Idolatrous Elders Condemned

14 THEN some elders of Israel came to me and sat down before me.

When we stray from God's truth, we usually end up committing a series of terrible transgressions: blasphemy, bribery, perjury, and worse. One sin opens the way for many more—for lusts that do not satisfy and pleasures that do not last. Yet our obedience to Him always brings blessing.

The City Will Not Be Spared

- 12 Then the word of the LORD came to me saying,

- 21 For thus says the Lord God, "How much more when I send My four severe judgments against Jerusalem: sword, famine, wild beasts and plague to cut off man and beast from it!
- 22 "Yet, behold, survivors will be left in it who will be brought out, both sons and daughters. Behold, they are going to come forth to you and you will see their conduct and actions; then you will be comforted for the calamity which I have brought against Jerusalem for everything which I have brought upon it.

> 16:14 — "Then your fame went forth among the nations on account of your beauty, for it was perfect because of My splendor which I bestowed on you."

Judah forgot that any good thing she had, she had received from God. He redeemed her when she was like an unwanted child among the nations (Ezek. 16:6), and He molded her with His own wisdom, glory, and power. Yet when she became strong and beautiful, she also became prideful and turned away from Him. The same is true with us. When we wander from the Lord, we face His discipline. That is why we must remember any success, talent, ability, insight, or strength comes from Him, and we should use it all for His glory. Otherwise, we may make the same mistake Judah did.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

How can I confront a believer who has fallen spiritually?

EZEK. 16:2

God gave Ezekiel a tremendous task: he was to confront the people about their sin. "Son of man," He told the prophet, "make known to Jerusalem her abominations" (Ezek. 16:2; also 20:4; 22:2; 23:36). This was a difficult assignment. Even so, at times He will likewise call us to confront someone who is sinning unrepentantly. How can one be an effective and godly minister in such circumstances?

First, we must watch the spirit in which we address the fallen believer. We must be firm but gentle (Gal. 6:1). Hurting people can be fragile; they don't need our condemnation. We should not go to them out of anger or to vent our hurt; rather, we must go to them with kindness, sensitive to their pain, and with the desire to restore them to fellowship.

Second, we are to confront the person in the spirit of humility: "If anyone thinks he is something when he is nothing, he deceives himself" (Gal. 6:3). We can't go with a haughty attitude, as if we could never commit such sin. That kind of mindset deeply offends God (Matt. 7:1–5; 1 John 1:10). If we go to hurting people with the attitude that we are above them, they certainly won't respond to our efforts. In fact, we only build a wall that will obstruct the restoration process, which is the goal of our confrontation. Rather, we must remember that we are all vulnerable to temptation and that it is only by His grace that we are not enslaved by the same iniquity. We must also realize that we do not convict anyone of sin—the Holy Spirit does that (John 16:8). We are there simply to urge the person to do whatever God says and receive His grace.

Third, we are to go to the person in love, doing and saying whatever God requires of us so that he or she will repent. We should not automatically interpret their inability to express grief for their actions as a lack of remorse or repentance. They may suffer greatly and fear releasing their tears. Still, we must remain firm in our efforts to encourage them to obey God and to agree with Him by confessing their sin to Him. This must all be done in love, because if we do not go with the right spirit—honoring Him and caring for them—we may as well not go at all.

Those who walk with the Father are to gently, humbly, and lovingly confront the straying person in the hope that they will experience "the sorrow that is according to the will of God," which "produces a repentance without regret, leading to salvation" (2 Cor. 7:10). Confrontation is never easy, but it is often a prerequisite to restoration, the real goal.

those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your lewd conduct.

- 28 "Moreover, you played the harlot with the Assyrians because you were not satisfied; you played the harlot with them and still were not satisfied.
- 29 "You also multiplied your harlotry with the land of merchants, Chaldea, yet even with this you were not satisfied.""
- 30 "How languishing is your heart," declares the Lord God, "while you do all these things, the actions of a bold-faced harlot.
- 31 "When you built your shrine at the beginning of every street and made your high place in every square, in disdaining money, you were not like a harlot.
- 32 "You adulteress wife, who takes strangers instead of her husband!
- 33 "Men give gifts to all harlots, but you give your gifts to all your lovers to bribe them to come to you from every direction for your harlotries.
- 34 "Thus you are different from those women in your harlotries, in that no one plays the harlot as you do, because you give money and no money is given you; thus you are different."
- 35 Therefore, O harlot, hear the word of the Lord.
- 36 Thus says the Lord God, "Because your lewdness was poured out and your nakedness uncovered through your harlotries with your lovers and with all your detestable idols, and because of the blood of your sons which you gave to idols,
- 37 therefore, behold, I will gather all your lovers with whom you took pleasure, even all those whom you loved and all those whom you hated. So I will gather them against you from every direction and expose your nakedness to them that they may see all your nakedness.

38 "Thus I will judge you like women who commit adultery or shed blood are judged; and I will bring on you the blood of wrath and jealousy.

39 "I will also give you into the hands of your lovers, and they will tear down your shrines, demolish your high places, strip you of your clothing, take away your jewels, and will leave you naked and bare.

40 "They will incite a crowd against you and they will stone you and cut you to pieces with their swords.

41 "They will burn your houses with fire and execute judgments on you in the sight of many women. Then I will stop you from playing the harlot, and you will also no longer pay your lovers.

42 "So I will calm My fury against you and My jealousy will depart from you, and I will be pacified and angry no more.

43 "Because you have not remembered the days of your youth but have enraged Me by all these things, behold, I in turn will bring your conduct down on your own head," declares the Lord God, "so that you will not commit this lewdness on top of all your other abominations.

44 "Behold, everyone who quotes proverbs will quote this proverb concerning you, saying, 'Like mother, like daughter.'

45 "You are the daughter of your mother, who loathed her husband and children. You are also the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and children. Your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite.

46 "Now your older sister is Samaria, who lives north of you with her daughters; and your younger sister, who lives south of you, is Sodom with her daughters.

47 "Yet you have not merely walked in their ways or done according to their abominations; but, as if that were too little, you acted more corruptly in all your conduct than they.

48 "As I live," declares the Lord God, "Sodom, your sister and her daughters have not done as you and your daughters have done.

49 "Behold, this was the guilt of your sister Sodom: she and her daughters had arrogance, abundant food and careless ease, but she did not help the poor and needy.

50 "Thus they were haughty and committed abominations before Me. Therefore I removed them when I saw it.

51 "Furthermore, Samaria did not commit half of your sins, for you have multiplied your abominations more than they. Thus you have made your sisters appear righteous by all your abominations which you have committed.

52 "Also bear your disgrace in that you have made judgment favorable for your sisters. Because of your sins in which you acted more abominably than they, they are more in the right than you. Yes, be also ashamed and bear your disgrace, in that you made your sisters appear righteous.

53 "Nevertheless, I will restore their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, and along with them your own captivity, 54 in order that you may bear your humiliation and feel ashamed for all that you have done when you become a consolation to them.

55 "Your sisters, Sodom with her daughters and Samaria with her daughters, will return to their former state, and you with your daughters will also return to your former state.

56 "As the name of your sister Sodom was not heard from your lips in your day of pride, 57 before your wickedness was uncovered, so now you have become the reproach of the daughters of Edom and of all who are around her, of the daughters of the Philistines—those surrounding you who despise you.

58 "You have borne the penalty of your lewdness and abominations," the LORD declares.

59 For thus says the Lord God, "I will also do with you as you have done, you who have despised the oath by breaking the covenant.

The Covenant Remembered

60 "Nevertheless, I will remember My covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you.

61 "Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed when you receive your sisters, both your older and your younger; and I will give them to you as daughters, but not because of your covenant.

62 "Thus I will establish My covenant with you, and you shall know that I am the Lord, 63 so that you may remember and be ashamed and never open your mouth anymore because of your humiliation, when I have forgiven you for all that you have done," the Lord God declares.

Parable of Two Eagles and a Vine

17NOW the word of the Lord came to me saying,

2 "Son of man, propound a riddle and speak a parable to the house of Israel,

3 saying, 'Thus says the Lord God, 'A great eagle with great wings, long pinions and a full plumage of many colors came to Lebanon and took away the top of the cedar.

4 "He plucked off the topmost of its young twigs and brought it to a land of merchants; he set it in a city of traders.

- 5 "He also took some of the seed of the land and planted it in fertile soil. He placed it beside abundant waters; he set it like a willow.
- 6 "Then it sprouted and became a low, spreading vine with its branches turned toward him, but its roots remained under it. So it became a vine and yielded shoots and sent out branches.
- 7 "But there was another great eagle with great wings and much plumage; and behold, this vine bent its roots toward him and sent out its branches toward him from the beds where it was planted, that he might water it. 8 "It was planted in good soil beside abundant waters, that it might yield branches and bear fruit and become a splendid vine."

9 "Say, 'Thus says the Lord God, "Will it thrive? Will he not pull up its roots and cut off its fruit, so that it withers—so that all its sprouting leaves wither? And neither by great strength nor by many people can it be raised from its roots again.

10 "Behold, though it is planted, will it thrive? Will it not completely wither as soon as the east wind strikes it—wither on the beds where it grew?""

Zedekiah's Rebellion

- 11 Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
- 12 "Say now to the rebellious house, 'Do you not know what these things mean?' Say, 'Behold, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, took its king and princes and brought them to him in Babylon.
- 13 'He took one of the royal family and made a covenant with him, putting him under oath. He also took away the mighty of the land,
- 14 that the kingdom might be in subjection, not exalting itself, but keeping his covenant that it might continue.
- 15 'But he rebelled against him by sending his envoys to Egypt that they might give him horses and many troops. Will he succeed? Will he who does such things escape? Can he indeed break the covenant and escape?
- 16 'As I live,' declares the Lord God, 'Surely in the country of the king who put him on the throne, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke, in Babylon he shall die.
- 17 'Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company will not help him in the war, when they cast up ramps and build siege walls to cut off many lives.

18 'Now he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, and behold, he pledged his allegiance, yet did all these things; he shall not escape.'"

19 Therefore, thus says the Lord God, "As I live, surely My oath which he despised and My covenant which he broke, I will inflict on his head.

20 "I will spread My net over him, and he will be caught in My snare. Then I will bring him to Babylon and enter into judgment with him there regarding the unfaithful act which he has committed against Me.

21 "All the choice men in all his troops will fall by the sword, and the survivors will be scattered to every wind; and you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken."

22 Thus says the Lord God, "I will also take a sprig from the lofty top of the cedar and set it out; I will pluck from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one and I will plant it on a high and lofty mountain.

23 "On the high mountain of Israel I will plant it, that it may bring forth boughs and bear fruit and become a stately cedar. And birds of every kind will nest under it; they will nest in the shade of its branches.

24 "All the trees of the field will know that I \lt am the LORD; I bring down the high tree, exalt the low tree, dry up the green tree and make the dry tree flourish. I am the LORD; I have spoken, and I will perform it."

God Deals Justly with Individuals

18 THEN the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 "What do you mean by using this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying,

'The fathers eat the sour grapes.

But the children's teeth are set on edge? 3 "As I live," declares the Lord God, "you are surely not going to use this proverb in Israel anymore.

- 4 "Behold, all souls are Mine; the soul of the ≺ father as well as the soul of the son is Mine. The soul who sins will die.
- 5 "But if a man is righteous and practices justice and righteousness,

This is the result of the Fall of Adam and Even in the Garden of Eden (Gen. 3; Rom. 5;12). All of us have been condemned to death and eternal separation from God because of our transgressions (Rom. 3:23; 6:23). Yet the Lord tells us that if we choose His provision of forgiveness through faith in Christ, instead of death, we will have eternal life (Matt. 10:39).

Planted by the waters;

It was fruitful and full of branches Because of abundant waters.

11 'And it had strong branches fit for scepters of rulers,

And its height was raised above the clouds

So that it was seen in its height with the mass of its branches.

- 12 'But it was plucked up in fury; It was cast down to the ground; And the east wind dried up its fruit. Its strong branch was torn off So that it withered; The fire consumed it.

This is a lamentation, and has become a lamentation.

God's Dealings with Israel Rehearsed

 20^{NOW} in the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth of the month, certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and sat before me.

- 2 And the word of the LORD came to me saying,
- 3 "Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God, "Do you come to inquire of Me? As I live," declares the Lord God, "I will not be inquired of by you."
- 4 "Will you judge them, will you judge them, son of man? Make them know the abominations of their fathers;
- 5 and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God, "On the day when I chose Israel and swore to the descendants of the house of Jacob and made Myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I swore to them, saying, I am the Lord your God.
- 6 on that day I swore to them, to bring them out from the land of Egypt into a land that I had selected for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands.
- 7 "I said to them, 'Cast away, each of you, the detestable things of his eyes, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am the LORD your God.'
- 8 "But they rebelled against Me and were not willing to listen to Me; they did not cast away the detestable things of their eyes, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt.

Then I resolved to pour out My wrath on them, to accomplish My anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

9 "But I acted for the sake of My name, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations among whom they lived, in whose Omans 6:23 tells us, "The wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." God's desire is that we repent and receive the free gift of eternal life that He offers to us (2 Pet. 3:9). He has already paid the penalty of our sin through the sacrificial, substitutionary, all-sufficient death of His Son; therefore, we must simply accept His gift and come to Him on His terms.

sight I made Myself known to them by bringing them out of the land of Egypt.

10 "So I took them out of the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness.

11 "I gave them My statutes and informed them of My ordinances, by which, if a man observes them, he will live.

12 "Also I gave them My sabbaths to be a sign between Me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD who sanctifies them.

13 "But the house of Israel rebelled against Me in the wilderness. They did not walk in My statutes and they rejected My ordinances, by which, if a man observes them, he will live; and My sabbaths they greatly profaned. Then I resolved to pour out My wrath on them in the wilderness, to annihilate them.

➤ 14 "But I acted for the sake of My name, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, before whose sight I had brought them out.

15 "Also I swore to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands,

16 because they rejected My ordinances, and as for My statutes, they did not walk in them; they even profaned My sabbaths, for their heart continually went after their idels

17 "Yet My eye spared them rather than destroying them, and I did not cause their annihilation in the wilderness.

18 "I said to their children in the wilderness, 'Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers or keep their ordinances or defile yourselves with their idols.

19 'I am the LORD your God; walk in My statutes and keep My ordinances and observe them.

20 'Sanctify My sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD your God.'

21 "But the children rebelled against Me; they did not walk in My statutes, nor were they careful to observe My ordinances, by which, if a man observes them, he will live; they profaned My sabbaths. So I resolved to pour out My wrath on them, to accomplish My anger against them in the wilderness.

22 "But I withdrew My hand and acted for the sake of My name, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out.

23 "Also I swore to them in the wilderness that I would scatter them among the nations and disperse them among the lands, 24 because they had not observed My ordinances, but had rejected My statutes and had profaned My sabbaths, and their eyes were on the idols of their fathers.

25 "I also gave them statutes that were not ≼ good and ordinances by which they could not live:

and I pronounced them unclean because of their gifts, in that they caused all their first-born to pass through the fire so that I might make them desolate, in order that they might know that I am the LORD."

27 "Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God, "Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed Me by acting treacherously against Me.

28 "When I had brought them into the land which I swore to give to them, then they saw every high hill and every leafy tree, and they offered there their sacrifices and there they presented the provocation of their offering. There also they made their soothing aroma and there they poured out their drink offerings.

29 "Then I said to them, 'What is the high place to which you go?' So its name is called ^aBamah to this day."

30 "Therefore, say to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord God, "Will you defile yourselves after the manner of your fathers and play the harlot after their detestable things?

31 "When you offer your gifts, when you cause your sons to pass through the fire, you are defiling yourselves with all your idols to this day. And shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live," declares the Lord Gop, "I will not be inquired of by you.

32 "What comes into your mind will not come about, when you say: 'We will be like the nations, like the tribes of the lands, serving wood and stone.'

The Instrument of God's Judgment

- 18 The word of the Lord came to me saying, 19 "As for you, son of man, make two ways for the sword of the king of Babylon to come; both of them will go out of one land. And make a signpost; make it at the head of the way to the city.

- 22 "Into his right hand came the divination, 'Jerusalem,' to set battering rams, to open the mouth for slaughter, to lift up the voice with a battle cry, to set battering rams against the gates, to cast up ramps, to build a siege wall. 23 "And it will be to them like a false divination in their eyes; they have sworn solemn oaths. But he brings iniquity to remembrance, that they may be seized.
- 24 "Therefore, thus says the Lord God, 'Because you have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your deeds your sins appear—because you have come to remembrance, you will be seized with the hand.

26 thus says the Lord God, 'Remove the turban and take off the crown; this will no longer be the same. Exalt that which is low and abase that which is high.

27 'A ruin, a ruin, a ruin, I will make it. This ≺ also will be no more until He comes whose right it is, and I will give it to Him.'

28 "And you, son of man, prophesy and say, 'Thus says the Lord God concerning the sons of Ammon and concerning their reproach,' and say: 'A sword, a sword is drawn, polished for the slaughter, to cause it to consume, that it may be like lightning—

30 'Return it to its sheath. In the place where you were created, in the land of your origin, I will judge you.

31 'I will pour out My indignation on you; I will blow on you with the fire of My wrath, and I will give you into the hand of brutal men, skilled in destruction.

32 'You will be fuel for the fire; your blood will be in the midst of the land. You will not be remembered, for I, the LORD, have spoken.'"

The Sins of Israel

 22^{THEN} the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

- 2 "And you, son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? Then cause her to know all her abominations.

God calls us, His people, to "stand in the gap" and call those around us to repentance and new life in Christ. Who do you know that needs to hear the Good News? Whose heart needs your prayers and faithful witness?

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S OUESTIONS

How can I become a godly influence on others?

The United States Marine Corps is always on the lookout for what it calls "a few good men." The eyes of the Lord are likewise scanning the earth in order to find godly men and women who will step forward and use their influence to exalt Him (2 Chr. 16:9). We see this in Ezekiel, where God says, "I searched for a man among them who would build up the wall and stand in the gap before Me for the land, so that I would not destroy it" (22:30).

A "gap" is a place where error or falsehood has crept in, allowing satanic confusion and inviting the judgment of God. Sometimes these gaps are so serious that they imperil entire nations. Such a time faced Israel following the Exodus, but the Word of God records this remarkable statement: "Therefore He said that He would destroy them, had not Moses His chosen one stood in the breach before Him, to turn away His wrath from destroying them" (Ps. 106:23).

Few of us will ever be called upon to save a nation. But we can build up walls of protection around our families and churches by insisting on speaking the whole counsel of God (Acts 20:26–31). We can resist the devil daily and refuse the sensuality and perversions of this age. In Moses' day, one man made all the difference. Why not be the one who makes a difference today?

A prostitute named Rahab made the right choice and became the ancestor of the Messiah (Josh. 6:17, 25; Matt. 1:5; Heb. 11:31; James 2:25). A widow named Ruth chose the God of Israel, became the great-grandmother of King David, and was also the forebearer of Christ (Ruth 1:16, 17; 4:13–22; Matt. 1:5). An infertile wife named Hannah poured out her soul to God and became the mother of Samuel (1 Sam. 1:9–20). A man called Abram responded to God, left his relatives behind, and became the father of all who believe (Gen. 12:1–5; Rom. 4; Gal. 3). A woman named Mary poured expensive perfume on Jesus' head and gained for herself an eternal monument in history (Mark 14:3–9).

Who are the influential people of this earth? They are the ones who leave all to follow the Lord—men and women who prove themselves to be "blameless and innocent, children of God above reproach in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom [they] appear as lights in the world" (Phil. 2:15). You may doubt that your light shines brightly by this world's standards—but since God calls you a luminary, keep on shining!

5 "Oholah played the harlot while she was Mine; and she lusted after her lovers, after the Assyrians, her neighbors, 7 "She bestowed her harlotries on them, all of whom were the choicest men of Assyria; and with all whom she lusted after, with all their idols she defiled herself.

8 "She did not forsake her harlotries from the time in Egypt; for in her youth men had lain with her, and they handled her virgin bosom and poured out their lust on her.

9 "Therefore, I gave her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, after whom she lusted.

10 "They uncovered her nakedness; they took her sons and her daughters, but they slew her with the sword. Thus she became a byword among women, and they executed judgments on her.

18 "She uncovered her harlotries and uncovered her nakedness; then I became disgusted with her, as I had become disgusted with her sister.

19 "Yet she multiplied her harlotries, remembering the days of her youth, when she played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

20 "She lusted after their paramours, whose flesh is like the flesh of donkeys and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

They will set themselves against you on every side with buckler and shield and helmet; and I will commit the judgment to them, and they will judge you according to their customs.

25 'I will set My jealousy against you, that they may deal with you in wrath. They will remove your nose and your ears; and your survivors will fall by the sword. They will take your sons and your daughters; and your survivors will be consumed by the fire.

26 'They will also strip you of your clothes and take away your beautiful jewels.

27 'Thus I will make your lewdness and your harlotry brought from the land of Egypt to cease from you, so that you will not lift up your eyes to them or remember Egypt anymore.'

28 "For thus says the Lord God, 'Behold, I will give you into the hand of those whom you hate, into the hand of those from whom you were alienated.

29 'They will deal with you in hatred, take all your property, and leave you naked and bare. And the nakedness of your harlotries will be uncovered, both your lewdness and your harlotries.

30 'These things will be done to you because you have played the harlot with the nations, because you have defiled yourself with their idols.

31 'You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore I will give her cup into your hand.'

32 "Thus says the Lord God,

'You will drink your sister's cup, Which is deep and wide. You will be laughed at and held in derision:

It contains much.

33 'You will be filled with drunkenness and

The cup of horror and desolation, The cup of your sister Samaria.

34 'You will drink it and drain it. Then you will gnaw its fragments And tear your breasts; for I have spoken,' declares the Lord God. 35 "Therefore, thus says the Lord God, 'Because you have forgotten Me and cast Me behind your back, bear now the punishment of your lewdness and your harlotries."

36 Moreover, the LORD said to me, "Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare to them their abominations.

37 "For they have committed adultery, and blood is on their hands. Thus they have committed adultery with their idols and even caused their sons, whom they bore to Me, to pass through the fire to them as food.

38 "Again, they have done this to Me: they have defiled My sanctuary on the same day and have profaned My sabbaths.

39 "For when they had slaughtered their children for their idols, they entered My sanctuary on the same day to profane it; and lo, thus they did within My house.

40 "Furthermore, they have even sent for men who come from afar, to whom a messenger was sent; and lo, they came—for whom you bathed, painted your eyes and decorated yourselves with ornaments;

41 and you sat on a splendid couch with a table arranged before it on which you had set

My incense and My oil.

42 "The sound of a carefree multitude was with her; and drunkards were brought from the wilderness with men of the common sort. And they put bracelets on the hands of the women and beautiful crowns on their heads.

43 "Then I said concerning her who was worn out by adulteries, 'Will they now commit adultery with her when she is thus?'

44 "But they went in to her as they would go in to a harlot. Thus they went in to Oholah and to Oholibah, the lewd women.

45 "But they, righteous men, will judge them with the judgment of adulteresses and with the judgment of women who shed blood, because they are adulteresses and blood is on their hands.

46 "For thus says the Lord God, 'Bring up a company against them and give them over to terror and plunder.

47 'The company will stone them with stones and cut them down with their swords; they will slay their sons and their daughters and burn their houses with fire.

48 'Thus I will make lewdness cease from the land, that all women may be admonished and not commit lewdness as you have

49 'Your lewdness will be requited upon you, and you will bear the penalty of worshiping your idols; thus you will know that I am the Lord God.'"

Parable of the Boiling Pot

24 AND the word of the LORD came to me in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth of the month, saying,

2 "Son of man, write the name of the day, this very day. The king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem this very day.

3 "Speak a parable to the rebellious house and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God,

"Put on the pot, put it on and also pour water in it;

4 Put in it the pieces,
Every good piece, the thigh and the shoulder;

Fill it with choice bones.

5 "Take the choicest of the flock, And also pile wood under the pot. Make it boil vigorously. Also seethe its bones in it."

6 'Therefore, thus says the Lord God, "Woe to the bloody city, To the pot in which there is rust And whose rust has not gone out of it! Take out of it piece after piece, Without making a choice.

7 "For her blood is in her midst;
She placed it on the bare rock;
She did not pour it on the ground
To cover it with dust.

8 "That it may cause wrath to come up to take vengeance,
I have put her blood on the bare rock,
That it may not be covered."

9 'Therefore, thus says the Lord God, "Woe to the bloody city!

I also will make the pile great. 10 "Heap on the wood, kindle the fire, Boil the flesh well And mix in the spices, And let the bones be burned.

11 "Then set it empty on its coals
So that it may be hot
And its bronze may glow
And its filthiness may be melted in it,
Its rust consumed.

12 "She has wearied Me with toil, Yet her great rust has not gone from her;

Let her rust be in the fire!

13 "In your filthiness is lewdness. Because I would have cleansed you, Yet you are not clean, You will not be cleansed from your filthiness again

Until I have spent My wrath on you.

14 "I, the LORD, have spoken; it is coming and I will act. I will not relent, and I will not pity and I will not be sorry; according to your ways and according to your deeds I will judge you," declares the Lord God.'"

Death of Ezekiel's Wife Is a Sign

15 And the word of the LORD came to me saying,

16 "Son of man, behold, I am about to take from you the desire of your eyes with a blow; but you shall not mourn and you shall not weep, and your tears shall not come.

17 "Groan silently; make no mourning for the dead. Bind on your turban and put your shoes on your feet, and do not cover your mustache and do not eat the bread of men."

18 So I spoke to the people in the morning, and in the evening my wife died. And in the morning I did as I was commanded.

19 The people said to me, "Will you not tell us what these things that you are doing mean for us?"

20 Then I said to them, "The word of the LORD came to me saying, 21 'Speak to the house of Israel, "Thus says the Lord God, 'Behold, I am about to profane My sanctuary, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes and the delight of your soul; and your sons and your daughters whom you have left behind will fall by the sword.

22 'You will do as I have done; you will not cover your mustache and you will not eat the bread of men.

> 24:16 — "Son of man, behold, I am about to take from you the desire of your eyes with a blow; but you shall not mourn and you shall not weep, and your tears shall not come."

God required some difficult things of His servants the prophets. He told Ezekiel not to weep or exhibit the customary signs of mourning when his beloved wife died in order to show the people of Israel that they would soon lose the desire of their eyes—the temple in Jerusalem and the loved ones they had left behind in the city (Ezek. 24:20, 21). This is exactly what happened. However, this terrible scene should remind us of the amazing gift of restoration that Christ has given us in salvation. We not only have a faithful Comforter (John 14:16, 17; 16:13, 14)—we also have eternal hope in Him.

- 23 'Your turbans will be on your heads and your shoes on your feet. You will not mourn and you will not weep, but you will rot away in your iniquities and you will groan to one another.
- ➤ 24 'Thus Ezekiel will be a sign to you; according to all that he has done you will do; when it comes, then you will know that I am the Lord God.'"
 - 25 'As for you, son of man, will it not be on the day when I take from them their stronghold, the joy of their pride, the desire of their eyes and their heart's delight, their sons and their daughters,
 - 26 that on that day he who escapes will come to you with information for your ears? 27 'On that day your mouth will be opened to him who escaped, and you will speak and be mute no longer. Thus you will be a sign to them, and they will know that I am the LORD."

Judgment on Gentile Nations—Ammon

- 25^{AND} the word of the Lord came to me saying,
- 2 "Son of man, set your face toward the sons of Ammon and prophesy against them,
- 3 and say to the sons of Ammon, 'Hear the word of the Lord God! Thus says the Lord God, "Because you said, 'Aha!' against My sanctuary when it was profaned, and against the land of Israel when it was made desolate, and against the house of Judah when they went into exile,
- 4 therefore, behold, I am going to give you to the sons of the east for a possession, and they will set their encampments among you and make their dwellings among you; they will eat your fruit and drink your milk.
- 5 "I will make Rabbah a pasture for camels and the sons of Ammon a resting place for flocks. Thus you will know that I am the LORD."
- 6 For thus says the Lord God, "Because you have clapped your hands and stamped your feet and rejoiced with all the scorn of your soul against the land of Israel,
- 7 therefore, behold, I have stretched out My hand against you and I will give you for spoil to the nations. And I will cut you off from the peoples and make you perish from the lands; I will destroy you. Thus you will know that I am the LORD."

Moab

8 'Thus says the Lord God, "Because Moab and Seir say, 'Behold, the house of Judah is like all the nations,'

- 9 therefore, behold, I am going to deprive the flank of Moab of its cities, of its cities which are on its frontiers, the glory of the land, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon and Kiriathaim,
- 10 and I will give it for a possession along with the sons of Ammon to the sons of the east, so that the sons of Ammon will not be remembered among the nations.
- 11 "Thus I will execute judgments on Moab, and they will know that I am the LORD."

Edom

- 12 'Thus says the Lord Gop, "Because Edom has acted against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has incurred grievous guilt, and avenged themselves upon them,"
- 13 therefore thus says the Lord God, "I will also stretch out My hand against Edom and cut off man and beast from it. And I will lay it waste; from Teman even to Dedan they will fall by the sword.
- 14 "I will lay My vengeance on Edom by the hand of My people Israel. Therefore, they will act in Edom according to My anger and according to My wrath; thus they will know My vengeance," declares the Lord God.

Philistia

- 15 'Thus says the Lord God, "Because the Philistines have acted in revenge and have taken vengeance with scorn of soul to destroy with everlasting enmity,"
- 16 therefore thus says the Lord God, "Behold, I will stretch out My hand against the Philistines, even cut off the Cherethites and destroy the remnant of the seacoast.
- 17 "I will execute great vengeance on them with wrathful rebukes; and they will know that I am the LORD when I lay My vengeance on them.""

Judgment on Tyre

- 26 NOW in the eleventh year, on the first of the month, the word of the Lord came to me saying,
- 2 "Son of man, because Tyre has said concerning Jerusalem, 'Aha, the gateway of the peoples is broken; it has opened to me. I shall be filled, now that she is laid waste,'
- 3 therefore thus says the Lord God, 'Behold, I am against you, O Tyre, and I will bring up many nations against you, as the sea brings up its waves.
- 4 'They will destroy the walls of Tyre and ≺ break down her towers; and I will scrape her debris from her and make her a bare rock.

Ond made Ezekiel's whole life into a living message to Israel and Judah. He will move heaven and earth, if necessary, to show us His will. Our job is to obey it through the power of the Spirit.

LIFE PRINCIPLE 16

WHATEVER YOU ACQUIRE OUTSIDE OF GOD'S WILL EVENTUALLY TURNS TO ASHES.

EZEK. 25:6, 7

ome people think that God's refusal to grant them some cherished wish would be the worst thing that could ever happen to them. They believe they will be truly disappointed and devastated if that deep desire continues unmet.

So they pursue their desire, either in opposition to God's will or in disregard of it—and end up truly disappointed, even if they get what they thought they wanted. They are like the Israelites in Moses' day, who complained to God and insisted on having meat (Num. 11:4, 31–34; Ps. 78:27–31). Psalm 106:15 tells us, "He gave them their request, but sent a wasting disease among them." The desire becomes a curse.

G. K. Chesterton said, "There are two ways to get enough: One is to accumulate more and more, the other is to desire less." While you can always collect additional possessions, relationships, successes, etc.—there will always be room for more. And when there's room for more, there's room for wanting more. The cycle never ends.

If you choose the second route of Chesterton's advice, "to desire less," the likelihood of living a fulfilling life increases. But how does one want less?

By going back to the deepest desire present in every human heart—the one thing we're truly longing for: to know God. Once we satisfy ourselves with His presence, we require far less of what the world has to offer.

You may not understand the longing within you to be a desire for God—in fact, you may simply feel dissatisfaction with your life. Maybe the relationship you wanted and attained isn't everything you thought it would be. Perhaps you have everything you'd ever wanted and yet still go through periods of longing, sadness, and loneliness.

Dissatisfaction, unfulfilled expectations, and feelings of dejection and isolation originate from the same place: a raging hunger for God. Centuries ago Augustine wrote, "You made us for Yourself, and our heart is restless until it rests in You."

There is always more we can learn about God—we will never fully know Him while we live here on earth (1 Cor. 13:12). But once we enter into a relationship with the Lord, He promises to reveal more of Himself to us as we fellowship with Him. Hosea 2:19, 20 says, "I will betroth you to Me forever; yes, I will betroth you to Me in righteousness and in justice, in lovingkindness and in compassion, and I will betroth you to Me in faithfulness. Then you will know the LORD."

To fellowship with God—to talk to Him and listen to Him as you study the Bible, pray, and worship Him—is to get to know Him better. He has "betrothed" (or engaged) His people to Himself for one reason: to let Himself be known.

When you develop your relationship with God and discover more about His holy character, He illuminates your heart and mind, giving you a greater desire to know Him more intimately—and leaving your fleshly desires behind in the process. Your worldly desires simply cannot compare to the deep comfort, joy, and fulfillment that God offers you. Rather, you see the things that you acquire outside of His will turning to ashes, while the blessings He gives you endure and satisfy your soul.

There is always more we can learn about God.

This process deepens:

- Our humility. As we see God's sovereignty unveiled, we more deeply understand our need for Him.
- Our gratitude. Knowing that God's lovingkindness motivates His forgiveness, deliverance, and guidance gives us a thankful heart. Instead of coming to God with complaints about our unfulfilled, selfish desires, we come to Him with adoration and praise.
- Our purpose. As the Holy Spirit sheds new light on verses we've read many times before, our quest for a relationship with Him becomes stronger, deeper, and more personal. Our appreciation of God's Word gives us a more profound delight in studying and applying His truth.
- Our reverence. Learning something new about our Creator reminds us that we don't know everything about Him. As we come to terms with the depths and heights of God's love, power, and wisdom, our awe of Him grows.
- Our desire to please God. When we have a holy, respectful fear of the Lord, our desire changes from satisfying ourselves to serving our God. Pleasing Him is not a chore; rather, it becomes a joy done out of humility and thankfulness.

Amazingly, as we pursue our desire for God, He fulfills the other desires He has given us (Ps. 37:4). And so we learn afresh that while acquiring anything outside of His will ultimately disappoints us, He fills us with truly satisfying "pleasures forever" (Ps. 16:11).

5 'She will be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea, for I have spoken,' declares the Lord God, 'and she will become spoil for the nations.

6 'Also her daughters who are on the mainland will be slain by the sword, and they will know that I am the LORD."

7 For thus says the Lord God, "Behold, I will bring upon Tyre from the north Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, with horses, chariots, cavalry and a great army.

8 "He will slay your daughters on the mainland with the sword; and he will make siege walls against you, cast up a ramp against you and raise up a large shield against you.

9 "The blow of his battering rams he will direct against your walls, and with his axes he will break down your towers.

10 "Because of the multitude of his horses, the dust raised by them will cover you; your walls will shake at the noise of cavalry and wagons and chariots when he enters your gates as men enter a city that is breached.

11 "With the hoofs of his horses he will trample all your streets. He will slay your people with the sword; and your strong pillars will come down to the ground.

12 "Also they will make a spoil of your riches and a prey of your merchandise, break down your walls and destroy your pleasant houses, and throw your stones and your timbers and your debris into the water.

13 "So I will silence the sound of your songs, and the sound of your harps will be heard no more.

14 "I will make you a bare rock; you will be a place for the spreading of nets. You will be built no more, for I the LORD have spoken," declares the Lord God.

15 Thus says the Lord God to Tyre, "Shall not the coastlands shake at the sound of your fall when the wounded groan, when the slaughter occurs in your midst?

16 "Then all the princes of the sea will go down from their thrones, remove their robes and strip off their embroidered garments. They will clothe themselves with trembling; they will sit on the ground, tremble every moment and be appalled at you.

17 "They will take up a lamentation over you and say to you,

'How you have perished, O inhabited one, From the seas, O renowned city,

- Which was mighty on the sea, She and her inhabitants, Who imposed her terror On all her inhabitants!
- 18 'Now the coastlands will tremble
 On the day of your fall;
 Yes, the coastlands which are by the sea
 Will be terrified at your passing.'"

19 For thus says the Lord God, "When I make you a desolate city, like the cities which are not inhabited, when I bring up the deep over you and the great waters cover you,

20 then I will bring you down with those who go down to the pit, to the people of old, and I will make you dwell in the lower parts of the earth, like the ancient waste places, with those who go down to the pit, so that you will not be inhabited; but I will set glory in the land of the living.

21 "I will bring terrors on you and you will be no more; though you will be sought, you will never be found again," declares the Lord God.

Lament over Tyre

27 MOREOVER, the word of the Lord came to me saying,

2 "And you, son of man, take up a lamentation over Tyre;

3 and say to Tyre, who dwells at the entrance to the sea, merchant of the peoples to many coastlands, 'Thus says the Lord God,

"O Tyre, you have said, 'I am perfect in beauty.'

- 4 "Your borders are in the heart of the seas; Your builders have perfected your beauty.
- 5 "They have made all your planks of fir trees from Senir;

They have taken a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.

6 "Of oaks from Bashan they have made your oars;

With ivory they have inlaid your deck of boxwood from the coastlands of Cyprus.

7 "Your sail was of fine embroidered linen from Egypt

So that it became your distinguishing mark;

Your awning was blue and purple from the coastlands of Elishah.

8 "The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers;

> 26:4, 5 — "They will destroy the walls of Tyre and break down her towers; and I will scrape her debris from her and make her a bare rock. 'She will be a place for the spreading of nets."

Hithough Tyre was at the height of her power during Ezekiel's time, he predicted she would become a place to dry fishing nets, which history shows occurred through the conquests of Nebuchadnezzar (Ezek. 26:7–11; 586–571 в.с.) and Alexander the Great (w. 12–14; 332 в.с.). Ezekiel's prophecy about the fate of Tyre—now located in modern day Lebanon—is a remarkable example of how God faithfully fulfills His Word.

Your wise men, O Tyre, were aboard; they were your pilots.

9 "The elders of Gebal and her wise men were with you repairing your seams; All the ships of the sea and their sailors were with you in order to deal in your merchandise.

10 "Persia and Lud and Put were in your army, your men of war. They hung shield and helmet in you; they set forth your splendor.

11 "The sons of Arvad and your army were on your walls, all around, and the Gammadim were in your towers. They hung their shields on your walls all around; they perfected your beauty.

12 "Tarshish was your customer because of the abundance of all kinds of wealth; with silver, iron, tin and lead they paid for your wares. 13 "Javan, Tubal and Meshech, they were your traders; with the lives of men and vessels of bronze they paid for your merchandise.

14 "Those from Beth-togarmah gave horses and war horses and mules for your wares.

15 "The sons of Dedan were your traders. Many coastlands were your market; ivory tusks and ebony they brought as your payment.

16 "Aram was your customer because of the abundance of your goods; they paid for your wares with emeralds, purple, embroidered work, fine linen, coral and rubies.

17 "Judah and the land of Israel, they were your traders; with the wheat of Minnith, cakes, honey, oil and balm they paid for your merchandise.

18 "Damascus was your customer because of the abundance of your goods, because of the abundance of all kinds of wealth, because of the wine of Helbon and white wool.

19 "Vedan and Javan paid for your wares from Uzal; wrought iron, cassia and sweet cane were among your merchandise.

20 "Dedan traded with you in saddlecloths for riding.

21 "Arabia and all the princes of Kedar, they were your customers for lambs, rams and goats; for these they were your customers.

22 "The traders of Sheba and Raamah, they traded with you; they paid for your wares with the best of all kinds of spices, and with all kinds of precious stones and gold.

23 "Haran, Canneh, Eden, the traders of Sheba, Asshur and Chilmad traded with you. 24 "They traded with you in choice garments, in clothes of blue and embroidered work, and in carpets of many colors and tightly wound cords, which were among your merchandise. 25 "The ships of Tarshish were the carriers for your merchandise.

And you were filled and were very glorious

In the heart of the seas.

26 "Your rowers have brought you

Into great waters; The east wind has broken you In the heart of the seas.

27 "Your wealth, your wares, your merchandise,

Your sailors and your pilots,

Your repairers of seams, your dealers in merchandise

And all your men of war who are in you, With all your company that is in your midst,

Will fall into the heart of the seas On the day of your overthrow.

28 "At the sound of the cry of your pilots The pasture lands will shake.

29 "All who handle the oar,
The sailors and all the pilots of the sea
Will come down from their ships;
They will stand on the land,

30 And they will make their voice heard over you

And will cry bitterly.

They will cast dust on their heads, They will wallow in ashes.

31 "Also they will make themselves bald for you

And gird themselves with sackcloth; And they will weep for you in bitterness of soul

With bitter mourning.

32 "Moreover, in their wailing they will take up a lamentation for you And lament over you:

'Who is like Tyre,

Like her who is silent in the midst of the sea?

33 'When your wares went out from the seas, You satisfied many peoples; With the abundance of your wealth and your merchandise You enriched the kings of earth.

34 'Now that you are broken by the seas In the depths of the waters, Your merchandise and all your company Have fallen in the midst of you.

35 'All the inhabitants of the coastlands Are appalled at you, And their kings are horribly afraid;

They are troubled in countenance.

36 'The merchants among the peoples hiss at you:

You have become terrified And you will cease to be forever.""

Tyre's King Overthrown

28 THE word of the Lord came again to me, saying,

2 "Son of man, say to the leader of Tyre, 'Thus says the Lord God,

"Because your heart is lifted up And you have said, 'I am a god, I sit in the seat of gods In the heart of the seas'; Yet you are a man and not God, Although you make your heart like the heart of God—

3 Behold, you are wiser than Daniel; There is no secret that is a match for you.

4 "By your wisdom and understanding You have acquired riches for yourself And have acquired gold and silver for your treasuries.

5 "By your great wisdom, by your trade You have increased your riches And your heart is lifted up because of your riches—

6 Therefore thus says the Lord God, 'Because you have made your heart Like the heart of God,

The most ruthless of the nations. And they will draw their swords Against the beauty of your wisdom And defile your splendor.

8 'They will bring you down to the pit, And you will die the death of those who are slain

In the heart of the seas.

9 'Will you still say, "I am a god," In the presence of your slayer, Though you are a man and not God, In the hands of those who wound you?

10 'You will die the death of the uncircumcised

By the hand of strangers, For I have spoken!' declares the Lord

11 Again the word of the LORD came to me saying,

12 "Son of man, take up a lamentation over the king of Tyre and say to him, 'Thus says the Lord God.

"You had the seal of perfection, Full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.

13 "You were in Eden, the garden of God; Every precious stone was your covering: The ruby, the topaz and the diamond; The beryl, the onyx and the jasper; The lapis lazuli, the turquoise and the emerald:

And the gold, the workmanship of your settings and sockets,

Was in you.

On the day that you were created They were prepared.

And I have destroyed you, O covering cherub.

From the midst of the stones of fire.

17 "Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty;

You corrupted your wisdom by reason of your splendor.

I cast you to the ground; I put you before kings,

That they may see you.

Therefore I have brought fire from the midst of you;

It has consumed you,

And I have turned you to ashes on the earth

Judgment of Sidon

20 And the word of the LORD came to me saying,

21 "Son of man, set your face toward Sidon, prophesy against her

22 and say, 'Thus says the Lord God, "Behold, I am against you, O Sidon, And I will be glorified in your midst. Then they will know that I am the Lord when I execute judgments in her, And I will manifest My holiness in her.

23 "For I will send pestilence to her And blood to her streets, And the wounded will fall in her midst By the sword upon her on every side; Then they will know that I am the LORD.

 \mathcal{M} any scholars believe this passage speaks of Satan and how through his rebellion he was expelled from heaven (Ezek. 28:12–17). The devil fell from his lofty position because he wanted to be "like the Most High" (Is. 14:14). Pride always places an overemphasis on self—we get to the point where we think we don't need God. Both Satan and the king of Tyre forgot that any power, wisdom, beauty, or splendor they had came as a gift from God. We must be careful not to make the same deadly mistake.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT THE ORIGIN, WORK, AND DESTINY OF SATAN

zekiel 28:12–19 tells us that God created Satan as a beautiful and eminent angel, a being as real as any of us. Yet the devil arrogantly lusted to make himself "like the Most High" (Is. 14:14) and rebelled against the Creator, who subsequently cast him and his co-conspirators to earth. Here he set up a counterfeit kingdom in order that he might reign as the god of this world.

Satan uses deception and division to ensnare believers. He works tirelessly to tempt us, hoping that we will fall into sin, thereby damaging our relationship with God and ruining our witness for Christ. He also desires to keep unbelievers away from the saving grace of Jesus Christ, thereby destroying them. Jesus called him a murderer and the father of lies (John 8:44), and as such, his goal is to instigate pain, sorrow, and death throughout the world. Satan accuses and deceives—condemning, antagonizing, and confusing us in an attempt to fill us with doubt and despair.

But Christians have no cause to fear Satan. This is true for two reasons.

First, "Greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world" (1 John 4:4).

Christians have no cause to fear Satan.

We live under the protection of the Holy Spirit; nothing can happen to us that God does not allow, and we know that whatever He permits—no matter how bad it may seem—He can turn for our good (Rom. 8:28).

Second, all of us who have read Scripture understand Satan's end. Revelation 12:10, 11 tells us, "The salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God and the authority of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren has been thrown down, he who accuses them before our God day and night. And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of their testimony." The enemy will be thrown into the lake of fire and eternally punished for his rebellion against almighty God (Rev. 20:10). And he will never bother us again.

The apostle Peter refers to Satan as "a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour" (1 Pet. 5:8). Yet even though the devil is as dangerous as a lion, he's on a short leash. His eternal destination is certain. While he may be able to harass us, tempt us, and prompt us to stumble, our ultimate victory over him and his work was secured for us when Jesus Christ defeated sin once and for all on the Cross.

24 "And there will be no more for the house of Israel a prickling brier or a painful thorn from any round about them who scorned them; then they will know that I am the Lord God."

Israel Regathered

25 'Thus says the Lord God, "When I gather the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and will manifest My holiness in them in the sight of the nations, then they will live in their land which I gave to My servant Jacob.

26 "They will live in it securely; and they will build houses, plant vineyards and live securely when I execute judgments upon all who scorn them round about them. Then they will know that I am the LORD their God.""

Judgment of Egypt

29 IN the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth of the month, the word of the LORD came to me saying,

- 2 "Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt and prophesy against him and against all Egypt.
- 3 "Speak and say, 'Thus says the Lord God, "Behold, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt,

The great monster that lies in the midst of his rivers.

That has said, 'My Nile is mine, and I myself have made it.'

4 "I will put hooks in your jaws

And make the fish of your rivers cling to your scales.

And I will bring you up out of the midst of your rivers,

And all the fish of your rivers will cling to your scales.

5 "I will abandon you to the wilderness, you and all the fish of your rivers; You will fall on the open field; you will not be brought together or gathered.

I have given you for food to the beasts of the earth and to the birds of the sky. "Then all the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am the Lord, Because they have been only a staff made of reed to the house of Israel.

7 "When they took hold of you with the hand,
You broke and tore all their hands;
And when they leaned on you

And when they leaned on you, You broke and made all their loins quake."

8 'Therefore thus says the Lord God, "Behold, I will bring upon you a sword and I will cut off from you man and beast.

9 "The land of Egypt will become a desolation and waste. Then they will know that I am the Lord.

Because you said, 'The Nile is mine, and I have made it,'

10 therefore, behold, I am against you and against your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from Migdol to Syene and even to the border of Ethiopia.

11 "A man's foot will not pass through it, and the foot of a beast will not pass through it, and it will not be inhabited for forty years.

12 "So I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the midst of desolated lands. And her cities, in the midst of cities that are laid waste, will be desolate forty years; and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them among the lands."

13 'For thus says the Lord God, "At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples among whom they were scattered.

14 "I will turn the fortunes of Egypt and make them return to the land of Pathros, to the land of their origin, and there they will be a lowly kingdom.

15 "It will be the lowest of the kingdoms, and ≼ it will never again lift itself up above the nations. And I will make them so small that they will not rule over the nations.

16 "And it will never again be the confidence of the house of Israel, bringing to mind the iniquity of their having turned to Egypt. Then they will know that I am the Lord God.""

17 Now in the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, on the first of the month, the word of the LORD came to me saying.

18 "Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made his army labor hard against Tyre; every head was made bald and every shoulder was rubbed bare. But he and his army had no wages from Tyre for the labor that he had performed against it."

19 Therefore thus says the Lord God, "Behold, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. And he will carry off her wealth and capture her spoil and seize her plunder; and it will be wages for his army.

20 "I have given him the land of Egypt for his labor which he performed, because they acted for Me," declares the Lord God.

21 "On that day I will make a horn sprout for the house of Israel, and I will open your mouth in their midst. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

2 "Son of man, prophesy and say, 'Thus says the Lord God,

"Wail, 'Alas for the day!'

3 "For the day is near,

Even the day of the LORD is near; It will be a day of clouds,

A time of doom for the nations.

4 "A sword will come upon Egypt, And anguish will be in Ethiopia; When the slain fall in Egypt, They take away her wealth,

And her foundations are torn down.
"Ethiopia Put Lud all Arabia Libya

- 5 "Ethiopia, Put, Lud, all Arabia, Libya and the people of the land that is in league will fall with them by the sword."
- 6 'Thus says the LORD,

"Indeed, those who support Egypt will fall

And the pride of her power will come down;

From Migdol to Svene

They will fall within her by the sword," Declares the Lord God.

7 "They will be desolate

In the midst of the desolated lands; And her cities will be

In the midst of the devastated cities.

8 "And they will know that I am the LORD, When I set a fire in Egypt

And all her helpers are broken.

9 "On that day messengers will go forth from Me in ships to frighten secure Ethiopia; and anguish will be on them as on the day of Egypt; for behold, it comes!"

10 'Thus says the Lord God,

"I will also make the hordes of Egypt cease

By the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

11 "He and his people with him,

The most ruthless of the nations,

Will be brought in to destroy the land; And they will draw their swords against Egypt

And fill the land with the slain.

12 "Moreover, I will make the Nile canals dry

And sell the land into the hands of evil

And I will make the land desolate And all that is in it,

By the hand of strangers; I the LORD have spoken."

13 'Thus says the Lord God,

"I will also destroy the idols

And make the images cease from Memphis.

And there will no longer be a prince in the land of Egypt;

And I will put fear in the land of Egypt. 14 "I will make Pathros desolate,

Set a fire in Zoan

And execute judgments on ^aThebes.

And ^cMemphis will have distresses daily.

17 "The young men of ^dOn and of Pi-beseth Will fall by the sword,

And the women will go into captivity.

18 "In Tehaphnehes the day will be dark When I break there the yoke bars of Egypt.

Then the pride of her power will cease in her;

A cloud will cover her,

And her daughters will go into captivity.

19 "Thus I will execute judgments on Egypt, And they will know that I am the LORD.""

Victory for Babylon

20 In the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh of the month, the word of the LORD came to me saying,

21 "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, behold, it has not been bound up for healing or wrapped with a bandage, that it may be strong to hold the sword.

22 "Therefore thus says the Lord God, 'Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt and will break his arms, both the strong and the broken; and I will make the sword fall from his hand.

23 'I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them among the lands.

24 'For I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and put My sword in his hand; and I will break the arms of Pharaoh, so that he will groan before him with the groanings of a wounded man.

25 'Thus I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh will fall. Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I put My sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and he stretches it out against the land of Egypt.

26 'When I scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them among the lands, then they will know that I am the LORD.'"

Pharaoh Warned of Assyria's Fate

31 IN the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first of the month, the word of the LORD came to me saying,

2 "Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his hordes.

'Whom are you like in your greatness?

3 'Behold, Assyria was a cedar in Lebanon With beautiful branches and forest shade.

And very high,

And its top was among the clouds.

4 'The waters made it grow, the deep made it high.

With its rivers it continually extended all around its planting place,

And sent out its channels to all the trees of the field.

5 'Therefore its height was loftier than all the trees of the field

And its boughs became many and its branches long

Because of many waters as it spread them out.

6 'All the birds of the heavens nested in its boughs,

And under its branches all the beasts of the field gave birth,

And all great nations lived under its shade.

7 'So it was beautiful in its greatness, in the length of its branches;

For its roots extended to many waters.

8 'The cedars in God's garden could not match it;

The cypresses could not compare with its boughs,

And the plane trees could not match its branches.

No tree in God's garden could compare with it in its beauty.

9 'I made it beautiful with the multitude of its branches.

And all the trees of Eden, which were in the garden of God, were jealous of it.

10 'Therefore thus says the Lord God, "Because it is high in stature and has set its top among the clouds, and its heart is haughty in its loftiness, 11 therefore I will give it into the hand of a despot of the nations; he will thoroughly deal with it. According to its wickedness I have driven it away.

12 "Alien tyrants of the nations have cut it down and left it; on the mountains and in all the valleys its branches have fallen and its boughs have been broken in all the ravines of the land. And all the peoples of the earth have gone down from its shade and left it.

13 "On its ruin all the birds of the heavens will dwell, and all the beasts of the field will be on its fallen branches

14 so that all the trees by the waters may not be exalted in their stature, nor set their top among the clouds, nor their well-watered mighty ones stand erect in their height. For they have all been given over to death, to the earth beneath, among the sons of men, with those who go down to the pit."

15 'Thus says the Lord God, "On the day when it went down to Sheol I caused lamentations; I closed the deep over it and held back its rivers. And its many waters were stopped up, and I made Lebanon mourn for it, and all the trees of the field wilted away on account of it.

16 "I made the nations quake at the sound of its fall when I made it go down to Sheol with those who go down to the pit; and all the well-watered trees of Eden, the choicest and best of Lebanon, were comforted in the earth beneath.

17 "They also went down with it to Sheol to those who were slain by the sword; and those who were its strength lived under its shade among the nations.

18 "To which among the trees of Eden are you thus equal in glory and greatness? Yet you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the earth beneath; you will lie in the midst of the uncircumcised, with those who were slain by the sword. So is Pharaoh and all his hordes!" declares the Lord God."

Lament over Pharaoh and Egypt

32IN the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first of the month, the word of the LORD came to me saying,

2 "Son of man, take up a lamentation over Pharaoh king of Egypt and say to him,

You compared yourself to a young lion of the nations,

Yet you are like the monster in the seas; And you burst forth in your rivers And muddied the waters with your feet And fouled their rivers."

Thus says the Lord God,
"Now I will spread My net over you
With a company of many peoples,

With a company of many peoples,
And they shall lift you up in My net.
4 "I will leave you on the land;

I will east you on the land;
I will cast you on the open field.
And I will cause all the birds of the heavens to dwell on you,

And I will satisfy the beasts of the whole earth with you.

5 "I will lay your flesh on the mountains And fill the valleys with your refuse.

6 "I will also make the land drink the discharge of your blood As far as the mountains,

And the ravines will be full of you.

7 "And when I extinguish you,
I will cover the heavens and darken t

I will cover the heavens and darken their stars;

I will cover the sun with a cloud And the moon will not give its light.

3 "All the shining lights in the heavens I will darken over you And will set darkness on your land," Declares the Lord God.

9 "I will also trouble the hearts of many peoples when I bring your destruction among the nations, into lands which you have not known.

10 "I will make many peoples appalled at you, and their kings will be horribly afraid of you when I brandish My sword before them; and they will tremble every moment, every man for his own life, on the day of your fall."

11 For thus says the Lord God, "The sword of the king of Babylon will come upon you. 12 "By the swords of the mighty ones I will cause your hordes to fall; all of them are tyrants of the nations,

And they will devastate the pride of Egypt,

And all its hordes will be destroyed. 13 "I will also destroy all its cattle from beside many waters; And the foot of man will not muddy them anymore

And the hoofs of beasts will not muddy them.

14 "Then I will make their waters settle And will cause their rivers to run like oil," Declares the Lord God.

15 "When I make the land of Egypt a desolation,

And the land is destitute of that which filled it,

When I smite all those who live in it, Then they shall know that I am the 16 "This is a lamentation and they shall chant it. The daughters of the nations shall chant it. Over Egypt and over all her hordes they shall chant it," declares the Lord God.

17 In the twelfth year, on the fifteenth of the month, the word of the LORD came to me saying,

18 "Son of man, wail for the hordes of Egypt and bring it down, her and the daughters of the powerful nations, to the nether world, with those who go down to the pit;

19 'Whom do you surpass in beauty?

Go down and make your bed with the uncircumcised.'

20 "They shall fall in the midst of those who are slain by the sword. She is given over to the sword; they have drawn her and all her hordes away.

21 "The strong among the mighty ones shall speak of him and his helpers from the midst of Sheol, 'They have gone down, they lie still, the uncircumcised, slain by the sword.'

22 "Assyria is there and all her company; her graves are round about her. All of them are slain, fallen by the sword, 23 whose graves are set in the remotest parts of the pit and her company is round about her grave. All of them are slain, fallen by the sword, who spread terror in the land of the living.

24 "Elam is there and all her hordes around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who went down uncircumcised to the lower parts of the earth, who instilled their terror in the land of the living and bore their disgrace with those who went down to the pit.

25 "They have made a bed for her among the slain with all her hordes. Her graves are around it, they are all uncircumcised, slain by the sword (although their terror was instilled in the land of the living), and they bore their disgrace with those who go down to the pit; they were put in the midst of the slain.

26 "Meshech, Tubal and all their hordes are there; their graves surround them. All of them were slain by the sword uncircumcised, though they instilled their terror in the land of the living.

27 "Nor do they lie beside the fallen heroes of the uncircumcised, who went down to Sheol with their weapons of war and whose swords were laid under their heads; but the punishment for their iniquity rested on their bones, though the terror of these heroes was once in the land of the living.

28 "But in the midst of the uncircumcised you will be broken and lie with those slain by the sword

29 "There also is Edom, its kings and all its princes, who for all their might are laid with those slain by the sword; they will lie with the uncircumcised and with those who go down to the pit.

30 "There also are the chiefs of the north, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who in spite of the terror resulting from their might, in shame went down with the slain. So they lay down uncircumcised with those slain by the sword and bore their disgrace with those who go down to the pit.

31 "These Pharaoh will see, and he will be comforted for all his hordes slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his army," declares the Lord God.

32 "Though I instilled a terror of him in the land of the living, yet he will be made to lie down among the uncircumcised along with those slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his hordes," declares the Lord God.

The Watchman's Duty

33 AND the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 "Son of man, speak to the sons of your people and say to them, 'If I bring a sword upon a land, and the people of the land take one man from among them and make him their watchman.

3 and he sees the sword coming upon the land and blows on the trumpet and warns the people,

4 then he who hears the sound of the trumpet and does not take warning, and a sword comes and takes him away, his blood will be on his own head.

- 5 'He heard the sound of the trumpet but did not take warning; his blood will be on himself. But had he taken warning, he would have delivered his life.
- 6 'But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet and the people are not warned, and a sword comes and takes a person from them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood I will require from the watchman's hand.'

7 "Now as for you, son of man, I have appointed you a watchman for the house of Israel; so you will hear a message from My mouth and give them warning from Me.

- 8 "When I say to the wicked, 'O wicked man, you will surely die,' and you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood I will require from your hand.
- 9 "But if you on your part warn a wicked man to turn from his way and he does not turn from his way, he will die in his iniquity, but you have delivered your life.
- 10 "Now as for you, son of man, say to the house of Israel, 'Thus you have spoken, saying, "Surely our transgressions and our sins are upon us, and we are rotting away in them; how then can we survive?"
- ➤ 11 "Say to them, 'As I live!' declares the Lord God, 'I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn back, turn back from your evil ways! Why then will you die, O house of Israel?'
 - 12 "And you, son of man, say to your fellow citizens, 'The righteousness of a righteous man will not deliver him in the day of his transgression, and as for the wickedness of the wicked, he will not stumble because of it in the day when he turns from his wickedness; whereas a righteous man will not be able to live by his righteousness on the day when he commits sin.'
 - 13 "When I say to the righteous he will surely live, and he so trusts in his righteousness that he commits iniquity, none of his righteous deeds will be remembered; but in that same iniquity of his which he has committed he will die
 - 14 "But when I say to the wicked, 'You will surely die,' and he turns from his sin and practices justice and righteousness,
 - 15 if a wicked man restores a pledge, pays back what he has taken by robbery, walks by the statutes which ensure life without committing iniquity, he shall surely live; he shall not die.

16 "None of his sins that he has committed will be remembered against him. He has practiced justice and righteousness; he shall surely live.

17 "Yet your fellow citizens say, 'The way of the Lord is not right,' when it is their own way that is not right.

18 "When the righteous turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, then he shall die in it.

19 "But when the wicked turns from his wickedness and practices justice and righteousness, he will live by them.

20 "Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not right.' O house of Israel, I will judge each of you according to his ways."

Word of Jerusalem's Capture

21 Now in the twelfth year of our exile, on the fifth of the tenth month, the refugees from Jerusalem came to me, saying, "The city has been taken."

22 Now the hand of the LORD had been upon me in the evening, before the refugees came. And He opened my mouth at the time they came to me in the morning; so my mouth was opened and I was no longer speechless.

23 Then the word of the LORD came to me saying,

24 "Son of man, they who live in these waste places in the land of Israel are saying, 'Abraham was only one, yet he possessed the land; so to us who are many the land has been given as a possession.'

25 "Therefore say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God, "You eat meat with the blood in it, lift up your eyes to your idols as you shed blood. Should you then possess the land?

26 "You rely on your sword, you commit abominations and each of you defiles his neighbor's wife. Should you then possess the land?"

27 "Thus you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God, "As I live, surely those who are in the waste places will fall by the sword, and whoever is in the open field I will give to the beasts to be devoured, and those who are in the strongholds and in the caves will die of pestilence.

28 "I will make the land a desolation and a waste, and the pride of her power will cease; and the mountains of Israel will be desolate so that no one will pass through.

29 "Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I make the land a desolation and a waste because of all their abominations which they have committed."

God does not want to condemn us, which is why He pleads with us to turn from our wicked ways and to return to Him with all our hearts and all our souls. God will never reject anyone with a truly repentant heart.

- 30 "But as for you, son of man, your fellow citizens who talk about you by the walls and in the doorways of the houses, speak to one another, each to his brother, saying, 'Come now and hear what the message is which comes forth from the LORD.'
- 31 "They come to you as people come, and sit before you as My people and hear your words, but they do not do them, for they do the lustful desires expressed by their mouth, and their heart goes after their gain.
- ➤ 32 "Behold, you are to them like a sensual song by one who has a beautiful voice and plays well on an instrument; for they hear your words but they do not practice them.

33 "So when it comes to pass—as surely it will—then they will know that a prophet has been in their midst."

Prophecy against the Shepherds of Israel

m THEN}$ the word of the Lord came to me saying,

- 2 "Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy and say to those shepherds, 'Thus says the Lord God, "Woe, shepherds of Israel who have been feeding themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the flock?
- 3 "You eat the fat and clothe yourselves with the wool, you slaughter the fat sheep without feeding the flock.
- 4 "Those who are sickly you have not strengthened, the diseased you have not healed, the broken you have not bound up, the scattered you have not brought back, nor have you sought for the lost; but with force and with severity you have dominated them.
- 5 "They were scattered for lack of a shepherd, and they became food for every beast of the field and were scattered.
- 6 "My flock wandered through all the mountains and on every high hill; My flock was scattered over all the surface of the earth, and there was no one to search or seek for them.""
- 7 Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the Lord:
- 8 "As I live," declares the Lord God, "surely because My flock has become a prey, My flock has even become food for all the beasts of the field for lack of a shepherd, and My shepherds did not search for My flock, but rather the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed My flock;

- 9 therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the Lord:
- 10 'Thus says the Lord God, "Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will demand My sheep from them and make them cease from feeding sheep. So the shepherds will not feed themselves anymore, but I will deliver My flock from their mouth, so that they will not be food for them.""

The Restoration of Israel

- 11 For thus says the Lord God, "Behold, I Myself will search for My sheep and seek them out.
- 12 "As a shepherd cares for his herd in the day when he is among his scattered sheep, so I will care for My sheep and will deliver them from all the places to which they were scattered on a cloudy and gloomy day."
- 13 "I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries and bring them to their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the streams, and in all the inhabited places of the land.
- 14 "I will feed them in a good pasture, and their grazing ground will be on the mountain heights of Israel. There they will lie down on good grazing ground and feed in rich pasture on the mountains of Israel.
- 15 "I will feed My flock and I will lead them \prec to rest," declares the Lord God.
- 16 "I will seek the lost, bring back the scattered, bind up the broken and strengthen the sick; but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will feed them with judgment.
- 17 "As for you, My flock, thus says the Lord God, 'Behold, I will judge between one sheep and another, between the rams and the male goats.
- 18 'Is it too slight a thing for you that you should feed in the good pasture, that you must tread down with your feet the rest of your pastures? Or that you should drink of the clear waters, that you must foul the rest with your feet?
- 19 'As for My flock, they must eat what you tread down with your feet and drink what you foul with your feet!'"

LIFE LESSONS-

> 33:32 — "They hear your words but they do not practice them."

The New Testament tells us that King Herod was afraid of John the Baptist, "but he used to enjoy listening to him" (Mark 6:20); that is, until Herod killed him. Many people have their favorite preachers and listen to them because they are entertaining. The point, however, is not merely hearing the Word of God, but embracing and doing it wholeheartedly in obedience to the Lord (James 1:22).

> 34:15 — "I will feed My flock and I will lead them to rest," declares the Lord God.

The Lord acts for our benefit and His glory. He feeds us what He knows will give us health. He makes us lie down when we need rest. He is the Great Shepherd (Ps. 23; 28:9; ls. 40:10, 11; John 10:11, 14; Heb. 13:20; 1 Pet. 2:25; 5:4; Rev. 7:17).

20 Therefore, thus says the Lord God to them, "Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep.

21 "Because you push with side and with shoulder, and thrust at all the weak with your horns until you have scattered them abroad, 22 therefore, I will deliver My flock, and they will no longer be a prey; and I will judge between one sheep and another.

23 "Then I will set over them one shepherd, My servant David, and he will feed them; he will feed them himself and be their shepherd. 24 "And I, the LORD, will be their God, and My servant David will be prince among them; I the LORD have spoken.

25 "I will make a covenant of peace with them and eliminate harmful beasts from the land so that they may live securely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods.

26 "I will make them and the places around My hill a blessing. And I will cause showers to come down in their season; they will be showers of blessing.

27 "Also the tree of the field will yield its fruit and the earth will yield its increase, and they will be secure on their land. Then they will know that I am the Lord, when I have broken the bars of their yoke and have delivered them from the hand of those who enslaved them.

28 "They will no longer be a prey to the nations, and the beasts of the earth will not devour them; but they will live securely, and no one will make them afraid.

29 "I will establish for them a renowned planting place, and they will not again be victims of famine in the land, and they will not endure the insults of the nations anymore.

30 "Then they will know that I, the LORD their God, am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are My people," declares the Lord God.

→ 31 "As for you, My sheep, the sheep of My pasture, you are men, and I am your God," declares the Lord God.

Prophecy against Mount Seir

35 MOREOVER, the word of the Lord came to me saying,

2 "Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir, and prophesy against it and say to it, 'Thus says the Lord God, "Behold, I am against you, Mount Seir, And I will stretch out My hand against you And make you a desolation and a waste.

4 "I will lay waste your cities

And you will become a desolation.

Then you will know that I am the LORD.

On both testaments, God calls His people His "flock" (Ps. 80:1; Is. 40:11; Micah 5:4; Luke 12:32; 1 Pet. 5:2). Why? For one thing, it's a term of endearment and a picture of close, personal connection. For another, it reveals our total dependence upon Him. Third, it honors Him as our Shepherd.

'The everlasting heights have become our possession,'

- 3 therefore prophesy and say, 'Thus says the Lord God, "For good reason they have made you desolate and crushed you from every side, that you would become a possession of the rest of the nations and you have been taken up in the talk and the whispering of the people."'"
- 4 'Therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God. Thus says the Lord God to the mountains and to the hills, to the ravines and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the forsaken cities which have become a prey and a derision to the rest of the nations which are round about,

- 7 "Therefore thus says the Lord God, 'I have sworn that surely the nations which are around you will themselves endure their insults.
- 8 'But you, O mountains of Israel, you will put forth your branches and bear your fruit for My people Israel; for they will soon come. 9 'For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn
- to you, and you will be cultivated and sown. 10 'I will multiply men on you, all the house of Israel, all of it; and the cities will be inhabited and the waste places will be rebuilt.
- 11 'I will multiply on you man and beast; and they will increase and be fruitful; and I will cause you to be inhabited as you were formerly and will treat you better than at the first. Thus you will know that I am the LORD.
- 12 'Yes, I will cause men—My people Israel—to walk on you and possess you, so that you will become their inheritance and never again bereave them of children.'

- 6 'I will put sinews on you, make flesh grow 4 back on you, cover you with skin and put breath in you that you may come alive; and you will know that I am the LORD.'"
- 7 So I prophesied as I was commanded; and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold, a rattling; and the bones came together, bone to its bone.
- 8 And I looked, and behold, sinews were on them, and flesh grew and skin covered them; but there was no breath in them.
- 9 Then He said to me, "Prophesy to the breath, prophesy, son of man, and say to the breath, 'Thus says the Lord God, "Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe on these slain, that they come to life.""
- 10 So I prophesied as He commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they came to life and stood on their feet, an exceedingly great army.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

How can I help to restore someone to fellowship with God?

EZEK. 36:16-38

The term "restore" is an interesting one. In ancient Greek, it means to set a broken bone back in place. In restoring someone, we do not place bandages on small cuts, but instead we set broken spiritual bones. Therefore, the work is often long and painful.

The steps to restoration are as follows:

- Lead the person to recognize his failure. Help him see the nature of the problem and call it by its right name: sin. As long as a person can rationalize his behavior, he will never accept responsibility for it.
- Lead the person to acknowledge responsibility for his sin. Blaming others will do no good. Others may have been involved, but the person chose to sin—and claiming proper responsibility is essential to restoration.
- 3 Lead the fallen saint to repent. Pray that the Holy Spirit will convict the person to feel remorse, regret, and grief. Repentance means a change of mind leading to a change of conduct. Paul taught that our thinking must change first; then our actions will follow (Rom. 12:2).
- 1 Lead the person to receive the message God wants to teach him. Sometimes a person is stubborn and reluctant to learn. But failure is especially unprofitable when we refuse to be taught by the experience and change our ways. However, if we take the opportunity to learn from our mistakes, we will grow in our understanding about ourselves and about God.
- 5 Lead the sinful believer to respond to God's chastisement with gratitude. The one leading might point out two helpful verses: "Before I was afflicted I went astray, but now I keep Your word," and "It is good for me that I was afflicted, that I may learn Your statutes" (Ps. 119:67, 71). Gently remind the person how wonderful it is that God loves us enough to chastise us and mend us.

The goal of all spiritual restoration is to help our sinning brothers and sisters "come to their senses and escape from the snare of the devil, having been held captive by him to do his will" (2 Tim. 2:26). What a joy is ours when we see God put a new heart and a new spirit in them, causing them to walk joyfully and willingly in His ways and to keep His commandments for their own good (Ezek. 36:26, 27)!

Reunion of Judah and Israel

15 The word of the LORD came again to me saying,

16 "And you, son of man, take for yourself one stick and write on it, 'For Judah and for the sons of Israel, his companions'; then take another stick and write on it, 'For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim and all the house of Israel, his companions.'

17 "Then join them for yourself one to another into one stick, that they may become one in your hand.

18 "When the sons of your people speak to you saying, 'Will you not declare to us what you mean by these?'

19 say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God, "Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel, his companions; and I will put them with it, with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they will be one in My hand."

Watching Dead Bones Come Alive

In his day, hope had become a rare commodity. A captive in the land of Babylon, Ezekiel must have felt as desolate and useless as the piles of bones that he had seen in the startling vision God had given him (Ezek. 37:1–10). He knew that only a miracle could bring the decimated and scattered people of Judah back together again in the Promised Land.

Yet as Ezekiel sat in the valley and watched the Lord's mighty work, a miracle unfolded before him. Where before only dry bones had littered the landscape, the Lord added muscles, tendons, and tissue. And into those restored, silent bodies, God breathed new life. It was a testimony that He would do the same for Judah—He would take the spiritually dead, dispersed nation and, by His might, bring it back to life.

Maybe you feel dry, defeated, and emotionally scattered. Perhaps your valley of dry bones is a great loss, a failed relationship, an illness that consumes you, or a circumstance that is absolutely beyond your control and requires a miracle. But do not despair! The same God who breathed life into the old, dry bones sustains you today, and He is able to infuse you with new purpose and hope. Just as He provided the victory to Ezekiel and Judah, God is near to you and can make you triumphant. Just one breath from Him and your life will never be the same.

Vision of the Man with a Measuring Rod

- 40^{IN} the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was taken, on that same day the hand of the Lord was upon me and He brought me there.
- 2 In the visions of God He brought me into the land of Israel and set me on a very high mountain, and on it to the south there was a structure like a city.
- 3 So He brought me there; and behold, there was a man whose appearance was like the appearance of bronze, with a line of flax and a measuring rod in his hand; and he was standing in the gateway.
- 4 The man said to me, "Son of man, see with your eyes, hear with your ears, and give attention to all that I am going to show you; for you have been brought here in order to show it to you. Declare to the house of Israel all that you see."

Measurements Relating to the Temple

- 5 And behold, there was a wall on the outside of the temple all around, and in the man's hand was a measuring rod of six cubits, each of which was a cubit and a handbreadth. So he measured the thickness of the wall, one rod; and the height, one rod.
- 6 Then he went to the gate which faced east, went up its steps and measured the threshold of the gate, one rod in width; and the other threshold was one rod in width.
- 7 The guardroom was one rod long and one rod wide; and there were five cubits between the guardrooms. And the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate facing inward was one rod.
- 8 Then he measured the porch of the gate facing inward, one rod.
- 9 He measured the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and its side pillars, two cubits. And the porch of the gate was faced inward.
- 10 The guardrooms of the gate toward the east numbered three on each side; the three of them had the same measurement. The side pillars also had the same measurement on each side.
- 11 And he measured the width of the gateway, ten cubits, and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.
- 12 There was a barrier wall one cubit wide in front of the guardrooms on each side; and the guardrooms were six cubits square on each side.
- 13 He measured the gate from the roof of the one guardroom to the roof of the other, a - width of twenty-five cubits from one door to the door opposite.

- 14 He made the side pillars sixty cubits high; the gate extended round about to the side pillar of the courtyard.
- 15 From the front of the entrance gate to the front of the inner porch of the gate was fifty cubits.
- 16 There were shuttered windows looking toward the guardrooms, and toward their side pillars within the gate all around, and likewise for the porches. And there were windows all around inside; and on each side pillar were palm tree ornaments.
- 17 Then he brought me into the outer court, and behold, there were chambers and a pavement made for the court all around; thirty chambers faced the pavement.
- 18 The pavement (that is, the lower pavement) was by the side of the gates, corresponding to the length of the gates.
- 19 Then he measured the width from the front of the lower gate to the front of the exterior of the inner court, a hundred cubits on the east and on the north.
- 20 As for the gate of the outer court which faced the north, he measured its length and its width.
- 21 It had three guardrooms on each side; and its side pillars and its porches had the same measurement as the first gate. Its length was fifty cubits and the width twenty-five cubits.
- 22 Its windows and its porches and its palm tree ornaments had the same measurements as the gate which faced toward the east; and it was reached by seven steps, and its porch was in front of them.
- 23 The inner court had a gate opposite the gate on the north as well as the gate on the east; and he measured a hundred cubits from gate to gate.
- 24 Then he led me toward the south, and behold, there was a gate toward the south; and he measured its side pillars and its porches according to those same measurements.
- 25 The gate and its porches had windows all around like those other windows; the length was fifty cubits and the width twenty-five cubits.
- 26 There were seven steps going up to it, and its porches were in front of them; and it had palm tree ornaments on its side pillars, one on each side.
- 27 The inner court had a gate toward the south; and he measured from gate to gate toward the south, a hundred cubits.
- 28 Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate; and he measured the south gate according to those same measurements.
- 29 Its guardrooms also, its side pillars and its porches were according to those same measurements. And the gate and its porches had windows all around; it was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

- 30 There were porches all around, twenty-five cubits long and five cubits wide.
- 31 Its porches were toward the outer court; and palm tree ornaments were on its side pillars, and its stairway had eight steps.
- 32 He brought me into the inner court toward the east. And he measured the gate according to those same measurements.
- 33 Its guardrooms also, its side pillars and its porches were according to those same measurements. And the gate and its porches had windows all around; it was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.
- 34 Its porches were toward the outer court; and palm tree ornaments were on its side pillars, on each side, and its stairway had eight steps.
- 35 Then he brought me to the north gate; and he measured it according to those same measurements,
- 36 with its guardrooms, its side pillars and its porches. And the gate had windows all around; the length was fifty cubits and the width twenty-five cubits.
- 37 Its side pillars were toward the outer court; and palm tree ornaments were on its side pillars on each side, and its stairway had eight steps.
- 38 A chamber with its doorway was by the side pillars at the gates; there they rinse the burnt offering.
- 39 In the porch of the gate were two tables on each side, on which to slaughter the burnt offering, the sin offering and the guilt offering.
- 40 On the outer side, as one went up to the gateway toward the north, were two tables; and on the other side of the porch of the gate were two tables.
- 41 Four tables were on each side next to the gate; or, eight tables on which they slaughter sacrifices.
- 42 For the burnt offering there were four tables of hewn stone, a cubit and a half long, a cubit and a half wide and one cubit high, on which they lay the instruments with which they slaughter the burnt offering and the sacrifice.
- 43 The double hooks, one handbreadth in length, were installed in the house all around; and on the tables was the flesh of the offering. 44 From the outside to the inner gate were chambers for the singers in the inner court, one of which was at the side of the north gate, with its front toward the south, and one at the side of the south gate facing toward the north.
- 45 He said to me, "This is the chamber which faces toward the south, intended for the priests who keep charge of the temple;
- 46 but the chamber which faces toward the north is for the priests who keep charge of the

- altar. These are the sons of Zadok, who from the sons of Levi come near to the Lord to minister to Him."
- 47 He measured the court, a perfect square, a hundred cubits long and a hundred cubits wide; and the altar was in front of the temple. 48 Then he brought me to the porch of the temple and measured each side pillar of the porch, five cubits on each side; and the width of the gate was three cubits on each side.
- 49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits and the width eleven cubits; and at the stairway by which it was ascended were columns belonging to the side pillars, one on each side.

The Inner Temple

- $41^{\rm THEN}$ he brought me to the nave and measured the side pillars; six cubits wide on each side was the width of the side pillar.
- 2 The width of the entrance was ten cubits and the sides of the entrance were five cubits on each side. And he measured the length of the nave, forty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits.
- 3 Then he went inside and measured each side pillar of the doorway, two cubits, and the doorway, six cubits high; and the width of the doorway, seven cubits.
- 4 He measured its length, twenty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits, before the nave; and he said to me, "This is the most holy place."
- 5 Then he measured the wall of the temple, six cubits; and the width of the side chambers, four cubits, all around about the house on every side.
- 6 The side chambers were in three stories, one above another, and thirty in each story; and the side chambers extended to the wall which stood on their inward side all around, that they might be fastened, and not be fastened into the wall of the temple itself.
- 7 The side chambers surrounding the temple were wider at each successive story. Because the structure surrounding the temple went upward by stages on all sides of the temple, therefore the width of the temple increased as it went higher; and thus one went up from the lowest story to the highest by way of the second story.
- 8 I saw also that the house had a raised platform all around; the foundations of the side chambers were a full rod of six long cubits in height.
- 9 The thickness of the outer wall of the side chambers was five cubits. But the free space between the side chambers belonging to the temple
- 10 and the outer chambers was twenty cubits in width all around the temple on every side.
- 11 The doorways of the side chambers toward the free space consisted of one doorway toward the north and another doorway toward the south; and the width of the free space was five cubits all around.

- 12 The building that was in front of the separate area at the side toward the west was seventy cubits wide; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length was ninety cubits.
- 13 Then he measured the temple, a hundred cubits long; the separate area with the building and its walls were also a hundred cubits long.
- 14 Also the width of the front of the temple and that of the separate areas along the east side totaled a hundred cubits.
- 15 He measured the length of the building along the front of the separate area behind it, with a gallery on each side, a hundred cubits; he also measured the inner nave and the porches of the court.
- 16 The thresholds, the latticed windows and the galleries round about their three stories, opposite the threshold, were paneled with wood all around, and from the ground to the windows (but the windows were covered),
- 17 over the entrance, and to the inner house, and on the outside, and on all the wall all around inside and outside, by measurement.
- 18 It was carved with cherubim and palm trees; and a palm tree was between cherub and cherub, and every cherub had two faces, 19 a man's face toward the palm tree on one side and a young lion's face toward the palm tree on the other side; they were carved on all the house all around.
- 20 From the ground to above the entrance cherubim and palm trees were carved, as well as on the wall of the nave.
- 21 The doorposts of the nave were square; as for the front of the sanctuary, the appearance of one doorpost was like that of the other.
- 22 The altar was of wood, three cubits high and its length two cubits; its corners, its base and its sides were of wood. And he said to me, "This is the table that is before the LORD."
- 23 The nave and the sanctuary each had a double door.
- 24 Each of the doors had two leaves, two swinging leaves; two leaves for one door and two leaves for the other.
- 25 Also there were carved on them, on the doors of the nave, cherubim and palm trees like those carved on the walls; and there was a threshold of wood on the front of the porch outside.
- 26 There were latticed windows and palm trees on one side and on the other, on the sides of the porch; thus were the side chambers of the house and the thresholds.

Chambers of the Temple

 $42^{\rm THEN}$ he brought me out into the outer court, the way toward the north; and he brought me to the chamber which was oppo-

- site the separate area and opposite the building toward the north.
- 2 Along the length, which was a hundred cubits, was the north door; the width was fifty cubits.
- 3 Opposite the twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and opposite the pavement which belonged to the outer court, was gallery corresponding to gallery in three stories.
- 4 Before the chambers was an inner walk ten cubits wide, a way of one hundred cubits; and their openings were on the north.
- 5 Now the upper chambers were smaller because the galleries took more space away from them than from the lower and middle ones in the building.
- 6 For they were in three stories and had no pillars like the pillars of the courts; therefore the upper chambers were set back from the ground upward, more than the lower and middle ones.
- 7 As for the outer wall by the side of the chambers, toward the outer court facing the chambers, its length was fifty cubits.
- 8 For the length of the chambers which were in the outer court was fifty cubits; and behold, the length of those facing the temple was a hundred cubits.
- 9 Below these chambers was the entrance on the east side, as one enters them from the outer court.
- 10 In the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, facing the separate area and facing the building, there were chambers.
- 11 The way in front of them was like the appearance of the chambers which were on the north, according to their length so was their width, and all their exits were both according to their arrangements and openings.
- 12 Corresponding to the openings of the chambers which were toward the south was an opening at the head of the way, the way in front of the wall toward the east, as one enters them.
- 13 Then he said to me, "The north chambers and the south chambers, which are opposite the separate area, they are the holy chambers where the priests who are near to the LORD shall eat the most holy things. There they shall lay the most holy things, the grain offering, the sin offering and the guilt offering; for the place is holy.
- 14 "When the priests enter, then they shall not go out into the outer court from the sanctuary without laying there their garments in which they minister, for they are holy. They shall put on other garments; then they shall approach that which is for the people."
- 15 Now when he had finished measuring the inner house, he brought me out by the way of the gate which faced toward the east and measured it all around.
- 16 He measured on the east side with the measuring reed five hundred reeds by the measuring reed.

17 He measured on the north side five hundred reeds by the measuring reed.

18 On the south side he measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.

19 He turned to the west side and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.

20 He measured it on the four sides; it had a wall all around, the length five hundred and the width five hundred, to divide between the holy and the profane.

Vision of the Glory of God Filling the Temple ${\bf 43}^{\rm THEN}$ he led me to the gate, the gate facing toward the east;

- ➤ 2 and behold, the glory of the God of Israel was coming from the way of the east. And His voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth shone with His glory.
 - 3 And it was like the appearance of the vision which I saw, like the vision which I saw when He came to destroy the city. And the visions were like the vision which I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face.
 - 4 And the glory of the Lord came into the house by the way of the gate facing toward the east.
 - 5 And the Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner court; and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house.

6 Then I heard one speaking to me from the house, while a man was standing beside me.

- *7 He said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of My throne and the place of the soles of My feet, where I will dwell among the sons of Israel forever. And the house of Israel will not again defile My holy name, neither they nor their kings, by their harlotry and by the acorpses of their kings bwhen they die,
 - 8 by setting their threshold by My threshold and their door post beside My door post, with only the wall between Me and them. And they have defiled My holy name by their abominations which they have committed. So I have consumed them in My anger.
 - 9 "Now let them put away their harlotry and the acorpses of their kings far from Me; and I will dwell among them forever.
 - 10 "As for you, son of man, describe the temple to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the plan.

11 "If they are ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the design of the house, its structure, its exits, its entrances, all its designs, all its statutes, and all its laws. And write it in their sight, so that they may observe its whole design and all its statutes and do them.

12 "This is the law of the house: its entire area on the top of the mountain all around shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

The Altar of Sacrifice

13 "And these are the measurements of the altar by cubits (the cubit being a cubit and a handbreadth): the base shall be a cubit and the width a cubit, and its border on its edge round about one span; and this shall be the height of the base of the altar.

14 "From the base on the ground to the lower ledge shall be two cubits and the width one cubit; and from the smaller ledge to the larger ledge shall be four cubits and the width one cubit.

15 "The altar hearth shall be four cubits; and from the altar hearth shall extend upwards four horns.

16 "Now the altar hearth shall be twelve cubits long by twelve wide, square in its four sides.

17 "The ledge shall be fourteen cubits long by fourteen wide in its four sides, the border around it shall be half a cubit and its base shall be a cubit round about; and its steps shall face the east."

The Offerings

18 And He said to me, "Son of man, thus says the Lord God, 'These are the statutes for the altar on the day it is built, to offer burnt offerings on it and to sprinkle blood on it.

19 'You shall give to the Levitical priests who are from the offspring of Zadok, who draw near to Me to minister to Me,' declares the Lord God, 'a young bull for a sin offering.

20 'You shall take some of its blood and put it on its four horns and on the four corners of the ledge and on the border round about; thus you shall cleanse it and make atonement for it.

21 'You shall also take the bull for the sin of-

LIFE LESSONS-

> 43:2 — And behold, the glory of the God of Israel was coming from the way of the east. And His voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth shone with His glory.

Czekiel foresaw the glory of the Lord departing from the temple (Ezek. 10), yet he also anticipated the day when the Shekinah—or majestic presence—of the Lord would return in joy and triumph (43:4, 5). Today, as darkness and sinfulness increase in the world, it may be difficult to catch glimpses of His glory. Yet one day He will come to redeem His people, His radiance will illuminate all that exists, and He will reign forever and ever (Rev. 21:23–26; 22:5).

fering, and it shall be burned in the appointed place of the house, outside the sanctuary.

22 'On the second day you shall offer a male goat without blemish for a sin offering, and they shall cleanse the altar as they cleansed it with the bull.

23 'When you have finished cleansing it, you shall present a young bull without blemish and a ram without blemish from the flock.

24 'You shall present them before the LORD, and the priests shall throw salt on them, and they shall offer them up as a burnt offering to the LORD.

25 'For seven days you shall prepare daily a goat for a sin offering; also a young bull and a ram from the flock, without blemish, shall be prepared.

26 'For seven days they shall make atonement for the altar and purify it; so shall they consecrate it.

27 'When they have completed the days, it shall be that on the eighth day and onward, the priests shall offer your burnt offerings on the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you,' declares the Lord God."

Gate for the Prince

44 THEN He brought me back by the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which faces the east; and it was shut.

2 The LORD said to me, "This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, and no one shall enter by it, for the LORD God of Israel has entered by it; therefore it shall be shut.

3 "As for the prince, he shall sit in it as prince to eat bread before the Lord; he shall enter by way of the porch of the gate and shall go out by the same way."

4 Then He brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the house; and I looked, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD, and I fell on my face.

5 The LORD said to me, "Son of man, mark well, see with your eyes and hear with your ears all that I say to you concerning all the statutes of the house of the LORD and concerning all its laws; and mark well the entrance of the house, with all exits of the sanctuary.

6 "You shall say to the rebellious ones, to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord God, "Enough of all your abominations, O house of Israel,

7 when you brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My sanctuary to profane it, even My house, when you offered My food, the fat and the blood; for they made My covenant void—this in addition to all your abominations.

8 "And you have not kept charge of My holy things yourselves, but you have set foreigners to keep charge of My sanctuary."

9 'Thus says the Lord God, "No foreigner uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, of all the foreigners who are among the sons of Israel, shall enter My sanctuary.

10 "But the Levites who went far from Me when Israel went astray, who went astray from Me after their idols, shall bear the punishment for their iniquity.

11 "Yet they shall be ministers in My sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the house and ministering in the house; they shall slaughter the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them.

12 "Because they ministered to them before their idols and became a stumbling block of iniquity to the house of Israel, therefore I have sworn against them," declares the Lord God, "that they shall bear the punishment for their iniquity.

13 "And they shall not come near to Me to serve as a priest to Me, nor come near to any of My holy things, to the things that are most holy; but they will bear their shame and their abominations which they have committed 14 "Yet I will appoint them to keep charge of the house, of all its service and of all that shall be done in it.

Ordinances for the Levites

15 "But the Levitical priests, the sons of Zadok, who kept charge of My sanctuary when the sons of Israel went astray from Me, shall come near to Me to minister to Me; and they shall stand before Me to offer Me the fat and the blood," declares the Lord God.

16 "They shall enter My sanctuary; they shall come near to My table to minister to Me and keep My charge.

17 "It shall be that when they enter at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and wool shall not be on them while they are ministering in the gates of the inner court and in the house.

18 "Linen turbans shall be on their heads and linen undergarments shall be on their loins; they shall not gird themselves with anything which makes them sweat.

19 "When they go out into the outer court, into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments in which they have been ministering and lay them in the holy chambers; then they shall put on other garments so that they will not transmit holiness to the people with their garments.

20 "Also they shall not shave their heads, yet they shall not let their locks grow long; they shall only trim the hair of their heads.

21 "Nor shall any of the priests drink wine when they enter the inner court.

22 "And they shall not marry a widow or a divorced woman but shall take virgins from the offspring of the house of Israel, or a widow who is the widow of a priest.

23 "Moreover, they shall teach My people the difference between the holy and the profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.

24 "In a dispute they shall take their stand to judge; they shall judge it according to My ordinances. They shall also keep My laws and My statutes in all My appointed feasts and sanctify My sabbaths.

25 "They shall not go to a dead person to defile themselves; however, for father, for mother, for son, for daughter, for brother, or for a sister who has not had a husband, they may defile themselves.

26 "After he is cleansed, seven days shall aelapse for him.

27 "On the day that he goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering," declares the Lord God.

28 "And it shall be with regard to an inheritance for them, that I am their inheritance; and you shall give them no possession in Israel—I am their possession.

29 "They shall eat the grain offering, the sin offering and the guilt offering; and every devoted thing in Israel shall be theirs.

30 "The first of all the first fruits of every kind and every contribution of every kind, from all your contributions, shall be for the priests; you shall also give to the priest the first of your dough to cause a blessing to rest on your 31 "The priests shall not eat any bird or beast that has died a natural death or has been torn to pieces.

The LORD's Portion of the Land

 45° AND when you divide by lot the land for inheritance, you shall offer an allotment to the LORD, a holy portion of the land; the length shall be the length of 25,000 cubits, and the width shall be 20,000. It shall be holy within all its boundary round about.

"Out of this there shall be for the holy place a square round about five hundred by five hundred cubits, and fifty cubits for its open space round about.

"From this area you shall measure a length of 25,000 cubits and a width of 10,000 cubits; and in it shall be the sanctuary, the most holy place.

"It shall be the holy portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to the LORD, and it shall be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary.

"An area 25,000 cubits in length and 10,000 in width shall be for the Levites, the ministers of the house, and for their possession cities to dwell in.

"You shall give the city possession of an area 5,000 cubits wide and 25,000 cubits long, alongside the ballotment of the holy portion; it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

Portion for the Prince

"The prince shall have land on either side of the holy callotment and the property of the city, adjacent to the holy allotment and the property of the city, on the west side toward the west and on the east side toward the east, and in length comparable to one of the portions, from the west border to the east border.

"This shall be his land for a possession in Israel; so My princes shall no longer oppress My people, but they shall give the rest of the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes."

'Thus says the Lord God, "Enough, you princes of Israel; put away violence and destruction, and practice justice and righteousness. Stop your expropriations from My people," declares the Lord God.

10 "You shall have just balances, a just ephah and a just bath.

11 "The ephah and the bath shall be the same quantity, so that the bath will contain a tenth of a homer and the ephah a tenth of a homer; their standard shall be according to the homer.

12 "The shekel shall be twenty gerahs; twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels, and fifteen shekels shall be your maneh.

13 "This is the offering that you shall offer: a sixth of an ephah from a homer of wheat; a sixth of an ephah from a homer of barley;

14 and the prescribed portion of oil (namely, the bath of oil), a tenth of a bath from each kor (which is ten baths or a homer, for ten baths are a homer);

15 and one sheep from each flock of two hundred from the watering places of Israel for a grain offering, for a burnt offering and for peace offerings, to make atonement for them." declares the Lord God.

16 "All the people of the land shall give to this offering for the prince in Israel.

17 "It shall be the prince's part to provide the burnt offerings, the grain offerings and the drink offerings, at the feasts, on the new moons and on the sabbaths, at all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel; he shall provide the sin offering, the grain offering. the burnt offering and the peace offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.

18 'Thus says the Lord God, "In the first month, on the first of the month, you shall take a young bull without blemish and cleanse the sanctuary.

19 "The priest shall take some of the blood from the sin offering and put it on the door posts of the house, on the four corners of the ledge of the altar and on the posts of the gate of the inner court.

20 "Thus you shall do on the seventh day of the month for everyone who goes astray or is naive; so you shall make atonement for the house.

21 "In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you shall have the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten 22 "On that day the prince shall provide for himself and all the people of the land a bull for a sin offering.

23 "During the seven days of the feast he shall provide as a burnt offering to the LORD seven bulls and seven rams without blemish on every day of the seven days, and a male goat daily for a sin offering.

24 "He shall provide as a grain offering an ephah with a bull, an ephah with a ram and a hin of oil with an ephah.

25 "In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month, at the feast, he shall provide like this, seven days for the sin offering, the burnt offering, the grain offering and the oil."

The Prince's Offerings

 46° THUS says the Lord God, "The gate of the inner court facing east shall be shut the six working days; but it shall be opened on the sabbath day and opened on the day of the new moon.

- 2 "The prince shall enter by way of the porch of the gate from outside and stand by the post of the gate. Then the priests shall provide his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate and then go out; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.
- 3 "The people of the land shall also worship at the doorway of that gate before the LORD on the sabbaths and on the new moons.
- 4 "The burnt offering which the prince shall offer to the LORD on the sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish:
- of and the grain offering shall be an ephah with the ram, and the grain offering with the lambs as much as he is able to give, and a hin of oil with an ephah.
- 6 "On the day of the new moon he shall offer a young bull without blemish, also six lambs and a ram, which shall be without blemish.
- 7 "And he shall provide a grain offering, an ephah with the bull and an ephah with the ram, and with the lambs as much as he is able, and a hin of oil with an ephah.
- 8 "When the prince enters, he shall go in by way of the porch of the gate and go out by the same way.
- 9 "But when the people of the land come before the LORD at the appointed feasts, he who enters by way of the north gate to worship shall go out by way of the south gate. And he who enters by way of the south gate shall go out by way of the north gate. No one shall return by way of the gate by which he entered but shall go straight out.

- 10 "When they go in, the prince shall go in among them; and when they go out, he shall go out.
- 11 "At the festivals and the appointed feasts the grain offering shall be an ephah with a bull and an ephah with a ram, and with the lambs as much as one is able to give, and a hin of oil with an ephah.
- 12 "When the prince provides a freewill offering, a burnt offering, or peace offerings α s a freewill offering to the Lord, the gate facing east shall be opened for him. And he shall provide his burnt offering and his peace offerings as he does on the sabbath day. Then he shall go out, and the gate shall be shut after he goes out.
- 13 "And you shall provide a lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt offering to the LORD daily; morning by morning you shall provide it.
- 14 "Also you shall provide a grain offering with it morning by morning, a sixth of an ephah and a third of a hin of oil to moisten the fine flour, a grain offering to the LORD continually by a perpetual ordinance.

15 "Thus they shall provide the lamb, the grain offering and the oil, morning by morning, for a continual burnt offering."

16 'Thus says the Lord God, "If the prince gives a gift out of his inheritance to any of his sons, it shall belong to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance.

17 "But if he gives a gift from his inheritance to one of his servants, it shall be his until the year of liberty; then it shall return to the prince. His inheritance shall be only his sons'; it shall belong to them.

18 "The prince shall not take from the people's inheritance, thrusting them out of their possession; he shall give his sons inheritance from his own possession so that My people will not be scattered, anyone from his possession.""

The Boiling Places

- 19 Then he brought me through the entrance, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers for the priests, which faced north; and behold, there was a place at the extreme rear toward the west.
- 20 He said to me, "This is the place where the priests shall boil the guilt offering and the sin offering and where they shall bake the grain offering, in order that they may not bring them out into the outer court to transmit holiness to the people."
- 21 Then he brought me out into the outer court and led me across to the four corners of the court; and behold, in every corner of the court there was a small court.
- 22 In the four corners of the court there were enclosed courts, forty cubits long and thirty wide; these four in the corners were the same size.

23 There was a row of masonry round about in them, around the four of them, and boiling places were made under the rows round about.

24 Then he said to me, "These are the boiling places where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifices of the people."

Water from the Temple

- 47^{THEN} he brought me back to the door of the house; and behold, water was flowing from under the threshold of the house toward the east, for the house faced east. And the water was flowing down from under, from the right side of the house, from south of the altar.
- 2 He brought me out by way of the north gate and led me around on the outside to the outer gate by way of the gate that faces east. And behold, water was trickling from the south side.
- 3 When the man went out toward the east with a line in his hand, he measured a thousand cubits, and he led me through the water, water reaching the ankles.
- 4 Again he measured a thousand and led me through the water, water reaching the knees. Again he measured a thousand and led me through the water, water reaching the loins.
- 5 Again he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not ford, for the water had risen, enough water to swim in, a river that could not be forded.
- 6 He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen this?" Then he brought me back to the bank of the river.
- 7 Now when I had returned, behold, on the bank of the river there were very many trees on the one side and on the other.
- > 8 Then he said to me, "These waters go out toward the eastern region and go down into the Arabah; then they go toward the sea, being made to flow into the sea, and the waters of the sea become fresh.
 - 9 "It will come about that every living creature which swarms in every place where the river goes, will live. And there will be very many fish, for these waters go there and the others become fresh; so everything will live where the river goes.
 - 10 "And it will come about that fishermen will stand beside it; from Engedi to Eneglaim there will be a place for the spreading of nets.

Their fish will be according to their kinds, like the fish of the Great Sea, very many.

11 "But its swamps and marshes will not become fresh; they will be left for salt.

12 "By the river on its bank, on one side and on the other, will grow all kinds of trees for food. Their leaves will not wither and their fruit will not fail. They will bear every month because their water flows from the sanctuary, and their fruit will be for food and their leaves for healing."

Boundaries and Division of the Land

13 Thus says the Lord God, "This shall be the boundary by which you shall divide the land for an inheritance among the twelve tribes of Israel; Joseph shall have two portions.

14 "You shall divide it for an inheritance, each one equally with the other; for I swore to give it to your forefathers, and this land shall fall to you as an inheritance.

15 "This shall be the boundary of the land: on the north side, from the Great Sea by the way of Hethlon, to the entrance of Zedad;

16 Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazer-hatticon, which is by the border of Hauran.

17 "The boundary shall extend from the sea to Hazar-enan at the border of Damascus, and on the north toward the north is the border of Hamath. This is the north side.

- 18 "The east side, from between Hauran, Damascus, Gilead and the land of Israel, shall be the Jordan; from the north border to the eastern sea you shall measure. This is the east side.
- 19 "The south side toward the south shall extend from Tamar as far as the waters of Meribath-kadesh, to the brook of Egypt and to the Great Sea. This is the south side toward the south.
- 20 "The west side shall be the Great Sea, from the south border to a point opposite Lebo-hamath. This is the west side.
- 21 "So you shall divide this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel. 22 "You shall divide it by lot for an inheritance among yourselves and among the aliens who stay in your midst, who bring forth sons in your midst. And they shall be to you as the native-born among the sons of Israel; they shall be allotted an inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 47:8 — "These waters go . . . into the Arabah; then they go toward the sea, . . . and the waters of the sea become fresh."

The Arabah is where the Dead Sea is located, with water so salty that nothing can survive in it. Yet

God transforms it into fresh water that is flourishing and brimming with life. John, like Ezekiel, also envisions "a river of the water of life, clear as crystal, coming from the throne of God and of the Lamb" (Rev. 22:1). Both of these vibrant rivers illustrate the abundant life that God offers all those who come to Him in faith (John 4:14; 7:38; Rev. 22:17).

23 "And in the tribe with which the alien stays, there you shall give him his inheritance," declares the Lord God.

Division of the Land

- 48"NOW these are the names of the tribes: from the northern extremity, beside the way of Hethlon to Lebo-hamath, as far as Hazar-enan at the border of Damascus, toward the north beside Hamath, running from east to west, Dan, one portion.
- 2 "Beside the border of Dan, from the east side to the west side, Asher, one portion.
- 3 "Beside the border of Asher, from the east side to the west side, Naphtali, one portion.
- 4 "Beside the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the west side, Manasseh, one portion
- 5 "Beside the border of Manasseh, from the east side to the west side, Ephraim, one portion.
- 6 "Beside the border of Ephraim, from the east side to the west side, Reuben, one portion.
- 7 "Beside the border of Reuben, from the east side to the west side, Judah, one portion. 8 "And beside the border of Judah, from the east side to the west side, shall be the allotment which you shall set apart, 25,000 cubits in width, and in length like one of the portions, from the east side to the west side; and the sanctuary shall be in the middle of it. 9 "The allotment that you shall set apart to the Lord shall be 25,000 cubits in length and 10,000 in width.

Portion for the Priests

- 10 "The holy allotment shall be for these, namely for the priests, toward the north 25,000 cubits in length, toward the west 10,000 in width, toward the east 10,000 in width, and toward the south 25,000 in length; and the sanctuary of the Lord shall be in its midst.
- 11 "It shall be for the priests who are sanctified of the sons of Zadok, who have kept My charge, who did not go astray when the sons of Israel went astray as the Levites went astray.
- 12 "It shall be an allotment to them from the allotment of the land, a most holy place, by the border of the Levites.
- 13 "Alongside the border of the priests the Levites shall have 25,000 cubits in length and 10,000 in width. The whole length shall be 25,000 cubits and the width 10,000.
- 14 "Moreover, they shall not sell or exchange any of it, or alienate this choice portion of land; for it is holy to the LORD.
- 15 "The remainder, 5,000 cubits in width and 25,000 in length, shall be for common use for the city, for dwellings and for open spaces; and the city shall be in its midst.
- 16 "These shall be its measurements: the - north side 4,500 cubits, the south side 4,500 cubits, the east side 4,500 cubits, and the west side 4,500 cubits.

- 17 "The city shall have open spaces: on the north 250 cubits, on the south 250 cubits, on the east 250 cubits, and on the west 250 cubits.
- 18 "The remainder of the length alongside the holy allotment shall be 10,000 cubits toward the east and 10,000 toward the west; and it shall be alongside the holy allotment. And its produce shall be food for the workers of the city.
- 19 "The workers of the city, out of all the tribes of Israel, shall cultivate it.
- 20 "The whole allotment shall be 25,000 by 25,000 cubits; you shall set apart the holy allotment, a square, with the property of the city.

Portion for the Prince

- 21 "The remainder shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy allotment and of the property of the city; in front of the 25,000 cubits of the allotment toward the east border and westward in front of the 25,000 toward the west border, alongside the portions, it shall be for the prince. And the holy allotment and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the middle of it.
- 22 "Exclusive of the property of the Levites and the property of the city, which are in the middle of that which belongs to the prince, everything between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin shall be for the prince.

Portion for Other Tribes

- 23 "As for the rest of the tribes: from the east side to the west side, Benjamin, one portion.
- 24 "Beside the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west side, Simeon, one portion
- 25 "Beside the border of Simeon, from the east side to the west side, Issachar, one portion
- 26 "Beside the border of Issachar, from the east side to the west side, Zebulun, one portion.
- 27 "Beside the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the west side, Gad, one portion.
- 28 "And beside the border of Gad, at the south side toward the south, the border shall be from Tamar to the waters of Meribath-kadesh, to the brook of Egypt, to the Great Sea.
- 29 "This is the land which you shall divide by lot to the tribes of Israel for an inheritance, and these are their several portions," declares the Lord God.

The City Gates

30 "These are the exits of the city: on the north side, 4,500 cubits by measurement,

31 shall be the gates of the city, named for the tribes of Israel, three gates toward the north: the gate of Reuben, one; the gate of Judah, one; the gate of Levi, one.

32 "On the east side, 4,500 cubits, shall be three gates: the gate of Joseph, one; the gate of Benjamin, one; the gate of Dan, one.

33 "On the south side, 4,500 cubits by measurement, shall be three gates: the gate of Simeon, one; the gate of Issachar, one; the gate of Zebulun, one.

34 "On the west side, 4,500 cubits, shall be three gates: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; the gate of Naphtali, one.

35 "The city shall be 18,000 cubits round * about; and the name of the city from that day shall be, 'The LORD is there.'" aniel's life and ministry covered the entire seventy years of the Babylonian captivity. Deported to Babylon at approximately age sixteen and handpicked for government service, Daniel became God's prophetic mouthpiece to the Gentile and Jewish world, declaring His present and eternal purpose. Daniel, a Hebrew, became prime minister of Babylon and worked for at least three kings: Nebuchadnezzar, Belshazzar, and Darius. This inspired work quotes both Nebuchadnezzar and Darius as declaring that Daniel's God is the living and true Lord of all.

THE BOOK OF DANIEL

The name Daniye'l or Dani'el means "God is my Judge." The Greek form Daniel in the Septuagint is the basis for the Latin and English titles.

The Book of Daniel details the life and prophecies of God's trusted servant. It includes a great deal of fulfilled prophecy and is quoted by Christ (Matt. 24:15). Several of the book's twelve chapters revolve around dreams, including God-given visions involving trees, animals, beasts, and images.

While many of the stories in Daniel are retold in children's books, those accounts are too important and relevant to relegate exclusively to the pages of childhood literature. To be sure, Daniel in the lion's den; the deliverance of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego in the fiery furnace; and the disembodied hand that spells doom for the Babylonian despot are all spectacular and gripping narratives. But what stands out in all of them is that our sovereign, omnipotent God consistently and swiftly reacts to the earnest prayers of His faithful servants.

Daniel prophesied concerning the rise and fall of the Antichrist and the glorious Second Coming of Christ. The Book of Daniel is often seen as a companion to the New Testament Book of Revelation, largely because both contain a great deal of similar prophetic imagery.

Themes: God rules over the affairs of men, and no one can derail His plans or stop Him from acting. He is absolutely sovereign.

Author: Daniel.

Time: During and shortly after the seventy-year Babylonian captivity of Judah (c. 605–530 B.C.).

Structure: The first six chapters of Daniel cover the personal biographies of several key people, plus some local history. The final six chapters cover visions and prophecies concerning God's sovereign hand in the affairs of men.

As you read Daniel, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

- 9. Trusting God means looking beyond what we can see to what God sees. See Daniel 2:16; page 990
- 2. Obey God and leave all the consequences to Him. See Daniel 3:15; page 992.
- 17. We stand tallest and strongest on our knees. See Daniel 6:10, 11; page 997.
- 13. Listening to God is essential to walking with God. See Daniel 9:3; page 1004.
- 1. Our intimacy with God—His highest priority for our lives—determines the impact of our lives. See Daniel 11:32; page 1008.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S OUESTIONS

How can I become a more obedient Christian?

DAN. 1

Christian life. This means compliance to God's plan and pattern, observance of His commands, adherence to His standard, and submission to His will.

If we want to obey the Lord, we need to know what action God wants us to take, what attitude would most please Him, and what He requires of us. So how do we get ourselves to that point of obedience?

First, we have to know what God's commands are. We cannot obey what we do not know or understand—and we begin to understand God's perspective by becoming familiar with His Word.

However, simply knowing God's Word isn't enough. We must also tap into His power by submitting to the promptings of the Holy Spirit, who helps us relate His commands to our own situation and who assists us in determining the wisest course of action.

Once we decide to obey, we can expect a challenge to compromise. Since Satan doesn't want us to follow God, he will offer temptation after temptation to divert us or to weaken our

The Choice Young Men

IN the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it.

- 2 The Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, along with some of the vessels of the house of God; and he brought them to the land of Shinar, to the house of his agod, and he brought the vessels into the treasury of his god.
- 3 Then the king ordered Ashpenaz, the chief of his bofficials, to bring in some of the sons of Israel, including some of the royal family and of the nobles.
- 4 youths in whom was no defect, who were good-looking, showing intelligence in every branch of wisdom, endowed with understanding and discerning knowledge, and who had devotion to the Lord through small steps of disobedience. Yet remember, partial obedience is disobedience.

It takes commitment and courage to obey God in the face of these challenges: courage to give up what we like in order to do what He asks; courage to do things that may bring unwelcome results; courage to rearrange our schedule to match His plan; courage to love the unlovely, to forgive the seemingly unforgivable, and to give when we want to keep. How can we counter his challenge to compromise? By renewing our resolve to obey.

When Jesus neared the end of forty days of fasting and prayer following His baptism, Satan tempted Him to compromise His calling (Matt. 4:1–11). But Jesus stood up to Satan with courage, answering temptation after temptation with the Word of God. If we desire to have such resolute commitment to Him, we must love God above all else, be obedient in our actions, have a determined attitude, and be willing to suffer any consequences that result.

Whenever you feel tempted to disobey God, remember that your faithfulness and devotion to Christ are at stake. Ask yourself: "Is my understanding of Scripture increasing? Am I able to hold to God's plan without compromise? How committed am I to obeying God? If I love Him, I'll obey Him—so how much do I really love Him?"

ability for serving in the king's court; and he ordered him to teach them the 'literature and language of the Chaldeans.

- 5 The king appointed for them a daily ration from the king's choice food and from the wine which he drank, and appointed that they should be educated three years, at the end of which they were to enter the king's personal service.
- 6 Now among them from the sons of Judah were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah.
- 7 Then the commander of the officials assigned new names to them; and to Daniel he assigned the name Belteshazzar, to Hananiah Shadrach, to Mishael Meshach and to Azariah Abed-nego.

Daniel's Resolve

- ➤ 8 But Daniel made up his mind that he would not defile himself with the king's choice food or with the wine which he drank; so he sought permission from the commander of the officials that he might not defile himself.
 - 9 Now God granted Daniel favor and compassion in the sight of the commander of the officials.
 - 10 and the commander of the officials said to Daniel, "I am afraid of my lord the king, who has appointed your food and your drink; for why should he see your faces looking more haggard than the youths who are your own age? Then you would make me forfeit my head to the king."
 - 11 But Daniel said to the overseer whom the commander of the officials had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah, 12 "Please test your servants for ten days, and let us be given some vegetables to eat and water to drink.
 - 13 "Then let our appearance be observed in your presence and the appearance of the youths who are eating the king's choice food; and deal with your servants according to what you see."
 - 14 So he listened to them in this matter and tested them for ten days.
 - 15 At the end of ten days their appearance seemed better and they were fatter than all the youths who had been eating the king's choice food.
 - 16 So the overseer continued to withhold their choice food and the wine they were to drink, and kept giving them vegetables.
- > 17 As for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and intelligence in every branch of literature and wisdom; Daniel even understood all kinds of visions and dreams.
 - 18 Then at the end of the days which the king had specified for presenting them, the commander of the officials presented them before Nebuchadnezzar.
 - 19 The king talked with them, and out of them all not one was found like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah; so they entered the king's personal service.
 - 20 As for every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king consulted them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and conjurers who were in all his realm.

21 And Daniel continued until the first year of Cyrus the king.

The King's Forgotten Dream

- 2 NOW in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams; and his spirit was troubled and his sleep left him.
- 2 Then the king gave orders to call in the amagicians, the conjurers, the sorcerers and the bChaldeans to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king.
- 3 The king said to them, "I had a dream and my spirit is anxious to understand the dream."
- 4 Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in Aramaic: "O king, live forever! Tell the dream to your servants, and we will declare the interpretation."
- 5 The king replied to the Chaldeans, "The command from me is firm: if you do not make known to me the dream and its interpretation, you will be torn limb from limb and your houses will be made a rubbish heap.
- 6 "But if you declare the dream and its interpretation, you will receive from me gifts and a reward and great honor; therefore declare to me the dream and its interpretation."
- 7 They answered a second time and said, "Let the king tell the dream to his servants, and we will declare the interpretation."
- 8 The king replied, "I know for certain that you are bargaining for time, inasmuch as you have seen that the command from me is firm,
- 9 that if you do not make the dream known to me, there is only one decree for you. For you have agreed together to speak lying and corrupt words before me until the situation is changed; therefore tell me the dream, that I may know that you can declare to me its interpretation."
- 10 The Chaldeans answered the king and said, "There is not a man on earth who could declare the matter for the king, inasmuch as no great king or ruler has ever asked anything like this of any magician, conjurer or Chaldean.
- 11 "Moreover, the thing which the king demands is difficult, and there is no one else who could declare it to the king except gods,

> 1:8 — But Daniel made up his mind that he would not defile himself.

Godly obedience begins with an absolute commitment to honoring God above all else. When we "make up our mind" to put God first, then the particular temptation or challenge cannot control us.

> 1:17 — God gave them knowledge and intelligence in every branch of literature and wisdom; Daniel even understood all kinds of visions and dreams.

God has the power, wisdom, and resolve to equip you fully for whatever task or position He wants you to tackle. We will never fail in a God-given task because God failed to give us what we needed.

whose dwelling place is not with mortal flesh."

12 Because of this the king became indignant and very furious and gave orders to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

13 So the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they looked for Daniel and his friends to kill them.

14 Then Daniel replied with discretion and discernment to Arioch, the captain of the king's bodyguard, who had gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon;

15 he said to Arioch, the king's commander, "For what reason is the decree from the king so urgent?" Then Arioch informed Daniel about the matter.

➤ 16 So Daniel went in and requested of the king that he would give him time, in order that he might declare the interpretation to the king.

17 Then Daniel went to his house and informed his friends, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah, about the matter, 18 so that they might request compassion from the God of heaven concerning this mystery, so that Daniel and his friends would not be destroyed with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

The Secret Is Revealed to Daniel

19 Then the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven:

20 Daniel said.

* "Let the name of God be blessed forever and ever,

For wisdom and power belong to Him.
"It is He who changes the times and the 21 "It is He who changes the times and the epochs;

He removes kings and establishes kings; He gives wisdom to wise men And knowledge to men of understanding.

22 "It is He who reveals the profound and hidden things;

He knows what is in the darkness, And the light dwells with Him.

23 "To You, O God of my fathers, I give thanks and praise,

For You have given me wisdom and power;

Even now You have made known to me what we requested of You,

For You have made known to us the king's matter."

24 Therefore, Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon; he went and spoke to him as follows: "Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon! Take me into the king's presence, and I will declare the interpretation to the king."

25 Then Arioch hurriedly brought Daniel into the king's presence and spoke to him as follows: "I have found a man among the exiles from Judah who can make the interpretation known to the king!"

26 The king said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen and its interpretation?"

27 Daniel answered before the king and said, "As for the mystery about which the king has inquired, neither wise men, conjurers, magicians nor diviners are able to declare it to the king.

28 "However, there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries, and He has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar what will take place in the latter days. This was your dream and the visions in your mind while on your bed.

29 "As for you, O king, while on your bed your thoughts turned to what would take place in the future; and He who reveals mysteries has made known to you what will take place.

30 "But as for me, this mystery has not been revealed to me for any wisdom residing in me more than in any other living man, but for the purpose of making the interpretation known to the king, and that you may understand the thoughts of your mind.

The King's Dream

31 "You, O king, were looking and behold, there was a single great statue; that statue, which was large and of extraordinary splendor, was standing in front of you, and its appearance was awesome.

32 "The head of that statue was made of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of bronze, 33 its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of clay.

34 "You continued looking until a stone was cut out without hands, and it struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay and crushed them. 35 "Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver and the gold were crushed all at the same time and became like chaff from the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away so that not a trace of them was found.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 2:16 — So Daniel went in and requested of the king that he would give him time, in order that he might declare the interpretation to the king.

Before Daniel ever brought his urgent request to God, he demonstrated his trust that the Lord would interpret the dream for the king. Trusting God means looking beyond what we can see to what He sees.

But the stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

The Interpretation—Babylon the First Kingdom

36 "This was the dream; now we will tell its interpretation before the king.

37 "You, O king, are the king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, the strength and the glory; 38 and wherever the sons of men dwell, or the beasts of the field, or the birds of the sky, He has given them into your hand and has caused you to rule over them all. You are the head of gold.

Medo-Persia and Greece

39 "After you there will arise another kingdom inferior to you, then another third kingdom of bronze, which will rule over all the earth.

Rome

40 "Then there will be a fourth kingdom as strong as iron; inasmuch as iron crushes and shatters all things, so, like iron that breaks in pieces, it will crush and break all these in pieces.

41 "In that you saw the feet and toes, partly of potter's clay and partly of iron, it will be a divided kingdom; but it will have in it the toughness of iron, inasmuch as you saw the iron mixed with common clay.

42 "As the toes of the feet were partly of iron and partly of pottery, so some of the kingdom will be strong and part of it will be brittle.

43 "And in that you saw the iron mixed with common clay, they will combine with one another in the seed of men; but they will not adhere to one another, even as iron does not combine with pottery.

The Divine Kingdom

➤ 44 "In the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom which will never be destroyed, and that kingdom will not be left for another people; it will crush and put an end to all these kingdoms, but it will itself endure forever.

45 "Inasmuch as you saw that a stone was cut out of the mountain without hands and that it crushed the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver and the gold, the great God has made known to the king what will take place in the future; so the dream is true and its interpretation is trustworthy."

Daniel Promoted

46 Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face and did homage to Daniel, and gave orders to present to him an offering and fragrant incense.

47 The king answered Daniel and said, "Surely your God is a God of gods and a Lord of kings and a revealer of mysteries, since you have been able to reveal this mystery."

48 Then the king promoted Daniel and gave him many great gifts, and he made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon and chief prefect over all the wise men of Babylon.

49 And Daniel made request of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego over the administration of the province of Babylon, while Daniel was at the king's court.

The King's Golden Image

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king made an image of gold, the height of which was sixty cubits and its width six cubits; he set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon.

2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent word to assemble the satraps, the prefects and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates and all the rulers of the provinces to come to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

3 Then the satraps, the prefects and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates and all the rulers of the provinces were assembled for the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

4 Then the herald loudly proclaimed: "To you the command is given, O peoples, nations and men of every language,

5 that at the moment you hear the sound of the horn, flute, lyre, trigon, psaltery, bagpipe and all kinds of music, you are to fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king has set up.

6 "But whoever does not fall down and worship shall immediately be cast into the midst of a furnace of blazing fire."

7 Therefore at that time, when all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, flute, lyre, trigon, psaltery, bagpipe and all kinds of music, all the peoples, nations and men of every language fell down and worshiped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

This, of course, is the everlasting kingdom Jesus invites us to take part in when we accept Him as our Savior (Luke 1:32, 33). When we face various difficulties and challenges, it can give us great hope to remember that, whatever happens, we are intimately connected to the One who is always victorious.

SHADRACH, MESHACH, AND ABED-NEGO

Facing the Fire

DAN. 3:19-29

As Nebuchadnezzar scanned the horizon, he saw people of many nationalities bowing down to the image he had made. He had declared that when the music began, everyone was to fall in worship before the immense gold statue he had set up. As far as he could see, people were obeying.

But then the king received word that three Hebrews—Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego—refused to bow. Nebuchadnezzar flew into a rage and threatened to throw the three men into a raging furnace. They faced a decision: obey God and face the fire, or pay homage to Nebuchadnezzar and dishonor God.

They chose the former—and God delivered them.

God is just as able to deliver you from whatever fire you face. Therefore, trust Him, for He is able and willing to help you today, regardless of your struggle.

Worship of the Image Refused

8 For this reason at that time certain Chaldeans came forward and brought charges against the Jews.

9 They responded and said to Nebuchadnezzar the king: "O king, live forever!

10 "You, O king, have made a decree that every man who hears the sound of the horn, flute, lyre, trigon, psaltery, and bagpipe and all kinds of music, is to fall down and worship the golden image.

11 "But whoever does not fall down and worship shall be cast into the midst of a furnace of blazing fire.

12 "There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the administration of the province of Babylon, namely Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego. These men, O king, have disregarded you; they do not serve your gods or worship the golden image which you have set up."

13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in rage and anger gave orders to bring Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego; then these men were brought before the king.

14 Nebuchadnezzar responded and said to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the golden image that I have set up?

15 "Now if you are ready, at the moment you ≺ hear the sound of the horn, flute, lyre, trigon, psaltery and bagpipe and all kinds of music, to fall down and worship the image that I have made, very well. But if you do not worship, you will immediately be cast into the midst of a furnace of blazing fire; and what god is there who can deliver you out of my hands?"

16 Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego replied to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to give you an answer concerning this matter.

17 "If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the furnace of blazing fire; and He will deliver us out of your hand, O king.

18 "But even if He does not, let it be known to you, O king, that we are not going to serve your gods or worship the golden image that you have set up."

who were in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego in order to cast them into the furnace of blazing fire.

21 Then these men were tied up in their trousers, their coats, their caps and their other clothes, and were cast into the midst of the furnace of blazing fire.

22 For this reason, because the king's command was urgent and the furnace had been made extremely hot, the flame of the fire slew those men who carried up Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego.

23 But these three men, Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, fell into the midst of the furnace of blazing fire still tied up.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astounded and stood up in haste; he said to his high officials, "Was it not three men we cast bound into the midst of the fire?" They replied to the king, "Certainly, O king."

25 He said, "Look! I see four men loosed and walking about in the midst of the fire without harm, and the appearance of the fourth is like a son of the gods!"

- 26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the door of the furnace of blazing fire; he responded and said, "Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, come out, you servants of the Most High God, and come here!" Then Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego came out of the midst of the fire.
- 27 The satraps, the prefects, the governors and the king's high officials gathered around and saw in regard to these men that the fire had no effect on the bodies of these men nor was the hair of their head singed, nor were their trousers damaged, nor had the smell of fire even come upon them.
- ≥ 28 Nebuchadnezzar responded and said, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, who has sent His angel and delivered His servants who put their trust in Him, violating the king's command, and yielded up their bodies so as not to serve or worship any god except their own God.
 - 29 "Therefore I make a decree that any people, nation or tongue that speaks anything offensive against the God of Shadrach. Meshach and Abed-nego shall be torn limb from limb and their houses reduced to a rubbish heap, inasmuch as there is no other god who is able to deliver in this way."

30 Then the king caused Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego to prosper in the province of Babylon.

"Is this not Babylon the great, which I myself have built as a royal residence by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty?" he congratulated himself (Dan. 4:30). Yet in a flash, Nebuchadnezzar lost his kingdom and lived like a wild beast (vv. 31–33). It was only after a period of severe humbling that he came to his senses: "Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise, exalt and honor the King of heaven . . . and He is able to humble those who walk in pride" (v. 37).

Od opposes human pride wherever He finds it, and He always will (ls. 13:11; James 4:6). Yet pride must be exposed for what it is before we can be freed from its hold. Just as He did with Nebuchadnezzar, sometimes the Lord will let us hit rock bottom so that we'll realize that every good thing we have is from Him and not because of our own talents or efforts. King Nebuchadnezzar found that out the hard way. Although the prophet Daniel warned the king that he needed to repent of his pride and give the glory to God, Nebuchadnezzar refused to do it until the Lord intervened in his circumstances.

6 Then the king's face grew pale and his thoughts alarmed him, and his hip joints went slack and his knees began knocking together.

7 The king called aloud to bring in the conjurers, the Chaldeans and the diviners. The king spoke and said to the wise men of Babylon, "Any man who can read this inscription and explain its interpretation to me shall be clothed with purple and have a necklace of gold around his neck, and have authority as third ruler in the kingdom."

8 Then all the king's wise men came in, but they could not read the inscription or make known its interpretation to the king.

9 Then King Belshazzar was greatly alarmed, his face grew even paler, and his nobles were perplexed.

12 "This was because an extraordinary spirit, knowledge and insight, interpretation of dreams, explanation of enigmas and solving of difficult problems were found in this Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Let Daniel now be summoned and he will declare the interpretation."

Now if you are able to read the inscription and make its interpretation known to me, you will be clothed with purple and wear a necklace of gold around your neck, and you will have authority as the third ruler in the kingdom."

A Man of Prayer

DAN, 6

The story of Daniel in the lions' den features such high drama that it is easy to overlook the reason why he ended up among hungry beasts.

Daniel was thrown to the lions because of his daily habit of prayer. Ordinarily, his faithfulness would have caused him no problem, but Daniel's enemies decided to use his godliness against him by making it a crime to pray to anyone except King Darius (Dan. 6:7).

When Daniel learned of the offensive edict, he went home and prayed—right in front of his chamber windows, as always, where his enemies were certain to see him (Dan. 6:10). Daniel refused to alter his commitment to God in order to protect himself. He could have prayed in a windowless room. But Daniel knew that the eyes of more than his enemies were upon him—the Lord was watching, as were His frightened, exiled people. And because Daniel remained faithful, God delivered him from the lions (vv. 16–27).

Thy could the satraps and commissioners find no ground of accusation against Daniel? Because he was an upright, righteous man who loved God and obeyed Him wholeheartedly. The Lord will never lead us to do wrong. On the contrary, He will always lead us in holiness and truth, working through us to show His love to others. As Romans 13:10 instructs, "Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfillment of the law." His enemies could find nothing else, so they tried to use his devotion to God against him—never a wise decision (Dan. 6:24).

LIFE PRINCIPLE 17

WE STAND TALLEST AND STRONGEST ON OUR KNEES.

DAN. 6:10, 11

n older pastor got into the habit of challenging his congregation by quoting Jeremiah 33:3: "Call to Me and I will answer you, and I will tell you great and mighty things, which you do not know." Leveling his eyes at those gathered before him, he would say, "Try it. It works!"

This is a simple thought, but it carries a tremendous truth: God wants us to call to Him. In fact, many times He allows disappointments and difficulties into our lives so that we will draw closer to Him in intimate communion.

Prayer is a very powerful tool for believers—through it the Lord blesses us and frees us from bondage. In prayer we profess our need of Christ and ask for His solution to our problems. We also learn to worship Him and grow spiritually in His loving presence.

As we spend time with Him, God lovingly teaches us how to communicate with Him and listen for His still, small voice. Through it all, we grow deeper in our relationship with Him.

Several things are essential to establishing a powerful prayer life:

1. Choose a definite time to spend with the Lord in prayer. Setting a time, whether early in the morning or late in the evening, is not the issue. Rather, consistency is the key. Ask God to show you the perfect time when you can be alone with Him.

- 2. Select a place where you can be alone with Him. Although you may be limited as to where you can go to have time alone with the Lord, He will provide the perfect place for you to seek Him.
- 3. Make the commitment to pray daily. This alone tells God that your heart is open to Him and that you want to learn more about Him and what He has planned for you.
- 4. Keep a journal that contains your requests and how God answers your prayers as a continuing testimony of God's work in your life. Remember to write down the specific verses that He applies to your situation and the promises He gives you from His Word.

God honors the prayers of His people. If you go to Him—seeking Him earnestly and obeying His commands—He will provide all you need. So don't worry about what to say; the Holy Spirit will show you. At times, tears are just as effective as words, and God is sensitive to every tear you cry. Just as He understands the hurt you feel, so He knows how to deal with and guide you through any trial you must endure.

Therefore, whenever a trial strikes, turn to Him immediately in prayer. His presence will fill you with hope, and He will give you the strength and wisdom you need to face the situation with confidence. Throughout your lifetime, you may face many difficult situations. Some will be very exciting, while others may feel as though they will break your heart. No matter what challenges come, you can be sure God is in the difficulty with you. He enjoys seeing you rejoice over His blessings, but He also mourns with you when tragedy strikes.

Always remember that God is bigger than any problem you face, and the distance between your success and failure or your victory and defeat is the distance between your knees and the floor as you kneel before your wondrous Lord and Savior in surrendered prayer. You are never taller or stronger than while on your knees! Why? Because He knows the way before you, and He can guide you through the difficulty if you will trust Him. And when you submit to Him in obedience, He applies His unlimited resources, wisdom, and power to help you.

My challenge to you is simple: whatever you're facing, trust God with it. Ask Him to take away the anxiety, fear, and feelings of frustration. Have faith in the Lord and rest in His care. You will never feel more accepted or secure than you do in the presence of God. Victory awaits, so come to Him.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

Why does God allow us to face tests and trials?

DAN. 6

We live in a fallen world—all of us will face times of suffering and heartache. Sometimes God keeps us from certain tests and trials, but at other times He allows them, knowing that the testing strengthens and perfects our faith in Him.

God wants us to have an unshakable faith—and if trials, tests, and suffering are what it takes for us to have it, then He'll allow them. Even the strongest faith in God does not mean we will be spared life's trials.

Daniel's faith was severely tested, but he emerged victorious. We're told that because Daniel was very successful and favored by King Darius, the other commissioners and satraps became jealous and decided to set a trap for him. Daniel 6:7 reports that the conspirators told the king, "All the commissioners of the kingdom . . . have consulted together that the king should establish a statute and enforce an injunction that anyone who makes a petition to any god or man besides you, O king, for thirty days, shall be cast into the lions' den."

As they knew he would, Daniel refused to compromise his love for God by worshiping King Darius, even though he understood that his obedience to the Lord would jeopardize his life (Dan. 6:16). He chose the path of other faithful believers who "did not love their life even when faced with death" (Rev. 12:11). And the conspirators caught him in the act of praying to the Lord and condemned him to the lions' den (Dan. 6:10–13).

was signed, he entered his house (now in his roof chamber he had windows open toward Jerusalem); and he continued kneeling on his knees three times a day, praying and giving thanks before his God, as he had been doing previously.

Many of God's greatest saints—those in the Bible and others throughout Christian history—faced varying degrees of suffering. All of them, however, developed an unshakable faith that provided the inner strength they needed to face every difficulty with hope and blessed assurance.

Do you have an unshakable faith? Are you in an extreme place of testing?

If so, do not be afraid. God has planned this very moment, and He will teach you how to trust Him perfectly.

A person with an unshakable faith never judges God's faithfulness by his or her feelings. Instead, he or she believes and trusts the Lord through every season of life, knowing that in the end, God's plan will emerge as perfect.

At times in your walk with God, He may require you to do something that, from a human perspective, seems unreasonable. From His viewpoint, however, it will be in perfect alignment with His Word and will turn out for your ultimate benefit.

Therefore, open your heart to His love and give Him the opportunity to prove His faithfulness. That is what Daniel did, and God made it possible for him to walk away from the lions' den with a song of victory on his lips (Dan. 6:19–28).

