A House Divided Cannot Stand

<sup>22a</sup>Then one was brought to Him who was demon-possessed, blind and mute; and He healed him, so that the blind and* mute man both spoke and saw. <sup>23</sup>And all the multitudes were amazed and said, “Could this be the <sup>r</sup>Son of David?”

<sup>24s</sup>Now when the Pharisees heard it they said, “This fellow does not cast out demons except by Beelzebub,* the ruler of the demons.”

The Unpardonable Sin

12:31–32 blasphemy. The sin that shall not be forgiven is the stubborn refusal to heed the Holy Spirit’s conviction and accept the salvation that Christ offers. Particularly in reference to the leaders of Israel, Jesus had offered them all the proof that could be expected, such as the ministry of John, the testimony of the Father, the prophecies of the Old Testament, His own testimony, and the substantiation of the Holy Spirit. Because the leaders rejected all proofs regarding Jesus as Messiah, nothing else would be given.

12:39 the sign of the prophet Jonah. The demand for signs was evidence of unbelief. The “sign of the prophet Jonah” is explained in verse 40 as the resurrection.

12:41–42 The men of Nineveh . . . The queen of the South. These terms represent Gentiles who come to faith because of the words of God’s prophets and kings, lesser messengers than God’s only Son.

12:43 an unclean spirit. This analogy seems to be

A Tree Known by Its Fruit

The Scribes and Pharisees Ask for a Sign

<sup>39</sup>But He answered and said to them, “An evil and <sup>a</sup>adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. <sup>40</sup>For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. <sup>41s</sup>The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and <sup>h</sup>condemn it, <sup>i</sup>because they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and indeed a greater than Jonah is here. <sup>42</sup>The queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and indeed a greater than Solomon is here.

describing the moral reformation that took place in Israel as a result of the ministries of John the Baptist and Jesus. The reformation, however, was not genuine, and therefore Israel’s unbelief and hardness of heart was worse than before. In the same way, a person who decides to try religion without being born again, and then decides “it’s not for me,” is worse off than if they had never tried, because their hearts are hardened to God’s voice.

Jesus' Mother and Brothers Send for Him

<sup>48</sup>But He answered and said to the one who told Him, "Who is My mother and who are My brothers?" <sup>49</sup>And He stretched out His hand toward His disciples and said, "Here are My mother and My <sup>50</sup>brothers! <sup>50</sup>For whoever does the will of My Father in heaven is My brother and sister and mother."

The Parable of the Sower

13 On the same day Jesus went out of the house <sup>a</sup>and sat by the sea. <sup>2b</sup>And great multitudes were gathered together to Him, so that <sup>c</sup>He got into a boat and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

<sup>3</sup>Then He spoke many things to them in parables, saying: <sup>4a</sup>"Behold, a sower went out to sow. <sup>4</sup>And as he sowed, some seed fell by the wayside; and the birds came and devoured them. <sup>5</sup>Some fell on stony places, where they did not have much earth; and they immediately sprang up because they had no depth of earth. <sup>6</sup>But when the sun was up they were scorched, and because they had no root they withered away. <sup>7</sup>And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up and choked them. <sup>8</sup>But others fell on good ground and yielded a crop: some <sup>a</sup>a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. <sup>9</sup>He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

The Purpose of Parables

<sup>10</sup>And the disciples came and said to Him, "Why do You speak to them in parables?"

<sup>11</sup>He answered and said to them, "Because <sup>a</sup>it has been given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given. <sup>12b</sup>For whoever has, to him more will be given, and he will have abundance; but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. <sup>13</sup>Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand. <sup>14</sup>And in them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, which says:

And seeing you will see and not <sup>j</sup>perceive;

Lest they should understand with their hearts and turn,

*So that I should <sup>m</sup>heal them.**

<sup>16</sup>But <sup>n</sup>blessed are your eyes for they see, and your ears for they hear; <sup>17</sup>for assuredly, I say to you <sup>a</sup>that many prophets and righteous men desired to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.

The Parable of the Sower Explained

13:14–15 Spiritual Death—Genesis 3 teaches us that, through sin, man died spiritually. Here, Christ quotes from Isaiah 6 to detail the meaning of spiritual death: Our ability to perceive spiritual reality is absent. Key spiritual senses don't work as they were originally designed to work. We can't see the implications of spiritual events. We can't understand the meaning of spiritual words. It is as if our senses are dead. In order to have our spiritual senses restored, we need someone to heal us. Only Christ can provide the necessary healing to open our spiritual eyes and ears.

The Parable of the Wheat and the Tares

<sup>24</sup>Another parable He put forth to them, saying: “The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field; <sup>25</sup>but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat and went his way. <sup>26</sup>But when the grain had sprouted and produced a crop, then the tares also appeared. <sup>27</sup>So the servants of the owner came and said to him, ‘Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have tares?’ <sup>28</sup>He said to them, ‘An enemy has done this.’ The servants said to him, ‘Do you want us then to go and gather them up?’ <sup>29</sup>But he said, ‘No, lest while you gather up the tares you also uproot the wheat with them. <sup>30</sup>Let both grow together until the harvest, and at the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, “First gather together the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them, but <sup>x</sup>gather the wheat into my barn.”’”

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

The Parable of the Leaven

13:25 his enemy came and sowed tares. Tares are weeds which closely resemble wheat, but which do not produce good food. They are indistinguishable from the real wheat until the fruit appears. Just like the tares among the wheat, genuine believers and counterfeits will be allowed to remain together.

13:31 like a mustard seed. The parable of the mustard seed shows that the number of people who will inherit the kingdom will be very small at first, but it will grow to be completely out of proportion to its initial size.

13:33 like leaven. Although leaven is sometimes used in Scripture to symbolize evil, here the kingdom of heaven is being compared to the dynamic character of yeast. When yeast is mixed with the dough, it expands from within, causing the dough to grow. Rather than being powered by outward armies or organizations, the kingdom of God will grow by the internal power of the Holy Spirit.

Prophecy and the Parables

<sup>34c</sup>All these things Jesus spoke to the multitude in parables; and without a parable He did not speak to them, <sup>35</sup>that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying:

The Parable of the Tares Explained

<sup>36</sup>Then Jesus sent the multitude away and went into the house. And His disciples came to Him, saying, “Explain to us the parable of the tares of the field.”

<sup>37</sup>He answered and said to them: “He who sows the good seed is the Son of Man. <sup>38</sup>The field is the world, the good seeds are the sons of the kingdom, but the tares are <sup>g</sup>the sons of the wicked one. <sup>39</sup>The enemy who sowed them is the devil, <sup>h</sup>the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are the angels. <sup>40</sup>Therefore as the tares are gathered and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of this age. <sup>41</sup>The Son of Man will send out His angels, <sup>i</sup>and they will gather out of His kingdom all things that offend, and those who practice lawlessness, <sup>42</sup>and will cast them into the furnace of fire. <sup>k</sup>There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. <sup>43</sup>Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. <sup>m</sup>He who has ears to hear, let him hear!

The Parable of the Hidden Treasure

end of the age. The place of their eternal dwelling is described as a “furnace of fire,” perhaps because fire is one of man’s most vivid concepts of suffering. Some think that there is no real, actual hell of fire, and that instead the wicked simply cease to exist, but this is difficult to support. The Scriptures consistently speak of hell as a real place of torment and anguish for all who do not receive the salvation that Jesus offers.

13:44 like treasure. The main point here is the immense value of the kingdom, which far outweighs any sacrifice or inconvenience one might encounter on earth.

The Parable of the Pearl of Great Price

The Parable of the Dragnet

<sup>47</sup>“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet that was cast into the sea and <sup>48</sup>gathered some of every kind, <sup>48</sup>which, when it was full, they drew to shore; and they sat down and gathered the good into vessels, but threw the bad away. <sup>49</sup>So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come forth, <sup>50</sup>separate the wicked from among the just, <sup>50</sup>and cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth.”

They said to Him, “Yes, Lord.”*

<sup>52</sup>Then He said to them, “Therefore every scribe instructed concerning* the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings out of his treasure things new and old.”

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

<sup>53</sup>Now it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these parables, that He departed from there. <sup>54</sup>When He had come to His own country, He taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished and said, “Where did this Man get this wisdom and these mighty works? <sup>55</sup>Is this not the carpenter’s son? Is not His mother called Mary? And <sup>56</sup>His brothers <sup>56</sup>James, <sup>56</sup>Joses,* <sup>56</sup>Simon, and <sup>56</sup>Judas? <sup>56</sup>And His sisters, are they not all with us? Where then did this Man get all these things?” <sup>57</sup>So they <sup>57</sup>were offended at Him.

But Jesus said to them, <sup>58</sup>“A prophet is not without honor except in his own country and in his own house.” <sup>58</sup>Now <sup>59</sup>He did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

John the Baptist Beheaded

14 At that time <sup>1</sup>Herod the tetrarch heard the report about Jesus <sup>2</sup>and said to his servants, “This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead, and therefore these powers are at work in him.”

bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife. <sup>4</sup>Because John had said to him, “It is not lawful for you to have her.” <sup>5</sup>And although he wanted to put him to death, he feared the multitude, <sup>6</sup>because they counted him as a prophet.

<sup>9</sup>And the king was sorry; nevertheless, because of the oaths and because of those who sat with him, he commanded it to be given to her. <sup>10</sup>So he sent and had John beheaded in prison. <sup>11</sup>And his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother. <sup>12</sup>Then his disciples came and took away the body and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

Feeding the Five Thousand

<sup>13e</sup>When Jesus heard it, He departed from there by boat to a deserted place by Himself. But when the multitudes heard it, they followed Him on foot from the cities. <sup>14</sup>And when Jesus went out He saw a great multitude; and He <sup>15</sup>was moved with compassion for them, and healed their sick. <sup>15e</sup>When it was evening, His disciples came to Him, saying, “This is a deserted place, and the hour is already late. Send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages and buy themselves food.”

<sup>16b</sup>But Jesus said to them, “They do not need to go away. You give them something to eat.”

<sup>19</sup>Then He commanded the multitudes to sit down on the grass. And He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, <sup>20</sup>He blessed and broke and gave the loaves to the disciples; and the disciples gave to the multitudes. <sup>20</sup>So they all ate and were filled, and they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments that remained. <sup>21</sup>Now those who had eaten were

14:3 for the sake of Herodias. Herod had gone to Rome, where he met Herodias, the wife of his half brother Philip. After seducing Herodias, Herod divorced his own wife and married his sister-in-law.

John had rebuked the king for his moral transgressions.

Jesus Walks on the Sea

<sup>22</sup>Immediately Jesus made His disciples get into the boat and go before Him to the other side, while He sent the multitudes away. <sup>23</sup>And when He had sent the multitudes away, He went up on the mountain by Himself to pray. <sup>24</sup>Now when evening came, He was alone there. <sup>25</sup>But the boat was now in the middle of the sea,* tossed by the waves, for the wind was contrary.

<sup>26</sup>Now in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went to them, walking on the sea. <sup>27</sup>And when the disciples saw Him <sup>k</sup>walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out for fear.

<sup>29</sup>And Peter answered Him and said, "Lord, if it is You, command me to come to You on the water."

<sup>30</sup>So He said, "Come." And when Peter had come down out of the boat, he walked on the water to go to Jesus. <sup>31</sup>But when he saw that the wind was boisterous,* he was afraid; and beginning to sink he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me!"

<sup>32</sup>And immediately Jesus stretched out His hand and caught him, and said to him, "O you of <sup>m</sup>little faith, why did you doubt?" <sup>33</sup>And when they got into the boat, the wind ceased.

<sup>34</sup>Then those who were in the boat came and* worshiped Him, saying, "Truly <sup>n</sup>You are the Son of God."

Many Touch Him and Are Made Well

14:25 the fourth watch. This would be between 3:00 and 6:00 A.M.

15:2 the tradition of the elders. This was not the law of Moses, but oral tradition, based on interpretations of the law.

15:3 tradition. The scribes and Pharisees were placing their own views above the revelation of God, and yet claimed to be following Him.

15:7 Hypocrites. The Pharisees had laid down many rigid and inflexible laws concerning diet, Sabbath day activities, ceremonial washings, and many other traditions. Not only did this reduce spiritual service to a harsh system of dos and don'ts, it also caused

Defilement Comes from Within

15 Then <sup>a</sup>the scribes and Pharisees who were from Jerusalem came to Jesus, saying, <sup>2b</sup>"Why do Your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread."

<sup>3</sup>He answered and said to them, "Why do you also transgress the commandment of God because of your tradition? <sup>4</sup>For God commanded, saying, <sup>c</sup>"Honor your father and your mother";* and, <sup>d</sup>"He who curses father or mother, let him be put to death."* <sup>5</sup>But you say, "Whoever says to his father or mother, <sup>e</sup>"Whatever profit you might have received from me is a gift to God"—<sup>6</sup>then he need not honor his father or mother."* Thus you have made the commandment* of God of no effect by your tradition. <sup>7</sup>Hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy about you, saying:

And<sup>h</sup> honor Me with their lips,

<sup>10</sup>When He had called the multitude to Himself, He said to them, "Hear and understand: <sup>11</sup>Not what goes into the mouth defiles a man; but what comes out of the mouth, this defiles a man."

<sup>12</sup>Then His disciples came and said to Him, "Do You know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this saying?"

<sup>13</sup>But He answered and said, <sup>k</sup>"Every plant which My heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted. <sup>14</sup>Let them alone. <sup>15</sup>They are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind leads the blind, both will fall into a ditch."

everyone, Pharisees included, to look for loopholes of escape from the burden of so many laws and rules. The ultimate outcome was religious hypocrisy. Christ came both to fulfill the law (5:17–18) and also to free us from its penalty (Gal. 3:13).

A Gentile Shows Her Faith

<sup>26</sup>But He answered and said, "It is not good to take the children's bread and throw it to the little "dogs."

<sup>28</sup>Then Jesus answered and said to her, "O woman, <sup>v</sup>great is your faith! Let it be to you as you desire." And her daughter was healed from that very hour.

Jesus Heals Great Multitudes

<sup>29w</sup>Jesus departed from there, <sup>x</sup>skirted the Sea of Galilee, and went up to the mountain and sat down there. <sup>30y</sup>Then great multitudes came to Him, having with them the lame, blind, mute, maimed, and many others; and they laid them down at Jesus' <sup>z</sup>feet, and He healed them. <sup>31</sup>So the multitude marveled when they saw the mute speaking, the maimed made whole, the lame walking, and the blind seeing; and they <sup>a</sup>glorified the God of Israel.

Feeding the Four Thousand

<sup>32b</sup>Now Jesus called His disciples to Himself and said, "I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now continued with Me three days and have nothing to eat. And I do not want to send them away hungry, lest they faint on the way."

And they said, "Seven, and a few little fish."

The Pharisees and Sadducees Seek a Sign

16 Then the <sup>a</sup>Pharisees and Sadducees came, and testing Him asked that He would show them a sign from heaven. <sup>2</sup>He answered and said to them, "When it is evening you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red'; <sup>3</sup>and in the morning, 'It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and threatening.' Hypocrites! <sup>4</sup>You know how to discern the face of the sky, but you cannot discern the signs of the times. <sup>5a</sup>A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign shall be given to it except the sign of the prophet* Jonah." And He left them and departed.

15:18 come from the heart. As we think in our hearts, or inner beings, so we are. The raw material of our actions is what we take into our minds and allow to settle in our hearts. David put it this way: "Your word I have hidden in my heart, that I might not sin against You" (Ps. 119:11). The other side is seen in Psalm 101:3 "I will set nothing wicked before my eyes." Paul says the believer must bring "every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ" (2 Cor. 10:5).

15:22 Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David. The woman was a Gentile who would have had no natural claim on the Jewish Messiah.

The Leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees

<sup>8</sup>But Jesus, being aware of it, said to them, “O you of little faith, why do you reason among yourselves because you have brought no bread?” <sup>9</sup>“Do you not yet understand, or remember the five loaves of the five thousand and how many baskets you took up? <sup>10</sup>Nor the seven loaves of the four thousand and how many large baskets you took up? <sup>11</sup>How is it you do not understand that I did not speak to you concerning bread?—but to beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

<sup>12</sup>Then they understood that He did not tell them to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Peter Confesses Jesus as the Christ

against it. <sup>19a</sup>And I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed* in heaven.”

<sup>20</sup>Then He commanded His disciples that they should tell no one that He was Jesus the Christ.

Jesus Predicts His Death and Resurrection

<sup>21</sup>From that time Jesus began stto show to His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem, and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised the third day.

<sup>22</sup>Then Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him, saying, “Far be it from You, Lord; this shall not happen to You!”

<sup>23</sup>But He turned and said to Peter, “Get behind Me, ‘Satan!’ <sup>u</sup>You are an offense to Me, for you are not mindful of the things of God, but the things of men.”

Take Up the Cross and Follow Him

* 16:19 Or will have been bound ... will have been loosed

16:11–12 leaven. In Scripture, leaven is often used as a symbol of evil. The doctrine of the Pharisees and Sadducees was hypocrisy and legalism, political opportunism, and spiritual hardness.

16:16 *Church—Peter’s confession “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God” is the foundation on which the church is built. Never mind how small the apostolic band may be, the church is indestructible, and with unsurpassed power overcomes Satan and cannot be overcome. The power comes from God, the Creator of the universe, Owner and Master of the church. All the church has is derived from and dependent on the Almighty Son of God.

16:18 *The Origin of the Church—The church was a mystery (not clearly revealed) in the Old Testament. Christ prophesied in these words spoken to Peter, “on this rock I will build My church.” There is a play here on the word rock, which also happens to be Peter’s name. Jesus said, “you are Peter” (masculine, petros) and “on this rock” (feminine, petra) “I will build My church.” The Holy Spirit came upon the church on the Day of Pentecost in response to Peter’s sermon when “three thousand souls were added to them” (Acts 2:41). This group, along with the original disciples, became “the church.”

16:28 not taste death. In the transfiguration, Peter, James, and John saw a preview of the kingdom. Jesus was explaining that very soon those three disciples would see Him glorified as He will be in the kingdom.

Jesus Transfigured on the Mount

<sup>9</sup>Now as they came down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, “Tell the vision to no one until the Son of Man is risen from the dead.”

<sup>11</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, “Indeed, Elijah is coming first* and will restore all things.” <sup>12i</sup>But I say to you that Elijah has come already, and they <sup>k</sup>did not know him but did to him whatever they wished. Likewise the Son of Man is also about to suffer at their hands.” <sup>13m</sup>Then the disciples understood that He spoke to them of John the Baptist.

A Boy Is Healed

<sup>14n</sup>And when they had come to the multitude, a man came to Him, kneeling down to Him and saying, <sup>15</sup>“Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is an epileptic* and suffers severely; for he often falls into the fire and often into the water. <sup>16</sup>So I brought him to Your disciples, but they could not cure him.”

long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him here to Me.”

<sup>18</sup>And Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him; and the child was cured from that very hour.

<sup>19</sup>Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, “Why could we not cast it out?”

<sup>20</sup>So Jesus said to them, “Because of your unbelief,* for assuredly, I say to you, <sup>q</sup>if you have faith as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” <sup>21</sup>However, this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting.”*

Jesus Again Predicts His Death and Resurrection

<sup>22r</sup>Now while they were staying* in Galilee, Jesus said to them, “The Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men, <sup>23</sup>and they will kill Him, and the third day He will be raised up.” And they were exceedingly <sup>s</sup>sorrowful.

Peter and His Master Pay Their Taxes

<sup>24t</sup>When they had come to Capernaum,* those who received the temple tax came to Peter and said, “Does your Teacher not pay the temple tax?”

And when he had come into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, “What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth take customs or taxes, from their sons or from <sup>u</sup>strangers?”

Jesus said to him, “Then the sons are free.” <sup>27</sup>Nevertheless, lest we offend them, go to the sea, cast in a hook, and take the fish that comes up first. And when you have opened its mouth, you will find a piece of money;* take that and give it to them for Me and you.”

17:3 Moses and Elijah. This amazing experience was not only to show the disciples that Jesus was God's Son, but also to show them that He supersedes the law and the prophets and that they were subordinate to Him. It also explained that what Jesus was doing was no mystery to the Old Testament. The Old Testament people had been long looking forward to the Messiah and His kingdom.

17:11–13 Elijah. Jesus indicates that the prophecies concerning Elijah had their fulfillment in John the Baptist, yet because the restoration is not complete, many conclude that the role of Elijah will be taken up by one of the two witnesses of Revelation 11:3–6.

17:24 temple tax. This was a tax given annually by every adult Jewish male over 20 years of age for maintaining the temple. It was based on Exodus 30:13, and amounted to two days' wages for a common laborer. 17:25 strangers. Most likely this means the king taxed the common people and not the imperial family.

Who Is the Greatest?

18 At that time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, “Who then is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?”

Jesus Warns of Offenses

<sup>8i</sup>“If your hand or foot causes you to sin, cut it off and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life lame or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet, to be cast into the everlasting fire. <sup>9</sup>And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes, to be cast into hell fire.

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

<sup>12m</sup>“What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them goes astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine and go to the mountains to seek the one that is straying? <sup>13</sup>And if he should find it, assuredly, I say to you, he rejoices more over that sheep than over the ninety-nine that did not go astray. <sup>14</sup>Even so it is not the <sup>n</sup>will of your Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

Dealing with a Sinning Brother

<sup>15</sup>“Moreover <sup>o</sup>if your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he hears you, <sup>p</sup>you have gained your brother. <sup>16</sup>But if he will not hear, take with you one or two more, that <sup>q</sup>“by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.”* <sup>17</sup>And if he refuses to hear them, tell it to the church. But if he refuses even to hear the church, let him be to you like a <sup>r</sup>heathen and a tax collector.

<sup>18</sup>“Assuredly, I say to you, <sup>s</sup>whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

<sup>19t</sup>“Again I say* to you that if two of you agree on earth concerning anything that they ask, <sup>u</sup>it will be done for them by My Father in heaven. <sup>20</sup>For where two or three are gathered <sup>v</sup>together in My name, I am there in the midst of them.”

The Parable of the Unforgiving Servant

<sup>21</sup>Then Peter came to Him and said, “Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? <sup>w</sup>Up to seven times?”

<sup>22</sup>Jesus said to him, “I do not say to you, <sup>x</sup>up to seven times, but up to seventy times seven. <sup>23</sup>Therefore the kingdom of heaven is like a certain king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants. <sup>24</sup>And when he had begun to settle accounts, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. <sup>25</sup>But as he was not able to pay, his master commanded <sup>y</sup>that he be sold, with

18:10 their angels. This verse seems to imply that angels watch over and serve His followers on earth (Heb. 1:14).

18:16 two or three witnesses. The principle of witnesses is taken from Deuteronomy 19:15. Evidently, in this case they are to witness that the offended brother is acting in good faith and the right spirit in attempting to work towards reconciliation. They would also be witnesses to any agreement.

18:17 church. Unfortunately “discipline” has sometimes been reduced to a merely negative concept. To be sure, discipline includes the notion of punishment and correction, but church discipline in this context clearly has the restoration of the offender in view. Severe measures may sometimes need to be taken with an erring brother or sister, but restoration and reconciliation should always be the goal.

18:22 seventy times seven. Some translations say “seventy-seven times.” Whichever number is used, the point is the same: be ready to forgive over and over again, past counting. This verse does not only apply to forgiveness for seventy times seven different sins. Sometimes, we may have to consciously decide to forgive and let go of an old hurt again and again, “seventy times seven.”

<sup>28</sup>“But that servant went out and found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii; and he laid hands on him and took him by the throat, saying, ‘Pay me what you owe!’<sup>29</sup> So his fellow servant fell down at his feet* and begged him, saying, ‘Have patience with me, and I will pay you all.’<sup>30</sup> And he would not, but went and threw him into prison till he should pay the debt.<sup>31</sup> So when his fellow servants saw what had been done, they were very grieved, and came and told their master all that had been done.<sup>32</sup> Then his master, after he had called him, said to him, ‘You wicked servant! I forgave you <sup>2</sup>all that debt because you begged me.<sup>33</sup> Should you not also have had compassion on your fellow servant, just as I had pity on you?’<sup>34</sup> And his master was angry, and delivered him to the torturers until he should pay all that was due to him.

<sup>35</sup>“So My heavenly Father also will do to you if each of you, from his heart, does not forgive his brother his trespasses.”*

Marriage and Divorce

19 Now it came to pass, <sup>a</sup>when Jesus had finished these sayings, that He departed from Galilee and came to the region of Judea beyond the Jordan.<sup>2b</sup> And great multitudes followed Him, and He healed them there.

<sup>3</sup>The Pharisees also came to Him, testing Him, and saying to Him, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for just any reason?”

<sup>4</sup>And He answered and said to them, “Have you not read that He who made* them at the beginning <sup>c</sup>made them male and female,*<sup>5</sup> and said, <sup>d</sup>For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh?*<sup>6</sup> So then, they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let not man separate.”

Jesus Teaches on Celibacy

<sup>11</sup>But He said to them, <sup>k</sup>“All cannot accept this saying, but only those to whom it has been given:<sup>12</sup> For there are eunuchs who were born thus from their mother’s womb, and <sup>l</sup>there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven’s sake. He who is able to accept it, let him accept it.”

Jesus Blesses Little Children

Jesus Counsels the Rich Young Ruler

18:35 forgive. This verse is a serious warning (1 John 4:20).

19:9 divorces his wife. When the Pharisees asked Jesus if divorce could ever be considered lawful, He did not fall into their trap. He took them back to Genesis and God’s original intent in marriage, one man and one woman for life (vv. 4–5; Gen. 1:27; 2:24). In spite of the “exception clause,” one thing is surely clear: God hates divorce (Mal. 2:15–16). Marriage is a divine arrangement that is intended to be permanent and inviolable. Straying from God’s path always has tragic consequences.

19:12 eunuchs. The term eunuch refers to a castrated man, whether by surgery, accident, or birth.

In the ancient world, eunuchs were put in charge of harems, because they had the physical strength and endurance of a man, but would not be a sexual threat to the women of the harem.

Jesus said, “‘You shall not murder,’ ‘You shall not commit adultery,’ ‘You shall not steal,’ ‘You shall not bear false witness,’<sup>19</sup> ‘Honor your father and your mother,’<sup>20</sup> and, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’”<sup>21</sup>

<sup>21</sup>Jesus said to him, “If you want to be perfect, ‘go, sell what you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me.”

<sup>22</sup>But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions.

With God All Things Are Possible

<sup>28</sup>So Jesus said to them, “Assuredly I say to you, that in the regeneration, when the Son of Man sits on the throne of His glory, ‘you who have followed Me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.’<sup>29</sup> And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife<sup>a</sup> or children or lands, for My name’s sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and inherit eternal life.<sup>30</sup> But many <sup>a</sup>who are first will be last, and the last first.”

The Parable of the Workers in the Vineyard

20 “For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. <sup>2</sup>Now when he had agreed with the laborers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard. <sup>3</sup>And he went out about the third hour and saw others standing idle in the marketplace, <sup>4</sup>and said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you.’ So they went. <sup>5</sup>Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise. <sup>6</sup>And about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing idle,<sup>a</sup> and said to them, ‘Why have you been standing here idle all day?’ <sup>7</sup>They said to him, ‘Because no one hired us.’ He said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right you will receive.’<sup>a</sup>

<sup>8</sup>“So when evening had come, the owner of the vineyard said to his steward, ‘Call the laborers and give them their wages, beginning with the last to the first.’<sup>9</sup> And when those came who were hired about the eleventh hour, they each received a denarius. <sup>10</sup>But when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise received each a denarius. <sup>11</sup>And when they had received it, they complained against the landowner, <sup>12</sup>saying, ‘These last men have worked only one hour, and you made them equal to us who have borne the burden and the heat of the day.’ <sup>13</sup>But he answered one of them and said, ‘Friend, I am doing you no wrong. Did you not agree with me for a denarius? <sup>14</sup>Take what is yours and go your way. I wish to give to this last man the same as to you. <sup>15</sup>Is it not lawful for me to do what I wish with my own things? Or <sup>b</sup>is your eye evil because I am good?’ <sup>16</sup><sup>c</sup>So the last will be first, and the first last. <sup>d</sup>For many are called, but few chosen.”<sup>a</sup>

19:21 sell what you have. This verse does not teach salvation by works (Rom. 3:23–24; Eph. 2:8–9). Rather, Jesus was proving that the rich young man could not have truly fulfilled all of the law of Moses. If he really loved his neighbor as the law required (Lev. 19:18), he would not have had any difficulty in giving away his wealth to the poor.

19:23–24 it is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom. The point of this seems to be that fear of losing one’s wealth can hold a person back to the extent that they will never become saved at all. One of the things that goes with being saved is saying, “God’s way, not my way.”

20:3 third hour. This was about 9:00 A.M.

20:5 the sixth and the ninth hour. This was about noon and about 3:00 P.M.

20:6 the eleventh hour. This was about 5:00 P.M. There would be only an hour or so left in the working day.

20:16 the last will be first. The workers who were collected without an agreement represent the Gentiles who are made equal with the Jewish people when salvation became available to all through Jesus Christ (Rom. 11:15; Eph. 2:13–15; 3:6).

Jesus a Third Time Predicts His Death and Resurrection

<sup>17e</sup>Now Jesus, going up to Jerusalem, took the twelve disciples aside on the road and said to them, <sup>18</sup>“Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and to the scribes; and they will condemn Him to death, <sup>19</sup>and deliver Him to the Gentiles to mock and to scourge and to crucify. And the third day He will rise again.”

Greatness Is Serving

She said to Him, “Grant that these two sons of mine may sit, one on Your right hand and the other on the left, in Your kingdom.”

<sup>22</sup>But Jesus answered and said, “You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?”

They said to Him, “We are able.”

<sup>23</sup>So He said to them, “You will indeed drink My cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with; but to sit on My right hand and on My left is not Mine to give, but it is for those for whom it is prepared by My Father.”

<sup>24</sup>And when the ten heard it, they were greatly displeased with the two brothers.

<sup>25</sup>But Jesus called them to Himself and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those who are great exercise authority over them. <sup>26</sup>Yet it shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become great among you, let him be your servant. <sup>27</sup>And whoever desires to be first among you, let him be your slave—<sup>28</sup>just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many.”

Two Blind Men Receive Their Sight

<sup>29a</sup>Now as they went out of Jericho, a great multitude followed Him. <sup>30</sup>And behold, two blind men sitting by the road, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, “Have mercy on us, O Lord, Son of David!”

<sup>31</sup>Then the multitude warned them that they should be quiet; but they cried out all the more, saying, “Have mercy on us, O Lord, Son of David!”

<sup>32</sup>So Jesus stood still and called them, and said, “What do you want Me to do for you?”

<sup>33</sup>They said to Him, “Lord, that our eyes may be opened.” <sup>34</sup>So Jesus had compassion and touched their eyes. And immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed Him.

The Triumphal Entry

21 Now when they drew near Jerusalem, and came to Bethphage, at the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, saying to them, “Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Loose them and bring them to Me. <sup>3</sup>And if anyone says anything to you, you shall say, ‘The Lord has need of them,’ and immediately he will send them.”

Lowly, and sitting on a donkey,
A colt, the foal of a donkey.’”

“Hosanna to the Son of David!
Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!”
Hosanna in the highest!”

<sup>10h</sup>And when He had come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, “Who is this?”

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

<sup>12i</sup>Then Jesus went into the temple of God* and drove out all those who bought and sold in the temple, and overturned the tables of the <sup>k</sup>money changers and the seats of those who sold doves. <sup>13</sup>And He said to them, “It is written, <sup>l</sup>My house shall be called a house of prayer;* but you have made it a <sup>m</sup>den of thieves.”*

<sup>14</sup>Then the blind and the lame came to Him in the temple, and He healed them. <sup>15</sup>But when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that He did, and the children crying out in the temple and saying, “Hosanna to the <sup>n</sup>Son of David!” they were indignant <sup>16</sup>and said to Him, “Do You hear what these are saying?”

And Jesus said to them, “Yes. Have you never read,

The Fig Tree Withered

<sup>18q</sup>Now in the morning, as He returned to the city, He was hungry. <sup>19r</sup>And seeing a fig tree by the road, He came to it and found nothing on it but leaves, and said to it, “Let no fruit grow on you ever again.” Immediately the fig tree withered away.

The Lesson of the Withered Fig Tree

<sup>20s</sup>And when the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, “How did the fig tree wither away so soon?”

<sup>21</sup>So Jesus answered and said to them, “Assuredly, I say to you, <sup>t</sup>if you have faith and <sup>u</sup>do not doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, <sup>v</sup>but also if you say to this mountain, ‘Be removed and be cast into the sea,’ it will be done. <sup>22</sup>And <sup>w</sup>whatever things you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive.”

Jesus’ Authority Questioned

<sup>23x</sup>Now when He came into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people confronted Him as He was teaching, and <sup>y</sup>said, “By what authority are You doing these things? And who gave You this authority?”

<sup>24</sup>But Jesus answered and said to them, “I also will ask you one thing, which if you tell Me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things: <sup>25</sup>The <sup>z</sup>baptism of <sup>a</sup>John—where was it from? From heaven or from men?”

And they reasoned among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say to us, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’ <sup>26</sup>But if we say, ‘From men,’ we <sup>b</sup>fear the multitude, <sup>c</sup>for all count John as a prophet.” <sup>27</sup>So they answered Jesus and said, “We do not know.”

And He said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.

The Parable of the Two Sons

<sup>28</sup>“But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first and said, ‘Son, go, work today in my <sup>d</sup>vineyard.’ <sup>29</sup>He answered and said, ‘I will not,’ but afterward he regretted it and went. <sup>30</sup>Then he came to the second and said likewise. And he answered and said, ‘I go, sir,’ but he did not go. <sup>31</sup>Which of the two did the will of his father?”

They said to Him, “The first.”

Jesus said to them, <sup>e</sup>“Assuredly, I say to you that tax collectors and harlots enter the kingdom of God before you. <sup>32</sup>For <sup>f</sup>John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him; <sup>g</sup>but tax collectors and harlots believed him; and when you saw it, you did not afterward relent and believe him.

The Parable of the Wicked Vinedressers

21:19 Immediately. This does not necessarily mean instantly; it may have the idea of “very soon” as in Luke 19:11. (The account of this miracle in Mark 11:12–14, 20–21 indicates some time passing.)

21:21 faith. Few if any besides our Savior will reach this kind of faith in its fullness. However, as each believer approaches such faith in prayer, his effort will be rewarded. Answers are always given, even to the feeblest prayers of faith.

21:33 planted a vineyard. The owner of the vineyard was God; the vinedressers were the people of Israel. The servants represent God’s messengers, and the son is Jesus the Messiah.

a far country. <sup>34</sup>Now when vintage-time drew near, he sent his servants to the vinedressers, that they might receive its fruit. <sup>35</sup>And the vinedressers took his servants, beat one, killed one, and stoned another. <sup>36</sup>Again he sent other servants, more than the first, and they did likewise to them. <sup>37</sup>Then last of all he sent his <sup>k</sup>son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' <sup>38</sup>But when the vinedressers saw the son, they said among themselves, 'This is the heir. <sup>m</sup>Come, let us kill him and seize his inheritance.' <sup>39</sup>So they took him and cast him out of the vineyard and killed him.

Has become the chief cornerstone.
This was the LORD's doing,
And it is marvelous in our eyes?'*<sup>s</sup>

The Parable of the Wedding Feast

22 And Jesus answered <sup>a</sup>and spoke to them again by parables and said: <sup>2</sup>"The kingdom of heaven is like a certain king who arranged a marriage for his son, <sup>3</sup>and sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding; and they were not willing to come. <sup>4</sup>Again, he sent out other servants, saying, 'Tell those who are invited, "See, I have prepared my dinner; <sup>b</sup>my oxen and fatted cattle are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the wedding.'"<sup>c</sup> <sup>5</sup>But they made light of it and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his business. <sup>6</sup>And the rest seized his servants, treated them spitefully, and killed them. <sup>7</sup>But when the king heard about it, he was furious. And he sent out <sup>c</sup>his armies, destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city. <sup>8</sup>Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited were not <sup>d</sup>worthy. <sup>9</sup>Therefore go into the highways, and as many as you find, invite to the wedding.' <sup>10</sup>So those servants went out into the highways and <sup>e</sup>gathered together all whom they found, both bad and good. And the wedding hall was filled with guests.

The Pharisees: Is It Lawful to Pay Taxes to Caesar?

<sup>15</sup>Then the Pharisees went and plotted how they might entangle Him in His talk. <sup>16</sup>And they sent to Him their disciples with the <sup>k</sup>Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that You are true, and teach the way of God in truth; nor do You care about anyone, for You do not regard the person of men. <sup>17</sup>Tell us, therefore, what do You think? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

So they brought Him a denarius.

21:42 cornerstone. The rejected stone was the Messiah, who became the head cornerstone, the one holding the whole building together (Ps. 118:22–23). 22:11 did not have on a wedding garment. Like the others, this visitor had been invited to the wedding, but he failed to prepare himself for it. In Revelation, the garment of fine linen worn by the bride of the Lamb is said to be the righteous deeds of the saints (Rev. 19:8). In this parable the garment may refer to the righteousness of Christ, graciously provided for us through His death. To refuse to put it on would mean a refusal of Christ's sacrifice.

22:14 many are called, but few are chosen. All Israel has been invited, but only a few will accept and follow Jesus. Not all those invited will be among the chosen of God, for not all will believe.

The Sadducees: What About the Resurrection?

The Scribes: Which Is the First Commandment of All?

is the first and great commandment. <sup>39</sup>And the second is like it: <sup>v</sup>"You shall love your neighbor as yourself."* <sup>40</sup>On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets."

Jesus: How Can David Call His Descendant Lord?

<sup>41</sup>While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, <sup>42</sup>saying, "What do you think about the Christ? Whose Son is He?"

They said to Him, "The <sup>b</sup>Son of David."

Woe to the Scribes and Pharisees

22:21 things that are Caesar's. When one subjects oneself to the state and accepts its protection and benefits, one is obligated to support it and obey its laws until it becomes sinful to do so (Rom. 13:1–7; 1 Pet. 2:13–17). But giving back to God what is His reaches far deeper than obedience to the state. Man has a duty to give himself to God, with all he is and all that he has.

22:42–45 Christ . . . Whose Son is He? The Old Testament foretold that the Messiah would come from David's royal line (2 Sam. 7:12–16; Ps. 89:3–4, 34–36; Is. 9:7; 16:5; 55:3–4).

22:44 The LORD said to my Lord. The Hebrew text of Psalm 110:1 uses two different Hebrew words for "Lord." The first, translated "LORD," is the name Yahweh, the proper name of Israel's God. The second "Lord" means "master." David, the great king of Israel, calls one of his offspring "Lord" or "master." The implication is that Jesus, the Son of David, is divine.

23:5 phylacteries. Phylacteries were small boxes containing specific Scripture passages, in fulfillment of Deuteronomy 6:8 (Ex. 13:9, 16; Prov. 3:3; 6:21; 7:3). They were worn on the forehead or arm. In order to be seen as especially righteous, some Pharisees wore conspicuously large phylacteries.

23:7 Rabbi. The title "rabbi" means "teacher."

of extortion and self-indulgence.* <sup>26</sup>Blind Pharisee, first cleanse the inside of the cup and dish, that the outside of them may be clean also.

<sup>29</sup>"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you build the tombs of the prophets and adorn the monuments of the righteous, <sup>30</sup>and say, 'If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.'

Jesus Laments over Jerusalem

23:24 swallow a camel. The Pharisees would literally "strain out a gnat" in order not to violate Leviticus 11:41–43, but they swallowed "a camel" by neglecting mercy, justice, and faith.

23:25–26 but inside. The inside of the cup represents a person's character. Sometimes those who most loudly protest the sins of others are secretly guilty of those or worse sins themselves.

23:35 Abel . . . Zechariah. Abel was the first person murdered in the Old Testament (Gen. 4:8); Zechariah was the last. His death is recorded in 2 Chronicles 24:20–22, the last book of the Hebrew canon.

Jesus Predicts the Destruction of the Temple

24 Then <sup>a</sup>Jesus went out and departed from the temple, and His disciples came up to show Him the buildings of the temple. <sup>2</sup>And Jesus said to them, “Do you not see all these things? Assuredly, I say to you, <sup>b</sup>not one stone shall be left here upon another, that shall not be thrown down.”

The Signs of the Times and the End of the Age

<sup>3</sup>Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, <sup>c</sup>the disciples came to Him privately, saying, <sup>d</sup>“Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the age?”

tribulation and kill you, and you will be hated by all nations for My name’s sake. <sup>10</sup>And then many will be offended, will betray one another, and will hate one another. <sup>11</sup>Then <sup>l</sup>many false prophets will rise up and <sup>m</sup>deceive many. <sup>12</sup>And because lawlessness will abound, the love of many will grow <sup>n</sup>cold. <sup>13</sup>But he who endures to the end shall be saved. <sup>14</sup>And this <sup>p</sup>gospel of the kingdom <sup>q</sup>will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come.

The Great Tribulation

24:1 temple. The first temple, built by Solomon, was destroyed by the Babylonians in 586 B.C. The second temple, built under the encouragement of Haggai and Zechariah, and the leadership of Zerubbabel and Joshua (Hag. 1:1), was completed after considerable delay in 516 B.C. This second temple was lavishly restored by Herod the Great, but not completed until A.D. 64. It stood completed for only six years before it was reduced to rubble by the Romans. The devastation in A.D. 70 was so complete that the precise location is still unknown today.

24:4 Take heed that no one deceives you. Jesus’ warning about being deceived was especially appropriate for the disciples. The destruction of Jerusalem did not necessarily mean the nearness of the end of the age. This principle was a point of confusion for them (Luke 19:11–27; Acts 1:6–7).

24:6 must come to pass. This indicates a divine or logical necessity. Such things will happen because of the people’s sin. False messiahs had existed before (Acts 5:36–38) and false preachers would come in the future (Acts 20:29; 2 Cor. 11:13–15). Verses 4–6 may describe the first part of Daniel’s seventieth week (Dan. 9:25–27), but possibly they present a general picture of the present age.

24:7 famines . . . and earthquakes. These disasters are more fully described in Revelation 6:1–8; 8:5–23; 9:13–21; and 16:2–21.

24:10 Apostasy.—Satan is a subtle adversary who works as an angel of light through false religious teachers (2 Cor. 11:14–15), and many will be misled. Apostasy is also the result of persecution. Jesus speaks of temporary faith, and says that a falling away often occurs when “tribulation or persecution arises because of the word” (13:21). Perseverance in faith and in the accompanying results of faith are positive evidence of a genuine Christian profession.

24:15 abomination of desolation. The abomination of desolation literally means “the abomination that makes desolate.” This prophecy comes from Daniel, specifically Daniel 9:27; 11:31; 12:11. Many believe that Daniel 11:31 refers to Antiochus IV, who desecrated the temple by sacrificing a pig on its altar and setting up an idol to Zeus in it. His actions were certainly a prelude to what the ultimate “man of sin” will do. In A.D. 70, Titus destroyed Jerusalem, burned the temple, and set up an idol to mock the Jews. Significantly, Paul speaks of the Antichrist at the end times also setting himself up as a god (2 Thess. 2:3–4; Rev. 13:14–15).

24:16 flee. At the time of the war ending in the destruction of the temple in A.D. 70, many of the Christians did flee, hiding in the clefts of Petra. Some believe that the final fulfillment of this prophecy will occur in the future desecration of the temple (Dan. 9:27) and the subsequent setting up of an image of the “man of sin” in the Most Holy Place.

be. <sup>22</sup>And unless those days were shortened, no flesh would be saved; <sup>w</sup>but for the elect's sake those days will be shortened.

<sup>26</sup>“Therefore if they say to you, ‘Look, He is in the desert!’ do not go out; or ‘Look, He is in the inner rooms!’ do not believe it. <sup>27a</sup>For as the lightning comes from the east and flashes to the west, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. <sup>28b</sup>For wherever the carcass is, there the eagles will be gathered together.

The Coming of the Son of Man

<sup>29c</sup>“Immediately after the tribulation of those days <sup>a</sup>the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. <sup>30</sup>Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, <sup>f</sup>and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. <sup>31g</sup>And He will send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

The Parable of the Fig Tree

24:24 signs and wonders. Miracles by themselves do not prove that something is of God (7:21–23; 2 Thess. 2:9; Rev. 13:13–15). The teaching of those who perform signs and wonders must be tested against correct doctrine (Deut. 13:1–5; 1 John 4:1–3), and by the witness of God's Spirit (John 10:3–5, 27).

24:29 Immediately after. This verse moves chronologically to the close of the tribulation, a period that will be marked by monumental cosmic disturbances (Is. 13:10; 34:4; Ezek. 32:7–8; Joel 2:30–31; 3:15; Hag. 2:6; Zech. 14:6; Rev. 6:12–14).

24:34 this generation. “Generation” may mean “race,” indicating that Israel as a people will not cease to exist before God fulfills His promises to them. Another possibility is that the word describes a particular era in which people will see the end times. That is, the events will occur so rapidly that all will happen within one generation. Perhaps both interpretations are true.

No One Knows the Day or Hour

<sup>36l</sup>“But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven,* <sup>m</sup>but My Father only. <sup>37</sup>But as the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. <sup>38n</sup>For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, <sup>39</sup>and did not know until the flood came and took them all away, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. <sup>40o</sup>Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken and the other left. <sup>41</sup>Two women will be grinding at the mill: one will be taken and the other left. <sup>42p</sup>Watch therefore, for you do not know what hour* your Lord is coming. <sup>43q</sup>But know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and not allowed his house to be broken into. <sup>44r</sup>Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

The Faithful Servant and the Evil Servant

24:36 that day and hour no one knows. Mark 13:32 indicates that even Jesus Himself did not know the exact time of His return. When the Lord Jesus was on earth, He voluntarily limited His use of His divine attributes (John 17:4–5; Phil. 2:5–8). Therefore He became hungry, thirsty, and tired. In this instance, Jesus surrendered the use of His divine omniscience.

The Parable of the Wise and Foolish Virgins

The Parable of the Talents

saying, ‘Lord, you delivered to me five talents; look, I have gained five more talents besides them.’ <sup>21</sup>His lord said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant; you were <sup>m</sup>faithful over a few things, <sup>n</sup>I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into <sup>o</sup>the joy of your lord.’ <sup>22</sup>He also who had received two talents came and said, ‘Lord, you delivered to me two talents; look, I have gained two more talents besides them.’ <sup>23</sup>His lord said to him, <sup>p</sup>“Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into <sup>q</sup>the joy of your lord.’

<sup>24</sup>“Then he who had received the one talent came and said, ‘Lord, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you have not sown, and gathering where you have not scattered seed. <sup>25</sup>And I was afraid, and went and hid your talent in the ground. Look, there you have what is yours.’

<sup>26</sup>“But his lord answered and said to him, ‘You <sup>r</sup>wicked and lazy servant, you knew that I reap where I have not sown, and gather where I have not scattered seed. <sup>27</sup>So you ought to have deposited my money with the bankers, and at my coming I would have received back my own with interest. <sup>28</sup>So take the talent from him, and give it to him who has ten talents.

<sup>29</sup>‘For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away. <sup>30</sup>And cast the unprofitable servant <sup>s</sup>into the outer darkness. <sup>t</sup>There will be weeping and <sup>u</sup>gnashing of teeth.’

The Son of Man Will Judge the Nations

<sup>31</sup>“When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the holy* angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory. <sup>32</sup>“All the nations will be gathered before Him, and <sup>v</sup>He will separate them one from another, as a shepherd divides his

25:10 the bridegroom came. Christ’s return is often compared to a wedding (22:1–14; Rev. 19:7–8).

25:14 delivered his goods to them. The parable of the talents illustrates the faith required of God’s servants.

25:15 talents. A talent was a large sum of money, about six thousand denarii.

25:23 I will make you ruler over many things. The first two servants received the same reward, based on their faithfulness, not on the size of their responsibilities. The smallest task in God’s work may receive a great reward if we are faithful in performing it (10:42).

25:32–40 Judgment—The Final Judgment will be according to the evidence, not according to what was professed but what was practiced. It will be not according to what was said, but what was done.

These works cannot earn salvation, but they are works of love which reflect a life redeemed by the saving work of Christ through the Holy Spirit (Gal. 5:6). Love for God is demonstrated by love for man (1 John 4:20).

The Plot to Kill Jesus

26 Now it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, that He said to His disciples, <sup>2a</sup> "You know that after two days is the Passover, and the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified."

<sup>3b</sup> Then the chief priests, the scribes,* and the elders of the people assembled at the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas, <sup>4</sup> and *c*plotted to take Jesus by trickery and kill Him. <sup>5</sup> But they said, "Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar among the *d*people."

The Anointing at Bethany

<sup>10</sup> But when Jesus was aware of it, He said to them, "Why do you trouble the woman? For she has done a good work for Me. <sup>11c</sup> For you have the poor with you always, but *h*Me you do not have always. <sup>12</sup> For in pouring this fragrant oil on My body, she did it for My *i*burial. <sup>13</sup> Assuredly, I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told as a memorial to her."

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

<sup>14j</sup> Then one of the twelve, called *k*Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests <sup>15</sup> and said, "What are you willing to give me if I deliver Him to you?" And they counted out to him thirty pieces of silver. <sup>16</sup> So from that time he sought opportunity to betray Him.

Jesus Celebrates Passover with His Disciples

<sup>17m</sup> Now on the first day of the Feast of the Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying to Him, "Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?"

<sup>18</sup> And He said, "Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him, 'The Teacher says, n"My time is at hand; I will keep the Passover at your house with My disciples."<sup>19</sup>

<sup>19</sup> So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them; and they prepared the Passover.

<sup>20o</sup> When evening had come, He sat down with the twelve. <sup>21</sup> Now as they were eating, He said, "Assuredly, I say to you, one of you will *p*betray Me."

<sup>22</sup> And they were exceedingly sorrowful, and each of them began to say to Him, "Lord, is it I?"

26:14 one of the twelve. The enormity of Judas' sin is seen in these words: Jesus was betrayed by one of His own best friends.

26:15 thirty pieces of silver. Thirty pieces of silver was the price of a slave (Ex. 21:32). Zechariah prophesied this sum (Zech. 11:12–13).

26:21 one of you will betray Me. This statement indicates the Lord's omniscience. Repeatedly, Christ unveiled evidence of His deity to His disciples.

<sup>25</sup>Then Judas, who was betraying Him, answered and said, "Rabbi, is it I?"

He said to him, "You have said it."

Jesus Institutes the Lord's Supper

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

<sup>31</sup>Then Jesus said to them, <sup>e</sup>"All of you will <sup>f</sup>be made to stumble because of Me this night, for it is written:

And the sheep of the flock will be

<sup>33</sup>Peter answered and said to Him, "Even if all are made to stumble because of You, I will never be made to stumble."

<sup>34</sup>Jesus said to him, <sup>i</sup>"Assuredly, I say to you that this night, before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times."

<sup>35</sup>Peter said to Him, "Even if I have to die with You, I will not deny You!"

And so said all the disciples.

The Prayer in the Garden

<sup>42</sup>Again, a second time, He went away and prayed, saying, "O My Father, if this cup cannot pass away from Me unless* I drink it, Your will be done." <sup>43</sup>And He came and found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy.

<sup>44</sup>So He left them, went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words. <sup>45</sup>Then He came to His disciples and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is being <sup>b</sup>betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>46</sup>Rise, let us be going. See, My betrayer is at hand."

Betrayal and Arrest in Gethsemane

Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and took Him. <sup>51</sup>And suddenly, <sup>w</sup>one of those who were with Jesus stretched out

26:26–28 My body . . . My blood. The Lord Jesus, at this last meal with His disciples before He went to the cross, instituted this ordinance for His church throughout this age. It is called "the Lord's Supper" (1 Cor. 11:20). Using common everyday items, the bread and wine that could be found on any table, no matter how poor, He gave us a "remembrance" so that we would never forget that His broken body and shed blood bought salvation for us.

26:28 My blood of the new covenant. This refers to the new covenant promised in the Old Testament (Jer. 31:31–34; 32:37–44; Ezek. 34:25–31; 37:26–28).

26:36 Gethsemane. The name "Gethsemane" means "oil press." This garden was east of Jerusalem on the Mount of Olives. In the place where olives were crushed and ground, the Anointed One was crushed.

26:51 one of those. John 18:10 informs us that the impetuous swordsmen was Peter. This action was performed with one of the two swords that the disciples had (Luke 22:38).

<sup>52</sup>But Jesus said to him, “Put your sword in its place, <sup>x</sup>for all who take the sword will perish* by the sword. <sup>53</sup>Or do you think that I cannot now pray to My Father, and He will provide Me with <sup>y</sup>more than twelve legions of angels? <sup>54</sup>How then could the Scriptures be fulfilled, <sup>z</sup>that it must happen thus?”

<sup>55</sup>In that hour Jesus said to the multitudes, “Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to take Me? I sat daily with you, teaching in the temple, and you did not seize Me. <sup>56</sup>But all this was done that the “Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled.”

Then <sup>b</sup>all the disciples forsook Him and fled.

Jesus Faces the Sanhedrin

<sup>57c</sup>And those who had laid hold of Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled. <sup>58</sup>But <sup>d</sup>Peter followed Him at a distance to the high priest’s courtyard. And he went in and sat with the servants to see the end.

<sup>62</sup>And the high priest arose and said to Him, “Do You answer nothing? What is it these men testify against You?” <sup>63</sup>But <sup>i</sup>Jesus kept silent. And the high priest answered and said to Him, <sup>k</sup>“I put You under oath by the living God: Tell us if You are the Christ, the Son of God!”

<sup>64</sup>Jesus said to him, “It is as you said. Nevertheless, I say to you, <sup>l</sup>hereafter you will see the Son of Man <sup>m</sup>sitting at the right hand of the Power, and coming on the clouds of heaven.”

They answered and said, <sup>p</sup>“He is deserving of death.”

Peter Denies Jesus, and Weeps Bitterly

<sup>71</sup>And when he had gone out to the gateway, another <sup>girl</sup> saw him and said to those who were there, “This fellow also was with Jesus of Nazareth.”

Immediately a rooster crowed. <sup>75</sup>And Peter remembered the word of Jesus who had said to him, <sup>w</sup>“Before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times.” So he went out and wept bitterly.

26:53 twelve legions of angels. A legion in the Roman army was about six thousand men. When one considers the power of one angel (Ex. 32:23; 2 Sam. 24:15–17; 2 Kin. 19:35) the power of more than 72,000 angels is beyond comprehension. Jesus had all of heaven’s power at His disposal, yet He refused to use it. His Father’s will was for Him to go to the cross.

26:62 Do You answer nothing? In maintaining His silence, Jesus fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah 53:7.

26:64 Second Coming—Throughout His ministry, Jesus had applied to Himself the Old Testament prophecies that were acknowledged as messianic by the Jewish teachers. Here, Jesus answers Caiaphas the high priest by combining two well-known messianic prophecies from Psalm 110:1 and Daniel 7:13. The first describes His enthronement and the other His second coming. The final word spoken by Christ to the Jews was about the certainty of His future return. About His first coming Jesus said, “For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world” (John 3:17). But the time will come when all the world will see Him enthroned at the right hand of God and given all power and majesty as the judge of the ages. 26:74 Immediately a rooster crows. Some have detected a contradiction between this passage and the account in Mark 14:72. Others believe that seeing a contradiction is a forced reading of the text. Matthew, Luke, and John make the simple statement that a rooster would crow (Luke 22:61; John 18:27), whereas Mark, which is believed to be based on Peter’s memories, would include more exact details.

Jesus Handed Over to Pontius Pilate

27 When morning came, <sup>a</sup>all the chief priests and elders of the people plotted against Jesus to put Him to death. <sup>2</sup>And when they had bound Him, they led Him away and <sup>b</sup>delivered Him to Pontius* Pilate the governor.

Judas Hangs Himself

And they said, “What is that to us? You see to it!”

<sup>5</sup>Then he threw down the pieces of silver in the temple and <sup>e</sup>departed, and went and hanged himself.

<sup>9</sup>Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, <sup>g</sup>“And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the value of Him who was priced, whom they of the children of Israel priced, <sup>10</sup>and <sup>h</sup>gave them for the potter’s field, as the LORD directed me.”<sup>*8</sup>

Jesus Faces Pilate

<sup>11</sup>Now Jesus stood before the governor. <sup>i</sup>And the governor asked Him, saying, “Are You the King of the Jews?”

Jesus said to him, <sup>j</sup>“It is as you say.” <sup>12</sup>And while He was being accused by the chief priests and elders, <sup>k</sup>He answered nothing.

<sup>13</sup>Then Pilate said to Him, <sup>l</sup>“Do You not hear how many things they testify against You?” <sup>14</sup>But He answered him not one word, so that the governor marveled greatly.

Taking the Place of Barabbas

at that time they had a notorious prisoner called Barabbas.* <sup>17</sup>Therefore, when they had gathered together, Pilate said to them, “Whom do you want me to release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?” <sup>18</sup>For he knew that they had handed Him over because of <sup>n</sup>envy.

<sup>20o</sup>But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitudes that they should ask for Barabbas and destroy Jesus. <sup>21</sup>The governor answered and said to them, “Which of the two do you want me to release to you?”

They said, <sup>p</sup>“Barabbas!”

They all said to him, “Let Him be crucified!”

But they cried out all the more, saying, “Let Him be crucified!”

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

27:25 His blood be on us and on our children. The sins of the fathers are visited on their children for those who hate God. But if anyone turns to Jesus and repents, He never fails to show His lovingkindness.

27:27 the Praetorium. This was the official residence of the governor when he was in Jerusalem.

The King on a Cross

<sup>m</sup>saved others; Himself He cannot save. If He is the King of Israel,* let Him now come down from the cross, and we will believe Him.* <sup>43n</sup>He trusted in God; let Him deliver Him now if He will have Him; for He said, 'I am the Son of God.'"

<sup>44o</sup>Even the robbers who were crucified with Him reviled Him with the same thing.

Jesus Dies on the Cross

<sup>45p</sup>Now from the sixth hour until the ninth hour there was darkness over all the land. <sup>46</sup>And about the ninth hour <sup>q</sup>Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" that is, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"*

27:31 crucified. Crucifixion, a practice probably adopted from Persia, was considered by the Romans to be the cruellest form of execution. This punishment was reserved for the worst criminals. The offender usually died after two or three days of agonizing suffering, enduring not only incomprehensible pain, but also hunger, thirst, and exposure. The offender's arms were nailed to a beam that was hoisted up and fixed to a post, to which his feet were nailed.

27:32 Simon by name. Simon probably was (or later became) a follower of Christ; it is unlikely that he would be referred to by name if he were a stranger to the Christian community (Mark 15:21).

27:34 sour wine mingled with gall. It is believed that this mixture was meant to dull the victim's pain. The prophetic words of Psalm 69:21 were fulfilled here.

27:35 casting lots. The soldiers fulfilled the prophetic words of Psalm 22:18.

27:38 two robbers. This is the fulfillment of Isaiah 53:12, "He was numbered with the transgressors." Psalm 22:6 predicted the insults that would be directed at the Messiah.

27:45 the sixth hour. This would have been noon. The first hour began at sunrise (approximately 6:00 A.M.). darkness. The darkness could not have been due to a natural cause, such as an eclipse of the sun, since the Passover occurred during a full moon. This was a supernatural occurrence.

27:46–50 Atonement—Because God cannot tolerate sin, as Jesus took upon Himself the sin of the whole human race, God had to turn away. Jesus felt this separation, and many believe it was as much for the dread of this as for the physical pain that Jesus wept in the garden. Jesus' cry to God is a quote from Psalm 22:1, a messianic verse that the Jews should have understood.

27:50 cried out again with a loud voice. The cry referred to here by Matthew was, "It is finished" (John 19:30). This was not a cry of exhaustion, but a cry of victory. The purpose for which Jesus came into the world had been accomplished. Redemption from sin had been purchased for all mankind.

27:51 the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. The temple had two veils or curtains, one in front of the holy place and the other separating the holy place from the Most Holy Place. These curtains were heavy and very strong and thick. It was the second of these that was torn, demonstrating that through the death of Jesus, there was now open access to God. Jesus' blood covered our sins from God's sight.

<sup>54</sup>“So when the centurion and those with him, who were guarding Jesus, saw the earthquake and the things that had happened, they feared greatly, saying, “Truly this was the Son of God!”

<sup>55</sup>And many women who followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to Him, were there looking on from afar, <sup>56</sup>among whom were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joses,* and the mother of Zebedee’s sons.

Jesus Buried in Joseph’s Tomb

<sup>57</sup>Now when evening had come, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who himself had also become a disciple of Jesus. <sup>58</sup>This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given to him. <sup>59</sup>When Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, <sup>60</sup>and <sup>61</sup>laid it in his new tomb which he had hewn out of the rock; and he rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb, and departed. <sup>62</sup>And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the tomb.

Pilate Sets a Guard

<sup>63</sup>On the next day, which followed the Day of Preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees gathered together to Pilate, <sup>64</sup>saying, “Sir, we remember, while He was still alive, how that deceiver said, ‘After three days I will rise.’” <sup>65</sup>Therefore command that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest His disciples come by night* and steal Him away, and say to the people, ‘He has risen from the dead.’ So the last deception will be worse than the first.”

<sup>66</sup>Pilate said to them, “You have a guard; go your way, make it as secure as you know how.” <sup>67</sup>So they went and made the tomb secure, <sup>68</sup>sealing the stone and setting the guard.

He Is Risen

28 Now after the Sabbath, as the first day of the week began to dawn, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb. <sup>2</sup>And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door;* and sat on it. <sup>3</sup>His countenance was like lightning, and his clothing as white as snow. <sup>4</sup>And the guards shook for fear of him, and became like dead men.

<sup>5</sup>But the angel answered and said to the women, “Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. <sup>6</sup>He is not here; for He is risen, as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. <sup>7</sup>And go quickly and tell His disciples that He is risen from the dead, and indeed He is going before you into Galilee; there you will see Him. Behold, I have told you.”

<sup>8</sup>So they went out quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring His disciples word.

The Women Worship the Risen Lord

<sup>9</sup>And as they went to tell His disciples,* behold, <sup>10</sup>Jesus met them, saying, “Rejoice!” So they came and held Him by the feet and worshiped Him. <sup>11</sup>Then Jesus said to them, “Do not be afraid. Go and tell My brethren to go to Galilee, and there they will see Me.”

The Soldiers Are Bribed

<sup>12</sup>Now while they were going, behold, some of the guard came into the city and reported to the chief priests all the things that had happened. <sup>13</sup>When they had assembled with the elders and consulted together, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers, <sup>14</sup>saying, “Tell them, ‘His disciples came at night and stole Him away while we slept.’” <sup>15</sup>And if this comes to the governor’s ears, we will appease him and make you secure.” <sup>16</sup>So they took the money and did as they were instructed; and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

The Great Commission

<sup>17</sup>Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, to the mountain which Jesus had appointed for them. <sup>18</sup>When they saw Him, they worshiped Him; but some doubted.

27:57 a rich man of Arimathea. Joseph’s actions fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, “they made His grave with the wicked—but with the rich at His death” (Is. 53:9).

28:2 rolled back the stone. The tomb was not opened to allow Christ to come out; it was opened to allow others to go in and see for themselves that it was empty.

28:19 Why Share Our Faith—There are at least six compelling reasons for sharing our faith in Christ with those who have not experienced new life in Christ:

1. Because God has commanded us to do so (Acts 1:8).
2. Because it demonstrates our love for God. If we truly love Him we will keep His commandments (John 14:15).
3. Because all are lost without Christ (Rom. 3:10,23).
4. Because this is God's chosen method: He could use angels, but He only uses redeemed sinners to tell lost sinners about Christ (Rom. 10:14–17; 1 Tim. 1:15).

5. Because God desires to save all people (Acts 4:12; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9).

6. Because faith grows best when each generation conscientiously strives to pass it on to the next.

28:20 I am with you always. Jesus is the true Immanuel, "God with us" (1:23; Heb. 13:5–6; Rev. 21:3).

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK

► AUTHOR: According to Acts 12:12, Mark's mother Mary had a large house that was used as a meeting place for believers in Jerusalem. Barnabas was Mark's cousin (Col. 4:10), but Peter may have been the person that led him to Christ (Peter called him "Mark my son" in 1 Pet. 5:13). It was this close association with Peter that lent apostolic authority to Mark's Gospel, since Peter was evidently Mark's primary source of information. It has been suggested that Mark was referring to himself in his account of a "certain young man" in Gethsemane (14:51). Since all the disciples had abandoned Jesus (14:50), this little incident may have been a firsthand account.

► TIME: c. A.D. 29–33

► KEY VERSES: Mark 8:34–37

► THEME: Mark is the shortest and simplest of the Gospels. He doesn't seem to be telling the story in a way that appeals to a particular audience the way Matthew does. He also does not use the well-developed thematic structure that characterizes John. One of the most common terms in the book is one that is translated "immediately" or "at once." He uses this frequently as he moves from one anecdote to another. Mark's quickly paced Gospel is often confrontational, as he tells the story of the gospel as clearly as possible. He wants the reader to respond, and almost seems to be saying, "Here is the truth, believe it, and let's get on with following Jesus."

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

Your face,
Who will prepare Your way before
You."<sup>**</sup>*

3 *"The<sup>d</sup> voice of one crying in the wilderness:
'Prepare the way of the LORD;

the remission of sins. <sup>5f</sup>Then all the land of Judea, and those from Jerusalem, went out to him and were all baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins.

1:1 The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Writing three decades after the resurrection of Christ, Mark starts his narrative with a simple declaration of the good news about God's Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. The gospel refers to the basic story of the good news to be found in Christ's life, ministry, death, and resurrection.

1:2–3 As it is written. Other than by quoting Jesus, Mark makes only one reference to the Old Testament.

1:4 John came baptizing. The mention of John without any introduction presupposes some knowledge of the Christian faith on the part of Mark's readers. the remission of sins. This phrase does not mean that one is baptized in order to receive forgiveness of sins. The Greek preposition translated "of" in English probably means "with a view to," signifying that baptism looks to the forgiveness that God gives through the gift of repentance.

1:5 were all baptized by him. John's baptizing was a recurring popular event that attracted large crowds. Mark vividly portrays the continuous stream of followers who flocked to John. As each person was baptized by John, he or she would admit to his or her individual sin and need for the Messiah.

1:7 And he preached, saying. The tense of these verbs indicates continuous action in past time. John's characteristic message was to promote expectancy and acceptance of the Lord Jesus Christ.

1:8 I indeed baptized you with water. The water is a physical representation of the future life in the Spirit that people who followed the Messiah would have.

John Baptizes Jesus

Satan Tempts Jesus

<sup>12o</sup>Immediately the Spirit drove Him into the wilderness. <sup>13</sup>And He was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan, and was with the wild beasts; <sup>p</sup>and the angels ministered to Him.

Jesus Begins His Galilean Ministry

Four Fishermen Called as Disciples

<sup>19</sup>When He had gone a little farther from there, He saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the boat mending their nets. <sup>20</sup>And immediately He called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after Him.

1:9 Jesus . . . was baptized by John. Because He had no sins to repent of, Jesus’ baptism was unique. It showed His identity with John’s work and with the sinner for whom He would die. It also foreshadowed His own death, burial, and resurrection for sinners.

1:11 a voice came from heaven. Three times during Christ’s earthly ministry a voice came from heaven. Here it was the Father’s testimony to Christ’s unique and divine Sonship. The other two confirming incidents were at the transfiguration (9:7) and on the day of Christ’s triumphal entry into Jerusalem (John 12:28).

1:13 angels ministered to Him. Mark is the only Gospel that mentions these angels.

1:15 kingdom of God. The kingdom was the subject of much Old Testament prophecy, and the theme was familiar to Jesus’ listeners. Repent, and believe. These are both acts of faith. When a person accepts the only true and worthy object of faith, that person readily turns from inferior substitutes.

1:19 James . . . John. The scenes of verses 16–20 are very colorful. Simon and Andrew are fishing when we encounter them. James and John are mending their nets. Such details indicate the testimony of an eyewitness, probably Peter.

1:21 Capernaum. This city is now in ruins, and sits

Jesus Casts Out an Unclean Spirit

<sup>25</sup>But Jesus <sup>e</sup>rebuked him, saying, “Be quiet, and come out of him!” <sup>26</sup>And when the unclean spirit <sup>f</sup>had convulsed him and cried out with a loud voice, he came out of him. <sup>27</sup>Then they were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, “What is this? What new doctrine is this? For with authority* He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him.” <sup>28</sup>And immediately His <sup>g</sup>fame spread throughout all the region around Galilee.

Peter’s Mother-in-Law Healed

<sup>29h</sup>Now as soon as they had come out of the synagogue, they entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. <sup>30</sup>But Simon’s wife’s mother lay sick with a fever, and they told Him about her at once. <sup>31</sup>So He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up, and immediately the fever left her. And she served them.

Many Healed After Sabbath Sunset

<sup>32i</sup>At evening, when the sun had set, they brought to Him all who were sick and beside the northern edge of the Sea of Galilee. It is mentioned 22 times in the Gospels. By contrast, only one recorded event during Christ’s ministry occurred at Nazareth (Luke 4:16).

1:22 they were astonished at His teaching. Christ’s teaching differed from that of scribes and Pharisees because He did not lean on the wisdom of other teachers and rabbis. His authority came from Himself.

1:28 His fame spread throughout all the region around Galilee. Mark notes the extent of recognition this great miracle brought Jesus. He also creates suspense by contrasting the people who received Christ with the Pharisees and rulers who worked to bring about His death.

those who were demon-possessed. <sup>33</sup>And the whole city was gathered together at the door. <sup>34</sup>Then He healed many who were sick with various diseases, and <sup>i</sup>cast out many demons; and He <sup>k</sup>did not allow the demons to speak, because they knew Him.

Preaching in Galilee

Jesus Cleanses a Leper

<sup>40</sup>Now a leper came to Him, imploring Him, kneeling down to Him and saying to Him, “If You are willing, You can make me clean.”

<sup>45</sup>However, he went out and began to proclaim it freely, and to spread the matter, so that Jesus could no longer openly enter the city, but was outside in deserted places; <sup>y</sup>and they came to Him from every direction.

Jesus Forgives and Heals a Paralytic

<sup>2</sup>And again <sup>a</sup>He entered Capernaum after some days, and it was heard that He was in the house. <sup>2</sup>Immediately* many gathered together, so that there was no longer room to receive them, not even near the door. And He preached the word to them. <sup>3</sup>Then they came to Him, bringing a <sup>b</sup>paralytic who was carried by four men. <sup>4</sup>And when they could not come near Him because of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where He was. So when they had broken through, they let down the bed on which the paralytic was lying.

<sup>8</sup>But immediately, when Jesus perceived in His spirit that they reasoned thus within themselves, He said to them, “Why do you reason about these things in your hearts? <sup>9</sup>Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven you,’ or to say, ‘Arise, take up your bed and walk?’ <sup>10</sup>But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins”—He said to the paralytic, <sup>11</sup>“I say to you, arise, take up your bed, and go to your house.” <sup>12</sup>Immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went out in the presence of them all, so that all were amazed and <sup>e</sup>glorified God, saying, “We never saw anything like this!”

Matthew the Tax Collector

<sup>13</sup>Then He went out again by the sea; and all the multitude came to Him, and He taught them. <sup>14</sup>As He passed by, He saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, <sup>f</sup>“Follow Me.” So he arose and <sup>i</sup>followed Him.

* 2:2 NU-Text omits Immediately.

1:35 there He prayed. The verb tense indicates Jesus prayed continuously. Jesus’ prayer life was successful because it was planned, private, and prolonged. He got up early enough, got far enough away, and stayed at it long enough.

1:44 say nothing to anyone. Jesus’ demand has several plausible explanations: (1) The report of Jesus’ healing the man may have prejudiced the priest who needed to pronounce him clean; (2) Jesus did not want to be known primarily as a miracle worker, so He often commanded those who received His healing to remain quiet; and (3) the man’s testimony would possibly have hastened the confrontation between Jesus and the religious leaders.

2:5 saw their faith. Not only did the four men have faith, but the paralytic himself had it too. When Jesus announced to him, “your sins are forgiven you,” He was implicitly acknowledging the paralytic’s trust that He was the Messiah.

2:6–7 some of the scribes. Mark notes the opposition of the scribes, who under their breath accused Jesus of blasphemy. In Christ’s day the scribes were commonly called lawyers.

2:11 arise, take up your bed, and go to your house. By healing the paralytic, Jesus made His pronouncement of forgiveness far more credible.

2:13 He taught them. Jesus regularly taught the multitudes in retreat settings. This is indicated by the continuous tense of the verbs used here. They kept on coming and Jesus kept on teaching.

1:34/Luke 13:32 <sup>k</sup>Acts 16:17, 18 1:35/Luke 4:42, 43 <sup>m</sup>Luke 5:16; 6:12; 9:28, 29 1:37<sup>n</sup> John 3:26; 12:19 <sup>o</sup>[Heb. 11:6] 1:38<sup>p</sup> Luke 4:43 <sup>q</sup>[Is. 61:1, 2] 1:39<sup>r</sup> Matt. 4:23; 9:35 <sup>s</sup>Mark 5:8, 13; 7:29, 30 1:40<sup>t</sup> Luke 5:12–14 1:41<sup>u</sup> Luke 7:13 1:42<sup>v</sup> Matt. 15:28 1:44<sup>w</sup> Lev. 14:1–32 1:45<sup>x</sup> Luke 5:15 <sup>y</sup>Mark 2:2, 13; 3:7 2:1<sup>z</sup> Matt. 9:1 2:3<sup>aa</sup> Luke 4:24; 8:6 2:7<sup>ab</sup> <sup>cc</sup>Is. 43:25 2:9<sup>ad</sup> Matt. 9:5 2:12<sup>ae</sup> [Phil. 2:11] 2:13<sup>af</sup> Matt. 9:9 2:14<sup>ag</sup> Luke 5:27–32 <sup>ah</sup> John 1:43; 12:26; 21:22 <sup>ai</sup>Luke 18:28

<sup>15</sup>Now it happened, as He was dining in Levi's house, that many tax collectors and sinners also sat together with Jesus and His disciples; for there were many, and they followed Him. <sup>16</sup>And when the scribes and* Pharisees saw Him eating with the tax collectors and sinners, they said to His disciples, "How is it that He eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?"

<sup>17</sup>When Jesus heard it, He said to them, k"Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance."***

Jesus Is Questioned About Fasting

<sup>18</sup>The disciples of John and of the Pharisees were fasting. Then they came and said to Him, "Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but Your disciples do not fast?"

<sup>19</sup>And Jesus said to them, "Can the friends of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them they cannot fast. <sup>20</sup>But the days will come when the bridegroom will be *m*taken away from them, and then they will fast in those days. <sup>21</sup>No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; or else the new piece pulls away from the old, and the tear is made worse. <sup>22</sup>And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; or else the new wine bursts the wineskins, the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are ruined. But new wine must be put into new wineskins."

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

<sup>23</sup>Now it happened that He went through the grainfields on the Sabbath; and as they went His disciples began *o*to pluck the heads of grain. <sup>24</sup>And the Pharisees said to Him, "Look, why do they do what is *p*not lawful on the Sabbath?"

2:18 fast. Jesus was not against fasting, if properly observed. He gave guidelines for fasting in the Sermon on the Mount (Matt. 6:16–18). Here, the Pharisees' fasting, perhaps twice each week (Luke 18:12), is contrasted with Jesus' feasting probably at Levi's house.

2:21–22 No one sews . . . no one puts. Mark records only four of Jesus' parables—two of which he includes here. The comparison implies that the newness of His message, and of the new covenant to follow, cannot fit into the old molds of Judaism. The Old Testament was preparation for the New Testament (Gal. 3:19–25).

2:24 what is not lawful on the Sabbath. The point to the Pharisees' accusation against Jesus and His disciples was that they had performed work on the Sabbath, but their charge was dubious. The act of plucking grain should not be confused with Sabbath work condemned by the law (Ex. 31:15). This incident is further proof of rising opposition to Jesus' ministry.

3:5 when He had looked around at them with

<sup>25</sup>But He said to them, "Have you never read what David did when he was in need and hungry, he and those with him: <sup>26</sup>how he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and ate the showbread, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and also gave some to those who were with him?"

<sup>27</sup>And He said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the *s*Sabbath. <sup>28</sup>Therefore *t*he Son of Man is also Lord of the Sabbath."

Healing on the Sabbath

3 And <sup>4</sup>He entered the synagogue again, and a man was there who had a withered hand. <sup>2</sup>So they *b*watched Him closely, whether He would *c*heal him on the Sabbath, so that they might accuse Him. <sup>3</sup>And He said to the man who had the withered hand, "Step forward." <sup>4</sup>Then He said to them, "Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill?" But they kept silent. <sup>5</sup>And when He had looked around at them with anger, being grieved by the *d*hardness of their hearts, He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored as whole as the other.* <sup>6</sup>Then the Pharisees went out and immediately plotted with *t*he Herodians against Him, how they might destroy Him.

A Great Multitude Follows Jesus

<sup>7</sup>But Jesus withdrew with His disciples to the sea. And a great multitude from Galilee followed Him, <sup>8</sup>and from Judea <sup>8</sup>and Jerusalem and Idumea and beyond the Jordan; and those from Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they heard how *h*many things He was doing, came to Him. <sup>9</sup>So He told His disciples that a small boat

anger. It is possible, as Paul exhorts, to be angry and not sin (Eph. 4:26). Jesus demonstrated this righteous anger. He was grieved with sin but did not sin Himself by retaliating or losing control of His emotions.

3:6 Herodians. The Pharisees were religious experts who should have led the people in righteousness. Instead they plotted Jesus' death with the Herodians, their bitter enemies. They were willing to set aside differences to destroy a common foe. The Herodians were Jews who supported Rome and the Herods in particular. Herod Antipas, a son of Herod the Great, ruled Galilee during the same time that Pilate served as Roman governor over Judea and Samaria.

should be kept ready for Him because of the multitude, lest they should crush Him. <sup>10</sup>For He healed <sup>1</sup>many, so that as many as had afflictions pressed about Him to <sup>1</sup>touch Him. <sup>11</sup>And the unclean spirits, whenever they saw Him, fell down before Him and cried out, saying, <sup>12</sup>"You are the Son of God." <sup>12</sup>But <sup>13</sup>He sternly warned them that they should not make Him known.

The Twelve Apostles

<sup>13</sup>And He went up on the mountain and called to Him those He Himself wanted. And they came to Him. <sup>14</sup>Then He appointed twelve,* that they might be with Him and that He might send them out to preach, <sup>15</sup>and to have power to heal sicknesses and* to cast out demons: <sup>16</sup>Simon,* <sup>17</sup>to whom He gave the name Peter; <sup>18</sup>James the son of Zebedee and John the brother of James, to whom He gave the name Boanerges, that is, "Sons of Thunder"; <sup>19</sup>Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Cananite; <sup>20</sup>and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed Him. And they went into a house.

A House Divided Cannot Stand

one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man. And then he will plunder his house.

The Unpardonable Sin

<sup>28</sup>"Assuredly, I say to you, all sins will be forgiven the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they may utter; <sup>29</sup>but he who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is subject to eternal condemnation"—<sup>30</sup>because they <sup>31</sup>said, "He has an unclean spirit."

Jesus' Mother and Brothers Send for Him

<sup>31</sup>Then His brothers and His mother came, and standing outside they sent to Him, calling Him. <sup>32</sup>And a multitude was sitting around Him; and they said to Him, "Look, Your mother and Your brothers* are outside seeking You."

The Parable of the Sower

4 And <sup>1</sup>again He began to teach by the sea. And a great multitude was gathered to Him, so that He got into a boat and sat in it on the sea; and the whole multitude was on the land facing the sea. <sup>2</sup>Then He taught them many things by parables, <sup>3</sup>and said to them in His teaching:

*3:14 NU-Text adds whom He also named apostles. *3:15 NU-Text omits to heal sicknesses and. *3:16 NU-Text reads and He appointed the twelve: Simon .... *3:32 NU-Text and M-Text add and Your sisters.

3:11–12 He sternly warned them that they should not make Him known. Jesus rebuked the demons who proclaimed, "You are the Son of God." This was not because the demons incorrectly identified Jesus, but because their testimony was untrustworthy.

3:16–19 gave the name Peter. Jesus gave Peter a new name because it was the Jewish custom to rename someone who had experienced a life-changing event. This renaming of the disciples has similarities to the renaming of Abram (Gen. 17:3–5) and of Saul (Acts 9).

3:27 strong man. Whoever defeats Satan must be stronger than he. Jesus implies that He Himself has come to enter the house of the strong man, Satan, to seize his goods (1 John 3:8).

3:28–30 he who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit. This person places himself or herself outside the redeeming grace of God. It is apparently not a single act of defiant behavior, but a continued state of opposition entered into willingly. The tense of "they said" indicates a continued action, not a one-time event. The words and works of Christ were spoken and performed by the power of the Holy Spirit. To attribute them to Satan is to call the work of heaven a work of hell. For such perverse belief there is no remedy. How someone can commit this sin today is a difficult question to answer, but those who persist in denigrating Christ by insulting His work or by attributing it to Satan may drive themselves past a point of no return (Matt. 12:31–32).

3:31 His brothers and His mother. Opposition arose from Jesus' own immediate family. We are not told precisely what they wanted to say, but it likely involved a concern for Jesus' safety or reputation, since He was becoming widely known as a preaching prophet and a worker of miracles.

<sup>3</sup>“Listen! Behold, a sower went out to sow. <sup>4</sup>And it happened, as he sowed, that some seed fell by the wayside; and the birds of the air* came and devoured it. <sup>5</sup>Some fell on stony ground, where it did not have much earth; and immediately it sprang up because it had no depth of earth. <sup>6</sup>But when the sun was up it was scorched, and because it had no root it withered away. <sup>7</sup>And some seed fell among thorns; and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no crop. <sup>8</sup>But other seed fell on good ground and yielded a crop that sprang up, increased and produced: some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some a hundred.”

<sup>9</sup>And He said to them,* “He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”

The Purpose of Parables

<sup>10c</sup>But when He was alone, those around Him with the twelve asked Him about the parable. <sup>11</sup>And He said to them, “To you it has been given to <sup>a</sup>know the mystery of the kingdom of God; but to <sup>e</sup>those who are outside, all things come in parables, <sup>12</sup>so that *“Seeing they may see and not perceive,

And hearing they may hear and not understand;
Lest they should turn,
And their sins be forgiven them.”*”*

The Parable of the Sower Explained

<sup>13</sup>And He said to them, “Do you not understand this parable? How then will you understand all the parables? <sup>14g</sup>The sower sows the word. <sup>15</sup>And these are the ones by the wayside where the word is sown. When they hear, Satan comes immediately and takes away the word that was sown in their hearts. <sup>16</sup>These likewise are the ones sown on stony ground who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

<sup>17</sup>and they have no root in themselves, and so endure only for a time. Afterward, when tribulation or persecution arises for the word’s sake, immediately they stumble. <sup>18</sup>Now these are the ones sown among thorns; they are the ones who hear the word, <sup>19</sup>and the <sup>h</sup>cares of this world, <sup>i</sup>the deceitfulness of riches, and the desires for other things entering in choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. <sup>20</sup>But these are the ones sown on good ground, those who hear the word, accept it, and bear <sup>j</sup>fruit: some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some a hundred.”

Light Under a Basket

<sup>21k</sup>Also He said to them, “Is a lamp brought to be put under a basket or under a bed? Is it not to be set on a lampstand?

<sup>22</sup>For there is nothing hidden which will not be revealed, nor has anything been kept secret but that it should come to light. <sup>23m</sup>If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.”

<sup>24</sup>Then He said to them, “Take heed what you hear.” With the same measure you use, it will be measured to you; and to you who hear, more will be given. <sup>25</sup>For whoever has, to him more will be given; but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.”

The Parable of the Growing Seed

4:3–8 a sower went out to sow. The point of the parable is that the condition of the soil determines the potential for growth. The principle is true for Christians and non-Christians alike. Those who have become complacent and lackadaisical are not likely to receive the Word with benefit (James 1:2–25).

4:11 To you it has been given to know the mystery. In Scripture, a mystery is a truth God has revealed or will reveal at the proper time (Rom. 16:25–26). Jesus apparently used parables for several reasons. First, they are interesting and grab the listener’s attention. Second, such stories are easily remembered. Third, they reveal truth to those who are ready spiritually to receive it. Fourth, they conceal truth from those who oppose Christ’s message. Frequently Jesus’ opponents failed to understand the lessons because of their own spiritual blindness (Matt. 21:45–46).

4:20 hear the word, accept it, and bear fruit. Only one soil produces fruit. Such a person recognizes God’s call, determines to follow it, and experiences a profound transformation.

4:21–23 a lamp. These were small clay vessels that burned a wick set in olive oil. Like the lamp, Jesus’ teachings reveal the motives of the human heart.

4:26–29 The kingdom of God is as if. Plants develop in a complex, intricate process that humans still do not fully understand even two thousand years after Jesus spoke these words. Yet plants grow and bear fruit and seeds just the same. God’s kingdom likewise is growing, although we do not understand all that is happening. This parable, which appears only in Mark’s Gospel, presents God’s kingdom in brief, from first sowing to final reaping.

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

<sup>30</sup>Then He said, <sup>14c</sup>“To what shall we liken the kingdom of God? Or with what parable shall we picture it? <sup>31</sup>It is like a mustard seed which, when it is sown on the ground, is smaller than all the seeds on earth; <sup>32</sup>but when it is sown, it grows up and becomes greater than all herbs, and shoots out large branches, so that the birds of the air may nest under its shade.”

Jesus' Use of Parables

<sup>33u</sup>And with many such parables He spoke the word to them as they were able to hear it. <sup>34</sup>But without a parable He did not speak to them. And when they were alone, <sup>v</sup>He explained all things to His disciples.

Wind and Wave Obey Jesus

<sup>35w</sup>On the same day, when evening had come, He said to them, “Let us cross over to the other side.” <sup>36</sup>Now when they had left the multitude, they took Him along in the boat as He was. And other little boats were also with Him. <sup>37</sup>And a great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was already filling. <sup>38</sup>But He was in the stern, asleep on a pillow. And they awoke Him and said to Him, <sup>x</sup>“Teacher, <sup>v</sup>do You not care that we are perishing?”

<sup>39</sup>Then He arose and <sup>2</sup>rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Peace, be still!” And the wind ceased and there was a great calm. <sup>40</sup>But He said to them, *“Why are you so fearful? <sup>b</sup>How is it that you have no faith?”** <sup>41</sup>And they feared exceedingly, and said to one another, “Who can this be, that even the wind and the sea obey Him!”

A Demon-Possessed Man Healed

5 Then “they came to the other side of the sea, to the country of the Gadarenes.* <sup>2</sup>And when He had come out of the boat, immediately there met Him out of the tombs a man with an <sup>b</sup>unclean spirit, <sup>3</sup>who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no one could bind him,* not even with chains, <sup>4</sup>because he had often been bound with shackles and chains. And the chains had been pulled apart by him, and the shackles broken in pieces; neither could anyone tame him. <sup>5</sup>And always, night and day, he was in the mountains and in the tombs, crying out and cutting himself with stones.

<sup>6</sup>When he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and worshiped Him. <sup>7</sup>And he cried out with a loud voice and said, “What have I to do with You, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I <sup>c</sup>implore You by God that You do not torment me.”

And he answered, saying, “My name is Legion; for we are many.” <sup>10</sup>Also he begged Him earnestly that He would not send them out of the country.

<sup>14</sup>So those who fed the swine fled, and they told it in the city and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that had happened. <sup>15</sup>Then they came to Jesus, and saw the one who had been <sup>i</sup>demon-possessed and had the legion, <sup>g</sup>sitting and <sup>h</sup>clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. <sup>16</sup>And those who saw it told them how it happened to him who had been demon-possessed, and about the swine. <sup>17</sup>Then <sup>i</sup>they began to plead with Him to depart from their region.

<sup>18</sup>And when He got into the boat, <sup>j</sup>he who had been demon-possessed begged Him that he might be with Him. <sup>19</sup>However, Jesus did not permit him, but said to him, “Go home to your friends, and tell them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how He has had compassion on you.” <sup>20</sup>And he departed and began to <sup>k</sup>proclaim in Decapolis all that Jesus had done for him; and all <sup>l</sup>marveled.

It is 700 feet below sea level with mountains that rise 3,000–4,000 feet around it. It is not unusual for sudden windstorms to appear during the evening hours. The warm tropical air from the lake's surface rises and meets the colder air from the nearby hills. The resulting turbulences and winds can be treacherous.

A Girl Restored to Life and a Woman Healed

<sup>25</sup>Now a certain woman <sup>p</sup>had a flow of blood for twelve years, <sup>26</sup>and had suffered many things from many physicians. She had spent all that she had and was no better, but rather grew worse. <sup>27</sup>When she heard about Jesus, she came behind Him in the crowd and <sup>q</sup>touched His garment. <sup>28</sup>For she said, “If only I may touch His clothes, I shall be made well.”

<sup>29</sup>Immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of the affliction. <sup>30</sup>And Jesus, immediately knowing in Himself that <sup>r</sup>power had gone out of Him, turned around in the crowd and said, “Who touched My clothes?”

house who said, “Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher any further?”

<sup>36</sup>As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, He said to the ruler of the synagogue, “Do not be afraid; only <sup>w</sup>believe.”

<sup>37</sup>And He permitted no one to follow Him except Peter, James, and John the brother of James. <sup>38</sup>Then He came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and saw a tumult and those who <sup>x</sup>wept and wailed loudly. <sup>39</sup>When He came in, He said to them, “Why make this commotion and weep? The child is not dead, but <sup>y</sup>sleeping.”

<sup>40</sup>And they ridiculed Him. <sup>2</sup>But when He had put them all outside, He took the father and the mother of the child, and those who were with Him, and entered where the child was lying. <sup>41</sup>Then He took the child by the hand, and said to her, “Talitha, cumi,” which is translated, “Little girl, I say to you, arise.” <sup>42</sup>Immediately the girl arose and walked, for she was twelve years of age. And they were <sup>a</sup>overcome with great amazement. <sup>43</sup>But <sup>b</sup>He commanded them strictly that no one should know it, and said that something should be given her to eat.

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

6 Then <sup>a</sup>He went out from there and came to His own country, and His disciples followed Him. <sup>2</sup>And when the Sabbath had come, He began to teach in the synagogue. And many hearing Him were <sup>b</sup>astonished, saying, “Where did this Man get these things? And what wisdom is this which is given to Him, that such mighty works are performed by His hands! <sup>3</sup>Is this not the carpenter, the Son of Mary, and <sup>d</sup>brother of James, Joses, Judas, and Simon? And are not His sisters here with us?” So they <sup>e</sup>were offended at Him.

<sup>4</sup>But Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his own country, among his own relatives, and in his

This literally means “ten cities.” This largely Gentile, Greek-speaking area was an important strategic link in Rome’s military defense.

5:22 one of the rulers of the synagogue. Jairus was a lay leader charged with supervising services at the synagogue.

5:26 suffered many things from many physicians. Mark is not complimentary toward the physicians who had treated this woman.

5:29–30 Immediately. This word is used twice in this context. Both the woman and Jesus simultaneously knew what had happened. Who touched My clothes? Jesus turned when He was touched and confronted the woman before she disappeared. He wanted to correct any mistaken notion she may have had about her healing. It was not any magical quality of His clothing but His divine will that had made her well.

5:33 told Him the whole truth. Jesus’ kind manner and tender words must have eased the fear this woman had of being revealed. Naturally, the time that Jesus took to care for the woman must have worried the already tense disciples.

5:34 Daughter. Jesus used this tender word to address this woman, and He noted that her faith made the difference, for it was correctly placed in Him. Faith itself does not heal—it is the proper object of that faith, Jesus, who heals.

5:43 He commanded them strictly. The command to keep the miracle a secret was a temporary measure, for certainly the girl’s appearance could not be hidden very long. Such orders would, however, allow Jesus to exit quietly. Jesus did not want to be known primarily as a miracle worker, lest people seek Him for the wrong reasons.

6:4 A prophet is not without honor except in his own country. This maxim is still repeated and is still own house.” <sup>5g</sup>Now He could do no mighty work there, except that He laid His hands on a few sick people and healed them. <sup>6</sup>And <sup>h</sup>He marveled because of their unbelief. <sup>7</sup>Then He went about the villages in a circuit, teaching.

Sending Out the Twelve

<sup>10m</sup>Also He said to them, “In whatever place you enter a house, stay there till you depart from that place. <sup>11n</sup>And whoever* will not receive you nor hear you, when you depart from there, <sup>o</sup>shake off the dust under your feet as a testimony against them.* Assuredly, I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city!”

John the Baptist Beheaded

was a just and holy man, and he protected him. And when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

And she said, “The head of John the Baptist!”

<sup>26a</sup>And the king was exceedingly sorry; yet, because of the oaths and because of those who sat with him, he did not want to refuse her. <sup>27</sup>Immediately the king sent an executioner and commanded his head to be brought. And he went and beheaded him in prison, <sup>28</sup>brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother. <sup>29</sup>When his disciples heard of it, they came and <sup>b</sup>took away his corpse and laid it in a tomb.

Feeding the Five Thousand

<sup>30c</sup>Then the apostles gathered to Jesus and told Him all things, both what they had done and what they had taught. <sup>31d</sup>And He said to them, “Come aside by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.” For <sup>e</sup>there were many coming and going, and they did not even have time to eat. <sup>32</sup>So they departed to a deserted place in the boat by themselves.

true today. Perhaps others were jealous of Jesus’ popularity and huge following. Their envy even took the form of violence against Christ (Luke 4:29).

6:14 King Herod. This is Herod Antipas, one of the sons of Herod the Great, the king who tried to kill the baby Jesus (Matt. 2:1–18). After Herod the Great’s death in 4 B.C. his kingdom was divided between Archelaus, who received Judea and Samaria; Philip, who ruled Iturea and Trachonitis, north and east of Galilee; and Antipas, who controlled Galilee and Perea from 4 B.C. to A.D. 39. Jesus ministered largely in the territory ruled by Antipas.

6:18 not lawful. John’s message to Herod was that his divorce was not lawful as grounds for remarriage. John’s declaration could be based on Jesus’ stern words about divorce (10:11–12) or on Leviticus 20:21, which prohibits a man from taking his brother’s wife.

6:23 up to half my kingdom. This is an expression meaning a large amount but with some limits.

14:13–21 6:33 <sup>g</sup>[Col. 1:6]

<sup>34h</sup>And Jesus, when He came out, saw a great multitude and was moved with compassion for them, because they were like <sup>i</sup>sheep not having a shepherd. So <sup>j</sup>He began to teach them many things. <sup>35k</sup>When the day was now far spent, His disciples came to Him and said, “This is a deserted place, and already the hour is late. <sup>36</sup>Send them away, that they may go into the surrounding country and villages and buy themselves bread;* for they have nothing to eat.”

And they said to Him, <sup>l</sup>“Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread and give them something to eat?”

<sup>38</sup>But He said to them, “How many loaves do you have? Go and see.”

And when they found out they said, <sup>m</sup>“Five, and two fish.”

<sup>39</sup>Then He <sup>n</sup>commanded them to make them all sit down in groups on the green grass. <sup>40</sup>So they sat down in ranks, in hundreds and in fifties. <sup>41</sup>And when He had taken the five loaves and the two fish, He <sup>o</sup>looked up to heaven, <sup>p</sup>blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to His disciples to set before them; and the two fish He divided among them all. <sup>42</sup>So they all ate and were filled. <sup>43</sup>And they took up twelve baskets full of fragments and of the fish. <sup>44</sup>Now those who had eaten the loaves were about* five thousand men.

Jesus Walks on the Sea

<sup>45q</sup>Immediately He made His disciples get into the boat and go before Him to the other side, to Bethsaida, while He sent the multitude away. <sup>46</sup>And when He had sent them away, He <sup>r</sup>departed to the mountain to pray. <sup>47</sup>Now when evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea; and He was alone on the land. <sup>48</sup>Then He saw them straining at rowing, for the wind was against them. Now about the fourth watch of the night He came to them, walking on the sea, and <sup>s</sup>would have passed them

by. <sup>49</sup>And when they saw Him walking on the sea, they supposed it was a <sup>t</sup>ghost, and cried out; <sup>50</sup>for they all saw Him and were troubled. But immediately He talked with them and said to them, <sup>u</sup>“Be of good cheer! It is I; do not be <sup>v</sup>afraid.” <sup>51</sup>Then He went up into the boat to them, and the wind <sup>w</sup>ceased. And they were greatly <sup>x</sup>amazed in themselves beyond measure, and marveled. <sup>52</sup>For <sup>y</sup>they had not understood about the loaves, because their <sup>z</sup>heart was hardened.

Many Touch Him and Are Made Well

<sup>53a</sup>When they had crossed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret and anchored there. <sup>54</sup>And when they came out of the boat, immediately the people recognized Him, <sup>55</sup>ran through that whole surrounding region, and began to carry about on beds those who were sick to wherever they heard He was. <sup>56</sup>Wherever He entered, into villages, cities, or the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged Him that <sup>b</sup>they might just touch the <sup>c</sup>hem of His garment. And as many as touched Him were made well.

Defilement Comes from Within

6:34 moved with compassion. The Gospels record several times that when Jesus saw a need He responded compassionately (1:41). That compassion led to action, despite an obvious lack of food in this instance.

6:36–37 Send them away. The disciples sought to avoid responsibility for the hungry multitude.

6:39–40 in ranks, in hundreds and in fifties. Details such as sitting on the green grass, which is possible only in late winter and early spring, and the fact that the groups were counted are indications that an eyewitness, probably Peter, recounted this story to Mark.

6:43 twelve baskets full of fragments. These were small baskets commonly carried by travelers. It is possible to conclude that the leftovers gave each disciple enough food for his own use.

6:51 He went up into the boat to them. Three miracles are contained in this brief account (vv. 47–51):

(1) In the darkness Jesus saw the disciples out in the storm miles away, (2) Jesus walked on the water, and (3) Jesus showed complete control over His creation when the wind ceased.

6:56 Wherever He entered, into villages, cities, or the country. Mark summarizes Jesus' healing ministry, noting how widespread it was.

7:3–4 For the Pharisees. These two verses explain the tradition of handwashing and various kinds of like the washing of cups, pitchers, copper vessels, and couches.

<sup>6</sup>He answered and said to them, “Well did Isaiah prophesy of you <sup>e</sup>hypocrites, as it is written:

But their heart is far from Me.*

<sup>7</sup> *And in vain they worship Me, Teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.”**

<sup>8</sup>For laying aside the commandment of God, you hold the tradition of men* —the washing of pitchers and cups, and many other such things you do.”

<sup>9</sup>He said to them, “All too well <sup>g</sup>you reject the commandment of God, that you may keep your tradition. <sup>10</sup>For Moses said, <sup>h</sup>“Honor your father and your mother”;* and, <sup>i</sup>“He who curses father or mother, let him be put to death.”* <sup>11</sup>But you say, “If a man says to his father or mother, <sup>j</sup>“Whatever profit you might have received from me is Corban”—’ (that is, a gift to God), <sup>12</sup>then you no longer let him do anything for his father or his mother, <sup>13</sup>making the word of God of no effect through your tradition which you have handed down. And many such things you do.”

defile him, <sup>19</sup>because it does not enter his heart but his stomach, and is eliminated, thus purifying all foods?”* <sup>20</sup>And He said, <sup>q</sup>“What comes out of a man, that defiles a man.” <sup>21r</sup>For from within, out of the heart of men, <sup>s</sup>proceed evil thoughts, <sup>t</sup>adulteries, <sup>v</sup>fornications, murders, <sup>22</sup>thefts, <sup>v</sup>covetousness, wickedness, <sup>w</sup>deceit, <sup>x</sup>lewdness, an evil eye, <sup>y</sup>blasphemy, <sup>z</sup>pride, foolishness. <sup>23</sup>All these evil things come from within and defile a man.”

A Gentile Shows Her Faith

<sup>24a</sup>From there He arose and went to the region of Tyre and Sidon.* And He entered a house and wanted no one to know it, but He could not be <sup>b</sup>hidden. <sup>25</sup>For a woman whose young daughter had an unclean spirit heard about Him, and she came and <sup>c</sup>fell at His feet. <sup>26</sup>The woman was a Greek, a Syro-Phoenician by birth, and she kept asking Him to cast the demon out of her daughter. <sup>27</sup>But Jesus said to her, “Let the children be filled first, for it is not good to take the children’s bread and throw it to the little dogs.”

<sup>29</sup>Then He said to her, “For this saying go your way; the demon has gone out of your daughter.”

Jesus Heals a Deaf-Mute

* 7:7 Isaiah 29:13 * 7:8 NU-Text omits the rest of this verse. * 7:10 Exodus 20:12; Deuteronomy 5:16 * Exodus 21:17 * 7:16 NU-Text omits this verse. * 7:19 NU-Text ends quotation with eliminated, setting off the final clause as Mark’s comment that Jesus has declared all foods clean. * 7:24 NU-Text omits and Sidon.

ceremonial uncleanness. Mark’s intended readers in Rome likely needed more background on the Jewish faith to understand this controversy.

7:5 the tradition of the elders. This phrase refers to a series of rules meant to bolster the ceremonial law of the Jews. Its authority was not supported by Scripture. The question indirectly challenged Jesus, for as the disciples’ teacher He was judged responsible for their actions.

7:6–7 hypocrites. The term originally referred to actors who wore masks on stage as they played different characters. Thus the Pharisees were not genuinely religious; they were merely playing a part for all to see.

7:11–13 But you say. This shows the absolute contrast between God’s will and man’s empty tradition. Corban. This was evidently a pious-sounding evasion of the requirement of honoring one’s parents by supporting them financially.

7:24 the region of Tyre. This city is the farthest Jesus traveled from Israel during His public ministry.

7:27 to the little dogs. Jesus is not attempting to insult the woman by using this metaphor. In fact, He is testing her faith. Matthew records Jesus’ reaction to her reply, “O woman, great is your faith” (Matt. 15:28).

7:28 And she answered. The woman understood Jesus’ test and persistently replied that even during the meal the dogs consume the children’s crumbs that fall from the table.

of Galilee. <sup>32</sup>Then <sup>e</sup>they brought to Him one who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech, and they begged Him to put His hand on him. <sup>33</sup>And He took him aside from the multitude, and put His fingers in his ears, and <sup>f</sup>He spat and touched his tongue. <sup>34</sup>Then, <sup>g</sup>looking up to heaven, <sup>h</sup>He sighed, and said to him, “Ephphatha,” that is, “Be opened.”

Feeding the Four Thousand

8 In those days, <sup>a</sup>the multitude being very great and having nothing to eat, Jesus called His disciples to Him and said to them, <sup>2</sup>“I have <sup>b</sup>compassion on the multitude, because they have now continued with Me three days and have nothing to eat. <sup>3</sup>And if I send them away hungry to their own houses, they will faint on the way; for some of them have come from afar.”

And they said, “Seven.”

<sup>6</sup>So He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground. And He took the seven loaves and gave thanks, broke them and gave them to His disciples to set before them; and they set them before the multitude. <sup>7</sup>They also had a few small fish; and <sup>d</sup>having blessed them, He said to set them also before them. <sup>8</sup>So they ate and were filled, and they took up seven large baskets of leftover fragments. <sup>9</sup>Now those who had eaten were about four thousand. And He sent them away, <sup>10</sup>immediately got into the boat with His disciples, and came to the region of Dalmanutha.

The Pharisees Seek a Sign

<sup>11</sup>Then the Pharisees came out and began to dispute with Him, seeking from Him a sign from heaven, testing Him. <sup>12</sup>But He <sup>g</sup>sighed deeply in His spirit, and said, “Why does this generation seek a sign? Assuredly, I say to you, <sup>h</sup>no sign shall be given to this generation.”

Beware of the Leaven of the Pharisees and Herod

<sup>17</sup>But Jesus, being aware of it, said to them, “Why do you reason because you have no bread? <sup>k</sup>Do you not yet perceive nor understand? Is your heart still* hardened? <sup>18</sup>Having eyes, do you not see? And having ears, do you not hear? And do you not remember? <sup>19</sup>When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments did you take up?”

They said to Him, “Twelve.”

<sup>20</sup>Also, <sup>m</sup>when I broke the seven for the four thousand, how many large baskets full of fragments did you take up?”

And they said, “Seven.”

A Blind Man Healed at Bethsaida

* 8:14 NU-Text and M-Text read they. * 8:17 NU-Text omits still.

7:32–35 one who was deaf. The healing of this deaf man (who also had a speech impediment) is one of the two miracles recorded by Mark only. (The other is the healing of the blind man in 8:22–26.)

8:8 seven large baskets. There was one basket for each original loaf. These baskets were much larger than the 12 small personal baskets mentioned in 6:43. It was the kind of larger basket that was used to lower Paul over the wall of Damascus (Acts 9:25).

8:10 Dalmanutha. This was probably on the western side of the Sea of Galilee, about three miles north of modern Tiberias and about five miles southwest of Capernaum. This is the only time it is mentioned in the New Testament.

8:11 the Pharisees came out and began to dispute with Him. The Pharisees’ testing of Jesus was crafty and devious. Obviously these men did not heed the many signs and wonders that Jesus had already performed. John 20:30–31 indicates that the signs were meant to produce faith. It is doubtful that the Pharisees would have changed their minds even if they had seen another miracle.

8:17–21 How is it you do not understand? The disciples continued to show a lack of spiritual discernment despite the miracles they had witnessed. Jesus’ rebuke was intended to make them recall what God had done for them.

<sup>25</sup>Then He put His hands on his eyes again and made him look up. And he was restored and saw everyone clearly. <sup>26</sup>Then He sent him away to his house, saying, “Neither go into the town, nor tell anyone in the town.”*

Peter Confesses Jesus as the Christ

<sup>27</sup>Now Jesus and His disciples went out to the towns of Caesarea Philippi; and on the road He asked His disciples, saying to them, “Who do men say that I am?”

<sup>29</sup>He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?”

Peter answered and said to Him, “You are the Christ.”

<sup>30</sup>Then He strictly warned them that they should tell no one about Him.

Jesus Predicts His Death and Resurrection

Take Up the Cross and Follow Him

<sup>34</sup>When He had called the people to Himself, with His disciples also, He said to them, <sup>b</sup>“Whoever desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. <sup>35</sup>For <sup>c</sup>whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and the gospel’s will save it. <sup>36</sup>For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? <sup>37</sup>Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? <sup>38</sup><sup>d</sup>For whoever <sup>e</sup>is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him the Son of Man also will be ashamed when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels.”

9 And He said to them, “Assuredly, I say to you that there are some standing here who will not taste death till they see <sup>h</sup>the kingdom of God present with power.”

Jesus Transfigured on the Mount

8:29 But who do you say that I am? Jesus emphatically asks His disciples for their understanding. you. Prominent in Jesus’ question is the word “you.” You are the Christ. Peter answers for the group. Jesus wants His disciples to grasp firmly His true identity before He reveals to them the necessity of His coming death and resurrection. In Mark’s Gospel, only the disciples come to understand who Jesus is.

8:30 tell no one about Him. Jesus’ warning may seem strange. Its explanation lies in the fact that the Jews expected the Messiah to be a political liberator. Jesus’ first coming was meant to accomplish another kind of liberation—release from sin. Hence Jesus was careful not to use the name Messiah publicly, for it was misunderstood by the Jewish people, their leaders, and the Roman authorities.

8:38 when He comes in the glory. This is the first glimpse of the fulfillment of all history (1 Cor. 15:24–28). Those who will reign with Christ invest their lives in that which will last (v. 35). Those who are willing to confess Him today will be rewarded before the Father in heaven (Matt. 5:10–12; 2 Tim. 2:11–13; Rev. 2:26–28).

9:4 Elijah. Elijah is mentioned in Malachi 4:5–6 in connection with the future coming of Christ. This is why people asked John the Baptist if he were Elijah (John 1:21). Moses was the lawgiver and liberator, while Elijah was the first of the great prophets. Their presence confirmed the reality that Jesus is the Messiah of Peter’s confession.

till the Son of Man had risen from the dead. <sup>10</sup>So they kept this word to themselves, questioning <sup>i</sup>what the rising from the dead meant.

A Boy Is Healed

<sup>14n</sup>And when He came to the disciples, He saw a great multitude around them, and scribes disputing with them. <sup>15</sup>Immediately, when they saw Him, all the people were greatly amazed, and running to Him, greeted Him. <sup>16</sup>And He asked the scribes, “What are you discussing with them?”

<sup>17</sup>Then <sup>o</sup>one of the crowd answered and said, “Teacher, I brought You my son, who has a mute spirit. <sup>18</sup>And wherever it seizes him, it throws him down; he foams at the mouth, gnashes his teeth, and becomes rigid. So I spoke to Your disciples, that they should cast it out, but they could not.”

<sup>19</sup>He answered him and said, “O <sup>p</sup>faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him to Me.” <sup>20</sup>Then they brought him to Him. And <sup>q</sup>when he saw Him, immediately the spirit convulsed him, and he fell on the ground and wallowed, foaming at the mouth.

And he said, “From childhood. <sup>22</sup>And often he has thrown him both into the fire and into the water to destroy him. But if You can do anything, have compassion on us and help us.”

<sup>25</sup>When Jesus saw that the people came running together, He <sup>t</sup>rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, “Deaf and dumb spirit, I command you, come out of him and enter him no more!” <sup>26</sup>Then the spirit cried out, convulsed him greatly, and came out of him. And he became as one dead, so that many said, “He is dead.” <sup>27</sup>But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose.

<sup>28u</sup>And when He had come into the house, His disciples asked Him privately, “Why could we not cast it out?”

<sup>29</sup>So He said to them, “This kind can come out by nothing but <sup>v</sup>prayer and fasting.”*

Jesus Again Predicts His Death and Resurrection

<sup>30</sup>Then they departed from there and passed through Galilee, and He did not want anyone to know it. <sup>31w</sup>For He taught His disciples and said to them, “The Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of men, and they will <sup>x</sup>kill Him. And after He is killed, He will <sup>y</sup>rise the third day.” <sup>32z</sup>But they did not understand this saying, and were afraid to ask Him.

Who Is the Greatest?

<sup>33a</sup>Then He came to Capernaum. And when He was in the house He asked them, “What was it you disputed among yourselves on the road?” <sup>34</sup>But they kept silent, for on the road they had <sup>b</sup>disputed among themselves who would be the <sup>c</sup>greatest. <sup>35</sup>And He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, “If anyone desires to be first, he shall be last of all and servant of all.” <sup>36</sup>Then <sup>e</sup>He took a little child and set him in the midst of them. And when He had taken him in His arms, He said to them, <sup>37</sup>“Whoever receives one of these little children in My name receives Me; and <sup>f</sup>whoever receives Me, receives not Me but Him who sent Me.”

Jesus Forbids Sectarianism

9:24 I believe; help my unbelief. These words express the dilemma that even those who believe can be nagged by doubt and hopelessness. This man took the correct course by appealing to Jesus for help.

9:40 For he who is not against us is on our side. Jesus is not endorsing all who claim to follow Him. Rather, this statement was meant to remind the disciples that God’s work was not necessarily restricted to their small group.

Jesus Warns of Offenses

<sup>42k</sup>“But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble, it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea. <sup>43</sup>If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed, rather than having two hands, to go to hell, into the fire that shall never be quenched— <sup>44</sup>where

*m<sup>c</sup>“Their worm does not die
And the fire is not quenched.”**

<sup>45</sup>And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life lame, rather than having two feet, to be cast into hell, into the fire that shall never be quenched— <sup>46</sup>where

*n<sup>c</sup>“Their worm does not die

<sup>47</sup>And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye, rather than having two eyes, to be cast into hell fire— <sup>48</sup>where

*o<sup>c</sup>“Their worm does not die

Tasteless Salt Is Worthless

<sup>49</sup>“For everyone will be seasoned with fire,* and every sacrifice will be seasoned with salt. <sup>50</sup>Salt is good, but if the salt loses its flavor, how will you season it? <sup>51</sup>Have salt in yourselves, and <sup>52</sup>have peace with one another.”

Marriage and Divorce

10 Then <sup>a</sup>He arose from there and came to the region of Judea by the other side of the Jordan. And multitudes gathered to Him again, and as He was accused, He taught them again.

<sup>10</sup>In the house His disciples also asked Him again about the same matter. <sup>11</sup>So He said to them, <sup>f</sup>“Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her. And if a woman divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.”

Jesus Blesses Little Children

<sup>14</sup>But when Jesus saw it, He was greatly displeased and said to them, “Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for <sup>h</sup>of such is the kingdom of God. <sup>15</sup>Assuredly, I say to you, <sup>i</sup>whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will <sup>j</sup>by no means enter it.” <sup>16</sup>And He took them up in His arms, laid His hands on them, and blessed them.

<sup>17</sup>Now as He was going out on the road, one came running, knelt before Him, and asked Him, “Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?”

Jesus Counsels the Rich Young Ruler

10:4 a certificate of divorce. This was a document signed before witnesses. Its intent was to limit frivolous divorces. In Jesus’ day, the interpretation of this custom varied widely. The disciples of Hillel allowed divorce for almost any reason, but the followers of Shammai permitted divorce only for sexual impurity.

10:11 Whosoever divorces his wife. Mark includes no exception to Christ’s prohibition of divorce, nor is any exception listed in Luke 16:18, Romans 7:1–2, or 1 Corinthians 7:10–11. Compare Matthew 5:32 where the exception is made.

10:18 No one is good but One, that is, God. This reply is a claim to deity, which Jesus asks the young ruler to recognize.

10:19 Do not. Jesus recounts the Seventh, Sixth, Eighth, Ninth, and Fifth Commandments. Do not defraud. Jesus inserts this phrase just before the Fifth Commandment. All of these commands concern

<sup>20</sup>And he answered and said to Him, “Teacher, all these things I have kept from my youth.”

<sup>21</sup>Then Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, “One thing you lack: Go your way, <sup>b</sup>sell whatever you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, <sup>c</sup>take up the cross, and follow Me.”

<sup>22</sup>But he was sad at this word, and went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions.

With God All Things Are Possible

<sup>23</sup>Then Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, “How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!” <sup>24</sup>And the disciples were astonished at His words. But Jesus answered again and said to them, “Children, how hard it is for those who trust in riches to enter the kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup>It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”

<sup>29</sup>So Jesus answered and said, “Assuredly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or lands, for My sake and the gospel’s, who shall not receive a hundredfold now in this time—houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions—and in the age to come, eternal life. <sup>31</sup>But many who are first will be last, and the last first.”

Jesus a Third Time Predicts His Death and Resurrection

<sup>32</sup>aNow they were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going before them; and they were amazed. And as they followed they were afraid. <sup>b</sup>Then He took the twelve aside again and began to tell them the things that would happen to Him: <sup>33</sup>“Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and to the scribes; and they will condemn Him to death and deliver Him to the Gentiles; <sup>34</sup>and they will mock Him, and scourge Him, and spit on Him, and kill Him. And the third day He will rise again.”

Greatness Is Serving

<sup>35</sup>CThen James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Him, saying, “Teacher, we want You to do for us whatever we ask.”

<sup>36</sup>And He said to them, “What do you want Me to do for you?”

<sup>37</sup>They said to Him, “Grant us that we may sit, one on Your right hand and the other on Your left, in Your glory.”

<sup>38</sup>But Jesus said to them, “You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?”

So Jesus said to them, “You will indeed drink the cup that I drink, and with the baptism I am baptized with you will be baptized; <sup>40</sup>but to sit on My right hand and on My left is not Mine to give, but it is for those for whom it is prepared.”

<sup>41</sup>hAnd when the ten heard it, they began to be greatly displeased with James and John. <sup>42</sup>But Jesus called them to Himself and said to them, “You know that those who are considered rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. <sup>43</sup>Yet it shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become the fair and ethical treatment of other people (Ex. 20:12–17).

10:25–27 It is easier. This comparison of a camel going through a needle is a literal one. In human terms, it is not just difficult, but totally impossible, for a rich man to be saved. But it is also impossible for anyone at all to be saved apart from God’s grace and power. God provides the means of salvation, enlightens the sinner’s understanding, and regenerates the believing soul.

10:30 in this time. This is the time between Christ’s first and second comings. Mark alone mentions that persecutions will follow as well—a point his Roman readers may have already known.

10:37 one on Your right hand and the other on Your left. To be seated at a king’s right hand was to take the position of the most prominence; the person seated at the left hand ranked just below that (Luke 22:24–30). Jesus had to remind the disciples again about the price of greatness in God’s kingdom.

10:38 drink the cup that I drink . . . be baptized with the baptism. These phrases are references to the suffering and death that awaited Jesus (14:36). Jesus wanted His disciples to understand the mocking, scourging, beating, and torture He would have to endure.

Jesus Heals Blind Bartimaeus

<sup>46m</sup>Now they came to Jericho. As He went out of Jericho with His disciples and a great multitude, blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the road begging. <sup>47</sup>And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, <sup>48</sup>Son of David, <sup>49</sup>have mercy on me!"

<sup>48</sup>Then many warned him to be quiet; but he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

<sup>49</sup>So Jesus stood still and commanded him to be called.

Then they called the blind man, saying to him, "Be of good cheer. Rise, He is calling you."

<sup>51</sup>So Jesus answered and said to him, "What do you want Me to do for you?"

The blind man said to Him, "Rabboni, that I may receive my sight."

<sup>52</sup>Then Jesus said to him, "Go your way; <sup>53</sup>your faith has made you well." And immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus on the road.

The Triumphal Entry

11 Now <sup>a</sup>when they drew near Jerusalem, to Bethphage* and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, He sent two of His disciples; <sup>2</sup>and He said to them, "Go into the village opposite you; and as soon as you have entered it you will find a colt tied, on which no one has sat. Loose it and bring it. <sup>3</sup>And if anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord has need of it,' and immediately he will send it here."

<sup>4</sup>So they went their way, and found the* colt tied by the door outside on the street, and they loosed it. <sup>5</sup>But some of those who stood there said to them, "What are you doing, loosing the colt?"

<sup>6</sup>And they spoke to them just as Jesus had commanded. So they let them go. <sup>7</sup>Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their clothes on it, and He sat on it. <sup>8b</sup>And many spread their clothes on the road, and others cut down leafy branches from the trees and spread them on the road. <sup>9</sup>Then those who went before and those who followed cried out, saying:

"Hosanna!

<sup>10</sup> Blessed is the kingdom of our father David

That comes in the name of the Lord!*

<sup>11e</sup>And Jesus went into Jerusalem and into the temple. So when He had looked around at all things, as the hour was already late, He went out to Bethany with the twelve.

The Fig Tree Withered

<sup>12</sup>Now the next day, when they had come out from Bethany, He was hungry. <sup>13g</sup>And seeing from afar a fig tree having leaves, He went to see if perhaps He would find something on it. When He came to it, He found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. <sup>14</sup>In response Jesus said to it, "Let no one eat fruit from you ever again."

And His disciples heard it.

10:45 The Ministry of Christ—

1. He is Savior. Sinful men to be saved (1 Tim. 1:15); Christ's qualifications to be Savior (John 10:18–38); His humiliating death (John 19:18); bodily resurrection to guarantee our salvation (1 Cor. 15:13–22); and results of salvation (John 5:24). It is no wonder that, in light of these realities, Paul speaks of Christ as "our great God and Savior" (Titus 2:13).
2. He is High Priest. The high priest brought the people before God on the Day of Atonement (Lev. 16:32–33). Jesus is eminently qualified to be our High Priest: appointed by God (Heb. 5:5), eternal (Heb. 7:24–25), sinless (Heb. 7:26), His offering was final (Heb. 9:28), and His mediation is effective (Rom. 8:34; Heb. 7:25; 1 John 2:1). As the only qualified High Priest for men and women, Jesus Christ thus constitutes the only way to God (1 Tim. 2:5).
3. He is King. King implies sovereign authority and rule over all. This right belongs only to Jesus Christ who is called "Lord of lords and King of kings" (Rev. 17:14; 19:16). He is destined to rule as king and every knee must ultimately bow and acknowledge His authority (Phil. 2:10). Those who acknowledge Christ as King and Lord in this life will reign with Him; those who do not will be judged by Him (Rev. 20:11–15).

11:8–11 Bethany. Jesus retired there each night, perhaps staying in a friend's home. But in view of the fact that Jesus appears to have had no breakfast the next day (v. 12), He and the twelve may have camped outside this night.

11:13 it was not the season for figs. Passover always comes in March or April, and fig season is not until May or June. However, fig trees generally produce a number of buds in March, leaves in April, and ripe fruit later on. Jesus was looking for the edible buds, the lack of which indicated that the tree would be fruitless that year.

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

<sup>15</sup>*h*So they came to Jerusalem. Then Jesus went into the temple and began to drive out those who bought and sold in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold doves. <sup>16</sup>And He would not allow anyone to carry wares through the temple. <sup>17</sup>Then He taught, saying to them, “Is it not written, ‘My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations’?* But you have made it a ‘den of thieves.’”*

The Lesson of the Withered Fig Tree

<sup>20</sup>*n*Now in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots. <sup>21</sup>And Peter, remembering, said to Him, “Rabbi, look! The fig tree which You cursed has withered away.”

<sup>22</sup>So Jesus answered and said to them, “Have faith in God. <sup>23</sup>For <sup>2</sup>*o*assuredly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, ‘Be removed and be cast into the sea,’ and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that those things he says will be done, he will have whatever he says. <sup>24</sup>Therefore I say to you, <sup>2</sup>*w*hatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you will have them.

Forgiveness and Prayer

<sup>25</sup>“And whenever you stand praying, <sup>2</sup>*q*if you have anything against anyone, forgive him, that your Father in heaven may also forgive you your trespasses. <sup>26</sup>But <sup>2</sup>*r*if you do not forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive you your trespasses.”*

Jesus’ Authority Questioned

<sup>27</sup>Then they came again to Jerusalem. <sup>28</sup>And as He was walking in the temple, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came to Him. <sup>29</sup>And they said to Him, “By what <sup>2</sup>*t*authority are You doing these things? And who gave You this authority to do these things?”

<sup>29</sup>But Jesus answered and said to them, “I also will ask you one question; then answer Me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things: <sup>30</sup>The <sup>2</sup>*u*baptism of John—was it from heaven or from men? Answer Me.”

<sup>31</sup>And they reasoned among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’ <sup>32</sup>But if we say, ‘From men’”—they feared the people, for <sup>2</sup>*v*all counted John to have been a prophet indeed. <sup>33</sup>So they answered and said to Jesus, “We do not know.”

And Jesus answered and said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

The Parable of the Wicked Vinedressers

12 Then <sup>2</sup>*q*He began to speak to them in parables: “A man planted a vineyard and set a hedge around it, dug a place for the wine vat and built a tower. And he leased it to vinedressers and went into a far country. <sup>3</sup>Now at vintage-time he sent a servant to the vinedressers, that he might receive some of the fruit of the vineyard from the vinedressers. <sup>4</sup>And they took him and beat him and sent him away empty-handed. <sup>5</sup>Again he sent them another servant, and at him they threw stones,* wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully treated. <sup>6</sup>And again he sent another, and him they killed; and many others, <sup>7</sup>beating some and killing some. <sup>8</sup>Therefore still having one son, his beloved, he also sent him to them last, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’ <sup>9</sup>But those vinedressers said among themselves, ‘This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.’ <sup>10</sup>So they took him and <sup>2</sup>*k*illed him and cast him out of the vineyard.

* 11:17 Isaiah 56:7 • Jeremiah 7:11 * 11:26 NU-Text omits this verse. * 12:4 NU-Text omits and at him they threw stones.

11:17 den of thieves. Jesus was referring to the practice of cheating people, both Israelites and those of other nations, either through a crooked exchange of money or by selling inferior products.

11:21 The fig tree which You cursed has withered away. The passage emphasizes the power of true faith. Some have suggested that the fig tree represented Israel, which bore no fruit and would soon face the judgment of God.

11:29–30 answer Me. The intent of Jesus’ question was to expose once again the insincerity of His detractors. baptism of John. This refers to the authority of John’s baptism. from heaven. Was it ordained by God and worthy of obedience? from men. Or was it of human contrivance and void of any spiritual authority and reality?

12:1 He began to speak to them in parables.

Parables usually get across a significant truth, but the details are not meant to correspond exactly with particular spiritual realities. In this parable, the owner of the vineyard represents God, but God Himself was never so mistaken as to assume they would respect His Son. God is omniscient, whereas the vineyard owner in the parable is not. This story illustrates the immense patience God had with Israel.

<sup>9</sup>“Therefore what will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the vinedressers, and give the vineyard to others.” <sup>10</sup>Have you not even read this Scripture:

<sup>12e</sup>And they sought to lay hands on Him, but feared the multitude, for they knew He had spoken the parable against them. So they left Him and went away.

The Pharisees: Is It Lawful to Pay Taxes to Caesar?

<sup>13f</sup>Then they sent to Him some of the Pharisees and the Herodians, to catch Him in His words. <sup>14</sup>When they had come, they said to Him, “Teacher, we know that You are true, and care about no one; for You do not regard the person of men, but teach the way of God in truth. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not? <sup>15</sup>Shall we pay, or shall we not pay?”

But He, knowing their <sup>h</sup>hypocrisy, said to them, “Why do you test Me? Bring Me a denarius that I may see it.” <sup>16</sup>So they brought it.

And He said to them, “Whose image and inscription is this?” They said to Him, “Caesar’s.”

And they marveled at Him.

The Sadducees: What About the Resurrection?

and they asked Him, saying: <sup>19</sup>“Teacher, <sup>l</sup>Moses wrote to us that if a man’s brother dies, and leaves his wife behind, and leaves no children, his brother should take his wife and raise up offspring for his brother. <sup>20</sup>Now there were seven brothers. The first took a wife; and dying, he left no offspring. <sup>21</sup>And the second took her, and he died; nor did he leave any offspring. And the third likewise. <sup>22</sup>So the seven had her and left no offspring. Last of all the woman died also. <sup>23</sup>Therefore, in the resurrection, when they rise, whose wife will she be? For all seven had her as wife.”

<sup>24</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, “Are you not therefore mistaken, because you do not know the Scriptures nor the power of God? <sup>25</sup>For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but <sup>m</sup>are like angels in heaven. <sup>26</sup>But concerning the dead, that they <sup>n</sup>rise, have you not read in the book of Moses, in the burning bush passage, how God spoke to him, saying, <sup>o</sup>‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’? <sup>27</sup>He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living. You are therefore greatly mistaken.”

The Scribes: Which Is the First Commandment of All?

<sup>28p</sup>Then one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, perceiving* that He had answered them well, asked Him, “Which is the first commandment of all?”

* 12:28 NU-Text reads seeing.

12:12 they sought to lay hands on Him. Only as the final points of the parable were made did these evil men realize that Jesus was speaking of them.

12:14 You are true, and care about no one. This comment was intended as a compliment. The teachers recognized that Jesus was partial to no one. The question, however, was a lose-lose proposition: a yes answer would alienate Jews who opposed Rome, while a no answer could be taken as treason against the state.

12:18 Sadducees were an elite group of religious leaders who denied the existence of angels, the immortality of the soul, and the resurrection. They rejected the oral traditions and accepted only the validity of the Pentateuch, the first five books of the Old Testament.

12:19–22 Moses wrote to us. The custom of marrying the widow of one’s brother was supported by Deuteronomy 25:5–6, but it was not absolutely binding (Deut. 25:7–10).

12:26–27 I am the God of Abraham . . . Isaac . . . Jacob. Jesus quotes from the law—the Book of Exodus—to make His point. God said I am the God of the three patriarchs mentioned, not “I was their God, but now they are dead.” He still is their God because they are still alive. Their souls not only live after death, but their bodies will be raised anew as well.

12:29 Hear, O Israel. In Judaism, these words (quoted from Deut. 6:4–5) are known as the Shema. It is described by Jews as the most important words a Jew can know. Jesus quotes these words at the beginning of answering the question, “Which is the first commandment of all?” We should be driven to the cross. There, we understand His love for us and are constantly motivated to seek to love Him better because of what He has done. We can only be thankful at the comprehensiveness of His love. Even though we sin every day of our lives, He forgives. We just need to keep coming to Him for that forgiveness.

*you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.* This is the first commandment.**<sup>31</sup> And the second, like it, is this: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”<sup>32</sup> There is no other commandment greater than “these.”

<sup>32</sup>So the scribe said to Him, “Well said, Teacher. You have spoken the truth, for there is one God, and there is no other but He. <sup>33</sup>And to love Him with all the heart, with all the understanding, with all the soul,* and with all the strength, and to love one’s neighbor as oneself, <sup>34</sup>is more than all the whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.”

Jesus: How Can David Call His Descendant Lord?

<sup>35x</sup>Then Jesus answered and said, while He taught in the temple, “How is it that the scribes say that the Christ is the Son of David? <sup>36</sup>For David himself said <sup>37</sup>by the Holy Spirit:

*“The LORD said to my Lord,
“Sit at My right hand,
Till I make Your enemies Your
footstool.”**

<sup>37</sup>Therefore David himself calls Him ‘Lord’; how is He then his ‘Son?’

And the common people heard Him gladly.

Beware of the Scribes

pretense make long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation.”

The Widow’s Two Mites

<sup>43</sup>Now Jesus sat opposite the treasury and saw how the people put money <sup>44</sup>into the treasury. And many who were rich put in much. <sup>45</sup>Then one poor widow came and threw in two mites,* which make a quadrans. <sup>46</sup>So He called His disciples to Himself and said to them, “Assuredly, I say to you that <sup>47</sup>this poor widow has put in more than all those who have given to the treasury; <sup>48</sup>for they all put in out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty put in all that she had, <sup>49</sup>her whole livelihood.”

Jesus Predicts the Destruction of the Temple

The Signs of the Times and the End of the Age

<sup>11</sup>And Jesus, answering them, began to say: <sup>12</sup>“Take heed that no one deceives you. <sup>13</sup>For many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am He,’ and will deceive many. <sup>14</sup>But when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do

12:35 in the temple. This does not refer to the sanctuary itself, where only the priests were allowed to minister. The temple environs included a number of porticos and courts. One was designated especially for women, another for men. Gentiles could view the temple from an outer area.

12:43–44 this poor widow hath put it more than all those who have given to the treasury. Jesus’ comparison of the percentages contributed by the rich and the poor reminds us that God measures not how much we give, but how much we retain. Those with greater income have an obligation to return a larger percentage of it to God’s work.

13:1–2 what manner of stones and what buildings are here. The disciples’ excitement over the temple’s tremendous construction was a natural reaction to splendid and majestic architecture; each stone weighed several tons. Josephus described its magnificence. There was nothing like it in all the world.

Begun by Herod the Great in 20 B.C., the temple was later completed by Herod’s descendants some time before A.D. 66. Its beautiful white marble stones with gold ornamentation reached 100 feet high. Surrounding it were colonnaded walkways, courtyards, and stairways that filled 20 acres of the most prominent landscape in all Jerusalem.

not be troubled; for such things must happen, but the end is not yet. <sup>8</sup>For nation will rise against nation, and <sup>9</sup>kingdom against kingdom. And there will be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines and troubles.* <sup>10</sup>These are the beginnings of sorrows.

<sup>9</sup>But <sup>10</sup>watch out for yourselves, for they will deliver you up to councils, and you will be beaten in the synagogues. You will be brought* before rulers and kings for My sake, for a testimony to them. <sup>10</sup>And <sup>11</sup>the gospel must first be preached to all the nations. <sup>11</sup>But when they arrest you and deliver you up, do not worry beforehand, or premeditate* what you will speak. But whatever is given you in that hour, speak that; for it is not you who speak, <sup>12</sup>but the Holy Spirit. <sup>12</sup>Now <sup>13</sup>brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; and children will rise up against parents and cause them to be put to death. <sup>13</sup>And you will be hated by all for My name's sake. But <sup>14</sup>he who endures to the end shall be saved.

The Great Tribulation

<sup>14</sup>“So when you see the *s‘abomination of desolation,** spoken of by Daniel the prophet,* standing where it ought not” (let the reader understand), “then <sup>15</sup>let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. <sup>15</sup>Let him who is on the housetop not go down into the house, nor enter to take anything out of his house. <sup>16</sup>And let him who is in the field not go back to get his clothes. <sup>17</sup>But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! <sup>18</sup>And pray that your flight may not be in winter. <sup>19</sup>For in those days there will be tribulation, such as has not been since the beginning of the creation which God created until this time, nor ever shall be. <sup>20</sup>And unless the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh would be saved; but for the elect's sake, whom He chose, He shortened the days.

The Coming of the Son of Man

<sup>24</sup>“But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; <sup>25</sup>the stars of heaven will fall, and the powers in the heavens will be <sup>26</sup>shaken. <sup>26</sup>Then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. <sup>27</sup>And then He will send His angels, and gather together His elect from the four winds, from the farthest part of earth to the farthest part of heaven.

The Parable of the Fig Tree

<sup>28</sup>“Now learn this parable from the fig tree: When its branch has already become tender, and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. <sup>29</sup>So you also, when you see these things happening, know that it* is near—at the doors! <sup>30</sup>Assuredly, I say to you, this generation will by no means pass away till all these things take place. <sup>31</sup>Heaven and earth will pass away, but <sup>32</sup>My words will by no means pass away.

No One Knows the Day or Hour

13:11–12 the Holy Spirit. The promise given that the Holy Spirit will guide one's speech in the hour of trial applies first to the twelve and only secondarily to others who will experience persecution. But this promise does not assure escape from persecution or even freedom from being put to death.

13:13 he who endures to the end shall be saved. This is not referring to regeneration or justification but to physical deliverance from affliction (vv. 19–20). The ones who physically endure will be delivered into Christ's messianic kingdom.

13:14 standing where it ought not. This phrase refers to the presence of an idol standing in the temple. Daniel's prediction primarily referred to placement of sacrifices to Zeus on the temple's altar by Antiochus Epiphanes. Some believe that the destruction of the Herodian temple in A.D. 70 fulfilled Jesus' prediction. Others still await its fulfillment in the blasphemous actions of the antichrist in the last days (2 Thess. 2:3–4).

Jesus likened the signs of His second coming to the sprouts of growth and leaves on a fig tree. Both point to the glories to come—the full flowering of the earth and return of Christ.

13:32 But of that day and hour no one knows. As one who was fully God and at the same time fully man, Jesus possessed all the attributes of deity, including omnipotence and omniscience. He knew what was in people's hearts (2:8), and He could still the waves (4:39). When Jesus became a man, however, He voluntarily placed certain knowledge in the hands of the

The Plot to Kill Jesus

14 After <sup>a</sup>two days it was the Passover and <sup>b</sup>the Feast of Unleavened Bread. And the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take Him by trickery and put Him to death. <sup>2</sup>But they said, "Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar of the people."

The Anointing at Bethany

<sup>3c</sup>And being in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper, as He sat at the table, a woman came having an alabaster flask of very costly oil of spikenard. Then she broke the flask and poured it on His head. <sup>4</sup>But there were some who were indignant among themselves, and said, "Why was this fragrant oil wasted? <sup>5</sup>For it might have been sold for more than three hundred <sup>d</sup>denarii and given to the poor." And they <sup>e</sup>criticized her sharply.

<sup>6</sup>But Jesus said, "Let her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work for Me. <sup>7</sup>For you have the poor with you always, and whenever you wish you may do them good; <sup>8</sup>but Me you do not have always. <sup>8</sup>She has done what she could. She has come beforehand to anoint My body for burial. <sup>9</sup>Assuredly, I say to you, wherever this gospel is <sup>h</sup>preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told as a memorial to her."

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

<sup>10i</sup>Then Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests to betray Him to them. <sup>11</sup>And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. So he sought how he might conveniently betray Him.

Jesus Celebrates the Passover with His Disciples

<sup>12j</sup>Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they killed the Passover lamb, His disciples said to Him, "Where do You want us to go and prepare, that You may eat the Passover?"

<sup>13</sup>And He sent out two of His disciples and said to them, "Go into the city, and a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water; follow him. <sup>14</sup>Wherever he goes in, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is the guest room in which I may eat the Passover with My disciples?"'"

<sup>15</sup>Then he will show you a large upper room, furnished and prepared; there make ready for us."

<sup>16</sup>So His disciples went out, and came into the city, and found it just as He had said to them; and they prepared the Passover.

<sup>17k</sup>In the evening He came with the twelve. <sup>18</sup>Now as they sat and ate, Jesus said, "Assuredly, I say to you, <sup>l</sup>one of you who eats with Me will betray Me."

<sup>19</sup>And they began to be sorrowful, and to say to Him one by one, "Is it I?" And another said, "Is it I?"*

* 14:19 NU-Text omits this sentence.

Father. Of course today, glorified in heaven, Jesus now knows the day and hour of His return.

13:34–36 like a man going to a far country. Jesus' parable of the absent master of the house is unique to Mark. The point of the parable is that the master could return at any time so all servants must be vigilant and watchful (Luke 19:11–27).

14:3 alabaster. Alabaster is a translucent stone still used to make ornamented jewelry boxes and other items of value. spikenard. Spikenard was a precious perfume imported from India, made from plants that grow in the high elevations of the Himalayas. This perfume is mentioned in the Song of Solomon (1:12; 4:13–14).

14:7 For you have the poor with you always. Jesus' statement does not show callousness towards the poor (Deut. 15:7–11). His compassion for those overwhelmed by sickness and poverty appears frequently in the Gospels, and He encouraged others to meet their needs (10:21). But He also wanted people to give freely and of their own volition. No one can coerce a gift from another; no one should criticize another's gift; and no one can read the heart of a giver. A giver's motive is known only to God.

14:14–15 a large upper room. There is reason to suspect that the master of the house may have been Mark's father. Mark himself may have been the young man of verses 51 and 52. Acts 12:12 indicates that this house was later used as a gathering place for many believers who prayed together. Tradition has it that this was also the "upper room" of Acts 1:13 where over 100 believers met on Pentecost.

14:19 Is it I? In Greek this is actually a negative question that implies a negative answer. The phrase means "It is not I, is it?" Matthew and John both identify the culprit as Judas, even though Mark does not (Matt. 26:25; John 13:26).

would have been good for that man if he had never been born.”

Jesus Institutes the Lord's Supper

<sup>23</sup>Then He took the cup, and when He had given thanks He gave it to them, and they all drank from it. <sup>24</sup>And He said to them, “This is My blood of the new* covenant, which is shed for many. <sup>25</sup>Assuredly, I say to you, I will no longer drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.”

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

<sup>27q</sup>Then Jesus said to them, “All of you will be made to stumble because of Me this night,* for it is written:

*“I will strike the Shepherd,
And the sheep will be scattered.”**

<sup>30</sup>Jesus said to him, “Assuredly, I say to you that today, even this night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times.”

<sup>31</sup>But he spoke more vehemently, “If I have to die with You, I will not deny You!” And they all said likewise.

The Prayer in the Garden

<sup>32u</sup>Then they came to a place which was named Gethsemane; and He said to His disciples, “Sit here while I pray.” <sup>33</sup>And He <sup>v</sup>took Peter, James, and John with Him, and He began to be troubled and deeply distressed. <sup>34</sup>Then He said to them, <sup>w</sup>“My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here and watch.”

<sup>39</sup>Again He went away and prayed, and spoke the same words. <sup>40</sup>And when He returned, He found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy; and they did not know what to answer Him.

<sup>41</sup>Then He came the third time and said to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? It is enough! <sup>c</sup>The hour has come; behold, the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>42d</sup>Rise, let us be going. See, My betrayer is at hand.”

