over Cushan-Rishathaim. <sup>11</sup>So the land had rest for forty years. Then Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

Ehud

He said, "Keep silence!" And all who attended him went out from him.

<sup>20</sup>So Ehud came to him (now he was

3:1 test Israel. The idea of testing implies difficulty and adversity; elsewhere the same word refers to God's testing of Abraham (Gen. 22:1) and Hezekiah (2 Chr. 32:31). Here God was testing Israel to refine it.

3:8 Cushan-Rishathaim. This name means "Cushan of double wickedness." This may not have been his actual name, but instead a name pinned on him by the author of Judges for ridicule.

3:9 Othniel. Othniel was the hero who captured the city of Kirjath Sepher (1:13; Josh. 15:17). He was from Judah and was Caleb's near kinsman.

3:12 Moab. Moab was a plateau southeast of the Dead Sea. It was populated by nomadic herders and farmers in small agrarian settlements but had no large cities. It sat on either side of the King's Highway, an important north-south trade route. The ancestor of the Moabites was the offspring of Lot's incestuous relationship with his older daughter (Gen. 19:37), so the Moabites and Israelites were distantly related. The Bible frequently mentions conflict between the two peoples, and particularly the trouble caused by the Israelite tendency to embrace Moab's false gods.

3:20 cool private chamber. In ancient cities, a small room was often built onto the flat roof of a house, providing a cool, private place away from the cooking fires and general living areas.

sitting upstairs in his cool private chamber). Then Ehud said, "I have a message from God for you." So he arose from his seat. <sup>21</sup>Then Ehud reached with his left hand, took the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly. <sup>22</sup>Even the hilt went in after the blade, and the fat closed over the blade, for he did not draw the dagger out of his belly; and his entrails came out. <sup>23</sup>Then Ehud went out through the porch and shut the doors of the upper room behind him and locked them.

<sup>24</sup>When he had gone out, Eglon's servants came to look, and to their surprise, the doors of the upper room were locked. So they said, "He is probably attending to his needs in the cool chamber." <sup>25</sup>So they waited till they were embarrassed, and still he had not opened the doors of the upper room. Therefore they took the key and opened them. And there was their master, fallen dead on the floor.

<sup>26</sup>But Ehud had escaped while they delayed, and passed beyond the stone images and escaped to Seirah. <sup>27</sup>And it happened, when he arrived, that he blew the trumpet in the mountains of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the mountains; and he led them. <sup>28</sup>Then he said to them, "Follow me, for the LORD has delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand." So they went down after him, seized the fords of the Jordan leading to Moab, and did not allow anyone to cross over. <sup>29</sup>And at that time they killed about ten thousand men of Moab, all stout men of valor; not a man escaped. <sup>30</sup>So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest for eighty years.

Shamgar

<sup>31</sup>After him was Shamgar the son of Anath, who killed six hundred men of the Philistines with an ox goad; and he also delivered Israel.

Deborah

4 When Ehud was dead, the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>So the LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. The commander of his army was Sisera, who dwelt in Harosheth Hagoyim. <sup>3</sup>And the children of Israel cried out to the LORD; for Jabin had nine hundred chariots of iron, and for twenty years he had harshly oppressed the children of Israel.

<sup>4</sup>Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, was judging Israel at that time. <sup>5</sup>And she would sit under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the mountains of Ephraim. And the children of Israel came up to her for judgment. <sup>6</sup>Then she sent and called for Barak the son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali, and said to him, "Has not the LORD God of Israel commanded, 'Go and deploy troops at Mount Tabor; take with you ten thousand men of the sons of Naphtali and of the sons of Zebulun; and against you I will deploy Sisera, the commander of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude at the River Kishon; and I will deliver him into your hand?'"

<sup>8</sup>And Barak said to her, "If you will go with me, then I will go; but if you will not go with me, I will not go!"

<sup>9</sup>So she said, "I will surely go with you; nevertheless there will be no glory for you in the journey you are taking, for the LORD will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman." Then Deborah arose and went with Barak to Kedesh. <sup>10</sup>And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; he went up with ten thousand men under his command,* and Deborah went up with him.

<sup>12</sup>And they reported to Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor. <sup>13</sup>So Sisera gathered together all his chariots, nine hundred chariots of iron,

4:2 Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. Years earlier, Joshua had defeated a king of Hazor named Jabin (Josh. 11:1–15). Probably Jabin was a title rather than a proper name.

4:4 Deborah. Deborah is shown in the best light of all the judges in the book. She is called a prophetess (v. 4), and many sought out her decisions (v. 5). For this reason, she is called "a mother in Israel" (5:7). She is probably included among the leaders in Israel (5:2), and she instructed Barak in the strategy of the battle (4:9,14). She was also a prominent author of the victory song (5:1) and gave her name to a place in Israel, the palm tree of Deborah (v. 5).

4:9 no glory for you. Barak clearly respected Deborah as the Lord's spokesperson, and wanted her to be nearby so that he could receive instructions from the Lord. It is not clear whether Deborah's response was a rebuke, or just a statement, but it seems that part of the reason Israel was judged by a woman was because the men were not listening that closely to God, or willing to take the responsibility. Whatever his stage of spiritual growth was at the time, Barak did obey the Lord and is listed in the Book of Hebrews as a man of great faith (Heb. 11:32).

and all the people who were with him, from Harosheth Hagoyim to the River Kishon.

<sup>14</sup>Then Deborah said to Barak, “Up! For this is the day in which the LORD has delivered Sisera into your hand. “Has not the LORD gone out before you?” So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand men following him. <sup>15</sup>And the LORD routed Sisera and all his chariots and all his army with the edge of the sword before Barak; and Sisera alighted from his chariot and fled away on foot. <sup>16</sup>But Barak pursued the chariots and the army as far as Harosheth Hagoyim, and all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; not a man was <sup>v</sup>left.

<sup>17</sup>However, Sisera had fled away on foot to the tent of <sup>w</sup>Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite; for there was peace between Jabin king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite. <sup>18</sup>And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, “Turn aside, my lord, turn aside to me; do not fear.” And when he had turned aside with her into the tent, she covered him with a blanket.

<sup>19</sup>Then he said to her, “Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty.” So she opened <sup>x</sup>a jug of milk, gave him a drink, and covered him. <sup>20</sup>And he said to her, “Stand at the door of the tent, and if any man comes and inquires of you, and says, ‘Is there any man here?’ you shall say, ‘No.’”

<sup>21</sup>Then Jael, Heber’s wife, <sup>y</sup>took a tent peg and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly to him and drove the peg into his temple, and it went down into the ground; for he was fast asleep and weary. So he died. <sup>22</sup>And then, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said to him, “Come, I will show you the man whom you seek.” And when he went into her tent, there lay Sisera, dead with the peg in his temple.

The Song of Deborah

5 Then Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam <sup>a</sup>sang on that day, saying:

- <sup>2</sup> “When leaders <sup>b</sup>lead in Israel, <sup>c</sup>When the people willingly offer themselves,
Bless the LORD!
- <sup>3</sup> “Hear,<sup>d</sup> O kings! Give ear, O princes!
I, even <sup>e</sup>I, will sing to the LORD;
I will sing praise to the LORD God of Israel.
- <sup>4</sup> “LORD, <sup>f</sup>when You went out from Seir,
When You marched from <sup>g</sup>the field of Edom,
The earth trembled and the heavens poured,
The clouds also poured water;
- <sup>5</sup> <sup>h</sup>The mountains gushed before the LORD, <sup>i</sup>This Sinai, before the LORD God of Israel.
- <sup>6</sup> “In the days of <sup>j</sup>Shamgar, son of Anath,
<sup>l</sup>The highways were deserted,
And the travelers walked along the byways.
- <sup>7</sup> Village life ceased, it ceased in Israel,
Until I, Deborah, arose,
Arose a mother in Israel.
- <sup>8</sup> They chose <sup>m</sup>new gods;
Then there was war in the gates;
Not a shield or spear was seen among forty thousand in Israel.
- <sup>9</sup> My heart is with the rulers of Israel
Who offered themselves willingly with the people.
Bless the LORD!
- <sup>10</sup> “Speak, you who ride on white <sup>n</sup>donkeys,
Who sit in judges’ attire,
And who walk along the road.
- <sup>11</sup> Far from the noise of the archers,
among the watering places,
There they shall recount the righteous acts of the LORD,
The righteous acts for His villagers in Israel;
Then the people of the LORD shall go down to the gates.
- <sup>12</sup> “Awake,<sup>o</sup> awake, Deborah!
Awake, awake, sing a song!
Arise, Barak, and lead your captives away,
O son of Abinoam!

5:2 when leaders lead in Israel. The phrase literally means “the long-haired ones who let their hair hang loose.” The precise meaning of the phrase is obscure, but it may mean that loosed locks or flowing hair were signs of great strength or leadership.

5:2–3 Praise—Deborah did not attribute their success to herself or to Barak, or even to Jael, but to the Lord. He was the one to whom all praise and thanksgiving were directed in the celebration of their victory.

5:7 a mother in Israel. This phrase occurs twice in the Old Testament, here and in 2 Samuel 20:19. The title is given to Deborah as one of honor, respect, and prominence.

5:10 ride on white donkeys . . . walk along the road.

This verse calls all classes of society to bear witness to the mighty acts of God, from the ruling classes, those riding on white donkeys, to the lowest classes, those who walk on the road.

So the land had rest for forty years.

Midianites Oppress Israel

6 Then the children of Israel died <sup>a</sup>evil in the sight of the LORD. So the LORD delivered them into the hand of <sup>b</sup>Midian for seven years, <sup>2</sup>and the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel. Because of the

5:17 remain on ships. The reference to Dan remaining "in ships" probably reflects the location of their original inheritance, which was along the south-central coastal plain where they would have had access to the sea (Josh. 19:40–46). Later they migrated northward, having been forced out of their territory (1:34; 18:1; Josh. 19:47).

5:26 Sisera. The poem describes Sisera's death using graphic, emotive language, which it repeats several times to make the point. Sisera's death was probably a bloodier affair than the prose account indicates.

6:1 Midian. Midian was located in the Arabian Peninsula, southeast of Israel and east of the Sinai Peninsula. The Midianites were descendants of Abraham through his wife Keturah (Gen. 25:1–2), so they were distantly related to the Israelites. Midianites bought Joseph from his brothers (Gen. 37:25–36), welcomed Moses in the wilderness (Ex. 2:15–21), and hired Balaam to curse Israel (Num. 22:7). Generally speaking, Israel counted Midian among its foes. In this account, the Midianites were menacing Israel, burning, looting, and leaving many near starvation (6:4–5).

Midianites, the children of Israel made for themselves the dens, <sup>c</sup>the caves, and the strongholds which are in the mountains. <sup>3</sup>So it was, whenever Israel had sown, Midianites would come up; also Amalekites and the <sup>d</sup>people of the East would come up against them. <sup>4</sup>Then they would encamp against them and <sup>e</sup>destroy the produce of the earth as far as Gaza, and leave no sustenance for Israel, neither sheep nor ox nor <sup>f</sup>donkey. <sup>5</sup>For they would come up with their livestock and their tents, coming in as numerous as locusts; both they and their camels were without number; and they would enter the land to destroy it. <sup>6</sup>So Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites, and the children of Israel <sup>g</sup>cried out to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried out to the LORD because of the Midianites, <sup>8</sup>that the LORD sent a prophet to the children of Israel, who said to them, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'I brought you up from Egypt and brought you out of the <sup>h</sup>house of bondage; <sup>i</sup>and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians and out of the hand of all who oppressed you, and <sup>j</sup>drove them out before you and gave you their land. <sup>10</sup>Also I said to you, 'I am the LORD your God; <sup>k</sup>do not fear the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell.' But you have not obeyed My <sup>l</sup>voice.'"

Gideon

from the Midianites. <sup>12</sup>And the <sup>o</sup>Angel of the LORD appeared to him, and said to him, "The LORD is <sup>p</sup>with you, you mighty man of valor!"

<sup>13</sup>Gideon said to Him, "O my lord,* if the LORD is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And <sup>q</sup>where are all His miracles <sup>r</sup>which our fathers told us about, saying, 'Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt?' But now the LORD has <sup>s</sup>'forsaken us and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.'"

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD turned to him and said, <sup>t</sup>"Go in this might of yours, and you shall save Israel from the hand of the Midianites. <sup>u</sup>'Have I not sent you?'"

<sup>15</sup>So he said to Him, "O my Lord,* how can I save Israel? Indeed <sup>v</sup>"my clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house."

<sup>16</sup>And the LORD said to him, <sup>w</sup>"Surely I will be with you, and you shall defeat the Midianites as one man."

<sup>17</sup>Then he said to Him, "If now I have found favor in Your sight, then <sup>x</sup>show me a sign that it is You who talk with me. <sup>18x</sup>Do not depart from here, I pray, until I come to You and bring out my offering and set it before You."

And He said, "I will wait until you come back."

<sup>19y</sup>So Gideon went in and prepared a young goat, and unleavened bread from an ephah of flour. The meat he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot; and he brought them out to Him under the terebinth tree and presented them. <sup>20</sup>The

6:3 Amalekites. The Amalekites were a nomadic people who lived in the Sinai desert and the Negev, the desert south of Israel. They were descendants of Esau (Gen. 36:12) and they joined the Midianites against Israel.

6:11–16 Doubt.—Doubt, at first thought, appears to be an innocuous sin, so harmless that it affects only the attitude of the one who doubts. But doubt is much more serious than this. Doubt of God's Word, planted by the arch deceiver, was at the root of that first sin committed in the garden of Eden. Doubt of God's goodness and truth arose before desire for the forbidden fruit led to disobedience. Doubt of God and doubt of God's Word cause men to make decisions based on human reckonings. Doubts undisciplined lead to sin and defeat.

6:11 terebinth. The terebinth, sometimes called an oak, is a large tree with a thick trunk and heavy branches. Botanically speaking, it is not an oak tree, but it has a similar majestic appearance. winepress. A winepress was a square or circular pit carved into rock, in which grapes were crushed. Wheat was usually separated on open threshing floors so the wind could carry away the chaff in the winnowing process. The fact that Gideon was forced to thresh wheat hidden inside a winepress—despite the fact that he had access to a threshing floor (v. 37)—is yet another illustration of the desperate state the Israelites were in.

6:13 mylord . . . the LORD. "My lord" was a polite form of address, but "the LORD" is the personal name of God (Yahweh).

6:15 I am the least in my father's house. Gideon's objection is reminiscent of the words spoken by Moses (Ex. 3:11) and Jeremiah (Jer. 1:6).

6:16 I will be with you. This was the same great promise that God had given to Moses and Joshua previously (Ex. 3:12; Josh. 1:5–9). This should have greatly encouraged Gideon, but he still had doubts. Often we are quick to judge those who doubt God even when they have firsthand evidence of His mighty works. But we all fail to trust God fully at times. God accomplished His will despite Gideon's weakness, and He can do the same through us.

Angel of God said to him, “Take the meat and the unleavened bread and <sup>a</sup>lay them on this rock, and <sup>b</sup>pour out the broth.” And he did so.

<sup>21</sup>Then the Angel of the LORD put out the end of the staff that was in His hand, and touched the meat and the unleavened bread; and <sup>b</sup>fire rose out of the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread. And the Angel of the LORD departed out of his sight.

<sup>23</sup>Then the LORD said to him, <sup>e</sup>“Peace be with you; do not fear, you shall not die.” <sup>24</sup>So Gideon built an altar there to the LORD, and called it The-LORD-Is-Peace.* To this day it is still <sup>f</sup>in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

<sup>25</sup>Now it came to pass the same night that the LORD said to him, “Take your father’s young bull, the second bull of seven years old, and <sup>g</sup>tear down the altar of <sup>h</sup>Baal that your father has, and <sup>i</sup>cut down the wooden image* that is beside it; <sup>26</sup>and build an altar to the LORD your God on top of this rock in the proper arrangement, and take the second bull and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the image which you shall cut down.” <sup>27</sup>So Gideon took ten men from among his servants and did as the LORD had said to him. But because he feared his father’s household and the men of the city too much to do it by day, he did it by night.

Gideon Destroys the Altar of Baal

<sup>28</sup>And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, there was the altar of Baal, torn down; and the wooden image that was beside it was cut down, and the second bull was being offered on the altar which had been built. <sup>29</sup>So they said to one another, “Who has done this thing?” And when they had inquired and asked, they said, “Gideon the son of Joash has done this thing.” <sup>30</sup>Then the men of the city said to Joash, “Bring out your son, that he may die, because he has torn down the altar of Baal, and because he has cut down the wooden image that was beside it.”

<sup>31</sup>But Joash said to all who stood against him, “Would you plead for Baal? Would you save him? Let the one who would plead for him be put to death by morning! If he is a god, let him plead for himself, because his altar has been torn down!” <sup>32</sup>Therefore on that day he called him <sup>j</sup>Jerubbaal,* saying, “Let Baal plead against him, because he has torn down his altar.”

The Sign of the Fleece

<sup>36</sup>So Gideon said to God, “If You will save Israel by my hand as You have said—<sup>37</sup><sup>a</sup>look, I shall put a fleece of wool on the threshing floor; if there is dew on the fleece only, and it is dry on all the ground, then I shall know that You will save Israel by my hand, as You have said.” <sup>38</sup>And it was so. When he rose early the next morning and squeezed the fleece together, he wrung the dew out of the fleece, a bowlful of water. <sup>39</sup>Then Gideon said to God, <sup>r</sup>“Do not be angry with me, but let me speak just once more: Let me test, I pray, just once more with the fleece; let it now be dry only on

6:22 Gideon perceived. When the Angel of the Lord vanished, then Gideon realized who it was and feared for his life. This reaction of fear appears to have been rooted in the knowledge that anyone who gazed upon God would die (Ex. 33:20).

6:24 To this day. This expression lends authenticity to the account. It is the author’s way of declaring to later generations that they could verify the story by going and seeing this altar themselves.

6:25 wooden image. Asherah was the Canaanite fertility goddess. Sacred wooden poles or groves were erected at places where she was worshipped.

6:26 the wood of the image. Gideon’s sacrifice was to be a bold statement of the superiority of the Lord over the false gods His people were worshipping.

6:36–40 Prayer.—Gideon had already received an unmistakable message from God, and he had been assured that God would lead him to victory. His prayer and request for a sign were the result of his lack of faith, but in spite of Gideon’s wavering, God kindly accommodated his requests. Many people have relied on Gideon’s example as a way of seeking guidance from the Lord. Occasionally God has chosen to answer such requests, even as He did for Gideon, because He is compassionate and makes allowances for our weakness, but putting out a fleece is not the action of faith. Isaiah modeled a proper response to God’s clearly revealed will: he said, “Here am I; send me” (Is. 6:8). So too did the disciples, who dropped their nets immediately and followed Jesus (Mark 1:18).

6:39 Let me test . . . just once more. Gideon’s desire to test God’s sign could have been a violation of the law which prohibited people from testing God (Deut.

Gideon's Valiant Three Hundred

7 Then <sup>a</sup>Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and all the people who were with him rose early and encamped beside the well of Harod, so that the camp of the Midianites was on the north side of them by the hill of Moreh in the valley.

<sup>2</sup>And the LORD said to Gideon, “The people who are with you are too many for Me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel <sup>b</sup>claim glory for itself against Me, saying, ‘My own hand has saved me.’

<sup>3</sup>Now therefore, proclaim in the hearing of the people, saying, “Whoever is fearful and afraid, let him turn and depart at once from Mount Gilead.” And twenty-two thousand of the people returned, and ten thousand remained.

<sup>4</sup>But the LORD said to Gideon, “The people are still too many; bring them down to the water, and I will test them for you there. Then it will be, that of whom I say to you, ‘This one shall go with you,’ the same shall go with you; and of whomever I say to you, ‘This one shall not go with you,’ the same shall not go.” <sup>5</sup>So he brought the people down to the water. And the LORD said to Gideon, “Everyone who laps from the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, you shall set apart by himself; likewise everyone who gets down on his knees to drink.”

<sup>6</sup>And the number of those who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, was three hundred men; but all the rest of the people got down on their knees to drink water. <sup>7</sup>Then the LORD said to Gideon, <sup>d</sup>“By the three hundred men who lapped I will save you, and deliver the Midianites into your hand. Let all the other people go, every man to his place.” <sup>8</sup>So the people took provisions and their trumpets in their hands. And he sent away all the rest of Israel, every man to his tent, and retained those three hundred men. Now the camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

<sup>9</sup>It happened on the same <sup>e</sup>night that the LORD said to him, “Arise, go down against the camp, for I have delivered it into your hand. <sup>10</sup>But if you are afraid to go down, go down to the camp with Purah your servant, <sup>11</sup>and you shall <sup>f</sup>hear what they say; and afterward your hands shall be strengthened to go down against the camp.” Then he went down with Purah his servant to the outpost of the armed men who were in the camp. <sup>12</sup>Now the Midianites and Amalekites, <sup>g</sup>all the people of the East, were lying in the valley <sup>h</sup>as numerous as locusts; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the seashore in multitude.

<sup>13</sup>And when Gideon had come, there was a man telling a dream to his companion. He said, “I have had a dream: To my surprise, a loaf of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Midian; it came to a tent and struck it so that it fell and overturned, and the tent collapsed.”

<sup>14</sup>Then his companion answered and said, “This is nothing else but the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel! Into his hand <sup>i</sup>God has delivered Midian and the whole camp.”

<sup>15</sup>And so it was, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, that he worshiped. He returned to the camp of Israel, and said, “Arise, for the LORD has delivered the camp of Midian into your hand.” <sup>16</sup>Then he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet into every man's hand, with empty pitchers, and torches inside the pitchers. <sup>17</sup>And he said to them, “Look at me and do likewise; watch, and when I come to the edge of the camp you shall do as I do: <sup>18</sup>When I blow the trumpet, I and all who are with me, then you also blow the trumpets on every side of the whole camp, and say, ‘The sword of the LORD and of Gideon!’”

<sup>19</sup>So Gideon and the hundred men who were with him came to the outpost of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, just as they had posted the watch; and they blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers that were in their hands. <sup>20</sup>Then the three companies blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers—they held the torches in their left hands and the trumpets in their right hands for blowing—and they cried, “The sword of the LORD and of Gideon!” <sup>21</sup>And <sup>j</sup>every man stood in his place all around the camp; <sup>k</sup>and the whole army ran and cried out and fled. <sup>22</sup>When the three hundred <sup>l</sup>blew the trumpets, <sup>m</sup>the LORD set <sup>n</sup>every man's sword against his companion throughout

6:16). Gideon himself was aware that he was doing something unwise, if not sinful, since he asked God not to be angry with him.

7:3 fearful and afraid. Mosaic law allowed military exemptions for several classes of people, including those who had just built a home, those who had just planted a vineyard, those engaged to be married, and those who were fearful (Deut. 20:5–8).

7:4–5 The people are still too many. God reduced Gideon's army to emphasize who was really bringing victory.

7:19 middle watch. According to Jewish tradition, the hours between sunset and sunrise were divided into three watches, which would put the time of this attack at roughly 10:00 P.M.

the whole camp; and the army fled to Beth Acacia,* toward Zererah, as far as the border of <sup>o</sup>Abel Meholah, by Tabbath.

Gideon Subdues the Midianites

8 Now <sup>w</sup>the men of Ephraim said to him, "Why have you done this to us by not calling us when you went to fight with the Midianites?" And they reprimanded him sharply.

<sup>2</sup>So he said to them, "What have I done now in comparison with you? Is not the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of <sup>b</sup>Abiezer? <sup>3c</sup>God has delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. And what was I able to do in comparison with you?" Then their <sup>d</sup>anger toward him subsided when he said that.

<sup>6</sup>And the leaders of Succoth said, <sup>h</sup>"Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that <sup>i</sup>we should give bread to your army?"

<sup>7</sup>So Gideon said, "For this cause, when the LORD has delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, <sup>j</sup>then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers!" <sup>8</sup>Then he went up from there <sup>k</sup>to Penuel and spoke to them in the same way. And the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered. <sup>9</sup>So he also spoke to the men of Penuel, saying, "When I <sup>l</sup>come back in peace, <sup>m</sup>I will tear down this tower!"

<sup>13</sup>Then Gideon the son of Joash returned from battle, from the Ascent of Heres. <sup>14</sup>And he caught a young man of the men of Succoth and interrogated him; and he wrote down for him the leaders of Succoth and its elders, seventy-seven men. <sup>15</sup>Then he came to the men of Succoth and said, "Here are Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you <sup>s</sup>ridiculed me, saying, 'Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your weary men?'" <sup>16</sup>And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he taught the men of Succoth. <sup>17u</sup>Then he tore down the tower of <sup>v</sup>Penuel and killed the men of the city.

So they answered, "As you <sup>are</sup>, so <sup>were</sup> they; each one resembled the son of a king."

<sup>19</sup>Then he said, "They <sup>were</sup> my brothers, the sons of my mother. As the LORD lives, if you had let them live, I would not kill you."

<sup>20</sup>And he said to Jether his firstborn, "Rise, kill them!" But the youth would not draw his sword; for he was afraid, because he was still a youth.

<sup>21</sup>So Zebah and Zalmunna said, "Rise yourself, and kill us; for as a man <sup>is</sup>, so <sup>is</sup> his strength." So Gideon arose and <sup>x</sup>killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the crescent ornaments that <sup>were</sup> on their camels' necks.

8:5 Succoth. Succoth was east of the Jordan, near the Jabbok River.

8:14 he wrote down for him the leaders of Succoth. Literacy in early civilizations was at first limited to the educated elite, as in Mesopotamia and Egypt. Their writing systems were complex and only a tiny portion of the population could read and write. However, the spread of alphabetic systems vastly simplified the task of reading and writing. Hundreds of potsherds from throughout Palestine have simple inscriptions on them, indicating that some degree of literacy had become widely accessible by Gideon's day.

Gideon's Ephod

<sup>22</sup>Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, <sup>v</sup>“Rule over us, both you and your son, and your grandson also; for you have <sup>z</sup>delivered us from the hand of Midian.”

<sup>23</sup>But Gideon said to them, “I will not rule over you, nor shall my son rule over you; <sup>the LORD shall rule over you.</sup>” <sup>24</sup>Then Gideon said to them, “I would like to make a request of you, that each of you would give me the earrings from his plunder.” For they had golden earrings, <sup>b</sup>because they were Ishmaelites.

<sup>25</sup>So they answered, “We will gladly give them.” And they spread out a garment, and each man threw into it the earrings from his plunder. <sup>26</sup>Now the weight of the gold earrings that he requested was one thousand seven hundred shekels of gold, besides the crescent ornaments, pendants, and purple robes which were on the kings of Midian, and besides the chains that were around their camels’ necks. <sup>27</sup>Then Gideon <sup>c</sup>made it into an ephod and set it up in his city, <sup>“Ophrah.</sup> And all Israel <sup>e</sup>played the harlot with it there. It became <sup>f</sup>a snare to Gideon and to his house.

<sup>28</sup>Thus Midian was subdued before the children of Israel, so that they lifted their heads no more. <sup>g</sup>And the country was quiet for forty years in the days of Gideon.

Death of Gideon

<sup>29</sup>Then <sup>h</sup>Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house. <sup>30</sup>Gideon had <sup>i</sup>seventy sons who were his own offspring, for he had many wives. <sup>31</sup>And his concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son, whose name he called Abimelech. <sup>32</sup>Now Gideon the son of Joash died <sup>k</sup>at a good old age, and was buried in the tomb

Abimelech's Conspiracy

9 Then Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem, to <sup>a</sup>his mother's brothers, and spoke with them and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Please speak in the hearing of all the men of Shechem: ‘Which is better for you, that all <sup>b</sup>seventy of the sons of Jerubbaal reign over you, or that one reign over you?’ Remember that I am your own flesh and <sup>c</sup>bone.”

<sup>3</sup>And his mother's brothers spoke all these words concerning him in the hearing of all the men of Shechem; and their heart was inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, “He is our <sup>d</sup>brother.” <sup>4</sup>So they gave him seventy shekels of silver from the temple of <sup>e</sup>Baal-Berith, with which Abimelech hired <sup>f</sup>worthless and reckless men; and they followed him. <sup>5</sup>Then he went to his father's house <sup>g</sup>at Ophrah and <sup>h</sup>killed his brothers, the seventy sons of Jerubbaal, on one stone. But Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left, because he hid himself. <sup>6</sup>And all the men of Shechem gathered together, all of Beth Millo, and they went and made Abimelech king beside the terebinth tree at the pillar that was in Shechem.

8:22–23 Self-Denial—In the initial flush of victory Gideon was offered hereditary rulership over Israel, which he wisely rejected. God the Lord was Judge with ultimate authority, and He would rule over the people. Gideon knew his place before God. In the same way, we are taught not to think more highly of ourselves than we ought, but “as God has dealt” (Rom. 12:3).