What is your level of faith in God? Do you believe that He will do exactly what He has promised? Are you convinced that He has already moved heaven and earth for you, and all you have to do is move toward His blessing?

the king about the king's injunction, "Did you not sign an injunction that any man who makes a petition to any god or man besides you, O king, for thirty days, is to be cast into the lions' den?" The king replied, "The statement is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which may not be revoked."

13 Then they answered and spoke before the king, "Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah, pays no attention to you, O king, or to the injunction which you signed, but keeps making his petition three times a day."

14 Then, as soon as the king heard this statement, he was deeply distressed and set his mind on delivering Daniel; and even until sunset he kept exerting himself to rescue him.

15 Then these men came by agreement to the king and said to the king, "Recognize, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians that no injunction or statute which the king establishes may be changed."

Daniel in the Lions' Den

16 Then the king gave orders, and Daniel was brought in and cast into the lions' den.

* The king spoke and said to Daniel, "Your God whom you constantly serve will Himself deliver you."

17 A stone was brought and laid over the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the signet rings of his nobles, so that nothing would be changed in regard to Daniel.

18 Then the king went off to his palace and spent the night fasting, and no entertainment was brought before him; and his sleep fled from him.

19 Then the king arose at dawn, at the break of day, and went in haste to the lions' den.

- 20 When he had come near the den to Daniel, he cried out with a troubled voice. The king spoke and said to Daniel, "Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you constantly serve, been able to deliver you from the lions?"
- 21 Then Daniel spoke to the king, "O king, live forever!
- 22 "My God sent His angel and shut the lions' mouths and they have not harmed me, inasmuch as I was found innocent before Him; and also toward you, O king, I have committed no crime."
- 23 Then the king was very pleased and gave orders for Daniel to be taken up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den and no injury whatever was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.
- 24 The king then gave orders, and they brought those men who had maliciously accused Daniel, and they cast them, their children and their wives into the lions' den; and they had not reached the bottom of the den before the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones.
- 25 Then Darius the king wrote to all the peoples, nations and men of every language who were living in all the land: "May your peace abound!

26 "I make a decree that in all the dominion of my kingdom men are to fear and tremble before the God of Daniel;

For He is the living God and enduring forever.

And His kingdom is one which will not be destroyed,

And His dominion will be forever.

27 "He delivers and rescues and performs signs and wonders

In heaven and on earth,

Who has also delivered Daniel from the power of the lions."

28 So this Daniel enjoyed success in the \prec reign of Darius and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Vision of the Four Beasts

7IN the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel saw a dream and visions in his mind as he lay on his bed; then he wrote the dream down and related the following summary of it.

2 Daniel said, "I was looking in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of heaven were stirring up the great sea.

3 "And four great beasts were coming up from the sea, different from one another.

4 "The first was like a lion and had the wings of an eagle. I kept looking until its wings were plucked, and it was lifted up from the ground and made to stand on two feet like a man; a human mind also was given to it.

5 "And behold, another beast, a second one, resembling a bear. And it was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth; and thus they said to it, 'Arise, devour much meat!'

6 "After this I kept looking, and behold, another one, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird; the beast also had four heads, and dominion was given to it.

7 "After this I kept looking in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrifying and extremely strong; and it had large iron teeth. It devoured and crushed and trampled down the remainder with its feet; and it was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns.

8 "While I was contemplating the horns, behold, another horn, a little one, came up among them, and three of the first horns were pulled out by the roots before it; and behold, this horn possessed eyes like the eyes of a man and a mouth uttering great boasts.

His throne was ablaze with flames, Its wheels were a burning fire.

10 "A river of fire was flowing

And coming out from before Him; Thousands upon thousands were attending Him,

And myriads upon myriads were standing before Him;

The court sat,

And the books were opened.

11 "Then I kept looking because of the sound of the boastful words which the horn was speaking; I kept looking until the beast was slain, and its body was destroyed and given to the burning fire.

12 "As for the rest of the beasts, their dominion was taken away, but an extension of life was granted to them for an appointed period of time.

The Son of Man Presented

➤ 13 "I kept looking in the night visions, And behold, with the clouds of heaven One like a Son of Man was coming, And He came up to the Ancient of Days

And was presented before Him.

14 "And to Him was given dominion, Glory and a kingdom,

That all the peoples, nations and men of every language

The Vision Interpreted

15 "As for me, Daniel, my spirit was distressed within me, and the visions in my mind kept alarming me.

16 "I approached one of those who were standing by and began asking him the exact meaning of all this. So he told me and made known to me the interpretation of these things:

17 'These great beasts, which are four in number, are four kings who will arise from the earth.

18 'But the saints of the Highest One will receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever, for all ages to come.'

19 "Then I desired to know the exact meaning of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, exceedingly dreadful, with its teeth of iron and its claws of bronze, and which devoured, crushed and trampled down the remainder with its feet, 20 and the meaning of the ten horns that were on its head and the other horn which came up, and before which three of them fell, namely, that horn which had eyes and a mouth uttering great boasts and which was larger in appearance than its associates.

21 "I kept looking, and that horn was waging war with the saints and overpowering them

22 until the Ancient of Days came and judgment was passed in favor of the saints of the Highest One, and the time arrived when the saints took possession of the kingdom.

23 "Thus he said: 'The fourth beast will be a fourth kingdom on the earth, which will be different from all the other kingdoms and will devour the whole earth and tread it down and crush it.

24 'As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom ten kings will arise; and another will arise after them, and he will be different from the previous ones and will subdue three kings.

25 'He will speak out against the Most High ≼ and wear down the saints of the Highest One, and he will intend to make alterations in times and in law; and they will be given into his hand for a time, times, and half a time. 26 'But the court will sit for judgment, and his dominion will be taken away, annihilated and destroyed forever.

27 'Then the sovereignty, the dominion and the greatness of all the kingdoms under the whole heaven will be given to the people of the saints of the Highest One; His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom, and all the dominions will serve and obey Him.'

28 "At this point the revelation ended. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts were greatly alarming me and my face grew pale, but I kept the matter to myself."

in the province of Elam; and I looked in the vision and I myself was beside the Ulai Canal.

- 3 Then I lifted my eyes and looked, and behold, a ram which had two horns was standing in front of the canal. Now the two horns were long, but one was longer than the other, with the longer one coming up last.
- 4 I saw the ram butting westward, northward, and southward, and no other beasts could stand before him nor was there anyone to rescue from his power, but he did as he pleased and magnified himself.
- 5 While I was observing, behold, a male goat was coming from the west over the surface of the whole earth without touching the ground; and the goat had a conspicuous horn between his eyes.
- 6 He came up to the ram that had the two horns, which I had seen standing in front of the canal, and rushed at him in his mighty wrath.
- 7 I saw him come beside the ram, and he was enraged at him; and he struck the ram and shattered his two horns, and the ram had no strength to withstand him. So he hurled him to the ground and trampled on him, and there was none to rescue the ram from his power.
- 8 Then the male goat magnified himself exceedingly. But as soon as he was mighty, the large horn was broken; and in its place there came up four conspicuous horns toward the four winds of heaven.

The Little Horn

- 9 Out of one of them came forth a rather small horn which grew exceedingly great toward the south, toward the east, and toward the ^aBeautiful Land.
- 10 It grew up to the host of heaven and caused some of the host and some of the stars to fall to the earth, and it trampled them down.
- 11 It even magnified itself to be equal with the Commander of the host; and it removed the regular sacrifice from Him, and the place of His sanctuary was thrown down.
- 12 And on account of transgression the host will be given over to the horn along with the regular sacrifice; and it will fling truth to the ground and perform its will and prosper.
- 13 Then I heard a holy one speaking, and another holy one said to that particular one who was speaking, "How long will the vision about the regular sacrifice apply, while the transgression causes horror, so as to allow both the holy place and the host to be trampled?"

14 He said to me, "For 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the holy place will be properly restored."

Interpretation of the Vision

- 17 So he came near to where I was standing, and when he came I was frightened and fell on my face; but he said to me, "Son of man, understand that the vision pertains to the time of the end."
- 18 Now while he was talking with me, I sank into a deep sleep with my face to the ground; but he touched me and made me stand upright.
- 19 He said, "Behold, I am going to let you know what will occur at the final period of the indignation, for it pertains to the appointed time of the end.

Daniel's Prayer for His People

9IN the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of Median descent, who was made king over the kingdom of the Chaldeans—

- 2 in the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, observed in the books the number of the years which was revealed as the word of the LORD to Jeremiah the prophet for the completion of the desolations of Jerusalem, namely, seventy years.
- ⇒ 3 So I gave my attention to the Lord God to seek Him by prayer and supplications, with fasting, sackcloth and ashes.
- 4 I prayed to the LORD my God and confessed and said, "Alas, O Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps His covenant and lovingkindness for those who love Him and keep His commandments,
- 5 we have sinned, committed iniquity, acted wickedly and rebelled, even turning aside from Your commandments and ordinances.
- 6 "Moreover, we have not listened to Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your name to our kings, our princes, our fathers and all the people of the land.
- 7 "Righteousness belongs to You, O Lord, but to us open shame, as it is this day—to the men of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem and all Israel, those who are nearby and those who are far away in all the countries to which You have driven them, because of their unfaithful deeds which they have committed against You.

- 8 "Open shame belongs to us, O Lord, to our kings, our princes and our fathers, because we have sinned against You.
- 9 "To the Lord our God belong compassion and forgiveness, for we have rebelled against Him:
- 10 nor have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in His teachings which He set before us through His servants the prophets.
- 11 "Indeed all Israel has transgressed Your law and turned aside, not obeying Your voice; so the curse has been poured out on us, along with the oath which is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, for we have sinned against Him.
- 12 "Thus He has confirmed His words which He had spoken against us and against our rulers who ruled us, to bring on us great calamity; for under the whole heaven there has not been done anything like what was done to Jerusalem.
- 13 "As it is written in the law of Moses, all this calamity has come on us; yet we have not sought the favor of the Lord our God by turning from our iniquity and giving attention to Your truth.
- 14 "Therefore the LORD has kept the calamity in store and brought it on us; for the LORD our God is righteous with respect to all His deeds which He has done, but we have not obeyed His voice.
- 15 "And now, O Lord our God, who have brought Your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand and have made a name for Yourself, as it is this day—we have sinned, we have been wicked.
- 16 "O Lord, in accordance with all Your righteous acts, let now Your anger and Your wrath turn away from Your city Jerusalem, Your holy mountain; for because of our sins and the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and Your people have become a reproach to all those around us
- 17 "So now, our God, listen to the prayer of Your servant and to his supplications, and for Your sake, O Lord, let Your face shine on Your desolate sanctuary.
- 18 "O my God, incline Your ear and hear! ≺ Open Your eyes and see our desolations and the city which is called by Your name; for we are not presenting our supplications before You on account of any merits of our own, but on account of Your great compassion.

> 9:3 — So I gave my attention to the Lord God to seek Him by prayer and supplications, with fasting, sackcloth and ashes.

It had been nearly 70 years since Daniel was carried off to Babylon. As he read Jeremiah's prophecy, he realized the time of captivity was almost complete (Jer. 25:11, 12; 29:10). So in one of the greatest prayers in the Bible, he sought guidance from the Lord through fasting and prayer. As a result of his sincere devotion, the Lord sent Gabriel to give him understanding about how God would restore Jerusalem (Dan. 9:20–27).

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

How can I learn to pray effectively?

DAN. 9:1-23

Janiel demonstrates how to pray with both power and confidence. When he discovered that Jeremiah had prophesied that the Babylonian captivity would last seventy years and was almost over (Dan. 9:2), he fell to his knees and began interceding for his people (vv. 4–19).

In Daniel 9, we see a great example of what prayer should be. Its focus is on almighty God and His character. It includes sincere confession, unselfishness, and dependence on the Word of God.

Such prayer has great power. In Daniel's case, God sent the angel Gabriel with His answer even before the prophet had completed his supplication.

To seek God during your own hardship, assume the humble stance that Daniel did—go to your knees. Model your prayer after Daniel's. As he said in Daniel 11:32, "The people who know their God will display strength and take action."

The Bible tells us, "The effective prayer of a righteous man can accomplish much" (James 5:16). Effective—that is exactly what we want our prayers to be, especially in a crisis. When 19 "O Lord, hear! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, listen and take action! For Your own sake, O my God, do not delay, because Your city and Your people are called by Your name."

Gabriel Brings an Answer

20 Now while I was speaking and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God in behalf of the holy mountain of my God, we are obedient to God and are seeking Him in sincerity and truth, we can feel confident that He will answer our earnest prayers. What are His requirements for us?

Requirement 1: Fervent prayer.

Fervent prayers are filled with passion and the acknowledgement of personal helplessness. They also have a narrow focus on some specific difficulty. Scripture calls this type of prayer "laboring earnestly" (Col. 4:12).

Requirement 2: Righteousness.

At salvation, we become rightly related to God as His children. He permanently seals us with the Holy Spirit and declares us righteous forever because of our position in Jesus Christ. But the Bible also uses the word "righteous" to describe a believer's conduct. This means that to be called a "righteous person," we must be found in Christ (Phil. 3:9) and make it a habit to obey God (Eph. 4:1; Col. 1:10). This also means that as we pray, we listen intently and submit ourselves wholeheartedly to Him—confessing our sin and obeying all He tells us to do. If we willingly and knowingly engage in sin, then we do not live righteously and our prayers will lack power.

When the Lord hears the impassioned prayer of a righteous person whose life reflects God's ways, Scripture promises that the Holy Spirit will begin His divine work (Rom. 8:26, 27; 1 Cor. 2:12, 13). God responds with great power to the prayers of even one righteous person. Friend, that person can be you!

Daniel Is Terrified by a Vision

 $10^{\rm IN}$ the third year of Cyrus king of Persia message was revealed to Daniel, who was named Belteshazzar; and the message was true and one of great conflict, but he understood the message and had an understanding of the vision.

2 In those days, I, Daniel, had been mourning for three entire weeks.

3 I did not eat any tasty food, nor did meat or wine enter my mouth, nor did I use any ointment at all until the entire three weeks were completed.

4 On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, while I was by the bank of the great river, that is, the Tigris,

I lifted my eyes and looked, and behold, there was a certain man dressed in linen, whose waist was girded with a belt of pure gold of Uphaz.

6 His body also was like beryl, his face had the appearance of lightning, his eyes were like flaming torches, his arms and feet like the gleam of polished bronze, and the sound of his words like the sound of a tumult.

7 Now I, Daniel, alone saw the vision, while < the men who were with me did not see the vision; nevertheless, a great dread fell on them, and they ran away to hide themselves.

8 So I was left alone and saw this great vision; yet no strength was left in me, for my natural color turned to a deathly pallor, and I retained no strength.

9 But I heard the sound of his words; and as soon as I heard the sound of his words, I fell into a deep sleep on my face, with my face to the ground.

Daniel Comforted

10 Then behold, a hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees.

11 He said to me, "O Daniel, man of high esteem, understand the words that I am about to tell you and stand upright, for I have now been sent to you." And when he had spoken this word to me, I stood up trembling.

12 Then he said to me, "Do not be afraid, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart on understanding this and on humbling yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come in response to your words.

13 "But the prince of the kingdom of Persia ≺ was withstanding me for twenty-one days; then behold, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I had been left there with the kings of Persia.

14 "Now I have come to give you an understanding of what will happen to your people in the latter days, for the vision pertains to the days yet future."

15 When he had spoken to me according to these words, I turned my face toward the ground and became speechless.

> 9:26 — "Then after the sixty-two weeks the Messiah will be cut off."

Only one figure in history fits the exact time frame of this prophecy: Jesus of Nazareth. He died—was "cut off"—for our sins, not for His own sins, since He never committed any. "He was pierced through for our transgressions" (ls. 53:5).

> 10:7 — Now I, Daniel, alone saw the vision, while the men who were with me did not see the vision; nevertheless, a great dread fell on them.

The Lord told Moses, "No man can see Me and live!" (Ex. 33:20). Paul said God "dwells in unap-proachable light, whom no man has seen or can see" (1 Tim. 6:16). And yet even God's invisible presence makes men tremble.

> 10:13 — "But the prince of the kingdom of Persia was withstanding me for twenty-one days."

e get a small glimpse here of the spiritual realities of unseen warfare that takes place around the prayers of God's people. Although our prayers are heard at once in heaven (Dan. 10:12), God's answer may delay in coming for reasons that are unknown and imperceptible to us—yet they are still coming (2 Cor. 4:18; Heb 11:1). Therefore, as Jesus said, we "ought to pray and not to lose heart" (Luke 18:1).

16 And behold, one who resembled a human being was touching my lips; then I opened my mouth and spoke and said to him who was standing before me, "O my lord, as a result of the vision anguish has come upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 "For how can such a servant of my lord talk with such as my lord? As for me, there remains just now no strength in me, nor has any breath been left in me."

18 Then this one with human appearance touched me again and strengthened me.

19 He said, "O man of high esteem, do not be afraid. Peace be with you; take courage and be courageous!" Now as soon as he spoke to me, I received strength and said, "May my lord speak, for you have strengthened me."

20 Then he said, "Do you understand why I came to you? But I shall now return to fight against the prince of Persia; so I am going forth, and behold, the prince of Greece is about to come.

21 "However, I will tell you what is inscribed in the writing of truth. Yet there is no one who stands firmly with me against these forces except Michael your prince.

2 "And now I will tell you the truth. Behold, three more kings are going to arise in Persia. Then a fourth will gain far more riches than all of them; as soon as he becomes strong through his riches, he will arouse the whole empire against the realm of Greece.

3 "And a mighty king will arise, and he will rule with great authority and do as he pleases.

- 4 "But as soon as he has arisen, his kingdom will be broken up and parceled out toward the four points of the compass, though not to his own descendants, nor according to his authority which he wielded, for his sovereignty will be uprooted and given to others besides them.
- 5 "Then the king of the South will grow strong, along with one of his princes who will gain ascendancy over him and obtain dominion; his domain will be a great dominion indeed.
- 6 "After some years they will form an alliance, and the daughter of the king of the South will come to the king of the North to carry out a peaceful arrangement. But she will not retain her position of power, nor will he remain with his power, but she will be given up, along with those who brought her in and the one who sired her as well as he who supported her in those times.
- 7 ^aBut one of the descendants of her line will arise in his place, and he will come against their army and enter the fortress of the king of the North, and he will deal with them and display great strength.

8 "Also their gods with their metal images and their precious vessels of silver and gold he will take into captivity to Egypt, and he on his part will refrain from attacking the king of the North for some years.

9 "Then the latter will enter the realm of the king of the South, but will return to his own land

10 "His sons will mobilize and assemble a multitude of great forces; and one of them will keep on coming and overflow and pass through, that he may again wage war up to his very fortress.

11 "The king of the South will be enraged and go forth and fight with the king of the North. Then the latter will raise a great multitude, but that multitude will be given into the hand of the former.

12 "When the multitude is carried away, his heart will be lifted up, and he will cause tens of thousands to fall; yet he will not prevail.

13 "For the king of the North will again raise a greater multitude than the former, and after an interval of some years he will press on with a great army and much equipment.

14 "Now in those times many will rise up against the king of the South; the violent ones among your people will also lift themselves up in order to fulfill the vision, but they will fall down.

15 "Then the king of the North will come, cast up a siege ramp and capture a well-fortified city; and the forces of the South will not stand their ground, not even their choicest troops, for there will be no strength to make a stand. 16 "But he who comes against him will do as he pleases, and no one will be able to withstand him; he will also stay for a time in the Beautiful Land, with destruction in his hand.

17 "He will set his face to come with the power of his whole kingdom, bringing with him a proposal of peace which he will put into effect; he will also give him the daughter of women to ruin it. But she will not take a stand for him or be on his side.

18 "Then he will turn his face to the coastlands and capture many. But a commander will put a stop to his scorn against him; moreover, he will repay him for his scorn.

19 "So he will turn his face toward the fortresses of his own land, but he will stumble and fall and be found no more.

20 "Then in his place one will arise who will send an oppressor through the ^aJewel of his kingdom; yet within a few days he will be shattered, though not in anger nor in battle.

21 "In his place a despicable person will arise, on whom the honor of kingship has not been conferred, but he will come in a time of tranquility and seize the kingdom by intrigue. 22 "The overflowing forces will be flooded away before him and shattered, and also the prince of the covenant.

23 "After an alliance is made with him he will practice deception, and he will go up and gain power with a small force of people.

24 "In a time of tranquility he will enter the richest parts of the realm, and he will accomplish what his fathers never did, nor his ancestors; he will distribute plunder, booty and possessions among them, and he will devise his schemes against strongholds, but only for a time.

25 "He will stir up his strength and courage against the king of the South with a large army; so the king of the South will mobilize an extremely large and mighty army for war; but he will not stand, for schemes will be devised against him.

26 "Those who eat his choice food will destroy him, and his army will overflow, but many will fall down slain.

27 "As for both kings, their hearts will be intent on evil, and they will speak lies to each other at the same table; but it will not succeed, for the end is still to come at the appointed time.

28 "Then he will return to his land with much plunder; but his heart will be set against the holy covenant, and he will take action and then return to his own land.

29 "At the appointed time he will return and come into the South, but this last time it will not turn out the way it did before.

30 "For ships of Kittim will come against him; therefore he will be disheartened and will return and become enraged at the holy covenant and take action; so he will come back and show regard for those who forsake the holy covenant.

31 "Forces from him will arise, desecrate the sanctuary fortress, and do away with the regular sacrifice. And they will set up the abomination of desolation.

➤ 32 "By smooth words he will turn to godlessness those who act wickedly toward the covenant, but the people who know their God will display strength and take action.

33 "Those who have insight among the people will give understanding to the many; yet they will fall by sword and by flame, by captivity and by plunder for many days.

34 "Now when they fall they will be granted a little help, and many will join with them in hypocrisy.

35 "Some of those who have insight will fall, *\times in order to refine, purge and make them pure until the end time; because it is still to come at the appointed time.

36 "Then the king will do as he pleases, and he will exalt and magnify himself above every god and will speak monstrous things against the God of gods; and he will prosper until the indignation is finished, for that which is decreed will be done.

37 "He will show no regard for the gods of his ≤ fathers or for the desire of women, nor will he show regard for any other god; for he will magnify himself above them all.

38 "But instead he will honor a god of fortresses, a god whom his fathers did not know; he will honor him with gold, silver, costly stones and treasures.

39 "He will take action against the strongest of fortresses with the help of a foreign god; he will give great honor to those who acknowledge him and will cause them to rule over the many, and will parcel out land for a price.

40 "At the end time the king of the South will collide with him, and the king of the North will storm against him with chariots, with horsemen and with many ships; and he will enter countries, overflow them and pass through.

41 "He will also enter the Beautiful Land, and many countries will fall; but these will be rescued out of his hand: Edom, Moab and the foremost of the sons of Ammon.

42 "Then he will stretch out his hand against other countries, and the land of Egypt will not escape.

43 "But he will gain control over the hidden treasures of gold and silver and over all the precious things of Egypt; and Libyans and Ethiopians will follow at his heels.

44 "But rumors from the East and from the North will disturb him, and he will go forth with great wrath to destroy and annihilate many.

Intimacy with God is His highest priority for us. The more we know and love God, the better we will serve Him—not in our own power, but in His. It will always be important to stand for God's truth and do His will whole-heartedly, but it will be especially imperative as the last days approach. We cannot be swayed or intimidated by evil; rather, we must stay close to God and serve Him with utmost obedience and love.

> 11:37 — "He will magnify himself above them all."

ost conservative scholars believe this verse describes the Antichrist, "who opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, displaying himself as being God" (2 Thess. 2:4).

ny hardships that God asks us to endure for His sake will one day seem like nothing in comparison to His reward (Rom. 8:18). However, if we fail to believe in Christ or choose anything in His place, a terrible judgment awaits (Rev. 20:11–15). As Jesus said in Mark 8:35, "Whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and the gospel's will save it."

> 12:8 — As for me, I heard but could not understand.

Tre there some Bible passages that confuse you? Take heart. Even the great prophet Daniel couldn't understand some of the visions given to Him, because they were for a time yet to come. Yet God will help us understand whatever we need to know through His Spirit and in His time (1 Cor. 2:10–13).

he prophet Hosea ministered to the northern kingdom of Israel before its destruction and deportation by the vicious Assyrians. During his time, the nation appeared to enjoy a season of prosperity and growth. But inwardly, moral corruption and spiritual adultery had thoroughly infected the people.

When God instructed Hosea to marry a promiscuous woman named Gomer, the prophet found his domestic life to be a tragic dramatization of the unfaithfulness of God's people. The Lord even had the prophet name one of his children Lo-ruhamah ("no mercy") and another child Lo-ammi ("not My people") to help the people of Israel realize how far they had fallen away from their God.

During his half century of prophetic ministry, Hosea repeatedly echoed a threefold message: God abhors the sins of His people, judgment is certain, but God's loyal love stands firm. Hosea insisted that while God would certainly punish His people for their persistent and blatant sins—prophecies that God fulfilled to the letter during the Assyrian invasion of 722 B.C.—He would never completely reject His people. A time would come when He would just as certainly draw them back to their land and give them a heart to obey Him joyfully, so He could bless them abundantly.

The names Hosea, Joshua, and Jesus all come from the same Hebrew root word. While the word hoshea means "salvation," the names Joshua and Jesus include an additional idea: "Yahweh is salvation." As God's messenger, Hosea told the straying people that if they would turn from idolatry back to God, He would certainly save them.

The Book of Hosea presents a compelling love story of God's unfailing, steadfast care for His people despite their unfaithfulness, ingratitude, and repeated rebellion. While God's people abandoned Him for pagan idols, in love He would continue to call His people back to Himself.

Themes: Spiritual adultery will always bring God's judgment, but God will never stop loving His covenant people.

Author: Hosea.

Time: During the latter years of the northern kingdom of Israel and beyond, circa 755–715 B.C.

Structure: The first section of Hosea (1–3) records the apostasy of the northern kingdom of Israel, symbolized in the prophet's marriage to the prostitute Gomer. The second section (4–13) chronicles Israel's sins and the prophetic consequences of those sins. The briefest section (14) outlines God's promised blessings for repentance.

As you read Hosea, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

od allowed Israel to be conquered by Assyria because of their many years with consistently idolatrous and evil kings. However, He protected Judah from the threat because of kings such as Hezekiah who willingly repented and sought Him (2 Kin. 19:15–36). Yet, understand, God did not desire calamity for His people (Jer. 29:11); rather, He wanted to bring Israel back into fellowship with Him through the judgment (Hos. 2:14–23). Mercy is not earned or deserved. In fact, the Lord is clear: "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy" (Rom.

9:15). Yet we can be thankful that He always acts in grace and compassion toward us.

even in judgment, God shows mercy. Throughout the prophets, declarations of awful judgment are intertwined with promises of restoration and mercy. Here, God foreshadows the coming of Christ, where He would not rescue the people in an earthly, national way, but offer salvation to the whole world on an eternal, personal level (Jer. 31:31–34; Ezek. 11:16–20; 36:22–28). We owe everything to God's grace.

Life Examples:

GOMER

What Did She Want?

HOS. 2:14

Gt's difficult to understand a woman like Gomer. The prophet Hosea loved her faithfully, provided for her consistently, and invited her to enjoy a safe, fulfilling relationship with him. Instead, she opted for a series of "lovers" who sought nothing but their own pleasure. What was her problem? What did she want?

Scripture tells us the reason behind her (and Israel's) adultery: "I will go after my lovers, who give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink" (Hos. 2:5). In other words, she was looking for someone to satisfy her needs in her way rather than God's. This is the definition of arrogance—when we believe we know better than the Lord.

Unfortunately, the same pride that corrupted her heart threatens to lead us away from our First Love as well. This happens whenever we seek something other than the Lord to meet the deep longings within us.

What is it that you look to for significance, acceptance, and worth?

- a bigger house
- a better job
- more wealth and possessions
- an exciting relationship
- beauty
- intelligence

Yet God says to us, as He did to her, "Behold, I will allure her, bring her into the wilderness and speak kindly to her" (Hos. 2:14). So turn to Him, friend, because only He can truly satisfy the hunger in your heart.

- 8 "For she does not know that it was I who gave her the grain, the new wine and the oil,
 - And lavished on her silver and gold, Which they used for Baal.
- 9 "Therefore, I will take back My grain at harvest time

And My new wine in its season.

I will also take away My wool and My flax

Given to cover her nakedness.

- 10 "And then I will uncover her lewdness In the sight of her lovers, And no one will rescue her out of My hand.
- 11 "I will also put an end to all her gaiety, Her feasts, her new moons, her sabbaths And all her festal assemblies.
- 12 "I will destroy her vines and fig trees, Of which she said, 'These are my wages Which my lovers have given me.' And I will make them a forest, And the beasts of the field will devour them.

13 "I will punish her for the days of the Baals

When she used to offer sacrifices to them

And adorn herself with her earrings and jewelry,

And follow her lovers, so that she forgot Me," declares the LORD.

Restoration of Israel

- 14 "Therefore, behold, I will allure her, Bring her into the wilderness And speak kindly to her.
- 15 "Then I will give her her vineyards from there,

And the valley of Achor as a door of hope.

And she will sing there as in the days of her youth,

As in the day when she came up from the land of Egypt.

16 "It will come about in that day," declares the LORD,

"That you will call Me alshi

And will no longer call Me ^bBaali. 17 "For I will remove the names of the Baals 17 "For I will remove the names of the Baals from her mouth,

So that they will be mentioned by their names no more.

18 "In that day I will also make a covenant for them

With the beasts of the field, The birds of the sky

And the creeping things of the ground. And I will abolish the bow, the sword and war from the land.

And will make them lie down in safety.

- * 19 "I will betroth you to Me forever; Yes, I will betroth you to Me in righteousness and in justice, In lovingkindness and in compassion,
- ≥ 20 And I will betroth you to Me in faithfulness.

Then you will know the LORD.

- 21 "It will come about in that day that I will respond," declares the LORD.
 - "I will respond to the heavens, and they will respond to the earth,
- 22 And the earth will respond to the grain, to the new wine and to the oil, And they will respond to aJezreel.
- 23 "I will sow her for Myself in the land. I will also have compassion on her who had not obtained compassion, And I will say to those who were not My people, 'You are My people!'

And they will say, 'You are my God!'"

Hosea's Second Symbolic Marriage

THEN the LORD said to me, "Go again, love Ja woman who is loved by her husband, yet an adulteress, even as the Lord loves the sons of Israel, though they turn to other gods and love raisin cakes."

So I bought her for myself for fifteen shekels of silver and a homer and a half of barley.

- Then I said to her, "You shall stay with me for many days. You shall not play the harlot, nor shall you have a man; so I will also be toward you.'
- For the sons of Israel will remain for many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred pillar and without ephod or household idols.

Afterward the sons of Israel will return \triangleleft and seek the LORD their God and David their king; and they will come trembling to the LORD and to His goodness in the last days.

God's Controversy with Israel

4 LISTEN to the word of the Lord, O sons of Israel,

For the LORD has a case against the inhabitants of the land,

Because there is no faithfulness or kindness

Or knowledge of God in the land.

- 2 There is swearing, deception, murder, stealing and adultery.
 - They employ violence, so that bloodshed follows bloodshed.
- Therefore the land mourns, And everyone who lives in it languishes Along with the beasts of the field and the birds of the sky,

And also the fish of the sea disappear.

- Yet let no one find fault, and let none offer reproof:
 - For your people are like those who contend with the priest.
- So you will stumble by day, And the prophet also will stumble with you by night;

And I will destroy your mother. My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge,

I also will reject you from being My

2:16 — "It will come about in that day." declares the LORD, "that you will call Me Ishi and will no longer call Me Baali.'

The Hebrew word Ishi means "husband," while Baali means "owner." > 3:5 — Afterward the sons of Israel will return and seek the LORD their God and David their king; and they will come trembling to the Lord and to His goodness in the last days.

Pe may know what it means to fear the Lord but what does it mean to fear "His goodness"? Here, Hosea foreshadows the coming of the Messiah the offspring of David who would be the King of kings (Rev. 19:16). As we have seen through Christ, the goodness, holiness, and abundant love of God to us is so great and undeserved that it ought to make us tremble.

> 4:6 — "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge."

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT KNOWING ALL OF GOD

Hos. 2:19, 20

n order to know someone intimately, you can't just know what they do—you must know their character and heart. You have to know what motivates them. The same is true for God. In Hosea 2:19, 20, He says, "I will betroth you to Me in righteousness and in justice, in lovingkindness and in compassion, and I will betroth you to Me in faithfulness. Then you will know the Lord." He has "betrothed" (or engaged) His people to Himself for one reason: to let Himself be known.

Unfortunately, sometimes we know about God, but we really don't know Him. Yet God wants us to love Him in a deep, intimate relationship. Here are six reasons we should know God's ways.

- 1. We should know the ways of God because they are essential in knowing Him. By learning the ways God works, we become acquainted with His heart—and life's greatest joy is knowing Him personally and intimately (Ps. 25:4, 5).
- 2. We should know the ways of God because He requires that we know them. The Lord desires for us to go beyond a surface relationship with Him, so He has given us commands to follow to facilitate it. We learn not merely to see Him as our Master, but as our Beloved (Deut. 10:12).

God wants us to truly know and love Him.

- 3. We should know the ways of God because it is the yearning of His heart for us to do so. The Lord desires our fellowship—for us to seek and worship Him whole-heartedly (Jer. 33:3). This fact alone should motivate us to pursue a deep, meaningful relationship with Him.
- 4. We should know the ways of God because He loves us. Our heavenly Father desires the very best for us, and He wants each of us to realize that His plans for us will always be above and beyond all we could ask or imagine (Jer. 31:3; 1 Cor. 2:9; Eph. 3:20).
- 5. We should know the ways of God because they are the best way. No matter what situation we must endure or how difficult a choice we have to make, we can be certain that God's way is the best way to face it. He will guide us and give us the strength and wisdom to handle our circumstances in a godly manner (Jer. 29:11).
- 6. We should know the ways of God because they are the pathway to success. Although the world's definition of achievement involves wealth and power, to the Lord true success lies in obedience to His will (1 John 2:17). Ultimately, no one can thwart the plans of God—He will succeed and achieve the victory (Job 42:2). And when we submit to Him, we share in His triumph.

Therefore, set your heart to know all of God—His works, His ways, and His will for your life. Because He promises, "You will seek Me and find Me when you search for Me with all your heart" (Jer. 29:13).

I also will forget your children.

7 The more they multiplied, the more they sinned against Me;

I will change their glory into shame. They feed on the sin of My people And direct their desire toward their iniquity.

9 And it will be, like people, like priest; So I will punish them for their ways And repay them for their deeds.

➤ 10 They will eat, but not have enough; They will play the harlot, but not increase,

Because they have stopped giving heed to the Lord.

11 Harlotry, wine and new wine take away the understanding.

12 My people consult their wooden idol, and their diviner's wand informs them:

For a spirit of harlotry has led them astray,

And they have played the harlot, departing from their God.

13 They offer sacrifices on the tops of the mountains

And burn incense on the hills, Under oak, poplar and terebinth, Because their shade is pleasant. Therefore your daughters play the harlot

And your brides commit adultery.

14 I will not punish your daughters when they play the harlot

Or your brides when they commit adultery,

For the men themselves go apart with harlots

And offer sacrifices with temple prostitutes;

So the people without understanding are ruined.

15 Though you, Israel, play the harlot, Do not let Judah become guilty; Also do not go to Gilgal, Or go up to Beth-aven And take the oath:

"As the LORD lives!"

16 Since Israel is stubborn Like a stubborn heifer, Can the LORD now pasture them Like a lamb in a large field?

17 Ephraim is joined to idols; Let him alone. 18 Their liquor gone, They play the harlot continually; Their rulers dearly love shame.

19 The wind wraps them in its wings, And they will be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

Listen, O house of the king!
For the judgment applies to you,
For you have been a snare at Mizpah
And a net spread out on Tabor.

2 The revolters have gone deep in depravity,

But I will chastise all of them.

3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hidden from Me;

For now, O Ephraim, you have played the harlot,

Israel has defiled itself.

4 Their deeds will not allow them To return to their God. For a spirit of harlotry is within them, And they do not know the LORD.

5 Moreover, the pride of Israel testifies against him,

And Israel and Ephraim stumble in their iniquity;

Judah also has stumbled with them. They will go with their flocks and herds

To seek the Lord, but they will not find

Him;

He has withdrawn from them. They have dealt treacherously against the Lord,

For they have borne illegitimate children. Now the new moon will devour them with their land.

8 Blow the horn in Gibeah,
The trumpet in Ramah.
Sound an alarm at Beth-aven:
"Behind you, Benjamin!"

9 Ephraim will become a desolation in the day of rebuke:

Among the tribes of Israel I declare what is sure.

10 The princes of Judah have become like those who move a boundary;

On them I will pour out My wrath like water.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 4:10 — They will eat, but not have enough; they will play the harlot, but not increase, because they have stopped giving heed to the LORD.

The Israelites sought the Canaanite deities because they were supposed to bring fertility and prosperity. However, in so doing, they forsook God, who truly supplied all of their needs. Their prideful, idolatrous attempts to fill their own needs would end in disaster. When we obey the Lord, He assumes full responsibility for our needs—satisfying us from His abundance. But when we disobey Him, anything we acquire will turn to ashes.

LIFE PRINCIPLE 18

AS CHILDREN OF A SOVEREIGN GOD, WE ARE NEVER VICTIMS OF OUR CIRCUMSTANCES.

HOS. 3:4, 5

ife is not simple. We face many bumps and turns along the way. The race is real, the battle continuous, and the painful experiences may pierce our heart. However, our circumstances should not define who we are or how we react. Rather, as believers our behavior in every situation should honor the Lord Jesus, and our identity should always be based on the salvation He has provided for us.

Chapter 11 of Hebrews is populated with men and women who endured despite adverse circumstances. You may say, "Of course they persevered—God worked so powerfully in their situation. Look how their story turned out!" Yet understand, just like you, the saints of old did not know how their story would end, nor whether God would keep His promises to them. First Kings 8:56 reports, "Not one word has failed of all His good promise."

So how did they demonstrate such strong faith in God? They did so because they trusted in the fact that the Lord was able to help them and work everything out for their good (Rom. 8:28; Heb. 11:1). Even when nothing else made sense to them, they placed their hope in their sovereign Lord—and He rewarded them for their confidence (Heb. 11:6).

In the fifth grade, a young man, who is now a pastor, had to memorize the inspiring list of godly people in Hebrews 11—the faithful servants of the Lord who persevered in their great trials by trusting God. It was one of the most transformative lessons of his life. When he went through a rough time in the ministry, the Lord reminded him of these great people of faith and gave him the confidence to endure as they did.

When thinking about the Bible's unseen cloud of witnesses (Heb. 12:1), we should likewise be encouraged by their testimonies. We should be heartened by the story of Joseph, who endured though life seemed so unfair (Gen. 45:4–8; 50:20). Or David, who obeyed God even though, at times, everything seemed to work against him becoming king of Israel as the Lord had promised (1 Sam. 23:14). Or Moses, who "endured, as seeing Him who is unseen" (Heb. 11:27) and led the people of Israel to the Promised Land. Or the disciples, who were desolated at the crucifixion of Christ, only to be strengthened, heartened, and filled with purpose at His resurrection.

God knows the Christian life is not easy.

Had any of them considered themselves victims of their circumstances, they would have begun their journey with God in defeat and discouragement. Instead, they focused on the almighty hand of the Lord and triumphed with Him.

Likewise, we can say, "God, if they endured, so can I, because You are sovereign just as You were then, and You love me as You loved them. Therefore, I will not consider myself a victim of my circumstances. Rather, I will view every situation as an opportunity for Your glory to shine forth in victory."

God knows the Christian life is not easy. When you received the Lord Jesus as your Savior, He set you on your course. As your sovereign Lord, He mapped out all the bumps, turns, detours, hills, and valleys. He knew all the difficulties you would face. He understood that you would continually clash with the world, the flesh, and the devil until you were home with Him. Yet He didn't merely set you on the path, hoping you would find your way. He sent the Holy Spirit to indwell you, guide you, and encourage you. Endurance requires something that doesn't come easily—and that is trust in your unseen, sovereign God. However, with the Holy Spirit to remind you of His faithfulness and power (John 14:26), you can remain committed to Him.

When the going gets rough—and it will—you can't run away. You can't quit. The longer you faithfully obey the Lord, regardless of the circumstances, the stronger your faith becomes. You become prepared for greater service and expanded ministry. You become strong, stalwart, and steadfast.

The One who endured the Cross lives in you, so that you are fully equipped for anything He calls you to do. If you stumble, He is there to pick you up. Just remember to always keep your eyes on Jesus. Don't quit. Persevere.

You aren't alone—your sovereign Lord is with you in every situation. Therefore, call upon Him to infuse you with His power and wisdom, and obey anything He calls you to do. And remember that you are never a victim of your circumstances, for your sovereign God can use everything that happens to you for your blessing and His glory.

The One who endured the Cross lives in you.

HOSEA 5:11

➤ 11 Ephraim is oppressed, crushed in judgment,

Because he was determined to follow man's command.

12 Therefore I am like a moth to Ephraim And like rottenness to the house of Judah.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, And Judah his wound, Then Ephraim went to Assyria And sent to King Jareb. But he is unable to heal you, Or to cure you of your wound.

14 For I will be like a lion to Ephraim And like a young lion to the house of Judah.

I, even I, will tear to pieces and go away, I will carry away, and there will be none to deliver.

> 15 I will go away and return to My place Until they acknowledge their guilt and seek My face;

In their affliction they will earnestly seek Me.

The Response to God's Rebuke

*6"COME, let us return to the Lord.
For He has torn us, but He will heal us;
He has wounded us, but He will bandage us.

2 "He will revive us after two days; He will raise us up on the third day, That we may live before Him.

➤ 3 "So let us know, let us press on to know the LORD.

His going forth is as certain as the dawn; And He will come to us like the rain, Like the spring rain watering the earth."

4 What shall I do with you, O Ephraim? What shall I do with you, O Judah? For your loyalty is like a morning cloud And like the dew which goes away early.

5 Therefore I have hewn them in pieces by the prophets;

I have slain them by the words of My mouth;

And the judgments on you are like the light that goes forth.

6 For I delight in loyalty rather than sacrifice,

And in the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.

7 But like Adam they have transgressed the covenant;

There they have dealt treacherously against Me.

8 Gilead is a city of wrongdoers, Tracked with bloody footprints.

9 And as raiders wait for a man, So a band of priests murder on the way to Shechem;

Surely they have committed crime.

10 In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing;

Ephraim's harlotry is there, Israel has defiled itself.

11 Also, O Judah, there is a harvest appointed for you, When I restore the fortunes of My people.

Ephraim's Iniquity

WHEN I would heal Israel, The iniquity of Ephraim is uncovered,

And the evil deeds of Samaria, For they deal falsely; The thief enters in,

Bandits raid outside,

2 And they do not consider in their hearts That I remember all their wickedness. Now their deeds are all around them; They are before My face.

3 With their wickedness they make the king glad,

And the princes with their lies.

4 They are all adulterers, Like an oven heated by the baker Who ceases to stir up the fire

LIFE LESSONS-

> 5:11 — Ephraim is oppressed, crushed in judgment, because he was determined to follow man's command.

God wants us to seek Him and come before Him with our requests and questions. He wants to lead and guide us every moment of our lives. However, when we leave Him out of our deliberations and depend on our sinful human inclinations (such as the Israelites serving the pagan fertility deities; Hos. 2:8) and resources (such as the Israelites seeking the aid of Assyria; Hos. 5:13), we open ourselves to unnecessary hardship.

➤ 5:15 — In their affliction they will earnestly seek Me.

God does not use affliction because He enjoys it. On the contrary, Lamentations 3:33 reports, "He does not afflict willingly or grieve the sons of men." Rather, He allows adversity because sometimes that is the only way to get our attention, and it's the only warning we will heed.

> 6:3 — "Let us know, let us press on to know the LORD."

The Israelites returned to the Lord with lip service and meaningless sacrifices rather than in true repentance. This is why God responded, "Your loyalty is like a morning cloud and like the dew which goes away early" (Hos. 6:4). Soon enough their loyalty to Him would dissipate, and they would turn back to their evil ways. Our highest pursuit in life is to know the Lord for who He really is and seek Him in genuine repentance and steadfast devotion. A lackadaisical commitment will never do (Rev. 3:15, 16). He wants our whole heart, so never give Him anything less.

> 6:6 — I delight in loyalty rather than sacrifice, and in the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.

Repeatedly in Scripture, the Lord tells us that He has no desire for half-hearted religious ritual (1 Sam. 15:22; Ps. 40:6; 51:16, 17; ls. 1:11–20; Jer. 7:22, 23; Joel 2:12, 13; Mark 12:33). Instead, He greatly desires for our hearts to be on fire for Him—for us to joyfully love Him and love others in His name (John 13:34, 35; 15:10–14; 1 John 3:23, 24).

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

How can I get to really know God?

HOS. 6:6

Jid you know that God wants to show you more of Himself every day? Are you seeking after God with all your strength? Does your time with the Lord revitalize you, or does it feel more like a ritualistic experience?

Contrast the experience of Gomer with that of an earlier Israelite, Hannah (1 Sam. 1–2). Gomer did not care to know God. Yet Hannah sought after God with all her heart. What made the difference? Knowing God.

In Hosea 6:6, God is clear: "I delight in loyalty rather than sacrifice, and in the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings." In order to deepen your relationship with God and remain devoted to Him:

- You must come to Him honestly.
 Confessing your sins and inviting Jesus Christ into your heart requires you to be vulnerable. Although such humility and repentance may be intimidating, accepting Christ is the best decision anyone can ever make.
- You must understand your reliance upon Him. Hannah saw God as her only source of comfort and power: "She, greatly distressed, prayed to the LORD and wept bitterly" (1 Sam. 1:10). And because she did, He looked upon her with compassion and grace (vv. 19, 20).
- You must become interested in what interests Him. Has your desire for

From the kneading of the dough until it is leavened.

- On the day of our king, the princes became sick with the heat of wine; He stretched out his hand with scoffers,
- For their hearts are like an oven As they approach their plotting;

- spiritual insight and godly wisdom declined? If so, ask the Lord to restore your longing for Him and for the things that most concern Him.
- You must know His Word. By reading the Bible, you open your heart to Him. He has given you the Holy Spirit to help you understand His Word, and He wants you to meditate on it so you can apply it to your life.
- You must observe His characteristics and ways. Read the promises that God makes in His Word. Ask Him to remind you of how He has already worked in your life—with all the wisdom, love, and power you will ever need for any challenge you will ever face.
- You must accept His invitation and follow His commands. God is constantly inviting you to walk with Him. Give the Lord total control of your decisions, time, talents, and possessions—walking in complete submission to Him. Your obedience will certainly bring great blessings.

Your knowledge of God grows as you increasingly recognize His love for you. God delights in your joyful praise and worship of Him. Psalm 46:10 says, "Cease striving and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth." As you get to know God on deeper levels, your ability to trust and obey Him will increase. You will find your life's fulfillment when you come to know and exalt the Lord of all creation.

Ephraim has become a cake not turned.

Strangers devour his strength, Yet he does not know it;

Gray hairs also are sprinkled on him, Yet he does not know it.

10 Though the pride of Israel testifies against him.

Yet they have not returned to the LORD their God,

Nor have they sought Him, for all this.

11 So Ephraim has become like a silly dove, without sense;

They call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.

12 When they go, I will spread My net over them; I will bring them down like the birds of

I will bring them down like the birds of the sky.

I will chastise them in accordance with the proclamation to their assembly.

Woe to them, for they have strayed from Me!

Destruction is theirs, for they have rebelled against Me!

I would redeem them, but they speak lies against Me.

➤ 14 And they do not cry to Me from their heart

When they wail on their beds; For the sake of grain and new wine they assemble themselves.

They turn away from Me.

15 Although I trained and strengthened their arms,

Yet they devise evil against Me.

16 They turn, but not upward, They are like a deceitful bow; Their princes will fall by the sword Because of the insolence of their tongue.

This will be their derision in the land of Egypt.

Israel Reaps the Whirlwind

PUT the trumpet to your lips! Like an eagle the enemy comes against the house of the LORD,

Because they have transgressed My covenant

And rebelled against My law.

2 They cry out to Me,

"My God, we of Israel know You!"

3 Israel has rejected the good:

Israel has rejected the good; The enemy will pursue him.

4 They have set up kings, but not by Me; They have appointed princes, but I did not know it.

With their silver and gold they have made idols for themselves,

That they might be cut off.

5 He has rejected your calf, O Samaria, saying,

"My anger burns against them!"
How long will they be incapable of innocence?

6 For from Israel is even this! A craftsman made it, so it is not God; Surely the calf of Samaria will be broken to pieces.

For they sow the wind
 And they reap the whirlwind.
 The standing grain has no heads;
 It yields no grain.
 Should it yield, strangers would swallow it up.

8 Israel is swallowed up; They are now among the nations Like a vessel in which no one delights.

9 For they have gone up to Assyria, Like a wild donkey all alone; Ephraim has hired lovers.

10 Even though they hire allies among the nations.

Now I will gather them up; And they will begin to diminish Because of the burden of the king of princes.

11 Since Ephraim has multiplied altars for sin,

They have become altars of sinning for him

12 Though I wrote for him ten thousand precepts of My law,

They are regarded as a strange thing.

3 As for My sacrificial gifts, They sacrifice the flesh and eat it, But the LORD has taken no delight in them.

Now He will remember their iniquity, And punish them for their sins; They will return to Egypt.

LIFE LESSONS-

cry of anguish is not the same as a cry for mercy. Paul wrote, "The sorrow that is according to the will of God produces a repentance without regret, leading to salvation, but the sorrow of the world produces death" (2 Cor. 7:10). Affliction does not necessarily bring us back to the Lord; it depends on what we do with it. However, if we will turn to the Lord earnestly in our suffering, we will find that our adversity is a bridge to a deeper relationship with Him.

> 8:4 — They have set up kings, but not by Me.

God wants to be intimately involved in all the details of our lives, especially in the major decisions that shape our futures. When Israel chose her kings without the Lord's guidance, they ultimately regretted it.

> 8:7 — They sow the wind and they reap the whirlwind.

The will always suffer the consequences of our foolish, sinful actions. We reap what we sow, more than we sow, and later than we sow.

14 For Israel has forgotten his Maker and built palaces:

And Judah has multiplied fortified cities, But I will send a fire on its cities that it may consume its palatial dwellings.

Ephraim Punished

DO not rejoice, O Israel, with exultation like the nations!

For you have played the harlot, forsaking your God.

You have loved harlots' earnings on every threshing floor.

- Threshing floor and wine press will not feed them.
- And the new wine will fail them. They will not remain in the LORD'S land, But Ephraim will return to Egypt,
- And in Assyria they will eat unclean food. They will not pour out drink offerings of wine to the LORD.

Their sacrifices will not please Him. Their bread will be like mourners' bread; All who eat of it will be defiled. For their bread will be for themselves alone:

- It will not enter the house of the LORD. ≥ 5 What will you do on the day of the appointed festival
 - And on the day of the feast of the LORD?

- 11 As for Ephraim, their glory will fly away like a bird—
 - No birth, no pregnancy and no conception!
- Though they bring up their children, Yet I will bereave them until not a man is left.
 - Yes, woe to them indeed when I depart from them!
- 13 Ephraim, as I have seen, Is planted in a pleasant meadow like Tyre; But Ephraim will bring out his children for slaughter.
- 14 Give them, O Lord—what will You give? Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.
- 15 All their evil is at Gilgal: Indeed, I came to hate them there! Because of the wickedness of their deeds I will drive them out of My house! I will love them no more: All their princes are rebels.

> 9:5 — What will you do on the day of the appointed festival and on the day of the feast of the LORD?

In the land of their exile, the Israelites would be cut off from every way they could serve the Lord and remember His great provision for them, namely all the feasts and festivals they were accustomed to celebrating (Lev. 23). This would be how the Israelites finally understood their terrible situation. Never mistake the Lord's great patience with His people as an acceptance of evil. When we knowingly step out of His will, He calls us to turn back to Him. However, if we refuse to return to Him, sorrow awaits.

> 9:17 — My God will cast them away because they have not listened to Him.

chronic case of disobedience may reveal not just au a rebellious heart, but an unbeliéving one. The Hebrews who died in the wilderness wanderings refused to obey "because of unbelief" (Heb. 3:19). Here we are told that the nation of Israel would be scattered throughout the nations. Although it would be much more difficult to cling to God in the pagan cultures they were exiled to, God promised that one day He would regather Israel and give her back the land (Ezek. 28:25; 36:23–38; 37:21).

Retribution for Israel's Sin

10 ISRAEL is a luxuriant vine; He produces fruit for himself.

The more his fruit,

The more altars he made;

The richer his land,

The better he made the sacred pillars.

Their heart is faithless;
Now they must bear their guilt.
The LORD will break down their altars
And destroy their sacred pillars.

3 Surely now they will say, "We have no king,

For we do not revere the LORD.

As for the king, what can he do for us?"

4 They speak mere words,

With worthless oaths they make covenants:

And judgment sprouts like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria will fear For the calf of Beth-aven. Indeed, its people will mourn for it, And its idolatrous priests will cry out Over its glory, since it has departed from it.

6 The thing itself will be carried to Assyria As tribute to King Jareb; Ephraim will be seized with shame And Israel will be ashamed of its own counsel.

Samaria will be cut off with her king Like a stick on the surface of the water.

> 8 Also the high places of Aven, the sin of Israel, will be destroyed;

Thorn and thistle will grow on their altars:

Then they will say to the mountains, "Cover us!" And to the hills, "Fall on us!"

9 From the days of Gibeah you have sinned, O Israel;

There they stand!

Will not the battle against the sons of iniquity overtake them in Gibeah?

10 When it is My desire, I will chastise them; And the peoples will be gathered against them

When they are bound for their double guilt.

11 Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh.

But I will come over her fair neck with a voke:

I will harness Ephraim,

Judah will plow, Jacob will harrow for himself.

12 Sow with a view to righteousness, Reap in accordance with kindness; Break up your fallow ground, For it is time to seek the LORD Until He comes to rain righteousness on you.

13 You have plowed wickedness, you have reaped injustice,

You have eaten the fruit of lies. Because you have trusted in your way, in your numerous warriors,

14 Therefore a tumult will arise among your people,

And all your fortresses will be destroyed,

As Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel on the day of battle,

When mothers were dashed in pieces with their children.

15 Thus it will be done to you at Bethel because of your great wickedness. At dawn the king of Israel will be completely cut off.

God Yearns over His People

WHEN Israel was a youth I loved him, And out of Egypt I called My son.

The more they called them,
The more they went from them;
They kept sacrificing to the Baals

But they did not know that I healed them.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 10:8 — They will say to the mountains, "Cover us!" And to the hills, "Fall on us!"

Jesus quoted this verse as the Romans led Him away to be crucified (Luke 23:30). He did so to warn of the terrible adversity that would result in the destruction of the temple and Jerusalem in A.D. 70. John also mentions it in reference to the utter despair, fear, and hopelessness people will feel during the tribulation (Rev. 6:16). How much better to call on God in love and repentance than face His judgment!

> 10:13 — You have eaten the fruit of lies. Because you have trusted in your way, in your numerous warriors.

God wants us to develop both our minds and our relationships, but He never wants us to put our hope for the future in either one. "Some boast in chariots and some in horses, but we will boast in the name of the LORD, our God" (Ps. 20:7).

> 11:3 — Yet it is I who taught Ephraim to walk, I took them in My arms; but they did not know that I healed them.

A Longing for Intimacy

HOS. 11:1-9

Vithout questioning God, Hosea obeyed Him and took the prostitute Gomer to be his wife. Though she wandered and repeatedly slipped into unfaithfulness, Hosea obeyed the Lord and did not cast her away.

The moving poetry of Hosea reveals the longing of God for uninterrupted intimacy with His people. Can you sense the agony in His words? "How can I give you up, O Ephraim? How can I surrender you, O Israel? . . . My heart is turned over within Me, all My compassions are kindled" (11:8).

God longs for an intimate relationship with you. And in the most dramatic display of love of all time, He provided His Son, Jesus Christ, as the means to make such fellowship possible. God is the passionate and faithful Lover of your soul.

(Dassages like this one show us the truth of the Trinity—that Jesus and the Father are one (John 10:30). There is only one God, and He is our only Savior; yet Scripture also plainly calls Jesus our Savior (Acts 13:23; Phil. 3:20; 2 Pet. 1:11). There is only one God (Deut. 4:35, 39; 6:4; ls. 43:10; 44:6; 46:9; John 17:3; 1 Cor.

8:4), but He exists in three divine, eternal, co-equal persons—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (Gen. 1:1–3, 26; Matt. 28:19; John 1:1-3, 14, 18; 1 Cor. 8:6; 12:4-6; Eph. 4:4–7; Jude 20, 21).

Israel's Future Blessing

4 RETURN, O Israel, to the Lord your God.

For you have stumbled because of your iniquity.

Take words with you and return to the ≥ 2 LORD.

Say to Him, "Take away all iniquity And receive us graciously. That we may present the fruit of our lips.

"Assyria will not save us, We will not ride on horses: Nor will we say again, 'Our god,' To the work of our hands: For in You the orphan finds mercy." I will heal their apostasy, I will love them freely, For My anger has turned away from them.

I will be like the dew to Israel; He will blossom like the lily, And he will take root like the cedars of Lebanon.

His shoots will sprout, And his beauty will be like the olive tree And his fragrance like the cedars of Lebanon.

7 Those who live in his shadow Will again raise grain, And they will blossom like the vine. His renown will be like the wine of Lebanon.

8 O Ephraim, what more have I to do with idols?

It is I who answer and look after you. I am like a luxuriant cypress; From Me comes your fruit.

Whoever is wise, let him understand these things:

Whoever is discerning, let him know them.

For the ways of the Lord are right, And the righteous will walk in them, But transgressors will stumble in them.

> 14:2 — Take words with you and return to the LORD.

Thy does God insist that we confess our sins to Him (Ps. 32:5; 1 John 1:9)? Why should we "take words" with us when we return to the Lord? Because we must verbally agree with God that what we've done is wrongchoosing His standard of holiness rather than our own. Sin wields power over us when it is hidden. However, when we confess it to God, He breaks its hold and gives us freedom from it (Prov. 28:13).

> 14:9 — The ways of the LORD are right, and the righteous will walk in them.

esus died not only to save us from the penalty of sin, but also from its power. His grace enables us to walk in His righteous ways.

isaster was coming to the southern kingdom of Judah—an ominous black cloud of locusts would descend upon the land and decimate it. Yet this was only the beginning of the terror and loss the people of Judah would experience because of their sinfulness. God's further judgments during "the day of the LORD" would certainly make that plague pale by comparison.

While it's not clear whether the prophet Joel wrote of a literal swarm of locusts or of a vision of things to come, he used the frightening image to proclaim God's message that the people of Judah would face a terrible judgment for their wickedness and that they should repent wholeheartedly.

He wrote, "The day of the LORD is indeed great and very awesome, and who can endure it? 'Yet even now,' declares the LORD, 'Return to Me with all your heart, and with fasting, weeping and mourning; and rend your heart' . . . Return to the LORD your God, for He is gracious and compassionate . . . Who knows whether He will not turn and relent and leave a blessing behind Him?" (Joel 2:11–14). In that day, God would judge and destroy His enemies, but He also promised to bring unparalleled blessing to those who faithfully obeyed Him. Therefore, the people should forsake their sinful ways, exhibit genuine repentance and obedience to the Lord God, and experience the revival they so desperately needed.

The Hebrew name Yo'el means "Yahweh is God." The name is appropriate to the theme of the book, which emphasizes God's sovereign work in history. Both nature and nations are in His hand. Joel served as God's spokesman, and some scholars consider him one of the earliest of the writing prophets.

Peter quoted Joel as he stood to explain to the men of Jerusalem what they had seen on the Day of Pentecost (Acts 2:16–21). Peter explained that they had witnessed the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on all flesh, as prophesied in Joel 2:28, 29.

Themes: Repentance and obedience must precede revival and God's blessing.

Author: Joel the prophet.

Time: Perhaps during the reign of King Joash of Judah (835–796 B.C.), although some say later.

Structure: Chapter 1 of Joel focuses on what is either a literal or figurative plague of locusts on the land of Judah. Chapter 2 deals with "the day of the LORD," a time of severe judgment and God's call to repentance and prayer. Chapter 3 covers the judgment of the Gentile nations and God's blessings on Zion.

The Devastation of Locusts

THE word of the LORD that came to Joel, the son of Pethuel:

2 Hear this, O elders,

And listen, all inhabitants of the land.

Has anything like this happened in your days

Or in your fathers' days?

3 Tell your sons about it,

And let your sons tell their sons, And their sons the next generation.

What the gnawing locust has left, the swarming locust has eaten;

And what the swarming locust has left, the creeping locust has eaten;

And what the creeping locust has left, the stripping locust has eaten.

5 Awake, drunkards, and weep; And wail, all you wine drinkers, On account of the sweet wine That is cut off from your mouth.

6 For a nation has invaded my land, Mighty and without number; Its teeth are the teeth of a lion, And it has the fangs of a lioness.

7 It has made my vine a waste And my fig tree splinters. It has stripped them bare and cast them away;

Their branches have become white.

8 Wail like a virgin girded with sackcloth

For the bridegroom of her youth.

The grain offering and the drink offering are cut off
 From the house of the Lord.
 The priests mourn,
 The ministers of the Lord.

10 The field is ruined, The land mourns; For the grain is ruined, The new wine dries up, Fresh oil fails.

11 Be ashamed, O farmers, Wail, O vinedressers, For the wheat and the barley; Because the harvest of the field is destroyed. 12 The vine dries up
And the fig tree fails;
The pomegranate, the palm also, and the apple tree,
All the trees of the field dry up.
Indeed, rejoicing dries up
From the sons of men.

13 Gird yourselves with sackcloth
And lament, O priests;
Wail, O ministers of the altar!
Come, spend the night in sackcloth
O ministers of my God,
For the grain offering and the drink offering
Are withheld from the house of your God.

Starvation and Drought

14 Consecrate a fast,
Proclaim a solemn assembly;
Gather the elders
And all the inhabitants of the land
To the house of the Lord your God,
And cry out to the Lord.

15 Alas for the day!For the day of the Lord is near,And it will come as destruction from the Almighty.

16 Has not food been cut off before our eyes,

Gladness and joy from the house of our God?

17 The seeds shrivel under their clods; The storehouses are desolate, The barns are torn down, For the grain is dried up.

18 How the beasts groan!
The herds of cattle wander aimlessly
Because there is no pasture for them;
Even the flocks of sheep suffer.

19 To You, O Lord, I cry; For fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness

And the flame has burned up all the trees of the field.

20 Even the beasts of the field pant for You;

For the water brooks are dried up And fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

> 1:18 — How the beasts groan! The herds of cattle wander aimlessly because there is no pasture for them; even the flocks of sheep suffer.

How often have you heard it said, "What I do is no one's business, so long as I don't hurt anyone else"? The statement betrays a false assumption—that the consequences for what we do will not reach beyond us. However, sin always hurts others. When God judged Judah for her transgressions, He sent locusts that devoured all the fields. Joel questioned, "Has not food been cut off before our eyes?" (1:16). The destruction of grain throughout the land affected everyone—even the livestock. Likewise, our sin can mean hardship and desolation for generations to come (Ex. 34:6, 7; Deut. 5:9, 10; Num. 14:18; 2 Chr. 30:6–9; Ps. 78:8, 57; 106:6; Zech. 1:4), while our obedience can mean great blessings for our descendants (Gen. 17:5–8; 1 Kin. 15:11; 2 Kin. 18:1, 3; 2 Chr. 17:3; 34:1–3). What legacy will you leave those who follow you (Jer. 32:17–19)?

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

How can a good God allow suffering in a believer's life?

Have you ever caught yourself wishing for "the good old days"? Most of us have. The truth is, however, if we had a chance to travel back to another time, we would find the same problems and trials that confront us now also existed back then. Trials come no matter who you are or what you do.

Suffering prepares and perfects us in a variety of ways. Pressure from without increases pressure within. We feel it as the darkness lingers, the pain increases, and the disappointment goes on and on.

In the spiritual realm, however, we do not have to yield to the mounting pressure. We can defuse it by placing it on the altar of God and allowing Him to handle our hurts.

Trials that go beyond our ability of control prove to us that we simply are not omnipotent, but God is. Suddenly, we become acutely aware of our need for Him and His eternal wisdom, which outranks our own. We need a Savior—Someone greater than our greatest fear, Someone who is able to meet all our needs. Only through His grace can we learn the truth concerning suffering: God uses it to help us experience His immense love.

Maybe you are facing a time of suffering, and you think the emotional pain is more than you can bear. Or perhaps you are dealing with a series of disappointments. Instead of becoming fearful—a frequent ploy of Satan to pull you away from the will of God—ask the Lord to show you what He is up to in your life.

The great preacher Charles Spurgeon wrote: "God knows that soldiers are to be made only in battle; they are not to be grown in peaceful times. We may grow the stuff of which soldiers are made; but warriors are really educated by the smell of powder, in the midst of whizzing bullets and roaring cannonades . . . Is He not developing in you the qualities of the soldier by throwing you into the heat of battle, and should you not use every application to come off conqueror?"

JOEL 2:13

Little is known about the prophet Joel, who ministered to the southern kingdom of Judah. His entire personal history is stated in a single verse: "The word of the LORD that came to Joel, the son of Pethuel" (Joel 1:1).

Joel has been called "the prophet of religious revival." His unwavering message to the people of Judah? Repentance must precede revival. Therefore, he told them, "'Rend your heart and not your garments.' Now return to the LORD your God, for He is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger, abounding in lovingkindness and relenting of evil" (Joel 2:13).

God does not delight in sending hardship, nor does He glory in calamity. But to bring a rebellious people—or a disobedient believer—to repentance, He will use trials if He has to. He wants to bless His people, not judge them, and if that takes serious measures, so be it.

oby Him completely. Because when we accept the call to carry out His commands, we know He will give us the power and wisdom to do so. God assumes full responsibility for our needs and the success of His plan when we obey Him.

> 2:13 — "Rend your heart and not your garments."

God is always after the heart, not mere outward religious expression (1 Sam. 15:22; Ps. 40:6; 51:16, 17;

Is. 1:11–20; Jer. 7:22, 23; Hos. 6:6; Mark 12:33). He wants sincere prayer, not impressive oratory (Matt. 6:7). He wants genuine devotion, not self-righteous declarations (Luke 18:9–14). God wants your heart—your love, adoration, gratefulness, and obedience—because His highest priority for your life is a deep, intimate relationship with Himself.

> 2:14 — Who knows whether He will not turn and relent and leave a blessing behind Him?

God is under no obligation to show sinners His mercy, but since He delights in displaying "unchanging love" (Mic. 7:18), we can hope not only for pardon when we repent but even for a blessing.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT BROKENNESS, THE WAY TO BLESSING

o one enjoys experiencing emotional, physical, or spiritual afflictions. And it is difficult to understand how strength and blessing can result from adversity, even though they often do. Yet we seldom recognize the benefit of brokenness in the midst of our pain.

The apostle Paul faced discouragement and many intense trials, but he believed God was in control. Therefore, he placed his hope and faith in Jesus Christ. In 2 Corinthians he wrote, "We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not despairing; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying about in the body the dying of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our body" (4:8–10).

Paul believed the trials in his life came with a purpose. He considered them tools in the hand of God, who reshaped, refined, and refocused his life so that it could better reflect the life of Christ, full of purpose and blessing.

Just like us, Paul fought with emotional and physical difficulties. He was forthright in his epistles about the trials he was enduring, but he also filled his letters with words of hope and the certainty of divine intervention. Paul often encouraged those who faced the agony of brokenness with reminders of God's unfailing faithfulness and purpose (Rom. 8:18; 2 Cor. 1:3–10; 4:16–18; 12:7–10; Phil. 1:29, 30; 2:12–18; 3:7–12; 4:12, 13; Col. 1:24; 2 Tim. 1:8–10; 2:3; 3:10–12; 4:5–8). God's work in your life may not appear to make sense in the beginning, but He knows what lies ahead in your life. He disciplines, guides, and directs, not to hem you in, but to place you in a better position to live a free and blessed life.

Understand that clinging to what you desire and think is right for your life can prolong the brokenness process. As a Christian, you must focus your heart on Christ and obey Him implicitly, which often means giving up what you think you want. Yet He knows what your heart truly needs. And although you may feel as though you are coming apart at the seams as you release your grip on certain goals and behaviors, if you will transfer your fear and anxiety to Jesus, something amazing will happen. Not only will you begin the process of transformation into the image of God's Son, but you will also sense a greater strength growing within you.

espite His grace, despite His mercy, despite His love, if we continue to disobey God and reject His Word, we may reach a point of no return where His judgment inevitably falls (Gen. 15:16; Rev. 2:5). However, as believers, we can be encouraged that "the Lord dwells in Zion" (Joel 3:21). There is always hope for those who trust and obey the Lord. As Lamentations 3:31, 32 tells us, "The Lord will not reject forever, for if He causes grief, then He will have compassion according to His abundant lovingkindness."

mos prophesied during a period of national optimism in Israel. Business was booming and national boundaries were expanding—but below the surface, greed and injustice festered among the people. Hypocritical religious rituals had replaced true worship, creating a false sense of security and a growing callousness to God's disciplining hand.

The complacent kingdom of Israel stood ripe for judgment because of her hypocrisy and spiritual indifference. Amos, the farmer-turned-prophet, lashed out at sin unflinchingly with the goal of revealing the nearness of God's judgment and mobilizing the nation to repentance.

Amos came from the southern kingdom of Judah but did his prophetic work in the northern kingdom of Israel, slightly earlier than the prophet Hosea. He was from Tekoa, a small town about eleven miles south of Jerusalem. He did not consider himself a prophet or the son of a prophet (Amos 7:14). His only qualification was the calling of God. Amos received his training as a prophet straight from the hand of God.

The name Amos is derived from the Hebrew root amas, "to lift a burden, to carry." Thus his name means "Burden" or "Burden-bearer." Amos lived up to the meaning of his name by declaring divine judgment to rebellious Israel. The Greek and Latin titles are both transliterated in English as Amos.

Themes: God will discipline those who become spiritually indifferent or commit idolatry. Author: Amos.

Time: Amos prophesied at the time when Uzziah sat on the throne of Judah (792–740 B.C.) and Jeroboam II was king of Israel (793–753 B.C.).

Structure: In the first two chapters, the prophet pronounces judgment against neighboring nations. The final seven chapters of Amos speak of judgment against the kingdom of Israel because of its oppression, social injustice, and hypocrisy. Five of Amos's visions (7–9) told the people that they still had time to turn back to God; however, in the final two visions, judgment became inevitable. Only the closing verses of chapter 9 express hope beyond God's judgment.

As you read Amos, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

Does a young lion growl from his den unless he has captured something?

Does a bird fall into a trap on the ground when there is no bait in it? Does a trap spring up from the earth when it captures nothing at all?

6 If a trumpet is blown in a city will not the people tremble?

If a calamity occurs in a city has not the LORD done it?

It is good to regularly remind ourselves how the Lord has helped and delivered us in the past, otherwise we may either forget His goodness to us or begin to imagine that we have earned the blessings ourselves—as the Israelites had done in this passage. We must always remember that everything we have and every blessing we enjoy comes to us from the hand of the Lord God (James 1:17).

> 3:2 — "You only have I chosen among all the families of the earth; therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities."

relationship with God is not only a phenomenal privilege, it is also a great responsibility. When He puts His name on us, it is so we can represent Him in the world and all people will seek Him and accept His salvation. This was the Lord's intention when He promised Abram, "In you all the families of the earth will be blessed" (Gen. 12:3; also Gen. 26:4; 28:14; Acts 3:25, 26; Gal. 3:6–9). We are to be an example of faith and represent Him faithfully to those who are lost (2 Cor. 5:20). 11 Therefore, thus says the Lord God, "An enemy, even one surrounding the land, Will pull down your strength from you And your citadels will be looted."

12 Thus says the LORD,

"Just as the shepherd snatches from the lion's mouth a couple of legs or a piece of an ear,

So will the sons of Israel dwelling in Samaria be snatched away—

With the corner of a bed and the cover of a couch!

Declares the Lord.

> 4:2 — The Lord God has sworn by His holiness.

The Lord called Israel to be "a kingdom of priests and a holy nation" (Ex. 19:6), but the people chose to spurn

His commands and go their own sinful way instead. Although the Lord loves His people, His "eyes are too pure to approve evil" (Hab. 1:13). Because of His holiness, He could not accept their transgressions; therefore, He would have to judge them. Thankfully for us as believers, Christ paid for all of our sins on the Cross and has become our righteousness (Rom. 3:21–26; 2 Cor. 5:21; Titus 3:4–6; 1 Pet. 2:24).

he Israelites were still practicing their festivals and solemn assemblies, offering sacrifices and singing hymns (Amos 5:21–23). However, they also rejected God's Word, served false deities, oppressed the poor, and denied justice (2:6–8; 5:10–12, 26). Therefore, the Lord told them if they truly wanted to return to Him, they would have to begin to live as His people (5:14, 15, and 24). He intends for our walk with Him to be expressed through obedient devotion to Him and loving service to others (John 13:34, 35; 15:10–14; 1 John 3:23, 24). After all, "the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, [and] self-control" (Gal. 5:22, 23). If we are not expressing godly character, what good is it (James 1:26, 27; 2:15, 16)?

The Israelites were so enamored of their prosperity, they forgot God (Hos. 10:1–3). They became so prideful in their affluence and military victories that they believed they didn't need Him anymore. So when God called them to repentance, they refused to obey Him. They were not willing to give up their wealth and ease for Him—and it cost them everything.

How can Jacob stand, for he is small?"

The LORD changed His mind about this. "This too shall not be," said the Lord God.

Thus He showed me, and behold, the Lord was standing by a vertical wall with a plumb line in His hand.

Something has gone seriously wrong in conomething has gone seriously wrong in our hearts when worship as a burden we must endure, rather than as a privilege to look forward to and enjoy. No Christian has ever been called to "go it alone" in his or her walk of faith. That's why we should say as David did, "I was glad when they said to me, 'Let us go to the house of the LORD'" (Ps. 122:1).

LIFE PRINCIPLE 19

ANYTHING YOU HOLD TOO TIGHTLY, YOU WILL LOSE.

AMOS 6:6, 7

n seventeenth century
France, a humble church leader named François
Fénelon wrote a letter of encouragement to believers who sought spiritual perspective during some discouraging trials. He said,

Do not worry about the future. It makes no sense to worry if God loves you and has taken care of you. However, when God blesses you, remember to keep your eyes on Him and not the blessing. Enjoy your blessings day by day, just as the Israelites enjoyed their manna; but do not try to store the blessings for the future

Sometimes in this life of faith, God will remove His blessings from you. But remember that He knows how and when to replace them, either through the ministry of others or by Himself. He can raise up children from the very stones.

Eat then your daily bread without worrying about tomorrow. There is time enough tomorrow to think about the things tomorrow will bring. The same God who feeds you today is the very God who will feed you tomorrow. God will see to it that manna falls again from Heaven in the midst of the desert, before His children lack any good thing.

If we lived with faith of this kind, we would stop being so anxious and fretting about all our troubles. Will we humbly depend on God to provide?

Admit it—in a tough situation, your first emotional response is to take control. We all want control. We want to live with the assurance that everything will be okay and that the things that aren't right can be fixed with concentrated effort. Secretly, we often think, "If I plan carefully and labor enough, I can overcome any difficulty."

The problem comes when your efforts aren't enough—the problem you face is greater than all of your resources or completely outside your scope of influence. God allows those trials for an important reason—He wants you to recognize that He is in control. Yet the Lord does not want merely to be the resource you call on when you're in trouble. God wants to be your all-sufficient Lord and Master, Savior and Friend. He knows you intimately; He formed your very cells and fibers (Ps. 139:13–16); He has a good plan for every day of your life (Eph. 2:10), and He knows how to fulfill His purpose for you (Ps. 138:8).

"When I am afraid, I will put my trust in You" (Ps. 56:3).

When you face circumstances that rapidly deplete your spiritual, emotional, and physical reserves, you may want to cling to something strong out of fear. The question you must consider is whether your worries drive you to the arms of God or to your own resources.

Are you hanging on to something other than the Lord? Are you gripping some form of earthly security instead of trusting Him to help you? Remember, whatever you hold too tightly, you will lose. Whatever you are clutching for safety has become an idol to you—regardless of whether it is wealth, your giftedness, relationships, religious rituals, or what have you—and God is not going to allow you to keep that idol as your source of confidence—a role that rightly belongs to Him. Rather, He will allow it to fail you so you can see that He truly is your sovereign and unfailing Lord.

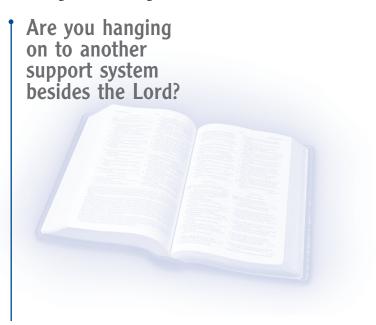

God longs for you to release yourself into His control and eternal support. He will take care of all that concerns you in the best way possible, and He will also sustain you in the process (Phil. 4:6, 7).

When you feel ready to yield wholly to the Lord, Psalm 56 provides a wonderful model prayer: "When I am afraid, I will put my trust in You. In God, whose word I praise, in God I have put my trust; I shall not be afraid. What can mere man do to me?" (vv. 3, 4)

Maybe to this point in your relationship with the Lord you have not experienced a trial so extreme that it caused you to assess the true foundation of your trust. God has blessed you with a time of quiet strengthening.

But understand that He loves you too much to allow you any notions of self-sufficiency. He will test you in time, but always with the purpose of demonstrating His never-ending love.

Obedient Without Compromise

AMOS 7:14, 15

God called Amos from his flocks and groves in Judah to prophesy to the northern kingdom of Israel. Although King Jeroboam II had expanded Israel's territory and the nation was enjoying a time of prosperity, the people were corrupt, immoral, and idolatrous. Without hesitation or argument, the shepherd complied with God's command and declared the Lord's judgment upon Israel and the surrounding nations.

Amos knew he would be fighting an uphill battle. During this economic golden era, the people did not welcome his words of warning. Yet he understood that for the people to be saved from God's wrath, they would have to repent—turning from their wicked ways and serving the Lord wholeheartedly. And so the shepherd proclaimed God's call to repentance, "Hate evil, love good, and establish justice in the gate! Perhaps the LORD God of hosts may be gracious to the remnant of Joseph" (Amos 5:15).

How many of us today have the mighty spirit of Amos? How many boldly face a hostile world and faithfully proclaim the truth of the Lord? How many obey, regardless of the repercussions? How many absorb blow after blow from the enemy, only to turn and take the next obedient step in their walk of faith?

his verse foreshadows the coming of the Messiah, Jesus Christ, who would not only offer salvation to the people of Israel, but to every person who believes in Him and His provision on the Cross (John 3:16–18; Rom. 1:15-17; Gal. 3:8). Our God calls men and women, boys and girls into His family from every tribe and nation on earth, so that we may "exalt His name together" (Ps. 34:3; also Rev. 5:9; 7:9, 10; 14:6, 7).

struggle that began in the womb between twin brothers, Esau and Jacob (Gen. 25:19–26), eventually erupted into a greater struggle between their respective descendants, the Edomites and the Israelites. The prophet Obadiah roundly condemned the Edomites for their stubborn refusal to aid Israel, first during the time of the wilderness wandering (Num. 20:14–21) and later during the time of the Babylonian invasion. This prophet described their crimes, tried their case, and pronounced their judgment: total destruction. By contrast, God promised that His people would ultimately destroy their enemies and live in peace.

Obadiah is the shortest book of the Old Testament and in it, Obadiah addresses Edom's prideful and superior attitude after the enemies of Israel had crushed her. He knew that a similar end would come to Edom and that God would eventually restore Israel to her land and place of prominence.

The Hebrew name Obadyah means "Worshiper of Yahweh" or "Servant of Yahweh." Nothing more is known of the prophet other than what he reveals in the brief twenty-one verses of his prophecy.

Themes: God provides and cares for His people and will execute judgment against those who oppose them.

Author: Obadiah.

Time: Possibly circa 840 B.C., during the invasion of a Philistine and Arab coalition; or in 586 B.C., during the Babylonian conquest of Jerusalem.

Structure: Verses 1–16 of Obadiah foretell the destruction of Edom, while verses 17–21 speak of the deliverance of Zion.

You are greatly despised.

 If robbers by night—
 O how you will be ruined!—
 Would they not steal only until they had enough?
 If grape gatherers came to you,

Would they not leave some gleanings? 6 "O how Esau will be ransacked,

And his hidden treasures searched out!

7 "All the men allied with you
Will send you forth to the border,
And the men at peace with you
Will deceive you and overpower you.
They who eat your bread
Will set an ambush for you.

So that everyone may be cut off from the mountain of Esau by slaughter.

10 "Because of violence to your brother Jacob,

You will be covered with shame, And you will be cut off forever.

11 "On the day that you stood aloof, On the day that strangers carried off his wealth.

And foreigners entered his gate And cast lots for Jerusalem— You too were as one of them.

12 "Do not gloat over your brother's day, The day of his misfortune. And do not rejoice over the sons of Judah

In the day of their destruction; Yes, do not boast

In the day of their distress.

13 "Do not enter the gate of My people In the day of their disaster. Yes, you, do not gloat over their calamity In the day of their disaster. And do not loot their wealth In the day of their disaster.

The Day of the LORD and the Future

15 "For the day of the Lord draws near on all the nations.

As you have done, it will be done to you. Your dealings will return on your own head.

16 "Because just as you drank on My holy mountain,

All the nations will drink continually.
They will drink and swallow
And become as if they had never existed.

17 "But on Mount Zion there will be those who escape.

And it will be holy.

And the house of Jacob will possess their possessions.

fter an invasion of Judah by her enemies, the Edomites rejoiced and mocked her misfortune. Because they lived in seemingly impregnable cities that were cut out of rock cliffs—like one sees today in Petra—they arrogantly felt as if nothing could touch them. However, as Obadiah would reveal, they were wrong. God hates pride (Prov. 8:13; James 4:6) because it is an overemphasis on self. We believe the lie, as the Edomites did, that we know better than the Lord. Yet in such arrogance is sure destruction (Prov. 16:18). Always remember, whatever you acquire outside of God's will eventually turns to ashes.

epeatedly in Scripture God says that He will use a man's own sin against him in judgment (Esth. 7:10; Ps. 57:6; Prov. 26:27; 28:10; Eccl. 10:8; Is. 33:1; Hab. 2:8). "He has dug a pit and hollowed it out," said David of the wicked, "and has fallen into the hole which he made" (Ps. 7:15). In other words, we reap what we sow, more than we sow, and later than we sow. Yet as believers in the Lord Jesus Christ and as recipients of the salvation He provided on the Cross, we can be thankful that God has not only forgiven our sins, but has erased and forgotten them (Ps. 103:12; Is. 38:17; 43:25; Jer. 31:34; Mic. 7:9; Heb. 8:12; 9:26; 10:17).

THE BOOK OF JONAH

hen God called Jonah to leave his home in Israel and travel northeast to Nineveh to preach to the city's wicked residents, the prophet fled from the divine assignment by heading west toward Tarshish. As a true prophet of the Lord (2 Kin. 14:25), Jonah knew God and recognized Him as being merciful, gracious, "slow to anger and abundant in lovingkindness, and one who relents concerning calamity" (Jon. 4:2). However, Jonah despised the brutal Assyrian city of Nineveh. He did not want to give its citizens the opportunity to repent and experience God's mercy. So he ran in the opposite direction.

Yet once God had gotten the prophet's attention—first by having the sailors drop him into the stormy ocean and then by sending a great fish to swallow him—Jonah realized just how serious God was about His command. Nineveh must hear the word of the Lord. Therefore, Jonah repented of his disobedience, traveled to Nineveh, and there preached the message God gave him.

Most preachers would feel delighted to speak to a receptive audience eager to respond positively to the message—but the Ninevites' humble reaction angered Jonah. Or rather, God's gracious response to the Ninevites' repentance embittered the prophet. He had to learn firsthand to be thankful for God's compassion toward sinful men, regardless of who they might be.

Throughout modern times, the story of Jonah often has been ridiculed as myth, but the Hebrew people accepted it as historical. Jesus Christ Himself also vouched for the truth of the book and the remarkable story it relates (Matt. 12:39–41).

Yonah is the Hebrew word for "dove." The Latin Vulgate used the title Jonas.

Themes: God will move heaven and earth to show us His will; so when He calls, we should obey—whether or not we understand or concur with His plans. Also, His message of grace is for all who will believe and repent, regardless of our prejudices.

Author: Jonah the prophet.

Time: Jonah lived during the reign of King Jeroboam II, circa 760 B.C.

Structure: Chapter one of Jonah records the prophet's call and disobedience. Chapter two describes his distress in the belly of the fish. Chapter three recounts the prophet's declaration of judgment to the people of Nineveh. Chapter four records Jonah's displeasure at God's withholding of judgment after the Ninevites repent.

No Fleeing the God of Everywhere

JON. 1:1-3

The Bible tells us that Jonah fled to Tarshish in an effort to escape from the presence of the Lord and thereby avoid his assignment to preach to a people he despised. He did this not because he thought he might fail, but because he feared he might succeed.

Apparently Jonah forgot what King David knew so well: "Where can I go from Your Spirit? Or where can I flee from Your presence?" (Ps. 139:7). The answer, of course, is that there is nowhere we can escape to that the Lord will not find us-God is everywhere. In fact, God said: "Am I a God who is near . . . and not a God far off? Can a man hide himself in hiding places so I do not see him? . . . Do I not fill the heavens and the earth?" (Jer. 23:23, 24).

We serve the God who fills heaven and earth. Everywhere we are, there He is—and He was there long before we arrived. Therefore, we should not run from Him; rather, we should seek and embrace Him with all our hearts, minds, souls, and strength. And we should obey everything He commands us to do because surely He can and will bless us no matter where He tells us to go.

Jonah's Disobedience

THE word of the LORD came to Jonah the L son of Amittai saying,

2 "Arise, go to Nineveh the great city and cry against it, for their wickedness has come up before Me."

- But Jonah rose up to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. So he went down to Joppa, found a ship which was going to Tarshish, paid the fare and went down into it to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of the Lord.
- 4 The LORD hurled a great wind on the sea and there was a great storm on the sea so that the ship was about to break up.
- Then the sailors became afraid and every man cried to his god, and they threw the cargo which was in the ship into the sea to lighten it for them. But Jonah had gone below into the hold of the ship, lain down and fallen sound asleep.
- So the captain approached him and said, "How is it that you are sleeping? Get up, call on your god. Perhaps your god will be concerned about us so that we will not perish."
- Each man said to his mate, "Come, let us cast lots so we may learn on whose account this calamity has struck us." So they cast lots and the lot fell on Jonah.
- Then they said to him, "Tell us, now! On whose account has this calamity struck us? What is your occupation? And where do you come from? What is your country? From what people are you?"
- He said to them, "I am a Hebrew, and I fear the LORD God of heaven who made the sea and the dry land."
- 10 Then the men became extremely frightened and they said to him, "How could you do this?" For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the Lord, because he had told them.
- 11 So they said to him, "What should we do to you that the sea may become calm for us?" for the sea was becoming increasingly stormy.
- 12 He said to them, "Pick me up and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will become calm for you, for I know that on account of me this great storm has come upon you."
- 13 However, the men rowed desperately to return to land but they could not, for the sea was becoming even stormier against them.
- 14 Then they called on the LORD and said, "We earnestly pray, O LORD, do not let us perish on account of this man's life and do not put innocent blood on us; for You, O LORD, have done as You have pleased."

onah understood immediately that his disobedience had put the ship in peril and that because of him, his shipmates could perish. So he told them to cast him into the rough, stormy waters—although doing so would probably result in his death (Jon. 1:14). Yet God did not abandon Jonah to die alone at sea. Rather, He sent a fish to swallow His prophet and to ensure that he would be in a place where he would repent and fulfill his God-given assignment. Jonah did exactly that. The moment the fish released him onto dry land, he headed for Nineveh (2:10).

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

How does God deal with our disobedience?

JON. 2

In the light of God's omniscience and omnipresence, it's easy to wonder why Christians still attempt to run from the Lord. Jonah certainly demonstrated that it could not be done, and yet many people still insist on trying. Why?

Sometimes we act out of pure selfishness. We believe we know what is best for us, regardless of what God says. Sometimes we balk out of simple fear. We worry that we might not succeed or that others will criticize our efforts or that our obedience will cost us too much. What we fail to recognize, however, is the much higher price of fleeing from the Lord.

Jonah paid dearly for his rebellion. Not only did he suffer embarrassment, terror, and guilt, but he also jeopardized the lives of men whom God wanted to save. Jonah overlooked two essentials that we should all keep in mind.

First, he incorrectly assumed that fleeing from God would release him from having to 15 So they picked up Jonah, threw him into the sea, and the sea stopped its raging.

➤ 16 Then the men feared the LORD greatly, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows.

17 And the LORD appointed a great fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the stomach of the fish three days and three nights.

Jonah's Prayer

 2^{THEN} Jonah prayed to the Lord his God from the stomach of the fish, \triangleright 2 and he said,

"I called out of my distress to the LORD, obey God. He never imagined how persistent the Lord could be when He called him to duty. Eventually Jonah found that God will pursue us in love, even to the depths of the sea, in order to conform us to His will and His plan for our lives. God simply will not be deterred by our disobedience.

Second, Jonah forgot that disobeying the Lord leads only to destruction—our own and those whom God wants to bless through us. How many people say, "I can do what I want. It's my life"? No, it's not. If you are a Christian, God tells you, "You are not your own." In fact, "you have been bought with a price," and both your body and your life belong to God (1 Cor. 6:19, 20). You cannot sin against the Lord without paying a terrible price and hurting others in the process.

Despite these awful realities, it is also true that God is willing to forgive. He kept after Jonah as long as it was necessary for the prophet to respond in obedience, so the people of Nineveh could hear God's warning and repent. And He will do the same with you. Therefore, obey God and leave all the consequences of your obedience to Him. Any other course just isn't worth it.

> 2:2 — "I called out of my distress to the LORD, and He answered me."

God will never turn away from a truly repentant heart, even if that heart beats in a man who tried to run away from Him. The Lord often uses affliction, not to punish us but to bring us back to Him.

Jonah didn't pity Nineveh, but God did. And He spared the Ninevites because He loves mercy, not judgment.

icah, called from his home in Moresheth to be a prophet, delivered a stern message of judgment to the people of Israel and Judah. Angered by the abusive treatment of the poor by the rich and influential, the prophet turned his verbal rebukes upon any who would use their social or political power for personal gain.

Micah insisted that God's righteous demands upon His people remained clear at all times and in all ages: "To do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God" (Mic. 6:8).

However, Micah not only rebuked his people, he also issued several prophecies of the coming Messiah and described a future time of peace and prosperity when Israel would once more serve the Lord in holy gladness. The most famous of his messianic prophecies is a favorite at Christmas time: "As for you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, too little to be among the clans of Judah, from you One will go forth for Me to be ruler in Israel. His goings forth are from long ago, from the days of eternity" (Mic. 5:2).

The Hebrew name Michayahu ("Who is like Yahweh?") is shortened in the book to Michaia.

Themes: God insists that His people must reflect His holy character in the way they live; if they refuse, judgment is the inevitable result. Yet God will never abandon His covenant people and will send the Messiah to rescue them from their sins and to one day rule over them in righteousness and truth.

Author: Micah, a native of Moresheth in southern Judah.

Time: Micah prophesied during the reigns of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah (750–686 B.C.) and was a contemporary of the prophets Isaiah and Hosea.

Structure: The first portion of Micah's book generally exposes the sins of his countrymen; then he focuses on the punishment God is about to send; and the final portion holds out the hope of restoration once that discipline has ended.

As you read Micah, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

Destruction in Israel and Judah

THE word of the LORD which came to Micah of Moresheth in the days of Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

- 2 Hear, O peoples, all of you; Listen, O earth and all it contains, And let the Lord God be a witness against you,
- The Lord from His holy temple.

 For behold, the LORD is coming forth from His place.

He will come down and tread on the high places of the earth.

- 4 The mountains will melt under Him And the valleys will be split, Like wax before the fire, Like water poured down a steep place.
- All this is for the rebellion of Jacob And for the sins of the house of Israel.
 What is the rebellion of Jacob? Is it not Samaria?
 What is the high place of Judah? Is it not Jerusalem?
- 6 For I will make Samaria a heap of ruins in the open country, Planting places for a vineyard. I will pour her stones down into the valley
- And will lay bare her foundations.
- 7 All of her idols will be smashed, All of her earnings will be burned with fire

And all of her images I will make desolate, he false prophets of Micah's era did not want to hear God's righteous judgment—they only wanted words of comfort and prosperity. They did not understand that God desires to bless us, not punish us, so even His words of rebuke and correction are good for us (Deut. 8:5–7; Prov. 3:11, 12; 15:32; 19:20; Heb. 12:5–11; Rev. 3:19). However, Micah, who attributed all the power and wisdom of his ministry to the Lord, would continue to be a mighty witness. Likewise, God has given us not a spirit of fear, but of power (2 Tim. 1:7), which comes from His Spirit: "You will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you" (Acts 1:8; see also Eph. 3:16). Although we may have to stand against those who despise God's work and people, we must remember that their accusations will pass away, "but the word of the LORD endures forever" (1 Pet. 1:25).

> 4:2 — "That He may teach us about His ways and that we may walk in His paths."

This verse describes a time when both Jews and Gentiles would be invited to come to the Lord and would be taught to obey Him in a new way (Jer. 31:31–34). It also foreshadows "the last days" (Mic. 4:1). God does not leave us in the dark about His nature and will—in fact, He will move heaven and earth to show us His will if necessary. Through His Spirit, He enables us to reflect His character and accomplish whatever He calls us to do. We walk in His paths when we allow Jesus to live through us.

> 4:12 — They do not know the thoughts of the LORD, and they do not understand His purpose.

Ithough the nations gathered against Judah believed they had finally gained the advantage over her (Mic. 4:11), they were wrong. They did not realize that the Lord was only allowing this conquest in order to bring her to repentance and redeem her (v. 10). Without a full surrender to God, a person cannot understand His thoughts or counsel. Such a person cannot "accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually appraised" (1 Cor. 2:14). However, when we accept Jesus Christ as our Savior, God gives us spiritual understanding and the ability to know His will for our lives.

Micah accurately prophesied the fall of Israel's capital city of Samaria (Mic. 1:6; 722 B.C.); Judah's capital city of Jerusalem (Mic. 4:10; 586 B.C.); and the dispersion of their peoples throughout the nations. However, as other prophets also testified, a Great Shepherd would arise to reunite them (Is. 11:12; 40:10, 11; Jer. 50:4, 5; Ezek. 34:11–16, 22–31; 37:15–28; Hos. 1:11). God fulfilled His promise to bring them back into the land through the Persian king Cyrus (2 Chr. 36:22, 23; Ezra 1:1–3). However, He would truly unite them in peace, spirit, truth, and salvation through His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ (John 4:1–26). Jesus said, "I am the good shepherd; the good shepherd lays down His life for the sheep" (10:11).

> 6:8 — What does the LORD require of you but to do iustice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

To be a "good Christian" requires more than merely performing religious rituals. Rather, to live the Christian life is to allow Jesus to live His life in and through us. God wants us to show the world what He is doing inside of us—and that takes humble, merciful, just action—behavior such as Christ would exhibit.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT TRUE RELIGION

ave we lost our ability to function in society the way God originally intended? He left us here to be a light to our world. People should be able to look our way and see something wonderfully different about us. Not our clothes or our hairstyles—us! The abundant, Spirit-filled life God has given us should be expressed in godly, obedient, and practical ways to those around us. Does it?

The prophet Micah said it like this: "He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?" (Mic. 6:8). This was not an exclusively Old Testament perspective. In fact, the New Testament reflects this same principle in James 1:27: "Pure and undefiled religion in the sight of our God and Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained by the world."

This means there should be something different and godly in the way we do business and treat others. There also should be some clear differences in the way we raise our children. Our marriages should testify to the love of Christ. Those outside the church should feel powerfully attracted to the unity and love they see among believers.

"He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?" (Mic. 6:8).

Are we leading others to the Lord by our life and testimony? Are we exhibiting the Spirit-filled characteristics that naturally flow from a true believer in Jesus Christ-"love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, [and] self-control" (Gal. 5:22, 23)? And are we "applying all diligence" in faith to add moral excellence, knowledge, self-control, perseverance, godliness, brotherly kindness, and love to our lives to ensure we are fruitful for the kingdom of God (2 Pet. 1:5–8)? Are we honoring Him by caring for others (John 13:35)? If not, we need to ask God to teach us how to live so that our lives reflect His love and care at every turn.

We cannot expect anyone to embrace a Savior they know nothing about. Yet as the body of Christ, we are His hands and feet, His mouthpiece, His representatives, and His "fragrance . . . among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing" (2 Cor. 2:15). And as ambassadors for Christ, we have the God-given responsibility to live in such a way that others see Him in us by doing justice, loving kindness, and walking humbly with our God. Therefore, set a goal to know Him better and to allow Him to love you with His infinite and unconditional love. When you abide in Him—obeying His commands and expressing His character—others will "see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven" (Matt. 5:16).

> 7:7 — I will watch expectantly for the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation. My God will hear me.

Thether we like it or not, waiting on God is a big part of our walk of faith. Many people think that waiting is a waste of time, but it is not. When we obey His command to wait, we demonstrate true faith and trust in His ability to accomplish all things at the right time.

> 7:8 — Though I dwell in darkness, the LORD is a light for me

Oth Israel and Judah went through some very dark times. However, God's promise of redemption was a light of hope in a time of great darkness. Likewise, all of us will experience difficulties, but we can remain confident in the midst of them because the dark moments of our lives will last only so long as is necessary for God to accomplish His purpose in us.

> 7:18 — Who is a God like You, who pardons iniquity and passes over the rebellious act of the remnant of His possession?

God was never under any obligation to forgive our sins or pardon our iniquity. We do not deserve His mercy. But He loves us and so sent His Son to die for our sins. Who, indeed, is like our God?

> 7:19 — Yes, You will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

Then God forgives us in Christ, He does not merely turn His back on our sins or force Himself to overlook them. He deals with them radically and once and for all, removing them from us forever (Ps. 103:12; Is. 43:25; Heb. 8:12; 9:26; 10:17).

from everyone who has been given much, much will be required," Jesus declared (Luke 12:48). His words found graphic illustration in ancient Nineveh, the infamous capital of Assyria.

The great Gentile city had been given the privilege of knowing the one true God. Under Jonah's preaching, the people of the metropolis repented, and God graciously withheld His promised judgment.

A hundred years later, however, Nahum proclaims the downfall of the same city. The Assyrians forgot their life-saving revival and returned to their habits of violence, idolatry, and arrogance. As a result, the Babylonians would so utterly destroy the city that no trace of it would remain—a prophecy fulfilled in painful detail. In fact, until modern times, the exact location of Nineveh (near modern-day Mosul in Iraq) had been forgotten.

The Hebrew word nahum ("comfort," "consolation") is a shortened form of Nehemiah ("comfort of Yahweh"). The destruction of the capital city of Assyria brought comfort and consolation to Judah and all who lived in fear of the cruelty of the Assyrians.

Themes: God judges disobedience, but He shows mercy to the repentant. Nahum is sometimes regarded as a sequel to the Book of Jonah.

Author: Nahum.

Time: Written sometime between 663 and 612 B.C., before the fall of Nineveh (612

B.C.).

Structure: The Book of Nahum can be divided simply into three parts. In chapter one, Nahum describes the Lord as Nineveh's judge. In chapter two, he proclaims Nineveh's judgment. In chapter three, he prophesies Nineveh's complete ruin.

As you read Nahum, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

- 1. Our intimacy with God—His highest priority for our lives—determines the impact of our lives. See Nahum 1:2; page 1061.
- 21. Obedience always brings blessing. See Nahum 2:13; page 1062.

> 3:14 — Draw for yourself water for the siege! Strengthen your fortifications! Go into the clay and tread the mortar! Take hold of the brick mold!

These were all the customary military preparations before a siege. Yet no matter how hard the Assyrians worked to thwart God's judgment, they could not avoid it by their own means (Nah. 3:15). Only the Lord's mercy could turn it away from them, but they refused to repent and seek Him (Ps. 20:7, 8).

> 3:19 — There is no relief for your breakdown, your wound is incurable.

Those who refuse to come to God for their spiritual healing will never be cured (John 3:17, 18). We were made for intimacy with God, and to seek a cure for spiritual wounds apart from Him is to search in vain.

abakkuk ministered during the final days before the nation of Judah was conquered by the Babylonians. Although God had repeatedly called the nation to repentance, Judah stubbornly refused to change her sinful ways.

The prophet, knowing the hardheartedness of his countrymen, asked God how long such an intolerable condition could continue. The Lord's answer was not what the prophet wanted to hear. He replied that He would use the brutal Babylonians as His chastening rod upon the wayward nation—an announcement that sent the prophet to his knees. How could God use a nation more wicked than Judah to punish them? God answered that, in His time, He would also punish the Babylonians.

Habakkuk did not entirely understand God's plan, but he acknowledged that the righteous in any generation must live by faith (2:4). He would leave the situation in God's holy hands. Habakkuk concluded his book by praising God's wisdom, even though he did not fully grasp God's mysterious ways.

Habaqquq is an unusual Hebrew name, derived from the verb habaq, "embrace." Thus his name probably means "one who embraces or clings." At the end of his book, this name becomes especially appropriate because Habakkuk chooses to cling firmly to God, regardless of what happens to him or his nation (3:17–19).

Themes: God rules over the whole earth and uses whomever He chooses for His purposes. We are to trust God, even when we don't understand His will.

Author: Habakkuk.

Time: Uncertain. Many scholars place his ministry at the end of King Josiah's reign (640–609 B.C.), but some believe he prophesied during the reign of Jehoiakim (609–598 B.C.).

Structure: The first two chapters of Habakkuk feature a conversation between God and the prophet concerning evil and judgment. The third and final chapter is a psalm of prayer and praise for the sovereignty and providence of God.

As you read Habakkuk, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

- 5. God does not require us to understand His will, just obey it, even if it seems unreasonable. See Habakkuk 1:12—2:1; page 1065.
- 20. Disappointments are inevitable, discouragement is a choice. See Habakkuk 3:17–19; page 1070.

Why do You look with favor
On those who deal treacherously?
Why are You silent when the wicked swallow up

Those more righteous than they?

14 Why have You made men like the fish of the sea,

Like creeping things without a ruler over them?

15 The Chaldeans bring all of them up with a hook,

Drag them away with their net, And gather them together in their fishing net.

Therefore they rejoice and are glad.

16 Therefore they offer a sacrifice to their net

And burn incense to their fishing net;

Because through these things their catch is large,

And their food is plentiful.

17 Will they therefore empty their net And continually slay nations without sparing?

Habakkuk was confounded as to why God would send the pagan nation of Babylon (also known as the Chaldeans) to judge His people. Where was the justice in such a situation? Didn't the Babylonians deserve the Lord's wrath more than the people of Judah? Yet God assured the prophet that He already had plans to deal with the invaders (Hab. 2); and just as He promised, they were conquered by the Persians (2 Chr. 36:20; Dan. 5:25–31; 539 B.c.). We might prefer a world where God instantly judges every wrong, but that is not the world we have (nor would any of us long survive in it!). Yet in His time, He will certainly judge evil and reward good.

2:2 — "Record the vision and inscribe it on tablets, that the one who reads it may run."

God told Jeremiah, "Write all the words which I have spoken to you in a book" (Jer. 30:2). He also instructed Israel's kings to copy His Word (Deut. 17:18). Why? It's simple: we remember what we write. Also, all the books of the Bible stand as incontrovertible proof that God always does exactly as He says.

> 2:4 — "Behold, as for the proud one, his soul is not right within him; but the righteous will live by his faith."

Thy does God contrast pride with faith? Because pride stems from the belief that we know better than God, while faith understands we are completely dependent upon Him (Ps. 75:5-7; Heb. 11:1, 6). The Babylonians, "whose strength is their god" (Hab. 1:11), would ultimately fall. Yet if the people of Judah would repent and seek God, they would survive. And history shows that, indeed, not only did Judah persevere, but the Lord used Persia to bring them back into the Promised Land (2 Chr. 36:22, 23; Ezra 1:1-3)—the same nation He used to overthrow the Babylonians (2 Chr. 36:20; Dan. 5:25-31)!

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

What can I do when my feelings go from discouraged to hopeless?

HAB. 3:17-19

If you feel hopeless, helpless, or powerless—unable to deal with people or problems and on the verge of exhaustion—take heart in the prophet Habakkuk's stirring conclusion to his short book.

Knowing that a savage army of Babylonians would soon plunder his homeland, Habakkuk was discouraged. Surely, the coming destruction would be absolutely unbearable. Yet despite the disheartening scenario, Habakkuk penned an amazing response: "I will rejoice in the God of my salvation. The Lord GOD is my strength, and He has made my feet like hinds' feet, and makes me walk on my high places" (3:18, 19). Even if the crops all failed, the livestock died, and everything he had learned to depend on was ruined, Habakkuk would still trust the Lord (3:17).

Where did the prophet find such hope in the face of such terrible calamity? For one thing, clearly he had been strengthened by God's Word. His expression of faith closely echoes the words of David, uttered centuries before: "The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer, my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge; my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised, and I am saved from my enemies" (Ps. 18:2, 3).

Also, Habakkuk had spent a great deal of time alone with the Lord. In fact, the book that bears his name is a record of his extended conversation with God concerning His ways and plans. While Habakkuk did not understand (or particularly like) what he heard from God, he acknowledged the fact that His ways are best. He trusted the Lord for the future of Israel and for his own life. Regardless of the circumstances, the prophet knew that the Lord was at work and would bring good out of what seemed to be horrendous circumstances. That is God's promise to us. He is always at work in our lives to bring good out of the darkest of situations (Rom. 8:28).

When the outlook looks grim, Christ is your strength. When the circumstances seem volatile, Christ is your stability. When the future appears foreboding, Christ remains your hope. The strength of Christ is both inexhaustible and immeasurable—and it is yours to receive.

God delights in upholding the weary and reviving the fainthearted (Is. 40:29–31). Your reservoir of emotional and physical energy may feel nearly drained, but God's supply of spiritual stamina never runs out. Come to Him and His Word for the strength to carry on, and He will supply the power you need to traverse the rough terrain ahead. That's His promise, and God always keeps His promises.

LIFE PRINCIPLE 20

DISAPPOINTMENTS ARE INEVITABLE; DISCOURAGEMENT IS A CHOICE.

HAB. 3:17-19

veryone has known the ache of sadness that comes when life moves in an unanticipated, undesired direction. Disappointment may come as a result of a negative change in circumstances, a sudden reversal of plans, or a frustrating personal issue. If someone close to you behaves in a manner that lets you down, you may experience deep sensations of loss. For example, if someone works spitefully to thwart your plans, you may be tempted to lash out against them. Yet, regardless of what has caused your disappointment, the dream you once cherished seems to be in ruins. You may not know how to respond because it is difficult to sort through your emotions.

Perhaps that was the case for Joseph, the Nazarene carpenter who was betrothed to the godly young woman named Mary. Like any Jewish man, he looked forward to the day when he would take a wife and start a family.

Then the news came.

Imagine the emotions of Joseph's heart when he heard that Mary was pregnant. What a devastating blow to his hopes and plans, for, according to the Law, she deserved to be stoned (Deut. 22:23, 24). Not only would he have no bride, but his betrothed would be put to death. The disappointment must have been overwhelming.

Matthew 1:19 shows that Joseph pondered a different course of action, perhaps trying to diffuse some of the terrible anguish of the situation: "Joseph her [betrothed] husband, being a righteous man and not wanting to disgrace her, planned to send her away secretly."

Yet, as we know, Mary had by no means violated the Law; and in fact, God had very special plans for that pregnancy (Is. 7:14; Matt. 1:18; Luke 1:26–38). The Lord's angel told Mary, "You will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall name Him Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High" (Luke 1:31, 32).

The Lord sent an angel to confirm His extraordinary plan to Joseph. He said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife; for the Child who has been conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. She will bear a Son; and you shall call His name Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins" (Matt. 1:20, 21). Joseph did not allow his initial disappointment to give way to discouragement. Rather, he accepted God's will, obeyed the Lord, and brought Mary home to live with him, as a virgin, until the birth of Jesus (vv. 24, 25).

The Lord has a unique plan for your life, too—one that does not change according to unexpected circumstances. When you confront a situation that does not line up with your understanding of how God wants your life to proceed, you must stop and look to Him for direction. Sometimes He allows disappointments to occur so that you will learn to rely on Him more fully—to walk by faith and not by sight. But never forget this: while disappointments are inevitable, discouragement is a choice. You should not allow the challenges that arise to steal your enthusiasm or confidence in Him.

In the daily disappointments that threaten to consume your emotional resources and deflect your attention away from the Lord, you have real hope and a real choice for joy and abundant living in Christ. Circumstances do not control you; Jesus does. You never have to be the victim of your feelings. You can choose to look to God, listen, learn, and move ahead. As you do, the wounded, dejected places in your heart and the scars of old disappointments will melt away in God's restoring love.

God does have blessings for you—more than you can imagine. Let go of disappointments and the fear of hoping and trusting again. God holds your future in His hands, and you will never lose by looking forward to what He has in store.

Trusting God in the Dark

HAB. 3:17-19

We trust God to accomplish what He promises us in His Word. But the real battle of faith comes when God responds in a way we don't expect or that we perceive as negative. What should we do when we don't understand God's plan or it involves our suffering? Will we continue to rely upon Him despite the disappointment? Or will we turn away from the Lord in discouragement?

The prophet Habakkuk experienced such a decision. He cried out for the Lord to judge the wickedness of Judah (1:1-4) and was horrified to learn that God would do so through the "fierce and impetuous" Babylonians (also known as the Chaldeans; v. 6). Habakkuk cried out, "You, O LORD, have appointed them to judge Why do You look with favor on those who deal treacherously? Why are You silent when the wicked swallow up those more righteous than they?" (vv. 12, 13). The prophet could not understand why God chose to work the way He did. Yet he demonstrated the essence of true faith: Habakkuk continued to trust the Lord's wisdom and faithfulness, no matter what happened or what He decided.

In difficult times, faith becomes a matter of devoted allegiance to the Lord Jesus Christ. Do we have confidence in Him regardless of the circumstances? Do we cling to God and His Word, even when it means we must suffer hardship? Can we say, along with Habakkuk, that although all our resources and reserves vanish, "yet I will exult in the LORD" (3:18)?

 \gt 3:18 — Yet I will exult in the Lord, I will rejoice in the God of my salvation.

How should we respond when our situation seems dire, even hopeless? What should we do when God appears silent or allows us to endure suffering? Trusting God means looking beyond what we can see to what God sees. If we want to honor Him as God, we must continue to have faith in Him and glorify Him in all we say and do, regardless of the circumstances. Yet we should also call this to mind and have hope: "The Lord's lovingkindnesses indeed never cease, for His compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is Your faithfulness. The Lord is good to those who wait for Him" (Lam. 3:22, 23, 25).

THE BOOK OF

from time to time during Judah's chaotic political and religious history, reform swept the nation. Zephaniah's forceful prophecy may have been a factor in the reform that occurred during Josiah's reign—a "revival" that produced outward change but did not fully remove the heart of corruption that had come to characterize the nation.

Zephaniah repeatedly hammers home his message that the day of the Lord—Judgment Day—is coming like a flood, when God will deal decisively with the malignancy of sin. Judah and her Gentile neighbors will shortly experience the crushing hand of God's wrath. After the divine chastening process has run its course, however, blessing will come once more, this time in the person of the Messiah, which is cause for great praise and singing.

Tsephan-yah, or Zephaniah, means "Yahweh hides" or "Yahweh has hidden." Evidently Zephaniah was born during the latter part of the reign of the evil King Manasseh; his name may indicate that he was "hidden" from Manasseh's atrocities. He appears to have been a man of great social standing and even may have been related to the royal family. In any case, he demonstrated a great awareness of court life as well as knowledge of the political situation of the time.

Theme: Zephaniah memorably illustrates the "kindness and severity" of almighty God as described in Romans 11:22. The Lord will never accept sin, but neither will He completely abandon His covenant people.

Author: The prophet Zephaniah, the son of Berekiah.

Time: Zephaniah began his ministry as a prophet in the early days of the reign of King Josiah (640–609 B.C.).

Structure: The first two chapters of Zephaniah paint a grim picture of God's judgment—on the nations of the world and on Judah herself—but the final chapter focuses on the need for salvation and God's promises of restoration and salvation for His people.

As you read Zephaniah, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

21. Obedience always brings blessing. See Zephaniah 1:12; page 1073.

26. Adversity is a bridge to a deeper relationship with God. See Zephaniah 2:3; page 1074.

> 1:7 — Be silent before the Lord Goo!

Fere, God is instructing the people of Judah to be quiet because the judgment is coming—none of their pleas or complaints would be heeded any longer. Though they perhaps believed they could talk or excuse themselves out of sin, the only proper response to one's transgression is complete, humble, sincere repentance—and they would have none of it. Yet God calls us to silence before Him for many other reasons as well. We are also to be quiet because of His authority over us—His awesome power and glory surpass all words (Hab. 2:20; Zech. 2:13). To hear His voice, we need to remain quiet and carefully listen, and anticipating His mighty work should still our mouths (Eccl. 5:1, 2; Matt. 6:6–8).

> 1:12 — "I will punish the men who are stagnant in spirit, who say in their hearts, 'The LORD will not do good or evil!""

Complacency is always dangerous, especially when considering our accountability to God (Rev. 3:16). From our point of view, it may seem as if He is inactive—that He neither detects the good nor the evil that we do. However, He observes, plans, waits, and acts. Are we putting off being obedient to Him because we think we have plenty of time (Ezek. 12:25–28)? Do not grow stagnant or rebellious in your spirit. Rather, submit to Him immediately because obedience always brings blessing.

> 2:3 — Seek the LORD, all you humble of the earth who have carried out His ordinances; seek righteousness, seek humility.

ephaniah admonished the people of Judah to humble themselves before the judgment fell. Yet for those who were already seeking the Lord in humility and obedience, he exhorted them to continue honoring the Lord, no matter what happened. In the midst of suffering, we may become discouraged and wonder if our obedience to God does any good (Ps. 73:13, 14). Yet be assured that it does (w. 16–28). And your adversity can be a bridge to an even deeper relationship with God if you submit yourself wholeheartedly to Him, regardless of the circumstances.

This passage brings to mind Isaiah's vision, where God purified the prophet's lips and called him into ministry (Is. 6:1–10). Likewise, it foreshadowed the coming of the Messiah, who would not only purify our lips, but also our hearts. "The things that proceed out of the mouth come from the heart, and those defile the man" (Matt. 15:18). Jesus also commissions us to serve Him shoulder to shoulder in preaching the gospel (Matt. 28:18–20).

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

How can I endure in my faith during hard times?

ZEPH. 3:17

You are God's masterpiece, and He has given you His Word as a testimony to the love and joy He has for you. Zephaniah 3:17 says, "The LORD your God is in your midst, a victorious warrior. He will exult over you with joy, He will be quiet in His love, He will rejoice over you with shouts of joy."

God rejoices over you and is transforming your life to reflect His goodness to others. He has an awesome plan for your life. You are not yet what you will be when you step into the eternal presence of God (1 Cor. 13:12; 1 John 3:2). Until that time, God is patiently molding and shaping you into the image of His Son. Therefore, you never have a reason to give up (Gal. 6:9). You are not alone! Jesus is with you, cheering you on to victory. He is at your side to strengthen and encourage you. When you fix vour eves on Him and not on your circumstances, you will begin to see life differently. Instead of thinking negatively, the Holy Spirit will teach you to think about the things of God—pure thoughts that honor Jesus Christ.

God also makes it clear that He loves you with an everlasting love and has pledged to never leave or forsake you (Deut. 31:6, 8; John 14:18; Heb. 13:5). He walks with you through disappointment, and when you confess your sins, "He is faithful and righteous to forgive [vour] sins and to cleanse [vou] from all unrighteousness" (1 John 1:9). He has seen the finished portrait! While on your own you can do nothing, He knows that through Christ you can and will succeed (Phil. 1:6; 4:13). This does not mean that you won't suffer or feel pain. Jesus endured both, and yet He did not give up. He knew that in order to complete His mission He would have to endure until the end, and He wanted more than anything else to accomplish the Father's will.

How could He possibly bear the weight of all our sins and still remain victorious? Because He had an eternal perspective (Heb. 12:2). Long before it happened, Jesus saw the Resurrection as a completed fact (Matt. 20:18, 19)—that after three days, He would rise from the grave to walk in victory over sin and death (1 Cor. 15:55–57). You can walk in confidence and triumph because Jesus is your example and His Spirit lives in you. Like colors on an artist's palette, God can work through every situation in your life—even the one you are facing right now—to bring you closer to Himself (Jer. 29:11–13; Rom. 8:28).

It had been sixteen years since the Jews had returned to the Promised Land after the Babylonian exile and had begun rebuilding the temple, but they still had not finished. Although restoring the house of the Lord had been their top priority when they first returned to Jerusalem (Ezra 1:2–6), their everyday personal issues increasingly interfered with doing reparations. Eventually, the people's lethargy and constant resistance by their enemies halted any progress on the holy structure (Ezra 4:4, 5).

In response, the prophet Haggai preached a fiery series of messages to admonish the nation to finish the temple. He called the builders to renewed courage, faith in the Lord, and holiness of life.

The meaning of the prophet's name, Chaggay, is uncertain, but it may be derived from the Hebrew word chag ("festival"). It may also be an abbreviated form of chaggiyah, "festival of Yahweh." Thus Haggai's name probably means "festal" or "festive," perhaps because he was born on the day of a major feast, such as Tabernacles. In fact, Haggai's second message takes place during that feast (Hag. 2:1).

Haggai has been called "the prophet of the temple" and possibly was born during the Babylonian captivity. He returned to Jerusalem with Zerubbabel, the governor of Jerusalem.

Haggai's stern call to duty proved to be just what the people of Judah needed to motivate them to finish what they had started. In response to the prophet's challenge, Joshua the high priest, Zerubbabel, and the people set about restoring the temple (Ezra 5:1, 2).

Theme: Haggai rebukes the people for failing to finish God's work and describes His promises to bless them once they complete it.

Author: Haggai.

Time: Haggai's ministry occurred in 520 B.C.—eighteen years after Cyrus's proclamation allowing the people to return to Jerusalem (538 B.C.) and sixteen years after the rebuilding project had originally commenced (c. 536 B.C.).

Structure: The book is built around four sermons. In the first message, Haggai called the people to rebuild the temple, and they responded (1:1–15). In the second, Haggai predicted that the rebuilt temple would be filled with God's glory (2:1–9). In the third, the prophet decried the people's sin and declared how God would bless obedience (2:10–19). In the fourth, Haggai encouraged Zerubbabel with prophecies of blessing for his obedience (2:20–23).

As you read Haggai, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

Haggai Begins Temple Building

IN the second year of Darius the king, on the first day of the sixth month, the word of the Lord came by the prophet Haggai to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying,

"Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'This people says, "The time has not come, even the time for the house of the Lord to be rebuilt.""

Then the word of the Lord came by Haggai the prophet, saying,

"Is it time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses while this house lies desolate?"

Now therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts, "Consider your ways!

- "You have sown much, but harvest little; you eat, but there is not enough to be satisfied; you drink, but there is not enough to become drunk; you put on clothing, but no one is warm enough; and he who earns, earns wages to put into a purse with holes."
- Thus says the LORD of hosts, "Consider > 7

"Go up to the mountains, bring wood and rebuild the temple, that I may be pleased with it and be glorified," says the LORD.

"You look for much, but behold, it comes to little; when you bring it home, I blow it away. Why?" declares the Lord of hosts, "Because of My house which lies desolate, while each of you runs to his own house.

10 "Therefore, because of you the sky has withheld its dew and the earth has withheld its produce.

11 "I called for a drought on the land, on the mountains, on the grain, on the new wine, on the oil, on what the ground produces, on men, on cattle, and on all the labor of your hands." 12 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the Lord their God and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him. And the people showed reverence for the LORD.

13 Then Haggai, the messenger of the Lord,  spoke by the commission of the Lord to the people saying, "'I am with you,' declares the LORD."

14 So the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of the LORD of hosts, their God,

The people in Jerusalem claimed that it was not yet time to rebuild the temple; however, they did so for selfish reasons (Hag. 1:2, 4). So God commanded them to examine themselves as to why nothing they did was bearing fruit (v. 6). We should always measure our lives against the light and truth of God's Word. Through Scripture, the Holy Spirit can alert us to dangerous trends in our lives or confirm that we're heading in the right direction (Heb. 4:12).

> 1:13 — Haggai, the messenger of the LORD, spoke by the commission of the LORD to the people saying, "I am with you,' declares the LORD.'

 γ ithin a month of Haggai's message, the people of Jerusalem were shaken from their slothfulness, fear, and selfishness, and again commenced their work on the temple. Rarely did a prophetic message take root in a community as swiftly as this one. Yet remember, the Holy Spirit empowers us to carry out God's commands. He gives us the courage, strength, and ability we need. Do not hesitate to obey God in the midst of your trouble. He will equip you to carry out whatever He calls you to do because He assumes full responsibility for your needs when you submit yourself to Him.

> 2:3 — "'Who is left among you who saw this temple in its former glory? And how do you see it now? Does it not seem to you like nothing in comparison?"

Aggai's second sermon took place on the Feast of Tabernacles (also known as the Feast of Booths; Lev. 23:33–44), which was a celebration of God's past and present provision for them. Very few were still alive who had seen the temple in its former glory seven decades earlier, yet the knowledge of its past magnificence must have discouraged the people greatly because they knew that anything they could build would be inferior. Yet God promised that He would work through them to create a house of greater glory than before (Hag. 2:9). Sometimes a problem may seem so overwhelming to us that we wish to ignore it. However, when God calls us to a task, we are responsible to face it and do our best. He wants us to fix our eyes on Him and the greater things He has planned for us.

> 2:4 — "'All you people of the land take courage," declares the LORD, 'and work; for I am with you.'

Pe can work hard and effectively for the Lord when we remember that He has promised to be with us. The awareness of God's presence energizes us for our work.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT SPIRITUAL SHORTSIGHTEDNESS IN GIVING

Hag. 1:2-11

uring Haggai's time, short-sightedness plagued God's people. Although it had been sixteen years since the Jews returned from their Babylonian captivity and had begun rebuilding the temple, it still remained in disrepair. The people were more interested in their own homes than in the house of the Lord. So the Lord rebuked them, saying: "You look for much, but behold, it comes to little; when you bring it home, I blow it away. Why? . . . Because of My house which lies desolate, while each of you runs to his own house" (Hag. 1:9).

The problem was that the people assumed that they could put their own interests ahead of God's and still prosper. Instead of giving freely to the Lord and honoring Him for His provision, they busied themselves with seeking their own prosperity. Yet the Lord had warned against this kind of flawed thinking long before: "Do not weary yourself to gain wealth, cease from your consideration of it. When you set your eyes on it, it is gone. For wealth certainly makes itself wings like an eagle that flies toward the heavens" (Prov. 23:4, 5).

A similar thing took place in Malachi's day. The people hoarded their possessions instead of rightfully bringing their tithes and offerings to the Lord. Yet God called it robbery and admonished them to "bring the whole tithe into the storehouse" (Mal. 3:10). He promised that if they honored Him, He would "rebuke the devourer" so that it would not "destroy the fruits of the ground," and He would make them into "a delightful land" (vv. 11, 12).

Do you believe that? Do you trust that when you honor God by giving, He blesses you in return? If not, then you are being spiritually shortsighted. When you give, you show your gratitude for the Lord's provision and your confidence that He will continue to meet all your needs (Phil. 4:19). Your willingness to give to God declares your level of faith. When you refuse to obey with your time, talents, and tithe, the devourer comes and consumes the fruit of your labors. As He told the people in Jerusalem, "You have sown much, but harvest little . . . and he who earns, earns wages to put into a purse with holes" (Hag. 1:6).

You simply cannot afford the shortsightedness that robs God of His due. The apostle Paul instructs, "He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must do just as he has purposed in his heart, not grudgingly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver" (2 Cor. 9:6, 7). So give to Him freely and gladly, for He has given you everything you have and has many more blessings to bestow. Honor Him, giving Him the first part of your time and resources—because surely, you will never be able to outgive God. He will multiply all that you commit to Him and show you all that is really yours as His child.

See the Life Principles Index for further study: 23. You can never outgive God.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S OUESTIONS

How can I feel secure in the Lord during troubled times?

HAG. 2:4-9

hen you know Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior, you can be certain of one thing in any time of trouble, suffering, hardship, difficulty, pain, or tragedy: the Lord is with you! Time and again in His Word, He assures you of His presence:

- "The LORD is with you when you are with Him. And if you seek Him, He will let you find Him" (2 Chr. 15:2).
- "Stand and see the salvation of the LORD on your behalf... Do not fear or be dismayed" (2 Chr. 20:17).
- "Do not be afraid of him,' declares the LORD, 'for I am with you to save you and deliver you from his hand'" (Jer. 42:11).
- "'All you people of the land take courage,' declares the LORD, 'and work; for I am with you'" (Hag. 2:4).

Jesus said the same thing to His disciples: "I am with you always" (Matt. 28:20).

The apostle Paul considered this truth and asked, "If God is for us, who is against us?" (Rom. 8:31). Don't answer his question too

LORD, 'and work; for I am with you,' declares the LORD of hosts.

 - 7 'I will shake all the nations; and they will come with the wealth of all nations, and I will fill this house with glory,' says the LORD of hosts.
 - 8 'The silver is Mine and the gold is Mine,' declares the LORD of hosts.

quickly. The truth is, many people can rise up against us. They can cheat us, harass us, persecute us, insult us, mock us, and even physically injure us. But here's the point: in the end, they cannot win.

That is why Jesus said, "You will be betrayed . . . and they will put some of you to death, and you will be hated by all because of My name. Yet not a hair of your head will perish" (Luke 21:16–18). If you belong to God, He gives you the eternal victory. Period. No one can take away what He has so freely provided for you.

When rough times come, immerse yourself in God's Word. Read His promises to you, His beloved child. Read about His power, His strength, His wisdom, and His love. Read how He has helped countless men and women through the ages as they trusted in Him. Read about His saving, delivering, and restoring power.

The more you read and study God's Word, the stronger your faith will grow.

The more you trust God, the more you will grow in your understanding that He is trustworthy in all things, at all times.

The more you take courage in the Lord's presence with you, the more secure you will feel—even in the most troubling of times and the most trying of circumstances. The Lord alone is your security, every moment of your life.

4. The awareness of God's presence energizes us for our work.

in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Haggai the prophet, saying, 11 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'Ask now the priests for a ruling:

12 'If a man carries holy meat in the fold of his garment, and touches bread with this fold, or cooked food, wine, oil, or any other food, will it become holy?'" And the priests answered, "No."

13 Then Haggai said, "If one who is unclean from a corpse touches any of these, will the latter become unclean?" And the priests answered, "It will become unclean."

14 Then Haggai said, "'So is this people. And so is this nation before Me,' declares the LORD, 'and so is every work of their hands; and what they offer there is unclean.

15 'But now, do consider from this day onward: before one stone was placed on another in the temple of the ${\sf Lord}$,

20 Then the word of the LORD came a second time to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying,

While the people of Jerusalem pursued their own goals, their lives were unproductive and unsatisfying (Hag. 1:6–11). However, the moment they resumed their work on the temple by laying its foundation (2:18), God began to bless them anew. Although they did not see the blessings immediately, they would be able to trace the fruitfulness of their crops and the fulfilling nature of their lives back to the day they submitted themselves to the Lord. God asks for our obedience today so that He may bless us tomorrow. Though His blessings may not appear as soon as we obey, we can be sure that we will reap what we sow, more than we sow, and later than we sow. We can also be confident that God is working on our behalf when we wait for Him.

THE BOOK OF

ZECHARIAH

Sixteen years after the Jews returned from their exile in Babylon and had begun rebuilding the temple, their task remained only half completed. God commissioned Zechariah to encourage the people in Jerusalem to take responsibility for their unfinished work. Both a prophet and a priest, Zechariah sought to motivate his countrymen to resume construction on the house of the Lord by reminding them of its future importance. He explained that the temple must be rebuilt, for one day the Messiah's glory would inhabit it. With that as their motivation, they could enter into the project with wholehearted zeal.

While Zechariah and his colleague Haggai prophesied regarding the same issue—the unfinished temple—they employed different methods to communicate the message. Haggai reprimanded the people for their lethargy, self-interest, and disobedience (Hag. 1:3–11), while Zechariah sought to challenge and encourage them. God inspired both approaches and, as is seen often in Scripture, used the dual themes of the negative consequences of disobedience and the positive blessings of submission to His will to motivate His people to willing obedience.

Zechariah contains a number of important messianic prophecies, including the Messiah's coming into Jerusalem on what we know as Palm Sunday (9:9); the amount of money paid to the betrayer of the Messiah (11:12, 13); the death of Christ and the scattering of His disciples (13:7); and the rule of Christ at His return (14:3–9).

The Hebrew name of the prophet, Zekar-yah, means "Yahweh remembers" or "Yahweh has remembered." This theme of divine remembrance dominates the whole Book of Zechariah: Israel will be blessed because Yahweh remembers the covenant He made with their fathers. The Greek and Latin version of the prophet's name is Zacharias.

Theme: God equips and strengthens us to do the work He calls us to do.

Author: Zechariah.

Time: Zechariah began his prophetic ministry shortly after Haggai (c. 520 B.C.).

Structure: The first eight chapters of Zechariah focus on the importance of finishing the temple. The final six chapters focus on promises regarding the messianic kingdom to come.

As you read Zechariah, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

- 1. Our intimacy with God—His highest priority for our lives—determines the impact of our lives. See Zechariah 7:5; page 1088.
- 21. Obedience always brings blessing. See Zechariah 8:9; page 1089.
- 25. God blesses us so that we might bless others. See Zechariah 8:13; page 1089.
- 24. To live the Christian life is to allow Jesus to live His life in and through us. See Zechariah 10:12; page 1091.

A Call to Repentance

IN the eighth month of the second year of Darius, the word of the Lord came to Zechariah the prophet, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo saying,

- 2 "The Lord was very angry with your fathers.
- > 3 "Therefore say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, "Return to Me," declares the LORD of hosts, "that I may return to you," says the Lord of hosts.
 - 4 "Do not be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets proclaimed, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, "Return now from your evil ways and from your evil deeds."' But they did not listen or give heed to Me," declares the Lord.

"Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever?

"But did not My words and My statutes, which I commanded My servants the prophets, overtake your fathers? Then they repented and said, 'As the LORD of hosts purposed to do to us in accordance with our ways and our deeds, so He has dealt with us."""

Patrol of the Earth

On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah the prophet, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, as follows:

I saw at night, and behold, a man was riding on a red horse, and he was standing among the myrtle trees which were in the ravine, with red, sorrel and white horses behind him.

