ANSWERS TO LIFE'S OUESTIONS

How does God teach me perseverance?

2 THESS. 1:3-5

Perseverance has been defined as accepting difficult situations as from God without giving Him a deadline for their removal. We know we need to learn endurance, but we generally shun the process by which it takes root in our lives.

Ours is the "now" generation—we want everything immediately. We refuse to wait for the Lord's direction or provision, so we either give in to discouragement or move ahead on our own initiative. However, rejecting God because we do not get our own way or running ahead of His timing are costly and disappointing courses of action.

Psalm 27:14 admonishes, "Wait for the LORD; be strong and let your heart take courage; yes, wait for the LORD." The Thessalonians were doing this successfully, and Paul commended them for staying firm in the faith, even though they faced terrible opposition. He wrote, "Your faith is greatly enlarged, and the love of each one of you toward one another grows ever greater; therefore, we ourselves speak proudly of you among the churches of God for your perseverance and faith in the midst of all your persecutions and afflictions which you endure . . . so that you will be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which indeed you are suffering."

Their troubles were not causing them to fall away. Rather, the Thessalonians were trusting the Lord and maturing in their

- 5 May the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God and into the steadfastness of Christ.
 - 6 Now we command you, brethren, in the relationship with Him. And through their difficulties, God was teaching them abiding hope and perseverance that nothing could destroy.

Likewise, He may allow us to experience difficulties or to wait for relief from some situation or obstacle for several reasons:

- The Lord is teaching us discipline and endurance through waiting.
- God is using the adversity to reveal hidden sin in our lives.
- The Lord wants to teach us to depend on Him, not on ourselves or others.
- God is molding our character so we will honor Him with our lives.
- God wants to teach us to trust His ways and timing and to learn that they are best.

Yet James 1:2–4 encourages us, "Consider it all joy, my brethren, when you encounter various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance. And let endurance have its perfect result, so that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing." In times of difficulty, we learn to persevere and to keep holding to the Lord as our hope and our victory. Our troubles may not be pleasant, but they are profitable in our relationship with Him and our character because they teach us to trust Him, to wait for Him, and to have confidence in His provision.

Therefore, when you face adversity, do not despair. Cling to God and trust Him no matter what happens. He is teaching you to persevere, and it is a lesson worth learning.

afraid of the opposition. But God has limited the enemy's attack and has also garrisoned us about with His heavenly host (Ps. 91:11). The Lord is faithful to protect us in every situation, so we should always obey Him and leave the consequences to Him.

increase through their deepening relationship with Him. Likewise, we must entrust our loved ones to the Lord. Although we encourage, instruct, and rebuke them when appropriate, ultimately we trust God to mature them spiritually and lead them faithfully in His will for them.

> 3:10 — If anyone is not willing to work, then he is not to eat, either.

Some of the Thessalonians were so convinced that Christ would return immediately that they did not feel it was necessary to work any longer. Others took advantage of the church's practice of charity and interdependence (Acts 2:42–47), living off the wealth of other believers. However, our belief in the Lord's return does not give us an excuse to be lazy. Instead, it should inspire us to do our very best in every situation—including our occupations—and keep us living productively for the sake of His kingdom.

> 3:15 — Yet do not regard him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

Pe are not to associate with those who disobey God so that we do not likewise sin, but we must always remember that they are not the enemy (1 John 4:20). We should not be contentious or hateful towards them because they still need Christ. The Lord wants all to know Him and grow in an intimate relationship with Him. This should be our objective as well, so we must discipline and admonish others with this goal in view.

> 3:16 — May the Lord of peace Himself continually grant you peace in every circumstance.

The peace of God is a gift; it is not something we can manipulate because it is the fruit of oneness with Him. When our relationship with Him is strong and adversity strikes, we do not have to fall apart or give in to anxiety. We can choose to live in steadfast confidence of His love, wisdom, power, and provision. This is the basis of His unshakable peace—not that we are capable of controlling circumstances, but that His help is ever-present and perfect to deliver us in every challenge we face.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THY

aul, the aged and experienced apostle, fills his letter to Timothy, his young protégé, with words of encouragement, godly guidance, and affirmation. He understands the heavy burden of responsibility he has as pastor of the church at Ephesus. Paul originally met Timothy during his second missionary journey (Acts 16:1–3). Shortly after he became a believer, the apostle drafted him as a part of his missionary team. The problems in the early church were formidable, but Paul was convinced that Timothy could handle each one with God's help. He must correct false doctrine, motivate godly worship, and develop mature leadership.

In addition to the conduct of the church, Paul talks pointedly about the conduct of the minister. Timothy must be on his guard, lest his youthfulness become a liability rather than an asset to the gospel. He must carefully avoid false teachers and greedy motives. The apostle admonishes him to pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, perseverance, and the gentleness that befits a man of God.

The apostle especially emphasizes the dangers of materialism. He decries the idea that "godliness is a means of gain" (1 Tim. 6:5) and tells Timothy he should feel content with having "food and covering" (v. 8). The apostle warns, "Those who want to get rich fall into temptation and a snare and many foolish and harmful desires which plunge men into ruin and destruction" (v. 9). And then he writes what has become one of the most famous lines for believers: "The love of money is a root of all sorts of evil" (v. 10). Greed can cause men to stray from the faith, Paul warns; and before they know it, they have "pierced themselves with many griefs" (v. 10).

This letter also features two of the most magnificent short descriptions of God anywhere in Scripture. Paul calls God, "The King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God" (1 Tim. 1:17), and "The blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords, who alone possesses immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no man has seen or can see. To Him be honor and eternal dominion!" (6:15, 16).

The Greek title for this letter is Pros Timotheon A, the "First to Timothy." Timothy means "honoring God" or "honored by God."

Theme: The exhortation of a young pastor by a man seasoned in the faith.

Author: The apostle Paul.

Time: Probably written between A.D. 64–67.

Structure: After a brief greeting (1:1, 2), Paul warns against false teachers (vv. 3–11), gives thanks for God's grace (vv. 12–17), instructs Timothy in the administration of the church (1:18—6:2), offers some miscellaneous suggestions (6:3–19), and finally urges his young friend to guard the faith (vv. 20, 21).

LIFE LESSONS-

> 1:3 — As I urged you upon my departure for Macedonia, remain on at Ephesus so that you may instruct certain men not to teach strange doctrines.

The church Timothy was pastoring was located right in the middle of a hot bed of false doctrine and immorality. Along with being a very wealthy city, Ephesus was an influential port city and also a springboard for cult worship and activity. The temple of Artemis (also called Diana), the goddess of fertility, was located there. Timothy had his hands full when it came to teaching sound biblical doctrine. New Testament port cities had great potential to become centers for spreading Christianity. Having trained Timothy, and being confident of his commitment to God, Paul left the doctrine of the church to his watchful care.

> 1:4 — nor to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which give rise to mere speculation rather than furthering the administration of God which is by faith.

Due to the pagan atmosphere of Ephesus, Paul admonished Timothy not to be distracted by those trying to disrupt the church in Ephesus. They were trying to mislead the people by discussing genealogies, myths, speculative theories, and strange philosophies. Paul instructed Timothy not to waste time considering them. Rather, he should seek to lead people to Christ by teaching godly truth. Unlike the false teachers, who merely fueled speculation and caused useless arguments, the goal of all Christian instruction should be godly edification, which helps people to grow closer to God and each other in practical ways.

> 1:5 — The goal of our instruction is . . . a good conscience and a sincere faith.

No other creature has a conscience except human beings. God has given it to us as a gift to protect us, and when we ignore our conscience, we head straight into trouble. A good conscience is one that is void of false guilt. Guilt is that feeling of responsibility and remorse for our offenses, and God's Word teaches us to acknowledge our sin, accept His forgiveness, and go forward in the eternal hope of His unconditional love.

> 1:15 — It is a trustworthy statement, deserving full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, among whom I am foremost of all.

 \mathcal{N} o one persecuted the early Christian church more zealously than did Paul (previously called Saul) before he met Jesus Christ, and no one preached forgiveness as passionately and faithfully as Paul after he accepted the Lord's salvation (Acts 9:1–31; 22:1–21). The apostle received God's complete forgiveness—and so can you.

> 1:16 — I found mercy, so that in me as the foremost, Jesus Christ might demonstrate His perfect patience as an example for those who would believe in Him for eternal life.

The amazing truth of the Lord's unmerited grace. If God would save Paul, who tried to destroy His church, then He would be willing to save anyone who believes in Him (Ezek. 18:32; John 3:16–18; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9). It is not by our goodness that we are accepted by the Lord, but it is because of His great love and provision for us on the Cross (Eph. 2:8, 9; Titus 3:5).

TIMOTHY

A Man Who Honored God

1 TIM. 1:2, 18

Jimothy, born half Greek and half Jew, probably accepted Christ in his hometown, Lystra, during Paul's first missionary journey. The apostle learned of Timothy's growth in his walk with Christ and made the young man his aide during his second missionary journey.

The name Timothy means "one who honors God," and Paul entrusted him with the toughest of assignments in Ephesus, Corinth, Macedonia, and Thessalonica. As an adult, Timothy, in an 20 Among these are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan, so that they will be taught not to blaspheme.

A Call to Prayer

The writer of Hebrews reports that at some point Timothy also was imprisoned (13:23).

Scripture reveals that at times, Timothy was timid, probably earlier in life. But he devoted himself to the Lord and spent his young adult years traversing the world so that he could preach the gospel. He continues to inspire us toward courage and boldness, even when we feel we naturally lack these qualities.

7 For this I was appointed a preacher and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying) as a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

LIFE LESSONS

> 1:19 — Keeping faith and a good conscience, which some have rejected and suffered shipwreck in regard to their faith.

every day we face decisions that involve our conscience—it sends up red flags when we're about to do something that violates God's will. If we should ignore it and reject the truth, we make a shipwreck of our lives. This means that we choose the path of destruction because we are most vulnerable to false doctrines and sin. Eventually, we become so desensitized to the promptings of God's Holy Spirit that we no longer hear Him, know how to respond to Him, or have the wisdom to choose obedience.

> 2:1, 2 — I urge that entreaties and prayers, petitions and thanksgivings, be made on behalf of all men, for kings and all who are in authority, so that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and dignity.

It is our duty as Christians to pray for our leaders in the hope that they will live godly lives and make wise decisions according to the Word and will of God. Only He can transform them into men and women who will truly honor Him (Prov. 21:1).

> 2:3, 4 — God our Savior . . . desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.

The Lord does not celebrate the need to judge wicked people but is eager for the opportunity to redeem those who believe in His Son as Savior (2 Pet. 3:9). Jesus Christ has paid the penalty of our sin through His sacrificial, substitutionary, all-sufficient death (Rom. 6:23). This is the only way we are saved. When we refuse His gracious gift, we are refusing God's eternal life, joy, peace, and contentment. A hardened and stubborn heart will only take you one place—straight into sorrow, brokenness, and eternal separation from God.

> 2:5 — There is one God, and one mediator also between God and men, the man Christ Jesus.

Then Paul writes there is one God, he is referring back to the Shema—Israel's statement of faith (Deut. 6:4–9). As believers in Jesus Christ, this foundational belief is not replaced—it is deepened. Jesus is not another deity, > 8 Therefore I want the men in every place to pray, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and dissension.

Women Instructed

- 9 Likewise, I want women to adorn themselves with proper clothing, modestly and discreetly, not with braided hair and gold or pearls or costly garments,
- 10 but rather by means of good works, as is proper for women making a claim to godliness.
- 11 A woman must quietly receive instruction with entire submissiveness.
- 12 But I do not allow a woman to teach or exercise authority over a man, but to remain quiet.
- 13 For it was Adam who was first created, and then Eve.
- 14 And it was not Adam who was deceived, but the woman being deceived, fell into transgression.
- * 15 But women will be preserved through the bearing of children if they continue in faith and love and sanctity with self-restraint.

Overseers and Deacons

- 3 IT is a trustworthy statement: if any man aspires to the office of overseer, it is a fine work he desires to do.
- 2 An overseer, then, must be above reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, prudent, respectable, hospitable, able to teach,
- 3 not addicted to wine or pugnacious, but gentle, peaceable, free from the love of money.

- 4 He must be one who manages his own household well, keeping his children under control with all dignity
- 5 (but if a man does not know how to manage his own household, how will he take care of the church of God?).
- 6 and not a new convert, so that he will not 4 become conceited and fall into the condemnation incurred by the devil.
- 7 And he must have a good reputation with those outside the church, so that he will not fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.
- 8 Deacons likewise must be men of dignity, not double-tongued, or addicted to much wine or fond of sordid gain,
- 9 but holding to the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience.
- 10 These men must also first be tested; then \triangleleft let them serve as deacons if they are beyond reproach.
- 11 Women must likewise be dignified, not malicious gossips, but temperate, faithful in all things.
- 12 Deacons must be husbands of only one wife, and good managers of their children and their own households.
- 13 For those who have served well as deacons obtain for themselves a high standing and great confidence in the faith that is in Christ Jesus.
- 14 I am writing these things to you, hoping to come to you before long;
- 15 but in case I am delayed, I write so that you will know how one ought to conduct himself in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and support of the truth.

LIFE LESSONS-

but God Himself, who has also become our Mediator. A mediator is like a priest—one who brings two parties together in peace. As our High Priest, we can "draw near with confidence to the throne of grace" (Heb. 4:16) because we know He will faithfully represent and lead us in His way (Heb. 2:1–18; 4:14, 15; 7:22—8:6).

> 2:8 — I want the men in every place to pray, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and dissension.

The quarreling within the Ephesian church was being fueled by the false teachers who were vying for prominence within the congregation. Church fellowship is never a place for social-climbing or selfish ambitions. It is the place to join with other believers for worship and fellowship. This is why Paul called those within the fellowship to come together in prayer.

> 3:5 — If a man does not know how to manage his own household, how will he take care of the church of God?

Before God gives us greater responsibilities in a larger sphere of influence, He requires us to demonstrate our faithfulness to Him right where we are with those closest to us.

> 3:6 — Not a new convert, so that he will not become conceited and fall into the condemnation incurred by the devil.

Sometimes, when success comes too quickly, a person may be totally unprepared for it. He may not know how to deal with the admiration he's receiving. He becomes more focused on his own strengths, desires, and needs rather than on what is right in God's sight, which means he's headed for trouble.

> 3:10 — These men must also first be tested; then let them serve as deacons if they are beyond reproach.

It times, we see the passion, energy, talent, and desire of young believers and think they may be able to handle great responsibilities. However, it is not a person's enthusiasm that enables them to do ministry, but their commitment to Christ and their steadfast obedience to Him. They must prove themselves faithful and godly in smaller tasks before they are ready to engage in more challenging ones (Matt. 25:14–30).

> 3:15 — I write so that you will know how one ought to conduct himself in the household of God.

Every believer is to bring honor to God, but it is especially important for church leaders to provide an authentic example of faith in action.

16 By common confession, great is the mystery of godliness:

He who was revealed in the flesh, Was vindicated in the Spirit, Seen by angels, Proclaimed among the nations, Believed on in the world, Taken up in glory.

Apostasy

- BUT the Spirit explicitly says that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to deceitful spirits and doctrines of demons,
- 2 by means of the hypocrisy of liars seared in their own conscience as with a branding iron.
- 3 men who forbid marriage and advocate abstaining from foods which God has created to be gratefully shared in by those who believe and know the truth.
- 4 For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with gratitude;
- 5 for it is sanctified by means of the word of God and prayer.

A Good Minister's Discipline

- 6 In pointing out these things to the brethren, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, constantly nourished on the words of the faith and of the sound doctrine which you have been following.
- 7 But have nothing to do with worldly fables fit only for old women. On the other hand, discipline yourself for the purpose of godliness:

- 8 for bodily discipline is only of little profit, *but godliness is profitable for all things, since <i tholds promise for the present life and also for the life to come.
- 9 It is a trustworthy statement deserving full acceptance.
- 10 For it is for this we labor and strive, because we have fixed our hope on the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of believers.
- 11 Prescribe and teach these things.
- 12 Let no one look down on your youthfulness, but rather in speech, conduct, love, faith and purity, show yourself an example of those who believe.
- 13 Until I come, give attention to the public reading of Scripture, to exhortation and teaching.
- 14 Do not neglect the spiritual gift within you, which was bestowed on you through prophetic utterance with the laying on of hands by the presbytery.
- 15 Take pains with these things; be absorbed in them, so that your progress will be evident to all.
- 16 Pay close attention to yourself and to your teaching; persevere in these things, for as you do this you will ensure salvation both for yourself and for those who hear you.

Honor Widows

- 5DO not sharply rebuke an older man, but rather appeal to him as a father, to the younger men as brothers,
- 2 the older women as mothers, and the younger women as sisters, in all purity.
- 3 Honor widows who are widows indeed:

LIFE LESSONS-

> 4:1, 2 — In later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to deceitful spirits and doctrines of demons . . . seared in their own conscience as with a branding iron.

seared or burnt conscience can be one that is beyond repair. It reflects a rejection of God's truth. Ungodly and deceptive doctrines have always plagued the church, but the closer we draw to the return of Christ, the more insidious, prevalent, and aggressive false teachers will become. That is why we must remain vigilant and make sure we always lead others to faith and obedience—especially as the Day of the Lord approaches.

> 4:8 — Bodily discipline is only of little profit, but godliness is profitable for all things, since it holds promise for the present life and also for the life to come

This world emphasizes ability, beauty, and success. While being a good steward of the body God gave you is important, the greater emphasis should always be on your relationship with Him. Your intimacy with God is His highest priority for you and determines the impact of your life. It will also endure in heaven, while your physical body will be replaced with an imperishable, glorified one (1 Cor. 15:20, 52–54). Therefore, focus only on Christ so that you can grow in godliness because that is truly time well spent.

> 4:12 — Let no one look down on your youthfulness, but rather in speech, conduct, love, faith and purity, show yourself an example of those who believe.

Regardless of how old you are or how long you have followed Christ, you can become an excellent example to others by submitting your life to Christ and learning how to rely upon the power and leading of the Spirit.

> 4:15 — Take pains with these things; be absorbed in them, so that your progress will be evident to all.

Why should we be diligent in reading Scripture, teaching, encouraging others, and practicing the spiritual gifts the Lord has given us? Because this is the way we learn more about God and how to walk in His ways. As we live in active, engaged obedience to the Lord—obeying the initial promptings of His Spirit and clinging to His Word—we grow and mature in His likeness (Gal. 5:22, 23; 2 Pet. 1:3–8).

- 4 but if any widow has children or grandchildren, they must first learn to practice piety in regard to their own family and to make some return to their parents; for this is acceptable in the sight of God.
 - 5 Now she who is a widow indeed and who has been left alone, has fixed her hope on God and continues in entreaties and prayers night and day.
 - 6 But she who gives herself to wanton pleasure is dead even while she lives.
 - 7 Prescribe these things as well, so that they may be above reproach.
- 8 But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.
 - 9 A widow is to be put on the list only if she is not less than sixty years old, having been the wife of one man,
 - 10 having a reputation for good works; and if she has brought up children, if she has shown hospitality to strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has assisted those in distress, and if she has devoted herself to every good work.
 - 11 But refuse to put younger widows on the list, for when they feel sensual desires in disregard of Christ, they want to get married.
 - 12 thus incurring condemnation, because they have set aside their previous pledge.
 - 13 At the same time they also learn to be idle, as they go around from house to house; and not merely idle, but also gossips and busybodies, talking about things not proper to mention.
 - 14 Therefore, I want younger widows to get - married, bear children, keep house, and give the enemy no occasion for reproach;

- 15 for some have already turned aside to follow Satan.
- 16 If any woman who is a believer has dependent widows, she must assist them and the church must not be burdened, so that it may assist those who are widows indeed.

Concerning Elders

- 17 The elders who rule well are to be considered worthy of double honor, especially those who work hard at preaching and teaching.
- 18 For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle the ox while he is threshing," and "The laborer is worthy of his wages."
- 19 Do not receive an accusation against an elder except on the basis of two or three witnesses.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 5:4 — If any widow has children or grandchildren, they must first learn to practice piety in regard to their own family and to make some return to their parents; for this is acceptable in the sight of God.

This goes along with Paul's theme that Christians should take care of their families (1 Tim. 3:5). We should honor our widows by caring for them when they cannot take care of themselves. This may sound extremely difficult—and sometimes it will be. However, whatever God calls us to do will be worthwhile and will carry with it unforeseen—albeit priceless—blessings.

> 5:8 — If anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

It is easy to be kind and gentle for a short span of time with strangers. However, living a life of sacrifice and service takes a lot more discipline and energy among those who know us best. That is why every command the Lord gives us to treat others with His love and compassion must begin with those closest to us. Someone who knows the truth must live it out with his or her family because that is how we know it is real in our lives.

> 5:20 — Those who continue in sin, rebuke in the presence of all, so that the rest also will be fearful of sinning.

Paul is speaking here of church leaders. If they abuse their positions and continue in their sin, they must be rebuked publicly—not to shame them, but to let everyone know that God does not approve of their behavior or condone their disobedience. "Teachers... will incur a stricter judgment" (James 3:1) because of their influence in the lives of others.

> 5:24 — The sins of some men are quite evident, going before them to judgment; for others, their sins follow after.

Certain transgressions are not as obvious as others. For example, some people do pious deeds within the church in order to promote themselves or subvert God's people. To us, it may look as if they are doing good, but they are really undermining the ministry and planting seeds of dissention. God knows the true intentions of our hearts and actions. Eventually, we reap what we sow, more than we sow, and later than we sow. No one gets away with sin.

Instructions to Those Who Minister

6 ALL who are under the yoke as slaves are to regard their own masters as worthy of all honor so that the name of God and our doctrine will not be spoken against.

- 2 Those who have believers as their masters must not be disrespectful to them because they are brethren, but must serve them all the more, because those who partake of the benefit are believers and beloved. Teach and preach these principles.
- 3 If anyone advocates a different doctrine and does not agree with sound words, those of our Lord Jesus Christ, and with the doctrine conforming to godliness,
- 4 he is conceited and understands nothing; but he has a morbid interest in controversial questions and disputes about words, out of which arise envy, strife, abusive language, evil suspicions,
- 5 and constant friction between men of depraved mind and deprived of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain.
- ▶ 6 But godliness actually is a means of great gain when accompanied by contentment.
 - 7 For we have brought nothing into the world, so we cannot take anything out of it either.
 - 8 If we have food and covering, with these we shall be content.
- 9 But those who want to get rich fall into temptation and a snare and many foolish and harmful desires which plunge men into ruin and destruction.
- ► 10 For the love of money is a root of all sorts of evil, and some by longing for it have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs.

- 11 But flee from these things, you man of God, and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, perseverance and gentleness.
- 12 Fight the good fight of faith; take hold of the eternal life to which you were called, and you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses.
- 13 I charge you in the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who testified the good confession before Pontius Pilate,
- 14 that you keep the commandment without stain or reproach until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ,
- 15 which He will bring about at the proper time—He who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords,
- 16 who alone possesses immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no man has seen or can see. To Him be honor and eternal dominion! Amen.
- 17 Instruct those who are rich in this present world not to be conceited or to fix their hope on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly supplies us with all things to enjoy.
- 18 Instruct them to do good, to be rich in ≤ good works, to be generous and ready to share.
- 19 storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is life indeed

LIFE LESSONS-

> 6:6 — Godliness actually is a means of great gain when accompanied by contentment.

bedience always brings blessing. As Psalm 37:4 promises, "Delight yourself in the Lord; and He will give you the desires of your heart." When we can submit to God's will and find all of our joy in Him, we have more than this world could ever hope to offer us because we have a treasure that will never fade away (Matt. 6:19–21; Phil. 4:11–13).

> 6:9 — Those who want to get rich fall into temptation and a snare and many foolish and harmful desires which plunge men into ruin and destruction.

The Bible condemns the desire to get rich, not because having money is a sin, but because the lust for wealth leads to spiritual poverty. People who make it their goal to gain material possessions cater to an unquenchable idol. There is only one thing that can satisfy our deepest longings and needs, and it is a personal relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ. Ultimately, anything of earthly value that we hold too tightly we lose.

6:10 — The love of money is a root of all sorts of evil, and some by longing for it have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs.

Money is merely an object, but the love of it is a root of sinfulness, because it takes God's place in our lives. You cannot be loyal to two masters—or, as Jesus said, "You cannot serve God and wealth" (Luke 16:13). Often, we think that material possessions will make us happy or give us a sense of security, but only Christ can give us the joy and confidence we truly long for.

> 6:12 — Fight the good fight of faith.

Pe must be unreservedly committed to Christ—regardless of our circumstances, challenges, or obstacles—realizing this leads to spiritual victory and eternal hope. We must believe in Him and obey with all our hearts, souls, minds, and strengths—standing firm for Him and representing Him well in the world so that others will believe in Him and be saved.

> 6:18 — Instruct them to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share.

God blesses us financially and with our talents, not simply so that we can spend the resources He has given us on ourselves, but so that we can use them to help others and to expand His kingdom.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

How can I learn to feel content?

1 TIM. 6:7, 8

Many in today's workforce feel deeply discontented. "If only I had a better boss If only I could make more money . . . If I could just work for that company . . . " And so it goes.

Two thousand years ago, John the Baptist exhorted disgruntled Roman soldiers to be content with their wages (Luke 3:14). This is still good advice.

We can grow content when we see God as our sole Provider: "Give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with the food that is my portion, that I not be full and deny You and say, 'Who is the LORD?' or that I not be in want and steal, and profane the name of my God" (Prov. 30:8, 9).

We can also grow discontent as we focus on the necessities of life. Paul reminds us: "For we have brought nothing into the world, so we cannot take anything out of it either. If we have food and covering, with these we shall be content" (1 Tim. 6:7, 8).

Much of our restlessness comes from desiring the many perks our affluent culture offers. But do we really need them? Can we get along without designer clothes? The answer is yes. While God often supplies many of our wants out of His goodness and grace, He really wants us to enjoy what He has given and have hearts of gratitude. He promises to supply our needs, but when He gives us more than just the basics, we need to be very humble and grateful.

How do we become content? We do this by asking God to teach us how to have gratitude for what we have, rather than complain about what we're missing: "Make sure that your character is free from the love of money, being content with what you have" (Heb. 13:5). Solomon said, "What the eyes see is better than what the soul desires" (Eccl. 6:9).

God already has blessed us with so much. And Satan is the one who seeks to redirect our focus to what eludes us, thus fostering a malignant virus of discontent. Instead of falling for his lies, why not take inventory of all that God has blessed you with and thank Him for each and every blessing?

We find our greatest source of contentment, of course, in a delightful relationship with Jesus Christ: "Not that I speak from want, for I have learned to be content in whatever circumstances I am . . . I can do all things through Him who strengthens me" (Phil. 4:11, 13). Paul faced many trials and difficulties. Some were very hard to bear, but he was satisfied and content because he had an intimate relationship with the Savior and nothing had more value than this. Can you say that this is true of your life?

"Delight yourself in the LORD; and He will give you the desires of your heart" (Ps. 37:4).

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY

rison is the last place we would expect a letter of encouragement to be written, but this is where Paul's second letter to Timothy originated—a Roman prison.

The apostle begins by assuring Timothy of his continuing love and prayers and then reminds him of his spiritual heritage and responsibilities. Only the one who perseveres—whether as a soldier, athlete, farmer, or minister of Jesus Christ—will reap God's reward. Paul also warns Timothy that his teaching will come under attack as faithless men desert the truth in favor of words for itching ears (2 Tim. 4:3). But Timothy has Paul's example to guide him and God's Word to fortify him as he faces both growing opposition and glowing opportunities.

This letter may be one of the most personal letters we have from the apostle Paul. He knows he is facing his final days, yet he finds himself increasingly alone. He tells Timothy, "All who are in Asia turned away from me" (2 Tim. 1:15) and "Demas, having loved this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia . . . Tychicus I have sent to Ephesus. At my first defense no one supported me, but all deserted me . . . Erastus remained at Corinth, but Trophimus I left sick at Miletus" (4:10, 12, 16, 20). So he urges Timothy, "Make every effort to come to me soon . . . Pick up Mark and bring him with you . . . Make every effort to come before winter" (4:9, 11, 21). The apostle's reports and requests remind us that God designed the Christian life to occur within community and that everyone—even revered apostles—needs the fellowship of other believers.

Paul's last epistle received the title Pros Timotheon B, the "Second to Timothy."

Theme: Be on the alert for wrong teachings and cling to the truth.

Author: The apostle Paul.

Time: Circa A.D. 66–67. Nero had Paul executed.

Structure: After a short introduction (1:1, 2), Paul expresses his love for Timothy (vv. 3–7), encourages him to remain true to the faith (1:8—2:13), warns him of several dangers (2:14—3:9), instructs him in his work (3:10—4:5), informs him of his dire situation (4:6–18), and finally concludes his letter and makes some last requests (vv. 19–22).

As you read 2 Timothy, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

- 18. As children of a sovereign God, we are never victims of our circumstances. See 2 Timothy 1:7; page 1437.
- 28. No Christian has ever been called to "go it alone" in his or her walk of faith. See 2 Timothy 2:2; page 1438.
- 3. God's Word is an immovable anchor in times of storm. See 2 Timothy 3:16, 17; page 1440.

Timothy Charged to Guard His Trust

1 PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, according to the promise of life in Christ Jesus,

- 2 To Timothy, my beloved son: Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.
- → 3 I thank God, whom I serve with a clear conscience the way my forefathers did, as I constantly remember you in my prayers night and day,
 - 4 longing to see you, even as I recall your tears, so that I may be filled with joy.
 - 5 For I am mindful of the sincere faith within you, which first dwelt in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am sure that it is in you as well.
- 6 For this reason I remind you to kindle afresh the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands.
- > 7 For God has not given us a spirit of timidity, but of power and love and discipline.
- > 8 Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord or of me His prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel according to the power of God,
- 9 who has saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace which was granted us in Christ Jesus from all eternity,

- 10 but now has been revealed by the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel,
- 11 for which I was appointed a preacher and an apostle and a teacher.
- 12 For this reason I also suffer these things, *but I am not ashamed; for I know whom I have believed and I am convinced that He is able to guard what I have entrusted to Him until that day.
- 13 Retain the standard of sound words which you have heard from me, in the faith and love which are in Christ Jesus.
- 14 Guard, through the Holy Spirit who dwells in us, the treasure which has been entrusted to you.
- 15 You are aware of the fact that all who are in Asia turned away from me, among whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes.
- 16 The Lord grant mercy to the house of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chains;
- 17 but when he was in Rome, he eagerly searched for me and found me—

LIFE LESSONS-

> 1:3 — I constantly remember you in my prayers night and day.

This was Paul's last letter. He knew he would soon be facing death and that he would no longer be able to encourage Timothy and the many who made up the churches that he had helped to establish throughout the known world. But he also knew that the Holy Spirit would continue to guide and lift up the body of Christ. Yet up to the end, the apostle remained faithful to pray for Timothy. Why? Because Paul knew that every spiritual battle was won on his knees in prayer. He testified, "I know whom I have believed and I am convinced that He is able to guard what I have entrusted to Him" (2 Tim. 1:12).

> 1:6 — For this reason I remind you to kindle afresh the gift of God which is in you.

Kindle afresh in this verse means "to incite, stir up, or stimulate." We are to encourage and motivate others to be faithful to the Lord. God never takes away the spiritual gifts He bestows upon us (Rom. 11:29), but they can lose their effectiveness through our neglect or misuse. God instructs us to use our gifts for the benefit of His people in obedience to Him (1 Pet. 4:10).

> 1:7 — God has not given us a spirit of timidity, but of power and love and discipline.

Gear focuses our attention on ourselves and on things we do not need to consider. It fills our minds with hypothetical situations that all end in defeat and ruination. Eventually, it utterly consumes us. This is why we cannot shrink back in obeying God and using the gifts He has given us because He is ultimately in control of our futures, and we are never victims of our circumstances. We are overwhelmingly triumphant in Christ, and we must act like it.

> 1:8 — Do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord or of me His prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel according to the power of God.

Sometimes we may be tempted to keep quiet about our faith in Christ because of our fear of what others will think of us. Yet it is a great privilege to represent Him, and we must do so with boldness and enthusiasm, remembering that it may mean eternal life for those who hear our testimony and respond to the Lord Jesus in faith

> 1:9 — Not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace which was granted us in Christ Jesus from all eternity.

The grace of God did not begin with us—it did not even start at the Cross. The Lord's plan for our salvation was established before He ever created the world. Therefore, we must trust His eternal plan, which was the divine favor He bestowed upon us at the Cross (John 3:16–18; Eph. 2:8, 9; Titus 3:5) because that is only way He has provided for our salvation.

> 1:12 — I know whom I have believed and I am convinced that He is able to guard what I have entrusted to Him until that day.

They did not merely endure the adversity, they rejoiced in their afflictions because through suffering they had not been fully convinced of the power of God's truth—that every promise He has made to us, He will keep (Heb. 11:1, 6). They did not merely endure the adversity, they rejoiced in their afflictions because through suffering they could identify with Christ (Acts 5:41; 2 Cor. 12:10; Phil. 3:8–11). If we want to follow Him, we must likewise have absolute confidence in His provision at the Cross and that His Word is infallibly true.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S OUESTIONS

How can I combat my fears?

2 TIM. 1:7

Paul's words to Timothy are equally God's words to you. He has given each one of us "a spirit . . . of power and love and discipline" (2 Tim. 1:7). Therefore, we never should respond to circumstances or people in fear because we have the power of God living within us—the very power that dispels all fear and anxiety.

1. Ask for God's help.

When fear strikes, immediately ask for God's help. Tap into His power and allow Him to encourage your heart. Remember when Peter tried to walk on the water to Jesus, but his fear overcame him (Matt. 14:30)? When he found himself in trouble and fear—sinking in the sea—he had the right response. He asked for God's help. "Lord, save me!" This is your best first response any time you feel fearful.

2. Ask the Lord to fill your heart with a sense of His abiding love.

Love is a powerful antidote to fear. God's love has the ability to eliminate it. I remember the first time I preached in my home church. I was young and had a "fear attack." I felt the 18 the Lord grant to him to find mercy from the Lord on that day—and you know very well what services he rendered at Ephesus.

Be Strong

 2^{YOU} therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

people would expect more from me than a group of strangers might expect. So what helped me? I read the words of the Lord to Joshua in Joshua 1:5–9, and then I turned my focus to the people of my home church. I felt overwhelmed by how much I loved them and how they had loved me through the years. By the time I stood in the pulpit, the fear had completely drained out of me. John tells us, "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear" (1 John 4:18). Ask your heavenly Father to impart to you more of Christ's love and to take away any torment you feel. As you do, fear will lose its grip on you.

3. Ask God to give you a sound mind, filled with and operating according to God's Word.

The basis for a sound mind is the Word of God. The more you know of God's promises and the more you live according to His commandments, the greater your strength to withstand fear. Use Scripture to speak directly to the source of your fear, just as Jesus quoted Scripture to Satan during His time of temptation in the wilderness (Luke 4:1–13).

When you feel gripped by fear, turn your gaze to Jesus, redirect your heart to His love, speak to your fear from the Word of God, and then respond boldly to the situation. The Lord's desire is for you to "be strong and very courageous" today (Josh. 1:7).

- 4 No soldier in active service entangles

LIFE LESSONS-

> 2:2 — The things which you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses, entrust these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.

Pe cannot serve the Lord on our own—as believers we have not been called to "go it alone" in our walk of faith. We must choose trustworthy, godly people to follow in our Christian walk and, likewise, choose committed men and women to follow in our footsteps. It is our duty to teach them what we have learned so that they can serve the Lord, too. In that way, we ensure that the work will carry on even when we are gone—and that is absolutely essential when doing ministry (Matt. 28:19, 20).

2:3 — Suffer hardship with me.

Pe must be absolutely committed and disciplined in our relationship with the Lord—especially as we face trials. Like the solider, we serve at the pleasure of our Commander, and we must be focused on Him and obedient to His orders—despite the hardships and obstacles. Like an athlete, we press through the pain and abide by the rules to reach our goal, which is glorifying Him. And like a farmer, we patiently wait as our seeds of consistent faithfulness bloom into a harvest of righteousness.

himself in the affairs of everyday life, so that he may please the one who enlisted him as a soldier.

- 5 Also if anyone competes as an athlete, he does not win the prize unless he competes according to the rules.
- 6 The hard-working farmer ought to be the first to receive his share of the crops.
- 7 Consider what I say, for the Lord will give you understanding in everything.
 - 8 Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, descendant of David, according to my gospel.
 - 9 for which I suffer hardship even to imprisonment as a criminal; but the word of God is not imprisoned.
 - 10 For this reason I endure all things for the sake of those who are chosen, so that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus and with it eternal glory.
- * 11 It is a trustworthy statement:
 - For if we died with Him, we will also live with Him;
 - 12 If we endure, we will also reign with Him;
 - If we deny Him, He also will deny us;
- ≥ 13 If we are faithless, He remains faithful, for He cannot deny Himself.

An Unashamed Workman

- ▶ 14 Remind them of these things, and solemnly charge them in the presence of God not to wrangle about words, which is useless and leads to the ruin of the hearers.
- ≥ 15 Be diligent to present yourself approved to God as a workman who does not need to be ashamed, accurately handling the word of truth.

16 But avoid worldly and empty chatter, for it will lead to further ungodliness,

- 17 and their talk will spread like ^agangrene. Among them are Hymenaeus and Philetus,
- 18 men who have gone astray from the truth saying that the resurrection has already taken place, and they upset the faith of some.
- 19 Nevertheless, the firm foundation of God ≺ stands, having this seal, "The Lord knows those who are His," and, "Everyone who names the name of the Lord is to abstain from wickedness."
- 20 Now in a large house there are not only gold and silver vessels, but also vessels of wood and of earthenware, and some to honor and some to dishonor.
- 21 Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from these things, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified, useful to the Master, prepared for every good work.
- 22 Now flee from youthful lusts and pursue righteousness, faith, love and peace, with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart.
- 23 But refuse foolish and ignorant speculations, knowing that they produce quarrels.
- 24 The Lord's bond-servant must not be aOr cancer

LIFE LESSONS-

> 2:7 — Consider what I say, for the Lord will give you understanding in everything.

How do we gain spiritual understanding? First, we have to meditate on what God says in His Word—pondering it and turning it over in our minds. Then we have to ask Him to apply His truth to our hearts in a practical way so we can live it out in obedience. Both work together.

> 2:13 — If we are faithless, He remains faithful, for He cannot deny Himself.

here will be times when we stumble in our faith because of the great trials we face. In these times, we must not allow guilt to consume us. We must not fall into the enemy's trap by believing that we have lost our salvation or that God does not care for us. It is essential to remember that from the moment we believe in Jesus, His Spirit indwells us. We belong to Him and are sealed in Him for eternity. Therefore, instead of fretting, we must immediately seek His forgiveness and commit ourselves to obeying Him anew.