8:22 Rule over us. This request, while understandable from a human perspective, failed to acknowledge that it was God, not Gideon, who had delivered the people.

8:23 the LORD shall rule over you. The word order of the Hebrew makes it clear that God's claim was exclusive; it might be paraphrased, “It is the Lord, and no one else, who shall rule over you.” This statement is widely assumed to indicate that God intended that Israel should never have a king, but that He would be their only King. However, God had promised Abraham that he would count kings among his descendants (Gen. 17:6). The problem was not in the concept of having a king, but in their motivation. They wanted to have a visible, human leader, rather than trusting in God's leadership. The role of a true king would be to lead the people in devotion to God's rule.

8:27 ephod. The original ephod was an ornate ceremonial garment worn by the high priest (Ex. 29:5).

Gideon's motivation for making this golden ephod is unclear, but his imitation of the sacred objects devoted to the worship of God ended up distracting the people and undermining the true worship of God.

8:31 Abimelech. This name means “my father is king.” Some think that Gideon did become a king in practice if not in name, for he gave his son a royal name and acted as a leader of the people (vv. 24–27).

9:1–57 Conspiracy—The seeds of Abimelech's violent grab for power were sown in Israel's persistent infidelity to God, which led to another rejection of the Lord (8:22, 24–27, 33–35).

9:6 terebinth tree at the pillar. Sadly, this coronation took place at the same tree where Jacob had put away his foreign gods many years before (Gen. 35:4),

The Parable of the Trees

<sup>7</sup>Now when they told Jotham, he went and stood on top of <sup>1</sup>Mount Gerizim, and lifted his voice and cried out. And he said to them:

"Listen to me, you men of Shechem,
That God may listen to you!

<sup>8</sup> "The<sup>i</sup> trees once went forth to anoint a king over them.

And they said to the olive tree,

<sup>k</sup>"Reign over us!"

<sup>9</sup> But the olive tree said to them,

"Should I cease giving my oil,

<sup>1</sup>With which they honor God and men,

And go to sway over trees?"

<sup>10</sup> "Then the trees said to the fig tree,

"You come and reign over us!"

<sup>11</sup> But the fig tree said to them,

"Should I cease my sweetness and my good fruit,

And go to sway over trees?"

<sup>12</sup> "Then the trees said to the vine,

"You come and reign over us!"

<sup>13</sup> But the vine said to them,

"Should I cease my new wine,

<sup>m</sup>Which cheers both God and men,

And go to sway over trees?"

<sup>14</sup> "Then all the trees said to the bramble,

"You come and reign over us!"

<sup>15</sup> And the bramble said to the trees,

"If in truth you anoint me as king over you,

Then come and take shelter in my

But if not, <sup>o</sup>let fire come out of the

And devour the <sup>p</sup>cedars of Lebanon!"

<sup>16</sup>"Now therefore, if you have acted in truth and sincerity in making Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done to him <sup>q</sup>as he deserves—<sup>17</sup>for my <sup>r</sup>father fought for you, risked his life, and <sup>s</sup>delivered you out of the hand of Midian; <sup>18</sup>but you have risen up against my father's house this day, and killed his seventy sons on one stone, and made Abimelech, the son of his <sup>t</sup>female servant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother—<sup>19</sup>if then you have acted in truth and sincerity with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, then <sup>v</sup>rejoice in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you. <sup>20</sup>But if not, <sup>w</sup>let fire come from Abimelech and devour the men of Shechem and Beth Millo; and let fire come from the men of Shechem and from Beth Millo and devour Abimelech!" <sup>21</sup>And Jotham ran away and fled; and he went to <sup>x</sup>Beer and dwelt there, for fear of Abimelech his brother.

Downfall of Abimelech

<sup>26</sup>Now Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brothers and went over to Shechem; and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him. <sup>27</sup>So they went out into the fields, and gathered grapes from their vineyards and trod them, and made merry. And they went into <sup>c</sup>the house of their god, and ate and drank, and cursed Abimelech. <sup>28</sup>Then Gaal the son of Ebed said, <sup>e</sup>"Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerubbaal, and is not Zebul his officer? Serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem; but why should we serve him? <sup>29</sup><sup>f</sup>If only this people were under my authority!* Then I would remove Abimelech." So he<sup>g</sup> said to Abimelech, "Increase your army and come out!"

<sup>30</sup>When Zebul, the ruler of the city, heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was aroused. <sup>31</sup>And he sent messengers to Abimelech secretly, saying, "Take note! Gaal the son of Ebed and his brothers have come to Shechem; and here they are, fortifying the city against you.

and where Joshua had commemorated his covenant with God (Josh. 24:26).

9:14–15 Pride—The pomp and ceremony that goes with royalty is a source of pride not only for the king but also for his subjects. The idea of having a man from their own tribe ruling the entire nation appealed to the pride of the men of Shechem. Pride led them to surrender their freedom and submit to the rule of man rather than God. It is the cause of many kinds of injustice in society: social, economic, and political. It often leads to war and violence, as it did in this case. Within a brief period of time after Abimelech was anointed king they realized their mistake. The prophecy of Jotham was fulfilled, since fire did come out of the bramble (from Abimelech) to consume the men of Shechem. Pride led to their destruction.

<sup>32</sup>Now therefore, get up by night, you and the people who are with you, and lie in wait in the field. <sup>33</sup>And it shall be, as soon as the sun is up in the morning, that you shall rise early and rush upon the city; and when he and the people who are with him come out against you, you may then do to them as you find opportunity.”

<sup>34</sup>So Abimelech and all the people who were with him rose by night, and lay in wait against Shechem in four companies. <sup>35</sup>When Gaal the son of Ebed went out and stood in the entrance to the city gate, Abimelech and the people who were with him rose from lying in wait. <sup>36</sup>And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, “Look, people are coming down from the tops of the mountains!”

But Zebul said to him, “You see the shadows of the mountains as if they were men.”

<sup>37</sup>So Gaal spoke again and said, “See, people are coming down from the center of the land, and another company is coming from the Diviners’* Terebinth Tree.”

<sup>38</sup>Then Zebul said to him, “Where indeed is your mouth now, with which you <sup>h</sup>said, ‘Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him?’ Are not these the people whom you despised? Go out, if you will, and fight with them now.”

<sup>39</sup>So Gaal went out, leading the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech. <sup>40</sup>And Abimelech chased him, and he fled from him; and many fell wounded, to the very entrance of the gate. <sup>41</sup>Then Abimelech dwelt at Arumah, and Zebul drove out Gaal and his brothers, so that they would not dwell in Shechem.

<sup>42</sup>And it came about on the next day that the people went out into the field, and they told Abimelech. <sup>43</sup>So he took his people, divided them into three companies, and lay in wait in the field. And he looked, and there were the people, coming out of the city; and he rose against them and attacked them. <sup>44</sup>Then Abimelech and the company that was with him rushed forward and stood at the entrance of the gate of the city; and the other two companies rushed upon all who were in the fields and killed them. <sup>45</sup>So Abimelech fought against the city all that day; <sup>i</sup>he took the city and killed the people who were in it; and he <sup>j</sup>demolished the city and sowed it with salt.

Berith. <sup>47</sup>And it was told Abimelech that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together. <sup>48</sup>Then Abimelech went up to Mount <sup>l</sup>Zalmon, he and all the people who were with him. And Abimelech took an ax in his hand and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it and laid it on his shoulder; then he said to the people who were with him, “What you have seen me do, make haste and do as I have done.” <sup>49</sup>So each of the people likewise cut down his own bough and followed Abimelech, put them against the stronghold, and set the stronghold on fire above them, so that all the people of the tower of Shechem died, about a thousand men and women.

<sup>50</sup>Then Abimelech went to Thebez, and he encamped against Thebez and took it. <sup>51</sup>But there was a strong tower in the city, and all the men and women—all the people of the city—fled there and shut themselves in; then they went up to the top of the tower. <sup>52</sup>So Abimelech came as far as the tower and fought against it; and he drew near the door of the tower to burn it with fire. <sup>53</sup>But a certain woman <sup>m</sup>dropped an upper millstone on Abimelech’s head and crushed his skull. <sup>54</sup>Then <sup>n</sup>he called quickly to the young man, his armorbearer, and said to him, “Draw your sword and kill me, lest men say of me, ‘A woman killed him.’” So his young man thrust him through, and he died. <sup>55</sup>And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed, every man to his place.

<sup>56</sup>Thus God repaid the wickedness of Abimelech, which he had done to his father by killing his seventy brothers. <sup>57</sup>And all the evil of the men of Shechem God returned on their own heads, and on them came <sup>p</sup>the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal.

Tola

10 After Abimelech there <sup>a</sup>arose to save Israel Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar; and he dwelt in Shamir in the mountains of Ephraim. <sup>2</sup>He judged Israel twenty-three years; and he died and was buried in Shamir.

Jair

<sup>3</sup>After him arose Jair, a Gileadite; and he judged Israel twenty-two years. <sup>4</sup>Now he had thirty sons who <sup>b</sup>rode on thirty donkeys; they also had thirty towns, <sup>c</sup>which

Salt will kill most vegetation, and it takes a long time for the land to become good again.

9:56 God repaid the wickedness of Abimelech.

Abimelech was not a true king; he had established his reign through murder and in no way sought to lead the people to the Lord. God did not allow this kind of rebellion to pass unnoticed.

Israel Oppressed Again

<sup>10</sup>And the children of Israel cried out to the LORD, saying, “We have <sup>m</sup>sinned against You, because we have both forsaken our God and served the Baals!”

<sup>15</sup>And the children of Israel said to the LORD, “We have sinned! <sup>w</sup>Do to us whatever seems best to You; only deliver us this day, we pray.” <sup>16</sup>So they put away the foreign gods from among them and served the LORD. And <sup>x</sup>His soul could no longer endure the misery of Israel.

<sup>17</sup>Then the people of Ammon gathered together and encamped in Gilead. And the children of Israel assembled together and encamped in <sup>y</sup>Mizpah. <sup>18</sup>And the people, the leaders of Gilead, said to one another, “Who is the man who will begin the fight against the people of Ammon? He shall <sup>z</sup>be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.”

Jephthah

11 Now <sup>a</sup>Jephthah the Gileadite was <sup>b</sup>a mighty man of valor, but he was the son of a harlot; and Gilead begot Jephthah. <sup>2</sup>Gilead’s wife bore sons; and when his wife’s sons grew up, they drove Jephthah out, and said to him, “You shall have <sup>c</sup>no inheritance in our father’s house, for you are the son of another woman.” <sup>3</sup>Then Jephthah fled from his brothers and dwelt in the land of <sup>d</sup>Tob; and <sup>e</sup>worthless men banded together with Jephthah and went out raiding with him.

<sup>4</sup>It came to pass after a time that the <sup>f</sup>people of Ammon made war against Israel. <sup>5</sup>And so it was, when the people of Ammon made war against Israel, that the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob. <sup>6</sup>Then they said to Jephthah, “Come and be our commander, that we may fight against the people of Ammon.”

<sup>7</sup>So Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, <sup>g</sup>“Did you not hate me, and expel me from my father’s house? Why have you come to me now when you are in distress?”

<sup>8</sup>And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, “That is why we have <sup>h</sup>turned again to you now, that you may go with us

10:6–18 Mercy—A lengthy introduction precedes the story of Jephthah. These verses repeat the themes of apostasy and God’s unfailing mercy. A new theme here is the emphasis on Israel’s confession and repentance (vv. 10, 15–16).

10:6 Baals and the Ashtoreths, the gods of Syria . . . Sidon . . . Moab . . . Ammon. This list demonstrates the extent of Israel’s idolatry. Not only did the people worship the major Canaanite gods (Baal and Asherah), but they also absorbed the religions of other groups.

10:7–8 Suffering—Here and elsewhere the Book of Judges underscores the consequences of disobedience. Those consequences are always tragic. The Israelites were never oppressed because they did not have a big enough military, or a strong enough leader, or because God could not protect them. They were oppressed by God’s permission because of their disobedience and sin. Defeat and miserable suffering do loom large whenever believers retreat from their exclusive commitment to God. They become their own worst enemy.

10:14 the gods which you have chosen. This is a response of confrontation. When Israel cried out to God, He reminded them again of their faithless ways.

10:16 His soul could no longer endure the misery. Not only is God a God of great justice, He is a God of great mercy and compassion. Despite their constant sinning and backsliding, God still loved the Israelites and shared their misery, much as parents are moved by their children’s suffering.

11:8 you may go with us and fight. This is almost the same phrase that the Israelites used when they asked Samuel for a king (1 Sam. 8:20).

and fight against the people of Ammon, and be your head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.”

<sup>9</sup>So Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, “If you take me back home to fight against the people of Ammon, and the LORD delivers them to me, shall I be your head?”

<sup>10</sup>And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, <sup>k</sup>“The LORD will be a witness between us, if we do not do according to your words.” <sup>11</sup>Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and commander over them; and Jephthah spoke all his words <sup>m</sup>before the LORD in Mizpah.

<sup>12</sup>Now Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the people of Ammon, saying, <sup>n</sup>“What do you have against me, that you have come to fight against me in my land?”

<sup>14</sup>So Jephthah again sent messengers to the king of the people of Ammon, <sup>15</sup>and said to him, “Thus says Jephthah: <sup>r</sup>“Israel did not take away the land of Moab, nor the land of the people of Ammon; <sup>16</sup>for when Israel came up from Egypt, they walked through the wilderness as far as the Red Sea and <sup>s</sup>came to Kadesh. <sup>17</sup>Then <sup>t</sup>Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, “Please let me pass through your land.” <sup>u</sup>But the king of Edom would not heed. And in like manner they sent to the <sup>v</sup>king of Moab, but he would not consent. So Israel <sup>w</sup>remained in Kadesh. <sup>18</sup>And they

<sup>x</sup>went along through the wilderness and <sup>y</sup>bypassed the land of Edom and the land of Moab, came to the east side of the land of Moab, and encamped on the other side of the Arnon. But they did not enter the border of Moab, for the Arnon was the border of Moab. <sup>19</sup>Then <sup>z</sup>Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, king of Heshbon; and Israel said to him, “Please <sup>a</sup>let us pass through your land into our place.” <sup>20b</sup>But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory. So Sihon gathered all his people together, encamped in Jahaz, and fought against Israel. <sup>21</sup>And the LORD God of Israel <sup>c</sup>delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they <sup>d</sup>defeated them. Thus Israel gained possession of all the land of the Amorites, who inhabited that country. <sup>22</sup>They took possession of <sup>e</sup>all the territory of the Amorites, from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the wilderness to the Jordan.

<sup>23</sup>And now the LORD God of Israel has dispossessed the Amorites from before His people Israel; should you then possess it? <sup>24</sup>Will you not possess whatever <sup>f</sup>Chemosh your god gives you to possess? So whatever <sup>g</sup>the LORD our God takes possession of before us, we will possess. <sup>25</sup>And now, are you any better than <sup>h</sup>Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel? Did he ever fight against them? <sup>26</sup>While Israel dwelt in <sup>i</sup>Heshbon and its villages, in <sup>j</sup>Aroer and its villages, and in all the cities along the banks of the Arnon, for three hundred years, why did you not recover them within that time? <sup>27</sup>Therefore I have not sinned against you, but you wronged me by fighting against me. May the LORD, <sup>k</sup>the Judge, <sup>l</sup>render judgment this

11:11 words before the LORD. Jephthah’s “words before the LORD” are a strange mixture of faith and foolishness. While Jephthah did acknowledge God, his self-interest and foolishness often overruled his faith. The Book of Hebrews has a more positive view of him. Jephthah is one of those listed “who through faith subdued kingdoms, worked righteousness, obtained promises . . .” (Heb. 11:32–33).

11:21 the LORD God of Israel. Israel was not merely an aggressor, but the recipient of the Lord’s generosity. The Ammonites had brought their misfortune on themselves by hindering Israel’s advance into the Promised Land. Israel would not have taken Ammonite land, since God had expressly commanded them not to (Deut. 2:19). The Ammonites were only indirectly affected by Israel’s expansion (Num. 21:25–26). In addition, the Ammonites never really had true claim to the land to begin with; it was in fact the land of the Amorites (vv. 19–22). The limits of the Amorite land in verse 22 are precisely what the Ammonites claimed as theirs in v. 13 (Num. 21:24 also rebuts the Ammonites’ claim). Israel had occupied the land in dispute for at least three hundred years, long enough to make a legitimate claim on it (v. 26).

11:24 whatever Chemosh your god gives you. Usually the worship of Chemosh is associated with Moab; elsewhere the Ammonites’ god was called Molech.

However, Ammon and Moab lived side by side, and apparently shared culture and religion as well as their common descent from Lot (Gen. 19:37–38). Jephthah’s comment was a derisive jab at the ineffectiveness of their gods.

11:27 the LORD, the Judge. God is the ultimate source of all justice. He has the right to judge every man and woman. With His divine authority and power, God always judges with justice, while at the same time He is loving, compassionate, and perfect.

11:27 Strife—Given the depravity of the human heart it is only expected that nation will declare war on nation. We also deal with “wars” and strife in our interpersonal relationships. When we are faced with unjust attacks, we can only do as Jephthah did and trust God to judge rightly between the two sides of the dispute.

day between the children of Israel and the people of Ammon.”<sup>28</sup> However, the king of the people of Ammon did not heed the words which Jephthah sent him.

Jephthah's Vow and Victory

<sup>29</sup>Then <sup>m</sup>the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh, and passed through Mizpah of Gilead; and from Mizpah of Gilead he advanced toward the people of Ammon. <sup>30</sup>And Jephthah <sup>n</sup>made a vow to the LORD, and said, “If You will indeed deliver the people of Ammon into my hands, <sup>31</sup>then it will be that whatever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the people of Ammon, <sup>o</sup>shall surely be the LORD’s, <sup>p</sup>and I will offer it up as a burnt offering.”

Jephthah's Daughter

among those who trouble me! For I <sup>u</sup>have given my word to the LORD, and <sup>v</sup>I cannot go back on it.”

<sup>36</sup>So she said to him, “My father, if you have given your word to the LORD, <sup>w</sup>do to me according to what has gone out of your mouth, because <sup>x</sup>the LORD has avenged you of your enemies, the people of Ammon.” <sup>37</sup>Then she said to her father, “Let this thing be done for me: let me alone for two months, that I may go and wander on the mountains and bewail my virginity, my friends and I.”

<sup>38</sup>So he said, “Go.” And he sent her away for two months; and she went with her friends, and bewailed her virginity on the mountains. <sup>39</sup>And it was so at the end of two months that she returned to her father, and he <sup>y</sup>carried out his vow with her which he had vowed. She knew no man.

And it became a custom in Israel <sup>40</sup>that the daughters of Israel went four days each year to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite.

Jephthah's Conflict with Ephraim

12 Then <sup>a</sup>the men of Ephraim gathered together, crossed over toward Zaphon, and said to Jephthah, “Why did you cross over to fight against the people of Ammon, and did not call us to go with you? We will burn your house down on you with fire!”

<sup>2</sup>And Jephthah said to them, “My people and I were in a great struggle with the

* 11:33 Literally Plain of Vineyards

11:31 *whatever comes out of the doors of my house. Some have interpreted Jephthah's vow as a clear intention to offer a human sacrifice. The phrase “to meet me,” coupled with coming out of the house seems to refer more appropriately to a human than an animal. Undoubtedly Jephthah knew that human sacrifice was strictly forbidden in Israel (Lev. 18:21; 20:2; Deut. 12:31; 18:10; Jer. 19:5; Ezek. 20:30–31; 23:37–39), but his foolishness and lack of faith impelled him to make a reckless vow in order to try to manipulate God.

11:35 *I have given my word . . . I cannot go back. Did Jephthah have to follow through on his vow? Ordinarily the answer would be yes. Vows were made only to God, and they were solemn pledges that had to be kept (Deut. 23:21–23; Ps. 15:4; Eccl. 5:4–5). But if Jephthah intended his vow to include human sacrifice, he was vowing to sin, an action which could hardly please the Lord.

11:39 *he carried out his vow. The text does not explicitly say that he killed his daughter, and some believe that instead he “sacrificed” her by dedicating her to a life of virginity. Human sacrifice was contrary to the law of Moses (Lev. 18:21; 20:2–5; Deut. 12:31; 18:10). Until the wicked reigns of Ahaz and Manasseh centuries later (2 Kin. 16:3; 21:6), there is no record of human sacrifice in Israel, even by those who followed Baal. The great respect that Jephthah had for God would surely have prevented him from making such a perverse offering. The several references to her virginity seem to support the idea of lifelong celibacy, and the Bible provides evidence that such devoted service for women did exist at the central sanctuary (Ex. 38:8; 1 Sam. 2:22; Luke 2:36–37). Jephthah's vow in verse 31 could be translated “shall be the LORD's, or I will offer it up as a burnt offering.” Thus his vow could be interpreted that if a person came out first, he would dedicate that person to the Lord, or if an animal came out first, he would offer the animal as a burnt sacrifice. As is frequently the case in the Book of Judges, we are given the bare facts of a puzzling story and no comment about what God thought of it.

12:2 *Strife—Gilead and Ephraim grew so hostile that they came to blows, brother fighting against brother. Instead of putting their energy into fighting their common enemy, they were fighting each other. In the same way today, Christians often react with hurt feelings, pride, and resentment, and prefer to fight against flesh and blood rather than against principalities and powers. The constant infighting Christians indulge in is often a reason for the rest of the world to pass the church off as much ado about nothing.

people of Ammon; and when I called you, you did not deliver me out of their hands. <sup>3</sup>So when I saw that you would not deliver me, I <sup>b</sup>took my life in my hands and crossed over against the people of Ammon; and the LORD delivered them into my hand. Why then have you come up to me this day to fight against me?" <sup>4</sup>Now Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead and fought against Ephraim. And the men of Gilead defeated Ephraim, because they said, "You Gileadites <sup>c</sup>are fugitives of Ephraim among the Ephraimites and among the Manassites." <sup>5</sup>The Gileadites seized the <sup>d</sup>fords of the Jordan before the Ephraimites arrived. And when any Ephraimite who escaped said, "Let me cross over," the men of Gilead would say to him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" If he said, "No," <sup>6</sup>then they would say to him, "Then say, <sup>e</sup>'Shibboleth!'" And he would say, "Sibboleth," for he could not pronounce it right. Then they would take him and kill him at the fords of the Jordan. There fell at that time forty-two thousand Ephraimites.

<sup>7</sup>And Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died and was buried among the cities of Gilead.

Ibzan, Elon, and Abdon

<sup>8</sup>After him, Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel. <sup>9</sup>He had thirty sons. And he gave away thirty daughters in marriage, and brought in thirty daughters from elsewhere for his sons. He judged Israel seven years. <sup>10</sup>Then Ibzan died and was buried at Bethlehem.

<sup>11</sup>After him, Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel. He judged Israel ten years. <sup>12</sup>And Elon the Zebulunite died and was buried at Ajalon in the country of Zebulun.

Pirathonite judged Israel. <sup>14</sup>He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who <sup>f</sup>rode on seventy young donkeys. He judged Israel eight years. <sup>15</sup>Then Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, <sup>g</sup>in the mountains of the Amalekites.

The Birth of Samson

13 Again the children of Israel <sup>a</sup>did evil in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD delivered them <sup>b</sup>into the hand of the Philistines for forty years.

<sup>2</sup>Now there was a certain man from <sup>c</sup>Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren and had no children. <sup>3</sup>And the <sup>d</sup>Angel of the LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, "Indeed now, you are barren and have borne no children, but you shall conceive and bear a son. <sup>4</sup>Now therefore, please be careful <sup>e</sup>not to drink wine or similar drink, and not to eat anything unclean. <sup>5</sup>For behold, you shall conceive and bear a son. And no <sup>f</sup>razor shall come upon his head, for the child shall be <sup>g</sup>a Nazirite to God from the womb; and he shall <sup>h</sup>begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines."

<sup>6</sup>So the woman came and told her husband, saying, <sup>i</sup>"A Man of God came to me, and His <sup>j</sup>countenance was like the countenance of the Angel of God, very awesome; but I <sup>k</sup>did not ask Him where He was from, and He did not tell me His name. <sup>7</sup>And He said to me, 'Behold, you shall conceive and bear a son. Now drink no wine or similar drink, nor eat anything unclean, for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb to the day of his death.'"

<sup>8</sup>Then Manoah prayed to the LORD, and said, "O my Lord, please let the Man of God

12:4 You . . . are fugitives of Ephraim. This insult may have its roots in the division of the nation into eastern and western groups (5:17; Josh. 1:12–15). Despite the emphasis in Joshua on the unity of all the tribes (Josh. 1:12–15; 22:1–34), the practical reality in the period of the judges was dramatically different.

12:6 Shibboleth . . . Sibboleth. This is the only significant reference to the linguistic differences which apparently existed between the tribes. Today the English word shibboleth means an otherwise minor difference that becomes a sticking point because it distinguishes one side from the other.

13:1—16:31 Samson—The last of the judges lived at the beginning of the eleventh century B.C. He was unusual among the judges in many ways. He did not lead an army, but carried on his campaign against the Philistines single-handed. He is mentioned in Hebrews 11:32 in the list of judges who accomplished great things through faith. The Book of Judges, in contrast, paints a darker picture. His checkered history of heroism and moral failure resembles Israel's troubles during the time of the judges.

13:3 the Angel of the LORD. The Angel of the Lord made a supernatural appearance, described here as "very awesome." Manoah's wife recognized him as "a Man of God." The essential character of the angel, embodied in his name, was not revealed to them (vv. 17–18). It seems that the Angel of the Lord was God Himself, in a form they could perceive (13:21–22; Gen. 22:11; Ex. 3:14–15).

13:5 Nazirite. The regulations of the Nazirite vows are found in Numbers 6:1–21. Samson's Nazirite service was remarkable in three ways. First, he did not take his vow voluntarily; it was his before birth. Second, his service was to be lifelong, not temporary. Third, he eventually broke every one of its stipulations.

13:6 Man of God. This was a term used to describe the prophets (Deut. 33:1; 1 Kin. 17:18). At first Samson's mother may have thought she was talking to a prophet, but His radiant appearance convinced her otherwise.

whom You sent come to us again and teach us what we shall do for the child who will be born.”

<sup>9</sup>And God listened to the voice of Manoah, and the Angel of God came to the woman again as she was sitting in the field; but Manoah her husband was not with her. <sup>10</sup>Then the woman ran in haste and told her husband, and said to him, “Look, the Man who came to me the other day has just now appeared to me!”

<sup>11</sup>So Manoah arose and followed his wife. When he came to the Man, he said to Him, “Are You the Man who spoke to this woman?”

And He said, “I am.”

<sup>12</sup>Manoah said, “Now let Your words come to pass! What will be the boy’s rule of life, and his work?”

<sup>13</sup>So the Angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “Of all that I said to the woman let her be careful. <sup>14</sup>She may not eat anything that comes from the vine, <sup>15</sup>nor may she drink wine or similar drink, nor eat anything unclean. All that I commanded her let her observe.”

<sup>15</sup>Then Manoah said to the Angel of the LORD, “Please <sup>16</sup>let us detain You, and we will prepare a young goat for You.”

<sup>16</sup>And the Angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “Though you detain Me, I will not eat your food. But if you offer a burnt offering, you must offer it to the LORD.” (For Manoah did not know He was the Angel of the LORD.)

<sup>17</sup>Then Manoah said to the Angel of the LORD, “What is Your name, that when Your words come to pass we may honor You?”

<sup>18</sup>And the Angel of the LORD said to him, <sup>19</sup>“Why do you ask My name, seeing it is wonderful?”

<sup>19</sup>So Manoah took the young goat with the grain offering, <sup>20</sup>and offered it upon the rock to the LORD. And He did a wondrous thing while Manoah and his wife looked on—<sup>21</sup>it happened as the flame went up toward heaven from the altar—the Angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar! When Manoah and his wife saw this, they <sup>22</sup>fell on their faces to the ground. <sup>21</sup>When the Angel of the LORD appeared no more to Manoah and his wife, <sup>23</sup>then Manoah knew that He was the Angel of the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>And Manoah said to his wife, <sup>24</sup>“We shall surely die, because we have seen God!”

<sup>23</sup>But his wife said to him, “If the LORD had desired to kill us, He would not have accepted a burnt offering and a grain offering from our hands, nor would He have shown us all these things, nor would He have told us such things as these at this time.”

Samson’s Philistine Wife

14 Now Samson went down <sup>1</sup>to Timnah, and <sup>2</sup>saw a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines. <sup>3</sup>So he went up and told his father and mother, saying, “I have seen a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines; now therefore, <sup>4</sup>get her for me as a wife.”