14:24 This is My blood. This means that the contents of this cup represented Jesus' blood that would be shed for our sins. The sprinkling of blood was required to institute the Mosaic covenant in Exodus 29:12 (Heb. 9:18–22). In the same way, Jesus' blood shed on the cross initiated the new covenant. His blood was shed for many. He died on the cross in the place of many sinners from every nation. He paid the price for all of their sins. All those who believe in Him will receive eternal life.

14:26 And when they had sung a hymn. What they sang was no doubt from the Psalms. Frequently Psalms 113–118 were used in connection with the Passover.

14:30 before the rooster crows twice. Only Mark mentions Christ's prediction of Peter's denial. The incident would have remained vivid in Peter's mind when he related the story to Mark.

14:34 My soul is exceeding sorrowful. The crushing realization of having to bear the sin of the world and to lose, even temporarily, the fellowship of God the Father was nearly more than Jesus' soul could bear.

14:35 the hour might pass from Him. This is a reference to the time Jesus would bear the punishment for the sin of the world in His own body, becoming, as it were, sin for all.

14:38 Temptation by the Flesh—Flesh in the Bible often means something other than the substance of the human body. It is used constantly to refer to the carnal, sinful principle within man that is opposed to God (Rom. 8:7). The actions produced by the flesh are given in detail in Galatians 5:19–21. Among these are all types of sexual immorality, impurity, hatred, anger, envy, and drunkenness. A person whose life is characterized by these sins cannot be a true Christian and is under the wrath of God (Gal. 5:21; Eph. 2:3). Though the flesh is not eradicated for the Christian, he does have the power to deny it (Rom. 7:15–25). He possesses a new nature empowered by the Holy Spirit. The solution to the urges of the flesh lies in acknowledging that the power of sin was nullified by Jesus' death (Rom. 6:11) and in living under the control of the Spirit's power (Gal. 5:16). The latter is a moment-by-moment dependence in faith on the Spirit's power. The believer must choose by an act of his will to benefit from the Spirit's enablement.

14:39–41 Again He went away. The three apostles were exhorted to watch and pray several times, and no doubt truly desired to uphold their Lord in His deepest hour of need. Yet physical fatigue overcame spiritual alertness.

Betrayal and Arrest in Gethsemane

<sup>45</sup>As soon as he had come, immediately he went up to Him and said to Him, “Rabbi, Rabbi!” and kissed Him.

<sup>48g</sup>Then Jesus answered and said to them, “Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to take Me? <sup>49j</sup> I was daily with you in the temple <sup>h</sup>teaching, and you did not seize Me. But <sup>i</sup>the Scriptures must be fulfilled.”

A Young Man Flees Naked

Jesus Faces the Sanhedrin

<sup>57</sup>Then some rose up and bore false witness against Him, saying, <sup>58</sup>“We heard Him say, <sup>q</sup>‘I will destroy this temple made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.’” <sup>59</sup>But not even then did their testimony agree.

14:43 with a great multitude. Judas came with a detachment of troops (John 18:3). It was one-tenth of a Roman legion or roughly 600 men.

14:50–52 young man. Only Mark tells of this incident and many believe that this young man was Mark himself. How else would he have known this story, and why else should he have included it? If it was Mark, and if the Last Supper was at his home that evening, he could easily have risen from bed, pulled on a linen sheet, and followed the disciples.

14:61 He kept silent. Jesus remained silent before Pilate and Herod Antipas. Finally they could find nothing substantial with which to charge Him. the Christ, the Son of the Blessed. The trial was over, and Jesus stood falsely condemned for blasphemy, which in this context means laying claim to deity. Naturally,

<sup>t</sup>Again the high priest asked Him, saying to Him, “Are You the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?”

And they all condemned Him to be deserving of <sup>w</sup>death.

<sup>65</sup>Then some began to <sup>x</sup>spit on Him, and to blindfold Him, and to beat Him, and to say to Him, “Prophecy!” And the officers struck Him with the palms of their hands.*

Peter Denies Jesus, and Weeps

<sup>71</sup>Then he began to curse and swear, “I do not know this Man of whom you speak!”

<sup>72d</sup>A second time <sup>e</sup>the rooster crowed. Then Peter called to mind the word that Jesus had said to him, “<sup>f</sup>Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times.” And when he thought about it, he wept.

this is the boast of a liar or a lunatic—unless He is the Almighty God in human flesh, as Jesus was (Phil. 2:5–8; 1 John 1:1–3).

14:71–72 the rooster crowed. We are not told that Peter thought at all about Jesus’ words. If he did,

Jesus Faces Pilate

15 Immediately, <sup>a</sup>in the morning, the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council; and they bound Jesus, led Him away, and <sup>b</sup>delivered Him to Pilate. <sup>c</sup>Then Pilate asked Him, “Are You the King of the Jews?”

He answered and said to him, “It is as you say.”

Taking the Place of Barabbas

<sup>11</sup>But <sup>h</sup>the chief priests stirred up the crowd, so that he should rather release Barabbas to them. <sup>12</sup>Pilate answered and said to them again, “What then do you want me to do with Him whom you call the <sup>i</sup>King of the Jews?”

But they cried out all the more, “Crucify Him!”

<sup>15k</sup>So Pilate, wanting to gratify the crowd, released Barabbas to them; and he delivered Jesus, after he had scourged Him, to be <sup>l</sup>crucified.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

<sup>16m</sup>Then the soldiers led Him away into the hall called Praetorium, and they called together the whole garrison. <sup>17</sup>And they clothed Him with purple; and they twisted a crown of thorns, put it on His head, <sup>18</sup>and began to salute Him, “Hail, King of the Jews!” <sup>19</sup>Then they <sup>n</sup>struck Him on the head with a reed and spat on Him; and bowing the knee, they worshiped Him. <sup>20</sup>And when they had <sup>o</sup>mocked Him, they took the purple off Him, put His own clothes on Him, and led Him out to crucify Him.

The King on a Cross

THE KING OF THE JEWS.

maybe he tried to conceal his identity more carefully, but to no avail. Each of the other Gospel writers tells us that the cock crowed immediately upon Peter's final denial (Matt. 26:74; Luke 22:60; John 18:27). This time he thought about it, and he wept.

15:1–3 held a consultation. Rather than murdering Jesus privately, the Jewish politicians decided to seek Pilate's approval so they could execute the “blasphemer” legally. Their charges included many things but apparently centered on treason. Jesus claimed to be a king, thus defying Caesar (Luke 23:2). This crime was punishable in the Roman Empire by death. Pilate must have concluded that the charges against Jesus were groundless, for Mark tells us he desired to release Him.

15:15 after he had scourged Him. This word, used only twice in the New Testament (Matt. 27:26 and here), describes a punishment more severe than flogging or beating. The prisoner was beaten with a whip fashioned of numerous strips of leather attached to a handle. To the leather strips were tied sharp pieces of bone and metal, which could rip and tear one's skin to shreds.

15:22 Golgotha is an Aramaic word. The hill may have resembled the bony features of a skull or was called this because it was a place of death. The name Calvary comes from the Latin word for skull.

15:25 the third hour. This was 9 A.M., using a common Jewish system of marking the day. Jesus suffered on the cross until at least 3 P.M., the ninth hour of verse 34.

Even <sup>c</sup>those who were crucified with Him reviled Him.

Jesus Dies on the Cross

Jesus Buried in Joseph's Tomb

that is, the day before the Sabbath, <sup>43</sup>Joseph of Arimathea, a prominent council member, who <sup>o</sup>was himself waiting for the kingdom of God, coming and taking courage, went in to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. <sup>44</sup>Pilate marveled that He was already dead; and summoning the centurion, he asked him if He had been dead for some time. <sup>45</sup>So when he found out from the centurion, <sup>p</sup>he granted the body to Joseph. <sup>46</sup><sup>q</sup>Then he bought fine linen, took Him down, and wrapped Him in the linen. And he laid Him in a tomb which had been hewn out of the rock, and rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. <sup>47</sup>And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Josés observed where He was laid.

He Is Risen

16 Now <sup>a</sup>when the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome <sup>b</sup>bought spices, that they might come and anoint Him. <sup>2c</sup>Very early in the morning, on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen. <sup>3</sup>And they said among themselves, “Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?” <sup>4</sup>But when they looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away—for it was very large. <sup>5d</sup>And entering the tomb, they saw a young man clothed in a long white robe sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed.

<sup>6e</sup>But he said to them, “Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He is risen! He is not here. See the place where they laid Him. <sup>7</sup>But go, tell His disciples—and Peter—that He is going before you into Galilee; there you will see Him, <sup>f</sup>as He said to you.”

15:32 Let the Christ. Jesus was mockingly called the Christ or Messiah by the chief priests and scribes. Their offer to believe in Christ if He would descend from the cross was not believable.

15:37 Jesus cried out with a loud voice. Frequently, crucifixion produced a coma or unconsciousness prior to death, but Jesus was in control of all His faculties until the moment when He voluntarily gave up His life (John 10:17–18).

15:38 the veil of the temple. The significance of this event is that access to God is now open to all. No longer through priests and the blood of bulls and goats do we approach God, but through the torn veil, which also symbolizes Jesus’ broken and torn body (Heb. 10:20).

15:40–41 There were also women looking on. These women were true disciples of Christ. They had ministered to Jesus’ needs and would be the first witnesses of His resurrection. Mark does not name Jesus’ mother here but includes other prominent women. Three Marys were present along with many other women and Salome. She was the mother of the disciples James and John (Matt. 27:56).

15:43 Joseph of Arimathea. He is identified as a prominent member of the Sanhedrin. To ask Pilate for the body of Jesus was not just a gesture of kindness. It was an act of bravery, which placed Joseph in opposition to the Sanhedrin and identified him as a follower of Jesus.

16:5–6 a young man . . . sitting on the right side. Mark does not identify the young man with the robe as an angel, but he is there to explain the mystery

<sup>8</sup>So they went out quickly* and fled from the tomb, for they trembled and were amazed. <sup>9</sup>And they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Mary Magdalene Sees the Risen Lord

<sup>9</sup>Now when He rose early on the first day of the week, He appeared first to Mary Magdalene, <sup>10</sup>out of whom He had cast seven demons. <sup>10</sup>She went and told those who had been with Him, as they mourned and wept. <sup>11</sup>And when they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe.

Jesus Appears to Two Disciples

<sup>12</sup>After that, He appeared in another form <sup>12</sup>to two of them as they walked and went into the country. <sup>13</sup>And they went and told it to the rest, but they did not believe them either.

The Great Commission

<sup>14</sup>Later He appeared to the eleven as they sat at the table; and He rebuked their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen

Him after He had risen. <sup>15</sup>And He said to them, "Go into all the world <sup>a</sup>and preach the gospel to every creature. <sup>16</sup>He who believes and is baptized will be saved; <sup>17</sup>but he who does not believe will be condemned. <sup>17</sup>And these <sup>a</sup>signs will follow those who believe: <sup>18</sup>In My name they will cast out demons; <sup>18</sup>they will speak with new tongues; <sup>18</sup>they will take up serpents; and if they drink anything deadly, it will by no means hurt them; <sup>18</sup>they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."

Christ Ascends to God's Right Hand

that confronts the women. He is risen. In the passive voice, this indicates that an act of God accomplished the raising up of Jesus.

16:9–20 Now when He rose. The authenticity of these last twelve verses has been disputed. Those who doubt Mark's authorship of this passage point to two fourth-century manuscripts that omit these verses. Others believe that they should be included because even these two manuscripts leave space for all or some of these verses, indicating that their copyists knew of their existence. The difficulty is in knowing whether the space is for this longer version of Mark's ending or for one of the alternate endings found in the manuscripts. Important early church fathers endorsed this passage, and it does not seem likely that Mark would end his story on a note of fear (v. 8).

16:14 to the eleven. After Judas' demise (Matt. 27:3–5; Acts 1:16–18), the disciples were known for a while as the eleven. Jesus upbraided these disciples for not believing the accounts of eyewitnesses, but He pronounced a blessing on "those who have not seen and yet have believed" (John 20:29).

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE

► AUTHOR: It is evident from the prologues to Luke and Acts (1:1–4; Acts 1:1–5) that both books were addressed to a man called Theophilus as a two-volume work. Acts begins with a summary of Luke and continues the story from where the Gospel of Luke concludes. Luke may have been a Hellenistic Jew, but it is more likely that he was a Gentile (this would make him the only Gentile contributor to the New Testament). It has been suggested that Luke may have been a Greek physician to a Roman family who at some point was set free and given Roman citizenship. Luke was not an eyewitness of the events in his Gospel, but he relied on the testimony of apostolic eyewitnesses and reliable written sources.

► THEME: The beginning of Luke makes reference to the fact that there was a great deal of oral tradition concerning Jesus circulating during the first century. The rapid growth of the church (over 3,000 on the Day of Pentecost alone) meant that there would have been potential for significant variety in stories about Jesus. Luke's stated agenda is reliability. Where Matthew goes to great lengths to tie Jesus' story to the history of the Jews, Luke is more interested in where the story fits in the history of the human race. Throughout the book, Christ reaches out to people from a variety of social strata, nationalities, and cultures. Luke sees Jesus as the Savior of the whole world.

Dedication to Theophilus

1:1 many have taken in hand to set in order. Luke makes it clear that he was not the first to write a narrative of the ministry of Jesus.

1:2 eyewitnesses. These verses suggest that Luke was not an eyewitness to the events of Jesus' ministry, but that he had access to statements of those who were.

1:3 orderly account. Luke gave his narrative a basic structure. Not every part is in chronological sequence, but the broad sequence is Christ's ministry in Galilee, His travel to Jerusalem, and His struggles in Jerusalem. The order of events shows how Jesus gradually revealed Himself and how opposition to Him grew.

1:4 the certainty. Theophilus was likely a young Gentile believer. He not only needed to know the truth and accuracy of what the church taught, but he also needed to be reassured. He might well have been wondering what he as a Gentile was doing in a movement which was originally Jewish.

John's Birth Announced to Zacharias

1:5 Herod. He was appointed by the Roman emperor and reigned over Judea, Samaria, Galilee, Perea, and Syria from 37 to 4 B.C.

1:7 Elizabeth was barren. Being childless was a grave disappointment in ancient Israel (1 Sam. 1). The Scriptures record a number of times when God blessed a barren woman by giving her a son (Gen. 18:11; 21:2).

<sup>8</sup>So it was, that while he was serving as priest before God in the order of his division, <sup>9</sup>according to the custom of the priesthood, his lot fell <sup>k</sup>to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord. <sup>10</sup>And the whole multitude of the people was praying outside at the hour of incense. <sup>11</sup>Then an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right side of <sup>m</sup>the altar of incense. <sup>12</sup>And when Zacharias saw him, <sup>n</sup>he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

<sup>19</sup>And the angel answered and said to him, “I am <sup>v</sup>Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God, and was sent to speak to you and bring you these glad <sup>w</sup>tidings. <sup>20</sup>But behold, <sup>x</sup>you will be mute and not able to speak until the day these things take place, because you did not believe my words which will be fulfilled in their own time.”

<sup>21</sup>And the people waited for Zacharias, and marveled that he lingered so long in the temple. <sup>22</sup>But when he came out, he could not speak to them; and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple, for he beckoned to them and remained speechless.

Christ’s Birth Announced to Mary

* 1:17 Malachi 4:5, 6 * 1:28 NU-Text omits blessed are you among women. * 1:29 NU-Text omits when she saw him.

1:8–9 the custom of the priesthood. Zacharias served for one week twice a year at the temple, one of perhaps 18,000 priests who served in a year.

1:13 Do not be afraid. Angels often calmed the fears of those to whom they appeared (v. 30; 2:10; Gen. 15:1; Dan. 10:12; Matt. 1:20; Acts 18:9; Rev. 1:17).

1:14 joy and gladness. Joy is a major theme throughout the writings of Luke (vv. 44,47,58; 2:10; 10:20; 13:17; 15:5–7; Acts 5:41).

1:15 shall drink neither wine nor strong drink. As with Samuel and Samson, a vow was imposed on the child that indicated his special consecration to the Lord. filled with the Holy Spirit. Being filled with the Spirit means being directed by Him and obedient to Him (Eph. 5:18).

1:17 in the spirit and power of Elijah. John was the forerunner of the Messiah. This description recalls Matthew 3:1–6. John’s ministry paralleled Elijah, for both prophets called Israel to repentance (1 Kin. 17:18).

1:19 Gabriel. Two angels are named in the Bible who function as messengers. Michael is the other one (Dan. 8:16; 9:21; 10:13,21; Jude 9; Rev. 12:7).

1:25 my reproach. In ancient Israel barrenness was seen as a cause for shame. The “opening of the womb” indicated God’s grace (Gen. 21:6; 30:23; 1 Sam. 1:2). In this verse, Elizabeth praises the Lord for mercifully blessing her even as He moved His plan for all of human history forward.

1:32 the Highest. This phrase is another way of referring to the majesty of God. David. Jesus fulfilled God’s promise to David concerning an unending dynasty.

1:34 How can this be. Mary did not ask for a sign, so this remark does not reflect unbelief. She accepts her role without question in verse 38, and thus is a model of faith, even though she does not fully understand everything. The work of God in Mary introduces something unknown before or after; the birth into the human race of One who is both God and man.

<sup>35</sup>And the angel answered and said to her, <sup>m</sup>The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Highest will overshadow you; therefore, also, that Holy One who is to be born will be called <sup>n</sup>the Son of God. <sup>36</sup>Now indeed, Elizabeth your relative has also conceived a son in her old age; and this is now the sixth month for her who was called barren. <sup>37</sup>For <sup>o</sup>with God nothing will be impossible.”

<sup>38</sup>Then Mary said, “Behold the maidservant of the Lord! Let it be to me according to your word.” And the angel departed from her.

Mary Visits Elizabeth

The Song of Mary

 For behold, henceforth <sup>x</sup>all generations will call me blessed.
<sup>49</sup> For He who is mighty <sup>y</sup>has done great things for me,
 From generation to generation.

And the rich He has sent away empty.

Birth of John the Baptist

Circumcision of John the Baptist

<sup>61</sup>But they said to her, “There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name.” <sup>62</sup>So they made signs to his father—what he would have him called.

<sup>63</sup>And he asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, saying, “His name is John.” So they all marveled. <sup>64</sup>Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, praising God. <sup>65</sup>Then fear came on all who dwelt around them; and all these sayings were discussed throughout all the hill country of Judea. <sup>66</sup>And all those who heard them <sup>n</sup>kept them in their hearts, saying, “What kind of child will this be?” And <sup>o</sup>the hand of the Lord was with him.

Zacharias' Prophecy

1:35 *The Holy Spirit will come upon you. This is a direct declaration of Jesus' divine conception. The child's conception means He is uniquely set apart.

1:38 *maidservant. This term suggests humility before the Lord and a readiness for faithful and obedient service, which should characterize every believer. Paul uses the masculine form of this word to describe himself (Rom. 1:1).

1:46 *My soul magnifies the Lord. The following hymn gets its name, the “Magnificat,” from the Latin word for magnifies. Mary's hymn is a recital of what God had done for her and for others in the past.

1:48 *all generations will call me blessed. Mary went from being a poor unknown Hebrew girl to the most honored woman in the history of the world.

1:50 *mercy. This term expresses the Old Testament concept of God's loyal, gracious, faithful love (Ps. 103).

1:51–53 *He has put down the mighty. These verses portray a “reversal” in the end times, when those who have abused power will be judged and those who have suffered persecution will be exalted.

1:67 *Zacharias was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied. The presence of the Holy Spirit enabled for us

In the house of His servant
David,
<sup>70</sup> <sup>t</sup>As He spoke by the mouth of His holy prophets,
Who have been <sup>u</sup>“since the world fathers

And to remember His holy covenant,
<sup>73</sup> <sup>w</sup>The oath which He swore to our father Abraham:
<sup>74</sup> To grant us that we,
Being delivered from the hand of our enemies,
Might <sup>x</sup>serve Him without fear, <sup>75</sup> <sup>y</sup>In holiness and righteousness before Him all the days of our life.
<sup>76</sup> “And you, child, will be called the

For <sup>a</sup>you will go before the face of the people

By the remission of their sins,
<sup>78</sup> Through the tender mercy of our God,
With which the Dayspring from on high has visited* us; <sup>79</sup> <sup>c</sup>To give light to those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death,
To <sup>d</sup>guide our feet into the way of peace.”

in spirit, and <sup>f</sup>was in the deserts till the day of his manifestation to Israel.

Christ Born of Mary

2 And it came to pass in those days that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be registered. <sup>2a</sup> This census first took place while Quirinius was governing Syria. <sup>3</sup> So all went to be registered, everyone to his own city.

out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to <sup>b</sup>the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, <sup>c</sup>because he was of the house and lineage of David, <sup>5</sup>to be registered with Mary, <sup>d</sup>his betrothed wife,* who was with child. <sup>6</sup> So it was, that while they were there, the days were completed for her to be delivered. <sup>7</sup> And <sup>e</sup>she brought forth her firstborn Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling cloths, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

Glory in the Highest

<sup>8</sup> Now there were in the same country shepherds living out in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night.
<sup>9</sup> And behold,* an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, <sup>f</sup>and they were greatly afraid. <sup>10</sup> Then the angel said to them, <sup>g</sup>“Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy <sup>h</sup>which will be to all people. <sup>11</sup> For there is born to you this day in the city of David <sup>i</sup>a Savior,
be the sign to you: You will find a Babe wrapped in swaddling cloths, lying in a manger.”

<sup>13</sup> And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying:

* 1:78 NU-Text reads shall visit. * 2:5 NU-Text omits wife. * 2:9 NU-Text omits behold.

Zacharias to announce God's promise. Zacharias's hymn is called the “Benedictus” from its first word in the Latin Vulgate translation. There are three types of prophecy in the Bible: foretelling future events, forth-telling the Word of God, and praising God.
Zacharias's prophecy includes all three.

1:69 horn of salvation. The horn of an ox is a symbol of power (Deut. 33:17; 1 Sam. 2:10; 2 Sam. 22:3; Ps.
75:4–5,10; 132:17; Ezek. 29:21).

1:77 knowledge of salvation. John's task was to prepare the people by informing them of their need to repent (3:1–14) and of the One who was coming (3:15–18).

1:78 the Dayspring from on high has visited us. This phrase is a reference to the coming of Messiah (Num.
24:17; Mal. 4:2).

2:1–2 Augustus. This was the Roman emperor from 31 B.C. to A.D. 14. Quirinius. Quirinius was the governor or administrator of a major census organized to facilitate the collection of taxes.

2:3–4 to be registered. The registration, following Jewish custom, took place at a person's ancestral home (2 Sam. 24). The journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem was about 90 miles, at least a three-day trip.

2:9 glory. This word refers to evidence of God's majestic presence, later associated with Jesus (Acts 7:55). In this scene, the glory is the appearance of light in the midst of darkness.

2:11 Savior, who is Christ the Lord. These three titles together summarize the saving work of Jesus and His sovereign position. What God was calling in 1:47, Jesus is called here. The word Christ means “Anointed,” referring to Jesus' royal, messianic position. The word
Lord was the title of a ruler.

<sup>15</sup>So it was, when the angels had gone away from them into heaven, that the shepherds said to one another, “Let us now go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has come to pass, which the Lord has made known to us.” <sup>16</sup>And they came with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the Babe lying in a manger. <sup>17</sup>Now when they had seen Him, they made widely* known the saying which was told them concerning this Child. <sup>18</sup>And all those who heard it marveled at those things which were told them by the shepherds. <sup>19</sup><sup>n</sup>But Mary kept all these things and pondered them in her heart. <sup>20</sup>Then the shepherds returned, glorifying and <sup>q</sup>praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told them.

Jesus Presented in the Temple

<sup>22</sup>Now when <sup>u</sup>the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were completed, they brought Him to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord <sup>23v</sup>(as it is written in the law of the Lord, <sup>w</sup>“Every male who opens the womb shall be called holy to the LORD”),* <sup>24</sup>and to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the law of the Lord, <sup>x</sup>“A pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons.”*

Simeon Sees God's Salvation

<sup>25</sup>And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon, and this man was just and devout, <sup>y</sup>waiting for the Consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. <sup>26</sup>And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not <sup>z</sup>see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ. <sup>27</sup>So he came <sup>a</sup>by the Spirit into the temple. And when the parents brought in the Child Jesus, to do for Him according to the custom of the law, <sup>28</sup>he took Him up in his arms and blessed God and said:

According to Your word;
And the glory of Your people Israel.”

Anna Bears Witness to the Redeemer

The Family Returns to Nazareth

<sup>39</sup>So when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own city,

2:14 peace, goodwill toward men. Peace is not for everyone, but for those who please God.

2:21 when eight days. According to the law, a Jewish boy was to be circumcised on his eighth day (Gen. 17:12; Lev. 12:3).

2:25 Consolation of Israel. Simeon was waiting for the comforter of Israel, a hope that parallels the hope of national deliverance expressed in the two hymns of chapter one. This deliverance would involve the work of Messiah, as verse 26 suggests.

2:32 A light to bring revelation to the Gentiles. This is the first explicit statement in Luke that includes both Jew and Gentile. Salvation is portrayed as light (1:79). It would be a revelation to Gentiles because they would be able to participate in God's blessing with a fullness that had not been revealed in the Old Testament (Eph. 2:11—3:7).

2:36 there was one, Anna, a prophetess. Anna's work as a prophetess in the temple court suggests that she addressed all who would listen to her, as did Miriam (Ex. 15:20), Deborah (Judg. 4:4), and Huldah (2 Kin. 22:14).

Nazareth. <sup>40k</sup>And the Child grew and became strong in spirit,* filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon Him.

The Boy Jesus Amazes the Scholars

<sup>49</sup>And He said to them, "Why did you seek Me? Did you not know that I must be about 'My Father's business'?" <sup>50</sup>But <sup>q</sup>they did not understand the statement which He spoke to them.

Jesus Advances in Wisdom and Favor

<sup>51</sup>Then He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was subject to them, but His mother <sup>r</sup>kept all these things in her heart. <sup>52</sup>And Jesus <sup>u</sup>increased in wisdom and stature, <sup>v</sup>and in favor with God and men.

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, <sup>a</sup>Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, <sup>2</sup>while <sup>b</sup>Annas and Caiaphas were high priests,* the word of God came to <sup>c</sup>John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness. <sup>3d</sup>And he went into all the region around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance <sup>e</sup>for the remission of sins, <sup>4</sup>as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying:

*'Prepare the way of the LORD;
Make His paths straight.*

And every mountain and hill brought low;*

The crooked places shall be made straight

And the rough ways smooth;

John Preaches to the People

<sup>7</sup>Then he said to the multitudes that came out to be baptized by him, <sup>h</sup>"Brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? <sup>8</sup>Therefore bear fruits <sup>i</sup>worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones. <sup>9</sup>And even now the ax is laid to the root of the trees. Therefore <sup>j</sup>every tree which does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire."

<sup>11</sup>He answered and said to them, <sup>l</sup>"He who has two tunics, let him give to him who has none; and he who has food, <sup>m</sup>let him do likewise."

2:41 to Jerusalem every year. The annual pilgrimage to Jerusalem was customary for many who lived outside the city. The laws commanded three pilgrimages for the men each year: Passover, Pentecost, and the Feast of Tabernacles (Ex. 23:14–17; Deut. 16:16).

2:49 I must be about My Father's business. This is the first indication in Luke's Gospel that Jesus knew He had a unique mission and a unique relationship to the Father.

3:1–2 Tiberius Caesar . . . Pontius Pilate . . . Herod . . . Annas . . . Caiaphas. The various rulers that Luke lists show the complexity of the historical and political situation in Israel during Jesus' day. A first-century Israelite had to deal with the edicts of the Roman emperor, the regulations of the governor over Israel, and the judgments of the religious leaders of Israel.

3:4–6 Prepare the way of the LORD. This citation from Isaiah 40:3–5 declares the coming of God's deliverance. Luke cites the text more fully than Matthew or Mark. He carries the passage through to its mention of salvation being seen by all flesh (v. 6), thus highlighting that the gospel is for all people. The preparation for the arrival of a king typically meant that a road was prepared for his journey. This is what Isaiah compares to the arrival of God's salvation.

3:8 Therefore bear fruits. John the Baptist warned that the fruits of repentance are necessary, not the claim of an ancestral connection to Abraham. External genealogical connections would not change one's attitude to God.

3:11 two tunics. One was an undergarment, and the

So he said to them, “Do not intimidate anyone <sup>p</sup>or accuse falsely, and be content with your wages.”

<sup>15</sup>Now as the people were in expectation, and all reasoned in their hearts about John, whether he was the Christ or not, <sup>16</sup>John answered, saying to all, <sup>a</sup>“I indeed baptize you with water; but One mightier than I is coming, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to loose. He will <sup>b</sup>baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. <sup>17</sup>His winnowing fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clean out His threshing floor, and <sup>c</sup>gather the wheat into His barn; but the chaff He will burn with unquenchable fire.”

<sup>18</sup>And with many other exhortations he preached to the people. <sup>19</sup>But Herod the tetrarch, being rebuked by him concerning Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife,* and for all the evils which Herod had done, <sup>20</sup>also added this, above all, that he shut John up in prison.

John Baptizes Jesus

<sup>21</sup>When all the people were baptized, <sup>a</sup>it came to pass that Jesus also was baptized; and while He prayed, the heaven was opened. <sup>22</sup>And the Holy Spirit descended in bodily form like a dove upon Him, and a voice came from heaven which said, “You are My beloved Son; in You I am <sup>b</sup>well pleased.”

The Genealogy of Jesus Christ

Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Janna, the son of Joseph, <sup>25</sup>the son of Mattathiah, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai, <sup>26</sup>the son of Maath, the son of Mattathiah, the son of Semei, the son of Joseph, the son of Judah, <sup>27</sup>the son of Joannas, the son of Rhesa, the son of <sup>28</sup>Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri, <sup>28</sup>the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmodam, the son of Er, <sup>29</sup>the son of Jose, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, <sup>30</sup>the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonan, the son of Eliakim, <sup>31</sup>the son of Melea, the son of Menan, the son of Mattathah, the son of <sup>32</sup>Nathan, <sup>a</sup>the son of David, <sup>32b</sup>the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon, <sup>33</sup>the son of Amminadab, the son of Ram, the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah, <sup>34</sup>the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, <sup>c</sup>the son of Terah, the son of Nahor, <sup>35</sup>the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Shelah, <sup>36d</sup>the son of Cainan, the son of <sup>e</sup>Arphaxad, <sup>f</sup>the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech, <sup>37</sup>the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalalel, the son of Cainan, <sup>38</sup>the son of Enosh, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, <sup>g</sup>the son of God.

Satan Tempts Jesus

4 Then <sup>a</sup>Jesus, being filled with the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and <sup>b</sup>was led by the Spirit into* the wilderness, other was an outer garment. A person did not need two when another person had none.

* 3:19 NU-Text reads his brother’s wife.

* 3:24 This and several other names in the genealogy are spelled somewhat differently in the NU-Text. Since the New King James Version uses the Old Testament spelling for persons mentioned in the New Testament, these variations, which come from the Greek, have not been footnoted.

3:12 tax collectors. These men were Jewish agents employed by those who had purchased the right to collect taxes for the Roman state. They often added interest to cover their own expenses and to pad their income. They were disliked both for their business practices and for their support of the occupying state.

3:16–17 the Holy Spirit and fire. These two facets of Christ’s work relate to His first and second comings. As a result of Christ’s work at His first coming, believers are placed into one family (1 Cor. 12:13) and commended to the care of the Holy Spirit. When Christ comes a second time, He will come with the fire of judgment. winnowing fan. This tool was a wooden forklife shovel that lifted the grain in the air so that the wind could separate it from the chaff.

3:19–20 all the evils which Herod had done. Herod had divorced his wife to marry his own niece Herodias, who already had been the wife of his brother Philip. Not only was the divorce a problem, so was marrying such a close relative (Lev. 18:16; 20:21).

3:22 You are My beloved Son; in You I am well pleased. This statement combines two ideas. The idea of God’s Son comes from Psalm 2:7, a psalm about God’s chosen King. The idea of pleasure comes from the image of the Servant in Isaiah 42:1. The fact that Jesus is both King and Servant is fundamental to Jesus’ identity.

4:1–13 Temptation of Christ—Hebrews 2:18 makes the point that, because Christ was tempted, He is able to help those who are being tempted. We can see two

<sup>5</sup>Then the devil, taking Him up on a high mountain, showed Him* all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. <sup>6</sup>And the devil said to Him, “All this authority I will give You, and their glory; for this has been delivered to me, and I give it to whomever I wish. <sup>7</sup>Therefore, if You will worship before me, all will be Yours.”

<sup>8</sup>And Jesus answered and said to him, “Get behind Me, Satan!* For* it is written, “You shall worship the LORD your God, and Him only you shall serve.””*

<sup>9</sup>Then he brought Him to Jerusalem, set Him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, “If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down from here. <sup>10</sup>For it is written:

*“He shall give His angels charge over you,
To keep you,”*

<sup>11</sup>and,

Lest you dash your foot against a stone.”*”*

<sup>12</sup>And Jesus answered and said to him, “It has been said, “You shall not tempt the LORD your God.””*

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

<sup>16</sup>So He came to <sup>s</sup>Nazareth, where He had been brought up. And as His custom was, <sup>t</sup>He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read. <sup>17</sup>And He was handed the book of the prophet Isaiah. And when He had opened the book, He found the place where it was written:

*“The<sup>u</sup> Spirit of the LORD is upon Me, Because He has anointed Me
To preach the gospel to the poor;
He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted,**

*To proclaim liberty to the captives
And recovery of sight to the blind,
To <sup>v</sup>set at liberty those who are oppressed;*

examples of this quite plainly. The temptations are about security and power. In becoming man, Jesus gave up both (Phil. 2:5–11). Jesus didn’t cling to any of what was by nature and identity rightfully His. In doing so, He had to trust fully in the Father for His life and very being. He can truly identify with our temptations. His experience wasn’t just like ours are. No one ever gave up more power. No one of greater stature has ever been in such an insecure position. He can be there for us because He has been there before us.

4:3 If You are the Son of God. This is a conditional statement. In other words, Satan was saying: “Let’s assume for the sake of argument that You are the Son of God.” In fact, Satan was challenging Jesus’ identity and authority.

4:4 It is written. Jesus responded to Satan’s temptation by quoting Deuteronomy 8:3. Jesus refused to operate independently of God. The Spirit had led Him into the wilderness to prepare Him for His ministry, so eating at Satan’s instruction would have shown a lack of dependence on the Father.

4:5 all the kingdoms of the world. This temptation was an attempt to offer Jesus power by the wrong means. Satan’s method involved a detour around the cross, an inducement to “take the easy way” to power. 4:10–11 He shall give His angels charge over you, to keep you. Satan cited Psalm 91:11–12, reminding Jesus of God’s promise of protection. However, the mere use of biblical words does not always reveal God’s will, particularly if they are placed in the wrong context.

4:12 You shall not tempt the LORD your God. In response to Satan’s third temptation, Jesus cited Deuteronomy 6:16. God is to be trusted, not tested. The Deuteronomy passage refers to Israel’s attempt to test God at Meribah (Ex. 17:1–7). Jesus would not repeat the nation’s error of unfaithfulness to God.

4:16–17 stood up to read. Most synagogue services had a reading from the Law and one from the Prophets, with an exposition that tied the texts together. Jesus expounded Isaiah 61.

4:18–19 He has sent Me. By citing Isaiah 61, Jesus was claiming to be a royal figure and to have a prophetic mission (v. 24). liberty to the captives. In the Old Testament, captivity refers to Israel’s exile (1:68–74); here captivity refers to sin (1:77; 7:47; 24:47; Acts 2:38; 5:31; 10:43; 13:38; 26:18). those who are oppressed. This was originally the call of Israel, but

<sup>20</sup>Then He closed the book, and gave it back to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all who were in the synagogue were fixed on Him. <sup>21</sup>And He began to say to them, “Today this Scripture is “fulfilled in your hearing.”” <sup>22</sup>So all bore witness to Him, and <sup>23</sup>“marveled at the gracious words which proceeded out of His mouth. And they said, “Is this not Joseph’s son?”

<sup>28</sup>So all those in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were <sup>29</sup>“filled with wrath, <sup>29b</sup>and rose up and thrust Him out of the city; and they led Him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, that they might throw Him down over the cliff. <sup>30</sup>Then <sup>30b</sup>“passing through the midst of them, He went His way.

Jesus Casts Out an Unclean Spirit

quiet, and come out of him!” And when the demon had thrown him in their midst, it came out of him and did not hurt him. <sup>36</sup>Then they were all amazed and spoke among themselves, saying, “What a word this is! For with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come out.” <sup>37</sup>And the report about Him went out into every place in the surrounding region.

Peter’s Mother-in-Law Healed

Many Healed After Sabbath Sunset

<sup>40q</sup>When the sun was setting, all those who had any that were sick with various diseases brought them to Him; and He laid His hands on every one of them and healed them. <sup>41r</sup>And demons also came out of many, crying out and saying, <sup>42</sup>“You are the Christ,* the Son of God!”

And He, <sup>43</sup>rebuking them, did not allow them to speak, for they knew that He was the Christ.

Jesus Preaches in Galilee

<sup>42u</sup>Now when it was day, He departed and went into a deserted place. And the crowd sought Him and came to Him, and tried to keep Him from leaving them; <sup>43v</sup>but He said to them, “I must <sup>44</sup>“preach the kingdom of God to the other cities also, because for this purpose I have been sent.”” <sup>44w</sup>And He was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.*

the nation had failed in its assignment (Is. 58:6). the acceptable year of the Lord. This phrase is an allusion to the year of Jubilee when every 50th year all debt was forgiven and slaves were given their freedom (Lev. 25:10).

4:20 He closed the book. Jesus closed the book in the middle of the sentence. He did not continue because the next phrase—“the day of vengeance of our God”—was not being fulfilled then.

4:34 What have we to do with You. The demon knew that Jesus possessed divine authority, and he wanted nothing to do with Him.

4:35–36 rebuked. This term in Aramaic was a technical term for calling evil into submission. Jesus’ authority over evil forces is clear.

4:41 You are the Christ, the Son of God. This confession, unique to the Gospel of Luke, shows the close connection Luke makes between Jesus’ sonship and messiahship.

4:43 kingdom of God. In Luke, the kingdom is referred to thirty times and six times in Acts. Jesus announced the rule of God through His person, in dealing with sin (24:47), in distributing the Spirit as He mediates blessing from God’s side (24:49), and in reigning with His followers according to the Old Testament promise (Ps. 2:7–12; Acts 3:18–22).

Four Fishermen Called as Disciples

5 So <sup>a</sup>it was, as the multitude pressed about Him to <sup>b</sup>hear the word of God, that He stood by the Lake of Gennesaret, <sup>2</sup>and saw two boats standing by the lake; but the fishermen had gone from them and were washing their nets. <sup>3</sup>Then He got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. And He <sup>c</sup>sat down and taught the multitudes from the boat.

<sup>9</sup>For he and all who were with him were <sup>h</sup>astonished at the catch of fish which they had taken; <sup>10</sup>and so also were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid. <sup>i</sup>From now on you will catch men.” <sup>11</sup>So when they had brought their boats to land, <sup>j</sup>they forsook all and followed Him.

Jesus Cleanses a Leper

Jesus Forgives and Heals a Paralytic

<sup>17</sup>Now it happened on a certain day, as He was teaching, that there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come out of every town of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was present to heal them. <sup>18</sup><sup>t</sup>Then behold, men brought on a bed a man who was paralyzed, whom they sought to bring in and lay before Him. <sup>19</sup>And when they could not find how they might bring him in, because of the crowd, they went up on the housetop and let him down with his bed through the tiling into the midst <sup>u</sup>before Jesus.

He said to the man who was paralyzed, “I say to you, arise, take up your bed, and go to your house.”

*5:17 NU-Text reads present with Him to heal.

5:1 Gennesaret. This is another name for the Sea of Galilee or the Sea of Tiberias.

5:5 at Your word I will let down the net. This is Peter's statement of faith. The fisherman noted that he and his companions had just failed to make a catch at the best time for fishing, the evening. The circumstances were not good for a catch at the time of Jesus' command, but Peter chose to obey His word and let down his nets anyway.

5:12 leprosy. This term was used broadly in the ancient world. It included psoriasis, lupus, and ringworm. Lepers were isolated from the rest of society (Lev. 13:45–46), but could be restored to the community when they recovered (Lev. 14).

5:14 show yourself to the priest. Jesus commanded that the regulation of Leviticus 14 be followed in silencing the healed leper. Jesus sought to avoid drawing excessive attention to His healing ministry.

5:21 blasphemies. The charge of the scribes and the Pharisees was that Jesus' claim dishonored God. This was a serious charge; the conviction of blasphemy would eventually lead to Jesus' death (22:70–71).

5:23 Which is easier. Jesus posed a riddle to His audience. From an external point of view, it would seem easier to declare sins forgiven than to actually heal a person. In reality, however, one has to possess more authority to forgive sin. Jesus linked the healing to what it represented, the forgiveness of sin. Jesus forgave the man's sins and healed him at the same time.

5:24 Son of Man. This is an Aramaic idiom that refers to a human being, meaning “someone” or “I.” Jesus used this idiom as a title, taken from Daniel 7:13. In the Book of Daniel, the phrase “Son of Man” describes a figure who shares authority with the Ancient of Days.

<sup>25</sup>Immediately he rose up before them, took up what he had been lying on, and departed to his own house, <sup>26</sup>glorifying God. <sup>26</sup>And they were all amazed, and they <sup>a</sup>glorified God and were filled with fear, saying, “We have seen strange things today!”

Matthew the Tax Collector

Jesus Is Questioned About Fasting

ruined. <sup>38</sup>But new wine must be put into new wineskins, and both are preserved.* <sup>39</sup>And no one, having drunk old wine, immediately* desires new; for he says, ‘The old is better.’”*

<sup>3</sup>But Jesus answering them said, <sup>e</sup>“Have you not even read this, <sup>f</sup>what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him: <sup>4</sup>how he went into the house of God, took and ate the showbread, and also gave some to those with him, <sup>d</sup>which is not lawful for any but the priests to eat?” <sup>5</sup>And He said to them, “The Son of Man is also Lord of the Sabbath.”

Healing on the Sabbath

5:29 with them. In ancient Israel the table was a place where spiritual points were taught and where fellowship occurred.

5:33 fast. The Pharisees fasted twice a week, on Mondays and Thursdays (18:12), as well as on the Day of Atonement (Lev. 16:29). They also fasted as an act of penitence (Is. 58:1–9) and to recall four times a year the destruction of Jerusalem (Zech. 7:3, 5; 8:19). The goal of fasting was to dedicate oneself to prayer and to focus on God. John led an ascetic life, which his followers also imitated (7:24–28; Matt. 11:1–19).

5:35 the days will come. The image of the removal of the bridegroom is the first hint in Jesus’ ministry of His fast-approaching death.

5:37 puts new wine into old wineskins. This would not work because as the new wine fermented, it would stretch the old skin and break it, ruining the wineskin and wasting the wine.

6:1 plucked . . . ate . . . rubbing. According to Jewish tradition, the disciples were reaping, threshing, and preparing food, and so were violating the commandment not to work on the Sabbath. It is clear that at this point the Pharisees were watching Jesus carefully (v. 7).

6:3–4 showbread. This was bread that was taken from the twelve loaves placed on a table in the holy place and changed once a week (Ex. 25:30; 39:36; Lev. 24:5–9). Jesus pointed out that if David and his men could violate the law to satisfy their hunger, His disciples could do the same.

6:5 also Lord of the Sabbath. Regardless of the laws and customs that the Pharisees cited, Jesus has authority over the Sabbath. Jesus’ claim of divine authority here is similar to His claim of authority to forgive sins in 5:21, 24.

<sup>9</sup>Then Jesus said to them, “I will ask you one thing: †Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or to destroy?”<sup>10</sup> And when He had looked around at them all, He said to the man, *“Stretch out your hand.” And he did so, and his hand was restored as whole as the other.* †But they were filled with rage, and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus.

The Twelve Apostles

Jesus Heals a Great Multitude

The Beatitudes

For yours is the kingdom of God.

- <sup>21</sup> “Blessed are you who hunger now,
And when they †exclude you,
And revile you, and cast out your name as evil,
For the Son of Man’s sake.
<sup>23</sup> †“Rejoice in that day and leap for joy!
For indeed your reward is great in heaven,
For †in like manner their fathers did to the prophets.

Jesus Pronounces Woes

- <sup>24</sup> “But †woe to you †who are rich,
For †you have received your consolation.
For you shall hunger.
For so did their fathers to the false prophets.

Love Your Enemies

<sup>27†</sup>“But I say to you who hear: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, <sup>28†</sup>“bless those who curse you, and †pray for those who spitefully use you. <sup>29†</sup>“To him who strikes you on the one cheek, offer the other also. †And from him who takes away your cloak, do not withhold your tunic either. <sup>30†</sup>Give to everyone who asks of you. And from him who takes away your goods do not ask them back. <sup>31†</sup>And just as you want men to do to you, you also do to them likewise.

* 6:9 M-Text reads to kill. * 6:10 NU-Text and M-Text read to him. • NU-Text omits as whole as the other. * 6:26 NU-Text and M-Text omit to you. • M-Text omits all.

6:11 rage. The term here means irrational or mindless anger. The parallels in Matthew 12:14 and Mark 3:6 make it clear that the Pharisees started to plot against Jesus in earnest after this confrontation.

6:17 level place. This probably refers to a plateau on a mountain. The setting and the contents of the sermon that follows suggest that Luke is providing a shorter version of the Sermon on the Mount, omitting those portions that have to do with the law.

6:20 Blessed are you. Blessed means “happy,” referring to the special joy and favor that comes upon those who experience God’s grace.

6:22 For the Son of Man’s sake. Identification with Jesus usually leads to rejection and hardship, but the disciple who has left all to follow Jesus understands what placing Jesus first means. He or she also recognizes that God is aware of all suffering.

6:24 woe. A woe is a cry of pain that results from misfortune. Just as God presented blessings for obedience and curses for disobedience in Deuteronomy 28, Jesus presented blessings and woes to His disciples who were anticipating the kingdom. The same blessings and woes apply to believers today when their works are evaluated (1 Cor. 3:12–15; 2 Cor. 5:10; 1 John 2:28; Rev. 22:12).

6:27–28 Love your enemies. The threat of religious persecution was very real when Jesus presented His command for extraordinary love. The reference to a cursing enemy suggests a context of religious persecution.

6:30 do not ask them back. The commands of verses 29 and 30 are expressed in such absolute terms that

For even sinners love those who love them. <sup>33</sup>And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners lend to sinners to receive as much back. <sup>35</sup>But <sup>s</sup>love your enemies, <sup>l</sup>do good, and <sup>l</sup>lend, hoping for nothing in return; and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High. For He is kind to the unthankful and evil. <sup>36w</sup>Therefore be merciful, just as your Father also is merciful.

Do Not Judge

<sup>37c</sup>“Judge not, and you shall not be judged. Condemn not, and you shall not be condemned. <sup>v</sup>Forgive, and you will be forgiven. <sup>38z</sup>Give, and it will be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over will be put into your <sup>o</sup>bo-som. <sup>39</sup>And He spoke a parable to them: “Can the blind lead the blind? Will they not both fall into the ditch? <sup>40d</sup>A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone who is perfectly trained will be like his teacher. <sup>41e</sup>And why do you look at the speck in your brother’s eye, but do not perceive the plank in your own eye? <sup>42</sup>Or how can you say to your brother, ‘Brother, let me remove the speck that is in your eye,’ when you yourself do not see the plank that is in your own eye? Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck that is in your brother’s eye.

A Tree Is Known by Its Fruit

his heart* brings forth evil. For out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.

Build on the Rock

Jesus Heals a Centurion’s Servant

7 Now when He concluded all His sayings in the hearing of the people, He <sup>e</sup>entered Capernaum. <sup>2</sup>And a certain centurion’s servant, who was dear to him, was sick and ready to die. <sup>3</sup>So when he heard about Jesus, he sent elders of the Jews to Him, pleading with Him to come and heal his servant. <sup>4</sup>And when they came to Jesus, they begged Him earnestly, saying that the one for whom He should do this was deserving, <sup>5</sup>“for he loves our nation, and has built us a synagogue.”

<sup>6</sup>Then Jesus went with them. And when He was already not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to Him, saying to Him, “Lord, do not trouble Yourself, for I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof. <sup>7</sup>Therefore I did not even think myself worthy to come to You. But <sup>b</sup>say the word, and my servant will be healed. <sup>8</sup>For I also am a man placed under <sup>e</sup>authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to one, ‘Go,’ and he goes; and to another, ‘Come,’ and he comes; and to my servant, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.”

they force the listener to reflect on them by contrasting them with the normal responses people would have to such injustices.

6:35 He is kind to the unthankful and evil. The practice of loving one’s enemies is modeled by God Himself.

6:38 good measure. This illustration comes from the marketplace where grain was poured out, shaken down, and then filled to overflowing so the buyer received the full amount purchased. Such is the full measure that will be returned to one who has been generous.

6:46 Lord, Lord. Jesus pointed out that those who called Him by this title of respect acknowledged submission to Him. However when these same people ignored His teaching, they were guilty of hypocrisy.

7:1 Capernaum. This city was on the northwest shore of the Sea of Galilee. It was an important town in northern Galilee with an economy centered on fishing and agriculture. Heavily Jewish, it was the center for Jesus’ Galilean ministry (4:31–44).

7:5 built us a synagogue. The Roman government regarded synagogues as valuable because their moral emphasis helped maintain order.

<sup>9</sup>When Jesus heard these things, He marveled at him, and turned around and said to the crowd that followed Him, “I say to you, I have not found such great faith, not even in Israel!” <sup>10</sup>And those who were sent, returning to the house, found the servant well who had been sick.*

Jesus Raises the Son of the Widow of Nain

<sup>11</sup>Now it happened, the day after, that He went into a city called Nain; and many of His disciples went with Him, and a large crowd. <sup>12</sup>And when He came near the gate of the city, behold, a dead man was being carried out, the only son of his mother; and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the city was with her. <sup>13</sup>When the Lord saw her, He had <sup>d</sup>compassion on her and said to her, “<sup>e</sup>Do not weep.” <sup>14</sup>Then He came and touched the open coffin, and those who carried him stood still. And He said, “<sup>f</sup>Young man, I say to you, <sup>g</sup>arise.” <sup>15</sup>So he who was dead <sup>g</sup>sat up and began to speak. And He <sup>h</sup>presented him to his mother.

<sup>16</sup>Then fear came upon all, and they <sup>i</sup>glorified God, saying, <sup>k</sup>“A great prophet has risen up among us”; and, <sup>l</sup>“God has visited His people.” <sup>17</sup>And this report about Him went throughout all Judea and all the surrounding region.

John the Baptist Sends Messengers to Jesus

<sup>20</sup>When the men had come to Him, they said, “John the Baptist has sent us to You, saying, ‘Are You the Coming One, or do we look for another?’” <sup>21</sup>And that very hour He cured many of infirmities, afflictions, and evil spirits; and to many blind He gave sight.

dead are raised, <sup>u</sup>the poor have the gospel preached to them. <sup>23</sup>And blessed is he who is not offended because of Me.”

<sup>24</sup>v When the messengers of John had departed, He began to speak to the multitudes concerning John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? <sup>25</sup>But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft garments? Indeed those who are gorgeously appareled and live in luxury are in kings’ courts. <sup>26</sup>But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and more than a prophet. <sup>27</sup>This is he of whom it is written:

Who will prepare Your way before You.”*

<sup>28</sup>For I say to you, among those born of women there is not a <sup>x</sup>greater prophet than John the Baptist;* but he who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.”

<sup>31</sup>And the Lord said,* “<sup>a</sup>To what then shall I liken the men of this generation, and what are they like? <sup>32</sup>They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to one another, saying:

‘We played the flute for you,
And you did not dance;
We mourned to you,
And you did not weep.’

7:9 not even in Israel. The centurion’s example of faith came from outside the nation of Israel. This is one of only two cases where Jesus “marveled” (Mark 6:6).

7:12 a dead man . . . carried out. This was a funeral procession. The cemetery was located outside the city gates. Funerals were normally held the day of death because keeping a body overnight rendered a house unclean.

7:24–26 He began to speak to the multitudes concerning John. The questions that Jesus asked were designed to emphasize that John the Baptist played a special role in God’s plan. The crowds did not go out to the wilderness to see scenery or a man dressed in special clothes, but to see a prophet.

7:28 he who is least in the kingdom of God. Jesus emphasizes the contrast between the old and new eras. John was the greatest prophet ever born. But the lowest person in the new era of God’s kingdom is higher than the greatest prophet of the old era.

7:31–34 To what then shall I liken. Jesus made a comparison between children playing a game in the

A Sinful Woman Forgiveness

<sup>36</sup>Then one of the Pharisees asked Him to eat with him. And He went to the Pharisee's house, and sat down to eat. <sup>37</sup>And behold, a woman in the city who was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at the table in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster flask of fragrant oil, <sup>38</sup>and stood at His feet behind Him weeping; and she began to wash His feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head; and she kissed His feet and anointed them with the fragrant oil. <sup>39</sup>Now when the Pharisee who had invited Him saw this, he spoke to himself, saying, <sup>40</sup>"This Man, if He were a prophet, would know who and what manner of woman this is who is touching Him, for she is a sinner."

So he said, "Teacher, say it."

<sup>41</sup>"There was a certain creditor who had two debtors. One owed five hundred <sup>42</sup>denarii, and the other fifty. <sup>42</sup>And when they had nothing with which to repay, he freely forgave them both. Tell Me, therefore, which of them will love him more?"

And He said to him, "You have rightly judged." <sup>44</sup>Then He turned to the woman and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave Me no water for My feet, but she has washed My feet with her tears and wiped them with the hair of her head. <sup>45</sup>You gave Me no kiss, but this woman has not ceased to kiss My feet since the time I came in. <sup>46</sup>You did not anoint My head with oil, but this woman has anointed My feet with fragrant oil. <sup>47</sup>Therefore I say to you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little."

Him began to say to themselves, <sup>50</sup>"Who is this who even forgives sins?"

<sup>50</sup>Then He said to the woman, <sup>51</sup>"Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

Many Women Minister to Jesus

8 Now it came to pass, afterward, that He went through every city and village, preaching and bringing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God. And the twelve were with Him, <sup>2</sup>and certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities—Mary called Magdalene, <sup>3</sup>out of whom had come seven demons, <sup>4</sup>and Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others who provided for Him* from their substance.

The Parable of the Sower

<sup>4c</sup>And when a great multitude had gathered, and they had come to Him from every city, He spoke by a parable: <sup>5</sup>"A sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some fell by the wayside; and it was trampled down, and the birds of the air devoured it. <sup>6</sup>Some fell on rock; and as soon as it sprang up, it withered away because it lacked moisture. <sup>7</sup>And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it and choked it. <sup>8</sup>But others fell on good ground, sprang up, and yielded a crop a hundredfold." When He had said these things He cried, <sup>9</sup>"He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

The Purpose of Parables

<sup>10</sup>And He said, "To you it has been given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest it is given in parables, that marketplace and the present generation of Israel, referring especially to the Jewish religious leaders. The leaders were like the children in that they complained no matter what tune was played. John the Baptist refused to eat bread or drink wine, and the religious leaders dismissed him as demon-possessed. In contrast, Jesus, the Son of Man was accused of living loosely and associating with sinners. No matter what the style of God's messenger was, the religious leaders complained and rejected him.

7:36 one of the Pharisees asked Him to eat with him. This event is not the same as the one in Matthew 26:6–13; Mark 14:3–9; and John 12:1–8. The event described in those passages occurred in the house of a leper, a place where no Pharisee would ever have gone.

7:37 alabaster flask. This was made of soft stone to preserve the quality of the precious and expensive perfume. There is humility and devotion in the woman's act of service, as well as a great deal of courage, as she performed the deed in front of a crowd that knew her as a sinner.

7:44–46 Do you see this woman? Jesus contrasted the actions of the woman with the actions of the Pharisee Simon, implying that the woman knew more about forgiveness than Simon (v. 47).

8:1–3 Mary called Magdalene. Because she is introduced here, it is unlikely that she was the sinful woman of 7:36–50. Joanna. This is an example of how some women of means used their wealth to benefit the work of God.

8:10 kingdom . . . parables. Jesus' parables both concealed and revealed truths. The disciples were

The Parable of the Sower Explained

<sup>11g</sup>“Now the parable is this: The seed is the <sup>h</sup>word of God. <sup>12</sup>Those by the way-side are the ones who hear; then the devil comes and takes away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. <sup>13</sup>But the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, who believe for a while and in time of temptation fall away. <sup>14</sup>Now the ones that fell among thorns are those who, when they have heard, go out and are choked with cares, <sup>15</sup>riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity. <sup>15</sup>But the ones that fell on the good ground are those who, having heard the word with a noble and good heart, keep it and bear fruit with <sup>i</sup>patience.

The Parable of the Revealed Light

<sup>16k</sup>“No one, when he has lit a lamp, covers it with a vessel or puts it under a bed, but sets it on a lampstand, that those who enter may see the light. <sup>17m</sup>For nothing is secret that will not be <sup>n</sup>revealed, nor anything hidden that will not be known and come to light. <sup>18</sup>Therefore take heed how you hear. <sup>o</sup>For whoever has, to him more will be given; and whoever does not have, even what he seems to <sup>p</sup>have will be taken from him.”

Jesus’ Mother and Brothers Come to Him

<sup>19q</sup>Then His mother and brothers came to Him, and could not approach Him because of the crowd. <sup>20</sup>And it was told Him by some, who said, “Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, desiring to see You.”

privileged to learn the truths of parables. For other listeners, the parables served as judgments that concealed truth, as the reference to Isaiah 6:9 indicates. On occasion, a parable was understood by an outsider but was not accepted, thus still functioning as a message of judgment (20:9–19).

8:13 who believe for a while . . . fall away. Brief and superficial encounters with the Word of God will not stand times of testing. A person needs to meditate on the truths in Scripture and establish them as principles for living in order to withstand the trials and temptations that will inevitably come.

8:14 cares, riches, and pleasures of life. According to this parable, these three are the great obstacles to spiritual fruitfulness. The concerns of life can squelch spiritual growth. This type of “soil” is viewed as tragically unsuccessful (2 Tim. 2:4; 4:10).

8:19–20 Then his mother and brothers came to Him. Jesus’ family was concerned about the direction of His ministry (Mark 3:31–35). Though some have suggested that the brothers here were sons of Joseph by a previous marriage or cousins of Jesus, most likely they were the sons of Joseph and Mary. Joseph’s absence here may mean that he had died by this time.

“My mother and My brothers are these who hear the word of God and do it.”

Wind and Wave Obey Jesus

<sup>22r</sup>Now it happened, on a certain day, that He got into a boat with His disciples. And He said to them, “Let us cross over to the other side of the lake.” And they launched out. <sup>23</sup>But as they sailed He fell asleep. And a windstorm came down on the lake, and they were filling with water, and were in jeopardy. <sup>24</sup>And they came to Him and awoke Him, saying, “Master, Master, we are perishing!”

Then He arose and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water. And they ceased, and there was a calm. <sup>25</sup>But He said to them, <sup>s</sup>“Where is your faith?”

And they were afraid, and marveled, saying to one another, <sup>t</sup>“Who can this be? For He commands even the winds and water, and they obey Him!”

A Demon-Possessed Man Healed

<sup>26u</sup>Then they sailed to the country of the Gadarenes,* which is opposite Galilee. <sup>27</sup>And when He stepped out on the land, there met Him a certain man from the city who had demons for a long time. And he wore no clothes,* nor did he live in a house but in the tombs. <sup>28</sup>When he saw Jesus, he <sup>v</sup>cried out, fell down before Him, and with a loud voice said, <sup>w</sup>“What have I to do with <sup>x</sup>You, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg You, do not torment me!” <sup>29</sup>For He had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For it had often seized him, and he was kept under guard, bound

8:23 a windstorm. The calming of the wind is the first of four miracles in verses 22–56 that demonstrate Jesus’ authority over a variety of phenomena—nature, demons, disease, and death. This miracle took place on the Sea of Galilee. Cool air rushing down the ravines and hills of the area collides with warm air from the Sea of Galilee, causing sudden and strong storms.

8:25 Where is your faith? Jesus’ question was a rebuke of His disciples. Because God was aware of their situation, they could trust in His protection, for He was powerful enough to control the winds and waves.

8:28 Son of the Most High God. The demon’s confession recalls the angel’s announcement to Mary in 1:31–32 and the demonic confessions of 4:34, 41.

with chains and shackles; and he broke the bonds and was driven by the demon into the wilderness.

And he said, “Legion,” because many demons had entered him. <sup>31</sup>And they begged Him that He would not command them to go out <sup>v</sup>into the abyss.

<sup>32</sup>Now a herd of many <sup>z</sup>swine was feeding there on the mountain. So they begged Him that He would permit them to enter them. And He permitted them. <sup>33</sup>Then the demons went out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd ran violently down the steep place into the lake and drowned.

<sup>38</sup>Now <sup>h</sup>the man from whom the demons had departed begged Him that he might be with Him. But Jesus sent him away, saying, <sup>39</sup>“Return to your own house, and tell what great things God has done for you.” And he went his way and proclaimed throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

A Girl Restored to Life and a Woman Healed

<sup>40</sup>So it was, when Jesus returned, that the multitude welcomed Him, for they were all waiting for Him. <sup>41i</sup>And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. And he fell down at Jesus’ feet and begged Him to come to his house, <sup>42</sup>for he had an only daughter about twelve years of age, and she <sup>j</sup>was dying.

But as He went, the multitudes thronged Him. <sup>43k</sup>Now a woman, having a <sup>l</sup>flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her livelihood on physicians and could not be healed by any, <sup>44</sup>came from behind and <sup>m</sup>“touched the border of His garment. And immediately her flow of blood stopped.

<sup>45</sup>And Jesus said, “Who touched Me?”

When all denied it, Peter and those with him* said, “Master, the multitudes throng and press You, and You say, ‘Who touched Me?’”*

<sup>46</sup>But Jesus said, “Somebody touched Me, for I perceived <sup>n</sup>“power going out from Me.” <sup>47</sup>Now when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling; and falling down before Him, she declared to Him in the presence of all the people the reason she had touched Him and how she was healed immediately.

8:31 the abyss. This is an allusion to the underworld and the destruction of judgment (Rom. 10:7).

8:44 her flow of blood stopped. This condition not only would have been embarrassing, it would have made the woman unclean (Lev. 15:25–31). It took great courage for her to seek out Jesus. Note that her action was not criticized, but commended (v. 48).

8:52 but sleeping. Sleeping was a common metaphor for death. Here it indicates that the girl’s death was not permanent.

Herod Seeks to See Jesus

<sup>7i</sup>Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by Him; and he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead, <sup>8</sup>and by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets had risen again. <sup>9</sup>Herod said, “John I have beheaded, but who is this of whom I hear such things?” <sup>j</sup>So he sought to see Him.

Feeding the Five Thousand

<sup>10k</sup>And the apostles, when they had returned, told Him all that they had done. <sup>l</sup>Then He took them and went aside privately into a deserted place belonging to the city called Bethsaida. <sup>11</sup>But when the multitudes knew it, they followed Him; and He received them and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who had need of healing. <sup>12m</sup>When the day began to wear away, the twelve came and said to Him, “Send the multitude away, that they may go into the surrounding towns and country, and lodge and get provisions; for we are in a deserted place here.”

And they said, “We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we go and buy food for all these people.” <sup>14</sup>For there were about five thousand men.

Then He said to His disciples, “Make them sit down in groups of fifty.” <sup>15</sup>And they did so, and made them all sit down.

<sup>16</sup>Then He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He <sup>n</sup>blessed and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the multitude. <sup>17</sup>So they all ate and were filled, and twelve baskets of the leftover fragments were taken up by them.

Peter Confesses Jesus as the Christ

<sup>18o</sup>And it happened, as He was alone praying, that His disciples joined Him, and He asked them, saying, “Who do the crowds say that I am?”

Jesus Predicts His Death and Resurrection

<sup>21r</sup>And He strictly warned and commanded them to tell this to no one, <sup>22</sup>saying, <sup>s</sup>“The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised the third day.”

Take Up the Cross and Follow Him

<sup>23t</sup>Then He said to them all, “If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily,* and follow Me. <sup>24u</sup>For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life

9:2 to preach . . . to heal the sick. The entire nation of Israel needed to see the evidence of the kingdom of God and make a decision concerning the King. Jesus commissioned His disciples to spread the word about God’s kingdom through preaching and healing.

9:11 spoke . . . healing. Jesus had the same two-pronged ministry that the twelve disciples had: preaching and healing (v. 2). The topic of Jesus’ preaching was always the kingdom of God.

9:13–17 about five thousand men. This is the only miracle of Jesus’ ministry that appears in all four Gospels. The feeding of the 5,000 demonstrated Jesus’ ability to provide.

9:20 The Christ of God. The emphasis here is on the messianic role of Jesus. He is the Promised One who was ushering in a new era. However, Jesus would soon reveal to the disciples that His messiahship would have elements of suffering that the disciples did not expect (vv. 22–23).

9:22 must suffer . . . be rejected . . . be killed . . . be raised. This is the first of several predictions in Luke of Jesus’ suffering and vindication (v. 44; 12:50; 13:31–33; 17:25; 18:31–33). The disciples struggled to understand what Jesus was saying (v. 45; 18:34). They could not comprehend how Jesus’ predictions fit into God’s plan. Only after Jesus’ resurrection and His explanation of the Scriptures to them did they begin to understand (24:25–27,44–49).

9:23 take up his cross daily. Although Jesus offered salvation as a free gift (John 1:12; 3:16–18), He also warned that following Him would entail suffering and hardship (Matt. 5:10–12; Rom. 8:17; 2 Thess. 1:5).

9:24–25 For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world. It makes no sense to attempt to save our lives on earth only to lose everything when for My sake will save it. <sup>25</sup>For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and is himself destroyed or lost? <sup>26</sup>For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, of him the Son of Man will be <sup>x</sup>ashamed when He comes in His own glory, and in His Father's, and of the holy angels. <sup>27</sup>But I tell you truly, there are some standing here who shall not taste death till they see the kingdom of God."

Jesus Transfigured on the Mount

<sup>28</sup>Now it came to pass, about eight days after these sayings, that He took Peter, John, and James and went up on the mountain to pray. <sup>29</sup>As He prayed, the appearance of His face was altered, and His robe became white and glistening. <sup>30</sup>And behold, two men talked with Him, who were <sup>a</sup>Moses and <sup>b</sup>Elijah. <sup>31</sup>Who appeared in glory and spoke of His decease which He was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. <sup>32</sup>But Peter and those with him <sup>c</sup>were heavy with sleep; and when they were fully awake, they saw His glory and the two men who stood with Him. <sup>33</sup>Then it happened, as they were parting from Him, that Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here; and let us make three tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah"—not knowing what he said.

A Boy Is Healed

<sup>37</sup>Now it happened on the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, that a great multitude met Him. <sup>38</sup>Suddenly a man from the multitude cried out, saying, "Teacher, I implore You, look on my son, for he is my only child. <sup>39</sup>And behold, a spirit seizes him, and he suddenly cries out;

it convulses him so that he foams at the mouth; and it departs from him with great difficulty, bruising him. <sup>40</sup>So I implored Your disciples to cast it out, but they could not."

<sup>41</sup>Then Jesus answered and said, "<sup>o</sup> faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here." <sup>42</sup>And as he was still coming, the demon threw him down and convulsed him. Then Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the child, and gave him back to his father.

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

But while everyone marveled at all the things which Jesus did, He said to His disciples, <sup>44</sup>"Let these words sink down into your ears, for the Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men." <sup>45</sup>But they did not understand this saying, and it was hidden from them so that they did not perceive it; and they were afraid to ask Him about this saying.

Who Is the Greatest?

Jesus Forbids Sectarianism

<sup>49</sup>Now John answered and said, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in Your name, and we forbade him because he does not follow with us."

<sup>50</sup>But Jesus said to him, "Do not forbid him, for <sup>r</sup>he who is not against us* is on our* side."

our lives quickly and inevitably pass away. The wise course is to invest our earthly resources—our time, talents, and wealth—in what is eternal.

9:31 spoke of His decease. This important allusion to the central Old Testament event of salvation is unique to Luke's account of the transfiguration. The comparison is made between Jesus' death and the journey to salvation that the nation of Israel experienced under Moses.

9:34 cloud. This is an allusion to the presence of God (Ex. 40:35).

9:41 O faithless and perverse generation. This rebuke suggests that the disciples lacked the faith to cast out the spirit described in verses 38–40. There is also a hint of a competitive spirit among the disciples (v. 46).

9:45 they were afraid to ask. The indication here is that the disciples still had much to learn. Their fear shows that they understood something about what Jesus said, but they did not understand how and why Jesus could say such things about Himself, since He was the Messiah. The suffering of the Messiah was something the disciples did not yet understand. They would continue to be confused in their understanding of how such suffering fit into God's plan until Jesus' death and resurrection (24:25–26, 43–49).

A Samaritan Village Rejects the Savior

<sup>55</sup>But He turned and rebuked them,* and said, “You do not know what manner of <sup>7</sup>spirit you are of. <sup>56</sup>For <sup>8</sup>the Son of Man did not come to destroy men’s lives but to save them.”* And they went to another village.

The Cost of Discipleship

<sup>58</sup>And Jesus said to him, “Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man <sup>9</sup>has nowhere to lay His head.”

The Seventy Sent Out

10 After these things the Lord appointed seventy others also,* and <sup>3</sup>sent them

two by two before His face into every city and place where He Himself was about to go. <sup>2</sup>Then He said to them, <sup>b</sup>“The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few; therefore <sup>3</sup>pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest. <sup>3</sup>Go your way; <sup>4</sup>behold, I send you out as lambs among wolves. <sup>4</sup>Carry neither money bag, knapsack, nor sandals; and <sup>5</sup>greet no one along the road. <sup>5</sup>But whatever house you enter, first say, ‘Peace to this house.’ <sup>6</sup>And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest on it; if not, it will return to you. <sup>7</sup>And remain in the same house, <sup>7</sup>eating and drinking such things as they give, for <sup>7</sup>the laborer is worthy of his wages. Do not go from house to house. <sup>8</sup>Whatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you. <sup>9</sup>And heal the sick there, and say to them, <sup>1</sup>‘The kingdom of God has come near to you.’ <sup>10</sup>But whatever city you enter, and they do not receive you, go out into its streets and say, <sup>11</sup>‘The very dust of your city which clings to us* we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that the kingdom of God has come near you.’ <sup>12</sup>But* I say to you that <sup>2</sup>it will be more tolerable in that Day for Sodom than for that city.

Woe to the Impenitent Cities

<sup>13</sup>“Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! <sup>2</sup>For if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>3</sup>But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon

9:51 He steadfastly set His face to go to Jerusalem. This is the first indication that Jesus’ attention was turning toward His final suffering in Jerusalem (v. 53; 13:22; 17:11; 18:31; 19:11,28,41). Luke’s Gospel uniquely emphasizes this journey to Jerusalem.

9:52 Samaritans. These people were the descendants of Jews who had married Gentiles after the fall of the northern kingdom, Israel. The Samaritans eventually developed their own religious rites which they practiced on Mount Gerizim instead of at the temple in Jerusalem. Though there was deep hostility between Jews and Samaritans, Jesus ministered to both groups.

9:54 command fire to come down. James and John wanted Jesus to bring judgment upon the Samaritan villages that refused to respond to His message, just as Elijah had done in 2 Kings 1:9–16. Their demand for judgment was antithetical to Jesus’ loving response (v. 56).

9:59 let me first go and bury my father. This aspiring disciple placed family responsibilities ahead of following Jesus. The concerns of home were this man’s stumbling block.

9:62 fit for the kingdom. This remark of Jesus demonstrates the seriousness of commitment to Him.

10:2 The harvest truly is great. The picture of a great harvest suggests that a positive response awaited the laborers, even in the face of much rejection.

10:3 lambs among wolves. This image from Isaiah 40:11 was a popular one in Judaism.

10:13 if the mighty works . . . had been done. Jesus’ remark was meant to wake the people up to what their rejection of Him signified.

The Seventy Return with Joy

Jesus Rejoices in the Spirit

<sup>21a</sup>In that hour Jesus rejoiced in the Spirit and said, “I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and revealed them to babes. Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Your sight. <sup>22b</sup>All* things have been delivered to Me by My Father, and <sup>c</sup>no one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son, and <sup>d</sup>the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him.”

see what you see, and have not seen it, and to hear what you hear, and have not heard it.”

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

<sup>25</sup>And behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tested Him, saying, <sup>f</sup>“Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?”

<sup>26</sup>He said to him, “What is written in the law? What is your reading of it?”

<sup>27</sup>So he answered and said, <sup>g</sup>“You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind,”* and <sup>h</sup>“your neighbor as yourself.”*

<sup>28</sup>And He said to him, “You have answered rightly; do this and <sup>i</sup>you will live.”

<sup>29</sup>But he, wanting to <sup>j</sup>justify himself, said to Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?”

<sup>30</sup>Then Jesus answered and said: “A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, who stripped him of his clothing, wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead. <sup>31</sup>Now by chance a certain priest came down that road. And when he saw him, <sup>k</sup>he passed by on the other side. <sup>32</sup>Likewise a Levite, when he arrived at the place, came and looked, and passed by on the other side. <sup>33</sup>But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was. And when he saw him, he had <sup>m</sup>compassion. <sup>34</sup>So he went to him and

10:16 He who hears you hears Me. Hearing the messenger is the same as hearing the One who sent him. Authority resides not in the messenger, but in the person the messenger represents, the source of the message.

10:18 I saw Satan. This verse provides a commentary on what the disciples’ healing ministry meant. The reversal of the effects of sin and death, which Satan introduced through his deception in Genesis 3 is portrayed graphically as Satan falling from heaven. Jesus’ ministry and what grows out of it represents the defeat of Satan, sin, and death.

10:19–20 I give you the authority. This passage records the transmission of Jesus’ power to His immediate circle of disciples. It should be noted that similar power was not given beyond that circle of disciples.

10:22 All things have been delivered to Me. This is Jesus’ declaration of total authority as the Son of God (John 10:18; 17:2). Jesus declares His unique relationship with God the Father. The Lord reveals Himself only through Jesus. To know God, one must know His Son, Jesus.

10:25–26 what shall I do to inherit eternal life. The question posed by the lawyer is really a challenge, since the verse speaks of the testing of Jesus. This is a similar, though probably distinct, event from Matthew 22:34–40 and Mark 12:28–34. To inherit something is to receive it. In other words, the man was asking, “What must I do to share in the reward at the resurrection of the righteous at the end?”

10:27 love the LORD . . . your neighbor. The lawyer responded to Jesus’ question by quoting Deuteronomy 6:5, a text that was recited twice a day by every faithful Jew. This text summarized the central ethical standard of the law.

10:28 do this and you will live. Jesus was not saying that righteousness is the result of works. Rather He was saying that love for and obedience to God will be a natural result of placing one’s faith in the Lord.

10:29 who is my neighbor. This question was an attempt to limit the demands of the law by suggesting that some people are neighbors while others are not. The lawyer was looking for minimal obedience while Jesus was looking for absolute obedience.

10:30 Jerusalem to Jericho. This was a 17-mile journey on a road known to harbor many robbers.

10:31–33 priest . . . Levite . . . Samaritan. Part of the beauty of the story of the Good Samaritan is the reversal of stereotypes. The priest and Levite traditionally would have been the “good guys.” The

Then Jesus said to him, <sup>o</sup>"Go and do likewise."

Mary and Martha Worship and Serve

The Model Prayer

11 Now it came to pass, as He was praying in a certain place, when He ceased, that one of His disciples said to Him, "Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples."

<sup>2</sup>So He said to them, "When you pray, say:

Hallowed be Your name.
Your kingdom come.*
Your will be done
On earth as it is in heaven.
3 Give us day by day our daily bread.

4 And <sup>b</sup>forgive us our sins,
For we also forgive everyone who is indebted to us.
And do not lead us into temptation,
But deliver us from the evil one.*"

A Friend Comes at Midnight

<sup>5</sup>And He said to them, "Which of you shall have a friend, and go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves; <sup>6</sup>for a friend of mine has come to me on his journey, and I have nothing to set before him'; <sup>7</sup>and he will answer from within and say, 'Do not trouble me; the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give to you'? <sup>8</sup>I say to you, 'though he will not rise and give to him because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence he will rise and give him as many as he needs.

Keep Asking, Seeking, Knocking

<sup>9d</sup>"So I say to you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. <sup>10</sup>For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened. <sup>11</sup>If a son asks for bread* from any father among you, will he give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a serpent instead of a fish? <sup>12</sup>Or if he asks for an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? <sup>13</sup>If you then, being evil, know how to give <sup>g</sup>good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!"

A House Divided Cannot Stand

Samaritan would have been a "bad guy," a person who compromised in religious matters. However, the Samaritan knew how to treat his neighbor. The neighbor here was not someone the Samaritan knew or even someone of the same race, just someone in need.

10:36 which . . . was neighbor. The central issue is not determining who one's neighbor is, but being a good neighbor to all.

11:1 Lord, teach us to pray. The Lord's Prayer illustrates the variety of requests that one can and should make to God, as well as displaying the humble attitude that should accompany prayer. The use of the plural pronoun "us" throughout the prayer shows that it is not just the prayer of one person for his or her own personal needs, but a community prayer.

11:2 Your kingdom come. The reference here is to God's program and promise. This is more affirmation than request, highlighting the petitioner's submission to God's will and the desire to see God's work come to pass.

11:4 we also forgive. The petitioner recognizes that if mercy is to be sought from God, then mercy must be shown to others. We need to adopt the same standard that we expect others to follow. do not lead us into temptation. This remark is often misunderstood as suggesting that perhaps God can lead us into sin. The point is that if one is to avoid sin, one must follow where God leads. In short, the petitioner asks God for the spiritual protection necessary to avoid falling into sin.

gone out, that the mute spoke; and the multitudes marveled. <sup>15</sup>But some of them said, <sup>i</sup>“He casts out demons by Beelzebul,* the ruler of the demons.”

An Unclean Spirit Returns

<sup>24</sup>“When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, he goes through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he says, ‘I will return to my house from which I came.’ <sup>25</sup>And when he comes, he finds it swept and put in order. <sup>26</sup>Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter and dwell there; and <sup>t</sup>the last state of that man is worse than the first.”

Keeping the Word

<sup>27</sup>And it happened, as He spoke these things, that a certain woman from the crowd raised her voice and said to Him, <sup>s</sup>“Blessed is the womb that bore You, and the breasts which nursed You!”

<sup>28</sup>But He said, <sup>t</sup>“More than that, blessed are those who hear the word of God and keep it!”

Seeking a Sign

<sup>29</sup>And while the crowds were thickly gathered together, He began to say, “This is an evil generation. It seeks a <sup>v</sup>sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet.* <sup>30</sup>For as <sup>w</sup>Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so also the Son of Man will be to this generation. <sup>31</sup>“The queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and indeed a <sup>v</sup>greater than Solomon is here. <sup>32</sup>The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for <sup>z</sup>they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and indeed a greater than Jonah is here.”

The Lamp of the Body

Woe to the Pharisees and Lawyers

<sup>37</sup>And as He spoke, a certain Pharisee asked Him to dine with him. So He went in

* 11:29 NU-Text omits the prophet.

11:17–18 you say I cast out demons by Beelzebul. The attribution of Jesus’ miracles to Satan was not only blasphemous, it was illogical. If Satan had cast out the demon (v. 14), he would have been destroying the result of his own work.

11:20 the finger of God. This phrase is an allusion to God’s power, like that demonstrated in the Exodus (Ex. 8:19; Deut. 9:10; Ps. 8:3). the kingdom of God has come upon you. Jesus’ miracles represented the arrival of God’s power and promise—in short, His rule. That rule comes in and through Jesus. The miracles of Jesus demonstrated God’s victory over the forces of evil. The kingdom program, depicted as drawing near, will be consummated at the return of Jesus when this rule is manifested over every creature.

11:22 when a stronger than he. Jesus portrays Himself as someone stronger than Satan who overruns Satan’s house and gives the spoils of victory to those who are His (Eph. 4:8–9).

11:23 He who is not with Me. Jesus’ ministry forces everyone to make a choice. Neutrality is not an option. Either Jesus comes from God or He does not. Not to align with Jesus is to be against Him.

11:26 the last state. Jesus’ point is that experiencing God’s blessing and then ignoring it leaves one callous towards the work of God and exposed to the control of demonic forces.

11:29 the sign of Jonah. This refers to his prophetic call to repentance rather than to the resurrection foreshadowed by Jonah’s return from the belly of the great fish.

and sat down to eat. <sup>38d</sup>When the Pharisee saw it, he marveled that He had not first washed before dinner.

<sup>39e</sup>Then the Lord said to him, “Now you Pharisees make the outside of the cup and dish clean, but /your inward part is full of greed and wickedness. <sup>40</sup>Foolish ones! Did not /He who made the outside make the inside also? <sup>41h</sup>But rather give alms of such things as you have; then indeed all things are clean to you.

<sup>51r</sup>from the blood of Abel to <sup>s</sup>the blood of Zechariah who perished between the altar and the temple. Yes, I say to you, it shall be required of this generation.

<sup>52t</sup>“Woe to you lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge. You did not enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in you hindered.”

<sup>53</sup>And as He said these things to them,* the scribes and the Pharisees began to assail Him vehemently, and to cross-examine Him about many things, <sup>54l</sup>lying in wait for Him, and “seeking to catch Him in something He might say, that they might accuse Him.*

Beware of Hypocrisy

12 In <sup>a</sup>the meantime, when an innumerable multitude of people had gathered together, so that they trampled one another, He began to say to His disciples first of all, <sup>b</sup>“Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. <sup>2c</sup>For there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, nor hidden that will not be known. <sup>3</sup>Therefore whatever you have spoken in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have spoken in the ear in inner rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops.

Jesus Teaches the Fear of God

11:39 make the outside . . . clean. These condemnations by Jesus are similar to those in Matthew 23. The Pharisees washed the outside of cups, making sure that the cups had not become unclean through contact with a dead insect (Lev. 11:31–38). Jesus pointed out that the Pharisees concerned themselves with outward appearances and ritual cleanness, while what was inside, what really counts, was full of selfishness and evil.

11:42 tithe mint and rue. Some Pharisees took the strictest interpretation and counted almost anything, including spices. However, they neglected two basic things that the prophets also had warned about: love and justice (Mic. 6:8; Zech. 7:8–10).

11:46 burdens. This term refers to a ship’s cargo. The idea is that a heavy strain was being imposed on the people and yet, in the end, this burden did not bring them close to God. Here Jesus rebuked the tradition that had grown up around the law of Moses.

11:47–48 you build the tombs of the prophets. Jesus made a biting, ironic comparison between the current generation of Israel and the generations of the past. Jesus was saying that the current generation finished the job of slaying the prophets that the previous generation had started. The building and care of tombs was supposed to be an act of honoring the prophets, but Jesus pointed out that something else was really going on.

11:52 Woe to you lawyers. Jesus charged the lawyers with doing the opposite of what they claimed their calling to be. Rather than bringing people nearer to God, they had removed the possibility of their entering into that knowledge, and had prevented others from understanding it as well.

12:1–2 leaven. This represents the presence of corruption. Unleavened bread is what the Jews ate at Passover (Ex. 12:14–20). The corruption in view here is hypocrisy. Practicing hypocrisy is senseless because eventually all deeds—both good and evil—will be exposed.

12:4 do not be afraid of those who kill the body. This verse anticipates the presence of severe religious persecution in response to Jesus’ remarks in Luke 11:39–54.

12:5 Fear Him. Even in the context of physical

Confess Christ Before Men

<sup>8</sup>“Also I say to you, whoever confesses Me <sup>b</sup>before men, him the Son of Man also will confess before the angels of God. <sup>9</sup>But he who <sup>d</sup>denies Me before men will be denied before the angels of God.

<sup>10</sup>“And <sup>k</sup>anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him; but to him who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven.

<sup>11</sup>“Now when they bring you to the synagogues and magistrates and authorities, do not worry about how or what you should answer, or what you should say. <sup>12</sup>For the Holy Spirit will <sup>m</sup>teach you in that very hour what you ought to say.”

The Parable of the Rich Fool

<sup>13</sup>Then one from the crowd said to Him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.”

<sup>14</sup>But He said to him, <sup>n</sup>“Man, who made Me a judge or an arbitrator over you?”

<sup>16</sup>Then He spoke a parable to them, saying: “The ground of a certain rich man yielded plentifully. <sup>17</sup>And he thought within himself, saying, ‘What shall I do, since I have no room to store my crops?’ <sup>18</sup>So he said, ‘I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build greater, and there I will store all my crops and my goods. <sup>19</sup>And I will say to my soul, <sup>p</sup>“Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years; take your ease; <sup>q</sup>eat, drink, and be merry.” <sup>20</sup>But God said to him, ‘Fool! This night <sup>r</sup>your soul will be required of you; <sup>s</sup>then whose will those things be which you have provided?’

Do Not Worry

<sup>22</sup>Then He said to His disciples, “Therefore I say to you, <sup>u</sup>do not worry about your life, what you will eat; nor about the body, what you will put on. <sup>23</sup>Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing.

persecution, the only One believers should fear is God, who sees how we live and judges us. Jesus was not guaranteeing physical preservation in this life, but was opening the prospect of deliverance in the next life.

12:14 who made Me a judge. Jesus refuses to enter into a dispute over money, which is clearly dividing a family. Such disputes over money destroy relationships, so Jesus tells a parable that explains the danger of focusing on wealth.

12:18–19 I will do this. Including verse 17, the word “I” appears six times, showing the selfish focus this man has as a result of his fortune. His plan is to store his abundant resources for himself, as though the assets were his alone and should be hoarded. This focus on the self is what Jesus is condemning.

12:27–29 God so clothes the grass. This illustration indicates that God cares enough to provide beauty for the parts of His creation that have a short life. Why should we worry if God takes such care of even the smallest blade of grass? The Lord knows our problems and will provide us with what we need.

12:33 Sell what you have. In contrast to the world’s hoarding of possessions, the disciple must be generous with what God gives. By serving God and others, you can invest in your eternal future. You cannot take possessions with you in the next life, but you can store up an eternal treasure by giving to others (Phil. 4:17).

nor moth destroys. <sup>34</sup>For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

The Faithful Servant and the Evil Servant

<sup>35e</sup>“Let your waist be girded and your lamps burning; <sup>36</sup>and you yourselves be like men who wait for their master, when he will return from the wedding, that when he comes and knocks they may open to him immediately. <sup>37g</sup>Blessed are those servants whom the master, when he comes, will find watching. Assuredly, I say to you that he will gird himself and have them sit down to eat, and will come and serve them. <sup>38</sup>And if he should come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants. <sup>39h</sup>But know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and* not allowed his house to be broken into. <sup>40i</sup>Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.”

<sup>42</sup>And the Lord said, <sup>i</sup>“Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his master will make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of food in due season? <sup>43</sup>Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when he comes. <sup>44k</sup>Truly, I say to you that he will make him ruler over all that he has. <sup>45l</sup>But if that servant says in his heart, ‘My master is delaying his coming,’ and begins to beat the male and female servants, and to eat and drink and be drunk, <sup>46m</sup>the master of that servant will come on a day when he is not looking for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in two and appoint him his portion with the unbelievers. <sup>47</sup>And <sup>n</sup>that servant who <sup>o</sup>knew his master’s will, and did not prepare himself or do according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. <sup>48p</sup>But he who did not know, yet committed things deserving of stripes, shall be beaten with few. For everyone to whom much is given, from him much will be required; and to whom much has been committed, of him they will ask the more.

Christ Brings Division

<sup>49q</sup>“I came to send fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled! <sup>50</sup>But <sup>r</sup>I have a baptism to be baptized with! and how distressed I am till it is <sup>s</sup>accomplished! <sup>51t</sup>Do you suppose that I came to give peace on earth? I tell you, not at all, <sup>u</sup>but rather division. <sup>52</sup>For from now on five in one house will be divided: three against two, and two against three. <sup>53v</sup>Father will be divided against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.”

Discern the Time

<sup>54</sup>Then He also said to the multitudes, <sup>x</sup>“Whenever you see a cloud rising out of the west, immediately you say, ‘A shower is coming’; and so it is. <sup>55</sup>And when you see the <sup>y</sup>south wind blow, you say, ‘There will be hot weather’; and there is. <sup>56</sup>Hypocrites! You can discern the face of the sky and of the earth, but how is it you do not discern <sup>z</sup>this time?

12:34 where your treasure is. What people consider valuable is where their energy will be spent. Knowing God and investing in His purposes should be the treasure we seek.

12:38 if he should come in the second watch, or come in the third watch. This verse speaks of a return at an unusually late hour. The exact time referred to depends on which system of time was used. In the Roman system the second and third watch would be 9 P.M. to 3 A.M. By the Jewish method it would be 10 P.M. to 6 A.M.

12:41 only to us, or to all. Peter asked if Jesus’ teaching was for the disciples only or for all people. Jesus did not answer the question directly. Instead He described a variety of categories of servants. Servants are those who belong to the Master and have their stewardship evaluated (19:11–27). Several responses, from faithfulness to blatant disobedience, are described in verses 42–48. The issue is who lives life in a way that looks for, and takes seriously, the return of Jesus (1 John 2:28).

12:45 begins to beat the male and female servants. This servant is depicted as consciously doing the opposite of caring for others, and of treating the Master’s return as irrelevant.

12:46 will cut him in two. The image of being slain indicates the severity of this judgment, especially in contrast to the whippings of verses 47 and 48.

12:49 I came to send fire on the earth. Fire is an image associated with God’s judgment (Jer. 5:14; 23:29). Jesus’ coming brings judgment on those who refuse to accept Him and divides the believers from the faithless.

12:54–55 a cloud rising out of the west. In Palestine, a western breeze meant moisture coming from the Mediterranean Sea. A south wind meant hot air coming from the desert.

12:56 Hypocrites. Jesus rebuked His audience for being able to discern the weather but not what God was doing through Him.

Make Peace with Your Adversary

<sup>57</sup>“Yes, and why, even of yourselves, do you not judge what is right? <sup>58</sup>“When you go with your adversary to the magistrate, make every effort <sup>a</sup>along the way to settle with him, lest he drag you to the judge, the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison. <sup>59</sup>I tell you, you shall not depart from there till you have paid the very last mite.”

Repent or Perish

13 There were present at that season some who told Him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. <sup>2</sup>And Jesus answered and said to them, “Do you suppose that these Galileans were worse sinners than all other Galileans, because they suffered such things? <sup>3</sup>I tell you, no; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish. <sup>4</sup>Or those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them, do you think that they were worse sinners than all other men who dwelt in Jerusalem? <sup>5</sup>I tell you, no; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish.”

The Parable of the Barren Fig Tree

<sup>6</sup>He also spoke this parable: “A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it and found none. <sup>7</sup>Then he said to the keeper of his vineyard, ‘Look, for three years I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree and find none. Cut it down; why does it use up the ground?’ <sup>8</sup>But he answered and said to him, ‘Sir, let it alone this year also, until I dig around it and fertilize it. <sup>9</sup>And if it bears fruit, well. But if not, after that* you can <sup>b</sup>cut it down.’”

A Spirit of Infirmary

<sup>10</sup>Now He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath. <sup>11</sup>And behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bent over and could in no way raise herself up. <sup>12</sup>But when Jesus saw her, He called her to Him and said to her, “Woman, you are loosed from your infirmity.” <sup>13</sup>“And He laid His hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

<sup>15</sup>The Lord then answered him and said, “Hypocrite!* <sup>e</sup>Does not each one of you on the Sabbath loose his ox or donkey from the stall, and lead it away to water it? <sup>16</sup>So ought not this woman, <sup>f</sup>being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has bound—think of it—for eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath?” <sup>17</sup>And when He said these things, all His adversaries were put to shame; and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were <sup>g</sup>done by Him.

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

<sup>18</sup>k Then He said, “What is the kingdom of God like? And to what shall I compare it? <sup>19</sup>It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and put in his garden; and it grew and became a large* tree, and the birds of the air nested in its branches.”

The Parable of the Leaven

<sup>20</sup>And again He said, “To what shall I liken the kingdom of God? <sup>21</sup>It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three <sup>h</sup>measures* of meal till it was all leavened.”

The Narrow Way

<sup>22</sup>m And He went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem. <sup>23</sup>Then one said to Him, “Lord, are there <sup>i</sup>few who are saved?”

* 13:9 NU-Text reads And if it bears fruit after that, well. But if not, you can cut it down.

* 13:19 NU-Text omits large. * 13:21 Greek sata, approximately two pecks in all

13:1 Pilate. Pilate was known for his insensitivity to the Jewish people early in his rule. The event probably occurred during the Feast of the Passover or Tabernacles, when Galileans most likely would have been at the temple.

13:5 unless you repent. The manner in which a person dies is not a measure of righteousness; what is important is not to die outside of God’s grace and care. The way to avoid such a fate is to repent, to come to God through the care of the Physician Jesus (5:32).

13:6 a fig tree. This tree often represents God’s blessing, or a people who have a special relationship with God (Mic. 7:1–2). The man in this parable represents God; the fig tree represents Israel.

13:7 for three years. A fig tree was often given some time to bear good fruit since its root structure was complex and took time to develop. Three years would have been enough for the tree to yield some fruit.

13:15 Hypocrite. When the ruler of the synagogue became indignant regarding Jesus’ healing on the Sabbath (vv. 10–14), Jesus pointed out that basic compassion was shown to animals on the Sabbath, so how much more compassion should be shown to a suffering woman (v. 16)?

13:18–19 mustard. A tree of the mustard family would grow to about twelve feet. The image of birds nesting in the trees is found frequently in the Old Testament (Ps. 104:12; Ezek. 17:22–24; Dan. 4:10–12).

And He said to them, <sup>24</sup>“Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for <sup>25</sup>many, I say to you, will seek to enter and will not be able. <sup>25</sup>“When once the Master of the house has risen up and <sup>26</sup>shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and knock at the door, saying, <sup>26</sup>“Lord, Lord, open for us,” and He will answer and say to you, <sup>26</sup>“I do not know you, where you are from,” <sup>26</sup>then you will begin to say, <sup>26</sup>“We ate and drank in Your presence, and You taught in our streets.” <sup>27</sup>“But He will say, <sup>27</sup>“I tell you I do not know you, where you are from. <sup>28</sup>“Depart from Me, all you workers of iniquity.” <sup>28</sup>“There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, <sup>28</sup>“when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and yourselves thrust out. <sup>29</sup>“They will come from the east and the west, from the north and the south, and sit down in the kingdom of God. <sup>30</sup>“And indeed there are last who will be first, and there are first who will be last.”

<sup>32</sup>And He said to them, “Go, tell that fox, ‘Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day <sup>33</sup>I shall be perfected.’ <sup>33</sup>Nevertheless I must journey today, tomorrow, and the day following; for it cannot be that a prophet should perish outside of Jerusalem.”

Jesus Laments over Jerusalem

13:26 We ate and drank . . . You taught. The appeal here is by people who experience Jesus’ presence. The passage primarily involves those Jews who witnessed Jesus’ ministry. They were trying to gain entry into God’s presence based simply on the fact that they had observed Jesus. Jesus refused them, pointing out that it was not enough for them to have been close to Him. In order to have a relationship with God, one must embrace Jesus and come to know Him.

13:29 east . . . west . . . north . . . south. People would come from all corners of the earth for entrance into God’s kingdom. This passage alludes to the inclusion of Gentiles.

13:30 there are last who will be first. There will be many surprises in God’s kingdom. Those who are despised on earth—some Gentiles, for example—will be greatly honored in the kingdom. Conversely, those who are considered influential and powerful on earth—the Jewish religious leaders of Jesus’ day, for example—will be excluded from the kingdom.

13:32 Go, tell that fox. Herod is portrayed as more curious than hostile. The reference here is to Herod’s cunning. Jesus’ reply seems to take the Pharisees’ warning at face value.

A Man with Dropsy Healed on the Sabbath

14 Now it happened, as He went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees to eat bread on the Sabbath, that they watched Him closely. <sup>2</sup>And behold, there was a certain man before Him who had dropsy. <sup>3</sup>And Jesus, answering, spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, <sup>4</sup>“Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?”**

<sup>4</sup>But they kept silent. And He took him and healed him, and let him go. <sup>5</sup>Then He answered them, saying, <sup>6</sup>“Which of you, having a donkey* or an ox that has fallen into a pit, will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?” <sup>6</sup>And they could not answer Him regarding these things.

Take the Lowly Place

<sup>7</sup>So He told a parable to those who were invited, when He noted how they chose the best places, saying to them: <sup>8</sup>“When you are invited by anyone to a wedding feast, do not sit down in the best place, lest one more honorable than you be invited by him; <sup>9</sup>and he who invited you and him come and say to you, ‘Give place to this man,’ and then you begin with shame to take the lowest place. <sup>10</sup>“But when you are invited, go and sit down in the lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes he may say to you, ‘Friend, go up higher.’ Then you will have glory in the presence of those who sit at the table with you. <sup>11</sup>“For whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Psalm 118:26 * 14:3 NU-Text adds or not.

13:34 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem. The double address indicates Jesus’ deep sorrow (2 Sam. 18:33; Jer. 22:29). The city had executed many of God’s messengers. Stephen makes a similar point about the nation of Israel in Acts 7:51–53.

13:35 Blessed is He. This is a citation of Psalm 118:26. The people of Israel would not see the Messiah again until they were ready to receive Him and recognize that He was sent from God. Psalm 118 reflects the greeting of a priest to a group entering the temple. Jesus used the language of this psalm to illustrate God’s greeting to Him.

14:7 they chose the best places. In ancient times the best seats at a meal were those next to the host.

<sup>12</sup>Then He also said to him who invited Him, “When you give a dinner or a supper, do not ask your friends, your brothers, your relatives, nor rich neighbors, lest they also invite you back, and you be repaid. <sup>13</sup>But when you give a feast, invite <sup>e</sup>the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind. <sup>14</sup>And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you; for you shall be repaid at the resurrection of the just.”

The Parable of the Great Supper

<sup>16h</sup>Then He said to him, “A certain man gave a great supper and invited many, <sup>17</sup>and <sup>i</sup>sent his servant at supper time to say to those who were invited, ‘Come, for all things are now ready.’ <sup>18</sup>But they all with one accord began to make excuses. The first said to him, ‘I have bought a piece of ground, and I must go and see it. I ask you to have me excused.’ <sup>19</sup>And another said, ‘I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to test them. I ask you to have me excused.’ <sup>20</sup>Still another said, ‘I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.’ <sup>21</sup>So that servant came and reported these things to his master. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, ‘Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor and the maimed and the lame and the blind.’ <sup>22</sup>And the servant said, ‘Master, it is done as you commanded, and still there is room.’ <sup>23</sup>Then the master said to the servant, ‘Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.’ <sup>24</sup>For I say to you <sup>j</sup>that none of those men who were invited shall taste my supper.”

Leaving All to Follow Christ

<sup>25</sup>Now great multitudes went with Him. And He turned and said to them, <sup>26k</sup>“If anyone comes to Me <sup>l</sup>and does not hate his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, <sup>m</sup>yes, and his own life also, he cannot be My disciple. <sup>27</sup>And <sup>n</sup>whoever does not bear his cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple. <sup>28</sup>For <sup>o</sup>which of you, intending to build a tower, does not sit down first and count the cost, whether he has enough to finish it—<sup>29</sup>lest, after he has laid the foundation, and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, <sup>30</sup>saying, ‘This man began to build and was not able to finish?’ <sup>31</sup>Or what king, going to make war against another king, does not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? <sup>32</sup>Or else, while the other is still a great way off, he sends a delegation and asks conditions of peace. <sup>33</sup>So likewise, whoever of you <sup>p</sup>does not forsake all that he has cannot be My disciple.

Tasteless Salt Is Worthless

<sup>34q</sup>“Salt is good; but if the salt has lost its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? <sup>35</sup>It is neither fit for the land nor for the dunghill, but men throw it out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

15 Then <sup>a</sup>all the tax collectors and the sinners drew near to Him to hear Him. <sup>2</sup>And the Pharisees and scribes complained, saying, “This Man receives sinners <sup>b</sup>and eats with them.” <sup>3</sup>So He spoke this parable to them, saying:

14:17 those who were invited. In the ancient world, invitations to a feast were sent out well in advance of the meal. Then on the day of the feast, servants would announce the start of the meal. This parable is similar to the one in Matthew 22:1–4, but was probably spoken on a different occasion.

14:20 I have married a wife. While the Old Testament exempted a man from military duty because of marriage (Deut. 20:7; 24:5), marriage was not an excuse for avoiding social duties. The general point here is that the man regarded his own affairs as more important than the feast.

14:21 the poor and the maimed and the lame and the blind. This list matches that of verse 13. The maimed were excluded from full participation in Jewish worship (Lev. 21:17–23). The master’s second invitation extended the scope of the offer to those who were rejected by society.

14:23 Go out into the highways. The master’s second invitation extended beyond the city limits, encouraging even more people to come to the feast. This may picture the inclusion of Gentiles in God’s salvation (Is. 49:6). The instruction to compel them to come in does not mean to force people in, but to urge them.

14:34 Salt is good. In the ancient world, salt was often used as a catalyst for burning fuel such as cattle dung. The salt of the time was impure and could lose its strength over time, becoming useless. Jesus’ point is that the same is true of a “saltless” disciple.

15:1 tax collectors . . . sinners. The three parables of chapter 15 explain why Jesus associated with the despised groups while the Pharisees and scribes did not. The parables in this chapter are found only in Luke.

15:4 a hundred sheep. This was a medium-sized flock. The average herd ran from 20 to 200 head, while a flock of 300 or more was considered large.

sheep, if he loses one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one which is lost until he finds it?<sup>5</sup> And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing.<sup>6</sup> And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, “Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost!”<sup>7</sup> I say to you that likewise there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine just persons who need no repentance.

The Parable of the Lost Coin

<sup>8</sup>“Or what woman, having ten silver coins,* if she loses one coin, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it?<sup>9</sup> And when she has found it, she calls her friends and neighbors together, saying, “Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I lost!”<sup>10</sup> Likewise, I say to you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”

The Parable of the Lost Son

<sup>11</sup>Then He said: “A certain man had two sons.<sup>12</sup> And the younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me the portion of goods that falls to me.’ So he divided to them his livelihood.<sup>13</sup> And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, journeyed to a far country, and there wasted his possessions with prodigal living.<sup>14</sup> But when he had spent all, there arose a severe famine in that land, and he began to be in want.<sup>15</sup> Then he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.<sup>16</sup> And he would gladly have filled his stomach with the pods that the swine ate, and no one gave him anything.

<sup>17</sup>“But when he came to himself, he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired servants have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!’<sup>18</sup> I will arise and go to my father, and will say to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you,<sup>19</sup> and I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired servants.’”

<sup>20</sup>“And he arose and came to his father. But when he was still a great way off, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and fell on his neck and kissed him.<sup>21</sup> And the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight, and am no longer worthy to be called your son.’”

<sup>22</sup>“But the father said to his servants, ‘Bring out the best robe and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet.<sup>23</sup> And bring the fatted calf here and kill it, and let us eat and be merry;<sup>24</sup> for this my son was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.’ And they began to be merry.

<sup>25</sup>“Now his older son was in the field. And as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing.<sup>26</sup> So he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant.<sup>27</sup> And he said to him, ‘Your brother has come, and because he has received him safe and sound, your father has killed the fatted calf.’

<sup>28</sup>“But he was angry and would not go in. Therefore his father came out and pleaded

* 15:22 NU-Text reads Quickly bring.

15:7 persons who need no repentance. This phrase is a rhetorical way of describing the scribes and Pharisees. A similar description is found in 5:31, where it is said that some do not need a physician. The scribes and Pharisees believed that they did not need to repent because they were not lost.

15:8 ten silver coins. A drachma was a silver coin equal to a day’s wage for a basic laborer. The woman needed a lamp because she lived in a windowless house. Her broom for sweeping would have been made of palm twigs.

15:15 to feed swine. Feeding swine was an insulting job for a Jewish person, since pigs were unclean according to the law of Moses.

15:20 his father saw him and had compassion. Many scholars feel that the emphasis on the son in this parable causes people to miss the more important point, namely, the importance of the father’s welcoming role. Still others think it could even be called the Parable of the Elder Brother. Interestingly, both brothers underestimate their father’s love and grace. The younger brother is slow to realize the extent and permanence of his father’s love. The elder brother has trouble understanding that the restored relationship with the younger son is vital to the life of the father. What makes the dramatic conversion possible is the younger son’s knowledge that he will be accepted when he returns. While there are consequences to his behavior (his money is gone), he is welcomed to be a part of the family again. In many ways the welcome is even more than he could have hoped for. What is amazing about grace is that it is always more than we expect or deserve.

15:21 no longer worthy to be called your son. Despite his awareness of being accepted by his father, the son continued his confession of his sin. He then asked to become one of his father’s servants. Similarly, a sinner realizes that he or she brings nothing to and deserves nothing from God, but must rely completely on God’s mercy.

15:24 dead . . . alive again . . . lost . . . found. The total transformation of the prodigal son is summarized in these two contrasts. Such a transformation is a reason to celebrate. It is also the reason Jesus chose to associate with the lost.

15:28 he was angry. The elder brother’s unhappiness over a fatted calf (v. 27) being killed to celebrate

<sup>31</sup>"And he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that I have is yours.<sup>32</sup> It was right that we should make merry and be glad, for your brother was dead and is alive again, and was lost and is found.'

The Parable of the Unjust Steward

16 He also said to His disciples: "There was a certain rich man who had a steward, and an accusation was brought to him that this man was wasting his goods.<sup>2</sup> So he called him and said to him, 'What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your stewardship, for you can no longer be steward.'

<sup>3</sup>"Then the steward said within himself, 'What shall I do? For my master is taking the stewardship away from me. I cannot dig; I am ashamed to beg.<sup>4</sup> I have resolved what to do, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.'

<sup>5</sup>"So he called every one of his master's debtors to him, and said to the first, 'How much do you owe my master?' <sup>6</sup>And he said, 'A hundred measures* of oil.' So he said to him, 'Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.' <sup>7</sup>Then he said to another, 'And how much do you owe?' So he said, 'A hundred measures* of wheat.' And he said to him, 'Take your bill, and write eighty.' <sup>8</sup>So the master commended the unjust steward because he had dealt shrewdly. For the sons of this world are more shrewd in their generation than <sup>b</sup>the sons of light.

<sup>9</sup>"And I say to you, 'make friends for yourselves by unrighteous mammon, that when you fail,* they may receive you into an everlasting home.<sup>10d</sup> He who is faithful in what is least is faithful also in much; and he who is unjust in what is least is unjust also in much.<sup>11</sup> Therefore if you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? <sup>12</sup>And if you have not been faithful in what is another man's, who will give you what is your own?

<sup>13f</sup>"No servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon."

The Law, the Prophets, and the Kingdom

<sup>16i</sup>"The law and the prophets were until John. Since that time the kingdom of God has been preached, and everyone is pressing into it. <sup>17m</sup>And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one tittle of the law to fail.

The Rich Man and Lazarus

<sup>19</sup>"There was a certain rich man who was clothed in purple and fine linen and fared sumptuously every day. <sup>20</sup>But there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, full of sores, who was laid at his gate, <sup>21</sup>desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell* from the rich man's table. Moreover the dogs came the return of his undisciplined brother illustrates the response of the Pharisees and scribes at the prospect of sinners becoming acceptable to God.

16:1 a steward. This was a servant who supervised and administered an estate. The charge brought against this steward is incompetence.

16:8 So the master commended the unjust steward. The master recognized the foresight in the steward's generosity. It is debatable whether the steward was dishonest and robbed the master by such reductions or was shrewd in using his authority to discount the goods (vv. 6–7). The fact that the master commended the steward may suggest that the master was not robbed and that the steward's reduction was the result of either an adherence to the law or a lowering of the steward's own commission.

16:9 unrighteous mammon. This is money and should be used generously to build works that last.

Money is called unrighteous because it often manifests unrighteousness and selfishness in people (1 Tim. 6:6–10, 17–19; James 1:9–11; 5:1–6).

16:19 clothed in purple. Purple clothes were extremely expensive because they were made with a special dye extracted from a kind of snail.

16:20–21 licked his sores. To have his sores licked by dogs threatened Lazarus with infection as well as ritual uncleanness, since dogs fed on garbage, including dead animals.

and licked his sores.<sup>22</sup> So it was that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels to <sup>a</sup>Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died and was buried.<sup>23</sup> And being in torments in Hades, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

<sup>24</sup>“Then he cried and said, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and <sup>b</sup>cool my tongue; for I <sup>a</sup>am tormented in this flame.’<sup>25</sup> But Abraham said, ‘Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things; but now he is comforted and you are tormented.’<sup>26</sup> And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, so that those who want to pass from here to you cannot, nor can those from there pass to us.’

<sup>27</sup>“Then he said, ‘I beg you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father's house,<sup>28</sup> for I have five brothers, that he may testify to them, lest they also come to this place of torment.’<sup>29</sup> Abraham said to him, ‘They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.’<sup>30</sup> And he said, ‘No, father Abraham; but if one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.’<sup>31</sup> But he said to him, ‘If they do not hear Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded though one rise from the dead.’”

Jesus Warns of Offenses

17 Then He said to the disciples, <sup>a</sup>“It is impossible that no offenses should come, but <sup>b</sup>woe to him through whom they do come! <sup>2</sup>It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.<sup>3</sup> Take heed to yourselves. <sup>c</sup>If your brother sins against you,* <sup>d</sup>rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him.<sup>4</sup> And if he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times in a day returns to you,* saying, ‘I repent,’ you shall forgive him.”

Faith and Duty

16:22 Abraham's bosom. This was the blessed place of the dead. Angelic escorts for the dead were also known in Judaism. This verse indicates that the dead know their fate immediately.

16:24 I am tormented in this flame. The rich man desired relief from his suffering. The image of thirst for the experience of judgment is common (Is. 5:13; 65:13; Hos. 2:3).

16:29 They have Moses and the prophets. Abraham made it clear that the rich man's brothers should have known what to do, since they had the message of God in the ancient writings. The point here is that generosity with money and care for the poor were taught in the Old Testament (Deut. 14:28–29; Is. 3:14–15; Mic. 6:10–11).

17:1–2 woe to him. Jesus warned that judgment

<sup>6</sup>So the Lord said, “If you have faith as a mustard seed, you can say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be pulled up by the roots and be planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.<sup>7</sup> And which of you, having a servant plowing or tending sheep, will say to him when he has come in from the field, ‘Come at once and sit down to eat?’<sup>8</sup> But will he not rather say to him, ‘Prepare something for my supper, and gird yourself <sup>a</sup>and serve me till I have eaten and drunk, and afterward you will eat and drink?’<sup>9</sup> Does he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I think not.* <sup>10</sup>So likewise you, when you have done all those things which you are commanded, say, ‘We are <sup>a</sup>unprofitable servants. We have done what was our duty to do.’”

Ten Lepers Cleansed

<sup>11</sup>Now it happened <sup>a</sup>as He went to Jerusalem that He passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.<sup>12</sup> Then as He entered a certain village, there met Him ten men who were lepers, <sup>a</sup>who stood afar off.<sup>13</sup> And they lifted up their voices and said, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!”

<sup>14</sup>So when He saw them, He said to them, <sup>i</sup>“Go, show yourselves to the priests.” And so it was that as they went, they were cleansed.

<sup>17</sup>So Jesus answered and said, “Were there not ten cleansed? But where are the nine?<sup>18</sup> Were there not any found who returned to give glory to God except this foreigner?”<sup>19m</sup> And He said to him, “Arise, go your way. Your faith has made you well.”

come, He answered them and said, “The kingdom of God does not come with observation; <sup>21</sup>nor will they say, ‘See here!’ or ‘See there!’* For indeed, <sup>22</sup>the kingdom of God is within you.”

<sup>22</sup>Then He said to the disciples, <sup>23</sup>“The days will come when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it.” <sup>23a</sup>And they will say to you, ‘Look here!’ or ‘Look there!’* Do not go after them or follow them. <sup>24</sup>For as the lightning that flashes out of one part under heaven shines to the other part under heaven, so also the Son of Man will be in His day. <sup>25</sup>But first He must suffer many things and be <sup>26</sup>rejected by this generation. <sup>26a</sup>And as it <sup>27</sup>was in the <sup>28</sup>days of Noah, so it will be also in the days of the Son of Man: <sup>27</sup>They ate, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the <sup>28</sup>day that Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and <sup>29</sup>destroyed them all. <sup>28a</sup>Likewise as it was also in the days of Lot: They ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; <sup>29</sup>but on <sup>30</sup>the day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all. <sup>30</sup>Even so will it be in the day when the Son of Man <sup>31</sup>is revealed.

two men in one bed: the one will be taken and the other will be left. <sup>35</sup>Two women will be grinding together: the one will be taken and the other left. <sup>36</sup>Two men will be in the field: the one will be taken and the other left.”*

So He said to them, “Wherever the body is, there the eagles will be gathered together.”

The Parable of the Persistent Widow

18 Then He spoke a parable to them, that men <sup>1</sup>always ought to pray and not lose heart, <sup>2</sup>saying: “There was in a certain city a judge who did not fear God nor regard man. <sup>3</sup>Now there was a widow in that city; and she came to him, saying, ‘Get justice for me from my adversary.’ <sup>4</sup>And he would not for a while; but afterward he said within himself, ‘Though I do not fear God nor regard man, <sup>5</sup>yet because this widow troubles me I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.’” with cosmic signs (Joel 2:28–32). Jesus’ concept of the kingdom of God, however, was broader than the time of the final consummation.

17:21 within you. This verse indicates that there was an aspect of kingdom promise involved in Jesus’ first coming. The kingdom of God is among earthly kingdoms today; but one day the kingdom of God will swallow up all rival kingdoms (Rev. 11:15). In verses 22–37, Jesus makes it clear that the kingdom has two phases—one now and one to come. In the beginning of His kingdom on earth, God first prepares a King to rule; then He gathers a people for Him to rule over; then He gives the Ruler a realm in which to reign. The kingdom of God is not the same as the church, though the church is a part of the kingdom. The kingdom now is the presence of God alongside earthly kingdoms. One day, however, Jesus will rule over all, and He will share that rule with His people (Rev. 2:26–27; 5:9–10; 20:4–6).

17:26 in the days of Noah. At that time people paid little attention to God and faced judgment as a result (Gen. 6:5–13). The same will be the case at Jesus’ return.

17:32 Lot’s wife. This woman represents those who are attached to earthly things, those whose hearts are still in this world. Like Lot’s wife, such people will perish (Gen. 19:26).

17:34–37 one will be taken. This phrase suggests judgment such as when the soldiers took Jesus to crucify Him. Verse 37 makes it clear that those who are taken are taken to final judgment. The vultures will be gathered. When judgment comes, it will be final and terrible, with the stench of death and the presence of vultures everywhere. No one will need to look for the place of judgment; the presence of the birds will reveal where the carcasses are.

18:2 a judge. The Romans allowed the Jews to manage most of their own affairs. This judge did not fear God, and was therefore probably a secular judge, not a religious one. The dishonest judge represents corrupted power.

18:5 this widow troubles me. The persistence of the widow is the lesson of the parable. God is a counterexample to the judge. God does not begrudge answering prayer. Jesus’ point is that, if an insensitive judge will respond to the continual requests of a widow, God will certainly respond to the continual prayers of believers.

The Parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector

Jesus Blesses Little Children

<sup>15</sup>iThen they also brought infants to Him that He might touch them; but when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. <sup>16</sup>But Jesus called them to Him and said, “Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for <sup>j</sup>of such is the kingdom of God. <sup>17</sup><sup>k</sup>Assuredly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will by no means enter it.”

Jesus Counsels the Rich Young Ruler

<sup>22</sup>So when Jesus heard these things, He said to him, “You still lack one thing. <sup>o</sup>‘Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me.’”

<sup>23</sup>But when he heard this, he became very sorrowful, for he was very rich.

With God All Things Are Possible

<sup>24</sup>And when Jesus saw that he became very sorrowful, He said, <sup>r</sup>“How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup>For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”

<sup>29</sup>So He said to them, “Assuredly, I say to you, <sup>v</sup>there is no one who has left house or parents or brothers or wife or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, <sup>30</sup>who shall not receive many times more in this present time, and in the age to come eternal life.”

Jesus a Third Time Predicts His Death and Resurrection

<sup>31</sup>wThen He took the twelve aside and said to them, “Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all things <sup>x</sup>that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be accomplished. <sup>32</sup>For <sup>y</sup>He will be delivered to the Gentiles and will be mocked and insulted and spit upon. <sup>33</sup>They will scourge Him and kill Him. And the third day He will rise again.”

* 18:28 NU-Text reads our own.

18:11–12 God, I thank You. The tone of the prayer reveals the Pharisee’s problem. He uses the pronoun “I” five times in two verses. The Pharisee’s attitude seems to be that God should be grateful to him for his commitment. The man obviously looked down on other people and was proud of his fasting and tithing.

18:13 God, be merciful to me a sinner. This is an example of the humble spirit of repentance that Jesus commends. The tax collector knew that he could not say or bring anything to enhance his standing with God. He knew that only God’s mercy and grace, and not his own works, could deliver him.

18:16 But Jesus called them. Jesus used the thoughtlessness of his disciples to make two points: (1) all people, even little children, are important to God; and (2) the kingdom of God consists of those who respond to Him with the trust that a little child gives to a parent.

18:22 Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor. This was a radical test of the ruler’s concern for others (12:33–34). Jesus was determining whether the ruler’s treasure (Matt. 6:19–21) lay with God or money (16:13). Jesus was not establishing a new requirement for being saved. He was examining the ruler’s orientation to God by directly confronting him with the very thing that was hindering him—namely, his wealth.

18:24–25 For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle. Jesus used this figure of speech to emphasize the difficulty of turning from wealth to find salvation. Because many Jewish people believed that wealth was evidence of God’s blessing, Jesus’ statements would have been shocking to His audience.

<sup>34z</sup>But they understood none of these things; this saying was hidden from them, and they did not know the things which were spoken.

A Blind Man Receives His Sight

<sup>35a</sup>Then it happened, as He was coming near Jericho, that a certain blind man sat by the road begging. <sup>36</sup>And hearing a multitude passing by, he asked what it meant. <sup>37</sup>So they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. <sup>38</sup>And he cried out, saying, “Jesus, <sup>b</sup>Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>39</sup>Then those who went before warned him that he should be quiet; but he cried out all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>40</sup>So Jesus stood still and commanded him to be brought to Him. And when he had come near, He asked him, <sup>41</sup>saying, “What do you want Me to do for you?”

He said, “Lord, that I may receive my sight.”

<sup>42</sup>Then Jesus said to him, “Receive your sight; <sup>c</sup>your faith has made you well.”

<sup>43</sup>And immediately he received his sight, and followed Him, <sup>d</sup>glorifying God. And all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

Jesus Comes to Zacchaeus’ House

19 Then Jesus entered and passed through <sup>a</sup>Jericho. <sup>2</sup>Now behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus who was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. <sup>3</sup>And he sought to <sup>b</sup>see who Jesus was, but could not because of the crowd, for he was of short stature. <sup>4</sup>So he ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Him, for He was going to pass that way. <sup>5</sup>And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up and saw him, <sup>c</sup>and said to him, “Zacchaeus, make haste and come down, for today I must stay at your house.” <sup>6</sup>So he made haste and came down, and received

Him joyfully. <sup>7</sup>But when they saw it, they all complained, saying, “He has gone to be a guest with a man who is a sinner.”

<sup>9</sup>And Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this house, because <sup>g</sup>he also is <sup>h</sup>a son of Abraham; <sup>10</sup>for the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost.”

The Parable of the Minas

<sup>11</sup>Now as they heard these things, He spoke another parable, because He was near Jerusalem and because <sup>i</sup>they thought the kingdom of God would appear immediately. <sup>12k</sup>Therefore He said: “A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom and to return. <sup>13</sup>So he called ten of his servants, delivered to them ten minas,* and said to them, ‘Do business till I come.’ <sup>14</sup>But his citizens hated him, and sent a delegation after him, saying, ‘We will not have this man to reign over us.’

<sup>15</sup>“And so it was that when he returned, having received the kingdom, he then commanded these servants, to whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading. <sup>16</sup>Then came the first, saying, ‘Master, your mina has earned ten minas.’ <sup>17</sup>And he said to him, <sup>m</sup>‘Well done, good servant; because you were <sup>n</sup>faithful in a very little, have authority over ten cities.’ <sup>18</sup>And the second came, saying, ‘Master, your mina has earned five minas.’ <sup>19</sup>Likewise he said to him, ‘You also be over five cities.’

18:34 they understood none of these things. The disciples may have understood something of what Jesus said, but they could not understand why God’s Chosen One would have to face such suffering. For those who were expecting the Promised One to be an exalted figure who would deliver God’s people, it would be very difficult to reconcile such an expectation with such terrible suffering.

18:38 Son of David. Note the irony in this verse. The blind man recognized who Jesus was more clearly than many people who were blessed with physical sight. The blind man’s cry for mercy demonstrated his belief that Jesus had the power to heal him.

19:2 Zacchaeus. This was the chief tax collector, which meant he most likely bid for the right to collect taxes and then hired another tax collector to actually gather the money.

19:7 they all complained. The crowd was not happy with Jesus’ choice of who to honor with His fellowship. In the crowd’s opinion, Zacchaeus was a sinner. Tax collectors often took for themselves a high percentage of what they demanded. They were hated and despised in ancient Israel.

19:11 they thought. Evidently the disciples believed that Jesus’ arrival in Jerusalem would signal the arrival of the kingdom of God. Jesus’ parable in verses 12–27 was designed to dispel this misconception. Note that the disciples raised the same question in Acts 1:6.

19:13 ten minas. Each servant received one mina or about three months’ wages for the average worker. The master, symbolizing Jesus Himself, wants to see fruit, or dividends from his investment. Did his servants put the money they received to good use?

<sup>24</sup>“And he said to those who stood by, ‘Take the mina from him, and give it to him who has ten minas.’ <sup>25</sup>(But they said to him, ‘Master, he has ten minas.’) <sup>26</sup>For I say to you, ‘that to everyone who has will be given; and from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. <sup>27</sup>But bring here those enemies of mine, who did not want me to reign over them, and slay them before me.’”

The Triumphal Entry

<sup>28</sup>When He had said this, <sup>29</sup>He went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. <sup>30</sup>And it came to pass, when He drew near to Bethphage* and Bethany, at the mountain called Olivet, that He sent two of His disciples, <sup>31</sup>saying, “Go into the village opposite you, where as you enter you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever sat. Loose it and bring it here. <sup>32</sup>And if anyone asks you, ‘Why are you loosing it?’ thus you shall say to him, ‘Because the Lord has need of it.’”

<sup>32</sup>So those who were sent went their way and found it just <sup>33</sup>as He had said to them. <sup>34</sup>But as they were loosing the colt, the owners of it said to them, “Why are you loosing the colt?”

<sup>34</sup>And they said, “The Lord has need of him.” <sup>35</sup>Then they brought him to Jesus. <sup>36</sup>And they threw their own clothes on the colt, and they set Jesus on him. <sup>37</sup>And as He went, many spread their clothes on the road.

<sup>37</sup>Then, as He was now drawing near the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works they had seen, <sup>38</sup>saying:

Jesus Weeps over Jerusalem

<sup>43</sup>Now as He drew near, He saw the city and wept over it, <sup>44</sup>saying, “If you had known, even you, especially in this day, the things that make for your peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes. <sup>45</sup>For days will come upon you when your enemies will build an embankment around you, surround you and close you in on every side, and level you, and your children within you, to the ground; and they will not leave in you one stone upon another, because you did not know the time of your visitation.”

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

<sup>46</sup>Then He went into the temple and began to drive out those who bought and sold in it. <sup>47</sup>saying to them, “It is written, ‘My house is a house of prayer,’* but you have made it a den of thieves.”*

<sup>48</sup>And He was teaching daily in the temple. But the chief priests, the scribes, and the leaders of the people sought to destroy Him, and were unable to do anything; for all the people were very attentive to hear Him.

19:20–23 I feared you. The unfaithful servant’s excuse for failure reflects a negative view of the nobleman. If the servant had really feared the master, he would have done something with the money. Even putting the money in the bank would have yielded interest.

19:31–34 the Lord has need of it. Such borrowing of an animal was not as strange as it may appear. There was an ancient custom by which a political or religious leader could commandeer property for short-term use. Jesus was entering Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread, festivals that commemorated the great act of God’s deliverance of the nation. Such feasts were often celebrated at this time with the hope that God’s decisive deliverance would come.

19:41 wept over it. Jesus knew that so many of the people of Israel had rejected Him that the nation would suffer judgment, in the form of the terrible destruction that came on Jerusalem in A.D. 70.

19:43 build an embankment around you. This is a prediction of Rome’s successful siege of Jerusalem under Titus. The details reflect a divine judgment for covenant unfaithfulness, similar to the Babylonian destruction of Jerusalem in 586 B.C. (Is. 29:1–4; Jer. 6:6–21; Ezek. 4:1–3).

19:45 He went into the temple. Jesus cleansed the temple in anger after seeing that the place of prayer had become an excuse for corrupt commerce.

Jesus' Authority Questioned

20 Now <sup>a</sup>it happened on one of those days, as He taught the people in the temple and preached the gospel, <sup>b</sup>that the chief priests and the scribes, together with the elders, confronted Him <sup>2</sup>and spoke to Him, saying, "Tell us, <sup>b</sup>by what authority are You doing these things? Or who is he who gave You this authority?"

<sup>3</sup>But He answered and said to them, "I also will ask you one thing, and answer Me: <sup>4</sup>The <sup>c</sup>baptism of John—was it from heaven or from men?"

<sup>5</sup>And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say, 'Why then<sup>c</sup> did you not believe him?' <sup>6</sup>But if we say, 'From men,' all the people will stone us, <sup>d</sup>for they are persuaded that John was a prophet." <sup>7</sup>So they answered that they did not know where it was from.

<sup>8</sup>And Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

The Parable of the Wicked Vinedressers

Merchants were selling sacrificial animals in the outer court of the temple (the Court of the Gentiles) at exorbitant prices. Money changers were making an excessive profit exchanging currencies for the temple shekel. John records a temple cleansing in John 2:13–22, but it is not clear whether that event is the same as this one in Luke. Since John places the event early in Jesus' ministry, Jesus might have cleansed the temple twice.

20:4 The baptism of John—was it from heaven or from men? Here as throughout the Gospel of Luke, the ministries of John the Baptist and Jesus are linked. Jesus' question presented the Pharisees with a dilemma. If they recognized John's ministry as coming from heaven, they would be recognizing the same divine origin of Jesus' similar "independent" Spirit-directed ministry. But if the Pharisees denied that John was sent by God they risked angering the majority of the people, who believed that John's ministry was divinely directed (vv. 5–6).

20:9 A certain man planted a vineyard. The imagery of the vineyard recalls the subject of Jesus' parable in 13:6–9. This parable is also found in Matthew 21:33–44 and Mark 12:1–12, with some slight variations of detail in each account.

20:14 This is the heir. The vinedressers hoped that

<sup>13</sup>"Then the owner of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. Probably they will respect him when they see him.' <sup>14</sup>But when the vinedressers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, 'This is the <sup>g</sup>heir. Come, <sup>h</sup>let us kill him, that the inheritance may be <sup>i</sup>ours.' <sup>15</sup>So they cast him out of the vineyard and <sup>k</sup>killed him. Therefore what will the owner of the vineyard do to them? <sup>16</sup>He will come and destroy those vinedressers and give the vineyard to <sup>l</sup>others."

And when they heard it they said, "Certainly not!"

Has become the chief cornerstone?*"<sup>2</sup>

<sup>18</sup>Whoever falls on that stone will be <sup>m</sup>broken; but <sup>n</sup>on whomever it falls, it will grind him to powder."

<sup>19</sup>And the chief priests and the scribes that very hour sought to lay hands on Him, but they feared the people<sup>o</sup>—for they knew He had spoken this parable against them.

The Pharisees: Is It Lawful to Pay Taxes to Caesar?

<sup>20</sup>So they watched Him, and sent spies who pretended to be righteous, that they might seize on His words, in order to deliver Him to the power and the authority of the governor.

with the son gone, the inheritance would fall to those who worked the property, a transfer that was possible in the ancient world. The details of this parable do not represent the thinking of those who crucified Jesus. The leaders of Israel thought they were stopping someone who was dangerous to Judaism, not that they were going to inherit Jesus' kingdom.

20:17 The stone which the builders rejected. This passage, taken from Psalm 118:22, pictures the exaltation of the Righteous One, Jesus, after His rejection. Opposition will not stop God from making the One who is rejected the center of His work of salvation.

20:18 Whoever falls on that stone. Jesus is the stone. Anyone who goes against the stone will be destroyed. Jesus' statement is similar to a late Jewish proverb: "If the stone falls on the pot, alas for the pot; if the pot falls on the stone, alas for the pot." The imagery for the stone is also found in 1 Peter 2:4–8.

but teach the way of God in truth: <sup>22</sup>Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

<sup>23</sup>But He perceived their craftiness, and said to them, "Why do you test Me?" <sup>24</sup>Show Me a denarius. Whose image and inscription does it have?"

They answered and said, "Caesar's."

<sup>26</sup>But they could not catch Him in His words in the presence of the people. And they marveled at His answer and kept silent.

The Sadducees: What About the Resurrection?

resurrection. <sup>37</sup>But even Moses showed in the burning bush passage that the dead are raised, when he called the Lord <sup>w</sup>"the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob."<sup>38</sup>For He is not the God of the dead but of the living, for <sup>x</sup>all live to Him."

<sup>39</sup>Then some of the scribes answered and said, "Teacher, You have spoken well." <sup>40</sup>But after that they dared not question Him anymore.

Jesus: How Can David Call His Descendant Lord?

<sup>41</sup>And He said to them, <sup>y</sup>"How can they say that the Christ is the Son of David?"

<sup>z</sup>"The LORD said to my Lord,

"Sit at my right hand,

Beware of the Scribes

* 20:23 NU-Text omits Why do you test Me?

20:22 Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar. This question concerned the poll tax to Rome, which was different from the taxes collected by the tax collectors. The poll tax was a citizenship tax paid directly to Rome, as an indication that Israel was subject to that Gentile nation. The Pharisees' query was a trick question. If Jesus answered yes, the people would be angry because He respected a foreign power. If He answered no, He could be charged with sedition.

20:24 Whose image and inscription does it have? Jesus' reply was clever. He had the Pharisees pull out a coin, indicating that they already recognized Roman sovereignty by using Roman coins themselves. A penny was a silver coin that had a picture of the emperor Tiberius on it.

20:27 Sadducees. The Sadducees, the Pharisees, and the Essenes were three major divisions in first-century Judaism. The Sadducees rejected the oral traditions that the Pharisees too stringently obeyed. Instead they based their teaching only on the first five books of the Old Testament. They also denied that there could be a resurrection.

20:36 they are equal to the angels. The everlasting life of a resurrected person makes that person something like an angel. Paul explains further that in the resurrection we will be given resurrection bodies similar to Christ's (1 Cor. 15:25–58). This will be a new experience that will not necessarily parallel experiences on this earth, such as marriage.

20:41–42 How can they say. Here Jesus takes His turn at raising a theological issue. The dilemma He poses is how the Messiah could be called the Son of David, when David himself gave Him the title Lord, my Lord. This is a citation from Psalm 110:1. The Messiah was David's descendant and yet David gave Him the respect due to a superior, the reverse of what normally occurred in ancient times. Jesus was not denying the title Son of David to the Messiah. He was simply noting that the title Lord, meaning "Master," is more central. Even David one day will bow at the Messiah's feet and confess that He is Lord (Phil. 2:10).

The Widow's Two Mites

21 And He looked up <sup>a</sup>and saw the rich putting their gifts into the treasury, <sup>2</sup>and He saw also a certain <sup>b</sup>poor widow putting in two <sup>c</sup>mites. <sup>3</sup>So He said, “Truly I say to you <sup>d</sup>that this poor widow has put in more than all; <sup>4</sup>for all these out of their abundance have put in offerings for God,* but she out of her poverty put in <sup>e</sup>all the livelihood that she had.”

Jesus Predicts the Destruction of the Temple

<sup>5</sup>Then, as some spoke of the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and donations, He said, <sup>6</sup>“These things which you see—the days will come in which <sup>not</sup> one stone shall be left upon another that shall not be thrown down.”

The Signs of the Times and the End of the Age

<sup>7</sup>So they asked Him, saying, “Teacher, but when will these things be? And what sign will there be when these things are about to take place?”

<sup>8</sup>And He said: <sup>h</sup>“Take heed that you not be deceived. For many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am He,’ and, ‘The time has drawn near.’ Therefore* do not go after them. <sup>9</sup>But when you hear of <sup>i</sup>wars and commotions, do not be terrified; for these things must come to pass first, but the end will not come immediately.”

<sup>10</sup>Then He said to them, “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. <sup>11</sup>And there will be great <sup>k</sup>earthquakes in various places, and famines and pestilences; and there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven. <sup>12</sup>But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and <sup>m</sup>prisons. <sup>n</sup>You will be brought before kings and rulers <sup>o</sup>for My name's sake. <sup>13</sup>But <sup>p</sup>it will turn out for you as an occasion for testimony. <sup>14</sup>Therefore settle <sup>l</sup>it in your hearts not to meditate beforehand on what you will answer; <sup>15</sup>for I will give you a mouth and wisdom <sup>q</sup>which all your adversaries will not be able to contradict or resist. <sup>16</sup>s You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, relatives and friends; and they will put <sup>r</sup>some of you to death. <sup>17</sup>And <sup>u</sup>you will be hated by all for My name's sake. <sup>18</sup>v But not a hair of your head shall be lost. <sup>19</sup>By your patience possess your souls.

The Destruction of Jerusalem

* 21:4 NU-Text omits for God. * 21:8 NU-Text omits Therefore.

21:2 two mites. These were the smallest currency available.

21:5 donations. These were gift offerings for the decoration of the temple and included gold and silver-plated gates, grapevine clusters, and Babylonian linen tapestries which hung from the temple veil. Even Tacitus, the Roman historian, called it an “immensely opulent temple.”

21:6 not one stone shall be left upon another. Jesus noted that the beautiful place of worship was temporary and would be destroyed. He was referring to the fall of Jerusalem in A.D. 70, which itself was a picture of the destruction of the last days.

21:8 Take heed that you not be deceived. The first century and early second century were times of great messianic fervor in Judaism, as the Israelites sought freedom from Roman rule. Many people claimed to be the Messiah. Jesus warned His disciples not to be fooled by such claims.

21:12 synagogues and prisons . . . kings and rulers. These references indicate that all nations would share responsibility for the massacre of the disciples.

21:15 I will give you a mouth and wisdom. Jesus promises the disciples that the Holy Spirit will assist them in giving testimony (12:11–12). The initial fulfillment of this promise is found in Acts 4:8–14; 7:54; and 26:24–30.

21:16 You will be betrayed. The persecution of the disciples would be painful and severe. Identifying with Jesus often means risking the rejection and denunciation of family, and in some cases martyrdom.

21:20 its desolation. This passage compared the desecration of the temple to what occurred in 167 B.C., when Antiochus Epiphanes erected an altar to Zeus in the temple. A similar desecration of the temple site occurred during the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70.

21:22 days of vengeance. Jerusalem had become an object of divine judgment because of its unfaithfulness. Jesus warned of this consequence throughout His ministry (13:9,34–35; 19:41–44). The premise for such judgment goes back to the curses of the Mosaic

<sup>25a</sup>“And there will be signs in the sun, in the moon, and in the stars; and on the earth distress of nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring; <sup>26</sup>men’s hearts failing them from fear and the expectation of those things which are coming on the earth, <sup>b</sup>for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. <sup>27</sup>Then they will see the Son of Man <sup>c</sup>coming in a cloud with power and great glory. <sup>28</sup>Now when these things begin to happen, look up and lift up your heads, because <sup>d</sup>your redemption draws near.”

The Parable of the Fig Tree

<sup>29e</sup>Then He spoke to them a parable: “Look at the fig tree, and all the trees. <sup>30</sup>When they are already budding, you see and know for yourselves that summer is now near. <sup>31</sup>So you also, when you see these things happening, know that the kingdom of God is near. <sup>32</sup>Assuredly, I say to you, this generation will by no means pass away till all things take place. <sup>33</sup>Heaven and earth will pass away, but My <sup>f</sup>words will by no means pass away.

The Importance of Watching

<sup>38</sup>Then early in the morning all the people came to Him in the temple to hear Him.

The Plot to Kill Jesus

Jesus and His Disciples Prepare the Passover

<sup>7g</sup>Then came the Day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover must be killed. <sup>8</sup>And He sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat.”

<sup>10</sup>And He said to them, “Behold, when you have entered the city, a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water; follow him into the house which he enters. <sup>11</sup>Then you shall say to the master of the house, ‘The Teacher says to you, “Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?”’” <sup>12</sup>Then he will show you a large, furnished upper room; there make ready.”

covenant and the Old Testament prophets’ warnings of coming judgment (Deut. 28:49–57; 32:35; Jer. 6:1–8; 26:1–9; Hos. 9:7).

21:29–30 When they are already budding. The tender buds that appear every spring on trees show that summer is approaching; the appearance of the signs Jesus describes will warn of the coming of the end times.

21:33 will by no means pass away. The disciples had the assurance that Jesus’ promises concerning the end times were more certain than creation itself. God made an unconditional and unilateral covenant, and He will keep it (Gen. 12:1–3; 15:18–21; Ps. 89).

21:34 take heed to yourselves. Though the events of the end times may not come to pass for a long time, believers should continue to look for their arrival. The day of Jesus’ return should not take us by surprise. We should live as if it is imminent.

22:1 the Feast of Unleavened Bread. This feast took place immediately following Passover (Ex. 12:1–20; Deut. 16:1–8). The two feasts were often considered as one. Passover commemorated the night of the tenth plague in Egypt. The Feast of Unleavened Bread celebrated the Exodus.

22:4 captains. These were Levites who were members of the temple guard. They were the ones who could make the arrest.

22:11–12 guest room. Such rooms were often made available to the thousands of pilgrims who came to Jerusalem for the celebration of Passover and the

Jesus Institutes the Lord's Supper

<sup>14</sup>When the hour had come, He sat down, and the twelve* apostles with Him. <sup>15</sup>Then He said to them, "With fervent desire I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer; <sup>16</sup>for I say to you, I will no longer eat of it† until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."

<sup>17</sup>Then He took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, "Take this and divide it among yourselves; <sup>18</sup>for I say to you,* I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes."

<sup>23</sup>Then they began to question among themselves, which of them it was who would do this thing.

The Disciples Argue About Greatness

<sup>24</sup>Now there was also a dispute among them, as to which of them should be considered the greatest. <sup>25</sup><sup>u</sup>And He said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them, and those who exercise authority over them are called 'benefactors.'<sup>26</sup>But not so among you; on the contrary, †he who is greatest among you, let him be as the younger, and he who governs as he who serves. <sup>27</sup><sup>x</sup>For who is greater, he who sits at the table, or he who serves? Is it not he who sits at the table? Yet †I am among you as the One who serves.

bestowed one upon Me, <sup>30</sup>that <sup>b</sup>you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, †and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel."