> 2:14 — Charge them in the presence of God not to wrangle about words, which is useless and leads to the ruin of the hearers.

Some believe when they quibble over the details of doctrine, they are defending the faith. But what they are really doing is confusing immature believers and avoiding obeying the Lord in preaching the gospel. Great harm has been done to the church because of useless arguments. Remember Christ's words, "Greater love has no one than this, that one lay down his life for his friends" (John 15:13), and never forget that laying down our lives sometimes means putting aside our opinions for the good of others.

> 2:15 — Be diligent to present yourself approved to God as a workman who does not need to be ashamed, accurately handling the word of truth.

Then we stand before Jesus to answer for what we have done, it will become clear what we have done in obedience to Him and what we did for our own glory. When we faithfully obey Him and desire His fellowship, we can look forward to hearing the wonderful words, "Well done, good and faithful slave . . . enter into the joy of your master" (Matt. 25:21).

> 2:19 — "Everyone who names the name of the Lord is to abstain from wickedness."

If we claim to be Christians, then we must live for God according to His calling and standards. His grace does not free us to sin; it gives us the strength and the desire to gladly submit to His will.

quarrelsome, but be kind to all, able to teach, patient when wronged, ▶ 25 with gentleness correcting those who are in opposition, if perhaps God may grant them repentance leading to the knowledge of the truth, 26 and they may come to their senses and escape from the snare of the devil, having been held captive by him to do his will.

"Difficult Times Will Come"

3 BUT realize this, that in the last days difficult times will come.

2 For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, revilers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy,

3 unloving, irreconcilable, malicious gossips, without self-control, brutal, haters of good,

4 treacherous, reckless, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God,

> 5 holding to a form of godliness, although they have denied its power; Avoid such men as these

6 For among them are those who enter into households and captivate weak women weighed down with sins, led on by various impulses,

7 always learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 Just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so these men also oppose the truth, men of depraved mind, rejected in regard to the faith.

9 But they will not make further progress; for their folly will be obvious to all, just as Jannes's and Jambres's folly was also.

10 Now you followed my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, perseverance, 11 persecutions, and sufferings, such as happened to me at Antioch, at Iconium and at Lystra; what persecutions I endured, and out of them all the Lord rescued me!

12 Indeed, all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will be persecuted.

13 But evil men and impostors will proceed from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived.

14 You, however, continue in the things you have learned and become convinced of, knowing from whom you have learned them,

15 and that from childhood you have known the sacred writings which are able to give you the wisdom that leads to salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16 All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness;

17 so that the man of God may be adequate, ≤ equipped for every good work.

"Preach the Word"

4 SOLEMNLY charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and by His appearing and His kingdom:

2 preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with great patience and instruction.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 2:25, 26 — With gentleness correcting those who are in opposition . . . and they may come to their senses and escape from the snare of the devil.

Pe must consider everything we say and do with the perspective of eternity—especially when others tempt us to anger. Ask yourself, "Is my reaction appropriate? Or will it damage my testimony with this person?" Your gracious response to them may be the key that leads them to faith in the Lord, so be sure not to do anything that would ruin that and leave them ensnared to sin

> 3:5 — Holding to a form of godliness, although they have denied its power; avoid such men as these.

here are those who go through the motions of religion but never genuinely trust the Lord as Savior. Because of their unbelief, the subtle but deadly sins of pride, greed, lust, unforgiveness, gossip, and so forth flow from their lives. To these, Jesus will say, "I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness" (Matt. 7:23). They are false prophets who lead people astray, and we should have nothing to do with them.

> 3:12 — All who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will be persecuted.

In our earthly reasoning, we sometimes believe that because God is all-powerful and loves us perfectly. He should protect us from all persecution and suffering. We fail to remember that He uses adversity to deepen our relationship with Him. He warns us that we will suffer—not to discourage us, but to prepare us for the inevitable so that we will have faith in Him and rejoice in our identification with Him when the time comes.

> 3:16 — All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness.

The word inspired means that Scripture was Godbreathed. Throughout history, the Lord chose faithful individuals to communicate His message to the world. Through them, He gave us His Word as an instruction book to guide our lives and as an immoveable anchor to hold us steady in times of storm. The Bible is the final authority for our faith and what we believe, which God reveals to us through His Holy Spirit.

> 3:17 — So that the man of God may be adequate, equipped for every good work.

God gave us His Word for an important reason: our spiritual growth. The Holy Spirit works through Scripture to rebuke and correct us when we sin, to train us in righteousness, to equip us to do His will, and to grow us into His image so that we can become His effective ambassadors for the gospel.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT THE IMPORTANCE OF SCRIPTURE

2 Tim. 3:16, 17

he truth of God's Word applies to all men and women in every culture, in every age, in every walk of life. It is His supernatural manual that alone reveals His mind and ways so that humankind may know and experience His presence and eternal love.

The Bible is God's written record of His works through the ages. It provides substantial evidence of His nature, plan, and purposes so that we can confidently place our faith in Him. Because we have His Word, we are not left to archaeological, historical, or theological guesswork. We can know how to live, make decisions, and worship the Lord, for "it is written" in His Word.

Scripture is divinely inspired. This means that He was involved in every detail that was recorded and written. It is Godbreathed, and it is life's final and ultimate authority. The Bible is the "last word" on issues pertaining to God and His will. No individual, institution, or organization can supersede the authority of Scripture. Likewise, the Bible is God's guide to salvation and wise living. The psalmist wrote, "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path" (119:105).

The Bible is authoritative because it is the truth.

That is exactly why we are admonished not to add to or take away from Scripture (Rev. 22:18, 19). It perfectly expresses the decrees and judgments of almighty God. The Bible is authoritative because it is the truth: "The sum of Your word is truth" (Ps. 119:160).

Through the ministry of the Holy Spirit, the Bible enlightens each individual to recognize personal sin, the need for salvation, and the best possible life course. Without the Bible informing and illumining us, we would be hopelessly unable to know and follow the true and living God. When we say, "Oh, I just wish I could hear God speak to me!" we overlook the fact that He has spoken and is still speaking to us through His Word. He is never silent but is actively involved in every aspect of our lives (Rom. 3:2; Heb. 5:12).

The Bible is also profitable and nourishing. It provides us with an advantage in every department of life—family, business, and personal relationships. It is profitable because it reflects the wisdom of God; and when we abide by its teachings, we learn to live in His peace. As we meditate and consider its truth, our spirits and souls find nourishment. We become established and enriched in every experience of life by living according to God's perspective.

The Bible is the Book for everyone. It is revelation, inspiration, and communication of the Person and plan of the eternal, living, and powerful God.

Laboring in the Background

2 TIM. 4:11

We know so little about Luke. The Bible contains only three references to him (Col. 4:14; 2 Tim. 4:11; Philem. 24), but we can catch a glimpse of the man whom God used to write two major New Testament books.

Luke was probably a Greek physician and often traveled with Paul (Col. 4:14). Tradition calls him a native of Antioch and says he died unmarried and childless at the age of eighty-four.

He wrote Luke and Acts to fellow Gentiles, reassuring them that Christ came for all mankind. Luke's Gospel emphasizes the manhood of Jesus in all its perfection and stresses the plight of women, children, and the poor, sick, and outcast.

Luke labored without regard to himself or the persecution that raged around him. He did so by dying to self and living for the Lord, whom he came to love more and more through his careful interviews.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 4:3 — The time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine.

Itime is coming when people will outright reject the truth of God's Word, picking and choosing what to believe based on their desires and preferences. They will follow the false doctrine of ungodly teachers who preach what they want to hear. As they did in Paul's time, they will persecute believers. However, we must remain steadfast in our faith, knowing that we don't answer to them. We are accountable to Jesus, who will "judge the living and the dead" (2 Tim. 4:1).

> 4:7 — I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith.

Hithough Paul had been beaten, imprisoned, shipwrecked, stoned, and even left for dead, he never lost his faith but followed the Lord Jesus based on the truth of His Word and in anticipation of the rewards He had stored up for him. If we wish to end well as the apostle Paul did, we must do likewise, recalling the past with thanksgiving, being wholeheartedly committed to the Lord's calling, and believing in His promises no matter our circumstances, just as he did.

> 4:11 — Only Luke is with me.

Why do you suppose God chose Luke—a physician—to travel with and encourage Paul in these last years of his life? Surely, it was because Luke was able to minister to Paul's physical wounds and health needs. Yet there was another reason. Luke learned a great deal from the imprisoned apostle. Like Paul, he ministered to the Gentiles, writing his Gospel account for a non-Jewish audience. Also, by traveling with Paul, he was able to chronicle the history of the church in the Book of Acts.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

How can I cope with feelings of loneliness?

2 TIM. 4:9-22

Gaul endured prison alone, where he felt deeply isolated. In the last months of his life, he gave us the wonderful secret of what to do in times of intense loneliness.

First, he recognized the presence of God. He wrote that the Lord stood with him (2 Tim. 4:17). Paul couldn't change his situation, but in that lonely, damp prison cell, he remembered that God was with him.

Second, Paul dealt with loneliness by recalling how God faithfully strengthened him (2 Tim. 4:17). The Lord supported Paul, infusing him with strength. The apostle knew that no one could take his life without God's permission. We often quote Philippians 4:13: "I can do all things through Him who strengthens me." It is significant that Paul was confined to prison as he wrote these words. Even though he faced discouraging circumstances, he had an unwavering sense of hope within because he understood the truth that his life was totally under the omnipotent, watchful care of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Third, Paul combated his feelings of loneliness by reminding himself that he had the awesome privilege of fulfilling God's purpose for his life. What incredible encouragement that is—to know we are part of God's providential plan! David also found encouragement in the 15 Be on guard against him yourself, for he vigorously opposed our teaching.

Lord's presence. Many of the psalms he penned were written as a result of the utmost dire situations. Yet he wrote these words: "This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him and saved him out of all his troubles" (Ps. 34:6).

In his loneliness, Paul treasured the company of his friends. He wrote that Luke remained with him and urged Timothy and Mark to join him. He mentioned four people by name who comforted him: Eubulus, Pudens, Linus, and Claudia (2 Tim. 4:21). We know nothing about those four people, other than they stuck with the apostle Paul. That has to be one of the greatest compliments they could have been paid.

Finally, Paul asked Timothy to bring some books with him, "especially the parchments" (2 Tim. 4:13). These priceless documents were no doubt the Word of God. Knowing the apostle Paul, we may assume that he hungered for copies of Scripture. In an hour of great loneliness, the Word of God brings great comfort.

The Lord Jesus Christ felt totally alone as He faced His own death. The Bible says, "All the disciples left Him and fled" (Matt. 26:56). And on the Cross He cried out, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?" (Matt. 27:46). Jesus knows all about loneliness. Yet He also knows the joy of being carried through the loneliest of times on the wings of faith, confident that the Father will never abandon us. He stands as the ultimate example of One who faced the perils of loneliness without losing heart.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO

itus, a young pastor, faced the unenviable assignment of setting the church at Crete in order. Not only was the church in disarray, but it was also strongly influenced by the immorality of the Cretan culture. Paul advised Titus to appoint elders, men of proven spiritual character, to oversee the work of the church so that Titus could eventually join him in Nicopolis.

Paul admonished all believers of the church in Crete to excel spiritually. Men and women, young and old, each had vital functions to fulfill so they could be living examples of the doctrine they professed. Throughout his letter, Paul stressed the necessary, practical working out of salvation in the daily lives of both the elders and the congregation they served. Obedience to God—which works itself out in good deeds and admirable conduct—is desirable and profitable for all believers.

Unfortunately, the believers on the island of Crete seemed to fall far short of this. Paul cited a local commentary about the Cretans, "Always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons.' This testimony is true. For this reason reprove them severely so that they may be sound in the faith" (Titus 1:12, 13). He also warned Titus about those who "profess to know God, but by their deeds they deny Him, being detestable and disobedient and worthless for any good deed" (v. 16).

Yet how was Titus to help these struggling believers to obey the righteous commands of the Lord? Should he condemn them? Threaten them? Force them to obey through coercion or some other harsh means? No. There was only one force that could turn the tide: grace. Paul explained, "The grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men, instructing us to deny ungodliness and worldly desires and to live sensibly, righteously and godly in the present age" (Titus 2:11, 12). Our Savior Jesus Christ died on the Cross "to redeem us from every lawless deed, and to purify for Himself a people for His own possession, zealous for good deeds" (v. 14).

This pastoral epistle is simply titled Pros Titon, "To Titus." Ironically, this was also the name of the Roman general who destroyed Jerusalem in A.D. 70, and later succeeded his father, Vespasian, as emperor.

Theme: God saves us by His grace to live in a way that honors and pleases Him.

Author: The apostle Paul.

Time: Probably written circa A.D. 64–66.

Structure: After a brief greeting (1:1–4), Paul gives instructions about church leadership (vv. 5–9), gives a warning about false teachers (vv. 10–16), describes a healthy church (2:1—3:11), and finishes with some miscellaneous instructions and a farewell (3:12–15).

LIFE LESSONS-

> 1:2 — The hope of eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, promised long ages ago.

The Greek deities of Crete were famous for their deceptions. However, the Lord is the holy source of truth (John 14:6) and would never lie to His people (Heb. 6:18). We can always count on God to fulfill His promises and to be trustworthy in everything He tells us.

> 1:5 — Set in order what remains and appoint elders in every city as I directed you.

Paul sent Titus to Crete, a very difficult place to pastor, because it was a terribly immoral society. Those Titus chose to be elders would have to be very strong believers who were above reproach and not easily influenced by the corruption around them. Likewise, as we live in a society that is moving away from God, we must stay steadfast and live godly lives so that others will see Christ living through us and become saved.

> 1:9 — Holding fast the faithful word which is in accordance with the teaching, so that he will be able both to exhort in sound doctrine and to refute those who contradict.

o hold fast means to grip tightly and apply God's Word—this is absolutely essential for living a godly life because the Bible is an unshakable anchor in every situation. It has often been noted that the dirtier, the more used, and the more worn the pages in your Bible, the cleaner your heart. Why? Because "the word of God is living and active" (Heb. 4:12). Through the power of His Holy Spirit, Scripture transforms you—equipping you with sound doctrine to teach others and protecting you from those who oppose the Lord.

> 1:13 — For this reason reprove them severely so that they may be sound in the faith.

It's no fun to reprove someone severely. In fact, the apostle Paul often did it with weeping (Phil. 3:18). Unfortunately, it's sometimes unavoidable—as was the case with the believers in Crete, who were being influenced by the ungodly culture surrounding them. When discipline becomes necessary, it's the most loving thing you can do.

> 1:16 — They profess to know God, but by their deeds they deny Him.

Is believers, we are called to be set apart and reflect the godly character of Christ so others can know Him as Savior. Unfortunately, the world in which we live is opposed to this. So instead of challenging ungodly cultural norms or repenting from sinful behavior, we are sometimes tempted to compromise and avoid conflict. This was the case in Crete, but the result was that these believers were destroying their testimony by denying they knew God at all. It is completely incompatible to confess Christ and ignore His commands.

> 2:2, 3 — Be temperate, dignified, sensible, sound in faith, in love, in perseverance . . . teaching what is good.

In every community and church, what is most needed is for believers to be obedient to God, strong, godly, and willing to stand for what is right—no matter what sacrifice

Serving God with Abandon

TITUS 1:4

In the days following Titus's conversion, a deep love and mutual respect grew between him and the apostle Paul, a bond that lasted throughout their days. So strong was their connection that Paul referred to Titus as "my true child in a common faith" (Titus 1:4).

Paul saw in this new believer a rare and refreshing quality. Trustworthy and dependable as he was, it was no surprise that

- 5 to be sensible, pure, workers at home, kind, being subject to their own husbands, so that the word of God will not be dishonored.

- > 7 in all things show yourself to be an example of good deeds, with purity in doctrine, dignified.
- > 8 sound in speech which is beyond reproach, so that the opponent will be put to shame, having nothing bad to say about us.
 - 9 Urge bondslaves to be subject to their own masters in everything, to be well-pleasing, not argumentative,

Paul would write of Titus, "He is my partner and fellow worker" (2 Cor. 8:23). Consequently, Titus traveled with Paul to places such as Corinth, Antioch, and Jerusalem.

Titus is a picture of God's grace. As a redeemed Gentile, he experienced intimate fellowship with God. And because he willingly served unselfishly in places of obscurity, he became a treasured instrument for the Lord's glory.

What could God do with us if we served Him with the same abandon as Titus?

is required. When we surrender our lives to Him, the Lord works powerfully through us to transform the world for the sake of His kingdom.

> 2:7 — In all things show yourself to be an example of good deeds, with purity in doctrine, dignified.

here are certain traits that should characterize a believer who serves the Lord. We are to obey Him in doing good works, so others can see His love and kindness through us (John 13:34, 35). We are to teach His Word with passion and conviction so that others will learn to follow Him in obedience (2 Tim. 3:14–17). And we are to live with dignity—fleeing from sin and living in reverence to His will—because we realize that we represent Him in the world, and the rewards He has reserved for us are awesome (Col. 3:23, 24).

> 2:8 — Sound in speech which is beyond reproach, so that the opponent will be put to shame, having nothing bad to say about us.

nust set a guard over our mouths—always speaking with honesty, sincerity, and wisdom—because when we speak deceitfully, hypocritically, or foolishly, we damage our testimony for the Lord. In all things, we must be different from the world, seeking God's holy standard in our conduct and speech.

> 2:11 — The grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men.

Salvation is available to everyone because of the Lord Jesus' sacrifice on the Cross (John 3:16–18). However, not all will be saved because some will reject the provision for forgiveness He offers and will bear the full penalty of their sins (John 3:36). Those who remain stubborn and refuse God's grace will be excluded from salvation because they have chosen disobedience over obedience.

> 2:14 — To purify for Himself a people for His own possession, zealous for good deeds.

The idea that Christianity is merely a social club and that believers have no responsibility other than believing in God absolutely contradicts Scripture. We are to be zealously pursuing the work the Lord has called us to do (Eph. 2:10)—motivated by faith and hope in Him and committed to serving others and leading them into a growing relationship with Jesus Christ. We are also to grow deeper in our love and devotion to Him through prayer and Bible Study so that we will obey, glorify, and please Him always.

> 3:2 — To malign no one, to be peaceable, gentle, showing every consideration for all men.

Gesus had all power, yet He came to serve, not to be served (Mark 10:45). Therefore, Paul admonishes, "Do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit, but with humility of mind regard one another as more important than yourselves" (Phil. 2:3). We are to resemble Christ in all ways, especially in the manner we treat others.

> 3:3 — We also once were foolish ourselves, disobedient, deceived, enslaved to various lusts and pleasures, spending our life in malice and envy, hateful, hating one another.

Od loves us—even when we are at our worst (Ps. 73:21–24; Rom. 5:8). Without Christ's forgiveness and the Holy Spirit living within us, we would continue to be mired in the same sinful behaviors. We must always remember this when dealing with others because it will help to keep us humble and compassionate towards those we minister to > 3:5 — He saved us, not on the basis of deeds which we have done in righteousness, but according to His mercy.

There is not anything we could possibly say or do that would motivate God to save us. He offers us salvation completely because of His mighty grace, which was displayed on the Cross (Rom. 11:6). He cleanses us, imparts us with a new nature, and gives us eternal life because of His great love for us.

> 3:8 — Those who have believed God will be careful to engage in good deeds.

Tre we living in a manner that reflects the purpose and work of the Lord Jesus? Are we learning to be helpers, encouragers, and servants—giving ourselves away? Are we faithfully reading God's Word, remaining fervent in prayer, and devotedly worshiping Him? Are we obeying the Lord, no matter what He asks of us? This is the evidence that we really believe in God and that we have truly embraced His salvation (2 Pet. 1:3–8).

> 3:9 — Avoid foolish controversies and genealogies and strife and disputes about the Law, for they are unprofitable and worthless.

Those trying to disrupt the church in Crete were confusing and misleading the people by discussing genealogies, myths, speculative theories, and strange philosophies. Paul admonished Titus to avoid such useless discussions because they distracted believers from the Lord's purpose for their lives. However, when God is in the center of our conversation, all that we say and do will reflect His love and truth.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO

s it really possible to live out our Christian brotherly love as Jesus intended, even in situations of extraordinary tension and difficulty? Will it be feasible, for example, for a prominent slave owner to put such a high standard into practice with a runaway slave?

Paul had no doubt that it would.

The apostle writes to Philemon, his beloved brother and fellow believer, on behalf of Onesimus—the thief and fugitive slave who had deserted Philemon's household. Paul explains that he met Onesimus while imprisoned in Rome. Through his ministry, Onesimus accepted Jesus as his Savior and was now a fruitful brother in Christ (Philem. 10, 11; also Col. 4:9). With much tact and tenderness, Paul asks Philemon to receive Onesimus back with the same love and commitment with which he would receive Paul himself. Ordinarily, a runaway slave would be treated harshly and could even be put to death. But the apostle carefully reminds Philemon that, in Christ, Onesimus is now a fellow heir to the grace of God and should be treated as such. Knowing Philemon well, Paul feels confident that brotherly love and forgiveness will result and that the Lord Jesus will be glorified in their situation.

Philemon was likely one of Paul's converts and very likely held church services in his home in Colossae. Since this letter is addressed to him in verse 1, it became known as Pros Philemona, "To Philemon." Like 1 and 2 Timothy and Titus, it is addressed to an individual; but unlike the Pastoral Epistles, Philemon is also addressed to a family and a church (v. 2).

Themes: We are to forgive and restore our fellow brothers and sisters in Christ, even as our Savior has forgiven and restored us.

Author: The apostle Paul.

Time: Likely written from prison in Rome circa A.D. 60–62 to Philemon and others at Colossae. Paul may have written Philemon during the same time he wrote Colossians.

Structure: Paul greets his old friend (1–3), gives thanks for him and describes his prayers for him (4–7), makes his plea for Onesimus (8–21), and concludes his short letter (22–25).

As you read Philemon, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

Doing the Hard Thing

PHILEM, 13

By the grace of God, Onesimus, a runaway slave, crossed Paul's path and became a follower of Jesus Christ. Paul then urged him to return to his master, who was the apostle's old friend and a fellow believer

The apostle wrote to Philemon, the owner of Onesimus, expressing a desire to find a way to keep the new convert with him, "that on your behalf he might minister to me in my imprisonment for the gospel" (Philem. 13). He also mentions Onesimus in the book of Colossians: "Onesimus, our faithful and beloved brother, who is one of your number" (Col. 4:9).

Although he stood condemned by Roman law because he had run away, Onesimus had become a close personal friend of Paul, ministering to his personal needs as a prisoner. No doubt this former runaway slave was fearful of returning home—but he did so out of respect for Paul and love for God.

> 1, 2 — To Philemon . . . and to the church in your

Although the apostles would preach in the synagogues in an attempt to evangelize their Jewish brethren, early church services were not generally held in grand buildings. Believers met in homes to study the Word, pray, and fellowship together (Acts 2:42). Philemon had one of these churches in his home in Colossae.

> 9 — Paul, the aged, and now also a prisoner of Christ Jesus.

This letter was written during Paul's imprisonment in Rome. It was under his teaching that Onesimus—a runaway slave—had become a Christian. Unable to accompany Onesimus back to his master's house in Colossae, Paul wrote to Philemon on his behalf, asking Philemon to forgive Openimus

➤ 10, 12 — I appeal to you for my child Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my imprisonment . . . I have sent him back to you in person, that is, sending my very heart.

It must have been extremely difficult for Onesimus to do the right thing—to return to Colossae and accept whatever punishment awaited him. More than likely, it also weighed heavily on Paul's heart. He had grown so close to Onesimus and had watched this man's faith blossom under his mentorship. Both were probably aware that Philemon had a right to put the new convert to death for his crimes. As believers, our charge is not to avoid the difficulties of life but to obey God. So Onesimus himself carried this letter to Philemon.

on your behalf he might minister to me in my imprisonment for the gospel;

- ➤ 14 but without your consent I did not want to do anything, so that your goodness would not be, in effect, by compulsion but of your own free will.

> 14 — Without your consent I did not want to do anything, so that your goodness would not be, in effect, by compulsion but of your own free will.

aul encouraged Philemon to make the right decision of his own accord. Likewise, the Lord will give us opportunities to follow Him in faith, and we should do the same, regardless of the cost. God has the power to compel us to do anything He wants, but He does not normally choose to use that power. Why not? Because He wants our willing and joyful obedience, not grudging submission. And if we truly believe His way is best, we will have no trouble doing exactly as He says.

> 15 — Perhaps he was for this reason separated from you for a while, that you would have him back forever.

aul did not know why Onesimus ran away from his master. No doubt his escape caused an economic setback for Philemon. But Paul understood that trusting God in this situation would include looking beyond human reasoning. The Lord undoubtedly had a great purpose for both Onesimus and Philemon, and He would be glorified through the lives of these men.

> 16 — No longer as a slave, but more than a slave, a beloved brother, especially to me.

Pe may wonder what kind of ministry a fugitive slave could have in ancient Rome, but Onesimus became extremely important and helpful to the apostle Paul. This demonstrates how God can take our sinful mistakes and turn them around for His glory. While we see only a runaway servant, the Lord saw a person with great potential—one that could be equipped for a special ministry. But the step was one of surrender to God's commands.

> 18, 19 — If he has wronged you in any way or owes you anything, charge that to my account; I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand, I will repay it.

That an absolutely awesome offer! Paul basically reminds Philemon what Christ did on the Cross for everyone who believes in Him. Jesus cancelled the debt of our sin (Rom. 6:23; Col. 2:13, 14). He took away our sin and the wrath we deserve. He gave us His righteousness in return so we can have an intimate relationship with Him.

> 20 — Yes, brother, let me benefit from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in Christ.

Pe give others joy in the Lord when we act in obedience to Him. We refresh their hearts when the love of Jesus shines through us and we make godly decisions. It not only delights those who teach us to see our progress in the faith, but it also encourages other believers that they can likewise obey the Lord in full confidence and faith.

THE EPISTLE TO THE HEBREWS

any Jews who trusted in Jesus Christ as their Messiah and Savior soon found themselves persecuted by their countrymen. Some of them wanted to reverse course in order to escape suffering for their identification with Christ. The writer of Hebrews responds by declaring, "Let us hold fast our confession" (4:14), and exhorts his readers to "press on to maturity" (6:1).

He makes his appeal based on the superiority of Christ over the old Judaic system. Christ is better than the angels, for they worship Him. He is better than Moses, for He created Moses and empowered him to serve. He is better than the Aaronic priesthood, for He ministers forever and offers the infinitely valuable sacrifice of Himself. He is better than the law, for He mediates an eternal covenant. There is far more to be gained by embracing Christ than there is to be lost by chasing the emptiness of the world. Living life for Jesus Christ produces tested faith, self-discipline, godly love, and divine rewards worth far more than anything this world has to offer.

The Book of Hebrews reminds us of the best way to persevere in the faith: "Fixing our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith . . . consider Him who has endured such hostility by sinners against Himself, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart" (Heb. 12:2, 3).

No early manuscript evidence names the author in the title, although tradition assigns authorship to the apostle Paul. The oldest and most reliable title is simply, Pros Ebraious, "To the Hebrews."

Theme: Since Jesus Christ is superior in every way to the old covenant, it only makes sense to persevere in Him and so reap the amazing rewards He offers faithful believers.

Authors: Unknown. Some conclude that significant stylistic and thematic differences with the known letters of the apostle Paul make it unlikely that he wrote the book. Many scholars believe Luke, Barnabas, and Apollos are the leading candidates.

Time: Most likely written before A.D. 70, since if the temple had been destroyed by the time of its writing, it seems the author would surely have noted this (Heb. 8:3, 4).

Structure: The book has three primary sections. In the first section (1-10), Christ is portrayed as better than the elements of the old covenant. The second section (11-12) features a plea for believers to persevere in their Christian faith. The final section (13) concludes the book and gives some final exhortations.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 1:2 — In these last days [God] has spoken to us in His Son.

Hebrews is addressed to Jewish Christians who were facing terrible persecution within their communities because of their confession of Christ. The author affirms that they are not following a different religion, but the completion of the true faith in the Lord. God has always spoken to His people through the prophets and other faithful individuals who have communicated His message. However, when it came to providing for and explaining the salvation He has given on the Cross, the Lord came Himself.

> 1:3 — He is the radiance of His glory and the exact representation of His nature . . . When He had made purification of sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high.

There is only one God. Believers in Jesus Christ should never forsake this foundational belief—they understand it in a deeper manner. Jesus is far better than just a great teacher or a mighty prophet. He is the Lord Himself. In fact, He is "God with us" (Matt. 1:23). If you want to understand what God is like, look to Jesus (John 1:1, 14–18; 14:9). And as Jesus sits at the right hand of the Majesty—the place of honor—He faithfully represent us (Heb. 2:17, 18; 4:14–16).

> 1:8 — Of the Son He says, "Your throne, O God, is forever and ever, and the righteous scepter is the scepter of His kingdom."

By contrasting how God refers to the angels and how He addresses Jesus, the author shows our Savior's superior and exalted position. Repeatedly, the Lord Himself identifies Christ as an integral Person of the Godhead (Deut. 32:43; Ps. 2:7; 45:6, 7; 102:25–27; 110:1; Is. 61:1–3, etc.). Jesus is God in the flesh (John 10:30; Phil. 2:5–11). He is to be worshiped as Lord, praised as Creator, recognized as Ruler, and glorified as our only Savior.

> 1:14 — Are they not all ministering spirits, sent out to render service for the sake of those who will inherit salvation?

In Greek, the word angel actually means "a messenger, envoy, or one who is sent by God." We may not see most of their activity, but the Lord has given His angels the job of ministering to us—of bringing us His message, grace, and protection. We may never know how often an angel spared us from injury, guided us to safety, or engineered some success. However, we can know that they did so as vessels of God's perfect provision for us (Ps. 103:19–21). Therefore, they do not receive the glory—He does.

- how will we escape if we neglect so great a salvation? After it was at the first spoken through the Lord, it was confirmed to us by those who heard,
 - God also testifying with them, both by signs and wonders and by various miracles and by gifts of the Holy Spirit according to His own will.

Earth Subject to Man

- For He did not subject to angels the world to come, concerning which we are speaking.
- But one has testified somewhere, saying, "What is man, that You remember him? OR THE SON OF MAN, THAT YOU ARE CONCERNED ABOUT HIM?
- "You have made him for a little while LOWER THAN THE ANGELS;
 - You have crowned him with glory and HONOR,
 - ^aAnd have appointed him over the WORKS OF YOUR HANDS;
- YOU HAVE PUT ALL THINGS IN SUBJECTION UNDER HIS FEET."

For in subjecting all things to him, He left nothing that is not subject to him. But now we do not yet see all things subjected to him.

Jesus Briefly Humbled

- But we do see Him who was made for a little while lower than the angels, namely, Jesus, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, so that by the grace of God He might taste death for everyone
- > 10 For it was fitting for Him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to perfect the author of their salvation through sufferings.

11 For both He who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all from one Father; for which reason He is not ashamed to call them brethren.

12 saying,
"I will proclaim Your name to My BRETHREN.

> In the midst of the congregation I will SING YOUR PRAISE."

13 And again,

"I WILL PUT MY TRUST IN HIM." And again.

"Behold, I and the children whom God has given Me."

- 14 Therefore, since the children share in \triangleleft flesh and blood, He Himself likewise also partook of the same, that through death He might render powerless him who had the power of death, that is, the devil,
- 15 and might free those who through fear of death were subject to slavery all their lives.
- 16 For assuredly He does not give help to angels, but He gives help to the descendant of Abraham.
- 17 Therefore, He had to be made like His ≺ brethren in all things, so that He might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people.
- 18 For since He Himself was tempted in that \triangleleft which He has suffered. He is able to come to the aid of those who are tempted.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 2:3 — How will we escape if we neglect so great a salvation?

ur salvation is the gift of eternal life to us through Christ. Every sin we have committed has been forgiven. Yet there may be times when we will drift away from the Lord because we fail to walk in the center of His will. When we focus on anything other than God, we drift away from His purpose for us and hasten our path to destruction. We neglect the great gift He has given and the wisdom available to us as believers.

2:10 — It was fitting for Him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to perfect the author of their salvation through sufferings.

 η s our Lord, Jesus was already perfect, and as our sin- ${\cal H}$ less Savior, He was completely without fault. So how could suffering possibly improve Him? Because it was through His pain and sorrow that—although complete in knowledge and wisdom—He was perfected in His understanding of how limited we are, how difficult our lives can be, how desperate we are when we lack something we need, and how hopeless our separation from God truly is. He knows how best to sanctify us—or transform us into His image—and has become the ideal example for us to follow (ls. 53:3-5).

> 2:14 — That through death He might render powerless him who had the power of death, that is, the devil.

The consequence of sin is death—eternal separation from God (Rom. 6:23). In order to pay the penalty that sin requires, Jesus died on the Cross. He was God's perfect sacrifice and the atonement for our transgressions. Through death, He defeated the enemy and triumphed over the grave (James 1:15). We have eternal life and the opportunity to have an intimate relationship with God because Jesus died for us.

> 2:17 — He had to be made like His brethren in all things, so that He might become a merciful and faithful high priest.

In the Old Testament, God's people relied on imperfect priests to represent them before His throne. These priests were limited because they did not fully understand God's mercy, grace, and forgiveness. Jesus Christ became man so He could identify with us as our faithful High Priest. Jesus left heaven and became a man not only to become the sacrifice for our sins but also to experience what we feel and to know exactly what it's like to be one of us. That's what makes Him our great Advocate and our absolutely perfect representative on the throne of grace.

Jesus Our High Priest

THEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider Jesus, the Apostle and High Priest of our confession;

2 He was faithful to Him who appointed Him, as Moses also was in all His house.

- ▶ 3 For He has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, by just so much as the builder of the house has more honor than the house.
 - 4 For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God.
 - 5 Now Moses was faithful in all His house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken later;
- ▶ 6 but Christ was faithful as a Son over His house—whose house we are, if we hold fast our confidence and the boast of our hope firm until the end.
 - 7 Therefore, just as the Holy Spirit says, "Today if you hear His voice,
 - 8 Do not harden your hearts as when they provoked Me,
 - As in the day of trial in the wilderness,
 - 9 Where your fathers tried Me by testing Me,

AND SAW MY WORKS FOR FORTY YEARS.

- $10\,$ "Therefore I was angry with this generation,
 - And said, 'They always go astray in their heart,

AND THEY DID NOT KNOW MY WAYS';

11 As I swore in My wrath, 'They shall not enter My rest.'"

The Peril of Unbelief

- 12 Take care, brethren, that there not be in ≺ any one of you an evil, unbelieving heart that falls away from the living God.
- 13 But encourage one another day after day, ≺ as long as it is still called "Today," so that none of you will be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.
- 14 For we have become partakers of Christ, if we hold fast the beginning of our assurance firm until the end,
- 15 while it is said,

"Today if you hear His voice,

- Do not harden your hearts, as when they provoked Me."
- 16 For who provoked Him when they had heard? Indeed, did not all those who came out of Egypt led by Moses?
- 17 And with whom was He angry for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness?
- 18 And to whom did He swear that they ✓ would not enter His rest, but to those who were disobedient?
- 19 So we see that they were not able to enter because of unbelief.

LIFE LESSONS

> 2:18 — Since He Himself was tempted in that which He has suffered, He is able to come to the aid of those who are tempted.

Jesus knows what it feels like to be tempted. He understands our weaknesses, pains, insecurities, and fears, and He wants to help us break free from them and from the unforgiveness we feel towards ourselves. We can never say to Him, "You don't know what it's like to be me," because He does. In fact, we know less of the pain of temptation than He does because He never gave in to it.

> 3:3 — He has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses.

oses was one of the most celebrated leaders in biblical history. God worked through him to deliver the Israelites from Egypt and then to lead them to the threshold of the Promised Land. However, Jesus is greater than Moses because He is God in the flesh. He existed before Moses. He formed him and empowered him to triumph over Pharaoh. Jesus is exalted above Moses because the deliverance He offers is eternal.

> 3:6 — We hold fast our confidence and the boast of our hope firm until the end.

Those who truly accept Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord must persevere in their faith until the end, no matter what happens. One of the hallmarks of a genuine relationship with God is the commitment to remain faithful to Him through everything because of the conviction that He is sovereign and able to work all things to the good of those who believe in Him, regardless of the situation.

> 3:12 — Take care, brethren, that there not be in any one of you an evil, unbelieving heart that falls away from the living God.

The writer reminds us of the dire consequences of unbelief by recalling the generation of Israelites who died in the wilderness rather than trust God to give them the Promised Land (Num. 13:25—14:38; Deut. 1:21–38; Ps. 95:7–11). Though we do not lose our salvation through unbelief once we've accepted Christ as our Savior, we will miss out on the very best God has for us. Eventually, our lack of trust in Him will hinder our growth and relationship with the Lord and will ultimately result in frustration and heartache

> 3:13 — Encourage one another day after day, as long as it is still called "Today," so that none of you will be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.

To Christian has ever been called to "go it alone" in his or her walk of faith. None of us can progress in our relationship with the Lord or stay true to Him without the help and encouragement of fellow believers. We need others to support us and keep us accountable so that sin will not find a foothold in our hearts. In fact, we need this kind of healthy interaction every day because we require constant reminders of God's unfailing love to us.

> 3:18 — To whom did He swear that they would not enter His rest, but to those who were disobedient?

There is a clear connection between unbelief and disobedience. When we refuse to submit to God's call, it is always because we do not believe either His promises of blessing or His warnings against rebellion.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT YOUR IDENTITY IN CHRIST

ebrews 3:1 tells us, "Therefore, holy brethren, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider Jesus, the Apostle and High Priest of our confession." This verse overflows with hope and assurance for the believer.

First, note that it's addressed to the "holy brethren." This refers to anyone who has trusted Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. The word holy signifies that believers have been set apart for God. Because of who you are in Christ, God loves you. Your profession, salary, appearance, or nationality does not define you. Only your status as a child of God gives you the special identity you enjoy.

As one of the "partakers of a heavenly calling," your destination is heaven. Your heart resides with Christ, where your home is. Knowing where your home is means you aren't searching for earth—this temporary dwelling—to satisfy you. Regardless of what happens around you, you can rejoice because this life does not hold you—God does.

Your heart resides with Christ, where your home is.

By knowing who you are in Christ, you can deny all the false messages of the world. Many strident voices will try to convince you that you're not pretty enough, smart enough, or successful enough. But your identity in Christ alone completes you! You can add nothing to it, and this world's detractors can take nothing from it.

The final phrase of Hebrews 3:1 reminds us that Jesus is our "Apostle and High Priest." The first title signifies that Jesus represents God to us. When we want to know what God is like or how God would act in a given situation, we look to Jesus. The second title signifies that Jesus represents us to God. God looks at His children through the eyes of His blameless and holy Son.

The command in this verse tells believers to "consider Jesus." The word consider means "to observe or think." We are to observe Christ, meditate on His Word, and imitate what we see.