Then I said, "My lord, what are these?" And the angel who was speaking with me said to me, "I will show you what these are."

10 And the man who was standing among the myrtle trees answered and said, "These are those whom the Lord has sent to patrol

11 So they answered the angel of the LORD who was standing among the myrtle trees and said, "We have patrolled the earth, and behold, all the earth is peaceful and quiet."

12 Then the angel of the Lord said, "O Lord of hosts, how long will You have no compassion for Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, with which You have been indignant these seventy years?"

13 The Lord answered the angel who was speaking with me with gracious words, comforting words.

14 So the angel who was speaking with me said to me, "Proclaim, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, "I am exceedingly jealous for Jerusalem and Zion.

15 "But I am very angry with the nations who are at ease; for while I was only a little angry, they furthered the disaster.'

16 'Therefore thus says the LORD, "I will return to Jerusalem with compassion; My house will be built in it," declares the LORD of hosts, "and a measuring line will be stretched over Jerusalem."'

17 "Again, proclaim, saying, 'Thus says the ≺ LORD of hosts, "My cities will again overflow with prosperity, and the LORD will again comfort Zion and again choose Jerusalem.""

18 Then I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, there were four horns.

19 So I said to the angel who was speaking with me, "What are these?" And he answered me, "These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel and Jerusalem."

20 Then the Lord showed me four craftsmen.

21 I said, "What are these coming to do?" And he said, "These are the horns which have scattered Judah so that no man lifts up his head; but these craftsmen have come to terrify them, to throw down the horns of the nations who have lifted up their horns against the land of Judah in order to scatter it."

God's Favor to Zion

THEN I lifted up my eyes and looked, and Lbehold, there was a man with a measuring line in his hand.

So I said, "Where are you going?" And he said to me, "To measure Jerusalem, to see how wide it is and how long it is."

And behold, the angel who was speaking with me was going out, and another angel was coming out to meet him, he people of Jerusalem returned home, but they soon forgot why the city was so precious to them. They had abandoned their love and commitment to God and inadvertently headed down the same road as their forefathers, whose wickedness, pagan worship, and complacency led to the exile in the first place (Jer. 25:4–11). In order for them to avoid the same judgment as previous generations, God commanded them to follow Him with a whole heart. The same thing happens in our lives when we drift in our devotion to Him. How do we avoid taking the path of judgment? As James admonishes, "Draw near to God and He will draw near to you" (James 4:8). The moment we sense God's Spirit convicting us to draw nearer to Him, we need to respond with humble hearts—repenting and committing ourselves to Him wholeheartedly. Then sustaining peace will flood in as evidence of His presence within us.

- 12 "The LORD will possess Judah as His portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem.
- 13 "Be silent, all flesh, before the LORD; for He is aroused from His holy habitation."

Joshua, the High Priest

- 3 THEN he showed me Joshua the high ✓ priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to accuse him.
- The LORD said to Satan, "The LORD rebuke you, Satan! Indeed, the LORD who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Is this not a brand plucked from the fire?"
- 3 Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments and standing before the angel.
- 4 He spoke and said to those who were standing before him, saying, "Remove the filthy garments from him." Again he said to him, "See, I have taken your iniquity away from you and will clothe you with festal robes."
- 5 Then I said, "Let them put a clean turban on his head." So they put a clean turban on his head and clothed him with garments, while the angel of the LORD was standing by.
- 6 And the angel of the LORD admonished Joshua, saying,

> 2:5 — "'For I,' declares the LORD, 'will be a wall of fire around her, and I will be the glory in her midst.'"

In this passage, Zechariah describes the splendor of the rebuilt Jerusalem—overflowing with people and completely illuminated and protected by the glory and might of the Lord. It also looks forward to the New Jerusalem, where "the glory of God has illumined it, and its lamp is the Lamb" (Rev. 21:23). As believers, we also can look forward to the day that God establishes His new kingdom. Second Corinthians 4:6, 7 tells us, "God . . . is the One who has shone in our hearts to give the Light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ. But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, so that the surpassing greatness of the power will be of God and not from ourselves." The encouraging thing that we must remember is that God reveals Himself to us today in countless ways. We have the opportunity to experience touches of His glory, and when we do, we are struck by the awesomeness of His love. Heaven is His future promise to all who believe in Him, but by His amazing grace, we can have a personal relationship with Him right now.

> 2:10 — "Sing for joy and be glad, O daughter of Zion; for behold I am coming and I will dwell in your midst," declares the LORD.

Pe can trust God's promises because He puts His love and infinite power into making sure they come to pass. This prophecy was fulfilled through Jesus—who is also called "'Immanuel,' which translated means, 'God with us'" (Matt. 1:23; also Ezek. 37:27; John 1:14; 14:23; 2 Cor. 6:16; Rev. 21:3). And when we know that God is with us and that He desires intimate fellowship with us, how can we not break out in song and rejoice with all our hearts?

> 2:11 — "Many nations will join themselves to the LORD in that day and will become My people."

Ot has always been the Lord's plan to redeem people from "every tribe and tongue and people and nation" by the blood of Christ (Rev. 5:9; also Gen. 12:3; 22:18; Gal. 3:7–9). His love covers the world!

> 3:1 — He showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to accuse him.

he Bible calls Satan "the accuser of our brethren," who opposes God's people "before our God day and night" (Rev. 12:10). But thank God, we also "have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and He Himself is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for those of the whole world" (1 John 2:1, 2). Propitiation means "to appease." The sacrificial death of Jesus Christ for mankind's sin appeased, or satisfied, God's wrath. Paul wrote, "For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God" (Rom. 3:23). The very nature of sin demands a sacrifice, and because the weight of our sin against God is so great, He sent His Son to die for us. Jesus was the perfect sacrifice, and through His death, He dealt with the eternal penalty of our sin. Once this was done, He could show mercy to us by removing every trace of guilt and shame through His unconditional love and forgiveness.

> 3:4 — "Remove the filthy garments from him." Again he said to him, "See, I have taken your iniquity away from you and will clothe you with festal robes."

Christ Himself makes us worthy of His presence—clothing us in His righteousness through His death and resurrection (ls. 61:10; Col. 3:9, 10).

7 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'If you will walk in My ways and if you will perform My service, then you will also govern My house and also have charge of My courts, and I will grant you free access among these who are standing here.

The Branch

- 8 'Now listen, Joshua the high priest, you and your friends who are sitting in front of you—indeed they are men who are a symbol, for behold, I am going to bring in My servant the Branch.
- 9 'For behold, the stone that I have set before Joshua; on one stone are seven eyes. Behold, I will engrave an inscription on it,' declares the Lord of hosts, 'and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.
- 10 'In that day,' declares the LORD of hosts, 'every one of you will invite his neighbor to sit under his vine and under his fig tree.'"

The Golden Lampstand and Olive Trees

4 THEN the angel who was speaking with me returned and roused me, as a man who is awakened from his sleep.

- 2 He said to me, "What do you see?" And I said, "I see, and behold, a lampstand all of gold with its bowl on the top of it, and its seven lamps on it with seven spouts belonging to each of the lamps which are on the top of it;
- 3 also two olive trees by it, one on the right side of the bowl and the other on its left side."
- 4 Then I said to the angel who was speaking with me saying, "What are these, my lord?"
- > 5 So the angel who was speaking with me answered and said to me, "Do you not know what these are?" And I said, "No, my lord."
 - 6 Then he said to me, "This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel saying, 'Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,' says the LORD of hosts.
 - 7 'What are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become a plain; and he will bring forth the top stone with shouts of "Grace, grace to it!""

- 8 Also the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
- 9 "The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house, and his hands will finish it. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you.
- 10 "For who has despised the day of small ≺ things? But these seven will be glad when they see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel—these are the eyes of the Lord which range to and fro throughout the earth."
- 11 Then I said to him, "What are these two olive trees on the right of the lampstand and on its left?"
- 12 And I answered the second time and said to him, "What are the two olive branches which are beside the two golden pipes, which empty the golden oil from themselves?"
- 13 So he answered me, saying, "Do you not know what these are?" And I said, "No, my lord."
- 14 Then he said, "These are the two anointed ones who are standing by the Lord of the whole earth."

The Flying Scroll

5THEN I lifted up my eyes again and looked, and behold, there was a flying scroll.

- 2 And he said to me, "What do you see?" And I answered, "I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits and its width ten cubits."
- 3 Then he said to me, "This is the curse that is going forth over the face of the whole land; surely everyone who steals will be purged away according to the writing on one side, and everyone who swears will be purged away according to the writing on the other side.
- 4 "I will make it go forth," declares the LORD of hosts, "and it will enter the house of the thief and the house of the one who swears falsely by My name; and it will spend the night within that house and consume it with its timber and stones."
- 5 Then the angel who was speaking with me went out and said to me, "Lift up now your eyes and see what this is going forth."

 \mathcal{N} ever be afraid to admit to God that you cannot comprehend something in His Word. When you come to a passage in the Bible that you don't understand, ask Him to teach you what it means and how He wants to apply it to your life. He loves to reveal His Word to those eager to hear and obey (James 1:5).

> 4:10 — "Who has despised the day of small things?"

Jo Judah's enemies, the rebuilding of the temple in Jerusalem seemed completely unnecessary (Hag. 1:2).

And to those who had seen the house of the Lord in its former glory, this new building seemed dishearteningly small and inconsequential in comparison (2:3). However, God promised in Haggai 2:9, "The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former . . . and in this place I will give peace." The important point is this: God longs to dwell among His people and work through us in awesome ways. We should never despise the tasks that appear minor or ignore the assignments He asks us to do. Others may deem them as being insignificant, but the Lord knows the priceless value of a willing heart and a surrendered life. There will be times when we do not understand how He can work through us, but He always does in amazing ways when we obey Him.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S OUESTIONS

How can I avoid burnout in doing God's work?

ZECH. 4:6-9

For decades, the Jews that were held in Babylonian captivity prayed for God to allow them to return to Jerusalem so they could rebuild the temple and restore the land they had once called home (Ps. 137:1-6). God answered by sending King Cyrus of Persia to overthrow the Babylonians and send the Jews back to the Promised Land. King Cyrus declared, "The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and He has appointed me to build Him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever there is among you of all His people, may his God be with him! Let him go up to Jerusalem which is in Judah and rebuild the house of the LORD, the God of Israel" (Ezra 1:2, 3).

Many took the opportunity and returned to Jerusalem to accomplish the monumental task of restoration. Unfortunately, the work was very challenging, and the people became disheartened. When they ran into opposition, they abandoned the project altogether. For sixteen years the work stood at a standstill.

Do you ever wonder how people serving the living God could become so discouraged or distracted that they would walk away from the important task God had called them to do? In most cases, it seems to make little sense. Sure, there are pressures, but stress is a normal part of life, especially when you are in a position of responsibility. Yet there is a common reason why many of God's servants are unsuccessful, and it is this: they do not do His work in His way. Consequently, they become easily stressed, distracted, disappointed, and face failure.

God knew the people, like their predecessors, would face opposition. To 6 I said, "What is it?" And he said, "This is the ephah going forth." Again he said, "This is their appearance in all the land

7 (and behold, a lead cover was lifted up); and this is a woman sitting inside the ephah." 8 Then he said, "This is Wickedness!" And prepare them for what lay ahead, He encouraged them through the prophet Zechariah, who spoke these memorial words: "'Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,' says the LORD of hosts" (Zech. 4:6). He encouraged them that He did not expect them to accomplish the work on their own. On the contrary, the construction of the temple could only be completed if they would trust and obey Him.

There are two ways to approach God's work. First, you can do it in the flesh, depending on your own influence, personality, gifts, resources, education, and experience. Or second, you can accomplish the task God's way—through the direction of and in the power of the Holy Spirit. What is the difference? First Corinthians 3:13–15 explains, "Each man's work will become evident; for the day will show it because it is to be revealed with fire, and the fire itself will test the quality of each man's work. If any man's work which he has built on it remains, he will receive a reward. If any man's work is burned up, he will suffer loss." What is the work that will be consumed? Anything we do according to the flesh—those things we do for ourselves and not in keeping with God's plans and commandments. In the end, the only things that will remain are those things that have been done in obedience to Him.

As believers, we have been commissioned to be involved in what God is doing throughout the world (Matt. 28:19, 20; Acts 1:8). We can be confident that there is no immovable obstacle or unconquerable challenge. When God's Spirit is at work through us, we will accomplish the goals He helps us to set. When we submit to His plan, we gain fresh strength and courage. No matter how overwhelming, complicated, or impossible the task may seem, God provides exactly what we need. He also assumes full responsibility for helping us reach these goals. When we obey Him, He does mighty things. We will never go wrong trusting the Savior.

The Four Chariots

m NOW\,I}$ lifted up my eyes again and looked, and behold, four chariots were coming forth from between the two mountains; and the mountains were bronze mountains.

With the first chariot were red horses, with the second chariot black horses, with the third chariot white horses, and with the fourth chariot strong dappled horses. Then I spoke and said to the angel who was speaking with me, "What are these, my lord?"

The angel replied to me, "These are the four spirits of heaven, going forth after standing before the Lord of all the earth, with one of which the black horses are going forth to the north country; and the white ones go forth after them, while the dappled ones go forth to the south country.

"When the strong ones went out, they were eager to go to patrol the earth." And He said, "Go, patrol the earth." So they patrolled the earth.

Then He cried out to me and spoke to me saying, "See, those who are going to the land of the north have appeared My wrath in the land of the north."

The word of the LORD also came to me. saying,

10 "Take an offering from the exiles, from Heldai, Tobijah and Jedaiah; and you go the same day and enter the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah, where they have arrived from Babylon.

The Symbolic Crowns

11 "Take silver and gold, make an ornate crown and set it on the head of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest.

12 "Then say to him, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, "Behold, a man whose name is Branch, for He will branch out from where He is; and

He will build the temple of the LORD.

13 "Yes, it is He who will build the temple of the LORD, and He who will bear the honor and sit and rule on His throne. Thus, He will be a priest on His throne, and the counsel of peace will be between the two offices."

The high priests of Israel had always worn turbans, not ornate crowns (Ex. 28:4, 36–38). But in the days of the prophet Zechariah, God commanded that a kingly crown of silver and gold be made for Joshua the high priest and that it be set upon his head.

Furthermore, the Lord said through the prophet, "It is He . . . who will bear the honor and sit and rule on His throne. Thus, He will be a priest on His throne, and the counsel of peace will be between the two offices" (Zech. 6:13). From early on, the Jews recognized this passage as a prophecy of the Messiah to come. In the Messiah, both the priestly and royal roles would merge in majesty and holiness something completely unprecedented and unique. The high priest, Joshua (whose name means "God saves"), provided a compelling picture of the Savior—Jesus (a different form of the same name). The Lord serves as our High Priest and Holy Lamb of God (John 1:29; Heb. 9:11–14; Rev. 21:22), and He will also reign as our eternal King forever and ever (Rev. 17:14; 19:16).

Hearts like Flint

7IN the fourth year of King Darius, the word of the Lord came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, which is Chisley.

- 2 Now the town of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regemmelech and their men to seek the favor of the LORD,
- 3 speaking to the priests who belong to the house of the Lord of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, "Shall I weep in the fifth month and abstain, as I have done these many years?"
- 4 Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,
- ➤ 5 "Say to all the people of the land and to the priests, 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months these seventy years, was it actually for Me that you fasted?
 - 6 'When you eat and drink, do you not eat for yourselves and do you not drink for yourselves?
 - 7 'Are not these the words which the LORD proclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and prosperous along with its cities around it, and the Negev and the foothills were inhabited?'"
 - 8 Then the word of the LORD came to Zechariah saying,
- 9 "Thus has the LORD of hosts said, 'Dispense true justice and practice kindness and compassion each to his brother;
 - 10 and do not oppress the widow or the orphan, the stranger or the poor; and do not devise evil in your hearts against one another?
 - 11 "But they refused to pay attention and turned a stubborn shoulder and stopped their ears from hearing.
 - 12 "They made their hearts like flint so that they could not hear the law and the words which the LORD of hosts had sent by His Spirit through the former prophets; therefore great wrath came from the LORD of hosts.

13 "And just as He called and they would not listen, so they called and I would not listen," says the LORD of hosts;

14 "but I scattered them with a storm wind among all the nations whom they have not known. Thus the land is desolated behind them so that no one went back and forth, for they made the pleasant land desolate."

The Coming Peace and Prosperity of Zion THEN the word of the Lord of hosts came, saying,

- 2 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'I am exceedingly jealous for Zion, yes, with great wrath I am jealous for her.'
- 3 "Thus says the LORD, 'I will return to Zion and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. Then Jerusalem will be called the City of Truth, and the mountain of the LORD of hosts will be called the Holy Mountain.'
- 4 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'Old men and old women will again sit in the astreets of Jerusalem, each man with his staff in his hand because of age.
- 5 'And the astreets of the city will be filled with boys and girls playing in its streets.'
- 6 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'If it is too ≺ difficult in the sight of the remnant of this people in those days, will it also be too difficult in My sight?' declares the LORD of hosts.
- 7 "Thus says the Lord of hosts, 'Behold, I am going to save My people from the land of the east and from the land of the west;

> 7:5 — "When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months these seventy years, was it actually for Me that you fasted?"

Juring their captivity, the Jews fasted to commemorate the destruction of the temple and Jerusalem. However, once the city and the house of the Lord were being rebuilt, they wondered if they should continue the practice (Zech. 7:3). Yet He reminded them that He is not interested in religious observances or rituals. Rather, He wanted them to serve Him out of love and reverence (7:5–11). God desires a genuine, heartfelt relationship with us. He wants us to obey Him, not out of obligation but with a willing, loving heart (1 Sam. 15:22; 51:16, 17; Jer. 7:22, 23; Hos. 6:6; Mark 12:33). The depth of the intimacy that we have with Him determines the impact and fruitfulness of our lives. Therefore, we need to make sure that whatever we do is in step with His will and plan for our lives (John 15:4, 5).

We will express Christ's character by treating others with the same love, comfort, forgiveness, and truth He has shown to us, and we will represent Him faithfully to whomever we meet (2 Cor. 1:3–7; 5:20; Eph. 4:32; Col. 3:12–17).

> 8:6 — "If it is too difficult in the sight of the remnant of this people in those days, will it also be too difficult in My sight?"

That is impossible to us is very easy for the Lord (Gen 18:14; Jer. 32:27; Matt. 19:26; Luke 1:37; 18:27). That is why we can trust Him, no matter how difficult our situation may seem.

11 'But now I will not treat the remnant of this people as in the former days,' declares the LORD of hosts.

12 'For there will be peace for the seed: the vine will yield its fruit, the land will yield its produce and the heavens will give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things.

* 13 'It will come about that just as you were a curse among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you that you may become a blessing. Do not fear; let your hands be strong.'

14 "For thus says the LORD of hosts, 'Just as I purposed to do harm to you when your fathers provoked Me to wrath,' says the LORD of hosts, 'and I have not relented, 15 so I have again purposed in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Do not fear!

16 'These are the things which you should do: speak the truth to one another; judge with truth and judgment for peace in your agates.

17 'Also let none of you devise evil in your heart against another, and do not love perjury; for all these are what I hate,' declares the LORD."

18 Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

19 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'The fast of the fourth, the fast of the fifth, the fast of the seventh and the fast of the tenth months will become joy, gladness, and cheerful feasts for the house of Judah; so love truth and peace.'

20 "Thus says the Lord of hosts, 'It will yet be that peoples will come, even the inhabitants of many cities.

21 'The inhabitants of one will go to another, saying, "Let us go at once to entreat the favor of the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts; I will also go."

22 'So many peoples and mighty nations will come to seek the Lord of hosts in Jerusalem and to entreat the favor of the Lord.'

23 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'In those days ten men from all the nations will grasp the garment of a Jew, saying, "Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.""

Prophecies against Neighboring Nations

One of the burden of the word of the Lord is against the land of Hadrach, with Damascus as its resting place (for the eyes of men, especially of all the tribes of Israel, are toward the Lord),

- 2 And Hamath also, which borders on it; Tyre and Sidon, though they are very wise.
- 3 For Tyre built herself a fortress And piled up silver like dust, And gold like the mire of the streets.
- 4 Behold, the Lord will dispossess her And cast her wealth into the sea; And she will be consumed with fire.
- 5 Ashkelon will see it and be afraid. Gaza too will writhe in great pain; Also Ekron, for her expectation has been confounded.

Moreover, the king will perish from Gaza, And Ashkelon will not be inhabited.

6 And a mongrel race will dwell in Ashdod,

And I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

7 And I will remove their blood from their mouth

And their detestable things from between their teeth.

> 8:9 — "Let your hands be strong, you who are listening in these days to these words from the mouth of the prophets."

Thenever you feel weak and in need of spiritual strength, spend extended time in Scripture. God delights to give you strength through His Word. Yet also remember the importance of obedience. Doing what He commands you to do always leads to blessing.

> 8:13 — "I will save you that you may become a blessing."

 \mathcal{G} od blesses us so that we might be a blessing to others. Though Israel and Judah had suffered many years of hardship and suffering, the Lord would turn everything around for them and give them a time of peace and blessing. God had promised Abram, "In you all the families of the earth will be blessed" (Gen 12:3). The Lord had not forgotten His covenant with His faithful servant, and here, He renews His pledge saying, "In those days ten men from all the nations will grasp the garment of a Jew, saying, 'Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you'" (Zech. 8:23). God fulfilled His promise through Abraham's seed—the Lord Jesus (Gal. 3:6–29). Likewise, He wants us to function as a conduit of blessing to those around us and lead others to faith in Christ as well.

Then they also will be a remnant for our God.

And be like a clan in Judah, And Ekron like a Jebusite.

But I will camp around My house because of an army,

Because of him who passes by and returns;

And no oppressor will pass over them anymore,

For now I have seen with My eyes. > 9 Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout in triumph, O daughter of Jerusalem!

Deliverance of Judah and Ephraim

11 As for you also, because of the blood of My covenant with you,

I have set your prisoners free from the waterless pit.

12 Return to the stronghold, O prisoners who have the hope;

This very day I am declaring that I will restore double to you.

13 For I will bend Judah as My bow. I will fill the bow with Ephraim. And I will stir up your sons, O Zion, against your sons. O Greece: And I will make you like a warrior's sword

14 Then the LORD will appear over them. And His arrow will go forth like lightning:

And the Lord God will blow the trumpet. And will march in the storm winds of the south.

15 The Lord of hosts will defend them. And they will devour and trample on the sling stones:

And they will drink and be boisterous as with wine:

And they will be filled like a sacrificial

Drenched like the corners of the altar.

16 And the Lord their God will save them in that day

As the flock of His people;

For they are as the stones of a crown, Sparkling in His land.

17 For what comeliness and beauty will be theirs!

Grain will make the young men flourish, and new wine the virgins.

his prophecy was fulfilled 500 years later with Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem (Matt. 21:1–11; John 12:12–16). Our humble Savior rode a donkey, showing His rightful, royal status as the kingly Messiah and David's heir (1 Kin. 1:33). This is why the people greeted Him by saying, "Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD: hosanna in the highest!" (Matt.

21:9: Hosanna means "save us" or "praise to You"). How could we not praise, worship, and gladly welcome such a glorious King?

The Doomed Flock

1 1 OPEN your doors, O Lebanon, That a fire may feed on your cedars.

Wail, O cypress, for the cedar has fallen, Because the glorious trees have been destroyed; Wail, O oaks of Bashan,

For the impenetrable forest has come down.

- 3 There is a sound of the shepherds' wail, For their glory is ruined; There is a sound of the young lions' roar,
- For the pride of the Jordan is ruined.

 4 Thus says the LORD my God, "Pasture the flock doomed to slaughter.
- 5 "Those who buy them slay them and go unpunished, and each of those who sell them says, 'Blessed be the LORD, for I have become rich!' And their own shepherds have no pity on them.
- 6 "For I will no longer have pity on the inhabitants of the land," declares the Lord; "but behold, I will cause the men to fall, each into another's power and into the power of his king; and they will strike the land, and I will not deliver them from their power."
- 7 So I pastured the flock doomed to slaughter, hence the afflicted of the flock. And I took for myself two staffs: the one I called Favor and the other I called Union; so I pastured the flock.
- 8 Then I annihilated the three shepherds in one month, for my soul was impatient with them, and their soul also was weary of me.
- 9 Then I said, "I will not pasture you. What is to die, let it die, and what is to be annihilated, let it be annihilated; and let those who are left eat one another's flesh."
- 10 I took my staff Favor and cut it in pieces, to break my covenant which I had made with all the peoples.

Gere, God promises to restore both Judah (the southern kingdom) and Joseph (or Israel, the northern kingdom). We also know from Ezekiel 37:15–28 that the Lord would merge the two into one nation in the Land of Promise (which was fulfilled on May 14, 1948) and would eventually reunite them forever under one King—the Messiah, our Lord Jesus. Even in judgment, God shows mercy. He does not desire to punish or cast aside anyone, but in love calls everyone to repentance and life (Ezek. 33:11; 1 Tim. 2:4: 2 Pet. 3:9).

> 10:12 — "I will strengthen them in the LORD, and in His name they will walk," declares the LORD.

God wants us to become His representatives in the world—living testimonies of His love, grace, mercy, and holiness. However, the only way for that to happen is to allow Jesus to live His life in and through us.

> 11:13 — The LORD said to me, "Throw it to the potter, that magnificent price at which I was valued by them."

Judas Iscariot fulfilled this prophecy when he betrayed the Lord Jesus for thirty pieces of silver (Matt. 26:14–16; 27:1–10), which was the amount paid for a slave that had been gored to death by an ox (Ex. 21:32). In this, the Lord shekels of silver and threw them to the potter in the house of the LORD.

14 Then I cut in pieces my second staff Union, to break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 The LORD said to me, "Take again for yourself the equipment of a foolish shepherd. 16 "For behold, I am going to raise up a shepherd in the land who will not care for the perishing, seek the scattered, heal the broken, or sustain the one standing, but will devour the flesh of the fat sheep and tear off their hoofs. 17 "Woe to the worthless shepherd

Jerusalem to Be Attacked

12THE aburden of the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

Thus declares the LORD who stretches out the heavens, lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him,

- 2 "Behold, I am going to make Jerusalem a cup that causes reeling to all the peoples around; and when the siege is against Jerusalem, it will also be against Judah.
- 3 "It will come about in that day that I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples; all who lift it will be severely injured. And all the nations of the earth will be gathered against it.
- 4 "In that day," declares the LORD, "I will strike every horse with bewilderment and his rider with madness. But I will watch over the house of Judah, while I strike every horse of the peoples with blindness.
- 5 "Then the clans of Judah will say in their hearts, 'A strong support for us are the inhabitants of Jerusalem through the LORD of hosts, their God.'
- 6 "In that day I will make the clans of Judah like a firepot among pieces of wood and a flaming torch among sheaves, so they will consume on the right hand and on the left all the surrounding peoples, while the inhabitants of Jerusalem again dwell on their own sites in Jerusalem.

7 "The LORD also will save the tents of Judah first, so that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem will not be magnified above Judah.

8 "In that day the LORD will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the one who is feeble among them in that day will be like David, and the house of David will be like God, like the angel of the LORD before them.

9 "And in that day I will set about to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

10 "I will pour out on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the Spirit of grace and of supplication, so that they will look on Me whom they have pierced; and they will mourn for Him, as one mourns for an only son, and they will weep bitterly over Him like the bitter weeping over a firstborn.

11 "In that day there will be great mourning in Jerusalem, like the mourning of Hadadrim-

12 "The land will mourn, every family by itself; the family of the house of David by itself and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan by itself and their wives by themselves; his prophecy first saw its fulfillment during Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit was given to indwell believers (Acts 2). However, it also foretells a future time when the world finally understands that Jesus is the one true everlasting King (Zech. 12:8–14; 14:9; also Is. 45:22–25; Joel 2:28–32; Rom. 14:10–12; Phil. 2:9–11; Rev. 11:15). - 3 Then the Lord will go forth and fight against those nations, as when He fights on a day of battle.

- 4 In that day His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, which is in front of Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives will be split in its middle from east to west by a very large valley, so that half of the mountain will move toward the north and the other half toward the south.
- 5 You will flee by the valley of My mountains, for the valley of the mountains will reach to Azel; yes, you will flee just as you fled before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the Lord, my God, will come, and all the holy ones with Him!

spring of living water, overflowing with mercy and grace (John 4:10). Revelation 22:17 beckons, "Let the one who is thirsty come; let the one who wishes take the water of life without cost." Have you been washed clean of your sin and impurity? Have you accepted the Lord Jesus as your Savior?

> 13:7 — "Awake, O sword, against My Shepherd, and against the man, My Associate."

Think of it: the Lord called for the sword against His Son, Jesus Christ. He planned the events of the Cross; He willingly bruised His only Son (ls. 53:10; Acts 4:27, 28). And He did it for you—so that you can be reconciled to God and will have the opportunity to enjoy His fellowship forever (Rom. 5:10, 11; 2 Cor. 5:18, 19).

> 14:5 — The Lord, my God, will come, and all the holy ones with Him!

Jid you know that the Bible contains almost three times as many prophecies concerning the Second Coming of Christ as it does for His First Advent? Here, Zechariah describes the time when Jesus will come to judge the nations.

Matthew 25:31, 32 explains, "When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the angels with Him, then He will sit on His glorious throne. All the nations will be gathered before Him; and He will separate them from one another, as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats" (also Rev. 19:11–21). Jesus is coming again, friend, and He wants you to be ready (Matt. 24:44).

> 14:8 — In that day living waters will flow out of Jerusalem.

The living water of the Lord Jesus brings eternal life (John 4:10; Rev. 22:17). Here, Zechariah pictures the day when the gospel would flow like a river—east, west, and all over the world—washing away the sins of all who partake of it in faith (Heb. 10:22).

> 14:9 — In that day the LORD will be the only one, and His name the only one.

One day, the Lord says, "To Me every knee will bow, every tongue will swear allegiance" (Is. 45:23)—and they shall all say, "Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father" (Phil. 2:11).

- 10 All the land will be changed into a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem; but Jerusalem will rise and remain on its site from Benjamin's Gate as far as the place of the First Gate to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's wine presses.
- 11 People will live in it, and there will no longer be a curse, for Jerusalem will dwell in security.
- 12 Now this will be the plague with which the LORD will strike all the peoples who have gone to war against Jerusalem; their flesh will rot while they stand on their feet, and their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongue will rot in their mouth.
- 13 It will come about in that day that a great panic from the LORD will fall on them; and they will seize one another's hand, and the hand of one will be lifted against the hand of another.

 14 Judah also will fight at Jerusalem; and
- the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered, gold and silver and garments in great abundance.
- 15 So also like this plague will be the plague on the horse, the mule, the camel, the donkey and all the cattle that will be in those camps.

- 16 Then it will come about that any who are left of all the nations that went against Jerusalem will go up from year to year to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, and to celebrate the Feast of Booths.
- 17 And it will be that whichever of the families of the earth does not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, there will be no rain on them.
- 18 If the family of Egypt does not go up or enter, then no rain will fall on them; it will be the plague with which the LORD smites the nations who do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Booths.
- 19 This will be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all the nations who do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Booths.
- 20 In that day there will be inscribed on the bells of the horses, "HOLY TO THE LORD." And the cooking pots in the LORD's house will be like the bowls before the altar.
- 21 Every cooking pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to the LORD of hosts; and all who sacrifice will come and take of them and boil in them. And there will no longer be a Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts in that day.

THE BOOK OF MALACHI

ears after God restored His people and returned them to the Promised Land, they again began committing the same sins that had previously led to God's judgment and the seven-decade-long Babylonian captivity. The priests were dishonoring God by leading the people astray, and the Jews were intermarrying with the pagan nations that surrounded them. The hearts of the people were growing callous and wicked, and God sent the prophet Malachi to rebuke them for their sinful ways.

Malachi, a contemporary of Nehemiah, directed his message to a people plagued with corrupt priests, immoral lifestyles, and increasing cynicism. Decades after the temple had been completed, they had failed to see God's promised blessings for them materialize—specifically those prophesied by Haggai and Zechariah, and in general those forecast by other prophets of the Lord. Instead of being His magnificent chosen nation, seeing His glory fill the temple, they were still merely a small Persian province—and they were losing hope of ever truly seeing His presence and power in their nation. This discouraged them greatly, and eventually they grew apathetic to the Lord's commands. Using a question-and-answer format, Malachi addresses their faithless doubts in God's love, as well as their hypocrisy, infidelity, mixed marriages, divorce, false worship, and arrogance.

Malachi may have prophesied in the period after Nehemiah left Jerusalem to serve the Persian king once more (433 B.C.), since the problems he tried to combat are so similar to the ones Nehemiah later confronted upon his return to Jerusalem for a second term as governor (Neh. 13:7–31). The name Mal'aki ("My messenger") is probably a shortened form of Mal'akya, "Messenger of Yahweh," an appropriate author for a book that speaks of the coming of the "messenger of the covenant" (Mal. 3:1; "messenger" is mentioned three times, see also 2:7).

Theme: God's people need to reform their rebellious habits in order to prepare the way for the coming Messiah.

Author: Probably Malachi, although some believe the name Malachi actually functions more as a title ("My messenger").

Time: Written near the end of the prophetic period in Israel's history, circa 430 B.C.

Structure: Malachi has three main parts: introductory remarks in which God reaffirms His promised love to Israel (1:1–5); stinging rebukes for various kinds of unfaithfulness (1:6—2:16); and prophecies of the coming of the Lord (2:17—4:6).

As you read Malachi, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

23. You can never outgive God. See Malachi 3:8–12; page 1098.

28. No Christian has ever been called to "go it alone" in his or her walk of faith. See Malachi 3:16; page 1100.

10. If necessary, God will move heaven and earth to show us His will. See Malachi 4:5; page 1100.

God's Love for Jacob

3 but I have hated Esau, and I have made his mountains a desolation and appointed his inheritance for the jackals of the wilderness."

4 Though Edom says, "We have been beaten down, but we will return and build up the ruins"; thus says the LORD of hosts, "They may build, but I will tear down; and men will call them the wicked territory, and the people toward whom the LORD is indignant forever."

Sin of the Priests

6 "'A son honors his father, and a servant his master. Then if I am a father, where is My honor? And if I am a master, where is My respect?' says the LORD of hosts to you, O priests who despise My name. But you say, 'How have we despised Your name?'

7 "You are presenting defiled food upon My altar. But you say, 'How have we defiled You?' In that you say, 'The table of the LORD is to be despised.'

- 8 "But when you present the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? And when you present the lame and sick, is it not evil? Why not offer it to your governor? Would he be pleased with you? Or would he receive you kindly?" says the LORD of hosts.
- 9 "But now will you not entreat God's favor, that He may be gracious to us? With such an offering on your part, will He receive any of you kindly?" says the LORD of hosts.

10 "Oh that there were one among you who would shut the gates, that you might not uselessly kindle fire on My altar! I am not pleased with you," says the LORD of hosts, "nor will I accept an offering from you.

11 "For from the rising of the sun even to its setting, My name will be great among the nations, and in every place incense is going to be offered to My name, and a grain offering that is pure; for My name will be great among the nations," says the LORD of hosts.

12 "But you are profaning it, in that you say, 'The table of the Lord is defiled, and as for its fruit, its food is to be despised.'

13 "You also say, 'My, how tiresome it is!' And ≺ you disdainfully sniff at it," says the LORD of hosts, "and you bring what was taken by robbery and what is lame or sick; so you bring the offering! Should I receive that from your hand?" says the LORD.

14 "But cursed be the swindler who has a male in his flock and vows it, but sacrifices a blemished animal to the Lord, for I am a great King," says the Lord of hosts, "and My name is feared among the nations."

Priests to Be Disciplined

2"AND now this commandment is for you, O priests.

2 "If you do not listen, and if you do not take it to heart to give honor to My name," says the LORD of hosts, "then I will send the curse upon you and I will curse your blessings; and indeed, I have cursed them already, because you are not taking it to heart.

> 1:2 — "I have loved you," says the LORD.

C he people of Israel were discouraged. It had been decades since they had completed the temple, and they had yet to experience the rewards of obedience that God had promised them through Haggai and Zechariah (Hag. 2; Zech. 8). Had the Lord forgotten them? Absolutely not! The time simply had not come for Him to bless them. When you face a time of waiting, you may imagine that God somehow doesn't love you anymore. However, He absolutely does! As Isaiah 30:18 testifies, "The Lord longs to be gracious to you, and therefore He waits on high to have compassion on you." Do not allow false feelings to tempt you into sin and apathy. Also, it is wrong to think of the Old Testament as a declaration of divine judgment and the New Testament as a declaration of divine love. Both the Old and New Testaments proclaim God's love for His people and reveal Him to be our compassionate Redeemer.

> 1:13 — "Bring what was taken by robbery and what is lame or sick; so you bring the offering! Should I receive that from your hand?" says the LORD.

In Leviticus 22:19, 20, God was clear about the sacrifices the people were to bring: "To be accepted—it must be a male without defect from the cattle, the sheep, or the goats. Whatever has a defect, you shall not offer, for it will not be accepted for you." He expected the best from His people, yet the Jews had grown so apathetic to His commands that they were bringing the worst of their flocks to Him as offerings (Mal. 1:6–8)—and God was not pleased (v. 10). This applies to us as well. As living sacrifices (Rom. 12:1), we should never bring God something left over that we do not want or an offering that costs us nothing (1 Chr. 21:24). We do wrong when we do as little as possible to get by in our work, home, community, and church because our Lord God deserves our very best in every situation.

> 1:14 — "I am a great King," says the LORD of hosts, "and My name is feared among the nations."

Kings are to be obeyed, and as the "King of kings" (Rev. 19:16), the Lord deserves our complete obedience. When we disobey, we profane His name among the word on't know Him, and they see no reason to fear Him. Instead, our relationship with the Lord should draw others to Him (Matt. 5:16; 2 Cor. 5:20; 1 Pet. 2:12; 4:11).

 - 6 "True instruction was in his mouth and unrighteousness was not found on his lips; he walked with Me in peace and uprightness, and he turned many back from iniquity.
 - 7 "For the lips of a priest should preserve knowledge, and men should seek instruction from his mouth; for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.
 - 8 "But as for you, you have turned aside from the way; you have caused many to stumble by the instruction; you have corrupted the covenant of Levi," says the LORD of hosts.
 - 9 "So I also have made you despised and abased before all the people, just as you are not keeping My ways but are showing partiality in the instruction.

Sin in the Family

- 10 "Do we not all have one father? Has not one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously each against his brother so as to profane the covenant of our fathers?
- 11 "Judah has dealt treacherously, and an abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the sanctuary of the LORD which He loves and has married the daughter of a foreign god.
- 12 "As for the man who does this, may the LORD cut off from the tents of Jacob everyone who awakes and answers, or who presents an offering to the LORD of hosts.
- 13 "This is another thing you do: you cover the altar of the Lord with tears, with weeping and with groaning, because He no longer regards the offering or accepts it with favor from your hand.
- 14 "Yet you say, 'For what reason?' Because the LORD has been a witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt treacherously, though she is your companion and your wife by covenant.

- 15 "But not one has done so who has a remnant of the Spirit. And what did that one do while he was seeking a godly offspring? Take heed then to your spirit, and let no one deal treacherously against the wife of your youth. 16 "For I hate divorce," says the LORD, the God of Israel, "and him who covers his garment with wrong," says the LORD of hosts. "So take heed to your spirit, that you do not deal treacherously."
- 17 You have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet you say, "How have we wearied Him?" In that you say, "Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and He delights in them," or, "Where is the God of justice?"

The Purifier

- 3 "BEHOLD, I am going to send My messenger, and he will clear the way before Me. And the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple; and the messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight, behold, He is coming," says the LORD of hosts.
- 2 "But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap.
- 3 "He will sit as a smelter and purifier of silver, and He will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, so that they may present to the LORD offerings in right-eousness.
- 4 "Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the Lord as in the days of old and as in former years.
- 5 "Then I will draw near to you for judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers and against the adulterers and against those who swear falsely, and against those who oppress the wage earner in his wages, the widow and the orphan, and those who turn aside the alien and do not fear Me," says the Lord of hosts.
- 6 "For I, the LORD, do not change; therefore you, O sons of Jacob, are not consumed.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 2:5 — "My covenant with him was one of life and peace."

Here, the Lord addresses the priests who had willingly led the people in dishonoring His name and commands, which could only lead to their destruction (Mal. 2:8, 9). He reminds them of their true purpose: "The lips of a priest should preserve knowledge, and men should seek instruction from his mouth; for he is the messenger of the Lord of hosts" (v. 7). God's commandments, promises, and warnings are all for our benefit—to bless us with life and peace. When we reject His Word, and possibly turn others away from Him for our own gain, we must understand that we will be subject to a stricter judgment (James 3:1; Matt. 18:5, 6; Luke 17:1, 2). As believers, God holds us to a higher standard.

> 3:6 — "I, the LORD, do not change; therefore you, O sons of Jacob, are not consumed."

hy would the sons of Jacob not be consumed? Because God made covenants with their forefathers Abraham (Gen. 17:1–13) and David (2 Sam. 7:8–16)—and He has always been committed to fulfilling His promises to them because of His unsurpassable character and great holiness. Our God is immutable, meaning that He never changes (Heb. 13:8). He operates on eternal, unchanging principles. This is why we can build our lives on His promises. He has been unwaveringly faithful in the past, and He will do the same for the future (Heb. 10:23).

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S OUESTIONS

Should I tithe when I am struggling financially?

MAL. 3:8-12

From the human perspective, the Bible may seem to be a book of paradoxes. It says, for example, that if we really want to have life, we must first lose it (Matt. 10:39). If we want to understand authority, we must first become a servant (Matt. 20:26, 27). If we want to be exalted, we must first humble ourselves (1 Pet. 5:6).

And giving to God is the first step toward financial freedom.

You may ask, "How can I give God anything when I can't even pay my bills? Doesn't God expect me to take care of my debts first?"

At first glance, such a concern sounds reasonable. The problem is, it disregards God's authority and perspective. He insists that if we don't give, then we are robbing Him—and we will end up in worse financial shape than ever (Mal. 3:8, 9).

We should always keep in mind that everything we have is from God, and it's all His in the first place. First Chronicles 29:14 says, "All things come from You, and from Your hand we have given You." Therefore, what God asks of us is not unreasonable. He instructs, "You shall surely tithe all the produce from what you

7 "From the days of your fathers you have turned aside from My statutes and have not kept them. Return to Me, and I will return to you," says the Lord of hosts. "But you say, 'How shall we return?'

You Have Robbed God

8 "Will a man arob God? Yet you are robbing Me! But you say, 'How have we robbed You?' In tithes and offerings.

9 "You are cursed with a curse, for you are brobbing Me, the whole nation of you!

10 "Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house, and test Me now in this," says the LORD of hosts, "if I will not open for you the windows of sow . . . so that you may learn to fear the LORD your God always" (Deut. 14:22, 23). This tithe is merely ten percent of all He has provided for us—and He asks us to give it back to Him as an acknowledgement of His provision and evidence of our trust in Him. Also, when we place our trust in Him, He rewards us with His many blessings. As He promises in Malachi 3:10, "'Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house, and test Me now in this,' says the LORD of hosts, 'if I will not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you a blessing until it overflows."' As we know, God's promises have been tried and proven, so we can trust that when we obey Him, He will pour out His blessings upon us, just as He promised.

You may wonder, Should I tithe when I am struggling financially? Should I devote a tenth of my income to the Lord, when I already find it impossible to make ends meet? The answer is unequivocally yes!

Since God owns it all, you can trust Him with all that you have. He can bless your 90 percent and make it stretch further than you ever imagined (1 Kin. 17:8–16; 2 Kin. 4:1–7; Matt. 14:15–21; 15:32–38). This is not an exercise of fiscal ingenuity, but of faith. God doesn't need your money; rather, He wants you to discover the rewards of obedience. That's why submitting to Him in the area of finances is the prerequisite for enjoying true freedom. It is only when you truly trust and obey Him that you see all that He can do in and through you. Therefore, trust God and watch Him work in your life.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT TITHING AND GIVING

Mal. 3:8-12

od has set forth very specific directives about what He expects us to give back to Him (Lev. 27:30; Deut. 14:22, 23). Malachi 3:8–12 clearly teaches that we are to give Him a tithe, which is ten percent of what we produce or earn (the word tithe is based on the number ten in Hebrew).

Offerings were gifts, often of material goods, given above and beyond the tithe. People normally made offerings for specific reasons. In this case, it was a requirement of the Law, such as their sacrifice on the Passover; and sometimes voluntarily to meet a special need or as thanksgiving for a special blessing (Lev. 1:1—7:21). The children of Israel gave such a generous offering at the time they built the tabernacle that Moses actually had to tell them to stop giving (Ex. 35:4—36:7)! The tithe is given to God from our increase and for our increase. It is our acknowledgement that all we have and all we are able to achieve comes directly from the hand of God (Mark 12:41–44). It is also the way we open the door of our finances to give and receive His blessing. When we give the first tenth of our earnings back to the Lord, we return to Him what was His in the first place and what He asks us to give to Him so that He will remain our first priority (Matt. 6:19–24).

> We return to Him what was His in the first place.

The Lord is very specific in the way we are to give our tithes and offerings.

First, we are to bring them into His store-house. Generally that meant His tabernacle or temple in the Old Testament, and the church in the New Testament. We are to give our tithes wherever we regularly worship the Lord—not only to care for the church building and those who work there but to support the expansion of His kingdom by spreading the gospel and ministering to the community for His name's sake (2 Cor. 9:7–14).

Second, we are to make our gifts on a regular basis. Paul advised the Corinthians, "On the first day of every week each one of you is to put aside and save, as he may prosper, so that no collections be made when I come" (1 Cor. 16:2). In this way, we make our obedience to God a consistent practice and have a constant reminder of His lordship and provision in our life.

Third, choosing to obey God by tithing our income indicates the level of our faith in Him. When we obey Him, we are essentially saying, "Lord, I trust You for every need I have." We not only honor Him through our giving, we also demonstrate our faith in His ability to provide for us. There is no way we can outgive God. Therefore, we need to give with a willing heart, knowing that He has given more to us than we could ever give back to Him.

Fourth, we are to give our gifts joyfully. People who give grudgingly, solely from a sense of duty, do not truly open up their lives to God's purpose and blessings for them (Matt. 6:1–4; 2 Cor. 8:1–15). The joy in our hearts about giving is a direct expression of our trust in God to meet our needs (Phil. 4:19).

15 'So now we call the arrogant blessed; not only are the doers of wickedness built up but they also test God and escape.'"

The Book of Remembrance

➤ 16 Then those who afeared the LORD spoke to one another, and the LORD gave attention and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before Him for those who fear the LORD and who esteem His name.

17 "They will be Mine," says the LORD of hosts, "on the day that I prepare My own possession, and I will spare them as a man spares his own son who serves him."

18 So you will again distinguish between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve Him.

Final Admonition

4"FOR behold, the day is coming, burning like a furnace; and all the arrogant and every evildoer will be chaff; and the day that is coming will set them ablaze," says the LORD of hosts, "so that it will leave them neither root nor branch."

2 "But for you who befar My name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings; and you will go forth and skip about like calves from the stall.

3 "You will tread down the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day which I am preparing," says the LORD of hosts.

4 "Remember the law of Moses My servant, even the statutes and ordinances which I commanded him in Horeb for all Israel.

5 "Behold, I am going to send you Elijah ≺ the prophet before the coming of the great and terrible day of the Lord.

> 3:16 — The LORD gave attention and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before Him for those who fear the LORD and who esteem His name.

 \mathcal{I} one of us are in this walk of faith on our own. We need to encourage one another and "stimulate one another to love and good deeds" (Heb. 10:24). Best of all, the Lord promises to reward our obedience (Mark 9:41; Heb 6:10; Rev. 22:12).

> 4:5 — "I am going to send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and terrible day of the LORD."

fter Malachi, there was no prophet for 400 years. During this time of silence, God readied the people of Israel and the world for the coming of the Messiah—His final preparation being: "THE VOICE OF ONE CRYING IN THE WILDERNESS, 'MAKE READY THE WAY OF THE LORD, MAKE HIS PATHS straight!'" (Matt. 3:3; also Is. 40:3). This, of course, was John the Baptist, who came in the "spirit and power of Elijah" (Luke 1:17), urging people to repent of their sins (Matt. 3:2). Jesus confirmed, "If you are willing to accept it, John himself is Elijah who was to come" (Matt. 11:14; also 17:11–13). This was just one of the many ways God verified that Jesus was the Messiah who would provide salvation for us. We do not have to guess what God's will is; if necessary, He will move heaven and earth to show us what to do and how He desires for us to proceed. However, we have to pay attention and obey Him, even when we do not understand the full scope of His plan.

> 4:6 — "He will restore the hearts of the fathers to their children and the hearts of the children to their fathers, so that I will not come and smite the land with a curse."

The closest mission field we have is our own family. Children must be trained to be godly, which is the job of their parents (Prov. 22:6).

NEW TESTAMENT

atthew presents Jesus as the King of the Jews, the long-awaited Messiah. He wrote his Gospel primarily for a Jewish audience who had been waiting centuries for the Savior's coming.

Through a carefully selected series of Old Testament quotations (more than sixty), Matthew documents evidence that Jesus Christ is the Messiah. Jesus' genealogy, baptism, message, and miracles all point to the same inescapable conclusion: Christ is King. He turns what appeared to be defeat at His death on the Cross into victory through the Resurrection; and so the message again echoes forth: the King of the Jews lives.

At an early date, this Gospel received the title Kata Matthaion, "According to Matthew." As the name suggests, other gospel accounts were known at the time. Matthew (which means "Gift of the Lord") was also named Levi (Mark 2:14; Luke 5:27). Matthew is the first of the three Synoptic Gospels, so called because they "see together" the life and teachings of Jesus. Matthew, Mark, and Luke each record basically the same events, but give them different emphases.

Theme: The word fulfilled appears repeatedly in the Gospel of Matthew, mostly referring to Jesus' fulfillment of Old Testament messianic prophecies.

Author: Matthew, a Jew who collected taxes for the Romans.

Time: Most authorities believe that the Gospel of Mark predates Matthew and that Matthew follows Mark's account in many of its narratives. If this is so, Matthew could be dated in the A.D. 70s. Others believe Matthew was written earlier, in the A.D. 50s or 60s.

Structure: The Gospel of Matthew begins by tracing Jesus' family history all the way back to Abraham and recording a few incidents surrounding His birth (1–2). It then describes the preparation and beginnings of His earthly ministry including His baptism and Satan's plot to tempt Him. Matthew also gives us an insightful look into the ministry of John the Baptist (3–4). The Sermon on the Mount (5–7) is followed by various accounts of Jesus' healings and teachings (8–9), and His words concerning missions (10). The Gospel then reports Jesus' travels, in which He performed great miracles and taught the masses (11–23). A special section predicting the events leading up to and including the end times (24–25) is followed by a final portion that reports Jesus' arrest, sentencing, crucifixion, and resurrection (26–28).

As you read Matthew, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

- 11. God assumes full responsibility for our needs when we obey Him. See Matthew 6:32; 7:24; pages 1113; 1115.
- 25. God blesses us so that we might bless others. See Matthew 10:8; page 1118.
- 30. An eager anticipation of the Lord's return keeps us living productively. See Matthew 25:13; page 1140.

The Genealogy of Jesus the Messiah

1 THE record of the genealogy of Jesus the Messiah, the son of David, the son of Abraham:

- 2 Abraham was the father of Isaac, Isaac the father of Jacob, and Jacob the father of aJudah and his brothers.
- 3 Judah was the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar, Perez was the father of Hezron, and Hezron the father of Ram.
- 4 Ram was the father of Amminadab, Amminadab the father of Nahshon, and Nahshon the father of Salmon.
- ➤ 5 Salmon was the father of Boaz by Rahab, Boaz was the father of Obed by Ruth, and Obed the father of Jesse.
 - 6 Jesse was the father of David the king.

David was the father of Solomon by ^bBathsheba who had been the wife of Uriah.

- 7 Solomon was the father of Rehoboam, Rehoboam the father of Abijah, and Abijah the father of Asa.
- 8 As a was the father of Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat the father of Joram, and Joram the father of Uzziah.
- 9 Uzziah was the father of Jotham, Jotham the father of Ahaz, and Ahaz the father of Hezekiah.
- 10 Hezekiah was the father of Manasseh, Manasseh the father of Amon, and Amon the father of Josiah.
- 11 Josiah became the father of Jeconiah and his brothers, at the time of the deportation to Babylon.
- 12 After the deportation to Babylon: Jeconiah became the father of Shealtiel, and Shealtiel the father of Zerubbabel.
- 13 Zerubbabel was the father of Abihud, Abihud the father of Eliakim, and Eliakim the father of Azor.
- 14 Azor was the father of Zadok, Zadok the father of Achim, and Achim the father of Eliud.
 15 Eliud was the father of Eleazar, Eleazar the father of Matthan, and Matthan the father of Jacob.

16 Jacob was the father of Joseph the husband of Mary, by whom Jesus was born, who is called the Messiah.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; from David to the deportation to Babylon, fourteen generations; and from the deportation to Babylon to the Messiah, fourteen generations.

Conception and Birth of Jesus

- 18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was as follows: when His mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found to be with child by the Holy Spirit.
- 19 And Joseph her husband, being a righteous man and not wanting to disgrace her, planned cto send her away secretly.
- 20 But when he had considered this, behold, ≺ an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife; for the Child who has been dconceived in her is of the Holy Spirit.
- 21 "She will bear a Son; and you shall call His *\ name Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins."
- 22 Now all this took place to fulfill what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet:
- 23 "Behold, the virgin shall be with child and shall bear a Son, and they shall call His name Immanuel," which translated means, "God with us."
- 24 And Joseph awoke from his sleep and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took Mary as his wife,
- 25 °but kept her a virgin until she gave birth to a Son; and he called His name Jesus.

In 1:1–17, Matthew writes that Christ is Abraham's heir and the fulfillment of God's promise to him (Gen. 22:16–18). It is especially noteworthy that four women are included in the genealogy and that three of them—Tamar, Ruth, and Rahab—were Gentiles. Paul explains in Galatians 3:28, 29, "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free man, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's descendants, heirs according to promise." How appropriate for the Messiah—who would save the world from sin—to show through His own lineage that no one is shut out from God's promise!

> 1:18 — The birth of Jesus Christ was as follows: when His mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found to be with child by the Holy Spirit.

Gesus Christ alone can be our sinless Sin-Bearer because only He was born in this miraculous manner. Through the virgin birth, He was unstained by sin and demonstrated His nature as both fully human and fully God (ls. 7:14).

> 1:20 — When he had considered this, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream.

My didn't the angel Gabriel appear to Joseph when he appeared to Mary? We're not told. But God always reveals His will to us at just the right moment.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

What are the characteristics of a godly man?

MATT. 1:18-25

Ontil he became engaged to Mary, Joseph's life probably resembled that of most other men in his hometown. No doubt he had business concerns and goals for the future—but nothing seriously interrupted his daily routine until Mary informed him she was pregnant. This was when his life changed rapidly.

The news was shocking to him, and rather than disgrace Mary, Joseph planned to send her away (Matt. 1:19). But God saw the confusion building within Joseph's mind and sent His angel to guide him: "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife; for the Child who has been conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. She will bear a Son; and you shall call His name Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins" (vv. 20, 21). From this point on, Joseph never questioned the Lord's method or motive. He realized that the God of the universe had chosen him to watch over Mary and the Son she would have. He remained faithful not only to his wife, but also to the Lord.

Joseph showed courage by ignoring the ugly rumors swirling around town about Mary's pregnancy; he valued God's plan above what others thought of him. He remained sensitive to the Holy Spirit, demonstrated by his acceptance of His guidance. After the birth of Jesus, an angel appeared to him, warning him of impending danger. Joseph immediately took Mary and Jesus to Egypt, where they found safety until the threat passed (Matt. 2:13–15). As we look at the life of Joseph, we find that he was a humble man who honored

God by obeying His Word. He remained consistent and content, and he could be counted on to follow the Lord, regardless of the personal costs.

How can you grow in your faith to become a godly individual? Begin by committing yourself to a consistent, daily walk with Christ. Attend a church where the Word of God is proclaimed as the standard of life. Make a commitment to God and to your loved ones that you will not abandon your devotion to Christ or to them.

You will gain a sense of godly responsibility when you stand up for what is right. A committed Christian is not easily swayed, but is filled with conviction, faith, and a desire to know God intimately. When Joseph had no one else to guide and comfort him, he turned to God and found the strength and love he needed to get through the most difficult of circumstances.

You will, too. Will you make Joseph's spiritual commitment your own today?

Giving Passionate Praise

MATT. 2:1-12

The wise men eagerly journeyed to Bethlehem to give a royal welcome to the baby Jesus—God's promised gift of salvation to mankind. They packed gold, frankincense, and myrrh so they could join in the heavenly worship of the infant King. These men formed an important part of the celebration that surrounded Christ's birth. In fact, they represented you in God's great plan. They came to worship the Lord of lords and the King of kings, and their visit to the Christ child symbolizes the thousands of men and women who have humbly sought the Messiah throughout history.

Through your own seeking and serving, you become part of the heavenly symphony that gives passionate praise to the Savior. Allow your heart to burst into song at the thought of Him. Permit the tune of your being to swell with the joy of who He is. Just like the wise men, you have joined the great multitude in neverending worship. Seek Him and sing, for surely He is worthy.

Who will shepherd My people Israel."

7 Then Herod secretly called the magi and determined from them the exact time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search carefully for the Child; and when you have found Him, report to me, so that I too may come and worship Him."

9 After hearing the king, they went their way; and the star, which they had seen in the east, went on before them until it came and stood over the place where the Child was 10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced exceedingly with great joy.

11 After coming into the house they saw the Child with Mary His mother; and they fell to the ground and worshiped Him. Then, opening their treasures, they presented to Him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And having been warned by God in a dream not to return to Herod, the magi left for their own country by another way.

The Flight to Egypt

13 Now when they had gone, behold, an angel of the Lord *appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, "Get up! Take the Child and His mother and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you; for Herod is going to search for the Child to destroy Him."

14 So Joseph got up and took the Child and His mother while it was still night, and left for Egypt.

15 He remained there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfill what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet: "OUT OF EGYPT I CALLED MY SON."

> 2:8 — "Go and search carefully for the Child; and when you have found Him, report to me, so that I too may come and worship Him."

Herod tried to be a cunning actor and use his deceptive skills to convince the wise men that he was sincere. Anyone can pretend to love God—but the proof is in a person's character, and Herod's was sinfully flawed. Thankfully, the men were not deceived. The Lord warned them about Herod, and they returned to their own country without telling him that they had seen Christ (Matt. 2:12).

> 2:11 — After coming into the house they saw the Child with Mary His mother; and they fell to the ground and worshiped Him.

The wise men probably visited Jesus when He was about two years old. They came to a house instead of a stable and saw the Child rather than an infant. Regardless of His age, however, they worshiped Him and acknowledged Him as the Messiah (Matt. 2:6).

were in Bethlehem and all its vicinity, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had determined from the magi. 17 Then what had been spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled:

18 "A VOICE WAS HEARD IN RAMAH,

WEEPING AND GREAT MOURNING,

RACHEL WEEPING FOR HER CHILDREN; AND SHE REFUSED TO BE COMFORTED, BECAUSE THEY WERE NO MORE."

19 But when Herod died, behold, an angel of the Lord *appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, and said,

20 "Get up, take the Child and His mother, and go into the land of Israel; for those who sought the Child's life are dead."

21 So Joseph got up, took the Child and His mother, and came into the land of Israel.

≥ 22 But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. Then after being warned by God in a dream, he left for the regions of Galilee,

23 and came and lived in a city called Nazareth. This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophets: "He shall be called a Nazarene."

The Preaching of John the Baptist

- 3NOW in those days John the Baptist *came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea, saying,
- 2 "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."
- 3 For this is the one referred to by Isaiah the prophet when he said,

"THE VOICE OF ONE CRYING IN THE WILDERNESS,

'Make ready the way of the Lord, Make His paths straight!'"

- 4 Now John himself had a garment of camel's hair and a leather belt around his waist; and his food was locusts and wild honey.
- 5 Then Jerusalem was going out to him, and all Judea and all the district around the Jordan:
- 6 and they were being baptized by him in the Jordan River, as they confessed their sins.

- 7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism, he said to them, "You brood of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?
- 8 "Therefore bear fruit in keeping with repentance;
- 9 and do not suppose that you can say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our father'; for I say to you that from these stones God is able to raise up children to Abraham.
- 10 "The axe is already laid at the root of the trees; therefore every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.
- 11 "As for me, I baptize you awith water for repentance, but He who is coming after me is mightier than I, and I am not fit to remove His sandals; He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.
- 12 "His winnowing fork is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clear His threshing floor; and He will gather His wheat into the barn, but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

The Baptism of Jesus

- 13 Then Jesus *arrived from Galilee at the Jordan coming to John, to be baptized by him. 14 But John tried to prevent Him, saying, "I have need to be baptized by You, and do You come to me?"
- 15 But Jesus answering said to him, "Permit \prec it at this time; for in this way it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he *permitted Him.
- 16 After being baptized, Jesus came up immediately from the water; and behold, the heavens were opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove and lighting on Him
- 17 and behold, a voice out of the heavens said, "This is bMy beloved Son, in whom I am well-pleased."

> 2:22 — After being warned by God in a dream, he left for the regions of Galilee.

Gour times in this short narrative, Joseph received divine instructions through dreams. The wise men also received God's message of warning and guidance through a dream they had. The Lord uses many methods to communicate His will to us. Asking Him to make us sensitive to the voice of His Spirit is a sure way to learn His plan for the future.

> 3:8 — "Bear fruit in keeping with repentance."

Genuine repentance leads not only to a change in attitude, but also to a change in behavior. Merely feeling sorry for some wrong action does not constitute repentance

> 3:15 — Jesus answering said to him, "Permit it at this time; for in this way it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness."

In His holiness, Jesus submitted Himself to John's baptism to provide a perfect example to us of how to live in righteousness and obedience to the Father (Rom. 6:3, 4).

The Temptation of Jesus

THEN Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.

2 And after He had fasted forty days and forty nights, He athen became hungry.

- 3 And the tempter came and said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread."
- ▶ 4 But He answered and said, "It is written, 'Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God.'"
 - 5 Then the devil *took Him into the holy city and had Him stand on the pinnacle of the temple,
 - 6 and *said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down; for it is written,

'HE WILL COMMAND HIS ANGELS CONCERNING YOU';

and

'On their hands they will bear You up, So that You will not strike Your foot against a stone.'"

- 7 Jesus said to him, "On the other hand, it is written, 'You shall not put the Lord your God to the test.'"
- 8 Again, the devil *took Him to a very high mountain and *showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory;
- 9 and he said to Him, "All these things I will give You, if You fall down and worship me."
- 10 Then Jesus *said to him, "Go, Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God, and serve Him only."
- 11 Then the devil *left Him; and behold, angels came and began to minister to Him.

Jesus Begins His Ministry

12 Now when Jesus heard that John had been taken into custody, He withdrew into Galilee:

13 and leaving Nazareth, He came and settled in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali.

14 This was to fulfill what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet:

15 "The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali,

By the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the ^bGentiles—

16 "The people who were sitting in

DARKNESS SAW A GREAT LIGHT,

AND THOSE WHO WERE SITTING IN THE LAND AND SHADOW OF DEATH,

UPON THEM A LIGHT DAWNED."

17 From that time Jesus began to preach and say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

The First Disciples

- 18 Now as Jesus was walking by the Sea of Galilee, He saw two brothers, Simon who was called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen.
- 19 And He *said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men."
- 20 Immediately they left their nets and followed Him.
- 21 Going on from there He saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and He called them. 22 Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed Him.

> 4:1 — Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.

The Holy Spirit led Jesus to a barren place where the devil waited to tempt Him. We should never doubt God's leading just because we run into temptation. Though God will never tempt us (James 1:13), He will test our faith to see if we will stay on the course that He has set for us to follow. If you are uncertain and need His assurance, ask Him to confirm His will to you. He will answer whenever you pray and request His guidance.

> 4:3 — The tempter came and said to Him, "If You are the Son of God."

Satan is a relentless foe. He will stop at nothing to tempt us into doubting the Word of God and His promises. Just as He did with Eve in the Garden of Eden (Gen. 3), he will whisper words of doubt saying the Lord cannot be trusted or that what He has said is not the whole truth. We know Satan is a liar. When God gives us a word of direction or a promise, we can claim it and believe it based on who is doing the talking to us—the sovereign God of the universe.

> 4:4, 7, 10 — "It is written . . . It is written . . . It is written."

gesus responded to each of Satan's three temptations by appealing to the unchanging Word of God: "It is written!" If we want to successfully overcome temptation, we must do the same—use God's Word as our offensive weapons against an inferior foe. This means we must take time to read and study His Word. You cannot go into battle each day unarmed—and yet, many do this very thing by ignoring the Bible and the principles it contains.

> 4:23 — Jesus was going throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and every kind of sickness among the people.

The earthly ministry of Jesus focused on teaching, preaching, and healing. He instructed, exhorted, and cured the people. Why? The reason was to demonstrate kind of disease and every kind of sickness among the people.

24 The news about Him spread throughout all Syria; and they brought to Him all who were ill, those suffering with various diseases and pains, demoniacs, epileptics, paralytics; and He healed them.

> 5:13 — "You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt has become tasteless, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled under foot by men."

Jesus wants us to take our roles as salt seriously—both as a preservative and a seasoning. Through us, the lost are to be drawn to the Lord—preserved for eternal life.

They also "taste and see that the Lord is good" (Ps. 34:8) and see that following Him is life at its very best.

> 5:17 — "Do not think that I came to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I did not come to abolish but to fulfill."

Ome people mistakenly think that Jesus' revelation of God is totally different from the Old Testament, but this is completely false. Jesus is the "the exact representation of His nature" (Heb. 1:3)—as He always was in time past and as He will always be. He came as the fulfillment of the Law and the promise of salvation to this lost world.

desus discouraged oath-taking because this amounted to nothing more than human works. When we break an oath, it reflects badly on our godly character and on the Lord Jesus. As believers, our words should be just as trustworthy as any vow.

> 5:48 — "You are to be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect."

The only way to be perfect as the Father is to be clothed, through faith, with the righteousness of Christ (ls. 61:10; Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 3:9–17). This is necessary, for without holiness "no one will see the Lord" (Heb. 12:14).

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT LOVING THE UNLOVABLE

hat do you do when someone cuts you off in traffic or a friend has offended you? Do you become hurt by the thoughtless or deliberate actions done toward you? Do you immediately forgive those who hurt you, or do you sulk with feelings of unforgiveness? How do you typically react?

Jesus tells us that our behavior must radically differ from that of the world: "I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you" (Matt. 5:44). So what should you do when someone offends you? Follow these basic steps to ensure a Christ-centered response.

1. Forgive the offender.

Hurt, when not addressed properly, turns into bitterness and an unforgiving spirit. Through the grace of Jesus Christ, you have the spiritual resources to forgive others (Matt. 18:21–35; Eph. 4:32). When you release someone of a debt he or she owes, you are no longer bound by a spirit of unforgiveness or bitterness. You are free to see that individual as Christ does—anger no longer has the power to rule your life and decisions. Forgiveness does not mean that what the person did was right. It means that you have turned him or her over to God. You are no longer holding on to the unforgiveness, and you are free to live fully for Jesus Christ.

How do you typically react?

2. Seek to understand before you seek to be understood.

Practice the skill of listening, and try to imagine the perspective of the offender. What might have motivated his actions? What is going on in his or her life? Many times, a person who hurts you is also a victim of hurt. Understanding the offender's private pain could be a key step toward reconciliation or preventing further conflicts.

3. Speak with noncombative yet truthful words.

Speaking the truth in love does not mean that your words will lack impact. Sometimes the truth can be very unsettling, and the individual who has wounded you may need to grapple with some tough issues regarding his or her thoughtless actions toward you.

Only the Lord can work in a person's heart. You can pressure him or her for an apology, but God is the One who must convict the other person that what he or she has done is wrong. Your best course of action is to extend patience, love, and forgiveness because this is what the Lord extends to you. And one day even your "worst enemy" could become your best friend in Christ. Whatever the result, you can be sure of God's blessing as you seek His way of dealing with those who hurt you.

> 6:7 — "When you are praying, do not use meaningless repetition as the Gentiles do, for they suppose that they will be heard for their many words."

Offective prayer is not magic; it's not about speaking the right string of words or using the correct formula so that God will move on our behalf. Instead, it's about communicating on a heart-to-heart level with the Lord of the universe. We have an awesome opportunity to draw near to Him and learn His ways.

That do you think about most throughout the day? What causes your heart to beat fast in wonder and anticipation? What do you think you couldn't live without? Whatever has your attention is your treasure, but only God is truly worthy of your heart.

> 6:24 — "No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to one and despise the other."

oo many of us try to serve two masters: God and work, or God and bank accounts, or God and family. But Jesus says this is impossible, for two masters inevitably give contradictory demands. Who will you serve?

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

How can I overcome anxiety?

MATT. 6:25–34

God did not design you to be anxious or nervous. In His Sermon on the Mount, Jesus told the crowds, "Do not worry then, saying, 'What will we eat?' or 'What will we drink?' or 'What will we wear for clothing?' . . . Do not worry about tomorrow" (Matt. 6:31, 34).

At some point, all of us have worried about the basics of life. Most of our anxieties involve fundamental things: where we live, what food we buy, what clothes to wear, what friends we have, and what others think about us. In all these concerns, the issue is one of faith and trust in God. Do we really believe that He will do what He has promised to do in His Word?

If you assume that you are the one who is in charge of your life, then you will battle anxiety and fear. However, if you understand the ways of the Lord, then you will know that He is in charge and that the sovereign God of the universe cares for you. If you worry and doubt His goodness, you will never have the peace He wants you to experience. Do you take time to acknowledge Him as your Provider? Your answer has everything to do with your anxiety level.

Have you ever watched a mouse running inside a wheel? The faster he runs, the faster the wheel moves—but he doesn't make the slightest progress. He does not even have the sense to get off the wheel. This is exactly what anxiety does to you. As fearful thoughts fill your mind, you begin to run faster, trying harder to meet the demands of others or to than food, and the body more than clothing? 26 "Look at the birds of the air, that they do not sow, nor reap nor gather into barns, and prevent an uncertain disaster. But you will never gain complete control over your circumstances because God is the One who is solely in control of all things.

There is only one way to step off the wheel and that is by acknowledging the Lord's ability to take care of every need you have. God created you. He knows your needs and the deepest desires of your heart (Ps. 37:4). He longs for you to end the anxiety cycle and let Him lead (Matt. 11:28). First Peter 5:6, 7 says, "Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you at the proper time, casting all your anxiety on Him, because He cares for you." The word "casting" is related to the Greek verb used in Luke 19:35, when on Palm Sunday the people of Jerusalem threw their garments onto a colt for Jesus to ride. The word describes the same motion: a deliberate action of setting something down and leaving it there.

Jesus wants you to give your cares over to Him and leave them with Him. You depend on Him for life itself, and you acknowledge this by saying, "Here, Jesus. Take my problems. You have the answers! I trust You to show me what to do and to take care of the consequences."

When you knock on the door of His heart through prayer and thanksgiving, He opens Himself up to you. The greatest blessings we can receive are not material in nature. They are the blessings of His infinite love and care for us. He delights in showering us with good things—but we must present our requests to Him.

> 7:12 — "In everything, therefore, treat people the same way you want them to treat you, for this is the Law and the Prophets."

> 7:21 — "Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father who is in heaven will enter."

The question that needs to be addressed here is: "What is the will of the Father?" Faith and belief in His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, are the only answers. Willing and eager obedience is the hallmark of someone who has truly come to faith in Christ. They obey, not because they want to earn God's favor, but because they feel delighted about already having received it.

> 7:24 — "Everyone who hears these words of Mine and acts on them, may be compared to a wise man who built his house on the rock."

Obedience to God creates a firm foundation for living the Christian life. Those who obey out of love for Jesus build a solid life for themselves of strength and endurance. Terrible storms may hit them, but they can never destroy them.

> 7:29 — He was teaching them as one having authority, and not as their scribes.

gesus is the living Word of God (John 1:1). He taught with authority because this is who He is—the final authority of the Lord's truth given to mankind. Take the time to read straight through your Bible from Genesis to Revelation and notice the impact of statements like, "Thus says the Lord," and the words of Jesus when He says, "I say to you." When God speaks to us, our spirits know it is His voice, and we should have a strong urge to listen to Him and obey.

> 8:9 — "I also am a man under authority, with soldiers under me."

The Roman centurion recognized in Jesus an authority far beyond what most observers understood. He trusted in Jesus' power and word because He first saw and acknowledged His divine authority.

> 8:13 — Jesus said to the centurion, "Go; it shall be done for you as you have believed." And the servant was healed that very moment.

Thy is faith necessary for us to experience the miracles of God? The Lord delights to do extraordinary things for those who trust in His goodness and grace. When we exercise faith in God, we're telling Him, "I believe You."

Discipleship Tested

18 Now when Jesus saw a crowd around Him, He gave orders to depart to the other side of the sea.

19 Then a scribe came and said to Him, "Teacher, I will follow You wherever You go."
20 Jesus *said to him, "The foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head."

21 Another of the disciples said to Him, "Lord, permit me first to go and bury my father."

22 But Jesus *said to him, "Follow Me, and allow the dead to bury their own dead."

23 When He got into the boat, His disciples followed Him.

And behold, there arose a great storm on the sea, so that the boat was being covered with the waves; but Jesus Himself was asleep. And they came to Him and woke Him, saying, "Save us, Lord; we are perishing!"

➤ 26 He *said to them, "Why are you afraid, you men of little faith?" Then He got up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and it became perfectly calm.

27 The men were amazed, and said, "What kind of a man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him?"

Jesus Casts Out Demons

28 When He came to the other side into the country of the Gadarenes, two men who were demon-possessed met Him as they were coming out of the tombs. They were so extremely violent that no one could pass by that way.

29 And they cried out, saying, "What business do we have with each other, Son of God? Have You come here to torment us before the time?"

30 Now there was a herd of many swine feeding at a distance from them.

31 The demons began to entreat Him, saying, "If You are going to cast us out, send us into the herd of swine."

32 And He said to them, "Go!" And they came out and went into the swine, and the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea and perished in the waters.

33 The herdsmen ran away, and went to the city and reported everything, including what had happened to the demoniacs.

34 And behold, the whole city came out to ≺ meet Jesus; and when they saw Him, they implored Him to leave their region.

A Paralytic Healed

9 GETTING into a boat, Jesus crossed over the sea and came to His own city.

2 And they brought to Him a paralytic \(\) lying on a bed. Seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralytic, "Take courage, son; your sins are forgiven."

3 And some of the scribes said to themselves, "This fellow blasphemes."

4 And Jesus knowing their thoughts said, "Why are you thinking evil in your hearts?

5 "Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up, and walk'?

6 "But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"—then He *said to the paralytic, "Get up, pick up your bed and go home."

7 And he got up and went home.

8 But when the crowds saw this, they were awestruck, and glorified God, who had given such authority to men.

Matthew Called

9 As Jesus went on from there, He saw a man called Matthew, sitting in the tax collector's booth; and He *said to him, "Follow Me!" And he got up and followed Him.

10 Then it happened that as Jesus was reclining at the table in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and were dining with Jesus and His disciples.

> 8:26 — He said to them, "Why are you afraid, you men of little faith?" Then He got up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and it became perfectly calm.

The storm terrified the disciples, but not the Lord. Why the difference? Jesus is God. He is over all things. A stormy tempest is no challenge to Him because He knows that the wind and the waves are subject to His command. Therefore, the disciples had no need to fear because He was with them.

> 8:34 — The whole city came out to meet Jesus; and when they saw Him, they implored Him to leave their region.

This verse reveals the sinful character of mankind. Jesus had just cast demons out of two men and sent the evil spirits into a herd of swine. The entire herd rushed toward a steep embankment and into the sea where they drowned.

When the herdsmen reported what had happened to the people of the nearby town, the entire community became angry with the Savior. What was their chief concern? It was the potential drop in economy and loss of business. They were worried more about their financial welfare than their spiritual health. When they saw Jesus approaching their city, they asked Him to leave. Sadly, we are guilty of this same thing. We have grown accustomed to living with sin, and we don't want to think about God removing it, especially if it would mean a loss of perceived pleasure or income. But clinging to sin is one of the most deadly things we can do.

> 9:2 — Seeing their faith.

It would be hard to see faith if it never worked its way out in meaningful action. If our faith does not affect the way we live or ever get noticed by others, then perhaps it is not genuine faith at all (James 2:14–22).

His disciples, "Why is your Teacher eating with the tax collectors and sinners?"

- 12 But when Jesus heard this, He said, "It is not those who are healthy who need a physician, but those who are sick.
- ➤ 13 "But go and learn what this means: 'I DE-SIRE COMPASSION, "AND NOT SACRIFICE,' for I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

The Question about Fasting

14 Then the disciples of John *came to Him, asking, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast, but Your disciples do not fast?"

15 And Jesus said to them, "The attendants of the bridegroom cannot mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them, can they? But the days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast.

16 "But no one puts a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; for the patch pulls away from the garment, and a worse tear results.

17 "Nor do people put new wine into old wineskins; otherwise the wineskins burst, and the wine pours out and the wineskins are ruined; but they put new wine into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved."

Miracles of Healing

18 While He was saying these things to them, a synagogue official came and bowed down before Him, and said, "My daughter has just died; but come and lay Your hand on her, and she will live."

19 Jesus got up and began to follow him, and so did His disciples.

20 And a woman who had been suffering from a hemorrhage for twelve years, came up behind Him and touched the fringe of His cloak;

21 for she was saying to herself, "If I only touch His garment, I will get well."

22 But Jesus turning and seeing her said, "Daughter, take courage; your faith has made you well." At once the woman was made well.

23 When Jesus came into the official's house, and saw the flute-players and the crowd in noisy disorder, ≥ 24 He said, "Leave; for the girl has not died, but is asleep." And they began laughing at Him.

Leaving It All Behind

MATT. 9:9-13

After years of counting out coins, writing out customs receipts, and collecting Roman taxes from his Jewish countrymen, Matthew finally heard an offer he could not refuse. "Follow Me," Jesus said to him, and at the sound of those words, Matthew "left everything behind, and got up and began to follow Him" (Luke 5:27, 28).

Notice the words Luke uses to emphasize Matthew's call into ministry. He tells us that Matthew left everything—the money, his connections within the Roman government, and the powerful position he held. He left it all—except, praise God, his gift of accurate recordkeeping! Before his conversion, his name had been Levi, the son of Alphaeus (Mark 2:14). But after he accepted Christ's call to ministry, Jesus gave him a new name, Matthew ("Gift of the Lord"). When Luke and Mark refer to Matthew, they identify him as Levi. But in Matthew 10:3, he refers to himself as "Matthew the tax collector"a pointed reminder of a past he had given up.

> 10:28 — "Do not fear those who kill the body but are unable to kill the soul; but rather fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell."

Just before His execution, Jesus told the Roman governor, Pilate, "You would have no authority over Me, unless it had been given you from above" (John 19:11). He didn't fear Pilate because He knew that His arrest and crucifixion were an integral part of the plan to provide for the salvation of mankind (Matt. 26:55, 56).

> 10:34 — "Do not think that I came to bring peace on the earth; I did not come to bring peace, but a sword."

At first these words seem to contradict Scripture verses like Luke 2:14 and John 14:27, where Jesus talks pointedly about the peace He offers each one of us. The peace of God is not the result of living any way you choose. It is the result of living a godly lifestyle, which is characterized by obedience to and faith in the Lord. In this sense, Jesus brings a sword to the hearts and minds of those who are living in sin and rebellion. For those who follow Him with devoted hearts, He offers His unshakable peace.

> 10:42 — "Whoever in the name of a disciple gives to one of these little ones even a cup of cold water to drink, truly I say to you, he shall not lose his reward."

God doesn't reward only big jobs and important works. He loves to give, and He loves to reward obedience, no matter how small or insignificant it may seem to us.

 - 18 "For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon!'
 - 19 "The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Behold, a gluttonous man and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' Yet wisdom is vindicated by her deeds."

The Unrepenting Cities

- 20 Then He began to denounce the cities in which most of His miracles were done, because they did not repent.
- 21 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles had occurred in Tyre and Sidon which occurred in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.
- 22 "Nevertheless I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the day of judgment than for you.

Goday, believers have something unknown to the men and women in Old Testament times: the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit. We are the temple of the Holy Spirit, and that makes us great in God's eyes. While John's life and message were extremely important, we also have great worth because of Christ's life within us. > 11:29 — "Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls."

Il of us need rest, and Jesus promises to give it to us when we find our rest in Him. He is our Burden-Bearer. When we surrender the circumstances of our lives to Him, He lifts us up and infuses our hearts with fresh hope and wisdom. Some situations are just too difficult for us to handle, but nothing is too great for Him. He promises to refresh our weary souls when we cry out to Him.

Lord of the Sabbath

- ➤ 8 "For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."
 - 9 Departing from there, He went into their synagogue.
 - 10 And a man was there whose hand was withered. And they questioned Jesus, asking, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"—so that they might accuse Him.
 - 11 And He said to them, "What man is there among you who has a sheep, and if it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will he not take hold of it and lift it out?
 - 12 "How much more valuable then is a man than a sheep! So then, it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath."
 - 13 Then He *said to the man, "Stretch out your hand!" He stretched it out, and it was restored to normal, like the other.

> 12:25 — Knowing their thoughts Jesus said to them.

The Book of Hebrews says, "All things are open and laid bare to the eyes of Him with whom we have to do" (4:13). And Paul says the Lord will "disclose the motions of men's hearts" (1 Cor. 4:5). Often we are tempted to think that God will not notice what we are doing. But He does. He is keenly interested in every aspect of our lives, in-

The Pharisees Rebuked

- 22 Then a demon-possessed man who was blind and mute was brought to Jesus, and He healed him, so that the mute man spoke and saw.
- 23 All the crowds were amazed, and were saying, "This man cannot be the Son of David, can he?"

➤ 12:31 — "Any sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven people, but blasphemy against the Spirit shall not be forgiven."

Plasphemy against the Spirit is unforgivable because it means denying Jesus Christ is who He says He is and denying His gift of salvation. This is the unpardonable sin because you are literally rejecting the only One who can save you. God isn't going to force you to accept Jesus as your Savior. However, if you refuse to trust Christ, then you will face the consequences of your decision, which are judgment and condemnation (John 3:18). God will never reject anyone who is truly repentant. And if you've accepted Jesus as your Savior, then you can never commit the unpardonable sin.

34 "You brood of vipers, how can you, being evil, speak what is good? For the mouth speaks out of that which fills the heart.

35 "The good man brings out of his good treasure what is good; and the evil man brings out of his evil treasure what is evil.

36 "But I tell you that every careless word that people speak, they shall give an accounting for it in the day of judgment.

37 "For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

The Desire for Signs

38 Then some of the scribes and Pharisees said to Him, "Teacher, we want to see a sign from You."

39 But He answered and said to them, "An evil and adulterous generation craves for a sign; and yet no sign will be given to it but the sign of Jonah the prophet;

40 for just as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the sea monster, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

43 "Now when the unclean spirit goes out of a man, it passes through waterless places seeking rest, and does not find it.

44 "Then it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came'; and when it comes, it finds it unoccupied, swept, and put in order.

45 "Then it goes and takes along with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there; and the last state of that man becomes worse than the first. That is the way it will also be with this evil generation."

Changed Relationships

46 While He was still speaking to the crowds, behold, His mother and brothers were standing outside, seeking to speak to Him.

47 Someone said to Him, "Behold, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside seeking to speak to You."

48 But Jesus answered the one who was telling Him and said, "Who is My mother and who are My brothers?"

49 And stretching out His hand toward His disciples, He said, "Behold My mother and My brothers!

Jesus Teaches in Parables

 13^{THAT} day Jesus went out of the house and was sitting by the sea.

2 And large crowds gathered to Him, so He got into a boat and sat down, and the whole crowd was standing on the beach.

3 And He spoke many things to them in parables, saying, "Behold, the sower went out to sow:

The Sower Explained

- 18 "Hear then the parable of the sower.
- 19 "When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart. This is the one on whom seed was sown beside the road.
- 20 "The one on whom seed was sown on the rocky places, this is the man who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy;
- 21 yet he has no firm root in himself, but is only temporary, and when affliction or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he falls away.

22 "And the one on whom seed was sown among the thorns, this is the man who hears the word, and the worry of the world and the deceitfulness of wealth choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

23 "And the one on whom seed was sown on the good soil, this is the man who hears the word and understands it; who indeed bears fruit and brings forth, some a hundredfold, some sixty, and some thirty."

Tares among Wheat

- 24 Jesus presented another parable to them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field.
- 25 "But while his men were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed at ares among the wheat, and went away.
- 26 "But when the wheat sprouted and bore grain, then the tares became evident also.
- 27 "The slaves of the landowner came and said to him, 'Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have tares?'
- 28 "And he said to them, 'An enemy has done this!' The slaves *said to him, 'Do you want us, then, to go and gather them up?'

The Mustard Seed

- 31 He presented another parable to them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field:

Accountability and responsibility are earmarks of the Christian life, and this combination of promise and warning typifies a great deal of God's instruction in His Word. He motivates us to seek Him, but He also cautions us against having a careless attitude—especially when He provides the wisdom and insight we need to live each day. That is why the apostle Paul admonishes us to walk as wise men and women (Eph. 5:15).

> 13:23 — "The one on whom seed was sown on the good soil, this is the man who hears the word and understands it; who indeed bears fruit and brings forth, some a hundredfold, some sixty, and some thirty."

The Lord wants us to hear, understand, and put into practice His counsel and instruction. He doesn't see us as vaults into which He hides Scripture, but rather as gardens in which His Word can sprout, grow, and bloom in glory to Him. Therefore, it is essential that we cultivate God's Word in our lives. This includes sincere devotion to Him, the study of Scripture, prayer, and a commitment to worship Him each week in His house.

The Leaven

33 He spoke another parable to them, "The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three pecks of flour until it was all leavened.

34 All these things Jesus spoke to the crowds in parables, and He did not speak to them without a parable.

35 This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet:

"I WILL OPEN MY MOUTH IN PARABLES; I WILL UTTER THINGS HIDDEN SINCE THE FOUNDATION OF THE WORLD."

The Tares Explained

Hidden Treasure

44 "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in the field, which a man found and hid again; and from joy over it he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

A Costly Pearl

45 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking fine pearls, 46 and upon finding one pearl of great

A Dragnet

47 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet cast into the sea, and gathering fish of every kind;

48 and when it was filled, they drew it up on the beach; and they sat down and gathered the good fish into containers, but the bad they threw away.

49 "So it will be at the end of the age; the angels will come forth and take out the wicked from among the righteous,

50 and will throw them into the furnace of fire; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

51 "Have you understood all these things?"

They *said to Him, "Yes." 52 And Jesus said to them, "Therefore every scribe who has become a disciple of the kingdom of heaven is like a head of a household, who brings out of his treasure things new and old."

Jesus Revisits Nazareth

53 When Jesus had finished these parables, He departed from there.

54 He came to His hometown and began teaching them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said, "Where did this man get this wisdom and these miraculous powers?

55 "Is not this the carpenter's son? Is not His mother called Mary, and His brothers, James and Joseph and Simon and Judas?

56 "And His sisters, are they not all with us? Where then did this man get all these things?"

> 14:14 — When He went ashore, He saw a large crowd, and felt compassion for them and healed their sick.

Compassion is God's natural response to human suffering. Jesus had gone to a remote place to be alone, but when the crowds followed Him, He ministered to them and refused to ignore them.

> 14:23 — He had sent the crowds away, He went up on the mountain by Himself to pray; and when it was evening, He was there alone. Gesus spent a good deal of His time alone in prayer. He made this a regular practice because He knew He could do nothing apart from His Father. We need to have this same mind-set. If we are rushing through our days, never taking the time to stop, pray, and listen to God, we will become exhausted easily and burned out with life. Our refreshment begins with an intimate relationship with the Lord, and it can only be accomplished through prayer and tranquil time spent in His presence.

> 14:27 — Immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid."

P must beware of allowing religious customs and church rituals to take precedence over the Word of God. Just because something has been done in a certain way for a long time doesn't mean it pleases the lord.

> 15:8 — "This people honors Me with their lips, but their heart is far away from Me."

Human beings have a natural fondness for pomp, ceremony, and ritual. There is nothing wrong with that—unless it begins to replace a genuine connection to the living God. Our Lord wants our hearts and not just our lip service, so we must be careful that everything we do is out of obedience and love for Him, not for show.

≥ 28 Then Jesus said to her, "O woman, your faith is great; it shall be done for you as you wish." And her daughter was healed at once.

Healing Crowds

29 Departing from there, Jesus went along by the Sea of Galilee, and having gone up on the mountain. He was sitting there.

30 And large crowds came to Him, bringing with them those who were lame, crippled, blind, mute, and many others, and they laid them down at His feet; and He healed them.

31 So the crowd marveled as they saw the mute speaking, the crippled restored, and the lame walking, and the blind seeing; and they glorified the God of Israel.

Four Thousand Fed

32 And Jesus called His disciples to Him, and said, "I feel compassion for the people, because they have remained with Me now three days and have nothing to eat; and I do not want to send them away hungry, for they might faint on the way."

33 The disciples *said to Him, "Where would we get so many loaves in this desolate place to satisfy such a large crowd?"

34 And Jesus *said to them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven, and a few small fish."

35 And He directed the people to sit down on the ground;

36 and He took the seven loaves and the fish; and giving thanks, He broke them and started giving them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people.

37 And they all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up what was left over of the broken pieces, seven large baskets full.

38 And those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children.

39 And sending away the crowds, Jesus got into the boat and came to the region of Magadan.

Pharisees Test Jesus

 $16^{\rm THE}$ Pharisees and Sadducees came up, and testing Jesus, they asked Him to show them a sign from heaven.

2 But He replied to them, "When it is evening, you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.'

- 3 "And in the morning, 'There will be a storm today, for the sky is red and threatening.' Do you know how to discern the appearance of the sky, but cannot discern the signs of the times?
- 4 "An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign; and a sign will not be given it, except the sign of Jonah." And He left them and went away.
- 5 And the disciples came to the other side of the sea, but they had forgotten to bring any bread.
- 6 And Jesus said to them, "Watch out and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees."
- 7 They began to discuss this among themselves, saying, "He said that because we did not bring any bread."
- 8 But Jesus, aware of this, said, "You men of little faith, why do you discuss among yourselves that you have no bread?
- 9 "Do you not yet understand or remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets full you picked up?
- 10 "Or the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many large baskets full you picked up?
- 11 "How is it that you do not understand that I did not speak to you concerning bread? But beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees."
- 12 Then they understood that He did not say to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Peter's Confession of Christ

13 Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, He was asking His disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?"

14 And they said, "Some say John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; but still others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets."

LIFE LESSONS-

> 15:28 — Jesus said to her, "O woman, your faith is great; it shall be done for you as you wish." And her daughter was healed at once.

Only two people in the Gospels are said to have had great faith, and both of them were Gentiles (the other was a Roman centurion; Matt. 8:10). Great faith does not depend on background or position, but on the attitude of the heart. If you are fully committed to God, your entire life will be an expression of worship and adoration to Him.

> 16:4 — "An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign; and a sign will not be given it, except the sign of Jonah." Our faith in Jesus should be based on the fact that He is God, not on signs and miracles. When the people saw the miracles of Christ, they believed in Him, but with a weak faith that was easily shaken. So Jesus gave them the sign of Jonah. As Jonah had spent three days in the belly of the great fish, so Jesus would spend three days "in the heart of the earth" before His resurrection (Matt. 12:40). This provided the people proof that He is the Messiah. Still, many did not believe. It is only when we look past the miracle to the reason for His resurrection—His great plan of redemption—that we have a faith that endures. Therefore, don't look to the Lord for signs and wonders; rather, trust Him because He is God and He is able to help you in all your circumstances.

Life Examples:

PETER

Willing to Change

MATT. 16:13-19

We have heard people say, "What's in a name?" The answer to this famous question is very important from God's perspective. Names often reflect something about us, and Jesus chose the names He gave His disciples wisely. Peter's original name was Simon Barjona (or son of Jonah). The name Peter comes from the Greek Petros, meaning "rock" or "stone." He was faithful and steady, and though he was also impetuous, impulsive, brash, outspoken, loud, self-confident, and even arrogant—he was rock-solid in his love for Jesus.

▶ 15 He *said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

16 Simon Peter answered, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

17 And Jesus said to him, "Blessed are you, Simon Barjona, because flesh and blood did not reveal this to you, but My Father who is in heaven.

* 18 "I also say to you that you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build My church; and the gates of Hades will not overpower it.

19 "I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; and whatever you bind on earth shall have been bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall have been loosed in heaven."

Why would the Savior pick a man who at one point denied knowing Him (Matt. 26:69–75)? For the same reason He picks us. He sees potential in our lives. Though we fail, He knows what our lives contain, and He wants to transform our brokenness and faults for His use (1 Cor. 1:26–31; 2 Cor. 12:9, 10).

We can learn an awesome lesson about faithfulness by studying the life of Peter. What we will find is this: his most compelling characteristic wasn't impulsiveness or outspokenness, but his willingness to change and, in Jesus' hands, to become a person mightily used by God.

What's in a name? Today it isn't so important what we are called—just that we hear and obey when God calls us.

See the Life Principles Index for further study: 21. Obedience always brings blessing.

20 Then He warned the disciples that they should tell no one that He was the Christ.

Jesus Foretells His Death

21 From that time Jesus began to show His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem, and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised up on the third day.

22 Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him, saying, "God forbid it, Lord! This shall never happen to You."

23 But He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to Me; for you are not setting your mind on God's interests, but man's."

LIFE LESSONS-

> 16:15 — He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

Gesus has no interest in dispassionate, hypothetical views regarding His life and work. Instead, He wanted to know what His followers and disciples thought about Him. His question to you today is this: "Who do you say I am?"

> 16:21 — From that time Jesus began to show His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem, and suffer many things . . . and be killed, and be raised up on the third day.

Gesus repeatedly told His disciples about the suffering that awaited Him in Jerusalem. But they did not understand until after the Resurrection (Mark 9:32; Luke 24:8). The Holy Spirit had not yet come, and their eyes and minds were blinded to the eternal things of the Lord. However, once they saw the resurrected Christ, they knew He was the Savior. God's Word always bears fruit at the right time.

> 16:23 — He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to Me; for you are not setting your mind on God's interests, but man's."

esus wasted no time in dealing with Satan and neither should we. Peter had fallen for the enemy's temptation of allowing his thoughts to turn inward to himself and his desires for the nation of Israel. So Jesus moved quickly to put an end to Peter's erroneous thinking. Never allow thoughts of pride or sin to linger. Keep your focus set on God, and ask Him to reveal His perfect will to you. He knows the plan and outcome of your life. You can trust Him fully because He knows exactly what the future holds for you.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT BINDING SATAN

Matt. 16:19

esus triumphed over Satan at the Cross—a victory that contained absolutely no hint of defeat. You also can claim victory over the enemy in daily battles because, as a believer, you are indwelt with the triumphant power of Jesus Christ through the presence of the Holy Spirit. You have the privilege of calling upon the divine power of God, which ultimately means you have authority over Satan and all his demons (1 John 4:4).

How does one bind the enemy by the power of the Holy Spirit and experience the Lord's release and restoration? There are three steps you must take:

1. Claim the name of Jesus.

The Bible tells us to pray in Jesus' name (John 16:23). Throughout the New Testament, the apostles healed and performed the works of the Lord in Jesus' name (Acts 3:6). You and I transact spiritual business, so to speak, by using the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. When we use the name of Jesus, we are doing what He has called us to do: act with authority over the enemy by demonstrating who we are in Christ.

The power to defeat Satan is available to every believer.

Can you imagine what would happen to the church if believers took God at His Word and appropriated the power of the Holy Spirit?

2. Claim the blood of Jesus.

We dare not come boldly into battle with Satan without the protection of the shed blood of Jesus Christ. Throughout Scripture, we learn that His blood is our protection and the basis of our redemption (Ex. 12; Matt. 26:28; Eph. 1:7; Heb. 9:11–28). The blood of Christ's sacrifice paid the price of sin and eternally broke the power of Satan over us.

3. Claim the Word of God

Jesus put an end to Satan's words of temptation by quoting Scripture. He confronted the enemy with the Word of God, and we must do the same thing. Never argue with Satan. Notice that Jesus did not get into a battle of words. He spoke the truth of God's Word, and it stopped the enemy in his tracks.

The power to defeat Satan is available to every believer. Every one of us has the ability to deal with the enemy by the almighty, supernatural power of God. We have the right to declare Satan bound, his work restricted, and the prisoner set free. Allow God to show you the victory and work though you to the maximum every day.

Discipleship Is Costly

➤ 24 Then Jesus said to His disciples, "If anyone wishes to come after Me, he must deny himself, and take up his cross and follow Me.

*25 "For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it; but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it.

26 "For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?

➤ 27 "For the Son of Man is going to come in the glory of His Father with His angels, and WILL THEN REPAY EVERY MAN ACCORDING TO HIS DEEDS.

28 "Truly I say to you, there are some of those who are standing here who will not taste death until they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom."

The Transfiguration

17SIX days later Jesus *took with Him Peter and James and John his brother, and *led them up on a high mountain by themselves.

- 2 And He was transfigured before them; and His face shone like the sun, and His garments became as white as light.
- 3 And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Him.
- 4 Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if You wish, I will make three tabernacles here, one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah."
- While he was still speaking, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and behold, a voice out of the cloud said, "This is My beloved Son, with whom I am well-pleased; listen to Him!"
 - 6 When the disciples heard this, they fell face down to the ground and were terrified.
 - 7 And Jesus came to them and touched them and said, "Get up, and do not be afraid." 8 And lifting up their eyes, they saw no one
 - except Jesus Himself alone.

9 As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, "Tell the vision to no one until the Son of Man has risen from the dead."

10 And His disciples asked Him, "Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?" 11 And He answered and said, "Elijah is coming and will restore all things;

12 but I say to you that Elijah already came, and they did not recognize him, but did to him whatever they wished. So also the Son of Man is going to suffer at their hands."

13 Then the disciples understood that He had spoken to them about John the Baptist.

The Demoniac

14 When they came to the crowd, a man came up to Jesus, falling on his knees before Him and saying,

15 "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is a lunatic and is very ill; for he often falls into the fire and often into the water.

16 "I brought him to Your disciples, and they could not cure him."

17 And Jesus answered and said, "You unbelieving and perverted generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him here to Me."

18 And Jesus rebuked him, and the demon came out of him, and the boy was cured at once.

19 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not drive it out?"

20 And He *said to them, "Because of the littleness of your faith; for truly I say to you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible to you.

> 16:24 — Jesus said to His disciples, "If anyone wishes to come after Me, he must deny himself, and take up his cross and follow Me."

We take up the cross of Jesus any time we suffer in some way for identifying with Him and His cause. "Cross bearing" does not always include affliction or persecution in general. It may mean denying what we deeply desire in order to do the will of God. When we obey Him, we position ourselves for great blessing. Take up your cross and know that the Lord will bear it with you.

> 16:27 — "The Son of Man is going to come in the glory of His Father with His angels, and will then repay every man according to his deeds."

esus often motivated His disciples to love and good works by reminding them that He would return one day in great glory to reward all His faithful servants for whatever they had accomplished in His name.

> 17:5 — "This is My beloved Son, with whom I am well-pleased; listen to Him!"

It both the baptism of Jesus and the Transfiguration, God the Father publicly declared His great pleasure in His only Son, Jesus. Jesus and the Father are one (John 10:30), and we are to obey Him wholeheartedly and model our lives after His example of love.

> 17:17 — Jesus answered and said, "You unbelieving and perverted generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you?"

desus expects us to grow in our faith. Our trust in Him is to deepen as we depend upon Him to help us overcome difficulties and surmount challenges. He is not pleased with stagnant faith.

in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men:

23 and they will kill Him, and He will be raised on the third day." And they were deeply grieved.

The Tribute Money

- 24 When they came to Capernaum, those who collected the atwo-drachma tax came to Peter and said, "Does your teacher not pay the two-drachma tax?"
- 25 He *said, "Yes." And when he came into the house, Jesus spoke to him first, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth collect customs or polltax, from their sons or from strangers?"
- ≥ 26 When Peter said, "From strangers," Jesus said to him, "Then the sons are exempt.
 - 27 "However, so that we do not offend them, go to the sea and throw in a hook, and take the first fish that comes up; and when you open its mouth, you will find ba shekel. Take that and give it to them for you and Me."

Rank in the Kingdom

- 18 AT that time the disciples came to Jesus and said, "Who then is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"
- 2 And He called a child to Himself and set him before them.
- > 3 and said, "Truly I say to you, unless you are converted and become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven.
 - 4 "Whoever then humbles himself as this child, he is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven
 - 5 "And whoever receives one such child in My name receives Me:
 - 6 but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble, it would be better for him to have a heavy millstone hung around his neck, and to be drowned in the depth of the sea.

Stumbling Blocks

7 "Woe to the world because of its stumbling blocks! For it is inevitable that stum-

- bling blocks come; but woe to that man through whom the stumbling block comes!
- 8 "If your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it from you; it is better for you to enter life crippled or lame, than to have two hands or two feet and be cast into the eternal fire.
- 9 "If your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it from you. It is better for you to enter life with one eye, than to have two eyes and be cast into the fiery hell.
- 10 "See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that their angels in heaven continually see the face of My Father who is in heaven.
- 11 ["For the Son of Man has come to save that which was lost.]

Ninety-nine Plus One

- 12 "What do you think? If any man has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go and search for the one that is straying?
- 13 "If it turns out that he finds it, truly I say to you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine which have not gone astray.
- 14 "So it is not the will of your Father who is \triangleleft in heaven that one of these little ones perish.

- 16 "But if he does not listen to you, take one or two more with you, so that by the mouth of two or three witnesses every fact may be confirmed.
- 17 "If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector.

> 17:26 — Jesus said to him, "Then the sons are exempt."

Greedom is one of the great gifts Jesus has bestowed on us. However, Jesus makes it clear that while we are not under the Law for salvation, we are to abide by the laws of government.

> 18:3 — "Truly I say to you, unless you are converted and become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven."

Gesus was speaking of the humility of little children and their unconcern for social status or public opinion. He also wanted His followers to understand the importance of being like a child who trusts his father or mother. Because of family difficulties, some may have trouble with this concept. But Jesus has promised never to fail or leave those who place their trust in Him.

> 18:14 — "It is not the will of your Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones perish."

God wants "all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth" (1 Tim. 2:4). He is "not wishing for any to perish but for all to come to repentance" (2 Pet. 3:9). That includes children.

Forgiveness

- 21 Then Peter came and said to Him, "Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me and I forgive him? Up to seven times?"
- 22 Jesus *said to him, "I do not say to you, up to seven times, but up to seventy times seven.
 23 "For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves.

24 "When he had begun to settle them, one who owed him aten thousand talents was brought to him.

25 "But since he did not have the means to repay, his lord commanded him to be sold, along with his wife and children and all that he had, and repayment to be made.

26 "So the slave fell to the ground and prostrated himself before him, saying, 'Have patience with me and I will repay you everything.'

27 "And the lord of that slave felt compassion and released him and forgave him the debt

28 "But that slave went out and found one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred bdenarii; and he seized him and began to choke him, saying, 'Pay back what you owe.'

29 "So his fellow slave fell to the ground and began to plead with him, saying, 'Have patience with me and I will repay you.'

30 "But he was unwilling and went and threw him in prison until he should pay back what was owed.

31 "So when his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were deeply grieved and came and reported to their lord all that had happened.

32 "Then summoning him, his lord *said to him, 'You wicked slave, I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me.

33 'Should you not also have had mercy on your fellow slave, in the same way that I had mercy on you?'

34 "And his lord, moved with anger, handed him over to the torturers until he should repay all that was owed him.

35 "My heavenly Father will also do the same to you, if each of you does not forgive his brother from your heart."

Concerning Divorce

19WHEN Jesus had finished these words, He departed from Galilee and came into the region of Judea beyond the Jordan;

2 and large crowds followed Him, and He healed them there.

3 Some Pharisees came to Jesus, testing Him and asking, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason at all?"

4 And He answered and said, "Have you not read that He who created them from the beginning MADE THEM MALE AND FEMALE,

5 and said, 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh'?

6 "So they are no longer two, but one flesh. ≺ What therefore God has joined together, let no man separate."

7 They *said to Him, "Why then did Moses command to give her a Certificate of Divorce and send her away?"

8 He *said to them, "Because of your hardness of heart Moses permitted you to divorce your wives; but from the beginning it has not been this way.

9 "And I say to you, whoever divorces his wife, except for immorality, and marries another woman commits adultery."

10 The disciples *said to Him, "If the relationship of the man with his wife is like this, it is better not to marry."

11 But He said to them, "Not all men can accept this statement, but only those to whom it has been given.

12 "For there are eunuchs who were born that way from their mother's womb; and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men; and there are also eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. He who is able to accept this, let him accept it."

> 18:20 — "Where two or three have gathered together in My name, I am there in their midst."

The Spirit of Jesus lives in each individual Christian, but He promises to be with them in a unique and special way when they gather in His name for worship, service, and mutual encouragement.

> 19:6 — "They are no longer two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let no man separate."

Marriage is not merely a social convention, as many declare today. It is far more than words written on a piece of paper. In marriage, God joins a man and a woman into a single, family unit. This is what makes divorce such a tragedy.

Jesus Blesses Little Children

13 Then some children were brought to Him so that He might lay His hands on them and pray; and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus said, "Let the children alone, and do not hinder them from coming to Me; for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

15 After laying His hands on them, He departed from there.

The Rich Young Ruler

16 And someone came to Him and said, "Teacher, what good thing shall I do that I may obtain eternal life?"

17 And He said to him, "Why are you asking Me about what is good? There is only One who is good; but if you wish to enter into life, keep the commandments."

18 Then he *said to Him, "Which ones?" And Jesus said, "You shall not commit murder; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; 19 Honor your father and mother; and You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

20 The young man *said to Him, "All these things I have kept; what am I still lacking?"

21 Jesus said to him, "If you wish to be complete, go and sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me."

22 But when the young man heard this statement, he went away grieving; for he was one who owned much property.

▶ 23 And Jesus said to His disciples, "Truly I say to you, it is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven.

24 "Again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

25 When the disciples heard this, they were very astonished and said, "Then who can be saved?"

26 And looking at them Jesus said to them, "With people this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."

The Disciples' Reward

27 Then Peter said to Him, "Behold, we have left everything and followed You; what then will there be for us?"

28 And Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you, that you who have followed Me, in the regeneration when the Son of Man will sit on His glorious throne, you also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel

29 "And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother a children or farms for My name's sake, will receive many times as much, and will inherit eternal life.

30 "But many who are first will be last; and \prec the last, first.

> 19:23 — Jesus said to His disciples, "Truly I say to you, it is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven."

Why is it hard for the rich to enter heaven? For the same reason it's hard for the strong or the bright or the politically connected. They tend to rely on their own resources, and pride keeps them from trusting God's provision.

Death, Resurrection Foretold

17 As Jesus was about to go up to Jerusalem, He took the twelve disciples aside by themselves, and on the way He said to them.

18 "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem; and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn Him to death, 19 and will hand Him over to the Gentiles to mock and scourge and crucify Him, and on the third day He will be raised up."

Preferment Asked

20 Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came to Jesus with her sons, bowing down and making a request of Him.

21 And He said to her, "What do you wish?" She *said to Him, "Command that in Your kingdom these two sons of mine may sit one on Your right and one on Your left."

22 But Jesus answered, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?" They *said to Him. "We are able."

23 He *said to them, "My cup you shall drink; but to sit on My right and on My left, this is not Mine to give, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by My Father."

24 And hearing this, the ten became indignant with the two brothers.

25 But Jesus called them to Himself and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great men exercise authority over them.

26 "It is not this way among you, but whoever wishes to become great among you shall be your servant,

27 and whoever wishes to be first among you shall be your slave;

28 just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many."

Sight for the Blind

29 As they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed Him.

30 And two blind men sitting by the road, hearing that Jesus was passing by, cried out, "Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!"

31 The crowd sternly told them to be quiet, but they cried out all the more, "Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!"

32 And Jesus stopped and called them, and said, "What do you want Me to do for you?"
33 They *said to Him, "Lord, we want our eyes to be opened."

34 Moved with compassion, Jesus touched their eyes; and immediately they regained their sight and followed Him.

The Triumphal Entry

 21^{WHEN} they had approached Jerusalem and had come to Bethphage, at the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples,

2 saying to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied there and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to Me.

3 "If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, 'The Lord has need of them,' and immediately he will send them."

4 This took place to fulfill what was spoken ≺ through the prophet:

LIFE LESSONS

> 20:15 — "Is it not lawful for me to do what I wish with what is my own? Or is your eye envious because I am generous?"

The Lord can and does distribute His gifts and His goodness as He wills. By definition, grace cannot be earned or deserved, so God is completely free to bestow His favor however He chooses.

> 20:26 — "Whoever wishes to become great among you shall be your servant."

Christian leadership is never about exercising power over someone or putting someone in his or her place. Whenever it comes to that, the "Christian" element has vanished. When believers serve as leaders, they are always servants first.

> 20:28 — "The Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many."

To one ever mistook Jesus for anything but a leader, and yet He came to serve. In fact, He performed the ultimate service by giving His life as the atonement for our sins so that we might have eternal life. There is only one way to heaven, and that is through faith in Jesus Christ and by acknowledging our sinfulness and need for forgiveness. Likewise when we lead, it should be as He did—in humility as a servant. Not to glorify ourselves, but to exalt the One who saved us.

> 21:4 — This took place to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet.

God is serious about fulfilling His Word. The birth, life, and death of Jesus Christ were foretold by the prophets. And at the right time, God did exactly what He promised: He sent the Savior to save us from our sins. If He makes sure that every prophesied detail takes place (Matt. 2:15; 13:35; John 19:24, 28), we can expect that He will surely fulfill all of His promises to us.

- 5 "Say to the daughter of Zion,
 "Behold your King is coming to you,
 Gentle, and mounted on a donkey,
 Even on a colt, the foal of a beast of Burden."
- 6 The disciples went and did just as Jesus had instructed them,
- 7 and brought the donkey and the colt, and laid their coats on them; and He sat on the coats.
- 8 Most of the crowd spread their coats in the road, and others were cutting branches from the trees and spreading them in the road.
- 9 The crowds going ahead of Him, and those who followed, were shouting,

"Hosanna to the Son of David;

BLESSED IS HE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD;

Hosanna in the highest!"

- 10 When He had entered Jerusalem, all the city was stirred, saying, "Who is this?"
- 11 And the crowds were saying, "This is the prophet Jesus, from Nazareth in Galilee."

Cleansing the Temple

- ➤ 12 And Jesus entered the temple and drove out all those who were buying and selling in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who were selling doves.
 - 13 And He *said to them, "It is written, 'My HOUSE SHALL BE CALLED A HOUSE OF PRAYER'; but you are making it a ROBBERS' DEN."
 - 14 And the blind and the lame came to Him in the temple, and He healed them.
 - 15 But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that He had done, and the children who were shouting in the temple, "Hosanna to the Son of David," they became indignant
 - 16 and said to Him, "Do You hear what these children are saying?" And Jesus *said to them, "Yes; have you never read, 'Out of the mouth of infants and nursing babies You have prepared praise for Yourself'?"
 - 17 And He left them and went out of the city to Bethany, and spent the night there.

The Barren Fig Tree

18 Now in the morning, when He was returning to the city, He became hungry.

- 19 Seeing a lone fig tree by the road, He came to it and found nothing on it except leaves only; and He *said to it, "No longer shall there ever be any fruit from you." And at once the fig tree withered.
- 20 Seeing this, the disciples were amazed and asked, "How did the fig tree wither all at once?"
- 21 And Jesus answered and said to them, "Truly I say to you, if you have faith and do not doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, 'Be taken up and cast into the sea,' it will happen.
- 22 "And all things you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive."

Authority Challenged

- 23 When He entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to Him while He was teaching, and said, "By what authority are You doing these things, and who gave You this authority?"
- 24 Jesus said to them, "I will also ask you one thing, which if you tell Me, I will also tell you by what authority I do these things.
- 25 "The baptism of John was from what source, from heaven or from men?" And they began reasoning among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say to us, 'Then why did you not believe him?'
- 26 "But if we say, 'From men,' we fear the people; for they all regard John as a prophet."
- 27 And answering Jesus, they said, "We do not know." He also said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.

Parable of Two Sons

- 28 "But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first and said, 'Son, go work today in the vineyard.'
- 29 "And he answered, 'I will not'; but afterward he regretted it and went.
- 30 "The man came to the second and said the same thing; and he answered, 'I will, sir'; but he did not go.
- 31 "Which of the two did the will of his father?" They *said, "The first." Jesus *said to them, "Truly I say to you that the tax collectors and prostitutes will get into the kingdom of God before you.
- 32 "For John came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him; but the tax collectors and prostitutes did believe him;

The Lord is passionate about the sanctity of the temple, that His name be honored, and that His people are treated well. His silence may unnerve us at times. We may wonder if He knows how people are dishonoring His name or if He will do anything about it. But be assured, He overlooks nothing—and the day of His justice is coming.

and you, seeing this, did not even feel remorse afterward so as to believe him.

Parable of the Landowner

33 "Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who PLANTED A VINEYARD AND PUT A WALL AROUND IT AND DUG A WINE PRESS IN IT, AND BUILT A TOWER, and rented it out to vinegrowers and went on a journey.

34 "When the harvest time approached, he sent his slaves to the vine-growers to receive his produce.

- 35 "The vine-growers took his slaves and beat one, and killed another, and stoned a third.
- 36 "Again he sent another group of slaves larger than the first; and they did the same thing to them.
- 37 "But afterward he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.'
- 38 "But when the vine-growers saw the son, they said among themselves, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him and seize his inheritance.'
- 39 "They took him, and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.
- 40 "Therefore when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those vinegrowers?"
- 41 They *said to Him, "He will bring those wretches to a wretched end, and will rent out the vineyard to other vine-growers who will pay him the proceeds at the proper seasons."

42 Jesus *said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures,

'The stone which the builders rejected, This became the chief corner stone; This came about from the Lord, And it is marvelous in our eyes'?

43 "Therefore I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people, producing the fruit of it.

44 "And he who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; but on whomever it falls, it will scatter him like dust."

45 When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard His parables, they understood that He was speaking about them.

46 When they sought to seize Him, they feared the people, because they considered Him to be a prophet.

Parable of the Marriage Feast

22JESUS spoke to them again in parables, 22saying,

The kingdom of heaven may be com-

- pared to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son.
- 3 "And he sent out his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding feast, and they were unwilling to come.
- 4 "Again he sent out other slaves saying, 'Tell those who have been invited, "Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and my fattened livestock are all butchered and everything is ready; come to the wedding feast."
- 5 "But they paid no attention and went their way, one to his own farm, another to his business,
- 6 and the rest seized his slaves and mistreated them and killed them.
- 7 "But the king was enraged, and he sent his armies and destroyed those murderers and set their city on fire.
- 8 "Then he *said to his slaves, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy.
- 9 'Go therefore to the main highways, and as many as you find there, invite to the wedding feast.'
- 10 "Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered together all they found, both evil and good; and the wedding hall was filled with dinner guests.
- 11 "But when the king came in to look over the dinner guests, he saw a man there who was not dressed in wedding clothes,
- 12 and he *said to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here without wedding clothes?' And the man was speechless.
- 13 "Then the king said to the servants, 'Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

Tribute to Caesar

- 15 Then the Pharisees went and plotted together how they might trap Him in what He said
- 16 And they *sent their disciples to Him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that You are truthful and teach the way of God in truth, and defer to no one; for You are not partial to any.
- 17 "Tell us then, what do You think? Is it lawful to give a poll-tax to Caesar, or not?"
- 18 But Jesus perceived their malice, and said, "Why are you testing Me, you hypocrites?

LIFE LESSONS-

> 22:14 — "Many are called, but few are chosen."

God instructs us to share the gospel with anyone who will listen. Since we do not know who will respond and who will not—the most unlikely candidates often come to faith—we are to make our appeals to everyone we can.

- 19 "Show Me the coin used for the poll-tax." And they brought Him a denarius.
- 20 And He *said to them, "Whose likeness and inscription is this?"
- 21 They *said to Him, "Caesar's." Then He *said to them, "Then render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's; and to God the things that are God's."
- 22 And hearing this, they were amazed, and leaving Him, they went away.

Jesus Answers the Sadducees

- 23 On that day some Sadducees (who say there is no resurrection) came to Jesus and questioned Him,
- 24 asking, "Teacher, Moses said, 'If a man dies having no children, his brother as next of kin shall marry his wife, and raise up children for his brother.'
- 25 "Now there were seven brothers with us; and the first married and died, and having no children left his wife to his brother;
- 26 so also the second, and the third, down to the seventh.
- 27 "Last of all, the woman died.
- 28 "In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife of the seven will she be? For they all had married her."
- > 29 But Jesus answered and said to them, "You are mistaken, not understanding the Scriptures nor the power of God.
 - 30 "For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.
 - 31 "But regarding the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was spoken to you by God:
 - 32 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? He is not the God of the dead but of the living."
 - 33 When the crowds heard this, they were astonished at His teaching.
 - 34 But when the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered themselves together.
 - 35 One of them, ^aa lawyer, asked Him a question, testing Him,
 - 36 "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?"
 - 37 And He said to him, "'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.'

- 38 "This is the great and foremost commandment.
- 39 "The second is like it, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'
- 40 "On these two commandments depend ≺ the whole Law and the Prophets."
- 41 Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question:
- 42 "What do you think about the Christ, whose son is He?" They *said to Him, "The son of David."
- 43 He *said to them, "Then how does David in the Spirit call Him 'Lord,' saying,
- 44 'The Lord said to my Lord,

"Sit at $M_{\rm Y}$ right hand,

Until I put Your enemies beneath Your feet"'?

- 45 "If David then calls Him 'Lord,' how is He his son?"
- 46 No one was able to answer Him a word, nor did anyone dare from that day on to ask Him another question.

Pharisaism Exposed

- 23 THEN Jesus spoke to the crowds and to His disciples,
- 2 saying: "The scribes and the Pharisees have seated themselves in the chair of Moses;
- 3 therefore all that they tell you, do and observe, but do not do according to their deeds; for they say things and do not do them.
- 4 "They tie up heavy burdens and lay them on men's shoulders, but they themselves are unwilling to move them with so much as a finger.
- 5 "But they do all their deeds to be noticed by men; for they broaden their bphylacteries and lengthen the tassels of their garments.
- 6 "They love the place of honor at banquets and the chief seats in the synagogues,
- 7 and respectful greetings in the market places, and being called Rabbi by men.
- 8 "But do not be called Rabbi; for One is your Teacher, and you are all brothers.
- 9 "Do not call anyone on earth your father; for One is your Father, He who is in heaven.

Whe do not base our faith on human logic or reasoning, but on the Word of God and the almighty power that brought it into being. If it seems foolish to some, so be it. The Word of God will stand when all else falls.

> 22:40 — "On these two commandments depend the whole Law and the Prophets."

Ove for God and love for all those made in His image form the backbone of everything God says to us in His Word. So Paul can say, "Love is the fulfillment of the law" (Rom. 13:10).

Eight Woes

- ➤ 13 "But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you shut off the kingdom of heaven from people; for you do not enter in yourselves, nor do you allow those who are entering to go in.
 - 14 ["aWoe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you devour widows' houses, and for a pretense you make long prayers; therefore you will receive greater condemnation.]
 - 15 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you travel around on sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a son of hell as yourselves.
 - 16 "Woe to you, blind guides, who say, 'Whoever swears by the temple, that is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the temple is obligated.'
 - 17 "You fools and blind men! Which is more important, the gold or the temple that sanctified the gold?
 - 18 "And, 'Whoever swears by the altar, that is nothing, but whoever swears by the offering on it, he is obligated.'
 - 19 "You blind men, which is more important, the offering, or the altar that sanctifies the offering?
 - 20 "Therefore, whoever swears by the altar, swears both by the altar and by everything on it.
 - 21 "And whoever swears by the temple, swears both by the temple and by Him who dwells within it.
 - 22 "And whoever swears by heaven, swears both by the throne of God and by Him who sits upon it.
 - 23 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint and dill and cummin, and have neglected the weightier provisions of the law: justice and mercy and - faithfulness; but these are the things you should have done without neglecting the others.

- 24 "You blind guides, who strain out a gnat and swallow a came!!
- 25 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside they are full of robbery and self-indulgence.
- 26 "You blind Pharisee, first clean the inside of the cup and of the dish, so that the outside of it may become clean also.
- 27 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs which on the outside appear beautiful, but inside they are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness.
- 28 "So you, too, outwardly appear righteous ≺ to men, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.
- 29 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets and adorn the monuments of the righteous,
- 30 and say, 'If we had been living in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partners with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.'
- 31 "So you testify against yourselves, that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets.
- 32 "Fill up, then, the measure of the guilt of your fathers.
- 33 "You serpents, you brood of vipers, how will you escape the sentence of hell?
- 34 "Therefore, behold, I am sending you prophets and wise men and scribes; some of them you will kill and crucify, and some of them you will scourge in your synagogues, and persecute from city to city,
- 35 so that upon you may fall the guilt of all the righteous blood shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar.
- 36 "Truly I say to you, all these things will come upon this generation.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 23:13 — "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites."

cight times in Matthew 23, Jesus pronounces woes upon those He calls hypocrites, fools, and serpents. The deeper meaning of Christ's words is this: those who refuse to listen to the Word of God will suffer stiff consequences—eternal death and separation from Him. Sin divides the mind and prevents us from knowing the Lord and having unbroken fellowship with Him. Do not allow your heart to be blinded by the things of this world. Ask Him to give you the ability to know His will and to obey Him.

> 23:28 — "You, too, outwardly appear righteous to men, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness."

God despises disobedience of any kind, but He seems to have a special hatred for religious pretense. Why? Perhaps because those who only pretend to love the Lord do a great deal of harm by keeping others away from Him.

Lament over Jerusalem

- > 37 "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, the way a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were unwilling.
 - 38 "Behold, your house is being left to you desolate!
 - 39 "For I say to you, from now on you will not see Me until you say, 'Blessed is He who COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD!"

Signs of Christ's Return

- 24JESUS came out from the temple and was going away when His disciples came up to point out the temple buildings to Him.
- And He said to them, "Do you not see all these things? Truly I say to you, not one stone here will be left upon another, which will not be torn down."
- As He was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things happen, and what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the age?"
- And Jesus answered and said to them, "See to it that no one misleads you.
- "For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and will mislead many.
- "You will be hearing of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not frightened, for those things must take place, but that is not vet the end.
- "For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and in various places there will be famines and earthquakes.

"But all these things are merely the beginning of birth pangs.

- "Then they will deliver you to tribulation, and will kill you, and you will be hated by all nations because of My name.
- 10 "At that time many will fall away and will betray one another and hate one another.
- "Many false prophets will arise and will mislead many.
- 12 "Because lawlessness is increased, most people's love will grow cold.

- 19 "But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days!
- 20 "But pray that your flight will not be in the winter, or on a Sabbath.
- 21 "For then there will be a great tribulation, such as has not occurred since the beginning of the world until now, nor ever will.
- 22 "Unless those days had been cut short, no life would have been saved; but for the sake of the elect those days will be cut short.
- 23 "Then if anyone says to you, 'Behold, here is the Christ,' or 'There He is,' do not believe him.
- 24 "For false Christs and false prophets will arise and will show great signs and wonders, so as to mislead, if possible, even the elect.
- "Behold, I have told you in advance.
- "So if they say to you, 'Behold, He is in the wilderness,' do not go out, or, 'Behold, He is in the inner rooms,' do not believe them.
- "For just as the lightning comes from the east and flashes even to the west, so will the coming of the Son of Man be.

Parable of Ten Virgins

- 5 "Now while the bridegroom was delaying, they all got drowsy and began to sleep.
- 6 "But at midnight there was a shout, 'Behold, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.'
- 7 "Then all those virgins rose and trimmed their lamps.
- 8 "The foolish said to the prudent, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.'
- 9 "But the prudent answered, 'No, there will not be enough for us and you too; go instead to the dealers and buy some for yourselves.'

espite many attempts over the centuries to pinpoint the time of Jesus' Second Coming, God's Word stands: He will come "at an hour when you do not think He will." Yet this is how He always works in our lives—He acts in His timing, not ours. That is why it is so important for us to be prepared and walking in the center of His will at all times. Whether we witness His glorious return or we die and go to heaven, we could see Him today—so honor Him always with that in mind.

Parable of the Talents

14 "For it is just like a man about to go on a journey, who called his own slaves and entrusted his possessions to them.

15 "To one he gave five talents, to another, two, and to another, one, each according to his own ability; and he went on his journey.

16 "Immediately the one who had received the five talents went and traded with them, and gained five more talents.

17 "In the same manner the one who had received the two talents gained two more.

18 "But he who received the one talent went away, and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money.

19 "Now after a long time the master of those slaves *came and *settled accounts with them.

20 "The one who had received the five talents came up and brought five more talents, saying, 'Master, you entrusted five talents to me. See, I have gained five more talents.'

21 "His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful slave. You were faithful with a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.'

22 "Also the one who had received the two talents came up and said, 'Master, you entrusted two talents to me. See, I have gained two more talents.'

23 "His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful slave. You were faithful with a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.'

24 "And the one also who had received the one talent came up and said, 'Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow and gathering where you scattered no seed.

25 'And I was afraid, and went away and hid your talent in the ground. See, you have what is yours.'

26 "But his master answered and said to him, 'You wicked, lazy slave, you knew that I reap where I did not sow and gather where I scattered no seed.

27 'Then you ought to have put my money in the bank, and on my arrival I would have received my money back with interest.

28 'Therefore take away the talent from him, and give it to the one who has the ten talents.'

29 "For to everyone who has, more shall be given, and he will have an abundance; but from the one who does not have, even what he does have shall be taken away.

30 "Throw out the worthless slave into the outer darkness; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

The Judgment

31 "But when the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the angels with Him, then He will sit on His glorious throne.

32 "All the nations will be gathered before Him; and He will separate them from one another, as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats;

33 and He will put the sheep on His right, and the goats on the left.

34 "Then the King will say to those on His ≺ right, 'Come, you who are blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

35 'For I was hungry, and you gave Me something to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me something to drink; I was a stranger, and you invited Me in:

36 naked, and you clothed Me; I was sick, and you visited Me; I was in prison, and you came to Me.'

37 "Then the righteous will answer Him, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry, and feed You, or thirsty, and give You something to drink?

38 'And when did we see You a stranger, and invite You in, or naked, and clothe You?

39 'When did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You?'

40 "The King will answer and say to them, 'Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did it to one of these brothers of Mine, even the least of them, you did it to Me.'

41 "Then He will also say to those on His left, 'Depart from Me, accursed ones, into the eternal fire which has been prepared for the devil and his angels;

42 for I was hungry, and you gave Me nothing to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me nothing to drink;

43 I was a stranger, and you did not invite Me in; naked, and you did not clothe Me; sick, and in prison, and you did not visit Me.'

The Plot to Kill Jesus

m WHEN}$ Jesus had finished all these words, He said to His disciples,

2 "You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man is to be handed over for crucifixion."

3 Then the chief priests and the elders of the people were gathered together in the court of the high priest, named Caiaphas;

4 and they plotted together to seize Jesus by stealth and kill Him.

5 But they were saying, "Not during the festival, otherwise a riot might occur among the people."

The Precious Ointment

6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, at the home of Simon the leper,

7 a woman came to Him with an alabaster vial of very costly perfume, and she poured it on His head as He reclined at the table.

8 But the disciples were indignant when they saw this, and said, "Why this waste?

- 9 "For this perfume might have been sold for a high price and the money given to the poor." 10 But Jesus, aware of this, said to them, "Why do you bother the woman? For she has done a good deed to Me.
- 11 "For you always have the poor with you; but you do not always have Me.

12 "For when she poured this perfume on My body, she did it to prepare Me for burial.

➤ 13 "Truly I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be spoken of in memory of her."

Judas's Bargain

14 Then one of the twelve, named Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests

15 and said, "What are you willing to give me to betray Him to you?" And they weighed out thirty pieces of silver to him.

16 From then on he began looking for a good opportunity to betray Jesus.

17 Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?"

18 And He said, "Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him, 'The Teacher says, "My time is near; I am to keep the Passover at your house with My disciples.""

19 The disciples did as Jesus had directed them; and they prepared the Passover.

The Last Passover

20 Now when evening came, Jesus was reclining at the table with the twelve disciples. 21 As they were eating, He said, "Truly I say to you that one of you will betray Me."

22 Being deeply grieved, they each one began to say to Him, "Surely not I, Lord?"

23 And He answered, "He who dipped his hand with Me in the bowl is the one who will betray Me.

24 "The Son of Man is to go, just as it is written of Him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had not been born."

25 And Judas, who was betraying Him, said, "Surely it is not I, Rabbi?" Jesus *said to him, "You have said it yourself."

The Lord's Supper Instituted

26 While they were eating, Jesus took some bread, and after a blessing, He broke it and gave it to the disciples, and said, "Take, eat; this is My body."

27 And when He had taken a cup and given thanks, He gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you;

28 for this is My blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for forgiveness of sins.

29 "But I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in My Father's kingdom."

30 After singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

> 25:46 — "These will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

That we do with the Good News of Jesus has enormous consequences because the punishment of those who reject Jesus is just as eternal as the reward of those who serve Him.

> 26:13 — "Truly I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be spoken of in memory of her."

The woman could not have known that what she did that day would be memorialized in God's Word and recounted to the ends of the earth. The Lord loves to reward faithful devotion to Him, and it is the only thing we do that will truly last forever.

> 26:29 — "I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in My Father's kingdom."

The Lord's Supper not only looks back to the sacrifice of Christ's death, it also looks ahead to His glorious reign. It both memorializes and anticipates the work of Christ and invites us to remember and celebrate His forgiveness and work of salvation for all who believe in Him.

31 Then Jesus *said to them, "You will all fall away because of Me this night, for it is written, 'I will strike down the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered.'

32 "But after I have been raised, I will go ahead of you to Galilee."

33 But Peter said to Him, "Even though all may fall away because of You, I will never fall away."

34 Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you that this very night, before a rooster crows, you will deny Me three times."

35 Peter *said to Him, "Even if I have to die with You, I will not deny You." All the disciples said the same thing too.

The Garden of Gethsemane

36 Then Jesus *came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and *said to His disciples, "Sit here while I go over there and pray."

→ 37 And He took with Him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be grieved and distressed

38 Then He *said to them, "My soul is deeply grieved, to the point of death; remain here and keep watch with Me."

39 And He went a little beyond them, and fell on His face and prayed, saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me; yet not as I will, but as You will."

40 And He *came to the disciples and *found them sleeping, and *said to Peter, "So, you men could not keep watch with Me for one hour?

41 "Keep watching and praying that you may not enter into temptation; the spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak."

42 He went away again a second time and prayed, saying, "My Father, if this cannot pass away unless I drink it, Your will be done."

43 Again He came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy.

44 And He left them again, and went away and prayed a third time, saying the same thing once more.

45 Then He *came to the disciples and *said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Behold, the hour is at hand and the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Example or Sacrifice?