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

<sup>31</sup>And the Lord said,* "Simon, Simon! Indeed, †Satan has asked for you, that he may †sift you as wheat. <sup>32</sup>But †I have prayed for you, that your faith should not fail; and when you have returned to Me, <sup>g</sup>strengthen your brethren."

<sup>33</sup>But he said to Him, "Lord, I am ready to go with You, both to prison and to death."

<sup>34</sup><sup>h</sup>Then He said, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster shall not crow this day before you will deny three times that you know Me."

Supplies for the Road

<sup>35</sup><sup>i</sup>And He said to them, "When I sent you without money bag, knapsack, and sandals, did you lack anything?"

So they said, "Nothing."

<sup>36</sup>Then He said to them, "But now, he who has a money bag, let him take it, and likewise a knapsack; and he who has no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one. <sup>37</sup>For I say to you that this which is written must still be accomplished in Me: †'And He was numbered with the transgressors.'† For the things concerning Me have an end."

And He said to them, "It is enough."

The Prayer in the Garden

<sup>39</sup><sup>k</sup>Coming out, †He went to the Mount of Olives, as He was accustomed, and His disciples also followed Him. <sup>40</sup><sup>m</sup>When He came to the place, He said to them, "Pray that you may not enter into temptation."

Feast of Unleavened Bread. Such a room would contain couches for guests at the feasts to recline for the meal. Access to the room was probably gained by stairs on the outside of the house.

22:19 My body . . . do this in remembrance. Jesus instituted a new meal which is not only a memorial of His death, but also a fellowship meal of unity. It is a proclamation and a symbol of the believer's anticipation of Jesus' return, when all God's promises will be fulfilled (1 Cor. 10:16–17; 11:23–26).

22:20 This cup is the new covenant. The wine of the Lord's Supper depicts the giving of life, a sacrifice of blood, which inaugurated the new covenant for those who respond to Jesus' offer of salvation (Heb. 8:13; 9:11–28).

22:30 eat and drink . . . sit on thrones judging. This is a promise of future blessing and authority. The disciples were promised a seat at the banquet of victory and the right to help Jesus rule over Israel on His return (Matt. 19:28; 2 Tim. 2:12).

22:32 I have prayed for you . . . you have returned. The Greek word for you here is singular, referring specifically to Peter. In effect, Jesus restored Peter even before his fall (vv. 54–62), and He instructed the disciple to shepherd the saints by strengthening them. 22:37 this which is written. Jesus cited Isaiah 53:12, which describes a righteous one who suffers as a

Then His sweat became like great drops of blood falling down to the ground.* <sup>45</sup>When He rose up from prayer, and had come to His disciples, He found them sleeping from sorrow. <sup>46</sup>Then He said to them, "Why <sup>r</sup>do you sleep? Rise and <sup>s</sup>pray, lest you enter into temptation."

Betrayal and Arrest in Gethsemane

<sup>52x</sup>Then Jesus said to the chief priests, captains of the temple, and the elders who had come to Him, "Have you come out, as against a <sup>r</sup>robber, with swords and clubs? <sup>53</sup>When I was with you daily in the <sup>t</sup>temple, you did not try to seize Me. But this is your <sup>a</sup>hour, and the power of darkness."

Peter Denies Jesus, and Weeps Bitterly

certain servant girl, seeing him as he sat by the fire, looked intently at him and said, "This man was also with Him."

But Peter said, "Man, I am not!"

Immediately, while he was still speaking, the rooster* crowed. <sup>61</sup>And the Lord turned and looked at Peter. Then <sup>b</sup>Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had said to him, "<sup>i</sup>Before the rooster crows,* you will deny Me three times." <sup>62</sup>So Peter went out and wept bitterly.

Jesus Mocked and Beaten

<sup>63</sup>Now the men who held Jesus mocked Him and <sup>b</sup>beat Him. <sup>64</sup>And having blindfolded Him, they <sup>t</sup>struck Him on the face and asked Him,* saying, "Prophecy! Who is the one who struck You?" <sup>65</sup>And many other things they blasphemously spoke against Him.

Jesus Faces the Sanhedrin

<sup>66m</sup>As soon as it was day, <sup>n</sup>the elders of the people, both chief priests and scribes, came together and led Him into their council, saying, <sup>67o</sup>"If You are the Christ, tell us."

But He said to them, "If I tell you, you will <sup>b</sup>by no means believe. <sup>68</sup>And if I also ask you, you will by no means answer Me or let Me go.* <sup>69a</sup>Hereafter the Son of Man criminal. Jesus noted that His death would fulfill Isaiah's prediction.

22:42 this cup. This is a figure of speech for wrath (Ps. 11:6; 75:7–8; Jer. 25:15–16; Ezek. 23:31–34).

22:43 strengthening Him. God's answer to Jesus' prayer did not allow His Son to avoid suffering. However, God did provide angelic help for Jesus to face what was coming. Sometimes God answers prayer by eliminating trials; sometimes He answers by strengthening us in the midst of them.

22:52 as against a robber. The Greek term for robber was used of both highway bandits and revolutionaries. Jesus rebuked His captors for treating Him as though He were a dangerous lawbreaker.

22:59 for he is a Galilean. According to Mark 14:70, Peter's accent gave him away as being from the same region as Jesus.

22:66 the elders of the people . . . came together. The description here is of a major morning trial that involved all the Jewish religious leaders, the entire council or Sanhedrin. This trial violated various Jewish legal rules given in later sources: meeting on the morning of a feast; meeting at Caiaphas's home; trying a defendant without defense; and reaching the verdict in one day instead of the two days that were required for capital cases.

will sit on the right hand of the power of God.”

<sup>70</sup>Then they all said, “Are You then the Son of God?”

So He said to them, <sup>r</sup>“You rightly say that I am.”

<sup>71s</sup>And they said, “What further testimony do we need? For we have heard it ourselves from His own mouth.”

He answered him and said, “It is as you say.”

Jesus Faces Herod

<sup>6</sup>When Pilate heard of Galilee,* he asked if the Man were a Galilean. <sup>7</sup>And as soon as he knew that He belonged to <sup>j</sup>Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time. <sup>8</sup>Now when Herod saw Jesus, <sup>k</sup>he was exceedingly glad; for he had desired for a long time to see Him, because <sup>l</sup>he had heard many things about Him, and he hoped to see some miracle done by Him. <sup>9</sup>Then he questioned Him with many words, but He answered him <sup>m</sup>nothing. <sup>10</sup>And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused Him. <sup>11n</sup>Then Herod, with his men of war, treated Him with contempt and mocked Him, arrayed Him in a gorgeous robe, and sent Him back to Pilate. <sup>12</sup>That very day <sup>o</sup>Pilate and Herod became friends with each other, for previously they had been at enmity with each other.

Taking the Place of Barabbas

<sup>22</sup>Then he said to them the third time, “Why, what evil has He done? I have found no reason for death in Him. I will therefore chastise Him and let Him go.”

reply here alludes to the regal enthronement image of Psalm 110:1. This reply is what convicted Him. Apparently what offended Jesus’ audience was His claim to sit in God’s presence and to exercise divine authority. In effect, His answer to their question about being the Christ was more than they expected. It was not blasphemous to claim to be Messiah. What was blasphemous was the claim to be the Judge of Jewish people, with God’s authority.

23:2 began to accuse. Three charges were lodged against Jesus: (1) perverting the nation, (2) forbidding payment of taxes to Rome, and (3) claiming to be the Christ. The first charge, which was a general complaint, involved disturbing the peace. The other two charges could have been construed as challenges to Rome. The second charge was a blatant lie (20:20–26). The third charge was true, but not in the threatening sense that the prosecutors suggested. A three-part Roman procedure was followed at the trial; charges, examination, and verdict.

23:5 they were the more fierce. By mentioning the charge that Jesus stirred up the people, the leaders suggested that Pilate risked being found derelict in his duty if he let Jesus go.

23:7 Herod’s jurisdiction. Herod was responsible for Galilee, so Pilate “passed the buck” for the ruling and showed political courtesy at the same time.

23:16 chastise Him and release Him. Pilate hoped that a public whipping might satisfy the crowd and tame Jesus, avoiding the need to resort to the death penalty.

23:18–19 Away with this Man. The entire crowd is portrayed as wanting Jesus to die. Luke makes it clear that Jesus’ death was not only instigated by Jewish officials but approved by the Jewish people.

The King on a Cross

<sup>26x</sup>Now as they led Him away, they laid hold of a certain man, Simon a Cyrenian, who was coming from the country, and on him they laid the cross that he might bear it after Jesus.

<sup>27</sup>And a great multitude of the people followed Him, and women who also mourned and lamented Him. <sup>28</sup>But Jesus, turning to them, said, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. <sup>29y</sup>For indeed the days are coming in which they will say, ‘Blessed are the barren, wombs that never bore, and breasts which never nursed!’ <sup>30</sup>Then they will begin <sup>z</sup>to say to the mountains, ‘Fall on us!’ and to the hills, ‘Cover us!’”* <sup>31a</sup>For if they do these things in the green wood, what will be done in the dry?”

<sup>32b</sup>There were also two others, criminals, led with Him to be put to death. <sup>33</sup>And when they had come to the place called Calvary, there they crucified Him, and the criminals, one on the right hand and the other on the left. <sup>34</sup>Then Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they do.”*

And they divided His garments and cast lots. <sup>35</sup>And the people stood looking on. But even the rulers with them sneered, saying, “He saved others; let Him save Himself if He is the Christ, the chosen of God.”

THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

<sup>39k</sup>Then one of the criminals who were hanged blasphemed Him, saying, “If You are the Christ,* save Yourself and us.”

<sup>40</sup>But the other, answering, rebuked him, saying, “Do you not even fear God, seeing you are under the same condemnation? <sup>41</sup>And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward of our deeds; but this Man has done nothing wrong.” <sup>42</sup>Then he said to Jesus, “Lord,* remember me when You come into Your kingdom.”

<sup>43</sup>And Jesus said to him, “Assuredly, I say to you, today you will be with Me in Paradise.”

Jesus Dies on the Cross

<sup>44n</sup>Now it was* about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour. <sup>45</sup>Then the sun was darkened,* and the veil of the temple was torn in two. <sup>46</sup>And when Jesus had cried out with a loud voice, He said, “Father, <sup>p</sup>into Your hands I commit My spirit.”* <sup>q</sup>Having said this, He breathed His last.

Jesus Buried in Joseph’s Tomb

23:26 Simon a Cyrenian was recruited to carry Jesus’ cross. He was from a leading city of Libya.

23:28 do not weep for me. Though He was dying, Jesus pointed out that their weeping should be for Jerusalem and its inhabitants, since judgment was going to fall on the city (19:41–44). Jerusalem here represents the entire nation of Israel.

23:31 what will be done in the dry. The idea here seems to be “If this is what is done to a live tree, what will happen to the dead one?” In other words, “If Jesus, the living tree, has not been spared, how much more will dead wood not be spared.” This is Jesus’ final lament over the nation of Israel.

23:33 the place called Calvary. The name of the place in Aramaic is Golgotha, which means “skull.” Calvary is the Latin name for Golgotha. Possibly the name referred to a geographical feature of the locale, something that resembled a skull.

23:36 sour wine. The drink referred to here was probably wine vinegar, which was inexpensive and quenched thirst better than water. It was a drink of the poor.

23:44 sixth hour . . . ninth hour. The first hour was sunrise, so the time was 12 P.M. to 3 P.M. During these three hours, signs of creation revealed that the hour was not one of light but of darkness (22:53).

23:47 Certainly this was a righteous Man. If Jesus was righteous and innocent, then He is who He claimed to be. Thus a second figure besides the thief on the cross had insight into Jesus’ death.

decision and deed. He was from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, <sup>u</sup>who himself was also waiting* for the kingdom of God. <sup>52</sup>This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. <sup>53v</sup>Then he took it down, wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a tomb that was hewn out of the rock, where no one had ever lain before. <sup>54</sup>That day was <sup>w</sup>the Preparation, and the Sabbath drew near.

He Is Risen

24 Now <sup>a</sup>on the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they, and certain other women with them,* came to the tomb <sup>b</sup>bringing the spices which they had prepared. <sup>2c</sup>But they found the stone rolled away from the tomb. <sup>3d</sup>Then they went in and did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. <sup>4</sup>And it happened, as they were greatly* perplexed about this, that <sup>e</sup>behold, two men stood by them in shining garments. <sup>5</sup>Then, as they were afraid and bowed their faces to the earth, they said to them, “Why do you seek the living among the dead? <sup>6</sup>He is not here, but is risen! <sup>7</sup>Remember how He spoke to you when He was still in Galilee, <sup>7saying</sup>, ‘The Son of Man must be <sup>8</sup>delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.’”

lying* by themselves; and he departed, marveling to himself at what had happened.

The Road to Emmaus

<sup>13m</sup>Now behold, two of them were traveling that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was seven miles* from Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>And they talked together of all these things which had happened. <sup>15</sup>So it was, while they conversed and reasoned, that <sup>n</sup>Jesus Himself drew near and went with them. <sup>16</sup>But <sup>o</sup>their eyes were restrained, so that they did not know Him.

<sup>17</sup>And He said to them, “What kind of conversation is this that you have with one another as you walk and are sad?”*

<sup>18</sup>Then the one <sup>p</sup>whose name was Cleopas answered and said to Him, “Are You the only stranger in Jerusalem, and have You not known the things which happened there in these days?”

23:52 the body of Jesus. There is no doubt that Jesus died. Efforts to explain the resurrection as something like a return from a coma are more impossible than the idea of the resurrection itself.

23:54 That day was the Preparation. Jesus was buried late on Friday, on the day called Preparation when everything was made ready for the Sabbath, the day when no labor could take place.

24:2 they found the stone rolled away. Matthew 28:2 mentions that an earthquake moved the stone, which would have fit in a channel in front of the entrance to the tomb. Moving the stone would have been possible, though difficult, for a group of people. The earthquake settles the question of how the stone was moved.

24:11 they did not believe them. Skepticism reigned among the disciples. It is clear that they did not expect a resurrection. The disciples thought the women's story was nonsense.

24:12 Peter arose and ran. Having already experienced a fulfilled prediction of the Lord (22:54–62), Peter hurried to the tomb to check out the women's story. It is hard to say whether Peter believed in the resurrection when he left the tomb. At that point he was probably more amazed than anything else.

24:19–21 Jesus of Nazareth, who was a Prophet. These disciples on the road to Emmaus regarded Jesus as the Revealer of God's way and the Doer of His work.

24:23 He was alive. The women reported that there was no body found in Jesus' tomb, and that angels had announced to them that Jesus lives. The fact <sup>25</sup>Then He said to them, “O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! <sup>26w</sup>Ought not the Christ to have suffered these things and to enter into His <sup>x</sup>glory?” <sup>27</sup>And beginning at <sup>y</sup>Moses and <sup>z</sup>all the Prophets, He expounded to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself.

The Disciples’ Eyes Opened

<sup>28</sup>Then they drew near to the village where they were going, and <sup>a</sup>He indicated that He would have gone farther. <sup>29</sup>But <sup>b</sup>they constrained Him, saying, <sup>c</sup>“Abide with us, for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent.” And He went in to stay with them.

<sup>30</sup>Now it came to pass, as <sup>d</sup>He sat at the table with them, that He took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. <sup>31</sup>Then their eyes were opened and they knew Him; and He vanished from their sight.

<sup>32</sup>And they said to one another, “Did not our heart burn within us while He talked with us on the road, and while He opened the Scriptures to us?” <sup>33</sup>So they rose up that very hour and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven and those who were with them gathered together, <sup>34</sup>saying, “The Lord is risen indeed, and <sup>e</sup>has appeared to Simon!” <sup>35</sup>And they told about the things that had happened on the road, and how He was known to them in the breaking of bread.

Jesus Appears to His Disciples

them His hands and His feet.* <sup>41</sup>But while they still did not believe <sup>f</sup>for joy, and marveled, He said to them, <sup>k</sup>“Have you any food here?” <sup>42</sup>So they gave Him a piece of a broiled fish and some honeycomb.* <sup>43</sup>And He took it and ate in their presence.

The Scriptures Opened

<sup>44</sup>Then He said to them, <sup>m</sup>“These are the words which I spoke to you while I was still with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms concerning Me.” <sup>45</sup>And <sup>n</sup>He opened their understanding, that they might comprehend the Scriptures.

<sup>46</sup>Then He said to them, <sup>o</sup>“Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise* from the dead the third day, <sup>47</sup>and that repentance and <sup>p</sup>remission of sins should be preached in His name <sup>q</sup>to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. <sup>48</sup>And <sup>r</sup>you are witnesses of these things. <sup>49s</sup>Behold, I send the Promise of My Father upon you; but tarry in the city of Jerusalem* until you are endued with power from on high.”

The Ascension

that the men were still sad indicates that they did not believe the report.

24:25 slow of heart to believe. Jesus, who at this time was still not known to the travelers, rebuked His companions and reminded them of the things that the prophets taught.

24:27 And beginning at Moses. Going from the books of Moses to the Prophets, Jesus provided an overview of God’s plan in the Scriptures. This plan is present throughout the entire Old Testament (Acts 3:22–26; 10:43).

24:39 flesh and bones. Jesus pointed out that a raised body is not a disembodied spirit. The presence of His body indicates that Jesus had been raised and that He was not a hallucination. He was raised in the same physical body in which He had been put to death. The difference was that His resurrected body is not corruptible and not subject to death.

24:46 Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead. Two parts of God’s plan had been fulfilled. Jesus had been crucified and raised from the dead. Old Testament texts that predict these events are Psalm 22 and Psalm 118:22.

24:49 the Promise of My Father. This is a reference to the baptism of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost (Acts 2:4). It was promised in Jeremiah 31:31–33, and in Joel 2:28. Peter called this coming of the Spirit “the beginning” (Acts 11:15) because the real fulfillment of God’s promise of salvation would start in those people united by the Spirit to establish the church.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

► AUTHOR: Jesus nicknamed John and his brother, James, “sons of thunder” (Mark 3:17). John was evidently among the Galileans who followed John the Baptist until they were called to follow Jesus at the outset of His public ministry. These Galileans were later called to become full-time disciples of the Lord (Luke 5:1–11), and John was among the twelve men who were selected to be apostles (Luke 6:12–16). The author of this Gospel is identified only as the disciple “whom Jesus loved” (John 13:23; 19:26; 21:7), but attention to detail concerning geography and Jewish culture in the Gospel lend credibility to the author’s claim to be an eyewitness. The strong testimony of the early church relates this eyewitness to the apostle John.

► TIME: c. A.D. 29–33

► KEY VERSES: John 20:30–31

► THEME: John is a great book for new or young Christians because it intentionally helps the reader understand the significance of Jesus. What becomes increasingly clear as you read the Gospel of John is that Jesus does not fit the image of someone who is simply a nice moral teacher. Only a lunatic would make the claims He makes for Himself unless He was who He said He was. John leaves no room for indecision. Like the many people Jesus encounters in the book, as you read, you must either reject Him or accept Him, and say in the end like Thomas: “My Lord and my God” (20:28). This Gospel is an incredibly powerful presentation of Jesus.

The Eternal Word

John’s Witness: The True Light

* 1:5 Or overcome * 1:9 Or That was the true Light which, coming into the world, gives light to every man.

1:1 In the beginning. Genesis 1:1 starts with the moment of creation and moves forward to the creation of humanity. John 1:1 starts with creation and contemplates eternity past. the Word was with God. This suggests a face-to-face relationship. In the ancient world, it was important that persons of equal station be on the same level when seated across from one another.

1:3 All things were made through Him. God the Father created the world (Gen. 1:1) through God the Son (Col. 1:16; Heb. 1:2). All creation was made through Him. Thus, He is the Creator God.

1:4 light of men. This image conveys the concept of revelation. As the light, Jesus Christ reveals both sin and God to humans (Ps. 36:9). Later in this Gospel, Christ declares Himself to be both the life (11:25) and the light (8:12). Death and darkness flee when the life and light enter.

1:5 light shines in the darkness. Although Satan and his forces resist the light, they cannot thwart its power. In short, Jesus is life and light; those who accept Him are “sons of light” (12:35–36). As the creation of light was the beginning of the original creation, so, when believers receive the light, they become part of the new creation (2 Cor. 4:3–6).

1:7 for a witness. This phrase means “to testify” or “to declare.” John uses the word translated witness 33 times as a verb and 14 times as a noun in his Gospel. The term is particularly important to his purpose, which is to record adequate witnesses to Jesus as the Messiah so that individuals might believe Him (20:30–31). believe. This word means “to trust.” John uses this verb almost 100 times in his Gospel to express what must take place for a person to receive the gift of eternal life.

1:8 <sup>m</sup> Is. 9:2; 49:6 1:9 <sup>n</sup> Is. 49:6

The Word Becomes Flesh

A Voice in the Wilderness

He said, “I am not.”

“Are you the Prophet?”

And he answered, “No.”

<sup>22</sup>Then they said to him, “Who are you, that we may give an answer to those who sent us? What do you say about yourself?”

“Make straight the way of the LORD,””*

as the prophet Isaiah said.”

<sup>24</sup>Now those who were sent were from the Pharisees. <sup>25</sup>And they asked him, saying, “Why then do you baptize if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?”

* 1:11 That is, His own things or domain • That is, His own people * 1:16 NU-Text reads For. * 1:18 NU-Text reads only begotten God. * 1:23 Isaiah 40:3 * 1:28 NU-Text and M-Text read Bethany.

1:11 receive. This means “to receive with favor” and implies “welcome.” Instead of a welcome mat, Jesus had a door slammed in His face. The themes of rejection and reception (v. 12) introduced in the prologue (1:1–18) appear repeatedly throughout the Gospel of John.

1:12 He gave the right. This phrase refers to the legitimate entitlement to the position of children of God. By believing, undeserving sinners can become full members of God’s family.

1:14 the Word became flesh. The Son of God who was from eternity became human, with limitations in time and space (Phil. 2:5–8). This is the doctrine of the incarnation: God became human. Nothing of the essential nature of deity was lost in this event; we might rephrase became as “took to Himself.” John uses the word flesh to refer to the physical nature of humans, not to our sinful disposition. dwelt among us. The Greek word for tent or dwelling was also used in the Greek Old Testament for the tabernacle, where the presence of God dwelt. only begotten. This means unique, one of a kind.

1:16 grace for grace. The background of this doubled term, as well as the use of the term in verse 17, is found in Exodus 32–34. Moses and the people had received grace, but they were in tremendous need of more grace (Ex. 33:13).

1:18 No one has seen God. God is Spirit (4:24) and is invisible (Col. 1:15; 1 Tim. 1:17) unless God chooses to reveal Himself. Humans cannot look at God and live (Ex. 33:20). However, the Son is in intimate relationship with the Father, face-to-face with God (1:1; 6:46; 1 John 1:2). God became visible to human eyes in the man Jesus. It is through seeing the Son that we see God.

1:19–20 the Jews. This refers to the Jewish leaders or the council (the Sanhedrin), who would be responsible for examining anyone thought to be a prophet, to see if the person was true or false.

1:23 Make straight. When a king traveled, roads were built so that the royal chariot would not have to travel over rough terrain or be stuck in the mud. Isaiah was saying that before God appeared to manifest His glory, a voice would be heard, inviting Israel to make straight the way by which God Himself would come.

1:24 the Pharisees. The Pharisees were an influential sect that numbered about 6,000. As strict interpreters of the law in Israel, they were extremely zealous for ritual and tradition.

1:27 whose sandal strap I am not worthy to loose. Undoing the shoe strap was the job of a slave. The Jewish Talmud says, “Everything that a servant will do for his master, a scholar shall perform for his teacher, except the menial task of loosing his sandal thong.” Thus, John was saying that “Jesus Christ is the living Lord and I am the voice, His servant and slave. Actually, I’m not even worthy to be His slave.”

The Lamb of God

<sup>32</sup>And John bore witness, saying, “I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and He remained upon Him. <sup>33</sup>I did not know Him, but He who sent me to baptize with water said to me, ‘Upon whom you see the Spirit descending, and remaining on Him, <sup>τ</sup>this is He who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.’ <sup>34</sup>And I have seen and testified that this is the “Son of God.”

The First Disciples

<sup>37</sup>The two disciples heard him speak, and they <sup>ν</sup>followed Jesus. <sup>38</sup>Then Jesus turned, and seeing them following, said to them, “What do you seek?”

They said to Him, “Rabbi” (which is to say, when translated, Teacher), “where are You staying?”

<sup>39</sup>He said to them, “Come and see.” They came and saw where He was staying, and remained with Him that day (now it was about the tenth hour).

<sup>40</sup>One of the two who heard John speak, and followed Him, was <sup>α</sup>Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother. <sup>41</sup>He first found his own brother Simon, and said to him, “We have found the Messiah” (which is translated, the Christ). <sup>42</sup>And he brought him to Jesus.

Now when Jesus looked at him, He said, “You are Simon the son of Jonah.* <sup>ν</sup>You shall be called Cephass” (which is translated, A Stone).

Philip and Nathanael

Philip said to him, “Come and see.”

Jesus answered and said to him, “Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you.”

<sup>49</sup>Nathanael answered and said to Him, “Rabbi, <sup>ι</sup>You are the Son of God! You are <sup>ι</sup>the King of Israel!”

<sup>50</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, “Because I said to you, ‘I saw you under the fig tree,’ do you believe? You will see greater things than these.” <sup>51</sup>And He said to him, “Most assuredly, I say to you, <sup>β</sup>hereafter* you shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man.”

Water Turned to Wine

2 On the third day there was a <sup>α</sup>wedding in <sup>β</sup>Cana of Galilee, and the <sup>α</sup>mother of Jesus was there. <sup>2</sup>Now both Jesus and His disciples were invited to the wedding. <sup>3</sup>And when they ran out of wine, the mother of Jesus said to Him, “They have no wine.”

1:29 The Lamb of God. Jesus Christ is the Lamb that God would give as a sacrifice not only for Israel, but for the whole world (Is. 52:13—53:12).

1:33 this is He who baptizes with the Holy Spirit. Seven times, the New Testament mentions this ministry of Jesus. Five are prophetic (Matt. 3:11; Mark 1:8; Luke 3:16; Acts 1:5); one is historical (Acts 11:16—18); one is doctrinal (1 Cor. 12:13).

1:42 Cephass. This is the Aramaic word for “rock” (Matt. 16:18).

1:45 Nathanael. This name is not mentioned in the Synoptic Gospels. But in every list of the apostles in Matthew, Mark, and Luke, the name Bartholomew is listed with Philip, as Nathanael is linked with Philip here. It is likely that Nathanael and Bartholomew were the same person.

1:46 Nazareth. Nathanael knew that the Old Testament prophets had predicted that the Messiah would be born in Bethlehem. Furthermore, Nazareth was an obscure village. Nathanael simply could not fathom that such a significant person as the Messiah could come from such an insignificant place as Nazareth.

1:48–49 under the fig tree. In the Old Testament, this expression often suggests being safe and at leisure (1 Kin. 4:25; Mic. 4:4; Zech. 3:10).

2:1–2 Cana. This city was about four and a half miles northwest of Nazareth. the mother of Jesus was there. Now both Jesus and His disciples were invited. This suggests that Jesus and His disciples were invited because of Mary. Her forwardness in asking Jesus to help when the wine ran out (v. 3) may indicate that she was in some way related to the family holding the wedding.

2:3 They have no wine. Hospitality in the East was a

<sup>6</sup>Now there were set there six waterpots of stone, <sup>a</sup>according to the manner of purification of the Jews, containing twenty or thirty gallons apiece. <sup>7</sup>Jesus said to them, “Fill the waterpots with water.” And they filled them up to the brim. <sup>8</sup>And He said to them, “Draw some out now, and take it to the master of the feast.” And they took it. <sup>9</sup>When the master of the feast had tasted <sup>b</sup>the water that was made wine, and did not know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom. <sup>10</sup>And he said to him, “Every man at the beginning sets out the good wine, and when the guests have well drunk, then the inferior. You have kept the good wine until now!”

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

<sup>13</sup><sup>m</sup>Now the Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup><sup>n</sup>And He found in the temple those who sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the money changers doing business. <sup>15</sup>When He had made a whip of cords, He drove them all out of the temple, with the sheep and the oxen, and poured out the changers' money and overturned the tables. <sup>16</sup>And He said to those who sold doves, “Take these things away! Do not make <sup>o</sup>My Father's house a house of merchandise!” <sup>17</sup>Then His disciples remembered that it was written, <sup>p</sup>“Zeal for Your house has eaten* Me up.”*

<sup>19</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.”

<sup>20</sup>Then the Jews said, “It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and will You raise it up in three days?”

<sup>21</sup>But He was speaking <sup>s</sup>of the temple of His body. <sup>22</sup>Therefore, when He had risen from the dead, <sup>t</sup>His disciples remembered that He had said this to them;* and they believed the Scripture and the word which Jesus had said.

The Discerner of Hearts

* 2:17 NU-Text and M-Text read will eat. • Psalm 69:9 * 2:22 NU-Text and M-Text omit to them.

sacred duty. A wedding feast often lasted for a week. To run out of wine at such an important event would have been humiliating for the bride and groom. The family of Jesus was not wealthy, and it is likely their relatives and acquaintances were not either. This may have been a “low-budget” wedding feast.

2:6 six waterpots. Each waterpot held 20–30 gallons, for a total of 120–180 gallons of the finest wine (v. 10). manner of purification of the Jews. Jewish tradition required several kinds of ceremonial washings. Strict Jews washed their hands before a meal, between courses, and after the meal. This “purifying” extended not only to washing hands, but also to washing cups and vessels (Mark 7:3–4).

2:11 This beginning of signs. In the Gospel of John, the miracles of Jesus are called signs, indicating that they pointed to His messiahship. This sign signified Christ's glory—that is, His deity. When Jesus transformed water into wine, He demonstrated His power.

2:13 the Passover of the Jews. Every male Jew was required to go to Jerusalem three times a year—for the Feast of Passover, the Feast of Pentecost, and the Feast of Tabernacles (Ex. 23:14–19; Lev. 23). Jerusalem. The Synoptic Gospels concentrate on Jesus' Galilean ministry. John focuses on Jesus' ministry in Jerusalem.

2:14 And He found in the temple those who sold oxen and sheep and doves. The Synoptic Gospels place the cleansing of the temple at the conclusion of Jesus' ministry (Matt. 21:12–13), whereas John puts it at the beginning. Apparently, Jesus cleansed the temple two different times. The law of Moses required that any animal offered in sacrifice be unblemished and that every Jewish male over 19 years of age pay a temple tax (Lev. 1:3; Deut. 17:1). As a result, tax collectors and inspectors of sacrificial animals were present at the temple. However, these officials would not accept secular coins because they had an image of the Roman emperor. To put such coins into the temple treasury was thought to be an offense. Accordingly, merchants and money changers set up shop and charged high prices for changing currency and for sacrificial animals.

2:19 Destroy this temple. Jesus was not talking about the physical building; He was referring to His body, as John emphasizes in verse 21. Jesus was speaking of His death. I will raise it up. Note that Jesus did not say, “I will build it again.” He was referring to His resurrection, three days after His death.

2:20 Forty-six years. Herod the Great began restoring the temple in 20 B.C. The work was not finished at the time of this conversation. In fact, it was not completed until around A.D. 64 under Herod Agrippa.

2:23 many believed in His name. This was saving faith. John's purpose in recording Jesus' miracles was for people to believe and have eternal life (20:30–31).

2:24 But Jesus did not commit Himself. This word

The New Birth

3 There was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. <sup>2a</sup>This man came to Jesus by night and said to Him, “Rabbi, we know that You are a teacher come from God; for <sup>b</sup>no one can do these signs that You do unless <sup>c</sup>God is with him.”

<sup>3</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, “Most assuredly, I say to you, <sup>d</sup>unless one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.”

<sup>10</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, “Are you the teacher of Israel, and do not know these things? <sup>11</sup>Most assuredly, I say to you, We speak what We know and testify what We have seen, and <sup>i</sup>you do not receive

Our witness. <sup>12</sup>If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? <sup>13k</sup>No one has ascended to heaven but He who came down from heaven, <sup>l</sup>that is, the Son of Man who is in heaven.* <sup>14</sup>And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so <sup>m</sup>must the Son of Man be lifted up, <sup>15</sup>that whoever <sup>n</sup>believes in Him should not perish but* <sup>o</sup>have eternal life. <sup>16p</sup>For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten <sup>q</sup>Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. <sup>17r</sup>For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.

<sup>18s</sup>“He who believes in Him is not condemned; but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. <sup>19</sup>And this is the condemnation, <sup>t</sup>that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. <sup>20</sup>For <sup>u</sup>everyone practicing evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. <sup>21</sup>But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be clearly seen, that they have been <sup>v</sup>done in God.”

* 3:15 NU-Text omits not perish but.

is the same Greek word translated believe in verse 23. There is a play on words here. These individuals trusted Jesus, but Jesus did not entrust Himself to them.

3:2 by night. The fact that Nicodemus came to Jesus at night may reveal the timidity of his faith (12:42); however, his faith was developing (7:50–51; 19:39).

3:3 unless one is born again. Jesus was explaining to Nicodemus that there is more to having a right relationship with God than being physically born a Jew. The new birth is not physical; rather, it is spiritual (v. 6). It must come by the Spirit of God if it is a spiritual birth (v. 5).

3:5 born of water and the Spirit. There are several interpretations of this phrase. (1) Jesus was referring to water baptism (Acts 10:43–47). (2) Water is to be understood as a symbol for the Holy Spirit. (3) Water is to be understood as a symbol of the Word of God. (4) Jesus used the phrase “born of water” to refer to physical birth. He then used the contrasting phrase “of the Spirit” to refer to spiritual birth. (5) Jesus used the phrase “born of water” to refer to John the Baptist’s baptism. (6) Jesus used the Old Testament imagery of “water” and “wind” to refer to the work of God from above (Is. 44:3–5).

3:8 The wind. Jesus used the wind as an illustration of the work of the Holy Spirit. The Greek word translated Spirit also means “wind.” As the wind seemingly blows where it wills, so the Holy Spirit sovereignly works. Likewise, no one knows the origin or destination of the wind, but everyone knows it is there. The same is true of the Holy Spirit.

3:12 heavenly things. This refers to events like Christ’s ascension (6:61–62) and the coming of the Holy Spirit (16:7).

3:14 as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness. Those who looked at it lived (Num. 21:9). So it is with the Son of Man (1:51). lifted up. Every time these words occur in the Gospel of John, there is a reference to Jesus’ death (8:28; 12:32, 34).

3:16 Belief—Belief involves understanding, knowing, living, and being committed to a relationship with God. How one does all that is so different from not doing it, it is like being born again to a new life. Nicodemus had a little knowledge. What Nicodemus failed to understand was the nature of spiritual reality. He was earthbound and didn’t understand that Jesus and belief are God things. He could not get from where he was to where Jesus was on the road of his understanding. He needed to accept a new road, namely the one Jesus was walking, toward Him. Jesus draws us to that light, His light. We have to respond to it as Nicodemus did over time (7:50; 19:39). Belief involves internalizing these truths with our whole hearts and minds, being born again, letting all of ourselves be exposed to, and by, that light.

3:20 For everyone practicing evil hates the light. People offer many excuses for not accepting Christ.

John the Baptist Exalts Christ

<sup>25</sup>Then there arose a dispute between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purification. <sup>26</sup>And they came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, He who was with you beyond the Jordan, <sup>27</sup>to whom you have testified—behold, He is baptizing, and all <sup>28</sup>are coming to Him!"

<sup>27</sup>John answered and said, <sup>28</sup>"A man can receive nothing unless it has been given to him from heaven. <sup>29</sup>You yourselves bear me witness, that I said, <sup>30</sup>'I am not the Christ,' but, <sup>31</sup>'I have been sent before Him.' <sup>32</sup>He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but <sup>33</sup>the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. Therefore this joy of mine is fulfilled. <sup>34</sup>He must increase, but I must decrease. <sup>35</sup>He who comes from above <sup>36</sup>is above all; <sup>37</sup>he who is of the earth is earthly and speaks of the earth. <sup>38</sup>He who comes from heaven is above all. <sup>39</sup>And <sup>40</sup>what He has seen and heard, that He testifies; and no one receives His testimony. <sup>41</sup>He who has received His testimony <sup>42</sup>has certified that God is true. <sup>43</sup>For He whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God does not give the Spirit <sup>44</sup>by measure. <sup>45</sup>The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into His hand. <sup>46</sup>He who believes in the Son has everlasting life; and he who does not believe the Son shall not see life, but the <sup>47</sup>wrath of God abides on him."

A Samaritan Woman Meets Her Messiah

4 Therefore, when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and <sup>2</sup>baptized more disciples than John <sup>3</sup>(though Jesus Himself did not baptize, but His disciples), <sup>4</sup>He left Judea and departed again to Galilee. <sup>5</sup>But He needed to go through Samaria.

<sup>5</sup>So He came to a city of Samaria which is called Sychar, near the plot of ground that <sup>6</sup>Jacob gave to his son Joseph. <sup>7</sup>Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied from His journey, sat thus by the well. It was about the sixth hour.

<sup>7</sup>A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give Me a drink." <sup>8</sup>For His disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.

Some cite the presence of hypocrites in the church. Others claim inability to believe some of the truths about Christ or the gospel. These are merely attempts to conceal a heart in rebellion against God. The ultimate reason people do not come to Christ is that they do not want to.

3:26 they came to John. John the Baptist's disciples were loyal to him. They were deeply concerned that one of his "disciples," Jesus, was competing with and surpassing him. In their astonishment, they exaggerated the predicament, saying, "all are coming to Him." They were concerned that John was losing his audience to another preacher.

3:27 John answered. John the Baptist clarified the relationship between himself and Jesus. First, he talked about himself (vv. 27–29); then he talked about Jesus (vv. 30–36). John explained that he could not accept the position of supremacy that his disciples wanted to thrust upon him because he had not received it from heaven.

3:29 friend of the bridegroom. John compared himself to this person who was generally appointed to arrange the preliminaries of the wedding, to manage the wedding, and to preside at the wedding feast.

3:31 He who comes from above. This is a reference to Christ. he who is of the earth. This refers to John the Baptist. John emphasized his earthly origin and its limitations. John proclaimed divine truth on earth; Jesus, on the other hand, is from heaven and above all.

3:33 has certified. In a society where many could not read, seals were used to convey a clear message, even to the illiterate. A seal indicated ownership to all and expressed a person's personal guarantee. To receive Jesus' testimony is to certify that God is true regarding what He has sealed.

3:34 God does not give the Spirit by measure. Unlike human teachers, Jesus was not given the Spirit in a limited way (Is. 11:1–2). All three Persons of the Trinity are referred to in this verse; God the Father sent Christ the Son, and gave Him the Holy Spirit without measure.

4:1 Therefore, when. This refers the reader back to 3:22–36. Christ's success in winning disciples had created jealousy among John's followers and provoked questions among the Pharisees. Since Jesus did not want to be drawn into a controversy over baptism at this stage of His ministry, He left Judea for Galilee (v. 3).

4:4 He needed to go through Samaria. The shortest route from Judea in the south to Galilee in the north went through Samaria. The journey took three days if He wanted to travel the direct route. The Jews often avoided Samaria by going around it along the Jordan River. The hatred between the Jews and Samaritans went back to the days of the exile. Samaria was the region between Judea and Galilee. When the northern kingdom was exiled to Assyria, King Sargon repopulated the area with captives from other lands. The intermarriage of these foreigners and the Jews who had been left complicated the ancestry of the Samaritans. The Jews hated the Samaritans and considered them to be no longer "pure" Jews.

<sup>10</sup>Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the <sup>f</sup>gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you <sup>g</sup>living water."

<sup>11</sup>The woman said to Him, "Sir, You have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. Where then do You get that living water?" <sup>12</sup>Are You greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank from it himself, as well as his sons and his livestock?"

<sup>13</sup>Jesus answered and said to her, "Whoever drinks of this water will thirst again, <sup>14</sup>but <sup>h</sup>whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst. But the water that I shall give him <sup>i</sup>will become in him a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life."

Jesus said to her, "You have well said, 'I have no husband,' <sup>18</sup>for you have had five husbands, and the one whom you now have is not your husband; in that you spoke truly."

is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will <sup>q</sup>worship the Father in <sup>r</sup>spirit <sup>s</sup>and truth; for the Father is seeking such to worship Him. <sup>24</sup><sup>t</sup>God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth."

The Whitened Harvest

<sup>27</sup>And at this point His disciples came, and they marveled that He talked with a woman; yet no one said, "What do You seek?" or, "Why are You talking with her?"

<sup>28</sup>The woman then left her waterpot, went her way into the city, and said to the men, <sup>29</sup>"Come, see a Man <sup>x</sup>who told me all things that I ever did. Could this be the Christ?" <sup>30</sup>Then they went out of the city and came to Him.

4:14 a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life. Jesus desired a drink of water. He then directed the focus of discussion from physical water to spiritual water, pointing out the tremendous advantages of the second kind, which is obtained without cost or effort. This water satisfies completely and eternally.

4:16 Go, call your husband. Jesus mentioned the woman's husband in order to expose her sin (v. 18).

4:20 you Jews say that in Jerusalem. The Jews insisted that the exclusive place of worship was Jerusalem. But the Samaritans had set up a rival worship site on Mount Gerizim, which according to their tradition was where Abraham went to sacrifice Isaac and where later on he met Melchizedek.

4:24 God is Spirit . . . must worship in spirit and truth. God is not limited by time and space. When people are born of the Spirit, they can commune with God anywhere. Spirit is the opposite of what is material and earthly, for example, Mount Gerizim. Christ makes worship a matter of the heart. Truth is what is in harmony with the nature and will of God. The issue is not where a person worships, but how and whom.

4:29 all things that I ever did. In her excitement, the woman exaggerated. She did not report what Jesus actually told her, but what He could have told her. Note the woman's spiritual journey. She first viewed Christ as a Jew (v. 9), then as a prophet (v. 19), and finally as the Messiah.

4:36 receives wages. The reaper of a spiritual harvest receives wages—that is, fruit which brings joy. In this case, Jesus sowed by giving the message to the woman. The disciples were going to reap the harvest that He had sown.

The Savior of the World

<sup>39</sup>And many of the Samaritans of that city believed in Him <sup>a</sup>because of the word of the woman who testified, “He told me all that I ever did.” <sup>40</sup>So when the Samaritans had come to Him, they urged Him to stay with them; and He stayed there two days. <sup>41</sup>And many more believed because of His own <sup>b</sup>word.

<sup>42</sup>Then they said to the woman, “Now we believe, not because of what you said, for we ourselves have heard Him and we know that this is indeed the Christ,* the Savior of the world.”

Welcome at Galilee

<sup>43</sup>Now after the two days He departed from there and went to Galilee. <sup>44</sup>For Jesus Himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country. <sup>45</sup>So when He came to Galilee, the Galileans received Him, <sup>b</sup>having seen all the things He did in Jerusalem at the feast; <sup>c</sup>for they also had gone to the feast.

A Nobleman's Son Healed

<sup>46</sup>So Jesus came again to Cana of Galilee <sup>m</sup>where He had made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum. <sup>47</sup>When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to Him and implored Him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. <sup>48</sup>Then Jesus said to him, <sup>n</sup>“Unless you people see signs and wonders, you will by no means believe.”

<sup>50</sup>Jesus said to him, <sup>o</sup>“Go your way; your son lives.” So the man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he went his way. <sup>51</sup>And as he was now going down, his servants met him and told him, saying, “Your son lives!”

<sup>52</sup>Then he inquired of them the hour when he got better. And they said to him, “Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.” <sup>53</sup>So the father knew that it was at the same hour in which Jesus said to him, <sup>p</sup>“Your son lives.” And he himself believed, and his whole household.

<sup>54</sup>This again is the second sign Jesus did when He had come out of Judea into Galilee.

A Man Healed at the Pool of Bethesda

And <sup>e</sup>that day was the Sabbath. <sup>10</sup>The Jews therefore said to him who was cured, “It is the Sabbath; <sup>f</sup>it is not lawful for you to carry your bed.”

* 4:42 NU-Text omits the Christ. * 5:2 NU-Text reads Bethzatha. * 5:4 NU-Text omits waiting for the moving of the water at the end of verse 3, and all of verse 4.

4:42 Savior of the world. This title is used only here and in 1 John 4:14. The Jews of Jesus’ day taught that to approach God, one first had to be a Jew. By including this incident in the Gospel, John demonstrates that Jesus is for all people of the world.

4:46 a certain nobleman. This was probably someone who was in the service of the king. Herod Antipas was technically the “tetrarch” of Galilee, but he was referred to as a king.

5:2 the Sheep Gate. This was a gate in the wall of Jerusalem near the temple, through which sheep were brought for sacrifice.

5:9 took up his bed, and walked. Carrying a bed on the Sabbath was considered a violation of the law of Moses (v. 10).

5:10 it is not lawful. The law of Moses taught that the Sabbath must be different from other days. On it, neither people nor animals could work. The prophet Jeremiah had prohibited carrying burdens or working on the Sabbath (Jer. 17:21–22). Over the years, the Jewish leaders had amassed thousands of rules and regulations concerning the Sabbath. By Jesus’ day, they had 39 different classifications of work. According to them, carrying furniture and even providing medical treatment on the Sabbath were forbidden. Jesus did not break the law. He violated the traditions of the Pharisees which had grown up around the law.

<sup>15</sup>The man departed and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.

Honor the Father and the Son

<sup>16</sup>For this reason the Jews <sup>16</sup>persecuted Jesus, and sought to kill Him,* because He had done these things on the Sabbath. <sup>17</sup>But Jesus answered them, <sup>17</sup>“My Father has been working until now, and I have been working.”

<sup>18</sup>Therefore the Jews <sup>18</sup>sought all the more to kill Him, because He not only broke the Sabbath, but also said that God was His Father, <sup>18</sup>making Himself equal with God. <sup>19</sup>Then Jesus answered and said to them, <sup>19</sup>“Most assuredly, I say to you, <sup>19</sup>the Son can do nothing of Himself, but what He sees the Father do; for whatever He does, the Son also does in like manner. <sup>20</sup>For <sup>20</sup>the Father loves the Son, and <sup>20</sup>shows Him all things that He Himself does; and He will show Him greater works than these, that you may marvel. <sup>21</sup>For as the Father raises the dead and gives life to them, <sup>21</sup>even so the Son gives life to whom He will. <sup>22</sup>For the Father judges no one, but <sup>22</sup>has committed all judgment to the Son, <sup>23</sup>that all should honor the Son just as they honor the Father. <sup>23</sup>He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him.

Life and Judgment Are Through the Son

<sup>24</sup>“Most assuredly, I say to you, <sup>24</sup>he who hears My word and believes in Him who sent Me has everlasting life, and shall not come into judgment, <sup>24</sup>but has passed from death into life. <sup>25</sup>Most assuredly, I say to you, the hour is coming, and now is, when <sup>25</sup>the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God; and those who hear will live. <sup>26</sup>For <sup>26</sup>as the Father has life in Himself, so He has granted the Son to have <sup>26</sup>life in Himself, <sup>27</sup>and <sup>27</sup>has given Him authority to execute judgment also, <sup>27</sup>because He is the Son of Man. <sup>28</sup>Do not marvel at this; for the hour is coming in which all who are in the graves will <sup>28</sup>hear His voice <sup>29</sup>and come forth—<sup>29</sup>those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of condemnation. <sup>30</sup>I can of Myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge; and My judgment is righteous, because <sup>30</sup>I do not seek My own will but the will of the Father who sent Me.

The Fourfold Witness

* 5:16 NU-Text omits and sought to kill Him.

5:16 the Jews persecuted Jesus. This is the first recorded declaration of open hostility toward Jesus in the Gospel of John.

5:17 My Father. Jesus is “the only begotten Son” (1:14,18; 3:16,18)—that is, the unique Son of God. Here He claims not only a unique relationship with God the Father, but also equality with God in nature. Since God continually does good works without allowing Himself to stop on the Sabbath, the Son does likewise, since He is equal with God. Certainly the Jewish leaders understood the implications of Jesus’ claims (v. 18).

5:19 the Son can do nothing of Himself. Action by the Son apart from the Father is impossible because of the unity of the Father and the Son (v. 17). what-ever He does, the Son also does in like manner. Here is a claim of deity and unity with the Father.

5:22 all judgment to the Son. The Jews recognized that God alone had the right to judge humanity. In claiming that the Father committed all judgment to Him, Jesus again claimed equality with God.

5:24 Never-Ending Life—One of the primary features of the new life that we have in Christ is that it is an eternal or everlasting life. This truth completely changes how we look at our present lives and at the future. It needs to be seen as something we possess even now (10:28). We have entered into a new, personal relationship with God that gives us a spiritual vitality and fullness of life that we lacked before (17:3). It will be completely fulfilled in the future when we are bodily redeemed (Rom. 8:23).

The greatness of this spiritual reality constitutes a wonderful incentive to vigorously proclaim the gospel to those who are still dead in trespasses and sins (Eph. 2:1).

5:26 For. This indicates that this verse explains the previous verse. Christ can give life because He Himself possesses life. He not only has a part in giving it, He is the source of it. This is another testimony to Jesus’ deity because only God has life in Himself.

5:29 resurrection of life . . . resurrection of condemnation. Two separate resurrections are presented here in the fashion of the Old Testament prophets, who often grouped together events of the future without distinction of the time (Is. 61:2). Jesus was teaching the universality of resurrection, not the timing of it.

5:31–32 My witness is not true. If Christ were the only one bearing witness of what He was claiming, His witness would not be accepted. According to

Me. <sup>37</sup>And the Father Himself, who sent Me, <sup>m</sup>has testified of Me. You have neither heard His voice at any time, <sup>n</sup>nor seen His form. <sup>38</sup>But you do not have His word abiding in you, because whom He sent, Him you do not believe. <sup>39</sup>You search the Scriptures, for in them you think you have eternal life; and <sup>p</sup>these are they which testify of Me. <sup>40</sup>But you are not willing to come to Me that you may have life.

<sup>41</sup><sup>r</sup>“I do not receive honor from men. <sup>42</sup>But I know you, that you do not have the love of God in you. <sup>43</sup>I have come in My Father’s name, and you do not receive Me; if another comes in his own name, him you will receive. <sup>44</sup>How can you believe, who receive honor from one another, and do not seek <sup>t</sup>the honor that comes from the only God? <sup>45</sup>Do not think that I shall accuse you to the Father; <sup>u</sup>there is one who accuses you—Moses, in whom you trust. <sup>46</sup>For if you believed Moses, you would believe Me; <sup>v</sup>for he wrote about Me. <sup>47</sup>But if you <sup>w</sup>do not believe his writings, how will you believe My words?”

Feeding the Five Thousand

6 After <sup>a</sup>these things Jesus went over the Sea of Galilee, which is *the Sea of b*Tiberias. <sup>2</sup>Then a great multitude followed Him, because they saw His signs which He performed on those who were <sup>c</sup>diseased. <sup>3</sup>And Jesus went up on the mountain, and there He sat with His disciples.

<sup>4</sup>Now the Passover, a feast of the Jews, was near. <sup>5</sup>eThen Jesus lifted up His eyes, and seeing a great multitude coming toward Him, He said to <sup>f</sup>Philip, “Where shall we buy bread, that these may eat?” <sup>6</sup>But this He said to test him, for He Himself knew what He would do.

<sup>10</sup>Then Jesus said, “Make the people sit down.” Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. <sup>11</sup>And Jesus took the loaves, and when He had given thanks He distributed them to the disciples, and the disciples *to those sitting down; and likewise of the fish, as much as they wanted. <sup>12</sup>So when they were filled, He said to His disciples, “Gather up the fragments that remain, so that nothing is lost.” <sup>13</sup>Therefore they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves which were left over by those who had eaten. <sup>14</sup>Then those men, when they had seen the sign that Jesus did, said, “This is truly <sup>j</sup>the Prophet who is to come into the world.”

Jesus Walks on the Sea

<sup>15</sup>Therefore when Jesus perceived that they were about to come and take Him by force to make Him <sup>k</sup>king, He departed again to the mountain by Himself alone.

<sup>16</sup>Now when evening came, His disciples went down to the sea, <sup>17</sup>got into the boat, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was already dark, and Jesus had not come to them. <sup>18</sup>Then the sea arose

Jewish legal practice, a person’s testimony about himself was not accepted in court. So, in this case, Jesus offered another witness—John the Baptist (v. 33).

5:42 the love of God. This love is not love from God but love for God. Love from God is evidenced in Christ (3:16; Rom. 5:8). Since God loves us, we should love Him (Deut. 6:5; 1 John 4:19).

5:45 you trust. Christ will not have to accuse the people on judgment day because the one in whom they place their trust, Moses, will. The people will be condemned by the very law they professed to keep.

5:46 for he wrote about Me. Moses wrote about Christ in the promises to the patriarchs, in the history of the deliverance from Egypt, in the symbolic institutions of the law, and in the prediction of a Prophet like himself (Luke 24:25–26). If the people had believed Moses, they would have received Jesus gladly. Over 300 Old Testament prophecies were specifically fulfilled in the first coming of Christ.

6:1 Sea of Galilee, which is the Sea of Tiberias. John’s use of the name Tiberias is an indication that his Gospel was written for those outside of Palestine. The Jewish people called this body of water the Lake of Gennesaret. The Romans called it Tiberias, after the city built on its western shore by Herod Antipas and named for the Emperor Tiberius.

6:7 Two hundred denarii. One denarius was a day’s wage for a laborer or field hand (Matt. 20:2). Two hundred denarii would have been almost two-thirds of a year’s wages.

6:9 barley loaves. These were an inexpensive food of the common people and the poor.

6:10–11 in number about five thousand . . . He distributed . . . those sitting down. This is the only miracle of Jesus that is recounted in all four Gospels.

6:15 to make Him king. Moses had not only miraculously provided food for the Israelites, he had also led them out of bondage in Egypt. Perhaps these men felt that Jesus could lead them out of bondage to the Romans. Christ was at the zenith of His popularity, and the temptation to take the kingdom without the cross must have been great (Matt. 4:8–10).

because a great wind was blowing. <sup>19</sup>So when they had rowed about three or four miles,* they saw Jesus walking on the sea and drawing near the boat; and they were <sup>20</sup>“afraid.” <sup>20</sup>But He said to them, <sup>21</sup>“It is I; do not be afraid.” <sup>21</sup>Then they willingly received Him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at the land where they were going.

The Bread from Heaven

<sup>22</sup>On the following day, when the people who were standing on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except that one which His disciples had entered,* and that Jesus had not entered the boat with His disciples, but His disciples had gone away alone— <sup>23</sup>however, other boats came from Tiberias, near the place where they ate bread after the Lord had given thanks— <sup>24</sup>when the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, nor His disciples, they also got into boats and came to Capernaum, <sup>25</sup>seeking Jesus. <sup>25</sup>And when they found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, “Rabbi, when did You come here?”

<sup>26</sup>Jesus answered them and said, “Most assuredly, I say to you, you seek Me, not because you saw the signs, but because you ate of the loaves and were filled. <sup>27</sup>Do not labor for the food which perishes, but <sup>28</sup>for the food which endures to everlasting life, which the Son of Man will give you, <sup>29</sup>because God the Father has set His seal on Him.”

<sup>28</sup>Then they said to Him, “What shall we do, that we may work the works of God?”

<sup>29</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, <sup>30</sup>“This is the work of God, that you believe in Him whom He sent.”

<sup>30</sup>Therefore they said to Him, <sup>31</sup>“What sign will You perform then, that we may see it and believe You? What work will You do?” <sup>31</sup>“Our fathers ate the manna in the desert; as it is written, <sup>32</sup>‘He gave them bread from heaven to eat.’”*

<sup>32</sup>Then Jesus said to them, “Most assuredly, I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven, but <sup>33</sup>‘My Father gives you the true bread from heaven.’ <sup>33</sup>For the bread of God is He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.”

<sup>35</sup>And Jesus said to them, <sup>36</sup>“I am the bread of life. <sup>37</sup>He who comes to Me shall never hunger, and he who believes in Me shall never thirst. <sup>38</sup>But I said to you that you have seen Me and yet <sup>39</sup>‘do not believe.’ <sup>39</sup>‘All that the Father gives Me will come to Me, and <sup>40</sup>‘the one who comes to Me I will by no means cast out.’ <sup>40</sup>For I have come down from heaven, <sup>41</sup>‘not to do My own will, <sup>42</sup>but the will of Him who sent Me.’ <sup>42</sup>This is the will of the Father who sent Me, <sup>43</sup>‘that of all He has given Me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up at the last day.’ <sup>44</sup>And this is the will of Him who sent Me, <sup>45</sup>‘that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him may have everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day.’”

Rejected by His Own

<sup>41</sup>The Jews then complained about Him, because He said, “I am the bread which came down from heaven.” <sup>42</sup>And they said, <sup>43</sup>“Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How is it then that He says, ‘I have come down from heaven?’”

6:19–21 they saw Jesus walking on the sea. This miracle, the fifth sign recorded by John, pointed to Jesus’ deity. Only God could walk on water, calm the sea, and supernaturally transport the disciples to their destination.

6:27 Do not labor. The impression that one must work for eternal life is quickly corrected when Jesus adds “which the Son of Man will give you.” The Son provides life as a gift (4:10).

6:31 He gave them bread from heaven. There was a tradition that said the Messiah would cause manna to fall from heaven as Moses did (Ex. 16:4,15). The people probably also saw this “miracle worker” as the perpetual provider of physical needs rather than spiritual ones.

6:32 My Father. The crowd misrepresented the truth, so Jesus corrected them. The manna had not come from Moses; it had been provided by God. Moreover, God still gives “true bread”—that is, eternal life (v. 33).

6:39–40 the will of the Father. This is twofold: (1) that all who come to the Son will be received and not lost; (2) that all who see and believe on the Son will have eternal life.

6:42 the son of Joseph. The religious leaders’ proof that Jesus was not from heaven was that they knew His parents. To them, there was nothing supernatural about Jesus’ origin.

<sup>53</sup>Then Jesus said to them, “Most assuredly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you. <sup>54</sup>Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. <sup>55</sup>For My flesh is food indeed,* and My blood is drink indeed. <sup>56</sup>He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him. <sup>57</sup>As the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, so he who feeds on Me will live because of Me. <sup>58</sup>This is the bread which came down from heaven—not† as your fathers ate the manna, and are dead. He who eats this bread will live forever.”

Many Disciples Turn Away

<sup>60</sup>Therefore many of His disciples, when they heard this, said, “This is a hard saying; who can understand it?”

<sup>61</sup>When Jesus knew in Himself that His disciples complained about this, He said to them, “Does this offend you? <sup>62</sup>What then if you should see the Son of Man ascend where He was before? <sup>63</sup>It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and they are life. <sup>64</sup>But there are some of you who do not believe.” For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who would betray Him. <sup>65</sup>And He said, “Therefore I have said to you that no one can come to Me unless it has been granted to him by My Father.”

<sup>66</sup>From that time many of His disciples went back and walked with Him no more. <sup>67</sup>Then Jesus said to the twelve, “Do you also want to go away?”

<sup>68</sup>But Simon Peter answered Him, “Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. <sup>69</sup>Also we have come to believe and know that You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.”*

<sup>70</sup>Jesus answered them, “Did I not choose you, the twelve, and one of you is a devil?” <sup>71</sup>He spoke of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon, for it was he who would betray Him, being one of the twelve.

Jesus’ Brothers Disbelieve

<sup>72</sup>After these things Jesus walked in Galilee; for He did not want to walk in Judea, because the Jews* sought to kill Him. <sup>73</sup>Now the Jews’ Feast of Tabernacles was at hand. <sup>74</sup>His brothers therefore said to Him, “Depart from here and go into Judea, that Your disciples also may see the works that You are doing. <sup>75</sup>For no one does anything in secret while he himself seeks to be known openly. If You do these things, show Yourself to the world.” <sup>76</sup>For even His brothers did not believe in Him.

<sup>77</sup>Then Jesus said to them, “My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready. <sup>78</sup>The world cannot hate you, but it hates Me because I testify of it that its

6:47 everlasting life. The believer, possessing both peace and purpose, can rejoice even in the midst of fiery trials, knowing that God Himself will arrange the outcome for His glory and the believer’s good (Rom. 8:28).

6:48–49 I am the bread of life. Those who believe in Him have life (v. 47). The manna in the wilderness did not ultimately sustain life. Those who ate it eventually died because it could not provide eternal life.

6:53–58 eats My flesh and drinks My blood. Jesus had made it abundantly clear in this context that eternal life is gained by believing (vv. 29,35,40,47). These verses teach that the benefits of Jesus’ death must be appropriated, by faith, by each individual.

6:60 This is a hard saying. It was hard for the Jewish learners to accept the idea of eating flesh and drinking blood. Jews were forbidden to even taste blood.

6:63 It is the Spirit who gives life. Jesus was trying to get the religious leaders to see beyond the physical aspects of His teaching to the real issue—namely, that if they believed on Him they would have eternal life.

7:2 Feast of Tabernacles. This was one of the three great Jewish religious festivals (Passover and Pentecost were the other two). It was called the Feast of Tabernacles (Booths) because for seven days the people lived in makeshift shelters or lean-tos made of branches and leaves. The feast commemorated the days when the Israelites wandered in the wilderness and lived in tents (Lev. 23:40–43).

7:3–4 His brothers. Jesus’ brothers argued, “If You works are evil. <sup>8</sup>You go up to this feast. I am not yet* going up to this feast, <sup>9</sup>for My time has not yet fully come.” <sup>9</sup>When He had said these things to them, He remained in Galilee.

The Heavenly Scholar

<sup>10</sup>But when His brothers had gone up, then He also went up to the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret. <sup>11</sup>Then <sup>11</sup>the Jews sought Him at the feast, and said, “Where is He?” <sup>12</sup>And <sup>12</sup>there was much complaining among the people concerning Him. <sup>13</sup>Some said, “He is good”; others said, “No, on the contrary, He deceives the people.” <sup>13</sup>However, no one spoke openly of Him <sup>13</sup>for fear of the Jews.

<sup>14</sup>Now about the middle of the feast Jesus went up into the temple and <sup>14</sup>taught. <sup>15</sup>And the Jews marveled, saying, “How does this Man know letters, having never studied?”

are really working miracles and thus claiming to be the Messiah, do not hide in obscure Galilee. If you are doing miracles at all, then do them in Jerusalem at the Feast to convince the whole nation.” These words were sarcastic, as verse 5 explains.

7:14 the middle of the feast. This would have been the fourth day of the seven-day feast. During the first half of the festival, Jesus remained in seclusion (v. 10). During the second half, He began to teach publicly. This is the first mention in the Gospel of John of Jesus teaching in the temple.

7:15 having never studied. Jesus never attended a rabbinical school. Similar bewilderment was later expressed regarding Jesus’ disciples (Acts 4:13).

7:28–29 You both know Me, and you know where I am from. Jesus reminded the leaders that they knew His origin. Their problem was that they did not know God, who sent Jesus. He explained to them that He knew God, was from God, and was sent by God.

Could This Be the Christ?

<sup>30</sup>Therefore <sup>31</sup>they sought to take Him; but <sup>32</sup>no one laid a hand on Him, because His hour had not yet come. <sup>31</sup>And <sup>32</sup>many of the people believed in Him, and said, “When the Christ comes, will He do more signs than these which this Man has done?”

Jesus and the Religious Leaders

<sup>35</sup>Then the Jews said among themselves, “Where does He intend to go that we shall not find Him? Does He intend to go to <sup>36</sup>the Dispersion among the Greeks and teach the Greeks? <sup>36</sup>What is this thing that He said, ‘You will seek Me and not find Me, and where I am you cannot come?’”

The Promise of the Holy Spirit

<sup>37</sup>On the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, <sup>38</sup>“If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and

Who Is He?

<sup>40</sup>Therefore many* from the crowd, when they heard this saying, said, “Truly this is *the Prophet.” <sup>41</sup>Others said, “This is *the Christ.”

But some said, “Will the Christ come out of Galilee? <sup>42</sup>Has not the Scripture said that the Christ comes from the seed of David and from the town of Bethlehem, *where David was?” <sup>43</sup>So <sup>b</sup>there was a division among the people because of Him. <sup>44</sup>Now *some of them wanted to take Him, but no one laid hands on Him.

Rejected by the Authorities

<sup>45</sup>Then the officers came to the chief priests and Pharisees, who said to them, “Why have you not brought Him?”

a golden pitcher filled with water from the pool of Siloam, carried it to the temple, and poured it on the altar as an offering to God. This dramatic ceremony was a memorial of the water that flowed from the rock when the Israelites traveled through the wilderness. On the last day of the feast, the people marched seven times around the altar in memory of the seven circuits around the walls of Jericho.

7:38 as the Scripture has said. The reference is not to a single passage, but to the general emphasis of such passages as Deuteronomy 18:15, Isaiah 58:11, and Zechariah 14:8. In contrast to the small amount of water poured out each day during the feast, there will be a river of water coming out of those who believe in Christ. Not only will they be satisfied themselves, but they will also become a river so that others may drink and be satisfied (v. 39).

7:40–42 Christ comes from the seed of David. These people knew that the Messiah was to come from Bethlehem (Mic. 5:2). However, they did not know that Jesus had been born there. They thought He was from Galilee. They knew the Scripture, but they did not take the time to know the Messiah (5:39). 8:2 He sat down. Teachers in ancient Israel sat when they taught. Jesus assumed the position of an authoritative teacher.

Pharisees were not interested in helping the woman, but in using her sinful circumstances to discredit Jesus (v. 6). His refusal to countenance the stoning of the woman does not bring Him into conflict with the law given to Moses, nor does He condone sin. The issue in the encounter was the accusers' blindness to their own sin.

8:4–5 commanded us that such should be stoned. Stoning was specified in certain cases of adultery (Deut. 22:23–24), though not all. (It is not clear why the authorities intended to punish the woman but not the man.) In the Greek text, the pronoun you is emphatic. The religious leaders were trying to trap Jesus into saying something that was contrary to the law.

8:6 testing him. If Jesus had said not to stone her, He would have contradicted Jewish law. If He had said to stone her, He would have run counter to Roman law, which did not permit Jews to carry out their own beginning with the oldest even to the last. And Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst. <sup>10</sup>When Jesus had raised Himself up and saw no one but the woman, He said to her,* “Woman, where are those accusers of yours? Has no one condemned you?”

<sup>12</sup>Then Jesus spoke to them again, saying, <sup>14</sup>“I am the light of the world. He who <sup>15</sup>follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but have the light of life.”

Jesus Defends His Self-Witness

<sup>14</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, “Even if I bear witness of Myself, My witness is true, for I know where I came from and where I am going; but <sup>15</sup>you do not know where I come from and where I am going. <sup>16</sup>You judge according to the flesh; <sup>17</sup>I judge no one. <sup>18</sup>And yet if I do judge, My judgment is true; for <sup>19</sup>I am not alone, but I am with the Father who sent Me. <sup>20</sup>It is also written in your law that the testimony of two men is true. <sup>21</sup>I am One who bears witness of Myself, and <sup>22</sup>the Father who sent Me bears witness of Me.”

Jesus answered, <sup>20</sup>“You know neither Me nor My Father. <sup>21</sup>If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also.”

Jesus Predicts His Departure

<sup>21</sup>Then Jesus said to them again, “I am going away, and <sup>22</sup>you will seek Me, and <sup>23</sup>will die in your sin. Where I go you cannot come.”

<sup>22</sup>So the Jews said, “Will He kill Himself, because He says, ‘Where I go you cannot come?’”

<sup>23</sup>And He said to them, <sup>24</sup>“You are from beneath; I am from above. <sup>25</sup>You are of this world; I am not of this world. <sup>26</sup>Therefore I said to you that you will die in your sins; <sup>27</sup>for if you do not believe that I am He, you will die in your sins.”

<sup>25</sup>Then they said to Him, “Who are You?”

And Jesus said to them, “Just what I have been saying to you from the beginning. <sup>26</sup>I have many things to say and to judge concerning you, but <sup>27</sup>He who sent Me is true; and <sup>28</sup>I speak to the world those things which I heard from Him.”

The Truth Shall Make You Free

executions (18:31). What Jesus wrote on the ground is a matter of conjecture.

8:13 Your witness is not true. This phrase does not mean “false”; it means “not sufficient.” The Pharisees challenged Jesus on legal grounds because no man on trial in a Jewish court was allowed to testify on his own behalf. Their point was that, if Jesus were the only one testifying as to who He claimed to be, it would not be enough to prove His case.

8:14 My witness is true. In 5:31 Jesus argued on the basis of legality and offered other witnesses. Sometimes, however, an individual is the only one who knows the facts about himself. Thus, self-disclosure is the only way to truth (7:29; 13:3).

8:15 according to the flesh. This could mean either “according to appearance” or “by human standards.” The religious leaders formed conclusions based on human standards and an imperfect, external, and superficial examination. Jesus did not judge according to human standards or outward appearances.

8:24 I am He. This was God’s designation of Himself (Ex. 3:14). Jesus was claiming to be God. This assertion was not understood by the religious leaders at this time. Later, Jesus’ claim to be the “I am” (v. 58) prompted the Jewish leaders to seek His life (v. 59).

8:31 God’s Word Confirms—The Bible establishes the truth in our own hearts in several ways.

1. It confirms our salvation. In Jesus’ own words in the Gospel of John: “Most assuredly, I say to you, he who hears My word and believes in Him who sent Me has everlasting life, and shall not come into judgment, but has passed from death into life” (5:24). Compare 3:16; 6:27,35,37,40; 10:27–29; Romans 8:1.
2. It confirms the hand of God in all of life’s bitter disappointments. Romans 8:28 provides reassurance and comfort in these crucial situations:

<sup>33</sup>They answered Him, “We are Abraham’s descendants, and have never been in bondage to anyone. How can You say, ‘You will be made free?’”

Abraham’s Seed and Satan’s

Jesus said to them, <sup>x</sup>“If you were Abraham’s children, you would do the works of Abraham. <sup>40</sup>But now you seek to kill Me, a Man who has told you the truth <sup>z</sup>which I heard from God. Abraham did not do this. <sup>41</sup>You do the deeds of your father.”

Then they said to Him, “We were not born of fornication; <sup>a</sup>we have one Father—God.”

<sup>42</sup>Jesus said to them, <sup>b</sup>“If God were your Father, you would love Me, for <sup>i</sup>I proceeded forth and came from God; <sup>d</sup>nor have I come of Myself, but He sent Me. <sup>43</sup>Why do you not understand My speech? Because you are not able to listen to My word. <sup>44</sup>You are of your father the devil, and the <sup>e</sup>desires of your father you want to <sup>h</sup>do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and <sup>i</sup>does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it. <sup>45</sup>But because I tell the truth, you do not believe Me. <sup>46</sup>Which of you convicts Me of sin? And if I tell the truth, why do you not believe Me? <sup>47</sup>He who is of God hears God’s words; therefore you do not hear, because you are not of God.”

Before Abraham Was, I AM

<sup>48</sup>Then the Jews answered and said to Him, “Do we not say rightly that You are a Samaritan and <sup>k</sup>have a demon?”

<sup>52</sup>Then the Jews said to Him, “Now we know that You <sup>o</sup>have a demon! <sup>p</sup>Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and You say, ‘If anyone keeps My word he shall never taste death.’ <sup>53</sup>Are You greater than our father Abraham, who is dead? And the prophets are dead. <sup>q</sup>Who do You make Yourself out to be?”

<sup>57</sup>Then the Jews said to Him, “You are not yet fifty years old, and have You seen Abraham?”

“And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose.”

3. It confirms our forgiveness when we sin. Repeatedly, the Bible assures us that all confessed sin is instantly and eternally forgiven (Ps. 32:5; 103:12; Is. 38:17).

8:33 have never been in bondage to anyone. The Pharisees’ objection is startling. In their past, the Israelites had been in bondage to the Egyptians, the Assyrians, and the Babylonians. At the time they spoke, Israel was under the power of Rome.

8:39 Abraham is our father. The Pharisees believed that being a descendant of Abraham guaranteed them a place in heaven.

8:41 We were not born of fornication. From ancient times, this has been interpreted as a sneer, as if to say, “We are not illegitimate children, but You are.” Apparently gossip followed Jesus, alleging that He had been conceived out of wedlock.

8:53 Are You greater than our father Abraham. Abraham and the prophets kept God’s word and died. Jesus was claiming not that He would prevent physical death, but that He could give eternal life. To the Jewish leaders, this was proof that Jesus was demon-possessed.

8:58–59 I AM. Jesus was not just claiming to have lived before Abraham; He was claiming eternal existence. He was claiming to be God Himself (Ex. 3:14). This time the Jewish leaders understood that Jesus

A Man Born Blind Receives Sight

9 Now as Jesus passed by, He saw a man who was blind from birth. <sup>2</sup>And His disciples asked Him, saying, “Rabbi, <sup>a</sup>who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?”

<sup>6</sup>When He had said these things, <sup>f</sup>He spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva; and He anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay. <sup>7</sup>And He said to him, “Go, wash <sup>g</sup>in the pool of Siloam” (which is translated, Sent). So <sup>h</sup>he went and washed, and came back seeing.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore the neighbors and those who previously had seen that he was blind* said, “Is not this he who sat and begged?”

<sup>9</sup>Some said, “This is he.” Others said, “He is like him.”*

He said, “I am he.”

<sup>10</sup>Therefore they said to him, “How were your eyes opened?”

<sup>11</sup>He answered and said, <sup>i</sup>“A Man called Jesus made clay and anointed my eyes and said to me, ‘Go to the pool of* Siloam and wash.’ So I went and washed, and I received sight.”

<sup>12</sup>Then they said to him, “Where is He?”

He said, “I do not know.”

The Pharisees Excommunicate the Healed Man

<sup>13</sup>They brought him who formerly was blind to the Pharisees. <sup>14</sup>Now it was a Sabbath when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes. <sup>15</sup>Then the Pharisees also asked him again how he had received his sight. He said to them, “He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and I see.”

<sup>16</sup>Therefore some of the Pharisees said, “This Man is not from God, because He does not keep the Sabbath.”

Others said, <sup>j</sup>“How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?” And <sup>k</sup>there was a division among them.

<sup>17</sup>They said to the blind man again, “What do you say about Him because He opened your eyes?”

He said, <sup>l</sup>“He is a prophet.”

<sup>18</sup>But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind and received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight. <sup>19</sup>And they asked them, saying, “Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?”

<sup>20</sup>His parents answered them and said, “We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; <sup>21</sup>but by what means he now sees we do not know, or who opened his eyes we do not know. He is of age; ask him. He will speak for himself.” <sup>22</sup>His parents said these things because <sup>m</sup>they feared the Jews, for the Jews had agreed already that if anyone confessed that He was Christ, he <sup>n</sup>would be put out of the synagogue. <sup>23</sup>Therefore his parents said, “He is of age; ask him.”

<sup>25</sup>He answered and said, “Whether He is a sinner or not I do not know. One thing I know: that though I was blind, now I see.”

<sup>26</sup>Then they said to him again, “What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?”

<sup>27</sup>He answered them, “I told you already, and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become His disciples?”

was claiming to be God, so they took up stones to stone Him for blasphemy (Lev. 24:16).

9:1 a man who was blind from birth. Most likely he was a beggar. Beggars waited by the gates of the temple for gifts from worshipers. Therefore, it is likely that this scene took place near the temple.

9:2 who sinned. It was commonly supposed that sickness was a result of sin. It would follow that sin committed by a baby still in the womb or sin committed by parents could result in a baby being born with a disease. Jesus rejected both suggestions (v. 3).

9:7 pool of Siloam. Hezekiah had a tunnel cut through solid rock to transport water from Gihon into the city of Jerusalem, to the pool of Siloam (2 Kin. 20:20; 2 Chr. 32:30). John emphasizes that the name Siloam means “sent,” because Jesus had just announced that He had been sent by God (v. 4).

9:22 put out of the synagogue. To take this action was a form of excommunication. The Jews had three types of excommunication: one lasting 30 days, during which the person could not come within six feet of anybody else; one for an indefinite time, during which the person was excluded from all fellowship and worship; and one that meant absolute expulsion forever. These judgments were very serious because no one could conduct business with a person who was excommunicated.

<sup>34</sup>They answered and said to him, <sup>w</sup>“You were completely born in sins, and are you teaching us?” And they cast him out.

True Vision and True Blindness

<sup>36</sup>He answered and said, “Who is He, Lord, that I may believe in Him?”

<sup>39</sup>And Jesus said, <sup>c</sup>“For judgment I have come into this world, <sup>d</sup>that those who do not see may see, and that those who see may be made blind.”

<sup>40</sup>Then some of the Pharisees who were with Him heard these words, <sup>e</sup>and said to Him, “Are we blind also?”

<sup>41</sup>Jesus said to them, <sup>f</sup>“If you were blind, you would have no sin; but now you say, ‘We see.’ Therefore your sin remains.

Jesus the True Shepherd

10 <sup>g</sup>“Most assuredly, I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.” <sup>2</sup>But he who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. <sup>3</sup>To him the doorkeeper opens, and the sheep hear his voice; and he calls his own sheep by <sup>h</sup>name and leads them out. <sup>4</sup>And when he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them; and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. <sup>5</sup>Yet they will by no means follow a <sup>i</sup>stranger, but will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers.” <sup>6</sup>Jesus used this illustration, but they did not understand the things which He spoke to them.

Jesus the Good Shepherd

<sup>7</sup>Then Jesus said to them again, “Most assuredly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. <sup>8</sup>All who ever came before Me* are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not hear them. <sup>9</sup>I am the door. If anyone enters by Me, he will be saved, and will go in and out and find pasture. <sup>10</sup>The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly.

9:30–33 unheard of. There is no healing of a blind man recorded anywhere in the Old Testament.

9:38 Lord, I believe. Note the progression throughout this chapter of the healed man’s understanding of the person of Christ. First, he called Jesus “a Man” (v. 11); then, “a prophet” (v. 17); and finally, he realized that Jesus is the Son of God (vv. 35–38).

10:1 sheepfold. A sheepfold was a walled enclosure or high fence made with stakes and having one door or gate; often the enclosure was a cave. some other way. The Pharisees had secured their power by illegitimate means.

10:3 the doorkeeper. The doorkeeper was the undershepherd. calls his own sheep by name. The naming of sheep was an ancient practice (Ps. 147:4; Is. 40:26).

10:7 I am the door. In verses 1–5, Jesus is the shepherd; here, He is the door. Some shepherds lay down across the entry of the sheepfold at night to sleep. Wild beasts would be discouraged from entering, and sheep would not exit. Thus, the shepherd was also the door.

10:10 may have it more abundantly. The thieves take life; the shepherd gives it. Abundant life includes salvation, nourishment, healing (v. 9), and much more. Life here refers to eternal life, God’s life. It speaks not only of endlessness, but of quality of life. With Christ, life on earth can reach much higher quality, and then in heaven it will be complete and perfect.

10:11 The Ministry of Jesus—Jesus’ most important teachings are: the kingdom of God (Matt. 5–7; 24–25); His divine authority over men (Matt. 7:28–29; Mark 2:10); His own role as God and Messiah demonstrated by miracles and signs; the significance of His death and resurrection (Matt. 16:21; Luke 24:26); the relationship which His disciples and subsequent believers are to share with Him (John 13–16); and the urgency of His commission to believers to make disciples (Matt. 28:19–20). The most significant events of His earthly life, His death and resurrection, are central to the entire Christian faith (1 Cor. 15:14).

sheep. <sup>16</sup>And <sup>16</sup>other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they will hear My voice; <sup>17</sup>and there will be one flock and one shepherd.

<sup>17</sup>“Therefore My Father loves Me, <sup>18</sup>because I lay down My life that I may take it again. <sup>19</sup>No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down of Myself. I <sup>20</sup>have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. <sup>21</sup>“This command I have received from My Father.”

<sup>19</sup>Therefore <sup>20</sup>there was a division again among the Jews because of these sayings. <sup>21</sup>And many of them said, “He has a demon and is mad. Why do you listen to Him?”

<sup>22</sup>Others said, “These are not the words of one who has a demon. <sup>23</sup>Can a demon <sup>24</sup>open the eyes of the blind?”

The Shepherd Knows His Sheep

<sup>22</sup>Now it was the Feast of Dedication in Jerusalem, and it was winter. <sup>23</sup>And Jesus walked in the temple, <sup>24</sup>in Solomon’s porch. <sup>25</sup>Then the Jews surrounded Him and said to Him, “How long do You keep us in doubt? If You are the Christ, tell us plainly.”

<sup>25</sup>Jesus answered them, “I told you, and you do not believe. <sup>26</sup>“The works that I do in My Father’s name, they <sup>27</sup>bear witness of Me. <sup>28</sup>But <sup>29</sup>you do not believe, because you are not of My sheep, as I said to you.* <sup>30</sup>“My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me. <sup>31</sup>And I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand. <sup>32</sup>“My Father, <sup>33</sup>who has given them to Me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of My Father’s hand. <sup>34</sup>“I and My Father are one.”

Renewed Efforts to Stone Jesus

The death of Christ was a humiliating physical death (John 19:18,33) that constituted a spiritual separation from God (Matt. 27:46). Within this moment there occurred the inexplicable mystery of the Father punishing the Son for the sins of the world (2 Cor. 5:21; 1 Pet. 3:18). The greatest crime of human history was in the plan of God (Acts 2:23) and became the basis of salvation for sinners (Is. 53:5). The resurrection of Christ demonstrated that His death, by which believing sinners are justified, was valid (1 Cor. 15:12–20). The historical evidence for the resurrection is plentiful: the many separate accounts of post-resurrection appearances, the empty tomb, and the transformed disciples. It is the power of the resurrection that empowers Christians today to live the Christian life (Eph. 1:19–20; Phil. 3:10).

10:16 other sheep I have. These were not Jews in heathen lands, but Gentiles. The Jewish people had asked if Jesus would go and teach the Gentiles (7:35). Jesus now declared that He had sheep among the despised heathen. one flock. This anticipates the salvation of the Gentiles and the formation of the church, in which converted Jews and Gentiles would form one spiritual body (Gal. 3:28; Eph. 2:16).

10:19–21 many of them said . . . Others said. After Jesus’ analogy of the good shepherd, the editorial comment by John is fitting. In the analogy, Jesus was the good shepherd whose sheep hear His voice, implying that there are sheep who do not hear His voice. John’s comment indicates that some believe and others do not. This is the same division that occurred in 9:16.

10:22 the Feast of Dedication. This festival was celebrated for eight days. In 167 B.C. Antiochus Epiphanes desecrated the temple in Jerusalem, as prophesied in Daniel 11:31. The Maccabees restored and purified the temple. In commemoration of the restoration, the Feast of Dedication was instituted. Today it is also known as the Feast of Lights or Hanukkah.

10:27–29 hear . . . follow. The following of the sheep is a metaphor for faith. Other metaphors for faith in this Gospel include drinking water (4:14), eating bread (6:50–51), eating flesh, and drinking blood (6:54).

10:30 I and My Father are one. The Jewish opponents understood that Jesus was claiming to be God (vv. 31,33).

10:34 You are gods. In the Old Testament, judges were called gods. They exercised godlike judicial sovereignty. Psalm 82:6, the verse quoted here, refers to judges who violate the law. Jesus’ argument was that,

The Believers Beyond Jordan

<sup>40</sup>And He went away again beyond the Jordan to the place <sup>a</sup>where John was baptizing at first, and there He stayed. <sup>41</sup>Then many came to Him and said, “John performed no sign, <sup>a</sup>but all the things that John spoke about this Man were true.” <sup>42</sup>And many believed in Him there.

The Death of Lazarus

<sup>4</sup>When Jesus heard that, He said, “This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it.”

<sup>5</sup>Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. <sup>6</sup>So, when He heard that he was sick, <sup>c</sup>He stayed two more days in the place where He was. <sup>7</sup>Then after this He said to the disciples, “Let us go to Judea again.”

<sup>8</sup>The disciples said to Him, “Rabbi, lately the Jews sought to <sup>d</sup>stone You, and are You going there again?”

<sup>12</sup>Then His disciples said, “Lord, if he sleeps he will get well.” <sup>13</sup>However, Jesus spoke of his death, but they thought that He was speaking about taking rest in sleep.

<sup>14</sup>Then Jesus said to them plainly, “Lazarus is dead. <sup>15</sup>And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, that you may believe. Nevertheless let us go to him.”

<sup>16</sup>Then <sup>i</sup>Thomas, who is called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, “Let us also go, that we may die with Him.”

I Am the Resurrection and the Life

<sup>17</sup>So when Jesus came, He found that he had already been in the tomb four days. <sup>18</sup>Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles* away. <sup>19</sup>And many of the Jews had joined the women around Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

<sup>20</sup>Now Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met Him, but Mary was sitting in the house. <sup>21</sup>Now Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died. <sup>22</sup>But even now I know that <sup>j</sup>whatever You ask of God, God will give You.”

<sup>27</sup>She said to Him, “Yes, Lord, <sup>o</sup>I believe that You are the Christ, the Son of God, who is to come into the world.”

Jesus and Death, the Last Enemy

<sup>28</sup>And when she had said these things, she went her way and secretly called Mary her sister, saying, “The Teacher has come and is calling for you.” <sup>29</sup>As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly and came to Him. <sup>30</sup>Now Jesus had not yet come into the town, but was* in the place where Martha met Him. <sup>31p</sup>Then the Jews who were with her in the house, and comforting her, when they saw that Mary rose up quickly and went out, followed her, saying, “She is going to the tomb to weep there.”*

<sup>32</sup>Then, when Mary came where Jesus was, and saw Him, she <sup>q</sup>fell down at His feet, saying to Him, “Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.”

* 11:18 Literally fifteen stadia * 11:30 NU-Text adds still. * 11:31 NU-Text reads supposing that she was going to the tomb to weep there.

if the divine name had been applied by God to mere men, there could be neither blasphemy nor folly in its application to the incarnate Son of God Himself.

11:1 Bethany. This was a small village on the south-east slope of the Mount of Olives. It was located about two miles from Jerusalem.

11:4 not unto death. This phrase means not having death as its final result.

11:6–8 He stayed two more days. God’s purpose was to glorify His Son (v. 4) and to cause the disciples to grow (v. 15). Had Jesus immediately rushed to Lazarus’ bedside and healed him, Lazarus would not have died and Jesus would not have been able to manifest His glory by raising Lazarus.

11:16 Let us also go, that we may die with Him. While the Lord saw their development in faith, Thomas saw their deaths. Yet, in his loyalty, he followed anyway.

11:33 troubled. This word means to be stirred up,

He groaned in the spirit and was troubled.

<sup>34</sup>And He said, “Where have you laid him?”

They said to Him, “Lord, come and see.”

<sup>37</sup>And some of them said, “Could not this Man, who opened the eyes of the blind, also have kept this man from dying?”

Lazarus Raised from the Dead

<sup>38</sup>Then Jesus, again groaning in Himself, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay against it. <sup>39</sup>Jesus said, “Take away the stone.”

Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said to Him, “Lord, by this time there is a stench, for he has been dead four days.”

<sup>40</sup>Jesus said to her, “Did I not say to you that if you would believe you would see the glory of God?” <sup>41</sup>Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead man was lying. * And Jesus lifted up His eyes and said, “Father, I thank You that You have heard Me.” <sup>42</sup>And I know that You always hear Me, but because of the people who are standing by I said this, that they may believe that You sent Me.” <sup>43</sup>Now when He had said these things, He cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come forth!” <sup>44</sup>And he who had died came out bound hand and foot with graveclothes, and his face was wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Loose him, and let him go.”

The Plot to Kill Jesus

<sup>45</sup>Then many of the Jews who had come to Mary, and had seen the things Jesus did, believed in Him. <sup>46</sup>But some of them went away to the Pharisees and told them the things Jesus did. <sup>47</sup>Then the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered a council and said, “What shall we do? For this Man works many signs.” <sup>48</sup>If we let Him alone like this, everyone will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and nation.”

disturbed. Jesus was moved by the mourning of Mary and indignant at the hypocritical lamentations of His enemies.

11:37 Could not this Man. Some people misinterpreted Jesus’ tears as powerlessness. They complained that He had healed others, but now was impotent.

11:43 Lazarus. Augustine once said that, if Jesus had not designated Lazarus by name, all the graves would have been emptied at His command (5:28). Raising Lazarus from the dead is the seventh sign of Jesus’ messiahship, the greatest miracle of all, giving life back to the dead.

11:49–52 it is expedient. In the opinion of Caiaphas, Jesus should die rather than plunge the nation into destruction. John adds that by virtue of his office Caiaphas pronounced a message of God unconsciously. Caiaphas was a prophet in spite of himself. John also saw in Caiaphas’ words a prophecy that Jesus should die not only for Israel but for the Gentiles as well.

11:53 they plotted to put Him to death. Humanly speaking, the resurrection of Lazarus was a major <sup>49</sup>And one of them, <sup>d</sup>Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said to them, “You know nothing at all, <sup>50</sup>nor do you consider that it is expedient for us* that one man should die for the people, and not that the whole nation should perish.” <sup>51</sup>Now this he did not say on his own authority; but being high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation, <sup>52</sup>and not for that nation only, but also that He would gather together in one the children of God who were scattered abroad.

<sup>53</sup>Then, from that day on, they plotted to put Him to death. <sup>54</sup>Therefore Jesus no longer walked openly among the Jews, but went from there into the country near the wilderness, to a city called Ephraim, and there remained with His disciples.

<sup>55</sup>And the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went from the country up to Jerusalem before the Passover, to purify themselves. <sup>56</sup>Then they sought Jesus, and spoke among themselves as they stood in the temple, “What do you think—that He will not come to the feast?” <sup>57</sup>Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a command, that if anyone knew where He was, he should report it, that they might seize Him.

The Anointing at Bethany

12 Then, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was who had been dead,* whom He had raised from the dead. <sup>2</sup>There they made Him a supper; and Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with Him. <sup>3</sup>Then Mary took a pound of very costly oil of spikenard, anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped His feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the oil.

* 11:41 NU-Text omits from the place where the dead man was lying. * 11:50 NU-Text reads you.

factor that led to the plot by the Jewish religious leaders to kill Christ. At this point the council decided informally, if not formally, to put Jesus to death. It is ironic that these men believed they could put to death permanently One who could raise the dead.

12:1 six days before the Passover. If the crucifixion took place on a Friday, this dinner occurred during the evening of the previous Saturday. Verse 12 seems to support this conclusion because the Jerusalem entry took place on Sunday.

12:3 very costly oil of spikenard. Judas Iscariot said

<sup>7</sup>But Jesus said, "Let her alone; she has kept* this for the day of My burial. <sup>8</sup>For #the poor you have with you always, but Me you do not have always."

The Plot to Kill Lazarus

<sup>9</sup>Now a great many of the Jews knew that He was there; and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might also see Lazarus, <sup>h</sup>whom He had raised from the dead. <sup>10</sup>But the chief priests plotted to put Lazarus to death also, <sup>11</sup>because on account of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus.

The Triumphal Entry

<sup>12</sup><sup>k</sup>The next day a great multitude that had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, <sup>13</sup>took branches of palm trees and went out to meet Him, and cried out:

"Hosanna!

The King of Israel!"

things were written about Him and that they had done these things to Him.

<sup>17</sup>Therefore the people, who were with Him when He called Lazarus out of his tomb and raised him from the dead, bore witness. <sup>18</sup>For this reason the people also met Him, because they heard that He had done this sign. <sup>19</sup>The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, "<sup>r</sup>You see that you are accomplishing nothing. Look, the world has gone after Him!"

The Fruitful Grain of Wheat

Jesus Predicts His Death on the Cross

that this perfume cost 300 denarii (v. 5). One denarius was a laborer's wage for one day. Thus, the perfume cost approximately a year's wages. anointed the feet. Mary also anointed Jesus' head. The custom of that time was to anoint the heads of guests. Anointing Jesus' head was an act of honor; anointing His feet was a display of devotion.

12:10–11 the chief priests plotted to put Lazarus to death also. The chief priests were mostly Sadducees. They had an additional reason to kill Lazarus. He was a living refutation of their doctrine that there was no resurrection (11:57; Acts 23:8). Yet this was not a meeting of the Jewish council, nor was it a formal sentence of death. The ultimate motivation for wanting to kill Lazarus was that because of him many were believing in Jesus.

12:13–15 The King of Israel. Until this point, Jesus had discouraged expressions of support from the people (6:15; 7:1–8). Here, He allowed public enthusiasm. He entered Jerusalem on the back of a young donkey. This act fulfilled prophecy (Zech. 9:9) and as such was a symbolic proclamation that Jesus is the Messiah.

12:20 to worship at the feast. This verse indicates that these Greeks were Jewish proselytes. By recording this incident, perhaps John was hinting that the salvation rejected by many of the Jews was already passing to the Gentiles.

12:24 unless a grain of wheat . . . dies. When a seed dies, it produces fruit. Life comes by death. This principle is not only true in nature, but it is also true spiritually. Jesus was speaking first and foremost of Himself. He is the grain of wheat. His death would produce much fruit and would result in many living for God.

12:27 Now My soul is troubled. Jesus' agony over His impending death was not confined to Gethsemane, <sup>d</sup>Then a voice came from heaven, saying, “I have both glorified it and will glorify it again.”

<sup>29</sup>Therefore the people who stood by and heard it said that it had thundered. Others said, “An angel has spoken to Him.”

<sup>34</sup>The people answered Him, <sup>i</sup>“We have heard from the law that the Christ remains forever; and how <sup>can</sup> You say, ‘The Son of Man must be lifted up’? Who is this Son of Man?”

Who Has Believed Our Report?

<sup>37</sup>But although He had done so many <sup>o</sup>signs before them, they did not believe in Him, <sup>38</sup>that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke:

*“Lord, who has believed our report?
And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?”**

<sup>39</sup>Therefore they could not believe, because Isaiah said again:

hardened their hearts,
<sup>s</sup>Lest they should see with their eyes, Lest they should understand with their hearts and turn,
So that I should heal them.”**

where He prayed for the cup to pass from Him (Matt. 26:39). He felt the agony and expressed it almost a week before Gethsemane.

12:35–36 while you have the light. Instead of answering the people’s questions (v. 34), Jesus gave them a warning. Jesus is the light. He wanted the people to believe and abide in Him (v. 46).

12:42–43 Nevertheless. This word marks a stark contrast between these believers and the unbelief spoken of in verses 37–41. These men were genuine believers. Their problem was that they feared the opinions of their fellow leaders. Such believers will be ashamed at Christ’s return (1 John 2:28).

12:47 I do not judge him. Christ will judge, but at His first coming He did not come to judge but to save (3:17).

13:1 to the end. This phrase means either “to the last” or “utterly and completely.” What follows in verses 1–11 demonstrates Jesus’ complete love. Jesus loved

Walk in the Light

Jesus Washes the Disciples’ Feet

13 Now <sup>a</sup>before the Feast of the Passover, when Jesus knew that <sup>b</sup>His hour had come that He should depart from this world to the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He <sup>c</sup>loved them to the end.

His disciples, even though He knew that one would betray Him, another would deny Him, and all would desert Him for a time.

to wipe them with the towel with which He was girded. <sup>6</sup>Then He came to Simon Peter. And Peter said to Him, "Lord, are You washing my feet?"

<sup>7</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, "What I am doing you do not understand now, but you will know after this."

<sup>8</sup>Peter said to Him, "You shall never wash my feet!"

Jesus answered him, <sup>14c</sup>"If I do not wash you, you have no part with Me."

<sup>9</sup>Simon Peter said to Him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!"

<sup>10</sup>Jesus said to him, "He who is bathed needs only to wash his feet, but is completely clean; and <sup>m</sup>you are clean, but not all of you." <sup>11</sup>For <sup>n</sup>He knew who would betray Him; therefore He said, "You are not all clean."

<sup>12</sup>So when He had washed their feet, taken His garments, and sat down again, He said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? <sup>13o</sup>You call Me Teacher and Lord, and you say well, for so I am. <sup>14o</sup>If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, <sup>q</sup>you also ought to wash one another's feet. <sup>15</sup>For <sup>r</sup>I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done to you. <sup>16s</sup>Most assuredly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master; nor is he who is sent greater than he who sent him. <sup>17</sup>If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.

Jesus Identifies His Betrayer

<sup>18</sup>"I do not speak concerning all of you. I know whom I have chosen; but that the <sup>u</sup>Scripture may be fulfilled, <sup>v</sup>"He who eats bread with Me* has lifted up his heel against Me." <sup>19w</sup>Now I tell you before it comes, that when it does come to pass, you may believe that I am He. <sup>20x</sup>Most assuredly, I say to you, he who receives whomever I send receives Me; and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me."

<sup>2</sup>He was troubled in spirit, and testified and said, "Most assuredly, I say to you, one of you will betray Me." <sup>22</sup>Then the disciples looked at one another, perplexed about whom He spoke.

<sup>25</sup>Then, leaning back* on Jesus' breast, he said to Him, "Lord, who is it?"

<sup>26</sup>Jesus answered, "It is he to whom I shall give a piece of bread when I have dipped it." And having dipped the bread, He gave it to <sup>c</sup>Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. <sup>27a</sup>Now after the piece of bread, Satan entered him. Then Jesus said to him, "What you do, do quickly." <sup>28</sup>But no one at the table knew for what reason He said this to him. <sup>29</sup>For some thought, because <sup>e</sup>Judas had the money box, that Jesus had said to him, "Buy those things we need for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor.

<sup>30</sup>Having received the piece of bread, he then went out immediately. And it was night.

The New Commandment

<sup>31</sup>So, when he had gone out, Jesus said, <sup>f</sup>"Now the Son of Man is glorified, and God is glorified in Him. If God is glorified in Him, God will also glorify Him in Himself, and glorify Him immediately." <sup>33</sup>Little children, I shall be with you a little while longer. You will seek Me; and as I said to the Jews, 'Where I am going, you cannot come,' so now I say to you. <sup>34k</sup>A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another. <sup>35</sup>By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another."

* 13:25 NU-Text and M-Text add thus.

13:8 no part with Me. The washing was a symbol of spiritual cleansing (vv. 10–11). If Peter did not participate in the cleansing, he would not enjoy fellowship with Christ (1 John 1:9).

13:13 Teacher and Lord. These were the ordinary titles of respect given to a rabbi.

13:18 has lifted up his heel. Jesus quoted Psalm 41:9 to explain the action of Judas. Lifting up one's heel was a gesture of insult or a preparation to kick. The blow had not yet been given. This was the attitude of Judas at that moment. He was eating with the disciples, but he was ready to strike.

13:33 Little children is an expression of tender affection used nowhere else in the Gospels. John did not forget the expression; he used it repeatedly in 1 John.

13:34 love one another. One of the dominant themes in the apostle John's writings is love. God loves the whole world (3:16). Jesus repeatedly demonstrates His compassion for people in general and His love for His disciples in particular (10:11; 11:3; 13:1; 15:9).

13:35 By this. Unbelievers recognize Jesus' disciples

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

<sup>36</sup>Simon Peter said to Him, "Lord, where are You going?"

Jesus answered him, "Where I <sup>m</sup>am going you cannot follow Me now, but <sup>n</sup>you shall follow Me afterward."

<sup>37</sup>Peter said to Him, "Lord, why can I not follow You now? I will <sup>o</sup>lay down my life for Your sake."

<sup>38</sup>Jesus answered him, "Will you lay down your life for My sake? Most assuredly, I say to you, the rooster shall not <sup>p</sup>crow till you have denied Me three times.

The Way, the Truth, and the Life

14 <sup>1</sup>"Let <sup>a</sup>not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me. <sup>2</sup>In My Father's house are many mansions;* if it were not so, I would have told you. <sup>b</sup>I go to prepare a place for you.* <sup>3</sup>And if I go and prepare a place for you, <sup>c</sup>I will come again and receive you to Myself; that <sup>d</sup>where I am, <sup>e</sup>there you may be also. <sup>4</sup>And where I go you know, and the way you know."

<sup>5</sup>Thomas said to Him, "Lord, we do not know where You are going, and how can we know the way?"

The Father Revealed

<sup>7k</sup>"If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also; and from now on you know Him and have seen Him."

<sup>8</sup>Philip said to Him, "Lord, show us the Father, and it is sufficient for us."

<sup>9</sup>Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you so long, and yet you have not known Me, Philip? <sup>l</sup>He who has seen Me has seen the Father; so how can you say, 'Show us the Father'? <sup>10</sup>Do you not believe that <sup>m</sup>I am in the Father, and the Father in Me? The words that I speak to you <sup>n</sup>I do not speak on My own authority; but the Father who dwells in Me does the works. <sup>11</sup>Believe Me that I am in the Father and the Father in Me, <sup>o</sup>or else believe Me for the sake of the works themselves.

The Answered Prayer

<sup>12p</sup>"Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to My Father. <sup>13q</sup>And whatever you ask in My name, that I will do, that the Father may be <sup>r</sup>glorified in the Son. <sup>14</sup>If you ask* anything in My name, I will do it.

Jesus Promises Another Helper

* 14:2 Literally *dwelling*s • NU-Text adds a word which would cause the text to read either if it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? or if it were not so I would have told you; for I go to prepare a place for you.

not by their doctrinal distinctives, nor by dramatic miracles, nor even by their love for the lost. They recognize His disciples by their deeds of love for one another.

13:36 Lord, where are You going? This question Jesus had already addressed twice before, indicating that Peter completely missed the point of what Jesus said in verses 34 and 35.

13:37 I will lay down my life for Your sake. Peter was ready to die for Jesus. Unfortunately, he was not ready, at this point, to live for Him. Later Peter would die for Christ (21:18–19). Church tradition states that Peter was crucified upside down, at his request, for he felt himself unworthy to be crucified like his Lord.

14:3 I will come again and receive you. Peter may have failed Jesus (13:38), but Christ will not fail to return for Peter and for everyone else who has believed in Him (1 Thess. 4:16–17).

14:6 the way, the truth, and the life. Through His death and resurrection, Jesus is the way to the Father. He is also the truth and the life. As truth, He is the revelation of God. As life, He is the source of our very beings.

14:12 greater works. Jesus had accomplished the greatest works possible, including raising the dead. How could He say that believers would do greater works? The answer is seen in the extent of what the apostles did. Jesus' work on earth was confined to Palestine; the apostles would preach everywhere and see the conversion of thousands. Peter's message at Pentecost brought more followers to Jesus than did Jesus' entire earthly ministry. The disciples were able to do this work because Christ would go to the Father and send the Holy Spirit to empower them.

14:17 the Spirit of truth. This is another name for the Holy Spirit because He is truth and guides us into all truth (1 Cor. 2:13; 2 Pet. 1:21).

14:18 orphans. He would not abandon them. He would come to them. There are three suggested interpretations as to when that statement would be fulfilled: (1) after the resurrection, (2) at Pentecost, in the person of the Holy Spirit, and (3) at the second coming.

Indwelling of the Father and the Son

<sup>19</sup>“A little while longer and the world will see Me no more, but <sup>2</sup>you will see Me. <sup>a</sup>Because I live, you will live also. <sup>20</sup>At that day you will know that <sup>b</sup>I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you. <sup>21</sup>He who has My commandments and keeps them, it is he who loves Me. And he who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and manifest Myself to him.”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, “If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word; and My Father will love him, <sup>e</sup>and We will come to him and make Our home with him.

<sup>24</sup>He who does not love Me does not keep My words; and <sup>f</sup>the word which you hear is not Mine but the Father’s who sent Me.

The Gift of His Peace

<sup>29</sup>“And <sup>p</sup>now I have told you before it comes, that when it does come to pass, you may believe. <sup>30</sup>I will no longer talk much with you, <sup>q</sup>for the ruler of this world is coming, and he has <sup>r</sup>nothing in Me. <sup>31</sup>But that the world may know that I love the Father, and <sup>s</sup>as the Father gave Me commandment, so I do. Arise, let us go from here.

The True Vine

Love and Joy Perfected

<sup>9</sup>“As the Father <sup>l</sup>loved Me, I also have loved you; abide in My love. <sup>10</sup><sup>m</sup>If you keep My commandments, you will abide in My love, just as I have kept My Father’s commandments and abide in His love.

14:23 If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word. In response to Judas’ question (v. 22), Jesus explained that His manifestation to the disciples would be in response to their love and obedience. make Our home with him. If a believer loves and obeys the Lord, he or she will experience fellowship with God.

14:24 He who does not love Me. If a person does not love Jesus, he or she will not obey Him. Disobedience is a serious matter, for Jesus’ words are the words of God.

14:30 has nothing in Me. These words indicate Jesus’ sinlessness. Jesus’ yielding to what was about to happen did not mean that Satan had any power over Him. Jesus would soon voluntarily yield to the death of the cross, in loving obedience to the Father (v. 31).

15:2 Every branch in Me. The emphasis of “in Me” in this passage is on deep, abiding fellowship. Jesus’ purpose was to move His disciples from servants to friends (vv. 13–15). This would involve a process of discipline in regard to His commandments. prunes. This word means “cleanses.” Once the fruit is on the vine, the vinedresser cleanses the fruit of bugs and diseases. The spiritual counterpart is cleansing which is done through the Word (v. 3).

15:6 If anyone does not abide. Not abiding in Christ has serious consequences: (1) the person is cast out as a branch, indicating the loss of fellowship; (2) the person is withered, indicating a loss of vitality; (3) the person is burned, indicating a loss of reward.

15:8 By this. Notice the striking parallel between this verse and 13:35. fruit. The love of 13:35 is pictured here. The text has come full circle in showing how strategic it is for disciples to love each other, as Christ’s method of evangelizing the lost. Where there is good fruit, there are also seeds for propagation.

15:11 that your joy may be full. This phrase is an have loved you. <sup>13a</sup>Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends. <sup>14</sup>You are My friends if you do whatever I command you. <sup>15</sup>No longer do I call you servants, for a servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, <sup>a</sup>for all things that I heard from My Father I have made known to you. <sup>16i</sup>You did not choose Me, but I chose you and <sup>a</sup>appointed you that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain, that whatever you ask the Father <sup>v</sup>in My name He may give you. <sup>17</sup>These things I command you, that you love one another.

The World's Hatred

<sup>18w</sup>"If the world hates you, you know that it hated Me before it hated you. <sup>19</sup>"If you were of the world, the world would love its own. Yet <sup>v</sup>because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. <sup>20</sup>Remember the word that I said to you, <sup>a</sup>"A servant is not greater than his master." If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. <sup>a</sup>If they kept My word, they will keep yours also. <sup>21</sup>But <sup>b</sup>all these things they will do to you for My name's sake, because they do not know Him who sent Me. <sup>22</sup>"If I had not come and spoken to them, they would have no sin, <sup>d</sup>but now they have no excuse for their sin. <sup>23</sup>"He who hates Me hates My Father also. <sup>24</sup>If I had not done among them <sup>f</sup>the works which no one else did, they would have no sin; but now they have <sup>g</sup>seen and also hated both Me and My Father. <sup>25</sup>But this happened that the word might be fulfilled which is written in their law, <sup>h</sup>"They hated Me without a cause."<sup>78</sup>

The Coming Rejection

<sup>26i</sup>"But when the Helper comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, <sup>i</sup>He will testify of Me. <sup>27</sup>And <sup>k</sup>you also will bear witness, because <sup>l</sup>you have been with Me from the beginning.

16 "These things I have spoken to you, that you <sup>a</sup>should not be made to stumble. <sup>2b</sup>They will put you out of the synagogues; yes, the time is coming <sup>c</sup>that whoever kills you will think that he offers God service. <sup>3</sup>And <sup>d</sup>these things they will do to you* because they have not known the Father nor Me. <sup>4</sup>But these things I have told you, that when the* time comes, you may remember that I told you of them.

"And these things I did not say to you at the beginning, because I was with you.

The Work of the Holy Spirit

expression peculiar to John (3:29; 16:24; 17:13; 1 John 1:4; 2 John 12). It describes a believer's experience of Christ's love: complete joy.

15:14 if you do. Jesus is our model for love (v. 13). Intimacy with Him is the motive for loving as He loves. If believers obey His command to love, they enjoy the intimacy of His friendship. Not that friendship, unlike sonship, is a once-for-all gift, but develops as the result of obeying Jesus' command to love.

15:15 call you servants. Until this point, Jesus had called His disciples servants (12:26; 13:13–16). A servant does what he is told and sees what his master does, but does not necessarily know the meaning or purpose of it. friends. A friend knows what is happening because friends develop deep fellowship by communicating with one another.

15:22–23 have no sin . . . no excuse for their sin. The world's hatred of Jesus was a sin against God, for He revealed the Father Himself to them.

15:26–27 He will testify. As the disciples spoke, the Holy Spirit would bring inner conviction to unbelievers concerning Christ. This in turn would make the disciples witnesses for Jesus.

16:2 They will put you out of the synagogues. The persecution that the disciples would face included excommunication and even execution. Excommunication had economic as well as religious implications because much of the life of an ancient Jew revolved around the synagogue.

16:7 It is to your advantage. The disciples must have thought, "How can it be advantageous for us to be alone? The Romans hate us because they see us as disturbers of the peace. The Jewish leaders hate us because they see us as blasphemers." Jesus explained the benefits of His departure. When Jesus left, the believers would have (1) the provision of the Holy Spirit (vv. 7–15); (2) the potential of full joy (vv. 16–24); (3) the possibility of fuller knowledge (vv. 25–28); and (4) the privilege of peace (vv. 29–33).

16:8 convict. The Holy Spirit would demonstrate the truth of Christ beyond the fear of contradiction. The Holy Spirit convicts unbelievers through believers who witness about Christ (15:26–27). Believers are the mouthpiece for God's voice.

16:11 of judgment. Satan, the ruler of the world,

Sorrow Will Turn to Joy

<sup>17</sup>Then some of His disciples said among themselves, “What is this that He says to us, ‘A little while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me’; and, ‘because I go to the Father?’” <sup>18</sup>They said therefore, “What is this that He says, ‘A little while’? We do not know what He is saying.”

<sup>19</sup>Now Jesus knew that they desired to ask Him, and He said to them, “Are you inquiring among yourselves about what I said, ‘A little while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me’? <sup>20</sup>Most assuredly, I say to you that you will weep and <sup>u</sup>lament, but the world will rejoice; and you will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into <sup>v</sup>joy. <sup>21</sup>“A woman, when she is in labor, has sorrow because her hour has come; but as soon as she has given birth to the child, she no longer remembers the anguish, for joy that a human being has been born into the world. <sup>22</sup>Therefore you now have sorrow; but I will see you again and <sup>x</sup>your heart will rejoice, and your joy no one will take from you.

<sup>23</sup>“And in that day you will ask Me nothing. <sup>y</sup>Most assuredly, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in My name He will give you. <sup>24</sup>Until now you have asked nothing in My name. Ask, and you will receive, <sup>z</sup>that your joy may be <sup>q</sup>full.

Jesus Christ Has Overcome the World

<sup>25</sup>“These things I have spoken to you in figurative language; but the time is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figurative language, but I will tell you <sup>b</sup>plainly about the Father. <sup>26</sup>In that day you will ask in My name, and I do not say to you that I shall pray the Father for you; <sup>27</sup>for the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me, and <sup>d</sup>have believed that I came forth from God. <sup>28</sup><sup>e</sup>I came forth from the Father and have come into the world. Again, I leave the world and go to the Father.”

<sup>29</sup>His disciples said to Him, “See, now You are speaking plainly, and using no figure of speech! <sup>30</sup>Now we are sure that <sup>f</sup>You know all things, and have no need that anyone should question You. By this <sup>g</sup>we believe that You came forth from God.”

<sup>31</sup>Jesus answered them, “Do you now believe? <sup>32</sup>“Indeed the hour is coming, yes, has now come, that you will be scattered, <sup>h</sup>each to his own, and will leave Me alone. And <sup>i</sup>yet I am not alone, because the Father rules in the hearts of unregenerate people and blinds their minds (1 Cor. 2:6–8). Satan was judged at the cross, and the Holy Spirit would convince people of the judgment to come. Satan has been judged, so all who side with him will be judged with him.

16:12 you. Here, this refers to the apostles. Technically, what the Lord says about the ministry of the Holy Spirit in verses 12–15 applies primarily to the apostles. That ministry was threefold: (1) He would guide them into all truth (v. 13); (2) He would tell them of the future (v. 13); and (3) He would help them glorify Christ (vv. 14–15). Jesus’ words were fulfilled in the apostles’ preaching and writings.

16:13 Spirit of truth. The phrase means that the Holy Spirit is the source of truth (14:17; 15:26). guide. The Holy Spirit would not compel or carry the disciples into truth. He would lead; their job was to follow.

16:14 glorify Me. The Holy Spirit glorifies Christ by declaring Him or making Him known. It is the work of the Holy Spirit to throw light on Jesus Christ, who is the image of the invisible God. Christ is to be on center stage; that is the desire of both the Father and the Spirit. The apostles received truth from the Holy Spirit, truth about things to come, and truth about Christ. Then, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, they wrote those truths in documents known today as the New Testament.

16:18 A little while. The biggest question weighing on the disciples’ minds was the time factor. They simply did not understand the strange intervals marked by their separation from Jesus.

16:21 A woman, when she is in labor. Jesus used the example of a pregnant woman whose sorrow is transformed into joy in the birth of a child.

16:26 I shall pray the Father for you. Because Jesus provides forgiveness of sins through His death and now intercedes for all believers at the right hand of the Father (Heb. 7:25), we have direct access to the Father. We do not need the intercession of a priest, because Jesus acts as our High Priest before God.

16:31 Do you now believe? We continue in the Christian life the same way we begin, by believing in Jesus. The more we learn of Christ, the more we have to believe. The more we place our trust in Jesus, the more we receive. The more we receive, the more we can accomplish for His glory.

Jesus Prays for Himself

17 Jesus spoke these words, lifted up His eyes to heaven, and said: “Father, <sup>e</sup>the hour has come. Glorify Your Son, that Your Son also may glorify You, <sup>2b</sup>as You have given Him authority over all flesh, that He should* give eternal life to as many <sup>c</sup>as You have given Him. <sup>3</sup>And <sup>d</sup>this is eternal life, that they may know You, <sup>e</sup>the only true God, and Jesus Christ <sup>f</sup>whom You have sent. <sup>4</sup>I have glorified You on the earth. <sup>h</sup>I have finished the work <sup>i</sup>which You have given Me to do. <sup>5</sup>And now, O Father, glorify Me together with Yourself, with the glory <sup>j</sup>which I had with You before the world was.

Jesus Prays for His Disciples

<sup>6k</sup>“I have manifested Your name to the men <sup>l</sup>whom You have given Me out of the world. <sup>m</sup>They were Yours, You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your word. <sup>n</sup>Now they have known that all things which You have given Me are from You. <sup>8</sup>For I have given to them the words <sup>h</sup>which You have given Me; and they have received <sup>them</sup>, <sup>o</sup>and have known surely that I came forth from You; and they have believed that <sup>p</sup>You sent Me.

<sup>9</sup>“I pray for them. <sup>q</sup>I do not pray for the world but for those whom You have given Me, for they are Yours. <sup>10</sup>And all Mine are Yours, and <sup>r</sup>Yours are Mine, and I am glorified in them. <sup>11</sup>Now I am no longer in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to You. Holy Father, <sup>l</sup>keep through

Your name those whom You have given Me,* that they may be one <sup>c</sup>as We are.

Jesus Prays for All Believers

<sup>20</sup>“I do not pray for these alone, but also for those who will* believe in Me through their word; <sup>21</sup>that they all may be one, as <sup>h</sup>You, Father, are in Me, and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me. <sup>22</sup>And the <sup>g</sup>glory which You gave Me I have given them, <sup>h</sup>that they may be one just as We are

17:1–2 the hour has come. Throughout the Gospel of John, Jesus referred to the cross as His “hour” (2:4; 7:30; 8:20; 12:23; 13:1). The time for Him to die had arrived. Glorify Your Son. Jesus was asking that His mission to the world would be made known through the cross. The reasons for this request are twofold: (1) that Your Son also may glorify You. In the cross, Jesus reveals the Father to the world, that is, His love and justice, and (2) that, through Jesus’ death on the cross, God would provide forgiveness of sins and give eternal life to all those who believe in His Son.

17:3 that they may know You. Eternal life consists of a growing knowledge of the only true God as opposed to false gods.

17:11 keep through Your name. This verse reveals Jesus’ sensitivity to the plight of His disciples brought on by His departure. He was going to the Father, but they would be left behind. Jesus asked the Father to keep them true to the revelation of God that Jesus had given to them while He was with them. The disciples would have a new union with the Father and Son through the future indwelling of the Holy Spirit.

17:14–16 of the world. This verse has profound implications for discipleship. Our desire should not be to isolate ourselves from the world, but to use Christ’s Word and the Holy Spirit’s power to serve Him while our life lasts. Yet, at the same time, we should not become like the world, succumbing to the evil influences of the world.

17:17 Sanctify them. This means “to set apart.” There are two ways to understand this statement: (1) as separate for holiness, or (2) as set apart for service. According to the first view, Jesus was praying not only that the disciples should be kept from evil, but that they should advance in holiness.

17:21 that they all may be one. The present tense of the verb “to be” indicates that Jesus was praying for the unity that takes place through the sanctification of believers. This is what Jesus was commanding in 13:34–35.

17:22 the glory. This is the revelation of Jesus Christ

one: <sup>23</sup>I in them, and You in Me; <sup>k</sup>that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that You have sent Me, and have loved them as You have loved Me.

<sup>24</sup><sup>i</sup>“Father, I desire that they also whom You gave Me may be with Me where I am, that they may behold My glory which You have given Me; <sup>m</sup>for You loved Me before the foundation of the world. <sup>25</sup>O righteous Father! <sup>n</sup>The world has not known You, but <sup>o</sup>I have known You; and <sup>p</sup>these have known that You sent Me. <sup>26</sup><sup>a</sup>And I have declared to them Your name, and will declare it, that the love <sup>r</sup>with which You loved Me may be in them, and I in them.”

Betrayal and Arrest in Gethsemane

Jesus said to them, “I am He.” And Judas, who <sup>g</sup>betrayed Him, also stood with them. <sup>6</sup>Now when He said to them, “I am He,” they drew back and fell to the ground.

And they said, “Jesus of Nazareth.”

<sup>8</sup>Jesus answered, “I have told you that I am He. Therefore, if you seek Me, let these go their way.” <sup>9</sup>that the saying might be fulfilled which He spoke, <sup>h</sup>“Of those whom You gave Me I have lost none.”

<sup>11</sup>So Jesus said to Peter, “Put your sword into the sheath. Shall I not drink the cup which My Father has given Me?”

Before the High Priest

<sup>12</sup>Then the detachment of troops and the captain and the officers of the Jews arrested Jesus and bound Him. <sup>13</sup>And <sup>k</sup>they led Him away to <sup>l</sup>Annas first, for he was the father-in-law of <sup>m</sup>Caiaphas who was high priest that year. <sup>14</sup><sup>n</sup>Now it was Caiaphas who advised the Jews that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

Peter Denies Jesus

<sup>15</sup><sup>o</sup>And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did <sup>p</sup>another* disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest. <sup>16</sup><sup>q</sup>But Peter stood at the door outside. Then the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought Peter in. <sup>17</sup>Then the servant girl who kept the door said to Peter, “You are not also one of this Man’s disciples, are you?”

He said, “I am not.”

<sup>18</sup>Now the servants and officers who had made a fire of coals stood there, for it was cold, and they warmed themselves. And Peter stood with them and warmed himself.

Jesus Questioned by the High Priest

through His disciples and is the means to unity. Such unity begins with belief and correct thinking about Jesus and God the Father, that is, with doctrine. But correct belief must bear fruit—a life that demonstrates God’s love and produces unity between all believers.

17:23 I in them, and You in me. The mutual indwelling of the Father in the Son and the Son in the church is also the means to unity, the ultimate expression of God’s love (13:35; Rom. 8:17).

18:1 Brook Kidron. A brook was located in a ravine that was between Jerusalem and the Mount of Olives.

18:3 officers. These were members of the temple police under the command of the Jewish council, the Sanhedrin.

18:13 Annas. Annas was high priest from A.D. 7 to 14. He was deposed by the Romans. Then Caiaphas, Annas’ son-in-law, was appointed to the position and served from A.D. 18 to 37. However, according to Jewish law the high priest was a lifetime position, so the Jews still considered Annas to be high priest. Therefore, they took Jesus to Annas first.

18:15 another disciple. Although this other disciple is never identified, the consensus is that he was John, the author of this Gospel.

18:21 Ask those who have heard. According to the law, the witnesses for the defense had to be called

<sup>23</sup>Jesus answered him, “If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil; but if well, why do you strike Me?”

Peter Denies Twice More

He denied it and said, “I am not!”

<sup>26</sup>One of the servants of the high priest, a relative of him whose ear Peter cut off, said, “Did I not see you in the garden with Him?”

In Pilate's Court

<sup>28b</sup>Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the Praetorium, and it was early morning. <sup>c</sup>But they themselves did not go into the Praetorium, lest they should be defiled, but that they might eat the Passover. <sup>29d</sup>Pilate then went out to them and said, “What accusation do you bring against this Man?”

<sup>30</sup>They answered and said to him, “If He were not an evildoer, we would not have delivered Him up to you.”

<sup>31</sup>Then Pilate said to them, “You take Him and judge Him according to your law.”

Therefore the Jews said to him, “It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death,” <sup>32e</sup>that the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled which He spoke, <sup>f</sup>signifying by what death He would die.

<sup>33g</sup>Then Pilate entered the Praetorium again, called Jesus, and said to Him, “Are You the King of the Jews?”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus answered him, “Are you speaking for yourself about this, or did others tell you this concerning Me?”

<sup>35</sup>Pilate answered, “Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests have delivered You to me. What have You done?”

<sup>36h</sup>Jesus answered, “My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My servants would fight, so that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now My kingdom is not from here.”

Jesus answered, “You say rightly that I am a king. For this cause I was born, and for this cause I have come into the world, that I should bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice.”

<sup>38</sup>Pilate said to Him, “What is truth?” And when he had said this, he went out again to the Jews, and said to them, <sup>n</sup>“I find no fault in Him at all.

Taking the Place of Barabbas

<sup>39o</sup>“But you have a custom that I should release someone to you at the Passover. Do you therefore want me to release to you the King of the Jews?”

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

first. Jesus should not have been questioned until witnesses had testified.

18:27 Peter then denied again. For the third time, Peter denied the Lord, as Jesus had said he would (13:38). In the upper room, Peter had boasted that he would remain true to the Lord to the end (13:37; Matt. 26:33,35). In the garden he surrendered to the desires of his body by sleeping three times when the Lord had commanded the disciples to stay up in prayer (Mark 14:34–42). Now he submitted to the pressure of the world and denied the Lord three times.

18:28 the Praetorium. This was probably the Roman governor's official residence, the Fortress Antonia near the temple.

18:29–30 What accusation. Pilate was not ignorant of the accusation. He was merely requesting that it be formally stated.

18:31 It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death. The Romans did not allow the Jews to impose capital punishment. These Jewish leaders had no interest in a just trial; they simply wanted permission from Rome to have Jesus executed.

18:34 Are you speaking for yourself. In reply to Pilate, Jesus gave no violent protest of innocence, nor was He sullenly defiant. Jesus politely but directly asked whether Pilate was asking on his own initiative or whether the charge was secondhand. If Pilate's question originated with him, he was using king in the Roman sense of political ruler. If not, then king was being used in the Jewish sense of the messianic king.

18:38 What is truth? This question has been interpreted as (1) a cynical denial of the possibility of knowing truth; (2) a contemptuous jest at anything so impractical as abstract truth; and (3) a desire to know what no one had been able to tell him. no fault. This is a legal term meaning that there were no grounds for a criminal charge.

18:39 you have a custom. It appears that some in the crowd suggested that a prisoner should be released in honor of the Passover (Mark 15:8,11). Pilate jumped at the possible compromise. By promising to release Jesus on account of the custom rather than by proclaiming Him innocent, Pilate would avoid insulting the Jewish leaders, who had already pronounced Him guilty.

twisted a crown of thorns and put it on His head, and they put on Him a purple robe. <sup>3</sup>Then they said,* “Hail, King of the Jews!” And they <sup>b</sup>struck Him with their hands.

<sup>4</sup>Pilate then went out again, and said to them, “Behold, I am bringing Him out to you, <sup>c</sup>that you may know that I find no fault in Him.”

Pilate's Decision

<sup>6d</sup>Therefore, when the chief priests and officers saw Him, they cried out, saying, “Crucify Him, crucify Him!”

Pilate said to them, “You take Him and crucify Him, for I find no fault in Him.”

<sup>7</sup>The Jews answered him, <sup>e</sup>“We have a law, and according to our* law He ought to die, because <sup>f</sup>He made Himself the Son of God.”

<sup>8</sup>Therefore, when Pilate heard that saying, he was the more afraid, <sup>9</sup>and went again into the Praetorium, and said to Jesus, “Where are You from?” <sup>8</sup>But Jesus gave him no answer.

<sup>10</sup>Then Pilate said to Him, “Are You not speaking to me? Do You not know that I have power to crucify You, and power to release You?”

<sup>13k</sup>When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus out and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called The Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha. <sup>14</sup>Now <sup>l</sup>it was the Preparation Day of the Passover, and about the sixth hour. And he said to the Jews, “Behold your King!”

<sup>15</sup>But they cried out, “Away with Him, away with Him! Crucify Him!”

Pilate said to them, “Shall I crucify your King?”

The chief priests answered, <sup>m</sup>“We have no king but Caesar!”

<sup>16n</sup>Then he delivered Him to them to be crucified. Then they took Jesus and led Him away.*

The King on a Cross

OF THE JEWS.

<sup>20</sup>Then many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin.

<sup>21</sup>Therefore the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, “Do not write, ‘The King of the Jews,’ but, ‘He said, ‘I am the King of the Jews.’”

<sup>23s</sup>Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took His garments and made four parts, to each soldier a part, and also the tunic. Now the tunic was without seam, woven from the top in one piece. <sup>24</sup>They said therefore among themselves, “Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be,” that the Scripture might be fulfilled which says:

* 19:16 NU-Text omits and led Him away.

19:4 *I am bringing Him out to you. Perhaps Pilate was appealing to the people’s compassion so that he could release Jesus.

19:7 *We have a law. The Jewish leaders were telling Pilate, “If you are appealing to us, we say that, according to our law, He must die.” As governor, Pilate was bound by Roman custom to respect Jewish law. He made Himself the Son of God. The Jewish leaders were accusing Jesus of violating the laws against blasphemy (Lev. 24:16).

19:9 *Jesus gave him no answer. Three times Pilate had publicly pronounced Jesus innocent (18:38; 19:4,6).

19:12 *you are not Caesar’s friend. The Jews shifted their focus from the religious charge (v. 7) to the political charge (18:33), which they backed up with an appeal to Caesar’s own political interest. This new plea forced Pilate to choose between yielding to an indefinite sense of right or escaping the danger of an accusation from Rome.

19:19 *wrote a title. It was a Roman custom to write the name of the condemned person and his crime on a plaque to be placed above his head at execution.

19:20 *written in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin. Multilingual inscriptions were common. The title was written in the local, common, and official languages of the day. Everyone could read the message in his or her own language.

19:23 *the soldiers. According to Roman law, the garments of a condemned criminal belonged to the executioners. Jesus had two items of clothing. The cloak was a large, loose garment. The tunic was a close-fitting garment that went from the neck to the knees.

19:24 *cast lots. The outer garment could be

And for My clothing they cast lots."<sup>*t</sup>

Therefore the soldiers did these things.

Behold Your Mother

It Is Finished

Jesus' Side Is Pierced

Jesus Buried in Joseph's Tomb

The Empty Tomb

<sup>3e</sup>Peter therefore went out, and the other disciple, and were going to the tomb. <sup>4</sup>So they both ran together, and the other disciple outran Peter and came to the tomb first. <sup>5</sup>And he, stooping down and looking in, saw <sup>f</sup>the linen cloths lying <sup>there</sup>; yet he conveniently divided, but the inner garment could not. Thus, the soldiers divided the outer one and cast lots for the inner one. Unknowingly, the soldiers fulfilled David's prophecy in Psalm 22:18.

19:30 It is finished. Having fulfilled every command of the Father and every prophecy of Scripture, Jesus voluntarily died. This was not a cry of exhaustion, but of completion. Jesus had done what He had agreed to do.

19:31 the Preparation Day. This day was Friday, the day before the Sabbath. Bodies should not remain on the cross. It is ironic that in the midst of a deliberate judicial murder the Jews were scrupulous about keeping the ceremonial law. According to Jewish law (Deut. 21:23), it was necessary to remove the bodies of executed criminals before sunset. To avoid breaking the law, the Jews requested that the legs of the condemned be broken so that the men would die quickly and could be removed from their crosses. With his legs broken, a victim could no longer lift his body in order to breathe and would soon suffocate.

19:34 one of the soldiers pierced His side. After the soldier did this, blood and water came out, indicating that Jesus was already dead. Only blood would have flowed from a living body.

19:35 he who has seen. John's words can be trusted because he is giving an eyewitness account, so that his readers will believe that Jesus is the Savior.

20:2 They have taken away the Lord. Mary Magdalene jumped to the wrong conclusion.

20:5 the linen cloths lying. No one who came to did not go in. <sup>6</sup>Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb; and he saw the linen cloths lying there, <sup>7</sup>and <sup>8</sup>the handkerchief that had been around His head, not lying with the linen cloths, but folded together in a place by itself. <sup>8</sup>Then the <sup>9</sup>other disciple, who came to the tomb first, went in also; and he saw and believed. <sup>9</sup>For as yet they did not know the <sup>10</sup>Scripture, that He must rise again from the dead. <sup>10</sup>Then the disciples went away again to their own homes.

Mary Magdalene Sees the Risen Lord

<sup>11</sup>But Mary stood outside by the tomb weeping, and as she wept she stooped down and looked into the tomb. <sup>12</sup>And she saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. <sup>13</sup>Then they said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?”

She said to them, “Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him.”

<sup>14</sup>Now when she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, and <sup>15</sup>did not know that it was Jesus. <sup>15</sup>Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?”

She, supposing Him to be the gardener, said to Him, “Sir, if You have carried Him away, tell me where You have laid Him, and I will take Him away.”

She turned and said to Him, <sup>17</sup>“Rabboni!” (which is to say, Teacher).

<sup>17</sup>Jesus said to her, “Do not cling to Me, for I have not yet <sup>18</sup>ascended to My Father; but go to <sup>19</sup>My brethren and say to them, <sup>20</sup>‘I am ascending to My Father and your Father, and to <sup>21</sup>My God and your God.’”

<sup>18</sup>Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord,* and that He had spoken these things to her.

The Apostles Commissioned

were shut where the disciples were assembled,* for <sup>20</sup>fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them, <sup>21</sup>“Peace be with you.” <sup>20</sup>When He had said this, He <sup>22</sup>showed them His hands and His side. <sup>23</sup>Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord.

<sup>21</sup>So Jesus said to them again, “Peace to you! <sup>22</sup>As the Father has sent Me, I also send you.” <sup>22</sup>And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>23</sup>If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.”

Seeing and Believing

So he said to them, “Unless I see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe.”

<sup>26</sup>And after eight days His disciples were again inside, and Thomas with them. Jesus came, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, “Peace to you!” <sup>27</sup>Then He said to Thomas, “Reach your finger here, and look at My hands; and <sup>28</sup>reach your hand here, and put it into My side. Do not be <sup>29</sup>unbelieving, but believing.”

<sup>28</sup>And Thomas answered and said to Him, “My Lord and my God!”

That You May Believe

<sup>30</sup>And <sup>31</sup>truly Jesus did many other signs in the presence of His disciples, which are steal the body would have taken the time to unwrap it and leave the clothes behind.

20:6 saw the linen cloths. The Greek term implies an intense stare, in contrast to the more casual look described in verse 5. Peter went into the tomb to get a good look. He carefully examined the place where Jesus’ body had been.

20:9 they did not know the Scripture. The disciples believed because of what they saw in the tomb (v. 8), not because of what they knew from Old Testament passages describing the Savior’s resurrection (Luke 24:25–27). Jesus had prophesied His death and resurrection in the disciples’ presence, but the disciples had not understood what He was talking about.

20:17 Do not cling to Me. This means “to fasten oneself to” or “to hold.” Mary had grabbed Christ and was holding on to Him as if she would never turn Him loose.

20:19 Jesus came and stood in the midst. Christ’s appearance was miraculous because the doors were shut. Jesus, as God, could perform a variety of miracles without requiring a change in His humanity. Here Christ’s body was a physical body, the same body in which He died and was buried. The difference is that His flesh had been changed to take on immortality and incorruptibility (1 Cor. 15:53).

not written in this book; <sup>31e</sup>but these are written that <sup>f</sup>you may believe that Jesus <sup>g</sup>is the Christ, the Son of God, <sup>h</sup>and that believing you may have life in His name.

Breakfast by the Sea

They said to him, “We are going with you also.” They went out and immediately <sup>f</sup>got into the boat, and that night they caught nothing. <sup>4</sup>But when the morning had now come, Jesus stood on the shore; yet the disciples <sup>g</sup>did not know that it was Jesus. <sup>5</sup>Then <sup>g</sup>Jesus said to them, “Children, have you any food?”

They answered Him, “No.”

<sup>6</sup>And He said to them, <sup>h</sup>“Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some.” So they cast, and now they were not able to draw it in because of the multitude of fish.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore <sup>i</sup>that disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, “It is the Lord!” Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on <sup>j</sup>his outer garment (for he had removed it), and plunged into the sea. <sup>8</sup>But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from land, but about two hundred cubits), dragging the net with fish. <sup>9</sup>Then, as soon as they had come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread. <sup>10</sup>Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish which you have just caught.”

<sup>11</sup>Simon Peter went up and dragged the net to land, full of large fish, one hundred and fifty-three; and although there were so many, the net was not broken. <sup>12</sup>Jesus said to them, <sup>j</sup>“Come and eat breakfast.” Yet none of the disciples dared ask Him, “Who are You?”—knowing that it was the Lord. <sup>13</sup>Jesus then came and took the bread and gave it to them, and likewise the fish.

Jesus Restores Peter

<sup>15</sup>So when they had eaten breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon, son of Jonah,* do you love Me more than these?”

He said to Him, “Yes, Lord; You know that I love You.”

He said to him, <sup>l</sup>“Feed My lambs.”

<sup>16</sup>He said to him again a second time, “Simon, son of Jonah,* do you love Me?”

<sup>17</sup>He said to him the third time, “Simon, son of Jonah,* do you love Me?” Peter was grieved because He said to him the third time, “Do you love Me?”

And he said to Him, “Lord, <sup>o</sup>You know all things; You know that I love You.”

Jesus said to him, <sup>p</sup>“Feed My sheep.” <sup>18p</sup>Most assuredly, I say to you, when you were younger, you girded yourself and walked where you wished; but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will gird you and carry you where you do not wish.” <sup>19</sup>This He spoke, signifying <sup>q</sup>by what death he would glorify God. And when He had spoken this, He said to him, <sup>r</sup>“Follow Me.”

The Beloved Disciple and His Book

<sup>22</sup>Jesus said to him, “If I will that he remain <sup>u</sup>till I come, what is <sup>v</sup>that to you? You follow Me.”

<sup>23</sup>Then this saying went out among the brethren that this disciple would not die. Yet Jesus did not say to him that he would not die, but, “If I will that he remain till I come, what is <sup>v</sup>that to you?”

20:31 that you may believe. John states the purpose of his book, which was to convince his readers that Jesus is the Christ, the Messiah who fulfilled God's promises to Israel. Jesus is the Son of God, God in the flesh. By believing these things, a person obtains eternal life (1:12).

21:4 the disciples did not know. Perhaps the apostles did not recognize Jesus because they were preoccupied with their work, as Mary Magdalene had been with her sorrow (20:14). In addition, there was not much light at this time of day.

21:7 Peter . . . plunged into the sea. John was the first to recognize the Lord; Peter was the first to act.

21:17 You know that I love You. Peter denied the Lord at least three times. Here, he affirmed his love for the third time.

21:20–21 the disciple whom Jesus loved. This is commonly considered to be John, the author of this Gospel.

<sup>24</sup>This is the disciple who <sup>v</sup>testifies of these things, and wrote these things; and we know that his testimony is true.

<sup>25w</sup>And there are also many other things that Jesus did, which if they were written one by one, <sup>x</sup>I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that would be written. Amen.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

► AUTHOR: There are many “we” sections in Acts that imply the author was present for these events (16:10–17; 20:5—21:18; 27:1—28:16). These sections of Acts are the historical record of an eyewitness. For the remainder of this book, Luke no doubt followed the same careful investigative procedures that he used in writing his Gospel (Luke 1:1–4). As a close traveling companion of Paul, Luke had access to the principal eyewitness for chapters 13–18. It is also likely that he had opportunities to interview such key witnesses in Jerusalem as Peter and John for the information in chapters 13–28. Modern archaeological discoveries have strikingly confirmed the trustworthiness and precision of Luke as an historian.

► TIME: c. A.D. 33–62    ► KEY VERSES: Acts 2:42–47

► THEME: Acts is the record of how the events surrounding Jesus’ life and death and resurrection resulted in this worldwide movement called the church. The book is certainly not a comprehensive history. Acts is more like a photo album of snapshots. It is the record of an eyewitness who wrote about what he saw and what seemed to be the critical events in the beginnings of the church and its movement out of Jerusalem to the rest of the world. One could say that the Book of Acts is an elaboration on Acts 1:8: “But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.”

Prologue

1 The former account I made, O <sup>a</sup>Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach, <sup>2b</sup>until the day in which He was taken up, after He through the Holy Spirit <sup>c</sup>had given commandments to the apostles whom He had chosen, <sup>3d</sup>to whom He also presented Himself alive after His suffering by many infallible proofs, being seen by them during forty days and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God.

The Holy Spirit Promised

<sup>4e</sup>And being assembled together with them, He commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the Promise of the Father, “which,” He said, “you have <sup>f</sup>heard from Me; <sup>5g</sup>for John truly baptized with water, <sup>h</sup>but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now.” <sup>6</sup>Therefore, when they had come together, they asked Him, saying, “Lord, will You at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?” <sup>7</sup>And He said to them, “It is not for you to <sup>i</sup>know times or seasons which the Father has put in His own authority. <sup>8k</sup>But you shall receive power <sup>l</sup>when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and <sup>m</sup>you shall be witnesses to Me* in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and <sup>n</sup>Samaria, and to the <sup>o</sup>end of the earth.”

* 1:8 NU-Text reads My witnesses.

1:3 many infallible proofs. This is the only time the Greek word tekmerion occurs, emphasizing the certainty of the resurrection.

1:5 Baptism—The promised Holy Spirit (Is. 32:15; Joel 2:28–32) is a gift to believers after the glorification of Jesus (John 7:39). John baptized for forgiveness of sins, but the outpouring of the Spirit resulted from Christ’s victory and exaltation to God’s right hand (2:33). Believers are sealed until redemption (Eph. 1:13), made one body, and caused to drink of one Spirit (1 Cor. 12:13). The baptism of the Spirit is the immersion in the Spirit and uniting of believers into one body.

1:8 Living by Faith—God designed the Christian life to be one lived in the power of the Holy Spirit. Believers must appropriate daily, by faith, the power of the Holy Spirit to live as Christians (Rom. 8:4–5). This means that the believer trusts the Spirit to empower him in specific instances such as resisting temptation, being faithful, and sharing one’s faith. There is no secret formula that makes the Spirit’s power operational in our lives. Scripture tells us that the Spirit dwells and operates in us (1 Cor. 6:9). We have to learn by experience through interaction with God to understand how that dynamic works. First the disciples received the Holy Spirit. Then He gave them

Jesus Ascends to Heaven

The Upper Room Prayer Meeting

Matthias Chosen

And let no one live in it!”** and,

<sup>21</sup>Therefore, of these men who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord

Jesus went in and out among us, <sup>22</sup>beginning from the baptism of John to that day when <sup>23</sup>He was taken up from us, one of these must <sup>24</sup>become a witness with us of His resurrection.”