Let the assurance of your identity, home, and Lord inspire you to explore new depths of God and serve Him with all your heart. You won't be disappointed!

The Believer's Rest

4 THEREFORE, let us fear if, while a promise remains of entering His rest, any one of you may seem to have come short of it.

- 2 For indeed we have had good news preached to us, just as they also; but the word they heard did not profit them, because it was not united by faith in those who heard.
- 3 For we who have believed enter that rest, just as He has said,

"As I swore in My wrath,

They shall not enter My rest," although His works were finished from the foundation of the world.

- 4 For He has said somewhere concerning the seventh day: "And God rested on the seventh day from all His works";
- 5~ and again in this $\it passage,~$ "They shall not enter My rest."
- ▶ 6 Therefore, since it remains for some to enter it, and those who formerly had good news preached to them failed to enter because of disobedience,
 - 7 He again fixes a certain day, "Today," saying through David after so long a time just as has been said before,

"Today if you hear His voice,

Do not harden your hearts."

8 For if Joshua had given them rest, He would not have spoken of another day after that.

- 9 So there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God.
- 10 For the one who has entered His rest has himself also rested from his works, as God did from His.
- 11 Therefore let us be diligent to enter that rest, so that no one will fall, through following the same example of disobedience.
- 12 For the word of God is living and active ≺ and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing as far as the division of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart.
- 13 And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are open and laid bare to the eyes of Him with whom we have to do.
- 14 Therefore, since we have a great high ✓ priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession.
- 15 For we do not have a high priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but One who has been tempted in all things as we are, yet without sin.
- 16 Therefore let us draw near with confidence to the throne of grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 4:6 — It remains for some to enter it, and those who formerly had good news preached to them failed to enter because of disobedience.

The author equates those who doubt the Lord's provision of the Sabbath (Ex. 20:10)—who decline to rest because of unbelief—to those who refuse to accept His perfect gift of salvation. This faithlessness comes from the idea that if we work harder, we will become more acceptable to the Lord and do better for ourselves. However, God is clear: "To obey is better than sacrifice" (1 Sam. 15:22). He values your obedience, submission, and faith above your service.

> 4:12 — The word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword . . . and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

The Bible lives, both because the Lord brought it into existence and because His Spirit brings its message to life in our hearts. It has His power to transform our lives and to keep us steadfastly anchored to Him when the storms of life strike. No other book in history has the inspiration, truth, and power of the Word of God.

> 4:14 — We have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession.

Pe have no reason to doubt Jesus as our High Priest because He has been there—He has seen what is ahead for us in eternal life. Whereas other priests can only conjecture about what heaven is like, Jesus not only lived in the kingdom to come, but He created it. He is God. His knowledge, power, wisdom, presence, and love for us are perfect. Though other priests were merely a foreshadowing of His coming and were required to refer to the law about remaining in right standing with God, He makes us acceptable before Him and is the perfect example for us of how to have a relationship with Him.

> 4:15 — We do not have a high priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but One who has been tempted in all things as we are, yet without sin.

o you realize the privilege we have in being able to go to God in prayer? As believers, we have the absolute freedom to approach the Lord at any moment to ask for His wisdom, comfort, and power, and it is all because Jesus is our High Priest—our faithful Savior and representative. Because Jesus knows what it feels like to be tempted in every way just as we are, He is sympathetic toward us and knows how to move us on to maturity. His desire is to guide us through our troubles in a way that glorifies Him and makes us into effective ambassadors for His kingdom.

> 4:16 — Let us draw near with confidence to the throne of grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Mercy means that God does not give us what we deserve. That is, our sinfulness warrants His judgment, but because of Jesus Christ, He is compassionate and forgiving toward us (Rom. 8:1). Grace means that He gives us what we do not deserve. We aren't worthy of the Lord's love, favor, and salvation, but He has given them to us freely because of Christ. God wants us to come with confidence into His presence—not timidly, anxiously, or in fear of how He might respond. He wants to help us, and He has everything we need to confront any challenge we might face. So never be afraid to approach the Father in prayer. He loves you and wants you to draw near, and because of His great mercy and grace, you can.

The Perfect High Priest

5 FOR every high priest taken from among men is appointed on behalf of men in things pertaining to God, in order to offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins;

- 2 he can deal gently with the ignorant and misguided, since he himself also is beset with weakness;
- 3 and because of it he is obligated to offer sacrifices for sins, as for the people, so also for himself.
- ▶ 4 And no one takes the honor to himself, but receives it when he is called by God, even as Aaron was.
- > 5 So also Christ did not glorify Himself so as to become a high priest, but He who said to Him,

"YOU ARE MY SON,

TODAY I HAVE BEGOTTEN YOU";

- just as He says also in another passage,
 - "You are a priest forever According to the order of Melchizedek."
- ▶ 7 In the days of His flesh, He offered up both prayers and supplications with loud crying and tears to the One able to save Him from death, and He was heard because of His piety.
- Although He was a Son, He learned obedience from the things which He suffered.
- ≥ 9 And having been made perfect, He became to all those who obey Him the source of eternal salvation,

- 10 being designated by God as a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.
- 11 Concerning ahim we have much to say, and it is hard to explain, since you have become dull of hearing.
- 12 For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you have need again for someone to teach you the elementary principles of the oracles of God, and you have come to need milk and not solid food.
- 13 For everyone who partakes only of milk is not accustomed to the word of righteousness, for he is an infant.

The Peril of Falling Away

6 THEREFORE leaving the elementary teaching about the Christ, let us press on to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God.

- 2 of instruction about washings and laying on of hands, and the resurrection of the dead and eternal judgment.
- 3 And this we will do, if God permits.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 5:4 — No one takes the honor to himself, but receives it when he is called by God.

Serving God in some specific area is never something we can choose for ourselves. He must call us, and we must respond in obedience. The author of Hebrews cites the example of Aaron, who belonged to the tribe of Levi (Num. 3). Only those from his specific family line could serve as priests of the Lord. When other tribes tried to usurp this honor, they made the Lord very angry (1 Kin. 12:31—13:5; 14:7–11).

> 5:5, 6 — Christ did not glorify Himself so as to become a high priest, but He who said to Him..."You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek."

Mow can Jesus be our High Priest if He is from the tribe of Judah and not Levi (Heb. 7:14)? Because He is chosen and appointed to be, just as Aaron was. Yet His priesthood is superior to Aaron's because He is also our King and has no earthly succession—much like the king of Salem, Melchizedek (Gen. 14:18–20; Heb. 7).

> 5:7 — He offered up both prayers and supplications with loud crying and tears to the One able to save Him from death, and He was heard.

This verse immediately recalls Jesus' petition in the Garden of Gethsemane. With great passion He shared in our humanity—not wanting to suffer the pain and disgrace that awaited Him (Luke 22:39–43). Yet in that moment, He also demonstrated His perfect obedience—even to death on the Cross (Phil. 2:8). Because of His faithfulness, He triumphed over death (1 Cor. 15:54, 55).

> 5:8 — Although He was a Son, He learned obedience from the things which He suffered.

Being obedient is not difficult when it is not costly. However, when it requires the sacrifice of all we have and are—when it requires our very life—that is a different story altogether. In heaven, as part of the Godhead, Jesus never experienced any lack—there was no reason for Him to suffer or fear because everything existed for His pleasure. But when He "emptied Himself, taking the form of a bond-servant, and being made in the likeness of men" (Phil. 2:7), He accepted all the pain, affliction, and neediness that we experience. This was when His obedience was perfected. He sacrificed and suffered everything for us.

> 5:9 — He became to all those who obey Him the source of eternal salvation.

oes our obedience gain us a Savior? No. Nothing we do can ever earn our salvation. Yet all those who truly believe in Him will obey His leadership.

> 5:14 — Solid food is for the mature, who because of practice have their senses trained to discern good and evil.

Spiritual maturity comes not merely by hearing God's Word, but by putting it into practice. As we obey God and He transforms our character into the likeness of His own, our spiritual discernment grows stronger. We think more like He does. We hear Him more clearly, we increasingly obey the promptings of His Spirit, and we are progressively more able to make decisions that honor Him.

- 4 For in the case of those who have once been enlightened and have tasted of the heavenly gift and have been made partakers of the Holy Spirit,
- 5 and have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come,
- 6 and then have fallen away, it is impossible to renew them again to repentance, since they again crucify to themselves the Son of God and put Him to open shame.
- 7 For ground that drinks the rain which often falls on it and brings forth vegetation useful to those for whose sake it is also tilled, receives a blessing from God;
- 8 but if it yields thorns and thistles, it is worthless and close to being cursed, and it ends up being burned.

Better Things for You

- 9 But, beloved, we are convinced of better things concerning you, and things that accompany salvation, though we are speaking in this way.
- *10 For God is not unjust so as to forget your work and the love which you have shown toward His name, in having ministered and in still ministering to the saints.
 - 11 And we desire that each one of you show the same diligence so as to realize the full assurance of hope until the end,
- ➤ 12 so that you will not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

- 13 For when God made the promise to Abraham, since He could swear by no one greater, He swore by Himself,
- 14 saying, "I WILL SURELY BLESS YOU AND I WILL SURELY MULTIPLY YOU."
- 15 And so, having patiently waited, he obtained the promise.
- 16 For men swear by one greater than themselves, and with them an oath given as confirmation is an end of every dispute.
- 17 In the same way God, desiring even more to show to the heirs of the promise the unchangeableness of His purpose, interposed with an oath,
- 18 so that by two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have taken refuge would have strong encouragement to take hold of the hope set before us.
- 19 This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and one which enters within the veil.
- 20 where Jesus has entered as a forerunner for us, having become a high priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

Melchizedek's Priesthood Like Christ's

7FOR this Melchizedek, king of Salem, ✓ priest of the Most High God, who met Abraham as he was returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him,

LIFE LESSONS-

> 6:10 — God is not unjust so as to forget your work and the love which you have shown toward His name.

God never forgets what you do in obedience to Him. In fact, one day you will stand before the judgment or Bema seat of Christ and be rewarded for all the things you have done out of love and obedience to Him (1 Cor. 3:11–15; 2 Cor. 5:10).

> 6:12 — So that you will not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

Jour inheritance is the same as those faithful saints of old, but you must trust God to take you through every obstacle in your path, just as they did. Like the biblical believers who have preceded you, you'll find that no challenge is a match for the amazing power of God. There are great blessings ahead if you'll diligently do what He says.

> 6:18 — It is impossible for God to lie.

Pe can be absolutely sure of God's promises to us because of His holy, unfailing character (Num. 23:19; Titus 1:2). He will never lead us astray but will always be truthful to us and guide us in the very best way possible.

> 6:19 — This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and one which enters within the veil.

In the temple, an extremely thick veil stood as a barrier between the priests and God's presence. Only the high priest was permitted to pass through it on the Day of Atonement (Lev. 16). However, when Jesus died on the Cross, the immense veil tore in two—from top to bottom (Matt. 27:51; Mark 15:38; Luke 23:45)—showing that He had removed the barrier between Himself and us (2 Cor. 3:16; Heb. 10:19, 20). As believers, this is the assurance that keeps our soul steady. No matter what may happen, we enjoy the everlasting presence of our God, and nothing can separate us from Him ever again (Rom. 8:38, 39).

> 7:1 — Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the Most High God, who met Abraham . . . and blessed him.

This verse refers back to the account in Genesis 14:18–20, when Melchizedek blessed Abraham and reminded him that his victory was from God, and not of his own doing—just as our salvation is. There are important parallels between Melchizedek and Christ. Melchizedek was a priest and king even before the nation of Israel was established. He was also from Salem, which became Jerusalem. Likewise, Jesus is our High Priest and the King of kings. His earthly ministry took place in Jerusalem, where He also died on the Cross to save us from our sins.

> 7:2 — To whom also Abraham apportioned a tenth part of all the spoils, was first of all, by the translation of his name, king of righteousness, and then also king of Salem, which is king of peace.

When the Israelites gave their tithes and offerings, they did so by law (Lev. 27:30–32). However, when Abra-

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S OUESTIONS

How can I be the kind of faithful person God honors?

HEB. 6:11, 12

Go you want to see the favor of God blossom in your life? If you do, the writer of Hebrews has some advice for you: "Show the same diligence so as to realize the full assurance of hope until the end, so that you will not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises" (6:11, 12).

The author has in mind someone like the Old Testament saint Abraham, who displayed great faith and patience. When God called Abraham (Abram) to leave his homeland for a place unknown, he left and followed the Lord. He did not know where he was going. He only knew that he was committed to obeying the One who called to him. Genesis 12:4 displays his diligence: "So Abram went forth as the LORD had spoken to him."

God told Abraham he would have a son, even though his wife Sarah was already 90 years old (Gen. 17:17–19). Nothing is too difficult for the Lord! A year later, God faithfully fulfilled His promise, and Sarah bore Abraham a son.

When the boy was only a young lad, God directed Abraham to sacrifice the son for whom he had waited 25 years. What a heart-breaking command this must have been. Had Abraham heard the Lord correctly? He loved his son more than any earthly thing or being, but he knew that the greater test was the level of his devotion to God. Abraham was determined to obey the Lord.

ness, and then also king of Salem, which is king of peace.

3 Without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God, he remains a priest perpetually.

But God stopped him before he could make the sacrifice, and He provided a ram instead. This was a defining test of faith, and Abraham passed with flying colors. As a result, God blessed him for his devotion (Gen. 22:1–18).

We are to mirror Abraham's faithfulness. In our attempts to pursue God with diligence, we need to take stock of everything we do:

- Set clear goals. Olympic athletes don't begin with a vague dream of becoming an Olympian. Each step of the way requires them to work for a faster time, a higher jump, or an improved technique.
- Be patient. When Pablo Casals reached age 95, a young reporter asked him, "Mr. Casals, you are 95 and the greatest cellist that ever lived. Why do you still practice six hours a day?" Casals answered, "Because I think I'm making progress." He never stopped practicing or reaching for even greater goals.
- Be willing to take risks. God asks that we trust Him, despite our limited understanding. As the saying goes, a turtle makes progress only when he sticks his neck out.
- Be persistent. If God has given you a clearly defined goal and you sincerely believe it to be His will, don't let doubt or discouragement defeat you. Keep trusting and believing. Never give up!
- Be flexible. Remember that the process is the greatest learning experience we have. Learn from your mistakes and move on. Flexibility enables you to change as God changes you.

If you want God to honor you, then be the kind of person who honors Him by consistently acting on your faith.

We submit ourselves to Him out of love and gratefulness of heart for the grace He has given us through His death on the Cross.

that is, from their brethren, although these are descended from Abraham.

- 6 But the one whose genealogy is not traced from them collected a tenth from Abraham and blessed the one who had the promises.
- 7 But without any dispute the lesser is blessed by the greater.
- 8 In this case mortal men receive tithes, but in that case one receives them, of whom it is witnessed that he lives on.
- 9 And, so to speak, through Abraham even Levi, who received tithes, paid tithes,
- 10 for he was still in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met him.
- ➤ 11 Now if perfection was through the Levitical priesthood (for on the basis of it the people received the Law), what further need was there for another priest to arise according to the order of Melchizedek, and not be designated according to the order of Aaron?
 - 12 For when the priesthood is changed, of necessity there takes place a change of law also.
 - 13 For the one concerning whom these things are spoken belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar. 14 For it is evident that our Lord was descended from Judah, a tribe with reference to which Moses spoke nothing concerning priests.
 - 15 And this is clearer still, if another priest arises according to the likeness of Melchizedek.
 - 16 who has become such not on the basis of a law of physical requirement, but according to the power of an indestructible life.
 - 17 For it is attested of Him,

"YOU ARE A PRIEST FOREVER

According to the order of Melchizedek."

- 18 For, on the one hand, there is a setting aside of a former commandment because of its weakness and uselessness
- 19 (for the Law made nothing perfect), and on ≺ the other hand there is a bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God.
- 20 And inasmuch as it was not without an oath
- 21 (for they indeed became priests without an oath, but He with an oath through the One who said to Him,

"The Lord has sworn

AND WILL NOT CHANGE HIS MIND,

'YOU ARE A PRIEST FOREVER'");

- 22 so much the more also Jesus has become the guarantee of a better covenant.
- 23 The former priests, on the one hand, existed in greater numbers because they were prevented by death from continuing,
- 24 but Jesus, on the other hand, because He continues forever, holds His priesthood permanently.
- 25 Therefore He is able also to save forever those who draw near to God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them
- 26 For it was fitting for us to have such a high priest, holy, innocent, undefiled, separated from sinners and exalted above the heavens:
- 27 who does not need daily, like those high priests, to offer up sacrifices, first for His own sins and then for the sins of the people, because this He did once for all when He offered up Himself.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 7:11 — If perfection was through the Levitical priesthood (for on the basis of it the people received the Law), what further need was there for another priest to arise?

The reason the old sacrificial system and priesthood were unable to bring us to perfection was that they were not permanent—people were required to keep going back to the priest to make offerings because they would sin again. However, Christ came to forgive our sins "once for all" (Heb. 10:10). On the Cross, Jesus Christ forgave every sin we've ever committed or will ever carry out—past, present, and future (2 Cor. 5:21; Heb. 7:22–28; 9:24–28; 10:12, 14).

> 7:19 — (The Law made nothing perfect), and on the other hand there is a bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God.

The law can only show us God's righteous demands, but it has no power to help us comply with His holy standard (Rom. 7:7). Our only hope of salvation is through faith in Christ, who fulfills the law on our behalf and cleanses us from all unrighteousness.

> 7:25 — He is able also to save forever those who draw near to God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them.

s the high priest went before God to make atonement for their sins, the Israelites always felt uncertain about whether he would succeed. Small bells on the hem of his garments indicated whether he had survived being in God's holy presence. If the bells stopped ringing, the people knew that the priest had died, thus failing to make the acceptable sacrifice. Thankfully, there is never a question about whether we are accepted. Jesus Christ always represents us perfectly before the throne of God.

> 7:26 — It was fitting for us to have such a high priest, holy, innocent, undefiled, separated from sinners and exalted above the heavens.

as our perfect High Priest, Jesus never fails. He knows exactly how to minister to us in the way that will most benefit us and effectively bring us to maturity in Him. He makes no mistakes and always has our best interests at heart.

> 7:27 — He did once for all when He offered up Himself.

The priests of the old system were sinners who had to make sacrifices for themselves on an ongoing basis. None of them came close to helping us as Christ did. Jesus did not have to atone for His own sin because He never sinned. Because of this, He only needed to atone for us 28 For the Law appoints men as high priests who are weak, but the word of the oath, which came after the Law, appoints a Son, made perfect forever.

A Better Ministry

- NOW the main point in what has been said is this: we have such a high priest, who has taken His seat at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens,
 - 2 a minister in the sanctuary and in the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, not man
 - 3 For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices; so it is necessary that this high priest also have something to offer.
 - 4 Now if He were on earth, He would not be a priest at all, since there are those who offer the gifts according to the Law;
- ➤ 5 who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, just as Moses was warned by God when he was about to erect the tabernacle; for, "See," He says, "THAT YOU MAKE all things ACCORDING TO THE PATTERN WHICH WAS SHOWN YOU ON THE MOUNTAIN."
- ➤ 6 But now He has obtained a more excellent ministry, by as much as He is also the mediator of a better covenant, which has been enacted on better promises.

A New Covenant

- 7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no occasion sought for a second.
- 8 For finding fault with them, He says, "Behold, days are coming, says the Lord, When I will effect a new covenant With the house of Israel and with the house of Judah;
- 9 Not like the covenant which I made with their fathers

On the day when I took them by the hand

To lead them out of the land of Egypt; For they did not continue in My covenant,

AND I DID NOT CARE FOR THEM, SAYS THE LORD.

10 "For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel After those days, says the Lord: I will put My laws into their minds, And I will write them on their hearts. And I will be their God, And they shall be My people.

11 "And they shall not teach everyone his fellow citizen,

AND EVERYONE HIS BROTHER, SAYING, 'KNOW THE LORD,'

FOR ALL WILL KNOW ME,

From the least to the greatest of them.

AND I WILL REMEMBER THEIR SINS NO MORE."

The Old and the New

 $9^{\rm NOW}$ even the first covenant had regulations of divine worship and the earthly sanctuary.

- 2 For there was a tabernacle prepared, the outer one, in which were the lampstand and the table and the sacred bread; this is called the holy place.

once—not many times. He is our living, all-sufficient, eternal Savior who laid down His life voluntarily at the Cross. He saves us once and for all.

> 8:1 — We have such a high priest, who has taken His seat at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens.

To be seated at "the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens" is to occupy the most powerful position anywhere—it is the place of absolute honor. Jesus intercedes for us as our Savior, Lord, friend, and fellow heir, and He ministers to us perfectly forever.

> 8:5 — A copy and shadow of the heavenly things.

The Old Testament tabernacle and temple and all of the feasts, ceremonies, celebrations, and solemn memorials, were given to us to foreshadow what Christ would do. None of the biblical requirements that the ancient Israelites observed were in vain—all pointed to what Jesus accomplished and were meant to encourage, not enslave, us.

> 8:6 — He has obtained a more excellent ministry, by as much as He is also the mediator of a better covenant, which has been enacted on better promises.

The old covenant, which was received by Moses on Mount Sinai (Ex. 19:1—24:3), was conditional. In order to receive God's promises, the people would have to obey the Lord and keep His commands (Deut. 28). However, the Lord established a New Covenant and wrote His laws upon the hearts of those who accepted His Son as Savior. Jesus enacted this new, better covenant through His death on the Cross and resurrection.

> 8:13 — When He said, "A new covenant," He has made the first obsolete. But whatever is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to disappear.

It the time Hebrews was written, the temple in Jerusalem apparently still existed. In A.D. 70, however, the Romans destroyed Jerusalem and the temple, which meant the Jews could no longer comply with the requirements of the old system (Deut. 12:5–9; 16:6).

manna, and Aaron's rod which budded, and the tables of the covenant;

- 5 and above it were the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat; but of these things we cannot now speak in detail.
- 6 Now when these things have been so prepared, the priests are continually entering the outer tabernacle performing the divine worship,
- 7 but into the second, only the high priest enters once a year, not without taking blood, which he offers for himself and for the sins of the people committed in ignorance.
 - 8 The Holy Spirit is signifying this, that the way into the holy place has not yet been disclosed while the outer tabernacle is still standing.
 - 9 which is a symbol for the present time. Accordingly both gifts and sacrifices are offered which cannot make the worshiper perfect in conscience.
 - 10 since they relate only to food and drink and various washings, regulations for the body imposed until a time of reformation.
 - 11 But when Christ appeared as a high priest of the good things ato come, He entered through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation;
 - 12 and not through the blood of goats and calves, but through His own blood, He entered the holy place once for all, having obtained eternal redemption.
 - 13 For if the blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled sanctify for the cleansing of the flesh.
- ➤ 14 how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

- 15 For this reason He is the mediator of a new covenant, so that, since a death has taken place for the redemption of the transgressions that were committed under the first covenant, those who have been called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance.
- 16 For where a covenant is, there must of necessity be the death of the one who made it.
- 17 For a covenant is valid only when men are dead, ^bfor it is never in force while the one who made it lives.
- 18 Therefore even the first covenant was not inaugurated without blood.
- 19 For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses to all the people according to the Law, he took the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people,
- 20 saying, "This is the blood of the covenant which God commanded you."
- 21 And in the same way he sprinkled both the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry with the blood.
- 22 And according to the Law, one may almost say, all things are cleansed with blood, and without shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.
- 23 Therefore it was necessary for the copies of the things in the heavens to be cleansed with these, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.
- 24 For Christ did not enter a holy place 4 made with hands, a mere copy of the true one,

LIFE LESSONS-

> 9:7 — The high priest enters once a year, not without taking blood, which he offers for himself and for the sins of the people committed in ignorance.

The Day of Atonement (Lev. 23:26–32; Num. 29:7–11) was the one day in the year that the high priest made a sacrifice for the sins of Israel. He took two goats and sacrificed the first on the altar as atonement—or covering—for their transgressions. The second symbolically became the scapegoat (or sin-bearer) for the sins of the nation of Israel. These sacrifices only covered the sins made unintentionally, in ignorance of the law. The sins committed deliberately had no atonement. However, when He died on the Cross, Jesus Christ became our ultimate Sin-Bearer—covering all our transgressions, whether intentional or otherwise (Is. 53:4, 5).

> 9:14 — How much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

The blood of Christ does not just cleanse us outwardly, covering our transgressions ceremonially as the Old Testament sacrifices did. It purifies our very nature—completely freeing us from sin's grasp and transforming us from within (Rom. 6:5–18). When we accept Christ as our Savior, we no longer have to live with unresolved guilt. Jesus wipes our accusing consciences clean with His blood, enabling us to serve Him with joy and without the slightest remnant of shame.

> 9:22 — All things are cleansed with blood, and without shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

Plood is sacred, since it is the very life of human beings made in God's image. However, due to our link with original sin through Adam and Eve, our blood was tainted and God sentenced us to death (Gen. 3; Rom. 5:12–15; 1 Cor. 15:22). But Christ's sinless, perfect, eternal blood was shed for the salvation of the world. This changed everything. Through His blood, our iniquities are washed away, and we receive everlasting life (Lev. 17:11; Rom. 3:25; 5:9; Eph. 1:7; 2:13; Col. 1:20).

> 9:24 — Christ did not enter a holy place made with hands, a mere copy of the true one, but into heaven itself.

ence known to the people of Israel (Ex. 40; 2 Chr. 5). However, His glory did not remain there always because those structures were never His true dwelling place. They were mere copies of the true sanctuary to come—the one which is in heaven. Christ's presence in the kingdom ensures that one day we will be there with Him as well (Ps. 15; John 14:1–3; Rev. 21:1—22:7).

> 9:26 — At the consummation of the ages He has been manifested to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself.

 \mathcal{N} o longer is it necessary for someone to make sacrifices for our sins year after year. Now we are completely forgiven of the penalty of our offenses through the sufficient, substitutionary death of Jesus Christ. Because of His love for us, Jesus lifts this burden of our transgressions off of us and takes them on Himself—completely annulling the shackles of sin and the sting of death.

> 9:27 — It is appointed for men to die once and after this comes judgment.

 $\mathcal N$ one of us can avoid death and judgment. Unless $\mathcal N$ we're alive when the Lord returns, all of us will die, and every person in history will answer to Him for how they lived. When we stand before His absolute holiness, we will not be able to say anything in our own defense. Like Isaiah, we will understand our utter sinfulness (Is. 6:5). Then the only question will be whether we trusted in Jesus to be our Savior and forgive our sin, or whether we've chosen to pay our sin debt on our own to our eternal condemnation.

> 9:28 — Christ also, having been offered once to bear the sins of many.

The greatest burden of all is our sin, because it keeps us in bondage, fragments our thinking, blinds us to the truth, discourages us, and prevents us from becoming all that God created us to be. Our sin enslaves us, no matter what it is—even if it doesn't include addictions. It also separates us from the Lord because He is holy and despises ungodliness. Yet Christ is our great Sin-Bearer, because through Him we have forgiveness and freedom from our sin.

> 10:1 — The Law, since it has only a shadow of the good things to come and not the very form of things, can never . . . make perfect those who draw near.

Without the law, we would not know what sin is or understand our need for the grace and forgiveness of our Savior, Jesus. However, the law only foreshadowed the salvation that Jesus wanted to accomplish within us—it was never meant to be our final goal.

> 10:4 — It is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

God instituted the sacrificial system and the priesthood to demonstrate His holiness and the deadliness of sin. After Adam and Eve disobeyed Him in the Garden, their eyes were opened to the nature of sin, and they hid their nakedness under the covering of fig leaves. Through the shedding of blood, God in His graciousness provided soft animal pelts to cover them (Gen. 3). Before Jesus came, innumerable animals were slain in sacrifice for people's sins. But only His death as the unblemished Lamb of God provided an eternal covering.

> 10:10 — We have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

That Jesus accomplished on the Cross was enough to save us. Nothing has to be added to it, nor are we required to accept Him as our Savior multiple times. Jesus has redeemed us "once for all." So stop worrying about losing your salvation or having to earn it. As Jesus said, "It is finished!" (John 19:30).

 - 15 And the Holy Spirit also testifies to us; for after saying,

AFTER THOSE DAYS, SAYS THE LORD:

I WILL PUT MY LAWS UPON THEIR HEART,

And on their mind I will write them," He then says,

- 17 "And their sins and their lawless deeds I will remember no more."
- 18 Now where there is forgiveness of these things, there is no longer any offering for sin.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 10:14 — By one offering He has perfected for all time those who are sanctified.

Our salvation is both a completed fact and an ongoing process. Through faith in Jesus, we are justified—or in right relationship with Him having been forgiven of our sin (Rom. 5:1). And by the power of His Spirit, He enables us to become more like Him, whose righteousness we received (Rom. 8:29).

> 10:19, 20 — We have confidence to enter the holy place by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way which He inaugurated for us through the veil, that is, His flesh.

The importance of what Christ accomplished on the Cross cannot be understated. Before His death, we were utterly separated from God. No one approached Him in the Holy of Holies but the high priest at the appointed time, because if they did, they would be struck dead (Ex. 33:20). Jesus abolished the veil that separated us from God (Matt. 27:51; Mark 15:38; 23:45). And He provides a way for us to be reconciled to Himself (John 1:1, 14–18; 14:9; Heb. 1:3). Now we not only see the Lord, we can abide in His presence (1 Cor. 6:19, 20; Eph. 1:13; 4:30).

> 10:23 — Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful.

The close-knit Jewish community shared ancestry, land, and traditions. However, when Jews began to believe in Jesus as their Savior and Messiah, they were disowned and persecuted by their loved ones and neighbors. The new believers saw their relationships and sources of security utterly fail. The author of Hebrews encouraged them with the fact that even though everyone else had turned against them, God is faithful, reliable, trustworthy, and unchanging. Therefore, we can always be confident in our hope because we know He will not abandon us.

> 10:24, 25 — Let us consider how to stimulate one another to love and good deeds, not forsaking our own assembling together.

It is crucial for believers to gather for corporate worship, instruction, encouragement, and service. God simply did not design us to "go it alone" in our Christian faith or grow in isolation. Our participation in a local church not only protects our personal fellowship with the Lord (Heb. 3:13), but it is a vital aspect to how He matures us and transforms us into His image.

> 10:29 — How much severer punishment do you think he will deserve who has trampled under foot the Son of God?

Deople trample Christ underfoot and insult the Spirit of grace by unbelief (Matt. 12:30–32; John 3:16–18; Rom. 2:8). This does not refer to a believer's weak moments of doubt or if a Christian stumbles in sin. Rather, this verse is referring to unbelievers who completely reject Christ's sacrifice on the Cross as God's provision for salvation.

LIFE PRINCIPLE 28

NO CHRISTIAN HAS EVER BEEN CALLED TO "GO IT ALONE" IN HIS OR HER WALK OF FAITH.

HEB. 10:24, 25

he writer of Hebrews knew that his audience, made up mainly of Jewish believers who had just come to faith, was struggling with how to incorporate their Jewish heritage into their walk with Christ. The author therefore spends a great deal of time explaining that Jesus Christ prepared the way for uninterrupted fellowship with the Father. He is our great High Priest. His death provided the way for individuals to have personal access to God without going through a human agent.

At times, this principle was difficult for the Jewish Christians to accept. They were accustomed to participating in a variety of ceremonial washings and offerings to be cleansed from their sins; immediate access to God apart from those things was something new. But the writer assured them that since Christ died for their sins and rose from the dead, they could now go directly to the Father with their prayers and needs. The author also knew the challenge facing these converts to remain faithful to their new faith. So he exhorted them to "hold fast . . . without wavering" (Heb. 10:23)

He instructed his readers to help one another hold fast to their faith in God. He knew they would be tempted by trial and persecution to drift from the truth that God had plans for their lives. So he said, "Let us consider how to stimulate one another to love and good deeds" (Heb. 10:24). The Greek term translated "stimulate" literally means "to irritate" or to pressure one another to consider what the Lord has done in the past. He is faithful and does not abandon the work of His hands. We are His creations, and when we encounter difficulty, sorrow, rejection or any other distress, we can know without doubt that God will provide the wisdom and resources we need. Even in times of joy, He is blessed by happiness and contentment. In essence, the author was instructing his readers to spur one another along, to refuse to become ensnared by negativity, and to take responsibility for their lives in Christ as well as one another.

With this backdrop, the author made it clear that they should not stop meeting together (Heb. 10:25). They needed one another, just as we need other believers. To give up meeting together would spell disaster because it would provide Satan an opportunity to draw them away from the Lord. In meeting together, they found the mutual encouragement to keep going. The same is true for us.

God wants us to regularly meet with other believers. He wants His people in church! Many believers don't take this admonition seriously because they don't know the reason behind it. I have often heard this refrain: "I can worship God at home. I don't need to go to church." Many believers believe the sole reason we meet together is to worship—and understandably so. After all, we call it a worship service.

Christ prepared the way for uninterrupted fellowship with the Father.

If worship were the only reason we are commanded to meet, then those who claim they can worship at home would have a strong argument. But worship is not the sole reason. Nor is it so that we can be taught God's truth. We can turn on our radios and televisions and hear good Bible teaching. On the surface, it seems that anything we can do at church we can do just as well at home, alone.

So why are we commanded to meet? Why go to church?

The writer of Hebrews says it is to safeguard against drifting. We are the body of Christ, and when we are with other believers, we are doing what comes naturally and what we will do for eternity—being together in His presence. We make up the church, and together we provide strength for one another through prayer, fellowship, and encouragement.

Enemy forces are always at work around us, seeking to blow us off course. Sheer individual commitment is really not enough to keep us in line. We need the presence and accountability of other believers who love us and are willing to laugh, cry, and check on us. At times, when we feel as if our faith makes no difference—or we see no fruit in our lives, and we don't think our testimony makes a difference—it does. When we surrender our lives to Christ, He uses us in countless ways, ways we may never know.

In the atmosphere, worship, and fellowship in God's house, we discover that we are not alone. We hear others talk about how the Lord has miraculously provided for them. One may describe the pain he has suffered as a result of a loss. A new believer may tell her story of redemption, rejoicing in God's grace. As we listen to others recount God's work in their lives, something happens inside of us. We are spurred on to faithfulness and to praising God for His goodness.

The accountability and encouragement found in church anchor us against the tides that work to sweep us away. To neglect the regular assembly of fellow Christians is to miss out on this essential element in the development of our faith.

Throughout the Bible, we find that one of God's principle desires is to have a close relationship with each one of us. By becoming active in a local church, you safeguard yourself against missing out on all that God has for you. Your participation in a body of other believers safeguards your personal fellowship with God. Remember, when you drift away from the family of God, it is only a matter of time until you drift away from fellowship with God.

Regular church attendance should never be viewed as something you do to gain God's merit. We are not saved by good works. Instead, it should provide the catalyst for spiritual growth. Make sure the church you attend teaches the Word of God without compromising His truth. If yours doesn't, I recommend you visit another church. Find one that accurately teaches the principles in Scripture while demonstrating God's love, forgiveness, and grace. Remember that you also have a responsibility to actively use your spiritual gifts for the benefit of other believers.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S OUESTIONS

How can I claim God's promises?

HEB. 10:23

By some counts, God has issued more than forty thousand promises in the Bible. That's a lot of promises! But sometimes it can be difficult to determine how to properly respond to His awesome assurances.

The first thing to keep in mind is that the Bible contains two kinds of divine promises.

1 Limited promises

God has made many promises to specific people living in particular circumstances for explicit purposes. These promises are definitely not "one size fits all." If you try to "claim" these promises for yourself, you're headed for trouble.

For example, the resurrected Jesus told His disciples to wait in Jerusalem "for what the Father had promised," and that as they did, they would "be baptized with the Holy Spirit" (Acts 1:4, 5). It would be foolish for you to travel to Jerusalem and wait there to receive this promise, since Jesus already fulfilled it that first Pentecost. Today, the Spirit baptizes every believer into the body of Christ and takes up residence within us at the very moment we trust in Christ. Jesus gave this promise to a specific group of people at a particular time after being enlightened, you endured a great conflict of sufferings, 33 partly by being made a public spectacle through reproaches and tribulations, and partly by becoming sharers with those who were so treated.

34 For you showed sympathy to the prisoners and accepted joyfully the seizure of your property, knowing that you have for yourselves a better possession and a lasting one.

for an explicit purpose—it isn't for anyone else to claim.

2 General promises

God has made many universal promises, applicable to all His children throughout all of history. For example, He has promised to never leave us nor forsake us (Heb. 13:5). He also promised many times to return for us (John 14:3). These promises pertain to all believers across all of time. Yet general promises can also be of two types.

(a) Conditional promises. Texts like Psalm 37:4, Philippians 4:19, and others contain conditional promises; to receive the benefit offered, you must meet some condition. Conditional promises require something of the believer.

In Philippians 4:19, the condition is that we be in Christ; the believer must be living for Him and in total submission to His will. The same holds true for "delighting" in the Lord, as stated in Psalm 37:4. Clearly a relationship comes before a request.

(b) Unconditional promises. Unconditional promises require nothing of the believer. The promises mentioned above in Hebrews 13:5 and John 14:3 are of this type. God will fulfill these promises because He has pledged to fulfill them. Nothing anyone does can alter His commitment or change His plans. He will keep these promises, not because of anything we do, but because of His own faithfulness.

In order to get you off track, Satan wants to get you to doubt your eternal security in Christ and His faithfulness to fulfill His promises. Since he could not stop you from being saved, he will try to prevent you from doing God's will and receiving your reward. Don't let him. The Triumphs of Faith

- 1 NOW faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.
 - 2 For by it the men of old gained approval.
- 3 By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things which are visible.
- 4 By faith Abel offered to God a better sacrifice than Cain, through which he obtained the testimony that he was righteous, God testifying about his gifts, and through faith, though he is dead, he still speaks.
- 5 By faith Enoch was taken up so that he would not see death; and he was not found because God took him up; for he obtained the witness that before his being taken up he was pleasing to God.
- * 6 And without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him.
 - 7 By faith Noah, being warned by God about things not yet seen, in reverence prepared an ark for the salvation of his household, by which he condemned the world, and became an heir of the righteousness which is according to faith.
 - 8 By faith Abraham, when he was called, obeyed by going out to a place which he was to receive for an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing where he was going.
 - 9 By faith he lived as an alien in the land of promise, as in a foreign land, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, fellow heirs of the same promise:

- 10 for he was looking for the city which has foundations, whose architect and builder is God.
- 11 By faith even Sarah herself received ability to conceive, even beyond the proper time of life, since she considered Him faithful who had promised.
- 12 Therefore there was born even of one man, and him as good as dead at that, as many descendants as the stars of heaven in number, and innumerable as the sand which is by the seashore.
- 13 All these died in faith, without receiving 4 the promises, but having seen them and having welcomed them from a distance, and having confessed that they were strangers and exiles on the earth.
- 14 For those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a country of their own.
- 15 And indeed if they had been thinking of that country from which they went out, they would have had opportunity to return.
- 16 But as it is, they desire a better country,  that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; for He has prepared a city for them.
- 17 By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was offering up his only begotten son;
- 18 it was he to whom it was said, "In Isaac your descendants shall be called."
- 19 He considered that God is able to raise people even from the dead, from which he also received him back as a type.
- 20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even regarding things to come.
- 21 By faith Jacob, as he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshiped, leaning on the top of his staff.
- 22 By faith Joseph, when he was dying, made mention of the exodus of the sons of > 11:1 — Faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.