<sup>3</sup>Then his father and mother said to him, “Is there no woman among the daughters of <sup>4</sup>your brethren, or among all my people, that you must go and get a wife from the <sup>5</sup>uncircumcised Philistines?”

And Samson said to his father, “Get her for me, for she pleases me well.”

<sup>4</sup>But his father and mother did not know that it was <sup>5</sup>of the LORD—that He was seeking an occasion to move against the Philistines. For at that time <sup>6</sup>the Philistines had dominion over Israel.

<sup>5</sup>So Samson went down to Timnah with his father and mother, and came to the vineyards of Timnah.

* 13:25 Literally Camp of Dan (compare 18:12)

13:21–22 the Angel of the LORD. Manoah’s reaction is similar to the reaction Gideon had when he recognized the Angel of the Lord (6:22).

13:25 the Spirit of the LORD began to move upon him. The Hebrew word translated move can also mean impel. The Spirit of the Lord was pushing Samson toward doing the work that God wanted him to do.

14:2 get her for me as a wife. Such marriages with foreigners were prohibited for Israelites (Ex. 34:16; Deut. 7:3).

14:3 she pleases me well. Samson’s words reveal his self-centered attitude. Instead of seeking to serve God, he was seeking to please himself. Samson’s comment here foreshadows the author’s summary of the entire period of the judges (17:6; 18:1; 19:1; 21:25).

14:3 Unfaithfulness.—The beginning of Samson’s downfall was his disobedience to the Lord in his marriage. The theme of marriage within the covenant is common in the Old Testament. From earliest times the people of God were told not to contract marriages with unbelievers (Gen. 6:2). When the covenant was renewed prior to the people’s entry into Canaanite territory, Joshua warned them not to intermarry; to do so would be evidence of their failure to cling to the Lord (Josh. 23:8,12). It is a tragic picture of the decadence of this period to see Samson’s unfaithfulness to the Lord in taking a pagan wife. The New Covenant believer remains under the same divine command to marry only in the Lord (1 Cor. 7:39; 2 Cor. 6:14).

14:4 it was of the LORD. God would use Samson’s defiant wish as a way of defeating the Philistines and providing relief for His people.

Now to his surprise, a young lion came roaring against him. <sup>6</sup>And <sup>h</sup>the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he tore the lion apart as one would have torn apart a young goat, though he had nothing in his hand. But he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done.

<sup>7</sup>Then he went down and talked with the woman; and she pleased Samson well. <sup>8</sup>After some time, when he returned to get her, he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion. And behold, a swarm of bees and honey were in the carcass of the lion. <sup>9</sup>He took some of it in his hands and went along, eating. When he came to his father and mother, he gave some to them, and they also ate. But he did not tell them that he had taken the honey out of the carcass of the lion.

<sup>10</sup>So his father went down to the woman. And Samson gave a feast there, for young men used to do so. <sup>11</sup>And it happened, when they saw him, that they brought thirty companions to be with him.

<sup>12</sup>Then Samson said to them, "Let me pose a riddle to you. If you can correctly solve and explain it to me <sup>h</sup>within the seven days of the feast, then I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing. <sup>13</sup>But if you cannot explain it to me, then you shall give me thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing."

And they said to him, <sup>m</sup>"Pose your riddle, that we may hear it."

<sup>14</sup>So he said to them:

"Out of the eater came something to eat,

And out of the strong came something sweet."

Now for three days they could not explain the riddle.

<sup>15</sup>But it came to pass on the seventh day that they said to Samson's wife, <sup>n</sup>"Entice your husband, that he may explain the riddle to us, <sup>o</sup>or else we will burn you and your father's house with fire. Have you invited us in order to take what is ours? Is that not so?"

me! You have posed a riddle to the sons of my people, but you have not explained it to me."

And he said to her, "Look, I have not explained it to my father or my mother; so should I explain it to you?" <sup>17</sup>Now she had wept on him the seven days while their feast lasted. And it happened on the seventh day that he told her, because she pressed him so much. Then she explained the riddle to the sons of her people. <sup>18</sup>So the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down:

"What is sweeter than honey?

And what is stronger than a lion?"

And he said to them:

"If you had not plowed with my heifer, You would not have solved my riddle!"

<sup>19</sup>Then <sup>q</sup>the Spirit of the LORD came upon him mightily, and he went down to Ashkelon and killed thirty of their men, took their apparel, and gave the changes of clothing to those who had explained the riddle. So his anger was aroused, and he went back up to his father's house. <sup>20</sup>And Samson's wife <sup>r</sup>was given to his companion, who had been <sup>s</sup>his best man.

Samson Defeats the Philistines

15 After a while, in the time of wheat harvest, it happened that Samson visited his wife with a <sup>a</sup>young goat. And he said, "Let me go in to my wife, into her room." But her father would not permit him to go in.

<sup>2</sup>Her father said, "I really thought that you thoroughly <sup>b</sup>hated her; therefore I gave her to your companion. Is not her younger sister better than she? Please, take her instead."

<sup>3</sup>And Samson said to them, "This time I shall be blameless regarding the Philistines if I harm them!" <sup>4</sup>Then Samson went and caught three hundred foxes; and he took torches, turned the foxes tail to tail, * 14:15 Following Masoretic Text, Targum, and Vulgate; Septuagint and Syriac read fourth.

14:6 the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him.

The Old Testament speaks numerous times of God's Spirit coming mightily upon individuals, usually to empower them physically for great feats of strength (3:10; 6:34; 11:29). The Spirit empowered others for the important task of speaking God's word (Gen. 41:38; Num. 24:2; 1 Sam. 10:6; 19:20). It appears that the work of the Holy Spirit in the Old Testament was primarily a special anointing to accomplish a certain task, and was different from the indwelling Presence that believers enjoy today. Saul (1 Sam. 10:10; 16:23) and David (1 Sam. 16:13; Ps. 51:11) were both filled with the Holy Spirit when they were anointed as king, but this presence seems to have been directly linked to their obedience.

14:8–9 carcass of the lion. Touching the dead lion violated Samson's Nazirite vow (13:5).

14:10 feast. The word translated feast denotes a banquet with considerable drinking. The passage does not say so, but it is not unlikely that this occasioned another violation of Samson's Nazirite vow (13:5).

15:1 the time of wheat harvest. This would have been late May or early June. The wheat harvest was associated with the second of the three great feasts in Israel, the Feast of Weeks, also known as Pentecost (Lev. 23:15–22; Deut. 16:9–12).

and put a torch between each pair of tails. <sup>5</sup>When he had set the torches on fire, he let the foxes go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and burned up both the shocks and the standing grain, as well as the vineyards and olive groves.

<sup>6</sup>Then the Philistines said, "Who has done this?"

And they answered, "Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he has taken his wife and given her to his companion." <sup>c</sup>So the Philistines came up and burned her and her father with fire.

<sup>7</sup>Samson said to them, "Since you would do a thing like this, I will surely take revenge on you, and after that I will cease."

<sup>9</sup>Now the Philistines went up, encamped in Judah, and deployed themselves <sup>e</sup>against Lehi. <sup>10</sup>And the men of Judah said, "Why have you come up against us?"

So they answered, "We have come up to arrest Samson, to do to him as he has done to us."

<sup>11</sup>Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and said to Samson, "Do you not know that the Philistines <sup>f</sup>rule over us? What is this you have done to us?"

And he said to them, "As they did to me, so I have done to them."

<sup>12</sup>But they said to him, "We have come down to arrest you, that we may deliver you into the hand of the Philistines."

Then Samson said to them, "Swear to me that you will not kill me yourselves."

<sup>13</sup>So they spoke to him, saying, "No, but we will tie you securely and deliver you into their hand; but we will surely not kill you." And they bound him with two <sup>g</sup>new ropes and brought him up from the rock.

<sup>14</sup>When he came to Lehi, the Philistines came shouting against him. Then <sup>h</sup>the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him; and the ropes that were on his arms became like flax that is burned with fire, and his bonds broke loose from his hands. <sup>15</sup>He found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, reached out his hand and took it, and <sup>i</sup>killed a thousand men with it. <sup>16</sup>Then Samson said:

"With the jawbone of a donkey,
Heaps upon heaps,

With the jawbone of a donkey
I have slain a thousand men!"

<sup>17</sup>And so it was, when he had finished speaking, that he threw the jawbone from his hand, and called that place Ramath Lehi.*

<sup>18</sup>Then he became very thirsty; so he cried out to the LORD and said, <sup>j</sup>"You have given this great deliverance by the hand of Your servant; and now shall I die of thirst and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?" <sup>19</sup>So God split the hollow place that is in Lehi,* and water came out, and he drank; and <sup>k</sup>his spirit returned, and he revived. Therefore he called its name En Hakkore,* which is in Lehi to this day. <sup>20</sup>And <sup>l</sup>the judged Israel <sup>m</sup>"twenty years" in the days of the Philistines.

Samson and Delilah

16 Now Samson went to <sup>a</sup>Gaza and saw a harlot there, and went in to her.

<sup>2</sup>When the Gazites were told, "Samson has come here!" they <sup>b</sup>surrounded the place and lay in wait for him all night at the gate of the city. They were quiet all night, saying, "In the morning, when it is daylight, we will kill him." <sup>3</sup>And Samson lay low till midnight; then he arose at midnight, took hold of the doors of the gate of the city and the two gateposts, pulled them up, bar and all, put <sup>c</sup>them on his shoulders, and carried them to the top of the hill that faces Hebron.

<sup>6</sup>So Delilah said to Samson, "Please tell me where your great strength <sup>f</sup>lies, and with what you may be bound to afflict you."

<sup>7</sup>And Samson said to her, "If they bind me with seven fresh bowstrings, not yet dried, then I shall become weak, and be like any <sup>i</sup>other man."

* 15:17 Literally Jawbone Height * 15:19 Literally Jawbone (compare verse 14) • Literally Spring of the Caller

15:13 two new ropes. Ropes were made of leather, hair, or plant fibers; one common fiber was flax (Josh. 2:6). Being new, these ropes were the strongest possible.

15:15 a fresh jawbone. A fresh jawbone would have been tough, resilient, and virtually unbreakable.

15:18 cried out to the LORD. This is the first record of Samson calling on the Lord.

16:2 at the gate. The gates of this time in history were at least two stories high, with guard rooms on either side of a narrow opening. The Philistines waited in the recesses of the gate, hoping to trap Samson.

16:3 carried them to the top of the hill. Given the large size of the doors of a city gate, Samson's feat was astounding. Hebron is 40 miles east of Gaza. Samson's trip would have taken the better part of a day.

<sup>10</sup>Then Delilah said to Samson, “Look, you have mocked me and told me lies. Now, please tell me what you may be bound with.”

<sup>11</sup>So he said to her, “If they bind me securely with <sup>e</sup>new ropes that have never been used, then I shall become weak, and be like any other man.”

<sup>12</sup>Therefore Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them, and said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” And men were lying in wait, staying in the room. But he broke them off his arms like a thread.

<sup>13</sup>Delilah said to Samson, “Until now you have mocked me and told me lies. Tell me what you may be bound with.”

And he said to her, “If you weave the seven locks of my head into the web of the loom”—

<sup>14</sup>So she wove it tightly with the batten of the loom, and said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” But he awoke from his sleep, and pulled out the batten and the web from the loom.

<sup>15</sup>Then she said to him, <sup>f</sup>“How can you say, ‘I love you,’ when your heart is not with me? You have mocked me these three times, and have not told me where your great strength lies.” <sup>16</sup>And it came to pass, when she pestered him daily with her words and pressed him, so that his soul was vexed to death, <sup>17</sup>that he <sup>g</sup>told her all his heart, and said to her, <sup>h</sup>“No razor has ever come upon my head, for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother’s womb. If I am shaven, then my strength will leave me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man.”

<sup>18</sup>When Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, “Come up once more, for he has told me all his heart.” So the lords of the Philistines came up to her and brought the money in their hand. <sup>19</sup>Then she lulled him to sleep on her knees, and called for a man and had him shave off the seven locks of his head. Then she began to torment him,* and his strength left him. <sup>20</sup>And she said, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” So he awoke from his sleep, and said, “I will go out as before, at other times, and shake myself free!” But he did not know that the LORD <sup>i</sup>had departed from him.

<sup>22</sup>However, the hair of his head began to grow again after it had been shaven.

Samson Dies with the Philistines

<sup>23</sup>Now the lords of the Philistines gathered together to offer a great sacrifice to <sup>l</sup>Dagon their god, and to rejoice. And they said:

“Our god has delivered into our hands
Samson our enemy!”

<sup>24</sup>When the people saw him, they <sup>m</sup>praised their god; for they said:

“Our god has delivered into our hands
our enemy,
The destroyer of our land,
And the one who multiplied our dead.”

<sup>25</sup>So it happened, when their hearts were <sup>n</sup>merry, that they said, “Call for Samson, that he may perform for us.” So they called for Samson from the prison, and he performed for them. And they stationed him between the pillars. <sup>26</sup>Then Samson said to the lad who held him by the hand, “Let me feel the pillars which support the temple, so that I can lean on them.” <sup>27</sup>Now the temple was full of men and women. All the lords of the Philistines were there—about three thousand men and women on the <sup>o</sup>roof watching while Samson performed.

<sup>28</sup>Then Samson called to the LORD,

* 16:19 Following Masoretic Text, Targum, and Vulgate; Septuagint reads he began to be weak.

16:16 pestered him. Delilah pestered him just as his wife had done earlier (14:17). Samson’s foolishness prevented him from learning the lesson of his earlier experience.

16:19 and his strength left him. When he broke the final stipulation of the Nazirite vow by allowing his hair to be cut, the Lord left him and he was captured.

16:20 he did not know. This is one of the few editorial comments by the author.

16:23 Dagon. Dagon was the principal Philistine god. A Philistine temple for Dagon was at Beth Shan, in northern Israel, in the days of Saul (1 Sam. 31:9–10; 1 Chr. 10:10), and it was in another such temple that the Philistines stored the ark of the covenant for a time (1 Sam. 5:1–7). Dagon was once commonly thought to be a fish god, but modern excavations have shown that he was a god of grain. In fact, one of the Hebrew words for grain is dagon.

16:24 Our god has delivered into our hands our enemy. The Philistines viewed their success over Samson as a triumph for their god (Judg. 16:23–24). In reality it was the Lord who had delivered Samson into their hands, for “the LORD had departed from him” (v. 20).

saying, “O Lord GOD, <sup>p</sup>remember me, I pray! Strengthen me, I pray, just this once, O God, that I may with one blow take vengeance on the Philistines for my two eyes!”<sup>29</sup> And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars which supported the temple, and he braced himself against them, one on his right and the other on his left.<sup>30</sup> Then Samson said, “Let me die with the Philistines!” And he pushed with all his might, and the temple fell on the lords and all the people who were in it. So the dead that he killed at his death were more than he had killed in his life.

Micah’s Idolatry

17 Now there was a man from the mountains of Ephraim, whose name was <sup>a</sup>Micah. <sup>2</sup>And he said to his mother, “The eleven hundred shekels of silver that were taken from you, and on which you <sup>b</sup>put a curse, even saying it in my ears—here is the silver with me; I took it.”

And his mother said, “May you be blessed by the LORD, my son!”<sup>3</sup> So when he had returned the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, his mother said, “I had wholly dedicated the silver from my hand to the LORD for my son, to <sup>d</sup>make a carved image and a molded image; now therefore, I will return it to you.”<sup>4</sup> Thus he returned the silver to his mother. Then his mother <sup>e</sup>took two hundred shekels of silver and gave them to the silversmith, and he made it into a carved image and a molded image; and they were in the house of Micah.

<sup>5</sup>The man Micah had a <sup>f</sup>shrine, and made an <sup>g</sup>ephod and <sup>h</sup>household idols;* and he consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest.<sup>6</sup> In those days there was no king in Israel; <sup>i</sup>everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

<sup>7</sup>Now there was a young man from <sup>k</sup>Bethlehem in Judah, of the family of Judah; he was a Levite, and <sup>l</sup>was staying there.<sup>8</sup> The man departed from the city of Bethlehem in Judah to stay wherever he could find a place. Then he came to the mountains of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, as he journeyed.<sup>9</sup> And Micah said to him, “Where do you come from?”

So he said to him, “I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, and I am on my way to find a place to stay.”

<sup>10</sup>Micah said to him, “Dwell with me, <sup>m</sup>and be a <sup>n</sup>father and a priest to me, and I will give you ten shekels of silver per year, a suit of clothes, and your sustenance.” So the Levite went in.<sup>11</sup> Then the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the

16:30 Zeal—The famous lament of David over Saul and Jonathan, “How the mighty have fallen!” (2 Sam. 1:19,27), could also be applied to Samson. He came from a godly home, but often was overcome by evil passion, pride, and violence. Yet at death his zeal for the Lord brought about a great victory over the Philistines and their god Dagon, and he is listed in Hebrews as a man of faith (Heb. 11:32). The plan and purpose of God overruled Samson’s folly and the Philistines’ arrogance.

16:31 He had judged Israel twenty years. The story of the judges concludes with final editorial comments. Samson, the last judge, had been empowered by God’s Spirit, just as the first had been. Despite the manifold failings of the judges themselves, God had delivered Israel and caused other nations to bow before Him. Samson’s life is ultimately a story about God’s faithfulness in spite of human weakness.

17:1—21:25 Conclusion—The Book of Judges closes with two appendices (chs. 17–18; 19–21). They seem to be unrelated to the material preceding them, and to each other. While chapters 2–16 describe foreign threats to Israel, these last chapters show an internal breakdown of Israel’s worship and unity. Furthermore, the events of these chapters appear to have taken place early in the period of the judges. These chapters may have been written independently of the book’s earlier chapters, but there is a certain logic to placing them at the end of the book. The structure highlights the theme of the disintegration of Israel, with the last chapters emphasizing that “everyone did what was right in his own eyes” (17:6; 21:25).

17:3 I had wholly dedicated the silver . . . to the LORD. Micah’s mother approved of his action, claiming that these images would be offered on the Lord’s behalf. Today the temptation to mix elements of true worship of God with practices unacceptable to Him remains with us, even though it is in different ways.

17:5 shrine. This is literally “a house of God.” This was a perversion of the true sanctuary where all worship was to take place. At this time the true “house of God” was at Shiloh (18:31). Micah further violated the law by appointing his own son as his private priest. Micah sinned because his son had not descended from Aaron, nor was he even a Levite (Ex. 28:1; 40:12–15; Num. 16:39–40; 17:8).

17:6 what was right in his own eyes. This editorial comment is echoed in the last verse of the book (21:25). The author suggests that times were so bad that people did whatever they wanted, not what was right in the Lord’s eyes (14:3). We may infer that a king who focused Israel’s attention on the Lord would have prevented the outbreaks of sin and oppression so prevalent during the time of the judges.

17:10 be a father and a priest to me. To be called father was a title of honor. Micah wanted the Levite to be his priest, since his background would lend legitimacy to his service. Micah thought this would bring him God’s favor (v. 13).

young man became like one of his sons to him. <sup>12</sup>So Micah <sup>a</sup>consecrated the Levite, and the young man <sup>b</sup>became his priest, and lived in the house of Micah. <sup>13</sup>Then Micah said, "Now I know that the LORD will be good to me, since I have a Levite as <sup>c</sup>priest!"

The Danites Adopt Micah's Idolatry

18 In <sup>a</sup>those days there was no king in Israel. And in those days <sup>b</sup>the tribe of the Danites was seeking an inheritance for itself to dwell in; for until that day their inheritance among the tribes of Israel had not fallen to them. <sup>2</sup>So the children of Dan sent five men of their family from their territory, men of valor from <sup>c</sup>Zorah and Eshtaol, <sup>d</sup>to spy out the land and search it. They said to them, "Go, search the land." So they went to the mountains of Ephraim, to the <sup>e</sup>house of Micah, and lodged there. <sup>3</sup>While they were at the house of Micah, they recognized the voice of the young Levite. They turned aside and said to him, "Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What do you have here?"

<sup>4</sup>He said to them, "Thus and so Micah did for me. He has <sup>f</sup>hired me, and I have become his priest."

<sup>5</sup>So they said to him, "Please <sup>g</sup>inquire of <sup>h</sup>God, that we may know whether the journey on which we go will be prosperous."

<sup>6</sup>And the priest said to them, "<sup>i</sup>Go in peace. The presence of the LORD be with you on your way."

<sup>7</sup>So the five men departed and went to <sup>j</sup>Laish. They saw the people who were there, <sup>k</sup>how they dwelt safely, in the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and secure. There were no rulers in the land who might put them to shame for anything. They were far from the <sup>l</sup>Sidonians, and they had no ties with anyone.*

<sup>8</sup>Then the spies came back to their brethren at <sup>m</sup>Zorah and Eshtaol, and their brethren said to them, "What is your report?"

<sup>9</sup>So they said, <sup>n</sup>"Arise, let us go up against them. For we have seen the land, and indeed it is very good. Would you <sup>o</sup>do nothing? Do not hesitate to go, and enter to possess the land. <sup>10</sup>When you go, you will come to a <sup>p</sup>secure people and a large land. For God has given it into your hands, <sup>q</sup>a place where there is no lack of anything that is on the earth."

<sup>11</sup>And six hundred men of the family of the Danites went from there, from Zorah and Eshtaol, armed with weapons of war. <sup>12</sup>Then they went up and encamped in <sup>r</sup>Kirjath Jearim in Judah. (Therefore they call that place <sup>s</sup>"Mahaneh Dan" to this day. There it is, west of Kirjath Jearim.) <sup>13</sup>And they passed from there to the mountains of Ephraim, and came to <sup>t</sup>the house of Micah.

<sup>14</sup>Then the five men who had gone to spy out the country of Laish answered and said to their brethren, "Do you know that <sup>v</sup>there are in these houses an ephod, household idols, a carved image, and a molded image? Now therefore, consider what you should do." <sup>15</sup>So they turned aside there, and came to the house of the young Levite man—to the house of Micah—and greeted him. <sup>16</sup>The <sup>w</sup>six hundred men armed with their weapons of war, who were of the children of Dan, stood by the entrance of the gate. <sup>17</sup>Then <sup>x</sup>the five men who had gone to spy out the land went up. Entering there, they took <sup>y</sup>the carved image, the ephod, the household idols, and the molded image. The priest stood at the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men who were armed with weapons of war.

<sup>18</sup>When these went into Micah's house and took the carved image, the ephod, the household idols, and the molded image, the priest said to them, "What are you doing?"

<sup>19</sup>And they said to him, "Be quiet, <sup>z</sup>put your hand over your mouth, and come with us; <sup>a</sup>be a father and a priest to us. Is it better for you to be a priest to the household of one man, or that you be a priest to a tribe and a family in Israel?" <sup>20</sup>So the priest's heart was glad; and he took the ephod, the household idols, and the carved image, and took his place among the people.

<sup>21</sup>Then they turned and departed, and put the little ones, the livestock, and the goods in front of them. <sup>22</sup>When they were

18:1 Danites. The Danites were looking for a place to settle because they had been unable to settle effectively in their allotted territory. Compare their allotment in Joshua 19:41–47 and their failure to capture it all (1:34–35). It seems clear that this story is not placed chronologically, but refers back to the first chapters of Judges. The Danites' migration in search of new land probably would have come soon after the events of 1:34, not some three centuries or more later.

18:7 Sidonians. Sidon was a port city northwest of Israel, in what today is Lebanon.

18:19 *be a father and a priest to us. The Levite's cynical acceptance of this opportunity for greater prestige indicates further how debased conditions had become. Those who had been divinely appointed to minister before the Lord were selling false spiritual services to the highest bidder.

a good way from the house of Micah, the men who were in the houses near Micah's house gathered together and overtook the children of Dan. <sup>23</sup>And they called out to the children of Dan. So they turned around and said to Micah, <sup>b</sup>"What ails you, that you have gathered such a company?"

<sup>24</sup>So he said, "You have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and you have gone away. Now what more do I have? How can you say to me, 'What ails you?'"

<sup>25</sup>And the children of Dan said to him, "Do not let your voice be heard among us, lest angry men fall upon you, and you lose your life, with the lives of your household!"

<sup>26</sup>Then the children of Dan went their way. And when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house.

Danites Settle in Laish

<sup>27</sup>So they took the things Micah had made, and the priest who had belonged to him, and went to Laish, to a people quiet and secure; <sup>d</sup>and they struck them with the edge of the sword and burned the city with fire. <sup>28</sup>There was no deliverer, because it was <sup>e</sup>far from Sidon, and they had no ties with anyone. It was in the valley that belongs <sup>f</sup>to Beth Rehob. So they rebuilt the city and dwelt there. <sup>29</sup>And they called the name of the city <sup>h</sup>Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born to Israel. However, the name of the city formerly was Laish.

<sup>30</sup>Then the children of Dan set up for themselves the carved image; and Jonathan the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh,* and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan 'until the day of the captivity of the land. <sup>31</sup>So they set up for themselves Micah's carved image which he made, <sup>j</sup>all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

The Levite's Concubine

19 And it came to pass in those days, <sup>a</sup>when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite staying in the remote mountains of Ephraim. He took for himself a concubine from <sup>b</sup>Bethlehem in Judah. <sup>2</sup>But his concubine played the harlot against him, and went away from him to her father's house at Bethlehem in Judah, and was there four whole months. <sup>3</sup>Then her husband arose and went after her, to <sup>c</sup>speak kindly to her and bring her back, having his servant and a couple of donkeys with him. So she brought him into her father's house; and when the father of the young woman saw him, he was glad to meet him. <sup>4</sup>Now his father-in-law, the young woman's father, detained him; and he stayed with him three days. So they ate and drank and lodged there.

<sup>5</sup>Then it came to pass on the fourth day that they arose early in the morning, and he stood to depart; but the young woman's father said to his son-in-law, <sup>d</sup>"Refresh your heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward go your way."

<sup>6</sup>So they sat down, and the two of them ate and drank together. Then the young woman's father said to the man, "Please be content to stay all night, and let your heart be merry." <sup>7</sup>And when the man stood to depart, his father-in-law urged him; so he lodged there again. <sup>8</sup>Then he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart, but the young woman's father said, "Please refresh your heart." So they delayed until afternoon; and both of them ate.

<sup>9</sup>And when the man stood to depart—he and his concubine and his servant—his father-in-law, the young woman's father, said to him, "Look, the day is now drawing toward evening; please spend the night. See, the day is coming to an end; lodge here, that your heart may be merry. Tomorrow go your way early, so that you may get home."

<sup>10</sup>However, the man was not willing to spend that night; so he rose and departed, and came opposite <sup>e</sup>Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). With him were the two saddled donkeys; his concubine was also with him. <sup>11</sup>They were near Jebus, and the day was far spent; and the servant said to his master, "Come, please, and let us turn aside into this city <sup>f</sup>of the Jebusites and lodge in it."

<sup>12</sup>But his master said to him, "We will not turn aside here into a city of foreigners, who are not of the children of Israel; we will go on <sup>g</sup>to Gibeah." <sup>13</sup>So he said to his servant, "Come, let us draw near to one of these places, and spend the night in Gibeah or in <sup>h</sup>Ramah." <sup>14</sup>And they passed by and went their way; and the sun went down on them near Gibeah, which belongs

18:31 all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh. The true worship of God in the appointed place was available all this time—the Danites just did not want to bother with it.

19:1 a concubine. A concubine was a female servant regarded as a part of the family, often chosen to bear children. Several of the patriarchs had children with concubines: Abraham with Hagar (Gen. 16); Jacob with Bilhah and Zilpah (Gen. 30:4–13).

19:10 Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). The city of Jerusalem was at this time in the hands of the Jebusites, and to Benjamin. <sup>15</sup>They turned aside there to go in to lodge in Gibeah. And when he went in, he sat down in the open square of the city, for no one would <sup>16</sup>take them into his house to spend the night.

<sup>16</sup>Just then an old man came in from <sup>17</sup>his work in the field at evening, who also was from the mountains of Ephraim; he was staying in Gibeah, whereas the men of the place were Benjamites. <sup>17</sup>And when he raised his eyes, he saw the traveler in the open square of the city; and the old man said, “Where are you going, and where do you come from?”

<sup>18</sup>So he said to him, “We are passing from Bethlehem in Judah toward the remote mountains of Ephraim; I am from there. I went to Bethlehem in Judah; now I am going to <sup>19</sup>the house of the LORD. But there is no one who will take me into his house, <sup>20</sup>although we have both straw and fodder for our donkeys, and bread and wine for myself, for your female servant, and for the young man who is with your servant; there is no lack of anything.”

<sup>20</sup>And the old man said, “Peace be with you! However, let all your needs be my responsibility; <sup>21</sup>only do not spend the night in the open square.” <sup>21</sup>So he brought him into his house, and gave fodder to the donkeys. <sup>22</sup>And they washed their feet, and ate and drank.