<sup>23</sup>And they proposed two: Joseph called <sup>24</sup>Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. <sup>25</sup>And they prayed and said, “You, O Lord, <sup>26</sup>who know the hearts of all, show which of these two You have chosen <sup>27</sup>to take part in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.” <sup>28</sup>And they cast their lots, and the lot fell on Matthias. And he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

Coming of the Holy Spirit

2 When <sup>1</sup>the Day of Pentecost had fully come, <sup>2</sup>they were all with one accord* in one place. <sup>3</sup>And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it <sup>4</sup>filled the whole house where they were sitting. <sup>5</sup>Then there appeared to them divided tongues, as of fire, and <sup>6</sup>one sat upon each of them. <sup>7</sup>And <sup>8</sup>they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began <sup>9</sup>to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

The Crowd’s Response

<sup>5</sup>And there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, <sup>6</sup>devout men, from every nation under heaven. <sup>7</sup>And when this sound occurred, the <sup>8</sup>multitude came together, and were confused, because everyone heard them speak in his own language. <sup>9</sup>Then they were all amazed and marveled, saying to one another, “Look, are not all these who speak <sup>10</sup>Galileans? <sup>11</sup>And how is it that we hear, each in our own language in which we were born? <sup>12</sup>Parthians and Medes and Elamites, those dwelling in Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, <sup>13</sup>Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya adjoining Cyrene, visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, <sup>14</sup>Cretans and Arabs—we hear them speaking in our own tongues the wonderful works of God.” <sup>15</sup>So they were all power and finally the disciples were told they would be Christ’s witness to the very ends of the earth. Effective witness requires that we first learn to rely on the Spirit to help us.

1:14 with one accord. The disciples were like-minded; the people put aside personal positions and took on a common goal. True unity is an act of grace.

Peter’s Sermon

<sup>14</sup>But Peter, standing up with the eleven, raised his voice and said to them, “Men of Judea and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and heed my words.

- <sup>17</sup> *“And<sup>k</sup> it shall come to pass in the last days, says God, <sup>18</sup>That I will pour out of My Spirit on all flesh;
 Your sons and <sup>m</sup>your daughters shall prophesy,
 Your young men shall see visions,
 Your old men shall dream dreams.
<sup>19</sup>And on My menservants and on My maidservants
 I will pour out My Spirit in those days;
 And they shall prophesy.
<sup>20</sup>I will show wonders in heaven above
 And signs in the earth beneath:
 Blood and fire and vapor of smoke.
<sup>21</sup>The sun shall be turned into darkness,
 And the moon into blood,
 Before the coming of the great and awesome day of the LORD.
 And it shall come to pass
 That <sup>q</sup>whoever calls on the name of the LORD Shall be saved.”**

<sup>22</sup>“Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a Man attested by God to you <sup>r</sup>by miracles, wonders, and signs which God did through Him in your midst, as you yourselves also know—<sup>23</sup>Him, <sup>s</sup>being delivered by the determined purpose and foreknowledge of God, <sup>t</sup>you have taken* by lawless hands, have crucified, and put to death; <sup>24</sup>whom God raised up, having loosed the pains of death, because it was not possible that He should be held by it. <sup>25</sup>For David says concerning Him:

*“I foresaw the LORD always before my face,
 For He is at my right hand, that I may not be shaken.*

<sup>26</sup> *Therefore my heart rejoiced, and my tongue was glad;
 Moreover my flesh also will rest in hope.*

<sup>27</sup> For You will not leave my soul in Hades,

Nor will You allow Your Holy One to see <sup>w</sup>corruption.

<sup>28</sup> *You have made known to me the ways of life;
 You will make me full of joy in Your presence.”**

<sup>29</sup>“Men and brethren, let me speak freely to you <sup>x</sup>of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. <sup>30</sup>Therefore, being a prophet, <sup>y</sup>and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that of the fruit of his body, according to the flesh, He would raise up the Christ to sit on his throne,* <sup>31</sup>he, foreseeing this, spoke concerning the resurrection of the Christ, <sup>z</sup>that His soul was not left in Hades, nor did His flesh see corruption. <sup>32</sup><sup>a</sup>This Jesus God has raised up, <sup>b</sup>of which we are all witnesses. <sup>33</sup>Therefore <sup>c</sup>being exalted to <sup>d</sup>the right hand of God, and <sup>e</sup>having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, He <sup>f</sup>poured out this which you now see and hear.

 ‘Sit at My right hand,*

<sup>36</sup>“Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly that God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ.”

<sup>37</sup>Now when they heard this, <sup>h</sup>they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, “Men and brethren, what shall we do?”

<sup>38</sup>Then Peter said to them, <sup>i</sup>“Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the

2:17 visions . . . dreams. The Holy Spirit was poured out on the church at the beginning of this final age of Scripture.

2:37 Conviction of the Holy Spirit—Peter’s preaching was extremely effective, for it came “in power, and in the Holy Spirit and in much assurance” (1 Thess. 1:5). The result was they were “cut to the heart.” Their response was, “brethren, what shall we do?” The reality was that conviction by the Holy Spirit brought about a real search for an answer. Such a consciousness of sin is an indispensable prerequisite to conversion.

2:38 Repent. Peter called the Jews to turn their backs on their former lives and change. Faith involves an action of belief by those who accept Jesus.

A Vital Church Grows

<sup>40</sup>And with many other words he testified and exhorted them, saying, “Be saved from this perverse generation.” <sup>41</sup>Then those who gladly* received his word were baptized; and that day about three thousand souls were added to them. <sup>42</sup>And they continued steadfastly in the apostles’ doctrine and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in prayers. <sup>43</sup>Then fear came upon every soul, and <sup>44</sup>many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. <sup>45</sup>Now all who believed were together, and <sup>46</sup>had all things in common, <sup>47</sup>and sold their possessions and goods, and <sup>48</sup>divided them among all, as anyone had need.

A Lame Man Healed

and praising God. <sup>15</sup>And all the people saw him walking and praising God. <sup>16</sup>Then they knew that it was he who <sup>17</sup>sat begging alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

Preaching in Solomon’s Portico

<sup>11</sup>Now as the lame man who was healed held on to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch <sup>12</sup>which is called Solomon’s, greatly amazed. <sup>13</sup>So when Peter saw it, he responded to the people: “Men of Israel, why do you marvel at this? Or why look so intently at us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made this man walk? <sup>14</sup>The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, <sup>15</sup>glorified His Servant Jesus, whom you <sup>16</sup>delivered up and <sup>17</sup>denied in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let Him go. <sup>18</sup>But you denied <sup>19</sup>the Holy One <sup>20</sup>and the Just, and <sup>21</sup>asked for a murderer to be granted to you, <sup>22</sup>and killed the Prince of life, <sup>23</sup>whom God raised from the dead, <sup>24</sup>of which we are witnesses. <sup>25</sup>And His name, through faith in His name, has made this man strong, whom you see and know. Yes, the faith which <sup>26</sup>comes through Him has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

2:42–47 Being in the Church—Converts were apparently immediately incorporated into the body of believers that became the church. Being involved in the Jerusalem church clearly must have changed the lives of these new believers dramatically. This was manifested in several ways: (1) they devoted themselves to new teaching; (2) they thought differently about all their possessions; (3) they became people of prayer; and (4) they ate and worshiped together with unified hearts. They weren’t just saved from sin. They were saved to Christ and to this new body called the church, which of course is also His. We are called to be a part of one another’s lives. We are to learn, share, pray, and worship together. As a body of believers, God expects us to have great concern for our fellow believers and to help one another mature.

3:7 strength. This account is told by a physician who describes instant healing. Before their eyes strength is given to muscles and bones. The man’s feet could instantly hold his weight.

3:19 Repent therefore and be converted. Peter challenges all to change their minds and change their courses. Not only is their sin addressed but their closed minds.

holy prophets since the world began. <sup>22</sup>For Moses truly said to the fathers, “The LORD your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from your brethren. Him you shall hear in all things, whatever He says to you.” <sup>23</sup>And it shall be that every soul who will not hear that Prophet shall be utterly destroyed from among the people.”* <sup>24</sup>Yes, and <sup>b</sup>all the prophets, from Samuel and those who follow, as many as have spoken, have also foretold* these days. <sup>25c</sup>You are sons of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, “And in your seed all the families of the earth shall be blessed.” <sup>26</sup>To you <sup>e</sup>first, God, having raised up His Servant Jesus, sent Him to bless you, <sup>f</sup>in turning away every one of you from your iniquities.”

Peter and John Arrested

4 Now as they spoke to the people, the <sup>a</sup>priests, the captain of the temple, and the <sup>a</sup>Sadducees came upon them, <sup>2</sup>being greatly disturbed that they taught the people and preached in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. <sup>3</sup>And they laid hands on them, and put them in custody until the next day, for it was already evening. <sup>4</sup>However, many of those who heard the word believed; and the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

Addressing the Sanhedrin

<sup>5</sup>And it came to pass, on the next day, that their rulers, elders, and scribes, <sup>6</sup>as well as <sup>b</sup>Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the family of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup>And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, “By what power or by what name have you done this?”

<sup>8d</sup>Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, “Rulers of the people and elders of Israel: <sup>9</sup>If we this day are judged for a good deed done to a helpless man, by what means he has been made well, <sup>10</sup>let it be known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, <sup>e</sup>that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, <sup>f</sup>whom God raised from the dead, by Him this man stands here before you whole. <sup>11</sup>This is the “stone which was rejected by you builders, which has become the chief cornerstone.” <sup>12h</sup>Nor is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved.”

The Name of Jesus Forbidden

3:22 Messiah—Peter draws on the witness of the prophets who foretold the suffering of Christ. He quotes Moses, who spoke of a prophet like himself from among the Jews (Deut. 18:15–17). The crucified, risen, and ascended Jesus has fulfilled this role perfectly as God’s anointed Servant sent to atone for humans. Jesus carried God’s authority; the words of Jesus must be heeded since they give life to the dying sinner. A person greater than Moses has come to fulfill the prophets. Peter is proclaiming that Jesus is the deliberate fulfillment of God’s promise for redemption.

4:1 Sadducees. The Sadducees were skeptics who rejected all of the Old Testament except the books of Moses, and who denied the resurrection from the dead. Peter’s teaching about the resurrection challenged their beliefs and teaching.

4:5 rulers, elders, and scribes. The Sanhedrin, which consisted of 70 men plus the high priest, was the highest Jewish court. The group consisted of the wealthiest, most educated, and most powerful Jewish men in Israel.

4:8 The Filling of the Holy Spirit—This is the second description in the Book of Acts of someone being filled with the Holy Spirit (see 2:4; 4:31; 9:17; 13:9). The initial filling accompanies the baptism in the Spirit. This filling brought boldness for God’s work. Jesus had promised His disciples that they would stand before kings and rulers and that the Spirit of God within them would implant in their minds exactly what to say to these leaders (Matt. 10:16–20).

4:19 listen to you more than to God. There is no authority apart from God. When human authority rejects God’s authority, it becomes twisted and loses its right to demand compliance (5:29). God’s people are responsible to obey the government because it has been set in place by God, but when government directs against God’s will, the Author of authority has the higher claim on our allegiance. We must resist any command that is against God’s will (Ex. 1; Dan. 3; Heb. 11:23).

is right in the sight of God to listen to you more than to God, you judge. <sup>20</sup>For we cannot but speak the things which <sup>19</sup>we have seen and heard.” <sup>21</sup>So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way of punishing them, <sup>22</sup>because of the people, since they all glorified God for what had been done. <sup>23</sup>For the man was over forty years old on whom this miracle of healing had been performed.

Prayer for Boldness

<sup>24</sup>And being let go, they went to their own companions and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them. <sup>25</sup>So when they heard that, they raised their voice to God with one accord and said: “Lord, You are God, who made heaven and earth and the sea, and all that is in them, <sup>26</sup>who by the mouth of Your servant David* have said:

*“Why did the nations rage,
And the people plot vain things?
The kings of the earth took their stand,
And the rulers were gathered together
Against the LORD and against His Christ.”**

<sup>27</sup>“For truly against Your holy Servant Jesus, whom You anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, were gathered together <sup>28</sup>to do whatever Your hand and Your purpose determined before to be done. <sup>29</sup>Now, Lord, look on their threats, and grant to Your servants that with all boldness they may speak Your word, <sup>30</sup>by stretching out Your hand to heal, and that signs and wonders may be done through the name of Your holy Servant Jesus.”

<sup>31</sup>And when they had prayed, the place where they were assembled together was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness.

Sharing in All Things

<sup>32</sup>Now the multitude of those who believed were of one heart and one soul; neither did anyone say that any of the things he possessed was his own, but they had all things in common. <sup>33</sup>And with great power the apostles gave witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And great grace was upon them all. <sup>34</sup>Nor was there anyone among them who lacked; for all who were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of the things that were sold, <sup>35</sup>and laid them at the apostles’ feet; and they distributed to each as anyone had need.

<sup>36</sup>And Joses,* who was also named Barnabas by the apostles (which is translated Son of Encouragement), a Levite of the country of Cyprus, <sup>37</sup>having land, sold it, and brought the money and laid it at the apostles’ feet.

Lying to the Holy Spirit

5 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession. <sup>2</sup>And he kept back part of the proceeds, his wife also being aware of it, and brought a certain part and laid it at the apostles’ feet. <sup>3</sup>But Peter said, “Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and keep back part of the price of the land for yourself? <sup>4</sup>While it remained, was it not your own? And after it was sold, was it not in your own control? Why have you conceived this thing in your heart? You have not lied to men but to God.”

<sup>5</sup>Then Ananias, hearing these words, fell down and breathed his last. So great fear came upon all those who heard these things. <sup>6</sup>And the young men arose and wrapped him up, carried him out, and buried him.

<sup>7</sup>Now it was about three hours later when his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. <sup>8</sup>And Peter answered her, “Tell me whether you sold the land for so much?”

She said, “Yes, for so much.”

<sup>9</sup>Then Peter said to her, “How is it that you have agreed together to test the Spirit of the Lord? Look, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out.” <sup>10</sup>Then immediately she fell down at his feet and breathed her last. And the young men came in and found her dead, and carrying

5:3 Filled with Satan—Satan is the father of lies (John 8:44). When Ananias and Sapphira deliberately lied, they took upon themselves the moral character of the one who is behind all lies, the devil himself. A person who is listening to Satan begins to act like Satan; his or her thoughts and actions are “filled with Satan” rather than reflecting the filling and direction of the Holy Spirit. Satan or a demon cannot possess someone who is filled with the Holy Spirit, but by listening to Satan rather than the Holy Spirit a believer can behave like one who belongs to Satan rather than one who belongs to God.

5:4 Holy Spirit—This passage confirms the deity of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is the third Person of the triune Godhead. To lie to Him (v. 3) is to lie to God.

her out, buried her by her husband. <sup>11g</sup>So great fear came upon all the church and upon all who heard these things.

Continuing Power in the Church

Imprisoned Apostles Freed

<sup>17n</sup>Then the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with indignation, <sup>18o</sup>and laid their hands on the apostles and put them in the common prison. <sup>19</sup>But at night <sup>p</sup>an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors and brought them out, and said, <sup>20q</sup>"Go, stand in the temple and speak to the people <sup>r</sup>all the words of this life."

<sup>21</sup>And when they heard that, they entered the temple early in the morning and taught. <sup>r</sup>But the high priest and those with him came and called the council together, with all the elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

Apostles on Trial Again

told them, saying,* "Look, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people!"

<sup>26</sup>Then the captain went with the officers and brought them without violence, <sup>t</sup>for they feared the people, lest they should be stoned. <sup>27</sup>And when they had brought them, they set them before the council. And the high priest asked them, <sup>28</sup>saying, <sup>u</sup>"Did we not strictly command you not to teach in this name? And look, you have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, <sup>v</sup>and intend to bring this Man's <sup>w</sup>"blood on us!"

Gamaliel's Advice

<sup>33</sup>When they heard this, they were <sup>g</sup>furious and plotted to kill them. <sup>34</sup>Then one in the council stood up, a Pharisee named <sup>h</sup>Gamaliel, a teacher of the law held in respect by all the people, and commanded them to put the apostles outside for a little while. <sup>35</sup>And he said to them: "Men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what you intend to do regarding these men. <sup>36</sup>For some time ago Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody. A number of men, about four hundred, joined him. He was slain, and all who obeyed him were scattered and came to nothing. <sup>37</sup>After this man, Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of the census, and drew away many people after him. He also perished, and all who obeyed him were dispersed. <sup>38</sup>And now I say to you, keep away from these men and let them alone; for if this plan or this work is of men, it will come to nothing; <sup>39i</sup>but if it is of God, you cannot overthrow it—lest you even be found <sup>j</sup>to fight against God."

5:12 signs and wonders. These are miraculous occurrences that point to a warning, instruction, or encouragement from God. The signs and wonders which were done among the people at this time gave credibility to the apostles as messengers from God.

5:19 Angels—The word "angel" simply means "messenger." The phrase "angel of the Lord" is commonly used in the Old Testament to refer to spiritual messengers of God.

5:32 witnesses to these things. The witness of the believer is vitally related to the Holy Spirit. Jesus had said that the Holy Spirit would be a witness and that the apostles would be witnesses. The apostles were conscious that they were indwelt by the Holy Spirit of God, and that their witness depended upon this filling. There is a tremendous lesson here for every believer. No one can be a witness for Christ and a herald of the gospel by individual initiative. Empowerment must come from the Holy Spirit.

<sup>40</sup>And they agreed with him, and when they had <sup>k</sup>called for the apostles <sup>l</sup>and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. <sup>41</sup>So they departed from the presence of the council, <sup>m</sup>rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for His* name. <sup>42</sup>And daily <sup>n</sup>in the temple, and in every house, <sup>o</sup>they did not cease teaching and preaching Jesus as the Christ.

Seven Chosen to Serve

Stephen Accused of Blasphemy

words against Moses and God." <sup>12</sup>And they stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes; and they came upon him, seized him, and brought him to the council. <sup>13</sup>They also set up false witnesses who said, "This man does not cease to speak blasphemous* words against this holy place and the law; <sup>14</sup>for we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place and change the customs which Moses delivered to us." <sup>15</sup>And all who sat in the council, looking steadfastly at him, saw his face as the face of an angel.

Stephen's Address: The Call of Abraham

7 Then the high priest said, "Are these things so?"

<sup>2</sup>And he said, <sup>a</sup>"Brethren and fathers, listen: The <sup>b</sup>God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in <sup>c</sup>Haran, <sup>3</sup>and said to him, <sup>d</sup>"Get out of your country and from your relatives, and come to a land that I will show you." <sup>4</sup>Then <sup>e</sup>he came out of the land of the Chaldeans and dwelt in Haran. And from there, when his father was <sup>f</sup>dead, He moved him to this land in which you now dwell. <sup>5</sup>And God gave him no inheritance in it, not even enough to set his foot on. But even when Abraham had no child, <sup>6</sup>He promised to give it to him for a possession, and to his descendants after him. <sup>7</sup>But God spoke in this way: <sup>h</sup>that his descendants would dwell in a foreign land, and that they would bring them into <sup>i</sup>bondage and oppress them four hundred years. <sup>7i</sup><sup>j</sup>And the nation to whom they will be in bondage I will <sup>k</sup>judge,* said God, <sup>l</sup>and after that they shall come out and serve Me in this place.* <sup>8m</sup>Then He gave him the covenant of circumcision; <sup>n</sup>and so Abraham begot Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day; <sup>o</sup>and Isaac begot Jacob, and <sup>p</sup>Jacob begot the twelve patriarchs.

6:3 full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom. The men's lives were consistent with their confession of faith. They knew the will of God and understood how to carry it out in their lives (Eph. 5:15–18). They could be trusted with responsibility and authority.

6:6 laid hands on them. This was not done in order for the men to receive the Holy Spirit, because the seven men were already "full of the Holy Spirit" (vv. 3,5). Instead the apostles were conferring on these men the responsibility of carrying out the ministry. The laying on of hands was a meaningful tradition that dated back to the days of Moses (Num. 27:23); it identified people with the ministries to be performed.

6:8 full of faith and power. Stephen had the gifts, the boldness, and the brilliance to be a powerful witness; yet even his witness would be rejected by the religious leaders. Hearts are opened only by God, not by our gifts, boldness, or brilliance.

The Patriarchs in Egypt

<sup>9a</sup>“And the patriarchs, becoming envious, <sup>9b</sup>‘sold Joseph into Egypt. <sup>9c</sup>But God was with him <sup>10</sup>and delivered him out of all his troubles, <sup>11</sup>and gave him favor and wisdom in the presence of Pharaoh, king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house. <sup>11a</sup>Now a famine and great trouble came over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and our fathers found no sustenance. <sup>12b</sup>But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first. <sup>13</sup>And the <sup>13c</sup>second time Joseph was made known to his brothers, and Joseph’s family became known to the Pharaoh. <sup>14x</sup>Then Joseph sent and called his father Jacob and <sup>14b</sup>all his relatives to him, seventy-five* people. <sup>15z</sup>So Jacob went down to Egypt; <sup>15b</sup>and he died, he and our fathers. <sup>16</sup>And <sup>16b</sup>they were carried back to Shechem and laid in <sup>16c</sup>the tomb that Abraham bought for a sum of money from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem.

God Delivers Israel by Moses

avenged him who was oppressed, and struck down the Egyptian. <sup>25</sup>For he supposed that his brethren would have understood that God would deliver them by his hand, but they did not understand. <sup>26</sup>And the next day he appeared to two of them as they were fighting, and tried to reconcile them, saying, ‘Men, you are brethren; why do you wrong one another?’ <sup>27</sup>But he who did his neighbor wrong pushed him away, saying, ‘Who made you a ruler and a judge over us?’ <sup>28</sup>Do you want to kill me as you did the Egyptian yesterday?’* <sup>29o</sup>Then, at this saying, Moses fled and became a dweller in the land of Midian, where he <sup>29b</sup>had two sons.

symbol were given to Abraham that he might never forget God’s promise to bless him. Abraham was saved by faith in God (Gen. 15:6); the symbol of circumcision was an outward sign of the inward reality of his faith. God’s blessing was not based on the physical fact of circumcision but on genuine faith.

7:16 Shechem. At the time of Stephen’s defense, Shechem was the center of Samaritan life. Mount Gerizim, the Samaritan worship center, was located nearby. Stephen’s point was not to speak against the temple in Jerusalem, but to point out that God had been speaking and moving in the lives of His people not only in Jerusalem or the temple. The most important address God made to His people was at Mount Sinai, which is nowhere near Jerusalem.

7:19 Persecution—Pharaoh enslaved and mistreated the Hebrews, and at the same time he feared their strength. It was his fear that led him to seek their destruction, persecuting them and destroying their children. It is easy to recognize the enormity and evil of the Egyptian persecution of the Jews as a race and a nation, but the ancient Egyptians are not the only ones guilty of such sin. Some of those claiming the name of Christ in recent times have been guilty of mistreating or even enslaving those of a different ethnic background. Feelings of racial superiority have no place in the heart of a Christian.

Israel Rebels Against God

O house of Israel?

*And the star of your god Remphan, Images which you made to worship; And I will carry you away beyond Babylon.”**

God’s True Tabernacle

God of Jacob. <sup>47v</sup>But Solomon built Him a house.

<sup>48</sup>“However, <sup>w</sup>the Most High does not dwell in temples made with hands, as the prophet says:

<sup>49</sup> ‘Heaven<sup>x</sup> is My throne, And earth is My footstool. What house will you build for Me? says the LORD,

*Or what is the place of My rest? Has My hand not<sup>y</sup> made all these things?’**

Israel Resists the Holy Spirit

Stephen the Martyr

7:38 The Meaning of the Church—In modern English the word church is used five ways: (1) a building designated as a place of worship; (2) all who profess faith in Christ; (3) a denomination; (4) a single organized local church; and (5) the body of Christ, that is, the universal church. While all of these may be legitimate uses for modern English, the word church is used in the New Testament in only the last two senses—a local congregation or the body of Christ, the universal church. At its root, the word church means a “called-out group.” It is used for the nation of Israel (7:38), which was a group of people who were called out of the rest of the world to have a special national relationship to God. It is used for a local church (1 Thess. 1:1; Rev. 2:1) and for the universal church, the body of Christ (Col. 1:18). The universal church comprises all believers from the Day of Pentecost until God completes His plan for the world. The local church is a local, visible, temporal manifestation of the universal church.

7:44 tabernacle. The ancient tabernacle had been the focus of the Israelites’ national worship. Even after the miraculous deliverance from Egypt there was a tendency among the people to forget God. The tabernacle was a constant testimony of God’s presence no matter where the people went. Paul tells us that we are the tabernacle, the temple of God (1 Cor. 3:16). We can never move beyond God’s reach, for we carry His presence with us.

7:58 cast him out of the city. Because Jewish law did not allow an execution within the walls of the holy city, the religious leaders took Stephen outside the city. Jerusalem is situated in a stony area and this made Stephen’s hasty (and illegal) execution easy. His executioners had plenty of rocks at hand, they only had to bend over and pick them up (see John 10:31).

man named Saul.<sup>59</sup> And they stoned Stephen as he was calling on God and saying, “Lord Jesus, <sup>k</sup>receive my spirit.”<sup>60</sup> Then he knelt down and cried out with a loud voice, <sup>l</sup>“Lord, do not charge them with this sin.” And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

Saul Persecutes the Church

8 Now Saul was consenting to his death. At that time a great persecution arose against the church which was at Jerusalem; and <sup>a</sup>they were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles. <sup>2</sup>And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and <sup>b</sup>made great lamentation over him.

<sup>3</sup>As for Saul, <sup>c</sup>he made havoc of the church, entering every house, and dragging off men and women, committing them to prison.

Christ Is Preached in Samaria

The Sorcerer's Profession of Faith

<sup>9</sup>But there was a certain man called Simon, who previously <sup>g</sup>practiced sorcery in the city and <sup>h</sup>astonished the people of Samaria, claiming that he was someone great, <sup>10</sup>to whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, “This man is the great power of God.” <sup>11</sup>And they heeded him because he had astonished them with his sorceries for a long time. <sup>12</sup>But when they believed Philip as he preached the things <sup>i</sup>concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, both men and women were baptized. <sup>13</sup>Then Simon himself also believed; and when he was baptized he continued with Philip, and was amazed, seeing the miracles and signs which were done.

The Sorcerer's Sin

<sup>18</sup>And when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money, <sup>19</sup>saying, “Give me this power also, that anyone on whom I lay hands may receive the Holy Spirit.”

<sup>24</sup>Then Simon answered and said, <sup>u</sup>“Pray to the Lord for me, that none of the things which you have spoken may come upon me.”

7:59–60 Death—Scripture affirms, and experience confirms, the universality of death. It comes to kings and commoners, saints and sinners alike. Christians die, as well as unbelievers. No one likes to think of dying violently, but Stephen's death shows that even this end can be met with courage and peace. In both life and death Stephen sought to imitate his Lord, and he departed without resentment, praying for the pardon of his foes.

8:5 Samaria. In the first century, the Jews and Samaritans despised one another. The Jews considered the Samaritans half-breeds and religious deviants. Following the fall of the northern kingdom of Israel in 722 B.C., Samaria had been resettled by colonists brought to the land by the Assyrians. These colonists intermarried with the remaining Jews, and the Samaritans of the New Testament era were descendants of these mixed marriages. Because of their mixed heritage and their rejection of the temple in Jerusalem and most of the Old Testament Scriptures (the Samaritans only accepted the five books of Moses), the Jews considered them to be unclean. The amazing work of the Holy Spirit in forming one fellowship out of Jewish and Samaritan believers indicates that there is no room for racial or ethnic division in His church (Gal. 3:26–28).

8:14–15 that they might receive the Holy Spirit. This episode clearly showed the Samaritans that salvation did come through the Jews, and that the Scriptures they had previously rejected were actually God's message. It also showed the Jewish believers that God had accepted the Samaritan believers fully into His family. The dependence of the Samaritans upon the Jews to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit was the healing sign that the two sides were to become one.

Christ Is Preached to an Ethiopian

<sup>30</sup>So Philip ran to him, and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and said, “Do you understand what you are reading?”

<sup>31</sup>And he said, “How can I, unless someone guides me?” And he asked Philip to come up and sit with him. <sup>32</sup>The place in the Scripture which he read was this:

And as a lamb before its shearer is silent,*

And who will declare His generation?
For His life is <sup>b</sup>taken from the earth.”**

<sup>34</sup>So the eunuch answered Philip and said, “I ask you, of whom does the prophet say this, of himself or of some other man?”

And he answered and said, <sup>f</sup>“I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.”*

<sup>38</sup>So he commanded the chariot to stand still. And both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and he baptized him.

<sup>39</sup>Now when they came up out of the water, <sup>g</sup>the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, so that the eunuch saw him no more; and he went on his way rejoicing. <sup>40</sup>But Philip was found at Azotus. And passing through, he preached in all the cities till he came to <sup>h</sup>Caesarea.

The Damascus Road: Saul Converted

<sup>9</sup> Then <sup>a</sup>Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest <sup>2</sup>and asked <sup>b</sup>letters from him to the synagogues of Damascus, so that if he found any who were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.

<sup>3c</sup>As he journeyed he came near Damascus, and suddenly a light shone around him from heaven. <sup>4</sup>Then he fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to him, “Saul, Saul, <sup>d</sup>why are you persecuting Me?”

<sup>5</sup>And he said, “Who are You, Lord?”

Then the Lord said, “*I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.* It is hard for you to kick against the goads.*”

<sup>6</sup>So he, trembling and astonished, said, “Lord, what do You want me to do?”

Then the Lord said to him, “Arise and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do.”

* 8:33 Isaiah 53:7, 8 * 8:37 NU-Text and M-Text omit this verse. It is found in Western texts, including the Latin tradition. * 9:5 NU-Text and M-Text omit the last sentence of verse 5 and begin verse 6 with But arise and go.

8:27 had come to Jerusalem to worship. Many Gentiles in the first century had grown weary of the multiple gods and loose morals of their own cultures. In their search for something more, some of them came to Judaism. One who accepted Judaism, obeying all the law of Moses (including circumcision and baptism), was called a proselyte. Gentiles who did not become proselytes but did attend the Jewish synagogues to listen to the Scriptures were called God-fearers. We cannot be sure which category the Ethiopian eunuch fell into.

8:35 preached Jesus to him. First-century Jews did not speak much about a suffering Messiah. The Jewish people, facing the yoke of Roman rule, believed that the Messiah would come as the Lion of Judah, a delivering king, not a weak lamb. They believed and taught that the suffering One spoken of by Isaiah was the suffering nation of Israel. Philip’s explanation of the passage gave a very different view, showing Jesus as the Messiah who came to suffer and die in order to redeem sinners.

9:2 synagogues. The early Jewish believers in Jesus were still attending the synagogues, gathering places where Jews came together to hear the Scriptures read and expounded upon. Part of Saul’s mission was apparently to let the Damascus synagogues know beyond any doubt that the followers of “the Way” did not have the approval of the Sanhedrin.

9:4–5 Messiah—Apparently unimpressed by the witness of the dying Stephen (7:59), Saul needed a more serious, personal jolt to awaken his spiritual awareness. The light that blinded Saul prepared him to receive the True Light that came into the world to dispel the darkness of sin. This personal encounter with the risen Christ changed Saul from a fire-breathing persecutor into a dynamic preacher who was not ashamed to publicly claim the crucified Man from Galilee as his Lord and Savior.

<sup>7</sup>And <sup>e</sup>the men who journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice but seeing no one. <sup>8</sup>Then Saul arose from the ground, and when his eyes were opened he saw no one. But they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. <sup>9</sup>And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

Ananias Baptizes Saul

<sup>10</sup>Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus <sup>f</sup>named Ananias; and to him the Lord said in a vision, “Ananias.”

And he said, “Here I am, Lord.”

<sup>11</sup>So the Lord said to him, “Arise and go to the street called Straight, and inquire at the house of Judas for one called Saul <sup>g</sup>of Tarsus, for behold, he is praying. <sup>12</sup>And in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias coming in and putting his hand on him, so that he might receive his sight.”

<sup>19</sup>So when he had received food, he was strengthened. <sup>s</sup>Then Saul spent some days with the disciples at Damascus.

Saul Preaches Christ

<sup>20</sup>Immediately he preached the Christ <sup>t</sup>in the synagogues, that He is the Son of God.

<sup>21</sup>Then all who heard were amazed, and said, “Is this not he who destroyed those who called on this name in Jerusalem, and has come here for that purpose, so that he might bring them bound to the chief priests?”

<sup>22</sup>But Saul increased all the more in strength, <sup>u</sup>and confounded the Jews who dwelt in Damascus, proving that this Jesus is the Christ.

Saul Escapes Death

Saul at Jerusalem

<sup>26</sup>And <sup>x</sup>when Saul had come to Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, and did not believe that he was a disciple. <sup>27</sup>But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles. And he declared to them how he had seen the Lord on the road, and that He had spoken to him, <sup>a</sup>and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus. <sup>28</sup>So <sup>b</sup>he was with them at Jerusalem, coming in and going out. <sup>29</sup>And he spoke boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus and disputed against the <sup>c</sup>Hellenists, <sup>d</sup>but they attempted to kill him. <sup>30</sup>When the brethren found out, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him out to Tarsus.

The Church Prospers

Aeneas Healed

<sup>32</sup>Now it came to pass, as Peter went <sup>j</sup>through all parts of the country, that he also came down to the saints who dwelt in Lydda. <sup>33</sup>There he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden eight years and was paralyzed. <sup>34</sup>And Peter said to him, “Aeneas, <sup>k</sup>Jesus the Christ heals you. Arise and make your bed.” Then he arose immediately. <sup>35</sup>So all who dwell at 9:30 Tarsus. Saul’s hometown was about three hundred miles north of Jerusalem and about ten miles inland from the Mediterranean Sea. Tarsus was a well-known university city, surpassed in educational opportunities only by Athens and Alexandria.

9:31 peace. This peace was not due solely to Saul’s conversion. Tiberius, the emperor of Rome, died around this time. He was replaced by Caligula, who wanted to erect a statue of himself in the temple at Jerusalem. The attention of the Jewish religious leaders was directed towards this new threat, and the emerging church was given a short season of respite.

Dorcas Restored to Life

<sup>36</sup>At Joppa there was a certain disciple named Tabitha, which is translated Dorcas. This woman was full <sup>n</sup>of good works and charitable deeds which she did. <sup>37</sup>But it happened in those days that she became sick and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in <sup>o</sup>an upper room. <sup>38</sup>And since Lydda was near Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent two men to him, imploring him not to delay in coming to them. <sup>39</sup>Then Peter arose and went with them. When he had come, they brought him to the upper room. And all the widows stood by him weeping, showing the tunics and garments which Dorcas had made while she was with them. <sup>40</sup>But Peter <sup>p</sup>put them all out, and <sup>q</sup>knelt down and prayed. And turning to the body he <sup>r</sup>said, “Tabitha, arise.” And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter she sat up. <sup>41</sup>Then he gave her his hand and lifted her up; and when he had called the saints and widows, he presented her alive. <sup>42</sup>And it became known throughout all Joppa, <sup>s</sup>and many believed on the Lord. <sup>43</sup>So it was that he stayed many days in Joppa with <sup>t</sup>Simon, a tanner.

Cornelius Sends a Delegation

10 There was a certain man in <sup>a</sup>Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of what was called the Italian Regiment, <sup>2b</sup>a devout man and one who <sup>c</sup>feared God with all his household, who gave alms generously to the people, and prayed to God always. <sup>3</sup>About the ninth hour of the day <sup>d</sup>he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God coming in and saying to him, “Cornelius!”

<sup>4</sup>And when he observed him, he was afraid, and said, “What is it, lord?”

So he said to him, “Your prayers and your alms have come up for a memorial before God. <sup>5</sup>Now <sup>e</sup>send men to Joppa, and send for Simon whose surname is Peter. <sup>6</sup>He is lodging with <sup>f</sup>Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea.* <sup>g</sup>He will tell you what you must do.” <sup>7</sup>And when the angel who spoke to him had departed, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier from among those who waited on him continually. <sup>8</sup>So when he had explained all these things to them, he sent them to Joppa.

Peter's Vision

<sup>9</sup>The next day, as they went on their journey and drew near the city, <sup>h</sup>Peter went up on the housetop to pray, about the sixth hour. <sup>10</sup>Then he became very hungry and wanted to eat; but while they made ready, he fell into a trance <sup>i</sup>and <sup>j</sup>saw heaven opened and an object like a great sheet bound at the four corners, descending to him and let down to the earth. <sup>12</sup>In it were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, creeping things, and birds of the air. <sup>13</sup>And a voice came to him, “Rise, Peter; kill and eat.”

<sup>14</sup>But Peter said, “Not so, Lord! <sup>k</sup>For I have never eaten anything common or unclean.”

<sup>15</sup>And a voice spoke to him again the second time. <sup>l</sup>“What God has cleansed you must not call common.” <sup>16</sup>This was done three times. And the object was taken up into heaven again.

Summoned to Caesarea

<sup>17</sup>Now while Peter wondered within himself what this vision which he had seen meant, behold, the men who had been sent from Cornelius had made inquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate. <sup>18</sup>And they called and asked whether Simon, whose surname was Peter, was lodging there.

<sup>21</sup>Then Peter went down to the men who had been sent to him from Cornelius,* and said, “Yes, I am he whom you seek. For what reason have you come?”

<sup>22</sup>And they said, “Cornelius the centurion, a just man, one who fears God and <sup>n</sup>has a good reputation among all the nation of

10:1—11:18 The following two chapters mark an important turning point in the Book of Acts. Those who were scattered by persecution from Jerusalem had been preaching the gospel only to Jews (11:19). At this point, they began to overcome their prejudices and carry the message of Christ to the Gentiles.

10:6 Simon, a tanner. God cut away Peter's prejudices by having him stay for many days with one whose trade Peter likely considered repulsive. Since a tanner (one who makes leather) is constantly working with animals dead from various causes, he would spend much of his life ceremonially “unclean.”

10:15 What God has cleansed you must not call common. Food may have been his first consideration, but Peter would soon understand the greater message. The vision was a sign from heaven that Jews were no longer to call Gentiles unclean.

the Jews, was divinely instructed by a holy angel to summon you to his house, and to hear words from you.”<sup>23</sup> Then he invited them in and lodged them.

On the next day Peter went away with them, and some brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

Peter Meets Cornelius

<sup>24</sup>And the following day they entered Caesarea. Now Cornelius was waiting for them, and had called together his relatives and close friends. <sup>25</sup>As Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him and fell down at his feet and worshiped him. <sup>26</sup>But Peter lifted him up, saying, “Stand up; I myself am also a man.” <sup>27</sup>And as he talked with him, he went in and found many who had come together. <sup>28</sup>Then he said to them, “You know how unlawful it is for a Jewish man to keep company with or go to one of another nation. But God has shown me that I should not call any man common or unclean. <sup>29</sup>Therefore I came without objection as soon as I was sent for. I ask, then, for what reason have you sent for me?”

<sup>30</sup>So Cornelius said, “Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour* I prayed in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, and said, ‘Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your alms are remembered in the sight of God. <sup>32</sup>Send therefore to Joppa and call Simon here, whose surname is Peter. He is lodging in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea.’ When he comes, he will speak to you.” <sup>33</sup>So I sent to you immediately, and you have done well to come. Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God.”

Preaching to Cornelius’ Household

of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with Him. <sup>39</sup>And we are witnesses of all things which He did both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem, whom they killed by hanging on a tree. <sup>40</sup>Him God raised up on the third day, and showed Him openly, not to all the people, but to witnesses chosen before by God, even to us who ate and drank with Him after He arose from the dead. <sup>42</sup>And He commanded us to preach to the people, and to testify that it is He who was ordained by God to be Judge of the living and the dead. <sup>43</sup>To Him all the prophets witness that, through His name, whoever believes in Him will receive remission of sins.”

The Holy Spirit Falls on the Gentiles

<sup>44</sup>While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell upon all those who heard the word. <sup>45</sup>And those of the circumcision who believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out on the Gentiles also. <sup>46</sup>For they heard them speak with tongues and magnify God.

Then Peter answered, <sup>47</sup>“Can anyone forbid water, that these should not be baptized who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?” <sup>48</sup>And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then they asked him to stay a few days.

Peter Defends God’s Grace

11 Now the apostles and brethren who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God. <sup>2</sup>And when Peter came up to Jerusalem, those of the circumcision contended with him, <sup>3</sup>saying, “You went in to uncircumcised men and ate with them!”

<sup>4</sup>But Peter explained it to them in order from the beginning, saying: <sup>5</sup>“I was in the city of Joppa praying; and in a trance I saw a vision, an object descending like a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came to me. <sup>6</sup>When I observed it intently and considered, I saw four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, creeping things, and birds of the air. <sup>7</sup>And I heard a voice saying to me, ‘Rise, Peter; kill and eat.’ <sup>8</sup>But I said, ‘Not so, Lord! For nothing common or unclean has at any time entered my mouth.’ <sup>9</sup>But the voice answered me again from heaven, ‘What God has cleansed you must not call common.’ <sup>10</sup>Now this was done three times, and all were drawn up again into heaven. <sup>11</sup>At that very moment, three men stood before the house where I was, having been sent to me from Caesarea. <sup>12</sup>Then <sup>13</sup>the Spirit told me to go with them, doubting nothing. Moreover <sup>14</sup>these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered the man’s house. <sup>15</sup>And he told us how he had seen an angel standing in his house, who said to him, ‘Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter, <sup>16</sup>who will tell you words by which you and all your household will be saved.’ <sup>17</sup>And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them, <sup>18</sup>as upon us at the beginning. <sup>19</sup>Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how He said, <sup>20</sup>‘John indeed baptized with water, but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit.’ <sup>21</sup>If therefore God gave them the same gift as He gave us when we believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>22</sup>who was I that I could withstand God?”

<sup>23</sup>When they heard these things they became silent; and they glorified God, saying, <sup>24</sup>“Then God has also granted to the Gentiles repentance to life.”

Barnabas and Saul at Antioch

<sup>190</sup>Now those who were scattered after the persecution that arose over Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to no one but the Jews only. <sup>20</sup>But some of them were men from Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to <sup>21</sup>the Hellenists, preaching the Lord Jesus.

<sup>24</sup>Then news of these things came to the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent out <sup>25</sup>Barnabas to go as far as Antioch. <sup>26</sup>When he came and had seen the grace of God, he was glad, and <sup>27</sup>encouraged them all that with purpose of heart they should continue with the Lord. <sup>28</sup>For he was a good man, <sup>29</sup>full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. <sup>30</sup>And a great many people were added to the Lord.

<sup>31</sup>Then Barnabas departed for <sup>32</sup>Tarsus to seek Saul. <sup>33</sup>And when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. So it was that for a whole year they assembled with the church and taught a great many people. And the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.

Relief to Judea

Herod’s Violence to the Church

12 Now about that time Herod the king stretched out his hand to harass some from the church. <sup>2</sup>Then he killed James <sup>3</sup>the brother of John with the sword. <sup>4</sup>And because he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to seize Peter also. Now it was during <sup>5</sup>the Days of Unleavened Bread. <sup>6</sup>So <sup>7</sup>when he had arrested him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of soldiers to keep him, intending to bring him before the people after Passover.

11:16 baptized with the Holy Spirit. This is found seven times in the New Testament (1:5; Matt. 3:11; Mark 1:8; Luke 3:16; John 1:33; 1 Cor. 12:13) and refers to an act by Christ for believers.

11:22–23 Antioch. Seleucus I founded the city of Antioch, naming it after his father. The city was cosmopolitan, attracting people of various cultures and ethnic backgrounds—including people from Persia, India, and even China. The gospel proclaimed in Antioch would have tremendous potential for reaching other areas of the world.

11:26 called Christians. Originally, the believers had called themselves “followers of the Way.” Although the term “Christian” was apparently given to them by nonbelievers, they adopted it for themselves. Its essential meaning, “Christ-follower” is appropriate for those who have given their lives into the keeping of Jesus, the Messiah.

11:29–30 Benevolence—Christians must exercise responsibility and charity (love) towards all men, and especially to other believers (Gal. 6:10). The Christians at Antioch are an example of well implemented Christian giving. All gave in accordance with their means (2 Cor. 8:3). The gifts were placed in the charge of trustworthy Christians (2 Cor. 8:20–21), who could ensure a responsible delivery and administration of the gifts.

12:1–3 Herod the king. This is Herod Agrippa I, the nephew of Herod Antipas who murdered John the

Peter Freed from Prison

<sup>5</sup>Peter was therefore kept in prison, but constant* prayer was offered to God for him by the church. <sup>6</sup>And when Herod was about to bring him out, that night Peter was sleeping, bound with two chains between two soldiers; and the guards before the door were keeping the prison. <sup>7</sup>Now behold, <sup>8</sup>an angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shone in the prison; and he struck Peter on the side and raised him up, saying, "Arise quickly!" And his chains fell off his hands. <sup>8</sup>Then the angel said to him, "Gird yourself and tie on your sandals"; and so he did. And he said to him, "Put on your garment and follow me." <sup>9</sup>So he went out and followed him, and <sup>10</sup>did not know that what was done by the angel was real, but thought <sup>11</sup>he was seeing a vision. <sup>10</sup>When they were past the first and the second guard posts, they came to the iron gate that leads to the city, <sup>11</sup>which opened to them of its own accord; and they went out and went down one street, and immediately the angel departed from him.

<sup>11</sup>And when Peter had come to himself, he said, "Now I know for certain that <sup>12</sup>the Lord has sent His angel, and <sup>13</sup>has delivered me from the hand of Herod and from all the expectation of the Jewish people."

<sup>16</sup>Now Peter continued knocking; and when they opened the door and saw him, they were astonished. <sup>17</sup>But <sup>18</sup>motioning to them with his hand to keep silent, he declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, "Go, tell these things to James and to the brethren." And he departed and went to another place.

<sup>18</sup>Then, as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers about what had become of Peter. <sup>19</sup>But when Herod had searched for him and not found him, he examined the guards and commanded that they should be put to death.

And he went down from Judea to Caesarea, and stayed there.

Herod's Violent Death

Barnabas and Saul Appointed

13 Now <sup>1</sup>in the church that was at Antioch there were certain prophets and teachers: <sup>2</sup>Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, <sup>3</sup>Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. <sup>4</sup>As they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, <sup>5</sup>"Now separate to Me Barnabas and Saul for the work <sup>6</sup>to which I have called them." <sup>7</sup>Then, <sup>8</sup>having fasted and prayed, and laid hands on them, they sent them away.

Baptist, and the grandson of Herod the Great who had the children of Bethlehem put to death in his search for Jesus. Herod was not a Jew but an Edomite. The Jews resented the fact that a son of Edom was given the position of king of the Jews.

12:11 delivered me from the hand of Herod. Why was Peter's life spared while James' life was taken? The answer is the sovereign will of God. If we believe that God is good and wise, we can trust that what He allowed to happen was part of His wise plan for the good of all His people.

12:22 The voice of a god. The Jewish historian Josephus also provides an account of this display, informing us that in an attempted appeasement of the king the people confessed that he was "more than mortal."

13:2-4 Holy Spirit—God reveals His will to those who are sensitive to His leading. The believers in Antioch heard from the Lord as they were praying and fasting. Most often, God does not speak to us out of the blue. He speaks to us when we are listening. The Holy Spirit gave distinct direction to the listening, sensitive believers of the first century, and He leads believers in the same way today.

Preaching in Cyprus

<sup>4</sup>So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to <sup>8</sup>Cyprus. <sup>5</sup>And when they arrived in Salamis, <sup>h</sup>they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. They also had <sup>i</sup>John as their assistant.

<sup>6</sup>Now when they had gone through the island* to Paphos, they found <sup>j</sup>a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew whose name was Bar-Jesus, <sup>7</sup>who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. This man called for Barnabas and Saul and sought to hear the word of God. <sup>8</sup>But <sup>k</sup>Elymas the sorcerer (for so his name is translated) withstood them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith. <sup>9</sup>Then Saul, who also is called Paul, <sup>l</sup>filled with the Holy Spirit, looked intently at him <sup>10</sup>and said, “O full of all deceit and all fraud, <sup>m</sup>you son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease perverting the straight ways of the Lord? <sup>11</sup>And now, indeed, <sup>n</sup>the hand of the Lord is upon you, and you shall be blind, not seeing the sun for a time.”

And immediately a dark mist fell on him, and he went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand. <sup>12</sup>Then the proconsul believed, when he saw what had been done, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

At Antioch in Pisidia

<sup>26</sup>“Men and brethren, sons of the family of Abraham, and <sup>n</sup>those among you who fear God, <sup>o</sup>to you the word of this salvation has been sent. <sup>27</sup>For those who dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, <sup>p</sup>because they did not know Him, nor even the voices of the Prophets which are read every Sabbath, have fulfilled them in condemning Him. <sup>28</sup><sup>q</sup>And though they found no cause for death in Him, they asked Pilate that He should be put to death. <sup>29</sup><sup>r</sup>Now when they had fulfilled all that was written concerning Him, <sup>s</sup>they took Him down from the tree and laid Him in a tomb. <sup>30</sup><sup>t</sup>But God raised Him from the dead. <sup>31</sup><sup>u</sup>He was seen for many days by those who came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are His witnesses to the people. <sup>32</sup>And we declare to you glad tidings—<sup>v</sup>that promise which was made to the fathers. <sup>33</sup>God has fulfilled this for us their children, in that He has raised up Jesus. Luke presents this man as the first Gentile ruler to believe the gospel. There is no evidence that Sergius Paulus was a God-fearer or had ever shown any interest in Judaism prior to this time. ## Blessing and Conflict at Antioch

<sup>42</sup>So when the Jews went out of the synagogue,* the Gentiles begged that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath. <sup>43</sup>Now when the congregation had broken up, many of the Jews and devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who, speaking to them, <sup>44</sup>persuaded them to continue in <sup>45</sup>the grace of God.

<sup>44</sup>On the next Sabbath almost the whole city came together to hear the word of God. <sup>45</sup>But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy; and contradicting and blaspheming, they <sup>46</sup>opposed the things spoken by Paul. <sup>47</sup>Then Paul and Barnabas grew bold and said, <sup>48</sup>“It was necessary that the word of God should be spoken to you first; but <sup>49</sup>since you reject it, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, behold, <sup>50</sup>we turn to the Gentiles. <sup>51</sup>For so the Lord has commanded us:

*“I have set you as a light to the Gentiles,
That you should be for salvation to the ends of the earth.”**

<sup>48</sup>Now when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and glorified the word of the Lord. <sup>49</sup>And as many as had been appointed to eternal life believed.

At Iconium

14 Now it happened in Iconium that they went together to the synagogue of the Jews, and so spoke that a great multitude both of the Jews and of the <sup>2</sup>Greeks believed. <sup>3</sup>But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brethren. <sup>4</sup>Therefore they stayed there a long time, speaking boldly in the Lord, <sup>5</sup>who was bearing witness to the word of His grace, granting signs and <sup>6</sup>wonders to be done by their hands.

Idolatry at Lystra

<sup>8</sup>And in Lystra a certain man without strength in his feet was sitting, a cripple from his mother's womb, who had never walked. <sup>9</sup>This man heard Paul speaking.

13:39 everyone who believes is justified from all things. “Justified” is a technical legal term declaring that a person is acquitted and absolved. Because of Jesus’ death on the cross, our sin debt has been paid. Everyone who accepts this payment is justified before God, considered righteous through the blood of Christ.

13:45 the Jews. When Luke refers to “the Jews,” he is not speaking of all Jewish people, but rather of the Jewish religious establishment, which opposed the gospel.

13:52 Joy—The pursuit of happiness doesn’t always lead to the possession of joy. Joy does not come from circumstances but from the presence of God. It is a fruit of the Spirit, poured into a believer’s life by the grace of God. The believers in this passage were not filled with joy because their lives were comfortable, or because they were wealthy or powerful, but because they saw God working and had His Holy Spirit in their lives.

Paul, observing him intently and seeing that he had faith to be healed, <sup>10</sup>said with a loud voice, <sup>11</sup>“Stand up straight on your feet!” And he leaped and walked. <sup>12</sup>Now when the people saw what Paul had done, they raised their voices, saying in the Lycaonian language, <sup>13</sup>“The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!” <sup>14</sup>And Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul, Hermes, because he was the chief speaker. <sup>15</sup>Then the priest of Zeus, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, <sup>16</sup>intending to sacrifice with the multitudes.

<sup>17</sup>But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard this, <sup>18</sup>they tore their clothes and ran in among the multitude, crying out <sup>19</sup>and saying, “Men, <sup>20</sup>why are you doing these things? <sup>21</sup>We also are men with the same nature as you, and preach to you that you should turn from <sup>22</sup>these useless things <sup>23</sup>to the living God, <sup>24</sup>who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and all things that are in them, <sup>25</sup>who in bygone generations allowed all nations to walk in their own ways. <sup>26</sup>Nevertheless He did not leave Himself without witness, in that He did good, <sup>27</sup>gave us rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with <sup>28</sup>food and gladness.” <sup>29</sup>And with these sayings they could scarcely restrain the multitudes from sacrificing to them.

Stoning, Escape to Derbe

<sup>30</sup>Then Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there; and having persuaded the multitudes, <sup>31</sup>they stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, supposing him to be <sup>32</sup>dead. <sup>33</sup>However, when the disciples gathered around him, he rose up and went into the city. And the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

Strengthening the Converts

commended them to the Lord in whom they had believed. <sup>41</sup>And after they had passed through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. <sup>42</sup>Now when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia. <sup>43</sup>From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work which they had completed.

<sup>44</sup>Now when they had come and gathered the church together, <sup>45</sup>they reported all that God had done with them, and that He had <sup>46</sup>opened the door of faith to the Gentiles. <sup>47</sup>So they stayed there a long time with the disciples.

Conflict over Circumcision

<sup>5</sup>So, <sup>6</sup>being sent on their way by the church, they passed through Phoenicia and Samaria, <sup>7</sup>describing the conversion of the Gentiles; and they caused great joy to all the brethren. <sup>8</sup>And when they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the church and the apostles and the elders; and they reported all things that God had done with them. <sup>9</sup>But some of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying, “It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.”

The Jerusalem Council

<sup>10</sup>Now the apostles and elders came together to consider this matter. <sup>11</sup>And when there had been much dispute, Peter rose up and said to them: <sup>12</sup>“Men and brethren, you know that a good while ago God chose among us, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel and believe. <sup>13</sup>So God, <sup>14</sup>who knows the heart, acknowledged them by <sup>15</sup>giving them the Holy Spirit, just as He did to us, <sup>16</sup>and made no distinction between us and them, <sup>17</sup>purifying their hearts by faith. <sup>18</sup>Now therefore,

14:11 The gods have come down. The Roman poet Ovid told of an ancient legend in which Zeus and Hermes came to the Phrygian hill country disguised as mortals seeking lodging. After being turned away from a thousand homes, they found refuge in the humble cottage of an elderly couple. In appreciation for the couple's hospitality, the gods transformed the cottage into a splendid temple and then destroyed all the houses of the inhospitable people. The people probably remembered this ancient legend, and wanted to make sure they did not make the same mistake their ancestors did.

14:23 appointed elders. The process outlined in 6:1–7 for selecting the seven men to serve the Jerusalem believers may provide a clue to the process used for selecting elders here. Both the assembly and the apostles were involved in the selection process.

why do you test God <sup>k</sup>by putting a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? <sup>11</sup>But <sup>l</sup>we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ* we shall be saved in the same manner as they.”

- <sup>16</sup> *‘After<sup>p</sup> this I will return
And will rebuild the tabernacle of David, which has fallen down;
I will rebuild its ruins,
And I will set it up;
<sup>17</sup> So that the rest of mankind may seek the LORD,
Even all the Gentiles who are called by
My name,
Says the LORD who does all these things.’**

The Jerusalem Decree

and Barnabas, namely, Judas who was also named <sup>x</sup>Barsabas,* and Silas, leading men among the brethren.

<sup>23</sup>They wrote this letter by them:

The apostles, the elders, and the brethren,

To the brethren who are of the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia:

Greetings.

<sup>24</sup> Since we have heard that <sup>y</sup>some who went out from us have troubled you with words, <sup>z</sup>unsettling your souls, saying, “You must be circumcised and keep the law”—to whom we gave no such commandment—<sup>25</sup>it seemed good to us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, <sup>26</sup>men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>27</sup>We have therefore sent Judas and Silas, who will also report the same things by word of mouth. <sup>28</sup>For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things: <sup>29</sup><sup>b</sup>that you abstain from things offered to idols, <sup>c</sup>from blood, from things strangled, and from <sup>d</sup>sexual immorality.* If you keep yourselves from these, you will do well.

Farewell.

Continuing Ministry in Syria

<sup>30</sup>So when they were sent off, they came to Antioch; and when they had gathered

15:11 through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved. These are the last words of Peter in the Book of Acts. He leaves us with the eternal truth that we are saved through faith by grace alone. The emphasis in the narrative now moves from Peter to Paul, and his outreach to the Gentiles.

15:13 James. James was the leader of the church in Jerusalem until he was stoned to death at the insistence of the high priest in A.D. 62. It is believed that this James is the Lord’s brother, the son of Mary and Joseph, who did not believe until the Lord appeared to him privately after the Resurrection (1 Cor. 15:7).

15:19–20 abstain from things polluted by idols. The Jerusalem council understood that it was not necessary for Gentiles to keep the whole of the law in order to be believers in Jesus, but also recognized that they did not have the background of moral teaching the Jewish believers had. They needed both reassurance as to their acceptance as true Christians and teaching for a godly life. In looking at the present application of these requirements, it is important to remember that Acts is a transitional book, documenting the beginning of the Christian movement. Sexual purity and food regulations are both addressed more thoroughly elsewhere in the New Testament (1 Cor. 6–8).

15:20 Fornication—Illicit sexual relationships were not a matter of shame or sin among the Gentiles as they were among the Jews. In fact, many pagan religious practices included prostitution and sexual orgies. This made the need for teaching on sexual purity doubly urgent for the new Gentile believers. They would be constantly presented with temptation, not only for sexual sin but for returning to their old ways of worship. They needed to hear God’s strict prohibition of such behavior.

the multitude together, they delivered the letter. <sup>31</sup>When they had read it, they rejoiced over its encouragement. <sup>32</sup>Now Judas and Silas, themselves being <sup>e</sup>prophets also, <sup>f</sup>exhorted and strengthened the brethren with many words. <sup>33</sup>And after they had stayed there for a time, they were <sup>g</sup>sent back with greetings from the brethren to the apostles.*

Division over John Mark

<sup>36</sup>Then after some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us now go back and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they are doing." <sup>37</sup>Now Barnabas was determined to take with them <sup>i</sup>John called Mark. <sup>38</sup>But Paul insisted that they should not take with them <sup>j</sup>the one who had departed from them in Pamphylia, and had not gone with them to the work. <sup>39</sup>Then the contention became so sharp that they parted from one another. And so Barnabas took Mark and sailed to <sup>k</sup>Cyprus; <sup>40</sup>but Paul chose Silas and departed, <sup>l</sup>being commended by the brethren to the grace of God. <sup>41</sup>And he went through Syria and Cilicia, <sup>m</sup>strengthening the churches.

Timothy Joins Paul and Silas

16 Then he came to <sup>a</sup>Derbe and Lystra. And behold, a certain disciple was there, <sup>b</sup>named Timothy, <sup>c</sup>the son of a certain Jewish woman who believed, but his father was Greek. <sup>2</sup>He was well spoken of by the brethren who were at Lystra and Iconium. <sup>3</sup>Paul wanted to have him go on with him. And he <sup>d</sup>took him and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in that region, for they all knew that his father was Greek. <sup>4</sup>And as they went through the cities, they delivered to them the <sup>e</sup>decrees to keep, <sup>f</sup>which were determined by the apostles and elders at Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup><sup>g</sup>So the churches were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily.

The Macedonian Call

<sup>6</sup>Now when they had gone through Phrygia and the region of <sup>h</sup>Galatia, they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to preach the word in Asia. <sup>7</sup>After they had come to Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit* did not permit them. <sup>8</sup>So passing by Mysia, they <sup>i</sup>came down to Troas. <sup>9</sup>And a vision appeared to Paul in the night. A <sup>j</sup>man of Macedonia stood and pleaded with him, saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." <sup>10</sup>Now after he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go <sup>k</sup>to Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to preach the gospel to them.

Lydia Baptized at Philippi

<sup>11</sup>Therefore, sailing from Troas, we ran a straight course to Samothrace, and the next <sup>l</sup>day came to Neapolis, <sup>12</sup>and from there to <sup>m</sup>Philippi, which is the foremost city of that part of Macedonia, a colony. And we were staying in that city for some days. <sup>13</sup>And on the Sabbath day we went out of the city to the riverside, where prayer was customarily made; and we sat down and spoke to the women who met there. <sup>14</sup>Now a certain woman named Lydia heard us. She was a seller of purple from the city of <sup>n</sup>Thyatira, who worshiped God. <sup>15</sup>The Lord opened her heart to heed the things spoken by Paul. <sup>16</sup>And when she and her household were baptized, she begged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come to my house and stay." So <sup>o</sup>she persuaded us.

* 15:33 NU-Text reads to those who had sent them.

* 16:7 NU-Text adds of Jesus.

15:39 that they parted from one another. Even though Paul and Barnabas had a heated disagreement, it is important to note that they did not bring their disagreement into the church fellowship, forcing others to take sides and causing more dissension. Instead, they simply parted ways, each continuing to faithfully serve the Lord. Later, the disagreement was apparently resolved, for Paul wrote to Timothy when he was imprisoned, asking for Mark to be sent to him, "for he is useful to me for ministry" (2 Tim. 4:11).

16:3 circumcised him. According to Jewish law, Timothy should have been circumcised and raised a Jew, even with a Gentile father. For whatever reason, this had not happened, and the fact that he was an uncircumcised Jew would limit his effectiveness with Jewish Christians. The issue was not law but effectiveness.

16:12 Philippi. Named after the father of Alexander the Great, Philippi was a Roman colony loyal to the empire. The city itself was organized by the state of Rome and functioned as a military outpost. Because of its proximity to the sea as well as to one of the major roads to Europe, Philippi was a commercial center in Macedonia. Its influence throughout the region made it a good place to begin preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ.

16:13 where prayer was customarily made. According to Jewish custom, a congregation consisted of ten households. If ten male household heads could be found in a city, a synagogue was formed. If not, a place of prayer was established. Philippi did not have a synagogue, but Paul was still able to find the God-fearers of the city.

Paul and Silas Imprisoned

But Paul, <sup>a</sup>greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, “I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her.” <sup>a</sup>And he came out that very hour. <sup>19</sup>But <sup>a</sup>when her masters saw that their hope of profit was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and <sup>a</sup>dragged them into the marketplace to the authorities.

<sup>20</sup>And they brought them to the magistrates, and said, “These men, being Jews, <sup>a</sup>exceedingly trouble our city; <sup>21</sup>and they teach customs which are not lawful for us, being Romans, to receive or observe.” <sup>22</sup>Then the multitude rose up together against them; and the magistrates tore off their clothes <sup>a</sup>and commanded them to be beaten with rods. <sup>23</sup>And when they had laid many stripes on them, they threw them into prison, commanding the jailer to keep them securely. <sup>24</sup>Having received such a charge, he put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.

The Philippian Jailer Saved

<sup>25</sup>But at midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. <sup>26</sup><sup>a</sup>Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately <sup>a</sup>all the doors were opened and everyone’s chains were loosed. <sup>27</sup>And the keeper of the prison, awaking from sleep and seeing the prison doors open, supposing the prisoners had fled, drew his sword and was about to kill himself. <sup>28</sup>But Paul called with a loud voice, saying, “Do yourself no harm, for we are all here.”

<sup>29</sup>Then he called for a light, ran in, and fell down trembling before Paul and Silas. <sup>30</sup>And he brought them out and said, <sup>a</sup>“Sirs, what must I do to be saved?”

<sup>31</sup>So they said, <sup>a</sup>“Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household.” <sup>32</sup>Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. <sup>33</sup>And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their stripes. And immediately he and all his family were baptized. <sup>34</sup>Now when he had brought them into his house, <sup>b</sup>he set food before them; and he rejoiced, having believed in God with all his household.

Paul Refuses to Depart Secretly

<sup>35</sup>And when it was day, the magistrates sent the officers, saying, “Let those men go.”

<sup>36</sup>So the keeper of the prison reported these words to Paul, saying, “The magistrates have sent to let you go. Now therefore depart, and go in peace.”

<sup>37</sup>But Paul said to them, “They have beaten us openly, uncondemned <sup>a</sup>Romans, and have thrown us into prison. And now do they put us out secretly? No indeed! Let them come themselves and get us out.”

<sup>38</sup>And the officers told these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Romans. <sup>39</sup>Then they came and pleaded with them and brought them out, and <sup>a</sup>asked them to depart from the city. <sup>40</sup>So they went out of the prison <sup>a</sup>and entered the house of Lydia; and when they had seen the brethren, they encouraged them and departed.

16:25 Praise—Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns of praise to God at midnight in spite of the fact that they had been arrested, stripped naked, and beaten, confined to an inner cell and clamped into an uncomfortable position. They could praise God because their joy was not based on circumstances but on a relationship. Jesus Christ and His love and grace are the same, no matter where you are or what is happening to you.

16:31 It Begins with Faith—Paul and Silas’s answer to the Philippian jailer’s question is the essence of salvation: “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved.” This verse raises two questions: What does it mean to believe, and what does it mean to be saved? Belief includes but is more than just an intellectual assent. Belief includes the idea of total trust, dependence, and submission of oneself to Christ as Lord (King, Master). To be saved is to be delivered. We are delivered from the very presence of sin and evil (Satan and hell) and will be delivered into the very presence of God (Christ and heaven). We receive this new life by faith—believing that we are sinful, that Jesus died for our sins, that His death was in our place, and that His payment for sin is fully acceptable in God’s sight. Faith can be summarized in the acrostic:

Forsaking
All
I Take Him

16:33–34 Family—This man assumed spiritual leadership of his family by being the first to repent, to humble himself before God and ask for forgiveness and a change of life. By his example, the rest of his family was won. In the same way, every believing father has the responsibility to set the example of spiritual commitment, and to teach his family all he knows of following Christ.

16:37 Romans. Paul was not simply seeking self-justification, he was protecting the infant church in

Preaching Christ at Thessalonica

17 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to <sup>a</sup>Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews. <sup>2</sup>Then Paul, as his custom was, <sup>b</sup>went in to them, and for three Sabbaths <sup>c</sup>reasoned with them from the Scriptures, <sup>3</sup>explaining and demonstrating <sup>d</sup>that the Christ had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, “This Jesus whom I preach to you is the Christ.” <sup>4e</sup>And some of them were persuaded; and a great multitude of the devout Greeks, and not a few of the leading women, joined Paul and <sup>f</sup>Silas.

Assault on Jason’s House

Ministering at Berea

<sup>10</sup>Then <sup>k</sup>the brethren immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea. When they arrived, they went into the synagogue of the Jews. <sup>11</sup>These were more fair-minded than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness, and <sup>l</sup>searched the Scriptures daily to find out whether these things were so. <sup>12</sup>Therefore many of them believed, and also not a few of the Greeks, prominent women as well as men. <sup>13</sup>But when the Jews from Thessalonica learned that the word of God was preached by Paul at Berea, they came there also and stirred up the crowds. <sup>14m</sup>Then immediately the brethren sent Paul away, to go to the sea; but both Silas and Timothy remained there. <sup>15</sup>So those who conducted Paul brought him to Athens; and <sup>n</sup>receiving a command for Silas and Timothy to come to him with all speed, they departed.

The Philosophers at Athens

<sup>16</sup>Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, <sup>o</sup>his spirit was provoked within him when he saw that the city was given over to idols. <sup>17</sup>Therefore he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and with the Gentile worshipers, and in the marketplace daily with those who happened to be there. <sup>18</sup>Then *certain Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said, “What does this babbler want to say?”

Others said, “He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign gods,” because he preached to them <sup>p</sup>Jesus and the resurrection.

<sup>19</sup>And they took him and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, “May we know what this new doctrine is of which you speak? <sup>20</sup>For you are bringing some strange things to our ears. Therefore we want to know what these things mean.” <sup>21</sup>For all the Athenians and the foreigners who were there spent their time in nothing else but either to tell or to hear some new thing.

Addressing the Areopagus

<sup>22</sup>Then Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus and said, “Men of Athens, I perceive that in all things you are very religious; <sup>23</sup>for as I was passing through and considering the objects of your worship, I even found an altar with this inscription:

TO THE UNKNOWN GOD.

Therefore, the One whom you worship without knowing, Him I proclaim to you:

Philippi. By forcing a public statement of their innocence, he minimized the possibility that the new believers would be regarded as “friends of criminals and troublemakers.”

17:7 acting contrary to the decrees of Caesar. In A.D. 49 the Roman emperor Caligula expelled all Jews from Rome due to riots ignited by a group of zealous Jews. Paul’s accusers were trying to paint him as a revolutionary who was bringing sedition to Thessalonica.

17:18 this babbler. This word is literally “seed picker.” The philosophers were saying that Paul was like a gutter sparrow, picking up bits and scraps of knowledge without fully digesting or thinking about what he taught.

17:19 Areopagus. Just southwest of the Acropolis in Athens was a hill called the Hill of Ares (Mars, in Latin), the god of war. This was where court was held concerning questions of religion and morals. In Athens, the gospel message was examined by the supposed experts of philosophy and religion.

17:23 An Unknown God—In the sixth century B.C. it was said that a poet from Crete name Epimenides turned aside a horrible plague from the people of Athens by appealing to a god of whom the people had never heard. An altar was built to honor this god, and its inscription caught Paul’s attention. Knowing that the Athenians had no background in

<sup>32</sup>And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked, while others said, "We will hear you again on this matter." <sup>33</sup>So Paul departed from among them. <sup>34</sup>However, some men joined him and believed, among them Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Ministering at Corinth

18 After these things Paul departed from Athens and went to Corinth. <sup>2</sup>And he found a certain Jew named <sup>a</sup>Aquila, born in Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla (because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome); and he came to them. <sup>3</sup>So, because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them <sup>b</sup>and worked; for by occupation they were tentmakers. <sup>4c</sup>And he reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, and persuaded both Jews and Greeks.

<sup>14</sup>And when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If it were a matter of wrongdoing or wicked crimes, O Jews, there would be reason why I should the Old Testament Scriptures as did the Jews in the synagogues, Paul began his discourse with what they were already familiar with: their own legends and observation.

17:31 Resurrection—Christ has been raised from the dead not only for the purpose of returning to heaven and resuming His fellowship with the Father, a fellowship interrupted only by the alienation and abandonment at the cross; He has gone from His tomb to the right hand of His Father to intercede for us. And one day the mantle of Judge will be placed on Him, and everyone will stand before Him. The world has yet to see the last of Jesus Christ.

17:32 some mocked. Though they embraced the idea of the soul living on, the Greeks were repulsed by the idea of a bodily resurrection because they considered the body to be evil. This idea, known as dualism, was derived from the teachings of Socrates and Plato. It held that everything physical is evil and everything spiritual is good. Therefore, they believed the body and what is done with it is not important because it will be discarded at the end of life.

18:1 Corinth. Corinth was the political capital of Achaia. It was also a center for the worship of Aphrodite, the goddess of fertility, and it housed the major temple of Apollo. Because of the sensuous nature of the religious cult of Aphrodite, Corinth had a reputation for being a city of immorality. Beginning in the fifth century B.C., the Greeks used a word meaning "to act like a Corinthian" as a symbol for sexual immorality.

18:3 tentmakers. All young rabbinical students had to learn a trade. The province of Cilicia, from which Paul came, was noted for its cloth made from goats' hair. It is likely that Paul's skill involved making such cloth.

18:7 Justus. Most Romans had three names. This man's name was Titius Justus. Based on Paul's letter to the Corinthians, it is likely that Justus was the man called Gaius mentioned in 1 Corinthians 1:14.

But Gallio took no notice of these things.

Paul Returns to Antioch

<sup>22</sup>And when he had landed at <sup>t</sup>Caesarea, and gone up and greeted the church, he went down to Antioch. <sup>23</sup>After he had spent some time there, he departed and went over the region of <sup>u</sup>Galatia and Phrygia in order, <sup>v</sup>strengthening all the disciples.

Ministry of Apollos

<sup>24w</sup>Now a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man and mighty in the Scriptures, came to Ephesus. <sup>25</sup>This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being <sup>x</sup>fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things of the Lord, <sup>y</sup>though he knew only the baptism of John. <sup>26</sup>So he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Aquila and Priscilla heard him, they took him aside and explained to him the way of God more accurately. <sup>27</sup>And when he desired to cross to Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him; and when he arrived, <sup>z</sup>he greatly helped those who had believed through grace; <sup>28</sup>for he vigorously refuted the Jews publicly, <sup>a</sup>showing from the Scriptures that Jesus is the Christ.

Paul at Ephesus

19 And it happened, while <sup>a</sup>Apollos was at Corinth, that Paul, having passed through <sup>b</sup>the upper regions, came to Ephesus. And finding some disciples <sup>2</sup>he said to them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?”

So they said to him, <sup>c</sup>“We have not so much as heard whether there is a Holy Spirit.”

<sup>3</sup>And he said to them, “Into what then were you baptized?”

So they said, <sup>d</sup>“Into John’s baptism.”

<sup>4</sup>Then Paul said, <sup>e</sup>“John indeed baptized with a baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe on Him who would come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.”

* 18:17 NU-Text reads they all. * 18:21 NU-Text omits I must through Jerusalem.

18:18 had his hair cut off. Paul had his hair cut as part of a Nazirite vow he had made (see Num. 6:5). Such a vow had to be fulfilled in Jerusalem where the hair would be presented to God.

18:24 Apollos, born at Alexandria. This Jew with a Greek name was from the second largest city in the Roman Empire. Alexandria was a seaport on the northern coast of Egypt. Founded by Alexander the Great, the city was very cosmopolitan. Egyptians, Romans, and Greeks all lived there; over one quarter of the population was Jewish. The Greek translation of the Hebrew Scriptures had been produced in that city about 150 years before the birth of Jesus. The city was famous for its great library and was considered the cultural and educational center of the world.

19:3 John’s baptism. Baptism was a ritual used by the Jews as a picture of cleansing and purification. Gentiles who converted to Judaism would go through the rite of purification as their first act of worship. They would dip themselves in water as a sign of being cleansed from their old way of life. Before entering into the temple to worship, Jews would dip themselves in ritual bathing pools to show their desire for purification. John’s baptism was a symbol of repentance from sin and a looking ahead to the coming of the Messiah.

19:6 laid hands on them. The Holy Spirit was received without the laying on of hands in 10:44–48. By laying on his hands here, Paul was demonstrating his apostolic authority. He was also affirming the unity of the new church in Ephesus with the church in Jerusalem. Both were empowered by the Holy Spirit to speak in foreign tongues.

19:10 all who dwell in Asia heard. From Ephesus, other churches were born in Asia Minor—in Colosse,

Miracles Glorify Christ

<sup>15</sup>And the evil spirit answered and said, “Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?”

<sup>16</sup>Then the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, overpowered* them, and prevailed against them,* so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. <sup>17</sup>This became known both to all Jews and Greeks dwelling in Ephesus; and <sup>18</sup>fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. <sup>19</sup>And many who had believed came <sup>19</sup>confessing and telling their deeds. <sup>20</sup>Also, many of those who had practiced magic brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. And they counted up the value of them, and it totaled fifty thousand pieces of silver. <sup>20a</sup>So the word of the Lord grew mightily and prevailed.

The Riot at Ephesus

not only is this trade of ours in danger of falling into disrepute, but also the temple of the great goddess Diana may be despised and her magnificence destroyed,* whom all Asia and the world worship.”

<sup>35</sup>And when the city clerk had quieted the crowd, he said: “Men of Ephesus, what man is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is temple guardian of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Zeus? <sup>36</sup>Therefore, since these things cannot be denied, you ought to be quiet and do nothing rashly. <sup>37</sup>For you have brought these men here who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of your* goddess. <sup>38</sup>Therefore, if Demetrius and his fellow craftsmen have a case against anyone, the courts are open and there are proconsuls. Let them bring charges against one another. <sup>39</sup>But if you have any other inquiry to make, it shall be determined in the lawful assembly. <sup>40</sup>For we are in danger of being called in question for today’s uproar, there being no reason which we may give to account for this disorderly gathering.” <sup>41</sup>And when he had said these things, he dismissed the assembly.

19:13 the name of the Lord Jesus. The use of magical names in incantations was common in the ancient world. ## Journeys in Greece

20 After the uproar had ceased, Paul called the disciples to himself, embraced them, and <sup>a</sup>departed to go to Macedonia. <sup>2</sup>Now when he had gone over that region and encouraged them with many words, he came to <sup>b</sup>Greece <sup>3</sup>and stayed three months. And <sup>c</sup>when the Jews plotted against him as he was about to sail to Syria, he decided to return through Macedonia. <sup>4</sup>And Sopater of Berea accompanied him to Asia—also <sup>d</sup>Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians, and <sup>e</sup>Gaius of Derbe, and <sup>f</sup>Timothy, and <sup>g</sup>Tychicus and <sup>h</sup>Trophimus of Asia. <sup>5</sup>These men, going ahead, waited for us at Troas. <sup>6</sup>But we sailed away from Philippi after <sup>i</sup>the Days of Unleavened Bread, and in five days joined them <sup>k</sup>at Troas, where we stayed seven days.

Ministering at Troas

From Troas to Miletus

<sup>13</sup>Then we went ahead to the ship and sailed to Assos, there intending to take Paul on board; for so he had given orders, intending himself to go on foot. <sup>14</sup>And when he met us at Assos, we took him on board and came to Mitylene. <sup>15</sup>We sailed from there, and the next day came opposite Chios. The following day we arrived at Samos and stayed at Trogyllium. The next day we came to Miletus. <sup>16</sup>For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, so that he would not have to spend time in Asia; for <sup>q</sup>he was hurrying <sup>r</sup>to be at Jerusalem, if possible, on <sup>s</sup>the Day of Pentecost.

The Ephesian Elders Exhorted

<sup>17</sup>From Miletus he sent to Ephesus and called for the elders of the church. <sup>18</sup>And when they had come to him, he said to them: “You know, <sup>t</sup>from the first day that I came to Asia, in what manner I always lived among you, <sup>u</sup>-serving the Lord with all humility, with many tears and trials which happened to me <sup>v</sup>by the plotting of the Jews; <sup>20</sup>how <sup>v</sup>I kept back nothing that was helpful, but proclaimed it to you, and taught you publicly and from house to house, <sup>21</sup>testifying to Jews, and also to Greeks, <sup>x</sup>repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>22</sup>And see, now <sup>y</sup>I go bound in the spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that will happen to me there, <sup>23</sup>except that <sup>z</sup>the Holy Spirit testifies in every city, saying that chains and tribulations await me. <sup>24</sup>But <sup>a</sup>none of these things move me; nor do I count my life dear to myself,* <sup>b</sup>so that I may finish my race with joy, <sup>c</sup>and the ministry <sup>d</sup>which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God.

<sup>25</sup>“And indeed, now I know that you all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, will see my face no more. <sup>26</sup>Therefore I testify to you this day that I am <sup>e</sup>innocent of the blood of all men. <sup>27</sup>For I have not shunned to declare to you <sup>f</sup>the very important to Rome. The Romans would not tolerate any kind of uprising or rebellion. Ephesus risked losing its freedom and being ruled directly by the Roman army.

20:2 encouraged. This word has a full range of meanings, from rebuking to comforting. It includes instruction, appeal, affirmation, exhortation, warning, and correction.

20:7 The Lord’s Supper—Although the phrase “to break bread” could mean an ordinary meal, it more likely refers to the observance of the Lord’s Supper in obedience to Christ’s command. The “breaking of bread” appears to be the primary purpose for the gathering, with Paul’s sermon rising naturally in a group of people who had gathered to remember Christ.

20:13–16 to go on foot. The distance between Troas and Assos was about thirty miles by sea, but Paul chose to go over land on foot.

20:17 elders. The words “elder” (literally, one who is older) and “overseer” (v. 28) appear to be used in the New Testament as interchangeable terms for the leaders of a particular fellowship.

20:22 bound in the spirit. Some say that Paul was out of the will of God in going to Jerusalem after the warnings of bonds and afflictions. But there is no evidence that Paul was rebelling against God. On the contrary, Jesus Himself confirmed that the trip was part of His good and perfect will (23:11).

whole counsel of God. <sup>28g</sup>Therefore take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit <sup>h</sup>has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of God* <sup>i</sup>which He purchased <sup>j</sup>with His own blood. <sup>29</sup>For I know this, that after my departure <sup>k</sup>savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock. <sup>30</sup>Also <sup>l</sup>from among yourselves men will rise up, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after themselves. <sup>31</sup>Therefore watch, and remember that <sup>m</sup>for three years I did not cease to warn everyone night and day with tears.

<sup>36</sup>And when he had said these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all. <sup>37</sup>Then they all <sup>s</sup>wept freely, and <sup>t</sup>fell on Paul’s neck and kissed him, <sup>38</sup>sorrowing most of all for the words which he spoke, that they would see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

Warnings on the Journey to Jerusalem

21 Now it came to pass, that when we had departed from them and set sail, running a straight course we came to Cos, the following day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. <sup>2</sup>And finding a ship sailing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard and set sail. <sup>3</sup>When we had sighted Cyprus, we passed it on the left, sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre; for there the ship was to unload her cargo. <sup>4</sup>And finding disciples,* we stayed there seven days. <sup>a</sup>They told Paul through the Spirit not to go up to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>When we had come to the end of those days, we departed and went on our way; and they all accompanied us, with wives and children, till we were out of the city. And <sup>b</sup>we knelt down on the shore and prayed. <sup>6</sup>When we had taken our leave of one another, we boarded the ship, and they returned <sup>c</sup>home.

<sup>7</sup>And when we had finished our voyage from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, greeted the brethren, and stayed with them one day. <sup>8</sup>On the next day we who were Paul’s companions* departed and came to <sup>d</sup>Caesarea, and entered the house of Philip <sup>e</sup>the evangelist, <sup>f</sup>who was one of the seven, and stayed with him. <sup>9</sup>Now this man had four virgin daughters <sup>g</sup>who prophesied. <sup>10</sup>And as we stayed many days, a certain prophet named <sup>h</sup>Agabus came down from Judea. <sup>11</sup>When he had come to us, he took Paul’s belt, bound his own hands and feet, and said, “Thus says the Holy Spirit, <sup>i</sup>“So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man who owns this belt, and deliver <sup>j</sup>him into the hands of the Gentiles.”

<sup>12</sup>Now when we heard these things, both we and those from that place pleaded with him not to go up to Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>Then Paul answered, <sup>j</sup>“What do you mean by weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.”

<sup>14</sup>So when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, <sup>k</sup>“The will of the Lord be done.”

Paul Urged to Make Peace

<sup>15</sup>And after those days we packed and went up to Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup>Also some of the disciples from Caesarea went with us and brought with them a certain Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we were to lodge.

20:28 Church—The elders or overseers of God’s flock must be men who are appointed not just by other men, but by the Holy Spirit of God. The leadership of the church is a solemn responsibility, and it should only be accepted by those who are convinced that they have been both called and equipped by the Holy Spirit to do this work. An elder has the responsibility to follow the example of our Chief Shepherd, Jesus Christ, as a servant leader.

20:35 It is more blessed to give. This saying of Jesus is not found in the Gospels, but it has been recorded here through Paul’s knowledge of it.

21:2 a ship sailing over to Phoenicia. In the summer months, the wind of the Aegean Sea blows from the north, beginning very early in the morning. In the late afternoon the wind dies away. Sunset brings a dead calm, and later a gentle southerly breeze blows. If a ship was heading down the coast, it would typically anchor at evening and wait for the winds of the morning.

21:4 through the Spirit. Because of this warning, many have thought that Paul’s insistence in going to Jerusalem was disobedience to God’s will. However, it is more likely that this was simply a warning to let him know what to expect in the future. Paul was obviously very sensitive to the Holy Spirit (16:6), and felt that he had received specific instructions to go to Jerusalem (20:22). Later Jesus Himself encouraged Paul concerning his decision to go (23:11).

21:10–14 bound his own hands and feet. The Holy Spirit did not forbid Paul to go to Jerusalem, but warned him of what it would cost him.

<sup>17</sup>And when we had come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly. <sup>18</sup>On the following day Paul went in with us to James, and all the elders were present. <sup>19</sup>When he had greeted them, he told in detail those things which God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry. <sup>20</sup>And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord. And they said to him, "You see, brother, how many myriads of Jews there are who have believed, and they are all zealous for the law; <sup>21</sup>but they have been informed about you that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children nor to walk according to the customs. <sup>22</sup>What then? The assembly must certainly meet, for they will hear that you have come. <sup>23</sup>Therefore do what we tell you: We have four men who have taken a vow. <sup>24</sup>Take them and be purified with them, and pay their expenses so that they may shave their heads, and that all may know that those things of which they were informed concerning you are nothing, but that you yourself also walk orderly and keep the law. <sup>25</sup>But concerning the Gentiles who believe, we have written and decided that they should observe no such thing, except* that they should keep themselves from things offered to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality."

Arrested in the Temple

<sup>26</sup>Then Paul took the men, and the next day, having been purified with them, entered the temple to announce the expiration of the days of purification, at which time an offering should be made for each one of them.

<sup>27</sup>Now when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews from Asia, seeing him in the temple, stirred up the whole crowd and laid hands on him, crying out, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people, the law, and this place; and furthermore he also brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place." <sup>29</sup>(For they had previously* seen Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the city, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

<sup>30</sup>And all the city was disturbed; and the people ran together, seized Paul, and dragged him out of the temple; and immediately the doors were shut. <sup>31</sup>Now as they were seeking to kill him, news came to the commander of the garrison that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. <sup>32</sup>He immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. And when they saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul. <sup>33</sup>Then the commander came near and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and he asked who he was and what he had done. <sup>34</sup>And some among the multitude cried one thing and some another.

So when he could not ascertain the truth because of the tumult, he commanded him to be taken into the barracks. <sup>35</sup>When he reached the stairs, he had to be carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the mob. <sup>36</sup>For the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, "Away with him!"

Addressing the Jerusalem Mob

<sup>37</sup>Then as Paul was about to be led into the barracks, he said to the commander, "May I speak to you?"

He replied, "Can you speak Greek? <sup>38</sup>Are you not the Egyptian who some time ago stirred up a rebellion and led the four thousand assassins out into the wilderness?"

<sup>39</sup>But Paul said, "I am a Jew from Tarsus, in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city; and I implore you, permit me to speak to the people."

<sup>40</sup>So when he had given him permission, Paul stood on the stairs and motioned with his hand to the people. And when there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying,

21:17 Fellowship—Fellowship means more than chatting over coffee and cookies, or sharing a potluck supper. Christian fellowship essentially means sharing one another's lives, participating in both the joy and sorrow of our brothers and sisters in Christ. Christian community extends beyond geography, class, color, and gender. As parts of one glorious whole, the body of Christ, believers rejoice in one another's joy, and reach out a helping hand for another's need.

21:25 keep themselves from. The spiritual unity of the body of believers is realized in its diversity, not in its conformity. From our diverse backgrounds and cultures we honor the same Lord.

21:28 defiled this holy place. The temple in New Testament times was surrounded by three courts. The innermost court was the Court of Israel, where Jewish men could offer sacrifices. The second court was the Court of Women where Jewish families could gather for prayer and worship. The outer court was the Court of Gentiles, open to all who would worship God. The penalty for any Gentile who went beyond this court was death.

21:38 Are you not the Egyptian. An assassin claiming to be a prophet had come to Jerusalem in A.D. 54, and led four thousand Jews up to the Mount of

22 “Brethren<sup>a</sup> and fathers, hear my defense before you now.” <sup>2</sup>And when they heard that he spoke to them in the <sup>b</sup>Hebrew language, they kept all the more silent.

Then he said: <sup>3c</sup>“I am indeed a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city <sup>d</sup>at the feet of <sup>e</sup>Gamaliel, taught <sup>f</sup>according to the strictness of our fathers’ law, and <sup>g</sup>was zealous toward God <sup>h</sup>as you all are today. <sup>4i</sup>I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women, <sup>5a</sup>as also the high priest bears me witness, and <sup>j</sup>all the council of the elders, <sup>k</sup>from whom I also received letters to the brethren, and went to Damascus <sup>l</sup>to bring in chains even those who were there to Jerusalem to be punished.

<sup>6</sup>“Now <sup>m</sup>it happened, as I journeyed and came near Damascus at about noon, suddenly a great light from heaven shone around me. <sup>7</sup>And I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?’ <sup>8</sup>So I answered, ‘Who are You, Lord?’ And He said to me, ‘I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting.’

<sup>9</sup>“And <sup>n</sup>those who were with me indeed saw the light and were afraid,* but they did not hear the voice of Him who spoke to me. <sup>10</sup>So I said, ‘What shall I do, Lord?’ And the Lord said to me, ‘Arise and go into Damascus, and there you will be told all things which are appointed for you to do.’ <sup>11</sup>And since I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus.

<sup>12</sup>“Then <sup>o</sup>a certain Ananias, a devout man according to the law, <sup>p</sup>having a good testimony with all the <sup>q</sup>Jews who dwell there, <sup>13</sup>came to me; and he stood and said to me, ‘Brother Saul, receive your sight.’ And at that same hour I looked up at him. <sup>14</sup>Then he said, “The God of our fathers <sup>r</sup>has chosen you that you should <sup>t</sup>know His will, and <sup>s</sup>see the Just One, <sup>v</sup>and hear the voice of His mouth. <sup>15w</sup>For you will be His witness to all men of <sup>x</sup>what you have seen and heard. <sup>16</sup>And now why are you waiting? Arise and be baptized, <sup>y</sup>and wash away your sins, <sup>z</sup>calling on the name of the Lord.’

<sup>17</sup>“Now <sup>a</sup>it happened, when I returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple, that I was in a trance <sup>18</sup>and <sup>bsaw</sup> Him saying to me, “Make haste and get out of Jerusalem quickly, for they will not receive your testimony concerning Me.” <sup>19</sup>So I said, ‘Lord, <sup>d</sup>they know that in every synagogue I imprisoned and <sup>e</sup>beat those who believe on You. <sup>20</sup>And when the blood of Your martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by <sup>f</sup>consenting to his death,* and guarding the clothes of those who were killing him.’ <sup>21</sup>Then He said to me, ‘Depart, <sup>h</sup>for I will send you far from here to the Gentiles.’”

Paul’s Roman Citizenship

<sup>26</sup>When the centurion heard that, he went and told the commander, saying, “Take care what you do, for this man is a Roman.”

<sup>27</sup>Then the commander came and said to him, “Tell me, are you a Roman?”

He said, “Yes.”

And Paul said, “But I was born a citizen.”

<sup>29</sup>Then immediately those who were about to examine him withdrew from him; and the commander was also afraid after he found out that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

Olives, promising that at his word the walls of Jerusalem would fall and the Roman Empire would be destroyed. The uprising was crushed, leaving four hundred Jews dead and another two hundred as prisoners. The Egyptian escaped into the desert with some of his followers.

22:16 calling on the name of the Lord. Calling on the name of the Lord is what brings salvation, not the physical act of baptism (Rom. 10:9–13). Baptism is the public declaration of one’s repentance and new life.

22:24 under scourging. The scourge was a leather whip, studded with pieces of metal or bone, fastened to a wooden handle. The victim was stretched out on the floor or bound to a pillar to be beaten. Scourging was a cruel torture, designed to maim or kill the victim.

22:28 born a citizen. Roman citizenship was originally limited to free Romans, but later it was offered to many others in the empire, either as a reward for outstanding service, or in exchange for a high price. Because Paul’s father was a Roman citizen (how he became a citizen is unknown), Paul was born

The Sanhedrin Divided

<sup>30</sup>The next day, because he wanted to know for certain why he was accused by the Jews, he released him from his bonds, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down and set him before them.

23 Then Paul, looking earnestly at the council, said, “Men and brethren, <sup>a</sup>I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.” <sup>2</sup>And the high priest Ananias commanded those who stood by him <sup>b</sup>to strike him on the mouth. <sup>3</sup>Then Paul said to him, “God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! For you sit to judge me according to the law, and <sup>c</sup>do you command me to be struck contrary to the law?”

<sup>6</sup>But when Paul perceived that one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, “Men and brethren, <sup>f</sup>I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee; <sup>g</sup>concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged!”

<sup>7</sup>And when he had said this, a dissension arose between the Pharisees and the Sadducees; and the assembly was divided. <sup>8</sup><sup>h</sup>For Sadducees say that there is no resurrection—and no angel or spirit; but the Pharisees confess both. <sup>9</sup>Then there arose a loud outcry. And the scribes of the Pharisees’ party arose and protested, saying, <sup>i</sup>“We find no evil in this man; but <sup>j</sup>if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him, <sup>k</sup>let us not fight against God.”*

<sup>10</sup>Now when there arose a great dissension, the commander, fearing lest Paul might be pulled to pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into the barracks.

The Plot Against Paul

banded together and bound themselves under an oath, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had <sup>p</sup>killed Paul. <sup>13</sup>Now there were more than forty who had formed this conspiracy. <sup>14</sup>They came to the chief priests and <sup>q</sup>elders, and said, “We have bound ourselves under a great oath that we will eat nothing until we have killed Paul. <sup>15</sup>Now you, therefore, together with the council, suggest to the commander that he be brought down to you tomorrow;* as though you were going to make further inquiries concerning him; but we are ready to kill him before he comes near.”

<sup>16</sup>So when Paul’s sister’s son heard of their ambush, he went and entered the barracks and told Paul. <sup>17</sup>Then Paul called one of the centurions to him and said, “Take this young man to the commander, for he has something to tell him.” <sup>18</sup>So he took him and brought him to the commander and said, “Paul the prisoner called me to him and asked me to bring this young man to you. He has something to say to you.”

<sup>19</sup>Then the commander took him by the hand, went aside, and asked privately, “What is it that you have to tell me?”

<sup>20</sup>And he said, “The Jews have agreed to ask that you bring Paul down to the council tomorrow, as though they were going to inquire more fully about him. <sup>21</sup>But do not yield to them, for more than forty of them lie in wait for him, men who have bound themselves by an oath that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him; and now they are ready, waiting for the promise from you.”

<sup>22</sup>So the commander let the young man depart, and commanded him, “Tell no one that you have revealed these things to me.”

Sent to Felix

a citizen. Ultimately, God used Paul’s Roman citizenship to spread the gospel to Rome.

23:1 Conscience—The human conscience is given as a tool, enabling us to tell right from wrong, and to evaluate our own actions. The problem is that the conscience of fallen humans is not a reliable guide. Because humans are not “basically good,” an untrained conscience will not necessarily lead toward right. The conscience must be trained by good teaching. It can be rendered useless if it is seared or defiled, it can be deadened by constantly ignoring it. In order to provide useful guidance, the conscience must be recharged by the Holy Spirit. It must be kept clear by confession of sins, and refusing to accept violations.

23:11 witness at Rome. Because of the earlier warnings of his friends (21:4, 10–14), Paul may have begun to doubt his decision. The Lord gave Paul special encouragement at this time, that he was indeed doing just what God wanted him to do.

To the most excellent governor Felix:
Greetings.

<sup>27</sup> <sup>t</sup>This man was seized by the Jews and was about to be killed by them. Coming with the troops I rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman. <sup>28u</sup>And when I wanted to know the reason they accused him, I brought him before their council. <sup>29</sup>I found out that he was accused <sup>v</sup>concerning questions of their law, <sup>w</sup>but had nothing charged against him deserving of death or chains.

<sup>30</sup>And <sup>x</sup>when it was told me that the Jews lay in wait for the man, *I sent him immediately to you, and <sup>y</sup>also commanded his accusers to state before you the charges against him.

Farewell.

Accused of Sedition

24 Now after <sup>d</sup>five days <sup>b</sup>Ananias the high priest came down with the elders and a certain orator named Tertullus. These gave evidence to the governor against Paul.

<sup>2</sup>And when he was called upon, Tertullus began his accusation, saying: “Seeing that through you we enjoy great peace, and prosperity is being brought to this nation by your foresight, <sup>3</sup>we accept it always and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness. <sup>4</sup>Nevertheless, not to be tedious to you any further, I beg you to hear, by your courtesy, a few words from us. <sup>5c</sup>For we have found this man a plague, a creator of dissension among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes. <sup>6a</sup>He even tried to profane the temple, and we seized him,* and wanted <sup>e</sup>to judge him according to our law. <sup>7</sup>But the commander Lysias came by and with great violence took him out of our hands, <sup>8g</sup>commanding his accusers to come to you. By examining him yourself you may ascertain all these things of which we accuse him.” <sup>9</sup>And the Jews also assented,* maintaining that these things were so.

The Defense Before Felix

<sup>10</sup>Then Paul, after the governor had nodded to him to speak, answered: “Inasmuch as I know that you have been for many years a judge of this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself, <sup>11</sup>because you may ascertain that it is no more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem <sup>h</sup>to worship. <sup>12i</sup>And they neither found me in the temple disputing with anyone nor inciting the crowd, either in the synagogues or in the city. <sup>13</sup>Nor can they prove the things of which they now accuse me. <sup>14</sup>But this I confess to you, that according to <sup>i</sup>the Way which they call a sect, so I worship the <sup>k</sup>God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in <sup>l</sup>the Law and in the Prophets. <sup>15m</sup>I have hope in God, which they themselves also accept, <sup>n</sup>that there will be a resurrection of the dead,* both of the just and the unjust. <sup>16o</sup>This being so, I myself always strive to have a conscience without offense toward God and men.

23:33 the governor. Antonius Felix governed Judea from A.D. 52 to 60. Felix had been a slave, but had gained the status of freedman under the emperor Claudius. Because Felix’s brother was a friend of the emperor, Felix’s political career blossomed, even though he was not popular among his peers. The writer Tacitus described him as “exercising the powers of a king with the character of a slave.”

24:14 the Way. Paul openly admitted that he was a follower of “the Way” (those who followed Jesus), but he contended that he still believed the Law and the Prophets. That is, he was a follower of Judaism, a religion which enjoyed the protection of Rome.

24:16 Conscience—There is a connection between Paul’s belief in future judgment and his desire to maintain a clear conscience before God and man.

The intensity of Paul’s desire may be seen from the verb translated “always strive,” which occurs only here in the New Testament. Paul’s desire to have a object if they had anything against me. <sup>20</sup>Or else let those who are here themselves say if they found any wrongdoing* in me while I stood before the council, <sup>21</sup>unless it is for this one statement which I cried out, standing among them, <sup>1</sup>"Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged by you this day."

Felix Procrastinates

<sup>22</sup>But when Felix heard these things, having more accurate knowledge of the "Way, he adjourned the proceedings and said, "When <sup>1</sup>Lysias the commander comes down, I will make a decision on your case."<sup>23</sup>So he commanded the centurion to keep Paul and to let him have liberty, and <sup>2</sup>told him not to forbid any of his friends to provide for or visit him.

<sup>24</sup>And after some days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish, he sent for Paul and heard him concerning the *faith in Christ. <sup>25</sup>Now as he reasoned about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix was afraid and answered, "Go away for now; when I have a convenient time I will call for you."<sup>26</sup>Meanwhile he also hoped that <sup>2</sup>money would be given him by Paul, that he might release him.* Therefore he sent for him more often and conversed with him.

Paul Appeals to Caesar

25 Now when Festus had come to the province, after three days he went up from <sup>a</sup>Caesarea to Jerusalem. <sup>2b</sup>Then the high priest* and the chief men of the Jews informed him against Paul; and they petitioned him, <sup>3</sup>asking a favor against him, that he would summon him to Jerusalem—<sup>c</sup>while they lay in ambush along the road to kill him. <sup>4</sup>But Festus answered that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself was going there shortly. <sup>5</sup>"Therefore," he said, "let those who have authority among you go down with me and accuse this man, to see <sup>d</sup>if there is any fault in him."

good conscience toward God and man reflects the summary of duties of the law of love toward God and neighbor. The conscience needs to be enlightened and purified by Scripture in regard to our responsibilities toward God and man.

24:22 having more accurate knowledge of the Way. Felix's wife Drusilla was Jewish, and part of the Herodian family. Felix had governed Judea and Samaria for six years. He had ample opportunity to understand both Judaism and "the Way" as he must have observed the workings of the early church in Jerusalem.

24:27 after two years. Around A.D. 60, a riot broke out in Caesarea. Felix crushed it with such force that he was removed from office.

25:11 appeal to Caesar. If a Roman citizen thought

<sup>6</sup>And when he had remained among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea. And the next day, sitting on the judgment seat, he commanded Paul to be brought. <sup>7</sup>When he had come, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood about <sup>e</sup>and laid many serious complaints against Paul, which they could not prove, <sup>8</sup>while he answered for himself, <sup>1</sup>"Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar have I offended in anything at all."

<sup>9</sup>But Festus, <sup>2</sup>wanting to do the Jews a favor, answered Paul and said, <sup>h</sup>"Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and there be judged before me concerning these things?"

<sup>10</sup>So Paul said, "I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged. To the Jews I have done no wrong, as you very well know. <sup>11</sup>For if I am an offender, or have committed anything deserving of death, I do not object to dying; but if there is nothing in these things of which these men accuse me, no one can deliver me to them. <sup>1</sup>I appeal to Caesar."

<sup>12</sup>Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, "You have appealed to Caesar? To Caesar you shall go!"

Paul Before Agrippa

he was not getting justice in a provincial court, he could appeal to the emperor himself. If the appeal was declared valid, all other proceedings in the lower courts ceased and the prisoner was sent to Rome for the disposition of his case.

him.’<sup>17</sup> Therefore when they had come together, <sup>n</sup>without any delay, the next day I sat on the judgment seat and commanded the man to be brought in.<sup>18</sup> When the accusers stood up, they brought no accusation against him of such things as I supposed,<sup>19</sup> but had some questions against him about their own religion and about a certain Jesus, who had died, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.<sup>20</sup> And because I was uncertain of such questions, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there be judged concerning these matters.<sup>21</sup> But when Paul <sup>a</sup>appealed to be reserved for the decision of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I could send him to Caesar.”

“Tomorrow,” he said, “you shall hear him.”

<sup>23</sup> So the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp, and had entered the auditorium with the commanders and the prominent men of the city, at Festus’ command <sup>a</sup>Paul was brought in.<sup>24</sup> And Festus said: “King Agrippa and all the men who are here present with us, you see this man about whom <sup>s</sup>the whole assembly of the Jews petitioned me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying out that he was <sup>t</sup>not fit to live any longer.<sup>25</sup> But when I found that <sup>u</sup>he had committed nothing deserving of death, <sup>v</sup>and that he himself had appealed to Augustus, I decided to send him.<sup>26</sup> I have nothing certain to write to my lord concerning him. Therefore I have brought him out before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after the examination has taken place I may have something to write.<sup>27</sup> For it seems to me unreasonable to send a prisoner and not to specify the charges against him.”

Paul’s Early Life

26 Then Agrippa said to Paul, “You are permitted to speak for yourself.”

So Paul stretched out his hand and answered for himself: <sup>2</sup>“I think myself <sup>a</sup>happy, King Agrippa, because today I shall answer <sup>b</sup>for myself before you concerning all the things of which I am <sup>c</sup>accused by the Jews,<sup>3</sup> especially because you are expert in all customs and questions which have to do with the Jews. Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently.

<sup>4</sup>“My manner of life from my youth, which was spent from the beginning among my own nation at Jerusalem, all the Jews know.<sup>5</sup> They knew me from the first, if they were willing to testify, that according to <sup>d</sup>the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.<sup>6</sup> And now I stand and am judged for the hope of <sup>e</sup>the promise made by God to our fathers.<sup>7</sup> To this <sup>f</sup>promise <sup>g</sup>our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God <sup>h</sup>night and day, <sup>i</sup>hope to attain. For this hope’s sake, King Agrippa, I am accused by the Jews.<sup>8</sup> Why should it be thought incredible by you that God raises the dead?

<sup>9</sup>“Indeed, I myself thought I must do many things contrary to the name of <sup>k</sup>Jesus of Nazareth.<sup>10</sup> This I also did in Jerusalem, and many of the saints I shut up in prison, having received authority <sup>m</sup>from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I cast my vote against them.<sup>11</sup> And I punished them often in every synagogue and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

Paul Recounts His Conversion

* 26:17 NU-Text and M-Text omit now.

26:5 I lived a Pharisee. Paul was not some stranger or foreigner trying to start a new religion. He was a Jew, and a member of the religious body which took God’s law most seriously.

26:6–7 Hope—Paul faced a real paradox in his trial before Agrippa. He had been a faithful Pharisee, looking forward to the fulfillment of their common hope, the coming of the Messiah, and eventually the resurrection of the dead. Now that the Messiah had come, and Paul began proclaiming the truth of His atonement and resurrection, he was being persecuted by the very ones who had once shared his hope.

Paul's Post-Conversion Life

Agrippa Parries Paul's Challenge

<sup>24</sup>Now as he thus made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, “Paul, <sup>d</sup>you are beside yourself! Much learning is driving you mad!”

<sup>25</sup>But he said, “I am not mad, most noble Festus, but speak the words of truth and reason. <sup>26</sup>For the king, before whom I also speak freely, <sup>e</sup>knows these things; for I am convinced that none of these things escapes his attention, since this thing was not done in a corner. <sup>27</sup>King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you do believe.”

<sup>29</sup>And Paul said, <sup>f</sup>“I would to God that not only you, but also all who hear me today, might become both almost and altogether such as I am, except for these chains.”

<sup>30</sup>When he had said these things, the king stood up, as well as the governor and Bernice and those who sat with them; <sup>31</sup>and when they had gone aside, they talked among themselves, saying, <sup>g</sup>“This man is doing nothing deserving of death or chains.”

<sup>32</sup>Then Agrippa said to Festus, “This man might have been set <sup>h</sup>free <sup>i</sup>if he had not appealed to Caesar.”

The Voyage to Rome Begins

27 And when <sup>q</sup>it was decided that we should sail to Italy, they delivered Paul and some other prisoners to one named Julius, a centurion of the Augustan Regiment. <sup>2</sup>So, entering a ship of Adramyttium, we put to sea, meaning to sail along the coasts of Asia. <sup>b</sup>Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, was with us. <sup>3</sup>And the next day we landed at Sidon. And Julius <sup>c</sup>treated Paul kindly and gave him liberty to go to his friends and receive care. <sup>4</sup>When we had put to sea from there, we sailed under the shelter of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. <sup>5</sup>And when we had sailed over the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. <sup>6</sup>There the centurion found <sup>d</sup>an Alexandrian ship sailing to Italy, and he put us on board.

<sup>7</sup>When we had sailed slowly many days, and arrived with difficulty off Cnidus, the wind not permitting us to proceed, we sailed under the shelter of <sup>e</sup>Crete off Salmone. <sup>8</sup>Passing it with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

Paul's Warning Ignored

<sup>9</sup>Now when much time had been spent, and sailing was now dangerous <sup>f</sup>because the Fast was already over, Paul advised them, <sup>10</sup>saying, “Men, I perceive that this voyage will end with disaster and much loss, not only of the cargo and ship, but also our lives.” <sup>11</sup>Nevertheless the centurion was more persuaded by the helmsman and the owner of the ship than by the things spoken by Paul. <sup>12</sup>And because the harbor was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised to set sail from there also, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, a harbor of Crete opening toward the southwest and northwest, and winter there.

In the Tempest

26:20 that they should repent. Repentance indicates a complete change in thinking, an “about face” of the mind and heart. Genuine repentance is evidenced by changed behavior.

26:22–23 Christ—Paul makes it clear that Jesus stood firmly in the tradition of the Hebrew Law and Prophets, and specifically identifies Him as the promised Messiah. The suffering and death of the Messiah were ordained by God and proclaimed by His prophets. The resurrection of Jesus provided evidence of the control God was exercising over the process of redemption. This triumphant event removed the purely local and national character of Christ's work, and gave His message of salvation worldwide dimensions, as had been prophesied (Is. 60:3; Mal. 1:11).

27:4 the winds were contrary. This happened just before the winter storms increased, and sailing became difficult. Paul was being sent to Rome by ship at the worst time of year for sailing.

head wind arose, called Euroclydon.*

<sup>15</sup>So when the ship was caught, and could not head into the wind, we let her drive. <sup>16</sup>And running under the shelter of an island called Claudia,* we secured the skiff with difficulty. <sup>17</sup>When they had taken it on board, they used cables to undergird the ship; and fearing lest they should run aground on the Syrtis* Sands, they struck sail and so were driven. <sup>18</sup>And because we were exceedingly tempest-tossed, the next day they lightened the ship. <sup>19</sup>On the third day <sup>20</sup>we threw the ship's tackle overboard with our own hands. <sup>20</sup>Now when neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small tempest beat on us, all hope that we would be saved was finally given up.

<sup>21</sup>But after long abstinence from food, then Paul stood in the midst of them and said, "Men, you should have listened to me, and not have sailed from Crete and incurred this disaster and loss. <sup>22</sup>And now I urge you to take heart, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. <sup>23</sup>For there stood by me this night an angel of the God to whom I belong and <sup>24</sup>whom I serve, <sup>24</sup>saying, 'Do not be afraid, Paul; you must be brought before Caesar; and indeed God has granted you all those who sail with you.' <sup>25</sup>Therefore take heart, men, <sup>26</sup>for I believe God that it will be just as it was told me. <sup>26</sup>However, <sup>27</sup>we must run aground on a certain island."

<sup>27</sup>Now when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven up and down in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors sensed that they were drawing near some land. <sup>28</sup>And they took soundings and found it to be twenty fathoms; and when they had gone a little farther, they took soundings again and found it to be fifteen fathoms. <sup>29</sup>Then, fearing lest we should run aground on the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern, and prayed for day to come. <sup>30</sup>And as the sailors were seeking to escape from the ship, when they had let down the skiff into the sea, under pretense of putting out anchors from the prow, <sup>31</sup>Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men stay in the ship, you cannot be saved." <sup>32</sup>Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the skiff and let it fall off.

any of you." <sup>35</sup>And when he had said these things, he took bread and <sup>36</sup>gave thanks to God in the presence of them all; and when he had broken it he began to eat. <sup>36</sup>Then they were all encouraged, and also took food themselves. <sup>37</sup>And in all we were two hundred and seventy-six <sup>38</sup>persons on the ship. <sup>38</sup>So when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship and threw out the wheat into the sea.

Shipwrecked on Malta

<sup>39</sup>When it was day, they did not recognize the land; but they observed a bay with a beach, onto which they planned to run the ship if possible. <sup>40</sup>And they let go the anchors and left them in the sea, meanwhile loosing the rudder ropes; and they hoisted the mainsail to the wind and made for shore. <sup>41</sup>But striking a place where two seas met, <sup>42</sup>they ran the ship aground; and the prow stuck fast and remained immovable, but the stern was being broken up by the violence of the waves.

<sup>42</sup>And the soldiers' plan was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim away and escape. <sup>43</sup>But the centurion, wanting to save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim should jump overboard first and get to land, <sup>44</sup>and the rest, some on boards and some on parts of the ship. And so it was <sup>45</sup>that they all escaped safely to land.

Paul's Ministry on Malta

28 Now when they had escaped, they then found out that <sup>1</sup>the island was called Malta. <sup>2</sup>And the <sup>3</sup>native showed us unusual kindness; for they kindled a fire and made us all welcome, because of the rain that was falling and because of the cold. <sup>3</sup>But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened on his hand. <sup>4</sup>So when the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he has escaped the sea, yet justice does not allow to live." <sup>5</sup>But he shook off the creature into the fire and <sup>6</sup>suffered no harm. <sup>6</sup>However, they were expecting that he would swell up or suddenly fall down dead. But after they had looked for a long time and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds and <sup>7</sup>said that he was a god.

<sup>7</sup>In that region there was an estate of the leading citizen of the island, whose name was Publius, who received us and entertained us courteously for three days. <sup>8</sup>And it happened that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and dysentery. Paul went in to him and <sup>c</sup>prayed, and <sup>f</sup>he laid his hands on him and healed him. <sup>9</sup>So when this was done, the rest of those on the island who had diseases also came and were healed. <sup>10</sup>They also honored us in many <sup>g</sup>ways; and when we departed, they provided such things as were <sup>h</sup>necessary.

Arrival at Rome

<sup>11</sup>After three months we sailed in <sup>i</sup>an Alexandrian ship whose figurehead was the Twin Brothers, which had wintered at the island. <sup>12</sup>And landing at Syracuse, we stayed three days. <sup>13</sup>From there we circled round and reached Rhegium. And after one day the south wind blew; and the next day we came to Puteoli, <sup>14</sup>where we found <sup>j</sup>brethren, and were invited to stay with them seven days. And so we went toward Rome. <sup>15</sup>And from there, when the brethren heard about us, they came to meet us as far as Appii Forum and Three Inns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and took courage.

<sup>16</sup>Now when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard; but <sup>k</sup>Paul was permitted to dwell by himself with the soldier who guarded him.

Paul's Ministry at Rome

<sup>17</sup>And it came to pass after three days that Paul called the leaders of the Jews together. So when they had come together, he said to them: "Men and brethren, though I have done nothing against our people or the customs of our fathers, yet <sup>m</sup>I was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans, <sup>18</sup>who, <sup>n</sup>when they had examined me, wanted to let me go, because there was no cause for putting me to death. <sup>19</sup>But when the Jews* spoke against it, <sup>o</sup>I was compelled to appeal to Caesar, not that I had anything of which to accuse my nation. <sup>20</sup>For this reason therefore I have called for you, to see you and speak with you, because <sup>p</sup>for the hope of Israel I am bound with <sup>q</sup>this chain."

<sup>21</sup>Then they said to him, "We neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor have any of the brethren who came reported or spoken any evil of you. <sup>22</sup>But we desire to hear from you what you think; for concerning this sect, we know that <sup>r</sup>it is spoken against everywhere."

<sup>v</sup>Go to this people and say:

"Hearing you will hear, and shall not understand;

And seeing you will see, and not perceive;

Their ears are hard of hearing,

And their eyes they have closed,

Lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears,

Lest they should understand with their hearts and turn,

So that I should heal them."<sup>w</sup>

<sup>28</sup>"Therefore let it be known to you that the salvation of God has been sent <sup>x</sup>to the Gentiles, and they will hear <sup>y</sup>it!" <sup>29</sup>And when he had said these words, the Jews departed and had a great dispute among themselves.*

The microorganism has since been traced to the milk of the Maltese goats. The fever usually lasted four months, but sometimes could last as long as two or three years.

28:17 leaders of the Jews. By this time, the decree of the emperor Claudius (18:2) had been allowed to lapse, and Jews had returned to Rome.

28:20 *Hope—The hope of Israel and the hope which Paul had found in Christ were not two different things. Wherever he went, he proclaimed Christ to the Jews as the fulfillment of their hope. That hope included not only the resurrection; it also included the Messiah and His kingdom. Paul is careful to emphasize that the hope which he now proclaims does not undermine the hope of Israel but rather is its divine fulfillment. His devotion to the hope of the fathers was the cause that brought about his imprisonment and put him in chains. His demeanor before these Jewish leaders in Rome must have been impressive. As he stood before these men whose influence could result in life or death for him, there was no quaking or fear. He had that hope which made him secure, whatever happened.

28:30 two whole years. Paul wrote four of the New Testament letters (Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, and Philemon) during this period.

28:31 preaching...teaching. Apparently Paul's case had not been decided when Luke finished this book. It is thought that Paul was in fact released (there was really no case against him), and actually went to Spain as he desired (Rom. 15:24). Titus 1:5 implies that Paul ministered on the island of Crete (something not mentioned in Acts), and many believe that Paul resumed his missionary travel for a few more years before his final arrest, condemnation, and execution, sometime around A.D. 67.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS

► AUTHOR: All critical schools agree on the Pauline authorship of this foundational book. The vocabulary, style, logic, and theological development are consistent with Paul's other epistles. He wrote Romans in A.D. 57, near the end of his third missionary journey, evidently during his three-month stay in Greece (Acts 20:3–6), more specifically, in Corinth. The church in Rome was well known (Rom. 1:8), and it had been established for several years by the time of this letter. The believers were probably numerous, and evidently they met in several places (16:1–16). The historian Tacitus even referred to the Christians who were persecuted there under Nero in A.D. 64 as an "immense multitude," as the gospel filled the gap left by the practically defunct polytheism of Roman religion.

► TIME: c. A.D. 57    ► KEY VERSES: Rom. 1:16–17

► THEME: Most scholars think that Paul probably wrote this letter from Corinth, shortly before going to Jerusalem with the relief funds for the believers there. At this point in his life and ministry, his theology has been fully developed through years of study and interaction with people as he preached the gospel. Romans systematically explains what Christ did, why He did it, and what has happened as a result. It speaks to what we are as humans and how God has interacted with us through Christ. It lays out God's plan for the world, clarifying what has happened and is still happening in biblical history. In this way, Paul forces us to deal with all the false versions of reality inspired by our fallen human nature as opposed to God's gracious, sustaining plan.

Greeting

1 Paul, a bondservant of Jesus Christ, <sup>a</sup>called to be an apostle, <sup>b</sup>separated to the gospel of God <sup>2c</sup>which He promised before <sup>d</sup>through His prophets in the Holy Scriptures, <sup>3</sup>concerning His Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who was <sup>e</sup>born of the seed of David according to the flesh, <sup>4</sup>and <sup>f</sup>declared to be the Son of God with power according <sup>g</sup>to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead. <sup>5</sup>Through Him <sup>h</sup>we have received grace and apostleship for <sup>i</sup>obedience to the faith among all nations <sup>j</sup>for His name, <sup>6</sup>among whom you also are the called of Jesus Christ;

<sup>l</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Desire to Visit Rome

<sup>8</sup>First, <sup>m</sup>I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that <sup>n</sup>your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. <sup>9</sup>For <sup>o</sup>God is my witness, <sup>p</sup>whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of His Son, that <sup>q</sup>without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers, <sup>10</sup>making request if, by some means, now at last I may find a way in the will of God to come to you. <sup>11</sup>For I long to see you, that <sup>r</sup>I may impart to you some spiritual gift, so that you may be established—<sup>12</sup>that is, that I may be encouraged together with you by <sup>s</sup>the mutual faith both of you and me.

<sup>13</sup>Now I do not want you to be unaware, brethren, that I often planned to come to you (but <sup>t</sup>was hindered until now), that I might have some <sup>u</sup>fruit among you also, just as among the other Gentiles. <sup>14</sup>I am a debtor both to Greeks and to barbarians,

1:1 bondservant. A bondservant is a slave. Paul is talking about a slavery taken voluntarily out of love (see Ex. 21:1–6), unlike the forced slavery known to so many in the Roman Empire.

1:4 declared. The word translated "declared" means "designated." Jesus did not become the Son of God by the resurrection. Instead, the resurrection proved that Jesus was the Son of God.

1:14 barbarians. Paul is referring to the non-Greek Gentile populations, such as the northern European peoples, the Britons, the Gauls, and the Celts.

both to wise and to unwise. <sup>15</sup>So, as much as is in me, I am ready to preach the gospel to you who are in Rome also.

The Just Live by Faith

<sup>16</sup>For <sup>v</sup>I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ,* for <sup>w</sup>it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, <sup>x</sup>for the Jew first and also for the Greek. <sup>17</sup>For <sup>y</sup>in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, <sup>z</sup>“The just shall live by faith.”*

God’s Wrath on Unrighteousness

lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

God’s Righteous Judgment

2 Therefore you are <sup>t</sup>inexcusable, O man, whoever you are who judge, <sup>b</sup>for in whatever you judge another you condemn

* 1:16 NU-Text omits of Christ. * 1:17 Habakkuk 2:4 * 1:29 NU-Text omits sexual immorality. * 1:31 NU-Text omits unforgiving.

1:17 faith to faith. Faith is at the beginning of the salvation process, and it is the goal as well. Paul had faith that God, through the Holy Spirit, could and would build true righteousness in him. For the believer this means prayerful self-examination, prayer to do better, and careful response to those inner nudges that say, “don’t say that . . . have pity . . . encourage him . . .” etc.

1:18–19 There Are No Excuses—Someone once said there were two points they understood about God: (1) “There is a God”; and (2) “I am not Him.” Theologians use the term “general revelation” to describe the concept Paul is teaching here in Romans 1. God has revealed Himself through His creation so that everyone can understand that He exists and that He has created the world and man with a purpose. God created man with an inner sense that there is something bigger out there, something that transcends mankind. That something is God and He requires recognition. The created world points us to God, but we suppress that truth, preferring to put ourselves in the place of God, in effect saying, “There is no God but me.” Paul further says that, because the revelation is so clear, we have no excuse for missing it, no legitimate reason for our blindness. People who do not see it are guilty of not acknowledging the most basic reality there is.

1:25 lie. This refers to the kind of wrong thinking that led to idol worship. This “lie” refuses to honor both God’s law and His authority. When people stop knowing that God created the universe, that it is His, they adopt all kinds of wrong thinking about sin, society, morality, and especially, the role of God Himself.

1:27 what is shameful. Homosexuality is sin (Lev. 18:22), and the actions that are part of this lifestyle are called “shameful” by God. In this passage Paul explains that homosexual sin is the result of men having rejected God and exchanged what is natural for the unnatural. The problems from this way of living are themselves the “penalty” for this choice.

1:29–32 being filled with all unrighteousness. These verses contain one of the most complete lists of sin in all of Scripture. This passage addresses not only the fact that God judges rightly that these sins are deserving of death, but it also addresses the idea that approving of these sins is something God judges.

2:1–4 judge. Paul points out in this passage that anyone who judges others condemns himself, for in this list of sins is something that everyone has been guilty yourself; for you who judge practice the same things. <sup>2</sup>But we know that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who practice such things. <sup>3</sup>And do you think this, O man, you who judge those practicing such things, and doing the same, that you will escape the judgment of God? <sup>4</sup>Or do you despise <sup>c</sup>the riches of His goodness, <sup>d</sup>forbearance, and <sup>e</sup>longsuffering, <sup>f</sup>not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance? <sup>5</sup>But in accordance with your hardness and your impenitent heart <sup>g</sup>you are treasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God, <sup>h</sup>who <sup>i</sup>"will render to each one according to his deeds": <sup>j</sup>eternal life to those who by patient continuance in doing good seek for glory, honor, and immortality; <sup>8</sup>but to those who are self-seeking and <sup>k</sup>do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness—indignation and wrath, <sup>9</sup>tribulation and anguish, on every soul of man who does evil, of the Jew <sup>l</sup>first and also of the Greek; <sup>10</sup>but glory, honor, and peace to everyone who works what is good, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. <sup>11</sup>For <sup>m</sup>there is no partiality with God.

<sup>12</sup>For as many as have sinned without law will also perish without law, and as many as have sinned in the law will be judged by the law <sup>13</sup>(for <sup>n</sup>not the hearers of the law are just in the sight of God, but the doers of the law will be justified; <sup>14</sup>for when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do the things in the law, these, although not having the law, are a law to themselves, <sup>15</sup>who show the <sup>o</sup>work of the law written in their hearts, their <sup>p</sup>conscience also bearing witness, and between themselves <sup>q</sup>their thoughts accusing or else excusing <sup>r</sup>them) <sup>16</sup>in the day when God will judge the secrets of men <sup>a</sup>by Jesus Christ, <sup>v</sup>according to my gospel.

The Jews Guilty as the Gentiles

Circumcision of No Avail

<sup>25</sup>eFor circumcision is indeed profitable if you keep the law; but if you are a breaker of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. <sup>26</sup>Therefore, <sup>f</sup>if an uncircumcised man keeps the righteous requirements of the law, will not his uncircumcision be counted as circumcision? <sup>27</sup>And will not the physically uncircumcised, if he fulfills the law, <sup>g</sup>judge you who, even with your written code and circumcision, are a transgressor of the law? <sup>28</sup>For <sup>h</sup>he is not a Jew who is one outwardly,

* 2:6 Psalm 62:12; Proverbs 24:12 * 2:17 NU-Text reads But if. * 2:24 Isaiah 52:5; Ezekiel 36:22 of in one way or another. Paul asks if the judges realize that it is God in His goodness who leads one to repentance, and that only God can judge rightly. Only He can judge the actions of the heart and person without condemning Himself, for only He is without sin.

2:4 repentance. Literally, this means "to change one's mind." In this context it means to reject one's sinful habits and turn to God.

2:7–8 eternal life . . . doing good. According to these verses it might seem that "eternal life" can be gained by "doing good." But Romans clearly teaches justification by faith (3:22). The subject of this verse is judgment, not justification. Jesus said that "every idle word men may speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment" (Matt. 12:36). Even Christians will see both the good and the evil that they have done. They are justified (considered righteous and therefore not punished for their sins because they have accepted Christ's death on their behalf) but they still have to see what they have done according to God's righteous judgment. Good works are a "foundation for the time to come [eternity]" (1 Tim. 6:17–19).

2:12 without law. Gentiles, who did not receive the Mosaic law, were sometimes described by this term.

2:14 by nature do the things in the law. Gentiles who still do such things as honor their parents, respond in kindness, or live honestly, show that they do have the idea of a basic moral law and the concepts of right and wrong.

2:16 secrets. According to the gospel that Paul preached, God will judge not only people's actions, but their motives, or "secrets."

2:17–25 Self-Righteousness—Paul speaks of the lamentable disparity between the truth that the Jews knew, and their practice of the truth. Boasting about having God's law, while breaking the law in their lives, brings upon them the strongest condemnation, and establishes the truth that the law can only condemn.

nor is circumcision that which is outward in the flesh; <sup>29</sup>but he is a Jew <sup>1</sup>who is one inwardly; and <sup>i</sup>circumcision is that of the heart, <sup>k</sup>in the Spirit, not in the letter; <sup>l</sup>whose praise is not from men but from God.

God's Judgment Defended

3 What advantage then has the Jew, or what is the profit of circumcision? <sup>2</sup>Much in every way! Chiefly because <sup>a</sup>to them were committed the oracles of God. <sup>3</sup>For what if <sup>b</sup>some did not believe? <sup>c</sup>Will their unbelief make the faithfulness of God without effect? <sup>4a</sup>Certainly not! Indeed, let <sup>e</sup>God be true but <sup>f</sup>every man a liar. As it is written:

g“That You may be justified in Your words,
And may overcome when You are judged.”*

<sup>5</sup>But if our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unjust who inflicts wrath? <sup>h</sup>(I speak as a man.) <sup>6</sup>Certainly not! For then <sup>how</sup> will God judge the world?

<sup>7</sup>For if the truth of God has increased through my lie to His glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner? <sup>8</sup>And why not say, <sup>i</sup>“Let us do evil that good may come?”—as we are slanderously reported and as some affirm that we say. Their condemnation is just.

All Have Sinned

<sup>9</sup>What then? Are we better than they? Not at all. For we have previously charged both Jews and Greeks that <sup>k</sup>they are all under sin.

<sup>10</sup>As it is written:

l“There is none righteous, no, not one;

<sup>11</sup> There is none who understands;

There is none who seeks after God.

<sup>12</sup> *They have all turned aside;
They have together become unprofitable;
There is none who does good, no, not one.”**

<sup>13</sup> *“Their<sup>m</sup> throat is an open tomb;
With their tongues they have practiced deceit.”**

<sup>n</sup>“The poison of asps is under their lips”;* <sup>14</sup> *“Whose<sup>n</sup> mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.”**

<sup>15</sup> “Their<sup>p</sup> feet are swift to shed blood; Destruction and misery are in their ways;

<sup>17</sup> *And the way of peace they have not known.”**

eyes.”**

God's Righteousness Through Faith

2:29 in the Spirit, not in the letter. The internal circumcision of the heart is the work of the Holy Spirit. God condemns external observance if it is not the product of a righteous heart (Is. 1:10-18).

3:2 oracles of God. The entire Old Testament, the laws and the covenants that have been given by God Himself to the nation of Israel are the “oracles,” or the things that God has spoken.

3:16 Destruction and misery. In verses 10-18, Paul quotes without formal introduction a number of different verses from the Old Testament. In these passages it is shown that man not only does not seek God, but apart from Him they lack true goodness and will treat each other with violence, cursing, being quick to kill, and finding only destruction and misery.

3:18 fear of God. This is an Old Testament expression for respect and reverence for God.

3:20 justified. A legal term used of the defendant in a trial, “justified” means “declared righteous.” No one will be declared righteous by doing what God requires in the law.

3:23 Universal Sin—We generally avoid the word sin. We want to call it something other than what it is because we don’t like the implications of the word. We don’t like being told we’re rebels, that we’re flawed and bent in our very natures, and that there is nothing we can do about it on our own (Gen. 3:6-7). We have this innate sense that we can overcome the problem with a little more effort or maturity. Even that innate sense is an illustration of the problem. The bold hard facts always point us back to Paul’s conclusions; “we’re sinners,” period.

3:24 redemption. Those who believe are justified, that is, declared righteous, freely, by God’s grace or favor. Christ Jesus died to provide redemption, (or to “buy back,” in the same way we “redeem” a promissory note). He died to pay the price required to ransom sinners. He transfers His righteousness to those who believe in Him, and on the basis of Christ’s

Boasting Excluded

<sup>27e</sup>Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? Of works? No, but by the law of faith. <sup>28</sup>Therefore we conclude <sup>f</sup>that a man is justified by faith apart from the deeds of the law. <sup>29</sup>Or is He the God of the Jews only? Is He not also the God of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also, <sup>30</sup>since <sup>g</sup>there is one God who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. <sup>31</sup>Do we then make void the law through faith? Certainly not! On the contrary, we establish the law.

Abraham Justified by Faith

4 What then shall we say that <sup>a</sup>Abraham our <sup>b</sup>father has found according to the flesh? <sup>2</sup>For if Abraham was <sup>c</sup>justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God. <sup>3</sup>For what does the Scripture say? <sup>d</sup>“Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.” <sup>4</sup>Now <sup>e</sup>to him who works, the wages are not counted as grace but as debt.

David Celebrates the Same Truth

And whose sins are covered;*

Abraham Justified Before Circumcision

<sup>9</sup>Does this blessedness then come upon the circumcised only, or upon the uncircumcised also? For we say that faith was accounted to Abraham for righteousness. <sup>10</sup>How then was it accounted? While he was circumcised, or uncircumcised? Not while circumcised, but while uncircumcised. <sup>11</sup>And <sup>k</sup>he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while still uncircumcised, that <sup>l</sup>he might be the father of all those who believe, though they are uncircumcised, that righteousness might be imputed to them also, <sup>12</sup>and the father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of the faith which our father <sup>1</sup>Abraham had while still uncircumcised.

The Promise Granted Through Faith

<sup>13</sup>For the promise that he would be the <sup>m</sup>heir of the world was not to Abraham or to his seed through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. <sup>14</sup>For <sup>n</sup>if those who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void and the promise made of no effect, <sup>15</sup>because <sup>o</sup>the law brings about wrath; for where there is no law there is no transgression.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore it is of faith that it might be <sup>p</sup>according to grace, <sup>q</sup>so that the promise might be sure to all the seed, not only to those who are of the law, but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham, <sup>r</sup>who is the father of us all <sup>17</sup>(as it is written, <sup>s</sup>“I have made you a father of many nations”<sup>t</sup>) in righteousness alone, believers can approach God's throne with praise.

3:25 propitiation. By His death, Christ satisfied the justice of God. The word translated “propitiation” refers to appeasement. No man can ever appease God, for His wrath over sin and His judgment of sin are totally just. But God in His mercy provided that appeasement through Jesus Christ, who died on the cross to pay for the sins of the world and to open the way for sinners to come before our Holy God.

3:27 law of faith. The “law of faith” is a kind of play on words. Paul was talking about the fact that the law does not give people a right relationship with God. The only “law” about having this relationship is that it must be by “faith,” not by deeds, whether people are Jewish or Gentile. We can never earn our salvation.

3:31 make void the law. In this passage the question of either making the law void or establishing the law means that if salvation is received by faith, it would seem like the law was of no value. But actually the fact that Christ came, which was promised through the whole Old Testament, and that He kept the law perfectly, establishes the law as being valid. Only after salvation can people keep the law at all, as Jesus explained in Matthew 22:40, for the law is summed up in loving God and loving our neighbor.

4:1 according to the flesh. Or “by his own labor.”

4:16 Abraham, who is the father of us all. God's promises to Abraham were not based on any performance or ritual, but on Abraham's belief, so Abraham is the “father” of all who believe.

4:17 gives life to the dead. The description of God

the presence of Him whom he believed—God, <sup>1</sup>who gives life to the dead and calls those <sup>2</sup>“things which do not exist as though they did; <sup>3</sup>who, contrary to hope, in hope believed, so that he became the father of many nations, according to what was spoken, <sup>4</sup>“So shall your descendants be.” <sup>5</sup>And not being weak in faith, <sup>6</sup>he did not consider his own body, already dead (since he was about a hundred years old), <sup>7</sup>and the deadness of Sarah’s womb. <sup>8</sup>He did not waver at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God, <sup>9</sup>and being fully convinced that what He had promised <sup>10</sup>He was also able to perform. <sup>11</sup>And therefore <sup>12</sup>“it was accounted to him for righteousness.” <sup>13</sup>

<sup>14</sup>Now <sup>15</sup>it was not written for his sake alone that it was imputed to him, <sup>16</sup>but also for us. It shall be imputed to us who believe <sup>17</sup>in Him who raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead, <sup>18</sup>who was delivered up because of our offenses, and <sup>19</sup>was raised because of our justification.

Faith Triumphs in Trouble

5 Therefore, <sup>1</sup>having been justified by faith, we have <sup>2</sup>peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>3</sup>through whom also we have access by faith into this grace <sup>4</sup>in which we stand, and <sup>5</sup>rejoice in hope of the glory of God. <sup>6</sup>And not only <sup>7</sup>that, but <sup>8</sup>we also glory in tribulations, <sup>9</sup>knowing that tribulation produces perseverance; <sup>10</sup>and perseverance, character; and character, hope. <sup>11</sup>Now hope does not disappoint, <sup>12</sup>because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

Christ in Our Place

<sup>5</sup>God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. <sup>6</sup>Much more then, having now been justified <sup>7</sup>by His blood, we shall be saved <sup>8</sup>from wrath through Him. <sup>9</sup>For <sup>10</sup>if when we were enemies <sup>11</sup>we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved <sup>12</sup>by His life. <sup>13</sup>And not only <sup>14</sup>that, but we also <sup>15</sup>rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.

Death in Adam, Life in Christ

*4:18 Genesis 15:5 *4:22 Genesis 15:6

*5:1 Another ancient reading is, let us have peace.

as one who “gives life to the dead” refers not only to God making Abraham and Sarah’s dead reproductive systems alive, but also to the fact that God could and did resurrect Jesus. That is the kind of God He is; belief in the resurrection is central to Christianity, and also to our belief in our own eternal life through Christ.

5:1 Justification—God’s gracious justification of the believer does not take place by stages or degrees. It is an instantaneous judicial “not guilty” declaration, based on the perfect obedience and the once-for-all sacrifice of Christ. The believer now has peace with God through Jesus Christ, full pardon of his sins, and the title to eternal life. The crowning gift is an abiding joy and peace in the Lord, which remains in spite of outside circumstances.

5:12 one man. The “one man” is Adam.

5:13 imputed. “Imputed” means “to charge to one’s account,” as by an entry made into a ledger. In other words, sin was present in the world from Adam to Moses, but God did not keep an account of sins before the giving of the law because there was no law to obey or disobey. Those after Adam and before Moses did not sin like Adam because there were no prohibitions similar to the law of Moses. But they did sin, and the way we know this is that “death reigned.” They all died.

<sup>19</sup>For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so also by <sup>20</sup>one Man's obedience many will be made righteous.

<sup>20</sup>Moreover <sup>a</sup>the law entered that the offense might abound. But where sin abounded, grace <sup>b</sup>abounded much more, <sup>21</sup>so that as sin reigned in death, even so grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Dead to Sin, Alive to God

6 What shall we say then? <sup>a</sup>Shall we continue in sin that that grace may abound? <sup>2</sup>Certainly not! How shall we who <sup>b</sup>died to sin live any longer in it? <sup>3</sup>Or do you not know that <sup>c</sup>as many of us as were baptized into Christ Jesus <sup>d</sup>were baptized into His death? <sup>4</sup>Therefore we were <sup>e</sup>buried with Him through baptism into death, that <sup>f</sup>just as Christ was raised from the dead by <sup>g</sup>the glory of the Father, <sup>h</sup>even so we also should walk in newness of life.

<sup>5</sup>For if we have been united together in the likeness of His death, certainly we also shall be in the likeness of His resurrection. <sup>6</sup>Knowing this, that <sup>i</sup>our old man was crucified with Him, that <sup>k</sup>the body of sin might be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves of sin. <sup>7</sup>For <sup>l</sup>he who has died has been freed from sin. <sup>8</sup>Now <sup>m</sup>if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him, <sup>9</sup>knowing that <sup>n</sup>Christ, having been raised from the dead, dies no more. Death no longer has dominion over Him. <sup>10</sup>For the death that He died, <sup>o</sup>He died to sin once for all; but the life that He lives, <sup>p</sup>He lives to God. <sup>11</sup>Likewise you also, reckon yourselves to be <sup>q</sup>dead indeed to sin, but <sup>r</sup>alive to Him in Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts. <sup>13</sup>And do not present your <sup>s</sup>members as instruments of unrighteousness to sin, but <sup>t</sup>present yourselves to God as being alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. <sup>14</sup>For <sup>v</sup>sin shall not have dominion over you, for you are not under law but under grace.

From Slaves of Sin to Slaves of God

<sup>15</sup>What then? Shall we sin <sup>w</sup>because we are not under law but under grace? Certainly not! <sup>16</sup>Do you not know that <sup>x</sup>to whom you present yourselves slaves to obey, you are that one's slaves whom you obey, whether of sin leading to death, or of obedience leading to righteousness? <sup>17</sup>But God be thanked that though you were slaves of sin, yet you obeyed from the heart <sup>y</sup>that form of doctrine to which you were delivered. <sup>18</sup>And <sup>z</sup>having been set free from sin, you became slaves of righteousness. <sup>19</sup>I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you presented your members as slaves of uncleanness, and of lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves of righteousness for holiness.

Freed from the Law

7 Or do you not know, brethren (for I speak to those who know the law), that the law has dominion over a man as long as he lives? <sup>2</sup>For <sup>a</sup>the woman who has a husband is bound by the law to her husband as long as he lives. But if the husband dies, she is released from the law of her husband. <sup>3</sup>So then <sup>b</sup>if, while her husband lives, she marries another man, she will

5:19 *many will be made righteous. Through the sanctifying work of the Holy Spirit, the believer who has been declared righteous by God is continually becoming more righteous in thought and action.

5:20 *where sin abounded, grace abounded much more. Once the law had been revealed, the sin which was already there became much more obvious because it had been explicitly illustrated how wrong it was. But grace was even bigger than the sin. Sin can never exceed the grace provided by God, and it loses its threat when compared to the infinite grace of God. 6:6 *crucified with Him. Simply put, a believer is not the same person he or she was before conversion. A believer is a new creation in Christ (2 Cor. 5:17).