Faith is confidence that the Lord will do what He has promised. It is not simply wishful thinking. It is the absolute conviction that God is not only willing, but also able, to accomplish all He has pledged to us, regardless of how our circumstances may appear or what obstacles may have to be overcome. As the saints of old learned, your confidence in Him is never in vain, for "He who promised is faithful" (Heb. 10:23).

> 11:6 — Without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him.

Thy is faith necessary to please God? Because we cannot serve Him unless we are convinced that He not only exists, but also that His plans for us are "good and acceptable and perfect" (Rom. 12:2). We must trust the Lord enough to walk in the center of His will, even if His commands seem unreasonable, impossible, or don't make any sense to us. Like the biblical heroes of old, we bring even the smallest decisions to Him, knowing He will lead us in the best way.

braham died having seen some, but not all, of God's promises fulfilled. He received the son the Lord had promised in Isaac (Gen. 15:4; 21:1–5), but he was not able to see the accomplishment of God's pledge: "In your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed" (Gen. 22:18). This covenant was realized through Jesus (Acts 3:25, 26; Rev. 5:9; 7:9, 10). Because of Christ, every person on earth has the blessing of being able to know God. Like Abraham, we must look beyond what we can see to what the Lord sees, because He will certainly fulfill all His promises to us as well.

LIFE LESSONS

> 11:25 — Choosing rather to endure ill-treatment with the people of God than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin.

Moses was faced with a difficult challenge when he chose to obey God. The opulence of Egypt offered great pleasures. However, Moses learned that any sinful enjoyment quickly passes and leaves the sinner feeling more empty and unsatisfied than before. We also see the terrible afflictions Moses faced in remaining obedient to the Lord. However, Moses found that the reward for godliness always surpasses any pleasure in sin.

> 11:26 — Considering the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt; for he was looking to the reward.

oses did not see Christ before he died—neither did Noah, Abraham, Joseph, Joshua, or David. Yet all of them chose God over the riches of this world. They trusted the Lord and welcomed His promises—including His assurance of salvation—"from a distance, and having confessed that they were strangers and exiles on the earth" (Heb. 11:13).

> 11:27 — He endured, as seeing Him who is unseen.

As He did with Moses, God sometimes stretches our faith by not allowing us to see how He will deliver us from certain difficulties. Rather, He may allow our vision to be filled with problems and obstacles so that our level of faith in Him is revealed. In such times, wait patiently and endure by being steadfast in your faith.

> 11:39 — All these, having gained approval through their faith, did not receive what was promised.

The saints mentioned in Hebrews 11 persevered in their faith, even though they never saw their greatest hope—salvation through Christ—fulfilled while they were on earth. They could have despaired through unbelief or doubt, but they didn't. They had an unwavering trust in God because they "considered Him faithful who had promised" (Heb. 11:11). The Lord always honors confidence in Him. This is why we can look forward to meeting Abraham, Joseph, Moses, and the other faithful saints in heaven (Rom. 4).

> 12:1 — Since we have so great a cloud of witnesses surrounding us, let us also lay aside every encumbrance and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us.

Debrews 11 is filled with excellent examples of faith for us to draw strength and courage from when our walk with the Lord becomes difficult. Like them, we must let go of anything that hinders our relationship with God and, as Paul says, "Count all things to be loss in view of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus" (Phil. 3:8). We cannot succeed in this race with the passions of this world weighing us down. We must run wholeheartedly for Christ—or not at all.

A Father's Discipline

- 4 You have not yet resisted to the point of shedding blood in your striving against sin;

 - "My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord,
 - Nor faint when you are reproved by Him:
- FOR THOSE WHOM THE LORD LOVES HE DISCIPLINES,
 - AND HE SCOURGES EVERY SON WHOM HE RECEIVES."
 - 7 It is for discipline that you endure; God deals with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father does not discipline?
 - 8 But if you are without discipline, of which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate children and not sons.
 - 9 Furthermore, we had earthly fathers to discipline us, and we respected them; shall we not much rather be subject to the Father of spirits, and live?
- * 10 For they disciplined us for a short time as seemed best to them, but He disciplines us for our good, so that we may share His holiness.
- ➤ 11 All discipline for the moment seems not to be joyful, but sorrowful; yet to those who have been trained by it, afterwards it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness.

- 12 Therefore, strengthen the hands that are weak and the knees that are feeble,
- 13 and make straight paths for your feet, so that the limb which is lame may not be put out of joint, but rather be healed.
- 14 Pursue peace with all men, and the sanctification without which no one will see the Lord.
- 15 See to it that no one comes short of the grace of God; that no root of bitterness springing up causes trouble, and by it many be defiled:
- 16 that there be no immoral or godless person like Esau, who sold his own birthright for a single meal.
- 17 For you know that even afterwards, when he desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place for repentance, though he sought for it with tears.

Contrast of Sinai and Zion

- 18 For you have not come to a mountain that can be touched and to a blazing fire, and to darkness and gloom and whirlwind,
- 19 and to the blast of a trumpet and the sound of words which sound was such that those who heard begged that no further word be spoken to them.
- $20\,$ For they could not bear the command, "If even a beast touches the mountain, it will be stoned."
- 21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, "I am full of fear and trembling."
- 22 But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to myriads of angels.
- 23 to the general assembly and church of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God, the Judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect.

> 12:2 — Fixing our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame.

Gesus endured the pain, scorn, sorrow, rejection, and betrayal of the Cross for the joy set before Him. It was enough to keep Him focused and stop Him from answering His accusers. What was this overcoming joy? Us. Jesus looked forward to fulfilling the purpose for which He came, which was to restore our relationship with Himself.

> 12:6 — "Whom the LORD loves He disciplines."

Sometimes the Lord allows difficulty in our lives to deepen us, train us, and strengthen areas of weakness that need work. Brokenness is God's requirement for maximum usefulness. He disciplines us because He loves us—because He wants us to experience abundant Christian life at its very best.

> 12:11 — All discipline for the moment seems not to be joyful, but sorrowful; yet to those who have been trained by it, afterwards it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness. $\mathcal N$ o one likes to be disciplined. It is never pleasant, because it requires a change in our perspective, goals, behavior, and attitude. Deeply entrenched sinfulness and destructive habits are rooted out, and our earthly sources of security are destroyed. This is all very painful and difficult. But if we cooperate with God when He corrects us, we will become more like Him, and great blessings will result.

> 12:15 — See to it that no one comes short of the grace of God; that no root of bitterness springing up causes trouble, and by it many be defiled.

Pe are responsible to show the grace of God to everyone we meet, ridding ourselves of unforgiveness, letting go of our feelings of resentment, laying down our "right" to get even, and allowing God to deal with the person who has hurt us. We must choose forgiveness. We don't want to lead anyone away from God or build a wall of bitterness and regret between our hearts and the Lord. We must always choose to show His mercy to others so we can truly be His representatives in the world.

24 and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood, which speaks better than the blood of Abel.

The Unshaken Kingdom

25 See to it that you do not refuse Him who is speaking. For if those did not escape when they refused him who warned them on earth, much less will we escape who turn away from Him who warns from heaven.

*26 And His voice shook the earth then, but now He has promised, saying, "YET ONCE MORE I WILL SHAKE NOT ONLY THE EARTH, BUT

ALSO THE HEAVEN.

- 27 This expression, "Yet once more," denotes the removing of those things which can be shaken, as of created things, so that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.
- ➤ 28 Therefore, since we receive a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us show gratitude, by which we may offer to God an acceptable service with reverence and awe; 29 for our God is a consuming fire.

The Changeless Christ

- 13LET love of the brethren continue.
 2 Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by this some have entertained angels without knowing it.
- 3 Remember the prisoners, as though in prison with them, and those who are ill-treated, since you yourselves also are in the body.
- 4 Marriage is to be held in honor among all, and the marriage bed is to be undefiled; for fornicators and adulterers God will judge.

- 5 Make sure that your character is free  from the love of money, being content with what you have; for He Himself has said, "I WILL NEVER DESERT YOU, NOR WILL I EVER FOR-SAKE YOU,"
- 6 so that we confidently say,
 "The Lord is my helper, I will not be Afraid.

What will man do to me?"

- 7 Remember those who led you, who spoke the word of God to you; and considering the result of their conduct, imitate their faith.
- 8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and \leq today and forever.
- 9 Do not be carried away by varied and strange teachings; for it is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace, not by foods, through which those who were so occupied were not benefited.
- 10 We have an altar from which those who serve the tabernacle have no right to eat.
- 11 For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the holy place by the high priest as an offering for sin, are burned outside the camp.
- 12 Therefore Jesus also, that He might sanctify the people through His own blood, suffered outside the gate.
- 13 So, let us go out to Him outside the camp, \triangleleft bearing His reproach.
- 14 For here we do not have a lasting city, but we are seeking the city which is to come.

God-pleasing Sacrifices

15 Through Him then, let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that give thanks to His name.

LIFE LESSONS

> 12:28 — Since we receive a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us show gratitude, by which we may offer to God an acceptable service with reverence and awe.

every earthly security we rely upon can be shaken. However, God wants us to stop trusting the transitory defenses of this world and wholeheartedly devote ourselves to Him. He is completely unwavering and immovable, and His is the only kingdom that will endure. When we build our lives on the foundation of His love, truth, and faithfulness, He will hold us steadfast and every fear will fade.

> 13:5 — He Himself has said, "I will never desert you, nor will I ever forsake you."

Therefore, do not fear whatever challenge may come. Keep your eyes on Him. He will certainly lead you in the very best way possible.

> 13:8 — Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

Gesus is immutable, which means that He is completely consistent—He does not change. He is "the eternal God" (Deut. 33:27), whose "ways are everlasting" (Hab. 3:6), and who says, "I, the Lord, do not change" (Mal. 3:6). Jesus remains the same forever. This is why we can have confidence in Him, because just as He was faithful to Moses, David, and Paul, He will work powerfully for us when we trust and obey Him.

> 13:13 — Let us go out to Him outside the camp, bearing His reproach.

On the Day of Atonement (Lev. 23:26–32; Num. 29:7–11), the high priest sacrificed one goat as atonement for Israel's transgressions and drove out a second goat as the symbolic sin-bearer of the nation. Likewise, Jesus became our Sin-Bearer and was driven out of the city to die on the Cross. But His death was not disgraceful. Instead, it was sacrificially noble and an opportunity for rejoicing. Your true identity is in Him—the One who bore your disgrace at Calvary. So represent Him well, and whenever you suffer because of your obedience to Him, be glad that you also identify with Him (Mark 13:13; John 15:18–20; Acts 5:41; Phil. 3:10, 11; 1 Pet. 4:12, 13; 1 John 3:13).

16 And do not neglect doing good and sharing, for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

▶ 17 Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they keep watch over your souls as those who will give an account. Let them do this with joy and not with grief, for this would be unprofitable for you.

18 Pray for us, for we are sure that we have a good conscience, desiring to conduct ourselves honorably in all things.

19 And I urge you all the more to do this, so that I may be restored to you the sooner.

Benediction

≥ 20 Now the God of peace, who brought up from the dead the great Shepherd of the sheep through the blood of the eternal covenant, even Jesus our Lord, 21 equip you in every good thing to do His will, working in us that which is pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

22 But I urge you, brethren, bear with this word of exhortation, for I have written to you briefly.

23 Take notice that our brother Timothy has been released, with whom, if he comes soon, I will see you.

24 Greet all of your leaders and all the saints. Those from Italy greet you.

25 Grace be with you all.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 13:17 — Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they keep watch over your souls as those who will give an account.

On every aspect of our lives we are confronted with some type of authority. This is because it is through our leaders that God teaches us to obey Him.

> 13:20, 21 — The God of peace . . . equip you in every good thing to do His will, working in us that which is pleasing in His sight.

It is God working in us that enables us to do anything worthwhile for His kingdom. We obey the Lord, submit to His will and purpose, rely on His Holy Spirit who dwells within us for our every need, and please Him by giving Him all the honor and glory.

faith without works cannot be called faith. James tells us, "Faith without works is dead," Dead faith is worse than no faith at all (2:26). And he is right. Nothing harms the body of Christ more than a believer who refuses to exercise his or her faith in the absolute infinite power of God.

Faith must work, it must produce, and it must make itself visible. Verbal faith is not enough, and mental faith is insufficient. Genuine faith inspires and empowers godly action. Throughout his letter, James integrates true faith and everyday, practical experience by stressing that true faith must manifest itself in works of faith. Otherwise, it is not real faith at all.

Genuine faith endures trials. Trials are bound to come, but a person who has a strong faith will face them head-on and develop endurance in the process.

Genuine faith understands temptations. It will never consent to our lusts and thereby slide into sin. Christ has broken the power of sin through His death and resurrection. We are new creations, and our lives are hidden in Him. This means that when God sees us, He sees His Son. Sin cannot rule our lives. We can give it access, but we have been freed from its ensnaring bondage.

Genuine faith harbors no prejudice. For James, faith and favoritism cannot coexist. God also calls us to love one another, just as He loves. Hatred and bitterness against another have no place in the kingdom of God

Genuine faith has the power to control the tongue. This small, but immensely powerful, part of the body must be held in check—and only grace, working through faith, can manage it. Words are powerful. Words of grace bring life and encouragement.

Genuine faith acts wisely. It gives us the ability to choose heavenly wisdom that brings life and shun earthly wisdom that brings death.

Genuine faith produces separation from the world and submission to God. It provides us with the ability to resist the devil and humbly draw near to God.

Finally, genuine faith waits patiently for the coming of the Lord. Although troubles and trials cause us grief, faith in the return of Christ stifles complaining.

The name Iakobos (James) in 1:1 is the basis for the early title, Iakobou Epistole, "Epistle of James." Iakobos is the Greek form of the common Hebrew name Jacob.

Theme: Genuine faith works on a daily basis by depending on the power of God.

Author: Generally agreed that James, "the Lord's brother" (Gal. 1:19), and a leader in the church in Jerusalem wrote this letter.

Time: Probably written before the Jerusalem Council in A.D. 50, making it perhaps the earliest book in the New Testament—with the possible exception of Galatians.

Structure: James briefly greets his audience (1:1), then instructs them about trials (vv. 2–20), the nature of true faith (1:21—2:26), the untamable tongue (3:1–12), heavenly wisdom (vv. 13–18), pride versus humility (4:1–17), warnings to the rich (5:1–6), persevering patience (vv. 7–12), and miscellaneous matters (vv. 13–18). He then gives a brief conclusion (vv. 19, 20).

As you read James, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

- 29. We learn more in our valley experiences than on our mountaintops. See James 1:2; 5:10; pages 1475; 1481.
- 27. Prayer is life's greatest time saver. See James 1:5; page 1475.
- 2. Obey God and leave all the consequences to Him. See James 1:22; page 1476.

Testing Your Faith

JAMES, a bond-servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ,

To the twelve tribes who are dispersed abroad: Greetings.

- 2 Consider it all joy, my brethren, when you encounter various trials,
- 3 knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance.
 - 4 And let endurance have its perfect result, so that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.
- *5 But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all generously and without reproach, and it will be given to him.
 - 6 But he must ask in faith without any doubting, for the one who doubts is like the surf of the sea, driven and tossed by the wind.
 - 7 For that man ought not to expect that he will receive anything from the Lord,
 - 8 being a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.
 - 9 But the brother of humble circumstances is to glory in his high position;
 - 10 and the rich man is to glory in his humiliation, because like flowering grass he will pass away.

- 11 For the sun rises with a scorching wind and withers the grass; and its flower falls off and the beauty of its appearance is destroyed; so too the rich man in the midst of his pursuits will fade away.
- 12 Blessed is a man who perseveres under trial; for once he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love Him.
- 13 Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am being tempted by God"; for God cannot be tempted by evil, and He Himself does not tempt anyone.
- 14 But each one is tempted when he is carried away and enticed by his own lust.
- 15 Then when lust has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and when sin is accomplished, it brings forth death.
- 16 Do not be deceived, my beloved brethren.
 17 Every good thing given and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shifting shadow.

LIFE LESSONS-

▶ 1:1 — To the twelve tribes who are dispersed abroad.

James is writing to the Jewish Christians who were driven from Jerusalem because of persecution by the Jewish authorities (Acts 8:1–4). Away from their homes and rejected by their families, they were not readily welcomed by their new communities and faced terrible adversity. It is in these pages that the apostle encourages them to remain steadfast in their faith.

> 1:2 — Consider it all joy, my brethren, when you encounter various trials.

The key to finding joyful about trials in and of themselves. The key to finding joy in adversity is where we place our focus. If we concentrate on our circumstances, we will become disheartened and discouraged. But when we fix our eyes on Jesus, we learn to rejoice in our difficulties, because God has promised to work through them to strengthen our faith, bring us into closer fellowship with Himself, and teach us endurance.

> 1:3 — The testing of your faith produces endurance.

Thenever we face trials, we know one thing is absolutely true—God is producing something excellent in us. In fact, there are times He allows us to go without any earthly comfort so we will turn completely to Him and experience His joy, comfort, power, and assurance. In this way, He teaches us not to react to trials emotionally, but to respond with faith in His perfect provision. When we learn this, we can endure anything because our character is strengthened and our focus is on Him, rather than our circumstances.

> 1:5 — If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all generously and without reproach, and it will be given to him.

The scattered believers were living under great stress. They had incredible obstacles to overcome in their new communities, and probably felt helpless when trying to make sense of the challenges they were facing. Likewise, we encounter situations that confound us. James admonishes us to ask God for wisdom. Wisdom is the ability to see life from His point of view—a request He honors because it is actually an appeal to know him better. Prayer is life's greatest time-saver, so don't remain confused. Ask God for His wisdom.

> 1:13 — Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am being tempted by God"; for God cannot be tempted by evil, and He Himself does not tempt anyone.

Ithough the Lord tests us to strengthen our faith, He will not lead us to do anything that is counter to His will. God is holy and would never tempt anyone to do evil, because that is completely inconsistent with His character. Therefore, we cannot blame our bad behavior or lust on Him. As believers, we have His Holy Spirit living within us, guiding us to do what is right. Rather, we experience temptation because of our own fallen nature and sinful strongholds—not because of God (Rom. 7:15–25; James 1:14, 15).

> 1:14, 15 — Each one is tempted when he is carried away and enticed by his own lust. Then when lust has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and when sin is accomplished, it brings forth death.

The reason the enemy tempts you to sin is to prevent you from obeying God and experiencing His best. The devil hates the Lord and wants to discourage and destroy His people and work. He will do anything he can to keep you enslaved to the things that demolish your effectiveness for the kingdom of God and that will eventually cause your destruction. But you have the power through Jesus Christ to say no to his wicked schemes.

> 1:17 — Every good thing given and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shifting shadow.

God is the source of every good thing we have. When we acknowledge His role in our blessings, we develop

JAMES 1:1

At the beginning, James refused to believe in either the ministry or the deity of Jesus, his brother (John 7:5). James' disbelief remained steadfast throughout Jesus' earthly life. Only after the Resurrection did he finally realize the truth.

In 1 Corinthians 15:5–8, Paul lists those to whom the risen Christ appeared. There, along with the disciples, James is singled out. Soon after the Resurrection, James and his brothers joined the disciples in devoting themselves to prayer as they awaited the Holy Spirit (Acts 1:14).

James—not Peter or one of the other disciples—led the Jerusalem church through its early days. The missionaries who informed this church of their activities reported to James, its leader (Acts 15:12–21; 21:18).

James proves that even when you feel the most comfortable with the Lord even when you believe you have Him figured out—He can still surprise you and change your world.

See the Life Principles Index for further study:

1. Our intimacy with God—His highest priority for our lives—determines the impact of our lives.

- 18 In the exercise of His will He brought us forth by the word of truth, so that we would be a kind of first fruits among His creatures.
- 19 aThis you know, my beloved brethren. But everyone must be quick to hear, slow to speak and slow to anger;
- 20 for the anger of man does not achieve the righteousness of God.
- 21 Therefore, putting aside all filthiness and all that remains of wickedness, in humility receive the word implanted, which is able to save your souls.
- 22 But prove yourselves doers of the word, 4 and not merely hearers who delude themselves.
- 23 For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks at his natural face in a mirror;
- 24 for once he has looked at himself and gone away, he has immediately forgotten what kind of person he was.
- 25 But one who looks intently at the perfect law, the law of liberty, and abides by it, not having become a forgetful hearer but an effectual doer, this man will be blessed in what he does
- 26 If anyone thinks himself to be religious, and yet does not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this man's religion is worthless.
- 27 Pure and undefiled religion in the sight of \checkmark our God and Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

the best defense against pride and fear—and that's humble dependence on Him. Why can we count on the Lord to persist in providing for us? Because there is absolutely no variation in Him. He was loving and faithful to provide all you already have, so you can be sure that He will continue to be as such always.

> 1:22 — Prove yourselves doers of the word, and not merely hearers who delude themselves.

Obeying God's Word is not always easy. Many of His commands require sacrifice and even suffering. This was true for those in the Jewish community who confessed Jesus as their Savior. They had to leave their homes and endure persecution for their testimonies. The Lord understands the difficulty in submitting ourselves to Him, but He still calls us to obey Him and allow Him to handle the consequences. We must apply His principles to our lives, because that is the only way we will find true victory over sin and death—in Him.

> 1:27 — Pure and undefiled religion in the sight of our God and Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained.

o be transformed into the image of Christ means to increasingly reflect His loving, compassionate character in our behavior. Therefore, if we are not becoming more loving toward others—especially the most helpless of our society—we have taken a wrong turn somewhere. We have either neglected our relationship with Him or have disobeyed His commands.

> 2:1 — Do not hold your faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ with an attitude of personal favoritism.

o you judge people by their wealth, appearance, position in society, or ability to advance your goals? This and there also comes in a poor man in dirty clothes,

- 3 and you pay special attention to the one who is wearing the fine clothes, and say, "You sit here in a good place," and you say to the poor man, "You stand over there, or sit down by my footstool,"
- 4 have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil motives?
- ➤ 5 Listen, my beloved brethren: did not God choose the poor of this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which He promised to those who love Him?
 - 6 But you have dishonored the poor man. Is it not the rich who oppress you and personally drag you into court?
 - 7 Do they not blaspheme the fair name by which you have been called?
 - 8 If, however, you are fulfilling the royal law according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you are doing well.
 - 9 But if you show partiality, you are committing sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors.
- ≥ 10 For whoever keeps the whole law and yet stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of all.
 - 11 For He who said, "Do not commit adul-TERY," also said, "Do not commit murder." Now if you do not commit adultery, but do commit murder, you have become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak and so act as those who are to be judged by the law of liberty.

13 For judgment will be merciless to one who has shown no mercy; mercy triumphs over judgment.

Faith and Works

- 14 What use is it, my brethren, if someone says he has faith but he has no works? Can that faith save him?
- 15 If a brother or sister is without clothing ≺ and in need of daily food,
- 16 and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, be warmed and be filled," and yet you do not give them what is necessary for their body, what use is that?
- 17 Even so faith, if it has no works, is dead, being by itself.
- 18 But someone may well say, "You have faith and I have works; show me your faith without the works, and I will show you my faith by my works."
- 19 You believe that ^aGod is one. You do well; ≺ the demons also believe, and shudder.

LIFE LESSONS-

was never the Lord's will for those who believe in Him. Everyone you meet is loved by God. Every person that comes across your path is one who Jesus Christ sacrificed Himself on the Cross to save. The Lord's love towards them is unconditional, and so should yours be, if you truly believe in Him (1 John 4:20).

> 2:5 — Did not God choose the poor of this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which He promised to those who love Him?

Carthly riches do not equal spiritual wealth any more than economic destitution indicates spiritual poverty. Those who love God, regardless of their earthly financial position, are rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom, because of their relationship with Him. Conversely, those who are lost—no matter how affluent their lives appear—fail to understand how impoverished and pitiable they really are (Luke 16:19–31).

> 2:10 — Whoever keeps the whole law and yet stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of all.

Games warned Jewish believers that if they renounced Christ, they would once again be enslaved by the law, which had no true power in their lives. Even if they kept every command, they could not rid themselves of the sins they had already committed. This is true for us. We can never be "good enough" to earn salvation or the grace that God gives so freely. We are either completely obedient to God by accepting Christ—who fulfills the law completely or we are disobedient. We cannot have it both ways.

> 2:15, 16 — If a brother or sister is without clothing and in need of daily food . . . yet you do not give them what is necessary for their body, what use is that?

The motivation for giving others food to eat and water to drink, for clothing the naked, housing the stranger, and for visiting the sick and the prisoner is the love of God. Faith in Him transforms our character and behavior. If you know Jesus as your Lord and Savior, you are already saved. You don't earn your salvation by doing these things. Rather, you express your overflowing love for God in obedience to Him and service to others.

2:18 — "I will show you my faith by my works."

Good works done in obedience to God are the evidence of our faith. They do not earn or purchase our salvation. If a person says they know Jesus Christ as their Savior, there must be proof of it—there must be confirmation that the Holy Spirit is molding that individual into the likeness of Christ. This does not mean an artificial change in behavior, but one that stems from the transformation of their very character.

> 2:19 — You believe that God is one. You do well; the demons also believe, and shudder.

Pelief in a deity is not the same as faith in God. Demons believe that He exists. In fact, they dwelt with Him in heaven but were cast out because of their rebellion against Him (ls. 14:12–15; Luke 10:17, 18; 2 Pet. 2:4; Rev. 12:9). They also saw Christ rise from the grave. They are well aware of spiritual realities. But they do not willingly submit to the Lord or obey Him. They continue in their pride—and so does the person who refuses to believe in Christ for salvation (John 3:17, 18; Eph. 4:18; 2 Pet. 3:9).

- 20 But are you willing to recognize, you foolish fellow, that faith without works is useless?
- 21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered up Isaac his son on the altar?
- 22 You see that faith was working with his works, and as a result of the works, faith was perfected;
- 23 and the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness," and he was called the friend of God.
- 24 You see that a man is justified by works and not by faith alone.
- 25 In the same way, was not Rahab the harlot also justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out by another way?
- 26 For just as the body without the spirit is dead, so also faith without works is dead.

The Tongue Is a Fire

- 3 LET not many of you become teachers, my brethren, knowing that as such we will incur a stricter judgment.
 - 2 For we all stumble in many ways. If anyone does not stumble in what he says, he is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole body as well.
 - 3 Now if we put the bits into the horses' mouths so that they will obey us, we direct their entire body as well.
 - 4 Look at the ships also, though they are so great and are driven by strong winds, are still directed by a very small rudder wherever the inclination of the pilot desires.
- So also the tongue is a small part of the body, and yet it boasts of great things.

See how great a forest is set aflame by such a small fire!

- 6 And the tongue is a fire, the very world of iniquity; the tongue is set among our members as that which defiles the entire body, and sets on fire the course of our life, and is set on fire by hell.
- 7 For every species of beasts and birds, of reptiles and creatures of the sea, is tamed and has been tamed by the human race.
- 8 But no one can tame the tongue; it is a restless evil and full of deadly poison.
- 9 With it we bless our Lord and Father, and with it we curse men, who have been made in the likeness of God;
- 10 from the same mouth come both blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not to be this way.
- 11 Does a fountain send out from the same opening both fresh and bitter water?
- 12 Can a fig tree, my brethren, produce olives, or a vine produce figs? Nor can salt water produce fresh.

Wisdom from Above

- 13 Who among you is wise and understanding? Let him show by his good behavior his deeds in the gentleness of wisdom.
- 14 But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, do not be arrogant and so lie against the truth.
- 15 This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, natural, demonic
- 16 For where jealousy and selfish ambition ≤ exist, there is disorder and every evil thing.
- 17 But the wisdom from above is first pure, \leq then peaceable, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, unwavering, without hypocrisy.
- 18 And the seed whose fruit is righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

Then we as believers appear before the judgment—or Bema—seat of Christ, we will be held accountable for three things: the truth we understood, the opportunities He gave us to share that truth, and how we responded in obedience to Him (1 Cor. 3:12–15; 2 Cor. 5:9). Teachers, of course, will have great opportunities to admonish people to grow in the Lord. If they lead them astray—as the false prophets were doing—or act out of selfish ambition rather than obedience, they will be held accountable.

> 3:5 — The tongue is a small part of the body, and yet it boasts of great things. See how great a forest is set aflame by such a small fire!

A person may do seemingly selfless, good works, and yet their words betray the true intentions of their hearts—pride, lust, and dishonesty. The tongue and the spoken word are powerful and can set the course of your life. Though you try to suppress the sinfulness and hide the selfish ambitions within, these often are revealed by what you say. This is why you need Jesus to sanctify—or transform—you from the inside out.

> 3:16 — Where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every evil thing.

Then we envy others, the enemy is successful in shifting our focus away from God and onto our circumstances. We become distracted, prideful, and covetous. Our eyes are fixed on our circumstances and the rights we believe we deserve, and we end up making unwise decisions. This prevents us from enjoying God's blessings.

> 3:17 — The wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, unwavering, without hypocrisy.

God's wisdom leads to harmony and peace, while human reasoning leads to arrogance and dissension. Which of these characterizes your life? You can answer that question by evaluating your relationships. When you fail to seek the Lord. it shows.

Things to Avoid

4WHAT is the source of quarrels and conflicts among you? Is not the source your pleasures that wage war in your members?

- You lust and do not have; so you commit murder. You are envious and cannot obtain; so you fight and quarrel. You do not have because you do not ask.
 - 3 You ask and do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, so that you may spend it on your pleasures.
- You adulteresses, do you not know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.
 Or do you think that the Scripture speaks
 - 5 Or do you think that the Scripture speaks to no purpose: "aHe jealously desires the Spirit which He has made to dwell in us"?
 - 6 But He gives a greater grace. Therefore it says, "God is opposed to the proud, but gives grace to the humble."
- * 7 Submit therefore to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you.

 * 8 Draw near to God and He will draw.
- *8 Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded.
 - 9 Be miserable and mourn and weep; let your laughter be turned into mourning and your joy to gloom.
- ≥ 10 Humble yourselves in the presence of the Lord, and He will exalt you.
 - 11 Do not speak against one another, brethren. He who speaks against a brother or judges his brother, speaks against the law and judges the law; but if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge of it.

- 12 There is only one Lawgiver and Judge, the One who is able to save and to destroy; but who are you who judge your neighbor?
- 13 Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a city, and spend a year there and engage in business and make a profit."
- 14 Yet you do not know what your life will be like tomorrow. You are just a vapor that appears for a little while and then vanishes away.
- 15 Instead, you ought to say, "If the Lord wills, we will live and also do this or that."
- 16 But as it is, you boast in your arrogance; all such boasting is evil.
- 17 Therefore, to one who knows the right thing to do and does not do it, to him it is sin.

Misuse of Riches

5COME now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries which are coming upon you.

- 2 Your riches have rotted and your garments have become moth-eaten.
- 3 Your gold and your silver have rusted; and their rust will be a witness against you and will consume your flesh like fire. It is in the last days that you have stored up your treasure!
- 4 Behold, the pay of the laborers who mowed your fields, and which has been with-

LIFE LESSONS

> 4:2 — You are envious and cannot obtain; so you fight and quarrel. You do not have because you do not ask.

Then we try to reach our goals in our own strength, we often find ourselves at odds with others. We compete for prominence and success, all at the expense of our relationships. This is the result of pride in our lives and is why we do not ask God to help us—we want to achieve it all on our own. We also realize that if we ask Him to give us what we want, He may say no because it is not His best for us—and that, we feel, is unacceptable. Remember, whatever we acquire outside of His will eventually turns to ashes.

> 4:4 — Do you not know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God.

The ways of God and those of the world are completely incompatible. Why? John 3:19 explains, "Men loved the darkness rather than the Light, for their deeds were evil." If we live our lives trying to please other people or ourselves, we will be at odds with the Lord. But if we live for Him, shining His light, the world will be hostile toward us because our presence convicts them of the sins they want to continue committing (John 3:16–21; 7:7; 12:25; 15:18–22; 17:14; 1 John 3:13).

> 4:7 — Submit therefore to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you.

The enemy loves to tempt Christians to be prideful—to believe that they are responsible for their own success rather than God. We can resist the devil's terrible influence by submitting ourselves to Christ. This means we accept God's wisdom and will; we trust His power and love; and we obey His commands. Nothing disarms the enemy faster than maintaining a humble heart before the Lord.

> 4:10 — Humble yourselves in the presence of the Lord, and He will exalt you.

Samuel the prophet, "Those who honor Me I will honor, and those who despise Me will be lightly esteemed" (1 Sam. 2:30). When we submit ourselves fully to the Lord, He works through us to achieve His will. It is then that His glory shines through us, and we are able to achieve things that would never be possible through our own wisdom and strength.

> 4:17 — To one who knows the right thing to do and does not do it, to him it is sin.

It times, we think about sin as what we do in violation of God's law. However, Scripture is clear that we sin against Him whenever we do not do His will—which includes knowing the right thing to do and not doing it. Partial obedience is disobedience. Therefore, when God motivates us to serve Him in some way, we should never ignore it. We should obey Him, knowing that He will certainly bless our obedience.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

How can I enrich my time alone with God?

IAMES 4:8

Have you ever sat down in a quiet place with your Bible, ready to have a devotional time with the Lord—but you felt aimless? Maybe you flipped through the pages and finally settled on a psalm. But then you remembered another appointment, so you said a quick prayer and told yourself you would take more time to pray later—but it never happened.

You're not alone if you feel frustrated with the quality of your quiet times. As much as you may desire real intimacy with your personal Savior, He longs for this even more. James 4:8 promises, "Draw near to God and He will draw near to you."

It helps many people to receive some direction on how to develop a close walk with Christ. Here are four easy steps to help you begin.

First, set a goal to spend time with God every day. Regardless of tight schedules, we cannot afford to do otherwise. God knows everything. He knows what we will face today, tomorrow, and in the future. He is loving, kind, gentle, caring, omniscient, holy, and worthy of all our worship and praise (Psalm 18:3). He is our best friend and our living Lord. Starting the day without acknowledging His goodness and love should be the last thing we do. Before our feet hit the floor in the morning, we need to thank Him for His protective care, for loving us, and for being the sovereign God of the universe.

Also, we need to pray along with the apostle Paul and take on the "whole" armor of God each day (Eph. 6). We are living in a time of extreme spiritual warfare when Satan is seeking to draw us away from God's truth. We won't fall for his deceptive and wicked schemes as long as we hide the Word of God in our hearts. Jesus spent time alone in prayer, and His pattern is the one we need to follow and not the one established by the world.

Second, make a commitment to pray and to read His Word daily. Even when you don't feel like it, take time to express your heart to the Lord. Then ask Him to show you certain passages in His Word that would help you see your situation from His perspective. We need to pray when times are good and when they are bad. We also need to pray without ceasing, knowing that the One person who holds the answer to all of life's problems loves us unconditionally and has a wonderful plan for our lives.

If you had the opportunity to experience the greatest level of peace and security, would you turn away from it? None of us would. Then why do so many people turn away from God and never take time to pray? When we bypass spending time with Him, we are only hurting ourselves. In the process, we miss His blessings—one after another. If there is a need for wisdom, He has promised to provide it. If there is a need for encouragement, hope, guidance, and provision, He provides each one of these. But if we fail to spend time with Him, we will never know the benefits that are ours.

Third, keep a journal of your spiritual trek. Keep a notebook and pen ready to write down the insight God provides. Some people record their daily prayers, leaving a space to describe how God answered them. You may prefer a format in which you write down a special verse and describe why it impacted you. If you have kept a journal before, you know what a treat it is to see a reminder of your spiritual journey.

Fourth, make a commitment to obey the Lord. Obedience always leads to blessing. It reveals our level of trust in Him and our willingness to do what He requires. Micah wrote, "He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?" (Mic. 6:8). We cannot walk with God unless we agree with Him, and there is no agreement apart from obedience. Likewise, there can be no peace or lasting joy when we are in opposition to Him.

Are you ready for a relationship with Jesus that knows no boundaries? Then open your time, your life, and your heart—and know without a doubt that He will meet with you.

Exhortation

- ▶ 7 Therefore be patient, brethren, until the coming of the Lord. The farmer waits for the precious produce of the soil, being patient about it, until it gets the early and late rains.

- 11 We count those blessed who endured. You have heard of the endurance of Job and have seen the outcome of the Lord's dealings, that the Lord is full of compassion and is merciful.
 12 But above all, my brethren, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or with any other oath; but your yes is to be yes, and your no,

- no, so that you may not fall under judgment. 13 Is anyone among you suffering? Then he must pray. Is anyone cheerful? He is to sing praises.
- 14 Is anyone among you sick? Then he must call for the elders of the church and they are to pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord;
- 15 and the prayer offered in faith will arestore the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up, and if he has committed sins, they will be forgiven him.
- 16 Therefore, confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another so that you may be healed. The effective prayer of a righteous man can accomplish much.
- 17 Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, ≺ and he prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months.
- 18 Then he prayed again, and the sky poured rain and the earth produced its fruit.

 19 My brethren, if any among you strays from the truth and one turns him back, 20 let him know that he who turns a sinner from the array of his array will gave his goal.

- 20 let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will save his soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

> 5:7 — Be patient, brethren, until the coming of the Lord.

There are two words in the New Testament for patience. The first has to do with difficult circumstances (James 1:3, 4) and means "to stay the course or to endure." The second is more personal because it has to do with how we relate to others. It means "to be patient in bearing the offenses and injuries of others and to stay away from rage." The scattered believers could have struck out at their persecutors. But James admonished them to be patient and trust God, knowing that they would be the light of salvation to those around them (Matt. 5:14–16).

> 5:10 — As an example, brethren, of suffering and patience, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

dust like the saints of old, we learn more in our valley experiences than on our mountaintops—more through suffering than we do from success. Any time you experience adversity, it is because God wants to show you His power and love. He may be freeing you from emotional bondage or destructive habits, or perhaps there is some precious quality that He wants to develop in you. Whatever the reason, God never means it for your harm. Rather, it's for your benefit so that you can become everything you were created to be and experience His abundant blessings.

> 5:11 — You have heard of the endurance of Job and have seen the outcome of the Lord's dealings, that the Lord is full of compassion and is merciful.

Job had to go through some very dark, excruciating days, but God never abandoned Him. It always helps to remember God's unchanging compassion and mercy when we suffer

> 5:16 — Confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another so that you may be healed.