MATT. 26:39

Some believe that Jesus came to show us how to live a good life—and to be sure, He is our example of righteousness. We are to become like Him. But that isn't the reason Jesus came. He came to earth so that He could die a sacrificial, substitutionary, all-sufficient atonement death for your sins.

If Jesus had not come, there would be no Crucifixion or Resurrection. The New Testament consistently confronts us with this message: Christ died for us. Jesus came so that you and I might have eternal life through the forgiveness He provides. But we must come to Him and confess our transgressions. When we do, He saves us and removes the burden of our guilt and shame.

Accepting Him as your Savior is an act of faith and not of works. There is nothing you can do to earn salvation. It is a free gift He gives to those who come to Him seeking His mercy.

If you are looking for forgiveness on the basis of your pleas, promises, and performance, then you will remain in your sins. Only if you accept His sacrifice will you open yourself to receiving the fullness of God's life-giving Spirit. Take time right now to tell Him that you need Him and that you want to be set free from every sin that would prevent you from experiencing His best. When you do, your life will change. The burden of your heart will lift, and you will be free to experience the fullness of God's unconditional love.

- 50 And Jesus said to him, "Friend, do what you have come for." Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and seized Him.
- 51 And behold, one of those who were with Jesus reached and drew out his sword, and struck the slave of the high priest and cut off his ear.
- 52 Then Jesus *said to him, "Put your sword back into its place; for all those who take up the sword shall perish by the sword.

- 54 "How then will the Scriptures be fulfilled, which say that it must happen this way?"
- 55 At that time Jesus said to the crowds, "Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me as you would against a robber? Every day I used to sit in the temple teaching and you did not seize Me.
- 56 "But all this has taken place to fulfill the Scriptures of the prophets." Then all the disciples left Him and fled.

Jesus before Cajaphas

- 57 Those who had seized Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas, the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together.
- 58 But Peter was following Him at a distance as far as the courtyard of the high priest, and entered in, and sat down with the officers to see the outcome.
- 59 Now the chief priests and the whole Council kept trying to obtain false testimony against Jesus, so that they might put Him to death.
- 60 They did not find any, even though many false witnesses came forward. But later on two came forward.
- 61 and said, "This man stated, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and to rebuild it in three days."
- 62 The high priest stood up and said to Him, "Do You not answer? What is it that these men are testifying against You?"
- 63 But Jesus kept silent. And the high priest said to Him, "I adjure You by the living God, that You tell us whether You are the Christ, the Son of God."
- *64 Jesus *said to him, "You have said it yourself; nevertheless I tell you, hereafter you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming on the clouds of HEAVEN."
 - 65 Then the high priest tore his robes and

- said, "He has blasphemed! What further need do we have of witnesses? Behold, you have now heard the blasphemy;
- 66 what do you think?" They answered, "He deserves death!"
- 67 Then they spat in His face and beat Him with their fists; and others slapped Him,
- 68 and said, "Prophesy to us, You Christ; who is the one who hit You?"

Peter's Denials

- 69 Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard, and a servant-girl came to him and said, "You too were with Jesus the Galilean."
- 70 But he denied it before them all, saying, "I do not know what you are talking about."
- 71 When he had gone out to the gateway, another servant-girl saw him and *said to those who were there, "This man was with Jesus of Nazareth."
- 72 And again he denied it with an oath, "I do not know the man."
- 73 A little later the bystanders came up and said to Peter, "Surely you too are one of them; for even the way you talk gives you away."
- 74 Then he began to curse and swear, "I do not know the man!" And immediately a rooster crowed.
- 75 And Peter remembered the word which Jesus had said, "Before a rooster crows, you will deny Me three times." And he went out and wept bitterly.

Judas's Remorse

- $27^{\rm NOW}$ when morning came, all the chief priests and the elders of the people conferred together against Jesus to put Him to death:
- 2 and they bound Him, and led Him away and delivered Him to Pilate the governor.
- 3 Then when Judas, who had betrayed Him, saw that He had been condemned, he felt remorse and returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,
- 4 saying, "I have sinned by betraying innocent blood." But they said, "What is that to us? See to that yourself!"
- 5 And he threw the pieces of silver into the temple sanctuary and departed; and he went away and hanged himself.
- 6 The chief priests took the pieces of silver and said, "It is not lawful to put them into the temple treasury, since it is the price of blood."
- 7 And they conferred together and with the money bought the Potter's Field as a burial place for strangers.
- 8 For this reason that field has been called the Field of Blood to this day.
- 9 Then that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled: "And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of

THE ONE WHOSE PRICE HAD BEEN SET by the sons of Israel:

Jesus before Pilate

- 11 Now Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor questioned Him, saying, "Are You the King of the Jews?" And Jesus said to him, "It is as you say."
- 12 And while He was being accused by the chief priests and elders, He did not answer.
- 13 Then Pilate *said to Him, "Do You not hear how many things they testify against You?"
- ➤ 14 And He did not answer him with regard to even a single charge, so the governor was quite amazed.
 - 15 Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to release for the people any one prisoner whom they wanted.
 - 16 At that time they were holding a notorious prisoner, called Barabbas.
 - 17 So when the people gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release for you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?"
 - 18 For he knew that because of envy they had handed Him over.
- ➤ 19 While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent him a message, saying, "Have nothing to do with that righteous Man; for last night I suffered greatly in a dream because of Him."
 - 20 But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds to ask for Barabbas and to put Jesus to death.
 - 21 But the governor said to them, "Which of the two do you want me to release for you?" And they said, "Barabbas."
 - 22 Pilate *said to them, "Then what shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ?" They all *said, "Crucify Him!"
 - 23 And he said, "Why, what evil has He done?" But they kept shouting all the more, saying, "Crucify Him!"
 - 24 When Pilate saw that he was accomplishing nothing, but rather that a riot was starting, he took water and washed his hands in front of the crowd, saying, "I am innocent of this Man's blood; see to that yourselves."

- 25 And all the people said, "His blood shall be on us and on our children!"
- 26 Then he released Barabbas for them; but after having Jesus scourged, he handed Him over to be crucified.

Jesus Is Mocked

- 27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the Praetorium and gathered the whole Roman cohort around Him.
- 28 They stripped Him and put a scarlet robe on Him.
- 29 And after twisting together a crown of thorns, they put it on His head, and a reed in His right hand; and they knelt down before Him and mocked Him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!"
- 30 They spat on Him, and took the reed and began to beat Him on the head.
- 31 After they had mocked Him, they took the scarlet robe off Him and put His own garments back on Him, and led Him away to crucify Him.
- 32 As they were coming out, they found a man of Cyrene named Simon, whom they pressed into service to bear His cross.

The Crucifixion

- 33 And when they came to a place called Golgotha, which means Place of a Skull,
- 34 they gave Him wine to drink mixed with gall; and after tasting it, He was unwilling to drink.
- 35 And when they had crucified Him, they divided up His garments among themselves by casting lots.
- 36 And sitting down, they began to keep watch over Him there.
- 37 And above His head they put up the charge against Him which read, "THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS."
- 38 At that time two robbers *were crucified with Him, one on the right and one on the left
- 39 And those passing by were hurling abuse at Him, wagging their heads
- 40 and saying, "You who are going to destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save Yourself! If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross."

54 Now the centurion, and those who were with him keeping guard over Jesus, when they saw the earthquake and the things that were happening, became very frightened and said, "Truly this was the Son of God!"

55 Many women were there looking on from a distance, who had followed Jesus from Galilee while ministering to Him.

56 Among them was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

Jesus Is Buried

57 When it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who himself had also become a disciple of Jesus. 58 This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate ordered it to be 59 And Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth.

60 and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock; and he rolled a large stone against the entrance of the tomb and went away.

61 And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the grave.

62 Now on the next day, the day after the preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered together with Pilate, 63 and said, "Sir, we remember that when ≺ He was still alive that deceiver said, 'After three days I am to rise again.'

64 "Therefore, give orders for the grave to be made secure until the third day, otherwise His disciples may come and steal Him away and say to the people, 'He has risen from the dead,' and the last deception will be worse than the first."

65 Pilate said to them, "You have a guard; go, make it as secure as you know how."

66 And they went and made the grave secure, and along with the guard they set a seal on the stone.

28 NOW after the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to look at the grave.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

Do I have a role to play in communicating God's truth to others?

MATT. 28:19, 20

God never wants us to keep what He teaches us to ourselves. Whether it is money, insight, or truth, He wants us to share it with others. There is a tremendous blessing to be gained by opening our hearts and lives to those who need to know about the unconditional love and forgiveness of Jesus Christ.

The truth is Jesus commands us to "make disciples of all the nations . . . teaching them to observe all that I commanded you" (Matt. 28:19, 20). Just before He ascended to heaven, He told His disciples, "You shall be My witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and even to the remotest part of the earth" (Acts 1:8). He never intended for the disciples to keep the truth of His Word stored away in personal reservoirs of knowledge. Instead, He instructed them to give away all they received from Him. He commands us to do the same.

Paul also admonished Timothy, his young protégé, to communicate the truth he had learned to others who would, in turn, pass it along (2 Tim. 2:2). Elsewhere he noted, "We are ambassadors for Christ" (2 Cor. 5:20). The sole purpose of an ambassador is to relay the policies and decisions of their superiors to the people of the countries where they serve. Likewise, we have an obligation to declare the divine plan and scriptural policies of our Master.

Each one of us communicates something by what we say and don't say, by what we do and fail to do. A father who never reads the Bible is essentially telling his family that he does not care enough about the Lord to study His Word. His lack of desire in this area sends the message that he believes he is smart enough to make his own decisions apart from God's input. The child who never sees her parents praying mistakenly learns that trials and tribulations can be handled without any direction from the Lord. This assumption is totally wrong. On the other hand, a father who tells his family, "We are going to trust the Lord to provide us with what we need," declares that God can be trusted in every facet of life. When children hear their parents praying, they quickly learn to trust God for every detail. They grow up viewing Him as very loving—the God who has the very best in mind for their lives.

Even when we remain silent, we subtly state something. Although the apostle Peter recognized the Gentiles as rightful recipients of God's grace, he developed the bad habit of withdrawing from them during meals. His fellow Jews soon picked up on his prideful practice, with the result "that even Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy" (Gal. 2:13). Without a word, Peter had effectively sent a message that the Gentiles were inferior.

We must honestly evaluate our responses to the Lord's commands. Are we deliberately and daily applying what He has taught us over the years? When we comprehend the truth, are we conforming ourselves to the image of Christ? Are we then communicating this truth to others?

Le can confidently bring the truth of salvation to the world because we have Jesus' divine authority to empower us and give us wisdom. Our job is to be obedient to His command and to be His faithful messengers—telling others about His saving grace through faith in Him. THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK e see the essence of Mark's Gospel in a single verse: "The Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many" (Mark 10:45). Chapter after chapter, the book unfolds the dual focus of Christ's life: service and sacrifice.

Mark portrays Jesus as a Servant on the move, instantly responsive to the will of His Father. Preaching, teaching, and healing, the Savior is seen ministering to the needs of others—even to the point of death. After the Resurrection, we see Him commissioning His followers to continue His work in His power—disciples following in the steps of the perfect Servant.

The ancient title for this Gospel was Kata Markon, "According to Mark." Acts 12:12 refers to the author as "John who was also called Mark" (also Acts 12:25).

Little is known about Mark. At one time he associated with the apostle Paul and his partner-in-missions, Barnabas, and accompanied them on a missionary journey to Antioch. While Mark was not one of Jesus' twelve apostles, tradition says he was very close to Peter and that he probably based his Gospel account largely on Peter's eyewitness testimony. Because he never quotes the Jewish law, Mark appears to have written for first-century Greek and Roman Christians. Mark quotes the Old Testament only twice, the first time to announce the coming of John the Baptist as predicted in Isaiah 40:3. He often translates Aramaic words and phrases into Greek.

Mark is the shortest of the four Gospels, and most scholars agree that it was the first Gospel written. Other Gospel writers likely used it as a basis for their accounts. Matthew and Luke are expanded editions, weaving in more eyewitness accounts and information about the Messiah. Mark makes no reference to the genealogy of Jesus or to the virgin birth. He also leaves out the famous "Sermon on the Mount," which Matthew covers in three chapters. His book moves at a quick pace and uses the word "immediately" often.

Theme: Jesus Christ, the dedicated Servant, is the Savior of the world.

Author: John Mark.

Time: Mark is generally considered the earliest of the Gospels, likely composed in the A.D. 50s or early 60s.

Structure: The first part of Mark describes the years leading up to Jesus' public ministry, focusing on John the Baptist (1:1–13). The book then focuses on Jesus' ministry in Galilee (1:14—6:29), followed by ministry outside of Galilee (6:30—9:32), and a final effort back inside Galilee (9:33–50). Mark next describes Jesus' work in Judea and Perea (10:1–52); the events leading up to His arrest, crucifixion, and burial (11:1—15:47); and His resurrection (16:1–20).

As you read Mark, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

- 28. No Christian has ever been called to "go it alone" in his or her walk of faith. See Mark 2:5; 4:17; pages 1152; 1154.
- 4. The awareness of God's presence energizes us for our work. See Mark 3:14; page 1153.
- 9. Trusting God means looking beyond what we can see to what God sees. See Mark 5:19; 14:10; 16:8, 11; pages 1157; 1170; 1174.
- 30. An eager anticipation of the Lord's return keeps us living productively. See Mark 13:23, 34; page 1169.

Preaching of John the Baptist

THE beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

- As it is written in Isaiah the prophet: "Behold, I send My messenger ahead of
- WHO WILL PREPARE YOUR WAY:
- The voice of one crying in the WILDERNESS,

'Make ready the way of the Lord, Make His paths straight."

- John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness apreaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.
- And all the country of Judea was going out to him, and all the people of Jerusalem; and they were being baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins.

John was clothed with camel's hair and wore a leather belt around his waist, and his diet was locusts and wild honey.

- And he was preaching, and saying, "After me One is coming who is mightier than I, and I am not fit to stoop down and untie the thong of His sandals.
- 8 "I baptized you bwith water; but He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

The Baptism of Jesus

- In those days Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan.
- 10 Immediately coming up out of the water. He saw the heavens opening, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon Him;
- 11 and a voice came out of the heavens: "You are My beloved Son, in You I am well-
- 12 Immediately the Spirit *impelled Him to go out into the wilderness.
- 13 And He was in the wilderness forty days being tempted by Satan; and He was with the wild beasts, and the angels were ministering to Him.

Jesus Preaches in Galilee

- 14 Now after John had been taken into custody. Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of God,
- 15 and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel."
- 16 As He was going along by the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew, the brother of Simon, casting a net in the sea; for they were fishermen.

- 17 And Jesus said to them, "Follow Me, and * I will make you become fishers of men.'
- 18 Immediately they left their nets and followed Him.
- 19 Going on a little farther, He saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who were also in the boat mending the nets.
- 20 Immediately He called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went away to follow Him.
- 21 They *went into Capernaum; and immediately on the Sabbath He entered the synagogue and began to teach.
- 22 They were amazed at His teaching; for He was teaching them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.
- 23 Just then there was a man in their synagogue with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, 24 saying, "What business do we have with each other, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are-the Holy One of God!"
- 25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet, and come out of him!"
- 26 Throwing him into convulsions, the unclean spirit cried out with a loud voice and came out of him.
- 27 They were all amazed, so that they de- \triangleleft bated among themselves, saying, "What is this? A new teaching with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him."
- 28 Immediately the news about Him spread everywhere into all the surrounding district of Galilee.

Crowds Healed

- 29 And immediately after they came out of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.
- 30 Now Simon's mother-in-law was lying sick with a fever; and immediately they *spoke to Jesus about her.
- 31 And He came to her and raised her up. taking her by the hand, and the fever left her, and she dwaited on them.

You can see why many people who heard about John the Baptist went to see him out of sheer curiosity. But John was no lunatic, and neither was his message his own. For almost thirty years, God prepared John to announce the coming of Jesus Christ, the Messiah. John was a man of great spiritual discernment who knew the difference between those who came with humble, repentant hearts, and those who came to mock or criticize.

When you ask God for discernment, He gives it to you freely. For those who truly seek His face and His direction for their lives, the Lord brings a wisdom that comes only from Him.

> 2:5 — Jesus seeing their faith said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven."

Gesus healed the man and forgave his sins because of his and his friends' amazing faith. They overcame great obstacles just to see the Lord, and He rewarded them for it. Likewise, we are wise if we recruit godly friends to pray for us and walk with us through the storms of life. Jesus promised, "If two of you agree on earth about anything that they may ask, it shall be done for them by My Father who is in heaven. For where two or three have gathered together in My name, I am there in their midst" (Matt. 18:19, 20).

If we want to keep in step with the Spirit, we need to be willing to change the way we do things.

- 18 "And others are the ones on whom seed was sown among the thorns; these are the ones who have heard the word,
- 19 but the worries of the aworld, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the desires for other things enter in and choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.
- 20 "And those are the ones on whom seed was sown on the good soil; and they hear the word and accept it and bear fruit, thirty, sixty, and a hundredfold."
- 21 And He was saying to them, "A lamp is not brought to be put under a basket, is it, or under a bed? Is it not brought to be put on the lampstand?
- *22 "For nothing is hidden, except to be revealed; nor has anything been secret, but that it would come to light.
 - 23 "If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear." 24 And He was saying to them, "Take care what you listen to. By your standard of measure it will be measured to you; and more will be given you besides.
 - 25 "For whoever has, to him more shall be given; and whoever does not have, even what he has shall be taken away from him."

Parable of the Seed

- 26 And He was saying, "The kingdom of God is like a man who casts seed upon the soil;
- 27 and he goes to bed at night and gets up by day, and the seed sprouts and grows—how, he himself does not know.
- 28 "The soil produces crops by itself; first the blade, then the head, then the mature grain in the head.
- 29 "But when the crop permits, he immediately puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come."

Parable of the Mustard Seed

- 30 And He said, "How shall we ^bpicture the kingdom of God, or by what parable shall we present it?
- 31 "It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the soil, though it is smaller than all the seeds that are upon the soil.
- 32 yet when it is sown, it grows up and becomes larger than all the garden plants and forms large branches; so that the birds of the 'Air can nest under its shade."
- 33 With many such parables He was speaking the word to them, so far as they were able to hear it:
- 34 and He did not speak to them without a parable; but He was explaining everything privately to His own disciples.

Jesus Stills the Sea

- 35 On that day, when evening came, He *said to them, "Let us go over to the other side."
- 36 Leaving the crowd, they *took Him along with them in the boat, just as He was; and other boats were with Him.
- 37 And there *arose a fierce gale of wind, and the waves were breaking over the boat so much that the boat was already filling up.
- 38 Jesus Himself was in the stern, asleep on ⁴ the cushion; and they *woke Him and *said to Him, "Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?"
- 39 And He got up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, "Hush, be still." And the wind died down and it became perfectly calm.
- 40 And He said to them, "Why are you afraid? Do you still have no faith?"
- 41 They became very much afraid and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?"

The Gerasene Demoniac

- 5THEY came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gerasenes.
- When He got out of the boat, immediately a man from the tombs with an unclean spirit met Him,
- 3 and he had his dwelling among the tombs. And no one was able to bind him anymore, even with a chain;
- 4 because he had often been bound with shackles and chains, and the chains had been torn apart by him and the shackles broken in pieces, and no one was strong enough to subdue him.
- 5 Constantly, night and day, he was screaming among the tombs and in the mountains, and gashing himself with stones.
- 6 Seeing Jesus from a distance, he ran up and bowed down before Him;
- 7 and shouting with a loud voice, he *said, "What business do we have with each other, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I implore You by God, do not torment me!"
- 8 For He had been saying to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!"
- 9 And He was asking him, "What is your name?" And he *said to Him, "My name is Legion; for we are many."

> 4:38 — Jesus Himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke Him and said to Him, "Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?"

How often do we say things like this to our Lord? When we get into some trouble, we question His love, not His ability. And yet despite our lack of faith, He reaches out His hand and saves us.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT HOW ADVERSITY REVEALS OUR LEVEL OF FAITH

Mark 4:35-41

hen hardships come our way, do we respond, "God, I trust You to bring me through this"? Or do we tend to say, "I'm doomed, and there's nothing anybody can do"?

At one point, Jesus allowed His disciples to sail straight into the path of a horrific storm. These men were seasoned fishermen, but the intensity of the waves and the wind caused them to believe they would die on the Sea of Galilee. Yet Jesus had a plan, and it did not include their destruction.

Instead, the Lord taught them a tremendous lesson of faith. He had instructed them, "Go over to the other side" (Mark 4:35). They should have taken His statement as assurance that they would have a safe trip. He certainly was not worried. In fact, He was fast asleep in the stern of the boat. When the wind picked up and the waves threatened to sink their tiny ship, they panicked and cried out, "Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?" (v. 38).

How many times have you felt the same way? Life turns stormy and no matter what you do, it seems as though you will perish. You cry out: "Don't You care, Lord, that this is happening to me? God, don't You love me enough to do something about this hardship?"

Faith says that God is in control.

The disciples woke Jesus and immediately He rebuked the wind and a great calm settled on the lake. Then He turned to His disciples and said, "Why are you afraid? Do you still have no faith?" (Mark 4:40).

God has given to each one of us the ability to trust Him, and He expects us to use this to overcome doubt, fear, and anxiety. Many times, these feelings accompany adversity. Our trials tempt us to think the worst and wonder if we will ever recover. Satan loves to tell us that all hope is lost, that we will never achieve our goals. But his words are pure folly.

As we see in Scripture, Jesus has authority over all things. He is in control and will cause "all things to work together for good" for us (Rom. 8:28). Therefore, we must stay the course, continue to trust, and know that because Christ is with us, we will make it to the other side. No matter how serious the difficulty, we will recover, and our final state will be better than anything we have experienced.

Allow adversity to spur your faith to action rather than into question. When you do, you will find that it reveals areas in which you need to act in confidence rather than fear. When hard times come, instead of running for cover, make a commitment to trust God. Because the more you depend upon Him, the greater your faith will grow.

- 13 Jesus gave them permission. And coming out, the unclean spirits entered the swine; and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea, about two thousand of them; and they were drowned in the sea.

Miracles and Healing

- 21 When Jesus had crossed over again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around Him; and so He stayed by the seashore.
- 22 One of the synagogue officials named Jairus *came up, and on seeing Him, *fell at His feet

- 28 For she thought, "If I just touch His garments, I will get well."
- 29 Immediately the flow of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction.
- 30 Immediately Jesus, perceiving in Himself that the power proceeding from Him had gone forth, turned around in the crowd and said, "Who touched My garments?"
- 31 And His disciples said to Him, "You see the crowd pressing in on You, and You say, 'Who touched Me?'"
- 32 And He looked around to see the woman who had done this.
- 33 But the woman fearing and trembling, aware of what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth.

The former demoniac really wanted to follow Jesus; but the Lord refused to let him do so. This is because the Savior's compassion extends far beyond merely being nice and allowing believers to do as they please. In His wisdom, He had a much greater purpose in mind. He commanded this man to return to his family so they could see what God had done for their son and be saved. Like-

Teaching at Nazareth

 $6^{\rm JESUS}$ went out from there and *came into His hometown; and His disciples *followed Him.

- 2 When the Sabbath came, He began to teach in the synagogue; and the many listeners were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things, and what is this wisdom given to Him, and such miracles as these performed by His hands?
- 3 "Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? Are not His sisters here with us?" And they took offense at Him.
- 4 Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and among his own relatives and in his own household."
- 5 And He could do no miracle there except that He laid His hands on a few sick people and healed them.
- ▶ 6 And He wondered at their unbelief. And He was going around the villages teaching.

The Twelve Sent Out

- 7 And He *summoned the twelve and began to send them out in pairs, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits;
- 8 and He instructed them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a mere staff—no bread, no bag, no money in their belt—
- 9 but to wear sandals; and He added, "Do not put on two atunics."
- 10 And He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave town.

- 11 "Any place that does not receive you or listen to you, as you go out from there, shake the dust off the soles of your feet for a testimony against them."
- 12 They went out and preached that men should repent.
- 13 And they were casting out many demons and were anointing with oil many sick people and healing them.

John's Fate Recalled

- 14 And King Herod heard of it, for His name had become well known; and people were saying, "John the Baptist has risen from the dead, and that is why these miraculous powers are at work in Him."
- 15 But others were saying, "He is Elijah." And others were saying, "He is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old."
- 16 But when Herod heard of it, he kept saying, "John, whom I beheaded, has risen!"
- 17 For Herod himself had sent and had John arrested and bound in prison on account of Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip, because he had married her.
- 18 For John had been saying to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife."
 19 Herodias had a grudge against him and
- wanted to put him to death and could not do so; 20 for Herod was afraid of John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he kept him safe. And when he heard him, he was very perplexed; but he used to enjoy listening to him.
- 21 A strategic day came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his lords and military commanders and the leading men of Galilee:
- 22 and when the daughter of Herodias herself came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his dinner guests; and the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you want and I will give it to you."
- 23 And he swore to her, "Whatever you ask of me, I will give it to you; up to half of my kingdom."
- 24 And she went out and said to her mother, "What shall I ask for?" And she said, "The head of John the Baptist."

> 5:43 — He said that something should be given her to eat.

Jf Jesus brought the little girl back to life, why didn't He also put something in her empty stomach? Many times, God wants us to be a part of what He is doing. He brought this young girl back to life, but He wanted those around Him—the ones who initially doubted His ability—to give her something to eat and then watch her enjoy every morsel. Then there would be no doubt that He truly was omnipotent—all-powerful and great in mercy.

> 6:6 — He wondered at their unbelief.

Inbelief always causes Jesus to marvel because He is almighty, all-wise, all-present, and all-loving. Why would someone not trust Him? The very idea is beyond understanding.

- 25 Immediately she came in a hurry to the king and asked, saying, "I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter"
- 26 And although the king was very sorry, yet because of his oaths and because of his dinner guests, he was unwilling to refuse her. 27 Immediately the king sent an executioner and commanded him to bring back his head. And he went and had him beheaded in the prison,
- 28 and brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother. 29 When his disciples heard about this, they came and took away his body and laid it in a tomb
- 30 The apostles *gathered together with Jesus; and they reported to Him all that they had done and taught.
- ➤ 31 And He *said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a secluded place and rest a while." (For there were many people coming and going, and they did not even have time to eat.)
 - 32 They went away in the boat to a secluded place by themselves.

Five Thousand Fed

- 33 The people saw them going, and many recognized them and ran there together on foot from all the cities, and got there ahead of them.
- 34 When Jesus went ashore, He saw a large crowd, and He felt compassion for them because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and He began to teach them many things.
- 35 When it was already quite late, His disciples came to Him and said, "This place is desolate and it is already quite late;
- 36 send them away so that they may go into the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat."
- 37 But He answered them, "You give them something to eat!" And they *said to Him, "Shall we go and spend two hundred adenarii on bread and give them something to eat?"
- 38 And He *said to them, "How many loaves

- 39 And He commanded them all to sit down by groups on the green grass.
- 40 They sat down in groups of hundreds and of fifties.
- 41 And He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up toward heaven, He blessed the food and broke the loaves and He kept giving them to the disciples to set before them; and He divided up the two fish among them all.
- 42 They all ate and were satisfied,
- 43 and they picked up twelve full baskets of the broken pieces, and also of the fish.
- 44 There were five thousand men who ate the loaves.

Jesus Walks on the Water

- 45 Immediately Jesus made His disciples get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side to Bethsaida, while He Himself was sending the crowd away.
- 46 After bidding them farewell, He left for ≺ the mountain to pray.
- 47 When it was evening, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and He was alone on the land.
- 48 Seeing them straining at the oars, for the wind was against them, at about the fourth watch of the night He *came to them, walking on the sea; and He intended to pass by them.
- 49 But when they saw Him walking on the sea, they supposed that it was a ghost, and cried out;
- 50 for they all saw Him and were terrified. But immediately He spoke with them and *said to them, "Take courage; it is I, do not be afraid."
- 51 Then He got into the boat with them, and the wind stopped; and they were utterly astonished,
- 52 for they had not gained any insight from 4 the incident of the loaves, but their heart was hardened.

> 6:31 — He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a secluded place and rest a while."

The disciples worked hard, but the Lord made sure Hismen took care of themselves physically and also spiritually. The disciples needed to learn that if they continued to rush through life, they would miss the most important part—which is having a close relationship with the Savior. There are times when we need to step away from the problems and stresses of this world and rest in God's care. Jesus taught His disciples to always maintain the right priority: God first and everything else after this. We would be wise to do the same.

▶ 6:46 — He left for the mountain to pray.

Fhroughout the Gospels, we find Jesus alone with the Father in prayer. We must imitate His example. If we want to stay in the center of His will, have renewed strength, and develop a deep love for the Lord, we must cultivate our intimate relationship with Him and listen for His voice.

> 6:52 — They had not gained any insight from the incident of the loaves, but their heart was hardened.

Had Jesus' disciples understood the meaning behind His first miracles—that He was the Messiah, the Son of God—His other miracles would not have surprised them.

Healing at Gennesaret

53 When they had crossed over they came to land at Gennesaret, and moored to the shore.

54 When they got out of the boat, immediately the people recognized Him, 55 and ran about that whole country and began to carry here and there on their pallets those who were sick, to the place they heard He was.

56 Wherever He entered villages, or cities, or countryside, they were laying the sick in the market places, and imploring Him that they might just touch the fringe of His cloak; and as many as touched it were being cured.

Followers of Tradition

7THE Pharisees and some of the scribes gathered around Him when they had come from Jerusalem.

- 2 and had seen that some of His disciples were eating their bread with impure hands, that is, unwashed.
- 3 (For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they carefully wash their hands, thus observing the traditions of the elders;
- 4 and when they come from the market place, they do not eat unless they cleanse themselves; and there are many other things which they have received in order to observe, such as the washing of cups and pitchers and copper pots.)
- 5 The Pharisees and the scribes *asked Him, "Why do Your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat their bread with impure hands?"
- ► 6 And He said to them, "Rightly did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written:

'THIS PEOPLE HONORS ME WITH THEIR LIPS, BUT THEIR HEART IS FAR AWAY FROM ME.

But in vain do they worship Me.

TEACHING AS DOCTRINES THE PRECEPTS OF MEN.'

8 "Neglecting the commandment of God, you hold to the tradition of men."

9 He was also saying to them, "You are experts at setting aside the commandment of God in order to keep your tradition.

10 "For Moses said, 'Honor your father and

YOUR MOTHER'; and, 'HE WHO SPEAKS EVIL OF FATHER OR MOTHER, IS TO BE PUT TO DEATH';

11 but you say, 'If a man says to his father or his mother, whatever I have that would help you is Corban (that is to say, agiven to God),'

12 you no longer permit him to do anything for his father or his mother;

13 thus invalidating the word of God by your tradition which you have handed down; and you do many things such as that."

The Heart of Man

14 After He called the crowd to Him again, He began saying to them, "Listen to Me, all of you, and understand:

15 there is nothing outside the man which and defile him if it goes into him; but the things which proceed out of the man are what defile the man.

16 ["bIf anyone has ears to hear, let him hear."]

17 When he had left the crowd and entered the house, His disciples questioned Him about the parable.

18 And He *said to them, "Are you so lacking in understanding also? Do you not understand that whatever goes into the man from outside cannot defile him, 19 because it does not go into his heart, but into his stomach, and is eliminated?" (Thus He declared all foods clean.)

20 And He was saying, "That which proceeds out of the man, that is what defiles the man.

21 "For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed the evil thoughts, fornications, thefts, murders, adulteries, 22 deeds of coveting and wickedness, as well as deceit, sensuality, envy, slander, pride and foolishness.

23 "All these evil things proceed from within and defile the man."

That a person eats and drinks cannot defile him, but what comes out of him—ungodly words and actions—certainly can. Jesus wanted His disciples to see that the core issue always comes down to what is in the heart (1 Sam. 16:7; 1 Chr. 28:9).

Peter's Confession of Christ

27 Jesus went out, along with His disciples, to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way He questioned His disciples, saying to them, "Who do people say that I am?"

- 32 And He was stating the matter plainly. And Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him.
- 33 But turning around and seeing His disciples, He rebuked Peter and *said, "Get behind Me, Satan; for you are not setting your mind on aGod's interests, but man's."

The Transfiguration

> 8:21 — He was saying to them, "Do you not yet understand?"

Sometimes we mistakenly think that grace excuses us from the hard work of growing spiritually. It doesn't. The Bible says that "because of practice" we have our "senses trained to discern good and evil" (Heb. 5:14). That means we grow by allowing the Holy Spirit to direct us, by obeying God, and by making godly decisions.

> 8:36 — "What does it profit a man to gain the whole world, and forfeit his soul?"

The question is meant as rhetorical—nothing can make up for the loss of one's soul. Yet how many of us regularly exchange our lives for much less than "the whole world"?

> 9:4 — Elijah appeared to them along with Moses; and they were talking with Jesus.

Moses and Elijah, men they'd never met and who had died centuries before? In the Transfiguration, we get a brief foretaste of heaven and its wonders. They understood who was with Jesus because He revealed it to them. Likewise, when we as believers go to be with the Lord, He will reveal great things to us (1 Cor. 13:12).

to anyone what they had seen, until the Son of Man rose from the dead.

- ➤ 10 They seized upon that statement, discussing with one another what rising from the dead meant.
 - 11 They asked Him, saying, "Why is it that the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"
 - 12 And He said to them, "Elijah does first come and restore all things. And yet how is it written of the Son of Man that He will suffer many things and be treated with contempt?
 - 13 "But I say to you that Elijah has indeed come, and they did to him whatever they wished, just as it is written of him."

All Things Possible

14 When they came back to the disciples, they saw a large crowd around them, and some scribes arguing with them.

15 Immediately, when the entire crowd saw Him, they were amazed and began running up to greet Him.

16 And He asked them, "What are you discussing with them?"

17 And one of the crowd answered Him, "Teacher, I brought You my son, possessed with a spirit which makes him mute;

18 and whenever it seizes him, it slams him to the ground and he foams at the mouth, and grinds his teeth and stiffens out. I told Your disciples to cast it out, and they could not do it."

19 And He *answered them and *said, "O unbelieving generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him to Me!"

20 They brought the boy to Him. When he saw Him, immediately the spirit threw him into a convulsion, and falling to the ground, he began rolling around and foaming at the mouth

21 And He asked his father, "How long has this been happening to him?" And he said, "From childhood.

22 "It has often thrown him both into the fire and into the water to destroy him. But if You can do anything, take pity on us and help us!"

23 And Jesus said to him, "'If You can?' All  things are possible to him who believes."

24 Immediately the boy's father cried out and said, "I do believe; help my unbelief."

25 When Jesus saw that a crowd was rapidly gathering, He rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "You deaf and mute spirit, I command you, come out of him and do not enter him again."

26 After crying out and throwing him into terrible convulsions, it came out; and the boy became so much like a corpse that most of them said, "He is dead!"

27 But Jesus took him by the hand and raised him; and he got up.

28 When He came into the house, His disciples began questioning Him privately, "Why could we not drive it out?"

29 And He said to them, "This kind cannot come out by anything but prayer."

30 From there they went out and began to go through Galilee, and He did not want anyone to know about it.

32 But they did not understand this statement, and they were afraid to ask Him.

33 They came to Capernaum; and when He was in the house, He began to question them, "What were you discussing on the way?"

34 But they kept silent, for on the way they had discussed with one another which of them was the greatest.

> 9:10 — They seized upon that statement, discussing with one another what rising from the dead meant.

Gesus sometimes spoke figuratively, so perhaps we can sympathize with the disciples' failure to grasp the Lord's meaning (Mark 9:32). However, if we want to understand the Word of God and embrace His principles, we must surrender our hearts to Him and ask Him to reveal His truth to us through His Holy Spirit. We may receive instant insight, or the Lord may choose to teach us His vital lessons over time.

> 9:24 — "I do believe; help my unbelief."

The Lord does not demand that we have mountains of trust before He acts on our behalf; a little mustard seed of genuine faith is all He requires. And then He steps in and supplies what we lack.

> 9:35 — "If anyone wants to be first, he shall be last of all and servant of all."

Pe sometimes fall into the trap of thinking that we can measure our success the same way the world does. We mistakenly believe that if the Lord receives glory from our service, then it should be glorious for us as well. Yet when we remember God's faithful servants from the Bible, we realize their situations were often far from easy or glamorous. Likewise, the Lord may call us to do the simple, humble acts that show compassion toward other people and which display the character of Christ. They are not done for personal gain; rather, they are done out of an overflow of His love in us and for His glory.

Jesus' Teaching about Divorce

10GETTING up, He *went from there to the region of Judea and beyond the Jordan; crowds *gathered around Him again, and, according to His custom, He once more began to teach them.

- 11 And He *said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery against her;
- 12 and if she herself divorces her husband and marries another man, she is committing adultery."

Jesus Blesses Little Children

- 13 And they were bringing children to Him so that He might touch them; but the disciples rebuked them.
- 14 But when Jesus saw this, He was indignant and said to them, "Permit the children to come to Me; do not hinder them; for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.
- 15 "Truly I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it at all."
- 16 And He took them in His arms and began blessing them, laying His hands on them.

God is realistic about our faults. He gives us a high standard to shoot for, but since "He is mindful that we are but dust" (Ps. 103:14), He also keeps our weaknesses in mind when dealing with us. Yet that is not an excuse for us to sin—He always calls us to obey Him and refuse to compromise what we know is right. And when we honor Him with our conduct, He blesses us with an abundant sense of peace, joy, and goodness.

- 23 And Jesus, looking around, *said to His disciples, "How hard it will be for those who are wealthy to enter the kingdom of God!"
- 24 The disciples were amazed at His words. But Jesus *answered again and *said to them, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!

- 39 They said to Him, "We are able." And Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink you shall drink; and you shall be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized.
- 40 "But to sit on My right or on My left, this is not Mine to give; but it is for those for whom it has been prepared."
- 41 Hearing this, the ten began to feel indignant with James and John.

Pe know that the stones used to build Herod's temple were immense and appeared impenetrable, which is why the people were shocked when Jesus said it would be destroyed. However, we also know that Jesus' prophesy came true in A.D. 70, when Roman armies destroyed the temple. Titus's legions set fire to the structure and then literally pried stone from stone to recover the gold leaf that had melted from the roof when the temple was burned. No one can overthrow the truth of God. No matter how great the trial or obstacle, His Word always remains trustworthy.

> 13:13 — "You will be hated by all because of My name."

Millions of people have died throughout history for their faith in Jesus. In fact, the intensity of persecution continues to grow today. There will be times when we suffer because of our relationship to Jesus Christ. But the grace and glory that is ours in Him for eternity outweighs every present and future trial (Rom. 8:18; 2 Cor. 4:17, 18).

> 13:23 — "Take heed; behold, I have told you everything in advance."

Thy did Jesus tell us of frightful things like persecution and suffering in the end times? God provides insight into the future because He does not want us to be uninformed or surprised when these events begin to happen. He encourages us to draw near to Him and trust Him, regardless of the storm that is building around us—even in the worst of times—because He is displaying His glory through history and wants us to express our faith in Him as our Lord and Savior. He also wants us to watch in eager expectation for His Second Coming and warn others of the judgment that awaits those who do not know Him (Rev. 20:11–15).

> 13:34 — "It is like a man away on a journey, who upon leaving his house and putting his slaves in charge, assigning to each one his task."

God gives each of us our own work and expects us to faithfully discharge whatever duties He has assigned us (Eph. 2:10). And always, we are to remain vigilant and watch for His return.

35 "Therefore, be on the alert—for you do not know when the master of the house is coming, whether in the evening, at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or in the morning—

Death Plot and Anointing

14 NOW the Passover and Unleavened Bread were two days away; and the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how to seize Him by stealth and kill Him;

2 for they were saying, "Not during the festival, otherwise there might be a riot of the people."

- 3 While He was in Bethany at the home of Simon the leper, and reclining at the table, there came a woman with an alabaster vial of very costly perfume of pure nard; and she broke the vial and poured it over His head.
- 4 But some were indignantly remarking to one another, "Why has this perfume been wasted?
- 5 "For this perfume might have been sold for over three hundred adenarii, and the money given to the poor." And they were scolding her.
- 6 But Jesus said, "Let her alone; why do you bother her? She has done a good deed to Me.
- 7 "For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you wish you can do good to them; but you do not always have Me.
- 8 "She has done what she could; she has anointed My body beforehand for the burial.
- 9 "Truly I say to you, wherever the gospel is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be spoken of in memory of her."
- ➤ 10 Then Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went off to the chief priests in order to betray Him to them.
 - 11 They were glad when they heard this, and promised to give him money. And he began seeking how to betray Him at an opportune time.

The Last Passover

- 12 On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was being sacrificed, His disciples *said to Him, "Where do You want us to go and prepare for You to eat the Passover?"
- 13 And He *sent two of His disciples and *said to them, "Go into the city, and a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water; follow him;
- 14 and wherever he enters, say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is My guest room in which I may eat the Passover with My disciples?"
- 15 "And he himself will show you a large upper room furnished and ready; prepare for us there."
- 16 The disciples went out and came to the \prec city, and found it just as He had told them; and they prepared the Passover.
- 17 When it was evening He *came with the twelve.
- 18 As they were reclining at the table and eating, Jesus said, "Truly I say to you that one of you will betray Me—one who is eating with Me."
- 19 They began to be grieved and to say to Him one by one, "Surely not I?"
- 20 And He said to them, "It is one of the twelve, one who dips with Me in the bowl.
- 21 "For the Son of Man is to go just as it is written of Him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had not been born."

The Lord's Supper

- 22 While they were eating, He took some bread, and after a blessing He broke it, and gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is My body."
- 23 And when He had taken a cup and given thanks, He gave it to them, and they all drank from it

LIFE LESSONS

> 14:10 — Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went off to the chief priests in order to betray Him to them.

Judas wanted to force Jesus to step forward and establish an earthly kingdom, but he made a horrendous mistake by assuming he knew what was best. Most of Christ's followers did not understand His mission—they were sure He had come to free them from Roman oppression. However, the Savior did not merely come to bring national peace—He came to seek and to save the lost. God has a perfect plan and timing for the future. Although we may have a certain idea about how He should act, we must submit ourselves to His wisdom, because He always has a much greater purpose than we could ever imagine.

> 14:16 — The disciples went out and came to the city, and found it just as He had told them.

The disciples found the Passover preparations just as Jesus had told them. When we obey Him, we also will find life to be exactly what He says it will be. The best life path is the one that has been carefully set according to His instructions.

Jesus in Gethsemane

- 32 They *came to a place named Gethsemane; and He *said to His disciples, "Sit here until I have prayed."

 - 37 And He *came and *found them sleeping, and *said to Peter, "Simon, are you asleep? Could you not keep watch for one hour?
 - 38 "Keep watching and praying that you may not come into temptation; the spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak."
 - 39 Again He went away and prayed, saying the same words.
 - 40 And again He came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy; and they did not know what to answer Him.
 - 41 And He *came the third time, and *said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? It is enough; the hour has come; behold, the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 "Get up, let us be going; behold, the one who betrays Me is at hand!"

Betrayal and Arrest

- 43 Immediately while He was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, *came up accompanied by a crowd with swords and clubs, who were from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.
- 44 Now he who was betraying Him had given them a signal, saying, "Whomever I kiss, He is the one; seize Him and lead Him away under guard."

- 47 But one of those who stood by drew his sword, and struck the slave of the high priest and cut off his ear.
- 48 And Jesus said to them, "Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me, as you would against a robber?
- 49 "Every day I was with you in the temple teaching, and you did not seize Me; but this has taken place to fulfill the Scriptures."

Jesus before His Accusers

- 53 They led Jesus away to the high priest; and all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes *gathered together.
- 54 Peter had followed Him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest; and he was sitting with the officers and warming himself at the fire.
- 55 Now the chief priests and the whole ^aCouncil kept trying to obtain testimony against Jesus to put Him to death, and they were not finding any.

> 14:35 — He went a little beyond them, and fell to the ground and began to pray that if it were possible, the hour might pass Him by.

In the Garden of Gethsemane, Jesus surrendered to the will of His Father. The reality of what was about to take place was overwhelming. He knew why He had come to earth. Therefore, He willingly submitted Himself to provide for our salvation. Still, the thought of being separated from the Father, even for a short period of time, was more than He could bear.

59 Not even in this respect was their testimony consistent.

60 The high priest stood up and came forward and questioned Jesus, saying, "Do You not answer? What is it that these men are testifying against You?"

61 But He kept silent and did not answer. Again the high priest was questioning Him, and saying to Him, "Are You the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?"

 $62\,$ And Jesus said, "I am; and you shall see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming with the clouds of Heaven."

63 Tearing his clothes, the high priest *said, "What further need do we have of witnesses?

64 "You have heard the blasphemy; how does it seem to you?" And they all condemned Him to be deserving of death.

65 Some began to spit at Him, and to blindfold Him, and to beat Him with their fists, and to say to Him, "Prophesy!" And the officers received Him with slaps in the face.

Peter's Denials

66 As Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant-girls of the high priest *came, 67 and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked at him and *said, "You also were with Jesus the Nazarene."

68 But he denied it, saying, "I neither know nor understand what you are talking about." And he went out onto the porch.^a

69 The servant-girl saw him, and began once more to say to the bystanders, "This is one of them!"

70 But again he denied it. And after a little while the bystanders were again saying to Peter, "Surely you are one of them, for you are a Galilean too."

71 But he began to curse and swear, "I do not know this man you are talking about!"

▶ 72 Immediately a rooster crowed a second time. And Peter remembered how Jesus had made the remark to him, "Before a rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times." And he began to weep.

Jesus before Pilate

15 EARLY in the morning the chief priests with the elders and scribes and the whole bCouncil, immediately held a consultation; and binding Jesus, they led Him away and delivered Him to Pilate.

2 Pilate questioned Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?" And He *answered him, "It is as you say."

3 The chief priests began to accuse Him harshly.

4 Then Pilate questioned Him again, saying, "Do You not answer? See how many charges they bring against You!"

5 But Jesus made no further answer; so Pilate was amazed.

6 Now at the feast he used to release for them any one prisoner whom they requested.

7 The man named Barabbas had been imprisoned with the insurrectionists who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 The crowd went up and began asking him to do as he had been accustomed to do for them.

9 Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?"

10 For he was aware that the chief priests had handed Him over because of envy.

11 But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to ask him to release Barabbas for them instead.

12 Answering again, Pilate said to them, "Then what shall I do with Him whom you call the King of the Jews?"

13 They shouted back, "Crucify Him!"

14 But Pilate said to them, "Why, what evil has He done?" But they shouted all the more, "Crucify Him!"

15 Wishing to satisfy the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas for them, and after having Jesus scourged, he handed Him over to be crucified.

Jesus Is Mocked

Peter immediately understood the seriousness of his sin, which is a good thing. In 2 Corinthians 7:10 Paul wrote, "The sorrow that is according to the will of God produces a repentance without regret, leading to salvation." After the Resurrection, Peter was no longer belligerent, as he was in the Garden (John 18:10). Rather, he had a deeply repentant heart, which is just what he needed to receive the risen Savior.

> 15:19 — They kept beating his head with a reed, and spitting on Him, and kneeling and bowing before Him.

How hard it would have been to take the brutality and cruel mocking, knowing that with a word He could have summoned more than twelve legions of angels for His rescue (Matt. 26:53)! Yet He bore this and much more for our sake and our salvation.

> 15:25 — They crucified Him.

Crucifixion was the most humiliating and excruciating form of execution. Disfigured and disrobed, Jesus was killed publicly so that there'd be no question that He'd been put to death. Yet this is exactly what our Savior came to do—He came to die for our transgressions. He came to lay down His life on a common, ordinary tree to pay our sindebt in full (1 Pet. 2:24).

> 15:34 — Jesus cried out with a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" which is translated, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?" Read Psalm 22 to see how the Word motivated and comforted Him—even on the Cross.

> 15:38 — The veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom.

By tearing the thick, heavy veil of the temple from top to bottom, God signified that through His Son's death, He has reconciled us to Himself when we trust in Him as our Savior.

> 15:43 — Joseph of Arimathea . . . gathered up courage and went in before Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus.

To this point, Joseph had been a secret disciple for fear that he might jeopardize his position (John 19:38). But when all the Lord's disciples ran, he stepped forward and made public his allegiance to Christ.

He forgave.

In all his career, only Jesus had ever offered the centurion mercy. Even though he stood for everything that put Christ on that Cross, Jesus forgave him. In that moment, he could utter only one confession: "Truly this man was the Son of God!" (Mark 15:39).

Two thousand years later, people still look upon Jesus, the resurrected Son of God. What is your confession about Him?

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

What tools has God provided to help me share my faith?

MARK 16:15

The only way to reach spiritually blind, captive, and dead people is through the divine work of almighty God, who does not wish "for any to perish but for all to come to repentance" (2 Pet. 3:9). We are His tools; He is the power. The apostle Paul explains, "God has not given us a spirit of timidity, but of power and love and discipline" (2 Tim. 1:7). We do not have to be afraid to share our faith because He has given us three important tools to help us.

Power. The gospel of God opens blind eyes, rescues the captive, and revives the dead. We share our faith by declaring that Christ died on the Cross for our sins, was buried, and rose from the dead. Lead the lost to consider who Jesus is, because He is the One who provides salvation. Any rejection you experience thus centers on Him, not you. Always pray for His wisdom and strength when you tell others about His saving grace. It is the power of God through the Holy Spirit that changes lives (Acts 1:8).

Love. The greatest force on earth is the love of God. "By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another" (John 13:35). We can showcase His love in countless ways (1 John 3:18). Listen to the words of a friend. Spend time with a parent or loved one. Keep a couple's children so they can have a special night out. Invite a friend over for dinner. Take food to someone who is sick. We can love others through service, or we can love them with our words (Prov. 31:26). That means we encourage those who are lost by telling them about the Lord Jesus, who loves them unconditionally and wants to give them new life.

Wisdom. The Christian faith is based on the unshakable Word of God and not fiction. Sharing our faith is never unreasonable or irrational—we are doing exactly what Jesus has commanded us to do and that is to proclaim the true message of the gospel to as many people as possible. We offer others the trustworthy testimony of Scripture and the reason of our faith (1 Pet. 3:15), which includes:

- The fact of the Resurrection (1 Cor. 15:6).
 The Resurrection is indeed a concrete, historical fact.
- The fact of fulfilled Scripture. Literally hundreds of Old Testament prophecies were fulfilled in the New Testament, including many intricate details of Jesus' birth, life, death, and resurrection.
- The fact of manuscript and archaeological evidence. Thousands of ancient manuscripts attest to the reliability of the Bible. Archaeological evidence has consistently verified the historical data of the Bible.

14 Afterward He appeared to the eleven themselves as they were reclining at the table; and He reproached them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they had not believed those who had seen Him after He had risen.

The first hours after the Resurrection were anything but a triumphant display of faith and courage. In fact, the disciples "refused to believe." So Jesus appeared to them (Mark 16:14; John 20:19–21; 1 Cor. 15:5–8). When they finally realized that He was with them and that He was alive, their hearts overflowed with hope and joy. They realized God's plan for the future was in full operation.

uke, a physician, writes with the compassion and warmth of a family doctor as he carefully documents the perfect humanity of the Son of Man, Jesus Christ. He emphasizes Jesus' ancestry, birth, and early life before moving carefully and chronologically through His earthly ministry.

At the very beginning of his Gospel, Luke tells his audience that he wasn't an original apostle or even an eyewitness to Jesus' words and works. Many believe Luke came to faith in Christ through the ministry of the apostle Paul, whom he befriended and accompanied on some of his missionary journeys. Luke may have been a Gentile convert to Christianity, making him the only non-Jewish writer of a New Testament book (he also penned the Acts of the Apostles). Luke has a fondness for parables; of the twenty-five he includes in his Gospel, seventeen do not appear anywhere else. He also describes seven of Jesus' miracles that were not mentioned in the other two Synoptic Gospels.

Luke's Gospel includes many details of Jesus' life omitted from the other three Gospels. Only Luke records a detailed account of Jesus' birth and the events surrounding it. He includes the angelic announcement to Jesus' mother, Mary, and the fact that she would give birth to the Messiah. He also records the story of the conception and birth of John the Baptist. Only Luke includes an account of the boyhood of Jesus.

Luke presents Jesus as a man of great compassion and intense emotions. Luke alone, for example, records how Jesus looked out over the holy city of Jerusalem and wept over its coming destruction. Luke also shows us that Jesus had a very sympathetic attitude toward women, the poor, the sinners, the sick, and the dying. Christ's resurrection ensures that His purpose is fulfilled: "To seek and to save that which was lost" (Luke 19:10).

Kata Loukon, "According to Luke," is the ancient title added to this Gospel at a very early date. The Greek name Luke appears only three times in the New Testament (Col. 4:14; 2 Tim. 4:11; Philem. 24).

Theme: Jesus is the Son of Man.

Author: Luke.

Time: Most scholars believe Luke wrote his Gospel a few years before he wrote the Acts of the Apostles, which he likely penned circa A.D. 63 or 64.

Structure: Luke starts his Gospel by explaining that he had thoroughly investigated Jesus' story and had written his account based on his careful investigations. The first two chapters of this Gospel contain several incidents unique to Luke that are related to Jesus' birth and early life.

As you read Luke, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

Birth of John the Baptist Foretold

- 5 In the days of Herod, king of Judea, there was a priest named Zacharias, of the division of bAbijah; and he had a wife cfrom the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.
- 6 They were both righteous in the sight of God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and requirements of the Lord.
- 7 But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they were both advanced in years
- 8 Now it happened that while he was performing his priestly service before God in the appointed order of his division,
- 9 according to the custom of the priestly office, he was chosen by lot to enter the temple of the Lord and burn incense.
- 10 And the whole multitude of the people were in prayer outside at the hour of the incense offering.
- 11 And an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing to the right of the altar of incense.
- 12 Zacharias was troubled when he saw the angel, and fear gripped him.
- 13 But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zacharias, for your petition has been heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will give him the name John.
- 14 "You will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth.

15 "For he will be great in the sight of the Lord; and he will drink no wine or liquor, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit while yet in his mother's womb.

16 "And he will turn many of the sons of Israel back to the Lord their God.

17 "It is he who will go as a forerunner before ≺ Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, TO TURN THE HEARTS OF THE FATHERS BACK TO THE CHILDREN, and the disobedient to the attitude of the righteous, so as to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

18 Zacharias said to the angel, "How will I know this for certain? For I am an old man and my wife is advanced in years."

19 The angel answered and said to him, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news.

20 "And behold, you shall be silent and unable to speak until the day when these things take place, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their proper time."

21 The people were waiting for Zacharias, and were wondering at his delay in the temple.

22 But when he came out, he was unable to speak to them; and they realized that he had seen a vision in the temple; and he kept making signs to them, and remained mute.

23 When the days of his priestly service were ended, he went back home.

24 After these days Elizabeth his wife became pregnant, and she kept herself in seclusion for five months, saving.

25 "This is the way the Lord has dealt with me in the days when He looked with favor upon me, to take away my disgrace among men."

> 1:3 — Having investigated everything carefully from the beginning.

Luke wanted the recipient of his letter to know that he had accurately researched the life of Jesus Christ. Because he was a physician, we can conclude that his research was investigative and extensive. Only after careful study that probably included interviewing the people who knew the Savior personally, did he begin to write.

➤ 1:4 — That you may know the exact truth about the things you have been taught.

The Lord wants us to know that the Bible contains His truth, and it can be trusted in all that it declares (2 Tim. 3:16, 17; Heb. 4:12). The Gospels are not a collection of religious fairy tales. They are the source of eternal truth—God's revelation of Himself and how we can have an intimate relationship with Him.

> 1:17 — "It is he who will go as a forerunner before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah . . . to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

In ancient times, the arrival of a king was heralded by a forerunner so that his subjects could prepare for his appearance. The cities would hold great festivals, and everything would be cleaned and repaired so that the king would see his dominion at its best. When the King of kings came to earth, the same was true (Is. 40:3; Mal. 3:1). John the Baptist preached "in the spirit and power of Elijah" to prepare the people for the coming of Jesus Christ. Like Elijah before him, he bravely and powerfully proclaimed the truth of the people's need for repentance and salvation.

➤ 30 The angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary; for you have found favor with God.

*31 "And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall name Him Jesus.

32 "He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High; and the Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David;

33 and He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and His kingdom will have no end."

34 Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, since I am a virgin?"

35 The angel answered and said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; and for that reason the holy Child shall be called the Son of God.

36 "And behold, even your relative Elizabeth has also conceived a son in her old age; and she who was called barren is now in her sixth month.

➤ 37 "For nothing will be impossible with God." 38 And Mary said, "Behold, the abondslave of the Lord; may it be done to me according to your word." And the angel departed from her.

Mary Visits Elizabeth

39 Now at this time Mary arose and went in a hurry to the hill country, to a city of Judah, 40 and entered the house of Zacharias and greeted Elizabeth.

41 When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.

42 And she cried out with a loud voice and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!

43 "And how has it happened to me, that the mother of my Lord would come to me?

44 "For behold, when the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy.

hen Mary was young, the customary age for betrothal was thirteen or fourteen. More than likely, she was a young girl when Joseph asked her to marry him. Can you imagine the excitement she felt? But that quickly changed the moment the angel Gabriel stepped into her presence and announced that she would have a son and that He would be the Savior of the world.

Jewish tradition demanded harsh treatment for unmarried pregnant women. Religious leaders would have dealt with her severely. Yet Mary remained strong in her faith. She knew that she had heard God's Word spoken to her, and she believed that He would provide what she needed to do His will.

She was an ordinary girl with extraordinary, godly character that gave her an uncommon faith. Completely trusting in God, in every way Mary was a good and faithful servant. And she provides a model of inspiration for each one of us. For the most part, she lived her life in relative obscurity—happy and even grateful to be used by God. Yet today the world continues to celebrate her obedience to the Lord.

John Is Born

57 Now the time had come for Elizabeth to give birth, and she gave birth to a son.

58 Her neighbors and her relatives heard that the Lord had displayed His great mercy toward her; and they were rejoicing with her. 59 And it happened that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and they were going to call him Zacharias, after his father.

60 But his mother answered and said, "No indeed; but he shall be called John."

62 And they made signs to his father, as to what he wanted him called.

63 And he asked for a tablet and wrote as follows, "His name is John." And they were all astonished.

64 And at once his mouth was opened and his tongue loosed, and he began to speak in praise of God.

65 Fear came on all those living around them; and all these matters were being talked about in all the hill country of Judea.

Whole in the Arms of God

LUKE 2:25-35

As he made his way to the temple, we may wonder if Simeon thought, "The years must be catching up to me. How long will I have to wait for God to answer my prayer?" How long had it been since he had received the special word of the Lord? Five? Ten years? It didn't matter. Each day brought him closer to the fulfillment of God's promise that "he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ" (Luke 2:26).

At that moment, a young couple emerged onto the temple porch with a newborn son. The Child! Simeon thought. He approached the young family, took the babe in his arms, and immediately knew this was the One for whom he had waited so long.

The Lord always keeps His promises. And this faithful servant of God had the opportunity to witness the Savior as promised. He took Jesus in his arms and blessed Him saying, "Now Lord, You are releasing Your bond-servant to depart in peace, according to Your word; for my eyes have seen Your salvation" (Luke 2:29, 30).

The wisdom of God is astounding. Even the teachers of the Law and temple scholars were completely amazed at Christ's spiritual insight—especially at such a young age. Yet remember, "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding" (Prov. 9:10). The Lord's remarkable knowledge and understanding are available to all who truly believe in Him (Jer. 33:3; 1 Cor. 1:18—2:16; James 1:5, 6). Do you need God's wisdom for your situation? Then trust and obey Him, because He will surely reveal Himself to you as you seek Him (Luke 11:9, 10).

> 2:50 — They did not understand the statement that He had made to them.

Even as a boy, Jesus spoke of spiritual issues in ways that His hearers often did not understand. Serious Christfollowers, however, strive to gain understanding, as did Mary (Luke 2:51) and His disciples (8:9).

> 2:51 — He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and He continued in subjection to them.

esus is the only begotten Son of God, but He was placed in the care and under the authority of His earthly parents, Mary and Joseph. He submitted to them, not as an inferior, but as an example of obedience to us.

> 3:4 — "The voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Make ready the way of the Lord.'"

John faithfully fulfilled the calling given to him even before his birth, which was announced by the angel Gabriel to his father Zacharias (Luke 1:11–19). Likewise, God created you for a very special purpose. Even before you were born, He had great plans for you as well (Ps. 139:13–16; Eph. 2:10).

> 3:11 — "The man who has two tunics is to share with him who has none; and he who has food is to do likewise."

n intimate relationship with God is about far more than merely enjoying warm feelings toward the Creator of the universe. Any genuine love for the Lord will move a person to perform real acts of love toward others (James 2:15, 16; 1 John 3:16–18). It also stirs people's hearts toward salvation, commitment, and obedience.

> 3:14 — "Do not take money from anyone by force, or accuse anyone falsely, and be content with your wages."

ohn the Baptist did not advise soldiers to go into another profession. He did, however, instruct them to act justly and mercifully with those under their authority.

15 Now while the people were in a state of expectation and all were wondering in their hearts about John, as to whether he was the Christ.

16 John answered and said to them all, "As for me, I baptize you with water; but One is coming who is mightier than I, and I am not fit to untie the thong of His sandals; He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

17 "His winnowing fork is in His hand to thoroughly clear His threshing floor, and to gather the wheat into His barn; but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

18 So with many other exhortations he preached the gospel to the people.

19 But when Herod the tetrarch was reprimanded by him because of Herodias, his brother's wife, and because of all the wicked things which Herod had done, 20 Herod also added this to them all: he locked John up in prison.

Jesus Is Baptized

21 Now when all the people were baptized, Jesus was also baptized, and while He was praying, heaven was opened,

22 and the Holy Spirit descended upon Him in bodily form like a dove, and a voice came out of heaven, "You are My beloved Son, in You I am well-pleased."

The Temptation of Jesus

4 JESUS, full of the Holy Spirit, returned 4 from the Jordan and was led around by the Spirit in the wilderness

- 2 for forty days, being tempted by the devil. And He ate nothing during those days, and when they had ended, He became hungry.
- 3 And the devil said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, tell this stone to become bread."
- 4 And Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'Man shall not live on bread alone."
- 5 And he led Him up and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.
- 6 And the devil said to Him, "I will give You all this domain and its glory; for it has been handed over to me, and I give it to whomever I wish.
- 7 "Therefore if You worship before me, it shall all be Yours."

LIFE LESSONS-

> 3:23 — When He began His ministry, Jesus Himself was about thirty years of age.

Jesus spent three decades preparing for His ministry, most of it in almost total obscurity. Most of the time, those whom God uses greatly He first puts through a period of preparation outside of the bright lights of fame and notoriety.

> 4:1 — Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led around by the Spirit in the wilderness. o walk in the Spirit is to obey the initial promptings of the Spirit. This does not mean life will always be easy or problem-free. Sometimes the Lord will lead us into the wilderness or into situations that are difficult. In fact, this often happens after times of great spiritual growth or victory. However, if we trust and obey Him, we will surely triumph, and our relationship with Him will grow even deeper and stronger.

- 8 Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God and serve Him only.'"
- 9 And he led Him to Jerusalem and had Him stand on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down from here;
- 10 for it is written,

'HE WILL COMMAND HIS ANGELS CONCERNING YOU TO GUARD YOU,'

11 and,

'On their hands they will bear You up, So that You will not strike Your foot against a stone.'"

- $12\,$ And Jesus answered and said to him, "It is said, 'You shall not put the Lord your God to the test.'"
- ≥ 13 When the devil had finished every temptation, he left Him until an opportune time.

Jesus' Public Ministry

- 14 And Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news about Him spread through all the surrounding district.
- 15 And He began teaching in their synagogues and was praised by all.
- 16 And He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up; and as was His custom, He entered the synagogue on the Sabbath, and stood up to read.
- 17 And the book of the prophet Isaiah was handed to Him. And He opened the book and found the place where it was written,
- 18 "The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, Because He anointed Me to preach the Gospel to the poor.
 - HE HAS SENT ME TO PROCLAIM RELEASE TO THE CAPTIVES,

AND RECOVERY OF SIGHT TO THE BLIND, TO SET FREE THOSE WHO ARE OPPRESSED,

- 19 To proclaim the favorable year of the Lord."
- 20 And He closed the book, gave it back to the attendant and sat down; and the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on Him.
- > 21 And He began to say to them, "Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."
 - 22 And all were speaking well of Him, and wondering at the gracious words which were falling from His lips; and they were saying, "Is this not Joseph's son?"

- 23 And He said to them, "No doubt you will quote this proverb to Me, 'Physician, heal yourself! Whatever we heard was done at Capernaum, do here in your hometown as well."
- 24 And He said, "Truly I say to you, no prophet is welcome in his hometown.
- 25 "But I say to you in truth, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the sky was shut up for three years and six months, when a great famine came over all the land;
- 26 and yet Elijah was sent to none of them, but only to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow.
- 27 "And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian."
- 28 And all the people in the synagogue were filled with rage as they heard these things;
- 29 and they got up and drove Him out of the city, and led Him to the brow of the hill on which their city had been built, in order to throw Him down the cliff.
- 30 But passing through their midst, He went His way.
- 31 And He came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and He was teaching them on the Sabbath;
- 32 and they were amazed at His teaching, for His message was with authority.
- 33 In the synagogue there was a man possessed by the spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice,
- 34 "Let us alone! What business do we have with each other, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!"
- 35 But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet and come out of him!" And when the demon had thrown him down in the midst of the people, he came out of him without doing him any harm.
- 36 And amazement came upon them all, and they began talking with one another saying, "What is this message? For with authority

> 4:13 — When the devil had finished every temptation, he left Him until an opportune time.

Satan does not attack us in the same way at all times. He looks for opportune moments, when we feel weakest or most discouraged, to suggest that God cannot be trusted and we must take matters into our own hands. How do we fend off his lies? By walking daily with the Lord in prayer, studying His Word, and staying strong in our faith (1 Pet. 5:8–11).

> 4:21 — "Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

Those in the synagogue understood that the text Jesus read (Isaiah 61) referred to the prophesied Messiah. Therefore, at the outset of His ministry Jesus announced that He is the Savior and Redeemer that Israel and the world had been awaiting.

and power He commands the unclean spirits and they come out."

37 And the report about Him was spreading into every locality in the surrounding district.

Many Are Healed

38 Then He got up and left the synagogue, and entered Simon's home. Now Simon's mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever. and they asked Him to help her.

39 And standing over her, He rebuked the fever, and it left her; and she immediately got up and waited on them.

- 40 While the sun was setting, all those who had any who were sick with various diseases brought them to Him; and laying His hands on each one of them, He was healing them.
- 41 Demons also were coming out of many, shouting, "You are the Son of God!" But rebuking them, He would not allow them to speak, because they knew Him to be the Christ.
- 42 When day came, Jesus left and went to a secluded place; and the crowds were searching for Him, and came to Him and tried to keep Him from going away from them.

43 But He said to them, "I must preach the kingdom of God to the other cities also, for I was sent for this purpose."

44 So He kept on preaching in the synagogues of ^aJudea.

The First Disciples

5NOW it happened that while the crowd was pressing around Him and listening to the word of God, He was standing by the lake of Gennesaret:

2 and He saw two boats lying at the edge of the lake; but the fishermen had gotten out of them and were washing their nets.

3 And He got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little way from the land. And He sat down and began teaching the people from the boat.

4 When He had finished speaking, He said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch."

5 Simon answered and said, "Master, we worked hard all night and caught nothing, but I will do as You say and let down the nets."

- 6 When they had done this, they enclosed a great quantity of fish, and their nets began to break:
- 7 so they signaled to their partners in the other boat for them to come and help them. And they came and filled both of the boats, so that they began to sink.

8 But when Simon Peter saw that, he fell down at Jesus' feet, saying, "Go away from me Lord, for I am a sinful man!"

9 For amazement had seized him and all his companions because of the catch of fish which they had taken;

10 and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not fear, from now on you will be catching men."

11 When they had brought their boats to \prec land, they left everything and followed Him.

The Leper and the Paralytic

- 12 While He was in one of the cities, behold, there was a man covered with leprosy; and when he saw Jesus, he fell on his face and implored Him, saying, "Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean."
- 13 And He stretched out His hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing; be cleansed." And immediately the leprosy left him.

- 14 And He ordered him to tell no one, "But go and show yourself to the priest and make an offering for your cleansing, just as Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."
- 15 But the news about Him was spreading even farther, and large crowds were gathering to hear Him and to be healed of their sicknesses.

16 But Jesus Himself would often slip away \prec to the wilderness and pray.

17 One day He was teaching; and there were some Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting there, who had come from every village of Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem; and the power of the Lord was present for Him to perform healing.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 5:11 — When they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed Him.

The particulars of what Jesus requires of His disciples vary tremendously, but of all followers He demands total allegiance. He must be Lord of all, not merely one significant voice among many others.

> 5:13 — He stretched out His hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing; be cleansed." And immediately the leprosy left him. esus did not have to touch people to cure them (Luke 7:1–10), but He made a point of compassionately touching the leper—a man no one dared to touch. Jesus always gives us exactly what we need.

> 5:16 — Jesus Himself would often slip away to the wilderness and pray.

Jesus cherished His times alone in prayer. As our example, He shows us that none of us can afford to skip our devotional times alone with the Lord. We were made for an intimate relationship with Him, and that cannot happen if we never communicate with Him or listen to Him.

- 18 And some men were carrying on a bed a man who was paralyzed; and they were trying to bring him in and to set him down in front of Him.
- 19 But not finding any way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and let him down through the tiles with his stretcher, into the middle of the crowd, in front of Jesus.
- 20 Seeing their faith, He said, "Friend, your sins are forgiven you."
- 21 The scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, "Who is this man who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?"
- 22 But Jesus, aware of their reasonings, answered and said to them, "Why are you reasoning in your hearts?
- 23 "Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins have been forgiven you,' or to say, 'Get up and walk'? 24 "But, so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins,"—He said to the paralytic—"I say to you, get up, and pick up your stretcher and go home."
- 25 Immediately he got up before them, and picked up what he had been lying on, and went home glorifying God.
- 26 They were all struck with astonishment and began glorifying God; and they were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen remarkable things today."

Call of Levi (Matthew)

- 27 After that He went out and noticed a tax collector named Levi sitting in the tax booth, and He said to him, "Follow Me."
- 28 And he left everything behind, and got up and began to follow Him.
- 29 And Levi gave a big reception for Him in his house; and there was a great crowd of tax collectors and other people who were reclining at the table with them.
- 30 The Pharisees and their scribes began grumbling at His disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with the tax collectors and sinners?"
- 31 And Jesus answered and said to them, "It is not those who are well who need a physician, but those who are sick.
- *32 "I have not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance."
 - 33 And they said to Him, "The disciples of John often fast and offer prayers, the disciples of the Pharisees also do the same, but Yours eat and drink."

- 34 And Jesus said to them, "You cannot make the attendants of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them, can you?
- 35 "But the days will come; and when the bridegroom is taken away from them, then they will fast in those days."
- 36 And He was also telling them a parable: "No one tears a piece of cloth from a new garment and puts it on an old garment; otherwise he will both tear the new, and the piece from the new will not match the old.
- 37 "And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; otherwise the new wine will burst the skins and it will be spilled out, and the skins will be ruined.
- 38 "But new wine must be put into fresh wineskins.
- 39 "And no one, after drinking old wine wishes for new; for he says, 'The old is good enough."

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

- 6 NOW it happened that He was passing through some grainfields on a Sabbath; and His disciples were picking the heads of grain, rubbing them in their hands, and eating the grain.
- 2 But some of the Pharisees said, "Why do you do what is not lawful on the Sabbath?"
- 3 And Jesus answering them said, "Have you not even read what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him,
- 4 how he entered the house of God, and took and ate the aconsecrated bread which is not lawful for any to eat except the priests alone, and gave it to his companions?"
- 5 And He was saying to them, "The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."
- 6 On another Sabbath He entered the synagogue and was teaching; and there was a man there whose right hand was withered.
- 7 The scribes and the Pharisees were watching Him closely to see if He healed on the Sabbath, so that they might find reason to accuse Him.
- 8 But He knew what they were thinking, and He said to the man with the withered hand, "Get up and come forward!" And he got up and came forward.
- 9 And Jesus said to them, "I ask you, is it ≺ lawful to do good or to do harm on the Sabbath, to save a life or to destroy it?"

LIFE LESSONS-

> 6:9 — "I ask you, is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the Sabbath, to save a life or to destroy it?"

Every law or commandment that God ever gave to His people, He gave for their own good (Deut. 10:13). The Lord takes no pleasure in regulations that destroy, injure, or allow injustice to remain—so the answer to Jesus' question should have been obvious. Sadly, these religious leaders had added so many stipulations to His commands that they prevented people from practicing the spirit of the Law—loving God and serving others (Matt. 23:13–28).

- 10 After looking around at them all, He said to him, "Stretch out your hand!" And he did so; and his hand was restored.
- 11 But they themselves were filled with rage, and discussed together what they might do to Jesus.

Choosing the Twelve

- ➤ 12 It was at this time that He went off to the mountain to pray, and He spent the whole night in prayer to God.
 - 13 And when day came, He called His disciples to Him and chose twelve of them, whom He also named as apostles:
 - 14 Simon, whom He also named Peter, and Andrew his brother; and James and John; and Philip and Bartholomew;
 - 15 and Matthew and Thomas; James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon who was called the Zealot;
 - 16 Judas the son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.
 - 17 Jesus came down with them and stood on a level place; and there was a large crowd of His disciples, and a great throng of people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon,
 - 18 who had come to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases; and those who were troubled with unclean spirits were being cured.
 - 19 And all the people were trying to touch Him, for power was coming from Him and healing them all.

The Beatitudes

- 20 And turning His gaze toward His disciples, He began to say, "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.
- 21 "Blessed are you who hunger now, for you shall be satisfied. Blessed are you who weep now, for you shall laugh.
- 22 "Blessed are you when men hate you, and ostracize you, and insult you, and scorn your name as evil, for the sake of the Son of Man.
- 23 "Be glad in that day and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven. For in the same way their fathers used to treat the prophets.
- 24 "But woe to you who are rich, for you are receiving your comfort in full.

- 25 "Woe to you who are well-fed now, for you shall be hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you shall mourn and weep.
- 26 "Woe to you when all men speak well of you, for their fathers used to treat the false prophets in the same way.
- 27 "But I say to you who hear, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you,
- 28 bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you.
- 29 "Whoever hits you on the cheek, offer him the other also; and whoever takes away your coat, do not withhold your shirt from him either.
- 30 "Give to everyone who asks of you, and whoever takes away what is yours, do not demand it back.
- 31 "Treat others the same way you want them to treat you.
- 32 "If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them.
- 33 "If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same.
- 34 "If you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners in order to receive back the same amount.
- 35 "But love your enemies, and do good, and klend, expecting nothing in return; and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High; for He Himself is kind to ungrateful and evil men.
- 36 "Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.
- 37 "Do not judge, and you will not be judged; and do not condemn, and you will not be condemned; pardon, and you will be pardoned.
- 38 "Give, and it will be given to you. They will pour into your lap a good measure—pressed down, shaken together, and running over. For by your standard of measure it will be measured to you in return."
- 39 And He also spoke a parable to them: "A blind man cannot guide a blind man, can he? Will they not both fall into a pit?
- 40 "A pupil is not above his teacher; but everyone, after he has been fully trained, will be like his teacher.

- Gesus spent all night in prayer immediately before He chose the twelve disciples who would accompany Him everywhere. Whenever we make any decision—major or minor—we should follow His example and wholeheartedly seek His counsel.
- > 6:35 "He Himself is kind to ungrateful and evil men."
- Of God were not kind to the unappreciative and ungodly, where would any of us be (Rom. 5:8)? The Lord will always judge sin, but He desires that we would turn from our sin and receive His salvation so that He can bless us, not judge us (1 Pet. 3:9). Likewise, we must be kind to all people—showing them God's love and mercy—in the hope that they will repent and be saved (2 Tim. 2:24–26).

- 41 "Why do you look at the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye?
- 42 "Or how can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me take out the speck that is in your eye,' when you yourself do not see the log that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck that is in your brother's eye.

≥ 45 "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.

Builders and Foundations

46 "Why do you call Me, 'Lord, Lord,' and do not do what I say?

47 "Everyone who comes to Me and hears My words and acts on them, I will show you whom he is like:

- 48 he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid a foundation on the rock; and when a flood occurred, the torrent burst against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built.
- "But the one who has heard and has not acted accordingly, is like a man who built a house on the ground without any foundation: and the torrent burst against it and immediately it collapsed, and the ruin of that house was great."

Jesus Heals a Centurion's Servant

WHEN He had completed all His discourse I in the hearing of the people, He went to Ca-

And a centurion's slave, who was highly regarded by him, was sick and about to die.

When he heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish elders asking Him to come and save the life of his slave.

- When they came to Jesus, they earnestly implored Him, saying, "He is worthy for You to grant this to him;
- for he loves our nation and it was he who built us our synagogue."
- Now Jesus started on His way with them; and when He was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends, saying to Him, "Lord, do not trouble Yourself further, for I am not worthy for You to come under my roof; for this reason I did not even consider myself worthy to come to You, but just say the word, and my servant will be healed.

- "For I also am a man placed under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to this one, 'Go!' and he goes, and to another, 'Come!' and he comes, and to my slave, 'Do this!' and he does it."
- Now when Jesus heard this, He marveled at him, and turned and said to the crowd that was following Him, "I say to you, not even in Israel have I found such great faith."

10 When those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the slave in good health.

11 Soon afterwards He went to a city called Nain; and His disciples were going along with Him, accompanied by a large crowd.

12 Now as He approached the gate of the city. a dead man was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and a sizeable crowd from the city was with her.

13 When the Lord saw her, He felt compassion for her, and said to her, "Do not weep,"

14 And He came up and touched the coffin: and the bearers came to a halt. And He said, "Young man, I say to you, arise!"

15 The dead man sat up and began to speak. \triangleleft And Jesus gave him back to his mother.

16 Fear gripped them all, and they began glorifying God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us!" and, "God has visited His people!"

This report concerning Him went out all over Judea and in all the surrounding district.

> 6:44 — "Each tree is known by its own fruit."

That kind of fruit do you bear? How would your family, co-workers, and neighbors describe you? Would they say you are loving or selfish? Godly or unscrupulous? The way to measure the effectiveness of your walk with the Lord is to see what is being produced. Are people being drawn to God through you, or are they turned off to Him because of your ways? You can only make a difference in this world for Christ if you abide in Him (John 15:5).

6:45 — "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good . . . for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart."

Of our speech says a lot about you. Is your conversation $\rlap/$ tainted by complaining and cursing? Or is it characterized by praise for the Lord and sound wisdom? This shows what is stored in your heart, and if it is negative, you should reevaluate what you've been focusing on. Set your heart on God because then good, helpful speech will flow from you.

> 7:15 — The dead man sat up and began to speak. And Jesus gave him back to his mother.

his was not the only time Jesus raised a dead person back to life. He who is called the "Word of Life" (1 John 1:1) is "Lord both of the dead and of the living" (Rom. 14:9).

A Deputation from John

18 The disciples of John reported to him about all these things.

19 Summoning two of his disciples, John sent them to the Lord, saying, "Are You the Expected One, or do we look for someone else?"

20 When the men came to Him, they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to You, to ask, 'Are You the Expected One, or do we look for someone else?'"

➤ 21 At that very time He cured many people of diseases and afflictions and evil spirits; and He gave sight to many who were blind.

22 And He answered and said to them, "Go and report to John what you have seen and heard: the BLIND RECEIVE SIGHT, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, the POOR HAVE THE GOSPEL PREACHED TO THEM.

23 "Blessed is he who does not take offense at Me."

24 When the messengers of John had left, He began to speak to the crowds about John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?

25 "But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothing? Those who are splendidly clothed and live in luxury are found in royal palaces!

26 "But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and one who is more than a prophet.

27 "This is the one about whom it is written, 'Behold, I send My messenger ahead of You

WHO WILL PREPARE YOUR WAY BEFORE

28 "I say to you, among those born of women there is no one greater than John; yet he who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."

29 When all the people and the tax collectors heard this, they acknowledged God's justice, having been baptized with the baptism of John.

➤ 30 But the Pharisees and the alawyers rejected God's purpose for themselves, not having been baptized by John.

31 "To what then shall I compare the men of this generation, and what are they like?

32 "They are like children who sit in the market place and call to one another, and they say, 'We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we sang a dirge, and you did not weep.'

33 "For John the Baptist has come eating no bread and drinking no wine, and you say, 'He has a demon!'

34 "The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Behold, a gluttonous man and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!'

35 "Yet wisdom is vindicated by all her children."

36 Now one of the Pharisees was requesting Him to dine with him, and He entered the Pharisee's house and reclined at the table.

37 And there was a woman in the city who was a sinner; and when she learned that He was reclining at the table in the Pharisee's house, she brought an alabaster vial of perfume

38 and standing behind Him at His feet, weeping, she began to wet His feet with her tears, and kept wiping them with the hair of her head, and kissing His feet and anointing them with the perfume.

39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited Him saw this, he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet He would know who and what sort of person this woman is who is touching Him, that she is a sinner."

Parable of Two Debtors

40 And Jesus answered him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." And he replied, "Say it, Teacher."

41 "A moneylender had two debtors: one owed five hundred bdenarii, and the other fifty.

42 "When they were unable to repay, he graciously forgave them both. So which of them will love him more?"

43 Simon answered and said, "I suppose the one whom he forgave more." And He said to him, "You have judged correctly."

44 Turning toward the woman, He said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered

> 7:21 — At that very time He cured many people of diseases and afflictions and evil spirits; and He gave sight to many who were blind.

In prison, John had begun to doubt whether Jesus was the promised Messiah. In His grace, the Lord showed the discouraged John the truth. In the number and variety of His miracles, Jesus was doing what no Old Testament prophet had ever done.

> 7:30 — The Pharisees and the lawyers rejected God's purpose for themselves.

It is possible to reject the Lord's will and even work against it. This will never happen accidentally, however, or take place despite your desires. If you want to know God's will for your life, He will move heaven and earth to show it to you. But you have to choose it and obey Him.

your house; you gave Me no water for My feet, but she has wet My feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair.

- 45 "You gave Me no kiss; but she, since the time I came in, has not ceased to kiss My feet. 46 "You did not anoint My head with oil, but she anointed My feet with perfume.
- ➤ 47 "For this reason I say to you, her sins, which are many, have been forgiven, for she loved much; but he who is forgiven little, loves little."
 - 48 Then He said to her, "Your sins have been forgiven."
 - 49 Those who were reclining at the table with Him began to say to themselves, "Who is this man who even forgives sins?"
 - 50 And He said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

Ministering Women

- OSOON afterwards, He began going around from one city and village to another, proclaiming and preaching the kingdom of God. The twelve were with Him,
- ➤ 2 and also some women who had been healed of evil spirits and sicknesses: Mary who was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out,
 - 3 and Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others who were contributing to their support out of their private means.

Parable of the Sower

- 4 When a large crowd was coming together, and those from the various cities were journeying to Him, He spoke by way of a parable:
- 5 "The sower went out to sow his seed; and as he sowed, some fell beside the road, and it was trampled under foot and the birds of the air ate it up.
- 6 "Other seed fell on rocky soil, and as soon as it grew up, it withered away, because it had no moisture.
- 7 "Other seed fell among the thorns; and the thorns grew up with it and choked it out.

 8 "Other seed fell into the good soil and
- 8 "Other seed fell into the good soil, and grew up, and produced a crop a hundred

- times as great." As He said these things, He would call out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."
- 9 His disciples began questioning Him as to what this parable meant.
- 10 And He said, "To you it has been granted to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest it is in parables, so that seeing THEY MAY NOT SEE, AND HEARING THEY MAY NOT UNDERSTAND.
- 11 "Now the parable is this: the seed is the word of God.
- 12 "Those beside the road are those who have heard; then the devil comes and takes away the word from their heart, so that they will not believe and be saved.
- 13 "Those on the rocky soil are those who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no firm root; they believe for a while, and in time of temptation fall away.
- 14 "The seed which fell among the thorns, these are the ones who have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with worries and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to maturity.
- 15 "But the seed in the good soil, these are the ones who have heard the word in an honest and good heart, and hold it fast, and bear fruit with perseverance.

Parable of the Lamp

- 16 "Now no one after lighting a lamp covers it over with a container, or puts it under a bed; but he puts it on a lampstand, so that those who come in may see the light.
- 17 "For nothing is hidden that will not become evident, nor anything secret that will not be known and come to light.
- 18 "So take care how you listen; for whoever has, to him more shall be given; and whoever does not have, even what he thinks he has shall be taken away from him."
- 19 And His mother and brothers came to Him, and they were unable to get to Him because of the crowd.
- 20 And it was reported to Him, "Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, wishing to see You."
- 21 But He answered and said to them, "My

Jesus Stills the Sea

- 22 Now on one of those days Jesus and His disciples got into a boat, and He said to them, "Let us go over to the other side of the lake." So they launched out.
- 23 But as they were sailing along He fell asleep; and a fierce gale of wind descended on the lake, and they began to be swamped and to be in danger.
- 24 They came to Jesus and woke Him up, saying, "Master, Master, we are perishing!" And He got up and rebuked the wind and the surging waves, and they stopped, and it became calm.
- 25 And He said to them, "Where is your faith?" They were fearful and amazed, saying to one another, "Who then is this, that He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey Him?"

The Demoniac Cured

- 26 Then they sailed to the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee.
- 27 And when He came out onto the land, He was met by a man from the city who was possessed with demons; and who had not put on any clothing for a long time, and was not living in a house, but in the tombs.
- 28 Seeing Jesus, he cried out and fell before Him, and said in a loud voice, "What business do we have with each other, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg You, do not torment me."
- 29 For He had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For it had seized him many times; and he was bound with chains and shackles and kept under guard, and yet he would break his bonds and be driven by the demon into the desert.
- 30 And Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Legion"; for many demons had entered him.
- 31 They were imploring Him not to command them to go away into the abyss.
- 32 Now there was a herd of many swine feeding there on the mountain; and the demons implored Him to permit them to enter the swine. And He gave them permission.
- 33 And the demons came out of the man and entered the swine; and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.
- 34 When the herdsmen saw what had happened, they ran away and reported it in the city and out in the country.
- 35 The people went out to see what had happened; and they came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting down at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind; and they became frightened.

- 36 Those who had seen it reported to them how the man who was demon-possessed had been made well.
- 37 And all the people of the country of the Gerasenes and the surrounding district asked Him to leave them, for they were gripped with great fear; and He got into a boat and returned.
- 38 But the man from whom the demons had gone out was begging Him that he might accompany Him; but He sent him away, saying
- 39 "Return to your house and describe what great things God has done for you." So he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

Miracles of Healing

- 40 And as Jesus returned, the people welcomed Him, for they had all been waiting for Him
- 41 And there came a man named Jairus, and he was an official of the synagogue; and he fell at Jesus' feet, and began to implore Him to come to his house;
- 42 for he had an only daughter, about twelve years old, and she was dying. But as He went, the crowds were pressing against Him.
- 43 And a woman who had a hemorrhage for twelve years, and could not be healed by anyone.
- 44 came up behind Him and touched the fringe of His cloak, and immediately her hemorrhage stopped.
- 45 And Jesus said, "Who is the one who touched Me?" And while they were all denying it, Peter said, "Master, the people are crowding and pressing in on You."
- 46 But Jesus said, "Someone did touch Me, for I was aware that power had gone out of Me."
- 47 When the woman saw that she had not escaped notice, she came trembling and fell down before Him, and declared in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched Him, and how she had been immediately healed.
- 48 And He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace."
- 49 While He was still speaking, someone *came from the house of the synagogue official, saying, "Your daughter has died; do not trouble the Teacher anymore."
- 50 But when Jesus heard this, He answered him, "Do not be afraid any longer; only believe, and she will be made well."
- 51 When He came to the house, He did not allow anyone to enter with Him, except Peter and John and James, and the girl's father and mother.
- 52 Now they were all weeping and lamenting for her; but He said, "Stop weeping, for she has not died, but is asleep."

- > 53 And they began laughing at Him, knowing that she had died.
 - 54 He, however, took her by the hand and called, saying, "Child, arise!"
 - 55 And her spirit returned, and she got up immediately; and He gave orders for something to be given her to eat.
 - 56 Her parents were amazed; but He instructed them to tell no one what had happened.

Ministry of the Twelve

- 9AND He called the twelve together, and gave them power and authority over all the demons and to heal diseases.
- 2 And He sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to perform healing.
- 3 And He said to them, "Take nothing for your journey, neither a staff, nor a bag, nor bread, nor money; and do not even have two tunics apiece.
- 4 "Whatever house you enter, stay there until you leave that city.
- 5 "And as for those who do not receive you, as you go out from that city, shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them."
- 6 Departing, they began going throughout the villages, preaching the gospel and healing everywhere.
- 7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was happening; and he was greatly perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead,
- 8 and by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the prophets of old had risen again.
- 9 Herod said, "I myself had John beheaded; but who is this man about whom I hear such things?" And he kept trying to see Him.
- 10 When the apostles returned, they gave an account to Him of all that they had done. Taking them with Him, He withdrew by Himself to a city called Bethsaida.
- 11 But the crowds were aware of this and followed Him; and welcoming them, He began speaking to them about the kingdom of God and curing those who had need of healing.

Five Thousand Fed

- 12 Now the day was ending, and the twelve came and said to Him, "Send the crowd away, that they may go into the surrounding villages and countryside and find lodging and get something to eat; for here we are in a desolate place."
- 13 But He said to them, "You give them ≺ something to eat!" And they said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless perhaps we go and buy food for all these people."
- 14 (For there were about five thousand men.) And He said to His disciples, "Have them sit down to eat in groups of about fifty each."
- 15 They did so, and had them all sit down.
- 16 Then He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He blessed them, and broke them, and kept giving them to the disciples to set before the people.
- 17 And they all ate and were satisfied; and the broken pieces which they had left over were picked up, twelve baskets full.
- 18 And it happened that while He was praying alone, the disciples were with Him, and He questioned them, saying, "Who do the people say that I am?"
- 19 They answered and said, "John the Baptist, and others say Elijah; but others, that one of the prophets of old has risen again."
- 20 And He said to them, "But who do you ≼ say that I am?" And Peter answered and said, "The Christ of God."
- 21 But He warned them and instructed them not to tell this to anyone,
- 22 saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed and be raised up on the third day."
- 23 And He was saying to them all, "If anyone wishes to come after Me, he must deny himself, and take up his cross daily and follow Me.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 8:53 — They began laughing at Him, knowing that she had died.

As a physician, Luke wanted his audience to know that the child Jesus healed was really and truly dead. One day, Jesus will destroy death altogether (1 Cor. 15:21), but in this passage, He clearly showed His mastery over it.

> 9:13 — He said to them, "You give them something to eat!"

The Lord will never command us to do something without also providing whatever is required to obey Him. In this case, feeding five thousand men seemed absolutely impossible, but He provided what they needed, and there were even leftovers.

> 9:20 — "Who do you say that I am?" And Peter answered and said, "The Christ of God."

Iltimately, this is the question we must all answer and the foundation of our confession of faith (Rom. 10.9, 10). To say that Jesus is the Christ means we believe that He is God incarnate, born of a virgin, crucified unto death, buried, resurrected on the third day, and fully capable of forgiving our sins and reconciling us to Himself. We trust that all He taught is true, we have eternal life because of Him, and all He has promised and that has been prophesied about Him will be fulfilled. Is this what you believe? Do you have faith that Jesus is the Savior? Who do you say He is?

24 "For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake, he is the one who will save it.

25 "For what is a man profited if he gains the whole world, and loses or forfeits himself?

26 "For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when He comes in His glory, and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels.

27 "But I say to you truthfully, there are some of those standing here who will not taste death until they see the kingdom of God."

The Transfiguration

28 Some eight days after these sayings, He took along Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray.

29 And while He was praying, the appearance of His face became different, and His clothing became white and gleaming.

30 And behold, two men were talking with Him; and they were Moses and Elijah, 31 who, appearing in glory, were speaking of His departure which He was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 Now Peter and his companions had been overcome with sleep; but when they were fully awake, they saw His glory and the two men standing with Him.

33 And as these were leaving Him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three tabernacles: one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah"—not realizing what he was saying.

34 While he was saying this, a cloud formed and began to overshadow them; and they were afraid as they entered the cloud.

35 Then a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is My Son, My Chosen One; listen to Him!"

36 And when the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent, and reported to no one in those days any of the things which they had seen.

37 On the next day, when they came down from the mountain, a large crowd met Him.

38 And a man from the crowd shouted, saying, "Teacher, I beg You to look at my son, for he is my only boy, 39 and a spirit seizes him, and he suddenly screams, and it throws him into a convulsion with foaming at the mouth; and only with difficulty does it leave him, mauling him as it leaves.

40 "I begged Your disciples to cast it out, and they could not."

41 And Jesus answered and said, "You unbelieving and perverted generation, how long shall I be with you and put up with you? Bring your son here."

42 While he was still approaching, the demon slammed him to the ground and threw him into a convulsion. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy and gave him back to his father.

43 And they were all amazed at the great-

√ ness of God.

But while everyone was marveling at all that He was doing, He said to His disciples, 44 "Let these words sink into your ears; for the Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men."

45 But they did not understand this statement, and it was concealed from them so that they would not perceive it; and they were afraid to ask Him about this statement.

The Test of Greatness

46 An argument started among them as to which of them might be the greatest.

47 But Jesus, knowing what they were thinking in their heart, took a child and stood him by His side,

48 and said to them, "Whoever receives this child in My name receives Me, and whoever receives Me receives Him who sent Me; for the one who is least among all of you, this is the one who is great."

49 John answered and said, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in Your name; and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow along with us."

50 But Jesus said to him, "Do not hinder him; for he who is not against you is for you." 51 When the days were approaching for His ascension, He was determined to go to Jerusalem;

52 and He sent messengers on ahead of Him, and they went and entered a village of Deter, James, and John knew Jesus as a great teacher and son of a carpenter from Nazareth, but here they saw Him as they never dreamed they would—as the glorified Messiah. Also, Elijah and Moses were talking to Him—Moses the greatest of the lawgivers, and Elijah the greatest of the Old Testament prophets. So Jesus was also revealing Himself to be the fulfillment of the Law and the prophets (Matt. 5:17, 18; Luke 24:44–47).

ightarrow 9:43 — They were all amazed at the greatness of God.

The majesty and greatness of God is displayed in many ways. In this case, it was demonstrated in His irresistible power over an unclean spirit. We should always remember, "His sovereignty rules over all" (Ps. 103:19), and He is certainly able to help us, no matter what challenge we face.

the Samaritans to make arrangements for Him.

53 But they did not receive Him, because He was traveling toward Jerusalem.

- 54 When His disciples James and John saw this, they said, "Lord, do You want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?"
- ➤ 55 But He turned and rebuked them, [and said, "You do not know what kind of spirit you are of;
- *56 for the Son of Man did not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them."] And they went on to another village.

Exacting Discipleship

57 As they were going along the road, someone said to Him, "I will follow You wherever You go."

58 And Jesus said to him, "The foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head." 59 And He said to another, "Follow Me." But he said, "Lord, permit me first to go and bury my father."

60 But He said to him, "Allow the dead to bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim everywhere the kingdom of God."

61 Another also said, "I will follow You, Lord; but first permit me to say good-bye to those at home."

62 But Jesus said to him, "No one, after putting his hand to the plow and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God."

The Seventy Sent Out

10 NOW after this the Lord appointed seventy others, and sent them in pairs ahead of Him to every city and place where He Himself was going to come.

- 2 And He was saying to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore beseech the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest.
 - 3 "Go; behold, I send you out as lambs in the midst of wolves.
 - 4 "Carry no money belt, no bag, no shoes; and greet no one on the way.

- 5 "Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house.'
- 6 "If a man of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you.
- 7 "Stay in that house, eating and drinking what they give you; for the laborer is worthy of his wages. Do not keep moving from house to house.
- 8 "Whatever city you enter and they receive you, eat what is set before you;
- 9 and heal those in it who are sick, and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.'
- 10 "But whatever city you enter and they do not receive you, go out into its streets and say,
- 11 'Even the dust of your city which clings to our feet we wipe off in protest against you; yet be sure of this, that the kingdom of God has come near.'
- 12 "I say to you, it will be more tolerable in that day for Sodom than for that city.
- 13 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles had been performed in Tyre and Sidon which occurred in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.
- 14 "But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment than for you.
- 15 "And you, Capernaum, will not be exalted to heaven, will you? You will be brought down to Hades!
- 16 "The one who listens to you listens to Me, and the one who rejects you rejects Me; and he who rejects Me rejects the One who sent Me."

The Happy Results

17 The seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in Your name."

18 And He said to them, "I was watching Satan fall from heaven like lightning.

19 "Behold, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing will injure you.

20 "Nevertheless do not rejoice in this, that ≺ the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are recorded in heaven."

LIFE LESSONS-

> 9:55 — He turned and rebuked them, and said, "You do not know what kind of spirit you are of."

The disciples still did not understand who they really were in Christ. Sometimes we do not act like the new men and women He is transforming us into either. Yet we are new creations all the same, and we must do our best to represent Him with love and mercy so that others will believe and be saved (2 Cor. 5:17–21; 2 Tim. 2:24–26).

> 10:2 — "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore beseech the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest."

The Lord invites us to partner with Him in expanding His kingdom. Even though He is the One who draws people to Himself and redeems them, He still leaves the proclamation of the message to us.

> 10:20 — "Do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are recorded in heaven."

Pe tend to get excited about miracles like curing cancer and casting out demons, but the Lord teaches us that our greatest cause for rejoicing should be our salvation. Evangelism is therefore a more important work than we may imagine (John 14:12).

21 At that very time He rejoiced greatly in the Holy Spirit, and said, "I praise You, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent and have revealed them to infants. Yes, Father, for this way was well-pleasing in Your sight.

22 "All things have been handed over to Me by My Father, and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son, and anyone to whom the Son wills to reveal Him."

23 Turning to the disciples, He said privately, "Blessed are the eyes which see the things you see.

24 for I say to you, that many prophets and kings wished to see the things which you see, and did not see them, and to hear the things which you hear, and did not hear them."

25 And a lawyer stood up and put Him to the test, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

26 And He said to him, "What is written in the Law? How does it read to you?"

27 And he answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself."

28 And He said to him, "You have answered correctly; DO THIS AND YOU WILL LIVE."

29 But wishing to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

The Good Samaritan

30 Jesus replied and said, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among robbers, and they stripped him and beat him, and went away leaving him half dead.

31 "And by chance a priest was going down on that road, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 "Likewise a Levite also, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.

33 "But a Samaritan, who was on a journey, came upon him; and when he saw him, he felt compassion.

34 and came to him and bandaged up his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them; and he put him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn and took care of him.

35 "On the next day he took out two adenarii and gave them to the innkeeper and said, 'Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, when I return I will repay you.'

36 "Which of these three do you think proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell into the robbers' hands?"

into the robbers' hands?"

37 And he said, "The one who showed mercy toward him." Then Jesus said to him, "Go and do the same."

Martha and Mary

38 Now as they were traveling along, He entered a village; and a woman named Martha welcomed Him into her home.

39 She had a sister called Mary, who was seated at the Lord's feet, listening to His word

40 But Martha was distracted with all her preparations; and she came up to Him and said, "Lord, do You not care that my sister has left me to do all the serving alone? Then tell her to help me."

Instruction about Prayer

1 1 IT happened that while Jesus was praying in a certain place, after He had finished, one of His disciples said to Him, "Lord, teach us to pray just as John also taught his disciples."

2 And He said to them, "When you pray, say:

⁶Father, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come.

3 'Give us each day our daily bread.

4 'And forgive us our sins.

For we ourselves also forgive everyone who is indebted to us.

And lead us not into temptation."

5 Then He said to them, "Suppose one of you has a friend, and goes to him at midnight and says to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves:

God created us to enjoy a deep and intimate relationship with Himself. While works of service are important, they must never eclipse the fellowship He wants to experience with each of us.

> 11:1 — "Lord, teach us to pray."

The disciples often saw Jesus off by Himself in prayer. Seeing the power, wisdom, and joy in His life, they asked Him to teach them to pray as He did. They wanted to connect with God in an intimate relationship and experience His awesome presence. Are our lives characterized by our time before the throne of grace? Do we inspire others to communicate with and listen to the Lord?

Pharisees' Blasphemy

Woes upon the Pharisees

God always promises to bless joyful obedience. We delight His heart when we choose to rely on the power of the Holy Spirit to do what He commands us to do.

LIFE PRINCIPLE 21

OBEDIENCE ALWAYS BRINGS BLESSING.

LUKE 11:28

he Lord's simple requests often serve as stepping-stones to life's most wonderful blessings. Simon Peter illustrates what can happen when we say yes to God.

One day a large crowd pressed around Jesus while He preached (Luke 5:1–11). The Lord wanted to use Peter's boat as a floating platform from which to address the multitude, so He asked the future apostle to push the vessel out a little way from shore (v. 3)—not in itself a particularly remarkable request. But Peter's compliance to His request paved the way for a life-changing blessing. From his example, we also learn how essential it is to obey God in even the smallest matters.

The noisy crowd received the first blessing of Peter's obedience; the people could now clearly hear Jesus' words. At the conclusion of the lesson, the Lord said to Peter, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch" (5:4)—a second opportunity to say yes or no. But this time, Peter may have felt tempted to decline. After all, he was a seasoned fisherman. He had worked the entire night for a catch but had returned empty-handed. Now this young teacher—a carpenter, by the way, not a fisherman—was asking him to go fishing again?

Peter's reply demonstrates the beginning of a lifetime of faith in God. He said, "Master, we worked hard all night and caught nothing, but I will do as You say and let down the nets" (5:5, emphasis added). The soon-to-be disciple chose to obey the Lord and to leave the consequences of his decision to Him.

But notice what happened as a result of Peter's obedience—Jesus demonstrated His power and sovereignty. Peter and his partners may have started the day off thinking their efforts had yielded nothing. But they ended it in complete amazement because they pulled in not one but two overflowing boatloads of fish (5:7). Saying yes to the Lord's request resulted in a miracle that transformed not only one fisherman's life, but the lives of the entire group.

Consider three reasons why obedience is critical to the successful Christian life:

 Obeying God in small matters is an essential step in receiving God's greatest blessings.

Suppose Peter had said, "Look, I'm busy cleaning my nets right now. I can't help You because I'm going fishing again tonight." Or he could have said, "Why don't You ask to use that other boat, over there?" Or, "I've already been fishing today; it would be a waste of time to go again." If Peter had said anything other than yes, he would have missed the greatest fishing experience of his life. But because of Peter's obedience, the Lord arranged a miracle that he would never forget.

Our obedience always benefits others.

Often, God's greatest blessings come as a result of our willingness to do something that appears very insignificant. So ask yourself, "Has God been challenging me to do something seemingly unimportant that I have not yet made an effort to accomplish? Is there anything I have rationalized by saying, 'It's too difficult,' 'I don't want to,' or 'I have to pray about it first'"?

2. Our obedience always benefits others.

Think of how many people were blessed by Peter's obedience. Not only could the crowd see the Lord and hear His lesson, but Jesus Himself also benefited—preaching from the boat enabled him to sit down in comfort while He spoke (5:3). Then, of course, Peter's friends had a very profitable day—they took in two vessels so full of fish that both began to sink. More importantly, they had the opportunity to witness the Lord's supernatural provision.

God often rewards others—in particular, those closest to us—as a result of our obedience. For example, when a father obeys the Lord, his entire family reaps the God's ways will never disappoint us. reward of God's blessings. Likewise, a child's obedience will bless his or her parents. This does not mean that those who choose to disobey the Lord will escape His discipline because of someone else's godly walk. His call to obedience always demands our response. However, when we live obedient lives, those who know and love us will sense the peace and joy He has given us. Instead of conflict, there will be contentment—and that is just one part of experiencing God's goodness.

3. When we obey God, we will never be disappointed.

Peter no doubt assumed that Jesus' fishing instructions would amount to a waste of time. But when he complied with the Lord's simple request, Christ brought about a miracle that gripped the disciple with amazement. Jesus turned an empty boat into a full one. We, like Peter, must recognize that obeying God is always the wisest course of action. He can also take our emptiness—whether related to finances, relationships, or career—and change it into something splendid.

Perhaps you have hesitated to obey God because you fear the consequences of your decision. But the Lord's command is for you to fear Him above all else. The same sovereign, omnipotent God who keeps your heart beating and the planets orbiting is more than able to handle the results of your obedience. When He tells you to do something and you know without a doubt it is His will, then you need to obey based solely on who is doing the talking.

When you choose to obey the Lord, He will bless you. This is because obedience al-ways leads to blessing. I have always told people who say they do not understand why God is asking them to do a certain thing that if they will obey Him, He will reward them with a sense of peace and joy that compares to nothing this world has to offer. Therefore, set a goal to obey the Lord and watch Him work in your life.

38 When the Pharisee saw it, he was surprised that He had not first ceremonially washed before the meal.

39 But the Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and of the platter; but inside of you, you are full of robbery and wickedness.

40 "You foolish ones, did not He who made the outside make the inside also?

41 "But give that which is within as charity, and then all things are clean for you.

42 "But woe to you Pharisees! For you pay tithe of mint and rue and every kind of garden herb, and yet disregard justice and the love of God; but these are the things you should have done without neglecting the others.

43 "Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the chief seats in the synagogues and the respectful greetings in the market places.

➤ 44 "Woe to you! For you are like concealed tombs, and the people who walk over them are unaware of it."

▶ 45 One of the alawyers *said to Him in reply, "Teacher, when You say this, You insult us too." 46 But He said, "Woe to you lawyers as well! For you weigh men down with burdens hard to bear, while you yourselves will not even touch the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 "Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and it was your fathers who killed them.

48 "So you are witnesses and approve the deeds of your fathers; because it was they who killed them, and you build their tombs.

49 "For this reason also the wisdom of God said, 'I will send to them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and some they will persecute,

50 so that the blood of all the prophets, shed since the foundation of the world, may be charged against this generation,

51 from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who was killed between the altar and the house of God; yes, I tell you, it shall be charged against this generation.'

52 "Woe to you lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge; you yourselves did not enter, and you hindered those who were entering."

53 When He left there, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be very hostile and to question Him closely on many subjects, 54 plotting against Him to catch Him in something He might say.

God Knows and Cares

12 UNDER these circumstances, after so many thousands of people had gathered together that they were stepping on one another, He began saying to His disciples first of all, "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

2 "But there is nothing covered up that will not be revealed, and hidden that will not be known.

3 "Accordingly, whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have whispered in the inner rooms will be proclaimed upon the housetops.

4 "I say to you, My friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body and after that have no more that they can do.

5 "But I will warn you whom to fear: fear the One who, after He has killed, has authority to cast into hell; yes, I tell you, fear Him!

6 "Are not five sparrows sold for two cents? Yet not one of them is forgotten before God.

7 "Indeed, the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Do not fear; you are more valuable than many sparrows.

8 "And I say to you, everyone who confesses Me before men, the Son of Man will confess him also before the angels of God;

Mow were the scribes and Pharisees like unmarked graves? Because just as touching the dead defiled a person, so their teachings were causing people to remain unclean. These religious leaders emphasized legalistic compliance to religious dogma and manmade traditions instead of encouraging people to genuinely submit to the Lord. Consequently, they were leading people to eternal separation from Him instead of showing them how to be saved. "They have a zeal for God, but not in accordance with knowledge . . . They did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God" (Rom. 10:2, 3).

> 11:45 — "Teacher, when You say this, You insult us too."

In hearing the rebuke to the Pharisees, the lawyers were convicted about their own sins of hypocrisy and leading people astray. This upset them. Although Jesus knew how to answer tough questions in a manner that delighted His hearers, He did not neglect the truth to remain popular. He never shrank from rebuking those who needed it in the hope that they would repent and be saved.

> 12:6 — "Are not five sparrows sold for two cents? Yet not one of them is forgotten before God."

The Lord remembers even the sparrows that end up for sale at the market and knows their plight. So you never have to worry that He has forgotten you. He knows your situation and how best to deliver you from your troubles. Trust Him.

him; but he who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him.

11 "When they bring you before the synagogues and the rulers and the authorities, do not worry about how or what you are to speak in your defense, or what you are to say; 12 for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you ought to say."

Covetousness Denounced

- 13 Someone in the crowd said to Him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me."
- 14 But He said to him, "Man, who appointed Me a judge or arbitrator over you?"
- ➤ 15 Then He said to them, "Beware, and be on your guard against every form of greed; for not even when one has an abundance does his life consist of his possessions."
 - 16 And He told them a parable, saying, "The land of a rich man was very productive.
 - 17 "And he began reasoning to himself, saying, 'What shall I do, since I have no place to store my crops?'
 - 18 "Then he said, 'This is what I will do: I will tear down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods.
 - 19 'And I will say to my soul, "Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years to come; take your ease, eat, drink and be merry."
 - 20 "But God said to him, 'You foo!! This very night your soul is required of you; and now who will own what you have prepared?'
 - 21 "So is the man who stores up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."
 - 22 And He said to His disciples, "For this reason I say to you, do not worry about your life, as to what you will eat; nor for your body, as to what you will put on.
 - 23 "For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing.
 - 24 "Consider the ravens, for they neither sow nor reap; they have no storeroom nor barn, and yet God feeds them; how much more valuable you are than the birds!
 - 25 "And which of you by worrying can add a single ahour to his blife's span?
 - 26 "If then you cannot do even a very little thing, why do you worry about other matters? 27 "Consider the lilies, how they grow: they

- neither toil nor spin; but I tell you, not even Solomon in all his glory clothed himself like one of these.
- 28 "But if God so clothes the grass in the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, how much more will He clothe you? You men of little faith!
- 29 "And do not seek what you will eat and what you will drink, and do not keep worrying.
- 30 "For all these things the nations of the world eagerly seek; but your Father knows that you need these things.
- 31 "But seek His kingdom, and these things will be added to you.
- 32 "Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father has chosen gladly to give you the kingdom.
- 33 "Sell your possessions and give to charity; make yourselves money belts which do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near nor moth destroys. 34 "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Be in Readiness

- 35 "Be dressed in readiness, and keep your lamps lit.
- 36 "Be like men who are waiting for their master when he returns from the wedding feast, so that they may immediately open the door to him when he comes and knocks.
- 37 "Blessed are those slaves whom the master will find on the alert when he comes; truly I say to you, that he will gird himself to serve, and have them recline at the table, and will come up and wait on them.
- 38 "Whether he comes in the 'second watch, or even in the 'third, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.
- 39 "But be sure of this, that if the head of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have allowed his house to be broken into.
- 40 "You too, be ready; for the Son of Man is coming at an hour that you do not expect."

Christ Divides Men

49 "I have come to cast fire upon the earth; and how I wish it were already kindled!

50 "But I have a baptism to undergo, and how distressed I am until it is accomplished! 51 "Do you suppose that I came to grant peace on earth? I tell you, no, but rather division:

52 for from now on five members in one household will be divided, three against two and two against three.

53 "They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law."

54 And He was also saying to the crowds, "When you see a cloud rising in the west, immediately you say, 'A shower is coming,' and so it turns out.

55 "And when you see a south wind blowing, you say, 'It will be a hot day,' and it turns out that way."

56 "You hypocrites! You know how to analyze the appearance of the earth and the sky, but why do you not analyze this present time?

57 "And why do you not even on your own initiative judge what is right?

58 "For while you are going with your opponent to appear before the magistrate, on your way there make an effort to settle with him, so that he may not drag you before the judge, and the judge turn you over to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison.

59 "I say to you, you will not get out of there until you have paid the very last cent."

Call to Repent

 13^{NOW} on the same occasion there were some present who reported to Him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices.

4 "Or do you suppose that those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them were worse culprits than all the men who live in Jerusalem?

5 "I tell you, no, but unless you repent, you will all likewise perish."

6 And He began telling this parable: "A man had a fig tree which had been planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it and did not find any.

7 "And he said to the vineyard-keeper, 'Behold, for three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree without finding any. Cut it down! Why does it even use up the ground?'

8 "And he answered and said to him, 'Let it alone, sir, for this year too, until I dig around it and put in fertilizer;

9 and if it bears fruit next year, fine; but if not, cut it down."

gesus does not give us gifts, talents, and resources merely to spend them on ourselves. He gives them to us so that we will use them to expand His kingdom and to meet the needs of others—especially fellow believers (1 Cor. 12:4–7; Gal. 6:9, 10).

> 13:3 — "I tell you, no, but unless you repent, you will all likewise perish."

The victims of tragedies are not necessarily the recipients of divine judgment. Yet because we live in a dangerous world where tragedies occur without warning, we must always be ready to meet our God (Heb. 9:27).

- 12 When Jesus saw her, He called her over and said to her, "Woman, you are freed from your sickness."
- 13 And He laid His hands on her; and immediately she was made erect again and began glorifying God.
- 14 But the synagogue official, indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, began saying to the crowd in response, "There are six days in which work should be done; so come during them and get healed, and not on the Sabbath day."

Parables of Mustard Seed and Leaven

- 18 So He was saying, "What is the kingdom of God like, and to what shall I compare it?
- 19 "It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and threw into his own garden; and it grew and became a tree, and the BIRDS OF THE AIR NESTED IN ITS BRANCHES."
- 20 And again He said, "To what shall I compare the kingdom of God?
- 21 "It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three pecks of flour until it was all leavened."

Teaching in the Villages

- 22 And He was passing through from one city and village to another, teaching, and proceeding on His way to Jerusalem.
- 23 And someone said to Him, "Lord, are there just a few who are being saved?" And He said to them,
- 24 "Strive to enter through the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able.
 - 25 "Once the head of the house gets up and shuts the door, and you begin to stand outside and knock on the door, saying, 'Lord, open up to us!' then He will answer and say to you, 'I do not know where you are from.'

- 26 "Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in Your presence, and You taught in our streets':
- 27 and He will say, 'I tell you, I do not know where you are from; DEPART FROM ME, ALL YOU EVILDOERS.'
- 28 "In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but yourselves being thrown out.
- 29 "And they will come from east and west and from north and south, and will recline at the table in the kingdom of God.
- 30 "And behold, some are last who will be first and some are first who will be last."
- 31 Just at that time some Pharisees approached, saying to Him, "Go away, leave here, for Herod wants to kill You."
- 32 And He said to them, "Go and tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I reach My goal.'
- 33 "Nevertheless I must journey on today and tomorrow and the next day; for it cannot be that a prophet would perish outside of Jerusalem.
- 34 "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, just as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you would not have it!

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath

- 14 IT happened that when He went into the house of one of the leaders of the Pharisees on the Sabbath to eat bread, they were watching Him closely.
- 2 And there in front of Him was a man suffering from dropsy.

Tot all roads lead to the Lord. Only one does, and that is through Jesus Christ. It's not that the one true God is exclusive. In fact, He is completely inclusive. Jesus said in John 12:32, "I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to Myself." He offers salvation to everyone and would never turn away someone who put his or her faith in Him (Rom. 10:9–13). Jesus is the only door to heaven and the only way for us to know the Father (John 10:7; 14:6; Acts 4:12), but absolutely everyone has the opportunity to experience His wonderful grace.

5 And He said to them, "Which one of you will have a son or an ox fall into a well, and will not immediately pull him out on a Sabbath day?"

6 And they could make no reply to this.

Parable of the Guests

7 And He began speaking a parable to the invited guests when He noticed how they had been picking out the places of honor at the table, saying to them,

8 "When you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not take the place of honor, for someone more distinguished than you may have been invited by him,

9 and he who invited you both will come and say to you, 'Give your place to this man,' and then in disgrace you proceed to occupy the last place.

- 10 "But when you are invited, go and recline at the last place, so that when the one who has invited you comes, he may say to you, 'Friend, move up higher'; then you will have honor in the sight of all who are at the table with you.
- 11 "For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."
- 12 And He also went on to say to the one who had invited Him, "When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, otherwise they may also invite you in return and that will be your repayment.

13 "But when you give a reception, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, 14 and you will be blessed, since they do not have the means to repay you; for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

15 When one of those who were reclining at the table with Him heard this, he said to Him, "Blessed is everyone who will eat bread in the kingdom of God!"

Parable of the Dinner

16 But He said to him, "A man was giving a big dinner, and he invited many;

17 and at the dinner hour he sent his slave to say to those who had been invited, 'Come; for everything is ready now.'

18 "But they all alike began to make excuses. The first one said to him, 'I have bought a piece of land and I need to go out and look at it; please consider me excused.'

19 "Another one said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to try them out; please consider me excused.'

20 "Another one said, 'I have married a wife, and for that reason I cannot come.'

- 21 "And the slave came back and reported this to his master. Then the head of the household became angry and said to his slave, 'Go out at once into the streets and lanes of the city and bring in here the poor and crippled and blind and lame.'
- 22 "And the slave said, 'Master, what you commanded has been done, and still there is room.'
- 23 "And the master said to the slave, 'Go out < into the highways and along the hedges, and compel them to come in, so that my house may be filled.

24 'For I tell you, none of those men who were invited shall taste of my dinner.'"

Discipleship Tested

25 Now large crowds were going along with Him; and He turned and said to them, 26 "If anyone comes to Me, and does not ∢ ahate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be My disciple.

27 "Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple.

- 28 "For which one of you, when he wants to build a tower, does not first sit down and calculate the cost to see if he has enough to complete it?

The Lost Sheep

15 NOW all the tax collectors and the sinners were coming near Him to listen to Him.

- 2 Both the Pharisees and the scribes began to grumble, saying, "This man receives sinners and eats with them."
- 3 So He told them this parable, saying,
- 4 "What man among you, if he has a hundred sheep and has lost one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the open pasture and go after the one which is lost until he finds it?
- 5 "When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing.
- ➤ 6 "And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost!'
- *7 "I tell you that in the same way, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

The Lost Coin

- 8 "Or what woman, if she has ten silver coins and loses one coin, does not light a lamp and sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it?
- 9 "When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin which I had lost!'
- ➤ 10 "In the same way, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

The Prodigal Son

- 11 And He said, "A man had two sons.
- 12 "The younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of the estate that falls to me.' So he divided his wealth between them.
- 13 "And not many days later, the younger son gathered everything together and went on a journey into a distant country, and there he squandered his estate with loose living.
- 14 "Now when he had spent everything, a severe famine occurred in that country, and he began to be impoverished.
- 15 "So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.
- 16 "And he would have gladly filled his stomach with the pods that the swine were eating, and no one was giving anything to him.
- 17 "But when he came to his senses, he said, 'How many of my father's hired men have more than enough bread, but I am dying here with hunger!
- 18 'I will get up and go to my father, and will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight;
- 19 I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me as one of your hired men."
- 20 "So he got up and came to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and felt compassion for him, and ran and embraced him and kissed him.
- 21 "And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'
- 22 "But the father said to his slaves, 'Quickly bring out the best robe and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet; 23 and bring the fattened calf, kill it, and let us eat and celebrate;
- 24 for this son of mine was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found.' And they began to celebrate.
- 25 "Now his older son was in the field, and when he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing.
- 26 "And he summoned one of the servants and began inquiring what these things could be.
- 27 "And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened $16^{\rm NOW}$ He was also saying to the disciples, "There was a rich man who had a manager, and this manager was reported to him as squandering his possessions.

The Unrighteous Steward

2 "And he called him and said to him, 'What is this I hear about you? Give an accounting of your management, for you can no longer be manager.'

3 "The manager said to himself, 'What shall I do, since my master is taking the management away from me? I am not strong enough to dig; I am ashamed to beg.

4 'I know what I shall do, so that when I am removed from the management people will welcome me into their homes.'

5 "And he summoned each one of his master's debtors, and he began saying to the first, 'How much do you owe my master?'

6 "And he said, 'A hundred measures of oil.' And he said to him, 'Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.'

7 "Then he said to another, 'And how much do you owe?' And he said, 'A hundred measures of wheat.' He *said to him, 'Take your bill, and write eighty.'

8 "And his master praised the unrighteous manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the sons of this age are more shrewd in relation to their own kind than the sons of light.

9 "And I say to you, make friends for yourselves by means of the awealth of unrighteousness, so that when it fails, they will receive you into the eternal dwellings.

10 "He who is faithful in a very little thing is ≤ faithful also in much; and he who is unrighteous in a very little thing is unrighteous also in much.

11 "Therefore if you have not been faithful in the use of unrighteous wealth, who will entrust the true riches to you?

12 "And if you have not been faithful in the use of that which is another's, who will give you that which is your own?

13 "No servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth."

14 Now the Pharisees, who were lovers of money, were listening to all these things and were scoffing at Him.

15 And He said to them, "You are those who justify yourselves in the sight of men, but God knows your hearts; for that which is highly esteemed among men is detestable in the sight of God.

16 "The Law and the Prophets were proclaimed until John; since that time the gospel of the kingdom of God has been preached, and everyone is forcing his way into it.

By giving the son a ring, sandals, and a robe, the father restored the young man to his position in the family. Likewise, when we accept Jesus as our Lord and Savior, our relationship with Him is completely restored and we are given "the Holy Spirit of promise . . . as a pledge of our inheritance" (Eph. 1:13, 14). We are irrevocably adopted into His family, which brings gladness and joy, both for us and for the Lord for all eternity.

➤ 16:10 — "He who is faithful in a very little thing is faithful also in much; and he who is unrighteous in a very little thing is unrighteous also in much." Outwardly, the Pharisees were the picture of religious piety—observing every ritual and faithfully complying with each regulation. They pointed to their wealth as evidence of the Lord's blessing. Yet they did these things to honor themselves, not God—and the Lord condemned their actions. There is nothing wrong with being successful; the problem arises in how we try to go about it. God says that to be great in the kingdom of heaven we must humbly serve others and glorify Him—not flaunt how great we are.

- 26 'And besides all this, between us and you there is a great chasm fixed, so that those who wish to come over from here to you will not be able, and that none may cross over from there to us.'
- 27 "And he said, 'Then I beg you, father, that you send him to my father's house—17HE said to His disciples, "It is inevitable that stumbling blocks come, but woe to him through whom they come!

Instructions

- 2 "It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck and he were thrown into the sea, than that he would cause one of these little ones to stumble.
- 3 "Be on your guard! If your brother sins, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him.
- 4 "And if he sins against you seven times a ≺ day, and returns to you seven times, saying, 'I repent,' forgive him."
- 5 The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase \triangleleft our faith!"
- 6 And the Lord said, "If you had faith like a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and be planted in the sea'; and it would obey you.

- 8 "But will he not say to him, 'Prepare something for me to eat, and properly clothe yourself and serve me while I eat and drink; and afterward you may eat and drink'?
- 9 "He does not thank the slave because he did the things which were commanded, does he?

> 16:31 — "If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, they will not be persuaded even if someone rises from the dead."

God did many wonders through Moses and the prophets and spoke through them about the Messiah, warned His people about judgment, and admonished them to take care of the poor. If the rich man's brothers would not heed their instruction, how could a miracle change their minds? Likewise, Jesus performed all kinds of miracles—including raising people from the dead (Luke 7:12–15; 8:49–55; John 11:1–44)—and His enemies still crucified Him. Even when He was raised from the dead on the third day, the religious leaders still refused to believe in Him.

> 17:4 — "If he sins against you seven times a day, and returns to you seven times, saying, 'I repent,' forgive him."

Gesus is not encouraging irresponsible behavior on the part of the offender, but merciful and gracious behavior on the part of the person who has been wronged. "Just as the Lord forgave you, so also should you" (Col. 3:13).

> 17:5 — The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!"

Pe do not need more faith to comply with the Lord's instructions, but genuine faith. It's not the amount that matters—even a mustard seed of faith will do. However, it must be based completely on the Lord's ability, not our own. The almighty power of God can work in an amazing way through a willing vessel (2 Cor. 4:7).

> 17:10 — "When you do all the things which are commanded you, say, "We are unworthy slaves; we have done only that which we ought to have done."

Gesus does not want us to grow proud over the things He enables us to accomplish by His Spirit. So Paul writes, "If I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast of, for I am under compulsion" (1 Cor. 9:16). Ten Lepers Cleansed

- 11 While He was on the way to Jerusalem, He was passing between Samaria and Galilee.
- 12 As He entered a village, ten leprous men who stood at a distance met Him;
- 13 and they raised their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"
- 14 When He saw them, He said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they were going, they were cleansed.
- 15 Now one of them, when he saw that he had been healed, turned back, glorifying God with a loud voice,
- 16 and he fell on his face at His feet, giving thanks to Him. And he was a Samaritan.
- 17 Then Jesus answered and said, "Were there not ten cleansed? But the nine—where are they?
- ➤ 18 "Was no one found who returned to give glory to God, except this foreigner?"
 - 19 And He said to him, "Stand up and go; your faith ahas made you well."
 - 20 Now having been questioned by the Pharisees as to when the kingdom of God was coming, He answered them and said, "The kingdom of God is not coming with signs to be observed:
 - 21 nor will they say, 'Look, here it is!' or, 'There it is!' For behold, the kingdom of God is in your midst."

Second Coming Foretold

- 22 And He said to the disciples, "The days will come when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it.
- 23 "They will say to you, 'Look there! Look here!' Do not go away, and do not run after them.
- 24 "For just like the lightning, when it flashes out of one part of the sky, shines to the other part of the sky, so will the Son of Man be in His day.
- 25 "But first He must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.
- 26 "And just as it happened in the days of Noah, so it will be also in the days of the Son of Man:
- 27 they were eating, they were drinking, they were marrying, they were being given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all.

- 28 "It was the same as happened in the days of Lot: they were eating, they were drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, they were building;
- 29 but on the day that Lot went out from Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all.
- 30 "It will be just the same on the day that the Son of Man is revealed.
- 31 "On that day, the one who is on the housetop and whose goods are in the house must not go down to take them out; and likewise the one who is in the field must not turn back. 32 "Remember Lot's wife.
- 33 "Whoever seeks to keep his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life will preserve it.
- 34 "I tell you, on that night there will be two in one bed; one will be taken and the other will be left.
- 35 "There will be two women grinding at the same place; one will be taken and the other will be left

> 17:18 — "Was no one found who returned to give glory to God, except this foreigner?"

Often, the most unlikely people are the ones who obey God and give Him glory. The Lord always accepts their praise and frequently uses them as the examples of a righteous heart.

> 18:1 — He was telling them a parable to show that at all times they ought to pray and not to lose heart.

There may be many reasons why God does not answer our prayers quickly, but until He lets us know that we should stop praying about something, He calls us to persevere in faith and keep asking.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT GROWING IN OUR FAITH

Luke 18:1-8

n Matthew 14, we read how the disciples were caught in a frightful situation. A storm swept in suddenly, and the threat of physical harm became very real. Just as they became convinced that they were about to be swamped by the raging sea, Peter looked out and saw what he thought was a ghost walking toward their boat. But it was not a ghost. It was Jesus. So the overzealous disciple called out to Him asking the Lord to bid him to come to Him.

Thus began a vital chapter in Peter's chronicle of faith. He climbed out of the boat and started walking toward the Savior. Unfortunately, before the disciple reached his destination, the thunderous, buffeting waves took his attention away from the Savior. He froze in fear and immediately began to sink.

There are a couple of things that we can say about Peter's quest that are very positive. First, he got out of the boat and began walking to Jesus while the others stayed put. Second, when he began to sink, he cried out to the Lord. Peter immediately understood the situation was too grave for him and that he needed Jesus.

So the Lord reached out to him and pulled him to safety. Then He asked Peter,

God desires that we develop great faith.

"You of little faith, why did you doubt?" (Matt. 14:31). Jesus was not scolding Peter as much as He was teaching the disciple that faith and trust in Him were all he needed to reach his goal. The same is true for us.

Have you ever thought about the fact that the way you grow in your faith is by facing challenges and trials? The fact is: this is probably when we grow the most in our walk with Christ. A need arises and there is no way we can fill the void, solve the problem, or decrease the pain. We struggle, fight, and finally call out to the one Person who knows us fully and loves us unconditionally.

We also grow in faith when we learn to listen to and submit to God's voice. As long as we are chattering and proclaiming our ability, we will never be able to discern His words of hope, direction, correction, and encouragement. The Lord is always speaking to us, but if we aren't hearing from and obeying Him, it's impossible for us to grow in faith.

Peter did the right things: He saw Jesus and he got out of the boat. He wanted to trust the Savior, but his faith was not sufficiently developed. For faith to increase requires our consistency, endurance, and watchfulness. We must continue to stand firm in what we believe. When we do, God will provide the strength and hope to persevere. Therefore, persevere in believing what He says to you. Obey and endure because you will certainly see the fulfillment of all His promises.

for them quickly. However, when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?"

The Pharisee and the Publican

- 9 And He also told this parable to some people who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and viewed others with contempt:
- 10 "Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.
- 11 "The Pharisee stood and was praying this to himself: 'God, I thank You that I am not like other people: swindlers, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector.
- 12 'I fast twice a week; I pay tithes of all that I get.'
- 13 "But the tax collector, standing some distance away, was even unwilling to lift up his eyes to heaven, but was beating his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me, the sinner!'
- 14 "I tell you, this man went to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted."
- 15 And they were bringing even their babies to Him so that He would touch them, but when the disciples saw it, they began rebuking them.
- 16 But Jesus called for them, saying, "Permit the children to come to Me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.
- * 17 "Truly I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it at all."

The Rich Young Ruler

- 18 A ruler questioned Him, saying, "Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"
- 19 And Jesus said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good except God alone.
- 20 "You know the commandments, 'Do not commit adultery, Do not murder, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor your father and mother.'"
- 21 And he said, "All these things I have kept from my youth."
- 22 When Jesus heard this, He said to him, "One thing you still lack; sell all that you possess and distribute it to the poor, and you shall have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me."

- 23 But when he had heard these things, he became very sad, for he was extremely rich.
- 24 And Jesus looked at him and said, "How hard it is for those who are wealthy to enter the kingdom of God!
- 25 "For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."
- 26 They who heard it said, "Then who can be saved?"
- 27 But He said, "The things that are impossible with people are possible with God."
- 28 Peter said, "Behold, we have left our own homes and followed You."
- 29 And He said to them, "Truly I say to you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God,
- 30 who will not receive many times as much at this time and in the age to come, eternal life."
- 31 Then He took the twelve aside and said to them, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all things which are written through the prophets about the Son of Man will be accomplished.
- 32 "For He will be handed over to the Gentiles, and will be mocked and mistreated and spit upon,
- 33 and after they have scourged Him, they will kill Him; and the third day He will rise again."
- 34 But the disciples understood none of \lt these things, and the meaning of this statement was hidden from them, and they did not comprehend the things that were said.

Bartimaeus Receives Sight

- 35 As Jesus was approaching Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the road begging.
- 36 Now hearing a crowd going by, he began to inquire what this was.
- 37 They told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by.
- 38 And he called out, saying, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"
- 39 Those who led the way were sternly telling him to be quiet; but he kept crying out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"
- 40 And Jesus stopped and commanded that he be brought to Him; and when he came near, He questioned him,
- 41 "What do you want Me to do for you?"

> 18:34 — The disciples understood none of these things, and the meaning of this statement was hidden from them.