Gibeah's Crime

<sup>23</sup>But <sup>24</sup>the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, “No, my brethren! I beg you, do not act so wickedly!

Seeing this man has come into my house, <sup>25</sup>do not commit this outrage. <sup>26</sup>Look, *here is my virgin daughter and the man's* concubine*; let me bring them out now. <sup>27</sup>Humble them, and do with them as you please; but to this man do not do such a vile thing!” <sup>28</sup>But the men would not heed him. So the man took his concubine and brought her out to them. And they <sup>29</sup>knew her and abused her all night until morning; and when the day began to break, they let her go.

<sup>29</sup>Then the woman came as the day was dawning, and fell down at the door of the man's house where her master was, till it was light.

<sup>30</sup>When her master arose in the morning, and opened the doors of the house and went out to go his way, there was his concubine, fallen at the door of the house with her hands on the threshold. <sup>31</sup>And he said to her, “Get up and let us be going.” But <sup>32</sup>there was no answer. So the man lifted her onto the donkey; and the man got up and went to his place.

<sup>33</sup>When he entered his house he took a knife, laid hold of his concubine, and <sup>34</sup>divided her into twelve pieces, limb by limb,* and sent her throughout all the territory of Israel. <sup>35</sup>And so it was that all who saw it said, “No such deed has been done or seen from the day that the children of Israel came up from the land of Egypt until this day. Consider it, <sup>36</sup>confer, and speak up!”

Israel's War with the Benjamites

19:22–26 men of the city. This section closely resembles Genesis 19:4–9; indeed, the author may have written this story to make the comparison with Sodom unmistakable, as if to say, “Things were as bad as they were in the days of Sodom and Gomorrah.”

19:22 perverted men. Literally “sons of Belial,” this is a phrase describing wicked or worthless people. The name Belial came to designate Satan, as it is used in 2 Corinthians 6:15. may know him. This same expression is found in Genesis 19:5, where the men of Sodom wanted to force homosexual relations on Lot's guests.

19:22–30 Perversion.—For a man to be raped by a group of town ruffians would be a terrible humiliation; the fact that offering the concubine and the virgin daughter could be considered a solution clearly illustrates the level of perversion and depravity to which the people had sunk. Women were no longer considered the companions and helpers that they were created to be (Gen. 2:22–24), but as property, to be enjoyed or disposed of at will. The author offers no comment upon the horror perpetrated here, merely stating the cold facts and leaving a strong impression of the heartless and conscienceless state of the people.

19:30 No such deed has been done or seen. This phrase is ambiguous. It is uncertain whether they were horrified by discovering the dismembered body or by learning about the cruel rape and murder.

20:1 from Dan to Beersheba. This is a common expression for the full extent of the land of Israel from north to south.

20:1–2,8 Unity.—Both individually and corporately the Israelites of this period were functioning as a law unto themselves. “Everyone did what was right in his own eyes” (21:25). One notable exception to this was the response to the loathsome rape and killing presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand foot soldiers <sup>e</sup>who drew the sword. <sup>3</sup>(Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.)

Then the children of Israel said, “Tell us, how did this wicked deed happen?”

<sup>4</sup>So the Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered and said, “My concubine and I went into Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin, to spend the night. <sup>5a</sup>And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and surrounded the house at night because of me. They intended to kill me, <sup>b</sup>but instead they ravished my concubine so that she died. <sup>6</sup>So I took hold of my concubine, cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the territory of the inheritance of Israel, because they <sup>c</sup>committed lewdness and outrage in Israel. <sup>7</sup>Look! All of you are children of Israel; <sup>d</sup>give your advice and counsel here and now!”

<sup>8</sup>So all the people arose as one man, saying, “None of us will go to his tent, nor will any turn back to his house; <sup>9</sup>but now this is the thing which we will do to Gibeah: We will go up <sup>e</sup>against it by lot. <sup>10</sup>We will take ten men out of every hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, a hundred out of every thousand, and a thousand out of every ten thousand, to make provisions for the people, that when they come to Gibeah in Benjamin, they may repay all the villainess that they have done in Israel.” <sup>11</sup>So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, united together as one man.

<sup>12m</sup>Then the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, “What is this wickedness that has occurred among you? <sup>13</sup>Now therefore, deliver up the men, <sup>n</sup>the perverted men* who are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death and <sup>o</sup>remove the evil from Israel!” But the children of Benjamin would not listen to the voice of their brethren, the children of Israel. <sup>14</sup>Instead, the children of Benjamin gathered together from their cities to Gibeah, to go to battle against the children of Israel. <sup>15</sup>And from their cities at that time <sup>p</sup>the children of Benjamin numbered twenty-six thousand men who drew the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, who numbered seven hundred select men. <sup>16</sup>Among all this people were seven hundred select men who were <sup>q</sup>left-handed; every one could sling a stone at a hair’s breadth and not miss. <sup>17</sup>Now besides Benjamin, the men of Israel numbered four hundred thousand men who drew the sword; all of these were men of war.

<sup>18</sup>Then the children of Israel arose and <sup>r</sup>went up to the house of God* to <sup>s</sup>inquire of God. They said, “Which of us shall go up first to battle against the children of Benjamin?”

The LORD said, “Judah first!”

And the LORD said, “Go up against him.”

<sup>26</sup>Then all the children of Israel, that is, all the people, <sup>x</sup>went up and came to the house of God* and wept. They sat there of a concubine in the Benjamite territory of Gibeah (19:11–30). The result of this outrageous covenant violation was that all Israel gathered together as one man, and decided that they would not rest until the crime was punished. The people were shocked into unity against sin. It is still true that crises in life often serve to bring people together to work for a common cause or fight against a common enemy. While this can be a good result of difficult times, it is important that God’s people be united in serving Him in peace as well as crisis.

20:9 by lot. God’s role is not mentioned here, but one can assume that the people were using lots to seek His will. To their credit, the Israelite tribes were united together as one man, a quality notably absent up to this point in the Book of Judges (v. 11).

20:18 Judah first. The book begins and ends with Judah in this prominent position (1:1–2). This is no accident, since the end of the book points toward the monarchy, whose true expression would come out of Judah.

20:23 Go up against him. The Lord graciously answered the Israelites twice when they called upon Him (v. 18).

20:26 came to the house of God and wept. The Israelites suffered a second major defeat (v. 25). The before the LORD and fasted that day until evening; and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. <sup>27</sup>So the children of Israel inquired of the LORD (the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, <sup>28</sup>and Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, <sup>a</sup>stood before it in those days), saying, "Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of my brother Benjamin, or shall I cease?"

And the LORD said, "Go up, for tomorrow I will deliver them into your hand."

But the children of Israel said, "Let us flee and draw them away from the city to the highways." <sup>33</sup>So all the men of Israel rose from their place and put themselves in battle array at Baal Tamar. Then Israel's men in ambush burst forth from their position in the plain of Geba. <sup>34</sup>And ten thousand select men from all Israel came against Gibeah, and the battle was fierce. <sup>d</sup>But the Benjamites* did not know that disaster was upon them. <sup>35</sup>The LORD defeated Benjamin before Israel. And the children of Israel destroyed that day twenty-five thousand one hundred Benjamites; all these drew the sword.

<sup>36</sup>So the children of Benjamin saw that they were defeated. <sup>e</sup>The men of Israel had given ground to the Benjamites, because they relied on the men in ambush whom they had set against Gibeah. <sup>37</sup>And the men in ambush quickly rushed upon Gibeah; the men in ambush spread out and struck the whole city with the edge of the sword. <sup>38</sup>Now the appointed signal between the men of Israel and the men in ambush was that they would make a great cloud of <sup>f</sup>smoke rise up from the city, <sup>39</sup>whereupon the men of Israel would turn in battle. Now Benjamin had begun to strike and kill about thirty of the men of Israel. For they said, "Surely they are defeated before us, as in the first battle." <sup>40</sup>But when the cloud began to rise from the city in a column of smoke, the Benjamites <sup>h</sup>looked behind them, and there was the whole city going up in smoke to heaven. <sup>41</sup>And when the men of Israel turned back, the men of Benjamin panicked, for they saw that disaster had come upon them. <sup>42</sup>Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel in the direction of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them, and whoever came out of the cities they destroyed in their midst. <sup>43</sup>They surrounded the Benjamites, chased them, and easily trampled them down as far as the front of Gibeah toward the east. <sup>44</sup>And eighteen thousand men of Benjamin fell; all these were men of valor. <sup>45</sup>Then they* turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon; and they cut down five thousand of them on the highways. Then they pursued them relentlessly up to Gidom, and killed two thousand of them. <sup>46</sup>So all who fell of Benjamin that day were twenty-five thousand men who drew the sword; all these were men of valor.

<sup>47</sup>But six hundred men turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and they stayed at the rock of Rimmon for four months. <sup>48</sup>And the men of Israel turned back against the children of Benjamin, and struck them down with the edge of the sword—from every city, men and beasts, all who were found. They also set fire to all the cities they came to.

Wives Provided for the Benjamites

21 Now <sup>a</sup>the men of Israel had sworn an oath at Mizpah, saying, "None of us shall give his daughter to Benjamin as a wife." <sup>2</sup>Then the people came <sup>b</sup>to the house of God,* and remained there before God till evening. They lifted up their voices and wept bitterly, <sup>3</sup>and said, "O LORD God of Israel, why has this come to pass in Israel, that today there should be one tribe missing in Israel?"

<sup>4</sup>So it was, on the next morning, that the people rose early and <sup>c</sup>built an altar there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. <sup>5</sup>The children of Israel said, "Who is there among all the tribes of Israel who result drove them to fasting and sacrificing at Bethel, something done very rarely in this period.

20:28 Phinehas. Phinehas was the grandson of Aaron who had stopped the plague at Peor (Num. 25:6–11). The fact that he was still alive shows that the organization of the Book of Judges is not strictly chronological. The author may have placed this account at the end of the book to make the point even more strongly about the spiritual deterioration of the nation.

20:48 and struck them down with the edge of the sword. The spiritual decay of Israel had resulted in the destruction of its own people with a vengeance once reserved for pagan people.

did not come up with the assembly to the LORD?" <sup>d</sup>For they had made a great oath concerning anyone who had not come up to the LORD at Mizpah, saying, "He shall surely be put to death." <sup>e</sup>And the children of Israel grieved for Benjamin their brother, and said, "One tribe is cut off from Israel today." <sup>f</sup>What shall we do for wives for those who remain, seeing we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them our daughters as wives?"

<sup>g</sup>And they said, "What one is there from the tribes of Israel who did not come up to Mizpah to the LORD?" And, in fact, no one had come to the camp from <sup>h</sup>Jabesh Gilead to the assembly. <sup>i</sup>For when the people were counted, indeed, not one of the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead was there. <sup>j</sup>So the congregation sent out there twelve thousand of their most valiant men, and commanded them, saying, <sup>k</sup>"Go and strike the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead with the edge of the sword, including the women and children." <sup>l</sup>And this is the thing that you shall do: <sup>m</sup>You shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman who has known a man intimately." <sup>n</sup>So they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead four hundred young virgins who had not known a man intimately; and they brought them to the camp at <sup>o</sup>Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

<sup>p</sup>Then the whole congregation sent word to the children of Benjamin <sup>q</sup>who were at the rock of Rimmon, and announced peace to them. <sup>r</sup>So Benjamin came back at that time, and they gave them the women whom they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh Gilead; and yet they had not found enough for them.

<sup>16</sup>Then the elders of the congregation said, "What shall we do for wives for those who remain, since the women of Benjamin have been destroyed?" <sup>17</sup>And they said, "There must be an inheritance for the survivors of Benjamin, that a tribe may not be destroyed from Israel." <sup>18</sup>However, we cannot give them wives from our daughters, <sup>19</sup>for the children of Israel have sworn an oath, saying, 'Cursed be the one who gives a wife to Benjamin.'" <sup>20</sup>Then they said, "In fact, there is a yearly feast of the LORD in Shiloh, which is north of Bethel, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebonah."

<sup>28</sup>In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

21:6 Repentance—In the midst of this terrible account of great sin within the nation of Israel, we find that the people realized that it was important that none of the tribes should perish. The example set by the nation of Israel is important for believers today. The people of Israel felt sorry for their brothers after the brothers had been disciplined for their great sin. Restoration and continuance of fellowship are important for people who have fallen into sin (2 Cor. 2:6–8; Gal. 6:1–2).

21:11 utterly destroy. This phrase is found numerous times in the Book of Joshua in regard to the conquest of the Canaanites. However, there is no hint that God supported the bloodbath at Jabesh Gilead.

21:19 feast of the LORD. Because of the dancing association, some believe that the yearly feast mentioned here was the Passover. Others believe that it was the Feast of Tabernacles, celebrated in the fall, since vineyards are mentioned (vv. 20–21). The grape harvest came in the early fall.

21:23 took enough wives for their number. No justification is given for this peculiar abduction except for the supposed needs of the Benjamites. This interesting episode was a way for the rest of Israel to side-step their oath (v. 1), and try to preserve the tribe of Benjamin.

21:25 what was right in his own eyes. This statement sums up the whole Book of Judges. What happened was governed by whatever people happened to feel like, rather than by listening to God, and the stories at the end of the book clearly illustrate the results of this mindset.

THE BOOK OF RUTH

► AUTHOR: The Book of Ruth provides a cameo to the other side of the biblical story—the godly remnant who remain true to the laws of God. Although the author of Ruth is not given anywhere in the book, the anonymity should not detract from its spiritual value or literary beauty. Tradition has attributed the writing of Ruth to Samuel, but this is difficult to reconcile with the mention of David when Samuel died before David was installed as king.

► TIME: During the Judges    ► KEY VERSE: Ruth 1:16

► THEME: Ruth is a simple yet intriguing short story. Throughout the story, the characters develop and eventually exhibit wisdom, loyalty, and obedience to God and the customs of the day. We see an interesting romance bloom out of most unusual circumstances. It provides a platform for some profound understanding of God's covenant plans with His people, Israel. We see the details of His plan unfold in the lives of a widow, her foreign born daughter-in-law, and a distant relative. We also see the lineage of David and Christ established and blessed.

Elimelech's Family Goes to Moab

1 Now it came to pass, in the days when <sup>a</sup>the judges ruled, that there was <sup>ba</sup>famine in the land. And a certain man of <sup>c</sup>Bethlehem, Judah, went to dwell in the country of <sup>d</sup>Moab, he and his wife and his two sons. <sup>2</sup>The name of the man was Elimelech, the name of his wife was Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion—<sup>e</sup>Ephrathites of Bethlehem, Judah. And they went <sup>f</sup>to the country of Moab and remained there. <sup>3</sup>Then Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died; and she was left, and her two sons. <sup>4</sup>Now they took wives of the women of Moab: the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth. And they dwelt there about ten years. <sup>5</sup>Then both Mahlon and Chilion also died; so the woman survived her two sons and her husband.

Naomi Returns with Ruth

<sup>6</sup>Then she arose with her daughters-in-law that she might return from the country of Moab, for she had heard in the country of Moab that the LORD had <sup>g</sup>visited His people by <sup>h</sup>giving them bread. <sup>7</sup>Therefore she went out from the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her; and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah. <sup>8</sup>And Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, <sup>i</sup>“Go, return each to her mother's house. <sup>j</sup>The LORD deal kindly with you, as you have dealt <sup>k</sup>with the dead and with me. <sup>9</sup>The LORD grant that you may find <sup>l</sup>rest, each in the house of her husband.”

So she kissed them, and they lifted up their voices and wept. <sup>10</sup>And they said to her, “Surely we will return with you to your people.”

<sup>11</sup>But Naomi said, “Turn back, my daughters; why will you go with me? Are there still sons in my womb, <sup>m</sup>that they may be your husbands? <sup>12</sup>Turn back, my daughters, go—for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say I have hope, <sup>n</sup>if I should have a husband tonight and should also bear sons, <sup>13</sup>would you wait for them till they were grown? Would you restrain yourselves from having husbands? No, my daughters; for it grieves me very much for your sakes that <sup>o</sup>the hand of the LORD has gone out against me!”

<sup>14</sup>Then they lifted up their voices and

1:4 Ruth. The name Ruth means “friend” or “compassionate friend.” Throughout the account of her life it is easy to see that this name fittingly described Ruth's character.

1:8 kindly. The Hebrew word translated “kindly” is often used to describe God. It can also be interpreted as “loyal love.”

1:13 gone out against me. Naomi felt that the Lord was disciplining her. To be a widow in such a time and also without children was very difficult indeed.

1:14 Perseverance—When we sacrifice what would seem to be our best interest for another's welfare, God may unexpectedly use it to uplift and reward us. Ruth's desire to stay with Naomi not only lightened wept again; and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth <sup>c</sup>clung to her.

<sup>16</sup>But Ruth said:

<sup>r</sup>“Entreat me not to leave you,
Or to turn back from following after
you;

For wherever you go, I will go;
And wherever you lodge, I will lodge;

<sup>s</sup>Your people shall be my people,
And your God, my God.

<sup>17</sup> Where you die, I will die,
And there will I be buried.

<sup>t</sup>The LORD do so to me, and more also,
If anything but death parts you and me.”

<sup>18u</sup>When she saw that she was determined to go with her, she stopped speaking to her.

<sup>19</sup>Now the two of them went until they came to Bethlehem. And it happened, when they had come to Bethlehem, that <sup>v</sup>all the city was excited because of them; and the women said, <sup>w</sup>“Is this Naomi?”

<sup>20</sup>But she said to them, “Do not call me Naomi;* call me Mara,* for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me. <sup>21</sup>I went out full, <sup>x</sup>and the LORD has brought me home again empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since the LORD has testified against me, and the Almighty has afflicted me?”

Ruth Meets Boaz

2 There was a <sup>a</sup>relative of Naomi’s husband, a man of great wealth, of the family of <sup>b</sup>Elimelech. His name was <sup>c</sup>Boaz. <sup>2</sup>So Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, “Please let me go to the <sup>d</sup>field, and glean heads of grain after him in whose sight I may find favor.”

And she said to her, “Go, my daughter.”

<sup>3</sup>Then she left, and went and gleaned in the field after the reapers. And she happened to come to the part of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.

<sup>4</sup>Now behold, Boaz came from <sup>e</sup>Bethlehem, and said to the reapers, <sup>f</sup>“The LORD be with you!”

And they answered him, “The LORD bless you!”

<sup>5</sup>Then Boaz said to his servant who was in charge of the reapers, “Whose young woman is this?”

<sup>6</sup>So the servant who was in charge of the reapers answered and said, “It is the young Moabitess woman <sup>g</sup>who came back with Naomi from the country of Moab. <sup>7</sup>And she said, ‘Please let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves.’ So she came and has continued from morning until now, though she rested a little in the house.”

<sup>8</sup>Then Boaz said to Ruth, “You will listen, my daughter, will you not? Do not go to glean in another field, nor go from here, but stay close by my young women. <sup>9</sup>Let your eyes be on the field which they reap, and go after them. Have I not commanded the young men not to touch you? And when you are thirsty, go to the vessels and drink from what the young men have drawn.”

<sup>10</sup>So she <sup>h</sup>fell on her face, bowed down to the ground, and said to him, “Why have I found <sup>i</sup>favor in your eyes, that you should take notice of me, since I am a foreigner?”

<sup>11</sup>And Boaz answered and said to her, “It has been fully reported to me, <sup>j</sup>all that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband, and how you have left your father and your mother and the land of your birth, and have come to a people whom you did not know before. <sup>12k</sup>The LORD repay your work, and a full reward be given you by the LORD God of Israel, <sup>l</sup>under whose wings you have come for refuge.”

<sup>13</sup>Then she said, <sup>m</sup>“Let me find favor in your sight, my lord; for you have comforted me, and have spoken kindly to your maid-servant, <sup>n</sup>though I am not like one of your maidservants.”

<sup>14</sup>Now Boaz said to her at mealtime, “Come here, and eat of the bread, and dip your piece of bread in the vinegar.” So Naomi’s lot, but it also brought Ruth into the Messiah’s ancestral line.

1:16–17 your God, my God. Ruth is casting her lot with Naomi, turning her back on all she has known. Most important she is turning away from the many gods of Moab to the One True God of Israel.

1:22 Moabitess. God extended His protection to Ruth even though she was a foreigner and a member of a nation which had been the enemy of God and Israel (Num. 22–25).

2:1 Boaz. As a relative of Naomi’s husband Elimelech, as well as a man of both wealth and good character, Boaz was the ideal person to stand up for the rights of the two widows. In the ancient Middle East, a woman without a husband or father was a woman unprotected and with no way to make a living.

2:2 glean. The law of Moses allowed the poor to glean in the fields of the farmers (Lev. 23:22), picking up the loose grain that fell from the sheaves as the reapers gathered them up.

2:14–16 Come here, and eat of the bread. Boaz not only let Ruth glean, he also amply provided her with she sat beside the reapers, and he passed parched grain to her; and she ate and <sup>o</sup>was satisfied, and kept some back. <sup>15</sup>And when she rose up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, “Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not reproach her. <sup>16</sup>Also let grain from the bundles fall purposely for her; leave it that she may glean, and do not rebuke her.”

<sup>17</sup>So she gleaned in the field until evening, and beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of <sup>p</sup>barley. <sup>18</sup>Then she took it up and went into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. So she brought out and gave to her <sup>a</sup>what she had kept back after she had been satisfied.

<sup>19</sup>And her mother-in-law said to her, “Where have you gleaned today? And where did you work? Blessed be the one who <sup>r</sup>took notice of you.”

So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, “The man’s name with whom I worked today is Boaz.”

<sup>21</sup>Ruth the Moabitess said, “He also said to me, ‘You shall stay close by my young men until they have finished all my harvest.’”

<sup>22</sup>And Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, “It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his young women, and that people do not meet you in any other field.” <sup>23</sup>So she stayed close by the young women of Boaz, to glean until the end of barley harvest and wheat harvest; and she dwelt with her mother-in-law.

Ruth’s Redemption Assured

3 Then Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, “My daughter, <sup>a</sup>shall I not seek <sup>b</sup>security for you, that it may be well with you? <sup>2</sup>Now Boaz, <sup>c</sup>whose young women you were with, is he not our relative? In fact, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor. <sup>3</sup>Therefore wash yourself and <sup>d</sup>anoint yourself, put on your best garment and go down to the threshing floor; but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. <sup>4</sup>Then it shall be, when he lies down, that you shall notice the place where he lies; and you shall go in, uncover his feet, and lie down; and he will tell you what you should do.”

<sup>5</sup>And she said to her, “All that you say to me I will do.”

<sup>6</sup>So she went down to the threshing floor and did according to all that her mother-in-law instructed her. <sup>7</sup>And after Boaz had eaten and drunk, and <sup>e</sup>his heart was cheerful, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain; and she came softly, uncovered his feet, and lay down.

<sup>8</sup>Now it happened at midnight that the man was startled, and turned himself; and there, a woman was lying at his feet. <sup>9</sup>And he said, “Who are you?”

So she answered, “I am Ruth, your maidservant. <sup>f</sup>Take your maidservant under your wing,* for you are <sup>g</sup>a close relative.”

<sup>10</sup>Then he said, <sup>h</sup>“Blessed are you of the LORD, my daughter! For you have shown more kindness at the end than <sup>i</sup>at the beginning, in that you did not go after young men, whether poor or rich. <sup>11</sup>And now, my daughter, do not fear. I will do for you all that you request, for all the people of my town know that you are <sup>j</sup>a virtuous woman. <sup>12</sup>Now it is true that I am <sup>k</sup>a close relative; however, <sup>l</sup>there is a relative closer than I. <sup>13</sup>Stay this night, and in the morning it shall be that if he will <sup>m</sup>perform the duty of a close relative for you—good; let him do it. But if he does not want to perform the duty for you, then I will perform the duty for you, <sup>n</sup>as the LORD lives! Lie down until morning.”

<sup>14</sup>So she lay at his feet until morning, and she arose before one could recognize another. Then he said, <sup>o</sup>“Do not let it be known that the woman came to the food. He went beyond the letter of the law, demonstrating God’s compassion and the concern that each believer ought to show for others.

3:4 uncover his feet. By uncovering Boaz’s feet in this manner Ruth was showing her submission to him while also asking him to be her protector.

3:9 close relative. Ruth reminded Boaz that he was a close relative of her dead husband, and in keeping with the law a close relative was required to be a “kinsman redeemer.” This meant that if a man was slain, his kinsman redeemer had to avenge his death. If a man was sold into slavery, his kinsman redeemer paid the price to release him. If a man died childless, his kinsman redeemer had the responsibility to marry his wife and father a child to bear his name (Deut.

15:5–10). Ruth was placing herself so that Boaz would know that she was willing for him to redeem her.

3:12 closer than I. Boaz remembers that there is yet a closer relative; that relative would have the responsibility and the right to redeem Ruth first. If, however, he did not wish to or was unable to, Boaz would be free to do it himself.

threshing floor.” <sup>15</sup>Also he said, “Bring the shawl that is on you and hold it.” And when she held it, he measured six ephahs of barley, and laid it on her. Then she* went into the city.

<sup>16</sup>When she came to her mother-in-law, she said, “Is that you, my daughter?”

She then told her all that the man had done for her. <sup>17</sup>And she said, “These six ephahs of barley he gave me; for he said to me, ‘Do not go empty-handed to your mother-in-law.’”

<sup>18</sup>Then she said, <sup>p</sup>“Sit still, my daughter, until you know how the matter will turn out; for the man will not rest until he has concluded the matter this day.”

Boaz Redeems Ruth

4 Now Boaz went up to the gate and sat down there; and behold, <sup>a</sup>the close relative of whom Boaz had spoken came by. So Boaz said, “Come aside, friend,* sit down here.” So he came aside and sat down. <sup>2</sup>And he took ten men of <sup>b</sup>the elders of the city, and said, “Sit down here.” So they sat down. <sup>3</sup>Then he said to the close relative, “Naomi, who has come back from the country of Moab, sold the piece of land <sup>c</sup>which belonged to our brother Elimelech. <sup>4</sup>And I thought to inform you, saying, <sup>d</sup>“Buy it back <sup>e</sup>in the presence of the inhabitants and the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, redeem it; but if you* will not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know; <sup>f</sup>for there is no one but you to redeem it, and I am next after you.”

And he said, “I will redeem it.”

<sup>5</sup>Then Boaz said, “On the day you buy the field from the hand of Naomi, you must also buy it from Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, <sup>g</sup>to perpetuate* the name of the dead through his inheritance.”

<sup>6h</sup>And the close relative said, “I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I ruin my own inheritance. You redeem my right of redemption for yourself, for I cannot redeem it.”

<sup>7i</sup>Now this was the custom in former times in Israel concerning redeeming and exchanging, to confirm anything: one man took off his sandal and gave it to the other, and this was a confirmation in Israel.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore the close relative said to Boaz, “Buy it for yourself.” So he took off his sandal. <sup>9</sup>And Boaz said to the elders and all the people, “You are witnesses this day that I have bought all that was Elimelech’s, and all that was Chilion’s and Mahlon’s, from the hand of Naomi. <sup>10</sup>Moreover, Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of Mahlon, I have acquired as my wife, to perpetuate the name of the dead through his inheritance, <sup>i</sup>that the name of the dead may not be cut off from among his brethren and from his position at the gate.* You are witnesses this day.”

<sup>11</sup>And all the people who were at the gate, and the elders, said, “We are witnesses. <sup>k</sup>The LORD make the woman who is coming to your house like Rachel and Leah, the two who <sup>l</sup>built the house of Israel; and may you prosper in <sup>m</sup>Ephrathah and be famous in <sup>n</sup>Bethlehem. <sup>12</sup>May your house be like the house of <sup>o</sup>Perez, <sup>p</sup>whom Tamar bore to Judah, because of <sup>q</sup>the offspring which the LORD will give you from this young woman.”

Descendants of Boaz and Ruth

4:1–2 the gate. The gate of the city was the place where the men congregated and where the officials of a city were to be found. Legal business was typically carried on here where the elders of the city were present to be witnesses.

4:11 like Rachel and Leah. The people blessed Ruth and asked the Lord to bless her as He had the founding mothers of the twelve tribes of Israel. Even though she was a Moabitess, Ruth was accepted.

4:14–15 who loves you . . . is better to you than seven sons. Ruth, although not knowing the outcome, sowed kindness by staying with Naomi. Because of this she also reaped what she had sown: abundant blessing. She became the great-grandmother of King David, and had a place in the genealogy of Christ Jesus. Boaz, as the kinsman redeemer had to sacrifice his name—the son that was born would bear the family name of Mahlon—but he was also abundantly blessed. Boaz received the admiration of the people (4:11), the beautiful and faithful Ruth became his wife, and together they became ancestors of the great Redeemer, Jesus Christ. This story of Boaz’s redemption of the foreign woman points to the wonderful redemption of Jesus for all those who believe in Him.