 \mathcal{N} o Christian has ever been called to "go it alone" in his or her walk of faith. We cannot obey God without being in regular, close fellowship with other believers. He has designed us so that many of our needs can only be met through mutual interdependence.

> 5:17 — Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months.

o illustrate that "the effective prayer of a righteous man can accomplish much" (James 5:16), James cites the prophet Elijah, who was taken up to heaven on a whirlwind (1 Kin. 17:1; 18:1, 41–45; 2 Kin. 2:11). When we come to the bottom line, he was no different than any believer. He did not have any special strength or control over nature. Rather, the power rested with the One to whom he prayed. And because the prophet trusted wholeheartedly in the Lord, he saw the answers to his requests. The same can be true for us.

LIFE PRINCIPLE 29

WE LEARN MORE IN OUR VALLEY EXPERIENCES THAN ON OUR MOUNTAINTOPS.

JAMES 5:10

dversity, anguish, trials, tribulations, and heartaches operate as lessons in the school of experience. They bring us to a place of new insight and understanding. They can alter our perceptions of the world, our views of God, and lead us to change our behaviors. The Lord, of course, is the ultimate Teacher. He is the One to whom we must look for the meaning of any lesson related to adversity.

God allows adversity for at least three reasons:

1. God uses adversity to get our attention.

The Lord uses a wide variety of methods to gain our attention when necessary—adversity is one of them. One of the best responses I know to adversity that strikes us suddenly (and yet obviously) with a God-intended message is to turn to Psalm 25:1–7 and make it our personal prayer:

To You, O Lord, I lift up my soul. O my God, in You I trust, do not let me be ashamed; do not let my enemies exult over me. Indeed, none of those who wait for You will be ashamed; those who deal treacherously without cause will be ashamed. Make me know Your ways, O LORD; teach me Your paths. Lead me in Your truth and teach me, for You are the God of my salvation; for You I wait all the day. Remember, O LORD, Your compassion and Your lovingkindnesses, for they have been from of old. Do not remember the sins of my youth or my transgressions; according to Your lovingkindness remember me, for Your goodness' sake, O LORD.

Don't delay in responding to the Lord when He moves to get your attention. Respond quickly and humbly. Hear what He has to say to you.

2. Adversity leads to examination.

At times, God allows adversity to motivate us to self-examination. The winds of adversity blow away the surface issues and force us to cope with things on a deeper level. Nothing has the ability to drive us closer to God than tribulation. It removes the cloak of denial and reveals who we really are, as well as what we believe about God, His deity, and faithfulness.

We need to examine both our faith and our levels of discipline. Are we committed to standing firm in our trust in Don't delay in responding to the Lord when He moves to get your attention.

Christ, or are we blown off course by every ill wind that blows our way? Paul encouraged the Corinthians, "But a man must examine himself" (1 Cor. 11:28). In other words, "Take a straight forward look inside and discover what is driving you, motivating you, and enticing you." If it is anything but God, then it is not right. He needs to be your motivating factor at every turn in life.

Those who have accepted Christ as Savior are the temples of the Holy Spirit, and He wants us to be clean and usable vessels. We have no reason to allow the rubbish of the world or our past failures to remain in the forefront of our lives. The Lord desires that we free ourselves of anything that might keep us in inner bondage, whether mentally, emotionally, psychologically, or spiritually. When we become complacent and accept the hurts of the past as a part of who we are, we have accepted the wrong view, the wrong definition, and the wrong game plan. We are new creations in Christ. There is never a point where we are separated from Him.

> Allow God to surface the inner rubbish of your life.

He has sealed us with His Spirit. The old is gone; the new has come. And that newness of life is the very thing that gives us hope in hopeless times.

3. The effective lesson leads to change in behavior.

When we act like Christ, our true identity emerges. Teachers often prepare behavioral objectives for their classroom lectures. These objectives list in concrete and measurable form the behaviors that the teacher desires for a student to display as proof that the student has learned the lesson. The lessons that the Lord teaches us through adversity are ultimately for that very purpose: a change in behavior, including a change in the belief that prompted the behavior.

It isn't enough that God desires to get our attention or that we take time to look truthfully at our lives. We must allow His Spirit to have free access to every area. We learn to watch, listen, and look for His guidance and direction. We can see a problem or feel a flush of anger and think: How should I respond? We may make the wrong choice, say the wrong word, or ignore what we know He is telling us to do. Unless we change our response and behavior, we will never benefit from adversity or grow as a result of it. God provides a challenge, and we have an opportunity to obey or disobey Him. The choice is ours, and the consequences that come belong to us, as well.

Jesus came to bear the burdens that plague our lives. He will help us carry our burdens to the Cross and deal with them there, once and for all. He always has our best interests in mind. He alone knows that pain paves the path to complete spiritual healing and restoration.

If you are willing to allow God to surface the inner rubbish of your life, and if you are willing to change what needs to be changed, you will emerge from adversity closer to Christ, more mature as His child, and with far greater potential to reflect the love of God to the world around you.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT PRINCIPLES FOR EFFECTIVE INTERCESSION

James 5:15, 16

ach of us has prayed for others without seeing results.
When that happens, it's easy to become discouraged. Rather than give up, we should review our lives to see if we need to alter something.

- 1. Our prayers must flow from a heart that is in step with God. If we want our prayers to be effective, we must be open to His Spirit and be compassionate, forgiving, and sincere as we intercede. Therefore, pray that you will have His love and compassion for others and that you will forgive fully—just as He has forgiven you (Eph. 4:32).
- 2. Our prayers are a link between a person's need and God's inexhaustible resources. Ask the Lord to reveal your loved one's true needs His power to meet those needs so that you can intercede in faith and encourage the person you're praying for.
- 3. Identify with the need of the other person. To be truly compassionate in our supplication, we must see others through Jesus' eyes. When we realize that people are truly hurting on the inside, our mercy for them is released, and we can intercede for them with greater zeal, understanding, and emotion.

To be truly compassionate in our supplication, we must see others through Jesus' eyes.

- 4. Desire the highest good in the person's life. We should pray that he or she would stay in the center of God's will because He knows what is absolutely best for each person and what it will take to bring him or her closer to Him.
- 5. Be open to meeting the person's need. Are you willing for God to use you to meet another person's need? Will you allow Him to glorify Himself through you? Jesus did not back away from those who were hurting, and neither should we. We are to follow His example and always remember that God blesses us so that we might bless others.
- 6. Persevere. We must continue praying, regardless of whether we see immediate results or not, because the longer we intercede for a person, the more tightly our hearts will be knit to that person. That in itself is a comfort to those in need. Prayer binds us together in love and fellowship—with a spiritual bond that lasts into eternity and will certainly be a blessing to us and to others.

Therefore, endure in your loving, compassionate, hopeful supplication for others, and always be confident that: "The effective prayer of a righteous man can accomplish much" (James 5:16). God is listening, friend. Trust Him.

Persecution can cause either growth or bitterness in the Christian life. It is our response that determines the result.

In his first letter, Peter encourages believers struggling with persecution to conduct themselves courageously for Christ. Having been born again to a living hope, they are to imitate the Holy One who has called them and keep their character and conduct above reproach. They also must be determined to live in godliness, honor, and humble submission—citizens toward government, servants toward masters, wives toward husbands, husbands toward wives, and Christians toward one another.

Only after Peter explains the meaning of submission does he deal with the difficult subject of adversity. Persecuted Christians are not to be surprised "at the fiery ordeal among you, which comes upon you for your testing, as though some strange thing were happening to you" (1 Pet. 4:12). Instead, they are to rejoice as partakers of the suffering of Christ. In fact, "Those also who suffer according to the will of God shall entrust their souls to a faithful Creator in doing what is right" (v. 19). Only those who joyfully submit their lives to the good hand of God will be able to endure and glorify Him in this often painful life.

Peter wrote his letter to Christians in northern Asia Minor, who were apparently facing severe persecution because of their faith. Peter wanted them to know that they shouldn't be surprised or dismayed if they faced opposition because Jesus Himself certainly faced it. Indeed, believers should feel hope and joy whenever they are counted worthy of bearing reproach for the sake of His name (Acts 5:41). "To the degree that you share the sufferings of Christ, keep on rejoicing, so that also at the revelation of His glory you may rejoice with exultation" (1 Pet. 4:13).

This epistle begins with the phrase Petros apostolos Jesou Christou, "Peter, the apostle of Jesus Christ." This is the basis of the early title Petrou A, the "First of Peter."

Theme: Suffering is part of walking with and serving Jesus Christ, and it is not to be feared, but to be embraced.

Author: The apostle Peter.

Time: Most likely written from Rome circa A.D. 62–64, before Nero's great persecution of Christians. This was the emperor who had Peter executed.

Structure: Peter greets the recipients (1:1, 2), praises God for His salvation (vv. 3–12), and then encourages his readers to honor the Lord by living in a godly way (1:13—5:12). He ends his letter with a brief final greeting (5:13, 14).

LIFE LESSONS

> 1:1 — To those who reside as aliens, scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia.

Believers had been scattered throughout Asia Minor because of persecution and economic hardship. Far from home, shunned in their new communities, under constant opposition from the government and religious leaders, and with little prospect of financially sustaining their families or staying safe, Christians faced tremendous pressures. However, even in the midst of their devastating circumstances they could have hope in Christ Jesus.

> 1:3 — According to His great mercy has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

Deter experienced great despair as he watched the Lord Jesus—his beloved Teacher, Master, Messiah, and Friend—hanging upon the Cross. When Christ died, Peter undoubtedly felt as if all hope were lost. Three days later, however, the Resurrection would change everything. Because our Savior is alive, we have a living hope. The Resurrection of Jesus guarantees that God will honor all His promises to His faithful children. And the knowledge that He is with us and will never forsake us can encourage us and keep us going—even in the darkest times.

> 1:6, 7 — You have been distressed by various trials, so that the proof of your faith, being more precious than gold . . . may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ.

How would you ever learn to trust God if you never experienced a situation where only He could help you? This is why adversity is a bridge to a deeper relationship with the Lord. He allows your faith to be refined by fire—just as gold is—so that every impurity, doubt, anxiety, and frustration bubbles to the surface. Then, when He answers your desperate prayers, all of those hindrances to your trust in Him are removed, leaving only purified confidence in His holy ways.

> 1:8 — Though you do not see Him now, but believe in Him, you greatly rejoice with joy inexpressible and full of glory.

The Christian life should be characterized by joy because of the unassailable power, love, and wisdom of our Savior Jesus Christ. Although we face adversity and cannot see Him in it, we know He can redeem any situation. He uses everything that touches our lives for our good and His glory. The dark moments of our life last only long enough for Him to accomplish His purpose in us. How could we not have joy in our hearts when we know God loves us, is with us, has promised to help us, and wants to bless us forever?

> 1:10 — As to this salvation, the prophets who prophesied of the grace that would come to you made careful searches and inquiries.

Skeptics may claim that the gospel is something concocted by Jesus' followers. But the coming of the Messiah was promised from the beginning (Gen. 3:15), was in fulfillment of God's covenants with Abraham (Gen. 12:1–3) and David (2 Sam. 7:12–16), and was prophesied by the majority of the Old Testament prophets.

> 1:15 — Like the Holy One who called you, be holy yourselves also in all your behavior.

It takes a godly, deliberate, Spirit-filled walk to honor God and glorify Him. This does not mean we adopt a dour, grim-faced determination to do the pious, religious rituals that drain all enjoyment out of life. Rather, we live out the holiness that Christ has given us by obeying Him and imitating His ways.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

How do I handle a difficult trial not of my own doing?

1 PET. 1:6, 7

Even those who maintain close, intimate fellowship with the Lord are not immune to disappointments, obstacles, challenges, struggles, and feelings of hopelessness. In fact at times, God allows us to face impossible circumstances in order to test and try our faith. It is the adversity that motivates us to seek Him, and when we do, He faithfully strengthens and refreshes us.

God knows every emotion, need, and desire we have. He cares when we face difficult situations and grow weary. He hears our cries and understands exactly what it will take to bring us into a more intimate relationship with Him.

The apostle Peter addressed his two letters to "those who reside as aliens, scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia" (1 Pet. 1:1; 2 Pet. 3:1). If he were choosing a modern title for his letters, he might consider "Encouragement for Times of Suffering," or "Hope for the Hurting," because encouragement and hope are exactly what Peter conveyed to these distressed believers.

be holy yourselves also in all your behavior; 16 because it is written, "You shall be holy, for I am holy."

17 If you address as Father the One who impartially judges according to each one's work, conduct yourselves in fear during the time of your stay on earth;

18 knowing that you were not redeemed with perishable things like silver or gold from your futile way of life inherited from your forefathers, 19 but with precious blood, as of a lamb unblemished and spotless, the blood of Christ.

20 For He was foreknown before the foundation of the world, but has appeared in these last times for the sake of you

21 who through Him are believers in God, who raised Him from the dead and gave Him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

These Christians faced all kinds of persecution. They were beaten, slandered, assaulted, and in many cases lost their lives for their faith in Jesus Christ. Peter called them "aliens" because their citizenship was not of this world but of the kingdom of God. Still, they faced times of great discouragement and loss and needed the courage only available through Christ. Peter explained that they could rejoice even in times of trial because Jesus—their risen Savior and Lord—would always be the living hope within them (1 Pet. 1:3). So long as we have the Lord Jesus Christ, no situation is hopeless.

Would you like to have eternal hope? Then focus your heart on Jesus (1 Tim. 4:6). He wants to bring His will and good pleasure to fruition in your life. Even if you find yourself in a seemingly impossible situation, remember that He has an entirely different view of the details. And if you will let Him, He will take your life, no matter how bruised and broken, and make something beautiful out of it.

Isn't this what hope is all about—beauty for ashes, gladness instead of sorrow, and a coat of praise instead of fainting (Is. 61:1–3)? This is the ongoing ministry of Jesus Christ in your life. Therefore, bring to Him your afflictions and disappointments. Tell Him your sorrows, and He will restore your hope.

See the Life Principles Index for further study: 26. Adversity is a bridge to a deeper relationship with God.

7. The dark moments in our life will last only so long as is necessary for God to accomplish His purpose in us.

22 Since you have in obedience to the truth purified your souls for a sincere love of the brethren, fervently love one another from athe heart, 23 for you have been born again not of seed which is perishable but imperishable, that is, through the living and enduring word of God.

24 For,

"All flesh is like grass,

AND ALL ITS GLORY LIKE THE FLOWER OF GRASS.

THE GRASS WITHERS,

AND THE FLOWER FALLS OFF,

25 But the word of the Lord endures forever."

And this is the word which was preached to you.

As Newborn Babes

2THEREFORE, putting aside all malice and all deceit and hypocrisy and envy and all slander,

≥ 2 like newborn babies, long for the pure milk of the word, so that by it you may grow in respect to salvation,

3 if you have tasted the kindness of the

As Living Stones

4 And coming to Him as to a living stone which has been rejected by men, but is choice and precious in the sight of God,

5 you also, as living stones, are being built up as a spiritual house for a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

6 For this is contained in Scripture:

"Behold, I lay in Zion a choice stone, a precious corner stone,

AND HE WHO BELIEVES IN HIM WILL NOT BE DISAPPOINTED."

7 This precious value, then, is for you who believe; but for those who disbelieve,

"The stone which the builders rejected, This became the very corner stone,"

8 and.

"A STONE OF STUMBLING AND A ROCK OF OFFENSE":

for they stumble because they are disobedient to the word, and to this doom they were also appointed.

9 But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, so that you may proclaim the excellencies of Him who has called you out of darkness into His marvelous light;

10 for you once were not a people, but now you are the people of God; you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy

11 Beloved, I urge you as aliens and \triangleleft strangers to abstain from fleshly lusts which wage war against the soul.

12 Keep your behavior excellent among the Gentiles, so that in the thing in which they slander you as evildoers, they may because of your good deeds, as they observe them, glorify God in the day of avisitation.

Honor Authority

13 Submit yourselves for the Lord's sake to every human institution, whether to a king as the one in authority, 14 or to governors as sent by him for the punishment of evildoers and the praise of those who do right.

15 For such is the will of God that by doing right you may silence the ignorance of foolish men

16 Act as free men, and do not use your freedom as a covering for evil, but use it as bond-slaves of God.

17 Honor all people, love the brotherhood, fear God, honor the king.

18 Servants, be submissive to your masters with all respect, not only to those who are good and gentle, but also to those who are unreasonable.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 2:1 — Putting aside all malice and all deceit and hypocrisy and envy and all slander.

Me must rid ourselves of anything that hinders our walk with the Lord. We must repent of it, which means we agree with God that the behavior is against His will and change course. We must deal with our sinfulness radically so that His blessings can flow and we can experience life at its very best.

> 2:2 — Like newborn babies, long for the pure milk of the word, so that by it you may grow in respect to salvation.

s infants crave their mothers' nutritious milk, so we are to yearn for the life-giving Word of God. Growing in Christ requires that we spend time in His Word—learning His ways and being transformed into His image through the work of the Holy Spirit.

> 2:9 — You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession.

Peter uses the wonderful descriptions that were originally applied to Israel to portray the position we enjoy as believers in Christ (Ex. 19: 5, 6). As the church, we do not replace Israel as God's people. Rather, we have been "grafted in" to His family through Christ (Rom. 11:17). Just as Israel was called to be a blessing to the nations (Gen.

28:14), we are, too. We are chosen, royal, and holy people who have the opportunity to represent Him to a lost and dying world.

> 2:11 — Beloved, I urge you as aliens and strangers to abstain from fleshly lusts which wage war against the soul.

Then we face opposition and end up wanting to "fit in," the temptation to compromise our convictions becomes great. The trouble comes when we forget that this world is not our home. Therefore, we must have an eternal perspective and remember we are only aliens and strangers here. Our real home is in heaven with God, but even here He is in control of everything that concerns us.

> 2:18 — Servants, be submissive to your masters with all respect, not only to those who are good and gentle, but also to those who are unreasonable.

who were considered human tools. Even though many were doctors, teachers, stewards, secretaries, musicians, and artists, they had absolutely no rights whatsoever. Yet Peter taught that they could always choose how they responded to their masters. The same is true for us. Although our employer may not give us many choices and may even be unreasonable, we have the ability to choose how we will respond. When you treat your boss with respect, God is glorified.

19 For this finds favor, if for the sake of conscience toward God a person bears up under sorrows when suffering unjustly.

➤ 20 For what credit is there if, when you sin and are harshly treated, you endure it with patience? But if when you do what is right and suffer for it you patiently endure it, this finds favor with God.

Christ Is Our Example

LIFE LESSONS

> 2:20 — If when you do what is right and suffer for it you patiently endure it, this finds favor with God.

uring this time in church history, many who stood steadfast for Christ were badly persecuted and mistreated—even to the point of death. However, their testimonies were never in vain. Whenever you do what you know is in line with God's will, but are punished for it, do not fret. You have pleased the Lord, and He will bless your faithfulness. Be patient during those difficult times. Do not complain or be disheartened, but with courage endure—because the Lord will vindicate and reward you in due time.

> 2:21 — Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example for you to follow in His steps.

gesus is our ultimate example in all things, even in suffering. When accused falsely, He kept silent (Matt. 26:59–63; Mark 14:55–61). When sentenced to death, He did not fight back (John 19:10, 11). Instead, He always exhibited His perfect love and forgiveness (Luke 23:34). Likewise, when we humbly submit ourselves to God's will, although it may mean suffering (Luke 22:42), we demonstrate our love for God. And through our example, many will be drawn to Him (John 12:32).

> 2:24 — He Himself bore our sins in His body on the cross, so that we might die to sin and live to right-eousness; for by His wounds you were healed.

eter quotes Isaiah to remind believers of the great gift Christ has given us: "He was pierced through for our transgressions . . . and by His scourging we are healed" (Is. 53:5). On the Cross, Jesus paid the sin debt of every person who ever lived. And the moment we accept Him as our personal Savior, His provision is applied to our life—the full penalty of our transgressions removed forevermore.

> 3:3 — Your adornment must not be merely external—braiding the hair, and wearing gold jewelry, or putting on dresses.

even in the early church, believers were tempted to give in to their vanity. Unfortunately, when they dressed immodestly, they looked more like the pagans than they did like Christ. So Peter taught them to not be consumed by their appearance, but to clothe themselves with the character of Jesus. Believers should do their best, look their best, and be their best, but there always should be more to beauty than just what is on the outside.

> 3:4 — Let it be the hidden person of the heart, with the imperishable quality of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is precious in the sight of God.

One of the problems in Peter's day was that the women in the mystery religions were loud and disruptive. Christians, however, were never to imitate the pagans in worship or in daily life. When we serve God, we should not perform flamboyantly for Him. Rather, we need to be humble, submitting ourselves to Him and acknowledging Him for who He is with our whole lives. This doesn't mean Christians are to be weak, inexpressive, or unattractive, but that our priority is to allow Christ to be glorified in us.

> 3:7 — You husbands in the same way, live with your wives in an understanding way . . . and show her honor . . . so that your prayers will not be hindered.

Thy would failing to make the effort to understand and honor his wife hinder a husband's prayers? All believers are coheirs of God's promises, and He wants us to treat one another as we would treat Him. When we do not honor others, we undermine our testimony about the Lord's transformative love and salvation (John 13:35).

of life, so that your prayers will not be hindered.

- 8 To sum up, all of you be harmonious, sympathetic, brotherly, kindhearted, and humble in spirit;
- 9 not returning evil for evil or insult for insult, but giving a blessing instead; for you were called for the very purpose that you might inherit a blessing.

10 For,

"The one who desires life, to love and see good days,

MUST KEEP HIS TONGUE FROM EVIL AND HIS LIPS FROM SPEAKING DECEIT.

11 "He must turn away from evil and do good;

HE MUST SEEK PEACE AND PURSUE IT.

12 "For the eyes of the Lord are toward the righteous,

And His ears attend to their prayer, But the face of the Lord is against those who do evil."

- 13 Who is there to harm you if you prove zealous for what is good?
- 14 But even if you should suffer for the sake of righteousness, you are blessed. And do not fear their intimidation, and do not be troubled.
- ➤ 15 but asanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts, always being ready to make a defense to everyone who asks you to give an account for the hope that is in you, yet with gentleness and reverence:
 - 16 and keep a good conscience so that in the thing in which you are slandered, those who revile your good behavior in Christ will be put to shame.

17 For it is better, if God should will it so, that you suffer for doing what is right rather than for doing what is wrong.

18 For Christ also died for sins once for all, the just for the unjust, so that He might bring us to God, having been put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit;

19 in which also He went and made proclamation to the spirits now in prison,

20 who once were disobedient, when the patience of God kept waiting in the days of Noah, during the construction of the ark, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were brought safely through the water.

21 Corresponding to that, baptism now saves you—not the removal of dirt from the flesh, but an appeal to God for a good conscience—through the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

22 who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, after angels and authorities and powers had been subjected to Him.

Keep Fervent in Your Love

4 THEREFORE, since Christ has buffered in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same purpose, because he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin,

2 so as to live the rest of the time in the \triangleleft flesh no longer for the lusts of men, but for the will of God.

- 3 For the time already past is sufficient for you to have carried out the desire of the Gentiles, having pursued a course of sensuality, lusts, drunkenness, carousing, drinking parties and abominable idolatries.
- 4 In all this, they are surprised that you do not run with them into the same excesses of dissipation, and they malign you;
- 5 but they will give account to Him who is ready to judge the living and the dead.
- 6 For the gospel has for this purpose been preached even to those who are dead, that though they are judged in the flesh as men, they may live in the spirit according to the will of God.
- 7 The end of all things is near; therefore, be of sound judgment and sober spirit for the purpose of prayer.

LIFE LESSONS

> 3:15 — Always being ready to make a defense to everyone who asks you to give an account for the hope that is in you, yet with gentleness and reverence.

If someone were to ask why you are a Christian, what would you say? How would you explain your belief in the Resurrection or lead them to a saving faith in Jesus Christ? If you are allowing the Lord Jesus to work through you, people will notice and will want to know what is different about you. So with gentleness, explain all that Jesus means to you and what He's done out of love for them.

> 4:2 — As to live the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for the lusts of men, but for the will of God.

 \mathcal{H} ad He chosen to do so, God could have taken us immediately to heaven when we placed our faith in Christ. But He didn't. Why not? Because He wants us to reach others for Him by showing them how His power has changed our lives.

> 4:4 — They are surprised that you do not run with them into the same excesses of dissipation, and they malign you.

Deople who knew us before we placed our faith in Christ sometimes do not understand why we no longer want to participate in the ungodly activities we engaged in before we accepted God's love. But we should not give in to their taunts or entreaties to return to that sinful behavior. We now have the unique opportunity to be a light to them, and we do that by allowing Christ to shine through us, not by returning to the bondage that once held us captive.

- ➤ 8 Above all, keep fervent in your love for one another, because love covers a multitude of sins.
 - 9 Be hospitable to one another without complaint.
- ➤ 10 As each one has received a special gift, employ it in serving one another as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.
 - 11 Whoever speaks, is to do so as one who is speaking the utterances of God; whoever serves is to do so as one who is serving by the strength which God supplies; so that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belongs the glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Share the Sufferings of Christ

- ➤ 12 Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal among you, which comes upon you for your testing, as though some strange thing were happening to you;
 - 13 but to the degree that you share the sufferings of Christ, keep on rejoicing, so that also at the revelation of His glory you may rejoice with exultation.
- * 14 If you are reviled for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you.
 - 15 Make sure that none of you suffers as a murderer, or thief, or evildoer, or a trouble-some meddler:
 - 16 but if anyone suffers as a Christian, he is not to be ashamed, but is to glorify God in this name.

- 17 For it is time for judgment to begin with the household of God; and if it begins with us first, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God?
- 18 And if it is with difficulty that the righteous is saved, what will become of the godless man and the sinner?
- 19 Therefore, those also who suffer according to the will of God shall entrust their souls to a faithful Creator in doing what is right.

Serve God Willingly

5THEREFORE, I exhort the elders among you, as your fellow elder and witness of the sufferings of Christ, and a partaker also of the glory that is to be revealed,

2 shepherd the flock of God among you, exercising oversight not under compulsion, but voluntarily, according to the will of God; and not for sordid gain, but with eagerness;

3 nor yet as lording it over those allotted to your charge, but proving to be examples to the flock.

4 And when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory.

5 You younger men, likewise, be subject to your elders; and all of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, for God is OPPOSED TO THE PROUD, BUT GIVES GRACE TO THE HUMBLE

LIFE LESSONS-

> 4:8 — Above all, keep fervent in your love for one another, because love covers a multitude of sins.

Ow does love cover a multitude of sins? Because it stops a transgression before it can multiply. For example, if someone wrongs you, you might be tempted to react in anger or vengeance, and may even gossip about it to others. In that case, the iniquity reproduces itself. If you respond with God's love and forgive the person, you not only stop the sin from going any further, you may even lead the offender to the healing he or she needs (Prov. 10:12; 17:9; 1 Cor. 12:4–7; James 5:20).

> 4:10 — As each one has received a special gift, employ it in serving one another as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

How do we serve God? By serving others (Matt. 25:31–40). Each one of us has been given special gifts and talents, and it is our responsibility to use them in leading others to a growing relationship with Jesus Christ (1 Cor. 12:4–7).

> 4:12 — Do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal among you, which comes upon you for your testing, as though some strange thing were happening to you.

The believers in the early church were no doubt confused about the suffering and persecution they were enduring. Sometimes we are as well. In our earthly reasoning, we think that because God is all-powerful and loves us perfectly, He should stop hardships from assailing our lives.

We fail to remember that the Lord is also absolutely wise and that He uses adversity to deepen our relationship with Him and display His glory to the world.

> 4:19 — Those also who suffer according to the will of God shall entrust their souls to a faithful Creator in doing what is right.

The Lord may call you to do and say things that are difficult and unpopular. This was true of the early believers. When they confessed their belief in Jesus as their Savior, they were often persecuted for their testimony. Yet it was worth it to them because they were laying hold of the eternal life Jesus provided for them (1 Tim. 6:12–19). Likewise, we must obey God, even when it is difficult, and leave all the consequences to Him. Because He will certainly reward our faithfulness in doing what is right.

> 5:2 — Shepherd the flock of God among you, exercising oversight not under compulsion, but voluntarily.

God delights in willing service, not in grudging compliance—as if we were doing Him a favor by submitting to His instructions. Eager obedience reveals a heart in love with the One who gave the command.

> 5:5 — All of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, for God is opposed to the proud, but gives grace to the humble.

Are you willing to do whatever God calls you to do whether that be to teach a class, minister to shut-ins, work in the parking lot, or go overseas on missions? We cannot arrogantly tell the Lord what we are willing to do for Him, thinking we know what is best. He hates this kind of prideful attitude. Instead, we must humbly submit to whatever He calls us to, always trusting that His plan for us is best

> 5:6 — Humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you at the proper time.

Then Peter first followed Jesus, he thought that Christ would lead Israel to victory over the Roman Empire. So when the Lord went to the Cross, his dreams of greatness were shattered. Yet Jesus' resurrection showed him that there was a more important purpose for his life than he had ever conceived. There was an eternal kingdom to build—and God worked powerfully through him. The same is true for you. You may not understand why the Lord has allowed your dreams to fail, but humbly accept His will, knowing His plan for you is better than you can possibly imagine.

> 5:7 — Casting all your anxiety on Him, because He cares for you.

epeatedly throughout Scripture, we are encouraged, "Do not fear" (Deut. 3:22; Joel 2:21; also Deut. 31:6; Ps. 56:4; ls. 35:4; 41:10, 13; Jer. 1:8; John 14:27). Why? Because the Lord can handle any problem or difficulty we could ever face, and He is committed to helping us as long as we obey Him. Regardless of our concern or worry, God wants us to bring it to Him. He always has our best interests at heart and will always help us become the people we are meant to be.

> 5:8 — Be of sober spirit, be on the alert. Your adversary, the devil, prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour.

with an enemy who is looking for weaknesses. We should never give him a foothold. Regardless of how well things may seem to be going for us, we must always keep our hearts and minds focused on Christ—obedient to His commands and faithful to His purposes (Eph. 6:10–17).

> 5:10 — After you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who called you to His eternal glory in Christ, will Himself perfect, confirm, strengthen and establish you.

Ithough some suffering may seem unending, when we realize that God has a purpose for it—perfecting, confirming, strengthening, and establishing us—we are more likely to acknowledge His activity and embrace His loving ways. Be proactive in your faith when it comes to seeking Him and obeying His will. And He will give you hope and conform you to His image. The dark moments of our lives last only as long as necessary for Him to accomplish His purpose in and through us.

In his second letter, Peter warns believers everywhere about false teachers who attempt to distort the truth of the gospel. Just as 1 Peter encourages believers to stand strong despite persecution from outward causes, 2 Peter admonishes Christians to remain faithful in spite of people from within the church preaching ungodly and illegitimate doctrine.

Peter begins by urging believers to guard their personal lives in obedience to the Lord. The Christian life demands diligence in pursuing moral excellence, knowledge, self-control, perseverance, godliness, brotherly kindness, and selfless love. Such godly living results in great blessings, "If these qualities are yours and are increasing, they render you neither useless nor unfruitful in the true knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ" (2 Pet. 1:8).

In contrast, the false teachers tried to seduce believers away from the faith by promoting sensuality, arrogance, greed, and covetousness. They scoffed at the reality of a future judgment and lived as if their current prosperity would always endure. Peter reminded his readers that although God is loving and longsuffering, He would ultimately judge the world. And the false teachers who led believers astray would "be destroyed, suffering wrong as the wages of doing wrong" (2 Pet. 2:12, 13).

As believers, we should never forget that the Lord Jesus is most certainly coming back to earth in power and great glory, bringing both His judgment and His rewards with Him. In view of that awesome fact, we should live in a godly, blameless, and steadfast manner (2 Pet. 3:11–15).

To distinguish this epistle from the first by Peter, it was given the Greek title Petrou B, the "Second of Peter."

Themes: False teachers may spread doctrine that appeals to the flesh, but they face the awesome judgment of God—and so will all those who embrace their teaching.

Author: The apostle Peter.

Time: Probably written between A.D. 65–67.

Structure: Peter introduces himself (1:1, 2), encourages his friends to grow in godliness (vv. 3–11), explains his purpose for and authority in writing (vv. 12–21), warns against false teachers (2:1–22), reminds them of Jesus' return (3:1–16), and makes a few closing remarks (vv. 17, 18).

As you read 2 Peter, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

- 24. To live the Christian life is to allow Jesus to live His life in and through us. See 2 Peter 1:3, 4; page 1494.
- 21. Obedience always brings blessing. See 2 Peter 2:9; page 1496.
- 14. God acts on behalf of those who wait for Him. See 2 Peter 3:4, 8; page 1496.
- 30. An eager anticipation of the Lord's return keeps us living productively. See 2 Peter 3:10–13; page 1497.

2 PETER 1:1

Growth in Christian Virtue

SIMON PETER, a bond-servant and apostle of Jesus Christ,

To those who have received a faith of the same kind as ours, by the righteousness of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord;

- Seeing that His divine power has granted to us everything pertaining to life and godliness, through the true knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and excellence.
- * 4 For by these He has granted to us His precious and magnificent promises, so that by them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world by lust.
 - 5 Now for this very reason also, applying all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence, and in your moral excellence, knowledge,
 - 6 and in your knowledge, self-control, and in your self-control, perseverance, and in your perseverance, godliness,
 - 7 and in your godliness, brotherly kindness, and in your brotherly kindness, love.
- 8 For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they render you neither useless nor unfruitful in the true knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.
 - 9 For he who lacks these qualities is blind or short-sighted, having forgotten his purification from his former sins.

10 Therefore, brethren, be all the more diligent to make certain about His calling and choosing you; for as long as you practice these things, you will never stumble;

11 for in this way the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will be abundantly supplied to you.

- 12 Therefore, I will always be ready to remind you of these things, even though you already know them, and have been established in the truth which is present with you.
- 13 I consider it right, as long as I am in this earthly dwelling, to stir you up by way of reminder.
- 14 knowing that the laying aside of my earthly dwelling is imminent, as also our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me.
- 15 And I will also be diligent that at any time after my departure you will be able to call these things to mind.

Eyewitnesses

16 For we did not follow cleverly devised tales when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of His majesty.

17 For when He received honor and glory from God the Father, such an utterance as this was made to Him by the Majestic Glory, "This is My beloved Son with whom I am well-pleased"—

18 and we ourselves heard this utterance 4 made from heaven when we were with Him on the holy mountain.

LIFE LESSONS

> 1:3 — His divine power has granted to us everything pertaining to life and godliness, through the true knowledge of Him who called us.

It times, we may become frustrated because we want to grow in our faith, but we struggle with understanding what God wants us to do. Yet living the Christian life means allowing Jesus to live His life through us, and we have already been given everything we need to become more like Him. So do not fret. The One who saved you is able to teach you how to live a life that pleases Him.

➤ 1:4 — By these He has granted to us His precious and magnificent promises, so that by them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world by lust.

As believers, we are partakers of a brand new life (2 Cor. 5:17)—a divine nature by which Jesus abides within us—and anything is possible by His power. We are also given awesome promises through which He develops His character in us. As we wait in faith for these promises to be fulfilled, we learn to flee from sin, rely on Him, take comfort in His Word, and listen for His voice. And it is when Christ reigns in us that we become all He created us to be.

1:8 — If these qualities are yours and are increasing, they render you neither useless nor unfruitful in the true knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. o you ever wonder if you are maturing in your walk with the Lord? Peter offers a surefire way to know if your relationship is growing deeper and becoming more fruitful. It is not by the works you do or the sacrifices you make, but by the quality of your character and whether or not you reflect God's glory in increasing measure (Rom. 8:29).

> 1:16 — We did not follow cleverly devised tales when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of His majesty.

False prophets claimed that the gospel was merely a myth—a tool to teach doctrine, just like the fictional stories other religions had used throughout the ages. Yet Peter affirmed that he was an eyewitness of the life, transfiguration, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Unlike the deities of other faiths, Jesus is real and He redeems those who believe in Him. Peter endured, and he never stopped preaching the gospel—because he knew the truth. Jesus is the only way to be saved.

> 1:18 — We ourselves heard this utterance made from heaven when we were with Him on the holy mountain.

Here, Peter is referring to when he, James, and John witnessed Jesus' Transfiguration and heard the Father's acclamation (Matt. 17:1–8; Mark 9:1–8; Luke 9:28–36). They saw Jesus as the glorified Messiah and as ot many people can say that on the day they were saved, someone explained the steps to spiritual growth. Unfortunately, some believers never hear how to develop in their relationship with the Lord. Since none of us matures as a Christian without taking action, Peter instructs believers, "Grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ" (2 Pet. 3:18).

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT SPIRITUAL GROWTH

2 Pet. 1:2-12

Then how are we to grow? Second Peter 1:3 promises, "His divine power has granted to us everything pertaining to life and godliness." It is God who transforms us into His image, but it is our responsibility to implement all that He teaches us. Second Peter 1:5–7 continues, "For this very reason also, applying all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence, and in your moral excellence, knowledge, and in your knowledge, self-control, and in your self-control, perseverance, and in your perseverance, godliness, and in your godliness, brotherly kindness, and in your brotherly kindness, love."

The Bible gives us powerful principles about how to do so:

First, we are responsible for renewing our minds (Rom. 12:2). Though God saves us and gives us a new spirit, it is our duty to control our thoughts and focus our minds on what honors Him, so that our

Some believers never hear how to grow in grace. minds can be transformed. Therefore, we must meditate on the Word, considering what it means and applying the truth we discover to our lives—because that is how the Holy Spirit changes us and we obtain "the mind of Christ" (1 Cor. 2:16).

Second, we must be ready to admit our failures and assume responsibility for them. When we deny our sins, we delay our spiritual growth. But when we confess our transgressions, the opposite happens—we mature because we admit our dependence upon God. John tells us, "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness" (1 John 1:9).

The third step naturally follows the second—after confession should come repentance. This is more than acknowledging wrongdoing or promising to try harder. Repentance means that we commit to making an about-face and heading in the opposite direction from our sin. Paul taught, "Repent and turn to God, performing deeds appropriate to repentance" (Acts 26:20). Instead of behavior that is unbecoming to a believer, the fruit of the Spirit is produced in us—"love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control" (Gal. 5:22, 23).

God's ultimate goal is for all believers to become more Christ-like. That happens only when, through faith, we obey His commands and implement His principles. And soon our relationship with Him begins to deepen in ways we never thought possible.

See the Life Principles Index for further study:

- 2. Obey God and leave all the consequences to Him.
- 24. To live the Christian life is to allow Jesus to live His life in and through us.
- Our intimacy with God—His highest priority for our lives—determines the impact of our lives.