Why did the disciples so frequently misunderstand Jesus' words? Can we blame faulty expectations, disobedience, or some other cause? Luke says the truth was hidden from them, and they did not understand what Jesus meant until after He rose from the grave (Luke 24:13–49). Thankfully, we now have the Holy Spirit to help us understand how He is directing us (John 14:26; 16:13–15; James 1:5).

And he said, "Lord, I want to regain my sight!"

42 And Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight; your faith has made you well."

43 Immediately he regained his sight and began following Him, glorifying God; and when all the people saw it, they gave praise to God.

Zaccheus Converted

- 19^{HE} entered Jericho and was passing through.
- 2 And there was a man called by the name of Zaccheus; he was a chief tax collector and he was rich.
- 3 Zaccheus was trying to see who Jesus was, and was unable because of the crowd, for he was small in stature.
- 4 So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree in order to see Him, for He was about to pass through that way.
- 5 When Jesus came to the place, He looked up and said to him, "Zaccheus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house."
- 6 And he hurried and came down and received Him gladly.
- 7 When they saw it, they all began to grumble, saying, "He has gone to be the guest of a man who is a sinner."
- 8 Zaccheus stopped and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, half of my possessions I will give to the poor, and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will give back four times as much."
- 9 And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he, too, is a son of Abraham.
- > 10 "For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost."

Parable of Money Usage

- 11 While they were listening to these things, Jesus went on to tell a parable, because He was near Jerusalem, and they supposed that the kingdom of God was going to appear immediately.
- ➤ 12 So He said, "A nobleman went to a distant country to receive a kingdom for himself, and then return.

- 13 "And he called ten of his slaves, and gave them ten aminas and said to them, 'Do business with this until I come back.'
- 14 "But his citizens hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, 'We do not want this man to reign over us.'
- 15 "When he returned, after receiving the kingdom, he ordered that these slaves, to whom he had given the money, be called to him so that he might know what business they had done.
- 16 "The first appeared, saying, 'Master, your mina has made ten minas more.'
- 17 "And he said to him, 'Well done, good slave, because you have been faithful in a very little thing, you are to be in authority over ten cities.'
- 18 "The second came, saying, 'Your mina, master, has made five minas.'
- 19 "And he said to him also, 'And you are to be over five cities.'
- 20 "Another came, saying, 'Master, here is your mina, which I kept put away in a hand-kerchief:
- 21 for I was afraid of you, because you are an exacting man; you take up what you did not lay down and reap what you did not sow.'
- 22 "He *said to him, 'By your own words I will judge you, you worthless slave. Did you know that I am an exacting man, taking up what I did not lay down and reaping what I did not sow?
- 23 'Then why did you not put my money in the bank, and having come, I would have collected it with interest?'
- 24 "Then he said to the bystanders, 'Take the mina away from him and give it to the one who has the ten minas.'
- 25 "And they said to him, 'Master, he has ten minas already.'
- 26 "I tell you that to everyone who has, more shall be given, but from the one who does not have, even what he does have shall be taken away.
- 27 "But these enemies of mine, who did not want me to reign over them, bring them here and slay them in my presence."

LIFE LESSONS-

> 19:10 — "The Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost."

The Lord does not merely provide us with an example of godly living, but makes it possible for us to enjoy an intimate relationship with Himself. All of us "have sinned and fall short of the glory of God" (Rom. 3:23), which means that we are all lost. Yet Christ came to earth to save us (John 3:16–18). He did for us what we could never do on our own (Rom. 5:1. 2).

> 19:12 — "A nobleman went to a distant country to receive a kingdom for himself, and then return."

Jesus gave a few clues like this one to indicate that He might not return to earth physically for a long time after His ascension. Until He comes again in His glory (Luke 17:24), we are to continue to faithfully do His work in the power of His Spirit—who is always with us (John 9:4; 14:16, 17, 26; 16:13, 14).

ZACCHEUS

A Life That Counts

LUKE 19:1-10

It wasn't easy being one of the most hated (and shortest) men in the city, but Zaccheus the tax collector had learned to handle it. His life was characterized by dishonesty and greed. He had not only collected taxes from the people of his hometown, he had also added an extra tariff for himself. He also had learned to overcome obstacles in unorthodox ways—which may be how he ended up in a tree trying to get a glimpse of the Messiah as He passed by.

Jesus knew who he was. He also knew that though Zaccheus had wealth, his life was void of peace, joy, and contentment. So when He saw him peering down from the tree, the Lord said, "Zaccheus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house" (Luke 19:5). Within moments, the despised tax collector climbed down from his perch and walked with the Savior to his home.

Have you ever considered how God is willing to meet you right where you are? All He wants you to do is to admit your need for Him. He wants you to do what this man did—turn your life over to Him.

After meeting Jesus, Zaccheus stopped cheating the people and promised to restore four times all he had taken. He eagerly surrendered everything he had to Christ. For all his shortcomings, Zaccheus realized that following the Savior was the only way to true meaning and purpose. He had spent many lonely nights counting money. But from this point on, he wanted his life to count for the kingdom of God.

Triumphal Entry

28 After He had said these things, He was going on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

29 When He approached Bethphage and Bethany, near the mount that is called Olivet, He sent two of the disciples, 30 saying, "Go into the village ahead of you; there, as you enter, you will find a colt tied on which no one yet has ever sat; untie it and bring it here.

31 "If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' you shall say, 'The Lord has need of it.'"

32 So those who were sent went away and found it just as He had told them.

33 As they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?" 34 They said, "The Lord has need of it."

35 They brought it to Jesus, and they threw their coats on the colt and put Jesus on it.

36 As He was going, they were spreading their coats on the road.

37 As soon as He was approaching, near the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole crowd of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the miracles which they had seen,

38 shouting:

"Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord;

Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!"

39 Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to Him, "Teacher, rebuke Your disciples."

40 But Jesus answered, "I tell you, if these become silent, the stones will cry out!"

41 When He approached Jerusalem, He saw the city and wept over it, 42 saying, "If you had known in this day, even you, the things which make for peace! But now they have been hidden from your eyes.

43 "For the days will come upon you when your enemies will throw up a barricade against you, and surround you and hem you in on every side.

44 and they will level you to the ground and √ your children within you, and they will not leave in you one stone upon another, because you did not recognize the time of your visitation."

Traders Driven from the Temple

45 Jesus entered the temple and began to drive out those who were selling,

46 saying to them, "It is written, 'And My House shall be a house of prayer,' but you have made it a robbers' den."

LIFE LESSONS

> 19:44 — "You did not recognize the time of your visitation."

How is it that the vast majority of people alive in Jesus' day did not realize that they were in the presence of God in the flesh? More to the point, do we realize it when the Lord is doing something special in our midst?

- 47 And He was teaching daily in the temple; but the chief priests and the scribes and the leading men among the people were trying to destroy Him,
- 48 and they could not find anything that they might do, for all the people were hanging on to every word He said.

Jesus' Authority Ouestioned

- 20^{ON} one of the days while He was teaching the people in the temple and preaching the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes with the elders confronted Him ,
- 2 and they spoke, saying to Him, "Tell us by what authority You are doing these things, or who is the one who gave You this authority?"
- 3 Jesus answered and said to them, "I will also ask you a question, and you tell Me:
- 4 "Was the baptism of John from heaven or from men?"
- 5 They reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say, 'Why did you not believe him?'
- 6 "But if we say, 'From men,' all the people will stone us to death, for they are convinced that John was a prophet."
- 7 So they answered that they did not know where it came from.
- 8 And Jesus said to them, "Nor will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

Parable of the Vine-growers

- 9 And He began to tell the people this parable: "A man planted a vineyard and rented it out to vine-growers, and went on a journey for a long time.
- 10 "At the harvest time he sent a slave to the vine-growers, so that they would give him some of the produce of the vineyard; but the vine-growers beat him and sent him away empty-handed.
- 11 "And he proceeded to send another slave; and they beat him also and treated him shamefully and sent him away emptyhanded.
- 12 "And he proceeded to send a third; and this one also they wounded and cast out.
- 13 "The owner of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; perhaps they will respect him.'
- 14 "But when the vine-growers saw him, they reasoned with one another, saying, 'This is the heir; let us kill him so that the inheritance will be ours.'
- 15 "So they threw him out of the vineyard

- and killed him. What, then, will the owner of the vineyard do to them?
- 16 "He will come and destroy these vinegrowers and will give the vineyard to others." When they heard it, they said, "May it never be!"
- 17 But Jesus looked at them and said, "What then is this that is written:

'The stone which the builders rejected, This became the chief corner stone'?

18 "Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces; but on whomever it falls, it will scatter him like dust."

Tribute to Caesar

- 19 The scribes and the chief priests tried to lay hands on Him that very hour, and they feared the people; for they understood that He spoke this parable against them.
- 20 So they watched Him, and sent spies who pretended to be righteous, in order that they might catch Him in some statement, so that they could deliver Him to the rule and the authority of the governor.
- 21 They questioned Him, saying, "Teacher, we know that You speak and teach correctly, and You are not partial to any, but teach the way of God in truth.
- 22 "Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"
- 23 But He detected their trickery and said to them,
- 24 "Show Me a adenarius. Whose likeness and inscription does it have?" They said, "Caesar's."
- 25 And He said to them, "Then render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."
- 26 And they were unable to catch Him in a saying in the presence of the people; and being amazed at His answer, they became silent.

Is There a Resurrection?

- 27 Now there came to Him some of the Sadducees (who say that there is no resurrection),
- 28 and they questioned Him, saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, having a wife, and he is childless, his brother should marry the wife and raise up children to his brother.

> 20:20 — They watched Him, and sent spies who pretended to be righteous.

Cvery age has its false teachers and religious impostors, ours included. Jesus told us to be on the alert for them—but even more to make sure that we do not become one of them ourselves. Each of us must guard our heart against ungodly teaching and the schemes of unbelievers. We must also be careful to remain in the center of God's will and under His protection. 29 "Now there were seven brothers; and the first took a wife and died childless;

30 and the second

31 and the third married her; and in the same way all seven died, leaving no children. 32 "Finally the woman died also.

33 "In the resurrection therefore, which one's wife will she be? For all seven had married her."
34 Jesus said to them, "The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage,

35 but those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage;

36 for they cannot even die anymore, because they are like angels, and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection.

37 "But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed, in the passage about the burning bush, where he calls the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

38 "Now He is not the God of the dead but of the living; for all live to Him."

39 Some of the scribes answered and said, "Teacher, You have spoken well."

40 For they did not have courage to question Him any longer about anything.

41 Then He said to them, "How is it that they say athe Christ is David's son?

42 "For David himself says in the book of Psalms,

'THE LORD SAID TO MY LORD,

"SIT AT MY RIGHT HAND,

43 Until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet."

44 "Therefore David calls Him 'Lord,' and how is He his son?"

45 And while all the people were listening, He said to the disciples, 46 "Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and love respectful greetings in the market places, and chief seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets.

➤ 47 who devour widows' houses, and for appearance's sake offer long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation."

The Widow's Gift

21 AND He looked up and saw the rich putting their gifts into the treasury.

- 2 And He saw a poor widow putting in two small copper coins.
- 3 And He said, "Truly I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all of them;
- 4 for they all out of their surplus put into the offering; but she out of her poverty put in all that she had to live on."
- 5 And while some were talking about the temple, that it was adorned with beautiful stones and votive gifts, He said,
- 6 "As for these things which you are looking at, the days will come in which there will not be left one stone upon another which will not be torn down."
- 7 They questioned Him, saying, "Teacher, when therefore will these things happen? And what will be the sign when these things are about to take place?"
- 8 And He said, "See to it that you are not misled; for many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He,' and, 'The time is near.' Do not go after them.
- 9 "When you hear of wars and disturbances, do not be terrified; for these things must take place first, but the end does not follow immediately."

Things to Come

10 Then He continued by saying to them, "Nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom, 11 and there will be great earthquakes, and in various places plagues and famines; and there will be terrors and great signs from heaven.

12 "But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, delivering you to the synagogues and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors for My name's sake.

13 "It will lead to an opportunity for your \prec testimony.

14 "So make up your minds not to prepare beforehand to defend yourselves;

15 for I will give you utterance and wisdom which none of your opponents will be able to resist or refute.

16 "But you will be betrayed even by parents and brothers and relatives and friends, and they will put some of you to death,

> 20:47 — "These will receive greater condemnation."

God's judgment will fall more severely on those who pretend to serve Him for their own personal gain and who use their religious credentials to deceive others. Although there is no longer condemnation for believers (Rom. 8:1), those who faithfully obey the Lord will receive greater rewards than those who disregard their divine assignments or serve God for their own selfish motives. Each will receive what he has earned (Rom. 2:5–8; 1 Cor. 3:11–15).

> 21:13 — "It will lead to an opportunity for your testimony."

Just as the imprisonments of the apostle Paul turned out to be divine opportunities to testify about the gospel of Christ (Acts 9:15; Phil. 1:12), so God will use persecutions to make His Word known.

- 17 and you will be hated by all because of My name.
- ➤ 18 "Yet not a hair of your head will perish. 19 "By your endurance you will gain your lives.
 - 20 "But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then recognize that her desolation is near.
 - 21 "Then those who are in Judea must flee to the mountains, and those who are in the midst of the city must leave, and those who are in the country must not enter the city;
 - 22 because these are days of vengeance, so that all things which are written will be fulfilled.
 - 23 "Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days; for there will be great distress upon the land and wrath to this people;
- ➤ 24 and they will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led captive into all the nations; and Jerusalem will be trampled under foot by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

The Return of Christ

- 25 "There will be signs in sun and moon and stars, and on the earth dismay among nations, in perplexity at the roaring of the sea and the wayes.
- 26 men fainting from fear and the expectation of the things which are coming upon the world; for the powers of the heavens will be shaken.
- $27\,$ "Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.
- 28 "But when these things begin to take place, straighten up and lift up your heads,

- because your redemption is drawing near."
 29 Then He told them a parable: "Behold the fig tree and all the trees;
- 30 as soon as they put forth leaves, you see it and know for yourselves that summer is now near.
- 31 "So you also, when you see these things happening, recognize that the kingdom of God is near.
- 32 "Truly I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all things take place.
- 33 "Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away.
- 34 "Be on guard, so that your hearts will not ≺ be weighted down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of life, and that day will not come on you suddenly like a trap:
- 35 for it will come upon all those who dwell on the face of all the earth.
- 36 "But keep on the alert at all times, praying that you may have strength to escape all these things that are about to take place, and to stand before the Son of Man."
- 37 Now during the day He was teaching in the temple, but at evening He would go out and spend the night on the mount that is called Olivet.
- 38 And all the people would get up early in the morning to come to Him in the temple to listen to Him.

Preparing the Passover

- 2 The chief priests and the scribes were seeking how they might put Him to death; for they were afraid of the people.

LIFE LESSONS

> 21:18 — "Not a hair of your head will perish."

Jesus reminds believers that He will always remain in control, and every detail of our lives will be safe in His loving hands. Although we will certainly face persecution, not a hair of our heads will be touched without His permission. And if we lose our lives for His sake, it will be according to His purpose and timing. Our eternal lives are secure and our victories are guaranteed. So we should not worry, but should always stand firm in our faith in the Lord.

> 21:24 — "Jerusalem will be trampled under foot by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled."

The "times of the Gentiles" began when the Babylonians destroyed Jerusalem in 586 B.C., and they will endure as long as Gentiles rule Jerusalem. Although the Jews have had brief control of Jerusalem over the years—especially since the Six Day War in 1967—they will not truly take possession of the city until the Messiah, our Lord Jesus, returns. God promised the land to His people, and He will keep His covenant with them to the end (Gen. 13:14–18; 28:10–16; 35:10–12; Ex. 6:2–8; Ezek. 37:24–28).

> 21:34 — "Be on guard, so that your hearts will not be weighted down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of life, and that day will not come on you suddenly like a trap."

constant awareness that the Lord could return at any time keeps us spiritually alert and living productively for the kingdom of God. When our focus is on Christ's Second Coming, we will not be as concerned with the trivial matters of life but will be motivated to obey Him and will diligently work to tell all people of the salvation He offers.

> 22:1 — The Feast of Unleavened Bread, which is called the Passover, was approaching.

The Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread both commemorated how the Lord had delivered the Israelites from their bondage in Egypt (Ex. 12). The Passover celebrated how God spared the firstborn sons of Israel when the death angel passed over their houses, which were marked with the blood of a lamb. During the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Jews observed their hasty escape from Pharaoh and how the Lord sustained them in the desert. Jewish men were required to go to Jerusalem to observe these two feasts. Therefore, Jews from every nation were present to witness Christ's sacrifice on the Cross.

- > 3 And Satan entered into Judas who was called Iscariot, belonging to the number of the twelve.
 - 4 And he went away and discussed with the chief priests and officers how he might betray Him to them.
 - 5 They were glad and agreed to give him money.
 - 6 So he consented, and began seeking a good opportunity to betray Him to them apart from the crowd.
 - 7 Then came the first day of Unleavened Bread on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed.
 - 8 And Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us, so that we may eat it."
 - 9 They said to Him, "Where do You want us to prepare it?"
 - 10 And He said to them, "When you have entered the city, a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water; follow him into the house that he enters.
 - 11 "And you shall say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, "Where is the guest room in which I may eat the Passover with My disciples?"'
 - 12 "And he will show you a large, furnished upper room; prepare it there."
 - 13 And they left and found everything just as He had told them; and they prepared the Passover.

The Lord's Supper

- 14 When the hour had come, He reclined at the table, and the apostles with Him.
- 15 And He said to them, "I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer:
- 16 for I say to you, I shall never again eat it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."
- 17 And when He had taken a cup and given thanks, He said, "Take this and share it among yourselves;
- 18 for I say to you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine from now on until the kingdom of God comes."
- 19 And when He had taken some bread and given thanks, He broke it and gave it to them,

- saying, "This is My body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of Me."
- 20 And in the same way He took the cup after they had eaten, saying, "This cup which is poured out for you is the new covenant in My blood.
- 21 "But behold, the hand of the one betraying Me is with Mine on the table.
- 22 "For indeed, the Son of Man is going as it has been determined; but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed!"
- 23 And they began to discuss among themselves which one of them it might be who was going to do this thing.

Who Is Greatest

- 24 And there arose also a dispute among them as to which one of them was regarded to be greatest.
- 25 And He said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them; and those who have authority over them are called 'Benefactors.'
- 26 "But it is not this way with you, but the one who is the greatest among you must become like the youngest, and the leader like the servant.
- 27 "For who is greater, the one who reclines at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one who reclines at the table? But I am among you as the one who serves.
- 28 "You are those who have stood by Me in My trials;
- 29 and just as My Father has granted Me a kingdom, I grant you
- 30 that you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, and you will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.
- 31 "Simon, Simon, behold, Satan has demanded permission to sift you like wheat;
- 32 but I have prayed for you, that your faith may not fail; and you, when once you have turned again, strengthen your brothers."
- 33 But he said to Him, "Lord, with You I am ready to go both to prison and to death!"
- 34 And He said, "I say to you, Peter, the rooster will not crow today until you have denied three times that you know Me."

Ithough others such as Saul (1 Sam. 16:14) and the Gadarene demoniacs (Matt. 8:28–33) were tormented by evil spirits, Judas is the only person whom the Bible explicitly says was possessed by Satan. Many Bible scholars believe the Antichrist will be as well (Rev. 12–13), and both men are called "the son of perdition" (John 17:12; also 2 Thess. 2:3). Yet realize that whenever we refuse to submit to God's will, we are aiding the enemy's plan (John 8:42–47).

out without money belt and bag and sandals, you did not lack anything, did you?" They said, "No, nothing."

36 And He said to them, "But now, whoever has a money belt is to take it along, likewise also a bag, and whoever has no sword is to sell his coat and buy one.

37 "For I tell you that this which is written must be fulfilled in Me, 'And He was numbered with transgressors'; for that which refers to Me has its fulfillment."

The Garden of Gethsemane

39 And He came out and proceeded as was His custom to the Mount of Olives; and the disciples also followed Him.

Jesus Betrayed by Judas

47 While He was still speaking, behold, a crowd came, and the one called Judas, one of the twelve, was preceding them; and he approached Jesus to kiss Him.

48 But Jesus said to him, "Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?"

49 When those who were around Him saw what was going to happen, they said, "Lord, shall we strike with the sword?"

50 And one of them struck the slave of the high priest and cut off his right ear.

51 But Jesus answered and said, "Stop! No more of this." And He touched his ear and healed him.

52 Then Jesus said to the chief priests and officers of the temple and elders who had come against Him, "Have you come out with swords and clubs as you would against a robber?

53 "While I was with you daily in the temple, you did not lay hands on Me; but this hour and the power of darkness are yours."

Jesus' Arrest

54 Having arrested Him, they led Him away and brought Him to the house of the high priest; but Peter was following at a distance.

55 After they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and had sat down together, Peter was sitting among them.

56 And a servant-girl, seeing him as he sat in the firelight and looking intently at him, said, "This man was with Him too."

57 But he denied it, saying, "Woman, I do not know Him."

58 A little later, another saw him and said, "You are one of them too!" But Peter said, "Man, I am not!"

59 After about an hour had passed, another man began to insist, saying, "Certainly this man also was with Him, for he is a Galilean too."

60 But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are talking about." Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed.

61 The Lord turned and looked at Peter. And ∢ Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had told him, "Before a rooster crows today, you will deny Me three times."

62 And he went out and wept bitterly.

63 Now the men who were holding Jesus in custody were mocking Him and beating Him, 64 and they blindfolded Him and were asking Him, saying, "Prophesy, who is the one who hit You?"

65 And they were saying many other things against Him, blaspheming.

Taking the penalty for every sin ever committed is an unimaginable burden, and it weighed on Jesus' sinless heart. Yet here the Lord shows us how to gain the victory in the most difficult situations and most heartbreaking circumstances. We must completely submit our will to His wisdom and trust His unfailing love.

> 22:61 — The Lord turned and looked at Peter.

That kind of look was it? One that expressed compassion? Disappointment? Resignation? Sorrow? We don't know. We only know that Jesus used it to remind Peter of His prophetic word, and that look caused Peter to weep.

> 23:34 — Jesus was saying, "Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing."

Ithough their actions were cruel, the Roman soldiers who carried out the Crucifixion could not have understood the eternal implications of what they had done—that they were crucifying the Lord. So Jesus extended His mercy to them, just as He offers it to each of us. This is the nature of God's unconditional love—no matter what we do, He still cares and bids us to return to Him. This is also the standard He calls us to. No matter what others do, we must imitate His example of forgiveness (Matt. 18:21–35; Eph. 4:32).

23:43 — "Today you shall be with Me in Paradise."

One thief had a change of heart while on the cross, and Jesus accepted his expression of faith as genuine. Did the thief deserve such mercy? No. None of us do. But the point is that God's grace saves us, not our merit.

> 23:55 — The women who had come with Him out of Galilee followed, and saw the tomb and how His body was laid.

People who want to discredit the Resurrection have at times claimed that the disciples went to the wrong grave. But this verse shows that the women carefully noted which tomb held Jesus' body.

- 9 and returned from the tomb and reported all these things to the eleven and to all the rest.
- 10 Now they were Mary Magdalene and Joanna and Mary the mother of James; also the other women with them were telling these things to the apostles.

The Road to Emmaus

- 18 One of them, named Cleopas, answered and said to Him, "Are You the only one visiting Jerusalem and unaware of the things which have happened here in these days?"

> 24:11 — These words appeared to them as nonsense, and they would not believe them.

Because they were heartbroken and disillusioned, it was difficult for the disciples to believe that Jesus really had risen from the dead. It was only after they saw the resurrected Lord and understood His victory over death that they became powerhouse witnesses for Him.

> 24:25 — "O foolish men and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken!" In many accounts, the disciples did not at first believe that the Lord had risen or recognize Him when He appeared to them. Usually it took hearing His voice or seeing Him perform some familiar action to open their eyes. Unbelief can blind us to the Lord's work, but trusting God means looking beyond what we can see to what He sees and is doing. Had they believed in His word through the prophets, they most likely would have anticipated the Resurrection with joy instead of being consumed with sorrow.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

How do I handle nagging doubt?

LUKE 24:38

Satan loves to use fear and doubt to discourage believers. He knows if he can get you to question God, then maybe you will give up and abandon His will for your life. Feelings of fear often accompany feelings of doubt and uncertainty. If left unattended, these runaway emotions can tempt you to stop trusting the Lord and His ability to provide for you.

The first step to turning away from doubt and discouragement is to proclaim your faith in Jesus Christ. When trouble strikes, He is your omniscient help. He also is the only One who truly understands you completely. He knows your weaknesses and strengths. He also knows exactly what is needed to encourage you and lift you up so you can continue walking forward in faith.

Second, set a goal to read God's Word each day. This is the best way to combat fear and doubt. The Lord uses a daily reading program to train your mind and to teach you how to handle doubt. The Book of Psalms highlights many personal battles over emotions such as fear, doubt, loneliness, and discouragement. David and others made a conscious decision to trust the Lord through 35 They began to relate their experiences on the road and how He was recognized by them in the breaking of the bread.

Other Appearances

36 While they were telling these things, He Himself stood in their midst and *said to them, "Peace be to you."

37 But they were startled and frightened and thought that they were seeing a spirit.

38 And He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts arise in your hearts?

tremendously difficult circumstances and found that God never once failed them.

Third, prayer is essential in fighting fear and doubt. In essence, prayer is faith in action. When we pray, regardless of whether or not we feel like it, we make a statement of faith. We pray because we see God as the solution to what we face. If you are facing a difficult situation, don't hesitate to ask Him to show you the best way to handle it. If your level of trust seems low, don't worry. The Lord is wise and kind. He wants to teach you more about Himself, not frighten you away. And your faith will increase as you get to know Him better.

Even if you don't feel you have the emotional strength to trust God, don't worry. The Lord is your strength (Ps. 18). A. B. Simpson often told those who found themselves in a difficult spot, "When God tests you, it is a good time for you to test Him by putting His promises to the proof, and claiming from Him just as much as your trials have rendered necessary."

The last thing Satan wants you to do is to go to God in prayer and tell Him you feel doubtful. Always be honest with Him; He knows it all. Honesty breaks the pattern of doubt and provides the right atmosphere for God to work greatly in your life. Remember, He loves you with an eternal love, and He will provide for your every need.

> 24:45 — He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures.

The things of the Spirit of God are foolishness to the unbelieving natural man (1 Cor. 2:14). It always takes the Lord's wisdom and influence to help us understand and accept the truth of His Word.

ifferent from Matthew, Mark, and Luke—or the Synoptic Gospels—which present many of the same stories and sayings of Christ, the Gospel of John presents a unique account about the Savior and distinctive insights into His person as the Son of God.

The writer of this Gospel was the apostle John, who, along with Peter and James, formed Jesus' inner circle of disciples. Interestingly, John never refers to himself by name, but always calls himself "the disciple whom Jesus loved" (John 13:23; 19:26; 20:2; 21:7, 20, 24).

John's account goes further back in time than any of the other Gospels, when the preincarnate Jesus, known as "the Word," created the universe (John 1:1–3). John thus highlights the glory of Christ as the Son of God: from His mission as the "Lamb of God" (1:29, 36); to His requirements for and the nature of salvation (3); to His extensive instruction and prayer for believers during the Passover (13–17); and to the role of the Holy Spirit to "teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said to you" (14:26; also 16:13, 14; 20:21, 22).

John mentions "life" 47 times, emphasizing that "in Him was life, and the life was the Light of men" (John 1:4). He also wrote that "whoever believes will in Him have eternal life" (3:15)—focusing a great deal on the importance of appropriating the salvation Jesus offers by faith. John uses the word "Father" 126 times to refer to God and connects this term of affection with the divine love relationship that we can experience with Him.

John includes an extended eyewitness description of the Upper Room meal and records several events leading up to the Resurrection, the climactic proof that Jesus is who He claimed to be—the Son of God.

The Greek title of the fourth Gospel, Kata Ioannen, means "According to John." Ioannes is derived from the Hebrew name Johanan,

"Yahweh has been gracious."

Theme: John clearly states his theme and purpose: "These have been written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing you may have life in His name" (20:31).

Author: John, "the disciple Jesus loved."

Time: John was the last of the four canonical Gospels to be written. It was likely composed between A.D. 80 and 100. By then, the rest of the New Testament (other than John's writings), had been completed. It is widely believed that John wrote his Gospel in his old age while living in Ephesus in Asia Minor, where he served as the leader of the local church.

Structure: John's Gospel is not just chronological in structure, but it also has topical elements: the incarnation of the Word and the inauguration of His ministry (1:1—2:11); Christ's message and work (2:13—12:50); His specific instruction to the disciples during the Passover and prayer for believers (13—17); and His trial, crucifixion, and resurrection (18—21).

As you read John, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

- 30. An eager anticipation of the Lord's return keeps us living productively. See John 5:29; page 1232.
- 9. Trusting God means looking beyond what we can see to what God sees. See John 6:6; 20:29; pages 1232; 1257.
- 24. To live the Christian life is to allow Jesus to live His life in and through us. See John 10:10; 15:1–8; pages 1240; 1248.
- 26. As children of a sovereign God, we are never victims of our circumstances. See John 19:11; page 1254.

> 1:1 — In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

There had been 400 years of silence since God had spoken through His prophet Malachi. As happens with any prolonged time of quiet, the people's ears strained for a word. So God sent the Word. But first, He readied the world for the gospel. Under the influence of Alexander the Great, Greek—the language of science, medicine, and philosophy—made communication much easier than it had ever been. Also, because of the roads and general peace (Pax Romana) of the Roman Empire, missionaries could travel everywhere with less difficulty. Finally, with all the Jews scattered throughout the Roman Empire, evangelists had many synagogues from which to preach the Good News throughout the known world.

> 1:14 — We saw His glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father, full of grace and truth.

esus is far more than just a great teacher or a mighty prophet; in fact, He is "God with us" (Matt. 1:23). Jesus is "the exact representation" of God's nature because He is God Himself (Heb. 1:3). Whatever Jesus does, He does with grace. Whatever He says, He says in truth. If you want to understand what God is like, look to Jesus (John 1:18; 14:9).

> 1:29 — "Behold, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!"

Il the Old Testament sacrifices foreshadowed what Jesus Christ would do on the Cross. Here, John rightly identified Jesus as our Passover Lamb (Ex. 12), who willingly paid our sin-debt in full (1 Cor. 5:7). God "made Him who knew no sin to be sin on our behalf, so that we might become the righteousness of God in Him" (2 Cor. 5:21).

- 31 "I did not recognize Him, but so that He might be manifested to Israel, I came baptizing ain water."
- 32 John testified saying, "I have seen the Spirit descending as a dove out of heaven, and He remained upon Him.
- 33 "I did not recognize Him, but He who sent me to baptize ain water said to me, 'He upon whom you see the Spirit descending and remaining upon Him, this is the One who baptizes in the Holy Spirit.'
- 34 "I myself have seen, and have testified that this is the Son of God."

- 37 The two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.
- 38 And Jesus turned and saw them following, and *said to them, "What do you seek?" They said to Him, "Rabbi (which translated means Teacher), where are You staying?"
- 39 He *said to them, "Come, and you will see." So they came and saw where He was staying; and they stayed with Him that day, for it was about the btenth hour.
- 40 One of the two who heard John speak and followed Him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.
- 41 He *found first his own brother Simon and *said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which translated means Christ).
- 42 He brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, "You are Simon the son of John; you shall be called Cephas" (which is translated Peter).
- 43 The next day He purposed to go into Galilee, and He *found Philip. And Jesus *said to him, "Follow Me."
- 44 Now Philip was from Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter.
- 45 Philip *found Nathanael and *said to him, "We have found Him of whom Moses in the Law and also the Prophets wrote—Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph."
- 46 Nathanael said to him, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" Philip *said to him, "Come and see."
- 47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to Him, and *said of him, "Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom there is no deceit!"
- 48 Nathanael *said to Him, "How do You know me?" Jesus answered and said to him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."

- 49 Nathanael answered Him, "Rabbi, You are the Son of God; You are the King of Israel."
- 50 Jesus answered and said to him, "Because I said to you that I saw you under the fig tree, do you believe? You will see greater things than these."
- 51 And He *said to him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you will see the heavens opened and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

Miracle at Cana

- 2^{ON} the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there;
- 2 and both Jesus and His disciples were invited to the wedding.
- 3 When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus *said to Him, "They have no wine."
- 4 And Jesus *said to her, "Woman, what does that have to do with us? My hour has not yet come."
- 5 His mother *said to the servants, "What- ∢ ever He says to you, do it."
- 6 Now there were six stone waterpots set there for the Jewish custom of purification, containing twenty or thirty gallons each.
- 7 Jesus *said to them, "Fill the waterpots with water." So they filled them up to the brim.
- 8 And He *said to them, "Draw some out now and take it to the cheadwaiter." So they took it to him.
- 9 When the headwaiter tasted the water which had become wine, and did not know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the headwaiter *called the bridegroom,
- 10 and *said to him, "Every man serves the good wine first, and when the people have drunk freely, then he serves the poorer wine; but you have kept the good wine until now."
- 11 This beginning of His signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and manifested His glory, and His disciples believed in Him.
- 12 After this He went down to Capernaum, He and His mother and His brothers and His disciples; and they stayed there a few days.

First Passover—Cleansing the Temple

- 13 The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
- 14 And He found in the temple those who were selling oxen and sheep and doves, and the money changers seated at their tables.

Gesus' mother did not understand everything her Son said or did, but she understood enough to know that it was always wise to do what He said. It still is.

The New Birth

9 NOW there was a man of the Pharisees, Onamed Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews;

this man came to Jesus by night and said to Him, "Rabbi, we know that You have come from God as a teacher; for no one can do these signs that You do unless God is with him." Jesus answered and said to him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God.'

Nicodemus *said to Him, "How can a man be born when he is old? He cannot enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born, can he?"

- Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I say to you, ≺ unless one is born of water and the Spirit he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.
- "That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.
- "Do not be amazed that I said to you, 'You < 7 must be born again.'

- Nicodemus said to Ĥim, "How can these things be?"
- 10 Jesus answered and said to him, "Are you the teacher of Israel and do not understand these things?

LIFE LESSONS-

2:17 — "Zeal for Your house will consume me."

Instead of being surprised and confused at Jesus' actions, the disciples immediately recalled Psalm 69:9 about the coming Messiah. The disciples would not have been able to remember this text if they were not already familiar with it. For God to use His Word to encourage and instruct us, we have to spend time in it. Then we have confirmation He is uniquely at work in and around us.

> 2:22 — When He was raised from the dead, His disciples remembered that He said this; and they believed.

ometimes we hesitate to spend time in God's Word be-Cause we don't feel as though we're getting anything out of it. But often a text does not "click" in our minds until some time later.

> 3:5 — "Unless one is born of water and the Spirit he cannot enter into the kingdom of God."

 $\overline{//}$ s a Pharisee, Nicodemus belonged to the most ${\mathcal H}$ prominent religious group in Israel and was a highly respected teacher. He observed all of the laws of cleanliness and piety, yet Jesus told Nicodemus that it's not enough for one just to be physically clean—water is not enough for true purification. Rather, a person's nature also needs to be cleansed—or sanctified—by the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit (Rom. 8; 1 Cor. 12:13; 2 Cor. 5:7).

> 3:7 — "You must be born again."

That did Jesus mean about being "born again"? The new birth is an instantaneous spiritual experience, which occurs when the Holy Spirit leads a person to understand that Jesus Christ died on the Cross to provide forgiveness for their sins. We are born again the moment we accept that Jesus Christ is the only One who can redeem us and we confess Him as our Savior and Lord (Rom. 10:9).

3:12 — "If I told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things?"

Cometimes our idea of heaven is distorted because we think of it in our earthly terms. Yet heaven is a place for those who love the Lord—where everything revolves around His majesty, power, glory, and presence (Rev. 19:1-7). Every person there will praise and worship Him. If someone refuses to honor and serve Him here on earth, they won't like heaven at all. In fact, they'll be completely out of place there.

Life Examples:

NICODEMUS

Unclean but Unblemished

JOHN 3:1-21

It all started at night, when Nicodemus, a Pharisee and "a ruler of the Jews" (John 3:1) came to the Light (v. 21). Nicodemus makes three appearances in the Book of John (3:1–21; 7:50–52; 19:39–42), and by the third time, we see that the truth Jesus planted in his heart had powerfully taken root. Although Jesus had been condemned by Nicodemus's colleagues (Luke 23:13–24), it no longer made a difference to him. He knew Jesus was the true Messiah—the hope of Israel and the world.

How do we know he arrived at this decision? Because normally the bodies of those who had been crucified were thrown on the trash heap of the city. Yet after Christ was removed from the Cross, Joseph of Arimathea claimed His body, prepared it for burial, and then placed Him in a brand new tomb. Nicodemus was right beside Joseph. He brought myrrh and aloes and assisted in Christ's burial (John 19:38–41). It is believed that the spices used for the Lord's burial were those personally belonging to Nicodemus. Instead of saving them for his own burial, he gave them to Jesus as an offering of love and devotion. John 19:39 tells us these spices weighed "about a hundred pounds," which would have been the amount used to bury a great king—not merely a good man or a simple teacher. Nicodemus acknowledged that Jesus is the Son of God and treated Him with great respect.

We also know that according to the Law of Moses, no priest was to "defile himself for a dead person" (Lev. 21:1) because touching the deceased body would make him unclean. Yet that also did not matter to Nicodemus, because he realized that in his new eternal life, he was completely unblemished (John 3:16).

Today, Nicodemus's example still teaches us. We learn from him that Jesus is always there for us, night or day. We learn that in God's perfect timing, He will answer our most confounding questions. We learn that regardless of our status, nothing is more important than the life of Christ within us. And we learn that no matter how great our sacrifice, it can never compare to Christ's sacrifice for us.

> 3:14 — "As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up."

Gesus is referring to the account in Numbers 21. The people of Israel faithlessly complained against the Lord, and He sent poisonous serpents as a judgment. Many of them died. When the Israelites finally repented, the Lord told Moses to set a serpent on a staff so that everyone who looked at it could live. In the same way, those who face the penalty of death can look upon Christ's sacrifice on the Cross and receive eternal life.

> 3:16 — "God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life."

That does it mean to believe in Jesus? Does it mean that intellectually you agree with the fact that He was born in Bethlehem of a virgin and that He is a great teacher? Yes, but there's even more to it than that. To have faith in Jesus Christ means to believe that He is God (John 1:1; 10:30; 14:9) and that He saves you by His crucifixion (Eph. 2:8, 9; 2 Tim. 1:9; Titus 3:5). If you continue to believe that you can somehow earn your salvation, you have never been truly born again. However, when you truly place your faith in Him, you receive His gift of eternal life (John 6:40; 17:3).

> 3:17, 18 — "God did not send the Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world might be saved through Him. He who believes in Him is not judged; he who does not believe has been judged already."

Thile Jesus says that all judgment has been committed to Him (John 5:22), He assures us that He did not ready, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 "This is the judgment, that the Light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the Light, for their deeds were evil.

20 "For everyone who does evil hates the Light, and does not come to the Light for fear that his deeds will be exposed.

21 "But he who practices the truth comes to the Light, so that his deeds may be manifested as having been wrought in God."

John's Last Testimony

22 After these things Jesus and His disciples came into the land of Judea, and there He was spending time with them and baptizing.

23 John also was baptizing in Aenon near Salim, because there was much water there; and people were coming and were being baptized—

24 for John had not yet been thrown into prison.

25 Therefore there arose a discussion on the part of John's disciples with a Jew about purification.

26 And they came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, He who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you have testified, behold, He is baptizing and all are coming to Him."

27 John answered and said, "A man can receive nothing unless it has been given him from heaven.

28 "You yourselves are my witnesses that I said, 'I am not the Christ,' but, 'I have been sent ahead of Him.'

29 "He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. So this joy of mine has been made full.

30 "He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 "He who comes from above is above all, he who is of the earth is from the earth and speaks of the earth. He who comes from heaven is above all.

32 "What He has seen and heard, of that He testifies; and no one receives His testimony.

33 "He who has received His testimony has set his seal to this, that God is true.

34 "For He whom God has sent speaks the words of God; for He gives the Spirit without measure.

35 "The Father loves the Son and has given all things into His hand.

36 "He who believes in the Son has eternal life; but he who does not obey the Son will not see life, but the wrath of God abides on him."

Jesus Goes to Galilee

4 THEREFORE when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John

2 (although Jesus Himself was not baptizing, but His disciples were),

3 He left Judea and went away again into Galilee.

4 And He had to pass through Samaria.

5 So He *came to a city of Samaria called Sychar, near the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph;

6 and Jacob's well was there. So Jesus, being wearied from His journey, was sitting thus by the well. It was about athe sixth hour.

The Woman of Samaria

7 There *came a woman of Samaria to draw water. Jesus *said to her, "Give Me a drink."

8 For His disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.

9 Therefore the Samaritan woman *said to ≺ Him, "How is it that You, being a Jew, ask me for a drink since I am a Samaritan woman?" (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.)

10 Jesus answered and said to her, "If you ≺ knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water."

11 She *said to Him, "Sir, You have nothing come to earth to judge us but to save us. What that means is that we are already forgiven. When we place our faith in Jesus, we are accepting that He has already fully and successfully taken our punishment upon Himself. But those who reject Jesus as Savior also reject His provision and must bear the full penalty of their sins (Mark 16:16; John 5:24; Heb. 2:2, 3; 2 Thess. 1:8, 9).

> 4:9 — "How is it that You, being a Jew, ask me for a drink since I am a Samaritan woman?" (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.)

Men in biblical times did not generally speak to women in public. Also, the woman at the well was a Samaritan and Jesus was a Jew—two groups who didn't have anything to do with each other because the Jews believed the Samaritans had been tainted by the pagan nations among them (Deut. 7:1–6; 2 Kin. 17:24–31). But Jesus talked to her. Why? Because He never discriminates; rather, He wants all people to know Him and be saved (2 Pet. 3:9).

> 4:10 — "You would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water."

Even when God asks us to do certain things, it's really an invitation to receive greater things from Him. Jesus asked the woman for a drink of water so He could offer her living water.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

How can I know if my worship pleases God?

JOHN 4:5-26

Have you ever wondered if your worship pleases God? Perhaps you've read about the Old Testament regulations for the Mosaic sacrificial system and have wondered what you're required to do now that Jesus has fulfilled the Law. It's important to remember that whenever you worship, God's priority is your heart (1 Chr. 28:9; Ps. 51:17; Joel 2:13).

But what exactly does that mean? What characterizes a heart that is lovely to the Lord? Jesus tells us, "True worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for such people the Father seeks to be His worshipers. God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth" (John 4:23, 24). The heart that is led by God's Spirit and filled with His truth is pleasing to Him—and the only one actually equipped to really adore Him.

Jesus was unimpressed by those who displayed their "devotion" in a pompous, attention-getting manner. Their worship was not characterized by love for Him and the desire to do His will; rather, they were motivated by their own fleshly agendas and goals. Therefore, He instructed us, "When you pray, you are not to be like the hypocrites; for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and on the street corners so that they may be seen by men. Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full. But you, when you pray, go into your inner room, close your door and pray to your Father who is in secret, and your Father to draw with and the well is deep; where then do You get that living water?

- 12 "You are not greater than our father Jacob, are You, who gave us the well, and drank of it himself and his sons and his cattle?"
- 13 Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again;
- * 14 but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him shall never thirst; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life."
 - 15 The woman *said to Him, "Sir, give me who sees what is done in secret will reward you" (Matt. 6:5, 6).

Authentic service to God begins with the wholehearted trust that nothing escapes His loving and sovereign eye (Heb. 6:10; 11:6) and that He assumes full responsibility for our needs when we obey Him. This was illustrated one day when, sitting in the temple, Jesus watched the people who presented their offerings. Some rich people put large amounts into the treasury, making quite a scene. Then a poor widow put in what amounted to one cent. Jesus told His disciples, "Truly I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the contributors to the treasury; for they all put in out of their surplus, but she, out of her poverty, put in all she owned, all she had to live on" (Mark 12:43, 44).

Are you noticing what is important to the Lord? It's not the size of your offering that matters; it is the trust of your heart to give everything you are and dedicate everything you have to Him. It is not the beauty of your praising, giving thanks, singing, praying, or giving financially that moves Him; it's your motivation—your true feelings of love and adoration for the Lord.

As you prepare to worship God in spirit and in truth, examine the reason you are approaching His throne. Is it to further your goals or to experience His loving presence? Is it to get something you want or to give Him your utmost devotion? As Philippians 3:3 instructs, "Worship in the Spirit of God and glory in Christ Jesus and put no confidence in the flesh." It will not only satisfy your being but will also build intimacy in your relationship with Him.

- 19 The woman *said to Him, "Sir, I perceive that You are a prophet.

20 "Our fathers worshiped in this mountain, and you people say that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.'

24 "God is spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth."

- 25 The woman *said to Him, "I know that Messiah is coming (He who is called Christ); when that One comes, He will declare all things to us."
- 26 Jesus *said to her, "I who speak to you am He."
- 27 At this point His disciples came, and they were amazed that He had been speaking with a woman, yet no one said, "What do You seek?" or, "Why do You speak with her?"

28 So the woman left her waterpot, and went into the city and *said to the men,

- 29 "Come, see a man who told me all the things that I have done; this is not the Christ, is it?"
- 30 They went out of the city, and were coming to Him.
- 31 Meanwhile the disciples were urging Him, saying, "Rabbi, eat."
- 32 But He said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know about."
- 33 So the disciples were saying to one another, "No one brought Him anything to eat,
- 34 Jesus *said to them, "My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me and to accomplish His work.
- 35 "Do you not say, 'There are yet four months, and then comes the harvest'? Behold. I say to you, lift up your eyes and look on the fields, that they are white for harvest.
- 36 "Already he who reaps is receiving wages and is gathering fruit for life eternal; so that he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice
- 37 "For in this case the saying is true, 'One sows and another reaps.'

38 "I sent you to reap that for which you have not labored; others have labored and you have entered into their labor."

The Samaritans

- 39 From that city many of the Samaritans believed in Him because of the word of the woman who testified, "He told me all the things that I have done."
- 40 So when the Samaritans came to Jesus, they were asking Him to stay with them; and He stayed there two days.
- 41 Many more believed because of His word;
- 42 and they were saying to the woman, "It is \triangleleft no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves and know that this One is indeed the Savior of the world." 43 After the two days He went forth from
- there into Galilee.
- 44 For Jesus Himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country.
- 45 So when He came to Galilee, the Galileans received Him, having seen all the things that He did in Jerusalem at the feast; for they themselves also went to the feast.

Healing a Nobleman's Son

- 46 Therefore He came again to Cana of Galilee where He had made the water wine. And there was a royal official whose son was sick at Capernaum.
- 47 When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to Him and was imploring Him to come down and heal his son; for he was at the point of death.
- 48 So Jesus said to him, "Unless you people see signs and wonders, you simply will not believe."
- 49 The royal official *said to Him, "Sir, come down before my child dies."
- 50 Jesus *said to him, "Go; your son lives." The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him and started off.
- 51 As he was now going down, his slaves met him, saying that his son was living.
- 52 So he inquired of them the hour when he began to get better. Then they said to him, "Yesterday at the aseventh hour the fever left him."

However, we should thought its adoranever address Him in the way the world shows its adoration—trying to earn His favor and making sacrifices He never asked for. Instead, the Lord actively seeks men and women who will eagerly worship Him according to the truth of Scripture and by the power of the Holy Spirit.

> 4:42 — "It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves and know that this One is indeed the Savior of the world."

Cach of us has to make the faith our own. Our faith in the truth and power of the gospel must be deeply personal, genuine, and an authentic expression of our hearts (Rom. 10:9).

- 53 So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said to him, "Your son lives"; and he himself believed and his whole household.
- 54 This is again a second sign that Jesus performed when He had come out of Judea into Galilee.

The Healing at Bethesda

- 5AFTER these things there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
- 2 Now there is in Jerusalem by the sheep gate a pool, which is called in Hebrew Bethesda, having five porticoes.
- 3 In these lay a multitude of those who were sick, blind, lame, and withered, [awaiting for the moving of the waters;
- 4 for an angel of the Lord went down at certain seasons into the pool and stirred up the water; whoever then first, after the stirring up of the water, stepped in was made well from whatever disease with which he was afflicted.]
- 5 A man was there who had been ill for thirty-eight years.
- ➤ 6 When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he had already been a long time in that condition, He *said to him, "Do you wish to get well?"
 - 7 The sick man answered Him, "Sir, I have no man to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, but while I am coming, another steps down before me."
 - 8 Jesus *said to him, "Get up, pick up your pallet and walk."
 - 9 Immediately the man became well, and picked up his pallet and began to walk.

Now it was the Sabbath on that day.

- 10 So the Jews were saying to the man who was cured, "It is the Sabbath, and it is not permissible for you to carry your pallet."
- 11 But he answered them, "He who made me well was the one who said to me, 'Pick up your pallet and walk."
- 12 They asked him, "Who is the man who said to you, 'Pick up your pallet and walk'?"
 13 But the man who was healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had slipped away while there was a crowd in that place.
- 14 Afterward Jesus *found him in the temple and said to him, "Behold, you have become well; do not sin anymore, so that nothing worse happens to you."

- 15 The man went away, and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.
- 16 For this reason the Jews were persecuting Jesus, because He was doing these things on the Sabbath.
- 17 But He answered them, "My Father is working until now, and I Myself am working."

Jesus' Equality with God

- 18 For this reason therefore the Jews were ≤ seeking all the more to kill Him, because He not only was breaking the Sabbath, but also was calling God His own Father, making Himself equal with God.
- 19 Therefore Jesus answered and was saying to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of Himself, unless it is something He sees the Father doing; for whatever the Father does, these things the Son also does in like manner.
- 20 "For the Father loves the Son, and shows Him all things that He Himself is doing; and the Father will show Him greater works than these, so that you will marvel.
- 21 "For just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Son also gives life to whom He wishes.
- 22 "For not even the Father judges anyone, but He has given all judgment to the Son,
- 23 so that all will honor the Son even as they honor the Father. He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him.
- 24 "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who hears My word, and believes Him who sent Me, has eternal life, and does not come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life.

Sometimes our troubles and infirmities become such a part of our lives and identity that we have difficulty letting them go and allowing God to handle them. Have you been holding on to a painful experience or problem? You must choose to let it go. God offers you His healing, so there are no more excuses. You must decide what is more important to you—getting better or having a reason to say, "Woe is me."

Instead of being joyful to have God in their presence, His opponents became angry and murderous because of their jealousy and desire for power. How do you react to God's presence? Do you rejoice that He is with you and obey His commands, or do you struggle with Him for control? You'll never lose by obeying God, but you may forfeit everything by standing against Him, so choose wisely.

Five Thousand Fed

> 5:29 — "Those who did the good deeds to a resurrection of life, those who committed the evil deeds to a resurrection of judgment."

Every person who has ever lived will one day stand before God at the judgment, either to receive rewards for their Spirit-empowered activity and faith in Christ, or to receive condemnation for self-focused behavior. An eager anticipation of the Lord's return keeps us living productively.

> 5:30 — "I do not seek My own will, but the will of Him who sent Me."

Pe have the wonderful opportunity to glorify the Lord with our lives (1 Cor. 6:20)—to walk in His footsteps (Eph. 5:1, 2) and resemble Him in our characters (Gal. 5:22, 23). This begins by asking whether we seek after our own goals or the will of God. As believers, we've been called to allow Jesus to live His life through us so that others can be saved—and that's just what we must do.

> 6:6 — This He was saying to test him, for He Himself knew what He was intending to do.

The disciples learned firsthand that God is greater than the needs of 5,000 people, and this gave them confidence that they could trust Him for their own daily needs. Likewise, at times, the Lord will set a seemingly impossible task before us to test us and see whether we react in fear or faith. This is because He is training us to have faith in Him, and trusting Him means looking beyond what we can see and do to what He is able to accomplish.

loaves and two fish, but what are these for so many people?"

- 10 Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.
- 11 Jesus then took the loaves, and having given thanks, He distributed to those who were seated; likewise also of the fish as much as they wanted.
- 12 When they were filled, He *said to His disciples, "Gather up the leftover fragments so that nothing will be lost."
- 13 So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves which were left over by those who had eaten.
- 14 Therefore when the people saw the sign which He had performed, they said, "This is truly the Prophet who is to come into the world."

Jesus Walks on the Water

- 15 So Jesus, perceiving that they were intending to come and take Him by force to make Him king, withdrew again to the mountain by Himself alone.
- 16 Now when evening came, His disciples went down to the sea,
- 17 and after getting into a boat, they started to cross the sea to Capernaum. It had already become dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them.
- 18 The sea began to be stirred up because a strong wind was blowing.
- 19 Then, when they had rowed about three or four miles, they *saw Jesus walking on the sea and drawing near to the boat; and they were frightened.
- 20 But He *said to them, "It is I; do not be afraid."
- 21 So they were willing to receive Him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at the land to which they were going.
- 22 The next day the crowd that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other small boat there, except one, and that Jesus had not entered with His disciples into the boat, but that His disciples had gone away alone.
- 23 There came other small boats from Tiberias near to the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks.
- 24 So when the crowd saw that Jesus was not there, nor His disciples, they themselves

- got into the small boats, and came to Capernaum seeking Jesus.
- 25 When they found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, "Rabbi, when did You get here?"

Words to the People

- 26 Jesus answered them and said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you seek Me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate of the loaves and were filled.
- 27 "Do not work for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you, for on Him the Father, God, has set His seal."
- 28 Therefore they said to Him, "What shall we do, so that we may work the works of God?"
- 29 Jesus answered and said to them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in Him whom He has sent."
- 30 So they said to Him, "What then do You do for a sign, so that we may see, and believe You? What work do You perform?
- 31 "Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, 'He gave them bread out of heaven to eat.'"
- 32 Jesus then said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, it is not Moses who has given you the bread out of heaven, but it is My Father who gives you the true bread out of heaven.
- 33 "For the bread of God is athat which comes down out of heaven, and gives life to the world."
- 34 Then they said to Him, "Lord, always give us this bread."
- 35 Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life; he who comes to Me will not hunger, and he who believes in Me will never thirst.

Words to the Jews

- 41 Therefore the Jews were grumbling about Him, because He said, "I am the bread that came down out of heaven."
- 42 They were saying, "Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How does He now say, 'I have come down out of heaven'?"
- 43 Jesus answered and said to them, "Do not grumble among yourselves.
- ➤ 44 "No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws him; and I will raise him up on the last day.
 - 45 "It is written in the prophets, 'AND THEY SHALL ALL BE TAUGHT OF GOD.' Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father, comes to Me.
 - 46 "Not that anyone has seen the Father, except the One who is from God; He has seen the Father.
 - 47 "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes has eternal life.
 - 48 "I am the bread of life.
 - 49 "Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died.
 - 50 "This is the bread which comes down out of heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die.
 - 51 "I am the living bread that came down out of heaven; if anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread also which I will give for the life of the world is My flesh."
 - 52 Then the Jews began to argue with one another, saying, "How can this man give us His flesh to eat?"
 - 53 So Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in yourselves.
 - 54 "He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day.

- 55 "For My flesh is true food, and My blood is true drink.
- 56 "He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him.
- 57 "As the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, so he who eats Me, he also will live because of Me.
- 58 "This is the bread which came down out of heaven; not as the fathers ate and died; he who eats this bread will live forever."

Words to the Disciples

- 59 These things He said in the synagogue as He taught in Capernaum.
- 60 Therefore many of His disciples, when they heard this said, "This is a difficult statement; who can listen to it?"
- 61 But Jesus, conscious that His disciples grumbled at this, said to them, "Does this cause you to stumble?
- 62 "What then if you see the Son of Man ascending to where He was before?
- 63 "It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh profits nothing; the words that I have spoken to you are spirit and are life.
- 64 "But there are some of you who do not believe." For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who it was that would betray Him.
- 65 And He was saying, "For this reason I have said to you, that no one can come to Me unless it has been granted him from the Father."

Peter's Confession of Faith

- 66 As a result of this many of His disciples withdrew and were not walking with Him anymore.
- 67 So Jesus said to the twelve, "You do not ≼ want to go away also, do you?"
- 68 Simon Peter answered Him, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have words of eternal life.
- 69 "We have believed and have come to know that You are the Holy One of God."

Jesus Teaches at the Feast

- 7AFTER these things Jesus was walking in Galilee, for He was unwilling to walk in Judea because the Jews were seeking to kill Him.
- 2 Now the feast of the Jews, the Feast of Booths, was near.
- 3 Therefore His brothers said to Him, "Leave here and go into Judea, so that Your disciples also may see Your works which You are doing.
- 4 "For no one does anything in secret when he himself seeks to be known publicly. If You do these things, show Yourself to the world."
- > 5 For not even His brothers were believing in Him.
 - 6 So Jesus *said to them, "My time is not yet here, but your time is always opportune.
 - 7 "The world cannot hate you, but it hates Me because I testify of it, that its deeds are evil.
 - 8 "Go up to the feast yourselves; I do not go up to this feast because My time has not yet fully come."
 - 9 Having said these things to them, He stayed in Galilee.
 - 10 But when His brothers had gone up to the feast, then He Himself also went up, not publicly, but as if, in secret.
 - 11 So the Jews were seeking Him at the feast and were saying, "Where is He?"
 - 12 There was much grumbling among the crowds concerning Him; some were saying, "He is a good man"; others were saying, "No, on the contrary, He leads the people astray."
 - 13 Yet no one was speaking openly of Him for fear of the Jews.
 - 14 But when it was now the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and began to teach.
 - 15 The Jews then were astonished, saying, "How has this man become learned, having never been educated?"
 - 16 So Jesus answered them and said, "My teaching is not Mine, but His who sent Me.
 - 17 "If anyone is willing to do His will, he will know of the teaching, whether it is of God or whether I speak from Myself.

- 18 "He who speaks from himself seeks his own glory; but He who is seeking the glory of the One who sent Him, He is true, and there is no unrighteousness in Him.
- 19 "Did not Moses give you the Law, and yet none of you carries out the Law? Why do you seek to kill Me?"
- 20 The crowd answered, "You have a demon! Who seeks to kill You?"
- 21 Jesus answered them, "I did one deed, and you all marvel.
- 22 "For this reason Moses has given you circumcision (not because it is from Moses, but from the fathers), and on the Sabbath you circumcise a man.
- 23 "If a man receives circumcision on the Sabbath so that the Law of Moses will not be broken, are you angry with Me because I made an entire man well on the Sabbath?
- 24 "Do not judge according to appearance, but judge with righteous judgment."
- 25 So some of the people of Jerusalem were saying, "Is this not the man whom they are seeking to kill?
- 26 "Look, He is speaking publicly, and they are saying nothing to Him. The rulers do not really know that this is the Christ, do they?
- 27 "However, we know where this man is from; but whenever the Christ may come, no one knows where He is from."
- 28 Then Jesus cried out in the temple, teaching and saying, "You both know Me and know where I am from; and I have not come of Myself, but He who sent Me is true, whom you do not know.
- 29 "I know Him, because I am from Him, and He sent Me."
- 30 So they were seeking to seize Him; and ≺ no man laid his hand on Him, because His hour had not yet come.
- 31 But many of the crowd believed in Him; and they were saying, "When the Christ comes, He will not perform more signs than those which this man has, will He?"
- 32 The Pharisees heard the crowd muttering these things about Him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to seize Him.
- 33 Therefore Jesus said, "For a little while longer I am with you, then I go to Him who sent Me.

Division of People over Jesus

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

What does it mean to be set free in Christ?

JOHN 8:1-36

The scribes and Pharisees were intent on trapping Jesus, so they brought Him a woman who had been caught in the act of adultery and said, "Teacher, this woman has been caught in adultery, in the very act. Now in the Law Moses commanded us to stone such women; what then do You say?" (John 8:4, 5).

Instead of being ensnared by their words, Jesus turned the situation into an opportunity to teach the crowd about His liberating love in action. He said, "He who is without sin among you, let him be the first to throw a stone at her . . . Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn you? . . . I do not condemn you, either. Go. From now on sin no more" (John 8:7, 10, 11). The woman walked away forgiven, free, and saved from certain doom.

A little later, Jesus proclaimed: "If you continue in My word, then you are truly disciples of Mine; and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free" (John 8:31, 32). Consider these verses the believer's emancipation proclamation. In verses 34–36, Jesus explains: "Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is the slave of sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son does remain forever. So if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed." How are we liberated to live in Christ?

- Through Jesus' death on the Cross and resurrection, we are freed from the penalty of sin. Like the woman caught in adultery, we are no longer condemned for what we've done. Christ pays our sin-debt in full so that we can be reconciled to the Father (Rom. 5:10; 6:23; Col. 1:19–22).
- 16 "But even if I do judge, My judgment is true; for I am not alone in it, but I and the Father who sent Me.
- 17 "Even in your law it has been written that the testimony of two men is true.
- 18 "I am He who testifies about Myself, and the Father who sent Me testifies about Me."

- 2) We are released from the power of sin. Our sin nature no longer dominates us—leading us from one unsatisfying and destructive transgression to another. Rather, we are free to seek and know God through the power and presence of His Holy Spirit (Rom. 8:2–17). Jesus told the woman, "Go. From now on sin no more" (John 8:11), not as a terrible requirement for earning His forgiveness, but as a declaration of what is possible when we follow Him (1 Cor. 6:11–20).
- We are liberated from the purpose of sin. James 1:15 tells us, "When sin is accomplished, it brings forth death." The goal of our iniquity is usually to exalt ourselves or meet our own needs, but the outcome is always ruination. Perhaps this woman was seeking love, acceptance, or security, yet she was obviously going about getting it in the wrong way—destroying herself and her dignity. However, Christ sets us free to become everything God created us to be to His honor and glory (John 10:10; Eph. 2:10).
- 4) We are unshackled from the personality of sin. To the scribes and the Pharisees, this woman would always be known by the name "sinner," and perhaps that is how she thought of herself as well. However, when Jesus comes into our lives, we are no longer known for our iniquities. Rather, we are recognized as belonging to the One who has covered our iniquities with His blood. Our transgressions are no longer our identity because Christ makes us into a new creation (Rom. 8:1; 2 Cor. 5:17).

What can you do to begin living in the freedom Jesus purchased for you on the Cross? There is no formula for discovering the richness of His truth. But by obeying and trusting in Him, you'll be on the road to the liberated life He designed for you.

- 21. Obedience always brings blessings.
- God does not require us to understand His will, just obey it, even if it seems unreasonable.
- 19 So they were saying to Him, "Where is Your Father?" Jesus answered, "You know neither Me nor My Father; if you knew Me, you would know My Father also."
- 20 These words He spoke in the treasury, as He taught in the temple; and no one seized Him, because His hour had not yet come.

- 21 Then He said again to them, "I go away, and you will seek Me, and will die in your sin; where I am going, you cannot come."
- 22 So the Jews were saying, "Surely He will not kill Himself, will He, since He says, 'Where I am going, you cannot come'?"
- 23 And He was saying to them, "You are from below, I am from above; you are of this world. I am not of this world.
- 24 "Therefore I said to you that you will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I am He, you will die in your sins."
- 25 So they were saying to Him, "Who are You?" Jesus said to them, "What have I been saying to you from the beginning?

- 40 "But as it is, you are seeking to kill Me, a man who has told you the truth, which I heard from God; this Abraham did not do.
- 41 "You are doing the deeds of your father." They said to Him, "We were not born of fornication; we have one Father: God."
- 42 Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love Me, for I proceeded forth and have come from God, for I have not even come on My own initiative, but He sent Me.
- 43 "Why do you not understand what I am saying? It is because you cannot hear My word.
- 44 "You are of your father the devil, and you want to do the desires of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth because there is no truth in him. Whenever he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own nature, for he is a liar and the father of lies.

 ${\mathcal H}$ ow does the truth set us free? Because through it, the Lord breaks the bonds of enslavement that sin has over us (John 8:36; Rom. 7:14–25; 8:2, 20, 21). He shows us how to become everything we were created to be and to embrace every blessing that is ours because of our position in Him (Eph. 1). He also guides us in living the very best life possible—one that gives us joy and glorifies Him (John 16:13–15: 2 Cor. 3:17: Gal. 5:1).

the temple.

 $9^{\rm AS\,\bar{H}e}$ passed by, He saw a man blind from birth.

- 2 And His disciples asked Him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he would be born blind?"
- Jesus answered, "It was neither that this man sinned, nor his parents; but it was so that the works of God might be displayed in him.
 - 4 "We must work the works of Him who sent Me as long as it is day; night is coming when no one can work.
 - 5 "While I am in the world, I am the Light of the world."
 - 6 When He had said this, He spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and applied the clay to his eyes,
 - 7 and said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which is translated, Sent). So he went away and washed, and came back seeing.
 - 8 Therefore the neighbors, and those who previously saw him as a beggar, were saying, "Is not this the one who used to sit and beg?"
 9 Others were saying, "This is he," still others were saying, "No, but he is like him." He kept saying, "I am the one."

10 So they were saying to him, "How then were your eyes opened?"

11 He answered, "The man who is called Jesus made clay, and anointed my eyes, and said to me, 'Go to Siloam and wash'; so I went away and washed, and I received sight."

12 They said to him, "Where is He?" He *said, "I do not know."

Controversy over the Man

13 They *brought to the Pharisees the man who was formerly blind.

- 14 Now it was a Sabbath on the day when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes.
- 15 Then the Pharisees also were asking him again how he received his sight. And he said to them, "He applied clay to my eyes, and I washed, and I see."
- 16 Therefore some of the Pharisees were saying, "This man is not from God, because He does not keep the Sabbath." But others were saying, "How can a man who is a sinner perform such signs?" And there was a division among them.
- 17 So they *said to the blind man again, "What do you say about Him, since He opened your eyes?" And he said, "He is a prophet."
- 18 The Jews then did not believe it of him, that he had been blind and had received sight, until they called the parents of the very one who had received his sight,
- 19 and questioned them, saying, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? Then how does he now see?"
- 20 His parents answered them and said, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind;
- 21 but how he now sees, we do not know; or who opened his eyes, we do not know. Ask him; he is of age, he will speak for himself."
- 22 His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone confessed Him to be Christ, he was to be put out of the synagogue. 23 For this reason his parents said, "He is of age; ask him."
- 24 So a second time they called the man who had been blind, and said to him, "Give glory to God; we know that this man is a sinner."
- 25 He then answered, "Whether He is a sinner, I do not know; one thing I do know, that though I was blind, now I see."
- 26 So they said to him, "What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?"
- 27 He answered them, "I told you already and you did not listen; why do you want to hear it again? You do not want to become His disciples too, do you?"

he Jewish identity is based on the fact that they are Abraham's descendants (John 8:33, 39), and therefore heirs to all of God's promises to him (Gen. 12:1–3). Yet Jesus demonstrates that the Jews were not living as their forefather would because Abraham acknowledged God, had faith in Him, and obeyed Him (John 8:39, 40). In other words, Abraham would have acknowledged that Jesus is the Messiah.

> 8:58 — "Before Abraham was born, I am."

esus is God in the flesh. Here, He calls Himself by the divine name, "I AM" (Ex. 3:14; Is. 42:8; 43:10, 13), and affirms that He existed long before Abraham lived. Why is this important? Because the Jews continued to cling to men and issues that were temporary, instead of the Son of God, who is eternal.

> 9:3 — "It was so that the works of God might be displayed in him."

It is always dangerous to assume that some sin is to blame for a physical ailment. In this case, Jesus said that God designed the man's blindness to provide a platform for demonstrating His glory.

- 28 They reviled him and said, "You are His disciple, but we are disciples of Moses.
- 29 "We know that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this man, we do not know where He is from."
- ➤ 30 The man answered and said to them, "Well, here is an amazing thing, that you do not know where He is from, and yet He opened my eyes.
 - 31 "We know that God does not hear sinners; but if anyone is God-fearing and does His will, He hears him.
 - 32 "Since the beginning of time it has never been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a person born blind.
 - 33 "If this man were not from God, He could do nothing."
 - 34 They answered him, "You were born entirely in sins, and are you teaching us?" So they put him out.

Jesus Affirms His Deity

- 35 Jesus heard that they had put him out, and finding him, He said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?"
- 36 He answered, "Who is He, Lord, that I may believe in Him?"
- 37 Jesus said to him, "You have both seen Him, and He is the one who is talking with you." 38 And he said, "Lord, I believe." And he worshiped Him.
- 39 And Jesus said, "For judgment I came into this world, so that those who do not see may see, and that those who see may become blind."
- 40 Those of the Pharisees who were with Him heard these things and said to Him, "We are not blind too, are we?"

41 Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin; but since you say, 'We see,' your sin remains.

> 9:30 — "Here is an amazing thing, that you do not know where He is from, and yet He opened my eyes."

The healed man may have been born without sight, but the Pharisees were blinded by their own pride, jealousy, and sin (John 9:41). It is a terrible thing to think we know better than God because it shows that pride is deeply rooted in our hearts. We must always be careful to acknowledge the Lord's work around us, because if we refuse to obey Him, we, too, will become blinded to His matchless presence by our sin.

> 10:9 — "I am the door; if anyone enters through Me, he will be saved, and will go in and out and find pasture."

here is only one door to heaven. Jesus is not one route among several to an intimate relationship with God, but the only way. Some may think, "That is very narrow-minded." However, it was the greatest mind, the most profound wisdom, and the deepest thoughts that ever existed that implemented the plan of how you and I would be reconciled to God and have a home in heaven. The Lord, who created us is the One who decides how we can know Him—and that way is through Jesus Christ.

> 10:10 — "I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly."

o you know how Jesus gives us abundant life? He does so by giving us Himself! You could have all the money, relationships, wealth, and power, but you would still have a deep sense of emptiness because life isn't found in these things. The only One who can truly satisfy you is Jesus Christ. To live the abundant Christian life is to allow Jesus to live His life through us. His love motivates and empowers us, so we obey Him out of joy and thankfulness.

> 10:11 — "I am the good shepherd; the good shepherd lays down His life for the sheep."

Gesus willingly gave His life to save ours, so how can we think He would ever keep back from us anything that would truly benefit us or allow anything in our lives that doesn't have some eternal purpose (Rom. 8:32)? Instead, we must always remember that He is the Good Shepherd. He has all of our problems, pressures, and provisions under His control, and nothing we face is ever too difficult for Him to handle. So cast your cares upon Him because you can be sure that He will help you.

the wolf coming, and leaves the sheep and flees, and the wolf snatches them and scatters them.

13 "He flees because he is a hired hand and is not concerned about the sheep.

14 "I am the good shepherd, and I know My own and My own know Me,

15 even as the Father knows Me and I know the Father; and I lay down My life for the sheep.

16 "I have other sheep, which are not of this fold; I must bring them also, and they will hear My voice; and they will become one flock with one shepherd.

17 "For this reason the Father loves Me, because I lay down My life so that I may take it again.

18 "No one has taken it away from Me, but I lay it down on My own initiative. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. This commandment I received from My Father."

19 A division occurred again among the Jews because of these words.

20 Many of them were saying, "He has a demon and is insane. Why do you listen to Him?"

21 Others were saying, "These are not the sayings of one demon-possessed. A demon cannot open the eyes of the blind, can he?"

Jesus Asserts His Deity

22 At that time the Feast of the Dedication took place at Jerusalem;

23 it was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple in the portico of Solomon.

24 The Jews then gathered around Him, and were saying to Him, "How long will You keep us in suspense? If You are the Christ, tell us plainly."

25 Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you do not believe; the works that I do in My Father's name, these testify of Me.

26 "But you do not believe because you are not of My sheep.

*27 "My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me;

28 and I give eternal life to them, and they will never perish; and no one will snatch them out of My hand.

29 "aMy Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand.

30 "I and the Father are one."

31 The Jews picked up stones again to stone Him.

32 Jesus answered them, "I showed you many good works from the Father; for which of them are you stoning Me?"

33 The Jews answered Him, "For a good work we do not stone You, but for blasphemy; and because You, being a man, make Yourself out to be God."

34 Jesus answered them, "Has it not been written in your Law, 'I said, you are gods'?

35 "If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came (and the Scripture cannot be broken), 36 do you say of Him, whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, 'You are blaspheming,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God'?

37 "If I do not do the works of My Father, do not believe Me;

38 but if I do them, though you do not believe Me, believe the works, so that you may know and understand that the Father is in Me, and I in the Father."

39 Therefore they were seeking again to seize Him, and He eluded their grasp.

40 And He went away again beyond the Jordan to the place where John was first baptizing, and He was staying there.

41 Many came to Him and were saying, "While John performed no sign, yet everything John said about this man was true."

42 Many believed in Him there.

In this verse, Jesus proclaimed His unity of nature and equality in the Godhead (Deut. 6:4). Based on His assertion, we must make a decision: either we believe He really is God, or we must reject everything He says—there is no middle ground. As believers, we know that there is only one God and that He is three Persons—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We also know that everything Jesus said is absolutely true because He is the truth (John 14:6).

> 11:4 — "This sickness is not to end in death, but for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified by it."

Gesus did not mean that Lazarus would not die—he did (John 11:14)—but that he would not end in death. When Jesus is involved, death does not have the final victory. As the Lord of life, He has triumphed over the grave eternally for all who trust in Him (Rom. 6:8, 9; 1 Cor. 15:54–57).

glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified by it."

- 5 Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus.
- 6 So when He heard that he was sick, He then stayed two days longer in the place where He was.
- 7 Then after this He *said to the disciples, "Let us go to Judea again."
- 8 The disciples *said to Him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just now seeking to stone You, and are You going there again?"
- 9 Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world.
- 10 "But if anyone walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him."
- 11 This He said, and after that He *said to them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep; but I go, so that I may awaken him out of sleep."
- 12 The disciples then said to Him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover."
- 13 Now Jesus had spoken of his death, but they thought that He was speaking of literal sleep.
- ➤ 14 So Jesus then said to them plainly, "Lazarus is dead,
 - 15 and I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe; but let us go to him."
 - 16 Therefore Thomas, who is called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, so that we may die with Him."
 - 17 So when Jesus came, He found that he had already been in the tomb four days.
 - 18 Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles off;
 - 19 and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, to console them concerning their brother.
 - 20 Martha therefore, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went to meet Him, but Mary stayed at the house.
 - 21 Martha then said to Jesus, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.
 - 22 "Even now I know that whatever You ask of God, God will give You."
 - 23 Jesus *said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

- 24 Martha *said to Him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day."
- 25 Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection  and the life; he who believes in Me will live even if he dies,
- 26 and everyone who lives and believes in Me will never die. Do you believe this?"
- 27 She *said to Him, "Yes, Lord; I have believed that You are the Christ, the Son of God, even He who comes into the world."
- 28 When she had said this, she went away and called Mary her sister, saying secretly, "The Teacher is here and is calling for you."
- 29 And when she heard it, she *got up quickly and was coming to Him.
- 30 Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha met Him.
- 31 Then the Jews who were with her in the house, and consoling her, when they saw that Mary got up quickly and went out, they followed her, supposing that she was going to the tomb to weep there.
- 32 Therefore, when Mary came where Jesus was, she saw Him, and fell at His feet, saying to Him, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died."
- 33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, He was deeply moved in spirit and was troubled.
- 34 and said, "Where have you laid him?" They *said to Him, "Lord, come and see."
- 35 Jesus wept.
- 36 So the Jews were saying, "See how He loved him!"
- 37 But some of them said, "Could not this \(\) man, who opened the eyes of the blind man, have kept this man also from dying?"
- 38 So Jesus, again being deeply moved within, *came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone was lying against it.
- 39 Jesus *said, "Remove the stone." Martha, the sister of the deceased, *said to Him, "Lord, by this time there will be a stench, for he has been dead four days."
- 40 Jesus *said to her, "Did I not say to you that if you believe, you will see the glory of God?"

raised His eyes, and said, "Father, I thank You that You have heard Me.

- 42 "I knew that You always hear Me; but because of the people standing around I said it, so that they may believe that You sent Me."
- 43 When He had said these things, He cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come forth."
- 44 The man who had died came forth, bound hand and foot with wrappings, and his face was wrapped around with a cloth. Jesus *said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."
- 45 Therefore many of the Jews who came to Mary, and saw what He had done, believed in Him
- 46 But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them the things which Jesus had done.

Conspiracy to Kill Jesus

- 47 Therefore the chief priests and the Pharisees convened a council, and were saying, "What are we doing? For this man is performing many signs.
- 48 "If we let Him go on like this, all men will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation."
- 49 But one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all,
- 50 nor do you take into account that it is expedient for you that one man die for the people, and that the whole nation not perish."
- 51 Now he did not say this on his own initiative, but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus was going to die for the nation
- 52 and not for the nation only, but in order that He might also gather together into one the children of God who are scattered abroad. 53 So from that day on they planned together to kill Him.
- 54 Therefore Jesus no longer continued to walk publicly among the Jews, but went away from there to the country near the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim; and there He stayed with the disciples.
- 55 Now the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went up to Jerusalem out of the country before the Passover to purify themselves.
- 56 So they were seeking for Jesus, and were saying to one another as they stood in the temple, "What do you think; that He will not come to the feast at all?"
- 57 Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if anyone knew where He was, he was to report it, so that they might seize Him.

Worship as You Work

JOHN 11:19-44

After Jesus raised her brother Lazarus from the dead, Martha finally understood the awesome power of Christ. She knew that nothing she could do would ever honor Him sufficiently—yet she also realized that He would gladly receive anything done for Him out of a heart of genuine devotion (John 11:19–44).

God invites you to use your gifts to express praise to Him, especially if you use them with a grateful, joyful heart. If, however, they become your avenue for seeking acceptance and prestige—as with Martha at the beginning (Luke 10:38–42)—then they can become a source of bitterness and resentment. Your actions can either proclaim Christ or seek your own advancement. You can use your talents with an attitude of praise or an attitude of self-promotion.

As you express your gifts today, consider your testimony. Will you serve out of praise to Him? Will you choose work or worship?

A Life Devoted to God

JOHN 12:1-8

Cach time we look at the life of Mary of Bethany through the window afforded us in the Gospels, we find her at the feet of Jesus (Luke 10:39; John 11:32; 12:3). In Mary, Jesus discerned a heart of devotion and true love for the things of God (Luke 10:42).

Mary accepted Jesus' words when He spoke of His death and resurrection, and she applied them to her life by humbling herself before God and desiring only to serve the Lord. Her attitude marked her as a woman mighty in spirit—and you, too, can have this trait when you commit yourself to Christ.

Ask the Lord to make you aware of anything that keeps you from sitting at His feet in wholehearted devotion. Pray for the Holy Spirit to give you a deep love for God's Word. This is what Mary cherished—the Word of God spoken to her. And it can be your greatest source of comfort and hope as well.

19 So the Pharisees said to one another, "You see that you are not doing any good; look, the world has gone after Him."

Greeks Seek Jesus

20 Now there were some Greeks among those who were going up to worship at the feast:

21 these then came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and began to ask him, saying, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus."

22 Philip *came and *told Andrew; Andrew and Philip *came and *told Jesus.

23 And Jesus *answered them, saying, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.

> 12:16 — These things His disciples did not understand at the first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written of Him. even though it took the disciples a long time to understand the meaning and significance of Scripture, when understanding finally came, it never left them, and it gave them the strength to continue despite great hardship.

Jesus Foretells His Death

- 27 "Now My soul has become troubled; and what shall I say, 'Father, save Me from this hour'? But for this purpose I came to this hour
- 28 "Father, glorify Your name." Then a voice came out of heaven: "I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again."
- 29 So the crowd of people who stood by and heard it were saying that it had thundered; others were saying, "An angel has spoken to Him."
- 30 Jesus answered and said, "This voice has not come for My sake, but for your sakes.
- 31 "Now judgment is upon this world; now the ruler of this world will be cast out.
- ≥ 32 "And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to Myself."
 - 33 But He was saying this to indicate the kind of death by which He was to die.
 - 34 The crowd then answered Him, "We have heard out of the Law that the Christ is to remain forever; and how can You say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up'? Who is this Son of Man?"
 - 35 So Jesus said to them, "For a little while longer the Light is among you. Walk while you have the Light, so that darkness will not overtake you; he who walks in the darkness does not know where he goes.
 - 36 "While you have the Light, believe in the Light, so that you may become sons of Light."

These things Jesus spoke, and He went away and hid Himself from them.

- 37 But though He had performed so many signs before them, yet they were not believing in Him.
- 38 This was to fulfill the word of Isaiah the prophet which he spoke: "Lord, who has believed our report? And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?"
- 39 For this reason they could not believe, for Isaiah said again,
- $40~^{\circ}$ He has blinded their eyes and He hardened their heart, so that they would not see with their eyes and perceive with their

- HEART, AND BE CONVERTED AND I HEAL THEM."

 41 These things Isaiah said because he saw
 His glory, and he spoke of Him.
- 42 Nevertheless many even of the rulers believed in Him, but because of the Pharisees they were not confessing Him, for fear that they would be put out of the synagogue;
- 43 for they loved the approval of men rather than the approval of God.
- 44 And Jesus cried out and said, "He who believes in Me, does not believe in Me but in Him who sent Me.
- $45\,$ "He who sees Me sees the One who sent Me.
- 46 "I have come as Light into the world, so  that everyone who believes in Me will not remain in darkness.
- 47 "If anyone hears My sayings and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world, but to save the world. 48 "He who rejects Me and does not receive
- My sayings, has one who judges him; the word I spoke is what will judge him at the last day.
- 49 "For I did not speak on My own initiative, but the Father Himself who sent Me has given Me a commandment as to what to say and what to speak.
- 50 "I know that His commandment is eternal life; therefore the things I speak, I speak just as the Father has told Me."

The Lord's Supper

- 13NOW before the Feast of the Passover, Jesus knowing that His hour had come that He would depart out of this world to the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end.
- 2 During supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon, to betray Him,
- 3 Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He had come forth from God and was going back to God,
- 4 *got up from supper, and *laid aside His garments; and taking a towel, He girded Himself.

> 12:32 — "I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to Myself."

Jesus says that He draws all peoples to Himself. We are to represent Him as well as we can and allow Him to live through us, but we can never convert anyone. It is Christ's responsibility to cause faith to take root in human hearts, not ours.

> 13:5 — He poured water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet.

s the Passover (Ex. 12) and His sacrifice on the Cross approached, Jesus took every opportunity to teach His disciples about what He was about to accomplish and how they were to proceed after He was resurrected. In one of the most humbling and beautiful displays of servant leadership, the Lord knelt and began to cleanse the disciples' feet—a task reserved for the lowliest slave in the house. As believers, we are to be humble as our Savior is—in love, we gently lead others to the Cross, where they can be washed clean of all their sins.

wipe them with the towel with which He was girded.

6 So He *came to Simon Peter. He *said to Him, "Lord, do You wash my feet?"

7 Jesus answered and said to him, "What I do you do not realize now, but you will understand hereafter."

8 Peter *said to Him, "Never shall You wash my feet!" Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no part with Me."

9 Simon Peter *said to Him, "Lord, then wash not only my feet, but also my hands and my head."

10 Jesus *said to him, "He who has bathed needs only to wash his feet, but is completely clean; and you are clean, but not all of you."

11 For He knew the one who was betraying Him; for this reason He said, "Not all of you are clean."

12 So when He had washed their feet, and taken His garments and reclined at the table again, He said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you?

13 "You call Me Teacher and Lord; and you are right, for so I am.

14 "If I then, the Lord and the Teacher, washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 "For I gave you an example that you also should do as I did to you.

16 "Truly, truly, I say to you, a slave is not greater than his master, nor is one who is sent greater than the one who sent him.

> 17 "If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them.

18 "I do not speak of all of you. I know the ones I have chosen; but it is that the Scripture may be fulfilled, 'He who eats My bread has lifted up his heel against Me.'

19 "From now on I am telling you before it comes to pass, so that when it does occur, you may believe that I am He.

20 "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who receives whomever I send receives Me; and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me."

Jesus Predicts His Betrayal

21 When Jesus had said this, He became troubled in spirit, and testified and said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, that one of you will betray Me."

22 The disciples began looking at one another, at a loss to know of which one He was speaking.

23 There was reclining on Jesus' bosom one of His disciples, whom Jesus loved.

24 So Simon Peter *gestured to him, and *said to him, "Tell us who it is of whom He is speaking."

25 He, leaning back thus on Jesus' bosom, *said to Him, "Lord, who is it?"

26 Jesus then *answered, "That is the one for whom I shall dip the morsel and give it to him." So when He had dipped the morsel, He *took and *gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot.

27 After the morsel, Satan then entered into him. Therefore Jesus *said to him, "What you do, do quickly."

28 Now no one of those reclining at the table knew for what purpose He had said this to him.

29 For some were supposing, because Judas had the money box, that Jesus was saying to him, "Buy the things we have need of for the feast"; or else, that he should give something to the poor.

30 So after receiving the morsel he went out immediately; and it was night.

31 Therefore when he had gone out, Jesus *said, "Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in Him;

32 if God is glorified in Him, God will also glorify Him in Himself, and will glorify Him immediately.

33 "Little children, I am with you a little while longer. You will seek Me; and as I said to the Jews, now I also say to you, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.'

34 "A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, even as I have loved you, that you also love one another.

35 "By this all men will know that you are ✓ My disciples, if you have love for one another."
36 Simon Peter *said to Him, "Lord, where are You going?" Jesus answered, "Where I go, you cannot follow Me now; but you will follow later"

37 Peter *said to Him, "Lord, why can I not follow You right now? I will lay down my life for You."

38 Jesus *answered, "Will you lay down your life for Me? Truly, truly, I say to you, a rooster will not crow until you deny Me three times.

nowing and doing are two separate things. Jesus reserves His blessing not merely for those who know His will, but for those who do it as well. Genuine faith always leads to godly action, and we know that whatever He leads us to do for His name's sake, He will use powerfully for His glory, even if we can't yet see how (Phil. 1:6).

> 13:35 — "By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another."

The method Jesus gave us to preach His message to the world is through love. The world does not know we are His disciples through correct doctrine or big buildings, but through our love for one another.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 14:2 — "I go to prepare a place for you."

In the Jewish culture, it was customary for a young man to prepare a house for his bride-to-be. At an unspecified time, the bridegroom would return to fulfill the marriage covenant with his wife and take her to their new home. As the Bride of Christ—the church—we know that Jesus is preparing an everlasting home for us in heaven. And one day, He will return to claim us and take us to the wonderful place He has created for us to love and worship Him for the rest of eternity (John 14:3; Rev. 19:7–9; 21:9–27).

> 14:6 — "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me."

The truth is very narrow—the only way someone can come to the Father is through Jesus, who lived a completely sinless life, in thought, word, and deed.

> 14:9 — "He who has seen Me has seen the Father."

In Jesus, we have more than just a representation of theological attributes. He is God in the flesh, and when we gaze upon Him, we behold our Lord.

> 14:23 — "If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word; and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our abode with him."

Pe love and obey Jesus by depending on His power to enable us to do what He calls us to do. An intimate relationship with Him leads to willing, devoted, joyful obedience, and the deeper our intimacy with Him, the greater the impact our lives will have for His kingdom.

> 14:26 — "The Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said to you."

Gesus mentions all three Persons of the Godhead here the Father; Himself, the Son; and the Holy Spirit. The three Persons of the Trinity are equal, divine, and share the same attributes. Yet understand, we do not worship three 27 "Peace I leave with you; My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Do not let your heart be troubled, nor let it be fearful.

28 "You heard that I said to you, 'I go away, and I will come to you.' If you loved Me, you would have rejoiced because I go to the Father, for the Father is greater than I.

29 "Now I have told you before it happens, so that when it happens, you may believe.

30 "I will not speak much more with you, for the ruler of the world is coming, and he has nothing in Me;

Jesus Is the Vine—Followers Are Branches 15 "I AM the true vine, and My Father is the vinedresser.

 - 5 "I am the vine, you are the branches; he who abides in Me and I in him, he bears much fruit, for apart from Me you can do nothing.

6 "If anyone does not abide in Me, he is thrown away as a branch and dries up; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire and they are burned.

7 "If you abide in Me, and My words abide * in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you.

8 "My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit, and so prove to be My disciples.

9 "Just as the Father has loved Me, I have also loved you; abide in My love.

10 "If you keep My commandments, you will abide in My love; just as I have kept My Father's commandments and abide in His love.

gods—there is only one God who is expressed in three Persons (Deut. 6:4). The Holy Spirit brings to mind Jesus' words, because He is one and the same (1 Cor. 2:10–16).

> 14:27 — "Peace I leave with you; My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Do not let your heart be troubled, nor let it be fearful."

The peace of Jesus "surpasses all comprehension" (Phil. 4:7) because its source is Christ Himself. His peace keeps us from fear and worry because it brings us straight to Him—and teaches us to depend on Him in everything we face. And we know that no matter what our circumstances, the Lord Jesus will sustain us, strengthen us, and enable us to walk through it victoriously.

> 15:2 — "Every branch that bears fruit, He prunes it so that it may bear more fruit."

Thy does God allow difficulty in the lives of those who love and serve Him? Because the believer is like a branch that receives its nourishment from the Living Vine—Jesus Christ. When we abide in Him, He produces fruit through us. However, sometimes we allow things in our lives that diminish our impact for His kingdom. So God prunes all the extraneous things that are hindering us so we will be free to bear a better harvest.

> 15:4 — "Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself unless it abides in the vine, so neither can you unless you abide in Me."

The only way we can play a significant role in the kingdom of God is to allow Jesus to live His life in and through us. While apart from Him we can do nothing, in Him we can do anything He calls us to do.

> 15:11 — "These things I have spoken to you so that My joy may be in you, and that your joy may be made full."

The Word of God, living and growing within us, produces lasting and increasing joy. A lack of joy in a Christian's life often can be traced to a lack of concentrated devotional time in God's Word or disobedience.

> 15:13 — "Greater love has no one than this, that one lay down his life for his friends."

Gesus is the best friend we could ever have. He loves us just the way we are—He knows everything there is about us and still accepts us completely. In fact, this is why He laid His life down for us on the Cross—so we could become acceptable and have an intimate relationship with Him through His sacrificial death (Col. 1:19–22).

> 15:15 — "I have called you friends."

Of we were merely God's servants, He would just give us orders. However, Jesus wants us to build a relationship with Him as His friends—loving and fellowshipping with Him and knowing His heart.

➤ 16 "You did not choose Me but I chose you, and appointed you that you would go and bear fruit, and that your fruit would remain, so that whatever you ask of the Father in My name He may give to you.

17 "This I command you, that you love one another.

Disciples' Relation to the World

18 "If the world hates you, you know that it has hated Me before it hated you.

19 "If you were of the world, the world would love its own; but because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, because of this the world hates you.

20 "Remember the word that I said to you, 'A slave is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you; if they kept My word, they will keep yours also. 21 "But all these things they will do to you for My name's sake, because they do not know the One who sent Me.

22 "If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin.

23 "He who hates Me hates My Father also. 24 "If I had not done among them the works which no one else did, they would not have sin; but now they have both seen and hated Me and My Father as well.

25 "But they have done this to fulfill the word that is written in their Law, 'They hated Me without a cause.'

26 "When the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, that is the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, He will testify about Me, 27 and you will testify also, because you have been with Me from the beginning.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 15:16 — "You did not choose Me but I chose you, and appointed you that you would go and bear fruit, and that your fruit would remain."

Gesus does not want any of us to lead unproductive or unfocused lives. He chose us not only for salvation, but also to play a significant role in His kingdom. He wants each of us to fulfill the particular purpose He created us for (Eph. 2:10).

> 16:13 — "When He, the Spirit of truth, comes, He will guide you into all the truth."

On every area of our inadequacy, the Holy Spirit indwells us to meet our needs in the way that honors God (Rom. 8). He draws us to salvation (John 6:44; 1 Cor. 2:6–16; 12:3), regenerates us (Titus 3:5), convicts us of our sinfulness and teaches us to live in the righteousness of Christ (John 14:26; 16:8), and seals us for redemption (Eph. 4:30). Everything that God calls us to do, the Spirit equips and empowers us to accomplish it (Matt. 10:19, 20; Acts 1:8; 1 Cor. 2:3–5; 12:4–13; 2 Pet. 1:21).

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT HOW THE HOLY SPIRIT GUIDES US

you've ever wished you could immediately understand God's will when going through a difficult situation, you're in good company. We've all faced challenging circumstances that have confounded us-we've had no idea about how to proceed, and we've longed for the Lord's guidance, help, and provision. However, as believers, we must understand that the Holy Spirit indwells us the moment we accept Jesus Christ as our Savior, and He has been given to us as an everlasting promise that God will never leave us nor forsake us, no matter what happens (John 14:16–18; 1 Cor. 3:16; 6:17; 2 Cor. 1:21, 22; 5:5; Eph. 1:13; 4:30; 1 John 4:2, 13).

Although you may be facing a situation that makes you feel isolated, helpless, or directionless, understand that you're never alone. The Holy Spirit is with you, to live the life of Christ through you—helping you face every challenge in a godly, victorious manner. John 16:13, 14 promises, "He will guide you into all the truth; for He will not speak on His own initiative, but whatever He hears, He will speak; and He will disclose to you what is to come. He will glorify Me, for He will take of Mine and will disclose it to you."

How does the Holy Spirit help and direct you? He does so in a manner that is:

Practical. The Holy Spirit warns you of perils ahead and equips you to succeed in the tasks He has assigned to you. He knows exactly how much strength, wisdom, resources, and encouragement you need for whatever is ahead.

Personal. He lives inside of you and knows you even better than you know yourself. He understands exactly what you require to grow in the likeness of Christ, and He enables you to become the person the Lord created you to be.

Available. Twenty-four hours a day, 365 days a year, the Holy Spirit is there for you. He never sleeps but is constantly working in and through you for your good.

Dependable. There's no problem you face that God can't handle. In fact, not only will the Holy Spirit help you get through your heartaches, but He will also use your burdens to teach you about the love, wisdom, and power of God.

Even when you don't know what to ask for in prayer, the Holy Spirit will intervene for you (Rom. 8:26–29). Though God's Word may not make sense to you, He will show you what it means (1 Cor. 2:12–14). If there is something within you that is hindering God's work, He will reveal it to you (John 16:8). When you feel inadequate, He bestows you with the giftedness you need to live the Christian life (1 Cor. 12:4–11). And in your greatest moments of weakness and distress, the Holy Spirit can energize, encourage, and empower you to overcome whatever afflicts you (Rom. 5:3–5).

Therefore, don't hinder the Holy Spirit— He is your Helper, and His guidance is yours for the asking. Whenever you need Him, pray, listen, follow His direction, and confidently obey His promptings—because you can be sure that He will never lead you astray.

The High Priestly Prayer

17 JESUS spoke these things; and lifting up His eyes to heaven, He said, "Father, the hour has come; glorify Your Son, that the Son may glorify You,

> 16:22 — "You too have grief now; but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you."

Sorrow and happiness are both a part of the human experience, and both depend largely on circumstances. When we unite ourselves to the risen Christ, however, He gives us a joy that no obstacle, problem, or situation can take away.

> 16:24 — "Until now you have asked for nothing in My name; ask and you will receive."

To ask in Jesus' name means to connect your request with His will, plans, purpose, and sovereignty.

> 16:33 — "In the world you have tribulation, but take courage; I have overcome the world."

s Jesus stood ready to face the Cross and defeat the last foe—death (1 Cor. 15:26)—He encouraged the disciples to always have confidence in His ability to lead them to triumph, which was proven at the Resurrection. Although it may feel as if your every desire and security has been destroyed, your true hope—the Lord Jesus—can display His resurrection power in your situation as well. And when He does, you certainly won't be disappointed.

> 17:3 — "This is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent."

Some mistakenly believe that eternal life can only be enjoyed after death. However, Scripture is clear that you receive it the moment you have faith in the risen Jesus Christ and begin a relationship with Him. You don't just receive the gift of living forever—you are given the awesome privilege of having a vibrant, growing relationship with the Creator of all that exists.

The Disciples in the World

- 13 "But now I come to You; and these things I speak in the world so that they may have My joy made full in themselves.

- 15 "I do not ask You to take them out of the world, but to keep them from the evil one.
- 16 "They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.
- 17 "Sanctify them in the truth; Your word is truth.
- 18 "As You sent Me into the world, I also have sent them into the world.
- 19 "For their sakes I sanctify Myself, that they themselves also may be sanctified in truth.

Their Future Glory

- 22 "The glory which You have given Me I have given to them, that they may be one, just as We are one;
- 23 I in them and You in Me, that they may be perfected in unity, so that the world may know that You sent Me, and loved them, even as You have loved Me.

Judas Betravs Jesus

- 18WHEN Jesus had spoken these words, He went forth with His disciples over the ravine of the Kidron, where there was a garden, in which He entered with His disciples.
- 2 Now Judas also, who was betraying Him, knew the place, for Jesus had often met there with His disciples.
- 3 Judas then, having received the Roman cohort and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, *came there with lanterns and torches and weapons.
- 4 So Jesus, knowing all the things that were coming upon Him, went forth and *said to them, "Whom do you seek?"
- 5 They answered Him, "Jesus the Nazarene." He *said to them, "I am He." And Judas also, who was betraying Him, was standing with them.
- 6 So when He said to them, "I am He," they drew back and fell to the ground.
- 7 Therefore He again asked them, "Whom do you seek?" And they said, "Jesus the Nazarene."
- 8 Jesus answered, "I told you that I am He; so if you seek Me, let these go their way,"
- 9 to fulfill the word which He spoke, "Of those whom You have given Me I lost not one." 10 Simon Peter then, having a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's slave, and cut off his right ear; and the slave's name was Malchus.
- 11 So Jesus said to Peter, "Put the sword into 4 the sheath; the cup which the Father has given Me, shall I not drink it?"

Jesus before the Priests

12 So the Roman cohort and the commander and the officers of the Jews, arrested Jesus and bound Him.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 17:24 — "Father, I desire that they also, whom You have given Me, be with Me where I am, so that they may see My glory."

Hebrews 12:2 tells us, "Jesus . . . for the joy set before Him endured the cross." What was His joy? Fulfilling the purpose for which He came—to restore our relationship with Him and show His glory. In the moments before He faced arrest, Jesus prayed for us in the Garden of Gethsemane. And because He triumphed on the Cross, not only has He achieved His mission, we can share in His joy as well.

> 18:11 — "The cup which the Father has given Me, shall I not drink it?"

Three times in the Garden of Gethsemane Jesus prayed that, if it were possible, God would remove the "cup" of the Cross from Him (Matt. 26:36–46). He didn't, and so now Jesus would let nothing come between Him and that cup.

13 and led Him to Annas first; for he was father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year.

14 Now Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that it was expedient for one man to die on behalf of the people.

15 Simon Peter was following Jesus, and so was another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and entered with Jesus into the court of the high priest, 16 but Peter was standing at the door outside. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the doorkeeper, and brought Peter in.

17 Then the slave-girl who kept the door *said to Peter, "You are not also one of this man's disciples, are you?" He *said, "I am not." 18 Now the slaves and the officers were standing there, having made a charcoal fire, for it was cold and they were warming themselves; and Peter was also with them, standing and warming himself.

19 The high priest then questioned Jesus about His disciples, and about His teaching.

20 Jesus answered him, "I have spoken openly to the world; I always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where all the Jews come together; and I spoke nothing in secret. 21 "Why do you question Me? Question those who have heard what I spoke to them; they know what I said."

22 When He had said this, one of the officers standing nearby struck Jesus, saying, "Is that the way You answer the high priest?"

23 Jesus answered him, "If I have spoken wrongly, testify of the wrong; but if rightly, why do you strike Me?"

24 So Annas sent Him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.

Peter's Denial of Jesus

25 Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. So they said to him, "You are not also one of His disciples, are you?" He denied it, and said, "I am not."

26 One of the slaves of the high priest, being a relative of the one whose ear Peter cut off, *said, "Did I not see you in the garden with Him?"

27 Peter then denied it again, and immediately a rooster crowed.

Jesus before Pilate

28 Then they *led Jesus from Caiaphas into the aPraetorium, and it was early; and they themselves did not enter into the Praetorium so that they would not be defiled, but might eat the Passover.

29 Therefore Pilate went out to them and *said, "What accusation do you bring against this Man?"

30 They answered and said to him, "If this Man were not an evildoer, we would not have delivered Him to you."

"Rabbi" Is Not Enough

JOHN 18:3

dudas Iscariot powerfully reminds us of the horrific possibilities within every human heart. While he called Jesus "Rabbi" (Matt. 26:25, 49), there is no record that he used the term "Lord." Sadly, he shows us that we can claim allegiance to Christ without ever truly believing in Him as our Lord and Savior (Matt. 7:22, 23). This is the case with those who believe that Jesus was a good teacher but deny that He is the only way to the Father (John 14:6), or those who profess to know Him but do so only for their own gain.

Whatever his reason for handing over the Lord Jesus, we know that sin had so blinded Judas that he could not see the Way, the Truth, and the Life. He pridefully took matters into his own hands and later regretted all that he had done (Matt. 27:3–5).

Judas's story of the betrayal still resonates, not only because of his evil kiss (Luke 22:47, 48) but also because we realize the wickedness of our own flesh. How many of us attend church regularly and give Jesus intellectual assent—but not our hearts? How many call Him King, only as a way to achieve our own thrones?

What kind of kiss do we give the Lord?

See the Life Principles Index for further study:

- 24. To live the Christian life is to allow Jesus to live His life in and through us.
- Our intimacy with God—His highest priority for our lives—determines the impact of our lives.
- 31 So Pilate said to them, "Take Him yourselves, and judge Him according to your law." The Jews said to him, "We are not permitted to put anyone to death,"
- 32 to fulfill the word of Jesus which He spoke, signifying by what kind of death He was about to die.
- 33 Therefore Pilate entered again into the Praetorium, and summoned Jesus and said to Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

- 34 Jesus answered, "Are you saying this on your own initiative, or did others tell you about Me?"
- 35 Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests delivered You to me; what have You done?"
- ➤ 36 Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, then My servants would be fighting so that I would not be handed over to the Jews; but as it is, My kingdom is not a of this realm."
 - 37 Therefore Pilate said to Him, "So You are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say correctly that I am a king. For this I have been born, and for this I have come into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice."

38 Pilate *said to Him, "What is truth?"

And when he had said this, he went out again to the Jews and *said to them, "I find no guilt in Him.

39 "But you have a custom that I release someone for you at the Passover; do you wish then that I release for you the King of the Jews?"

40 So they cried out again, saying, "Not this Man, but Barabbas." Now Barabbas was a robber.

The Crown of Thorns

 $19^{\scriptsize \textrm{PILATE}}$ then took Jesus and scourged Him.

- 2 And the soldiers twisted together a crown of thorns and put it on His head, and put a purple robe on Him;
- and they began to come up to Him and say, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and to give Him slaps in the face.
- 4 Pilate came out again and *said to them, "Behold, I am bringing Him out to you so that you may know that I find no guilt in Him."
- 5 Jesus then came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate *said to them, "Behold, the Man!"
- 6 So when the chief priests and the officers saw Him, they cried out saying, "Crucify, crucify!" Pilate *said to them, "Take Him yourselves and crucify Him, for I find no guilt in Him."
- 7 The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and by that law He ought to die because He made Himself out to be the Son of God."

- 8 Therefore when Pilate heard this statement, he was even more afraid;
- 9 and he entered into the ^bPraetorium again and *said to Jesus, "Where are You from?" But Jesus gave him no answer.
- 10 So Pilate *said to Him, "You do not speak to me? Do You not know that I have authority to release You, and I have authority to crucify You?"
- 11 Jesus answered, "You would have no authority over Me, unless it had been given you from above; for this reason he who delivered Me to you has the greater sin."
- 12 As a result of this Pilate made efforts to release Him, but the Jews cried out saying, "If you release this Man, you are no friend of Caesar; everyone who makes himself out to be a king opposes Caesar."
- 13 Therefore when Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called The Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha.
- 14 Now it was the day of preparation for the Passover; it was about the 'sixth hour. And he *said to the Jews, "Behold, your King!"
- 15 So they cried out, "Away with Him, away with Him, crucify Him!" Pilate *said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar."

The Crucifixion

- 16 So he then handed Him over to them to be crucified.
- 17 They took Jesus, therefore, and He went out, bearing His own cross, to the place called the Place of a Skull, which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha.
- 18 There they crucified Him, and with Him two other men, one on either side, and Jesus in between.
- 19 Pilate also wrote an inscription and put it on the cross. It was written, "JESUS THE NAZARENE. THE KING OF THE JEWS."
- 20 Therefore many of the Jews read this inscription, for the place where Jesus was cru-

> 18:36 — "My kingdom is not of this world."

One day Jesus will return to earth "to rule all the nations with a rod of iron" (Rev. 12:5; see also Ps. 2:9; Rev. 2:27; 19:15). Until then, His kingdom focuses on redeeming the hearts of the lost.

> 19:11 — "You would have no authority over Me, unless it had been given you from above."

 ${\mathcal M}$ o one exercises any authority at all in this world unless the Lord first gives it to him or her (Prov. 21:1; Dan.

4:17; Rom. 13:1). As children of a sovereign God, we are never victims of our circumstances.

> 19:15 — The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar."

The opponents of Jesus wanted Him dead so badly that they confessed Caesar as their only king, thus rejecting God as their King. No one speaking by the Spirit of the Lord could ever give total allegiance to a human ruler.

cified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, Latin and in Greek.

- 21 So the chief priests of the Jews were saying to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews'; but that He said, 'I am King of the Jews."
- 22 Pilate answered, "What I have written I have written."
- 23 Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took His outer garments and made four parts, a part to every soldier and also the atunic; now the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece.
- 24 So they said to one another, "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it, to decide whose it shall be"; this was to fulfill the Scripture: "They divided My outer garments among them, and for My clothing they cast lots."

25 Therefore the soldiers did these things.

But standing by the cross of Jesus were His mother, and His mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.

- ➤ 26 When Jesus then saw His mother, and the disciple whom He loved standing nearby, He *said to His mother, "Woman, behold, your son!"
 - 27 Then He *said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" From that hour the disciple took her into his own household.
 - 28 After this, Jesus, knowing that all things had already been accomplished, to fulfill the Scripture, *said, "I am thirsty."
 - 29 A jar full of sour wine was standing there; so they put a sponge full of the sour wine upon a branch of hyssop and brought it up to His mouth.
- ➤ 30 Therefore when Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, "It is finished!" And He bowed His head and gave up His spirit.

Care of the Body of Jesus

- 31 Then the Jews, because it was the day of preparation, so that the bodies would not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a high day), asked Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.
- 32 So the soldiers came, and broke the legs of the first man and of the other who was crucified with Him;
- 33 but coming to Jesus, when they saw that

He was already dead, they did not break His legs.

- 34 But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out.
- 35 And he who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true; and he knows that he is telling the truth, so that you also may believe.
- 36 For these things came to pass to fulfill the Scripture, "Not a bone of Him shall be broken."
- 37 And again another Scripture says, "They shall look on Him whom they pierced."
- 38 After these things Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but a secret one for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus; and Pilate granted permission. So he came and took away His body.
- 39 Nicodemus, who had first come to Him by night, also came, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds weight.
- 40 So they took the body of Jesus and bound it in linen wrappings with the spices, as is the burial custom of the Jews.
- 41 Now in the place where He was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been laid.
- 42 Therefore because of the Jewish day of preparation, since the tomb was nearby, they laid Jesus there.

The Empty Tomb

- 20 NOW on the first day of the week Mary Magdalene *came early to the tomb, while it *was still dark, and *saw the stone already taken away from the tomb.
- 2 So she *ran and *came to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and *said to them, "They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him."
- 3 So Peter and the other disciple went forth, and they were going to the tomb.
- 4 The two were running together; and the other disciple ran ahead faster than Peter and came to the tomb first:

> 19:26 — When Jesus then saw His mother, and the disciple whom He loved standing nearby, He said to His mother, "Woman, behold, your son!"

even as He died, Jesus showed His deep and genuine concern for others. He called upon John the Beloved to care for his mother. "The Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many" (Mark 10:45).

> 19:30 — "It is finished!" And He bowed His head and gave up His spirit.

Cach one of us has a sin debt that must be reconciled (Rom. 6:23), yet none of us can pay it because of our sin nature. So Christ—knowing every sin we would ever commit—took our record of wrongs upon Himself and wiped them all out with His own blood (Matt. 26:28; Rom. 3:23–26; Eph. 1:7; Col. 1:20; Heb. 9:11–28). It was finished forevermore! No one can ever condemn us because our Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, paid the penalty in full.

THOMAS

From Doubt to Faith

JOHN 20:24-29

he name Thomas is the Hebrew equivalent of the Greek name Didymus, which means "twin." Thomas reminds us of the similarities between doubt and faith—both originate from the same place: a confrontation with the unknown. Doubt concedes defeat, while faith claims the victory.

When Jesus appeared to Thomas, hope became reality. The Resurrection renewed his confidence in God (John 20:24–29) and motivated him to spend the rest of his life proclaiming the certainty of the risen Christ. Tradition holds that Thomas spread the gospel to India and helped dispel others' disbelief about the Resurrection.

If uncertainties have smothered your confidence in the Lord, remember His power so evident in the empty tomb. The Crucifixion was not the end of the story—and neither is the trial you face. Choose the path of faith and declare that triumph lies just ahead. Allow Jesus' resurrection to strengthen your hope, renew your certainty, and be your greatest victory.

9. Trusting God means looking beyond what we can see to what God sees.

- 10 So the disciples went away again to their own homes.
- 11 But Mary was standing outside the tomb weeping; and so, as she wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb;

- 13 And they *said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She *said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him."

- 15 Jesus *said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?" Supposing Him to be the gardener, she *said to Him, "Sir, if you have carried Him away, tell me where you have laid Him, and I will take Him away."

Jesus among His Disciples

19 So when it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were shut where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and *said to them, "Peace be with you."

20 And when He had said this, He showed them both His hands and His side. The disciples then rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

> 20:12 — She saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had been lying.

Though Mary didn't realize it, what she was seeing was the fulfillment of the Old Testament mercy seat—the glory of the Lord shone between those two angels (Ex.

25:22). Only, God's shekinah glory was not being revealed to a priest with an offering. It was being shown to a woman with a broken heart. The forgiveness, guidance, and presence of God—which had previously been accessible to only one man on one day a year (Lev. 16)—is now available to all of us for all eternity (Heb. 2:17; 4:14–16; 9:23–28; 10:19–23; 1 John 2:2; 4:10).

- ≥ 21 So Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you; as the Father has sent Me, I also send you."
 - 22 And when He had said this, He breathed on them and *said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit.
 - 23 "If you forgive the sins of any, their sins have been forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they have been retained."
 - 24 But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. 25 So the other disciples were saying to him, "We have seen the Lord!" But he said to them, "Unless I see in His hands the imprint of the nails, and put my finger into the place of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe."
 - 26 After eight days His disciples were again inside, and Thomas with them. Jesus *came, the doors having been shut, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you."
 - 27 Then He *said to Thomas, "Reach here with your finger, and see My hands; and reach here your hand and put it into My side; and do not be unbelieving, but believing."

28 Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord and my God!"

*29 Jesus *said to him, "Because you have seen Me, have you believed? Blessed are they who did not see, and yet believed."

Why This Gospel Was Written

30 Therefore many other signs Jesus also performed in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book;

Jesus Appears at the Sea of Galilee

m AFTER}$ these things Jesus manifested Himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias, and He manifested Himself in this way

- 2 Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others of His disciples were together.
- 3 Simon Peter *said to them, "I am going fishing." They *said to him, "We will also come with you." They went out and got into the boat; and that night they caught nothing.
- 4 But when the day was now breaking, Jesus stood on the beach; yet the disciples did not know that it was Jesus.
- 5 So Jesus *said to them, "Children, you do not have any fish, do you?" They answered Him, "No."
- 6 And He said to them, "Cast the net on the right-hand side of the boat and you will find a catch." So they cast, and then they were not able to haul it in because of the great number of fish.
- 7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved *said to Peter, "It is the Lord." So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put his outer garment on (for he was stripped for work), and threw himself into the sea.
- 8 But the other disciples came in the little boat, for they were not far from the land, but about one hundred yards away, dragging the net full of fish.
- 9 So when they got out on the land, they *saw a charcoal fire already laid and fish placed on it, and bread.
- 10 Jesus *said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have now caught."
- 11 Simon Peter went up and drew the net to land, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three; and although there were so many, the net was not torn.

Jesus Provides

12 Jesus *said to them, "Come and have <a href="https://breakfast." None of the disciples ventured to question Him, "Who are You?" knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus *came and *took the bread and *gave it to them, and the fish likewise.

> 20:29 — "Blessed are they who did not see, and yet believed."

homas declared that he must see and touch the Savior before he could believe in the Resurrection. Yet Jesus said that those who do not need visual evidence of His work and power would be especially blessed. Trusting God means looking beyond what we can see to what He sees. This is the very essence of faith—we don't see God at work, but we have confidence in Him anyway. We must actively obey Him and have confidence in His love for us before He will bless us.

> 20:31 — These have been written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing you may have life in His name.

If the Word of God did not have the Lord's stamp of approval, it would have fallen into obscurity long ago. But as Isaiah 40:8 assures, "The word of our God stands forever." The Bible is His revelation to us, and through the work of the Holy Spirit, it will continue to accomplish His purpose—to lead people to eternal life in Christ (ls. 55:11; Matt. 5:18; Phil. 1:6).

> 21:12 — Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast."

Of someone were making up the story, it would seem very odd to have the resurrected Savior making breakfast for His awestruck disciples. Yet God is interested in every detail of our lives, even the mundane ones.

14 This is now the third time that Jesus was manifested to the disciples, after He was raised from the dead.

The Love Motivation

15 So when they had finished breakfast, Jesus *said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me more than these?" He *said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You." He *said to him, "Tend My lambs."

16 He *said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me?" He *said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You." He *said to him, "Shepherd My sheep."

17 He *said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me?" Peter was grieved because He said to him the third time, "Do you love Me?" And he said to Him, "Lord, You know all things; You know that I love You." Jesus *said to him, "Tend My sheep.

Our Times Are in His Hand

18 "Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were younger, you used to gird yourself and walk wherever you wished; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands and someone else will gird you, and bring you where you do not wish to go."

19 Now this He said, signifying by what kind ✓ of death he would glorify God. And when He had spoken this, He *said to him, "Follow Me!"

20 Peter, turning around, *saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following them; the one who also had leaned back on His bosom at the supper and said, "Lord, who is the one who betrays You?"

21 So Peter seeing him *said to Jesus, "Lord, and what about this man?"

22 Jesus *said to him, "If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you? You follow Me!"

23 Therefore this saying went out among the brethren that that disciple would not die; yet Jesus did not say to him that he would not die, but only, "If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you?"

24 This is the disciple who is testifying to these things and wrote these things, and we know that his testimony is true.

25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did, which if they *were written in detail, I suppose that even the world itself *would not contain the books that *would be written.

> 21:19 — Signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God.

From this moment on, Peter knew what kind of death—crucifixion—awaited him. And yet he loved the Savior who forgave him with such a passion that he never shrank from fulfilling his purpose, even to the very end.

> 21:22 — Jesus said to him, "If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you? You follow Me!"

Pe are to concern ourselves with what God wants to do in our lives, not to fret about what He might do in the life of another. We are not to compare or compete—we are to obey. What the Lord does with His other servants is His business, not ours.

esus' last recorded words before His ascension—"You shall be My witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and even to the remotest part of the earth" (Acts 1:8)—prompted the great exploits recorded in the Book of Acts. Empowered by the Holy Spirit, godly men and women took seriously their Lord's final words and began to spread the news of the risen Savior to the most remote corners of the known world.

As the second volume in a two-part work by Luke, this book originally may not have had a separate title. All available Greek manuscripts designate it by the title Praxeis, "Acts," or by an expanded title such as, "The Acts of the Apostles." The term Praxeis was commonly used in Greek literature to summarize the accomplishments of outstanding men.

While the apostles are mentioned collectively at several points, this book emphasizes the acts of Peter (Acts 1–12) and of Paul (Acts 13–28). Peter took an immediate leadership role in the church at Jerusalem, while Paul took the lead in expanding the reach of the church to the Gentiles outside of Israel.

The Book of Acts covers about the first three decades of the church after Christ's resurrection and spotlights important events that took place from Jerusalem to Rome. Scholars have noted and appreciated its careful attention to recording not only the successes of the early church, but also its challenges (Acts 5:1–11; 11:1, 2; 15:1–5, 36–40).

Themes: The Book of Acts highlights the apostles' preaching regarding the resurrected Savior, Jesus Christ, and emphasizes how the Holy Spirit empowered, guided, protected, and encouraged the members of the church to boldly serve as witnesses for Jesus.

Author: The physician Luke, who uses the pronoun "we" during the last part of the narrative.

Time: Some scholars believe the book was written circa A.D. 63, while others prefer a date of A.D. 70 or later.

Structure: Each section of the book (1–7; 8–12; 13–28) focuses on a particular audience, a key personality, and a significant phase in the spread of the gospel message. Acts begins with the ascension of Christ and moves through the coming of the Holy Spirit and the growth of the church in Jerusalem (1–7). Next, the book focuses on the expansion of the church to the surrounding area after an outbreak of persecution (8–12), and then it shifts focus to the three missionary journeys and the imprisonment of Paul that took the gospel message to Greece and other parts of Europe (13–28).

As you read Acts, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

- 22. To walk in the Spirit is to obey the initial promptings of the Spirit. See Acts 1:8; 2:38; 10:19; pages 1260; 1263; 1276.
- 28. No Christian has ever been called to "go it alone" in his or her walk of faith. See Acts 2:42; page 1263.
- 25. God blesses us so that we might bless others. See Acts 11:29; page 1280.
- 17. We stand tallest and strongest on our knees. See Acts 12:5–11; page 1280.

Introduction

 $\mathbf{1}^{\mathrm{THE}}$ first account I composed, Theophilus, about all that Jesus began to do and teach.

2 until the day when He was taken up to heaven, after He had by the Holy Spirit given orders to the apostles whom He had chosen.

3 To these He also presented Himself alive after His suffering, by many convincing proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days and speaking of the things concerning the kingdom of God.

4 Gathering them together, He commanded them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait for what the Father had promised, "Which," He said, "you heard of from Me;

5 for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now."

6 So when they had come together, they were asking Him, saying, "Lord, is it at this time You are restoring the kingdom to Israel?"

7 He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or epochs which the Father has fixed by His own authority;

8 but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be My witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and even to the remotest part of the earth."

The Ascension

9 And after He had said these things, He was lifted up while they were looking on, and a cloud received Him out of their sight.

10 And as they were gazing intently into the sky while He was going, behold, two men in white clothing stood beside them.

* 11 They also said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in just the same way as you have watched Him go into heaven."

The Upper Room

12 Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey away.

13 When they had entered the city, they went up to the upper room where they were staying; that is, Peter and John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas the son of James.

14 These all with one mind were continually devoting themselves to prayer, along with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brothers.

15 At this time Peter stood up in the midst of the brethren (a gathering of about one hundred and twenty persons was there together), and said, 16 "Brethren, the Scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit foretold by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who became a guide to those who arrested Jesus.

17 "For he was counted among us and received his share in this ministry."

18 (Now this man acquired a field with the price of his wickedness, and falling headlong, he burst open in the middle and all his intestines gushed out.

19 And it became known to all who were living in Jerusalem; so that in their own language that field was called Hakeldama, that is, Field of Blood.)

20 "For it is written in the book of Psalms,

'LET HIS HOMESTEAD BE MADE DESOLATE, AND LET NO ONE DWELL IN IT'; and.

'LET ANOTHER MAN TAKE HIS OFFICE.'

21 "Therefore it is necessary that of the men who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us—

22 beginning with the baptism of John until the day that He was taken up from us—one of these must become a witness with us of His resurrection."

very believer is indwelt by the Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 3:16) and is "sealed for the day of redemption" (Eph. 4:30) at the moment they trust Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. From then on, the Spirit conforms the believer to the image of Christ and empowers the believer for service.

> 1:8 — "You will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be My witnesses."

Every time the power of the Holy Spirit is mentioned in Scripture, it is always related to sharing the gospel of truth so that God will be glorified and that people's lives will be changed. He indwells every believer so we can do what the Lord commands us to do—specifically, to be His ambassadors in this world, introducing people to the love and grace of God available to them in Christ. We become effective witnesses only through the power of the Spirit.

> 1:11 — "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky?"

Why were they standing there and looking up at the sky? Because the risen Lord Jesus Christ was gloriously ascending to heaven in order to sit at the Father's right hand. It is easy to get so mesmerized by the amazing power and miracles of God that we become mere observers rather than active participants in what He wants to do in this world. Yet God calls us to Spirit-empowered action, and we must tell others of the wonderful salvation He has provided for us.

- 23 So they put forward two men, Joseph called Barsabbas (who was also called Justus), and Matthias.
- 24 And they prayed and said, "You, Lord, who know the hearts of all men, show which one of these two You have chosen
- 25 to occupy this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place."
- 26 And they drew lots for them, and the lot fell to Matthias; and he was added to the eleven apostles.

The Day of Pentecost

2WHEN the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place.

- 2 And suddenly there came from heaven a noise like a violent rushing wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting.
- 3 And there appeared to them tongues as of fire distributing themselves, and they rested on each one of them.
- ➤ 4 And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit was giving them utterance.
- > 5 Now there were Jews living in Jerusalem, devout men from every nation under heaven.
 - 6 And when this sound occurred, the crowd came together, and were bewildered because each one of them was hearing them speak in his own language.
 - 7 They were amazed and astonished, saying, "Why, are not all these who are speaking Galileans?
 - 8 "And how is it that we each hear them in our own language to which we were born?
 - 9 "Parthians and Medes and Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia,
 - 10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya around Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and aproselytes,
 - 11 Cretans and Arabs—we hear them in our own tongues speaking of the mighty deeds of God."
 - 12 And they all continued in amazement and great perplexity, saying to one another, "What does this mean?"

13 But others were mocking and saying, "They are full of sweet wine."

Peter's Sermon

- 14 But Peter, taking his stand with the eleven, raised his voice and declared to them: "Men of Judea and all you who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you and give heed to my words.
- 15 "For these men are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only the ^bthird hour of the day; 16 but this is what was spoken of through the prophet Joel:
- 17 'And it shall be in the last days,' God says.
 - 'THAT I WILL POUR FORTH OF MY SPIRIT ON ALL MANKIND;
 - AND YOUR SONS AND YOUR DAUGHTERS SHALL PROPHESY,

AND YOUR YOUNG MEN SHALL SEE VISIONS, AND YOUR OLD MEN SHALL DREAM DREAMS;

- 18 Even on My bondslaves, both men and
 - I WILL IN THOSE DAYS POUR FORTH OF MY SPIRIT

And they shall prophesy.

- 19 'And I will grant wonders in the sky above
 - AND SIGNS ON THE EARTH BELOW, BLOOD, AND FIRE, AND VAPOR OF SMOKE.
- 20 'The sun will be turned into darkness And the moon into blood, Before the great and glorious day of the Lord shall come.
- 21 'AND IT SHALL BE THAT EVERYONE WHO CALLS ON THE NAME OF THE LORD WILL BE SAVED.'
- 22 "Men of Israel, listen to these words: Jesus the Nazarene, a man attested to you by God with miracles and wonders and signs which God performed through Him in your midst, just as you yourselves know—

> 2:4 — They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit was giving them utterance.

o demonstrate to the disciples and to the unbelieving world that the Spirit had come in power on the church in a new way, the believers began to speak in languages they had never learned. However, understand that what they spoke were the dialects of the people from "his own language" (Acts 2:6). They did not speak meaningless babble or some unknown tongue; rather, they spoke the established languages of "devout men from every nation under heaven" that were present (v. 5; also Acts 2:9–11; 1 Cor. 14).

> 2:5 — There were Jews living in Jerusalem, devout men from every nation under heaven.

Thy were there people from every nation in Jerusalem? Because it was the Feast of Pentecost—also called the Feast of Weeks—which was the fiftieth day of the Hebrew harvest (Lev. 23:15–22; Deut. 16:9–12). It was a celebration of God's provision, and Jews from all over the world would bring their offerings of thanksgiving to the temple. Little did they know that God would change their lives in such a radical way and that they would become the harvest (Acts 2:41)!

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S OUESTIONS

When and how am I filled with the Holy Spirit?

ACTS 2:4

What does the New Testament have to say about the believer's relationship with the Holy Spirit? It seems that there is sometimes a debate concerning the activity of the Spirit in a person's life and how a believer experiences the Spirit-filled Christian life. But when we look at Scripture, we see that there is no real cause for confusion.

The Holy Spirit arrived to establish the church on the Day of Pentecost, and He was accompanied by extraordinary manifestations of His presence. These demonstrations were signoriented, not character-based. In other words, the Bible doesn't say that after being filled with the Holy Spirit, those in the Upper Room went out with great patience, kindness, gentleness, and so on (Gal. 5:22, 23). Rather, it says they immediately began speaking in other tongues. That is how the unbelievers who heard them knew that something supernatural had taken place (Acts 2:1–12).

Initially, it appeared that the Spirit specifically came to indwell those gathered in the Upper Room to spread the gospel (Acts 2:3, 4). Soon, however, other believers also were filled with the Holy Spirit as they surrendered their lives to Jesus Christ (4:31; 9:17). It then became obvious that Christian believers everywhere were being blessed with the outpouring of the Spirit and that He was transforming their lives (10:45).

What then was the relationship between salvation and receiving the Spirit? Paul explained, "After listening to the message of truth, the gospel of your salvation—having also believed, you were sealed in Him with the Holy Spirit of promise, who is given as a pledge of our inheritance, with a view to the redemption of God's own possession, to the praise of His glory" (Eph. 1:13, 14).

≥ 23 this Man, delivered over by the predetermined plan and foreknowledge of God, you

Within a few years following the Day of Pentecost, the gospel of Jesus Christ was being taught throughout the known world and lives were being changed as a result of His Spirit. In fact, after the Book of Acts, the phrase "filled with the Spirit" was not used again, except for being mentioned in Ephesians 5:18. In that passage, Paul talks about surrendering to the influence of the Spirit—not to the indwelling ministry of the Holy Spirit, which every believer receives.

Today, God dwells in the hearts and lives of all who place their faith in His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. Paul wrote, "By one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and we were all made to drink of one Spirit" (1 Cor. 12:13). The apostle John wrote, "By this we know that we abide in Him and He in us, because He has given us of His Spirit" (1 John 4:13). In fact, "If anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Him" (Rom. 8:9). We know we belong to Christ because His Spirit dwells in us.

We are filled with God's Spirit the moment we accept Christ as our personal Savior. We are not repeatedly refilled—we have all we are going to receive of the Spirit at salvation. However, as we grow in our Christian walk, we learn more about God's ways, character, and presence within us through His Spirit. The more about Him we know, love, and obey, the more we learn how to live life to the fullest. Some may say that we receive more of the Holy Spirit, but just the opposite is true—the Spirit actually gains more of us.

nailed to a cross by the hands of godless men and put Him to death.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 2:23 — "This Man, delivered over by the predetermined plan and foreknowledge of God, you nailed to a cross by the hands of godless men and put Him to death." In a way none of us can fully understand, God orchestrated all the events of Jesus' arrest and death, and yet every individual who played a part in His execution remained personally responsible for his choices and actions.

24 "But God raised Him up again, putting an end to the agony of death, since it was impossible for Him to be held in its power.

25 "For David says of Him,

'I saw the Lord always in my presence; For He is at my right hand, so that I WILL not be shaken.

- 26 'THEREFORE MY HEART WAS GLAD AND MY TONGUE EXULTED;
- Moreover my flesh also will live in hope;
 Because You will not abandon my soul to Hades
 - Nor allow Your Holy One to undergo decay.
- 28 'YOU HAVE MADE KNOWN TO ME THE WAYS OF LIFE;
 - YOU WILL MAKE ME FULL OF GLADNESS WITH YOUR PRESENCE.'
- 29 "Brethren, I may confidently say to you regarding the patriarch David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.
- 30 "And so, because he was a prophet and knew that God had sworn to him with an oath to seat one of his descendants on his throne.
- 31 he looked ahead and spoke of the resurrection of athe Christ, that He was neither abandoned to Hades, nor did His flesh suffer decay.
- 32 "This Jesus God raised up again, to which we are all witnesses.
- 33 "Therefore having been exalted to the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, He has poured forth this which you both see and hear.
- 34 "For it was not David who ascended into heaven, but he himself says:

'THE LORD SAID TO MY LORD,
"SIT AT MY RIGHT HAND,

35 Until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet."

36 "Therefore let all the house of Israel know for certain that God has made Him both Lord and Christ—this Jesus whom you crucified."

The Ingathering

37 Now when they heard this, they were pierced to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Brethren, what shall we do?"

38 Peter said to them, "Repent, and each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ of the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

39 "For the promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off, as many as the Lord our God will call to Himself."

- 40 And with many other words he solemnly testified and kept on exhorting them, saying, "Be saved from this perverse generation!"
- 41 So then, those who had received his word were baptized; and that day there were added about three thousand bouls.
- 42 They were continually devoting themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.
- 43 Everyone kept feeling a sense of awe; and many wonders and signs were taking place through the apostles.
- 44 And all those who had believed ^cwere together and had all things in common;
- 45 and they began selling their property and possessions and were sharing them with all, as anyone might have need.
- 46 Day by day continuing with one mind in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they were taking their meals together with gladness and sincerity of heart,
- 47 praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord was adding to their number day by day those who were being saved.

> 2:38 — "You will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit."

Overy believer receives the Holy Spirit the moment he or she accepts Christ as Savior. The Lord sends His Spirit to indwell us because He knows how inadequate we are—we cannot possibly live the Christian life on our own. Therefore, the Holy Spirit makes us able to accomplish every good work He calls us to do. God never made us to be sufficient within ourselves. He made us to be adequate in Him—which is why it is so important that we always trust in and obey the initial promptings of His Spirit.

> 2:42 — They were continually devoting themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.

o grow in faith and to fulfill the mission Jesus has given to us, we must regularly gather together for instruction, worship, encouragement, and prayer. God never calls any Christian to a solitary life of faith. Rather, it is in fellowship with other believers that we can become all He created us to be (Heb. 10:24).

Although we may not have riches, political influence, or many other things that the world craves to give to them, we do have what they really need. As believers, we should always direct people to the Lord as the disciples did. The healing of the lame man brought a great crowd to Solomon's portico and presented Peter and John with an excellent opportunity to preach the gospel. Whereas the disabled man had been afflicted in his body, Peter pointed out that the men of Israel were crippled in their souls (Acts 3:14–18). > 4:12 — "There is salvation in no one else; for there is no other name under heaven that has been given among men by which we must be saved."

If Jesus did not really have to die to save us, then why would God send Him to the Cross? God does not make mistakes, and His wisdom is always sound. Jesus died so we might have eternal life. He says that we can only come to Him through faith and acceptance of His life, death, and resurrection.

> 4:13 — As they observed the confidence of Peter and John and understood that they were uneducated and untrained men, they were amazed, and began to recognize them as having been with Jesus. eal success is never about your own intelligence, education, beauty, or talent. Rather, it is about the Lord Jesus Christ shining through you. Spend time with Him—in prayer and in God's Word—and obey Him wholeheartedly. That is when He is able to do the most amazing things through you (1 Cor. 1:26–31; 2 Cor. 4:7; 12:10).

> 4:19 — "Whether it is right in the sight of God to give heed to you rather than to God, you be the judge."

For Jesus' sake, we accept the consequences of our allegiance to Him, knowing that He will reward us in the life to come (Matt. 5:10–12).