6:23 *New Life: A Free Gift.—This passage gets at the central point of the Christian gospel. When we are separated from God, sin directs our lives and there is a wage, a consequence, for that sin: death and permanent separation from God. In stark contrast, we do not earn a wage from God. His gifts are free and abundant—the gift of eternal life. There is nothing that one can do to earn this incredible gift. Eternal life is just that—eternal—it never ceases. All fear of death and its effects can end. Instead of being separated from God for all eternity, Christians will have union with Him. Jesus Christ accomplished all of this on the cross once and for all.

7:3 *Adultery.—In this passage Paul uses the marriage relationship as an illustration of the believer's relationship to the law and Christ. A wife cannot be called an adulteress; but if her husband dies, she is free from that law, so that she is no adulteress, though she has married another man. <sup>4</sup>Therefore, my brethren, you also have become <sup>c</sup>dead to the law through the body of Christ, that you may be married to another—to Him who was raised from the dead, that we should <sup>b</sup>bear fruit to God. <sup>5</sup>For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions which were aroused by the law <sup>e</sup>were at work in our members <sup>f</sup>to bear fruit to death. <sup>6</sup>But now we have been delivered from the law, having died to what we were held by, so that we should serve <sup>g</sup>in the newness of the Spirit and not in the oldness of the letter.

Sin's Advantage in the Law

<sup>7</sup>What shall we say then? Is the law sin? Certainly not! On the contrary, <sup>h</sup>I would not have known sin except through the law. For I would not have known covetousness unless the law had said, <sup>i</sup>"You shall not covet." <sup>8</sup>But <sup>j</sup>sin, taking opportunity by the commandment, produced in me all manner of evil desire. For <sup>k</sup>apart from the law sin was dead. <sup>9</sup>I was alive once without the law, but when the commandment came, sin revived and I died. <sup>10</sup>And the commandment, <sup>l</sup>which was to bring life, I found to bring death. <sup>11</sup>For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it killed me. <sup>12</sup>Therefore <sup>m</sup>the law is holy, and the commandment holy and just and good.

Law Cannot Save from Sin

<sup>13</sup>Has then what is good become death to me? Certainly not! But sin, that it might appear sin, was producing death in me through what is good, so that sin through the commandment might become exceedingly sinful. <sup>14</sup>For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am carnal, <sup>n</sup>sold under sin.

marry another without committing adultery, but if her husband is dead, she is free to marry another. In the same way, believers must count the law (reconciliation with God by works) dead, in order to "marry" Christ and have a new life. Believers cannot live by the law and by grace, any more than a woman can have two husbands.

7:6 newness of the Spirit . . . oldness of the letter. Believers have a new life in the Holy Spirit, not in trying to gain life by obeying ancient or old laws.

7:8 apart from the law sin was dead. Sin can exist without the law, but without a standard of right and wrong, there can be no judgment of what is sin and what is not.

7:9 when the commandment came, sin revived. Oddly enough, the very rules against certain behaviors arouse the desire to perform those evil acts.

7:13 become death to me. The problem is not the law; the problem is sin. Through the law, sin is shown for what it is, and realization that we are "dead" in sin. We cannot really "be good," even when we know what that is.

<sup>15</sup>For what I am doing, I do not understand. <sup>16</sup>For what I will to do, that I do not practice; but what I hate, that I do. <sup>16</sup>If, then, I do what I will not to do, I agree with the law that it is good. <sup>17</sup>But now, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells in me. <sup>18</sup>For I know that <sup>o</sup>in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. <sup>19</sup>For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice. <sup>20</sup>Now if I do what I will not to do, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells in me.

So then, with the mind I myself serve the law of God, but with the flesh the law of sin.

Free from Indwelling Sin

8 *There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus,** <sup>1</sup>who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. <sup>2</sup>For <sup>b</sup>the law of <sup>c</sup>the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from <sup>d</sup>the law of sin and death. <sup>3</sup>For <sup>e</sup>what the law could not do in that it was weak through the flesh, <sup>f</sup>God did by sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, on account of sin: He condemned sin in the flesh, <sup>4</sup>that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us who <sup>g</sup>do not walk according to the flesh

* 7:7 Exodus 20:17; Deuteronomy 5:21 * 8:1 NU-Text omits the rest of this verse.

8:1 Condemnation—God's justification ("not guilty"), once pronounced, is final. Christ's death blots out the sins of His people, and when His work is applied to the believer, there is no room for condemnation, for God's justice has removed all grounds for it forever. This does not mean that the believer does not still deal with overcoming sin on a regular basis, but through the work of the Holy Spirit, he can be free from the tyranny of sin, and for the love of Christ, live in a way that pleases his Savior.

8:3 the law could not do. The law can point out sin, but it cannot do anything about sin itself.

8:4 the righteous requirement of the law might

but according to the Spirit. <sup>5</sup>For <sup>h</sup>those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, <sup>i</sup>the things of the Spirit. <sup>6</sup>For <sup>j</sup>to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. <sup>7</sup>Because <sup>k</sup>the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, <sup>l</sup>nor indeed can be. <sup>8</sup>So then, those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

<sup>9</sup>But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwells in you. Now if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he is not His. <sup>10</sup>And if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. <sup>11</sup>But if the Spirit of <sup>m</sup>Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, <sup>n</sup>He who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit who dwells in you.

Sonship Through the Spirit

<sup>12o</sup>Therefore, brethren, we are debtors—not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. <sup>13</sup>For <sup>p</sup>if you live according to the flesh you will die; but if by the Spirit you <sup>q</sup>put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. <sup>14</sup>For <sup>r</sup>as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God. <sup>15</sup>For <sup>s</sup>you did not receive the spirit of bondage again <sup>t</sup>to fear, but you received the <sup>u</sup>Spirit of adoption by whom we cry out, <sup>v</sup>“Abba, Father.” <sup>16w</sup>The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, <sup>17</sup>and if children, then <sup>x</sup>heirs—heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, <sup>y</sup>if indeed we suffer with Him, that we may also be glorified together.

From Suffering to Glory

of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of God. <sup>20</sup>For <sup>b</sup>the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it in hope; <sup>21</sup>because the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious <sup>c</sup>liberty of the children of God. <sup>22</sup>For we know that the whole creation <sup>d</sup>groans and labors with birth pangs together until now. <sup>23</sup>Not only that, but we also who have <sup>e</sup>the firstfruits of the Spirit, <sup>f</sup>even we ourselves groan <sup>g</sup>within ourselves, eagerly waiting for the adoption, the <sup>h</sup>redemption of our body. <sup>24</sup>For we were saved in this hope, but <sup>i</sup>hope that is seen is not hope; for why does one still hope for what he sees? <sup>25</sup>But if we hope for what we do not see, we eagerly wait for it with perseverance.

God's Everlasting Love

<sup>31</sup>What then shall we say to these things? <sup>v</sup>If God is for us, who can be against us?

* 8:26 NU-Text omits for us.

be fulfilled in us. The believer gains the righteous standard of the law—love—not by means of the law, but by being in Christ and walking “according to the Spirit.”

8:15 God the Father—God is the Father of all who believe in Christ in a special sense not shared by unbelievers. God is called their Father, first of all, because they have a new standing before Him. While unbelievers are the offspring of God because He created them (Acts 17:28–29), they do not have the standing of sons or daughters. Their standing is rather as condemned sinners before God the Judge (John 3:18; Rev. 20:11). When a person believes in Christ as Savior, his estate is changed from condemnation to sonship. This new standing grants to all believers the legal right and spiritual privileges of divine sonship: “heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ” (Rom. 8:17). He gives them new life (John 3:3). This relationship then is a family one involving many of the same realities that exist between an earthly father and child: birth of the child (John 3:3); partaking of the father’s nature (2 Pet. 1:4); the father’s care for the child (Matt. 6:32–33; 7:9–11); and the father’s discipline of the child (Heb. 12:6–8). This new Father-child relationship carries with it new brothers and sisters (Heb. 13:1). The one who believes in Christ as Savior enters into the Father-child relationship with God on the grounds of Christ’s sonship (Rom. 8:17; Heb. 2:17).

<sup>32w</sup>He who did not spare His own Son, but <sup>x</sup>delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things? <sup>33</sup>Who shall bring a charge against God's elect? <sup>y</sup>It is God who justifies. <sup>34z</sup>Who is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, and furthermore is also risen, <sup>a</sup>who is even at the right hand of God, <sup>b</sup>who also makes intercession for us. <sup>35</sup>Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? <sup>36</sup>As it is written:

"For Your sake we are killed all day long;

We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter."

Israel's Rejection of Christ

9 I <sup>a</sup>tell the truth in Christ, I am not lying, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Spirit, <sup>2b</sup>that I have great sorrow and continual grief in my heart. <sup>3</sup>For <sup>c</sup>I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my countrymen* according to the flesh, <sup>4</sup>who are Israelites, <sup>d</sup>to whom pertain the adoption, <sup>e</sup>the glory, <sup>f</sup>the covenants, <sup>g</sup>the giving of the law, <sup>h</sup>the service of God, and <sup>i</sup>the promises; <sup>5j</sup>of whom are the fathers and from <sup>k</sup>whom, according to the flesh, Christ came, <sup>l</sup>who is over all, the eternally blessed God. Amen.

Israel's Rejection and God's Purpose

<sup>10</sup>And not only this, but when <sup>s</sup>Rebecca also had conceived by one man, even by our father Isaac <sup>11</sup>(for the children not yet being born, nor having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works but of <sup>t</sup>Him who calls), <sup>12</sup>it was said to her, <sup>u</sup>"The older shall serve the younger." <sup>13</sup>As it is written, <sup>v</sup>"Jacob I have loved, but Esau I have hated."

Israel's Rejection and God's Justice

<sup>14</sup>What shall we say then? <sup>w</sup>Is there unrighteousness with God? Certainly not! <sup>15</sup>For He says to Moses, <sup>x</sup>"I will have mercy on whomever I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whomever I will have compassion." <sup>16</sup>So then it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God who shows mercy. <sup>17</sup>For <sup>y</sup>the Scripture says to the Pharaoh, <sup>z</sup>"For this very purpose I have raised you up, that I may show My power in you, and that My name may be

* 8:36 Psalm 44:22 * 9:3 Or relatives * 9:7 Genesis 21:12 * 9:9 Genesis 18:10, 14 * 9:12 Genesis 25:23 * 9:13 Malachi 1:2, 3 * 9:15 Exodus 33:19

8:38–39 The Ultimate Security—The first chapters of Romans contain the most complete and systematic presentation of the gospel in the Scriptures. This passage is the bottom-line statement. Nothing can separate us from the love of God that is in Christ. Sadly, too often we hear those words and aren't able to apply them to how we live on a day-to-day basis. Satan is known as a deceiver. He will always try to persuade us that God's love is less than what it is. No matter what the circumstances, no matter how much we mess up, no matter how many powerful forces there are that would try to damage our relationship with Him, God will be there for us with His love.

8:39 shall be able to separate us. Christ created all things, "in heaven and . . . on earth, visible and invisible," and He was "before all things, and in Him all things consist" (Col. 1:16–17). If God, who was from the beginning, is for us, no created thing can separate us from His love. Our security in Him is absolute.

9:1 Conscience—This word is used by Paul for the witness within a person which scrutinizes, examines, and renders a verdict on behavior. Paul is saying in the passage that his conscience verifies the truthfulness of his statement that he has great grief over the Jews' rejection of the gospel. The Holy Spirit is the revealer of truth to the soul, and only as the mind and heart are taught by Scripture and governed by the Holy Spirit is the voice of conscience a reliable guide in life.

9:6 not all Israel. What about the Jewish people? They had the law, the covenants, and the promises. God has not changed His mind about His chosen people. He always intended for them to understand His whole message, up to and including the Messiah (Christ), as Paul has just explained. But God has, throughout history, always worked with those who believed, not just according to bloodline.

9:15 I will have mercy. God does not "owe" any of us salvation. He has mercy on us in spite of the way we act, not because of the way we act.

declared in all the earth.”* <sup>18</sup>Therefore He has mercy on whom He wills, and whom He wills He <sup>c</sup>hardens.

<sup>19</sup>You will say to me then, “Why does He still find fault? For <sup>b</sup>who has resisted His will?” <sup>20</sup>But indeed, O man, who are you to reply against God? <sup>c</sup>Will the thing formed say to him who formed it, “Why have you made me like this?” <sup>21</sup>Does not the <sup>d</sup>potter have power over the clay, from the same lump to make <sup>e</sup>one vessel for honor and another for dishonor?

<sup>25</sup>As He says also in Hosea:

*<sup>1</sup>“I will call them My people, who were not My people,
And her beloved, who was not beloved.”**

<sup>26</sup>“*And<sup>m</sup> it shall come to pass in the place where it was said to them,
‘You are not My people,’
There they shall be called sons of the living God.”**

<sup>27</sup>Isaiah also cries out concerning Israel:*

<sup>o</sup>The remnant will be saved.*

<sup>28</sup> *For He will finish the work and cut it short in righteousness, <sup>p</sup>Because the LORD will make a short work upon the earth.”**

And we would have been made like Gomorrah.”**

Present Condition of Israel

<sup>30</sup>What shall we say then? <sup>s</sup>That Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, have attained to righteousness, <sup>t</sup>even the righteousness of faith; <sup>31</sup>but Israel, <sup>u</sup>pursuing the law of righteousness, <sup>v</sup>has not attained to the law of righteousness.* <sup>32</sup>Why? Because they did not seek it by faith, but as it were, by the works of the law.* For <sup>w</sup>they stumbled at that stumbling stone. <sup>33</sup>As it is written:

And <sup>y</sup>whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame.”**

Israel Needs the Gospel

10 Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel* is that they may be saved. <sup>2</sup>For I bear them witness <sup>a</sup>that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. <sup>3</sup>For they being ignorant of <sup>b</sup>God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own <sup>c</sup>righteousness, have not submitted to the righteousness of God. <sup>4</sup>For <sup>d</sup>Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes.

9:20 reply against God. Herein lies the divine tension. The Lord says that He does not wish for any to perish, but for all to come to repentance (2 Pet. 3:9). But He also says that no one comes to Jesus unless the Father draws him (John 6:44). He has mercy on whom He desires, and He hardens whom He desires (v. 18). Paul insists on God's right to do as He pleases. Even though God both draws and hardens, He also says that who He is and His worthiness to be worshiped are made plain in creation, so man is without excuse (Rom. 1:18–21). The question is not, “Why are some saved and some condemned?” Everyone deserves condemnation and it is only by God's grace that anyone is saved. We can be sure that whatever God does, it will be righteous, and there is a bigger picture than we can understand from our finite point of view. The only real question is, “How can I be saved?”

9:32 stumbled. Being committed to righteousness by works, Israel “stumbled” over the righteousness of faith offered in Christ, just as God had already seen they would and declared through the prophet Isaiah (v. 33).

10:3 Self-Righteousness—There are two things which hinder people from submitting themselves to God's plan of salvation. The first is ignorance of God's own righteous character, and the second is human pride. No one is ever a candidate for Christ's righteousness unless he sees himself as utterly devoid of all possibility of attaining it on his own merits.

10:4 For Christ is the end of the law. Christ fulfilled all the requirements of the law, and He is also the Christ down from above) <sup>7</sup>or, <sup>g</sup>“Who will descend into the abyss?”* (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). <sup>8</sup>But what does it say? <sup>h</sup>“The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart”* (that is, the word of faith which we preach): <sup>9</sup>that <sup>i</sup>if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. <sup>10</sup>For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. <sup>11</sup>For the Scripture says, <sup>j</sup>“Whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame.”* <sup>12</sup>For <sup>k</sup>there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord over all <sup>m</sup>is rich to all who call upon Him. <sup>13</sup>For <sup>n</sup>“whoever calls <sup>o</sup>on the name of the LORD shall be saved.”*

Israel Rejects the Gospel

<sup>14</sup>How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear <sup>p</sup>without a preacher? <sup>15</sup>And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written:

<sup>q</sup>“How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace,*
Who bring glad tidings of good things!”*

<sup>16</sup>But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, <sup>r</sup>“LORD, who has believed our report?”* <sup>17</sup>So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

<sup>18</sup>But I say, have they not heard? Yes indeed:

<sup>s</sup>“Their sound has gone out to all the earth,
And their words to the ends of the world.”*

<sup>19</sup>But I say, did Israel not know? First Moses says:

<sup>t</sup>“I will provoke you to jealousy by those who are not a nation,
I will move you to anger by a <sup>u</sup>foolish nation.”*

<sup>20</sup>But Isaiah is very bold and says:

<sup>v</sup>“I was found by those who did not seek Me;
I was made manifest to those who did not ask for Me.”*

<sup>21</sup>But to Israel he says:

<sup>w</sup>“All day long I have stretched out My hands
To a disobedient and contrary people.”*

Israel's Rejection Not Total

11 I say then, <sup>a</sup>has God cast away His people? <sup>b</sup>Certainly not! For <sup>c</sup>I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>2</sup>God has not cast away His people whom <sup>d</sup>He foreknew. Or do you not know what the Scripture says of Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel, saying, <sup>3e</sup>“LORD, they have killed Your prophets and torn down Your altars, and I alone am left, and they seek my life”?* <sup>4</sup>But what does the divine response say to him? <sup>f</sup>“I have reserved for Myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal.”* <sup>5g</sup>Even so then, at this present time there is a remnant according to the election of grace. <sup>6</sup>And <sup>h</sup>if by grace, then it is no longer of works; otherwise grace is no longer grace.* But if it is of works, it is no longer grace; otherwise work is no longer work. <sup>7</sup>What then? <sup>i</sup>Israel has not obtained what it seeks; but the elect have obtained it, and the rest were <sup>j</sup>blinded. <sup>8</sup>Just as it is written:

<sup>k</sup>“God has given them a spirit of stupor,
<sup>l</sup>Eyes that they should not see
And ears that they should not hear,
To this very day.”*

A stumbling block and a recompense to them.

<sup>10</sup> Let their eyes be darkened, so that they do not see,
And bow down their back always.”*

Israel's Rejection Not Final

<sup>15</sup>For I speak to you Gentiles; inasmuch as <sup>16</sup>I am an apostle to the Gentiles, I magnify my ministry, <sup>17</sup>if by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh and <sup>18</sup>save some of them. <sup>19</sup>For if their being cast away is the reconciling of the world, what will their acceptance be <sup>20</sup>but life from the dead?

<sup>27</sup>You will say then, “Branches were broken off that I might be grafted in.” <sup>28</sup>Well said. Because of <sup>29</sup>unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by faith. Do not be haughty, but fear. <sup>30</sup>For if God did not spare the natural branches, He may not spare you either. <sup>31</sup>Therefore consider the goodness and severity of God: on those who fell, severity; but toward you, goodness. <sup>32</sup>*if you continue in His goodness. Otherwise <sup>33</sup>you also will be cut off. <sup>34</sup>And they also, <sup>35</sup>if they do not continue in unbelief, will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again. <sup>36</sup>For if you were cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and were grafted contrary to nature into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these, who are natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

<sup>37</sup>For I do not desire, brethren, that you should be ignorant of this mystery, lest you should be <sup>38</sup>wise in your own opinion, that <sup>39</sup>blindness in part has happened to Israel

<sup>40</sup>until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in. <sup>41</sup>And so all Israel will be saved,* as it is written:

d “*The Deliverer will come out of Zion,
And He will turn away ungodliness from Jacob;*

27 *For <sup>e</sup>this is My covenant with them,
When I take away their sins.”**

<sup>37</sup>Oh, the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments and His ways past finding out!

34 “For who has known the <sup>i</sup>mind of the LORD?

*Or <sup>k</sup>who has become His counselor?”**

35 “*Or <sup>l</sup>who has first given to Him And it shall be repaid to him?”**

<sup>36</sup>For <sup>m</sup>of Him and through Him and to Him are all things, <sup>n</sup>to whom be glory forever. Amen.

Living Sacrifices to God

12 <sup>1</sup>I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies <sup>2</sup>as a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. <sup>3</sup>And <sup>4</sup>do not be conformed to this world, but <sup>5</sup>be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may <sup>6</sup>prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

* 11:22 NU-Text adds of God. * 11:26 Or delivered

11:25 mystery. The mystery is that Israel has been temporarily and partially hardened, but God has not rejected them.

11:26 all Israel. “All Israel” does not mean that every individual in the nation will turn to the Lord. It means that the nation as a whole will be saved, just as the nation as a whole (but not every individual in it) is now rejecting the Lord.

12:1 living sacrifice. In the Old Testament sacrificial system, the “job” of the sacrificial lamb was ended with its death. An individual or household selected an animal according to the dictated forms, and it was sacrificed to cover sins. Since Christ became the final atonement for sin, we no longer need the old system. But Paul is calling believers to consider their whole life as a sacrifice dedicated to God and His purposes, a “living” sacrifice, both holy and single-minded.

12:2 Walking in the Spirit—Confession of sin in itself is not enough to enable the believer to automatically walk in the Spirit. He or she must learn to yield their whole self to God (Rom. 6:13; James 4:7). This involves both the body (Rom. 12:1; 1 Cor. 6:20) and the mind (Rom. 12:2), since what is conceived

Serve God with Spiritual Gifts

Behave Like a Christian

rather give place to wrath; for it is written, †"Vengeance is Mine, I will repay," says the Lord. <sup>20</sup>Therefore †*"If your enemy is hungry, feed him;

If he is thirsty, give him a drink;
For in so doing you will heap coals of fire on his head."*‡

Submit to Government

13 Let every soul be ‡subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist are appointed by God. <sup>2</sup>Therefore whoever resists ‡the authority resists the ordinance of God, and those who resist will bring judgment on themselves. <sup>3</sup>For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to evil. Do you want to be unafraid of the authority? ‡Do what is good, and you will have praise from the same. <sup>4</sup>For he is God's minister to you for good. But if you do evil, be afraid; for he does not bear the sword in vain; for he is God's minister, an avenger to execute wrath on him who practices evil. <sup>5</sup>Therefore ‡you must be subject, not only because of wrath ‡but also for conscience' sake. <sup>6</sup>For because of this you also pay taxes, for they are God's ministers attending continually to this very thing. <sup>7</sup>Render therefore to all their due: taxes to whom taxes are due, customs to whom customs, fear to whom fear, honor to whom honor.

Love Your Neighbor

in the mind is carried out by the body. One's whole being must be presented by a decisive act of the will to God for His service. Yielding leads not only to dedication but also can result in separation: "do not be conformed to this world" (Rom. 12:2). Finally, yielding includes transformation of the mind. This work is said to be accomplished through a lifetime of "renewing" the mind. Man's mind has been darkened by sin (8:7; Col. 1:21) and must be brought to the place where it thinks as God thinks (Eph. 4:23). This renewing is said to come especially through prayer in everything (Phil. 4:6–7) and through constant meditation on the Word of God (Ps. 119:1). This transformation is a lifelong process that will not be completed until we are with Christ (Phil. 1:6; 1 John 3:2).

12:4–5 Fellowship—A believer must not view himself exclusively as an individual, but must also see himself as part of the whole, as a member of "one body." Fellowship in the New Testament sense is not merely companionship, but a partnership, a responsibility to one another that is financial, practical, and spiritual.

12:6 prophecy. In its narrower sense, "prophecy" means the revealing of God's will in a particular situation (Acts 13:1–3).

12:9 love. There are three words used for love in the New Testament: "self-sacrificial love," "brotherly love," and "kindly affection," the last of which is used in this verse. The greatest proof of the truth of the gospel message and of the reality of Jesus' love is the love believers show to each other.

12:20 coals of fire. Freed from vengeance, believers can give themselves to mercy, even toward their enemies. Such unexpected acts of mercy might even bring enemies to shame and repentance.

has fulfilled the law. <sup>9</sup>For the commandments, <sup>h</sup>"You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not bear false witness," "You shall not covet," and if there is any other commandment, are all summed up in this saying, namely, <sup>i</sup>"You shall love your neighbor as yourself." <sup>10</sup>Love does no harm to a neighbor; therefore <sup>j</sup>love is the fulfillment of the law.

Put on Christ

<sup>11</sup>And do this, knowing the time, that now it is high time <sup>k</sup>to awake out of sleep; for now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed. <sup>12</sup>The night is far spent, the day is at hand. <sup>l</sup>Therefore let us cast off the works of darkness, and <sup>m</sup>let us put on the armor of light. <sup>13n</sup>Let us walk properly, as in the day, <sup>o</sup>not in revelry and drunkenness, <sup>p</sup>not in lewdness and lust, <sup>q</sup>not in strife and envy. <sup>14</sup>But <sup>r</sup>put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and <sup>s</sup>make no provision for the flesh, to fulfill its lusts.

The Law of Liberty

the Lord;* and he who does not observe the day, to the Lord he does not observe it. He who eats, eats to the Lord, for <sup>g</sup>he gives God thanks; and he who does not eat, to the Lord he does not eat, and gives God thanks. <sup>7</sup>For <sup>h</sup>none of us lives to himself, and no one dies to himself. <sup>8</sup>For if we <sup>i</sup>live, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord. Therefore, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. <sup>9</sup>For <sup>j</sup>to this end Christ died and rose* and lived again, that He might be <sup>k</sup>Lord of both the dead and the living. <sup>10</sup>But why do you judge your brother? Or why do you show contempt for your brother? For <sup>l</sup>we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.* <sup>11</sup>For it is written:

*m "As I live, says the LORD,
Every knee shall bow to Me,
And every tongue shall confess to God."**

<sup>12</sup>So then <sup>n</sup>each of us shall give account of himself to God. <sup>13</sup>Therefore let us not judge one another anymore, but rather resolve this, <sup>o</sup>not to put a stumbling block or a cause to fall in our brother's way.

The Law of Love

<sup>14i</sup>I know and am convinced by the Lord Jesus <sup>p</sup>that there is nothing unclean of itself; but to him who considers anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. <sup>15</sup>Yet if your brother is grieved because of your food, you are no longer walking in love. <sup>q</sup>Do not destroy with your food the one for

13:9 as yourself. This is not a command to love ourselves. It is a recognition that we do love ourselves, and a command to love others just as genuinely and sincerely.

13:10 Love. "Love" excludes murder, adultery, stealing, and lying. Therefore when we love, we automatically fulfill the prohibitions of the law.

14:1 weak in the faith. Those who are weak in the faith are not unbelievers, but they have not yet understood (or are not able to understand) some of the deeper thinking about the not so clearly defined situations that a Christian faces.

14:5 one day above another. This verse probably relates to the holy days of the Old Testament ceremonial law. The exhortation does not mean it is wrong to have strong convictions, but that all people must have their own convictions. Concerning "doubtful things" (v. 1), things that are not clearly defined as sin, we as Christians are supposed to think deeply about these things, and decide what we think best pleases the Lord. We are not supposed to live by default, doing what most others are doing, or being swayed by the strongest voice. We may find that we need to change our original conclusions, but we must do so thoughtfully, not impulsively. We must not condemn others who come to a different conclusion.

14:12 account of himself to God. We must give an account to God for these conclusions we have reached about how to live, and in light of that, we want to be sure that our conclusions do not cause someone else to stumble.

14:14 unclean. "Unclean" means common, and refers to the things prohibited by the Jewish ceremonial law. If anyone considers some activity to be wrong, then for him it is wrong to engage in that activity.

14:15 Selfishness.—This chapter concerns weak and strong Christians and their attitudes toward each other in practical matters within the church. If a stronger brother fails to consider the scruples of the weaker brother, the stronger brother violates the whom Christ died. <sup>16r</sup>Therefore do not let your good be spoken of as evil; <sup>17s</sup>for the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and <sup>t</sup>peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. <sup>18</sup>For he who serves Christ in these things <sup>*v</sup>is acceptable to God and approved by men.

Bearing Others' Burdens

15 We <sup>a</sup>then who are strong ought to bear with the scruples of the weak, and not to please ourselves. <sup>2b</sup>Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, leading to edification. <sup>3c</sup>For even Christ did not please Himself; but as it is written, <sup>d</sup>"The reproaches of those who reproached You fell on Me." <sup>4</sup>For <sup>e</sup>whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. <sup>5r</sup>Now may the God of patience and comfort grant you to be like-minded toward one another, according to Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup>that you may <sup>s</sup>with one mind and one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Glorify God Together

servant to the circumcision for the truth of God, <sup>k</sup>to confirm the promises made to the fathers, <sup>9</sup>and <sup>t</sup>that the Gentiles might glorify God for His mercy, as it is written:

<sup>m</sup>"For this reason I will confess to You among the Gentiles, And sing to Your name."*

<sup>10</sup>And again he says:

Laud Him, all you peoples!"**

<sup>p</sup>*"There shall be a root of Jesse;
And He who shall rise to reign over the Gentiles,
In Him the Gentiles shall hope."**

<sup>13</sup>Now may the God of hope fill you with all <sup>q</sup>joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

From Jerusalem to Illyricum

obligations of love. He is selfishly putting his own desires above the real needs of one who is weak in faith.

14:16 good be spoken of as evil. Even if you have decided that eating certain foods is in accord with your understanding of what is pleasing to God, if it causes another believer to be grieved by the choice you have made, you should be eager to change. Your freedom should not look like license or gluttony. The kingdom of God is a lot more important than the things we eat and drink.

14:21 stumbles. A believer does not have to abandon his own convictions, but love should cause him to carefully observe how what he does affects others. It is a sin (v. 23) to do something that you are really convinced is wrong, even if others think it is all right. In light of this, if a believer is influencing another to violate his conscience, even if the believer is not violating his own conscience, he has caused the other brother to "stumble," and that should not happen.

15:3 Christ. Jesus Christ is the ultimate model for the strong believer. He "did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, but made Himself of no reputation" (Phil. 2:5–7) so that He could clearly represent God and His cause.

15:9 as it is written. Paul quotes from all three divisions of the Old Testament (the Law, the Prophets, and the Psalms) and from three great Jewish leaders (Moses, David, and Isaiah) to demonstrate that God's purpose was always to bless the Gentiles through Israel.

15:12 root of Jesse. This is a title for the Messiah (Christ). Jesse was the father of David, and the might be acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit. <sup>17</sup>Therefore I have reason to glory in Christ Jesus <sup>18</sup>in the things which pertain to God. <sup>19</sup>For I will not dare to speak of any of those things <sup>20</sup>which Christ has not accomplished through me, in word and deed, <sup>21</sup>to make the Gentiles obedient— <sup>22</sup>in mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God, so that from Jerusalem and round about to Illyricum I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. <sup>23</sup>And so I have made it my aim to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, <sup>24</sup>lest I should build on another man's foundation, <sup>25</sup>but as it is written:

b "To whom He was not announced, they shall see;
And those who have not heard shall understand."*

Plan to Visit Rome

<sup>22</sup>For this reason <sup>c</sup>I also have been much hindered from coming to you. <sup>23</sup>But now no longer having a place in these parts, and <sup>d</sup>having a great desire these many years to come to you, <sup>24</sup>whenever I journey to Spain, I shall come to you. <sup>e</sup>For I hope to see you on my journey, <sup>f</sup>and to be helped on my way there by you, if first I may <sup>g</sup>enjoy your company for a while. <sup>25</sup>But now <sup>h</sup>I am going to Jerusalem to minister to the saints. <sup>26</sup>For <sup>i</sup>it pleased those from Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the saints who are in Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup>It pleased them indeed, and they are their debtors. For <sup>j</sup>if the Gentiles have been partakers of their spiritual things, <sup>k</sup>their duty is also to minister to them in material things. <sup>28</sup>Therefore, when I have performed this and have sealed to them <sup>l</sup>this fruit, I shall go by way of you to Spain. <sup>29</sup>But I know that when I come to you, I shall come in the fullness of the blessing of the gospel <sup>m</sup>of Christ.

<sup>30</sup>Now I beg you, brethren, through the Lord Jesus Christ, and <sup>n</sup>through the love of the Spirit, <sup>o</sup>that you strive together with me in prayers to God for me, <sup>31</sup>that I may be delivered from those in Judea who do not believe, and that <sup>p</sup>my service for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints, <sup>32</sup>that I may come to you with joy <sup>q</sup>by the will of God, and may <sup>r</sup>be refreshed together with you. <sup>33</sup>Now <sup>s</sup>the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Sister Phoebe Commended

16 I commend to you Phoebe our sister, who is a servant of the church in <sup>a</sup>Cenchrea, <sup>b</sup>that you may receive her in the Lord <sup>c</sup>in a manner worthy of the saints, and assist her in whatever business she has need of you; for indeed she has been a helper of many and of myself also.

Greeting Roman Saints

Greet my beloved Epaeetus, who is <sup>h</sup>the firstfruits of Achaia <sup>i</sup>to Christ. <sup>j</sup>Greet Mary, who labored much for us. <sup>k</sup>Greet Andronicus and Junia, my countrymen and my fellow prisoners, who are of note among the <sup>l</sup>apostles, who also <sup>m</sup>were in Christ before me.

Messiah was to be the Son of David. The Messiah is both the Origin and the Offspring of David.

15:25–26 Kindness—One of the New Testament commands is that Christians display kindness toward other believers (12:10). The Macedonian believers had just gathered a love offering for the needy saints in Jerusalem. Such kindness is a response to God's wonderful kindness to us. In fact, wanting to reach out to others is an evidence of our new birth, and as we bless others in this way, we will find ourselves receiving similar blessings of kindness (Luke 6:38).

15:28 Spain. No one knows for sure if Paul ever got to Spain, but he had it on his travel itinerary.

15:29 when I come to you. Paul did get to Rome, but not in the time frame or way he had thought. God had a special plan for Paul. The Lord would give him the opportunity to testify of his faith in the emperor's court, but he would do so as a prisoner (Acts 28).

16:3–4 Priscilla and Aquila. This married couple is never mentioned separately, perhaps because they ministered so effectively together. Like Paul, they were tentmakers, and worked with him in Corinth and Ephesus (Acts 18:1–3, 18, 26).

Avoid Divisive Persons

Benediction

16:23 Gaius. “Gaius” of Corinth (1 Cor. 1:14) not only gave Paul lodging, but offered his house as a meeting place for the church.

16:25 mystery. Paul speaks of his message as a “mystery” (see 11:25) because God’s complete plan of salvation was at first hidden but now was being revealed. Part of the mystery is that the church will consist of both Jews and Gentiles united in one body of Christ (Eph. 3:1–13).

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

► AUTHOR: Pauline authorship of 1 Corinthians is almost universally accepted. Instances of this widely held belief can be found as early as A.D. 95, when Clement of Rome wrote to the Corinthian church and cited this epistle in regard to the continuing problem of factions among themselves. Paul taught the word of God in Corinth for eighteen months in A.D. 51 and 52, leaving Apollos to preach and teach in his absence. When Paul was in Ephesus during his third missionary journey, he became disturbed by reports of discord in the church of Corinth. First Corinthians is a record of Paul's initial response to these problems.

► TIME: c. A.D. 56      ► KEY VERSE: 1 Cor. 1:10

► THEME: The basic theme of this epistle is the application of Christian principles to carnality in the individual as well as in the church. Paul is responding to a letter he received from the Corinthians concerning five behavioral problems that are causing dissension in one way or another: (1) divisions in the church; (2) a case of incest; (3) court cases between members; (4) the abuse of Christian "freedom"; and (5) the chaos occurring in connection with celebration of the Lord's Supper. Paul's ethical responses to the various behaviors of the Corinthian church are based on a theological understanding of what it means to be a part of the people of God in a complex multicultural, pagan environment.

Greeting

1 Paul, <sup>a</sup>called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ <sup>b</sup>through the will of God, and <sup>c</sup>Sosthenes our brother,

<sup>2</sup>To the church of God which is at Corinth, to those who <sup>d</sup>are sanctified in Christ Jesus, <sup>e</sup>called to be saints, with all who in every place call on the name of Jesus Christ <sup>f</sup>our Lord, <sup>g</sup>both theirs and ours:

<sup>3h</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Spiritual Gifts at Corinth

<sup>4i</sup>I thank my God always concerning you for the grace of God which was given to you by Christ Jesus, <sup>5</sup>that you were enriched in everything by Him <sup>j</sup>in all utterance and all knowledge, <sup>6</sup>even as <sup>k</sup>the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you, <sup>7</sup>so that you come short in no gift, eagerly <sup>l</sup>waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>8m</sup>who will also confirm you to the end, <sup>n</sup>that you may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9o</sup>God is faithful, by whom you were called into <sup>p</sup>the fellowship of His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Sectarianism Is Sin

<sup>10</sup>Now I plead with you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>q</sup>that you all speak the same thing, and <sup>r</sup>that there be no divisions among you, but <sup>s</sup>that you be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. <sup>11</sup>For it has been declared to me concerning you, my brethren, by those of Chloe's household, that there are contentions among you. <sup>12</sup>Now I say this, that <sup>t</sup>each of you says, "I am of Paul," or "I am of <sup>u</sup>Apollos," or "I am of <sup>v</sup>Cephas,"

1:1 through the will of God. The Corinthian church greatly valued human wisdom. This misplaced emphasis had caused some in the church to challenge Paul's authority. They forgot that Jesus Christ Himself had called him to his ministry as an apostle of Christ.

1:2 sanctified in Christ Jesus. Holiness comes from our position in Christ, not from our own goodness. Jesus' death in payment for our sins makes a believer holy forever in God's eyes (Heb. 10:14). But in everyday living, sanctification involves small daily changes.

1:7 come short in no gift. The Corinthians were richly blessed with spiritual gifts because God was giving them everything they needed to do His will (12:14–27).

1:10 in the same mind. Christian unity is not uniformity of appearance, but unity of direction, and the bond of mutual love and esteem (Eph. 4:14–16).

or “I am of Christ.” <sup>13a</sup>Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul?

Christ the Power and Wisdom of God

<sup>18</sup>For the message of the cross is <sup>a</sup>foolishness to <sup>b</sup>those who are perishing, but to us <sup>c</sup>who are being saved it is the <sup>d</sup>power of God. <sup>19</sup>For it is written:

*“I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
And bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.”**

<sup>20</sup>Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the disputer of this age? <sup>a</sup>Has not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? <sup>21</sup>For since, in the <sup>b</sup>wisdom of God, the world through wisdom did not know God, it pleased God through the foolishness of the message preached to save those who believe. <sup>22</sup>For <sup>i</sup>Jews request a sign, and Greeks seek after wisdom; <sup>23</sup>but we preach Christ crucified, <sup>2</sup>to the Jews a stumbling block and to the Greeks <sup>k</sup>foolishness, <sup>24</sup>but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ <sup>l</sup>the power of God and <sup>m</sup>the wisdom of God. <sup>25</sup>Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

Glory Only in the Lord

<sup>26</sup>For you see your calling, brethren, <sup>n</sup>that not many wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called. <sup>27</sup>But <sup>o</sup>God has chosen the foolish things of the world to put to shame the wise, and God has chosen the weak things of the world to put to shame the things which are mighty; <sup>28</sup>and the base things of the world and the things which are despised God has chosen, and the things which are not, to bring to nothing the things that are, <sup>29</sup>that no flesh should glory in His presence. <sup>30</sup>But of Him you are in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God—and <sup>p</sup>righteousness and sanctification and redemption—<sup>31</sup>that, as it is written, *“He who glories, let him glory in the LORD.”**

Christ Crucified

2 And I, brethren, when I came to you, did not come with excellence of speech or of wisdom declaring to you the testimony* of God. <sup>2</sup>For I determined not to know anything among you <sup>a</sup>except Jesus Christ and Him crucified. <sup>3b</sup>I was with you <sup>c</sup>in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling. <sup>4</sup>And my speech and my preaching <sup>d</sup>were not with persuasive words of human* wisdom, <sup>e</sup>but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, <sup>5</sup>that your faith should not be in the wisdom of men but in the <sup>f</sup>power of God.

Spiritual Wisdom

<sup>6</sup>However, we speak wisdom among those who are mature, yet not the wisdom of this age, nor of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing. <sup>7</sup>But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, the hidden wisdom which God ordained before the ages for our glory, <sup>8</sup>which none of the rulers of this age knew; for <sup>h</sup>had they known, they would not have <sup>h</sup>crucified the Lord of glory.

* 1:19 Isaiah 29:14 * 1:23 NU-Text reads Gentiles.
* 1:31 Jeremiah 9:24 * 2:1 NU-Text reads mystery. * 2:4 NU-Text omits human.

1:14 Crispus and Gaius. Crispus was the ruler of the synagogue in Corinth when Paul began to preach there (Acts 18:8). He was instrumental in the conversion of many other Christians. Gaius may be the same person who hosted Paul and the entire church (Rom. 16:23).

1:16 Stephanas. Stephanas was one of Paul's first converts in Achaia, the region of which Corinth was the capital. Paul praised him and his household for their devotion to the ministry and for their assistance (16:15). Stephanas was one of the couriers who took correspondence to and from Corinth.

1:17 not . . . to baptize, but to preach the gospel. Paul's primary ministry was not baptism, but preaching the truth. Baptism naturally follows conversion, but is secondary in importance.

1:20 Where is the wise? All human efforts to find favor with God fall woefully short (Rom. 3:9–28). Only through faith in Christ can we be saved from our sins.

1:27 the foolish things of the world. God's plan of salvation does not conform to the world's priorities. Yet in reality, eternal salvation is more valuable than anything else.

1:28 and the base . . . are despised. Corinth had a large slave population, and many of these slaves became followers of Christ. Slaves were despised by the free-born and the well-to-do.

2:6 the rulers of this age. In some passages Paul uses the word “rulers” to refer to spiritual beings (Eph. 6:12; Col. 2:15); here it seems to be a reference to earthly rulers.

2:7 mystery. God's plan was kept hidden, known only to Him, until He chose to reveal it (Eph. 3:1–11). This is in contrast to the teachings of the Gnostics, a

<sup>9</sup>But as it is written:

*<sup>i</sup>"Eye has not seen, nor ear heard,
Nor have entered into the heart of man
The things which God has prepared for those who love Him."**

<sup>10</sup>But <sup>i</sup>God has revealed them to us through His Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God. <sup>11</sup>For what man knows the things of a man except the <sup>k</sup>spirit of the man which is in him? <sup>12</sup>Even so no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God. <sup>12</sup>Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but <sup>m</sup>the Spirit who is from God, that we might know the things that have been freely given to us by God.

<sup>13</sup>These things we also speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches but which the Holy* Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual. <sup>14</sup>But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. <sup>15</sup>But he who is spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is rightly judged by no one. <sup>16</sup>For <sup>o</sup>"who has known the mind of the LORD that he may instruct Him?"* <sup>p</sup>But we have the mind of Christ.

Sectarianism Is Carnal

3 And I, brethren, could not speak to you as to spiritual people but as to carnal, as to <sup>a</sup>babes in Christ. <sup>2</sup>I fed you with <sup>b</sup>milk and not with solid food; <sup>c</sup>for until now you were not able to receive it, and even now you are still not able; <sup>3</sup>for you are still carnal. For where there are envy, strife, and divisions among you, are you not carnal and behaving like mere men? <sup>4</sup>For when one says, "I am of Paul," and another, "I am of Apollos," are you not carnal?

Watering, Working, Warning

<sup>5</sup>Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but <sup>d</sup>ministers through whom you believed,

as the Lord gave to each one? <sup>6</sup><sup>e</sup>I planted, <sup>f</sup>Apollos watered, <sup>g</sup>but God gave the increase. <sup>7</sup>So then <sup>h</sup>neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but God who gives the increase. <sup>8</sup>Now he who plants and he who waters are one, <sup>i</sup>and each one will receive his own reward according to his own labor.

<sup>9</sup>For <sup>j</sup>we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, you are <sup>k</sup>God's building. <sup>10</sup>According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I have laid <sup>m</sup>the foundation, and another builds on it. But let each one take heed how he builds on it. <sup>11</sup>For no other foundation can anyone lay than <sup>n</sup>that which is laid, <sup>o</sup>which is Jesus Christ. <sup>12</sup>Now if anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, <sup>13</sup>each one's work will become clear; for the Day <sup>p</sup>will declare it, because <sup>q</sup>it will be revealed by fire; and the fire will test each one's work, of what sort it is. <sup>14</sup>If anyone's work which he has built on it endures, he will receive a reward. <sup>15</sup>If anyone's work is burned, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire.

<sup>16</sup>Do you not know that you are the temple of God and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? <sup>17</sup>If anyone defiles the temple of God, God will destroy him. For the temple of God is holy, which temple you are.

Avoid Worldly Wisdom

* 2:9 Isaiah 64:4 * 2:13 NU-Text omits Holy.
* 2:16 Isaiah 40:13 * 3:19 Job 5:13 * 3:20 Psalm 94:11 group of false religious teachers who would infiltrate the early church (1 John 2:18–27). They claimed that there existed a body of secret knowledge that was only available to those initiated into an inner circle of spiritual teachers.

2:13 comparing spiritual things with spiritual. These words are difficult to translate and interpret. The Greek term translated "comparing" can also mean "combining," or "interpreting." The two references to "spiritual" may mean interpreting spiritual truths to spiritual persons, or else combining spiritual truths with spiritual words (2 Tim. 3:16; 2 Pet. 1:20–21).

3:2 I fed you with milk. Paul did not expect the Corinthians to be mature when they first accepted Christ. Yet they should have grown in their faith—that is, become sanctified. The behavior of Christians should begin to line up with their righteous position in Christ. 3:3 for you are still carnal. An immature Christian naturally lacks many Christian traits, but no one should expect this condition to last. Paul was surprised that the Corinthians had not yet grown into spiritual maturity or become able to distinguish between good and evil (Heb. 5:14).

3:13 The Day. This is the time when Christ will judge the merits of His servants' work (2 Cor. 5:10), not whether they receive forgiveness of sin. Likewise, the fire does not refer to the eternal fire of damnation (Rev. 20:10) but to the evaluation of believers' works (Rev. 22:12).

<sup>21</sup>Therefore let no one boast in men. For <sup>v</sup>all things are yours: <sup>22</sup>whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas, or the world or life or death, or things present or things to come—all are yours. <sup>23</sup>And <sup>w</sup>you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

Stewards of the Mysteries of God

4 Let a man so consider us, as <sup>a</sup>servants of Christ <sup>b</sup>and stewards of the mysteries of God. <sup>2</sup>Moreover it is required in stewards that one be found faithful. <sup>3</sup>But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by a human court.* In fact, I do not even judge myself. <sup>4</sup>For I know of nothing against myself, yet I am not justified by this; but He who judges me is the Lord. <sup>5c</sup>Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to <sup>d</sup>light the hidden things of darkness and <sup>e</sup>reveal the counsels of the hearts. <sup>f</sup>Then each one's praise will come from God.

Fools for Christ's Sake

<sup>6</sup>Now these things, brethren, I have figuratively transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes, that you may learn in us not to think beyond what is written, that none of you may be puffed up on behalf of one against the other. <sup>7</sup>For who makes you differ from another? And <sup>g</sup>what do you have that you did not receive? Now if you did indeed receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?

<sup>8</sup>You are already full! <sup>h</sup>You are already rich! You have reigned as kings without us—and indeed I could wish you did reign, that we also might reign with you! <sup>9</sup>For I think that God has displayed us, the apostles, last, as men condemned to death; for we have been made a <sup>i</sup>spectacle to the world, both to angels and to men. <sup>10</sup>We are <sup>j</sup>fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ! <sup>k</sup>We are weak, but you are strong! You are distinguished, but we are dishonored! <sup>11</sup>To the present hour we both hunger and thirst, and we are poorly clothed, and beaten, and homeless. <sup>12</sup>And we labor, working with our own hands. <sup>m</sup>Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure; <sup>13</sup>being defamed, we entreat. <sup>n</sup>We have been made as the filth of the world, the offscouring of all things until now.

Paul's Paternal Care

<sup>14</sup>I do not write these things to shame you, but <sup>o</sup>as my beloved children I warn you. <sup>15</sup>For though you might have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet you do not have many fathers; for <sup>p</sup>in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. <sup>16</sup>Therefore I urge you, <sup>q</sup>imitate me. <sup>17</sup>For this reason I have sent <sup>r</sup>Timothy to you, <sup>s</sup>who is my beloved and faithful son in the Lord, who will <sup>t</sup>remind you of my ways in Christ, as I <sup>u</sup>teach everywhere <sup>v</sup>in every church.

<sup>18w</sup>Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. <sup>19x</sup>But I will come to you shortly, <sup>y</sup>if the Lord wills, and I will know, not the word of those who are puffed up, but the power. <sup>20</sup>For <sup>z</sup>the kingdom of God is not in word but in <sup>a</sup>power. <sup>21</sup>What do you want? <sup>b</sup>Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

Immorality Defiles the Church

5 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and such sexual immorality as is not even named* among the Gentiles—that a man has his father's <sup>c</sup>wife! <sup>2b</sup>And you are puffed up, and have not rather <sup>d</sup>mourned, that he who has done this deed might be taken away from among you. <sup>3d</sup>For I indeed, as absent in body but present in spirit, have already judged (as though I were present) him who has so done this deed. <sup>4</sup>In the <sup>e</sup>name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when you are gathered together, along with my spirit, <sup>f</sup>with the * 4:3 Literally day * 5:1 NU-Text omits named.

3:21 all things are yours. The Stoic literature of the time, which the Corinthians would have known, often spoke of the wise man as possessing everything. Everything God has done in the church, and in the entire universe, benefits all believers. There is no place for foolish boasting or competition among Christians. 4:5 judge nothing. While believers can benefit from the constructive evaluations of other believers, their ultimate Judge is the Lord Himself. We cannot know the whole picture, and we must be careful not to make premature evaluations of others.

4:6 puffed up. Greeks considered humility to be a fault, a characteristic of slaves. To the Christian, however, it exemplifies the attitude of Christ (Phil. 2:5–8).

4:10 fools for Christ's sake. True strength is found in understanding our weakness and Christ's sufficiency (2 Cor. 12:7–10; Phil. 4:11–13).

5:1 sexual immorality. The sexual immorality of incest was forbidden by Old Testament law (Lev. 18:8; Deut. 22:30) and by Roman law. The phrase “his father's wife” probably indicates that the woman was the offender's stepmother. Paul does not specify any discipline for the woman, which may indicate that she was not a believer.

5:2 puffed up, and have not rather mourned. The Corinthian Christians had a twisted view of grace that caused them to be proud of their tolerance of the sexual offender. They believed that, because God's grace is limitless, living in sin was no problem.

Immorality Must Be Judged

<sup>9l</sup>I wrote to you in my epistle <sup>n</sup>not to keep company with sexually immoral people. <sup>10</sup>Yet I certainly did not mean with the sexually immoral people of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or idolaters, since then you would need to go <sup>o</sup>out of the world. <sup>11</sup>But now I have written to you not to keep company <sup>r</sup>with anyone named a brother, who is sexually immoral, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner—<sup>s</sup>not even to eat with such a person.

<sup>12</sup>For what have I to do with judging those also who are outside? Do you not judge those who are inside? <sup>13</sup>But those who are outside God judges. Therefore <sup>t</sup>“put away from yourselves the evil person.”<sup>u</sup>

Do Not Sue the Brethren

6 Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unrighteous, and not before the <sup>v</sup>saints? <sup>2</sup>Do you not know that <sup>b</sup>the saints will judge the world? And if the world will be judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters? <sup>3</sup>Do you not know that we shall <sup>c</sup>judge angels? How much more, things that pertain to this life? <sup>4</sup>If then you have judgments concerning things pertaining to this life, do you appoint those who are least esteemed by the church to judge? <sup>5l</sup> say this to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you, not even one, who will be able to judge between his brethren? <sup>6</sup>But brother goes to law against brother, and that before unbelievers!

<sup>7</sup>Now therefore, it is already an utter failure for you that you go to law against one another. <sup>d</sup>Why do you not rather accept wrong? Why do you not rather let yourselves be cheated? <sup>8</sup>No, you yourselves do wrong and cheat, and you do these things to your brethren! <sup>9</sup>Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived. <sup>e</sup>Neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor homosexuals,* nor sodomites, <sup>10</sup>nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners will inherit the kingdom of God. <sup>11</sup>And such were <sup>f</sup>some of you. <sup>2</sup>But you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus and by the Spirit of our God.

Glorify God in Body and Spirit

<sup>12h</sup>All things are lawful for me, but all things are not helpful. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the

5:6 a little leaven. The backdrop for this passage is the Passover (Ex. 12). In commemoration of their ancestors' hurried departure from Egypt, Jewish families would carefully remove all leaven (yeast) from their homes in preparation for the celebration of the Passover. In the New Testament, leaven is often used as a symbol of sin. Yeast spreads through a batch of dough, and unchallenged sin can soon contaminate the whole church. The sexual offender was guilty of sin, but the whole congregation was also guilty of ignoring the man's disobedience.

5:9 my epistle. It is believed that this refers to an earlier letter which has not been preserved.

5:10 of this world. Christians are called to influence the world, not to run away from it (Matt. 5:13–16). They are agents of God to carry the light of Jesus Christ into a dark world (Phil. 2:14–16; 1 Pet. 2:11–12).

6:9 kingdom of God. This term seems to refer to a future time when God will rule the earth in righteousness (Matt. 6:10; Luke 11:2).

6:11 Changed Life—The greatest proof of the new birth is a changed life. The child of God now suddenly loves the following:

1. He loves Jesus. Before conversion the sinner might hold Christ in high esteem, but after conversion he loves the Savior (1 John 5:1–2).

2. He loves the Bible. We should love God's Word as the psalmist did in Psalm 119. There he expresses his great love for God's Word 17 times.
3. He loves other Christians. "We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren" (1 John 3:14).
4. He loves his enemies (Matt. 5:43–45).
5. He loves the souls of all people. Like Paul, he too can cry out for the conversion of loved ones. "Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is that they may be saved" (Rom. 10:1).
6. He loves the pure life. John says that if one loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him (1 John 2:15–17).
7. He loves to talk to God. "Speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord" (Eph. 5:19).

power of any. <sup>13i</sup>Foods for the stomach and the stomach for foods, but God will destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for <sup>j</sup>sexual immorality but <sup>k</sup>for the Lord, <sup>l</sup>and the Lord for the body. <sup>14</sup>And <sup>m</sup>God both raised up the Lord and will also raise us up <sup>n</sup>by His power.

<sup>18</sup>Flee sexual immorality. Every sin that a man does is outside the body, but he who commits sexual immorality sins <sup>a</sup>against his own body. <sup>19</sup>Or <sup>do</sup> you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, <sup>u</sup>and you are not your own? <sup>20</sup>For <sup>v</sup>you were bought at a price; therefore glorify God in your body* and in your spirit, which are God's.

Principles of Marriage

7 Now concerning the things of which you wrote to me:

<sup>a</sup>It is good for a man not to touch a woman. <sup>2</sup>Nevertheless, because of sexual immorality, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband.

<sup>8</sup>But I say to the unmarried and to the widows: <sup>g</sup>It is good for them if they remain even as I am; <sup>h</sup>but <sup>i</sup>if they cannot exercise self-control, let them marry. For it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

Keep Your Marriage Vows

<sup>10</sup>Now to the married I command, yet not I but the <sup>l</sup>Lord: <sup>iA</sup> wife is not to depart from her husband. <sup>11</sup>But even if she does depart, let her remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband. And a husband is not to divorce his wife.

* 6:16 Genesis 2:24 * 6:20 NU-Text ends the verse at body.

6:13 Foods for the stomach and the stomach for foods. The stomach's purpose is to digest food, but it is not the purpose of the body to commit immorality. Furthermore, by design God put restrictions on both eating and sexual activity. Eating to the point of gluttony and having sex outside of marriage both violate God's intent and are sinful.

6:15 your bodies are the members of Christ. Becoming a Christ follower is not just a “spiritual experience.” Our bodies belong to Jesus as well as our souls, and nothing that we do with our bodies is apart from our relationship with Jesus Christ.

6:16 one flesh. God designed sex as part of the intense “one flesh” bond between husband and wife, so sex is not a one-dimensional physical act. It involves soul, spirit, and emotions as well. Broken sexual relationships tear away at a person's very being in a way that nothing else does.

6:19 The Work of the Holy Spirit—The Holy Spirit is sometimes referred to as the Paraclete. The first part of that word, para, is a preposition that means “coming alongside.” As the Spirit comes alongside of us, He ministers in the following ways:

1. The Holy Spirit indwells Christians. The Bible teaches that believers are indwelt and are the “temple of the Holy Spirit” (1 Cor. 6:19). The purpose of this indwelling ministry is to empower the newly created nature (2 Cor. 5:17; Eph. 3:16).
2. The Holy Spirit fills believers. We are admonished to “be filled with the Spirit” (Eph. 5:18). We are then to be subject to the control of the Spirit in contrast to being controlled by the lures of the world.
3. The Holy Spirit sanctifies the believer (Rom. 15:16; 2 Thess. 2:13).

4. The Holy Spirit produces fruit in the life of the believer. This fruit is described by Paul: “But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control” (Gal. 5:22–23).

5. The Holy Spirit gives gifts to Christians (Rom. 12:6–8; 1 Cor. 12:1–11; Eph. 4:7–12). These are abilities given to every Christian (1 Cor. 7:7; 1 Pet. 4:10). The purpose of these gifts is to glorify God (Rev. 4:11) and to edify the body of Christ (Eph. 4:12–13).

6. The Holy Spirit teaches believers. He will instruct us in all spiritual things as we read the Word of God (John 14:26) and abide in the Son of God (1 John 2:24–27).

6:20 bought at a price. With His death, Jesus Christ paid the cost to redeem us from our slavery to sin (Eph. 1:7; 1 Pet. 1:18–19).

7:6 concession, not as a commandment. The Corinthians seemed to be caught by two extreme false positions: the false concept that physical activity does not affect the spirit, and the opposite incorrect idea that any kind of physical relationship is evil. Sexual relationships in marriage are good and God given, yet Paul also outlines the value of celibacy.

7:11 remain unmarried. This statement is consistent with Jesus' teaching (Mark 10:9–12).

<sup>12</sup>But to the rest I, not the Lord, say: If any brother has a wife who does not believe, and she is willing to live with him, let him not divorce her. <sup>13</sup>And a woman who has a husband who does not believe, if he is willing to live with her, let her not divorce him. <sup>14</sup>For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband; otherwise <sup>k</sup>your children would be unclean, but now they are holy. <sup>15</sup>But if the unbeliever departs, let him depart; a brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases. But God has called us <sup>t</sup>to peace. <sup>16</sup>For how do you know, O wife, whether you will <sup>m</sup>save your husband? Or how do you know, O husband, whether you will save your wife?

Live as You Are Called

<sup>17</sup>But as God has distributed to each one, as the Lord has called each one, so let him walk. And <sup>n</sup>so I ordain in all the churches. <sup>18</sup>Was anyone called while circumcised? <sup>o</sup>Let him not become uncircumcised. Was anyone called while uncircumcised? Let him not be circumcised. <sup>19</sup><sup>p</sup>Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing, but <sup>q</sup>keeping the commandments of God is what matters. <sup>20</sup>Let each one remain in the same calling in which he was called. <sup>21</sup>Were you called while a slave? Do not be concerned about it; but if you can be made free, rather use it. <sup>22</sup>For he who is called in the Lord while a slave is <sup>r</sup>the Lord's freedman. Likewise he who is called while free is <sup>s</sup>Christ's slave. <sup>23</sup>You were bought at a price; do not become slaves of men. <sup>24</sup>Brethren, let each one remain with <sup>u</sup>God in that state in which he was called.

To the Unmarried and Widows

loosed from a wife? Do not seek a wife. <sup>28</sup>But even if you do marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Nevertheless such will have trouble in the flesh, but I would spare you.

<sup>29</sup>But <sup>z</sup>this I say, brethren, the time is short, so that from now on even those who have wives should be as though they had none, <sup>30</sup>those who weep as though they did not weep, those who rejoice as though they did not rejoice, those who buy as though they did not possess, <sup>31</sup>and those who use this world as not <sup>a</sup>misusing it. For <sup>b</sup>the form of this world is passing away.

<sup>32</sup>But I want you to be without care. <sup>c</sup>He who is unmarried cares for the things of the Lord—how he may please the Lord. <sup>33</sup>But he who is married cares about the things of the world—how he may please his wife. <sup>34</sup>There is* a difference between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman <sup>d</sup>cares about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But she who is married cares about the things of the world—how she may please her husband. <sup>35</sup>And this I say for your own profit, not that I may put a leash on you, but for what is proper, and that you may serve the Lord without distraction.

<sup>36</sup>But if any man thinks he is behaving improperly toward his virgin, if she is past the flower of youth, and thus it must be, let him do what he wishes. He does not sin; let them marry. <sup>37</sup>Nevertheless he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but has power over his own will, and has so determined in his heart that he will keep his virgin,* does well. <sup>38</sup><sup>e</sup>So then he who gives her* in marriage does well, but he who does not give her in marriage does better.

* 7:34 M-Text adds also. * 7:37 Or virgin daughter * 7:38 NU-Text reads his own virgin.

7:16 how do you know. First Peter 3:1–6 reminds us that consistent obedience to God can make a skeptical spouse into a believing one, but there are no guarantees.

7:17 as the Lord has called . . . let him walk. Social status is unimportant to God. He is interested in faithfulness.

7:27 bound to a wife . . . loosed. Considering the clear prohibition in verses 10–11, this verse is most likely referring to couples who are betrothed but not yet married.

7:36–38 his virgin. One interpretation of this verse is that this refers to a virgin daughter, although the word “daughter” is not actually in the Greek text. A second interpretation suggests that the “any man” of verse 36 refers to a fiancé who is maintaining, although with difficulty, a celibate state with a virgin he is (or has been) engaged to.

7:40 I think I also have the Spirit of God. The Holy Spirit enabled Paul to speak with apostolic authority and also with spiritual wisdom.

Be Sensitive to Conscience

8 Now <sup>a</sup>concerning things offered to idols: We know that we all have <sup>b</sup>knowledge. <sup>c</sup>Knowledge puffs up, but love edifies. <sup>2</sup>And <sup>d</sup>if anyone thinks that he knows anything, he knows nothing yet as he ought to know. <sup>3</sup>But if anyone loves God, this one is known by Him.

<sup>4</sup>Therefore concerning the eating of things offered to idols, we know that <sup>e</sup>an idol is nothing in the world, <sup>f</sup>and that there is no other God but one. <sup>5</sup>For even if there are <sup>g</sup>so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth (as there are many gods and many lords), <sup>6</sup>yet <sup>h</sup>for us there is one God, the Father, <sup>i</sup>of whom are all things, and we for Him; and <sup>j</sup>one Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>k</sup>through whom are all things, and <sup>l</sup>through whom we live.

A Pattern of Self-Denial

9 Am <sup>a</sup>I not an apostle? Am I not free? <sup>b</sup>Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? <sup>c</sup>Are you not my work in the Lord? <sup>2</sup>If I am not an apostle to others, yet doubtless I am to you. For you are <sup>d</sup>the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

<sup>15</sup>But <sup>u</sup>I have used none of these things, nor have I written these things that it should be done so to me; for <sup>v</sup>it would be better for me to die than that anyone should make my boasting void. <sup>16</sup>For if I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast of, for <sup>w</sup>necessity is laid upon me; yes, woe is me if

* 9:9 Deuteronomy 25:4

8:4 there is no other God but one. The Corinthian believers who claimed to have knowledge readily admitted that an idol is nothing (Is. 37:19; Jer. 16:20; Gal. 4:8) and that there is only one God (Deut. 6:4). Therefore, since an idol is nothing, and since the whole world belongs to God, food which has been offered to idols is not contaminated (10:19, 25–26).

8:7 with consciousness of the idol. Even though it is true that an idol is not a real god, a new believer leaving a life of idol worship is still accustomed to thinking of the idol as real. Because of this strong association, eating meat sacrificed to an idol might still feel like paying honor to the idol, and thus seem vile and contaminating. A person who still feels the pull of the old worship is right to flee from all remembrances of it (10:20–23).

8:12 wound their weak conscience. The believer is given responsibility for a weaker brother's conscience. It is sin to cause another to fall or to be wounded in the conscience. God is warning believers to stay away from questionable things.

9:1 an apostle. Paul could claim the title of apostle because he had seen the resurrected Lord (Acts 1:21–22), and the church in Corinth was his work in the Lord, a seal of his apostleship.

9:14 live from the gospel. God commands that ministers of the gospel be supported. Even as the priests in Israel were supported for their work, New

I do not preach the gospel! <sup>17</sup>For if I do this willingly, <sup>18</sup>I have a reward; but if against my will, <sup>19</sup>I have been entrusted with a stewardship. <sup>20</sup>What is my reward then? That <sup>21</sup>when I preach the gospel, I may present the gospel of Christ* without charge, that I <sup>22</sup>may not abuse my authority in the gospel.

Serving All Men

<sup>19</sup>For though I am <sup>20</sup>free from all men, <sup>21</sup>I have made myself a servant to all, <sup>22</sup>that I might win the more; <sup>23</sup>and <sup>24</sup>to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might win Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law,* that I might win those who are under the law; <sup>25</sup>to <sup>26</sup>those who are without law, as without law <sup>27</sup>(not being without law toward God,* but under law toward Christ*), that I might win those who are without law; <sup>28</sup>to the weak I became as* weak, that I might win the weak. <sup>29</sup>I have become all things to all men, <sup>30</sup>that I might by all means save some. <sup>31</sup>Now this I do for the gospel's sake, that I may be partaker of it with you.

Striving for a Crown

<sup>24</sup>Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? <sup>25</sup>Run in such a way that you may obtain it. <sup>26</sup>And everyone who competes for the prize is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a perishable crown, but we for <sup>27</sup>an imperishable crown. <sup>28</sup>Therefore I run thus: <sup>29</sup>not with uncertainty. Thus I fight: not as one who beats the air. <sup>30</sup>But I discipline my body and <sup>31</sup>bring it into subjection, lest, when I have preached to others, I myself should become <sup>32</sup>disqualified.

Old Testament Examples

10 Moreover, brethren, I do not want you to be unaware that all our fathers were under <sup>1</sup>the cloud, all passed through <sup>2</sup>the sea, <sup>3</sup>all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, <sup>4</sup>all ate the same <sup>5</sup>spiritual food, <sup>6</sup>and all drank the same <sup>7</sup>spiritual drink. For they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them, and that Rock was Christ. <sup>8</sup>But with most of them God was not well pleased, for their bodies <sup>9</sup>were scattered in the wilderness.

<sup>10</sup>Now these things became our examples, to the intent that we should not lust after evil things as <sup>11</sup>they also lusted. <sup>12</sup>And do not become idolaters as were some of them. As it is written, <sup>13</sup>"The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play." <sup>14</sup>Nor let us commit sexual immorality, as <sup>15</sup>some of them did, and <sup>16</sup>in one day twenty-three thousand fell; <sup>17</sup>nor let us tempt Christ, as <sup>18</sup>some of them also tempted, and <sup>19</sup>were destroyed by serpents; <sup>20</sup>nor complain, as <sup>21</sup>some of them also complained, and <sup>22</sup>were destroyed by <sup>23</sup>the destroyer. <sup>24</sup>Now all* these things happened to them as examples, and <sup>25</sup>they were written for our admonition, <sup>26</sup>upon whom the ends of the ages have come.

<sup>27</sup>Therefore <sup>28</sup>let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall. <sup>29</sup>No temptation has overtaken you except such as is common to man; but <sup>30</sup>God is faithful, <sup>31</sup>who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also make the way of escape, that you may be able to bear it.

Flee from Idolatry

Testament ministers were to be provided for as well (1 Tim. 5:17–18).

9:20 to the Jews I became as a Jew. In order to relate to the Jews in Jerusalem, Paul made a Nazirite vow in the temple (Acts 21:23–24).

9:21 under law toward Christ. Paul was not lawless; he was differentiating between the law of the old covenant and the broader law of Christ which includes great freedom and flexibility for the believer whose heart is obedient to Christ's will (11:1; Rom. 13:8; Gal. 6:2).

9:27 should become disqualified. A careful distinction should be made between the prize and the gift. The free gift of justification cannot be the result of good works (Rom. 4:1–8). The prize or crown, however, is the reward for endurance and suffering for the cause of Christ (Phil. 1:29; 2 Tim. 2:12).

10:1 under the cloud. When the ancient Israelites were wandering in the wilderness, the pillar of cloud was the visible manifestation of God's presence with them.

10:6 lust after evil things. The first failure of the Israelites was that they were not satisfied with God's provision (Num. 11:4–34). It is not that the food they craved was evil in itself, but their lack of trust in God was sin.

10:7 idolaters. The Israelites had seen God's mighty hand work on their behalf, yet they still fell into idolatry and sexual immorality. Knowledge alone does not protect against sin—obedience is a heart issue.

10:12 take heed lest he fall. The Corinthians may have had the attitude that, since they were justified by God, nothing could happen to them. The discipline of God, however, is not to be taken lightly. No one can sin without consequences (Gal. 6:7–8).

10:14 flee from idolatry. This was not a simple thing to do in ancient Greek culture, where the worship of yourselves what I say. <sup>16x</sup>The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? <sup>y</sup>The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? <sup>17</sup>For <sup>z</sup>we, though many, are one bread and one body; for we all partake of that one bread.

All to the Glory of God

<sup>27</sup>If any of those who do not believe invites you to dinner, and you desire to go, <sup>p</sup>eat whatever is set before you, asking no question for conscience' sake. <sup>28</sup>But if anyone says to you, "This was offered to idols," do not eat it <sup>q</sup>for the sake of the one who told you, and for conscience' sake;* for <sup>r</sup>"the earth is the LORD's, and all its fullness."* <sup>29</sup>"Conscience," I say, not your own, but that of the other. For <sup>s</sup>why is my liberty judged by another man's conscience? <sup>30</sup>But if I partake with thanks, why am I evil spoken of for the food <sup>t</sup>over which I give thanks?

<sup>31u</sup>Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. <sup>32v</sup>Give no offense, either to the Jews or to the Greeks or to the church of God, <sup>33</sup>just <sup>was</sup> I also please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

11 Imitate<sup>a</sup> me, just as I also imitate Christ.

Head Coverings

<sup>2</sup>Now I praise you, brethren, that you remember me in all things and keep the traditions just as I delivered them to you. <sup>3</sup>But I want you to know that <sup>b</sup>the head of every man is Christ, <sup>c</sup>the head of woman is man, and <sup>d</sup>the head of Christ is God. <sup>e</sup>Every man praying or <sup>e</sup>prophesying, having his head covered, dishonors his head. <sup>5</sup>But every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head, for that is one and the same as if her head were <sup>f</sup>shaved. <sup>6</sup>For if a woman is not covered, let multiple gods was deeply ingrained. There were idols on street corners and in houses. Various civic societies paid homage to their favorite gods. Cities adopted certain gods as their special protectors. The pagan temples were frequented often, especially in Corinth with its temple prostitution. Most of the food in the marketplace had been offered in worship to different gods.

10:20 sacrifice to demons. While the idols themselves are worthless, powerless, and certainly not gods, behind the statues and images is the very real evil and power of Satan and his demons. Anytime that worship is being directed at something that is not God, we can be sure that Satan is behind it.

10:22 provoke the Lord to jealousy. To participate in idolatrous activity is to deny that God is the only one worthy of worship.

10:23 All things are lawful. Though we have freedom, we also have a responsibility to help others in their Christian growth. Our first duty is to others, not to ourselves.

10:25 Eat whatever is sold. Paul himself did not ask whether meat was sacrificed in the temple, because pagan worship could not contaminate what God had made clean (Ps. 24:1; Acts 10:15).

10:28 for conscience' sake. Believers do not need to fearfully ask whether the meat they are eating has been sacrificed to idols—it doesn't make any difference to the food itself. However, a Christian may give the impression to others, by eating sacrificed food, that he himself is also still involved in idol worship.

11:3 the head. The term "head" primarily means "authority" when used in the context of human relationships, but it can also mean "source" or "origin." The relationship between men and women does not involve inferiority; in the parallel clause Christ is not inferior to God the Father. Just as Christ and God are equally divine, men and women are equal in God's image. But Jesus and God the Father have different roles in God's plan of salvation, and so also men and women are given different roles in life and in the church.

11:4 praying or prophesying. This may refer to intercessory prayer similar to that of Old Testament prophets (Gen. 20:7; 1 Sam. 12:23; Jer. 27:18) or Anna (Luke 2:36–38), or to the combination of tongues and prayer (14:13–16; Acts 2:4; 10:46). The term "prophesy" means to speak forth the words of God (14:3).

11:5 every woman who prays or prophesies. It is difficult from this passage alone to tell exactly what her also be shorn. But if it is <sup>a</sup>shameful for a woman to be shorn or shaved, let her be covered. <sup>7</sup>For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, since <sup>b</sup>he is the image and glory of God; but woman is the glory of man. <sup>8</sup>For man is not from woman, but woman <sup>c</sup>from man. <sup>9</sup>Nor was man created for the woman, but woman <sup>d</sup>for the man. <sup>10</sup>For this reason the woman ought to have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels. <sup>11</sup>Nevertheless, <sup>e</sup>neither is man independent of woman, nor woman independent of man, in the Lord. <sup>12</sup>For as woman came from man, even so man also comes through woman; but all things are from God.

<sup>13</sup>Judge among yourselves. Is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered? <sup>14</sup>Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him? <sup>15</sup>But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her; for her hair is given to her* for a covering. <sup>16</sup>But <sup>f</sup>if anyone seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, <sup>g</sup>nor do the churches of God.

Conduct at the Lord's Supper

<sup>17</sup>Now in giving these instructions I do not praise you, since you come together not for the better but for the worse. <sup>18</sup>For first of all, when you come together as a church, <sup>h</sup>I hear that there are divisions among you, and in part I believe it. <sup>19</sup>For <sup>i</sup>there must also be factions among you, <sup>j</sup>that those who are approved may be recognized among you. <sup>20</sup>Therefore when you come together in one place, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper. <sup>21</sup>For in eating, each one takes his own supper ahead of others; and one is hungry and <sup>k</sup>another is drunk. <sup>22</sup>What! Do you not have houses to eat and drink in? Or do you despise <sup>l</sup>the church of God and <sup>m</sup>shame those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you in this? I do not praise you.

Institution of the Lord's Supper

<sup>23</sup>For <sup>n</sup>I received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you: <sup>o</sup>that the Lord Jesus on the same night in which He was betrayed took bread; <sup>24</sup>and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "*Take, eat; this is My body which is broken* for you; do this in remembrance of Me.*" <sup>25</sup>In the same manner He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."

<sup>26</sup>For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death <sup>p</sup>till He comes.

Examine Yourself

a woman's role is to be in the Christian assembly, but it appears that women did minister to other believers through prayer and prophecy (see also 1 Tim. 2:11–14). shaved. For a woman to have her head shaved was a sign of public disgrace.

11:9 woman for the man. This does not mean that women are inferior to men; it refers only to the purposes of God for men and women in the creative order, and the woman's God-given role of helper (Gen. 2:20).

11:10 authority. Some think that this might be a symbol of the woman's authority to prophesy in the new church age; others believe that it might refer to a symbol of the man's authority over the woman and her willingness to submit to God's order. because of the angels. Evidently God's angels are present at the meetings of the church and actually learn of God's work of grace through the lives and worship of God's people (Eph. 3:10).

11:11 neither . . . independent. Men and women need each other, and as creatures of God, both depend on Him. Neither man nor woman can have any claim to special status other than what God has purposed for them as their Creator.

11:19 those who are approved. Paul is here being sarcastic, suggesting that some individuals within the church felt that they alone were truly approved of by the Lord, and trying to separate themselves from other believers whom they felt to be unapproved or less approved by God than themselves. He condemns this attitude in these verses.

11:20 the Lord's Supper. The Lord's Supper was the centerpiece of early Christian worship. Gathered around one table, fellow believers met with the Lord and with each other in unity. Christ had expressed this type of humility and unity when He instituted the Supper (Matt. 26:26–30; Mark 14:22–26; Luke 22:14–23).

11:26 you proclaim the Lord's death till He comes. The Lord's Supper looks back to Christ's death and forward to His second coming (Matt. 26:29; Mark 14:25; Luke 22:18).

11:30 sleep. The death of Christians is often referred <sup>33</sup>Therefore, my brethren, when you <sup>a</sup>come together to eat, wait for one another. <sup>34</sup>But if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, lest you come together for judgment. And the rest I will set in order when I come.

Spiritual Gifts: Unity in Diversity

12 Now <sup>a</sup>concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I do not want you to be ignorant: <sup>2</sup>You know <sup>b</sup>that* you were Gentiles, carried away to these <sup>c</sup>dumb idols, however you were led. <sup>3</sup>Therefore I make known to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God calls Jesus accursed, and <sup>d</sup>no one can say that Jesus is Lord except by the Holy Spirit.

Unity and Diversity in One Body

all been made to drink into* one Spirit. <sup>14</sup>For in fact the body is not one member but many.

<sup>15</sup>If the foot should say, “Because I am not a hand, I am not of the body,” is it therefore not of the body? <sup>16</sup>And if the ear should say, “Because I am not an eye, I am not of the body,” is it therefore not of the body? <sup>17</sup>If the whole body were an eye, where would be the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where would be the smelling? <sup>18</sup>But now <sup>x</sup>God has set the members, each one of them, in the body <sup>y</sup>just as He pleased. <sup>19</sup>And if they were all one member, where would the body be?

<sup>20</sup>But now indeed there are many members, yet one body. <sup>21</sup>And the eye cannot say to the hand, “I have no need of you”; nor again the head to the feet, “I have no need of you.” <sup>22</sup>No, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary. <sup>23</sup>And those members of the body which we think to be less honorable, on these we bestow greater honor; and our unpresentable parts have greater modesty, <sup>24</sup>but our presentable parts have no need. But God composed the body, having given greater honor to that part which lacks it, <sup>25</sup>that there should be no schism in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another. <sup>26</sup>And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; or if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

to as “sleep” (15:18; 1 Thess. 4:15–16). In this passage, it refers to untimely death, a punishment suffered by some Christians who failed to examine themselves at the Lord’s Supper (v. 28).

12:1–10 Using Spiritual Gifts—Spiritual gifts are discussed in detail in four passages of the New Testament: Romans 12:3–8; 1 Corinthians 12:1–10; Ephesians 4:11–12; and 1 Peter 4:10–11. These lists are not exhaustive but are to be regarded as representative of spiritual gifts. They are given by the Spirit of God to accomplish God’s purpose in the world and for the edification of the church, the body of Christ. Every believer has been given spiritual gifts (Rom. 12:5–6; 1 Cor. 12:7; 1 Pet. 4:10). The gifts belong to God and are given for the believer to use for the glory of God (1 Pet. 4:11).

12:3 accursed . . . Lord. A person speaking by the Holy Spirit will never curse Jesus; by the same token, no one can genuinely proclaim the lordship of Jesus without the enabling of the Spirit.

12:4 gifts. These gifts are spiritual capacities that God gives to individual Christians, through which He may strengthen His people.

12:13 by one Spirit. “By” here may also be translated “in,” speaking of location. Christ places each new member of the body in the Holy Spirit for His care and safekeeping (2 Cor. 1:22).

12:18 God has set the members. We should neither boast in what we do nor think too little of ourselves. Each one of us is important to God and has a mission to accomplish here on earth.

12:28 apostles. The term “apostle” or “sent one” refers generally to missionaries (15:7; Rom. 16:7; 2 Cor. 11:5; 12:11; Gal. 1:17–19). Other times the term is limited to the small group who witnessed the all teachers? Are all workers of miracles?<sup>30</sup> Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret?<sup>31</sup> But earnestly desire the best* gifts. And yet I show you a more excellent way.

The Greatest Gift

13 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal.<sup>2</sup> And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith,<sup>3</sup> so that I could remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.<sup>4</sup> And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned,<sup>5</sup> but have not love, it profits me nothing.

<sup>8</sup> Love never fails. But whether there are prophecies, they will fail; whether there are tongues, they will cease; whether there is knowledge, it will vanish away.<sup>9</sup> For we know in part and we prophesy in part.<sup>10</sup> But when that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part will be done away.

<sup>11</sup> When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things.<sup>12</sup> For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known.

<sup>13</sup> And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

resurrected Christ and were given a special mission by Him as His representatives (9:1; 15:5,8).

12:31 earnestly desire the best gifts. This phrase has generally been interpreted as Paul's exhortation to the Corinthians to seek after the more spiritually profitable gifts, yet it is possible that Paul is stating that the Corinthians were improperly desiring the gifts that would bring attention to themselves. In other words, he would be telling them that, although they desire this sort of gift, he wants to show them a more excellent way.

13:1–13 Love—The more one reads 1 Corinthians 13, the more one has to face the fact that we don't naturally have that kind of love in us. The only way to get it is to get it from God. Love comes from God (1 John 4:7). We're not very good at this kind of loving, and the only way we can be is through the empowering work of the Holy Spirit. It is tough because it means dependency on God for that which we cannot do by ourselves. It is tough because the objects of our love often act in unlovable ways or they reject our love when we give it. It is tough because we have to keep coming back with more love, even when it is rejected.

Prophecy and Tongues

14 Pursue love, and desire spiritual gifts,<sup>2</sup> but especially that you may prophesy.<sup>3</sup> For he who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God, for no one understands him; however, in the spirit he speaks mysteries.<sup>4</sup> But he who prophesies speaks edification and exhortation and comfort to men.<sup>5</sup> He who speaks in a tongue edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the church.<sup>6</sup> I wish you all spoke with tongues, but even more that you prophesied; for he who prophesies is greater than he who speaks with tongues, unless indeed he interprets, that the church may receive edification.

Tongues Must Be Interpreted

<sup>6</sup> But now, brethren, if I come to you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you unless I speak to you either by revelation, by knowledge, by prophesying, or by teaching? Even things without life, whether flute or harp, when they make a sound, unless they make a distinction in the sounds, how will it be known what is piped or played? For if the trumpet makes an uncertain sound, who will prepare for battle? So likewise you, unless you utter by the tongue words easy to understand, how will it be known what is spoken? For you will be speaking into the air.<sup>10</sup> There are, it may be, so many kinds of languages in the world, and none of them is without significance.<sup>11</sup> Therefore, if I do not know the meaning of the language, I shall be a foreigner to him who speaks, and he who speaks will be a foreigner to me.<sup>12</sup> Even so you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, let it be for the edification of the church that you seek to excel.

* 12:31 NU-Text reads greater. * 13:3 NU-Text reads so I may boast. * 14:5 NU-Text reads and.

13:8 Love never fails. This uncompromising and bold affirmation introduces the contrast with the spiritual gifts which will not last. Paul wants the Corinthians to know that all the gifts would one day no longer be needed, but love.

13:10 when that which is perfect has come. The Greek word for "perfect" means "end" or "completion." Most likely, this is a reference to the second coming of Christ and the completion of all things, but some have interpreted this as referring to the completion of the New Testament canon.

14:3 prophecies. In this sense, prophecy incorporates all speaking gifts that edify the church (Rom. 12:6; 1 Pet. 4:11).

14:11 I do not know the meaning. Paul underlines the original purpose of all spiritual gifts: they must

<sup>13</sup>Therefore let him who speaks in a tongue pray that he may interpret. <sup>14</sup>For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful. <sup>15</sup>What is the conclusion then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will also pray with the understanding. <sup>16</sup>I will sing with the spirit, and I will also sing with the understanding. <sup>16</sup>Otherwise, if you bless with the spirit, how will he who occupies the place of the uninformed say “Amen” at your giving of thanks, since he does not understand what you say? <sup>17</sup>For you indeed give thanks well, but the other is not edified.

<sup>18</sup>I thank my God I speak with tongues more than you all; <sup>19</sup>yet in the church I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I may teach others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

Tongues a Sign to Unbelievers

<sup>20</sup>Brethren, <sup>k</sup>do not be children in understanding; however, in malice <sup>be</sup> babes, but in understanding be mature.

n“With men of other tongues and other lips
I will speak to this people;
And yet, for all that, they will not hear Me.”<sup>22</sup> says the Lord.

<sup>22</sup>Therefore tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe but to unbelievers; but prophesying is not for unbelievers but for those who believe. <sup>23</sup>Therefore if the whole church comes together in one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those who are uninformed or unbelievers, will they not say that you are out of your mind? <sup>24</sup>But if all prophesy, and an unbeliever or an uninformed person comes in, he is convinced by all, he is convicted by all. <sup>25</sup>And thus* the secrets of his heart are revealed; and so, falling down on his face, he will worship God and report that God is truly among you.

Order in Church Meetings

<sup>26</sup>How is it then, brethren? Whenever you come together, each of you has a psalm, <sup>27</sup>has a teaching, has a tongue, has a revelation, has an interpretation. <sup>28</sup>Let all things be done for edification. <sup>27f</sup>If anyone speaks in a tongue, let there be two or at the most three, each in turn, and let one interpret. <sup>28</sup>But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in church, and let him speak to himself and to God. <sup>29</sup>Let two or three prophets speak, and <sup>30</sup>let the others judge. <sup>30</sup>But if anything is revealed to another who sits by, <sup>31</sup>let the first keep silent. <sup>31</sup>For you can all prophesy one by one, that all may learn and all may be encouraged. <sup>32</sup>And <sup>33</sup>the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets. <sup>33</sup>For God is not the author of confusion but of peace, <sup>34</sup>as in all the churches of the saints.

<sup>34x</sup>Let your* women keep silent in the churches, for they are not permitted to speak; but they are to be submissive, as the <sup>35</sup>law also says. <sup>35</sup>And if they want to learn something, let them ask their own husbands at home; for it is shameful for women to speak in church.

<sup>36</sup>Or did the word of God come originally from you? Or was it you only that it reached? <sup>37</sup>If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things which I write to you are the commandments of the Lord. <sup>38</sup>But if anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant.*

* 14:21 Isaiah 28:11, 12 * 14:25 NU-Text omits And thus. * 14:34 NU-Text omits your.

serve the church (vv. 13–14; 12:7). Tongues must convey meaning or else they fail to help those who listen. 14:16 Amen. The word “amen” means “truly” or “so be it” (John 3:5). Saying “amen” indicated agreement with what was being said (Deut. 27:14–26; Rev. 5:14). 14:29 two or three. The meetings of the church should be characterized by orderliness and moderation. judge. No one, not even a person exercising a spiritual gift, is exempt from accountability to the church (6:5; 11:29–31).

14:32 subject to the prophets. Paul anticipated that some might excuse disorder by claiming that they could not prevent themselves from prophesying when God brought a revelation to them. He explained that the Holy Spirit does not overpower the person through whom He speaks.

14:34 women keep silent. This command is the subject of much debate, for it seems to contradict the fact that Paul spoke of women prophesying in 1 Corinthians 11:5. It has been suggested that Paul was addressing a particular problem in the Corinthian church, a group of women who were disruptive, but the prohibition is repeated at a different time to a different group of people (1 Tim. 2:11–12). This verse has also been interpreted as a prohibition on women interpreting prophecy, judging the prophets, or speaking in tongues. Others believe that women do prophesy and minister, but only to other women, or in a setting other than public church meetings, such as Priscilla and Aquila instructing Apollos (Acts 18:24–28).

14:40 decently and in order. This verse is the key to all church practice. In worship and teaching, as in all of life, believers should demonstrate self-control and consideration.

The Risen Christ, Faith's Reality

15 Moreover, brethren, I declare to you the gospel <sup>a</sup>which I preached to you, which also you received and <sup>b</sup>in which you stand, <sup>c</sup>by which also you are saved, if you hold fast that word which I preached to you—unless <sup>d</sup>you believed in vain.

<sup>3</sup>For <sup>e</sup>I delivered to you first of all that <sup>f</sup>which I also received: that Christ died for our sins <sup>g</sup>according to the Scriptures, <sup>4</sup>and that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day <sup>h</sup>according to the Scriptures, <sup>5</sup>and that He was seen by Cephas, then <sup>i</sup>by the twelve. <sup>6</sup>After that He was seen by over five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain to the present, but some have fallen asleep. <sup>7</sup>After that He was seen by James, then <sup>j</sup>by all the apostles. <sup>8</sup>Then last of all He was seen by me also, as by one born out of due time.

<sup>9</sup>For I am <sup>m</sup>the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because <sup>n</sup>I persecuted the church of God. <sup>10</sup>But <sup>o</sup>by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all, <sup>p</sup>yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. <sup>11</sup>Therefore, whether it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

The Risen Christ, Our Hope

<sup>12</sup>Now if Christ is preached that He has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? <sup>13</sup>But if there is no resurrection of the dead, <sup>q</sup>then Christ is not risen. <sup>14</sup>And if Christ is not risen, then our preaching is empty and your faith is also empty. <sup>15</sup>Yes, and we are found false witnesses of God, because <sup>r</sup>we have testified of God that He raised up Christ, whom He did not raise up—if in fact the dead do not rise. <sup>16</sup>For if the dead do not rise, then Christ is not risen. <sup>17</sup>And if Christ is not risen, your faith is futile; <sup>s</sup>you are still in your sins! <sup>18</sup>Then also those who have fallen <sup>t</sup>asleep in Christ have perished. <sup>19</sup>If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men the most pitiable.

The Last Enemy Destroyed

15:3–4 Gospel Message—Paul makes it clear here that evangelism should be centered on the gospel of Christ. The central point of the good news is Christ's death and resurrection. The four key points about that gospel are:

1. God's Word says all are sinners, condemned to hell (Is. 53:6; Rom. 3:10–11, 23; 5:8, 12; Rev. 20:15).
2. There is nothing a sinner can do on his own to save himself (Is. 64:6; Eph. 2:9).
3. Christ was born, crucified, and resurrected to save lost people from their sin (John 3:16; 1 Tim. 1:15).
4. To be saved, a sinner must believe God's Word and invite Christ into his or her heart by faith (John 5:24; Acts 16:31).

15:3 according to the Scriptures. Christ lived and died in accordance with the prophecies about Him in the Old Testament (Ps. 16:10; Is. 53:8–10).

15:8 born out of due time. This is probably Paul's comment on the unique way that he became an apostle. Unlike the other apostles, who had the benefit of an initial training period with Christ, Paul became an apostle abruptly, with no opportunity for earthly contact with Christ or His teaching.

15:9 persecuted the church. The story of Paul's persecuting and conversion is told in Acts 9; 22; Ephesians 3:8; 1 Timothy 1:15–16.

15:12 no resurrection. These opponents of Paul may have been denying the reality of Christ's resurrection. They may also have been teaching that resurrection is only spiritual and not physical; or they may have been teaching that the resurrection had already happened (2 Tim. 2:18). Whatever the case, they contradicted the essential teaching that Christ had been physically raised from the dead and that all believers in Him will someday also be resurrected.

15:15 false witnesses. In verses 5–8 Paul listed several people, including himself, who had witnessed the resurrected Christ. To deny the resurrection was to call these people liars.

15:17 Resurrection—There are many biblical scholars these days who say that the resurrection was an invented story out of some kind of "faith" process. They relegate the critical event that defines Christianity to the imaginations of some well-meaning but deluded Palestinian peasants. Paul goes to great pains to put the resurrection in the realm of fact, not opinion or imagination. He talks about the eyewitness testimony of hundreds (v. 6). He references his own story of personal confrontation with Christ (v. 8). In the end he says that if the resurrection isn't a fact, then he is absolutely lost (v. 19). This sounds like a man who staked his entire life on an indisputable fact.

15:19 pitiable. If Christ did not rise, then He is just another dead prophet with no power over sin or death, and the Christian's hope of eternal life is a lie.

15:20 firstfruits. The "firstfruits" is the first installment of a crop, which anticipates and guarantees the ultimate offering of the whole crop (16:15; Rom. 8:23). Because Christ rose from the dead, those who are asleep in Christ (1 Thess. 4:15–16) have a guarantee of their own resurrection.

15:21 by man came death. The first man, Adam, transgressed God's law and brought sin and death into the world (Gen. 2:17; 3:19; Rom. 5:12–21); the second man, Jesus Christ, was the perfect sacrifice to take away sin and to bring life and resurrection to those who believe in Him (Rom. 5:15–21).

15:23 each one in his own order. The believers who Christ the firstfruits, afterward those who are Christ's at His coming. <sup>24</sup>Then comes the end, when He delivers <sup>b</sup>the kingdom to God the Father, when He puts an end to all rule and all authority and power. <sup>25</sup>For He must reign <sup>c</sup>till He has put all enemies under His feet. <sup>26a</sup>The last enemy that will be destroyed is death. <sup>27</sup>For <sup>e</sup>"He has put all things under His feet."* But when He says "all things are put under Him," it is evident that He who put all things under Him is excepted. <sup>28</sup>Now when all things are made subject to Him, then <sup>g</sup>the Son Himself will also be subject to Him who put all things under Him, that God may be all in all.

Effects of Denying the Resurrection

<sup>33</sup>Do not be deceived: <sup>m</sup>"Evil company corrupts good habits." <sup>34a</sup>Awake to righteousness, and do not sin; <sup>o</sup>for some do not have the knowledge of God. <sup>p</sup>I speak this to your shame.

A Glorious Body

<sup>39</sup>All flesh is not the same flesh, but *there is one kind of flesh** of men, another flesh of animals, another of fish, and another of birds.

<sup>40</sup>There are also celestial bodies and terrestrial bodies; but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. <sup>41</sup>There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory.

<sup>42s</sup>So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption. <sup>43</sup>It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. <sup>44</sup>It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. <sup>45</sup>And so it is written, <sup>u</sup>"The first man Adam became a living being."* <sup>v</sup>The last Adam became <sup>w</sup>a life-giving spirit.

Our Final Victory

* 15:27 Psalm 8:6 * 15:32 Isaiah 22:13

have died will be the first to rise at Christ's coming and be reunited with their physical bodies. Following this is the removal of all living Christians from the earth (1 Thess. 4:13–18).

15:29 baptized for the dead. It may be that some of the Corinthians had for some reason been baptized on behalf of others who had died without baptism. Paul does not address whether this practice was right or wrong (although his use of "they" rather than "we" indicates that he did not participate), but makes the point that their own actions are inconsistent with their beliefs. There would be no point in doing anything for the dead if there is no resurrection.

15:30 in jeopardy. If this life is all there is, it would make more sense to take the position of the Epicureans, seeking pleasure and avoiding pain.

15:32 beasts at Ephesus. This may be a figurative reference to Paul's enemies at Ephesus (Acts 19).

15:36 unless it dies. Difficulty understanding the nature of the resurrection should not cause a person to doubt its reality any more than not understanding how a seed becomes a plant should cause disbelief in the coming harvest.

15:44 natural body . . . spiritual body. The contrast is not between a material body and an immaterial body, but between a body subject to death and a body that is immortal.

<sup>54</sup>So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: “Death is swallowed up in victory.”*

Collection for the Saints

16 Now concerning <sup>a</sup>the collection for the saints, as I have given orders to the churches of Galatia, so you must do also: <sup>2b</sup>On the first day of the week let each one of you lay something aside, storing up as he may prosper, that there be no collections when I come. <sup>3</sup>And when I come, <sup>c</sup>whomever you approve by your letters I will send to bear your gift to Jerusalem. <sup>4d</sup>But if it is fitting that I go also, they will go with me.

Personal Plans

<sup>5</sup>Now I will come to you <sup>e</sup>when I pass through Macedonia (for I am passing through Macedonia). <sup>6</sup>And it may be that I will remain, or even spend the winter with you, that you may <sup>f</sup>send me on my journey, wherever I go. <sup>7</sup>For I do not wish to see you now on the way; but I hope to stay a while with you, <sup>g</sup>if the Lord permits.

<sup>8</sup>But I will tarry in Ephesus until <sup>h</sup>Pentecost. <sup>9</sup>For <sup>i</sup>a great and effective door has opened to me, and <sup>j</sup>there are many adversaries.

15:54 *Death is swallowed up in victory. Satan's apparent victories in the garden of Eden (Gen. 3:13) and at the cross (Mark 15:22–24) were reversed by Jesus' death and resurrection (Col. 2:13–15).

15:58 *your labor is not in vain. We are looking forward to eternal life because of the hope of the resurrection; everything we do on this earth matters for eternity.

16:2 *the first day of the week. It appears that the custom of believers meeting on the first day of the week began early in Christian history. lays something aside. The Old Testament tithe was not adopted by the New Testament church, though certainly Christ practiced it. New Testament believers were encouraged to give liberally, but never a specified amount or percentage (Rom. 12:8). Considering the New Testament teachings on generosity and self-sacrifice, believers should probably expect to give much more than ten percent.

16:13 *be brave. This emphasizes courage as well as maturity. Paul's command to do everything with love serves as a balance to these strong exhortations.

16:17 *Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus. These

<sup>10</sup>And <sup>kif</sup> Timothy comes, see that he may be with you without fear; for <sup>l</sup>he does the work of the Lord, as I also do. <sup>11m</sup>Therefore let no one despise him. But send him on his journey <sup>n</sup>in peace, that he may come to me; for I am waiting for him with the brethren.

<sup>12</sup>Now concerning our brother <sup>o</sup>Apollos, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brethren, but he was quite unwilling to come at this time; however, he will come when he has a convenient time.

Final Exhortations

<sup>17</sup>I am glad about the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus, <sup>y</sup>for what was lacking on your part they supplied. <sup>18z</sup>For they refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore <sup>a</sup>acknowledge such men.

Greetings and a Solemn Farewell

16:19 *Aquila and Priscilla. Aquila and Priscilla were tentmakers who had met Paul in Corinth. They followed him to Ephesus and made their house available for the meetings of the church (Rom. 16:3–5). They would have been known to many in the Corinthian church.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

► AUTHOR: External and internal evidence amply support the Pauline authorship of this letter. There is an interval of about a year between these two letters to the Corinthians. Since Paul's first letter, the Corinthian church had been swayed by false teachers who stirred the people against Paul. They claimed he was fickle, arrogant, unimpressive in appearance and speech, and unqualified to be an apostle of Jesus Christ. During this time Paul has paid them what must have been an unpleasant visit and then wrote them another letter, which we do not have (2:1–4). Paul wrote 2 Corinthians in A.D. 56 in Macedonia and sent the letter to the church with Titus and another brother (8:16).

► TIME: c. A.D. 56    ► KEY VERSES: 2 Cor. 4:5–6

► THEME: As Paul writes this letter, he is looking forward to yet another visit, and it appears that the Corinthians have listened to him and things are getting on the right track. But there are still some problems. The key issue seems to be Paul's leadership. He spends a good deal of the letter establishing his authority and the need to exercise it, which makes the letter intensely personal. In it we can see the depth of his relationship with the Corinthians, and we get an understanding of the hardships Paul went through for these people on his missionary journeys. Most importantly we see a faith that is so focused that Paul is ready to endure anything to see it spread.

Greeting

1 Paul, <sup>a</sup>an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and <sup>b</sup>Timothy our brother,

To the church of God which is at Corinth, <sup>c</sup>with all the saints who are in all Achaia:

<sup>2d</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Comfort in Suffering

<sup>3e</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, <sup>4</sup>who <sup>f</sup>comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. <sup>5</sup>For as <sup>g</sup>the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also abounds through Christ. <sup>6</sup>Now if we are afflicted, <sup>h</sup>it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effective for enduring the same sufferings which we also suffer.

Or if we are comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation. <sup>7</sup>And our hope for you is steadfast, because we know that <sup>i</sup>as you are partakers of the sufferings, so also you will partake of the consolation.

Delivered from Suffering

<sup>8</sup>For we do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, of <sup>j</sup>our trouble which came to us in Asia: that we were burdened beyond measure, above strength, so that we despaired even of life. <sup>9</sup>Yes, we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should <sup>k</sup>not trust in ourselves but in God who raises the dead, <sup>10</sup>who delivered us from so great a death, and does* deliver us; in whom we trust that He will still deliver us, <sup>11</sup>you also <sup>m</sup>helping together in prayer for us, that thanks may be given by many persons on our* behalf <sup>n</sup>for the gift granted to us through many.

* 1:10 NU-Text reads shall.    * 1:11 M-Text reads your behalf.

1:4 comforts us in all our tribulation. God comforts us for our own encouragement and also to make us comforters of others. The comfort that God gives to us becomes a gift that we can give to others (7:6; Acts 9:10–19).

1:5 the sufferings of Christ. Jesus warned His disciples that they would experience the same kind of suffering that He did for the sake of the gospel (John 15:20).

1:8 Asia. This is the Roman province in western Asia Minor, present day Turkey. The trouble that Paul speaks of is likely the riots in Ephesus (Acts 19:23–41).

Paul's Sincerity

<sup>12</sup>For our boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience that we conducted ourselves in the world in simplicity and <sup>o</sup>godly sincerity, <sup>p</sup>not with fleshly wisdom but by the grace of God, and more abundantly toward you. <sup>13</sup>For we are not writing any other things to you than what you read or understand. Now I trust you will understand, even to the end <sup>14</sup>(as also you have understood us in part), <sup>q</sup>that we are your boast as <sup>r</sup>you also are ours, in the day of the Lord Jesus.

Sparing the Church

<sup>15</sup>And in this confidence <sup>s</sup>I intended to come to you before, that you might have <sup>a</sup>a second benefit—<sup>16</sup>to pass by way of you to Macedonia, <sup>u</sup>to come again from Macedonia to you, and be helped by you on my way to Judea. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, when I was planning this, did I do it lightly? Or the things I plan, do I plan <sup>v</sup>according to the flesh, that with me there should be Yes, Yes, and No, No? <sup>18</sup>But as God is <sup>w</sup>faithful, our word to you was not Yes and No. <sup>19</sup>For <sup>x</sup>the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us—by me, <sup>y</sup>Silvanus, and <sup>z</sup>Timothy—was not Yes and No, <sup>ab</sup>but in Him was Yes. <sup>20b</sup>For all the promises of God in Him are Yes, and in Him Amen, to the glory of God through us. <sup>21</sup>Now He who establishes us with you in Christ and <sup>c</sup>has anointed us is God, <sup>22</sup>who <sup>d</sup>also has sealed us and <sup>e</sup>given us the Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee.

<sup>23</sup>Moreover <sup>f</sup>I call God as witness against my soul, <sup>g</sup>that to spare you I came no more to Corinth. <sup>24</sup>Not <sup>h</sup>that we have dominion over your faith, but are fellow workers for your joy; for <sup>i</sup>by faith you stand.

2 But I determined this within myself, <sup>q</sup>that I would not come again to you in sorrow. <sup>2</sup>For if I make you <sup>b</sup>sorrowful, then who is he who makes me glad but the one who is made sorrowful by me?

Forgive the Offender

<sup>3</sup>And I wrote this very thing to you, lest, when I came, <sup>c</sup>I should have sorrow over those from whom I ought to have joy, <sup>d</sup>having confidence in you all that my joy is the joy of you all. <sup>4</sup>For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you, with many tears, <sup>e</sup>not that you should be grieved, but that you might know the love which I have so abundantly for you.

Triumph in Christ

<sup>12</sup>Furthermore, <sup>k</sup>when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and <sup>l</sup>a door was opened to me by the Lord, <sup>13m</sup>I had no rest in my spirit, because I did not find Titus my brother; but taking my leave of them, I departed for Macedonia.

<sup>14</sup>Now thanks be to God who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and through us diffuses the fragrance of His knowledge in every place. <sup>15</sup>For we are to God the fragrance of Christ <sup>n</sup>among those who are being saved and <sup>o</sup>among those who are perishing. <sup>16p</sup>To the one we are the aroma

* 2:10 NU-Text reads For indeed, what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, I did it.

1:12 *godly sincerity. The Corinthians certainly were well acquainted with Paul's character, since he had spent 18 months with them (Acts 18:11).

1:19 *not Yes and No. Paul's preaching was not inconsistent or contradictory. Instead, his preaching reflected the truthfulness and faithfulness of God, because his teaching was based on the Scriptures and the teachings of Christ.

1:21 *anointed us. God confirmed Paul and his fellow workers by anointing them, the special mark of service to God which was given to kings and priests in the Old Testament. This anointing probably refers to special empowerment by the Holy Spirit, similar to the anointing that John described in 1 John 2:20, 27.

1:22 *sealed us. Sealing indicates ownership and security. The sealing and the giving of the Holy Spirit are also linked. The Holy Spirit is a guarantee, the down payment that there is more spiritual blessing to come and that the believer will receive eternal life. 2:5 *caused grief. This is probably a reference to the incestuous man of 1 Corinthians 5.

2:7 *forgive and comfort him. The purpose of church discipline is repentance and restoration. Forgiveness should always follow the correction, just as Christ instructed (Matt. 18:15–35).

2:12 *Troas. Troas was a city on the Aegean coast, where Paul had received his call to preach the gospel in Macedonia (Acts 16:8).

2:16 *death leading to death. The gospel message gives life to those who choose to accept it, but it represents death and judgment to those who reject it.

of death leading to death, and to the other the aroma of life leading to life. And <sup>a</sup>who is sufficient for these things? <sup>17</sup>For we are not, as so many,* <sup>18</sup>peddling the word of God; but as <sup>a</sup>of sincerity, but as from God, we speak in the sight of God in Christ.

Christ's Epistle

3 Do <sup>a</sup>we begin again to commend ourselves? Or do we need, as some others, <sup>b</sup>epistles of commendation to you or letters of commendation from you? <sup>2c</sup>You are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read by all men; <sup>3</sup>clearly you are an epistle of Christ, <sup>d</sup>ministered by us, written not with ink but by the Spirit of the living God, not <sup>e</sup>on tablets of stone but <sup>f</sup>on tablets of flesh, that is, of the heart.

The Spirit, Not the Letter

<sup>4</sup>And we have such trust through Christ toward God. <sup>5g</sup>Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think of anything as being from ourselves, but <sup>h</sup>our sufficiency is from God, <sup>i</sup>who also made us sufficient as <sup>j</sup>ministers of <sup>k</sup>the new covenant, not <sup>k</sup>of the letter but of the Spirit;* for <sup>l</sup>the letter kills, <sup>m</sup>but the Spirit gives life.

Glory of the New Covenant

much more in glory. <sup>10</sup>For even what was made glorious had no glory in this respect, because of the glory that excels. <sup>11</sup>For if what is passing away was glorious, what remains is much more glorious.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, since we have such hope, <sup>s</sup>we use great boldness of speech—<sup>13</sup>unlike Moses, <sup>t</sup>who put a veil over his face so that the children of Israel could not look steadily at <sup>u</sup>the end of what was passing away. <sup>14</sup>But <sup>v</sup>their minds were blinded. For until this day the same veil remains unlifted in the reading of the Old Testament, because the veil is taken away in Christ. <sup>15</sup>But even to this day, when Moses is read, a veil lies on their heart. <sup>16</sup>Nevertheless <sup>w</sup>when one turns to the Lord, <sup>x</sup>the veil is taken away. <sup>17</sup>Now <sup>y</sup>the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is <sup>z</sup>liberty. <sup>18</sup>But we all, with unveiled face, beholding <sup>a</sup>as in a mirror <sup>b</sup>the glory of the Lord, <sup>c</sup>are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord.

The Light of Christ's Gospel

4 Therefore, since we have this ministry, <sup>a</sup>as we have received mercy, we <sup>b</sup>do not lose heart. <sup>2</sup>But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness nor handling the word of God deceitfully, but by manifestation of the truth <sup>c</sup>commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. <sup>3</sup>But even if our gospel is veiled, <sup>d</sup>it is veiled to those who are perishing, <sup>4</sup>whose minds <sup>e</sup>the god of this age <sup>f</sup>has blinded, who do not believe, lest <sup>g</sup>the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, <sup>h</sup>who is the image of

* 2:17 M-Text reads the rest. * 3:6 Or spirit

3:2 You are our epistle. Paul sometimes did use letters of recommendation (8:22; Rom. 16:1; 1 Cor. 16:10; Col. 4:10), but he did not need one for the Corinthians. They already knew him personally and had personally benefited from his ministry. Paul's love for the Corinthians was known to all who were acquainted with him. One of the qualifications for ministry is love for people, both God's people and the lost.

3:6 not of the letter. The "letter" is the old covenant of law. The "letter" kills because no one can be perfect enough to keep the whole law all the time, and the penalty for breaking it is death.

3:7 ministry of death. Though the law itself is holy (Rom. 7:12), the ministry of the law is the ministry of death because the law defines and convicts of sin but offers no salvation.

3:9 ministry of righteousness. God declares righteous those who believe in His Son, and then the Holy Spirit empowers the believer to live righteously. This first work of God is called justification, and the second is called sanctification.

3:11 what remains. The new covenant supersedes the old covenant established at Mount Sinai between God and the nation of Israel.

3:18 from glory to glory. As believers behold the glory of God in the Word of God, the Spirit of God changes their hearts and actions to make them more and more like Jesus Christ.

4:2 handling the word of God deceitfully. Apparently Paul had been accused of being crafty (12:16) and of being deceitful in the way that he preached. In fact, his ministry was based on the truthfulness of the word of God.

4:4 the god of this age has blinded. Because of Satan's deception, sometimes what the world thinks is obviously true is painfully wrong (Prov. 14:12). image of God. Jesus Christ is God's Son, and He perfectly reveals God the Father to us. Human beings have been created in the image of God, but through sin they have fallen from a perfect relationship with God. Jesus Christ is restoring believers to what they were originally created to be (3:18; Gen. 1:26).

God, should shine on them. <sup>5i</sup>For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and <sup>i</sup>ourselves your bondservants for Jesus' sake. <sup>6</sup>For it is the God <sup>k</sup>who commanded light to shine out of darkness, who has <sup>h</sup>shone in our hearts to <sup>g</sup>give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

Cast Down but Unconquered

<sup>7</sup>But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, <sup>m</sup>that the excellence of the power may be of God and not of us. <sup>8</sup>We are <sup>n</sup>hard-pressed on every side, yet not crushed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; <sup>9</sup>persecuted, but not <sup>o</sup>forsaken; <sup>p</sup>struck down, but not destroyed—<sup>10</sup>always carrying about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, <sup>r</sup>that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our body. <sup>11</sup>For we who live <sup>s</sup>are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh. <sup>12</sup>So then death is working in us, but life in you.

<sup>13</sup>And since we have <sup>t</sup>the same spirit of faith, according to what is written, <sup>u</sup>"I believed and therefore I spoke,"* we also believe and therefore speak, <sup>14</sup>knowing that <sup>v</sup>He who raised up the Lord Jesus will also raise us up with Jesus, and will present us with you. <sup>15</sup>For <sup>w</sup>all things are for your sakes, that <sup>x</sup>grace, having spread through the many, may cause thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God.

Seeing the Invisible

<sup>16</sup>Therefore we <sup>y</sup>do not lose heart. Even though our outward man is perishing, yet the inward man is <sup>z</sup>being renewed day by day. <sup>17</sup>For <sup>a</sup>our light affliction, which is but for a moment, is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory,

Assurance of the Resurrection

5 For we know that if <sup>c</sup>our earthly house, this tent, is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house <sup>b</sup>not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. <sup>2</sup>For in this <sup>c</sup>we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed with our habitation which is from heaven, <sup>3</sup>if indeed, <sup>d</sup>having been clothed, we shall not be found naked. <sup>4</sup>For we who are in this tent groan, being burdened, not because we want to be unclothed, <sup>e</sup>but further clothed, that mortality may be swallowed up by life. <sup>5</sup>Now He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who also <sup>f</sup>has given us the Spirit as a guarantee.

<sup>6</sup>So we are always confident, knowing that while we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord. <sup>7</sup>For <sup>g</sup>we walk by faith, not by sight. <sup>8</sup>We are confident, yes, <sup>h</sup>well pleased rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord.

The Judgment Seat of Christ

<sup>9</sup>Therefore we make it our aim, whether present or absent, to be well pleasing to Him. <sup>10</sup>For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, <sup>i</sup>that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad. <sup>11</sup>Knowing, therefore, <sup>k</sup>the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are well known to God, and I also trust are well known in your consciences.

*4:13 Psalm 116:10

4:8 yet not crushed. As believers we will face trials, but we must remember that God controls trials and uses them to strengthen His people. God's glory is manifested through broken vessels, through people who endure troubles by relying on His power.

4:9 struck down. This literally happened (Acts 14:19). In Lystra a crowd stoned Paul, leaving him for dead. But the Lord spared his life so that he could continue to preach the gospel and testify to God's deliverance. 4:12 life in you. Had Paul not been willing to risk death to bring the gospel to Corinth, the Corinthians would not have received eternal life.

4:17 working for us. Afflictions produce glory, but the glory is far greater than the affliction (Mark 10:30).

5:2 we groan. Along with the rest of creation, our spirits cry out for what we were meant to be (Rom. 8:22–23).

5:5 a guarantee. The Holy Spirit's work in believers' lives can be compared to a down payment, or earnest money (1:22). The presence of the Holy Spirit assures believers that God has purchased them. They are no longer slaves to sin, but are now His children.

5:8 be present with the Lord. This is one of the passages indicating where believers will go after death; they will be with Jesus in heaven (Luke 23:43; Phil. 1:23).

5:9 we make it our aim. Pleasing the Lord should always be our first concern in this life, since it is the only thing which will carry over into the next life.

5:10 according to what he has done. The believer will either be approved or ashamed (5:3; Luke 19:11–26; 1 Cor. 3:14–15; 9:27; 1 John 2:28; 2 John 7–8).

5:11 terror of the Lord. This is the fear of standing before the Lord and having one's life exposed and evaluated. The reality of giving an account to the Lord motivated Paul to persuade people, in this context meaning to convince the Corinthians of his sincerity and integrity.

Be Reconciled to God

<sup>12</sup>For <sup>1</sup>we do not commend ourselves again to you, but give you opportunity <sup>m</sup>to boast on our behalf, that you may have an answer for those who boast in appearance and not in heart. <sup>13</sup>For <sup>n</sup>if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; or if we are of sound mind, it is for you. <sup>14</sup>For the love of Christ compels us, because we judge thus: that <sup>o</sup>if One died for all, then all died; <sup>15</sup>and He died for all, <sup>p</sup>that those who live should live no longer for themselves, but for Him who died for them and rose again.

<sup>20</sup>Now then, we are <sup>y</sup>ambassadors for Christ, as though God were pleading through us: we implore you on Christ's behalf, be reconciled to God. <sup>21</sup>For <sup>z</sup>He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become <sup>aa</sup>the righteousness of God in Him.

Marks of the Ministry

6 We then, as <sup>a</sup>workers together with Him also <sup>b</sup>plead with you not to receive the grace of God in vain. <sup>2</sup>For He says:

*<sup>c</sup>"In an acceptable time I have heard you, And in the day of salvation I have helped you."**

Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.

<sup>3a</sup>We give no offense in anything, that our ministry may not be blamed. <sup>4</sup>But in all things we commend ourselves <sup>e</sup>as ministers of God: in much patience, in tribulations, in needs, in distresses, <sup>5</sup>in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in sleeplessness, in fastings; <sup>6</sup>by purity, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by sincere love, <sup>7a</sup>by the word of truth, by <sup>b</sup>the power of God, by <sup>c</sup>the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, <sup>8</sup>by honor and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true; <sup>9a</sup>as unknown, and yet well known; <sup>9b</sup>as dying, and behold we live; <sup>10a</sup>as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many <sup>m</sup>rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

Be Holy

5:14 love of Christ. This phrase can mean either Christ's love for us or our love for Christ.

5:15 for Him. Believers are united with Jesus both in His death and in His resurrection, and therefore they participate in the new creation. That is, they receive the benefits of being restored by Christ to what God had originally created them to be (Gen. 1:26; 1 Cor. 15:45–49).

5:17 Our New Nature—The term “new nature” refers to the spiritual transformation that occurs within people when they believe in Christ as Savior. New does not mean renewed, renovated, reformed, or rehabilitated. It means completely and distinctly new, with a new family, a new set of values, new motivations, and a whole new life. The old man is still present in the new life and expresses himself in sinful deeds such as lying (Eph. 4:22; Col. 3:9). The new man, to be visible, must be put on, as one would put on a new suit of clothes (Col. 3:10). In other words, the new nature must be cultivated or nurtured by spiritual decisiveness to grow in Christ. We must not revert to putting on the old suit of the former life; rather, we must continue to grow in this new life (Eph. 5:8).

5:18 ministry of reconciliation. Reconciliation is the change of relation from enmity to peace. We who have been reconciled to God through Christ have the privilege of telling others that they can be reconciled to Him as well.

5:19 reconciling the world to Himself. God could change His relationship toward us because our sins have been imputed (charged) to Christ instead of to us. If we believe in Jesus, God counts Jesus' righteousness as our righteousness (v. 21).

5:20 ambassadors. Ambassadors are representatives of the sovereign who sends them, the “stand in” for their own ruler in a foreign country. Christians have been called by their King to serve as ambassadors in a world that is in rebellion against Him, with the responsibility to bring a message of peace and of reconciliation.

6:1 in vain. Believers who live for themselves may have received the grace of God, but they will miss out on a heavenly reward for their service to Him. Paul encourages those who have been saved to work out or develop their salvation (Phil. 2:12). The Corinthians were failing at this very point. They were saved and stuck, so to speak.

6:4 in much patience. Believers must not expect that it will be easy or comfortable to be a disciple, but it will be more deeply fulfilling than anything else could be.

not restricted by us, but <sup>o</sup>you are restricted by your own affections. <sup>13</sup>Now in return for the same <sup>p</sup>(I speak as to children), you also be open.

<sup>14a</sup>Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For <sup>r</sup>what fellowship has righteousness with lawlessness? And what communion has light with darkness? <sup>15</sup>And what accord has Christ with Belial? Or what part has a believer with an unbeliever? <sup>16</sup>And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For <sup>s</sup>you* are the temple of the living God. As God has said:

*"I will dwell in them
And walk among them.
I will be their God,
And they shall be My people."*<sup>**</sup>

<sup>17</sup>Therefore

*"Come out from among them
And be separate, says the Lord.
Do not touch what is unclean,
And I will receive you."*<sup>**</sup>

<sup>18</sup>*"I will be a Father to you,
And you shall be My <sup>w</sup>sons and daughters,
Says the LORD Almighty."*<sup>**</sup>

7 Therefore,<sup>a</sup> having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

The Corinthians' Repentance

<sup>2</sup>Open your hearts to us. We have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, <sup>b</sup>we have cheated no one. <sup>3</sup>I do not say this to condemn; for <sup>c</sup>I have said before that you are in our hearts, to die together and to live together. <sup>4a</sup>Great is my boldness of speech toward you, <sup>e</sup>great is my boasting on your behalf. <sup>f</sup>I am filled with comfort. I am exceedingly joyful in all our tribulation.

comforted us by <sup>k</sup>the coming of Titus, <sup>7</sup>and not only by his coming, but also by the consolation with which he was comforted in you, when he told us of your earnest desire, your mourning, your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced even more.

<sup>8</sup>For even if I made you <sup>l</sup>sorry with my letter, I do not regret it; <sup>m</sup>though I did regret it. For I perceive that the same epistle made you sorry, though only for a while. <sup>9</sup>Now I rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that your sorrow led to repentance. For you were made sorry in a godly manner, that you might suffer loss from us in nothing.

The Joy of Titus

<sup>13</sup>Therefore we have been comforted in your comfort. And we rejoiced exceedingly more for the joy of Titus, because his spirit <sup>s</sup>has been refreshed by you all. <sup>14</sup>For if in anything I have boasted to him about you, I am not ashamed. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, even so our boasting to Titus was found true. <sup>15</sup>And his affections are greater for you as he remembers <sup>t</sup>the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling you received him. <sup>16</sup>Therefore I rejoice that <sup>u</sup>I have confidence in you in everything.

6:14 *unequally yoked together with unbelievers. This verse has most often been applied to the subject of marriage, warning believers not to bind themselves for life to one who does not love the Lord.

6:15 *Belial. This term for Satan occurs only here in the New Testament. It refers to one who is vile and wicked and who causes destruction.

6:16 *you are the temple. This reference to Leviticus 26:11–12 and Ezekiel 37:27 reminds believers of their relationship with God. Since the Holy Spirit is living in them, they are God's new dwelling place (1 Cor. 6:19).

6:17 *be separate. Paul was not encouraging isolation from unbelievers (1 Cor. 9:5–13) but discouraging compromise with their sinful values and practices. He was urging them (and us) to maintain integrity in the world just as Christ did (John 15:14–16; Phil. 2:14–16).

7:1 *perfecting holiness. This means dedicating ourselves to Christ and living righteously (Heb. 6:1).

7:3 *you are in our hearts. Paul was not throwing his weight around or trying to be controlling. He loved the Corinthians and wanted the very best for them.

7:10 *produces repentance. A person can be sorry that he or she was caught in sin, or sorry to have to bear the consequences, without repenting of sin. True sorrow leads to a change of heart and a turning to God. Repentance means changing direction, and results in spiritual deliverance.

Excel in Giving

8 Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia: <sup>2</sup>that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and <sup>4</sup>their deep poverty abounded in the riches of their liberality. <sup>3</sup>For I bear witness that according to their ability, yes, and beyond their ability, they were freely willing, <sup>4</sup>imploping us with much urgency that we would receive* the gift and <sup>b</sup>the fellowship of the ministering to the saints. <sup>5</sup>And not only as we had hoped, but they first <sup>c</sup>gave themselves to the Lord, and then to us by the <sup>d</sup>will of God. <sup>6</sup>So <sup>e</sup>we urged Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also complete this grace in you as well. <sup>7</sup>But as <sup>f</sup>you abound in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all diligence, and in your love for us—see <sup>g</sup>that you abound in this grace also.

Christ Our Pattern

<sup>8h</sup>I speak not by commandment, but I am testing the sincerity of your love by the diligence of others. <sup>9</sup>For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>i</sup>that though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that you through His poverty might become <sup>j</sup>rich.

<sup>10</sup>And in this <sup>k</sup>I give advice: <sup>l</sup>It is to your advantage not only to be doing what you began and <sup>m</sup>were desiring to do a year ago; <sup>11</sup>but now you also must complete the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to desire it, so there also may be a completion out of what you have. <sup>12</sup>For <sup>n</sup>if there is first a willing mind, it is accepted according to what one has, and not according to what he does not have.

<sup>13</sup>For I do not mean that others should be eased and you burdened; <sup>14</sup>but by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may supply their lack, that their abundance also may supply your lack—that there may be equality. <sup>15</sup>As it is written, <sup>o</sup>“He who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little had no lack.”*

Collection for the Judean Saints

<sup>16</sup>But thanks be to God who puts* the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus. <sup>17</sup>For he not only accepted the exhortation, but being more diligent, he went to you of his own accord. <sup>18</sup>And we have sent with him <sup>p</sup>the brother whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches, <sup>19</sup>and not only that, but who was also <sup>q</sup>chosen by the churches to travel with us with this gift, which is administered by us <sup>r</sup>to the glory of the Lord Himself and to show your ready mind, <sup>20</sup>avoiding this: that anyone should blame us in this lavish gift which is administered by us—<sup>21s</sup>providing honorable things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

<sup>22</sup>And we have sent with them our brother whom we have often proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, because of the great confidence which we have in you. <sup>23</sup>If anyone inquires about <sup>t</sup>Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker concerning you. Or if our brethren are inquired about, they are <sup>u</sup>“messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ. <sup>24</sup>Therefore show to them, and* before the churches, the proof of your love and of our <sup>v</sup>boasting on your behalf.

Administering the Gift

9 Now concerning <sup>a</sup>the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you; <sup>2</sup>for I know your willingness, about which I boast of you to the Macedonians, that Achaia was ready a <sup>b</sup>year ago; and your zeal has stirred up the majority. <sup>3c</sup>Yet I have sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this respect, that, as I said, you may be ready; <sup>4</sup>lest if some Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we (not to mention you!) should be ashamed of this confident boasting.* <sup>5</sup>Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren to go to you ahead of time, and prepare your generous gift beforehand, which you had previously promised, that it may be ready as a matter of generosity and not as a grudging obligation.

8:1 Macedonia. Macedonia corresponds to the northern part of present day Greece. Paul had established churches in the Macedonian cities of Philippi, Thessalonica, and Berea.

8:8 testing the sincerity of your love. Generosity is the natural result of sincere love.

8:9 you . . . might become rich. Jesus offers forgiveness, justification, regeneration, eternal life, and glorification. He purchased us from slavery to sin, giving us the position of children of God with free access to His presence.

8:10 advantage. Giving in this life is an investment for eternity (Matt. 6:19–21).

9:4 Macedonians. Paul was in Macedonia when he wrote this letter (2:13; 7:5). When he made his visit to Corinth he would no doubt bring traveling companions from Macedonia.

The Cheerful Giver

<sup>6d</sup>But this I say: He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. <sup>7</sup>So let each one give as he purposes in his heart, <sup>e</sup>not grudgingly or of necessity; for <sup>f</sup>God loves a cheerful giver. <sup>8g</sup>And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may have an abundance for every good work. <sup>9</sup>As it is written:

h“He has dispersed abroad,
He has given to the poor;
His righteousness endures forever.”*

<sup>10</sup>Now may* He who <sup>i</sup>supplies seed to the sower, and bread for food, supply and multiply the seed you have sown and increase the fruits of your <sup>j</sup>righteousness, <sup>11</sup>while you are enriched in everything for all liberality, <sup>k</sup>which causes thanksgiving through us to God. <sup>12</sup>For the administration of this service not only <sup>l</sup>supplies the needs of the saints, but also is abounding through many thanksgivings to God, <sup>13</sup>while, through the proof of this ministry, they <sup>m</sup>glorify God for the obedience of your confession to the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal <sup>n</sup>sharing with them and all men, <sup>14</sup>and by their prayer for you, who long for you because of the exceeding <sup>o</sup>grace of God in you. <sup>15</sup>Thanks be to God <sup>p</sup>for His indescribable gift!

The Spiritual War

10 Now <sup>a1</sup>I, Paul, myself am pleading with you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ—<sup>b</sup>who in presence am lowly among you, but being absent am bold toward you. <sup>2</sup>But I beg you <sup>c</sup>that when I am present I may not be bold with that confidence by which I intend to be bold against some, who think of us as if we walked according to the flesh. <sup>3</sup>For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. <sup>4d</sup>For the weapons <sup>e</sup>of our warfare are not carnal but <sup>f</sup>mighty in God <sup>g</sup>for pulling down strongholds, <sup>5h</sup>casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ, <sup>6i</sup>and being ready to punish all disobedience when <sup>j</sup>your obedience is fulfilled.

Reality of Paul's Authority

<sup>7k</sup>Do you look at things according to the outward appearance? <sup>l</sup>If anyone is convinced in himself that he is Christ's, let him again consider this in himself, that just as he is Christ's, even so <sup>m</sup>we are Christ's.* <sup>8</sup>For even if I should boast somewhat more <sup>n</sup>about our authority, which the Lord gave us* for edification and not for your destruction, <sup>9l</sup>shall not be ashamed—<sup>9l</sup>lest I seem to terrify you by letters. <sup>10c</sup>For his letters,” they say, “are weighty and powerful, but <sup>p</sup>his bodily presence is weak, and his <sup>q</sup>speech contemptible.” <sup>11</sup>Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such we will also be in deed when we are present.

Limits of Paul's Authority

<sup>12r</sup>For we dare not class ourselves or compare ourselves with those who commend themselves. But they, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise. <sup>13s</sup>We, however, will not boast beyond measure, but within the limits of the sphere which God appointed us—a sphere

* 9:9 Psalm 112:9 * 9:10 NU-Text reads Now He who supplies ... will supply.... * 10:7 NU-Text reads even as we are. * 10:8 NU-Text omits us.

9:6–8 Giving—There is no better indicator of growth in the new life than in the area of giving. This passage and others deal with several aspects of giving:

1. Giving should be done generously, even extravagantly (2 Cor. 9:6).
2. Giving should be done cheerfully (2 Cor. 9:7).
3. Giving should be regular (1 Cor. 16:2).
4. Giving should be systematic (1 Cor. 16:2).
5. Giving should be proportionate (2 Cor. 8:3).

God is not primarily concerned about the amount of the gift, but with the motive that lies behind it. The person who fails to honor God with his money actually robs God (Mal. 3:8), not because it impoverishes God but because it denies the God-ordained means for the support of His work and His ministers. For the child of God who honors God with his money, God promises abundant blessing (Mal. 3:10; Luke 6:38) and the provision of his every need (Phil. 4:19).

9:6 reap sparingly. The law of the harvest is referred to repeatedly in Scripture (Prov. 11:24–25; 19:17; Luke 6:38; Gal. 6:7). If you do not plant, you will have no harvest.

9:8 God is able. God sees to it that the generous giver will not suffer want. Instead, God generously provides for those who give so that they can continue to do so.

9:15 indescribable gift. Our gifts can never compare with God's sacrifice for us.

10:4 our warfare. The world is hostile to Christ and His followers because the world is following Satan. The life of a believer is not one of ease but a constant spiritual battle.

10:8 edification. Paul's exhortation was aimed at correcting abuses, not the tearing down of the church.

which especially includes you. <sup>14</sup>For we are not overextending ourselves (as though our authority did not extend to you), <sup>15</sup>for it was to you that we came with the gospel of Christ; <sup>16</sup>not boasting of things beyond measure, that is, <sup>17</sup>in other men's labors, but having hope, that as your faith is increased, we shall be greatly enlarged by you in our sphere, <sup>18</sup>to preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's sphere of accomplishment.

Concern for Their Faithfulness

11 Oh, that you would bear with me in a little *“folly”—*and indeed you do bear with me. <sup>2</sup>For I am “jealous for you with godly jealousy. For “I have betrothed you to one husband, <sup>d</sup>that I may present you <sup>e</sup>as a chaste virgin to Christ. <sup>3</sup>But I fear, lest somehow, as *“the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, so your minds <sup>e</sup>may be corrupted from the simplicity* that is in Christ.* <sup>4</sup>For if he who comes preaches another Jesus whom we have not preached, or if you receive a different spirit which you have not received, or a “different gospel which you have not accepted—you may well put up with it!

Paul and False Apostles

<sup>5</sup>For I consider that “I am not at all inferior to the most eminent apostles. <sup>6</sup>Even though “I am untrained in speech, yet I am not <sup>k</sup>in knowledge. But *“we have been thoroughly manifested* among you in all things.*

<sup>7</sup>Did I commit sin in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I preached the gospel of God to you “free of charge? <sup>8</sup>I robbed other churches, taking wages from them to minister to you. <sup>9</sup>And when I was present with you, and in need,

“I was a burden to no one, for what I lacked <sup>e</sup>the brethren who came from Macedonia supplied. And in everything I kept myself from being burdensome to you, and so I will keep myself. <sup>10</sup>As the truth of Christ is in me, <sup>e</sup>no one shall stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achaia. <sup>11</sup>Why? “Because I do not love you? God knows!

<sup>12</sup>But what I do, I will also continue to do, “that I may cut off the opportunity from those who desire an opportunity to be regarded just as we are in the things of which they boast. <sup>13</sup>For such “are false apostles, <sup>d</sup>deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ. <sup>14</sup>And no wonder! For Satan himself transforms himself into “an angel of light. <sup>15</sup>Therefore “it is no great thing if his ministers also transform themselves into ministers of righteousness, <sup>w</sup>whose end will be according to their works.

Reluctant Boasting

<sup>16</sup>I say again, let no one think me a fool. If otherwise, at least receive me as a fool, that I also may boast a little. <sup>17</sup>What I speak, “I speak not according to the Lord, but as it were, foolishly, in this confidence of boasting. <sup>18</sup>Seeing that many boast according to the flesh, I also will boast. <sup>19</sup>For you put up with fools gladly, “since you yourselves are wise! <sup>20</sup>For you put up with it <sup>z</sup>if one brings you into bondage, if one devours you, if one takes from you, if one exalts himself, if one strikes you on the face. <sup>21</sup>To our shame “I say that we were too weak for that! But <sup>bin</sup> whatever anyone is bold—I speak foolishly—I am bold also.

Suffering for Christ

<sup>22</sup>Are they “Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the seed of * 10:17 Jeremiah 9:24 * 11:3 NU-Text adds and purity. * 11:6 NU-Text omits been.

10:16 regions beyond you. Paul states in Romans that his ambition was to preach the gospel in Spain (Rom. 15:24).

11:2 jealous. Usually jealousy has a negative connotation to us—we confuse jealousy with envy or spite. The word has the same root as “zealous,” and it can mean a sincere and energetic protection of the rights or purity of a person or place.

11:3 simplicity. In this sense, simplicity indicates sincerity or lack of double motives or cunning.

11:6 untrained in speech. Paul may have lacked gifts as a professional speaker, but he did not lack knowledge since he had received direct revelation from the Lord (Gal. 1:11–12).

11:7 free of charge. Professional philosophers and teachers in Greek society charged for teaching.

11:14 transforms himself into an angel of light. Don't make the mistake of believing that evil always appears grotesque, ugly, or repulsive. Satan's main tool is deception and he is quite capable of making evil appear beautiful.

11:17 I speak not according to the Lord. This kind of boasting was not characteristic of the Lord. Jesus Christ was an example of humility (Phil. 2:5–11).

11:18 according to the flesh. The false apostles measured themselves by their own standards rather than by God's.

11:21 too weak. Paul's critics had accused him of being weak (10:10). He sarcastically said that he was too weak to rule the Corinthians harshly as the false apostles had done.

Abraham? So am I. <sup>23</sup>Are they ministers of Christ?—I speak as a fool—I am more: <sup>d</sup>in labors more abundant, <sup>e</sup>in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequently, <sup>f</sup>in deaths often. <sup>24</sup>From the Jews five times I received <sup>g</sup>forty <sup>h</sup>stripes minus one. <sup>25</sup>Three times I was <sup>i</sup>beaten with rods; <sup>j</sup>once I was stoned; three times I <sup>k</sup>was shipwrecked; a night and a day I have been in the deep; <sup>26</sup>in journeys often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of my own countrymen, in perils of the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; <sup>27</sup>in weariness and toil, in sleeplessness often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness—<sup>28</sup>besides the other things, what comes upon me daily: <sup>q</sup>my deep concern for all the churches. <sup>29</sup>Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to stumble, and I do not burn with indignation?

<sup>30</sup>If I must boast, <sup>s</sup>I will boast in the things which concern my infirmity. <sup>31</sup>The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, "who is blessed forever, knows that I am not lying. <sup>32</sup>In Damascus the governor, under Aretas the king, was guarding the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desiring to arrest me; <sup>33</sup>but I was let down in a basket through a window in the wall, and escaped from his hands.

The Vision of Paradise

12 It is doubtless* not profitable for me to boast. I will come to <sup>a</sup>visions and <sup>b</sup>revelations of the Lord: <sup>2</sup>I know a man <sup>c</sup>in Christ who fourteen years ago—whether in the body I do not know, or whether out of the body I do not know, God knows—such a one <sup>d</sup>was caught up to the third heaven. <sup>3</sup>And I know such a man—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows—<sup>4</sup>how he was caught up into <sup>e</sup>Paradise and heard inexpressible words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. <sup>5</sup>Of such a one I will boast; yet of myself I will not <sup>f</sup>boast, except in my infirmities. <sup>6</sup>For though I might desire to boast, I will not be a fool; for I will speak the truth. But I refrain, lest anyone should think of me above what he sees me to be or hears from me.

The Thorn in the Flesh

<sup>7</sup>And lest I should be exalted above measure by the abundance of the revelations, a <sup>g</sup>thorn in the flesh was given to me, <sup>h</sup>a messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I be exalted above measure. <sup>8</sup>iConcerning this thing I pleaded with the Lord three times that it might depart from me. <sup>9</sup>And He said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness." Therefore most gladly I will rather boast in my infirmities, <sup>k</sup>that the power of Christ may rest upon me. <sup>10</sup>Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in needs, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake. <sup>m</sup>For when I am weak, then I am strong.

Signs of an Apostle

* 12:1 NU-Text reads necessary, though not profitable, to boast. * 12:11 NU-Text omits in boasting.

11:23 as a fool. Paul acknowledged the silliness of such bragging. He knew that only God had made his preaching and service effective. Paul's credentials were superior to those of the false teachers on every point of experience and background, but even so his ministry had authority only because he received it from God.

12:1 visions and revelations. This boasting may have been to counter similar claims by the false teachers.

12:2 fourteen years. Paul wrote 2 Corinthians in A.D. 56; 14 years earlier would have been A.D. 42, probably when he was in Antioch (Acts 11:26). third heaven. It was common to speak of three "heavens": The first is the atmosphere where the birds fly; the second is the place of the sun, moon, and stars; the third is where God dwells.

12:7 thorn in the flesh. Most commentators interpret Paul's thorn as a physical ailment, and many suggest that it was eye trouble on the basis of Galatians 4:15. It is also possible that "flesh" is a reference to the fallen human nature, in which case the thorn could be a temptation, or it could refer to persecution or opposition. messenger of Satan. God permitted Satan to afflict Paul as he did Job (Job 1–2).

12:11 compelled me. Only the fact that the Corinthians had listened to the silly slander against Paul had made him waste time on boasting.

12:12 signs of an apostle. God has often used miracles as supernatural evidences of His authority in a new work (Acts 14:3).

Love for the Church

<sup>14c</sup>Now for the third time I am ready to come to you. And I will not be burdensome to you; for <sup>u</sup>I do not seek yours, but you. <sup>v</sup>For the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children. <sup>15</sup>And I will very gladly spend and be spent <sup>w</sup>for your souls; though <sup>x</sup>the more abundantly I love you, the less I am loved.

<sup>16</sup>But be that as it may, <sup>v</sup>I did not burden you. Nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you by cunning! <sup>17</sup>Did I take advantage of you by any of those whom I sent to you? <sup>18</sup>I urged Titus, and sent our <sup>z</sup>brother with him. Did Titus take advantage of you? Did we not walk in the same spirit? Did we not walk in the same steps?

<sup>19a</sup>Again, do you think* that we excuse ourselves to you? <sup>b</sup>We speak before God in Christ. <sup>c</sup>But we do all things, beloved, for your edification. <sup>20</sup>For I fear lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I wish, and that <sup>d</sup>I shall be found by you such as you do not wish; lest there be contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, backbitings, whisperings, conceits, tumults; <sup>21</sup>lest, when I come again, my God <sup>e</sup>will humble me among you, and I shall mourn for many <sup>f</sup>who have sinned before and have not repented of the uncleanness, <sup>g</sup>fornication, and lewdness which they have practiced.

Coming with Authority

13 This will be <sup>a</sup>the third time I am coming to you. <sup>b</sup>“By the mouth of two or three witnesses every word shall be established.”* <sup>c</sup>I have told you before, and foretell as if I were present the second time, and now being absent I write* to those <sup>d</sup>who have sinned before, and to all the rest, that if I come again <sup>e</sup>I will not spare— <sup>3</sup>since you seek a proof of Christ <sup>f</sup>speaking in me, who is not weak toward you, but mighty <sup>g</sup>in you. <sup>4h</sup>For though He was crucified in weakness, yet <sup>i</sup>He lives by the power of God. For <sup>j</sup>we also are weak in Him, but we shall live with Him by the power of God toward you.

<sup>5</sup>Examine yourselves as to whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Do you not know yourselves, <sup>k</sup>that Jesus Christ is in you?—unless indeed you are <sup>l</sup>disqualified. <sup>6</sup>But I trust that you will know that we are not disqualified.

Paul Prefers Gentleness

<sup>7</sup>Now I* pray to God that you do no evil, not that we should appear approved, but that you should do what is honorable, though <sup>m</sup>we may seem disqualified. <sup>8</sup>For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. <sup>9</sup>For we are glad <sup>n</sup>when we are weak and you are strong. And this also we pray, <sup>o</sup>that you may be made complete. <sup>10b</sup>Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the <sup>q</sup>authority which the Lord has given me for edification and not for destruction.