THE FIRST BOOK OF SAMUEL

► AUTHOR: The author of 1 and 2 Samuel is anonymous. Samuel may have written the first portion of the book, but his death recorded in 1 Samuel 25:1 makes it clear that he did not write all of 1 or 2 Samuel. It is very possible that a single compiler, perhaps a member of the prophetic school mentioned in 1 Chronicles 29:29, used the various writings referenced as the chronicles of “Nathan the prophet,” “Gad the seer,” and “Samuel the seer.”

► TIME: c. 1105–1011 B.C.

► KEY VERSE: 1 Sam. 13:14

► THEME: First Samuel tells the story of three characters: Samuel, Saul, and David. Saul’s story begins the line of Israel’s monarchy. His story ends with the end of 1 Samuel. David’s starts in 1 Samuel, goes through 2 Samuel and ends in the first few chapters of 1 Kings. All three of the main characters in this book make mistakes that cost them dearly. Samuel has problems with his own sons. The result is the end of the rule of judges. Saul seems to be a classic study in what a poor self-image can do to a person. David’s early violence prevents him from being able to build the temple later on when he is king.

The Family of Elkanah

1 Now there was a certain man of Ramathaim Zophim, of the <sup>a</sup>mountains of Ephraim, and his name was <sup>b</sup>Elkanah the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu,* the son of Tohu,* the son of Zuph. <sup>c</sup>an Ephraimite. <sup>2</sup>And he had <sup>d</sup>two wives: the name of one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. <sup>3</sup>This man went up from his city <sup>e</sup>yearly <sup>f</sup>to worship and sacrifice to the LORD of hosts in <sup>g</sup>Shiloh. Also the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of the LORD, were there. <sup>4</sup>And whenever the time came for Elkanah to make an <sup>h</sup>offering, he would give portions to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and daughters. <sup>5</sup>But to Hannah he would give a double portion, for he loved Hannah, <sup>i</sup>although the LORD had closed her womb. <sup>6</sup>And her rival also <sup>j</sup>provoked her severely, to make her miserable, because the LORD had closed her womb. <sup>7</sup>So it was, year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, that she provoked her; therefore she wept and did not eat.

Hannah’s Vow

<sup>8</sup>Then Elkanah her husband said to her, “Hannah, why do you weep? Why do you not eat? And why is your heart grieved? Am I not <sup>k</sup>better to you than ten sons?”

<sup>9</sup>So Hannah arose after they had finished eating and drinking in Shiloh. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat by the doorpost of <sup>l</sup>the tabernacle* of the LORD. <sup>10m</sup>And she was in bitterness of soul, and prayed to the LORD and wept in anguish. <sup>11</sup>Then she <sup>n</sup>made a vow and said, “O LORD of hosts, if You will indeed <sup>o</sup>look on the affliction of Your maidservant and <sup>p</sup>remember me, and not forget Your maidservant,

1:1 Elkanah. Elkanah was a Levite (1 Chr. 6:26) who lived in a village about five miles north of Jerusalem. He is referred to as an Ephraimite because he lived in the territory of Ephraim.

1:3 LORD of hosts. The term “LORD of hosts” refers to God as the One who commands the angelic armies of heaven (1 Kin. 22:19; Rev. 19:14) and the armies of Israel (17:45). Shiloh. Shiloh, located twenty miles north of Jerusalem, was the religious center for the nation at this time and the location of the tabernacle (Josh. 18:1).

The last high priest mentioned before him was Phinehas, the son of Eleazar (Jugd. 20:28). It is not known why or how the office of high priest passed from the house of Eleazar to that of Ithamar.

Samuel Is Born and Dedicated

house <sup>k</sup>went up to offer to the LORD the yearly sacrifice and his vow. <sup>22</sup>But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, “<sup>l</sup>Not until the child is weaned; then I will <sup>m</sup>take him, that he may appear before the LORD and <sup>n</sup>remain there <sup>o</sup>forever.”

<sup>23</sup>So <sup>p</sup>Elkanah her husband said to her, “Do what seems best to you; wait until you have weaned him. Only let the LORD establish His* word.” Then the woman stayed and nursed her son until she had weaned him.

Hannah's Prayer

2 And Hannah <sup>v</sup>prayed and said:

out? Hannah surely both taught Samuel and prayed for him, but it was Samuel who said “yes” to the Lord and to the promise his mother had made. Every single relationship with the Lord is between that individual and the Lord. No one is a follower of God just because his parents are. But there is much that parents can do to encourage and teach their children about loving and serving the Lord, and a heartfelt enthusiastic example is the very best incentive that a parent can provide. no razor shall come upon his head. The Nazirite vow involved a designated period of time (usually a few weeks or months) during which there was a commitment to refrain completely from wine, from cutting the hair, and touching any dead body. Hannah promised that her son would be a Nazirite for life.

1:17 Petition—The Lord went to great lengths to ensure that Scripture records all the instances in which God heard and answered prayer; unlike the gods of Israel’s surrounding nations. In the contest on Mount Carmel, Elijah’s prayers were answered while the prayers of the prophets of Baal went nowhere (1 Kin. 18). The psalmist says “But certainly God has heard me; He has attended to the voice of my prayer (Ps. 66:19).

Petitions are requests that we pray by faith (James 1:6), in the name of Jesus (John 14:13). If we pray in this manner, we are assured that God hears us (1 John 5:14–15). We should pray for cleansing (1 John 1:9), wisdom (James 1:5), spiritual leaders (Col. 4:3), sick believers (James 5:14), rulers (1 Tim. 2:1–3), and even for our enemies (Matt. 5:44).

1:22 until the child is weaned. Hebrew children were normally weaned when they were two or three years old.

1:23 Do what seems best to you. According to law, Elkanah could have declared Hannah’s vow a rash promise and prohibited her from fulfilling it (Num. 30:10–15). When he told her to “do what seems best to you” he was validating her promise to God.

2:1–10 Prayer—Hannah’s prayer is one of praise to God. We often think of prayer as supplication or intercession, but this is a prayer of rejoicing in the Lord, His salvation, His power to raise up and to shatter, <sup>11</sup>Then Elkanah went to his house at Ramah. But the child ministered to the LORD before Eli the priest.

His justice, and His strength. To pray like this requires focusing on who God is, thoughtful recollection of His attributes, and thanksgiving for His work in our lives.

2:13–15 take for himself. The priests’ rightful share of a sacrifice was the breast and the right thigh of the animal (Lev. 7:34). Eli’s sons sinned by taking any part they wanted and demanding the meat immediately, before the fat consecrated to God had been burned on the altar.

The Wicked Sons of Eli

<sup>16</sup>And if the man said to him, “They should really burn the fat first; then you may take as much as your heart desires,” he would then answer him, “No, but you must give it now; and if not, I will take it by force.”

Samuel’s Childhood Ministry

Prophecy Against Eli’s Household

<sup>22</sup>Now Eli was very old; and he heard everything his sons did to all Israel,* and how they lay with <sup>n</sup>the women who assembled at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>23</sup>So he said to them, “Why do you do such things? For I hear of your evil dealings from all the people. <sup>24</sup>No, my sons! For it is not a good report that I hear. You make the LORD's people transgress. <sup>25</sup>If one man sins against another, <sup>26</sup>God will judge him. But if a man <sup>27</sup>sins against the LORD, who will intercede for him?" Nevertheless they did not heed the voice of their father, <sup>28</sup>because the LORD desired to kill them.

<sup>26</sup>And the child Samuel <sup>27</sup>grew in stature, and <sup>28</sup>in favor both with the LORD and men.

<sup>27</sup>Then a 'man of God came to Eli and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: "Did I not clearly reveal Myself to the house of your father when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's house? <sup>28</sup>Did I not <sup>29</sup>choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be My priest, to offer upon My altar, to burn incense, and to wear an ephod before Me? And <sup>30</sup>did I not give to the house of your father all the offerings of the children of Israel made by fire?"

<sup>29</sup>Why do you <sup>30</sup>kick at My sacrifice and My offering which I have commanded in My <sup>31</sup>dwelling place, and honor your sons more than <sup>32</sup>Me, to make yourselves fat with the best of all the offerings of Israel My people?" <sup>30</sup>Therefore the LORD God of Israel says: "I said indeed that your house and the house of your father would walk before Me forever.' But now the LORD says: <sup>31</sup>'Far be it from Me; for those who honor Me I will honor, and <sup>32</sup>those who despise Me shall be lightly esteemed. <sup>31</sup>Behold, <sup>33</sup>the days are coming that I will cut off your arm and the arm of your father's house, so that there will not be an old man in your house. <sup>32</sup>And you will see an enemy in My dwelling place, despite all the good which God does for Israel. And there shall not be <sup>34</sup>an old man in your house forever. <sup>33</sup>But any of your men whom I do not cut off from My altar shall consume your eyes and grieve your heart. And all the descendants of your house shall die in the flower of their age. <sup>34</sup>Now this shall be <sup>35</sup>a sign to you that will come upon your two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas: <sup>36</sup>in one day they shall die, both of them. <sup>35</sup>Then <sup>37</sup>I will raise up for Myself a faithful priest who shall do according to what is in My heart and in My mind. <sup>38</sup>I will build him a sure house, and he shall walk before <sup>39</sup>My anointed forever. <sup>36</sup>And it shall come to pass that everyone who is left in your house will come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and say, "Please, put me in one of the priestly positions, that I may eat a piece of bread."'"

Samuel's First Prophecy

3 Now <sup>4</sup>the boy Samuel ministered to the LORD before Eli. And <sup>5</sup>the word of the LORD was rare in those days; there was no widespread revelation. <sup>2</sup>And it came to pass at that time, while Eli was lying down in his place, and when his eyes had begun to grow <sup>3</sup>so dim that he could not see, <sup>4</sup>and before <sup>5</sup>the lamp of God went out in the tabernacle* of the LORD where the ark of God was, and while Samuel was lying down, <sup>6</sup>that the LORD called Samuel. And he answered, "Here I am!" <sup>7</sup>So he ran to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called me."

And he said, "I did not call; lie down again." And he went and lay down.

<sup>6</sup>Then the LORD called yet again, "Samuel!"

So Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." He answered, "I did not call, my son; lie down again." <sup>7</sup>(Now Samuel <sup>8</sup>did not yet know the LORD, nor was the word of the LORD yet revealed to him.)

<sup>8</sup>And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. So he arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you did call me."

Then Eli perceived that the LORD had called the boy. <sup>9</sup>Therefore Eli said to

* 3:3 Hebrew heykal, palace or temple

2:30 Godlessness—Whenever a priesthood or church or nation falls into apostasy, the people who should have been served suffer. Eli failed his people far more than his disgraceful sons did, because the Israelites trusted Eli's integrity and his discernment. He should have restrained his sons, and he did not. The price of disobedience is always high, and the spiritual cost to a community that has lost trust in one whom they thought was close to God is greater than most people are willing to calculate.

2:31–34 will not be an old man in your house. The judgment was partially fulfilled in the massacre of the priests of Nob (22:11–19), and was ultimately fulfilled when the priesthood was transferred to the family of Zadok in the time of Solomon (1 Kin. 2:26–27,35).

2:35 faithful priest. This term refers to Zadok, who was faithful to God and to the line of David (1 Kin. 1:7–8; 2:26–27,35).

3:1–19 Listening for God's Call—Samuel heard God's call in an audible voice. That experience is not a common one in the history of those who follow after God. While most of us get a sense of a call by some other means, Samuel's experience does help us to understand what our attitude and response should be.

Samuel's attitude was one of readiness and eager response with a desire to listen. It is that attitude of listening that was foundational to Samuel's whole life and ministry. Throughout his life we see him listening to God's word and following God's direction. He listened for the general will of God and also had an ear for the more specific directions that God gave him. Sometimes he raised questions about why he was doing a particular thing, but the word from God was paramount. He listened for it and responded to it.

Samuel, "Go, lie down; and it shall be, if He calls you, that you must say, 'Speak, LORD, for Your servant hears.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

<sup>10</sup>Now the LORD came and stood and called as at other times, "Samuel! Samuel!"

And Samuel answered, "Speak, for Your servant hears."

<sup>11</sup>Then the LORD said to Samuel: "Behold, I will do something in Israel <sup>a</sup>at which both ears of everyone who hears it will tingle. <sup>12</sup>In that day I will perform against Eli <sup>a</sup>all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end. <sup>13</sup>For I have told him that I will <sup>a</sup>judge his house forever for the iniquity which he knows, because <sup>b</sup>his sons made themselves vile, and he <sup>c</sup>did not restrain them. <sup>14</sup>And therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli's house <sup>m</sup>shall not be atoned for by sacrifice or offering forever."

<sup>15</sup>So Samuel lay down until morning,* and opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel was afraid to tell Eli the vision. <sup>16</sup>Then Eli called Samuel and said, "Samuel, my son!"

He answered, "Here I am."

<sup>17</sup>And he said, "What is the word that the LORD spoke to you? Please do not hide it from me. <sup>n</sup>God do so to you, and more also, if you hide anything from me of all the things that He said to you." <sup>18</sup>Then Samuel told him everything, and hid nothing from him. And he said, <sup>o</sup>"It is the LORD. Let Him do what seems good to Him."

4 And the word of Samuel came to all Israel.*

The Ark of God Captured

Now Israel went out to battle against the Philistines, and encamped beside <sup>a</sup>Ebenezer; and the Philistines encamped in Aphek. <sup>2</sup>Then the <sup>b</sup>Philistines put themselves in battle array against Israel. And when they joined battle, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who killed about four thousand men of the army in the field. <sup>3</sup>And when the people had come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, "Why has the LORD defeated us today before the Philistines? <sup>c</sup>Let us bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD from Shiloh to us, that when it comes among us it may save us from the hand of our enemies." <sup>4</sup>So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from there the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, <sup>d</sup>who dwells between <sup>e</sup>the cherubim. And the <sup>f</sup>two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

<sup>5</sup>And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted so loudly that the earth shook. <sup>6</sup>Now when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, "What does the sound of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews mean?" Then they understood that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp. <sup>7</sup>So the Philistines were afraid, for they said, "God has come into the camp!" And they said, <sup>g</sup>"Woe to us! For such a thing has never happened before. <sup>8</sup>Woe to us! Who will deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods who struck the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness. <sup>9a</sup>Be strong and conduct yourselves like men, you Philistines, that you do not become servants of the Hebrews, <sup>i</sup>as they have been to you. Conduct yourselves like men, and fight!"

<sup>10</sup>So the Philistines fought, and <sup>j</sup>Israel was defeated, and every man fled to his tent. There was a very great slaughter, and there fell of Israel thirty thousand foot soldiers. <sup>11</sup>Also <sup>k</sup>the ark of God was captured; and <sup>l</sup>the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

* 3:15 Following Masoretic Text, Targum, and Vulgate; Septuagint adds and he arose in the morning.

* 4:1 Following Masoretic Text and Targum; Septuagint and Vulgate add And it came to pass in those days that the Philistines gathered themselves together to fight; Septuagint adds further against Israel.

3:14 shall not be atoned for. Eli and his sons were guilty of presumptuous sin (Num. 15:30–31). For such sin, there was no atoning sacrifice.

3:20 from Dan to Beersheba. This expression denotes the whole territory of Israel, from its most northern point to its most southern (Judg. 20:1).

4:1 the Philistines. Abraham and Isaac had contact with the Philistines as early as the twentieth century B.C. With their aggressive invasions and fortress cities, the Philistines established strong political and military control of the southern coastal plain of Palestine. They had iron weapons, and were a significant threat to the Israelites.

4:4 who dwells between the cherubim. Cherubim are angels generally regarded as guardians of God's holiness (Gen. 3:24; Ps. 80:1; Ezek. 10:9).

4:6–7 the ark of the LORD had come into the camp... the Philistines were afraid. Apparently the Philistines viewed the ark as some sort of idol.

4:11 the ark of God was captured. The loss of the ark, symbolic of God's presence among His people, was a great tragedy for Israel—even worse than

Death of Eli

<sup>16</sup>Then the man said to Eli, “I am he who came from the battle. And I fled today from the battle line.”

And he said, <sup>q</sup>“What happened, my son?”

<sup>17</sup>So the messenger answered and said, “Israel has fled before the Philistines, and there has been a great slaughter among the people. Also your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead; and the ark of God has been captured.”

<sup>18</sup>Then it happened, when he made mention of the ark of God, that Eli fell off the seat backward by the side of the gate; and his neck was broken and he died, for the man was old and heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years.

Ichabod

<sup>19</sup>Now his daughter-in-law, Phinehas’ wife, was with child, due to be delivered; and when she heard the news that the ark of God was captured, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and gave birth, for her labor pains came upon her. <sup>20</sup>And about the time of her death <sup>r</sup>the women who stood by her said to her, “Do not fear, for you have borne a son.” But she did not answer, nor did she regard it. <sup>21</sup>Then she named the child <sup>s</sup>Ichabod,* saying, <sup>t</sup>“The glory has departed from Israel!” because the ark of God had been captured and because of her father-in-law and her husband. <sup>22</sup>And she said, “The glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of God has been captured.”

the loss of life. The ark probably never returned to Shiloh.

4:21 Ichabod. The name Ichabod, meaning “no glory,” reflected Israel’s circumstances. The loss of the ark meant the absence of God’s glory in Israel.

5:2 Dagon. This god appears to be a Philistine adaptation of the Canaanite god Baal. Philistia was an important grain producing area, and the worship of Dagon was thought to ensure a good crop.

5:6–7 *Idolatry—The residents of Ashdod made one fatal mistake. They tried to place a false god alongside the true God. These ancient Philistines are not the only ones who have tried this sort of idolatry. People are quick to recognize that there is “something”

The Philistines and the Ark

5 Then the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it <sup>a</sup>from Ebenezer to Ashdod. <sup>2</sup>When the Philistines took the ark of God, they brought it into the house of <sup>b</sup>Dagon* and set it by Dagon. <sup>3</sup>And when the people of Ashdod arose early in the morning, there was Dagon, <sup>c</sup>fallen on its face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. So they took Dagon and <sup>d</sup>set it in its place again. <sup>4</sup>And when they arose early the next morning, there was Dagon, fallen on its face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. <sup>e</sup>The head of Dagon and both the palms of its hands were broken off on the threshold; only Dagon’s torso* was left of it. <sup>5</sup>Therefore neither the priests of Dagon nor any who come into Dagon’s house <sup>f</sup>tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day.

<sup>6</sup>But the <sup>g</sup>hand of the LORD was heavy on the people of Ashdod, and He <sup>h</sup>ravaged them and struck them with <sup>i</sup>tumors,* both Ashdod and its <sup>j</sup>territory. <sup>7</sup>And when the men of Ashdod saw how it was, they said, “The ark of the <sup>k</sup>God of Israel must not remain with us, for His hand is harsh toward us and Dagon our god.” <sup>8</sup>Therefore they sent and gathered to themselves all the <sup>l</sup>lords of the Philistines, and said, “What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?”

And they answered, “Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried away to <sup>m</sup>Gath.” So they carried the ark of the God of Israel away. <sup>9</sup>So it was, after they had carried it away, that <sup>n</sup>the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction; and He struck the men of the city, both small and great, and tumors broke out on them.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore they sent the ark of God to Ekron. So it was, as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, about the living God, and they want Him. But they want to have God with qualifiers—“God and my career track,” “God and my dedication to entertainment,” “God and my secret sin,” “God and my own way.” But God will not share the throne of any man’s heart. It has to be God, and God alone.

"They have brought the ark of the God of Israel to us, to kill us and our people!" <sup>11</sup>So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, "Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go back to its own place, so that it does not kill us and our people." For there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city; the hand of God was very heavy there. <sup>12</sup>And the men who did not die were stricken with the tumors, and the <sup>o</sup>cry of the city went up to heaven.

The Ark Returned to Israel

6 Now the ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months. <sup>2</sup>And the Philistines <sup>a</sup>called for the priests and the diviners, saying, "What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us how we should send it to its place."

<sup>3</sup>So they said, "If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, do not send it <sup>b</sup>empty; but by all means return it to Him with <sup>c</sup>a trespass offering. Then you will be healed, and it will be known to you why His hand is not removed from you."

<sup>4</sup>Then they said, "What is the trespass offering which we shall return to Him?"

They answered, <sup>d</sup>"Five golden tumors and five golden rats, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines. For the same plague was on all of you and on your lords. <sup>5</sup>Therefore you shall make images of your tumors and images of your rats that <sup>e</sup>ravage the land, and you shall <sup>f</sup>give glory to the God of Israel; perhaps He will <sup>g</sup>lighten His hand from you, from <sup>h</sup>your gods, and from your land. <sup>6</sup>Why then do you harden your hearts <sup>i</sup>as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When He did mighty things among them, <sup>i</sup>did they not let the people go, that they might depart? <sup>7</sup>Now therefore, make <sup>k</sup>a new cart, take two milk cows <sup>l</sup>which have never been yoked, and hitch the cows to the cart; and take their calves home, away from them. <sup>8</sup>Then take the ark of the LORD and set it on the cart; and put <sup>m</sup>the articles of gold which you are returning to Him as a trespass offering in a chest by its side. Then send it away, and let it go. <sup>9</sup>And watch: if it goes up the road to its own territory, to <sup>n</sup>Beth Shemesh, then He has done us this great evil. But if not, then <sup>o</sup>we shall know that it is not His hand that struck us—it happened to us by chance."

<sup>10</sup>Then the men did so; they took two milk cows and hitched them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home. <sup>11</sup>And they set the ark of the LORD on the cart, and the chest with the gold rats and the images of their tumors. <sup>12</sup>Then the cows headed straight for the road to Beth Shemesh, and went along the <sup>p</sup>highway, lowing as they went, and did not turn aside to the right hand or the left. And the lords of the Philistines went after them to the border of Beth Shemesh.

<sup>13</sup>Now the people of Beth Shemesh were reaping their <sup>q</sup>wheat harvest in the valley; and they lifted their eyes and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it. <sup>14</sup>Then the cart came into the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh, and stood there; a large stone was there. So they split the wood of the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>15</sup>The Levites took down the ark of the LORD and the chest that was with it, in which were the articles of gold, and put them on the large stone. Then the men of Beth Shemesh offered burnt offerings and made sacrifices the same day to the LORD. <sup>16</sup>So when <sup>r</sup>the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

<sup>19</sup>Then <sup>u</sup>He struck the men of Beth Shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the LORD. He <sup>v</sup>struck fifty thousand and seventy men* of the people, and the people lamented because the LORD had struck the people with a great slaughter.

* 6:19 Or He struck seventy men of the people and fifty oxen of a man

6:8 send it away, and let it go. This seemed like a good test to the Philistines. The natural inclination of the cows would be to return home to their calves. If the cows went against their normal instincts, it would show that God was causing them to walk away from their calves.

6:14 offered the cows as a burnt offering. The law required that sacrifices be offered only at the central sanctuary (Deut. 12:4–14). Apparently the people felt that special circumstances required an immediate offering of thanksgiving.

6:19 Presumption—The Israelites who looked into the ark were glad to have it back. Perhaps they thought that the Philistines had looked inside it, and certainly they had more right than the Philistines to gaze upon the holy objects contained in the ark. Their reasons may have seemed good at the moment, but they were ignoring God's specific commands and treating His holiness as unimportant. In the same way

The Ark at Kirjath Jearim

<sup>20</sup>And the men of Beth Shemesh said, “Who is able to stand before this holy LORD God? And to whom shall it go up from us?” <sup>21</sup>So they sent messengers to the inhabitants of <sup>x</sup>Kirjath Jearim, saying, “The Philistines have brought back the ark of the LORD; come down and take it up with you.”

7 Then the men of <sup>a</sup>Kirjath Jearim came and took the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of <sup>b</sup>Abinadab on the hill, and <sup>c</sup>consecrated Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD.

Samuel Judges Israel

<sup>2</sup>So it was that the ark remained in Kirjath Jearim a long time; it was there twenty years. And all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>Now when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel had gathered together at Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard of it, they were afraid of the Philistines. <sup>8</sup>So the children of Israel said to Samuel, <sup>o</sup>“Do not cease to cry out to the LORD our God for us, that He may save us from the hand of the Philistines.”

LORD. Then <sup>q</sup>Samuel cried out to the LORD for Israel, and the LORD answered him.

<sup>10</sup>Now as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel. <sup>r</sup>But the LORD thundered with a loud thunder upon the Philistines that day, and so confused them that they were overcome before Israel. <sup>11</sup>And the men of Israel went out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, and drove them back as far as below Beth Car. <sup>12</sup>Then Samuel <sup>s</sup>took a stone and set it up between Mizpah and Shen, and called its name Ebenezer,* saying, “Thus far the LORD has helped us.”

<sup>13</sup>So the Philistines were subdued, and they <sup>t</sup>did not come anymore into the territory of Israel. And the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. <sup>14</sup>Then the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron to Gath; and Israel recovered its territory from the hands of the Philistines. Also there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

<sup>15</sup>And Samuel <sup>u</sup>judged Israel all the days of his life. <sup>16</sup>He went from year to year on a circuit to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah, and judged Israel in all those places. <sup>17</sup>But <sup>w</sup>he always returned to Ramah, for his home was there. There he judged Israel, and there he <sup>x</sup>built an altar to the LORD.

Israel Demands a King

8 Now it came to pass when Samuel was <sup>a</sup>old that he <sup>b</sup>made his <sup>c</sup>sons judges over Israel. <sup>2</sup>The name of his firstborn was Joel, and the name of his second, Abijah; they were judges in Beersheba. <sup>3</sup>But his sons <sup>d</sup>did not walk in his ways; they turned aside <sup>e</sup>after dishonest gain, <sup>f</sup>took bribes, and perverted justice.

<sup>4</sup>Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah, <sup>5</sup>and said to him, “Look, you are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now <sup>g</sup>make us a king to judge us like all the nations.”

* 7:3 Canaanite goddesses * 7:4 Canaanite goddesses * 7:12 Literally Stone of Help today, we can end up trivializing who God is. We can speak frivolously of the things of God, calling Him the “Man upstairs,” or being “Sunday Christians.” We can presume on our relationship with God without remembering what it cost Jesus to obtain it for us.

7:2 twenty years. It was probably twenty years before Samuel called the assembly at Mizpah (v. 5). The ark remained at Kirjath Jearim until David brought it to Jerusalem in the first year of his reign over all Israel.

7:6 poured it out. The pouring of water was symbolic of repentance (Lam. 2:19).

7:12 Ebenezer. The name Ebenezer means “stone of help.” Samuel followed Joshua’s practice of commemorating the victories of God for His people with stone markers. Some old gospel hymns refer to an “Ebenezer,” meaning a particular notation of something special God has done.

7:14 Amorites. This name may refer to the original inhabitants of Canaan (Gen. 15:16).

7:17 Ramah. Samuel was back in the town where he was born.

8:5 make us a king. The reasons given for wanting a king were Samuel’s age and his sons’ unreliability. This is a sad commentary on Samuel’s failure to raise

<sup>6</sup>But the thing <sup>h</sup>displeased Samuel when they said, “Give us a king to judge us.” So Samuel <sup>i</sup>prayed to the LORD. <sup>7</sup>And the LORD said to Samuel, “Heed the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for <sup>j</sup>they have not rejected you, but <sup>k</sup>they have rejected Me, that I should not reign over them. <sup>8</sup>According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt, even to this day—with which they have forsaken Me and served other gods—so they are doing to you also. <sup>9</sup>Now therefore, heed their voice. However, you shall solemnly forewarn them, and <sup>l</sup>show them the behavior of the king who will reign over them.”

<sup>10</sup>So Samuel told all the words of the LORD to the people who asked him for a king. <sup>11</sup>And he said, <sup>m</sup>“This will be the behavior of the king who will reign over you: He will take your <sup>n</sup>sons and appoint them for his own <sup>o</sup>chariots and to be his horsemen, and some will run before his chariots. <sup>12</sup>He will <sup>p</sup>appoint captains over his thousands and captains over his fifties, will set some to plow his ground and reap his harvest, and some to make his weapons of war and equipment for his chariots. <sup>13</sup>He will take your daughters to be perfumers, cooks, and bakers. <sup>14</sup>And <sup>q</sup>he will take the best of your fields, your vineyards, and your olive groves, and give them to his servants. <sup>15</sup>He will take a tenth of your grain and your vintage, and give it to his officers and servants. <sup>16</sup>And he will take your male servants, your female servants, your finest young men,* and your donkeys, and put them to his work. <sup>17</sup>He will take a tenth of your sheep. And you will be his servants. <sup>18</sup>And you will cry out in that day because of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves, and the LORD <sup>r</sup>will not hear you in that day.”

<sup>19</sup>Nevertheless the people <sup>s</sup>refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, “No, but we will have a king over us,” <sup>20</sup>that we also may be <sup>t</sup>like all the nations, and that our king may judge us and go out before us and fight our battles.”