➤ 31 And when they had prayed, the place where they had gathered together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak the word of God with boldness.

Sharing among Believers

32 And the congregation of those who believed were of one heart and soul; and not one of them claimed that anything belonging to him was his own, but all things were common property to them.

33 And with great power the apostles were giving testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and abundant grace was upon them all.

34 For there was not a needy person among them, for all who were owners of land or houses would sell them and bring the proceeds of the sales

35 and lay them at the apostles' feet, and they would be distributed to each as any had need.

3 But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and to keep back some of the price of the land?

4 "While it remained unsold, did it not remain your own? And after it was sold, was it not under your control? Why is it that you have conceived this deed in your heart? You have not lied to men but to God."

5 And as he heard these words, Ananias fell down and breathed his last; and great fear came over all who heard of it.

6 The young men got up and covered him up, and after carrying him out, they buried him.

7 Now there elapsed an interval of about three hours, and his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.

8 And Peter responded to her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for such and such a price?" And she said, "Yes, that was the price."

9 Then Peter said to her, "Why is it that you have agreed together to put the Spirit of the Lord to the test? Behold, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out as well."

10 And immediately she fell at his feet and breathed her last, and the young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her beside her husband.

11 And great fear came over the whole church, and over all who heard of these things.

12 At the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were taking place among the people; and they were all with one accord in Solomon's portico.

13 But none of the rest dared to associate with them; however, the people held them in high esteem.

> 4:29 — "Grant that Your bond-servants may speak Your word with all confidence."

In a world that does not seem to respect God, we must pray for boldness and strength to represent Him well, and by our words and actions be His vessels by which He draws others into a saving relationship with Christ.

> 4:31 — When they had prayed . . . they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak the word of God with boldness.

There is no substitute for believers regularly coming together for earnest prayer. God does amazing things in response to the faith-filled prayers of His people.

> 5:11 — Great fear came over the whole church, and over all who heard of these things.

After Ananias and Sapphira were struck dead because they lied to the Holy Spirit (Acts 5:3, 9), the people were reminded of God's perfect holiness. This filled them with fear that they would face the same end. We should learn a similar lesson. Although we live under His grace, God is righteous, and we are to be holy as He is because we are His ambassadors (Lev. 11:44; 19:2; 10:7; Eph. 1:4; Col. 1:22; 1 Pet. 1:13–16). True reverence of the Lord's holiness and power purifies the church and helps us to live in submission to Him.

Imprisonment and Release

- 17 But the high priest rose up, along with all his associates (that is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy.
- 18 They laid hands on the apostles and put them in a public jail.
- 19 But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the gates of the prison, and taking them out he said,
- ≥ 20 "Go, stand and speak to the people in the temple the whole message of this Life."
 - 21 Upon hearing this, they entered into the temple about daybreak and began to teach.

Now when the high priest and his associates came, they called the Council together, even all the Senate of the sons of Israel, and sent orders to the prison house for them to be brought.

22 But the officers who came did not find them in the prison; and they returned and reported back,

23 saying, "We found the prison house locked quite securely and the guards standing at the doors; but when we had opened up, we found no one inside."

24 Now when the captain of the temple guard and the chief priests heard these words, they were greatly perplexed about them as to what would come of this.

25 But someone came and reported to them, "The men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people!"

26 Then the captain went along with the officers and proceeded to bring them back without violence (for they were afraid of the people, that they might be stoned).

27 When they had brought them, they stood them before the Council. The high priest questioned them.

28 saying, "We gave you strict orders not to continue teaching in this name, and yet, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and intend to bring this man's blood upon us."

29 But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than men.

30 "The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you had put to death by hanging Him on a cross.

31 "He is the one whom God exalted to His right hand as a Prince and a Savior, to grant repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. 32 "And we are witnesses bof these things; and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey Him."

Gamaliel's Counsel

- 33 But when they heard this, they were cut to the quick and intended to kill them.
- 34 But a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the Law, respected by all the people, stood up in the Council and gave orders to put the men outside for a short time.
- 35 And he said to them, "Men of Israel, take care what you propose to do with these men. 36 "For some time ago Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody, and a group of about four hundred men joined up with him. But he was killed, and all who followed him were dispersed and came to nothing.

37 "After this man, Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of the census and drew away some people after him; he too perished, and all those who followed him were scattered.

38 "So in the present case, I say to you, stay away from these men and let them alone, for if this plan or action is of men, it will be overthrown;

39 but if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them; or else you may even be found fighting against God."

40 They took his advice; and after calling the apostles in, they flogged them and ordered them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and then released them.

41 So they went on their way from the presence of the Council, rejoicing that they had been considered worthy to suffer shame for His name.

Choosing of the Seven

6 NOW at this time while the disciples were increasing in number, a complaint arose on the part of the aHellenistic Jews against the native Hebrews, because their widows were being overlooked in the daily serving of food.

- 2 So the twelve summoned the congregation of the disciples and said, "It is not desirable for us to neglect the word of God in order to serve tables.

 - 6 And these they brought before the apostles; and after praying, they laid their hands on them
 - 7 The word of God kept on spreading; and the number of the disciples continued to increase greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests were becoming obedient to the faith.
 - 8 And Stephen, full of grace and power, was performing great wonders and signs among the people.
 - 9 But some men from what was called the Synagogue of the Freedmen, including both Cyrenians and Alexandrians, and some from Cilicia and Asia, rose up and argued with Stephen.
 - 10 But they were unable to cope with the wisdom and the Spirit with which he was speaking.

- 11 Then they secretly induced men to say, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and against God."
- 12 And they stirred up the people, the elders and the scribes, and they came up to him and dragged him away and brought him before the Council.
- 13 They put forward false witnesses who said, "This man incessantly speaks against this holy place and the Law;
- 14 for we have heard him say that this Nazarene, Jesus, will destroy this place and alter the customs which Moses handed down to us."
- 15 And fixing their gaze on him, all who were sitting in the Council saw his face like the face of an angel.

as Stephen recounted Israel's history, he reminded those listening that Joseph had been persecuted by his own brothers and that God used even their evil deeds for blessing (Gen. 37—47). The Jewish people were always quick to reject how He was working in their midst—to their detriment. Yet, God never disowned those like Joseph who remained obedient to Him, and He eventually exalted those who humbled themselves before Him (Luke 14:11; James 4:10; 1 Pet. 5:6).

STEPHEN

Echoing His Savior

ACTS 7:59, 60

Stephen slumped to the ground as blood and forgiveness poured from his lips. Nearby, a young man watched, unaware that this death would bring life to worldwide evangelism. Later, the young man who had supported the execution of Stephen because of his allegiance to Christ became the apostle Paul.

Stephen most revealed his Christlike qualities when under duress. As the stones assailed him, he cried, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!" (Acts 7:59). And then, as death inched closer with every blow, he echoed his Savior by praying aloud, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them!" (v. 60).

The beauty of Stephen's final words can never be overstated. They most eloquently summarize the heart of the true Christian. They testified that the Lord of grace was living inside him. They spoke of ultimate love, and they were words that grabbed the attention of someone who was nearby—watching.

Saul Persecutes the Church

SAUL was in hearty agreement with putting him to death.

And on that day a great persecution began against the church in Jerusalem, and they were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.

S aul persecuted the church because he saw Christians as a terrible threat to the Jewish religion—he hon-

Saul, who became the apostle Paul, could never forget that he tried to destroy the church (Gal. 1:13), and he called himself the "foremost of all" sinners (1 Tim. 1:15). Jesus often requires a radical change in our attitudes, actions, and understanding. Will you cling to your erroneous ideas or immediately do as He says? If you really love God and do everything for Him, the choice will be clear.

An Ethiopian Receives Christ

25 So, when they had solemnly testified and spoken the word of the Lord, they started back to Jerusalem, and were preaching the gospel to many villages of the Samaritans.

26 But an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip saying, "Get up and go south to the road that descends from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is a desert road.)

> 27 So he got up and went; and there was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was in charge of all her treasure; and he had come to Jerusalem to worship.

28 and he was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah. 29 Then the Spirit said to Philip, "Go up and ioin this chariot."

30 Philip ran up and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

31 And he said, "Well, how could I, unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.

32 Now the passage of Scripture which he was reading was this:

"HE WAS LED AS A SHEEP TO SLAUGHTER;

AND AS A LAMB BEFORE ITS SHEARER IS

So He does not open His mouth.

33 "In humiliation His judgment was taken

Who will relate His generation?

FOR HIS LIFE IS REMOVED FROM THE EARTH."

34 The eunuch answered Philip and said, "Please tell me, of whom does the prophet say this? Of himself or of someone else?" 35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning from this Scripture he preached Jesus to him.

36 As they went along the road they came to some water; and the eunuch *said, "Look! Water! What prevents me from being baptized?"

37 [aAnd Philip said, "If you believe with all your heart, you may." And he answered and said, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God."1

38 And he ordered the chariot to stop; and they both went down into the water, Philip as well as the eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; and the eunuch no longer saw him, but went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he passed through he kept preaching the gospel to all the cities until he came to Caesarea.

The Conversion of Saul

9 NOW Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest, and asked for letters from him to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any belonging to the Way, both men and women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.

> 8:20 — "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money!"

Ithough Simon believed in Christ for salvation (Acts # 8:13), his heart was still set on worldly thingsmoney and power. Peter rebuked Simon sharply—not to condemn him, but to rescue him. As believers, we must always be wary of what we've set our heart on. Remember, "You cannot serve God and wealth" (Matt. 6:24). If you say you've received Christ, but continue addressing situations with your worldly goals and ambitions—there is something terribly wrong, and you must reevaluate your priorities.

> 8:27 — He got up and went.

(Dhilip didn't waste time arguing with the angel of the Lord about why he should go—he simply obeyed. Had Philip demanded more details and spent time debating the wisdom of the command, he would have missed the opportunity to influence a high official of the Ethiopian court. Immediate obedience is always necessary. That's why it's important to spend time alone with the Lord. When He calls, you know His voice and can act directly.

> 8:37 — "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God."

(Dhilip made wholehearted belief in the resurrection of Christ a prerequisite for baptizing the Ethiopian eunuch. In baptism, we identify with the death and resurrection of Christ and begin a new way of living in His name (Rom. 6:3-6).

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT HOW GOD USES ADVERSITY TO GET OUR ATTENTION

Acts 9:1-20

ny instructor will tell you that the first goal of a teacher is to raise a student's interest. You can't teach someone who isn't paying attention. Just so, the Lord sometimes uses adversity in our lives to cause us to focus on Him in a new way.

That's exactly what happened to Saul of Tarsus as he traveled to Damascus, where he intended to bring great persecution upon the Christians in that city. Scripture tells us that Saul was "breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord" (Acts 9:1). It seemed that his cruel mission nearly consumed him.

But God got Saul's attention in a way he never expected. He sent him crashing to the ground with a blazing light and instructed him to enter the city and there wait for instructions. When he opened his eyes, he found himself blind and had to ask others to lead him by the hand into the city.

Saul definitely received a wake-up call from the Lord that day. In one stunning moment, God gained Saul's undivided attention, striking him with the adversity of blindness and humbling him in front of his traveling companions.

God had Saul exactly where He wanted him.

The Lord had Saul exactly where He wanted him.

Saul felt more than ready to listen when the Lord asked, "Why are you persecuting Me?" (Acts 9:4). Up to that point, Saul had no idea he was dishonoring God. In fact, he thought he was serving the Lord by ridding the world of Christians. A period of intense adversity resulted in a complete turnaround for Saul. Within a matter of days, he was proclaiming Jesus in the synagogues (v. 20).

The Lord got Saul's full attention on the Damascus Road, and He used the temporary blindness and humiliation to transform the zealous Pharisee named Saul into the powerful apostle and missionary named Paul, who spread the gospel and planted churches across the Roman world.

God knew exactly what He was doing when He saved Paul. And He knows what He is doing in your life through the affliction you are facing. Never delay in responding to His call. When He allows difficulties in your life, seek Him, give Him your full attention, respond to His commands quickly and humbly, and listen for what He has to say to you. You will never regret giving your heart and life to the Savior.

 - 7 The men who traveled with him stood speechless, hearing the voice but seeing no one.
 - 8 Saul got up from the ground, and though his eyes were open, he could see nothing; and leading him by the hand, they brought him into Damascus.
 - 9 And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank.
 - 10 Now there was a disciple at Damascus named Ananias; and the Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." And he said, "Here I am, Lord."
- ➤ 11 And the Lord said to him, "Get up and go to the street called Straight, and inquire at the house of Judas for a man from Tarsus named Saul, for he is praying,

- 20 and immediately he began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, saying, "He is the Son of God."
- 21 All those hearing him continued to be amazed, and were saying, "Is this not he who in Jerusalem destroyed those who called on this name, and who had come here for the purpose of bringing them bound before the chief priests?"
- 22 But Saul kept increasing in strength and confounding the Jews who lived at Damascus by proving that this Jesus is the Christ.
- 23 When many days had elapsed, the Jews plotted together to do away with him,
- 24 but their plot became known to Saul. They were also watching the gates day and night so that they might put him to death;
- 25 but his disciples took him by night and let him down through an opening in the wall, lowering him in a large basket.
- 26 When he came to Jerusalem, he was trying to associate with the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple.
- 27 But Barnabas took hold of him and brought him to the apostles and described to them how he had seen the Lord on the road, and that He had talked to him, and how at Damascus he had spoken out boldly in the name of Jesus.

> 9:4 — "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?"

Before the apostle Paul knew Jesus as his Savior, he was a prominent Pharisee named Saul, and he persecuted the church. That is, he sent people who believed in Jesus Christ to be tortured and put to death. Saul honestly thought he was serving God by arresting and imprisoning dangerous heretics. Yet Jesus told him that by putting Christians to death, he was persecuting God Himself. When we bless other believers, we bless Christ; and when we wound other believers, we harm Him (Matt. 25:40, 45).

> 9:11 — "Inquire at the house of Judas for a man from Tarsus named Saul."

The Lord gave Ananias an assignment he did not particularly like—minister to the man who had been persecuting the church. Ananias vocalized his fears that Saul was a dangerous man, but the Lord repeated His command to go. Your fears are never an excuse for disobeying God. Although your challenges may seem terrifying, God is ultimately in charge of your life and assumes full responsibility for your needs when you submit to Him. Ananias obeyed—and the church was blessed with a new apostle. The Lord will bless you when you obey as well.

> 9:22 — Saul kept increasing in strength and confounding the Jews who lived at Damascus by proving that this Jesus is the Christ.

Though Saul had worldly knowledge through his education as a Pharisee, it didn't compare to the spiritual wisdom he acquired when Jesus Christ became his Savior. God can use your temporal gifts and aptitudes in an amazing way when they are under the control of His Spirit.

> 9:27 — Barnabas took hold of him and brought him to the apostles.

The name Barnabas means "Son of Encouragement" (Acts 4:36), and wherever we see him in the Book

Peter's Ministry

- 32 Now as Peter was traveling through all those regions, he came down also to the saints who lived at Lydda.
- 33 There he found a man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden eight years, for he was paralyzed.
- 34 Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you; get up and make your bed." Immediately he got up.
- 35 And all who lived at Lydda and Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.
- 36 Now in Joppa there was a disciple named Tabitha (which translated in Greek is called Dorcas); this woman was abounding with deeds of kindness and charity which she continually did.
- 37 And it happened at that time that she fell sick and died; and when they had washed her body, they laid it in an upper room.
- 38 Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, having heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him, imploring him, "Do not delay in coming to us."
- 39 So Peter arose and went with them. When he arrived, they brought him into the upper room; and all the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing all the atunics and garments that Dorcas used to make while she was with them.
- 40 But Peter sent them all out and knelt down and prayed, and turning to the body, he said, "Tabitha, arise." And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up.
- 41 And he gave her his hand and raised her up; and calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive.

- 42 It became known all over Joppa, and many believed in the Lord.
- 43 And Peter stayed many days in Joppa with a tanner named Simon.

> 9:31 — The church . . . enjoyed peace, being built up; and going on in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, it continued to increase.

Peace, fear, and comfort may seem like unlikely partners, but the peace of Christ, combined with the fear of God, combined with the comfort of the Spirit, makes a powerful recipe for growth. Peace with God is the fruit of oneness with Him. When we are rightly related to the Lord is when we grow and bear the most fruit (John 15:4, 5).

► 15 Again a voice came to him a second time, "What God has cleansed, no longer consider unholy.

 - 21 Peter went down to the men and said, "Behold, I am the one you are looking for; what is the reason for which you have come?" 22 They said, "Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous and God-fearing man well spoken of by the entire nation of the Jews, was divinely directed by a holy angel to send for you to come to his house and hear a message from you." 23 So he invited them in and gave them lodging.

Peter at Caesarea

And on the next day he got up and went away with them, and some of the brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 On the following day he entered Caesarea. Now Cornelius was waiting for them and had called together his relatives and close friends.

25 When Peter entered, Cornelius met him. and fell at his feet and worshiped him.

26 But Peter raised him up, saying, "Stand up; I too am just a man.'

27 As he talked with him, he entered and *found many people assembled.

28 And he said to them, "You yourselves know.how.unlawful.it.is.for.a.man.who.is.a Jew to associate with a foreigner or to visit him; and yet God has shown me that I should not call any man unholy or unclean.

29 "That is why I came without even raising any objection when I was sent for. So I ask for what reason you have sent for me."

30 Cornelius said, "Four days ago to this hour, I was praying in my house during the aninth hour; and behold, a man stood before me in shining garments, 31 and he *said, 'Cornelius, your prayer has been heard and your alms have been remembered before God.

As Philippians 2:3 instructs, "Do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit, but with humility of mind regard one another as more important than yourselves.'

> 10:19 — The Spirit said to him, "Behold, three men are looking for you."

It was important for Peter to meet Cornelius, and God told him as such. Thankfully, Peter did not ignore the promptings of the Holy Spirit because of his preconceived notions or plans. If he had, imagine the immense blessing he would have missed (Acts 10:44-48)! God tends to guide us in stages. When we walk in His ways and obey the initial promptings of the Spirit, we will always find that our final destination is a place of praise and adoration for our wonderful Lord.

> 10:28 — "God has shown me that I should not call any man unholy or unclean."

s a God-fearer, Cornelius would have believed in the God of Israel, but he probably wasn't a Jewish convert in the formal sense. This presented a unique challenge to Peter because Jews were not to associate with Gentiles (Acts 11:2, 3), and there was a question about whether Gentiles could become Christians without first converting to Judaism (15:1–29). Yet the Lord made it clear—no person was to be called unclean. We are saved by Jesus Christ alone, and the invitation is open to whomever will believe in Him (Rom. 1:16; 10:9-12).

> 10:35 — "In every nation the man who fears Him and does what is right is welcome to Him."

ornelius feared God and performed "what is right" before he heard a word about the risen Christ—but he still needed to come to faith in Jesus. Those who really seek God will find Him (Jer. 29:13), and we must be ready to tell them about the hope we have in Him (Rom. 10:14, 15; 1 Pet. 3:15).

37 you yourselves know the thing which took place throughout all Judea, starting from Galilee, after the baptism which John proclaimed.

38 "You know of Jesus of Nazareth, how God anointed Him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and how He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with Him.

39 "We are witnesses of all the things He did both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They also put Him to death by hanging Him on a cross.

➤ 40 "God raised Him up on the third day and granted that He become visible, 41 not to all the people, but to witnesses who were chosen beforehand by God, that is, to us who ate and drank with Him after He arose from the dead.

42 "And He ordered us to preach to the people, and solemnly to testify that this is the One who has been appointed by God as Judge of the living and the dead.

* 43 "Of Him all the prophets bear witness that through His name everyone who believes in Him receives forgiveness of sins."

44 While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell upon all those who were listening to the message.

45 All the circumcised believers who came with Peter were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out on the Gentiles also.

46 For they were hearing them speaking with tongues and exalting God. Then Peter answered.

47 "Surely no one can refuse the water for these to be baptized who have received the Holy Spirit just as we did, can he?"

48 And he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay on for a few days.

Peter Reports at Jerusalem

1 NOW the apostles and the brethren who were throughout Judea heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God.

2 And when Peter came up to Jerusalem, those who were circumcised took issue with him,

- 4 But Peter began speaking and proceeded to explain to them in orderly sequence, saying,
- 5 "I was in the city of Joppa praying; and in a trance I saw a vision, an object coming down like a great sheet lowered by four corners from the sky; and it came right down to me,

- 8 "But I said, 'By no means, Lord, for nothing unholy or unclean has ever entered my mouth.'
- 9 "But a voice from heaven answered a second time, 'What God has cleansed, no longer consider unholy.'

10 "This happened three times, and everything was drawn back up into the sky.

- 12 "The Spirit told me to go with them without misgivings. These six brethren also went with me and we entered the man's house.
- 13 "And he reported to us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, and saying, 'Send to Joppa and have Simon, who is also called Peter, brought here;
- 14 and he will speak words to you by which you will be saved, you and all your household'
- 15 "And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them just as He did upon us at the beginning.
- 16 "And I remembered the word of the Lord, how He used to say, 'John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.'
- 17 "Therefore if God gave to them the same gift as He gave to us also after believing in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could stand in God's way?"

LIFE PRINCIPLE 22

TO WALK IN THE SPIRIT IS TO OBEY THE INITIAL PROMPTINGS OF THE SPIRIT.

ACTS 10:19

ho do you turn to for daily guidance on how to live or what decision to make?

Scripture tells us the only Guide worth trusting is the Holy Spirit. He is the One who knows our pasts completely, from the moment we were conceived to the present, and who also knows our futures, from this day to eternity. He knows God's plan and purpose for us today and for each day of our lives. He also knows what is good and right for us.

Jesus repeatedly referred to the Spirit as the "Spirit of truth." Note what He said about the Holy Spirit's activity in your life: "He will guide you into all the truth; for He will not speak on His own initiative, but whatever He hears, He will speak; and He will disclose to you what is to come" (John 16:13). The Spirit of truth is like an inner compass in our lives—always pointing us toward what Jesus would be, say, or do in any given moment.

God desires to make His will known to you. He wants you to know what to do and when to do it. Therefore, you can trust the Holy Spirit to be your daily Guide! After the Lord poured out the Holy Spirit on the disciples, they found themselves led in profound ways by the Spirit. The verses below give just a few examples of how the Holy Spirit dealt with His people in ways that provided very personal and specific guidance. What He did for them then, He desires to do for you today.

"The Spirit told me to go with them without misgivings" (Acts 11:12).

"While they were ministering to the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, 'Set apart for Me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them'" (Acts 13:2).

"They passed through the Phrygian and Galatian region, having been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia" (Acts 16:6).

The leaders of the early church relied on the Holy Spirit to give them this kind of specific, personal guidance, and we are wise to do likewise. Both Romans 8:14 and Galatians 5:18 refer to our being "led by the Spirit"—the norm of the Christian life.

The Spirit of truth is like an inner compass in our lives.

You may ask, "Are there any conditions placed upon the guidance of the Holy Spirit in our lives?"

Yes.

First, we must stay yielded to the Spirit. We must say yes to the Spirit when He prompts us to take a certain action or say a certain word. We must give mental assent to the Spirit's direction, and then we must actually obey His prompting and follow through by doing or saying what He has called us to do or say.

The Spirit often speaks to us in the stillness of our hearts with a word of conviction or assurance. When the Holy Spirit is directing us away from something harmful, we very often have a heaviness, feeling of trouble, foreboding, or uneasiness in our spirits. When the Holy Spirit is directing us toward helpful things, we tend to feel a deep inner peace, an eagerness to see what God will do, and a feeling of joy.

How can you know if you are yielded to the Holy Spirit? You are yielded to Him when you can say to Him, "Here is what I desire. But if Your answer to this is 'no,' it's all right. I'll do what You say."

Second, we must believe and obey His guidance. We are much more likely to hear what the Holy Spirit has to say if we are actively listening for Him to speak. We are much more likely to see the Holy Spirit's direction if we are looking for Him. Hebrews 11:6 tells us that God is a "rewarder of those who seek Him." We are to be diligent in seeking His guidance, asking for it, watching for it, anticipating it, and receiving it.

The Holy Spirit has come to reveal the truth to us. He has come in His allknowing ability to impart to us what we need to know in order to live obedient and faithful lives. Trust Him to guide you, now and always!

The Church at Antioch

19 So then those who were scattered because of the persecution that occurred in connection with Stephen made their way to Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except to Jews alone.

20 But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who came to Antioch and began speaking to the ^aGreeks also, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a large number who believed turned to the Lord.

22 The news about them reached the ears of the church at Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas off to Antioch.

➤ 23 Then when he arrived and witnessed the grace of God, he rejoiced and began to encourage them all with resolute heart to remain true to the Lord;

24 for he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And considerable numbers were brought to the Lord.

25 And he left for Tarsus to look for Saul;

26 and when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. And for an entire year they met with the church and taught considerable numbers; and the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.

27 Now at this time some prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch.

28 One of them named Agabus stood up and began to indicate by the Spirit that there would certainly be a great famine all over the world. And this took place in the reign of Claudius.

> 29 And in the proportion that any of the disciples had means, each of them determined to send a contribution for the relief of the brethren living in Judea.

truth, they responded correctly by praising God. Once we recognize a clear move of God, we are wise to join Him. It may not be what we expected or hoped for, but He is in command, not us.

> 11:23 — When he arrived and witnessed the grace of God, he rejoiced and began to encourage them.

How does one witness the grace of God? By observing its fruit: people being saved, dynamic worship, forgiving spirits, peace, joy, and so forth. We encourage such grace to flourish by exhorting each other to eagerly and tenaciously serve the living God.

> 11:29 — Each of them determined to send a contribution for the relief of the brethren living in Judea.

Along with the persecution and high taxation, the residents of Judea were about to face a great famine as well. So the disciples immediately decided to help. A heart genuinely touched by the love of God desires to meet the needs of fellow believers in distress (James 2:15–17). God blesses us so that we might bless others.

> 12:5 — Peter was kept in the prison, but prayer for him was being made fervently by the church to God.

The church had already lost one leader, James the brother of John, to the executioner (Acts 12:2). Now it appeared as though it would lose Peter, too. Scheduled for death the very next day, the church could do no earthly thing to save him. However, they could appeal to heaven. And as He had done so many times before, God performed a miracle in response to their prayers. As believers, we always stand tallest and strongest on our knees. Whenever your situation looks impossible, humble yourself, turn to Him in prayer, and trust that He hears you and will help you.

> 12:9 — He did not know that what was being done by the angel was real, but thought he was seeing a vision.

Deter had seen visions from God before, and this scene looked so unusual that he thought it had to be another one. But it wasn't; it was actually happening, just as he saw it. Like Peter, you may have times when your situation looks so dire that it seems completely hopeless—there is just no way out of it. It's in those times when the Lord delivers you in a manner beyond what you could have imagined. Nothing is impossible for God! As He freed Peter, He can liberate you. Trust Him.

10 When they had passed the first and second guard, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, which opened for them by itself; and they went out and went along one street, and immediately the angel departed from him.

11 When Peter came to himself, he said, "Now I know for sure that the Lord has sent forth His angel and rescued me from the hand of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting."

12 And when he realized this, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John who was also called Mark, where many were gathered together and were praying.

13 When he knocked at the door of the gate, a servant-girl named Rhoda came to answer.

14 When she recognized Peter's voice, because of her joy she did not open the gate, but ran in and announced that Peter was standing in front of the gate.

15 They said to her, "You are out of your mind!" But she kept insisting that it was so. They kept saying, "It is his angel."

16 But Peter continued knocking; and when they had opened the door, they saw him and were amazed.

17 But motioning to them with his hand to be silent, he described to them how the Lord had led him out of the prison. And he said, "Report these things to James and the brethren." Then he left and went to another place.

18 Now when day came, there was no small disturbance among the soldiers as to what could have become of Peter.

19 When Herod had searched for him and had not found him, he examined the guards and ordered that they be led away to execution. Then he went down from Judea to Caesarea and was spending time there.

Death of Herod

20 Now he was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon; and with one accord they came to him, and having won over Blastus the king's chamberlain, they were asking for peace, because their country was fed by the king's country.

21 On an appointed day Herod, having put on his royal apparel, took his seat on the rostrum and began delivering an address to them.

22 The people kept crying out, "The voice of a god and not of a man!"

23 And immediately an angel of the Lord struck him because he did not give God the glory, and he was eaten by worms and died.

24 But the word of the Lord continued to grow and to be multiplied.

ate into the night, the church pled for God's mercy on behalf of their imprisoned leader, Peter.

Rhoda, a household servant, knew well the believers who met in Mary's large house. But though they prayed earnestly for Peter, it seemed inevitable that he would face a morning execution.

Suddenly a sharp rap at the door interrupted their prayers. Rhoda approached the entrance, listened—and heard a familiar voice. At the gate stood Peter! In her excitement, she forgot to let him in and instead ran to inform the praying church. "Peter is at the door!" she exclaimed. But not until he stood among them, recounting his deliverance, did they jubilantly acknowledge the Lord's provision.

Just as Rhoda's gladness sustained her heart when life became painful, so the joy of Christ sustains you when the future appears impossible. The delight of your salvation helps you endure when disappointments and difficult issues assail you.

> 13:23 — "From the descendants of this man, according to promise, God has brought to Israel a Savior, Jesus."

Paul was always reminding the Jewish people that Christ was the fulfillment of God's covenants with David and Abraham. This is because from childhood, they would have looked forward to the Messiah; however, they were looking for an earthly deliverer rather than the eternal salvation the Lord was offering. Their perception needed to change. Yet even when God is changing our understanding, we can always remember that Jesus not only saves us, He is the ultimate reminder that God always keeps His promises!

32 "And we preach to you the good news of the promise made to the fathers, 33 that God has fulfilled this promise to our children in that He raised up Jesus, as it is also written in the second Psalm, 'You are My Son; today i have begotten You.

34 "As for the fact that He raised Him up from the dead, no longer to return to decay, He has spoken in this way: 'I will give you THE HOLY and SURE blessings of David.'

35 "Therefore He also says in another Psalm, 'You will not allow Your Holy One to un-DERGO DECAY.'

36 "For David, after he had served the purpose of God in his own generation, fell asleep, and was laid among his fathers and underwent decay;

37 but He whom God raised did not undergo decay.

38 "Therefore let it be known to you, brethren, that through Him forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you, 39 and through Him everyone who believes is freed from all things, from which you could not be freed through the Law of Moses.

A WORK WHICH YOU WILL NEVER BELIEVE, THOUGH SOMEONE SHOULD DESCRIBE IT TO YOU."

42 As Paul and Barnabas were going out, the people kept begging that these things might be spoken to them the next Sabbath.

43 Now when the meeting of the synagogue had broken up, many of the Jews and of the God-fearing proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who, speaking to them, were urging them to continue in the grace of God.

Paul Turns to the Gentiles

44 The next Sabbath nearly the whole city assembled to hear the word of the Lord.

45 But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and began contradicting the things spoken by Paul, and were blaspheming.

46 Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and said, "It was necessary that the word of God be spoken to you first; since you repudiate it and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life. behold, we are turning to the Gentiles.

47 "For so the Lord has commanded us,

THAT YOU MAY BRING SALVATION TO THE END OF THE EARTH.

48 When the Gentiles heard this, they began rejoicing and glorifying the word of the Lord; and as many as had been appointed to eternal life believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was being spread through the whole region.

50 But the Jews incited the devout women of prominence and the leading men of the city, and instigated a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and drove them out of their district.

51 But they shook off the dust of their feet in protest against them and went to Iconium.

> 14:15 — "Turn from these vain things to a living God."

God had performed such an astonishing miracle through Paul and Barnabas that the people of Lystra thought the pair must each be Greek deity. This greatly upset them, and they immediately directed the people back to the Lord. Our goal in serving God should never be so that others will think better of us. We obey the Lord so that others will know Him! And like Paul and Barnabas, whenever people pay too much attention to us, we must remind them that their focus should be on their relationships with the living God.

> 14:22 — "Through many tribulations we must enter the kingdom of God."

The people at Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch may have thought they would never see Paul again after he was left for dead (Acts 14:19). However, he returned quickly so the church would not be discouraged. Paul understood that although we may find spiritual strength and encouragement in God's promises, we must keep in mind that the Christian life is a war—one that we win through Christ (Eph. 6:10–18). We must stay faithful and not flinch though the difficult times come because eventually we will enter God's rest and be rewarded for our obedience to Him (Is. 50:7–10: Heb. 4:9–16: 10:35–39).

to circumcise them and to direct them to observe the Law of Moses."

6 The apostles and the elders came together to look into this matter.

- 7 After there had been much debate, Peter stood up and said to them, "Brethren, you know that in the early days God made a choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles would hear the word of the gospel and believe. 8 "And God, who knows the heart, testified to them giving them the Holy Spirit, just as He also did to us;
- 9 and He made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith.
- 10 "Now therefore why do you put God to the test by placing upon the neck of the disciples a yoke which neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear?
- ➤ 11 "But we believe that we are saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, in the same way as they also are."
 - 12 All the people kept silent, and they were listening to Barnabas and Paul as they were relating what signs and wonders God had done through them among the Gentiles.

James's Judgment

- 13 After they had stopped speaking, James answered, saying, "Brethren, listen to me.
- 14 "Simeon has related how God first concerned Himself about taking from among the Gentiles a people for His name.
- 15 "With this the words of the Prophets agree, just as it is written,
- 16 'After these things I will return,

AND I WILL REBUILD THE TABERNACLE OF DAVID WHICH HAS FALLEN,

AND I WILL REBUILD ITS RUINS.

AND I WILL RESTORE IT,

- 17 SO THAT THE REST OF MANKIND MAY SEEK THE LORD,
 - AND ALL THE GENTILES WHO ARE CALLED BY MY NAME,'
- 18 Says the Lord, who makes these things known from long ago.
- 19 "Therefore it is my judgment that we do not trouble those who are turning to God from among the Gentiles.
- 20 but that we write to them that they abstain from things contaminated by idols and from fornication and from what is strangled and from blood.

- 21 "For Moses from ancient generations has in every city those who preach him, since he is read in the synagogues every Sabbath."
- 22 Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men from among them to send to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas—Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas, leading men among the brethren,
- 23 and they sent this letter by them,
 - "The apostles and the brethren who are elders, to the brethren in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia who are from the Gentiles, greetings.
- 24 "Since we have heard that some of our number to whom we gave no instruction have disturbed you with their words, unsettling your souls,
- 25 it seemed good to us, having become of one mind, to select men to send to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,
- 26 men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 27 "Therefore we have sent Judas and Silas, who themselves will also report the same things by word of mouth.
- 28 "For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to lay upon you no greater burden than these essentials:

- 29 that you abstain from things sacrificed to idols and from blood and from things strangled and from fornication; if you keep yourselves free from such things, you will do well. Farewell."
- 30 So when they were sent away, they went down to Antioch; and having gathered the congregation together, they delivered the letter.
- 31 When they had read it, they rejoiced because of its encouragement.
- 32 Judas and Silas, also being prophets themselves, encouraged and strengthened the brethren with a lengthy message.
- 33 After they had spent time there, they were sent away from the brethren in peace to those who had sent them out.

> 15:11 — "We believe that we are saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, in the same way as they also are."

Many of the Jewish Christians—those called Judaizers—thought Gentile believers should be required to keep the law in order to attain salvation (Acts 15:1, 5). To answer their claims, the elders called the first conference of the early church called the Jerusalem Council. In that meeting, the elders affirmed the truth: we don't have to earn our salvation through works or keeping the law—Christ has given it to us freely (Eph. 2:4–9).

> 15:28 — "It seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to lay upon you no greater burden than these essentials."

Ithough the Jerusalem Council affirmed that there is nothing necessary for salvation except faith in Jesus Christ, they did instruct new believers about their conduct as Christians (Acts 15:29). The early church reached consensus on this and other crucial issues through respectful discussion, earnest prayer, careful listening, and study of Scripture. The same must hold true for churches and believers today.

- 3 Paul wanted this man to go with him; and he took him and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those parts, for they all knew that his father was a Greek.
- 4 Now while they were passing through the cities, they were delivering the decrees which had been decided upon by the apostles and elders who were in Jerusalem, for them to observe.

- 9 A vision appeared to Paul in the night: a man of Macedonia was standing and appealing to him, and saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us."
- 10 When he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them.
- 11 So putting out to sea from Troas, we ran a straight course to Samothrace, and on the day following to Neapolis;
- 12 and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia, a Roman colony; and we were staying in this city for some days.

27 When the jailer awoke and saw the prison doors opened, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped.

28 But Paul cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Do not harm yourself, for we are all here!" 29 And he called for lights and rushed in, and trembling with fear he fell down before Paul and Silas,

30 and after he brought them out, he said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

The Jailer Converted

31 They said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household."

Singing for Victory

ACTS 16:24-34

As exhausted as he felt, Silas could not sleep. The stale air in the inner cell made breathing difficult, and the torment of his wounds kept him from getting much-needed sleep. Would he or Paul live to see another day? Silas did not know.

Yet Silas neither meditated on injustice nor despaired of his situation. Instead, faith filled his heart. When Silas and Paul lifted their voices in song, a violent earthquake shook the prison. Soon they led the jailer and his entire family to the Lord.

You have a song to sing as well. Though your situation may feel overwhelming, are you willing to trust God in your circumstances? Do you believe that no problem is beyond His power? As you allow God to conduct the symphony of your life, you will see Him shaking your own prisons. Will you, like Silas, lift up your voice to herald the coming victory?

> 16:25 — About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns of praise to God, and the prisoners were listening to them.

Paul and Silas had been attacked by a mob, beaten by soldiers, thrown in stocks, and shoved into a dark cistern, which served as a high-security prison cell. How did they react? With prayer and singing! Only the Spirit can produce such complete submission to the Father's will. They were not complaining or focused on their circumstances; rather, their hearts were set on the living Lord and all He had done for them. They knew He would faithfully deliver them and that even in the worst situations, God is worthy of our praise. Because of their testimony, the jailor and his whole family were saved (Acts 16:27–34).

trates sent their policemen, saying, "Release those men."

36 And the jailer reported these words to Paul, saying, "The chief magistrates have sent to release you. Therefore come out now and go in peace."

37 But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us in public without trial, men who are Romans, and have thrown us into prison; and now are they sending us away secretly? No indeed! But let them come themselves and bring us out."

38 The policemen reported these words to the chief magistrates. They were afraid when they heard that they were Romans, 39 and they came and appealed to them, and when they had brought them out, they kept begging them to leave the city.

40 They went out of the prison and entered the house of Lydia, and when they saw the brethren, they encouraged them and departed.

Paul at Thessalonica

17NOW when they had traveled through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews.

2 And according to Paul's custom, he went to them, and for three Sabbaths reasoned with them from the Scriptures,

3 explaining and giving evidence that the Christ had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus whom I am proclaiming to you is the Christ."

4 And some of them were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, along with a large number of the God-fearing Greeks and a number of the leading women.

5 But the Jews, becoming jealous and taking along some wicked men from the market place, formed a mob and set the city in an uproar; and attacking the house of Jason, they were seeking to bring them out to the people.

6 When they did not find them, they began dragging Jason and some brethren before the city authorities, shouting, "These men who have upset athe world have come here also:

7 and Jason has welcomed them, and they all act contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus."

8 They stirred up the crowd and the city authorities who heard these things.

9 And when they had received a pledge from Jason and the others, they released them.

Paul at Berea

10 The brethren immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea, and when they arrived, they went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 Now these were more noble-minded than 4 those in Thessalonica, for they received the word with great eagerness, examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed, along with a number of prominent Greek women and men.

13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica found out that the word of God had been proclaimed by Paul in Berea also, they came there as well, agitating and stirring up the crowds.

14 Then immediately the brethren sent Paul out to go as far as the sea; and Silas and Timothy remained there.

15 Now those who escorted Paul brought him as far as Athens; and receiving a command for Silas and Timothy to come to him as soon as possible, they left.

Paul at Athens

16 Now while Paul was waiting for them at Athens, his spirit was being provoked within him as he was observing the city full of idols.

17 So he was reasoning in the synagogue with the Jews and the God-fearing Gentiles, and in the market place every day with those who happened to be present.

18 And also some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers were conversing with him. Some were saying, "What would this idle babbler wish to say?" Others, "He seems to be a proclaimer of strange deities,"—because he was preaching Jesus and the resurrection.

19 And they took him and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new teaching is which you are proclaiming? 20 "For you are bringing some strange things to our ears; so we want to know what these things mean."

21 (Now all the Athenians and the strangers visiting there used to spend their time in nothing other than telling or hearing something new.)

Sermon on Mars Hill

> 17:11 — They received the word with great eagerness, examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so.

The Bereans didn't rely on Paul's word that the Old Testament prophesied the ministry, sufferings, and resurrection of Christ. They studied Scripture for themselves—and God commended them for their diligence.

23 "For while I was passing through and examining the objects of your worship, I also found an altar with this inscription, 'TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.' Therefore what you worship in ignorance, this I proclaim to you.

24 "The God who made the world and all things in it, since He is Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands:

25 nor is He served by human hands, as though He needed anything, since He Himself gives to all people life and breath and all things;

26 and He made from one man every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth, having determined their appointed times and the boundaries of their habitation,

> 27 that they would seek God, if perhaps they might grope for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us;

28 for in Him we live and move and exist, as even some of your own poets have said, 'For we also are His children.'

29 "Being then the children of God, we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold or silver or stone, an image formed by the art and thought of man.

30 "Therefore having overlooked the times of ignorance, God is now declaring to men that all people everywhere should repent,

- * 31 because He has fixed a day in which He will judge the world in righteousness through a Man whom He has appointed, having furnished proof to all men by raising Him from the dead."
 - 32 Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some began to sneer, but others said, "We shall hear you again concerning this." 33 So Paul went out of their midst.
 - 34 But some men joined him and believed, among whom also were Dionysius the Areopagite and a woman named Damaris and others with them.

Paul at Corinth

- 18^{AFTER} these things he left Athens and went to Corinth.
- 2 And he found a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, having recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to leave Rome. He came to them,
- 3 and because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them and they were working, for by trade they were tent-makers.
- 4 And he was reasoning in the synagogue every Sabbath and trying to persuade Jews and Greeks.
- 5 But when Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul began devoting himself completely to the word, solemnly testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ.
- 6 But when they resisted and blasphemed, he shook out his garments and said to them, "Your blood be on your own heads! I am clean. From now on I will go to the Gentiles."
- 7 Then he left there and went to the house of a man named Titius Justus, a worshiper of God, whose house was next to the synagogue.
- 8 Crispus, the leader of the synagogue, believed in the Lord with all his household, and many of the Corinthians when they heard were believing and being baptized.
- 9 And the Lord said to Paul in the night by a vision, "Do not be afraid any longer, but go on speaking and do not be silent;
- 10 for I am with you, and no man will attack you in order to harm you, for I have many people in this city."
- 11 And he settled there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.
- 12 But while Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him before the judgment seat,
- 13 saying, "This man persuades men to worship God contrary to the law."

> 17:27 — "They would seek God, if perhaps they might grope for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us."

Paul knew that the Athenians were searching for truth, so he explained that God had revealed Himself to mankind through nature and history so that we would know that He exists and would be without excuse (Rom. 1:20). Of course, man's ideas about God are sometimes very different than who He actually is. Thankfully, we don't have to rely on our faulty notions—we can truly know Him because He has revealed Himself to us through Christ

> 18:4 — He was reasoning in the synagogue every Sabbath and trying to persuade Jews and Greeks.

Paul had a Bible-centered, thoughtful approach to evangelism. He persuaded people of the truth of the gospel and was able to respond to other's questions because of His knowledge of God's Word and submission to the Spirit. We must be ready to do the same (2 Tim. 2:15; 2 Pet. 3:15). Yet we must also realize that we cannot merely reason people into being saved, because knowledge alone is insufficient. Rather, each person must be challenged to have faith in Christ for salvation.

> 18:9, 10 — "Go on speaking and do not be silent; for I am with you, and no man will attack you in order to harm you, for I have many people in this city."

aul took courage in his evangelistic efforts because: (1) Jesus told him to keep speaking; (2) He promised to be with him; (3) He promised to protect him; and (4) He promised him success. We can take courage for identical reasons. Every time God calls us to do anything, He assures us that He will be with us.

- 14 But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If it were a matter of wrong or of vicious crime, O Jews, it would be reasonable for me to put up with you;
- 15 but if there are questions about words and names and your own law, look after it yourselves; I am unwilling to be a judge of these matters."
- 16 And he drove them away from the judgment seat.
- 17 And they all took hold of Sosthenes, the leader of the synagogue, and began beating him in front of the judgment seat. But Gallio was not concerned about any of these things.
- 18 Paul, having remained many days longer, took leave of the brethren and put out to sea for Syria, and with him were Priscilla and Aquila. In Cenchrea he had his hair cut, for he was keeping a vow.
- 19 They came to Ephesus, and he left them there. Now he himself entered the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews.
- 20 When they asked him to stay for a longer time, he did not consent,
- 21 but taking leave of them and saying, "I will return to you again if God wills," he set sail from Ephesus.
- 22 When he had landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the church, and went down to Antioch.

Third Missionary Journey

- 23 And having spent some time there, he left and passed successively through the Galatian region and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.
- 24 Now a Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by birth, an eloquent man, came to Ephesus; and he was mighty in the Scriptures.
- 25 This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he was speaking and teaching accurately the things concerning Jesus, being acquainted only with the baptism of John;
- 26 and he began to speak out boldly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained to him the way of God more accurately.
 - 27 And when he wanted to go across to Achaia, the brethren encouraged him and wrote to the disciples to welcome him; and when he had arrived, he greatly helped those who had believed through grace, 28 for he powerfully refuted the Jews in public, demonstrating by the Scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

Paul at Ephesus

- $19^{\rm IT}$ happened that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed through the upper country and came to Ephesus, and found some disciples.
- 2 He said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" And they said to him, "No, we have not even heard whether there is a Holy Spirit."
- 3 And he said, "Into what then were you baptized?" And they said, "Into John's baptism."
- 4 Paul said, "John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in Him who was coming after him, that is, in Jesus."
- 5 When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.
- 6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they began speaking with tongues and prophesying.
- 7 There were in all about twelve men.
- 8 And he entered the synagogue and continued speaking out boldly for three months, reasoning and persuading them about the kingdom of God.
- 9 But when some were becoming hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of the Way before the people, he withdrew from them and took away the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus.
- 10 This took place for two years, so that all who lived in Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks.

Miracles at Ephesus

- 11 God was performing extraordinary miracles by the hands of Paul,
- 12 so that handkerchiefs or aprons were even carried from his body to the sick, and the diseases left them and the evil spirits went out.
- 13 But also some of the Jewish exorcists, who went from place to place, attempted to name over those who had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, "I adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preaches."
- 14 Seven sons of one Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 18:26 — When Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained to him the way of God more accurately.

H pollos was a Jew from Alexandria in Egypt—which was home to one of the largest communities of Diaspora Jews at the time. Although he had learned many things about Jesus, he did not fully understand what Christ had done through His death and resurrection. Priscilla and Aquila explained this to Him, and he became a very powerful witness for Christ. By His grace, God gives us gifted teachers to help us understand His Word and His will.

- ➤ 15 And the evil spirit answered and said to them, "I recognize Jesus, and I know about Paul, but who are you?"
 - 16 And the man, in whom was the evil spirit, leaped on them and subdued all of them and overpowered them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.
 - 17 This became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who lived in Ephesus; and fear fell upon them all and the name of the Lord Jesus was being magnified.
 - 18 Many also of those who had believed kept coming, confessing and disclosing their practices.
 - 19 And many of those who practiced magic brought their books together and began burning them in the sight of everyone; and they counted up the price of them and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.
- 20 So the word of the Lord was growing mightily and prevailing.
 - 21 Now after these things were finished, Paul purposed in the Spirit to go to Jerusalem after he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, saying, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome."
 - 22 And having sent into Macedonia two of those who ministered to him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a while.

 23 About that time there occurred no small disturbance concerning the Way.
 - 24 For a man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Artemis, was bringing no little business to the craftsmen:
 - 25 these he gathered together with the workmen of similar trades, and said, "Men, you know that our prosperity depends upon this business.
 - 26 "You see and hear that not only in Ephesus, but in almost all of Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away a considerable number of people, saying that gods made with hands are no gods at all.
 - 27 "Not only is there danger that this trade of ours fall into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis be regarded as worthless and that she whom all of Asia and the world worship will even be dethroned from her magnificence."

- 28 When they heard this and were filled with rage, they began crying out, saying, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"
- 29 The city was filled with the confusion, and they rushed with one accord into the theater, dragging along Gaius and Aristarchus, Paul's traveling companions from Macedonia.
- 30 And when Paul wanted to go into the assembly, the disciples would not let him.
- 31 Also some of the ^aAsiarchs who were friends of his sent to him and repeatedly urged him not to venture into the theater.
- 32 So then, some were shouting one thing and some another, for the assembly was in confusion and the majority did not know for what reason they had come together.
- 33 Some of the crowd concluded it was Alexander, since the Jews had put him forward; and having motioned with his hand, Alexander was intending to make a defense to the assembly.
- 34 But when they recognized that he was a Jew, a single outcry arose from them all as they shouted for about two hours, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"
- 35 After quieting the crowd, the town clerk *said, "Men of Ephesus, what man is there after all who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is guardian of the temple of the great Artemis and of the image which fell down from heaven?
- 36 "So, since these are undeniable facts, you ought to keep calm and to do nothing rash.
- 37 "For you have brought these men here who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of our goddess.
- 38 "So then, if Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a complaint against any man, the courts are in session and proconsuls are available; let them bring charges against one another.
- 39 "But if you want anything beyond this, it shall be settled in the lawful assembly.
- 40 "For indeed we are in danger of being accused of a riot in connection with today's events, since there is no real cause for it, and > 19:15 — "I recognize Jesus, and I know about Paul, but who are you?"

The name of Jesus is powerful—the evil spirit had no choice but to obey at the sound of it (Matt. 8:28, 29; Mark 1:23–27; 5:2–13; Luke 4:33–36; James 2:19). However, the demon quickly realized these seven men had no relationship with the Lord—and therefore, no real power—and overcame them easily. Whenever people use the name of God for their own sinful purposes, they often find themselves like the sons of Sceva—overpowered, humiliated, and wounded. God will never honor such conduct. We must never use the Lord's name for selfish gain (Ex. 20:7).

> 19:20 — The word of the Lord was growing mightily and prevailing.

God loves to honor His Word so that it grows mightily and prevails. If we want to be connected with such a mighty move of God, we must faithfully proclaim His Word through the power of His Spirit.

in this connection we will be unable to account for this disorderly gathering."

41 After saying this he dismissed the assembly.

Paul in Macedonia and Greece

m AFTER}$ the uproar had ceased, Paul sent for the disciples, and when he had exhorted them and taken his leave of them, he left to go to Macedonia.

2 When he had gone through those districts and had given them much exhortation, he came to Greece.

- 3 And there he spent three months, and when a plot was formed against him by the Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria, he decided to return through Macedonia.
- 4 And he was accompanied by Sopater of Berea, the son of Pyrrhus, and by Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy, and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia.

5 But these had gone on ahead and were waiting for us at Troas.

- 6 We sailed from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and came to them at Troas within five days; and there we stayed seven days.
- 7 On the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread, Paul began talking to them, intending to leave the next day, and he prolonged his message until midnight.
- 8 There were many lamps in the upper room where we were gathered together.
- 9 And there was a young man named Eutychus sitting on the window sill, sinking into a deep sleep; and as Paul kept on talking, he was overcome by sleep and fell down from the third floor and was picked up dead.

➤ 10 But Paul went down and fell upon him, and after embracing him, he said, "Do not be troubled, for his life is in him."

11 When he had gone back up and had broken the bread and eaten, he talked with them a long while until daybreak, and then left.

12 They took away the boy alive, and were greatly comforted.

Troas to Miletus

13 But we, going ahead to the ship, set sail for Assos, intending from there to take Paul on board; for so he had arranged it, intending himself to go by land.

14 And when he met us at Assos, we took him on board and came to Mitylene.

15 Sailing from there, we arrived the following day opposite Chios; and the next day we crossed over to Samos; and the day following we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus so that he would not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hurrying to be in Jerusalem, if possible, on the day of Pentecost.

Farewell to Ephesus

17 From Miletus he sent to Ephesus and called to him the elders of the church.

18 And when they had come to him, he said to them,

"You yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in Asia, how I was with you the whole time,

19 serving the Lord with all humility and with tears and with trials which came upon me through the plots of the Jews;

20 how I did not shrink from declaring to you anything that was profitable, and teaching you publicly and from house to house,

21 solemnly testifying to both Jews and Greeks of repentance toward God and faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 "And now, behold, bound by the Spirit, I am on my way to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there, 23 except that the Holy Spirit solemnly testifies to me in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions await me.

24 "But I do not consider my life of any account as dear to myself, so that I may finish my course and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify solemnly of the gospel of the grace of God.

25 "And now, behold, I know that all of you, among whom I went about preaching the kingdom, will no longer see my face.

26 "Therefore, I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all men.

20:10 — "Do not be troubled, for his life is in him."

Paul's reaction to Eutychus is similar to how Elijah (1 Kin. 17:17–24) and Elisha (2 Kin. 4:32–37) raised the dead. And God's life-giving power flowed through him in the same way it had through the two faithful prophets. This is an important lesson—God does not change (Heb. 13:8). Just as He helped Paul, Elijah, and Elisha, He is able to provide for you if you will obey Him. When you obey God in faith, He will do extraordinary things.

> 20:24 — "I do not consider my life of any account as dear to myself, so that I may finish my course and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus."

Daul found his life by losing it and loved his life by not counting it dear (Matt. 16:24, 25; Phil. 1:21–24; 3:7–12). He had learned to love God's will over everything else, and he realized that obeying his Savior yielded the greatest joy and fulfillment. The Lord wants us to be like the apostle Paul, being so devoted in our love and service that nothing could ever keep us from obeying Him wholeheartedly.

- > 27 "For I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole purpose of God.
 - 28 "Be on guard for yourselves and for all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of God which He purchased with His own blood.
 - 29 "I know that after my departure savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock:
 - 30 and from among your own selves men will arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them.
 - 31 "Therefore be on the alert, remembering that night and day for a period of three years I did not cease to admonish each one with tears
- * 32 "And now I commend you to God and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified.
 - 33 "I have coveted no one's silver or gold or clothes.
 - 34 "You yourselves know that these hands ministered to my own needs and to the men who were with me.
- ➤ 35 "In everything I showed you that by working hard in this manner you must help the weak and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that He Himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"
 - 36 When he had said these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all.
 - 37 And they began to weep aloud and embraced Paul, and repeatedly kissed him,
 - 38 grieving especially over the word which he had spoken, that they would not see his face again. And they were accompanying him to the ship.

Paul Sails from Miletus

21 WHEN we had parted from them and had set sail, we ran a straight course to Cos and the next day to Rhodes and from there to Patara;

- 2 and having found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard and set sail.
- 3 When we came in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left, we kept sailing to Syria and landed at Tyre; for there the ship was to unload its cargo.
- 4 After looking up the disciples, we stayed there seven days; and they kept telling Paul through the Spirit not to set foot in Jerusalem.
- 5 When our days there were ended, we left and started on our journey, while they all, with wives and children, escorted us until we were out of the city. After kneeling down on the beach and praying, we said farewell to one another.
- 6 Then we went on board the ship, and they returned home again.
- 7 When we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais, and after greeting the brethren, we stayed with them for a day.
- 8 On the next day we left and came to Caesarea, and entering the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, we stayed with him.
- 9 Now this man had four virgin daughters who were prophetesses.
- 10 As we were staying there for some days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea.
- 11 And coming to us, he took Paul's belt and bound his own feet and hands, and said, "This is what the Holy Spirit says: 'In this way the Jews at Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this belt and deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.'"
- 12 When we had heard this, we as well as the local residents began begging him not to go up to Jerusalem.
- 13 Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but even to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."

LIFE LESSONS-

> 20:27 — "I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole purpose of God."

Thy would we ever hesitate to declare "the whole purpose of God"? The reason is this: some of it is not very popular. God's Word requires a change in behavior. To some, this seems very inconvenient and difficult. But refusal to obey Him leads to destruction.

> 20:35 — "The Lord Jesus . . . said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.""

 $\mathcal M$ one of the four canonical Gospels record this saying of Jesus; however, it reflects Christ's attitude throughout His ministry. "The Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many" (Mark 10:45). It is more blessed to give because that is when we best resemble Christ (Matt. 10:8; 25:34–40; Mark 9:35; James 2:15–17).

> 21:4 — They kept telling Paul through the Spirit not to set foot in Jerusalem.

God does not contradict Himself—He had instructed Paul to go to Jerusalem and had not changed His mind (Acts 20:22). So then why did these believers try to dissuade him? They may have realized the suffering Paul would face while doing what God had called him to do. However, the Spirit had already spoken to Paul about the affliction that awaited him (Acts 20:23, 24), and this was a reminder of it so that he would not be discouraged when it actually happened.

> 21:13 — "I am ready not only to be bound, but even to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."

The potential loss of his life did not dissuade Paul from doing what he believed God had called him to do. He fit the mold of those described in Revelation 12:11 who "did not love their life even when faced with death."

➤ 14 And since he would not be persuaded, we fell silent, remarking, "The will of the Lord be done!"

Paul at Jerusalem

15 After these days we got ready and started on our way up to Jerusalem.

16 Some of the disciples from Caesarea also came with us, taking us to Mnason of Cyprus, a disciple of long standing with whom we were to lodge.

17 After we arrived in Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the following day Paul went in with us to James, and all the elders were present

19 After he had greeted them, he began to relate one by one the things which God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.

20 And when they heard it they began glorifying God; and they said to him, "You see, brother, how many thousands there are among the Jews of those who have believed, and they are all zealous for the Law;

21 and they have been told about you, that you are teaching all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children nor to walk according to the customs.

22 "What, then, is to be done? They will certainly hear that you have come.

23 "Therefore do this that we tell you. We have four men who are under a vow;

24 take them and purify yourself along with them, and pay their expenses so that they may shave their heads; and all will know that there is nothing to the things which they have been told about you, but that you yourself also walk orderly, keeping the Law.

25 "But concerning the Gentiles who have believed, we wrote, having decided that they should abstain from meat sacrificed to idols and from blood and from what is strangled and from fornication."

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day, purifying himself along with them, went into the temple giving notice of the completion of the days of purification, until the sacrifice was offered for each one of them.

Paul Seized in the Temple

27 When the seven days were almost over, the Jews from Asia, upon seeing him in the temple, began to stir up all the crowd and laid hands on him,

28 crying out, "Men of Israel, come to our aid! This is the man who preaches to all men everywhere against our people and the Law and this place; and besides he has even brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place."

29 For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with him, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple.

30 Then all the city was provoked, and the people rushed together, and taking hold of Paul they dragged him out of the temple, and immediately the doors were shut.

31 While they were seeking to kill him, a report came up to the acommander of the Roman cohort that all Jerusalem was in confusion.

32 At once he took along some soldiers and \checkmark centurions and ran down to them; and when they saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

33 Then the commander came up and took hold of him, and ordered him to be bound with two chains; and he began asking who he was and what he had done.

34 But among the crowd some were shouting one thing and some another, and when he could not find out the facts because of the uproar, he ordered him to be brought into the barracks.

35 When he got to the stairs, he was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the mob:

36 for the multitude of the people kept following them, shouting, "Away with him!"

37 As Paul was about to be brought into the barracks, he said to the commander, "May I say something to you?" And he *said, "Do you know Greek?

ven before Paul's conversion, Jesus told Ananias, "I will show him how much he must suffer for My name's sake" (Acts 9:16). Paul was repeatedly beaten and in peril of his life, but he did not lose faith because of the adversity (2 Cor. 11:23–33). Instead, he rejoiced in his identification with Christ and believed that God would preserve him until His purpose for him was fulfilled (2 Cor. 12:7–10; Phil. 3:10–12).

39 But Paul said, "I am a Jew of Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city; and I beg you, allow me to speak to the people."

40 When he had given him permission, Paul, standing on the stairs, motioned to the people with his hand; and when there was a great hush, he spoke to them in the Hebrew dialect, saying,

Paul's Defense before the Jews

22 "BRETHREN and fathers, hear my defense which I now offer to you."

- 2 And when they heard that he was addressing them in the Hebrew dialect, they became even more quiet; and he *said,
- 3 "I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city, educated under Gamaliel, strictly according to the law of our fathers, being zealous for God just as you all are today.
- 4 "I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and putting both men and women into prisons,
- 5 as also the high priest and all the Council of the elders can testify. From them I also received letters to the brethren, and started off for Damascus in order to bring even those who were there to Jerusalem as prisoners to be punished.
- 6 "But it happened that as I was on my way, approaching Damascus about noontime, a very bright light suddenly flashed from heaven all around me,
- 7 and I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?'
- 8 "And I answered, 'Who are You, Lord?' And He said to me, 'I am Jesus the Nazarene, whom you are persecuting.'
- 9 "And those who were with me saw the light, to be sure, but did not understand the voice of the One who was speaking to me.
- 10 "And I said, 'What shall I do, Lord?' And the Lord said to me, 'Get up and go on into Damascus, and there you will be told of all that has been appointed for you to do.'

- 11 "But since I could not see because of the brightness of that light, I was led by the hand by those who were with me and came into Damascus.
- 12 "A certain Ananias, a man who was devout by the standard of the Law, and well spoken of by all the Jews who lived there,

- 15 'For you will be a witness for Him to all ≺ men of what you have seen and heard.
- 16 'Now why do you delay? Get up and be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on His name.'
- 17 "It happened when I returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple, that I fell into a trance,
- 18 and I saw Him saying to me, 'Make haste, and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not accept your testimony about Me.'
- 19 "And I said, 'Lord, they themselves understand that in one synagogue after another I used to imprison and beat those who believed in You.
- 20 'And when the blood of Your witness Stephen was being shed, I also was standing by approving, and watching out for the coats of those who were slaying him.'
- 21 "And He said to me, 'Go! For I will send you far away to the Gentiles."
- 22 They listened to him up to this statement, and then they raised their voices and said, "Away with such a fellow from the earth, for he should not be allowed to live!"

> 22:14 — "The God of our fathers has appointed you to know His will and to see the Righteous One and to hear an utterance from His mouth."

Paul never forgot the words of Ananias—that God had chosen him to both see and hear Jesus and to know His will. He never allowed affliction to shake him. Instead, he embraced God's call wholeheartedly and understood that the adversity he experienced was a bridge to a deeper relationship with the Lord (2 Cor. 1:3–10; 4:7–18).

> 22:15 — "You will be a witness for Him to all men of what you have seen and heard."

Paul recounts how he came to know Christ as his Savior and was called into ministry. The Lord gave him the responsibility of telling other people about the salvation that is available to them through Jesus Christ. The impact of this one encounter gave him a desire to know the Savior above everything else. The apostle willingly threw aside his heritage, education, and personal achievements and counted them as trash so he could know Jesus Christ more deeply, and so others could be saved as well (Phil. 3:4–14).

should be examined by scourging so that he might find out the reason why they were shouting against him that way.

25 But when they stretched him out with thongs, Paul said to the centurion who was standing by, "Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman and uncondemned?"

26 When the centurion heard this, he went to the commander and told him, saying, "What are you about to do? For this man is a Roman."

27 The commander came and said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?" And he said, "Yes."

28 The commander answered, "I acquired this citizenship with a large sum of money." And Paul said, "But I was actually born a citizen."

➤ 29 Therefore those who were about to examine him immediately let go of him; and the commander also was afraid when he found out that he was a Roman, and because he had put him in chains.

30 But on the next day, wishing to know for certain why he had been accused by the Jews, he released him and ordered the chief priests and all the Council to assemble, and brought Paul down and set him before them.

Paul before the Council

23 PAUL, looking intently at the Council, said, "Brethren, I have lived my life with a perfectly good conscience before God up to this day."

2 The high priest Ananias commanded those standing beside him to strike him on the mouth.

3 Then Paul said to him, "God is going to strike you, you whitewashed wall! Do you sit to try me according to the Law, and in violation of the Law order me to be struck?"

4 But the bystanders said, "Do you revile God's high priest?"

5 And Paul said, "I was not aware, brethren, that he was high priest; for it is written, 'You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.'"

6 But perceiving that one group were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, Paul began crying out in the Council, "Brethren, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees; I am on trial for the hope and resurrection of the dead!"

7 As he said this, there occurred a dissension between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the assembly was divided.

8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor an angel, nor a spirit, but the Pharisees acknowledge them all.

9 And there occurred a great uproar; and some of the scribes of the Pharisaic party stood up and began to argue heatedly, saying, "We find nothing wrong with this man; suppose a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?" 10 And as a great dissension was developing, the acommander was afraid Paul would be torn to pieces by them and ordered the troops to go down and take him away from them by force, and bring him into the barracks.

11 But on the night immediately following, the Lord stood at his side and said, "Take courage; for as you have solemnly witnessed to My cause at Jerusalem, so you must witness at Rome also."

A Conspiracy to Kill Paul

12 When it was day, the Jews formed a conspiracy and bound themselves under an oath, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul.

> 22:29 — The commander also was afraid when he found out that he was a Roman, and because he had put him in chains.

It was a serious offense to injure or harm a Roman citizen who had not been convicted of an offense in a Roman court of law. Citizenship was a rare and precious privilege, one that was only given to the upper echelons of Roman government and society, to those who had performed some extraordinary service for Rome, or to people able to purchase it through enormous bribes. After attaining it, a person would confer it to his family, which is why some were born into citizenship. For Paul, it was privilege provided by God even before he was born (Acts 22:28).

> 23:6 — "I am on trial for the hope and resurrection of the dead!"

Paul had broken no regulation, but there was no one present to defend him. So he heeded the Lord's counsel to be "shrewd as serpents and innocent as doves" (Matt. 10:16). He clearly stated the reason for his trial—highlighting the theological differences between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, which divided the Sanhedrin and eventually ended the trial (Acts 23:10). As believers, we are not without defense; rather, we obey God completely and leave the consequences to Him.

> 23:11 — "Take courage; for as you have solemnly witnessed to My cause at Jerusalem, so you must witness at Rome also."

It was a dark time for Paul. Certainly his hopes of continuing to testify for the Lord in Jerusalem were quashed by the proceedings before the Sanhedrin (Acts 23:1–10). Yet in this disheartening moment, Jesus encourages him. The Lord had told Ananias that Paul would bear His name "before the Gentiles and kings and the sons of Israel" (9:15). Here, Christ reminds Paul of the promise He had given: he would preach the gospel in Rome. Likewise, no matter how discouraging your circumstances appear, you can trust God to fulfill His promises to you.

- 13 There were more than forty who formed this plot.
- 14 They came to the chief priests and the elders and said, "We have bound ourselves under a solemn oath to taste nothing until we have killed Paul.
- 15 "Now therefore, you and the Council notify the commander to bring him down to you, as though you were going to determine his case by a more thorough investigation; and we for our part are ready to slay him before he comes near the place."
- ▶ 16 But the son of Paul's sister heard of their ambush, and he came and entered the barracks and told Paul.
 - 17 Paul called one of the centurions to him and said, "Lead this young man to the commander, for he has something to report to him."
 - 18 So he took him and led him to the commander and *said, "Paul the prisoner called me to him and asked me to lead this young man to you since he has something to tell you."
 - 19 The commander took him by the hand and stepping aside, began to inquire of him privately, "What is it that you have to report to me?"
 - 20 And he said, "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down tomorrow to the Council, as though they were going to inquire somewhat more thoroughly about him.
 - 21 "So do not listen to them, for more than forty of them are lying in wait for him who have bound themselves under a curse not to eat or drink until they slay him; and now they are ready and waiting for the promise from you."
 - 22 So the commander let the young man go, instructing him, "Tell no one that you have notified me of these things."

Paul Moved to Caesarea

- 23 And he called to him two of the centurions and said, "Get two hundred soldiers ready by "the third hour of the night to proceed to Caesarea, with seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen."
- 24 They were also to provide mounts to put Paul on and bring him safely to Felix the governor.
- 25 And he wrote a letter having this form:
- 26 "Claudius Lysias, to the most excellent governor Felix, greetings.
- 27 "When this man was arrested by the Jews and was about to be slain by them, I came - up to them with the troops and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman.

- 28 "And wanting to ascertain the charge for which they were accusing him, I brought him down to their Council;
- 29 and I found him to be accused over questions about their Law, but under no accusation deserving death or imprisonment.
- 30 "When I was informed that there would be a plot against the man, I sent him to you at once, also instructing his accusers to bring charges against him before you."
- 31 So the soldiers, in accordance with their orders, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris.
- 32 But the next day, leaving the horsemen to go on with him, they returned to the barracks.
- 33 When these had come to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him.
- 34 When he had read it, he asked from what province he was, and when he learned that he was from Cilicia.
- 35 he said, "I will give you a hearing after your accusers arrive also," giving orders for him to be kept in Herod's ^bPraetorium.

Paul before Felix

AFTER five days the high priest Ananias came down with some elders, with an attorney named Tertullus, and they brought charges to the governor against Paul.

After Paul had been summoned, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying to the governor,

"Since we have through you attained much peace, and since by your providence reforms are being carried out for this nation,

- 3 we acknowledge this in every way and everywhere, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness.
- 4 "But, that I may not weary you any further, I beg you to grant us, by your kindness, a brief hearing"
- 5 "For we have found this man a real pest and a fellow who stirs up dissension among all the Jews throughout cthe world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes.
- 6 "And he even tried to desecrate the temple; and then we arrested him. [dWe wanted to judge him according to our own Law.
- 7 "But Lysias the commander came along,

- 9 The Jews also joined in the attack, asserting that these things were so.
- 10 When the governor had nodded for him to speak, Paul responded:
- "Knowing that for many years you have been a judge to this nation, I cheerfully make my defense,
- 11 since you can take note of the fact that no more than twelve days ago I went up to Jerusalem to worship.
- 12 "Neither in the temple, nor in the synagogues, nor in the city itself did they find me carrying on a discussion with anyone or causing a riot.
- 13 "Nor can they prove to you the charges of which they now accuse me.

- 22 But Felix, having a more exact knowledge about the Way, put them off, saying, "When Lysias the bcommander comes down, I will decide your case."
- 23 Then he gave orders to the centurion for him to be kept in custody and yet have some freedom, and not to prevent any of his friends from ministering to him.
- 24 But some days later Felix arrived with Drusilla, his wife who was a Jewess, and sent for Paul and heard him speak about faith in Christ Jesus.
- 25 But as he was discussing righteousness, ≺ self-control and the judgment to come, Felix became frightened and said, "Go away for the present, and when I find time I will summon you."
- 26 At the same time too, he was hoping that money would be given him by Paul; therefore he also used to send for him quite often and converse with him.
- 27 But after two years had passed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus, and wishing to do the Jews a favor, Felix left Paul imprisoned.

> 24:14 — "I do serve the God of our fathers, believing everything that is in accordance with the Law and that is written in the Prophets."

Paul did not see the Christian faith as an alternative to his Jewish upbringing, but as the fulfillment of it. He worshiped the same God he always had and had complete faith in the same Scripture.

> 24:16 — "I also do my best to maintain always a blameless conscience both before God and before men."

"blameless conscience" is one that is devoid of any guilt toward another person or toward the Lord. The apostle Paul never tried to earn right standing before God, but he did strive to live out the righteousness that had been given to him through faith in Jesus. Paul wanted his conduct to reflect well on his Savior, and his conscience affirmed that he was honoring Christ. Our conscience is a divine alarm system that protects us from making wrong decisions. It's a gift from God that enables us to distinguish between what's right and wrong—between what's good and best in our lives.

> 24:25 — As he was discussing righteousness, selfcontrol and the judgment to come, Felix became frightened.

Is the gospel an abstract and theoretical topic for you to debate, or is it real and deeply personal? If Christianity is merely an intellectual pursuit to you, you are preventing God from transforming your life, just as Felix did.

- 5 "Therefore," he *said, "let the influential men among you go there with me, and if there is anything wrong about the man, let them prosecute him."
- 6 After he had spent not more than eight or ten days among them, he went down to Caesarea, and on the next day he took his seat on the tribunal and ordered Paul to be brought.
- 7 After Paul arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing many and serious charges against him which they could not prove,
- 8 while Paul said in his own defense, "I have committed no offense either against the Law of the Jews or against the temple or against Caesar."
- 9 But Festus, wishing to do the Jews a favor, answered Paul and said, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and stand trial before me on these charges?"
- 10 But Paul said, "I am standing before Caesar's tribunal, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you also very well know.
- 11 "If, then, I am a wrongdoer and have committed anything worthy of death, I do not refuse to die; but if none of those things is true of which these men accuse me, no one can hand me over to them. I appeal to Caesar."
- 12 Then when Festus had conferred with his council, he answered, "You have appealed to Caesar, to Caesar you shall go."
- 13 Now when several days had elapsed, King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at Caesarea and paid their respects to Festus.
- 14 While they were spending many days there, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying, "There is a man who was left as a prisoner by Felix;
- 15 and when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews brought charges against him, asking for a sentence of condemnation against him.
- 16 "I answered them that it is not the custom of the Romans to hand over any man before the accused meets his accusers face to face and has an opportunity to make his defense against the charges.
- 17 "So after they had assembled here, I did not delay, but on the next day took my seat on - the tribunal and ordered the man to be brought before me.

- 18 "When the accusers stood up, they began bringing charges against him not of such crimes as I was expecting,
- 19 but they simply had some points of disagreement with him about their own religion and about a dead man, Jesus, whom Paul asserted to be alive.
- 20 "Being at a loss how to investigate such matters, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there stand trial on these matters.
- 21 "But when Paul appealed to be held in custody for athe Emperor's decision, I ordered him to be kept in custody until I send him to Caesar."
- 22 Then Agrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to hear the man myself." "Tomorrow," he *said, "you shall hear him."

Paul before Agrippa

- 23 So, on the next day when Agrippa came together with Bernice amid great pomp, and entered the auditorium baccompanied by the commanders and the prominent men of the city, at the command of Festus, Paul was brought in.
- 24 Festus *said, "King Agrippa, and all you gentlemen here present with us, you see this man about whom all the people of the Jews appealed to me, both at Jerusalem and here, loudly declaring that he ought not to live any longer.
- 25 "But I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death; and since he himself appealed to the Emperor, I decided to send him.
- 26 "Yet I have nothing definite about him to write to my lord. Therefore I have brought him before you all and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after the investigation has taken place, I may have something to write.

> 25:19 — "They . . . had some points of disagreement with him about their own religion and about a dead man, Jesus, whom Paul asserted to be alive."

o the Roman governor Festus, the gospel was nothing but the religious fantasy of a superstitious and contentious people. We should not be surprised when non-believers treat it as myth. However, we should live our lives in a manner that testifies to the truth of the gospel, so that those who are lost can believe and be saved (2 Tim. 2:24–26).

> 25:27 — "It seems absurd to me in sending a prisoner, not to indicate also the charges against him."

estus could not see how Paul had violated the Jewish law and hoped that Agrippa—who knew the Jews well—could help him formulate some kind of legal charge against him that would make sense to the Romans. As we learn through Paul, Joseph (Gen. 39), and Stephen (Acts 7:54–60), sometimes people will charge us unfairly because we stand for the Lord. However, the Lord will vindicate us, so we should trust Him and continue to obey Him faithfully (Ps. 7:8–10; 10:17, 18; 26:1–3; 43; 54; 109:26–31).

Paul's Defense before Agrippa

26 AGRIPPA said to Paul, "You are permitted to speak for yourself." Then Paul stretched out his hand and proceeded to make his defense:

2 "In regard to all the things of which I am accused by the Jews, I consider myself fortunate, King Agrippa, that I am about to make my defense before you today;

3 especially because you are an expert in all customs and questions among the Jews; therefore I beg you to listen to me patiently.

4 "So then, all Jews know my manner of life from my youth up, which from the beginning was spent among my own nation and at Jerusalem;

5 since they have known about me for a long time, if they are willing to testify, that I lived as a Pharisee according to the strictest sect of our religion.

6 "And now I am standing trial for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers;

7 the promise to which our twelve tribes hope to attain, as they earnestly serve God night and day. And for this hope, O King, I am being accused by Jews.

8 "Why is it considered incredible among you people if God does raise the dead?

9 "So then, I thought to myself that I had to do many things hostile to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 "And this is just what I did in Jerusalem; not only did I lock up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, but also when they were being put to death I cast my vote against them.

11 "And as I punished them often in all the synagogues, I tried to force them to blaspheme; and being furiously enraged at them, I kept pursuing them even to foreign cities.

12 "While so engaged as I was journeying to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests.

13 at midday, O King, I saw on the way a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining all around me and those who were journeying with me.

14 "And when we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew dialect, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'

15 "And I said, 'Who are You, Lord?' And the Lord said, 'I am Jesus whom you are persecuting.

16 'But get up and stand on your feet; for this purpose I have appeared to you, to appoint you a minister and a witness not only to the things which you have seen, but also to the things in which I will appear to you;

17 rescuing you from the Jewish people and from the Gentiles, to whom I am sending you, 18 to open their eyes so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the dominion of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who have been sanctified by faith in Me.'

19 "So, King Agrippa, I did not prove disobedient to the heavenly vision, 20 but kept declaring both to those of Damascus first, and also at Jerusalem and then throughout all the region of Judea, and even to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, performing deeds appropriate to repentance.

21 "For this reason some Jews seized me in the temple and tried to put me to death.

22 "So, having obtained help from God, I stand to this day testifying both to small and great, stating nothing but what the Prophets and Moses said was going to take place;

23 that the Christ was to suffer, and that by reason of His resurrection from the dead He would be the first to proclaim light both to the Jewish people and to the Gentiles."

24 While Paul was saying this in his defense, Festus *said in a loud voice, "Paul, you are out of your mind! Your great learning is driving you mad."

> 26:9 — "I thought to myself that I had to do many things hostile to the name of Jesus of Nazareth."

Paul could understand the animosity of the Jewish leaders against him, because only a few years before he had shared their fierce hatred of Christianity (Acts 8:1–3). He knew one could feel as if they were doing right and serving God, while being deeply wrong and persecuting Him (9:1–5). That is why it's so important to have a vibrant, growing relationship with the Lord instead of merely doing pious acts. Because then you know what you are doing is truly pleasing to Him (1 Sam. 15:22; Matt. 7:21–27).

> 26:20 — "Repent and turn to God, performing deeds appropriate to repentance."

The gospel teaches that we receive divine grace through faith in Jesus Christ. Although our salvation is not contingent upon our works, our Christian testimony is—we need to repent of our sin and behave in a godly manner so that the Lord will be glorified through us. God's grace gives us the ability and the desire to obey, not the right to disobey.

- 27 "King Agrippa, do you believe the Prophets? I know that you do."
- 28 Agrippa replied to Paul, "In a short time you will persuade me to become a Christian." 29 And Paul said, "I would wish to God, that whether in a short or long time, not only you, but also all who hear me this day, might become such as I am, except for these chains."
- 30 The king stood up and the governor and Bernice, and those who were sitting with them,
- 31 and when they had gone aside, they began talking to one another, saying, "This man is not doing anything worthy of death or imprisonment."
- ≥ 32 And Agrippa said to Festus, "This man might have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar."

Paul Is Sent to Rome

- 27WHEN it was decided that we would sail for Italy, they proceeded to deliver Paul and some other prisoners to a centurion of the Augustan acohort named Julius.
- 2 And embarking in an Adramyttian ship, which was about to sail to the regions along the coast of Asia, we put out to sea accompanied by Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica.
- 3 The next day we put in at Sidon; and Julius treated Paul with consideration and allowed him to go to his friends and receive care.
- 4 From there we put out to sea and sailed under the shelter of Cyprus because the winds were contrary.
- 5 When we had sailed through the sea along the coast of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we landed at Myra in Lycia.
- 6 There the centurion found an Alexandrian ship sailing for Italy, and he put us aboard it.
- 7 When we had sailed slowly for a good many days, and with difficulty had arrived off Cnidus, since the wind did not permit us to go farther, we sailed under the shelter of Crete, off Salmone:
- 8 and with difficulty sailing past it we came to a place called Fair Havens, near which was the city of Lasea.
- 9 When considerable time had passed and

- the voyage was now dangerous, since even the bfast was already over, Paul began to admonish them,
- 10 and said to them, "Men, I perceive that the voyage will certainly be with damage and great loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives."
- 11 But the centurion was more persuaded by the pilot and the captain of the ship than by what was being said by Paul.
- 12 Because the harbor was not suitable for wintering, the majority reached a decision to put out to sea from there, if somehow they could reach Phoenix, a harbor of Crete, facing southwest and northwest, and spend the winter there.
- 13 When a moderate south wind came up, supposing that they had attained their purpose, they weighed anchor and began sailing along Crete, close inshore.

Shipwreck

- 14 But before very long there rushed down from the land a violent wind, called ^cEuraquilo;
- 15 and when the ship was caught in it and could not face the wind, we gave way to it and let ourselves be driven along.
- 16 Running under the shelter of a small island called Clauda, we were scarcely able to get the ship's boat under control.
- 17 After they had hoisted it up, they used supporting cables in undergirding the ship; and fearing that they might run aground on the shallows of Syrtis, they let down the sea anchor and in this way let themselves be driven along.
- 18 The next day as we were being violently storm-tossed, they began to jettison the cargo:
- 19 and on the third day they threw the ship's tackle overboard with their own hands.
- 20 Since neither sun nor stars appeared for amany days, and no small storm was assailing us, from then on all hope of our being saved was gradually abandoned.

> 26:32 — "This man might have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar."

As this an immense mistake on Paul's part? No. Rather, Paul's appeal to Caesar helped to fulfill God's command to Paul, "As you have solemnly witnessed to My cause at Jerusalem, so you must witness at Rome also" (Acts 23:11). Paul's goal was to get to Rome, and his appeal to Caesar meant he was going courtesy of the Roman government—with an armed escort, no less!

> 27:20 — All hope of our being saved was gradually abandoned.

Ardships and trials can last for so long that we begin to despair that God will ever rescue us from our troubles. Yet He remains faithful, and difficult circumstances never indicate that He has lost interest in us. Rather, our adversity will be a bridge to a deeper relationship with Him if we'll trust Him.

21 When they had gone a long time without food, then Paul stood up in their midst and said, "Men, you ought to have followed my advice and not to have set sail from Crete and incurred this damage and loss.

22 "Yet now I urge you to keep up your courage, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.

23 "For this very night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve stood before me,

- 24 saying, 'Do not be afraid, Paul; you must stand before Caesar; and behold, God has granted you all those who are sailing with you.'
- 25 "Therefore, keep up your courage, men, for I believe God that it will turn out exactly as I have been told.
 - 26 "But we must run aground on a certain island."
 - 27 But when the fourteenth night came, as we were being driven about in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors began to surmise that they were approaching some land.
 - 28 They took soundings and found it to be twenty fathoms; and a little farther on they took another sounding and found it to be fifteen fathoms.
 - 29 Fearing that we might run aground somewhere on the rocks, they cast four anchors from the stern and wished for daybreak.
 - 30 But as the sailors were trying to escape from the ship and had let down the ship's boat into the sea, on the pretense of intending to lay out anchors from the bow,
 - 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Unless these men remain in the ship, you yourselves cannot be saved."
 - 32 Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the ship's boat and let it fall away.
 - 33 Until the day was about to dawn, Paul was encouraging them all to take some food, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day that you have been constantly watching and going without eating, having taken nothing.
 - 34 "Therefore I encourage you to take some food, for this is for your preservation, for not a hair from the head of any of you will perish."
 - 35 Having said this, he took bread and gave thanks to God in the presence of all, and he broke it and began to eat.

- 36 All of them were encouraged and they themselves also took food.
- 37 All of us in the ship were two hundred and seventy-six persons.
- 38 When they had eaten enough, they began to lighten the ship by throwing out the wheat into the sea.
- 39 When day came, they could not recognize the land; but they did observe a bay with a beach, and they resolved to drive the ship onto it if they could.
- 40 And casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea while at the same time they were loosening the ropes of the rudders; and hoisting the foresail to the wind, they were heading for the beach.
- 41 But striking a reef where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground; and the prow stuck fast and remained immovable, but the stern began to be broken up by the force of the waves.
- 42 The soldiers' plan was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them would swim away and escape;
- 43 but the centurion, wanting to bring Paul safely through, kept them from their intention, and commanded that those who could swim should jump overboard first and get to land,
- 44 and the rest should follow, some on planks, and others on various things from the ship. And so it happened that they all were brought safely to land.

Safe at Malta

- 28 WHEN they had been brought safely through, then we found out that the island was called Malta.
- 2 The natives showed us extraordinary kindness; for because of the rain that had set in and because of the cold, they kindled a fire and received us all.
- 3 But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat and fastened itself on his hand.

Then times become difficult, those who do not have a relationship with God can take courage from those who do—if believers maintain and display their trust in the Lord. Paul's faith encouraged many unbelievers, and many came to know Jesus Christ as their Savior through his consistent testimony.

> 27:44 — They all were brought safely to land.

God had promised that everyone on board would be saved, and so it happened. Some swam, some floated on boards or pieces of the ship, but everyone made it to shore safely. We never go wrong by trusting God's Word!

- 7 Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the leading man of the island, named Publius, who welcomed us and entertained us courteously three days.
- 8 And it happened that the father of Publius was lying in bed afflicted with recurrent fever and dysentery; and Paul went in to see him and after he had prayed, he laid his hands on him and healed him.
- 9 After this had happened, the rest of the people on the island who had diseases were coming to him and getting cured.
- 10 They also honored us with many marks of respect; and when we were setting sail, they supplied us with all we needed.

Paul Arrives at Rome

- 11 At the end of three months we set sail on an Alexandrian ship which had wintered at the island, and which had the Twin Brothers for its figurehead.
- 12 After we put in at Syracuse, we stayed there for three days.
- 13 From there we sailed around and arrived at Rhegium, and a day later a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli.
- 14 There we found some brethren, and were invited to stay with them for seven days; and thus we came to Rome.
- ➤ 15 And the brethren, when they heard about us, came from there as far as the Market of Appius and Three Inns to meet us; and when Paul saw them, he thanked God and took courage.
 - 16 When we entered Rome, Paul was allowed to stay by himself, with the soldier who was guarding him.
 - 17 After three days Paul called together those who were the leading men of the Jews,

- and when they came together, he began saying to them, "Brethren, though I had done nothing against our people or the customs of our fathers, yet I was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.
- 18 "And when they had examined me, they were willing to release me because there was no ground for putting me to death.
- 19 "But when the Jews objected, I was forced to appeal to Caesar, not that I had any accusation against my nation.
- 20 "For this reason, therefore, I requested to see you and to speak with you, for I am wearing this chain for the sake of the hope of Israel."
- 21 They said to him, "We have neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor have any of the brethren come here and reported or spoken anything bad about you.
- 22 "But we desire to hear from you what your views are; for concerning this sect, it is known to us that it is spoken against everywhere."
- 23 When they had set a day for Paul, they came to him at his lodging in large numbers; and he was explaining to them by solemnly testifying about the kingdom of God and trying to persuade them concerning Jesus, from both the Law of Moses and from the Prophets, from morning until evening.
- 24 Some were being persuaded by the things spoken, but others would not believe.
- 25 And when they did not agree with one another, they began leaving after Paul had spoken one parting word, "The Holy Spirit rightly spoke through Isaiah the prophet to your fathers,
- 26 saying,
 - 'GO TO THIS PEOPLE AND SAY,

> 28:15 — When Paul saw them, he thanked God and took courage.

Paul usually traveled in ministry teams and sought out brothers and sisters in Christ wherever he went. He always drew on the strength, faith, wisdom, and prayers of fellow believers for encouragement. He knew that no Christian can grow in faith apart from connecting deeply with others in the body of Christ. > 28:24 — Some were being persuaded by the things spoken, but others would not believe.

It is always this way when the gospel is preached: some believe, and some don't. Paul said, "I have become all things to all men, so that I may by all means save some" (1 Cor. 9:22). We must be of the same mind—teaching about Jesus to everyone in the hope that many will be saved.

aEarly mss do not contain this v he epistle to the Romans, one of the apostle Paul's greatest works, is placed first among his thirteen epistles in the New Testament. While the four Gospels present the words and works of Jesus Christ, Romans explores the significance of His sacrificial death. Paul offers a systematic presentation of biblical doctrine.

Romans is a preeminent book when it comes to crucial topics such as salvation and faith. However, it is much more than a book of theology. It is also a practical exhortation about how to live in joyful obedience. The Good News of Jesus Christ is more than facts to be believed; it is an abundant life to be lived—a life of righteousness befitting the person "justified as a gift by [God's] grace through the redemption which is in Christ Jesus" (Rom. 3:24).

This was exemplified in the life of reformer Martin Luther. When he read, "The righteous man shall live by faith" (Rom. 1:17), he realized that good works and religious rituals could not save the Christian. Instead, it was faith in the Lord's unmerited grace that justified the believer, just as it had Abraham (ch. 4). Therefore, good works were not the means by which one attained salvation, but the joyful overflow of thankfulness for the grace of God.

Paul begins his letter by addressing the necessity of obeying the Lord with love and humility. He reminds us that it is through Jesus Christ that we receive eternal life as well as grace for each circumstance we face. It is His salvation that sets us free from the power of sin. Until we come to a point where we acknowledge our need of a Savior, we cannot appreciate the gracious gift God has given to us.

The title Pros Romaious, "To the Romans," has been associated with the epistle almost from the beginning.

Theme: People everywhere can enjoy God's gracious gift of eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ, who gives them the desire and the strength to obey the Lord.

Author: The apostle Paul.

Time: Most scholars believe Paul wrote Romans circa A.D. 57.

Structure: The first section (1–8) expresses what has been called "the gospel according to Paul," meaning that the only way to fellowship with God is by grace through faith in the risen Jesus Christ. The second section (9–11) expounds Paul's expectation that the Jews, who have largely refused this teaching, will one day accept it. The final section (12–16) describes how people saved by grace through faith in Christ should live and behave.

The Gospel Exalted

PAUL, a bond-servant of Christ Jesus, called as an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God,

2 which He promised beforehand through His prophets in the holy Scriptures,

3 concerning His Son, who was born of a descendant of David according to the flesh,

- 4 who was declared the Son of God with power ^aby the resurrection from the dead, according to the Spirit of holiness, Jesus Christ our Lord.
- ➤ 5 through whom we have received grace and apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith among all the Gentiles for His name's sake.
 - 6 among whom you also are the called of Jesus Christ:
 - 7 to all who are beloved of God in Rome, called as saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
 - 8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, because your faith is being proclaimed throughout the whole world.
 - 9 For God, whom I serve in my spirit in the preaching of the gospel of His Son, is my witness as to how unceasingly I make mention of you.
 - 10 always in my prayers making request, if perhaps now at last by the will of God I may succeed in coming to you.
 - 11 For I long to see you so that I may impart some spiritual gift to you, that you may be established:
 - 12 that is, that I may be encouraged together with you while among you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine.
 - 13 I do not want you to be unaware, brethren, that often I have planned to come to you (and have been prevented so far) so that I may obtain some fruit among you also, even as among the rest of the Gentiles.

- 14 I am bunder obligation both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish.
- 15 So, for my part, I am eager to preach the gospel to you also who are in Rome.
- 16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it ≺ is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.
- 17 For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, "But the righteous man shall live by FAITH."

Unbelief and Its Consequences

- 18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men who suppress the truth in unrighteousness,
- 19 because that which is known about God is evident within them; for God made it evident to them.
- 20 For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes, His eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen, being understood through what has been made, so that they are without excuse.
- 21 For even though they knew God, they did not chonor Him as God or give thanks, but they became futile in their speculations, and their foolish heart was darkened.
- 22 Professing to be wise, they became fools, 23 and exchanged the glory of the incorruptible God for an image in the form of corruptible man and of birds and four-footed animals and ^dcrawling creatures.

> 1:5 — Through whom we have received grace and apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith among all the Gentiles for His name's sake.

Gesus Christ is the promised Messiah and the accomplishment of the Lord's covenant with King David (Rom. 1:3; also 2 Sam. 7:12–16). Yet God did not only have the Jewish people in mind when He offered us salvation (Is. 42:6; 49:6; 52:15). As Paul explained, his calling was to take the gospel to teach all people to obey the Lord in faith. God loves us and has been preparing His salvation for us since before the foundation of the earth. In Romans, Paul explains what this means to you and all believers everywhere.

> 1:16 — I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes.

We must never feel ashamed of our connection to Christ or the salvation He freely offers to all. It is a high privilege to represent Him, and we must do so with boldness and enthusiasm.

1:17 — "The righteous man shall live by faith."

Pe live the whole Christian life by faith in the Lord, who teaches, empowers, and equips us to please Him (Heb. 11:1, 6). We take hold of grace for salvation and for growing in godliness by trusting Him. God loves to honor faith because faith honors Him. It is when we submit ourselves in full obedience to Him that He is glorified in and through us.

> 1:20 — Since the creation of the world His invisible attributes, His eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen, being understood through what has been made, so that they are without excuse.

God desires that we know Him, and He has provided a way for us to have a relationship with Him through Jesus Christ. From the beginning, He revealed Himself to Adam and Eve. Unfortunately, through their disobedience, sin came into the world (Gen. 3). Since then, people have rebelled against God, creating their own deities and even denying His existence. Yet even if someone has never seen a Bible or heard about Jesus Christ, that person has no excuse because creation itself testifies that He exists.

- ▶ 24 Therefore God gave them over in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, so that their bodies would be dishonored among them.
 - 25 For they exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.
 - 26 For this reason God gave them over to degrading passions; for their women exchanged the natural function for that which is unnatural,
 - 27 and in the same way also the men abandoned the natural function of the woman and burned in their desire toward one another, men with men committing indecent acts and receiving in their own persons the due penalty of their error.
 - 28 And just as they did not see fit to acknowledge God any longer, God gave them over to a deprayed mind, to do those things which are not proper,
 - 29 being filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, greed, evil; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malice; they are gossips,
 - 30 slanderers, haters of God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents,
 - 31 without understanding, untrustworthy, unloving, unmerciful;
 - 32 and although they know the ordinance of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, they not only do the same, but also give hearty approval to those who practice them.

The Impartiality of God

2THEREFORE you have no excuse, everyone of you who passes judgment, for in that which you judge another, you condemn yourself; for you who judge practice the same things.

- 2 And we know that the judgment of God rightly falls upon those who practice such things.
- 3 But do you suppose this, O man, when you pass judgment on those who practice such things and do the same yourself, that you will escape the judgment of God?
- 4 Or do you think lightly of the riches of His kindness and tolerance and patience, not knowing that the kindness of God leads you to repentance?
- 5 But because of your stubbornness and unrepentant heart you are storing up wrath for yourself in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God,
- 6 Who WILL RENDER TO EACH PERSON ACCORDING TO HIS DEEDS:
- 7 to those who by perseverance in doing good seek for glory and honor and immortality, eternal life;
- 8 but to those who are selfishly ambitious and do not obey the truth, but obey unright-eousness, wrath and indignation.
- 9 There will be tribulation and distress for every soul of man who does evil, of the Jew first and also of the Greek,
- 10 but glory and honor and peace to everyone who does good, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.
- 11 For there is no partiality with God.
- 12 For all who have sinned without the Law will also perish without the Law, and all who have sinned under the Law will be judged by the Law;
- 13 for it is not the hearers of the Law who are just before God, but the doers of the Law will be justified.
- 14 For when Gentiles who do not have the Law do instinctively the things of the Law, these, not having the Law, are a law to themselves.

> 1:24 — God gave them over in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, so that their bodies would be dishonored among them.

oo many people reject the truth because it interferes with their lifestyle. They participate in every form of sin in an attempt to satisfy their needs, but all they are doing is moving further away from filling the empty void within them—what only the Lord can do. Even deeper emptiness, dissatisfaction, and hopelessness always result. Eventually, those transgressions take over their lives and destroy them (Rom. 1:26, 28).

> 2:4 — The kindness of God leads you to repentance.

Salvation is God's work from start to finish. Even our repentance demonstrates His Spirit at work in our hearts. The Lord is so good that He blesses the people who reject Him in order to lead them to repentance. Why? Because it is the nature of God to love people—even when they do not love Him back. We repent because of the goodness of God, not because of our own worthiness.

> 2:5, 6 — God . . . will render to each person according to his deeds.

Then asked, many people explain they are going to heaven, "Because I am a good person." They measure their worthiness by their own standards and disregard God's (Rom. 2:1–4). Throughout the Bible we learn that God will reward believers for their Spirit-empowered good works and will punish the lost for their unbelief and flesh-driven evil deeds (Ps. 28:4; 62:12; Prov. 24:12; Jer. 17:10; Matt. 16:27; Rev. 2:23; 20:12, 13). In the end, only God's judgment will matter, and without faith in Jesus Christ, no one will find a home in heaven.

> 2:14 — Gentiles who do not have the Law do instinctively the things of the Law.

In every culture, there is a belief in some kind of deity. It is natural for people to believe in a higher being because within everyone is a conscience that makes them aware of His presence. This is evidenced by the standards of right and wrong that exist in every community and nation. However, the conscience is not sufficient for us to really

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S OUESTIONS

How does my conscience differ from the guidance of the Holy Spirit?

ROM. 2:14, 15

The conscience functions something like a computer. A computer is programmed to respond in specific ways to specific information. Also, it responds to information based on the commands it has been programmed to follow.

When you click your word processing application, your computer knows which program to open. For the most part, computers are simply responders.

The conscience is a responder as well. It responds to certain input just as it has been programmed. Paul described it like this: "For when Gentiles who do not have the Law do instinctively the things of the Law, these, not having the Law, are a law to themselves, in that they show the work of the Law written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness and their thoughts alternately accusing or else defending them" (Rom. 2:14, 15).

God has programmed His moral code into the heart of every man and woman. We are born with it. When a person's actions or thoughts violate that code, the conscience responds by sending a "No" message to the brain. On the other hand, when the act or thought goes along with the preprogrammed moral code, the conscience says, "Go."

▶ 16 on the day when, according to my gospel, God will judge the secrets of men through Christ Jesus.

Notice that Paul says our thoughts sometimes point out the legitimacy of certain actions. When that happens, if the actions line up with the law of God written in our hearts, the conscience gives us the go-ahead.

When you became a Christian, a change began to occur in your conscience. The basic moral code that everyone has at birth started to be overhauled. The Spirit of truth took up residency in your heart. Then, whether you were aware of it or not, He immediately set about to reprogram your conscience. Whereas before you had a general sense of right and wrong, the Holy Spirit began renewing your mind to more specific and complete truths (1 Cor. 2:10–13).

You participate in this renewal process every time you read your Bible, attend worship, memorize a verse, or pray. The Holy Spirit uses all this input to reprogram the database through which your conscience evaluates every opportunity, thought, invitation, word, and deed.

As this process continues, your conscience tunes in with the moral code of the Holy Spirit—a code reflecting the moral and ethical standards of God. This process sensitizes you not only to God's moral standards but also to the will of God.

know God. To truly have a relationship with Him, we must come to Him in faith through Christ.

> 2:16 — God will judge the secrets of men through Christ Jesus.

Mhether we like it or not, we are accountable for everything we do and say because at the judgment, every secret motivation, desire, and act will come out into the open. Jesus said, "Nothing is hidden that will not become evident, nor anything secret that will not be known and come to light" (Luke 8:17). Are there undisclosed sins in your life? If Jesus is your Savior, you are forgiven for all of your transgressions. He has removed the penalty of your sin and has left you spotless in return.

guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness,

20 a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of the immature, having in the Law the embodiment of knowledge and of the truth,

21 you, therefore, who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who preach that one shall not steal, do you steal?

22 You who say that one should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples?

23 You who boast in the Law, through your breaking the Law, do you dishonor God?

➤ 24 For "THE NAME OF GOD IS BLASPHEMED AMONG THE GENTILES BECAUSE OF YOU," just as it is written.

25 For indeed circumcision is of value if you practice the Law; but if you are a transgressor of the Law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.

26 So if the uncircumcised man keeps the requirements of the Law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded as circumcision?

27 And he who is physically uncircumcised, if he keeps the Law, will he not judge you who though having the letter of the Law and circumcision are a transgressor of the Law?

28 For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, nor is circumcision that which is outward in the flesh.

29 But he is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is that which is of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter; and his praise is not from men, but from God.

All the World Guilty

3THEN what advantage has the Jew? Or what is the benefit of circumcision?

2 Great in every respect. First of all, that they were entrusted with the oracles of God.

3 What then? If some did not believe, their unbelief will not nullify the faithfulness of God, will it?

4 May it never be! Rather, let God be found true, though every man be found a liar, as it is written.

"THAT YOU MAY BE JUSTIFIED IN YOUR WORDS,

And prevail when You are judged."

5 But if our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what shall we say? The God who inflicts wrath is not unrighteous, is He? (I am speaking in human terms.)

6 May it never be! For otherwise, how will God judge the world?

7 But if through my lie the truth of God abounded to His glory, why am I also still being judged as a sinner?

8 And why not say (as we are slanderously reported and as some claim that we say), "Let us do evil that good may come"? Their condemnation is just.

9 What then? Are we better than they? Not at all; for we have already charged that both Jews and Greeks are all under sin;

10 as it is written,

"There is none righteous, not even one:

11 There is none who understands, There is none who seeks for God;

12 ALL HAVE TURNED ASIDE, TOGETHER THEY HAVE BECOME USELESS;

THERE IS NONE WHO DOES GOOD, THERE IS NOT EVEN ONE."

13 "Their throat is an open grave, With their tongues they keep deceiving."

"The poison of asps is under their lips";

14 "Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness";

15 "Their feet are swift to shed blood,

16 DESTRUCTION AND MISERY ARE IN THEIR PATHS.

17 And the path of peace they have not known."

18 "There is no fear of God before their eyes."

19 Now we know that whatever the Law says, it speaks to those who are under the Law, so that every mouth may be closed and all the world may become accountable to God;

> 2:24 — "The name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you."

Thether we realize it or not, unbelievers are watching us—how we conduct ourselves and how we treat others. God intends for what they see in us to attract them to Himself (Matt. 5:16). Unfortunately, when we foolishly disobey the Lord, the opposite often happens. How do others respond to God because of your example?

> 3:5 — If our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what shall we say?

Some opponents of Paul claimed that the apostle's teaching on grace amounted to saying, "I'm saved anyway, so I might as well sin. God's grace will take care of it."

Paul condemned this distortion of grace. The Lord's lovingkindness and mercy give us the desire and the power to obey Him, not the right to disobey.

> 3:10 — As it is written, "There is none righteous, not even one."

Pe are all sinners and need the forgiveness of our transgressions. The way the sinful nature is expressed in people's lives may be different, but its depth and the intensity is the same in all of us.

> 3:18 — "There is no fear of God before their eyes."

Il sin eventually results from a refusal to fear God. All of the heinous transgressions that Paul lists have their source in a rebellious attitude that will not honor the Lord for who He is.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S OUESTIONS

What does God really think of me?

ROM. 3:21-26

never thought much about whether God liked me or approved of me when I was a young man. I knew He loved me, but I never thought about whether He liked me. If someone had pressed me on that point, I probably would have concluded that the Lord "somewhat" liked me. I don't think I would have said that He liked me through and through.

Only after I truly experienced God's love—His total, unconditional, overwhelming, abundant love—could I say with all honesty, "Yes, God likes me. He approves of me. He likes spending time with me. He likes being with me. He likes hearing me when I pray to Him, and He also enjoys talking with me through His Word. I believe He loves me. He knows I make mistakes, but He sees my heart and my desire to know Him better each day."

I didn't come to that position on the basis of things I had accomplished or actions I had taken. Rather, I came to that position solely because I had a new appreciation for God's grace at work in my life. The Lord certainly ≥ 20 because by the works of the Law no flesh will be justified in His sight; for through the Law comes the knowledge of sin.

Justification by Faith

21 But now apart from the Law the righteousness of God has been manifested, being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets, 22 even the righteousness of God through does expect obedience, but the fact is, I had done nothing and could do nothing to win His approval. God likes me just the way I am, because He created me to be just the way I am. His approval of me isn't based on anything I have accomplished or might accomplish in the future. He approves of me because I stand forgiven before Him, and I'm forgiven because I have accepted Jesus Christ as my Savior and have received His forgiveness. That makes me totally acceptable to Him.

The first four chapters of Romans make it very clear that we can't save ourselves. We are all sinners and have fallen short of the glory of God (Rom. 3:23). But because of what Jesus Christ did for us on the Cross, by faith we are "justified as a gift by His grace" (v. 24).

Jesus has done for you what you cannot do. He purchased full approval and forgiveness for you. You cannot have grace without the Cross. But because of the Cross, you have full access to His grace.

Grace is God's kindness and goodness toward you without regard to worth or merit. As a believer, you have a duty to obey the Lord. But you can't earn grace, buy it, or barter with God to receive it. Grace is His free gift to you. There is only one thing you can do in regard to grace: receive it gladly!

So we are judged guilty of committing sin and must pay retribution (Rom. 6:23). That is why sin is a debt that we owe—because we have broken the law against God. Jesus alone lived a sinless life and could pay for our sin debt in full (2 Cor. 5:21; Col. 2:13, 14; Heb. 4:15; 7:26–28).

demonstrate His righteousness, because in the forbearance of God He passed over the sins previously committed;

26 for the demonstration, I say, of His right-eousness at the present time, so that He would be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus.

27 Where then is boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? Of works? No, but by a law of faith

28 For we maintain that a man is justified by faith apart from works of the Law.

29 Or is God the God of Jews only? Is He not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also.

30 since indeed God who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith is one.

31 Do we then nullify the Law through faith? May it never be! On the contrary, we establish the Law.

Justification by Faith Evidenced in Old Testament

4WHAT then shall we say that Abraham, four forefather according to the flesh, has found?

- 2 For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God.
- 3 For what does the Scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness."
 - 4 Now to the one who works, his wage is not credited as a favor, but as what is due.
 - 5 But to the one who does not work, but believes in Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is credited as righteousness,
 - 6 just as David also speaks of the blessing on the man to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:
 - 7 "Blessed are those whose lawless deeds have been forgiven,

AND WHOSE SINS HAVE BEEN COVERED.

- 8 "Blessed is the man whose sin the Lord will not take into account."
- 9 Is this blessing then on the circumcised, or on the uncircumcised also? For we say,

- "Faith was credited to Abraham as righteousness."
- 10 How then was it credited? While he was circumcised, or uncircumcised? Not while circumcised, but while uncircumcised;
- 11 and he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while uncircumcised, so that he might be the father of all who believe without being circumcised, that righteousness might be credited to them,
- 12 and the father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also follow in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham which he had while uncircumcised.
- 13 For the promise to Abraham or to his descendants that he would be heir of the world was not through the Law, but through the righteousness of faith.
- 14 For if those who are of the Law are heirs, faith is made void and the promise is nullified:
- 15 for the Law brings about wrath, but where there is no law, there also is no violation.
- 16 For this reason it is by faith, in order that it may be in accordance with grace, so that the promise will be guaranteed to all the descendants, not only to those who are of the Law, but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all,
- 17 (as it is written, "A father of many nations have I made you") in the presence of Him whom he believed, even God, who gives life to the dead and calls into being that which does not exist.
- 18 In hope against hope he believed, so that he might become a father of many nations according to that which had been spoken, "So SHALL YOUR DESCENDANTS BE."
- 19 Without becoming weak in faith he contemplated his own body, now as good as dead since he was about a hundred years old, and the deadness of Sarah's womb;
- 20 yet, with respect to the promise of God, 4 he did not waver in unbelief but grew strong in faith, giving glory to God,

> 4:3 — "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness."

Paul used the example of Abraham, who lived long before the Mosaic Law, to show that the only way for any person to come into a right relationship with God is by grace through faith.

> 4:20 — With respect to the promise of God, he did not waver in unbelief but grew strong in faith, giving glory to God.

God promised Abraham that he and Sarah would have a son and then made them wait a quarter century to fulfill

His promise—yet Abraham continued to believe (Gen. 12; 21:1–8). His example shows us that trusting God means looking beyond what we can see to what God sees. We may observe obstacles that are impossible to overcome, but the Lord already envisions the day when He receives the glory for satisfying promises that could only be attained by His power.

> 4:21 — Being fully assured that what God had promised, He was able also to perform.

God can and will deliver whatever He has promised to us. Do we believe that? If we do, then it only makes sense to put our complete trust in Him, regardless of how dark our circumstances might appear.

had promised, He was able also to perform. 22 Therefore it was also credited to him as righteousness.

23 Now not for his sake only was it written that it was credited to him,

24 but for our sake also, to whom it will be credited, as those who believe in Him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, 25 He who was delivered over because of our transgressions, and was raised because of our justification.

Results of Justification

> 5 THEREFORE, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 through whom also we have obtained our introduction by faith into this grace in which we stand; and we exult in hope of the glory of God.

> 3 And not only this, but we also exult in our tribulations, knowing that tribulation brings about perseverance;

4 and perseverance, proven character; and proven character, hope;

5 and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out within our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

6 For while we were still helpless, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly.

7 For one will hardly die for a righteous man; though perhaps for the good man someone would dare even to die.

▶ 8 But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from the wrath of God through Him.

* 10 For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life.

11 And not only this, but we also exult in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.

12 Therefore, just as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin, and so death spread to all men, because all sinned—

13 for until the Law sin was in the world, but sin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those who had not sinned in the likeness of the offense of Adam, who is a atype of Him who was to come.

15 But the free gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God and the gift by the grace of the one Man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many.

16 The gift is not like that which came through the one who sinned; for on the one hand the judgment arose from one transgression resulting in condemnation, but on the other hand the free gift arose from many transgressions resulting in justification.

17 For if by the transgression of the one, death reigned through the one, much more those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness will reign in life through the One, Jesus Christ.

18 So then as through one transgression there resulted condemnation to all men, even so through one act of righteousness there resulted justification of life to all men.

19 For as through the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the One the many will be made righteous.

20 The Law came in so that the transgression would increase; but where sin increased, grace abounded all the more,

21 so that, as sin reigned in death, even so grace would reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 5:1 — Having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Peace with God is the fruit of oneness with Him. Before we trust Christ as our Savior, we are His enemies—hostile to Him because of our sin (Col. 1:21, 22). Yet on the Cross, Jesus justified us, which means He declared us not guilty of our transgressions. He clothes us in His righteousness and liberates us to have a deep, intimate relationship with Him. The enmity we had with God is abolished (Eph. 2:13–16), and we can have peace and unity with the Lord. We move from darkness to light, from enemies to beloved children, and from death to life.

> 5:3, 4 — We also exult in our tribulations, knowing that tribulation brings about perseverance; and perseverance, proven character; and proven character, hope.

Grials, difficulties, and adversities are often God's way of developing a Christ-like character in us. No one likes trials, but the Lord can use them for our good, if we will trust Him.

> 5:8 — God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

Knowing that we could do nothing for ourselves, the Lord Jesus Christ died on the Cross to declare us no longer guilty of our sin. He chose to forgive us and save us from the penalty of our transgressions (Rom. 6:23). Jesus did not die only for nice or good people. He gave His sinless life for everyone. And He did this because of His amazing love for us.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT THE GRACE IN WHICH WE STAND

Rom. 5:1-5

hen we think of grace, we think of God's unmerited favor, and rightly so. The Lord forgives us out of His unconditional love; therefore, we cannot earn our salvation, nor can we do anything to lose it. It is His gift to us, given in love.

Unfortunately, there are some who fall for the lie that God's grace stops doing its work in us after we receive Jesus as our Savior. They needlessly forfeit the peace that He has provided them because they don't realize that God's grace is founded in love that is secure—not unpredictable or temporary. Rather, the selfless mercy He continually shows us is the same love He displayed at Calvary.

In Romans 5:1, 2, the apostle Paul explains, "We have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom also we have obtained our introduction by faith into this grace in which we stand; and we exult in hope of the glory of God."

We stand securely in God's love because of Christ—not by our own merit. However, where many people become confused is because of the troubles they endure. They believe that they must have somehow fallen from God's favor because of the pain they face. Yet Paul demonstrates that the Lord even uses the heartaches for our good.

Paul wrote, "We also exult in our tribulations, knowing that tribulation brings about perseverance; and perseverance, proven character; and proven character, hope; and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out within our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us" (Rom. 5:3–5).

Understand that problems will come into your life. However, they're no reason to believe that the Lord has stopped loving you or that you've somehow lost His grace. Just the opposite is true—God has allowed this suffering so that you will learn to persevere, so you'll develop His character, and so you'll have hope. Because of His great love for you, He wants you to experience His eternal, abundant life more deeply. However, the only way to prepare you for it is through hardship. So, as you can see, even the trials are the outpouring of His grace.

Therefore, instead of doubting God's love because of your troubles, rejoice in them. As 1 Peter 4:12, 13 admonishes, "Do not be surprised by the fiery ordeal among you, which comes upon you for your testing, as though some strange thing were happening to you; but to the degree that you share the sufferings of Christ, keep on rejoicing, so that also at the revelation of His glory you may rejoice with exultation."

Believers Are Dead to Sin, Alive to God WHAT shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin so that grace may increase?

2 May it never be! How shall we who died to sin still live in it?

→ 3 Or do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus have been baptized into His death?

Therefore we have been buried with Him through baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life

5 For if we have become united with Him in the likeness of His death, certainly we shall also be in the likeness of His resurrection,

- ▶ 6 knowing this, that our old self was crucified with Him, in order that our body of sin might be done away with, so that we would no longer be slaves to sin;
 - 7 for he who has died is freed from sin.
 - 8 Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him,
 - 9 knowing that Christ, having been raised from the dead, is never to die again; death no longer is master over Him.
 - 10 For the death that He died, He died to sin once for all; but the life that He lives, He lives to God.
- ➤ 11 Even so consider yourselves to be dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus.
 - 12 Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its lusts,
 - 13 and do not go on presenting the members of your body to sin as instruments of unrighteousness; but present yourselves to God as those alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God.

14 For sin shall not be master over you, for you are not under law but under grace.

15 What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? May it never be! 16 Do you not know that when you present yourselves to someone as slaves for obedience, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin resulting in death, or of obedience resulting in righteousness?

17 But thanks be to God that though you were slaves of sin, you became obedient from the heart to that form of teaching to which you were committed,

18 and having been freed from sin, you became slaves of righteousness.

19 I am speaking in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness, resulting in further lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness, resulting in sanctification.

20 For when you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness.

21 Therefore what benefit were you then deriving from the things of which you are now ashamed? For the outcome of those things is death.

> 6:2 — How shall we who died to sin still live in it?

Paul could not imagine why anyone who genuinely loves Christ would want to continue committing the sins that cost Jesus His life. How could any real believer glory in what God abhors?

> 6:3 — Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus have been baptized into His death?

Paptism is an act of obedience on our part after we have accepted Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior. You may wonder, "Can I be saved without baptism?" Yes you can because you are not saved by baptism. You are saved by the grace of God. We are baptized because of what it represents—that we love Jesus Christ, who saved us, and we want to submit our lives to Him in obedience.

> 6:4 — We have been buried with Him through baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

Immersion is the only means of baptism that demonstrates the new life perfectly. Having acknowledged that Jesus Christ is our Savior, we confess our sins and die to our old lives, we are buried with Him in baptism, and we are raised with Him to walk in the new lives He's given us. It is a public testimony that beautifully demonstrates what has happened in our lives as a result of being born again.

> 6:6 — Our old self was crucified with Him, in order that our body of sin might be done away with, so that we would no longer be slaves to sin.

Before we came to Christ, sin had a choke hold on our lives, and we could do nothing but serve it as its obedient slaves. Through the death and resurrection of Christ, however, we received a new nature and the power to live for God.

> 6:11 — Consider yourselves to be dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Of we have died to sin by accepting Jesus as our Lord and Savior, we will have the resurrected life of Christ within us. Neither sin nor death will ever be our master again. Death has been defeated because He gives us life without end with Him in heaven. Until we reach our new heavenly home, we are to draw on the power of the Spirit to put to death the sin that still wants to express itself, and obey God for His glory.

> 6:23 — The wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Our sin has earned us death. Either you pay it and forfeit your life, or Jesus pays it and gives you eternal life (Matt. 16:25, 26)—you make the choice. All of our good

Believers United to Christ

7OR do you not know, brethren (for I am speaking to those who know the law), that the law has jurisdiction over a person as long as he lives?

- 2 For the married woman is bound by law to her husband while he is living; but if her husband dies, she is released from the law concerning the husband.
- 3 So then, if while her husband is living she is joined to another man, she shall be called an adulteress; but if her husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is not an adulteress though she is joined to another man.
- 4 Therefore, my brethren, you also were made to die to the Law through the body of Christ, so that you might be joined to another, to Him who was raised from the dead, in order that we might bear fruit for God.
- 5 For while we were in the flesh, the sinful passions, which were aroused by the Law, were at work in the members of our body to bear fruit for death.
- 6 But now we have been released from the Law, having died to that by which we were bound, so that we serve in newness of the aSpirit and not in oldness of the letter.
- May it never be! On the contrary, I would not have come to know sin except through the Law; for I would not have known about coveting if the Law had not said, "You shall not covet."
 - 8 But sin, taking opportunity through the commandment, produced in me coveting of every kind; for apart from the Law sin is dead.
 - 9 I was once alive apart from the Law; but when the commandment came, sin became alive and I died:
 - 10 and this commandment, which was to result in life, proved to result in death for me;
 - 11 for sin, taking an opportunity through the commandment, deceived me and through it killed me.

12 So then, the Law is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good.

13 Therefore did that which is good become a cause of death for me? May it never be! Rather it was sin, in order that it might be shown to be sin by effecting my death through that which is good, so that through the commandment sin would become utterly sinful.

The Conflict of Two Natures

- 14 For we know that the Law is spiritual, but I am of flesh, sold into bondage to sin.
- 15 For what I am doing, I do not understand; ← for I am not practicing what I would like to do, but I am doing the very thing I hate.
- 16 But if I do the very thing I do not want to do, I agree with the Law, confessing that the Law is good.
- 17 So now, no longer am I the one doing it, but sin which dwells in me.
- 18 For I know that nothing good dwells in ← me, that is, in my flesh; for the willing is present in me, but the doing of the good is not.
- 19 For the good that I want, I do not do, but I practice the very evil that I do not want.
- 20 But if I am doing the very thing I do not want, I am no longer the one doing it, but sin which dwells in me.
- 21 I find then the principle that evil is present in me, the one who wants to do good.
- 22 For I joyfully concur with the law of God in the inner man,
- 23 but I see a different law in the members of my body, waging war against the law of my mind and making me a prisoner of the law of sin which is in my members.
- 24 Wretched man that I am! Who will set me free from the body of this death?

works cannot earn us a place in heaven. Our only hope is to receive the free gift that Jesus Christ has purchased for us on the Cross (John 3:16–18).

> 7:7 — I would not have come to know sin except through the Law.

Without the Law, we would not know what sin is, and God drew attention to our transgressions so we would understand our need for the grace and forgiveness of the Lord Jesus, our Savior.

> 7:12 — The Law is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good.

The Word of God reveals His character to us—His holiness, righteousness, justice, goodness, kindness, and more. As a reflection of Him, the Word both celebrates His perfect nature and reveals to us our faults so that we can understand our need for His grace.

> 7:15 — What I am doing, I do not understand; for I am not practicing what I would like to do, but I am doing the very thing I hate.

Il of us can relate to the fierce internal struggle that Paul describes. We find ourselves succumbing to sin, even though we want to honor God. Until we stand in Jesus' presence, we will all experience this battle. The only way to win is by dying to ourselves so that Christ can live through us and by submitting to the Spirit's overcoming wisdom and power.

> 7:18 — I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh; for the willing is present in me, but the doing of the good is not.

Pe simply do not have the power by ourselves to do what pleases God. Even the "good things" we do in our own strength make us prideful and dishonoring to God (ls. 64:6).

What does it mean to do spiritual battle?

ROM. 7:15-25

The conflict within you between the flesh and the Spirit is a form of spiritual warfare, and you win much of the battle just by realizing that the struggle exists.

Sin is still a powerful force, but it can no longer control you unless you allow it to do so. You are not doomed to failure, and to believe otherwise is to remain in needless, painful bondage. That breaks the heart of the Lord and grieves the Spirit (Eph. 4:30).

The truth is, you cannot wander too far, fail too many times, or exceed Christ's forgiveness. When you repent and turn to Him, He restores you to fellowship as though nothing had ever happened.

Peter denied Jesus three times, despite his boasts to remain faithful; yet the Lord forgave him and made him a powerful leader in the early church. Peter had learned his lesson well. Though he surely experienced other failures and setbacks, he knew that his Savior remained forever at his side, ready to forgive.

25 Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, on the one hand I myself with my mind am serving the law of God, but on the other, with my flesh the law of sin.

Deliverance from Bondage

- THEREFORE there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.
 - 2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death.
 - 3 For what the Law could not do, weak as it was through the flesh, God did: sending His Notice what an older and wiser Peter had to say about God's grace: "His divine power has granted to us everything pertaining to life and godliness, through the true knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and excellence. For by these He has granted to us His precious and magnificent promises, so that by them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world by lust" (2 Pet. 1:3, 4).

You are on an ever-upward climb to holiness, set apart for God's purposes. As you learn to say no to the power of sin and to rest in His grace, you are made free to obey with renewed vigor and understanding. It is imperative to grasp that obedience is always a choice; you decide whether you will yield to God and so become more like Christ.

You have a great potential to live free and holy through Jesus Christ, but God will never force you to do what He desires. Yet He longs for you to turn to Him in every spiritual conflict, acknowledge your weakness, and ask for His power to say no.

Are you tired of fighting a losing battle? Do you secretly feel like a failure? It's not true! And the sooner you learn to rejoice and grow in the reality of your identity in Him, the sooner you will experience the thrill of victory.

> 8:1 — There is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

Have you ever been plagued by guilt for sins that have been forgiven? This is a ploy of the enemy to discourage you from obeying the Lord and enjoying the abundant life He has for you. This is why you must always remember that as a believer, your sin is completely forgiven (Ps. 103:12). The only One who has a right to judge you is Jesus Christ, who has given His life to justify you (Rom. 5:1, 2; 8:33, 34). He will not condemn you when you believe (John 3:16–18).

toward God; for it does not subject itself to the law of God, for it is not even able to do so,

8 and those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

- 9 However, you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Him.
 - 10 If Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, yet the spirit is alive because of righteousness.
 - 11 But if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, He who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies athrough His Spirit who dwells in you.
 - 12 So then, brethren, we are under obligation, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh—
- ➤ 13 for if you are living according to the flesh, you must die; but if by the Spirit you are putting to death the deeds of the body, you will live.
 - 14 For all who are being led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God.
 - 15 For you have not received a spirit of slavery leading to fear again, but you have received a spirit of adoption as sons by which we cry out, "Abba! Father!"

> 8:9 — If anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Him.

Then you accept Jesus as your Savior, the Holy Spirit comes to live in you. He is the evidence of your redemption (Eph. 4:30). Therefore, salvation is not merely something you believe. Through it, you receive the very life of God. In your own flesh, you cannot please the Lord, but He has given you His Spirit so that you can relate to Him and bring Him glory, honor, and praise.

> 8:13 — If you are living according to the flesh, you must die; but if by the Spirit you are putting to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

Jesus never intended for us to live the Christian life in our own strength. Rather, He gives us His life through His Spirit. God's grace does not change the nature of our sin—it always leads to death. Instead, His grace enables us to rely on the power of His Spirit to put to death our sinful urges and desires.

> 8:18 — I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that is to be revealed to us.

As children of the sovereign God, we are never victims of our circumstances. Although we may go through rough times, we can be confident that the Lord has a purpose in them and will show His glory through them. That doesn't mean we pretend we don't really hurt. But instead we declare, "God's blessings are worth the sacrifice and obedience." We cling in hope to the Lord and eagerly expect the rewards that accompany our faith.

> 8:26, 27 — The Spirit also helps our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we should, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words . . . He intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

Then we do not know how to pray, the Holy Spirit teaches us to communicate in a whole new way. He not only soothes our hearts as we lay our burdens at the throne of grace, but also empowers us to become everything we were created to be (Heb. 4:16; Phil. 4:6, 7). He hears our inner cries, guides us by applying Scripture to our lives, and instructs us perfectly about how to do His will.

> 8:28 — We know that God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S OUESTIONS

What does it mean to be conformed to the truth?

ROM. 8:29

Laul wrote that the Lord has predestined us "to become conformed to the image of His Son" (Rom. 8:29)—but just how is God going to accomplish such a job?

Answer: by revealing the truth of His likeness.

As the truth confronts us, we can do one of two things: either we can refuse to be pushed into God's mold, or we can yield to Him and be fashioned into His likeness.

I once preached a series of sermons, "How the Truth Can Set You Free." Week after week, people would say to me, "I want to tell you how the Lord has set me free. Last week's message changed my life." After they walked away, I would often think, God, what about me? I'm the one who told them. I knew I was not living as free as God wanted me to. After months of seeing other lives changed, God finally changed my own life in a remarkable way.

I learned that I had to listen in order to comprehend and to comprehend in order to be God, to those who are called according to ${\it His}$ purpose.

≥ 29 For those whom He foreknew, He also predestined to become conformed to the image of His Son, so that He would be the firstborn among many brethren;

30 and these whom He predestined, He also called; and these whom He called, He also conformed to His truth. God never speaks in order to entertain us; He speaks that we may be made like Jesus. James says, "If anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks at his natural face in a mirror; for once he has looked at himself and gone away, he has immediately forgotten what kind of person he was" (1:23, 24). Obedience must accompany understanding. We are either in the process of resisting God's truth or in the process of being shaped by His truth.

After spending several years with Paul, Timothy, the apostle's protégé, began shepherding the work of the gospel in Ephesus and Asia Minor. As he labored there, Paul wrote to him saying, "Let no one look down on your youthfulness, but rather in speech, conduct, love, faith and purity, show yourself an example of those who believe" (1 Tim. 4:12).

In the Second Epistle to Timothy, Paul penned these words: "For I am mindful of the sincere faith within you, which first dwelt in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am sure that it is in you as well" (1:5).

Timothy didn't just know the truth—he allowed its power to transform him in such a way that his life became a constant example of godliness. How? Through the unfolding ministry of God's Word.

dren. Though not all things we experience are in themselves pleasant or helpful—some of them are very painful—we are promised that God uses everything for our benefit. Therefore, we must have faith that He will turn our failures and hardships into opportunities for spiritual growth.

8:29 — Those whom He foreknew, He also predestined to become conformed to the image of His Son.

The are indwelt by the Holy Spirit, who conforms us to the image of Christ—not to His appearance, but to His character. Becoming more like Jesus is God's will for every believer. It is the continuous process known as sanctification, and anything that interferes with it must be removed from our lives immediately. Over time, the temptations that enticed us become powerless over us, and the fruit of the Spirit is seen in us in increasing measure (Gal. 5:22, 23). We are conformed to His image, and the world is drawn to Him through our witness.

> 8:31 — If God is for us, who is against us?

Ithough people may be against us—causing us trouble, pain, and sorrow—nothing can ultimately triumph over us when we are believers. God wins and we are quaranteed to share in His victory.

- 33 Who will bring a charge against God's elect? God is the one who justifies;
- 34 who is the one who condemns? Christ Jesus is He who died, yes, rather who was araised, who is at the right hand of God, who also intercedes for us.
- 35 Who will separate us from the love of bChrist? Will tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 Just as it is written,

"For Your sake we are being put to DEATH ALL DAY LONG;

We were considered as sheep to be SLAUGHTERED."

- 37 But in all these things we overwhelmingly conquer through Him who loved us.
- 38 For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers,
- ≥ 39 nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Solicitude for Israel

- 9I AM telling the truth in Christ, I am not lying, my conscience testifies with me in the Holy Spirit,

 - whose are the fathers, and from whom is the Christ according to the flesh, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.
 - But it is not as though the word of God has failed. For they are not all Israel who are descended from Israel;

- nor are they all children because they are Abraham's descendants, but: "THROUGH ISAAC YOUR DESCENDANTS WILL BE NAMED.
- That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are children of God, but the children of the promise are regarded as descendants.
- For this is the word of promise: "At this TIME I WILL COME, AND SARAH SHALL HAVE A SON." 10 And not only this, but there was Rebekah also, when she had conceived twins by one man, our father Isaac;

- 11 for though the twins were not yet born and had not done anything good or bad, so that God's purpose according to His choice would stand, not because of works but because of Him who calls,
- 12 it was said to her, "The older will serve THE YOUNGER."
- 13 Just as it is written, "JACOB I LOVED, BUT ESAU I HATED.'
- 14 What shall we say then? There is no injustice with God, is there? May it never be!
- 15 For He says to Moses, "I will have mercy ◀ ON WHOM I HAVE MERCY, AND I WILL HAVE COM-PASSION ON WHOM I HAVE COMPASSION."
- 16 So then it does not depend on the man who wills or the man who runs, but on God who has mercy.
- 17 For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "For THIS VERY PURPOSE I RAISED YOU UP, TO DEMON-STRATE MY POWER IN YOU, AND THAT MY NAME MIGHT BE PROCLAIMED THROUGHOUT THE WHOLE EARTH."
- 18 So then He has mercy on whom He desires, and He hardens whom He desires.

> 8:39 — Nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Human love is often fragile and easily upset. Any number of troubles can impede it. But God's love is unconditional, and once we accept His love through faith in Jesus, absolutely nothing can ever break our bond to Him (John 10:29).

> 9:3 — I could wish that I myself were accursed, separated from Christ for the sake of my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh.

espite his frequent ill-treatment at the hands of his Jewish countrymen, Paul had an intense desire that they come to faith in Christ and so realize that every hope and promise they had ever yearned for was fulfilled in Him. 22 What if God, although willing to demonstrate His wrath and to make His power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath prepared for destruction?

23 And He did so to make known the riches of His glory upon vessels of mercy, which He prepared beforehand for glory, 24 even us, whom He also called, not from among Jews only, but also from among Gentiles.

25 As He says also in Hosea,

"I WILL CALL THOSE WHO WERE NOT MY PEOPLE, 'MY PEOPLE,'

And her who was not beloved, 'BELOVED.'"

26 "And it shall be that in the place where it was said to them, 'you are not My people,'

There they shall be called sons of the Living God."

➤ 27 Isaiah cries out concerning Israel, "Though the number of the sons of Israel be LIKE THE SAND OF THE SEA, IT IS THE REMNANT THAT WILL BE SAVED;

28 FOR THE LORD WILL EXECUTE HIS WORD ON THE EARTH, THOROUGHLY AND QUICKLY."

29 And just as Isaiah foretold,

"Unless the Lord of Sabaoth had left to us a posterity,

We would have become like Sodom, and would have resembled Gomorrah."

30 What shall we say then? That Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, attained righteousness, even the righteousness which is by faith;

31 but Israel, pursuing a law of righteousness, did not arrive at that law.

32 Why? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as though it were by works. They stumbled over the stumbling stone,

33 just as it is written,

BEHOLD, I LAY IN ZION A STONE OF STUMBLING AND A ROCK OF OFFENSE, AND HE WHO BELIEVES IN HIM WILL NOT BE DISAPPOINTED."

The Word of Faith Brings Salvation

OBRETHREN, my heart's desire and my prayer to God for them is for their salvation.