- 19 So we have the prophetic word made more sure, to which you do well to pay attention as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star arises in your hearts.
- 20 But know this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation,
 - 21 for no prophecy was ever made by an act of human will, but men moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

The Rise of False Prophets

- 2 BUT false prophets also arose among the people, just as there will also be false teachers among you, who will secretly introduce destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them, bringing swift destruction upon themselves.
 - 2 Many will follow their sensuality, and because of them the way of the truth will be malioned:
 - and in their greed they will exploit you with false words; their judgment from long ago is not idle, and their destruction is not asleep.
 - 4 For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and committed them to pits of darkness, reserved for judgment;
 - 5 and did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah, a preacher of righteousness, with seven others, when He brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly;
 - and if He condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to destruction by reducing them to ashes, having made them an example to those who would live ungodly lives thereafter;
 - 7 and if He rescued righteous Lot, oppressed by the sensual conduct of unprincipled men
 - 8 (for by what he saw and heard that righteous man, while living among them, felt his righteous soul tormented day after day by their lawless deeds),

- 9 then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from temptation, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment for the day of judgment
- 10 and especially those who indulge the flesh in its corrupt desires and despise authority.

Daring, self-willed, they do not tremble when they revile angelic majesties,

- 11 whereas angels who are greater in might and power do not bring a reviling judgment against them before the Lord.
- 12 But these, like unreasoning animals, born as creatures of instinct to be captured and killed, reviling where they have no knowledge, will in the destruction of those creatures also be destroyed,
- 13 suffering wrong as the wages of doing wrong. They count it a pleasure to revel in the daytime. They are stains and blemishes, reveling in their adeceptions, as they carouse with you,
- 14 having eyes full of adultery that never cease from sin, enticing unstable souls, having a heart trained in greed, accursed children;
- 15 forsaking the right way, they have gone astray, having followed the way of Balaam, the son of Beor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;
- 16 but he received a rebuke for his own transgression, for a mute donkey, speaking with a voice of a man, restrained the madness of the prophet.
- 17 These are springs without water and mists driven by a storm, for whom the black darkness has been reserved.
- 18 For speaking out arrogant words of vanity they entice by fleshly desires, by sensuality, those who barely escape from the ones who live in error, the fulfillment of the Law and the Prophets (Matt. 5:17, 18; Luke 24:44–47). They knew for certain that He was no ordinary leader.

> 1:20, 21 — No prophecy of Scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation, for no prophecy was ever made by an act of human will, but men moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

t one time, Peter thought Christ's mission was to free Israel from the grasp of the Romans (Matt. 16:13–23; John 18:10, 11). Yet Jesus' purpose was far greater than that—He came to free mankind from sin and death. Just as no one could have predicted the way by which God would save the world, so we should not presume to know how He will fulfill His promises to us.

> 2:1 — False prophets also arose among the people, just as there will also be false teachers among you, who will secretly introduce destructive heresies. The best way to recognize counterfeit doctrine is to become thoroughly familiar with the truth. Someone who walks daily with the Lord and has been trained in the Word by His Holy Spirit will not easily be led astray by false teaching.

> 2:9 — The Lord knows how to rescue the godly from temptation, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment for the day of judgment.

bedience brings blessing, while rebellion reaps condemnation. In this series of verses, Peter shows the consequences of following the false prophets by listing many instances throughout history when the Lord judged the wicked but saved the righteous.

> 2:19 — Promising them freedom while they themselves are slaves of corruption; for by what a man is overcome, by this he is enslaved.

 \mathcal{F} alse teachers deceptively offer immediate pleasure without penalty, but the truth is that when you be-what a man is overcome, by this he is enslaved. > 20 For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world by the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and are overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. 21 For it would be better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than having known it, to turn away from the holy commandment handed on to them.

22 It has happened to them according to the true proverb, "A dog returns to its own vomit," and, "A sow, after washing, returns to wallowing in the mire."

Purpose of This Letter

3 THIS is now, beloved, the second letter I am writing to you in which I am stirring up your sincere mind by way of reminder,

2 that you should remember the words spoken beforehand by the holy prophets and the commandment of the Lord and Savior spoken by your apostles.

The Coming Day of the Lord

- 3 Know this first of all, that in the last days mockers will come with their mocking, following after their own lusts,
- ▶ 4 and saying, "Where is the promise of His coming? For ever since the fathers fell asleep, all continues just as it was from the beginning of creation."

- 5 For when they maintain this, it escapes their notice that by the word of God the heavens existed long ago and the earth was formed out of water and by water,
- 6 through which the world at that time was destroyed, being flooded with water.
- 7 But by His word the present heavens and earth are being reserved for fire, kept for the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.
- 8 But do not let this one fact escape your notice, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years like one day.
- 9 The Lord is not slow about His promise,  as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing for any to perish but for all to come to repentance.

A New Heaven and Earth

10 But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, in which the heavens will pass away with a roar and the elements will be destroyed with intense heat, and the earth and its works will be aburned up.

come involved in these immoral activities, you step into a trap and suffer terrible consequences. James tells us, "When lust has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and when sin is accomplished, it brings forth death" (1:15). Often people will encourage us to join them in sin. We don't have to yield to temptation or become ensnared in a destructive lifestyle. Only Jesus offers true freedom (John 8:36).

> 2:20 — If, after they have escaped the defilements of the world by the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and are overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first.

They would leave Him, as others had, the fisherman replied, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have words of eternal life" (John 6:68). No one else does. What a terrible state, then, for a person to know the truth and remain enslaved to sin. If you are a believer, there is no reason for you to continue in bondage to immorality, fear, unforgiveness, pride, jealousy, or addiction. They do not offer fulfillment, but Jesus does. Trust Him to free you and satisfy your soul.

> 3:3 — Know this first of all, that in the last days mockers will come with their mocking, following after their own lusts.

Thy does Peter want us to be aware of the scoffers that will come? Unless we are ready for it, their taunts can accomplish what reasoned debate cannot. Ridicule can prompt those who are unaware and not anchored in the faith to unwisely conform.

> 3:4 — "Where is the promise of His coming? For ever since the fathers fell asleep, all continues just as it was from the beginning of creation."

The enemy will tell you that because the Lord has not yet fulfilled a particular promise to you, He never will. This is a lie. Remember, God always acts on behalf of those who wait for Him. So be patient and trust that everything the Lord has promised will—in His perfect timing—come to fruition (Josh. 21:45; 23:15; 1 Kin. 8:56).

> 3:8 — Do not let this one fact escape your notice, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years like one day.

God simply does not run this world by our timetable—His view of time is inherently different from ours. What feels like a delay to us is right on schedule by His calendar. He often makes us wait, not to frustrate us, but to deepen our trust in Him.

> 3:9 — The Lord is not slow about His promise, as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing for any to perish but for all to come to repentance.

Ome people believe that because God does not want anyone to perish, He will not allow anyone to be condemned to hell. However, the Lord gave us the free will to either choose or reject the way He has provided for salvation. Christ's sacrifice on the Cross was sufficient to save everyone, but John 3:18 tells us, "He who does not believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God."

11 Since all these things are to be destroyed in this way, what sort of people ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness, ➤ 12 looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be destroyed by burning, and the elements will melt with intense heat!

* 13 But according to His promise we are looking for new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells.

14 Therefore, beloved, since you look for these things, be diligent to be found by Him in peace, spotless and blameless,

15 and regard the patience of our Lord as salvation; just as also our beloved brother

Paul, according to the wisdom given him, wrote to you,

16 as also in all his letters, speaking in them of these things, in which are some things hard to understand, which the untaught and unstable distort, as they do also the rest of the Scriptures, to their own destruction.

17 You therefore, beloved, knowing this beforehand, be on your guard so that you are not carried away by the error of unprincipled men and fall from your own steadfastness, 18 but grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory, both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 3:12 — Looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God.

On Peter's day, believers experiencing persecution were eager for Christ to return to free them from suffering and oppression. However, this prophecy was not given merely for their relief, but to spur them to live in a godly manner. An eager anticipation of the Lord's return should keep us living productively. Knowing what lies ahead should move us to please God, before whom we will stand for judgment (1 Cor. 3:11–15).

> 3:16 — In which are some things hard to understand.

Pe should be neither discouraged nor surprised when we come upon Bible passages or spiritual principles that are hard to understand. Peter had the same difficulty at times—and God worked through him to write Scripture. Like him, we should turn to the Lord for understanding. The One who saves us is faithful to teach us His ways when we seek Him.

> 3:18 — Grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

od wants us to continue to grow spiritually, mentally, and emotionally, and He has provided the way for us to do this through reading and studying His Word (Rom. 8:29; 12:2). This is where we renew our minds and learn even more about Him and His truth.

God is light, love, and life. John enjoyed a joyous fellowship with the Lord and wanted all believers to experience the same. Unfortunately, false teachers were infiltrating the church and turning people's hearts away from Him. The church was beginning to divide over the heresy—which was likely Gnosticism—so John reminded the brethren of the foundational beliefs of the faith.

God is light. To enjoy fellowship with the Lord we must walk in His radiance and truth. As we do so, we willingly confess our sins—allowing the blood of Christ to continually cleanse us from all unrighteousness. We must avoid embracing the lawless ways of the world and the alluring lies of false teachers.

God is love. Since we are His children, we must walk in His unconditional love. Love is more than just words; it requires action. God's unconditional love should characterize our lives. As people who have His love living within us, we need to represent Christ's authentic kindness and forgiveness to others.

God is life. Those who believe in Jesus Christ possess eternal life, and this is shown by our faithful obedience to Him. We submit to the leadership of His Spirit in full confidence that what we need, He will provide.

John's second epistle reminds "the chosen lady and her children" (v. 1) to love one another, but indicates that their relationships with others must be rooted in godly discernment. As false teachers traveled from town to town, believers were not to offer them lodging. Those who do not acknowledge that Christ has come in the flesh abound, and it is foolish to open the door to their deceptive doctrines.

In 3 John, the apostle encourages a man named Gaius for hosting the missionaries John's church had sent and for remaining strong in the faith. However, he also rebukes Diotrephes for denying them lodging and for dividing the fellowship by gossiping maliciously about those in authority.

Although the apostle John's name is not found in any of these books, they were given the titles Ioannou A, B, and C, the "First of John," the "Second of John," and the "Third of John."

Themes: By His very character, God is love, and to know Him is to extend His love to those around us. However, we must also be careful to walk in His truth, acknowledging that: "Jesus Christ the righteous . . . is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for those of the whole world" (1 John 2:1, 2).

Author: The apostle John.

Time: Believed to have been written from Ephesus near the end of the first century and circulated through the Roman provinces of Asia.

Structure: First John begins with a reminder of Christ's incarnation (1:1:1–4), followed by instruction on having fellowship with the Lord (1:5–2:28) and living as a child of God (2:29–5:17). The book ends with how to identify the true God and reject false teachers (5:18–21). Second John encourages believers to walk in Christ's commandments and beware of deceivers, while 3 John commends hospitality and godly living.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 1:2 — The life was manifested, and we have seen and testify and proclaim to you the eternal life, which was with the Father and was manifested to us.

There were false teachers in the church saying that Jesus Christ had not really come in the flesh. This is known as the Gnostic heresy—a belief that everything physical is evil and that God would not take on a human body. So John recounted his testimony of his personal relationship with Jesus—who indeed "became flesh, and dwelt among us" (John 1:14).

> 1:3 — What we have seen and heard we proclaim to you also, so that you too may have fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ.

everything in the Bible has been given to help and enable us to enjoy an intimate relationship with God (Rom. 15:4). The Lord's top priority for your life is to walk in close fellowship with Him, and He makes sure we have everything we need for "life and godliness" (2 Pet. 1:3). This includes examples of the faith to encourage us and principles that hold us firm in times of storm.

> 1:4 — These things we write, so that our joy may be made complete.

False teachers were luring believers away from the faith, so John reminded them of Jesus' words, "These things I have spoken to you so that My joy may be in you, and that your joy may be made full" (John 15:11). When we obey the Lord, His joy abides in us, regardless of circumstances. This is one of the many blessings of obedience, which cannot be found anywhere else. And our joy is made complete when those we lead to Jesus submit to Him and experience this deep abiding joy as well.

> 1:5 — God is Light, and in Him there is no darkness at all.

God is light, which means He is absolutely glorious, completely true, and morally pure. Because we are limited and He is infinite, we can only imagine His perfect holiness to a certain degree, but we can know that there is nothing about Him that is tainted in any way. The Lord is absolutely free from all sin at all times—no matter what the situation or the condition. He has separated Himself from all evil, untruth, guile, and darkness.

> 1:6 — If we say that we have fellowship with Him and yet walk in the darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth.

Thenever there is light, the darkness scatters. Likewise, when we have a relationship with the Lord, sin cannot continue in our lives (Is. 6:5–7). We are reconciled to Him by the cleansing blood of Jesus, and we continue in our fellowship with Him when we acknowledge our transgressions, turn from our sin, and follow Him in righteousness (Gal. 5).

> 1:9 — If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

hen you pour out your heart in genuine confession and repentance, how does God respond to you? He says that you are completely forgiven and reminds you of how Jesus' sacrifice on the Cross paid the penalty for all of your transgressions. You have been declared justified—no longer guilty in His eyes. The Lord understands your struggles, and He wants you to find victory in them—not continue to feel shame because of them (Heb. 2:14–18). He is merciful and loving, which is why once you confess and repent, you are absolutely forgiven.

> 2:1 — I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous.

Then we rely on the indwelling Spirit, we have everything we need to avoid sin (Gal. 5:16). Yet when we do occasionally sin, the Lord Jesus forgives us and helps us get back on track.

- 2 and He Himself is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for those of the whole world.
 - 3 By this we know that we have come to know Him, if we keep His commandments.
 - 4 The one who says, "I have come to know Him," and does not keep His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him;
 - 5 but whoever keeps His word, in him the love of God has truly been perfected. By this we know that we are in Him:
- ▶ 6 the one who says he abides in Him ought himself to walk in the same manner as He walked.
 - 7 Beloved, I am not writing a new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you have had from the beginning; the old commandment is the word which you have heard.
 - 8 On the other hand, I am writing a new commandment to you, which is true in Him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true Light is already shining.
 - 9 The one who says he is in the Light and yet hates his brother is in the darkness until now
 - 10 The one who loves his brother abides in the Light and there is no cause for stumbling in him.
 - 11 But the one who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going because the darkness has blinded his eyes.
 - 12 I am writing to you, little children, because your sins have been forgiven you for His name's sake.
 - 13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know Him who has been from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I have written to you, children, because you know the Father. 14 I have written to you, fathers, because you know Him who has been from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

Do Not Love the World

- 15 Do not love the world nor the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.
- 16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the boastful pride of life, is not from the Father, but is from the world.
- 17 The world is passing away, and also its  lusts; but the one who does the will of God lives forever.
- 18 Children, it is the last hour; and just as you heard that antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have appeared; from this we know that it is the last hour.
- 19 They went out from us, but they were not really of us; for if they had been of us, they would have remained with us; but they went out, so that it would be shown that they all are not of us.
- 20 But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all know.
- 21 I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it, and because no lie is of the truth.
- 22 Who is the liar but the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, the one who denies the Father and the Son.
- 23 Whoever denies the Son does not have the Father; the one who confesses the Son has the Father also.
- 24 As for you, let that abide in you which

> 2:2 — He Himself is the propitiation for our sins.

Propitiation is another word for sacrifice. Before Christ, people were required to make an offering for each sin they committed to remain in right standing with the Lord. However, Jesus' death on the Cross forgives us of all our sin perfectly when we accept Him as our Savior (Rom. 3:24–26; Heb. 2:17, 18; 9:11–28). He is our Defender, and we are perfectly covered with His righteousness.

> 2:6 — The one who says he abides in Him ought himself to walk in the same manner as He walked.

n intimate relationship with Christ makes it possible for us to obey Him. Remember, we are to be conformed to His image (Rom. 8:29; Eph. 5:1, 2), and Jesus prayed, "Even as You, Father, are in Me and I in You, that they also may be in Us, so that the world may believe that You sent Me" (John 17:21). He is actively working in us so that we will become like Him. And when we submit to the Lord by the power of His Spirit, we not only please Him and enjoy close fellowship with Him, we also build confidence in our own hearts that we truly belong to Him (2 Pet. 1:5–8).

> 2:14 — I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

of anything that purports to be the truth is actually in conflict with God's Word—and therefore in defiance to the Lord—we should reject it outright. Through Christ we have freedom, but when we allow the enemy to convince us of something that is contrary to Scripture, we subject ourselves "again to a yoke of slavery" (Gal. 5:1).

> 2:22 — Who is the liar but the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, the one who denies the Father and the Son.

The spirit of the Antichrist is completely opposed to the Lord Jesus Christ and is exhibited by those who demand, litigate, and legislate the removal of every mention of the gospel from society. The Antichrist himself is a powerful person who will one day come and foster rebellion throughout the earth against Almighty God. However, until he appears, there are many throughout the world who are busily setting up the conditions for his brief but destructive rule (Matt. 24:4, 5, 15–24; 2 Thess. 2:3–12; 2 John 7).

you heard from the beginning. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, you also will abide in the Son and in the Father.

The Promise Is Eternal Life

- * 25 This is the promise which He Himself made to us: eternal life.
 - 26 These things I have written to you concerning those who are trying to deceive you. 27 As for you, the anointing which you received from Him abides in you, and you have no need for anyone to teach you; but as His anointing teaches you about all things, and is true and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you abide in Him.
 - 28 Now, little children, abide in Him, so that when He appears, we may have confidence and not shrink away from Him in shame at His coming.
 - 29 If you know that He is righteous, you know that everyone also who practices right-eousness is born of Him.

Children of God Love One Another

- SEE how great a love the Father has bestowed on us, that we would be called children of God; and such we are. For this reason the world does not know us, because it did not know Him.
- ▶ 2 Beloved, now we are children of God, and it has not appeared as yet what we will be. We know that when He appears, we will be like Him, because we will see Him just as He is.
 - 3 And everyone who has this hope fixed on Him purifies himself, just as He is pure.
 - 4 Everyone who practices sin also practices lawlessness; and sin is lawlessness.
 - 5 You know that He appeared in order to take away sins; and in Him there is no sin.
- 6 No one who abides in Him sins; no one who sins has seen Him or knows Him.
 - 7 Little children, make sure no one de-ceives you; the one who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous;

- 8 the one who practices sin is of the devil; for the devil has sinned from the beginning. The Son of God appeared for this purpose, to destroy the works of the devil.
- 9 No one who is born of God practices sin, because His seed abides in him; and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.
- 10 By this the children of God and the children of the devil are obvious: anyone who does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor the one who does not love his brother.
- 11 For this is the message which you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another;
- 12 not as Cain, who was of the evil one and slew his brother. And for what reason did he slay him? Because his deeds were evil, and his brother's were righteous.
- 13 Do not be surprised, brethren, if the world hates you.
- 14 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love abides in death.
- 15 Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer; and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.
- 16 We know love by this, that He laid down His life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.
- 17 But whoever has the world's goods, and sees his brother in need and closes his heart against him, how does the love of God abide in him?
- 18 Little children, let us not love with word or with tongue, but in deed and truth.
- 19 We will know by this that we are of the truth, and will assure our heart before Him 20 in whatever our heart condemns us; for God is greater than our heart and knows all things.

LIFE LESSONS

> 3:2 — We know that when He appears, we will be like Him, because we will see Him just as He is.

One day we will exchange our worn-out, sin-prone, weak bodies for new ones patterned after Jesus' resurrection body—strong, ageless, free of all sin, and completely at home in the holy presence of God (1 Cor. 13:12; 15:42–57).

> 3:6 — No one who abides in Him sins.

Gesus said that those who abide in Christ—draw near to Him, listen to His words, and obey Him—would bear much fruit and glorify Him (John 15:1–8). The Lord will never lead you into sin (Rom. 8:1–13; James 1:13–15). When you are walking in the center of His will, He will show you what to do and teach you how to serve Him and fulfill the purpose for which He created you.

> 3:10 — Anyone who does not practice righteousness is not of God.

ohn is not saying that if you sin, you are no longer a child of God. Though we try our best not to violate His will, we may sin at times—and He is ready, willing, and able to forgive us. However, when your lifestyle is characterized by living in disobedience to the Lord, you show that you are not truly His (Luke 6:43, 44).

> 3:20 — In whatever our heart condemns us; for God is greater than our heart and knows all things.

This is the reason many people do not pray—they know that when they kneel before holy God, the sin in their life will be brought to light (ls. 6:5). The Holy Spirit will convict them of any sin they've been hiding. As believers we should want to obey and please the Lord, and because of that, we should be glad when our consciences are sensitive to Him. Although the Spirit may pierce our hearts with "sorrow that . . . produces a repentance" (2 Cor. 7:10), we take joy because He also "testifies . . . that we are children of God" (Rom. 8:16).

- 21 Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God;
-  22 and whatever we ask we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments and do the things that are pleasing in His sight.

 23 This is His commandment, that we believe in the name of His Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, just as He commanded us.

 24 The one who keeps His commandments abides in Him, and He in him. We know by this that He abides in us, by the Spirit whom He has given us.

Testing the Spirits

- BELOVED, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.
- ➤ 2 By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God;
 - 3 and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God; this is the spirit of the antichrist, of which you have heard that it is coming, and now it is already in the world.
- 4 You are from God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world.
 - 5 They are from the world; therefore they speak as from the world, and the world listens to them.
 - 6 We are from God; he who knows God listens to us; he who is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

God Is Love

7 Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God; and everyone who loves is born of God and knows God.

- 8 The one who does not love does not know God, for God is love.
- 9 By this the love of God was manifested in us, that God has sent His only begotten Son into the world so that we might live through Him
- 10 In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins.
- 11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.
- 12 No one has seen God at any time; if we love one another, God abides in us, and His love is perfected in us.
- 13 By this we know that we abide in Him and He in us, because He has given us of His Spirit.
- 14 We have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son to be the Savior of the world.
- 15 Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God.
- 16 We have come to know and have believed the love which God has for us. God is love, and the one who abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him.
- 17 By this, love is perfected with us, so that we may have confidence in the day of judgment; because as He is, so also are we in this world.
- 18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves punishment, and the one who fears is not perfected in love.
- 19 We love, because He first loved us.
- 20 If someone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for the one who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen.
- 21 And this commandment we have from

LIFE LESSONS-

> 4:1 — Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

Luke called the Berean Jews "noble-minded" because after Paul preached to them, they examined "the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so" (Acts 17:11). Likewise, we are admonished to "examine everything carefully; hold fast to that which is good" (1 Thess. 5:21).

> 4:2 — Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God.

This is the bottom line of everything we believe—Jesus Christ is God incarnate. Many may say He was a great teacher or prophet, but unless they confess He saved "His people from their sins" and is "God with us" (Matt. 1:21, 23), they do not truly believe in Him.

> 4:4 — You are from God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world.

The Holy Spirit is within us from the moment of salvation and enables us to say no to temptation. So anytime we resist some temptation, overcome some spiritual challenge, or triumph in a contest of faith, we do so because God's Spirit lives in us. We move ahead in our walks with the Lord by relying on His power, not ours.

> 4:8 — The one who does not love does not know God, for God is love.

o be transformed into the image of Christ means to increasingly reflect His loving character in our behavior and attitudes. Therefore, if we are not becoming more loving, we have taken a wrong turn somewhere—either by neglecting our relationship with Him or by disobeying His commands.

> 4:20 — The one who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen.

he Lord will often put people into our lives to mature our faith (Prov. 27:17). The process is not always pleasant, and if we fail to evaluate the situation from God's point of view, disappointment and bitterness can grow in our hearts. But when we understand that everything that affects our lives can be used by the Lord for our good and His glory (Rom. 8:28), we learn that every relationship is an opportunity for growth and an occasion for God to express His love toward us.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

How can God use an imperfect person like me?

1 JOHN 4:7-21

In John 14:12, Jesus made this amazing statement: "He who believes in Me, the works that I do, he will do also; and greater works than these he will do." Astounding isn't it? We as believers will do works greater than He—the Savior of the world—has done. If it is a difficult thing for you to believe, you are not alone. This truth seems impossible when we consider it in light of our faults, sins, and weaknesses.

Maybe you have been sitting on the sidelines because you have yielded to sin and shame has completely discouraged you. You feel as though God cannot use you because of mistakes you've made or wrongs you've committed. Perhaps you feel so broken in spirit that you don't believe you will ever be useful to Him again. This is absolutely not true. When we confess our sins, God forgives and restores us.

The problem isn't your inadequacy or that you are imperfect—it is that you have allowed your feelings to overshadow the truth of God's Word. The Lord is able to use you to show His love to others (1 John 1:9; 2 Cor. 1:3–7).

Once you have confessed and turned from your sins, you are cleansed—permanently (Ps. 103:12; Is. 43:25; Jer. 31:43). The Lord purifies you and equips you for His service. The question is not, "Do I deserve to serve Him?" Or, "Am I talented enough to represent Him?" These questions no longer matter, because the Lord

Him, that the one who loves God should love his brother also.

Overcoming the World

5 WHOEVER believes that Jesus is the a christ is born of God, and whoever loves the Father loves the child born of Him.

2 By this we know that we love the children takes care of those issues completely. Rather, the question is: "Will I obey God and trust Him to show His love to others through me?"

Once we accept Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior, His Holy Spirit lives in us. He empowers us to do everything He asks of us, making the possibilities for service limitless. So when Jesus said we would do greater things than He has done, it is because He would be working through us in a powerful manner—enabling us to be mighty witnesses for His name. He is our adequacy. And He works through us to show others His love.

The apostle John explains, "God has sent His only begotten Son into the world so that we might live through Him. In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another" (1 John 4:9–11).

We don't serve the Lord because we are perfect—we do it because we are thankful for what He has done for us. And the work we do is greater because every time we show His everlasting love to another person, it multiplies and grows.

So do not worry about your weaknesses, imperfections, faults, or inadequacies. The Lord will work through them (1 Cor. 1:27; 2 Cor. 12:9, 10). Confess your sins, receive God's love, and allow Him to display His wonderful grace and forgiveness through you. Share His saving love with others and embrace the great things He wants to do through you.

LIFE LESSONS

> 5:12 — He who has the Son has the life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have the life.

Have you asked the Lord Jesus Christ to come into your heart through faith, forgive you of your sins, and give you an eternal home in heaven? If you have, you have life; if you haven't, you don't (Mark 8:35).

> 5:14 — This is the confidence which we have before Him, that, if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us.

Our confidence in prayer is not based on our earnestness or passion, but on our relationship with God. We have unshakable assurance in every circumstance of life because of His power, wisdom, and love (Matt. 19:26). We can confront every difficulty with confidence because the Lord has promised us the victory when we call upon and obey Him (Matt. 7:7, 8; John 14:13; 1 John 3:22).

> 5:20 — We know that the Son of God has come, and has given us understanding so that we may know Him who is true.

God helps us to grasp His Word, not merely so we can amass an impressive body of religious knowledge, but so that we can know, love, obey, and enjoy the Lord of the universe, who created us and has a wonderful purpose for our lives.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF

JOHN

Walk According to His Commandments

1 THE elder to the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in truth; and not only I, but also all who know the truth,

2 for the sake of the truth which abides in us and will be with us forever:

3 Grace, mercy and peace will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 I was very glad to find some of your children walking in truth, just as we have received commandment to do from the Father.

> 5 Now I ask you, lady, not as though I were writing to you a new commandment, but the one which we have had from the beginning, that we love one another.

6 And this is love, that we walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it.

7 For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not acknowledge Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the antichrist.

8 Watch yourselves, that you do not lose \(\) what we have accomplished, but that you may receive a full reward.

9 Anyone who goes too far and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God; the one who abides in the teaching, he has both the Father and the Son.

10 If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house, and do not give him a greeting;

11 for the one who gives him a greeting participates in his evil deeds.

12 Though I have many things to write to you, I do not want to do so with paper and ink; but I hope to come to you and speak face to face, so that your joy may be made full.

13 The children of your chosen sister greet you.

 $\mathcal I$ either the Word of God, which we have received, nor the Savior and Lord, who inspired it and lives in us, will ever change or abandon us (Heb. 13:8). God's truth does not alter from age to age, nor does He.

5 — I ask you, lady, not as though I were writing to you a new commandment, but the one which we have had from the beginning, that we love one another. The core commandment of heaven—to love God and love others as we love ourselves—has remained the same from Old Testament times (Lev. 19:18; Deut. 6:5; 10:12), to the days of the New Testament (Matt. 22:36–40; John 13:34, 35; 15:9–17), and on to today.

You Walk in the Truth

THE elder to the beloved Gaius, whom I love in truth.

Beloved, I pray that in all respects you may prosper and be in good health, just as your soul prospers.

3 For I was very glad when brethren came and testified to your truth, that is, how you are walking in truth.

4 I have no greater joy than this, to hear of my children walking in the truth.

5 Beloved, you are acting faithfully in whatever you accomplish for the brethren, and especially when they are strangers;

6 and they have testified to your love before the church. You will do well to send them on their way in a manner worthy of God.

7 For they went out for the sake of the Name, accepting nothing from the Gentiles.

8 Therefore we ought to support such men, so that we may be fellow workers with the truth.

▶ 9 I wrote something to the church; but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, does not accept what we say.

10 For this reason, if I come, I will call attention to his deeds which he does, unjustly accusing us with wicked words; and not satisfied with this, he himself does not receive the brethren, either, and he forbids those who desire to do so and puts them out of the church.

11 Beloved, do not imitate what is evil, but \checkmark what is good. The one who does good is of God; the one who does evil has not seen God.

12 Demetrius has received a good testimony from everyone, and from the truth itself; and we add our testimony, and you know that our testimony is true.

13 I had many things to write to you, but I am not willing to write them to you with pen and ink;

14 but I hope to see you shortly, and we will speak face to face.

15 Peace be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 2 — I pray that in all respects you may prosper and be in good health, just as your soul prospers.

Prayers for our physical well-being are just as legitimate as prayers for our spiritual health (James 5:13–16). God wants us to flourish in all the spiritual disciplines that draw our hearts closer to Him and to fellow believers in Christ.

> 4 — I have no greater joy than this, to hear of my children walking in the truth.

To walk in truth means to believe the Word of God and to gladly obey the Lord's instruction by drawing on the power of the Holy Spirit. This kind of life brings great joy both to us and to those who follow after and learn from our example.

> 9 — I wrote something to the church; but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, does not accept what we say. "me first" attitude is the polar opposite of what Jesus promised would bring health and joy to His children: "If anyone wants to be first, he shall be last of all and servant of all" (Mark 9:35).

> 11 — Beloved, do not imitate what is evil, but what is good. The one who does good is of God; the one who does evil has not seen God.

De become what we focus on the most. If we constantly concentrate on negative things, we will likewise become pessimistic and destructive. If we focus on sinful things, we will give the enemy a stronghold and stumble in our faith. That is why God want us to seek Him, express our love for Him, and have intimate fellowship with Him. That is the way our character is transformed into His likeness. And that is life at its very hen apostasy arises, when false teachers emerge, when the truth of God is attacked, the time has come to fight for the faith—and only believers who are spiritually strong and mature will be equipped to do battle.

At the beginning of his brief letter, Jude expresses his initial intention of discussing the church's teaching on the great gift of salvation we have been given through Christ. But almost immediately he confesses, "While I was making every effort to write you . . . I felt the necessity to write to you appealing that you contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all handed down to the saints" (Jude 3). False teachers had crept into the church, turning God's grace into an invitation to sin and denying "our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ" (v. 4). The danger was real, and Jude was rallying the faithful to defend the truth of the gospel.

Jude reminds his readers of God's holy judgments on unbelieving Israel, disobedient angels, and wicked Sodom and Gomorrah. Because He is gracious, God will give sinners plenty of time to repent; but if they refuse, they will suffer a decisive and devastating judgment. Therefore, in the face of such danger from false leaders and the condemnation awaiting unrepentant sinners, Christians cannot afford to be caught off guard. Not only must they keep themselves "in the love of God" (Jude 21), but they must also make sure that fellow believers do not fall to deception or the devastation of sin. Yes, the challenge is great—but even greater is God, who is able to keep His children from stumbling.

The Greek title, "Of Jude," comes from the name Ioudas, which appears in verse 1. This name, which is Judah in Hebrew and can be translated Jude or Judas, was popular in the first century because of Judas Maccabaeus (died 160 B.C.), a leader of the Jewish resistance against Syria during the Maccabean revolt.

Themes: Beware of false teachers, live for the Lord, and depend on the grace of God to "keep you from stumbling, and to make you stand in the presence of His glory blameless with great joy" (Jude 24).

Author: Probably Jude (also called Judas), the brother of James the Just and the half brother of the Lord Jesus (Matt. 13:55; Mark 6:3).

Time: Likely between A.D. 65–80.

Structure: Jude greets his readers (1, 2), urges them to contend for the faith (3, 4), warns of false teachers (5-19), encourages them to live for God (20-23), and concludes his letter with a beautiful benediction (24, 25).

As you read Jude, watch for the life principles that play an important part in this book:

- 11. God assumes full responsibility for our needs when we obey Him. See Jude 6,7; page 1509.
- 30. An eager anticipation of the Lord's return keeps us living productively. See Jude 18; page 1510.

The Warnings of History to the Ungodly JUDE, a bond-servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James,

To those who are the called, beloved in God the Father, and kept for Jesus Christ:

- 9 But Michael the archangel, when he disputed with the devil and argued about the body of Moses, did not dare pronounce against him a railing judgment, but said, "The Lord rebuke you!"
- 10 But these men revile the things which they do not understand; and the things which they know by instinct, like unreasoning animals, by these things they are destroyed.
- 11 Woe to them! For they have gone the way of Cain, and for pay they have rushed headlong into the error of Balaam, and perished in the rebellion of Korah.
- 12 These are the men who are hidden reefs in your love feasts when they feast with you without fear, caring for themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn trees without fruit, doubly dead, uproofed:
- 13 wild waves of the sea, casting up their own shame like foam; wandering stars, for whom the black darkness has been reserved forever.

> 3 — Contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all handed down to the saints.

The gospel of Jesus Christ does not change. He is the same yesterday, today, and forever (Heb. 13:8), and His salvation remains eternally secure for those who believe. It is worth fighting for, so we must contend for the faith, no matter what challenge we face.

> 5 — The Lord, after saving a people out of the land of Egypt, subsequently destroyed those who did not believe.

Fere we see both the love and justice of God. The Lord showed His goodness in rescuing the Israelites from Egyptian slavery, but His holiness in punishing their stubborn unbelief and disobedience. It cost the nation of Israel forty years of death, disease, doubt, war, and wandering in the wilderness because the people doubted that God would truly give them the Promised Land and rebelled against Him (Num. 13—14).

> 6, 7 — Angels who did not keep their own domain, but abandoned their proper abode . . . just as Sodom and Gomorrah . . . are exhibited as an example in undergoing the punishment of eternal fire.

Goth the angels who were cast out of heaven (Gen. 6:1–5; Is. 14:12–15) and the people of Sodom and Gomorrah (Gen. 19) fell because of their pride and lust. Pride is the basis for every form of sin because the person refuses to admit his or her need for God. The prideful person attempts to fulfill his or her own desires in any number of ways, which often leads to sexual sins, addictions, and other destructive habits. Ultimately, these end in spiritual, emotional, and mental devastation. Only the Lord has the ability to satisfy the yearning in our hearts, and He assumes full responsibility for our needs when we obey Him.

> 8 — In the same way these men, also by dreaming, defile the flesh, and reject authority, and revile angelic majesties.

The false teachers wanted to turn the Lord's grace into a reason for pride, lust, and immoral living. They also denied that Jesus Christ was God incarnate and the Savior. They were contaminating and destroying the church with their evil doctrine. But where there is disobedience and unbelief, there also will be judgment.

> 11 — They have gone the way of Cain, and for pay they have rushed headlong into the error of Balaam, and perished in the rebellion of Korah.

Pain refused to honor God properly and was the world's first murderer (Gen. 4). Balaam misled the people of Israel into idolatry for his own profit (Num. 22—25; 31:16; 2 Pet. 2:15, 16). And Korah led a rebellion against Moses and Aaron, challenging the Lord's anointed leaders (Num. 16). Likewise, the false teachers were destroying men's souls for their own profit because they wanted all of the authority.

15 to execute judgment upon all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their ungodly deeds which they have done in an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things which ungodly sinners have spoken against Him."

16 These are grumblers, finding fault, following after their own lusts; they speak arrogantly, flattering people for the sake of gaining an advantage.

Keep Yourselves in the Love of God

17 But you, beloved, ought to remember the words that were spoken beforehand by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ,

➤ 18 that they were saying to you, "In the last time there will be mockers, following after their own ungodly lusts."

19 These are the ones who cause divisions, worldly-minded, devoid of the Spirit.

20 But you, beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit.

21 keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting anxiously for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life.

22 And have mercy on some, who are doubting;

23 save others, snatching them out of the fire; and on some have mercy with fear, hating even the garment polluted by the flesh.

24 Now to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling, and to make you stand in the presence of His glory blameless with great joy, 25 to the only God our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion and authority, before all time and now and forever. Amen.

> 18 — "In the last time there will be mockers, following after their own ungodly lusts."

As the return of Jesus draws nearer, we will see an increase in those who mock genuine faith in Jesus. They will make vicious fun of believers and hold them up to ridicule—just as Jesus' enemies mocked Him. However, their judgment is coming, and we must hold fast to the faith because the Lord will vindicate us in His time (Dan. 7:10–14; Matt. 25:31–46; Rev. 20:11–15).

> 24, 25 — To Him who is able to keep you from stumbling, and to make you stand in the presence of His glory blameless with great joy.

Thile God asks us to cooperate with Him in the process of sanctification, it is He who conforms us to the image of Jesus by His power and infinite wisdom. He is the One who makes us holy and perfect forever, which is why we can joyfully anticipate our total transformation.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST

ust as Genesis is the book of beginnings, so Revelation is the book of completion. In it, we see how God finalizes the divine program of redemption and vindicates His holy name before all creation.

Although the Gospels and Epistles contain numerous prophecies, only Revelation (of all the New Testament books) focuses primarily on prophetic events. It borrows heavily from Old Testament symbols and passages and seems to have a special connection to the Book of Daniel. Because of this potent imagery, it is often difficult to know in Revelation when the author is speaking literally and when he is speaking symbolically.

Revelation also features several high moments of worship in which the residents of heaven and the saints of God praise the Lord for His holy character and righteous judgments. These extraordinary times of worship are usually presented as joyful songs of praise (Rev. 4:8–11; 5:8–14; 7:9–12; 11:15–18; 15:2–4; 16:5–7; 19:1–7).

The title of this book in the Greek text is Apokalypsis Ioannou, "Revelation of John." It is also known as the Apocalypse, a transliteration of the word apokalypsis, meaning "unveiling, disclosure, or revelation." Thus, the book unveils what otherwise could not be known. A better title comes from the first verse, the "Revelation of Jesus Christ." This could be taken as a revelation that came from Christ or as a revelation about Christ. Both are appropriate.