<sup>21</sup>And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he repeated them in the hearing of the LORD. <sup>22</sup>So the LORD said to

Saul Chosen to Be King

9 There was a man of Benjamin whose name was <sup>a</sup>Kish the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a mighty man of power. <sup>2</sup>And he had a choice and handsome son whose name was Saul. There was not a more handsome person than he among the children of Israel. <sup>3</sup>From his shoulders upward he was taller than any of the people.

<sup>3</sup>Now the donkeys of Kish, Saul’s father, were lost. And Kish said to his son Saul, “Please take one of the servants with you, and arise, go and look for the donkeys.”

<sup>4</sup>So he passed through the mountains of Ephraim and through the land of <sup>c</sup>Shalisha, but they did not find them. Then they passed through the land of Shaalim, and they were not there. Then he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they did not find them.

<sup>5</sup>When they had come to the land of <sup>d</sup>Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, “Come, let <sup>e</sup>us return, lest my father cease caring about the donkeys and become worried about us.”

<sup>6</sup>And he said to him, “Look now, there is in this city <sup>f</sup>a man of God, and he is an honorable man; <sup>g</sup>all that he says surely comes to pass. So let us go there; perhaps he can show us the way that we should go.”

<sup>7</sup>Then Saul said to his servant, “But look, if we go, <sup>h</sup>what shall we bring the man? For the bread in our vessels is all gone, and there is no present to bring to the man of God. What do we have?”

<sup>8</sup>And the servant answered Saul again and said, “Look, I have here at hand one-fourth of a shekel of silver. I will give that to the man of God, to tell us our way.”

<sup>9</sup>(Formerly in Israel, when a man <sup>i</sup>went to inquire of God, he spoke thus: “Come, let us go to the seer”; for he who is now called a prophet was formerly called <sup>j</sup>a seer.)

<sup>10</sup>Then Saul said to his servant, “Well his sons to honor and obey the Lord, particularly considering the example of Eli’s sons. But this was not really a reason to ask for a king. The Israelite judges had always been appointed by God, rather than gaining their position by inheritance. There was no reason to think that God would not appoint someone to succeed Samuel.

8:7 they have rejected Me. This actually fulfilled the prophecy in Deuteronomy 17:14–20. God knew long ago that the Israelites would choose to be like the other nations and have a king, instead of being ruled more directly by God through judges. He warned them of the pitfalls of having a king, and set out some guidelines for the kings to follow.

8:20 and fight our battles. The Israelites were looking for human leadership on the battlefield, instead of recognizing that God would lead them in battle, and win (Ex. 15:3; Judg. 7).

said; come, let us go.” So they went to the city where the man of God was.

<sup>11</sup>As they went up the hill to the city, <sup>k</sup>they met some young women going out to draw water, and said to them, “Is the seer here?”

<sup>12</sup>And they answered them and said, “Yes, there he is, just ahead of you. Hurry now; for today he came to this city, because <sup>t</sup>there is a sacrifice of the people today <sup>m</sup>on the high place. <sup>13</sup>As soon as you come into the city, you will surely find him before he goes up to the high place to eat. For the people will not eat until he comes, because he must bless the sacrifice; afterward those who are invited will eat. Now therefore, go up, for about this time you will find him.”

<sup>14</sup>So they went up to the city. As they were coming into the city, there was Samuel, coming out toward them on his way up to the high place.

<sup>15n</sup>Now the LORD had told Samuel in his ear the day before Saul came, saying, <sup>16</sup>“Tomorrow about this time <sup>o</sup>I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin, <sup>p</sup>and you shall anoint him commander over My people Israel, that he may save My people from the hand of the Philistines; for I have <sup>q</sup>looked upon My people, because their cry has come to Me.”

<sup>17</sup>So when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said to him, “There he is, the man of whom I spoke to you. This one shall reign over My people.” <sup>18</sup>Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, “Please tell me, where is the seer’s house?”

<sup>19</sup>Samuel answered Saul and said, “I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place, for you shall eat with me today; and tomorrow I will let you go and will tell you all that is in your heart. <sup>20</sup>But as for <sup>s</sup>your donkeys that were lost three days ago, do not be anxious about them, for they have been found. And on whom <sup>t</sup>is all the desire of Israel? Is it not on you and on all your father’s house?”

tribes of Israel, and <sup>w</sup>my family the least of all the families of the tribe* of Benjamin? Why then do you speak like this to me?”

<sup>22</sup>Now Samuel took Saul and his servant and brought them into the hall, and had them sit in the place of honor among those who were invited; there were about thirty persons. <sup>23</sup>And Samuel said to the cook, “Bring the portion which I gave you, of which I said to you, ‘Set it apart.’” <sup>24</sup>So the cook took up <sup>x</sup>the thigh with its upper part and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, “Here it is, what was kept back. It was set apart for you. Eat; for until this time it has been kept for you, since I said I invited the people.” So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

<sup>25</sup>When they had come down from the high place into the city, Samuel spoke with Saul on <sup>y</sup>the top of the house.* <sup>26</sup>They arose early; and it was about the dawning of the day that Samuel called to Saul on the top of the house, saying, “Get up, that I may send you on your way.” And Saul arose, and both of them went outside, he and Samuel.

Saul Anointed King

<sup>27</sup>As they were going down to the outskirts of the city, Samuel said to Saul, “Tell the servant to go on ahead of us.” And he went on. “But you stand here awhile, that I may announce to you the word of God.”

10 Then <sup>a</sup>Samuel took a flask of oil and poured it on his head, <sup>b</sup>and kissed him and said: “Is it not because <sup>c</sup>the LORD has anointed you commander over <sup>d</sup>His inheritance?” <sup>2</sup>When you have departed from

9:12 the high place. A hill that was used for worship was called “a high place.” The Canaanites were known for building their places for worship on hills, and the Israelites apparently used similar sites for worship after the ark was taken from the tabernacle at Shiloh. They believed that the presence of the Lord had departed from the tabernacle, and it was apparently at that point that Shiloh ceased to be a gathering center for the nation.

9:20 Providence—God, in His providence, is directing our lives according to His plan and purpose. Hunting for livestock or having a vehicle break down are normal nuisances, something we can handle, but seldom think about as being the providence of God. Yet if we realize that God has His hand on all of our circumstances, everything that changes our plans puts us into a position to meet, pray for, help, or witness to someone else who would not normally come our way.

9:21 the smallest of the tribes. Benjamin was the second smallest tribe at the first census following the Exodus (Num. 1:36–37). The tribe was reduced to six hundred fighting men during the punishment of Benjamin for the atrocity at Gibeah (Judg. 19–20).

9:24 the thigh. Giving Saul the thigh was intended to honor him in the presence of the other guests.

10:1 the LORD has anointed you. The anointing of a ruler was a religious act. That is why David had such high regard for Saul, refusing to lift a hand against “the LORD’s anointed.” His inheritance. The land of Israel was God’s gift to His people, but it would return me today, you will find two men by <sup>e</sup>Rachel's tomb in the territory of Benjamin <sup>f</sup>at Zelzah: and they will say to you, 'The donkeys which you went to look for have been found. And now your father has ceased caring about the donkeys and is worrying about <sup>g</sup>you, saying, "What shall I do about my son?"' <sup>3</sup>Then you shall go on forward from there and come to the terebinth tree of Tabor. There three men going up <sup>h</sup>to God at Bethel will meet you, one carrying three young goats, another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a skin of wine. <sup>4</sup>And they will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you shall receive from their hands. <sup>5</sup>After that you shall come to the hill of God <sup>i</sup>where the Philistine garrison is. And it will happen, when you have come there to the city, that you will meet a group of prophets coming down <sup>j</sup>from the high place with a stringed instrument, a tambourine, a flute, and a harp before them; <sup>k</sup>and they will be prophesying. <sup>6</sup>Then <sup>l</sup>the Spirit of the LORD will come upon you, and <sup>m</sup>you will prophesy with them and be turned into another man. <sup>7</sup>And let it be, when these <sup>n</sup>signs come to you, that you do as the occasion demands; for <sup>o</sup>God is with you. <sup>8</sup>You shall go down before me <sup>p</sup>to Gilgal; and surely I will come down to you to offer burnt offerings and make sacrifices of peace offerings. <sup>9</sup>Seven days you shall wait, till I come to you and show you what you should do."

<sup>9</sup>So it was, when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, that God gave him another heart; and all those signs came to pass that day. <sup>10</sup>When they came there to the hill, there was <sup>a</sup>a group of prophets to meet him; then the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them. <sup>11</sup>And it happened, when all who knew him formerly saw that he indeed prophesied among the prophets, that the people said to one another, "What is this that has come upon the son of Kish? <sup>12</sup>Is Saul also among the prophets?" <sup>12</sup>Then a man from there answered and said, "But <sup>u</sup>who is their father?" Therefore it became a proverb: "Is Saul also among the prophets?" <sup>13</sup>And when he had finished prophesying, he went to the high place.

<sup>14</sup>Then Saul's uncle said to him and his servant, "Where did you go?"

So he said, "To look for the donkeys. When we saw that they were nowhere to be found, we went to Samuel."

<sup>15</sup>And Saul's uncle said, "Tell me, please, what Samuel said to you."

<sup>16</sup>So Saul said to his uncle, "He told us plainly that the donkeys had been <sup>w</sup>found." But about the matter of the kingdom, he did not tell him what Samuel had said.

Saul Proclaimed King

<sup>17</sup>Then Samuel called the people together <sup>x</sup>to the LORD <sup>y</sup>at Mizpah, <sup>18</sup>and said to the children of Israel, <sup>z</sup>"Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of all kingdoms and from those who oppressed you.' <sup>19</sup><sup>a</sup>But you have today rejected your God, who Himself saved you from all your adversities and your tribulations; and you have said to Him, 'No, set a king over us!' Now therefore, present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and by your clans."*

<sup>20</sup>And when Samuel had <sup>b</sup>caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was chosen. <sup>21</sup>When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was chosen. And Saul the son of Kish was chosen. But when they sought him, he could not be found. <sup>22</sup>Therefore they <sup>c</sup>inquired of the LORD further, "Has the man come here yet?"

to God's direct control if the people did not manage it according to God's laws (Deut. 27–30).

10:4 two loaves of bread. The bread that the strangers would offer to Saul would have been bread prepared for use in the worship of God. Giving the bread to Saul was a sacred act, as well as a sign for Saul.

10:9 God gave him another heart. God's Spirit prepared Saul for the kingship. It probably was not spiritual regeneration in the way it is understood in New Testament times. Saul wanted to worship God, but he continually struggled with wanting to do things his own way.

10:19 Unfaithfulness—This was not the first time that the Israelites had been unfaithful. Sometimes they could see what God was doing and respond with thanksgiving, and sometimes they seemed to forget everything about Him and go headlong into the very sins He had warned them would bring nothing but disaster. Believers today have the incredible gift of the Holy Spirit to direct them and remind them of the ways of God. It is hard to imagine what it would be like to follow God without the help of the Holy Spirit, the comforter, the helper (John 14:25–26). It is important to remember that for humanity, unfaithfulness is our middle name, and to thank God for His mercy and grace which provided a way for us to belong to Him.

10:20 was chosen. Even though Samuel already knew that Saul was to be the king, the designation of Saul as Israel's first monarch was made by casting lots. The lots were cast like dice, and God's will was determined by asking yes and no questions. They believed that God controlled all events, including the lots when they were used to seek God.

And the LORD answered, “There he is, hidden among the equipment.”

<sup>23</sup>So they ran and brought him from there; and when he stood among the people, <sup>d</sup>he was taller than any of the people from his shoulders upward. <sup>24</sup>And Samuel said to all the people, “Do you see him <sup>e</sup>whom the LORD has chosen, that there is no one like him among all the people?”

So all the people shouted and said, “Long live the king!”

<sup>25</sup>Then Samuel explained to the people <sup>g</sup>the behavior of royalty, and wrote it in a book and laid it up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house. <sup>26</sup>And Saul also went home <sup>h</sup>to Gibeah; and valiant men went with him, whose hearts God had touched. <sup>27</sup>But some rebels said, “How can this man save us?” So they despised him, <sup>k</sup>and brought him no presents. But he held his peace.

Saul Saves Jabesh Gilead

11 Then <sup>a</sup>Nahash the Ammonite came up and encamped against <sup>b</sup>Jabesh Gilead; and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, <sup>c</sup>“Make a covenant with us, and we will serve you.”

<sup>2</sup>And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, “On this condition I will make a covenant with you, that I may put out all your right eyes, and bring <sup>d</sup>reproach on all Israel.”

<sup>3</sup>Then the elders of Jabesh said to him, “Hold off for seven days, that we may send messengers to all the territory of Israel. And then, if there is no one to save us, we will come out to you.”

<sup>4</sup>So the messengers came <sup>e</sup>to Gibeah of Saul and told the news in the hearing of the people. And <sup>f</sup>all the people lifted up their voices and wept. <sup>5</sup>Now there was Saul, coming behind the herd from the field; and Saul said, “What troubles the people, that they weep?” And they told him the words of the men of Jabesh. <sup>6g</sup>Then the Spirit of God came upon Saul when he heard this news, and his anger was greatly aroused. <sup>7</sup>So he took a yoke of oxen and <sup>h</sup>cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the territory of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, <sup>i</sup>“Whoever does not go out with Saul and Samuel to battle, so it shall be done to his oxen.”

And the fear of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out with one consent. <sup>8</sup>When he numbered them in <sup>j</sup>Bezek, the children <sup>k</sup>of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand. <sup>9</sup>And they said to the messengers who came, “Thus you shall say to the men of Jabesh Gilead: ‘Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you shall have help.’” Then the messengers came and reported it to the men of Jabesh, and they were glad. <sup>10</sup>Therefore the men of Jabesh said, “Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you may do with us whatever seems good to you.”

<sup>11</sup>So it was, on the next day, that <sup>l</sup>Saul put the people <sup>m</sup>in three companies; and they came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch, and killed Ammonites until the heat of the day. And it happened that those who survived were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.

<sup>12</sup>Then the people said to Samuel, <sup>n</sup>“Who is he who said, ‘Shall Saul reign over us?’ <sup>o</sup>Bring the men, that we may put them to death.”

<sup>14</sup>Then Samuel said to the people, “Come, let us go <sup>r</sup>to Gilgal and renew the kingdom there.” <sup>15</sup>So all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king <sup>s</sup>before the LORD in Gilgal. <sup>t</sup>There they made sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD, and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

Samuel's Address at Saul's Coronation

12 Now Samuel said to all Israel: “Indeed I have heeded <sup>a</sup>your voice in all that you said to me, and <sup>b</sup>have made a king over you. <sup>2</sup>And now here is the king, <sup>c</sup>walking before you; <sup>d</sup>and I am old and grayheaded, and look, my sons are with you. I have walked before you from my childhood to this day. <sup>3</sup>Here I am. Witness against me

10:24 whom the LORD has chosen. Long ago, before they crossed the Jordan, the Lord had told Moses that the Israelites would want a king. At that time the Lord laid out guidelines for the king, and one of them was that the king must be an Israelite chosen by the Lord (Deut. 17:14–20).

11:1 Ammonite. The Ammonites, who were descendants of Lot, occupied the fringes of the desert east of the territories of Gad and Manasseh.

11:5 from the field. Saul had been appointed king, but he did not assume governmental authority at once. He continued farming until he could answer Israel's expectations of him by delivering them from their enemies. This pattern was more in the style of the judges of Israel.

11:11 morning watch. The Israelites divided the night into three watches: nine to twelve, twelve to three, and three to six in the morning.

before the LORD and before <sup>a</sup>His anointed: <sup>f</sup>Whose ox have I taken, or whose donkey have I taken, or whom have I cheated? Whom have I oppressed, or from whose hand have I received <sup>any</sup> <sup>g</sup>bribe with which to <sup>h</sup>blind my eyes? I will restore it to you.”

<sup>4</sup>And they said, “You have not cheated us or oppressed us, nor have you taken anything from any man’s hand.”

<sup>5</sup>Then he said to them, “The LORD is witness against you, and His anointed is witness this day, <sup>i</sup>that you have not found anything <sup>k</sup>in my hand.”

And they answered, “He is witness.”

<sup>6</sup>Then Samuel said to the people, “It is the LORD who raised up Moses and Aaron, and who brought your fathers up from the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>Now therefore, stand still, that I may <sup>m</sup>reason with you before the LORD concerning all the <sup>n</sup>righteous acts of the LORD which He did to you and your fathers: <sup>8o</sup>When Jacob had gone into Egypt,* and your fathers <sup>p</sup>cried out to the LORD, then the LORD <sup>q</sup>sent Moses and Aaron, who brought your fathers out of Egypt and made them dwell in this place. <sup>9</sup>And when they <sup>r</sup>forgot the LORD their God, He sold them into the hand of <sup>s</sup>Sisera, commander of the army of Hazor, into the hand of the <sup>t</sup>Philistines, and into the hand of the king of <sup>u</sup>Moab; and they fought against them. <sup>10</sup>Then they cried out to the LORD, and said, <sup>v</sup>“We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD <sup>w</sup>and served the Baals and Ashtoreths;* but now deliver us from the hand of our enemies, and we will serve You.” <sup>11</sup>And the LORD sent Jerubbaal,* Bedan,* <sup>x</sup>Jephthah, and <sup>y</sup>Samuel,* and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side; and you dwelt in safety. <sup>12</sup>And when you saw that <sup>z</sup>Nahash king of the Ammonites came against you, <sup>a</sup>you said to me, “No, but a king shall reign over us,” when <sup>b</sup>the LORD your God was your king.

and serve Him and obey His voice, and do not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then both you and the king who reigns over you will continue following the LORD your God. <sup>15</sup>However, if you do <sup>g</sup>not obey the voice of the LORD, but <sup>h</sup>rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then the hand of the LORD will be against you, as it was against your fathers.

<sup>18</sup>So Samuel called to the LORD, and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day; and <sup>n</sup>all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

<sup>19</sup>And all the people said to Samuel, <sup>o</sup>“Pray for your servants to the LORD your God, that we may not die; for we have added to all our sins the evil of asking a king for ourselves.”

<sup>20</sup>Then Samuel said to the people, “Do not fear. You have done all this wickedness; <sup>p</sup>yet do not turn aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart. <sup>21</sup>And <sup>q</sup>do not turn aside; <sup>r</sup>for then you would go after empty things which cannot profit or deliver, for they are nothing. <sup>22</sup>For <sup>s</sup>the LORD will not forsake <sup>t</sup>His people, <sup>u</sup>for His great name’s sake, because <sup>v</sup>it has pleased the LORD to make you His people. <sup>23</sup>Moreover, as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD <sup>w</sup>in ceasing to pray for you; but <sup>x</sup>I will teach you the <sup>y</sup>good and the right way. <sup>24</sup>Only fear the LORD, and serve Him in truth with

12:9 they forgot the LORD their God. Samuel recounted the nation’s apostasy and subsequent divine discipline. Israel was having problems because they had stopped obeying God. It was not because either God or Samuel was inadequate.

12:17 wheat harvest. The season for harvesting wheat in Israel is the months of May and June. thunder and rain. The land of Israel receives its rainfall during the winter season. For rain to fall during the wheat harvest would be both unusual and detrimental to the harvest.

12:22 His people. God’s desire to raise up a people for His great name’s sake is not based on pride, but on love. He is pleased to show His goodness to the world, and He is willing to reach out to us in spite of our rebellion and foolishness. The whole history of the human race is littered with mankind’s failure to acknowledge and follow the living God who created us. But even if we are faithless, God will remain faithful (2 Tim. 2:13), and that is our great comfort. We cannot even be faithful without His help, but “if God is for us, who can be against us?” (Rom. 8:31).

Saul's Unlawful Sacrifice

13 Saul reigned one year; and when he had reigned two years over Israel.* <sup>2</sup>Saul chose for himself three thousand men of Israel. Two thousand were with Saul in <sup>a</sup>Michmash and in the mountains of Bethel, and a thousand were with <sup>b</sup>Jonathan in <sup>c</sup>Gibeah of Benjamin. The rest of the people he sent away, every man to his tent.

<sup>3</sup>And Jonathan attacked <sup>d</sup>the garrison of the Philistines that was in <sup>e</sup>Geba, and the Philistines heard of it. Then Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, “Let the Hebrews hear!” <sup>4</sup>Now all Israel heard it said that Saul had attacked a garrison of the Philistines, and that Israel had also become an abomination to the Philistines. And the people were called together to Saul at Gilgal.

<sup>5</sup>Then the Philistines gathered together to fight with Israel, thirty* thousand chariots and six thousand horsemen, and people <sup>f</sup>as the sand which is on the seashore in multitude. And they came up and encamped in Michmash, to the east of <sup>g</sup>Beth Aven. <sup>6</sup>When the men of Israel saw that they were in danger (for the people were distressed), then the people <sup>h</sup>hid in caves, in thickets, in rocks, in holes, and in pits. <sup>7</sup>And some of the Hebrews crossed over the Jordan to the <sup>i</sup>land of Gad and Gilead.

As for Saul, he was still in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling. <sup>8</sup>Then he waited seven days, according to the time set by Samuel. But Samuel did not come to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him. <sup>9</sup>So Saul said, “Bring a burnt offering and peace offerings here to me.” And he offered the burnt offering. <sup>10</sup>Now it happened, as soon as he had finished presenting the burnt offering, that Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might greet him.

<sup>11</sup>And Samuel said, “What have you done?”

Saul said, “When I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that you did not come within the days appointed, and that the Philistines gathered together at Michmash, <sup>12</sup>then I said, ‘The Philistines will now come down on me at Gilgal, and I have not made supplication to the LORD.’ Therefore I felt compelled, and offered a burnt offering.”

<sup>13</sup>And Samuel said to Saul, <sup>k</sup>“You have done foolishly. <sup>l</sup>You have not kept the commandment of the LORD your God, which He commanded you. For now the LORD would have established your kingdom over Israel forever. <sup>14</sup>But now your kingdom shall not continue. <sup>n</sup>The LORD has sought for Himself a man <sup>o</sup>after His own heart, and the LORD has commanded him to be commander over His people, because you have <sup>p</sup>not kept what the LORD commanded you.”

<sup>15</sup>Then Samuel arose and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin.* And Saul numbered the people present with him, <sup>q</sup>about six hundred men.

No Weapons for the Army

<sup>16</sup>Saul, Jonathan his son, and the people present with them remained in Gibeah of Benjamin. But the Philistines encamped in Michmash. <sup>17</sup>Then raiders came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies. One company turned onto the road to <sup>r</sup>Ophrah, to the land of Shual, <sup>18</sup>another company turned to the road to <sup>s</sup>Beth Horon, and another company turned to the road of the border that overlooks the Valley of <sup>t</sup>Zeboim toward the wilderness.

<sup>19</sup>Now <sup>u</sup>there was no blacksmith to be found throughout all the land of Israel, for the Philistines said, “Lest the Hebrews make swords or spears.” <sup>20</sup>But all the Israelites would go down to the Philistines to sharpen each man’s plowshare, his mattock, his ax, and his sickle; <sup>21</sup>and the charge for a sharpening was a pim* for the

13:8–9 Presumption—We will never know what would have happened if Saul had waited for Samuel. Whenever we assume we “know better” and take action on our own authority, we cannot know what would have happened if we had followed God’s way. Some of the snarls that are the result of stubborn rebellion are often too difficult for us to set right. This is why we must pay such careful attention not only to the direct commandments in the Bible, but to the spirit behind them.

13:19 no blacksmith. The Canaanites and Philistines learned how to forge iron from the Hittites. Although they were not great in numerical strength, the plowshares, the mattocks, the forks, and the axes, and to set the points of the goads.<sup>22</sup> So it came about, on the day of battle, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people who were with Saul and Jonathan. But they were found with Saul and Jonathan his son.

Philistines were able to dominate Israel because of their superior weaponry. By the end of David’s reign, the Israelites had also acquired iron technology.

<sup>23w</sup> And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

Jonathan Defeats the Philistines

14 Now it happened one day that Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man who bore his armor, “Come, let us go over to the Philistines’ garrison that is on the other side.” But he did not tell his father.<sup>2</sup> And Saul was sitting in the outskirts of Gibeah under a pomegranate tree which is in Migron. The people who were with him were about six hundred men.<sup>3b</sup> Ahijah the son of Ahitub, Ichabod’s brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the LORD’s priest in Shiloh, was wearing an ephod. But the people did not know that Jonathan had gone.

<sup>4</sup> Between the passes, by which Jonathan sought to go over to the Philistines’ garrison, there was a sharp rock on one side and a sharp rock on the other side. And the name of one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.<sup>5</sup> The front of one faced northward opposite Michmash, and the other southward opposite Gibeah.

<sup>6</sup> Then Jonathan said to the young man who bore his armor, “Come, let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised; it may be that the LORD will work for us. For nothing restrains the LORD from saving by many or by few.”

<sup>7</sup> So his armorbearer said to him, “Do all that is in your heart. Go then; here I am with you, according to your heart.”

<sup>8</sup> Then Jonathan said, “Very well, let us cross over to these men, and we will show ourselves to them.<sup>9</sup> If they say thus to us, ‘Wait until we come to you,’ then we will stand still in our place and not go up to them.<sup>10</sup> But if they say thus, ‘Come up to us,’ then we will go up. For the LORD has delivered them into our hand, and this will be a sign to us.”

<sup>11</sup> So both of them showed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines. And the Philistines said, “Look, the Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they have hidden.”<sup>12</sup> Then the men of the garrison called to Jonathan and his armorbearer, and said, “Come up to us, and we will show you something.”

Jonathan said to his armorbearer, “Come up after me, for the LORD has delivered them into the hand of Israel.”<sup>13</sup> And Jonathan climbed up on his hands and knees with his armorbearer after him; and they fell before Jonathan. And as he came after him, his armorbearer killed them.<sup>14</sup> That first slaughter which Jonathan and his armorbearer made was about twenty men within about half an acre of land.*

<sup>15</sup> And there was trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people. The garrison and the raiders also trembled; and the earth quaked, so that it was a very great trembling.<sup>16</sup> Now the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked, and there was the multitude, melting away; and they went here and there.<sup>17</sup> Then Saul said to the people who were with him, “Now call the roll and see who has gone from us.” And when they had called the roll, surprisingly, Jonathan and his armorbearer were not there.<sup>18</sup> And Saul said to Ahijah, “Bring the ark of God here” (for at that time the ark of God was with the children of Israel).<sup>19</sup> Now it happened, while Saul talked to the priest, that the noise which was in the camp of the Philistines continued to increase; so Saul said to the priest, “Withdraw your hand.”<sup>20</sup> Then Saul and all the people who were with him assembled, and they went to the battle; and indeed every man’s sword was against his neighbor, and there was very great confusion.<sup>21</sup> Moreover the Hebrews who were with the Philistines before that time, who went up with them into the camp from the surrounding country, they also joined the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan.<sup>22</sup> Likewise all the men of Israel who had hidden in the mountains of Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, they also followed hard after them in the battle.<sup>23</sup> So the LORD saved Israel that day, and the battle shifted to Beth Aven.

Saul’s Rash Oath

<sup>24</sup> And the men of Israel were distressed that day, for Saul had placed the people under oath, saying, “Cursed is the man who eats any food until evening, before I have taken vengeance on my enemies.” So none of the people tasted food. <sup>25</sup>Now all the people of the land came to a forest; and there was <sup>v</sup>honey on the ground. <sup>26</sup>And when the people had come into the woods, there was the honey, dripping; but no one put his hand to his mouth, for the people feared the oath. <sup>27</sup>But Jonathan had not heard his father charge the people with the oath; therefore he stretched out the end of the rod that was in his hand and dipped it in a honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his countenance brightened. <sup>28</sup>Then one of the people said, “Your father strictly charged the people with an oath, saying, ‘Cursed is the man who eats food this day.’” And the people were faint.

<sup>29</sup>But Jonathan said, “My father has troubled the land. Look now, how my countenance has brightened because I tasted a little of this honey. <sup>30</sup>How much better if the people had eaten freely today of the spoil of their enemies which they found! For now would there not have been a much greater slaughter among the Philistines?”

<sup>31</sup>Now they had driven back the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon. So the people were very faint. <sup>32</sup>And the people rushed on the spoil, and took sheep, oxen, and calves, and slaughtered them on the ground; and the people ate them <sup>w</sup>with the blood. <sup>33</sup>Then they told Saul, saying, “Look, the people are sinning against the LORD by eating with the blood!”

So he said, “You have dealt treacherously; roll a large stone to me this day.” <sup>34</sup>Then Saul said, “Disperse yourselves among the people, and say to them, ‘Bring me here every man’s ox and every man’s sheep, slaughter them here, and eat; and do not sin against the LORD by eating with the blood.’” So every one of the people brought his ox with him that night, and slaughtered it there. <sup>35</sup>Then Saul <sup>x</sup>built an altar to the LORD. This was the first altar that he built to the LORD.