Greetings and Benediction

<sup>12i</sup>Greet one another with a holy kiss.

<sup>14u</sup>The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and <sup>v</sup>the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all. Amen.

* 13:2 NU-Text omits I write. * 13:7 NU-Text reads we.

12:14 the third time. It is not clear whether Paul had already made two previous visits to Corinth, or whether this refers to the third attempt to visit. We know that he had tried to come and had been prevented at least once (1:15–16, 23; 2:1–4).

13:4 in weakness. Christ appeared to be weak when He was crucified, but He was raised by the power of God; therefore, Paul was weak, but by the power of God he would live with Christ in strength toward them.

13:5 Examine yourselves. Paul did not doubt that they were true believers (1:1, 24; 7:1; 8:1; 12:14). He wanted them to ask themselves whether they were walking according to the gospel that they professed. He wanted them to apply the same standard to themselves that they were applying to him.

13:9 complete. The Greek word for “complete” was used to describe the setting of bones and the reconciliation of alienated friends.

13:14 the communion of the Holy Spirit. At the end of his letter, Paul identifies the solution to many of the Corinthians’ problems. The Holy Spirit, who dwelled in each of them, could empower them to live righteously. Furthermore, the Spirit could reconcile them to each other. They could love and encourage each other instead of fighting each other (12:20). They needed God’s grace, not selfishness; God’s love, not anger; and communion, not conflict.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE GALATIANS

► AUTHOR: The Pauline authorship and the unity of this epistle are virtually unchallenged. The first verse clearly identifies the author as, “Paul, an apostle” as does 5:2, “I, Paul, say to you.” In fact, Paul actually wrote, or at least finished, Galatians by his own hand (6:11) instead of dictating it to a secretary, as was his usual practice. There is some controversy as to whether Paul was writing to the northern Galatians or the southern Galatians. If the former theory is correct, this epistle was written sometime during Paul’s third missionary journey in A.D. 53–56. If the latter theory is correct, this epistle was written before the Jerusalem council (Acts 15) in A.D. 49, right after the first missionary journey. Regardless of the timing of its writing, Galatians affords us a clear glimpse into the ministry and theology of Paul as a Jewish Christian.

► TIME: c. A.D. 49–53

► KEY VERSES: Gal. 2:20–21

► THEME: The big question for the church in its first generation was, “Did a person have to become a Jew before they could be a Christian?” There were many Jews who thought this was the case. Three things happened to move the church away from this perspective: Peter’s vision as recorded in Acts 10; the decision of the Jerusalem council in Acts 15 that Gentiles didn’t need to adopt all the Jewish customs; and Paul’s received revelation that he was to deliver to the Gentiles. Even with all this evidence, there were still some Jews who followed Paul around and attempted to teach Jewish regulations to his newly planted churches. Paul was furious at these events and used this letter to set the record straight. Christ brought freedom and died for people of all cultures, an idea that was a new paradigm for many of the Jews who were stuck in a “God loves us most” mode. Paul goes to great lengths to review with the Galatians what he had taught them and where this teaching had come from.

Greeting

1 Paul, an apostle (not from men nor through man, but <sup>a</sup>through Jesus Christ and God the Father <sup>b</sup>who raised Him from the dead), <sup>2</sup>and all the brethren who are with me,

To the churches of Galatia:

<sup>3</sup>Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>4c</sup>who gave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us <sup>d</sup>from this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, <sup>5</sup>to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Only One Gospel

<sup>6</sup>I marvel that you are turning away so soon <sup>e</sup>from Him who called you in the grace of Christ, to a different gospel, <sup>7</sup>which is not another; but there are some <sup>f</sup>who trouble you and want to <sup>h</sup>pervert the gospel of Christ. <sup>8</sup>But even if <sup>i</sup>we, or an angel from

1:1 an apostle. Paul calls himself this title to assert his divinely given authority to speak to the problem confronting the Galatian churches. through Jesus Christ and God the Father. Paul makes reference to his unique call to be an apostle (vv. 15–16) which came to him at the same time as his salvation on the road to Damascus (Acts 26:12–18).

1:2 To the churches of Galatia. Galatians is a circular letter, intended for several churches.

1:3 Grace to you and peace. These words are a variation from the standard greeting of ancient letters in Paul’s time. Paul adds the Greek word for the traditional Hebrew greeting, “peace.”

1:4 deliver us from this present evil age. This passage is similar to Colossians 1:13, which states, “He has delivered us from the power of darkness and conveyed us into the kingdom of the Son of His love.” Both passages develop this truth based on Christ’s redemptive work (Col. 1:14), implying that the word “deliver” refers to sanctification in the face of temptations of this present age.

1:6–7 marvel. Use of this word reveals Paul’s ongoing shock at the Galatians’ defection from the gospel of God’s undeserved grace. The Galatians had unwittingly fallen for a different message.

1:8–9 If anyone. Paul’s concern for the purity of the gospel message is revealed by his assertion that he heaven, preach any other gospel to you than what we have preached to you, let him be accursed. <sup>9</sup>As we have said before, so now I say again, if anyone preaches any other gospel to you <sup>10</sup>than what you have received, let him be accursed.

<sup>10</sup>For <sup>k</sup>do I now <sup>l</sup>persuade men, or God? Or <sup>m</sup>do I seek to please men? For if I still pleased men, I would not be a bondservant of Christ.

Call to Apostleship

<sup>11n</sup>But I make known to you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached by me is not according to man. <sup>12</sup>For <sup>o</sup>I neither received it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came <sup>p</sup>through the revelation of Jesus Christ.

Contacts at Jerusalem

<sup>18</sup>Then after three years <sup>y</sup>I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter,* and remained with him fifteen days. <sup>19</sup>But <sup>z</sup>I saw none of the other apostles except <sup>a</sup>James, the Lord's brother. <sup>20</sup>(Now concerning the things which I write to you, indeed, before God, I do not lie.)

Defending the Gospel

2 Then after fourteen years <sup>g</sup>I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and also took Titus with me. <sup>2</sup>And I went up by revelation, and communicated to them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but <sup>h</sup>privately to those who were of reputation, lest by any means <sup>i</sup>I might run, or had run, in vain. <sup>3</sup>Yet not even Titus who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised. <sup>4</sup>And this occurred because of <sup>d</sup>false brethren secretly brought in (who came in by stealth to spy out our <sup>l</sup>liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, <sup>f</sup>that they might bring us into bondage), <sup>5</sup>to whom we did not yield submission even for an hour, that <sup>t</sup>the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

would condemn to destruction anyone who taught a false gospel.

1:10 seek to please men. This was neither Paul's motivation nor the source of his authority (v. 1). Paul continually sought the approval of God. He did not base his decisions on the opinions of other people. Instead he single-mindedly aimed at pleasing God (Phil. 3:14).

1:13–14 Judaism. This refers to the Jewish way of life, which was based partly on the Old Testament and partly on additional traditions (Matt. 15:2).

1:15–17 separated me . . . called me through His grace. Paul related that God had chosen him to be an apostle (v. 1) before his birth, not unlike Jeremiah's call to be a prophet (Jer. 1:5). Paul, like the Judaizers in Galatia, had previously tried to earn his salvation by works (v. 14). He needed no human validation because of the way he had received his message.

1:19 James, the Lord's brother. This reference indicates that the "apostles" were not always restricted to the Twelve.

2:1 fourteen years. This timeframe may refer to twelve full years plus fractions of the first and last years (1:18). The span could date from Paul's previous visit to Jerusalem, but more likely from his conversion.

2:3 Titus. One of Paul's companions was a kind of "test-case" Gentile. circumcised. This term introduces a central topic of the Jewish false teachers, one which Paul addresses repeatedly in Galatians

(5:2–3,6). Unlike Timothy, whom Paul had circumcised because Timothy's mother was Jewish, Titus was not circumcised. Circumcising him would have been a sign to all other Gentiles that following Jewish law was required for a person to become a Christian. As Paul explains in this letter, circumcising Titus would be a rejection of the good news that salvation is God's gift to those who believe in His Son.

2:4 false brethren. This phrase apparently indicates that, although these people passed themselves off convincingly as Christians, there was reason to view their profession as a sham. These pseudo-Christians did not announce their purpose, which was to curtail Christian liberty (5:1,13).

2:6 those who seemed to be something. While Paul recognized the leadership roles of James, Peter, and John, he pointed out that they were in no way superior to him in their understanding of the gospel.

seemed to be something<sup>1</sup> added nothing to me. <sup>7</sup>But on the contrary, <sup>8</sup>when they saw that the gospel for the uncircumcised<sup>1</sup> had been committed to me, as the gospel for the circumcised was to Peter <sup>8</sup>(for He who worked effectively in Peter for the apostleship to the <sup>m</sup>circumcised <sup>n</sup>also <sup>o</sup>worked effectively in me toward the Gentiles), <sup>9</sup>and when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be <sup>p</sup>pillars, perceived <sup>q</sup>the grace that had been given to me, they gave me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, <sup>r</sup>that we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised. <sup>10</sup>They desired only that we should remember the poor, <sup>s</sup>the very thing which I also was eager to do.

No Return to the Law

<sup>11</sup>Now when Peter* had come to Antioch, I withstood him to his face, because he was to be blamed; <sup>12</sup>for before certain men came from James, <sup>u</sup>he would eat with the Gentiles; but when they came, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision. <sup>13</sup>And the rest of the Jews also played the hypocrite with him, so that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy.

<sup>14</sup>But when I saw that they were not straightforward about <sup>v</sup>the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter <sup>w</sup>before them all, <sup>x</sup>"If you, being a Jew, live in the manner of Gentiles and not as the Jews, why do you* compel Gentiles to live as Jews?" <sup>15</sup>"We who are Jews by nature, and not <sup>z</sup>sinners of the Gentiles, <sup>16</sup>knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but <sup>b</sup>by faith in Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not <sup>c</sup>by the works of the law; for by the works of the law no flesh shall be justified.

<sup>17</sup>"But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found <sup>d</sup>sinners, is Christ therefore a minister of sin? Certainly not! <sup>18</sup>For if I build again those things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor. <sup>19</sup>For I <sup>e</sup>through the law <sup>f</sup>died to the law that I might <sup>g</sup>live to God. <sup>20</sup>I have been <sup>h</sup>crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh <sup>i</sup>I live by faith in the Son of God, <sup>j</sup>who loved me and gave Himself for me. <sup>21</sup>I do not set aside the grace of God; for <sup>k</sup>if righteousness comes through the law, then Christ died in vain."

Justification by Faith

3 O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you that you should not obey the truth,* before whose eyes Jesus Christ was clearly portrayed among you* as crucified? <sup>2</sup>This only I want to learn from you: Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, <sup>a</sup>or by the hearing of faith? <sup>3</sup>Are you so foolish? <sup>b</sup>Having begun in the Spirit, are you now being made perfect by <sup>c</sup>the flesh? <sup>4</sup>Have you suffered so many things in vain—if indeed it was in vain?

<sup>5</sup>Therefore He who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you, does He do it by the works of the law, or by the

*2:11 NU-Text reads Cephas. *2:14 NU-Text reads how can you. • Some interpreters stop the quotation here. *3:1 NU-Text omits that you should not obey the truth. • NU-Text omits among you.

2:7–10 uncircumcised . . . circumcised. There were not two different gospels. Rather, the primary scope of Paul's apostolic ministry was to the Gentiles (Rom. 11:13), while Peter's apostleship was, first and foremost, targeted toward the Jews. remember the poor. Almost certainly, this is a reference to the poor among the church in Judea (Acts 11:29–30).

2:11–12 Antioch. This city was the largest of the Roman province of Syria. It became a center for missionary outreach to other Gentile cities in Asia Minor and Macedonia (Acts 13:1–3).

2:14 they were not straightforward about the truth. Peter's hypocritical example implied that Gentiles had to behave like Jews in order to receive God's grace. It had already been decided (vv. 1–5) that it was not proper to compel Gentiles to live as Jews, because salvation was through faith alone.

2:15–17 We who are Jews by nature. Paul is not denying that those who are Jews by birth are sinners, as are all Gentiles (Rom. 3:23). Rather he is implying that Jews enjoy spiritual privileges (Rom. 9:4–5) that should make them more knowledgeable about how to be justified before God (3:6; Gen. 15:6). The Jews should have been aware that no person can be declared righteous or justified by obedience to the law of Moses (3:10–21).

2:17–19 is Christ therefore a minister of sin. Paul strongly rejects the erroneous conclusion that being justified by faith in Christ actually made Jews sinners. Those who attempt to be justified through "the works of the law" are "cursed" (3:10). If anyone attempts to reassert the "works of the law" as having any part in the justification before God, the law itself convicts that person. The law itself is not sinful; its purpose is to convince individuals of their personal, spiritual deadness in sin outside of faith in Christ (Rom. 7:7–13). 3:1 O foolish Galatians. This phrase does not indicate lack of intelligence, but lack of wisdom. Paul wonders whether something like an evil spell had prevented the Galatians from recalling the gospel of the crucified Christ.

3:3 Having begun in the Spirit . . . made perfect by the flesh. The Galatians were mistakenly trying to achieve perfection through their own efforts, especially through circumcision.

hearing of faith?—<sup>6</sup>just as Abraham <sup>e</sup>“believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.”<sup>7</sup> Therefore know that <sup>only</sup> <sup>f</sup>those who are of faith are sons of Abraham. <sup>8</sup>And <sup>g</sup>the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel to Abraham beforehand, saying, <sup>h</sup>“In you all the nations shall be blessed.”<sup>9</sup> So then those who are of faith are blessed with believing Abraham.

The Law Brings a Curse

<sup>10</sup>For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse; for it is written, <sup>i</sup>“Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things which are written in the book of the law, to do them.”<sup>11</sup> But that no one is justified by the law in the sight of God is evident, for <sup>j</sup>“the just shall live by faith.”<sup>12</sup> Yet <sup>k</sup>the law is not of faith, but <sup>l</sup>“the man who does them shall live by them.”<sup>13</sup>

<sup>13m</sup>Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us (for it is written, <sup>n</sup>“Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree”<sup>14</sup>), that the blessing of Abraham might come upon the <sup>o</sup>Gentiles in Christ Jesus, that we might receive <sup>q</sup>the promise of the Spirit through faith.

The Changeless Promise

<sup>15</sup>Brethren, I speak in the manner of men: <sup>r</sup>Though it is only a man’s covenant, yet if it is confirmed, no one annuls or adds to it. <sup>16</sup>Now to Abraham and his Seed were the promises made. He does not say, “And to seeds,” as of many, but as of <sup>s</sup>one, <sup>t</sup>“And to your Seed,”<sup>u</sup> who is <sup>v</sup>Christ. <sup>17</sup>And this I say, <sup>w</sup>that the law, <sup>x</sup>which was four hundred and thirty years later, cannot annul the covenant that was confirmed before by God in Christ,<sup>y</sup> <sup>z</sup>that it should make the promise of no effect. <sup>18</sup>For if <sup>aa</sup>the inheritance is of the law, <sup>ab</sup>it is no longer of promise; but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

Purpose of the Law

<sup>21</sup>Is the law then against the promises of God? Certainly not! For if there had been a law given which could have given life, truly righteousness would have been by the law. <sup>22</sup>But the Scripture has confined <sup>aj</sup>all under sin, <sup>ak</sup>that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. <sup>23</sup>But before faith came, we were kept under guard by the law, kept for the faith which would afterward be revealed. <sup>24</sup>Therefore <sup>al</sup>the law was our tutor <sup>am</sup>to bring us to Christ, <sup>an</sup>that we might be justified by *3:13 Deuteronomy 21:23 *3:16 Genesis 12:7; 13:15; 24:7 *3:17 NU-Text omits in Christ.

3:6 believed God. There are several reasons for Paul’s reference to Abraham’s faith as an example: (1) Abraham was the father of the Jewish nation (Gen. 12:1–3); (2) Abraham is the clearest example of justification in the Old Testament; and (3) the Judaizers almost certainly were pointing back to Abraham, probably in connection with circumcision (2:3; 5:2–3). The example of Abraham’s faith is also developed in Romans 4 and Hebrews 11.

3:7 who are of faith. These are the spiritual sons of Abraham, even if they are not Jews. They are part of God’s people.

3:8–9 Scripture. Here, Scripture is personified as a preacher who foretells that Abraham and his example of faith (Gen. 15:6) would become a life-changing blessing to all nations (Gen. 12:3; Matt. 28:19) as the gospel spread. All who have faith, as Abraham did, join in his “blessed” status.

3:10 Cursed is everyone. The quotation from Deuteronomy 27:26 says that those who do not keep the whole law are cursed, proving that all are cursed who follow the law, because all fall short of the law’s standards (Rom. 1:17; 3:10, 18, 23).

3:13 the curse of the law. Paul knew that many of his readers would perceive that they were actually under the curse of the law. For them, as for us, it is incredibly comforting to know that Christ became that curse for us on the cross (Deut. 21:23).

3:16 to Abraham and his Seed. Jesus Christ is the fulfillment of the covenant (v. 15) God made with Abraham. Although in one sense all Jews are the physical seed of Abraham, Christ is the final focus of God’s promises, the ultimate Seed.

3:19–20 What purpose then does the law serve? The purpose of the law of Moses was not to justify man in God’s eyes (2:16). Rather, the law was added after God’s promise to Abraham to clarify the issue of sin until Christ, the Seed, came.

3:21–22 Is the law then against the promises of God? The relationship of the law and the promises is one of need and fulfillment. The law was not designed by God to give eternal life and righteousness. Rather, the law showed humanity’s need for the promise of life through faith in Jesus Christ (v. 9; 2:16).

3:23–25 kept under guard . . . tutor. Paul gives two different illustrations concerning the function of the law until Christ came (4:4–5). The law acted as a jailor to hold humankind in custody until faith in Christ was revealed. But the law also served as a tutor. A tutor in ancient Greek culture would accompany the children faith. <sup>25</sup>But after faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor.

Sons and Heirs

4 Now I say that the heir, as long as he is a child, does not differ at all from a slave, though he is master of all, <sup>2</sup>but is under guardians and stewards until the time appointed by the father. <sup>3</sup>Even so we, when we were children, <sup>4</sup>were in bondage under the elements of the world. <sup>4</sup>But <sup>5</sup>when the fullness of the time had come, God sent forth His Son, <sup>6</sup>born* <sup>7</sup>dof a woman, <sup>8</sup>born under the law, <sup>9</sup>to redeem those who were under the law, <sup>10</sup>that we might receive the adoption as sons.

<sup>6</sup>And because you are sons, God has sent forth <sup>7</sup>the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying out, "Abba, Father!" <sup>7</sup>Therefore you are no longer a slave but a son, <sup>8</sup>and if a son, then an heir of* God through Christ.

Fears for the Church

<sup>8</sup>But then, indeed, <sup>9</sup>when you did not know God, <sup>10</sup>you served those which by nature are not gods. <sup>9</sup>But now <sup>1</sup>after you have known God, or rather are known by God, <sup>2</sup>how is it that you turn again to <sup>3</sup>the weak and beggarly elements, to which you desire again to be in bondage? <sup>10</sup>You observe days and months and seasons and years. <sup>11</sup>I am afraid for you, <sup>12</sup>lest I have labored for you in vain.

<sup>12</sup>Brethren, I urge you to become like me, for I became like you. <sup>4</sup>You have not injured me at all. <sup>13</sup>You know that <sup>5</sup>because of physical infirmity I preached the gospel to you at the first. <sup>14</sup>And my trial which was in my flesh you did not despise or reject, but you received me <sup>6</sup>as an angel of God, <sup>7</sup>even as Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup>What* then was the blessing you enjoyed? For I bear you witness that, if possible, you would have plucked out your own eyes and given them to me. <sup>16</sup>Have I therefore become your enemy because I tell you the truth?

<sup>17</sup>They <sup>1</sup>zealously court you, but for no good; yes, they want to exclude you, that you may be zealous for them. <sup>18</sup>But it is good to be zealous in a good thing always, and not only when I am present with you. <sup>19</sup>My little children, for whom I labor in birth again until Christ is formed in you, <sup>20</sup>I would like to be present with you now and to change my tone; for I have doubts about you.

*4:4 Or made *4:7 NU-Text reads through God and omits through Christ. *4:15 NU-Text reads Where.

in his care, instructing and disciplining them when necessary. The law was like a tutor because it both corrected and instructed the Israelites in God's ways until Christ was revealed and such a schoolmaster was no longer needed (4:1–2).

3:28 There is neither Jew nor Greek. The context of this verse is justification by faith in Christ Jesus. Racial, social, and gender distinctions that so easily divide in no way hinder a person from coming to Christ in order to receive His mercy. All people equally can become God's heirs and recipients of His eternal promises (4:5–7).

4:1–2 until the time appointed by the father. In ancient society a child had to wait until the proper time before he could inherit what was his. Paul uses this idea to explain why God delayed Jesus Christ's coming, leaving people with His law as a guide (3:23–25).

4:4–5 born under the law. This means Christ was subject to the Jewish law (Matt. 5:17–19), further establishing His identification with all people who are subject to the law. redeem. This verb was used in the context of buying from a slave market. It describes Christ's supreme and final payment for the sins of humanity. His death on the cross frees those who believe in Him from the curse of the law and slavery to sin. This decisive payment and resulting freedom clear the way for Christians to become God's sons.

4:6 God has sent forth the Spirit. Just as "God sent forth His Son" in "fullness of the time" in world history (v. 4), so God has also sent the Spirit at just the right time for every person who believes in Christ.

4:9 how is it that you turn again. The Galatians had come to know God through faith in Jesus Christ (John 17:2–3). He had adopted them as His own sons, but they were turning back to the law that had once enslaved them.

4:12 I urge you. To get beyond the present dilemma, Paul appeals to the Galatians to follow his example (1 Cor. 11:1). He had abandoned the ceremonial rules and regulations connected with Judaism so that he could freely preach the gospel of Christ to Jew and Gentile alike in the cities of Galatia. They too should not hinder the gospel of Christ with laws and regulations.

4:17–18 they want to exclude you. Paul was strongly implying that the false teachers in Galatia were making the same mistake he had made prior to his conversion. Their zeal for the law was blinding them to the freedom and truth to be found in Jesus Christ.

4:19 My little children. Paul calls the Galatians children because of their lack of spiritual growth and depth. The apostle also portrays himself as the Galatians' "spiritual mother." He was feeling the labor

Two Covenants

*“Rejoice, O barren,
You who do not bear!
Break forth and shout,
You who are not in labor!
For the desolate has many more children
Than she who has a husband.”**

<sup>28</sup>Now <sup>d</sup>we, brethren, as Isaac was, are <sup>e</sup>children of promise. <sup>29</sup>But, as <sup>f</sup>he who was born according to the flesh then persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, <sup>g</sup>even so it is now. <sup>30</sup>Nevertheless what does <sup>h</sup>the Scripture say? <sup>i</sup>*“Cast out the bondwoman and her son, for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.”** <sup>31</sup>So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman but of the free.

Christian Liberty

5 <sup>a</sup>Stand fast therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free,* and do not be entangled again with a <sup>b</sup>yoke of bondage. <sup>2</sup>Indeed I, Paul, say to you that <sup>c</sup>if you become circumcised, Christ will profit you nothing. <sup>3</sup>And I testify again to every man who becomes circumcised <sup>d</sup>that he is a debtor to keep the whole law. <sup>4</sup>You have become estranged from Christ, you who attempt to be justified by law; <sup>e</sup>you have fallen from grace. <sup>5</sup>For we through the Spirit eagerly <sup>f</sup>wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. <sup>6</sup>For <sup>h</sup>in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision avails anything, but <sup>i</sup>faith working through love.

Love Fulfills the Law

<sup>7</sup>You <sup>j</sup>ran well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? <sup>8</sup>This persuasion does not come from Him who calls you. <sup>9</sup><sup>k</sup>A little leaven leavens the whole lump. <sup>10</sup>I have confidence in you, in the Lord, that you will have no other mind; but he who troubles you shall bear his judgment, whoever he is.

*4:24 NU-Text and M-Text omit the. *4:27 Isaiah 54:1 *4:30 Genesis 21:10 *5:1 NU-Text reads For freedom Christ has made us free; stand fast therefore.

pains of their birth all over again because they had fallen into serious error.

4:21–22 bondwoman . . . freewoman. To clinch his argument about the bondage of the law and freedom found in Christ, Paul uses as examples the two sons of Abraham, Ishmael and Isaac. Ishmael was born of a bondwoman, Hagar, and Isaac was born of Sarah, a freewoman (Gen. 16:15; 21:2). Paul counters the Jewish false teachers' zeal for the law with an argument based on the Law, the Pentateuch. He uses allegory to prove his point because it was a rhetorical technique the false teachers used. In other words, Paul was demonstrating that he could argue from the law just as well as they could, but to prove that the law of Moses pointed to the Messiah, Jesus Christ.

4:26 Jerusalem above. This phrase represents the Jewish hope of heaven finally coming to earth (Rev. 21–22). Paul was strongly implying that the question at hand was not allegiance to Jerusalem, but allegiance to which Jerusalem—the new or the old? Would the Galatians follow the shortsighted present Jerusalem and its legalism or the liberty of the heavenly Jerusalem?

4:28–30 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are children of promise. This portion of Paul's allegory is based on Genesis 21:9–10. Isaac was continually persecuted by his older half brother Ishmael. Eventually, Ishmael and his mother Hagar were expelled because Ishmael had no standing in God's eyes as an heir of Abraham. In creating a parallel between the story from Genesis and the Galatians' situation, Paul points out that (1) the persecution by the Jewish legalists of his day was not unexpected, and (2) it would not go on indefinitely because the legalists would soon be cast out.

4:31—5:1 So then. This phrase represents the conclusion of the previous section, while “therefore” signals that Paul is going to apply this spiritual truth to the lives of the Galatian believers.

5:2–3 if you become circumcised. The legalistic Jewish teachers in Galatia were urging believers to be circumcised (6:12–13). Paul points out that circumcision would change the entire orientation of salvation away from God's grace to one's own actions. One who is circumcised in an attempt to gain God's acceptance is obligated to keep the whole law, which history has abundantly demonstrated no one can do (Rom. 3:10–18).

5:5 hope of righteousness. We can be assured that we will be declared righteous before the Lord on that last day because we have a foretaste of that righteousness from the Spirit who lives within us (2 Cor. 5:5).

5:9–10 leaven. This symbolizes the intruders, with their false doctrine and its sinister influence. They were taking the gospel of free forgiveness away from the Galatians. The one who causes such harm will experience God's judgment (2 Cor. 5:10).

<sup>13</sup>For you, brethren, have been called to liberty; only <sup>14</sup>do not use liberty as an <sup>15</sup>opportunity for the flesh, but <sup>16</sup>through love serve one another. <sup>17</sup>For <sup>18</sup>all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: <sup>19</sup>“You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”<sup>20</sup> <sup>21</sup>But if you bite and devour one another, beware lest you be consumed by one another!

Walking in the Spirit

of wrath, selfish ambitions, dissensions, heresies, <sup>22</sup>envy, murders,* drunkenness, revelries, and the like; of which I tell you beforehand, just as I also told you in time past, that <sup>23</sup>those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

<sup>22</sup>But <sup>23</sup>the fruit of the Spirit is <sup>24</sup>love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, <sup>25</sup>goodness, <sup>26</sup>faithfulness, <sup>27</sup>gentleness, self-control. <sup>28</sup>Against such there is no law. <sup>29</sup>And those <sup>30</sup>who are Christ’s <sup>31</sup>have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. <sup>32</sup>If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. <sup>33</sup>Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another.

Bear and Share Burdens

* 5:14 Leviticus 19:18 * 5:19 NU-Text omits adultery. * 5:21 NU-Text omits murders.

5:11 the offense of the cross. The cross is offensive to people because it proclaims God’s unmerited grace and leaves no place for people’s good works.

5:13 liberty. Christian liberty is the freedom to serve one another in love (vv. 5–6). As we grow in our knowledge of the Word of God, understand and apply its meaning, we should increasingly be involved in serving God and our fellow believers. The Spirit of God has given us spiritual gifts, but those gifts are worthless unless they are used in the service of God and His church. Paul often uses the figure of the human body to show the importance of each part serving the others (Rom. 12:4–5; 1 Cor. 12:12–31). While some parts of the body have more prominent places of service than others, all are equally important. To maintain strength, health, and vitality, every part of the body must function and serve all the other parts of the body. This is also true of the spiritual or new life. We will grow in the new life, become strong, and maintain good spiritual health as we use the talents and abilities that God has given us to meet the needs of the other parts of the body.

5:14 all the law. The Christian does not live under the law of Moses, but instead under “the law of Christ” (6:2). Living in Christ empowers us to love others, which is the fulfillment of the law (Matt. 22:36–40).

5:16 Walk in the Spirit. The only consistent way to overcome the sinful desires of our human nature (the flesh) is to live step-by-step in the power of the Holy Spirit as He works through our spirit.

5:17 the flesh lusts against the Spirit. The potential of the flesh energized by Satan in the life of the Christian should not be underestimated. Given free rein, the flesh will direct our choices, making us do what we know we should not do. This inner conflict between the flesh and the Spirit is very real. Although the precise meaning of “flesh” is unclear, Paul’s intent is plain. The desires of our flesh are at odds with what the Holy Spirit desires for us: to be free from sin.

5:19–21 The Human Condition—The last part of Galatians 5 contrasts works of the flesh with fruit of the Spirit. The works of the flesh here are represented by those kinds of activities that are characteristic of our old natures. Without God, our lives are dominated by these more obvious sins and less obvious sinful attitudes. It is our sinful nature to be this way. Those who operate with these sins as a regular part of their lives, with no sense of guilt, demonstrate their need for salvation. It is the role of the Spirit to change these sinful behaviors. Paul points out that, if changes are not occurring, then there is a need for the Spirit that comes with the gift of salvation.

5:22–24 The New Nature—While the deeds of the flesh portray a disintegrating life, the fruit of the Spirit describes a life where things are working harmoniously. It points to qualities of personality and to behaviors that make us function as better people. It points to what God wants to see in us and should see in us as we mature in the faith.

5:22 fruit of the Spirit. This analogy is reminiscent of Jesus’ teaching on the vine, branches, and fruitful harvest.

5:24 have crucified the flesh. Those who have mastered these sinful desires are those who have kept their focus on God (Jer. 9:23–24; Dan. 11:32; John 17:3; Heb. 12:1–3).

6:1 restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness. A believer devastated by sin needs to be approached gently by fellow believers.

6:2 the law of Christ. This phrase is probably referring to the summation of the law: “Love your neighbor” (5:14; Matt. 22:39; John 13:34–35). Bearing the is nothing, he deceives himself. <sup>4</sup>But <sup>f</sup>let each one examine his own work, and then he will have rejoicing in himself alone, and <sup>g</sup>not in another. <sup>5</sup>For <sup>h</sup>each one shall bear his own load.

Be Generous and Do Good

<sup>6i</sup>Let him who is taught the word share in all good things with him who teaches.

<sup>7</sup>Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for <sup>j</sup>whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. <sup>8</sup>For he who sows to his flesh will of the flesh reap corruption, but he who sows to the Spirit will of the Spirit reap <sup>k</sup>everlasting life. <sup>9</sup>And <sup>l</sup>let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap <sup>m</sup>if we do not lose heart. <sup>10n</sup>Therefore, as we have opportunity, <sup>o</sup>let us do good to all, <sup>p</sup>especially to those who are of the household of faith.

Glory Only in the Cross

<sup>11</sup>See with what large letters I have written to you with my own hand! <sup>12</sup>As many as desire to make a good showing in the flesh, these would compel you to be circumcised, <sup>q</sup>only that they may not suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. <sup>13</sup>For not even those who are circumcised keep the law, but they desire to have you circumcised that they may boast in your flesh. <sup>14</sup>But God forbid that I should boast except in the <sup>r</sup>cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom* the world has been crucified to me, and <sup>s</sup>I to the world. <sup>15</sup>For <sup>t</sup>in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision avails anything, but a new creation.

Blessing and a Plea

<sup>16</sup>And as many as walk according to this rule, peace and mercy be upon them, and upon the Israel of God.

<sup>17</sup>From now on let no one trouble me, for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

burdens of one another is precisely what Christ expects of all believers. The Greek word for burdens refers to something beyond the normal capacity to carry, as opposed to a "load" (v. 5), which is what a person could be expected to carry.

6:7–8 he who sows to his flesh. The principle of sowing and reaping was known to everyone in a largely agricultural society. It would be foolish for Christians to think that they could escape the harvest of destruction and judgment if they persist in sin. corruption. This is a term used for a field in which the produce is too rotten to harvest (Heb. 6:8). he who sows to the Spirit will of the Spirit reap everlasting life. This does not mean that everlasting life is earned by works. Rather, Paul is saying that everlasting life is the glorious end of those who follow the guidance of the Spirit (Rom. 6:22). Jesus said that He came so that we might have life and have it more abundantly (John 10:10). In this life, through the indwelling of the Spirit, Christians are developing a capacity to experience Christ to the fullest in the life to come.

6:9 doing good. The apostle has argued at length that such works cannot justify (2:16) or sanctify (3:3) anyone. However, good works are, in fact, an important fruit of the life of faith (5:5) that God has planned for each believer (Eph. 2:8–10).

6:12 make a good showing. The Judaizers were trying to appear spiritual by becoming circumcised and demanding that others become circumcised (5:2–12). By teaching that all Christians should become circumcised, the Judaizers were trying to make Christianity into a sect of Judaism. This would have two advantages. First, they could counter the persecution that they suffered from the zealous Jews. Second, they could include themselves with an officially sanctioned religion of the Roman Empire, Judaism.

6:13 not even those . . . keep the law. The Judaizers knew that they were unable to keep the entire law even though they were required to do so. They still attempted to persuade the Galatians to be circumcised so that they could boast about having them as their followers.

6:16 the Israel of God. This probably refers to the remnant of believing Jews (Rom. 11:1–2, 7). They are Abraham's spiritual descendants (3:6–9) because they believe in God and rely on His grace.

6:17 I bear in my body. Paul's scars branded him as a slave for Christ (Rom. 1:1). Such marks far outweighed the "mark" of circumcision so valued by the false teachers in Galatia (vv. 12–15).

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE EPHESIANS

► AUTHOR: All internal and external evidence strongly supports the Pauline authorship of Ephesians. In recent years, however, critics have turned to internal grounds to challenge this unanimous ancient tradition. It has been argued that the vocabulary and style are different from other Pauline epistles, but this overlooks Paul's flexibility under different circumstances (as in Romans and 2 Corinthians). The theology of Ephesians in some ways reflects a later development, but this must be attributed to Paul's own growth and meditation on the church as the body of Christ. Ephesians was written during his first Roman imprisonment in A.D. 60–62, perhaps around the same time as Philippians, Colossians, and Philemon.

► TIME: c. A.D. 60–61    ► KEY VERSES: Eph. 4:1–3

► THEME: Ephesians is like a grand landscape whose subject is the whole world. Paul paints a richly textured picture of God's plan to bless the world through Christ. God is bringing light to darkness, healing to brokenness and reconciliation to the separated. Central to this teaching is the role of the church in the world and the gifts God has given it. God will bring about these things through the church. Once we understand and believe all that God has done and is doing, it is our responsibility to obey and live in light of His actions. Paul gives us much more than the theory in Ephesians. He makes critical connections between big-picture theology and the practical implications for living the day-to-day Christian life.

Greeting

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God,

To the saints who are in Ephesus, and faithful in Christ Jesus:

<sup>2</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Redemption in Christ

<sup>3a</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ, <sup>4</sup>just as <sup>b</sup>He chose us in Him <sup>c</sup>before the foundation of the world, that we should <sup>d</sup>be holy and without blame before Him in love, <sup>5e</sup>having predestined us to <sup>f</sup>adoption as sons by Jesus Christ to Himself, <sup>g</sup>according to the good pleasure of His will, <sup>6</sup>to the praise of the glory of His grace, <sup>h</sup>by which He made us accepted in <sup>i</sup>the Beloved.

<sup>7</sup>In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to <sup>k</sup>the riches of His grace <sup>8</sup>which He made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence, <sup>9</sup>having made known to us the mystery of His will, according to His

1:1–2 saints. In the New Testament all believers are set apart by God in Christ. Grace to you and peace. The salutations in the New Testament epistles follow the form of the typical first-century letter. The writer is mentioned first and the recipient next, followed by a blessing or best wishes for good health. The difference here lies in the content of the blessing: pagan letters mentioned nonexistent gods and goddesses such as Diana or Apollo; the apostles call upon the one true God and His Son Jesus Christ to bless their readers.

1:3 every spiritual blessing. God does not guarantee health, wealth, and prosperity to the New Testament believer. The blessings of Christianity are largely spiritual.

1:4–5 love. In this instance the Greek agape is used. That love is a love that is by choice or one's will, not just a sentimental feeling. having predestined us. Predestination is not a cold-hearted determinism or set fate, but rather a loving choice on God's part.

1:6 the Beloved. This title is messianic, referring to God's Son, Jesus.

1:7 redemption. The word means "buy back" or "ransom." In ancient times, one could buy back a person who was sold into slavery. In the same way, Christ through His death bought us from our slavery to sin. His blood. The blood of Christ is the means by which our redemption comes. The Old Testament and the New both clearly teach that there is no forgiveness without the shedding of blood.

1:9 the mystery. This is not a puzzle to solve, or knowledge only for the few and the initiated, as in the mystery religions of Paul's day. In Paul's use, the good pleasure <sup>m</sup>which He purposed in Himself, <sup>10</sup>that in the dispensation of <sup>n</sup>the fullness of the times <sup>o</sup>He might gather together in one <sup>p</sup>all things in Christ, both* which are in heaven and which are on earth—in Him. <sup>11</sup><sup>q</sup>In Him also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestined according to <sup>r</sup>the purpose of Him who works all things according to the counsel of His will, <sup>12</sup>that we <sup>t</sup>who first trusted in Christ should be to the praise of His glory.

Prayer for Spiritual Wisdom

<sup>15</sup>Therefore I also, <sup>a</sup>after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints, <sup>16</sup>do not cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers: <sup>17</sup>that <sup>c</sup>the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, <sup>d</sup>may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him, <sup>18</sup><sup>e</sup>the eyes of your understanding* being enlightened; that you may know what is <sup>f</sup>the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, <sup>19</sup>and what is the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who believe, <sup>g</sup>according to the working of His mighty power <sup>20</sup>which He worked in Christ when <sup>h</sup>He raised Him from the dead and <sup>i</sup>seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, <sup>21</sup><sup>j</sup>far above all <sup>k</sup>principality and power and might and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age but also in that which is to come.

<sup>22</sup>And <sup>l</sup>He put all things under His feet, and gave Him <sup>m</sup>to be head over all things to the church, <sup>23</sup><sup>n</sup>which is His body, <sup>o</sup>the fullness of Him <sup>p</sup>who fills all in all.

By Grace Through Faith

* 1:10 NU-Text and M-Text omit both. * 1:14 NU-Text reads which. * 1:18 NU-Text and M-Text read hearts.

word mystery refers to an aspect of God's will that was once hidden or obscure, but now was being revealed by God (Rom. 11:25).

1:14 the guarantee of our inheritance. The Greek word for guarantee can also be used to indicate an engagement ring. As Christ is the bridegroom and the church is the bride, so the Holy Spirit is the down payment, the earnest money in the long-awaited marriage of the two (Rev. 19:7). purchased possession. The Old Testament described the nation of Israel as God's special treasure, one He had purchased by His mighty acts of deliverance during the Exodus (Ex. 19:5). Here Paul describes Christians as a purchased possession, bought with the blood of Christ.

1:18–19 the eyes of your understanding. This phrase refers to spiritual understanding. To describe this, Paul uses words that picture eyes that have been brightened with divine illumination.

1:21 not only in this age but also in that which is to come. The Jews of Christ's time understood the end times to be divided into two time periods, the age in which they were living and the coming age. The Messiah, called "the Coming One," would rule in the age which is to come.

2:2 you once walked. Walking is a biblical expression that pictures a believer's steady normal progress with God (Ps. 1:1). Believers are saved so that they can have a lifestyle characterized by good works (v. 10).

prince of the power of the air. This is a reference to Satan.

2:4–7 we were dead in trespasses. Because of Adam's sin, the entire human race is spiritually dead. Only God can grant new life and save us from this predicament. Out of His mercy, God gave His Son for us while we were yet His enemies. He loved us long before we loved Him (1 John 4:9–10).

2:8–10 you have been saved through faith. The grace of God is the source of salvation; faith is the channel, not the cause. God alone saves. Salvation never originates in the efforts of people; it always arises out of the lovingkindness of God. the gift of God. We cannot do anything to earn our salvation.

<sup>10</sup>For we are <sup>t</sup>His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them.

Brought Near by His Blood

<sup>11</sup>Therefore remember that you, once Gentiles in the flesh—who are called Uncircumcision by what is called <sup>u</sup>the Circumcision made in the flesh by hands—<sup>12</sup>that at that time you were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. <sup>13</sup>But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

Christ Our Peace

<sup>14</sup>For He Himself is our peace, who has made both one, and has broken down the middle wall of separation, <sup>15</sup>having abolished in His flesh the enmity, that is, the law of commandments contained in ordinances, so as to create in Himself one <sup>v</sup>new man from the two, thus making peace, <sup>16</sup>and that He might <sup>w</sup>reconcile them both to God in one body through the cross, thereby <sup>x</sup>putting to death the enmity. <sup>17</sup>And He came and preached peace to you who were afar off and to those who were near. <sup>18</sup>For <sup>y</sup>through Him we both have access <sup>z</sup>by one Spirit to the Father.

Christ Our Cornerstone

2:14 the middle wall of separation. This was vividly portrayed by an actual partition in the temple area, with a sign warning that any Gentile going beyond the Court of the Gentiles would receive swift and sudden death.

2:15 one new man. In the early days of Christianity, the church was largely made up of Jews. But, under the direction of God's Spirit, the believers witnessed to Gentiles (Acts 10), who then soon outnumbered the Jewish members. As the two groups learned to work together, they became something completely new.

2:20 the apostles and prophets. The early church was established on the teaching and preaching of the apostles. They were the foundation of the church.

2:21 fitted together. This idea pictures the process in Roman construction whereby laborers would turn huge rocks around until they fit each other perfectly.

3:5–6 the Gentiles should be fellow heirs. In Old Testament times people had only partial knowledge of God and His works. While Genesis pointed to the

The Mystery Revealed

3 For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus for you Gentiles—<sup>2</sup>if indeed you have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God <sup>a</sup>which was given to me for you, <sup>3b</sup>how that by revelation <sup>c</sup>He made known to me the mystery (as I have briefly written already, <sup>4</sup>by which, when you read, you may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ), <sup>5</sup>which in other ages was not made known to the sons of men, as it has now been revealed by the Spirit to His holy apostles and prophets: <sup>6</sup>that the Gentiles <sup>d</sup>should be fellow heirs, of the same body, and partakers of His promise in Christ through the gospel, <sup>7e</sup>of which I became a minister <sup>f</sup>according to the gift of the grace of God given to me by <sup>g</sup>the effective working of His power.

Purpose of the Mystery

<sup>8</sup>To me, <sup>h</sup>who am less than the least of all the saints, this grace was given, that I should preach among the Gentiles <sup>i</sup>the unsearchable riches of Christ, <sup>9</sup>and to make all see what is the fellowship* of the mystery, which from the beginning of the ages has been hidden in God who <sup>j</sup>created all things through Jesus Christ;* <sup>10k</sup>to the intent that now <sup>l</sup>the manifold wisdom of God might be made known by the church <sup>m</sup>to the principalities and powers in the heavenly places, <sup>11n</sup>according to the eternal purpose which He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord, <sup>12</sup>in whom we have boldness and access <sup>o</sup>with confidence through faith in Him. <sup>13p</sup>Therefore I ask that you do not lose heart at my tribulations for you, <sup>q</sup>which is your glory.

Appreciation of the Mystery

<sup>14</sup>For this reason I bow my knees to the <sup>r</sup>Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,* <sup>15</sup>from whom the whole family in heaven and

fact that God's grace would come to the Gentiles (Gen. 12:3), no one understood that they would also be fully equal with the Jews.

3:10 manifold wisdom. God's ways are not only "mysterious," but also varied. Angels are also learning about God's wisdom as they watch His grace working in us (1 Cor. 11:10).

earth is named, <sup>16</sup>that He would grant you, <sup>s</sup>according to the riches of His glory, <sup>t</sup>to be strengthened with might through His Spirit in <sup>u</sup>the inner man, <sup>17</sup>that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, <sup>w</sup>being rooted and grounded in love, <sup>18</sup>may be able to comprehend with all the saints <sup>v</sup>what is the width and length and depth and height—<sup>19</sup>to know the love of Christ which passes knowledge; that you may be filled <sup>z</sup>with all the fullness of God.

<sup>20</sup>Now <sup>a</sup>to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly <sup>b</sup>above all that we ask or think, <sup>c</sup>according to the power that works in us, <sup>21</sup>to Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Walk in Unity

4 I, therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you to <sup>a</sup>walk worthy of the calling with which you were called, <sup>2</sup>with all lowliness and gentleness, with longsuffering, bearing with one another in love, <sup>3</sup>endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit <sup>b</sup>in the bond of peace. <sup>4c</sup>*There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called in one hope of your calling; <sup>5d</sup>one Lord, <sup>e</sup>one faith, <sup>f</sup>one baptism; <sup>6g</sup>one God and Father of all, who is above all, and <sup>h</sup>through all, and in you* all.*

Spiritual Gifts

<sup>7</sup>But <sup>i</sup>to each one of us grace was given according to the measure of Christ's gift. <sup>8</sup>Therefore He says:

j“When He ascended on high,
He led captivity captive,
And gave gifts to men.”*

* 4:6 NU-Text omits you; M-Text reads us.

* 4:8 Psalm 68:18

3:17 Christ may dwell in your hearts. Christ actually resides or makes His home in the believer's heart.

3:21 The Purpose of the Church—The ultimate purpose of the church is to bring honor and glory to Jesus Christ. It does this as it fulfills its three purposes related to God's plan for the world.

Worship—As the church worships, it continually declares to believers and the world God's view of reality. God is the world's Creator and Sustainer. Through Jesus Christ, God has redeemed the world and provided a way of salvation for people who rebel against Him.

Evangelism—The Great Commission in Matthew 28 clearly points to evangelism as a primary purpose for the church. “Teaching” implies that there is more to evangelism than simply declaring the good news. Evangelism should lead to discipleship, which involves the work of helping the new believer reach full maturity in Christ. This happens much as a parent raises children, nurturing them in every way possible so that they can grow. Christ makes baptism an important element in this process. In baptism, one indicates that he has been identified with Christ in His death, burial, and resurrection and that he wishes to be identified with the church.

Edification—Ephesians 4:12 points to the fact that the saints need to be built up (that is equipped) to fully do the work of the church, namely the ministry of Christ to the world. This involves making believers aware of everything they have in Christ and how the Spirit's gifts enable them to serve the body of Christ effectively.

4:1 therefore . . . walk worthy of the calling with which you were called. The second half of Ephesians, like that of a number of Paul's epistles, emphasizes the behavior that should result from the doctrines or beliefs taught in the first half.

4:2 lowliness and gentleness, with longsuffering. These are the attitudes that Jesus demonstrated when He was on earth (Phil. 2:5–8). These attitudes do not come naturally, but must be cultivated by the determination to place others above ourselves. Only the Spirit can empower us to treat people this way consistently.

4:3 The Person of the Holy Spirit—Many people make the serious error of thinking of the Holy Spirit as only some kind of vague principle or influence. On the contrary, the Holy Spirit is as much a person (individual existence of a conscious being) as the Father and the Son.

1. The personality of the Holy Spirit. The Bible speaks of the mind (Rom. 8:27) and will (1 Cor. 2:11) of the Spirit. He is often described as speaking directly to men in the Book of Acts. During Paul's second missionary journey, the apostle was forbidden by the Spirit to visit a certain mission field (Acts 16:6–7) and then was instructed to proceed toward another field of service (Acts 16:10). It was God's Spirit who spoke directly to Christian leaders in the Antioch church, commanding them to send Paul and Barnabas on their first missionary journey (Acts 13:2).

2. The deity of the Holy Spirit. He is not only a distinct being, but He is also God. As is God the Father, He too is everywhere at once (Ps. 139:7). As the Son is eternal, the Holy Spirit has also existed forever (Heb. 9:14). He is often referred to as God in the Bible (Acts 5:3–4). Finally, the Holy Spirit is equal with the Father and Son. This is seen during the baptism of Christ (Matt. 3:16–17) and is mentioned by Jesus Himself just prior to His ascension from the Mount of Olives (Matt. 28:19–20).

4:7 grace was given according to the measure of Christ's gift. Like Peter (1 Pet. 4:10), Paul taught that all Christians have a spiritual gift or gifts. The gifts are given sovereignly by the ascended Christ in order to build up the church (1 Cor. 12:11). Thus the body of Christ is to function like a machine in which every part is essential for getting a job done. But, unlike a machine, the body of Christ should maintain itself and build every one of its members up so that they can do good works (1 Cor. 12:7).

4:8 When He ascended on high. Paul quotes Psalm 68:18 to picture the ascended Messiah triumphant over Satan and his hosts, distributing spiritual gifts to His people.

The New Man

<sup>17</sup>This I say, therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you should <sup>v</sup>no longer walk as the rest of* the Gentiles walk, in the futility of their mind, <sup>18</sup>having their understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the <sup>w</sup>blindness of their heart; <sup>19x</sup>who, being past feeling, <sup>y</sup>have given themselves over to lewdness, to work all uncleanliness with greediness.

<sup>20</sup>But you have not so learned Christ, <sup>21</sup>if indeed you have heard Him and have been taught by Him, as the truth is in Jesus: <sup>22</sup>that you <sup>z</sup>put off, concerning your former conduct, the old man which grows corrupt according to the deceitful lusts, <sup>23</sup>and <sup>abe</sup>renewed in the spirit of your mind, <sup>24</sup>and that you <sup>b</sup>put on the new man which was created according to God, in true righteousness and holiness.

Do Not Grieve the Spirit

<sup>25</sup>Therefore, putting away lying, <sup>c</sup>“Let each one of you speak truth with his neighbor,”* for <sup>d</sup>we are members of one another. <sup>26e</sup>“Be angry, and do not sin”.* do not let the sun go down on your wrath, <sup>27f</sup>nor give place to the devil. <sup>28</sup>Let him who stole steal no longer, but rather <sup>g</sup>let him labor, working with his hands what is good, that he may have something <sup>h</sup>to give him who has need. <sup>29i</sup>Let no corrupt word proceed out of your mouth, but <sup>j</sup>what is good for necessary edification, <sup>k</sup>that it may impart grace to the hearers. <sup>30</sup>And <sup>l</sup>do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. <sup>31m</sup>Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, clamor, and <sup>n</sup>evil speaking be put away from you, <sup>o</sup>with all malice. <sup>32</sup>And <sup>p</sup>be kind to one another, tenderhearted, <sup>q</sup>forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you.

Walk in Love

5 Therefore* be imitators of God as dear <sup>b</sup>children. <sup>2</sup>And <sup>c</sup>walk in love, <sup>d</sup>as Christ also has loved us and given Himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God <sup>e</sup>for a sweet-smelling aroma.

<sup>3</sup>But fornication and all <sup>f</sup>uncleanness or <sup>g</sup>covetousness, let it not even be named among you, as is fitting for saints; <sup>4h</sup>neither

*4:26 Psalm 4:4

4:11 apostles . . . prophets . . . evangelists . . . pastors and teachers. Apostles, meaning “envoys” or “ambassadors,” in its strict sense refers to those who saw Christ in resurrected form and were specially chosen by Christ to tell others about Him from their eyewitness accounts. Prophets delivered direct revelations from God. They foretold God’s actions in the future and they proclaimed what God had already said in the Scriptures. Evangelists play a major role in bringing people into the body of Christ. Pastors function as shepherds. They feed, nurture, care for, and protect the members of the body. The Greek ties in teacher with pastor.

4:12–13 equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ. Three stages of growth are presented here. Leaders are responsible to equip. The well-equipped saints do the work of the ministry, and the result is that the body is built up. The final goal is maturity, truth, and love.

4:16 every joint . . . every part. There are no insignificant parts in the body (1 Cor. 12:14–27). Anything that builds up believers and the church can be said to be edifying.

4:22–24 you put off . . . the old man. Paul compares the Christian life to stripping off the dirty clothes of a sinful past and putting on the snowy white robes of Christ’s righteousness.

4:30 the Holy Spirit of God. We should never push away, ignore, or reject the Holy Spirit. If we would remember that the One who lives in us is God’s own Spirit, we would be much more selective about what we think, read, watch, say, and do.

5:1 imitators of God. Believers are to follow the example of God’s actions. He loved us when we were still His enemies.

filthiness, nor <sup>f</sup>foolish talking, nor coarse jesting, <sup>j</sup>which are not fitting, but rather <sup>k</sup>giving of thanks. <sup>5</sup>For this you know,* that no fornicator, unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any <sup>i</sup>inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. <sup>6</sup>Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. <sup>7</sup>Therefore do not be <sup>m</sup>partakers with them.

Walk in Light

<sup>8</sup>For you were once darkness, but now you are <sup>n</sup>light in the Lord. Walk as children of light <sup>9</sup>(for <sup>o</sup>the fruit of the Spirit* is in all goodness, righteousness, and truth), <sup>10</sup>finding out what is acceptable to the Lord. <sup>11</sup>And have <sup>a</sup>no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather expose them. <sup>12</sup>For it is shameful even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret. <sup>13</sup>But <sup>s</sup>all things that are exposed are made manifest by the light, for whatever makes manifest is light. <sup>14</sup>Therefore He says:

<sup>t</sup>"Awake, you who sleep,
Arise from the dead,
And Christ will give you light."

5:12 in secret. This verse effectively bans Christians from indulging in the modern preoccupation with examining the lurid details of evils such as the occult and other perverted practices.

5:16 redeeming the time. This means taking advantage of opportunities for service. Paul exhorts us to use as much time as is possible for advancing Christ's purposes in this world.

5:18 drunk with wine. Just as a person who is drunk is under the control of alcohol, so a Spirit-filled believer is controlled by the Spirit. filled. Filling is a step beyond the sealing of the Holy Spirit (1:13). Sealing is an action God took at the point of our new birth. The tense of the Greek word translated filled indicates that filling is a moment-by-moment repeatable action. To be filled with the Spirit is to be controlled by the Spirit and is therefore crucial to successfully living the Christian life. The imperative says that the believer is to be filled with the presence of the Spirit so that he comes to know God in all His fullness, living in relationship with Him. Out of this relationship, the believer is able to manifest Christlike character. The certainty of being filled with the Spirit may be confirmed by the believer's faith and life. The believer must, of course, believe God's Word that meeting the conditions will result in the filling. The Spirit-filled person will exhibit the Christlike character described in Galatians 5:22–23 as the fruit of the Spirit. Included in that list are all the vibrant, attractive qualities desired by all Christians. Any Christian may be transformed by the filling of the Spirit and possess these qualities.

5:19 singing and making melody. Most believe that these words refer to three larger categories: (1) the 150 psalms in the Psalter, (2) hymns or compositions addressed directly to God, and (3) spiritual songs, hymns about the Christian experience.

5:21–22 submitting. Verse 21 completes the thought of the previous verses (vv. 18–20), which

Walk in Wisdom

Marriage—Christ and the Church

address how being filled with the Spirit manifests itself in the believer's life. It also introduces the next section (5:22–6:4), about how members of a Christian family should relate to each other. The Greek word for submit does not refer to being under the absolute control of another but to voluntarily placing oneself under the authority of another.

5:22–24 Wives, submit. Just as Christ is not inferior to the Father, but is the second Person in the Trinity, so wives are equal to their own husbands. Yet, in a marriage relationship, a husband and wife have different roles. A wife's voluntary submission arises out of her own submission to Christ.

5:25 Husbands, love. Paul does not emphasize the husband's authority; instead, he calls on husbands to love self-sacrificially. Husbands are to emulate Christ's love, the kind of love that is willing to lay down one's life for another. Christ also loved the church. The relationship between Christ and the church was initiated by Christ, who loved the church and gave Himself for it. The details of that relationship are described with seven images:

1. The Shepherd and the sheep emphasizes both the warm leadership and protection of Christ and the helplessness and dependency of believers (John 10:1–18).
2. The vine and the branches points out the necessity for Christians to depend on Christ's sustaining strength for growth (John 15:1–8).

Himself for her, <sup>26</sup>that He might sanctify and cleanse her <sup>m</sup>with the washing of water <sup>n</sup>by the word, <sup>27</sup>that He might present her to Himself a glorious church, <sup>p</sup>not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing, but that she should be holy and without blemish. <sup>28</sup>So husbands ought to love their own wives as their own bodies; he who loves his wife loves himself. <sup>29</sup>For no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as the Lord does the church. <sup>30</sup>For <sup>q</sup>we are members of His body, *of His flesh and of His bones. <sup>31</sup>“For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the <sup>s</sup>two shall become one flesh.” <sup>32</sup>This is a great mystery, but I speak concerning Christ and the church. <sup>33</sup>Nevertheless <sup>t</sup>let each one of you in particular so love his own wife as himself, and let the wife see that she <sup>u</sup>respects her husband.

Children and Parents

well with you and you may live long on the earth.”<sup>c</sup>

<sup>4</sup>And <sup>e</sup>you, fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but <sup>d</sup>bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord.

Bondservants and Masters

<sup>9</sup>And you, masters, do the same things to them, <sup>j</sup>giving up threatening, knowing that your own <sup>k</sup>Master also* is in heaven, and <sup>l</sup>there is no partiality with Him.

3. Christ as high priest and the church as a kingdom of priests stress the joyful worship, fellowship, and service which the church can render to God through Christ (Heb. 5:1–10; 7:1; 8:6; 1 Pet. 2:5–9).
4. The cornerstone and building stones (Matt. 21:42) accents the foundational value of Christ to everything the church is and does, as well as Christ's value to the unity of believers. Love is to be the mortar which solidly holds the living stones together (1 Cor. 3:9; 13:1–13; Eph. 2:19–22; 1 Pet. 2:5).
5. The head and many-membered body, the church is a vibrant organism, not merely an organization; it draws its vitality and direction from Christ, the Head, and each believer has a unique and necessary place in its growth (1 Cor. 12:12–13, 27; Eph. 4:4).
6. The last Adam and new creation presents Christ as the initiator of a new creation of believers as Adam was of the old creation (1 Cor. 15:22, 45; 2 Cor. 5:17).
7. The bridegroom and bride beautifully emphasizes the intimate fellowship and co-ownership existing between Christ and the church (Eph. 5:25–33; Rev. 19:7–8; 21:9).

5:31 the two shall become one flesh. Paul quotes Genesis 2:24, which teaches that the special union between husband and wife supersedes the original family ties.

5:32 This is a great mystery. A sacred secret revealed is that Christian marriage parallels the union that exists spiritually between Christ and His bride, the church.

6:1–4 Children, obey . . . fathers, do not provoke. This paragraph has the beautiful balance we expect to find in God's Word: children are to obey their parents, and parents are to treat their children in such a way that the children will want to obey.

6:4 Parenting—The father is the parent responsible for setting the pattern for the child's obedience in the family. The father's responsibility is set forth in two ways: First, what the father is not to do—“do not provoke your children to wrath.” He is not to over-discipline them or rule the household in such a way that the child can only react in a rage. Second, what the father is to do—“but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord.” “Bring them up” involves three ideas:

- a. It is a continuous job. As long as the child is a dependent, the father is to be responsible for providing for the child so that he becomes what God wants him to be.
- b. It is a loving job. To “bring up” means literally to nourish tenderly; children should be objects of tender, loving care.
- c. It is a job that involves nurture and admonition. The child needs to be nurtured physically and spiritually. He also needs corrective discipline that will be effective in bringing about obedience to the Word of God (Prov. 13:24; 19:18; 29:15–17).

6:5 Bondservants, be obedient. Bondservants made up a large percentage of the population of the Roman Empire. These people were considered mere property and could be abused and even killed by their masters with no resulting investigation by the state. In the church, wealthy slave owners and their slaves broke bread together at the Lord's Table as equals.

6:6 not with eyeservice. Servants and employees should serve faithfully even when no one is looking. After all, God sees all that we do.

The Whole Armor of God

A Gracious Greeting

<sup>21</sup>But that you also may know my affairs and how I am doing, <sup>b</sup>Tychicus, a beloved brother and <sup>c</sup>faithful minister in the Lord, will make all things known to you; <sup>22d</sup>whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, that you may know our affairs, and that he may <sup>e</sup>comfort your hearts.

<sup>23</sup>Peace to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>24</sup>Grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

\ 6:12 NU-Text reads rulers of this darkness.*

6:11 the whole armor of God. This equipment is the believer's protection against evil and the devil. Paul presented the extended metaphor of the battle dress roughly according to the order in which the various pieces were put on.

6:12 For we do not wrestle. The real battle is not with human cultists, false religionists, atheists, agnostics, and pseudo-Christians, but with the demonic beings working through them.

6:14 truth. This is a reference to integrity, a life of practical truthfulness and honesty. breastplate. In Roman times this went completely around the body and was made of hard leather or metal. righteousness. This is not the righteousness of Christ, which all believers possess, but the practical, righteous character and deeds of the believer.

6:15 the preparation of the gospel of peace. This may mean either that the gospel is the firm foundation on which Christians are to stand or that the Christian soldier should be ready to go out to defend and spread the gospel.

6:16 shield of faith. The Christian's shield offers protection against all forms of evil. Flaming arrows could not penetrate the fireproof shield of the ancient Roman soldier, nor can the assaults of Satan penetrate to the believer who places his or her faith in God.

6:17 the sword of the Spirit. This is the only offensive weapon in the believer's armor. This weapon is not necessarily the Bible as a whole, but the specific word that needs to be spoken in a specific situation.

6:21–24 that you also may know my affairs. The last verses of Ephesians reveal Paul's appreciation of the ministry of others, especially the ministry of Tychicus (Col. 4:7). The fact that this letter does not conclude with personal greetings, as Paul's other letters do, may indicate that this was a circular letter, one intended for a number of churches around Ephesus.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS

► AUTHOR: The external and internal evidence for the Pauline authorship of Philippians is very strong, and there is scarcely any doubt that anyone but Paul wrote it. Paul's "Macedonian call" in Troas during his second missionary journey led to his ministry in Philippi with the conversion of Lydia and others. Internal evidence suggests that the epistle was written from Rome (1:3; 4:22), although some commentators argue for Caesarea or Ephesus. It seems that during the writing of this letter Paul's life was at stake, and he was evidently awaiting the verdict of the imperial court (2:20–26).

► TIME: c. A.D. 62

► KEY VERSES: Phil. 4:4–7

► THEME: Even though Paul probably wrote this letter while imprisoned in Rome, the letter is often called the Epistle of Joy. It gives us valuable insight into key areas of the Christian life by helping understand how we should identify with Christ in a variety of circumstances. We gain some insight into what Christian relationships should look like and what the content of our prayers for each other should be. Philippians also provides great insight in setting spiritual direction and determining practical priorities. Christians desiring to mature in the Lord will return to study it often.

Greeting

1 Paul and Timothy, bondservants of Jesus Christ,

To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi, with the bishops* and <sup>a</sup>deacons:

<sup>2</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thankfulness and Prayer

<sup>3b</sup>I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, <sup>4</sup>always in <sup>c</sup>every prayer of mine making request for you all with joy, <sup>5d</sup>for your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now, <sup>6</sup>being confident of this very thing, that He who has begun <sup>e</sup>a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ; <sup>7</sup>just as it is right for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart, inasmuch as both in my chains and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, you all are partakers with me of grace. <sup>8</sup>For God is my witness, how greatly I long for you all with the affection of Jesus Christ.

* 1:1 Literally overseers

1:1–11 To all the saints. This term means "holy ones" (those who are separated to God) and refers to all the believers in Philippi. bishops. This refers to those who watch over the spiritual welfare of the local church. deacons. This is a reference to those who serve the congregation in special service capacities. They were charged with handling the physical and material concerns of the church (Acts 6:1–7). In the first few verses, Paul reveals his great love for the Philippians. He thinks of them often (vv. 3–6), he is concerned about them (vv. 7–8), and he regularly prays for them (vv. 9–11).

1:3 I thank. The tense of the Greek verb indicates that Paul was continually thankful to God for the Philippian Christians. upon every remembrance of you. Every time God brought them to his mind, Paul gave thanks.

1:4 joy. This is the first of five uses of the Greek word for joy in the letter (v. 25; 2:2, 29; 4:1). Paul also uses the Greek word for rejoice eight times in this letter (v. 18; 2:17–18, 28; 3:1; 4:4).

1:5 fellowship. This term is a commercial term for a joint-partnership in a business venture in which all parties actively participate to ensure the success of the business. In the Christian community, the word expresses intimacy with Christ (1 Cor. 1:9).

1:6 until. This word can also be translated "as far as." It expresses progress toward a goal and indicates that a time is coming when God will completely finish His work among the Philippian Christians.

1:7 right. This word conveys a sense of moral uprightness and is often translated throughout the New Testament as "righteous." In this context, the word indicates that Paul's thoughts regarding the Philippians were in perfect accord with God's will. confirmation. Used only here and in Hebrews 6:16 in the New Testament, this word is a legal and commercial term meaning "a validating guarantee."

1:8 the affection of Jesus Christ. The word translated "affection" literally means the internal organs, regarded by the first century reader as the center of <sup>9</sup>And this I pray, that your love may abound still more and more in knowledge and all discernment, <sup>10</sup>that you may approve the things that are excellent, that you may be sincere and without offense till the day of Christ, <sup>11</sup>being filled with the fruits of righteousness <sup>12</sup>which are by Jesus Christ, <sup>13</sup>to the glory and praise of God.

Christ Is Preached

<sup>12</sup>But I want you to know, brethren, that the things which happened to me have actually turned out for the furtherance of the gospel, <sup>13</sup>so that it has become evident <sup>14</sup>to the whole palace guard, and to all the rest, that my chains are in Christ; <sup>14</sup>and most of the brethren in the Lord, having become confident by my chains, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

<sup>15</sup>Some indeed preach Christ even from envy and strife, and some also from goodwill: <sup>16</sup>The former* preach Christ from selfish ambition, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my chains; <sup>17</sup>but the latter out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel. <sup>18</sup>What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is preached; and in this I rejoice, yes, and will rejoice.

the deepest feelings. Whereas the heart is the seat of reflection, Paul now speaks of his deep feelings for the believers. His feelings for the Philippians were like those of Jesus Christ, who loved them and died for them.

1:9 love. The kind of love that Paul sought for the believers is the highest form of Christian love, based on a lasting, unconditional commitment, not on an unstable emotion. knowledge. The first of two terms on which a directed love is built, knowledge suggests an intimate understanding based on a relationship with a person. Here the focus of this knowledge is God. discernment. Found only here in the New Testament, the Greek word means moral or ethical understanding based on both the intellect and the senses.

1:10 that you may approve. This verb is used in ancient literature for the testing of gold to determine its purity and for trying oxen to assess their usefulness for the task at hand.

1:12 furtherance. This phrase could suggest a pioneer beating or cutting a path through a densely forested area. Paul's imprisonment was a strategic advance in the kingdom of God because it was clearing the way for the gospel to penetrate the ranks of the Roman military.

1:13 palace guard. This is a reference to the praetorian guard, a force consisting of several thousand highly trained, elite soldiers of the Roman Empire who were headquartered at Rome. For the one to two years that Paul had been under house arrest in Rome, different soldiers had taken turns guarding him. Although Paul could not go to the world to preach, in this way God brought the world to Paul. In an ironic twist, they were the captives and Paul was free to preach.

1:18 in pretense or in truth. Whether the preaching was done for false motives or pure, whether for

To Live Is Christ

<sup>19</sup>For I know that this will turn out for my deliverance through your prayer and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, <sup>20</sup>according to my earnest expectation and hope that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but <sup>21</sup>with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life <sup>22</sup>or by death. <sup>21</sup>For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain. <sup>22</sup>But if I live on in the flesh, this will mean fruit from my labor; yet what I shall choose I cannot tell. <sup>23</sup>For* I am hard-pressed between the two, having a <sup>24</sup>desire to depart and be with Christ, which is <sup>25</sup>far better. <sup>24</sup>Nevertheless to remain in the flesh is more needful for you. <sup>25</sup>And being confident of this, I know that I shall remain and continue with you all for your progress and joy of faith, <sup>26</sup>that <sup>27</sup>your rejoicing for me may be more abundant in Jesus Christ by my coming to you again.

Striving and Suffering for Christ

<sup>27</sup>Only <sup>28</sup>let your conduct be worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of your appearance's sake or for the sake of what was right, Paul was pleased that the gospel was being spread.

1:19 deliverance. In the New Testament this word is used for physical healing, rescue from danger or death, justification, sanctification, and glorification.

1:20 be magnified. Paul was committed to ensuring that Christ would be made even more conspicuous in his own life than ever. He was not relying on himself to magnify Christ but looked to the Holy Spirit (v. 19) to magnify Christ in him (John 16:14).

1:21 Christ . . . gain. Paul would experience gain in his own death because he would be with Christ (v. 23). In fact, Paul may have been expressing his confidence that his imprisonment had furthered the gospel; God would also use his death to further His kingdom.

1:22 what I shall choose I cannot tell. Paul was in a dilemma because he clearly saw the advantages of both life and death, for the Christian life meant an opportunity to minister to people like the Philippians (v. 24), while death meant being with Christ his Savior.

1:25 your progress. Paul was not satisfied that the Philippian Christians should simply be saved, but that they should advance to maturity in Christ.

1:27 let your conduct. The word used could refer to discharging the obligations of a citizen. Because Philippi held the privileged status of a Roman colony, its citizens understood the responsibilities associated with citizenship. Paul here commanded them to shift their perspective from the earthly realm to the heavenly one. They should live in this world as citizens of another world, the heavenly kingdom. Their conduct should reveal their heavenly citizenship.

affairs, that you stand fast in one spirit, <sup>27</sup>with one mind <sup>28</sup>striving together for the faith of the gospel, <sup>29</sup>and not in any way terrified by your adversaries, which is to them a proof of perdition, but to you of salvation,* and that from God. <sup>29</sup>For to you <sup>30</sup>it has been granted on behalf of Christ, <sup>31</sup>not only to believe in Him, but also to <sup>32</sup>suffer for His sake, <sup>33</sup>having the same conflict <sup>34</sup>which you saw in me and now hear is in me.

Unity Through Humility

2 Therefore if there is any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any <sup>a</sup>affection and mercy, <sup>2b</sup>fulfill my joy <sup>c</sup>by being like-minded, having the same love, being of <sup>d</sup>one accord, of one mind. <sup>3e</sup>Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but <sup>f</sup>in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself. <sup>4g</sup>Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of <sup>h</sup>others.

The Humbled and Exalted Christ

<sup>5i</sup>Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup>who, <sup>7</sup>being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, <sup>7b</sup>but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form <sup>10</sup>of a bondservant, and <sup>m</sup>coming in the likeness of men. <sup>8</sup>And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and <sup>n</sup>became <sup>o</sup>obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross. <sup>9p</sup>Therefore God also <sup>q</sup>has highly exalted Him and <sup>r</sup>given Him the name which is above every name, <sup>10s</sup>that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth, <sup>11</sup>and <sup>t</sup>that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Light Bearers

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, my beloved, <sup>u</sup>as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, <sup>v</sup>work out your own salvation with <sup>w</sup>fear and trembling; <sup>13</sup>for <sup>x</sup>it is God who works in you both to will and to do <sup>y</sup>for His good pleasure.

<sup>14</sup>Do all things <sup>z</sup>without complaining

* 1:28 NU-Text reads of your salvation.

1:28 terrified. This word is a strong term that is used for the terror of a panicked horse. The Philippians are not to be terror-stricken in the face of their enemies.

1:29 to suffer for His sake. Suffering matures us as Christians in the present (James 1:2–4) and enables us to be glorified with Christ in the future (Rom. 8:17).

2:1 if . . . if . . . if. The conditional clauses in this verse indicate certainties, not “maybes.” Each if here expresses the idea of “since,” and each following clause may be considered to be true.

2:2 being like-minded. In this verse the apostle sets forth a fourfold appeal that expresses one major idea—namely, the unity of the church. Paul is strongly emphasizing the unity that should exist between believers and how they must single-mindedly strive together to advance the gospel of Jesus Christ.

2:3 esteem others better than himself. This verb indicates a thorough analysis of the facts in order to reach a correct conclusion about the matter. In other words, each Philippian Christian was to properly assess himself or herself. Such an assessment would lead to valuing others.

2:5 Let this mind. All godly action begins with the renewing of the mind. Right thinking produces right actions. Our actions are the fruit of our deepest thoughts. in you. Thinking and being like Christ are requirements not only for an individual but also for the corporate body of believers. Together, we need to think and act like one being, like the Person of Jesus Christ.

2:6 did not consider it robbery. Because Christ was God, He did not look on sharing God’s nature as “robbery,” as though He did not already possess it, or as “a thing to be retained,” as though He might lose it.

2:7 made Himself of no reputation. Christ did this by taking on the form of a servant. In doing this, He did not empty Himself of any part of His essence as God. Instead, He gave up His privileges as God and took upon Himself existence as a man. While remaining completely God, He became completely human.

form. Jesus added to His divine essence (v. 6) a servant’s essence, that is, the essential characteristics of a human being seeking to fulfill the will of another. Paul does not say that Christ exchanged the form of God for the form of a servant, involving a loss of deity or the attributes of deity. Rather, in the incarnation, Christ continued in the very nature of God but added to Himself the nature of a servant.

2:8 He humbled Himself. Jesus willingly took the role of a servant; no one forced Him to do it. obedient. Although He never sinned and did not deserve to die, He chose to die so that the sins of the world could be charged to His account. Subsequently, He could credit His righteousness to the account of all who believe in Him (2 Cor. 5:21; Gal. 1:4). even the death of the cross. Paul describes the depths of Christ’s humiliation by reminding his readers that Christ died by the cruelest form of capital punishment, crucifixion. The Jews viewed death on a cross as a curse from God (Deut. 21:23; Gal. 3:13).

2:11 confess. The term Paul uses is a strong, intensive verb, which means “agree with” or “say the same thing.” Essentially Paul is saying that everyone will unanimously affirm what God the Father has already stated (Is. 45:23): that Jesus Christ is Lord.

2:12 work out. The Greek term speaks of the present deliverance of the Philippians. The word translated work out is used by a first century author to speak of digging silver out of silver mines. Thus, salvation and <sup>a</sup>disputing, <sup>15</sup>that you may become blameless and harmless, children of God without fault in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you shine as <sup>b</sup>lights in the world, <sup>16</sup>holding fast the word of life, so that <sup>c</sup>I may rejoice in the day of Christ that <sup>d</sup>I have not run in vain or labored in <sup>e</sup>vain.

<sup>17</sup>Yes, and if <sup>f</sup>I am being poured out as a drink offering on the sacrifice <sup>g</sup>and service of your faith, <sup>h</sup>I am glad and rejoice with you all. <sup>18</sup>For the same reason you also be glad and rejoice with me.

Timothy Commended

<sup>19</sup>But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send <sup>i</sup>Timothy to you shortly, that I also may be encouraged when I know your state. <sup>20</sup>For I have no one <sup>j</sup>like-minded, who will sincerely care for your state. <sup>21</sup>For all seek their own, not the things which are of Christ Jesus. <sup>22</sup>But you know his proven character, <sup>k</sup>that as a son with his father he served with me in the gospel. <sup>23</sup>Therefore I hope to send him at once, as soon as I see how it goes with me. <sup>24</sup>But I trust in the Lord that I myself shall also come shortly.

Epaphroditus Praised

need; <sup>26</sup>since he was longing for you all, and was distressed because you had heard that he was sick. <sup>27</sup>For indeed he was sick almost unto death; but God had mercy on him, and not only on him but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow. <sup>28</sup>Therefore I sent him the more eagerly, that when you see him again you may rejoice, and I may be less sorrowful. <sup>29</sup>Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness, and hold such men in esteem; <sup>30</sup>because for the work of Christ he came close to death, not regarding his life, <sup>q</sup>to supply what was lacking in your service toward me.

All for Christ

3 Finally, my brethren, <sup>a</sup>rejoice in the Lord. For me to write the same things to you is not tedious, but for you it is safe.

can be compared to a huge gift that needs to be unwrapped for one's thorough enjoyment. Note that Paul is encouraging the Philippians to develop and work out their salvation, but not to work for their salvation.

2:15 crooked and perverse generation. Paul describes the world as being the opposite of Christian. On the one hand, the world is turned away from the truth, while on the other hand, it exerts a corrupting influence that is opposed to the truth.

2:17 poured out. Paul was probably saying that he was presently being offered as a living sacrifice on behalf of the faith of the Philippians. sacrifice. This means primarily the act of offering something to God.

2:19 Timothy. He had accompanied Paul on his second missionary journey, during which time they had established the church at Philippi. Timothy was apparently well loved by the Philippians, and he in turn exhibited a great concern for them.

2:22 as a son with his father. In New Testament times a son who served his father did so to learn the family trade. Serving in this way meant learning all about the business and being willing to obey the teacher in order to become as skillful as possible in the work.

2:25 Epaphroditus. He was a Philippian Christian sent by the church in Philippi to take a gift to Paul and to assist Paul in his ministry.

2:27 sick almost unto death. Paul was making certain that the Philippians understood the effort that Epaphroditus had made for the cause of Christ. His condition had been far worse than perhaps they had imagined. Paul viewed Epaphroditus's healing as God's direct intervention.

3:2 Beware of dogs. In New Testament times, dogs were hated scavengers. The term came to be used for all who had morally impure minds. the mutilation. Paul here points sarcastically and specifically to those who desire to reinstate Jewish religious practices as necessary for salvation. He chooses a term that literally means "to cut." By doing so, he suggests that these people do not even understand the truth about the Old Testament practice of circumcision.

3:3 the circumcision. Paul defines this as a matter of the heart and not of the flesh. He reveals three aspects: (1) worshiping God in the Spirit; (2) rejoicing in Christ; and (3) placing no confidence in any human honor or accomplishment as a means to reach God.

3:5 eighth day. Paul's parents obeyed God's law and had Paul circumcised on the appropriate day after his birth (Lev. 12:2–3). tribe of Benjamin. This tribe was highly regarded because it had produced the first king of Israel and had remained loyal to David.

Hebrew of the Hebrews. This description of Paul may indicate that (1) both his parents were Jews, (2) he was a model Jew, or (3) he was educated completely as a Jew. Pharisee. They rigorously followed and defended the letter of the Jewish law.

<sup>7</sup>But <sup>m</sup>what things were gain to me, these I have counted loss for Christ. <sup>8</sup>Yet indeed I also count all things loss <sup>n</sup>for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as rubbish, that I may gain Christ <sup>9</sup>and be found in Him, not having <sup>o</sup>my own righteousness, which is from the law, but <sup>p</sup>that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith; <sup>10</sup>that I may know Him and the <sup>q</sup>power of His resurrection, and <sup>r</sup>the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death, <sup>11</sup>if, by any means, I may <sup>s</sup>attain to the resurrection from the dead.

Pressing Toward the Goal

<sup>12</sup>Not that I have already <sup>t</sup>attained, or am already <sup>u</sup>perfected; but I press on, that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me. <sup>13</sup>Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, <sup>v</sup>forgetting those things which are behind and <sup>w</sup>reaching forward to those things which are ahead, <sup>14</sup>xI press toward the goal for the prize of <sup>y</sup>the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore let us, as many as are <sup>z</sup>mature, <sup>a</sup>have this mind; and if in anything you think otherwise, <sup>b</sup>God will reveal even this to you. <sup>16</sup>Nevertheless, to the degree that we have already attained, <sup>c</sup>let us walk <sup>d</sup>by the same rule,* let us be of the same mind.

Our Citizenship in Heaven

<sup>17</sup>Brethren, <sup>e</sup>join in following my example, and note those who so walk, as <sup>f</sup>you have us for a pattern. <sup>18</sup>For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are <sup>g</sup>the enemies of the cross of Christ: <sup>19</sup>hwhose end is destruction, <sup>i</sup>whose god is their belly, and <sup>j</sup>whose glory is in their shame—<sup>k</sup>who set their mind on earthly things. <sup>20</sup>For <sup>l</sup>our citizenship is in heaven, <sup>m</sup>from which we also <sup>n</sup>eagerly wait for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>21</sup>owho will transform our lowly body that it may be <sup>p</sup>conformed to His glorious body, <sup>q</sup>according to the working by which He is able even to <sup>r</sup>subdue all things to Himself.

4 Therefore, my beloved and <sup>a</sup>longed-for brethren, <sup>b</sup>my joy and crown, so <sup>c</sup>stand fast in the Lord, beloved.

Be United, Joyful, and in Prayer

<sup>21</sup>I implore Euodia and I implore Syntyche <sup>d</sup>to be of the same mind in the Lord. <sup>3</sup>And* I urge you also, true companion, * 3:16 NU-Text omits rule and the rest of the verse.

* 4:3 NU-Text and M-Text read Yes.

3:7 loss. This word indicates that which is damaged or of no further use (v. 8). Those things that Paul thought to be important became unimportant after confronting the resurrected Messiah.

3:8 rubbish. This word means anything that is detestable or worthless. All things of this world are dung compared to Christ. Even our righteousness is like filthy rags (Is. 64:6).

3:10 power of His resurrection. Paul does not say the power “in” His resurrection, which would specify the power of the one-time event of His resurrection. Rather, Paul seeks the ongoing power that is the day-to-day experience of being in Christ. fellowship of His sufferings. Paul sees the value of participating in the persecutions or struggles that naturally accompany one who is in partnership with Christ and His sufferings. being conformed to His death. Paul desires to imitate Christ—even in His death. In other words, Paul wants to be completely obedient to God the Father, just as Jesus was obedient to His Father’s will (Luke 22:42).

3:12 perfected. The Greek term means mature or complete, finished. It does not specifically mean a moral or sinless perfection. Paul is not speaking of moral perfection or righteousness but of reaching the state of completion as a Christian. lay hold. This phrase adds the idea of overtaking by surprise to the sense of seizing some object. Paul urgently wants to “grab hold of” God as God had laid hold of him.

3:13 forgetting. Paul was indicating that it is an ongoing process. He might even be implying that he wanted to forget everything so that he would not rest on his past successes in Christ, but continue to labor for the Lord.

3:16 let us walk. Paul commands the Philippians to conduct themselves as soldiers who “march in line” together, organized each in his proper position.

3:17 example. The word indicates an exact representation of the original. The example of Paul’s life is so evident that one can readily see it and use it as a pattern for living.

3:19 glory is in their shame. The things in which they take pride actually are the things that will bring disgrace or humiliation to them, things of which they should have been ashamed.

3:20 citizenship is in heaven. Here Paul presents a direct contrast to the earthly focus of enemies of the cross in verse 19. The eager desire of Christians is not earthly things, but a heavenly Person, the Savior.

3:21 conformed to His glorious body. Our bodies now are weak and susceptible to sin, disease, and death. But God will change our bodies to resemble Christ’s glorious resurrection body.

4:2 Euodia . . . Syntyche. What is written here is all that is known about the two women and their dispute. Paul does not take sides in the argument, but instead encourages them to be reconciled.

help these women who <sup>e</sup>labored with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in <sup>f</sup>the Book of Life.

<sup>6</sup>Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with <sup>i</sup>thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; <sup>7</sup>and <sup>k</sup>the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Meditate on These Things

Philippian Generosity

<sup>10</sup>But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at last <sup>r</sup>your care for me has flourished again; though you surely did care, but you lacked opportunity. <sup>11</sup>Not that I speak in regard to need, for I have learned in whatever state I am, <sup>s</sup>to be content: <sup>12</sup><sup>t</sup>I know how to be abased, and I know how to abound. Everywhere and in all things I have learned both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. <sup>13</sup>I can do all things <sup>u</sup>through Christ* who strengthens me.

<sup>14</sup>Nevertheless you have done well that <sup>v</sup>you shared in my distress. <sup>15</sup>Now you Philippians know also that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, <sup>w</sup>no church shared with me concerning giving and receiving but you only. <sup>16</sup>For even in Thessalonica you sent aid once and again for my necessities. <sup>17</sup>Not that I seek the gift, but I seek <sup>x</sup>the fruit that abounds to your account. <sup>18</sup>Indeed I have all and abound. I am full, having received from <sup>y</sup>Epaphroditus the things sent from you, <sup>z</sup>a sweet-smelling aroma, <sup>a</sup>an acceptable sacrifice, well pleasing to God. <sup>19</sup>And my God <sup>b</sup>shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. <sup>20c</sup>Now to our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Greeting and Blessing

<sup>23</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.* Amen.

* 4:13 NU-Text reads Him who. * 4:23 NU-Text reads your spirit.

4:4 Rejoice in the Lord. The joy of Christians is not based on agreeable circumstances; instead, it is based on their relationship to God. Christians will face trouble in this world, but they should rejoice in the trials they face because they know God is using those situations to improve their character.

4:6 Be anxious for nothing. Paul prohibits the Philippians from worrying about their own problems. Instead, they are to commit their problems to God in prayer, trusting that He will provide deliverance.

4:7 will guard. Paul's choice of a military term "guard" implies that the mind is in a battle zone and needs to be protected by a "military guard" since the purpose of such a guard in a wartime situation is either to prevent a hostile invasion or to keep the inhabitants of a besieged city from escaping.

4:9 learned. This verb conveys not only the concept of "increasing in intellectual knowledge," but also the idea of "learning by habitual practice." In some areas of their Christian development, the Philippians had been excellent disciples of Paul, practicing what he had taught.

4:11 content. The word literally means "self-sufficient." In Stoic philosophy this Greek word described a person who dispassionately accepted whatever circumstances brought. For the Greeks, this contentment came from personal sufficiency. But for Paul, true sufficiency is found in the strength of Christ.

4:17 account. Paul uses business terminology. The Philippians' gift was producing spiritual profit, just as money deposited in a bank account accrues interest. But Paul was not as concerned with their gift as with the development in the Philippians of the spiritual ability to give.

4:20 Amen. The Jewish practice of closing prayers with the word amen carried over to the Christian church as well. When found at the end of a sentence, as it is here, the word can be translated "so be it" or "may it be fulfilled." At the beginning of a sentence, it means "surely," "truly," or "most assuredly."

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS

► AUTHOR: The external testimony to the Pauline authorship of Colossians is ancient and consistent, and the internal evidence is also very good. It not only claims to be written by Paul (1:1,23; 4:18), but the personal details and close parallels with Ephesians and Philemon make the case even stronger. It is evident from 1:4–8 and 2:1 that Paul had never visited the church at Colosse, which was founded by Epaphras. On his third missionary journey, Paul devoted almost three years to an Asian ministry centered in Ephesus (Acts 19:10; 20:31), and Epaphras probably came to Christ during this time. He then carried the gospel to cities like Colosse in the Lycus Valley. Epaphras visited Paul in prison (4:12) and his report concerning the church in Colosse prompted this epistle.

► TIME: c. A.D. 60–61

► KEY VERSES: Col. 2:9–10

► THEME: The problem of the Colossian church was similar to what we experience in many churches today. This is often called syncretism, the tendency to regard other philosophies and religions as equally valid as Christianity. The people in Colosse wanted to believe Christian truth, but they also wanted to hang on to their old beliefs by blending them with the gospel. Paul's purpose in this letter is to settle once and for all the issue of Christ's centrality and supremacy. He writes to restore Jesus, the Messiah, to the center of these believers' lives. Here we can see Paul's unwavering confidence in the incomparability of Christ, as it has completely shaped his views on all of life. He writes to introduce the Colossians to this same vision.

Greeting

1 Paul, <sup>a</sup>an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

<sup>c</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.*

Their Faith in Christ

<sup>3d</sup>We give thanks to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, <sup>4e</sup>since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of <sup>f</sup>your love for all the saints; <sup>5b</sup>because of the hope <sup>g</sup>which is laid up for you in heaven, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel, <sup>6h</sup>which has come to you, <sup>7a</sup>as it is also among you since the day you heard and knew <sup>i</sup>the grace of God in truth; <sup>7a</sup>as you also learned from <sup>k</sup>Epaphras, our dear fellow servant, who is <sup>7a</sup>a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf, <sup>8h</sup>who also declared to us your <sup>m</sup>love in the Spirit.

Preeminence of Christ

<sup>9n</sup>For this reason we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you,

* 1:2 NU-Text omits and the Lord Jesus Christ.

* 1:6 NU-Text and M-Text add and growing.

1:1 an apostle. Paul calls himself an apostle, a word whose root means “to send.” The Greek word was first used for a cargo ship or fleet, but later denoted a commander of a fleet. The New Testament employs the word to signify an approved spokesman sent as a personal representative.

1:2 saints. The Greek term means “holy people.” The essence of “holiness” is being set apart to God. All believers are saints, not because they are perfect, but because they belong to God. in Christ. This is a favorite expression of the apostle Paul, used some 80 times in his letters.

1:4–8 faith . . . love . . . hope. Paul often uses these three terms together (Rom. 5:2–5; 1 Cor. 13:13;

1 Thess. 1:3; 5:8). Faith is in Christ. Love flows from faith and proves the genuineness of one's faith (James 2:14–26). Hope refers to the result of faith, the treasure laid up in heaven.

1:9 all wisdom and spiritual understanding. Wisdom is the practical outworking of knowledge (James 3:17), and that knowledge cannot be separated from the spiritual understanding that comes through the discernment given by the Holy Spirit.

1:10 walk worthy of the Lord. Paul wanted the Colossians to live in a manner that adequately reflected what God had done for them and was doing in them. Being "worthy of God" is a phrase that occurs in ancient pagan inscriptions throughout Asia. It pictures someone's life being weighed on scales to determine its worth.

1:12 qualified us. This means to be able or qualified for a task. Believers can never be qualified on their own; instead, God must make them sufficient through Jesus Christ. The tense of the verb points to "qualifying" as an act in the past rather than a process.

1:13 delivered . . . conveyed. God has liberated believers from the dominion of darkness. The apostle uses the common symbolism of light and darkness for good and evil, for God's kingdom and Satan's kingdom, that is found throughout the New Testament. The kingdom from which believers have been rescued is the kingdom of darkness.

1:14 redemption. The Greek word points naturally to the payment of a price or ransom for the release of a slave. They are freed from bondage to sin by forgiveness through the blood of Jesus (Eph. 1:7).

1:15 firstborn over all creation. Verses 15–20 are thought to be an early Christian hymn celebrating the supremacy of Christ. Firstborn could denote a priority in time or in rank. The word does not describe Christ as the first being created in time because the hymn proclaims that all things were "created by Him" and that "He is before all things." Being firstborn referred more to rank and privilege than to order of birth.

1:16 All things were created through Him and for Him. Not only did Jesus create all things, everything was created for His purposes (Heb. 1:2, where Christ is said to be the "heir of all things").

1:18 head of the body. No one should underestimate the significance of the church, for it is in fact Christ's body. The sovereign Creator of the universe, as Head of the church, provides leadership and oversight over it.

1:19 fullness. The opponents of Paul, and later the Greek Gnostics, seem to have used this word as a technical term for the sphere between heaven and earth where a hierarchy of angels lived. The Gnostics <sup>17</sup>And He is before all things, and in Him <sup>i</sup>all things consist. <sup>18</sup>And <sup>j</sup>He is the head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, <sup>k</sup>the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He may have the preeminence.

Reconciled in Christ

viewed Christ as one of many spirits existing in this hierarchy between God and all people. However, Paul used the term fullness to refer to the complete embodiment of God.

1:20–22 Jesus Pays the Price. Salvation is a free gift, but it is not a cheap one. It costs us nothing, but it cost God dearly—it cost Jesus His life. In physically dying on the cross, Jesus sacrificed Himself and satisfied the debt that we had incurred through sin, so that it is possible for God and man to be reconciled. As Jesus hung on the cross, He cried, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?" (Matt. 27:46). Jesus was separated from God the Father so that we do not have to be. This is the heart of the atonement (becoming at one with God). The marvel of it all is that He did this while we were His enemies: "But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us" (Rom. 5:8).

1:20–21 reconcile all things. This phrase shows the significance of Christ's work on the cross. It does not mean that all people will be saved, since many passages clearly say that unbelievers will suffer eternal separation from God (Matt. 25:46).

1:22 holy, and blameless, and above reproach. We who were once enemies of God and alienated by our own wicked works will one day be presented as above reproach on account of Christ's death for us.

1:23 if indeed you continue in the faith. The perseverance of the Colossians was proof of the reconciling work of Christ on their behalf. every creature under heaven. Paul uses this exaggeration to illustrate the rapid spread of the gospel. Compare Acts 17:6 where the apostles are said to have turned the world upside down, even though their ministry, up to that point, moved away from the hope of the gospel which you heard, <sup>x</sup>which was preached to every creature under heaven, <sup>y</sup>of which I, Paul, became a minister.

Sacrificial Service for Christ

Not Philosophy but Christ

2 For I want you to know what a great <sup>a</sup>conflict I have for you and those in Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh, <sup>2</sup>that their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love, and attaining to all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the knowledge of the mystery of God, both of the Father and* of Christ, <sup>3b</sup>in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

deceive you with persuasive words. <sup>5</sup>For <sup>d</sup>though I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see <sup>e</sup>your good order and the <sup>f</sup>steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

<sup>6g</sup>As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, <sup>7h</sup>rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it* with thanksgiving.

<sup>8</sup>Beware lest anyone cheat you through philosophy and empty deceit, according to <sup>i</sup>the tradition of men, according to the <sup>j</sup>basic principles of the world, and not according to Christ. <sup>9</sup>For <sup>k</sup>in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily; <sup>10</sup>and you are complete in Him, who is the <sup>l</sup>head of all principality and power.

Not Legalism but Christ

had been limited to a small portion of the eastern Mediterranean region.

1:24 my sufferings for you. Paul is making the point that a Christian will endure the sufferings that Christ would be enduring if He were still in the world (2 Cor. 1:5; 4:11).

1:26–27 mystery. In Greek pagan religions, a mystery was a secret teaching reserved for a few spiritual teachers who had been initiated into an inner circle. Paul uses the word to refer to knowledge that had been “hidden from ages and from generations” but was now being revealed by God. The mystery is that Christ now lives within Gentile believers.

2:1 Laodicea. It was a sister city of Colosse about 11 miles away. The two churches were to share their letters from Paul.

2:2–3 the knowledge of the mystery of God. Paul reminds the Colossians that true knowledge will be acknowledged by bringing people together in Christian love in the church. The Gnostics thought only certain “knowledgeable” people could join their elite group; Paul teaches that every believer has access to complete wisdom found in Christ.

2:8 philosophy. This verse has been used at times to teach that Christians should not study or read philosophy. This is not Paul’s meaning. Paul himself was adept at philosophy, evidenced by his interaction with the Stoic and Epicurean philosophers in Athens (Acts 17:1–34). Paul was warning the believers not to be taken in by any philosophy that does not conform to a proper knowledge of Christ. The false teachers at Colosse had combined worldly philosophies with the gospel.

2:9 dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily. In this verse Paul clearly proclaims the incarnation, the fact that God became a man bodily. This contradicts the Gnostic idea of the inherent evil of physical bodies and the claim that Jesus is merely a spirit.

2:10 you are complete. Paul emphasizes the sufficiency of Christ in order to refute the Gnostics and the Judaizers who respectively believed that special knowledge or works were necessary to make a Christian complete.

2:12–13 buried with Him in baptism. Baptism is the symbol of the believer’s association with Christ’s death on the cross. Water baptism itself does not bring forgiveness of sins, but Paul uses the rite to help explain the work of the Spirit. The early church would never have understood the idea of an unbaptized Christian.

it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross. <sup>15</sup>Having disarmed <sup>1</sup>principalities and powers, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them in it.

<sup>16</sup>So let no one <sup>1</sup>judge you in food or in drink, or regarding a festival or a new moon or sabbaths, <sup>17</sup>which are a shadow of things to come, but the substance is of Christ. <sup>18</sup>Let no one cheat you of your reward, taking delight in false humility and worship of angels, intruding into those things which he has not* seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, <sup>19</sup>and not holding fast to <sup>1</sup>the Head, from whom all the body, nourished and knit together by joints and ligaments, <sup>20</sup>grows with the increase that is from God.

Not Carnality but Christ

Character of the New Man

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, <sup>v</sup>as the elect of God, holy and beloved, <sup>w</sup>put on tender mercies, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering; <sup>13x</sup>bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if anyone has a complaint against another; even as Christ forgave you, so you also must do. <sup>14y</sup>But above all these things <sup>2</sup>put on love, which is the <sup>z</sup>bond of perfection. <sup>15</sup>And let <sup>b</sup>the peace of God rule in your hearts, <sup>c</sup>to which also you were called <sup>d</sup>in one body; and <sup>e</sup>be thankful. <sup>16</sup>Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another <sup>f</sup>in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. <sup>17</sup>And <sup>g</sup>whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

* 2:18 NU-Text omits not. * 2:20 NU-Text and M-Text omit Therefore.

2:15 principalities and powers. These words allude to Satan and the fallen angels. Paul is describing Christ's victory on the cross over the powers that opposed Him and that were against God's faithful people. To describe this victory, Paul uses the spectacle of the military triumph, when prisoners of war were stripped and paraded before the populace behind the conquering general.

2:16–19 false humility. People who do not champion salvation in Christ alone often appear to be humble. But their search for a new spiritual experience or advocacy of some work as necessary for salvation is actually human pride. They do not want to submit to God's plan of salvation.

2:20–23 subject yourselves to regulations. Since believers have been released from ritualistic observances, why should they let others bind them down again (Rom. 6:3–14)? No human work can be added to the merit of Christ's death. His work on the cross is the only acceptable work in God's eyes.

3:1–4 Set your mind on things above. The false teachers were instructing the Colossians to concentrate on temporal observances; in contrast, Paul instructs them to concentrate on the eternal realities of heaven. The Greek verb for set emphasizes an ongoing decision. Christians must continually discipline themselves to focus on eternal realities instead of the temporal realities of this earth.

3:9–10 old man . . . new man. These two terms do not refer to the Christian's fleshly and spiritual natures. Instead, Paul describes our former unredeemed life as the old man and our life as God's child as the new man. The new man has the image of the new creation in Christ, just as the old man bears the image of our fallen nature. The old man is under an old master, Satan, while the new man has a new master, the Spirit of God living within.

3:11 barbarian. In the Roman Empire a person who did not speak Greek was despised. Scythian. An

The Christian Home

<sup>22o</sup>Bondservants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh, not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers, but in sincerity of heart, fearing God. <sup>23p</sup>And whatever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not to men, <sup>24q</sup>knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance; <sup>r</sup>for* you serve the Lord Christ. <sup>25</sup>But he who does wrong will be repaid for what he has done, and <sup>s</sup>there is no partiality.

4 Masters,<sup>a</sup> give your bondservants what is just and fair, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.

Christian Graces

<sup>5h</sup>Walk in <sup>i</sup>wisdom toward those who are outside, <sup>j</sup>redeeming the time. <sup>6</sup>Let your speech always be <sup>k</sup>with grace, <sup>l</sup>seasoned with salt, <sup>m</sup>that you may know how you ought to answer each one.

Final Greetings

<sup>7n</sup>Tychicus, a beloved brother, faithful minister, and fellow servant in the Lord, will tell you all the news about me. <sup>8o</sup>I am sending him to you for this very purpose, that he* may know your circumstances and comfort your hearts, <sup>9w</sup>with <sup>v</sup>Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will make known to you all things which are happening here.

<sup>10q</sup>Aristarchus my fellow prisoner greets you, with <sup>r</sup>Mark the cousin of Barnabas (about whom you received instructions: if he comes to you, welcome him), <sup>11</sup>and Jesus who is called Justus. These are my only fellow workers for the kingdom of God who are of the circumcision; they have proved to be a comfort to me.

<sup>12s</sup>Epaphras, who is one of you, a bondservant of Christ, greets you, always <sup>t</sup>laboring fervently for you in prayers, that you may stand <sup>u</sup>perfect and complete* in all the will of God. <sup>13</sup>For I bear him witness that he has a great zeal* for you, and those who are in Laodicea, and those in Hierapolis. <sup>14v</sup>Luke the beloved physician and <sup>w</sup>Demas greet you. <sup>15</sup>Greet the brethren who are in Laodicea, and Nymphas and <sup>x</sup>the church that is in his* house.

Closing Exhortations and Blessing

<sup>18b</sup>This salutation by my own hand—Paul. <sup>c</sup>Remember my chains. Grace be with you. Amen.

uncultured person who came from the area around the Black Sea.

3:18–23 submit. See notes at Ephesians 5:19–31.

3:22–25 the reward of the inheritance. The strong motivation to serve someone well is found in the future reward that Christ gives to those who are faithful in this service. We normally think we receive eternal rewards for spiritual practices like reading the Bible, prayer, or evangelism. Here, Paul asserts that all work done to the honor of Christ will bring an eternal reward (1:22–23; 2:18).

4:5 Walk in wisdom toward those who are outside. Early Christians were often viewed with suspicion, distrust, and disdain. They were considered atheists because they would not worship the gods of Rome and Greece. Many labeled them as unpatriotic because they would not burn incense before the image of the emperor. Some even accused the early Christians of participating in orgies because of their talk of "love feasts" (Jude 12). Others harbored suspicions that Christians were really cannibals who ate and drank the blood and body of the Lord. With such misrepresentations of Christian belief and practice running rampant, it was very important for misunderstandings to be dispelled by the virtuous and impeccable lives of Christian believers.

4:9 Onesimus. This slave of Philemon probably accompanied Tychicus to Colosse. Paul's letter to Philemon would have been carried along with the letter to the Colossians. It dealt with a personal situation between Onesimus and his master.

4:10–15 Mark. This is the author of the Gospel of Mark.

4:18 This salutation by my own hand. The apostle dictated his letters to a secretary, but it was his custom to give a greeting in his own handwriting at the end (2 Thess. 2:1; 3:17). This served to personalize and authenticate the letter.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS

► AUTHOR: First Thessalonians went unchallenged as a Pauline epistle until the nineteenth century, when radical critics claimed that its lack of doctrinal content made its authenticity suspect. But this is a weak objection on two counts: (1) the proportion of doctrinal teaching in Paul's epistles varies widely, and (2) 4:13–5:11 is a foundational passage for New Testament eschatology (future events). Paul had quickly grounded the Thessalonians in Christian doctrine, and the only problematic issue when this epistle was written concerned the matter of Christ's return. Paul planted the Thessalonian church on his second missionary journey, and wrote this epistle as a response to a good report regarding the church from Timothy in A.D. 51.

► TIME: c. A.D. 51    ► KEY VERSES: 1 Thess. 3:12–13

► THEME: Since Paul's time in Thessalonica was cut short, Paul used these letters to clarify some of his teaching. After a review of the basics, the primary issues covered in 1 Thessalonians are what happens when people die and the timing of the second coming of Christ. In that there were so many people around at that time that had seen Jesus, the promise of His return was met with anxious expectation. We tend to be blasé about it because we have watched so many predictions concerning the end times come and go, but this book will help us to sharpen and renew our expectations.

Greeting

1 Paul, <sup>a</sup>Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the <sup>b</sup>Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.*

Their Good Example

<sup>2c</sup>We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers, <sup>3</sup>remembering without ceasing <sup>d</sup>your work of faith, <sup>e</sup>labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ in the sight of our God and Father, <sup>4</sup>knowing, beloved brethren, <sup>f</sup>your election by God. <sup>5</sup>For <sup>g</sup>our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power, <sup>h</sup>and in the Holy Spirit <sup>i</sup>and in much assurance, as you know what kind of men we were among you for your sake.

* 1:1 NU-Text omits from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

1:1 Silvanus. Silvanus is the Roman form of the name Silas. After Paul had separated from Barnabas (Acts 15:36–40), Silas became Paul's traveling companion on the second missionary journey, and he may have served as Paul's secretary. He was a leader of the Jerusalem church (Acts 15:22–23), and he accompanied Paul and Barnabas to Antioch to deliver the decree of the Jerusalem council (Acts 15:22–23). He and Paul suffered a beating at Philippi (Acts 16:22–24), and he had helped found the church at Thessalonica (Acts 17:1–4). Timothy. Timothy was also with Paul on the second missionary journey. Paul considered him like a son and loved him dearly (Acts 16:3; 1 Tim. 1:2). This letter is a response to Timothy's report from the church in Thessalonica. To the church. The Greek word ekklesia was a familiar term meaning any gathering or assembly. In its New Testament usage this word calls to mind the relationship of believers in Thessalonica as a body.

1:3 patience of hope. The believers at Thessalonica fixed their hope solidly on the return of Jesus Christ

(v. 10). Notice that each of the virtues has Christ as its object. Jesus is constantly the focus. This is a good standard for evaluating any Christian service.

1:5 our gospel. Paul had preached the gospel to them clearly when he was with them. For three weeks he had "reasoned with them from the Scriptures, explaining and demonstrating that the Christ had to suffer and rise again from the dead" (Acts 17:2–3). This message was far different from the messianic expectations that Paul knew from his own training as a Pharisee. The Jews of that day were not looking for a suffering savior but a conquering champion.

1:5 Sharing Our Faith—In order to share our faith successfully, we must keep the following rules in mind:

Paul's Conduct

2 For you yourselves know, brethren, that our coming to you was not in vain. <sup>2</sup>But even* after we had suffered before and were spitefully treated at <sup>r</sup>Philippi, as you know, we were <sup>b</sup>bold in our God to speak to you the gospel of God in much conflict. <sup>3</sup>cFor our exhortation did not come from error or uncleanness, nor was it in deceit.

<sup>4</sup>But as <sup>d</sup>we have been approved by God <sup>e</sup>to be entrusted with the gospel, even so we speak, <sup>f</sup>not as pleasing men, but God <sup>g</sup>who tests our hearts. <sup>5</sup>For <sup>h</sup>neither at any time did we use flattering words, as you know, nor a cloak for covetousness—<sup>i</sup>God is witness. <sup>6</sup>Nor did we seek glory from men, either from you or from others, when <sup>k</sup>we might have <sup>l</sup>made demands <sup>m</sup>as apostles of Christ. <sup>7</sup>But <sup>n</sup>we were gentle among you, just as a nursing mother cherishes her own children. <sup>8</sup>So, affectionately longing for you, we were well pleased <sup>o</sup>to impart to you not only the gospel of God, but also <sup>p</sup>our own lives, because you had become dear to us. <sup>9</sup>For you remember, brethren, our <sup>q</sup>labor and toil; for laboring night and day, <sup>r</sup>that we might not be a burden to any of you, we preached to you the gospel of God.

<sup>10</sup>sYou are witnesses, and God also, <sup>t</sup>how devoutly and justly and blamelessly we behaved ourselves among you who believe; <sup>11</sup>as you know how we exhorted, and comforted, and charged* every one of you, as a father does his own children, <sup>12</sup>uthat you would walk worthy of God <sup>v</sup>who calls you into His own kingdom and glory.

Their Conversion

<sup>13</sup>For this reason we also thank God <sup>w</sup>without ceasing, because when you <sup>x</sup>received the word of God which you heard from us, you welcomed it <sup>y</sup>not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which also effectively <sup>z</sup>works in you who believe. <sup>14</sup>For you, brethren, became imitators <sup>a</sup>of the churches of God which are in Judea in Christ Jesus. For <sup>b</sup>you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, just as they did from the Judeans, <sup>15</sup>cwho killed both the Lord Jesus and <sup>d</sup>their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they do not please God <sup>e</sup>and

* 2:2 NU-Text and M-Text omit even. * 2:11 NU-Text and M-Text read implored.

First, we must be clean vessels. God reminds Isaiah the prophet of this: "Be clean, you who bear the vessels of the LORD" (Is. 52:11). David prays for forgiveness and cleansing, and a willing spirit. He states, "Then I will teach transgressors Your ways, and sinners shall be converted to You (Ps. 51:13).

We must be able to clearly give out the simple facts of the gospel without getting bogged down with profound theological concepts. Philip the evangelist demonstrated how to do this when he dealt with the Ethiopian eunuch in the desert. "Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning at this Scripture, preached Jesus to him" (Acts 8:35).

We must avoid arguments and stick to the basic issues of man's sin and Christ's sacrifice.

We must use the Word of God. Paul's tremendous success as an evangelist can be linked directly to his constant use of God's Word (Acts 17:2; 18:28; 2 Tim. 2:15; 3:14–17).

We must depend upon the Spirit of God (John 3:15; Acts 6:10; 1 Cor. 2:4).

1:6 followers of us. As we focus on Jesus we will reflect His image to others (2 Cor. 3:18).

1:8 sounded forth. Since Thessalonica was a port city on the much-traveled Egnatian Way, those who saw the virtuous life and persistent faith of the Thessalonian Christians would spread the word throughout the entire region.

1:10 delivers us from the wrath to come. Because Christ endured God's wrath at Calvary, all who are in Christ will escape that wrath. They have nothing to fear.

2:2 at Philippi. Paul and Silas were beaten and put in the stocks in Philippi (Acts 16:22–24).

2:5 flattering words. Far from flattering, Paul preached boldly that everyone was a sinner who needed to be saved by the grace of God.

2:9 labor. This word indicates strenuous work that produces weariness. Paul made tents to provide for his financial needs (Acts 18:3), showing that his ministry was motivated by an unselfish desire to promote the well-being of others rather than to advance his own needs.

2:13 effectively works. Gentile Christians in Thessalonica could contrast the pure Word of God, with its transforming effect, with the immoral pagan religions, which only perverted people even more. Likewise, Jewish believers could contrast the love and grace of God in the gospel to the legalism and pride often produced by the Jewish religion.

are contrary to all men, <sup>16</sup>forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved, so as always <sup>a</sup>to fill up the measure of their sins; <sup>b</sup>but wrath has come upon them to the uttermost.

Longing to See Them

<sup>17</sup>But we, brethren, having been taken away from you for a short time <sup>i</sup>in presence, not in heart, endeavored more eagerly to see your face with great desire. <sup>18</sup>Therefore we wanted to come to you—even I, Paul, time and again—but <sup>j</sup>Satan hindered us. <sup>19</sup>For <sup>k</sup>what is our hope, or joy, or <sup>l</sup>crown of rejoicing? Is it not even you in the <sup>m</sup>presence of our Lord Jesus Christ <sup>n</sup>at His coming? <sup>20</sup>For you are our glory and joy.

Concern for Their Faith

3 Therefore, when we could no longer endure it, we thought it good to be left in Athens alone, <sup>2</sup>and sent <sup>a</sup>Timothy, our brother and minister of God, and our fellow laborer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you and encourage you concerning your faith, <sup>3b</sup>that no one should be shaken by these afflictions; for you yourselves know that <sup>c</sup>we are appointed to this. <sup>4a</sup>For, in fact, we told you before when we were with you that we would suffer tribulation, just as it happened, and you know. <sup>5</sup>For this reason, when I could no longer endure it, I sent to know your faith, <sup>e</sup>lest by some means the tempter had tempted you, and <sup>f</sup>our labor might be in vain.

Encouraged by Timothy

<sup>6</sup>But now that Timothy has come to us from you, and brought us good news of your faith and love, and that you always have good remembrance of us, greatly desiring to see us, <sup>h</sup>as we also to see you—<sup>7</sup>therefore, brethren, in all our affliction and distress <sup>i</sup>we were comforted concerning you by your faith. <sup>8</sup>For now we live, if you <sup>j</sup>stand fast in the Lord.

<sup>9</sup>For what thanks can we render to God for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sake before our God, <sup>10</sup>night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face <sup>k</sup>and perfect what is lacking in your faith?

Prayer for the Church

<sup>11</sup>Now may our God and Father Himself, and our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>l</sup>direct our way to you. <sup>12</sup>And may the Lord make you increase and <sup>m</sup>abound in love to one another and to all, just as we do to you, <sup>13</sup>so that He may establish <sup>n</sup>your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints.

Plea for Purity

4 Finally then, brethren, we urge and exhort in the Lord Jesus <sup>a</sup>that you should abound more and more, <sup>b</sup>just as you received from us how you ought to walk and to please God; <sup>2</sup>for you know what commandments we gave you through the Lord Jesus.

2:16 always to fill up the measure of their sins. The implication is that God will allow a nation, group, or individual to go only so far in sin before He brings judgment upon them (Gen. 15:16).

2:18 Satan hindered us. Satan has a vested interest in hindering the spread of the gospel, and we may be sure that when we are engaged in the Lord's work, we will experience spiritual attacks and opposition of various kinds.

3:1 Athens. When forced to leave Thessalonica, Paul and Silas went to Berea, the next city west of Thessalonica. The Thessalonian Jews who had opposed Paul learned that he was at Berea, and went there also to stir up opposition. Paul's friends then escorted him south to Athens (Acts 17:13–15).

3:3 shaken by these afflictions. The Bible teaches that those who live godly lives should expect persecution (2 Tim. 3:12). In fact, Christ warned His disciples that they would experience the same type of rejection He had experienced (John 15:18–21). But such suffering should not make us depressed. Instead we should rejoice that we are allied with His name (Matt. 5:10–12).

3:12 increase and abound in love to one another. Christ had told His disciples that His followers would be identified by their love for one another (John 13:35).

3:13 all His saints. The word saints means “holy ones” or “those set apart.” It can be used to apply to believers, or to holy angels. Angels will participate in the second coming (4:16; Jude 14; Rev. 19:14).

4:1 how you ought to walk. The Christian life not only begins with faith, but it continues as a daily walk of faith. Christians are not to live like unsaved Gentiles (Eph. 4:17); instead they are to walk worthy of their calling from God (Eph. 4:1). John exhorts Christians to walk in the light, that is, in the revealed will of God (1 John 1:7).

4:3 abstain from sexual immorality. A major problem for the early church was maintaining sexual purity (1 Cor. 5:1,9–11). Pagan religions often included sexual orgies as part of their rites of worship, and temple prostitutes were dedicated to various gods. In contrast, Christianity taught that the body is God's temple (1 Cor. 6:18–20). The body should be honored as created by God and should be sanctified in keeping with its holy purpose.

God; <sup>6</sup>that no one should take advantage of and defraud his brother in this matter, because the Lord <sup>7</sup>is the avenger of all such, as we also forewarned you and testified. <sup>7</sup>For God did not call us to uncleanness, <sup>8</sup>but in holiness. <sup>8</sup>Therefore he who rejects this does not reject man, but God, <sup>9</sup>who has also given<sup>a</sup> us His Holy Spirit.

A Brotherly and Orderly Life

<sup>9</sup>But concerning brotherly love you have no need that I should write to you, for <sup>10</sup>you yourselves are taught by God <sup>11</sup>to love one another; <sup>10</sup>and indeed you do so toward all the brethren who are in all Macedonia. But we urge you, brethren, <sup>12</sup>that you increase more and more; <sup>11</sup>that you also aspire to lead a quiet life, <sup>13</sup>to mind your own business, and <sup>14</sup>to work with your own hands, as we commanded you, <sup>12</sup>that you may walk properly toward those who are outside, and that you may lack nothing.

The Comfort of Christ's Coming

<sup>13</sup>But I do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning those who have fallen asleep, lest you sorrow <sup>14</sup>as others <sup>15</sup>who have no hope. <sup>14</sup>For <sup>16</sup>if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him <sup>17</sup>those who sleep in Jesus.*

<sup>15</sup>For this we say to you <sup>16</sup>by the word of the Lord, that <sup>17</sup>we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will by no means precede those who are asleep.

The Day of the Lord

5 But concerning <sup>1</sup>the times and the seasons, brethren, you have no need that I should write to you. <sup>2</sup>For you yourselves know perfectly that <sup>3</sup>the day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night. <sup>3</sup>For when they say, "Peace and safety!" then <sup>4</sup>sudden destruction comes upon them, <sup>5</sup>as labor pains upon a pregnant woman. And they shall not escape. <sup>6</sup>But you, brethren, are not in darkness, so that this Day should overtake you as a thief. <sup>7</sup>You are all <sup>8</sup>sons of light and sons of the day. We are not of the night nor of darkness. <sup>9</sup>Therefore let us not sleep, as others do, but <sup>10</sup>let us watch and be sober. <sup>11</sup>For <sup>12</sup>those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk <sup>13</sup>are drunk at night. <sup>14</sup>But let us who are of the day be sober, <sup>15</sup>putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and as a helmet the hope

* 4:8 NU-Text reads who also gives. * 4:14 Or those who through Jesus sleep

4:10 increase more and more. These believers already had a good record of loving one another, but Paul desired that love to increase. This was the commandment of Jesus (John 13:34–35; 15:12,17) and is an important basis of evangelism. In a world that is filled with self-serving individuals, the genuine love of Christians should attract others to the faith.

4:11 aspire to lead a quiet life. This does not refer to a lack of activity but rather to an inner quietness and peace befitting the Christian faith (2 Thess. 3:12; 1 Tim. 2:11). work with your own hands. Usually people who are busy running other people's affairs do not run their own affairs well. A Christian's house should be in order as a testimony to others.

4:14 those who sleep in Jesus. Some believe this phrase indicates that departed Christians are unconscious until the second coming. But the Bible indicates that to be absent from our present body is to be present with the Lord Jesus (5:10; 2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:23).

4:16 descend from heaven with a shout. Accompanying the descent of Christ from heaven will be the voice of an archangel, perhaps Michael, who is portrayed as the leader of the army of God (Dan. 10:13,21; Jude 9; Rev. 12:7–9). The only other angel named in Scripture is Gabriel, who is given a prominent role as a messenger of God (Dan. 8:16; 9:21; Luke 1:19,26). the dead in Christ will rise. Clearly this will be a physical resurrection in which bodily existence will be restored, as confirmed in 1 Corinthians 15:51–53. The resurrected bodies of Christians will be like the body of Christ (1 John 3:2), incorruptible and immortal, and yet they will be bodies of flesh and bone (Luke 24:39–40; John 20:20,25,27).

4:17 caught up. The English word rapture comes from the Latin for "caught up."

5:2 the day of the Lord. This expression was familiar to those who knew the Hebrew Scriptures. The day of the Lord in the Old Testament was characterized by two phases: God's judgment against sinful people and God's eternal reign over His people. God's judgment will be a time of darkness and an expression of His wrath (Joel 2:1–2; Amos 5:18–20; Zeph. 1:14–15). His reign will also be a time of blessing (Is. 2:1–3; 11:1–9; 30:23–26; Zech. 14:1,7–11,20–21; Matt. 19:28; Acts 3:19–21).

5:4 not in darkness. Though the day of the Lord will overtake the unsaved world unexpectedly, it will not overtake Christians, because they will be looking forward to and expecting it. The fact that Christ could come at any moment should motivate unbelievers to accept His forgiveness, and believers to live daily for Him.

5:8 sober. A sober life is not only free from drunkenness, but awake to spiritual realities.

of salvation. <sup>9</sup>For <sup>1</sup>God did not appoint us to wrath, <sup>m</sup>but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>10n</sup>who died for us, that whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with Him.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore comfort each other and edify one another, just as you also are doing.

Various Exhortations

ceasing, <sup>18</sup>in everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

<sup>19y</sup>Do not quench the Spirit. <sup>20z</sup>Do not despise prophecies. <sup>21a</sup>Test all things; <sup>b</sup>hold fast what is good. <sup>22</sup>Abstain from every form of evil.

Blessing and Admonition

<sup>28</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

* 5:27 NU-Text omits holy.

5:9 did not appoint us to wrath. There will be wrath at the day of the Lord, but it will be God's wrath on the unbelieving world that has spurned and mocked Christ (Rev. 6:12–17).

5:12 And we urge you. Significantly, Paul combines prophecy with practical teachings for the Christian life. God never intended prophecy to just be a field for academic debate, but to be a truth that would provide believers hope and direction in their lives.

5:16 Rejoice always. Regardless of difficult circumstances, a Christian always has grounds for rejoicing. The Lord is a sovereign Ruler and will accomplish His purpose. Christian joy is not based on circumstances, but on a growing awareness of God and the certain future of eternal life with Christ (Rev. 21:1–7).

5:17 pray without ceasing. To pray without ceasing seems impossible, but a person can develop an attitude and habit of constant prayer. No matter what else is going on, we should be aware of God's presence with us, and turn to Him with every thought and action.

5:23 spirit, soul, and body. Every part of the Christian life should bear evidence that we are set apart as holy to God.

5:26 a holy kiss. A kiss was a customary greeting among friends (as it still is in some cultures), something like our modern handshake.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS

► AUTHOR: The external attestation to the authenticity of 2 Thessalonians as a Pauline epistle is even stronger than that for 1 Thessalonians. Internally the vocabulary, style, and doctrinal content support the claims in 1:1 and 3:17 that it was written by Paul. This letter was probably written a few months after 1 Thessalonians, while Paul was still in Corinth with Silas and Timothy (1:1; Acts 18:5).

► THEME: This letter to the Thessalonians appears to have been written fairly soon after the first one. He provides some further clarification on some of the same issues he addressed in the first letter. There appears to still be some confusion about the events of the end times, which he clarifies. He also wisely encourages the believers in the basics he has taught them in his role as a caring pastor.

Greeting

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

<sup>2a</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

God's Final Judgment and Glory

<sup>3</sup>We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is fitting, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of every one of you all abounds toward each other, <sup>4</sup>so that <sup>b</sup>we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God <sup>c</sup>for your patience and faith <sup>d</sup>in all your persecutions and tribulations that you endure, <sup>5</sup>which is <sup>e</sup>manifest evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, <sup>f</sup>for which you also suffer; <sup>6</sup>since it is a righteous thing with God to repay with tribulation those who trouble you, <sup>7</sup>and to give you who are troubled <sup>h</sup>rest with us when <sup>i</sup>the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with His mighty angels, <sup>8</sup>in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who do not know God, and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup>These shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord and <sup>k</sup>from the glory of His power, <sup>10</sup>when He comes, in that Day, <sup>l</sup>to be <sup>m</sup>glorified in His saints and to be admired among all those who believe, *because our testimony among you was believed.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore we also pray always for you that our God would <sup>n</sup>count you worthy of this calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of His goodness and <sup>o</sup>the work of faith with power, <sup>12p</sup>that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

* 1:10 NU-Text and M-Text read have believed.

1:1 *Silvanus, and Timothy. Silvanus (Latin for Silas) had been Paul's traveling companion ever since the start of the second missionary journey. He had participated in the founding of the church at Thessalonica (Acts 17:1–4). Timothy also accompanied Paul on his second missionary journey. His report from the Thessalonian church had been the occasion for writing 1 Thessalonians (1 Thess. 3:6–8). To the church. The Greek word ekklesiā means "gathering" or "assembly." 1:5 *counted worthy of the kingdom of God. If believers handle their persecutions properly, they will be counted worthy of great reward in the coming kingdom of God (Matt. 5:12; 1 Pet. 2:19–20). Christians are called to endure suffering in this world, for they will receive a far greater reward in the next (2 Tim. 2:12).

1:7–8 *when the Lord Jesus is revealed. Presently the Lord Jesus is enthroned in glory at the right hand of the Father (John 17:5). Stephen saw this glory before he was martyred (Acts 7:55–56), but one day, and it may be soon, "every eye will see Him" (Rev. 1:7). in flaming fire. Some believe that this is the fulfillment of John the Baptist's prophecy of the One who would "baptize with fire" (Matt. 3:11–12; Luke 3:16–17).

1:8 *do not know . . . do not obey. Those who do not know are the unbelieving Gentiles, those who do not obey are the unbelieving Jews who knew about God and rejected His Son (Rom. 10:1,16).

1:12 *glorified in you. Christ will be glorified not only among, but also in the saints, for believers reflect His glory.

The Great Apostasy

2 Now, brethren, <sup>a</sup>concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ <sup>b</sup>and our gathering together to Him, we ask you, <sup>c</sup>not to be soon shaken in mind or troubled, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as if from us, as though the day of Christ* had come. <sup>3</sup>Let no one deceive you by any means; for that Day will not come <sup>d</sup>unless the falling away comes first, and <sup>e</sup>the man of sin* is revealed, <sup>f</sup>the son of perdition, <sup>g</sup>who opposes and <sup>h</sup>exalts himself <sup>i</sup>above all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sits as God* in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.

<sup>5</sup>Do you not remember that when I was still with you I told you these things? <sup>6</sup>And now you know what is restraining, that he may be revealed in his own time. <sup>7</sup>For <sup>i</sup>the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only He* who now restrains will do so until He* is taken out of the way. <sup>8</sup>And then the lawless one will be revealed, <sup>j</sup>whom the Lord will consume <sup>k</sup>with the breath of His mouth and destroy <sup>l</sup>with the brightness of His coming. <sup>9</sup>The coming of the lawless one is <sup>m</sup>according to the working of Satan, with all power, <sup>n</sup>signs, and lying wonders, <sup>10</sup>and with all unrighteous deception among <sup>o</sup>those who perish, because they did not receive <sup>p</sup>the love of the truth, that they might be saved. <sup>11</sup>And <sup>q</sup>for this reason God will send them strong delusion, <sup>r</sup>that they should believe the lie, <sup>12</sup>that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but <sup>s</sup>had pleasure in unrighteousness.

Stand Fast

<sup>13</sup>But we are bound to give thanks to God always for you, brethren beloved by the Lord, because God <sup>t</sup>from the beginning <sup>u</sup>chose you for salvation <sup>v</sup>through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth, <sup>14</sup>to which He called you by our gospel, for <sup>w</sup>the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>15</sup>Therefore, brethren, <sup>x</sup>stand fast and hold <sup>y</sup>the traditions which you were taught, whether by word or our epistle.

<sup>16</sup>Now may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself, and our God and Father, <sup>z</sup>who has loved us and given us everlasting consolation and <sup>a</sup>good hope by grace, <sup>17</sup>comfort your hearts <sup>b</sup>and establish you in every good word and work.

Pray for Us

3 Finally, brethren, <sup>a</sup>pray for us, that the word of the Lord may run swiftly and be

*2:2 NU-Text reads the Lord. *2:3 NU-Text reads lawlessness. *2:4 NU-Text omits as God. *2:7 Or he • Or he

2:1 concerning the coming. After writing 1 Thessalonians, Paul had received word that the believers in Thessalonica were being misled by false teachers who were confusing the believers with erroneous ideas about the second coming. gathering together to Him. This will be the first time that the whole church, including every believer, will be gathered before the Lord to worship Him. The phrase seems to refer to the event described in 1 Thessalonians 4:17, where Paul speaks of meeting the Lord in the air.

2:2 the day of Christ had come. The false teaching was that the day of the Lord (1 Thess. 5:2–4) had already come, bringing with it the tribulations they were experiencing. Thus, some Thessalonian believers thought that they had missed the second coming.

2:3 the falling away. The Greek word translated “falling away” is the word commonly used to describe a military rebellion. In the Scriptures, the word is used of rebellion against God. Some have therefore interpreted this verse to refer to a general defection from the truth, perhaps even by those professing to be the church. This rebellious apostasy would prepare the way for the antichrist. the man of sin. Paul does not use the title “antichrist” for this man, but his description parallels John’s description of the antichrist (1 John 2:18; Rev. 13). The man of sin will lead the world to rebellion against God (v. 10), perform wonders through Satan’s power (v. 9), and finally will present himself as a god to be worshiped (v. 4).

2:4 he sits as God in the temple. This is the ultimate fulfillment of the “abomination of desolation” spoken of by Daniel (Dan. 7:23; 9:26; 11:31, 36–37; 12:11) and Jesus (Matt. 24:15; Mark 13:14).

2:7 is already at work. The evil and deception that the man of sin embodies already exist in this world

(1 John 2:18). Anyone who opposes Christ and His church and seeks to deceive others into worshipping false gods is against Christ (antichrist). taken out of the way. Many believe that this verse refers to the rapture of the church (1 Thess. 4:16–17), and the cessation of the Holy Spirit working through believers to restrain the power of sin in this world. There are a variety of other interpretations for the identity of the restrainer, including the Roman state, or the principle of law and government embodied in the state.

2:8 whom the Lord will consume . . . and destroy. Although the man of lawlessness will be revealed as extremely powerful (Rev. 13:7), he will be destroyed by Christ and cast into the lake of fire when the Lord comes (Rev. 19:19–20).

2:14 obtaining of the glory. The Thessalonians have already been saved (v. 13), and called, but they must respond to God’s work in them. Through the power of the Holy Spirit (v. 13), believers on this earth prepare for a future with Christ by living in a holy manner (1:10; 1 Thess. 4:1–2).

2:17 comfort your hearts and establish. It is interesting to note that Paul uses the singular form of these verbs, with the plural subject of “Jesus Christ and God our Father,” supporting the trinity and equality of God (1 Thess. 3:11).

glorified, just as it is with you, <sup>2</sup>and <sup>b</sup>that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men; <sup>c</sup>for not all have faith.

<sup>5</sup>Now may <sup>g</sup>the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God and into the patience of Christ.

Warning Against Idleness

<sup>6</sup>But we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>h</sup>that you withdraw <sup>i</sup>from every brother who walks <sup>j</sup>disorderly and not according to the tradition which he* received from us. <sup>7</sup>For you yourselves know how you ought to follow us, for we were not disorderly among you; <sup>8</sup>nor did we eat anyone's bread free of charge, but worked with <sup>k</sup>labor and toil night and day, that we might not be a burden to any of you, <sup>9</sup>not because we do not have <sup>l</sup>authority, but to make ourselves an example of how you should follow us.

<sup>10</sup>For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: If anyone will not work, neither shall he eat. <sup>11</sup>For we hear that there are some who walk among you in a disorderly manner, not working at all, but are <sup>m</sup>busybodies. <sup>12</sup>Now those who are such we command and exhort through our Lord Jesus Christ <sup>n</sup>that they work in quietness and eat their own bread.

Benediction

<sup>17</sup>The salutation of Paul with my own hand, which is a sign in every epistle; so I write.

<sup>18a</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

* 3:6 NU-Text and M-Text read they.

3:2 unreasonable and wicked men. These may have been the unbelieving Jews in Corinth who were persecuting Paul at the time he wrote this letter (Acts 18:12–13). Justice in this world may never come for Christians, but they can certainly pray for deliverance from the wicked.

3:5 direct your hearts. The heart, the seat of a person's will and emotions, is the place where spiritual renewal begins. There God plants love and patience, traits that will produce a harvest of good works.

3:6 command. This is not just a friendly suggestion, but a binding order with the authority of Jesus Christ. withdraw. Among other things, this would include not allowing the person to participate in love feasts and the Lord's Supper (Matt. 18:15–17; 1 Cor. 5:9–12).

3:9 not because we do not have authority. It is right for the church to financially support those who do the Lord's work (Luke 10:7; 1 Cor. 9:6–14; Gal. 6:6; 1 Tim. 5:17–18).

3:11 not working at all. Some Thessalonians, apparently using the impending return of the Lord as an excuse, had refused to work and were expecting others in the church to feed them. In his previous letter,

Paul had already exhorted them to work (1 Thess. 4:11–12). Since they had not heeded, the time had come to take further steps. While believers must always act with gentleness and love toward one another, it is wrong to enable another person to continue in sin.

3:12 they work in quietness. The cure for gossips and busybodies is hard work. There is much truth in the saying "Satan finds work for idle hands."

3:15 as a brother. The disobedient one is not an enemy, but one who needs compassionate correction.

3:18 our Lord Jesus Christ. Not only is Jesus our ultimate hope, it is He who lovingly strengthens us to endure trials.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY

► AUTHOR: The external evidence solidly supports the position that Paul wrote the letters to Timothy and Titus. Only Romans and 1 Corinthians have better attestation among the Pauline Epistles. Pauline authorship of the Pastoral Epistles requires Paul's release from his Roman imprisonment (Acts 28), the continuation of his missionary endeavors, and his imprisonment for a second time in Rome. Unfortunately, the order of events can only be reconstructed from hints, because there is no concurrent history paralleling Acts to chronicle the last years of the apostle. It is most probable that Paul wrote 1 Timothy from Macedonia in A.D. 62 or 63 while Timothy was serving as his representative in Ephesus.

► TIME: c. A.D. 62–63    ► KEY VERSES: 1 Tim. 3:15–16

► THEME: The letters to Timothy and Titus are generally called "the Pastoral Epistles." They are pastoral in tone and in the subject matter they address. While covering much of the apostolic instruction on the life and doctrine of the church, they also provide some guidelines on how Christians in the church should relate to society. One of the overriding concerns of the books is that truth be valued and guarded. Too often today, truth is subjective and culturally conditioned to the point where people don't even have problems believing mutually contradictory ideas. Paul speaks of the value of truth in his own apostolic role, and he stands against false teachers who would distort the truth for their own ends.

Greeting

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the commandment of God our Savior and the Lord Jesus Christ, our hope,

<sup>b</sup>Grace, mercy, and peace from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

No Other Doctrine

is love <sup>g</sup>from a pure heart, from a good conscience, and from sincere faith, <sup>h</sup>from which some, having strayed, have turned aside to <sup>i</sup>idle talk, <sup>7</sup>desiring to be teachers of the law, understanding neither what they say nor the things which they affirm.

<sup>8</sup>But we know that the law is <sup>i</sup>good if one uses it lawfully, <sup>9</sup>knowing this: that the law is not made for a righteous person, but for the lawless and insubordinate, for the ungodly and for sinners, for the unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, <sup>10</sup>for fornicators, for sodomites, for kidnappers, for liars, for perjurers, and if there is any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine, <sup>11</sup>according to the glorious gospel of the <sup>blessed</sup> God which was <sup>k</sup>committed to my trust.

1:1 apostle of Jesus Christ. The Greek word for "apostle" means "sent one." Paul was an ambassador sent by Christ (Acts 9).

1:2 Timothy. Timothy was a young believer from Lystra who traveled with Paul during his second and third missionary journeys.

1:3 that you may charge. Paul's request that Timothy stay in Ephesus to minister to the believers there demonstrates Paul's confidence in the young man.

1:4 fables and endless genealogies. The errors that Paul left Timothy to correct in Ephesus appear to have been primarily Jewish in nature. The Jews tended to place a lot of importance on the genealogies and also on allegorical interpretations of the law.

1:6 idle talk. Gossip, speculation, and criticism should not come from the lips of believers.

1:8 law. The proper function of the law is to make sinners aware of their sinfulness (Rom. 3:20).

1:10 perjurers. The term "perjure" is more significant than simply "lie," as it deals with false promises. To swear an oath and then not carry through is a serious thing indeed.

Glory to God for His Grace

Fight the Good Fight

<sup>18</sup>This charge I commit to you, son Timothy, according to the prophecies previously made concerning you, that by them you may wage the good warfare, <sup>19</sup>having faith and a good conscience, which some having rejected, concerning the faith have suffered shipwreck, <sup>20</sup>of whom are <sup>21</sup>Hymenaeus and <sup>22</sup>Alexander, whom I delivered to Satan that they may learn not to <sup>23</sup>blaspheme.

Pray for All Men

2 Therefore I exhort first of all that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men, <sup>2a</sup>for kings and <sup>2b</sup>all who are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and reverence. <sup>3</sup>For this is <sup>4</sup>good and acceptable in the sight <sup>5</sup>of God our Savior, <sup>6</sup>who desires all men to be saved <sup>7</sup>and to come to the knowledge of the truth. <sup>8</sup>For there is one God and <sup>9</sup>one Mediator between God and men, the Man Christ Jesus, <sup>10</sup>who gave Himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time, <sup>11</sup>for which I was appointed a preacher and an apostle—I am speaking the truth in Christ <sup>12</sup>and not lying—<sup>13</sup>a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

* 1:17 NU-Text reads to the only God. * 2:7 NU-Text omits in Christ.

1:13 but I obtained mercy. Paul found mercy and forgiveness even after his intense persecution of the church. God surely offers salvation to all people (2:4).

1:14 grace. Grace is God's undeserved, unearned, freely given favor.

1:15–16 Believing Jesus—Jesus came to earth to save sinners. Paul knew this firsthand. When he became a Christian, Paul realized the extent of his sin in terms of both his past sins and his current tendencies. But he also knew exactly where he stood in Christ as a believer. The mercy of God can only be acquired through belief. Paul reminds Timothy here of God's perfect patience and mercy and urges others to come to faith and receive the benefit of new and everlasting life, as he has. Eternal life can only begin with belief. It is an active choice of the individual. We must believe that Jesus is the saving Christ or reject Him. Paul says, "I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show all longsuffering, as a pattern to those who are going to believe on Him for everlasting life." If you have never believed in Jesus, take this opportunity to tell God how you feel. Believe in Jesus as Savior and begin on the path of a new life.

1:16 believe on Him. As stated over 185 times in the New Testament, the sole condition for salvation is belief, having faith or trust in Jesus Christ. The gospel (or "good news") is that Jesus Christ, God's Son, gave up His heavenly kingdom for a time to become a human. As a man, He died for our sins, was buried, and rose on the third day. All who place their trust in Jesus will be saved from the coming judgment and from the present power of sin. To add any other condition to faith for salvation is to make it dependent on our own works (Rom. 11:6; Gal. 2:16).

1:20 delivered to Satan. Paul did not have some sort of authority over these men to have them "delivered" in the sense that they would now belong to Satan. Rather, Paul had stopped trying to exhort them, or show them the way they should go. They would not listen, so Paul had to say, "So be it, go your own way."

2:4 desires all men to be saved. God desires that all men would be saved, although this does not mean that He will force this to happen. Only those who believe in Christ will receive salvation (Rom. 1:16–17; 3:21–26; 5:17). Christ died for the sins of the entire world, but only those who believe will receive the benefits of His sacrifice. to come to the knowledge of the truth. God not only wants our salvation (justification), He also wants us to grow in truth (sanctification) so that we will not be led astray by false teachers.

2:5 one God. This is the central truth of the Hebrew Scriptures. The only living God desires that all should be saved. He is the only one to whom our prayers should be addressed. Mediator. This is a concept that came from the ceremonial worship in the Old Testament. In the tabernacle and later in the temple, the priests mediated between God and Israel by offering sacrifices to atone for the sins of the people. In their position of mediator, the priests were the only ones eligible to enter into the holy place, the place where God had made His presence known. When Jesus came, He came as the Mediator between man and God. Through Him we can be eligible to enter into God's holy presence.

2:6 ransom. The Greek word translated "ransom" is found only here in the New Testament. It specifically refers to a ransom paid for a slave.

2:7 in faith and truth. Paul was called not only to preach the gospel to the Gentiles, but also to guide their growth in truth.

Men and Women in the Church

<sup>8</sup>I desire therefore that the men pray everywhere, <sup>9</sup>lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting; <sup>10</sup>in like manner also, that the women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with propriety and moderation, not with braided hair or gold or pearls or costly clothing, <sup>11</sup>but, which is proper for women professing godliness, with good works. <sup>12</sup>Let a woman learn in silence with all submission. <sup>13</sup>And I do not permit a woman to teach or to have authority over a man, but to be in silence. <sup>14</sup>For Adam was formed first, then Eve. <sup>15</sup>And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived, fell into transgression. <sup>16</sup>Nevertheless she will be saved in childbearing if they continue in faith, love, and holiness, with self-control.

Qualifications of Overseers

3 This is a faithful saying: If a man desires the position of a bishop,* he desires a good work. <sup>2</sup>A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, temperate, sober-minded, of good behavior, hospitable, able to teach; <sup>3</sup>not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for money,* but gentle, not quarrelsome, not covetous; <sup>4</sup>one who rules his own house well, having his children in submission with all reverence <sup>5</sup>(for if a man does not know how to rule his own house, how will he take care of the church of God?); <sup>6</sup>not a novice, lest being puffed up with pride he fall into the same condemnation as the devil. <sup>7</sup>Moreover he must have a good testimony among

* 3:1 Literally overseer * 3:3 NU-Text omits not greedy for money.