Revelation was originally written to seven local churches in Asia Minor (modern Turkey), but its message applies to all Christians everywhere. Jesus is coming again in great power and glory, and His certain return should motivate us every day to Spirit-filled, loving action on His behalf.

Themes: Revelation centers around awesome visions and extraordinary symbols of the resurrected Christ who alone has authority to judge the earth, to remake it, and to rule it in righteousness.

Author: The apostle John wrote Revelation during his exile on the island of Patmos.

Time: Most scholars believe the book was written circa A.D. 95.

Structure: Revelation starts out with a vision of Jesus Christ (1), followed by a message from Him to the seven churches in Asia Minor (2–3), followed by another vision of Jesus (4–5). The remainder of the book employs difficult symbolism and startling imagery to picture the final triumph of good over evil.

As you read Revelation, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

- 19. Anything you hold too tightly, you will lose. See Revelation 3:16; 9:6; pages 1516; 1521.
- 16. Whatever you acquire outside of God's will eventually turns to ashes. See Revelation 6:17; page 1519.
- 10. If necessary, God will move heaven and earth to show us His will. See Revelation 10:7; page 1522.
- 30. An eager anticipation of the Lord's return keeps us living productively. See Revelation 22:12; page 1535.

> 1:3 — Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and heed the things which are written in it; for the time is near.

Many ignore the Book of Revelation because they believe it is too difficult to understand. Yet there is a blessing for those who both read and heed it—making whatever adjustments are necessary to obey what God requires of us in His Word. Why is Revelation a special blessing? Because there is no other book that so exalts the Lord Jesus Christ.

> 1:4 — Grace to you and peace, from Him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven Spirits who are before His throne.

Grace was a typical Greek greeting of the first century, while peace served as the typical Hebrew greeting. This book is for everyone, both Jew and Gentile alike. Also, John explains that this is a special message for believers from the triune Godhead. "Who is and who was and who is to come" is God the Father, the "I Am" (Ex. 3:14). The seven spirits are a symbol of the Holy Spirit (Is. 11:1, 2). And of course, it is also "from Jesus Christ . . . who loves us and released us from our sins by His blood" (Rev. 1:5).

> 1:5 — Jesus Christ . . . the firstborn of the dead.

Several individuals in the Bible (before Jesus) had been raised from the dead. But all of them—the Shunam-mite's son (2 Kin. 4:35), Jairus's daughter (Mark 5:42), and Lazarus (John 11:44)—all died a second time. Yet Jesus conquered death for all eternity, and everyone who believes in Him will live forever.

> 1:6 — He has made us to be a kingdom.

In A.D. 70, the Romans destroyed the city of Jerusalem and the temple, enslaving and persecuting the Jews.

Many believers wondered what had happened—had the Lord Jesus failed them? The promise that God had given of fully restoring them as a nation in the Promised Land seemed so far away (Ezek. 36:24–30). John wrote to remind them that although the Lord would keep His specific promises to Israel, His true kingdom was not of this world (John 18:36). He would come again in glory to redeem His own forever, regardless of the situation on earth.

> 1:7 — He is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see Him, even those who pierced Him; and all the tribes of the earth will mourn over Him.

The Second Coming of Christ will follow the seven-year Tribulation period, which is marked by judgment upon the earth (Zech. 12:10). During the Tribulation, the Lord will pour out His wrath on those who reject Him, and although many will be destroyed, multitudes of people will be saved. Then the whole earth will witness His return as the King of kings. He will finish cleansing the earth of ungodliness and set up His millennial reign.

> 1:9 — I, John . . . was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus.

Cocated in the Aegean Sea, off the coast of Asia south of Ephesus, Patmos was used by the Romans as a penal colony. John was banished there by Emperor Domitian circa A.D. 95, when he was close to ninety years of age. God used this imprisonment as an opportunity to give him an astounding look into the future, as well as to the coming heavenly kingdom.

> 1:12, 13 — I saw seven golden lampstands; and in the middle of the lampstands I saw one like a son of man.

The seven golden lampstands are seven congregations (Rev. 1:20). Jesus is standing in the midst of His churches calling out for repentance—sending out the mesreaching to the feet, and girded across His chest with a golden sash.

- 14 His head and His hair were white like white wool, like snow; and His eyes were like a flame of fire.
- 15 His feet were like burnished bronze, when it has been made to glow in a furnace, and His voice was like the sound of many waters.
- 16 In His right hand He held seven stars, and out of His mouth came a sharp two-edged sword; and His face was like the sun shining in its strength.
- ➤ 17 When I saw Him, I fell at His feet like a dead man. And He placed His right hand on me, saying, "Do not be afraid; I am the first and the last,
 - 18 and the living One; and I was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of death and of Hades.
 - 19 "Therefore write the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will take place after these things.
 - 20 "As for the mystery of the seven stars which you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.

- 4 'But I have this against you, that you have 4 left your first love.

sage of the gospel and offering hope, peace, forgiveness, and redemption to whomever will believe in Him. To live the Christian life is to allow Jesus to live His life in and through us. It is only as He is seen and glorified in us and in our churches that we become effective.

> 1:17 — When I saw Him, I fell at His feet like a dead man.

Here, the Lord Jesus is clothed as the King, High Priest, Protector, Provider, and Judge of all mankind. The majestic, glorious appearance of the unveiled Christ so overwhelmed John that he fainted. When we stand in His presence at the judgment, we will not be able to say anything. We will see ourselves as He sees us, and we will be in absolute agreement with Him. Therefore, we must live our lives in reverence to Him and never forget that our Savior and Friend is also our Lord, Master, and Sovereign.

> 2:2 — "I know your deeds and your toil and perseverance."

Pe may sometimes feel as though we toil in anonymity and that our labors go unnoticed and unappreciated. However, first we must remember that we do not exist to glorify ourselves but the One who has redeemed us so that others will be saved (Matt. 5:16; John 12:32). Second, we must recall that Jesus notices everything. He sees both our work and the love and obedience we express for Him as we serve (Heb. 6:10). He remembers it all faithfully, and He rewards us when the time is right (1 Cor. 3:11–15; 2 Cor. 5:9, 10; Heb. 11:6).

> 2:3 — "You have perseverance and have endured for My name's sake, and have not grown weary."

The work Jesus gives us to do can feel taxing and almost unending. To complete our assignment takes both complete reliance upon Him and perseverance. Only when we labor in His strength can we avoid complete weariness (Gal. 6:9).

> 2:4 — "I have this against you, that you have left your first love."

Gow could anything be wrong in a church where people are serving the Lord? Ephesus was a wealthy and influential port city in Asia Minor, which had the potential of becoming a great center for the spread of Christianity. Sadly, the believers there were placing more faith in their earthly riches and works than in the spiritual blessings given to them by the Lord. They were busy for Him, but not obedient to Him. God created us for an intimate relationship with Himself, and developing that relationship must always remain our top priority. Serving the Lord must be out of obedience—not ritual or tradition—and it must never replace loving Him (1 Sam. 15:22; Jer. 7:23; Hos. 6:6; Mark 12:33).

> 2:9, 10 — "I know your tribulation and your poverty . . . Do not fear what you are about to suffer . . . you will be tested."

The Lord Jesus had nothing negative to say about the church of Smyrna. He understood the persecution they were facing from the "synagogue of Satan"—a group of Jews who were diabolically hostile toward Christians—but

10 'Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, so that you will be tested, and you will have tribulation for ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life

11 'He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes will not be hurt by the second death.'

- ▶ 14 'But I have a few things against you, because you have there some who hold the teaching of Balaam, who kept teaching Balak to put a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols and to commit acts of immorality.
 - 15 'So you also have some who in the same way hold the teaching of the Nicolaitans.
- ➤ 16 'Therefore repent; or else I am coming to you quickly, and I will make war against them with the sword of My mouth.

a new name written on the stone which no one knows but he who receives it.'

Message to Thyatira

- 20 'But I have this against you, that you tolerate the woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, and she teaches and leads My bond-servants astray so that they commit acts of immorality and eat things sacrificed to idols.

- 22 'Behold, I will throw her on a bed of sickness, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of aher deeds.
- 23 'And I will kill her children with pestilence, and all the churches will know that I am He who searches the minds and hearts; and I will give to each one of you according to your deeds.

> 2:13 — "You dwell, where Satan's throne is; and you hold fast My name, and did not deny My faith."

he believers at Pergamum dwelt where Satan's throne was because it was a center for worship of many pagan idols, including three Roman Caesars and the four main deities of the Greeks—Zeus, Dionysius, Aesculapius, and Athena. When a believer confessed Christ as Savior and affirmed that there is only one true God, they would incur great persecution and pressure. Yet the Christians at Pergamum refused to renounce their faith in Jesus.

> 2:14, 15 — "You have there some who hold the teaching of Balaam . . . You also have some who in the same way hold the teaching of the Nicolaitans."

Balaam advised the Moabite king, Balak, to defeat Israel by inducing her people to forsake God through sexual iniquity and idolatry (Num. 22—25). The Nicolaitans were a licentious sect who similarly practiced sexual immorality and participated in heathen feasts. Although the believers in Pergamum confessed Christ as their Savior, they had not renounced these pagan practices.

> 2:16 — "Repent; or else I am coming to you quickly, and I will make war against them with the sword of My mouth."

 $\mathcal N$ o one should ever imagine that because of His unconditional love for us, God will not discipline our unrepentant sinfulness. Jesus uses strong language against those at Pergamum to remind us that He expects us to represent Him well.

> 2:20 — "You tolerate the woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, and she teaches and leads My bond-servants astray."

he church at Thyatira allowed a false prophet named Jezebel to lead believers in idolatrous practices and ungodly doctrine. More than likely, this congregation had begun to combine the ideas of the pagan religions in the secular community of Thyatira with their Christian doctrine—a fusion known as syncretism.

> 2:23 — "All the churches will know that I am He who searches the minds and hearts."

Gesus knows exactly what thoughts we harbor in our minds and hearts—we cannot pretend to be Christians and maintain a belief in other idols. God will not tolerate our divided allegiance. Often, when such duality is found in us, He will allow us to experience trials so we will know that He alone is the Lord and that there is no other.

25 'Nevertheless what you have, hold fast until I come.

26 'He who overcomes, and he who keeps My deeds until the end, to him I will give authority over the nations;

The church at Sardis had a good reputation in the community, but they had lost the power of God—He was no longer being glorified among them. When a congregation loses its connection with God, it often exchanges a personal relationship with God for formalism. This congregation had a superficial form of Christianity, but it did not have an intimate, personal relationship with Jesus Christ (2 Tim. 3:1–7).

> 3:5 — "He who overcomes will thus be clothed in white garments; and I will not erase his name from the book of life, and I will confess his name before My Father."

who do not merely wear their Christianity as a status symbol or offer Him lip service (Matt. 7:21–23)—will be clothed in white, signifying purity, righteousness, and sanctification in Him (Ps. 51:7; Is. 1:18; Rev. 7:14; 19:14). And our names will remain forever in the Lamb's Book of Life (Rev. 20:12–15; 21:27).

> 3:8 — "I have put before you an open door which no one can shut, because you have a little power, and have kept My word, and have not denied My name."

The church at Philadelphia was a wonderful, faithful church. However, believers there were persecuted by their Jewish brethren who were convinced they—and not Christians—would inherit the kingdom of David (2 Sam. 7:12–16). In fact, in A.D. 90, at the Council of Jamnia, the Jews expelled all believers from the synagogue. Yet Jesus assured them that the door of salvation He opened for them, no one could close (Rom. 8:38, 39). The same is true for us.

> 3:10 — "I also will keep you from the hour of testing, that hour which is about to come upon the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth."

How do we know that the church of the Lord Jesus Christ will not suffer in the seven-year Tribulation? Because the Lord did not ordain us for wrath, and none of the prophecies concerning the Tribulation in Revelation 4–18 mention the church.

The Amen, the faithful and true Witness, the ^aBeginning of the creation of God, says this:

- > 15 'I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot; I wish that you were cold or hot.
- ➤ 16 'So because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of My mouth.

aodicea was known for its exceptional black wool, medical school, and banking. It was also the picture of ungodly compromise. To illustrate the church's indifferent commitment to Him, Jesus referred to the two sources of water available to them—the icy streams of the Hierapolis and the hot mineral springs to the south. However, once the water reached the city through the six-mile Roman aqueduct, it was tepid and undrinkable. Lukewarm believers who had accommodated secular society had become likewise repellent.

> 3:16 — "Because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of My mouth."

aodicea was a very affluent city, and the believers there were complacent, self-satisfied, and essentially useless to the kingdom of God. They had chosen comfort over spiritual combat and cooperation with the secular culture rather than wholehearted commitment to Jesus Christ. Partial obedience is always disobedience, which is abhorrent to the Lord. And any wealth you hold too tightly in opposition to His will, you will lose.

> 3:19 — "Those whom I love, I reprove and discipline."

No one likes to be disciplined because it requires a change in our perspective, goals, behavior, and attitude. Deeply entrenched sinfulness, compromise, and destructive habits are rooted out, and our earthly sources of security are destroyed. This is all very painful and difficult. But if we cooperate with God when He corrects us, we will become more like Him, and great blessings will always result.

> 3:20 — "I stand at the door and knock; if anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and will dine with him, and he with Me."

Gesus takes the initiative in calling us into a saving relationship with Himself. However, He will not force us to answer. His desire is that we respond to Him in obedience (Luke 12:36). So whenever we feel Him drawing us near to Himself, we should open the door of our lives to Him willingly.

> 4:1 — "Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after these things."

From here on, there is no mention of the church on earth until the Second Coming of Christ, and there is a reason for it. Only tribulation saints—people who accept Jesus as their Savior after the Rapture—are present during this time of suffering and judgment. The church is not present for the wrath (1 Thess. 5:9). Rather, the church is caught up in the air to be with Him (1 Cor. 15:51–57; 1 Thess. 4:15–17).

> 4:5 — Out from the throne come flashes of lightning and sounds and peals of thunder.

s John looks upon the Lord's throne in heaven, he realizes that he is witnessing what will occur when God's judgment comes—as shown by the lightning and thunder. He also sees the seven spirits, who are a symbol of the Holy Spirit (ls. 11:2) and who demonstrate that the Lord's wrath is perfectly informed and from a faultless perspective.

 - "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God, the Almighty, who was and who is and who is to come."
 - 9 And when the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to Him who sits on the throne, to Him who lives forever and ever,
 - 10 the twenty-four elders will fall down before Him who sits on the throne, and will worship Him who lives forever and ever, and will cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

The Book with Seven Seals

5 I SAW in the right hand of Him who sat on the throne a book written inside and on the back, sealed up with seven seals.

- 2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the book and to break its seals?"
- 3 And no one in heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the book or to look into it.

one was found worthy to open the book or to look into it;

- 5 and one of the elders *said to me, "Stop weeping; behold, the Lion that is from the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome so as to open the book and its seven seals."
- 6 And I saw abetween the throne (with the four living creatures) and the elders a Lamb standing, as if slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth.
- 7 And He came and took the book out of the right hand of Him who sat on the throne.
- 8 When He had taken the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one holding a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.
- And they *sang a new song, saying, "Worthy are You to take the book and to break its seals; for You were slain, and purchased for God with Your blood men from every tribe and tongue and people and nation.
- 10 "You have made them to be a kingdom and priests to our God; and they will reign upon the earth."

> 4:8 — "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God, the Almighty, who was and who is and who is to come."

This is the theme of the Book of Revelation: God rules the earth and every individual in it on the basis of His eternal holiness and perfect judgment. He evaluates every situation and can tell us what is coming because He inhabits eternity—existing from the infinite past and forever without end. No one is like Him, and only He is worthy of praise.

> 4:11 — "Worthy are You, our Lord and our God, to receive glory and honor and power; for You created all things."

As our Creator, God is worthy of all praise and adoration. We are merely a reflection of His glory. This will be abundantly clear when we all reach heaven. All who know the Lord—who have seen Him in all of His beauty, holiness, power, and majesty—will worship Him and lay our crowns at His feet in thankfulness, giving Him the glory and honor He deserves.

> 5:4 — I began to weep greatly because no one was found worthy to open the book or to look into it.

Who is worthy to hold eternal life and everlasting condemnation in His hands? The fifth chapter of Revelation reveals that no other leader, religious figure, or ruler in history could open this important scroll about God's righteous judgment. Only one Person—the risen Savior, who sacrificed Himself for all mankind—could open it. Jesus is unique and superior to all.

> 5:5 — "Stop weeping; behold, the Lion that is from the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome."

his is true for us in every situation because Jesus prevails when no one else can. As the Lamb of God (1 Cor. 5:7), He took our sins upon Himself, giving His life on the Cross so we could be saved. As the Lion of Judah (Gen. 49:9, 10; Hos. 5:14, 15), He is coming as the conquering warrior and Messiah who will bring justice to the earth. Finally, as the Root of David (Is. 11:1–10; Rom. 15:12; Rev. 22:16, 17), Jesus fulfills the promises made to King David and ushers in His everlasting kingdom (2 Sam. 7:10–16).

> 5:9 — "You were slain, and purchased for God with Your blood men from every tribe and tongue and people and nation."

God does not play favorites. He offers His gift of salvation to people from every ethnic group, race, and language from throughout the world. He is truly the God of all the earth. And in heaven, there will be people from every tribe, tongue, and nation as evidence of it.

them was myriads of myriads, and thousands of thousands,

"Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing."

➤ 13 And every created thing which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and on the sea, and all things in them, I heard saying,

"To Him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb, be blessing and honor and glory and dominion forever and ever."

14 And the four living creatures kept saying, "Amen." And the elders fell down and worshiped.

The First Seal—Rider on White Horse

6 THEN I saw when the Lamb broke one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying as with a voice of thunder, "Come."

2 I looked, and behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it had a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and to conquer.

The Second Seal—War

3 When He broke the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, "Come."

4 And another, a red horse, went out; and to him who sat on it, it was granted to take peace from the earth, and that men would slay one another; and a great sword was given to him.

The Third Seal—Famine

5 When He broke the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, "Come." I looked, and behold, a black horse; and he who sat on it had a pair of scales in his hand.

6 And I heard something like a voice in the center of the four living creatures saying, "A ^aquart of wheat for a ^bdenarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius; and do not damage the oil and the wine."

The Fourth Seal—Death

7 When the Lamb broke the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, "Come."

8 I looked, and behold, an ashen horse; and whe who sat on it had the name Death; and Hades was following with him. Authority was given to them over a fourth of the earth, to kill with sword and with famine and with pestilence and by the wild beasts of the earth.

The Fifth Seal—Martyrs

9 When the Lamb broke the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been slain because of the word of God, and because of the testimony which they had maintained:

10 and they cried out with a loud voice, saying, "How long, O Lord, holy and true, will s the moment nears for the Lamb to break open the seven seals of the judgment, all creation worships Him (Is. 45:23; Rom. 14:11; Phil. 2:10, 11). Here we can see the unity of the Godhead—both the Father and Son are worshiped as One. He is the sovereign King of the universe. He is our Creator and deserves all our praise.

> 6:2 — I looked, and behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it had a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and to conquer.

Then the Lamb breaks the first seal of judgment, the Antichrist appears on the scene with deceptive answers for the woes of the world, and he is catapulted into a place of authority (2 Thess. 2:3–12; 1 John 2:22). He leads the world in opposition to God. Through him, the Lord tests what is really in people's hearts.

> 6:4 — A red horse, went out; and to him who sat on it, it was granted to take peace from the earth.

Then the red horse is released, war will break out in ways that we have never seen before. War is seen as an instrument of God's judgment throughout the Old Testament (Ezek. 21). Romans 1:28, 29 explains, "Just as they did not see fit to acknowledge God any longer, God gave them over to a deprayed mind . . . being filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, greed, evil; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit."

> 6:5 — A black horse; and he who sat on it had a pair of scales in his hand.

The black horse represents what normally follows war famine and poverty. Economies and crops will be destroyed, and people all over the earth will suffer terrible hunger.

> 6:8 — An ashen horse; and he who sat on it had the name Death.

The ashen horse, Death, is given power over a fourth of the earth's population—more people than any of us can imagine. However, this is so the three-fourths of the world who remain will realize their sinfulness, repent, and accept Christ.

> 6:9 — I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been slain because of the word of God, and because of the testimony which they had maintained.

This is not a reference to the church, but to tribulation saints. After the Rapture, there will be those who realize that believers were right—Jesus Christ is the only Savior—and they will accept His salvation. They will preach the gospel, and many people will be saved because of their testimony. However, they will also face great persecution. God will not forget them, but He will wait until everything He has promised is complete before He honors them.

You refrain from judging and avenging our blood on those who dwell on the earth?"

11 And there was given to each of them a white robe; and they were told that they should rest for a little while longer, until the number of their fellow servants and their brethren who were to be killed even as they had been, would be completed also.

The Sixth Seal—Terror

- 12 I looked when He broke the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became like blood;
- 13 and the stars of the sky fell to the earth, as a fig tree casts its unripe figs when shaken by a great wind.
- 14 The sky was split apart like a scroll when it is rolled up, and every mountain and island were moved out of their places.
- 15 Then the kings of the earth and the great men and the acommanders and the rich and the strong and every slave and free man hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains;
- 16 and they *said to the mountains and to the rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the presence of Him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb;
- ➤ 17 for the great day of their wrath has come, and who is able to stand?"

An Interlude

7AFTER this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth, so that no wind would blow on the earth or on the sea or on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, having the seal of the living God; and he cried out with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea,

3 saying, "Do not harm the earth or the sea ≺ or the trees until we have sealed the bond-servants of our God on their foreheads."

The 144,000

- 4 And I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred and forty-four thousand sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel:
- 5 from the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand were sealed, from the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand, from the tribe of Gad twelve thousand,
- from the tribe of Asher twelve thousand, from the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand, from the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand,
- 7: from the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand, from the tribe of Levi twelve thousand, from the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand.
- 8 from the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand, from the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand, from the tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand were sealed.

A Multitude from the Tribulation

9 After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude which no one could count, from every nation and all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, and palm branches were in their hands;

10 and they cry out with a loud voice, saying.

"Salvation to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb."

> 6:17 — "The great day of their wrath has come, and who is able to stand?"

They recognize God's hand in their circumstances, and yet they refuse to repent. Judgment always results when people refuse to humble themselves before the Lord. Yet they will find in that day that neither wealth nor power nor social connections will be able to save them. Though they cling to these things for safety, in the day of the Lord, all will turn to ashes.

> 7:3 — "We have sealed the bond-servants of our God on their foreheads."

God marks His children with a permanent seal that shows we belong to Him (Ezek. 9:4–6; 2 Cor. 1:22; Eph. 1:13; 4:30). During the last days, this will be revealed by a mark on the forehead, which distinguishes believers from those who have completely rejected the Lord and those who worship the Antichrist (Rev. 13:15–17; 14:1–5).

> 7:4 — I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred and forty-four thousand sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel.

These 144,000 people from the tribes of Israel are messianic Jews who will go throughout the world sharing the gospel and leading people into a growing relationship with Jesus Christ. God's promise of salvation to believers does not negate or replace His love for the nation of Israel (Rom. 11). On the contrary, here we see how He is once again trying to bring His people into a right relationship with Himself.

> 7:9 — A great multitude . . . from every nation and all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes.

God redeems multitudes of people from every nation, culture, and background (Matt. 24:14). His grace reaches into every corner of the world, and His salvation is offered to everyone (2 Pet. 3:9).

11 And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, 12 saying,

"Amen, blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might, be to our God forever and ever. Amen."

13 Then one of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are clothed in the white robes, who are they, and where have they

- come from?"
- ▶ 14 I said to him, "My lord, you know." And he said to me, "These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.
 - 15 "For this reason, they are before the throne of God; and they serve Him day and night in His temple; and He who sits on the throne will spread His tabernacle over them.
- * 16 "They will hunger no longer, nor thirst anymore; nor will the sun beat down on them, nor any heat;
- ▶ 17 for the Lamb in the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and will guide them to springs of the water of life; and God will wipe every tear from their eyes."

The Seventh Seal—the Trumpets

- WHEN the Lamb broke the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.
 - 2 And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them
 - 3 Another angel came and stood at the altar, holding a golden censer; and much incense was given to him, so that he might add it to the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar which was before the throne.

- 4 And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand.
- 5 Then the angel took the censer and filled 4 it with the fire of the altar, and threw it to the earth; and there followed peals of thunder and sounds and flashes of lightning and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound them.

- 7 The first sounded, and there came hail and fire, mixed with blood, and they were thrown to the earth; and a third of the earth was burned up, and a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.
- 8 The second angel sounded, and something like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea; and a third of the sea became blood,
- 9 and a third of the creatures which were in the sea and had life, died; and a third of the ships were destroyed.
- 10 The third angel sounded, and a great star fell from heaven, burning like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of waters.
- 11 The name of the star is called Wormwood; and a third of the waters became wormwood, and many men died from the waters, because they were made bitter.
- 12 The fourth angel sounded, and a third of the sun and a third of the moon and a third of the stars were struck, so that a third of them would be darkened and the day would not

> 7:14 — "These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb."

This multitude of tribulation saints did not accept the gospel before the church was taken up to heaven (1 Cor. 15:51–57; 1 Thess. 4:15–17). However, some time after the Rapture, they understood the truth and received Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. The blood of the Lamb takes away our sin and makes us pure and holy when we believe in Him (ls. 1:18; Heb. 9:14; 1 John 1:7)

> 7:17 — "God will wipe every tear from their eyes."

This world is filled with pain and suffering—especially for the tribulation saints, who endure God's judgment on the world and the persecution of the Antichrist. But in heaven there is no more pain, hunger, sorrow, or fear. God will wipe away any remnant of tears in our eyes from our difficulties here on earth (ls. 25:8; Matt. 5:4; Rev. 21:4). "In Your presence is fullness of joy; in Your right hand there are pleasures forever" (Ps. 16:11).

> 8:1 — When the Lamb broke the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

every creature in heaven watching God's plan unfold is so absolutely awed about what is happening there is dead silence. No one speaks. No song is sung. Everyone waits in hushed reverence for the Lord's next pronouncement—the seven trumper judgments. Some of God's works are so overwhelming that the only appropriate response is reverent silence. "The Lord is in His holy temple. Let all the earth be silent before Him" (Hab. 2:20).

> 8:4 — The smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand.

It is awe-inspiring to think that the silence of heaven is also in honor of the prayers of the tribulation saints for comfort, deliverance, vindication, and justice. The Father accepts the prayers of His faithful people as fragrant sacrifices—offerings that honor Him. In prayer, we admit our weakness and declare our trust in His wisdom and strength.

> 8:5 — The angel took the censer and filled it with the fire of the altar, and threw it to the earth.

The angel takes the same censor that carried the prayers of the saints and throws it back to earth with God's answer—judgment on the wicked. This is why we stand tallest and strongest on our knees because the Lord answers our prayers in ways that are beyond imagination.

➤ 13 Then I looked, and I heard an eagle flying in midheaven, saying with a loud voice, "Woe, woe, woe to those who dwell on the earth, because of the remaining blasts of the trumpet of the three angels who are about to sound!"

The Fifth Trumpet—the Bottomless Pit

9THEN the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from heaven which had fallen to the earth; and the key of the bottomless pit was given to him.

- He opened the bottomless pit, and smoke went up out of the pit, like the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by the smoke of the pit.
- 3 Then out of the smoke came locusts upon the earth, and power was given them, as the scorpions of the earth have power.
- 4 They were told not to hurt the grass of the earth, nor any green thing, nor any tree, but only the men who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads.
 - 5 And they were not permitted to kill anyone, but to torment for five months; and their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it stings a man.
- ▶ 6 And in those days men will seek death and will not find it; they will long to die, and death flees from them.
 - 7 The appearance of the locusts was like horses prepared for battle; and on their heads appeared to be crowns like gold, and their faces were like the faces of men.
 - 8 They had hair like the hair of women, and their teeth were like the teeth of lions.
 - 9 They had breastplates like breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots, of many horses rushing to battle.

- 10 They have tails like scorpions, and stings; and in their tails is their power to hurt men for five months.
- 11 They have as king over them, the angel of the abyss; his name in Hebrew is ^aAbaddon, and in the Greek he has the name Apollyon.
- 12 The first woe is past; behold, two woes are still coming after these things.

The Sixth Trumpet—Army from the East

- 13 Then the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the bfour horns of the golden altar which is before God,
- 14 one saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates."
- 15 And the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were released, so that they would kill a third of mankind.
- 16 The number of the armies of the horsemen was two hundred million; I heard the number of them.
- 17 And this is how I saw in the vision the horses and those who sat on them: the riders had breastplates the color of fire and of hyacinth and of brimstone; and the heads of the horses are like the heads of lions; and out of their mouths proceed fire and smoke and brimstone.
- 18 A third of mankind was killed by these three plagues, by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone which proceeded out of their mouths.
- 19 For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails; for their tails are like serpents and have heads, and with them they do harm.

The judgments described in Revelation grow in intensity and scale as time progresses. God typically employs escalating judgments to prompt repentance—at every turn He demonstrates that He is the Lord and there is no other (Ex. 9:14; Deut. 4:35, 39; 32:39; Is. 43:10–12; 44:6–8; 45:5–7). He eliminates everything that people are dependent upon in the hope that they will repent, believe in Jesus Christ, and be saved (Ezek. 18:32; John 3:16–18; 2 Pet. 3:9).

> 9:4 — Only the men who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads.

The locusts are only permitted to torment servants of the Antichrist—they are not permitted to touch the people of God. Just as the Lord protected the Israelites from many of His plagues against Pharaoh (Ex. 8:22; 9:6, 26; 10:23; 12:27), He safeguards His people from many of the judgments against the wicked during the Tribulation. > 9:6 — In those days men will seek death and will not find it; they will long to die, and death flees from them.

desus said, "Whoever wishes to save his life will lose it; but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it" (Matt. 16:25). Many people refuse to believe in Christ because they do not want to give up control of their lives. However, anything we hold too tightly, we will lose. In the end times, people will despair of the lives they've fought so hard to keep. God does not desire for anyone to perish, so He will use even severe pain to get our attention and urge us back to Him.

9:15 — The four angels, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were released.

espite the chaos on earth that the Book of Revelation describes, God remains completely in control (Ps. 103:19). The Lord has prepared these angels for this specific work at this precise time. Likewise, God has chosen the particular circumstances, era, location, and giftedness with which you exist for the purpose of serving Him. And the awareness of His presence in your situation can energize you for your work if you will trust Him.

- 20 The rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands, so as not to worship demons, and the idols of gold and of silver and of brass and of stone and of wood, which can neither see nor hear nor walk:
 - 21 and they did not repent of their murders nor of their sorceries nor of their immorality nor of their thefts.

The Angel and the Little Book

- $10^{\rm I}$ SAW another strong angel coming down out of heaven, clothed with a cloud; and the rainbow was upon his head, and his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire;
- and he had in his hand a little book which was open. He placed his right foot on the sea and his left on the land;
- 3 and he cried out with a loud voice, as when a lion roars; and when he had cried out, the seven peals of thunder uttered their voices.
- A When the seven peals of thunder had spoken, I was about to write; and I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Seal up the things which the seven peals of thunder have spoken and do not write them."
 - 5 Then the angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted up his right hand to heaven.
 - 6 and swore by Him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things in It, and the earth and the things in It, and the sea and the things in It, that there will be delay no longer,
- 7 but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then the mystery of God is finished, as He preached to His servants the prophets.

- 8 Then the voice which I heard from heaven, I heard again speaking with me, and saying, "Go, take the book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the land."
- 9 So I went to the angel, telling him to give ← me the little book. And he *said to me, "Take it and eat it; it will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be sweet as honey."
- 10 I took the little book out of the angel's hand and ate it, and in my mouth it was sweet as honey; and when I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter.
- 11 And they *said to me, "You must prophesy again concerning many peoples and nations and tongues and kings."

The Two Witnesses

1 THEN there was given me a measuring rod like a staff; and someone said, "Get up and measure the temple of God and the altar, and those who worship in it.

2 "Leave out the court which is outside the temple and do not measure it, for it has been given to the nations; and they will tread under foot the holy city for forty-two months.

- 3 "And I will grant authority to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy for twelve hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth."
- 4 These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth.

> 9:20 — The rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands.

Why does the Book of Revelation repeatedly tell us that the wicked did not repent? First, because it shows the necessity of God's judgment. Second, because it shows the Lord's desire that every person repent and live (Ezek. 18:32; 2 Pet. 3:9). Yet their hearts are so hardened against God that instead of repenting, their rebellion intensifies (Prov. 28:14; Lam. 3:64–66; John 12:37–43; Rom. 1:18–32; Eph. 4:18, 19).

> 10:4 — "Seal up the things which the seven peals of thunder have spoken and do not write them."

God reveals to us the things He wants us to know. He does not disclose details about the future to satisfy our curiosity, but to motivate and equip us to live for Him today with passion, holiness, and joy. He also leaves some particulars unknown so we will cling to Him and seek Him for wisdom and direction.

> 10:7 — The mystery of God is finished, as He preached to His servants the prophets.

od will move heaven and earth to show us His will, and throughout history, He has spoken to us about what will take place through His prophets (1 Pet. 1:10–13). However, we may not fully understand it all until it is fulfilled, just as the disciples did not comprehend all the prophecies concerning Jesus until they saw Him as the resurrected Messiah (John 2:19–22; 12:12–16).

> 10:9 — "Take it and eat it; it will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be sweet as honey."

It is always a joy to read and proclaim the Word of God. Yet some parts of Scripture—like these passages describing catastrophic divine judgment—give no pleasure either to the prophets or to the Lord (Jer. 15:16, 17, 19; Ezek. 2:8—3:15). We do not only partake of God's Word for our own edification, but once we read it, we have a responsibility of warning others of what is to come if they do not repent and believe in the Lord Jesus.

> 11:6 — These have the power to shut up the sky . . . and they have power over the waters to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every plague.

The miracles described here may remind us of the wonders performed through Elijah (1 Kin. 17:1) and Moses the waters to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every plague, as often as they desire.

- 7 When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the abyss will make war with them, and overcome them and kill them.
 - 8 And their dead bodies will lie in the street of the great city which ^amystically is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified.
 - 9 Those from the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations will look at their dead bodies for three and a half days, and will not permit their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb. 10 And those who dwell on the earth will re-
 - send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.
 - 11 But after the three and a half days, the breath of life from God came into them, and they stood on their feet; and great fear fell upon those who were watching them.
 - 12 And they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here." Then they went up into heaven in the cloud, and their enemies watched them.
- ➤ 13 And in that hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell; seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.
 - 14 The second woe is past; behold, the third woe is coming quickly.

The Seventh Trumpet—Christ's Reign Foreseen

▶ 15 Then the seventh angel sounded; and there were loud voices in heaven, saying,

"The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ; and He will reign forever and ever."

16 And the twenty-four elders, who sit on their thrones before God, fell on their faces and worshiped God,

17 saying,

"We give You thanks, O Lord God, the Almighty, who are and who were, because You have taken Your great power and have begun to reign.

- 18 "And the nations were enraged, and Your wrath came, and the time came for the dead to be judged, and the time to reward Your bond-servants the prophets and the saints and those who fear Your name, the small and the great, and to destroy those who destroy the earth."
- 19 And the temple of God which is in heaven ✓ was opened; and the ark of His covenant appeared in His temple, and there were flashes of lightning and sounds and peals of thunder and an earthquake and a great hailstorm.

(Ex. 7:14—12:42). The same God who empowered them will demonstrate His power once again so that many can be saved.

> 11:7 — When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the abyss will make war with them, and overcome them and kill them.

Whe will not leave this earth until the Father deems fit (Luke 12:6–8; 21:17–19). The two witnesses described here cannot be touched by their enemies until they have completed every task assigned to them by God.

> 11:13 — Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

his is the only time in Revelation that a tragedy prompts those who survive to give glory to God. Tragedies such as this devastating earthquake are terrible, but the Lord can use them to show people their great need for His grace and redemption.

> 11:15 — "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ; and He will reign forever and ever."

The time is coming when every inch of this planet will be illuminated by the glory of our King, the Lord Jesus Christ (Ps. 2). "The earth will be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea" (Is. 11:9). He reigns triumphantly over the world forever.

> 11:19 — The temple of God which is in heaven was opened; and the ark of His covenant appeared in His temple.

The ark of the covenant symbolized God's relationship with Israel (Ex. 25:22). It normally remained in the Holy of Holies, and His presence would appear above it—making it one of the most sacred articles of Israel's worship. Yet the ark had not been seen in Israel since the destruction of the first temple in 586 B.C. (2 Kin. 25:8, 9). Here, we see the ark is kept safely in the Lord's care—His sign to Israel that He will honor His covenants with them (Gen. 12:1–3; 2 Sam. 7:12–16) and that His provision of salvation is for them as well.

➤ 4 And his tail *swept away a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth he might devour her child.

The Male Child, Christ

- 5 And she gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron; and her child was caught up to God and to His throne.
- 6 Then the woman fled into the wilderness where she *had a place prepared by God, so that there she would be nourished for one thousand two hundred and sixty days.

The Angel, Michael

- 7 And there was war in heaven, Michael and his angels waging war with the dragon. The dragon and his angels waged war,
- 8 and they were not strong enough, and there was no longer a place found for them in heaven.
- ➤ 9 And the great dragon was thrown down, the serpent of old who is called the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.
- 10 Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying.
 - "Now the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God and the authority of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren has been thrown down, he who accuses them before our God day and night.
- ➤ 11 "And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of their testimony, and they did not love their life even when faced with death.

- 12 "For this reason, rejoice, O heavens and you who dwell in them. Woe to the earth and the sea, because the devil has come down to you, having great wrath, knowing that he has only a short time."
- 13 And when the dragon saw that he was thrown down to the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male child.
- 14 But the two wings of the great eagle were given to the woman, so that she could fly into the wilderness to her place, where she *was nourished for a time and times and half a time, from the presence of the serpent.
- 15 And the serpent poured water like a river out of his mouth after the woman, so that he might cause her to be swept away with the flood.
- 16 But the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and drank up the river which the dragon poured out of his mouth.
- 17 So the dragon was enraged with the woman, and went off to make war with the rest of her children, who keep the commandments of God and hold to the testimony of Jesus.

The Beast from the Sea

- 13AND the dragon stood on the sand of the seashore.
- Then I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, and on his horns were ten diadems, and on his heads were blasphemous names.
- 2 And the beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were like those of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. And the dragon gave him his power and his throne and great authority.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 12:4 — His tail swept away a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth.

Ome believe the stars represent angels and that the Enemy convinced a third of them to rebel against God. The devil's goal is to divert us from an intimate relationship with the Lord God, and he has the power to do terrible evil in our lives, so we must resist him and stand firm in our faith (1 Pet. 5:9).

> 12:9 — The serpent of old who is called the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was thrown down to the earth.