<sup>36</sup>Now Saul said, “Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and plunder them until the morning light; and let us not leave a man of them.”

And they said, “Do whatever seems good to you.”

Then the priest said, “Let us draw near to God here.”

<sup>37</sup>So Saul <sup>y</sup>asked counsel of God, “Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will You deliver them into the hand of Israel?” But <sup>z</sup>He did not answer him that day. <sup>38</sup>And Saul said, “Come over here, all you chiefs of the people, and know and see what this sin was today. <sup>39</sup>For <sup>bas</sup> the LORD lives, who saves Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die.” But not a man among all the people answered him. <sup>40</sup>Then he said to all Israel, “You be on one side, and my son Jonathan and I will be on the other side.”

And the people said to Saul, “Do what seems good to you.”

<sup>41</sup>Therefore Saul said to the LORD God of Israel, “Give a perfect lot.” <sup>a</sup>So Saul and Jonathan were taken, but the people escaped. <sup>42</sup>And Saul said, “Cast lots between my son Jonathan and me.” So Jonathan was taken. <sup>43</sup>Then Saul said to Jonathan, “Tell me what you have done.”

And Jonathan told him, and said, <sup>f</sup>“I only tasted a little honey with the end of the rod that was in my hand. So now I must die!”

<sup>45</sup>But the people said to Saul, “Shall Jonathan die, who has accomplished this great deliverance in Israel? Certainly not!”

\ 14:41 Following Masoretic Text and Targum; Septuagint and Vulgate read Why do You not answer Your servant today? If the injustice is with me or Jonathan my son, O LORD God of Israel, give proof; and if You say it is with Your people Israel, give holiness.*

would have helped the soldiers fight with better stamina. Keeping the oath was a matter of loyalty to Saul as he avenged his enemies. But the enemies were not Saul’s personal enemies, they were the enemies of the whole nation, and the power in the vengeance came from God, not Saul. Saul should have focused the faith of the people on God, not on himself. This oath is an example of poor leadership, foolish vows, and misplaced loyalties. It is easy to get into trouble with an impulsive vow. It may sound very noble and wise in the heat of the moment, but it doesn’t turn out to be practical. The kinds of vows that will never get us in trouble are the vows that echo the things that Scripture teaches. Such vows as determining to raise our children for the Lord, promising to stay away from habits that control us, or commitment to pray for certain people will never leave us entangled in promises that we should not have made.

14:32 rushed on. If the soldiers had not been fasting as they fought, they might have had the self-control to properly bleed the animals before they began eating.

14:37 He did not answer him. God’s silence was taken by Saul as evidence of sin in the camp.

14:39 he shall surely die. This was Saul’s second foolish oath. Saul is not the only one who found himself in trouble because of an impulsive oath. Jephthah made a tragic vow (Judg. 11:29–40), John the Baptist was beheaded because of Herod’s thoughtless oath (Matt. 14:7–9), and a group of Jews bound themselves together with a curse, promising not to eat or drink until they had killed Paul (Acts 23:12). Jesus taught His followers not to swear to foolish vows, but to let their yes be yes, and their no be no (Matt. 5:37; James 5:12).

<sup>i</sup>As the LORD lives, not one hair of his head shall fall to the ground, for he has worked <sup>j</sup>with God this day.” So the people rescued Jonathan, and he did not die.

Saul's Continuing Wars

<sup>47</sup>So Saul established his sovereignty over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, against the people of <sup>k</sup>Ammon, against Edom, against the kings of <sup>l</sup>Zobah, and against the Philistines. Wherever he turned, he harassed them.* <sup>48</sup>And he gathered an army and <sup>m</sup>attacked the Amalekites, and delivered Israel from the hands of those who plundered them.

<sup>49n</sup>The sons of Saul were Jonathan, Jishui,* and Malchishua. And the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the firstborn Merab, and the name of the younger <sup>o</sup>Michal. <sup>50</sup>The name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz. And the name of the commander of his army was Abner the son of Ner, Saul's <sup>p</sup>uncle. <sup>51a</sup>Kish was the father of Saul, and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

<sup>52</sup>Now there was fierce war with the Philistines all the days of Saul. And when Saul saw any strong man or any valiant man, <sup>q</sup>he took him for himself.

Saul Spares King Agag

15 Samuel also said to Saul, <sup>a</sup>“The LORD sent me to anoint you king over His people, over Israel. Now therefore, heed the voice of the words of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>Thus says the LORD of hosts: ‘I will punish Amalek for what he did to Israel, <sup>b</sup>how he ambushed him on the way when he came up from Egypt. <sup>3</sup>Now go and <sup>c</sup>attack Amalek, and <sup>d</sup>utterly destroy all that they have, and do not spare them. But kill both man and woman, infant and nursing child, ox and sheep, camel and donkey.’”

Saul Rejected as King

<sup>10</sup>Now the word of the LORD came to Samuel, saying, <sup>11n</sup>“I greatly regret that I have set up Saul as king, for he has <sup>o</sup>turned back from following Me, <sup>p</sup>and has not performed My commandments.” And it <sup>q</sup>grieved Samuel, and he cried out to the LORD all night. <sup>12</sup>So when Samuel rose early in the morning to meet Saul, it was told Samuel, saying, “Saul went to <sup>r</sup>Carmel, and indeed, he set up a monument for himself; and he has gone on around, passed by, and gone down to Gilgal.” <sup>13</sup>Then Samuel went to Saul, and Saul said to him, <sup>s</sup>“Blessed are you of the LORD! I have performed the commandment of the LORD.”

<sup>14</sup>But Samuel said, “What then is this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?”

<sup>15</sup>And Saul said, “They have brought them from the Amalekites; <sup>t</sup>for the people spared the best of the sheep and the oxen, to sacrifice to the LORD your God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed.”

<sup>16</sup>Then Samuel said to Saul, “Be quiet! And I will tell you what the LORD said to me last night.”

And he said to him, “Speak on.”

<sup>17</sup>So Samuel said, <sup>u</sup>“When you were little in your own eyes, were you not head of the tribes of Israel? And did not the LORD anoint you king over Israel? <sup>18</sup>Now the LORD sent you on a mission, and said, 'Go, and utterly destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are consumed.' <sup>19</sup>Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD? Why did you swoop down on the spoil, and do evil in the sight of the LORD?"

<sup>20</sup>And Saul said to Samuel, <sup>v</sup>"But I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and gone on the mission on which the LORD sent me, and brought back Agag king of Amalek; I have utterly destroyed the Amalekites. <sup>21</sup><sup>w</sup>But the people took of the plunder, sheep and oxen, the best of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice to the LORD your God in Gilgal."

<sup>x</sup>"Has the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices,
As in obeying the voice of the LORD?
Behold, <sup>y</sup>to obey is better than sacrifice,

And to heed than the fat of rams.

<sup>23</sup> For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft,
And stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry.

Because you have rejected the word of the LORD,

<sup>z</sup>He also has rejected you from being king."

<sup>24</sup><sup>a</sup>Then Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned, for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD and your words, because I <sup>b</sup>feared the people and obeyed their voice. <sup>25</sup>Now therefore, please pardon my sin, and return with me, that I may worship the LORD."

<sup>26</sup>But Samuel said to Saul, "I will not return with you, <sup>c</sup>for you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel."

<sup>27</sup>And as Samuel turned around to go away, <sup>d</sup>Saul seized the edge of his robe, and it tore. <sup>28</sup>So Samuel said to him, <sup>e</sup>"The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today, and has given it to a neighbor of yours, who is better than you. <sup>29</sup>And also the Strength of Israel <sup>f</sup>will not lie nor relent. For He is not a man, that He should relent."

<sup>30</sup>Then he said, "I have sinned; yet <sup>g</sup>honor me now, please, before the elders of my people and before Israel, and return with me, that I may worship the LORD your God." <sup>31</sup>So Samuel turned back after Saul, and Saul worshiped the LORD.

<sup>32</sup>Then Samuel said, "Bring Agag king of the Amalekites here to me." So Agag came to him cautiously.

And Agag said, "Surely the bitterness of death is past."

<sup>33</sup>But Samuel said, <sup>h</sup>"As your sword has made women childless, so shall your mother be childless among women." And Samuel hacked Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.

<sup>34</sup>Then Samuel went to <sup>i</sup>Ramah, and Saul went up to his house at <sup>j</sup>Gibeah of Saul. <sup>35</sup>And <sup>k</sup>Samuel went no more to see Saul until the day of his death. Nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul, and the LORD regretted that He had made Saul king over Israel.

David Anointed King

16 Now the LORD said to Samuel, <sup>a</sup>"How long will you mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? <sup>b</sup>Fill your horn with oil, and go; I am sending you to <sup>c</sup>Jesse the Bethlehemite. For <sup>d</sup>I have provided Myself a king among his sons."

<sup>2</sup>And Samuel said, "How can I go? If Saul hears it, he will kill me."

But the LORD said, "Take a heifer with you, and say, <sup>e</sup>'I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.' <sup>3</sup>Then invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do; you shall anoint for Me the one I name to you."

<sup>4</sup>So Samuel did what the LORD said, and went to Bethlehem. And the elders of the town <sup>f</sup>trembled at his coming, and said, <sup>g</sup>"Do you come peaceably?"

15:22 Obedience—If we love God we are commanded to keep His commandments (John 14:15). The problem is, we sometimes fool ourselves. Saul thought he was doing something good for God. He was partially obeying. He killed a lot of the Amalekites, and instead of killing the animals, he sacrificed them. They would still be dead, and it would honor God, too. But He was not pleased. Saul did what was "right in his own eyes" but this was not obedience.

15:23 witchcraft. Witchcraft, divination, idolatry, and other occult activities are an attempt to manipulate spiritual powers for our own ends. In his rebellion Saul was treating God as if He were a moody, cranky pagan god, who could be thwarted, and then appeased by sacrifices. He also has rejected you. Saul was rejected because he was still treating God as a force to be used. He was sorry he got caught, but he still thought he was right and could give a quick sacrifice and go on with the plan.

15:35 see. God was through with Saul as king, and so was Samuel.

16:2 I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. At this time Shiloh was still the designated central location for sacrifices (Deut. 12:4–14). But with the disruptions of the priesthood, the ark located at Kirjath Jearim (7:2), and the general belief that God had removed His presence from Shiloh, it would not be surprising if the sacrificial system had been interrupted as well. In <sup>5</sup>And he said, "Peaceably; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. <sup>6</sup>Sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice." Then he consecrated Jesse and his sons, and invited them to the sacrifice.

<sup>8</sup>So Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one."

<sup>9</sup>Then Jesse made Shammah pass by. And he said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one." <sup>10</sup>Thus Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel. And Samuel said to Jesse, "The LORD has not chosen these."

<sup>11</sup>And Samuel said to Jesse, "Are all the young men here?" Then he said, "There remains yet the youngest, and there he is, keeping the <sup>12</sup>sheep."

And Samuel said to Jesse, "Send and bring him. For we will not sit down* till he comes here." <sup>12</sup>So he sent and brought him in. Now he was <sup>13</sup>pruddy, <sup>14</sup>with bright eyes, and good-looking. <sup>15</sup>And the LORD said, "Arise, anoint him; for this is the one!" <sup>16</sup>Then Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers; and <sup>17</sup>the Spirit of the LORD came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel arose and went to Ramah.

A Distressing Spirit Troubles Saul

<sup>14</sup>But the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and <sup>15</sup>a distressing spirit from the LORD troubled him. <sup>16</sup>And Saul's servants said to him, "Surely, a distressing spirit from God is troubling you. <sup>16</sup>Let our master now command your servants, who are before you, to seek out a man who is a skillful player on the harp. And it shall be that he will <sup>17</sup>play it with his hand when the distressing spirit from God is upon you, and you shall be well."

<sup>17</sup>So Saul said to his servants, "Provide me now a man who can play well, and bring him to me."

<sup>18</sup>Then one of the servants answered and said, "Look, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who is skillful in playing, a mighty man of valor, a man of war, prudent in speech, and a handsome person; and <sup>19</sup>the LORD is with him."

<sup>19</sup>Therefore Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and said, "Send me your son David, who is with the sheep." <sup>20</sup>And Jesse <sup>21</sup>took a donkey loaded with bread, a skin of wine, and a young goat, and sent them by his son David to Saul. <sup>22</sup>So David came to Saul and <sup>23</sup>stood before him. And he loved him greatly, and he became his armorbearer. <sup>24</sup>Then Saul sent to Jesse, saying, "Please let David stand before me, for he has found favor in my sight." <sup>25</sup>And so it was, whenever the spirit from God was upon Saul, that David would take a harp and play it with his hand. Then Saul would become refreshed and well, and the distressing spirit would depart from him.

David and Goliath

17 Now the Philistines gathered their armies together to battle, and were any case, God did direct Samuel to make this sacrifice at Bethlehem.

16:7 God—Our Creator knows His human creatures intimately, and He is able to discern our thoughts and purposes before we ourselves are aware of them. He always looks beyond appearance and stature to the heart.

16:12 anoint him. David was anointed with olive oil. This religious ritual consecrated him to the kingship, although he did not take the role of king for many years. The heart God saw in David is the one He wants to see in all of us. It has purposefulness, intelligence, and willingness to obey. If our heart is centered on God, He can use us to extend His kingdom.

16:14 departed from Saul. After the Spirit of God came upon David, Saul was no longer empowered by the Spirit to serve as king. In Old Testament times the Holy Spirit came upon people selectively, usually a king, prophet, or judge. It was only after the resurrection of Jesus that the Holy Spirit came to indwell all believers (John 16:5–11; Acts 2:4).

16:15 distressing spirit from God. This affliction is understood in various ways. Perhaps the spirit was a demon that God allowed to harass Saul, in the same way that God allowed Satan to tempt Job (Job 1:8–12). Perhaps Saul had a spirit of discontent in his heart, caused by the absence of the Holy Spirit. Perhaps pride, that same sin that caused Satan to fall, was allowed to grow in Saul's heart and dominate his thoughts and actions. Scripture is clear that God is always holy, just, and righteous, so this spirit was something that God allowed to come upon Saul, but it was not a part of God.

16:21 David came to Saul. David played for Saul, and was his armorbearer. It is unclear exactly how much time David spent with Saul. Probably David at this time continued to come and go from Saul's household to his father's.

17:1 the Philistines gathered their armies together to battle. The Philistine and Israelite armies were gathered at <sup>a</sup>Sochoh, which belongs to Judah; they encamped between Sochoh and Azekah, in Ephes Dammim. <sup>2</sup>And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and they encamped in the Valley of Elah, and drew up in battle array against the Philistines. <sup>3</sup>The Philistines stood on a mountain on one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side, with a valley between them.

<sup>4</sup>And a champion went out from the camp of the Philistines, named <sup>b</sup>Goliath, from <sup>c</sup>Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span. <sup>5</sup>He had a bronze helmet on his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail, and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of bronze. <sup>6</sup>And he had bronze armor on his legs and a bronze javelin between his shoulders. <sup>7</sup>Now the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and his iron spearhead weighed six hundred shekels; and a shield-bearer went before him. <sup>8</sup>Then he stood and cried out to the armies of Israel, and said to them, "Why have you come out to line up for battle? Am I not a Philistine, and you the <sup>d</sup>servants of Saul? Choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me. <sup>9</sup>If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then we will be your servants. But if I prevail against him and kill him, then you shall be our servants and <sup>e</sup>serve us." <sup>10</sup>And the Philistine said, <sup>f</sup>"I defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together." <sup>11</sup>When Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and greatly afraid.

<sup>12</sup>Now David was <sup>g</sup>the son of that <sup>h</sup>Ephrathite of Bethlehem Judah, whose name was Jesse, and who had <sup>i</sup>eight sons. And the man was old, advanced in years, in the days of Saul. <sup>13</sup>The three oldest sons of Jesse had gone to follow Saul to the battle. The <sup>j</sup>names of his three sons who went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, next to him Abinadab, and the third Shammah. <sup>14</sup>David was the youngest. And the three oldest followed Saul. <sup>15</sup>But David occasionally went and returned from Saul <sup>k</sup>to feed his father's sheep at Bethlehem.

<sup>16</sup>And the Philistine drew near and presented himself forty days, morning and evening.

<sup>17</sup>Then Jesse said to his son David, "Take now for your brothers an ephah of this dried grain and these ten loaves, and run to your brothers at the camp. <sup>18</sup>And carry these ten cheeses to the captain of their thousand, and <sup>l</sup>see how your brothers fare, and bring back news of them." <sup>19</sup>Now Saul and they and all the men of Israel were in the Valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

<sup>20</sup>So David rose early in the morning, left the sheep with a keeper, and took the things and went as Jesse had commanded him. And he came to the camp as the army was going out to the fight and shouting for the battle. <sup>21</sup>For Israel and the Philistines had drawn up in battle array, army against army. <sup>22</sup>And David left his supplies in the hand of the supply keeper, ran to the army, and came and greeted his brothers. <sup>23</sup>Then as he talked with them, there was the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, coming up from the armies of the Philistines; and he spoke <sup>m</sup>according to the same words. So David heard them. <sup>24</sup>And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him and were dreadfully afraid. <sup>25</sup>So the men of Israel said, "Have you seen this man who has come up? Surely he has come up to defy Israel; and it shall be that the man who kills him the king will enrich with great riches, <sup>n</sup>will give him his daughter, and give his father's house exemption from taxes in Israel."

gathered in the Elah valley, about 15 miles west of David's hometown of Bethlehem. The Philistines were camped on a hill, south of the valley, between the cities of Azekah and Sochoh.

17:2 Valley of Elah. The valley is an east-west valley, leading from the hill country of Judah toward the lowlands of the Philistines. It had a steep ravine that extended the length of the valley, making it unfit for the Philistines' chariots. Probably the ravine prevented a full-scale assault by the Philistines, causing the long delay before engaging in battle.

17:4 champion. The champion was a warrior who would fight in single combat as a stand-in for the entire army. The most likely person to take on this champion would be Saul, who, when he was chosen king, stood head and shoulders above his countrymen. six cubits and a span. The cubit was about 18 inches, and a span was 9 inches. Goliath stood approximately 9 feet, 9 inches tall.

17:5 bronze helmet. Ordinary troops had leather helmets. coat of mail. Goliath's coat of mail was made of overlapping plates of bronze sewn on leather. five thousand shekels. The coat of armor weighed about 125 pounds.

17:7 six hundred shekels. The spear was a weapon designed for hand-to-hand combat, like a long sword. The head of Goliath's spear weighed about 17 pounds. a shield-bearer. The soldier carried a small round shield, usually worn on the left arm. The shield-carrier bore the much larger, oblong shield.

17:12 Ephrathite. Ephrath was the early name for Bethlehem.

17:17 Take now for your brothers. In ancient times, soldiers usually lived off the land they conquered or depended on personal supplies that they or someone else brought from home.

who is this <sup>p</sup>uncircumcised Philistine, that he should <sup>a</sup>defy the armies of <sup>r</sup>the living God?"

<sup>27</sup>And the people answered him in this manner, saying, <sup>s</sup>"So shall it be done for the man who kills him."

<sup>28</sup>Now Eliab his oldest brother heard when he spoke to the men; and Eliab's <sup>t</sup>anger was aroused against David, and he said, "Why did you come down here? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride and the insolence of your heart, for you have come down to see the battle."

<sup>29</sup>And David said, "What have I done now? <sup>u</sup>Is there not a cause?" <sup>30</sup>Then he turned from him toward another and <sup>v</sup>said the same thing; and these people answered him as the first ones did.

<sup>31</sup>Now when the words which David spoke were heard, they reported them to Saul; and he sent for him. <sup>32</sup>Then David said to Saul, <sup>w</sup>"Let no man's heart fail because of him; <sup>x</sup>your servant will go and fight with this Philistine."

<sup>34</sup>But David said to Saul, "Your servant used to keep his father's sheep, and when a <sup>z</sup>lion or a bear came and took a lamb out of the flock, <sup>35</sup>I went out after it and struck it, and delivered the lamb from its mouth; and when it arose against me, I caught it by its beard, and struck and killed it. <sup>36</sup>Your servant has killed both lion and bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, seeing he has defied the armies of the living God." <sup>37</sup>Moreover David said, <sup>a</sup>"The LORD, who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, He will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine."

And Saul said to David, <sup>b</sup>"Go, and the LORD be with you!"

<sup>38</sup>So Saul clothed David with his armor, and he put a bronze helmet on his head; he also clothed him with a coat of mail. <sup>39</sup>David fastened his sword to his armor and tried to walk, for he had not tested them.

And David said to Saul, "I cannot walk with these, for I have not tested them." So David took them off.

<sup>40</sup>Then he took his staff in his hand; and he chose for himself five smooth stones from the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag, in a pouch which he had, and his sling was in his hand. And he drew near to the Philistine. <sup>41</sup>So the Philistine came, and began drawing near to David, and the man who bore the shield went before him. <sup>42</sup>And when the Philistine looked about and saw David, he <sup>c</sup>disdained him; for he was only a youth, <sup>d</sup>ruddy and good-looking. <sup>43</sup>So the Philistine <sup>e</sup>said to David, "Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?" And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. <sup>44</sup>And the Philistine <sup>f</sup>said to David, "Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and the beasts of the field!"

<sup>45</sup>Then David said to the Philistine, "You come to me with a sword, with a spear, and with a javelin. <sup>g</sup>But I come to you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have <sup>h</sup>defied. <sup>46</sup>This day the LORD will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you and take your head from you. And this day I will give <sup>i</sup>the carcasses of the camp of the Philistines to the birds of the air and the wild beasts of the earth, <sup>j</sup>that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel. <sup>47</sup>Then all this assembly shall know that the LORD <sup>k</sup>does not save with sword and spear; for <sup>l</sup>the battle is the LORD's, and He will give you into our hands."

<sup>48</sup>So it was, when the Philistine arose and came and drew near to meet David, that David hurried and <sup>m</sup>ran toward the army to meet the Philistine. <sup>49</sup>Then David put his hand in his bag and took out a stone; and he slung it and struck the Philistine in his forehead, so that the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the earth. <sup>50</sup>So David prevailed over the Philistine with a <sup>n</sup>sling and a stone, and struck the Philistine and killed him. But there was no sword in the hand of David. <sup>51</sup>Therefore David ran and stood over the Philistine, took his <sup>o</sup>sword and drew it out

17:39–40 Wisdom—David had embarked on a risky venture. It might seem smart to meet Goliath with the best armor, but David had wisdom enough to know that if he was going to attack the giant, it would have to be on his own terms. The years of solitary shepherding had given David the time to practice with his sling, and the opportunity to know that it was the Lord who gave him the strength and the will to kill the predators that threatened his flock. The insight and practices gained through difficult experiences blossom as wisdom. We can look back on these times with thankfulness because that is how God has equipped us for the next task.

17:40 sling. A sling was the typical equipment of the shepherd. It was a hollow pocket of leather attached to two cords. Putting a stone in the pouch, the slinger would whirl it around his head to build up momentum. Releasing one of the cords would hurl the stone at its target. It takes skill and practice to be expert with a sling. Slingers were a regular part of armies in the ancient Middle East.

of its sheath and killed him, and cut off his head with it.

And when the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, <sup>7</sup>they fled. <sup>52</sup>Now the men of Israel and Judah arose and shouted, and pursued the Philistines as far as the entrance of the valley* and to the gates of Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell along the road to <sup>a</sup>Shaaraim, even as far as Gath and Ekron. <sup>53</sup>Then the children of Israel returned from chasing the Philistines, and they plundered their tents. <sup>54</sup>And David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem, but he put his armor in his tent.

And Abner said, “As your soul lives, O king, I do not know.”

So David answered, <sup>e</sup>“I am the son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite.”

Saul Resents David

18 Now when he had finished speaking to Saul, <sup>a</sup>the soul of Jonathan was knit to the soul of David, <sup>b</sup>and Jonathan loved him as his own soul. <sup>2</sup>Saul took him that day, <sup>c</sup>and would not let him go home to his father's house anymore. <sup>3</sup>Then Jonathan and David made a <sup>d</sup>covenant, because he loved him as his own soul. <sup>4</sup>And Jonathan took off the robe that was on him and gave it to David, with his armor, even to his sword and his bow and his belt.

<sup>5</sup>So David went out wherever Saul sent him, and behaved wisely. And Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people and also in the sight of Saul's servants. <sup>6</sup>Now it had happened as they were coming home, when David was returning from the slaughter of the Philistine, that <sup>e</sup>the women had come out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul, with tambourines, with joy, and with musical instruments. <sup>7</sup>So the women <sup>f</sup>sang as they danced, and said:

<sup>8</sup>Then Saul was very angry, and the saying <sup>h</sup>displeased him; and he said, “They have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed only thousands. Now what more can he have but <sup>i</sup>the kingdom?” <sup>9</sup>So Saul eyed David from that day forward.

David Marries Michal

<sup>17</sup>Then Saul said to David, “Here is my older daughter Merab; <sup>u</sup>I will give her to you as a wife. Only be valiant for me, and fight <sup>v</sup>the LORD's battles.” For Saul thought, <sup>w</sup>“Let my hand not be against him, but let the hand of the Philistines be against him.”

<sup>18</sup>So David said to Saul, <sup>x</sup>“Who am I, and what is my life or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?” <sup>19</sup>But it happened at the time when Merab, Saul's daughter, should have been given to David, that she was given to <sup>y</sup>Adriel the <sup>z</sup>Meholathite as a wife.

17:55 whose son is this youth. How does this question fit with the fact that David had been serving as a musician in Saul's court and as Saul's armorbearer, and that Saul “loved him greatly” (16:18–23)? Possibly in Saul's unstable mental condition he did not recall David, or perhaps he did not know his name, even if he did recognize him. David was not at court full time until after he had killed Goliath. It would not be unusual for the king to know nothing personal about a servant, even a servant he appreciated.

18:16 he went out and came in before them. David's military activities elevated him to prominence before the people.

David. And they told Saul, and the thing pleased him. <sup>21</sup>So Saul said, "I will give her to him, that she may be a snare to him, and that <sup>b</sup>the hand of the Philistines may be against him." Therefore Saul said to David a second time, "<sup>c</sup>You shall be my son-in-law today."

<sup>22</sup>And Saul commanded his servants, "Communicate with David secretly, and say, 'Look, the king has delight in you, and all his servants love you. Now therefore, become the king's son-in-law.'"

<sup>23</sup>So Saul's servants spoke those words in the hearing of David. And David said, "Does it seem to you a light thing to be a king's son-in-law, seeing I am a poor and lightly esteemed man?" <sup>24</sup>And the servants of Saul told him, saying, "In this manner David spoke."

<sup>25</sup>Then Saul said, "Thus you shall say to David: 'The king does not desire any <sup>d</sup>dowry but one hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to take <sup>e</sup>vengeance on the king's enemies.'" But Saul <sup>f</sup>thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines. <sup>26</sup>So when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to become the king's son-in-law. Now <sup>g</sup>the days had not expired; <sup>27</sup>therefore David arose and went, he and <sup>h</sup>his men, and killed two hundred men of the Philistines. And <sup>i</sup>David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full count to the king, that he might become the king's son-in-law. Then Saul gave him Michal his daughter as a wife.

<sup>28</sup>Thus Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him; <sup>29</sup>and Saul was still more afraid of David. So Saul became David's enemy continually. <sup>30</sup>Then the princes of the Philistines <sup>j</sup>went out to war. And so it was, whenever they went out, that David <sup>k</sup>behaved more wisely than all the servants of Saul, so that his name became highly esteemed.

Saul Persecutes David

19 Now Saul spoke to Jonathan his son and to all his servants, that they should kill <sup>a</sup>David; but Jonathan, Saul's son, <sup>b</sup>delighted greatly in David. <sup>2</sup>So Jonathan told David, saying, "My father Saul seeks to kill you. Therefore please be on your guard until morning, and stay in a secret place and hide. <sup>3</sup>And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will speak with my father about you. Then what I observe, I will tell <sup>c</sup>you."

<sup>6</sup>So Saul heeded the voice of Jonathan, and Saul swore, "As the LORD lives, he shall not be killed." <sup>7</sup>Then Jonathan called David, and Jonathan told him all these things. So Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence <sup>k</sup>as in times past.

<sup>8</sup>And there was war again; and David went out and fought with the Philistines, <sup>l</sup>and struck them with a mighty blow, and they fled from him.

<sup>9</sup>Now <sup>m</sup>the distressing spirit from the LORD came upon Saul as he sat in his house with his spear in his hand. And David was playing music with his hand. <sup>10</sup>Then Saul sought to pin David to the wall with the spear, but he slipped away from Saul's presence; and he drove the spear into the wall. So David fled and escaped that night.