2:8 men. The Greek word translated “men” in this verse refers specifically to males as distinguished from females. Some believe that this verse means specifically public worship, while others believe it refers to life in general. lifting up holy hands. This is a Hebrew way of praying (1 Kin. 8:22; Ps. 141:2). “Holy” means morally and spiritually clean.

2:9 in modest apparel. Modesty means more than just covering up enough. It means not flaunting one’s wealth, or one’s jewels, or one’s name brands, as well as not flaunting one’s body. propriety. This word means reverence and respect, shrinking away from what is inappropriate.

2:10 good works. A Christian woman’s beauty should be found in her godly character and her love for the Lord as demonstrated in all types of good works.

2:11 in silence with all submission. These verses are not easy to understand, and there are many differences of opinion as to their meaning. The Scripture here does actually say just what it looks like: that women must be silent and submissive. It is universally accepted that this is referring to times of public worship, although the Bible makes it clear that a woman must submit to her husband (Eph. 5:22; Col. 3:18), but the concept of submission also applies to all believers. Philippians 4:5 says, “Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand.” Being submissive means not being unruly or argumentative. There are times when it is proper for a woman to teach, pray, or prophesy (1 Cor. 11), but apparently this is not supposed to happen in public worship.

2:12 to teach or to have authority. It seems best to understand this passage as saying that women may exercise their spiritual gifts in a variety of ministries in the local assembly, as long as those gifts are exercised under the appropriate leadership of men. We have problems understanding the roles of men and women in the church. Often we want to ignore the subject altogether and say that men and women are entirely equal, the alternative being that men become despotic and tyrannical, while women become spiritually weak with no teaching and no opportunity to use their God-given gifts. Men and women are equal in God’s eyes in terms of their value as people and eligibility for spiritual growth and relationship with God, but He created this difference in roles. Many tend to feel that this role difference is because of the fall, but God did create men and women to be different. The mess and confusion we have with our God-given positions is the result of the fall.

2:14 Adam was not deceived. This seems to point to the fact that Adam sinned with his eyes open; he knew what he was doing. Eve sinned because she was deceived. Paul’s arguments from creation and the fall seem to indicate that the prohibitions in verses 9–12 are permanent, not cultural.

2:15 will be saved in childbearing. This is a very difficult verse to understand and no one agrees about what it means. We know that it does not mean “saved” in terms of receiving eternal life, because the Bible elsewhere makes it very clear we are saved by faith alone (John 3:15–18; Rom. 1:16–17; 3:23–26). Some think that it has to do with daily sanctification and the woman’s special task of bearing children. Others say it is referring to being delivered from the desire to dominate by recognizing one’s appropriate place in God’s creation order. Still others believe that it refers specifically to the birth of Jesus Christ, the seed born of woman prophesied in Genesis 3:15.

3:1 bishop. This means a person who oversees a congregation. The words “bishop” and “elder” are used interchangeably for the same office (Titus 1:5–7).

3:2 blameless. The idea is not that an overseer is sinless, but that he displays mature consistent Christian conduct that gives no reason for anyone to accuse him of anything. husband of one wife. This phrase is also subject to much disagreement. Many feel that it means “a one-woman kind of man,” indicating a lifestyle of fidelity. Others feel that it is more specific, and prohibits a divorced and remarried man from the elder position. Certainly it is an exclusion of anyone who is sexually immoral or a polygamist.

3:3 violent. An overseer is not to be a quarrelsome man.

3:7 good testimony. An overseer must have a good reputation in the community. A non-Christian should not be able to reproach or insult an elder because of his behavior. The elder’s good testimony avoids the traps of Satan.

2:8 / Luke 23:34 <sup>m</sup> Ps. 134:2 2:9 <sup>n</sup> 1 Pet. 3:3
2:10 <sup>n</sup> 1 Pet. 3:4 2:12 <sup>p</sup> 1 Cor. 14:34

those who are outside, lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

Qualifications of Deacons

The Great Mystery

<sup>15</sup>These things I write to you, though I hope to come to you shortly; <sup>16</sup>but if I am delayed, I write so that you may know how you ought to conduct yourself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. <sup>17</sup>And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness:

- <sup>a</sup>God* was manifested in the flesh,
- <sup>b</sup>Justified in the Spirit,
- <sup>c</sup>Seen by angels,
- <sup>d</sup>Preached among the Gentiles,
- <sup>e</sup>Believed on in the world,
- <sup>f</sup>Received up in glory.

The Great Apostasy

<sup>4</sup>Now the Spirit expressly says that in latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to deceiving spirits and doctrines of demons, <sup>2</sup>speaking lies in hypocrisy, having their own conscience seared with a hot iron, <sup>3</sup>forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. <sup>4</sup>For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be refused if it is received with thanksgiving; <sup>5</sup>for it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

A Good Servant of Jesus Christ

* 3:16 NU-Text reads Who. * 4:10 NU-Text reads we labor and strive.

3:8 deacons. Deacons fill a second leadership position in the local assembly. The Greek word for deacon means "servant." not double-tongued. This speaks specifically of the dangers of gossip, especially changing sides or changing a story to fit the audience.

3:9 mystery of the faith. The mystery of the faith is the coming of God in the flesh (v. 16). The Son of God becoming a human in order to serve humanity (Mark 10:43–45) is the embodiment of service.

3:11 their wives. Some believe here that Paul is speaking of another office in the local body, that of "deaconess," godly women who serve under the leadership of the elders. Others, however, believe that this verse refers to the wives of the deacons, and not to an office. It could be assumed that both are true, and that the deacon and his wife are supposed to work together as a team, serving the church. The original language leaves the verse open to interpretation, since the Greek uses one word to mean both woman and wife.

3:15 pillar and ground of the truth. Misconduct and disorder in the local church weaken the support of God's truth in the world. We as believers have a tremendous responsibility to keep the name of our Lord without spot or criticism from the nonbelieving world.

3:16 manifested in the flesh. This refers to Christ's incarnation, the fact that Jesus became man (John 1:14). Justified in the Spirit. This is the work of the Holy Spirit in Jesus' ministry and resurrection (Matt. 3:15–17; John 16:7–10; Rom. 1:4). Seen by angels. This refers to the angelic witness of Christ's ministry and resurrection. Preached among the Gentiles.

This refers to the preaching of Christ to the Gentiles (Col. 1:23). Believed on in the world. This is the response of individuals to God's plan of salvation (Col. 1:18–25). Received up in glory. Christ ascended to heaven and is seated at God's right hand there (Acts 1:9; Heb. 1:3–4).

4:1 the Spirit expressly says. When Paul speaks of the Holy Spirit's words here, he may be referring to various prophecies inspired by the Holy Spirit concerning defection from God's truth (Dan. 7:25; 8:23; Matt. 24:4–12), or also he may have been referring to a revelation the Spirit had given him.

4:5 sanctified. Sanctified means "set apart," or "made holy." Paul is saying that God has sanctified all the good things He created, from marriage to the food we eat. Nothing is less in accord with God than to begin forbidding the good things He made for us.

4:7 old wives' fables. This is not to say that such fables are appropriate for old women either. Paul is merely using the term "old wives' fables" to describe the superstitions and thoughtless beliefs that were prevalent.

4:8 profits a little. This contrasts the short-term value of physical exercise with the long-term benefits of godliness for all things.

4:10 Savior of all men. This describes God as the One who gives life, breath, and existence to all.

Take Heed to Your Ministry

Treatment of Church Members

5 Do not rebuke an older man, but exhort <sup>1</sup>him as a father, younger men as brothers, <sup>2</sup>older women as mothers, younger women as sisters, with all purity.

Honor True Widows

<sup>9</sup>Do not let a widow under sixty years old be taken into the number, and not unless she has been the wife of one man, <sup>10</sup>well reported for good works: if she has brought up children, if she has lodged strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has relieved the afflicted, if she has diligently followed every good work.

<sup>11</sup>But refuse the younger widows; for when they have begun to grow wanton against Christ, they desire to marry, <sup>12</sup>having condemnation because they have cast off their first faith. <sup>13</sup>And besides they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house, and not only idle but also gossips and busybodies, saying things which they ought not. <sup>14</sup>Therefore I desire that the younger widows marry, bear children, manage the house, give no opportunity to the adversary to speak reproachfully. <sup>15</sup>For some have already turned aside after Satan. <sup>16</sup>If any believing man or* woman has widows, let them relieve them, and do not let the church be burdened, that it may relieve those who are really widows.

Honor the Elders

* 4:12 NU-Text omits in spirit. * 5:4 NU-Text and M-Text omit good and. * 5:16 NU-Text omits man or. * 5:18 Deuteronomy 25:4 • Luke 10:7

4:12 be an example. Timothy, in spite of youth, was to set an example in five areas: "in word," meaning his speech; "in conduct," or behavior; "in love, in spirit" which is the love of God; "in faith," meaning trust in God; "in purity," both in thought and action. These are qualities every believer should strive after, practice, and desire.

4:16 save both yourself. This is not a reference to justification by works, but to sanctification, which is the Christian's daily walk of faith (Mark 8:34–38; John 12:25–26). Timothy's example and hard work in teaching would serve to help others with their walk also.

5:2 all purity. Believing men must respect the purity of a young woman as the purity of a sister.

5:3 really widows. This refers to a woman who when widowed is left with no family at all, as opposed to those widows who still have living children or other relations.

5:4 show piety at home. Piety is respect, reverence, or obligation. Honoring our parents includes caring for them physically and financially as they grow older.

5:8 does not provide for his own. A believer is to provide for his family and this seems to include any of his relatives that need help. Failure to do this denies the faith he has said to believe in and smirches the name of Christianity.

5:9 taken into the number. Many believe the list referred to here was a list of widows whom the church was to assist. Some have maintained that this was an official order of widows. These women were to pray for the church and practice works of charity (vv. 5, 10).

5:13–14 idle . . . gossips and busybodies. An old saying tells us, "Idle hands are the devil's workshop." Do not allow yourself to become so idle that you begin to gossip. As odd as it may sound, it will happen. Employ yourself with the tasks God has set before you. Look around. There are lots of things we as believers should be doing.

5:18 Scripture says. Paul quotes two passages: Deuteronomy 25:4 and Luke 10:7. The quotation from Luke is especially interesting as it shows that Paul considered the Gospels to be Scripture as well as the Old Testament.

5:19 an accusation against an elder. Charges against elders are to be factual, not based on a single opinion or rumor.

5:20 Those who are sinning. This seems to refer to elders who fail in their leadership, whether in the church, in their social relationships, or in their home life. Public rebuke is to serve as a warning to other

<sup>21</sup>I charge you before God and the Lord Jesus Christ and the elect angels that you observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing with partiality. <sup>22</sup>Do not lay hands on anyone hastily, nor share in other people's sins; keep yourself pure.

<sup>23</sup>No longer drink only water, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent infirmities.

Honor Masters

6 Let as many bondservants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, so that the name of God and His doctrine may not be blasphemed. <sup>2</sup>And those who have believing masters, let them not despise them because they are brethren, but rather serve them because those who are benefited are believers and beloved. Teach and exhort these things.

Error and Greed

<sup>3</sup>If anyone teaches otherwise and does not consent to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which accords with godliness, <sup>4</sup>he is proud, knowing nothing, but is obsessed with disputes and arguments over words, from which come envy, strife, reviling, evil suspicions, <sup>5</sup>useless wranglings* of men of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain. From such withdraw yourself.*

<sup>6</sup>Now godliness with contentment is great gain. <sup>7</sup>For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain* we can carry nothing out. <sup>8</sup>And having food and clothing, with these we shall be content. <sup>9</sup>But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and harmful lusts which drown men in destruction and perdition. <sup>10</sup>For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, for which some have strayed from the faith in their greediness, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

The Good Confession

<sup>11</sup>But you, O man of God, flee these things and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, gentleness. <sup>12</sup>Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, to which you were also called and have confessed the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. <sup>13</sup>I urge you in the sight of God who gives life to all things, and before Christ Jesus who witnessed the good confession before Pontius Pilate, <sup>14</sup>that you keep this commandment without spot, blameless until our Lord Jesus Christ's appearing, <sup>15</sup>which He will manifest in His own time, He who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings and Lord of lords, <sup>16</sup>who alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light, whom no man has seen or can see, believers. Sin is a serious matter, especially for those who are in leadership, setting an example for others (1 Pet. 4:14).

*6:5 NU-Text and M-Text read constant friction. • NU-Text omits this sentence. *6:7 NU-Text omits and it is certain.

5:22 hastily. This verse is believed to be warning against too quickly restoring a leader who has fallen. Correction in love and restoration to fellowship should occur as soon as possible, but restoration to leadership should not be made without time and biblical evaluation. Not only does this apply to former leaders, it is a caution not to share responsibility for someone else's sins by restoring or appointing someone who is not qualified.

5:25 evident . . . cannot be hidden. Unnoticed good works always come to light, if not in this life, at the judgment seat, but even sins hidden from men cannot be concealed from God.

6:1 bondservants. This serves as an example of how believers should act in the workplace. We are Christians, who are to represent our faith, and Christ Himself. If we do this badly, we minimize not only our faith, but the power and testimony of Christ.

6:2 these things. "These things" probably are best understood as the contents of the entire letter to Timothy.

6:9 those who desire to be rich. Inside of every man there is a "God-shaped void." Many unbelievers try to fill this inner longing with wealth and possessions. Greed drives people to temptation and foolish and harmful desires. This is not an ailment of unbelievers only. Many believers also try to gain material things rather than the imperishable things of righteousness, godliness, faith, love, perseverance, and gentleness (v. 11). These are the things we should pursue with all of our being.

6:10 love of money. Money in and of itself is not a problem, but the love of money is. Christians can be so blinded by greed that they no longer see the need for holy living. A life focused on material things brings only pain.

6:12 lay hold on eternal life. Use the hope of everlasting life with the Savior as your lifeline, your comfort, and your guide.

6:14 our Lord Jesus Christ's appearing. The imminent return of Christ should be a motive for godly living (1 John 2:28).

6:16 immortality. This may also be translated "without death." The glorified Christ can never die.

Instructions to the Rich

<sup>17</sup>Command those who are rich in this present age not to be haughty, nor to trust in uncertain <sup>k</sup>riches but in the living God, who gives us richly all things <sup>l</sup>to enjoy. <sup>18</sup>Let them do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to give, willing to share, <sup>19m</sup>storing up for themselves a good foundation for the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

Guard the Faith

<sup>20</sup>O Timothy! <sup>n</sup>Guard what was committed to your trust, <sup>o</sup>avoiding the profane and idle babblings and contradictions of what is falsely called knowledge— <sup>21</sup>by professing it some have strayed concerning the faith.

Grace be with you. Amen.

6:20 *falsely called knowledge. Gnosticism (from the Greek word for knowledge) is a heresy that teaches that salvation comes through secret knowledge of spiritual mysteries.

6:21 *Grace be with you. The Greek word for “you” here is plural, including the whole church. God’s grace to us as sinners is indeed amazing.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY

► AUTHOR: Fearing for their own lives, the Asian believers failed to support Paul after this second Roman imprisonment and his first defense before the imperial court (1:15; 4:16). Now he was in a cold Roman cell (4:13) without hope of acquittal in spite of the success of his initial defense. Under these conditions, Paul wrote this epistle in the fall of A.D. 67, hoping that Timothy would be able to visit him before the approaching winter (4:21).

► TIME: c. A.D. 66–67    ► KEY VERSES: 2 Tim. 3:14–17

► THEME: This is likely the last of Paul's writings that we have. He writes this letter from a prison cell where he is being kept like a common criminal. He knows that his work on earth is nearing its conclusion, and these are then his last words of counsel to his trusted companion in ministry. One can sense his weariness, but also his strongly held conviction about what is necessary for the continued growth of the church. One can also clearly see the hope that sustains him as he looks forward to going home to Christ.

Greeting

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ* by the will of God, according to the <sup>a</sup>promise of life which is in Christ Jesus, <sup>2</sup>To Timothy, a <sup>b</sup>beloved son:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

Timothy's Faith and Heritage

<sup>3</sup>I thank God, whom I serve with a pure conscience, as my <sup>c</sup>forefathers did, as without ceasing I remember you in my prayers night and day, <sup>4</sup>greatly desiring to see you, being mindful of your tears, that I may be filled with joy, <sup>5</sup>when I call to remembrance <sup>d</sup>the genuine faith that is in you, which dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and <sup>e</sup>your mother Eunice, and I am persuaded is in you also. <sup>6</sup>Therefore I remind you <sup>f</sup>to stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands. <sup>7</sup>For <sup>g</sup>God has not given us a spirit of fear, <sup>h</sup>but of power and of love and of a sound mind.

Not Ashamed of the Gospel

<sup>8</sup>Therefore do not be ashamed of <sup>i</sup>the testimony of our Lord, nor of me <sup>k</sup>His prisoner, but share with me in the sufferings for the gospel according to the power of God, <sup>9</sup>who has saved us and called us with a holy calling, <sup>l</sup>not according to our works, but <sup>m</sup>according to His own purpose and grace which was given to us in Christ Jesus <sup>n</sup>before time began, <sup>10</sup>but <sup>o</sup>has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior Jesus Christ, who has abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel, <sup>11</sup>to which I was appointed a preacher, an apostle, and a

* 1:1 NU-Text and M-Text read Christ Jesus.

1:1 the promise of life. This message of life stands in ironic contrast to the fact that Paul was writing from a Roman prison, facing his execution.

1:3 my forefathers. Paul's forefathers were the patriarchs of the faith: Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Paul had great love for Israel (Rom. 9:1–5). The reason that he connects himself to Israel's forefathers may be to demonstrate that he is not advocating a new religion but one of which the godly of the past are also a part.

1:5 Lois... Eunice. The prayers, witness, and faith of his godly mother and grandmother were central factors in the spiritual development of Timothy (1 Tim. 2:15).

1:8 do not be ashamed of the testimony. Testimony is the witness of the Lord; the Greek term is the source of the English word martyr. Church tradition says that most of the apostles died as martyrs.

1:9 not according to our works. It is impossible for people to earn their way into heaven. Salvation is by grace, the unearned and undeserved favor of God.

1:10 abolished death. Knowing that leaving our earthly bodies simply means that we will live forever with the Lord effectively robs death of its dread. The same gospel that offers us the forgiveness of sins and draws us to holy living also announces life and immortality. Believing the gospel, we begin to live in the power of an endless life (1 John 5:11–13,20).

teacher of the Gentiles.* <sup>12</sup>For this reason I also suffer these things; nevertheless I am not ashamed, <sup>q</sup>for I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep what I have committed to Him until that Day.

Be Loyal to the Faith

<sup>13</sup>Hold fast <sup>s</sup>the pattern of <sup>t</sup>sound words which you have heard from me, in faith and love which are in Christ Jesus. <sup>14</sup>That good thing which was committed to you, keep by the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.

<sup>15</sup>This you know, that all those in Asia have turned away from me, among whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes. <sup>16</sup>The Lord grant mercy to the <sup>u</sup>household of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain; <sup>17</sup>but when he arrived in Rome, he sought me out very zealously and found me. <sup>18</sup>The Lord <sup>v</sup>grant to him that he may find mercy from the Lord <sup>w</sup>in that Day—and you know very well how many ways he <sup>x</sup>ministered to me* at Ephesus.

Be Strong in Grace

2 You therefore, <sup>a</sup>my son, <sup>b</sup>be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup>And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also. <sup>3</sup>You therefore must <sup>c</sup>endure* hardship <sup>d</sup>as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup>No one engaged in warfare entangles himself with the affairs of this life, that he may please him who enlisted him as a soldier. <sup>5</sup>And also <sup>f</sup>if anyone competes in athletics, he is not crowned unless he competes according to the rules. <sup>6</sup>The hardworking farmer must be first to partake of the crops. <sup>7</sup>Consider what I say, and may* the Lord <sup>g</sup>give you understanding in all things.

1:12 what I have committed. It is certain that God will keep our “deposit” safe. Paul was preparing for imminent death, but in spite of this he was hopeful. He had spent his time, resources, and even his life proclaiming the gospel, and this investment in Christ’s kingdom would bring him an abundant reward in eternity (Luke 19:15; 1 Cor. 3:10–15; Rev. 11:15,18).

1:14 That good thing. This is the truth of the kingdom of God (Matt. 13:44–45; 1 Tim. 6:20).

2:1 strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. The emphasis is on the strength of Christ, not on Timothy’s own power. If we trust in ourselves, we are doomed to fail.

2:2 commit these to faithful men. Since the time of Christ, there has been an endless chain of Christian discipleship (Matt. 28:18–20).

2:8 seed of David. Jesus is the fulfillment of all the promises that God gave to David (2 Sam. 7:11–16).

2:11 if we died . . . shall also live. Believers are united with Christ in His death and resurrection (Rom. 6:3–11).

2:12 If we endure. Persevering in our faith, even in the face of hardship or persecution, will result in a reward when Christ returns (Luke 19:11–27; Rom. 8:17; Rev. 3:21).

For <sup>p</sup>if we died with Him,
We shall also live with Him.

<sup>12</sup> <sup>q</sup>If we endure,
We shall also reign with Him.

<sup>r</sup>If we deny Him,
He also will deny us.

<sup>13</sup> If we are faithless,
He remains faithful;
He <sup>s</sup>cannot deny Himself.

Approved and Disapproved Workers

<sup>14</sup>Remind them of these things, <sup>t</sup>charging them before the Lord not to strive about words to no profit, to the ruin of the hearers. <sup>15a</sup>Be diligent to present yourself approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. <sup>16</sup>But shun profane and idle babblings, for they will increase to more ungodliness. <sup>17</sup>And their message will spread like cancer. <sup>v</sup>Hymenaeus and Philetus are of this sort, <sup>18</sup>who have strayed concerning the truth, <sup>w</sup>saying that the resurrection is already past; and they overthrow the faith of some. <sup>19</sup>Nevertheless <sup>x</sup>the solid foundation of God stands, having this seal: “The Lord <sup>y</sup>knows those

2:13 faithless. This word describes an immature believer who lives for self and not for the Savior (1 Cor. 3:1–3,15). He remains faithful. For Christ to abandon us would be contrary to His faithful nature (John 10:27–30; Heb. 10:23; 13:5).

2:15 Be diligent. The position of teaching God’s word is a position of great responsibility, not to be taken lightly (James 3:1).

2:18 already past. This was probably an early form of Gnosticism, a body of teaching which emphasized the “spiritual,” and considered the physical world and the human body unreal and unimportant.

<sup>20</sup>But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay, some for honor and some for dishonor. <sup>21</sup>Therefore if anyone cleanses himself from the latter, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified and useful for the Master, <sup>a</sup>prepared for every good work. <sup>22b</sup>Flee also youthful lusts; but pursue righteousness, faith, love, peace with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart. <sup>23</sup>But avoid foolish and ignorant disputes, knowing that they generate strife. <sup>24</sup>And <sup>a</sup>a servant of the Lord must not quarrel but be gentle to all, <sup>a</sup>able to teach, <sup>e</sup>patient, <sup>25</sup>in humility correcting those who are in opposition, <sup>8</sup>if God perhaps will grant them repentance, <sup>h</sup>so that they may know the truth, <sup>26</sup>and that they may come to their senses and <sup>i</sup>escape the snare of the devil, having been taken captive by him to do his will.

Perilous Times and Perilous Men

3 But know this, that <sup>a</sup>in the last days perilous times will come: <sup>2</sup>For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, <sup>3</sup>unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, <sup>4b</sup>traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, <sup>5c</sup>having a form of godliness but <sup>a</sup>denying its power. And <sup>e</sup>from such people turn away! <sup>6</sup>For <sup>i</sup>of this sort are those who creep into households and make captives of gullible women loaded down with sins, led away by various lusts, <sup>7a</sup>always learning and never able <sup>8</sup>to come to the knowledge of the truth. <sup>8b</sup>Now as Jannes and Jambres resisted Moses, so do these also resist the truth: <sup>i</sup>men of corrupt minds, <sup>i</sup>disapproved concerning the faith; <sup>9</sup>but they will progress no further, for their folly will be manifest to all, <sup>k</sup>as theirs also was.

The Man of God and the Word of God

*2:19 NU-Text and M-Text read the Lord.

2:21 Master. This is a strong term for God's authority over the lives of believers, regardless of their level of spiritual maturity.

2:22 Flee . . . pursue. When we run toward righteousness, we are running away from sin. The two are completely opposite, and a person cannot follow both at once.

2:25 in humility correcting. The aim of instruction is repentance or a change of thinking, not self-justification or the pleasure of argument.

2:26 come to their senses. False teaching has an intoxicating effect that dulls the mind to God's truth.

3:5 a form of godliness. This is an outward appearance of reverence for God. Denying its power describes religious activity that is not connected to a living relationship with Jesus Christ. This kind of religion provokes God's anger (Is. 1:10–18; Matt. 23:25–28).

3:8 Jannes and Jambres. They are not named in the Old Testament, but according to Jewish tradition, Jannes and Jambres were two of the Egyptian magicians who opposed Moses (Ex. 7:11).

3:12 will suffer persecution. God does not promise deliverance from persecution, but deliverance through it. Persecution is one of the means that God uses to bring about our growth and sanctification (2:12; Matt. 5:10–12; Rev. 2:10).

3:16 inspiration of God. This is literally “God-breathed.” Scripture was freely produced by human writers, but the original Author is God Himself. God “breathed out” the Scriptures so that they are not only human words, but simultaneously and ultimately the very utterances of God. Thus, Scripture is true in all that it affirms and is completely authoritative (1 Pet. 1:20–21). The Bible not only “contains God's words,” it is God's Word. Therefore the Scriptures are fully consistent and inerrant, authoritative and trustworthy.

3:17 every good work. Paul emphasizes the essential link between knowing God's Word and applying it to one's daily life. Right doctrine should produce right practice.

Preach the Word

Paul's Valedictory

The Abandoned Apostle

cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas when you come—and the books, especially the parchments.

<sup>14</sup>vAlexander the coppersmith did me much harm. May the Lord repay him according to his works. <sup>15</sup>You also must beware of him, for he has greatly resisted our words.

<sup>16</sup>At my first defense no one stood with me, but all forsook me. <sup>w</sup>May it not be charged against them.

The Lord Is Faithful

<sup>17</sup>xBut the Lord stood with me and strengthened me, <sup>y</sup>so that the message might be preached fully through me, and that all the Gentiles might hear. Also I was delivered <sup>z</sup>out of the mouth of the lion. <sup>18</sup>aAnd the Lord will deliver me from every evil work and preserve me for His heavenly kingdom. <sup>b</sup>To Him be glory forever and ever. Amen!

Come Before Winter

<sup>21</sup>Do your utmost to come before winter.

Eubulus greets you, as well as Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brethren.

Farewell

<sup>22</sup>The Lord Jesus Christ* be with your spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

* 4:1 NU-Text omits therefore and reads and by for at. * 4:22 NU-Text omits Jesus Christ.

4:2 longsuffering. Longsuffering and doctrine are two necessary components of an effective ministry. True spiritual growth occurs over a period of time, through consistent teaching and application of God's Word.

4:6 drink offering. An offering performed by pouring wine out on the ground or altar (Num. 28:11–31). Paul's life was already being poured out in service to Christ.

4:7 fought the good fight. Paul did not make these comments until the end of his race, when he was about to die. He did not presume or rely on his past service. Instead, he persevered, struggled, and served God until the end (1 Cor. 9:24–27).

4:8 loved His appearing. These are the believers who have lived faithfully in the hope of His return (Titus 2:11–15; 1 John 2:28).

4:11 Mark. Mark's desertion of Paul in Pamphylia on his first missionary journey had led to the separation of Paul and Barnabas at the beginning of Paul's second missionary journey (Acts 15:36–40). Later Paul and Mark were reconciled, and Mark served Paul in the ministry (Col. 4:10). It is believed that Mark later wrote the Gospel of Mark.

4:12 Tychicus. Tychicus was Paul's faithful co-worker (Acts 20:4; Eph. 6:21; Col. 4:7).

4:14 Alexander. This may be the person named in 1 Timothy 1:20 or Acts 19:33, who caused harm to Paul's ministry in Ephesus.

4:19 Prisca and Aquila. Prisca is a form of the name Priscilla. Paul had met Priscilla and Aquila in Corinth on his second missionary journey (Acts 18:1–3), and they had assisted in God's work in Ephesus (Acts 18:18–19).

4:20 Trophimus. Trophimus, a member of the church of Ephesus (Acts 21:29), had traveled with Paul to Jerusalem (Acts 20:4).

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TITUS

► AUTHOR: Titus was one of Paul's Gentile converts. He probably worked with Paul during his time at Ephesus on his third missionary journey. Later he also worked in Corinth and this letter indicates that Paul is commissioning him to work on the island of Crete. Paul wrote this letter about A.D. 63, perhaps from Corinth, taking advantage of the journey of Zenas and Apollos (3:13), whose destination would take them by way of Crete.

► TIME: c. A.D. 63    ► KEY VERSE: Titus 3:8

► THEME: Paul's instructions to Titus are similar to those he gives to Timothy. He gives him instructions about the leadership and organization of the church and guidance in dealing with the opposition of those who would contradict his teaching. His tone is that of a seasoned leader passing on the essential instructions to a valued disciple.

Greeting

1 Paul, a bondservant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect and <sup>a</sup>the acknowledgment of the truth <sup>b</sup>which accords with godliness, <sup>2</sup>in hope of eternal life which God, who <sup>c</sup>cannot lie, promised before time began, <sup>3</sup>but has in due time manifested His word through preaching, which was committed to me according to the commandment of God our Savior;

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ* our Savior.

Qualified Elders

<sup>5</sup>For this reason I left you in Crete, that you should <sup>e</sup>set in order the things that are lacking, and appoint elders in every city as I commanded you—<sup>6</sup>if a man is blameless, the husband of one wife, <sup>f</sup>having faithful children not accused of dissipation or insubordination. <sup>7</sup>For a bishop* must be blameless, as a steward of God, not self-willed, not quick-tempered, <sup>8</sup>not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for money, <sup>9</sup>but hospitable, a lover of what is good, sober-minded, just, holy, self-controlled,

* 1:4 NU-Text reads and Christ Jesus. * 1:7 Literally overseer

1:2 We Can Trust God—Often Christians will doubt our position with God simply because we do not feel saved. We don't understand that the basis for our standing is the promise of God and not emotional feelings. One helpful way to see these promises is in relation to the Trinity:

1. The promise and work of the Father. He has promised to graciously accept in Christ all repenting sinners (Eph. 1:6 and Col. 3:3). This means a Christian has the right to be in heaven someday, for he is in Christ. God guarantees us that He will work out all things for our ultimate good (Rom. 8:28).

2. The promise and work of the Son. He has promised us eternal life (John 5:24) and abundant life (John 10:10). This promise covers not only our final destiny in heaven, but also our present Christian service here on earth. He is, in fact, right now praying for us and ministering to us at His Father's right hand (Heb. 8:1; 9:24).

3. The promise and work of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is said to indwell the believer (John 14:16). In addition, He places all believing sinners into the body of Christ, thus assuring us of union with God's family (1 Cor. 12:13).

1:3 preaching. Paul places the emphasis on the message, not on the messenger. Christ is the center of our faith, not any one preacher (1 Cor. 9:16; 2 Cor. 4:5).

1:5 appoint elders. The Greek words for "elder" and "bishop" (literally, overseer) seem to have been used interchangeably by Paul (v. 7). "Elder" perhaps speaks more of the office and its authority, while "bishop" may speak more of the person's function and the ministry of oversight (Acts 20:17).

1:6 husband of one wife. The exact application of this phrase is debated; some believe that it merely forbids polygamy, while others believe that it also prohibits a man who is divorced and remarried. It is clearly emphasizing the importance of marital faithfulness (Matt. 19:5). faithful children. The man must have a good relationship with his wife, and he should also have children who demonstrate faithfulness to God. If a man has children who reject the ways of God, or who are out of control, this reflects on the father's ability to lead others outside his home.

1:4 <sup>d</sup> 2 Cor. 2:13; 8:23 1:5 <sup>e</sup> 1 Cor. 11:34 1:6 <sup>f</sup> 1 Tim.
3:2-4 1:7 <sup>g</sup> Lev. 10:9

<sup>9</sup>holding fast the faithful word as he has been taught, that he may be able, by sound doctrine, both to exhort and convict those who contradict.

The Elders' Task

Qualities of a Sound Church

2 But as for you, speak the things which are proper for sound doctrine: <sup>2a</sup>that the older men be sober, reverent, temperate, sound in faith, in love, in patience; <sup>3</sup>the older women likewise, that they be reverent in behavior, not slanderers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things—<sup>4</sup>that they admonish the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, <sup>5</sup>to be discreet, chaste, <sup>6a</sup>homemakers, good, <sup>6b</sup>obedient to their own husbands, <sup>6c</sup>that the word of God may not be blasphemed.

<sup>9</sup>Exhort <sup>9a</sup>bondservants to be obedient to their own masters, to be well pleasing in all things, not answering back, <sup>10</sup>not pilfering, but showing all good fidelity, that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in all things.

Trained by Saving Grace

<sup>11</sup>For <sup>11a</sup>the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men, <sup>12</sup>teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in the present age, <sup>13h</sup>looking for the blessed <sup>13a</sup>hope and glorious appearing of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ,

* 2:7 NU-Text omits incorruptibility. * 2:8 NU-Text and M-Text read us.

1:9 convict. The word convict here means to rebuke in such a way as to produce repentance and confession of sin (John 16:8). A rebuke can have the positive results of producing change in a person's life.

1:10 those of the circumcision. Apparently there were Jewish Christians in the churches of Crete who were limiting the Christian freedom of Gentile Christians by requiring an adherence to Jewish laws (Gal. 3).

1:12 Cretans are always liars. Paul is quoting the Cretan poet Epimenides, who wrote these words around 600 B.C. The Cretans were so much regarded as liars in the Mediterranean world that the expression "to Cretanize" meant "to lie."

1:14 Jewish fables. These were probably legends about Old Testament figures, like some that survive to this day in non-biblical writings.

1:15 To the pure . . . to those who are defiled. Paul highlights the mistaken asceticism of the Cretan false teachers. They had identified certain foods and practices as defiled when in reality it was their minds that were defiled and unbelieving. On the other hand, to the pure, all things are pure. The Cretan believers had placed their trust in Christ, focusing their minds on Him, and therefore they would be empowered by God's Spirit to lead pure lives. Jesus taught the same principle in Matthew 15:11. Physical objects or external practices do not defile a person, but a mind focused on evil thoroughly corrupts.

2:1 sound doctrine. "Sound" means "healthy." Right thinking is the raw material for right actions (Ps. 119:11; Prov. 23:7; Rom. 12:2; James 1:13–15). Our actions will naturally reveal the direction of our thoughts.

2:2 older men. Maturity is not determined simply by age or even by how much a person knows; it is determined by how skilled a person is in applying the truth to life and in distinguishing good from evil (Heb. 5:13–14).

2:4 love their husbands . . . their children. This is not just romantic or emotional love, but the commitment of a woman to the welfare of her husband and children.

2:5 obedient to their own husbands. Women are not under the authority of men in general, but rather the authority of their own husbands (Eph. 5:21). not be blasphemed. The older women are to teach the younger women so that their actions will glorify God, build His kingdom, and strengthen the family. Failure to follow Paul's instructions will result in the word of God being maligned in the pagan community.

2:6 young men. Young men are to pursue the character qualities that older men should possess already.

2:7 pattern of good works. More people will learn from our daily actions than from what we say.

2:11 appeared. Christ came the first time in grace to save men from their sins; the second time He will come in glory to reign (v. 13).

2:13 looking for the blessed hope. Paul reminded Timothy that there is a special crown awaiting all who "have loved His appearing" (2 Tim. 4:8). great God and Savior Jesus Christ. This is one of the strongest statements of the deity of Christ in the New Testament.

Graces of the Heirs of Grace

3 Remind them <sup>a</sup>to be subject to rulers and authorities, to obey, <sup>b</sup>to be ready for every good work, <sup>2</sup>to speak evil of no one, to be peaceable, gentle, showing all humility to all men. <sup>3</sup>For <sup>c</sup>we ourselves were also once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful and hating one another. <sup>4</sup>But when <sup>d</sup>the kindness and the love of <sup>e</sup>God our Savior toward man appeared, <sup>5</sup>not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us, through <sup>6</sup>the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit, <sup>6h</sup>whom He poured out on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior, <sup>7</sup>that having been justified by His grace <sup>i</sup>we should become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

things I want you to affirm constantly, that those who have believed in God should be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men.

Avoid Dissension

<sup>9</sup>But <sup>k</sup>avoid foolish disputes, genealogies, contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and useless.

<sup>10</sup>Reject a divisive man after the first and second admonition, <sup>11</sup>knowing that such a person is warped and sinning, being self-condemned.

Final Messages

<sup>12</sup>When I send Artemas to you, or <sup>m</sup>Tychicus, be diligent to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there. <sup>13</sup>Send Zenas the lawyer and <sup>n</sup>Apollos on their journey with haste, that they may lack nothing. <sup>14</sup>And let our people also learn to maintain good works, to meet urgent needs, that they may not be unfruitful.

Farewell

<sup>15</sup>All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in the faith.

Grace be with you all. Amen.

2:14 redeem. “Redeem” means “to purchase.” With His death on the cross, Christ paid the price to release us from the bondage of sin (Rom. 6:6–7, 17, 20; Eph. 1:7). God’s purpose in redeeming us is not only to save us from hell; He also wants to free us from sin so that we can produce good works that glorify Him (Eph. 2:8–10).

3:1 Remind them. The Cretans notoriously lacked the virtue of good citizenship (1:12). Disobedience permeated the Cretan’s lifestyle, both in the church (v. 10) and in government. Believers who got along with civil authorities and who lived peacefully with their neighbors would reflect positively on their faith and would glorify God.

3:5 not by works of righteousness. Paul has been exhorting Titus to emphasize good works in his ministry with the Cretans, and he wants to make it clear that such good works have no value in saving a person. It is solely on the basis of God’s mercy that we are delivered from the penalty of our sin. washing of regeneration*. This phrase refers to the work of the Holy Spirit, in whom we are “born again” (John 3:3, 6), given a new nature and cleansed from old sin. renewing of the Holy Spirit*. There are three works performed by the Holy Spirit in preparing nonbelievers to become Christians. (1) The Holy Spirit restrains. Satan would enjoy nothing more than to destroy people before they make their decision to accept Christ as Savior. But the Holy Spirit prevents this from occurring (Is. 59:19). (2) The Holy Spirit convicts. Man-kind’s sin and righteousness are exposed by the Holy Spirit (John 16:8). Two examples of such conviction are Felix, a Roman governor who “trembled” under conviction (Acts 24:25), and King Agrippa, who was almost persuaded in Acts 26:28. (3) The Holy Spirit regenerates. When a repenting sinner accepts Christ as Savior, he is given a new nature by the Holy Spirit (2 Cor. 5:17). Jesus carefully explained this ministry of the Holy Spirit to Nicodemus (John 3:3–7).

3:7 we should become heirs. God justifies believers so that they might become co-heirs with Jesus Christ in His coming reign (Rom. 8:17; 2 Tim. 2:12).

3:10 Reject a divisive man. A sinner must always be given ample opportunity to repent, but if he insists on continuing in sin, the church is required to let him go (Matt. 18:15–17; 2 Thess. 3:14–15).

3:12 Tychicus. Tychicus, one of Paul’s assistants, is also mentioned in Acts 20:4; Ephesians 6:21; Colossians 4:7; 2 Timothy 4:12.

3:13 Apollos. Apollos was a fellow worker of Paul’s (1 Cor. 16:12), an Alexandrian who had been taught by Priscilla and Aquila and who had eloquently preached the gospel at Ephesus and Corinth (Acts 18:24–19:1).

3:14 not be unfruitful. Justification is a free gift from God, but we will be rewarded according to what we do on this earth (Rev. 22:12). It would be tragedy to stand ashamed at Christ’s return (1 John 2:28).

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO PHILEMON

► AUTHOR: Though some critics deny its authenticity, the general consensus of scholarship recognizes Philemon as Paul's work. There could have been no doctrinal motive for its forgery, and it is supported externally by consistent tradition and internally by no less than three references to Paul (Philem. 1,9,19).

► TIME: c. A.D. 60–61    ► KEY VERSES: Philem. 16–17

► THEME: Paul wrote this letter to a slave owner in the church at Colosse. Apparently, Onesimus, the slave of Philemon had stolen from him and had run away, an act punishable by death under Roman law. Onesimus had since met Paul and become a Christian. Paul's letter is a personal appeal in an effort to help them reconcile and renew their relationship.

Greeting

Paul, a <sup>a</sup>prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother,

To Philemon our beloved friend and fellow laborer, <sup>2</sup>to the beloved* Apphia, <sup>b</sup>Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in your house:

<sup>3</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philemon's Love and Faith

<sup>4</sup>I thank my God, making mention of you always in my prayers, <sup>5a</sup>hearing of your love and faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus and toward all the saints, <sup>6</sup>that the sharing of your faith may become effective <sup>e</sup>by the acknowledgment of <sup>f</sup>every good thing which is in you* in Christ Jesus. <sup>7</sup>For we have* great joy* and consolation in your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed by you, brother.

The Plea for Onesimus

<sup>8</sup>Therefore, though I might be very bold in Christ to command you what is fitting,

<sup>9</sup>yet for love's sake I rather appeal to you—being such a one as Paul, the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ—<sup>10</sup>I appeal to you for my son <sup>g</sup>Onesimus, whom I have begotten while in my chains, <sup>11</sup>who once was unprofitable to you, but now is profitable to you and to me.

<sup>12</sup>I am sending him back* You therefore receive him, that is, my own heart, <sup>13</sup>whom I wished to keep with me, that on your behalf he might minister to me in my chains for the gospel. <sup>14</sup>But without your consent I wanted to do nothing, <sup>h</sup>that your good deed might not be by compulsion, as it were, but voluntary.

<sup>15</sup>For perhaps he departed for a while for this purpose, that you might receive him forever, <sup>16</sup>no longer as a slave but more than a slave—a beloved brother, especially to me but how much more to you, both in the <sup>i</sup>flesh and in the Lord.

*2 NU-Text reads to our sister Apphia. *6 NU-Text and M-Text read us. *7 NU-Text reads had. • M-Text reads thanksgiving. *12 NU-Text reads back to you in person, that is, my own heart.

1–2 To Philemon . . . and to the church. Paul addresses the letter to Philemon and the Colossian church, but this intensely personal epistle uses the singular “I” and “you,” demonstrating that the letter is Paul's personal plea to Philemon. It was written at the same time as the letter to the Colossians, and doubtless carried by the same messenger.

2 Apphia . . . Archippus. Apphia may have been the wife of Philemon; Archippus may have been Philemon's son, or perhaps an elder in the Colossian church (Col. 4:17).

6 faith may become effective. Working faith is a sharing faith; it is the acknowledgment of what Christ has done in the believer's life (Eph. 3:17–19).

9 Paul, the aged. The apostle is either speaking of his old age, or of the office of an elder.

11 unprofitable . . . profitable. Paul uses an interesting play on words here. Having mentioned Onesimus, whose name means “useful,” the apostle describes him as someone who was formerly useless, but who has become useful through the work of Christ in his life.

14 not . . . by compulsion. Service for Christ is never forced. Paul has given Philemon several good reasons to forgive Onesimus, but here he returns to the foundation of his argument: Philemon's actions must proceed from his own love (v. 9).

Philemon's Obedience Encouraged

<sup>17</sup>If then you count me as a partner, receive him as you would me. <sup>18</sup>But if he has wronged you or owes anything, put that on my account. <sup>19</sup>I, Paul, am writing with my own hand. I will repay—not to mention to you that you owe me even your own self besides. <sup>20</sup>Yes, brother, let me have joy from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in the Lord.

<sup>21</sup>k Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say. <sup>22</sup>But, meanwhile, also prepare a guest room for me, for <sup>l</sup>I trust that <sup>m</sup>through your prayers I shall be granted to you.

Farewell

18 *wronged you. Onesimus had probably stolen something from Philemon when he left. put that on my account. This accounting imagery reminds us of the theological truth that our sins were charged over to Christ even though He had not earned them. Forgiveness is costly (Is. 53:6).

19 *my own hand. Paul wrote this personal letter himself, and therefore it could be considered a legal document obligating him to pay the damages that Onesimus had caused.

22 *prepare a guest room. It is believed that Paul wrote this letter during his imprisonment in Rome (Acts 28), and that he was released shortly afterwards. He was probably not at liberty for very long, but it is possible that he was able to visit Colosse before his second imprisonment and execution.

THE EPISTLE TO THE HEBREWS

► AUTHOR: The origin of Hebrews is unknown. Uncertainty plagues not only its authorship, but also its date and its readership. Hebrews 13:18–24 tells us that this book was not anonymous to the original readers; they evidently knew the author. For some reason however, early church tradition is divided over the identity of the author. Part of the church attributed it to Paul, others preferred Barnabas, Luke, or Clement, and some chose anonymity. Some aspects of the language style and theology of Hebrews are very similar to Paul's epistles. However, significant stylistic differences have led the majority of biblical scholars to reject Pauline authorship of this book.

► TIME: c. A.D. 64–68

► KEY VERSES: Heb. 4:14–16

► THEME: Hebrews was written for a group of Jewish Christians who were thinking about returning to their original faith. The author goes to great lengths to convince them to stay with their new faith. Point by point he goes through a whole series of arguments showing how Judaism was a foreshadowing of Christ. Everything promising about Old Testament Judaism is fulfilled in Christ. The new way is the superior way, as Christ and the faith that He established supersedes what has gone before. Understanding Jewish faith and practice, and the role of Moses and Aaron in biblical history is a prerequisite to understanding Hebrews.

God's Supreme Revelation

1 God, who at various times and <sup>a</sup>in various ways spoke in time past to the fathers by the prophets, <sup>2</sup>has in these last days spoken to us by His Son, whom He has appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the worlds; <sup>3b</sup>who being the brightness of His glory and the express image of His person, and <sup>4</sup>upholding all things by the word of His power, <sup>5</sup>when He had by Himself* purged our* sins, <sup>6</sup>sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, <sup>7</sup>having become so much better than the angels, as <sup>8</sup>He has by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

1:2 by His Son. This could be rephrased as “in such a person as a Son.” The emphasis rests on the character of the revelation. It is a revelation of the Son, a revelation not so much in what He has said as in who He is and what He has done.

1:3 brightness of His glory. The author of Hebrews is emphasizing that this is not a reflected brightness like the light of the moon. Instead, this is an inherent brightness like a ray from the sun. Jesus' glorious brightness comes from being essentially divine. express image. In Greek literature the word was used for stamping a coin from the die. upholding. This means to “bear” or “carry,” referring to movement and progress toward a final end. The Son not only created the universe by His powerful word, but also maintains and directs its course. He is the Governor

The Son Exalted Above Angels

<sup>5</sup>For to which of the angels did He ever say:

<sup>h</sup>“You are My Son, Today I have begotten You”?*

And again:

<sup>i</sup>“*I will be to Him a Father,
And He shall be to Me a Son*”?*

<sup>6</sup>But when He again brings <sup>j</sup>the firstborn into the world, He says:

* 1:3 NU-Text omits by Himself. • NU-Text omits our. * 1:5 Psalm 2:7 • 2 Samuel 7:14 of the universe. sat down. This suggests the formal act of assuming the office of High Priest and implies a contrast to the Levitical priest, who never finished his work and sat down (10:11–13).

1:5 Today I have begotten You. This probably refers to the day Christ sat down at the Father's right hand after He accomplished His work as the Messiah.

1:6 when He again brings the firstborn. This is a reference to the second coming. “Firstborn” refers to rank, meaning one who ranks above all others (Ps. 89:27).

1:1 <sup>a</sup>Num. 12:6, 8 1:3 <sup>b</sup>John 1:14 <sup>c</sup>2 Cor. 4:4 <sup>d</sup>Col. 1:17

<sup>7</sup>And of the angels He says:

<sup>l</sup>“Who makes His angels spirits
And His ministers a flame of fire.”*

<sup>8</sup>But to the Son He says:

<sup>m</sup>“Your throne, O God, is forever and ever;
A scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Your kingdom.
<sup>9</sup> You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness;
Therefore God, Your God, <sup>n</sup>has anointed You
With the oil of gladness more than Your companions.”*

<sup>10</sup>And:

<sup>o</sup>“You, LORD, in the beginning laid the foundation of the earth,
And the heavens are the work of Your hands.

<sup>11</sup> <sup>p</sup>They will perish, but You remain;
And <sup>q</sup>they will all grow old like a garment;

<sup>12</sup> Like a cloak You will fold them up,
And they will be changed.
But You are the <sup>r</sup>same,
And Your years will not fail.”*

<sup>13</sup>But to which of the angels has He ever said:

<sup>s</sup>“Sit at My right hand,
Till I make Your enemies Your
footstool”?*

<sup>14</sup>Are they not all ministering spirits sent forth to minister for those who will <sup>u</sup>inherit salvation?

Do Not Neglect Salvation

<sup>2</sup>Therefore we must give the more earnest heed to the things we have heard, lest we drift away. <sup>2</sup>For if the word <sup>a</sup>spoken through angels proved steadfast, and <sup>b</sup>every transgression and disobedience received a just reward, <sup>3</sup>how shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation, <sup>d</sup>which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was <sup>e</sup>confirmed to us by those who heard Him, <sup>4</sup>God also bearing witness <sup>5</sup>both with signs and wonders, with various miracles, and <sup>6</sup>gifts of the Holy Spirit, <sup>i</sup>according to His own will?

The Son Made Lower than Angels

<sup>5</sup>For He has not put <sup>i</sup>the world to come,
of which we speak, in subjection to angels.
<sup>6</sup>But one testified in a certain place, saying:

<sup>k</sup>“What is man that You are mindful of
him,
Or the son of man that You take care of him?

<sup>7</sup> You have made him a little lower than the angels;
You have crowned him with glory and honor,*
And set him over the works of Your hands.

<sup>8</sup> <sup>l</sup>You have put all things in subjection under his feet.”*

For in that He put all in subjection under him, He left nothing that is not put under him. But now <sup>m</sup>we do not yet see all things

* 1:13 Psalm 110:1 * 2:7 NU-Text and M-Text omit the rest of verse 7. * 2:8 Psalm 8:4–6

1:7 ministers. The Son is superior to angels because He is the Sovereign who is worshiped, while the angels are ministers, that is, servants of God. The author of Hebrews quotes Psalm 104 because that psalm places angels in a long list of created objects which God sovereignly controls.

1:9 companions. This term comes from a word that means “close associates” or “partners.” The concept of believers being partners with Christ is key in Hebrews (3:1,14; 6:4; 12:8). The term refers to those who will be participants with Christ in His reign.

1:10–12 You, LORD. The context of Psalm 102 here indicates that the Lord is the One who would appear in the future to Israel and the nations (Ps.
102:12–16).

1:14 those who will inherit salvation. Salvation here is not justification because it is in the future, not in the past. The reference is to believers who inherit the kingdom or rule in God’s kingdom as a reward for their service to the Son (9:28; Col. 3:24).

2:1 drift away. The author’s audience was marked by immaturity and spiritual sluggishness (5:11–12).
The author warned them not to be carried away by the popular opinions that surrounded them. Instead, they were to hold fast to Christ’s words because they were the words of God.

2:3 how shall we escape. If the people who heard the message delivered through angels were justly punished when they disobeyed the law, how can believers expect to escape punishment when they neglect the even greater message delivered through the greater Messenger, the Son?

2:4 signs and wonders. This phrase refers to the miracles performed by the Holy Spirit through the Lord and His apostles in fulfillment of the ancient promises regarding the coming of the Messiah (Acts 2:22,43; 4:30; 5:12; 6:8; 14:3; 15:12; 1 Cor. 12:12).

2:6–8 set him over the works of Your hands. Since the Son’s humanity might appear to be an obstacle to the claim of His superiority, the author of Hebrews cites Psalm 8, a lyrical reflection on Genesis 1, to prove that God has placed humanity over all created things, which includes the angelic world.

Bringing Many Sons to Glory

<sup>10</sup>For it was fitting for Him, <sup>c</sup>for whom are all things and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the captain of their salvation <sup>e</sup>perfect through sufferings. <sup>11</sup>For <sup>e</sup>both He who sanctifies and those who are being sanctified <sup>f</sup>are all of one, for which reason <sup>g</sup>He is not ashamed to call them brethren, <sup>12</sup>saying:

*<sup>v</sup>"I will declare Your name to My brethren;
In the midst of the assembly I will sing praise to You."<sup>h</sup>*

<sup>13</sup>And again:

And again:

<sup>14</sup>Inasmuch then as the children have partaken of flesh and blood, He <sup>y</sup>Himself likewise shared in the same, <sup>z</sup>that through death He might destroy him who had the power of <sup>a</sup>death, that is, the devil, <sup>15</sup>and release those who <sup>b</sup>through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. <sup>16</sup>For indeed He does not give aid to angels, but He does give aid to the seed of Abraham. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, in all things He had <sup>c</sup>to be made like His brethren, that He might be <sup>d</sup>a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. <sup>18e</sup>For in that He Himself has suffered, being tempted, He is able to aid those who are tempted.

The Son Was Faithful

3 Therefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, Christ Jesus, <sup>2</sup>who was faithful to Him who appointed Him, as <sup>a</sup>Moses also was faithful in all His house. <sup>3</sup>For this One has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as <sup>b</sup>He who built the house has more honor than the house. <sup>4</sup>For every house is built by someone, but <sup>c</sup>He who built all things is God. <sup>5d</sup>And Moses indeed was faithful in all His house as <sup>e</sup>a servant, <sup>f</sup>for a testimony of those things which would be spoken afterward, <sup>6</sup>but Christ as <sup>g</sup>a Son over His own house, <sup>h</sup>whose house

* 2:12 Psalm 22:22 * 2:13 2 Samuel 22:3; Isaiah 8:17 • Isaiah 8:18

2:10 captain of their salvation. The Greek word here means "leader" or "originator." The word describes a pioneer or pathfinder. Jesus' endurance of sufferings on this earth makes Him our leader. He not only endured them but also triumphed over sin, death, and Satan through them.

2:12 to My brethren. Psalm 22 is quoted here. In it, the Messiah refers to "My brethren," identifying Himself with all those who place their faith in God.

2:14–16 He might destroy . . . release. Having established the unity between the Son and believer, the author concludes that there are two purposes of this close identification. The Son became human so that He could destroy the devil and release those who were in bondage to sin.

2:16 seed of Abraham. The author may have used the expression because the recipients of this letter were primarily Jewish believers. The author is pointing out that Christ came to the aid of Abraham's sons, not the angelic hosts.

2:17 in things pertaining to God. Jesus participated in our nature and in our sufferings on earth so that He could be a sympathetic Mediator between God and humanity. He understands our weaknesses and intercedes for us in the presence of God the Father. make propitiation. This term refers to the satisfaction of the claims of a holy and righteous God against sinners who have broken His law. Christ appeased God's righteous wrath by dying on the cross in our place (Rom. 3:21–26). Although completely sinless, Christ voluntarily submitted to the penalty of sin, His agonizing death on the cross. This voluntary sacrifice of Himself for our welfare satisfied the justice and holiness of God. The benefits of His sacrifice are applied to all who place their faith in Him.

2:18 He Himself has suffered, being tempted. Christ's suffering included temptation. He experienced the lure of sin, but He never surrendered Himself to it. He knows what it is like to be tempted, so He knows how to assist those who are being tempted.

3:2 in all His house. This phrase is taken from Numbers 12:7. "House" refers to the tabernacle, the center of Israelite worship. Moses had faithfully obeyed God's instructions concerning the tabernacle. In the same way, Jesus had been obedient to the mission the Father had given Him. Through obedience, God established a new house of God, the church.

3:3–4 worthy of more glory than Moses. The implication is that the covenant established through Jesus' death is more glorious than the covenant established at Mount Sinai.

3:5 as a servant. The author of Hebrews continues the comparison between Moses and Jesus. While Moses was faithful as a servant, Christ's faithfulness was greater because it was performed by a Son. things which would be spoken afterward. Moses' work pointed forward to Christ (9:10; 10:3). The regulations of the law of Moses pointed out both the sin of humanity and the need for a perfect sacrifice to reconcile people to their holy Creator.

we are <sup>i</sup>if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm to the end.*

Be Faithful

In the day of trial in the wilderness,

<sup>9</sup> Where your fathers tested Me, tried Me,

And saw My works forty years.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore I was angry with that generation,

And said, 'They always go astray in their heart,

And they have not known My ways.'

<sup>11</sup> So I swore in My wrath,

'They shall not enter My rest.'"

<sup>12</sup>Beware, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in departing from the living God; <sup>13</sup>but exhort one another daily, while it is called "Today," lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. <sup>14</sup>For we have become partakers of Christ if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast to the end, <sup>15</sup>while it is said:

<sup>1</sup>*"Today, if you will hear His voice,
Do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion."*

Failure of the Wilderness

Wanderers

<sup>16m</sup>For who, having heard, rebelled? Indeed, was it not all who came out of Egypt, led by Moses? <sup>17</sup>Now with whom was He angry forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, <sup>n</sup>whose corpses fell in the wilderness? <sup>18</sup>And <sup>o</sup>to whom did He swear that they would not enter His rest, but to those who did not obey? <sup>19</sup>So we see that they could not enter in because of <sup>p</sup>unbelief.

The Promise of Rest

<sup>4</sup>Therefore, since a promise remains of entering His rest, <sup>q</sup>let us fear lest any of you seem to have come short of it. <sup>2</sup>For indeed the gospel was preached to us as well as to them; but the word which they heard did not profit them,* not being mixed with faith in those who heard it. <sup>3</sup>For we who have believed do enter that rest, as He has said:

<sup>b</sup>*"So I swore in My wrath,
'They shall not enter My rest,'"*

although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. <sup>4</sup>For He has spoken in a certain place of the seventh day in this way: "And God rested on the seventh day from all His works,"* and again in this place: "They shall not enter My rest."*

<sup>6</sup>Since therefore it remains that some must enter it, and those to whom it was first preached did not enter because of disobedience, <sup>7</sup>again He designates a certain day, saying in David, "Today," after such a long time, as it has been said:

<sup>e</sup>*"Today, if you will hear His voice,
Do not harden your hearts."**

<sup>8</sup>For if Joshua had <sup>f</sup>given them rest, then He would not afterward have spoken of another day. <sup>9</sup>There remains therefore a rest for the people of God. <sup>10</sup>For he who has entered His rest has himself also ceased from his works as God did from His.

* 3:6 NU-Text omits firm to the end. * 3:11 Psalm 95:7-11 * 3:15 Psalm 95:7, 8 * 4:2 NU-Text and M-Text read profit them, since they were not united by faith with those who heeded it. * 4:3 Psalm 95:11 * 4:4 Genesis 2:2 * 4:5 Psalm 95:11 * 4:7 Psalm 95:7, 8

3:7-11 Do not harden your hearts. The author of Hebrews quotes Psalm 95:7-11 to warn the Jewish Christians about hardening their hearts to God and the salvation He offers. Moses' generation had refused to trust in God to provide for their needs in the wilderness (Ex. 17:1-7), and the readers of this letter were also in danger. My rest. This is a key concept in Hebrews. In the Old Testament, the conquest of the Promised Land and the cessation of fighting in the land was viewed as a form of rest (Deut. 3:20; 12:9; 25:19; Josh. 11:23; 21:44; 22:4). In the New Testament, "rest" speaks of the believer's eternal home and the joy that he or she will experience in Jesus' presence (4:1).

3:12-13 heart of unbelief. In essence, unbelief is a stubborn refusal to trust in the truthfulness of His word. It is a grave sin because it leads us away from God.

3:14 partakers of Christ. This is the same word translated companions in 1:9. Believers will be partners with Christ in His future kingdom (Rev. 2:26-27).

3:15-19 with whom was He angry. The Jewish Christians to whom this letter was addressed were in danger of following in their ancestors' footsteps.

They were tempted to doubt the words of Jesus. With the rhetorical questions in these verses, the author of Hebrews was encouraging them to place their faith firmly in Christ.

4:2 the gospel was preached. This is the translation of a single Greek word meaning "the good news was announced."

4:4 God rested. The theme of rest has its beginning in God's own rest after creation. The fact that Genesis makes no mention of the evening of the seventh day of creation provides a basis for some Jewish commentators to conclude that the rest of God lasts throughout all history.

4:9 rest. The word used here is different from the word used in verses 1, 3, 5, 10-11; 3:11, 18. Jews commonly taught that the Sabbath foreshadowed the world to come, and they spoke of "a day which shall be all Sabbath."

The Word Discovers Our Condition

<sup>11</sup>Let us therefore be diligent to enter that rest, lest anyone fall according to the same example of disobedience. <sup>12</sup>For the word of God is <sup>h</sup>living and powerful, and <sup>i</sup>sharper than any <sup>j</sup>two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is <sup>k</sup>a discern-er of the thoughts and intents of the heart. <sup>13</sup>And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are <sup>m</sup>naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

Our Compassionate High Priest

<sup>14</sup>Seeing then that we have a great <sup>n</sup>High Priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, <sup>o</sup>let us hold fast our confession. <sup>15</sup>For <sup>p</sup>we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but <sup>q</sup>was in all points tempted as we are, <sup>r</sup>yet without sin. <sup>16</sup>Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Qualifications for High Priesthood

5 For every high priest taken from among men <sup>a</sup>is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. <sup>2</sup>He can have compassion on those who are ignorant and going astray, since he himself is also subject to <sup>b</sup>weakness. <sup>3</sup>Because of this he is required as for the people, so also for <sup>c</sup>himself, to offer sacrifices for sins. <sup>4</sup>And no man takes this honor to himself, but he who is called by God, just as <sup>d</sup>Aaron was.

A Priest Forever

<sup>5e</sup>So also Christ did not glorify Himself to become High Priest, but it was He who said to Him:

f“You are My Son,
Today I have begotten You.”*

<sup>6</sup>As He also says in another place:

g“You are a priest forever
According to the order of Melchizedek”*,*

Spiritual Immaturity

<sup>12</sup>For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the first principles of the oracles of God; and you have come to need <sup>q</sup>milk and not solid food. <sup>13</sup>For everyone who partakes <sup>r</sup>only of milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness, for he is <sup>s</sup>a babe. <sup>14</sup>But solid food belongs to those who are of full age, that is, those who by reason of use have their senses exercised <sup>t</sup>to discern both good and evil.

* 5:5 Psalm 2:7 * 5:6 Psalm 110:4

4:11 *be diligent to enter that rest. The rest is not automatic. Determined diligence is required. The danger is that believers today, like the Israelites of the past, will not stand, but will fall in disobedience.

4:13 *naked and open. This phrase suggests complete exposure and defenselessness before God.

4:15 *sympathize. This word means “to suffer with” and expresses the feeling of one who has entered into suffering.

4:16 *come. This command strongly contrasts with God’s command at Mount Sinai: “Do not go up to the mountain or touch its base” (Ex. 19:12). Because of Christ’s priestly work, believers can approach God’s presence. boldly. This word carries with it the idea of “fearlessness” or “courageousness.” Believers should boldly approach God in prayer because His Son is our gracious High Priest who sits at God’s right hand interceding for us.

5:1–4 *high priest. He represents the people and thus must identify with their human nature. But he also represents God to the people and thus must be called by God to his office.

5:2 *ignorant, and going astray. This phrase describes those who unintentionally sin (Num. 15:30–36).

5:8 *He learned obedience. Jesus experienced all of what a person goes through on this earth. He knows how difficult it is to obey God completely, just as He understands the attraction of temptation (2:18).

5:9 *having been perfected. This phrase does not suggest that Jesus had not been perfect before. It means that He successfully carried out God’s plan for Him. He endured suffering and temptation so that He could truly function as our High Priest, understanding our weaknesses and interceding before God for us.

5:12 *first principles. The phrase refers to the letters of the alphabet in writing or to addition and subtraction tables in arithmetic. They are principles out of which everything else develops.

5:13 *unskilled in the word of righteousness. The readers of this letter did not necessarily lack information concerning righteousness; they lacked experience in practicing the information they had.

The Peril of Not Progressing

6 Therefore, <sup>a</sup>leaving the discussion of the elementary principles of Christ, let us go on to perfection, not laying again the foundation of repentance from <sup>b</sup>dead works and of faith toward God, <sup>2c</sup>of the doctrine of baptisms, <sup>d</sup>of laying on of hands, <sup>e</sup>of resurrection of the dead, <sup>f</sup>and of eternal judgment. <sup>3</sup>And this we will* do if God permits.

<sup>4</sup>For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted <sup>g</sup>the heavenly gift, and <sup>h</sup>have become partakers of the Holy Spirit, <sup>5</sup>and have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come, <sup>6</sup>if they fall away,* to renew them again to repentance, <sup>i</sup>since they crucify again for themselves the Son of God, and put Him to an open shame.

<sup>7</sup>For the earth which drinks in the rain that often comes upon it, and bears herbs useful for those by whom it is cultivated, <sup>j</sup>receives blessing from God; <sup>8k</sup>but if it bears thorns and briars, it is rejected and near to being cursed, whose end is to be burned.

A Better Estimate

<sup>9</sup>But, beloved, we are confident of better things concerning you, yes, things that accompany salvation, though we speak in this manner. <sup>10</sup>For <sup>l</sup>God is not unjust to forget <sup>m</sup>your work and labor of* love which you have shown toward His name, in that you have <sup>n</sup>ministered to the saints, and do minister. <sup>11</sup>And we desire that each one of you show the same diligence <sup>o</sup>to the full assurance of hope until the end, <sup>12</sup>that you do not become sluggish, but imitate those who through faith and patience <sup>p</sup>inherit the promises.

God's Infallible Purpose in Christ

<sup>13</sup>For when God made a promise to Abraham, because He could swear by no one greater, <sup>q</sup>He swore by Himself, <sup>14</sup>saying, "Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you."<sup>r</sup> <sup>15</sup>And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the <sup>s</sup>promise. <sup>16</sup>For men indeed swear by the greater, and <sup>t</sup>an oath for confirmation is for them an end of all dispute. <sup>17</sup>Thus God, determining to show more abundantly to <sup>u</sup>the heirs of promise <sup>v</sup>the immutability of His counsel, confirmed it by an oath, <sup>18</sup>that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to <sup>w</sup>lie, we might* have strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold of the hope <sup>x</sup>set before us.

<sup>19</sup>This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, <sup>y</sup>and which enters the Presence behind the veil, <sup>20</sup>where the forerunner has entered for us, even Jesus, <sup>z</sup>having become High Priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

* 6:3 M-Text reads let us do. * 6:6 Or and have fallen away * 6:10 NU-Text omits labor of.

* 6:14 Genesis 22:17 * 6:18 M-Text omits might.

6:1 repentance from dead works. This phrase refers to a change of mind about the demands of the law of Moses (9:14). Even though the law was good (1 Tim. 1:8), it was weak because of the weakness of our sinful nature (Rom. 8:3). What is needed for salvation is not lifeless works that cannot save, but faith directed toward God.

6:2 laying on of hands. This action was used to impart the Holy Spirit (Acts 8:17–18; 19:6). It was also used for ordination of the ministry (Acts 6:6; 13:3). This practice is also found in the Old Testament in commissioning someone to a public office (Num. 27:18, 23; Deut. 34:9) or in the context of presenting a sacrificial offering to the Lord (Lev. 1:4; 3:2; 4:4; 8:14; 16:21). eternal judgment. This refers to the belief that everyone will be judged by the great Judge.

6:4–6 if they fall away. This difficult passage has been interpreted in various ways. Some insist that the author is speaking of nominal Christians who heard the truth and appeared to believe in Christ but were not sincere in their faith. Others view these verses as a hypothetical argument. In other words, the author is using this hypothetical case to warn the spiritually immature. These two positions are supported by passages that speak of God's consistency in His work, that nothing can separate us from His love (John 6:39–40; 10:27–29; Rom. 8:28–30). But another group of commentators insists that the author is speaking of genuine Christians who renounce Christ. They point out that those who "tasted the heavenly gift" fall away. Passages such as 2 Corinthians 11:1–4; 2 Timothy 2:17–18; 1 John 2:21–25 are in support of this position. Whatever way one interprets this passage, it is clear that the author of Hebrews has given us a clear warning not to renounce Christ or spurn His offer of salvation.

6:6 renew. This word means "restore." In other words, it is impossible for continuous effort on the part of anyone in the Christian community to restore an apostate back to fellowship with God. Continuing Christian immaturity is dangerous.

6:13–15 Abraham. Here is an example of faith and patience in God's promise (v. 12). He waited 25 years from the time the promise was first made until Isaac, the promised son, was born (Gen. 12:3–4; 15:4; 18:10; 21:5).

6:18 two immutable things. These things are God's Word and God's oath. Since God does not lie and since He is all-powerful, He will fulfill all His promises.

6:20 forerunner. This word was used in the second century A.D. for the smaller boats sent into the harbor by larger ships unable to enter due to the buffeting of the weather. These smaller boats carried the anchor through the breakers inside the harbor and dropped it there, securing the larger ship. Forerunner also

The King of Righteousness

7 For this <sup>a</sup>Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the Most High God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, <sup>2</sup>to whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all, first being translated “king of righteousness,” and then also king of Salem, meaning “king of peace,” <sup>3</sup>without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God, remains a priest continually.

<sup>4</sup>Now consider how great this man was, to whom even the patriarch Abraham gave a tenth of the spoils. <sup>5</sup>And indeed <sup>b</sup>those who are of the sons of Levi, who receive the priesthood, have a commandment to receive tithes from the people according to the law, that is, from their brethren, though they have come from the loins of Abraham; <sup>6</sup>but he whose genealogy is not derived from them received tithes from Abraham <sup>c</sup>and blessed <sup>d</sup>him who had the promises. <sup>7</sup>Now beyond all contradiction the lesser is blessed by the better. <sup>8</sup>Here mortal men receive tithes, but there he receives them, <sup>e</sup>of whom it is witnessed that he lives. <sup>9</sup>Even Levi, who receives tithes, paid tithes through Abraham, so to speak, <sup>10</sup>for he was still in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met him.

Need for a New Priesthood

<sup>11</sup>Therefore, if perfection were through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need was there that another priest should rise according to the order of Melchizedek, and not be called according to the order of Aaron? <sup>12</sup>For the priesthood being changed, of necessity there is also a change of the law. <sup>13</sup>For He of whom these things are spoken belongs to another tribe, from which no man has officiated at the altar.

<sup>14</sup>For it is evident that <sup>g</sup>our Lord arose from <sup>h</sup>Judah, of which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood.* <sup>15</sup>And it is yet far more evident if, in the likeness of Melchizedek, there arises another priest <sup>16</sup>who has come, not according to the law of a fleshly commandment, but according to the power of an endless life. <sup>17</sup>For He testifies:*

*<sup>i</sup>“You are a priest forever
According to the order of

<sup>18</sup>For on the one hand there is an annulling of the former commandment because of <sup>j</sup>its weakness and unprofitableness, <sup>19</sup>for <sup>k</sup>the law made nothing perfect; on the other hand, <sup>l</sup>there is the bringing in of <sup>a</sup>a better hope, through which <sup>m</sup>we draw near to God.

Greatness of the New Priest

<sup>20</sup>And inasmuch as He was not made priest without an oath <sup>21</sup>(for they have become priests without an oath, but He with an oath by Him who said to Him:

*<sup>n</sup>“The LORD has sworn
And will not relent,
‘You are a priest forever’*
According to the order of Melchizedek”*)*,*

<sup>22</sup>by so much more Jesus has become a surety of a <sup>o</sup>better covenant.

<sup>23</sup>Also there were many priests, because they were prevented by death from continuing. <sup>24</sup>But He, because He continues forever, has an unchangeable priesthood.

* 7:14 NU-Text reads priests. * 7:17 NU-Text reads it is testified. • Psalm 110:4 * 7:21 NU-Text ends the quotation here. • Psalm 110:4

presupposes that others will follow. Thus, Jesus is like a runner boat that has taken our anchor into port and secured it there.

7:1 Melchizedek. The name means “king of righteousness.” Salem means “peace.” The ideal king rules in righteousness, which assures peace (Is. 32:17).

7:3 without father, without mother, without genealogy. Genesis, a book with many genealogies, has none for Melchizedek. The author is not saying that Melchizedek was born without a father and mother, only that there is no record of his birth in the genealogies of Genesis. This description of Melchizedek prefigures the eternal priesthood of Jesus. Like Melchizedek, Jesus is both a Priest and a King belonging to a righteous priesthood that is independent of Aaron’s.

7:4 patriarch. In the Greek text this word is emphatic. The greatness of Abraham, the one who possessed the promises of God (v. 6), underscores the even greater rank of Melchizedek, the priest of righteousness.

7:8–10 mortal men receive tithes. Melchizedek was not only superior to Abraham, but he was also superior to the Levitical priesthood in two ways: first, the Levitical priests were mortal. In contrast, Melchizedek seems to be immortal. At least, the Old Testament does not record his death. Second, in a sense, Levi paid tithes to Melchizedek through Abraham’s gift. Because he was descended from Abraham, he is counted as having paid tithes to Melchizedek.

7:12 changed. This word means removal (12:27). If the Melchizedek priesthood removed the Levitical priesthood, then the Mosaic law is also removed. In short, the believer is not under the law but instead relies on the righteousness of Christ (Rom. 6:14; Gal. 3:24–25).

7:15–18 according to the power of an endless life. This point is proved by Psalm 110:4, quoted in verse 17. Jesus is a different kind of priest, another indication that the law has been changed. There has been an annulling, a putting away, of the law.

The New Priestly Service

8 Now this is the main point of the things we are saying: We have such a High Priest, <sup>a</sup>who is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, <sup>2a</sup>a Minister of <sup>b</sup>the sanctuary and of <sup>c</sup>the true tabernacle which the Lord erected, and not man.

<sup>3</sup>For <sup>d</sup>every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore <sup>e</sup>it is necessary that this One also have something to offer. <sup>4</sup>For if He were on earth, He would not be a priest, since there are priests who offer the gifts according to the law; <sup>5</sup>who serve <sup>f</sup>the copy and <sup>g</sup>shadow of the heavenly things, as Moses was divinely instructed when he was about to make the tabernacle. For He said, <sup>h</sup>“See that you make all things according to the pattern shown you on the mountain.”* <sup>6</sup>But now

<sup>i</sup>He has obtained a more excellent ministry, inasmuch as He is also Mediator of a <sup>j</sup>better covenant, which was established on better promises.

A New Covenant

<sup>7</sup>For if that <sup>k</sup>first covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second. <sup>8</sup>Because finding fault with them, He says: <sup>l</sup>“Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah—<sup>9</sup>not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they did not continue in My covenant, and I disregarded them, says the LORD. <sup>10</sup>For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the <sup>m</sup>LORD: I will put My laws in their mind and write them on their hearts; and <sup>n</sup>“I will be their God, and they shall be My people. <sup>11a</sup>None of them shall teach his neighbor, and none his brother, saying, ‘Know the <sup>o</sup>LORD,’ for all shall know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them. <sup>12</sup>For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, <sup>q</sup>and their sins and their lawless deeds* I will remember no more.”*

<sup>13</sup>In that He says, “A new covenant,” He has made the first obsolete. Now what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to vanish away.

* 8:5 Exodus 25:40 * 8:12 NU-Text omits and their lawless deeds. • Jeremiah 31:31–34

7:25 He is also able to save. Christ is able to save because He is fully God and fully human (2:18; 4:15). Since this verse speaks to Jesus' present intercession for us, the word save in this verse speaks of our sanctification, the continuing process by which we are freed from the power of sin. This continuing process of salvation will eventually be completed in our glorification, when we are saved from the presence of sin.

7:26–28 daily, as those high priests. The high priest offered an annual sacrifice on the Day of Atonement for the atonement of the people's sins (9:7; 10:1), but the priests also offered sacrifices every day before the Lord (Ex. 29:36). In contrast, Jesus offered Himself once, a perfect, sinless sacrifice for the sins of all. Since Jesus is perfect, He did not have to offer sacrifices for His own sins.

8:2 sanctuary. This word refers to the heavenly reality represented by the Most Holy Place (9:2,8,24; 10:19; 13:11). The reality is the presence of God. Our High Priest serves there and desires to bring us there (10:19).

8:8 a new covenant. This covenant is the “better covenant” of verse 6. This covenant was made with Israel and Judah, yet the church enjoys the spiritual blessings of this covenant now. The Abrahamic covenant was made with Abraham and his physical descendants (Gen. 17:7). Yet the Abrahamic covenant also contained a spiritual promise (Gen. 12:3) in which the church participates (Rom. 11:11–27; Gal. 3:13–14). The new covenant in fact is a fulfillment of the spiritual redemption promise in the Abrahamic and Davidic covenants (Matt. 26:26–29; Luke 22:20).

8:10–12 after those days, says the LORD. There are four provisions of the new covenant: (1) God's law will be written on believers' minds and hearts. (2) Believers will have a relationship with God fulfilling the promise of Leviticus 26:12 (2 Cor. 6:16). (3) All will know God. No longer will Pharisees and scribes have to teach the intricacies of the law to the people. (4) God will forgive the sins of believers and remember them no more. The continual sacrifice of animals for the atonement of sin will cease.

8:13 obsolete and growing old. At the time the author of Hebrews wrote these words, the ceremonies of the Mosaic covenant were still being conducted in the temple in Jerusalem. In A.D. 70 the Roman general Titus destroyed the temple, fulfilling these words.

The Earthly Sanctuary

9 Then indeed, even the first covenant had ordinances of divine service and <sup>a</sup>the earthly sanctuary. <sup>2</sup>For a tabernacle was prepared: the first part, in which was the lampstand, the table, and the showbread, which is called the sanctuary; <sup>3b</sup>and behind the second veil, the part of the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of All, <sup>4</sup>which had the <sup>c</sup>golden censer and <sup>d</sup>the ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold, in which were <sup>e</sup>the golden pot that had the manna, <sup>f</sup>Aaron's rod that budded, and <sup>g</sup>the tablets of the covenant; <sup>5</sup>and <sup>h</sup>above it were the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat. Of these things we cannot now speak in detail.

Limitations of the Earthly Service

The Heavenly Sanctuary

hands, that is, not of this creation. <sup>12</sup>Not <sup>r</sup>with the blood of goats and calves, but <sup>s</sup>with His own blood He entered the Most Holy Place <sup>t</sup>once for all, <sup>u</sup>having obtained eternal redemption. <sup>13</sup>For if <sup>v</sup>the blood of bulls and goats and <sup>w</sup>the ashes of a heifer, sprinkling the unclean, sanctifies for the purifying of the flesh, <sup>14</sup>how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without spot to God, <sup>x</sup>cleanse your conscience from <sup>y</sup>dead works <sup>z</sup>to serve the living God? <sup>15</sup>And for this reason <sup>a</sup>He is the Mediator of the new covenant, by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions under the first covenant, that <sup>b</sup>those who are called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance.

The Mediator's Death Necessary

<sup>16</sup>For where there is a testament, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator. <sup>17</sup>For <sup>a</sup>a testament is in force after men are dead, since it has no power at all while the testator lives. <sup>18a</sup>Therefore not even the first covenant was dedicated without blood. <sup>19</sup>For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, <sup>b</sup>he took the blood of calves and goats, <sup>c</sup>with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people, <sup>20</sup>saying, <sup>d</sup>"This is the blood of the covenant which God has commanded you."* <sup>21</sup>Then likewise <sup>e</sup>he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry. <sup>22</sup>And according to the law almost all things are purified with blood, and <sup>f</sup>without shedding of blood there is no remission.

*9:11 NU-Text reads that have come. *9:20 Exod 24:8

9:2–5 a tabernacle was prepared. These verses simply describe the furniture of the tabernacle. The tabernacle courtyard contained an altar for animal sacrifice and a laver for ceremonial washings. The tabernacle was divided into two rooms by a veil. The first part was the sanctuary or holy place, housing the lampstand, the table for the showbread, and the altar of incense. The second room was the Most Holy Place, containing the ark of the covenant, in which were stored the symbols of the Mosaic covenant.

9:7–8 once a year. In the provisions of the Mosaic covenant, access to God was limited. The fact that the high priest had such little access himself indicates the striking failure of the Mosaic covenant to bring believers into the presence of God.

9:9 cannot make him who performed the service perfect. The Mosaic covenant covered sins of ignorance (v. 7), but not premeditated sins or the sinful nature of all people (Ps. 51). In other words, the old system was lacking. It did not completely reconcile the people to God.

9:12 with His own blood. Christ obtained eternal redemption. His sacrifice never has to be repeated because it is perfect.

9:13 ashes of a heifer. These were mixed with water and were used to cleanse a person who had become ceremonially defiled by touching a corpse (Num. 19:11–13). The author of Hebrews points out that these ceremonies could purify only a person's exterior, not a person's heart.

9:14 the eternal Spirit. All three persons of the Trinity are involved in cleansing. The defilement is internal, not external (v. 13). Christ's death has the power to purify a person's mind and soul.

9:15 redemption. Christ paid the price to free us from our own sin. His death substitutes for our death, the penalty of our sins. Like the Israelites, believers receive an inheritance, but our inheritance is eternal (v. 14).

Greatness of Christ's Sacrifice

Animal Sacrifices Insufficient

10 For the law, having a <sup>a</sup>shadow of the good things to come, and not the very image of the things, <sup>b</sup>can never with these same sacrifices, which they offer continually year by year, make those who approach perfect. <sup>2</sup>For then would they not have ceased to be offered? For the worshipers, once purified, would have had no more consciousness of sins. <sup>3</sup>But in those sacrifices there is a reminder of sins every year. <sup>4</sup>For <sup>c</sup>it is not possible that the blood of bulls and goats could take away sins.

Christ's Death Fulfills God's Will

<sup>5</sup>Therefore, when He came into the world, He said:

*<sup>d</sup>"Sacrifice and offering You did not desire,
But a body You have prepared for Me.*

<sup>6</sup> *In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin
You had no pleasure.*
<sup>7</sup> *Then I said, 'Behold, I have come—In the volume of the book it is written of Me—
To do Your will, O God.'"*<sup>e</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Previously saying, "Sacrifice and offering, burnt offerings, and offerings for sin You did not desire, nor had pleasure in them" (which are offered according to the law), <sup>9</sup>then He said, "Behold, I have come to do Your will, O God."<sup>f</sup> He takes away the first that He may establish the second. <sup>10</sup><sup>g</sup>By that will we have been sanctified <sup>h</sup>through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

Christ's Death Perfects the Sanctified

<sup>15</sup>But the Holy Spirit also witnesses to us; for after He had said before,

* 10:7 Psalm 40:6–8 * 10:9 NU-Text and M-Text omit O God. * 10:16 Jeremiah 31:33
* 10:17 Jeremiah 31:34

9:24 Christ has not entered the holy places made with hands. Christ's sacrifice was better than sacrifices made under the Mosaic covenant because Christ did not enter a man-made sanctuary, which was a copy; instead, He entered the true sanctuary, which is in heaven—the very presence of God.

9:26 but now, once. Christ's sacrifice was better than the sacrifices made under the Mosaic covenant because He did not offer an annual sacrifice of animals but offered Himself once for all time.

10:1–4 not the very image of the things. The sacrifices of the Mosaic covenant prefigured Christ's ultimate sacrifice of Himself. Therefore, these imperfect sacrifices of mere animals could not completely purify the person who offered them. If they had been able to, these sacrifices would have ceased. Instead of thoroughly atoning for the sins of the people, the annual sacrifice on the Day of Atonement was a visible reminder of the people's sins.

10:5–7 To do Your will. The Old Testament prophets had warned the Israelites that sacrifices alone would not please God. He desired obedience as well (Ps. 51:16–17; Is. 1:13–17; Mark 12:33). This messianic psalm indicates that Jesus' obedience to God the Father was one of the reasons His sacrifice was better than the Old Testament sacrifices.

10:8–9 He takes away the first that He may establish the second. The author is explaining Psalm 40. The verb translated "takes away" means "abolishes." The imperfect sacrifices were abolished so that the perfect Sacrifice could impart true life.

10:11–12 sat down. Sitting indicates that His work of atonement is finished. His final words on the cross, "It is finished," declare this spiritual reality (John 19:30).

10:16–18 I will remember no more. This phrase does not mean to forget, but not to hold sin against us any longer.

Hold Fast Your Confession

The Just Live by Faith

10:19 Therefore. The author has spent five chapters explaining the superiority of Christ's priesthood to the Levitical priesthood and the superiority of the new covenant to the Mosaic covenant. Unlike the Israelites, who approached God at Mount Sinai with fear and trembling (Ex. 20:18–21), believers can approach God with boldness (3:6; 4:16; 10:35) because we possess Christ's righteousness and not our own.

10:20 His flesh. The Old Testament high priest passed through a veil to get to the Most Holy Place. Now, believers enter God's presence through Christ's flesh, meaning His sacrificial death.

10:22 our hearts sprinkled . . . our bodies washed. Our consciences can be cleansed through the blood of Christ (9:14). Just as the high priest washed before entering the Most Holy Place (Lev. 16:3–4), so believers are cleansed before they come before the Holy One.

10:24–25 stir up love and good works. The Greek word translated "stir up" means "convulse." In this context the word speaks forcefully of the tremendous impact believers can have on each other. That is why the author exhorts the Hebrews to gather together. Evidently, some believers had stopped attending the worship services of the church, perhaps because they feared persecution.

10:26 sin willfully. The reference here is not to an occasional act of sin (which can be confessed and forgiven) but to a conscious rejection of God. The Old Testament speaks in Numbers 15:30–31 of committing

<sup>39</sup>But we are not of those <sup>s</sup>who draw back to perdition, but of those who <sup>t</sup>believe to the saving of the soul.

By Faith We Understand

willful sin. A person who sinned presumptuously was to be cut off from the people. To sin deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth is apostasy. If a Christian rejects God's provision for his or her salvation, there is no other remedy for sins, since forgiveness for sins can only be found in Christ's perfect sacrifice.

10:29 Spirit of grace. This is a reference to the Holy Spirit, the agent of God's gracious gift of salvation. A believer who commits these offenses will be judged with a punishment worse than physical death.

10:35 do not cast away your confidence. For the recipients of Hebrews to return to the safety of Judaism would mean a loss of eternal reward at the judgment seat of Christ.

11:1 Now faith is. This verse is not a definition of faith, but a description of what faith does. substance. This means "essence" or "reality." Faith treats things hoped <sup>3</sup>By faith we understand that <sup>b</sup>the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that the things which are seen were not made of things which are visible.

Faith at the Dawn of History

<sup>4</sup>By faith <sup>c</sup>Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts; and through it he being dead still <sup>d</sup>speaks.

<sup>5</sup>By faith Enoch was taken away so that he did not see death, <sup>e</sup>“and was not found, because God had taken him”;* for before he was taken he had this testimony, that he pleased God. <sup>6</sup>But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.

Faithful Abraham

<sup>8</sup>By faith <sup>i</sup>Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to the place which he would receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. <sup>9</sup>By faith he dwelt in the land of promise as in a foreign country, <sup>j</sup>dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, <sup>k</sup>the heirs with him of the same promise; <sup>l</sup>for he waited for <sup>m</sup>the city which has foundations, <sup>n</sup>whose builder and maker is God.

for as reality. evidence. This means “proof.” Faith itself proves that what is unseen is real, such as the believer’s rewards at the return of Christ (2 Cor. 4:18).

11:4 a more excellent sacrifice than Cain. Evidently, Cain offered his sacrifice without faith (Gen. 4). still speaks. Abel still speaks to us because his righteous deeds have been recorded in Scripture.

11:6 comes. This word is used repeatedly in Hebrews to refer to the privilege of drawing near to God (4:16; 7:25; 10:1,22). Here, the author of Hebrews explains that faith is mandatory for those who approach Him. rewarder. God rewards not only those who seek Him, but also those who do good works in the Holy Spirit’s power (Rev. 22:12).

11:8 not knowing where he was going. Abraham placed his trust in God. Faith means obediently stepping into the unknown (v. 1). Abraham did this, and God considered him righteous because of it (Gen. 15:6; Rom. 4:1–12).

11:15 opportunity to return. The patriarchs and Sarah did not return to Ur, even though they could have if

The Heavenly Hope

The Faith of the Patriarchs

<sup>22</sup>By faith <sup>g</sup>Joseph, when he was dying, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel, and gave instructions concerning his bones.

The Faith of Moses

<sup>23</sup>By faith <sup>h</sup>Moses, when he was born, was hidden three months by his parents, because they saw he was a beautiful child; and they were not afraid of the king’s <sup>i</sup>command.

* 11:5 Genesis 5:24 * 11:11 NU-Text omits she bore a child. * 11:13 NU-Text and M-Text omit were assured of them. * 11:18 Genesis 21:12

they had wanted to. The recipients of Hebrews were to follow the patriarchs’ example and refuse to return to the religion of their ancestors, a religious system that no longer provided atonement for sin (8:7–13).

11:17–19 Abraham . . . tested. Abraham believed that God could raise Isaac from the dead (Gen. 22:5), if necessary. The incident is figurative of what God has done for us. Isaac was as good as dead, but God provided a ram to sacrifice in his place (Gen. 22:9–14).

<sup>29</sup>By faith <sup>n</sup>they passed through the Red Sea as by dry land, whereas the Egyptians, attempting to do so, were drowned.

By Faith They Overcame

Others were <sup>y</sup>tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection. <sup>36</sup>Still others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yes, and <sup>b</sup>of chains and imprisonment. <sup>37</sup><sup>c</sup>They were stoned, they were sawn in two, were tempted,* were slain with the sword.

The Race of Faith

12 Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, <sup>i</sup>let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and <sup>j</sup>let us run <sup>k</sup>with endurance the race that is set before us, <sup>2</sup>looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, <sup>4</sup>who for the joy that was set before Him <sup>e</sup>endured the cross, despising the shame, and <sup>f</sup>has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

The Discipline of God

<sup>3</sup><sup>g</sup>For consider Him who endured such hostility from sinners against Himself, <sup>h</sup>lest you become weary and discouraged in your souls. <sup>4</sup><sup>i</sup>You have not yet resisted to bloodshed, striving against sin. <sup>5</sup>And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to sons:

i "My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD,
Nor be discouraged when you are rebuked by Him;
<sup>6</sup> For <sup>k</sup>whom the LORD loves He chastens,
And scourges every son whom He receives."*

* 11:26 NU-Text and M-Text read of. * 11:37 NU-Text omits were tempted. * 12:6 Proverbs 3:11, 12

11:26 the reproach of Christ. This phrase refers to the earthly disgrace Christ received. Like Christ, Moses chose to suffer the indignities associated with God's people, instead of embracing the worldly pleasures of Pharaoh's court.

11:28 sprinkling of blood. God told Moses to sprinkle blood on the doorposts. Moses believed God's word and heeded His warning, and, as a result, the firstborn of every Israelite family was saved (Ex. 12:1–13).

11:35 Women received their dead. This is probably a reference to the raising of the son of the widow of Zarephath (1 Kin. 17:17–24) and of the Shunammite woman (2 Kin. 4:32–37). But the author of Hebrews also points out that not all who had faith won victories, at least not in the same hour. tortured. This is usually understood to be an allusion to the heroic martyrs of Maccabean times, who were well known.

11:40 made perfect. This phrase means "made complete." This completion, the realization of all of God's promises in Christ's coming kingdom, awaits all believers.

12:1 cloud of witnesses. This refers to the people of faith mentioned in chapter 11. They are not actually spectators watching us; they are witnesses testifying to the truth of the faith (11:2,4–6).

12:2 finisher. Christ has done everything necessary for us to endure in our faith. He is our example and model. the joy that was set before Him. His attention was not on the agonies of the cross, but on the crown, not on the suffering, but on the reward.

12:3 consider. This thought involves the idea of comparison, as an accountant would compare the various columns of a balance sheet. Believers should compare their sufferings to the torture Christ endured on their behalf (v. 4).

<sup>7</sup>If* you endure chastening, God deals with you as with sons; for what <sup>m</sup>son is there whom a father does not chasten? <sup>8</sup>But if you are without chastening, <sup>n</sup>of which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate and not sons. <sup>9</sup>Furthermore, we have had human fathers who corrected us, and we paid them respect. Shall we not much more readily be in subjection to <sup>o</sup>the Father of spirits and live? <sup>10</sup>For they indeed for a few days chastened us as seemed best to them, but He for our profit, <sup>p</sup>that we may be partakers of His holiness. <sup>11</sup>Now no chastening seems to be joyful for the present, but painful; nevertheless, afterward it yields <sup>q</sup>the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

Renew Your Spiritual Vitality

<sup>12</sup>Therefore <sup>r</sup>strengthen the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees, <sup>13</sup>and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be dislocated, but rather be healed.

The Glorious Company

<sup>18</sup>For you have not come to <sup>z</sup>the mountain that* may be touched and that burned with fire, and to blackness and darkness* and tempest, <sup>19</sup>and the sound of a trumpet and the voice of words, so that those who heard it <sup>a</sup>begged that the word should not be spoken to them anymore. <sup>20</sup>(For they could not endure what was commanded: <sup>b</sup>*“And if so much as a beast touches the mountain, it shall be stoned* or shot with an arrow.”** <sup>21</sup>And so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, “I am exceedingly afraid and trembling.”*)

Hear the Heavenly Voice

<sup>25</sup>See that you do not refuse Him who speaks. For <sup>k</sup>if they did not escape who refused Him who spoke on earth, much more shall we not escape if we turn away from Him who speaks from heaven, <sup>26</sup>whose voice then shook the earth; but now He has promised, saying, <sup>l</sup>*“Yet once more I shake* not only the earth, but also heaven.”** <sup>27</sup>Now this, “Yet once more,” indicates the <sup>m</sup>removal of those things that are being shaken, as of things that are made, that the things which cannot be shaken may remain.

<sup>28</sup>Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have grace, by which we may* <sup>n</sup>serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear. <sup>29</sup>For <sup>o</sup>our God is a consuming fire.

* 12:7 NU-Text and M-Text read It is for discipline that you endure; God . . . * 12:18 NU-Text reads to that which. • NU-Text reads gloom.

* 12:20 NU-Text and M-Text omit the rest of this verse. • Exodus 19:12, 13 * 12:21 Deuteronomy 9:19 * 12:26 NU-Text reads will shake. • Haggaai 2:6 * 12:28 M-Text omits may.

12:8 then you are illegitimate and not sons. In Roman society an illegitimate son was one who had no inheritance rights.

12:11 the peaceable fruit of righteousness. This phrase suggests that the result of God's discipline is peace and righteousness.

12:18–24 For you have not come to the mountain. In these verses, the author of Hebrews contrasts the Mosaic covenant with the new covenant by contrasting two mountains: Mount Sinai and Mount Zion. At Mount Sinai, the Israelites received the law from God with fear and trembling, for God displayed at that time His awesome power (Ex. 19:10–20:26). In contrast, Christian believers have come to a heavenly Jerusalem on Mount Zion through Jesus' blood. This mountain is a celebration of the Holy One, attended by angels, believers, and righteous people. The author makes the contrast between the two covenants vivid and then once again exhorts his readers not to reject Christ's offer of salvation (vv. 25–29).

12:23 just men made perfect. This phrase refers to all believers who have died. They are just because they have been justified or made righteous and perfect because they are now “complete” in heaven.

12:25 Him who speaks from heaven. This is a reference to Christ, who spoke on earth and is now in heaven.

12:29 our God is a consuming fire. The author concludes his lengthy warning to those who are tempted to abandon the faith (2:1–12:29) with a vivid description of God's judgment (Deut. 4:24). The Lord will judge His people (10:27,30).

Concluding Moral Directions

13 Let <sup>a</sup>brotherly love continue. <sup>2b</sup>Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing <sup>c</sup>some have unwittingly entertained angels. <sup>3a</sup>Remember the prisoners as if chained with them—those who are mistreated—since you yourselves are in the body also.

<sup>4e</sup>Marriage is honorable among all, and the bed undefiled; <sup>7b</sup>but fornicators and adulterers God will judge.

<sup>5</sup>Let your conduct be without covetousness; be content with such things as you have. For He Himself has said, <sup>g</sup>"I will never leave you nor forsake you." <sup>6</sup>So we may boldly say:

*<sup>h</sup>"The LORD is my helper;
I will not fear.
What can man do to me?"**

Concluding Religious Directions

<sup>7</sup>Remember those who rule over you, who have spoken the word of God to you, whose faith follow, considering the outcome of their conduct. <sup>8</sup>Jesus Christ is <sup>i</sup>the same yesterday, today, and forever. <sup>9</sup>Do not be carried about* with various and strange doctrines. For it is good that the heart be established by grace, not with foods which have not profited those who have been occupied with them.

<sup>10</sup>We have an altar from which those who serve the tabernacle have no right to eat. <sup>11</sup>For the bodies of those animals, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned outside the camp. <sup>12</sup>Therefore Jesus also, that He might sanctify the people with His own blood, suffered outside the gate. <sup>13</sup>Therefore let us go forth to Him, outside the camp, bearing <sup>j</sup>His reproach. <sup>14</sup>For here we have no continuing city, but we seek the one to come. <sup>15k</sup>Therefore by Him let us continually offer <sup>l</sup>the sacrifice of praise to God, that is, <sup>m</sup>the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name. <sup>16n</sup>But do not forget to do good and to share, for <sup>o</sup>with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

<sup>17p</sup>Obeys those who rule over you, and be submissive, for <sup>q</sup>they watch out for your souls, as those who must give account. Let them do so with joy and not with grief, for that would be unprofitable for you.

Prayer Requested

<sup>18r</sup>Pray for us; for we are confident that we have <sup>s</sup>a good conscience, in all things desiring to live honorably. <sup>19</sup>But I especially urge you to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

* 13:5 Deuteronomy 31:6, 8; Joshua 1:5

* 13:6 Psalm 118:6 * 13:9 NU-Text and M-Text read away.

13:2 entertained angels. This is a reference to men in the Old Testament who encounter heavenly beings. These men included Abraham (Gen. 18), Lot (Gen. 19), and Gideon (Judg. 6). The idea is that, when you practice hospitality, you may be helping a messenger of God without realizing it.

13:5 I will never leave you nor forsake you. This quotation is one of the emphatic statements in the New Testament. In Greek it contains two double negatives, similar to saying in English, "I will never, ever, ever forsake you." Jesus uses the same technique to express the certainty of eternal life for believers (John 10:28).

13:9 strange doctrines. This implies ideas foreign to the gospel message. Many of the ideas which the author was confronting were Jewish in origin—pertaining to ritual observances, sacrificial feasts, and various laws identifying what was clean and unclean.

13:11 burned outside the camp. The believer has a sacrifice, Jesus Christ. He atoned for the sins of humanity with His death on the cross. But, unlike the high priests from the Old Testament, believers receive their sustenance from Christ in a symbolic way, by believing in Him (John 6:41–58).

13:15–16 sacrifice of praise. Although the Old Testament sacrifices are now obsolete (8:13), believers are to offer spiritual sacrifices which include their praise, their possessions, and even their lives (Rom. 12:1–2).

13:15 Worship—Since worship encompasses thought, feeling, and deed, there are many expressions of it. Worship especially includes praise and thanksgiving which may be expressed privately or publicly, whether by grateful declarations (Heb. 13:15) or by joyful singing (Ps. 100:2; Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). Portions of early Christian hymns of worship have been preserved in the New Testament (Phil. 2:5–11; 1 Tim. 3:16; 2 Tim. 2:11–13). One very important expression of worship for the church is remembering the death of Christ through the Lord's Supper (1 Cor. 11:26). The Lord's Supper was instituted by Christ Himself (Matt. 26:26–28) and judged by Paul to be taken very seriously (1 Cor. 11:28–32). Since worship means giving something to God, the cheerful giving of money to God's work is certainly an act of worship (2 Cor. 9:7). The exercise of one of the spiritual gifts in ministry to the body of Christ constitutes worship as service (1 Cor. 12) as does faithfully occupying a church office (Eph. 4:11; 1 Tim. 3:1–13; Titus 1:5–9). In fact, presenting ourselves (mind and body) to God to serve in any context is described as an act of worship in Romans 12:1. In this manner our whole lives become acts of worship.

THE EPISTLE OF JAMES

► AUTHOR: Four men are named James in the New Testament, one of which is the Lord's brother (Matt. 13:55; Mark 6:3; Gal. 1:19). Tradition points to this prominent figure as the author of the epistle, and this best fits the evidence of Scripture. The brevity and limited doctrinal emphasis of James kept it from wide circulation, and by the time it became known in the church as a whole, there was uncertainty about the identity of the James in 1:1. Growing recognition that it was written by the Lord's brother led to its acceptance as a canonical book.

► TIME: c. A.D. 46–49    ► KEY VERSES: James 1:19–22

► THEME: James is for the practical person. While most of Paul's epistles have a theological and practical section, there isn't much theoretical or systematic theology in this book. The subject matters covered in James are the issues we face daily if not hourly. How do we respond to trials and temptation? What are we doing with our money? Do we keep our tongues under control? Are we acting on our faith? What are we doing with our prayer lives? The main point of all these questions James raises is that saving faith needs to result in changed behavior.

Greeting to the Twelve Tribes

1 James, <sup>a</sup>a bondservant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ,

To the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad:

Greetings.

Profiting from Trials

<sup>2</sup>My brethren, <sup>b</sup>count it all joy <sup>c</sup>when you fall into various trials, <sup>3d</sup>knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience. <sup>4</sup>But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing. <sup>5e</sup>If any of you lacks wisdom, <sup>f</sup>let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and <sup>g</sup>it will be given to him. <sup>6h</sup>But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven and tossed by the wind. <sup>7</sup>For let not that man suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; <sup>8</sup>he is <sup>i</sup>a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

The Perspective of Rich and Poor

<sup>9</sup>Let the lowly brother glory in his exaltation, <sup>10</sup>but the rich in his humiliation, because <sup>j</sup>as a flower of the field he will pass away. <sup>11</sup>For no sooner has the sun risen with a burning heat than it withers the grass; its flower falls, and its beautiful appearance perishes. So the rich man also will fade away in his pursuits.

Loving God Under Trials

<sup>12k</sup>Blessed is the man who endures temptation; for when he has been approved, he will receive <sup>l</sup>the crown of life <sup>m</sup>which the

1:1 To the twelve tribes. This salutation probably means the letter is for Jewish Christians living outside of Palestine. The letter was not intended for one specific church but was to be passed around among various local assemblies.

1:2 trials. These are outward circumstances—conflicts, sufferings, and troubles—encountered by all believers. Trials are not pleasant and may be extremely grievous, but believers are to consider them as opportunities for rejoicing. Troubles and difficulties are a tool which refines and purifies our faith, producing patience and endurance.

1:3 testing of your faith. The word that is translated into this phrase occurs only here and in 1 Peter 1:7. The term was used for coins that were genuine and not debased. The aim of testing is not to destroy or afflict, but to purge and refine. "Patience" here transcends the idea of bearing affliction; it includes the idea of standing fast under pressure, with a staying power that turns adversities into opportunities.

1:5 wisdom. The starting point for wisdom is a genuine reverence for the Almighty (Ps. 111:10; Prov. 9:10) and a steadfast confidence that God controls all circumstances, guiding them to His good purposes (Rom. 8:28).

1:8 double-minded. This person is literally one with "two souls." If one part of a person is set on God and the other is set on this world (Matt. 6:24), there will be constant conflict within.

1:12 will receive the crown of life. The Bible describes the believer's reward (2 Cor. 5:10; Rev. 22:12)

1:12 <sup>k</sup>James 5:11    <sup>l</sup>[1 Cor. 9:25]    <sup>m</sup>Matt. 10:22

Lord has promised to those who love Him. <sup>13</sup>Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God"; for God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does He Himself tempt anyone. <sup>14</sup>But each one is tempted when he is drawn away by his own desires and enticed. <sup>15</sup>Then, <sup>16</sup>when desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, <sup>17</sup>brings forth death.

Qualities Needed in Trials

Doers—Not Hearers Only

religious, and <sup>29</sup>does not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this one's religion is useless. <sup>30</sup>Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: <sup>31</sup>to visit orphans and widows in their trouble, <sup>32</sup>and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.

Beware of Personal Favoritism

2 My brethren, do not hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>2</sup>the Lord of glory, with <sup>3</sup>partiality. <sup>4</sup>For if there should come into your assembly a man with gold rings, in fine apparel, and there should also come in a poor man in filthy clothes, <sup>5</sup>and you pay attention to the one wearing the fine clothes and say to him, "You sit here in a good place," and say to the poor man, "You stand there," or, "Sit here at my footstool," <sup>6</sup>have you not shown partiality among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts?

under various vivid images, such as precious metals (1 Cor. 3:8–14), garments (Rev. 3:5,18; 19:7–8), and crowns (1 Cor. 9:25; Rev. 2:10; 3:11).

1:13 nor does He Himself tempt anyone. Enticement to sin does not come from God. God will never deliberately lead a person to commit sin because that would not only go against His nature, but it would also be opposed to His purpose of molding His creation into His holy image. Yet, God does sometimes place His people in adverse circumstances for the purpose of building godly character (Gen. 22:1,12).

1:19 swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath. These three exhortations reveal the outline of this letter (1:21—2:26 for "swift to hear"; 3:1–18 for "slow to speak"; 4:1—5:18 for "slow to wrath").

1:21 receive with meekness the implanted word. The believer should have a teachable spirit—without resisting, disputing, or questioning. Receiving God's Word this way will save the believer's soul.

1:22 be doers of the word, and not hearers only. Believers who hear the Word of God (v. 19) must receive it with a teachable spirit (v. 21), applying it to their daily lives. To hear and not obey is to be deceived.

1:25 the perfect law of liberty. Loving God and loving one's neighbor sum up the law (Rom. 13:8–10).

But it is Christ's love (Eph. 3:17–19) which frees us from our sins to truly love others (John 8:36–38; Gal. 5:13).

1:27 orphans and widows. These people were among the most unprotected and needy classes in ancient societies (Ezek. 22:7). Pure religion does not merely give material goods for the relief of the distressed; it also oversees their care (Acts 6:1–7).

2:5 heirs of the kingdom. This inheritance means more than entering the kingdom; it also involves ruling with Christ (1 Cor. 6:9; Gal. 5:21; 2 Tim. 2:12).

2:9 if you show partiality, you commit sin. James alludes to Leviticus 19:15, which prohibits favoritism to either the poor or the rich.

2:10 he is guilty of all. God does not allow selective of all. <sup>11</sup>For He who said, <sup>m</sup>“Do not commit adultery,”* also said, <sup>n</sup>“Do not murder.”* Now if you do not commit adultery, but you do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. <sup>12</sup>So speak and so do as those who will be judged by <sup>t</sup>the law of liberty. <sup>13</sup>For <sup>p</sup>judgment is without mercy to the one who has shown <sup>no</sup> <sup>r</sup>mercy. <sup>s</sup>Mercy triumphs over judgment.

Faith Without Works Is Dead

<sup>14</sup>What does it profit, my brethren, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can faith save him? <sup>15</sup>uIf a brother or sister is naked and destitute of daily food, <sup>16</sup>and <sup>v</sup>one of you says to them, “Depart in peace, be warmed and filled,” but you do not give them the things which are needed for the body, what does it profit? <sup>17</sup>Thus also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

<sup>18</sup>But someone will say, “You have faith, and I have works.” <sup>w</sup>Show me your faith without your* works, <sup>x</sup>and I will show you my faith by my* works. <sup>19</sup>You believe that there is one God. You do well. Even the demons believe—and tremble! <sup>20</sup>But do you want to know, O foolish man, that faith without works is dead?* <sup>21</sup>Was not Abraham our father justified by works <sup>y</sup>when he offered Isaac his son on the altar? <sup>22</sup>Do you see <sup>z</sup>that faith was working together with his works, and by <sup>a</sup>works faith was made perfect? <sup>23</sup>And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, <sup>b</sup>“Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.”* And he was called <sup>c</sup>the friend of God. <sup>24</sup>You see then that a man is justified by works, and not by faith only.

also justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out another way?

<sup>26</sup>For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

The Untamable Tongue

3 My brethren, <sup>a</sup>let not many of you become teachers, <sup>b</sup>knowing that we shall receive a stricter judgment. <sup>2</sup>For <sup>c</sup>we all stumble in many things. <sup>d</sup>If anyone does not stumble in word, <sup>e</sup>he is a perfect man, able also to bridle the whole body. <sup>3</sup>Indeed,* <sup>f</sup>we put bits in horses’ mouths that they may obey us, and we turn their whole body. <sup>4</sup>Look also at ships: although they are so large and are driven by fierce winds, they are turned by a very small rudder wherever the pilot desires. <sup>5</sup>Even so <sup>g</sup>the tongue is a little member and <sup>h</sup>boasts great things.

See how great a forest a little fire kindles! <sup>6</sup>And <sup>i</sup>the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity. The tongue is so set among our members that it <sup>j</sup>defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire by hell. <sup>7</sup>For every kind of beast and bird, of reptile and creature of the sea, is tamed and has been tamed by mankind. <sup>8</sup>But no man can tame the tongue. It is an unruly evil, <sup>k</sup>full of deadly poison. <sup>9</sup>With it we bless our God and Father, and with it we curse men, who have been made <sup>l</sup>in the similitude of God. <sup>10</sup>Out of the same mouth proceed blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not to be so.

obedience. We cannot choose to obey the parts of the law that are to our own liking and disregard the rest. Some of the Pharisees were guilty of this. They carefully observed some of the requirements of the law, such as keeping the Sabbath, and ignored others, such as honoring their parents (Matt. 15:1–7). Sin is a violation of the perfect righteousness of God, who is the Lawgiver. James is saying that the whole divine law has to be accepted as an expression of God’s will for His people. The violation of even one commandment separates an individual from God and His purposes.

2:14 What does it profit. James is implying in this verse that faith in Christ will demonstrate itself in love for others (John 13:34–35).

2:19 Even the demons believe—and tremble. While they believe, the demons do not love Him (Matt. 8:29). Their kind of belief does not lead to love, submission, and obedience; instead, it leads to hatred, rebellion, and disobedience.

2:21 justified. James is using the word justified to mean “proved.” We prove to others our genuine faith in Christ through our works. But the justification that comes through faith is before God, and we do not “prove” ourselves to Him; instead, God declares us righteous through our association with Christ, the One who died for our sins (Rom. 3:28).

2:22 faith . . . works. These two should be together;

there is a close relationship between the two. Faith produces works; and works make faith perfect, meaning “mature” or “complete.”

3:1 we shall receive a stricter judgment. James does not give the warning of condemnation to others without applying it to himself.

3:7–8 no man can tame the tongue. The instincts of animals can be subdued through conditioning and punishment, but the sinful nature that inspires evil words is beyond our control. Only the work of the Holy Spirit within us can bring this destructive force under control.

3:9 we bless our God and Father. James is pointing out the inconsistency of blessing God while cursing people who are created in His image.

Heavenly Versus Demonic Wisdom

Pride Promotes Strife

4 Where do wars and fights come from among you? Do they not come from your desires for pleasure <sup>q</sup>that war in your members? <sup>2</sup>You lust and do not have. You murder and covet and cannot obtain. You fight and war. Yet <sup>r</sup>you do not have because you do not ask. <sup>3b</sup>You ask and do not receive, <sup>s</sup>because you ask amiss, that you may spend it on your pleasures. <sup>4</sup>Adulterers and <sup>t</sup>adulteresses! Do you not know that <sup>u</sup>friendship with the world is enmity with God? <sup>v</sup>Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. <sup>5</sup>Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, <sup>f</sup>“The Spirit who dwells in us yearns jealously”?

<sup>6</sup>But He gives more grace. Therefore He says:

<sup>g</sup>“God resists the proud,
But gives grace to the humble.”*

Humility Cures Worldliness

Do Not Judge a Brother

<sup>11n</sup>Do not speak evil of one another, brethren. He who speaks evil of a brother <sup>o</sup>and judges his brother, speaks evil of the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge. <sup>12</sup>There is one Lawgiver,* <sup>p</sup>who is able to save and to destroy. <sup>q</sup>Who* are you to judge another?*

Do Not Boast About Tomorrow

<sup>13</sup>Come now, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will* go to such and such a city,

3:16 confusion. On the other hand, God brings harmony and wisdom (1 Cor. 14:33). Anyone who is involved in envy and strife is confused. This confusion corrupts human relationships. It is likely that the Jewish Christians to whom James was writing were going through turmoil because of sinful acts like the ones mentioned here. James wanted his readers to set aside their petty attitudes and seek reconciliation.

4:1 wars and fights. The source of problems is the conflict between desires for pleasure and the desire for God's will, an attitude that the Holy Spirit has placed within us.

4:3 you ask amiss. Some might have protested James's admonition (vv. 1–2) by claiming that they had not received an answer to their prayers (Matt. 7:7). James responds by suggesting that they were praying for the wrong things. Instead of praying for their sinful desires, they should have been praying for God's good will for them.

4:4 Whoever therefore wants. This verse does not speak of God's attitude toward the believer, but of the believer's attitude toward God. The difference between the world and God is so vast that, as we move toward the world, we alienate ourselves from God. In the world, sin is considered acceptable and pleasurable. Ultimately the world has lost its awareness of sin, and thus sin has become habitual.

4:6 God resists the proud. James quotes from Proverbs 3:34 to prove his point. Those who submit to divine wisdom will receive the necessary grace from God to put into practice the kind of life James describes (3:13–18). On the other hand, those who elevate themselves will face a formidable foe (v. 4). God Himself will fight against their plans, because they are not on His side.

4:9 Lament and mourn and weep. When a believer who has fallen into sin responds to God's call for repentance, he or she should place laughter and joy aside to reflect on the sin with genuine sorrow (2 Cor. 7:9–10). In this verse, laughter seems to refer to the loud revelry of pleasure-loving people. They immerse themselves in a celebration of their sins in an effort to forget God's judgment. A Christian should never laugh at sin. However, Christian sorrow leads to repentance; repentance leads to forgiveness; and forgiveness leads to true joy over one's reconciliation with God (Ps. 32:1; 126:2; Prov. 15:13).

4:13 we will go . . . and make a profit. The problem here is not the plan or the concept of planning; it is leaving God out of the plan (v. 15).

spend a year there, buy and sell, and make a profit"; <sup>14</sup>whereas you do not know what will happen tomorrow. For what is your life? <sup>15</sup>It is even a vapor that appears for a little time and then vanishes away. <sup>16</sup>Instead you ought to say, "If the Lord wills, we shall live and do this or that." <sup>17</sup>But now you boast in your arrogance. <sup>18</sup>All such boasting is evil.

<sup>17</sup>Therefore, <sup>18</sup>to him who knows to do good and does not do it, to him it is sin.

Rich Oppressors Will Be Judged

5 Come now, you <sup>1</sup>rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming upon you! <sup>2</sup>Your <sup>3</sup>riches are corrupted, and <sup>4</sup>your garments are moth-eaten. <sup>5</sup>Your gold and silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be a witness against you and will eat your flesh like fire. <sup>6</sup>You have heaped up treasure in the last days. <sup>7</sup>Indeed <sup>8</sup>the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, cry out; and <sup>9</sup>the cries of the reapers have reached the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth.* <sup>10</sup>You have lived on the earth in pleasure and luxury; you have fattened your hearts as* in a day of slaughter. <sup>11</sup>You have condemned, you have murdered the just; he does not resist you.

Be Patient and Persevering

<sup>7</sup>Therefore be patient, brethren, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, waiting patiently for it until it receives the early and latter rain. <sup>8</sup>You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand.

<sup>9</sup>Do not grumble against one another, brethren, lest you be condemned.* Behold, the Judge is standing at the door! <sup>10</sup>My brethren, take the prophets, who spoke in the name of the Lord, as an example of suffering and <sup>11</sup>patience. <sup>12</sup>Indeed <sup>13</sup>we count them blessed who endure. You have heard of <sup>14</sup>the perseverance of Job and seen <sup>15</sup>the end intended by the Lord—that <sup>16</sup>the Lord is very compassionate and merciful.

<sup>12</sup>But above all, my brethren, <sup>13</sup>do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or with any other oath. But let your "Yes" be "Yes," and your "No," "No," lest you fall into judgment.*

Meeting Specific Needs

Bring Back the Erring One

5:2–3 your garments. In the ancient world, food, costly clothing, and precious metals were conspicuous signs of wealth. James pronounces judgment and destruction on all three.

5:12–13 do not swear. James is not forbidding a believer from taking an oath in court or invoking God as witness to some significant statement (1 Thess. 2:5). Instead, he is prohibiting the ancient practice of appealing to a variety of different objects to confirm the veracity of one's statement. This practice was extremely close to idolatry, for it implied that such objects contained spirits. The warning in these verses can serve as a reminder to us to watch what we say. We should not use God's name in a reckless manner, and we should be careful to speak the truth.

5:14 anointing him with oil. This may refer to medicinal treatment (Luke 10:34). Yet, in this passage, it most likely refers to the healing power of the Holy Spirit, for verse 15 speaks of prayer saving the person.

In either case, there is no indication that calling the elders excludes the use of a physician or medicine.

5:15 the prayer of faith. Whether a believer is healed through medicine or through miraculous means, all healing is ultimately from the Lord. That is why prayers should be consistently offered for the sick.

5:16 The effective, fervent prayer. This can mean that (1) prayer is effective when it is used, or (2) fervent prayer accomplishes great results.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PETER

► AUTHOR: The early church universally acknowledged the authenticity and authority of 1 Peter. It is likely that Peter used Silvanus as his scribe (5:12). This epistle was addressed to Christians throughout Asia Minor, indicating the spread of the gospel in regions not evangelized when Acts was written. It was written from Babylon (5:13), but scholars are divided as to whether this refers literally to Babylon in Mesopotamia or symbolically to Rome. It is probably the latter as tradition consistently indicates that Peter spent the last few years of his life in Rome.

► TIME: c. A.D. 63–64    ► KEY VERSES: 1 Pet. 4:12–13

► THEME: First Peter was probably written to the Roman provinces of Turkey at the beginning of Nero's persecutions of Christians. Its primary message is one of comfort, hope, and encouragement. He asks the readers to hold fast to the faith in the midst of the coming persecution. In these letters we get a picture of a mature Peter who has incorporated Christ's crucifixion and death and resurrection into his thinking about suffering. He fully understands, and even looks forward to, the glory that is to come after the sufferings of this life.

Greeting to the Elect Pilgrims

1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ,

To the pilgrims <sup>a</sup>of the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, <sup>2b</sup>elect <sup>c</sup>according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, <sup>d</sup>in sanctification of the Spirit, for <sup>e</sup>obedience and <sup>f</sup>sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ:

<sup>g</sup>Grace to you and peace be multiplied.

A Heavenly Inheritance

<sup>3h</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who <sup>i</sup>according to His abundant mercy <sup>j</sup>has begotten us again to a living hope <sup>k</sup>through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, <sup>4l</sup>to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that does not fade away, <sup>m</sup>reserved in heaven for you, <sup>5n</sup>who are kept by the power of God through faith for salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

1:1 pilgrims. This term conveys the idea of being dispersed, much like the Jewish exiles of the Old Testament who were not living in their homeland but in Babylon.

1:2 sanctification of the Spirit. Sanctification is the ongoing process whereby the Holy Spirit works in believers, making their lives holy, separated from their old ways and to God in order to be more like Him. sprinkling of the blood. This concept, the second reason why God chooses us, draws our attention to three situations in the Old Testament when the Israelites were sprinkled with the blood of animals: (1) Moses' sprinkling of blood on the Israelites at Mount Sinai to symbolize their initiation into the covenant (Ex. 24:5–8); (2) the sprinkling of Aaron and his sons to be the priests of Israel (Ex. 29:19–21); and (3) the sprinkling of the blood performed by priests over healed lepers to symbolize their cleansing (Lev. 14:1–9). Any of these three cases could be the one that Peter has in mind here.

1:3 according to His abundant mercy. Our salvation is grounded in God's mercy. His act of compassion toward us despite our condition of sinfulness. has begotten us again. God has given believers a new, spiritual life that enables us to live in an entirely different dimension than the one our physical birth allowed. 1:4 inheritance. The Greek word here suggests both a present and a future reality. God has already determined what we will one day experience in its totality. reserved. God has set aside in heaven a wonderful inheritance that is waiting for us even now.

1:7 that the genuineness of your faith. As the purity of gold is brought forth by intense heat, so the reality believing, you rejoice with joy inexpressible and full of glory, <sup>9</sup>receiving the end of your faith—the salvation of your souls.

<sup>10</sup>Of this salvation the prophets have inquired and searched carefully, who prophesied of the grace that would come to you, <sup>11</sup>searching what, or what manner of time, <sup>12</sup>the Spirit of Christ who was in them was indicating when He testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow. <sup>12</sup>To them it was revealed that, not to themselves, but to us* they were ministering the things which now have been reported to you through those who have preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven—things which <sup>13</sup>angels desire to look into.

Living Before God Our Father

<sup>13</sup>Therefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and rest your hope fully upon the grace that is to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ; <sup>14</sup>as obedient children, not <sup>15</sup>conforming yourselves to the former lusts, as in your ignorance; <sup>15</sup>but as He who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, <sup>16</sup>because it is written, <sup>17</sup>“Be holy, for I am holy.”*

<sup>17</sup>And if you call on the Father, who <sup>18</sup>without partiality judges according to each one’s work, conduct yourselves throughout the time of your stay here in fear; <sup>18</sup>knowing that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, like silver or gold, from your aimless conduct received by tradition from your fathers, <sup>19</sup>but <sup>20</sup>with the precious blood of Christ, <sup>21</sup>as of a lamb without blemish and without spot.

and purity of our faith are revealed as a result of the fiery trials we face. Ultimately the testing of our faith not only demonstrates our final salvation but also develops our capacity to bring glory to the Lord Jesus Christ when He comes into His kingdom and we reign with Him (Rom. 8:17; 2 Tim. 2:12; Rev. 5:9–12).

1:10 the prophets. Peter indicates that the Old Testament prophets knew of the gracious salvation we would one day receive and, as a result, studied it carefully and intensively.

1:12 by the Holy Spirit. Although humans may preach God’s message of salvation, ultimately the Holy Spirit is the One who proclaims these great truths. Even the angels are amazed at what a wonderful salvation God has enacted on our behalf (Eph. 3:10).

1:13 gird up the loins of your mind. Just as people in biblical times would gather up their long robes and tie them around their waists so that they could move quickly and freely, we need to do whatever it takes to focus our thoughts on those things that allow us to serve God successfully, all the while eliminating any thoughts that would trip us up (Heb. 12:1). be sober. Peter’s concern here is primarily using mentally or spiritually sound judgment. hope fully. We need to exhibit confidence that God will accomplish all that He promised He would do (v. 3; Rom. 8:24–25).

1:17 in fear. For Christians, this phrase should be understood as something between terror and reverential awe. We need to remember that God is both <sup>20d</sup>He indeed was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest <sup>e</sup>in these last times for you <sup>21</sup>who through Him believe in God, <sup>f</sup>who raised Him from the dead and <sup>g</sup>gave Him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

The Enduring Word

<sup>1</sup>“All flesh is as grass,

*And all the glory of man* as the flower of the grass.*

The grass withers,

And its flower falls away,

<sup>25 m</sup>*But the word of the LORD endures forever.”**

<sup>n</sup>Now this is the word which by the gospel was preached to you.

2 Therefore, <sup>a</sup>laying aside all malice, all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and all evil speaking, <sup>2b</sup>as newborn babes, desire the pure <sup>c</sup>milk of the word, that you may grow thereby,* <sup>3</sup>if indeed you have <sup>d</sup>tasted that the Lord is gracious.

* 1:12 NU-Text and M-Text read you. * 1:16 Leviticus 11:44, 45; 19:2; 20:7 * 1:22 NU-Text omits through the Spirit. * 1:23 NU-Text omits forever. * 1:24 NU-Text reads all its glory. * 1:25 Isaiah 40:6–8 * 2:2 NU-Text adds up to salvation.

our merciful Savior (vv. 3, 18–21) and our holy Judge (vv. 15–17).

1:19 a lamb. Peter describes Christ as the ultimate sacrificial Lamb, who is offered in our place to pay the price for our sins. The analogy here may be a reference either to the Passover lamb (Ex. 12:3–6) or to the many lambs without blemish that were offered as part of the Old Testament sacrificial system (Lev. 23:12; Num. 6:14; 28:3).

1:20 foreordained. God has known (v. 2) the One who would bring salvation, even as He has known those to whom that salvation is offered and secured (Rom. 11:2). but was manifest. This phrase contrasts with the first half of the verse. What was known only to God before the creation of the world is now made known to us.

1:22 purified your souls. We accomplish the purification of our souls by obedience to God’s truth.

2:2 that you may grow thereby. The purpose of studying God’s truth is not only to learn more, but to become mature in the faith.

The Chosen Stone and His Chosen People

<sup>4</sup>Coming to Him as to a living stone, <sup>e</sup>rejected indeed by men, but chosen by God and precious, <sup>5</sup>you also, as living stones, are being built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. <sup>6</sup>Therefore it is also contained in the Scripture,

“Behold, I lay in Zion

*A chief cornerstone, elect, precious,
And he who believes on Him will by no means be put to shame.”**

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, to you who believe, He is precious; but to those who are disobedient,*

*g“The stone which the builders rejected
Has become the chief cornerstone.”**

<sup>8</sup>and

*h“A stone of stumbling
And a rock of offense.”**

<sup>i</sup>They stumble, being disobedient to the word, <sup>j</sup>to which they also were appointed.

<sup>9</sup>But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own special people, that you may proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of <sup>k</sup>darkness into His marvelous light; <sup>10</sup>who once were not a people but are now the people of God, who had not obtained mercy but now have obtained mercy.

Living Before the World

<sup>11</sup>Beloved, I beg you as sojourners and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts <sup>m</sup>which war against the soul, <sup>12n</sup>having your conduct honorable among the Gentiles, that when they speak against you as evildoers, <sup>o</sup>they may, by your good works which they observe, glorify God in the day of visitation.

Submission to Government

<sup>13p</sup>Therefore submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake, whether to the king as supreme, <sup>14</sup>or to governors, as to those who are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers and for the praise of those who do good. <sup>15</sup>For this is the will of God, that by doing good you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men—<sup>16q</sup>as free, yet not <sup>r</sup>using liberty as a cloak for vice, but as bondservants of God. <sup>17</sup>Honor all people. Love the brotherhood. Fear <sup>s</sup>God. Honor the king.

Submission to Masters

<sup>18t</sup>Servants, be submissive to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and

* 2:6 Isaiah 28:16 * 2:7 NU-Text reads to those who disbelieve. • Psalm 118:22 * 2:8 Isaiah 8:14

2:4 living stone. This phrase anticipates the Old Testament quotations in verses 6–8. Jesus, as a living stone, is superior to the Old Testament temple.

2:5 stones. Christians are part of God's great spiritual building project. Referenced here are stones that are shaped and ready for use in construction, as opposed to natural rock. a holy priesthood. Unlike the Old Testament priesthood, in which only those who were born into a certain tribe could be priests, all who are reborn into God's family, that is, all believers, are priests who have the privilege and responsibility of offering spiritual sacrifices to God (Rom. 12:1–2; Heb. 13:15–16).

2:6 A chief cornerstone . . . precious. Jesus is the foundation stone from which the placement of all other living stones in the spiritual house (v. 5) is determined (Is. 28:16). In ancient buildings, the cornerstone was first situated on the foundation and then all of the other stones were aligned to it. Thus as part of the house of God, we need to keep our focus on our Cornerstone (Heb. 12:2).

2:9 a chosen generation. God has not left to chance who will be part of a unique body of people, a group who will serve Him. a royal priesthood. Believers are transformed not only internally (v. 5), which describes us as being made into a “holy priesthood” but also externally. We are a priesthood that functions in a ruling capacity, as kings. a holy nation. Believers are a unified group of people who are set apart for God's use. special people. God protects those whom He has adopted into His family.

2:11 sojourners and pilgrims. With these words, Peter reminds believers (1:1) that this earth is not our home. We are foreigners here, traveling to our eternal home, heaven.

2:12 day of visitation. This term probably refers to the final day of judgment when all people, believers and unbelievers alike, will fall on their knees and acknowledge who Jesus Christ is and what He has done through His people.

2:13 every ordinance of man. This phrase suggests that the submission of Christians is not to be exercised solely in relation to civil authorities (v. 14), but to all kinds of rules that Christians encounter (2:18; 3:1).

2:13 Our Responsibility to Human Government—As children of God, our responsibility to human government is threefold:

1. We are to recognize and accept that the powers that be are ordained by God (Rom. 13:1). This truth even applies to governments that are anti-Christian. If a given law is clearly anti-scriptural, the believer is required to obey God rather than man (Dan. 3; 6; Acts 4:18–20).
2. We are to pay our taxes to human governments (Matt. 17:24; 22:21; Rom. 13:7).
3. We are to pray for the leaders in human government (1 Tim. 2:1–3).

2:16 as a cloak for vice. This may be understood either as an excuse made up before the fact, or after the fact.

2:18 be submissive . . . with all fear. Workers are to take their responsibilities seriously, even when serving the worst of bosses.

gentle, but also to the harsh. <sup>19</sup>For this is commendable, if because of conscience toward God one endures grief, suffering wrongfully. <sup>20</sup>For what credit is it if, when you are beaten for your faults, you take it patiently? But when you do good and suffer, if you take it patiently, this is commendable before God. <sup>21</sup>For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us,* leaving us* an example, that you should follow His steps:

<sup>22</sup> “Who committed no sin,
Nor was deceit found in His mouth”;

<sup>23</sup>who, when He was reviled, did not revile in return; when He suffered, He did not threaten, but committed Himself to Him who judges righteously; <sup>24</sup>who Himself bore our sins in His own body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live for righteousness—by whose stripes you were healed. <sup>25</sup>For you were like sheep going astray, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer* of your souls.

Submission to Husbands

3 Wives, likewise, be submissive to your own husbands, that even if some do not obey the word, they, without a word, may be won by the conduct of their wives, when they observe your chaste conduct accompanied by fear. <sup>3a</sup>Do not let your adornment be merely outward—arranging the hair, wearing gold, or putting on fine apparel—<sup>4</sup>rather let it be the hidden person of the heart, with the incorruptible beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is very precious in the sight of God. <sup>5</sup>For in this manner, in former times, the holy women who trusted in God also adorned themselves, being submissive to their own husbands, as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord, whose daughters you are if you do good and are not afraid with any terror.

A Word to Husbands

<sup>7</sup>Husbands, likewise, dwell with them with understanding, giving honor to the wife, as to the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life, that your prayers may not be hindered.

Called to Blessing

<sup>8</sup>Finally, all of you be of one mind, having compassion for one another; love as brothers, be tenderhearted, be courteous;* <sup>9</sup>not returning evil for evil or reviling for reviling, but on the contrary blessing, knowing that you were called to this, that you may inherit a blessing. <sup>10</sup>For

<sup>n</sup>“He who would love life

And see good days,

<sup>o</sup>Let him refrain his tongue from evil,
And his lips from speaking deceit.

<sup>11</sup> Let him turn away from evil and do good;

But the face of the LORD is against those who do evil.”*

2:20 For what credit. There is no advantage to believers for successfully enduring a deserved punishment for wrongdoing, yet there is great value when we honor God with our actions when we are unfairly condemned by others (3:17). take it patiently. Patience and perseverance in the face of suffering please God.

2:24 who Himself bore our sins. The Greek wording emphasizes Jesus’ personal involvement in the act of paying the price for our sins. having died to sins, might live for righteousness. The purpose of Christ’s bearing our sins is that we might live to please Him.

2:25 Overseer. No one else is qualified to be the one Shepherd and Overseer of our souls—only Christ is. For this reason the New Testament regularly describes the church and its congregations as having more than one leader (Titus 1:5).

3:1 without a word. A godly wife does not preach to her non-Christian husband with words but with the Christlike beauty of her daily life. The goal is to see that husband become a Christian.

3:3 merely outward. Christians are to spend more time developing their inner character than attempting to make themselves look beautiful on the outside (1 Sam. 16). Peter is not condemning women who wear jewelry. He is emphasizing the importance of a woman’s character.

3:4 gentle and quiet spirit. Peter encourages

Christian wives to exhibit attitudes that do not demand personal rights, attitudes that are not harsh and grating but are soothing and tranquil.

3:6 calling him lord. Sarah was not worshipping Abraham; she was showing him respect.

3:7 dwell with them with understanding. A Christian husband should be intimately aware of his wife’s needs, her strengths and weaknesses, and her goals and desires. He should know as much about her as possible in order to respond in the best way to her.

3:9 evil for evil. Peter encourages Christians to act like the Lord Jesus. He endured suffering and ridicule in silence, entrusting His just cause to the ultimate Judge.

3:12 eyes . . . ears. Peter uses this imagery to remind his readers that God knows everything about believers, especially their suffering, and that He listens and responds to their cries for help (Heb. 4:12–16).

Suffering for Right and Wrong

<sup>13</sup>And who is he who will harm you if you become followers of what is good? <sup>14</sup>But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. <sup>15</sup>“And do not be afraid of their threats, nor be troubled.” <sup>16</sup>*But sanctify the Lord God* in your hearts, and always <sup>v</sup>be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the <sup>w</sup>hope that is in you, with meekness and fear;* <sup>17</sup>having a good conscience, that when they defame you as evildoers, those who revile your good conduct in Christ may be ashamed. <sup>18</sup>For it is better, if it is the will of God, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil.

Christ's Suffering and Ours

<sup>18</sup>*For Christ also suffered once for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us* to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive by the Spirit,* <sup>19</sup>by whom also He went and preached to the spirits in prison, <sup>20</sup>*who formerly were disobedient, when once the Divine longsuffering waited* in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water.* <sup>21</sup>There is also an antitype which now saves us—baptism <sup>2</sup>(not the removal of the filth of the flesh, <sup>3</sup>but the answer of a good conscience toward God), through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, <sup>22</sup>who has gone into heaven and <sup>b</sup>is at the right hand of God, <sup>c</sup>angels and authorities and powers having been made subject to Him.

4 *Therefore, since Christ suffered for us* in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mind, for he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin,* <sup>2</sup>that he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh for the lusts of men, <sup>a</sup>but for the will of God. <sup>3</sup>*For we have spent enough of our past lifetime* in doing the will of the Gentiles—when we walked in lewdness, lusts, drunkenness, revelries, drinking parties, and abominable idolatries.* <sup>4</sup>*In regard to these, they think it strange that you do not run with them in the same flood of dissipation, speaking evil of you.* <sup>5</sup>They will give an account to Him who is ready <sup>b</sup>to judge the living and the dead. <sup>6</sup>For this reason <sup>c</sup>the gospel was preached also to those who are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but <sup>d</sup>live according to God in the spirit.

Serving for God's Glory

* 3:14 Isaiah 8:12 * 3:15 NU-Text reads Christ as Lord. * 3:18 NU-Text and M-Text read you.

* 3:20 NU-Text and M-Text read when the longsuffering of God waited patiently. * 4:1 NU-Text omits for us. * 4:3 NU-Text reads time.

3:15 sanctify the Lord God in your hearts. Believers should acknowledge the eternal holiness of Christ by revering Him as the Lord of the universe who is in control of all things. to give a defense. Peter assumes that the Christian faith will be falsely accused. He therefore encourages Christians to have rational answers to respond to those false accusations.

3:17 For it is better. Peter is not encouraging believers to seek out situations in which they will experience suffering. Instead, he is saying that believers should make certain that when they suffer, it is the result of having been faithful to God rather than because they have done evil (2:19).

3:19–20 spirits in prison. The Greek term translated spirits can refer to human spirits, angels, or demons. There are three main interpretations: (1) Some interpret these verses as describing Jesus as going to the place where fallen angels are incarcerated and declaring His final victory over evil in His work on the cross; (2) others hold that spirits refers to human spirits; thus Christ preached to human beings who had died in Noah's day and were in the realm of the dead (hell or hades); and (3) another major interpretation understands this passage as describing Christ preaching through Noah to the unbelievers of his day.

4:1 has ceased from sin. Those who serve God faithfully in the midst of suffering take on a different attitude toward sin than what they previously held. Sin no longer holds the same grip on them.

4:3 abominable idolatries. The idea here is that some forms of idolatry may have been detestable even to the civil authorities. Of course, all types of idolatry are hateful to God.

4:5 will give an account. Although unbelievers think they are free to do as they please, they are greatly mistaken. There are consequences to what they do. One day they will stand defenseless before God and give an account of all of their wickedness (Rev. 20:11–15).

4:6 to those who are dead. There are four main interpretations of Peter's meaning here: (1) Some see a connection between the gospel preached in this verse and the proclamation of Christ in 3:19–20; accordingly, they understand this verse to be about Christ offering salvation to those who lived in pre-Christian times; (2) another group of commentators also connects this preaching to 3:19–20, but holds that this verse is speaking of Christ preaching the gospel only to the righteous people of Old Testament times; (3) Peter was speaking of the gospel which was preached to believers who are now dead; and (4) Peter is referring to the spiritually dead; the gospel was being preached to them so that they could come alive spiritually.

4:8 love will cover a multitude of sins. Peter is not suggesting that one Christian's love atones for another Christian's sins. Rather, by introducing this proverb from the Old Testament (Prov. 10:12), he is reminding us that love does not stir up sins. We can demonstrate our love for our fellow believers by truly forgiving them and not talking openly about their past sins.

Suffering for God's Glory

<sup>12</sup>Beloved, do not think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you; <sup>13</sup>but rejoice <sup>n</sup>to the extent that you partake of Christ's sufferings, that <sup>o</sup>when His glory is revealed, you may also be glad with exceeding joy. <sup>14</sup>If you are reproached for the name of Christ, <sup>p</sup>*blessed are you, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you.** <sup>q</sup>On their part He is blasphemed, <sup>r</sup>but on your part He is glorified. <sup>15</sup>But let none of you suffer as a murderer, a thief, an evildoer, or as a busybody in other people's matters. <sup>16</sup>*Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this matter.**

<sup>17</sup>For the time has come <sup>r</sup>for judgment to begin at the house of God; and if it begins with us first, <sup>s</sup>what will be the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God? <sup>18</sup>Now

<sup>t</sup>*"If the righteous one is scarcely saved, What will the ungodly and the sinner appear?"**

<sup>19</sup>Therefore let those who suffer according to the will of God <sup>u</sup>commit their souls to Him in doing good, as to a faithful Creator.

Shepherd the Flock

<sup>5</sup>The elders who are among you I exhort, I who am a fellow elder and a <sup>a</sup>witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the <sup>b</sup>glory that will be revealed: <sup>2c</sup>Shepherd the flock of God which is among you, serving as overseers, <sup>d</sup>*not by compulsion but willingly,** <sup>e</sup>not for dishonest gain but eagerly; <sup>3</sup>nor as <sup>f</sup>being lords over <sup>g</sup>those entrusted to you, but <sup>h</sup>being examples to the flock; <sup>4</sup>and when <sup>i</sup>the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive <sup>j</sup>the crown of glory that does not fade away.

Submit to God, Resist the Devil

<sup>5</sup>Likewise you younger people, submit yourselves to your elders. Yes, <sup>k</sup>all of you be submissive to one another, and be clothed with humility, for

<sup>6</sup>Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time, <sup>7</sup>casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you.