2 For I testify about them that they have a zeal for God, but not in accordance with knowledge.

3 For not knowing about God's righteousness and seeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God.

4 For Christ is the end of the law for right-eousness to everyone who believes.

5 For Moses writes that the man who practices the righteousness which is based on law shall live by that righteousness.

6 But the righteousness based on faith speaks as follows: "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?' (that is, to bring Christ down),

7 or 'Who will descend into the abyss?' (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead)."

8 But what does it say? "The word is NEAR YOU, IN YOUR MOUTH AND IN YOUR HEART"—that is, the word of faith which we are preaching,

9 that if you confess with your mouth Jesus as Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved; 10 for with the heart a person believes, re-or with the heart a person believes, resulting in righteousness, and with the mouth he confesses, resulting in salvation.

transform us into the people He created us to be. The process is painful, because when we are humbly broken is when He can use us most powerfully. And just as artists dip their hands in water to reduce the friction on the clay, God handles us with His love, so we must trust Him to shape us as He sees best.

> 9:27 — "Though the number of the sons of Israel be like the sand of the sea, it is the remnant that will be saved."

The idea of the remnant appears throughout Scripture (2 Kin. 19:30, 31; Ezra 9:8; Is. 10:20, etc.). Many Jews like Paul were accepting Christ and being saved. However, in His grace and to honor His covenants with Abraham (Gen. 12:1–3) and David (2 Sam. 7:8–16), God also promised to preserve the nation of Israel until the day He redeems them (Ezek. 37:21–28).

> 10:4 — Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes.

The goal of the law was always to point us to the Savior (Rom. 7:7), which is why Jesus Christ is the fulfillment of the law. He is our righteousness—there is no holiness apart from Him. He completely obeyed the whole law, without exception and without fault, and His perfect, sinless record becomes ours through faith.

> 10:9 — If you confess with your mouth Jesus as Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.

Salvation can only come through faith in Jesus Christ. You confess it with your mouth to put your faith into action and to affirm that you are accountable to Jesus Christ, who is now your Lord. You also believe in your heart that He has triumphed over death. This means He not only has the ability to save you, but He has the authority to lead you and the wisdom to transform you.

and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, abounding in riches for all who call on Him;

≥ 13 for "Whoever will call on the name of the Lord will be saved."

14 How then will they call on Him in whom they have not believed? How will they believe in Him whom they have not heard? And how will they hear without a preacher?

15 How will they preach unless they are sent? Just as it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news of good things!"

16 However, they did not all heed the good news; for Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our report?"

▶ 17 So faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ.

18 But I say, surely they have never heard, have they? Indeed they have;

"THEIR VOICE HAS GONE OUT INTO ALL THE EARTH, AND THEIR WORDS TO THE ENDS OF THE WORLD."

19 But I say, surely Israel did not know, did they? First Moses says,

"I WILL MAKE YOU JEALOUS BY THAT WHICH IS NOT A NATION,

By a nation without understanding will I anger you."

20 And Isaiah is very bold and says,

"I was found by those who did not seek Me,

I became manifest to those who did not ask for Me."

21 But as for Israel He says, "All the day long I have stretched out My hands to a disobedient and obstinate people."

Israel Is Not Cast Away

1 I SAY then, God has not rejected His people, has He? May it never be! For I too am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God has not rejected His people whom He foreknew. Or do you not know what the Scripture says in the passage about Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel?

 $3\,$ "Lord, they have killed Your prophets, they have torn down Your altars, and I alone am left, and they are seeking my life."

4 But what is the divine response to him? "I have kept for Myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal."

5 In the same way then, there has also come to be at the present time a remnant according to God's gracious choice.

6 But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works, otherwise grace is no longer grace.

7 What then? What Israel is seeking, it has not obtained, but those who were chosen obtained it, and the rest were hardened:

8 just as it is written,

"God gave them a spirit of stupor, Eyes to see not and ears to hear not, Down to this very day."

9 And David says,

"LET THEIR TABLE BECOME A SNARE AND A TRAP,

AND A STUMBLING BLOCK AND A RETRIBUTION TO THEM.

10 "Let their eyes be darkened to see not, And bend their backs forever."

11 I say then, they did not stumble so as to fall, did they? May it never be! But by their transgression salvation has come to the Gentiles, to make them jealous.

12 Now if their transgression is riches for the world and their failure is riches for the Gentiles, how much more will their fulfillment be!

13 But I am speaking to you who are Gentiles. Inasmuch then as I am an apostle of Gentiles, I magnify my ministry, 14 if somehow I might move to jealousy my fellow countrymen and save some of them.

15 For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?

16 If the first piece of dough is holy, the lump is also; and if the root is holy, the branches are too.

17 But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive, were grafted in among them and became partaker with them of the rich root of the olive tree, 18 do not be arrogant toward the branches; ≺ but if you are arrogant, remember that it is not you who supports the root, but the root supports you.

esus is our ultimate, final, and complete sacrifice, and salvation is open to every person, regardless of who they are or what they have done. That is why the promise is whoever puts his faith in Christ will be saved and will receive eternal life. It is absolutely guaranteed to any person who receives His grace—He will never reject them.

> 10:17 — Faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ.

Listening to God is essential to walking with Him. The Lord blesses us when we hear His promises and respond to them in faith.

> 11:18 — If you are arrogant, remember that it is not you who supports the root, but the root supports you.

Paul instructed the Gentiles to remember that they were being grafted in to the covenants that God had given to Abraham, David, and the nation of Israel by His mercy. Likewise, we must always remember that our faith has a context and history. We cannot be true students of the New Testament without also embracing the Old Testament.

19 You will say then, "Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in."

20 Quite right, they were broken off for their unbelief, but you stand by your faith. Do not be conceited, but fear;

21 for if God did not spare the natural branches, He will not spare you, either.

22 Behold then the kindness and severity of God; to those who fell, severity, but to you, God's kindness, if you continue in His kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off.

23 And they also, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again.

24 For if you were cut off from what is by nature a wild olive tree, and were grafted contrary to nature into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these who are the natural branches be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For I do not want you, brethren, to be uninformed of this mystery—so that you will not be wise in your own estimation—that a partial hardening has happened to Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in:

*26 and so all Israel will be saved; just as it is written,

"THE DELIVERER WILL COME FROM ZION, HE WILL REMOVE UNGODLINESS FROM JACOB."

27 "This is My covenant with them, When I take away their sins."

28 From the standpoint of the gospel they are enemies for your sake, but from the standpoint of God's choice they are beloved for the sake of the fathers;

29 for the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable.

30 For just as you once were disobedient to God, but now have been shown mercy because of their disobedience, 31 so these also now have been disobedient, that because of the mercy shown to you they also may now be shown mercy.

32 For God has shut up all in disobedience so that He may show mercy to all.

33 Oh, the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments and unfathomable His ways!

34 For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who became His counselor?

35 Or who has first given to Him that it might be paid back to him again?

36 For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things. To Him be the glory forever. Amen.

Dedicated Service

> 12:1 — Present your bodies a living and holy sacrifice, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service of worship. Many people accept Jesus Christ as their Savior and never learn how to live a life that honors Him. But Paul encourages us to turn ourselves over to God each day, lay our wills on the altar before Him, and ask Him to use us for His glory and the good of His people. In full trust and worship, we commit to obeying Him, knowing that the Lord knows how best to lead us—no matter what happens.

> 12:2 — Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect.

Transformation begins with our thinking and with consciences that are committed to listening to and obeying God. Our minds are renewed as we study His Word, and our hearts are changed as we submit to Him. We do not merely try hard to sin less. We learn to depend upon Him, observe His commands, and trust Him to mold us into people who please Him. It is then we discover how awesome it is to live in the center of His will because it is life at its very best—and there is nothing in this world that compares to it.

Be Subject to Government

- 13 EVERY person is to be in subjection to 4 the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those which exist are established by God.

> 12:5 — We . . . are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another.

God is never pleased when someone says, "I love Jesus, but I don't need the church." No Christian has ever been called to "go it alone" in his or her walk of faith. We need one another and should serve and support each other with love and gladness.

> 12:15 — Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep.

Oth rejoicing and weeping imply genuine, heartfelt emotion. This kind of keenly felt connection happens only when we choose to invest ourselves deeply in the lives of other believers.

> 12:21 — Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

 \mathcal{W} hen someone wrongs us and we retaliate, we position ourselves on the same level with the person who acted against us. We do not have a right to avenge ourselves—that is God's duty (Rom. 12:19). Instead, our goal is to be like Christ, who as they were crucifying Him said, "Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing" (Luke 23:34). In that way, the Lord is glorified and those who see our example may turn to Him and be saved (Luke 23:40, 47; 2 Tim. 2:24–26; 1 Pet. 2:12; 3:15, 16).

> 13:1 — Every person is to be in subjection to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those which exist are established by God.

The Lord is the One who ultimately places people in authority over us—whether that be in our work or country (Dan. 2:21). Our responsibility is to honor God first and foremost (Acts 5:27–29), abide by the laws and rules required of us (Matt. 22:21; 1 Pet. 3:13–15), and pray our leaders understand that they are accountable to God (1 Tim. 2:1–3).

- ➤ 14 But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh in regard to its lusts.

Principles of Conscience

- 14 NOW accept the one who is weak in faith, but not for the purpose of passing judgment on his opinions.
- 2 One person has faith that he may eat all things, but he who is weak eats vegetables only.
- 3 The one who eats is not to regard with contempt the one who does not eat, and the one who does not eat is not to judge the one who eats, for God has accepted him.
- 4 Who are you to judge the servant of another? To his own master he stands or falls; and he will stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

- 6 He who observes the day, observes it for the Lord, and he who eats, does so for the Lord, for he gives thanks to God; and he who eats not, for the Lord he does not eat, and gives thanks to God.
- 7 For not one of us lives for himself, and not one dies for himself;
- 8 for if we live, we live for the Lord, or if we die, we die for the Lord; therefore whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.
- 9 For to this end Christ died and lived again, that He might be Lord both of the dead and of the living.
- 10 But you, why do you judge your brother? Or you again, why do you regard your brother with contempt? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God.
- 11 For it is written,

> 13:10 — Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.

Od is love, and the law reflects His character. Therefore, love is the fulfillment of the law. Obedience is never about slavishly following rules, but always about eagerly pleasing our loving Lord.

> 13:14 — Put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh in regard to its lusts.

When we know we should avoid a certain place, but we go there anyway, it is sin. When we recognize that a particular activity is a temptation for us, but still participate in it, we are dishonoring the Lord. We are to pursue God's will for our lives, which leaves us no room for the sinful habits that once held us in bondage. We will either commit ourselves wholeheartedly to the Lord Jesus or we will continue to be preoccupied with our lust. We cannot do both because they are absolutely incompatible with one another (Rev. 3:15, 16).

> 14:5 — One person regards one day above another, another regards every day alike. Each person must be fully convinced in his own mind.

Certain situations and issues that make absolutely no difference to one person can make the next person stumble badly. God wants us to learn how to live by faith, which means He wants us to develop personal convictions based on our ongoing relationships with Him. We honor God when we help our brothers and sisters in Christ to grow in their faith. We also must make an effort to do everything in love so that we won't be bound and entrapped by legalism.

> 14:8 — If we live, we live for the Lord, or if we die, we die for the Lord; therefore whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.

everything we do should reflect well on and be in submission to the Savior who bought us with His own blood. Even the way we die should witness to the goodness of Jesus Christ. Every moment of every day we belong to Him.

> 14:12 — Each one of us will give an account of himself to God.

Ome people reject God because they want to pursue their own plans. They believe they know what's best for their lives and are angered by anyone who tells them anything different—even the Lord. Yet the truth is that every person will one day stand before God in judgment, so it is foolish to rebel against Him. Every aspect of our lives must be under God's authority, because one day we will answer to Him about how we have lived. Our greatest desire should be to please Him (2 Cor. 5:10).

him who thinks anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

- 15 For if because of food your brother is hurt, you are no longer walking according to love. Do not destroy with your food him for whom Christ died.
- 16 Therefore do not let what is for you a good thing be spoken of as evil;
- 17 for the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.
- 18 For he who in this way serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men.
- 19 So then awe pursue the things which make for peace and the building up of one another.
- 20 Do not tear down the work of God for the sake of food. All things indeed are clean, but they are evil for the man who eats and gives offense.
- 21 It is good not to eat meat or to drink wine, or to do anything by which your brother stumbles.
- 22 The faith which you have, have as your own conviction before God. Happy is he who does not condemn himself in what he approves.
- 23 But he who doubts is condemned if he eats, because his eating is not from faith; and whatever is not from faith is sin.

Self-denial on Behalf of Others

- 15 NOW we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of those without strength and not just please ourselves.
- 2 Each of us is to please his neighbor for his good, to his edification.
 - 3 For even Christ did not please Himself; but as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached You fell on Me."
- ▶ 4 For whatever was written in earlier times was written for our instruction, so that through perseverance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.
 - 5 Now may the God who gives perseverance and encouragement grant you to be of the same mind with one another according to Christ Jesus,

- 6 so that with one accord you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 7 Therefore, accept one another, just as Christ also accepted us to the glory of God.
- 8 For I say that Christ has become a servant to the circumcision on behalf of the truth of God to confirm the promises given to the fathers,
- 9 and for the Gentiles to glorify God for His mercy; as it is written,
 - "THEREFORE I WILL GIVE PRAISE TO YOU AMONG THE GENTILES,

And I will sing to Your name."

10 Again he says,

"REJOICE, O GENTILES, WITH HIS PEOPLE."

11 And again,

"Praise the Lord all you Gentiles, And let all the peoples praise Him."

12 Again Isaiah says,

"There shall come the root of Jesse, And He who arises to rule over the Gentiles,

IN HIM SHALL THE GENTILES HOPE."

- 13 Now may the God of hope fill you with all igo and peace in believing, so that you will abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.
- 14 And concerning you, my brethren, I myself also am convinced that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge and able also to admonish one another.
- 15 But I have written very boldly to you on some points so as to remind you again, because of the grace that was given me from God

> 15:2 — Each of us is to please his neighbor for his good, to his edification.

If we are serious about our Christian faith, we must take into consideration how our actions affect others. We cannot mature in our relationship with the Lord in isolation from others, and whenever we interact with others, we should have edifying them and glorifying God as our goal.

> 15:4 — Whatever was written in earlier times was written for our instruction, so that through perseverance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.

Cverything we need to know in regards to salvation, living a godly life, and maintaining our faith in the midst of trials can be found in God's Word. The men and women of Scripture were just like you and me, and their experiences were documented for our encouragement and instruction. So whenever we face adversity we should go to the Lord in prayer and ask Him to teach us through His Word. The Bible is an immovable anchor in times of storm and through it, He can give us the strength and hope to endure.

> 15:13 — May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you will abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

The Christian life is to be characterized by hope, joy, and peace. As we grow in His grace, God wants us to experience each of them in increasing measure. If they're lacking, we know something has gone wrong.

17 Therefore in Christ Jesus I have found reason for boasting in things pertaining to God.

18 For I will not presume to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me, resulting in the obedience of the Gentiles by word and deed, 19 in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of the Spirit; so that from Jerusalem and round about as far as Illyricum I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 And thus I aspired to preach the gospel, not where Christ was already named, so that I would not build on another man's foundation;

21 but as it is written,

"THEY WHO HAD NO NEWS OF HIM SHALL SEE,

AND THEY WHO HAVE NOT HEARD SHALL UNDERSTAND."

22 For this reason I have often been prevented from coming to you;

23 but now, with no further place for me in these regions, and since I have had for many years a longing to come to you

24 whenever I go to Spain—for I hope to see you in passing, and to be helped on my way there by you, when I have first enjoyed your company for a while—

25 but now, I am going to Jerusalem serving the saints.

26 For Macedonia and Achaia have been pleased to make a contribution for the poor among the saints in Jerusalem.

27 Yes, they were pleased to do so, and they are indebted to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in their spiritual things, they are indebted to minister to them also in material things.

28 Therefore, when I have finished this, and have put my seal on this fruit of theirs, I will go on by way of you to Spain.

29 I know that when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of Christ.

≥ 30 Now I urge you, brethren, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in your prayers to God for me,

31 that I may be rescued from those who are disobedient in Judea, and that my service for Jerusalem may prove acceptable to the saints; 32 so that I may come to you in joy by the will of God and find refreshing rest in your company.

33 Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

the world (John 13:35; 15:8–17). When it is missing, we become ineffective (1 Cor. 13:1–3). That is why the enemy will attempt to set believers against each other, because while we are busy arguing within the church, we are failing to show the lost Christ's love (2 Tim. 2:14–26).

> 16:19 — I want you to be wise in what is good and innocent in what is evil.

We are on the wrong track if we are constantly asking, "What's wrong with doing that?" That is a question for immature believers, not growing ones. God wants us to focus on His will for us and growing in the likeness of Christ—not on why He has instructed us to avoid certain activities and attitudes. If we constantly challenge the Lord's commands and question His authority, we reveal that there is a terrible strain of pride within us. The enemy has a foothold, and it will not end well.

> 16:25 — To Him who is able to establish you according to my gospel.

Il Christian growth ultimately comes down to our willing submission to the Lord—the only One who can conform us to His image and mature our faith (1 Cor. 3:7). God saved you and He is also able to teach you to walk with Him in joyful obedience. So trust Him, because He "will Himself perfect, confirm, strengthen and establish you" (1 Pet. 5:10).

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE

orinth, perhaps the most important city in Greece during Paul's day, was a bustling hub of worldwide commerce, degraded culture, and idolatrous religion. Yet in that corrupt metropolis, Paul founded a church (Acts 18:1–17). He also addressed two of his letters "to the church of God which is at Corinth" (1 Cor. 1:2; also 2 Cor. 1:1).

First Corinthians reveals the difficulties, pressures, and struggles of a young church called out of a pagan society. Paul addressed a variety of problems in the lifestyle of the Corinthian church: factions, lawsuits, immorality, questionable practices, and abuse of the Lord's Supper and spiritual gifts. In addition to words of discipline, Paul shared words of counsel in answer to questions raised by the Corinthian believers.

How did Paul learn of these problems? For one thing, he tells us that some members of "Chloe's people" had informed him about the divisiveness that existed in the church (1 Cor. 1:11). A few members of the Corinthian church itself had also visited Paul to deliver a letter asking about several areas of confusion (7:1; 8:1; 12:1; 16:1). Once before, Paul had written to this church to warn its members against immorality (5:9, 10)—a letter no longer available—but he found it necessary to expand his counsel and try to get the church on a more solid, spiritual footing. He also informed them that he planned to visit the church in person in order to straighten out any problems that persisted (4:19, 21; 16:5).

The oldest recorded title of this epistle is Pros Korinthious A—in effect, the "First to the Corinthians." The "A" was added later to distinguish this book from 2 Corinthians.

Theme: How God wants believers in Christ to live in the midst of a corrupt culture.

Author: The apostle Paul.

Time: Paul probably wrote 1 Corinthians toward the end of his three-year stay in Ephesus, circa A.D. 55–56 (1 Cor. 16:5–9; Acts 20:31).

Structure: In the first section (1–11), Paul addresses various problems within the Corinthian church, including sectarianism (1–4), immorality (5), Christians taking one another to secular courts (6), marital questions (7), idolatry (8–10), and the improper administration of the Lord's Supper (11). The second section (12–14) offers instruction on the proper use of spiritual gifts. The final section (15–16) reviews the doctrine of resurrection and includes Paul's parting comments.

As you read 1 Corinthians, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

- 10. If necessary, God will move heaven and earth to show us His will. See 1 Corinthians 2:9–12; page 1330.
- 11. God assumes full responsibility for our needs when we obey Him. See 1 Corinthians 9:17; 12:1; pages 1339; 1342.
- 28. No Christian has ever been called to "go it alone" in his or her walk of faith. See 1 Corinthians 12:7; 13:9; 14:12; pages 1342; 1345.

> 1:2 — To the church of God which is at Corinth, to those who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, saints by calling.

Overy believer in Jesus is sanctified—set apart to God, released from the power of sin, and actively being transformed into His image. Therefore, Christians are called saints—holy members of His family—and should be "zealous for good deeds" (Titus 2:14).

> 1:10 — I exhort you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all agree and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be made complete in the same mind and in the same judgment.

Gesus prayed for the unity of His followers before His arrest and crucifixion, and Paul also made frequent appeals so that believers "may be one" (John 17:11, 22). The joyful unity of Christians is a powerful testimony to the world that the gospel of love we preach is real, unique, powerful, and welcoming to whomever will believe in the Lord.

> 1:18 — The word of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

The people who try to know God on their own apart from what He has revealed through His Word or who attempt to become acceptable to Him on their own terms will only find sorrow and destruction (Prov. 16:25). Every religion in the world except Christianity has rituals through which its members endeavor to earn salvation—they are all based on effort and appeal to human reason and cultural expectations. However, they are all unacceptable and invalid because they glorify people rather than the Lord (Eph. 2:8, 9; Titus 3:5).

> 1:23 — We preach Christ crucified, to Jews a stumbling block and to Gentiles foolishness.

o Jews, Christ was a stumbling block, because they were expecting a conquering King who would restore Israel—not a Savior who would forgive their sins. They could not accept that He was the fulfillment of the law and that they only needed to have faith in Him to be saved (Rom. 9:31–33). The Greeks thought that a man who had died as a lowly criminal could not possibly be God incarnate and the Savior of the world. Jesus bore no resemblance to their pantheon of mythological deities, so to believe in Him seemed foolish to them.

24 but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.

25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For consider your calling, brethren, that there were not many wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble;

6 Yet we do speak wisdom among those who are mature; a wisdom, however, not of this age nor of the rulers of this age, who are passing away;

7 but we speak God's wisdom in a mystery, the hidden wisdom which God predestined before the ages to our glory;

8 the wisdom which none of the rulers of this age has understood; for if they had understood it they would not have crucified the Lord of glory;

LIFE LESSONS-

> 1:27 — God has chosen the foolish things of the world to shame the wise, and God has chosen the weak things of the world to shame the things which are strong.

The Lord loves to use weak, despised, and seemingly inconsequential things, people, and events to demonstrate His majesty, so "that the surpassing greatness of the power will be of God and not from ourselves" (2 Cor. 4:7).

> 2:2 — I determined to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and Him crucified.

he Corinthians appear to have been fickle people—easily distracted by the latest false philosophy. Although Paul had a great mind and could debate well, he realized that to present the gospel as an intellectual treatise would be to glorify himself—not Christ. He also knew that the Corinthians needed to hear about how the death of Christ could free them from the power of sin—not just listen to another popular speaker. So the apostle preached the simple, life-changing truth of the gospel, knowing that Jesus had promised, "I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to Myself" (John 12:32).

> 2:4, 5 — My message and my preaching were not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, so that your faith would not rest on the wisdom of men, but on the power of God. God has allowed each one of us to have inadequacies and weaknesses so He can shine through us. Although we should organize our thoughts about our faith and be able to explain it effectively to anyone who might ask (1 Pet. 3:15), we must remember that the power of the gospel comes not in our careful explanations but in the mighty resurrection of Christ and His power to draw people to Himself (John 6:44; 12:32).

> 2:9, 10 — "Things which eye has not seen and ear has not heard . . . all that God has prepared for those who love Him." For to us God revealed them through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches all things, even the depths of God.

Pe have no idea all that God wants to do in and through us. In our limited understanding, we have yet to imagine what is possible for us—the intimacy with the Lord, power, freedom, spiritual blessings, and peace that belong to us when we become His children (Eph. 1). But God—who is perfect in His knowledge and wisdom—does. And His Holy Spirit, who indwells us from the moment of our salvation, reveals the depths of His purpose and plan to us through His Word when we seek Him.

> 2:12 — We have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, so that we may know the things freely given to us by God.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

How can I rightly comprehend God's truth?

1 COR. 2:9, 10

Whenever God speaks to us, His first goal is that we may comprehend the truth. He desires that we fully understand His meaning.

God has given His Holy Spirit to each one of us. As believers, we can have a personal relationship with the Father because the Spirit lives within us. He knows the mind of God perfectly (1 Cor. 2:10), and He communicates to our spirits the truth God wants us to hear. He wants us to grow in three primary areas:

- The truth about Himself. God wants us to grasp His majesty, His holiness, His power, His love, His grace, and His joy. When we begin to comprehend these mighty truths about the person of God, we find our lives enriched, enabled, and energized. Paul wrote that his ultimate aim in life was to know Christ (Phil. 3:10).
- 2 The truth about ourselves. God wants us to realize our part in His eternal plan. But most of all, He wants us to know our position in Christ. Since we are one with that we may know the things freely given to us by God,

13 which things we also speak, not in words taught by human wisdom, but in those taught by the Spirit, combining spiritual thoughts with spiritual words.

▶ 14 But a natural man does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are

Him, all of His divine privileges become ours. His righteousness is ours because He abides in us. We can appropriate His wisdom and sanctification because we belong to Him. Our names are written in the Lamb's Book of Life, and this ensures our eternal status as God's children.

8 The truth about other people. God wants us to view people as His chosen instruments and His creations. Some years ago, God began sifting me, sanding me, and pruning me, until I thought nothing would be left. A friend walked with me through this deep valley. Sometimes, my words may have seemed harsh, but he never reacted. He would just say, "I understand. What can I do to help?" He never rejected me or showed disappointment; he never angrily admonished me. When I poured out my feelings to him, he just loved me. He wept with me, prayed with me, laughed with me, and patiently listened to me. Through his unwavering love we developed an unbreakable bond of deep friendship that strengthened my own intimacy with God.

When we begin to understand the truth of who God is and gain a better understanding of ourselves as well as others, we become thoroughly equipped to be fruitful, productive servants on earth.

move heaven and earth to show us His will. He has given us His Word and Spirit to empower us and help us understand what He has planned. This is why it is absolutely essential that we remain faithful in prayer and in the study of His Word—so we can walk with Him in a daily relationship and discover the plan and the principles He wants us to live by.

> 2:14 — A natural man does not accept the things of the Spirit of God . . . he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually appraised.

Satan will do whatever he can to convince people to avoid or stray from the sanctified life God has called us to live. The enemy seeks to convince us that sin doesn't hurt anyone—and in many cases is just meaningless fun. He tells us that the desires of our bodies should be gratified because they are natural. However, understand that your natural desires do not necessarily honor the Lord—nor will they satisfy you the way you hope they will.

> 2:16 — We have the mind of Christ.

In Jeremiah 33:3, God said, "Call to Me and I will answer you, and I will tell you great and mighty things, which you do not know." There are things hidden to us because of our limited human perspective. However, everything is known to the Lord, and He has given us the Foundations for Living

3 AND I, brethren, could not speak to you as to spiritual men, but as to men of flesh, as to infants in Christ.

2 I gave you milk to drink, not solid food; for you were not yet able to receive it. Indeed, even now you are not yet able,

- → 3 for you are still fleshly. For since there is jealousy and strife among you, are you not fleshly, and are you not walking like mere men?
 - 4 For when one says, "I am of Paul," and another, "I am of Apollos," are you not mere men?
 - 5 What then is Apollos? And what is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, even as the Lord gave opportunity to each one.
- ► 6 I planted, Apollos watered, but God was causing the growth.
 - 7 So then neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but God who causes the growth.
 - 8 Now he who plants and he who waters are one; but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor.
 - 9 For we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, God's building.

privilege of knowing His mind. Therefore, we should focus our thoughts on the holy and acceptable things of God, so we can begin to see and respond to the world as He does—in truth, righteousness, and in accordance with His will (Rom. 12:2; 2 Cor. 10:5; Col. 3:2).

> 3:3 — Since there is jealousy and strife among you, are you not fleshly, and are you not walking like mere elievers within the church were arguing about useless things. This kind of worthless quarreling was characteristic of the city of Corinth—where merchants from almost every nation would come to sell their wares. Competition was everything there, and it frustrated Paul to see the immoral nature of the culture still infecting the church he had founded several years before. Sadly, believers there had not progressed spiritually—they were still stuck in their old, fleshly ways.

> 3:6 — I planted, Apollos watered, but God was causing the growth.

The underlying issue of many of the quarrels among New Testament believers was about whose disciples would hold more prominence in the church. The people were transparently vying for power, and what had begun as a simple debate quickly escalated to full-fledged controversy that was splitting the young congregation. So Paul reminded them that they existed by God's grace and for His glory—not their own.

> 3:13 — Each man's work will become evident; for the day will show it because it is to be revealed with fire.

ere, Paul speaks about the judgment believers will face—not concerning salvation, but of the quality of our service to Christ. This was a warning to those whose only purpose was to achieve power and prominence in the church. When we stand before the Lord, it will become absolutely clear what we accomplished for Him through the Spirit and what we did in our own power. God knows our motives, and no one will be able to oppose or resist His judgment.

> 3:15 — If any man's work is burned up, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire.

every believer in Christ already has eternal life—that question was settled forever at the Cross. But rewards for service are another matter entirely. Some will receive many; others will get none—all according to the truth we understood, the opportunities we used to share that truth, and how we responded in obedience to Him.

> 3:21 — Let no one boast in men. For all things belong to you.

It is absolutely useless to worry about who is more powerful or popular, and it is counterproductive to compete against one another as believers. The Lord created us to work together, not to gain advantage over each other. He has given us every good thing we have, and we are to use all of our gifts, resources, and talents to His glory, not our own.

- ▶ 5 Therefore do not go on passing judgment before athe time, but wait until the Lord comes who will both bring to light the things hidden in the darkness and disclose the motives of men's hearts; and then each man's praise will come to him from God.
 - 6 Now these things, brethren, I have figuratively applied to myself and Apollos for your sakes, so that in us you may learn not to exceed what is written, so that no one of you will become arrogant in behalf of one against the other.
- ➤ 7 For who regards you as superior? What do you have that you did not receive? And if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?
 - 8 You are already filled, you have already become rich, you have become kings without us; and indeed, I wish that you had become kings so that we also might reign with you.
 - 9 For, I think, God has exhibited us apostles last of all, as men condemned to death; because we have become a spectacle to the world, both to angels and to men.

- 10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but you ⊲ are prudent in Christ; we are weak, but you are strong; you are distinguished, but we are without honor.
- 11 To this present hour we are both hungry and thirsty, and are poorly clothed, and are roughly treated, and are homeless;
- 12 and we toil, working with our own hands; when we are reviled, we bless; when we are persecuted, we endure;
- 13 when we are slandered, we try to conciliate; we have become as the scum of the world, the dregs of all things, even until now.
- 14 I do not write these things to shame you, ⁴ but to admonish you as my beloved children.
- 15 For if you were to have countless tutors in Christ, yet you would not have many fathers, for in Christ Jesus I became your father through the gospel.
- 16 Therefore I exhort you, be imitators of me. 17 For this reason I have sent to you Timothy, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, and he will remind you of my ways which are in Christ, just as I teach everywhere in every church.
- 18 Now some have become arrogant, as though I were not coming to you.
- 19 But I will come to you soon, if the Lord wills, and I shall find out, not the words of those who are arrogant but their power.
- 20 For the kingdom of God does not consist in words but in power.
- 21 What do you desire? Shall I come to you with a rod, or with love and a spirit of gentleness?

> 4:5 — Do not go on passing judgment before the time, but wait until the Lord comes who will both bring to light the things hidden in the darkness and disclose the motives of men's hearts.

 \mathcal{N} one of us are in a position to assess the motivations of the human heart—especially when it comes to another's service to the Lord. While the Bible does instruct us to react in a certain way to sinful behavior (1 Cor. 5:2), we are not to judge anyone's intentions. Often, our opinion of their actions has more to do with our own failings than theirs (Luke 6:36–49).

> 4:7 — Who regards you as superior? What do you have that you did not receive?

On an ultimate sense, human arrogance makes very little sense because we never accomplish anything except by using the gifts, talents, energies, inspirations—and even breaths—that God gives to us.

> 4:10 — You are distinguished, but we are without honor.

The Corinthians were arguing amongst themselves about who had the right view of doctrine, which was really an attempt to distinguish themselves and claim power in the church. Paul explained he sought no earthly honor, nor could a Christian's success come from worldly definitions. Jealousy is a deadly combination of fear and pride. We become concerned that another has been blessed or is respected more than we are. Scripture is clear: this is not God's best for us. He wants us to be focused on His will and not on what others have or do. When our hearts are set on Him, we will have all that we need or want.

> 4:14 — I do not write these things to shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved children.

Paul learned such a loving attitude from Christ Himself.
The Lord does not correct us in order to humiliate us, but because He loves us and wants to spare us the pain that our sinful actions always bring.

> 5:2 — You have become arrogant and have not mourned instead, so that the one who had done this deed would be removed from your midst.

pparently, the Corinthians felt proud that they could tolerate such a shocking sin. Perhaps they congratulated themselves that their love could overlook the kind of behavior that ordinarily brought condemnation. However, their tolerance was allowing the church to remain defiled. Not only was it ruining their influence in the community, but it was also dividing the fellowship and confusing new believers.

> 5:5 — Deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of his flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

Platant and persistent sin on the part of believers can have serious consequences, not only for those in the church, but also for those who do not believe in Christ. If His followers are no different from the world, why should they believe in Him? Many times, we must allow people to bear the full ramifications of their actions without interfering in the hope that they will repent of their sin and turn to God.

5:7 — Christ our Passover also has been sacrificed.

The celebration of the Passover reminded the Israelites of God's great provision for them during their exodus from Egypt—when they put the blood of a perfect lamb on their doorposts and He spared the lives of their firstborn sons (Ex. 12). Likewise, when the blood of Jesus covers us, we no longer bear the penalty of death for our sins (John 1:29; Eph. 1:7; 2:13; Col. 1:20; Heb. 9).

his kind of church discipline may not sound either loving or kind to many today. But true, unconditional love works to restore the sinner, not tolerate the sin—and many times this means allowing them to face the full consequences of their actions (1 Cor. 5:5). Godly love also protects those who would be tempted to compromise their relationship with Christ because of the offender's example.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

Is there a limit to God's forgiveness?

1 COR. 6:9-11

Do you ever ask yourself:

- Can I ever be free of the weight of my sin and guilt?
- Will God forgive my every sin?

I have good news for you! Your loving, heavenly Father will forgive you of all your sins. You can be released today from your sins if you will do what God says.

The apostle Paul dealt with an instance of gross sexual immorality in the Corinthian church: a man was sexually involved with his stepmother. Against that backdrop, Paul wrote, "Do not be deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor homosexuals, nor thieves, nor the covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers, will inherit the kingdom of God. Such were some of you; but you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God" (1 Cor. 6:9–11).

This passage holds three great messages for us.

First, it tells us that sin is sin. God doesn't differentiate between one type of sin and and defraud. You do this even to your brethren.

▶ 9 Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor aeffeminate, nor homosexuals,

10 nor thieves, nor the covetous, nor drunk-another. Most of us wouldn't consider slanderers in the same "sin boat" as thieves, but sin is sin. There are, however, some sins that I believe are tremendously ensnaring. The effect of sexual sin reaches deep into the soul. It is so ensnaring that many find it difficult to shake free, but God's love and ability to rescue, forgive, and restore is greater still. There is mercy at the Cross, and it is available to all who draw near to Christ.

Second, it tells us that sin is a lifestyle, a state of being. Paul declared that sin had been the identity of the Corinthians. Sin had been their all-consuming character. Paul called them former thieves—people who had stolen as a way of life. He didn't say, "Some of you had one too many drinks on occasion." He said some in the Corinthian church were drunkards. Sin isn't just something you do. Rather, sinful is what you are.

Third, it tells us that all types of sin can be forgiven. Paul declared, "Such were some of you." And then Paul reminded them that they were no longer who they had been, but they had been washed, sanctified, and justified in the name of the Lord Jesus and by the Spirit of God. The Corinthians found a new life and a new identity in Christ Jesus. You can as well.

Nothing is beyond God's forgiveness. No sin is too great or too awful for God to forgive. No person is so deep in sin, so ingrained in a wicked lifestyle, or so steeped in evil that he or she cannot be saved. The only requirement is that you accept His forgiveness. Will you?

Something has gone dreadfully wrong when someone who professes faith in Christ continues to live according to the same sinful patterns exhibited before their salvation (1 John 2:4).

> 6:12 — All things are lawful for me, but not all things are profitable. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be mastered by anything.

Paul had no interest in allowing the sinful patterns from which he had escaped through God's grace to enslave him again. He didn't ask, "What's wrong with it?" as much as, "Is this the Lord's will for me? Will it honor and glorify Him?"

> 6:18 — Flee immorality. Every other sin that a man commits is outside the body, but the immoral man sins against his own body.

Il sin separates us from God, but sexual sin can deeply damage human character. Though someone may say what he is doing will not hurt anyone else, the truth is that it does. All sin has a ripple effect that is broad and far-reaching. Ultimately, sexual sins hinder us from being the whole, courageous, powerful witnesses God created us to be.

> 6:19 — Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own?

Then the Spirit of God descended upon the tabernacle (Ex. 40)—and later the temple (2 Chr. 5)—in the Old Testament, it was after extensive consecration. Everything from the priests and their garments to the furniture, offerings, and utensils were required to be purified in a specific manner. This complete consecration happens in us when we trust Jesus as our Savior and He cleanses us from all unrighteousness.

> 6:20 — You have been bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body.

 \mathcal{N} o one owns his or her body—it either belongs to God or is enslaved by sin (Rom. 6:6, 16–19). If you are a believer, Jesus redeemed you through His death on the Cross. He is not being cruel when He commands you to refrain from immorality. On the contrary, He wants to free you from the sins that entangle you and prevent you from being all that He has called you to be. Instead of being controlled by your sinful desires, look to Him to meet all of your deepest needs and give your life meaning and significance.

> 7:5 — Stop depriving one another, except by agreement for a time, so that you may devote yourselves to prayer, and come together again.

Sexual expression is a key and vital part of every Christian marriage. Believing couples should abstain from it only (1) by mutual consent, (2) for a limited time, and (3) for a specific prayer need.

> 7:8 — I say to the unmarried and to widows that it is good for them if they remain even as I.

any times people rush into marriage because they long for security, acceptance, companionship, and love. They also yearn to be like others in society. However, making any decision without God's guidance can be devastating—especially one like marriage that affects the rest of your life. Therefore in marriage—just as everything else—remember that God's plan for your life is best, and He acts on behalf of those who wait for Him.

- 9 But if they do not have self-control, let them marry; for it is better to marry than to burn with passion.
- 10 But to the married I give instructions, not I, but the Lord, that the wife should not leave her husband
- 11 (but if she does leave, she must remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband), and that the husband should not divorce his wife.
- 12 But to the rest I say, not the Lord, that if any brother has a wife who is an unbeliever, and she consents to live with him, he must not divorce her.
- 13 And a woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he consents to live with her, she must not send her husband away.
- 14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified through his wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through her believing husband; for otherwise your children are unclean, but now they are holy.
- 15 Yet if the unbelieving one leaves, let him leave; the brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases, but God has called ^aus to peace.
- 16 For how do you know, O wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, O husband, whether you will save your wife?
- 17 Only, as the Lord has assigned to each one, as God has called each, in this manner let him walk. And so I direct in all the churches.
- 18 Was any man called when he was already circumcised? He is not to become uncircumcised. Has anyone been called in uncircumcision? He is not to be circumcised.
- ➤ 19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but what matters is the keeping of the commandments of God.
- > 20 Each man must remain in that condition in which he was called.
 - 21 Were you called while a slave? Do not worry about it; but if you are able also to become free, rather do that.
 - 22 For he who was called in the Lord while a slave, is the Lord's freedman; likewise he who was called while free, is Christ's slave.
 - 23 You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men.

- 24 Brethren, each one is to remain with God in that condition in which he was called.
- 25 Now concerning virgins I have no command of the Lord, but I give an opinion as one who by the mercy of the Lord is trustworthy.
- 26 I think then that this is good in view of the present distress, that it is good for a man to remain as he is.
- 27 Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be released. Are you released from a wife? Do not seek a wife.
- 28 But if you marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Yet such will have trouble in this life, and I am trying to spare you.
- 29 But this I say, brethren, the time has been shortened, so that from now on those who have wives should be as though they had none;
- 30 and those who weep, as though they did not weep; and those who rejoice, as though they did not rejoice; and those who buy, as though they did not possess;
- 31 and those who use the world, as though they did not make full use of it; for the form of this world is passing away.
- 32 But I want you to be free from concern. One who is unmarried is concerned about the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord:
- 33 but one who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how he may please his wife,
- 34 and his interests are divided. The woman who is unmarried, and the virgin, is concerned about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and spirit; but one who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how she may please her husband.
- 35 This I say for your own benefit; not to put a restraint upon you, but to promote what is appropriate and to secure undistracted devotion to the Lord.
- 36 But if any man thinks that he is acting unbecomingly toward his virgin daughter, if she is past her youth, and if it must be so, let him

> 7:19 — Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but what matters is the keeping of the commandments of God.

Ituals help us only insofar as they move us toward God—in and of themselves, they have no intrinsic value. God values devoted obedience far more than adherence to religious regulations (1 Sam. 15:22; Phil. 3:3).

> 7:20 — Each man must remain in that condition in which he was called.

It Mars Hill, Paul explained, "He made from one man every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth, having determined their appointed times and the boundaries of their habitation" (Acts 17:26). In other words, God has chosen the specific era, location, and giftedness with which you would exist for the purpose of serving Him. You are not a mistake—your strengths, weaknesses, and situation in life are part of His plan to be glorified through you. Your ministry does not start sometime in the future when your circumstances change. It begins the moment you believe in Christ. Serve Him obediently with this in view.

do what he wishes, he does not sin; let her marry.

- 37 But he who stands firm in his heart, being under no constraint, but has authority over his own will, and has decided this in his own heart, to keep his own virgin daughter, he will do well.
- 38 So then both he who gives his own virgin daughter in marriage does well, and he who does not give her in marriage will do better.
- 39 A wife is bound as long as her husband lives; but if her husband is dead, she is free to be married to whom she wishes, only in the Lord.
- 40 But in my opinion she is happier if she remains as she is; and I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

Take Care with Your Liberty

- NOW concerning things sacrificed to idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge makes arrogant, but love edifies.
 - 2 If anyone supposes that he knows anything, he has not yet known as he ought to know:
 - 3 but if anyone loves God, he is known by Him.
 - 4 Therefore concerning the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that athere is no such thing as an idol in the world, and that there is no God but one.
 - 5 For even if there are so-called gods whether in heaven or on earth, as indeed there are many gods and many lords,
- > 6 yet for us there is but one God, the Father, from whom are all things and we exist for Him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we exist through Him.

- 7 However not all men have this knowledge; but some, being accustomed to the idol until now, eat food as if it were sacrificed to an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.
- 8 But food will not commend us to God; we are neither the worse if we do not eat, nor the better if we do eat.
- 9 But take care that this liberty of yours ≺ does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak.
- 10 For if someone sees you, who have knowledge, dining in an idol's temple, will not his conscience, if he is weak, be strengthened to eat things sacrificed to idols?
- 11 For through your knowledge he who is weak is ruined, the brother for whose sake Christ died.
- 12 And so, by sinning against the brethren and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ.
- 13 Therefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will never eat meat again, so that I will not cause my brother to stumble.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 8:1 — Knowledge makes arrogant, but love edifies.

God wants us to keep learning about Him and His ways, not merely to add to our storehouse of knowledge and promote ourselves, but to better serve Him and His people. Knowledge that is led by the Spirit and expressed with godly love can be a powerful tool He uses to transform a person's life.

> 8:6 — There is but one God, the Father, from whom are all things and we exist for Him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we exist through Him.

Corinthian society was replete with false deities and idols. However, Paul was clear—there is no other deity apart from God. We do not serve one among many—we serve the only Lord. We are created by Him, exist for Him, and can live eternally because of His matchless grace.

> 8:8 — Food will not commend us to God; we are neither the worse if we do not eat, nor the better if we do eat.

Much of the meat sold in the Corinthian marketplace and throughout the ancient world began as a sacrifice at the many pagan temples. Some believers were concerned that they were unintentionally defiling themselves or somehow serving these false gods by consuming it. Paul explained that because we are not saved by the food we eat or avoid—there was nothing wrong with eating the meat.

> 8:9 — Take care that this liberty of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak.

Although Paul taught that there was nothing wrong with eating the meat, he warned that immature Christians may not understand the decision—and he instructed us to avoid doing anything that would weaken their faith. We often think of things in terms of our needs and rights, but Paul had a completely different point of view. He did everything with the view of honoring God, winning others to Christ, and building up believers.

> 8:11 — Through your knowledge he who is weak is ruined, the brother for whose sake Christ died.

gesus taught, "Greater love has no one than this, that one lay down his life for his friends" (John 15:13). We should be willing to lay down our lives for the gospel, but sometimes the question is, are we willing to lay down our prejudices, biases, opinions, rights, and political views so that others can know His salvation? In love, we are always to desire the best for our brothers and sisters in the Lord—even if that means self-denial.

- ➤ 2 If to others I am not an apostle, at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.
 - 3 My defense to those who examine me is this:
 - 4 Do we not have a right to eat and drink?
 - 5 Do we not have a right to take along a believing wife, even as the rest of the apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas?
 - 6 Or do only Barnabas and I not have a right to refrain from working?
 - 7 Who at any time serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat the fruit of it? Or who tends a flock and does not use the milk of the flock?
 - 8 I am not speaking these things according to human judgment, am I? Or does not the Law also say these things?
 - 9 For it is written in the Law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle the ox while he is threshing." God is not concerned about oxen, is He?
 - 10 Or is He speaking altogether for our sake? Yes, for our sake it was written, because the plowman ought to plow in hope, and the thresher to thresh in hope of sharing the crops.
 - 11 If we sowed spiritual things in you, is it too much if we reap material things from you?
 - 12 If others share the right over you, do we not more? Nevertheless, we did not use this right, but we endure all things so that we will cause no hindrance to the gospel of Christ.
 - 13 Do you not know that those who perform sacred services eat the food of the temple, and those who attend regularly to the altar have their share from the altar?
 - 14 So also the Lord directed those who proclaim the gospel to get their living from the gospel.
 - 15 But I have used none of these things. And I am not writing these things so that it will be done so in my case; for it would be better for me to die than have any man make my boast an empty one.
 - 16 For if I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast of, for I am under compulsion; for woe is me if I do not preach the gospel.
- > 17 For if I do this voluntarily, I have a reward; but if against my will, I have a steward-ship entrusted to me.
 - 18 What then is my reward? That, when I

BARNABAS

Always an Encouraging Word

1 COR. 9:6

Wherever Barnabas went, people's faces lit up. They knew that his presence brought a kind word, a helpful suggestion, and a load of encouragement.

In fact, that's how he got his name. He was born Joseph, a Levite from Cyprus, but his reassuring and cheerful ways soon prompted the apostles to give him the nickname Barnabas, which means "Son of Encouragement" (Acts 4:36).

Without Barnabas, there might never have been an apostle Paul. It was Barnabas who introduced Saul to the church when everyone else was afraid of him (Acts 9:26–30). And when the apostles sent Barnabas to check up on a young church, he "began to encourage them all with resolute heart to remain true to the Lord; for he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith" (Acts 11:23, 24).

Don't you agree that we could use a few more believers like Barnabas?

Some of the Corinthians were challenging Paul's credentials as a servant of the Lord. However, they themselves were the evidence of Paul's apostleship because he had led many of them to faith in Christ (John 15:4, 5).

> 9:17 — If I do this voluntarily, I have a reward; but if against my will, I have a stewardship entrusted to me.

It is a great privilege to serve the Lord, but it is also our solemn duty. The amazing thing is that God has promised to supply all of our needs and reward us richly for obeying Him—something we should do simply because of who He is!

Avoid Israel's Mistakes

 $10^{\rm FOR\ I}$ do not want you to be unaware, brethren, that our fathers were all under the cloud and all passed through the sea;

- 2 and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea;
- 3 and all ate the same spiritual food;
- 4 and all drank the same spiritual drink, for they were drinking from a spiritual rock which followed them; and the rock was Christ.
- 5 Nevertheless, with most of them God was not well-pleased; for they were laid low in the wilderness.
- 6 Now these things happened as examples for us, so that we would not crave evil things as they also craved.

- 7 Do not be idolaters, as some of them were; as it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and stood up to play."
- 8 Nor let us act immorally, as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in one day.
- 9 Nor let us try the Lord, as some of them did, and were destroyed by the serpents.
 10 Nor grumble, as some of them did, and
- were destroyed by the destroyer.

 11 Now these things happened to them as an example, and they were written for our instruction, upon whom the ends of the ages have come.
- 12 Therefore let him who thinks he stands take heed that he does not fall.
- 13 No temptation has overtaken you but such as is common to man; and God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will provide the way of escape also, so that you will be able to endure it.
- 14 Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. 15 I speak as to wise men; you judge what I say.
- 16 Is not the cup of blessing which we bless a sharing in the blood of Christ? Is not the bread which we break a sharing in the body of Christ?
- 17 Since there is one bread, we who are many are one body; for we all partake of the one bread.
- 18 Look at the nation Israel; are not those who eat the sacrifices sharers in the altar?
- 19 What do I mean then? That a thing sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything?

Paul referred to the Isthmian athletic games that were hosted in Corinth to remind the church that just as an athlete does not stop training, we must not stop pursuing and obeying God. Pe will face temptations just as the Old Testament saints did, but we do not have to choose disobedience to God. Why? Because the power of sin over us was defeated at the Cross. If we've trusted Christ as our Savior, His Spirit lives in us—giving us the power and wisdom to overcome our sinful impulses so we can obey Him. So whenever you're tempted, ask God to remind you of the terrible consequences that would follow the transgression and to fill your heart with love and obedience for Him—because that is a sure way of escape.

Christian Order

1 1 BE imitators of me, just as I also am of Christ.

2 Now I praise you because you remember me in everything and hold firmly to the traditions, just as I delivered them to you.

- 3 But I want you to understand that Christ is the head of every man, and the man is the head of a woman, and God is the head of Christ
- 4 Every man who has something on his head while praying or prophesying disgraces his head.
- 5 But every woman who has her head uncovered while praying or prophesying disgraces her head, for she is one and the same as the woman whose head is shaved.
- 6 For if a woman does not cover her head, let her also have her hair cut off; but if it is disgraceful for a woman to have her hair cut off or her head shaved, let her cover her head.
- 7 For a man ought not to have his head covered, since he is the image and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of man.
- 8 For man does not originate from woman, but woman from man;
- 9 for indeed man was not created for the woman's sake, but woman for the man's sake. 10 Therefore the woman ought to have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels.
- 11 However, in the Lord, neither is woman independent of man, nor is man independent of woman.
- 12 For as the woman originates from the man, so also the man has his birth through the woman; and all things originate from God.
- 13 Judge for yourselves: is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered?
- 14 Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him, 15 but if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her? For her hair is given to her for a covering.
- 16 But if one is inclined to be contentious, we have no other practice, nor have the churches of God.
- 17 But in giving this instruction, I do not praise you, because you come together not for the better but for the worse.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 10:23 — All things are lawful, but not all things are profitable. All things are lawful, but not all things edify.

As believers, we have been forgiven of all our sin and have been guaranteed our salvation—there is nothing we can do to lose what Christ has given us freely. Though nothing can impede our salvation, not all things are beneficial to our walk with God. Therefore, we are not merely to ask, "Is this behavior or action okay?" but also, "Does this help my relationship with the Lord and my testimony to the lost?" God wants us to move beyond merely debating whether something is wrong or right, and instead choose actions that are in line with His will and build up the faith of others.

> 10:31 — Whether, then, you eat or drink or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.

There could hardly be a better standard of behavior than this. Before you commit to any action, ask yourself, "Can I do this to the glory of God? Would this action represent Him in a manner worthy of His name?"

> 10:33 — I also please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit but the profit of the many, so that they may be saved.

On-believers are trying to fill the emptiness in their lives—that is why they engage in all kinds of sinful behaviors. Sadly, their ungodly activities only leave them feeling emptier, alone, and discouraged. What they need is Jesus, and you can introduce them to Him, if you'll stay strong and obedient.

- 18 For, in the first place, when you come together as a church, I hear that divisions exist among you; and in part I believe it.
- 19 For there must also be factions among you, so that those who are approved may become evident among you.
- ➤ 20 Therefore when you meet together, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper,
 - 21 for in your eating each one takes his own supper first; and one is hungry and another is drunk.
 - 22 What! Do you not have houses in which to eat and drink? Or do you despise the church of God and shame those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you? In this I will not praise you.

The Lord's Supper

- 23 For I received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus in the night in which He was betrayed took bread;
- 24 and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "This is My body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of Me."
- 25 In the same way He took the cup also after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood; do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."
- ➤ 26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until He comes.
 - 27 Therefore whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner, shall be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord.
 - 28 But a man must examine himself, and in so doing he is to eat of the bread and drink of the cup.

- 29 For he who eats and drinks, eats and drinks judgment to himself if he does not judge the body rightly.
- 30 For this reason many among you are weak and sick, and a number sleep.
- 31 But if we judged ourselves rightly, we would not be judged.
- 32 But when we are judged, we are disci- plined by the Lord so that we will not be condemned along with the world.
- 33 So then, my brethren, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.
- 34 If anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, so that you will not come together for judgment. The remaining matters I will arrange when I come.

The Use of Spiritual Gifts

- $12^{
 m NOW}$ concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I do not want you to be unaware.
- 2 You know that when you were pagans, you were led astray to the mute idols, however you were led.
- 3 Therefore I make known to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus is accursed"; and no one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.
- 4 Now there are varieties of gifts, but the ≺ same Spirit.
- 5 And there are varieties of ministries, and the same Lord.
- 6 There are varieties of effects, but the same God who works all things in all persons.
- 7 But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.
- 8 For to one is given the word of wisdom

LIFE LESSONS-

> 11:20 — When you meet together, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper.

Then the church observed the Lord's Supper, it was in remembrance of the last Passover Jesus celebrated with His disciples (Matt. 26:20–30; Mark 14:17–26; Luke 22:1–23; John 13—17). Regrettably, the Corinthian observance no longer reflected the spirit of the Lord's Supper. Instead of honoring the Lord in fellowship with other believers, many brought their own meals, while others got drunk, and some had nothing to eat at all. God calls us to express our faith in community, but when we act without consideration for other members of Christ's body and without respect for Him, we are not acting as the church at all.

> 11:26 — As often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until He comes.

The Lord's Supper not only looks back at Christ's sacrifice and gives Him praise for His great gift of salvation to us, but it also looks ahead to that day when we will see Him again and enjoy our heavenly home with Him forever.

> 11:32 — When we are judged, we are disciplined by the Lord so that we will not be condemned along with the world. Od disciplines His erring children because He wants to spare us the greater pain that comes with persistent disobedience (Heb. 12:5–13). His mercy prompts His discipline.

> 12:4 — There are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit.

There is great diversity in the body of Christ. There are many parts and roles, but they all come together in unity through the guidance of the Holy Spirit. God never contradicts Himself as He gives each member of His body commands, so when everyone is faithfully submitted to His will, we are all working towards the same goal—to glorify Him and lead others to salvation.

> 12:7 — To each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.

It the time we come to faith in Christ, every believer receives at least one spiritual gift—not merely to encourage and build up our own relationship with the Lord, but to edify the entire church. God makes the church interdependent because He never meant for believers to "go it alone" in their walk of faith, but to enjoy the amazing blessings of fellowship with Him and others.

 - 14 For the body is not one member, but many.
 - 15 If the foot says, "Because I am not a hand, I am not a part of the body," it is not for this reason any the less a part of the body.
 - 16 And if the ear says, "Because I am not an eye, I am not a part of the body," it is not for this reason any the less a part of the body.
 - 17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
 - 18 But now God has placed the members, each one of them, in the body, just as He desired
 - 19 If they were all one member, where would the body be?
 - 20 But now there are many members, but one body.
 - 21 And the eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you"; or again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you."
 - 22 On the contrary, it is much truer that the members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary:
 - 23 and those members of the body which we deem less honorable, on these we bestow more abundant honor, and our less presentable members become much more presentable, 24 whereas our more presentable members

24 whereas our more presentable members have no need of it. But God has so composed the body, giving more abundant honor to that member which lacked,

25 so that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another.

26 And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now you are Christ's body, and individually members of it.

28 And God has appointed in the church, first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, administrations, various kinds of tongues.

29 All are not apostles, are they? All are not prophets, are they? All are not teachers, are they? All are not workers of miracles, are they?

30 All do not have gifts of healings, do they? All do not speak with tongues, do they? All do not interpret, do they?

31 But earnestly desire the greater gifts.

And I show you a still more excellent way.

The Excellence of Love

13 IF I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but do not have love, I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.

2 If I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.

3 And if I give all my possessions to feed \checkmark the poor, and if I surrender my body ato be burned, but do not have love, it profits me nothing.

> 12:11 — One and the same Spirit works all these things, distributing to each one individually just as He wills.

God distributes spiritual gifts as He sees fit. While a church can and should "desire earnestly spiritual gifts" (1 Cor. 14:1), individual believers are never encouraged to request specific gifts. Rather, the Spirit gives us the talents that are necessary for the tasks He wants us to accomplish. And God always assumes the responsibility of enabling us to do whatever He has called us to do.

> 12:26 — If one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

This verse gives the reason for Paul's instruction: "Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep" (Rom. 12:15). Since we all belong to each other, we should humbly desire and work for each other's benefit as if doing so for ourselves (Matt. 22:39).

> 13:3 — If I give all my possessions to feed the poor, and if I surrender my body to be burned, but do not have love, it profits me nothing.

do. Do we sacrifice our lives and possessions out of loving obedience to the Lord, or in doing so are we fulfilling a selfish need in our own lives? Do we address our conduct with an attitude of godly service, or are we motivated by personal ambition and conceit? If our actions do not reflect the love of God, they will have no power and will certainly not last (John 13:34, 35; 15:4–14; 1 Cor. 3:11–15).

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT GOD'S FOREVER LOVE

1 Cov. 13:1-13

irst Corinthians 13 is probably the most widely quoted passage in the world on the subject of love. Verse 13 says, "But now faith, hope, love, abide these three; but the greatest of these is love."

We recognize that Jesus demonstrated sacrificial love for us by dying for our sins, making possible our forgiveness and restoring us to fellowship with the Father. Yet we often fail to realize that Christ's love goes even beyond the Cross.

Everything we do, don't do, face, and don't face is touched by His continuing love. Everything about us hinges on love because God, who is love, created us in His image (1 John 4:8, 16). Because God loves us, He gives us blessings and lets us share them. When we pray and are told to wait, it is because He loves us and knows we need time to grow. When the overwhelming choices before us make it hard to know which way is up, our Lord and Savior shows us our need to depend on His guiding love.

Our most important dwelling place is God's love.

Jesus demonstrated this kind of amazing love to Mary and Martha upon Lazarus' death. John 11:6 says, "So when He heard that he was sick, He then stayed two days longer in the place where He was." Jesus knew that Mary and Martha needed to grieve in order to grow. He allowed the sisters' pain because He loved them.

Until we come to understand and believe at our deepest, innermost level that God is love, we will struggle with trusting Him, yielding to Him, obeying Him, and serving Him wholeheartedly. One of the keys to our spiritual growth as Christians is believing in God's love—even when we cannot see it.

While we are to live in faith and hope, our most important dwelling place is God's love. Without making His love our ultimate dwelling, we cannot fully live in faith and hope. We should refuse to take a step or a breath without remaining keenly sensitive to "the greatest of these"—our Father's love.

See the Life Principles Index for further study:

- Our intimacy with God—His highest priority for our lives—determines the impact of our lives.
- 14. God acts on behalf of those who wait for Him.

- 4 Love is patient, love is kind and is not jealous; love does not brag and is not arrogant,
- 5 does not act unbecomingly; it does not seek its own, is not provoked, does not take into account a wrong suffered,
- 6 does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth;
- 7 bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.
- ➤ 8 Love never fails; but if there are gifts of prophecy, they will be done away; if there are tongues, they will cease; if there is knowledge, it will be done away.
- 9 For we know in part and we prophesy in part:
 - 10 but when the perfect comes, the partial will be done away.
 - 11 When I was a child, I used to speak like a child, think like a child, reason like a child; when I became a man, I did away with child-ish things.
- *12 For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face; now I know in part, but then I will know fully just as I also have been fully known.
- ▶ 13 But now faith, hope, love, abide these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Prophecy a Superior Gift

- 14 PURSUE love, yet desire earnestly spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy.
- 2 For one who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God; for no one understands, but in his spirit he speaks mysteries.
- 3 But one who prophesies speaks to men for edification and exhortation and consolation.
- 4 One who speaks in a tongue edifies himself; but one who prophesies edifies the church.
- 5 Now I wish that you all spoke in tongues, but even more that you would prophesy; and - greater is one who prophesies than one who speaks in tongues, unless he interprets, so that the church may receive edifying.

- 6 But now, brethren, if I come to you speaking in tongues, what will I profit you unless I speak to you either by way of revelation or of knowledge or of prophecy or of teaching?
- 7 Yet even lifeless things, either flute or harp, in producing a sound, if they do not produce a distinction in the tones, how will it be known what is played on the flute or on the harp?
- 8 For if the bugle produces an indistinct sound, who will prepare himself for battle?
- 9 So also you, unless you utter by the tongue speech that is clear, how will it be known what is spoken? For you will be speaking into the air.
- 10 There are, perhaps, a great many kinds of languages in the world, and no kind is without meaning.
- 11 If then I do not know the meaning of the language, I will be to the one who speaks a barbarian, and the one who speaks will be a barbarian to me.
- 12 So also you, since you are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek to abound for the edification of the church.
- 13 Therefore let one who speaks in a tongue pray that he may interpret.
- 14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful.
- 15 What is the outcome then? I will pray with the spirit and I will pray with the mind also; I will sing with the spirit and I will sing with the mind also.
- 16 Otherwise if you bless in the spirit only, how will the one who fills the place of the ungifted say the "Amen" at your giving of thanks, since he does not know what you are saying?
- 17 For you are giving thanks well enough, but the other person is not edified.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 13:8 — Love never fails.

Because God's holy love is within us, we should never be self-consumed. Rather, as Paul told the Philippians, "With humility of mind regard one another as more important than yourselves" (Phil. 2:3). Real, godly, unconditional love never falls short of forgiving or seeking the good of the other person. It never fails to encourage others to stay in an intimate relationship with the Lord. When our love for Him and others is right, we win. We cannot lose when His unconditional love flows through us freely.

> 13:9 — We know in part and we prophesy in part.

God does not give any of His children a complete picture of what He is doing or what He has planned to do in the world, but He reveals it to us as we work together in unity. He never calls any believer to "go it alone" in his walk of faith but to fully enjoy the Christian life as we fellowship with other believers. We need to depend upon one another not only to experience His love and know His will, but also to fulfill His mission in the world.

> 13:13 — Faith, hope, love, abide these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Our hope will be fulfilled in heaven, because we will have everything we've ever hoped for. Our faith will be complete because we will see the King in His glory. And His love will remain forever because the fruit of His love—our salvation—will endure always, to His honor, praise, and glory.

> 14:12 — Since you are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek to abound for the edification of the church.

God wants us to grow in grace, learn about Him, and serve others together. Why together? Because our unity of heart and action best shows the power of God's love.

- 18 I thank God, I speak in tongues more than you all;
- ➤ 19 however, in the church I desire to speak five words with my mind so that I may instruct others also, rather than ten thousand words in a tongue.

Instruction for the Church

- 20 Brethren, do not be children in your thinking; yet in evil be infants, but in your thinking be mature.
- 21 In the Law it is written, "By Men of strange tongues and by the Lips of strangers I will speak to this people, and even so they will not listen to Me," says the Lord.
- 22 So then tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe but to unbelievers; but prophecy is for a sign, not to unbelievers but to those who believe.
- 23 Therefore if the whole church assembles together and all speak in tongues, and ungifted men or unbelievers enter, will they not say that you are mad?
- 24 But if all prophesy, and an unbeliever or an ungifted man enters, he is convicted by all, he is called to account by all;
- 25 the secrets of his heart are disclosed; and so he will fall on his face and worship God, declaring that God is certainly among you.
- 26 What is the outcome then, brethren? When you assemble, each one has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has a tongue, has an interpretation. Let all things be done for edification.
- 27 If anyone speaks in a tongue, it should be by two or at the most three, and each in turn, and one must interpret;
- 28 but if there is no interpreter, he must keep silent in the church; and let him speak to himself and to God.
- 29 Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others pass judgment.
- 30 But if a revelation is made to another who is seated, the first one must keep silent.

- 31 For you can all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all may be exhorted;
- 32 and the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets;
- 33 for God is not a God of confusion but of \triangleleft peace, as in all the churches of the saints.
- 34 The women are to keep silent in the churches; for they are not permitted to speak, but are to subject themselves, just as the Law also says.
- 35 If they desire to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home; for it is improper for a woman to speak in church.
- 36 Was it from you that the word of God first went forth? Or has it come to you only?
- 37 If anyone thinks he is a prophet or spiritual, let him recognize that the things which I write to you are the Lord's commandment.
- 38 But if anyone does not recognize this, he ais not recognized.
- 39 Therefore, my brethren, desire earnestly to prophesy, and do not forbid to speak in tongues.
- 40 But all things must be done properly and \triangleleft in an orderly manner.

The Fact of Christ's Resurrection

- 15 NOW I make known to you, brethren, the gospel which I preached to you, which also you received, in which also you stand,
- 2 by which also you are saved, if you hold fast the word which I preached to you, unless you believed in vain.
- 3 For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures,
- 4 and that He was buried, and that He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures,

LIFE LESSONS-

> 14:19 — In the church I desire to speak five words with my mind so that I may instruct others also, rather than ten thousand words in a tongue.

Priginally seen at the empowering of the church at Pentecost, the ability to speak diverse languages was given so the early church could spread the gospel all around the world (Acts 2:4). Yet what Paul is speaking of here is that many of the believers in Corinth were imitating other religions by babbling meaninglessly. What they were doing was neither of the Spirit nor edifying to other believers. Rather, they were trying to show off their "super-spirituality." So Paul reiterated to them that the real power of the Spirit is seen in the teaching and maturing of the church.

> 14:33 — God is not a God of confusion but of peace.

The church is a living organism that is constantly growing and changing. Yet it does so in an organized, obedient, godly fashion—not in chaos. God does not tell one person to do something that completely contradicts and invalidates what He told someone else to do. Nor does He ever command anything that is in opposition to His eternal Word. He is the Lord of order, so when He brings us into fellowship with the rest of His church, He has special plans to use our gifts and talents within that group, and He keeps us unified with the rest of the body through His Holy Spirit.

> 14:40 — All things must be done properly and in an orderly manner.

Confusion is never a sign of God's leading. When something spirals out of control, you can be sure that He did not design it. He may lead us in unusual ways, but He will never guide us in a manner inconsistent with His holiness and Word.

- 25 For He must reign until He has put all His enemies under His feet.
- 26 The last enemy that will be abolished is death.
- 27 For He has put all things in subjection under His feet. But when He says, "All things are put in subjection," it is evident that He is excepted who put all things in subjection to Him.
- 28 When all things are subjected to Him, then the Son Himself also will be subjected to the One who subjected all things to Him, so that God may be all in all.
- 29 Otherwise, what will those do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them?
- 30 Why are we also in danger every hour?

> 15:6 — He appeared to more than five hundred brethren at one time.

he gospel is not a clever story that is impossible to prove (2 Pet. 1:16). Jesus appeared to more than 500 people after His resurrection, and many of them were still alive when Paul wrote his letter to the Corinthians. There is undeniable evidence that the resurrection of Jesus Christ has taken place and that it has the power to transform our lives.

> 15:10 — I labored even more than all of them, yet not I, but the grace of God with me.

Anything worthwhile that we accomplish for God is done in obedience to Him through the guidance and empowering of His Holy Spirit. His grace prompts us to do His will, not to become lazy.

> 15:17 — If Christ has not been raised, your faith is worthless; you are still in your sins.

The physical, bodily resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead is essential to the truth and power of the gospel. Without the Resurrection, Christianity would be like every other religion in the world—powerless to save. Without the Resurrection, there would be no triumph over sin and death, and we would have no assurance of eternal life. There is no hope for us without His resurrection.

> 15:20 — Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who are asleep.

uring the Feast of First Fruits, the Israelites were required to bring the first crop of their barley harvest to the priest as a symbol of their trust that the Lord would make the rest of their crop flourish bountifully. In the same way, Jesus is the first of the resurrection, showing that we can have absolute confidence that He will raise us from the dead as well (Rom. 8:23).

> 15:21, 22 — By a man came death, by a man also came the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive.

that sin came into the world through Adam's fall in the Garden of Eden, death also comes to us through that first transgression (Gen. 3; Rom. 5:12–15). But we have eternal redemption through Jesus Christ who gave His life for us. The choice is ours: we either remain in sin or accept the gift of His forgiveness that was demonstrated for us on the Cross.

- 31 I affirm, brethren, by the boasting in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.
- 32 If from human motives I fought with wild beasts at Ephesus, what does it profit me? If the dead are not raised, LET US EAT AND DRINK, FOR TOMORROW WE DIE.
- 33 Do not be deceived: "Bad company corrupts good morals."
- 34 Become sober-minded as you ought, and stop sinning; for some have no knowledge of God. I speak this to your shame.
- 35 But someone will say, "How are the dead raised? And with what kind of body do they come?"
- 36 You fool! That which you sow does not come to life unless it dies;
- 37 and that which you sow, you do not sow the body which is to be, but a bare grain, perhaps of wheat or of something else.
- 38 But God gives it a body just as He wished, and to each of the seeds a body of its own.
- 39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another flesh of birds, and another of fish.
- 40 There are also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the glory of the heavenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another.
- 41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for star differs from star in glory.
- 42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown a perishable body, it is raised an imperishable body;
- 43 it is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power;
- 44 it is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body.
- 45 So also it is written, "The first MAN, Adam, BECAME A LIVING SOUL." The last Adam became a life-giving spirit.
- 46 However, the spiritual is not first, but the natural; then the spiritual.
- 47 The first man is from the earth, earthy; the second man is from heaven.

- 48 As is the earthy, so also are those who are earthy; and as is the heavenly, so also are those who are heavenly.
- 49 Just as we have borne the image of the earthy, awe will also bear the image of the heavenly.

The Mystery of Resurrection

- 50 Now I say this, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.
- 51 Behold, I tell you a mystery; we will not all sleep, but we will all be changed,
- 52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet; for the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed.
- 53 For this perishable must put on the imperishable, and this mortal must put on immortality.
- 54 But when this perishable will have put on the imperishable, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then will come about the saying that is written, "DEATH IS SWALLOWED UP in victory.
- 55 "O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?"
- 56 The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law;
- 57 but thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your toil is not in vain in the Lord.

That means we will be caught up in the air to be with Him, rising up to heaven with imperishable, glorified bodies—just like His. Daul instructs believers to present their offerings to the Lord on a regular, proportional basis. Giving should be a consistent discipline in our lives rather than a sporadic practice. aul always sought the Lord for direction in his life. Though he may have had personal desires to stay at a particular church, travel to a certain region to evangelize the people, or visit a beloved congregation, he wisely left those plans in God's hands to fulfill or alter as He deemed best.

> 16:9 — A wide door for effective service has opened to me, and there are many adversaries.

The blessing of God—in this case, the opening of a wide door of ministry—often comes with difficulties such as adversaries and other challenges. We should not grow discouraged by the obstacles or become presumptuous because of the blessings. Rather, we must remain obedient to the Lord and seek His will for every situation.

> 16:22 — If anyone does not love the Lord, he is to be accursed. Maranatha.

Maranatha means, "Come, Lord Jesus" or, "The Lord is coming soon." There will come a time when Jesus Christ will sit on the Great White Throne and pass judgment on all who refused to believe in Him (Rev. 20:11–15). When that happens, it will be too late for unbelievers to turn to Him in faith and embrace His gift of salvation. That is why the right time to be reconciled to God is always right now (2 Cor. 5:10), because we do not know when He will return (Heb. 9:27).

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE

ubsequent to Paul's first letter to the Corinthians, false teachers had infiltrated the church and stirred up the people—tempting them to disregard Paul's teaching of God's truth. They claimed he was out of touch with reality, proud, unimpressive in appearance and speech, and unqualified as an apostle of Jesus Christ. By the time Paul wrote 2 Corinthians, the atmosphere in the congregation had dramatically changed. Believers realized that they had fallen short of the mark and allowed sin and deception to creep into their church.

Paul had sent Titus to Corinth to deal with these misconceptions but also to encourage them in their faith. When Titus returned, the apostle rejoiced to hear that the Corinthian church was getting back on track. This letter also was written to express Paul's thanksgiving for the repentant majority and to appeal to the rebellious minority to accept his authority. All rebellion is sin, and Paul knew that even a hint of this would bring spiritual erosion. Throughout the book, he defends his conduct, character, and calling as an apostle of Jesus Christ, but he also commends them for their desire to surrender to God.

Second Corinthians contains the longest sustained passage on giving found anywhere in the New Testament (chs. 8–9). The apostle gives us not only the reason for generosity— "You know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sake He became poor, so that you through His poverty might become rich" (8:9)—but also a basic principle regarding it—"He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must do just as he has purposed in his heart, not grudgingly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver" (9:6, 7).

This letter also highlights some fascinating personal details regarding the apostle Paul. He catalogs the extent of his sufferings for Christ (2 Cor. 11:22–33), gives a famous description of his mysterious visit to "the third heaven" (12:1–6), and offers an account of his "thorn in the flesh" (v. 7), from which the apostle learned to say, "When I am weak, then I am strong" (v. 10).

To distinguish this epistle from 1 Corinthians, it was given the title Pros Korinthious B, the "Second to the Corinthians."

Theme: Primarily a defense and vindication of Paul's apostolic ministry.

Author: The apostle Paul.

Time: Thought to have been written shortly after his first letter to the Corinthians, circa A.D. 55–57.

Structure: The letter divides easily into three sections. In the first, Paul explains why he changed the timing of his third visit to Corinth (1–7). In the second, he urges the church to prepare for his arrival (8–9). In the last, he defends his apostolic authority and warns that he will use it to discipline the church, if necessary (10–13).

As you read 2 Corinthians, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

- 29. We learn more in our valley experiences than on our mountaintops. See 2 Corinthians 1:9; page 1351.
- 7. The dark moments of our life will last only so long as is necessary for God to accomplish His purpose in us. See 2 Corinthians 4:16; page 1354.
- 4. The awareness of God's presence energizes us for our work. See 2 Corinthians 6:10; page 1357.
- 23. You can never outgive God. See 2 Corinthians 9:8; page 1360.

Introduction

1 PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

To the church of God which is at Corinth with all the saints who are throughout Achaia:

- 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
- ➤ 3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort,
 - 4 who comforts us in all our affliction so that we will be able to comfort those who are in any affliction with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.
 - 5 For just as the sufferings of Christ are ours in abundance, so also our comfort is abundant through Christ.
 - 6 But if we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation; or if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which is effective in the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer;
 - 7 and our hope for you is firmly grounded, knowing that as you are sharers of our sufferings, so also you are sharers of our comfort.
 - 8 For we do not want you to be unaware, brethren, of our affliction which came to us in Asia, that we were burdened excessively, beyond our strength, so that we despaired even of life;
- > 9 indeed, we had the sentence of death within ourselves so that we would not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead;
 - 10 who delivered us from so great a peril of death, and will deliver us, He on whom we have set our hope. And He will yet deliver us, 11 you also joining in helping us through your prayers, so that thanks may be given by many persons on our behalf for the favor bestowed on us through the prayers of many.

Paul's Integrity

- 12 For our proud confidence is this: the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and godly sincerity, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God, we have conducted ourselves in the world, and especially toward you.
- 13 For we write nothing else to you than what you read and understand, and I hope you will understand until the end;
- 14 just as you also partially did understand us, that we are your reason to be proud as you also are ours, in the day of our Lord Jesus.
- 15 In this confidence I intended at first to come to you, so that you might twice receive a blessing;
- 16 that is, to pass your way into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come to you, and by you to be helped on my journey to Judea.
- 17 Therefore, I was not vacillating when I intended to do this, was I? Or what I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, so that with me there will be yes, yes and no, no at the same time?
- 18 But as God is faithful, our word to you is not yes and no.
- 19 For the Son of God, Christ Jesus, who was preached among you by us—by me and Silvanus and Timothy—was not yes and no, but is yes in Him.
- 20 For as many as are the promises of God, in # Him they are yes; therefore also through Him \swarrow is our Amen to the glory of God through us.
- 21 Now He who establishes us with you in Christ and anointed us is God,
- 22 who also sealed us and gave us the Spirit in our hearts as a pledge.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 1:3, 4 — The Father of mercies and God of all comfort... comforts us in all our affliction so that we will be able to comfort those who are in any affliction.

Is we follow the Lord in obedience, we can be sure that He will come to our aid. Why? First, because it is His nature to do so. Second, because through our adversities, He trains us to trust Him in greater ways and then trains us in how to comfort others. If we are going to be His representatives, we must experience His comfort. Then we will have the tools to encourage other hurting souls.

> 1:9 — Indeed, we had the sentence of death within ourselves so that we would not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead.

Paul experienced many terrible trials on his missionary journeys, but he never lost his trust in the Lord (2 Cor. 11:23–33). In fact, the Lord used those very hardships to strengthen Paul's faith (4:7–18; 12:7–10). Sometimes, God allows us to endure great difficulties to show us that we are never really in control, but that He always is and that He is able to rescue us from any impossible situation we face (Luke 1:37; 18:27).

> 1:20 — As many as are the promises of God, in Him they are yes.

Of you need evidence that the Lord will keep all of His promises to you, all you must do is look to the Crucifixion and Resurrection. The coming of Christ was promised from the beginning when sin first entered the world (Gen. 3:15; Rom. 5:12), was in fulfillment of God's covenants with Abraham (Gen. 12:1–3) and David (2 Sam. 7:12–16), and was prophesied by the majority of the Old Testament prophets. Jesus is all you'll ever need—so say yes to Him, because He's already said yes to you.

> 1:21, 22 — God . . . also sealed us and gave us the Spirit in our hearts as a pledge.

One of the reasons we can be confident that we are secure in our salvation is that God has put His special mark of redemption upon us by sending His Spirit to live within us. The Spirit is our permanent identification signifying that we are set apart for the Lord. And we will bear the evidence of our salvation by His presence until the day when we go home to Him in heaven.

23 But I call God as witness to my soul, that to spare you I did not come again to Corinth. 24 Not that we lord it over your faith, but are workers with you for your joy; for in your faith you are standing firm.

Reaffirm Your Love

- 2 BUT I determined this for my own sake, that I would not come to you in sorrow again
- 2 For if I cause you sorrow, who then makes me glad but the one whom I made sorrowful?
- 3 This is the very thing I wrote you, so that when I came, I would not have sorrow from those who ought to make me rejoice; having confidence in you all that my joy would be the joy of you all.
- ▶ 4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears; not so that you would be made sorrowful, but that you might know the love which I have especially for you.
 - 5 But if any has caused sorrow, he has caused sorrow not to me, but in some degree—in order not to say too much—to all of you.
 - 6 Sufficient for such a one is this punishment which was inflicted by the majority,
 - 7 so that on the contrary you should rather forgive and comfort him, otherwise such a one might be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow.
 - 8 Wherefore I urge you to reaffirm your love for him.
 - 9 For to this end also I wrote, so that I might put you to the test, whether you are obedient in all things.
 - 10 But one whom you forgive anything, I forgive also; for indeed what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, I did it for your sakes in the presence of Christ,

- 11 so that no advantage would be taken of us by Satan, for we are not ignorant of his schemes.
- 12 Now when I came to Troas for the gospel of Christ and when a door was opened for me in the Lord.
- 13 I had no rest for my spirit, not finding Titus my brother; but taking my leave of them, I went on to Macedonia.
- 14 But thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and manifests through us the sweet aroma of the knowledge of Him in every place.

- 15 For we are a fragrance of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing;

- 16 to the one an aroma from death to death, to the other an aroma from life to life. And who is adequate for these things?
- 17 For we are not like many, apeddling the word of God, but as from sincerity, but as from God, we speak in Christ in the sight of God.

Ministers of a New Covenant

- 3 ARE we beginning to commend ourselves again? Or do we need, as some, letters of commendation to you or from you?
- 2 You are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all men;
- 3 being manifested that you are a letter of Christ, cared for by us, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts.
- 4 Such confidence we have through Christ toward God.
- 5 Not that we are adequate in ourselves to consider anything as coming from ourselves, but our adequacy is from God,

aOr corrupting

LIFE LESSONS-

> 2:4 — Out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears; not so that you would be made sorrowful, but that you might know the love which I have especially for you.

s the church, we should correct our brothers and sisters in Christ because of our love for them, not out of frustration or anger. The point of discipline is always restoration and renewal, not retribution and rejection. Our correction has value only insofar as it moves someone to obey God in repentance and restores that person into full fellowship.

> 2:11 — So that no advantage would be taken of us by Satan, for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

The enemy wants to trick you into rehashing all the ways a person has wronged you—even as you're in the process of forgiving them. The enemy convinces you that the person needs to feel the shame and guilt of their sin. Unfortunately, many people fall for this trap and not only wound themselves, but end up tearing up their families and churches because of unforgiveness.

> 2:14 — Thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ.

Paul does not mean that things always turn out the way we want, but that in Christ we are always on the road to victory. Setbacks happen, but they are never final or fatal because the Lord will assuredly triumph in the end (Rom. 8:28).

> 2:15 — We are a fragrance of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing.

In Ephesians 5:2, Paul instructed believers, "Walk in love, just as Christ also loved you and gave Himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God as a fragrant aroma." Our lives are to be a pleasing offering to the Lord—living sacrifices who are always testifying to those who are lost through our conduct and conversation that we belong to Him (Rom. 12:1; 2 Cor. 4:10–12).

- ➤ 6 who also made us adequate as servants of a new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life
 - 7 But if the ministry of death, in letters engraved on stones, came with glory, so that the sons of Israel could not look intently at the face of Moses because of the glory of his face, fading as it was,
 - 8 how will the ministry of the Spirit fail to be even more with glory?
 - 9 For if the ministry of condemnation has glory, much more does the ministry of right-eousness abound in glory.
 - 10 For indeed what had glory, in this case has no glory because of the glory that surpasses it.
 - 11 For if that which fades away was with glory, much more that which remains is in glory.
 - 12 Therefore having such a hope, we use great boldness in our speech,
 - 13 and are not like Moses, who used to put a veil over his face so that the sons of Israel would not look intently at the end of what was fading away.
 - 14 But their minds were hardened; for until this very day at the reading of the old covenant the same veil remains unlifted, because it is removed in Christ.

- 15 But to this day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their heart;
- 16 but whenever a person turns to the Lord, ≺ the veil is taken away.
- 17 Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.
- 18 But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit.

Paul's Apostolic Ministry

4THEREFORE, since we have this ministry, as we received mercy, we do not lose heart,

- 2 but we have renounced the things hidden because of shame, not walking in craftiness or adulterating the word of God, but by the manifestation of truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.
- 3 And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing,
- 4 in whose case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving so that they might not see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.
- 5 For we do not preach ourselves but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your bond-servants for Jesus' sake.
- 6 For God, who said, "Light shall shine out

LIFE LESSONS-

> 3:5 — Not that we are adequate in ourselves to consider anything as coming from ourselves, but our adequacy is from God.

Some false teachers in the Corinthian church questioned Paul's credentials and presented counterfeit letters of recommendation to prove their own legitimacy to the unsuspecting believers. But the apostle was clear: the only letters of recommendation he needed were the lives God had changed through his ministry. Only the Lord can empower people to serve Him—only He can make us adequate and transform lives through us. In fact, Jesus said, "Apart from Me you can do nothing" (John 15:5). No one can succeed in life or ministry without depending on Him every step of the way. Nothing else qualifies us for service.

> 3:6 — The letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

The Law revealed God's righteous requirements to us standards we could never hope to meet on our own (Rom. 7:7). The Spirit, on the other hand, gives us life because He draws us to faith in Christ's provision on the > 3:16 — Whenever a person turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away.

on the Day of Atonement, the high priest would enter in behind the veil of the Holy of Holies and stand before God. No one else was permitted to enter. Bells lined the hem of his garment and a rope was tied around his ankle, so if he were to die in the Lord's divine presence, the other priests could remove him from the Holy of Holies without going in themselves. During the Crucifixion, however, the veil in the temple was rent from top to bottom—showing that Jesus' death on the Cross removed the separation between God and man. Today, when we turn to Him in faith, God welcomes us into His presence, and there is no need to fear (Heb. 4:16).

> 3:17 — The Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

Then Jesus comes into a human heart by faith, through the Spirit He sets that person free from the bondage of sin, the chains of death, and the futile attempt of trying to become righteous through self-effort.

> 3:18 — We all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory.

camp after receiving the Ten Commandments from God, "The skin of his face shone, and [the people of Israel] were afraid to come near him." Something truly amazing happens to us whenever we spend time with God—an awesome transformation no beauty treatment in the world can mimic. Not only do we reflect His glory, we find that He is molding us into His image.

> 4:4 — The god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving so that they might not see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.

We would spare ourselves a lot of anxiety in our efforts at evangelism if we would remember that witnessing to others about Christ means serious spiritual warfare. Satan actively opposes our efforts (Matt. 13:19).

of darkness," is the One who has shone in our hearts to give the Light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ.

- ➤ 7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, so that the surpassing greatness of the power will be of God and not from ourselves;
- > 8 we are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not despairing;
 - 9 persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed;
- ➤ 10 always carrying about in the body the dying of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our body.
 - 11 For we who live are constantly being delivered over to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh.
 - 12 So death works in us, but life in you.
 - 13 But having the same spirit of faith, according to what is written, "I believed, therefore I spoke," we also believe, therefore we also speak,
 - 14 knowing that He who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and will present us with you.
 - 15 For all things are for your sakes, so that the grace which is spreading to more and more people may cause the giving of thanks to abound to the glory of God.

- 16 Therefore we do not lose heart, but  though our outer man is decaying, yet our inner man is being renewed day by day.
- 17 For momentary, light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison,
- 18 while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

The Temporal and Eternal

- 5 FOR we know that if the earthly tent which is our house is torn down, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.
- 2 For indeed in this house we groan, longing to be clothed with our dwelling from heaven.
- 3 inasmuch as we, having put it on, will not be found naked.
- 4 For indeed while we are in this tent, we groan, being burdened, because we do not want to be unclothed but to be clothed, so that what is mortal will be swallowed up by life.
- 5 Now He who prepared us for this very purpose is God, who gave to us the Spirit as a pledge.
- 6 Therefore, being always of good courage,

LIFE LESSONS-

> 4:7 — We have this treasure in earthen vessels, so that the surpassing greatness of the power will be of God and not from ourselves.

Then we think that we must be strong and capable in order to serve God, we miss the point of how He works entirely. We are like jars of clay—common, weak, and valued by what we contain. It is Christ in us who gives us worth, power, wisdom, and joy. And when He accomplishes His will through us, He does so in a manner that is far above and beyond our human abilities so that others will see what He has done and want to know Him, too.

> 4:8, 9 — We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not despairing; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed.

God will allow you to be tried to the breaking point but not beyond. Why? To shake loose and press out every area that you rely upon apart from Him. The Lord does not want to destroy you—He wants to make you stronger. But He can only do that by showing you the frailty of your strengths and earthly comforts so you will depend on His.

> 4:10 — Always carrying about in the body the dying of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our body.

Concerning Jesus, John the Baptist said, "He must increase, but I must decrease" (John 3:30). We must constantly allow our rights to ourselves, our sin nature, our fleshly pursuits, and our expectations to die so that Christ can shine through us and others will be saved (12:23–26).

> 4:16 — We do not lose heart, but though our outer man is decaying, yet our inner man is being renewed day by day.

God teaches you humility, keeps you dependent upon Him, shows you how to follow Him, and protects you from pride through trials. The good news is that the dark moments of your life will last only so long as is necessary for the Lord to accomplish His purpose. If you're obediently committed to Him, your relationship with Him will grow more than you ever believed possible. Therefore, whenever you experience a trial, thank God for what He is doing and commit yourself to honoring Him in all things.

> 4:17 — Momentary, light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison.

In y sacrifice we make or hardship we endure for the Lord's sake and in obedience to His commands never goes unnoticed. We are assured that He will amply reward what we suffered and bless us for our faithfulness to Him (Mark 10:28–30).

> 4:18 — We look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

God's perspective is better than our own because He not only sees the things we do, but He also observes factors and issues that are not possible for us to perceive. This is why the Lord often does not remove our problems from us, although we pray for Him to do so—because He is producing qualities in us that are important in view of eternity.

and knowing that while we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord—

- > 7 for we walk by faith, not by sight—
- ▶ 8 we are of good courage, I say, and prefer rather to be absent from the body and to be at home with the Lord.
- ▶ 9 Therefore we also have as our ambition, whether at home or absent, to be pleasing to Him.
- ➤ 10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may be recompensed for his deeds in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or had
 - 11 Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are made manifest to God; and I hope that we are made manifest also in your consciences.
 - 12 We are not again commending ourselves to you but are giving you an occasion to be proud of us, so that you will have an answer for those who take pride in appearance and not in heart.

- 13 For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are of sound mind, it is for you.
- 14 For the love of Christ controls us, having concluded this, that one died for all, therefore all died;
- 15 and He died for all, so that they who live might no longer live for themselves, but for Him who died and rose again on their behalf.
- 16 Therefore from now on we recognize no one according to the flesh; even though we have known Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know Him in this way no longer.
- 17 Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a  new creature; the old things passed away; behold, new things have come.
- 18 Now all these things are from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation,
- 19 namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and He has committed to us the word of reconciliation.

 19 namely, that God was in Christ reconciling their trespasses against them, and He has committed to us the word of reconciliation.
- 20 Therefore, we are ambassadors for

LIFE LESSONS

> 5:7 — We walk by faith, not by sight.

It is easy to become distracted by the fallen nature of our bodies. But Paul writes that we are supposed to walk by faith and not by sight because we await the resurrection of our bodies. This means that we do not have to fear death or suffering (John 17:3). One day, we will see the Savior and receive a perfect body that is unaffected by the sin and destruction of this broken world.

> 5:8 — We are of good courage, I say, and prefer rather to be absent from the body and to be at home with the Lord.

s believers, when we are absent from the body when we die—we will immediately be with the Lord in heaven. All the pain and sorrow will be gone, and we will enjoy fellowship with Jesus Christ forever (John 14:1–3; Rev. 21). This is the reason we can have hope for the future. The very best God has to offer is yet to come after the resurrection of all of us who believe in His Son.

> 5:9 — We also have as our ambition, whether at home or absent, to be pleasing to Him.

If we love the Lord, we will make it our aim and our delight to please Him by the way we live. Why? Because it does not make sense for us to rely on God for our eternal future while doubting His instruction and provision for today. If we desire to make our faith in Him sure and mature in our relationship with Him, we must trust and obey Him no matter what circumstances we face.

> 5:10 — We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may be recompensed for his deeds in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad.

Christians will not face the Great White Throne judgment (Rev. 20:11–15), because when we trust Jesus to be our Savior, our names are written in the Lamb's Book of Life (Rev. 21:27). However, believers will face the judgment seat of Christ, which is sometimes referred to as the Bema seat. This is not a place of condemnation for us, but one of accountability—where we will be rewarded for the things we have done in faithful obedience to the Lord (1 Cor. 3:11–15).

> 5:14, 15 — The love of Christ controls us, having concluded this, that one died for all, therefore all died; and He died for all, so that they who live might no longer live for themselves, but for Him who died and rose again on their behalf.

o you think that God would have us relieve someone's hunger but not show them how to be saved from the fires of hell? Is it enough to give a drink of water or clothe someone without ever taking the opportunity to present the gospel? Of course not. If the love of Christ compels us to provide for people's earthly needs, how much more will His love cause us to show them the way to forgiveness and eternal life—their greatest need?

> 5:17 — If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creature; the old things passed away; behold, new things have come

The new birth experience is exactly what God says it is—a fresh beginning. When we are born again, we not only have our sin forgiven and our guilt removed, but we also receive the Holy Spirit—who comes to indwell us and live Christ's life through us. We can never be what we were before, because we have been born into His life—with a new spirit and nature. And because of that, our desires and goals should be conformed to those that God has for us.

> 5:19 — God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and He has committed to us the word of reconciliation.

God created us to be united with Him in an intimate love relationship, and He has entrusted us with the task of telling the world what He has done to make it possible for everyone who has faith in Him to enjoy eternal life and an intimate relationship with Him. Through the Cross, we have the privilege of embracing and enjoying His loving presence forever.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT ACCOUNTABILITY RELATIONSHIPS

2 Cor. 5:10

n an age of individual rights, the principle of accountability often runs strongly against the popular grain. Our pride, egotism, and self-sufficiency rebel against the concept of being accountable to one another for our conduct.

Yet accountability is a strong biblical teaching and concept that is crucial to our spiritual growth and fellowship with God. Scripture tells us that we are accountable to the Lord and also to others. We don't get to do whatever we please.

Godly accountability provides a wise set of checks and balances. Whether it be a supervisor at work or a personal friend, we need someone who is willing to admonish, encourage, and walk with us through trial and blessing. The Lord allows others to observe and confront us over our areas of weakness. In fact, a godly friend will not shrink back and tell us only what we want to hear.

Let's face it: nobody likes to admit his shortcomings. But by submitting to God or one in authority over us, we become spiritual winners. We stimulate our performance and help keep ourselves from turning freedom into a license to sin against the Lord.

We are free in Christ, but we are also bondservants of Christ.

Even though he was the preeminent apostle of his day, Paul remained accountable to his home church at Antioch, returning there on occasion to report on his journeys. He also was accountable to the leaders in Jerusalem. As a temperamental young preacher, Timothy was accountable to Paul. Jesus had sent out His disciples, not just for mutual support, but also for accountability.

Our ultimate accountability, of course, is to the Lord. "So then each one of us will give an account of himself to God" (Rom. 14:12). Knowing that we must one day answer to God should be a powerful incentive for holiness and obedience. "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may be recompensed for his deeds in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad" (2 Cor. 5:10).

Becoming a Christian does not relieve us of personal responsibility. Although our sins have been forgiven through Christ's sacrifice, we still are responsible for our behavior. What we do on earth matters. We are free in Christ, but we are also bondservants of Christ.

God has so designed us that we need to remain continually aware of our accountability to our all-knowing Creator, as well as our accountability in personal relationships. "Iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another" (Prov. 27:17).

See the Life Principles Index for further study:

- 28. No Christian has ever been called to "go it alone" in his or her walk of faith.
- 25. God blesses us so that we might bless others.

Christ, as though God were making an appeal through us; we beg you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.

➤ 21 He made Him who knew no sin to be sin on our behalf, so that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.

Their Ministry Commended

- AND working together with Him, we also urge you not to receive the grace of God in vain—
- \geq 2 for He says.

"At the acceptable time I listened to you, And on the day of salvation I helped you." Behold, now is "the acceptable time," behold, now is "the day of salvation"—

- 3 giving no cause for offense in anything, so that the ministry will not be discredited,
- 4 but in everything commending ourselves as servants of God, in much endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses,
 - 5 in beatings, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in sleeplessness, in hunger,

LIFE LESSONS

> 5:21 — He made Him who knew no sin to be sin on our behalf, so that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.

Abakkuk 1:13 says of God, "Your eyes are too pure to approve evil." This means that the Lord will not allow sin in His presence. So on the Cross, Jesus Christ took the iniquities of the whole world upon Himself—even though He never committed a single sin—so that we would not have to bear the penalty of our transgressions, which is death and separation from God for eternity (Rom. 6:23). He gave His life so that we could receive His righteousness and therefore have a relationship with Him forever (8:1–4; 1 Pet. 2:24).

> 6:1 — We also urge you not to receive the grace of God in vain.

Pe squander God's marvelous gift to us—or receive His grace in vain—by failing to draw upon His power to live in a godly way and persisting in our sinfulness, by continually trying to earn the salvation that was given to us freely, or by shifting our allegiance away from the Lord because of false teachers.

> 6:2 — "At the acceptable time I listened to you, and on the day of salvation I helped you." Behold, now is "the acceptable time," behold, now is "the day of salvation."

Gt never makes sense to put off a decision to accept God's offer of salvation. How many have waited too long? Why would anyone want to delay the joy that comes through a vital relationship with the Lord? When He calls, He wants immediate obedience. Today is the day to respond.

> 6:4 — In everything commending ourselves as servants of God, in much endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses.

That commends us to others in our walk with God is not our personal strength or triumphs, but our weaknesses. It is through the areas where we suffer and are inadequate that we exhibit our dependence upon Him.

> 6:10 — As sorrowful yet always rejoicing, as poor yet making many rich, as having nothing yet possessing all things.

How different the life of a believer is to be from that of one who has not received His grace! Instead of vainly pursuing happiness, riches, and power as the world does—and yet still finding no contentment—we are joyful and know we already possess all these things through Christ. We can endure no matter what happens, because God's presence gives us joy, energizes us, and empowers us for anything we must face.

> 6:14 — Do not be bound together with unbelievers; for what partnership have righteousness and lawlessness, or what fellowship has light with darkness?

God tells us not to be bound to unbelievers because of their influence on our lives. Did He say we should not love the lost? No. Did He tell us to treat them unkindly? No. Rather, He says we must be careful how we live. If the enemy gains a foothold in our lives by tempting us to compromise our faith and demonstration of God's love and forgiveness, he will make significant strides toward undermining our relationship with the Lord and our testimony for Him.

And you shall be sons and daughters to Me,"

Says the Lord Almighty.

Paul Reveals His Heart

- THEREFORE, having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.
 - Make room for us in your hearts; we wronged no one, we corrupted no one, we took advantage of no one.
 - I do not speak to condemn you, for I have said before that you are in our hearts to die together and to live together.
 - Great is my confidence in you; great is my boasting on your behalf. I am filled with comfort; I am overflowing with joy in all our affliction.
 - For even when we came into Macedonia our flesh had no rest, but we were afflicted on every side: conflicts without, fears within.
 - But God, who comforts the depressed, comforted us by the coming of Titus;
 - and not only by his coming, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted in you, as he reported to us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced even more.
 - For though I caused you sorrow by my letter, I do not regret it; though I did regret it—for I see that that letter caused you sorrow, though only for a while-
- I now rejoice, not that you were made sorrowful, but that you were made sorrowful to the point of repentance; for you were made sorrowful according to the will of God, so that you might not suffer loss in anything through us.
- ► 10 For the sorrow that is according to the will of God produces a repentance without regret, leading to salvation, but the sorrow of the world produces death.

- 11 For behold what earnestness this very thing, this godly sorrow, has produced in you: what vindication of yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, what avenging of wrong! In everything you demonstrated yourselves to be innocent in the matter.
- 12 So although I wrote to you, it was not for the sake of the offender nor for the sake of the one offended, but that your earnestness on our behalf might be made known to you in the sight of God.
- 13 For this reason we have been comforted.

And besides our comfort, we rejoiced even much more for the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all.

- 14 For if in anything I have boasted to him about you, I was not put to shame; but as we spoke all things to you in truth, so also our boasting before Titus proved to be the truth.
- 15 His affection abounds all the more toward you, as he remembers the obedience of you all, how you received him with fear and trembling.
- 16 I rejoice that in everything I have confidence in you.

Great Generosity

NOW, brethren, we wish to make known to you the grace of God which has been given in the churches of Macedonia,

- that in a great ordeal of affliction their abundance of joy and their deep poverty overflowed in the wealth of their liberality.
- For I testify that according to their ability. and beyond their ability, they gave of their own accord.
- begging us with much urging for the favor of participation in the support of the
- and this, not as we had expected, but they \triangleleft first gave themselves to the Lord and to us by the will of God.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 7:1 — Having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

he promises of God are meant to lead us to purity of life, but they do not do so automatically. As we wait in faith for them to be fulfilled, we learn to flee from sin, rely on Him, take comfort in His Word, and listen for His voice. Through His wonderful promises to us, we also realize He has a much better plan for us than we have for ourselves.

> 7:9 — I now rejoice, not that you were made sorrowful, but that you were made sorrowful to the point of repentance.

e need to hold other believers accountable out of love so that they will be restored in their relationship with the Lord—not so that they will feel ashamed. Never set a goal to hurt another, but instead communicate godly truth and concern so that person will be convicted of sin and choose to repent. When God transforms a heart, we gain a blessing.

7:10 — The sorrow that is according to the will of God produces a repentance without regret, leading to salvation, but the sorrow of the world produces death.

If your sorrow over sin does not lead to repentance, it has no value. Remember, Satan's goal is discouragement. He wants you to become frustrated, turning your anger inward and becoming depressed because these feelings undermine your relationship with the Lord. Godly sorrow leads to a change in the way you live and see things. It makes you stronger, because it helps you accept God's truth and unconditional forgiveness.

8:5 — They first gave themselves to the Lord and to us by the will of God.

Believers in Jerusalem were suffering badly. Along with a famine in the region (Acts 11:27–30), many had

- 6 So we urged Titus that as he had previously made a beginning, so he would also complete in you this gracious work as well.
- ▶ 7 But just as you abound in everything, in faith and utterance and knowledge and in all earnestness and in the alove we inspired in you, see that you abound in this gracious work also.
 - 8 I am not speaking this as a command, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity of your love also.
- > 9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sake He became poor, so that you through His poverty might become rich.
 - 10 I give my opinion in this matter, for this is to your advantage, who were the first to begin a year ago not only to do this, but also to desire to do it.
 - 11 But now finish doing it also, so that just as there was the readiness to desire it, so there may be also the completion of it by your ability.
 - 12 For if the readiness is present, it is acceptable according to what a person has, not according to what he does not have.
 - 13 For this is not for the ease of others and for your affliction, but by way of equality—
 - 14 at this present time your abundance being a supply for their need, so that their abundance also may become a supply for your need, that there may be equality;
 - 15 as it is written, "He who gathered much did not have too much, and he who gathered little had no lack."
- ➤ 16 But thanks be to God who puts the same earnestness on your behalf in the heart of Titus.
 - 17 For he not only accepted our appeal, but being himself very earnest, he has gone to you of his own accord.
 - 18 We have sent along with him the brother whose fame in the things of the gospel has spread through all the churches;

- 19 and not only this, but he has also been appointed by the churches to travel with us in this gracious work, which is being administered by us for the glory of the Lord Himself, and to show our readiness,
- 20 taking precaution so that no one will discredit us in our administration of this generous gift:
- 21 for we have regard for what is honorable, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.
- 22 We have sent with them our brother, whom we have often tested and found diligent in many things, but now even more diligent because of his great confidence in you.
- 23 As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker among you; as for our brethren, they are messengers of the churches, a glory to Christ.
- 24 Therefore openly before the churches, show them the proof of your love and of our reason for boasting about you.

God Gives Most

- 9 FOR it is superfluous for me to write to you about this ministry to the saints;
- 2 for I know your readiness, of which I boast about you to the Macedonians, namely, that Achaia has been prepared since last year, and your zeal has stirred up most of them.
- 3 But I have sent the brethren, in order that our boasting about you may not be made empty in this case, so that, as I was saying, you may be prepared;
- 4 otherwise if any Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we—not to speak of you—will be put to shame by this confidence.
- 5 So I thought it necessary to urge the been disowned by their families and had lost their ability to support themselves. To make matters even worse, they were being double-taxed by the Jewish and Roman authorities. Why were the Macedonian Christians so eager to help them? Because they were wholeheartedly committed to the Lord, and His priorities had become theirs.

> 8:7 — Just as you abound in everything . . . abound in this gracious work also.

Like the Macedonians, the Corinthians had pledged to give to the church in Jerusalem previously, but had not yet fulfilled their promise. God was teaching these believers to mature in their faith by actively showing His love to others—not just talking about it. We are called to help those who are suffering and in need so that the Lord will be glorified and the lost will come to faith in His salvation.

> 8:9 — You know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sake He became poor, so that you through His poverty might become rich.

The Lord Jesus left the magnificence and splendor of His kingdom in heaven—where He is adored and abounding in every way. He chose the limitation, suffering, and lowliness of a human body so He could personally demonstrate His great love to us. God is not after our time, talents, or bank accounts. He already owns the world and everything in it (Ex. 19:5). His greatest desire is to have a personal and intimate relationship with you for all eternity.

> 8:16, 17 — Thanks be to God who puts the same earnestness on your behalf in the heart of Titus. For . . . he has gone to you of his own accord.

Here we see the sovereignty of God and the free will of man working hand-in-hand. The Lord put a concern into Titus's heart, and Titus responded to Him in obedience, gladly acting on that concern of his own accord.

brethren that they would go on ahead to you and arrange beforehand your previously promised bountiful gift, so that the same would be ready as a bountiful gift and not affected by covetousness.

*6 Now this I say, he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.

7 Each one must do just as he has purposed in his heart, not grudgingly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

- 8 And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that always having all sufficiency in everything, you may have an abundance for every good deed;
 - 9 as it is written,

"HE SCATTERED ABROAD, HE GAVE TO THE POOR, HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS ENDURES FOREVER."

10 Now He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness;

11 you will be enriched in everything for all liberality, which through us is producing thanksgiving to God.

➤ 12 For the ministry of this service is not only fully supplying the needs of the saints, but is also overflowing through many thanksgivings to God.

13 Because of the proof given by this ministry, they will glorify God for your obedience to your confession of the gospel of Christ and for the liberality of your contribution to them and to all,

14 while they also, by prayer on your behalf, yearn for you because of the surpassing grace of God in you.

15 Thanks be to God for His indescribable \triangleleft gift!

Paul Describes Himself

9:6 — He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.

How do people get themselves into a financial crisis? They do so by failing to recognize that God is the owner of everything, and they are simply the managers. They don't acknowledge that the resources in their stewardship should be used in a manner that honors Him or that He will reward their faithfulness. Don't make the same mistake. Never make decisions based on balance sheets. Obey God in every area—including your finances. When you are generous with your faith in Him, you will find that His math yields a far greater return.

> 9:7 — Each one must do just as he has purposed in his heart, not grudgingly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

In giving, as in all other areas of Christian living, God wants our hearts to respond to Him in obedience. He wants willing, joyful, eager participation in His work, not grumbling or halfhearted compliance.

> 9:8 — God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that always having all sufficiency in everything, you may have an abundance for every good deed.

The word grace in the New Testament comes from the root word to rejoice. It means, "the absolutely free benefit or expression of loving-kindness, deeds which cause joy, and favor conferred." When Paul writes, "God is able to make all grace abound to you," it means that the Lord shows you a superabundance of kindness that will cause you immense joy. God wants you to enjoy life at its very best, and His grace makes it possible.

> 9:12 — The ministry of this service is not only fully supplying the needs of the saints, but is also overflowing through many thanksgivings to God.

The motivation for giving others food to eat and water to drink, for clothing the naked, for reaching out to the stranger, and for visiting the sick and the prisoner is the love of God. If you know Jesus as your Lord and Savior, you are already saved. You don't earn your salvation by doing these things; rather, you express your love for the Lord from the overflow of thankfulness in your heart.

> 9:15 — Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift!

The greatest gift we could ever receive is salvation through the death and resurrection of our Savior, Jesus Christ. The reason we should embrace the privilege of giving is out of love and thankfulness for all God has already provided for us.

> 10:3 — Though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh.

It is extremely important for us to understand that though we do not yet have our glorified bodies and still live in tents of flesh, we are involved in a real spiritual battle, and the enemy's goal is our destruction. The devil does everything he can to undermine our faith and impede our progress in God's will by putting temptations in our paths that appeal to our fleshly desires. Yet because the Spirit of the living God dwells within us, we can serve Him wholeheartedly in faith and win this war through obedience to Him.

> 10:5 — Taking every thought captive to the obedience of Christ.

Paul speaks a great deal about training the mind to think in a way that honors God because the mind is

- and we are ready to punish all disobedience, whenever your obedience is complete.
- You are looking at things as they are outwardly. If anyone is confident in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again within himself, that just as he is Christ's, so also are we.
- For even if I boast somewhat further about our authority, which the Lord gave for building you up and not for destroying you, I will not be put to shame.
- for I do not wish to seem as if I would terrify you by my letters.
- 10 For they say, "His letters are weighty and strong, but his personal presence is unimpressive and his speech contemptible.'
- 11 Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when absent, such persons we are also in deed when present.
- 12 For we are not bold to class or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves; but when they measure themselves by themselves and compare themselves with themselves, they are without understanding.
- 13 But we will not boast beyond our measure, but within the measure of the sphere which God apportioned to us as a measure, to reach even as far as you.
- 14 For we are not overextending ourselves, as if we did not reach to you, for we were the first to come even as far as you in the gospel
- 15 not boasting beyond our measure, that is, in other men's labors, but with the hope that as your faith grows, we will be, within our sphere, enlarged even more by you,
- 16 so as to preach the gospel even to the regions beyond you, and not to boast in what has been accomplished in the sphere of another.
- > 17 But he who boasts is to boast in the LORD.
 - 18 For it is not he who commends himself that is approved, but he whom the Lord commends.

Paul Defends His Apostleship

- I WISH that you would bear with me in a little foolishness; but indeed you are bearing with me.
- For I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy; for I betrothed you to one husband, so that to Christ I might present you as a pure virgin.
- But I am afraid that, as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your minds will be led astray from the simplicity and purity of devotion to Christ.
- For if one comes and preaches another Jesus whom we have not preached, or you receive a different spirit which you have not received, or a different gospel which you have not accepted, you bear this beautifully.
- For I consider myself not in the least inferior to the most eminent apostles.
- But even if I am unskilled in speech, yet I am not so in knowledge; in fact, in every way we have made this evident to you in all things.
- Or did I commit a sin in humbling myself so that you might be exalted, because I preached the gospel of God to you without charge?
- I robbed other churches by taking wages from them to serve you;
- and when I was present with you and was in need, I was not a burden to anyone; for when the brethren came from Macedonia they fully supplied my need, and in everything I kept myself from being a burden to you, and will continue to do so.
- 10 As the truth of Christ is in me, this boasting of mine will not be stopped in the regions of Achaia.
- 11 Why? Because I do not love you? God knows I do!
- 12 But what I am doing I will continue to do. so that I may cut off opportunity from those who desire an opportunity to be regarded just as we are in the matter about which they are
- 13 For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ.

the primary battlefield for spiritual warfare. Remember, what you focus your mind on has lasting ramifications. This is because a thought reaps an action, an action reaps a habit, a habit reaps your character, and your character reaps your destiny. Therefore, we must reject anything that does not honor Christ in our thinking (Phil. 4:8, 9; Col. 3:2).

10:17 — He who boasts is to boast in the LORD.

hose who brag about their accomplishments pridefully call attention to themselves—which has absolutely no value. Rather, we should rejoice in what Christ has done for us and give Him all the glory, honor, and praise (Jer. 9:24). Because only He is able to save us, transform our lives, and empower our ministries.

▶ 11:3 — I am afraid that, as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your minds will be led astray from the simplicity and purity of devotion to Christ.

od wants us to enjoy an intimate relationship with Him—that is His primary goal for our existence. He redeemed us by His grace so that we could spend eternity with Him. So the enemy does whatever he can to discourage us and prevent us from growing closer to the Lord. This is a mission that began in the Garden of Eden (Gen. 3) and continues with false teachers today. However, we do not have to fall for his tactics. We can resist the Evil One by staying faithful and obedient to the Lord and not falling for lies that contradict His Word.

LIFE PRINCIPLE 23

YOU CAN NEVER OUTGIVE GOD.

2 COR. 9:8

ing David knew that God had prospered him and given him rest from all his enemies. One day he looked around at his comfortable home and said to Nathan the prophet, "See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwells within tent curtains" (2 Sam. 7:2). He wanted to build a temple for God—no small undertaking.

But God had a much bigger gift in mind for David. He said, "The LORD also declares to you that the LORD will make a house for you . . . Your house and your kingdom shall endure before Me forever" (2 Sam. 7:11, 16).

This story powerfully reminds us that we can never outgive God. While He invites our gifts and offerings, He will always give us far more than we could possibly give Him. He will never be a debtor to anyone.

Jesus declared that anybody who gave one of His followers even a cup of water in His name would be lavishly rewarded (Mark 9:41). He once illustrated God's generosity by describing how a wealthy "Lord" rewarded servants with multiple cities in return for their doubling the little bit of money he had given them. Peter once boasted to the Lord, "Behold, we have left our own homes and followed You" (Luke 18:28). He probably expected a pat on the back. Instead Jesus told him, "Truly I say to you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, who will not receive many times as much at this time and in the age to come, eternal life" (vv. 29, 30).

In one of the clearest examples of this principle in Scripture, Jesus tells us, "Give, and it will be given to you. They will pour into your lap a good measure—pressed down, shaken together, and running over. For by your standard of measure it will be measured to you in return" (Luke 6:38).

It's just a fact: you can never outgive God.

The Old Testament prophet Malachi certainly believed this principle. Through him, God instructed the people to bring Him the full tithe and said, "'Test Me now in this,' says the LORD of hosts, 'if I will not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you a blessing until it overflows'" (Mal. 3:10).

To tithe is to give ten percent of our income to God for His work. All that we have is a gift from God; therefore, a tithe is a mere portion of what He has already given to us. If we obey God's Word and cheerfully give the portion He has requested of us, He will bless us and the work of His kingdom.

All that we have is a gift from God.

Years ago, God led us to purchase property for the expansion of First Baptist Atlanta. We began to pray that He would provide the funds we needed.

I also prayed specifically that He would show me what He wanted me to give. I had given financially, but sensed there was something more that He was requiring.

It wasn't long before He began to impress upon me to give my camera equipment to the building fund. I love photography. It is my favorite hobby. However, God's conviction was strong and to the point. There was no way I wanted to avoid making the right decision. I knew that my obedience would lead to blessing. If He wanted my cameras, I wanted to give them to Him. After all, He owned them anyway.

A few days later, I sold my equipment and gave the money to the building fund. Many of the other members of our congregation also gave personal possessions and treasures. It was a great time in our fellowship for seeking God's will with our finances and also allowing Him to prove His faithfulness to each one of us. When it came time to sign the paperwork for our new property, we had the money we needed and did not have to borrow a single, copper penny.

Several months later, a woman rang my doorbell. When I opened it, I noticed she had two very large shopping bags. She asked, "Are you Charles Stanley?" I didn't know what to think but I replied, "Yes, I am."

Then she said, "This is for you." She set the bags down and turned and walked away. I looked inside one of them and immediately recognized my camera equipment. God had returned every lens and every camera body to me. Is this the way He works? I believe it is. Many times, He tests us to see where our true devotion is located. Is it in "things," or is it in Him?

He challenges us to give Him the privilege to prove Himself and has promised to bless us in return (Prov. 3:9, 10). When we obey, He will protect our finances, just as He protected His obedient people in the Old Testament from the insects that otherwise would have devoured their crops.

The psalmist asked, "What shall I render to the LORD for all His benefits toward me?" (Ps. 116:12). The question could be translated, "How can I repay the Lord for all His goodness toward me?"

The answer is, we can't. No one can because nobody can outgive the Lord.

aul again defends his apostleship—not by citing his accomplishments and talents, but by reminding the believers in Corinth of all he had suffered. No person in their own strength could have survived the difficulties, burdens, trials, and persecutions that Paul did. They were evidence of Paul's dependence upon the Lord and of God's work through the apostle.

> 11:28 — There is the daily pressure on me of concern for all the churches.

Daul felt such a close connection with the churches he helped start that he took their troubles and challenges personally. Is the love we have for those we've led to the Lord so committed and faithful? Only through such close connections can we grow into the people God calls us to be and lead others to serve Him as well.

> 11:29 — Who is weak without my being weak? Who is led into sin without my intense concern?

The apostle Paul had been through so much in his obedience to the Lord, yet God worked through those trials to transform him into an effective minister of the gospel. He understood weakness and temptation, and he had experienced physical pain, sorrow, frustration, persecution, and fear. He could speak to people's deepest concerns and needs. Likewise, the Lord will use adversity in our lives to bring us into a deeper relationship with Himself and to equip us to reach those who need Him > 12:2 — A man was caught up to the third heaven.

Scripture mentions three heavens. The first surrounds the earth and produces rain, snow, and so forth. The second is what we know of as space, which contains the stars, sun, moon, planets, and all the galaxies. The third heaven is identified in Scripture as paradise.

on my own behalf I will not boast, except in regard to my weaknesses.

6 For if I do wish to boast I will not be foolish, for I will be speaking the truth; but I refrain from this, so that no one will credit me with more than he sees in me or hears from me.

A Thorn in the Flesh

- > 7 Because of the surpassing greatness of the revelations, for this reason, to keep me from exalting myself, there was given me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me—to keep me from exalting myself!
 - 8 Concerning this I implored the Lord three times that it might leave me.
- * 9 And He has said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is perfected in weakness." Most gladly, therefore, I will rather boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me.
- ➤ 10 Therefore I am well content with weaknesses, with insults, with distresses, with persecutions, with difficulties, for Christ's sake; for when I am weak, then I am strong.
 - 11 I have become foolish; you yourselves compelled me. Actually I should have been commended by you, for in no respect was I inferior to the most eminent apostles, even though I am a nobody.
 - 12 The signs of a true apostle were performed among you with all perseverance, by signs and wonders and miracles.
 - 13 For in what respect were you treated as inferior to the rest of the churches, except that I myself did not become a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong!
- ▶ 14 Here for this third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be a burden to you; for I do not seek what is yours, but you; for children are not responsible to save up for their parents, but parents for their children.

Strength in Weakness

2 COR. 12:7

As a young man, Paul trained under one of the greatest Jewish scholars of his time. He understood the elements of the Law and practiced them with great zeal. Yet when he came face-to-face with Jesus Christ, his life changed forever. He no longer viewed the world through merely human eyes. God gave him spiritual insight that far surpassed anything he had known.

Still, he had to be broken further so that he could be used in an even greater way. God allowed Paul to be buffeted by many severe trials in order to humble him and remove the potential for pride (2 Cor. 12:7). Through his times of weakness, the apostle Paul learned a new and unexpected principle: Weakness is strength.

When God humbles us before Him, He sees the meekness of our hearts and sends His strength and blessings into our lives. Frailty in a certain area should never bring embarrassment.

See the Life Principles Index for further study:

- 15. Brokenness is God's requirement for maximum usefulness.
- 26. Adversity is a bridge to a deeper relationship with God.

> 12:7 — Because of the surpassing greatness of the revelations, for this reason, to keep me from exalting myself, there was given me a thorn in the flesh.

aul understood that the reason for adversity was to keep him humble. The Lord was revealing astounding truth to him, and he could not afford to become prideful. So whenever he would have a reason for fleshly confidence, God would remind him of how dependent he truly was upon the Lord for everything in his life. Paul rejoiced in his sufferings because they kept him close to God and obedient to Him.

> 12:9 — Most gladly, therefore, I will rather boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

The gospel is full of seeming contradictions. If you want to be first, you must be last. If you want to save your life, you must lose it. And if you want to be strong, you must glory in your weakness. Brokenness is God's requirement for maximum usefulness. This is because it is when you are truly helpless and without resources that you must count on God's provision. His power enables you to triumph, and all the glory belongs to Him.

> 12:10 — I am well content with weaknesses, with insults, with distresses, with persecutions, with difficulties, for Christ's sake; for when I am weak, then I am strong.

If you want to drive the pride from your character, embrace the hardships and struggles that God allows into your life. As Paul found out, the Lord's loving-kindness is more than sufficient to help you when you're at your weakest. Because it is in that moment of complete poverty—where pride cannot survive—that you're genuinely able to receive God's grace and see that everything good in your life comes from His hand.

> 12:14 — I will not be a burden to you; for I do not seek what is yours, but you.

Paul lived the way he did as a reflection of how God worked in his own life. Paul didn't want the material

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S OUESTIONS

What value could there possibly be in weakness?

2 COR. 12:9

Jone of us can escape the pressures of life. Most of us know what it feels like to be disappointed. We know the painfulness of embarrassment, the sting of rejection, and the sorrow of failure. There will always be times when our circumstances seem to become overwhelming.

What is out of control in your life? Is there a financial need? Maybe you face a relationship crisis and are urgently praying for God's wisdom.

Regardless of your situation, you can trust this principle: Whatever brings you to your knees in weakness carries the greatest potential for your personal success and spiritual victory.

Even though Paul could have listed many personal accomplishments, he chose to tell his audience what he saw as the key to experiencing a victorious life: accepting his weakness so that the strength of Christ might live fully in him. "I will rather boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me" (2 Cor. 12:9).

for your souls. If I love you more, am I to be loved less?

16 But be that as it may, I did not burden you myself; nevertheless, crafty fellow that I am, I took you in by deceit.

17 Certainly I have not taken advantage of you through any of those whom I have sent to you, have I?

18 I urged Titus to go, and I sent the brother with him. Titus did not take any advantage of you, did he? Did we not conduct ourselves in the same spirit and walk in the same steps?

19 All this time you have been thinking that

We do not know the trial that Paul faced; he called it a "thorn in the flesh" (v. 7). In the Greek, the word thorn means a stake used for torturing or impaling someone—no gentle affliction! He writes that it buffeted him, indicating that the trial was either ongoing or recurring. When the apostle felt he could no longer withstand the blows, God reassured him that His grace was sufficient for anything he faced.

Strength that withstands the stresses and blows of this life comes from only one Source—the eternal, indwelling presence of God. What the world views as strong is really nothing more than weakness under wraps.

When we accept our weaknesses and the fact that we cannot handle life on our own, God goes to work. He sends encouragement and a sense of creativity, helping us to try new avenues that lead to hope and fresh beginnings.

Are you weary from trying? Has exhaustion left its mark? Are you afraid others will see your weaknesses and laugh? Could a thorn in your life expose your deepest fear? Let it go. Release your fears to Jesus who loves you. Let Him strengthen you. Nothing compares to the freedom that waits for you within His loving arms. Nothing will ever bring more completion to your heart and soul than knowing the unconditional love of God. It is yours today—if you choose it.

we are defending ourselves to you. Actually, it is in the sight of God that we have been speaking in Christ; and all for your upbuilding, beloved.

20 For I am afraid that perhaps when I come I may find you to be not what I wish and may be found by you to be not what you wish; that perhaps there will be strife, jealousy, angry tempers, disputes, slanders, gossip, arrogance, disturbances;

> 12:21 — I may mourn over many of those who have sinned in the past and not repented of the impurity, immorality and sensuality which they have practiced.

in the past and not repented of the impurity, immorality and sensuality which they have practiced.

Examine Yourselves

 $13^{\rm THIS}$ is the third time I am coming to you. Every fact is to be confirmed by the testimony of two or three witnesses.

I have previously said when present the second time, and though now absent I say in advance to those who have sinned in the past and to all the rest as well, that if I come again I will not spare anyone,

3 since you are seeking for proof of the Christ who speaks in me, and who is not weak toward you, but mighty in you.

4 For indeed He was crucified because of weakness, yet He lives because of the power of God. For we also are weak an Him, yet we will live with Him because of the power of God directed toward you.

5 Test yourselves to see if you are in the faith; examine yourselves! Or do you not recognize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you—unless indeed you fail the test?

6 But I trust that you will realize that we ourselves do not fail the test.

7 Now we pray to God that you do no wrong; not that we ourselves may appear approved, but that you may do what is right, even though we may appear unapproved.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but only for the truth.

9 For we rejoice when we ourselves are weak but you are strong; this we also pray for, that you be made complete.

10 For this reason I am writing these things while absent, so that when present I need not use severity, in accordance with the authority which the Lord gave me for building up and not for tearing down.

11 Finally, brethren, rejoice, be made complete, be comforted, be like-minded, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you.

12 Greet one another with a holy kiss.

13 All the saints greet you.

14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and 4 the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

> 13:3 — Christ . . . is not weak toward you, but mighty in you.

Ome mistake the grace, love, and patience of Jesus for weakness. When He does not immediately respond to rebellion with discipline, we may feel tempted to sin more boldly. But Paul warns us never to confuse God's love with any limitation or permissiveness on His part. The Lord is merely giving us the opportunity to repent on our own out of love for Him.

> 13:5 — Test yourselves to see if you are in the faith; examine yourselves! Or do you not recognize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you?

espite the Corinthians' problems, Paul could see their genuine spiritual gifts, their repentance, and their love for God, and he wanted these things to encourage them to further growth. Likewise, we must always make sure we are maturing in our walks with Him by examining whether or not we are expressing His likeness and character in increasing measure (2 Pet. 1:3–8).

> 13:14 — The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

In this simple but beautiful benediction, Paul calls attention to all three Persons of the Trinity. As the Godhead, He works together for our spiritual growth and joy in the Christian life.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE

GALATIANS

Soon after some of the churches in the region of Galatia were founded, many of the Jewish Christians began to question whether Gentile believers should be required to keep the traditions and laws of Judaism to attain salvation. This was similar to the grace versus works debate fueled by the Judaizers in Jerusalem and Syrian Antioch (Acts 15). Paul's letter to the Galatians is a vigorous attack against the claims of these Jewish believers. He asserts, "A man is not justified by the works of the Law but through faith in Christ Jesus . . . since by the works of the Law no flesh will be justified" (Gal. 2:16).

Paul begins his letter by establishing his credentials as an apostle who received his message directly from God. Blessing comes from the Lord on the basis of obedience and faith, not by adherence to rituals and regulations. While the law declares men guilty and imprisons them, Jesus' grace sets men free to enjoy liberty eternally. This, however, is not to be interpreted as a license to sin. On the contrary, we are to maintain our freedom in Christ by walking in His Spirit and producing the fruit of righteousness (Gal. 5:16–25). Through His grace, we are empowered to crucify "the flesh with its passions and desires" (v. 24) and are able to please the Lord by living a godly, obedient lifestyle (vv. 13, 14).

Paul urges the Galatians to consider the utter foolishness of trying to earn through their own efforts what had already been given to them by the grace, power, and wisdom of God (Gal. 3:3). Only by following Jesus' example and by depending upon the Holy Spirit for strength and direction could they hope to once more experience the sheer joy they felt at the beginning of their Christian life (4:15–20).

The book is called Pros Galatas, "To the Galatians," and it is the only letter of Paul specifically addressed to a group of churches ("to the churches of Galatia," 1:2).

Theme: A defense of the doctrine of justification by faith in Jesus Christ.

Author: The apostle Paul.

Time: One theory holds that Paul wrote Galatians circa A.D. 53–54 to churches in north-central Asia Minor. Another contends that he wrote the book to churches in southern Galatia circa A.D. 48–49, which would make this Paul's first biblical letter.

Structure: After a short introduction, Paul denounces any divergence from the gospel of grace (1:1–9). He then defends his apostleship and core doctrines (1:10—2:21). Next he explains justification by faith and the liberty believers have in Christ (3:1—4:31). As he ends his letter, he gives some practical applications of his teachings (5:1—6:10), then offers some concluding remarks (6:11–18).

As you read Galatians, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

- 24. To live the Christian life is to allow Jesus to live His life in and through us. See Galatians 2:20; page 1371.
- 1. Our intimacy with God—His highest priority for our lives—determines the impact of our lives. See Galatians 4:6; page 1375.
- 22. To walk in the Spirit is to obey the initial promptings of the Spirit. See Galatians 5:22, 23; page 1376.
- 6. You reap what you sow, more than you sow, and later than you sow. See Galatians 6:7; page 1378.

Introduction

- PAUL, an apostle (not sent from men nor through the agency of man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised Him from the dead).
 - and all the brethren who are with me, To the churches of Galatia:
- 3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ,
 - 4 who gave Himself for our sins so that He might rescue us from this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father,
 - 5 to whom be the glory forevermore. Amen.

Perversion of the Gospel

- ▶ 6 I am amazed that you are so quickly deserting Him who called you by the grace of Christ, for a different gospel;
 - 7 which is really not another; only there are some who are disturbing you and want to distort the gospel of Christ.
- 8 But even if we, or an angel from heaven, should preach to you a gospel contrary to what we have preached to you, he is to be accursed!
 - 9 As we have said before, so I say again now, if any man is preaching to you a gospel contrary to what you received, he is to be accursed!

10 For am I now seeking the favor of men, or of God? Or am I striving to please men? If I were still trying to please men, I would not be a bond-servant of Christ.

Paul Defends His Ministry

- 11 For I would have you know, brethren, that ≺ the gospel which was preached by me is not according to man.
- 12 For I neither received it from man, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a revelation of Jesus Christ.
- 13 For you have heard of my former manner of life in Judaism, how I used to persecute the church of God beyond measure and tried to destroy it;
- 14 and I was advancing in Judaism beyond many of my contemporaries among my countrymen, being more extremely zealous for my ancestral traditions.
- 15 But when God, who had set me apart even from my mother's womb and called me through His grace, was pleased
- 16 to reveal His Son in me so that I might preach Him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood,
- 17 nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me; but I went away to Arabia, and returned once more to Damascus.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 1:1 — God the Father.

od is not distant—He is near to you and faithful to help you. Often, we receive our idea of who the Lord is from our earthly fathers, but He does not have human faults or failings. God is trustworthy, strong, and true. He loves you unconditionally. And you can always depend on Him because He always acts in your best interest.

> 1:3, 4 — The Lord Jesus Christ . . . gave Himself for our sins so that He might rescue us from this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father.

Gesus saved us out of this evil age—a time when people do and worship whatever they please, but find no fulfillment, love, or comfort. He does this so that we might become "blameless and innocent, children of God above reproach in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you appear as lights in the world" (Phil. 2:15).

> 1:6 — I am amazed that you are so quickly deserting Him who called you by the grace of Christ, for a different gospel.

The churches in the region of Galatia were being led astray by the Judaizers—Jewish Christians who thought Gentile believers should be required to keep the law in order to attain salvation (Acts 15:1, 5). Paul was astounded that the people would be so easily influenced by the Judaizers' claims and so quickly forget that salvation was by the grace of God and not by works. Yet we do the same thing whenever we try to earn God's love instead of just obeying Him out of thankfulness.

> 1:8 — Even if we, or an angel from heaven, should preach to you a gospel contrary to what we have preached to you, he is to be accursed!

Thenever someone advances a message other than the gospel of Jesus Christ or deviates from what the Bible clearly teaches, run for your life. That person promotes death, not life. Gentile believers were confused because they knew Jesus was a Jew and thought Jewish Christians would understand His requirements better than they did. Although this was true in part, the Judaizers were perverting the gospel of grace by adding unnecessary requirements to it.

> 1:11 — I would have you know, brethren, that the gospel which was preached by me is not according to man.

Pe do not have a responsibility to please other people because the gospel of salvation by grace through faith—by which we receive new life through our risen Savior, Jesus Christ—is not of human invention. Paul did not conceive it, nor did the other disciples. It comes directly from God—and He is the One we strive to serve and honor because He is the only One who has a right to judge the living and the dead (Acts 10:42, 43).

> 1:15, 16 — God . . . was pleased to reveal His Son in me so that I might preach Him among the Gentiles.

Daul presents a biographical sketch of what happened to him when he was saved on the Damascus Road. He was opposed to Jesus Christ and the church until the Lord humbled him (Acts 9:1–22; 22:3–21). With this testimony, he establishes his credentials as a true apostle, which the Judaizers could not counter. Often, we may believe that our trials disqualify us from service, but the Lord uses them to humble us, get our attention, and teach us His ways (Phil. 3:7–11).

18 Then three years later I went up to Jerusalem to become acquainted with Cephas, and stayed with him fifteen days.

19 But I did not see any other of the apostles except James, the Lord's brother.

20 (Now in what I am writing to you, I assure you before God that I am not lying.)