<sup>11</sup>Now Saul also sent messengers to David's house to watch him and to kill him in the morning. And Michal, David's wife, told him, saying, "If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be killed." <sup>12</sup>So Michal <sup>n</sup>let David down through a window. And he went and fled and escaped. <sup>13</sup>And Michal took an image and laid it in the bed, put a cover of goats' hair for his head, and covered it with clothes. <sup>14</sup>So when Saul

18:25 dowry. A sum of money, about fifty shekels (Deut. 22:29), was paid by the bridegroom to the father of the bride as economic compensation for the loss of a daughter.

18:30 more wisely than all. David's wise actions contrast significantly with Saul's foolish actions (13:13).

18:30 Wisdom—David was popular, he had even been privately anointed to be the next king, and Saul had just thrown a spear at him. Yet David did nothing to take justice in his own hands. He remained calm and loyal. It is clear that David decided very early in the time after he was anointed that if he became king, it would have to be totally by the hand of God. He would do nothing to destroy the man that God had previously anointed king. Historically we can see what a very wise choice this was, but it must have been very difficult for David to choose the path of wisdom when he could have raised the power of the people to his side so easily.

19:11 tomorrow you will be killed. The story of David's escape is alluded to in the title of Psalm 59.

19:12 Michal let David down through a window. Saul had imagined that Michal would be loyal to him and a snare to David. But she loved David, and her loyalty was to her husband.

sent messengers to take David, she said, “He is sick.”

<sup>15</sup>Then Saul sent the messengers back to see David, saying, “Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may kill him.” <sup>16</sup>And when the messengers had come in, there was the image in the bed, with a cover of goats’ hair for his head. <sup>17</sup>Then Saul said to Michal, “Why have you deceived me like this, and sent my enemy away, so that he has escaped?”

And Michal answered Saul, “He said to me, ‘Let me go! <sup>18</sup>Why should I kill you?’”

<sup>18</sup>So David fled and escaped, and went to <sup>19</sup>Samuel at <sup>20</sup>Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and stayed in Naioth. <sup>21</sup>Now it was told Saul, saying, “Take note, David is at Naioth in Ramah!” <sup>22</sup>Then <sup>23</sup>Saul sent messengers to take David. <sup>24</sup>And when they saw the group of prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as leader over them, the Spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul, and they also <sup>25</sup>prophesied. <sup>26</sup>And when Saul was told, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise. Then Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they prophesied also. <sup>27</sup>Then he also went to Ramah, and came to the great well that is at Sechu. So he asked, and said, “Where are Samuel and David?”

And someone said, “Indeed they are at Naioth in Ramah.” <sup>28</sup>So he went there to Naioth in Ramah. Then <sup>29</sup>the Spirit of God was upon him also, and he went on and prophesied until he came to Naioth in Ramah. <sup>30</sup>And he also stripped off his clothes and prophesied before Samuel in like manner, and lay down <sup>31</sup>naked all that day and all that night. Therefore they say, <sup>32</sup>“Is Saul also among the prophets?”*

Jonathan’s Loyalty to David

20 Then David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and went and said to Jonathan, “What have I done? What is my iniquity, and what is my sin before your father, that he seeks my life?”

<sup>2</sup>So Jonathan said to him, “By no means! You shall not die! Indeed, my father will do nothing either great or small without first telling me. And why should my father hide this thing from me? It is not so!”

<sup>3</sup>Then David took an oath again, and said, “Your father certainly knows that I have found favor in your eyes, and he has said, ‘Do not let Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved.’ But <sup>4</sup>truly, as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, <sup>5</sup>there is but a step between me and death.”

<sup>6</sup>So Jonathan said to David, “Whatever you yourself desire, I will do it for you.”

<sup>7</sup>And David said to Jonathan, “Indeed tomorrow is the <sup>8</sup>New Moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king to eat. But let me go, that I may <sup>9</sup>hide in the field until the third day at evening. <sup>10</sup>If your father misses me at all, then say, ‘David earnestly asked <sup>11</sup>permission of me that he might run over <sup>12</sup>to Bethlehem, his city, for <sup>13</sup>there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.’ <sup>14</sup>If he says thus: ‘It is well,’ your servant will be safe. But if he is very angry, be sure that <sup>15</sup>evil is determined by him. <sup>16</sup>Therefore you shall <sup>17</sup>deal kindly with your servant, for <sup>18</sup>you have brought your servant into a covenant of the LORD with you. Nevertheless, if there is iniquity in me, kill me yourself, for why should you bring me to your father?”

<sup>19</sup>But Jonathan said, “Far be it from you! For if I knew certainly that evil was determined by my father to come upon you, then would I not tell you?”

<sup>20</sup>Then David said to Jonathan, “Who will tell me, or what if your father answers you roughly?”

<sup>21</sup>And Jonathan said to David, “Come, let us go out into the field.” So both of them went out into the field. <sup>22</sup>Then Jonathan said to David: “The LORD God of Israel is witness! When I have sounded out my father sometime tomorrow, or the third day, and indeed <sup>23</sup>there is good toward David, and I do not send to you and tell you, <sup>24</sup>may <sup>25</sup>the LORD do so and much more to Jonathan. But if it pleases my father <sup>26</sup>to do you evil, then I will report it to you and send you away, that you may go in safety. And <sup>27</sup>the LORD be with you as He has <sup>28</sup>been with my father. <sup>29</sup>And you shall not only show me the kindness of the LORD while I still live, that I may not die; <sup>30</sup>but <sup>31</sup>you shall not cut off your kindness from my house forever, no, not when the LORD has cut off every one of the enemies of David from the face of the earth.” <sup>32</sup>So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying,

20:5 tomorrow is the New Moon. The first day of the month, the New Moon, was observed as a religious festival (Num. 10:10; 28:11–15). It was celebrated with a sacrificial meal and rest from work.

20:6 yearly sacrifice. Apparently Jesse’s family gathered for a special time of worship during the New Moon celebration.

20:16–17 Love—The love and loyalty displayed by Jonathan to David is unparalleled among human relationships in the Bible. He was a living example of the New Testament phrase, “does not seek its own”

(1 Cor. 13:5). In protecting David from the murderous plots of Saul, Jonathan was in reality closing the door

<sup>17</sup>Now Jonathan again caused David to vow, because he loved him; <sup>18</sup>for he loved him as he loved his own soul. <sup>18</sup>Then Jonathan said to David, <sup>19</sup>"Tomorrow is the New Moon; and you will be missed, because your seat will be empty. <sup>19</sup>And when you have stayed three days, go down quickly and come to <sup>20</sup>the place where you hid on the day of the deed; and remain by the stone Ezel. <sup>20</sup>Then I will shoot three arrows to the side, as though I shot at a target; <sup>21</sup>and there I will send a lad, saying, 'Go, find the arrows.' If I expressly say to the lad, 'Look, the arrows are on this side of you; get them and come'—then, <sup>22</sup>'as the LORD lives, there is safety for you and no harm. <sup>22</sup>But if I say thus to the young man, 'Look, the arrows are beyond you'—go your way, for the LORD has sent you away. <sup>23</sup>And as for <sup>24</sup>the matter which you and I have spoken of, indeed the LORD be between you and me forever."

<sup>24</sup>Then David hid in the field. And when the New Moon had come, the king sat down to eat the feast. <sup>25</sup>Now the king sat on his seat, as at other times, on a seat by the wall. And Jonathan arose,* and Abner sat by Saul's side, but David's place was empty. <sup>26</sup>Nevertheless Saul did not say anything that day, for he thought, "Something has happened to him; he is unclean, surely he is 'unclean.'" <sup>27</sup>And it happened the next day, the second day of the month, that David's place was empty. And Saul said to Jonathan his son, "Why has the son of Jesse not come to eat, either yesterday or today?"

<sup>28</sup>So Jonathan answered Saul, "David earnestly asked permission of me to go to Bethlehem. <sup>29</sup>And he said, 'Please let me go, for our family has a sacrifice in the city, and my brother has commanded me to be there. And now, if I have found favor in your eyes, please let me get away and see my brothers.' Therefore he has not come to the king's table."

<sup>30</sup>Then Saul's anger was aroused against Jonathan, and he said to him, "You son of a perverse, rebellious woman! Do I not know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own shame and to the shame of your mother's nakedness?" <sup>31</sup>For as long as the son of Jesse lives on the earth, you shall not be established, nor your kingdom. Now therefore, send and bring him to me, for he shall surely die."

<sup>32</sup>And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said to him, <sup>33</sup>"Why should he be killed? What has he done?" <sup>33</sup>Then Saul <sup>34</sup>cast a spear at him to kill him, <sup>35</sup>by which Jonathan knew that it was determined by his father to kill David.

<sup>34</sup>So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and ate no food the second day of the month, for he was grieved for David, because his father had treated him shamefully.

<sup>35</sup>And so it was, in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad was with him. <sup>36</sup>Then he said to his lad, "Now run, find the arrows which I shoot." As the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him. <sup>37</sup>When the lad had come to the place where the arrow was which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried out after the lad and said, "Is not the arrow beyond you?" <sup>38</sup>And Jonathan cried out after the lad, "Make haste, hurry, do not delay!" So Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows and came back to his master. <sup>39</sup>But the lad did not know anything. Only Jonathan and David knew of the matter. <sup>40</sup>Then Jonathan gave his weapons to his lad, and said to him, "Go, carry them to the city."

<sup>41</sup>As soon as the lad had gone, David arose from a place toward the south, fell on his face to the ground, and bowed down three times. And they kissed one another; and they wept together, but David more so. <sup>42</sup>Then Jonathan said to David, <sup>43</sup>"Go in peace, since we have both sworn in the name of the LORD, saying, 'May the LORD be between you and me, and between your descendants and my descendants, forever.'" So he arose and departed, and Jonathan went into the city.

to his own possible reign over Israel after his father's death. Jonathan knew this, but his faithfulness to David continued until his death on a battlefield (1 Sam. 31:2).

20:16 Let the LORD require it. Jonathan prayed that the Lord would hold David accountable to the obligations of the covenant.

20:30 to the shame of your mother's nakedness. This was a way of saying that Jonathan shamed his mother who conceived him by maintaining loyalty to David. It was a slur on Jonathan, and a slur on his mother.

20:31 Justice—If David had been taking matters into his own hands, and making moves to secure the kingdom for himself, perhaps Saul would have been justified in seeking David's life. But Saul could charge David with no wrongdoing. Saul was enraged at David, at Jonathan, and in rebellion against God. Because he was driven by anger, Saul could no longer see the injustice in his own thinking.

David and the Holy Bread

21 Now David came to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest. And <sup>a</sup>Ahimelech was <sup>b</sup>afraid when he met David, and said to him, “Why are you alone, and no one is with you?”

<sup>2</sup>So David said to Ahimelech the priest, “The king has ordered me on some business, and said to me, ‘Do not let anyone know anything about the business on which I send you, or what I have commanded you.’ And I have directed my young men to such and such a place. <sup>3</sup>Now therefore, what have you on hand? Give me five loaves of bread in my hand, or whatever can be found.”

<sup>4</sup>And the priest answered David and said, “There is no common bread on hand; but there is ‘holy bread,’ <sup>d</sup>if the young men have at least kept themselves from women.”

<sup>5</sup>Then David answered the priest, and said to him, “Truly, women have been kept from us about three days since I came out. And the <sup>e</sup>vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is in effect common, even though it was consecrated <sup>f</sup>in the vessel this day.”

<sup>6</sup>So the priest <sup>g</sup>gave him holy bread; for there was no bread there but the showbread <sup>h</sup>which had been taken from before the LORD, in order to put hot bread in its place on the day when it was taken away.

<sup>7</sup>Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD. And his name was <sup>i</sup>Doeg, an Edomite, the chief of the herdsmen who belonged to Saul.

<sup>8</sup>And David said to Ahimelech, “Is there not here on hand a spear or a sword? For I have brought neither my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king’s business required haste.”

<sup>9</sup>So the priest said, “The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in <sup>j</sup>the Valley of Elah, <sup>k</sup>there it is, wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you will take that, take it. For there is no other except that one here.”

And David said, “There is none like it; give it to me.”

David Flees to Gath

<sup>10</sup>Then David arose and fled that day from before Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath. <sup>11</sup>And <sup>l</sup>the servants of Achish said to him, “Is this not David the king of the land? Did they not sing of him to one another in dances, saying:

<sup>m</sup>“Saul has slain his thousands,

David’s Four Hundred Men

22 David therefore departed from there and <sup>a</sup>escaped <sup>b</sup>to the cave of Adullam. So when his brothers and all his father’s house heard it, they went down there to him. <sup>2c</sup>And everyone who was in distress, everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented gathered to him. So he became captain over them.

*21:11 Compare 1 Samuel 18:7

21:1 Nob. Nob was a Levitical community in Benjamin where the tabernacle was located after it was in Shiloh. Ahimelech. Ahimelech, the great-grandson of Eli, was serving as high priest.

21:4 no common bread. Ahimelech explained that the only bread available was holy bread, sometimes called the “showbread,” which had been displayed before the Lord in the tabernacle (Ex. 25:30; Lev. 24:5–9). According to God’s law, this bread could be eaten only by priests.

21:6 gave him holy bread. This was the bread that had been displayed before the Lord for a week, and was removed for fresh bread. In giving the bread to David, Ahimelech broke the law, yet in his compassion he kept the spirit of the law. Jesus referred to this incident when He explained to the Pharisees that it was all right to pick grain to eat on the Sabbath (Matt. 12:2–4).

21:7 detained before the LORD. Apparently Doeg, although he was not an Israelite, was at the tabernacle under a spiritual vow.

21:10 Gath. Gath was one of the five major cities of the Philistines (6:17).

21:12–13 Achish the king of Gath. These verses provide the background for Psalms 34 and 56. In Psalm 34 Achish is referred to as Abimelech, which was apparently a dynastic title used by the Philistine rulers (Gen. 26:1).

22:1 cave of Adullam. The cave near the city of Adullam was about ten miles southeast of Gath and sixteen miles southwest of Jerusalem. It was here that David composed Psalm 142, and possibly Psalm 57.

22:2 everyone who was in distress . . . debt. The men who gathered around David were not so much taking sides with him as escaping Saul. The sense of desolation in Psalm 142:4 reflects David’s feeling of being all alone. became captain over them. Nevertheless, David organized them, governed them, and made them into a loyal and obedient unit.

<sup>3</sup>Then David went from there to Mizpah of <sup>e</sup>Moab; and he said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and mother come here with you, till I know what God will do for me." <sup>4</sup>So he brought them before the king of Moab, and they dwelt with him all the time that David was in the stronghold.

<sup>5</sup>Now the prophet <sup>f</sup>Gad said to David, "Do not stay in the stronghold; depart, and go to the land of Judah." So David departed and went into the forest of Hereth.

Saul Murders the Priests

<sup>6</sup>When Saul heard that David and the men who were with him had been discovered—now Saul was staying in <sup>g</sup>Gibeah under a tamarisk tree in Ramah, with his spear in his hand, and all his servants standing about him—<sup>7</sup>then Saul said to his servants who stood about him, "Hear now, you Benjamites! Will the son of Jesse <sup>h</sup>give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands and captains of hundreds? <sup>8</sup>All of you have conspired against me, and there is no one who reveals to me that <sup>i</sup>my son has made a covenant with the son of Jesse; and there is not one of you who is sorry for me or reveals to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as it is this day."

<sup>9</sup>Then answered <sup>j</sup>Doeg the Edomite, who was set over the servants of Saul, and said, "I saw the son of Jesse going to Nob, to <sup>k</sup>Ahimelech the son of <sup>l</sup>Ahitub. <sup>10m</sup>And he inquired of the LORD for him, <sup>n</sup>gave him provisions, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

<sup>11</sup>So the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests who were in Nob. And they all came to the king. <sup>12</sup>And Saul said, "Hear now, son of Ahitub!"

He answered, "Here I am, my lord."

<sup>13</sup>Then Saul said to him, "Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in that you have given him bread and a sword, and have inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as it is this day?"

<sup>14</sup>So Ahimelech answered the king and said, "And who among all your servants is as <sup>o</sup>faithful as David, who is the king's son-in-law, who goes at your bidding, and is honorable in your house? <sup>15</sup>Did I then begin to inquire of God for him? Far be it from me! Let not the king impute anything to his servant, or to any in the house of my father. For your servant knew nothing of all this, little or much."

<sup>16</sup>And the king said, "You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you and all <sup>p</sup>your father's house!" <sup>17</sup>Then the king said to the guards who stood about him, "Turn and kill the priests of the LORD, because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled and did not tell it to me." But the servants of the king <sup>q</sup>would not lift their hands to strike the priests of the LORD. <sup>18</sup>And the king said to Doeg, "You turn and kill the priests!" So Doeg the Edomite turned and struck the priests, and <sup>r</sup>killed on that day eighty-five men who wore a linen ephod. <sup>19s</sup>Also Nob, the city of the priests, he struck with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and nursing infants, oxen and donkeys and sheep—with the edge of the sword.

<sup>20t</sup>Now one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, <sup>u</sup>escaped and fled after David. <sup>21</sup>And Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the LORD's priests. <sup>22</sup>So David said to Abiathar, "I knew that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I have caused the death of all the persons of your father's house. <sup>23</sup>Stay with me; do not fear. <sup>v</sup>For he who seeks my life seeks your life, but with me you shall be safe."

David Saves the City of Keilah

23 Then they told David, saying, "Look, the Philistines are fighting against <sup>w</sup>Keilah, and they are robbing the threshing floors."

<sup>2</sup>Therefore David <sup>b</sup>inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go and attack these Philistines?"

And the LORD said to David, "Go and attack the Philistines, and save Keilah."

<sup>3</sup>But David's men said to him, "Look, we are afraid here in Judah. How much more then if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?" <sup>4</sup>Then David inquired of the LORD once again.

And the LORD answered him and said, "Arise, go down to Keilah. For I will deliver the Philistines into your hand." <sup>5</sup>And David and his men went to Keilah and <sup>c</sup>fought with the Philistines, struck them with a mighty blow, and took away their livestock. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

22:18 Doeg. Only Doeg, who was a descendant of Esau, but not an Israelite, was willing to kill the priests of the living God.

22:22 I have caused the death. David felt responsible for the death of the priests and their families because he knew that he was jeopardizing them by receiving help from them. He knew Doeg would betray him, and he felt that he should have done something to prevent this or to warn the priests.

son of Ahimelech <sup>d</sup>fled to David at Keilah, that he went down with an ephod in his hand.

<sup>7</sup>And Saul was told that David had gone to Keilah. So Saul said, "God has delivered him into my hand, for he has shut himself in by entering a town that has gates and bars." <sup>8</sup>Then Saul called all the people together for war, to go down to Keilah to besiege David and his men.

<sup>9</sup>When David knew that Saul plotted evil against him, <sup>e</sup>he said to Abiathar the priest, "Bring the ephod here." <sup>10</sup>Then David said, "O LORD God of Israel, Your servant has certainly heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah <sup>f</sup>to destroy the city for my sake. <sup>11</sup>Will the men of Keilah deliver me into his hand? Will Saul come down, as Your servant has heard? O LORD God of Israel, I pray, tell Your servant."

And the LORD said, "He will come down."

<sup>12</sup>Then David said, "Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul?"

And the LORD said, "They will deliver you."

<sup>13</sup>So David and his men, <sup>g</sup>about six hundred, arose and departed from Keilah and went wherever they could go. Then it was told Saul that David had escaped from Keilah; so he halted the expedition.

David in Wilderness Strongholds

<sup>14</sup>And David stayed in strongholds in the wilderness, and remained in <sup>h</sup>the mountains in the Wilderness of <sup>i</sup>Ziph. Saul <sup>j</sup>sought him every day, but God did not deliver him into his hand. <sup>15</sup>So David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life. And David was in the Wilderness of Ziph in a forest.* <sup>16</sup>Then Jonathan, Saul's son, arose and went to David in the woods and strengthened his hand in God. <sup>17</sup>And he said to him, <sup>k</sup>"Do not fear, for the hand of Saul my father shall not find you. You shall be king over Israel, and I shall be next to you. <sup>18</sup>Even my father Saul knows that." <sup>18</sup>So the two of them <sup>m</sup>made a covenant before the LORD. And David stayed in the woods, and Jonathan went to his own house.

<sup>19</sup>Then the Ziphites <sup>n</sup>came up to Saul at Gibeah, saying, "Is David not hiding with us in strongholds in the woods, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of Jeshimon?" <sup>20</sup>Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of your soul to come down; and <sup>o</sup>our part shall be to deliver him into the king's hand."

<sup>21</sup>And Saul said, "Blessed are you of the LORD, for you have compassion on me.

<sup>22</sup>Please go and find out for sure, and see the place where his hideout is, and who has seen him there. For I am told he is very crafty. <sup>23</sup>See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hides; and come back to me with certainty, and I will go with you. And it shall be, if he is in the land, that I will search for him throughout all the clans* of Judah."

<sup>24</sup>So they arose and went to Ziph before Saul. But David and his men were in the Wilderness <sup>p</sup>of Maon, in the plain on the south of Jeshimon. <sup>25</sup>When Saul and his men went to seek him, they told David. Therefore he went down to the rock, and stayed in the Wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he pursued David in the Wilderness of Maon. <sup>26</sup>Then Saul went on one side of the mountain, and David and his men on the other side of the mountain. <sup>q</sup>So David made haste to get away from Saul, for Saul and his men <sup>r</sup>were encircling David and his men to take them.

<sup>27</sup>But a messenger came to Saul, saying, "Hurry and come, for the Philistines have invaded the land!" <sup>28</sup>Therefore Saul returned from pursuing David, and went against the Philistines; so they called that place the Rock of Escape.* <sup>29</sup>Then David went up from there and dwelt in strongholds at <sup>En</sup>Gedi.

23:14 Wilderness of Ziph. This barren region about four miles southeast of Hebron had many caves and ravines in which David and his men could hide.

23:16–18 strengthened his hand in God. Visiting David was risky, for Saul considered David his enemy. Jonathan was treading a narrow line between following his own convictions and obeying his father. He had a fervent love for God, and encouraged David to continue in his obedient walk with the Lord at a time when David must have been feeling very discouraged and alone.

23:17–18 Love—Love "rejoices in the truth" (1 Cor. 13:6). Jonathan had the happy faculty of delighting in the Lord's plan. He is never seen comparing his role with David's role, but he continually encouraged David to live up to the great responsibility that God had given him. Jonathan was the kind of friend that we all need and seldom find. If we want to put love into action, we can look at Jonathan and rejoice with our friends over the great favor God has shown them, encourage them to remain faithful to their calling, and remind them that we will be "next to them," if not in fact, then in prayer.

23:19 Jeshimon. Jeshimon is the barren wilderness of Judah.

23:19–29 Is David not hiding with us. The background for Psalm 54 is David's narrow escape from being captured by Saul.

David Sparing Saul

24 Now it happened, <sup>a</sup>when Saul had returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, “Take note! David is in the Wilderness of En Gedi.” <sup>2</sup>Then Saul took three thousand chosen men from all Israel, and <sup>b</sup>went to seek David and his men on the Rocks of the Wild Goats. <sup>3</sup>So he came to the sheepfolds by the road, where there was a cave; and <sup>c</sup>Saul went in to <sup>d</sup>attend to his needs. (<sup>e</sup>David and his men were staying in the recesses of the cave.) <sup>4</sup>Then the men of David said to him, “This is the day of which the LORD said to you, ‘Behold, I will deliver your enemy into your hand, that you may do to him as it seems good to you.’” And David arose and secretly cut off a corner of Saul’s robe. <sup>5</sup>Now it happened afterward that <sup>f</sup>David’s heart troubled him because he had cut Saul’s robe. <sup>6</sup>And he said to his men, <sup>h</sup>“The LORD forbid that I should do this thing to my master, the LORD’s anointed, to stretch out my hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the LORD.” <sup>7</sup>So David <sup>i</sup>restrained his servants with these words, and did not allow them to rise against Saul. And Saul got up from the cave and went on his way.

<sup>8</sup>David also arose afterward, went out of the cave, and called out to Saul, saying, “My lord the king!” And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed down. <sup>9</sup>And David said to Saul: <sup>j</sup>“Why do you listen to the words of men who say, ‘Indeed David seeks your harm?’ <sup>10</sup>Look, this day your eyes have seen that the LORD delivered you today into my hand in the cave, and someone urged me to kill you. But my eye spared you, and I said, ‘I will not stretch out my hand against my lord, for he is the LORD’s anointed.’ <sup>11</sup>Moreover, my father, see! Yes, see the corner of your robe in my hand! For in that I cut off the corner of your robe, and did not kill you, know and see that there is <sup>k</sup>neither evil nor rebellion in my hand, and I have not sinned against you. Yet you <sup>l</sup>hunt my life to take it. <sup>12m</sup>Let the LORD judge between you and me, and let the LORD avenge me on you. But my hand shall not be against you. <sup>13</sup>As the proverb of the ancients says, <sup>n</sup>“Wickedness proceeds from the wicked.” But my hand shall not be against you. <sup>14</sup>After whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom do you pursue? <sup>o</sup>A dead dog? <sup>p</sup>A flea? <sup>15q</sup>Therefore let the LORD be judge, and judge between you and me, and <sup>r</sup>see and <sup>s</sup>plead my case, and deliver me out of your hand.”

<sup>16</sup>So it was, when David had finished speaking these words to Saul, that Saul said, “Is this your voice, my son David?” And Saul lifted up his voice and wept. <sup>17r</sup>Then he said to David: “You are <sup>v</sup>more righteous than I; for <sup>w</sup>you have rewarded me with good, whereas I have rewarded you with evil. <sup>18</sup>And you have shown this day how you have dealt well with me; for when <sup>x</sup>the LORD delivered me into your hand, you did not kill me. <sup>19</sup>For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him get away safely? Therefore may the LORD reward you with good for what you have done to me this day. <sup>20</sup>And now <sup>y</sup>I know indeed that you shall surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand. <sup>21z</sup>Therefore swear now to me by the LORD <sup>a</sup>that you will not cut off my descendants after me, and that you will not destroy my name from my father’s house.”

Death of Samuel

25 Then <sup>a</sup>Samuel died; and the Israelites gathered together and <sup>b</sup>lamented for him, and buried him at his home in Ramah. And David arose and went down <sup>c</sup>to the Wilderness of Paran.*

* 25:1 Following Masoretic Text, Syriac, Targum, and Vulgate; Septuagint reads Maon.

24:3 sheepfolds. At night shepherds in the wild area would gather their sheep into a protective rock enclosure. A low stone wall would keep the sheep from wandering, and the shepherd would position himself at the entrance to keep guard. Often a cave with a wall built across its mouth served as a sheepcote.

24:10–12 Mercy—David does not say the words, “I forgive you,” in this passage, but he speaks as one who has forgiven Saul for his foolish and violent acts against himself. A big part of forgiving an unrepentant individual is deliberately putting the whole situation in God’s hands, knowing that it is only God who can judge rightly. God will vindicate the innocent, and punish the guilty, if necessary.

24:12 my hand shall not be against you. David knew that the Lord had anointed him to be the king to succeed Saul, and Saul knew it too. Saul, probably thinking of how he himself would have responded, was sure that David would seize power and oust him with trickery and violence. David had to prove to Saul that he was not going to harm him, and the only way to do this was to turn down every opportunity he had to kill the king. It was God’s job, and His alone, to arrange the transfer of power from Saul to David.

24:22 David swore to Saul. David agreed to Saul’s requests, and he kept his promise (2 Sam. 9:1–13; 21:1–14), as Saul knew he would. However, David had no great confidence in the lasting value of Saul’s expressions of remorse, so David remained in hiding.

David and the Wife of Nabal

<sup>2</sup>Now there was a man <sup>d</sup>in Maon whose business was in <sup>e</sup>Carmel, and the man was very rich. He had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. And he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. <sup>3</sup>The name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife Abigail. And she was a woman of good understanding and beautiful appearance; but the man was harsh and evil in his doings. He was of the house of <sup>f</sup>Caleb.

<sup>4</sup>When David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was <sup>g</sup>shearing his sheep, <sup>5</sup>David sent ten young men; and David said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, go to Nabal, and greet him in my name. <sup>6</sup>And thus you shall say to him who lives in prosperity: <sup>h</sup>"Peace be to you, peace to your house, and peace to all that you have! <sup>7</sup>Now I have heard that you have shearers. Your shepherds were with us, and we did not hurt them, <sup>i</sup>nor was there anything missing from them all the while they were in Carmel. <sup>8</sup>Ask your young men, and they will tell you. Therefore let my young men find favor in your eyes, for we come on <sup>j</sup>a feast day. Please give whatever comes to your hand to your servants and to your son David."

<sup>9</sup>So when David's young men came, they spoke to Nabal according to all these words in the name of David, and waited.