<sup>8</sup>Be sober, be vigilant; because *your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. <sup>9</sup>Resist him, steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same sufferings are experienced

4:9 Be hospitable. In New Testament times, hospitality typically meant housing and feeding travelers for two to three days with no expectation of payment in return.

4:10 As each one has received a gift. Every believer is gifted to serve. stewards. These are managers or trustees who will be held accountable for using their gift in the best interest of the One who gave it to them.

4:12 do not think it strange. Apparently Peter's readers were astonished that they had to suffer as Christians, especially to the extent that they were suffering. fiery trial. The Greek word translated here was also used to speak of the intense fire that burned away impurities in metals.

4:17 for judgment to begin. Judgment does not always imply condemnation in Scripture. When used in relation to Christians, it consistently refers to the evaluation of a believer's works for the purpose of reward (1 Cor. 3:10–15).

5:1 partaker. This term speaks of sharing in Christ's reign in the coming kingdom (Rom. 8:17; Rev. 2:26–28; 5:9–10). Peter considers himself to be already participating partly in the glory that one day he will experience fully.

5:2 Shepherd the flock of God. An ancient Israelite shepherd would go before his sheep to lead them;

he would not drive the sheep in front of him. Church leaders should lead the people of God in the same way; feeding, protecting, and guiding them (John 21:15–17). Christian leaders should also remember that they have been given responsibility for tending a flock that belongs to God, not to themselves. not for dishonest gain. Christian leaders need to make certain that their work is not motivated by money, but by a passion for the good of those believers put in their charge (1 Tim. 3:3,8; Titus 1:11).

5:3 nor as being lords over. Echoing a command that Peter heard directly from Jesus during His earthly ministry, Peter reminds all Christian leaders that they need to perform the role of servants, not masters, to those whom God has assigned to their care (Matt. 20:25–28; Mark 10:42–45).

5:8 your adversary. Satan is our avowed enemy. He never ceases from being hostile toward us; he is

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PETER

► AUTHOR: No other book in the New Testament poses as many problems of authenticity as does 2 Peter. But in spite of the external and internal problems, the traditional position of Petrine authorship overcomes more difficulties than any other option. This epistle was written just before the apostle's death (1:14), probably from Rome.

► TIME: c. A.D. 64–66    ► KEY VERSES: 2 Pet. 1:20–21

► THEME: While 1 Peter deals with suffering and persecution caused by people outside the church, 2 Peter deals more with the need for the true spiritual knowledge and maturity in the face of false teachers who would distort the faith from inside the church. He gives his readers insight into the thinking of the false teachers and encourages opposition to them. He also urges watchfulness for Christ's return through all the events at the end of the age.

Greeting the Faithful

1 Simon Peter, a bondservant and <sup>a</sup>apostle of Jesus Christ,

To those who have obtained <sup>b</sup>like precious faith with us by the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ:

<sup>2c</sup>Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, <sup>3a</sup>as His <sup>d</sup>divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him <sup>e</sup>who called us by glory and virtue, <sup>4f</sup>by which have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that through these you may be <sup>g</sup>partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

Fruitful Growth in the Faith

<sup>5</sup>But also for this very reason, <sup>h</sup>giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue, to virtue <sup>i</sup>knowledge, <sup>6</sup>to knowledge self-control, to self-control perseverance, to perseverance godliness, <sup>7</sup>to godliness brotherly kindness, and <sup>8</sup>to brotherly kindness love. <sup>8</sup>For if these things are yours and abound, you will be neither barren <sup>k</sup>nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup>For he who lacks these things is <sup>l</sup>shortsighted,

1:1 apostle. With this term Peter identifies himself as an authorized spokesman for the truth that Christ proclaimed. In verses 1–4 Peter describes the resources his readers have that will make growth in grace and knowledge possible. His apostleship is the first of these resources. like precious faith. Anyone who has faith in Jesus has the same access to God as any other believer. This access is the second great resource that Peter's readers possess.

1:2 the knowledge of God. The Greek word translated knowledge is a key word in this letter. It describes a special kind of knowledge, a kind that is complete. Since our knowledge of Jesus grows as we mature in the faith, we will experience His grace and peace on many different occasions in our Christian walk.

1:3 divine power. This power is identified as the "power of resurrection" (Phil. 3:10; 4:13). This power is the third resource for godly living that Peter lists in this letter. by glory and virtue. These words suggest the qualities of Jesus that attract believers to Him. The glory that John saw in Jesus (John 1:14) was His authority and power.

1:4 exceedingly great and precious promises. This phrase refers to the numerous offers of divine provision found in Scripture. These promises offer us the glory and virtue of Christ as the basis for our growing participation in the divine nature. We have Christ within us, as He promised (John 14:23), to enable us to become increasingly Christlike (2 Cor. 3:18).

1:5 virtue. This term is the same word used in verse 3 in reference to Christ's character. We cannot produce virtue ourselves; but we can choose to obey the promptings of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

1:6 perseverance. A person who exercises self-control will not easily succumb to discouragement or the temptation to quit. Viewing all circumstances as coming from the hand of a loving Father who is in control of all things is the secret of perseverance.

1:9 blindness. This kind of person is one who looks only at earthly and material values—what is close at hand—and does not see the eternal spiritual realities. Concerned only with this present life, such a person becomes blind to the things of God, forgetting even to blindness, and has forgotten that he was cleansed from his old sins.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore, brethren, be even more diligent <sup>m</sup>to make your call and election sure, for if you do these things you will never stumble; <sup>11</sup>for so an entrance will be supplied to you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Peter's Approaching Death

<sup>12</sup>For this reason <sup>n</sup>I will not be negligent to remind you always of these things, though you know and are established in the present truth. <sup>13</sup>Yes, I think it is right, <sup>14</sup>as long as I am in this tent, <sup>o</sup>to stir you up by reminding you, <sup>15</sup>knowing that shortly I must put off my tent, just as <sup>p</sup>our Lord Jesus Christ showed me. <sup>16</sup>Moreover I will be careful to ensure that you always have a reminder of these things after my decease.

The Trustworthy Prophetic Word

the wonderful sense of cleansing that comes from turning oneself over to Christ.

1:11 entrance . . . abundantly. Peter distinguishes between a just-barely-made-it entrance into the eternal kingdom and a richly abundant one. The Scripture indicates that fruitful and faithful living here will be rewarded by greater privileges and rewards in glory (Rev. 22:12).

1:15 a reminder . . . after my decease. Several early church fathers took these words to be Peter's promise to leave behind a testimony of the truth for his readers, which they considered to be the Gospel of Mark.

1:16 cunningly devised fables. Peter countered the false teacher's faith claims with an eyewitness account. Peter himself had actually seen the power and the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. These are the twin themes of this letter; the power of Jesus available for holy living and the coming of Jesus as the glorious hope of each believer.

1:19 the prophetic word confirmed. As strong as an eyewitness account (vv. 16–18) may be, there is an even stronger confirmation that Jesus is who He said He was. The written Scriptures are even more trustworthy than the personal experience of the apostle Peter.

1:20 of any private interpretation. Although some have taken this phrase to mean that no individual Christian has the right to interpret prophecy for himself or herself, the context and the Greek word for interpretation indicates another meaning for the verse. The Greek word for interpretation can also mean "origin." In the context of verse 21, it is clear that Peter is speaking of Scripture's "origin" from

Destructive Doctrines

2 But there were also false prophets among the people, even as there will be <sup>1</sup>false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Lord who bought them, and bring on themselves swift destruction. <sup>2</sup>And many will follow their destructive ways, because of whom the way of truth will be blasphemed. <sup>3</sup>By covetousness they will exploit you with deceptive words; for a long time their judgment has not been idle, and their destruction does* not slumber.

Doom of False Teachers

<sup>4</sup>For if God did not spare the angels who sinned, but cast them down to hell and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be

* 1:19 Or We also have the more sure prophetic word. * 1:20 Or origin * 1:21 NU-Text reads but men spoke from God. * 2:3 M-Text reads will not.

God Himself and not the credentials of the one who interprets it. There is no private source for the Bible; the prophets did not supply their own solutions or explanations to the mysteries of life. Rather, God spoke through them; He alone is responsible for what is written in Scripture.

2:1 destructive heresies. Peter is addressing here the ethical implication of false teaching. The Greek word translated destructive means "shameful" or "deliberately immoral." The false teachers gloried in the privileges of Christianity but treated its moral demands with indifference.

2:3 judgment . . . destruction. Peter turns from the description of the false teachers to a description of their fate. Verses 4–8 provide examples of judgment of false teachers of the past.

2:4 angels who sinned. There are two main interpretations of this passage, depending on one's understanding of Genesis 6:1–6. Some think that Peter is referring to "sons of God" in Genesis 6:2. According to this interpretation, the "sons of God" were angels who rebelled against God and their role in creation. They began to engage in forbidden practices with the daughters of men. Their conduct was met with immediate judgment. A second group of commentators reserved for judgment;<sup>5</sup> and did not spare the ancient world, but saved Noah, one of eight people, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood on the world of the ungodly;<sup>6</sup> and turning the cities of <sup>b</sup>Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to destruction, making them an example to those who afterward would live ungodly;<sup>7</sup> and <sup>c</sup>delivered righteous Lot, who was oppressed by the filthy conduct of the wicked <sup>8</sup>(for that righteous man, dwelling among them, <sup>d</sup>tormented his righteous soul from day to day by seeing and hearing their lawless deeds)—<sup>9</sup>then <sup>e</sup>the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations and to reserve the unjust under punishment for the day of judgment,<sup>10</sup> and especially <sup>f</sup>those who walk according to the flesh in the lust of uncleanness and despise authority. <sup>g</sup>They are presumptuous, self-willed. They are not afraid to speak evil of dignitaries,<sup>11</sup> whereas <sup>h</sup>angels, who are greater in power and might, do not bring a reviling accusation against them before the Lord.

Depravity of False Teachers

you,<sup>14</sup> having eyes full of adultery and that cannot cease from sin, enticing unstable souls. <sup>n</sup>They have a heart trained in covetous practices, and are accursed children.<sup>15</sup> They have forsaken the right way and gone astray, following the way of <sup>o</sup>Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;<sup>16</sup> but he was rebuked for his iniquity: a dumb donkey speaking with a man's voice restrained the madness of the prophet.

Deceptions of False Teachers

<sup>18</sup>For when they speak great swelling words of emptiness, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through lewdness, the ones who have actually escaped* from those who live in error.<sup>19</sup> While they promise them liberty, they themselves are slaves of corruption;<sup>20</sup> for by whom a person is overcome, by him also he is brought into bondage. <sup>20</sup>For if, after they <sup>r</sup>have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are <sup>s</sup>again entangled in them and overcome, the latter end is worse for them than the beginning. <sup>21</sup>For <sup>t</sup>it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness,

balk at the suggestion of sexual relations between angels and women. They consider this verse to simply be a reference to those angels who fell with Satan. 2:5 did not spare the ancient world. Peter's second example of God's judgment is the flood (3:6). preacher of righteousness. This is a reference to Noah because his righteous life put to shame the immoral lives of his neighbors. Noah's building of the ark would certainly have given him the opportunity to explain the coming judgment and to invite people to repent and believe in God. But the entreaties fell on deaf ears, just as the truth of Christ's atonement fell on the deaf ears of the false teachers of Peter's day. Such indifference and unbelief brought the ungodly of Noah's world to certain destruction.

2:6 Sodom and Gomorrah. These cities are Peter's third example of God's judgment. Genesis 19 makes it clear that sexual perversion was the primary cause of their destruction.

2:9–10 presumptuous, self-willed. These words describe the character and methods of false teachers. Their actions are characterized by boldness; they recklessly defy both God and man. Behind their presumption is a commitment to their own desires.

2:12 like natural brute beasts. False teachers are compared to animals in their behavior because they act in ignorance of the realities of death and judgment. Like animals they also react only to present circumstances, without giving thought to the consequences of their actions.

2:13 carouse in the daytime. Even pagan societies thought it strange and unnatural to hold drunken riots in the daylight. However, the false teachers had no qualms about practicing their erroneous concept of Christian liberty in clear daylight.

2:14 eyes full of adultery. They could not cease from sin because their fantasizing had become habitual. As a consequence, they convinced unstable souls in the church that adultery was acceptable Christian behavior and lured them into sexual immorality.

2:15–16 following the way of Balaam. The account of Balaam in Numbers 22–24 is used here, as well as in Jude 11 and Revelation 2:14, to depict the danger of forsaking the right way and going astray.

2:17 wells . . . clouds. Peter accuses the heretical teachers of awakening false expectations, like wells that contain no water or storm clouds that darken but produce no rain.

2:20 they have escaped. The subject of this phrase is the heretical teachers who are called "servants of corruption" in verse 19. This verse seems to indicate that the teachers had formerly turned from the pollution of the world through a full and experiential knowledge of Christ. Now, however, they have fallen again into immorality, even becoming teachers of sinful than having known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them. <sup>22</sup>But it has happened to them according to the true proverb: “A dog returns to his own vomit,”* and, “a sow, having washed, to her wallowing in the mire.”

God’s Promise Is Not Slack

3 Beloved, I now write to you this second epistle (in both of which <sup>a</sup>I stir up your pure minds by way of reminder), <sup>2</sup>that you may be mindful of the words <sup>b</sup>which were spoken before by the holy prophets, <sup>c</sup>and of the commandment of us,* the apostles of the Lord and Savior, <sup>3</sup>knowing this first: that scoffers will come in the last days, <sup>d</sup>walking according to their own lusts, <sup>4</sup>and saying, “Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation.” <sup>5</sup>For this they willfully forget: that <sup>f</sup>by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth <sup>g</sup>standing out of water and in the water, <sup>6h</sup>by which the world that then existed perished, being flooded with water. <sup>7</sup>But <sup>i</sup>the heavens and the earth which are now preserved by the same word, are reserved for <sup>j</sup>fire until the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

The Day of the Lord

<sup>10</sup>But <sup>p</sup>the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which <sup>q</sup>the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up.* <sup>11</sup>Therefore, since all these things will be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be <sup>r</sup>in holy conduct and godliness, <sup>12s</sup>looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will <sup>t</sup>be dissolved, being on fire, and the elements will <sup>u</sup>melt with fervent heat? <sup>13</sup>Nevertheless we, according to His promise, look for <sup>v</sup>new heavens and a <sup>w</sup>new earth in which righteousness dwells.

Be Steadfast

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, beloved, looking forward to these things, be diligent <sup>x</sup>to be found by Him in peace, without spot and blameless; <sup>15</sup>and consider that <sup>y</sup>the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation—as also our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom given to him, has written to you, <sup>16</sup>as also in all his <sup>z</sup>epistles, speaking in them of these things, in which are some things hard to understand, which untaught and unstable people twist to their own destruction, as they do also the <sup>a</sup>rest of the Scriptures.

<sup>17</sup>You therefore, beloved, <sup>b</sup>since you know this beforehand, <sup>c</sup>beware lest you also fall from your own steadfastness, being led away with the error of the wicked; <sup>18d</sup>but grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

lifestyles. the latter end is worse for them than the beginning. This phrase is almost certainly taken from Jesus’ words in Matthew 12:45 and probably reflects Peter’s memory of that occasion.

2:22 according to the true proverb. Jews considered dogs and pigs among the lowest of animals, so Peter chooses these animals to describe people who have known the truth but have turned away from it.

3:2 words which were spoken before. The only way Peter’s readers could recognize the errors of the heretical teachers was to compare their teaching with the teaching of the holy prophets and apostles. As Peter had already reminded his readers in 1:21, “holy men” spoke words given to them by the Holy Spirit, which were therefore utterly reliable.

3:4 fathers fell asleep. This refers to the Old Testament patriarchs. all things continue. The basis for denying the supernatural reappearance of Jesus is that nothing of that nature has occurred in the past.

3:8 a thousand years. God will surely accomplish His purposes and promises, even though it may appear that He is slow in doing so. His timing is always perfect.

3:10 day of the Lord. This phrase describes the end-time events, the second coming (Dan. 9:24–27; 1 Thess. 5:2; 2 Thess. 2:1–12). Peter’s description requires the unlimited power of God in dissolving the very elements of the universe, from which He will create a new heaven and a new earth (v. 13; Rev. 21:22).

3:11 what manner of persons. The primary purpose of prophetic teaching is not to satisfy our curiosity but to motivate us to change our lives. Rather than work for things that will ultimately be destroyed, we should work for things that are eternal.

3:16 untaught and unstable people twist. Untaught refers to one whose mind is untrained and undisciplined in habits of thought. Unstable refers to one whose conduct is not properly established.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF JOHN

► AUTHOR: First John was universally accepted without dispute as authoritative by the early church. The internal evidence supports this tradition because the “we” (apostles), “you” (readers), and “they” (false teachers) phraseology places the writer in the sphere of apostolic eyewitness (1:1–3; 4:14). John’s name was well known to the readers, and it was unnecessary for him to mention it. The style and vocabulary of 1 John are so similar to those of the fourth Gospel that most scholars acknowledge these books to be by the same hand. First John was probably written in Ephesus after the Gospel of John, but the date cannot be fixed with certainty.

► TIME: c. A.D. 89–95

► KEY VERSES: 1 John 1:3–4

► THEME: Shortly after the church began, people like the Gnostics continually tried to recast the gospel in their own terms. Gnosticism made a distinction between the material or carnal, which was evil to them, and the spiritual, which was pure. John writes as one who was acquainted with Jesus personally, physically, and spiritually. He wants the reader to take the Christ he knew at face value. John wants his readers to believe the truth of his experience of Jesus and not the philosophical speculation of the Gnostics. In these letters we see the same themes as in John’s Gospel—light and darkness, truth and falsehood, life and death, love and hate. John weaves these themes together with a straightforward skill and fatherly care.

What Was Heard, Seen, and Touched

1 That <sup>a</sup>which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have <sup>b</sup>seen with our eyes, <sup>c</sup>which we have looked upon, and <sup>d</sup>our hands have handled, concerning the <sup>e</sup>Word of life—<sup>2f</sup>the life <sup>g</sup>was manifested, and we have seen, <sup>h</sup>and bear witness, and declare to you that eternal life which was <sup>i</sup>with the Father and was manifested to us—<sup>3</sup>that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is <sup>j</sup>with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup>And these things we write to you <sup>k</sup>that your* joy may be full.

Fellowship with Him and One Another

<sup>5l</sup>This is the message which we have heard from Him and declare to you, that <sup>m</sup>God is light and in Him is no darkness at all. <sup>6n</sup>If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie and do

* 1:4 NU-Text and M-Text read our.

1:1–4 the Word of life. These verses emphasize the personal experience of the apostles with the incarnate Word. The memory of Jesus Christ burned in the mind of John as he reflected on the three and one-half years that he and the other disciples were with the Lord. Now he wanted to be sure that the churches under his care enjoyed fellowship with the resurrected Lord and other disciples.

1:2 life was manifested. The life was not hidden or obscured so that few, if any, could find it. Rather, this life was made known openly and had its origin in God the Father. God had provided truth about Himself in nature and through the prophets of old, but the revelation in His Son (Heb. 1:1–2) is God’s finest and clearest presentation of Himself.

1:3 have fellowship. The idea of this word carries both the thought of a positive relationship that people share and participation in a common interest or goal.

1:5 God is light. This is God’s nature, in His essential being, just as He is Spirit (John 4:24) and love (4:8). Light refers to God’s moral character. no darkness at all. God is holy, untouched by any evil or sin. Because God is light, those who desire fellowship with Him must also be pure.

1:6 fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness. To walk in darkness means to live contrary to the moral character of God, to live a sinful life. To claim fellowship with God without living a moral life or practicing the truth is to live a lie, since God cannot compromise His holiness to accommodate sin.

not practice the truth. <sup>7</sup>But if we <sup>a</sup>walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and <sup>p</sup>the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin.

<sup>8</sup>If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. <sup>9</sup>If we <sup>a</sup>confess our sins, He is <sup>r</sup>faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to <sup>c</sup>cleanse us from all unrighteousness. <sup>10</sup>If we say that we have not sinned, we <sup>r</sup>make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

2 My little children, these things I write to you, so that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, <sup>a</sup>we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. <sup>2</sup>And <sup>b</sup>He Himself is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but <sup>c</sup>also for the whole world.

The Test of Knowing Him

to you, but an old commandment which you have had <sup>f</sup>from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you heard from the beginning.* <sup>8</sup>Again, <sup>i</sup>a new commandment I write to you, which thing is true in Him and in you, <sup>k</sup>because the darkness is passing away, and <sup>l</sup>the true light is already shining.

Their Spiritual State

- <sup>12</sup> I write to you, little children, Because <sup>r</sup>your sins are forgiven you for His name's sake.
- <sup>13</sup> I write to you, fathers,
Because you have known Him who is <sup>s</sup>from the beginning.
- I write to you, young men,
Because you have overcome the wicked one.
- I write to you, little children,
Because you have <sup>t</sup>known the Father.

1:8–9 If we confess. To confess is to agree with God, to admit that we are sinners in need of His mercy. If a believer confesses his or her specific sins to God, He will cleanse all unrighteousness from that person. Forgiveness and cleansing are guaranteed because God is faithful to His promises. Those promises are legitimated because God is just. God can maintain His perfect character and yet forgive us because of the perfect and righteous sacrifice of Jesus, His own Son (2:2).

1:10 His word is not in us. A person who denies committing sinful acts does not have the Word of God changing his or her life.

2:1 My little children . . . that you may not sin. John's statements about sin (1:8–10) were designed to make believers aware of sin's ever-present danger and to put them on guard against it. According to Greek grammar, the if before anyone sins carries the added sense of "and it is assumed that we all do." This statement is not an encouragement to sin but a warning to all Christians to be on guard against sinful tendencies.

2:2 propitiation. This act brings about the merciful removal of guilt through divine forgiveness. In the Greek Old Testament, the Greek term for propitiation was used for the sacrificial mercy seat on which the high priest placed the blood of the Israelites' sacrifices (Ex. 25:17–22). This practice indicates that God's righteous wrath had to be appeased somehow. God sent His Son and satisfied His own wrath with Jesus' sacrifice on the cross. Our sins made it necessary for Jesus to suffer the agonies of the crucifixion; but God demonstrated His love and justice by providing His own Son.

2:3 we know Him. The New Testament speaks of knowing God in two senses. One who has trusted Christ knows Him (John 17:3); that is to say, has met Him. One who has previously met the Lord can also come to know Him intimately (Phil. 3:10). In this verse John is talking about knowing the Lord intimately.

2:6 abides in Him. Abiding is habitual obedience. It has the idea of settling down in Christ or resting in Him. It is evidenced by a life modeled after Christ. ought himself also to walk. The admonition to live by the teaching of Jesus reveals that this conformity comes from us. The Christian, as a child of God, ought to obey God because of a sincere desire to do so. It should be a joy to follow in the footsteps of the One who died for us.

2:8 new commandment. This refers to love (v. 10). It may be that John is simply repeating the statement of Christ in John 13:34. The command to love reached its truest and fullest expression in the life of Christ. He demonstrated what true love is by coming into our world and giving His life for us.

2:11 he who hates his brother. Hating one's brother opposes the teaching of Christ to love one another. The idea that one could hate a brother and yet claim fellowship with God shows the utter darkness that has blinded the Christian to the truth.

Do Not Love the World

Deceptions of the Last Hour

<sup>20</sup>But <sup>h</sup>you have an anointing <sup>i</sup>from the Holy One, and <sup>j</sup>you know all things.* <sup>21</sup>I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

<sup>22k</sup>Who is a liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist who denies the Father and the Son. <sup>23m</sup>Whoever denies the Son does not have the “Father either;” he who acknowledges the Son has the Father also.

Let Truth Abide in You

<sup>24</sup>Therefore let that abide in you <sup>p</sup>which you heard from the beginning. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, <sup>q</sup>you also will abide in the Son and in the Father. <sup>25r</sup>And this is the promise that He has promised us—eternal life.

<sup>26</sup>These things I have written to you concerning those who try to deceive you. <sup>27</sup>But the “anointing which you have received from Him abides in you, and” you do not need that anyone teach you; but as the same anointing <sup>u</sup>teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you will* abide in Him.

The Children of God

<sup>28</sup>And now, little children, abide in Him, that when* He appears, we may have <sup>v</sup>confidence and not be ashamed before Him at His coming. <sup>29w</sup>If you know that He is righteous, you know that “everyone who practices righteousness is born of Him.”

3 Behold <sup>a</sup>what manner of love the Father has bestowed on us, that <sup>b</sup>we should be called children of God!* Therefore the world does not know us,* <sup>c</sup>because it did

* 2:18 NU-Text omits the. * 2:20 NU-Text reads you all know. * 2:27 NU-Text reads you abide.

* 2:28 NU-Text reads if. * 3:1 NU-Text adds And we are. • M-Text reads you.

2:15 Do not love the world. These words may be rephrased as “stop loving the world.” John’s readers were acting in a way that was inconsistent with the relationship with Christ. “World” here is the morally evil system opposed to all that God is and holds dear. In this sense, the “world” is the satanic system opposing Christ’s kingdom on this earth (v. 16; 3:1; 4:4; 5:19; John 12:31; Eph. 6:11–12; James 4:4).

2:16 lust of the flesh . . . lust of the eyes . . . pride of life. The world is characterized by these three lusts, which have been interpreted as corresponding to the three different ways Eve was tempted in the garden (Gen. 3:6), or the three different temptations Jesus experienced (Luke 4:1–12). However, the correspondences are not close enough to make it certain that John was alluding to either of these. Instead, John was probably making a short list of the different ways believers could be lured away from a loving God. Lust of the flesh refers to desires of sinful sensual pleasure. The lust of the eyes refers to covetousness or materialism. The pride of life refers to being proud about one’s position in this world.

2:17 passing away. John highlights the brevity of life. To be consumed with this life is to be unprepared for the next.

2:18 antichrists. This word is a combination of two Greek words: anti, meaning “instead of” or “against”; and christos, meaning “anointed one.” Antichrists most likely means those who seek to take the place of Christ.

2:20 anointing. This is a reference to either the Holy Spirit or to Scripture. This unction, or anointing, is the protection that believers have against the false teachers. The true Anointed One, Jesus, also has representatives who are anointed. One of the main heresies the first century church faced was Gnosticism, whose followers claimed to have secret knowledge of the truth that led to salvation. Here John was opposing this teaching by asserting that all believers knew the truth.

2:22–23 that Jesus is the Christ. In John’s epistles, denying that Jesus came in the flesh is to deny His status as the Anointed One. A person cannot worship God while denying Jesus’ full deity and full humanity.

2:28 ashamed before Him at His coming. The shame is the result of not having had a lifestyle of obedience when Christ returns.

3:1 what manner of love. John stands in amazement of God’s love. But the greater amazement and appreciation is for the fact that God’s love is expressed to not know Him. <sup>2</sup>Beloved, <sup>d</sup>now we are children of God; and <sup>e</sup>it has not yet been revealed what we shall be, but we know that when He is revealed, <sup>f</sup>we shall be like Him, for <sup>g</sup>we shall see Him as He is. <sup>3h</sup>And every one who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure.

Sin and the Child of God

<sup>7</sup>Little children, let no one deceive you. He who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous. <sup>8m</sup>He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, <sup>n</sup>that He might destroy the works of the devil. <sup>9</sup>Whoever has been <sup>o</sup>born of God does not sin, for <sup>p</sup>His seed remains in him; and he cannot sin, because he has been born of God.

The Imperative of Love

<sup>10</sup>In this the children of God and the children of the devil are manifest: Whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is he who does not love his brother. <sup>11</sup>For this is the message that you heard from the beginning, <sup>q</sup>that we should love one another, <sup>12</sup>not as <sup>r</sup>Cain who was of the wicked one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his works were evil and his brother's righteous.

<sup>13</sup>Do not marvel, my brethren, if <sup>s</sup>the world hates you. <sup>14</sup>We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love his brother* abides in death. <sup>15t</sup>Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that <sup>u</sup>no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

The Outworking of Love

<sup>16v</sup>By this we know love, <sup>w</sup>because He laid down His life for us. And we also ought to lay down <sup>x</sup>our lives for the brethren. <sup>17</sup>But <sup>y</sup>whoever has this world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and shuts up his heart from him, how does the love of God abide in him?

<sup>18</sup>My little children, <sup>z</sup>let us not love in word or in tongue, but in deed and in truth. <sup>19</sup>And by this we know* <sup>z</sup>that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before Him. <sup>20a</sup>For if our heart condemns us, God human beings and that Christians are included in His family.

3:2 We Have a New Family—One of the primary benefits of becoming a Christian is that we also become part of Christ's family. The Bible refers to this change as being born again (John 3:3). When an individual places his faith in Christ as Savior, he is born again into a new, spiritual, familial relationship with God (Gal. 3:26). He gains God as Father (Eph. 4:6) and other Christians as brothers and sisters (Heb. 3:1). God also adopts us when we become His children (Eph. 1:5). This image implies a dramatic transformation of status from slave to son (Gal. 4:1–5). One is no longer in bondage to the master but becomes a free son possessing all the rights and privileges of sonship. One of these benefits is the right to call God Abba, an affectionate term meaning "Father" (Rom. 8:15). A marvelous relationship is possible when one becomes a part of the family of God. As in any family, there are also responsibilities. The Christian must exhibit the family character and grow into spiritual maturity.

3:3 everyone who has this hope. Knowing that Christ is morally pure helps a person pursue purity even more.

3:4 commits sin. This verse is not referring to occasional sin but a consistent lifestyle of sin. lawlessness. This is active rebellion against the law.

3:5–6 Whosoever abides in Him does not sin. Habitually sinful conduct indicates an absence of fellowship with Christ. Thus, if we claim to be a Christian but sin is our way of life, our status as children of God can legitimately be questioned.

3:8 destroy the works of the devil. A person who sins is of the devil in the sense that he is participating in the devil's activity (2:19). Thus John is indicating that it is possible for believers to do that which is of the devil (Mark 8:31–33; James 3:6).

3:10 children of the devil. Believers who sin are not expressing their nature as children of God; instead, they are following the devil's pattern.

3:14 have passed from death to life. The tense of the verb "have passed" indicates that something experienced in the past has continuing and abiding results in the present. Thus John is saying that Christians, who have experienced Christ's salvation in the past, should demonstrate their salvation by loving their fellow believers in the present.

3:18 love in word or in tongue. This phrase means to speak loving words but to stop short of doing anything to prove that love. The opposite of loving in word is loving in deed and in truth.

3:20 our heart condemns us. This will happen when we recognize that we do not measure up to the standard of love and feel insecure in approaching God. Our conscience may not acknowledge the loving deeds we have done in the power of the Holy Spirit, but God does, and He is superior to our heart. Unlike our conscience, God takes everything into account, including Christ's atoning work for us. God is more compassionate and understanding toward us than we sometimes are toward ourselves.

is greater than our heart, and knows all things. <sup>21</sup>Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, <sup>b</sup>we have confidence toward God. <sup>22</sup>And <sup>c</sup>whatever we ask we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments <sup>d</sup>and do those things that are pleasing in His sight. <sup>23</sup>And this is His commandment: that we should believe on the name of His Son Jesus Christ <sup>e</sup>and love one another, as He gave us* commandment.

The Spirit of Truth and the Spirit of Error

<sup>24</sup>Now <sup>f</sup>he who keeps His commandments <sup>g</sup>abides in Him, and He in him. And <sup>h</sup>by this we know that He abides in us, by the Spirit whom He has given us.

4 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but <sup>i</sup>test the spirits, whether they are of God; because <sup>b</sup>many false prophets have gone out into the world. <sup>2</sup>By this you know the Spirit of God: <sup>c</sup>Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, <sup>3</sup>and every spirit that does not confess that* Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God. And this is the spirit of the Antichrist, which you have heard was coming, and is now already in the world.

<sup>4</sup>You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than <sup>d</sup>he who is in the world. <sup>5e</sup>They are of the world. Therefore they speak as of the world, and <sup>f</sup>the world hears them. <sup>6</sup>We are of God. He who knows God hears us; he who is not of God does not hear us. <sup>8</sup>By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

3:24 We Have a Witness—Some of the benefits of being a believer are best described as being spiritual or even mystical. The whole idea of abiding in Christ while He abides in us is one of those concepts. Abide is best understood as “remain with.” God doesn’t come and go in our lives. He carries on a permanent relationship with us because He is always there for us and in us. We sense His presence primarily through the work of the Holy Spirit, whose role it is to stand beside us and comfort us. It happens in our hearts and minds and is largely invisible. Yet, it is also what most accurately describes the most important aspect of our day-to-day life as Christians. As we abide in Christ, He nourishes us spiritually the same way a vine gives nourishment to its branches (John 15:16).

4:1 false prophets. These persons obey evil spirits. A true prophet is one who receives direct revelation from God. A false prophet claims to have received direct revelation from God but in fact promotes erroneous ideas.

4:2 Christ has come in the flesh. This test seems to be aimed at Docetists. They taught that Christ did not have a physical body. The test may also be aimed at the followers of Cerinthus who claimed that Jesus and “the Christ” were two separate beings, one physical and the other spiritual. In this letter, John is careful to use the name and the title of Jesus Christ together to clearly express the complete union of the two titles in one person.

Knowing God Through Love

<sup>7h</sup>Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who <sup>i</sup>loves is born of God and knows God. <sup>8</sup>He who does not love does not know God, for God is love. <sup>9i</sup>In this the love of God was manifested toward us, that God has sent His only begotten <sup>k</sup>Son into the world, that we might live through Him. <sup>10</sup>In this is love, <sup>l</sup>not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son <sup>m</sup>to be the propitiation for our sins. <sup>11</sup>Beloved, <sup>n</sup>if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

Seeing God Through Love

<sup>12o</sup>No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God abides in us, and His love has been perfected in us. <sup>13p</sup>By this we know that we abide in Him, and He in us, because He has given us of His Spirit. <sup>14</sup>And <sup>q</sup>we have seen and testify that <sup>r</sup>the Father has sent the Son as Savior of the world. <sup>15s</sup>Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. <sup>16</sup>And we have known and believed the love that God has for us. God is love, and <sup>t</sup>he who abides in love abides in God, and God <sup>u</sup>in him.

The Consummation of Love

<sup>17</sup>Love has been perfected among us in this: that <sup>v</sup>we may have boldness in the day of judgment; because as He is, so are we in

* 3:23 M-Text omits us. * 4:3 NU-Text omits that and Christ has come in the flesh.

4:4 he who is in the world. This phrase refers to the devil.

4:8 does not know God. The knowledge of God here refers to an intimate, experiential knowledge (v. 6; 2:3) of God, rather than just information about God. John never says that those who do not love are not born of God (v. 7). Yet it is impossible to know God intimately without loving others, for God is love. Anyone in whom God dwells reflects His character. To claim to know God while failing to love others is to make a false claim (1:6).

4:13 that we abide in Him, and He in us. Mutual abiding refers to the fellowship we have with God as a result of our salvation. The evidence that God abides in us and we in Him is the experience of the Holy Spirit dwelling in us. In the remainder of this passage, John explains how a believer can know that the Spirit is working in his or her life.

4:15 Whoever confesses. To be a Christian, a person must believe that Jesus is the Son of God.

this world. <sup>18</sup>There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves torment. But he who fears has not been made perfect in love. <sup>19w</sup>We love Him* because He first loved us.

Obedience by Faith

<sup>20x</sup>If someone says, “I love God,” and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can* he love God <sup>y</sup>whom he has not seen? <sup>21</sup>And <sup>z</sup>this commandment we have from Him: that he who loves God must love his brother also.

5 Whoever believes that <sup>a</sup>Jesus is the Christ is <sup>b</sup>born of God, and everyone who loves Him who begot also loves him who is begotten of Him. <sup>2</sup>By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and <sup>c</sup>keep His commandments. <sup>3a</sup>For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments. And <sup>c</sup>His commandments are not burdensome. <sup>4</sup>For <sup>f</sup>whatever is born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that <sup>g</sup>has overcome the world—our* faith. <sup>5</sup>Who is he who overcomes the world, but <sup>h</sup>he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

The Certainty of God’s Witness

<sup>6</sup>This is He who came <sup>i</sup>by water and blood—Jesus Christ; not only by water, but by water and blood. <sup>j</sup>And it is the Spirit who bears witness, because the Spirit is truth. <sup>7</sup>For there are three that bear witness in heaven: the Father, <sup>k</sup>the Word, and the Holy Spirit; <sup>l</sup>and these three are one. <sup>8</sup>And there are three that bear witness on earth:* <sup>m</sup>the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree as one.

<sup>9</sup>If we receive <sup>n</sup>the witness of men, the witness of God is greater; <sup>o</sup>for this is the witness of God which* He has testified of His Son. <sup>10</sup>He who believes in the Son of God <sup>p</sup>has the witness in himself; he who does not believe God <sup>q</sup>has made Him a liar, because he has not believed the testimony that God has given of His Son. <sup>11</sup>And this is the testimony: that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. <sup>12r</sup>He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life. <sup>13</sup>These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life,* and that you may continue to believe in the name of the Son of God.

Confidence and Compassion in Prayer

<sup>14</sup>Now this is the confidence that we have in Him, that <sup>s</sup>if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. <sup>15</sup>And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we have asked of Him.

<sup>16</sup>If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin which does not lead to death, he will ask, and <sup>t</sup>He will give him life for those who commit sin not leading to death. <sup>u</sup>There is sin leading to death. <sup>v</sup>I do not say that he should pray about that. <sup>17w</sup>All unrighteousness is sin, and there is sin not leading to death.

Knowing the True—Rejecting the False

<sup>18</sup>We know that <sup>x</sup>whoever is born of God does not sin; but he who has been born of * 4:19 NU-Text omits Him. * 4:20 NU-Text reads he cannot. * 5:4 M-Text reads your. * 5:8 NU-Text and M-Text omit the words from in heaven (verse 7) through on earth (verse 8). Only four or five very late manuscripts contain these words in Greek. * 5:9 NU-Text reads God, that. * 5:13 NU-Text omits the rest of this verse.

5:1 born of God. This condition happens when one believes or trusts in Jesus Christ. Only correct, sincere belief produces spiritual birth. This birth is reflected in love for others who also have been born into the family of God (2:3–11).

5:6 by water and blood. This phrase has been interpreted at least four ways: (1) as Jesus’ baptism and death; (2) as His incarnation; (3) as the water and blood that flowed from His side on the cross; and (4) as the baptism of the believer and the Lord’s Supper. Most scholars favor the first interpretation. John is correcting the false teacher, Cerinthus, who claimed that the Spirit came on Jesus at His baptism but left Him before His death (4:2–3).

5:11 this is the testimony. God’s witness or testimony is that He has given us eternal life in His Son. Eternal life is not a wage to be earned, but a gift to be received from God (Rom. 6:23).

5:14–15 according to His will. The key to knowing that God hears is to pray this way.

5:16–17 There is sin leading to death. This phrase may refer to blaspheming the Holy Spirit, rejecting Christ as Savior, rejecting the humanity or deity of Jesus, a specific sin such as murder (3:12,15), or a life of habitual sin. Whatever it is, the sin seems to be a flagrant violation of the sanctity of the Christian community (Acts 5:1–11; 1 Cor. 5:5; 11:30). In other words, John is encouraging us to help fellow believers who are straying; we can be the tools God uses to restore an erring brother or sister to the true fellowship.

5:18–20 We know. This phrase introduces three concluding absolute truths. The general idea of this concluding section is that a proper relationship with God appropriate that he closes by exhorting them to stay away from false gods.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN

► AUTHOR: Second John was not widely circulated at first because of its brevity and subject matter. Its strong resemblance to the tone and style of 1 John and the Fourth Gospel support the early tradition that John was the author of this epistle sometime after A.D. 90.

► TIME: c. A.D. 90–95    ► KEY VERSES: 2 John 9–10

► THEME: The addressee of 2 John is a woman in a local church that apparently had a strong friendship with John. The apostle writes to warn her about showing hospitality to false teachers. He cautions her against unwittingly aiding these teachers who were sowing seeds of heresy and hurting the church.

Greeting the Elect Lady

The Elder,

To the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all those who have known <sup>a</sup>the truth, <sup>2</sup>because of the truth which abides in us and will be with us forever:

<sup>3b</sup>Grace, mercy, and peace will be with you* from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

Walk in Christ's Commandments

<sup>4</sup>I <sup>c</sup>rejoiced greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth, as we received commandment from the Father. <sup>5</sup>And now I plead with you, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment to you, but that which we have had from the beginning: <sup>d</sup>that we love one another. <sup>6e</sup>This is love, that we walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment, that <sup>f</sup>as you have heard from the beginning, you should walk in it.

Beware of Antichrist Deceivers

1 The Elder. This is probably the apostle John. The title can refer either to an old man, an older person deserving respect, or a church leader. the elect lady. This may be a specific person, or the phrase may be a figurative description of the local church.

4 walking in truth. This phrase means having an authentic relationship with God. Our walk with the Lord, if genuine, must be based upon His word.

6 His commandments. God's love is the basis of His desire for our obedience, and it is the reason He has revealed His will in His word. We prove our obedience to Christ by demonstrating love toward one another. Love is an unlimited resource readily available to us, and it is tremendously effective in furthering the work of Christ.

7 coming in the flesh. These words refer to the Incarnation, the fact that Jesus is the God-man. The humanity of Jesus provides a test by which false teachers can be identified. The Gnostic heresy, against which John wrote in 1 and 2 John, included a denial of the physical body of Christ. People who deny the physical reality of Jesus are not Christians, but antichrists.

8 Look to yourselves. Being seduced by false teachers is one way that Christians can lose their reward at the judgment. With this in mind, John writes that the reason to guard against deceivers is our own desire not to lose our reward at the judgment seat of Christ.

9 transgresses. This phrase has the strong sense of running too far ahead. Departure from Christ into doctrinal error indicates that a person does not have God.

not have God. He who abides in the doctrine of Christ has both the Father and the Son. <sup>10</sup>If anyone comes to you and <sup>m</sup>does not bring this doctrine, do not receive him into your house nor greet him; <sup>11</sup>for he who greets him shares in his evil deeds.

John's Farewell Greeting

<sup>12n</sup>Having many things to write to you, I did not wish to do so with paper and ink; but I hope to come to you and speak face to face, <sup>o</sup>that our joy may be full.

10 *this doctrine. Jesus is completely human and completely divine. A Christian should not only refuse to receive false teachers in the sense of supporting them while they visit the community, a Christian should also avoid appearing to endorse their teachings. The proper response to deceivers is to reject them as unbelievers. This shows how seriously we should take the Scriptures and how careful we should be in evaluating the teachings of everyone.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN

► AUTHOR: Much like 2 John, this letter had a very limited circulation in the early church, but was accepted as authoritative on account of its apostolic authorship. Its style and vocabulary strongly resemble that of John's Gospel and other epistles.

► TIME: c. A.D. 90–95    ► KEY VERSE: 3 John 11

► THEME: Third John has two main purposes. The first is to commend Gaius for being hospitable to itinerant missionaries. The second is to advise Gaius about Diotrephes, a man in the church who refuses to help the same kind of missionaries and who even gossips about them.

Greeting to Gaius

The Elder,

To the beloved Gaius, <sup>a</sup>whom I love in truth:

<sup>2</sup>Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers. <sup>3</sup>For I <sup>b</sup>rejoiced greatly when brethren came and testified of the truth that is in you, just as you walk in the truth. <sup>4</sup>I have no greater <sup>c</sup>joy than to hear that <sup>d</sup>my children walk in truth.*

Gaius Commended for Generosity

Diotrephes and Demetrius

<sup>9</sup>I wrote to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to have the preeminence among them, does not receive us. <sup>10</sup>Therefore, if I come, I will call to mind his deeds which he does, <sup>g</sup>prating against us with malicious words. And not content with that, he himself does not receive the brethren, and forbids those who wish to, putting them out of the church.

<sup>11</sup>Beloved, <sup>h</sup>do not imitate what is evil, but what is good. <sup>i</sup>He who does good is of God, but* he who does evil has not seen <sup>j</sup>God.

<sup>12</sup>Demetrius <sup>k</sup>has a good testimony from all, and from the truth itself. And we also bear witness, <sup>l</sup>and you know that our testimony is true.

Farewell Greeting

<sup>13m</sup>I had many things to write, but I do not wish to write to you with pen and ink; <sup>14</sup>but I hope to see you shortly, and we shall speak face to face.

Peace to you. Our friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

2 may prosper . . . and be in health. John's greeting may imply that Gaius was physically weak though spiritually strong. More probably John is simply following the pattern of greetings common to Greek letters.

4 my children. This is a description Paul uses of those he has led to saving faith in Christ (1 Cor. 4:14–17) and may indicate that Gaius was one of John's converts. It may also be a term John uses to describe those under his pastoral care as reflected in 1 John 2:1,12,18; 3:7,18; 4:4; 5:21.

5–12 you do faithfully. In these verses, John affirms Gaius' responsibility to assist Demetrius despite the opposition of Diotrephes and his expulsion of those who receive traveling missionaries.

7 Gentiles. In this case the term refers to unbelievers, not to Gentile Christians. The majority of Christians in the churches of Asia Minor were Gentile converts rather than Jewish.

11 has not seen God. Our sin is a result of a faulty vision of God. Therefore, the Scriptures encourage us to look at Christ (2 Cor. 3:18; 4:16–18; Heb. 12:2–3), for the day when we see Him perfectly will be the day that we will be like Him (1 John 3:2–3).

12 from the truth itself. Demetrius' life measured up to the teaching of Scripture and Christ's commands. His conduct matched his theology.

THE EPISTLE OF JUDE

► AUTHOR: In spite of its limited subject matter and size, Jude was accepted as authentic and quoted by early church fathers. It is unlikely that the author is the apostle Jude (Luke 6:16), but rather Jude the brother of Jesus and James (called Judas in Matthew 13:55 and Mark 6:3). Because of the silence of the New Testament and tradition concerning Jude's later years, we cannot know where or when this epistle was written.

► TIME: c. A.D. 66–80    ► KEY VERSE: Jude 3

► THEME: Jude's letter is hard-hitting, short, and right to the point. False teachers are on the loose in the church and Jude wants to make sure his readers understand the destructive implications of their teaching. He urges Christians to resist these false teachers and to defend the faith and the body of truth received from the apostles that they have come to know and believe. He finishes by reminding them of the hope they have in knowing Christ is coming again.

Greeting to the Called

Jude, a bondservant of Jesus Christ, and<sup>a</sup>brother of James,

To those who are<sup>b</sup>called, sanctified* by God the Father, and<sup>c</sup>preserved in Jesus Christ:

<sup>2</sup>Mercy, <sup>d</sup>peace, and love be multiplied to you.

Contend for the Faith

<sup>3</sup>Beloved, while I was very diligent to write to you<sup>e</sup>concerning our common salvation, I found it necessary to write to you exhorting/you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints. <sup>4</sup>For certain men have crept in unnoticed, who long ago were marked out for this condemnation, ungodly men, who turn the grace of our God into lewdness and deny the only Lord God* and our Lord Jesus Christ.

Old and New Apostates

<sup>5</sup>But I want to remind you, though you once knew this, that<sup>f</sup>the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. <sup>6</sup>And the angels who did not keep their proper domain, but left their own abode, He has reserved in everlasting chains under darkness for the judgment of the great day; <sup>7</sup>as<sup>h</sup>Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them in a similar manner to these, having given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

2 peace. This is the state of a person who rests in God completely for salvation and protection.

3 common salvation. Jude intended to write a more general doctrinal letter, but the present crisis demanded this short, pointed attack on doctrinal error.

4 turn the grace of our God into lewdness. The teaching of grace can be dangerous when perverted by false teachers or carnal people who believe that because they have been saved by grace they may live as they please (Rom. 6:1–2).

5 destroyed those who did not believe. The Israelites of the Exodus had a magnificent beginning in Egypt but a disastrous ending in the wilderness. That we have begun with the Lord does not mean that we will have the glorious conclusion we might have envisioned at the beginning of our salvation journey.

The false believers who had infiltrated God's people would be judged, just like the false believers who rejected God in the wilderness (Num. 25:1–9).

6 angels. These are not holy angels of God. Instead these angels could be those who had previously fallen with Satan. Some think that these angels are "the sons of God" of Genesis 6:2, who took on human form and married women before the flood.

8 reject authority. The false teachers even despised those who were placed in positions of authority in local congregations. They not only preferred error to truth but also demeaned and rejected those who taught the truth.

of dignitaries. <sup>9</sup>Yet Michael the archangel, in contending with the devil, when he disputed about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him a reviling accusation, but said, <sup>10</sup>“The Lord rebuke you!” <sup>10</sup>But these speak evil of whatever they do not know; and whatever they know naturally, like brute beasts, in these things they corrupt themselves. <sup>11</sup>Woe to them! For they have gone in the way <sup>m</sup>of Cain, <sup>n</sup>have run greedily in the error of Balaam for profit, and perished <sup>q</sup>in the rebellion of Korah.

Apostates Depraved and Doomed

<sup>14</sup>Now Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied about these men also, saying, “Behold, the Lord comes with ten thousands of His saints, <sup>15</sup>to execute judgment on all, to convict all who are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have committed in an ungodly way, and of all the <sup>s</sup>harsh things which ungodly sinners have spoken against Him.”

Apostates Predicted

<sup>16</sup>These are grumblers, complainers, walking according to their own lusts; and they <sup>t</sup>mouth great swelling words, <sup>u</sup>flattering people to gain advantage. <sup>17</sup>But you, beloved, remember the words which were spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ: <sup>18</sup>how they told you that <sup>v</sup>there would be mockers in the last time who would walk according to their own ungodly lusts. <sup>19</sup>These are sensual persons, who cause divisions, not having the Spirit.

Maintain Your Life with God

<sup>22</sup>And on some have compassion, making a distinction;* <sup>23</sup>but <sup>z</sup>others save with fear, <sup>aa</sup>pulling them out of the fire* <sup>ab</sup>hating even <sup>ac</sup>the garment defiled by the flesh.

Glory to God

- <sup>24</sup> <sup>ad</sup>Now to Him who is able to keep you* from stumbling,
And <sup>ae</sup>to present you faultless
Before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy, <sup>25</sup> To God our Savior,*
Who alone is wise,*
Be glory and majesty,
Dominion and power,*
Both now and forever.
Amen.

9 disputed about the body of Moses. Jude’s description here is probably taken from an apocryphal book called The Assumption of Moses, written in the first century A.D. There is no record in the Bible itself of the archangel’s encounter with Satan, or a detailed account of Moses’ body.

11 they have gone in the way of Cain. The heretics are compared to three Old Testament failures. Cain did not place his faith in the Lord. The “way of Cain” is the way of pride and self-righteousness (Gen. 4:3–8; Heb. 11:4; 1 John 3:12). Balaam. He was the epitome of the sin of greed (Num. 31:16). Korah. This was the Levite Korah (Num. 16:1–3, 31–35) who resented the prominent positions of Moses and Aaron as God’s representatives. The Lord brought judgment on him and his followers for rebelling against those He had placed in authority.

13 raging waves . . . foaming . . . wandering stars. These godless people put on a great show but lacked any substance. They boasted of liberty but placed the people of God in bondage to sin (2 Pet. 2:19). After they had done their evil deeds and made their profits, they, like wandering stars, moved on to other places to exploit God’s people again.

15 ungodly. This word is repeated four times, making the verse one of the most striking in the letter. In view of the wicked nature of evil persons, how could the church allow them to stay in their midst?

18 there would be mockers. One of the main tactics that the false teachers used to gain credibility was to tear down godly leaders.

22–23 some have compassion. We have certain obligations to other believers. First, we need to show compassion to those in any kind of spiritual or physical need. Second, we need to use discernment in helping our brothers and sisters in the church. Some will require tender care and patience to help them grow in Christ. With others we may need to use drastic action to rescue them from the temptations of sin. hating even the garment defiled by the flesh. This is a metaphor for staying wary of sin—as Paul says, “considering yourself lest you also be tempted” (Gal. 6:1).

24 faultless. This is a Greek word used of sacrificial animals that had no blemish and thus were fit to be offered to God. Only God can save us, cleanse us from our sins, and present us to Himself as faultless, for God is the Author and Finisher of our faith (Heb. 12:2).

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST

► AUTHOR: The style, symmetry, and plan of Revelation show that it was written by one author, four times named “John” (Rev. 1:1,4,9; 22:8). Because of its contents and its address to seven churches, Revelation quickly circulated and became widely known and accepted in the early church. From the beginning, Revelation was considered an authentic work of the apostle John, the same John who wrote the Gospel and Epistles. Revelation was written at a time when Roman hostility to Christianity was erupting into overt persecution. It is likely that John wrote this book in A.D. 95 or 96 when the severe persecution of Christians began under the emperor Domitian.

► TIME: c. A.D. 95–96    ► KEY VERSES: Rev. 19:11–15

► THEME: John wrote this book late in his life while in exile on the island of Patmos off the coast of Asia. It is safe to say that no book of the Bible has generated more theories of interpretation over the last two millennia. In this context probably one of the best approaches to interpreting and understanding Revelation is to concentrate on the major themes such as worship. When the reader does that, one finds great comfort and assurance in the book. Many scholars think the purpose of the book is to provide comfort in the midst of persecution and difficult times, as the form of the book is in the tradition of Jewish apocalyptic literature that is designed to communicate hope through symbolic imagery.

Introduction and Benediction

1 The Revelation of Jesus Christ, <sup>a</sup>which God gave Him to show His servants—things which must shortly take place. And <sup>b</sup>He sent and signified it by His angel to His servant John, <sup>2c</sup>who bore witness to the word of God, and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, to all things <sup>d</sup>that he saw. <sup>3e</sup>Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written in it; for <sup>f</sup>the time is near.

Greeting the Seven Churches

Grace to you and peace from Him <sup>g</sup>who is and <sup>h</sup>who was and who is to come, <sup>i</sup>and from the seven Spirits who are before His throne, <sup>5</sup>and from Jesus Christ, <sup>j</sup>the faithful <sup>k</sup>witness, the <sup>l</sup>firstborn from the dead, and <sup>m</sup>the ruler over the kings of the earth.

To Him <sup>n</sup>who loved us <sup>o</sup>and washed* us from our sins in His own blood, <sup>6</sup>and has <sup>p</sup>made us kings* and priests to His God and Father, <sup>q</sup>to Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

* 1:5 NU-Text reads loves us and freed; M-Text reads loves us and washed. * 1:6 NU-Text and M-Text read a kingdom.

1:1 Revelation. The word “revelation,” which means “unveiling,” or “disclosure,” indicates that this book is a type of literature known as apocalyptic literature, or literature which reveals hidden things. of Jesus Christ. This revelation is both from Jesus Christ and about Him. John. John is the human writer, and Jesus is the divine Author.

1:3 Blessed. The word “blessed” means “spiritually happy.” Even though some of the words of this book speak of terrifying and solemn times, it is a blessing to know how thoroughly the Lord holds all time and all times in His hands. Those who take time to read and try to understand this book will find themselves blessed by the hope of heaven and by the nearness of our Lord and Savior.

1:4 the seven churches. The seven churches are in the Roman province of Asia, which today is southwestern Turkey. Their names are given in order going clockwise from the southwest.

1:5 firstborn from the dead. This phrase refers to the resurrection of Christ, the first to come back from the dead. This is the basis of the hope of resurrection held by Christians (1 Cor. 15:20–24).

1:7 coming with clouds . . . every eye. “Coming with clouds” recalls Daniel’s vision of the Son of Man (Dan.

8“I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End,” says the Lord,<sup>a</sup> “who is and who was and who is to come, the <sup>a</sup>Almighty.”

Vision of the Son of Man

9I, John, both<sup>a</sup> your brother and <sup>w</sup>companion in the tribulation and <sup>x</sup>kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was on the island that is called Patmos for the word of God and for the testimony of Jesus Christ. 10I was in the Spirit on <sup>z</sup>the Lord’s Day, and I heard behind me <sup>a</sup>a loud voice, as of a trumpet, 11saying, “I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last,” and <sup>a</sup>“What you see, write in a book and send it to the seven churches which are in Asia:<sup>a</sup> to Ephesus, to Smyrna, to Pergamos, to Thyatira, to Sardis, to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea.”

12Then I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. And having turned <sup>b</sup>I saw seven golden lampstands, 13and in the midst of the seven lampstands <sup>a</sup>One like the Son of Man, <sup>c</sup>clothed with a garment down to the feet and <sup>d</sup>girded about the chest with a golden band. 14His head and <sup>e</sup>hair were white like wool, as white as snow, and <sup>f</sup>His eyes like a flame of fire; 15His feet were like fine brass, as if refined in a furnace, and <sup>f</sup>His voice as the sound of many waters; 16He had in His right hand seven stars, <sup>g</sup>out of His mouth went a sharp two-edged sword, <sup>h</sup>and His countenance was like the sun shining in its strength. 17And <sup>h</sup>“when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead. But <sup>h</sup>He laid His right hand on me, saying to me,<sup>a</sup> “Do not be afraid; <sup>i</sup>I am the First and the Last. 18<sup>i</sup>I am He who lives, and was dead, and behold, <sup>i</sup>I am alive forevermore. Amen. And <sup>i</sup>I have the keys of Hades and of Death. 19Write<sup>a</sup> the things which you have <sup>j</sup>seen, <sup>k</sup>and the things which are, <sup>k</sup>and the things which will take place after this. 20The mystery of the seven stars which you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: The seven stars are <sup>l</sup>the angels of the seven churches, and <sup>l</sup>the seven lampstands which you saw<sup>a</sup> are the seven churches.

The Loveless Church

2“To the angel of the church of Ephesus write, <sup>a</sup>These things says <sup>a</sup>He who holds the seven stars in His right hand, <sup>b</sup>who walks in the midst of the seven golden lampstands: 2“I know your works, your labor, your patience, and that you cannot bear those who are evil. And <sup>c</sup>you have tested those <sup>c</sup>who say they are apostles and are not, and have found them liars; <sup>d</sup>and you have persevered and have patience, and have labored for My name’s sake and have <sup>e</sup>not become weary. <sup>e</sup>Nevertheless I have <sup>f</sup>this against you, that you have left your first love. 5Remember therefore from 7:13; Matt. 24:30) and the ascension of Christ (Acts 1:11). “Every eye” indicates that Christ will be universally visible at His second coming.

1:8 the Alpha and the Omega. The Lord’s description of Himself as the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet means that He is the beginning and the end of all creation.

1:9 tribulation. The apostle Paul said there would be many tribulations (Acts 14:22), and John identifies both the suffering of others and his own exile on Patmos as part of the “troubles.” The great tribulation is the time when the wrath of God is poured out on the earth (Mark 13:14–23); that time is explained in greater detail in this book.

1:12 seven golden lampstands. The seven lampstands represent the seven churches.

1:13 One like the Son of Man. The term “Son of Man” echoes Daniel 7:13. Comparisons of these two passages, along with Jesus’ common use of the name “Son of Man” for Himself, indicate that Christ is the subject of verses 12–18.

1:14 white. The white appearance is parallel to the description of the “Ancient of Days” in Daniel 7:9, and of Christ on the Mount of Transfiguration (Matt. 17:2). The similarity of descriptions demonstrates the purity and eternity of both God the Father and God the Son. Overcoming believers will also be “clothed in white garments” (3:5; 19:8) in Christ’s presence, symbolizing purity.

1:16 sharp two-edged sword. The sword coming out of Christ’s mouth is symbolic of the judging power of the Word of God (Is. 49:2; Heb. 4:12).

1:18 keys of Hades and of Death. Christ has authority over those who have died physically and over their present resting place, which will be emptied and destroyed at the time of the great white throne judgment (20:11–15). Hades is the place where the dead rest.

1:20 angels. Angels are created spirit beings who minister to believers (Heb. 1:14).

2:1 Ephesus. Ephesus was the most important city in Asia Minor when Revelation was written. It was the center of the worship of Artemis (or Diana; Acts 19:28), a goddess of fertility. It was a strategic commercial center and a great seaport.

2:5 Remember. A generation earlier the same church was commended for love (Eph. 1:15; 6:24).

where you have fallen; repent and do the first works, <sup>5</sup>or else I will come to you quickly and remove your lampstand from its place—unless you repent. <sup>6</sup>But this you have, that you hate the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

<sup>7</sup>“He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give <sup>7</sup>to eat from <sup>7</sup>the tree of life, which is in the midst of the Paradise of God.”

The Persecuted Church

<sup>8</sup>“And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write,

“These things says <sup>8</sup>the First and the Last, who was dead, and came to life: <sup>9</sup>“I know your works, tribulation, and poverty (but you are <sup>9</sup>rich); and I know the blasphemy of <sup>9</sup>those who say they are Jews and are not, <sup>9</sup>but are a synagogue of Satan. <sup>10</sup>“Do not fear any of those things which you are about to suffer. Indeed, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and you will have tribulation ten days. <sup>11</sup>“Be faithful until death, and I will give you <sup>11</sup>the crown of life.

<sup>11</sup>“He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes shall not be hurt by <sup>11</sup>the second death.”

The Compromising Church

<sup>12</sup>“And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write,

“These things says <sup>12</sup>He who has the sharp two-edged sword: <sup>13</sup>“I know your works, and where you dwell, where Satan’s throne is. And you hold fast to My name, and did not deny My faith even in the days in which Antipas was My faithful martyr, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells. <sup>14</sup>But I have a few things against you, because you have there those who hold the doctrine of <sup>14</sup>Balaam, who taught Balak to put a stumbling block before the children of Israel, <sup>14</sup>“to eat things sacrificed to idols,” and to commit sexual immorality. <sup>15</sup>Thus you also have those who hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.* <sup>16</sup>Repent, or else I will come to you quickly and <sup>16</sup>will fight against them with the sword of My mouth.

<sup>17</sup>“He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give some of the hidden <sup>17</sup>manna to eat. And I will give him a white stone, and on the stone <sup>17</sup>a new name written which no one knows except him who receives it.”

The Corrupt Church

<sup>18</sup>“And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write,

“These things says the Son of God, <sup>18</sup>“who has eyes like a flame of fire, and His feet like fine brass: <sup>19</sup>“I know your works, love, service, faith,* and your patience; and as for your works, the last are more than the first. <sup>20</sup>Nevertheless I have a few things against you, because you allow* that woman* <sup>20</sup>Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, to teach and seduce* My servants <sup>20</sup>“to commit sexual immorality and eat things

* 2:15 NU-Text and M-Text read likewise for which thing I hate. * 2:19 NU-Text and M-Text read faith, service. * 2:20 NU-Text and M-Text read I have against you that you tolerate. • M-Text reads your wife Jezebel. • NU-Text and M-Text read and teaches and seduces.

2:6 Nicolaitans. The Nicolaitans were a heretical group that troubled the churches at Ephesus and Pergamos (v. 15). Apparently their teaching and practice were immoral, perhaps even idolatrous (v. 14).

2:7 Paradise. Jesus told the believing thief on the cross that he would be with Jesus in paradise (Luke 23:42). Paul uses the term interchangeably with “the third heaven” (2 Cor. 12:2,4).

2:8 Smyrna. Smyrna was an important seaport 35 miles north of Ephesus. The presence of a Roman imperial cult and a large Jewish population made life difficult for believers in Smyrna. However, the churches of Smyrna and Philadelphia are the only two of the seven not rebuked by Christ in some way.

2:10 crown of life. The Greek crown or garland of green leaves was given to winners in athletic events. James 1:12 also promises the crown of life to believers who persevere under trial.

2:11 second death. The second death refers to the experience of eternal death in the lake of fire (20:14–15). No believer will suffer the second death.

2:12 Pergamos. Pergamos was the ancient capital of the province of Asia. It was said to be the place where parchment was first used. Pergamos means “citadel” in Greek. It was located 50 miles north of Smyrna and was situated on a high hill dominating the valley below. two-edged sword. The two-edged sword is the powerful word of the Lord (1:16; Heb. 4:12).

2:13 Satan’s throne. This implies that Satan’s authority and power were honored either openly or in effect. Antipas. Antipas (not Herod Antipas) had already suffered martyrdom, thus receiving the promised “crown of life.”

2:14 doctrine of Balaam. The background for this teaching is in the Old Testament (Num. 22:1—25:31). Balak hired Balaam to turn the hearts of Israel away from the Lord. Apparently seduction similar to that which Balaam instigated was taking place at the church at Pergamos, especially in relation to idols and sexual immorality (Acts 15:20).

2:18 Thyatira. Thyatira was a city with a large military detachment about 30 miles southeast of Pergamos. Recognized for its wool and dye industries, the sacrificed to idols. <sup>21</sup>And I gave her time <sup>e</sup>to repent of her sexual immorality, and she did not repent. <sup>22</sup>Indeed I will cast her into a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of their *deeds. <sup>23</sup>I will kill her children with death, and all the churches shall know that I am He who <sup>s</sup>searches the minds and hearts. And I will give to each one of you according to your works.

as I also have received from My Father; <sup>28</sup>and I will give him <sup>m</sup>the morning star.

<sup>29</sup>“He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.”

The Dead Church

3 “And to the angel of the church in Sardis write,

“These things says He who <sup>a</sup>has the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars: “I know your works, that you have a name that you are alive, but you are dead. <sup>2</sup>Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die, for I have not found your works perfect before God.* <sup>3b</sup>Remember therefore how you have received and heard; hold fast and <sup>c</sup>repent. <sup>4</sup>Therefore if you will not watch, I will come upon you <sup>e</sup>as a thief, and you will not know what hour I will come upon you. <sup>4</sup>You* have <sup>f</sup>a few names even in Sardis who have not <sup>d</sup>defiled their garments; and they shall walk with Me <sup>h</sup>in white, for they are worthy. <sup>5</sup>He who overcomes <sup>s</sup>shall be clothed in white garments, and I will not <sup>b</sup>blot out his name from the <sup>k</sup>Book of Life; but <sup>l</sup>I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels.

<sup>6m</sup>“He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.”

The Faithful Church

<sup>7</sup>“And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write,

“These things says <sup>h</sup>He who is holy, <sup>o</sup>He who is true, <sup>p</sup>“He who has the key of David, <sup>q</sup>He who opens and no one shuts, and <sup>r</sup>shuts and no one opens” *: <sup>8s</sup>“I know your works. See, I have set before you <sup>u</sup>an open door, and no one can shut it;* for you have a little strength, have kept My word, and have not denied My name. <sup>9</sup>Indeed I will make <sup>t</sup>those of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews and are not, but lie—indeed <sup>v</sup>I will make them come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you. <sup>10</sup>Because you have kept My command to persevere, <sup>w</sup>I also will keep you from the hour of trial which shall city was also noted for its trade guilds. eyes like a flame . . . feet like fine brass. This is essentially the same wording as Daniel 10:6.

2:24 depths of Satan. The deep things may be secrets known by those initiated into the things of the devil. When the apostle Paul addressed the subject of walking in the Light (the revelation of Christ), he not only said not to participate in the unfruitful deeds of darkness, but he went on to say that it is disgraceful even to speak of those things done in secret (Eph. 5:11–12).

2:28 the morning star. The morning star is Christ Himself in 22:16. For the believer, Christ’s presence is the light in the dark and difficult times. The morning star (the planet Venus, which can be seen in the sky just before sunrise) is the harbinger of day; it is easy to see how the return of Christ could be paralleled with the morning star. When Satan is referred to as the morning star, that is thought to be a description of what Satan was like before he rebelled (Is. 14:12).

3:1 Sardis. Sardis, located 30 miles southeast of Thyatira, had been the capital of Lydia. The worship of the Roman Caesar and Artemis, goddess of fertility, were active here.

3:3 as a thief. Christ’s warning that He will come as unexpectedly as a thief echoes His repeated emphasis in Matthew 24:36—25:13 (see also 16:15).

3:5 Book of Life. The Book of Life is the list of the redeemed (20:11–15; Ex. 32:32–33).

3:7 Philadelphia. Philadelphia, which means “brotherly love” in Greek, was a small city located about 40 miles southeast of Sardis. Its location, vineyards, and wine production made it wealthy and commercially important. key of David. This key represents the authority of the One who opens and shuts the door in the Davidic kingdom (Is. 22:22), a prerogative that is Christ’s as the rightful “son of David” (Matt. 1:1).

3:8 an open door, and no one can shut it. The door, in this context, seems to be entrance into heaven and “the New Jerusalem” (v. 12; chs. 21–22).

3:10 keep you from the hour of trial. Christ’s promise to keep the believers from the hour of trial is often considered a promise that He will remove them before the period of unparalleled tribulation

<sup>22w</sup>“He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.””

The Throne Room of Heaven

4 After these things I looked, and behold, a door <sup>standing</sup> <sup>o</sup>open in heaven. And the first voice which I heard was like a <sup>b</sup>trumpet speaking with me, saying, “Come up here, and I will show you things which must take place after this.”

(1 Thess. 4:16–18). Others believe that this means that believers will not be removed, but will be protected during the trial. The “hour of trial” is another way of referring to the unparalleled judgment of the “great tribulation” (7:14) predicted in Daniel 12:1 and Matthew 24:21.

3:14 Laodiceans. Laodicea was 45 miles southeast of Philadelphia and 90 miles east of Ephesus. It was a wealthy city with thriving banks, a textile industry, and a medical school. The city was also known for its sparse water supply. All of these characteristics are played upon in Christ’s message to the church.

4:4 clothed in white . . . crowns. The white robes point to those who are confirmed in righteousness. The crowns are for those who possess ruling authority, and possibly also indicate that the elders have already been judged and rewarded.

4:6 four living creatures. These creatures are remarkably similar to the cherubim (angels) that Ezekiel saw close to God’s throne (Ezek. 1:4–10).

4:7 lion . . . calf . . . man . . . eagle. This description recalls the four cherubim in Ezekiel 1:4–10.

The Lamb Takes the Scroll

5 And I saw in the right hand of Him who sat on the throne <sup>a</sup>a scroll written inside and on the back, <sup>b</sup>sealed with seven seals. <sup>2</sup>Then I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the scroll and to loose its seals?” <sup>3</sup>And no one in heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll, or to look at it.

<sup>4</sup>So I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open and read* the scroll, or to look at it. <sup>5</sup>But one of the elders said to me, “Do not weep. Behold, <sup>d</sup>the Lion of the tribe of <sup>e</sup>Judah, <sup>f</sup>the Root of David, has <sup>g</sup>prevailed to open the scroll <sup>h</sup>and to loose* its seven seals.”

<sup>6</sup>And I looked, and behold,* in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, stood <sup>i</sup>a Lamb as though it had been slain, having seven horns and <sup>j</sup>seven eyes, which are <sup>k</sup>the seven Spirits of God sent out into all the earth. <sup>7</sup>Then He came and took the scroll out of the right hand <sup>l</sup>of Him who sat on the throne.

Worthy Is the Lamb

<sup>8</sup>Now when He had taken the scroll, <sup>m</sup>the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the <sup>n</sup>prayers of the saints. <sup>9</sup>And <sup>o</sup>they sang a new song, saying:

- <sup>p</sup> “You are worthy to take the scroll,
And to open its seals;
For You were slain,
And <sup>q</sup>have redeemed us to God <sup>r</sup>by Your blood

Out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation,

- <sup>10</sup> And have made us* <sup>s</sup>“kings* and <sup>t</sup>“priests to our God;
And we* shall reign on the earth.”

<sup>11</sup>Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne, the living creatures, and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands, <sup>12</sup>saying with a loud voice:

- “Worthy is the Lamb who was slain
To receive power and riches and wisdom,
And strength and honor and glory and blessing!”

<sup>13</sup>And <sup>u</sup>every creature which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, I heard saying:

- <sup>v</sup> “Blessing and honor and glory and power
Be to Him <sup>w</sup>who sits on the throne,
And to the Lamb, forever and ever!”*

<sup>14</sup>Then the four living creatures said, “Amen!” And the twenty-four* elders fell down and worshiped Him who lives forever and ever.*

First Seal: The Conqueror

6 Now <sup>a</sup>I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals;* and I heard <sup>b</sup>one of the four living creatures saying with a voice like thunder, “Come and see.” <sup>2</sup>And I looked, and behold, <sup>c</sup>a white horse. <sup>d</sup>He who sat on it had a bow; <sup>e</sup>and a crown was

4:10 cast their crowns before the throne. This act symbolizes the willing surrender of their authority in light of the worthiness of God as Creator. Because no one but God can create, He alone should be worshipped and recognized as sovereign.

5:1 a scroll. The scroll apparently contains the judgments and redemption seen in later chapters. It may also be the book that was sealed in Daniel 12:4. There appears to be an allusion to the scroll the Lord handed Ezekiel (Ezek. 2:9–10), sealed with seven seals. A scroll cannot be unrolled until the seals have all been opened.

5:5 Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David. Both of these titles are messianic titles (Gen. 49:8–10, Is. 11:1,10).

5:7 took the scroll. The Lamb taking the scroll from the Father demonstrates that judgment and authority over the earth is committed to the Son (Dan. 7:13–14). The scroll may be the same one that was sealed in Daniel 12:9.

6:2 white horse . . . conquering. Because the first rider is on a white horse and is conquering, some take it to be Christ (19:11). If so, His full conquest is considerably delayed (19:11—20:6). Another view is given to him, and he went out to conquering and to conquer.

Second Seal: Conflict on Earth

<sup>3</sup>When He opened the second seal, <sup>g</sup>I heard the second living creature saying, “Come and see.” <sup>4h</sup>Another horse, fiery red, went out. And it was granted to the one who sat on it to take peace from the earth, and that people should kill one another; and there was given to him a great sword.

Third Seal: Scarcity on Earth

<sup>5</sup>When He opened the third seal, <sup>i</sup>I heard the third living creature say, “Come and see.” So I looked, and behold, <sup>ka</sup>a black horse, and he who sat on it had a pair of scales in his hand. <sup>6</sup>And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, “A quart* of wheat for a denarius,* and three quarts of barley for a denarius; and <sup>m</sup>do not harm the oil and the wine.”

Fourth Seal: Widespread Death on Earth

<sup>7</sup>When He opened the fourth seal, <sup>n</sup>I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, “Come and see.” <sup>8o</sup>So I looked, and behold, a pale horse. And the name of him who sat on it was Death, and Hades followed with him. And power was given to them over a fourth of the earth, <sup>p</sup>to kill with sword, with hunger, with death, <sup>q</sup>and by the beasts of the earth.

Fifth Seal: The Cry of the Martyrs

to them <sup>z</sup>that they should rest a little while longer, until both the number of their fellow servants and their brethren, who would be killed as they were, was completed.

Sixth Seal: Cosmic Disturbances

<sup>12</sup>I looked when He opened the sixth seal, <sup>a</sup>and behold,* there was a great earthquake; and <sup>b</sup>the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon* became like blood. <sup>13c</sup>And the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as a fig tree drops its late figs when it is shaken by a mighty wind. <sup>14d</sup>Then the sky receded as a scroll when it is rolled up, and <sup>e</sup>every mountain and island was moved out of its place. <sup>15</sup>And the <sup>f</sup>kings of the earth, the great men, the rich men, the commanders,* the mighty men, every slave and every free man, <sup>g</sup>hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains, <sup>16h</sup>and said to the mountains and rocks, “Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who <sup>i</sup>sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb!” <sup>17</sup>For the great day of His wrath has come, <sup>j</sup>and who is able to stand?”

The Sealed of Israel

7 After these things I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, <sup>a</sup>holding the four winds of the earth, <sup>b</sup>that the wind should not blow on the earth, on the sea, or on any tree. <sup>2</sup>Then I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God. And he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea, <sup>3</sup>saying, <sup>c</sup>“Do not harm the earth, the sea, or the trees till we have sealed the servants of our God <sup>d</sup>on their foreheads.”

that this is a spirit of conquest and delusion (Matt. 23:3–6). The bow suggests that the rider is a warrior. The crown suggests that he is a ruler.

6:8 pale. The color of the pale horse is the color of a corpse. It is fitting that this pale horse is ridden by a figure named “Death.” This fourth judgment is the inevitable consequence of the first three. sword... hunger... death. These plagues are the same means that God used to bring the nation of Israel to repentance (1 Kin. 8:33–39; 1 Chr. 21:12), and in Revelation a godly nucleus does arise as a result of these judgments (7:3–8).

6:9 under the altar. Sacrificial blood was poured beside the base of the altar in the temple (Ex. 29:12).

6:12–13 sun . . . moon . . . stars. The effects of the great earthquake on the sun, moon, and stars are worded similarly to Matthew 24:29, placing these events in proximity to the coming of the Son of Man (Matt. 24:30).

6:14 receded . . . rolled up. When the sky is rolled back, the people on earth can see “Him who sits on the throne” (v. 16). They will suddenly see that God is not far away or nonexistent and they will have to be accountable to Him.

6:17 who is able to stand. This rhetorical question is answered in the surrounding context. The unbelievers, no matter how strong, cannot stand. Those who are protected by the Lord are enabled to stand, whether on earth (7:1–8) or in God’s presence in heaven (7:9–17).

7:3 sealed. The seal was a mark of ownership or authority. In ancient times a seal was fixed to a document by pressing a carved stamp or signet into a

A Multitude from the Great Tribulation

<sup>9</sup>After these things I looked, and behold, <sup>h</sup>a great multitude which no one could number, <sup>i</sup>of all nations, tribes, peoples, and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, <sup>j</sup>clothed with white robes, with palm branches in their hands, <sup>10</sup>and crying out with a loud voice, saying, <sup>k</sup>“Salvation belongs to our God <sup>l</sup>who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!” <sup>11m</sup>All the angels stood around the throne and the elders and the four living creatures, and fell on their faces before the throne and <sup>n</sup>worshiped God, <sup>12o</sup>saying:

“Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom,

Thanksgiving and honor and power and might,
Be to our God forever and ever.
Amen.”

<sup>13</sup>Then one of the elders answered, saying to me, “Who are these arrayed in <sup>p</sup>white robes, and where did they come from?”

So he said to me, <sup>q</sup>“These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and <sup>r</sup>washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. <sup>15</sup>Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple. And He who sits on the throne will <sup>s</sup>dwell among them. <sup>16r</sup>They shall neither hunger anymore nor thirst anymore; <sup>u</sup>the sun shall not strike them, nor any heat; <sup>17</sup>for the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne <sup>v</sup>will shepherd them and lead them to living fountains of waters.* <sup>w</sup>And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Seventh Seal: Prelude to the Seven Trumpets

8 When<sup>a</sup> He opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. <sup>2b</sup>And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, <sup>c</sup>and to them were given seven trumpets. <sup>3</sup>Then another angel, having a golden censer, came and stood at the altar. He was given much incense, that he should offer it with <sup>d</sup>the prayers of all the saints upon <sup>e</sup>the golden altar which was before the throne. <sup>4</sup>And <sup>f</sup>the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, ascended before God from the angel's hand. <sup>5</sup>Then the angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it to the earth. And <sup>g</sup>there were lump of clay or wax at the point where the document was opened and closed.

7:4 One hundred and forty-four thousand. Those sealed are all the children of Israel, fulfilling the promise that when the “fullness of the Gentiles has come in” all Israel will be saved (Rom. 11:25–27).

7:5–8 Judah. Judah is placed first in this list of the Israelite tribes because Christ, the Messiah, is the “Lion of the tribe of Judah” (5:5; Gen. 49:8–10). Reuben. Reuben is next as Jacob's firstborn (Gen. 49:3–4). Dan and Ephraim are omitted, perhaps because of their gross idolatry during the period of the judges, demonstrated by the incident in the territory of Dan (Judg. 18). Joseph. Joseph and his son Manasseh are both included, bringing the number of tribes to twelve.

7:14 great tribulation. This vast multitude has come out of the great tribulation, referring to “the hour of trial which shall come upon the whole world” (3:10).

In view of the great loss of life during this time period, martyrdom is most likely the means of their escape. Tribulation was already being experienced by the church in John's day (2:10; Acts 14:22). However, the great tribulation, predicted in Daniel 12:1, will be of an intensity “such as has not been since the beginning of the world until this time, no, nor ever shall be” (Matt. 24:21).

8:1 seventh seal. When the seventh seal is broken, the book can finally be opened.

First Trumpet: Vegetation Struck

<sup>7</sup>The first angel sounded: <sup>i</sup>And hail and fire followed, mingled with blood, and they were thrown <sup>k</sup>to the earth.* And a third <sup>l</sup>of the trees were burned up, and all green grass was burned up.

Second Trumpet: The Seas Struck

<sup>8</sup>Then the second angel sounded: <sup>m</sup>And something like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea, <sup>n</sup>and a third of the sea <sup>o</sup>became blood. <sup>p</sup>And a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

Third Trumpet: The Waters Struck

<sup>10</sup>Then the third angel sounded: <sup>q</sup>And a great star fell from heaven, burning like a torch, <sup>r</sup>and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. <sup>11s</sup>The name of the star is Wormwood. <sup>t</sup>A third of the waters became wormwood, and many men died from the water, because it was made bitter.

Fourth Trumpet: The Heavens Struck

<sup>12u</sup>Then the fourth angel sounded: And a third of the sun was struck, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of them were darkened. A third of the day did not shine, and likewise the night.

<sup>13</sup>And I looked, <sup>v</sup>and I heard an angel* flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, <sup>w</sup>“Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the remaining blasts of the trumpet of the three angels who are about to sound!”

Fifth Trumpet: The Locusts from the Bottomless Pit

<sup>9</sup>Then the fifth angel sounded: <sup>a</sup>And I saw a star fallen from heaven to the earth. To him was given the key to <sup>b</sup>the bottomless pit. <sup>2</sup>And he opened the bottomless pit, and smoke arose out of the pit like the smoke of a great furnace. So the <sup>c</sup>sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke of the pit. <sup>3</sup>Then out of the smoke locusts came upon the earth. And to them was given power, <sup>d</sup>as the scorpions of the earth have power. <sup>4</sup>They were commanded <sup>e</sup>not to harm <sup>f</sup>the grass of the earth, or any green thing, or any tree, but only those men who do not have <sup>g</sup>the seal of God on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup>And they were not given authority to kill them, <sup>h</sup>but to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it strikes a man. <sup>6</sup>In those days <sup>i</sup>men will seek death and will not find it; they will desire to die, and death will flee from them.

* 8:7 NU-Text and M-Text add and a third of the earth was burned up. * 8:13 NU-Text and M-Text read eagle.

8:7 hail...fire...blood. This blend of destruction and horror sounds like a combination of the first and seventh plagues of God upon Egypt (Ex. 7:19–20; 9:22–25).

8:11 Wormwood. Wormwood is a plant found in the Middle East, known for its bitter taste. Here and elsewhere (Lam. 3:19) the term is figurative for bitterness. Normally wormwood is not poisonous, but the plague of the third trumpet involves effects far more potent than the taste of this bitter plant: many men die from the water.

8:13 Woe, woe, woe. The “woes” refer to the impact of the three remaining trumpet judgments on the unbelieving inhabitants of the earth. The first woe is the fifth trumpet (9:12); the second woe is the sixth trumpet (11:14). The third woe comes quickly and may be the same as the seventh trumpet (11:15–19), although that is not stated. If not, the final woe may be focused on Babylon, the great harlot, because of the climactic use of “woe” in 18:10, 16, and 19.

9:1 star fallen from heaven. The star may be a demon (v. 11), Satan himself (12:9), or an angel serving God (20:1). bottomless pit. The pit is the interim jail for some demons (Luke 8:31). It is also the place of origin of the beast (11:7; 17:8). Furthermore, it will be the place where Satan will be imprisoned during Christ's reign (20:2–3).

9:3 locusts. Locusts, or grasshoppers, were greatly feared in agricultural societies because they devoured crops. In Exodus 10:12–15, a plague of locusts wiped out what was left of Egypt's crops. Joel 1:2 tells of an invasion of locusts that the Lord used to judge unrepentant Judah, which was a foreshadowing of the day of the Lord. scorpions. Scorpions sting with their tails, causing great pain and even death (v. 10).

9:11 angel of the bottomless pit. The angel is demonic and controls the demonic locusts (3:10). If

Sixth Trumpet: The Angels from the Euphrates

<sup>13</sup>Then the sixth angel sounded: And I heard a voice from the four horns of the <sup>a</sup>golden altar which is before God, <sup>14</sup>saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, “Release the four angels who are bound <sup>a</sup>at the great river Euphrates.” <sup>15</sup>So the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were released to kill a <sup>a</sup>third of mankind. <sup>16</sup>Now <sup>a</sup>the number of the army <sup>a</sup>of the horsemen was two hundred million; <sup>v</sup>I heard the number of them. <sup>17</sup>And thus I saw the horses in the vision: those who sat on them had breastplates of fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow; <sup>a</sup>and the heads of the horses were like the heads of lions; and out of their mouths came fire, smoke, and brimstone. <sup>18</sup>By these three plagues a third of mankind was killed—by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone which came out of their mouths. <sup>19</sup>For their power* is in their mouth and in their tails; <sup>x</sup>for their tails are like serpents, having heads; and with them they do harm. <sup>20</sup>But the rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, <sup>v</sup>did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship <sup>z</sup>demons, <sup>a</sup>and idols of gold, silver, brass, stone, and wood, which can neither see nor hear nor walk. <sup>21</sup>And they did not repent of their murders <sup>b</sup>or their sorceries* or their sexual immorality or their thefts.

The Mighty Angel with the Little Book

with a loud voice, as when a lion roars. When he cried out, <sup>e</sup>seven thunders uttered their voices. <sup>4</sup>Now when the seven thunders uttered their voices,* I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven saying to me,* “Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and do not write them.”

John Eats the Little Book

<sup>8</sup>Then the voice which I heard from heaven spoke to me again and said, “Go, take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the earth.”

<sup>9</sup>So I went to the angel and said to him, “Give me the little book.”

And he said to me, <sup>k</sup>“Take and eat it; and it will make your stomach bitter, but it will be as sweet as honey in your mouth.”

<sup>10</sup>Then I took the little book out of the angel's hand and ate it, <sup>l</sup>and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth. But when I had eaten it, <sup>m</sup>my stomach became bitter. <sup>11</sup>And he* said to me, “You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, tongues, and kings.”

this angel serves God, this is another instance where the activity of Satan or his demons is under the Lord's sovereign control (2 Cor. 12:7,9).

9:14 great river Euphrates. This river is the eastern boundary of the land promised to Abraham for his descendants (Gen. 15:18), as well as the geographic area from which powerful enemies like Assyria and Babylon came to invade Israel (Is. 8:5–8). It may represent the seat of Satan's former victory (in the garden of Eden).

9:18 a third of mankind. A third of mankind could number in the billions. Coupled with the former destruction of one-fourth of humanity (6:8), over one-half of the world's population will have been killed.

10:1 mighty angel. This mighty angel could be the “strong angel” of 5:2 or the angel “having great authority” of 18:1. It is unlikely that this is Michael, who is referred to by name elsewhere (12:7; Dan. 12:1) or Christ, since He is never called an angel in the New Testament. Furthermore, unlike Christ, this angel comes to earth before the time of tribulation is over.

10:2 little book. The little book is not the same as the book that was unsealed in 6:1—8:1. It is more like the scroll eaten by Ezekiel (Ezek. 2:9—3:3), although this scroll caused John's stomach to become bitter (vv. 9–10), not just his spirit (Ezek. 3:14).

10:10 sweet . . . bitter. The Word of God is always sweet, but the soberness of the judgments and what this will mean to the “peoples, nations, tongues, and kings,” to whom John must prophesy is enough to turn John's stomach. It is a terrible thing to contemplate the fate of those who refuse to repent (9:21).

The Two Witnesses

11 Then I was given <sup>a</sup>a reed like a measuring rod. And the angel stood,* saying, <sup>b</sup>“Rise and measure the temple of God, the altar, and those who worship there. <sup>2</sup>But leave out <sup>c</sup>the court which is outside the temple, and do not measure it, <sup>d</sup>for it has been given to the Gentiles. And they will <sup>e</sup>tread the holy city underfoot for <sup>f</sup>forty-two months. <sup>3</sup>And I will give power to my two <sup>g</sup>witnesses, <sup>h</sup>and they will prophesy <sup>i</sup>one thousand two hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth.”

<sup>4</sup>These are the <sup>j</sup>two olive trees and the two lampstands standing before the God* of the earth. <sup>5</sup>And if anyone wants to harm them, <sup>k</sup>fire proceeds from their mouth and devours their enemies. <sup>l</sup>And if anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this manner. <sup>6</sup>These <sup>m</sup>“have power to shut heaven, so that no rain falls in the days of their prophecy; and they have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to strike the earth with all plagues, as often as they desire.

The Witnesses Killed

11:1 reed like a measuring rod. John's measuring rod is much like that used by Ezekiel (Ezek. 40:3–5) in his vision of measuring the temple.

11:3 two witnesses. The two unnamed witnesses are strikingly similar to Elijah (vv. 5–6; 1 Kin. 17; Mal. 4:5) and Moses (v. 6; Ex. 7–11), who appeared together with Christ on the Mount of Transfiguration (Luke 9:29–32). one thousand two hundred and sixty days. Forty-two months (v. 2) is the same length of time as twelve hundred and sixty days (12:6). Almost certainly “a time and times and half a time” (12:14) is also a period of three and a half years made up of 42 thirty-day months. These expressions draw from the prophecies in Daniel (Dan. 12:6–7, 11–12). sackcloth. Sackcloth is a sign of mourning.

11:4 two olive trees . . . two lampstands. The witnesses are described as olive trees and lampstands, linking them to the vision in Zechariah 4 of “the two anointed ones, who stand beside the Lord of the whole earth” (Zech. 4:14). The passage in Zechariah refers to Zerubbabel and Joshua the priest. But the overarching principle for these and all other witnesses for the Lord is that their testimony to the truth is “Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit” (Zech. 4:6).

11:6 no rain . . . waters . . . blood . . . plagues. The power to prevent rain identifies the witnesses with Elijah (James 5:17), and turning the water into blood and striking the earth with plagues is reminiscent of Moses in Egypt (Ex. 7:11–21).

<sup>10v</sup>And those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them, make merry, <sup>w</sup>and send gifts to one another, <sup>x</sup>because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.

The Witnesses Resurrected

<sup>11v</sup>Now after the three-and-a-half days <sup>z</sup>the breath of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell on those who saw them. <sup>12</sup>And they* heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, “Come up here.” <sup>a</sup>And they ascended to heaven <sup>bin</sup> a cloud, <sup>c</sup>and their enemies saw them. <sup>13</sup>In the same hour <sup>d</sup>there was a great earthquake, <sup>e</sup>and a tenth of the city fell. In the earthquake seven thousand people were killed, and the rest were afraid <sup>f</sup>and gave glory to the God of heaven.

<sup>14g</sup>The second woe is past. Behold, the third woe is coming quickly.

Seventh Trumpet: The Kingdom Proclaimed

11:7 bottomless pit. The beast, who emerges as the satanically empowered world ruler (chs. 13; 17), comes from the bottomless pit, as did the demonic locust plague of the fifth trumpet (9:1–10).

11:8 great city. The great city in Revelation is often Babylon (14:8), which possibly represents Rome (1 Pet. 5:13). But the further description “where also our Lord was crucified” seems to refer to Jerusalem. Sodom and Egypt. Sodom is the prototype for the moral degeneration of this great city (Gen. 19) and Egypt was the prototype for its rampant idolatry.

11:14 second woe. The second woe includes the sixth trumpet (9:12–21) and a second interlude (10:1–11:13). third woe. The third woe is apparently the seventh trumpet (vv. 15–19), since it “is coming quickly” and 8:13 relates the woes to the last three blasts of the trumpet. The final woe may extend further since the word “woe” recurs in 12:12.

The Woman, the Child, and the Dragon

12 Now a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a garland of twelve stars. <sup>2</sup>Then being with child, she cried out <sup>a</sup>in labor and in pain to give birth.

<sup>3</sup>And another sign appeared in heaven: behold, <sup>b</sup>a great, fiery red dragon having seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems on his heads. <sup>4c</sup>His tail drew a third <sup>d</sup>of the stars of heaven <sup>e</sup>and threw them to the earth. And the dragon stood <sup>f</sup>before the woman who was ready to give birth, <sup>g</sup>to devour her Child as soon as it was born. <sup>5</sup>She bore a male Child <sup>h</sup>who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron. And her Child was <sup>i</sup>caught up to God and His throne. <sup>6</sup>Then <sup>j</sup>the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that they should feed her there <sup>k</sup>one thousand two hundred and sixty days.

Satan Thrown Out of Heaven

* 11:17 NU-Text and M-Text omit and who is to come. * 11:19 M-Text reads the covenant of the Lord. * 12:8 M-Text reads him.

11:17–18 We give You thanks. The 24 elders (4:10–11; 5:8–10) praise God's power and wrath, and the corresponding distribution of reward and judgment. This stanza of heavenly thanksgiving seems to reflect on the fulfillment of the great messianic prophecy in Psalm 2.

11:19 ark of His covenant. The ark of the covenant made by Moses disappeared at the time of the Babylonian captivity (2Chr. 36:18–19). The ark represented God's presence, leadership, and protection of Israel (Num. 10:33–36; Josh. 3:3,15–17).

12:1 woman clothed with the sun. The woman is the nation Israel. To Israel belongs the covenant and the promises. If Satan can make even one of those promises fail, he will have "won." This is why the dragon stands over the woman in such a predatory manner (v. 4).

12:3 great, fiery red dragon. The sign of the dragon is interpreted in verse 9 as Satan, who first appeared in Scripture as the serpent in the garden of Eden (Gen. 3). The imagery is in keeping with Old Testament and extrabiblical usage (Is. 27:1). seven heads . . . ten horns . . . seven diadems. The dragon with the seven heads and ten horns refers to Satan and the empire over which he rules during the course of time. The seven heads, ten horns, and seven diadems refer to Satan's brilliance, power, and glory as "god of this age" (2 Cor. 4:4). This description is almost identical to that of the beast from the sea in 13:1.

12:4 a third of the stars. This image may refer to the rebellion of a third of the angelic host following Satan. devour her Child. The attempt of the dragon to devour the newborn Christ Child reveals that the strategy of Herod to kill the baby Jesus (Matt. 2:3–16) was satanically inspired.

12:5 male Child, who was to rule. The male Child who will rule with a rod of iron is the messianic figure of Psalm 2:8–9; however, there is no earthly rule over all nations at this point. From the perspective of this heavenly scene, the Child-ruler is soon caught up to the throne of God, apparently referring to the ascension of Christ (Acts 1:9).

12:6 one thousand two hundred and sixty days. The detailed way in which this same length of time is expressed ("a time and times and half a time," v. 14), suggests half of a literal seven-year tribulation period (Dan. 9:27).

12:7–8 Michael. Michael is an archangel (Jude 9). According to Daniel 12:1, he is a special guardian angel for the nation of Israel. Apparently he commands an army of angels. Michael and the heavenly forces are victorious, making heaven off-limits to Satan and his demons. (In Job 1 and 1 Kings 22:22 it is clear that at one time Satan did have access to heaven.)

12:9 to the earth. The devil's expulsion from heaven to the earth means that this world becomes his base of operations, and that his anger is vented toward the remaining inhabitants of the earth (v. 12). It is likely that the end times will be the greatest period of spiritual warfare (Eph. 6:10–18) in history.

For the devil has come down to you, having great wrath, <sup>x</sup>because he knows that he has a short time."

The Woman Persecuted

<sup>13</sup>Now when the dragon saw that he had been cast to the earth, he persecuted <sup>y</sup>the woman who gave birth to the male Child. <sup>14</sup>But the woman was given two wings of a great eagle, <sup>a</sup>that she might fly <sup>b</sup>into the wilderness to her place, where she is nourished <sup>c</sup>for a time and times and half a time, from the presence of the serpent. <sup>15</sup>So the serpent <sup>d</sup>spewed water out of his mouth like a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away by the flood. <sup>16</sup>But the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the flood which the dragon had spewed out of his mouth. <sup>17</sup>And the dragon was enraged with the woman, and he went to make war with the rest of her offspring, who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.*

The Beast from the Sea

of the sea, <sup>b</sup>having seven heads and ten horns,* and on his horns ten crowns, and on his heads a <sup>c</sup>blasphemous name. <sup>2</sup>Now the beast which I saw was like a leopard, his feet were like the feet of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The <sup>d</sup>dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority. <sup>3</sup>And I saw one of his heads <sup>e</sup>as if it had been mortally wounded, and his deadly wound was healed. And <sup>f</sup>all the world marveled and followed the beast. <sup>4</sup>So they worshiped the dragon who gave authority to the beast; and they worshiped the beast, saying, <sup>g</sup>"Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?"

<sup>5</sup>And he was given <sup>h</sup>a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, and he was given authority to continue* for <sup>i</sup>forty-two months. <sup>6</sup>Then he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme His name, <sup>j</sup>His tabernacle, and those who dwell in heaven. <sup>7</sup>It was granted to him <sup>k</sup>to make war with the saints and to overcome them. And <sup>l</sup>authority was given him over every tribe,* tongue, and nation. <sup>8</sup>All who dwell on the earth will worship him, <sup>m</sup>whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb slain <sup>n</sup>from the foundation of the world.

<sup>9</sup>If anyone has an ear, let him hear. <sup>10</sup>He who leads into captivity shall go into captivity; <sup>q</sup>he who kills with the sword must be killed with the sword. <sup>r</sup>Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

* 12:17 NU-Text and M-Text omit Christ.

* 13:1 M-Text reads he. • NU-Text and M-Text read ten horns and seven heads. * 13:5 M-Text reads make war. * 13:7 NU-Text and M-Text add and people.

12:11 blood of the Lamb . . . word of their testimony . . . did not love their lives. The heavenly defeat of Satan (vv. 7–9) is followed by reference to his earthly setbacks, including the crucifixion of Christ, the verbal witness of believers, and the martyrdom of some of the believers. The fact that these witnesses were willing to die for their testimony showed that they knew that Christ had defeated death.

12:14 a time. A "time" probably equals one year, so the period of protection here is three and a half years, which corresponds to the length of the two witnesses' testimony in 11:3. It is also equivalent to the period of the beast's authority ("forty-two months" in 13:5), which includes his ability to "make war with the saints and to overcome them" (13:7; Ps. 122:7; Dan. 7:25).

12:17 the rest of her offspring. The rest of the children are believers in Christ.

13:1–2 beast. The parallel to the four beasts (especially the fourth) in Daniel 7, and the explanation of the beast given in 17:8–11 make it seem that the beast symbolizes both a revived Roman Empire, which exercises universal authority, and a specific ruler, whom John calls the antichrist (1 John 2:18).

13:1 a blasphemous name. The blasphemous name may be the common claim of ancient Roman emperors to be divine, or blasphemy against the name of the true God (vv. 5–6) as Daniel predicted of the willful king during the tribulation period (Dan. 11:36).

13:3 mortally wounded . . . deadly wound. The apparently fatal wound that was healed is a satanic attempt to mimic the wounds of Christ from His crucifixion, which Christ still carries after the resurrection. This is part of the fulfillment of the prophecy of the "power, signs, and lying wonders, and . . . unrighteous deception" that accompany the "lawless one" (2 Thess. 2:8–12).

13:4 worshiped the dragon . . . and . . . the beast. Any false worship or idolatry is ultimately demonic and satanic (1 Cor. 10:20–22).

13:5 forty-two months. Forty-two months is the duration of the beast's worldwide supremacy, in keeping with the prophecy of Daniel 7:25.

13:9 If anyone has an ear, let him hear. This phrase is used frequently in the Bible. It seems to imply that

The Beast from the Earth

<sup>11</sup>Then I saw another beast <sup>a</sup>coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb and spoke like a dragon. <sup>12</sup>And he exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence, and causes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, <sup>b</sup>whose deadly wound was healed. <sup>13</sup><sup>u</sup>He performs great signs, <sup>v</sup>so that he even makes fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men. <sup>14</sup><sup>w</sup>And he deceives those* who dwell on the earth <sup>x</sup>by those signs which he was granted to do in the sight of the beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the beast who was wounded by the sword <sup>y</sup>and lived. <sup>15</sup>He was granted power to give breath to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak <sup>z</sup>and cause as many as would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. <sup>16</sup>He causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, <sup>q</sup>to receive a mark on their right hand or on their foreheads, <sup>17</sup>and that no one may buy or sell except one who has the mark or* <sup>b</sup>the name of the beast, <sup>c</sup>or the number of his name.

<sup>18</sup><sup>d</sup>Here is wisdom. Let him who has <sup>e</sup>understanding calculate <sup>f</sup>the number of the beast, <sup>g</sup>for it is the number of a man: His number is 666.

The Lamb and the 144,000

14 Then I looked, and behold, a* <sup>a</sup>Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with

The Proclamations of Three Angels

what has just been said has a wider context, or a significant present application. The statement is not just for future reference. Therefore, widespread spiritual delusion and blasphemy, as well as persecution and martyrdom, should not surprise believers at any point in history.

13:11 another beast. This beast's actions described in verses 12–17 make it virtually certain that he is the false prophet spoken of in 16:13; 19:20; 20:10. The two beasts may symbolize the intermingling of religious power and of secular, political power during the Roman period and during the last days. lamb. This is the only place in Revelation where “lamb” does not refer to Christ. The lamb with two horns is an emblem of Jewish worship and religious authority.

13:12–15 great signs. Calling fire from heaven and giving speech to the image of the first beast are persuasive signs of power. These signs are similar to those performed by the two witnesses (11:5–6). The performance of great signs and the power of Satan is part of the mass deception prophesied by Paul in 2 Thessalonians 2:8–12.

13:16 to receive a mark. The mark is some sort of identifiable proof of ownership and loyalty, an evil counterfeit of the seal on the foreheads of the servants of God (7:3; 14:1).

13:18 Let him who has understanding calculate. . . 666. No one knows exactly what this means. It is the number of the beast, and the number of a man, so the beast is merely a man, not a god. We can be sure that this “man's number” will someday be understood in relation to the number 666, and that when the people who are living at the time of the fulfillment of the prophecies in this book need to understand this clearly, the Lord will make it plain. In the meantime, the warning is enough for all that will hear.

14:5 they are without fault. This statement is not a reference to sinless perfection, but it is stating that they are considered pure before God. They have been sealed by God because of their belief in Christ (v. 1; 7:4).

14:6–7 angel. . . everlasting gospel. The angel who preaches the gospel to “every nation, tribe, tongue, and people” helps to fulfill God's promise that the gospel “will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations” (Matt. 24:14) before Christ returns. The word “gospel,” which literally means “good news,” is used in Revelation only once. Even at this late stage in God's judgment He continues to offer everlasting life to the world (John 3:16). The gospel message at this point beseeches unbelievers to fear God and give glory to Him, and to escape the hour of His judgment.

Reaping the Earth's Harvest

<sup>14</sup>Then I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and on the cloud sat One like the Son of Man, having on His head a golden crown, and in His hand a sharp sickle. <sup>15</sup>And another angel <sup>h</sup>came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to Him who sat on the cloud, <sup>i</sup>“Thrust in Your sickle and reap, for the time has come for You* to reap, for the harvest <sup>j</sup>of the earth is ripe.” <sup>16</sup>So He who sat on the cloud thrust in His sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

Reaping the Grapes of Wrath

<sup>17</sup>Then another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

<sup>18</sup>And another angel came out from the altar, <sup>k</sup>who had power over fire, and he cried with a loud cry to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, <sup>l</sup>“Thrust in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe.” <sup>19</sup>So the angel thrust his sickle into the earth and gathered the vine of the earth, and threw <sup>it</sup> into <sup>m</sup>the great winepress of the wrath of God. <sup>20</sup>And <sup>n</sup>the winepress was trampled <sup>o</sup>outside the city, and blood came out of the winepress, <sup>p</sup>up to the horses' bridles, for one thousand six hundred furlongs.

Prelude to the Bowl Judgments

<sup>2</sup>And I saw something like <sup>d</sup>a sea of glass <sup>e</sup>mingled with fire, and those who have the victory over the beast, <sup>f</sup>over his image and over his mark* and over the <sup>g</sup>number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, <sup>h</sup>having harps of God. <sup>3</sup>They sing <sup>i</sup>the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the <sup>j</sup>Lamb, saying:

For You alone are <sup>o</sup>holy.
For <sup>p</sup>all nations shall come and worship before You,
For Your judgments have been manifested.”

14:8 Babylon. Babylon is first mentioned in Revelation here, and it becomes the focus of God's judgment in the following sections (chs. 16–18).

14:13 Blessed. “Blessed” signals the second of seven beatitudes in Revelation (1:3; 16:15; 19:9; 20:6; 22:7,14). Six of the seven are clustered in the latter third of the book, perhaps as promises to encourage exemplary Christian response in the extremely difficult circumstances of the end times.

14:16 thrust in His sickle. The power of the Son of Man (Jesus Christ) is shown in that, with one swing of His sickle, the harvest of the earth is reaped. This pictures the events of chapters 16–19 as parts of one rapid succession of judgment, which is experienced by the inhabitants of the entire world.

15:1 another sign. The previous sign was about the woman clothed with the sun (12:1). This sign is “great and marvelous” because it deals with the seven last plagues sent by the Lord. The plagues, “the bowls of the wrath of God” (16:1), are much stronger and more widespread than the trumpet judgments in 8:2–11:19. The wrath of God is complete with the seven last plagues (15:1–19:5). They are immediately followed by the second coming and the marriage supper of the Lamb (19:6–21).

15:3 song of Moses. The song of Moses is a reference to Exodus 15:1–18 in which Israel celebrated its deliverance from Pharaoh's army (Ex. 14). This <sup>5</sup>After these things I looked, and behold, <sup>6</sup>the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened. <sup>7</sup>And out of the temple came the seven angels having the seven plagues, <sup>8</sup>clothed in pure bright linen, and having their chests girded with golden bands. <sup>9</sup>Then one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God <sup>10</sup>who lives forever and ever. <sup>11</sup>The temple was filled with smoke <sup>12</sup>from the glory of God and from His power, and no one was able to enter the temple till the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

First Bowl: Loathsome Sores

<sup>3</sup>So the first went and poured out his bowl <sup>4</sup>upon the earth, and a foul and <sup>5</sup>loathsome sore came upon the men <sup>6</sup>who had the mark of the beast and those <sup>7</sup>who worshiped his image.

Second Bowl: The Sea Turns to Blood

<sup>8</sup>Then the second angel poured out his bowl <sup>9</sup>on the sea, and <sup>10</sup>it became blood as of a dead man; <sup>11</sup>and every living creature in the sea died.

Third Bowl: The Waters Turn to Blood

<sup>4</sup>Then the third angel poured out his bowl <sup>5</sup>on the rivers and springs of water, <sup>6</sup>and they became blood. <sup>7</sup>And I heard the angel of the waters saying:

<sup>1</sup>“You are righteous, O Lord.
The One <sup>2</sup>who is and who was and who is to be,
Because You have judged these things.

<sup>6</sup> For <sup>7</sup>they have shed the blood <sup>8</sup>of saints and prophets, <sup>9</sup>And You have given them blood to drink.
For <sup>10</sup>it is their just due.”

Fourth Bowl: Men Are Scorched

<sup>8</sup>Then the fourth angel poured out his bowl <sup>9</sup>on the sun, <sup>10</sup>and power was given to him to scorch men with fire. <sup>11</sup>And men were scorched with great heat, and they <sup>12</sup>blasphemed the name of God who has power over these plagues; <sup>13</sup>and they did not repent <sup>14</sup>and give Him glory.

Fifth Bowl: Darkness and Pain

<sup>10</sup>Then the fifth angel poured out his bowl <sup>11</sup>on the throne of the beast, <sup>12</sup>and his kingdom became full of darkness; <sup>13</sup>and they gnawed their tongues because of the pain. <sup>14</sup>They blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and did not repent of their deeds.

Sixth Bowl: Euphrates Dried Up

<sup>12</sup>Then the sixth angel poured out his bowl <sup>13</sup>on the great river Euphrates, <sup>14</sup>and its water was dried up, <sup>15</sup>so that the way of the kings from the east might be prepared. <sup>16</sup>And I saw three unclean <sup>17</sup>spirits like frogs <sup>18</sup>coming out of the mouth of <sup>19</sup>the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of <sup>20</sup>the false prophet. <sup>21</sup>For they are spirits of demons, <sup>22</sup>performing signs, <sup>23</sup>which go out to the kings of the earth and*

song was sung by Jews in their Sabbath gatherings, as well as by early Christians at Easter. song of the Lamb. The song of the Lamb celebrates the finished work of God, when all of His righteous acts have been revealed, from creation to atonement to judgment.

16:6 saints. Saints are those who are set apart because of their relationship with Jesus Christ. prophets. The prophets are God’s spokesmen. Probably this passage is referring both to the saints and prophets (11:3–18) who have been killed and persecuted during the tribulation as well as those from past history. Jesus referred to the pattern of killing prophets (Matt. 23:35) when He spoke to the Pharisees of the coming judgment.

16:8 fourth . . . bowl. The fourth bowl and the fourth trumpet both affect the sun, but in the bowl judgment the sun’s heat is intensified instead of diminished.

16:9–10 did not repent. They cannot argue against the existence or power of God, but even so they will not repent and give glory to God. The good news of Christ is still in effect even just before His return (19:11–21), though it is apparently rejected by all unbelievers who are still alive.

16:12 sixth . . . bowl. The sixth bowl involves the Euphrates River, as does the sixth trumpet (9:14). Both judgments deal with demonically inspired military forces. The army of two hundred million (9:16) will kill a third of all humankind (9:18); the army of verses 12–14 will do battle against God (19:19–21).

16:13–14 unclean spirits . . . go out to the kings. The kings of the earth recoil in fear before the judgment of the Lamb (6:15–16), yet because of the deceptive words of the demons, they are willing to wage war

Seventh Bowl: The Earth Utterly Shaken

<sup>17</sup>Then the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, <sup>m</sup>“It is done!” <sup>18</sup>And <sup>n</sup>there were noises and thunderings and lightnings; <sup>o</sup>and there was a great earthquake, such a mighty and great earthquake <sup>p</sup>as had not occurred since men were on the earth. <sup>19</sup>Now <sup>q</sup>the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. And <sup>r</sup>great Babylon <sup>s</sup>was remembered before God, <sup>t</sup>to give her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath. <sup>20</sup>Then <sup>u</sup>every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. <sup>21</sup>And great hail from heaven fell upon men, each hailstone about the weight of a talent. Men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, since that plague was exceedingly great.

The Scarlet Woman and the Scarlet Beast

against God. The difference seems to be their confidence in the power of the beast, since they reason, “Who is able to make war with him?” (13:4). great day of God. The battle of that great day takes place at Armageddon (Mount of Megiddo) (v. 16; 19:17–21). 16:15 Blessed. This is the third of seven beatitudes in Revelation (see note at 14:13). Jesus warned believers to be vigilant because of the unexpected timing of His return (Matt. 24:43–44). The warning to watch is a reminder of the parable of the ten virgins (Matt. 25:1–13): “Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour.”

16:17 It is done. The seventh bowl is the climax of all of Revelation’s judgments. This is God’s final act of judgment before Christ comes.

16:19 Babylon. Babylon may refer to the rebuilt ancient city, or it may be a symbolic name for Rome (17:9). It may also be a way of referring to any proud human society that attempts to exist apart from God. Babylon’s classic manifestations of rebellion against God are the Tower of Babel (Gen. 11:1–9) and the Babylonian Empire under Nebuchadnezzar (Dan. 4:30).

17:1 judgment of the great harlot. Babylon is called “the harlot” in verses 1, 5, 16, and 19:2. Her habitual immorality was introduced in 14:8, as was her

<sup>3</sup>So he carried me away in the Spirit <sup>s</sup>into the wilderness. And I saw a woman sitting <sup>h</sup>on a scarlet beast which was full of <sup>i</sup>names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. <sup>4</sup>The woman <sup>j</sup>was arrayed in purple and scarlet, <sup>k</sup>and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, <sup>l</sup>having in her hand a golden cup <sup>m</sup>full of abominations and the filthiness of her fornication.* <sup>5</sup>And on her forehead a name was written:

THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS
AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

<sup>6</sup>I saw <sup>o</sup>the woman, drunk <sup>p</sup>with the blood of the saints and with the blood of <sup>q</sup>the martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I marveled with great amazement.

The Meaning of the Woman and the Beast

<sup>7</sup>But the angel said to me, “Why did you marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. <sup>8</sup>The beast that you saw was, and is not, and <sup>r</sup>will ascend out of the bottomless pit and <sup>s</sup>go to perdition. And those who <sup>t</sup>dwell on the earth <sup>u</sup>will marvel, <sup>v</sup>whose names are not written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, when they see the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.* imminent and well-deserved judgment. Both the kings of the earth and the inhabitants of the earth are seduced into committing spiritual adultery with Babylon. The indication is that she made them drunk with power, material possessions, false worship, and pride. The wine of Babylon’s immorality (14:8) is judged forcefully and finally by God in the “wine of the fierceness of His wrath” (16:19).

17:9 seven mountains. The word that is translated “mountains” can also be translated “hills.” Most interpreters understand this as a reference to the seven hills along the Tiber River, a well-known designation of the city of Rome.

which the woman sits. <sup>10</sup>There are also seven kings. Five have fallen, one is, and the other has not yet come. And when he comes, he must <sup>11</sup>continue a short time. <sup>11</sup>The <sup>2</sup>beast that was, and is not, is himself also the eighth, and is of the seven, and is going to perdition.

<sup>12a</sup>The ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority for one hour as kings with the beast. <sup>13</sup>These are of one mind, and they will give their power and authority to the beast. <sup>14b</sup>These will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will <sup>c</sup>overcome them, <sup>d</sup>for He is Lord of lords and King of kings; <sup>e</sup>and those who are with Him are called, chosen, and faithful."

<sup>15</sup>Then he said to me, <sup>f</sup>"The waters which you saw, where the harlot sits, <sup>g</sup>are peoples, multitudes, nations, and tongues. <sup>16</sup>And the ten horns which you saw on <sup>h</sup>the beast, <sup>i</sup>these will hate the harlot, make her <sup>j</sup>desolate <sup>k</sup>and naked, eat her flesh and <sup>l</sup>burn her with fire. <sup>17</sup>For God has put it into their hearts to fulfill His purpose, to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, <sup>m</sup>until the words of God are fulfilled. <sup>18</sup>And the woman whom you saw <sup>n</sup>is that great city <sup>o</sup>which reigns over the kings of the earth."

The Fall of Babylon the Great

a dwelling place of demons, a prison for every foul spirit, and <sup>a</sup>a cage for every unclean and hated bird! <sup>3</sup>For all the nations <sup>4</sup>have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, <sup>5</sup>and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the abundance of her luxury."

<sup>4</sup>And I heard another voice from heaven saying, <sup>h</sup>"Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues. <sup>5i</sup>For her sins have reached *to heaven, and <sup>j</sup>God has remembered her iniquities. <sup>6k</sup>Render to her just as she rendered to you, *and repay her double according to her works; <sup>l</sup>in the cup which she has mixed, <sup>m</sup>mix double for her. <sup>7n</sup>In the measure that she glorified herself and lived luxuriously, in the same measure give her torment and sorrow; for she says in her heart, <sup>o</sup>"I sit as <sup>p</sup>queen, and am no widow, and will not see sorrow." <sup>8</sup>Therefore her plagues will come <sup>p</sup>in one day—death and mourning and famine. And <sup>q</sup>she will be utterly burned with fire, <sup>r</sup>for strong is the Lord God who judges *her.

17:10 Five have fallen. The five that have fallen would be past kingdoms, perhaps Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Medo-Persia, and Greece. one is. The Roman Empire was the current power at the time of this writing. has not yet come. People speculate that the future kingdom may be a revived Roman Empire.

17:11 the eighth, and is of the seven. The beast is related to the seventh king, but also has a separate identity. It seems that the eighth world empire may be some form of a revived Roman Empire over which the antichrist establishes the imperial authority of a dictator. He will overcome three horns, or nations (Dan. 7:20), and will claim universal authority.

17:12 one hour. The time frame for these events may coincide with 16:14, in which the preparations for the battle at Armageddon are described.

17:14 make war with the Lamb. The Lamb (Christ) will easily overcome the ten kings at His second coming (19:19–21). The beast and his forces are allowed by God to "make war with the saints and to overcome them" (13:7). Many of those whom the beast defeated and even killed are now numbered in the conquering army of the Lamb. The Lord's army is composed of the called, chosen, and faithful, probably the heavenly soldiers of 19:14.

17:16–17 ten horns . . . will hate the harlot. Since this description is similar to God's judgment on Babylon in 18:8, it seems that the Lord uses the forces of the beast as His instrument of judgment on the kingdom of antichrist (ch. 18) before they themselves are destroyed (19:19–21). With the advent of the beast as a supreme ruler given to self-deification (Dan. 11:36; Matt. 24:15; 2 Thess. 2), Satan has originated an entirely new order. This order is so radically different from the great harlot (vv. 1–6) that the beast, or perhaps the political aspect of Babylon, turns upon and destroys the religious aspect of Babylon.

17:18 that great city. The woman in John's vision is the great city Babylon (16:19), yet she is also the ancient "mother of harlots" (v. 5). The satanic influence of this city over the world's leaders has continued from Babel through Babylon to Rome (v. 9–10), its classic manifestation in the first century A.D.

18:4 Come out. The command echoes Isaiah 52:11 and especially Jeremiah 51:45, prophecies proclaimed at a time when the Babylonian Empire was ripe for judgment.

18:9–19 weep and lament for her. This section is framed like an ancient lament and is especially similar

<sup>20i</sup>“Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you holy apostles* and prophets, for <sup>j</sup>God has avenged you on her!”

Finality of Babylon's Fall

No craftsman of any craft shall be found in you anymore, and the sound of a millstone shall not be heard in you anymore. <sup>23n</sup>The light of a lamp shall not shine in you anymore, <sup>o</sup>and the voice of bridegroom and bride shall not be heard in you anymore. For <sup>p</sup>your merchants were the great men of the earth, <sup>q</sup>for by your sorcery all the nations were deceived. <sup>24</sup>And <sup>r</sup>in her was found the blood of prophets and saints, and of all who <sup>s</sup>were slain on the earth.”

Heaven Exults over Babylon

19 After these things <sup>a</sup>I heard* a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, <sup>b</sup>“Alleluia! <sup>b</sup>Salvation and glory and honor and power belong to the Lord* our God! <sup>2</sup>For <sup>c</sup>true and righteous are His judgments, because He has judged the great harlot who corrupted the earth with her fornication; and He <sup>d</sup>has avenged on her the blood of His servants shed by her.” <sup>3</sup>Again they said, “Alleluia! <sup>e</sup>Her smoke rises up forever and ever!” <sup>4</sup>And <sup>f</sup>the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sat on the throne, saying, <sup>g</sup>“Amen! Alleluia!” <sup>5</sup>Then a voice came from the throne, saying, <sup>h</sup>“Praise our God, all you His servants and those who fear Him, <sup>i</sup>both* small and great!”

<sup>6</sup>And I heard, as it were, the voice of a great multitude, as the sound of many waters and as the sound of mighty thunderings, saying, “Alleluia! For <sup>k</sup>the* Lord God Omnipotent reigns! <sup>7</sup>Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him glory, for <sup>l</sup>the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready.” <sup>8</sup>And <sup>m</sup>to her it was granted to be arrayed in fine linen, clean and bright, <sup>n</sup>for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints.

<sup>9</sup>Then he said to me, “Write: <sup>o</sup>“Blessed are those who are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb!” And he said to me, <sup>p</sup>“These are the true sayings of God.” <sup>10</sup>And in content to Ezekiel's lament over the destruction of Tyre (Ezek. 27).

18:20 Rejoice . . . heaven, and you holy apostles and prophets. This call to rejoice is a compressed introduction to the longer praise hymn in 19:1–5. Judgment for killing God's prophets is mentioned in 16:6, but this is the only place in Revelation other than 21:14 where Christ's apostles are mentioned. If specific apostles are in mind here, Peter and Paul's deaths at the hands of the state in Rome probably apply. If Babylon is the symbol of all the enemies of God and His people, and not just the Babylonian or Roman manifestations, even the killing of James in Acts 12:1–2 is being avenged here.

19:9 Blessed. This is the fourth of the seven beatitudes in Revelation (see note at 14:13). marriage supper. The

Christ on a White Horse

<sup>11v</sup>Now I saw heaven opened, and behold, <sup>wa</sup>a white horse. And He who sat on him was called <sup>x</sup>Faithful and True, and <sup>y</sup>in righteousness He judges and makes war. <sup>12z</sup>His eyes were like a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns. <sup>a</sup>He had* a name written that no one knew except Himself. <sup>13b</sup>He was clothed with a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called <sup>c</sup>The Word of God. <sup>14d</sup>And the armies in heaven, <sup>e</sup>clothed in fine linen, white and clean,* followed Him on white horses. <sup>15</sup>Now <sup>f</sup>out of His mouth goes a sharp* sword, that with it He should strike the nations. And <sup>g</sup>He Himself will rule them with a rod of iron. <sup>h</sup>He Himself treads the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. <sup>16</sup>And <sup>i</sup>He has on His robe and on His thigh a name written:

KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

The Beast and His Armies Defeated

<sup>17</sup>Then I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the midst of heaven, <sup>k</sup>“Come and gather together for the supper of the great God,* <sup>18l</sup>that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all people, free* and slave, both small and great.”

<sup>19m</sup>And I saw the beast, the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against Him who sat on the horse and against His army. <sup>20n</sup>Then the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who worked signs in his presence, by which he deceived those who received the mark of the beast and <sup>o</sup>those who worshiped his image. <sup>p</sup>These two were cast alive into the lake of fire <sup>q</sup>burning with brimstone. <sup>21</sup>And the rest <sup>r</sup>were killed with the sword which proceeded from the mouth of Him who sat on the horse. <sup>s</sup>And all the birds <sup>t</sup>were filled with their flesh.

Satan Bound 1,000 Years

20 Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven, <sup>a</sup>having the key to the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. <sup>2</sup>He laid hold of <sup>b</sup>the dragon, that serpent of old, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years; <sup>3</sup>and he cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and <sup>c</sup>set a seal on him, <sup>d</sup>so that he should deceive the nations no more till the thousand years were finished. But after these things he must be released for a little while.

The Saints Reign with Christ 1,000 Years

<sup>4</sup>And I saw <sup>e</sup>thrones, and they sat on them, and <sup>f</sup>judgment was committed to them. Then I saw <sup>g</sup>the souls of those who had been beheaded for their witness to Jesus and for the word of God, <sup>h</sup>who had marriage supper of John's day would begin on the evening of the wedding, but the celebration might continue for days. The marriage supper here is a time of joyous feasting to be enjoyed by the saints.

19:15 sharp sword. The sharp sword that comes out of Christ's mouth is the two-edged sword spoken of in 1:16. rod of iron. Christ will rule with a rod of iron in fulfillment of the messianic prophecies in Psalm 2:8–9 and Isaiah 11:4.

19:20–21 beast . . . false prophet . . . cast alive into the lake of fire. The lake of fire is the eternal destiny of all unbelievers (20:10,14–15). They are apparently the first to suffer the torment of the lake. The rest of the beast's allies are killed by the word from the mouth of the victorious Christ. Apparently all those who now suffer death go to hades (Matt. 16:18), to which Jesus has the keys (1:8), until death and hades are emptied and cast into the lake of fire (20:13–15).

20:1 angel. The angel here may be the same one who had the key to the bottomless pit in 9:1–2.

20:2–3 bottomless pit . . . shut him up . . . till the thousand years. The abyss, or bottomless pit, is presently the place of imprisonment of some demons (Luke 8:31) and will be the place from which the beast ascends (17:8). Thus, it is fitting that the devil will be held there for a thousand years. The dragon of 12:3,9, known as Satan, was in control of the serpent in the garden of Eden (Gen. 3). God has a plan for Satan. He will be shut up in the abyss for a thousand years and then will be briefly released to deceive the nations one final time (vv. 7–9) before being cast into the lake of fire (v. 10). must be released. This phrase indicates that Satan will not escape from the pit but instead will be allowed to go forth from the pit to fulfill God's plan. 20:4 thrones . . . reigned. This may be a partial fulfillment of Daniel 7:18,27. The aspect of judgment in ruling is referred to in 1 Corinthians 6:2–4. At the onset of the kingdom, authority is officially transferred not worshiped the beast <sup>i</sup>or his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads or on their hands. And they <sup>j</sup>lived and <sup>k</sup>reigned with Christ for a* thousand years. <sup>5</sup>But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. <sup>6</sup>Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over such <sup>l</sup>the second death has no power, but they shall be <sup>m</sup>priests of God and of Christ, <sup>n</sup>and shall reign with Him a thousand years.

Satanic Rebellion Crushed

<sup>7</sup>Now when the thousand years have expired, Satan will be released from his prison <sup>8</sup>and will go out <sup>o</sup>to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, <sup>p</sup>Gog and Magog, <sup>q</sup>to gather them together to battle, whose number is as the sand of the sea. <sup>9</sup>They went up on the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city. And fire came down from God out of heaven and devoured them. <sup>10</sup>The devil, who deceived them, was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone <sup>s</sup>where* the beast and the false prophet are. And they <sup>t</sup>will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

The Great White Throne Judgment

<sup>11</sup>Then I saw a great white throne and Him who sat on it, from whose face <sup>u</sup>the earth and the heaven fled away. <sup>v</sup>And there was found no place for them. <sup>12</sup>And I saw the dead, <sup>w</sup>small and great, standing before God. <sup>x</sup>and books were opened. And another <sup>y</sup>book was opened, which is the Book of Life. And the dead were judged <sup>z</sup>according to their works, by the things which were written in the books. <sup>13</sup>The sea gave up the dead who were in it, <sup>a</sup>and Death and Hades delivered up the dead who were in them. <sup>b</sup>And they were judged, each one according to his works. <sup>14</sup>Then <sup>c</sup>Death and Hades were cast into from angels to men (Heb. 2:5,8). Christ, as the second Adam, fulfills God's original purpose for the earth. A new world order is established with the overcoming saints of the church age ruling together with Christ in His kingdom (Rom. 8:17). Incredible as it may seem, with a perfect Ruler who is totally just, totally kind, and totally wise, there will still be men who will rebel (vv. 7–9).

20:5 did not live again. The resurrection of the dead will not encompass all people at the same time (Dan. 12:2; John 5:29). This passage indicates that there will be a first resurrection of dead believers before the thousand years of Christ's reign (1 Cor. 15:23,52) and a final resurrection after the millennium is finished, before the great white throne judgment (vv. 11–13). It is generally considered that this is the time of resurrection of the Old Testament saints as well as those martyred in the great tribulation.

20:6 Blessed. This is the fifth of the seven beatitudes in Revelation (see note at 14:13). All look forward to life with Christ beyond the first resurrection (v. 5). Resurrection is assured for all believers. But the blessedness mentioned here belongs more precisely to those martyrs who will have a part as rulers with Christ in the first resurrection. second death. The second death is the everlasting death of torment in the lake of fire for unbelievers who face the great white throne judgment (vv. 11–15). John has previously stated that the one who overcomes will not be hurt by the second death (2:11).

20:8 Gog and Magog. Gog and Magog was a common rabbinical title for the nations in rebellion against the Lord, and the names recall the prophesied invasion of Israel in Ezekiel 38:39. Some hold that the battle of verses 8–9 is the one spoken of in Ezekiel, but there are major differences as well as similarities in the two passages.

20:9 beloved city. The beloved city may symbolically refer to the home of God's people. However, the New Jerusalem is commonly called "the city of My God" (3:12) and "the holy city" (21:2). The city here may be the renewed earthly Jerusalem, ready to give way to the everlasting sinless glory of the New Jerusalem (21:1–22:5).

20:11 great white throne. The great white throne is a picture of God's holy rule and judgment. The One occupying the throne may be God the Father (1 Cor. 15:24–28) or both the Father and the Lamb (Christ), as in the New Jerusalem (22:1–3). the earth and the heaven fled away. There is no place for this sin-polluted creation in the new heaven and new earth (21:1–22:5). The earth and all of its works will be burned up (2 Pet. 3:10–13).

20:12 the dead. The dead, called "the rest of the dead" (v. 5), are raised and made to stand before God's throne of judgment. books. The books are thought to refer to the record of all works done in this life. Since all have sinned and fall short of God's standard (Rom. 3:23), the opening of these books will certainly lead to eternal sentences in the lake of fire. Book of Life. The Book of Life is God's register of those who have believed in Jesus (17:8). Although no one can be judged acceptable based on works (Eph. 2:8–9) many will be saved by God's grace received by faith in Jesus Christ.

20:14 Death and Hades. Death and Hades refers not only to dying, but to existence beyond the grave (1:18; 6:8). If one considers "death" as a place, it would be the place where the body lies, and Hades would be the place for the soul. The picture here is of all human bodies being given up to God's judgment. While unbelieving humanity is judged according to its works, Death and Hades, the Lord's final enemy (1 Cor. 15:26), is also destroyed by being cast into the the lake of fire. <sup>d</sup>This is the second death.*

<sup>15</sup>And anyone not found written in the Book of Life <sup>e</sup>was cast into the lake of fire.

All Things Made New

21 Now <sup>a</sup>I saw a new heaven and a new earth, <sup>b</sup>for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away. Also there was no more sea. <sup>2</sup>Then I, John,* saw <sup>c</sup>the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared <sup>d</sup>as a bride adorned for her husband. <sup>3</sup>And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying, “Behold, <sup>e</sup>the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people. God Himself will be with them and be their God.” <sup>4</sup>And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; <sup>5</sup>there shall be no more death, <sup>6</sup>nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away.”

<sup>5</sup>Then <sup>i</sup>He who sat on the throne said, <sup>j</sup>“Behold, I make all things new.” And He said to me,* “Write, for <sup>k</sup>these words are true and faithful.”

<sup>6</sup>And He said to me, <sup>l</sup>“It is done!” <sup>m</sup>I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. <sup>n</sup>I will give of the fountain of the water of life freely to him who thirsts. <sup>7</sup>He who overcomes shall inherit all things,* <sup>8</sup>and <sup>o</sup>I will be his God and he shall be My son. <sup>9</sup>But the cowardly, unbelieving,* abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in <sup>p</sup>the lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.”

The New Jerusalem

<sup>9</sup>Then one of <sup>r</sup>the seven angels who had the seven bowls filled with the seven last plagues came to me* and talked with me, saying, “Come, I will show you <sup>s</sup>the bride, the Lamb’s wife.”* <sup>10</sup>And he carried me away <sup>t</sup>in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me <sup>u</sup>the great city, the holy* Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, <sup>11</sup>having the glory of God. Her light was like a most precious stone, like a jasper stone, clear as crystal. <sup>12</sup>Also she had a great and high wall with <sup>w</sup>twelve gates, and twelve angels at the gates, and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel: <sup>13</sup><sup>x</sup>three gates on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, and three gates on the west.

<sup>14</sup>Now the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and <sup>y</sup>on them were the names* of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. <sup>15</sup>And he who talked with me <sup>z</sup>had a gold reed to measure the city, its gates, and its wall. <sup>16</sup>The city is laid out as a square; its length is as great as its breadth. And he measured the city with the reed: twelve thousand furlongs. Its length, breadth, and height are equal. <sup>17</sup>Then he measured its lake of fire. second death. The second death is spiritual and eternal, the just punishment of the wicked. The first death is physical dying. Both are included in the overall meaning of the death that came upon the human race because of Adam and Eve’s sin (Gen. 2:16–17; 3:1–19; Rom. 5:12).

20:15 not found written in the Book of Life. Only those who have accepted Jesus Christ as their Savior will be found in the book. The rejection of the eternal gospel results in eternal condemnation (14:6–7).

21:1 new. “New” here suggest freshness, not just a second beginning. This is the fulfillment of the prophecies of Isaiah 65:17; 66:22 and 2 Peter 3:13. Significantly, this eternal renewal has already begun in the life of the believer because, using the same term, Paul says, “if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation” (2 Cor. 5:17). passed away . . . no more sea. The present heaven and earth, including the sea, were burned up in the great white throne judgment (20:11–13). There will be a continuation of some features of the present creation in the new heaven and new earth, yet the drastic difference in the new eternal state is obvious from the fact that there will be no more sea, which was a major part of the original creation (Gen. 1:6–10). 21:2 bride. Christ’s bride (v. 9) is the New Jerusalem, the redeemed inhabitants of the holy city (vv. 3–7, 24–27).

21:6 It is done. For the third time, it is done. The first statement of “finishing” was on the cross (John 19:30), the second was at the end of God’s wrath (16:17), and the third is when there is no more death, a new heaven and a new earth. water of life. The water of life may be recalling Jesus’ references to living water in John 4:14 and 7:38, in connection with eternal life and life in the Holy Spirit. This water is further described in 22:1. A similar offer of God’s grace to him who spiritually thirsts is repeated in 22:17.

21:12 twelve gates . . . twelve tribes. The description of the high wall and the twelve gates echoes Ezekiel 48:30–35. It is a glorious picture of the place that Israel holds in the New Jerusalem when the new covenant with Israel is at last fulfilled.

21:14 twelve foundations . . . apostles. This picture calls to mind Paul’s imagery of the apostles as the foundations of the house of God in Ephesians 2:20.

The Glory of the New Jerusalem

<sup>22d</sup>But I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. <sup>23e</sup>The city had no need of the sun or of the moon to shine in it* for the glory* of God illuminated it. The Lamb is its light. <sup>24f</sup>And the nations of those who are saved* shall walk in its light, and the kings of the earth bring their glory and honor into it.* <sup>25g</sup>Its gates shall not be shut at all by day <sup>h</sup>(there shall be no night there). <sup>26i</sup>And they shall bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it.* <sup>27</sup>But <sup>i</sup>there shall by no means enter it anything that defiles, or causes* an abomination or a lie, but only those who are written in the Lamb's <sup>k</sup>Book of Life.

The River of Life

22 And he showed me <sup>a</sup>a pure* river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding from the throne of God and of the Lamb. <sup>2b</sup>In the middle of its street, and on either side of the river, was <sup>c</sup>the tree of life, which bore twelve fruits, each tree yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were <sup>d</sup>for the healing of the nations. <sup>3</sup>And <sup>e</sup>there shall be no more curse, <sup>f</sup>but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it, and His <sup>g</sup>servants shall serve Him. <sup>4h</sup>They shall see His face, and <sup>i</sup>His name shall be on their foreheads. <sup>5i</sup>There shall be no night there: They need no lamp nor <sup>k</sup>light of the sun, for <sup>l</sup>the Lord God gives them light. <sup>m</sup>And they shall reign forever and ever.

The Time Is Near

<sup>8</sup>Now I, John, saw and heard* these things. And when I heard and saw, <sup>i</sup>I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed me these things.

<sup>9</sup>Then he said to me, <sup>i</sup>“See that you do not do that. For* I am your fellow servant, and of your brethren the prophets, and of those who keep the words of this book. Worship God.” <sup>10u</sup>And he said to me, “Do not seal the words of the prophecy of this book, <sup>v</sup>for the time is at hand. <sup>11</sup>He who is unjust, let him be unjust still; he who is

21:19–20 all kinds of precious stones. The exact color of some of the stones is uncertain, but it is probable that jasper is colorless, sapphire is blue, chalcedony is green or greenish-blue, emerald is bright green, sardonyx has layers of red and white, sardius is blood red, chrysolite is yellow, beryl is blue or blue-green, topaz is golden, and amethyst is purple or violet.

22:2 tree of life. The tree of life in the original creation was in the middle of the garden of Eden (Gen. 2:9), from which all of humanity was excluded after sin entered the world (Gen. 3:22–24). Ezekiel's apocalyptic vision included trees bearing fruit every month with medicinal leaves (Ezek. 47:12). Since only one tree of life is mentioned here, even though it is on both sides of the river, it is probably meant as a parallel to Genesis 2, implying that a new, better, and everlasting Eden has come.

22:3 no more curse. The affliction of sin, especially on the human race and creation (Gen. 3:14–19), will be erased. As God had fellowship with Adam and Eve before their fall into sin (Gen. 3:8), so the Lord will again be with His servants eternally. In turn, His servants will worship and serve Him (Rom. 12:1).

22:4 see His face. The believer's hope today is to see the Lord face to face (1 Cor. 13:12), something neither Moses nor any other human was previously allowed to do (Ex. 33:20).

22:7 Blessed. “Blessed” begins the sixth of seven beatitudes in Revelation (see note at 14:13). And indeed, those who pay attention to this book will be blessed. The Lord has shown the things that must come to pass, the things that His servants must pay attention to, the ultimate fate of unbelievers, and a beautiful glimpse of eternity, which leaves all believers with an eagerness for the return of the Lord.

22:11 unjust . . . filthy . . . righteous . . . holy. This verse, on the surface, seems to be a statement that believers and unbelievers will live out their lives true

Jesus Testifies to the Churches

<sup>12</sup>“And behold, I am coming quickly, and <sup>w</sup>My reward is with Me, <sup>x</sup>to give to every one according to his work. <sup>13</sup>I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last.”*

<sup>16</sup>“I, Jesus, have sent My angel to testify to you these things in the churches. <sup>f</sup>I am the Root and the Offspring of David, <sup>g</sup>the Bright and Morning Star.”

<sup>17</sup>And the Spirit and <sup>h</sup>the bride say, “Come!” And let him who hears say, “Come!” <sup>i</sup>And let him who thirsts come. Whoever desires, let him take the water of life freely.

to their nature until the final judgment (20:12–15). However, because this book is to be read before the events it foretells take place, it is almost certainly an implied, indirect evangelistic appeal based on the continuing offer of the gospel (v. 17; 14:6–7).

22:12–13 My reward is with Me. The rewarding of each believer according to his or her works is taught in 2 Corinthians 5:10. Christ’s rewards are meant to provide a powerful incentive for an obedient life. Little wonder that the apostle Paul rigorously disciplined himself so that he would not be disqualified from the prize (1 Cor. 9:24–27; Phil. 3:10–14). The judgment seat of Christ can be a time of great regret (1 Cor. 3:5–10), or it can be an occasion of supreme joy (2 Cor. 5:9–11). After Christ comes again, He will give rewards to His own. This can be counted on because Christ is in control of all history and all eternity.

22:14 Blessed. This is the last of the seven beatitudes in Revelation (see note at 14:13). This beatitude is speaking of those justified by faith who express that faith in obedience (Eph. 2:8–10).

22:15 dogs. According to the context of Deuteronomy 23:18 a “dog” is a male prostitute.

22:16 the Root and the Offspring of David. Jesus is both the Source and Son of David, echoing the words of Isaiah 11:1,10. Jesus is both greater than David and the rightful heir to the throne of David.

22:17 Come. This book, so full of the pictures of the

A Warning

<sup>18</sup>For* I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: <sup>j</sup>If anyone adds to these things, God will add* to him the plagues that are written in this book; <sup>19</sup>and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, <sup>k</sup>God shall take away* his part from the Book* of Life, from the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

I Am Coming Quickly

<sup>20</sup>He who testifies to these things says, “Surely I am coming quickly.”

Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

<sup>21</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.* Amen.

fulfillment of God’s righteous judgment, still closes with the sweet and compelling invitation to come to Christ. This is one of the reasons it is “blessed” to read this book.

22:18–19 add to . . . take away. The Book of Revelation was intended to be heard and obeyed (v. 7; 1:3), not tampered with. The person who either adds to or takes away from its contents will receive from God the strictest punishment, a punishment with eternal consequences.

22:20 I am coming quickly. The fact that Jesus is coming quickly within the scope of God’s overall plan for this creation is a repeated theme in Revelation (3:11; 22:7–12). John adds the hope of all believers to the declaration of Christ with his prayer, “come, Lord Jesus.”

22:21 grace. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ begins and concludes the Book of Revelation (1:4), implying that the message of grace and the free gift of eternal life in Christ (Eph. 2:8–9), not merely the message of judgment upon unbelievers, can be found in this book.