21 Then I went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia.

22 I was still unknown by sight to the churches of Judea which were in Christ;

23 but only, they kept hearing, "He who once persecuted us is now preaching the faith which he once tried to destroy."

24 And they were glorifying God because of me.

The Council at Jerusalem

2 THEN after an interval of fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus along also.

2 It was because of a revelation that I went up; and I submitted to them the gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but I did so in private to those who were of reputation, for fear that I might be running, or had run, in vain.

3 But not even Titus, who was with me, though he was a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised.

▶ 4 But it was because of the false brethren secretly brought in, who had sneaked in to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, in order to bring us into bondage.

5 But we did not yield in subjection to them for even an hour, so that the truth of the gospel would remain with you.

6 But from those who were of high reputation (what they were makes no difference to me; God shows no partiality)—well, those who were of reputation contributed nothing to me. 7 But on the contrary, seeing that I had been entrusted with the gospel to the uncircumcised, just as Peter had been to the circumcised

8 (for He who effectually worked for Peter in his apostleship to the circumcised effectually worked for me also to the Gentiles),

9 and recognizing the grace that had been given to me, James and Cephas and John, who were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, so that we might go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised.

10 They only asked us to remember the poor—the very thing I also was eager to do.

Peter (Cephas) Opposed by Paul

11 But when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he stood condemned.

12 For prior to the coming of certain men \triangleleft from James, he used to eat with the Gentiles; but when they came, he began to withdraw and hold himself aloof, fearing the party of the circumcision.

13 The rest of the Jews joined him in ≺ hypocrisy, with the result that even Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy.

14 But when I saw that they were not straightforward about the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas in the presence of all, "If you, being a Jew, live like the Gentiles and not like the Jews, how is it that you compel the Gentiles to live like Jews?

15 "We are Jews by nature and not sinners from among the Gentiles:

16 nevertheless knowing that a man is not ✓ justified by the works of the Law but through faith in Christ Jesus, even we have believed in Christ Jesus, so that we may be justified by

LIFE LESSONS-

> 2:4 — False brethren secretly . . . sneaked in to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, in order to bring us into bondage.

The Judaizers sent spies to see whether Paul was requiring new Gentile believers to be circumcised, as was customary in the Jewish religion (Gen. 17:9–14; Acts 15:1, 5). They probably believed they were guarding the faith, but what they were really doing was being distracted by issues that were no longer important and creating conflict within the church. There is something about freedom that many people, even within the church, simply cannot tolerate. They will try all sorts of tactics, both obvious and veiled, to bring you under their control. Don't let them. Trust in God.

> 2:12 — Prior to the coming of certain men from James, he used to eat with the Gentiles; but when they came, he began to withdraw and hold himself aloof, fearing the party of the circumcision.

The Law discouraged faithful Jews from consorting with Gentiles (Deut. 7:1–6). However, when Jesus announced the Great Commission, He included non-Jews in His command, saying, "Make disciples of all the nations" (Matt. 28:19). Peter was faithful to this mission until some Jewish Christians began to criticize him (Acts 11:2, 3).

> 2:13 — The rest of the Jews joined him in hypocrisy, with the result that even Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy.

Pe should never imagine that our choices affect only ourselves and no one else. Peter led Cornelius and his household to the Lord even though they were Gentiles (Acts 10), but then refused to eat with other Gentiles because of pressures from his Jewish brethren (Gal. 2:12). He did not intend for his hypocritical example to influence others, but it did. Our responsibility is to obey God and leave the consequences to Him because that is the only way to be sure that we are building the church and not harming it by our actions.

> 2:16 — A man is not justified by the works of the Law but through faith in Christ Jesus . . . since by the works of the Law no flesh will be justified.

Pe cannot keep the Ten Commandments or abide by the Sermon on the Mount and expect it to be sufficient to save us. In fact, we cannot do anything to compel faith in Christ and not by the works of the Law; since by the works of the Law no flesh will be justified.

17 "But if, while seeking to be justified in Christ, we ourselves have also been found sinners, is Christ then a minister of sin? May it never be!

18 "For if I rebuild what I have once destroyed, I prove myself to be a transgressor. ➤ 19 "For through the Law I died to the Law, so that I might live to God.

➤ 20 "I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me.

21 "I do not nullify the grace of God, for if righteousness comes through the Law, then Christ died needlessly."

Faith Brings Righteousness

3 YOU foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was publicly portrayed as crucified?

- 2 This is the only thing I want to find out from you: did you receive the Spirit by the works of the Law, or by hearing with faith?
- ➤ 3 Are you so foolish? Having begun by the Spirit, are you now being perfected by the flesh?
 - 4 Did you suffer so many things in vain—if indeed it was in vain?

- 5 So then, does He who provides you with the Spirit and works miracles among you, do it by the works of the Law, or by hearing with faith?
- 6 Even so Abraham believed God, and it ≺ was reckoned to him as righteousness.
- 7 Therefore, be sure that it is those who are of faith who are sons of Abraham.
- 8 The Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, saying, "ALL THE NATIONS WILL BE BLESSED IN YOU."
- 9 So then those who are of faith are blessed with Abraham, the believer.
- 10 For as many as are of the works of the Law are under a curse; for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who does not abide by all things written in the book of the law, to perform them."
- 11 Now that no one is justified by the Law before God is evident; for, "The righteous man shall live by faith."
- $12\,$ However, the Law is not of faith; on the contrary, "He who practices them shall live by them."

LIFE LESSONS-

the Lord to forgive us. Our only choice is to look to the Cross and accept that when Jesus died at Calvary, His shed blood paid our sin-debt in full. Salvation is only attained through faith in His great sacrifice.

> 2:19 — "Through the Law I died to the Law, so that I might live to God."

Through the law, we realize our sinfulness and our helplessness to save ourselves (Rom. 7:7). When we trust in Jesus and so receive eternal life, we don't somehow get around the law. Rather, Jesus fulfilled the whole law, and by identifying with Him in His death and resurrection, we do too (Rom. 8:2–4).

> 2:20 — I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith.

Living the Christian life does not mean that we just try to do our best. Rather, to live the Christian life means that we allow Jesus Christ to live in and through us by faith. When we invite Christ to work in our lives and obey His commands, we become His representatives, and He works through us so others will be saved.

> 3:3 — Are you so foolish? Having begun by the Spirit, are you now being perfected by the flesh?

Even though the Galatian believers had been redeemed by God's grace, they thought that to maintain their salvation and to grow in Him, they would have to work hard by observing the Law of Moses. But what is begun by the Spirit must be completed by Him as well. The entire Christian experience is to be lived by faith in God's provision, from beginning to end. We are justified, sanctified, and glorified by His grace, which we lay hold of by trusting and obeving Him.

> 3:6 — Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness.

God did not bless Abraham because of the sacrifices he brought. The Lord blessed Abraham because he obeyed Him—because he had faith that God's commands were good and trustworthy. In fact throughout Israel's history, it was never the offerings that brought the people forgiveness. Those sacrifices only foreshadowed the coming of Jesus Christ and His death at Calvary. God always blesses obedience, and obedience always follows genuine faith. If we do not obey, it is because we do not truly believe (Heb. 3:18, 19).

> 3:13 — Christ redeemed us from the curse of the Law, having become a curse for us—for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree."

The law is a curse to us in that it denounces our sin and therefore condemns us to eternal separation from God. Jesus, our sinless Savior, accepted the punishment we deserved when He willingly went to the Cross. This is no small sacrifice. The most highly exalted Son of the Living God was cursed so that we could be reconciled to Him. Truly "all our righteous deeds are like a filthy garment" in comparison (Is. 64:6).

LIFE PRINCIPLE 24

TO LIVE THE CHRISTIAN LIFE IS TO ALLOW JESUS TO LIVE HIS LIFE IN AND THROUGH US.

GAL. 2:20

any Christians today seem content to live what they think is an adequate Christian life. They believe that if they go to church, read their Bible occasionally, and say their prayers once in a while, they will be all right with God. Occasionally, they may be inspired to go above and beyond their normal routine and volunteer to serve others as an usher, a member of a church committee, or even go on a short-term mission trip. Though they go through the motions of being a "good Christian," they do not enjoy the power, peace, and joy that should come with the abundant life Iesus promised (John 10:10). Eventually, the counterfeit Christian life they are living becomes a burden and does not comfort them when the storms of adversity assail.

This was not what you were created for. God does not call you or any believer to a marginal Christian life characterized by chores and rituals. He desires to have a daily relationship with you where you experience His presence and trust Him for wisdom, courage, and strength in all situations. With every step you take, decision you make, conversation you have, and thought you entertain, the Lord wants to glorify Himself through you. He desires to shine in your life—with His love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control illuminating your unique talents, traits, and personality as you walk in obedience to Him.

In other words, to live the Christian life is to allow Jesus to live in and through you. That is why Paul wrote, "I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me" (Gal. 2:20).

How do you allow Jesus to do so? In what way does He live in and through you? If these two questions seem difficult or confusing to you, you aren't alone. Many people never realize how powerfully Christ could demonstrate His life through them. This is because many believe that the key to living the Christian life starts with pious acts, when it really begins with a deep, intimate relationship with Him.

Therefore, to answer the first question: How do you allow Jesus to do this?—you must realize the answer comes by working on your relationship with Christ. You do this through Bible study, prayer, worship, and fellowship with other believers. You not only learn about Him, but you must also listen to Him, because He will teach you how to love Him, live for Him, and walk in His ways.

The answer to the second question: In what way does He live in and through you?—is as unique as each believer who follows Him. This is because He has a special purpose for your life, and the most important thing you can ever do is simply obey Him—no matter what He tells you to do. God will allow situations and troubles in your life that only He can solve. This is so He can demonstrate His glory, power, love, and wisdom through you.

Is there anything distracting you from having an intimate relationship with the Lord? Have you failed to trust God's sovereignty? Are you worried that you're not doing enough to deserve a relationship with Him or that you could lose the eternal life He has given you? Then you need to return to the basic truth that your salvation is through faith in Christ and not by works. There is absolutely nothing you can do to earn it or be worthy of it. Therefore, there is nothing you can do or fail to do that would cause you to forfeit it either.

The issue is not your salvation but the impact of your life for Christ and the joy and fulfillment you receive from Him. God does not call you to an adequate life—He wants it to be extraordinary. However, for you to experience the life He planned for you, you must stop being distracted by peripheral issues and focus your attention completely on Him. Can you do it? Can you trust Jesus to live His life through you and take care of all that troubles you?

Of course you can! The God who redeems you can teach you how to live for Him. The Savior you trusted for your eternity is more than capable of taking care of all the matters that burden you daily and shining through you brightly so that others can know Him and be saved. Therefore, die to your notions of what the Christian life should be so you can experience true life in Him.

He has a special purpose for your life, and the most important thing you can ever do is simply obey Him—no matter what He tells you to do.

Intent of the Law

- 15 Brethren, I speak in terms of human relations: even though it is only a man's covenant, yet when it has been ratified, no one sets it aside or adds conditions to it.
- ➤ 16 Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. He does not say, "And to seeds," as referring to many, but rather to one, "And to your seed," that is, Christ.
 - 17 What I am saying is this: the Law, which came four hundred and thirty years later, does not invalidate a covenant previously ratified by God, so as to nullify the promise.
 - 18 For if the inheritance is based on law, it is no longer based on a promise; but God has granted it to Abraham by means of a promise.
 - 19 Why the Law then? It was added because of transgressions, having been ordained through angels by the agency of a mediator, until the seed would come to whom the promise had been made.
 - 20 Now a mediator is not for one party only; whereas God is only one.
 - 21 Is the Law then contrary to the promises of God? May it never be! For if a law had been given which was able to impart life, then righteousness would indeed have been based on law.
 - 22 But the Scripture has shut up everyone under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.
 - 23 But before faith came, we were kept in custody under the law, being shut up to the faith which was later to be revealed.

- 24 Therefore the Law has become our tutor \prec to lead us to Christ, so that we may be justified by faith.
- 25 But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor.
- 26 For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus.
- 27 For all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ.
- 28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is ← neither slave nor free man, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.
- 29 And if you belong to Christ, then you are *Abraham's descendants, heirs according to promise.

Sonship in Christ

- 4 NOW I say, as long as the heir is a child, he does not differ at all from a slave although he is owner of everything,
- 2 but he is under guardians and managers until the date set by the father.
- 3 So also we, while we were children, were held in bondage under the elemental things of the world.
- 4 But when the fullness of the time came, ≺ God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the Law.
- 5 so that He might redeem those who were under the Law, that we might receive the adoption as sons.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 3:16 — The promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed He does not say, "And to seeds," as referring to many, but rather to one, "And to your seed," that is, Christ.

Qual is referring to God's promise to Abraham in Genesis 22:18, "In your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed." The Lord fulfilled this promise to Abraham through Jesus Christ (Acts 3:25, 26; Rev. 5:9; 7:9, 10). Because of Christ, every person from every country and tribe on earth has the blessing of being able to know God.

> 3:24 — The law has become our tutor to lead us to Christ, so that we may be justified by faith.

The purpose of the law was to lead us to a complete realization of our inadequacy—to show us that we can never make ourselves acceptable to God by our own efforts. We are absolutely dependent upon Him to provide it for us, which He did through Jesus Christ our Savior.

> 3:28 — There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free man, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

Daul asserted that the ground is level at the foot of the Cross for all people. We all come to Christ as sinners—with the same level of need for salvation. It is only by faith in His grace that we are redeemed. God does not play favorites after we are saved, either—neither by economic or social status, nor by the role we are called to fulfill (Acts 10:34; Rom. 2:11). He makes us into a single unit, the body of Christ, and calls us all to serve Him in obedience.

> 4:4 — When the fullness of the time came, God sent forth His Son.

Ithough Israel prayed for the Messiah to come during its many terrible times of national crisis, God waited until the world was ready to receive His Son—when the message of the gospel could be carried to the ends of the earth. This came after Alexander the Great spread the Greek culture throughout the known world, creating a common language for missionaries to communicate the message. It also happened after the Romans created extensive highways connecting the nations and making the roads and seas safer for travel.

> 4:5 — So that He might redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption as sons.

Gesus came to take our place—that is what redemption means. He gave His life so that we could receive forgiveness for our sins. But we are not only pardoned of our iniquities, we also are adopted into His heavenly family forever. We have the great and irrevocable privilege of being considered His true sons and daughters—of being blessed as His heirs (Rom. 8:15–18) "with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ" (Eph. 1:3).

- ➤ 6 Because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba! Father!"
 - 7 Therefore you are no longer a slave, but a son; and if a son, then an heir through God.
 - 8 However at that time, when you did not know God, you were slaves to those which by nature are no gods.
 - 9 But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how is it that you turn back again to the weak and worthless elemental things, to which you desire to be enslaved all over again?
 - 10 You observe days and months and seasons and years.
 - 11 I fear for you, that perhaps I have labored over you in vain.
 - 12 I beg of you, brethren, become as I am, for I also have become as you are. You have done me no wrong;
 - 13 but you know that it was because of a bodily illness that I preached the gospel to you the first time;
 - 14 and that which was a trial to you in my bodily condition you did not despise or loathe, but you received me as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus Himself.
 - 15 Where then is that sense of blessing you had? For I bear you witness that, if possible, you would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me.
 - 16 So have I become your enemy by telling you the truth?
 - 17 They eagerly seek you, not commendably, but they wish to shut you out so that you will seek them.
 - 18 But it is good always to be eagerly sought in a commendable manner, and not only when I am present with you.
- ▶ 19 My children, with whom I am again in labor until Christ is formed in you—
 - 20 but I could wish to be present with you now and to change my tone, for I am perplexed about you.

Bond and Free

- 21 Tell me, you who want to be under law, do you not listen to the law?
- 22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the bondwoman and one by the free woman.
- 23 But the son by the bondwoman was born according to the flesh, and the son by the free woman through the promise.
- 24 This is allegorically speaking, for these women are two covenants: one proceeding from Mount Sinai bearing children who are to be slaves; she is Hagar.
- 25 Now this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children.
- 26 But the Jerusalem above is free; she is our mother.
- 27 For it is written,
 - "REJOICE, BARREN WOMAN WHO DOES NOT BEAR:
 - Break forth and shout, you who are not in labor;
 - FOR MORE NUMEROUS ARE THE CHILDREN OF THE DESOLATE
 - Than of the one who has a husband."
- 28 And you brethren, like Isaac, are children of promise.
- 29 But as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so it is now also.
- 30 But what does the Scripture say?
 - "CAST OUT THE BONDWOMAN AND HER SON, FOR THE SON OF THE BONDWOMAN SHALL NOT BE AN HEIR WITH THE SON OF THE FREE WOMAN."
- 31 So then, brethren, we are not children of \triangleleft a bondwoman, but of the free woman.

Walk by the Spirit

5 IT was for freedom that Christ set us free; ≺ therefore keep standing firm and do not be subject again to a yoke of slavery.

LIFE LESSONS

> 4:6 — Because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba! Father!"

Abba is an Aramaic term for "father" that suggests warmth, closeness, confidence, and mutual delight. God wants to be our Abba, and His highest priority for our lives is an intimate relationship with Himself. So He sends His Spirit to indwell us—to show us what it means to be His children, to bless us with His great love, to reveal His purpose for creating us, and to empower us for all the great plans He has for our lives. He is loving and approachable, so call out in prayer to your beloved heavenly Father often.

> 4:19 — My children, with whom I am again in labor until Christ is formed in you.

Daul did all he could to make sure that those he led to the Lord grew spiritually. Often, people share the gospel and show others how to accept Jesus as their Savior, but they do not teach them how to embrace the abundant life He has given us. However, the goal of Christian life is not only to be saved and sin less. God redeems us for the purpose of having an intimate relationship with Him and transforming us into the image of Christ (Rom. 8:29).

> 4:31 — We are not children of a bondwoman, but of the free woman.

aul contrasts the ordinary way Hagar bore Ishmael (Gen. 16) and the supernatural manner by which Sarah bore Isaac (Gen. 21:1–8) to show the difference between religion by works and a relationship with the Lord by faith in His promises. Although more people may adhere to religions based on laws, only those who trusted in Christ would be "heirs according to promise" and would receive eternal life (Gal. 3:29).

- 2 Behold I, Paul, say to you that if you receive circumcision, Christ will be of no benefit to you.
- 3 And I testify again to every man who receives circumcision, that he is under obligation to keep the whole Law.
- 4 You have been severed from Christ, you who are seeking to be justified by law; you have fallen from grace.
- 5 For we through the Spirit, by faith, are waiting for the hope of righteousness.
- 6 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means anything, but faith working through love.
- 7 You were running well; who hindered you from obeying the truth?
- 8 This persuasion did not come from Him who calls you.
- 9 A little leaven leavens the whole lump of dough.
- 10 I have confidence in you in the Lord that you will adopt no other view; but the one who is disturbing you will bear his judgment, whoever he is.
- 11 But I, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the stumbling block of the cross has been abolished.
- 12 I wish that those who are troubling you would even mutilate themselves.
- ▶ 13 For you were called to freedom, brethren; only do not turn your freedom into an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another.

- 14 For the whole Law is fulfilled in one word, in the statement, "You shall love your NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF."
- 15 But if you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another
- 16 But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will *\times not carry out the desire of the flesh.
- 17 For the flesh sets its desire against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are in opposition to one another, so that you may not do the things that you please.
- 18 But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the Law.
- 19 Now the deeds of the flesh are evident, which are: immorality, impurity, sensuality,
- 20 idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, disputes, dissensions, factions,
- 21 envying, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these, of which I forewarn you, just as I have forewarned you, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.
- 22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness,
- 23 gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law.
- 24 Now those who belong to Christ Jesus 4 have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires
- 25 If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit.

LIFE LESSONS

> 5:1 — It was for freedom that Christ set us free; therefore keep standing firm and do not be subject again to a yoke of slavery.

In some ways, it may seem easier to abide by a set of rules than to commit ourselves wholeheartedly to the Lord. But living by the law is not really living at all: "The letter kills, but the Spirit gives life" (2 Cor. 3:6). We must fight against any impulse to conform to a legalistic mindset because that only leads us back into bondage. Rather, our service to God must be out of love and obedience to Him, because that is life at its very best.

> 5:13 — You were called to freedom, brethren; only do not turn your freedom into an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another.

Pe are free in Christ, but we do not have license to sin because it no longer fits who we are as the children of God. Rather, we have been set free from every encumbrance to become who He created us to be—those who build up and encourage others through creative, Spirit-led ministries. Why would anyone who truly loves Jesus want to use his or her Cross-bought freedom to do anything that disgraces His name?

> 5:19 — The deeds of the flesh are evident, which are: immorality, impurity, sensuality.

 \mathcal{W} hen pressures arise, it is quite evident what is really within us (Matt. 12:33–35; 15:18, 19). We may try to suppress our anger, bitterness, unforgiveness, or immorality, but after a while it all comes bubbling up to the surface. Why? Because human effort cannot hide the evil impulses of the flesh. This is why Christ must completely replace our old sinful nature with His holiness. Because He not only defeats these wicked urges, but He replaces them with His own godly characteristics.

> 5:22, 23 — The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law.

Then we are in a union with Christ, the Holy Spirit's primary responsibility is to produce His likeness in us. He teaches us how to be totally dependent upon God, which then produces an overflow of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control in us. We cannot genuinely produce these qualities on our own because our sinfulness mars them. However, when we are completely reliant upon the Lord and obey the promptings of His Spirit, they flow from us freely and draw other people to Him.

> 5:24 — Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.

everyone who belongs to Christ has died with the Savior on the Cross. This means that we have given up our right to dictate the course of our lives because we realize that our fleshly inclinations only lead to disappointment and ruin (Prov. 14:12). We turn our lives over to the Lord because only He can lead us in the very best path possible.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

Why do I still have the impulse to sin?

GAL. 5:16, 17

When you placed your faith in Jesus Christ to forgive you of all your sins, were you filled with joy because of your new life in Him? Did the ungodly things you once did lose their attraction? Did you feel like you never wanted to sin again?

Sometimes at the beginning of our relationship with Christ, we begin to feel as if we could conquer every evil impulse. Unfortunately, that feeling of invincibility does not last long. We stumble badly. New temptations and trials bring to light areas of weakness in our lives that we thought we had conquered. We feel confused, ashamed, and even alarmed. We wonder, How could this happen? I thought I was supposed to be free from sin!

The truth is, Jesus has liberated us from our sins—but we must cooperate with what He has done for us. Paul wrote, "It was for freedom that Christ set us free; therefore keep standing firm and do not be subject again to a yoke of slavery" (Gal. 5:1). In other words, 26 Let us not become boastful, challenging one another, envying one another.

Bear One Another's Burdens

6 BRETHREN, even if anyone is caught in any trespass, you who are spiritual, restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; each one looking to yourself, so that you too will not be tempted.

God has broken sin's hold over us and has given us His Spirit, who directs us in living a life of freedom that is pleasing to Him. However, we can forfeit our liberty by selfishly choosing our way instead of God's.

This is the basis of sin—we disobey the Lord in order to satisfy our own fleshly desires. Paul explains, "The flesh sets its desire against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are in opposition to one another, so that you may not do the things that you please" (Gal. 5:17). The impulse to sin—also called the sin nature—remains within us and must be surrendered to God. This does not happen overnight, but is the continuing work of the Spirit within us. Paul affirms, "Walk by the Spirit, and you will not carry out the desire of the flesh" (v. 16).

If you have accepted Christ as your Savior, you have been united with Him. His likeness and holiness are present within your life and He empowers you to resist temptation. Therefore, you must have faith that He can remove ungodly strongholds within your heart and that He will continuously work to set you free from all sin and bondage. Your responsibility is to say no to sin and yes to Him as He provides the all-encompassing liberty that your soul craves.

3 For if anyone thinks he is something when he is nothing, he deceives himself.

4 But each one must examine his own work, and then he will have reason for boasting in regard to himself alone, and not in regard to another.

5 For each one will bear his own load.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 6:2 — Bear one another's burdens, and thereby fulfill the law of Christ.

no maturing Christian can ever say, "I don't need the church," because Jesus tells us that we all have work to do in the church—we must fulfill our role as part of the body. We cannot carry the burdens of those we never interact with. Therefore, we must continue to participate in the work, fellowship, and worship of the church—freely giving of ourselves just as Christ has given Himself to us.

> 6:4 — Each one must examine his own work.

Refuse to fall to the trap of comparing yourself to other people or competing with them to see who is the better Christian. We are all dependent upon God's grace for every good thing in our lives, including our growth (James 1:17). Rather, measure your progress according to the Lord's standards and make sure that you are walking in accordance with His will. Because then instead of undermining others because of jealousy, you will reach out in compassion and minister to them as Christ would.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S OUESTIONS

What is the fruit of the Spirit and how does it grow in me?

GAL. 5:22, 23

Believers who truly walk in the Spirit radiate integrity. They do not hide their true feelings, harbor self-serving intentions, nor would they ever try to take advantage of you. In fact, you may feel as if you can trust them with your most intimate secrets. You may even find yourself opening up to them in a way that is quite uncharacteristic for you.

Spirit-filled believers do not pretend to be perfect. In fact, they often offer humble apologies before they are confronted with wrongdoing because the Spirit alerts them when they have offended or hurt someone. Secure in their relationship with the Lord and their worth in Him, they are able to respond quickly once they realize and admit their sin or error in judgment. They remember that the Holy Spirit is continually sanctifying them—transforming them into the image of Christ. Therefore, they are not discouraged, but are thankful that His grace is always available to them when they stumble and that He is teaching them to rise above their fleshly appetites and desires.

- 6 The one who is taught the word is to share all good things with the one who teaches him.
- > 7 Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, this he will also reap
- *8 For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life.
- *9 Let us not lose heart in doing good, for in due time we will reap if we do not grow weary.

Specifically, their lives exude nine virtues: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. This fruit is not simply a mark of the Spirit-filled life; it is the preeminent evidence of a life that is fully submitted to Jesus Christ.

When reading about God's gift of grace, ask Him to show you how you can be more grace-filled with others. He may help you recall the unkind things you've done in the past, but when you surrender your will to Him, He will make you a kinder person who reflects His love to many.

Do you see the problem?

- "I want to be more kind."
- "I need to act more loving."
- "I need to exercise more self-control."

 $"I\ldots I\ldots I\ldots I\ldots I\ldots"$

The fruit of the Spirit isn't produced when we focus on ourselves—it is a result of being singularly centered on Christ (John 15:5). These virtues aren't goals we can pursue, and they were never intended to demonstrate our dedication and resolve because you and I cannot yield fruit. Rather, the Holy Spirit is the producer and we are merely the bearers. And the harvest that results from our walk with Him merely reveals our dependency on and sensitivity to His promptings.

o not be deceived by those who say that God does not care about how we live our lives. In fact, He cares immensely about our conduct and motives. The fact is: we reap what we sow, more than we sow, and later than we sow. This means we bear the consequences of our choices for a long time—either for good or for bad. Therefore, we must be very careful to live in loving obedience to Him so we can be sure that our lives will produce a harvest of blessings that will bring us great joy.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT KEEPING ONE ANOTHER ACCOUNTABLE

Gal. 6:1-5

any believers object to the idea of accountability because they don't see how other people's actions are any of their business—and they refuse to allow anyone into theirs.

Others mistakenly believe that the personal nature of our relationship with God excludes our need for mutual accountability. Although it is true that our relationship with the Lord is personal in nature, it is not true that it is completely private. The Bible teaches that we are accountable to God first and then to one another when it comes to our conducts and characters.

Accountability is defined as a relationship between believers wherein one has invited the other to observe the development of character in one or more areas. For example, it could be as simple as asking a friend to check with you from time to time about the consistency of your quiet time and prayer. You may want to ask someone to check with you on how often you share your faith or how much time you are devoting to your family.

We are accountable to one another for our conduct and character.

An area where accountability can really make a difference is that of recurring temptations. Paul taught that if a believer is caught in sin, the strong members of the church are to work with the sinner to help him get back on track (Gal. 6:1–3). Sometimes people become trapped in activities or attitudes that are too powerful for them to overcome on their own, and they don't know how to break free. It is not up to you to save them from their troubles. However, you can remind them of God's promises, pray for them, share Scripture with them, and listen when they struggle. We offer others support and compassion when they are trying to do what is right, confront them with the truth when they drift in their faith, and always encourage them to live in a manner that is pleasing to God.

Remember, in an accountability relationship you are not answerable for how the other person reacts to you or matures spiritually. But you are responsible to be available for the Lord to use you in their life—telling the truth and loving that person through the process.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 6:14 — May it never be that I would boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Then we take our eyes off the Cross, we get into trouble because we place our confidence in things that do not endure eternally. However, when we keep our focus on all that Christ has done for us, He shows us His glory. "I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to Myself" (John 12:32).

> 6:15 — Neither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation.

God makes us into totally new people—not by assigning us religious rituals to observe or by reforming our behavior, but by making us into completely new creations (2 Cor. 5:17). He then gives us His nature by sending His Holy Spirit to indwell us and transform us into His likeness (1 Cor. 6:19, 20).

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE

EPHESIANS

Phesians is addressed to a group of believers rich beyond measure in Jesus Christ, but who continued to live as beggars. Why did they remain in spiritual poverty? Because they remained ignorant of their true wealth.

No Christian has to live like a spiritual beggar when God offers spiritual blessings beyond all imagination. To move from poverty to prosperity, however, believers must first read and meditate on what God's Word says about their true standing. We are children of God, "sealed in Him with the Holy Spirit of promise, who is given as a pledge of our inheritance" (Eph. 1:13, 14). Second, we must begin to live it by faith. There is no other way to live as a believer.

The traditional title of this epistle is Pros Ephesious, "To the Ephesians." Many ancient manuscripts, however, omit en Epheso, "in Ephesus," in 1:1. This has led a number of scholars to challenge the traditional view that Paul directed this message specifically to the Ephesians.

The encyclical theory proposes that Ephesians was a circular letter sent by Paul to the churches in Asia. This viewpoint holds that the letter is really a Christian treatise designed for general use, since it involves no controversy and deals with no specific problems in any particular church. If Ephesians really did begin as a circular letter, however, eventually it became associated with Ephesus, the foremost of the Asian churches.

Another plausible option is that this epistle was directly addressed to the Ephesians, but written in such a way as to make it helpful for all the churches in Asia. Finally, some scholars accept the ancient tradition that Ephesians is Paul's letter to the Laodiceans (Col. 4:16), but there is no way to be sure.

Themes: The spiritual bounty of the Christian and the unity of the church in Jesus Christ.

Author: The apostle Paul.

Time: Likely written from prison in Rome circa A.D. 60–62.

Structure: The first half of the book (1–3) describes the content of the Christian's heavenly inheritance: adoption, acceptance, redemption, forgiveness, wisdom, inheritance, the seal of the Holy Spirit, life, grace, citizenship—in short, every spiritual blessing. The second half (4–6) lays out a spiritual walk rooted in that spiritual wealth. Ephesians 2:10 gives a good outline for the book: "For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus [1–3] for good works . . . that we would walk in them [4–6]."

As you read Ephesians, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

- 24. To live the Christian life is to allow Jesus to live His life in and through us. See Ephesians 2:10; page 1383.
- 28. No Christian has ever been called to "go it alone" in his or her walk of faith. See Ephesians 4:16; 6:18; pages 1385; 1392.
- 25. God blesses us so that we might bless others. See Ephesians 4:28; page 1386.
- 22. To walk in the Spirit is to obey the initial promptings of the Spirit. See Ephesians 5:18; page 1387.
- 26. Adversity is a bridge to a deeper relationship with God. See Ephesians 6:10; page 1391.

The Blessings of Redemption

PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God,

To the saints who are at Ephesus and who are faithful in Christ Jesus:

2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

- → 3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ,
- 4 just as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and blameless before bHim. In love
- 5 He predestined us to adoption as sons through Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the kind intention of His will,

- 7 In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of His grace
 - 8 which He lavished on us. In all wisdom and insight
 - 9 He made known to us the mystery of His will, according to His kind intention which He purposed in Him

> 1:3 — Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ.

God is generous when it comes to bestowing His blessings to us, His beloved children. In fact, He has already given us every spiritual blessing. He has secured them for us in heaven where none can be stolen, damaged, or kept back. Unfortunately we, like the Ephesians, sometimes live as spiritual paupers because we focus on the mechanics of Christianity instead of a relationship with the Lord. If we wish to enjoy all that has been given to us, we must delight ourselves in our Savior.

➤ 1:7 — In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of His grace.

The Cross is not a place of tragedy, but the site of the believer's greatest victory. This is because it is the place where the Lord Jesus Christ took our sin debt upon Himself and canceled it with His blood—redeeming us forever. No longer did we have to bear the terrible penalty of our sins (Rom. 6:23). No longer were we hopelessly enslaved by our transgressions (Rom. 6:5–7). Instead, because of the riches of His grace on the Cross, we have true, lasting freedom forever.

> 1:13 — You were sealed in Him with the Holy Spirit of promise.

within us from the moment we accept Jesus Christ as our Savior and never leaves us. This is the reason we can be sure we have eternal security. Neither sin nor anything else can cause the Lord to forsake us because His Spirit has sealed us in Him forever—guaranteeing our relationship with Him for all eternity.

> 1:18 — You will know what is the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints.

There is a big difference between having the blessings of God and actually enjoying them. We experience the riches of the Lord's grace by learning what blessings He has provided for us and then laying hold of them by faith.

> 1:19 — The surpassing greatness of His power toward us who believe ... which He brought about in Christ, when He raised Him from the dead.

The disciples continually marveled at the astounding miracles that the Lord performed (Matt. 9:33; 21:20; Mark 4:41). However, the Lord's greatest power was displayed at His resurrection, when He triumphed over sin and death forevermore. Do you need Christ's resurrection power in your life today? It is available to you by faith. Therefore, trust that He can and will help you with all that concerns you.

- 10 For we are His workmanship, created in ≺ Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand so that we would walk in them
- 11 Therefore remember that formerly you, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called "Uncircumcision" by the so-called "Circumcision," which is performed in the flesh by human hands—
- 12 remember that you were at that time separate from Christ, excluded from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world.
- 13 But now in Christ Jesus you who formerly were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ.
- 14 For He Himself is our peace, who made \(\) both groups into one and broke down the barrier of the dividing wall,
- 15 by abolishing in His flesh the enmity, which is the Law of commandments contained in ordinances, so that in Himself He might make the two into one new man, thus establishing peace,
- 16 and might reconcile them both in one body to God through the cross, by it having put to death the enmity.

> 2:4, 5 — God, being rich in mercy . . . even when we were dead in our transgressions, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved).

God, blind to His ways, unable to communicate with Him, and eternally separated from Him because of our sinful nature. We cannot change any of this by our own works. The only thing that can change our condition is a new spirit and a new life—which is Christ's gift to us when we believe in Him as our Savior.

> 2:8, 9 — By grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast.

of our salvation were dependent upon our actions—if we could be redeemed by doing good works, keeping the commandments, and refraining from sin—we would always be in danger of losing it whenever we stumbled. However, because salvation is a gift given to us freely—and not in exchange for anything we can do—it is completely secure. Our salvation therefore magnifies the awesome love and grace of God alone, since He blesses us not because of our merit but because of His goodness.

> 2:10 — We are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand so that we would walk in them.

 \mathcal{N} o one understands you better than God—He knows you far more profoundly than you can even know yourself. In fact, the Lord knows what you were created to be and all the great things He could accomplish through you if you were to surrender yourself to Him. He has designed you for a specific, fulfilling purpose, but you cannot find it or achieve it on your own. Rather, it is only by abiding in Him that it will come to fruition in your life.

> 2:13 — In Christ Jesus you who formerly were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

In Paul's day, there was a temptation to view Jewish Christians as better and more righteous than Gentile (or non-Jewish) believers, because of the Lord's promises to Israel and their adherence to the laws and rituals of Judaism. However, Paul reminds believers that everyone is unclean before the Lord and is saved by His grace alone. Now, in Christ, both Jews and Gentiles have been brought near and can enjoy fellowship with God.

> 2:14 — He Himself is our peace, who made both groups into one and broke down the barrier of the dividing wall.

Christ is both our peace with God and with others. The law divided Jews from Gentiles, and sin separated everyone from the Lord. However, in Jesus, the law has been fulfilled and our sins have been forgiven. Therefore, those who believe in Him have been reconciled to the Father and have been grafted into the covenants that He made to His people, Israel (Rom. 4:9–25; 11:13–21).

- 17 And He came and preached peace to you who were far away, and peace to those who were near:

> 2:18 — Through Him we both have our access in one Spirit to the Father.

Before we know Christ, we are spiritually dead in our transgressions and cannot have any fellowship with the Father. But when we receive Jesus as our Savior, we can talk to the Lord at any time, anywhere, about anything. His sacrifice on Calvary was sufficient to make us spiritually alive and holy in His sight—completely accepted and able to enjoy His awesome presence forever (Eph. 2:1–7).

> 3:8 — To me, the very least of all saints, this grace was given, to preach to the Gentiles the unfathomable riches of Christ

aul always remembered that even though he once tried to destroy the church out of ignorance (Acts 9:1, 2; 22:4, 5), the Lord forgave him and afforded him the great privilege of helping to build that church worldwide—just one example of "the unfathomable riches of Christ."

> 3:10 — The manifold wisdom of God might now be made known through the church to the rulers and the authorities in the heavenly places.

There are battles fought and things that happen in the spiritual realm that we may know nothing about, but we are taught that our conduct has an effect on what transpires there (Dan. 10:10–21; 2 Cor. 10:3–5; Eph. 6:12). That is why we should never give up praying and submitting ourselves to the Lord in obedience. What happens in our lives of faith has implications far greater than what we can see. So we must remain steadfast and trust the Lord, even when we cannot see what He is doing (2 Cor. 4:18).

> 3:14 — I bow my knees before the Father.

The are God's children and heirs, and knowing Him as our personal heavenly Father should make a deep impact on our heart. Though our own earthly fathers may have been imperfect—hurting us, failing us, or being absent when we needed them—the Lord God is always with us to love and help us through every situation. So we should go before Him in prayer, praise, and worship often.

> 3:16 — That He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with power through His Spirit in the inner man.

If we feel weak, it is not because we suffer from a lack of available power. The might of God that created the universe and that raised Jesus from the dead is available to us at every moment through believing prayer and faithful obedience.

Unity of the Spirit

- THEREFORE I, the prisoner of the Lord, implore you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling with which you have been called,
 - 2 with all humility and gentleness, with patience, showing tolerance for one another in love.
 - 3 being diligent to preserve the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
- 4 There is one body and one Spirit, just as also you were called in one hope of your calling;
 - 5 one Lord, one faith, one baptism,
 - 6 one God and Father of all who is over all and through all and in all.
 - 7 But to each one of us grace was given according to the measure of Christ's gift.
 - 8 Therefore it says,

"When He ascended on high, He led captive a host of captives, And He gave gifts to men."

9 (Now this expression, "He ascended," what does it mean except that He also had descended into the lower parts of the earth? 10 He who descended is Himself also He who ascended far above all the heavens, so that He might fill all things.)

- 11 And He gave some as apostles, and some as prophets, and some as evangelists, and some as pastors and teachers,
- 12 for the equipping of the saints for the work of service, to the building up of the body of Christ;
- 13 until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature which belongs to the fullness of Christ.
- 14 As a result, we are no longer to be children, tossed here and there by waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, by craftiness in deceitful scheming;
- 15 but speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in all aspects into Him who is the head, even Christ,
- and held together by what every joint supplies, according to the proper working of each individual part, causes the growth of the body for the building up of itself in love.

The Christian's Walk

> 3:20 — To Him who is able to do far more abundantly beyond all that we ask or think, according to the power that works within us.

Od loves to surprise His faithful people with answers to their prayers that far exceed anything they could hope for or imagine (Ex. 14:10–14; 2 Chr. 20:5–27; Acts 12:5–17). The Lord has wonderful plans for your life, so do not be discouraged by disappointments along the way. Keep following Him faithfully, and continue believing that He will answer your prayers in a manner that is better than anything you have ever dreamed or envisioned.

> 4:1 — I... implore you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling with which you have been called.

To walk worthy of Christ means that we are living in a manner that honors and pleases Him. We were "created in Christ Jesus for good works" (Eph. 2:10), and we should accomplish every assignment He gives us with love and devotion so that others will see our example and glorify Him.

> 4:4 — There is one body and one Spirit.

Inity should be a characteristic of the church, but there is only one way to be truly unified, and that is for each believer in the body to be wholeheartedly obedient to the Lord. God never contradicts Himself, so when everyone is faithfully submitted to His will, we will all be working towards the same goal.

> 4:16 — The whole body, being fitted and held together . . . according to the proper working of each individual part, causes the growth of the body for the building up of itself in love.

To Christian has ever been called to "go it alone" in his or her walk of faith. God has fit us together as the church so that all of us can be an encouragement to one another (1 Cor. 12:7). Therefore, it is important for all of us to live in submission to Him so that others in the body can mature and have what they need to do their part in the ministry.

> 4:17 — Walk no longer just as the Gentiles also walk, in the futility of their mind.

people create all kinds of religions, doctrines, and philosophies in their limited human understanding. However, this is a useless effort, because the ways of God are beyond our comprehension and the blessings He has for us are better than we can imagine (ls. 55:8, 9). Instead, as believers we must walk by faith—trusting Him to teach us His will and how to serve Him. Because He has promised to reveal Himself to us when we seek Him (Jer. 29:11–13).

> 4:18 — Excluded from the life of God . . . because of the hardness of their heart.

It is not God's will that any should be condemned, but people exclude themselves from salvation because they choose to—because their hearts are hard and stubborn,

19 and they, having become callous, have given themselves over to sensuality for the practice of every kind of impurity with greediness

> 4:24 — Put on the new self, which in the likeness of God has been created in righteousness and holiness of the truth.

Then Paul tells us to put on the new self, he means that we have to make a conscious, moment-by-moment choice to depend upon the Spirit's power to transform us into the likeness of Christ.

> 4:26, 27 — Do not let the sun go down on your anger, and do not give the devil an opportunity.

We work against the Spirit and give the enemy an advantage when we allow unbridled anger and bitterness to rule in us. Unforgiveness not only keeps us in bondage, but, like acid, it burns deeper into our hearts. The longer we harbor feelings against another, the more devastating it becomes because it hinders the Spirit's work in us.

> 4:30 — Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.

 ${\mathcal W}$ e are sealed by the Holy Spirit. That means that God has put His special mark of redemption upon us. The Spirit is our permanent identification, signifying that we are set apart for the Lord. And we will bear the evidence of our salvation by His presence until the day when we go home to Him in heaven.

> 5:1 — Be imitators of God, as beloved children.

If we are the children of God, it only makes sense that we are to imitate our Father. And if we refuse to walk in the ways of our heavenly Father, there is biblical reason to wonder who our father really is (1 John 3:10).

> 5:6 — Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience.

The sons of disobedience are people who rebel against God and refuse to trust Jesus Christ as their Savior. Paul says that those who reject Christ have been deceived—they are mislead by empty philosophies and religions and will experience the Lord's wrath.

> 5:8 — You were formerly darkness, but now you are Light in the Lord; walk as children of Light.

Od intends that His children act as beacons of light in this dark world—showing the way to spiritual safety for those who are lost (Matt. 5:14–16).

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

Why is it so important to forgive others?

EPH. 4:31, 32

All of us at some point have to deal with the issue of unforgiveness. When we allow a bitter spirit to lodge in our souls where it can grow and fester, it becomes both painful and destructive. Unforgiveness lies at the root of many of the physical, emotional, psychological, and spiritual problems we see today.

The apostle Paul wrote, "Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has forgiven you" (Eph. 4:31, 32). When Paul spoke of bitterness, wrath, anger, clamor, and evil speaking, he was describing the ugly manifestations of a "spirit of unforgiveness."

A spirit of unforgiveness goes beyond a temporary unwillingness to forgive—the period between the time a person gets hurt and the time he forgives the one who hurt him. A spirit of unforgiveness develops when the one hurt chooses to remain in that unforgiving state.

People who develop this unrelenting spirit often say, "I just don't think I could ever forgive that." They make the statement when they feel they have been treated in such an unjust, unfair, harmful way that they simply can't let go of the pain.

things which are done by them in secret.

13 But all things become visible when they are exposed by the light, for everything that becomes visible is light.

* 14 For this reason it says, "Awake, sleeper, And arise from the dead, And Christ will shine on you." At some point, every one of us has been hurt. Some who are reading these words are hurting now, or they may face hurt from a friend soon. The question is what will you do when someone speaks an unkind word or does something deliberate to injure you? Do you know how to extend forgiveness the same way Christ has extended it to you?

Hurt is unavoidable, but we can learn how to deal with it. No pain is too deep or too widespread to be beyond the power of God's forgiveness, working in and through us. Forgiveness and unforgiveness are both choices we make with the will. Refusing to forgive another, no matter how serious the crime, is always a devastating choice because it puts us in bondage to our offender.

Someone may say, "But you don't know what has happened to me." God knows and He admonishes us to allow Him to avenge the wrongs that have been done against us. Our forgiveness does not mean the person who hurt us was right or "off the hook." It means that we are willing to trust God to deal with the problems and with those who hurt us in His time and in His way.

We shouldn't forget that it was our loving Savior, Jesus Christ, who ended a story on the necessity of forgiveness with these words: "And his lord, moved with anger, handed him over to the torturers until he should repay all that was owed him. My heavenly Father will also do the same to you, if each of you does not forgive his brother from your heart" (Matt. 18:34, 35).

LIFE LESSONS

> 5:18 — Be filled with the Spirit.

When we talk about being filled with the Spirit of God, it does not mean that we receive something more from God. We are indwelt by the Spirit in full measure at the time of our salvation. Rather, being filled with the Spirit means that we live in submission to Him—or under His control. As He prompts and directs us, we immediately respond in obedience to His commands.

LIFE PRINCIPLE 25

GOD BLESSES US SO THAT WE MIGHT BLESS OTHERS.

EPH. 4:28

- 1. God saved me because _____.
- 2. God's purpose for me is _____.
- 3. I am most like Jesus when I ...

This little quiz is not to put you on the spot, but it is to set the proper framework for this life principle:

1. God saved me because He loves me.

The sole reason God sent His Son to this world to die for our sins was because He loved us. When we acknowledge our sin and need for a Savior, He forgives us, grants us eternal life, and gives us the gift of His Holy Spirit out of His immeasurable love and grace. There is no other reason.

Many people seem to believe that God saves a man or woman because of the person's good works or service. Nothing could be further from the truth. No amount or type of service can earn salvation. The apostle Paul made this very clear when he wrote: "For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast" (Eph. 2:8, 9). Even the faith by which we believe that God forgives us and saves us is a divine gift that flows from His love!

This point is critical to understand. Any good we do is in response to God's gifts of salvation, eternal life, and the Holy Spirit—never in order to earn, win, or warrant salvation.

2. God's purpose for me is to bring Him glory.

God saved you and me so that we would serve as examples to others of His love and mercy at work in and through a human life.

Many people seem to think the only reason for salvation is so that a person will go to heaven when he dies. Eternal life is part of God's plan of forgiveness, but that is not the sole reason for our salvation. God saved us so that we each might reflect His nature—that we might be His people on this earth, doing the kinds of works that Jesus Himself would do if He were walking in our shoes, through our world, during our lifetime. He desires to manifest His character through our personalities and giftedness.

When we allow His Holy Spirit to work in us and through us to others, we become vessels of His love in action. We begin to reflect His compassion, love, and mercy to others. And in so doing, we become His witnesses. We bring credit, honor, and glory to Him.

Any good we do is in response to God's gifts.

3. I am most like Jesus when I serve others.

The foremost characteristic of the life of Jesus Christ was and is service. We are most like Him when we serve as He served.

Many seem to think that a person is most like Jesus when he preaches like Jesus preached, teaches like Jesus taught, heals like Jesus healed, or performs miracles like Jesus performed miracles. They look only at the outward manifestation of a person's witness and ministry.

They need to look beyond the outer manifestation to the motivation for Jesus' life. That motivation was always love. Jesus preached, taught, healed, and performed miracles in order to help others, never to call attention to Himself. He poured out His very life so that others might be saved. Paul wrote, "You know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sake He became poor, so that you through His poverty might become rich" (2 Cor. 8:9).

God calls us to serve one another just as Jesus did. He didn't save you or call you to service so that you might be exalted, praised, glorified, or put on a pedestal. He saved you so you could serve Him and others. When we do this, we honor Him with our lives. The most important thing you can do outside of accepting Christ as your Savior is to give your life to Him and allow Him to lead you each day.

Some mistakenly think that what we do is unimportant to God, but this is far from true. He has a plan for each one of us. When we make a decision to walk by faith, He will reveal it to us. And that plan always includes service and dedication to Him and to those He brings into our lives.

God loved us so that we might love others. He blesses us so that we might bless others. That's what the Christian life is all about.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT GRIEVING THE HOLY SPIRIT

Eph. 4:30

id you know that we can short-circuit the effective work of the Holy Spirit in our lives by grieving Him? Paul wrote, "Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God" (Eph. 4:30).

How do we grieve the Holy Spirit? We grieve Him when we disobey God's commandments and when we choose to act in unrighteous ways. In other words, we displease the Lord when we know what to do and then choose to do the opposite.

The Ephesians knew very well that it was not godly to lie, steal, remain angry with one another, or speak cutting, hurting words to each another. They knew that such evil things "give the devil an opportunity" (Eph. 4:27). Yet they became entangled in these very things, and they suffered in their relationships.

Paul lived and ministered among them for two years, and his ministry had a powerful impact on the entire city of Ephesus. He admonished them not to compromise their faith by doing the things common among the non-believers. He began with the basics of the Christian faith and taught them how to live godly lives.

Your ungodly behavior breaks the heart of God.

When the Ephesians broke one of the most obvious of God's commandments, they caused sorrow to the Holy Spirit. Paul said, in effect, "Your ungodly behavior breaks the heart of God."

The Holy Spirit is grieved not only because our conduct tarnishes God's good name, but also because He loves us and deeply desires to reward us for our obedience. He longs to see the fruit of the Spirit alive and growing in our lives. He knows sin damages our relationship with God and with those we love. It saddles us with burdens that God never meant for us to bear. And He is grieved by our compromise and failure to live according to His standards.

So how can we avoid grieving the Spirit of God?

We can choose to keep His commandments and to lead a disciplined life by depending on the power of the Spirit. When we sin, we confess the sin immediately and repent of it, changing our minds and our behavior to conform to God's Word.

As we ask the Holy Spirit to lead us and help us every day, we gain His help to enjoy a successful Christian walk. He keeps our footing sure.

Marriage Like Christ and the Church

- 22 Wives, be subject to your own husbands, as to the Lord.
- 23 For the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the head of the church, He Himself being the Savior of the body.
- 24 But as the church is subject to Christ, so also the wives ought to be to their husbands in everything.
- 25 Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ also loved the church and gave Himself up for her
- 26 so that He might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word
- 27 that He might present to Himself the church in all her glory, having no spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that she would be holy and blameless.
- 28 So husbands ought also to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself:
- 29 for no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as Christ also does the church.
- 30 because we are members of His body.
- 31 For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and shall be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.
- 32 This mystery is great; but I am speaking with reference to Christ and the church.
- 33 Nevertheless, each individual among you also is to love his own wife even as himself, and the wife must see to it that she respects her husband.

> 6:8 — Whatever good thing each one does, this he will receive back from the Lord, whether slave or free.

Throughout the Bible the Lord promises that He will generously reward His children for the good things they do in obedience to Him—no matter how small or insignificant it may seem. Faithful service yields wonderful blessings.

> 6:10 — Be strong in the Lord and in the strength of His might.

The Spirit-filled life is not one of ease, comfort, and pleasure. In fact, it is often full of adversity, hardship, and persecution. However, we no longer feel hopeless, because we realize that we can depend upon the unlimited power and wisdom of God. We draw on His strength by faith, asking Him to supply us with the resources we need so that we can remain steadfastly faithful to Him. And because His help never fails, we experience His abiding joy, and rejoice that our difficulties bring us closer to the Lord as we obey Him.

> 6:11 — Put on the full armor of God, so that you will be able to stand firm against the schemes of the devil.

It is extremely important for us to understand that we are involved in a real battle and the enemy's goal is our destruction. The devil does everything he can to undermine our faith and impede our progress in God's will by putting harmful, hidden obstacles and snares in our path. But we can resist his subtle tactics and triumph over his schemes by trusting God, arming ourselves with His protection, and obeying Him in every area of our lives.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S OUESTIONS

How do I prepare for spiritual battle?

EPH. 6:13-18

We start our day by dressing appropriately for the weather or an activity. But many believers leave the house unprepared—they fail to arm themselves for spiritual warfare. Therefore, our first prayer before rising should include a step-by-step application of God's armor.

First, we strap on the belt of truth. Just as a leather apron protected the Roman soldier's abdomen, our protective girdle is the truth of who we are in Christ—saints who are supernaturally empowered by God's indwelling Spirit. Next, the breastplate deflects the enemy's fiery arrows. As difficult situations arise, we can repel the temptation to sin or live by emotion—whether anger, fear, or dissatisfaction—and we can respond in a manner that honors God instead.

The sandals of the gospel of peace help us to stand firm. Roman battle sandals usually had thick, spiked soles so that the soldier could anchor himself in the ground and remain steadfast. Regardless of how fiercely the enemy buffets us, we can remain firmly planted in the knowledge of who we are in Christ—redeemed saints and children of the living Lord with an important message to share with those who are lost.

The shield of faith is no tiny piece of armor. It is a full-body safeguard that represents Christ's protection against anything the enemy can throw at us. With full confidence in Christ, we confront every battle, knowing He will give us the victory.

Faith in God's grace that was shown at the Cross brought us salvation—the point at which we exchanged our old sinful self for a new eternal life in the Lord Jesus. Consequently, with salvation's helmet, we put on the mind of Christ, which gives us His discernment and wisdom.

Finally, we take up the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God, so that we can combat the enemy's lies with the truth and promises of Scripture.

Knowing precisely what we will face each day, the Lord has graciously provided the perfect equipment needed for all our challenges. So always be sure to dress for battle.

To Christian has ever been called to "go it alone" in his or her walk of faith. TYCHICUS

Beloved Messenger

EPH. 6:21

Cach time Tychicus is mentioned in Scripture (Acts 20:4; Eph. 6:21; 2 Tim. 4:12; Titus 3:12), he is running errands for the apostle Paul, then a prisoner in Rome. In a sense, he is Paul's "messenger boy."

Paul himself wrote, "Tychicus, our beloved brother and faithful servant and fellow bond-servant in the Lord, will bring you information. For I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that you may know about our circumstances and that he may encourage your hearts" (Col. 4:7, 8).

We might feel tempted to evaluate Tychicus's ministry as minor, especially when compared to Paul's. But do you realize that Tychicus delivered Paul's messages to several churches, and thus played a major part in distributing the Word of God? Is that unimportant? Absolutely not! Tychicus had a crucial ministry, and he fulfilled it.

Will you allow him to inspire you to fulfill your own crucial ministry, whatever it is?

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE

hilippians is the apostle Paul's personal thank-you letter to the believers in the Macedonian city of Philippi for their help in his hour of need. Repeatedly he communicates one central thought: only in Christ can we experience real unity and joy. With the Lord as your model of love and grace, you, too, can enjoy a oneness of purpose, attitude, goal, and labor.

We sometimes think that joy can occur only when circumstances are favorable. Yet Paul showed the Philippians that we serve the God who can take even unexpected and unpleasant situations and turn them into moments of joy and goodness. The apostle told his friends, "I want you to know, brethren, that my circumstances have turned out for the greater progress of the gospel, so that my imprisonment in the cause of Christ has become well known throughout the whole practorian guard and to everyone else, and that most of the brethren, trusting in the Lord because of my imprisonment, have far more courage to speak the word of God without fear" (Phil. 1:12–14).

Paul stressed unity because believers in the Philippian church were from very diverse backgrounds and sometimes at odds with one another, which hindered the work of proclaiming new life in Christ. Because of this, he exhorted the church to "stand firm . . . live in harmony in the Lord . . . Rejoice in the Lord always . . . in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known . . . And the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus" (Phil. 4:1–7).

This epistle is called Pros Philippesious, "To the Philippians." Paul founded the church at Philippi before any others in Macedonia. The apostle established this church during his second missionary journey (Acts 16:6–40). Philippians is a very warm letter filled with much personal affection.

Themes: God intends the Christian life to be a joyful experience, made more so by the unity believers experience in community.

Author: The apostle Paul.

Time: Likely written from prison in Rome circa A.D. 60–62.

Structure: After greeting his friends and describing his thankfulness and prayers for them (1:1–11), the apostle refers to his imprisonment and the benefit it has had in the preaching of the gospel (1:12–26). He then exhorts them to live worthy of the gospel (1:27—2:18), mentions his associates (2:19–30), issues some warnings (3:1—4:1), and concludes his letter (4:2–23).

As you read Philippians, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

 - 7 For it is only right for me to feel this way about you all, because I have you in my heart, since both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, you all are partakers of grace with me.
 - 8 For God is my witness, how I long for you all with the affection of Christ Jesus.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 1:6 — He who began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Christ Jesus.

Paul loved the Philippians, and as he sat in his Roman prison, he longed to visit them (v. 8). But he also realized that his presence was not necessary for their spiritual growth (1 Cor. 3:6). God is always faithful to finish what He begins—and He does so in a way that is above and beyond all we can ask or imagine. Never underestimate what He will continue to do through your faithfulness long after you have completed your obedient service to Him.

> 1:9 — I pray, that your love may abound still more and more in real knowledge and all discernment.

ove is not merely a feeling—it is Jesus living in and through us (John 13:34, 35; 15:9–17; 1 John 4:7–21). If we say we believe in God and are maturing in our relationship with Him, but we are not growing in our unconditional love for others, something is wrong with our walk (1 Cor. 13). This is because as Jesus increases in us and we decrease, His loving nature should intensify within us as the evidence of His lordship in our life (Gal. 5:22, 23; 2 Pet. 1:3–8).

➤ 1:10 — So that you may approve the things that are excellent, in order to be sincere and blameless until the day of Christ. declared not guilty of our transgressions (Rom. 5:1). Through His justification we are blameless in the legal sense—we no longer bear the penalty of our sins. Then He begins His work of sanctification. He transforms us into His image and trains us to make right choices— choices "that are excellent." We not only refrain from the behaviors that harm our relationship with the Lord, but we live in a manner that brings Him great glory.

> 1:12 — I want you to know, brethren, that my circumstances have turned out for the greater progress of the gospel.

God has a delightful way of turning our adversity into opportunities to deepen our relationship with Him and to draw others to faith in His salvation (Rom. 8:28). Through his imprisonment, not only did Paul tell many in the praetorian guard about the saving grace of Jesus Christ, he also stirred other believers to action through his testimony. Because he could not visit all the churches, Paul wrote the letters that now comprise a large portion of the New Testament—the epistles God has used to encourage and instruct believers for centuries.

> 1:21 — To me, to live is Christ and to die is gain.

Paul had suffered greatly (2 Cor. 11:24–28), so no one could blame him for wanting to go home to heaven mean fruitful labor for me; and I do not know which to choose.

- > 23 But I am hard-pressed from both directions, having the desire to depart and be with Christ, for that is very much better;
 - 24 yet to remain on in the flesh is more necessary for your sake.
 - 25 Convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with you all for your progress and joy in the faith.
 - 26 so that your proud confidence in me may abound in Christ Jesus through my coming to you again.
 - 27 Only conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or remain absent, I will hear of you that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;
 - 28 in no way alarmed by your opponents—which is a sign of destruction for them, but of salvation for you, and that too, from God.
- ➤ 29 For to you it has been granted for Christ's sake, not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer for His sake, and into the comforting arms of the Savior—his eternal reward (2 Tim. 4:7, 8). Few of us would choose the beatings, suffering, persecution, imprisonment, and abuse he endured. However, Paul understood that people's eternal destinations were much more important than his personal comfort or safety (2 Cor. 1:8–10; 4:8–18). That was why for him to remain here on earth meant to obey God and preach the gospel.

> 1:23 — Having the desire to depart and be with Christ, for that is very much better.

Many in the Philippian culture feared death greatly, just as many do today. However, Paul was not afraid of death because he knew that "to be absent from the body" means "to be at home with the Lord" (2 Cor. 5:8). The new home that awaits believers in heaven is wonderful beyond imagination. All the pain and sorrow that has come from our sinfulness will be gone, and we will enjoy fellowship with the Lord forever (John 14:1–3; Rev. 21).

> 1:29 — For to you it has been granted for Christ's sake, not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer for His sake.

The word "granted" comes from the Greek term charis, often translated "gift." Believing in Jesus and receiving His salvation is a gift, but so is suffering for Him (Acts 5:41). Our trials keep us close to the Lord—humble in His presence and dependent upon His comfort, wisdom, and power. The truth is, we learn more in valley experiences than on the mountaintops because hardships teach us more about the nature and faithfulness of God.

> 2:2 — Make my joy complete by being of the same mind, maintaining the same love, united in spirit, intent on one purpose.

The joyful unity of believers in Christ offers a powerful testimony to the world that the gospel of love we preach is real, unique, powerful, and welcoming to whomever will believe in the Lord Jesus. It is only through the gospel that people from every nation, race, language group, and socioeconomic level find forgiveness and peace and can join together in harmony (Rev. 7:9, 10).

> 2:3 — Do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit, but with humility of mind regard one another as more important than yourselves.

As a believer, you're not in competition with others to see who is the godliest or most influential Christian. If that's your goal, then you're not working for God, you're serving your own ego. Rather, your purpose is to represent Christ to the lost so that they can be saved. As Jesus said, "Whoever wishes to be first among you shall be slave of all. For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many" (Mark 10:44, 45).

> 2:7 — Emptied Himself, taking the form of a bondservant, and being made in the likeness of men.

he Lord Jesus left His magnificent throne in heaven—where He is surrounded with praise and worship—and chose the limitation, suffering, and lowliness of a human body just so He could save us and show us His great love. Hebrews 2:17 tells us, "He had to be made like His brethren in all things, so that He might become a merciful and faithful high priest." In other words, He became like us to understand us. Because that is the way He best comforts and provides for us in all things (Heb. 4:14–16).

- 9 For this reason also, God highly exalted Him, and bestowed on Him the name which is above every name,
- 10 so that at the name of Jesus every knee will bow, of those who are in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
- ➤ 11 and that every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
- ➤ 12 So then, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your salvation with fear and trembling;
 - 13 for it is God who is at work in you, both to will and to work for His good pleasure.
 - 14 Do all things without grumbling or disputing;
- ➤ 15 so that you will prove yourselves to be blameless and innocent, children of God above reproach in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you appear as lights in the world,
 - 16 holding fast the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I will have reason to glory because I did not run in vain nor toil in vain
 - 17 But even if I am being poured out as a drink offering upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice and share my joy with you all.
 - 18 You too, I urge you, rejoice in the same way and share your joy with me.

19 But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you shortly, so that I also may be encouraged when I learn of your condition.

20 For I have no one else of kindred spirit who will genuinely be concerned for your welfare.

- 21 For they all seek after their own interests, not those of Christ Jesus.
- 22 But you know of his proven worth, that he served with me in the furtherance of the gospel like a child serving his father.
- 23 Therefore I hope to send him immediately, as soon as I see how things go with me; 24 and I trust in the Lord that I myself also will be coming shortly.
- 25 But I thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother and fellow worker and fellow soldier, who is also your messenger and minister to my need;
- 26 because he was longing afor you all and was distressed because you had heard that he was sick
- 27 For indeed he was sick to the point of death, but God had mercy on him, and not on him only but also on me, so that I would not have sorrow upon sorrow.
- 28 Therefore I have sent him all the more eagerly so that when you see him again you may rejoice and I may be less concerned about you.
- 29 Receive him then in the Lord with all joy, and hold men like him in high regard;
- 30 because he came close to death for the work of Christ, risking his life to complete what was deficient in your service to me.

The Goal of Life

FINALLY, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. ≺ To write the same things again is no trouble to me, and it is a safeguard for you.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 2:10 — At the name of Jesus every knee will bow, of those who are in heaven and on earth and under the earth.

everyone—both those who are redeemed and those who have rejected Jesus Christ—will one day bow before Him and acknowledge that He is Savior and Lord. Though some think they are exercising their independence by refusing to believe in Him, what they are really doing is denying the truth—that He is God's Son and our living Messiah

> 2:11 — Every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

That do we mean when we say that Jesus Christ is Lord? It means that He is the "only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords" (1 Tim. 6:15). He is in absolute control of all things—nothing happens without His divine permission or exists apart from Him. And a time is coming when everyone will acknowledge that only He is truly worthy of praise—even those who've spent their lives opposing Him (Is. 45:23, 24).

> 2:12 — Work out your salvation with fear and trembling.

When Paul tells us to work out our salvation with fear and trembling, he means that we are to give careful attention to our actions and behavior, making sure that we represent the One who saved us with honor and humility.

> 2:15 — Prove yourselves to be blameless and innocent, children of God above reproach in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you appear as lights in the world.

od intends that His children act as beacons of light in this dark world—showing the way to spiritual safety for those who are lost (Matt. 5:14–16). But if our behavior is characterized by corruption, complaining, and self-centeredness, we will not differ from unbelievers—there will be nothing to recommend us or Christ in whom we believe for salvation.

> 3:1 — Rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things again is no trouble to me, and it is a safeguard for you.

Because we so easily forget the lessons we've learned, the Bible often presents the same teaching in various forms. Peter wrote, "I will always be ready to remind you of these things, even though you already know them" (2 Pet. 1:12).

2 Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the false circumcision;

> 3 for we are the true circumcision, who worship in the Spirit of God and glory in Christ Jesus and put no confidence in the flesh,

▶ 4 although I myself might have confidence even in the flesh. If anyone else has a mind to put confidence in the flesh, I far more:

5 circumcised the eighth day, of the nation of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; as to the Law, a Pharisee;

6 as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to the righteousness which is in the Law, found blameless.

7 But whatever things were gain to me, those things I have counted as loss for the sake of Christ.

8 More than that, I count all things to be loss in view of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them but rubbish so that I may gain Christ,

9 and may be found in Him, not having a righteousness of my own derived from the Law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which comes from God on the basis of faith,

10 that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death;

 $11\,\,$ in order that I may attain to the resurrection from the dead.

12 Not that I have already obtained it or have already become perfect, but I press on so that I may lay hold of that for which also I was laid hold of by Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I do not regard myself as having laid hold of it yet; but one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead, 14 I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as are perfect,  have this attitude; and if in anything you have a different attitude, God will reveal that also to you:

16 however, let us keep living by that same standard to which we have attained.

LIFE LESSONS

> 3:3 — We are the true circumcision, who worship in the Spirit of God and glory in Christ Jesus and put no confidence in the flesh.

When Paul speaks of circumcision, he is referring to the command God gave to Abraham, "You shall be circumcised . . . and it shall be the sign of the covenant between Me and you" (Gen. 17:11). This was the mark that for centuries set Jews apart as the Lord's special people. However, when Christ came, He made it clear that it was not the outward observance of the ritual that would redeem a person, but it was the inward circumcision of the heart by which we are saved. Salvation is an act of faith in God's wondrous mercy and grace (Rom. 2:25–29).

> 3:4 — If anyone else has a mind to put confidence in the flesh, I far more.

Then Paul writes concerning the flesh, he is speaking of our human nature—our earthly desires, inclinations, and carnal strength. Our flesh doesn't follow God—in fact, it's often in complete opposition to Him (Rom. 7). Rather, it seeks after pleasure and finds importance in accomplishments, wealth, beauty, and so on. The Spirit, on the other hand, always directs us to becoming more like Christ through obedience. Paul underscored the fact that true religion is never a matter of carrying out traditions and rituals but is always based in a genuine and intimate relationship with God.

> 3:5 — Of the nation of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; as to the Law, a Pharisee.

Paul had astounding credentials—everything that defined success in his community. From birth, he observed the law and grew to be a very prominent Pharisee as a student of the respected Gamaliel (Acts 5:34). He could trace his lineage to the first king of Israel, Saul. Also, because he was born in Tarsus, he enjoyed all of the rights and privileges of being a Roman citizen. Yet none of this could compare to knowing Christ.

> 3:8 — I count all things to be loss in view of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them but rubbish.

Sometimes our greatest earthly strengths and riches become our most terrible weaknesses, because they keep us from completely depending on Jesus. Paul realized this, which is why he counted all things to be loss compared to knowing Christ. Likewise, the Lord may call you to give up something you deem very important so that you can grow in your Christian faith. It may be difficult, but take heart and remember that only your relationship with Jesus and what He does through you will last in eternity (1 John 2:17).

> 3:10, 11 — That I may know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death; in order that I may attain to the resurrection from the dead.

Pery few could match Paul's credentials and accomplishments. But it was never enough for the apostle. Paul needed Jesus. It wasn't through his success that he experienced God—it was through his suffering and adversity. And during those times, the Lord touched him so profoundly and intimately that Paul realized how priceless it was to experience adversity (Rom. 5:3–5; 8:17, 18; 2 Cor. 1:3–11; 12:7–10; Col. 1:24).

> 3:13, 14 — I do not regard myself as having laid hold of it yet; but one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal.

ven the apostle Paul realized he had not yet reached the Lord's goal for him—which was to know and reflect Jesus fully and completely (Rom. 8:29; Phil. 1:21; 3:8–11). Paul's judgment about himself should help to humble us and motivate us to acknowledge that we all have a long way to go. We can't dwell on the past—celebrating spiritual victories or mourning defeats. We must press on with the mindset that there is always more to be learned, submitted, expressed, and experienced in Christ.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S UESTIONS

How important is it to set goals?

PHIL. 3:11-14

Laul knew what it meant to set Godhonoring goals. Philippians 3:8-11 describes not only where Paul had been, but also where he was going. Yes, he endured hardship. Yes, he experienced the joy of Christ. Yes, he had seen God use him—even from prison. Yet Paul understood that there was more of God to know, and so he set goals that would enable him and others to experience God at greater depths.

So how did Paul set these goals and move forward with such decisiveness, shrugging off passivity and complacency with every step? How can we follow his lead?

- Believe and meditate on the promises of God. Paul had full confidence that God's indwelling Spirit would give him the resurrection power to live up to his God-given potential in every area of life (Phil. 3:11).
- Have a consuming desire to achieve a precise goal. Paul had a clearly defined set of goals. He knew God had called Him to evangelize the lost (Phil. 3:13).
- Have the courage to attempt, even at the risk of failure. Paul didn't let his weaknesses or fears deter him. He understood that God used his weaknesses and fears to keep him dependent on and strengthened by Christ (Phil. 3:12).
- 17 Brethren, join in following my example, and observe those who walk according to the pattern you have in us.
- 18 For many walk, of whom I often told you, and now tell you even weeping, that they are enemies of the cross of Christ,

- Choose determination. Paul faced more opposition than most of us can imagine. Yet he remained committed to whatever God told him was necessary to fulfill his goals (Phil. 3:14).
- Be persistent. Persistence means we're still going when everyone else has stopped. Paul had days, just like the rest of us, when he only inched forward. We won't always sprint toward our goal; some days it will be all we can do just to keep pressing on. However, we must not give up. Paul stayed on track with God's plan, and the Lord gave him the strength he needed to accomplish every task.
- Stand firm in faith. Though Paul was tested and tried, his faith remained strong because it was not based on human ability. It was founded in the sovereign and infinite ability of God. Therefore, there was no way for him to fail. God would grant victory. All Paul had to do was believe in the One who sent him.
- Humble yourself. Paul writes, "Not that I have already obtained it or have already become perfect" (Phil. 3:12). Paul did not "rest on his laurels" because he knew he hadn't yet arrived. Neither have we.
- Let go of the past. Clinging to bitterness, an unforgiving spirit, and old mistakes will always keep us from achieving our God-given potential (Phil. 3:13).

Evaluate your own goals and ask God how they fit into the greater goal of knowing Him. As He reveals His plans for you for this day, this year, this life on earth, don't let anything or anyone stamp out the zeal that rises in you.

LIFE PRINCIPLE 26

ADVERSITY IS A BRIDGE TO A DEEPER RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD.

PHIL. 3:10, 11

hat is God's goal in adversity? His basic objective is to draw us closer to Himself. He does not glory in pain or sorrow, but He uses these things to teach us about His love and faithfulness.

The moment adversity comes our vulnerability increases, and we may find ourselves wondering why God has allowed us to face such difficulty. Pain, disappointment, and trial are effective tools that He uses to drive us to Himself and to the Cross, where we discover our personal need for a Savior. We are struck with a defining thought: I need God. We need His strength, wisdom, and forgiveness.

Whenever you are confronted by adversity, always remember that God has a purpose for allowing it to touch your life. He is never out of control. He has a plan and a goal, not just for this situation alone, but also for your entire life. In times of difficulty, He is your immovable strength (Prov. 18:10), and He has promised never to abandon you.

What are you to do when adversity strikes? The Book of Hebrews encourages us by saying, "Do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward. For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God, you may receive what was promised" (Heb. 10:35, 36).

When adversity strikes, one of the first things we should do is turn to the Lord and ask Him to show us what we need to learn in the situation. We may initially battle feelings of disbelief or denial, but the overriding thought needs to be one of trust and faith in God's ability. The second step is to affirm our commitment to Him and set our focus on Him—not our circumstances. We see both of these portrayed in the lives of the men and women of the Bible.

Joseph's life especially was a study of faith, trust, and victory amid adversity. As a young man, he trusted and watched God take the cruelest act and turn it into a blessing. Sold into Egyptian bondage by his brothers, Joseph spent years bound and confined to a life of slavery. Even when it appeared that he would gain a reprieve from danger and heartache, adversity struck a second time as he was falsely accused of a crime. Back to the dungeon he went, only this time with a stiffer sentence.

We may be tempted to think, "Poor Joseph!" But actually, he was right in the center of God's perfect plan. He may not have understood why he was in captivity, but he believed that he could trust God for his life and future.

We are struck with a defining thought: I need God.

Adversity was a keen tool in Joseph's life. The Lord used it to shape His servant for service. Joseph landed in a key leadership role that ultimately led to the preservation of the nation of Israel. Had he escaped from prison and gone into hiding, the entire nation of Israel would have missed God's blessing. And without the training that came as a result of severe disappointment, Joseph may have become proud and self-reliant. Instead, God used this young man's life to change the course of history.

People often ask, "What is the quickest way through seasons of adversity?"
Many times there just is no quick solution to the trials we face. There is one sure way through the difficulties of life, however, and that is through obedience and surrender of selfish feelings and desires.

Adversity has a way of pushing us beyond ourselves where we find God waiting to gather us in His arms. It stirs us to pray like nothing else can. And it is in prayer that we find shelter from the storms of life. Held under the canopy of God's presence, we discover a sense of security and hope that we thought had evaded us.

Even when life seems emotionally and spiritually dark, He will be your light. You can be sure that God will use the trials you face to shape your life, so that you reflect His love and care to others.

Never forget that God knows the future! He understands the advantage of adversity and how it can be used to strengthen your faith, refine your hope, and settle your heart into a place of contentment and trust. Without times of adversity, you would miss the powerful experience of God walking with you through the valley times of life.

Therefore, determine to keep the focus of your heart on Jesus. Don't let the negative talk of others tempt you to get off course. Stay close to the Lord in devotion and prayer. Read His Word. He will guide you through the greatest difficulty, and then you will know what it means to live in a broad place of blessing.

As believers, we will no longer remember the struggles and sorrows of this life because our minds and bodies will be absolutely purified in His presence. In fact, everything will be different, because we will stand holy and glorified before the Lord (1 Cor. 13:12; 1 John 3:2). If your body is broken, in pain, or you simply do not like it—hold on. One day, you will have a brand new one if you believe in Him (1 Cor. 15:40-54).

he Philippians understood the power of rejoicing in every situation—they had seen it firsthand through Paul (Acts 16:16–34). When he and Silas were beaten and imprisoned in Philippi, the two sang hymns of praise to the Lord. Suddenly, the prison walls were shaken, and soon after, the jailer was saved and the missionaries were released! Likewise, we should praise God no matter our circumstances because we know the Lord will redeem our situation for our good and His glory if we will trust Him (Ps. 30:5, 11; 126:5, 6).

> 4:5 — Let your gentle spirit be known to all men. The Lord is near.

Every believer is indwelt by God's Holy Spirit with His su-pernatural power and wisdom. We can be gentle, confident, and forbearing in every situation because we know the Lord is close to us—that He loves us, defends us, provides for us, and redeems us.

> 4:6 — Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.

It is no wonder that we feel apprehensive when we measure our troubles against our ability to handle them. Anxiety, however, disappears when we learn to take our concerns to God. He is the only One who has the power and wisdom to deal with every issue perfectly. This is why we stand tallest and strongest on our knees. When we are submitted to the One who always works in our best interest, we know we have absolutely nothing

> 4:7 — The peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

How could Paul be so positive, secure, and unruffled in his relationship with the Lord after being beaten, shipwrecked, imprisoned, and persecuted? Paul could be positive, secure, and unruffled because peace with God is the fruit of oneness with Him. When we are firmly rooted in a deep, intimate relationship with Him, we enjoy a tranquility that transcends explanation. Though everything is in tumult around us, we are still confident and calm. This is because we know that when the Lord is with us, we have absolutely nothing to fear.

4:8 — Whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure . . . dwell on these

If we dwell on negative or sinful thoughts, our thinking degenerates. Feelings of pride, pessimism, selfishness, shame, and destruction tempt us to turn aside from God. But if we fill our minds with the holy and acceptable things of God, the opposite happens. We begin to see and respond to the world as He does—in truth, righteousness, and in accordance with His will (Rom. 12:2; 2 Cor. 10:5; Col. 3:2).

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

Will God really meet all my needs?

PHIL. 4:19

Have you ever pondered the real meaning of Philippians 4:19? If so, then you may also have encountered some frustration.

"What about this need I have had for years?" you wonder. "Doesn't God care about that aching hole in my heart? Why doesn't He just fill it by meeting my needs automatically?" The truth is, God wants us to trust Him and not look only for the blessing. In other words, keep our focus on the right thing, which is a personal relationship with the Savior. Circumstances have little to do with lasting joy. Peace, joy, and contentment come from knowing God and having a personal relationship with Him. The only way to be fully happy is to have a heart that is set on Jesus Christ. Then when difficulty comes, we won't feel lost, confused, or disillusioned.

Many people attempt to meet their own needs apart from God. But this never works. It only leads to frustration and deep disappointment. There will be times when we wonder if He hears our prayers. He always does. And He also is the only One who can answer correctly and satisfy the desires of our hearts. So why do we struggle? Usually, it is because we think we know better than God. We fail to realize we cannot meet our own needs or compel Him to comply with our personal desires, schedule, or concept of how we think something should be done.

perity; in any and every circumstance I have learned the secret of being filled and going hungry, both of having abundance and suffering need.

≥ 13 I can do all things through Him who strengthens me.

The first step to having our needs met is to trust Him completely with the entirety of our lives. He knows what is best for us, and His purpose in allowing any delay is for our good. Waiting prepares us for a greater blessing. It strengthens our faith and reliance on Him and consequently rids us of a desire to be self-sufficient.

The second step is to obey Him and allow Him to work fully in our lives. Many times, He stretches our faith by allowing us to have a need. He knows how we will respond, but He wants us to learn how to say yes to His design—even when we do not have all the information and facts.

The third step is to trust and wait for Him. In a very real sense, your unmet need is a form of trial and temptation. It's a trial because its lack of fulfillment can feel truly painful, and it's a temptation because it urges you to turn away from God to meet your own needs. But James says, "Blessed is a man who perseveres under trial; for once he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love Him" (1:12).

So what are you to do when the delay goes on, the pressure to give up increases, and you feel weary of beating yourself up with false guilt? It may sound like a platitude, but keep your eyes on the Lord and follow Him—no matter what. James tells us that the testing of our faith leads to perseverance, which works to make us "perfect and complete, lacking in nothing" (1:4).

Worked out on the journey of faith, such unwavering trust has profound results.

Paul had experienced God's glorious provision through the believers in Philippi, and he assured the church that the Lord was going to bless them for their generosity. Sometimes believers fail to give what God calls them to because they are afraid they will not have enough for themselves. We can never outgive the Lord. Be confident that He can and will meet every need that you have—especially as you are following Him in obedience.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE n Ephesians, Paul describes the body of Christ—the church. In Colossians, he portrays the Head of the church—the Lord Jesus. Through his letter to the church at Colossae, Paul shows that Jesus Christ is first and foremost in everything, and that the Christian should reflect Him as his or her preeminent priority. He is not one deity in many to be worshiped, "He is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of all creation. For by Him all things were created, both in the heavens and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things have been created through Him and for Him" (Col 1:15, 16).

In what ways is Christ unique and unsurpassed? Paul does not present an exhaustive list, but he does offer an impressive one. Jesus is the incarnation of almighty God; He is the eternal Creator of all that exists; He holds all things together; He is the first to rise from the dead, never to die again; He is the only Savior of the world and the victor over all principalities and powers; He is the Lord of life, who has promised to return in triumph; He is the generous rewarder of all our faithful service; and He is the lone Master of heaven.

As believers we are rooted in Jesus, alive in Him, hidden in Him, and complete in Him. Therefore, it is utterly inconsistent for us to live in rebellion to Him—as if He did not exist or as if it were all right to share our allegiance with another. Clothed in His love, with His peace ruling in our hearts, we are equipped to make Christ first in every area of life.

Paul's letter makes it clear that destructive teaching had crept its way into this young church. More than likely, the believers there had begun to integrate the ideas of the pagan religions and philosophies in the community along with Christian doctrine—a fusion known as syncretism. To counter it, Paul stressed the centrality of Jesus Christ to the gospel message.

This epistle became known as Pros Kolossaeis, "To the Colossians," because of 1:2. However, Paul also wanted it to be read in the neighboring church of Laodicea (Col. 4:16). A man that Paul led to the Lord named Epaphras (1:7; 4:12) had a hand in founding the church in Colossae.

Theme: The centrality of Jesus Christ.

Author: The apostle Paul.

Time: Likely written from prison in Rome circa A.D. 60–62.

Structure: Like Ephesians, the little Book of Colossians divides neatly in half, with the first part doctrinal (1–2) and the second part practical (3–4). Chapter 1 looks at the identity of Jesus and what He means to believers. Chapter 2 describes a growing relationship with God through Christ. Chapters 3 and 4 apply the doctrines surveyed in the first two chapters, covering the various functions of the members of a Christian household.

As you read Colossians, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

- 24. To live the Christian life is to allow Jesus to live His life in and through us. See Colossians 1:10; page 1406.
- 22. To walk in the Spirit is to obey the initial promptings of the Spirit. See Colossians 2:6; 3:12; pages 1408: 1410.
- 28. No Christian has ever been called to "go it alone" in his or her walk of faith. See Colossians 3:16; page 1410.
- 17. We stand tallest and strongest on our knees. See Colossians 4:2; page 1411.

6 which has come to you, just as in all the world also it is constantly bearing fruit and increasing, even as it has been doing in you also since the day you heard of it and understood the grace of God in truth;

7 just as you learned it from Epaphras, our beloved fellow bond-servant, who is a faithful servant of Christ on our behalf,

8 and he also informed us of your love in the Spirit.

- ➤ 9 For this reason also, since the day we heard of it, we have not ceased to pray for you and to ask that you may be filled with the knowledge of His will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding.
- ➤ 10 so that you will walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, to please Him in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God;

The Incomparable Christ

13 For He rescued us from the domain of darkness, and transferred us to the kingdom of His beloved Son, 14 in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

15 He is the image of the invisible God, the 4 firstborn of all creation.

16 For by Him all things were created, both in the heavens and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things have been created through Him and for Him.

17 He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together.

18 He is also head of the body, the church; and He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that He Himself will come to have first place in everything.

19 For it was the Father's good pleasure for ≺ all the fullness to dwell in Him, 20 and through Him to reconcile all things to Himself, having made peace through the blood of His cross; through Him, I say, whether things on earth or things in heaven.

21 And although you were formerly alienated and hostile in mind, engaged in evil deeds, 22 yet He has now reconciled you in His fleshly body through death, in order to present you before Him holy and blameless and beyond reproach—

LIFE LESSONS

> 1:9 — We have not ceased to pray for you and to ask that you may be filled with the knowledge of His will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding.

It is God's desire that we would walk in His will and obey Him. And knowing His plan for our lives is a treasure because it prevents us from wasting our time and talents on things that will not matter in eternity. So when we pray for others, it is appropriate that we ask for His purpose to be fulfilled in them and that they would see every situation from His viewpoint—because this is life at its very best, and there's absolutely nothing that compares with it.

> 1:10 — Walk in a manner worthy of the Lord.

That does it mean to walk worthy of Christ's name? It means that our conversations, conducts, and characters are consistent with the person of Jesus Christ—we live in a manner that represents Him with honor. When people meet you, they see His likeness and are drawn to Him. This can only be accomplished if you allow Jesus to live in and through you.

> 1:13 — He rescued us from the domain of darkness, and transferred us to the kingdom of His beloved Son.

Pagans in Colossae believed in appeasing the chaotic and dangerous powers of darkness and filled the Christians there with fear. Though they were right in believing that we are helpless to escape our bondage to the enemy on our own, what they did not understand is that the Lord Jesus has defeated Satan through His death on the Cross and resurrection (Matt. 4:16; John 8:12; 12:46). Christ brings us into the light and into the life of freedom when we believe in Him, so we have absolutely no reason to fear the dominion of darkness.

> 1:15 — He is the image of the invisible God.

Galse teachers, pagans, and cults always attempt to undermine who Jesus is. The Gnostic heresy asserted that everything physical is evil and that the Lord would not take on a human body. Another heretical doctrine held that Jesus was just one of the Lord's representatives. However, to have faith in Jesus Christ means to believe that He is God incarnate (John 1:1; 10:30; 14:9) and that the only way to be saved is through faith in Him (Eph. 2:8, 9; 2 Tim. 1:9; Titus 3:5).

> 1:19, 20 — It was the Father's good pleasure for . . . Him to reconcile all things to Himself, having made peace through the blood of His cross.

Before Christ, we were alienated from God, which means that we were hostile to Him—rebellious, sinful enemies completely separated from His presence. Yet the Lord created us to be united with Him in a deep, intimate relationship. So when we talk about being reconciled to God, we mean that our relationship with Him has been restored through Jesus' blood on the Cross.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT A LIFE-CHANGING PRAYER

Col. 1:9-12

harles Finney, a nineteenth-century American evangelist, sometimes wrestled with what to say in prayer. One day an acquaintance of his fell deathly ill. She did not know Christ, and her husband asked Finney to pray for her. Finney immediately became burdened for the woman, but he did not know how to pray.

Finally, after grasping for the right words, Finney received a breakthrough. He said he "was enabled to roll the burden upon" God and that he immediately felt sure the woman would not die. Not long afterwards, the woman made a full recovery and committed her life to Christ.

Like Finney, we must intercede for others according to God's will and believe in faith He will answer us (Heb. 11:6).

As an example to believers, Paul often included powerful prayers in his letters. We find one of them in Colossians 1:9–12. In seven requests, Paul covers every area of our lives that need the Lord's daily touch:

1. May we be filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding (v. 9). Ask God to fill you with the spiritual discernment you need as you walk in His will and study His Word.

Paul often sprinkled his letters with intriguing prayers.

- 2. May we walk in a manner worthy of the Lord Jesus Christ (v. 10). Jesus lived a blameless life, exactly what we should pursue.
- 3. May we please God in all respects (v. 10). Paul encouraged believers to live a life that honored God—always obeying Him and excelling in their Christian walk.
- 4. May we bear fruit in every good work (v. 10). A Christian's life should have an eternal impact, and we should be influencing those around us for the sake of His kingdom.
- 5. May we increasingly grow in the knowledge of God (v. 10). We should always be laying hold of a deeper, more intimate relationship with the Lord.
- 6. May we be strengthened with all power, according to His glorious might (v. 11). Ask God to empower you to do His will for His glory—and He will do it.
- 7. May our lives express joyous thanks to the Father for His grace to us (v. 12). Our love for Him should run so deep that we can't help but give all the glory and honor to Him. And those around us will rejoice in Him as well.

24 Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I do my share on behalf of His body, which is the church, in filling up what is lacking in Christ's afflictions.

25 Of this church I was made a minister according to the stewardship from God bestowed on me for your benefit, so that I might fully carry out the preaching of the word of God, 28 We proclaim Him, admonishing every man and teaching every man with all wisdom, so that we may present every man complete in Christ.

29 For this purpose also I labor, striving according to His power, which mightily works within me.

You Are Built Up in Christ

4 I say this so that no one will delude you with persuasive argument.

5 For even though I am absent in body, nevertheless I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your good discipline and the stability of your faith in Christ.

6 Therefore as you have received Christ ◀ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him.

7 having been firmly rooted and now being built up in Him and established ^ain your faith, just as you were instructed, and overflowing with gratitude.

8 See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deception, according to the tradition of men, according to the elementary principles of the world, rather than according to Christ.

9 For in Him all the fullness of Deity dwells in bodily form, and in Him you have been made complete, and He is the head over all rule and authority; 11 and in Him you were also circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, in the removal of the body of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ;

12 having been buried with Him in baptism, in which you were also raised up with Him through faith in the working of God, who raised Him from the dead.

13 When you were dead in your transgressions and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He made you alive together with Him, having forgiven us all our transgressions,

> 1:27 — Christ in you, the hope of glory.

On Old Testament times, the Holy Spirit came upon chosen men and women of God to enable them to accomplish His will. But no one ever imagined that He would actually take up residence in believers, as He does today.

> 2:6 — As you have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him.

Mow did you receive Jesus as your Lord and Savior? By faith. And that is exactly how you grow into maturity—by faith. The ability to accomplish all God has planned for you is within you through the presence, power, and wisdom of the Holy Spirit. So if you wish to develop your relationship with Him and become all you were created to be, you must willingly surrender yourself to His promptings and trust Him, no matter what He commands you to do.

> 2:9 — In Him all the fullness of Deity dwells in bodily form.

Paul warned the Colossians to guard themselves against empty, deceptive philosophies that were based on limited human reasoning. It may be impossible for us to comprehend how Jesus could be totally human and totally divine at the same time (John 1:1, 14; Phil. 2:6–8). But that is the clear teaching of Scripture, and we must accept it, even if we do not understand it. Jesus said, "He who has seen Me has seen the Father" (John 14:9).

> 2:10 — He is the head over all rule and authority.

erything that exists was created by Him and for Him. It is all under His authority, including all the nations, governments, and rulers of the earth. Of course, some people disagree with that—they do not acknowledge the lordship of Christ. But their opinion is irrelevant because one day "at the name of Jesus every knee will bow, of those who are in heaven and on earth and under the earth" (Phil. 2:10).

> 2:13 — When you were dead in your transgressions . . . He made you alive together with Him, having forgiven us all our transgressions.

"The wages of sin is death" (Rom. 6:23). That means that without Jesus, we are spiritually dead and cannot have any fellowship with God because He is Spirit. If we never accept Christ as our Savior—Who makes us alive spiritually by removing our sin—then we can never have a relationship with Him.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

How can I partner with the Holy Spirit in my life?

COL. 2:6, 7

When thinking about partnering with the Holy Spirit, it is important to first consider what allowed you to begin a relationship with the Lord. How did you—a sinner—enter into a friendship with holy God? What reconciled you to Him? Was it dedication on your part? Was it a result of your unceasing effort? Of course not! You entered your relationship with Him by faith. Likewise, every aspect of your life with Him requires you to trust Him. The apostle Paul affirms, "As you have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, having been firmly rooted and now being built up in Him and established in your faith, just as you were instructed" (Col. 2:6, 7). The Lord teaches you how to walk with Him, honor Him, and how to join in His work.

We are not the first generation of Christians who have tried to take matters into

 - 15 When He had disarmed the rulers and authorities, He made a public display of them, having triumphed over them through Him.
 - 16 Therefore no one is to act as your judge in regard to food or drink or in respect to a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath day—
- ➤ 17 things which are a mere shadow of what is to come; but the substance belongs to Christ.

our own hands; believers throughout history have exhibited the same problem. It is part of fallen human nature to want to maintain control and to do things ourselves. However, when it comes to righteousness, whether for salvation or for living, we must allow God to do the work.

The Spirit-filled life is a life of faith. It started by faith and is maintained by faith from start to finish. What is faith? Faith is believing that God will do as He has promised. It is not a power or something we're supposed to drum up inside ourselves. Rather, faith is trusting that God will honor His promises. That's all there is to it.

At the beginning of our relationship with Him, we believed that Jesus would redeem us from the penalty of our sins; now we must trust Him to free us from the bondage of the sinful strongholds in our lives. We must have confidence that He will show us how to live in a manner that honors Him. We are to go about our lives, making decisions, handling crises, raising our families, and so on, knowing He will really do what He said He would do. That is what it means to partner with the Spirit.

21 "Do not handle, do not taste, do not touch!"

> 2:14 — Having canceled out the certificate of debt consisting of decrees against us, which was hostile to us; and He has . . . nailed it to the cross.

Cach one of us has a legal sin debt that must be reconciled (Rom. 6:23). Yet none of us can pay it because of our sin nature. So Christ—knowing every sin we would ever commit—took our record of wrongs upon Himself and wiped them all out with His own blood (Matt. 26:28; Rom. 3:23–26: Ebh. 1:7: Col. 1:20: Heb. 9:11–28). It was cancelled forevermore. No one can ever condemn us because our Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, paid the penalty in full.

> 2:17 — Things which are a mere shadow of what is to come; but the substance belongs to Christ.

Il of the feasts, festivals, and holidays of the Jews—even the temple itself—foretold the coming of Christ. They were never meant to inspire legalistic adherence to the law, but wholehearted, devoted faith in the coming Messiah.

Put On the New Self

- THEREFORE if you have been raised up with Christ, keep seeking the things above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God.
- > 2 Set your mind on the things above, not on the things that are on earth.
 - 3 For you have died and your life is hidden with Christ in God.
- * 4 When Christ, who is our life, is revealed, then you also will be revealed with Him in glory.
 - Therefore consider the members of your earthly body as dead to immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed, which amounts to idolatry.
 - 6 For it is because of these things that the wrath of God will come aupon the sons of disobedience.
 - 7 and in them you also once walked, when you were living in them.
 - 8 But now you also, put them all aside: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive speech from your mouth.
 - 9 Do not lie to one another, since you laid aside the old self with its evil practices,
 - 10 and have put on the new self who is being renewed to a true knowledge according to the image of the One who created him—

- 11 a renewal in which there is no distinction between Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, ^bbarbarian, Scythian, slave and freeman, but Christ is all, and in all.
- 12 So, as those who have been chosen of ≺ God, holy and beloved, put on a heart of compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience:
- 13 bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, whoever has a complaint against anyone; just as the Lord forgave you, so also should you.
- 14 Beyond all these things put on love, which is the perfect bond of unity.
- 15 Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body; and be thankful.
- 16 Let the word of ^cChrist richly dwell ≺ within you, with all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with thankfulness in your hearts to God.
- 17 Whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks through Him to God the Father.

> 2:23 — These are matters which have, to be sure, the appearance of wisdom in self-made religion and self-abasement and severe treatment of the body, but are of no value against fleshly indulgence.

In some ways, it may seem easier to live by a set of rules than to obey the Lord. But the truth is that pious regulations cannot change our natures—they can only temporarily suppress our true impulses. We must fight against anything that tempts us to conform to a legalistic mindset because that only leads to bondage. Spiritual problems can only be solved by the transformative power of His Holy Spirit.

> 3:2 — Set your mind on the things above, not on the things that are on earth.

Our mind is working all the time—constantly processing information. And what you think about affects you more than you realize because who you are today is the result of what you've been thinking all these past years. That is why believers are admonished to focus our thoughts on the things that honor the Lord—because God's goal is to change us into the likeness of Christ, and that transformation begins in our minds (Rom. 12:2; Phil. 4:8, 9).

> 3:4 — When Christ, who is our life, is revealed, then you also will be revealed with Him in glory.

The day is coming when Christ will take His throne and believers will be revealed as His people—so we live in great anticipation of His return. But for now, we must allow Him to prepare us for eternity and always fix our hope firmly on His promise that we will live together with Him in glory forever.

> 3:12 — Put on a heart of compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience.

Compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience do not automatically become our characteristics when we accept Jesus Christ as our Savior. We have a responsibility to adopt these qualities, but we cannot do this on our own. As we surrender to the control of God's Spirit, He changes us so that our lives become a reflection of Christ, thus exemplifying each one of these qualities.

> 3:16 — Let the word of Christ richly dwell within you, with all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs.

Thatever we say to one another—whether we do so through sermons, lessons, testimonies, songs, or just casual conversation—should be with the purpose of spurring each other to love God more. We cannot grow in our relationships with Jesus or mature in our walks without the encouragement, help, and instruction of others.

19 Husbands, love your wives and do not be embittered against them.

20 Children, be obedient to your parents in all things, for this is well-pleasing to the Lord.
21 Fathers, do not exasperate your children, so that they will not lose heart.

22 Slaves, in all things obey those who are your masters on earth, not with external service, as those who merely please men, but with sincerity of heart, fearing the Lord.

≥ 23 Whatever you do, do your work heartily, as for the Lord rather than for men,

*24 knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance. It is the Lord Christ whom you serve.

25 For he who does wrong will receive the consequences of the wrong which he has done, and that without partiality.

Learning to End Well

COL. 4:10

John Mark had gotten off to a great start. He accompanied Barnabas and Paul on an exciting missionary journey and saw God do amazing things. For whatever reason, however, he left them in the middle of their work, and Paul refused to team up with the young man again (Acts 13:13; 15:36–40).

Paul's opinion of Mark eventually changed, however (Col. 4:10; 2 Tim. 4:11). Mark went on to minister once more with Barnabas, his cousin, and eventually wrote the Gospel of Mark. He accepted the challenge of ministry—difficulties and all—and ended up a winner.

Many believers fail to end well because they mistakenly think that God's call to personal ministry depends on their skill level. None of us are adequate in ourselves, any more than any of us can save ourselves. Throughout our lives we must glorify God, and that means depending on Him from beginning to end.

See the Life Principles Index for further study:

- The awareness of God's presence energizes us for our work.

LIFE LESSONS

> 3:23 — Whatever you do, do your work heartily, as for the Lord rather than for men.

Every activity we engage in as believers should be done for the glory of God. Regardless of who we are, we must do each task with joy, integrity, diligence, and energy because we represent the Lord, and others will form their opinions of Him through what they see in us.

> 3:24 — From the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance. It is the Lord Christ whom you serve.

The gifts and talents you have belong to God, and when you neglect them or use them for selfish purposes, they are wasted. But when you invest your gifts wisely, the Lord rewards your faithfulness by making you even more effective for His kingdom and blessing you.

> 4:2 — Devote yourselves to prayer.

Iways remember that we stand tallest and strongest on our knees because this is when we are humbled before God and dependent upon His power. As we talk with Him, listen to Him, and allow Him to speak to our hearts through His Word, we receive His wisdom and direction. And as we obey Him in faith, He works mightily to show us the victory.

> 4:5 — Conduct yourselves with wisdom toward outsiders, making the most of the opportunity.

Inbelievers are always watching us, whether we realize it or not, and we do not know when the Lord will present an opportunity for us to influence them. They may ask us about heaven, eternal life, or God, and we must always be ready to tell them the reason for our hope.

distances to deliver the apostle's letters to the churches and collected information about the challenges believers faced in each location. To some, this may not seem significant. But if Tychicus and others had refused to deliver Paul's epistles to the churches, a great portion of the New Testament may have been lost.

> 4:11 — These are the only fellow workers for the kingdom of God who are from the circumcision, and they have proved to be an encouragement to me.

Then Paul was in prison in Rome, God surrounded him with a group of godly men to diligently encourage him and provide for his needs. The apostle doesn't say anything about their abilities, skills, experience, or education. But he does mention they were men of great character and godliness (Col. 4:7–17). This is what it takes for any of us to do ministry—faithfulness, love, a sacrificial spirit, a servant's heart, and absolute devotion to the Lord. All of us have the capacity to serve when we commit to obeying God wholeheartedly.

> 4:14 — Luke, the beloved physician, sends you his greetings, and also Demas.

Thile at this point Demas is Paul's faithful companion, some time later he would turn his back on the apostle because he "loved this present world" (2 Tim. 4:10). Finishing well does not happen by accident—we must work at it by keeping our focus on Christ.

> 4:17 — "Take heed to the ministry which you have received in the Lord, that you may fulfill it."

ach of us has some special work that the Lord has assigned to us (Eph. 2:10). What has God called you to do? The Lord has a plan for your life, and if you wish to experience life to the fullest, you need to ask Him what that purpose is. It is only in obeying Him that you will find true satisfaction and significance.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS

aul had many pleasant memories of the days he spent with Thessalonian believers. The faith, hope, love, and perseverance that its members displayed in the face of severe persecution deeply encouraged him. Paul's labors as a spiritual parent to the fledgling church were richly rewarded, and we see his obvious affection for his friends in every line of this letter.

He founded the Thessalonian church during his second missionary journey (Acts 17:1–9), in the face of intense opposition from the Jews. He did not stay there long—most estimates range from a few weeks to a few months—and then he was forced to leave. The apostle made his way to Athens, but continued in his concern for the young congregation. He worried that the antagonism they faced might damage and even destroy the church. So the apostle sent Timothy to encourage and strengthen these young believers in Christ. When he returned, his positive report, mixed with a few lingering concerns, apparently inspired the apostle to write this letter.

Paul encouraged his friends to excel in their newfound faith, to increase in their love for one another, and to rejoice, pray, and give thanks always. He closed every chapter with a reminder that the Lord is coming back. Christ's advent signals hope and comfort for all believers, living and dead. The fact that Paul emphasized the Lord's return to a young church just getting started should perhaps suggest to us the importance of teaching the doctrine of the Second Coming in a practical way so as to lay a foundation for a mature Christian faith.

Because this is the first of Paul's two known letters to the church at Thessalonica, it received the title Pros Thessalonikeis A, the "First to the Thessalonians."

Themes: The certain return of Christ should fill believers with unquenchable hope and help them to find strength when they come under attack for their faith.

Author: The apostle Paul.

Time: Probably written circa A.D. 51–52. This is among Paul's earliest letters.

Structure: Paul begins by giving thanks for the Thessalonians and their testimony (1:1–10). He then defends his conduct and absence (2:1—3:13), exhorts them to godly conduct, reminds them of the Lord's coming, and gives direction for church life (4:1—5:22). He ends with a prayer, greetings, and conclusion (5:23–28).

As you read 1 Thessalonians, watch for the life principles that play an important role in this book:

- 26. Adversity is a bridge to a deeper relationship with God. See 1 Thessalonians 1:6; 4:11; pages 1414; 1417.
- 29. We learn more in our valley experiences than on our mountaintops. See 1 Thessalonians 3:3; page 1415.
- 30. An eager anticipation of the Lord's return keeps us living productively. See 1 Thessalonians 3:13; 5:2, 6; pages 1417; 1418.

Thanksgiving for These Believers

PAUL and Silvanus and Timothy,

1 To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace.

2 We give thanks to God always for all of you, making mention of you in our prayers;

- 3 constantly bearing in mind your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ in the presence of our God and Father,
 - 4 knowing, brethren beloved by God, His choice of you;
- > 5 for our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction; just as you know what kind of men we proved to be among you for your sake.
- You also became imitators of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much tribulation with the joy of the Holy Spirit,
 To so that you became an example to all the
- > 7 so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia.
 - 8 For the word of the Lord has sounded forth from you, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything.
 - 9 For they themselves report about us what kind of a reception we had with you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve a living and true God,

10 and to wait for His Son from heaven, *\times whom He raised from the dead, that is Jesus, who rescues us from the wrath to come.

Paul's Ministry

 2^{FOR} you yourselves know, brethren, that 2^{FOR} you was not in vain,

2 but after we had already suffered and been mistreated in Philippi, as you know, we had the boldness in our God to speak to you the gospel of God amid much opposition.

3 For our exhortation does not come from error or impurity or by way of deceit;

- 4 but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not as pleasing men, but God who examines our hearts.
- 5 For we never came with flattering speech, as you know, nor with a pretext for greed—God is witness—
- 6 nor did we seek glory from men, either from you or from others, even though as apostles of Christ we might have asserted our authority.
- 7 But we proved to be agentle among you, as a nursing mother tenderly cares for her own children.

LIFE LESSONS

> 1:3 — Your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

God's will and plan for all believers is to live a lifestyle of good works. A balanced and effective Christian life features faith, hope, and love working together—motivating everything we do in obedience to Him and for His glory.

> 1:5 — Our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction.

Thessalonica was a great seaport and center of commerce and industry. Located on the Via Egnatia, it was very strategic in the spread of the gospel. However, approximately fifty miles southwest of Thessalonica was Mt. Olympus, a hub of idolatry. Only the work of the Holy Spirit could show the people that the Lord Jesus was not one deity among the many in the Greek pantheon, but that He alone is the Savior of the world and the only true God.

> 1:6 — You also became imitators of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much tribulation with the joy of the Holy Spirit.

Believers in Thessalonica experienced persecution because of their faith (Acts 17:1–9), but Paul instructed them to continue to serve God with gladness. The world does not see how joy and tribulation can possibly go together, but throughout the Bible we see the two of them paired. A life of faith may entail adversity, but through it, we gain a deeper relationship with the Lord.

> 1:7 — You became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia.

he believers in Thessalonica were very young in the faith, but Paul saw their potential. If they remained firm in their faith, they could become a powerful witness to others in the region. He commended them for greatly inspiring others who heard their testimony. Obedient submission to the Lord, not age, is what makes someone a good example. As Paul told Timothy, "Let no one look down on your youthfulness, but rather in speech, conduct, love, faith and purity, show yourself an example of those who believe" (1 Tim. 4:12)

> 2:2 — After we had already suffered and been mistreated in Philippi, as you know, we had the boldness in our God to speak to you the gospel of God amid much opposition.

Ithough Paul and Silas had been beaten and imprisoned for their faith (Acts 16:16–40), they refused to stop preaching the gospel. The best place to find courage to express what we believe despite adversity—really, the only reliable place—is in God. Boldness inspired by the Spirit cannot be quenched by suffering or conflict.

> 2:7 — We proved to be gentle among you, as a nursing mother tenderly cares for her own children.

It may surprise us that the apostle Paul uses the image of a gentle mother tenderly caring for her children to describe his ministry. Yet it is an accurate picture of the way God wants to deal with us and how we should treat others (Is. 40:11). We cannot debate or coerce people into having faith, but with the love and humility of Christ, we gently lead them to Him (2 Tim. 2:24–26).

8 Having so fond an affection for you, we were well-pleased to impart to you not only the gospel of God but also our own lives, because you had become very dear to us.

9 For you recall, brethren, our labor and hardship, how working night and day so as not to be a burden to any of you, we proclaimed to you the gospel of God.

10 You are witnesses, and so is God, how devoutly and uprightly and blamelessly we behaved toward you believers;

- ➤ 11 just as you know how we were exhorting and encouraging and imploring each one of you as a father would his own children,
 - 12 so that you would walk in a manner worthy of the God who calls you into His own kingdom and glory.
 - 13 For this reason we also constantly thank God that when you received the word of God which you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of men, but for what it really is, the word of God, which also performs its work in you who believe.
 - 14 For you, brethren, became imitators of the churches of God in Christ Jesus that are in Judea, for you also endured the same sufferings at the hands of your own countrymen, even as they did from the Jews,

15 who both killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and drove us out. They are not pleasing to God, but hostile to all men, 16 hindering us from speaking to the Gentiles so that they may be saved; with the result that they always fill up the measure of their sins. But wrath has come upon them at the utmost. 17 But we, brethren, having been taken away from you for a short while—in person, not in spirit—were all the more eager with great desire to see your face.

18 For we wanted to come to you—I, Paul, amore than once—and yet Satan hindered us.

19 For who is our hope or joy or crown of exultation? Is it not even you, in the presence of our Lord Jesus at His coming?

20 For you are our glory and joy.

Encouragement of Timothy's Visit

- THEREFORE when we could endure it no longer, we thought it best to be left behind at Athens alone,
- 2 and we sent Timothy, our brother and God's fellow worker in the gospel of Christ, to strengthen and encourage you as to your faith,
- 3 so that no one would be disturbed by these afflictions; for you yourselves know that we have been destined for this.
- 4 For indeed when we were with you, we kept telling you in advance that we were going to suffer affliction; and so it came to pass, as you know.
- 5 For this reason, when I could endure it no longer, I also sent to find out about your faith, for fear that the tempter might have tempted you, and our labor would be in vain.
- 6 But now that Timothy has come to us from you, and has brought us good news of your faith and love, and that you always think kindly of us, longing to see us just as we also long to see you,
- 7 for this reason, brethren, in all our distress and affliction we were comforted about you through your faith;
- 8 for now we really live, if you stand firm in the Lord.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 2:11 — Just as you know how we were exhorting and encouraging and imploring each one of you as a father would his own children.

aul not only acted with tender care toward these young Christian believers, but he also disciplined and admonished them as a loving father would. God acts in both ways toward us as well (Heb. 12:5–13). He loves us but also instructs us in how to live the life He created for us. Likewise, when we lead others to the Lord, we must keep them accountable and teach them to follow Him in obedience.

> 2:18 — We wanted to come to you—I, Paul, more than once—and yet Satan hindered us.

Satan's opposition to the Lord's work is real and can definitely impede our progress, so we need to be aware of it. We must also understand, as Paul did, that the enemy's might is no match for the awesome power of the living God. The Lord can turn any disappointment into a blessing. We must never be discouraged by the enemy's schemes; God has a greater plan in mind. Rather, endure in faith knowing that the ultimate victory is His.

> 3:3 — So that no one would be disturbed by these afflictions; for you yourselves know that we have been destined for this.

Pe may wrongly assume that if God loves us, He will keep us from suffering. However, Scripture is clear: "All who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will be persecuted" (2 Tim. 3:12). Why? Jesus explains, "I chose you out of the world, because of this the world hates you" (John 15:19). But it is also because the Lord knows we learn more in our valley experiences than on our mountaintops. We face adversity just as Jesus did so that we may be transformed into His image and reflect His character to those around us (Acts 14:22; 2 Cor. 4:7–12).

> 3:7 — In all our distress and affliction we were comforted about you through your faith.

There is little so comforting as seeing your believing friends and loved ones growing closer to the Lord. Who might you encourage right now through your own maturing faith? Your example and testimony can help people to endure and stay faithful to the Lord during very difficult times (2 Cor. 1:3–11). Therefore when it is appropriate, share your experience with others.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT THE MAKING OF AN ENCOURAGER

1 Thess. 3:1-10

hat does encouragement mean to you? Can you recall a time when someone came alongside you for the sole purpose of lifting your spirits?

Sometimes it takes only one word, a smile, or a grasp of the hand to hearten someone who is experiencing a trial. Sometimes it means standing by someone during a particularly hard time and helping him or her not give in to despair. It feels especially good to know you're loved in those low moments when you cannot see clearly ahead or when you don't understand God's perspective and vision for your life.

Have you ever done that for a hurting person?

The Lord has given each of us special tasks within the body of Christ, and those with the gift of exhortation or encouragement can rejoice in their unique ministries (Rom. 12:8). But encouragement isn't strictly the domain of those to whom the Lord has given a special gift—it is the wonderful, God-given

It feels good to know you are loved. function of everyone who belongs to Jesus Christ.

In the early days of the church, new believers badly needed encouragement. Societal pressures mounted, persecution multiplied, and few had access to the apostles' teaching (1 Thess. 3:1–10). Very often, encouragement for the early church came in the form of a person—such as Timothy visiting the Thessalonians. The same is true today. Sometimes just the sight of a loved one can reinvigorate your spirits and remove your focus from your troubles.

The ministry of encouragement is indispensable, both to you and to the body of Christ. There's no such thing as a person who doesn't need encouragement. By seeking ways to daily build up those with whom you interact, you further the potential for meaningful, Christ-centered relationships. As Paul told the persecuted Thessalonians, "Encourage one another and build up one another, just as you also are doing . . . admonish the unruly, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with everyone" (1 Thess. 5:11, 14).

- 11 and to make it your ambition to lead a quiet life and attend to your own business and work with your hands, just as we commanded you.
- 12 so that you will behave properly toward outsiders and not be in any need.

LIFE LESSONS-

> 3:13 — So that He may establish your hearts without blame in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all His saints.

The Bible very often connects holy living with the return of Christ. We do not know when we will see the Lord—either by our deaths or because of His Second Coming. However, an eager anticipation of seeing Him face to face should keep us living productively and should inspire us to devote ourselves wholeheartedly to Him.

> 4:3 — This is the will of God, your sanctification; that is, that you abstain from sexual immorality.

God calls you to a holy life because He wants you to enjoy all the blessings He has for you. That means He puts boundaries on sex for your benefit—commanding that it be between a man and a woman who are married to each other because He cares about what happens to you physically. However, no matter what sin you've committed or what sexual addiction has trapped you, the Lord is never your enemy. He is your biggest advocate, and He wants you to experience His forgiveness, restoration, and sanctification.

> 4:4 — Each of you know how to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honor.

The primary reason God created us was for an intimate relationship with Himself. Actually, intimacy has nothing to do with flesh and blood—it is an issue of the spirit, having to do with knowing another on a deeper level. It is impossible to be sexually immoral with another and have intimacy with that person at the same time. Why? Because sexual sin is lust, which is inherently selfish. Intimacy, however, is based on love, which acts according to the best interests of the other person.

> 4:8 — He who rejects this is not rejecting man but the God who gives His Holy Spirit to you.

Many people refuse to accept Christ as their Savior because they don't want to live by His commands. They see godly principles as hindering their freedom—not protecting it. But be warned: although the enemy's temptations may promise immediate pleasure with no penalty, there are always consequences for sinfulness. The Lord's commands are for our good, and those who reject them deny the very wisdom of God.

> 4:11 — Make it your ambition to lead a quiet life and attend to your own business and work with your hands.

The spirit-filled Christian life should not be characterized by drama and disorder, but by the unfettered peace of God, steadfast self-control, and faithfulness to commitments (Gal. 5:22, 23). Though the storms of adversity rage in outward circumstances, the believer continues to experience the quiet inward confidence which can only come from the Lord.

(aul used the word asleep to describe Christians who had already died because our death is not permanent. In fact, Paul tells us, "To be absent from the body [is] to be at home with the Lord" (2 Cor. 5:8). Every believer will experience a bodily resurrection when we go to live in heaven with our Savior (1 Cor. 15:40–54). Because our Lord Jesus is alive and has a glorified body (1 Cor. 15:20), we know that we will also be raised bodily from the dead.

This should not be confused with the Second Coming of the Lord, when Jesus stands upon the Mount of Olives and establishes His kingdom on earth (Matt. 25:31–46). The Rapture begins the wedding supper of the Lamb (Matt. 25:1–13), and the Second Coming takes place after the banquet has concluded (Rev. 19:7—20:15).

he Lord Jesus Christ is the "Light of the world" (John 9:5). Once we receive Him as Savior, He illuminates our paths and shows us how to live lives that honor Him. Although His Second Coming will catch many unaware, as believers we should be prepared to welcome our reigning King (Matt. 25:1–13; Luke 12:35–44). Jesus' return should inspire us to keep working, not to become lazv.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

What does it mean to "pray without ceasing"?

1 THESS. 5:17

What did the apostle Paul mean by "pray without ceasing" (1 Thess. 5:17)? How is it possible to carry on with normal life if we do so?

First, the apostle did not mean that we should walk around all day mumbling to God. Rather, he taught that we can live in a constant attitude of intercession, even as we go about our daily routines. Of course, some days we'll pray much more than others. But regardless of the particular items on our "to do" list, we can maintain a natural, ongoing conversation with the Lord that encompasses our whole lives.

Should you pray about insignificant or mundane matters? Yes! God listens to every prayer. Since He is interested in every aspect of your life, He invites you to talk to Him about whatever concerns, interests, confuses, frightens, challenges, or in any way touches your life. You should ask Him to help you with

- ★ 9 For God has not destined us for wrath, but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,
 - 10 who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep, we will live together with Him.
 - 11 Therefore encourage one another and build up one another, just as you also are doing.

Christian Conduct

12 But we request of you, brethren, that you appreciate those who diligently labor among the small things like finding lost glasses or retrieving forgotten information. It is through such requests you learn that God is your gracious heavenly Father and you are His much-loved child.

Outsiders may consider such complete trust in the Lord foolhardy, but so what? Only through prayer can we tap into His limitless resources. Only by seeking Him can we test His promise: "If you ask Me anything in My name, I will do it" (John 14:14). Too often we limit our praying precisely because we do not cast ourselves wholeheartedly on His grace and mercy.

God has called us to be people of prayer, and regular communication creates intimate fellowship with our Savior. Through our time with Him, we discover His goodness, faithfulness, and wonderful direction for our lives. We also find the strength and wisdom for every turn on our paths so we can experience all He has created us for. When we develop a prayerful outlook, eventually our communication with the Lord becomes our first instinct in every situation—not only when we face a challenge or encounter a difficulty. And in time, it will never occur to us not to pray.

> 5:9 — God has not destined us for wrath, but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ.

How do we know that the church of the Lord Jesus Christ will not suffer in the seven-year Tribulation? Because the Lord did not ordain us for wrath, and none of the prophecies concerning the Tribulation in Revelation 4–18 mention the church.

> 5:14 — We urge you, brethren, admonish the unruly, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with everyone.

The Lord ministers to us in different ways, depending upon what we need most at the time. Some people are living outside His will and require His discipline. Others need His comfort and help to face a difficult trial. Regardless, God knows exactly what is necessary for us to mature in our relationship with Him. When we minister in His name to others, we need to ask Him to make us instruments of His grace and mercy.

> 5:18 — In everything give thanks; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

For us to be able to thank God in all things, we must be able to see Him in every detail of our lives. Our hearts should be grateful toward Him, even when we face difficulties, because we know He is intimately involved in our circumstances and will work everything for our good if we have faith and obey Him (Rom. 8:28).

> 5:19 — Do not quench the Spirit.

To walk in the Spirit and not quench His authority in our lives means we immediately obey His initial promptings. Every area of our lives has been brought into submission to His will. No matter what happens or what He requires of us, we do not complain or become upset. Instead, we follow Him in faithful obedience and joy.

> 5:23 — May the God of peace Himself sanctify you entirely; and may your spirit and soul and body be preserved complete, without blame at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

every person is composed of a spirit (the innermost part), a soul (the inner man), and the body (the outer component). Unfortunately, unsaved people cannot relate to God through any of these aspects because they are sinful and limited. Although they may have some general knowledge about the Lord, they cannot fellowship with Him. So Jesus died to save every part of us—so that we can know Him fully, even as we are fully known (1 Cor. 13:12).

> 5:24 — Faithful is He who calls you, and He also will bring it to pass.

Mhatever God calls us to do, He is faithful to bring it to pass. The Lord will not give us a task and then abandon us to figure out how to accomplish it ourselves. He assumes full responsibility for our needs and for the success of His plans when we obey Him. And He will ensure that all He has promised us will take place.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE

aul's first letter encouraged the Thessalonians, but after its arrival, additional seeds of false doctrine were sown among the church members, causing them to waver in their faith. Paul responded by writing this letter and clarifying the doctrinal issues that were causing so much distress.

The apostle begins by commending the believers on their faithfulness in the midst of persecution and encouraging them that their present suffering will be repaid in far greater measure with future glory. Therefore, even in the midst of their terrible trials, they should live confidently and with hopeful expectations of a bright future.

Paul then deals with the central matter of his letter: correcting a misunderstanding regarding the Second Coming of the Lord Jesus. False teachers were reporting that Christ had already returned for His church and that the Thessalonians had missed Him. So the apostle assured believers that the Lord had not yet come. As evidence, Paul detailed the extraordinary events that would take place after Jesus returned for them:

- The falling away of the church must occur (2:3). In the end times, the church will be apostate—a large portion of its membership will abandon the true faith, preach heresy, and practice ungodliness.
- The "man of lawlessness" must be revealed (vv. 3, 4). This extraordinarily ruthless and wicked leader will completely rebel against the Lord's authority. The lawless one is known by several other names in Scripture: the Antichrist, the Beast, and the son of perdition among them.
- The restrainer must be removed from the earth (vv. 6, 7). Who is the restrainer? Most likely, it is the Holy Spirit at work in and through the church.

So how were the Thessalonians to respond to this kind of prophecy? Paul admonished them to labor diligently for the gospel until the Lord returned.

As the second letter in Paul's Thessalonian correspondence, this was entitled Pros Thessalonikeis B, the "Second to the Thessalonians."

Theme: The return of Jesus Christ.

Author: The apostle Paul.

Time: Written perhaps six months after his first letter to the Thessalonians, A.D. 51–52.

Structure: After an introduction (1), Paul gives instructions regarding the Second Coming (2) and then suggests some practical applications of his teaching (3).

2 THESSALONIANS 1:1

Thanksgiving for Faith and Perseverance 1 PAUL and Silvanus and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

- 2 Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
- ▶ 3 We ought always to give thanks to God for you, brethren, as is only fitting, because your faith is greatly enlarged, and the love of each one of you toward one another grows ever greater;
 - 4 therefore, we ourselves speak proudly of you among the churches of God for your perseverance and faith in the midst of all your persecutions and afflictions which you endure
 - 5 This is a plain indication of God's righteous judgment so that you will be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which indeed you are suffering.
- *6 For after all it is only just for God to repay with affliction those who afflict you,
- > 7 and to give relief to you who are afflicted and to us as well when the Lord Jesus will be revealed from heaven with His mighty angels in flaming fire,
 - 8 dealing out retribution to those who do not know God and to those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus.
- ≥ 9 These will pay the penalty of eternal destruction, away from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power,

- 10 when He comes to be glorified in His saints on that day, and to be marveled at among all who have believed—for our testimony to you was believed.
- 11 To this end also we pray for you always, that our God will count you worthy of your calling, and fulfill every desire for goodness and the work of faith with power,
- 12 so that the name of our Lord Jesus will be ≼ glorified in you, and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Man of Lawlessness

- 2 NOW we request you, brethren, with regard to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering together to Him,
- 2 that you not be quickly shaken from your < composure or be disturbed either by a spirit or a message or a letter as if from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has come.
- 3 Let no one in any way deceive you, for it < will not come unless the apostasy comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction.

LIFE LESSONS-

1:3 — Your faith is greatly enlarged, and the love of each one of you toward one another grows ever greater.

The increasing persecution the Thessalonians were facing could have torn their fellowship apart. But because they were maturing in their relationship with the Lord and had submitted themselves to His leadership, the church remained unified. Likewise, a good way to tell if you are growing in your faith is to examine how you react toward your brothers and sisters in Christ. Does your love abound toward them? Do you feel a greater urgency to pray for them? Your love for God should inspire unity within the church.

> 1:7 — To give relief to you who are afflicted and to us as well when the Lord Jesus will be revealed from heaven with His mighty angels in flaming fire.

The believers in Thessalonica could not understand why they were facing such persecution and adversity. Why was God allowing wicked people to harass them? We may feel the same way. However, like the Thessalonians, we are not of this world (John 15:18, 19; Phil. 3:20), and God will vindicate us in due time. Until then, we eagerly await Christ's return.

> 1:9 — These will pay the penalty of eternal destruction, away from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power.

False teachers were telling the people that when a person dies without Christ, they merely cease to live or are destroyed in some way. But this is not true. Every person will exist eternally—believers in heaven with the Lord and unbelievers in the eternal lake of fire that is never extinguished (Rev. 20:15; 21:8). Even though hell is described as a place of "weeping and gnashing of teeth" (Luke 13:28), the worst thing about it is not the physical suffering that will be involved, but the intense loneliness of absolute separation from God.

➤ 1:12 — That the name of our Lord Jesus will be glorified in you, and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Gesus is glorified in us when we eagerly do His will by submitting to the promptings of His Spirit. We must honor Jesus as Lord and acknowledge that He is infinitely worthy of our service, because when we do, He receives all the honor, glory, power, and praise for the great things He does in and through us.

> 2:2 — That you not be quickly shaken from your composure or be disturbed either by a spirit or a message or a letter as if from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has come.

The church at Thessalonica was a young, strong, thriving church that was composed mainly of Gentiles. However, because of increasing persecution and false teachers who taught that Jesus had already come, the Thessalonians began to worry they had missed the Rapture. Of course, they had not. We should never allow the news of the day to shake our faith in the Lord. Instead, we should anchor ourselves with the truth of His Word and trust in His unfailing character.

> 2:3 — Let no one in any way deceive you, for it will not come unless the apostasy comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed.

The time is coming when many in the church will abandon sound doctrine and will instead endorse whatever

- 4 who opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, displaying himself as being God.
- Do you not remember that while I was still with you, I was telling you these things?And you know what restrains him now, so that in his time he will be revealed.

- For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only he who now restrains will do so until he is taken out of the way.
 - 8 Then that lawless one will be revealed whom the Lord will slay with the breath of His mouth and bring to an end by the appearance of His coming;
- > 9 that is, the one whose coming is in accord with the activity of Satan, with all power and signs and false wonders,
 - 10 and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved.
 - 11 For this reason God will send upon them a deluding influence so that they will believe what is false.
 - 12 in order that they all may be judged who did not believe the truth, but took pleasure in wickedness.
- ≥ 13 But we should always give thanks to God for you, brethren beloved by the Lord, because God has chosen you ^afrom the beginning for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and faith in the truth.

14 It was for this He called you through our gospel, that you may gain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 So then, brethren, stand firm and hold to the traditions which you were taught, whether by word of mouth or by letter from us.

16 Now may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us eternal comfort and good hope by grace, 17 comfort and strengthen your hearts in ≺ every good work and word.

Exhortation

- 3 FINALLY, brethren, pray for us that the \checkmark word of the Lord will spread rapidly and be glorified, just as it did also with you;
- $\overline{2}$ and that we will be rescued from perverse \checkmark and evil men; for not all have faith.
- 3 But the Lord is faithful, and He will strengthen and protect you from the evil one.
- 4 We have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you are doing and will continue to do what we command.

heresy seems popular at the moment. At that time, the Antichrist will be revealed and will completely rebel against God's authority. Many will be led astray by his lies. The way to combat this apostasy is always to stay close to Jesus and teach others the truth of His Word.

> 2:7 — The mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only he who now restrains will do so until he is taken out of the way.

aul taught that the evil world system that would culminate in the Antichrist was already active—even during his time. However, the Holy Spirit is faithful to actively restrain the progress of lawlessness in the world until the time comes for God's judgment to be poured out. Until then, the Antichrist will not be permitted to fully implement his rebellious schemes.

> 2:9 — The one whose coming is in accord with the activity of Satan, with all power and signs and false wonders.

Pe must anchor our faith in the Word of God, not in miraculous signs and wonders, which can be fabricated. Satan will often counterfeit astounding works to deceive the weak into forsaking Christ. Therefore we must know God's Word so that we can oppose Satan's lies and not be caught off guard.

> 2:13 — God has chosen you from the beginning for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and faith in the truth.

Then we place our trust in the Lord Jesus as our personal Savior, we are forgiven of all our sin. Although we are saved, however, we do not yet reflect the separated, holy life of a child of God. That is why sanctification is so important. We need the Holy Spirit to regenerate us—to teach us how to live a new life that honors the Lord.

> 2:17 — Comfort and strengthen your hearts in every good work and word.

God comforts us in our distress, not merely to soothe our feelings, but so that we will find the strength and wisdom to minister to others (2 Cor. 1:3–7).

> 3:1 — Pray for us that the word of the Lord will spread rapidly and be glorified, just as it did also with you.

There was so much to do—so many people to reach and churches to plant—that Paul must have felt overwhelmed by the task, especially with all the obstacles that confronted believers. However, he knew that God could get it done. If Paul stayed in constant communication with the Lord through prayer, He would maximize his time and give him the wisdom and energy needed to accomplish his part of the mission.

> 3:2 — That we will be rescued from perverse and evil men; for not all have faith.

It is possible that the evil men Paul referred to were the Jews of Corinth who rose up against him (Acts 18:1–15). When the Word of God is preached, some will accept its life-giving message, and some will oppose it. It was that way in Paul's time, it continues to be true today, and opposition to the gospel will exist until the Lord returns. It is perfectly legitimate to pray for protection against those who reject God's Word.

> 3:3 — The Lord is faithful, and He will strengthen and protect you from the evil one.

Sometimes people crumble under the threats of ungodly people and the warfare of the enemy because they are hange is never easy, especially when our choices affect other people. Change means important decisions will be made—which introduces the possibility of terrible mistakes and ongoing consequences. When we make those choices without seeking the Lord's leadership, we are headed for disaster. But when we pray to God, requesting His guidance and committing ourselves to His will, He moves in astounding ways to help us.

I remember the time when we needed to find a new property to house our "In Touch" television and radio ministry. Four months before we had to move, we found a building that we thought would be perfect. The only problem was that it cost $2.7 million. Several of our board members and executive staff felt good about the location and price, so they suggested we borrow the money for the property. Several others, however, rejected both the price and the idea of going into debt.

One Wednesday afternoon after that, a group of us met for a long time to discuss the move but were unable to come to any consensus. It was as if we were in a fog. We needed divine direction, and I knew we were not going to receive any sitting around that conference table. I asked my secretary to call Unicoi State Park and book some cabins for the following week. I understood that to stay there, we should have called four to six months in advance—it was unlikely they would have space for us. Ten minutes later, however, she returned and reported that we were all set.

On the morning we left for Unicoi, I asked a friend to negotiate with the owner to see if we could purchase the property for $2 million. I also asked our church administrator to see if we could possibly extend our stay at our current offices for six more months. Both told me they would do their best.

During the two hours I drove from Atlanta to the cabins, I thought and prayed. And God brought Zechariah 4:6 to my mind: "'Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,' says the LORD of hosts." I took it as a sign that He wanted to do something that we knew nothing about. So I prayed, "Lord, whatever You have in mind, please don't let us miss it!"

For two days, we did very little talking and a whole lot of praying. We cried out to God in desperation, realizing that a deadline was looming while our peace and unity were missing. During one break, I called our administrator and discovered that we had been given an extension at our current location—we had six more months before we had to move. That was great news. Later, my friend called to tell me that the owner of the property had agreed to sell it to us for $2 million. There was only one problem. The building had a tenant who still had another six months on their lease. Moving them out early would cost us extra. We just kept praying.

When we left Unicoi two days later, we still didn't have any clear direction about how to purchase the building, but we were committed to waiting on God. We were confident that He had something different in mind other than borrowing the money and that it had already been worked out.

When I arrived home, I had a message to call a man I had never met. He was an "In Touch" viewer who was interested in helping the ministry. I called him back and he said, "Dr. Stanley, I have had you and your ministry on my mind the past several days. I notice that you never ask for money on the broadcast, and I was wondering if you had any needs."

The Lord knows exactly what you need, and He will always answer your prayers as is absolutely best for you.

I didn't know whether to laugh or cry. I explained our situation and then told him about our prayer meeting. He asked how much the building cost. I told him I thought we could get it for $2 million. He said, "I think I can handle that." And he did. We closed about 90 days later.

Can you imagine the mistake we would have made if we had not stopped to seek the Lord's guidance and had failed to trust in His provision? Can you imagine the time, energy, and resources we would have wasted if we had tried to acquire that property in our own strength instead of God's?