The devil fell from his lofty position in the Lord's kingdom because of pride—he wanted to make himself "like the Most High" (ls. 14:14). Yet God has always been and will forever be superior to the Enemy. The Lord triumphs over evil and will ultimately send the adversary to everlasting condemnation (Rev. 20:10).

> 12:10 — "The kingdom of our God and the authority of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren has been thrown down." Omans 8:34 tells us, "Who is the one who condemns? Christ Jesus is He who died, yes, rather who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who also intercedes for us." No one has a right to bring any condemnation against those who have trusted in Christ as their Savior, because the Lord Jesus Himself testifies on our behalf (Rom. 8:1). And at the right time, Jesus will rid us forever of the Enemy who has tempted and tormented us.

> 12:11 — "They overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of their testimony."

We cannot win our battles against Satan with swords, bullets, or bombs (2 Cor. 10:3–6; Eph. 6:10–18). Rather, our invincible weapons are salvation through Christ and the Word of God. When we accept Jesus Christ as our Savior the devil's ability to destroy our souls is removed (John 10:27–30). So he goes to work in other ways, seeking to hinder our effectiveness for the kingdom of God. This is why we must obey what the Lord teaches us through His Word. The principles in His Word are anchors that keep us steady in times of storm (Prov. 30:5; Rom. 15:4; 2 Tim. 3:16, 17; Heb. 4:12; 1 Pet. 1:22–25).

- 3 I saw one of his heads as if it had been slain, and his fatal wound was healed. And the whole earth was amazed and followed after the beast;

- 5 There was given to him a mouth speaking arrogant words and blasphemies, and authority to act for forty-two months was given to him.
 - 6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemies against God, to blaspheme His name and His tabernacle, that is, those who dwell in heaven
- 7 It was also given to him to make war with the saints and to overcome them, and authority over every tribe and people and tongue and nation was given to him.

is the perseverance and the faith of the saints.

The Beast from the Earth

➤ 11 Then I saw another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb and he spoke as a dragon.

- 12 He exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence. And he makes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed.
- 13 He performs great signs, so that he even makes fire come down out of heaven to the earth in the presence of men.
- 14 And he deceives those who dwell on the earth because of the signs which it was given him to perform in the presence of the beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the beast who *had the wound of the sword and has come to life.
- 15 And it was given to him to give breath to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast would even 'speak and cause as many as do not worship the image of the beast to be killed.
- 16 And he causes all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free men and the slaves, to be given a mark on their right hand or on their forehead,
- 17 and he provides that no one will be able to buy or to sell, except the one who has the mark, either the name of the beast or the number of his name.
- 18 Here is wisdom. Let him who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for the number is that of a man; and his number is ^dsix hundred and sixty-six.

> 13:3 — His fatal wound was healed. And the whole earth was amazed and followed after the beast.

The beast—or Antichrist—will attempt to deceive the world by staging a false resurrection. However, only the Lord Jesus Christ can give eternal life. Though the Enemy will counterfeit Christ's work, he will never be able to escape the everlasting condemnation that awaits him (Rev. 20:10). Neither will anyone who rejects Jesus (w.

> 13:5 — There was given to him a mouth speaking arrogant words and blasphemies, and authority to act for forty-two months was given to him.

The beast opposes the Lord and tries to destroy all that He loves, and no horror in history will compare with the Antichrist's reign of terror. However, the beast's time is short—God will strictly control the length of his rule, and even what he can do. The Lord remains sovereign, regardless of all the Enemy does.

> 13:7 — It was also given to him to make war with the saints and to overcome them.

Thy would God allow the Antichrist to harm His people? Jesus said, "Unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit" (John 12:24). Through the saints' faithful example even in the face of death, others would know Christ as Savior.

> 13:8 — All who dwell on the earth will worship him, everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb who has been slain.

Pefore the foundation of the world, God created us with free will so we could choose to love and obey Him. Knowing sin would enter the world, He prepared a plan of salvation that includes eternal forgiveness, redemption, and reconciliation. All of this was provided for at the Cross. In the last days, the beast will manipulate the lost by counterfeiting God's work and tricking them into worshiping him. But those who know the Lord Jesus as their Savior will not be deceived by the Enemy.

> 13:11 — I saw another beast coming up out of the earth.

This second beast is the false prophet. Along with the dragon, which is Satan, and the first beast, which is the Antichrist, these three form an evil triumvirate that opposes God.

> 13:16 — He causes all . . . to be given a mark on their right hand or on their forehead.

In Revelation 7:3, God marks His children with a permanent seal, showing we belong to Him. This seal appears as people accept Christ as their Savior. However, the beast forces the remaining people to take his mark just to buy and sell goods. Those who accept the beast's mark submit themselves to his ownership forever.

The Lamb and the 144,000 on Mount Zion

14 THEN I looked, and behold, the Lamb Him one hundred and forty-four thousand, having His name and the name of His Father written on their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, like the sound of many waters and like the sound of loud thunder, and the voice which I heard was like the sound of harpists playing on their harps.

- 3 And they *sang a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders; and no one could learn the song except the one hundred and forty-four thousand who had been purchased from the earth.
- 4 These are the ones who have not been defiled with women, for they ahave kept themselves chaste. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These have been purchased from among men as first fruits to God and to the Lamb.
- 5 And no lie was found in their mouth; they are blameless.

Vision of the Angel with the Gospel

- 6 And I saw another angel flying in midheaven, having an eternal gospel to preach to those who live on the earth, and to every nation and tribe and tongue and people;
- 7 and he said with a loud voice, "Fear God, and give Him glory, because the hour of His judgment has come; worship Him who made the heaven and the earth and sea and springs of waters."
 - 8 And another angel, a second one, followed, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, she who has made all the nations drink of the wine of the passion of her immorality."

Doom for Worshipers of the Beast

9 Then another angel, a third one, followed them, saying with a loud voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand, 10 he also will drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is mixed in full strength in the cup of His anger; and he will be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb. 11 "And the smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever; they have no rest day and night, those who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name."

12 Here is the perseverance of the saints who keep the commandments of God and their faith in Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven, saying, *Write, 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on!'" "Yes," says the Spirit, "so that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow with them."

The Reapers

14 Then I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and sitting on the cloud was one like ^ba son of man, having a golden crown on His head and a sharp sickle in His hand.

15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying out with a loud voice to Him who sat on the cloud, "Put in your sickle and reap, for the hour to reap has come, because the harvest of the earth is ripe."

16 Then He who sat on the cloud swung His sickle over the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, and he also had a sharp sickle.

18 Then another angel, the one who has power over fire, came out from the altar; and he called with a loud voice to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, "Put in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters from the vine of the earth, because her grapes are ripe."

➤ 14:1 — The Lamb was standing on Mount Zion, and with Him one hundred and forty-four thousand, having His name and the name of His Father written on their foreheads.

While the Tribulation is occurring on earth, the Lord Jesus stands triumphantly on Mount Zion—which is the heavenly Jerusalem. With Him are the 144,000 missionaries who faithfully proclaimed the gospel (Rev. 7:3–8).

> 14:7 — "Fear God, and give Him glory, because the hour of His judgment has come."

Three angels arrive with three final messages of warning. The first proclaims the gospel. The second declares the demise of the beast's kingdom. The third warns that God's wrath is near for whomever has received the mark of the beast. The Lord's judgment is about to begin, but because He wants all to be saved, He continues to call unbelievers to repentance (Ezek. 18:32; John 3:16–18; 2 Pet. 3:9).

> 14:11 — "The smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever; they have no rest day and night."

Hell is a place of eternal suffering—the unredeemed souls of the lost are forever separated from God, the only One who could have made them whole (Rev. 20:15). "There is no peace for the wicked,' says the LORD" (Is. 48:22).

> 14:15 — "The harvest of the earth is ripe."

Gesus will send His angels to separate the wheat from the tares—the godly from the wicked—just as He said He would (Matt. 13:24–30. 36–43).

19 So the angel swung his sickle to the earth and gathered the clusters from the vine of the earth, and threw them into the great wine press of the wrath of God.

20 And the wine press was trodden outside the city, and blood came out from the wine press, up to the horses' bridles, for a distance of atwo hundred miles.

A Scene of Heaven

15 THEN I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvelous, seven angels who had seven plagues, which are the last, because in them the wrath of God is finished.

2 And I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who had been victorious over the beast and his image and the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, holding harps of God.

3 And they *sang the song of Moses, the bond-servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying,

"Great and marvelous are Your works,

O Lord God, the Almighty;

Righteous and true are Your ways, King of the bnations!

➤ 4 "Who will not fear, O Lord, and glorify Your name?

For You alone are holy;

For all the nations will come and worship before You,

FOR YOUR RIGHTEOUS ACTS HAVE BEEN REVEALED."

- 5 After these things I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of testimony in heaven was opened.
- 6 and the seven angels who had the seven plagues came out of the temple, clothed in clinen, clean and bright, and girded around their chests with golden sashes.
- 7 Then one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever.
- 8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power; and no one was able to enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were finished.

Six Bowls of Wrath

 $16^{\rm THEN}$ I heard a loud voice from the temple, saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out on the earth the seven bowls of the wrath of God."

- 2 So the first angel went and poured out his bowl on the earth; and it became a loathsome and malignant sore on the people who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped his image.
- 3 The second angel poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood like that of a dead man; and every living ^dthing in the sea died.
- 4 Then the third angel poured out his bowl into the rivers and the springs of waters; and they became blood.
- 5 And I heard the angel of the waters saying, "Righteous are You, who are and who were, O Holy One, because You judged these things;
- 6 for they poured out the blood of saints and prophets, and You have given them blood to drink. They deserve it."
- 7 And I heard the altar saying, "Yes, O Lord God, the Almighty, true and righteous are Your judgments."
- 8 The fourth angel poured out his bowl upon the sun, and it was given to it to scorch men with fire.
- 9 Men were scorched with fierce heat; and they blasphemed the name of God who has the power over these plagues, and they did not repent so as to give Him glory.
- 10 Then the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom became darkened; and they gnawed their tongues because of pain,
- 11 and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores; and they did not repent of their deeds.

> 15:4 — "Who will not fear, O Lord, and glorify Your name? For You alone are holy."

One day, every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that Jesus is Lord (Rom. 14:11; Phil. 2:10). Some will prostrate themselves willingly before Him out of love, joy, worship, and respect. Others will bend their knee to Him out of dread. But everyone will bow.

> 15:8 — The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power; and no one was able to enter the temple.

Thenever God unveils His full majesty and holiness, His splendor overwhelms the stoutest heart, and worship is the result. This happened with Isaiah (Is. 6:4, 5) and at the dedications of both the tabernacle (Ex. 40:34, 35) and the temple in Jerusalem (1 Kin. 8:10, 11). This will be especially true during the time of judgment when His astounding power and righteousness are shown throughout the earth.

> 16:2 — The first angel went and poured out his bowl on the earth; and it became a loathsome and malignant sore on the people who had the mark of the beast.

God has complete and utter control over the entire earth—the waters (Rev. 16:3, 4), the sun (v. 8), and every element of creation (Job 38:4—41:34; Ps. 103:19; Luke 8:25). From these seven bowls of wrath come the last and worst of all the judgments.

12 The sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river, the Euphrates; and its water was dried up, so that the way would be prepared for the kings from the east.

Armageddon

Seventh Bowl of Wrath

- 17 Then the seventh angel poured out his bowl upon the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple from the throne, saying, "It is done."
- 18 And there were flashes of lightning and sounds and peals of thunder; and there was a great earthquake, such as there had not been since man came to be upon the earth, so great an earthquake was it, and so mighty.
- 19 The great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. Babylon the great was remembered before God, to give her the cup of the wine of His fierce wrath.
- 20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.
- 21 And huge hailstones, about bone hundred pounds each, *came down from heaven upon men; and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, because its plague *was extremely severe.

These are the cults that pervert who Christ is and what He has done for us. They are false religions that add requirements for salvation or deny Him altogether. The idolatrous church is often employed by a government to control the populace. After believers are gathered to the Lord in the Rapture, the apostate church will continue to exist and will be used as a pawn by the Antichrist.

> 17:6 — I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus.

he apostate church persecutes believers in Christ with a murderous vengeance, completely intolerant of the truth. There are a great many more Christian martyrs today than there were even in the days of the early church. And as we draw closer to the end times, that number is sure to increase worldwide.

and is about to come up out of the abyss and ago to destruction. And those who dwell on the earth, whose name has not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, will wonder when they see the beast, that he was and is not and will come.

- 9 "Here is the mind which has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits.
- 10 and they are seven kings; five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; and when he comes, he must remain a little while.
- 11 "The beast which was and is not, is himself also an eighth and is one of the seven, and he goes to destruction.
- 12 "The ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they receive authority as kings with the beast for one hour.
- 13 "These have one purpose, and they give their power and authority to the beast.

Victory for the Lamb

Babylon Is Fallen

- 18 AFTER these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illumined with his glory.
- 2 And he cried out with a mighty voice, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! She has become a dwelling place of demons and a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hateful bird.
- 3 "For all the nations bhave drunk of the wine of the passion of her immorality, and the kings of the earth have committed acts of immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich by the wealth of her sensuality."
- 4 I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "Come out of her, my people, so that you will not participate in her sins and receive of her plagues;
- 5 for her sins have piled up as high as heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities
- 6 "Pay her back even as she has paid, and give back to her double according to her deeds; in the cup which she has mixed, mix twice as much for her.
- 7 "To the degree that she glorified herself and lived sensuously, to the same degree give her torment and mourning; for she says in her heart, 'I SIT as A QUEEN AND I AM NOT A WIDOW, and will never see mourning.'

> 17:14 — "These will wage war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, because He is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those who are with Him are the called and chosen and faithful."

Second Coming (Rev. 19:19–21). It is always foolish for anyone to think that they can openly oppose the sovereign Lord of the universe or those He loves. However, this is exactly what the kings who follow the beast will do. And they will be soundly defeated for all eternity (Rev. 20:10–15).

> 17:17 — "God has put it in their hearts to execute His purpose by having a common purpose, and by giving their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God will be fulfilled."

Ithough the Lord will give the wicked "over to a deprayed mind, to do those things which are not proper" (Rom. 1:28), it does not mean He relinquishes all control over them. Ultimately, no one can do anything outside of God's permissive will, and He can even use the alliance of evil rulers to serve His eternal purposes and glorify

> 18:2 — "Fallen is Babylon the great!"

The original empire of Babylon was responsible for the destruction of Jerusalem and the temple and the deportation and captivity of her people in 586 B.C. (2 Kin. 25:8, 9; 2 Chr. 36:16–21). It was decadent, wicked, and idolatrous. The name Babylon came to represent the evil system of the world that the Enemy uses to oppose God. Yet there will come a time when Babylon is no more.

> 18:4 — "Come out of her, my people, so that you will not participate in her sins and receive of her plagues."

uring the last days, Babylon will be an exceedingly wealthy society, which will also be perverse and demonic. Though tribulation Christians might be tempted to participate in her affluence and wickedness, they are warned to avoid her at all costs, for "she will be burned up with fire; for the Lord God who judges her is strong" (Rev. 18:8). Likewise, believers may be tempted to compromise their beliefs for a life that seems to promise immediate pleasure without penalty. However, there are always consequences to sin, and usually they are worse than we can imagine.

8 "For this reason in one day her plagues will come, pestilence and mourning and famine, and she will be burned up with fire; for the Lord God who judges her is strong.

Lament for Babylon

9 "And the kings of the earth, who committed acts of immorality and lived sensuously with her, will weep and lament over her when they see the smoke of her burning,

10 standing at a distance because of the fear of her torment, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! For in one hour your judgment has come.'

11 "And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, because no one buys their cargoes any more—

12 cargoes of gold and silver and precious stones and pearls and fine linen and purple and silk and scarlet, and every kind of citron wood and every article of ivory and every article made from very costly wood and bronze and iron and marble,

13 and cinnamon and spice and incense and perfume and frankincense and wine and olive oil and fine flour and wheat and cattle and sheep, and cargoes of horses and chariots and slaves and human lives.

14 "The fruit you long for has gone from you, and all things that were luxurious and splendid have passed away from you and men will no longer find them.

15 "The merchants of these things, who became rich from her, will stand at a distance because of the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning,

16 saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, she who was clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls;

17 for in one hour such great wealth has been laid waste!' And every shipmaster and every passenger and sailor, and as many as make their living by the sea, stood at a distance.

18 and were crying out as they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What city is like the great city?'

19 "And they threw dust on their heads and were crying out, weeping and mourning, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, in which all who had ships at sea became rich by her wealth, for in one hour she has been laid waste!'

20 "Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you saints and apostles and prophets, because God has pronounced judgment for you against her."

21 Then a strong angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, "So will Babylon, the great city, be thrown down with violence, and will not be found any longer.

22 "And the sound of harpists and musicians and flute-players and trumpeters will not be heard in you any longer; and no craftsman of any craft will be found in you any longer; and the sound of a mill will not be heard in you any longer:

23 and the light of a lamp will not shine in you any longer; and the voice of the bridegroom and bride will not be heard in you any longer; for your merchants were the great men of the earth, because all the nations were deceived by your sorcery.

24 "And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints and of all who have been slain on the earth."

The Fourfold Hallelujah

19 AFTER these things I heard something 4 like a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying,

"Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God;

2 BECAUSE HIS JUDGMENTS ARE TRUE AND RIGHTEOUS; for He has judged the great harlot who was corrupting the earth with her immorality, and He has avenged the blood of HIS BOND-SERVANTS ON HER."

3 And a second time they said, "Hallelujah! HER SMOKE RISES UP FOREVER AND EVER."

4 And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne saying, "Amen. Hallelujah!"

5 And a voice came from the throne, saying,

"Give praise to our God, all you His bondservants, you who fear Him, the small and the great."

LIFE LESSONS-

> 18:24 — "In her was found the blood of prophets and of saints and of all who have been slain on the earth."

Indication may not come in the manner we expect, but eventually the Lord's judgment will fall on all who persecute His faithful servants (Rom. 12:19; Rev. 19:2).

> 19:1 — "Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God."

Revelation 19 begins with the glorious praise and worship of the Lord Jesus by the great multitude of heaven. These declarations of His glory usher in His Second Coming.

> 19:5 — "Give praise to our God, all you His bondservants, you who fear Him, the small and the great."

While many differences may separate us here on earth, when we worship before the Lord in heaven, we will approach His throne with unity of heart, mind, and soul. We will exclaim together the awesomeness of His glory and praise Him for His righteousness and all He has done through His mercy and grace.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

Can the devil really make me do something?

REV. 18:23

The late comedian Flip Wilson may have popularized the catchphrase, "The devil made me do it," but this excuse has always been around. We blame Satan since we know he has something to do with the temptation process.

But in fact, the devil cannot make us do anything. The Bible calls Satan a deceiver (Gen. 3:13; 2 Cor. 11:3; Rev. 18:23) and the "father of lies" (John 8:44). Satan's only power over us is through manipulation and deceit.

If the devil could actually make us do things, then he wouldn't need to go to all the trouble of deceiving us. When he dangles the right bait in front of us at the right time, our fleshly desires make it seem as though something is relentlessly drawing us toward sin; but this power does not control us. In each case we choose to disobey.

Think of it this way. Imagine yourself standing at the edge of a cliff that drops off

6 Then I heard something like the voice of a great multitude and like the sound of many waters and like the sound of mighty peals of thunder, saying,

"Hallelujah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns.

Marriage of the Lamb

> 7 "Let us rejoice and be glad and give the glory to Him, for the marriage of the Lamb has come and His bride has made herself ready."

into a deep, rocky gorge. Now suppose I walked up to you and said, "We have kidnapped a member of your family. If you refuse to jump, your relative will be brutally beaten and then killed." Have I made you jump? If you believed my story and you believed that by jumping you could save your family member, I may have made you willing to jump or even anxious to jump. But I have not caused you to jump. Even if you jumped and you found out on the way to the bottom that I had lied about the whole thing, I still did not make you jump. I simply tricked you into jumping. On the other hand, if I walked up behind you and pushed you, then I made you do something contrary to what you wanted to do, felt like doing, or even thought about doing.

Now think about the last time you felt tempted to sin. Did you suddenly discover that you were sinning or had sinned? Were you in the process before you ever thought about it? Or did it begin with a thought, then a feeling, then maybe a little struggle, then the actual sin?

Just as no one held Eve and forced her to bite the fruit, no one holds you down and forces you to sin. Satan cannot make you do anything, but he will do all he can to deceive you into dishonoring God.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 19:7 — "The marriage of the Lamb has come."

The relationship between Christ the Bridegroom and His bride, the church, is reflected in the Jewish wedding ceremony that occurs in three general phases. First, the marriage contract is approved by both parties, just as our relationship with Christ begins with our agreement with Him at salvation. Second, the groom leaves to prepare a house for his bride-to-be and returns at an unspecified time to take her to their new home. This is fulfilled at the Rapture (Matt. 25:1–13; John 14:2). The final step is the marriage supper—the actual celebration of the wedding—which is described in Revelation 19:7–9 and 21:9–27.

> 19:9 — "Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb."

If the church is the bride, then who is invited to the wedding feast? These are most likely the Old Testament saints who were justified by their faith (Rom. 4), the tribulation saints, and the angelic host of heaven.

The Coming of Christ

► 11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and He who sat on it is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and wages war.

12 His eyes are a flame of fire, and on His head are many diadems; and He has a name written on Him which no one knows except Himself.

► 13 He is clothed with a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of God.

14 And the armies which are in heaven. clothed in fine linen, white and clean, were following Him on white horses.

15 From His mouth comes a sharp sword, so that with it He may strike down the nations, and He will rule them with a rod of iron; and He treads the wine press of the fierce wrath of God, the Almighty.

► 16 And on His robe and on His thigh He has a name written, "KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS."

17 Then I saw an angel standing in the sun, and he cried out with a loud voice, saying to all the birds which fly in midheaven, "Come, assemble for the great supper of God.

18 so that you may eat the flesh of kings and the flesh of acommanders and the flesh of mighty men and the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them and the flesh of all men, both free men and slaves, and small and great.'

19 And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies assembled to make war against Him who sat on the horse and against His army.

Doom of the Beast and False Prophet

20 And the beast was seized, and with him \triangleleft the false prophet who performed the signs in his presence, by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image; these two were thrown alive into the lake of fire which burns with brimstone.

21 And the rest were killed with the sword which came from the mouth of Him who sat on the horse, and all the birds were filled with their flesh.

Satan Bound

THEN I saw an angel coming down ${f ZU}$ from heaven, holding the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand.

And he laid hold of the dragon, the ser- \triangleleft pent of old, who is the devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years; ngels have such majesty and power that human be- \mathcal{H} ings sometimes feel tempted to worship them—even someone as mature and godly as John. But angels know their place. God alone deserves our worship!

> 19:11 — He . . . is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and wages war.

 γ hen Jesus returns, He is not coming back as the gentle Lamb. He will appear as the reigning King, our mighty Warrior, and as the righteous Judge of the living and the dead. Jesus returns with His forces to accomplish all the remaining prophecies and covenants of His Word-establishing His kingdom on earth and destroying evil. He is called Faithful and True because not one of His promises will go unfulfilled.

> 19:13 — His name is called The Word of God.

esus is God (John 1:1, 2; 10:30). He is also the Word the Godhead's spoken, incarnate expression of Himself (John 1:18; Heb. 1:2, 3). When the Lord announced that He would save us (Matt. 1:21, 23), His "Word became flesh, and dwelt among us" (John 1:14).

> 19:16 — On His robe and on His thigh He has a name written, "KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS."

Itimately, the war on the plain of Megiddo (Armageddon) is the culmination of the battles God has fought throughout the ages in every heart and against everyone who has served their own prideful will—replacing Him on the throne of their life with something or someone else (Ex. 20:2-5; Josh. 24:14, 15; 1 Kin. 18:21; Ps. 14:1, 2; Is. 14:13, 14; Matt. 6:24; Rom. 1:21). The Lord Jesus veiled His royal majesty during His years of earthly ministry (Phil. 2:5–11), but He will reveal His glory when He returns so there will be absolutely no doubt that He is the absolute ruler of all that exists (Ps. 103:19).

> 19:20 — These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire which burns with brimstone.

fter His complete victory, the Lord sends the Antichrist and the false prophet to eternal condemnation in the lake of fire, which is hell. Some imagine that those in hell are eventually annihilated, but that is not true. Scripture is clear: "They will be tormented day and night forever and ever" (Rev. 20:10).

And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony of Jesus and because of the word of God, and those who had not worshiped the beast or his image, and had not received the mark on their forehead and on their hand; and they came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years.

Satan Freed, Doomed

- 7 When the thousand years are completed, Satan will be released from his prison,
- 8 and will come out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together for the war; the number of them is like the sand of the seashore.

- 10 And the devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are also; and they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

Judgment at the Throne of God

- 11 Then I saw a great white throne and Him who sat upon it, from whose presence earth and heaven fled away, and no place was found for them.
- 12 And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the book of life; and the dead were judged from the things which were written in the books, according to their deeds.
- 13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it, and death and Hades gave up the dead which were in them; and they were judged, every one of them according to their deeds

- 15 And if anyone's name was not found ⋖ written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

LIFE LESSONS

> 20:3 — After these things he must be released for a short time.

Thy must Satan be released after his long imprisonment? Why doesn't God judge him immediately? Through the Enemy's rebellion, the hearts of those who only pretend to love the Lord are revealed (Rev. 20:7–9). And then the devil meets his final judgment.

> 20:5 — The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were completed. This is the first resurrection.

This first resurrection is of tribulation saints who will rule with Christ during His millennial reign. The rest of the dead—who will be resurrected at the end of the thousand years—are all unbelievers from the beginning of time.

> 20:10 — The devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire.

Gesus said, "I will build My church; and the gates of Hades will not overpower it" (Matt. 16:18). Here we see Christ's final victory over the Enemy. Satan is a defeated foe. Although we still fight against him and he will continue trying to undermine the truth of the gospel, we know for certain that he will ultimately lose the battle.

> 20:11 — Then I saw a great white throne and Him who sat upon it.

Some believe that at the Great White Throne Judgment, they will be able to air their complaints and excuses to God. However, that is not the case. Thankfully, we who believe in Jesus Christ as our Savior have our names written in the Lamb's Book of Life and have absolutely no reason to fear. We are assured that we will enjoy heaven with Him forever.

> 20:12 — I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and books were opened . . . and the dead were judged . . . according to their deeds.

It the Great White Throne everyone is judged according to whether or not they've accepted Christ as their Savior and their name is written in the Lamb's Book of Life. Those who have been redeemed are welcomed into heaven. Those who refuse to believe in Christ must bear the penalty of their sin and are cast into the lake of fire (John 3:18; Rom. 6:23). There is no board of appeals in heaven. Once we appear before Christ, our character and eternal destination are fixed.

> 20:15 — If anyone's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of Il judgment has been committed to Jesus Christ (John 5:22) because He knows us perfectly and is just, holy, honest, and trustworthy. Those who place their faith in Him will never be disappointed. Rather, their names are permanently and irrevocably written in the Lamb's Book of Life (Rev. 21:27). Those who depend on their own efforts to reach heaven will instead find themselves in the lake of fire—eternally separated from God.

The New Heaven and Earth

- ≥ 21 THEN I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth passed away, and there is no longer any sea.
 - 2 And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, made ready as a bride adorned for her husband.
- ➢ 3 And I heard a loud voice from the throne, saying, "Behold, the tabernacle of God is among men, and He will dwell among them, and they shall be His people, and God Himself will be among them^a,
- +4 and He will wipe away every tear from
- their eyes; and there will no longer be any death; there will no longer be any mourning, or crying, or pain; the first things have passed away."
 - 5 And He who sits on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new." And He *said, "Write, for these words are faithful and true."
 - 6 Then He said to me, "It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give to the one who thirsts from the spring of the water of life without cost.
- > 7 "He who overcomes will inherit these things, and I will be his God and he will be My son.
 - 8 "But for the cowardly and unbelieving and abominable and murderers and immoral persons and sorcerers and idolaters and all liars, their part will be in the lake that burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death."
 - 9 Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and spoke with me, saying, "Come here, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb."

The New Jerusalem

> 21:1 — I saw a new heaven and a new earth.

Heaven and earth are not annihilated, they are completely and perfectly cleansed—renewed like they were in the Garden of Eden before the fall of Adam and Eye (Rev. 21:5).

> 21:3 — "The tabernacle of God is among men, and He will dwell among them, and they shall be His people."

The best part of the new Jerusalem will not be the streets of gold, the pearly gates, or even the happy reunions we will enjoy with believing loved ones. The best thing about heaven is the loving presence of God Himself.

> 21:4 — "He will wipe away every tear from their eyes; and there will no longer be any death; there will no longer be any mourning, or crying, or pain; the first things have passed away."

Our eternal home is like nothing we've ever experienced before because it is a place that is free from sin, death, fear, guilt, and sorrow. Never again will we experience the consequences of our fallen nature—separation from our loved ones, loss, worry, sickness, crime, pain, or injustice. Rather, we will be absolutely free to become all God created us to be—to His praise and glory. And best of all, we will enjoy full, wonderful fellowship with our Lord and Savior forever.

s the adopted children of God (Eph. 1:5), we are "heirs also, heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ"; and we overcome when we "suffer with Him so that we may also be glorified with Him" (Rom. 8:17).

22 I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb are its temple.

➤ 23 And the city has no need of the sun or of the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God has illumined it, and its lamp is the Lamb.

24 The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. 25 In the daytime (for there will be no night there) its gates will never be closed;

26 and they will bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it;

27 and nothing unclean, and no one who practices abomination and lying, shall ever come into it, but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's book of life.

The River and the Tree of Life

22 THEN he showed me a river of the water of life, clear as crystal, coming from the throne of God and of athe Lamb,

- 2 in the middle of its street. On either side of the river was the tree of life, bearing twelve bkinds of fruit, yielding its fruit every month; and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.
- 3 There will no longer be any curse; and the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and His bond-servants will serve Him;
 - 4 they will see His face, and His name will be on their foreheads.
 - 5 And there will no longer be any night; and they will not have need of the light of a lamp nor the light of the sun, because the Lord God will illumine them; and they will reign forever and ever.
 - 6 And he said to me, "These words are faithful and true"; and the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent His angel to show to His bond-servants the things which must soon take place.

7 "And behold, I am coming quickly. Blessed is he who heeds the words of the prophecy of this book."

8 I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed me these things.

9 But he *said to me, "Do not do that. I am a fellow servant of yours and of your brethren the prophets and of those who heed the words of this book. Worship God."

The Final Message

10 And he *said to me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near.

11 "Let the one who does wrong, still do wrong; and the one who is filthy, still be filthy; and let the one who is righteous, still practice righteousness; and the one who is holy, still keep himself holy."

12 "Behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to render to every man according to what he has done.

13 "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end."

14 Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter by the gates into the city.
15 Outside are the dogs and the sorcerers and the immoral persons and the murderers and the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices lying.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 21:23 — The city has no need of the sun or of the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God has illumined it, and its lamp is the Lamb.

Genesis 1:3 tells us there was light in this world long before the sun, moon, and stars existed (Gen. 1:16). Likewise, 1 John 1:5 tells us, "God is Light, and in Him there is no darkness at all." Believers will again enjoy the Lord's pure, uninterrupted light in the Holy City, the New Jerusalem, because He will be with us always, and we will never be separated from Him again.

> 22:3 — His bond-servants will serve Him.

That will believers do in heaven? Scripture indicates that we will serve the Lord. But what does this mean? God has given each of us gifts and talents to use, and we will most likely employ them in some way that will be exceedingly joyful for us. One thing is certain: whatever we do is going to be far better than all we can imagine, to the praise and glory of His name (1 Cor. 2:9; Eph. 3:20).

> 22:12 — "Behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to render to every man according to what he has done."

John reminds us that Jesus may return at any moment and repeats that those who hear the words of Revelation and who commit themselves to Spirit-empowered, godly obedience will be greatly blessed (Rev. 1:3). Therefore, an eager anticipation of Christ's return should keep us living productively. We should be motivated and joyful, knowing that Jesus has prepared great rewards and a wonderful home for us in heaven. One day soon we will see Him face-to-face.

> 22:14 — Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter by the gates into the city.

If the way through the Bible, from Genesis to Revelation, we learn that obedience to God's commands brings great blessing. We have washed our robes in the blood of the Lamb, and because we have submitted ourselves to the Lord in this, we are invited to eat of the tree of life—the very tree Adam and Eve were prevented from partaking of after they sinned (Gen 3:22–24).

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT HOW GOD JUDGES AND REWARDS OUR WORK

hough we consider the apostle Paul the greatest missionary in history, he received more lashes and stones than honorary banquets, and he spent more time in jail than in mansions. How did he continue under such duress? He looked ahead to God's reward: "In the future there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day" (2 Tim. 4:8).

Why would Moses leave the luxury of Pharaoh's palace for the harshness of the desert? Because he considered the "reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt; for he was looking to the reward" (Heb. 11:26). Serving God yielded Moses a vast storehouse of heavenly reward, though it meant a lifetime of struggle.

Every act, word, and thought will be credited by Christ: "Each will receive his own reward according to his own labor" (1 Cor. 3:8). If we seek to glorify God with a diligent and humble spirit, our laurels will multiply. If we seek merely to please others and reap their praise, then our rewards will shrink.

Rewards are not limited to the hereafter. Whenever we follow the principles of Scripture, we enjoy the blessings of obedience: "The one who fears the commandment will be rewarded" (Prov. 13:13).

When Peter reminded Jesus that he had left everything behind to follow the Messiah, Christ responded, "There is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, who will not receive many times as much at this time and in the age to come, eternal life" (Luke 18:29, 30).

When one knows and serves God, every product of his or her life will be rewarded, either in this life or in heaven. God watches over all our ways, and He has promised to perfectly reward us. All those who serve "the Lord Christ" (Col. 3:24) will be rewarded on the day of judgment of believers. The Christian who seeks to please God lays up treasures that can never be devalued or depleted.

> 22:17 — The Spirit and the bride say, "Come." And let the one who hears say, "Come." And let the one who is thirsty come.

Gesus said, "Whoever drinks of the water that I will give him shall never thirst; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life" (John 4:14). He is always inviting people to come and partake of the great gift of eternal life He has given. And as the bride of Christ—the church—we should as well.

> 22:20 — "Yes, I am coming quickly." Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

Then will Jesus return? No one can say. Yet Christ's return should not be merely a far-off hope for you. Rather, it should be a daily reminder that God is always active in your life. He leaves you on earth after you are saved to grow spiritually in oneness with Him and to lead others to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. Is that what you've been busy doing? Have you been seeking and serving Him, remembering the awesome reward that awaits you in heaven? When you meet Jesus, you will know and understand that the greatest riches of this fallen world cannot be compared to the glory of being in His presence. Everything pales in comparison to this.

LIFE PRINCIPLE 30

AN EAGER ANTICIPATION OF THE LORD'S RETURN KEEPS US LIVING PRODUCTIVELY.

REV. 22:12

hroughout Scripture we find three admonitions given to us about the Lord's return:

Watch faithfully.

Work diligently.

Wait peacefully.

1. We are to watch. The Lord said repeatedly that we are to watch for His coming because we do not know the day or hour of His return (Matt. 24:42; 25:13). In Luke 21:36, Jesus gave this specific instruction: "Keep on the alert at all times, praying that you may have strength to escape all these things that are about to take place, and to stand before the Son of Man."

We are to do more than pray as we watch. We are to stand fast in the faith with courage and strength (1 Cor. 16:13). We are to watch soberly, arming ourselves with faith, love, and salvation (1 Thess. 5:8). As we watch, we are to remain especially aware of false prophets. We are to discern the spirits and to reject soundly all who do not confess that Jesus Christ is God in the flesh (2 Peter 2:1; 1 John 4:1–2).

Jesus spoke to John in a vision and gave this great promise to those who remain watchful: "Behold, I am coming like a thief. Blessed is the one who stays awake" (Rev. 16:15).

2. We are to work. Why does Jesus leave us here on earth after He saves us? Why aren't we born again, then immediately taken into the Lord's presence? Because we still have work to do!

First, God calls us to win souls. We are to be the Lord's witnesses—telling of the love of God and the atoning death of Jesus Christ. We are to testify about what He has done in our own lives, both with our words and by our example. So long as there remains a soul on earth who hasn't heard the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, we have work to do!

Second, we are to grow spiritually, developing an ever-increasing intimacy with the Lord. None of us fully lives up to our spiritual potential. We all have room to grow. In those areas where we discover we are unlike Christ, we must work with the Spirit to become conformed to His likeness. Our minds must be renewed (Rom. 12:1). Our inner hurts and emotions must be healed. We must grow in spiritual discernment and in the wisdom of God. Our faith must be strengthened and used so that our prayers and our actions more effectively build up the Lord's kingdom.

3. We are to wait. Waiting isn't easy. Impatience often leads to frustration. Waiting can also cause a buildup of fear. The longer something anticipated doesn't happen, the greater our concern grows with what will happen, which can degenerate into worry over what might happen. And fear is only a step away.

The angels spoke peace to the earth at Jesus' first coming (Luke 2:14). More than four hundred times in Scripture, the Lord says that we are not to fear, but to enjoy peace. The prophet Isaiah referred to Jesus as the Prince of Peace (Is. 9:6). Throughout His ministry, the Lord Jesus spoke peace. To the woman with an issue of blood He said, "Go in peace" (Mark 5:34); to a stormy sea He said, "Hush, be still" (4:39); and to His disciples He said, "My peace I give you" (John 14:27). The Lord calls us to peace as we await His return.

Apart from Jesus, there is no peace—not within a human heart and not among human beings or nations. With Jesus, we can experience peace that surpasses our rational capacity and settles deep within (Phil. 4:7). We are to seek and find this peace as we await the Lord's return.

When the Lord comes, will He find you among those who love Him and call Him Savior and Lord?

When the Lord comes, will He find you doing what He has commanded you to do?

When the Lord comes, will He find you eager to see Him?

When the Lord comes, will He find you ready for His appearing?

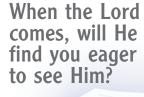

When the Lord calls with a shout from heaven, will you instantly rise to be with Him?

When the Lord appears in the clouds, will your heart rejoice with exceedingly great joy?

You have it within your grasp to positively answer these questions. How will you choose to respond to the Lord's challenges upon your life?

his concordance helps you locate occurrences of significant words, phrases and proper names of the Bible. Common words are followed by a simple definition or synonym. Underneath the key word are Scripture citations with the key word designated by an italic letter, followed by a Scripture reference for that occurrence. Occurrences of related forms of a key word, such as plurals and verb tenses, are usually grouped with the key word and are designated by an identifying suffix attached to the italic letter. Phrases are arranged in alphabetical order by the first word of the phrase, with the phrase in the Scripture citation designated by the italic first letter of the first word of the phrase.

With the proper names are given descriptive phrases and the important locations in Scripture. If a name applies to more than one person, place or group, the different identities are distinguished by a dash (——).
